OBITUARY RECORD
OF YALE GRADUATES
1923-1924

NEW HAVEN
PUBLISHED BY THE UNIVERSITY
TWENTIETH SERIES • AUGUST 1, 1924 • NUMBER TWENTY-TWO BULLETIN OF YALE UNIVERSITY

Entered as second-class matter, August 30, 1906, at the post office at New Haven, Conn., under the Act of Congress of July 16, 1894.

Acceptance for mailing at the special rate of postage provided for in Section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized August 12, 1918.

The BULLETIN, which is issued semi-monthly, includes:
1. The University Catalogue.
2. The Reports of the President and Treasurer.
3. The Catalogues of the several Schools.
5. The Obituary Record.
YALE UNIVERSITY

OBITUARY RECORD

OF GRADUATES DECEASED DURING THE YEAR ENDING JULY 1, 1924

INCLUDING THE RECORD OF A FEW WHO DIED PREVIOUSLY, HITHERTO UNREPORTED

NUMBER 4 OF THE EIGHTH PRINTED SERIES AND NUMBER 83 OF THE WHOLE RECORD THE PRESENT SERIES CONSISTS OF FIVE NUMBERS

NEW HAVEN
PUBLISHED BY THE UNIVERSITY
1924
William Augustus Reynolds, B.A. 1852.

Born August 23, 1833, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, William Augustus Reynolds, a lawyer; son of Hezekiah and Martha Davenport (Wolcott) Reynolds; great-grandson of Thomas Goodsell (B.A. 1724) and of Alexander Wolcott (B.A. 1731); descendant of the Rev. Abraham Pierson, the first president of Yale. Mother, Jane D. (Lynde) Reynolds; daughter of John Hart Lynde (B.A. 1796) and Elizabeth Deall (Nicoll) Lynde; granddaughter of William Lynde (B.A. 1760); great-granddaughter of the Rev. William Hart (B.A. 1732); great-great-granddaughter of Joseph Blague (B.A. 1714) and of the Rev. John Hart (B.A. 1703); descendant of Stephen Hart, who emigrated from Braintree, Essex County, England, to Massachusetts about 1632, moved to Hartford, Conn., in 1635, and was one of the settlers of Farmington, Conn., a few years later. Yale relatives include: Rev. Benjamin Lord (B.A. 1714), and Elijah Blague (B.A. 1750) (great-great-great-uncles); John Hart (B.A. 1771) and the Rev. Frederick W. Hotchkiss (B.A. 1778) (great-great-uncles); Thomas G. Wolcott (B.A. 1783) (great-uncle); and the following cousins: Ebenezer and Joseph Lord (B.A. 1753), Lynde Harrison (LL.B. 1860), William L. Harrison, ex-'87 S., and Paul W. Harrison (LL.B. 1896).

General Russell’s Collegiate and Commercial Institute, New Haven. Scholar of the House for three years; Latin oration appointment Junior year; first Berkeley and Clark scholarships Senior year; salutatorian; member Phi Beta Kappa.
Obituary Record

Taught Greek at General Russell's school 1852–53; admitted to degree of B.A., ad eundem, at Trinity College, Hartford, 1853; had charge of the classics department in the Friends School, Haverford, Pa., 1853–55; studied philology at Yale 1855–57; conducted a private school in Philadelphia 1857–1861, was engaged in tutoring and writing in London for a few months during 1862, afterwards taught in Eltham, Kent, England, returning to the United States in September, 1862, lived in Paris from 1863 to 1891, serving as professor of the English language and literature in the Lycée St. Louis from 1871 to 1891, and also being connected with the Lycée de Vauves at Issy; Fellow of the University of France since 1871, had lived in London since his retirement from teaching in 1891, devoting his time mainly to the study of Sanskrit; author of several textbooks on Sanskrit and early English, and of a guide for field walks around London; member Roman Catholic Church, belonged to the Carmelite Order, being known as "Brother Joseph of St. Teresa"; attended the Church of St Mary of the Angels, Bayswater, where he served as an acolyte for fifteen years; secretary of the Class of 1852 from 1852 to 1854.

Married September 16, 1854, in New York City, Rosalie, daughter of the Marquis Alexandre F. deBelen, of Mons, Belgium. No children. Mrs. Reynolds died July 30, 1911.

Death due to apoplexy, complicated with bronchial pneumonia. Interment in the Cemetery of St. Mary, Kensal Green. Survived by a sister, Mrs. Henry Hamilton Finley, and a niece, Mrs. Edward Russell Thomas, both of whom live in New York City.

Augustus Hall Walker, B.A. 1856.

Born December 22, 1833, in Fryeburg, Maine.
Died June 16, 1923, in Bridgton, Maine.

Father, Capt. Isaac Walker, a farmer in Stow, Maine; took an active part in the affairs of the town, serving on the Board of Selectmen; connected with the military affairs of the state; son of James and Olive (Charles) Walker; descendant of Capt. Richard Walker, who came from England to Yale College

Lynn, Mass., in 1630. Mother, Eliza (Colby) Walker; daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth (Evans) Colby; descendant of Anthony Colby, who came from England to Boston in 1630.

Bridgton Academy; attended Bowdoin College for two years (1852–54) before entering Yale as a Junior in 1854. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Studied law for two years (1856–58) in Lovell and Portland, Maine, under David R. Hastings, William P. Fessenden, and Moses M. Butler, all graduates of Bowdoin; admitted to the bar in 1858; practiced law in Anoka, Minn., from 1858 until the summer of 1859, when he was called home by the fatal illness of his only brother; opened an office in Fryeburg in 1860 and practiced law there until the fall of 1861; then moved to Lovell and practiced there until 1881 (in partnership with David R. Hastings for two years); served as aide-de-camp to Major General William Wirt Virgin, under a state commission, in 1862; appointed judge of probate of Oxford County by the Governor and Council in 1867 (reelected in 1871 and 1875); moved to Bridgton in 1881 and continued in practice until 1919 [in 1893 his nephew, Edward Colby Walker (B.S. University of Maine 1878), became associated with him under the firm name of A. H. & E. C. Walker, and after 1905 Mr. Joseph B. Pike was associated with them under the firm name of Walker & Pike]; member of the State Senate 1881–83; president Bridgton Savings Bank 1892–1923; member board of directors Fidelity Trust Company of Portland 1910–1923; trustee Fryeburg Academy; attended the First Congregational Church, Bridgton.

Married (1) October 1, 1863, in Bangor, Maine, Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Samuel and Charlotte (Goodale) Thurston. One daughter, Alice Thurston (died in childhood). Mrs. Walker died February 16, 1873. Married (2) November 16, 1881, in Lovell, Mrs. Emma Thurston Wood, a sister of his first wife. No children by the second marriage. Mrs. Walker died December 23, 1921.

Death due to arterio-sclerosis. Interment in Mount Hope Cemetery, Bangor. Survived by a nephew, Charles Edward Abbott, and a grandniece, Elizabeth Walker Ingalls (Mrs. Ralph M. Ingalls), of Portland, Maine.
Stephen Decatur Doar, B.A. 1857.

Born in January, 1838, in St. James, S. C.
Died January 29, 1923, in McClellanville, S. C.

Father, Stephen Duvall Doar, a rice planter; son of John and Mary (Doar) Doar; descendant of John Doar, who came to America from Holland in the eighteenth century and settled at St. James, Santee, S. C. Mother, Charlotte Ann (Cordes) Doar; daughter of Dr. Samuel Cordes, a graduate of a medical school in Philadelphia, and Mary (Smith) Cordes; descendant of Dr. Antoine Cordes, who came to America from France in 1680 and settled in St. Stephen's Parish, S. C.

Coats and Miles School, Charleston, S. C.; Charleston High School. Entered Yale in July, 1854, as a Freshman; second colloquy appointment Junior year; member Alida Boat Club and Alpha Delta Phi; one of the Cochlaureati.

Studied at Medical College of South Carolina 1857-1860 (M.D. 1860); spent the next year in Paris, in further medical study; joined the Confederate Army in November, 1861, as a member of Captain Pinckney's Company of the Santee Mounted Riflemen; subsequently became Assistant Surgeon in Colonel Clingman's Regiment of North Carolina Infantry and served on the coast of South Carolina and in Virginia; transferred to Thornton's Battery, as Surgeon, Virginia Artillery, and served in that capacity until 1864, when he was ordered to take charge of the smallpox hospital at Wilmington, N. C.; remained there until the capture of Fort Fisher and the evacuation of Wilmington; surrendered with rest of army on April 26, 1865, at Greensboro, N. C.; engaged in rice planting with his father, who had large interests on the Santee River, at the same time practicing medicine without remuneration; moved to McClellanville, S. C., in 1878 and practiced his profession there and in the surrounding country until a few weeks before his death; vestryman and warden, St. James' Episcopal Church, St. Paul's Parish, Santee, during the greater part of his life.

Married (1) May 22, 1862, in Grahamville, S. C., Sarah Virginia, daughter of Dr. Thomas Edwards Screven and Cornelia (McNash) Screven. No children. Mrs. Doar died
September 8, 1864. Married (2) April 4, 1866, in Charleston, Jane Elizabeth, daughter of Christopher John and Jane Elizabeth (Screven) Gadsden. Eight children: Charlotte Cordes (Mrs. George D. Shore, of Sumter, S. C.); Harriet Gadsden (died October 19, 1903); Sarah Screven (died in infancy); Jane Screven; Stephen Duvall (died in infancy); Christopher Gadsden (died in infancy); Percival Ashe (died in infancy); and James Cordes (died in childhood). Mrs. Doar died December 1, 1882. Married (3) April 14, 1885, in Charleston, Harriott Rutledge, daughter of John and Ellen (Boylston) Toomer. No children.

Death due to heart trouble and pneumonia. Interment in Walnut Grove Cemetery in St. James Parish. Survived by wife; two daughters; two brothers, David Doar and Samuel Cordes Doar, both of Santee, S. C.; and two sisters, Mrs. William Lucas, of Columbia, S. C., and Mrs. George C. Heyward, of Bluffton, S. C.

Simeon Taylor Frost, B.A. 1857.

Born April 22, 1831, in Pleasant Valley, N. Y.
Died November 28, 1923, in Mount Vernon, N. Y.

Father, Jacob Frost, a farmer; son of David and Sarah (Hyatt) Frost; descendant of William Frost, who came to America from Binsted, England, about 1635 and settled at Oyster Bay, Long Island. Mother, Susannah (Wood) Frost; daughter of Isaac and Susannah (Taylor) Wood; descendant of Richard Warren, who came to this country on the “Mayflower,” and of Adam Winthrop, of Lanham, Suffolk, England.

Prepared at Charlotteville (N. Y.) Academy. Entered Yale as a Junior; second dispute appointment Senior year; member Presentation Day Committee and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Principal of Lewis Academy, Southington, Conn., April, 1858, to March, 1861; teacher of classics at Hudson River Institute, Claverack, N. Y., 1861–68; founded Amenia (N. Y.) Seminary for boys 1868, and served as principal until 1878; principal of South Berkshire Institute, New Marlboro, Mass., 1878–1884; also acting pastor of the Congregational Church in that town 1879–1881; principal of the Meriden (Conn.) High School 1889–1900, retired from teaching in 1902 and afterwards resided in Mount Vernon, engaged in lecturing and literary work; revised McNally’s Geography during 1878–79; gave course of lectures at the Chautauqua Institute 1881; contributed papers of original observations on natural history to Harper’s Magazine, and on educational subjects to the Reports of the Regents of the University of the State of New York; several addresses delivered before agricultural societies have been published; member Reformed Church in Mount Vernon.

Married August 19, 1858, in Verbank, N. Y., Phoebe Rebecca, daughter of Jonathan Edwards and Hepsibeth Maria (Vincent) Wheeler Seven children: Edward Wheeler (B.A. Harvard 1884); Laura Redington; Helen Vincent; Alice Thorn, James Hadley; Walter Archer (B.A. Harvard 1901, LL.B. University of Wisconsin 1904); and Robert Launitz (LL.B. 1904). Mrs. Frost died October 20, 1917.

Death due to old age. Interment in Verbank (N Y) Cemetery Survived by his seven children.

James Payne Green, B.A. 1857.

Born January 7, 1837, in Jefferson County, Miss.
Died May 13, 1924, at Gayoso Plantation, Jefferson County, Miss.

Father, Abner Everett Green, a cotton planter; son of Everett and Elizabeth Green; descendant of J. M. Green, who came from England to Maryland. Mother, Sarah Jane (Wood) Green; daughter of Colonel Wood, an officer in the Revolutionary War, and Nancy (Foster) Wood.

Cornish School, Natchez, Miss. Entered Yale as a Sophomore; dissertation appointments Junior and Senior years; member Nautilus Boat Club, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Professor of Greek and mathematics at Jefferson College, Adams County, Miss., 1857–1859, conducted a private school at Gayoso Plantation 1859–1861; served in the Confederate Army as a Lieutenant of Cavalry under General William I. Martin in the Natchez Company and later under General
Breckenridge in Kentucky; after the war became a planter at his old home at Church Hill, Miss., which was won from the Indians and Spaniards by his grandfather and great-grandfather; afterwards taught a private school in Port Gibson, Miss., for six years; while there he lost several members of his family in the yellow fever epidemic of 1878; the next year returned to Church Hill, where he resided for the rest of his life; member of the Episcopal Church.

Death due to the infirmities incident to old age. Interment in the family plot in Gayoso Cemetery. Survived by two sisters, Mrs. Fannie Payne Green, of New Orleans, La., and Miss Leila A. Green, of Church Hill, and a niece, Mrs. Grant G. Alexander, of Greenville, Miss.

Edward Thomas Elliott, B.A. 1858.

Born January 26, 1837, in Towanda, Pa.
Died March 29, 1924, at Clark's Summit, Pa.

Father, Thomas Elliott, a merchant; son of William Elliott; ancestors came to America from the north of Ireland. Mother, Olive (Fox) Elliott; daughter of John Fox and Mary Chapman (Fowler) Fox; descendant of Rudolph Fox, who came from the Palatinate about 1765 and settled in the Mohawk Valley, N. Y., and who, in 1770, with his wife, Catherine Elizabeth (Miller) Fox, settled near what is now Towanda (they were the first permanent white settlers in Bradford County).

Susquehanna Collegiate Institute. Entered Yale at the beginning of Sophomore year; dissertation appointment Junior year; oration appointment Senior year; member Phi Beta Kappa, Linonia, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Graduated at the Harvard Law School 1861; admitted to the bars of Massachusetts and Pennsylvania; practiced law in Towanda for several years; went to Brooklyn, N. Y., in 1886 and was engaged in the lithographing and advertising novelties business until 1894; was afterwards engaged in the same business in Minneapolis, Minn., until 1899; in London from 1899 to 1903 (residing during that time with a daughter at Upper Norwood), and in Bristol, England, from 1903 to 1906; since 1907 had not been engaged in active business; lived with a daughter in Hawarden, Iowa, and Sioux Falls, S. Dak., from 1907 to 1920, and since then at the Hillside Sanitarium at Clark's Summit; associate of the London Society for Psychical Research; member of the Towanda Presbyterian Church.

Married October 3, 1859, in Wysox, Pa., Mary Ann, daughter of Matthias and Mary Ann (Overton) Laning. Three children. William Hollenback; Anna Maria (Mrs. Charles Taylor Fox), and Mary Laning (Mrs. Elmer Ellsworth Maynard). Mrs. Elliott died September 20, 1863.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Towanda. Survived by his son and daughters.

Isaac Slayton Lyon, B.A. 1861.

Born January 31, 1837, in East Brookfield, Mass.
Died October 8, 1923, in Washington, D. C.

Father, Curlys Lyon, a farmer and manufacturer; son of Alvin Lyon, who came to America from England and afterwards lived in Woodstock, Conn. Mother, Sally (Slayton) Lyon, daughter of Isaac and Sarah (Walker) Slayton; descendant of Capt Thomas Slayton, who came to America from England and settled at Plymouth.

Prepared at academies in Wilbraham, Mass., and Charlotteville, N. Y.

Volunteered as a Private with the 11th Connecticut Regiment in September, 1861; promoted to Second Lieutenant March 25, 1862, and assigned to duty with the Signal Corps, promoted to First Lieutenant a year later; mustered out December 9, 1865; spent six months in an assessor's office in St. Louis, Mo.; held clerkships in Treasury and War departments in Washington July, 1866, to January, 1876; admitted to bar by Supreme Court of the District of Columbia.
December 27, 1877; with Department of Justice 1871-1885 (special agent until 1880; afterwards under Assistant Attorney-General in Court of Claims); practiced law in Washington 1885-1923, mainly in connection with the prosecution of claims before executive departments; member Congregational Church.

Married July 30, 1868, in Washington, Addie, daughter of George W. and Joanna M. (Dunkler) Thompson. Six children: Nettie Evelyn; Helen; Addie; May (Mrs. Richard Aubrey Johnson, of Warrenton, Va.); Jessie (died in 1878); and Robert Isaac (B.A. Dartmouth 1907).

Death, due to arterio-sclerosis, occurred after an illness of three weeks. Interment in Congressional Cemetery, Washington. Survived by wife and five children.

Frederic Adams, B.A. 1862.

Born October 9, 1840, in Amherst, N. H.
Died July 24, 1923, in Hollywood, Calif.

Father, the Rev. Frederic Augustus Adams (B.A. Dartmouth 1833, Honorary Ph.D. Princeton 1869); studied at Andover Theological Seminary, spent a few years in the ministry, and later served as principal of Dummer Academy, Byfield, Mass., and of the Newark (N. J.) Academy; son of Benjamin and Olivia (Everett) Adams; descendant of William Adams, who came to America from Shropshire, England, in 1628 and afterwards lived in Cambridge, Mass., and New Ipswich, N. H. Mother, Mary Jane (Means) Adams; daughter of Col. David McGregor Means and Catherine (Atherton) Means; granddaughter of Col. Robert Means, who came to this country from Stewartson, County Tyrone, Ireland, and settled at Amherst, N. H. Yale relatives include D. McGregor Means, '68, Edward P. Noyes, '80, and Atherton Noyes, '85 (cousins), and Arthur G. King, '10 (nephew).

Phillips-Andover. Two prizes in English composition Sophomore year; oration appointments Junior and Senior years; member Phi Beta Kappa and Psi Upsilon.

Studied law in office of Amzi Dodd, Newark, N. J. (1862-63), and at Harvard (1863-64); while in Harvard Law School won prize of $40 for a legal disquisition; entered law office of
Obituary Record

Foster & Thomson, New York City, fall of 1864; admitted to New York Bar November, 1864; in partnership with Joseph C. Jackson, ’57, 1864–66; moved office to Newark December, 1867, admitted to New Jersey Bar 1868, and practiced there until 1897, engaged especially in management of private trusts; made a counselor in 1873, judge of the Court of Errors and Appeals 1897–1903; judge of Circuit Court of Essex County 1903–1919 (retired on account of failing health); given a complimentary dinner by the Lawyers Club of Essex County in 1911, and, on the occasion of his retirement from the bench, a farewell reception, at which a silver service was presented by his associates; lived in East Orange until 1919; served as special master in chancery and clerk and counsel for township; home had been in Hollywood for four years; member Trinity Congregational Church, East Orange, until 1919, afterwards member Grace Church, Orange, and St. Stephen’s Church, Hollywood, at one time vice-president New England Society of Orange; author, “Reminiscences, Mostly Legal,” published in New Jersey Law Journal, 1922; honorary LL D. Yale 1899

Married (1) October 27, 1870, in Putnam, Ohio, Ella, daughter of John S. and Martha (Messer) King. Mrs. Adams died November 14, 1896. Five children: Constance (Mrs. Cecil Blount deMille), John King (M.D. Columbia 1902), Ellis (B A. 1902), Rebecca Appleton, and Frederic Atherton. Married (2) July 20, 1904, in Norfolk, Va., Ella, daughter of Morris Ketchum and Julia (Goddard) King, and a niece of his first wife, one daughter, Nancy.

Death due to pneumonia. Interment in Hollywood Cemetery. Survived by wife, six children, and four grandchildren.

Charles Nelson Ross, B.A. 1862.

Born December 25, 1842, in Port Byron, N Y.
Died November 24, 1923, in Hartford, Conn.

Preparatory training received in Auburn, N. Y. Second dispute appointment Junior year; second colloquy appointment Senior year.

After graduation was engaged in business at Kingston for a time; was subsequently president of the Auburn City National Bank and cashier of the First National Bank; was mayor of the city of Auburn 1874; in 1877 and 1878 served as treasurer of the state of New York; his mind became impaired some years previous to his death, and he had since been a patient in a sanitarium in Hartford.

Married December 12, 1866, Alice B., daughter of Nelson Beardsley (B.A. 1827) and Frances (Powers) Beardsley. Three children: Frances (Mrs. William B. Collier); Alice Louise, who married Dr. E. Gould Woodruff; and Cornelia.

Death due to chronic myocarditis. Buried in Auburn. Survived by children.

Edward Lawrence Keyes, B.A. 1863.

Born August 28, 1843, at Fort Moultrie, S.C.
Died January 24, 1924, in New York City.

Father, Major General Erasmus Darwin Keyes, U. S. A.; served on staff of General Winfield Scott; commanded 4th Army Corps in the Peninsular Campaign during the Civil War; son of Dr. Justus Keyes and Elizabeth (Corey) Keyes; descendant of Solomon Keyes, who came to America from England before 1653 and settled at Chelmsford, Mass. Mother, Caroline Maria (Clarke) Keyes; daughter of James Bayne and Eleanor (Fisher) Clarke; descendant of Captain James Clarke, who came to New York City from Edinburgh in 1743.

Prepared under a private tutor, Mr. H. B. Wheelwright, in Taunton, Mass. Second dispute appointment Junior year; spoke at Junior Exhibition; third dispute appointment Senior year; rowed on Freshman Crew against Harvard; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Sigma Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Obtained a commission as Captain in the U. S. Army, and served as aide-de-camp to his father, then in command of the troops in and about Washington, D. C., from June 25 to August 15, 1863; resigned his commission and studied medicine in the office of Dr. William H. VanBuren (B.A. 1838) and at the Medical College of New York University (M.D. 1866), continued his studies (specializing in dermatology) at the University of Paris for a year; upon his return to this country in 1867 opened an office in New York City, becoming associated in practice with Dr. VanBuren; in partnership with him from 1869 until Dr. VanBuren's death in 1883; gave gratuitous service as an attendant in Bellevue Dispensary from 1868 until 1872; from 1869 until 1890 was connected with Bellevue Hospital Medical College (assistant demonstrator in anatomy 1869-1870, instructor in surgery and assistant to the professor of surgery 1870-71, lecturer on dermatology 1871, adjunct professor of surgery 1875-1881, professor of dermatology, syphilology, and genito-urinary surgery 1881-1890, and adjunct professor of operative surgery); consulting dermatologist to the Out-door Poor Department of Bellevue Hospital 1872-76, visiting surgeon 1876-1890, and consulting surgeon from 1890 until his death; organized there and directed the first ward devoted exclusively to genito-urinary surgery in this country; professor of dermatology at the Woman's Medical College 1870-72, giving the first course of lectures on that subject ever given in this country; visiting surgeon to the Charity (now City) Hospital 1871-76, and consulting surgeon from 1876 until his death; consulting surgeon to St. Joseph's Hospital, Yonkers, N Y, and surgeon to St. Elizabeth's Hospital, New York City, retired from active practice in 1908; in 1876 revolutionized the therapeutics of mercury, and thereby the treatment of syphilis, by proving before the International Congress of Medicine at Philadelphia that mercury was a tonic in small doses; author of The Tonic Treatment of Syphilis, Venereal Diseases, and Thirteen Fallacies Concerning Syphilis; co-author with Dr. VanBuren of The Surgical Diseases of the Male Genito-Urinary Organs, published in 1879 and subsequently revised by him and later by his son, and since its first appearance considered the standard textbook on that branch of surgery; author of numerous monographs and essays on medical subjects; contributed articles to various journals, encyclopedias, and periodicals of medicine. and surgery on urology, syphilis, and dermatology, to the first of which his practice tended more exclusively in his later years; founder in 1886 (served as president for a year) of American Association of Genito-Urinary Surgeons; Fellow of the New York Academy of Medicine (vice-president 1891-94); president New York Surgical Society; member American Medical Association, International Urological and Dermatological associations, and New York Dermatological Society; corresponding member Association Française d'Urologie; orator in 1890 at opening of the present home of the New York Academy of Medicine and in 1910 of the James Buchanan Brady Pavilion of Urology of Johns Hopkins Hospital; became a Roman Catholic in 1874 and served at various times as trustee of the Roman Catholic Orphan Asylum and of St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York City; honorary LL.D. St. Francis Xavier College 1897; made Knight of St. Gregory by Pius X.

Married April 26, 1870, in Baltimore, Md., Sarah Maria, daughter of Hamilton and Maria Louisa (Ricaud) Loughborough. Four children: Hamilton (died in infancy); Edward Loughborough (B.A. Georgetown 1892, M.D. Columbia 1895, Ph.D. Georgetown 1901); Eleanor; and Agnes Franklin.

Death due to pneumonia. Interment in Gate of Heaven Cemetery, Westchester County, N. Y. Survived by wife; son; two daughters; nine grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Samuel H. Gibson, of Washington, D. C, and Geraldine von Pien/scykowski; of Davos, Switzerland; and two brothers, Alexander D. Keyes, of San Francisco, Calif., and Francis Corey Keyes, of Paris. A third brother, Winfield S. Keyes, '60, died in 1906.

James Buchanan Mitchell, B.A. 1863.

Father, the Rev. John Mitchell (B.A. 1821), a Congregational minister and writer; editor of the Christian Spectator; son of John and Abigail (Waterhouse) Mitchell; grandson of Captain Waterhouse of the Revolutionary Army; descendant of William Mitchell, who came from Glasgow, Scotland, to Preparatory training received in Stratford, Conn. Third prize in English composition and a prize for a poem Sophomore year, member Alpha Delta Phi.

Traveled in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia for a time after graduation on account of his health; entered the Columbia Law School in October, 1864, but ill health obliged him to withdraw after a short period of study; was engaged in private teaching in Stratford for a part of the time during the next six years; resided in New York City and vicinity 1870-75, except for a year (1872-73) which he spent traveling in Europe and in Louisiana and Texas; went to California for his health in 1875 and settled in Los Angeles, engaged in the real estate business there 1878–1884; then returned to the East for the purpose of perfecting and introducing an invention of his, the J. B. Mitchell fountain pen; resided in New York City until 1888, when he returned to Los Angeles; took the law examinations of the state and was admitted to practice in the Supreme Court; practiced in Los Angeles, becoming an authority on old Spanish grants, titles, and transfers; in 1910 was run down by a motor cycle and suffered a serious injury, in consequence of which he became a confirmed invalid and (1911) was obliged to give up his law practice; resided at Redondo Beach, Calif., from 1910 to 1918 and then went to the home of his nephew, James McDougall Mitchell, in Torrance, Calif.; the latter moved early in 1924 to Los Angeles, where Mr. Mitchell's death occurred; according to his written request, his remains were cremated.

Unmarried.

Survived by his nephew, whose wife, Catharine Bunnell Mitchell, at one time studied in the Yale School of the Fine Arts.

William Augustus Ayres, B.A. 1864.

Born October 16, 1841, in East Hartford, Conn.
Died December 8, 1923, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, Jared Augustus Ayres (B.A. 1835); teacher in the American School for the Deaf in Hartford; also an inventor; son of Jared and Dinah (Benedict) Ayres. Mother, Sarah L. (Wilcox) Ayres; daughter of Stephen and Louisa (Stevens) Wilcox. Yale relatives include an uncle, Dr. William O. Ayres (B.A. 1837), and a nephew, Charles C. Ayres, '13 S.

Hartford Public High School; Hopkins Grammar School. Second dispute appointment Junior year; third dispute appointment Senior year; member Varuna Boat Club, Brothers in Unity, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Taught in the School for the Deaf at Hartford 1864–66; studied medicine in Munich 1866–67; obliged to give up his preparation for the medical profession on account of impaired eyesight, made an extensive trip through France, Germany, and Switzerland; returned to the United States in 1868; engaged in translation and literary work until 1870; assisted his father in the invention and manufacture of a pump, and was secretary of the Hartford Pump Company from 1870 until 1877; reporter for the Boston Post 1877–1880; assistant editor Hartford Evening Post 1880–83; associated with Hartford Courant 1883–1895 (assistant editor until 1887, night editor 1887–1890, managing editor 1890–92, and editorial writer 1892–95); editorial writer and book reviewer for Hartford Times 1895–1921; Hartford correspondent for New York Tribune (1884) and for Springfield Republican (1885, and again from 1894 until 1921); contributed several chapters to the History of Hartford County, and published numerous magazine articles and short stories anonymously; member Asylum Avenue Congregational Church, Hartford.

Death due to arterio-sclerosis. Interment at Claverack, N Y. Survived by wife; two sisters, Mrs. William B. Penfield and Miss Mary B. Ayres, both of Mystic, Conn.; and a brother, Frederick H. Ayres, ex-’72, of Houston, Texas. Another brother, Henry W. Ayres, ex-’71 S., died in 1912.

Theodore Fitch, B.A. 1864.

Born March 30, 1844, in Franklin, N. Y.
Died November 15, 1923, in Massillon, Ohio.

Father, the Rev. Silas Fitch (B.A. Wesleyan 1838), a Methodist minister, also principal of Delaware Academy, Franklin, N Y., 1863–67; son of Silas and Clarissa (Howell) Fitch, descendant of Thomas Fitch, who came to America from Bocking, England, and was one of the founders of Norwalk, Conn., in 1651. Mother, Mary A. (White) Fitch; daughter of Nathaniel Smith and Anna (Seely) White.
Tale College

Attended Troy University 1859–1861; taught at Saugerties Academy 1861–62. Entered Yale as a Junior 1862; member Linonia (vice-president Junior year, president Senior year), Glyuna Boat Club, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Spade and Grave; dissertation appointment Senior year; a Commencement speaker.

Professor of Latin and Greek, Delaware Academy, Delhi, N. Y., 1864–67; read law in office of Judge Murray (county judge of Delaware County); admitted to bar May, 1867; practiced law in Yonkers, N. Y., 1867–1883, and in New York City 1883–1914 (partner with brother, Silas H. Fitch, Wesleyan 1877, in firm of T. & S. H. Fitch, 1880–1900), office building burned in 1914, and Mr. Fitch then returned to Yonkers, where he practiced until 1917; city attorney of Yonkers 1877–1883; moved to Wooster, Ohio, 1917; since then not in active practice; governor of New York Society of Order of Founders and Patriots of America for two years (registrar-general of General Court of the order for two years); secretary, and later vice-president, American Flag Association; member Empire State Society of the American Revolution and American Bar Association; served on executive committee of Trustees of Hudson-Fulton Celebration Commission; Alumni Fund agent for Class of 1864 from 1903 to 1919; secretary of Class 1913–1919.

Married February 4, 1869, in New Haven, Catherine Hawley, daughter of the Rev. Samuel Goodrich Coe (B.A. 1838) and Grace Ingersoll (Hawley) Coe, sister of Charles G. Coe, '67, and granddaughter of the Rev. Noah Coe (B.A. 1808). Four children: Grace Hawley (died in infancy); Frederick Coe (died in infancy); Mary Goodrich (Mrs. Robert Lee Beer, who died in September, 1921); and Frances Hawley (Mrs. Myron Sidney Crissy). Mrs. Fitch died March 10, 1923.

Death due to apoplexy. Buried in Yonkers. Survived by daughter; two grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Isabella F. Ellis, of Johnstown, N. Y.; and two brothers, James S. Fitch, of Yonkers, and S. Hedding Fitch, of East Orange, N. J.
George Frederick Lewis, B.A. 1864.

Born October 14, 1842, in Bridgeport, Conn.
Died June 25, 1923, at Stanford University, Calif.

Father, George Lewis, a carriage maker; descendant of Abram Lewis of Stratford, Conn. Mother, Jennet (Hubbell) Lewis; daughter of Abraham and Amelia (Burr) Hubbell; descendant of Richard Hubbell, who came to America from England between 1645 and 1647, lived for a time in New Haven, and died in Pequonnock in 1699; also descendant of the Burrs of Stratfield, Conn. Yale relatives include: Frederic C. Bishop, '92, Sheldon Catlin, '94 S., and George L. Catlin, '01 (nephews), and Sterling H. Bunnell, '91 S., and Frank S. Bunnell, '94 (nephews by marriage).

Day School, Bridgeport. First dispute appointment Junior year (spoke at the Exhibition); second dispute appointment Senior year; member Nixie Boat Club, Brothers in Unity, Gamma Nu, and Alpha Delta Phi.

Studied at the Yale School of Medicine 1864–65; then served for ten months as a medical cadet at the Dennison General Hospital near Cincinnati, and as Assistant Surgeon of the 9th Regiment, U. S. Colored Troops; afterwards attended medical lectures at Columbia University; M.D. Yale 1866, practiced in Bridgeport 1866–1887; one of the corporators of the Bridgeport Hospital, its first superintendent, first secretary and treasurer (1881–84), and a life director; at one time president Bridgeport Medical Association; vice-president and manager, New York office, Kansas National Loan Company of Wichita, 1887–1891, residing in New York City until 1889 and afterwards in Stamford, Conn.; practiced medicine and engaged in real estate business in Wichita, Kans., 1891–1903; president Kansas Humane Society 1893–94; trustee Fairmount College; since 1903 his home had been at Stanford University, where he practiced medicine until his retirement in 1907; member First Congregational Church, Bridgeport.

Married October 7, 1870, in Bridgeport, Katherine Sterling, daughter of William Rufus and Cornelia (Sterling)
Death due to cancer of the throat. Interment in Cypress Lawn Cemetery, San Mateo, Calif. Survived by wife, son, and two sisters, Mrs. Charles K. Bishop and Mrs. F. B. Hall.

Charles Fraser MacLean, B.A. 1864.

Born November 21, 1841, in New Hartford, N.Y.
Died March 20, 1924, in New York City.

Father, Charles McLean, a designer and manufacturer of cotton prints; born in Scotland; came from Glasgow to New Hartford. Mother, Anne (Waters) McLean; daughter of the Rev. John Waters and Wealthy (Doubleday) Waters; ancestors first settled in Galesburg, Ill.

Preparatory training received at Sand Lake, N.Y. Entered Yale as a Junior in 1862; oration appointment Junior year; dissertation appointment Senior year; member Nixie Boat Club, Phi Beta Kappa, Linonia, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Took a two-year course in philosophy and philology in the Yale Graduate School, receiving degree of Ph.D. in 1866; spent the next seven years abroad; was given the degree of J.U.D. at the University of Berlin in 1869; during the Franco-Prussian War was correspondent for a New York paper, accompanying General Sherman, the United States military observer, and being one of the first non-combatants to enter Paris after the surrender; came into personal contact with the German Emperor, General von Moltke, and Bismarck (was later appointed one of the three members of the self-perpetuating committee of the Ottendorfer Memorial Fellowship Committee, instituted to bring the United States and Germany into closer intellectual relations); had interviews with Marshal Mahon, Tiers, and Gambetta; was present at the signing of the treaty of Versailles; after the war represented the London Times in St. Petersburg for a short time; returned to this country in 1873, was admitted to the bar the same year, and entered the law office of Governor Samuel
J. Tilden in New York City; became his confidential associate and, with the late Aaron J. Vanderpool, was his representative in the canvass in South Carolina of the 1876 disputed election; trustee under his will 1913; practiced law in New York City for fifty years, except for a period of fourteen years (1895–1909), when he was on the bench of the Supreme Court of New York for the First District; was associated for a time with the law firm of Fullerton, Knox & Rudd; lecturer on public and private international law at Columbia University 1873–74, lecturer on principles of criminal law at New York University 1885–1897, active in local and state Democratic politics; drafted the rapid transit bill; was appointed counsel to the Board of Police Commissioners 1875; member of that board 1879–1880 and 1888–1894 (president 1888–1890); served as a park commissioner 1880–83 and as a health commissioner 1889–1890; chairman executive committee of the New York State Barge Canal Conference 1918; chairman special committee of Board of Trade and Transportation, which reported adversely on the plan for a treaty between New York and New Jersey for the creation of a joint port authority; member executive committee of New York State Waterways Association 1919; served as chairman of Selective Service Board No 128 of New York City 1919; vice-president Verein der Deutschen Studenten and the Germanic Museum; member American Bar Association, New York State Bar Association, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, New York County Lawyers' Association, American Academy of Political and Social Science, Westchester County Chamber of Commerce, Westchester County Historical Society (president for four years); New York Press Club, German Press Club, Lotos Club, St. Andrew's Society, Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York City (for forty years), and the Y. M. C. A. (for nearly fifty years vice-chairman of the State Executive Committee).

Married April 2, 1887, in New York City, Marie, daughter of Jordan L. and Mariana S. Mott. No children.

Buried in Kensico Cemetery, New York City. Survived by wife, a brother, John MacLean, of Utica, N. Y.; and a nephew, William Wallace Wotherspoon, of New York City.
Guillermo Colesberry Purves, B.A. 1864.

Died December 5, 1923, in Bryn Mawr, Pa.

Father, William Purves; secretary and treasurer, and later vice-president, of the Philadelphia Saving Fund Society; son of Alexander and Margaret (Colesberry) Purves; descendant of John Purves, who came to America from Berwickshire, Scotland, and settled at New Castle, Del. Mother, Anna (Kennedy) Purves; daughter of William and Susannah (Pugh) Kennedy; descendant of David Kennedy, who came to New Castle from County Antrim, Ireland; also of French Huguenot descent.

Prepared at private schools in Philadelphia. Member Brothers in Unity, Glyuna Boat Club, Delta Kappa, Alpha Sigma Phi, Psi Upsilon, and Scroll and Key; was one of the Cochleaureati.

Began the study of law in April, 1865, with John Barnard Gest, of Philadelphia; attended University of Pennsylvania Law School 1865-67 (LL.B. 1867); admitted to Philadelphia Bar and practiced his profession in that city until 1885; associated with Philadelphia Saving Fund Society from 1885 until his death (assistant treasurer for a year, secretary and treasurer 1886-1902, vice-president 1902-03, president since 1903); director Farmers & Mechanics National Bank, Insurance Company of North America, Mortgage Trust Company of Pennsylvania (formerly a manager), Philadelphia National Bank, Fidelity Trust Company, and Mutual Assurance Company of Philadelphia; former manager Land Title & Trust Company; president Union Benevolent Society and Philadelphia Lying-In Charity; treasurer Howard Hospital and Infirmary for Incurables; trustee Jefferson Hospital; director General Board of Y. M. C. A.; former president board of trustees of Calvary Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, and of 7th Ward School Board; member Central Committee of Alumni of the University of Pennsylvania, Board of Governors and Treasurers of the University Club of Philadelphia, Sons of the Revolution, and Society of Colonial Wars.
Married November 17, 1900, at Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., Elizabeth Cowan, daughter of Anthony and Fanny (Edwards) Gilkison, of Brooklyn, N. Y. No children.

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Woodland Cemetery, Philadelphia. Survived by wife.

Born September 3, 1841, in Jamestown, N. Y.
Died July 9, 1923, in Nebraska City, Nebr.

Father, Emory Force Warren, a lawyer and county judge of Chautauqua County, N. Y.; member New York State Legislature two years; son of Peter and Anna (Force) Warren; ancestors came from England and settled in New Hampshire. Mother, Timandra Jane (Sackett) Warren; daughter of David and Lydia Sackett.

Fredonia (N. Y.) Academy; Tufts College 1860–62. Entered Yale as a Junior; oration appointment Senior year; member Linonia, Beethoven Society, Varuna Boat Club, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Professor of mathematics and natural sciences, Caldwell Institute, Danville, Ky., 1864–65; employed by Freedmen's Bureau at New Orleans, La, 1865–66, at first as principal of one of their schools, and later as chairman of board of three directors having charge of management and control of schools for freedmen and children in New Orleans and vicinity; studied law in father's office in Fredonia; admitted to bar at Buffalo, N. Y., May 8, 1868; moved to Nebraska City, Nebr., November, 1868, and practiced there until his retirement in 1923 (member of firm of d'Gette & Warren 1868–1870; in partnership with Logan F. Jackson, under firm name of Warren & Jackson 1896–1900); county attorney 1874–76; city attorney 1887–88; member Board of Education 1884–1890 (president in 1889); held high offices in Masonic Fraternity; wrote letters in French upon political and other topics, published in Le Courrier des Etats Unis of New York; edited in collaboration with Charles M. Marchand, former head of French department of Wolcott University, An Advanced French Grammar. A Lexicologic, Syntactic, Philologic, and Literary Finishing Course for Colleges and Scholars (Brentano's, New York, 1922).

Married September 28, 1869, in Fredonia, Martha Amelia, daughter of Jerome Birdsal and Cornelia Mehetible (Potwin) Wygant. One adopted daughter, Gertrude Stella, wife of Franklin Henry Chamberlin, of Kansas City, Mo.

Death due to old age. Interment in Wyuka Cemetery, Nebraska City. Survived by wife and daughter.

Born November 15, 1839, in Granby, Conn.
Died June 16, 1924, in New Brighton, N. Y.

Father, John Richard Gaines, a farmer and millwright; ancestors came from England to New Haven in 1639. Mother, Sarah May (Bennett) Gaines.

Williston Seminary. Entered Yale with the Class of 1864 but left college towards the end of Freshman year on account of ill health; joined the Class of 1865 in May, 1862; second prize in English composition Sophomore year; high oration appointment Junior year; oration appointment Senior year; member Phi Beta Kappa, Gamma Nu, and Brothers in Unity.

Served in the 60th Regiment of Massachusetts Volunteers during the summer and fall of 1864, being stationed at Indianapolis, Ind., where his regiment helped to prevent the outbreak of the "Northwestern Conspiracy"; after graduation taught in a boys' school in Stamford, Conn., for a year; spent the next year as a tutor at Olivet College; principal of the high school in Wethersfield, Conn., 1868; taught in the Hartford Public High School 1869–1872; studied in the Yale Divinity School 1867–68 and 1872–74 (B.D. 1874); from 1874 to 1879 had a private school in Litchfield, Conn.; taught in Stamford, N. Y., 1879–1880; principal of Kimball Union Academy, Meriden, N. H., 1880–84; ordained to the Congregational ministry at Meriden, Conn., July 30, 1884; taught science in the Doshisha College, Kyoto, Japan, under the American Board, from 1884 to 1889, when he returned to America on account of his health and for the purpose of educating his children, was advised by his physicians to live in the West, and was engaged in fruit ranching at Los Gatos, Calif., for a short time in 1890; principal of the Whitin Hall School of the New West Educational Association in Santa Fé, N Mex, 1890–92; professor of science at the University of New Mexico 1892–96; president of Tillotson College, Austin, Texas, 1896–1904; principal of the Normal and Industrial Collegiate Institute, Joppa, Ala., under the American Missionary Association, 1904–07; principal of The Hermitage (a public school), Coffert, Va., 1907–09; since his retirement from active work in 1909 had resided in New York City, Bronxville, Mount Vernon, Yonkers, and New Brighton, N. Y.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by sons; daughter; seven grandchildren, three of whom are John M. Gaines, Jr., '24, William W. Gaines, '26, and Pierce W. Gaines, '27; two brothers, Leroy and Wilbur H. Gaines, both of whom live in Meriden, Conn.; and a sister, Mrs. Mary A. Warner, of Winsted, Conn.

Julius Adelbert Hoag, B.A. 1865.

Born May 15, 1840, in Norwich, N. Y.
Died April 3, 1924, in Elsinore, Calif.

Parents died when he was two years old. Was partially prepared for Yale at Oxford, N. Y., but principally by himself at home. Divided a second prize in mathematics Sophomore year; second colloquy appointment Junior year; member Linonia and Gamma Nu.

Studied law in Norwich for a year after graduation and then in Oxford; admitted to the bar at Binghamton, N. Y., September, 1867; moved to Paola, Kans., and practiced law there until 1890, being regarded as one of the leading lawyers of the state; served as a notary public, city and county attorney, and United States commissioner; in 1890, owing to the state of his health, went to California and settled in Elsinore, where he took an active part in civic affairs; served as city clerk, justice of the peace, and, for twelve years, as a trustee of the city (president of the board for several terms); was admitted to the bar of California, but never practiced there; owned and managed a fruit orchard for twenty years; retired from active business more than ten years previous to his death.

Married October 8, 1872, in Newark, N. J., Mary Ann, daughter of John R. and Catharine Jarboe, of Baltimore, Md., a sister of John R. Jarboe, '55, and aunt of Paul R. Jarboe, '91 L. Three children: Isabel (Mrs. C. A. Walker); Warner Adelbert; and Harry Trumble. Mrs. Hoag died December 2, 1883.

Death due to paralysis. Interment in Evergreen Cemetery, Elsinore. Survived by daughter, sons, and a brother, Milton Hoag, of Norwich, N. Y.

James Taylor Graves, B.A. 1866.

Born February 2, 1841, in Townsend, Vt.
Died October 28, 1923, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, the Rev. Horatio Nelson Graves (B.A. 1826), a Congregational minister; graduated from the Yale Divinity School in 1829; pastor in Middlefield, Conn., and Townsend, Vt.; agent of American Sunday School Union; son of Erastus and Rhoda (Rowe) Graves; descendant of Thomas Graves, who came to America from England before 1645 and settled at Hartford, Conn. Mother, Martha (Arms) Graves; daughter of John and Martha (Boltwood) Arms; descendant of William Arms, who came to America from the Island of Guernsey in 1674 and settled in the Connecticut River valley.

Williston Seminary. Entered Yale with the Class of 1865, but left at end of Freshman year to join the Union Army; served for a year as Corporal in 52d Massachusetts Infantry; reentered college as a Sophomore with the Class of 1866; Hurlbut Scholarship Freshman year; oration appointment Junior year; dissertation appointment Senior year; member Brothers in Unity, Gamma Nu, Alpha Delta Phi, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Traveled abroad for six months after graduation, later residing in Conway, Mass.; studied at Andover Theological Seminary, graduating in 1870; ordained April 13, 1871; pastor of the Congregational Church in Austin, Minn., 1871–73, and of that in Marshall, Ill., 1873–76; since 1876 had resided in Chicago, preaching occasionally, and being actively associated with the South Central Improvement Association; was widely read in several languages; had made metrical translation of the Psalms; during last year of his life had translated the last two books of the Æneid; left several books of unpublished poems on many subjects, member Hyde Park Congregational Church, Chicago.

Married October 24, 1871, in Percival, Iowa, Kate Irene Foster (M.D. Hahnemann Medical College 1885), daughter of William and Mary (Elliott) Foster. Mrs. Graves died August 12, 1922. Three children: James Arthur (died in 1914); Robert Elliott (B.S University of Chicago 1898, M.D. Hahnemann Medical College 1904); and May Louise (Ph.B. University of Chicago 1901).

Death due to arterio-sclerosis. Buried in Oakwoods Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by son and daughter.

Frederic Thornton Hunt, B.A. 1866.

Born June 20, 1846, in New Haven, Conn.
Died October 11, 1923, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Timothy Atwater Hunt; studied at Yale from 1822 until 1825; entered the Navy as a Midshipman; promoted to Commodore 1863; served in the Mexican and Civil Wars; son of John and Betsey (Atwater) Hunt; descendant of Nehemiah Hunt, an early settler in New York. Mother, Abigail M. (Bradley) Hunt. Yale relatives include: Leonard A Daggett (B.A 1807) and the Rev. James W. Tucker (B.A. 1807) (great-uncles), and James W. Tucker (B.A. 1836), Dr. David L. Daggett (B.A. 1839), Samuel E. Barney,
Tale College

Prepared at the classical and scientific school of Stiles French (B.A. 1827) in New Haven. Member Delta Kappa.

Employed as actuary in a marine insurance company in New York City, 1866-1877; since then not engaged in any business. Had traveled extensively, going abroad almost every year.

Unmarried.

Death due to apoplexy. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. No members of immediate family survive. Leaves two cousins, Mr. Clarence T. Hunt, of New Haven, and Mr. John R. Hunt, of New York City; and the following more distant relatives, Miss Eunice Barney and Miss Frances B. Barney, of New Haven, and Mrs. Frank E. Boswell, of Minneapolis, Minn.

Frederick Stanley Thompson, B.A. 1866.

Born September 6, 1843, in New Haven, Conn.

Died June 8, 1924, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, William Jared Thompson. Mother, Mary Esther (Hotchkiss) Thompson.

General Russell's Collegiate and Commercial Institute, New Haven. Member Glyuna Boat Club, Linonia, Delta Kappa, and Alpha Delta Phi.

Was night editor of the New Haven Palladium for several years after graduation; taught in Needham, Mass., 1867-68, in Mendham, N. J., 1868-69, in Guilford, Conn., 1869-1871, and in Lyme, Conn., 1871-72; member editorial staff of the New Haven Register from 1886 to 1889, when he was obliged to give up his position on account of ill health; from 1891 until 1903 was a substitute on the staff of the paper at intervals, but partial loss of sight in 1903 compelled him to discontinue his work; since then had not been engaged in any occupation; in addition to his loss of sight, had also suffered a severe injury to his hip, which made him a cripple; spent last years of his life in a private nursing home in New Haven and at the New Haven Hospital.
Unmarried

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by a sister, Mrs. William J. Weld, of New Haven.

Albert Elijah Dunning, B.A. 1867.

Born January 5, 1844, in Brookfield, Conn.
Died November 14, 1923, in Brookline, Mass.

Father, Elijah Starr Dunning, a farmer; son of Michael Dunning, whose ancestors came to Connecticut from England about 1640. Mother, Abigail (Beach) Dunning; daughter of Albert and Philena (Beecher) Beach; descendant of Capt. David Beach, an officer in the Revolutionary Army, and of Abijah Beach, who came to America from Stratford, England, about 1768, and settled at Bridgewater, Conn.

Attended Fort Edward (N. Y.) Institute 1860–61; graduated at Bryant and Stratton’s Commercial College, Albany, 1862; received final preparation for college at home. Entered Yale in May, 1864; two prizes in English composition Sophomore year; oration appointment Junior year; dissertation appointment and Townsend premium in English composition Senior year; editor-in-chief Tale Literary Magazine Senior year; member Linonia, Psi Upsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Graduated at Andover Theological Seminary 1870; ordained September 29, 1870; first pastor Highland Congregational Church, Roxbury, Mass, 1870–1881; secretary Congregational Sunday School and Publishing Society 1881–89; represented Congregational churches of the United States on International Sunday School Lesson Committee 1884–1901 (secretary 1897–1901); member International Normal Committee 1885, editor-in-chief The Congregationalist 1889–1911 (member of firm of W. L. Greene & Company, publishers of The Congregationalist); active in Chautauqua work (superintendent normal department of Chautauqua Assembly, superintendent of instruction Nebraska Assembly, associate superintendent New England Assembly, instructor in various other assemblies), member Boston School Board 1873–77, lecturer at Andover Theological Seminary 1881–82.
(also Southworth lecturer there 1915-16), lecturer at Atlanta Theological Seminary 1913; president Congregational Education Society 1915; member Massachusetts Pilgrim Tercentenary Commission 1915; leader Tremont Temple Bible Class 1889; taught Bible class for men and women, Old South Church, Boston, 1909-1922; for several summers, until incapacitated by illness in 1922, pastor-in-charge of the church; D.D. Beloit 1887; author: Bible Studies (published in United States, republished in England, and translated into Tamil language), The Sunday School Library, Congregationalists in America, and The Making of the Bible; contributor to Sunday School Times, Advance, and Golden Rule; wrote for Monday Club Sermons; editor Pilgrim Teacher 1873-77; member Connecticut Society of the Cincinnati; social leader of two tours abroad in 1895 and 1896; made trip around the world 1911; visited Europe fifteen times, and went twice through Mediterranean countries and up the Nile to Philæ.

Married December 27, 1870, in Kingston, N. Y., Harriet W., daughter of John Beekman and Harriet (Briggs) Westbrook. Four children: Harry Westbrook (B.A. 1894, Ph.D. 1897); Morton Dexter (B.A. Amherst 1896, M.A. Amherst 1905); Albert Beach (B.S. Harvard 1907); and Emily Beekman (B.A. Vassar 1903), the wife of Carl King.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Walnut Hills Cemetery, Brookline. Survived by wife; four children; eleven grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Helen Hawley, of Shelton, Conn.; and a half brother, Theodore Dunning, of South Dakota.

George Manierre, B.A. 1868.

Born February 3, 1845, in Chicago, Ill.
Died January 29, 1924, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, George Manierre, judge of the Seventh Judicial Circuit of the state of Illinois; an organizer of the Chicago Law Institute, the Chicago Public Library, the Chicago Historical Society, and also of the Republican party, the anti-slavery movement, and the Union Defense Committee at the beginning of the Civil War; son of John and Janette
(Lee) Manierre; descendant of Louis Manierre, who settled in New London, Conn., in 1785, and whose ancestors came from Normandy to America in 1680; also a lineal descendant on his mother's side of Lieut. Thomas Miner, one of the settlers of both New London and Stonington, Conn. Mother, Ann Hamilton, daughter of William Reid, a barrister of Glasgow, Scotland, and Mary (Drew) Reid, who came to America in 1840 and afterwards lived at Lake Geneva, Wis. Nephews: Egerton Swartwout, '91, and C. Edson Manierre, ex-'16.

Prepared at Lake Forest (Ill.) Academy. Entered Yale with Class of 1867, but left during Freshman year; reentered the following year with Class of 1868, of which he was a member for three years (in 1893, "in recognition of his studies in English and of his public services as a citizen," Yale conferred the honorary degree of M.A upon him, with enrollment in the Class of 1868); fourth lieutenant Freshman year, and third lieutenant Sophomore year, of the Varuna Boat Club; represented his class on the Thanksgiving Jubilee Committee Sophomore year, member Spoon Committee Junior year; member Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, Psi Upsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Attended the Columbia Law School for two years (LL.B. 1869); engaged in the practice of law in Chicago 1869–1870; since 1870 had been engaged in the real estate business in Chicago, on February 1, 1886, formed a partnership with Henry Dibblee under the firm name of Dibblee & Manierre (senior partner since Mr Dibblee's death in 1907); in 1894 elected a life trustee of the Field Museum of Natural History and in 1908 a patron, "for eminent services to the museum"; in 1899 made a life trustee of the Newberry Library; member Chicago Historical Society, governing member of the Art Institute; had collected a large library; author of an article entitled "The Manierre Family in Early Chicago History," in the Journal of the Illinois State Historical Society for October, 1915, and of an article entitled "Early Recollections of Head of Lake Geneva (Big Foot Lake), Wisconsin," in the Wisconsin Magazine of History (printed by the State Historical Society of Wisconsin) for December, 1917; member St. James Episcopal Church, Chicago.
Married February 9, 1876, at Fort Wayne, Ind., Ann Eliza, daughter of Alfred Peck Edgerton, a member of Congress, and Charlotte (Dixon) Edgerton. Five sons and one daughter: Jeannette (died in infancy); Alfred Edgerton (B.A. 1902, B.S. University of Illinois 1912); Louis (B.A. 1901, LL.B. Northwestern 1904); Arthur (B.A. 1903), who died in 1912; Samuel (died in infancy); and Francis Edgerton (B.A. 1907).

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Graceland Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife, three sons, and a brother, William R. Manierre, of Chicago.

Mase Shepard Southworth, B.A. 1868.

Born September 23, 1847, in West Springfield, Mass.
Died May 1, 1924, in Springfield, Mass.

Father, Edward Southworth (B.A. Harvard 1826), a pioneer in the writing paper industry; for thirty years treasurer of the Southworth Company; at the time of his death president of the Hampshire Paper Company of South Hadley Falls, Mass.; representative to the General Court of Massachusetts 1853–54; son of Dr. Abiah Southworth and Keziah (Boltwood) Southworth; descendant of Edward Southworth, one of the Leyden Pilgrims, who returned to England in 1620 and died the next year, and of his son, Constant Southworth, of Plymouth, Mass., whose mother, Alice Southworth, came as a widow from England with her two sons and married Governor William Bradford; descendant also of Edward Southworth, of Bridgewater, Mass., whose mother, Desire Gray, was a granddaughter of Mary Chilton Winslow, of the “Mayflower” company. Mother, Anna Elizabeth (Shepard) Southworth; daughter of the Rev. Mase Shepard (B.A. Dartmouth 1785) and Deborah (Haskins) Shepard. Yale relatives include the following cousins: Edward Boltwood, '60, Horatio W. Southworth, ex-'61, Charles U. Shepard, '63, Thomas K. Boltwood, '64, Edward W. Southworth, '75, Louis S. deForest, '79, George S. Boltwood, '82, Lucius Boltwood, '83, Charles W. Boltwood, '90, Bertram B. Boltwood, '92 S., Wells S. Hastings, '02,
Obituary Record

L. Effingham deForest, '12, C. Shepard deForest, '12 S., and Constant Southworth, ex-'19 S.
Phillips-Andover. Member Kappa Sigma and Delta Beta Xi.

Left college at the end of Junior year; studied chemistry at the University of Gottingen 1867-1871; transferred to the University of Tubingen 1871; received the degree of Ph.D. there 1873, the following year made a trip around the world with his brother and a cousin; upon his return to this country in 1874 became a student in the laboratory of Professor Ira Remsen (L.L.D. 1901) at Williams College; in 1876, when Professor Remsen went to Johns Hopkins University, Dr. Southworth succeeded him as professor of chemistry; occupied the chair for five years, resigning in order to engage in further study and travel; received the honorary degree of M.A. from Yale in 1877, with enrollment in the Class of 1868; in 1889 settled in Springfield, becoming identified with many business interests, during the last five years of his life was associated with his brother-in-law, Louis Mallory, in the real estate business; had been a director of the old Agawam National Bank and vice-president of the Springfield Board of Trade; at the time of his death was a director of the Springfield Fire & Marine Insurance Company, a trustee of the Hampden Savings Bank and the Union Relief Association, secretary of the Southworth Paper Company, and a vestryman of Christ Episcopal Church (treasurer of diocesan missions 1905-1910); he was the last of the original members of the Literary Club, in 1875, and annually for four years thereafter, he presented, with his brother, the late George C. S. Southworth, '63, a silver cup—called the Southworth Cup—valued at $250, for single scull races; it is believed that this had a marked influence on Yale's success in rowing at that time and later Married November 25, 1879, in New York City, Mary Virginia, daughter of William Henry and Mary Ann (Mellis) Mallory. No children.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage Buried in White Church Cemetery, West Springfield. Survived by wife; two half sisters, Mrs. Ansley Chestley Stevens, of Oakland, Calif., and Miss Alice H. Southworth, of Southern Pines, N. C.; and a half brother, Dr. Thomas S. Southworth, '83. Another half brother, Edward Southworth, '79, died in 1882.

Henry Harrison Burnham, B.A. 1869.

Born August 2, 1845, in Coventry, R. I.
Died May 28, 1924, in Baltimore, Md.

Father, Andrew Clark Burnham, a farmer, son of Bishop and Elizabeth H. (Clark) Burnham, descendant of Lieut. Thomas Burnham, who came from England to Ipswich, Mass., in 1635. Mother, Cynthia Cruff (Remington) Burnham; daughter of Thomas and Patience (Matteson) Remington; descendant of Thomas Remington, who came to America from England about 1700 and settled in Rhode Island.

Phillips-Andover. Member Kappa Sigma Epsilon.

Spent first two years after graduation in the law office of Jeremiah Halsey in Norwich, Conn.; admitted to the Connecticut Bar in 1871 and practiced law in Norwich and Jewett City, Conn., from that time until his death; judge of the Jewett City Court 1900–1916; served as prosecuting agent for New London County 1884–1910; member Congregational Church in Newent, Conn.

Married November 23, 1871, in Kinsman, Ohio, Sophia Lydia, daughter of Elisha Huntington and Lydia Kent (Burnham) Bennett. Four children: Alfred Huntington; Helen Louise (died in infancy); Philip Theodore; and Charles Frederick. Mrs. Burnham died December 21, 1906.

Death, due to myocardial insufficiency, occurred at the home of his eldest son. Buried in the Yantic Cemetery, Norwich. Survived by three sons.
William Henry Hinkle, B.A. 1869.

Born August 31, 1846, in Cincinnati, Ohio.
Died November 18, 1923, at Clifton Springs, N. Y.

Father, Anthony Hughes Hinkle, a publisher of school books, son of Anthony and Elizabeth (Hughes) Hinkle; descendant of the Rev. Anthony Jacob Henkel, who came to America from Frankfort, Germany, in 1717 and settled in Hanover Township (now New Hanover), Pa. Mother, Frances (Schillinger) Hinkle; daughter of William and Alisana (Armstrong) Schillinger; descendant of Cornelius Skellinks, who came to America from Holland about 1675 and settled at Cape May, N. J., subsequently changing his name to Cornelius Schillinger. Yale relatives include: Charles M. Hinkle, '87 (brother); Thornton M. Hinkle, '63, Henry J. Sage, '89, Frederick W. Hinkle, '92, Philip Hinkle, '97, and Donald H. Sage, '18 (cousins); and Anthony H. Hinkle, Jr., ex-'04 S., Charles A. Hinkle, ex-'19, and James G. Hinkle, '21 (nephews)

Chickering Institute, Cincinnati. Member Junior Exhibition Committee; Wooden Spoon orator; director Yale University Baseball Club, Junior year; member Delta Beta Xi, Delta Kappa, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Connected with Wilson, Hinkle & Company, publishers (founded by his father), from 1869 until 1876, when he was obliged to give up all business for a time on account of ill health, went to Minneapolis, Minn., in 1877, formed the firm of W. H. Hinkle & Company, and bought the Holly Flouring Mills, organized and operated the Holly Flour Mill Company and the Humboldt Mill Company 1878–1895; in 1878 organized the Ashland Iron & Steel Company (served as secretary and treasurer) and, in company with his brother, erected the Hinkle charcoal blast furnace at Ashland, Wis., operated by the Ashland Iron & Steel Company, retaining, however, his interest in the flour business; moved to Ashland in 1895; in 1901 erected charcoal works and a wood products chemical works there, in connection with the blast furnace; retired from active business and returned to Cincinnati 1905; second vice-president Northern Iron & Chemical Company (formerly Lake Superior Iron & Chemical Company); member Protestant Episcopal Church.

Married September 24, 1874, in Cincinnati, Lucile Agniel, daughter of Dr. Henry Edward Foote, a professor in the Ohio Medical College and one of the founders of the Miami Medical College, and Louise (Agniel) Foote. One son, Edward Foote (B.A. 1899).

Death due to throat trouble. Buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati. Survived by wife and son.

George Henry Lawrence, B.A. 1869.

Born February 17, 1848, in Keeseville, N. Y.
Died October 22, 1923, in Milwaukee, Wis.

Father, Judah Monis Lawrence; ancestors came from England in 1637. Mother, Sarah E (Bancroft) Lawrence. Yale relatives: Lawrence VanDyke, ’00, and Douglass VanDyke, ’03 (nephews).

Phillips-Exeter. Member Delta Kappa, Delta Beta Xi, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

After graduation traveled in Europe for a year and a half, returning in December, 1870; was then teller in the National City Bank of Milwaukee for about three years, spent another year in foreign travel (1875-76), after which he studied law in Milwaukee; was admitted to the bar in October, 1877, and opened an office in Milwaukee for the practice of law and the management of real estate and investments; went to Colorado in the spring of 1882 and remained for some time, being engaged for a while in mining at Aspen, since then had not been actively engaged in any business, aside from the management of his own affairs and property.

Unmarried.

Survived by a sister, Mrs. George Douglass VanDyke, of Milwaukee
John Mowry Thayer, B.A. 1869.
Born March 15, 1847, in New Boston, Conn.
Died January 13, 1924, in Norwich, Conn.

Father, Charles Dexter Thayer, a merchant and farmer; served as a town assessor and selectman and as a director of the First National Bank of Thompson, Conn; son of John and Ruth (Mowry) Thayer; descendant of Thomas Thayer, who came from England to Braintree, Mass, before 1639, and of his son, Ferdinando Thayer, who came to America with his father and after the latter's death in 1665 moved to Mendon, Mass. Mother, Lucy Elliott (Nichols) Thayer; daughter of David and Rachel (Jewett) Nichols. Cousin, John R. Thayer, '69.

Nichols Academy, Dudley, Mass. Second colloquy appointment Junior year.

Studied law in the office of Judge James A. Hovey in Norwich until September, 1871, when he was admitted to the Connecticut Bar; admitted to Iowa Bar October 6, 1871; practiced in Burlington, Iowa, until August, 1872; returned to Norwich and was associated with Judge Hovey in the firm of Hovey & Thayer until November, 1876; member "third house" of Connecticut Legislature in spring of 1874; judge of Norwich City Court 1875-77; practiced independently 1876-1881, in partnership with his brother, Charles F. Thayer, under name of Thayer & Thayer, 1881-89; was also state's attorney for New London County 1883-89, judge of Superior Court of Connecticut 1889-1907; associate judge of Supreme Court of Errors 1907-1917, when he was retired by age limitation, served as a state referee from 1917 until his death, former member Democratic State Central Committee; during World War was chairman of Local Board No. 10 of New London County, under the Selective Service Law, from May, 1917, to March, 1919; member Christ Episcopal Church, Norwich.

Unmarried.

Death, due to pemphigus, a rare skin disease, occurred at the W. W. Backus Hospital in Norwich. Cremation at Springfield, Mass, ashes eventually to be placed in family plot at New Boston. Was the last male member of his immediate family; survived by three nieces, two of whom (Mrs. Nelson Case Taintor, whose husband graduated at Yale in 1909, and Mrs. Harry Dunlop, of Norwich) are daughters of his brother, Charles F. Thayer; the third niece, Mrs. George R. Stobbs, of Worcester, Mass, is a daughter of Mr. Thayer’s sister, Mrs. Arrilla R. Murdock.

Eli Whitney, B.A. 1869.

Born January 22, 1847, in New Haven, Conn.
Died June 12, 1924, in New Haven, Conn.

Preparatory training received under Josiah Clark (B.A. 1833), of Northampton, Mass. Member Wooden Spoon Committee, Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, Psi Upsilon, and Scroll and Key.

After graduation spent one term studying at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and the rest of that year at the Sheffield Scientific School; accompanied Professor Othniel C. Marsh on a trip to the West in search of geological specimens in the summer of 1870; became associated with his father in the manufacture of firearms in the Whitney Arms Company (founded by his grandfather) 1871; was engaged in that business until 1888 (vice-president 1880–88), when it was sold to the Winchester Repeating Arms Company; president of the New Haven Water Company 1894–1924 and chairman of the board of directors (a position created for him) from February, 1924, until his death; president of the West Haven Water Company since 1900 and of the Milford Water Company since 1907; served as alderman and park commissioner 1883–85, as a member of the Board of Public Works 1885–1890, and as a member of the Board of Education 1891–94 and 1897–1909 (president during the latter period); president of the Union & New Haven Trust Company 1911–18 and chairman of the board from 1918 until his death, vice-president and president of the City Bank (recently consolidated with other banks); trustee of the Connecticut Savings Bank from 1894 until his death, director New Haven Bank (1915–19), New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company (1912–18), Central New England Railroad Company, New Haven Gas Light Company, and Security Insurance Company; member of the State Senate 1904 and 1905; served on several of the state commissions; president of the New Haven Hospital 1901–1918 (director from 1886 until his death); member finance committee of the General Hospital Society of Connecticut in 1923, vice-president of the New Haven Dispensary, the New Haven Chamber of Commerce (1909–1911), and the New Haven Colony Historical Society (elected 1898); member of the committee appointed to draft a new charter for the city of New Haven 1893, chairman of the Society's Committee of Center (Congregational) Church 1908–1914; president of the former New Haven Horticultural Society; member of the Yale Corporation 1901–1919 (served on its Prudential Committee for many years), associate member Institute of Mining Engineers; member Sons of the American Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, and Society of the War of 1812.

Married October 22, 1873, in New Haven, Sarah Sheffield, daughter of Henry Farnam (Honorary M A 1871) and Ann Sophia (Whitman) Farnam, and sister of William W. Farnam (B.A. 1866), Charles H. Farnam (B.A. 1868), George B. Farnam (M.D. 1869), and Professor Henry W. Farnam (B.A. 1874). Seven children: Anne Farnam, who married Thomas M. Debevoise, '95; Henrietta Edwards, who was married in 1904 to Dr. Leonard C. Sanford, '90; Sarah Tracy, who was Dr. Sanford's first wife and who died in 1901; Elizabeth Fay; Louise Huntington (Mrs. Gourdin Young Gaillard); Susan Brewster; and Frances Pierpont (Mrs. Earl Wall Knight).

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. A vote passed by the Yale Corporation on June 14 reads in part as follows: "... he was untiring in his desire to promote the welfare of the University. Always public spirited, he will long be remembered by the citizens of New Haven for the many services also rendered by him to the City and to the State of Connecticut. ... Beloved and honored alike in the University and community, Yale has reason always gratefully to recall him as a benefactor and as one who by his work and by the example set by him, as well as by his gifts, sought to realize for Yale the ideals of its founders. ..." By the terms of his will $4,500 is to be added to the Whitney Fund, given to Yale by his grandfather in 1823, the income of which is to be applied to the purchase of books relative to practical mechanics and mechanical and physical science generally.

Survived by wife; six daughters; and seven grandchildren, two of whom are Eli Whitney Debevoise, '21, and William F. Sanford, 1927.

George Chase, B.A. 1870.

Born December 29, 1849, in Portland, Maine.
Died January 8, 1924, in New York City.

Father, David Tappan Chase, a merchant, descendant of Aquila Chase, who came to New Hampshire from Chesham, England, in 1639, and was a founder of the town of Hampton, afterwards moving to Newbury, Mass. Mother, Martha Emeline (Haynes) Chase; descendant of Mary Chilton of the "Mayflower" company, who married John Winslow, a brother of Edward Winslow, governor of Plymouth Colony; the first American ancestors of the Haynes family came to America from England and settled in New York State.
Obituary Record

Portland High School. Philosophical oration appointment Junior year, speaker at the Exhibition; premium for English composition, Townsend Prize, and third prize in Brothers in Unity debate Senior year; valedictorian; member Brothers in Unity, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Taught in the classical department of the University Grammar School, New York City, for three years after graduation; studied law at Columbia (1871-73), being given the first prize for excellence in municipal law and receiving the degree of LL B. in 1873; admitted to New York Bar in 1873; connected with Columbia Law School 1874-1891 (lecturer on torts for a year, assistant professor of municipal law 1875-78, and then professor of criminal law, torts, and procedure), resigned his professorship in 1891 and, obtaining a charter from the regents of the state and appointing his own trustees, founded the New York Law School, the object of its organization being to perpetuate the special method of legal instruction of Dr. Theodore W. Dwight (B.A. Hamilton 1840, Honorary LL D. Yale 1892), for over thirty years professor of municipal law at Columbia; served as dean of the school until his death, during his long illness of over three years directing its affairs from his home [at the same time that he resigned his professorship at Columbia, four hundred alumni of the Columbia Law School formed the Dwight Alumni Association of the New York Law School, which continued in existence until during the World War, when it disbanded]; author of Chase's Cases on Torts and American Students' Blackstone, editor Stephen's Digest of the Law of Evidence and Chase's New York Code of Civil Procedure; editor of the New York Law Journal for several years; an assistant editor of Johnson's Universal Encyclopedia; member American Bar Association, New York State Bar Association, Bar Association of the City of New York, American Academy of Political and Social Science, New York Academy of Political Science, American Social Science Association, American Geographical Society, and New York Historical Association.

Death due to heart disease. Interment in Evergreen Cemetery, Portland. Survived by a sister, Miss Jessie Chase, of New York City.

Elisha Jay Edwards, B.A. 1870.

Born November 10, 1847, in Norwich, Conn.
Died April 25, 1924, in Greenwich, Conn.

Father, Elisha Edwards, for twenty-five years a manufacturer of blank books at Norwich; member of the firm of L. & E. Edwards, a wholesale and retail book firm in New York City; son of Josiah and Rhoda (Bulkley) Edwards; descendant of William Edwards, who settled at Easthampton, Long Island, about 1650. Mother, Lauretta Ann (Strong) Edwards; daughter of Shubael and Lydia Ann (Bailey) Strong; descendant of Elder John Strong of Northampton, Mass., who came from England to Boston in 1630, was a founder of Dorchester, Mass., in 1635, moved to Taunton, Mass., in 1638, and later to Windsor, Conn., and was one of the first settlers of Northampton in 1659.

Norwich Free Academy and Hillhouse High School. Member Gamma Nu and Linonia; won third prize in Linonia Senior debate.

City editor of the New Haven Palladium 1870-73; studied in the Yale School of Law 1872-73 (LL.B. 1873); admitted to the bar July, 1873, and practiced law in New Britain, Conn., for a short time; proprietor and editor of the Elm City Press from August to December, 1873; managing editor of the Norwich Bulletin 1874-75; was connected with the Hartford Courant in 1876; a reporter for the New York Sun 1877-1880; served as Washington correspondent for the Sun 1881-84, and as editor of its evening edition 1888-89; became a special writer for several newspapers in 1890, over the nom de plume of "Holland" had daily letters for a number of years in the Boston Herald, the Wall Street Journal, the Philadelphia Public Ledger, the Cincinnati Enquirer, the Chicago Tribune, and the Minneapolis Tribune; published under his own name "Historical Anecdotes” in some thirty papers, including the New York Mail; had frequent articles in the Sunday edition of the New York Times, and had contributed numerous articles to McClure's Magazine, Munsey's Magazine, and the Bankers' Journal, member Protestant Episcopal Church, Greenwich.
Obituary Record

Married October 10, 1872, in New Haven, Anna Scribner, daughter of Edward Benedict and Elizabeth (Northrop) Jones.
Three sons. Walter Strong (B.A. Columbia 1897, Mus.B.
Yale 1920), Charles Hebard (B.A. Columbia 1898, LL.B.
Columbia 1900); and Elisha Jay, Jr. (B.A Columbia 1901).

Death due to apoplexy. Interment in the Yantic Cemetery, Norwich Survived by wife, sons, five grandchildren, and a brother, Lucian B. Edwards, '75 L.

George Lewis Huntress, B.A. 1870.

Born April 4, 1847, in Lowell, Mass.
Died March 24, 1924, in Boston, Mass.

Father, James Lewis Huntress, a hotel keeper; son of Joseph Patterson and Sally (Chesley) Huntress, great-great-grandson of Christopher Huntress, who was a volunteer from New Hampshire against Louisburg in 1745; descendant of the Furbers and Chesleys of Durham and Newington, N.H., including General Richard Furber, Ensign Richard
Furber, Capt. Samuel Furber, and Capt Theodore Furber, Revolutionary War officers Mother, Harriet (Paige) Huntress; daughter of David and Elizabeth (Stinson) Paige; great-granddaughter of Major Caleb Paige, who carried the King’s commission under Wolfe at Quebec and served under Ethan Allen at Ticonderoga and under General Stark at Bennington, as an officer in the Continental Army; granddaughter of William Stinson, who was born in Dunbarton, Scotland, came to America in 1749, and in 1751, with nine others, obtained the grant of a township in what is now Merrimack County, N.H., to which the name of Dunbarton was given; descendant of Benjamin Paige, who came from Phills-Andover (second scholar of the Class of 1866).

Member Class Boat Club (First Lieutenant and member executive committee Senior year) and Class Crew Junior year; director Yale Baseball Club and member of third nine Junior year; member executive committee University
Baseball Club Senior year; class historian Freshman year; divided first prize in the Linonian Sophomore debate and third prize in the Junior debate; member Thanksgiving Jubilee, Junior Exhibition, and Junior Promenade committees,
Yale Missionary Society, Beethoven Society, Delta Kappa, Delta Beta Xi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Studied at Harvard Law School 1870-71; in the law offices of Ives & Lincoln [Stephen B. Ives and Solomon Lincoln, Harvard 1848 and 1857, respectively] 1871-75; member of the firm, which then became Ives, Lincoln & Huntress, from 1875 until 1882, when it was dissolved upon the death of Mr. Ives; practiced independently until 1890; associated with Homer Albers (LL.B. Boston University 1885), under the firm name of Huntress & Albers, from 1890 to 1909; up to 1885 his practice was of a general nature, although he was engaged for several years in law business for various railroad corporations; from 1885 to 1900 devoted his attention to trade-mark litigation in behalf of New England proprietary houses and manufacturers, and as counsel for his clients tried cases in seven of the nine United States circuit courts; had been counsel for large trust estates; since 1909 had been president and a director of the Yuba Consolidated Gold Fields of Marysville, Calif.; member Republican city and state committees in 1879 and 1880; member Boston Common Council from Ward 11 (Back Bay) 1881 and 1882; since 1884 had resided in Winchester, Mass., where he was a member of the Water Board for six years; served as vice-president of the Yale Club of Boston in 1910; member Semi-Centenary Committee of the Class of 1870.

Married September 30, 1873, in Metuchen, N. J., Julia A., dughter of Cyrus Oliver and Julia (Mead) Poole. Two sons:
Harold Poole, Harvard '99 (died in 1907), and George Lewis, Jr., who was a special student in the Lawrence Scientific School at Harvard during 1898-99 and 1901-03. Mrs.
Huntress died September 1, 1923.

Death due to arterio-sclerosis. Buried at Lowell. Survived by son, three grandchildren, and a brother, Henry Huntress, of Concord, N. H.
Samuel Roseburgh Morrow, B.A. 1870.

Born May 6, 1849, in Albany, N. Y.
Died February 24, 1924, in Albany, N. Y.

Father, the Rev. Samuel Frame Morrow (B.A. Hanover 1836, D.D. Hanover 1872), a Presbyterian minister; a graduate, and at one time the associate president, of the theological seminary at Canonsburg, Pa.; son of James Morrow, a Colonel in the War of 1812, and Anna (Kyle) Morrow. Mother, Mary (Roseburgh) Morrow; daughter of Samuel and Isabel (Miller) Roseburgh; descendant of John Roseburgh, who came to New York City from the north of Ireland.

Albany Academy. High oration appointments Junior and Senior years, member Beethoven Society, Yale Missionary Society, Delta Kappa, Alpha Delta Phi, Phi Beta Kappa, and Brothers in Unity.

Taught at Hopkins Grammar School, New Haven, for three years after graduation; tutor in Greek at Yale 1873–76, at the same time studying medicine; attended College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia University, 1876–78 (M.D. 1878); junior assistant at Bellevue Hospital 1877–78, and house surgeon there for six months after his graduation from the medical school; continued medical studies abroad, in Halle, London, and Vienna, 1879–1880; upon his return to this country began the practice of medicine in Albany, where he continued in active practice until 1921; connected with Albany Medical College 1881–1916 (instructor in anatomy 1881–84, lecturer adjunct to chair of surgery 1884–86, adjunct professor of surgery 1886–87, adjunct professor of surgery and lecturer in anatomy 1887–89, adjunct professor of anatomy and orthopedic surgery 1889–1890, professor of anatomy and orthopedic surgery 1890–1901, and professor of the practice of surgery and orthopedic and operative surgery 1901–1916), assistant in orthopedic surgery with the School Medical Inspection Bureau of the New York State Department of Education from 1917 until his death; attending surgeon to St. Peter’s Hospital (1881–1903), the Albany and the Children’s hospitals (1887–1917), and the Hospital for Incurables; secretary and a vice-president of the Albany County Medical Society; member New York Medical Society, American Academy of Medicine, and United Presbyterian Church in Albany; had contributed occasional articles to medical journals.

Married May 8, 1889, to Elizabeth Gwynne Hutchins, of Albany, daughter of Stephen Curtis and Mary (Wiggins) Hutchins and a descendant of Commodore Perry. One foster son, Sydney King Morrow.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Interment in Albany Rural Cemetery. Survived by wife, son, two grandsons, and a sister, Miss Anna Morrow, of Albany.

Albert Porter Bradstreet, B.A. 1871.
Born June 9, 1846, in Thomaston, Conn.
Died October 12, 1923, in Thomaston, Conn.

Father, the Rev. Thomas Jefferson Bradstreet (B.A. 1834); studied at Yale Divinity School and held pastorates in Connecticut, but was obliged to give up the ministry on account of throat trouble; afterwards engaged in farming; son of Dudley and Polly (Porter) Bradstreet; descendant of Simon Bradstreet, who graduated at Cambridge University in 1620, came to America in 1630, and settled at Cambridge, Mass. (governor of Massachusetts Colony 1679-1686 and 1689-1692). Mother, Amanda (Thomas) Bradstreet; daughter of Seth and Laura (Andrews) Thomas; descendant of James Thomas, who came to this country from Scotland and settled at Wolcott, Conn. Yale relatives include: Edward D. Bradstreet, ’01, and Robert D. French, ’10 (nephews).

Prepared in Thomaston, under Mr. A. L. Lake. Dissertation appointments Junior and Senior years; member Brothers in Unity, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, and Alpha Delta Phi.

Studied at Columbia Law School 1871-73 (LL.B. 1873); practiced law in Thomaston until 1905 (for a while as a member of the firm of Bradstreet & Etheridge); engaged in business in New York City for a time; afterwards practiced law in Waterbury, Conn., until his death; deputy judge and judge of Waterbury District Court for seventeen years, though his home was in Thomaston; served there as town clerk, member Board of Education, and justice of the peace; member Connecticut House of Representatives in 1877 and 1878; state senator 1881 and 1882; chairman of insurance committee of Lower House and of Senate judiciary committee; member First Congregational Church in Thomaston.

Married March 4, 1875, in Thomaston, Mary J., daughter of Edwin P. and Martha (Lee) Parker. One adopted daughter.

Death due to heart failure Buried in Hillside Cemetery, Thomaston. Survived by wife; adopted daughter, Mrs. Henry W Hurlburt; two brothers, Edward T. Bradstreet, '74, and George P. Bradstreet, of Thomaston; and a sister, who is the widow of Joseph R. French (B.A. 1856).

John Andrew Himes, B.A. 1871.

Born June 3, 1848, in McAllisterville, Pa.
Died August 11, 1923, in Gettysburg, Pa.

Father, Jacob Himes, a carpenter; son of Andrew and Mary (Straley) Himes; ancestors came to America about 1730. Mother, Margaret (Kenawell) Himes; daughter of John and Margaret (Kauffman) Kenawell.

McAllisterville Academy; B.A. Gettysburg (formerly Pennsylvania College) 1870; at Gettysburg received gold medal for excellence in Latin, prize for English composition, and first honors at graduation; member Philomathean Society. Entered Yale as a Senior in 1870; member Brothers in Unity.

Taught English at Gettysburg Academy 1871–73; head of department of English literature and political science, Gettysburg College, from 1873 until his retirement in 1914; also taught Greek tragedy and intellectual science for a time; made professor emeritus in 1920; Litt.D. Dickinson College 1898, author of numerous studies in English literature, including. “A Study of Milton’s Paradise Lost,” “Paradise Lost, its Structure and Meaning,” “A Brief Analysis of Twelve of Shakespeare’s Plays,” “The Religious Faith of Wordsworth and Tennyson, as shown in their Poems,” and “Miltonic Enigmas in the Minor Poets”; honorary member 6th Corps Society, Army of the Potomac, and American Institute of Civics; foundation member of the chapter of Phi Beta Kappa established at Gettysburg College in 1923; trustee Christ Lutheran Church (college church of Gettysburg College) for many years.

Married June 30, 1874, in Gettysburg, Mary Jane, daughter of the Rev. Charles Augustus Hay, D.D. (B.A. Gettysburg 1839), and Rebecca (Barnitz) Hay. Three children: Margaret Rebecca (B.A. Gettysburg 1894), wife of the Rev. Julius Frederick Seebach; Edwin Hay (died in infancy); and Mary Hay (B.A. Gettysburg 1908, M.A. Gettysburg 1911).

Death due to pulmonary embolism. Interment in Evergreen Cemetery, Gettysburg. Survived by wife, daughters, and a brother, Edward Himes, of McAllisterville.

Charles Daniel Hine, B.A. 1871.

Born February 26, 1845, in Fairhaven, Vt.
Died August 27, 1923, in Winsted, Conn.

Father, the Rev. Orlo Daniel Hine, a Congregational minister; a graduate of Yale College (1837) and the Yale Divinity School; son of Daniel and Lucy (Chamberlain) Hine; descendant of Thomas Hine, who came to Milford, Conn., from England in 1640. Mother, Ellen Caroline (Whittelsey) Hine; daughter of Friend and Sylvia (Stannard) Whittelsey; descendant of John Whittelsey, one of the early settlers of Saybrook, Conn., of Joseph Stannard of Haddam and Westbrook, Conn., and of the Rev. Samuel Mather, one of the founders of Yale.

Phillips-Andover (valedictorian of the Class of 1862). High oration appointment Junior year, oration appointment, Townsend Premium, and first college premium in English composition Senior year; an editor of the Yale Literary Magazine; class deacon; secretary of Linonia; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Superintendent of schools at Saginaw, Mich. (1871–74), and at Norwich, Conn. (1874–76); attended the Law School of Iowa State University 1876–78 (LL.B. 1878); practiced law in Omaha, Nebr, two years; principal of the Omaha High School 1880-83, in December, 1882, elected secretary of the Connecticut State Board of Education; served in that position from January 1, 1883, until his retirement in 1920, the name of his office being changed to commissioner of education in 1918; in this capacity organized supervisory districts in rural sections of the state, introduced traveling libraries for the benefit of small towns, established trade schools in industrial centers, enlarged normal school facilities for training teachers, and secured the enactment of laws for the improvement of rural schools, was chairman of the Connecticut Public Library Commission from 1893 until his death, lecturer on education at Yale 1915-19; in 1917 appointed agent for Connecticut to enforce the federal child labor law; during World War served as state director for school war activities, director of the State War Library Council, and member of the War Savings Committee, the committee appointed to make an accurate estimate of the population of the state, and the national committee of one hundred on publicity; was also appointed by the State Council of Defense to go to Canada to investigate work being done there for disabled soldiers; member Protestant Episcopal Church, National Education Association, National Superintendents Association, and American Library Association.

Married (1) March 29, 1880, in Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Mary Newell (Stark) Thomas, daughter of Benjamin Stark. Two sons, Daniel, a non-graduate member of the Class of 1905 at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and Charles Stark (died in childhood). Married (3) June 26, 1916, in Randolph, Vt, Mabel Elizabeth, daughter of Embury and Carrie (Balcomb) Moston. One daughter, Elizabeth.

Death due to heart disease. Interment in family lot at Lebanon, Conn., where his father was for more than thirty years pastor of the First Congregational Church. Survived by wife, son; daughter; a brother, Roderick W. Hine, '84; and two sisters, Mrs. George M. Carrington and Miss Edith C. Hine (B.A. Smith 1883), both of whom live in Winsted, James Henry Hoffecker, Jr., B.A. 1871.

Born April 13, 1850, at Clermont Farm, near Wilmington, Del.

Father, James Henry Hoffecker, a farmer; son of James and Castilla (Deputy) Hoffecker; family of Saxon origin, Henry Hoffecker coming to America from Germany in 1730 or 1740 and settling at Smyrna, Del. Mother, Sarah (Savin) Hoffecker; daughter of John Bostick and Elizabeth (Hoffecker) Savin, descendant of Jean Savin, who was of Huguenot origin and who came to America from England in the early part of the eighteenth century and settled near Chestertown, Md., in 1782.

Prepared at Wilmington under Mr. William A. Reynolds. First prize in mathematics Freshman year; second prize for logical analysis Sophomore year; first dispute appointment Junior year; dissertation appointment Senior year; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Studied law under Mr. Samuel Harrington in Wilmington; admitted to the Delaware Bar 1874; member of the law firm of Harrington & Hoffecker 1874–78; served as a United States district attorney for a few months in 1877; in May, 1882, formed a law partnership with his brother, Francis Hodgson Hoffecker, under the firm name of Hoffecker & Hoffecker, and continued in that connection until 1917; moved to Philadelphia in 1907 and maintained a law office there also until 1918, when he retired because of impaired health; director National Bank of Delaware and one or two other banks in Wilmington; in 1888 was offered the nomination for Congress by the Republican party but declined it; in 1916 was a member of the speakers' staff organized by the Philadelphia branch of the National Security League, appointed by the board of governors of the World's Court League, Inc., a delegate-at-large to the second World Court Congress in New York City; chosen delegate to that congress, representing the Pennsylvania Arbitration and Peace Society; senior vestryman of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Wilmington, for twenty years; later member Church of Our Saviour, Philadelphia.
Married December 18, 1879, in Leesburg, Va., Elizabeth Worsley, daughter of Thomas and Mary Anne Meade; one son, Douglas Meade (B.A. 1905). Mrs. Hoffecker died August 16, 1918.

Death, due to diabetes, occurred at the Presbyterian Hospital, Philadelphia, where he was taken sometime before when he broke his hip. Interment in Union Cemetery, Leesburg. Survived by son, a sister, Sarah Florence Hoffecker, of Wilmington, and two brothers, George Richard Hoffecker, also of Wilmington, and John Savin Hoffecker, of Richmond, Va.

Russell Chapman, B.A. 1872.

Born April 3, 1850, in New Haven, Conn.
Died February 27, 1924, in San Diego, Calif.

Father, Russell Chapman, a leather dealer; member New Haven Board of Education; postmaster at San Rafael, Calif., in 1890, son of Aaron and Cata Ann (Kelsey) Chapman; descendant of Robert Chapman, who came from Hull, England, to Old Saybrook, Conn., in 1635. Mother, Maria (Ives) Chapman; daughter of Whiting and Rebecca (Hotchkiss) Ives; descendant of William Ives, who came to Boston from County Norfolk, England, in 1635 and settled in New Haven about three years later. Yale relatives: Aaron B. Chapman, ex-’72 (brother), Levi Ives (B.A. 1791), Dr. Eli Ives (B.A. 1799), Dr. Nathan B. Ives (B.A. 1825), Levi Ives (M.D. 1838), Dr. Charles L.Ives, ’52, Dr. Robert S. Ives, ’64, and Alfred S. Ives, ex-’93 M. (cousins).

Hillhouse High School. Second dispute appointment Junior year, second colloquy appointment Senior year; member Linonia, Delta Kappa, and Class Baseball Team.

Engaged in the insurance business 1872-75 (in office of the Phoenix Insurance Company, Brooklyn, N. Y., for a time); spent a year (1875-76) in Florida on account of ill health; employed by U. S. Weather Bureau 1877-1880 (at Sandy Hook one year; then in the office at Washington); had lived in California since 1880; engaged in ranching on San Pablo Creek, Contra Costa County, for a year; bookkeeper for the Russ Lumber & Mill Company, San Diego, 1882-84; had a Dwight Nelson Prentice, B.A. 1872.

Born August 29, 1848, in Mystic, Conn.
Died March 7, 1924, in Fairfield, Conn

Father, David Nelson Prentice, a merchant and farmer; son of Samuel Haskell and Susan (Baldwin) Prentice; his first American ancestor on the paternal side was an early settler in Cambridge, Mass. Mother, Margaret (Rathbun) Prentice; daughter of Elisha and Lucretia (Packer) Rathbun; descendant of Samuel Rathbone, who was married in 1692 to Patience Coggesshall, and afterwards lived at Block Island, R I.

Prepared himself for college while teaching school in Mystic, and also studied under a private tutor. Entered the Class of 1872 at the beginning of the second term of Freshman year; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon.

Taught in Norfolk, Conn., for a year after graduation, and then in Great Barrington, Mass., for four months; gave up teaching on account of eye trouble and was engaged in farming until the fall of 1876, when he entered the Yale Divinity School; B.D. 1879; had charge of the Congregational Church in North Branford, Conn, 1880–82 (declining ordination, but serving as stated supply); preached in Greenfield, Conn., 1882–84 (was called to the pastorate after six months' service, but declined the call); ordained to the Congregational ministry July 2, 1884, at North Middleboro, Mass., where he was pastor until 1886; engaged in literary work at New Haven 1886-1890; pastor of the churches in Williston and Essex Junction, Vt., 1890-92; gave up preaching on account of throat trouble; since 1892 had been engaged in farming at Fairfield, Conn., occasionally supplying churches.
Obituary Record

Death due to general debility. Buried in Oaklawn Cemetery, Fairfield. Survived by his six children and two sisters, the Misses Helen and Ruby Prentice, both of whom reside in Mystic.

John Payson Slocum, B.A. 1872.

Born September 14, 1847, in Delphi, N. Y.
Died August 23, 1923, in Albany, N. Y.

Father, Charles Coggeshall Slocum, a merchant; son of Matthew Barnard and Mary (Ostrander) Slocum; descendant of Giles Slocombe, who came to America from England in 1638 and settled at Portsmouth, R. I.; early ancestors of the Slocum family were Quakers. Mother, Evelina Louisa (Payson) Slocum, daughter of Eliot and Ruth (Hall) Payson.

Haverling Union School, Bath, N. Y. Entered Yale with the Class of 1871, joining the Class of 1872 at the beginning of Sophomore year; member of the Class Crew and Kappa Sigma Epsilon.

Taught in Guilford, Conn., 1872-76, Reading, Pa., 1876-79, Somerville, Mass., 1879-1882, Barre, Vt., 1882-84, and Rouses Point, N. Y., 1884-85; principal of Wilson Academy, Angelica, N. Y., 1885-1897; principal of Nunda (N. Y.) High School 1897-1902; examiner for New York State Department of Education 1902-1919, when he retired; during the Civil War was a Private in the 189th Regiment, New York State Volunteers, serving with the Army of the Potomac from August, 1864, until Lee’s surrender; member First Presbyterian Church, Albany.
Married July 22, 1874, in Guilford, Conn., Anna Stone, daughter of Edwin Oscar and Martha Seward (Benton) Davis. Ten children: Charles Edwin (died in 1899); Robert Barnard (B.A. University of Rochester 1900, M.D. Johns Hopkins 1905); Mary Evelyn; Martha Elizabeth (Mrs. Selah M. Harris), a graduate of Johns Hopkins School for Nurses 1910; Sarah Ada, the wife of Charles B. Engle; John Albert (B.A. Bowdoin 1913); Harold Wilson (B.A. Bowdoin 1910); Grace Eliot (died in infancy); Frank Davis (B.A. Bowdoin 1912); and Ruth Griswold (Mrs. James M. Alexander), a graduate of the New York State Normal School 1913 and of the New Haven Normal School of Gymnastics 1916.

Death due to apoplexy. Interment at Angelica, N. Y. Survived by wife and eight children.

Charles Cummings Stearns, B.A. 1872.

Born December 10, 1850, in Lunenburg, Vt.
Died May 25, 1924, in LaJolla, Calif.

Father, the Rev. Josiah Milton Stearns, a graduate of Marshall College; son of Jesse and Lucinda (Davis) Stearns; descendant of Isaac Stearns, who came from England in 1630. Mother, Freelove Phillips (McIntyre) Stearns; daughter of Capt Salem McIntyre and Anna (Phillips) McIntyre; ancestors came to America from Scotland.

Hartford Public High School. First prize in mathematics Freshman year; oration appointment and second prize in mathematics Senior year; member Gamma Nu and Alpha Delta Phi.

Received degree of B.D. at Union Theological Seminary 1875; was a missionary teacher under the American Board in the Western Turkey Mission 1875–78 (stationed in Athens, Greece, until the spring of 1876; then at Manisa [ancient Magnesia ad Sipyulum]); on account of ill health returned to United States in fall of 1878; while in Turkey translated into modern Greek a teachers’ manual of drawing and a portion of Ray’s Algebra; professor of Greek at Doane College from February, 1879, to July, 1880; was then given leave of absence because of the ill health of his mother and stepfather; returned to his home in West Hartford and two years later resigned his professorship; M.A. Yale 1879; was engaged in a comparative study of Greek verbs for four years, making a complete concordance of all forms used in the Iliad and Odyssey, but lost the manuscript of the entire work in a fire; moved to Hartford in 1885 and with his brother-in-law, Mr. Bowen, started the Classical School for Boys; for five years after the withdrawal of the latter in 1888, Lewis F. Reid, '75, was associated with Mr. Stearns in the conduct of the school; Mr. Stearns had made a special study of archaeology, and from 1893 to 1895 was associate professor of archaeology at the Hartford Theological Seminary, where he had been Carew lecturer in 1892; was given leave of absence in 1893-94 and spent the time at the University of Berlin (two semesters) and in Rome, where he made a special study of the catacombs and early Christian archaeology; upon his return to America resigned his professorship but continued to lecture on archaeology at the seminary during 1895-97; established the Charles C. Stearns Preparatory School for Boys in Hartford in 1898 and conducted it until 1906, professor of Biblical history and literature at Pomona College 1906-1923; since then had been professor emeritus; from 1906 to 1911 also had charge, as principal, of the preparatory department of the college; had been a member of the Buildings and Grounds Committee and of the Committee on Religious Interests of the college; two of his Carew lectures at the Hartford Theological Seminary were published in the Hartford Seminary Record: "The Monuments and Inscriptions Called Hittite," and "Christ and the Creed in Early Christian Art", member Oriental Society, Archaeological Institute of America, and Hartford Archaeological Society (former vice-president); life member Connecticut Historical Society and the Appalachian Mountain Club; member Claremont (Calif.) Congregational Church.

Married September 20, 1875, in West Hartford, Sophie Dickerman Putnam, daughter of William Henry and Elizabeth (Putnam) Seymour. Five children: Charles Miner (B.A. Johns Hopkins 1898) (died at the Base Hospital, New London, September 27, 1918), Elisabeth Putnam, who married Wells S Hastings, '02 (Mr. Hastings died in 1923);
Yale College

Myron Morris (B.A. Stanford 1906); Seymour Putnam (Dartmouth ex-'09); and Alice Lucinda (Mrs. Lee Roy DeCamp), who attended Pomona College and received the degree of B.A. at Mount Holyoke College in 1914.

Death, due to heart failure, followed an illness of two months. His body was cremated in San Diego, and the ashes were buried on the Pomona College campus. Survived by wife; four children; twelve grandchildren; a brother, George M. Stearns, '74, and a sister (the widow of the Rev. Marcellus Bowen, '66), who lives in Exeter, England.

David Maydole Totman, B.A. 1872.

Born October 18, 1848, in Freetown, N. Y.
Died December 17, 1923, in Syracuse, N. Y.

Father, Edsel Samuel Totman, a farmer; son of Samuel and Dorothy (Workman) Totman; descendant of Thomas Totman, who came to Scituate, Mass., from England about 1644. Mother, Anna (Maydole) Totman; daughter of Alexander and Anna (VanValkenberg) Maydole; descendant of the Maydole family which settled at East Albany, N. Y., before the Revolutionary War.

Norwich (N. Y.) Academy. Member Linonia, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, and Alpha Delta Phi.

Studied medicine in office of Dr. Horatio K. Bellows in Norwich, at same time teaching in Norwich Academy for two years; attended Medical College at Syracuse University 1874–76 (M.D. 1876); practiced medicine in Syracuse 1876–1919; connected with Medical College of Syracuse University from 1876 until his death (instructor and lecturer in physiology 1876–1886, professor of clinical surgery 1886–1919, professor of surgery 1906–1919, professor emeritus since 1919; also registrar of Medical College 1893–1903); house physician and surgeon of St. Joseph's Hospital 1876–1881, surgeon 1881–1919; at one time assistant surgeon National Guard, New York State; surgeon to Syracuse police force 1883; health officer of city of Syracuse 1889–1896 and 1906–1919; appointed first city commissioner of health 1919, and served for a few months, when he was obliged to retire. from office on account of illness; received honorary degree of M.A. at Syracuse in 1894 and that of Doctor of Public Health in 1918, secretary Onondaga Medical Society 1879–1883, and president 1887–88; president Syracuse Medical Association 1888 and 1889; member American Public Health Association, American Medical Association, New York State Medical Society, Syracuse Academy of Medicine, and Plymouth Congregational Church in Syracuse.

Married May 18, 1881, in Fredonia, N. Y., Mary Emily, daughter of William Oscar and Emily (Murray) Johnson. Five children: Emily Murray (Ph B. Syracuse 1905, Ph.M. Syracuse 1906); Margaret Louisa (died in 1904); Katharine Maydole (died in childhood); Josephine Kidder (B.A. Syracuse 1917), the wife of Richard Oscar Bassett, Jr.; and Harold Maydole, a Senior in the Medical College at Syracuse University.

Death due to complications resulting from a stroke of paralysis in 1919. Interment in Oakwood Cemetery, Syracuse.

Survived by wife, two daughters, and son.

Willis Fisher McCook, B.A. 1873.

Born January 19, 1851, in New Lisbon, Ohio.
Died August 5, 1923, in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Father, George Latimer McCook (B.A. Jefferson College, M.D. College of Physicians and Surgeons, Baltimore, Md., 1848), practiced medicine at Lisbon and Pittsburgh; during the Civil War served as adviser to the Secretary of War, Edwin M. Stanton, on medical measures to improve the health of the Army, accepting neither a commission nor compensation for his services, one of the early advocates of the practice of establishing base line hospitals at considerable distances from the battle fronts, one of the hospitals thus established being the Pittsburgh Marine Hospital; son of Dr. George McCook (B.A. Jefferson College 1812, a veteran of the War of 1812, professor of anatomy and surgery, College of Physicians and Surgeons for many years, and later professor of surgery at the Medical School of Willoughby University [Lake Shore College]) and Margaret G. (Latimer)
McCook; descendant of George McCook, who came from Ballymony, County Antrim, Ireland, in 1780 and settled in Delaware, removing later to Canonsburg, Pa., where he was active in the establishment of Jefferson College. Mother, Katherine (Fisher) McCook; daughter of Peter and Rebecca (Dawson) Fisher.

Pittsburgh public schools; attended the Western University of Pennsylvania before entering Yale with the Class of 1873. At Yale member of Freshman and Sophomore Barge and Shell Crews, Junior and Senior Shell Crews, and the University Crew for three years (captain for two years); captain of Yale’s first Football Team (participating in the first intercollegiate football contest in this country); oration appointment Junior year (speaker at Exhibition); member Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Studied law in the offices of Hampton & Dalzell [John Dalzell, '65] in Pittsburgh 1874–75; took a special course at Columbia Law School 1875–76; admitted to the Allegheny County Bar May 16, 1876; practiced law in Pittsburgh from that time until his death (member of firm of McCook & Jarrett since 1904); personal counsel of Henry C. Frick and T. M. Carnegie; one of the organizers of the H. C. Frick Coke Company in 1882; a founder, in 1901, of the Pittsburgh Steel Company (director since its inception; president since 1920); counsel for Equitable Life Assurance Society of New York (also a director), American Steel & Wire Company (one of the organizers), and United States Glass Company; consulting attorney for Monongahela Traction Company; an organizer of the Republic Iron & Steel Company; president and director Pittsburgh Steel Products Company, Monessen Southwestern Railway Company, and Monessen Coal and Coke Company; vice-president and director American-Austrian Magnesite Corporation, Mesaba Cliffs Iron Mining Company, Concordia Electric Company, American Refractories Company of Pennsylvania, Workingman’s Savings Bank & Trust Company, and Alicia Supply Company; director Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, Duquesne National Bank, American Iron & Steel Institute, Wabash-Pittsburgh Railroad Company, West Side Belt Railroad Company, Seamless Tube Company of America, Iron City Trust Company, Guaranty Company of North America of Montreal, Guaranty Title & Trust Company, and Commerce Housing Corporation; chairman of the board of trustees of Mercy Hospital; member board of managers of the Western Pennsylvania Institution for the Blind, St. Joseph's Protectory for Boys, and St. Paul's Asylum; LL.D. Mount St. Mary's College 1908; member St. Paul's Cathedral, Pittsburgh; in 1923 made possible a gift of $50,000 to the Yale Alumni Fund by the Class of 1873, by giving $25,000 on condition that the Class as a whole should give an equal amount.

Married October 22, 1878, in Pittsburgh, Mary Kerney, daughter of Dr. Jacob Ahl and Elizabeth (Kerney) Ahl. Ten children: Elizabeth Ahl, the wife of W. Edgar Reed (B.S. Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1897); Katherine Mary, the wife of Harry J. Miller (M.E. Cornell 1907); Eleanor Mary, the wife of Allison R. Maxwell, who graduated at Ridley College, St. Catherines, Canada, in 1909; Willis Joseph, Mary Ahl, John Ahl; Martha; Henrietta (died in infancy), Margaret Latimer, who married Edward J. McCague (Ph G. University of Pittsburgh 1901, M.D. 1912); and George Latimer, ex-'22. Mrs. McCook died in 1921.

Death, due to pneumonia, followed an operation for varicose veins and occurred at the West Penn Hospital, Pittsburgh. Interment in St. Mary's Cemetery, Pittsburgh. Survived by nine children and thirteen grandchildren.

Philander Judson Mallory, B.A. 1873.

Born May 22, 1851, in Corning, N. Y.
Died July 30, 1923, in Los Gatos, Calif.

Father, William Mead Mallory, a coal operator; son of Laurin and Mary (Mead) Mallory. Mother, Sarah Strong (McConihe) Mallory; daughter of Judge Isaac McConihe and Sarah (Strong) McConihe. Yale relatives. Nehemiah Strong (B.A 1755); Simeon Strong (B A. 1756) (great-great-grandfather); Simeon Strong (B.A. 1786); and Hezekiah W. Strong (Honorary M.A 1800) (great-grandfather).
Prepared at C. M. Selleck's School, Norwalk, Conn. Entered Yale with Class of 1872; withdrew from that class on account of ill health and joined Class of 1873 at beginning of its Sophomore year; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon.

LL.B. Albany Law School 1874; admitted to bar and practiced law in office of F. N. Bangs in New York City for a year; engaged in knitting mill supply business in Troy, and later in Cohoes, N. Y., for two years, afterwards resuming practice of law, with office in Corning; in coal business with his father in Canandaigua, N. Y., 1879, and later in Towanda, Pa.; with Mr. G. L. Miller formed the firm of P. J. Mallory & Company, dealers in wood and coal, in New York City, 1887; succeeded to father's coal and lumber business in Towanda 1891; in 1900 moved to Arroyo Grande, Calif., where he bought a ranch, and was engaged in agricultural pursuits for a time; purchased ranch at Palms, Calif., 1903, and resided there until 1908; lived in Los Angeles 1908–1915, at Gilroy, Calif., 1919–1923, and since then at Los Gatos; during last twenty years or more of life was engaged in buying and selling small properties; member Episcopal Church.

Married November 30, 1900, in Santa Monica, Calif., Florence M. Cozzens, daughter of Freeman and Hannah (Edgely) Swan. No children

Death due to valvular disease of heart and interstitial nephritis Buried in Los Gatos. Survived by wife.

Charles Lothrop Noyes, B.A. 1875.
Born September 11, 1851, in Ceylon, India
Died August 8, 1923, in Yokohama, Japan.

Father, the Rev. Joseph Thomas Noyes (B.A. Amherst 1845); graduated at Andover Theological Seminary in 1848; was a missionary of the American Board in India from 1848 until his death in 1892; son of Joseph and Miriam (Cheever) Noyes; descendant of Nicholas Noyes, who came from England to Boston in 1633 and settled first in Medford and afterwards in Newbury, Mass. Mother, Elizabeth Achsah (Smith) Noyes, a non-graduate member of the Class of 1847 at Mount Holyoke Seminary (now College); daughter of
Obituary Record

Rufus and Betsy (Browning) Smith. Nephew, George W. Noyes, '02.

Williston Seminary. Oration appointments Junior and Senior years; second prize at Junior Exhibition; first college premium in English composition Senior year; member Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, and Psi Upsilon.

Taught the classics at Montclair (N. J.) High School 1875-77; studied at Union Theological Seminary for a year; graduated at Andover Theological Seminary 1880, remaining as a resident licentiate until 1881; ordained to the Congregational ministry at Jersey City, N. J., March 29, 1881; pastor of Third Congregational Church in that city 1881-82; pastor Winter Hill Congregational Church, Somerville, Mass., 1882-1922 (installed June 18, 1883); pastor emeritus from 1922 until his death; in September, 1922, went to Japan as acting pastor of Union Church (English) at Yokohama, during the furlough of the pastor, and filled the pulpit regularly until five weeks before his death; D.D. Harvard 1909, president of Somerville Associated Charities for twenty-five years (one of the prime movers in its organization in 1892); trustee Somerville Public Library and Andover Theological Seminary, being largely instrumental in the removal of the latter to Cambridge and its merger with Harvard Divinity School; former president Browning Society of Boston; editor of Pilgrim Songs, Pilgrim Hymnal, and New Pilgrim Hymnal.

Death, from heart failure, was due to severe chills and fever caused by some unknown germ and occurred at the Yokohama General Hospital. Body cremated; ashes interred in Mount Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge, Mass. Survived by wife and a sister, Miss Mary T. Noyes, of Madura, South India.
Henry Moses Walradt, B.A. 1875.

Born February 22, 1852, in Northbridge, Mass.

Father, Moses Walradt, a leather finisher and merchant; son of Daniel and Mary (Walradt) Walradt; ancestors came to America from the Palatinate and settled in the Mohawk Valley (Montgomery County), N. Y., early in the eighteenth century. Mother, Lavinia Wheeler (Prouty) Walradt; daughter of James and Lavinia (Wheeler) Prouty; ancestors came to New Hampshire from Canada.

Wesleyan Academy, Wilbraham, Mass. Second prize in English composition Sophomore year; oration appointments Junior and Senior years; first college premium in English composition Senior year; Berkeley and Clark scholarships; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon and Psi Upsilon.

Studied in Yale Graduate School 1875-76; principal of Barnum School, Bridgeport, Conn., 1876; attended Yale School of Law 1876-78 (LL.B. 1878), went to Indianapolis March, 1878, as tutor in the family of the late Senator Morton; continued law studies there in the office of Baker, Hord & Hendricks until October, 1878; moved to Boston and entered office of Wade & Brackett; admitted to Massachusetts Bar November, 1878, but had never practiced; principal of Union School, South Norwalk, Conn., 1879-1884; purchased Chester Valley Academy in Downingtown, Pa., 1884; transferred school to Mount Holly, N. J., 1886, naming it Mount Holly Academy; continued as its headmaster until 1892; editor Trenton (N. J.) Times 1892-93; taught civil government, political history, and commercial law in Lynn (Mass.) High School 1893-94; superintendent of schools, Marblehead and Manchester, Mass., 1894-96, Manchester, 1896-97, Manchester and Needham January-July, 1897, Needham and Winchester, 1897-1902, Needham and Whitman, 1902-07 (also taught in Boston Evening High School 1902-03), at Whitman, 1907-08, Coventry, R. I., 1909-1919, and North Kingston, R. I., 1919-June, 1923, when he retired; made his home at Whitman until his death; delegate from Chester, Mass., to Republican State Convention 1877; wrote large number of editorials for South Norwalk Sentinel, Trenton Times, and other papers; elder of Presbyterian Church and president Y. M. C. A., Mount Holly; deacon in Congregational Church, Lynn; deacon, superintendent of Sunday school, and member executive committee, First Congregational Church, Needham, deacon and member finance committee Congregational Church, Whitman.

Married January 1, 1883, in Chester, Elnora Frances Freeman, a graduate of Mount Holyoke Seminary in 1874, and the daughter of Reuben and Elizabeth (Ryder)-Freeman. One son, Henry Freeman (B A 1907, M A. 1908, Ph.D. 1911).

Stanley Dwight, B.A. 1876.

Born December 24, 1854, in New York City.
Died April 20, 1924, in New York City.

Preparatory training received in New York City. First dispute appointments Junior and Senior years; member Class Day Committee, Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.
Graduated at Columbia Law School 1879; admitted to New York Bar and practiced law in New York City for about nine years; was afterwards connected with the C. & C. Electric Motor Company of New York City (secretary for a number of years; president from 1903 to 1910); retired from active business in 1910; director of the Tennis Building Association; member Metropolitan Museum of Art; member Episcopal Church in New Rochelle, N. Y., where he had made his home for many years.

Married December 4, 1921, in Fiume, Italy, Caterina, daughter of Angelo de Castelli, Patrician of Genoa and Doctor at Law, and Maria (Soster) de Castelli, and widow of Don Ignazio Piras-Solinas, of Sassari. No children.

Death followed an operation. Interment in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife and a stepdaughter, Donna Graziella Piras-Solinas Castelli.

Rufus Biggs Smith, B.A. 1876.

Born October 20, 1854, in Cincinnati, Ohio.
Died December 18, 1923, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Father, Harry Rhodes Smith, a jeweler; trustee of Southern Railroad 1890–1903; family lived in Columbus, Ohio. Mother, Anna (McNaughton) Smith; ancestors settled at Mercersburg, Pa. Brother-in-law of Lewis W. Shaffer, '76.

Woodward High School, Cincinnati. Second dispute appointments Junior and Senior years; third prize in English composition Sophomore year; editor Yale Record Junior year, and of Yale Literary Magazine Senior year; member Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Studied at Cincinnati Law School 1876–78 (LL.B. 1878), winning Dexter Prize for best examination at graduation; engaged in practice of law in Cincinnati 1878–1885, with exception of one year (1882–83), when he served as first assistant prosecuting attorney of Hamilton County; county solicitor of Hamilton County 1885–88, during which time he was one of the leading attorneys of the Committee of One Hundred, engaged in the prosecution of election frauds; in private practice 1888–1891; judge of the Superior Court o
Obituary Record

Cincinnati 1891-1904; in private practice since 1904; professor of law at Cincinnati Law School 1896-1900, and chairman of the board of trustees; became member board of directors of University of Cincinnati 1912 (chairman of board 1914, and member of its committee on law); prominent member National Civil Service Reform League, vice-president National Anti-Imperialistic League 1899; published many papers and articles on local municipal subjects in the Law Bulletin and daily papers; member Unitarian Church

Married December 29, 1886, in Cincinnati, Edith, daughter of Learner Blackman and Fanny (Goodman) Harrison. Five children Frances Harrison; Harrison Braxton, '10 S.; Anna McNaughton, the wife of Robert Lounsbury Black, '03; Margaret Adams, who married Jacob MacGavock Dickinson, Jr, '12; and Laurence Randolph.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati. Survived by wife and five children.

Edgar Stickney Buffum, B.A. 1877.

Born December 19, 1855, at Great Falls, N. H.
Died April 11, 1924, in Watertown, Mass.

Father, David Hanson Buffum, a woolen manufacturer; connected with the Great Falls Woolen Company; son of Timothy and Anna (Austin) Buffum; descendant of Robert Buffum, who came from Yorkshire, England, to Salem, Mass, in 1634 Mother, Charlotte Elizabeth (Stickney) Buffum; daughter of Alexander Hamilton and Betsy (Chesley) Stickney, ancestors came from Stickney, England, to Rowley, Mass, in 1638 Yale relatives include a nephew, David H. Buffum, ex-’18 S.

Great Falls High School and Phillips-Exeter. Member Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Phi Theta Psi, and Psi Upsilon.

After graduation was engaged in woolen manufacturing with the Great Falls Woolen Company until 1886; then moved to Salem where he was engaged in the oil and grease business for a time; since 1899 had resided in Newtonville, Mass; had been engaged in the manufacture of starch from starch waste, having his factory in Watertown; during 1908-09 invented and patented in the United States, Canada, England, France, and Belgium, processes for waterproofing leather board; had applications pending in 1912 for patents for the insulating of gum and varnish; at the time of his death was treasurer of the Newton Company of Watertown; had served as a vestryman and clerk of the parish of St. John's Episcopal Church, Watertown, and as a vice-president of the Yale Club of Boston.

Death, due to heart failure, occurred at his office in Watertown. Buried in Forest Glade Cemetery, Somersworth, N. H. Survived by wife, daughter, and a brother, Henry A. Buffum, '79. Another brother, David H. Buffum, ex-'85, died in 1893.

William Hurley Clark, B.A. 1877.

Born January 16, 1856, in Bloomsburg, Pa.
Died March 9, 1924, near Bowling Green, Fla.

Father, Robert Finney Clark, a lawyer; son of John and Margaret (Maxwell) Clark; descendant of Charles Clark, who came to America from Ireland and settled at Derry, Pa. Mother, Martha Hurley (Frick) Clark; daughter of George Augustus and Eleanor (Hurley) Frick; descendant of Conrad Frick, who came from Germany to Germantown, Pa., in 1711.

Bloomsburg Literary Institute and State Normal School; completed his preparation with the Rev. I. O. Best at Otisco, N. Y. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon.

After graduation returned to his home in Bloomsburg, where he read law with Mr. George Edward Elwell for a time; suffered from rheumatic arthritis and was constantly under the care of a physician; in 1886 went to Florida in the hope of regaining his health; was engaged in orange growing near Bartow for several years and afterwards (until the time of his death) had an orange grove and farm near Bowling Green; served as a justice of the peace for three years; member St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Bloomsburg.

Unmarried.

Death due to cirrhosis of the liver; had suffered from jaundice for some time prior to his death. Buried in Bowling Green. Survived by two sisters, the Misses Mary McK. and Martha Clark, and a brother, George A. Clark, all of whom live in Bloomsburg.

Israel Towne Cowles, B.A. 1877.

Born November 8, 1854, in Belchertown, Mass.
Died October 30, 1923, in Detroit, Mich.

Father, Tertius Cowles, a manufacturer; son of Israel and Lois (Dunton) Cowles; descendant of Israel Cowles, who came to America from England in 1670 and settled at Hatfield, Mass. Mother, Julia Lucretia (Towne) Cowles; daughter of Israel and Hannah (Stacy) Towne; descendant of William Towne, who came to Salem, Mass., from England in 1640.

Monson (Mass.) Academy. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Studied law in office of C. A. Kent in Detroit; admitted to practice April, 1879; in law office of Judge Crofoot 1879; had practiced law in Detroit since 1880 (member firm of Marston, Cowles & Jerome 1889–1893, and later of that of Cowles & Jerome); manager and legal officer, title guarantee and abstract office, Union Trust Company, from 1893 until the organization of the Union Title & Guarantee Company, of which he served as manager until his death; director and vice-president Union Trust Company; member American Bar Association, Detroit Bar Association, and American Historical Association; vestryman and warden St. John’s Episcopal Church for over twenty years; president Michigan Yale Alumni Association 1911–12 and 1918–1921 (member of its executive committee).

Married October 30, 1894, in Detroit, Elisabeth Allen, daughter of Robert Rogers and Harriet Tiffany (Sturtevant) Howard. No children.

Death due to acute indigestion. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Detroit. His wife survives him.
George French Shelton, B.A. 1877.

Born October 9, 1856, in Southbury, Conn.
Died August 22, 1923, in Butte, Mont.

Father, Aaron Hickok Shelton, a farmer; son of Roswell and Mary Shelton; of English ancestry. Mother, Elizabeth (French) Shelton; daughter of Bronson and Mary Ann (Burritt) French.

Wesleyan Academy, Wilbraham, Mass., and Dean Academy, Franklin, Mass. Second colloquy appointment Junior year.

Studied law with Judge James Huntington in Woodbury, Conn., for four years; admitted to Connecticut Bar 1879; practiced law in Woodbury 1879–1883; moved to Bozeman, Mont., 1883, and practiced there until 1888; practiced in Helena, Mont., 1889–1897 (associated with firm of Cullen & Sanders), being also associate counsel for Northern Pacific Railroad; practiced in San Francisco, Calif., 1898–1901; since then in practice at Butte, where he served as counsel, secretary, and director of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway Company; from 1904 until 1917 served as legal adviser for the Montana interests of ex-Senator William A. Clarke; represented the town of Southbury in the Connecticut Legislature in 1880; served as assistant United States attorney in Helena for about a year, and as district attorney in Butte for about eleven months in 1921; enlisted at Fort Slocum, N. Y., in 1918 for service in the World War; served as a Private, assigned to 3d Detachment, Quartermaster Corps, at Newport News, Va.; member Unitarian Church in Butte.

Married July 15, 1887, in Oakland, Calif., Helen Elizabeth, daughter of Christopher and Catherine Heaney. No children.

Died by his own hand. Body cremated in Spokane, Wash., and ashes interred in the Riverside Park Cemetery. Survived by wife; a half sister, Mrs. Harlow R. Whitlock, of San Francisco; and a niece, Miss Florence R. Whitlock, of Rockville, Conn.

Died February 22, 1924, in New York City.

Father, Dwight Foster (B.A. 1848, LL.D. 1871), a lawyer and judge of the Supreme Court of Massachusetts; attorney-general of Massachusetts during the Civil War; professor of equity at Boston University; son of Alfred Dwight Foster (B.A. Harvard 1819) and Lydia (Stiles) Foster; grandson of Dwight Foster (B.A. Brown 1774), chief justice of the Massachusetts Court of Common Pleas; descendant of Reginald Foster, who came to America from the neighborhood of Exeter, England, in 1638 and settled at Ipswich, Mass. Mother, Henrietta Perkins (Baldwin) Foster; daughter of Roger Sherman Baldwin (B.A. 1811, LL.D. 1845), governor of Connecticut and United States senator, and Emily (Perkins) Baldwin; granddaughter of Simeon Baldwin and Enoch Perkins, both of whom graduated at Yale in 1781; great-granddaughter of Roger Sherman (Honorary M.A. 1768), a signer of the Declaration of Independence and fifth treasurer of Yale, descendant of John Baldwin, who came from Bucks, England, to New Haven in 1636. Yale relatives include: Rev. Ebenezer Baldwin (B.A. 1763) (great-great-uncle); Ebenezer Baldwin (B.A. 1808), Thomas C. Perkins (B.A. 1818), and Rev. George W. Perkins (B.A. 1824) (great-uncles); Edward L. Baldwin, '42, Roger S. Baldwin, '47, George W. Baldwin, '53, and Simeon E. Baldwin, '61 (uncles); Henry C. Thacher, '02, Thomas A. Thacher, '08, Lawrence and Roger S. Foster, both '21, Reginald Foster, Jr., '22, and Maxwell E. Foster, '23 (nephews); and Frederick B. Perkins, '50, Edward S. Whitney, '78, Henry deF. Baldwin, '85, Roger S. Baldwin, '90, Roger S. Baldwin, '95, Sherman Baldwin, '19, William D. Whitney, '20, and Simon N. Whitney, '24 (cousins).

Boston Latin School; also studied for one semester at University of Marburg. First Berkeley Prize for Latin composition Freshman year; second prize in Delta Kappa prize essay contest; Hurlbut Scholar Sophomore year; first dispute appointments Junior and Senior years; winner of a second prize at Junior Exhibition; Townsend Premium for English composition Senior year; a judge at the fall regatta Senior year; contributed two articles to the Yale Literary Magazine; furnished college news to the New Haven Palladium; member Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, Psi Upsilon, Skull and Bones, and Linonia.

Studied law in the office of Henry E. Davies in New York City and at Columbia 1878–1880 (LL.B. cum laude 1880); practiced in New York City from 1880 until his death, having also a branch office in Washington, D.C., at one time; in 1894 was appointed by Governor Flower a member of the Tenement House Commission, and the following year drafted the statutes recommended by that commission, which were passed, with some amendments, by the New York Legislature; afterwards conducted proceedings that established the constitutionality of one of the laws, and also, as special counsel for the Health Department of New York City, argued the cases in the courts; in 1896 secured the appointment of receivers for the Bay State Gas Company, and in 1900 appeared for Senator W. A. Clark of Montana in the election case before the United States Supreme Court; lecturer on federal jurisprudence in Yale School of Law 1888–1912; author of two pamphlets, "Taxation of Elevated Railways in the City of New York," and "Constitutional Aspect of the Conflict between the President and the Senate," and of four legal works: The Federal Judiciary Acts of 1885 and 1887, A Treatise on Federal Practice in Civil Cases, with Special Reference to Patent Cases and the Foreclosure of Railway Mortgages (three editions), A Treatise on the Federal Income Tax under the Act of 1894, in collaboration with Everett V. Abbott, and Commentaries on the Constitution of the United States, Historical and Judicial, with Observations upon the Ordinary Provisions of State Constitutions, and a Comparison with the Constitutions of Other Countries; contributed articles to the American Law Review, the North American Review, the International Review, the Albany Law Journal, and the Cyclopedia of Law and Procedure; governor of the National Democratic Club; member Democratic County Committee and Osceola Club, Fifteenth Assembly District; served as member of committee on resolutions in New York State Democratic Convention 1888; in 1913 took a long trip to Asia Minor, to complete a series of pilgrimages to the Seven Churches of Asia Minor, mentioned in the Apocalypse.

Married February 22, 1921, in Plainfield, N. J., Laura Pugh, daughter of William Rutledge Moxley (B.A. University of North Carolina 1879) and Alice Whitman (Pugh) Moxley. One daughter, Laura Alice.

Death due to heart failure. Buried in Kensico Cemetery on May 27. By the terms of his will bronze statues of Charles Sumner, Daniel Webster, and Justice Bradley were left to the Yale School of Law. Survived by wife; daughter; three sisters, Mrs. James K. Thacher (widow of James K. Thacher, '68), of New Haven, Mrs. Bradley Gilman, of Boston, and Miss Elizabeth Foster, who lives in France; and two brothers, Reginald Foster, '84, and Alfred D. Foster (B.A. Harvard 1873). Another brother, Burnside Foster, '82, died in 1917.

William Walker Green, B.A. 1878.

Born August 9, 1855, in New York City.
Died February 4, 1924, in New York City.

Father, Ashbel Green (B.A. Princeton 1846, LL.B. 1849), judge of the Circuit Court of Bergen County, N. J.; son of James Sproat and Isabella Williamson (McCulloh) Green; descendant of Jacob Green, who came to America from Worcestershire, England, in 1630 and settled at Malden, Mass. Mother, Louisa Bulord (Walker) Green; daughter of William and Caroline (Steele) Walker; her ancestors came to America from England before 1643. Yale relatives include two nephews, Thomas D. Thacher, '04, and Ashbel Green Gulliver, '19.

Harrington School, Westchester, N. Y. Member of the Sophomore Class at Princeton University during 1873-74, but withdrew and became a shipping clerk in a commission house in New York City, where he remained for about nine months. Entered Yale with the Class of 1878; member of committee to select Freshman Crew; took part in Junior play at the Thanksgiving Jubilee; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi, and Delta Kappa Epsilon. Studied law at Columbia University 1878–1880 (LL.B. 1880); since then had been engaged in the practice of law in New York City (member of firm of Alexander & Green since about 1886); member Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

Married November 17, 1886, in Englewood, N. J., Jessica Ritzma, daughter of Benjamin Cummings and Mary E. (Johnson) Thayer. Two daughters, Helen Ritzma (Mrs. Oswald Kirkby) and Jessica Stockton (Mrs. James R. McMann).

Death due to uremic poisoning. Survived by wife; daughters; a brother, Ashbel Green, '91; and four sisters: Mrs. William C. Gulliver, the widow of William C. Gulliver, '70; Mrs. Thomas Thacher, whose husband (B.A. 1871) died in 1919; Mrs. Daniel W. Evans; and Miss Caroline W. Green.

George Tapscott Knott, B.A. 1878.

Born March 14, 1855, in Clifton, Ohio.
Died May 14, 1924, in Santa Barbara, Calif.

Father, William Hendrickson Knott, a farmer; was also engaged in the milling business and as a merchant; son of Peter and Lydia (Hendrickson) Knott; descendant of Peter Knott, who settled in New Jersey in 1720 and was naturalized by the council at Burlington in 1733. Mother, Lydia Elizabeth (Price) Knott; daughter of Charles Gromore and Anne Connelly (Little) Price; family of Scotch origin and of Drummond stock, coming from Perthshire to New Jersey.

Springfield (Mo.) High School. Philosophical oration appointment Junior year and a speaker at the Exhibition; high oration appointment Senior year and a Commencement speaker; member Class Day Committee; a class deacon; taught in the Bethany Mission; member Class Glee Club Senior year; an editor of the Banner; member Delta Kappa, Hé Boulé, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Studied in Yale Graduate School as Larned Scholar 1878–79; attended Yale Divinity School 1879–1881; traveled abroad July–November, 1881; upon his return to this country lived in Springfield, his former home, for a short time, moved to Kansas and was engaged in the real estate and banking business for a while; went to Wichita Falls, Texas, in 1886 and continued in the real estate business until 1893; studied law during the next year and was admitted to the Texas Bar in June, 1894; practiced law in Wichita Falls until November, 1895, also serving as city attorney from August, 1894, to September, 1895; was a member of the School Board for several years; conducted a private school in Guadalajara, Mexico, 1896–1901; moved to Oklahoma City in 1901 and was engaged in the real estate business for a time; during 1911–12 served as collector of internal revenue for the district of Oklahoma, attended the Presbyterian Church and was superintendent of the Sunday school in Oklahoma City; was afterwards engaged in fruit growing at Choctaw, Okla, for a number of years, had been living in Arizona and California since August, 1923.

Married September 20, 1894, in Springfield, Nellie, daughter of Wayne and Louisa O'Donald. No children.

Death due to tuberculosis. Survived by wife and a brother, Frank P. Knott, of Santa Barbara.

Inajiro Taneka Tajiri, B.A. 1878.

Born July 27, 1855, in Kyoto, Japan.
Died August 14, 1923, in Koyado, Magome, Japan.

It has been impossible to secure the desired information for an obituary sketch of Viscount Tajiri in time for publication in this volume. A biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.

Born June 16, 1857, in New Haven, Conn.
Died February 23, 1924, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Mark Bailey (B.A. Dartmouth 1849); instructor in elocution at Yale from 1855 to 1905; son of Oliver and Jane (Mills) Bailey; ancestors came from Scotland about 1700 and settled at Dunbarton, N. H. Mother, Lucy Bacheller (Ward) Bailey; daughter of Oliver and Betsy (Phillips) Ward; collateral descendant of General Artemas Ward, a member of Washington’s staff in the Revolutionary War; descendant of William Ward, who came from Yorkshire or Derbyshire to Sudbury, Mass., in 1646.

Hillhouse High School and Hopkins Grammar School. Second premium for declamation Sophomore year; first dispute appointment Junior year; first colloquy appointment Senior year; spoke at Commencement; member Class Baseball and Football teams, and Delta Kappa.

Studied at the Yale School of Law 1879–1882 (LL.B. 1881, LL.M. 1882); admitted to Connecticut Bar in 1881 and practiced law in New Haven until 1888; since 1886 had served as clerk of New Haven Board of Health; secretary of Union League Club for thirty years, resigning the office in 1918.

Married June 11, 1890, in New Haven, Charlotte Adelia, daughter of Elisha and Elizabeth Rebecca (Brown) Tilden. Two children, Mark (B.A. 1915) and Elizabeth Ward, the wife of J. Herbert Ware, Jr., ’17 S.

Death due to heart trouble. Interment in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, children, and a sister, Miss Genevieve Bailey, of New Haven.

William Livingston Bruen, B.A. 1879.

Born April 9, 1857, in New York City.

Died October 24, 1923, in New York City.

Father, Alexander McWhorter Bruen (B.A. Rutgers 1830, M.D. Columbia 1836); son of Mathias and Hannah (Coe) Bruen; descendant of Obadiah Bruen, who came to America from England in 1639, was a freeman of Plymouth Colony, one of the patentees of Connecticut in 1646, and a founder of Newark, N. J., in 1667. Mother, Louisa (Jay) Bruen; daughter of William Jay (B.A. 1807) and Hannah Augusta (McVickar) Jay; granddaughter of John Jay (B.A. Columbia 1764), the first chief justice of the United States Supreme Court; descendant of Augustus Jay, a Huguenot refugee, who settled in New York City in 1685. Yale relatives include:
Peter A. Jay (Honorary M A. 1798), Pierre Jay, '92, and John Jay, '98.

Hopkins Grammar School. Member Linonia.

Studied at Columbia Law School 1879–1881 (LL.B. 1881); admitted to bars of New York and West Virginia; practiced law in New York City until 1885; admitted to bar of District of Columbia 1888, and practiced law in Washington until 1890; entered banking business 1890, but gave it up a few years later; studied theology; ordained to ministry by Church Missionary Alliance in New York City 1897; afterwards pastor Wilson Memorial Independent Methodist Church, Washington; took prominent part in philanthropic work in Washington, founding the Bruen Mission and other charitable organizations; resumed practice of law in New York City, as an independent attorney and counselor at law; retired from active practice about two years before his death; in recent years member Protestant Episcopal Church.

Married twice, second marriage taking place April 17, 1892, to Elizabeth, daughter of Henry Wilson Archer of Maryland. No children.

Death due to a general breakdown. Buried in Jay Cemetery, Rye, N. Y. Survived by wife; brother, Alexander Jay Bruen, '78; and sister, Mrs. George Elmore Ide, of New York City.

Lucien Francis Burpee, B.A. 1879.

Born October 12, 1855, in Rockville, Conn.
Died May 9, 1924, in West Hartford, Conn.

Father, Thomas Francis Burpee, a manufacturer; Colonel of the 21st Regiment, Connecticut Volunteers, during the Civil War; was mortally wounded at Cold Harbor, Va., June 9, 1864, and died two days later; son of Thomas and Betsey (Temple) Burpee; descendant of Thomas Burpee, who came from England to Salem, Mass., about 1640. Mother, Adeline Minerva (Harwood) Burpee; daughter of Ebenezer and Minerva (Dimock) Harwood; descendant of Henry Harwood, who came to Boston from England about 1630. Yale relatives include: Stiles Burpee, ex-’24 (nephew); Edwin B. and Thomas D. Goodell, both ’77, Philip Goodell,
Yale College

Rockville High School. Received two first prizes in English composition Sophomore year, high oration appointments Junior and Senior years, a second prize at the Junior Exhibition, and a Townsend Premium for English composition Senior year; spoke at Commencement; member Freshman Class Supper Committee and Yale Record board Junior year; an editor of the Yale Literary Magazine and of the Banner Senior year; member Dunham Boat Club, Gamma Nu, Hé Boulé, Psi Upsilon, Skull and Bones, Phi Beta Kappa, and Linonia.

Studied at Yale School of Law (1879–1880) and at Hamilton College School of Law (June–July, 1880), receiving the degree of LL.B. at the latter institution; admitted to New York Bar July, 1880; held the Larned and Clark fellowships at Yale 1880–81 (student in American history), at the same time tutoring and studying law; admitted to the Connecticut Bar, by motion, December, 1880; began the practice of law in Waterbury, Conn., in the office of Stephen W. Kellogg, May, 1881; member of firm of Kellogg & Burpee 1881–84, of Kellogg, Burpee & Kellogg (the junior member of which was John P. Kellogg, '82) 1884–89, and of Burpee & Carmody 1889–1909; served as prosecuting attorney of Waterbury 1883–1890, as corporation counsel 1890–96, and as a judge of the Waterbury City Court 1897–1909; was tendered the judgeship of the Waterbury District Court in 1905 but declined the appointment; served as a judge of the Superior Court of Connecticut 1909–1921, and as a justice of the Supreme Court of Errors from 1921 until his death, having one year more to serve before retiring at the age limit; was a member of commission to revise the laws and regulations of the Connecticut Militia during 1893–95; enlisted in the Connecticut National Guard 1877; elected a Second Lieutenant of Company A, 2d Regiment, 1881; became Captain 1887; served as Colonel of the 2d Regiment from 1895 to 1899, when he resigned his commission; appointed Lieutenant Colonel and Judge Advocate of U. S. Volunteers 1898; served during Spanish-American War on the staffs of General Miles and General Wilson, receiving honorable mention for distinguished service in the Porto Rican campaign; received his discharge January 1, 1899, during the World War (and until 1921) served as president of the Military Emergency Board of Connecticut (delegate to National Defense Conference in Washington 1917), was commissioned Major General commanding the Connecticut State Guard, and also served as chairman of the committee on state protection of the State Council of Defense; member New Haven County Bar Association, Loyal Legion, Sons of Veterans (divisional commander for several years), Spanish War Veterans, Naval and Military Order of the Spanish War, Sons of the American Revolution, Military and Naval Order of Foreign Wars of the United States (past commander), Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the Rockville Congregational Church.

Married three times: (1) September 26, 1882, in Cornwall, N J, Lida, daughter of Stephen Wright and Catherine Bell (Cunningham) Wood, and a sister of his classmate, Stephen C. Wood, three children. Thomas Francis, Helen (Mrs. Walter M. Silleck), and Lida (Mrs. Ellsworth); Mrs. Burpee died July 23, 1889; married (3) April 28, 1904, Ina Fitch Briggs, daughter of Martyn P. and Exene (Tobey) Fitch; no children by that marriage

Death due to disease of the oesophagus. Buried in Grove Hill Cemetery, Rockville, a guard of honor, appointed by the War Department, escorted the body to the grave, where a bugler sounded taps. Survived by wife, son, daughters, and a brother, Charles Winslow Burpee, '83.

Augustus Stiles Carrier, B.A. 1879.

Born December 30, 1857, in Ripley, N. Y.
Died September 4, 1923, in Miami, Fla.

Father, the Rev. Augustus Hart Carrier (B A. 1851, D.D. Wabash 1885), a Presbyterian clergyman, having pastorates in Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Indiana, and California, son of Augustus and Susan Carrier; ancestors came to America from England early in the seventeenth century and settled in Salem, Mass. Mother, Susan Ann Talcott College

1067

(Bandelle) Carrier; daughter of Frederick and Eliza Bandelle, descendant of Frederick Bandelle, who came to America from Germany about 1780 and settled in Canton, Conn.

Erie (Pa.) Academy and Erie High School. First dispute appointment Junior year; second dispute Senior year; member Linonia and Kappa Sigma Epsilon.

After graduation studied law, and taught for a year in Acton and Indianapolis, Ind.; then studied theology at Andover and Hartford Theological Seminaries; ordained as a Presbyterian clergyman in Indianapolis, October 27, 1884; pastor First Presbyterian Church, Bloomington, Ind., 1884-85; studied Semitic languages and literature at Universities of Leipsic and Berlin 1885-87, member of faculty, McCormick Theological Seminary, 1887-1922, instructor in Hebrew 1887-89, adjunct professor and professor of Hebrew and cognate languages 1889-1893, professor of Hebrew and Old Testament exegesis from 1893 until his retirement in 1922; official representative of the Seminary at Yale Bicentennial; author of A Vocabulary of I Samuel, The Hebrew Verb, and an Inaugural Address; contributed articles to Biblical World, Hebraica, the Presbyterian Review, and the Standard Dictionary of the Bible; D.D. and LL.D. Parsons College 1893 and 1913, respectively; member Church of the Covenant, Chicago.

Married July 15, 1885, in Bloomington, Ind., Anne Cornelia, adopted daughter of Richard and Cornelia Trimble. Two children: Susan Dorothea (Mrs. Theophile James Meek) and Richard Augustus (died in infancy). Mrs. Carrier died March 28, 1921.

Death due to pernicious anæmia. Buried at East Ripley, N. Y. Survived by daughter.

Conrad Berens, B.A. 1880.

Born January 10, 1859, in Philadelphia, Pa

Father, Bernard Berens (M.D. University of Bonn 1836); born in Gravenstein, Westphalia; came to America in 1838; practiced medicine in Philadelphia for over forty years; son of the Graf VonGraefenstein, whose family carried university rights for Gottingen. Mother, Rachel Susan (Passmore) Berens; daughter of Samuel and Susan (Knorr) Passmore; descendant of Thomas Passmore, one of the earliest settlers of Philadelphia, who came to America from London in 1776.
Obituary Record

Prepared under a private tutor. Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Studied medicine at the University of Pennsylvania (M.D. 1883), before completing his course published a volume of notes on medical lectures and received the H. C. Lea Prize of $100 for the best work in original research in experimental therapeutics; went to Venezuela as a private tutor, July, 1883, with the intention of practicing medicine there; on account of climate returned to the United States, January, 1884, practiced medicine in Philadelphia from that time until his death, making a specialty of diseases of the eye, ear, nose, and throat; in 1883 appointed clinical lecturer at the Medico-Chirurgical College; promoted to clinical professor in 1886 and served as such until 1896; clinical clerk, assistant surgeon, and surgeon Wills Eye Hospital 1885–1914; author of several monographs on surgical subjects; contributed articles to the Therapeutic Gazette; inventor of surgical instruments; interested in athletics; served as vice-commodore and commodore of the Schuylkill Navy, coxswain of the Undine Barge Club, and treasurer and member of executive committee of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen; founder of the athletic club of the Schuylkill Navy (officer of club 1884–1898), and of its successor, the Philadelphia Athletic Club (member of board of governors); member American Medical Association, American Laryngological, Otological, and Rhinological Society, Philadelphia County Medical Society, and St. James’ Church, Philadelphia (sang in its first boys’ choir).

Death due to heart trouble and Bright’s disease. Interment in Laurel Hill Cemetery, Philadelphia. Survived by children and two brothers, Dr. Bernard Berens (Ph.B. 1877) and Thomas Passmore Berens, of New York City.
Nathaniel Gordon, B.A. 1880.

Born March 24, 1859, in Exeter, N. H.
Died July 2, 1923, in New York City.

Father, Nathaniel Gordon (B.A. Dartmouth 1841), a lawyer; prominent in New Hampshire politics, and in 1870 president of New Hampshire Senate, son of John Stockbridge and Frances (Gordon) Gordon; descendant of Alexander Gordon, who came to America from London in 1651 and settled in Exeter, N. H. Mother, Alcina Eveline (Sanborn) Gordon; daughter of Moses and Betsy (Stevens) Sanborn; descendant of John Sanborn, who came to America from Newton Stacy, Hampshire, England, in 1632 and settled at Hampton, N. H.

Phillips-Exeter. Entered Yale as a Sophomore in 1877; second prize in English composition Sophomore year.

Studied at Union Theological Seminary 1880–82; obliged to give up theological course on account of ill health; taught in private schools in New York City and vicinity for a time, and was afterwards engaged in business in New York; at time of death was not actively engaged in any occupation; member Second Congregational Church, Exeter.

Unmarried.

Frederic William Keator, B.A. 1880.

Born October 22, 1855, in Honesdale, Pa.
Died January 31, 1924, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Jerman Samuel Keator, a lumber manufacturer of Moline, Ill.; son of Samuel Sands Keator of Hancock, N. Y., and Jane Ann (Newkirk) Keator; descendant of Melchert Claessen Kater, who came from Amsterdam, Holland, to New Amsterdam (now New York) prior to 1671 and later settled at Marbletown, Ulster County, N. Y. Mother, Mary Chapman (Baldwin) Keator; daughter of Dennis and Williston Seminary. Oration appointments Junior and Senior years, a Commencement speaker; member of Class Crew for four years and substitute on University Crew Sophomore year; president of the Freshman Navy; member of Freshman Glee Club; sang in the College Choir; member Linonia, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Studied in Yale School of Law 1880–82 (LL.B. 1882); admitted to the Connecticut and Illinois bars 1882; began the practice of law in Chicago in September, 1882, with firm of Edsall, Hawley & Edsall, with which he remained for a few years, afterwards, with E. Frank Thompson (LL.B. 1887), formed the firm of Keator & Thompson, attorneys and counselors, remained in that connection until his ordination to the ministry in 1891; in 1889 entered the Western Theological Seminary; had been interested in church work as a volunteer in Chicago hospitals, and in 1887, in company with Samuel C. Edsall, who later became bishop of North Dakota and then of Minnesota, he helped to establish a mission church in the northern part of the city; the following year took charge of a mission at Edgewater, Ill., a suburb of Chicago, where he served as a lay reader; graduated from the Western Theological Seminary and was ordained to the Episcopal ministry on May 31, 1891, in the Church of the Atonement, Edgewater (the parish he had built up); rector of that church 1891–96, of Grace Church, Freeport, Ill., 1896–99, and of St. John's Church, Dubuque, Iowa, 1899–1902, clerical deputy to General Convention of the Episcopal Church in Washington, D.C., 1898, and at San Francisco, Calif., 1901; at latter convention elected bishop of the then Missionary Jurisdiction of Olympia, Wash.; consecrated to thebishopric in his church at Dubuque January 8, 1902, and held the office until his death; previous to 1901 was secretary and treasurer of Western Theological Seminary, a trustee of Griswold College, and dean of the Waverly Convocation of the Diocese of Iowa; from 1908 until his death, was an overseer of Whitman College (member executive committee of board and also of visiting committee to the college); trustee Veterans' Welfare Commission of the State of Washington and of the Rotary Club; for many years president of the Fanny C. Paddock Hospital (now the Tacoma General Hospital), and for twenty-two years of the board of trustees of the Annie Wright Seminary, a church school for girls in Tacoma; president of the board of the Tacoma Public Library; director Pierce County Social Hygiene Society; vice-president for the Pacific Coast of the Holland Society of New York; chaplain of the Sons of the Revolution in the state of Washington; member "The Presiding Bishop and Council," the executive council of the Episcopal Church, representing all Pacific Coast dioceses; attended Lambeth Conference of Bishops at London 1908 and 1920; appointed honorary chaplain of the Coast Artillery Corps, National Guard of Washington, 1915; during World War devoted much time to work at Camp Lewis; took active interest in Masonry, holding many offices and being a thirty-third degree Mason; one of a committee of five intrusted by the Mystic Shriners with construction of hospitals for crippled children, without regard to race, color, or creed, in various parts of the country; S.T.D. Western Theological Seminary 1902, D.D. Yale 1905, LL.D. College of Puget Sound 1921 and Whitman College 1922; elected to honorary membership in Whitman College chapter of Phi Beta Kappa 1920; was one of the speakers at the Alumni Luncheon at the Yale Commencement in 1905; presided at the general meeting of the Alumni, Commencement, 1920; honorary member of the following Tacoma organizations: Union Club, University Club (president for several years), Tacoma Country and Golf Club, and Tacoma Commercial Club, and the University Club of Seattle.

Married October 30, 1894, in Chicago, Emma Victoria, daughter of George Percival and Marie Louise (Campion) Lyon. One son, Frederic William, Jr. (B.S. University of Washington 1921, M.S. Yale 1923, M.E. 1924), now an instructor in the Sheffield Scientific School.
Obituary Record

Death, due to heart disease, occurred in the New Haven Hospital, after an illness of over two weeks, beginning soon after his arrival in New Haven, where he had come to visit his son. Buried in the Tacoma Cemetery. Survived by wife, son, and a brother, Edward B. Keator, of Watertown, S. Dak.

Heman Charles Whittlesey, B.A. 1880.

Born January 4, 1857, in Newington, Conn.
Died December 13, 1923, in Nyack, N. Y.

Father, Heman Alonzo Whittlesey, a farmer; son of Heman and Electa (Kellogg) Whittlesey; descendant of John Whittlesey, who was born in Cambridge, England, and came to America in 1635, settling in Saybrook, Conn. Mother, Eunice Cornelia (Latimer) Whittlesey; daughter of Erastus and Seviah (Webster) Latimer; descendant of John Latimer, who came from England to Wethersfield, Conn., in 1645. Yale relatives: Martin K. Whittlesey (B.A. 1844) and Charles C. Latimer (M.D. 1856) (uncles).

Hartford Public High School. High oration appointments Junior and Senior years; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon and Phi Beta Kappa.

Immediately after graduation received an appointment in Imperial Maritime Customs Service of China as an assistant on the indoor staff; stationed at treaty ports of Shanghai (1881-83), Wuhu (1883-85), Chefoo (1885-87), Tientsin (1887-88), and, after two years' leave of absence in this country, Foochow (1890-91); resigned from the service, and since 1892 had resided in Middletown, Conn.; was secretary and treasurer Wilcox, Crittenden & Company, Inc., manufacturers of ship chandlery and awning hardware, until his death (director since 1893); vice-president Middletown Savings Bank; member State Board of Charities (1893-99), Middletown Chamber of Commerce, Civil Service Reform Association, Social Service League, Connecticut Society of Sons of the American Revolution, Middletown Old Burying Ground Association and South Congregational Church, Middletown (deacon during the last twenty-five years of his life); life member Middlesex County Historical Society (secretary 1904-1914).

Married October 1, 1890, in Middletown, Mary Crittenden, daughter of William Walter and Elizabeth (Shepard) Wilcox. Two children, Percival Wilcox (B.A. Williams 1913) and Winifred Hamilton (Mrs. William Maxwell Napier).

Death due to apoplexy. Interment in Indian Hill Cemetery, Middletown. Survived by wife and children.

Nathaniel Campbell Fisher, B.A. 1881.

Born September 26, 1860, in New York City.
Died November 7, 1923, in New York City

Prepared at private schools in New York City. Second Berkeley premium in Latin composition Freshman year; dissertation appointments Junior and Senior years; member Debating Society, Linonia, Delta Kappa, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Wolf’s Head.

Connected with Nathaniel Fisher & Company, shoe manufacturers (founded by his father in 1838), since graduation; at time of death secretary and treasurer of the company; member Company K, 7th Regiment, New York National Guard, 1883-88; formerly a Congregationalist; since 1910 member St. Bartholomew’s Protestant Episcopal Church in New York City; member New England Society and Society of Colonial Wars; secretary of the Class of 1881 since 1901.

Unmarried.

Death due to cardiac failure. Interment in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by three brothers: Edward D. Fisher (B.A. College of the City of New York 1875, M.D.
Obituary Record

New York University 1878) and Irving R. Fisher, both of New York City, and Harris B. Fisher (B.A. Williams 1890), of Pelham Manor, N. Y.; and three sisters (all living in New York City): Miss Elizabeth R. Fisher, Mrs. Lefferts Strebeigh, whose husband received the degrees of B.A. and LL.B. at Columbia in 1873 and 1875, respectively, and Mrs. William Ives Washburn, whose husband graduated from Amherst in 1876 and from the Columbia Law School in 1878.

Henry Ives, B.A. 1881.

Born April 27, 1859, in New Haven, Conn.
Died January 31, 1924, in Omaha, Nebr.

Father, Frederic Ives, a manufacturer; member firm of Ives & Miller, proprietors of the Mount Carmel Axle Works; son of Henry and Eliza (Ives) Ives; descendant of William Ives, who came from England to New Haven in 1636. Mother, Susan Julia (Wakelee) Ives; daughter of Stiles and Julia (Wilmot) Wakelee. Uncle, Wilbur Ives (B.A. 1863).

General Russell's Collegiate and Commercial Institute and Hopkins Grammar School. Entered Yale with Class of 1880, with which he spent a year; completed his course with Class of 1881; member Class Baseball Team for three years; substitute catcher on University Baseball Team Freshman and Senior years; member University Football Team for three years and of '81 Barge Crew in 1878; floor manager Junior Promenade Committee; member Psi Upsilon and Skull and Bones.

After graduation connected with Ives & Miller for eight years, both as an employee and part owner; was then president of the Edgewood Company of New Haven, dealers in brass goods, for some time; moved to New York City and for about two years was a clerk in the law office of Howard T. Walden, '81, whose practice dealt particularly with U. S. Customs Revenue law; from 1906 until 1913 was engaged in the insurance business with the Pacific Coast Casualty Company, most of the time as auditor (with Seeley & Company, general agents for the company, at Tacoma, Wash., 1906–08, in the San Francisco office 1908–1911; represented the company in the East 1911–13); since 1916 had resided in Omaha, where he was employed in the traffic department of the Orchard & Wilhelm Company, wholesale and retail dealers in furniture, rugs, carpets, and draperies.
Tale College

Married Mrs. Minerva Rowley Siegrist, of New York City. Mr. and Mrs. Ives were divorced in 1915.

Death due to heart failure. Buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Omaha. Survived by a brother, Frederic Ives, '95.

Calvin Stewart McChesney, B.A. 1881.

Born December 15, 1857, in Pittstown, N. Y.
Died February 1, 1924, in Troy, N. Y.

Father, Nelson McChesney, a manufacturer and farmer; son of Hugh and Lucia (Collins) McChesney; descendant of Robert McChesney (of Norman origin), who came from Ireland to Brunswick, N. Y., in 1764. Mother, Sarah Stewart (Barry) McChesney; daughter of Charles Hubbard and Maria (Filkins) Barry; ancestors of Scotch-Irish origin; descendant of Jacob Smith, who settled in Rockingham, Vt., in 1697.

Peekskill Military Academy. Member Yale Rifle Club, Class Supper Committee (Senior year), Delta Kappa, and Psi Upsilon.

Traveled abroad during summer of 1881; worked on a farm until October, 1882; then entered the Yale School of Law (LL.B. 1884); entered law office of Warren, Patterson & Gambell in Troy December, 1884; admitted to bar 1886; engaged in independent practice 1889–1893; in partnership with Mr. Clarence E. Betts, under firm name of McChesney & Betts from 1893 until 1896, when partnership was dissolved; in private practice 1896–99; renewed partnership with Mr. Betts under same firm name in 1899 and continued in that connection until the death of Mr. Betts in 1906; practiced independently 1906–09; in partnership with Ransom H. Gillett, '00 S., 1909–1912; in 1913 elected surrogate of Rensselaer County on the Democratic ticket and served one term (six years); failed of reëlection in 1919; nominee of his party for state senator in 1910 but was defeated; enlisted in the 6th Separate Company of the New York National Guard (known as the Troy Citizens' Corps) 1890; Quartermaster Sergeant of the company 1893–98; during Spanish-American War served with Company A, 2d Regiment, New York Infantry (made Quartermaster of the company); commissioned Second Lieutenant of Infantry June, 1898; mustered out November, 1898; member Camp Marcus Russell, United Spanish War Veterans (judge advocate 1913–14); vice-president Troy Citizens' Corps; trustee of the Supreme Court Library for two years; president Rensselaer County Bar Association 1913–15; member New York State Bar Association, president of the Pafræts Dael Club; associate member American Game Protective and Propagation Association, life member National Riflemen's Association; member Sons of the Revolution and Alpha Chi Sigma, attended St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Troy.

Married October 25, 1899, in New Haven, Conn., Caroline Lindsley, who received a certificate from the Yale School of the Fine Arts in 1883, and who was the daughter of Charles Augustus Lindsley (M D. 1852) and Lydia Louise (Harrison) Lindsley, and a sister of Dr. C. Purdy Lindsley, '75 S., and the late Harrison W. Lindsley, '72 S. One son, Lindsley (B.A 1922).

Death, due to heart disease, occurred after an illness of about two years Buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Troy. Survived by wife and son.

Frederick Seymour, B.A. 1881.
Born August 2, 1856, at Whitney Point, N Y.
Died May 29, 1924, in East Orange, N. J

Father, George Whitfield Seymour, a manufacturer and merchant, largely instrumental in the upbuilding of Whitney Point, where he was born, received his education, and was engaged in teaching school; was subsequently engaged in farming on a part of the paternal homestead, but at the time of the Civil War was in the mercantile business; he built and operated a tannery, manufactured brick, and was among the leading business men of the county; was a justice of the peace for many years and served as a Captain in the local militia, son of John and Sally (Stoddard) Seymour; brother of Louis Irving Seymour (an eminent mining and mechanical engineer, who organized a pioneer railway regiment of South Africa and was in the service of the British Government with the rank of Major; was killed in 1900 during the Boer War, and the British Government, in his honor, dedicated a memorial library to his name and erected a shaft on the site where he fell); descendant of Richard Seymour, who came from England to Hartford, Conn., in 1639. Mother, Mary (Freeman) Seymour; daughter of Stephen and Clarissa (Thompson) Freeman; descendant of Edward Freeman, who came to America from England in 1640 and settled in Connecticut.

Preparatory training received at public schools in Whitney Point and Binghamton, N. Y., and Scranton, Pa.; before entering Yale spent some time in his father’s businesses, acquiring thereby a thorough knowledge of the tanning of hides and the making of bricks. Third prize in English composition Sophomore year; an editor of the Yale Courant; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Alpha Kappa, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

After graduation spent a year at the Columbia Law School; admitted to the New York Bar September 15, 1882; practiced corporation and patent law in New York City from February 13, 1883, until his death (clerk in the law office of Dill & Chandler 1883–84; partner in firm of Dill, Chandler & Seymour 1884–1896, in that of Dill, Seymour & Kellogg 1896, and in Dill, Seymour & Baldwin 1896–97; in independent practice 1897–99; in firm of Seymour, Seymour & Harmon, of which his brother was also a member, 1899–1905, in Seymour, Seymour & Megrath 1905–1913, in Seymour, Megrath & Billings 1913–16; in Seymour & Seymour 1916–1921; since 1921 had been engaged independently in the practice of corporation law); president and director of the Aero Pulverizer Company of New York City (inventor and patentee of the Aero Pulverizer or unit system of powdered coal), at the time of his death was also a director in a number of other companies, including the Western Cartridge Company and the Equitable Powder Manufacturing Company; member New York Law Institute, New York County Lawyers Association, and Grace Episcopal Church, Orange, N. J.
Married October 14, 1885, in Waterbury, Conn., Julia Clark, daughter of Nathan and Sarah Jane (Simmons) Dikeman, and sister of the late Henry N. Dikeman, ex-'90 L. Three children: Helen (B.A Smith 1909), the widow of C. Seymour Newcomb, '01 S. (her first cousin); Stella Margaret (Mrs. William R. Nelson); and Frederick Dikeman, ex-'16 S.

Death due to a complication of anaemia and erysipelas. Buried at Whitney Point. Survived by wife; son; daughters; two sisters, Miss Stella M. Seymour and Mrs. Mary Seymour Newcomb, both of whom live at Whitney Point; and his brother, John S. Seymour, '75.

William Reid Walker, B.A. 1881.

Born May 21, 1858, at "Sunnyside," Union County, S. C.

Died October 14, 1923, in Jersey City, N. J.

Father, Capt. Samuel Sidney Walker, a planter; son of Capt. James Fowler and Nancy (Reid) Walker; descendant of Mason Walker, who came to Union County from Wales. Mother, Sarah (Carothers) Walker; daughter of John and Rachel (Ross) Carothers; descendant of Lieut. Andrew Carothers, who fought at King's Mountain and in other battles of the Revolutionary War, and of Margaret Neely Carothers, who came to America from Scotland.

Prepared at the academy in Union, S. C.; attended Wofford College for two years. Entered Yale as a Sophomore in 1878; dissertation appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year.

Taught school for two years in Marion County, S. C.; Southern representative of Ginn & Company, publishers of New York City, from 1882 until his death; owner of a large plantation in Cherokee County, S. C.; breeder of Aberdeen Angus cattle and Berkshire hogs; member Aberdeen Angus Breeders' Association; during latter part of his life his home was in Union, where he was a director of the Nicholson Bank & Trust Company, member Mesopotamia Methodist Church.

Unmarried

Death due to heart disease. Interment in family plot in Skull Shoals churchyard, Cherokee County. Survived by a sister, Miss Minnie Lee Walker, of Union.
Henry Clarke Jefferds, B.A. 1882.

Born November 28, 1860, in Kennebunkport, Maine.
Died July 22, 1923, in Portland, Ore.

Bangor High School. Dissertation appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; member Senior Class Supper Committee, Delta Kappa, and Psi Upsilon.

Studied at Hahnemann Medical College, Philadelphia (M.D. 1885); was an interne at the Homeopathic Hospital on Ward's Island, N. Y., in 1885, at the same time taking a postgraduate course in the Polyclinic Hospital; practiced medicine in Bangor from August, 1886, to November, 1889; then moved to Portland, Ore., and was engaged in active practice there until his death, making a specialty of surgery; surgeon to the Portland Homeopathic Hospital, Oregon Iron & Steel Company, Eastern & Western Lumber Company, and Children's Home; assistant surgeon Oregon National Guard; assistant medical director Columbia Life & Trust Company of Oregon; Fellow American College of Surgeons; member American Medical Association, American Institute of Homeopathy, Oregon Medical Society, and Portland Medical Society; contributed to various medical journals; during World War served as vice-chairman Medical Section, Oregon State Council of National Defense, and as secretary medical committee, Volunteer Service Corps; was a regular attendant at the First Presbyterian Church, Portland.

Unmarried.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage (the third attack within two months). Buried in Mount Hope Cemetery, Bangor. Survived by a sister and two brothers.
Nelson William Bell, B.A. 1883.

Born January 4, 1860, in New York City.
Died June 13, 1924, in Pasadena, Calif.

Father, Molyneux Bell.
Williston Seminary. Member Class Baseball Team Freshman year and Delta Kappa Epsilon.
Graduated at Columbia Law School 1885; admitted to the bar before the Supreme Court of New York State June 27, 1885, moved to Pasadena in March, 1886; admitted to the California Bar April 13, 1891; practiced law in Los Angeles 1891-1902, subsequently became associated in the practice of law with W. S. Wright and V. L. Ward in Pasadena under the firm name of Wright, Bell & Ward and continued in that connection until Mr. Wright’s death in 1915; since then had practiced independently; member Pasadena Emergency Defense 1918.
Unmarried.
Death, following an operation for cancer of the stomach, occurred at the Pasadena Hospital. Body cremated; ashes to be interred at Brooklyn. Survived by no immediate relatives. Yale is one of the residuary legatees of his estate.

Albert Carr, B.A. 1883.

Born April 13, 1859, in Collinsville, Conn.
Died June 18, 1924, in East Orange, N. J.

Father, Rodney Carr, a carriage maker; son of James and Lucinda (Hayes) Carr. Mother, Esther (Pettibone) Carr; daughter of Harlow and Lucy (Cornish) Pettibone, and niece of John Owen Pettibone (B.A. 1805).
Hartford Public High School. Oration appointment Junior year, dissertation appointment Senior year; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon.
After graduation, was employed for several months on the survey for the proposed Hartford & Harlem Railroad, and then spent a year at his home in Collinsville; in 1885 went to Brooklyn and worked for the Brooklyn Elevated Railroad, the Long Island Railroad, and the Union Elevated Railroad, rising from rodman to assistant engineer in charge of all the field work of the Union Elevated; became division engineer on the Broadway Cable Road in New York City in 1891 and was employed by that company, and by the Metropolitan Traction Company and the Metropolitan Street Railway Company, until 1900; in 1897 became principal assistant engineer in charge of the field work of the last-named company (built about ninety miles of cable and underground electric road); division engineer of the New York Rapid Transit Commission, having charge of the construction of the first division of the New York subway, from Bowling Green to Forty-second Street, 1900–05; during the next year and a half was in Mexico as manager of construction for the Mexican Light & Power Company on their hydro-electric development at Necaxa in the state of Puebla (the largest water-power development in Mexico, furnishing light and power to the city of Mexico and a large adjacent mining district); went to San Francisco in December, 1906, as chief engineer of the United Railroads of that city and had charge of rebuilding the street railway system after the earthquake; resigned his position in September, 1907, and for a year was superintendent of construction for the Central Colorado Power Company at Colorado Springs; returned to New York City and was engaged in private practice as a consulting engineer until 1917; from June to September, 1913, was in South America, investigating the transit system of Buenos Aires for J. G. White & Company; during a part of 1917 and 1918 was in charge of construction at Camp Sherman, Ohio; chief engineer for the Powers-Kennedy Contracting Corporation of New York City 1922–24, at the time of his death being in charge of construction; since 1892 his residence had been in East Orange, where he attended Trinity Congregational Church; member American Society of Civil Engineers.

Married February 9, 1888, in Simsbury, Conn., Josie Maria, daughter of David E. and Joanna (Picket) Butterfield. Eight children: Joanna, the wife of Wilbur A. Swain, a non-graduate member of the Class of 1915 at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology; Katherine (B.A. Smith 1913), who married the Rev. C. Merton Wilson (B.A. Dartmouth 1911, B.D. Drew Theological Seminary 1917); Rodney Butterfield and Allan Abbot (twins, who died in infancy); Robert Picket (M.E. and B.S Michigan College of Mines 1921); Laura Abbot (B.A Smith 1919); Lucy Pettibone (B.A. Smith 1923), and Isabel Maria (R.N. Clifton Springs Training School 1923), the wife of Philip Wyeth Tiemann.
Obituary Record

Death due to septicaemia. Buried in Rosedale Cemetery, Orange. Survived by wife; six children; a brother, James E. Carr, of West Haven, Conn.; and a sister, Dr. Ellen R. Carr, of Collinsville.

Francis Davis Chamberlain, B.A. 1883.

Died February 7, 1924, in West Chester, Pa.

Father, Abner Miller Chamberlain; son of James and Mary (Miller) Chamberlain. Mother, Harriet Work (Jones) Chamberlain; daughter of Joseph and Hannah (Solomon) Jones. Cousin, Thomas W. Miller, ’08 S.

Phillips-Exeter. First colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years.

Studied at Yale School of Law 1883–85 (LL.B. cum laude 1885), admitted to the Oregon Bar at Salem 1885; practiced law in Portland, Ore., 1885–1920; retired from practice on account of ill health in 1920 and resided in West Chester until his death, lecturer on corporations and partnership at the Law School of the University of Oregon 1908–1918; member First Presbyterian Church, Portland.

Married June 30, 1892, in Coburg, Ore., Lucy Deady, daughter of George Henry Huff and Mary Elizabeth (Henderson) Murch. No children.

Death due to an internal hemorrhage. Interment in Oaklands Cemetery, West Chester. Survived by wife and two sisters, the Misses Anna and Martha Chamberlain, of West Chester.
Stephen Leonard Geisthardt, B.A. 1883.

Born January 29, 1862, in Eisfeld, Saxe Meinngen, Germany.
Died February 18, 1924, in Lincoln, Nebr.

Father, Godfried Andreas Geisthardt, a pattern weaver and loom repairer; came to America in 1862 and settled at Fitchburg, Mass; son of Paul and Elisabeth (Frickman) Geisthardt. Mother, Rosalie (Thauer) Geisthardt; daughter of Christian and Elizabeth (Dressel) Thauer.

Norwich (Conn ) Free Academy. First Berkeley prize in Latin composition Freshman year; philosophical oration appointments Junior and Senior years; Phi Beta Kappa; member Gamma Nu and of Hare and Hounds Club in Senior year.

After graduation was a private tutor in Brooklyn, N. Y., for two years; also studied law at Columbia (LL.B. 1885) and in the office of C. S. Davidson of New York City; instructor in modern languages at the University of Nebraska 1885–87; since then had practiced law in Lincoln; director and attorney of National Bank of Commerce from 1902 until his death; member city library board 1888–1910 (president from 1901); in charge of the erection of the Carnegie Library in Lincoln 1901–02; consular agent of the German Empire for the state of Nebraska 1906–1917; trustee and treasurer Nebraska State Historical Society; member American Bar Association; during the last twelve years of his life attended the Church of the Holy Trinity (Episcopal); formerly a member of All Souls' Unitarian Church, Lincoln.

Married April 23, 1912, in Lincoln, Frances Mary, daughter of Henry Herbert and Elizabeth Mary (Charters) Geeting. No children.

Death due to apoplexy Interment in Wyuka Cemetery, Lincoln. Survived by wife; parents; a brother, Charles M. Geisthardt, of Preston City, Conn.; and two sisters, Miss Emma Geisthardt, also of Preston City, and Mrs. Guy Palmer Dorsey, of Omaha, Nebr.
Sidney Wright Hopkins, Jr., B.A. 1884.

Born February 18, 1862, in New York City.
Died August 7, 1923, in East Orange, N. J.

Father, Sidney Wright Hopkins, a retired merchant; son of Edwin Augustus and Cornelia Ann (Golder) Hopkins; descendant of Thomas Hopkins, who came to America from Chiselbourne, England, in 1630 and settled at Providence, R. I. Mother, Anna Maria (Clark) Hopkins; daughter of Thomas and Rebecca (Bloodgood) Clark.

Phillips-Andover. Rowed on Class Crew Freshman year; member Class Cup Committee; member Sigma Epsilon, Hé Boulé, and Delta Kappa Epsilon; one of the founders of Wolf's Head, of which his father was an honorary member.

Studied law in the office of Sewell, Pierce & Sheldon, New York City, and at Columbia 1884–86 (LL.B. 1886); admitted to bar in 1886 and practiced law in New York City until 1903 (member of the firm of Sewell & Pierce for two years); connected with legal department of the American Telephone & Telegraph Company since 1903 (general contract attorney for several years prior to death).

Married September 4, 1909, in New York City, Evelyn, daughter of Thomas Jefferson and Imogen (Collins) Briggs. No children.

Death due to a complication of diseases. Interment in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by wife and two sisters, Miss Ella C. Hopkins and Mrs. Edward F. Sanford.

Paul Emott Jenks, B.A. 1884.

Born April 6, 1862, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died September 1, 1923, in Yokohama, Japan

Father, Grenville Tudor Jenks (B.A. Williams 1849), a lawyer, son of the Rev. Francis Jenks (B.A. Harvard 1817), a Unitarian clergyman and editor of the Christian Examiner, and Sarah Hurd (Phillips) Jenks, whose father, John Phillips, was the first mayor of Boston; descendant of Joseph Jenks, who came to America from Colebrook, England, in 1642 and settled at Lynn, Mass. (established iron works, cut the dies for the "Pine Tree Shilling," and was the first patentee of America). Mother, Persis Sophia (Smith) Jenks; daughter of General Roland Smith, of the Massachusetts Militia, and Lucy (Snow) Smith; early ancestors (of Scotch-Irish origin) settled in Windsor, Vt., in 1730. Nephew, Almet F. Jenks, Jr., '14.

Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute and Hopkins Grammar School. Member Freshman Class Supper Committee and Freshman Baseball and Football teams; substitute on the University Baseball Team; won the class championship in tennis; third prize for declamation Sophomore year; a class historian; Yale reporter for the New Haven Register; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Hé Boulé, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Superintendent of the Scovill Manufacturing Company, Waterbury, Conn., 1884–86; cashier of the Citizens Bank, Waterbury, 1887; assistant treasurer, city treasurer's office, Brooklyn, 1888–1892; in the law office of his brother, Almet F. Jenks, '75, in 1894; went to Japan as representative of the J. B. Millet Company of Boston in 1898; resided there until his death, with the exception of a short period spent in the United States; engaged in business in Yokohama as a commission merchant, at first with Mr. George Woolsey of the Eastern Trading Company, and later with the American Trading Company; secretary in the publishing office of the London Times in Yokohama 1902–06; at one time writer of editorials and sport articles for the Japan Gazette; with the American Consulate General, Yokohama, from 1916 until his death (chief clerk until 1916; since then vice-consul); had a very wide knowledge of the Japanese dialect and idioms; contributed a series of articles to Outing in 1895, under the title of "My Westering Wheel," describing a bicycle trip through France from Paris to Biarritz; member St. Paul's Church, Waterbury.

Unmarried.

Lost his life in the earthquake disaster at Yokohama; his remains were recovered six weeks later and interred in Nigiochi, by order of the consul. Survived by a sister, Mrs. Nathaniel S. Simpkins, of Beverly Farms, Mass., and his brother, Almet F. Jenks. Another brother, Tudor Jenks, '78, died in 1922.
Obituary Record

Edwin McClellan, B.A. 1884.

Born April 25, 1861, in Argyle, N. Y.

Father, John A. McClellan, a farmer; son of Col. William McClellan and Margaret (Randles) McClellan; grandson of Robert McClellan, who came to America from Scotland in 1774 and after living for ten years at Brumley, Vt., moved, in 1784, to Hebron, N. Y. Mother, Mary Jane (Gilchrist) McClellan; daughter of William and Jane Gilchrist; descendant of Thomas Gilchrist, who came to Argyle from the north of Ireland about 1780.

Claverack (N. Y.) Academy. Member Class Glee Club and of University Glee Club (manager in 1884) for two years; business manager Yale Courant Senior year; first dispute appointment Junior year, first colloquy appointment Senior year; member Psi Upsilon and Scroll and Key.

Taught in a private school in Cincinnati, Ohio, for a year after graduation; connected with the McMillan Type-setting & Distributing Company from 1886 to 1891, at first in Albany and later in New York City; had charge of advertising for W T. Hanson Company, manufacturers of medicinal specialties in Schenectady, N. Y., 1891-98; in 1898 became treasurer and manager of the Foster-McClellan Company of Buffalo, N. Y., which was organized that year to handle the foreign business of the Foster-Milburn Company of Buffalo, dealers in proprietary medicines; spent much time in organizing branches of the business in all parts of the world, having his headquarters in London since 1899; at time of his death was treasurer of the Foster-McClellan Company and a vice-president of the Foster-Milburn Company; also a partner in the E. P. Remington Advertising Agency of Buffalo; when in this country resided at Cambridge, N. Y., where about 1919 he erected and equipped a hospital, giving it his mother's name (considered one of the finest county hospitals in this country; Dr. William B. Coley, '84, is the visiting surgeon); about 1918 erected a memorial building for Yale in China, of which he was a trustee; belonged to First Dutch Reformed Church of Schenectady for some years; later became a mem-
James Bronson Reynolds, B.A. 1884.

Born March 17, 1861, in Kiantone, N. Y.
Died January 1, 1924, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, the Rev. William Thomas Reynolds (B.A. 1845), a Congregational minister; studied at Andover Theological Seminary and Yale Divinity School, graduating from the latter in 1848; had pastorates at Sherman and Kiantone, N. Y., and at North Haven (thirty years); son of James and Hetty (Smith) Reynolds; ancestors came from Chester, England. Mother, Sarah Maria (Painter) Reynolds; daughter of Alexis Painter (B.A. 1815) and Maria (McMahon) Painter. Yale relatives include: William H. W. Campbell, '56, and Henry W. Painter, '56 M. (uncles); and Philip G. Bartlett, '81, Dr. Henry McM. Painter, '84, Alexis P. Bartlett, '94, Alexis P. Nason, '15, Russell S. Bartlett, '17, Sidney Painter, '25, and Philip G. Bartlett, Jr., '27 (cousins).

Hopkins Grammar School; Hartford (Conn.) Public High School. Member Class Football Team Freshman year; runner in track games, winning 220 yard run Junior year; vice-president Freshman Debating Club; second dispute appointment Junior year; first colloquy appointment Senior year; a class deacon; secretary, and later president, Yale Y. M. C. A.; superintendnet Bethany Mission, New Haven; member Delta Kappa, Eta Phi, and Psi Upsilon.

Spent a year in travel and study abroad, taking courses at Paris and Heidelberg; attended Yale Divinity School.
1885-89 (B.D. 1888); on graduate committee of Yale Y M. C. A. and with the management of conferences of American college students at Northfield, Mass.; as official representative of the College Y. M. C. A. of America visited forty-four universities of Great Britain and Europe and organized and attended inter-university conferences 1889-1893, at the same time studying various problems of social reform, on his return to this country served as president of three congresses connected with the Chicago Exposition; was offered and declined the secretarship of the University of Chicago and the position of lecturer on education; head of the University Settlement in New York City 1894-1901; Fellow in sociology at Columbia 1894; took part in the municipal campaign of that year as a member of the Committee of Seventy, formed to secure the defeat of Tammany Hall and the election of a non-partisan mayor, and after the election acted as secretary of several committees chosen to carry out reforms planned by the Committee of Seventy; member 10th Ward board of trustees of public schools 1895, later helping to abolish the trustee system and secure the substitution of a single board of education; in the political campaign of 1897 served on the Committee of Fifteen of the City Club and as chairman of the executive committee of the Citizens Union, which he helped to organize; studied law at New York University 1898-1900 and was admitted to the bar; devoted his attention to the reform of criminal law; member New York State Tenement House Commission 1900; chairman New York County committee of Citizens Union 1901; secretary to Mayor Seth Low and in charge of the reform of Bureau of Licenses 1902-03, in 1904 went abroad for two years, being especially commissioned by President Roosevelt to inquire into the consular service in the Far East, served as special adviser to the President on municipal affairs of the District of Columbia 1905-08; member special commission appointed to investigate the Chicago stockyards 1906, served as chairman of commission to investigate labor conditions in Panama; made other special investigations, including the immigration service (particularly in the handling of Chinese affairs) and the conditions in the Government Printing Office; delegate to the Republican National Convention from the 16th Congressional District of New York 1908; began the practice of law in New York City 1909, serving that year as member New York State Immigration Commission; assistant district attorney of New York and head of Complaint Bureau 1910–13, being assigned as counsel to the additional Grand Jury summoned to investigate the white slave traffic; counsel to American Social Hygiene Association 1913–16; became counsel to American Vigilance Association in 1913; member of the Committee of Fourteen 1913–1920; chairman of executive board of Volunteer Defenders Committee 1917; engaged in legal investigating work for Intelligence Division of the War Department for three months in 1918; since 1921 had been president of American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology; during his last illness worked on surveys of three Connecticut cities and of three other cities; had contributed articles to The Congregationalist and the Atlantic Monthly; vice-president Social Reform Club; chairman of executive committee of the Society of the Friends of Russian Freedom since its organization; elected to executive board of National Prison Association 1923; member American Bar Association, New Haven County Bar Association, National Municipal Reform League, Century Association, Municipal Art Society, and Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York City.

Married July 16, 1898, in London, Florence Blanchard Dike, who was a special student at Smith College in 1883, and the daughter of Henry Albyn Dike, of New York City. No children. Mrs. Reynolds died September 28, 1919.

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Oak Grove Cemetery, West Haven. Memorial meeting to commemorate his public services held at University Settlement, New York City, March 9, 1924. By the terms of his will a bequest of $10,000 was left to Yale University; a bequest of books and pamphlets was made to the Yale Graduate Women's Club, and one of paintings to the Yale Art School; his country estate at Chocorua, N. H., was left to Smith College, to constitute a memorial to his wife and to be used as a rest home for graduates, officers, and teachers of that college, and also for a limited number of women graduates and students of the Yale Graduate School; the major portion of his estate will eventually be paid to the Yale Foreign Missionary Society, for the use of Yale in China, $50,000 of that residue to be used for the construction of a building for the education and care of women, in memory of his wife. Survived by his sister-in-law, Miss Alice M. Dike, of New York City; and four cousins, Miss Alice E. Reynolds, of New Haven, Mrs. Huntley Drummond, of Montreal, James Stuart Reynolds, of Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Frank L. Nason, of West Haven.

Frank VanAllen, B.A. 1885.

Born January 10, 1860, in Dubuque, Iowa.
Died August 28, 1923, in Melur, South India.

It has been impossible to secure the desired information for an obituary sketch of Dr. VanAllen in time for publication in this volume. A biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.

Charles Asher Knight, B.A. 1887.

Born October 19, 1864, in Peekskill, N. Y.
Died January 6, 1924, in Peekskill, N. Y.

Father, Charles Calvin Knight (M.D. New York University 1855), practiced medicine in Peekskill, where he was physician to St. Joseph's Home, president of the Peekskill Savings Bank, and a director of the Westchester County National Bank, son of Calvin and Mary (Temple) Knight; descendant of Richard Knight, who came to America from England on the ship "James" and settled at Newport, R. I., in 1635. Mother, Lucy (Brown) Knight; daughter of the Rev. Daniel Brown (B.A. Williams 1837) and Susan (Tompkins) Brown; descendant of Abijah Brown, who came to this country from England and was one of the first settlers of Nelson, N. H.

Peekskill Military Academy and Williston Seminary. Second colloquy appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year.

Attended the Medical College of New York University
Tale College

1887–1890 (M.D. 1890); was graduated second in his class and received first prize in a competitive examination for a hospital appointment; served for two years as interne at Bellevue Hospital, New York City; since 1892 had been engaged in the practice of medicine at Peekskill; was also chief surgeon to the Peekskill Hospital, physician to St. Joseph's Home, the Peekskill Military Academy, and St. Germain's Home and St. Paul's Friary at Garrison, N. Y., and examining physician for the Ætina Life Insurance, the Travelers Insurance, and the Maryland Casualty companies; member local draft board during the war; member American Academy of Medicine, American Medical Association, Westchester County Medical Society (membership committee), and Society of the Alumni of Bellevue Hospital; director Yale Alumni Association of Westchester County for one term; attended the Peekskill Presbyterian Church.

Married April 11, 1894, in Northport, N. Y., Elizabeth Olive, daughter of Lucius Hastings and Anna Louise (Morton) Sammis. Two children: Charles Calvin, who attended Union College for a year as a member of the Class of 1922, and Olive Louise.

Death due to angina pectoris. Interment in Hillside Cemetery, Peekskill. Address at his funeral was delivered by his classmate, the Rev. J. Scott King. Survived by wife, son, daughter, and two sisters, the Misses Lucy Brown and Mable Temple Knight.

Edward Hiram Norton, B.A. 1887.

Born June 17, 1862, in Richmond, Mass.

Father, Edward Hiram Norton; engaged in the milling and mercantile business; veteran of the Civil War; son of Hiram and Caroline (Wadhams) Norton; descendant of Thomas Norton, who came to America from Oakley, Surrey, in 1639 and settled in the Guilford (Conn.) Colony. Mother, Catherine Elizabeth (Sharp) Norton; daughter of John A. and Susan Eliza (Griffing) Sharp; ancestors came to America from Wales about 1675 and settled at Southold, N. Y. Yale relatives include John Sharp, '65.
Phillips-Andover. Second dispute appointment Junior year; first colloquy appointment Senior year; member Pundits.

Taught English and mathematics at Phillips-Andover, 1887-89; assistant manager George S. Clinton Publishing House of Chicago at their branch office in Boston 1889-1890; with Dodd, Mead & Company of New York City, publishers, 1890-97 (assistant manager in connection with sale of International Encyclopedia 1893-97); assistant manager in the publication and sale of Charles Dudley Warner Library of the World's Best Literature 1897-1900; manager for G. & C. Merriam Company of Springfield, in sale of Reference History Edition of Webster's New International Dictionary, and also subscription manager for the same company from 1900 until his death; one of the three trustees of the Crossett Realty Trust, proprietors of a business block in Springfield, 1908-1923, trustee and financial secretary First Presbyterian Church, Mount Vernon, N. Y., for some years; member Faith Congregational Church, Springfield (chairman prudential committee, financial secretary 1901-1912, and member building committee for new church building 1912); treasurer Realty Club of Springfield for nineteen years.

Death due to acute nephritis. Interment in Pine Hill Cemetery, Westfield, Mass. Survived by wife, four sons, three grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Frederick M. Green, of Hartford, Conn.
John Norton Pomeroy, B.A. 1887.

Born May 7, 1866, in South Orange, N. J.
Died May 31, 1924, in Urbana, Ill.

Father, John Norton Pomeroy (B.A. Hamilton 1847, LL.D. 1865); professor of law at New York University and the University of California; author of numerous standard law books; son of Enos and Sarah (Norton) Pomeroy; descendant of Eltweed Pomeroy, who came from England to Dorchester, Mass., in 1630; other ancestors include Thomas Clap, the fifth president of Yale, Governor John Bradford of Plymouth, Thomas Hooker, one of the founders of Hartford, and Colonel Willett, the first mayor of New York City. Mother, Ann Rebecca (Carter) Pomeroy; daughter of Cyrus and Harriet (Howard) Carter, of Savannah, Ga.; descendant of Governor Hutchinson of Massachusetts.

Boys’ High School, San Francisco, Calif. Entered University of California with Class of 1886, remaining a year; entered Yale with Class of 1887; Woolsey Scholar throughout his course; first mathematical premium and the first Berkeley Premium in Latin composition Freshman year; two prizes for English composition and a second mathematical premium Sophomore year; a second Winthrop prize in Latin and Greek Junior year; philosophical oration appointments Junior and Senior years; two-year honors in ancient languages Senior year; chairman Yale Literary Magazine; member Pundit Club, Gamma Nu, Psi Upsilon, Skull and Bones, Chi Delta Theta, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Graduate student in political science at Yale 1887–88, studied at the Columbia Law School, where he was editor of the Columbia Law Times, and at the Columbia School of Political Science 1888–1890; M.A. Yale 1889; studied law at University of California, receiving degree of LL.B. in 1891; admitted to the California Bar that year and practiced law in San Francisco for the next eight years (associated with his brother, Carter P. Pomeroy, a graduate of the University of Rochester in 1878, for a time); instructor in the Law School of Stanford University 1895–96; filled temporary vacancies in the Law School of Washington and Lee University and the
Obituary Record

Yale School of Law in 1900; during the next ten years was engaged in preparing various editions of law books written by his father and in independent legal writing and editing, residing in Oakland, Calif. (1901-04), San Francisco (1904-06 and 1908-1910), and New York City and Lexington, Va. (1906-08); assistant professor of law at the University of Illinois 1910-11 and professor of law from 1911 until his death (member of the committee on educational policy for some time); served as a special expert to the Tariff Commission in Washington, in the fall of 1918, engaged in the preparation of a digest of the world’s extant commercial treaties for the use of the Peace Conference; spent about two and a half years (1918-1920) in Berkeley, Calif., for the purpose of completing the work on which he had been engaged at Washington; in 1914 helped to organize a walking club among the faculty of the University of Illinois (had been a member of the Sierra Club while in California); also instigated the formation of a club for the purpose of reading Greek literature in the original; edited Pomeroy’s Code Remedies (1894), Specific Performance (1897), and Equity Jurisprudence (1905), for the last of which he wrote two supplementary volumes; chief editor of Pomeroy’s Annotated Codes of California (1901); author of Equitable Remedies (1905) and of biographical essays on Stephen J. Field and John Norton Pomeroy in William Draper Lewis’s Great American Lawyers; contributed articles to the Cyclopedia of Law and Procedure and to various law periodicals; secretary of the Yale Alumni Association of California 1893-94; member American Political Science Association, American Association for Labor Legislation, National Conservation Association, American Institute of Criminology, San Francisco Bar Association, Phi Delta Phi, and St. Luke’s Episcopal Church, San Francisco.

Married August 17, 1899, in Oakland, Annie Crévot, daughter of George Francis and Mary Hay (Stirling) Barrington. One daughter, Harriet Barrington.

Death, due to pernicious anaemia, followed an illness of several months, resulting from an attack of influenza and pneumonia. Survived by wife, daughter, and a sister, the wife of Dr. W. Gilman Thompson, ’77 S.
Richard Simms Thomas, B.A. 1887.

Born February 19, 1866, in Waukegan, Ill.
Died July 8, 1923, in New York City.

Father, Richard Simms Thomas, 2d, a lawyer; attended Illinois College 1838; member Illinois Legislature 1848–1850; president Illinois River Railroad Company for seven years; trustee University of Chicago and Baptist Theological Union; son of Richard Simms Thomas, a judge of the 4th Judicial Circuit of Missouri, and Frances (Pattie) Thomas; nephew of Jesse Burgess Thomas, president of the first Constitutional Convention of Illinois, first United States senator from that state, and author of the Missouri Compromise; descendant of Thomas Thomas, who came to St. Mary’s County, Md., from England in 1651. Mother, Helen Malvina (Naylor) Thomas; daughter of William and Lucy (Clark) Naylor; descendant of Samuel Naylor, who came to America from England about 1675 and settled in Virginia, and of Jonathan Clark, who came to Kentucky from England about 1700.

Prepared under private tutors. First dispute appointment Junior year; dissertation appointment Senior year; member Intercollegiate Tennis Team and Delta Kappa Epsilon; chairman Senior Promenade Committee.

Studied at Columbia Law School 1887–89 (LL.B. 1889); in law office of Brownell & Lathrop, New York City, 1889–1890; admitted to New York Bar March, 1890, but had never practiced; taught at Woodbridge School, New York City, 1887–1892; was New England manager of University Publishing Company (headquarters in Boston) 1892–93; with Ginn & Company, educational publishers, from 1893 until his death (headquarters at New York office; admitted to the firm 1898); president of Knight & Thomas, Inc., manufacturers of Underwriters Fire Extinguishers, Boston, from 1921 until his death; served as Private in Troop A, New York National Guard, 1889–1891; honorary member New York Academy of Public Education; member St. John’s Episcopal Church, Boonton, N. J.

Unmarried.

Death due to heart disease. Interment at Boonton. Survived by a brother, Henry Theodore Thomas, of New York City, and two sisters, Miss Helen Thomas, of Boston, Mass., and Eliza Thomas Dennis, of Morristown, N. J., the widow of Samuel S. Dennis, ex-’74.
Obituary Record

Herbert Cushing Tolman, B.A. 1888.

Born November 4, 1865, in South Scituate, Mass.
Died November 24, 1923, in Nashville, Tenn.

Father, James Turner Tolman, a manufacturer; son of Col Samuel Tolman, who served in the War of 1812, and Judith (Turner) Tolman, descendant of Thomas Tolman, who came to America before 1640 and settled at Dorchester, Mass., and of John Alden of Plymouth. Mother, Mary Thomas (Briggs) Tolman; daughter of Cushing Otis and Mercy Little (Thomas) Briggs; descendant of James Briggs, who built the ship “Columbia,” and of Walter Briggs, who settled in Nantucket, Mass., in 1643.

Rockland (Mass.) High School. Divided a Winthrop prize in Latin and received an oration appointment Junior year; two-year honors in ancient languages and high oration appointment Senior year; spoke at Commencement; member Phi Beta Kappa and Beta Theta Pi.

Studied in the Yale Graduate School for two years, during which time he held the Berkeley and Larned Scholarships; Ph D. 1890, instructor in Indo-European languages at Yale 1890–91, instructor in Latin at the University of Wisconsin 1891–92, assistant professor of Sanskrit there 1892–93; professor of Sanskrit and acting professor of Greek at the University of North Carolina 1893–94; professor of Greek at Vanderbilt University from 1894 until his death; also dean of the College of Arts and Sciences since 1914; studied at the University of Berlin 1896, and at the University of Munich 1905, studied theology while teaching at the University of Wisconsin; ordained priest of the Protestant Episcopal Church at Milwaukee in 1900; at various times had charge during the summer of Holy Trinity Church, New York City, the American Church in Munich, and Christ Church in Lucerne; special preacher at Old Trinity, New York City; since 1904 honorary canon of All Saints’ Cathedral, Milwaukee; D.D. University of Nashville 1901; S.T.D. Hobart College 1913; LL.D. University of Nashville 1914, and University of Louisville 1917; made a Fellow of the Royal Asiatic Society 1894; member International Congress of Arts and Sciences, St. Louis Exposition, 1904, and of the first International Congress of Archæologists, Athens, 1905; lecturer for the Archæological Institute of America 1912; founded the Vanderbilt chapter of Phi Beta Kappa 1901 (served as its first president until his death); member American Philological Association, American Oriental Society, Classical Association of the Middle West and South, and Christ Episcopal Church, Nashville; author of Tolman’s Persian Inscriptions (1892), Art of Translating (1900), Urbs Beata (1902), Mycenean Troy (with G. C. Scroggin) (1904), Via Crucis (1907), Ancient Persian Lexicon and Texts (1909), Ancient Persian Language and Cuneiform Supplement (1910), and Christi Imago (1915); collaborator in Harper and Tolman’s Caesar’s Gallic War (1891), Kerr and Tolman’s Greek Gospel of Matthew (1892), Harper and Tolman’s Text Edition of Caesar (1893), Harrington and Tolman’s Greek and Roman Mythology (1897), and Tolman and Stevenson’s Herodotus and the Empires of the East (1899); collaborated in the preparation of the Sir Jamsetjee Jejeebhoy Madressa Memorial Volume (commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of the School of Parsee Studies, University of Bombay) 1915; senior editor of Vanderbilt Oriental Series (nine volumes completed); associate editor of World’s Progress (ten volumes); writer of numerous monographs on Oriental, philological, and archaeological topics in various reviews and society proceedings.

Married August 26, 1891, in New Haven, Conn., Mary Belden, daughter of John Franklin and Kate (Belden) Wells. Mrs. Tolman was a student in the Yale School of the Fine Arts for two years. No children; adopted his niece, Mary Alice Horton, who took his name.

Death due to angina pectoris. Interment in Mount Olivet Cemetery, Nashville. Survived by wife and adopted daughter.
Obituary Record

Thomas O'Hanlon, Jr., B.A. 1889.

Born March 26, 1868, in Pennington, N. J.
Died May 21, 1923, in Morris Plains, N. J.

Father, the Rev. Thomas O'Hanlon (B.A. Princeton 1863, D.D. Dickinson 1869, LL.D. Washington College 1893), a Methodist minister; changed his name to Hanlon about 1855, but reassumed the name of O'Hanlon by an act of the New Jersey Legislature about 1898, at which time his son Thomas also took it, although some other members of the family did not do so; president of Pennington Seminary for thirty-three years; son of John and Catherine (Landers) O'Hanlon, who came from Ireland to New York in the early part of the eighteenth century. Mother, Hannah Maria (Maps) O'Hanlon; daughter of William Russell and Mary Ann (Tucker) Maps; descendant of Thomas Mapes, who came from England about 1640 and settled on Long Island. Nephew, Morgan H. Alvord, '24.

Pennington Seminary. Attended Princeton University for one year (1885–86) as a member of the Class of 1889. Entered Yale as a Sophomore in 1886; dissertation appointment Junior year; first colloquy appointment Senior year.

After graduation studied at the Columbia Law School; taught at Pennington Seminary during 1893–94, but was obliged to give up his work on account of failing health; in 1894 was severely injured by a fall from a train and spent several months in a sanitarium; was afterwards engaged in religious work among the poor of New York City under the auspices of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church for a time, spent the last ten years of his life at the State Hospital in Morris Plains because of a mental disorder of an incurable nature; member Methodist Episcopal Church, Pennington.

Unmarried.

Herbert Morton Bishop, B.A. 1890.

Born July 9, 1868, in Guilford, Conn.
Died November 2, 1923, in Los Angeles, Calif.

Father, Timothy Huggins Bishop (M.D. 1860), consulting physician and secretary of the New Haven Hospital for twenty-five years; son of Ebenezer Huggins Bishop (B.A. 1826, M.D. 1829) and Hannah Maria (Lewis) Bishop; grandson of Timothy Bishop (B.A. 1796) and of Seth Lewis (B.A. 1783); great-grandson of John Hotchkiss (B.A. 1748); descendant of the Rev. George Lloyd, D.D., bishop of Chester (1604–1616), of John Bishop, who came to America from England before 1661 and was a founder of Guilford, and of Theophilus Eaton, the first governor of New Haven Colony. Mother, Jane Maria (Bennett) Bishop (died February 1, 1924); daughter of the Rev. Lorenzo Thompson Bennett, D.D. (B.A. 1825), for many years the rector of Christ Church, Guilford, and Marina Bishop (Smith) Bennett; descendant of Anthony Thompson, who came from England to Boston in the "Hector" in 1637 and settled at New Haven the following year; related to the family of Elihu Yale. Yale relatives include: Gabriel Hotchkiss (B.A. 1774) and Frederick W. Hotchkiss (B.A. 1778) (great-great-uncles); and Alexander H. Bishop (B.A. 1830) (great-uncle).

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. First dispute appointments Junior and Senior years; member Gamma Nu and Alpha Delta Phi.

Studied in Yale School of Law 1890–92 (LL.B. 1892); with the Sperry Engineering Company of New Haven 1892–94; in charge of estimate department of Peck Brothers & Company, manufacturers of brass goods and plumbing materials, New Haven, 1895–1900; spent a year in travel; interested in the manufacture of coal briquettes 1901–06; resided in New Haven (not actively engaged in business) 1906–1912; in the automobile business in Waterbury, Conn., from 1912 to 1914, when he retired; resided in New York City 1915–19; served as an associate member Legal Advisory Board 1918; since 1919 had resided in Hollywood; member Trinity Church, New Haven.
Married October 15, 1913, in New York City, Marion Claire, daughter of Alfred E. and Maria Voos. No children.

Death due to asthma. Interment in Hollywood Cemetery. Survived by wife; a brother, Louis B. Bishop, '86 and '88 M.; and a sister, May Bishop Thompson, the wife of J. Walcott Thompson, '97 L.

John White Corwith, B.A. 1890.

Born February 20, 1868, in Galena, Ill.
Died September 7, 1923, in West Chester, Pa.

Father, Henry Corwith, a banker; son of Gurden and Susan W. Corwith; descendant of David Carwhethy, who came to America from Carwhethen, Wales, about 1638 and settled at Southold, Long Island. Mother, Isabelle (Soulard) Corwith; daughter of James Gaston and Eliza H. Soulard; granddaughter of Antoine Soulard, surveyor-general of the Louisiana Purchase territory; descendant of Antoine Pierre Soulard, who came to America from Rochefort, France, in 1794 and settled at St. Louis, Mo. Great-great-grandfather, Col. Thomas Hunt, fought in the Revolutionary War, taking part in the first and last battles, as well as in many others; he was a captain at Yorktown, where he was complimented by General Washington, and was the first commandant of the post at Detroit, at the time of his death he was Colonel of the 1st U.S. Infantry and governor of the Western Territory. Yale relatives: Charles R. Corwith, '83 (brother); and Henry C. Dangler, '04, David Dangler, '05, and Alfred E. Hamill, '05 (nephews)

Harvard School, Chicago. First Berkeley premium in Latin composition Freshman year; first prize in English composition Sophomore year, oration appointment Junior year, dissertation appointment Senior year; one-year honors at graduation, member Class Cup Committee, '90 Literary Society, Eta Phi, Psi Upsilon, Skull and Bones, and Chi Delta Theta.

Studied law at Harvard and at Boston University for about two years; traveled widely for several years, seeking relief from constantly increasing insomnia and nervousness; lived in retirement for last twenty-three years of his life, his health permitting neither active occupation nor normal human relations. Unmarried.

Death due to nephritis. Interment in Greenwood Cemetery, Galena. Survived by three sisters: Mrs. Ernest A. Hamill and Mrs. Ambrose Cramer, both of Lake Forest, Ill., and Mrs. Alfred L. Baker, of Chicago.

Hildreth James Ackroyd, B.A. 1891.

Born January 27, 1868, in Albany, N. Y.
Died September 15, 1923, in New York City.

Father, James Ackroyd, a contractor and builder; son of Thomas Ackroyd, who came to Watervliet, N. Y., from Bradford, England, in 1838, and Mary (Parratt) Ackroyd. Mother, Mary Hannah (Johnson) Ackroyd; daughter of Aaron and Sarah (Ostrander) Johnson.

Albany High School. Second dispute appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; honors in English.

Associated with James Ackroyd & Sons, manufacturers of roofing material, Albany, from 1891 until his death (in charge of the bookkeeping 1891-1902, member of the firm since 1902, secretary 1906-1913, treasurer 1913-17, and president since 1917); trustee and director Home Savings Bank; director Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Albany and its successor, the New York State Fire Insurance Company, Morris Plan Company of Albany, and National Training School for Certified Nurses; trustee Albany Chamber of Commerce since 1906 (chairman of a committee which drafted, worked out, and subsequently revised a building code for the city 1909-1918); member Education Committee, Albany Civic League; chairman University Extension Center of Albany; charter member University Club of Albany; since 1912 had resided at North Chatham, N. Y., where he was interested in fruit growing and animal husbandry; member Kinderhook Pomological Association; trustee North Chatham Methodist Episcopal Church 1913-15 and 1919-1923, and steward from 1914 until his death.

Married October 6, 1897, in North Adams, Mass., Edith
Obituary Record

Aurelia, daughter of the Rev. George Wesley Brown, D.D., a member of the Class of 1860 at Union College, and Josephine J. (Philo) Brown, and a sister of Francis T. Brown, '91. Three daughters: Dorothy (Mrs. William Greeley); Margaret; and Elizabeth.

Death followed an illness of six months. Interment in Albany Rural Cemetery. Survived by wife and daughters.

Walter Phelps Bliss, B.A. 1892.

Born March 10, 1870, in New York City.
Died January 10, 1924, in New York City.

Father, George Bliss, a member of the firm of Morton, Bliss & Company, bankers of New York City; son of William and Martha (Parsons) Bliss; descendant of Thomas Bliss, of Belstone Parish, Devonshire, who came to America in 1635 and settled at Hartford, Conn. Mother, Augusta H. (Smith) Bliss; daughter of William M. and Jane (Huggins) Smith, descendant of Richard Smith, who came from England to Lyme, Conn., in 1650. Yale relatives: William E. Bliss, '67, and George T. Bliss, '73 (half brothers).

Cutler School, New York City. Second colloquy appointment Junior year; first colloquy appointment Senior year; member Senior Promenade Committee and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

During the first year after graduation was connected with Morton, Bliss & Company; graduated from the New York Law School 1896; admitted to the New York State Bar in October, 1896, but was never actively engaged in practice; since his father's death in 1896 had not been engaged in business other than that of managing the estate; became a member of the New York Stock Exchange 1901; director of the New York Central Railroad Company, the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Company, the New York & Harlem Railway Company, the Southern Pacific Company, the Commercial Union Assurance Company, Ltd. (London), the Commercial Union Fire Insurance Company, the Continental Insurance Company, the Fire Companies Building Corporation, the Quincy Mining Company, the Gauley Mountain Coal Company, the Union Assurance Company, and the Greenwich Savings Bank; trustee the Atlas Insurance Company, Ltd., of London, the Caledonian Insurance Company of Edinburgh, the Palatine Insurance Company, Ltd. (London), the Union Assurance Company, Ltd. (London), the Central Union Trust Company, the Consolidated Gas Company, and the New York Society for the Relief of Ruptured and Cripples; treasurer and trustee of St. Luke's Hospital; treasurer of the New York Training School for Deaconesses; vestryman, and, for last ten years of his life, treasurer of Grace Episcopal Church, New York City; treasurer of St. Bernard's School, Bernardsville, N. J.; president of the Riding Club of New York; governor of the Somerset Hills Country Club and the Recess Club; member New England Society of New York; was interested in scientific farming and cattle breeding; treasurer of the North Jersey Society for the Promotion of Agriculture and of the Somerset Hills Agricultural Association; had an estate at Bernardsville; attended St. Bernard's Episcopal Church during the summer.

Death, due to heart failure, occurred in the Lexington Avenue subway. Buried in Bliss family vault in Greenwood Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughters, and a sister, Mrs. William Willis Reese, of New York City.

Henry Goodwin Webster, B.A. 1892.

Born October 7, 1870, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died June 19, 1924, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Father, Adelbert Ashley Webster, a jeweler; son of Hezekiah Goodwin and Mary Ann (Hurlburt) Webster; descendant of Governor John Webster of Connecticut, who came from England in 1630 and helped to settle Hartford in 1636. Mother, Anna (Hore) Webster; daughter of Edward and Ann (Hills) Hore; descendant of Capt. John Hills, R. N., of Hastings, England, who was wounded by a splinter of the shell that killed Lord Nelson at Trafalgar.

Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. First colloquy appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year; member Phi Gamma Delta.

Graduated at the College of Physicians and Surgeons in New York City 1895; interne at the Methodist Episcopal (Seney) Hospital, Brooklyn, 1895–97; since then had practiced medicine there; associated with the Methodist Episcopal Hospital since 1897 (acting assistant surgeon 1897–99; attending physician to the Out-patient Department 1898; since 1904 associate visiting physician and attending physician; also served as surgeon to the dispensary for a time); adjunct physician to the Brooklyn Hospital 1901–05; visiting physician to the Kingston Avenue Contagious Hospital and, for six years (1898–1904), to the Methodist Episcopal Home for the Aged, lecturer on internal medicine to the training schools of the Methodist and the Brooklyn Hospitals for several years and to the Trained Christian Helpers from 1899 to 1905; became associate professor in the department of internal medicine of the Brooklyn Post-Graduate Medical School in 1907; medical inspector of the Water Department of New York City 1903–04; acting coroner’s physician 1905, surgeon of the New York Police Department from 1907 until 1918, when he was retired for physical disability; was a First Lieutenant in the Medical Reserve Corps (non-active) for many years, during the World War served on Medical Advisory Board No. 17 of New York State and on Draft Board No. 46; Fellow of the American College of Physicians; member American Medical Association, New York State Medical Society (member of publication committee 1912), Kings County Medical Society (censor 1904–06, secretary 1907), Brooklyn Pathological Society (secretary 1900–05; president 1906), Brooklyn Medical Society, Associated Physicians of Long Island, Society of Internal Medicine, Society of Ex-Internes of the Methodist Episcopal Hospital, International Congress on Tuberculosis, and the Tompkins Avenue Congregational Church, Brooklyn; contributed articles to Butler’s Diagnosis of Internal Medicine, to the Oxford Loose-Leaf Reference, edited by Henry A. Christian, and to Tice's Practice of Medicine; also a large number of monographs relating to medical subjects and book reviews to the Brooklyn Medical Journal, the Medical Literary and Historical Journal, the New York Obstetrical Journal, the New York State Medical Journal, and the Annals of Surgery; editor of the Long Island Medical Journal 1913–1922.

Married November 18, 1897, in Brooklyn, Jennie Voris, daughter of Augustus Kellogg and Julia (Voris) Sloan. Three children: Henry Goodwin (died in childhood); Ashley Sloan; and Alan deForest.

Death due to pulmonary edema and chronic myocarditis. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife; two sons; two brothers, Clarence Webster, of New York City, and Irving Webster, of Portland, Ore.; and three sisters, Mrs. W. H. Corbett, of Portland, Ore., Aveline Webster Failing, the wife of Henry R. Failing, '07, and Marjorie Webster Wing, the wife of Wilson G. Wing, '03.

Gustaf Birger Carlson, B.A. 1895.

Born June 10, 1870, in Hammar, Sweden.
Died March 24, 1924, in Middletown, Conn.

Father, Otto Frederick Carlson, a contractor; came to this country in 1872, settling in Higganum, Conn., the next year. Mother, Johanna Louise (Erickson) Carlson.

-Middletown High School and Mount Hermon School. Dissertation appointments Junior and Senior years.

-Studied law in office of Judge Arthur B. Calef (B.A. Wesleyan 1851) in Middletown 1895–98; admitted to Middlesex County Bar 1898, practiced law in Middletown from that time until his death, being associated in practice with Arthur B. Calef, Jr. (Wesleyan ex-'81), under firm name of Calef & Carlson, until 1913; United States referee in bankruptcy for Middlesex County from 1900 until his death; corporation counsel for Middletown 1908–1922, and again during last few months of his life; during his first term of service prepared the revision of the city ordinances, which was duly enacted; was Republican candidate for secretary of state in 1912 but was defeated; founder of the Swedish Republican League; president Middletown Elks Home Corporation; member South Congregational Church, Middletown.

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Higganum. Survived by wife, son, daughters, two brothers, Charles and Edward Carlson, and two sisters, Mrs. Beda L. Brainerd and Mrs. Herbert Johnson, all of whom live in Higganum.

Robert Cecil Nesbit, B.A. 1895.

Born November 23, 1873, in New York City.
Died August 5, 1923, in Wakefield, R. I.

Father, Robert Wilson Nesbit, a merchant; son of John Nesbit, who came to Philadelphia from Scotland about 1825, and Sarah (Wilson) Nesbit. Mother, Elizabeth (Clossey) Nesbit; daughter of Myles Franklin Clossey, who came to America from Ireland about 1810 and afterwards lived in New York, and Eliza (Logan) Clossey.

St. Mark’s School, Southboro, Mass., and St. Paul’s School, Garden City, N. Y. Member Eta Phi, Psi Upsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Engaged in real estate and insurance business, New York City, from 1895 until his death (associated with Mr. A. H. Mathews, 1895–1903; in partnership with Alfred E. Schermerhorn, ’95, under the firm name of Nesbit & Schermerhorn, 1903–05; in independent business 1905–1913; with Pease & Elliman, from 1913 until his death), member Episcopal Church.

Unmarried.

Death, due to heart failure, occurred after an illness of five months which followed an operation. Interment in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by two sisters, Miss Jean L. Nesbit and Miss Isabel D. Nesbit, both of New York City.
Thomas Frothingham Archbald, B.A. 1896.

Born December 31, 1873, in Scranton, Pa.

Father, Capt. James Archbald (C.E. Union 1860); a veteran of the Civil War; chief engineer of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western and the Mississippi Central railroads, president of the Albright Coal Company; son of James Archbald, who was born on Little Cumbrae Island, Buteshire, Scotland, came to America with his father, James Archbald, in 1807, and settled at Auriesville, N. Y., and Sarah Augusta Temple (Frothingham) Archbald; descendant of William Frothingham, who came to Charlestown, Mass., from England in 1630, and of Thomas Frothingham, a Major in the Continental Army. Mother, Hannah Maria (Albright) Archbald; daughter of Joseph Jacob and Elizabeth (Sellers) Albright; great-granddaughter of Andrew Albrecht, who came from Germany to Christian Spring, Pa, in 1750. Yale relatives include: Robert W. Archbald, '71 (uncle); Joseph A. Archbald, Jr., Alexander P. Dann, and Radcliffe Dann, all '19, Edward B. Archbald, '19 S., and Jesse C. Dann, Jr., '23 (nephews); Robert W. Archbald, Jr., '98, and Hugh Archbald, '03 (cousins).

Phillips-Andover. Oration appointments Junior and Senior years; a class deacon; first vice-president of Y. M. C. A. Junior year, and president Senior year; member Ivy Committee, Hé Boulé, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Wolf's Head.

Attended Auburn Theological Seminary 1896–1900, with the exception of a year (1897–98), when he served as general secretary of the Yale Y. M. C. A., and of a period of nine months in 1899, when he took a trip around the world with his classmate, Russell Colgate; ordained by Lackawanna Presbytery at Scranton May 23, 1900; pastor at Cuba, N. Y., 1900–03; in 1903 called to the chair of missions at the Bible and Missionary Training School of the University of Wooster (the Synodical University of the Presbyterian Church), the first chair of the kind to be established in this country; also served as registrar of his department and instructor in the Bible and in church history; his health broke down in 1906 and he resigned his professorship; had since resided in Scranton, engaged in the management of his father's estate, and, since 1916, active in church and war work, serving as acting pastor of churches in Dunmore, Kingston, Clark's Summit, and Hyde Park, Pa., and, during 1921-22, as stated supply of the First Presbyterian Church at Pottsville; for six years (1911-17) he and his family spent the winter months at Merritt, Fla., where he had an orange and grapefruit grove.

Married October 10, 1900, in Buffalo, N. Y., Jennie Alexander, daughter of Edward Sprague and Jane Radcliffe (Webster) Dann, and a sister of Jesse C. Dann, '88 S. Two children, Thomas Webster, '24, and Jean, a Sophomore at Wells College.

Death due to pneumonia. Interment in Dunmore Cemetery near Scranton. Survived by wife; children; two brothers, James Archbald, '87, and Joseph A. Archbald, '88 S.; and three sisters, Mrs. John C. Kerr and Mrs. Halsted Little, both of Englewood, N. J., and Mrs. John H. Brooks, of Scranton.

Burtis Judd Teasdale, B.A. 1897.

Born April 20, 1874, in Westboro, Mass.
Died July 10, 1922.

Father, William J. Teasdale, a teamster; son of Joseph and Sarah (McDougal) Teasdale; came to Westboro from Nova Scotia in 1870. Mother, Jessie (Fraser) Teasdale; daughter of William and Anne (Clow) Fraser. Cousin, Lawrence A. Teasdale, '10 S.

Westboro High School. Second colloquy appointment Senior year.

Engaged in journalism at Camden, N. J., 1900-01; in employ of Locomobile Company of America 1901; with Bureau of Forestry, Washington, D. C., 1902-06 (promoted to assistant forest expert 1904); fire warden for Diamond Match Company on their forest preserves in California 1906-07, details of life since that time are lacking.

Unmarried.

Survived by father, who now lives in Nova Scotia, and two sisters, Mrs Charles R. Lingley, of Hanover, N. H., and Miss Florence Teasdale, of East Orange, N. J.
Edward Sawyer, B.A. 1898.

Born July 21, 1874, in Dover, N. H.
Died January 22, 1924, at Jekyll Island, Ga.

Father, Charles Henry Sawyer, a woolen manufacturer, president of the Sawyer Woolen Mills of Dover; governor of New Hampshire 1887–89; Honorary M.A. Dartmouth 1887; son of Jonathan and Martha (Perkins) Sawyer; descendant of Thomas Sawyer, of Lincolnshire, England, who settled at Lancaster, Mass, in 1636, and of Major Simon Willard, a commander of forces in King Philip's War. Mother, Susan Ellen (Cowan) Sawyer; daughter of James Wellington Cowan (M.D. Dartmouth 1835) and Elizabeth (Hodgdon) Cowan; descendant of Peter Coffin, a member of the King's Council and chief justice of the Supreme Court of Judicature in the Province of New Hampshire, and of Major Caleb Hodgdon, of Col. Pierce Long's New Hampshire Regiment in the Revolutionary Army. Yale relatives include: Jonathan S. Bradley, '08 (cousin); Jonathan Sawyer, '13, and George F. Sawyer, 1924 (nephews).

Phillips-Andover. President Freshman Baseball Association, and manager Sophomore Baseball Association; manager University Glee and Banjo Clubs and Apollo Glee and Banjo Clubs; member Class Day, Cap and Gown, and Senior Promenade committees; president of Andover Club; treasurer Yale Cruiser Fund; member board of managers of Yale Co-operative Association (secretary and treasurer Junior year); member Hé Boulé, Psi Upsilon, and Scroll and Key.

With the Sawyer Woolen Mills in Dover 1898–99; connected with Flint Eddy and the American Trading Company of New York City 1900–02; since then president of the Atlantic Insulated Wire & Cable Company of Stamford, Conn.; member board of governors of Associated Manufacturers of Electrical Supplies (also treasurer of Wire and Cable Section and president of Rubber Wire Group); vice-president Manufacturers Association of Stamford; member board of directors of the Stamford Trust Company; chairman Stamford Board of Finance; treasurer of the Associated Charities of Stamford; member Yale Engineering Association; was vice-chairman Wire and Cable Committee of the War Industries Board; served as chairman and treasurer of the Ledyard Memorial Committee of the Class of 1898.

Married April 28, 1906, in Boston, Mass., Leslie, daughter of Phineas Sprague and Annie (Bayley) Tobey. No children.

Death due to an embolism. Interment in Pine Hill Cemetery, Dover. Survived by wife; a sister, Miss Elizabeth C. Sawyer, of Dover; and two brothers, Charles F. Sawyer, ex-'90 S., and James C. Sawyer, '94. His oldest brother, William D. Sawyer, '89, died in 1922.

William Edward Selin, B.A. 1898.

Born July 2, 1873, in New York City.
Died March 29, 1924, in Cynthiana, Ky.

Father, William Selin, a retired farmer; ancestors came to America from Sweden. Mother, Louisa Ulrika (Anderson) Selin; also of Swedish ancestry.

Mount Hermon School. Second colloquy appointment Junior year; first colloquy appointment Senior year; member University Track Team (won second place in pole vault at Princeton meet Sophomore year and second place at Harvard meet Junior year, and tied for first place at Harvard meet, as a graduate student, 1898–99); president of the Mount Hermon Club; on the committee of the Newsboys’ Club, Calvary Baptist Church.

Studied in the department of physical and natural science in the Yale Graduate School 1898–99; student at Rush Medical College, Chicago, 1899–1901; during that time was an instructor in the classics and gymnastics at Northwestern Military Academy, Highland Park, Ill.; received degree of M.A. from Yale 1900; instructor in Latin and physical director at the University of Kentucky 1901–04; principal of Smith’s Classical School, Cynthiana, 1904–07; instructor in Latin at the New Haven High School 1907–1920; also enrolled in the Yale Graduate School 1907–1916 (Ph.D. 1917); taught English at the University of Texas 1920–21; superintendent of schools at Cynthiana from 1921 until his death; had been a member of the Christian Church; in later life was a member of the Cynthiana Presbyterian Church.
Married August 27, 1914, in Cynthiana, Edna Wilson, daughter of Benjamin Theodore and Kate (Kerr) Riggs. One son, Theodore William.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Battle Grove Cemetery, Cynthiana. Survived by wife; son; one brother, John Selin, of Hollywood, Calif.; and three sisters, Mrs. V. T. Quinn, Mrs. E. C. Power, and Mrs. S. J. Abrams, all of whom reside at Long Beach, Calif.

Henry Burt Wright, B.A. 1898.

Born January 29, 1877, in New Haven, Conn.
Died December 27, 1923, in Oakham, Mass.

Father, Henry Parks Wright (B.A. 1868, Ph.D. 1876, LL.D. Union 1895); Dunham professor of the Latin language and literature from 1876 to 1909 (professor emeritus until his death in 1918), and dean of Yale College for twenty-five years; son of Parks and Relief Willard (Woolley) Wright; grandson of Dr. David Woolley, of Hinsdale, N. H., and great-grandson of Capt. John Crawford, of Oakham, Mass., both of whom were Revolutionary soldiers; descendant of Samuel Wright, a deacon of the Congregational Church in Springfield, Mass., in 1639, and of Margaret Wright, who came to Springfield from London about 1638. Mother, Martha Elizabeth (Burt) Wright; daughter of Alfred Ely and Elizabeth (Lincoln) Burt; descendant of Richard Burt, who came to Taunton, Mass., from England in 1639.

Hillhouse High School. In Freshman honor division; first Berkeley Premium Freshman year; received honorable mention in competition for the Hugh Chamberlain Greek Prize; first Robinson Latin Prize Sophomore year; first Winthrop Prize and a second TenEyck Prize Junior year; Townsend Prize and two-year honors in ancient languages Senior year; held Woolsey Scholarship for three years; philosophical oration appointments Junior and Senior years; salutatorian; member Phi Beta Kappa, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones; secretary Yale Cruiser Fund; member Freshman Religious Committee; a class deacon; chairman Bible Study Committee at Dwight Hall and Northfield Committee; president Yale Y. M. C. A.
Obituary Record

Studied in the department of the classics, Yale Graduate School, 1898-1903 (Ph.D. 1903); was general secretary of the Yale Y. M. C. A. 1898-1901 and secretary of the Graduate School branch 1901-03; acting Secretary of Yale 1899-1900; tutor in Latin and Greek in Yale College 1903-06, and during the following year an instructor in the same subjects; spent a year (1907-08) studying at the University of Berlin and traveling through Europe; assistant professor of ancient history and Latin literature at Yale 1907-1911, and then assistant professor of history until 1914; since then Stephen Merrell Clement professor of Christian methods in the Yale Divinity School; studied at Grenoble, France, 1911; had taught Yale student Bible classes and served as counselor of advisory committee of Yale Y. M. C. A. in developing the association to its present departmental organization; delegate to the World’s Student Christian Federation Conference at Robert College, Constantinople, April, 1911, representing the Student Department of the American Y. M. C. A.; director New Haven Y. M. C. A. from 1915 until his death; member advisory committee of Bible Study Department, International Y. M. C. A., 1915 and 1916, and consulting secretary on personal evangelism in Religious Work Department 1916-19; religious work secretary at Army Y. M. C. A., first Reserve Officers’ Training School, Plattsburg, May-August, 1917; at Camp Devens, Mass., with 76th Division, National Army, August, 1917, to June, 1919 (camp director of religious work until September 15, 1918; then camp relationships secretary); member Commission on Conservation of War Values, International Y. M. C. A., 1919, and (since 1922) of Advance Program Commission of Student Department (chairman of its subcommittee “How Best Adapt the Christian Association Movement to the Changing Conditions in the Educational Field?”), member of the faculty of Y. M. C. A. summer schools at Northfield, Lake Geneva, Lake Forest, Williamstown, Lakeville, Springfield, and Silver Bay; member Committee of the War and the Religious Outlook appointed by the Federal Council of the Churches and their war-time commission; author of numerous historical, philosophical, and religious works, including: Two Centuries of Christian Activity at Yale (1901); A Life with a Purpose (1908); Some Unwritten Yale Annals (1909); The Will of God and a Man's Life Work (1909); The Recovery of a Lost Roman Tragedy—A Study in Honor of Bernadotte Perrin (1910); The Practice of Friendship in Army and Navy (1918); and Personal Evangelism among Students (1920), the last two in conjunction with George Stewart, Jr. (B.A. 1915); contributed many articles to various magazines; editor of "Sunday Evening Talks to Yale Undergraduates" and of the Eighth General Catalogue of the Yale Divinity School (1922); was secretary of Class of 1898 from 1898 to 1908 and edited its Triennial Record; member American Historical Association, American Philological Association, American Society of Christian History, Connecticut Academy of Arts and Sciences; recording secretary and member of council of Yale in China; formerly a member of the Church of Christ in Yale College, and later of the Church of the Redeemer (Congregational), New Haven.

Married July 24, 1907, in Taunton, Mass., Josephine Lemira, daughter of Joseph Warren Hayward (M.D. Medical School of Maine 1864) and Lemira Harris (Drake) Hayward, and sister of Ernest L. Hayward (B.A. Amherst 1890, M.A. Yale 1915). No children.

Death due to hemorrhage of the lungs. Interment in Pine Grove Cemetery, Oakham. Survived by wife; mother; a sister, Miss Alice L. Wright (B.A. Wellesley 1897, Ph.D. Yale 1901); and a brother, Ellsworth Wright; all of whom live in New Haven. Another brother, Alfred P. Wright, '01, died during his Senior year in college. A vote passed by the Yale Corporation at the time of Professor Wright's death refers to his devotion to the interests of the University, by which he earned the enduring gratitude of all its friends. Resolutions adopted by the faculty of the Divinity School were printed in the Yale Divinity News for January, 1924. It is planned to establish a professorship in his memory; the members of the graduating class in the Divinity School have pledged over $4,000 for this purpose, and other gifts have been received.
Samuel Mills Hawley, B.A. 1899.

Born June 25, 1877, in Bridgeport, Conn.
Died January 28, 1924, in Bridgeport, Conn.

Father, Alexander Hawley, treasurer of the Bridgeport Savings Bank; son of Bronson and Rebecca (Burr) Hawley; descendant of Joseph Hawley, who came to Stratford, Conn., from Harwich, England, in 1623. Mother, Susan Hubbell (Waller) Hawley; daughter of George Burton and Susan (Hubbell) Waller; descendant of Joseph Waller, who came to America from England and settled at Woodbury, Conn.

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. Member Hé Boulé, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

For four years following graduation was a bond salesman with Redmond, Kerr & Company, bankers and brokers of New York City, for a greater part of the time representing the firm in Connecticut and having an office in Bridgeport; since 1903 had been with the Bridgeport Savings Bank (teller until 1908, assistant treasurer 1908–1911, treasurer 1911–1921, and since then president); treasurer Bridgeport Morris Plan Company, director and member of executive committee First-Bridgeport National Bank; member of executive committee, Savings Bank Division, American Bankers Association; president Savings Bank Association of Connecticut; active in state and legislative matters concerning mutual savings banks; director Bridgeport Housing Company, Bridgeport Hospital, Y. M. C. A., and Westchester Fire Insurance Company of New York; member United Congregational Church, Bridgeport, serving as treasurer of the church society for several years; while in New York belonged to Squadron A, New York National Guard.

Death due to acute angina pectoris. Interment in Mountain Grove Cemetery, Bridgeport. Survived by children and two brothers, Dr. George W. Hawley, '96 S., and Alexander W. Hawley, of Fort Dodge, Iowa. His youngest brother, Bronson Hawley, ex-'03, was killed in action at Ouderdom, Belgium, in 1918.

Edward Theodore Noble, B.A. 1899.

Born October 20, 1874, at Beaver Falls, Pa.

Father, Lester Brace Noble, a merchant; son of Theodore and Susan C. Noble; descendant of Thomas Noble, who came to this country from England. Mother, Mary Appleton (Liscomb) Noble; daughter of Paul D. Liscomb, who was also of English ancestry.

Phillips-Andover. Member University Glee Club for three years; took part in the Yale-Harvard Freshman debate; fence orator.

Studied law in the office of Judge John F. Dillon in New York City and at the New York Law School (LL.B. 1901); admitted to the New York Bar; assistant in the office of the general attorney of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad at Baltimore 1901-04, and later assistant counsel for that railroad in Pittsburgh; opened law offices in Pittsburgh, in 1910 becoming a partner with Berne H. Evans, ’99, and the latter’s brother, Henry O. Evans, in the law firm of Evans, Noble & Evans, which continued until 1918; associate counsel for the Delaware & Hudson Railroad Company and for the Hudson Coal Company, with his headquarters at Scranton, Pa., from 1920 until his death; member American and Allegheny Bar Associations; was for a time secretary of the Commercial Union Telephone Company and vice-president of the New York, Pittsburgh & Chicago Railroad Company; in 1916 joined the naval training cruise for civilians; commissioned Major, Judge Advocate Reserve Corps, July 23, 1918; stationed at Washington, becoming head of the Penitentiary Section, Military Justice Division, September, 1918; was first counsel to the Board of Contract Adjustment in the Purchase, Storage, and Traffic Division, General Staff, from December 1, 1918, to April 15, 1919; then assigned to duty with the United States Liquidation Commission, served at Paris as special counsel to the Commission, and, after July 1, 1919, as its secretary; promoted to Lieutenant Colonel October 5, 1919; demobilized October 18, 1919, but continued as secretary of the Commission until its return to America December 5, 1919; remained as its representative in Europe to complete pending transactions; returned to the United States May 17, 1920; severed his connection with the War Department on resignation of the Commission May 31, 1920; made Chevalier of the French Legion of Honor, Commander of the Order of the White Eagle and of the Order of St. Sava of Serbia, Officer of the Order of the Crown of Belgium, and a member of the Order of the Star of Roumania; received the Czecho-Slovakian Croix de Guerre and a silver medal from Montenegro; recommended by the chairman of the United States Liquidation Commission for the Distinguished Service Medal.

Unmarried.

Died by his own hand; had suffered a nervous breakdown several months earlier; worry over his health was assigned by intimate friends as the cause for his act. Buried in Allegheny Cemetery, Pittsburgh. Survived by his father and a brother, Paul L. Noble, of Kansas City, Mo.

Elmer Wallace Robinson, B.A. 1899.

Born June 3, 1876, in Meriden, Conn.
Died February 16, 1924, in Yonkers, N. Y.

Father, Benjamin Alfred Robinson, a builder; served for four years in the Union Army during the Civil War, at its close being color bearer of the 7th Connecticut Volunteers; son of Ashbel and Susannah (Shailer) Robinson; descendant of Isaac Robinson (a son of Elder John Robinson, pastor of the Pilgrims in England and Holland), who came from England to Barnstable, Mass., in 1631. Mother, Laura Anne (Blakeslee) Robinson; daughter of Lauren and Mehitabel (Neal) Blakeslee; descendant of Capt. Nathaniel Merriman, who came from England to New Haven in 1632 and was one of the thirty-eight original settlers of Wallingford, Conn., in 1669; other ancestors, on her father's side, settled in New Haven about 1650.
Meriden High School. Second dispute appointments Junior and Senior years.

From 1899 until 1910 was engaged in business in New York City (general manager for the Highland Spring Water Company until 1904; then an accountant with the Dairy Products Company); attended the Law School of New York University 1902–04 (LL.B., 1904); was obliged to live in the South on account of poor health 1910–15; during this period resided in Tampa, Fla., where he was manager of the branch office of the Credit Clearing House of New York City 1912–15; cashier for M. Melachrino & Company of New York City 1916–17; credit manager of the Tobacco Products Corporation of New York from 1917 until his death; his home had been in Yonkers since 1915; member Main Street Baptist Church, Meriden.

Married June 18, 1907, in New York City, Nellie Cecilia, daughter of George Warren and Georgianna (Gaylor) Scofield. Two daughters, Georgianna Laura and Elsie Davenport.

Death due to heart failure. Buried in the West Cemetery, Meriden. Survived by wife; children; parents; a brother, Ernest L. Robinson, '94; and three sisters, Mrs. Thomas A. MacNicholl, Miss Florence G. Robinson, and Mrs. Fred P. Owen, all of whom live in Meriden.

Frederick Webster, B.A. 1899.

Born June 13, 1876, in Galveston, Texas.
Died February 1, 1924, in Stamford, Conn.

Father, Edward Webster, a state weigher and grain inspector; of English parentage. Mother, Julietta (Knight) Webster.

Ball High School, Galveston. Second colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years.

After graduation studied law in Galveston for fourteen months; since then had been engaged in the insurance business in New York City; held a position under the New York Board of Fire Underwriters for a short time; with New York Fire Insurance Exchange 1901–06 (inspector, rate clerk, and chief assistant in the mercantile schedule rating department); schedule expert and later insurance engineer for North River Insurance Company (Crum & Forster) 1906–1919; with Blake & Rice, insurance brokers, 1919–1921; fire protection engineer with Michael Gold & Company, Inc., insurance brokers, from 1921 until his death; his home had been in Riverside, Conn., for the last seventeen years of his life, member Methodist Episcopal Church, Cos Cob, Conn.

Married February 26, 1902, in New Haven, Lottie, daughter of Elisha Harris and Alice L. (Hart) Weaver, and niece of Dr James W. Ingalls, ’81. Four children: Edward Harris, Kenneth Russell, Alice Lois, and Frederick Allyn.

Death, due to injuries received when struck by an automobile on January 31, occurred in the Stamford Hospital Interment at Sound Beach, Conn. Survived by wife, children, and three brothers, Thomas, Edward, and Mason Webster.

Frank Cummings Cook, B.A. 1900.

Born July 14, 1877, in Litchfield, Conn.
Died June 19, 1923, in Dallas, Texas.

Father, Frank Field Cook (D.D.S. Philadelphia and Pennsylvania Dental College 1874); son of Asahel and Emelene Melissie (Field) Cook; descendant of Joseph Cook, who came to America from England in 1635, married a daughter of John Haynes, the first governor of Connecticut, and settled at Cambridge, Mass. Mother, Emma Francis (Cummings) Cook, daughter of Royal Sumner and Mary Alden (Simonton) Cummings; direct descendant of John Alden, and of Isaac Cummings (born in 1601) who came to Massachusetts from Scotland.

Prepared at Waterbury (Conn.) High School. One-year honors in natural science; first colloquy appointment Senior year.

Instructor in Latin at Choate School, Wallingford, Conn., 1900–01, graduate student at Yale 1901–02 (M.A. 1902); taught at Sedgwick Institute, Great Barrington, Mass., 1902–03, took graduate work at Yale 1903–04 (M.S. 1904); since then had held positions with Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., in Bureaus of Chemistry and Entomology (actively engaged in investigation in Texas for Bureau of Entomology at time of death); representative of Department of Agriculture at Sixth International Congress of Applied Science, Rome, 1906, and at Seventh International Congress, London, 1909; served on jury of awards on meat products at Panama Pacific International Exposition 1915; member American Chemical Society, Association of Official Agricultural Chemists, and Washington Academy of Science; contributed papers to scientific journals and publications of Department of Agriculture in field of food products, nutrition, and physical chemistry; Ph.D. George Washington University 1908; member Second Congregational Church, Waterbury.

Married May 14, 1909, in Wallingford, Claire Allen, daughter of John Allen and Ellen Julia (Hall) Banks. One son, Frank Cummings, Jr.

Born December 14, 1878, in Newark, N. J.
Died December 30, 1923, in Washington, D. C

Hotchkiss School. Honors in English composition Sophomore year, oration appointment Junior year; first Ten Eyck Prize at Junior Exhibition; two-year honors in English and oration appointment Senior year; member Psi Upsilon.

Engaged in writing since graduation; reporter for New York Tribune 1901-03; manuscript editor of The Cosmopolitan 1903-04, also did settlement work at Christodora House, New York City, 1903-04; assistant editor of Country Life in America 1904-07, and of The Survey 1907; associate editor of Collier’s Weekly 1908-1913; editorial writer for Harper’s Weekly and The Congregationalist and writer of editorials and short stories for The Popular Magazine 1914; from September, 1914, to September, 1915, served as a Red Cross worker in the Hector Munro Ambulance Corps with the Belgian Army [the Arthur Gleason War Fund, collected by members of the Class of 1901, amounted to $1,100 and was used for an ambulance in France]; European correspondent for the New York Tribune and the Century Magazine 1916-17; in August, 1917, became a member of the Publicity Department of the Y. M. C. A., attached to the A. E. F., and was sent to Italy with an Anglo-American commission; member Committee on Public Information 1918; correspondent in England for The Survey 1919; was awarded the Mons Star by the British War Office 1919, the British war medal from the British Red Cross Society, and a medal from L'Union des Colonies Étrangères en France; after returning from Europe in 1920 became associated with The Nation and investigated the coal fields of West Virginia; wrote for Bureau of Industrial Research 1921–22; in May, 1923, went to Mission Beach, Calif., hoping to regain his health, which was impaired by war strain and his experiences when his ship was torpedoed and shipwrecked by a submarine in the North Sea; expected to spend several months on the Pacific Coast engaged in special work for Hearst's International Magazine, The New Republic, and The Survey; at the time of his death had completed two of the three articles on child labor for the International Magazine and was engaged in writing a religious series for that magazine on the fundamentalist and modernist discussion; his books are The Spirit of Christmas (1912), Love, Home, and the Inner Life (1914), Young Hilda at the Wars (1915), Golden Lads (1916), Our Part in the Great War (1917), Inside the British Isles (1917), British Labor and the War (with Paul U. Kellogg, 1919), What the Workers Want (1920), Workers' Education, American Experiments (1921), and, in collaboration with John Brophy, two pamphlets, Compulsory Information in Coal (1922), and How to Run Coal (1922); his royalties on Golden Lads were given to The American Committee for Training in Suitable Trades the Maimed Soldiers of France, and those on Our Part in the Great War were given to the American Ambulance Field Service in France; had lectured in America on British labor; cables received from England at the time of his death referred to him as "the outstanding interpreter to his fellow Americans of the British Labor Movement"; his testimony on German atrocities appeared in the famous Bryce report under the heading of Alost; member West End Collegiate Church, New York City.

Married October 5, 1912, in New York City, Helen, daughter of John Wiley and Phoebe (Sheerer) Hayes. No children.

Death, due to meningitis, occurred after an illness of three days Buried in Rock Creek Cemetery, Washington, D. C.
A service in his memory was held by his friends in the Parish House of the Church of the Ascension, New York City, on February 2, 1924. Survived by wife and a half sister, Mrs.
George E. Walsh, of Yonkers, N. Y. His mother died in San Diego, Calif., January 9, 1924

Kinsley Twining, B.A. 1901.

Born September 9, 1879, in Providence, R. I.
Died January 28, 1924, in New York City.

Father, the Rev. Kinsley Twining (B.A. 1853, D.D. Yale 1884, L.H.D. Hamilton 1893), a Congregational minister; literary editor of the Independent and of the Evangelist; son of Alexander Catlin Twining (B.A. 1820) and Harriet Amelia (Kinsley) Twining; grandson of Stephen Twining
(B.A. 1795), descendant of William Twining, who came to Yarmouth, Mass., from England in 1641. Mother, Mary Ellen (Gridley) Twining; daughter of the Rev. Amos Delos
Gridley, D.D. (B.A. Hamilton 1839), and Ellen (Bristol)
Gridley, descendant of Wayne Gridley, who came to Massachusetts from England. Yale relatives include: Lynde Catlin
(B.A. 1786) (great-great-uncle); the Rev. William Twining
(B.A. 1825) (great-uncle); the Rev. Seagrove W. Magill, D.D.
(B.A. 1831), and James Hadley (B.A. 1842) (great-uncles by marriage), Theodore W. Twining, '58, and S. Douglas Twining, '59 S. (uncles); John M. Catlin (B.A. 1820), Charles
T. Catlin (B.A. 1822), Lynde A. Catlin, '53, Charles T. Catlin,
'56, William A. Magill, '58, the Rev. Hasket D. Catlin, '59,
George L. Catlin, '60, Dr. Arnold W. Catlin, '62, Arthur T.
Hadley, '76, the Rt. Rev. Sidney C. Partridge, '80, Reginald
W. Catlin, '08, Morris Hadley, '16, and Hamilton Hadley,
'19 (cousins)

Phillips-Andover. Second colloquy appointment Junior year, first colloquy appointment Senior year; member Senior Class Supper and Senior Promenade committees, Alpha Delta Phi, and Wolf's Head

Studied at Cornell Law School during 1901-02 and at Yale School of Law 1902-04, then formed a law partnership with J. Edward Ashmead (B.S. Rutgers 1897, L.L.B. Rutgers 1903)
under firm name of Ashmead & Twining; in 1905 became a clerk with law firm of Lindabury, Depue & Faulks, Newark, N. J.; in May, 1908, admitted to the firm, with which he remained until January 1, 1918; then went to Washington, as member of a legal advisory staff of the Aircraft Board; attended the training camp at Plattsburg in 1916; on March 20, 1918, received a commission as Major in the Aviation Section of the Signal Reserve Corps; was later transferred to the Air Service and detailed as a member of the General Staff Corps in Washington, serving as liaison officer from the Bureau of Aircraft Production to the Purchase, Storage, and Traffic Division of the General Staff; was afterwards detailed to the War College, War Plans Division, and later to the Operations Division, General Staff; discharged January 15, 1919; from February, 1919, until his death connected with L. C. Gillespie & Sons, importers in New York City, as executive in charge of their Hankow and Belgian Congo branches; member New Jersey Bar Association and New York Bar (admitted to latter 1923); at one time alderman in Morris-town, N. J.; attended the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church in New York; Alumni Fund agent for the Class of 1901 from 1916 until his death; chairman of the 1901 Committee on University Affairs.

Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, three children, and two sisters, Edith Twining (Mrs. Frederick W. Stevens, of Morristown, N. J.), who graduated at Smith in 1893, and Alice Twining Watrous (B.A. Smith 1898), the wife of Eliot Watrous, ’99.

Richard Wilson Walsh, B.A. 1901.

Born April 12, 1880, in Chicago, Ill.
Died December 25, 1923, in Winnetka, Ill.

Father, John Richard Walsh, a banker and president of the Southern Indiana Railroad Company; son of Richard Walsh, who came to America from Ireland in 1848 and the following year took up his residence in Chicago, and Ellen (Crowley)
Obituary Record

Clerk in the Chicago National Bank 1901-05; treasurer Southern Indiana Coal Company 1905-08; with his brother-in-law, James M. Kennedy, ’07, formed firm of R. W. Walsh & Company, coal jobbers, of which he was treasurer; Mr. Kennedy left the firm in 1914, and the following year it was dissolved, from 1915 until 1917 Mr. Walsh was a partner in the Automatic Coal Conveyor Company; then formed the National Conveying Equipment Corporation, in which he was interested until incapacitated by illness; member Episcopal Church, Winnetka.

Married April 27, 1904, in Chicago, Edith Caroline, daughter of Madison Barker and Judith Eve (Smith) Kennedy. One daughter, Judith Eve.

Died suddenly after an illness of over a year. Buried in Memorial Park Cemetery, Evanston, Ill. Survived by wife; daughter, a brother, John W. Walsh, ’98; and three sisters, Mrs. Katherine W. Baldwin, Miss Mary Walsh, and Mrs. Ellen W. Babcock, all of Chicago. Mother died February 24, 1924

William Edward Davis, Jr., B.A. 1902.

Born February 1, 1879, in Whitneyville, Conn.
Died August 23, 1923, in Atlantic City, N.J.

Father, William Edward Davis, a manufacturer; son of Edward and Betsey (Augur) Davis; grandson of Avery Davis, a Revolutionary soldier; descendant of Lyman Lyon, Hezekiah Augur, and Moses Ford, who also served in the Revolutionary War, and of John Davis, who came to America from England early in the eighteenth century and settled at Stonington, Conn. Mother, Sophie M. (Tamblingson) Davis; came to America from Davenport, England; daughter of Robert and Mary (Lee) Tamblingson. Yale relatives: Benjamin J. Davis, ’86, Herbert B. Augur, ’97, Horace S. Davis, ex-’02 S., Minott A. Davis, ’11 S., and J. Minott Augur, ’22 S.
Hopkins Grammar School and Phillips-Andover. Entered Yale with Class of 1901; joined Class of 1902 in its Freshman year; second colloquy appointment Senior year.

Employed in secretarial capacity by Northern Pacific Railroad Company at general offices, St. Paul, Minn., 1902-03; in bond business from 1903 until his death (with E. H. Gay Company and Reynolds & Company New York City; in partnership with Adelbert L. Reynolds, ’91, under name of Reynolds, Davis & Company, New York, 1908-1912; since 1912 in independent business, as Davis & Company, with offices in New Haven); president William E. Davis & Company, brick manufacturers, since 1918; published book on investments, entitled I Have a Little Money: What shall I do with it? (1907); had articles in Moody’s Magazine (1908); especially interested in floriculture; had a rare collection of plants, which are later to be given to the New Haven parks.

Married November 18, 1915, at Horseheads, N. Y., Caroline Lenora, daughter of Richard Gilbert and Alice (Clark) Eisenhart. No children.

Died after a five months’ illness. Buried in Whitneyville Cemetery. Survived by wife; a sister, Mrs. John H. Burton, of Whitneyville; and a brother, Harold Minott Davis, of New Haven.

Guilford Dudley, B.A. 1902.

Born February 9, 1879, in Topeka, Kans.
Died March 28, 1923, in Minneapolis, Minn.

Father, Guilford Dudley, a banker; Adjutant General of Kansas (1861-64) and Colonel on the Governor’s staff; son of Moses and Mary (Atwood) Dudley; descendant of Thomas Dudley, governor of the Massachusetts Bay Colony. Mother, Samantha Vail (Otis) Dudley; daughter of John and Pauline (Lapham) Otis. Nephew, Dudley P. Walker, ’21.

Washburn Academy, Topeka; B.A. Washburn College 1900. Entered Yale as a Junior with the Class of 1902.

Clerk with W. A. L. Thompson Hardware Company of Topeka for about a year and a half; with Hibbard, Spencer, Bartlett & Company (wholesale hardware) of Chicago, from the spring of 1904 until his father’s death in April, 1905.
Obituary Record

(house salesman until November, 1904; then a traveling salesman in Minnesota and Wisconsin, with his headquarters in Minneapolis), teller in the Capital National Bank of Topeka from the fall of 1905 until January, 1908, when he bought an interest in the Remly Lumber Company of Topeka (became vice-president and treasurer); in 1910 bought out the company and conducted it under the name of the Dudley Lumber Company until 1915; since then had been president and treasurer of the McCleery-Dudley Lumber Company of Topeka; during the World War was active in Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. War Fund drives.

Married February 12, 1908, in Topeka, Hazel, daughter of Armin and Grace (Norton) Fassler. One son, Guilford, Jr.

Death, due to pneumonia, followed an operation. Buried in Topeka. Survived by wife, son, and a sister, Mrs. William P. Walker, of Bethlehem, Pa.

Malcolm Moore, B.A. 1902.

Born September 27, 1880, in Catfish, Pa.
Died August 22, 1923, in Allentown, Pa.

Father, James Sabarian Moore, a coal dealer; served in Civil War, son of James S. and Margaret (Gault) Moore; grandson of Major James Gault, who served in War of 1812; descendant of Mathew Gault and Lieut. William Stewart, who fought in the Revolution, and of John Moore, an English Quaker, who settled in Chester County, Pa., about 1680. Mother, Laura I. (Allison) Moore; daughter of Dr. Thomas H Allison (who served in the Civil War) and Mary (McFadden) Allison, descendant of John Allison, who came to America from Scotland about 1768 and afterwards lived in York and Washington counties, Pa.

Central High School, Buffalo, N. Y. Second colloquy appointment Junior year; member Dramatic Association (vice-president Junior year, president Senior year); member University Bicycle Team two years, Zeta Psi.

Connected with Union Metallic Cartridge Company for a time after graduation, advertising manager Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Company, Hartford, Conn., 1905-06; advertising manager for William H. Beehler, an umbrella
Donald Bradford MacLane, B.A. 1903.

Born January 19, 1882, in Steubenville, Ohio.
Died February 20, 1924, at Ray Brook, N. Y.

Father, the Rev. William Ward McLane (B.A. Blackburn 1871, D.D. Blackburn 1882, Ph.D. Yale 1889), a Congregational minister; pastor at Steubenville, New Haven, Conn., and Leominster, Mass.; corporate member of the A. B. C. F. M.; son of John and Julia Ann (Fisher) McLane, descendant of Daniel McLane, who came to America from Scotland about 1778 and settled at Chambersburg, Pa. [The sons of the Rev. Mr. McLane adopted MacLane as the spelling of their surname about 1900.] Mother, Frances (Robinson) McLane; daughter of the Rev. William Willshire Robinson (B.A. 1842) and Frances (Robbins) Robinson; great-granddaughter of the Rev. Ammi R. Robbins (B.A. 1760); great-great-granddaughter of the Rev. Philemon Robbins (Honorary M.A. 1733); descendant of Nathaniel Robbins, who came to America from Scotland in 1760 and settled at Charlestown, Hillhouse High School, New Haven. Received the Winston Trowbridge Townsend Prize Freshman year; philosophical oration appointments Junior and Senior years; Learned Scholar Senior year; member Phi Beta Kappa.

Attended Union Theological Seminary 1903-06 (B.D. 1906), on graduation was offered a traveling fellowship for study abroad but declined it; during his seminary course assisted the ministers of the Church of the Sea and Land (Presbyterian) in New York City; preached at East Corinth, Vt, during the summer of 1905; from 1906 until December, 1907, was assistant pastor of the Church of the Sea and Land; during the next seven years served as pastor of the Congregational Church in Taftville, Conn.; was pastor of the Boylston Congregational Church at Jamaica Plain, Mass., 1914-18, and of the Federated Church in Wilbraham, Mass., 1918-1920, resigned to organize and become pastor of the South Church (Congregational) in Utica, N. Y.; resigned from that pastorate in February, 1923, because of ill health; was a patient at the State Hospital for Tuberculosis at Ray Brook until his death; in 1918 spoke at Y. M. C. A. huts at Camp Devens, Mass., giving lecture recitals with his violin on "The Folk Songs of the Allies."

Death due to tuberculosis. Buried in Forest Hills Cemetery, Boston. Survived by wife, three sons, father, and four brothers, John F. MacLane, '00, Paul B. MacLane, ex-'00 L., Stanley R MacLane, '06 and '07 S., and William B. MacLane, '10
Julian Burrell Huff, B.A. 1904.

Born September 2, 1881, in Greensburg, Pa.
Died December 23, 1923, in Bryn Mawr, Pa.

Father, George Franklin Huff, a manufacturer; officer or director in numerous mining companies; member Pennsylvania State Senate 1884–88; member of Congress 1891–93, 1895–99, and 1903–1911; son of George and Caroline (Boyer) Huff; descendant of John Frederick Huff, who came to America from Berlin prior to 1757 and settled in Berks County, Pa. Mother, Henrietta Hubley (Burrell) Huff; daughter of Jeremiah Murray Burrell (United States assistant judge for the territory of Kansas) and Anna Elizabeth (Richardson) Burrell; descendant of William Richardson. Brother, Lieut. Burrell R. Huff, '09 (died in France in 1919); cousin, George F. Huff, Jr., '09 S.

The Hill School, Pottstown, Pa. Member board of governors of Yale University Club (secretary Junior year, president Senior year); member Delta Kappa Epsilon and Scroll and Key.

Spent first year after graduation in a trip around the world; since then had been engaged in the coal business and manufacturing; at time of death was president and a director of the Keystone Coal & Coke Company, the Inland Coal Company, the Latrobe-Connellsville Coal & Coke Company, the Acme Gas Coal Company, the Mountain Coal Company, and the Inland Realty Company (all of Greensburg), and of Highland Farms, a large stock-breeding farm in Greensburg; also a director of the First National Bank of Greensburg; district representative for United States Fuel Administration during World War; member Fuel Administration's Production Committee, which operated from Washington; member Liberty Loan Committee of Westmoreland County, Pa.; was a noted polo player, representing Philadelphia in polo tournaments throughout this country and Canada; member Christ Episcopal Church, Greensburg.

Obituary Record

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage, believed to be the result of injuries received on the polo field in October, 1923. Buried in the family mausoleum in St. Clair Cemetery, Greensburg. Survived by wife, mother, and a sister, Mrs. Murray A. Cobb, of Radnor, Pa.

Guy Burl Morrison, B.A. 1904.

Born June 5, 1880, in Knoxville, Tenn.
Died October 11, 1923, in Los Angeles, Calif.

Father, John M. Morrison; engaged in the real estate and stock business; son of Benjamin and Nancy (McGuiness) Morrison, great-great-grandson of William McGuiness, who came to America about 1782 (original seat of the McGuiness family was in County Down, Ireland) and afterwards lived in Lancaster and Cumberland Counties, Pa.; descendant of Benjamin Morrison, a Scotchman, who also settled in Lancaster County. Mother, Sofora V. (Strong) Morrison; daughter of Mrs. Julia Strong; ancestors settled at Fairfield, Iowa.

Studied in preparatory department of Union College (Nebr.), member of the Class of 1899 at Union College for four years before entering Yale College as a Senior in September, 1903; also studied in the Yale School of Medicine 1903-04, philosophical oration appointment and honors in physical and natural science; member Phi Beta Kappa and Sigma Xi.

Spent the first year after graduation traveling in Europe, and the next year on a ranch at College View, Nebr.; Fellow in the department of physiological chemistry at the University of Chicago 1906-07, at the same time studying in the medical department; with the publishing firm of D. Appleton & Company of Chicago and New York from 1907 to 1917 (salesman until 1910; then field manager); manager of the medical department, Oxford University Press, New York City, 1917-1920, vice-president and field manager of the American Institute of Medicine, New York City, 1920-21; was on a business trip to California in October, 1921, when he was taken ill with an embolism, which stopped at the wall of the heart, causing grave injury to the heart muscle; went to Los Angeles in May, 1923; president of the Colonial Homebuilding Association (incorporated by him), builders and contractors in Los Angeles, from that time until his death; member Presbyterian Church.

Death due to a cerebral embolism. Buried in Hollywood Cemetery, Los Angeles. Survived by wife; a sister, Mrs. Lloyd V. Clark, of Los Angeles, and a brother, Mr. C. O. Morrison, who lives in the same city.

Lewis Richardson Schenck, B.A. 1904.

Born July 29, 1880, in Toledo, Ohio.
Died October 4, 1923, in Toledo, Ohio.

Father, Schuyler Charles Schenck, a coal merchant; for many years vice-president of the First National Bank of Toledo; son of William and Mary (Falley) Schenck; descendant of Roelef Schenck, who came to America from Amesford, Holland, in 1650 and settled at Flatbush, Long Island, and of Richard Falley, who came from the Island of Guernsey to Boston about 1720 and later moved to Westfield, Mass. Mother, Harriet Elizabeth (Dow) Schenck; daughter of Hezekiah and Nancy Elizabeth (Farrington) Dow. Yale relatives: Daniel D. Schenck, '97 S. (brother), and Schuyler Hamilton, 1927 S. (nephew).

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. Member Freshman Union, Freshman and Apollo Glee Clubs, Dramatic Association, and Zeta Psi.

In coal business with his father for six months; engaged in electric railway construction and engineering for three years (at first with the Patrick Hirsch Company, Toledo, as member of the civil engineering staff which built the Toledo & Ann Arbor Railroad; on engineering staff of Roberts & Abbott Company, Cleveland, Ohio, building the Cleveland, Ashland & Mansfield Railroad; in employ of the Cleveland & Southwestern Railroad Company, in power house and shop work, six months); assistant secretary J. G. White & Company, Inc., engineers and contractors, New York City, and afterwards advertising manager, 1907–1913; secretary and treasurer, and then president, S. C. Schenck Company, coal merchants, 1913–1920; vice-president Hedstrom-Schenck Coal Company of Chicago (with residence in Toledo) from 1920 until his death; since 1918 also sales agent for the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Coal Company, and president Toledo & Indiana Railway Company (formerly treasurer); had also been assistant secretary Helena Railway & Light Company, Idaho Irrigation Company, Ltd., and Chilean Contracting Company; assistant secretary and trustee Upper Columbia Company; and secretary, treasurer, and director Equities Securities Company; trustee First Congregational Church, Toledo, interested in the work of the Toledo division, Boy Scouts of America, serving as deputy commissioner, member of the local council, and delegate to the national council; during the World War was auditor of the local Liberty Loan Committee in third and fourth loans.

Married June 3, 1908, in Toledo, Alice Bingham, daughter of Dr. Henry Archibald Tobey and Minnie (Conklin) Tobey. Three children: Schuyler Charles, 2d, Alice Louise, and Peter.

Death due to heart failure. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Toledo. Survived by wife, children, and two sisters, Mrs. Bartelle S. Hamilton and Mrs. Walter L. Haskell, both of Toledo.

Francis Quinn Cronin, B.A. 1905.

Born November 13, 1881, in New London, Conn.
Died April 13, 1924, in New London, Conn.

Father, Jeremiah Daniel Cronin; for some years a member of the firm of Newman & Cronin, plumbers; son of Daniel and Katherine (O'Neill) Cronin. Mother, Annie (Quinn) Cronin; daughter of Hugh and Ann (Milholland) Quinn.

Studied in the Yale School of Law 1905–08 (LL.B. 1908); vice-president of his class; member Book and Gavel; admitted to the Connecticut Bar; practiced law with his brother, Daniel M. Cronin, '02 L., in New London, until his death; had been assistant prosecuting attorney of New London since 1917; served as a registrar of voters 1914-1924; represented New London in the General Assembly 1915-16 (member of judiciary committee); candidate for senator for the 18th District 1916; member St. Mary's Star of the Sea Church, New London.

Married April 23, 1917, in New York City, Agnes Catherine, daughter of Alexander and Mary (Madden) Rizzuto. No children.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in St. Mary's Cemetery, New London. Survived by wife, father, and two brothers, William D. Cronin (M.D. Columbia University 1900) and Daniel M. Cronin, all of New London.

Charles Wilbur Fisk, B.A. 1905.

Born January 17, 1883, in New York City.
Died October 20, 1923, in Syossett, N. Y.

Father, Charles Joel Fisk, a banker; mayor of Plainfield, N. J.; son of Harvey and Louisa (Green) Fisk; descendant of William Fisk, who came from England to Wenham, Mass., in 1637. Mother, Elisabeth (Richey) Fisk; daughter of Augustus G. and Anna G. Richey; descendant of William Richey, who settled at Asbury, N. J.

Prepared under private tutors. Entered Yale with Class of 1904; joined '05 Junior year; cup man; member Alpha Delta Phi and Scroll and Key.

Connected with Harvey Fisk & Sons, bankers, New York City, as clerk and salesman 1905-1911; in the bond business at San Francisco, one year; with Thomas Maddocks' Sons Company, Trenton, N. J., for a time; superintendent of the Thomas J. Steen Company, builders in New York City, 1915-17; manager of the branch office of Gilman & Clucas, brokers, New York City, 1917; agent for Equitable Life Assurance Society of New York City from 1917 until his death; attended the Reserve Officers' Training Camp, Camp Joseph E. Johnston, Fla., 1918; member Presbyterian Church, Plainfield.
Married January 5, 1911, in New York City, Mrs. Katherine Kendall Felton, daughter of Henry R. and Grace Ada (Jackson) Kendall. One daughter, Lilla Richey Fisk, and one stepdaughter, Felicia Felton Fisk.

Died from heart trouble while riding to hounds with the Meadow Brook Hunt Club. Interment in Hillside Cemetery, Plainfield. Survived by wife; daughter; stepdaughter; mother; two sisters, Louise Fisk Waring (Mrs. Lewis E. Waring, of Plainfield, N. J.), and Anne Fisk Johnson, wife of J. Ford Johnson, Jr., '10; and a brother, Harvey Fisk, of New York City. Another brother, Augustus R. Fisk, ex-'04, died in 1917

Frank Collins Downing, B.A. 1906.

Born February 19, 1884, in Kansas City, Mo.
Died April 13, 1924, in Kansas City, Mo.

Kansas City Central High School and St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. Dissertation appointment Junior year; oration appointment Senior year; on Freshman Football Team and the membership committee of Dwight Hall; member German Club, Wigwam (Sophomore year), and Alpha Delta Phi.

In October, 1906, became connected with Bond & Goodwin, commercial paper brokers of Boston, and the following December opened an office for them in Kansas City; during the panic of 1907 was appointed secretary of the Kansas City Clearing House; returned to Bond & Goodwin and remained with them until March, 1909; discount clerk in the New England National Bank, Kansas City, 1909–1912; was obliged to give up his position on account of ill health; spent some time in San Antonio, Texas, later taking a hunting trip in Wyoming; after his return to Kansas City was engaged in the insurance business with Groves Brothers for a while; afterwards spent some time on the "066" ranch near Wichita Falls, Texas (had an interest in a herd of cattle in Oklahoma); served with the British Canadian Recruiting Mission for a year; enlisted in the Tank Corps and was in training at Camps Polk and Greene, North Carolina, and Camp Pike, Arkansas, as a Private in Company B, 308th Battalion; received his discharge December 29, 1918; was then associated with J. C. Biggs & Company, stock brokers of Edmonton, Alberta, for a time; again became Kansas City representative of Bond & Goodwin and remained with that firm until its business was absorbed by McCluney & Company, brokers of St. Louis, Mo., in 1923; since then representative for the latter firm in Kansas City; member Westminster Congregational Church, Kansas City.

Married June 14, 1922, in Kansas City, Mrs Frances Sherwood Goodwin, daughter of John Chase and Julia (Madeira) Sherwood. No children.

Death, due to pneumonia and osteomyelitis, occurred in the Research Hospital, Kansas City, after an illness of three months. Buried in Elmwood Cemetery, Kansas City. Survived by wife; father; a half sister, Miss Jessie Downing; and a brother, Blatchford Downing, '07, all of whom reside in Kansas City.

Stephen Dows Thaw, B.A. 1907.

Born April 12, 1887, in Allegheny (now Pittsburgh, North Side), Pa. Died August 22, 1923, in Zurich, Switzerland.

Father, Benjamin Thaw (B.A. University of Pittsburgh 1878; graduate student at Yale 1878–79), a capitalist (formerly a coke manufacturer); son of William and Burd (Blair) Thaw. Mother, Elma Ellsworth (Dows) Thaw; daughter of Stephen Leland and Henrietta W. (Safley) Dows. Yale
Obituary Record

Shadyside Academy, Pittsburgh. Started Yale Monthly Magazine (later combined with the Courant); member Beta Theta Pi.

Taught arithmetic, English, and geography at American University, Beirut, Syria, for a year and a half (obliged to give up position on account of ill health); returned to this country November, 1908; assistant at Allegheny Observatory, University of Pittsburgh, 1909–1911 (also instructor in astronomy 1916–17); assistant at Yerkes Observatory, University of Chicago, summer of 1913; went to Switzerland in 1914 on account of health (served as volunteer aide in United States Consulate at Zurich); special student Yale School of the Fine Arts 1915–16 (Battalion Quartermaster Sergeant Yale Battery); held position under United States Government from December, 1917, to April, 1918; studied at General Theological Seminary, New York City, 1918; ordained deacon in the Protestant Episcopal Church January, 1919; served diaconate in Church of St. Mary the Virgin, New York; ordained priest in Pittsburgh, November 9, 1919, assistant at St. Mary's Memorial Church, Pittsburgh 1919–1920; assistant curate Church of the Advent, Boston, July, 1920, to November, 1921; rector St. Paul's Church, Harrisburg, Pa., November, 1921, to November, 1922; non-parochial priest Diocese of Harrisburg, from November, 1922, until his death; had resided at Zürich since November, 1922, Fellow American Association for the Advancement of Science, American Society for Psychological Research, and American Geographical Society; member Archæological Society of America, American Astronomical and Astrophysical Society, Deutsche Astronomische Gesellschaft, American Museum of Natural History, New York Academy of Science, Astronomical Society of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh Society of the Archæological Institute of America, Pittsburgh Academy of Science and Art, and Royal Societies Club of London.

Married July 6, 1916, in New York City, Elise Marie, daughter of Pius and Barbara (Wagner) Stehlin, of Zürich. Three children: Elma Dows (died in infancy), Alexander Blair, 3d, and Benjamin Dows.

Death due to tumor in brain. Interment in Allegheny Cemetery, Pittsburgh. Survived by wife, two children, parents, a sister, and two brothers.

Frederic Timothy Murphy, B.A. 1908.

Born September 4, 1884, in Boston, Mass.
Died May 23, 1924, in Paris, France.

Father, Patrick Francis Murphy, president of the Mark Cross Company of New York City and London; son of Timothy and Joan (Butler) Murphy; descendant of Honoria Roberts Murphy, who came from Ireland to Boston in 1832. Mother, Anna Elizabeth (Ryan) Murphy; daughter of John J. and Clementine (Clery) Ryan; descendant of Dr. Michael Clery and of Jesse Clery, who came from Ireland to Boston in 1839.

Prepared at Hotchkiss School and in New Haven with George L. Fox, '74. Second dispute appointment Senior year; member Freshman Hockey Team, French Club, Alpha Delta Phi, and Elihu Club.

For eight months after graduation was connected with an advertising agency in New York City; since 1909 associated with the Mark Cross Company (treasurer 1909–1915, treasurer and general manager, with headquarters at the New York office, 1915–17, secretary 1917–1920, and vice-president 1920–23; was on leave of absence at the time of his death); on November 20, 1917, enlisted at Fort Myer as a Private in the 6th Field Artillery (Regular Army); was a Corporal when he went overseas the next month; was advanced to Sergeant January 15, 1918, Battalion Sergeant Major February 1, and Regimental Sergeant Major February 15; in February, 1918, volunteered in the Tank Corps, and on March 22 was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the 3d Brigade; was promoted to First Lieutenant October 15, 1918; saw action in the Somme retreat in March and April, 1918, the Somme attack in August, at St. Mihiel in September, and in the Argonne in September and October; on September 26, while serving on the staff of General Estienne as liaison officer between the French and American Tank Corps, his thigh was filled with shrapnel when a machine gun exploded; honorably discharged from service November, 1918, in December, 1918, was sent to Metz to write of the moral effect on the German soldier of the use of tanks; was the only member of the American Tank Corps in France at the dedication, in the spring of 1923, of the memorial on the hill above Rheims, where many of the corps were killed, and was chosen by General Estienne to stand beside General Foch and carry the American flag on that occasion; was awarded the Croix de Guerre with a Divisional Citation in October, 1918, and in October, 1923, the Cross of the Legion of Honor, and also a Palm Citation to be added to the Croix de Guerre; was awarded the Conspicuous Service Medal with two citations by New York State in July, 1923; his home was in London for some time following his marriage, but since March, 1923, he had lived in Paris, member of the Roman Catholic Church; author of several financial and mercantile publications.

Death, due to a series of operations, followed a long illness; in June, 1917, had a second operation performed for a stomach trouble, in order to enter the Army; while he was in active service, the wound reopened and he never fully recovered his health. Interment at St Germain-en-Laye, France. Survived by wife; parents; a brother, Gerald C. Murphy, '12; and a sister, Miss Esther Murphy, of New York City.

Robert Coit Johnson, B.A. 1909.

born June 17, 1886, in Norwich, Conn.
Died March 13, 1924, in Norwich, Conn.

Father, Oliver Lewis Johnson, a manufacturer; president of the Aspinook Company, finishers and printers of cotton piece goods; son of Oliver Lewis and Martha (Mumford) Johnson Mother, Fannie Chester (Johnson) Johnson; Norwich Free Academy. First colloquy appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year; worked with the Oak Street Boys’ Club Freshman year; member Chess Club and Beta Theta Pi.

Associated with the Aspinook Company of Jewett City from graduation until his death (director since May, 1914, and assistant treasurer since April, 1915); member Norwich Chamber of Commerce and Connecticut Civil Service Reform League; treasurer Norwich Music Association; member of the Park Congregational Church, Norwich (clerk at the time of his death); enlisted as a Private in Company I, Connecticut Home Guard, in 1917; held the rank of Corporal at the expiration of his term of enlistment in 1919; during the World War engaged in the production of war materials, having been disqualified from service on account of defective eyesight; was active in the Liberty Loan campaigns.

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Yantic Cemetery, Norwich. Survived by wife, son, parents, and two brothers, Philip Adams Johnson, ’14, and Oliver Austin Johnson, of Plainfield, N. J.

Max David Kirjassoff, B.A. 1910.

Born March 2, 1885, in Petrograd (St. Petersburg), Russia. Died September 1, 1923, in Yokohama, Japan.

Father, Nathan Henry Kirjassoff, a jeweler of Brooklyn, N. Y.; came to America in 1889; son of David Mordicai and Schulah (Shapiro) Kirjassoff. Mother, Deborah (Kahn) Kirjassoff; daughter of Meyer and Anna Belle Kahn, of Petrograd. Cousin, Meyer H. Wolff, ’08 S.

Waterbury (Conn.) High School. Second dispute appointments Junior and Senior years; member Freshman Track Team, University Track and Relay teams for three years, and University Cross-country Team Junior year.

Engaged in manufacturing at Waterbury 1910; in the United States Diplomatic Service from 1911 until his death (student interpreter at the embassy in Tokyo, Japan, 1911-13; vice-consul and deputy consul at Tansui, Japan, and interpreter and deputy consul at the American Consulate General, Yokohama, 1913; deputy consul general at Seoul, Korea, and Yokohama 1914; vice-consul at Yokohama 1915; consul at Taihoku, Formosa, 1916-19; consul at Dairen, Manchuria, 1919-1922, consul and acting consul general at Yokohama from 1922 until his death); member Jewish Church.

Married August 15, 1914, in Rahuri, Bombay Presidency, India, Alice Josephine Ballantine (B.A. Mount Holyoke 1913), daughter of William Osborne Ballantine (B.A. Amherst 1869, M.D. New York University 1872) and Josephine Louise (Perkins) Ballantine. Two sons, William Ballantine and David Max.

Perished with his wife in the earthquake disaster at Yokohama; was burned to death after rescuing his wife from the ruins of the consulate, while endeavoring to bear her to safety. Survived by sons; father; two brothers, Meyer Kirjassoff, '06 S., and Louis S. Kirjassoff, '10 S.; and five sisters, Mrs. M. Nahamkin, Mrs. H. Demsey, and the Misses Beatrice, Rose, and Myrtle Kirjassoff.

Samuel Johnson Newman, B.A. 1911.

Born September 16, 1890, in New Haven, Conn.
Died July 14, 1923, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Jacob Joseph Newman, a manufacturer; son of Isaac Newman, who came to New Haven from Germany in 1839, and Pauline (Simons) Newman. Mother, Ida (Johnson) Newman, daughter of Jacob Johnson, who came to America from Germany in 1860 and settled at Waterbury, Conn., and Caroline (Kaiser) Johnson.

New Haven High School. Second dispute appointment and general honors Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; member Freshman and University Crew squads, Class Crew, and Dramatic Association.
Associated with I. Newman & Sons, corset manufacturers, New Haven, from 1911 until his death (member of firm since 1916); director National Tradesmens Bank and Little Theater Guild of New Haven; inducted into Army October 31, 1918, under limited service classification; served as Sergeant in Quartermaster Corps in Boston; discharged January 15, 1919; member Mishkan Israel Synagogue, New Haven.

Married February 2, 1918, in Boston, Helen, daughter of Louis and Lena (Friedman) Leviseur. Two sons: John Leviseur and William Frederick (died October 8, 1923).

Death due to lymphatic leukemia. Buried in Mishkan Israel Cemetery. Survived by wife, son, and father.

Charles Lawson Reed, B.A. 1911.

Born December 4, 1888, in Cincinnati, Ohio.
Died December 8, 1923, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Father, Charles Alfred Lee Reed (M.D. Cincinnati College of Medicine and Surgery 1874); director of the University of Cincinnati (1891–1903); a former president of the American Medical Association; son of Richard Cumming Stockton Reed (M.D. Cincinnati College of Medicine and Surgery 1860) and Nancy (Clark) Reed; descendant of Gilbert Reed, who came to America from Northumberland in 1650 and settled in New Jersey. Mother, Rena (Dougherty) Reed; daughter of John George and Susan (Melrose) Dougherty, of Otterville, Ill.; descendant of William Dougherty, who came to Mississippi from Belfast, Ireland.

Attended Cincinnati public schools; Château de Lancy, Geneva, Switzerland; a school in Florence, Italy; and Culver Military Academy. Second dispute appointment Junior year; first colloquy appointment Senior year; manager University Hockey Team; secretary-treasurer of Sophomore Wranglers; member Psi Upsilon and Scroll and Key.

For three years after graduation engaged in business for himself under name of The International Sales Company, acting as selling agent for various European concerns; in 1914 became connected with The Stearns & Foster Company, cotton manufacturers of Lockland, Ohio; was assistant secretary of the company at the time of his death; commissioned First Lieutenant of Field Artillery at Fort Benjamin Harrison November 27, 1917; stationed at Camp Sherman for six months; sailed for France with 322d Field Artillery June 8, 1918; in Artillery Training Camp at Coetquidan, went to the front September 18, his brigade being an independent one, acting as divisional artillery for the 91st, 32d, 33d, and 29th Divisions; took a course in sound ranging with the 7th French Army; was on the Alsace front just before the armistice; spent five months with American Army of Occupation near Coblenz; mustered out May 28, 1919, at Camp Sherman; in August, 1920, was selected to serve on a committee of three Reserve and three Regular Army officers to write new regulations for the Officers’ Reserve Corps; served as Major, General Staff Corps, in War Plans and Operations Divisions of the War Department General Staff in Washington until November, 1920; associate editor of History of the 322d Field Artillery, published by the Yale University Press in 1920, wrote several newspaper articles on the Organized Reserves (1920); chairman executive committee of Citizens’ More Daylight League, which put Cincinnati on Daylight Saving Time, 1920; vice-chairman Cincinnati Chapter, Military Order of the World War, 1921; charter member and second president (1921-22) Cincinnatus Association, organized to further projects important to the citizens of Cincinnati; at time of his death was director and secretary of the Foreign Policy Association; vice-chairman of the Citizens’ School Committee; vice-president of the Civic League, director and secretary of the Better Housing League, trustee of the Children’s Hospital; commander of the Cincinnati Chapter, Military Order of the World War, governor of the University Club, and chairman of its committee on admissions and of its war memorabilia collection committee; president of the Cincinnati Yale Club, of which he was secretary during 1914-15, chairman of its scholarship committee in 1921, and vice-president during 1922-23.

Married June 5, 1915, in Cincinnati, Pauline Carson, daughter of William Resor and Pauline (Carson) Foster, and niece of Julia Resor Foster. Five children: Pauline Foster, Priscilla, C. Lawson, Jr., Rosamond, and Foster.
Died of encephalitis, after an illness of five weeks. Interment in Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati. Survived by wife, five children, and father.

Chun Wing Sen Afong, B.A. 1912.
Born November 7, 1887, in Macao, Hong Kong, China.
Died February 26, 1924, in Macao, Hong Kong, China.

It has been impossible to secure the desired information for an obituary sketch of General Afong in time for publication in this volume. A biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.

Watson Keep Blair, B.A. 1913.
Born June 6, 1889, in Chicago, Ill.
Died March 17, 1924, in Miami, Fla.

Father, Watson Franklin Blair; in grain commission business on the Chicago Board of Trade as Blair & Company until 1890; director of the Merchants National Bank and later of the Corn Exchange National Bank; chairman of the finance committee of the Field Museum of Natural History; governing member of the Art Institute; vice-president of the Children’s Memorial Hospital; son of Chauncey Buckley and Caroline O. (DeGroff) Blair; descendant of Robert Blair, who came from Ulster, Ireland, to Worcester, Mass., in 1718. Mother, Alice Rose (Keep) Blair; daughter of William and Frances (Rhoades) Keep; descendant of John Keep, who came to America from England in 1698 and settled at Longmeadow, Mass. Yale relatives include the following cousins: Edward T. Blair, '79, William McCormick Blair, '07, Chauncey B. Blair, '09, and Seymour Blair, '11.

Groton School. Entered college with the Class of 1912; became a member of the Class of 1913 in the fall of 1910; sang on the Freshman Glee Club; member City Government Club and Psi Upsilon.
Obituary Record

Was with the Corn Exchange National Bank during 1913–14; then spent a year traveling in Europe; was associated for a time with George H. Webster, ex-'91, owner of a large cattle ranch in Cimarron, N. Mex.; member of the advertising firm of Collins & Kirk in Chicago from October, 1923, until his death; commissioned an Ensign in the Navy May 22, 1917; promoted to Lieutenant in June, 1918; on coast patrol duty for two months; on convoy duty with the U. S. S. "Chattanooga" for almost a year, and then with the U. S. S. "Seneca," on convoy duty from England to Gibraltar; later served for seven months on the destroyer "Gregory" in the Mediterranean, liaison officer for a month at Spalato on the Dalmatian coast; member St. James' Episcopal Church, Chicago.

Unmarried.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Graceland Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by his parents and a brother, Wolcott Blair, ex-'17.

Born September 22, 1891, in Butte, Mont.
Died January 1, 1924, in Los Angeles, Calif.

Father, John Joseph McHatton (LL.B. Iowa State University 1883), a lawyer and judge of the Montana District Court; son of William H. McHatton, who came to America from Ireland in 1859 and settled at Mount Sterling, Ill., and Anna (Casey) McHatton. Mother, Rose (Morier) McHatton; daughter of Henry Morier, who came to Butte from England and Canada, and Eliza (Smith) Morier.

Phillips-Andover. First colloquy appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year; member Beta Theta Pi.

Employed as clerk in the Daly Bank at Butte 1916–17; after a course of training in the Ordnance Department at the University of Oregon (1917) and with the Ordnance Detachment at the arsenal at San Antonio, Texas, appointed Sergeant of Ordnance (1st Class) and assigned to Provisional Company O, American Ordnance Base Depot in France, at Camp Dodge, Iowa, went overseas in March, 1918; stationed at the Ordnance Depot in Cherbourg, at first engaged in construction work, and afterwards in the office of the Chief Ordnance Officer; returned to the United States in 1919, receiving his discharge on May 29; commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Reserve Corps November 30, 1919; was secretary and assistant treasurer of the National Axle Corporation in San José, Calif., for a time; afterwards with the Craig Golfmeter Company, Inc., of New York City; at the time of his death not engaged in any occupation; member St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church, Butte; communicant of St. Basil's Church, Los Angeles.

Unmarried.

Death resulted from appendicitis. Buried in St. Patrick's Cemetery, Butte. Survived by his father.

Ganson Goodyear Depew, B.A. 1919.

Born November 2, 1895, in Buffalo, N. Y.
Died March 31, 1924, in Aiken, S. C.

Prepared under a private tutor at St. Moritz, Switzerland, and at the Pawling (N. Y.) School. Entered Yale with Class of 1918 but left at end of fall term, Freshman year, on account of illness; joined Class of 1919 on his return the next year; associate editor of Yale Daily News; manager of Dramatic Association, taking part in the presentation of "Ours" in 1917; member Student Council Sophomore year and Sophomore German Committee; chairman College Student Council's Committee on Reconstruction Senior year; a Class Book historian; interested in the work of Bethany Mission, Dwight Hall, Yale Hope Mission, and Boys' Club; member Delta Kappa Epsilon and Skull and Bones.

Left college when the United States entered World War; enlisted at Brooklyn Navy Yard April 16, 1917; with several of his classmates purchased a flying boat and organized a school for flying at Buffalo; in training there as a member of the Aerial Coast Patrol Unit (Yale Unit No. 2) until November; commissioned Ensign, U. S. Naval Reserve Force (Aviation), November 2 and sent to Naval Air Station at Pensacola, Fla.; promoted to Lieutenant (junior grade) March 23, 1918, and to a senior grade lieutenancy July 1, 1918, served as Executive Officer and Acting Commanding Officer of Naval Air Station, Hampton Roads, Va., until discharged February 28, 1919, had been recommended for Lieutenant Commander and passed by Aviation Section; returned to college the following fall and in June, 1920, was given his degree, with enrollment in the Class of 1919; studied in the Yale School of Law 1920–22 (LL.B. 1922); member Student Council of Law School; case and comment editor of Yale Law Journal Senior year, member Corbey Court and Phi Delta Phi; admitted to New York Bar June, 1922; in September began to practice in Buffalo as a member of the law firm of Donovan & Goodyear; since October, 1922, had been a member of the firm of Donovan, Raichle & Depew; was first assistant United States district attorney for western New York from September, 1922, until his death; director Brick Row Book Shop, Inc., of New Haven since 1922; member council of Yale in China 1921–23; served as secretary of Class of 1919 from March, 1920, until June, 1922; member Sexennial Committee, one of the donors of the Elihu Yale sundial to the University; member Buffalo Players and St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Buffalo.

Unmarried

Death, due to peritonitis, following an operation for appendicitis, occurred in the hospital at Aiken, where he had been spending a vacation. Buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Buffalo By the terms of his will a bequest of $25,000 was left to the University. (His father has pledged $25,000 in memory of his son to be added to the principal of the Ganson Goodyear Depew Memorial Fund.) In addition to his father, is survived by a sister, Lucia Depew deCernea, the wife of Edward deCernea, '19.

Born August 28, 1895, in Bowling Green, Ky.
Died August 22, 1923, in Mumfordville, Ky.

Father, William Weldon Peete, a coal merchant; son of Dr. R. S. F. Peete, a graduate of the University of Virginia and a surgeon in the Confederate Army during the Civil War, and Mary (Davis) Peete; grandson of Edward Hart Peete, one of the founders of Randolph-Macon College; ancestors came from England to Massachusetts early in the seventeenth century, later moving to Mecklingburg County, Va. (now Northampton County, N. C.). Mother, Rose (Hamberger) Peete; daughter of Charles and Margaret Hamberger; descendant of Charles Frederick Hamberger, who came from Stuttgart, Germany, to Detroit, Mich.

Attended public schools in Bowling Green; B.A. Ogden College 1915; stood at the head of his class and received three medals given by the college, attended Johns Hopkins University for a year; engaged in teaching at Hampton, Tenn., 1916-17; enlisted in the U. S. Ambulance Service, July, 1917; at the training camp, Allentown, Pa., and at Tobyhanna, Pa., November and December, 1917; went overseas and served back of the lines at Château-Thierry until September, 1918; promoted to Second Lieutenant October, 1918; after the armistice was transferred to Motor Transport Corps (headquarters at Nancy); with 3d Army Transport Service, Army of Occupation, Coblenz, from December, 1918, to August 1, 1919; discharged at Camp Zachary Taylor, September 2, 1919; entered Yale as a Senior in the fall of 1919; studied in Yale Graduate School 1920-21 (M.A. 1921); taught English and French at The Principia, a coeducational school in St. Louis, Mo., from 1921 until his death.

Unmarried.

Was instantly killed in an automobile accident, while on his way home from a tour of California. Buried in Fairview Cemetery, Bowling Green. Survived by parents and two brothers, William Weldon Peete, Jr., and Richard Boyd Peete.

Born February 22, 1898, in New Rochelle, N. Y.
Died April 10, 1924, in Holyoke, Mass.

Hotchkiss School Held the Litchfield County University Club, James J. Hogan, Mead, and Lispenard Stewart Witherbee scholarships, first Berkeley Premium in Latin composition Freshman year; oration appointment Junior year; captain Freshman Wrestling Squad, member University Wrestling Squad for three years, and manager Wrestling Team Senior year, member Freshman Debating Team and alternate on University Debating Team Junior year; member College Choir Senior year; on the College Student Council for three years; interested in the work of the Yale Hope Mission; chairman Boys' Club Committee; president of College Y M C. A. Senior year; a class deacon; member Beta Theta Pi, Skull and Bones, and Triennial Reunion Committee; in April, 1917, joined the Yale R. O. T. C., becoming Corporal and Sergeant in Battery D.; served with it at Camp Jackson, S. C., where he was commissioned a Second Lieutenant of Field Artillery September 13, 1918; stationed at Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky. (with the 39th, 9th, and 55th Batteries), from October 1, 1918, to January 3, 1919, when he was given his discharge; held a commission as Second Lieutenant in the Reserve Corps until he resigned it in 1924, on account of his belief in anti-war propaganda on the part of the church.

Studied at Union Theological Seminary (B.D. 1923); president of his class; Fayerweather Prize Scholar; during his course was student assistant to the Rev. Henry Sloane Coffin, D.D., '97, pastor of the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church in New York; worked with the young people and the boys' clubs; had charge of the church school in the summer; ordained to the Congregational ministry in Salisbury, Conn., May 20, 1923; was assistant pastor of the Second Congregational Church in Holyoke from June 1, 1923, until his death; was leader of the men's class; had charge of the development of all the work of the parish house; was on the staff of Time (of which his classmates, Briton Hadden and Henry R. Luce, are the editors) from its foundation until November, 1923.

Unmarried.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Riverside Cemetery, Pleasant Valley, Conn. A memorial service was held at the Second Congregational Church in Holyoke on the Sunday following his death, at which addresses were made by the president of Union Theological Seminary and the pastor of the church. Survived by his mother, a sister, Elizabeth L. Safford, and a brother, Philip L. Safford. Another brother, Geoffrey L. Safford, '14, died in 1916.

Born September 18, 1898, in Cleveland, Ohio.
Died August 12, 1923, in Bronxville, N. Y.

Father, Harry Wilmot Woodward (B.A. Western Reserve 1890, M.A. 1895, M.E. Case School of Applied Science 1898), a consulting engineer; son of Hiram and Esther (Carlton) Woodward; descendant of Obadiah Woodward, who came to
Obituary Record

America from England in 1632 and settled near Cambridge, Mass. Mother, Eunice Lorraine (Preston) Woodward; daughter of Frederick M. and Nellie (Osborne) Preston Yale relatives: Allen Hubbard, '83 S., and Allen Hubbard, Jr., '20 S.

East High School, Cleveland; Asheville (N. C.) School. Member University Glee Club and College Choir for four years, leader of Apollo Glee Club Junior year; member Gymnasium Team in 1921.

Accountant with Plaza Branch of the Central Union Trust Company, New York City, from January to May, 1922; in the stenographic department of the Chase National Bank, New York, July–December, 1922; private secretary to Col. Arthur Woods from January to April, 1923; from that time until his death private secretary with Charles Hecht & Company, accountants, New York; member Euclid Avenue Congregational Church, Cleveland.

Unmarried.

Death followed a three days' illness due to pneumonia. Buried in the Winsted (Conn.) Cemetery. Survived by his parents

Scovel McGaw Lyon, B.A. 1922.

Born January 6, 1900, in Peking, China.
Died May 18, 1924, in Stamford, Conn.

Father, the Rev. David Willard Lyon (B.A. Wooster 1891, B.D. McCormick Theological Seminary 1894, D.D. Wooster 1916), engaged in missionary work in China under the Y. M. C. A. for twenty-eight years, going out in 1895 as its first secretary to that country; secretary of the International Committee of the Y. M. C. A. in New York City 1919–1923; returned to China in 1923 and is now engaged in Y. M. C. A. work for China, Japan, Korea, and the Philippines, with his headquarters in Shanghai; son of David Nelson and Mandana Eliza (Doolittle) Lyon; great-great-great-grandson of the Rev Benjamin Doolittle (B.A 1716); descendant of Abraham Doolittle, who came to America from England about 1640 and four years later settled in New Haven; probably also a descendant of Henry Lyon, who came from England to Milford, Conn., in 1648 and moved to Newark, N. J., in 1666. Mother, Grace Elvira (McGaw) Lyon; daughter of Samuel Pressly and Elizabeth (Leslie) McGaw.

Wooster (Ohio) Academy and Yonkers (N. Y.) High School. High oration appointment Junior year; oration appointment Senior year; Phi Beta Kappa; member Soccer Squad in fall of 1919, and of Crew Squad 1920–21; won the Heaton Testimonial for the greatest improvement in physical development Freshman year; member Yale Hope Mission Committee for two years (secretary Senior year), engaged in occasional deputation work under the Y. M. C. A. and the Student Volunteer Band; treasurer Cosmopolitan Club Senior year; enlisted as an Apprentice Seaman, U. S. Naval Reserve Force, October 4, 1918; member U. S. Naval Unit at Yale for three months; released from active service December 20, 1918.

Spent year of 1922–23 as an instructor in mathematics, manual training, and botany at the Friends’ Academy, Locust Valley, Long Island; member of the College Service Group under the direction of the student department of the Y. M. C. A. in New York City during July, 1923; student at Union Theological Seminary from the fall of 1923 until his death; member of the Church of Christ in Yale University.

Unmarried.

Death, due to injuries received in motorcycle accident, occurred in the Stamford Hospital; was on his way to New Haven to visit his brother. Buried in Mount Hope Cemetery, Yonkers. Survived by parents; two brothers, Laurence L. Lyon, 1927, and David W. Lyon, a student in the Western Reserve Medical School at Cleveland; and two sisters, Miss Jean Lyon, Wellesley 1924, and Miss Elizabeth Lyon, who is with her parents in Shanghai.
SHEFFIELD SCIENTIFIC SCHOOL

Martin VanHarlingen, Ph.B. 1865.

Father, John Martin VanHarlingen, a merchant; son of John Martin VanHarlingen (B.A. Rutgers 1792) and Maria (Stiles) VanHarlingen; grandson of the Rev. Johannes Martinus VanHarlingen, one of the founders of Queen's (now Rutgers) College; great-grandson of Johannes Martinus VanHarlingen, who came to America from Holland about 1710 and settled in New York City, later moving to New Brunswick, N.J. Mother, Isabel (Campbell) VanHarlingen; daughter of Capt. John Campbell and Mary (Robb) Campbell, who came to America from Scotland about 1800 and settled in Philadelphia. Nephew, J. Martin VanHarlingen, '07 S

Rittenhouse Academy, Philadelphia; Cream Hill Agricultural School, West Cornwall, Conn. Entered Sheffield Scientific School in 1861; took the general course for a year and afterwards specialized in engineering, member Berzelius.

Served with the Hamilton Rifles in defense of the duPont Powder Mills at Wilmington, Del., September, 1862; engaged in building railroads and in municipal improvements from graduation until his death, some of the more important works being included in the following list: replacing the wooden railroad bridge at Trenton, N.J., with an iron one in 1876 (the first instance of the building, erecting, and moving into position of a bridge, without any interruption to traffic); the building of the first large coal distributing yard, with docks and piers, at South Amboy, N.J.; the construction of the roadway for the third and fourth tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad between New Brunswick, N.J., and Harrisburg, Pa.; the building of the tunnel of the Pennsylvania Schuylkill Valley Railroad, and the location and construction of that road from Phoenixville to Port Clinton, Pa.; the building of fifty miles of the East Coast Railway in Nova Scotia, and the construction of a branch (Atlanta, Ga.)
Sheffield Scientific School

of the Sea Board Air Line, and of the Auburn, Ithaca & Lansing Railroad; had also been connected with the Philadelphia Department of Public Works; member Ninth Presbyterian Church, West Philadelphia.

Married October 15, 1873, at Cream Ridge, N. J., Ella Margaret, daughter of Joseph Titus and Amanda Tilton (Lawrence) Scudder. Eight children: Bertha (died in childhood); John Martin (died in 1876); Mabel; Ethel; Bessie; Brunhilda (died in 1901); Dorothea; and John Martin. Mrs. VanHarlingen died July 25, 1912.

Death due to heart failure. Interment in Woodland Cemetery, West Philadelphia. Survived by son, four daughters, and a brother, Dr. Arthur VanHarlingen, '64 S.

Charles Henry Hubbard, Ph.B. 1867.

Born February 21, 1846, in Sandusky, Ohio.
Died January 8, 1924, in Hartford City, Ind.

Father, Rollin Barnard Hubbard, a banker; for many years president of the Second National Bank of Sandusky; son of John and Mabel (Barnard) Hubbard; descendant of George Hubbard, who was born in England in 1601, settled in Hartford, Conn., in 1639, and afterwards moved to Middle-town, Conn Mother, Ann Morrison (Massey) Hubbard; daughter of Alexander and Mary (Buntin) Massey; descendant of Alexander Massey, who came to America from England in 1813 and settled at Vincennes, Ind., and of Capt. Robert Buntin, U.S.A., commandant of Fort Vincennes in 1811. Yale relatives include: George Hubbard (B.A. 1803), John M. Hubbard (B.A. 1829), Charles L. Hubbard, '73, Shannon B. Hubbard, ex-'79 S. (brother), and Theodore S. Gold, ex-'24 S.

Cream Hill Agricultural School, West Cornwall, Conn. General course in Sheffield Scientific School; member Class Crew, Undine Boat Club, and Sigma Delta Chi.

Engaged in the manufacture of carriage wood stock for thirty years following his graduation; founded the Hubbard Spoke Factory in Hartford City in 1869; in 1899 obliged to retire from active business on account of the condition of his health, was one of the organizers of the Johnston Glass Company of Hartford City, and a director until his death; member original board of directors of Citizens State Bank; member of School Board for ten years; founder of the Blackford Club.

Married September 30, 1868, in West Cornwall, Eleanor Douglas, daughter of Theodore Sedgwick Gold (B.A. 1838) and Caroline E. (Lockwood) Gold, granddaughter of Dr. Samuel W. Gold (Honorary M.D. 1836), great-great-granddaughter of the Rev. Hezekiah Gold (B.A. 1751), and a half sister of Charles L. Gold, '83 S., and Dr. James D. Gold, '88 S.

Five children: Rollin Barnard (Ph.B. Kenyon 1891); Caroline L (Mrs. Henry O. Miller); Eleanor Gold (died in infancy), Charles Mills; and Alice Gold. Mrs. Hubbard died March 6, 1913.

Death due to chronic rheumatism, following an illness of eighteen years, which he attributed to exposure sustained on a fishing trip in Canada. Buried in the I.O.O.F. Cemetery, Hartford City. Survived by two sons, two daughters, four grandchildren, and two brothers, Rollin M. Hubbard, of Sumter, S. C., and Frank A. Hubbard, ex-'80 S.

Henry Moore Bailey, Ph.B. 1870.

Born September 18, 1848, in Rutland, Vt.
Died April 27, 1924, in Sioux City, Iowa.

Father, Thomas Ruggles Bailey, an accountant (bookkeeper for the Ripley Marble Works); son of Ezekiel Ladd and Elethear (Ruggles) Bailey; great-grandson of General Jacob Bayley, who was a Captain in the French and Indian War in 1756, and a Colonel at the capture of Fort Ticonderoga and Crown Point in 1759, and because of his services was given a grant of land now known as Newbury, Vt., which he colonized in 1764 (was made a Brigadier General at the beginning of the Revolutionary War and later was appointed by General Washington as Commissary General of the Northern Department); descendant of John Bailey (or Bayley), who came to America from Chippenham, England, in 1635 and settled at Salisbury, Mass. Mother, Sophia Eunice
Sheffield Scientific School

(Moore) Bailey; daughter of Josiah Moore, Jr., and Sophia (Thomas) Moore; descendant of Eliphalet Moore, who was living in Athol, Mass., in 1760.

Rutland High School. Select course; member Scientific Baseball Club and Beethoven Society.

After graduation he was in a bank in Rutland until 1881, when he moved to Lyons, Iowa, where he was bookkeeper for the Lyons Lumber Company; since 1886 had resided in Sioux City; assistant cashier of the Security National Bank 1886–89; organizer of the State Savings Bank in 1889 and its president until it closed in 1896; cashier of the Woodbury County Savings Bank 1896–1900; returned to the Security National Bank in 1900; was made auditor in 1906 and held that position until his death; member First Presbyterian Church, Sioux City.

Married June 21, 1888, in Sioux City, Mary Louise Davis, a non-graduate member of the Class of 1887 at Mount Holyoke College, and the daughter of Samuel Tait and Jane Ann (Putnam) Davis. Four children: George Davis, Ruth Sophia, Thomas Frederic, and Donald Moore.

Died suddenly from heart failure while playing on the Sioux City Boat Club golf course. Buried in Graceland Cemetery, Sioux City. Survived by wife, daughter, three sons, and a brother, Frederic Ruggles Bailey, of Rutland, Vt. Another brother, George F. Bailey, '68 S., died in 1896.

Theophil Mitchell Prudden, Ph.B. 1872.

Born July 7, 1849, in Middlebury, Conn.
Died April 10, 1924, in New York City.

Father, the Rev. George Peter Prudden (B.A. 1835); studied theology at Oberlin Seminary and at Yale Divinity School, graduating from the latter in 1839; pastor of Congregational churches in Medina, N. Y., and Middlebury, Southbury, and Watertown, Conn.; son of Peter and Charity (Davis) Prudden; descendant in the seventh generation of Peter Prudden, an associate of John Davenport in the New Haven Colony, and founder and the first pastor of the first church in Milford, Conn. Mother, Eliza Ann (Johnson)
Prudden, daughter of Ebenezer and Sally (Mitchell) Johnson; descendant of Moses Asa Johnson, who settled at Stratford, Conn. Yale relatives include: Rev. Theodore P. Prudden (B.A. 1869) (brother) and Theodore M. Prudden, ’13 S. (nephew)

Wilbraham (Mass) Academy. Biological course; on editorial board of the Yale Literary Magazine; received the state scholarship; prize in mineralogy Junior year; premiums in zoology and botany Senior year; member of Berzelius.

Instructor in chemistry in Sheffield Scientific School 1872-74; student in the Graduate School 1872-73; studied in the Yale School of Medicine 1873-74 and at the College of Physicians and Surgeons in New York City in 1875; M.D. Yale 1875, connected with the New Haven Hospital for a year, medical student (specializing in pathology) in Heidelberg, Vienna, and Berlin 1876-78; upon his return to the United States in 1879 was appointed assistant in normal histology and pathology at the College of Physicians and Surgeons, director of the laboratory of the Alumni Association of that college 1882-1892; lecturer on normal histology at Yale 1880-86; in 1885 spent a few months in Germany acquiring new methods of research in bacteriology and studying the newly discovered cholera microbe with Dr. Koch in Berlin; professor of pathology at the College of Physicians and Surgeons from the establishment of the professorship in 1892 until 1909; since then professor emeritus, devoting his time to literary and scientific work; spent his summers in travel, chiefly in the United States; during the summer of 1872 hunted fossils with Professor Othniel C. Marsh of Yale, and during eight other summers wandered with pack train through Colorado, Utah, Arizona, and New Mexico, locating prehistoric ruins; LL.D. Yale 1897; vice-president of the board of scientific directors of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research since its foundation in 1901; executive officer of the U. S. Auxiliary Hospital No. 1 of that institute from February, 1918, to April, 1919; formerly president of the New York Pathological Society and of the Practitioners Society of New York; member of the Public Health Council of the New York State Department of Health, and of the International Health Board of the Rockefeller Foundation; honorary member Connecticut State Medical Society and the Alumni Association of the College of Physicians and Surgeons; Fellow American Academy of Arts and Sciences; member National Academy of Sciences, Association of American Physicians, American Association of Pathologists and Bacteriologists, Society of American Bacteriologists, New York Academy of Medicine, New York Academy of Sciences, New York Pathological Society, American Anthropological Association, American Folk-Lore Society, American Ethnological Association, New York Historical Society, American Geographical Society, New York Geographical Society, Archæological Institute of America, the Landmarks Club, and the Sequoia League; affiliated with the Congregational Church through family interests, but not a member; author of Manual of Normal Histology (1881), Handbook of Pathology and Pathological Anatomy, written in collaboration with Dr. Francis Delafield, '60 (1885), and later with Dr. Francis Carter Wood (has been through twelve editions and is used in thirty different medical colleges), Story of the Bacteria (1889), Dust and its Dangers (1891), Drinking Water and Ice Supplies and their Relations to Health and Disease (1894), and On the Great American Plateau (1907); contributed numerous monographs and reports of his experimental researches to various medical journals, and articles on travel and science to Popular Science Monthly, Harper's Monthly, and Putnam's Magazine; in 1911 a portrait of him by William Sergeant Kendall was presented to Columbia University by his colleagues, students, and other friends.

Unmarried.

Death due to a heart affection of long standing. Interment in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. By the terms of his will the sum of $5,000 was left to Yale to be used in gathering and purchasing articles or collections of articles for exhibition or study illustrating American archæology or ethnology, and for the maintenance of any such collection relating to the same subjects as Yale may possess. Survived by a sister, Miss Lillian E. Prudden (B.A. Vassar 1875), of New Haven.
Robert John Currey, Ph.B. 1873.

Born December 30, 1851, in Benicia, Calif.
Died July 25, 1923, in San Francisco, Calif.

Father, John Currey, a lawyer; justice of the Supreme Court of California 1864–68 (chief justice 1866–68); LL.D. Williams 1870; son of Thomas and Rebecca (Ward) Currey; descendant of Richard Currey, who came to America from England about 1690 and settled at East Chester. Mother, Cornelia (Scott) Currey; daughter of Ebenezer Ashley and Betsey Maria (Hitchcock) Scott; descendant of John Scott, who came to America from Scotland in 1759 and settled at Spencertown, N. Y.

Peekskill Military Academy. Select course in Sheffield Scientific School; treasurer Sheffield Temperance Society Junior year; president Class of 1873 S. Senior year; member Theta Xi.

Worked for U. S. Coast Survey as lieutenant at various places near Santa Barbara, Calif., 1873–74; spent a few months in his father's law office; since 1875 head of the Currey Ranch, a large grain, fruit, and stock ranch, near Dixon, Calif.; member California Legislature 1887–88; member Dixon Library and School boards for thirty years; vice-president Bank of Dixon from 1918 until his death; member United Church, Dixon.

Death due to a cerebral embolism, following a stroke of paralysis Buried in Dixon. Survived by wife, son, three daughters, and six grandchildren.
Samuel Rockwell, Ph.B. 1873.

Born February 20, 1847, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died November 21, 1923, in Cleveland, Ohio.

Father, William Rockwell (B.A. 1822), a Supreme Court Judge of the 2d Judicial District of New York State; son of Dr. Samuel Rockwell (Honorary M.A. 1815), who studied medicine with Dr. Lemuel Hopkins, then of Litchfield, Conn., and Hannah (Reed) Rockwell; descendant of William Rockwell, who came to America from England on the ship "Mary and John" in 1630 and settled at Dorchester, Mass. Mother, Susan Lawrence (Prince) Rockwell; daughter of Capt. Christopher Prince and Anna (Duffield) Prince; descendant of Elder William Brewster of the Plymouth Colony.

Received his preliminary education in Brooklyn, and then spent six years at sea; final preparation for Yale received at his home at Bridgehampton, Long Island; worked as a flagman on a locating party for the Adirondack Railroad in 1864, as a levelman on the St. Paul & Pacific Railroad in 1871, and as engineer on the location of the Green Bay & Lake Pipin Railroad in 1872; civil engineering course in Sheffield Scientific School; member Delta Psi; resident engineer for Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad, on its improvements at Hoboken, N. J. (work included the bridge over the Hackensack River and the Bergen Hill tunnel) 1873-77; on the completion of this work entered into partnership with Mr. Edmund Saxton, with offices at Kansas City, Mo., and was engaged in general contracting work and the construction of municipal water works at St. Louis, Mo., Newcastle, Ind., St. Paul, Minn., and Kansas City, until 1885 (assistant city engineer of Kansas City 1881-82); locating and constructing engineer for St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba Railroad (now part of Great Northern) 1885-87; chief engineer on construction of Eastern Minnesota Railroad (now part of Great Northern), including the tunnel at Duluth and West Superior, Minn., 1888; in 1890 appointed chief engineer of Santa Fé-California Extension, which, it was contemplated, would extend from Mojave, Calif., to San Francisco (the death of the promoter and the financial situation arising from the failure of the Baring Brothers compelled the cessation of the work); chief engineer for Duluth & Winnipeg Railroad 1891; afterwards with Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railroad until he was retired on pension May 1, 1918 (engineer in charge of Michigan Southern Division, with headquarters at Toledo, Ohio, 1891-99, principal assistant engineer at Cleveland, Ohio, 1899-1904, assistant chief engineer 1904-05, and chief engineer 1905-1912; on September 1, 1912, was retired on account of age limit and made consulting engineer, in which capacity he served until 1918); was engaged in private practice as a consulting engineer in Cleveland from 1918 until his death; member American Society of Civil Engineers and American Railway Engineering Association.

Death due to heart failure. Interment in Lakeview Cemetery, Cleveland Survived by wife; four sons; a brother, William Rockwell, '74 S; and a sister, Miss Gertrude Prince Rockwell, of Cleveland.

Arthur Bucklin Claflin, Ph.B. 1874.

Born August 10, 1852, in Hopkinton, Mass.
Died April 11, 1923, in Boston, Mass.

Father, William Claflin (LL.D. Wesleyan 1868 and Harvard 1869); a non-graduate member of the Class of 1837 at Brown University; member of the Massachusetts House of Representatives; state senator; lieutenant governor of Massachusetts 1865-68, and governor 1869-1871; a member of Congress 1877-1881; son of Lee Claflin, a founder of Boston University, and Sarah (Adams) Claflin; descendant of Robert McClaflin, who came from Scotland to Wenham, Preparatory training received at Round Hill, Northampton, and in Stockbridge, Mass. Select course; member '74 S. Shakesperian Club and Delta Psi.

Spent the greater part of the year following graduation in European travel; on his return entered his grandfather's leather firm in Boston and was engaged in the manufacturing and mercantile business until 1895; was afterwards in the real estate and investment business in Boston for a while; at the time of his death was not engaged in active business; had been a member of the 1st Corps of Cadets, Massachusetts Volunteer Militia; attended Trinity Church and the Church of the Advent (Protestant Episcopal), Boston.

Married June 6, 1883, in Cleveland, Ohio, Margaret Helen, daughter of Elias Sabin and Elizabeth (Hoyt) Root. No children.

Henry Hun, Ph.B. 1874.

Born March 21, 1854, in Albany, N. Y.
Died March 14, 1924, in Albany, N. Y.

Father, Thomas Hun (B.A. Union 1826, M.D. University of Pennsylvania 1830, LL.D. Union 1876); professor in Albany Medical College; president of the New York State Medical Society; son of Abraham and Maria (Gansevoort) Hun; descendant of Harmen Thomas Hun, who came to Albany from Amersfoort, Holland, about 1650. Mother, Lydia Louisa (Reynolds) Hun; daughter of Marcus Tullius Reynolds (B.A. Union 1808) and Cynthia (Herrick) Reynolds; descendant of John Reynolds, who came to Watertown, from England in 1634, and of John Alden. Yale relatives include. Howard VanRensselaer, '81 S. (cousin); Lewis R. Parker, '92, and Stephen C. Clark, '03 (nephews by marriage).
Obituary Record

Albany Academy.- Select course; received premiums for excellence in studies of Freshman year and for excellence in physics that year, and premiums for excellence in French and German Senior year; member Berzelius; assistant in physics Senior year and also during a year of graduate study (1874–75).

Studied at the Harvard Medical School 1875–78 (M.D. 1879), interne at the Boston City Hospital 1878–79; studied in Europe 1879–1881; since then had practiced his profession in Albany, specializing in the treatment of nervous diseases (since 1910 had practiced mostly as a consulting physician); professor of diseases of the nervous system at the Albany Medical College 1863–1914; attending physician to St. Peter’s Hospital (1882–1914) and to the Hospital for Incurables; at the time of his death consulting physician to the Albany Hospital (member of board of governors) and to the Anthony Brady Maternity Hospital, and attending physician to the Child’s Hospital; president Albany County Medical Society 1892; secretary Association of American Physicians 1888–1909, and president in 1910; president American Neurological Association 1913–14; member New York State Medical Society and American Academy of Political and Social Science; during World War served as chairman of Advisory Board of the New York State Medical Society; author of A Guide to American Medical Students in Europe and The Differential Diagnosis of Nervous Diseases, and of numerous monographs on medical subjects; contributed many articles to medical journals; president of board of trustees of Albany Academy and a trustee of the Dudley Observatory; honorary M.A. Yale 1914; member Cathedral of All Saints (Episcopal), Albany.

Married April 28, 1892, in Albany, Lydia Marcia, daughter of Samuel Hand (B.A. Union 1851) and Lydia Coit (Learned) Hand Four children: Henry Hand (Ph.B. 1914, M.D. Harvard 1918); Katrina DeWandelaer (died in infancy); Lydia Marcia; and Samuel Hand, '23.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Albany Rural Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughter, and sons.
Sheffield Scientific School

John Muirhead Stewart, Ph.B. 1874.

- Born September 9, 1853, in Peekskill, N. Y.
- Died July 20, 1923, in Los Angeles, Calif.

Adopted son of Dr. Philander Stewart.
Hudson River Institute, Claverack, N. Y. Civil engineering course.
In 1891 entered the department of docks and ferries in New York City, becoming assistant engineer in charge of East River work; upon his retirement from active business moved to California; member American Society of Civil Engineers; former member of the William Marcy Association and Tammany Hall general committee of the 23d Assembly District, New York.
Unmarried.
Death due to fracture of the skull, received when struck by an automobile as he was crossing a street. Buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Los Angeles, under the auspices of the Masonic Order. Left no near relatives.

Edward Benjamin Chandler, Ph.B. 1875.

- Born May 27, 1852, in Woodstock, Conn.

Woodstock Academy. Civil engineering course.
Engaged in coast survey work for a few months after graduation, in the orange business at Sanford, Fla., during the following year; county surveyor of Uvalde County, Texas, 1882–83; head of farm mortgage concern of E. B. Chandler & Company, San Antonio, Texas, from 1883 until his death; president San Antonio Water Company and San Antonio Country Club; member Woodstock Congregational Church.

Married December 28, 1885, in San Antonio, Mary L., daughter of Frederick Jacob and Louise (Lamb) Waelder. No children Mrs Chandler died December 24, 1922.

Death due to coronary thrombosis. Interment in Mission Cemetery, San Antonio. Survived by a sister, Miss Nellie D. Chandler, of Woodstock.

Arthur Eugene Clark, Ph.B. 1875.

Born June 10, 1854, in Clarkson, N. Y.
Died September 26, 1923, near Hamilton, N. Y.

Father, Dr. Norris Greenleaf Clark; son of Gurdon and Anne Dorr (Peck) Clark; descendant of Matthew Dorr, of Matthew Griswold (who came from Lyme Regis, England, and founded the town of Lyme, Conn.), of Deacon William Peck (who came from England with the Davenport party), and of William Clark (who came to America from England before 1651 and died at Northampton, Mass.). Mother, Grace Burr (Plumb) Clark; daughter of the Rev. Elijah G. Plumb and Grace Hubbard (Burr) Plumb; granddaughter of Josiah Burr, who was a student at Yale at the time of the Revolutionary War; descendant of John Burr, who came from England in 1630 and afterwards lived in Roxbury, Mass., and Fairfield, Conn., and of George Plumb, who came to America from Insworth, County Essex, England, and settled at New London, Conn., before 1667.

Briggs School, Buffalo, N. Y. Civil engineering course; member Sigma Delta Chi.

Studied law with William Watson, of Batavia, N. Y.; admitted to the bar in Buffalo, N. Y.; practiced law in Batavia, where he was also a land agent, employed by the Delaware & Lackawanna Railroad and the Lehigh Railroad to obtain a right of way through Genesee County; was an officer of several natural gas companies; engaged in investigation work for Utica Gas & Electric Company at Morrisville, N. Y.; in 1919 engaged in manufacture and sale of appliance for relief of colds; at time of death engaged in manufacture of kladick, and interested in gas leases; organized Morrisville
Rod and Gun Club 1922; member St. James' Church, Batavia.

Married July 2, 1893, in Buffalo, Alice M., daughter of Charles and Mary Hurd. No children.

Death, due to heart disease, occurred on return from a fishing trip. Buried in Batavia. Survived by a sister, Mrs.
Grace Clark Olmsted, of Batavia, and two nieces, Mrs.
William S. Williams and Mrs. Henry Lawrence Morrison, daughters of his brother, Dorr Clark, '70 S.

William Read Howe, Ph.B. 1875.

Born August 18, 1855, in Orange, N. J.
Died November 29, 1923, at Llewellyn Park, West Orange, N. J.

Father, Henry Arnold Howe, president of the Niagara Falls Insurance Company of New York; son of Elisha and Silence (Arnold) Howe. Mother, Helen Lauretta (Larned)
Howe; daughter of George and Maria (Read) Larned.

Orange High School; General Russell's Collegiate and Commercial Institute, New Haven. Civil engineering course; member Theta Xi.

Employed on engineering staff at Centennial Exposition in Philadelphia 1875-76; was subsequently engaged in chemical laboratory work at Stevens Institute of Technology for over a year; attended Columbia Law School 1878-1880, at the same time being a student clerk in office of Arnoux, Ritch &
Woodford; LL.B. Columbia 1880; admitted to New York Bar 1880; remained as clerk with Arnoux, Ritch & Woodford until 1882, when he became a member of the law firm of North, Ward & Wagstaff in New York City; since 1885 had practiced law in Orange, being admitted to the New Jersey
Bar as an attorney in 1885, and as a counselor in 1890
(member of Blake & Freeman and of Blake & Howe 1889-1902, and of Howe & Davis from 1902 until his death); one of three trustees holding title to Llewellyn Park, and president of board of managers of park; director and vice-president Half-Dime Savings Bank; director Trust Company of Orange and of Brick Church National Bank of Orange; for several terms attorney of city of Orange and town of West Orange; treasurer Rosedale Cemetery, the endowment fund of Orange Memorial Hospital, the House of the Good Shepherd, the trustees of the House of the Holy Comforter, and the Cathedral of All Saints of the Diocese of Newark; member of the board and a vice-president of the Children's Aid and Protective Society of the Oranges; for many years president of the Orange Free Library; member American Bar Association, New Jersey Bar Association, Essex County Lawyers' Club, the New England Society (recording secretary for ten years, and later counselor, vice-president, and president), and the Alumni Association of Columbia College; vestryman of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, West Orange, and treasurer of the parish for twenty-five years; warden for five years; a delegate to the Diocesan Convention continuously for over twenty years; chancellor of the Diocese of Newark since 1913, and for several years a member of its standing committee; since 1901 a delegate from the diocese to the General Convention of the Episcopal Church; agent for the Class of 1875 S for the Alumni Fund 1914-17.
Obituary Record

Married June 7, 1881, in Orange, Annie Holbrook, daughter of John Lauris Blake, his former law partner. No children.

Death due to heart disease. Interment in Rosedale Cemetery, Orange. Survived by wife and a sister, Miss Helen Frances Howe, of West Orange.

Hiram Allen Miller, Ph.B. 1876.

Born June 3, 1853, in Williston, Vt
Died November 2, 1923, in Newton Highlands, Mass.

Father, Charles Elliot Miller, a farmer; son of Elisha and Sarah (Eliot) Miller; descendant of John Miller, who came to this country from England and settled at Springfield, Mass., before 1653. Mother, Emily (Clark) Miller; daughter of Wright and Lucy (Hinckly) Clark; descendant of Abel Clark, an early settler of Springfield. Yale relatives include:
Rev. A. Douglas Miller, '64, George Douglas Miller, '70, and Douglas Miller, '08.

Williston Academy. Entered Yale with the Class of 1875; left at end of first term on account of father's death; returned the following year as a member of the Class of 1876; in fall of 1873 entered Sheffield Scientific School, taking course in civil engineering; in Freshman year received prizes for excellence in all studies, as well as special prizes in mathematics and physics, and served as vice-president of the Class of 1876 S., and as a member of the Class Supper Committee; divided prize in mathematics Junior year; was president of his class and of the Christian Union, and a member of the Class Picture Committee Senior year; member Sheffield Debating Club, Alpha Chi, and Berzelius.

Returned to Yale for graduate work in 1876, and was also instructor in mechanical drawing for a year; taught in Union County, Iowa, 1877–78; chief engineer for St. Louis & Northwestern Railroad in southern Iowa 1878; assistant chief engineer with Nevada Central Railroad 1879–1880; then for six months first assistant draftsman of Pacific Railway Improvement Company at Fort Worth, Texas, engaged in building Texas & Pacific Railroad; later located at Shreveport, La., as chief draftsman for New Orleans Pacific Railroad, afterwards becoming bridge engineer, and, in 1881, division engineer; in charge of surveying party for projected railroad from Shreveport through Texas to Rio Grande 1882; division engineer of New Orleans & Mississippi Valley Railroad, in charge of construction of road from New Orleans to Baton Rouge, and also of closing of the Bonne Carre crevasse in Mississippi levee; resident engineer on New Orleans-Pacific division of Missouri Pacific Railroad 1884; agent for Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company at Des Moines, Iowa, and also engaged in engineering, 1884–1892; candidate for city engineer of Des Moines, but defeated; chief engineer Belt Line Railroad, Des Moines; assistant engineer sanitary district of Chicago 1892–96; head of aqueduct department of Metropolitan Water Works, Boston, 1896–1910 (in charge of construction of Clinton dam, Wachusett reservoir, 1896–1903; chief engineer of the Charles River Basin Commission, which built the Charles River dam, 1903–1910); engaged in private practice as civil and consulting engineer from 1910 until his death; C.E. Yale 1896; during World War was resident engineer of District No. 1 for U. S. Shipping Board, Emergency Fleet Corporation; had contributed articles to the Journal of the New England Water Works Association; delegate to Iowa State Convention 1890 and 1891; member Plymouth Congregational Church, Des Moines, and later of Newton Highlands Congregational Church (deacon of latter for twelve years); member American Society of Civil Engineers, Boston Society of Civil Engineers, Western Society of Civil Engineers, American Water Works Association, New England Water Works Association, American Forestry Association, Massachusetts Forestry Association, Massachusetts Highway Association, New England Historical Genealogical Society, American Economics Association, Permanent International Association of Navigation Congresses, American Academy of Political and Social Sciences, and Boston Chamber of Commerce; at one time member executive committee, Yale Club of Boston.

Married (1) October 7, 1884, in New Milford, Conn., Martha Anna, daughter of Botsford W. and Irene (Merwin) Buckingham. Three children: Anna Irene (B.A. Mount Holyoke 1909); Buckingham, ex-'10; and Hiram Allen, Jr., '17. Mrs. Miller died July 4, 1914. Married (2) December 26, 1917, at Newton Highlands, Bertha Marion, daughter of Conrad R and Martha D. Converse. No children by this marriage.

Death occurred suddenly. Buried in Williston. Survived by wife, three children, two grandsons, and three brothers, Rev. Elisha W. Miller, '68, Eliot S. Miller, '73, and Charles A. Miller, '79

James Harold Wickersham, Ph.B. 1877.

Born February 24, 1856, in Marietta, Pa.

Father, James Pyle Wickersham (L.L.D. Lafayette 1876); helped establish common school system of Pennsylvania; established and was principal of the first state normal school of Pennsylvania at Millersville; state superintendent of public instruction, United States minister to Denmark under President Arthur; organizer and president of the Pennsylvania State Teachers' Association, Lancaster County (Pa.) Educational Association, and the National Educational Association; editor Pennsylvania School Journal; author of three valuable educational works, which were translated into Spanish and Japanese; son of Caleb and Abigail (Pyle) Wickersham; fifth in descent from Thomas Wickersham, an English Quaker, who came from Boeney, Sussex, and bought and settled on a tract of land in Chester County, Pa., in 1700. Mother, Emerine I., daughter of Dr. Isaac Taylor and Sarah Ann (Baily) Taylor; descendant of Robert Taylor, who came from Little Leigh, Cheshire, England, in 1682 and settled in Springfield Township, Chester County.

Lancaster High School; attended Franklin and Marshall College for three years before entering Sheffield Scientific School as a Junior in 1875. Select course; a class historian Senior year.

Since graduation associated with the Wickersham Printing Company, printers and publishers of Lancaster (president and general manager 1879–1923, and then president until his death); an officer of the Farmers Trust Company of Lancaster since 1900 (first vice-president since 1917); trustee First Presbyterian Church for twenty years; an organizer of the Lancaster Country Club in 1900 and its president for fifteen years; in November, 1906, was the unsuccessful candidate for Congress of the Independent Republicans from the Lancaster district, the nomination being endorsed by the Democratic party; Honorary M.A. Franklin and Marshall College 1888.

Married November 4, 1880, at Fort Wayne, Ind., Jessie Williams Hough, a non-graduate member of the Vassar Class of 1880, and the daughter of John Hough (B.A. Middlebury 1838) and Sarah E. (Dawkins) Hough, a granddaughter of the Rev. John Hough (B.A. 1802), and a sister of David L. Hough, '85 S. Three children: John Hough, '01 S.; Dorothy (Mrs. William A. Heitshu); and Leavitte Hough, the wife of E. Winslow Williams, '14.

Death due to atrophy of the stomach. Buried in Lancaster. Survived by wife, son, daughters, two grandchildren, and two sisters, Mrs. William H. Henderson, of Harrisburg, Pa., and Mrs. Sanford D. Coe, of Baxter Springs, Kans.
Horace Raymond Carpenter, Ph.B. 1883.

Born October 7, 1860, in Afton, N. Y.
Died November 12, 1923, in St. Louis, Mo.

Father, Daniel A. Carpenter, a merchant; first supervisor of town of Afton; son of Benjamin Samuel and Catherine (Salmon) Carpenter; direct descendant of Capt. William Carpenter, who came to America from England in 1637 and settled at Weymouth, Mass., and whose eldest son, Capt. John Carpenter, of the Jamaica Fusileers, defended Fort James, N. Y., against the fleet of the Prince of Orange in 1673 and who was one of the patentees of the town of Jamaica, N. Y., under the “Donegal patent” of 1680. Mother, Sarah Maria (Williams) Carpenter; daughter of Jirah and Mary (Raymond) Williams; ninth in descent from Robert Williams, who came to America from Norwich, England, in 1658 and settled at Roxbury, Mass., where he was a member of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company; also ninth in descent from John Howland of the “Mayflower”; seventh in descent from Joshua Raymond, a deputy from New London, Conn., to the General Assembly in 1669, who was appointed Cornet of the New London Troopers in 1672, and was a Commissary in King Philip’s War. Colonial ancestors include: Capt. Isaac Williams, deputy to the General Court, and his son, Capt. Isaac Williams, of Newton, Mass.; Elder John Strong, of Northampton, Mass.; and Capt. William Fowler, first patentee of Milford, Conn., and one of the magistrates of New Haven Colony in 1639. Among Revolutionary ancestors were Lieut. Joshua Raymond, Jonathan Williams, and Samuel Carpenter.

Wyoming Seminary, Kingston, Pa.; Williston Seminary. Member Class Cup Committee and Delta Psi.

Connected with engineering department of Union Pacific Railroad 1883–1890 (in charge of location and construction work for three years); with Denver and Rio Grande Railroad, as engineer in charge in Colorado, New Mexico, and Utah (headquarters in Denver), 1891–95; engaged in private practice in Cripple Creek district of Colorado 1895–99; chief engineer of Colorado Springs & Cripple Creek Railroad 1899–1903; again in private practice for two years, building dams, reservoirs, and pipe lines, connected with municipal water works in and about Cripple Creek; since 1905 with Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain System (assistant engineer for seven years; engineer of maintenance of way 1912–15; since then assistant chief engineer); during World War chief engineer, under Federal control, having charge of lines in Louisiana and Arkansas; member American Railway Engineers’ Association and Afton Episcopal Church.

Married September 14, 1898, in Prescott, Iowa, Sarah Alliene, daughter of John Cochran and Mary Anne (Murphin) Mercer. No children.

Chauncey Rea Burr, Ph.B. 1884.

Born October 15, 1862, in Portland, Maine.
Died December 24, 1923, in Portland, Maine.

Father, Charles Hartwell Burr (M.D. Hahnemann Medical College 1859); son of Charles Chauncey and Abigail (True) Burr; descendant in eighth generation of Simon Burr, who came to America from Stisted, England, and settled at Hingham, Mass., in 1645. Mother, Alba Sarah (Rea) Burr; daughter of Albus and Dorcas (Moody) Rea; descendant of Caleb Rea, who lived at Salem, Mass., after coming to this country from England.

Prepared at public and private schools in Portland; attended Dartmouth College for a year before entering Sheffield Scientific School in 1881. Select course; historian for that course in Senior year; received preliminary appointment Senior year; member Chi Phi.

Graduated from Harvard Medical School in 1888; studied at the surgical clinic of Heidelberg University and at St. Bartholomew’s Hospital, London, during summer of 1887; interne in the Rotunda Hospital, Dublin, 1888; during winter of 1888–89 studied at the Great Ormond Street Hospital for Children, London; clinical clerk in Soho Square Hospital for Women, London, 1889; began practice of medicine in Morristown, N. J., 1889, but moved to Boston, Mass., in the fall of that year; district physician at Boston Dispensary 1890-92; subsequently assistant physician and physician in department of nervous diseases; assistant physician in out-patient department for diseases of the nervous system, Boston City Hospital, 1893; served for three years as private assistant to Dr. William N. Bullard at the Children’s Hospital, in the department of nervous diseases; practiced medicine in San José, Calif., 1893-98; president of the Santa Clara County Medical Association in 1897; volunteered, and commissioned an Assistant Surgeon in the Navy for temporary service, May 24, 1898; junior medical officer on U. S. S. “Monterey” at battle of Manila August 13, 1898; medical officer of U. S. S. “Brutus” and the “Nero,” and at Puget Sound Naval Station; assistant surgeon on U. S. S. “Monongahela”; commissioned for regular service June 7, 1900; resigned from Navy September 25, 1901; practiced in Portland from 1901 until his death; United States examining surgeon for pensions 1902-1913, physician to the clinic for diseases of the stomach and intestines, Maine Eye and Ear Infirmary, 1903-1917; assistant medical director for Metropolitan Life Insurance Company of New York 1917-1923; author of U. S. Senate Document No. 965, Economic Value of Man; contributed a number of articles on obstetrics and on intestinal and tubercular diseases to the Journal of the American Medical Association and the Boston Medical and Surgical Journal; vice-consul of Spain for state of Maine 1902-1917; Fellow Massachusetts Medical Society, American Congress on Internal Medicine, and American College of Physicians; member American Medical Association, Maine Medical Association, New York Medical Association, Medical Society of the County of New York, Harvard Medical Society of New York, Cumberland County (Maine) Medical Society (vice-president in 1916), Portland Medical Club (president in 1907), Maine Genealogical Society, St. Luke’s Cathedral (Episcopal) in Portland, and the Church of St. Mary the Virgin in New York City; president of Church Club, Diocese of Maine.
Obituary Record

Married July 25, 1888, in New York City, Frances Brewerton, daughter of Major General James Brewerton Ricketts and Frances Anne Livingston (Lawrence) Ricketts. Three daughters: Frances Dorothy Rea (died in 1918); Gladys Violet Livingston (Mrs. Ricker); and Julia Marguerite Ricketts (Mrs. Brewer).

Death due to heart failure following an operation. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Portland. Survived by wife, two daughters, and a sister, Margaret Burr Niles, the widow of Marston Niles.

Benjamin Elizur Wright, Ph.B. 1885.

Born August 3, 1864, in Cromwell, Conn.
Died August 15, 1923, in New York City.

Prepared at Hartford (Conn.) Public High School and Middletown (Conn) High School. Civil engineering course.

Became rodman on Potomac River improvements after graduation; served successively as transitman for Northern Pacific Railroad and Minneapolis & Pacific Railroad, leveler on Chicago, St. Paul & Kansas City Railroad, draftsman on Kansas & Colorado Railroad, locating engineer on L. C. & D. Railroad, resident engineer on Tennessee Midland Railroad, and locating engineer with Georgia Pacific, Savannah, Americus & Montgomery, and Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railroads; circuit traveler for Standard Oil Company for a number of years, attended Yale School of Law 1901–05 (LL.B. 1905); connected with New York World 1905; engaged in secondhand book business for about twelve years.

Unmarried.

Death due to a general breakdown. Buried in City Cemetery, New York City. Left no immediate relatives.

Henry Hayes Wadsworth, Ph.B. 1886.

Born January 13, 1865, in New Haven, Conn.
Died July 7, 1923, in San Francisco, Calif.

Father, Henry Wadsworth, a merchant, bank director, and first president of the village of Glencoe, Minn.; son of Henry S. and Louisa Mix (Hubbard) Wadsworth; descendant in the sixth generation of Capt. Joseph Wadsworth of "Charter Oak" fame, and in the seventh generation of William Wadsworth, who came from England to Salem, Mass., in 1632 and soon afterwards settled at Hartford, Conn. Mother, Fidelia Munn (Gilbert) Wadsworth; daughter of William and Nancy Adams (Kibbe) Gilbert; descendant of Matthew Gilbert, one of the original settlers of New Haven in 1638.

Public schools in Glencoe; General Russell’s Collegiate and Commercial Institute, New Haven. Civil engineering course, third prize for excellence in English composition Freshman year; divided prize in mathematics Junior year; prize in civil engineering Senior year.

For four years after graduation was engaged on location and construction work in Minnesota and North and South Dakota, on lines which later became parts of the Great Northern System (with Aberdeen, Fergus Falls & Pierre Railroad in South Dakota, in city engineer’s office, St. Paul; resident engineer for St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba Railroad in North Dakota; assistant engineer and chief draftsman of the Eastern Railroad of Minnesota); principal assistant city engineer, Superior, Wis., 1890–95, in charge of street, bridge, sewer, and harbor works construction; reported on improvement of harbor adjoining Marquette, Mich., for the Lake Superior & Ishpeming Railway Company, and constructed a temporary bridge for the street railway company across the St. Louis River between Superior and Duluth 1895, acting chief engineer for Lake Superior & Ishpeming Railway, having charge of the revision of its location, the construction of its road from Ishpeming to Marquette, and the design and building of ore and merchandise docks at Marquette, 1895–96; began service with the United States Engineer Department in September, 1896, at the Duluth office; soon afterwards was promoted to the grade of assistant engineer and placed in immediate charge, at Superior, of dredging operations and of other harbor developments at Duluth and Superior; also had charge of extensive additions to the Duluth ship canal training walls and prepared one of the plans for the aerial bridge which was later constructed across the canal; transferred to San Francisco in 1905 and appointed principal assistant engineer for the California Débris Commission and for the second San Francisco district engineer office; supervised work on Yuba River débris barrier and the Daguerre Point cut and settling basin; made extensive hydraulic mine inspections and surveys of the Sacramento River and its tributaries; engaged on the problem of flood control in the lower Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers 1908–1910; was transferred to the Department of the Interior 1910 and for two and a half years was engaged in investigation of sources of water supply for the city of San Francisco; returned to duty with the War Department 1913 and during the next two years was occupied on a survey of the San Joaquin River for about two hundred miles above Stockton; was then engaged with surveys of various phases of the flood-control projects and with construction work until March, 1917, when he was commissioned a Major of Engineers in the U. S. Reserve Corps; spent about two weeks at the first Engineer Officers' Training Camp at The Presidio and was then relieved to resume his civil duties with the Engineer Department; in July was again on active duty for a short period at Salt Lake City (senior officer on a board appointed to examine applicants for Engineer Corps commissions); resigned from the Government service in January, 1920, and from that time until his death was engaged in private practice in San Francisco as a consulting engineer, specializing in works for the utilization of water and for protection against floods; was retained in the famous Antioch suit, which aimed at a revision of practically all irrigation water rights in the central valley of California; as chairman of the Section on Harbor Control of the Commonwealth Club of California (of which he was a member), he gave a great deal of effort to investigations and reports on various matters pertaining to the commercial development of San Francisco Bay and Harbor; also served as chairman of a committee which reported to the Oakland Chamber of Commerce on the water supply for the cities on the eastern side of San Francisco Bay just prior to the formation of the East Side Public Utility District; contributed papers and discussions to the Transactions of the American Society of Civil Engineers; several of his reports on harbor and river works were published as public documents, and his report on flood control was embodied in the report of the California
Débris Commission, which was approved by the War Department and which has been the basis for the development of the project since that time; member American Society of Civil Engineers (vice-president of the San Francisco section at the time of his death), Pacific Association of Consulting Engineers, Society of American Military Engineers, Engineers' Club of San Francisco, and the American Legion; a regular attendant at the First Congregational Church of Oakland, where he had lived since he went to California.

Married October 8, 1889, in Osnabrock, N. Dak., Jennie Martha, daughter of James T. and Sophia Jecintha (Daugherty) Anderson. Two sons, Ralph Gilbert (B.S. University of California 1914) and Harold Anderson (B.S. University of California 1916). Mrs. Wadsworth died January 24, 1919.

Death due to cancer. Body cremated and ashes interred at the California Crematorium, Oakland. Survived by sons and two brothers, Jesse A. Wadsworth, of Glencoe, and Merrick F. Wadsworth, of Irrigon, Ore.

Frank Otto Walther, Ph.B. 1887.

Born July 26, 1868, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died September 5, 1923, in New York City.

Father, Waldemar A. Walther, a manufacturer; born in Hanover, Germany; son of Carl Walther (Ph D. University of Jena, D D. University of Gottingen) and Wilhelmina (Schuster) Walther. Mother, Emma Henrietta (Marquering) Walther; daughter of Wilhelm and Georgine (Peinemann) Marquering, of Hanover; her maternal ancestors were descended from Bartholdus von Peinemann.

Brooklyn Polytechnic and Collegiate Institute. Chemistry course in Sheffield Scientific School; member Berzelius.

Took a course in chemistry at the Fresenius Laboratory, Wiesbaden, Germany, in 1887 and 1888; with the Illinois Steel Company and the Vanderbilt Iron & Steel Company of Birmingham, Ala., 1888-89; since 1889 with Walther & Company, manufacturers of paper, in New York City (member of firm since 1898).

Married February 14, 1907, in Pittsburgh, Pa., Ida Brokaw, daughter of William Charles and Jane Clara (Bro-

Death due to blood poisoning. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by wife; three children; a brother, Charles W. Walther, of New York City; and three sisters.

John Goodell Prouty, Ph.B. 1888.

Born February 10, 1865, in Spencer, Mass.
Died September 26, 1923, in Spencer, Mass.

Father, George Porter Prouty, a shoe manufacturer; son of Isaac and Mary Ann (Goodell) Prouty; descendant of Richard Prouty, who settled at Scituate, Mass., about 1667. Mother, Mary (Bemis) Prouty; daughter of John and Lucretia (Brown) Bemis; descendant of Joseph Bemis, who came to Watertown, Mass., from England in 1640. Second cousin of Henry W. Prouty, '84, and Edmund C. Prouty, ex-'08 S.

Allen School, West Newton, Mass.; Phillips-Andover; Phillips-Exeter; Williston Seminary. Select course; secretary of class; member Supper Committee Freshman year and Sigma Delta Chi.

Traveled abroad for almost three years after graduation; clerk with the I. Prouty Shoe Company of Spencer (founded by his grandfather) from 1890 until about 1913, when he retired from active business; director of company since 1921; also director Spencer National Bank; prominent in Masonic circles in Spencer, Worcester, and Boston; had hunted quite extensively in northern Maine, New Brunswick, and Newfoundland, and had traveled abroad.

Married September 18, 1894, in Spencer, Ida Maude, daughter of Eben and Mary A. (Hobbs) Howe. Four children: Alfred Howe, who completed a special course at the Massachusetts Agricultural College in 1919; George Richard; Arthur Rudolph, a member of the Class of 1925 at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology; and Grace.

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Pine Grove Cemetery, Spencer. Survived by wife, children, and a sister, Mrs. Arthur M. Johnson, of Mount Vernon, N. Y.
Henry Pierce Hall, Ph.B. 1889.
Born February 20, 1866, in San Francisco, Calif
Died November 19, 1923, in Utica, N.Y.

Father, Edward Fitch Hall, Jr., a broker; son of Edward Fitch and Mary Elizabeth (Pierce) Hall; descendant of Mary Hall, who came to America from England about 1640 and settled at Cambridge, Mass. Mother, Charlotte Elizabeth (Brown) Hall; daughter of John Murray and Sophie (Delamere) Brown.

Prepared at Harrow, England. Dynamics course; member Sheffield Freshman Crew; Senior appointment; member Sigma Delta Chi.

With Westinghouse, Church, Kerr & Company 1895-98; served with the New York Naval Reserve on the U.S.S. "Yankee" during the Spanish-American War; in 1899 became a partner in firm of Cooper, Cramp & Beadleston (afterwards Beadleston & Hall), Stock Exchange brokers of New York City, with the General Electric Company of Schenectady, N.Y. (foreign department), 1909-1912; with Canadian General Electric Company in Toronto 1912-16; suffered a nervous breakdown in 1916; since then had been an invalid, although he retained his connection with the General Electric Company until 1921.

Married December 12, 1895, in Pittsburgh, Pa., Agnes, daughter of William and Jane (Dunn) Clark, and sister of Tecumseh Sherman Clark, ex-'89 S., and Thomas B. Clark, '96 Three children: Carolyn, the wife of Havens Grant, '11; Priscilla Cordis; and Edward Fitch (B.A. Union 1923).

Death due to arterio-sclerosis. Interment in Mount Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge. Survived by wife and three children.

Julian Vallette Wright, Ph.B. 1889.
Born August 13, 1866, in Nashville, Tenn.
Died June 24, 1923, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, Richard Beck Wright, a graduate of Cambridge University; came to Cincinnati from Ireland; was engaged in the cotton and railroad business; son of Thomas Joseph and Charlotte (Beck) Wright. Mother, Julia Carley (Vallette)
Sheffield Scientific School

Wright; daughter of Henry and Julia (Carley) Vallette; descendant of Peter (Pierre) Vallette, who came from France to New York about 1699. Yale relatives include an uncle, Henry M. Day (B.A. Western Reserve 1859, B.A. ad eundem Yale 1859), and two cousins Harry V. Day, '95 S., and Sherman Day, '96.

Chickering Institute, Cincinnati; Phillips-Andover. Entered Sheffield Scientific School as a Junior; dynamics course; member Sigma Delta Chi.

For a time after graduation was connected with Westinghouse, Church, Kerr & Company; afterwards was general manager for the Turkey Knob Coal Company in West Virginia; was then engaged in private practice as a consulting engineer for a while; head of labor department, factory supervisor, and director National Cash Register Company of Dayton, Ohio, and later assistant commissioner of National Metal Trades Association, Cincinnati; in 1909 moved to Hartford, Conn., where he was a dealer in investment securities; later became associated with the Skayef Ball Bearing Company, and at the time of his death was with the factory cost department; member Trinity Episcopal Church, Hartford.

Married October 12, 1895, in Milwaukee, Wis., Katherine Mason, daughter of George Gates and Mary (McClure) Bellows. Three children: Vallette, Thane Bellows, and Katherine.

Death due to intestinal trouble. Buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati. Survived by wife and children.

Alfred Walling Ogden, Ph.B. 1890.

Born August 22, 1869, in Keyport, N. J.
Died January 21, 1924, in East Orange, N. J.

Father, Rufus Ogden; appointed postmaster at Keyport by President Lincoln and held the position for twenty-five years; son of Henry Lot and Rebecca (Hurley) Ogden; descendant of John Ogden, who came from England to Rye, N. Y. Mother, Susan (Burdge) Ogden; daughter of Benjamin and Deborah (Matthews) Burdge; ancestors came from Scotland and settled in New Jersey. Yale relatives: Harold
Obituary Record

N. Hooghkirk, ex-'08 S., and B. Ogden Hooghkirk, '14 S. (nephews).

Keyport School; Pennington (N. J.) Seminary. Chemistry course; received a Senior appointment.

Connected with the Asbury Park Board of Health as consulting chemist during the summers of 1889 and 1890; food chemist with the Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station 1890-1904; started the Pure Food Laboratory of the United States Department of Agriculture in New York City 1904, served as food inspection chemist at the laboratory until 1910 and as acting chief from 1910 to 1917; was on furlough from 1917 to June 30, 1921, when he was obliged to resign on account of ill health; since then had not been engaged in any occupation; member Methodist Episcopal Church, contributed several papers to the Journal of the American Chemical Society and the American Food Journal.

Married August 26, 1893, in Ridgefield, Conn., Emma Louisa, daughter of James Orne and Angelina (Driggs) Barnes. Four children: Marion Webb; Margaret Blake; Dorothy Barnes (Mrs. H. Seabrook Schanck); and Alfred Walling, Jr. (died in infancy).

Death due to paralysis agitans. Buried in Keyport. Survived by wife and three daughters

Harris Walton Baker, Ph.B. 1891.

Born July 6, 1869, in St. Louis, Mo.
Died October 9, 1923, in Springfield, Mass.

Father, Orlando Merriam Baker, formerly president of the G & C Merriam Company, publishers, of Springfield; studied at Alfred Academy (now Alfred University) and at Genesee Wesleyan Seminary (now a part of Syracuse University); son of Jeremiah and Hila (Stephens) Baker; ancestors came from England and settled in Steuben County, N. Y. Mother, Abbie Maria (Walton) Baker; daughter of William B. and Abbie (Lee) Walton.

Prepared at high school and at Cort's Private School in Springfield Mechanical engineering course; member Berzelius.
Entered the employ of the Elektron Manufacturing Company of Springfield as bookkeeper in 1891; secretary of the company and manager of its New York office from 1893 to 1905, when company was absorbed by the Otis Elevator Company; since then connected with sales department of the G. & C. Merriam Company (became head salesman in 1906 and head of department a few years later; traveled extensively as sales manager; made secretary of company 1914, a member of executive committee 1920, and vice-president 1922); president Yale Alumni Association of Western Massachusetts 1915-17; captain of golf team, Springfield Country Club, for ten years; member Hope Congregational Church, Springfield.

Robert Lewis Coleman, Ph.B. 1891.

Born July 3, 1870, in Yonkers, N. Y.
Died April 6, 1924, near Marmuros, Albania.

Father, William Tell Coleman (B.A. St. Louis University 1844); founder of the firm of William T. Coleman & Company, shipping and commission merchants, of San Francisco and New York; president and directing head of the Vigilance Committees of San Francisco in 1852 and 1856, and of the Committee of Safety in 1876; son of Napoleon Bonaparte Coleman, a prominent lawyer, and Cynthia (Chinn) Coleman, whose ancestors came to Virginia from England about 1700, later moving to Kentucky. Mother, Caroline (Page) Coleman; daughter of Daniel Dearborn and Deborah (Young) Page; a grandniece of General Dearborn of the Revolutionary Army; descendant of Peregrine White of the "Mayflower."
Trinity School, San Francisco. Select course; Senior appointment; member Book and Snake.

Attended the Yale School of Law for a year and the Hastings Law College of the University of California for two years, receiving the degree of LL.B. at the latter institution in 1894; was admitted to the bar but had never entered upon active practice; confined his business activities to the care of his personal properties; during the World War was engaged in convalescent hospital service as a Captain in the American Red Cross at Paris, and, from March to December, 1918, at Brest; member Trinity Episcopal Church, San Francisco.

Married April 25, 1895, in San Francisco, Alice Ritchie, daughter of Charles Henry and Kate (Ritchie) Simpkins. Three children: Robert Lewis, Jr., ex-'17 S.; Caroline (Mrs Lowry); and Ritchie Telfair (died in infancy). Mrs. Coleman died October 13, 1915.

Killed by bandits, while motoring through Albania on the Tirana-Scutari highway; was traveling through the Balkans with a friend (who was also killed by the bandits), on the way to Paris and London after a trip along the Mediterranean.

Interment in the Cypress Lawn Cemetery, San Francisco. Survived by son and daughter

David Alexander Hays, Ph.B. 1891.

Born February 27, 1869, in Johnstown, N. Y.
Died December 12, 1923, in Johnstown, N. Y.

Father, David Hays, a commission merchant and banker; son of Alexander and Elizabeth (Walker) Hays; great-grandson of Alexander Hays, who came to America from Perthshire, Scotland, during the Revolutionary War, in which he participated, and later settled at Johnstown. Mother, Mary (Yost) Hays; daughter of John B. and Mary Ann (Snyder) Yost; descendant of Peter Yost, who came to this country from Holland before the Revolutionary War, fought in that war, and afterwards lived at Johnstown.

Dr. Holbrook’s School, Ossining, N. Y. Select course; member Chi Phi.
Charles Ferris Sturtevant, Ph.B. 1891.

Born February 3, 1870, in Cleveland, Ohio.
Died June 4, 1924, in Palmarito, Mocorito, Sinaloa, Mexico.

Father, Carlos Merrill Sturtevant, partner in the Sturtevant Lumber Company; son of Isaac and Harriet (Bell) Sturtevant; descendant of Samuel Sturtevant, who came to Plymouth, Mass., from England in 1642, of the Thompson family, who were also early settlers in Plymouth, and of Francis Bell, who preached at Stamford, Conn., for forty-nine years. Mother, Harriet Abbey (Dickinson) Sturtevant; daughter of Charles Shumway and Elinor (Carr) Dickinson; descendant of Charles and Catherine (Jackson) Dickinson, who came from England to Massachusetts and afterwards settled in Vermont.

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. Mechanical engineering course; treasurer Freshman Football Club; member Freshman Baseball Team; substitute on Freshman Football Team; member Delta Psi.
Employed by the Union Pacific Company (under his uncle, Mr. George Dickinson) at Tacoma, Wash., 1891–94; since then had been engaged in mining; at Coeur d'Alene in 1895; at Rossland, British Columbia, during a part of the next year; with the Trail smelter at Trail, British Columbia, in the latter part of 1896; became metallurgical clerk at the Northport (Wash) smelter in 1898; held a similar position in F A. Heinze's smelter at Butte, Mont., for a short time in 1900; took a special course in metallurgy and surveying at the Michigan College of Mines 1900–01; returned to Butte and was assistant superintendent of the F. A. Heinze smelter 1901–03; superintendent of the Yampa smelter in Bingham, Utah, 1903–04; then resigned his position on account of ill health, went to Cooke, Mont., to oversee the development of properties in which he was interested and in July, 1905, became part owner of the Young Bonanza Mining Company in that place, afterwards went to Australia for the Great Cobar Company; was located in Mexico as superintendent of various mining companies 1908–1915; in September, 1915, the Rio Tinto mines at Terrazas, Chihuahua, of which he was in charge, ceased operations and he left the border; was with the General Exploration Company at Lark, Utah, during the winter of 1915–16, and then was engaged in examining and reporting on mines and prospects for various interests, among which were the Jerome-Pacific Manufacturing Company of Jerome, Ariz., and the Tri-Bullion Company of Kelly, N Mex.; in November, 1916, became connected with the Bingham Central Railroad Company at Salt Lake City, Utah, during 1919–1920 was assistant manager of the Mineral Hill Copper Company at Tucson, Ariz.; went to British Columbia to superintend property for the Barnsdall Corporation of New York City, and later to Bolivia, South America, as engineer for the same company; superintendent of Cia. Minera de Palmarito at Mocorito from February 1, 1923, until his death; member Plymouth Episcopal Church, Cleveland, Ohio.

Married January 16, 1917, in Kingman, Ariz., Sophie, daughter of Adolf Brodbeck (Ph.D. University of Tübingen) and Sophie (Herz) Brodbeck.
Was shot to death by an assassin, who escaped. Buried in Lake View Cemetery, Cleveland. Survived by wife and a sister, Mrs. Samuel Theobald, Jr., of Arrochar, Staten Island, N. Y.

Duncan Steuart Ellsworth, Ph.B. 1892.

Born February 19, 1870, in Penn Yan, N. Y.
Died April 15, 1924, in New York City.

Father, Samuel Steuart Ellsworth (B.A. Hamilton 1860); engaged in the coal business; trustee of Hamilton 1870-1892; member of Governor Tilden’s staff in 1875; son of Samuel Ellsworth. Mother, Hebe Parker (Magee) Ellsworth; daughter of John and Arabella (Steuart) Magee; descendant of Hugh Magee, who came from County Antrim, Ireland, in 1730 and settled at Easton, Pa. Brother, John M. Ellsworth, ex-'95 S.

Phillips-Andover. Select course; private in the Sheffield Military Company, member Book and Snake.

Studied at New York Law School 1895-96; was afterwards secretary of the Fall Brook Railway and the Fall Brook Coal Company of Corning, N. Y.; traveled extensively; made his home at Lofts Hall, Audley End, Essex, England, from 1911 to 1917, since April, 1919, had been living in New York City and Southampton, Long Island; was with the Norton-Harjes Ambulance Corps 1914-17 (founder of one of the sections); member executive committee of the American Army and Navy Y. M. C. A. in France, representing the Ambulance Service of the American Red Cross in Paris and London (rank of Captain), 1917-19.

Married March 5, 1896, in New York City, Jane Armstrong, daughter of Archibald Alexander and Mary (Armstrong) Hutchinson. Two children: Duncan Steuart, Jr. (B.A. Harvard 1922), and Florence Magee (Mrs. John McFadden).

Death due to angina pectoris. Interment in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, son, and daughter.
James Willet Hall, Ph.B. 1895.

Born January 24, 1874, in New York City.
Died April 8, 1924, at Saranac Lake, N. Y.

Father, Thomas Henry Hall, a tobacco merchant. Mother, Marie Louise (Chanfrau) Hall. Cousin, Frederick Beltz, Jr., ’01.

Collegiate and Harvard schools, New York City. Select course, member Freshman Football Team; substitute on University Football Team in 1894, member track athletic teams in 1893 and 1894, Dance Committee Senior year, and Yale Yacht Club; secretary of his class Senior year (president for a number of years previous to his death); member Class Fund Committee and Quarter-Century Reunion Committee.

After graduation traveled in Europe with Richard T. Crane, Jr., ’95 S., Francis B Harris, ’95, and Thomas A. Keck, ex-’95, returning to this country in June, 1896; was in the office of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York February–August, 1897, giving up his position on account of illness; was subsequently in the clerical department of Blagden & Stillman, underwriters, in New York, for a time; entered the stock and bond business in 1900; in May, 1901, formed a partnership under the firm name of Hall & Kalbfleisch, to carry on a banking and brokerage business in New York City; firm was dissolved in April, 1904, from January, 1905, to September, 1906, was in partnership with Allan E. Philbrick, ’96 S., was subsequently a partner in the Stock Exchange firm of Hendrickson, Hall & Company, a member of the firm of Willcox, Peck & Hughes (general insurance brokers), with the Willcox Corporation, and with Willcox & Crosby, Inc.; enlisted as a Sergeant with Depot Troop of Squadron A, New York National Guard, 1898; was later promoted to Captain and placed in command of Troop B.

Married April 30, 1901, in New York City, Grace, daughter of Philip and Catherine (Stuart) Herrman Four children: Catherine Herrman, the wife of Thomas C. P. Martin (LL.B. Harvard 1912); James Willet, Jr., who was a member of the Class of 1926 S. for a time; John Fields Gibson; and Janet.
Mrs. Hall died November 22, 1915.
Survived by his children and a brother, Thomas H. Hall, ex-'98 S.

Thomas Kernan, Ph.B. 1895.
Born November 26, 1859, in Windsor, Conn.
Died February 12, 1924, in Windsor, Conn.

Father, John Kernan, a farmer and factory employee; born in Rosprigh, Ireland. Mother, Catherine (McVey) Kernan; born in Portadown, Ireland.

Early education received at the Poquonock (Conn.) Grammar School. Employed in a factory at Windsor before entering Sheffield Scientific School as a special student in 1893; electrical engineering course; honors in Senior year; received a Senior appointment.

During the first five years after graduation was not engaged in any permanent occupation; was proprietor of a store in Poquonock from 1900 until his death, at the same time working for the Health Underwear Company of that place; member St. Joseph's (Roman Catholic) Church, Poquonock.

Unmarried.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in St. Joseph's Cemetery, Poquonock. Survived by a brother, Frank Kernan, of Derby, Conn.; a sister, Mrs. Daniel W. Keily, of Windsor; and a nephew, Edward J. Kernan, of Hartford.

James Alexander McCrea, Ph.B. 1895.
Died October 17, 1923, in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Father, James McCrea, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad; son of James Alexander McCrea (M.D. University of Pennsylvania 1833), who studied at Yale from 1828 to 1830, and Ann Bispham (Foster) McCrea; descendant of James McCrea, who came to Philadelphia from Ireland in 1188

Obituary Record

1776. Mother, Ada (Montgomery) McCrea; daughter of William and Eliza (Moorhead) Montgomery; descendant of Archibald Montgomery, who came to America from the north of Ireland at the close of the Revolutionary War and settled on the west bank of the Susquehanna River in Perry County, Pa.

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. Civil engineering course; vice-president Freshman Baseball Team; member University Football Team (three years); and Delta Psi.

Entered upon railroad work as rodman in employ of Pennsylvania Lines West of Pittsburgh 1895; levelman on surveys in southern part of Indiana, and transitman in Westville, Ohio, and Philadelphia; assistant engineer eastern division of Pennsylvania, Fort Worth & Chicago Railroad 1898–99, engineer maintenance of way, same division, 1899–1901, superintendent Cincinnati Division of Pennsylvania Lines, and of Cincinnati, Lebanon & Northern Railroad, 1901–06; general superintendent and general manager Long Island Railroad 1906–1917; had also been general superintendent Ocean Electric Railway, Huntington Electric Railway, Nassau County Railway, Northport Traction Company, and Glen Cove Electric Company (all on Long Island), and vice-president Montauk Water Company; vice-president Bankers' Trust Company of New York City 1919–1920; vice-president in charge of central region of Pennsylvania Railroad from 1920 until his death; during World War general manager, and later deputy director-general, Railroad Transportation Corps, with rank of Colonel; awarded Distinguished Service Medal and made an officer of the French Legion of Honor.

Married December 15, 1897, in Pittsburgh, Mabel, daughter of Charles John and Louisa (Semple) Clarke. Three children; James Alexander, Jr, ex-'23 S.; Charles Clarke, 1925; and Agnes Clarke.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in West Laurel Hill Cemetery, Philadelphia. Survived by wife, children, mother, and a brother, Archibald M. McCrea, ex-'97 S.
John Mills Warren, Ph.B. 1896.

Born July 11, 1875, in Boston, Mass.
Died July 16, 1923, in Bridgeport, Conn.

Father, Tracy Bronson Warren, an insurance agent; son of David Hard and Louisa (Bronson) Warren; descendant of Richard Bronson, who settled at Hartford in 1636, and of Richard Warren, who came to America with the "Mayflower" company and afterwards lived at Plymouth, Mass. Mother, Clara Arabella (Mills) Warren; daughter of John Franklin and Sarah Rumsey (Dudley) Mills; descendant of Thomas Dudley, governor of Massachusetts and of Capt. John Mills, who came to America from Scotland before 1770 and settled at Amherst, N. H. Eighty-one ancestors arrived in America before 1640, including seven of the "Mayflower" company, among whom were Governor William Bradford, John Alden, and Degory Priest; sixteen ancestors served in the Revolutionary War. Cousin of Charles H. Warren, '96 S. Bridgeport High School. Mechanical engineering course; member Sigma Xi.

Engaged in the hotel business 1896–1904 (assistant manager of Atlantic Hotel, Bridgeport, until 1902, then room clerk with Hotel Navarre, New York City); traveled for a year for Warner Brothers Company, corset manufacturers of Bridgeport; in charge of circulation department of Herald-Courier in Bristol (Virginia and Tennessee) 1905–08; room clerk with Park Avenue Hotel, New York City, 1908–09; assistant timekeeper for Locomobile Company of America at Bridgeport 1909–1912; in charge of the Castle Lamp Company of Battle Creek, Mich., until removal of company to Toledo, Ohio, in 1913; during winter of 1915–16 connected with Remington Arms Company in Bridgeport, but was obliged to give up position there on account of an injury to his eye; afterwards employed in a shipyard at Newark, N. J.; at time of death was not engaged in any business; member St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church, Bridgeport.

Married (1) June 2, 1900, in Bridgeport, Sara Greenman Osgood, from whom he was divorced in May, 1906. Married (2) August 18, 1908, in Bristol, Harriet Elizabeth, daughter of Andrew Jackson and Katherine (Tully) Bird. One daughter, Charlotte
Obituary Record

Death, due to tuberculosis, occurred after an illness of four months. Buried in Mountain Grove Cemetery, Bridgeport. Survived by daughter; a brother, Harvey T. Warren, '10; and a sister, Miss Louise Bronson Warren. Another brother, Bronson M. Warren, '04, died in 1915.

Allan Hart Whiting, Ph.B. 1896.

Born July 26, 1874, at Spuyten Duyvil, N. Y.
Died September 9, 1923, in New York City.

Wilson and Kellogg's School, New York City; member of Class of 1896 at Lehigh University for two years. Entered the Sheffield Scientific School as a Junior in 1894; electrical engineering course

After graduation was connected with the Edison Storage Battery Company of Orange, N. J., for a time; was subsequently agent for the Mercer Automobile Company of Trenton, N. J.; formed the Whiting Motor Company of New York City in 1911 and was its president at the time of his death, agent for the Fox Air Cool Car Company of Philadelphia since January, 1923, inventor of automobile devices; was recognized as an expert on automobile mechanics; member American Institute of Electrical Engineers, Society of Automobile Engineers, and Automobile Club of America.

Died by his own hand; had become despondent over a succession of business reverses. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York City. Survived by a sister, Mrs. Andrew L. Riker, of Fairfield, Conn., and a brother His wife, Josephine Whiting, died in October, 1923. There were no children.
James McLean Walton, Ph.B. 1899.

Born May 18, 1879, in Ridgewood, N. J.
Died August 31, 1923, in New York City.

Father, Edward Attwood Walton, an insurance underwriter; son of John T. Walton, who came to this country from England, and Margaret (Whitney) Walton. Mother, Caroline Taylor (Benton) Walton; daughter of Thomas G. and Eliza (Flynn) Benton; descendant of Owen Flynn Benton, who came to America from Cork, Ireland, in 1760 and settled at Suffolk, Va.

Callison School, New York City. Select course; coxswain of Freshman and University crews; member Apollo Banjo Club and Delta Psi; Cup Man and Class Day historian.

Associated with Knickerbocker Trust Company 1899–1908 (junior clerk for about four years, then assistant secretary); partner in firm of Hollister, Lyon & Walton [George C. Hollister, '96, also a member of this firm], stock brokers, 1908–1921, retiring from active business because of ill health; class agent for Alumni Fund for three years; chairman of Decennial, Quindecennial, and Vicennial Reunion committees; secretary of Yale Club of New York City 1907–1921 (chairman of committee on admissions to the club for a number of years, member of council 1905–1921); member Protestant Episcopal Church.

Unmarried.

Andrew Burton Mygatt, Ph.B. 1901.

Born October 9, 1880, in New Milford, Conn.
Died July 2, 1923, in West Haven, Conn.

Father, Henry Seymour Mygatt, formerly president of the First National Bank of New Milford; son of Andrew Burr Mygatt, a member of the Connecticut Senate in 1860 and 1861 (during his second term a member of the Yale Corporation), and Caroline (Canfield) Mygatt; great-great-grandson of Col. Eh Mygatt, Col. Josiah Starr, Col. Samuel Canfield, and Major Daniel Starr, all officers in the Revolutionary War, descendant of Governor Bradford of Massachusetts Colony, Governor Webster of Connecticut, William Whiting, treasurer of the Connecticut Colony, and Joseph Mygatt, who came to America from England in 1633 and settled at Newton, Mass., moving to Hartford, with the first settlers, in 1636 Mother, Nancy Eells (Faxon) Mygatt; daughter of Elisha Faxon, Jr., who served in the defense of Stonington, Conn., in the War of 1812, and Maria L. (Smith) Faxon; great-granddaughter of the Rev. Nathaniel Eells, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Stonington and chaplain of the 8th Connecticut Regiment in the Revolutionary War; descendant of the Rev. James Noyes, one of the founders of Yale, and of Lieut. Joseph Smith and Capt. Amos Hallam, both Revolutionary officers; her ancestors, the Faxons, came from England to Braintree, Mass. Yale relatives include an uncle, William C. Faxon, '61.
Obituary Record

Prepared at the public school and the Rectory School in New Milford, and at the Hopkins Grammar School, New Haven Select course, received honors for excellence in all studies Junior year, and two-year honors Senior year; Class Book historian; member Sheffield Debating Society Senior year and Sigma Xi.

Clerk in a bond office in New York City 1901-03; went to California and became a clerk in the office of the auditor of disbursements of the Southern Pacific Railroad at San Francisco, remaining there until 1912; connected with the Bridgeport Wood Finishing Company, New Milford, 1913-17; enlisted in the Army as a Private in the Infantry; went overseas with Company F, 2d Battalion, 102d Regiment, 51st Brigade, 26th Division; orderly in Quartermaster's office of 26th Division from December, 1917, to May 1, 1918, when he was made Sergeant in the Quartermaster Corps; afterwards chief clerk in Division Quartermaster's office (rank of Sergeant, First Class); served in defense of Chemin des Dames, Toul Sector, in Château-Thierry offensive, in St.-Mihiel drive, and Meuse-Argonne offensive; returned to the United States April 4, 1919; discharged at Camp Devens, Mass., April 29; studied in Yale Divinity School 1919-1920 (president of Junior Class), but obliged to give up course on account of ill health; engaged in the dairy business as office manager of Wood Brook Farms, Metuchen, N. J., in 1920; resumed studies for the ministry at Yale Divinity School in 1922; member First Congregational Church, New Milford (descendant of the Rev. Daniel Boardman, the first pastor, and of the Rev. Nathaniel Taylor, the second pastor, of that church). Unmarried.
Sheffield Scientific School

Death, due to tuberculosis, caused by gas poisoning in France, occurred at the United States Veterans Hospital, West Haven, after an illness of several months. Funeral a military one, his body being escorted by the Ezra Woods Post of the American Legion from the Congregational Church in New Milford to Center Cemetery, where interment took place. Survived by parents and two brothers, Frederic E. Mygatt, '91 L., and Roland F. Mygatt, ex-'04 S.

Henry Edward Burgess, Ph.B. 1904.

Born September 28, 1879, in New Haven, Conn.
Died September 24, 1923, in New Haven, Conn.

Hillhouse High School, New Haven. Spent one year with College Class of 1902; entered Sheffield Scientific School in 1901; mechanical engineering course; honors Junior year; two-year honors Senior year; member Sigma Xi.

Engaged in experimental work for the Winchester Repeating Arms Company in New Haven 1904-06; assistant superintendent of construction for the Snare & Triest Company, contracting engineers of New York City, 1906-09, with the exception of eight months (December, 1906, to August, 1907), when he held a similar position with Dodge & Day, engineers of Philadelphia; salesman for W. T. Fields &
Company, bond dealers of New Haven, 1909-1911; in independent bond business 1911-18; since then district manager in New Haven for Monroe Calculating Machine Company; Private in Company F, 2d Infantry (New Haven Grays), Connecticut National Guard, 1911-14; during World War member bond dealers' committee for first and second Liberty Loan campaigns, chairman of bond dealers and salesmen's committee for third Liberty Loan, and member executive committee of New Haven Liberty Loan Committee for last three loans; acted temporarily as Provost Marshal's representative on local draft board; member New Haven Chamber of Commerce and of St. James' Protestant Episcopal Church.

Married June 26, 1909, in Whitneyville, Conn., Emma Parks, daughter of James Avery and S. Emma (Parks) Davis. Two children, Mary Merwin and James Davis.

Death followed an eight months' illness due to stomach trouble. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife; children; a sister, Mrs. W. E. Staples, of New York City; and a brother, Alpheus Burgess, of Chicago, Ill.

Edwin Augustus Hall, Ph.B. 1904.

Born October 1, 1881, in Elmira, N. Y.
Died January 20, 1924, in Scarsdale, N. Y.

Father, Francis Granger Hall, a banker; son of Hiland Bishop and Betsey Pomeroy (Hamlin) Hall; descendant of John Hall, who came to Hartford, Conn., from England. Mother, Maria Almira (Angell) Hall; daughter of Jesse and Elizabeth (Kuhn) Angell; descendant of Thomas Angell, who came to America from England with Roger Williams in 1631 and afterwards lived at Providence, R. I. Yale relatives include Owen A. Garnsey, '04 S. (brother-in-law).

Hotchkiss School. Entered Sheffield Scientific School with Class of 1903, but left after an attack of typhoid fever; later became a member of 1904 S.; select course; member University Gun Team (Junior year) and Delta Psi.

For six months after graduation was a bookkeeper with the Merchants & Farmers National Bank of Dansville,
N. Y.; from March, 1905, to July, 1906, was in the employ of the American Telephone & Telegraph Company in Cleveland, Ohio; in 1907 became connected with the Power Specialty Company of New York, and, with the exception of five months in 1910, when he was in charge of the Luxemoor Leather Company of Newark, N. J., remained with that company until 1922 (at first located at the company's works in Dansville, where he had charge of the cost and traffic departments; later was assistant to the manager; during the World War was superintendent of the Dansville factory of the company, the output of which was exclusively devoted to the supply of steam superheaters for various governmental departments; since 1919 New England sales manager, with his office in Boston); from 1922 until his death assistant secretary and treasurer and assistant to the president of the Standard Stoker Company, Inc., of New York City; director of Angell's, Inc., and of Cardiff Green Marble Company; vice-president Union Hose Company; assistant secretary and treasurer Southern Menhaden Corporation; secretary and treasurer Dansville Golf Club; member First Presbyterian Church, Dansville.

Married April 29, 1915, in Dansville, Jane Louise, daughter of Charles Wesley and Mary (Durr) Woolever. One son, Edwin Augustus, Jr.

Death due to pneumonia. Interment in Greenmount Cemetery, Dansville. Survived by wife, son, and two brothers, Francis G. Hall, Jr., ex-’99 S., and John R. Hall, ’02.

Henry Magraw Rathvon, Ph.B. 1905.

Born October 16, 1882, in Sterling, Kans.
Died March 18, 1924, in Winfield, Kans.

Father, Samuel Forney Rathvon, a pioneer in the Colorado oil industry; served in the Union Army during the Civil War; son of Horace and Louisa (Forney) Rathvon; ancestors came to America from the Palatinate during the Revolution and settled in Pennsylvania. Mother, Emily Hopkins (Magraw) Rathvon; daughter of Henry S. and Emily (Hopkins) Magraw; descendant of John Magraw, who came to this country from Ireland in the seventeenth century and settled in Pennsylvania; of George Ross, a signer of the Declaration of Independence and the uncle of Betsy Ross; and of John Cochran, a Surgeon General in Washington's Army.

East Denver (Colo.) High School. Course in metallurgy; Class Book historian; member Chi Phi.

Worked for two years after graduation for the Argo Smelter in Denver, a property of the Boston & Colorado Smelting Company (served as assistant assayer, assistant chemist, shipping clerk, and ore buyer); since 1907 had been in the oil industry, with the exception of six months in 1911, when he was chemist and assayer for the Bonanza Milling Company in Colorado; chemist for Inland Oil & Refining Company, Boulder, 1908–1911; afterwards with the Boulder Crude Company and the Northern Colorado Oil Company; moved to Wyoming in 1912; in the employ of the Midwest Refining Company 1912–17 (worked for a year in the refinery at Casper, purchasing agent there for the Franco Petroleum Company, which had been taken over by the Midwest Company, 1913–14; field superintendent in the Salt Creek district 1914–15; in charge of operations at Thermopolis and Basin 1915–16; assistant general superintendent at Casper 1916–17), vice-president and manager Sapulpa (Okla.) Refining Company 1917–1920; resigned his position and went to La Jolla, Calif., on account of his wife's health; since then had been an independent oil operator, with headquarters in Winfield, Kans.; at the time of his death was engaged in overseeing his producing properties there; member of the Episcopal Church.

Married October 6, 1917, in Evanston, Ill., Gladys, daughter of Harrison Jones and Rebecca (Watson) Glaspell. Two children, Peter and Rebecca.

Death due to cancer. His body was cremated and the ashes were interred in Fairmont Cemetery, Denver. Survived by wife; children, mother; two brothers, Horace H. Rathvon, of Omaha, Nebr., and Nathaniel P. Rathvon, of New York City, and three sisters, Mrs. Howard R. K. Tompkins, Mrs. Ronald F. Bulkley (the wife of Ronald F. Bulkley, ex-'08 S), and Miss Mary L. Rathvon, all of Denver.
Lansing Lewis, Ph.B. 1906.

Born July 12, 1883, in Buffalo, N. Y.
Died November 6, 1923, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, George Weeks Lewis, member of firm of Lewis & Maycock, Inc., undertakers in New Haven; son of Levi and Margaret (White) Lewis; ancestors came to New York State from England. Mother, Lillian Frances (Russell) Lewis; daughter of William Wirt and Lois (Mathews) Russell; ancestors came from Wales to New York.

Hillhouse High School, New Haven, and Hotchkiss School. Entered Sheffield Scientific School with Class of 1905, leaving in Senior year on account of ill health; returned in fall of 1905, graduating with Class of 1906 S.; mechanical engineering course.

After graduation spent several months in travel abroad and in this country; with the Union Pacific Railroad Company, under the superintendent of motive power, 1906-1910 (spent four months in the car shops of Barney & Smith at Dayton, Ohio, looking after the construction of passenger train equipment; then was mechanical inspector at Pittsburgh, Pa., for a time; was afterwards located successively at Buffalo, Detroit, Chicago, Columbus, and St. Louis, and at the Baldwin Locomotive Works in Philadelphia), engaged in the manufacture of trunks and leather goods in New Haven 1910; with Lewis & Maycock, Inc., from 1910 until his death (assistant secretary and treasurer 1910-18, since then president and treasurer); member Church of the Redeemer (Congregational), New Haven, and chairman of its finance committee; member Vicennial Reunion Committee, Class of 1906 S.

Married October 9, 1912, in New Haven, Marjorie Fuller, daughter of William Holcomb and Annie (Page) Monson. No children.

Death due to asphyxiation by carbon monoxide gas in his garage. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife and a sister, the wife of Frederick C. Russell, '05 L.
Edward Wynne Moore, Ph.B. 1906.

Born August 19, 1885, in Germantown, Pa.
Died February 14, 1924, in Germantown, Pa.

Father, Edward J. Moore, a partner in E. J. Moore & Company, bankers and brokers, of Philadelphia. Mother, Emily (Wynne) Moore. Yale relatives: Ralph E. Clark, '98, and Winthrop A. Clark, '03 S.

Germantown Academy. Select course, member Class Statisticians Committee and Delta Phi.

Associated with his father's firm, E. J. Moore & Company, from 1906 until his death (member of firm since January 1, 1912, acting senior member since 1920); had been nominated to the board of governors of the Philadelphia Stock Exchange shortly before his death, trustee Germantown Academy 1915–1924, and president of the Alumni Society for several years, member board of governors of the Germantown Hospital (chairman of executive committee); vestryman and accounting warden of Old St. Stephen's Church, Philadelphia, for a number of years; in December, 1917, was a Y. M. C. A. secretary at Camp Meade for a few weeks; was one of the founders of the Old St. Stephen's Service Club of Philadelphia, which entertained over 120,000 men in a little over a year; entered the U. S. Naval Reserve August 1, 1918, as a Yeoman (3d Class), had taken and passed examinations for entrance to the Paymaster's School at Princeton, and while waiting to be assigned there was on duty at the Disbursing Office, 4th Naval District, in Philadelphia, until relieved from active duty.

Married twice. Second marriage took place on August 14, 1918, in Germantown, to Edna Elizabeth Breuker. One son, Edward James, 2d.

Death due to an embolism. Interment in West Laurel Hill Cemetery, Philadelphia. Survived by wife, son, and parents.
Clarence William Hockenberger, Ph.B. 1907.

Born February 6, 1885, at Union Hill, N. Y.
Died October 25, 1923, at Cape Girardeau, Mo.

Father, Charles Hockenberger, a flour and feed manufacturer; son of Jacob and Cordula Hockenberger; family came to Union Hill from Baden, Germany, in 1866. Mother, Henrietta (Baker) Hockenberger; daughter of Charles J. and Mary A. (Wiedmann) Baker; ancestors came to America from Württemburg about 1855 and settled at Webster, N. Y. Yale relatives: Henry A. Baker, '95, and George P. Baker, '99 (uncles); Everett L. Baker, '08, and Orin M. Baker, '13 S. (cousins).

Webster High School and Phillips-Andover. Civil engineering course; member University Football Squad Freshman year and University Football Team for two years.

Draftsman for Hooker Electrolytic Company of Niagara Falls 1907-08; moved to Seattle, Wash., in May, 1909; construction foreman and paving inspector for Seattle Electric Company for about a year; foreman for T. Ryan & Company, contractors, for a short time; inspector in city engineering department 1910-13; associated with Wooster & Mott, lumber, coal, and produce dealers of Union Hill, 1913-16; inspector of munitions for the General Signal Company of Rochester, N. Y., 1916-17; associated with American Clay & Cement Corporation of Rochester 1917-18; with the J. H. Mahlstedt Lumber Company at New Rochelle, N. Y., 1918-1920; manager of the Rochester branch of the Smoot Corporation of Buffalo, a frontier mortgage corporation, 1920-21; engaged in the lumber business at Cape Girardeau, as sole trustee and manager of the Hockson Lumber Company, during the last year of his life, with his home, however, still in Rochester; member Zion Evangelical Church, Webster.

Married (1) April 7, 1909, at Union Hill, Helen Elizabeth, daughter of Charles A. and Elizabeth (Haskell) Mott. Four children: Charles Mott, Margaret Ada, Christine Elizabeth, and Robert Haskell. Mrs. Hockenberger died February 20, 1918. Married (2) July 31, 1920, in Corning,
Obituary Record

Elizabeth, daughter of John H. and Marie A. Bush.
No children by second marriage.

Death, due to peritonitis, following an operation, occurred at Cape Girardeau, where he had gone to open up a mill he was constructing. Buried at Webster. Survived by wife; children, father; a brother, H. Clayton Hockenberger; and three sisters, the Misses Lillian, Flora, and Ada Hockenberger, all of whom live at Union Hill.

Julius Cohen, Ph.B. 1912.
Born July 15, 1890, in New Haven, Conn.
Died February 26, 1924, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Louis Nathan Cohen, a paper hanger; born in Russia; came to this country in 1887. Mother, Rebecca (Blasberg) Cohen.

New Haven High School. Received honors for excellence in studies of Junior year and two-year honors Senior year.

Studied in the Yale School of Law 1912-16 (LL.B. 1916); practiced law in New Haven 1916-17; served as Quartermaster Sergeant at Camp Meade, Md., in 1918, receiving his discharge in February, 1919; from 1919 until his death was instructor in mathematics at the Rosenbaum School, New Haven

Unmarried.

Death, which occurred in Grace Hospital, New Haven, due to meningitis. Survived by parents; a sister, Mrs. Samuel Green, of Springfield, Mass.; and three brothers, Abraham B.
Cohen, of New Haven, Marcus H. Cohen, of Springfield, Mass, and Dr. Morris Cohen, of Danbury, Conn.

Joseph Paul Thomas, Ph.B. 1912.
Born April 15, 1885, in Chicago, Ill.
Died November 25, 1923, in New York City.

Father, James Patrick Thomas; in the employ of the Board of Public Works at Denver, Colo. Mother, Lillian Mary (Jones) Thomas.

West Denver High School. Entered the Sheffield Scientific
Sheffield Scientific School

School with the Class of 1910, with which he remained two years; joined the Class of 1912 S. in the fall of 1910; electrical engineering course.

For four years after graduation was in the employ of the Hudson & Manhattan Railroad; organized a jitney bus company in New York City; was in charge of the erection of a cement plant at Nazareth, Pa., 1916-19; was subsequently with the Kelvin Engineering Company of New York, and the Pulaski Foundry and Manufacturing Company of Pulaski, Va.; represented the Chandeysson Electric Company of St. Louis, Mo., in 1921; at one time practiced independently as an engineer in New York City; was an electrical engineer with Dwight P. Robinson & Company, engineers in New York, 1923; member Roman Catholic Church.

Death due to cancer; had undergone a number of operations since 1921. Buried in Calvary Cemetery, New York City. Survived by father, brother, John G. Thomas, and two sisters, all of whom live in Denver.

Duncan MacTavish Fuller, Ph.B. 1913.

Born August 13, 1893, in New York City.
Died March 15, 1924, in Seattle, Wash.

Father, Eugene Fuller (B.A. Harvard 1880, M.D. Harvard 1884); son of Richard Frederick and Adeline (Reeves) Fuller; descendant of Thomas Fuller, who came to Woburn, Mass., from England in 1638. Mother, Margaret Elizabeth (MacTavish) Fuller; daughter of Duncan A. MacTavish, who came to New York from Scotland about 1845, and Margaret Eliza (Wotherspoon) MacTavish; granddaughter of George Wotherspoon, who came to New York from Scotland about 1815.

The Hill School. Biology course; member Freshman Swimming Relay Team, winning the Heaton swimming medal; on the Water Polo Squad for three years; member Student Council Senior year.

Graduated at the College of Physicians and Surgeons (Columbia) 1917; surgical interne at the Presbyterian Hospital, New York City, July, 1917, to September, 1918; served in the Hospital Corps with Troop A, Squadron A, New York National Guard, on the Mexican border June–December, 1916; commissioned First Lieutenant, Medical Reserve Corps, June 4, 1918; sent to Camp Meade, Maryland, in October, in November, 1918, assigned to Evacuation Hospital No. 50 and sent to Camp Crane, Pennsylvania, to await overseas orders; given his discharge December 18, 1918; was surgical interne at Roosevelt Hospital, New York City, January–July, 1919; made an extended tour of the Orient with his family; on his return to New York the following winter became resident surgeon at the Presbyterian Hospital, served there about six months; in June, 1920, appointed instructor in surgery at Columbia University for a year; traveled abroad in February, 1922, visiting hospitals in France and England; opened an office for practice in Seattle, July, 1922, continuing there until his death; member King County Medical Association; on the house staff of the Virginia Mason Hospital.

Unmarried

Death, due to pneumonia, occurred in the Virginia Mason Hospital. His body was cremated. Survived by his parents; a brother, Richard E. Fuller, '18 S.; and a sister, Miss Eugenia M Fuller, of New York City.

Edwin Olney Young, Ph.B. 1914.

Born February 20, 1891, in East Greenwich, R. I.
Died May 24, 1924, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, David Young, a farmer; son of David and Mary Emor Young; descendant of Emor Young, who came to America from England. Mother, Louise (Olney) Young; daughter of Joseph S. and Amey (Randall) Olney; descendant of Thomas Olney, who came from Hertford, England, to Salem, Mass, in 1635.

North Kingston (R. I.) High School; attended the Rhode Island State College for three years as a member of the Class of 1914 (played on his Class Football and Baseball teams). Entered the Sheffield Scientific School as a Senior in 1913; electrical engineering course.
During the first year after graduation was a draftsman with the engineering department of the Hood Rubber Company of Watertown, Mass.; taught chemistry and physics at the Monson (Mass.) Academy 1915-16; instructor in physics and chemistry at the Hartford Public High School from 1916 until his death; served in the Aviation Corps from January 8, 1918, to January 18, 1919; graduated as a Cadet from the Princeton Ground School; was stationed at Dallas, Texas, and later at Ellington Field, Houston, where he received a commission as Lieutenant; member South Baptist Church, Hartford.

Married May 3, 1923, in New York City, Frances, daughter of George Luther and Ann (Raymer) Shattuck. No children.

Death followed an operation at the Hartford Hospital. Buried at Acote's Hill, Chepachet, R. I. Survived by wife; mother; two brothers, David Young, of Los Angeles, Calif., and Ziba O. Young, of Allenton, R. I.; and two sisters, the Misses Marion L. and Fannie R. Young, both of whom live in Longmeadow, R. I.

Roland Brooks Barnum, Ph.B. 1916.

Born February 9, 1893, in New Haven, Conn.
Died March 26, 1924, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, William Thomas Barnum, president of W. T. Barnum & Company, electrotypers, New Haven; son of Philander Starr and Julia (Cady) Barnum; descendant of Thomas Barnum, who was born at Hollingbourne, County Kent, England, the son of Sir Martin Barnum, and came to America about 1640 and settled at Norwalk, Conn.; he was one of a company of eight who purchased from the Indians a tract of land called "Pahquioque" (later Danbury) and settled there in the spring of 1685. Mother, Viva (Brooks) Barnum; daughter of the Rev. Cornelius David Brooks, a graduate of Harford (Pa.) University, and Hattie (Minier) Brooks; fifth in descent from Cornelius Brooks, who came to America from Wales with his three brothers about 1750 and settled first in New Jersey, afterwards moving to New York state, near Olean.
Obituary Record

New Haven High School. Entered Sheffield Scientific School with Class of 1915; became a member of 1916 S. at the end of Junior year; electrical engineering course; coxswain of Freshman Crew.

With the United Illuminating Company of New Haven 1916-17 (at first in the lamp department; afterwards power engineer), employed in the testing department of the General Electric Company, Schenectady, N. Y., 1917-19; since then connected with W. T. Barnum & Company (assistant manager at the time of his death); member United (Congregational) Church, New Haven.

Death due to acute septicæmia. Buried in Mapledale Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by daughter, parents, and a brother, Milton Cady Barnum, of New Haven.

Philip Greenberg, Ph.B. 1916.

Born May 21, 1895, in New Haven, Conn.
Died December 11, 1923, in Bridgeport, Conn.

Father, Mendel Greenberg, a member of the firm of Greenberg Brothers, furniture dealers; born in Kovno, Lithuania; son of Benjamin and Maida (Siegel) Greenberg. Mother, Minna (Casman) Greenberg; daughter of Elias and Fanny (Siegel) Casman, of Kovno. Cousin, Ezra Casman, 1927.

New Haven High School. Biological course; honors in mathematics and biology Freshman year; honors in biological sciences Junior year.

Studied in the Yale School of Medicine 1916-1920; M.D. 1920; honorable mention for Keese Prize at graduation; connected with the City Hospital, New York City, as junior interne, assistant house physician, and house physician, 1920-21; practiced medicine in New Haven from 1922 until his death, member B’hai Jacob Synagogue, New Haven.

Married January 8, 1922, in New Haven, Faye, daughter of Samuel and Bessie (Goldberg) Reich. No children.

Death, due to severe burns and internal injuries received in an automobile accident, occurred at St. Vincent’s Hospital,
Sheffield Scientific School

Bridgeport. Buried in Independent Connecticut Lodge Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife; parents; two sisters, Mary E. Greenberg Brody, the wife of Joseph E. Brody, '10 S., and Miss Belle Greenberg, of New Haven; and five brothers, George, Benjamin, and Alexander E. Greenberg, all of New Haven, Samuel H. Greenberg, '11 L., and Louis Greenberg, '23, who is now taking graduate work at the University of California.
GRADUATE SCHOOL

Robert Walter Pettit, M.A. 1901.

Born December 19, 1879, in New Brunswick, N. J.
Died January 7, 1924, in Patchogue, N. Y.

Father, Robert M. Pettit, a banker; member of the firm of Winslow, Lanier & Company of New York City; son of Walter S. and Caroline (Davison) Pettit. Mother, Elizabeth (Smith) Pettit

Rutgers Preparatory School; B.A. Rutgers 1900 (member of the Football Team for four years, and also of the Crew and the Gymnasium Team; prize in logic; first Freshman and first Sophomore orator; Junior orator; Junior prize in mental philosophy, metaphysical prize; Senior prize in moral philosophy, honors in rhetoric; member Delta Upsilon); attended Yale Graduate School 1900–01 (M.A. 1901).

Studied medicine at Columbia University for four years (M.D. 1905); interne at Mount Sinai Hospital 1905–07; went to Vienna in 1907 for the purpose of preparing himself to specialize in diseases of the eye, ear, nose, and throat; spent three and a half years there; was then in Paris and London for a year, at the beginning of the World War joined the Morgan-Harjes Ambulance Corps and saw service on the Marne, but was obliged to return home on account of illness, when the United States entered the war, enlisted and was commissioned First Lieutenant, with assignment to Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind; promoted to a captaincy, was one of a hundred officers who volunteered for foreign service, and was sent to San Francisco, from which port he sailed for Russia, but the ship was recalled when only one day out, was later honorably discharged from service; subsequently engaged in the practice of medicine at Newark, N. J., and at Bay Shore and Patchogue, Long Island.

Death due to injuries received in an automobile accident. Interment in Elmwood Cemetery, New Brunswick. Survived by children and father.
Walter Bonitz Helbig, M.A. 1910.

Borā January 20, 1888, in Lynchburg, Va.
Died August 8, 1923, in Washington, D.C.

Father, John Helbig, proprietor of the European Hotel in Lynchburg; son of Conrad and Anna Helbig, of Beindersheim, Germany, who came to America in 1850 and settled at Lynchburg. Mother, Emily D. (Bonitz) Helbig; daughter of William and Dorothea Bonitz, of Zellerfeld, Germany, who came to Washington in 1863.

Cosby's Preparatory School, Lynchburg; B.A. Roanoke College 1909; president of debating society and representative orator of his class; editor-in-chief of the Roentgen, the college annual, Junior year; manager of college monthly magazine Senior year; Salem (Va.) correspondent for the Roanoke World during 1907–08; attended Yale Graduate School 1909–1910 (M.A. 1910).

In charge of English department at Mackenzie College, São Paulo, Brazil, 1910–12; read law privately in Lynchburg for a year (1914); instructor in Spanish at Roanoke City High School 1916–18; enlisted as a Private in the Infantry March 28, 1918; assigned to Company E, 319th Infantry, at Camp Lee, Va.; went overseas May 17, 1918; member Headquarters Company, Intelligence Section; saw active service in the Argonne; in September, 1918, made First Sergeant, Headquarters Company, 319th Infantry, for bravery in penetrating the German lines and reestablishing a liaison with a lost company, being himself cut off by German shells and lost overnight; taught at the University of Creuse le Châtel from December, 1918, until he became head of department of Spanish in College of Letters, American E. F. University, in the spring of 1919; returned to the United States in July, 1919; mustered out at Camp Meade July 30, 1919; taught Spanish in Roanoke City High School 1919–1920; connected with Standard Oil Company in Baltimore, Md., from 1920 until his death; member Presbyterian Church, Lynchburg; at one time president Westminster League of Presbyterian Church in Salem.

Unmarried.
Obituary Record

Death, due to tuberculosis, caused by being gassed in the war, occurred at the Walter Reed Hospital in Washington. Buried in Springhill Cemetery, Lynchburg. Survived by three brothers, Fréd Conrad Helbig and Henry Carl Helbig, both of Lynchburg, and John W. Helbig, of Denver, Colo.; and two sisters, Mrs. Annie M. Sherman, of Roanoke, and Mrs Carl Gottschalk, of Salem.

Edwin Chester Jones, M.A. 1911.

Born October 6, 1881, in Flushing, N. Y.
Died May 30, 1924, in Baltimore, Md.

Father, the Rev. Robert Weaver Jones (B.A. Wesleyan 1871, M.A Wesleyan 1874), a Methodist minister; son of George and Mary (Weaver) Jones, of Bethlehem, Pa.; descendant of Griffith Jones, who came to America from Wales about 1747 and settled at Skippach, Pa. Mother, Elsie Lucretia (Tolles) Jones; daughter of Chester Foote and Martha Potter (Humiston) Tolles, of South Norwalk, Conn.

Wesleyan Academy, Wilbraham, Mass.; B.A. Wesleyan 1904; member Wesleyan University Glee Club for four years (assistant business manager and also business manager during the last two years); member Wesleyan chapters of Psi Upsilon and Phi Beta Kappa; in 1904 went to Foochow, China, under the Methodist Episcopal Board of Foreign Missions and taught science in the Anglo-Chinese College there until 1910; studied in the Yale Graduate School 1910–11 (M.A 1911); returned to China and was professor of chemistry in the Anglo-Chinese College until 1915; president of Fukien Christian University, Foochow, from 1915 until 1923, when he resigned the presidency, after having returned to this country on furlough because of ill health; was connected with the university until his death, however, and expected to return there to teach; in 1920 delivered the commemoration address at the fortieth anniversary of the Anglo-Chinese College; elected president of the Wilbraham League of Wilbraham (formerly Wesleyan) Academy in October, 1923; donor of the M Annie Wythe International Brotherhood Prize at that academy, awarded annually to the boy who shows the greatest interest in international affairs; member American Chemical Society and the Methodist Church, Foochow.

Unmarried.

Death, due to acute bronchial pneumonia, following a relapse from encephalitis lethargica (contracted in China in 1923), occurred in the Union Memorial Hospital, Baltimore. Buried in the Union Cemetery, Norwalk, Conn. Survived by three brothers: Robert T. Jones, of South Willington, Conn, Roy H. Jones, of Detroit, Mich., and Vincent W. Jones, of Hartford, Conn., graduates of Wesleyan University in 1898, 1901, and 1911, respectively.

Sewell Edwin Scott, M.A. 1918.

Born September 11, 1892, in Powersville, Mo. Died July 14, 1923, at Glenwood Springs, Colo.

Father, James Thomas Scott, a retired farmer; son of William Hazel and Mary (Short) Scott; ancestors came to America from Scotland and settled in West Chester, Pa. Mother, Elizabeth Jane (Fields) Scott; daughter of George and Lucy (Duree) Fields; descendant of Nathaniel Fields of North Carolina.

Prepared at Liberty (Mo.) High School; B.A. William Jewell College 1915; laboratory assistant in chemistry and physics at William Jewell College 1914–16; studied in Yale Graduate School 1916–1920 (M.A. 1918), acting as laboratory assistant in chemistry 1918–1920; with chemical research division of United States Rubber Company at New Haven 1920–21; assistant professor of chemistry and geology at William Jewell College from 1922 until his death; engaged in summer research work in geology in Colorado at time of death; had contributed articles to American Journal of Science; member Gamma Alpha, a national scientific fraternity, and of the First Baptist Church in Liberty.

Unmarried.

Death due to pneumonia. Interment in Mountain Memorial Cemetery, Liberty. Survived by mother; five sisters, Mrs. J. H. Buckles, of Kansas City, Kans., Miss Wilmetta Scott, of Liberty, Mrs. J. S Godfrey, of Sharon Springs, Kans., Mrs. D. P. Kidwell, of Garfield, Wash., and Mrs. J. H. Bennett, of McCall, Idaho; and two brothers, J. O. Scott and G. H. Scott, both of Lebanon, Ore.
Obituary Record

Solomon Bernard Ebert, M.S. 1923.

Born March 27, 1894, in Duluth, Minn.
Died April 12, 1924, in Leon, Okla.

Father, Jacob Ephraim Ebert, a traveling salesman; came to America in 1880 and settled at Philadelphia; son of Solomon and Lena (Cohn) Ebert. Mother, Josephine (Gitskey) Ebert, daughter of Moses and Helen (Fink) Gitskey; of German ancestry.

Marshfield (Wis.) High School and Mechanic Arts High School, St. Paul, Minn. B.S. University of Minnesota 1917.

Was a Private in Company L (Infantry), Minnesota National Guard, from 1912 to 1915; in September, 1917, entered the Air Service as a Flying Cadet; stationed at first near Chicago and then at Park Field, Tenn, Lake Charles, La, Wilbur Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio, and San Diego, Calif, successively; given overseas orders in October, 1918; received his discharge at Hoboken, N. J., in December, 1918; from that time until November, 1920, was employed by Swift & Company at South St. Paul, Minn, as efficiency and combustion engineer; rejoined the Air Service in November, 1920, was commissioned Second Lieutenant and subsequently promoted to First Lieutenant; at the time of his death was stationed at Post Field, Fort Sill, Okla.; during 1922-23 studied electrical engineering in the Yale Graduate School, receiving the degree of M.S. at the end of the year's work; was of the Jewish faith.

Unmarried

His death, which was instantaneous, was due to injuries received in an airplane crash; his plane went into a nose dive at a height of two hundred feet, crashed to the ground, and burst into flames; his body was very badly burned. Buried in Morris Hill Cemetery, Boise, Idaho. Survived by parents and a sister, Helene Ebert Fox (B.A. Hamline University 1917), the wife of Curtis T. Fox, of Boise, Idaho.
Graduate School

Charles Newton Little, Ph.D. 1885.

Born May 19, 1858, in Madura, South India.
Died August 31, 1923, in Berkeley, Calif.

Father, the Rev. Charles Little (B.A. 1844), a missionary under the American Board; son of Samuel and Jerusha (Bailey) Little; descendant of Thomas Little, who, in 1633, married Ann Warren, daughter of Richard Warren, who came to this country in the "Mayflower." Mother, Susan (Robbins) Little; daughter of Samuel and Fanny (Osborn) Robbins; sixth in descent from Governor Bradford, and also a descendant of Francis LeBaron, who came to America from France in 1668 and settled at Plymouth, Mass. Yale relatives include two cousins, William A. Larned (B.A. 1826) and Robbins Battell (B.A. 1839), one of the donors of Battell Chapel.

Preparatory training received in Lincoln, Nebr.; B.A. University of Nebraska 1879; instructor in mathematics and civil engineering there 1880–84; attended Yale Graduate School 1884–85 (Ph.D. 1885); associate professor of civil engineering at University of Nebraska 1885–1890; professor 1890–93; professor of mathematics at Stanford University 1893–1901; studied at Universities of Göttingen and Berlin 1898–99; professor of civil engineering at University of Idaho from 1901 until his death; also dean of College of Engineering since 1911; had contributed results of researches on theory of knots to the Proceedings of the Connecticut Academy of Sciences and to the Transactions of the Royal Society of Edinburgh; Fellow American Association for the Advancement of Science; member Society for the Promotion of Engineering Education, American Association of University Professors, American Society of Civil Engineers, Idaho Chapter of American Association of Engineers, and First Congregational Church, Lincoln.

Married August 5, 1886, in Lincoln, Emma R., daughter of Otto and Catharine (Muller) Funke. No children.

Death due to heart failure. Cremation at Spokane, Wash. Survived by wife and a sister, Mrs. W. J. Adamson, of Lincoln.
Margaretta Palmer, Ph.D. 1894.

Born August 29, 1862, in Branford, Conn.
Died January 30, 1924, in New Haven, Conn.

Branford High School; B.A. Vassar 1887; assistant in the Vassar Observatory 1887-88; instructor in Latin at Vassar 1888-89, assistant in the Yale Observatory 1889-1892; student in the Yale Graduate School 1892-94 (Ph.D. 1894); assistant in the Yale Observatory from 1894 until her death (computer 1894-1912; research assistant since 1912, having the rank of instructor since 1923); also cataloguer in the University Library 1918-1920; had published articles and dissertations on astronomical subjects, particularly on the orbits of various comets, among the latter being "Definitive Orbits of Comet 1786 D", also "Teachers' Notes on the Church Catechism" and "Teachers' Notes on Our Book of Worship", member Astronomical Society of America; for many years secretary and treasurer of the Half Hour Reading Club of Branford; member St. Paul's Episcopal Church, New Haven.

Death due to an embolism, following injuries received two weeks before her death, when she was struck by an automobile. Buried in Center Cemetery, Branford. Survived by a half brother, Jesse Bringhurst, of New Britain, Conn.

Clifford Thorne, Ph.D. 1901.

Born January 20, 1878, in Brooklyn, Iowa.

Father, the Rev. William George Thorn, a retired Methodist minister (originally a Quaker); son of Dr. Isaac Thorn and Hannah (Smith) Thorn, who were among the early settlers of Ohio; descendant of William Thorne, who came to Massachusetts from England about 1638 and later moved to Tennessee. Mother, Rachel Mary (Young) Thorn; daughter of Wesley and Eliza (Young) Young; descendant of William Young, an Englishman, who settled in Virginia in 1757. Clifford Thorne changed the spelling of his surname in his early manhood.

Attended Iowa Wesleyan University; B.A. Boston University 1896 (Isaac Rich Scholar; senior literary editor of the Boston University Beacon; representative of the university in intercollegiate debate; member of Thelta Delta Chi); was a reporter for the Boston Advertiser for a time; taught mathematics at Washington (Iowa) Academy 1896–97; volunteer soldier in the Spanish-American War, being stationed at Jacksonville, Fla., until mustered out; attended State University of Iowa 1897–99 (M.A. and LL.B. 1899); student in Yale Graduate School 1899–1901 (held a University Fellowship); practiced law in Washington, Iowa, 1901–1910, acting as special counsel for shippers, cities, and states, in various cases before the Interstate Commerce Commission, the Supreme Court, and committees of Congress; in 1906 filed a report with Secretary Garfield and Congress on behalf of the Kansas oil producers, which caused the investigation of the Standard Oil Company, resulting in the successful prosecution of the company by the United States Government; member Iowa State Board of Railway Commissioners 1910–17 (chairman for five years); had charge of presentation of cases securing the first general revision of Iowa’s interstate freight rates, was chairman of the committee presenting brief and argument to the United States Supreme Court, seeking reversal of the Sanborn decision, and of the committee representing the National Shippers Conference in the fifteen per cent case, involving $400,000,000 annually; practiced in Chicago 1917–1923; participated in the General Rate Case of 1920, in which the shippers were successful in reducing the claims of the railroads as to values by $1,700,000,000, thereby effecting a saving of $100,000,000 annually; in 1921, as counsel for the American Farm Bureau, joined in the application for reopening the Pittsburgh Plus Case against the opposition of the United States Steel Corporation; as counsel for the American Farm Bureau Federation, the Farmers National Grain Dealers, the Corn Belt Meat Producers, the Western Petroleum Refiners Association, and the National Wholesale Grocers Association; had charge, in 1922, of the preparation and presentation of the only analysis of general commercial conditions in the United States and of the financial condition of the railroads as a whole, offered by shippers seeking a general reduction in freight rates; lectured on public regulation at the State University of Iowa 1912; received LL.D. at Wesleyan College of Iowa 1913; Republican candidate for nomination to the United States Senate 1922; author of Iowa law creating the office of commerce counsel as advocate for the public in cases brought before State and Interstate Commerce Commissions (first law of the kind in the United States), and of the Iowa law against unfair discrimination in prices of commodities; contributed articles to the American Law Review, the Saturday Evening Post, and the Forum; president National Association of Railway Commissioners 1914–15; member American Bar Association, American Economic Association, American Academy of Political and Social Science, and First Methodist Church, Washington.

Married February 14, 1918, in Washington, Ruth, daughter of William Hearst and Isabella Mary (Palmer) Latta. One daughter, Frances Elizabeth.

Died of pneumonia while on a trip around the world. Buried in Elm Grove Cemetery, Washington. Survived by wife, daughter, father, and a sister, Mrs. Rose Thorne Clapp.
SCHOOL OF FORESTRY

Sedman Walter Wynne, M.F. 1910.

Born May 24, 1883, in Butte, Mont.
Died October 28, 1922, in Pasadena, Calif.

Father, Ellis Walter Wynne, a mining official; son of John Ellis and Mary (Miller) Wynne; of Welsh ancestry. Mother, Nellie Ware (Blood) Wynne; daughter of Charles and Eudora (Ware) Blood; descendant of Robert Ware, who came to America from England in 1642 and settled at either Dedham or Wrentham, Mass.; her first American ancestor on the paternal side came from England in the eighteenth century and also settled in Massachusetts.

Preparatory training received at Butte High School and in preparatory department of the Montana State Agricultural College; attended Mining College of University of California for three and a half years; engaged in mining engineering at Butte 1904–08; attended Yale School of Forestry 1908–1910, also being enrolled as a special student in Sheffield Scientific School 1908–09; degree of M.F. granted to him in 1916, with enrollment in Class of 1910.

Since graduation, with the exception of one year (1917–18), connected with United States Forest Service (assistant at Hot Springs, Calif., 1910–12, and deputy supervisor 1912–13; supervisor of Cleveland National Forest 1913–15; supervisor Sequoia National Forest 1915–17; in charge of Division of Maps and Surveys in district office at San Francisco 1918–1922); in April, 1917, received a commission as a Lieutenant; in 1918 took work under the Department of Military Aeronautics at Ohio State University.

Married January 20, 1911, in San José, Calif., Margaret, daughter of James and Margaret (Branham) Ogier. Three children: Eleanor (now deceased), Robert, and Marjory.

Death due to heart failure. Interment at Berkeley, Calif. Survived by wife, son, daughter, and a sister, Miss Edith Wynne (B.L. University of California 1904), of Berkeley.
Gopalskrisna Krishnamurti Nayudu, M.F. 1917.

Born in India.
Died May 20, 1920, in India.

It has been impossible to secure the desired information for an obituary sketch of Mr. Nayudu in time for publication in this volume. A biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.

Samuel Corbin, M.F. 1920.

Died February 25, 1924, at Snow Hill, Ind.

Father, James William Corbin, a sheet metal contractor; son of David P. and Sarah P. (Swiers) Corbin; descendant of Joseph Corbin, who settled in Hollidaysburg, Pa. Mother, S. Florence (Frick) Corbin.

Northeast Manual Training High School, Philadelphia; B.S. Pennsylvania State College 1917; in the United States Forest Service, as assistant forester, with headquarters at Johnson City, Tenn., 1917–19; attended Yale School of Forestry 1919–1920; instructor in forestry at Lincoln Memorial University, Harrogate, Tenn., 1920–21; assistant forester of the Maryland State Board of Forestry at Baltimore (residence in Washington, D.C.) from 1921 until his death; member Baptist Church, Oak Lane, Philadelphia.

Unmarried.

Death due to heart failure. Buried in Northwood Cemetery, Oak Lane, Philadelphia. Survived by parents and a brother, Alexander G. Corbin, of Philadelphia.
SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

Frederick Augustus Dudley, M.D. 1862.

Born January 6, 1842, in Madison, Conn.
Died January 14, 1923, in Auburn, N. Y.

Father, Samuel Dudley, a farmer; son of Ebenezer and Julina Dudley; descended in the sixth generation from John Dudley, who came to America from England in 1660 and settled at Madison, Conn. Mother, Mary Cornelia (Smith) Dudley; daughter of Robert and Mary Cornelia Smith; descendant of Robert Smith, who came to Madison from England.

Lee Academy, Madison; attended the Yale School of Medicine 1860–62; enlisted as Private in Company F, 7th Connecticut Infantry, September 9, 1861; commissioned Assistant Surgeon, 14th Connecticut Infantry, August 11, 1862; with General McClellan’s command at Monson’s Hill; attached to Douglas Hospital, Washington, D. C., for six months; promoted to Surgeon, April 2, 1863; wounded in the arm at battle of Gettysburg, July 2, 1863; taken prisoner at battle of Hatcher’s Run, October 27, 1864, and confined in Libby Prison for four months; attached to 2d Army Corps, in charge of Division Hospital, until mustered out at Hartford, Conn., May 31, 1865; engaged in practice of medicine at Genoa, N. Y., 1868–1904, when he retired; afterwards resided at King Ferry, N. Y.; justice of the peace in Genoa 1882–85; member Cayuga County Board of Supervisors 1898–1907 (chairman of board 1904); member New York Assembly 1908–10; member Cayuga County Medical Society.

Death, due to a general breakdown, occurred at the Atwater Home in Auburn. Interment at King Ferry. Survived by a brother, Hosmer Dudley, of Union Springs, N. Y., and a sister, Mrs. Charles W. Dennis, of Syracuse, N. Y.
Marcus Brutus Fisk, M.D. 1863.

Born April 4, 1838, in Willington, Conn.
Died January 1, 1924, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, James M. Fisk, a farmer; son of Rufus and Irene (Scripture) Fisk; grandson of Lieut. Rufus Fisk, a Revolutionary soldier; descendant of Nathan Fisk, who came from England to Watertown, Mass., about 1642. Mother, Mary Ann (Hinman) Fisk; ancestors came from Scotland to New Haven.

Studied in public schools in East Windsor, Conn., and with private tutors; studied medicine at the University of Vermont 1860–61 and with his uncle, Marcus L. Fisk (M.D. Pennsylvania Medical College 1842), of East Windsor, and with Dr. Pomeroy, of Stafford; entered Yale School of Medicine as a Senior in 1862.

Had never been engaged in the practice of medicine; taught school for a time in Stafford; was employed as a bookkeeper by the Mineral Springs Manufacturing Company of Stafford Springs, Conn., 1864–68; was in the lumber business in Willington, Conn., and West Burke, Vt., 1868–1880; was engaged in farming at Stafford 1880–87, also serving as clerk of the Probate Court for the district of Stafford; judge of probate for the same district 1895–1908, when he retired, having reached the age limit; clerk of probate 1908–1918; town clerk and treasurer for the town of Stafford 1895–1917; member Grace Episcopal Church, Stafford Springs.

Married December 22, 1864, at Stafford Springs, Emma Francis, daughter of Marcus and Mary (Harvey) Howland. Three children: Mary Emma (died in infancy); Robert Howland (L.L.B. 1903); and Richard Marcus.

Death due to pneumonia. Interment at Stafford Springs. Survived by wife, two sons, and two grandchildren.
Franklin Hamilton Fowler, M.D. 1868.

Born February 19, 1841, in New York City.
Died February 25, 1924, in Westport, Conn.

Father, John William Fowler; a druggist, town clerk, judge of probate, for over forty years parish clerk of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Milford, Conn., and secretary of the Milford Savings Bank; son of William Harpin and Sarah (Pond) Fowler; descendant of William Fowler, who came to Milford from England in 1639. Mother, Jane (Hyde) Fowler; daughter of Richard and Lucie (Hynman) Hyde; descendant of William Hyde, who settled at Norwich, Conn., in 1635 and was one of the original proprietors of Hartford.

Rectory School, Hamden, Conn.; graduated (B.A.) at Trinity College in 1861; was an instructor at the Rectory School (1861–65) and at the Cheshire (Conn.) Academy before entering the Yale School of Medicine in 1866.

Classical master at Lockwood Academy, Brooklyn, N. Y., 1870–72; private tutor in New York City 1872–1886; master in Berkeley School, New York (teaching Latin, Greek, physiology, mathematics, and English literature), from 1886 until 1897, when he was obliged to resign his position on account of failing health; was later engaged again in private tutoring for a time; for a number of years previous to his death had been an invalid and unable to engage in any occupation; member Broadway Tabernacle, New York City.

Married July 13, 1871, in Milford, Julia Isabella, daughter of Nathan and Julia (Bradley) Fenn. Two children, Frank (died in infancy) and John Harold. Mrs. Fowler died in January, 1919.

Death due to pneumonia and heart trouble. Interment in Milford Cemetery. Survived by son and a sister, the wife of George M. Gunn, '74, of Milford.
Frank Edwin Castle, M.D. 1870.
Born February 25, 1845, in Woodbridge, Conn.
Died September 4, 1923, in Waterbury, Conn.

Father, Andrew Castle (M.D. 1825); son of Dr. Jehiel Castle. Mother, Phoebe (Kimberly) Castle; daughter of Ezra Kimberly, a Revolutionary soldier, and Lucy (Beecher) Kimberly; descendant of Thomas Kimberly, who came to this country from London in 1638. Yale relatives include: Charles Kimberly, '65 (cousin), and Buckingham P. Merriman, '10 (nephew by marriage).

Early education received in the schools of Woodbridge and Waterbury; entered Yale School of Medicine 1868, at the same time studying in the office of T. Beers Townsend (M.D. 1858), served in New Haven Hospital for a short time; engaged in practice of medicine in Waterbury for over fifty years; surgeon of Waterbury Hospital from its founding until 1915; member city, state, and national medical associations; vestryman of Trinity (Episcopal) Church, Waterbury.

Married September 30, 1876, in Waterbury, Margaret Field, daughter of Charles Buckingham and Mary Margaret (Field) Merriman. No children.

Survived by a sister-in-law, Mrs. Frederick Castle, of New Haven, a nephew, and two nieces. By Dr. Castle's will the Yale School of Medicine received $15,000.

William Collin Welch, M.D. 1877.
Born March 11, 1845, in Lee, Mass.
Died April 13, 1924, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, James Welch (M.D. Berkshire Medical Institute 1830), a physician in Winsted, Conn., for many years; member of the General Assembly in 1852; son of Benjamin Welch (Honorary M.D. 1838) and Louisa (Guiteau) Welch; descendant of Hopestill Welch, who came from England to Windham, Conn., in 1741 and settled at Norfolk, Conn., in 1772. Mother, Lavinia (Hubbard) Welch; daughter of Jesse and Ruth (Reed) Hubbard, sister of Myron R. Hubbard.
School of Medicine

Timothy Grattan O'Connell, M.D. 1899.

Born December 16, 1876, in Bristol, Conn.
Died September 8, 1923, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, John O'Connell, a brass caster; son of Maurice and Mary (O’Sullivan) O'Connell, of Limerick, Ireland. Mother, Bridget (Dorsey) O'Connell; daughter of Connard and Mary (O'Grady) Dorsey, of Limerick. Nephew, Maurice F. O'Connell, '19.

Bristol High School; attended Georgetown University for a year before entering Yale School of Medicine in 1895.

Engaged in practice of medicine at Thomaston, Conn. (1899–1903), and later at Bristol; obliged to retire from general practice because of ill health, following a severe attack of diphtheria and kidney trouble; during last few years of his life was confined to his home for the greater part of the time; health officer of town of Plymouth, Conn., for three years (1900–02); president Exemption Board No. 2 for Hartford County during World War; member Hartford County Medical Association and Bristol Medical Association (president for two years) and of St. Joseph’s Roman Catholic Church, Bristol.

Married November 26, 1901, in Thomaston, Nellie J., daughter of Patrick and Bridget (Burns) Nolan. Two sons, John Grattan and Harold Christopher, both members of the Class of 1926 at Boston College.

Death, due to nephritis, occurred at St. Francis' Hospital, Hartford. Buried in St. Thomas' Cemetery, Thomaston. Survived by wife, sons, and five brothers: Maurice, John F., Cornelius, William, and Jeremiah O'Connell.

John Wilson Hunt, M.D. 1904.

Born November 27, 1879, near Olathe, Kans.

Died January 2, 1924, in Seattle, Wash.

Father, Albert Jenkins Hunt, a farmer; director of the First National Bank of Olathe for many years; also a director of the School Board; son of Wilson and Agnes (Ford) Hunt; descendant of Jasper Hunt, who lived near Versailles, Ky.

Mother, Flora Adelaide (McIntyre) Hunt; daughter of George Washington and Lovina (Raymond) McIntyre; descendant of James McIntyre, a Scotchman, who settled in Canada.

Olathe High School; studied pharmacy at the University of Kansas 1899–1900; student in the Yale School of Medicine 1900–04; president of his class; business manager of the Yale Medical Journal Senior year; member Phi Gamma Delta, Sigma Xi, and Skull and Sceptre.

Served an internship at the New Haven Hospital; afterwards opened an office for practice in Olathe; moved to Seattle in the fall of 1905 and was an interne in the Seattle General Hospital for six months; since then had practiced in Seattle, for the past five years making a specialty of goiter surgery; was deeply interested in goiter prevention; since July, 1920, had been associated with Phillip V. vonPhul (M.D. Missouri Medical College 1896), a heart specialist; on the staff of the Providence Hospital from May, 1920, to January, 1924; also on the visiting staff of the Swedish Hospital for a number of years; member of the Standardization Committee of the Seattle General Hospital from 1920 until his death; assistant business manager of Northwest Medicine 1911–18, and business manager 1918–1924; commissioned a Captain in the Medical Reserve Corps September 25, 1917; was stationed at Camp Lewis until June, 1918, when he went overseas; served as Commanding Officer of the 362d Field Hospital, 316th Sanitary Train, 91st (Wild West) Division, with the 5th Army Corps in the Argonne and with the 7th French Army Corps in Belgium; was in action at St.-Mihiel, and during the Meuse-Argonne and the Lys-Scheldt offensives, his hospital being the surgical unit for the division; promoted to Major February 21, 1919; returned to the United States in April, and received his discharge on May 26, 1919; Fellow of the American College of Surgeons; member North Pacific Surgical Society, King County Medical Society (vice-president 1916, 1922, and 1923; trustee 1924), American Medical Association, Seattle Surgical Society (president 1922), Association of Military Surgeons, Washington State Medical Association, Washington State Medical Library Board, Rainier Noble Post of the American Legion, and the Baptist Church, Olathe; associate member of the John B. Dever Surgical Society of the University of Pennsylvania; had contributed articles to the American Journal of Surgery, Northwest Medicine, and Saturday Morning Clinics of the Seattle Surgical Society.

Married June 13, 1908, in Seattle, Grace Poitras, a graduate nurse of the Seattle General Hospital and the daughter of John May and Josephine Miriam (de l'Orme) Poitras, of Plattsburg, N. Y. Two children, Laurence Wilson and Mary Barbara.

Death, due to heart disease, followed an attack of the grippe and occurred suddenly in Seattle. Buried in Washelli Cemetery, Seattle. Survived by wife, children, parents, and two sisters, Mrs. Gertrude Hunt Dent and Mrs. Agnes Hunt Neuhart, both of whom live in Olathe.
SCHOOL OF LAW

Enos Frisbie Phelps, LL.B. 1866.

Born June 18, 1840, in Burlington, Conn.
Died February 6, 1924, in Los Angeles, Calif.

Father, Samuel Phelps, a farmer; member of the Connecticut Legislature; a deacon in the Congregational Church for forty years; son of Joshua and Ada (Upson) Phelps; descendant of William Phelps, who was born in Tewkesbury, England, and came to this country in the ship "Mary and John" in 1630, settling in Dorchester, Mass. Mother, Emeline Lucy (Frisbie) Phelps; daughter of Enos Frisbie, who died in 1890 at the age of one hundred and one years, and Lucy (Scoville) Frisbie.

Preparatory training received at Elmwood (Ill.) Academy and in the preparatory department of Oberlin College (1860-62); enlisted in the Army in 1864 and served for a few months as a Private in Company D, 133d Regiment, Illinois Volunteers; attended the Law School of the University of Chicago for six months before entering the Yale School of Law in the fall of 1865.

Practiced law in Neosho, Mo., 1866-1871; moved to Galesburg, Ill., and purchased the Galesburg Daily Register, which he conducted as editor for a year; in 1873 organized a printing company, which became the publishers of the Daily Republican Register, of which he was business manager for a year, then sold out his interest in the paper; became engaged in the life insurance business in 1875; in 1877 organized the Covenant Mutual Benefit Association of Galesburg, of which he was the secretary and general manager until 1890, served as an alderman for two years (nominated by the Republican party), was Captain of Company B, 4th Regiment, Illinois National Guard; in 1878 was appointed a member of the military staff of Governor Cullom, with the rank of Colonel; served on the staffs of Governors Cullom and Hamilton for five years, in 1890 moved to New York City; became comptroller of the Mutual Reserve Association; had been vice-president and general agency manager of the National Life, American Union, and Hartford Life Insurance Companies; for about ten years was connected, as treasurer and director, with companies financing various mining and manufacturing enterprises; moved to California in the fall of 1911 and resided in Oakland for three and a half years; engaged in work for Masonic organizations; from 1915 until 1920 lived in Coronado, having retired from active business; moved to Bonita in 1920 and lived with his daughter on the Cloverdale Poultry Ranch; at the time of his death was living with his adopted daughter in Los Angeles; served as major general and corps commander of the Patriarchs Militant (the uniformed military branch of the Odd Fellows) for some time, having command of all the central western states; member Plymouth Congregational Church, Brooklyn, and afterwards of the First Church of Christ Scientist, Coronado, Calif.

Married September 29, 1869, in Neosho, Emma Maria, daughter of Henry Ferguson and Ann P. (McKinstry) Rouse. One daughter, Pearl Waneta (Mrs. Milton Everett Ridley); also had an adopted daughter, Mignon (Mrs. Sidney Franklin), the child of his wife’s sister. Mrs. Phelps died April 29, 1924.

Died after a short illness. Buried in Hollywood, Calif. Survived by daughter; adopted daughter; a brother, Lucius J. Phelps, of Los Angeles; and a sister, Miss Clara May Phelps, of Elmwood, Calif.

Born December 22, 1854, in Santa Fé, N. Mex.

Died April 19, 1924, in Hamden, Conn.

Father, James Josiah Webb; for many years a merchant in Santa Fé and in Chihuahua, Mexico, and later a farmer in Hamden; member of the Territorial Assembly of New Mexico in 1853, of the Connecticut Senate in 1863; served on the board of control of the Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station from its establishment until his death in 1889; son of Darius and Polly (Brown) Webb; descendant of Richard Webb, who came from Dorsetshire to Stamford, Conn., in 1626, and whose grandson, the Rev. Joseph Webb, was one of the founders of Yale. Mother, Florilla Mansfield (Slade) Webb; daughter of Asa and Susan (Mansfield) Slade. Yale relatives include Joseph Webb (B.A. 1715).
Winchester (Conn.) Institute and Hudson River Institute, Claverack, N. Y.; B.S. Massachusetts Agricultural College 1873 (member Phi Kappa Psi and Kappa Sigma); took courses in history and political science at Yale Graduate School 1873–74, engaged in business in New Haven 1874–75; studied in Yale School of Law 1875–77, graduating with honors; admitted to bar June, 1877; in the law office of William C. Robinson (Honorary M.A. 1881), who was then a professor in the Law School, 1877–1880; associated with James G. Clark, ’61, and Charles L. Swan, ’74, in the law firm of Clark, Swan & Webb 1880–83; in partnership with John W. Alling, ’62, under the firm name of Alling & Webb, 1883–1898; with Mr. Alling and Samuel C. Morehouse, ’85 L., in the firm of Alling, Webb & Morehouse 1898–1914; appointed to the Superior Court bench 1914; was senior judge in service at the time of his death; instructor in Yale School of Law 1895–1915 (in criminal procedure 1895–1910; also criminal law 1900–1910; in medical jurisprudence 1910–15); lecturer on medical jurisprudence from 1915 until his death; represented the Law School as a delegate to the Universal Congress of Lawyers and Jurists at St. Louis 1904; delegate to the International Congress of Lawyers in England 1910; member board of control of the Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station from 1892 until his death (served for several years on its executive and financial committees and as vice-president); was the Democratic candidate for Congress in 1898, but failed of election; member Connecticut Constitutional Convention 1902; became a Roman Catholic 1889; published an American edition of Kenny’s Outlines of Criminal Law in 1907, contributed an article on “Criminal Law and Procedure” to Two Centuries’ Growth of American Law, one of the Yale Bicentennial publications; member American Bar Association, International Law Association, American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology, American Judicature Society, and American Law Institute.

Married June 29, 1880, in Mount Carmel, Conn., Helen Melissa, daughter of James and Lucy (Candee) Ives. Seven children: James Ives (died August 22, 1911); Paul, ’15 L.; Henry Alling; Florilla Helena, ex-’11 Mus., the wife of Edward N. Gosselin, ’15 S.; Arthur Joseph, a non-graduate member of the Class of 1913 at Connecticut Agricultural College; Lucy Bernadette (Mrs. Charles S. Bell); and Thomas Augustine.

Death, due to septicaemia, followed an illness of six weeks.
Buried in St. Mary's Cemetery, Mount Carmel. Survived by wife, six children, and fifteen grandchildren.

Hadlai Austin Hull, LL.B. 1880.

Born August 22, 1854, in Stonington, Conn.
Died June 27, 1924, in New London, Conn.

It has been impossible to secure the desired information for an obituary sketch of Mr. Hull in time for publication in this volume. A biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.

William Lawrence Green, LL.B. 1883.

Born July 27, 1862, in Waterbury, Conn.
Died November 7, 1923, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Father, William Samuel Green; employed by the Ansonia Clock Company; ancestors came to Waterbury from Ireland.
Mother, Mary A. (Cahill) Green; daughter of John and Marie Cahill.

Early education received in public schools; studied at the Yale School of Law 1881-83; admitted to the bar in 1883 and practiced law in New Haven until 1898; member New Haven
Common Council 1892; practiced law in New York City (with Saita & Thiele; with Underwood, Vannast & Hoyt for three years); employed for twelve years in the Lawyers
Title & Trust Company and in the United States Guaranty Company, both of Jamaica, N. Y.; commissioned a Lieutenant in Company C, 2d Infantry, Connecticut National Guard, 1896; served in the Spanish-American War; member Roman Catholic Church.

Married (1) July 23, 1890, Annie E., daughter of John and Ellen Hennessy, of New Haven. No children. Mrs. Green died April 11, 1911. Married (2) Mary E. Casey. No children by that marriage.
Obituary Record

Death, due to general debility, followed an illness of several months. Interment in St. John's Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife.

Born March 26, 1866, in Cleveland, Ohio.
Died September 26, 1923, in Greenwich, Conn.

Father, Alexander Forbes, a teacher, lecturer, and author of educational books; born in Clatt, Aberdeenshire, Scotland; came to America in 1854; son of Nathaniel and Margaret (Souter) Forbes. Mother, Catherine Cleaver (Boyd) Forbes; daughter of John W. and Catharine (Cleaver) Boyd.

Preparatory training received at high schools in Cleveland and Chicago. LL.B. Northwestern University 1886. Attended Yale School of Law 1887-88.

Associated with legal department of Swift & Company, Chicago, 1888-1891; with N. W. Harris & Company, bankers of that city, 1891-1901 (became partner in firm 1899); in charge of New York office of company (since 1911 Harris, Forbes & Company) from 1901 until his death (senior member of firm and chairman board of directors since 1916); director Bankers Trust Company, United States Mortgage & Trust Company, and Mercantile Safe Deposit Company, all of New York, and Harris Trust & Savings Bank and Harris Safe Deposit Company of Chicago; trustee Teachers' Insurance and Annuity Association of America (Carnegie Foundation) and New York School of Applied Design; member New York Chamber of Commerce, Ohio Society, Illinois Society, and Protestant Episcopal Church; established the Allen B. Forbes Fund in Yale School of Law by a gift of $5,000 in 1921; increased it to $10,000 in 1923.

Married September 25, 1899, in Chicago, Laura Wells, daughter of Walter C. and Bertha Augusta (Hale) Hately. Three sons: Craig George, a member of the Yale Class of 1927, Allen Boyd, Jr. (died in 1909); and Gordon Cleaver.

Death due to acute dilatation of the heart. Interment in Putnam Cemetery, Greenwich. Survived by wife, two sons, parents, and two brothers, Robert R. Forbes and John A. Forbes.
Charles Herbert Peck, LL.B. 1888.
Born March 13, 1859, in Bridgeport, Conn.
Died December 14, 1923, in Stratford, Conn.

Father, James A. Peck; died in the service of his country (Private in the 2d Connecticut Light Battery) at Fairfax Court House, Va., April 23, 1863; son of Job and Mary A. Peck; descendant of Joseph Peck, who came to America from Hingham, England, and settled at New Haven, where he remained until 1649, when he moved to Milford, Conn. Mother, Sarah Anne (Hill) Peck; daughter of Luther Harmon and Agnes C. (Hull) Hill; descendant of Isaac Hill, who came to New Haven from England after 1740 and who served in the French and Indian Wars (1757–1760) and was a pensioner of the Revolutionary War. Yale relatives include the Rev. Nathan Birdseye (B.A. 1736).

Yale Academy, Yonkers, N. Y.; taught at Yonkers before entering the Yale School of Law in 1882; engaged in farming 1883–87; then reentered the Law School.

Admitted to Connecticut Bar 1888; practiced law in Stratford until his death; judge of Probate Court since 1896; trial justice in Town Court of Stratford for thirty-five years; member General Assembly 1907, 1909, and 1911 (house chairman of Committee on School Fund 1907, and of Committee on State Library 1909); for many years member Republican Town Committee; attended Congregational Church, Stratford.

Married July 18, 1886, in Ludlow Center, Mass., Florence Louise, daughter of Isaac and Celia (Burritt) Batterson. One son, Kenneth Birdseye.

Death due to throat trouble. Buried in Union Cemetery, Stratford. Survived by wife and son.

Henry Whittington Brant, LL.B. 1889.
Born April 29, 1865, in Hayesville, Ohio.

Father, Henry Brant, a merchant; son of Henry and Elizabeth Brant, who came to Hayesville from Mannheim, Germany. Mother, Nancy (Whittington) Brant; daughter of James and Elizabeth Whittington, who came to America from Wales and afterwards lived at Hayesville.

Vermilion Institute, Hayesville; B.A. Ohio Wesleyan 1885; assistant treasurer of Ashland County, Ohio (at Ashland), 1885–88; entered Yale School of Law 1888; Townsend prize.

Practiced law in Chicago 1889–1916; local attorney for New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad; assistant attorney for Chicago Union Traction Company; attorney for American Newspaper Publishing Association and Press Association of New York; receiver of American Building, Loan & Investment Society; moved to Vermejo Park, N. Mex., 1916, on account of health; afterwards resided in Ojai and South Pasadena, Calif.; served as manager of Arrow Head (Calif.) Red Cross Sanitarium for disabled soldiers of the World War; since 1922 had lived in Phoenix; member Hayesville Methodist Episcopal Church.

Unmarried.

Death due to tuberculosis. Buried in the village cemetery at Hayesville. Survived by three brothers, Rev. John F. Brant (B.A. Ohio Wesleyan 1873, M.A. 1876, B.D. Boston University 1875), of Newtonville, Mass., Austin C. Brant (M.D. Bellevue Medical School 1877), and Edmond D. Brant (M.D. Bellevue Medical School 1891), both of Canton, Ohio; and three sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Z. Boyant, of Brookline, Mass., Mrs. Florence Geidel, of Manitou, Colo., and Miss Effie E. Brant, of Hayesville.

George Woodburn Andrew, LL.B. 1891.

Born January 12, 1852, in Hartford, Conn.
Died September 25, 1922, in New Britain, Conn.

Father, John Andrew; worked for a manufacturing firm; born in Scotland; came to America soon after his marriage (about 1850) and settled at Hartford. Mother, Christina (Woodburn) Andrew; born in Scotland.

Received early education in public schools of East Hartford and New Britain; worked in a rule shop before entering Yale School of Law in 1889; received O. S. Seymour prize at graduation (LL.B. 1891, LL.M. 1892); admitted to the bar at Hartford June, 1891; practiced in the office of Judge
Thomas McManus of Hartford for a year, at same time taking graduate work in Law School and serving as assistant librarian of the Law Library; had practiced in New Britain since 1892; judge of City and Police Court 1895-99; clerk of that court and assistant prosecuting attorney 1902-1915; member of the Common Council for several terms; one of the founders and a director of the People's Savings Bank; director and counsel of the New Britain Co-operative Saving & Loan Association; one of the editors and publishers of the New Britain Daily News from its beginning until it changed hands; member South Congregational Church, New Britain (on its standing committee for several years).

Death, due to a cerebral hemorrhage, followed a long period of ill health from hardening of the arteries. Interment in Fairview Cemetery, New Britain. Survived by wife and a sister, Miss Marion Ann Andrew, of New Britain.

James Bernard Martin, LL.B. 1892.

Born May 11, 1864, in New Haven, Conn.
Died May 11, 1924, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, William Martin, a flour, grain, and feed merchant; son of James and Rose (Holdright) Martin; came to New Haven from Meath, Ireland, in 1854. Mother, Anne (Boyhan) Martin; daughter of Bernard Boyhan.

Hillhouse High School, New Haven; attended St. Charles College, Ellicott City, Md., in 1880 as a Junior; also studied in Troy, N. Y., for a time; upon his return to his home in New Haven took up newspaper work, being connected at various times with the editorial staffs of the New Haven News, the New Haven Union, and the New Haven Palladium; was a member of the Common Council in 1888 and 1889; studied in the Yale School of Law 1890-92, at the same time serving as assistant city clerk; admitted to the bar 1892 and practiced law in New Haven until elected mayor of New Haven on the Democratic ticket in 1907 (associated with Charles T. Coyle, '95 L., 1895-1907); served as city clerk in 1893 and 1894; after his term as mayor (1908–09) was appointed a Federal Income agent in the Internal Revenue service and held that position until ill health obliged him to retire in 1923; from 1910 to 1913 was also engaged independently in the practice of law; member Roman Catholic Church.

Married April 22, 1895, Frances, daughter of William and Catherine (Lynch) Martin, of New Haven. Two daughters, Elizabeth and Frances.

John Hone, LL.B. 1893.

Born August 9, 1870, at Guilford Point, Conn.
Died February 22, 1923, in New York City.

Father, John Hone (Honorary B.A. Columbia 1894, as of the Class of 1865), a stock broker; member of firm of John Hone & Company; governor of the New York Stock Exchange for several terms and a vice-president twice; served three terms on the Democratic State Committee of New Jersey; son of John and Jane Hazard (Perry) Hone; grandson of Commodore Matthew Calbraith Perry; grandnephew of Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry; descendant of Johann Hone, who came from England to New York in 1718. Mother, Mary (Crane) Hone; daughter of Augustus and Mary (Bolles) Crane; descendant of Jasper Crane, who came from Hampshire, England, in 1639 and settled at New Haven.

Fay School, Southboro, Mass.; Charler Institute, New York City; and St. Luke's School, Bustleton, Pa.; B.A. Princeton 1891 Studied in Yale School of Law 1891–93.

Was actively engaged in the practice of law in New York City 1893–1918 (associated with Lawrence E. Brown, ’93, under the firm name of Hone & Brown 1898–1906); during the war served as appeal agent for two draft boards in New York City for fourteen months, and then (October, 1918, to August, 1920) as a member of the War Trade Board in Washington; returned to New York City in April, 1922; afterwards resided in Wilton, Conn., for a time; during the last five months of his life lived in New York City, being ill in a hospital for seven weeks; member Protestant Episcopal Church.

Married November 28, 1918, in Nashville, Tenn., Mrs. Lulie Kirby Parrish, daughter of John Lewis and Mary Elizabeth Kirby. No children.

Death due to cancer of the throat. Buried in Morristown, N. J. Survived by wife; a stepson, Lew Kirby Parrish, of New York City; two brothers, Augustus C. Hone, of New York City, and Frederick deP. Hone (C.E. Rensselaer Polytechnic 1897), of Lyons Falls, N. Y.; and a half sister, Mrs. Henry G. Bartol, of New York City.

Michael John Byrne, LL.B. 1895.

Born October 3, 1872, in Graigue-Alug, County Carlow, Ireland.

Died May 2, 1924, in Waterbury, Conn.

Father, William Byrne, a farmer and mill owner; son of Patrick and Mary (Maher) Byrne. Mother, Elizabeth (Carroll) Byrne.

Early education received at the public school in Tinryland, County Carlow; attended the Royal University of Ireland; came to the United States in 1891; employed by the Waterbury Clock Company for a short time; engaged in bookselling from 1891 until he entered the Yale School of Law in 1893.

Admitted to the bar 1896; practiced law in Waterbury from 1896 until his death; judge of the Probate Court of the Waterbury district in 1909 and 1910, being the first Republican elected to that office in twenty years; member of the American Bar Association; had been admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court; served on the Waterbury School Board in 1897 and 1898; for two years was president and a director of the Independent Oil Men's Association of America, which he incorporated; had been a member of the executive committee of the Independent Petroleum Marketers' Association; at the time of his death was president of the National Company of Waterbury, manufacturers of seamless brass, copper, bronze, and nickel tubing (founded the company 1914; general manager 1914–1924), and president and treasurer of the Connecticut Oil Company of Waterbury, which he established in 1906, the Diamond Oil Company of Stamford, Conn., and the Columbus Building Corporation of Waterbury; during the World War served as a member of the National Petroleum War Service Committee and as chairman of the Oil Jobbers’ Committee, advisory to it, as government appeal agent for the local board, and as a Four-Minute Man; was the organizer and chairman of the house committee of the Republican Club of Waterbury; member Mattatuck Historical Society, Concordia Singing Society, Waterbury Council of the Boy Scouts of America, and Church of the Blessed Sacrament (Roman Catholic), Waterbury.

Married October 20, 1895, in Troy, N. Y., Susan Rosella, daughter of Patrick and Katherine (Curran) Kannaly. Seven children: William, ex-'19 S.; Edward Michael, who spent two years (1917-19) with the Yale Class of 1921 and received the degree of B.A. at the Catholic University of America in 1920; Elizabeth Kannaly (B.A. Smith 1922); Francis Carroll ex-'23; Townsend Matthew (B.A. Catholic University of America 1924); Louise Townsend; and James Thomas.

Death due to a sudden attack of heart disease. Buried in old St. Joseph’s Cemetery, Waterbury. Survived by wife; seven children; and five brothers: the Rev. James Byrne, P.P., of Carberry, County Kildare, Ireland; the Rev. Thomas J. Byrne, C.C., of Monastraven, County Kildare; the Rev. William Byrne, C.C., of Monntrath, Queen’s County; Daniel J. Byrne (M.D. 1909), of Mullinahone, County Tipperary; and Peter Byrne, of Graigue-Alug.

Samuel John Marsh, LL.B. 1895.

Born May 11, 1862, in Litchfield, Conn.
Died November 17, 1923, in Waterbury, Conn.

Father, Samuel Marsh, a farmer; son of Ebenezer and Elizabeth (Osborne) Marsh; descendant of Col. Ebenezer Marsh, an early settler of Litchfield, and of John Marsh, who came to America from England in 1635 and settled at Hartford, Conn. Mother, Elizabeth (Chipman) Marsh; daughter of John and Jerusha (Shaw) Chipman.
Received early education in public and private schools in Litchfield; after graduating from the high school spent two years on his father's farm; moved to Waterbury in 1883 and was engaged as a clerk for a mercantile firm; began the study of law in the office of Judge Charles W. Gillette of Waterbury; continued his law studies at the Cornell University Summer School in 1893; entered the Yale School of Law in the fall of that year (LL.B. 1895, LL.M. 1896); member Book and Gavel; practiced law in Waterbury 1895–1900 (associated with Judge Gillette); then appointed clerk of Superior Court of New Haven; was clerk of Waterbury Superior Court from 1900 until his death; represented Waterbury in General Assembly 1905–07 (member of judiciary committee); vestryman of Trinity Episcopal Church, Waterbury; member American Bar Association, Connecticut State Bar Association, Church Club of Connecticut, and Mattatuck Historical Society.

Married August 5, 1905, in Waterbury, Louise Adele, daughter of Julian Augustus and Sarah (Mead) Hubbard. No children.

Death due to myocarditis and angina pectoris. Buried in Riverside Cemetery, Waterbury. Survived by wife and a half sister, Mrs. Sarah V. Chipman, of Waterbury.

- Born April 6, 1865, in Dublin, Ireland.
- Died October 25, 1923, in Bridgeport, Conn.

Father, Peter Corr, a mechanic; son of Peter Corr. Mother, Mary Anne (Bourke) Corr; daughter of John R. and Ann (Cassidy) Bourke, of Dublin.

Came to America at the age of five years; received early education in the Bridgeport High School; engaged in business as an iron moulder at Bridgeport before entering the Yale School of Law in 1894.

Practiced law in Bridgeport from 1896 until his death, with the exception of seven years (1906–1913), when he practiced in New York City, where he was associated at one time with Mr. Ben O. Lowe; during last six years of his life was a member of the firm of Corr & Lyons; justice of the peace in Bridgeport 1898–1902; city clerk in 1892 and 1893; member Board of Health (1900–02), Police Board (1904), Board of Appraisal (1905–08), and Roman Catholic Church of the Sacred Heart, Bridgeport.

Married April 17, 1906, in New York City, Mary Edgar Roberta, daughter of Patrick and Margaret (O’Brien)
Condon. No children.

Death, due to heart failure, occurred while he was speaking at a Republican rally. Buried in St. Michael’s Cemetery, Stratford, Conn. Survived by wife; a sister, Mrs. Michael Royston, of Bridgeport; and two brothers, William P. Corr, of Bridgeport, and Edward J. Corr, of Chicago.

Burt Sydney Skinner, LL.B. 1904.

Born August 8, 1881, in Geneseo, Ill.
Died May 16, 1922, in Hamilton, Ohio.

Father, Charles Whitmore Skinner; engaged in the lumber business; son of Porter and Martha (Cook) Skinner; descendent of Thomas Skinner, who came from Chichester, England, to Malden, Mass., in 1650. Mother, Julia (Mirfield) Skinner; daughter of William and Mary (Cahill) Mirfield, who came from England to Canada in 1840 and seven years later moved from Hamilton, Ontario, to Davenport, Iowa; descendant of Thomas Mirfield, of Manchester, England.

Geneseo High School; attended Law School of the State University of Iowa from 1900 until 1903, when he entered Yale School of Law as a Senior; member Book and Gavel; after graduation was engaged in the machine tool business at Hamilton for seventeen years; member Episcopal Church, Geneseo.

Married January 21, 1914, in Hamilton, Virginia Marshall, daughter of George K. and Virginia Carter (Anderson)
Shaffer. Two sons, William Anderson and James Carter.

Died after an illness of six months. Interment in Greenwood Cemetery, Hamilton. Survived by wife, sons, and three brothers, James Gordon, Charles Porter, and Edward Stanley Skinner, all of whom reside in Moline, Ill.
Abraham Samuel Aaronson, LL.B. 1905.

Born June 15, 1883, in Griva, Russia.
Died August 20, 1923, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Samuel A. Aaronson; came to America from Russia in 1884; engaged in stationery business in Jersey City, N. J.; son of Sydney and Lotta (Levitt) Aaronson. Mother, Sadie (Swartz) Aaronson; daughter of Michael and Ruth (Brown) Swartz.

Early education received at Portland, Conn. Entered Yale School of Law 1902; president of Wayland Club for one term, and member of its executive committee Senior year.

Practiced law in New Haven and Ansonia from 1905 until his death; represented Ansonia in the General Assembly 1915 and 1916; member Ansonia Board of Education and Boards of Police and Fire Commissioners 1906-1916; during World War was a Four-Minute Man in various Liberty Loan campaigns; member Mishkan Israel Congregation.

Married September 4, 1905, in New York City, Elizabeth, daughter of Isaac and Ernestine (Tuck) Goldstein. Four daughters: Esther, Sylvia, Minerva, and Helen.

Death, following an operation for gallstones and appendicitis, occurred at Grace Hospital, New Haven. Buried in B'Nai Jacob Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife; four daughters; mother; three brothers, Michael S. Aaronson (M.D. New York University 1913), of Ansonia, Julius Aaronson, of Jersey City, and Louis Aaronson, of New Haven; and four sisters, Mrs. Ruth Weyler and Mrs. Ray Friedman, both of New Haven, Mrs. Rose Tobey, of New York, and Mrs. Sadie Salmon, of Ansonia.

James Dana Hart, LL.B. 1905.

Born November 2, 1882, in New Haven, Conn.
Died May 21, 1924, in New York City.

Father, Patrick Hart; born in County Sligo, Ireland; came to America in 1861; joined the police force of New Haven in 1871 and served until honorably retired in 1899; son of Patrick and Mary (Bree) Hart. Mother, Anne (Doyle)
Hart; daughter of Patrick and Winifred (McDermott) Doyle.

Hillhouse High School, New Haven; entered Yale School of Law 1902; member and, for one term, assistant treasurer of the Kent Club; won a Kent Club diploma for excellence in debate Senior year; member Wayland Club.

Practiced law in New Haven from 1905 until his death; was active in the Republican party, especially as a campaign speaker; member Board of Aldermen 1909–1911; during the World War was a Four-Minute Man (debarred from military service on account of lameness); member Roman Catholic Church, being a communicant of St. Mary's Church, New Haven.

Unmarried.

Death, due to double pneumonia, occurred at the Hotel McAlpin, New York City; had left New Haven a week before his death to attend to some legal business in New York and was taken ill the day after his arrival. Buried in St. Lawrence Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by a sister, Miss Mary E. Hart, of New Haven.

Gerald Freeman Sibley, LL.B. 1909.

Born August 30, 1887, in Jamestown, N. Y.
Died January 16, 1924, in Olean, N. Y.

Father, Fred Lyman Sibley; member of the Demcey & Sibley Company, cheese merchants of Cuba, N. Y.; vice-president of the Sibley-Almy Company, Inc.; son of Freeman Luther and Lucia Ann (Morgan) Sibley; descendant of John Sibley, who came to America from England in 1629 and settled at Salem, Mass. Mother, Estelle (Snow) Sibley; daughter of James Nelson and Rebecca (Beedy) Snow; descendant of Nathan Snow, who came to America from England in 1653 and settled at Florence, Mass.

Phillips-Andover; attended the Cornell Law School 1906–07, studied for two years in Yale School of Law; member Phi Alpha Delta.

Admitted to New York State Bar 1910, but had never practiced law; associated with Swift & Company of Chicago, in their produce sales department, 1909-1911; shipping clerk with Demsey & Sibley Company 1911-13; in 1914 established firm of G. F. Sibley & Company, wholesale dealers in cheese, butter, and eggs, in Olean; this became the Sibley-Almy Company, Inc., a coffee-roasting house, in 1921, and he continued as its president until his death.

Married February 3, 1917, in Olean, Amy Dorothy, daughter of Ambrose Everett Smith (B.S. Michigan Agricultural College 1881, M.D. Rush Medical College 1885) and Altie (Emerson) Smith. One daughter, Janet.

Death, due to arterial hypertension, occurred after an illness of more than five months. Buried in family plot in the Cuba Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughter, and mother.

Edward John McManus, LL.B. 1912.

Born September 28, 1886, in Wethersfield, Conn.
Died June 21, 1924, in Bridgeport, Conn.

Father, John James McManus, a mechanical engineer. Mother, Mary Ann (Doyle) McManus; daughter of James and Julia (Hanlon) Doyle.

Bridgeport High School; attended Williams College for three years (1906-09) as a member of the Class of 1910; entered Yale School of Law 1909; was a special student for two years and then a member of the Third Year Class; member Wayland Club and Phi Delta Phi.

Since 1912 had been independently engaged in the practice of law in Bridgeport; served as president of the Board of Aldermen during 1919-1920; member St. Peter’s Roman Catholic Church, Bridgeport.

Death due to nephritis; had been in ill health for a time, suffering from a complication of diseases. Buried in Mountain Grove Cemetery, Bridgeport. Survived by wife and mother.
Obituary Record

Louis Bondurant O'Shaughnessy, LL.B. 1912.

Born February 7, 1890, in Louisville, Ky.
Died March 10, 1924, in New York City.

Father, Louis O'Shaughnessy, a newspaper editor. Mother, Lucile (Bondurant) O'Shaughnessy.

Cutler School, New York City. Studied at Yale School of Law 1908-1912; chairman Cap and Gown Committee.

After graduation was with Harper's Weekly for a year; reporter for the New York World 1913-16; commissioned Assistant Paymaster in the Pay Corps, U. S. Naval Reserve Force, July 17, 1917, and assigned to the office of the Supervisor of Naval Auxiliaries, New York City; afterwards served as Ensign on the "Leviathan" and the "Finland"; was subsequently connected with the publicity department of the New York Hippodrome and with the Fox Film Corporation; for some time previous to his death had been engaged in selling securities.

Unmarried.

Death due to tuberculosis, following a long illness. Survived by his mother.
DIVINITY SCHOOL

Joel Stone Ives, B.D. 1874.

Born December 5, 1847, in Colebrook, Conn.
Died January 21, 1924, in Meriden, Conn.

Father, the Rev. Alfred Eaton Ives (B.A. 1837), a Congregational minister; son of Enoch and Sarah (Gorham) Ives; descendant of John Howland, of the "Mayflower," and of William Ives, who came from England to Quinnipiac in 1638 and was a founder of the New Haven Colony (two of his sons, John and Joseph Ives, gave three acres of land to Yale College). Mother, Harriet Platt (Stone) Ives; daughter of Richard and Mehetabel (Treat) Stone; descendant of Robert Treat, governor of Connecticut, and of John Stone, who came to Guilford, Conn., from England in 1610.

Castine (Maine) High School; B.A. Amherst 1870; member Amherst chapter Delta Kappa Epsilon; taught at the Railroad District School, West Meriden, Conn., 1870–71; studied at Yale Divinity School 1871–74.

Ordained to the Congregational ministry September 29, 1874, at East Hampton, Conn., where he remained as pastor until 1883; pastor of the First Congregational Church, Stratford, Conn., 1883–1899; during the last five years of his residence there was a director and trustee of the fund for ministers of the Missionary Society of Connecticut; served also as registrar of the Fairfield East Consociation for ten years (1888–1898), as moderator of the Connecticut State Association of Congregationalists in 1895 (was registrar and treasurer 1899–1914), as president of the Stratford Library Association from 1885 until 1899, and as a member of the school boards of East Hampton (1880–83) and Stratford (1889–1892); resigned pastorate at Stratford in October, 1899, to become secretary of the Missionary Society of Connecticut; held that office until April, 1915 (also treasurer 1909–1914); was registrar of the National Council of Congregational Churches for fifteen years (1900–1915), and treasurer of the Council from 1908 to 1915; home had been in Meriden since 1899; author of A History of the First Congregational Married July 15, 1874, in Meriden, Emma Sarah, daughter of Joel Ives and Sarah Ann (Hotchkiss) Butler. Five children: Anne Emma, Mabel Sarah (died in infancy), Joel Butler, Walter (died in infancy), and Dwight Stone.

1241

Death due to apoplexy. Interment in the Walnut Grove Cemetery, Meriden. Survived by wife, daughter, two sons, four grandchildren, and a brother, Alfred Eaton Ives (B.A. Amherst 1868), of Rockville Center, N. Y.

Solomon Melvin Coles, B.D. 1875.

Born February 21, 1844, in Petersburg, Va.
Died February 18, 1924, in Oberlin, Ohio.

Father, Charles P. Coles; mother, Nancy Coles; both slaves in the Pryor family of Dinwiddie County, Va.

Preparatory training was begun before the Civil War in the home of H. J. Heartwell, then sheriff of Dinwiddie County; after the war obtained work in Norfolk, Va., and earned enough money to go North; entered Guilford (Conn.) Institute in 1866, being the first colored youth to enter that school; in 1869 became a member of the Sophomore Class at Lincoln (Pa.) University; graduated (B.A.) in 1872, delivering the English salutatory address; received the degree of M.A. there two years later; attended Yale Divinity School 1872–75.

After graduation was engaged by the American Missionary Association to take charge of its church work in Charleston, S. C., but before going there was called to Brooklyn, N. Y., where he organized the Nazarene Congregational Church (the first Congregational church for colored people in Brooklyn); ordained in 1877 and installed pastor of the Congregational Church in Corpus Christi, Texas; preached and taught in the public school there until 1894; assisted in the organization of the Texas Teachers' Association in 1883 and was its first president; taught English, mathematics, and Latin in the public high school of San Antonio, Texas, from 1894 until 1914, when he was retired on a pension; held a first-grade teacher's life certificate in the state of Texas; during the last ten years of his life was not engaged in any occupation; resided with his daughter in Oberlin.

Married June 7, 1887, in New Orleans, La., M. Cornelia, daughter of William A. and Mary E. Lewis. Two children, Emma May (died in 1891), and Iphigenia C. (Mrs. Elmer S.
Bush). Mrs. Coles died September 6, 1891.

Death due to arterio-sclerosis and senile dementia. Interment in Westwood Cemetery, Oberlin. Survived by daughter.

Albert Barnes Irwin, B.D. 1875.

Born October 2, 1851, in Cherrytree, Pa.
Died February 5, 1924, in Ashland, Wis.

Father, John Irwin, a farmer; member Pennsylvania Militia; son of Samuel and Jane (Miller) Irwin; ancestors came from the north of Ireland early in the eighteenth century and settled in Pennsylvania and the Ohio valley.
Mother, Emily (Newton) Irwin; daughter of Jonas and Sarah Newton; descendant of a brother of Sir Isaac Newton, who came to New Hampshire from England at an early date.
Brother-in-law, the Rev. Isaac E. Carey (B.A. 1849).

Knox Academy; B.A. Knox College 1871, M.A. 1874; member Knox chapter Phi Gamma Delta; principal of the Wethersfield (Ill.) High School 1871-72; studied at McCormick Theological Seminary 1872-74 and at Yale Divinity School 1874-75; served under the American Missionary Association in Mobile, Ala., as principal of the Emerson Institute, a normal school for freedmen, 1875-77; ordained to the Presbyterian ministry in Nebraska City, Nebr., May 6, 1878; minister of the churches in Palmyra and Sterling, Nebr., 1877-1880; pastor of Presbyterian churches in Beatrice, Nebr. (1880-86), and Highland, Kans. (1887-1912); moderator of the Synod of Kansas in 1893; president of Highland College 1888–1890; held a professorship there 1891–1913 (professor of ethics and the Bible 1891–1907, of the Bible and history 1907–1910, of Latin and Greek 1910–13), member of board of trustees 1893–1911; pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Thermopolis, Wyo., 1913–19, also having charge of the English department in the local high school 1917–18; pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Gooding, Idaho, 1920–21; resided in Caldwell, Idaho, 1921–22; during that period supplied pulpits in Boise, Caldwell, and surrounding towns; at the time of his death was visiting his daughter at Lac du Flambeau, Wis.; in 1918 was secretary of the Hot Springs County (Wyo.) chapter of the American Red Cross; D.D. Emporia College 1903.

Married December 27, 1877, in Rockford, Ill., Loretta Elisabeth, daughter of Alexander and Jane (Crane) Hart. Six children: Ruth Hart (B.A. Highland 1898, M.A. Highland 1901), the wife of James W. Balmer; John (died in 1890); Helen (died in 1889); Fannie Talcott (B.A. Rockford 1904), who married Paul L Case; Ralph Alexis (B.A. Highland 1909); and Loretta Emily (B.A. Highland 1913, M.A. 1916), the wife of Horace R. Boone. Mrs. Irwin died April 19, 1917.

Death, which occurred in a hospital at Ashland, was due to a weakness of the heart, following an attack of influenza in 1921. Interment at Highland. Survived by son and three daughters.

Herbert Melville Tenney, B.D. 1876.

Born February 13, 1850, in Morristown, Vt
Died March 13, 1924, in Piedmont, Calif

Father, Daniel Webster Tenney, a carpenter; son of Thomas and Susan (Cheney) Tenney; descendant of Thomas Tenney, who came from Yorkshire, England, to Salem, Mass., in December, 1638, and the next year settled in Rowley, Mass. Mother, Henrietta (Powers) Tenney; daughter of Jonathan and Jerusha (Kimpton) Powers; descendant of Urias and Lucy (Wakefield) Powers.

Peoples Academy, Morrisville, Vt.; B.A. Middlebury 1873 (had the first Parker declamation, received the second Waldo prize and the philosophy prize, delivered the science oration, and was class poet; member Middlebury chapter of Delta Upsilon); studied in Yale Divinity School 1873-76; ordained to the Congregational ministry February 27, 1877, at Wallingford, Conn., where he was pastor from 1876 to 1885; pastor Madison Avenue Church, Cleveland, Ohio, 1885-89; instructor in English at the Case School of Applied Science 1888; pastor at Grinnell, Iowa, 1889-1891; and at San José, Calif., 1891-1903; was instrumental in establishing the Associated Charities and the University Extension Club of San José (president of both); originator of the San José Oratorio Society; secretary of the American Board for the Pacific Coast district (with headquarters in San Francisco) 1903-1913; also auditor for the Woman's Board of Missions 1903-1910; secretary and assistant manager of the San Monte Fruit Company in Watsonville, Calif., from 1913 until he retired from active business in 1923, only a few months before his death; founder and instructor of the Bethany Bible class of the First Christian Church, Watsonville; director of the Y.M.C.A. of Watsonville for five years and leader of the boys' activities; was very active in war relief work; established his home in Piedmont in 1923; had been president of the Musical Club there from 1910 to 1913; was elected a deacon of the First Congregational Church, Oakland, shortly before his death; D.D. Middlebury 1908.

Married (1) April 11, 1877, in Plymouth, N. H., Lilla M., daughter of the Rev. David Connell. Mrs. Tenney received the degree of M.D. from Hahnemann Medical College of the Pacific in 1902 and had been a practicing physician for some time before her death, which occurred on October 5, 1907. Married (2) December 3, 1908, in Piedmont, Jane, daughter of John and Margaret (Nalhwell) Coop. No children by either marriage.

Death due to heart failure. Interment in Mountain View Cemetery, Oakland. Survived by wife; a brother, Willis Ashton Tenney (M.D. University of Vermont 1877), of Granville, N. Y.; and two sisters, Mrs. James P. Davis, of Morrisville, Vt., and Charlotte Tenney David (B.L. Mount Holyoke 1894, B.A. Mount Holyoke 1902), the wife of Henri C. E. David (B.A. University of Chicago 1902), professor of French literature at the University of Chicago.
William Hamilton, B.D. 1877.

Died August 4, 1923, in Anna, Ill.

Father, Samuel Hamilton, a farmer; son of Robert Hamilton, who lived for a time in New Jersey and moved to the vicinity of Pittsburgh, Pa., in 1812. Mother, Juliann (Daly) Hamilton; daughter of Solomon Daly, who attended Jefferson College, and Elizabeth (Wykoff) Daly.

Prepared at the high school in Constantine, Mich.; B.A. Miami 1866 (received honors in the classics; member Beta Theta Pi); studied at McCormick Theological Seminary 1866–69; ordained to the Congregational ministry at Hyde Park, Mass., 1873; pastor in Springfield, Mass., 1873–76; studied at Yale Divinity School 1876–78; held pastorate at Hyde Park, Mass., 1878–79; pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Marion, Kans., 1879–1882; then gave up the ministry on account of ill health; sold Johnson’s Encyclopedia in Kansas, Indiana, and Michigan 1882–86; engaged in horticulture and farming at Benton Harbor, Mich., 1886–1906; during this time taught at Benton Harbor College (professor of Greek, Latin, and mathematics 1886–1890, and then professor of Latin, Greek, and horticulture); led a retired life in Goodhart, Mich., for eleven years; since 1919 had resided in Anna, Ill, with his daughter, a physician in the State Hospital; during Civil War served as Private in 167th Ohio Infantry; member Benton Harbor Episcopal Church.

Married November 21, 1870, at Hyde Park, Sarah Grimké, daughter of Theodore D. and Angelina Emily (Grimké) Weld. Four children: Angelina Grimké (M.D. Hahnemann Medical College 1897 and University of Michigan 1908); Theodore Weld; Josie (died in infancy); and William (died in childhood). Mrs. Hamilton died January 29, 1899.

Death due to chronic myocarditis. Interment in Crystal Springs Cemetery, Benton Harbor. Survived by son and daughter.
George Herbert Cate, B.D. 1878.
Born December 20, 1851, in Wolfeboro, N. H.
Died May 20, 1924, in West Newton, Mass.

Father, Moses Thompson Cate, a shoe manufacturer; son of Daniel and Mary (Willey) Cate; descendant of Neal Cate, a Revolutionary soldier, and of James Cate, who, according to tradition, came from England in 1680 and settled at Greenland, N. H. Mother, Mary Ann (Morrison) Cate; daughter of Dr. John Morrison and Mary (Randall) Morrison.

Wolfeboro and Tuftonboro Academy; B.A. Harvard 1874, member Phi Beta Kappa; during 1874-75 studied law with William C. Fox in Wolfeboro; attended Yale Divinity School 1875-78.

Pastor of the Congregational Church at Essex, Conn., 1878-1880, his ordination taking place there on April 2, 1878; studied theology at Leipsic University and traveled in Europe, Egypt, and the Holy Land 1880-82; pastor of the Collinsville (Conn.) Church 1882-85, of the Mayflower Congregational Church in Minneapolis, Minn., 1885-87, and afterwards of Congregational churches in Traverse City, Mich. (1887-88), Cheboygan, Mich. (1889-1891), and Bloomington, Ill. (1891-93); assistant minister of the Shawmut Congregational Church, Boston, 1894-98; district secretary of the American Tract Society at Boston 1898-1903; secretary of the Health-Education League of Boston 1904-1919, retiring from active work in 1914; since 1893 had resided in West Newton; member of the Congregational Church there since 1898, having previously been a member of the First Congregational Church in Wolfeboro, with which he united in 1875.

Married July 11, 1882, at Jersey City Heights, N. J., Lois Chase, daughter of Sheridan P. and Olivia F. (Smith) Read. Four children: Sheridan Read (B.A. Harvard 1906, LL.B. Harvard 1910); Herbert Addison (died in 1897); Dudley Chase (died in 1905); and Olivia.

Death followed an operation on the gall bladder. Buried in Newtonville, Mass. Survived by wife; daughter; son; a sister, Mrs. M. E. Skinner, of Corning, Calif.; and a brother, Arthur T. Cate (B.L. Dartmouth 1885, M.D. Dartmouth 1893), of Washington, D. C.

Born February 12, 1848, in Perryopolis, Pa.
Died October 4, 1923, in Gorham, Maine.

Father, the Rev. Isaac Hague, an ordained minister of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, in later life a farmer; son of Isaac and Rebecca (Jeffers) Hague; descendant of Francis Hague, who came from England to Lambertville, N. J, in 1699. Mother, Mary Ann (Crawford) Hague; daughter of William and Charlotte (Laing) Crawford.

Galesburg (Ill.) High School; during his last year in school enlisted (February 11, 1865) in Company F, 148th Illinois Volunteer Infantry; served until the close of the war; B.A. Knox 1871; member Knox chapter of Phi Gamma Delta; principal of Granville (Ill.) High School 1871-72; instructor in Greek and Latin at Knox Academy and Knox College 1872-73, giving up that position on account of his parents' health; was engaged in the care of his father's farm in Galesburg 1873-75; taught Greek, Latin, and German at Rock River Seminary 1875-76; attended Yale Divinity School 1876-1880.

Was minister of the Tabernacle Church, St. Joseph, Mo., for four months in 1880; ordained to the Congregational ministry September 30, 1880, at South Bridgton, Maine, remaining as pastor for seven years; pastor of Congregational Church, New Haven, Vt., 1887-1890, of the Pilgrim Church, Springfield, Mo., during the summer and fall of 1890, and at South Bridgton 1890-1903, general missionary for Maine Missionary Society 1903-09; pastor of churches in North Waterford, East Stoneham, and Albany, Maine, 1909-1913; served unofficially as district missionary at intervals until the last year of his life, aiding churches in Jackman, Litchfield, and many other places, D.D. Knox 1921; commander John R. Adams Post, G. A. R.; member and deacon emeritus of First Parish Church, Gorham, Maine, where he had made his home during the last twenty years of his life.

Married June 21, 1883, in Redding, Conn., Abbie Bartlett, daughter of Judge Lemuel Sanford and Abby Maria (Hill) Sanford, and a sister of Alice Sanford Hill, who received a certificate from the Yale School of the Fine Arts in 1882, and whose husband, W. Barlow Hill, graduated from the Sheffield Scientific School in 1886. Five children: William Bailey, Jr., a non-graduate member of the Class of 1911 at Knox College; Mary Russell (B.A. Wellesley 1907); Abbie Sanford (B.A. Colby 1909), the wife of Carl Orestes Warren; Arthur Bartlett, '14; and Albert Hill, '14 S.

Death due to progressive muscular atrophy. Interment in Eastern Cemetery, Gorham. Survived by wife, three sons, two daughters, and five grandchildren.

Lanman James Nettleton, B.D. 1879.

Born November 10, 1854, in Lewis Center, Ohio.
Died September 6, 1923, in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Father, the Rev. James Albert Nettleton, a Congregational minister; attended Mount Union Seminary, Alliance, Ohio; son of Nathan and Hannah (Wheeler) Nettleton; descendant of John Nettleton, who came to America from England in the seventeenth century. Mother, Frances Maria (Hodges) Nettleton; daughter of Joseph and Clarissa (Perkins) Hodges; descendant of Peregrine White of the “Mayflower” company.

B.A. Oberlin 1875; studied at Oberlin Theological Seminary 1875–76 and 1877–78, and at Yale Divinity School 1876–77 and 1878–79.

Professor of Latin at Tabor College 1879–1888 (also treasurer in 1886); cashier of First National Bank, Tabor, Iowa, 1888–1903; served for one term as mayor of Tabor, was a councilman, held other municipal offices, and participated prominently in local enterprises; often acted as a supply pastor and was otherwise active in church circles, but never entered the ministry as a career; engaged in mining and brokerage in Salt Lake City from 1903 until his death; wrote much poetry in the latter part of his life, a portion of which was published; member Congregational Church in Tabor.

Married August 13, 1879, in Clyde, Ohio, Mary Eliza, daughter of Albert James and Dinah (Hooper) Guinall. Three children: Claude James (died November 29, 1918); Ethel May (Mrs. Butler Bayard Ramey); and Leigh Lanman (LL.B. George Washington University 1912, LL.M. 1921).

Death due to a paralytic stroke. Interment in Mount Olivet Cemetery, Salt Lake City. Survived by wife, daughter, son, two grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. George H. Booth, of Lake City, Minn.

David Espey Todd, B.D. 1882.

Born November 1, 1852, in Springfield, Ohio. Died December 20, 1923, in Jacksonville, Fla.

Preparatory training received in Jacksonville, Ill.; B.A. Illinois College 1877; attended Yale Divinity School 1877-78 and 1880-82; pastor at Glendive, Mont., 1883-86 (ordained to the Congregational ministry at Morton, Ill., September 16, 1883), his subsequent pastorates were at White Cloud, Kans. (1886-88), Highland, Kans. (1883-1893), Cameron, Mo (1893-98), Payson, Ill. (1898-1908), Forrest, Ill. (1908-1911), Dunkirk, Ind. (1911-12), Stillman Valley, Ill. (1912-18), Summer Hill, Ill. (1918-1921), and Denver, Ill. (from 1921 until his death).

Samuel Whitney Delzell, B.D. 1884.

Born August 6, 1853, in Henderson, Mo. Died February 1, 1924, in Chester, Conn.

Father, the Rev. Andrew Davis Delzell, a Presbyterian minister; son of David D. Delzell; ancestors came to Louisiana from Alsace. Mother, Elizabeth (Sayers) Delzell; daughter of William Cecil and Letticia (Laird) Sayers; granddaughter of John Sayers, a Revolutionary soldier; ancestors came from Germany to Virginia.
Preparatory training received in native town; B.A. Drury 1881; attended Yale Divinity School 1881–84; ordained to the Presbyterian ministry at Springfield, Mo., in March, 1879; pastor of Congregational churches at Lamar, Mo. (1884–86), Brookfield, Mo. (1886–87), San Jacinto, Calif. (1887–89), and Newtown, Conn. (1889–1893); pastor of Baptist churches at Moosup, Conn. (1893–99), Clinton, Conn. (1899–1904), Hebronville, Mass. (1904–1911), Union City, Conn. (1911–16), and Chester, Conn. (from 1916 until his death).

Death due to angina pectoris. Interment in the Moosup cemetery. Survived by wife; three sons; three brothers, William David and John Milton Delzell, both of Rogersville, Mo., and Finis Ewing Delzell, of Cornwall Bridge, Conn.; and a sister, Mrs. Margaret Beattie, of Rogersville.

Cyrus Daniel Harp, B.D. 1885.

Born February 8, 1858, in Benevola, Md.
Died June 28, 1923, in Providence, R. I.

Father, the Rev. Joshua Harp, a minister of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ; also engaged in farming; son of John and Elizabeth (Doub) Harp; descendant of John Harp, who came to America from Germany or Holland and settled in Maryland. Mother, Magdalene (Wolf) Harp; daughter of John and Elizabeth (Miller) Wolf; ancestors came to America from England and settled in Maryland.

Prepared at public schools in Benevola and Harmony Hill, Md.; B.A. Lebanon Valley College 1880; engaged in teaching at Coal Hollow and White Hall, Md., 1880–82; studied at Yale Divinity School 1882–85.

Ordained as minister of the Church of the United Brethren
February 21, 1886; pastor at Columbia, Pa., 1886-88; studied at Harvard 1888-1890 (B.A. 1890); pastor of Congregational churches in Duxbury, Mass. (1890-92) and Rehoboth, Mass. (1892-95); resided without charge in East Providence, R. I., 1895-99; pastor Second Congregational Church, Baltimore, Md., 1899-1900; was instrumental in organizing mission church in Meshanticut Park (now a part of Cranston), R. I., July 11, 1900, and served that church while engaged in business; for many years agent at Providence for Travelers Insurance Company of Hartford; served as supply for many Rhode Island churches, and also for churches in Connecticut, Maine, and New Hampshire; member Providence School Committee 1911-13; member Rhode Island Legislature 1912-13.

Death due to apoplexy. Interment in Benevola. Survived by wife and children.

Albert President Miller, B.D. 1885.

Born March 15, 1855, in Ripley, Miss
Died August 13, 1923, in Jersey City, N. J.

Father, Thomas Miller, a farmer; son of Lucy Miller. Early education received at Fisk University (B.A. 1878); ordained at Nashville, Tenn., February 16, 1878; sent to Africa as a foreign missionary, remaining there three years, traveled in England in 1881, making addresses in interests of missionary work in Africa; attended Yale Divinity School 1881-82 and 1883-85; during 1882-83 engaged in preaching and teaching at Lake City, Fla.; pastor Dixwell Avenue Congregational Church, New Haven (1885-1896), of Lincoln Memorial Church, Washington, D. C. (1896-1901), of Lincoln Memorial Congregational Church, Grand Rapids, Mich (1901-03), of Fifth Avenue African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, Jersey City, N. J. (1903-06), of African John Morris James, B.D. 1887.

Born August 25, 1861, in Talybont, Wales
Died November 25, 1918, in Ivanhoe, Victoria, Australia.

Father, Richard James, a manager of mines in Queensland, Australia. Mother, Mary (Morris) James.

Preparatory training received at the grammar school in Aberystwith, Wales; attended Brecon College, Wales; studied at Yale Divinity School 1884–87.

Returned to England after leaving Yale; shortly afterwards received a call to the pastorate of the Brighton Road Congregational Church in Brisbane, Queensland; ordained there in 1888 and remained until 1892; pastor of the Broadway Street Congregational Church in Brisbane 1892–96, and of the Congregational Church in Geelong, Victoria, 1896–1900; then joined the Presbyterian Church and was minister at Lilydale, Victoria, for nine years, and at Ivanhoe from 1910 until his death.

Married in Rosewood, Queensland, Elizabath, daughter of Joseph and Dinah (Sanderson) Hudson. Two children:
Marie Morris, the wife of Capt. P. M. Leckie, R.F.A., and Emrys Hudson, who is a student at Melbourne University.

Death due to a malignant growth. Buried in Heidelberg Cemetery, Ivanhoe. Survived by wife; children; a brother, Richard James, and a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Jones.

John Edward Herman, B.D. 1888.

Born September 28, 1860, in Warsaw, N. Y.
Died January 14, 1924, in Buffalo, N. Y.

Father, Daniel Herman, a farmer, who came from Germany to Warsaw about 1848. Mother, Christine (Miller) Herman; daughter of John and Christine Miller.

Warsaw High School; was engaged in farming and preaching at Warsaw and Syracuse, N. Y., before entering Yale Divinity School in 1885; student in Yale Graduate School 1888-89; afterwards studied at University of Leipsic (Ph.D. 1891), instructor in German at Chicago Theological Seminary 1891-94, ordained at Plainville, Conn., 1895, and served the church there for four years; pastor at Milford, N. H., 1900-06; studied at the University of Colorado for a year (LL.B. 1907), minister and attorney at law in New Preston, Conn., 1907-1910, also enrolled in Yale Graduate School for a year (1908-09), pastor of Congregational churches in Clarkson, N. Y. (1911-12), and Antwerp, N. Y. (1913-16); supplied churches at Cincinnati, Ohio, and Niagara Falls, N. Y., 1916-18, resided in Newfane, N. Y., 1918-1922; in 1923 was the stated supply of the Wright's Corners Presbyterian Church, Lockport, N. Y.

Married in 1889, in New Haven, to Caroline Ramsdell. Four children: Ralph E., Mabel, Ruth, and Esther.

Death followed an operation for kidney trouble. Buried at Wright's Corners. Survived by children; five brothers, Rev. Frederick W. Herman, ex.'95 D., Daniel Herman, of Warsaw, George and Earnest Herman, of Buffalo, and Charles Herman, of Los Angeles, Calif.; and six sisters, Mrs. Louisa Siegwuld, of Warsaw, Mrs. Christine Foster, Miss Katie Herman, and Mrs. Dora Oberley, all of whom live in Buffalo, Miss Martha Herman, of Oriskany, N. Y., and Mrs. George Eberling, of Syracuse.
Reginald Victor Bury, B.D. 1893.

Born May 12, 1866, in Dublin, Ireland.

Father, Charles Michael Bury, a magistrate and land owner; son of David and Eleanor Bury. Mother, Margaret (Aylmer) Bury; daughter of John and Margaret Susan Aylmer.

Attended Dublin High School; went to Canada in 1882 and was engaged in farm work in Quebec; came to the United States in 1888 and the next year entered the Mount Hermon (Mass.) School, where he remained until he entered the Yale Divinity School as a Senior in 1892; student at St. Stephen’s College, Annandale, N. Y., 1893–94, receiving the degree of B.D.; ordained as a deacon in the Episcopal Church 1894; attended the General Theological Seminary, New York City, 1895–96, and was subsequently ordained to the priesthood; curate of St. Paul’s Church, Glenageary, Dublin, 1896–1905, also serving as association secretary to the Mission of the Seamen’s Society for Ireland; chaplain to the Port of Dublin 1905–07; rector of Inch, County Wexford, 1907–09; curate of St. Luke’s Church, Belfast, 1909–1910, and of St. Mary Magdalene Church in the same city 1910–11; went to England and became curate of Christ Church, Barnet, where he remained until 1914; in charge (as curate) of All Saints’ Church, Preston-on-Tees, in Holy Trinity Parish, Stockton-on-Tees, 1914–18; vicar of Stillington from 1918 until his death.

Death due to heart failure. Interment in Stillington Churchyard. Survived by wife; daughter; two sisters, Madame Rafinesque, of Paris, and Mrs. Evelyn Owen, of Edmonton, Frank Park, B.D. 1894.

Born December 27, 1863, in Viola, Ill
Died October 16, 1923, in Clinton, Conn.

Father, Samuel Park, a farmer; son of John and Elizabeth Park. Mother, Barbara A. (Menold) Park; daughter of Jacob and Ann (Brenner) Menold, ancestors came to America from Germany and settled at Lancaster, Pa.

Viola High School; attended Monmouth College; B.A. Iowa State University 1889; engaged in teaching English in the Viola High School 1889–1890; attended Yale Divinity School 1890–94; ordained to Congregational ministry at East Taunton, Mass., July 16, 1895; pastor there for two years; pastor at Beechwood, Mass. (1897–98), Cohasset, Mass. (1898–1905), Boscawen, N. H. (1905–1912), and Clinton, Conn. (1913–1922), caretaker at the Stanton House (a museum in Clinton) from 1922 until his death.

Death due to Bright's disease. Buried in Indian River Cemetery, Clinton. Survived by wife; two brothers, Lewis L. Park, of Viola, and Arthur N. Park, of Redwood Falls, Minn., and seven sisters, Mrs. F. W. Streeter, of New Windsor, Ill., Miss Mamie Park, Mrs. A. G. Frakes, Mrs. J. S. Hamilton, and Mrs. W. C. Russell, all of Viola, Mrs. C. L. Breckenridge, of Redwood Falls, Minn., and Mrs. E. R. Frazier, of Wall Lake, Iowa.
Warren Daniels Bigelow, B.D. 1902.

Born November 20, 1875, in Boston, Mass.
Died April 9, 1923, in Roxbury, Mass.

Father, Calvin Bigelow; overseer in the Metropolitan Street Car service of Boston; son of Calvin and Elizabeth (Adams) Bigelow; ancestors came to America from England in 1635 and settled at Needham, Mass. Mother, Lucy (Daniels) Bigelow; daughter of Paul and Eliza (Breck) Daniels; descendant of Robert Daniels, who came to Watertown, Mass., from England in 1632. Uncle, Joseph L. Daniels (B.A. 1860).

Roxbury Latin School; B.A. Harvard 1898, M.A. 1899; studied at Yale Divinity School 1899–1902.

Ordained to Congregational ministry at Guilford, Conn., October 2, 1902; remained there as pastor 1902–1910; studied at Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge, 1910–11; ordained as an Episcopal minister at Arlington, Mass., December 3, 1911; rector St. Peter's Church, Jamaica Plain, Mass., 1911–19; at time of death a non-parochial clergyman, on staff of St. Paul's Cathedral, Boston, with residence at Roxbury.

Married August 14, 1918, in Duxbury, Mass., Maud Amelia, daughter of Erastus Bertrand and Amelia (Spencer) Sampson. No children.

Death due to pneumonia. Interment at Millis, Mass. Survived by wife and a sister, Miss Eliza Breck Bigelow, of New York City.

Elmer Edwin Burtner, B.D. 1909.

Born October 31, 1881, at Mount Clinton, Va.
Died September 27, 1923, in Westerville, Ohio

Father, the Rev. William Henry Burtner, a minister of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ; son of Henry and Margaret (Stottler) Burtner; descendant of George Burtner. Mother, Fannie (Paul) Burtner; daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth (Whitmore) Paul. Cousin, D. Emory Burtner (B.D. 1890).
Preparatory training received at Shenandoah Institute, Dayton, Va.; B.A. Otterbein 1906; while in college was pastor of churches of the United Brethren in Logan and Franklin, Ohio; studied at Yale Divinity School 1906-09 (member Book and Bond); pastor First Congregational Church, Derby, Conn., 1909-1910, at the same time studying philosophy in Yale Graduate School (M.A. 1910); pastor First Congregational Church, Missoula, Mont. (1910-13), of Pilgrim Church, Spokane, Wash. (1913-14), and of First Church of the United Brethren, Westerville, Ohio (the college church of Otterbein College), from 1914 until his death, D.D. Otterbein 1918; served on numerous important committees in South East Conference of Church of United Brethren; on staff of speakers of Interchurch World Movement, president and secretary Ministerial Association of Westerville; member Westerville Chamber of Commerce.

Henry Rufus Rose, B.D. 1923.

Born August 15, 1892, in Covington, Tenn.
Died September 29, 1923, in Canandaigua, N. Y.

Father, Henry Rufus Rose, head of the firm of H. R. Rose & Company, wholesale feed and grain dealers; son of Anderson and Sarah Francis (Cobb) Rose; descendant of John Rose, who came to America from Ireland and settled at Raleigh, N. C. Mother, Nettie (Waddell) Rose; daughter of James Waddell, Jr., and Amanda Louise (Ganse) Waddell; descendant of James Waddell, who lived in North Carolina.

Preparatory training received at Tipton County High School, Covington; in the United States mail service as a rural free delivery carrier at Covington 1910-13; attended the theological department of Vanderbilt University 1913-14; B.A. Emory 1917; pastor Highland Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, Memphis, Tenn., 1917-19; pastor First Methodist Episcopal Church, Lexington, Ky., 1919-1921 (ordained at Memphis November 17, 1920); attended Yale Divinity School 1921-23; during this time served as pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Clinton, Conn.; also engaged in social service work at Davenport Settlement House, New Haven, and as supervisor at the Branford (Conn.) cottage, conducted by the Register Fresh Air Fund of New Haven.

Married December 6, 1918, in Memphis, Lula, daughter of William Gabriel and Elenora (Greenlaw) Lea. No children.

He and his wife were instantly killed when a New York Central Railroad train hit their automobile at a blind crossing. Buried in Memphis. Survived by parents and two brothers, William Leonard Rose, of Covington, and James Anderson Rose, of Tampa, Fla.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Class</th>
<th>Name and Age at Death</th>
<th>Places of Birth and Death</th>
<th>Date of Death</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1856</td>
<td>Augustus H Walker, 89</td>
<td>Fryeburg, Maine, Bridgton, Maine</td>
<td>June 16, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1857</td>
<td>Stephen D Doar, 85</td>
<td>St. James, S C, McClellanville, S C.</td>
<td>January 29, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1857</td>
<td>Simeon Taylor Frost, 92</td>
<td>Pleasant Valley, N. Y, Mount Vernon, N. Y. Jefferson County, Miss</td>
<td>November 28, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1857</td>
<td>James P. Green, 87</td>
<td>Towanda, Pa ; Clark's Summit, Pa</td>
<td>May 13, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1858</td>
<td>Edward T Elliott, 87</td>
<td>East Brookfield, Mass, Washington, D. C.</td>
<td>March 29, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1861</td>
<td>Isaac S. Lyon, 86</td>
<td>Amherst, N. H, Hollywood, Calif.</td>
<td>October 8, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1862</td>
<td>Frederic Adams, 82</td>
<td>Port Byron, N. Y, Hartford, Conn.</td>
<td>July 24, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1862</td>
<td>Charles N Ross, 80</td>
<td>Fort Moultrie, S C, New York City</td>
<td>November 24, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1863</td>
<td>Edward L Keyes, 80</td>
<td>Northampton, Mass, Los Angeles, Calif.</td>
<td>January 24, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1863</td>
<td>James B. Mitchell, 83</td>
<td>East Hartford, Conn, Hartford, Conn.</td>
<td>May 25, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1864</td>
<td>William A. Ayres, 82</td>
<td>Franklin, N. Y, Massillon, Ohio</td>
<td>December 8, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1864</td>
<td>Theodore Fitch, 79</td>
<td>Bridgeport, Conn; Stanford University, Calif.</td>
<td>November 15, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1864</td>
<td>George F Lewis, 80</td>
<td>New Hartford, N. Y, New York City</td>
<td>June 25, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1864</td>
<td>Charles F. MacLean, 82</td>
<td>Philadelphia, Pa, Bryn Mawr, Pa.</td>
<td>March 20, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1864</td>
<td>G. Colesberry Purves, 79</td>
<td>Jamestown, N. Y, Nebraska City, Nebr.</td>
<td>December 5, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1864</td>
<td>Edwin F. Warren, 81</td>
<td>Granby, Conn ; New Brighton, N. Y.</td>
<td>July 9, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1865</td>
<td>Marshall R. Gaines, 84</td>
<td>Norwich, N Y ; Elsinore, Calif.</td>
<td>June 16, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1865</td>
<td>Julius A. Hoag, 83</td>
<td>Townsend, Vt, Chicago, Ill.</td>
<td>October 28, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1866</td>
<td>James T. Graves, 82</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>October 11, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1866</td>
<td>F. Thornton Hunt, 77</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>June 8, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1866</td>
<td>Frederick S. Thompson, 80</td>
<td>Brookfield, Conn ; Brookline, Mass.</td>
<td>November 14, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1867</td>
<td>Albert E. Dunning, 79</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill.</td>
<td>January 29, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1868</td>
<td>George Manierre, 78</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
1868 Mase S. Southworth, 76
1869 Henry H. Burnham, 78
1869 William H. Hinkle, 77
1869 George H. Lawrence, 75
1869 John M. Thayer, 76
1869 Eli Whitney, 77
1870 George Chase, 74
1870 E. Jay Edwards, 76
1870 George L. Huntress, 76
1870 Samuel R. Morrow, 74
1871 Albert P. Bradstreet, 77
1871 John A. Himes, 75
1871 Charles D. Hinle, 78
1871 James H. Hoffecker, Jr., 73
1872 Russell Chapman, 73
1872 Dwight N. Prentice, 75
1872 John P. Slocum, 75
1872 Charles C. Stearns, 73
1872 David M. Totman, 75
1873 Willis F. McCook, 72
1873 Philander J. Mallory, 72
1875 Charles L. Noyes, 71
1875 Henry M. Walradt, 71
1876 Stanley Dwight, 69
1876 Rufus B. Smith, 69
1877 Edgar B. Buffum, 68
1877 William Hurley Clark, 68
1877 Israel T. Cowles, 68
1877 George F. Shelton, 66

West Springfield, Mass; Springfield, Mass.
Coventry, R. I.; Baltimore, Md.
Cincinnati, Ohio; Clifton Springs, N. Y.
Keevillesville, N. Y.; Milwaukee, Wis.
New Boston, Conn.; Norwich, Conn.
New Haven, Conn.
Portland, Maine, New York City
Norwich, Conn., Greenwich, Conn.
Lowell, Mass; Boston, Mass.
Albany, N. Y.
Thomaston, Conn.
McAllisterville, Pa.; Gettysburg, Pa.
Fairhaven, Vt.; Winsted, Conn.
New Haven, Conn.; San Diego, Calif.
Mystic, Conn., Fairfield, Conn.
Delphi, N. Y., Albany, N. Y.
Lunenburg, Vt.; La Jolla, Calif.
Freetown, N. Y.; Syracuse, N. Y.
New Lisbon, Ohio, Pittsburgh, Pa.
Corning, N. Y.; Los Gatos, Calif.
Ceylon, India, Yokohama, Japan
Northbridge, Mass.; Whitman, Mass.
New York City
Cincinnati, Ohio
Great Falls, N. H., Watertown, Mass.
Bloomsburg, Pa.; near Bowling Green, Fla.
Belchertown, Mass.; Detroit, Mich.
Southbury, Conn.; Butte, Mont.

May 1, 1924
May 28, 1924
November 18, 1923
October 22, 1923
January 13, 1924
June 12, 1924
January 8, 1924
April 25, 1924
March 24, 1924
February 24, 1924
October 12, 1923
August 11, 1923
August 27, 1923
January 18, 1924
February 27, 1924
March 7, 1924
August 23, 1923
May 25, 1924
December 17, 1923
August 5, 1923
July 30, 1923
August 8, 1923
November 16, 1923
April 20, 1924
December 18, 1923
April 11, 1924
March 9, 1924
October 30, 1923
August 22, 1923
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Class</th>
<th>Name and Age at Death</th>
<th>Places of Birth and Death</th>
<th>Date of Death</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td>William W. Green, 68</td>
<td>Clifton, Ohio, Santa Barbara, Calif.</td>
<td>February 4, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td>George T. Knott, 69</td>
<td>Kiotto, Japan, Koyado, Magome, Japan&lt;br&gt;New Haven, Conn.&lt;br&gt;New York City</td>
<td>May 14, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td>Inajiro T. Tajiri, 68</td>
<td>Rockville, Conn., West Hartford, Conn.&lt;br&gt;Ripley, N. Y., Miami, Fla</td>
<td>August 14, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>Ward W. Bailey, 66</td>
<td>Exeter, N. H., New York City&lt;br&gt;Honesdale, Pa.; New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>February 23, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>W. Livingston Bruen, 66</td>
<td>Newington, Conn., Nyack, N. Y.&lt;br&gt;New York City</td>
<td>October 24, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>Lucien F. Burpee, 68</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; Omaha, Nebr.</td>
<td>May 9, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>Conrad Berens, 64</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.; Omaha, Nebr.</td>
<td>October 6, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>Nathaniel Gordon, 64</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.; Omaha, Nebr.</td>
<td>July 2, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>Frederic W. Keator, 68</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.; Omaha, Nebr.</td>
<td>January 31, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>Heman C. Whittlesey, 66</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.; Omaha, Nebr.</td>
<td>December 13, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>Nathaniel C. Fisher, 63</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.; Omaha, Nebr.</td>
<td>November 7, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>Henry Ives, 64</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.; Omaha, Nebr.</td>
<td>January 31, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>Calvin S. McChesney, 66</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.; Omaha, Nebr.</td>
<td>February 1, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>Frederick Seymour, 67</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.; Omaha, Nebr.</td>
<td>May 29, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>William R. Walker, 65</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.; Omaha, Nebr.</td>
<td>October 14, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882</td>
<td>Henry C. Jefferds, 62</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.; Omaha, Nebr.</td>
<td>July 22, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882</td>
<td>Nelson W. Bell, 64</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.; Omaha, Nebr.</td>
<td>June 13, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>Albert Carr, 65</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.; Omaha, Nebr.</td>
<td>June 18, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>Francis D. Chamberlain, 64</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.; Omaha, Nebr.</td>
<td>February 7, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>Stephen L. Geishardt, 62</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.; Omaha, Nebr.</td>
<td>February 18, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>Sidney W. Hopkins, Jr., 61</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.; Omaha, Nebr.</td>
<td>August 7, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>Paul E. Jenks, 61</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.; Omaha, Nebr.</td>
<td>September 1, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>Edwin McClellan, 62</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.; Omaha, Nebr.</td>
<td>January 30, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>James Bronson Reynolds, 62</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.; Omaha, Nebr.</td>
<td>January 1, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>Frank VanAllen, 63</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.; Omaha, Nebr.</td>
<td>August 28, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>Charles A. Knight, 59</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.; Omaha, Nebr.</td>
<td>January 6, 1924</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
1887 Edward H. Norton, 60
1887 John N. Pomeroy, 58
1887 Richard S. Thomas, 57
1888 Herbert C. Tolman, 58
1889 Thomas O'Hanlon, Jr., 55
1890 Herbert M. Bishop, 55
1890 John W. Corwith, 55
1891 Hildreth J. Ackroyd, 55
1892 Walter P. Bliss, 53
1892 Henry G. Webster, 53
1895 Gustaf B. Carlson, 53
1895 Robert C. Nesbit, 49
1896 Thomas F. Archbald, 50
1897 Burtis J. Teasdale, 48
1898 Edward Sawyer, 49
1898 William E. Selin, 50
1898 Henry B. Wright, 46
1899 Samuel M. Hawley, 46
1899 Edward T. Noble, 49
1899 Elmer W. Robinson, 47
1899 Frederick Webster, 47
1900 Frank C. Cook, 45
1901 Arthur [H.] Gleason, 45
1901 Kinsley Twining, 44
1901 Richard W. Walsh, 43
1902 William E. Davis, Jr., 44
1902 Guilford Dudley, 44
1902 Malcolm Moore, 42
1903 Donald B. MacLane, 42

South Orange, N. J.; Urbana, Ill.
Waukegan, Ill.; New York City
South Scituate, Mass.; Nashville, Tenn.
Pennington, N. J., Morris Plains, N. J.
Guilford, Conn., Los Angeles, Calif.
Galena, Ill.; West Chester, Pa.
Albany, N. Y.; New York City
New York City
Brooklyn, N. Y
Hammar, Sweden, Middletown, Conn
New York City; Wakefield, R. I.
Scranton, Pa.
Westboro, Mass.
New York City, Cynthia, N. Y.
New Haven, Conn.; Oakham, Mass.
Bridgeport, Conn.
Meriden, Conn.; Yonkers, N. Y.
Galveston, Texas, Stamford, Conn
Litchfield, Conn.; Dallas, Texas
Newark, N. J.; Washington, D. C.
Providence, R. I., New York City
Chicago, Ill.; Winnetka, Ill.
Whitneyville, Conn.; Atlantic City, N. J
Topeka, Kans.; Minneapolis, Minn.
Catfish, Pa., Allentown, Pa.
Steubenville, Ohio; Ray Brook, N. Y.

July 16, 1923
May 31, 1924
July 8, 1923
November 24, 1923
May 21, 1923
November 2, 1923
September 7, 1923
September 15, 1923
January 10, 1924
June 19, 1924
March 24, 1924
August 5, 1923
January 19, 1924
July 10, 1922
January 22, 1924
March 29, 1924
December 27, 1923
January 28, 1924
December 8, 1923
February 16, 1924
February 1, 1924
June 19, 1923
December 20, 1923
January 28, 1924
December 25, 1923
August 23, 1923
March 28, 1923
August 22, 1923
February 20, 1924
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Class</th>
<th>Name and Age at Death</th>
<th>Places of Birth and Death</th>
<th>Date of Death</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>Julian B Huff, 42</td>
<td>Greensburg, Pa, Bryn Mawr, Pa</td>
<td>December 23, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>Guy B Morrison, 43</td>
<td>Knoxville, Tenn, Los Angeles, Calif.</td>
<td>October 11, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>Lewis R. Schenck, 43</td>
<td>Toledo, Ohio</td>
<td>October 4, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905</td>
<td>Francis Q Cronin,</td>
<td>New London, Conn.</td>
<td>April 13, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905</td>
<td>Charles W Fisk, 40</td>
<td>New York City, Syosset, N. Y.</td>
<td>October 20, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>Frank C Downing, 40</td>
<td>Kansas City, Mo</td>
<td>April 13, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>Stephen Dows Thaw, 36</td>
<td>Allegheny, Pa; Zurich, Switzerland</td>
<td>August 22, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908</td>
<td>Frederic T. Murphy, 39</td>
<td>New York City, Syosset, N. Y.</td>
<td>May 23, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>Robert C. Johnson, 37</td>
<td>Kansas City, Mo</td>
<td>March 13, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910</td>
<td>Max D. Kirjassoff, 38</td>
<td>Petrograd, Russia, Yokohama, Japan</td>
<td>September 1, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1911</td>
<td>Samuel J Newman, 32</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>July 14, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1911</td>
<td>C Lawson Reed, 35</td>
<td>Cincinnati, Ohio</td>
<td>December 8, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1912</td>
<td>Chun W. S Afong, 36</td>
<td>Macao, Hong Kong, China</td>
<td>February 26, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1913</td>
<td>Watson K. Blair, 34</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill, Miami, Fla.</td>
<td>March 17, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1916</td>
<td>John M. McHatton, 32</td>
<td>Butte, Mont., Los Angeles, Calif.</td>
<td>January 1, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1919</td>
<td>Ganson G Depew, 28</td>
<td>Buffalo, N. Y., Aiken, S. C.</td>
<td>March 31, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1920</td>
<td>Charles S Peete, 27</td>
<td>Bowling Green, Ky., Mumfordville, Ky.</td>
<td>August 22, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1921</td>
<td>Charlton P. Woodward, 24</td>
<td>Cleveland, Ohio, Bronxville, N. Y.</td>
<td>August 12, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1922</td>
<td>Scovel M. Lyon, 24</td>
<td>Peking, China; Stamford, Conn.</td>
<td>May 18, 1924</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1865 Martin VanHarlingen, 79
1867 Charles H. Hubbard, 77
1870 Henry M. Bailey, 75
1872 T. Mitchell Prudden, 74
1873 Robert J. Currey, 71

SHEFFIELD SCIENTIFIC SCHOOL

Sandusky, Ohio; Hartford City, Ind.
Rutland, Vt., Sioux City, Iowa
Middlebury, Conn., New York City
Benicia, Calif.; San Francisco, Calif.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Class</th>
<th>Name and Age at Death</th>
<th>Places of Birth and Death</th>
<th>Date of Death</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1867</td>
<td>Charles H. Hubbard, 77</td>
<td>Sandusky, Ohio; Hartford City, Ind.</td>
<td>January 8, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>Henry M. Bailey, 75</td>
<td>Rutland, Vt., Sioux City, Iowa</td>
<td>April 27, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>T. Mitchell Prudden, 74</td>
<td>Middlebury, Conn., New York City</td>
<td>April 10, 1924</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
1873  Samuel Rockwell, 76
1874  Arthur B. Claflin, 70
1874  Henry Hun, 69
1874  John M. Stewart, 69
1875  Edward B. Chandler, 71
1875  Arthur E. Clark, 69
1875  William Read Howe, 68
1876  Hiram A. Miller, 70
1877  J. Harold Wickersham, 68
1883  Horace R. Carpenter, 63
1884  Chauncey R. Burr, 61
1885  Benjamin E. Wright, 59
1886  Henry H. Wadsworth, 58
1887  Frank O Walther, 55
1888  John G. Prouty, 58
1889  Henry P. Hall, 57
1889  Julian V. Wright, 57
1890  Alfred W. Ogden, 54
1891  Harris Walton Baker, 54
1891  Robert Lewis Coleman, 53
1891  David A. Hays, 54
1891  Charles F. Sturtevant, 54
1892  Duncan S. Ellsworth, 54
1895  J. Willet Hall, 50
1895  Thomas Kernan, 64
1895  James A. McCrea, 48
1896  John M. Warren, 48
1896  Allan H. Whiting, 49
1899  J. McLean Walton, 44

Brooklyn, N. Y ; Cleveland, Ohio
Hopkinton, Mass.; Boston, Mass.
Albany, N. Y.
Peekskill, N. Y.; Los Angeles, Calif.
Woodstock, Conn.; Gloucester, Mass
Clarkson, N. Y.; near Hamilton, N. Y.
Orange, N. J.; West Orange, N. J.
Williston, Vt.; Newton Highlands, Mass.
Marietta, Pa.; Lancaster, Pa.
Afton, N. Y.; St. Louis, Mo.
Portland, Maine
Cromwell, Conn.; New York City
New Haven, Conn.; San Francisco, Calif.
Brooklyn, N. Y.; New York City
Spencer, Mass.
San Francisco, Calif., Utica, N. Y.
Nashville, Tenn.; Hartford, Conn.
Keyport, N. J., East Orange, N. J.
St. Louis, Mo., Springfield, Mass.
Yonkers, N. Y.; near Marmuros, Albania
Johnstown, N. Y.
Cleveland, Ohio, Palmarto, Mocorito, Sinalo, Mexico
Penn Yan, N. Y.; New York City
New York City; Saranac Lake, N. Y.
Windsor, Conn.
Boston, Mass.; Bridgeport, Conn.
Sputen Duyvil, N. Y.; New York City
Ridgewood, N. J.; New York City

November 21, 1923
April 11, 1923
March 14, 1924
July 20, 1923
July 9, 1923
September 26, 1923
November 29, 1923
November 2, 1923
March 3, 1924
November 12, 1923
December 24, 1923
August 15, 1923
July 7, 1923
September 5, 1923
September 26, 1923
November 19, 1923
December 24, 1923
June 24, 1923
October 9, 1923
April 6, 1924
December 12, 1923
June 4, 1924
April 15, 1924
April 8, 1924
February 12, 1924
October 17, 1923
July 16, 1923
September 9, 1923
August 31, 1923
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Class</th>
<th>Name and Age at Death</th>
<th>Places of Birth and Death</th>
<th>Date of Death</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td>Andrew B. Mygatt, 42</td>
<td>New Milford, Conn., West Haven, Conn</td>
<td>July 2, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>Henry L. Burgess, 43</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>September 24, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>Edwin A. Hall, 42</td>
<td>Elmira, N.Y.; Scarsdale, N.Y.</td>
<td>January 20, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905</td>
<td>Henry M. Rathvon, 41</td>
<td>Sterling, Kans., Winfield, Kans</td>
<td>March 18, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>Lansing Lewis, 40</td>
<td>Buffalo, N.Y.; New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>November 6, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>Edward W. Moore, 38</td>
<td>Germantown, Pa.</td>
<td>February 14, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>Clarence W. Hockenberger, 38</td>
<td>Union Hill, N.Y.; Cape Girardeau, Mo.</td>
<td>October 29, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1912</td>
<td>Julius Cohen, 33</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>February 26, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1912</td>
<td>Joseph P. Thomas, 38</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill.; New York City, New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>November 25, 1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1913</td>
<td>Duncan MacT. Fuller, 30</td>
<td>New York City, Seattle, Wash</td>
<td>March 15, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1914</td>
<td>Edwin O. Young, 33</td>
<td>East Greenwich, R.I.; Hartford, Conn</td>
<td>May 24, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1916</td>
<td>Roland B. Barnum, 31</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>March 26, 1924</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1916</td>
<td>Philip Greenberg, 28</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; Bridgeport, Conn</td>
<td>December 11, 1923</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

GRADUATE SCHOOL

Masters of Art

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Name and Age</th>
<th>Place of Study</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td>Robert W. Pettit, 44</td>
<td>New Brunswick, N.J.; Patchogue, N.Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910</td>
<td>Walter B. Helbig, 35</td>
<td>Lynchburg, Va.; Washington, D.C.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1911</td>
<td>Edwin C. Jones, 42</td>
<td>Flushing, N.Y., Baltimore, Md</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1918</td>
<td>Sewell E. Scott, 30</td>
<td>Powersville, Mo.; Glenwood Springs, Colo.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Master of Science

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Name and Age</th>
<th>Place of Study</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1923</td>
<td>Solomon B. Ebert, 30</td>
<td>Duluth, Minn.; Leon, Okla</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Doctors of Philosophy

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Name and Age</th>
<th>Place of Study</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>Charles N. Little, 65</td>
<td>Madura, South India; Berkeley, Calif</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>Margaretta Palmer, 61</td>
<td>Branford, Conn.; New Haven, Conn</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td>Clifford Thorne, 45</td>
<td>Brooklyn, Iowa; London, England</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Year</td>
<td>Name</td>
<td>Age</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>------</td>
<td>-----------------------</td>
<td>-----</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1917</td>
<td>G. Krishnamurti Naydu</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1920</td>
<td>Samuel Corbin</td>
<td>30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1862</td>
<td>Frederick A. Dudley</td>
<td>81</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1863</td>
<td>Marcus B. Fisk</td>
<td>85</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1868</td>
<td>Franklin H. Fowler</td>
<td>83</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>Frank E. Castle</td>
<td>78</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>William C. Welch</td>
<td>79</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>T. Grattan O'Connell</td>
<td>46</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1866</td>
<td>E. Frisbie Phelps</td>
<td>83</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>James H. Webb</td>
<td>69</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>Haldai A. Hull</td>
<td>69</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>William L. Green</td>
<td>61</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888</td>
<td>Allen B. Forbes</td>
<td>57</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888</td>
<td>Charles H. Peck</td>
<td>64</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889</td>
<td>Henry W. Brant</td>
<td>58</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>George W. Andrews</td>
<td>70</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>James B. Martin</td>
<td>60</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>John Hone</td>
<td>52</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>Michael J. Byrne</td>
<td>51</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>Samuel J. Marsh</td>
<td>61</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>John J. Corr</td>
<td>58</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>Burt S. Skinner</td>
<td>40</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Class | Name and Age at Death | Places of Birth and Death | Date of Death
---|---|---|---
1905 | Abraham S. Aaronson, 40 | Griva, Russia, New Haven, Conn | August 20, 1923
1905 | James D. Hart, 41 | New Haven, Conn, New York City | May 21, 1924
1909 | Gerald F. Sibley, 36 | Jamestown, N. Y., Olean, N. Y | January 16, 1924
1912 | Edward J. McManus, 37 | Wethersfield, Conn, Bridgeport, Conn. | June 21, 1924
1912 | Louis B. O'Shaughnessy, 34 | Louisville, Ky, New York City | March 10, 1924

1874 | Joel S. Ives, 76 | Colebrook, Conn., Meriden, Conn. | January 21, 1924
1875 | Solomon M. Coler, 79 | Petersburg, Va., Oberlin, Ohio | February 18, 1924
1875 | Albert B. Irwin, 72 | Cherrytree, Pa.; Ashland, Wis. | February 5, 1924
1876 | H. Melville Tenney, 74 | Morristown, Vt.; Piedmont, Calif. | March 13, 1924
1878 | George H. Cate, 72 | Wolfeboro, N. H., West Newton, Mass. | May 20, 1924
1879 | William B. Hague, 75 | Perryopolis, Pa., Gorham, Maine | October 4, 1923
1879 | Lanman J. Nettleton, 68 | Lewis Center, Ohio, Salt Lake City, Utah | September 6, 1923
1882 | David E. Todd, 71 | Springfield, Ohio, Jacksonville, Fla | December 20, 1923
1884 | Samuel W. Delzell, 69 | Henderson, Mo., Chester, Conn | February 1, 1924
1885 | Cyrus D. Harp, 65 | Benevola, Md.; Providence, R. I. | June 28, 1923
1885 | Albert P. Miller, 68 | Ripley, Miss.; Jersey City, N. J. | August 13, 1923
1887 | J. Morris James, 57 | Talybont, Wales, Ivanhoe, Victoria, Australia | November 25, 1918
1888 | J. Edward Herman, 59 | Warsaw, N. Y., Buffalo, N. Y | January 14, 1924
1893 | Reginald V. Bury, 57 | Dublin, Ireland, Stillington, Durham, England | January 25, 1924
1894 | Frank Park, 59 | Viol, Ill.; Clinton, Conn. | October 16, 1923
1902 | Warren D. Bigelow, 47 | Boston, Mass.; Roxbury, Mass. | April 9, 1923
1909 | Elmer E. Burnet, 41 | Mount Clinton, Va., Westerville, Ohio | September 27, 1923
1923 | Henry R. Rose, 31 | Covington, Tenn., Canandaigua, N. Y. | September 29, 1923

The number of deaths recorded this year is 233; the age of the 130 graduates of the College averages not quite 66 years. The oldest living graduate of the College is:

John Donnell Smith (B.A. 1847), of Baltimore, Md., born June 5, 1829.
INDEX

Graduates of the different Schools of the University are distinguished from graduates of Yale College by italic letters as follows: Divinity, d; Graduate, ma, ms, or dp; Law, l; Medicine, m; School of Forestry, f; Sheffield Scientific School, s.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>PAGE</th>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>PAGE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1890 l</td>
<td>Aaronson, Abraham S.</td>
<td>1237</td>
<td>Chase, George</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>Ackroyd, Hildreth J.</td>
<td>1101</td>
<td>Claffin, Arthur B.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882</td>
<td>Adams, Frederic</td>
<td>999</td>
<td>Clark, Arthur E.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>Afong, Chun W. S.</td>
<td>1143</td>
<td>Clark, William Hurley</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891 l</td>
<td>Andrew, George W.</td>
<td>1230</td>
<td>Cohen, Julius</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>Archbald, Thomas F.</td>
<td>1107</td>
<td>Coleman, Robert Lewis</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>Ayres, William A.</td>
<td>1005</td>
<td>Coles, Solomon M.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870 s</td>
<td>Bailey, Henry M.</td>
<td>1154</td>
<td>Cook, Frank C.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891 s</td>
<td>Barnum, Roland B.</td>
<td>1180</td>
<td>Corwin, John W.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871 s</td>
<td>Bell, Nelson W.</td>
<td>1203</td>
<td>Cowles, Israel T.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>Berens, Conrad</td>
<td>1067</td>
<td>Cronin, Francis Q.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902 d</td>
<td>Bigelow, Warren D.</td>
<td>1257</td>
<td>Currey, Robert J.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>Bishop, Herbert M.</td>
<td>1099</td>
<td>Davis, William E., Jr.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>Blair, Watson K.</td>
<td>1143</td>
<td>Delzell, Samuel W.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>Bliss, Walter P.</td>
<td>1102</td>
<td>Depew, Ganson G.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td>Bradstreet, Albert P.</td>
<td>1035</td>
<td>Doar, Stephen D.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889 l</td>
<td>Brant, Henry W.</td>
<td>1229</td>
<td>Downing, Frank C.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>Bruen, W. Livingston</td>
<td>1062</td>
<td>Dudley, Frederick A.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>Buffum, Edgar S.</td>
<td>1054</td>
<td>Dudley, Guilford</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904 s</td>
<td>Burgess, Henry E.</td>
<td>1193</td>
<td>Dunning, Albert E.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889</td>
<td>Burnham, Henry H.</td>
<td>1023</td>
<td>Dwight, Stanley</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>Burpee, Lucien F.</td>
<td>1064</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884 s</td>
<td>Burr, Chauncey R.</td>
<td>1171</td>
<td>Ebert, Solomon B.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909 d</td>
<td>Burtner, Elmer E.</td>
<td>1257</td>
<td>Edwards, E. Jay</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893 d</td>
<td>Bury, Reginald V.</td>
<td>1255</td>
<td>Elliott, Edward T.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895 l</td>
<td>Byrne, Michael J.</td>
<td>1233</td>
<td>Ellsworth, Duncan S.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>Carlson, Gustaf B.</td>
<td>1105</td>
<td>Fisher, Nathaniel C.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883 s</td>
<td>Carpenter, Horace R.</td>
<td>1170</td>
<td>Fisk, Charles W.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>Carr, Albert</td>
<td>1080</td>
<td>Fisk, Marcus B.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>Carrier, Augustus S.</td>
<td>1066</td>
<td>Fitch, Theodore</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870 m</td>
<td>Castle, Frank E.</td>
<td>1220</td>
<td>Forbes, Allen B.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878 d</td>
<td>Cate, George H.</td>
<td>1247</td>
<td>Foster, Roger [S. B.]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>Chamberlain, Francis D.</td>
<td>1082</td>
<td>Fowler, Franklin H.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875 s</td>
<td>Chandler, Edward B.</td>
<td>1163</td>
<td>Frost, Simeon Taylor</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>Chapman, Russell</td>
<td>1040</td>
<td>Fuller, Duncan MacT.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>PAGE</td>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>PAGE</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-------</td>
<td>------</td>
<td>-------</td>
<td>------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1865</td>
<td>1013</td>
<td>1880</td>
<td>1069</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>1083</td>
<td>1895</td>
<td>1119</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td>1069</td>
<td>1863</td>
<td>1119</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>1051</td>
<td>1910</td>
<td>1139</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1866</td>
<td>1015</td>
<td>1887</td>
<td>1090</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1857</td>
<td>996</td>
<td>1878</td>
<td>1061</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>1227</td>
<td>1869</td>
<td>1025</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td>1060</td>
<td>1864</td>
<td>1008</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1916</td>
<td>1204</td>
<td>1906</td>
<td>1197</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>1248</td>
<td>1885</td>
<td>1211</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>1194</td>
<td>1904</td>
<td>998</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889</td>
<td>1137</td>
<td>1922</td>
<td>1150</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>1186</td>
<td>1887</td>
<td>1175</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td>1246</td>
<td>1895</td>
<td>1239</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td>1246</td>
<td>1873</td>
<td>1148</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1869</td>
<td>1251</td>
<td>1904</td>
<td>1075</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1865</td>
<td>1237</td>
<td>1973</td>
<td>1019</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>1199</td>
<td>1895</td>
<td>1234</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td>1039</td>
<td>1892</td>
<td>1231</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>1232</td>
<td>1885</td>
<td>1252</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>1084</td>
<td>1976</td>
<td>1198</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875</td>
<td>1165</td>
<td>1902</td>
<td>1126</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1867</td>
<td>1153</td>
<td>1904</td>
<td>1130</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>1227</td>
<td>1870</td>
<td>1134</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>1161</td>
<td>1908</td>
<td>1137</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1866</td>
<td>1016</td>
<td>1901</td>
<td>1191</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>1222</td>
<td>1917</td>
<td>1216</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>1032</td>
<td>1918</td>
<td>1106</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875</td>
<td>1243</td>
<td>1895</td>
<td>1249</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>1074</td>
<td>1911</td>
<td>1140</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>1241</td>
<td>1899</td>
<td>1115</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>1253</td>
<td>1887</td>
<td>1091</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882</td>
<td>1079</td>
<td>1875</td>
<td>1049</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>1084</td>
<td>1909</td>
<td>1098</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>1138</td>
<td>1889</td>
<td>1240</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>PAGE</td>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>PAGE</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-------</td>
<td>------</td>
<td>-------</td>
<td>------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894 dp</td>
<td>Palmer, Margaretta</td>
<td>1212</td>
<td>1876 d</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894 d</td>
<td>Park, Frank</td>
<td>1256</td>
<td>1907</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888 l</td>
<td>Peck, Charles H.</td>
<td>1229</td>
<td>1869</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1920</td>
<td>Peete, Charles S.</td>
<td>1147</td>
<td>1912 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901 ma</td>
<td>Pettit, Robert W.</td>
<td>1206</td>
<td>1887</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1866 l</td>
<td>Phelps, E. Frisbie</td>
<td>1224</td>
<td>1866</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>Pomeroy, John N.</td>
<td>1093</td>
<td>1901 dp</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>Prentice, Dwight N.</td>
<td>1041</td>
<td>1882 d</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888 l</td>
<td>Prouty, John G.</td>
<td>1177</td>
<td>1888</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872 s</td>
<td>Pruuden, T. Mitchell</td>
<td>1155</td>
<td>1872</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1864</td>
<td>Purves, G. Coleberry</td>
<td>1011</td>
<td>1901</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905 s</td>
<td>Rathvon, Henry M.</td>
<td>1195</td>
<td>1885</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1911</td>
<td>Reed, C. Lawson</td>
<td>1141</td>
<td>1865 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>Reynolds, James Bronson</td>
<td>1087</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1852</td>
<td>Reynolds, William A.</td>
<td>991</td>
<td>1886 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>Robinson, Elmer W.</td>
<td>1116</td>
<td>1856</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873 s</td>
<td>Rockwell, Samuel</td>
<td>1159</td>
<td>1881</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1923 d</td>
<td>Rose, Henry R.</td>
<td>1258</td>
<td>1875</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1862</td>
<td>Ross, Charles N</td>
<td>1000</td>
<td>1901</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>120</td>
<td>Safford, Theodore L.</td>
<td>1148</td>
<td>1899 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>Sawyer, Edward</td>
<td>1109</td>
<td>1864</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>Schenck, Lewis R.</td>
<td>1131</td>
<td>1896 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1918 ma</td>
<td>Scott, Sewell E.</td>
<td>1209</td>
<td>1877 l</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>Selin, William E.</td>
<td>1110</td>
<td>1899</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>Seymour, Frederick</td>
<td>1076</td>
<td>1892</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>Shelton, George F.</td>
<td>1057</td>
<td>1877 m</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909 l</td>
<td>Sibley, Gerald F.</td>
<td>1238</td>
<td>1896 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904 l</td>
<td>Skinner, Burt S.</td>
<td>1236</td>
<td>1869</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>Slocum, John P.</td>
<td>1042</td>
<td>1880</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td>Smith, Rufus B.</td>
<td>1053</td>
<td>1877 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1868</td>
<td>Southworth, Mase S.</td>
<td>1021</td>
<td>1921</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>Stearns, Charles C.</td>
<td>1043</td>
<td>1885 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874 s</td>
<td>Stewart, John M.</td>
<td>1163</td>
<td>1898</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891 s</td>
<td>Sturtevant, Charles F.</td>
<td>1183</td>
<td>1889 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td>Tajiri, Inajiro T.</td>
<td>1062</td>
<td>1910 f</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>Teasdale, Burtis J.</td>
<td>1108</td>
<td>1914 s</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>