BULLETIN OF YALE UNIVERSITY

Entered as second-class matter, August 30, 1906, at the post office at New Haven, Conn., under the Act of Congress of July 16, 1894.

Acceptance for mailing at the special rate of postage provided for in Section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized August 12, 1918.

The Bulletin, which is issued semi-monthly, includes:
1. The University Catalogue.
2. The Reports of the President and Treasurer.
3. The Catalogues of the several Schools.
5. The Obituary Record.
YALE UNIVERSITY

OBITUARY RECORD

OF GRADUATES DECEASED DURING THE YEAR ENDING JULY 1, 1927

INCLUDING THE RECORD OF A FEW WHO DIED PREVIOUSLY, HITHERTO UNREPORTED

NUMBER 86

NEW HAVEN
PUBLISHED BY THE UNIVERSITY
1927
DeLancy Freeborn, B.A. 1858.

Born September 9, 1833, in Knoxville, Pa
Died April 3, 1927, in Knoxville, Pa.

Father, Hiram Freeborn, a business man and farmer; son of David Freeborn; descendant of William Freeborn, who came to America from Ipswich, England, in 1634 and settled in Massachusetts, afterwards moving to Rhode Island with Roger Williams. Mother, Cynthia Lorinda (Thompson) Freeborn.

Alfred (N. Y.) Academy Entered Yale during second term of Freshman year; third prize in declamation and second prize in mathematics Sophomore year, Clark Premium in astronomy, first dispute appointment Junior year, dissertation appointment Senior year; member Beethoven Society, Linonia, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Phi Beta Kappa

Taught in Memphis, Tenn, 1858-59; principal of Spring Mills (N. Y.) Academy 1859-1861, studied phonography and law at Spring Mills in 1862, had charge of Union School, Kent, Ohio, 1862-63; studied at Albany Law School 1863-64 (LL.B 1864); admitted to the bar in 1864; engaged in shorthand reporting in New York City and Albany 1864-1870; superintendent of schools at Wellsville, N Y., 1870-75 and at Hornell, N Y., 1875-1882; then gave up teaching and in 1883 built a foundry and machine shop in Knoxville, where he was engaged in business until his retirement about 1895; member Congregational Church

Married June 30, 1860, at Spring Mills, Emma, daughter of William and Eliza (Churchill) Cobb Children: Gertrude Emma (Mrs George H Davis) (died about 1920); Angelo Cobb (Mech.E. Cornell 1895); Fair DeLancy (LL.B. Cornell
Obituary Record

1895); and Faun William (Mech.E. Cornell 1897). Mrs. Freeborn died March 20, 1893

Death due to old age; had been in failing health for some months. Buried in Riverside Cemetery, Knoxville. Survived by three sons and eight grandchildren

Leslie Robison, B.A. 1858.

Born August 8, 1834, in Detroit, Mich
Died November 19, 1926, in Peoria, Ill.

Father, James Robison, who came to America from Aberdeenshire, Scotland, in 1832. Mother, Isabella (Leslie) Robison, also born in Scotland

Knox Academy. Attended Knox College for three years
(1854–57) before entering Yale as a Senior in 1857; member
Beta Theta Pi at Knox and Brothers in Unity at Yale

Soon after graduation began study of law with Judge
Powell in Peoria and was later in law office of Henry Grove; admitted to practice by Supreme Court of Illinois on the motion of Abraham Lincoln, then a lawyer in Springfield, January 6, 1860; practiced law in Peoria until 1882, when he gave up the law on account of business interests; member of firm of Whiteside & Robison at first; then practiced alone until January 1, 1867, when he formed a partnership with his classmate and brother-in-law, Samuel Caldwell, under firm name of Robison & Caldwell; continued in that connection until his partner's death in 1872 and then practiced independently again; one of the publishers of Peoria Review, a daily Republican newspaper, 1871–72; had been a director of Peoria Gas Light & Coke Company and its president 1887–
1892, director and president of Gipps Brewing Company,
Nicol Burr & Company (foundry and machinery business), and Jenney Electric Lighting Company 1887–1891, and a director of Peoria Electric Company; was subsequently engaged in the real estate business with his son under name of L. & C. W.
Robison for some years, but had retired from all active business several months before his death; mayor of Peoria 1876–77, former president of Peoria County Old Settlers Association, member Peoria County Bar Association.
Married (1) January 7, 1864, in Peoria, Julia, daughter of Charles and Julia (Schnebley) Ballance. Children: Charles Webb (died a few years ago); Leslie (died in 1890); and Willis B. (died in infancy). Mrs Robison died May 12, 1871. Married (2) June 27, 1872, in Peoria, Elizabeth, daughter of William and Isabella (Robertson) Rutherford. Mrs Robison died May 31, 1904. Married (3) December 2, 1921, in Peoria, Dr. Harriet Ballance, daughter of Willis Ballance, and a niece of his first wife. No children by second or third marriage.

Death occurred during his sleep; had suffered a slight stroke of paralysis three months before, but had recovered his strength. Survived by wife, a grandson, two great-grandchildren, and a sister, Mary R. Caldwell, the widow of Samuel Caldwell, ’58.

Frank Johnston Jones, B.A. 1859.

Born April 22, 1838, in Cincinnati, Ohio
Died June 6, 1927, in Cincinnati, Ohio

Father, John Davies Jones, a merchant, son of John and Elizabeth (Graham) Jones; grandson of Col Jonathan Jones, who, as Captain, Major, Lieutenant Colonel, and Colonel of Pennsylvania troops, served in the expedition against Quebec and in the Revolutionary War; descendant of David Jones (born in 1709), who came from Wales to eastern Pennsylvania about 1720 and settled in the Conestoga Valley. Mother, Elizabeth (Johnston) Jones; daughter of Col. John Johnston, who came from the north of Ireland to Philadelphia in 1786 and was the U. S. Government and Indian agent of the Northwest Territory, including the Shawnee, Delaware, and Pottawatomie Tribes, from 1792 to 1837, and Rachel (Robinson) Johnston

Brooks' School, Cincinnati. First colloquy appointment Junior year; second lieutenant of Nautilus Boat Club Senior year; member Linonia, Delta Kappa, Alpha Sigma Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Began study of law with Rufus King of Cincinnati in fall of 1859 and continued his studies at Harvard Law School from September, 1860, until April 19, 1861, when he left to enter the Union Army as a Private in the 6th Ohio Volunteer Infantry; commissioned as Second Lieutenant June 28, 1861, and made Regimental Adjutant of 13th Ohio Volunteers the following October; promoted to First Lieutenant January 21, 1862, and at the battle of Shiloh detailed as Assistant Adjutant General, the following June appointed aide-de-camp on staff of Brigadier General W. S. Smith; promoted to Captain January 1, 1863, and during the next summer served as Assistant Inspector General of 20th Army Corps and as aide-de-camp on staff of General McCook; served three years and eight months, participating in engagements in Virginia, Kentucky, Mississippi, Alabama, and Georgia and in battles of Corinth, Perryville, Shiloh, and Chickamauga; brevetted Major of Volunteers for gallant and meritorious service March 13, 1865; subsequently resumed his law studies at Cincinnati Law School (LL.B. 1866); practiced in Cincinnati for many years, but eventually became connected with the boards of various corporations and was actively engaged in business until February, 1926; had been president of Little Miami, Dayton & Michigan and Dayton & Western Railroad companies since 1889 and of Cincinnati Equitable Fire Insurance Company since 1904; had also served as president of the Cincinnati Board of Health for three years, as director of Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad Company, Cincinnati Street Railway Company, Fidelity Deposit & Trust Company, Columbia Life Insurance Company, and First National and Lafayette National banks of Cincinnati, as trustee of Cincinnati Orphan Asylum, McCall Estate for the benefit of colored youths of Cincinnati, and Spring Grove Cemetery Association, and as vice-president of Ohio Historical Association; member of board of directors of University of Cincinnati 1887–1913 and president of board eight years (founded the Jones Oratorical Prize at the university); in 1912 appointed by President Taft member of board of visitors of U S Naval Academy and served one year; became vestryman of Christ Episcopal Church in 1875, junior warden in 1884, and senior warden in 1898, and had also been a trustee of Episcopal Diocese of Southern Ohio; commander, Ohio Commandery of Loyal Legion, 1916 and 1923; one of the three original members of the Cincinnati Yale Club, the oldest Yale Club in the country; honorary M.A.
Yale 1906

Married May 30, 1866, in Glendale, Ohio, Frances Dering, daughter of Samuel and Sarah Ann (Wood) Fosdick, and sister of Wood Fosdick, ex-'59. Children. Anna Fosdick (Mrs. Edward H. Ernst); Charles Davies (B.A. 1893, LL.B. University of Cincinnati 1895); Samuel Fosdick (M.D. Columbia 1902); Edmund Lawrence (B.A. 1901); and Frances L'Hommedieu. Mrs. Jones died April 6, 1917

Death due to heart failure. Buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati. Survived by three sons, two daughters, four grandchildren, two of whom are Francis J. Jones, 2d, '28, and Ford H. Jones, '30, and a brother, Walter St. John Jones, '73. Another brother, John J. Jones, '52, died in 1889.

Simeon Eben Baldwin, B.A. 1861.

Born February 5, 1840, in New Haven, Conn.
Died January 30, 1927, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Roger Sherman Baldwin (B.A. 1811, LL.D. Trinity 1844, Yale 1845); governor of Connecticut 1844-46; ex-officio Fellow of Yale; U.S. senator 1847-1851; son of Simeon Baldwin (B.A. 1781), member of Congress and judge of Superior and Supreme Courts of Connecticut, and Rebecca (Sherman) Baldwin; grandson of Roger Sherman (honorary M.A. 1768), a signer of the Declaration of Independence and fifth treasurer of Yale; descendant of John Baldwin, who came from England to Milford, Conn., about 1636, settled in Guilford, Conn., 1640, and moved to Norwich, Conn., 1660. Mother, Emily (Perkins) Baldwin; daughter of Enoch Perkins (B.A. 1781) and Anna (Pitkin) Perkins; granddaughter of the Rev. Timothy Pitkin (B.A. 1747), a Fellow of Yale 1777-1804; great-granddaughter of Governor William Pitkin of Connecticut and of Thomas Clap, the fifth president of Yale; descendant of Governor Thomas Dudley of Massachusetts, Governor George Wyllys of Connecticut, Governor John Haynes of Massachusetts (first governor of Connecticut), and Governor William Bradford of Massachusetts. Yale relatives include: Ebenezer Baldwin (B.A. 1808),
Thomas C. Perkins (B.A. 1818), and George W. Perkins (B.A. 1824) (uncles); Dwight Foster, '48, and William D. Whitney (honorary M.A. 1867) (brothers-in-law); Roger Foster and Edward B. Whitney, both '78, Burnside Foster, '82, and Reginald Foster, '84 (nephews); Marian P. Whitney (Ph.D. 1901) (niece); Henry C. Thacher, '02, Thomas A. Thacher, '08, William D. Whitney, '20, Lawrence and Roger S. Foster, both '21, Reginald Foster, Jr., '22, Maxwell E. Foster, '23, Simon N. Whitney, '24, and Hassler and Roger S. Whitney, both '28 (grandnephews); and Frederick B. Perkins, '50, Henry deF. Baldwin, '85, Roger S. Baldwin, '95, DeForest Baldwin, '99, Simeon Baldwin, '08, and Sherman Baldwin, '19 (cousins).

Hopkins Grammar School. Berkeley Premium in Latin composition Freshman year; two first prizes in English composition; Townsend Premium; philosophical oration Junior year, salutatorian; an editor of University Quarterly; member Cymothoe Boat Club, Baseball Club, Brothers in Unity (first prize in its Sophomore debate), Alpha Sigma Phi, Psi Upsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Studied law at Yale 1861-62 and at Harvard and in his father's office 1862-63; admitted to the bar September 4, 1863, and had since practiced law in New Haven; had been connected with Yale School of Law since 1869 (instructor 1869-1872, professor of constitutional law, corporations, and wills 1872-1900, mercantile law 1872-1896, American constitutional law and private international law 1900-1912, law 1912-19, and emeritus since 1919), associate justice of Connecticut Supreme Court of Errors 1893-1907 and then chief justice until 1910; unsuccessful candidate for state senator on Republican ticket 1867; in 1884 joined the group of independent Republicans (which included his friend Moorfield Storey of Boston) who declined to support Blaine and did much to elect Cleveland and after 1884 was a member of the Democratic Party, elected governor of Connecticut on Democratic ticket 1911 and reelection 1913; ex officio Fellow of Yale, in 1912 received votes of Connecticut and Vermont for president of the United States in Democratic National Convention, unsuccessful candidate of Democratic Party for U.S. senator 1914; member of commissions to revise educational laws of Connecticut 1872, to revise all state statutes 1873, to simplify legal procedure 1878 (the work of which resulted in the adoption of a practice act, which has been in use with slight modifications since 1879), and to revise Connecticut Statutes 1875; member of commission to report to General Assembly on methods of taxation and drew the report for a better system 1885; chairman of commission to revise the taxation system 1915-17, one of the chief founders of American Bar Association in 1878, serving as chairman of its committee on jurisprudence and law reform in 1885, as president 1890-91, as member of its executive committee at various times, and as director of its Bureau of Comparative Law since 1907; elected life member of the association 1926; president of International Law Association 1900, Association of American Law Schools 1902-03, American Society for the Judicial Settlement of International Disputes 1911-12, American Social Science Association 1897-99, American Political Science Association 1910 (vice-president 1903), American Historical Association 1906 (vice-president 1904 and 1905 and member of its National Advisory Committee to raise an endowment fund of $1,000,000 in 1926), National Institute of Arts and Letters 1905, Connecticut Academy of Arts and Sciences 1905-1915, Connecticut Society of the Archaeological Institute of America in 1899, New Haven Colony Historical Society 1884-1896 (made a director in 1867 and was vice-president in 1883), board of trustees of Hopkins Grammar School 1900-1926, New Haven Y. M. C A 1884, State Democratic Club of Connecticut 1891-93, and Monticello Club of New Haven 1871-1893; vice-president Archaeological Institute of America 1898, Paris Commission permanente du Congrès International de l'Enseignement Social 1900, General Hospital Society of Connecticut 1908-1923 (director 1866-1923), and New Haven Public Parks Commission 1921-23 (permanent member of commission 1880-1923); member New Haven Common Council 1867; general counsel for Boston & New York Air Line Railroad 1875-1893, director 1879-1894, and managing trustee of trust fund 1883-1896; counsel for Housatonic Railroad for a time; moderator of General Conference of Congregational Churches of Connecticut 1881 and delegate of Congregional churches of Connecticut to the National Council 1883, president of New Haven Congregational Club 1886; a corporator and director of Missionary Society of Connecticut and the Fund for Ministers 1899–1921 (vice-president for several years), member executive committee of Religious Educational Federation of New Haven; delegate by appointment of State Department to International Prison Congress at Brussels 1900 and at Budapest 1905 (sectional vice-president), delegate to Universal Congress of Lawyers and Jurists in connection with St. Louis Exposition 1904 (vice-president for United States); strong advocate of League of Nations and the World Court and appointed to World Court Committee of New Haven 1925; elected an associate of Institut de Droit International (Paris) 1921; delivered the Southworth lectures at Andover Theological Seminary 1906, was Dodge lecturer at Yale 1911–12, and had lectured on wills at Howard University for a number of years from 1895, and on American law at Vassar 1917; delivered commemorative address in honor of President Woolsey at dedication of Woolsey Hall and the Newberry Organ 1903 and address at the unveiling of the Memorial to Yale Men who died in the Civil War 1915; one of the speakers, representing the fifty American guests, at entertainment by judges and lawyers of England in Middle Temple Hall, London, July, 1901; LL D Harvard 1891, Columbia 1911, Wesleyan 1912, and Yale 1916; author. Baldwin's Connecticut Digest (1871) (second volume 1882, revised edition under editorship of George E. Beers, ’89 L., 1900), Revised Statutes of Connecticut (co-author) (1875), Connecticut Practice Book (co-author) (1879), Baldwin's Cases on Railroad Law (1896), Modern Political Institutions (1898), Two Centuries' Growth of American Law (co-author) (1901), American Railroad Law (1904), American Judiciary (1905), The Relation of Education to Citizenship (1912), Life and Letters of Simeon Baldwin (1919), The Young Man and the Law (1920), and Osborn's History of Connecticut (co-author) (1925), also of A Discussion of the Present Inequalities of Representation in the General Assembly of Connecticut, published by New Haven County Constitutional Reform Association (1873), a pamphlet edition of the Constitution of the United States, with notes (for use of Yale Married October 19, 1865, in Boston, Mass, Susan, daughter of Edmund and Harriette (Mears) Winchester. Children: Florence Winchester (born 1868; died 1872); Roger Sherman (B.A. 1890, LL.B. 1893, LL.M 1894); and Helen Harriet, who married Warren Randall Gilman (B.A. Harvard 1884, M.D. 1888; died 1920).
Tale College

Death due to Parkinson's disease, followed by bronchial pneumonia; had been ill for over two years and confined to the house for about a month. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, son, one daughter, two grandchildren, Charlotte W. Gilman Penfield (Mrs Paul Livingston Penfield) (B.A. Radcliffe 1920, M.A. Yale 1921) and Bradley B. Gilman, '25, one great-grandchild, and a brother, George W. Baldwin, '53. His eldest brother, Edward L Baldwin, '42, died in 1848, and another brother, Roger S. Baldwin, '47, in 1856. In 1926 was the donor to Yale of a collection of South Arabian antiquities, and by the terms of his will the following bequests were made to the University: $50,000 as a permanent endowment for a professorship of Roman law, a sum sufficient to increase a fund previously given for the endowment of a professorship to $125,000, and one half of his remaining estate after specific legacies are carried out in trust for the benefit of the Yale School of Law; also gave one fourth of the residue to the United Church of New Haven, one eighth to the Hopkins Grammar School, and one eighth to the city of New Haven to be expended for park purposes.

George Buckingham Beecher, B.A. 1861.

Born September 7, 1841, in Zanesville, Ohio
Died April 1, 1925, in Baltimore, Md

Father, the Rev George Beecher (B.A. 1828; Yale Divinity School 1830–32), a Presbyterian minister; son of the Rev. Lyman Beecher (B A 1797, M A 1809, D D Middlebury 1818) and Roxana (Foote) Beecher; descendant of John Beecher, who came from England in the “Mayflower” company and settled in New Haven in 1640. Mother, Sarah Sturges (Buckingham) Beecher, daughter of Ebenezer and Eunice (Hale) Buckingham; descendant of the Rev. Thomas Buckingham, who came to this country from London in 1637 and settled at New Haven, was one of the founders of Yale and served as Fellow from 1701 to 1709. Yale relatives include Thomas C Perkins (B A. 1818), Edward Beecher (B A 1822), and William H Beecher (honorary M.A 1833) (uncles); and Frederick B Perkins, '50, Ebenezer B. Convers, '61, Eugene F. Beecher, '67, and Harry Beecher, '88 (cousins).

Hopkins Grammar School Second prize in English composition Freshman year; dissertation appointment Junior year; oration appointment and Townsend Premium Senior year; member Lorelei Boat Club and Phi Beta Kappa Attended Andover Theological Seminary 1861–64; preached at Irvington, N Y, for a time in 1864 and in Hillsboro,

Ohio, 1865-66; ordained to Presbyterian ministry June 1, 1866, and installed as pastor of Howe Street Congregational Church, New Haven, where he remained two years, then spent nearly two years abroad, returning to Hillsboro in 1870; spent large part of 1871 in travel throughout the western part of the United States; pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Cincinnati, Ohio, 1873-79; had since made his home in Hillsboro, where he owned a farm, but since 1916 had spent the winters at Clearwater, Fla; built a church in New Petersburg, Ohio, about ten miles from Hillsboro, and served as its pastor 1881-1893, at the time of his death member St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Hillsboro

Married November 20, 1873, in Allegheny City, Pa., Nannie Price, daughter of James and Eliza Winston (Price) O'Hara. Children: Lyman O'Hara; Norman Buckingham (B.A. 1898, LL B. Harvard 1901), George Buckingham, Jr. (died in infancy); Katharine (died in childhood); and Georgiana (Mrs William F Allen)

Death, due to a stoppage of the bowels, occurred in Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore. Buried in Hillsboro. Survived by wife, two sons, one daughter, and eight grandchildren, one of whom is George B Beecher, '28

John Wesley Alling, B.A. 1862.

Born October 24, 1841, in Orange, Conn
Died January 9, 1927, in New Haven, Conn

Father, Charles Wyllys Alling, a farmer and manufacturer; selectman and grand juror, Sergeant of Militia in War of 1812; son of Amos and Amelia (Beecher) Alling, descendant of Judge John Alling, treasurer of Yale 1702-1717, and of Roger Alling, who came from England and was one of the first settlers of the New Haven Colony in 1638 and its first treasurer Mother, Lucy (Booth) Alling; daughter of Walter Booth, who served in the Revolution and War of 1812, and Mary (Newton) Booth; descendant of John Booth, who came to America from the island of Barbados in 1656 and settled at Southold, Long Island Yale relatives include Charles H. Alling, '75 S., and Wilbur M. Alling, ex-'98 S.

Wilbraham Academy. Philosophical oration appointment Junior year, salutatorian; member Phi Beta Kappa.

Attended Yale School of Law 1862-64 and during a year of that time was in the law office of Charles Ives; admitted to the bar in September, 1864, and began practice in New Haven the following January; M A 1865; was in law office of Charles Ives for a time; in 1883 founded law firm of Alling & Webb, of which the late James H Webb, '77 L., was junior partner, and which became Alling, Webb & Morehouse in 1898, when Samuel C. Morehouse, '85 L., was admitted to firm; remained senior member of firm until his death and had continued to act as counsel, although he retired from active practice about 1900; prosecuting attorney of New Haven 1871-73; retained as counsel of the Southern New England Telephone Company in 1887, and became a director in 1893; president of the company 1908-1917, when he retired from active service and became chairman of board of directors; an organizer of United Illuminating Company in 1900 and since then a director; appointed counsel for the Security Insurance Company in 1885, became a director in 1891, and since 1906 had served as president; director and general counsel of Merchants National Bank of New Haven from 1889 until his death; counsel for Gas & Electric Association of Connecticut many years; in 1911 became a director of New Haven Hotel Company; director of Connecticut Railway & Lighting Company and of East & West Insurance Company of New Haven; member reorganization committee of Chicago & Eastern Illinois Railroad Company, president New Haven County Bar 1888-1899; vice-president New Haven Chamber of Commerce 1916-1920, member American Bar Association and Connecticut State Bar Association; vestryman of Trinity Episcopal Church, New Haven, 1888-1898 and since 1908.

Married (1) October 10, 1867, in Westville, Conn., Constance Adelaide, daughter of Augustus Hull and Jane Eliza
Tale College

Death, due to a general breakdown, followed an illness of four months. Interment in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, son, daughter, and a grandson.

William Woolsey Johnson, B.A. 1862.

Born June 23, 1841, near Owego, Tioga County, N.Y.
Died May 14, 1927, in Baltimore, Md.

Obituary Record

Prepared for college under a private tutor; first prize in mathematics Freshman year, prize for mathematical solutions Sophomore year, first and second prizes Senior year; oration appointments Junior and Senior years; member Phi Beta Kappa, graduate member Wolfs Head.

Assistant in Nautical Almanac office, Cambridge, Mass., 1862-64; assistant professor of mathematics at U. S. Naval Academy at Newport, R I., 1864-65 and at Annapolis 1865-1870, professor of mathematics at Kenyon College 1870-72, at St. John’s College, Annapolis, 1872-1881, and at U. S. Naval Academy from 1881 until his retirement in 1921, in 1913 was given a commissioned rank in the Navy by a special act of Congress and upon his retirement held the rank of Commodore; M.A. Yale 1868; LL D. St John’s 1915; author: Elementary Treatise on Analytical Geometry (1869), Treatise on the Differential Calculus (1879), Treatise on the Integral Calculus (1881), Curve Tracing in Cartesian Coordinates (1882), Treatise on Differential Equations (1889), Theory of Errors and Method of Least Squares (1890), Theoretical Mechanics (1901), Treatise on the Differential Calculus (1904), Differential Equations (1906), Treatise on the Integral Calculus (1907), and Elementary Treatise on the Differential Calculus (1908); contributor to Messenger of Mathematics (English), Quarterly Journal of Mathematics, Analyst, American Journal of Mathematics, Bulletin of the American Mathematical Society, Proceedings of the U.S. Naval Institute, and Proceedings of the London Mathematical Society; one of the founders of New York Mathematical Society, which later became American Mathematical Society, and of whose council he was a member, member London Mathematical Society, corresponding member British Association for the Advancement of Science, former Fellow of American Association for the Advancement of Science, member Protestant Episcopal Church

Married August 12, 1869, in Annapolis, Susannah Leverett,

Death due to bronchopneumonia and the infirmities of age. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Baltimore. Survived by two sons, four grandchildren, one great-granddaughter, and a brother, Charles F. Johnson, '55.

Richard Cary Morse, B.A. 1862.

Born September 19, 1841, in Hudson, N.Y.
Died December 25, 1926, in Brooklyn, N.Y.

Father, Richard Cary Morse (B.A. 1812, M.A. Middlebury 1825), one of the founders and an associate editor and proprietor of the New York Observer; son of the Rev. Jedidiah Morse (B.A. 1783, M.A. Princeton 1787, D.D. Edinburgh 1794), "Father of American Geography," and Elizabeth Ann (Breese) Morse; great-grandson of Samuel Finley, fifth president of Princeton College; descendant in the seventh generation from Anthony Morse, who came from Marlboro, Wiltshire, England, to Newbury, Mass., in 1635. Mother, Sarah Louisa (Davis) Morse, daughter of William Henry and Charlotte (Gebhard) Davis; descendant of William Davis, who came to New England from St. Thomas, West Indies. Yale relatives include: Samuel S. Breese (honorary B.A. 1789) (great-uncle); Samuel F. B. Morse (B.A. 1810) and Sidney E. Morse (B.A. 1811) (uncles); Richard M. Colgate, '77, Gilbert Colgate, '83, Sidney M. Colgate, '85, Austen Colgate, '86, Samuel Colgate, '91, Russell Colgate, '96, Richard C. Morse, '06 S., Oliver C. Morse, '10, and Anthony Morse, '15 (nephews); Henry A. Colgate, '13, S. Bayard Colgate, ex. '21, Gilbert Colgate, Jr., '22, and Robert B. Colgate, '24 (grandnephews); and Edward L. Morse, '78 (cousin).

Phillips-Andover Oration appointments Junior and Senior years; Townsend Premium Senior year; rowed against Harward in class boat "Thulia" Sophomore year; member Brothers in Unity, Psi Upsilon, Scroll and Key, and Phi Beta Kappa

Spent the year 1862-63 in literary work with his father, engaged in tutoring at Willowbrook, N. Y., 1863-65; studied at Union and Princeton Theological Seminaries 1865-67, graduating from both in 1867; licensed to preach by 3d Presbytery of New York 1866 and ordained as a Presbyterian minister January 15, 1869, but never entered the active ministry, assistant editor of New York Observer 1867-69; identified with the supervision and extension of the Young Men’s Christian Association through its International Committee since 1869; general agent and editor of Association Monthly 1869-1871, visiting secretary 1871-72, general secretary (the first) 1872-1915, and consulting general secretary since 1915; in 1924, after the formation of the National Council of Y M C A of the United States, made consulting general secretary of that body and served until his death, in 1878 chosen member of New Central International Committee, later known as the World’s Committee of the Y M C A and served until 1888, when elected honorary secretary (in 1913 elected for life), one of the American members of the general committee of World’s Student Christian Federation 1897-1907, advisory director of Y M C A in New York City since 1878, delegate to World Conference of Y. M. C. A. Workers with Boys at Portschach, Austria, 1923; took an active part in organization of Yale Y. M. C. A and was instrumental in the planning and erection of Dwight Hall, the first student Christian Association building in the United States, had served as member of Advisory Council of Yale Y M C A since 1883 and as chairman of the council 1888-1910; member National War Work Council, Y M C A, serving in Educational Department for camps in the United States and, June 29—October 1, 1918, in France; in connection with his work, beginning with 1872, made many trips to Great Britain and the Continent, also in 1903 and 1907, tours to India, Australia, China, Korea, Japan, the Philippines, and Russia; M A Yale 1865, LL.D. Pennsylvania State College 1918, D D Colgate 1920, author: The Young Men’s Christian Association as It Is (1872, 1874, 1876), The International Work (1874), Historical Sketch of the American Young Men's Christian Association (1890, 1896), The Influence and Relationships of the Young Men's Christian Association (1890, 1896), The State Work of the Young Men's Christian Association (1891), Robert R. McBurney, a Memorial (1899), Polity of Young Men's Christian Associations (1904), Fifty Years of Federation of the Young Men's Christian Association of North America (1905), Relation to the Churches of the Young Men's Christian Association (1906), History of the North American Young Men's Christian Associations (1913), My Life with Young Men, Fifty Years in the Young Men's Christian Association (1918), and Chapter XII in Two Centuries of Christian Activity at Yale (1901); member First Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn.

Married June 21, 1883, in Brooklyn, Jane Elizabeth, daughter of Joshua Marsden and Mary Eleanor (Burch) VanCott. No children. Mrs. Morse died April 18, 1917.

Death, due to a general breakdown, followed a severe cold. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by a brother, William H. Morse, '67. His eldest brother, Sidney E. Morse, '56, died in 1908, and a third brother, Oliver C. Morse, '68, in 1922.

John Hermon Woodruff, B.A. 1863.

Born March 20, 1843, in Auburn, N.Y.
Died October 3, 1926, in Auburn, N.Y.

Father, Harmon Woodruff, a merchant, son of Uriah and Eleanor (Harmon) Woodruff; great-grandson of Thomas Woodruff, who came from England to New Marlboro, Mass., about 1750. Mother, Jane Hatch (Cook) Woodruff, daughter of Philip and Clarissa (Hatch) Cook; descendant of Capt. Thomas Cook, who came to this country from England. Yale relatives include two nephews, Glover Beardsley, '03, and Harry S. Beardsley, '08.

Superintendent of a cotton plantation in Louisiana 1863–64; in partnership with James A. Webb under firm name of
Obituary Record

Wilmington Manufacturing Company of Wilmington, N. C., and New York City, manufacturers of patent impermeable barrels, 1864-1876; then began manufacture of pearl buttons and moulding of composition buttons, in which he was a pioneer; moved his factory to Auburn in 1877 and with his brothers, Paul Cook and Edward Delevan Woodruff, formed Auburn Button Works, of which he was president until his death (his sons, Carlton H and Douglas Woodruff, had been associated with him since their graduation from Yale); his business had included moulding of other materials, such as celluloid and bakelite, and parts for other industries, which had previously depended upon machine methods; one of owners of Logan Silk Mills of Auburn; trustee Auburn City Hospital and Home for the Aged; president Cayuga County Orphan Asylum, elder of First Presbyterian Church, Auburn.

Married June 5, 1872, in Auburn, Caroline Porter, daughter of Alonzo Glover and Anna Phillips (Porter) Beardsley, and sister of William P. Beardsley, ex-'74, Alonzo G. Beardsley, '75, and Porter Beardsley, '86, and niece of Nelson Beardsley (B.A. 1827) Children Anna Beardsley (B L. Smith 1897); Carlton Hulbert, '00 S., Hermione; Carrie Bell, the wife of William Stickney Ewell, '01; Douglas, '05; Hope (died in infancy); Dorothy (B A. Smith 1909), the wife of Lemuel S. Hillman (B S. Colgate 1909), and Mildred, who married the Rev Harris B Steward (B.A. Princeton 1903).

Death due to mitral regurgitation Buried in Fort Hill Cemetery, Auburn Survived by wife, seven children, and thirteen grandchildren.

Charles Dana Townsend Gibson, B.A. 1864.

Born April 19, 1843, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died August 29, 1926, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Edmund Trowbridge Hastings Gibson, a broker; son of Thomas and Frances (Hastings) Gibson; descendant of John Gibson, who came from England to Cambridge, Mass, about 1630. Mother, Elizabeth Charlotte (Sanford) Gibson, daughter of Elijah and Elizabeth (Townsend) Sanford Brother, Edmund T. H Gibson, '64.
Polytechnic Institute, Brooklyn. Second colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years; member Brothers in Unity, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, and Alpha Delta Phi.

M.A 1867; M.D. Columbia 1868, on staff of Bellevue Hospital, New York City, 1867–69; practiced in Brooklyn 1869–1871 and in Sandusky, Ohio, 1871–78, fire insurance broker in New York City 1878–1900; assistant cashier of Lancashire Insurance Company of New York City 1900–02, auditor for Middle States Inspection Bureau from 1902 to 1911, when it ceased to exist, and then for Westchester Fire Insurance Company of New York until his retirement in 1918; lived in Hartsdale, N. Y., 1918–1923; for past three years his home had been at Indian Neck, Branford, Conn.

Married March 9, 1886, in New York City, Mary, daughter of Noah and Mary (Marlow) Tugwell. One daughter, Edna Sanford (Mrs. James Elliott Buttolph)

Death, due to pneumonia, occurred at Far View Sanitarium, New Haven. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, daughter, three grandsons, and a sister, Mrs. Clarence Meigs Noble, of Hartford, Conn.

Ledyard Stevens, B.A. 1864.

Born February 23, 1844, in New York City
Died September 21, 1926, in New York City

Father, Alexander Hodgdon Stevens (B.A. 1807, M.D. University of Pennsylvania 1811, LL.D. Regents University of New York State 1849), president College of Physicians and Surgeons, New York City, New York Academy of Medicine, and American Medical Society; son of General Ebenezer Stevens, one of the Boston Tea Party, who served at battles of Saratoga and Yorktown and was a Major General of Artillery in War of 1812, and Lucretia (Ledyard) Stevens; descendant of Erasmus Stevens, who came to America from Cornwall, England, about 1727 and settled at Boston, Mass.; descended also from John Ledyard, who settled originally at Southold, Long Island, and later in Hartford, Conn. Mother, Phoebe (Lloyd) Stevens; daughter of John Nelson Lloyd (B.A. 1802) and Phoebe (Coles) Lloyd; great-granddaughter of the Rev Ebenezer White (B.A. 1733); ancestors came to America from Wales. Yale relatives include Samuel Stevens (B.A. 1805), Byam K. Stevens (B.A. 1811), and John A. Stevens (B.A. 1813) (uncles); and Alexander H Stevens, '54, Frederic W. Stevens, '58, Eben Stevens, '92, Francis K. Stevens, '97, Byam K. Stevens, '19, and William D. Stevens, '23 (cousins).
Obituary Record

Prepared for college at the school of the Rev Henry M. Colton (B.A. 1848) in Middletown, Conn. One of the Cochlaureati, captain Glyuna Boat Club; member Delta Kappa, Alpha Sigma Phi, Psi Upsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Studied at Columbia School of Mines 1865–66; clerk in Union Car Spring Company of New York 1866–67; then managed a woolen mill at Astoria, N.Y., for a time; connected with New York Gas Light Company for several years; subsequently engaged in various business enterprises in and about New York and in literary work for papers and magazines, retired from active business 1910; had resided in Greenwich, Conn, since 1924; member St. James' Episcopal Church, New York City.

Married September 20, 1882, in Glen Cove, N.Y., Elizabeth Winthrop, daughter of Octavius Augustus White, M.D., LL.D (B.A. College of Charleston 1846) and Elizabeth Winthrop (Chanler) White. One daughter, Elizabeth Winthrop, the wife of John deK Bowen, '10.

Death, due to heart failure following an operation on the bladder, occurred at the Post-Graduate Hospital, New York City. Buried in the family vault in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, daughter, three grandchildren, and a brother, Lloyd Stevens, of Astoria, N.Y.

Cyrus Austin Leland, B.A. 1865.

Born August 11, 1843, in Ottawa, Ill.
Died October 16, 1926, in El Dorado, Kans.

Father, Lorenzo Leland, a lawyer; clerk of Supreme Court of Illinois for eighteen years; son of Cyrus and Betsy (Kimball) Leland, descendant of Henry Leland, who came from England to Sherborn, Mass., in 1652. Mother, Martha Harrington (Holbrook) Leland; daughter of Austin Holbrook.
Williston Academy  First colloquy appointment  Junior year; member Glyuna Boat Club, Brothers in Unity, Delta Kappa, and Alpha Delta Phi

Assistant and deputy in office of clerk of Supreme Court of Northern Grand Division of Illinois 1865–67; admitted to the bar in 1867; practiced law in Ottawa 1868–1877, being associated with E. E. Lewis 1868–1876, moved to El Dorado in 1877 and had since practiced there; in partnership with his brother, Lorenzo Leland, '74, under firm name of Leland & Leland 1877–1880; then practiced alone eight years; judge of 13th Judicial District 1888–1892; partner of C L Harris under firm name of Leland & Harris 1892–1909, of K M Geddes under name of Leland & Geddes (later Leland, Geddes & Ralston) 1910–16, and of L J Bond under name of Leland & Bond from 1917 until his death; for a while subsequent to 1921, while R T. McCluggage was member of firm, name was Leland, Bond & McCluggage, had served as city attorney of El Dorado, as receiver of State National Bank of Wichita, Kans, as director and attorney for Farmers & Merchants National Bank of El Dorado, as a regent of Kansas State Agricultural College, as member of El Dorado School Board, and as president of Commercial Club of El Dorado; in 1882 received Democratic nomination for Congress, but was defeated; charter member Kansas State Bar Association

Married December 7, 1870, in Ottawa, Nellie Almeda, daughter of Aaron and Flora (Prescott) Thompson Children: Percy Sharp (died in 1909), Flora May; Cecil Prescott, the wife of Frederick Benjamin MacKinnon, who attended the University of Kansas three years; Helen Anthony (died in childhood), and Cyrus Austin, Jr

Death, due to heart disease, occurred after an illness of a month; had been in failing health for about a year  Buried in Belle Vista Cemetery, El Dorado. Survived by wife, son, two daughters, five grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs Marcia Davies, of Kansas City, Mo.
Edward Brown Bennett, B.A. 1866.

Born April 12, 1842, in Hampton, Conn
Died March 24, 1927, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, William Bennett, a farmer; representative in Connecticut General Assembly; son of William and Anna (Fuller) Bennett, descendant of William Bennett, who came from Ipswich, England, to Ipswich, Mass, and later settled in Hartford. Mother, Marina (Brown) Bennett. Yale relatives: Howard R. Bennett, ex-’06 S. (nephew); and William H. Bennett, ’66, and Harold B. Kline, ’07 S. (cousins).

Williston Academy. Second colloquy appointment Junior year, third prize in Linonia Freshman debate and second prize in Senior debate, member Varuna, Boat Club and University Crew three years, and commodore of Yale Navy Senior year; member Spoon Committee, Gamma Nu, Alpha Delta Phi, and Scroll and Key Taught for a short time after graduating from Yale and then studied law in office of Chauncey F. Cleveland in Hampton and later in office of Franklin Chamberlain in Hartford; admitted to Windham County Bar in January, 1868; M.A. 1869; practiced law in Hampton 1868–69 and since then in Hartford, associated with George O Brott, ’88, under firm name of Bennett & Brott 1869–1909; clerk of Hartford Police Court 1871–74, recorder of the City Court 1870–78 and then judge of that court to 1891; member Hartford Common Council 1872–73, postmaster of Hartford 1891–96 and 1900–07, in 1868 elected representative from Hampton to the General Assembly; served as assistant clerk in 1869 and clerk in 1870; clerk of the Senate in 1871; secretary of Republican State Central Committee of Connecticut 1870–76; president and director of Hartford City Gas Light Company since 1904, vice-president (1892–1900) and a director (1889–1904) of Hartford Electric Light Company; vice-president since 1907 and director since 1906 of James L. Howard & Company (railroad supplies); president and director of Springfield (Mass.) Waste Company; treasurer (1890–1916) and director (1900–1916) of Farmington River Power Company, had also been president of the company; director of The Travelers Insurance Company (member of finance com-

Edward Richmond Betts, B.A. 1866.

Born March 12, 1844, in Brooklyn, N Y
Died July 28, 1926, in Brooklyn, N Y

Father, Charles Comstock Betts; president of Brooklyn City Railroad Company; son of Zebulon and Abigail (Burt) Betts; descendant of Thomas Betts. Mother, Sarah (Lott) Betts; daughter of Daniel and Maria (Suydam) Lott; descendant of Peter Lott. Yale relatives include Walter S Brewster, ’89.

Overhiser’s School, Brooklyn Member Varuna Boat Club, Linonia, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Alpha Sigma Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Spade and Grave.

Engaged in the brokerage business in New York City from graduation until his retirement some time before his death; served as second vice-president of Consolidated Stock Exchange of New York for a number of years (chairman of its gratuity fund for many successive terms and member of its board of governors)

Married June 19, 1872, in Brooklyn, Emma, daughter of James Frothingham and Mary (Eskildson) Whitney Children: Herbert Minton; Emily (who married Horace A Loomis, ’96, whose death occurred in 1908), now the wife of the Rev Paul Moore Strayer (B.D. 1903, D.D. University of Rochester 1915); and Roland Whitney, ’00 S Mrs Betts died July 18, 1906.

Death due to heart disease Buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Hartford His wife survives him.
Obituary Record

Death due to old age. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by daughter, two sons, and two grandchildren.

Gilbert Livingston Bishop, B.A. 1866.

Born May 1, 1845, in Astoria, N.Y.
Died July 14, 1926, at Twilight Park, N.Y.

Father, the Rev Alexander Hamilton Bishop (B.A. 1830); studied at Princeton Theological Seminary; pastor of Dutch Reformed Church, Astoria; son of Timothy Bishop (B.A. 1796) and Esther (Huggins) Bishop, great-grandson of John Hotchkiss (B.A. 1748, M.A. 1762, honorary M.A. Harvard 1765, Princeton 1772, Dartmouth 1775); descendant of John Bishop, who came to America from England in 1639 and was one of the founders of Guilford, Conn. Mother, Susan (Holmes) Bishop; daughter of Obadiah and Sarah (Van Wyck) Holmes, other ancestors include the Rev. George Lloyd, D.D., bishop of Chester (1604–1616), and Theophilus Eaton, first governor of New Haven colony. Yale relatives include Gabriel Hotchkiss (B.A. 1774) and Frederick W. Hotchkiss (B.A. 1778) (great-great-uncles); E. Huggins Bishop (B.A. 1826) (uncle), Samuel H. Dana, '69 (brother-in-law); Timothy H. Bishop, '60 M, Louis B. Bishop, '86, and Herbert M. Bishop, '90 (cousins).

Hopkins Grammar School First colloquy appointment Senior year; member Varuna Boat Club, Linonia, and Kappa Sigma Epsilon

Spent first year after graduation in travel and study abroad, M.A. 1869; studied theology in New York City 1867–69 and at the divinity school in West Philadelphia 1869–1870, then entered Protestant Episcopal ministry; assistant minister of Church of the Advent, Philadelphia, 1870–71, rector of St James' Church, West Philadelphia, 1871–76 and of St Paul's Church, West Whiteland, Pa., 1876–79; assistant minister of St. Luke's Church, Germantown, Pa., 1879–1881; rector of Church of the Good Shepherd, Binghamton, N.Y., 1881–85; missionary in charge of Church of the Advent, Kennett Square, Pa., and of St John's Church, New London, Pa., 1885–88 and of Church of the Good Samaritan, Paoli, Pa., 1888–1896, during next two years resided in West Philadelphia, but was not in active ministry on account of ill health; missionary in Diocese of New Jersey from 1898 until his retirement in 1920, during that time rector of St James’ Church, Paulsboro, and St Stephen’s Church, Mullica Hill, 1900–08, St Barnabas’ Church, Mantua, 1902–1920, and All Saints’ Church, Wenonah, 1908–1920; after his retirement lived in Philadelphia until 1921 and since then with a son in Frazer, Pa.

Married June 1, 1869, in Philadelphia, Ellen Mecum, daughter of George Washington and Charlotte Biddle (West) Connarroe. Children: Katharine Holmes, the wife of Edward H. Williamson, Jr., a non-graduate member of the University of Pennsylvania Class of 1888; George Connarroe; Charlotte West (Mrs. Hugh Penn Brinton); Alexander Hamilton, Haverford ex.’98; and Gilbert Livingston, Jr., Haverford ex.’99. Mrs. Bishop died March 5, 1921.

Lost his life in a fire which destroyed the Twilight Inn at Twilight Park, and in which his daughter, Mrs. Brinton, also died. Buried in St Paul’s Cemetery, Glen Loch, Pa. Survived by three sons, one daughter, and eight grandchildren.

Gould Abijah Shelton, B.A. 1866.

Born August 19, 1841, in Huntington (now Shelton), Conn. Died January 8, 1927, in Shelton, Conn.

Father, Judson Curtiss Shelton, a farmer, son of Samuel Frederick and Eunice Hannah (Curtiss) Shelton, a lineal descendant in the fourth generation of Daniel Shelton, who probably came to Connecticut from Virginia, to which his ancestors had immigrated from Deptford, Yorkshire, England, and settled first in Stratford in 1687 and later (about 1707) in the parish of Ripton, which was incorporated into Huntington in 1789; was the original owner of large tracts of land in what is now Stamford, Farmington, Oxford, Woodbury, Derby, and Waterbury, and married Elizabeth Welles, daughter of Samuel Welles, magistrate, and granddaughter of Governor Thomas Welles of Connecticut, one of the first settlers of Hartford, Conn. Mother, Hannah (Lewis) Shelton; daughter of Ephraim and Mehitabel (Nichols) Lewis Yale relatives: Philo Shelton (B A. 1775) (great-great-uncle); Wilson C. Wheeler, '80, Vincent C. Peck, '84, and G. Shelton Bissell, '09 (nephews); and George A. Shelton (B A. 1820) (cousin)

Staples Academy, Easton, Conn. Entered Yale with Class of 1866 but left early in Junior year; member Brothers in Unity and Gamma Nu; taught at Mountain View Academy, Fishkill, N. Y., 1864–65; principal of schools in Port Washington, N Y, 1865–66; then entered Yale School of Medicine, where he received degree of M.D. in 1869; in 1891 received honorary M A at Yale and in 1905 was enrolled in Class of 1866.

Had practiced medicine in Shelton ever since graduation from the Medical School; consulting physician to Bridgeport and New Haven hospitals since 1892, visiting and consulting physician to Griffin Hospital, Derby; established health department of Borough of Shelton in 1866; had served as health officer of city of Shelton since 1885, as coroner-medical examiner since 1889, as school physician, and as registrar of vital statistics; member Board of Burgesses of Shelton 1885–89 and warden of Borough of Shelton 1890–93; member Shelton Board of Education eighteen years, serving as secretary for a number of years and as president of Town School Committee 1876–1888; president of Park Commission since 1893 and Shelton Water Company from 1893 until 1916, when it was consolidated with Bridgeport Hydraulic Company, an organizer of Shelton Savings Bank and director until it merged into Shelton Bank & Trust Company; president of Riverview Cemetery Association; secretary and director of Shelton Silver Plate Cutlery Company; actively associated in the building of the Plumb Memorial Library and secretary and treasurer of its board of directors since 1901, represented Huntington in the General Assembly in 1895 and 1909, serving during both terms as chairman of House Committee on Public Health and Safety; president Fairfield County Medical Society 1889, Connecticut State Medical Society 1903, and Association of Yale Alumni in Medicine 1893; secretary of his Medical School Class for many years; member American Medical Association, American Academy of Medicine, Derby and Shelton Board of Trade, and Congregational Church, Shelton.

Death, due to the infirmities of age, occurred after a long illness. Buried in Riverview Cemetery, Shelton.

Siegwart Spier, B.A. 1866.

Born August 29, 1844, in Rothenburg, Hesse, Germany.
Died April 26, 1927, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Asher Spier; superintendent of an orphanage in Kassel, Germany. Mother, Peschen (Fleischhacker) Spier.
Nephew: Theodore A. Zunder, '23

Came to America alone at the age of thirteen. Preparatory training received at Norwich (Conn) Free Academy. Oration appointments Junior and Senior years; director of the Beethoven Society; an organizer of the University Glee Club; member Brothers in Unity, Gamma Nu, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Studied in the Yale School of Law 1866-67 and later in the office of Charles Johnson in New Haven, following his admission to the bar, practiced law in New Haven until his retirement in 1917; associated in practice with Wilson H. Clark, '45 L, for a few years; leader of the Teutones Manner Choir, Schiller Bund, and Hessen Verein; secretary of Congregation Mishkan Israel 1880-1911; member New Haven County Bar Association.

Married June 14, 1871, in New Haven, Isabella, daughter of Maier and Regina (Rosenthal) Zunder. Children: Seymour Leopold, '04 M., and Julius Albert.

Death, due to a fractured skull combined with internal injuries and general shock, occurred almost instantly when he was struck by a trolley car. Buried in Mishkan Israel Cemetery. Survived by wife, two sons, two grandchildren, and two brothers, Moritz Spier, of New Haven, and Nathan Spier, of Rockaway Park, N. J.
Obituary Record

Arthur Douglas Bissell, B.A. 1867.

Born January 10, 1844, in New London, N.Y.
Died November 13, 1926, in Buffalo, N.Y.

Father, John Bissell; engaged in the transportation business; descendant of John Bissell, of Windsor, Conn., who came from Somerset, England, to Plymouth, Mass., in 1628, settled at Windsor before 1640, and established Bissell's Ferry across the Connecticut River, under charter from the King Mother, Isabella Jeanette (Hally) Bissell, ancestors came from Scotland and settled in the land near Albany called by the Indians "Tawasentha." Brother, Wilson S. Bissell, '69.

Engaged in freight and forwarding business in partnership with his father and uncle in Buffalo 1867-1885; collector of customs at Port of Buffalo 1885-89; had since been connected with Peoples Bank of Buffalo, of which he was an organizer in 1889; vice-president 1889-1903, president 1903-1920, and since then chairman of board of directors, an organizer and director of Williamsville (N.Y.) Bank; director of Lancaster (N.Y.) Bank; elected president of New York State Bankers Association in 1902 (also a founder and first treasurer); trustee Westminster Presbyterian Church, Buffalo, and Forest Lawn Cemetery.

Married June 16, 1874, in Buffalo, Fanny, daughter of Dan Beech and Fanny (Durkee) Castle. Children: Thomas Hally (died in 1897); Mary Eleanor (Mrs. James D. Warren); Howard, '00; Raymond, '02 (died February 23, 1926); Arthur Douglas, Jr., '06, Isabelle Jeanette, the wife of Bradley Goodyear, '07, and Lloyd, '16.

Death, due to heart trouble and age, occurred after an illness of two weeks. Buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Buffalo. Survived by wife, two daughters, three sons, and twelve grandchildren.
David James Burrell, B.A. 1867.

Born August 1, 1844, at Mount Pleasant, Pa
Died December 5, 1926, in Madison, N J

Father, David Burrell, a merchant; son of John and Margaret (Grove) Burrell, grandson of David Burrell, who came to America from Ireland with his two brothers about the middle of the eighteenth century and settled in Westmoreland County, Pa; the Burrell family, originally French Huguenots, when driven out of Alsace by the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes, emigrated to England and settled at Port O'Down, County Armagh, Ireland. Mother, Elizabeth (Felgar) Burrell, daughter of Ludwig and Catharine (Dunn) Felgar, of Westmoreland County, Pa (Mrs Felgar was born on the ocean while her parents were coming to this country from the north of Ireland). Yale relatives include a nephew, Louis H Burrell, ex-'93, and a grandnephew, David M Burrell, '29

High School, Freeport, Ill (whence his father had moved from Mount Pleasant in 1852), and Phillips-Andover First and third prizes in English composition and second prize in declamation Sophomore year; oration appointments Junior and Senior years; Townsend Premium and DeForest Gold Medal Senior year; member Linonia (won first prize in its Freshman debate), Delta Kappa, Delta Beta Xi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Scroll and Key, and Phi Beta Kappa Studied at Chicago Theological Seminary 1867–68 and then at Union Theological Seminary, where he graduated in 1870; had charge of a mission chapel in New York City 1870–71 and of Peoria Street Chapel of Third Presbyterian Church, Chicago, 1871 and 1872, latter chapel established as Westminster Church, of which he was pastor 1872–76, his ordination taking place in 1872, pastor Second Presbyterian Church, Dubuque, Iowa, 1876–1887, Westminster Presbyterian Church, Minneapolis, Minn, 1887–1891; Marble Collegiate (Dutch Reformed) Church, New York City, since 1891; at time of death, senior minister of Collegiate Reformed Protestant Dutch Church in New York, the oldest church corporation in America (founded 1628), summer preacher at the Moses Taylor Memorial Church, Elberon, N J, for some years; acting professor of homiletics at Princeton Theological Seminary 1903–07 and professor-elect of homiletics 1907–1911; James Sprunt lecturer at Union Theological Seminary of Virginia in 1913, president of World’s Council of the Reformed and Presbyterian Churches 1909–1913, presiding in that capacity at the quadrennial meeting in Aberdeen, Scotland, 1913; moderator of Reformed Church in America 1920; elected a manager of The American Sabbath Union in 1895 and served on the board continuously until his death, the name of the Union being changed in 1908 to Lord’s Day Alliance of the United States, Inc.; president of New York State Sabbath Association (since 1921 Lord’s Day Alliance of New York State, Inc.) 1899–1922 and since then president emeritus; member of board of managers of The Evangelical Alliance at time of death (former member of its executive committee), elected member of publishing committee of American Tract Society 1896 and made chairman of committee and vice-president of the society 1917, holding both offices until his death; director of Princeton Theological Seminary, trustee of United Society of Christian Endeavor since 1898; one of the seven original incorporators of Anti-Saloon League of New York in 1905, its president 1921–23, and a director 1905–1924; director of Anti-Saloon League of America; trustee of Presbyterian Hospital, New York; associate editor of The Presbyterian of Philadelphia and of The Christian Herald; president of Phillips-Andover Alumni Association 1917–18; D D Parsons 1883 and Rutgers 1916; LL D Hope 1902 and Dubuque 1917; author: The Religions of the World (1885), Hints and Helps (1891–93), Gospel of Gladness (1892), Morning Cometh (1893), Religion of the Future (1894), Spirit of the Age (1895), For Christ’s Crown and Covenant (1896), The Golden Passional (1897), The Early Church (1897), The Wondrous Cross (1898), God and the People (1899), The Gospel of Certainty (1899), The Unaccountable Man (1900), The Church in the Fort (1901), The Wonderful Teacher (1902), A Quiver of Arrows (1902), Christ and Progress (1903), The Verities of Jesus (1903), Teachings of Jesus Concerning the Scriptures (1904), Christ and Men (1905), Evolution of a Christian (1906), The Wayfarers of the Bible (1907), The Lure of the City (1908), Christus und der Fortschritt (1908), The Cloister Book (1909), In David’s Town (1910), At the Gate

Beautiful (1911), The Home Sanctuary (1911), The Old-Time Religion (1913), The Sermon: Its Construction and Delivery (1913), The Church in the Upper Room (1913), We Would See Jesus (1914), The Apostles' Creed (1915), Why I Believe the Bible (1917), The Laughter of God (1918), Campaings of Paul (1919), The Resurrection and the Life Beyond (1920), Paul's Companions (1921), Paul's Letters (1921), Sermons for the Times (1924), Life and Letters of St Paul (1925), and The Golden Parable (1926); sermons printed in pamphlet form for over twenty years and sent all over the world; member of Reformed Classis for over thirty-five years

Married October 18, 1871, in Freeport, Ill., Clara Sergeant, daughter of George Frederick DeForest (B. A. 1831) and Caroline E. (Sergeant) DeForest, and niece of Henry A. DeForest (B.A. 1832). Children: Clara Miriam (died in 1880); Elizabeth Sergeant, the wife of Fitzhugh C Speer (B A Princeton 1895); David DeForest (B A 1898, B D Princeton Theological Seminary 1901, D D. Dubuque 1917); Norman Macleod (B.A. 1899, LL B Columbia 1902) (died in 1914); Eleanor Loudenois (B A. Bryn Mawr 1903), the wife of Raymond Hornby; and Katharine DeForest (died in 1892) Mrs Burrell died September 21, 1918.

Death, due to heart failure, followed a slight paralytic stroke. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York Survived by one son, two daughters, eight grandchildren, and two brothers, Daniel W. Burrell, of Freeport, Ill, and Joseph D Burrell, '81.

Franklin Monroe Sprague, B.A. 1867.

Born November 1, 1841, in East Douglas, Mass
Died December 30, 1926, in Tampa, Fla

Father, Edward Lee Sprague, a farmer; son of Federal Constitution Sprague; of English ancestry Mother, Sarah Charlotte (Sessions) Sprague, also of English ancestry

Pierce Academy, Middleboro, Mass, and Hopkins Grammar School. First prize in declamation Sophomore year, third prize in Linonia Freshman debate and second prize in Linonia Junior debate; member Delta Kappa and Psi Upsilon; left college at end of Junior year; in 1901 given an honorary M.A. with enrollment in Class of 1867.
Obituary Record

Studied law at York, Pa, 1866–68 and admitted to bar; on account of ill health postponed beginning of practice two years, during which period was engaged in manufacture of brick with Robert Andrew in Hudson, N. Y; practiced law in Worcester, Mass., 1870–73; studied theology in that city 1873–75 and ordained to Congregational ministry September 22, 1875, pastor at Leon, Wis., 1875–76; Sparta, Wis., 1876–77; Carlisle and Central Church, Chelmsford, Mass., 1877–79, Indian Orchard, Mass., 1879–1885; Agawam, Mass., 1887–1892; and Tampa, Fla., 1897–1908, since then pastor emeritus; author: Eulogy on the Rev William Gaylord (1883), Socialism from Genesis to Revelation (1893), The Laws of Social Evolution (1895), An Introduction to Law, Labor and Liberty, The City Problem in Our Country (1897), Made in Germany (1915), The Creed and Need of the New Congregationalism (1920), and The Bible Versus the Secretary (1923); had contributed to Springfield Union, Congregationalist, and other periodicals; served during Civil War as Lieutenant and Captain of Company G, 11th Connecticut Volunteers, 1861–63; honorary member A B C F M

Married October 31, 1866, in Hudson, N Y, Abbie Ranney, daughter of Henry and Catherine (Ranney) Fellows. Children: Cora Marshall and Emma Mernam, the wife of the Rev George M Ward (B.A. Dartmouth 1882, LL B. Boston University 1885, D D. Dartmouth 1900, LL D Rollins 1903 and University of Florida 1918), former president of Wells College and president emeritus of Rollins College

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Holden, Mass. Survived by wife and two daughters

William Thomsen, B.A. 1867.

Born June 20, 1846, in Baltimore, Md
Died November 4, 1926, in Baltimore, Md

Father, Laurence Thomsen, a merchant; founder of the wholesale liquor establishment of Laurence Thomsen & Company of Baltimore; son of Laurence Thomsen, who came from Denmark to Baltimore in 1815, and Maria (Boller) Thomsen. Mother, Emily Jane (Jones) Thomsen; daughter of Richard Henry and Mary (Durbin) Jones

Prepared for college at Messrs Topping and Carey's private school in Baltimore. Member Varuna Boat Club, Linonia, Delta Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi, and Delta Kappa Epsilon

Became connected with Laurence Thomsen & Company after graduation and was admitted to the firm 1881; senior member of firm 1889–1904; after 1904 gradually withdrew from active business and devoted most of his time to fiduciary affairs; a vestryman of Grace Episcopal Church since 1890 and treasurer of the vestry 1898–1925; treasurer of the Church Home and Infirmary 1901–1925 and of Margaret J Bennett Home 1908–1926

Married October 17, 1872, in Portland, Maine, Lena, daughter of Thomas Wilson and Sarah (Hunt) O’Brion

Children. Bertha Leland (Mrs Charles A Raymond), William Edward, and Helen (Mrs A Leon Brown), who attended the Woman’s College of Baltimore for two years and died in 1922. Mrs Thomsen died May 3, 1916

Death due to heart disease Buried in Druid Ridge Cemetery, Baltimore Survived by son, elder daughter, and twelve grandchildren.

Henry Augustin Beers, B.A. 1869.

Born July 2, 1847, in Buffalo, N Y
Died September 7, 1926, in New Haven, Conn

Father, George Webster Beers (B A Trinity 1839), son of Seth Preston and Belinda (Webster) Beers, descendant of James Beers, who came from England in 1634 and settled in Fairfield, Conn , in 1659. Mother, Elizabeth Victoria (Clerc) Beers; daughter of Laurent Clerc, a French deaf mute, who came to this country in 1816 to assist Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet (B A. 1805) in founding the first institution for the teaching of deaf mutes in America, and Elizabeth Crocker (Boardman) Clerc. Yale relatives include: Laurent Heaton, ’02 (nephew); and Charles C. and Henry C Deming, both ’72,
Obituary Record

Laurent C Deming, ’83, William W Heaton, ’96, Joshua B Waterworth, ’08, and Chase Heaton, ex-’27 (cousins)

Hartford Public High School First prize in English composition and prize for English poem Sophomore year; philosophical oration appointment Junior year; high oration appointment Senior year, member Varuna Boat Club, The Red Letter Literary Club, Brothers in Unity (first prize in its Junior Prize Debate), Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Alpha Delta Phi, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa Studied law in office of Evarts, Southmayd & Choate in New York City and admitted to bar in May, 1870, practiced law in New York City 1870-71; tutor in English at Yale 1871-74, assistant professor of English literature January, 1875-1880, professor 1880-1916, and since then emeritus professor, Isaac H. Bromley lecturer at Yale 1921-22; honorary M A Yale 1887; author: Odds and Ends (verse dedicated to Class of 1869) (1878), A Century of American Literature, 1776-1876 (1878), “Presentation Day” in Kingsley’s Yale College, a Sketch of Its History (1879), “Split Zephyr” in Stories by American Authors (1884), Nathaniel Parker Willis in American Men of Letters Series (1885), The Thankless Muse (verse) (1885), Readings from Ruskin (Garnet Seal Series) (1885), An Outline Sketch of English Literature (1886), “Hartford in Literature” in Trumbull’s The Memorial History of Hartford County, Connecticut, 1663-1884 (1886), An Outline Sketch of American Literature (1887), Donald G Mitchell (Ik Marvel) in Gilder’s Authors at Home (1888), Explanatory and pronouncing dictionary of the names of noted fictitious persons and places in Webster’s International Dictionary (1890), From Chaucer to Tennyson (1890), Initial Studies in American Letters (1891), Selections from the Prose Writings of Samuel Taylor Coleridge (1893), The Ways of Yale in the Consulship of Plancus (1895), Brief History of English and American Literature (1897), A History of English Romanticism in the Eighteenth Century (1899), A History of English Romanticism in the Nineteenth Century (1901), Points at Issue and Some Other Points (1904), Milton’s Tercentenary (1910), “Town and Gown Riot” in Nettleton’s The Book of the Yale Pageant (1916), The Two Twilights (verse) (1917), a foreword to James Fenimore-Cooper, Jr.’s, Afterglow (1918), Four Americans: Roosevelt, Hawthorne, Emerson, Whitman (1919), The Connecticut Wits and Other Essays (1920), Poems (1921), and Bumblebee (1925); associate editor of Johnson’s Universal Encyclopedia, Volumes 1-4 (1893-94); contributed to Yale Review and other magazines; member Authors’ Club of New York and Elizethan Club (president 1915-16); twice declined Litt. D. at Yale; in 1923 the Henry A. Beers Prize in American Literature was established in his honor at Yale by Howard Swiggett and Henry Tetlow, of the Class of 1914.

Married July 7, 1873, in Covington, Ky., Mary Florence, daughter of Thomas and Julia (Brenneman) Heaton, and sister of Edward Heaton, ’69. Children: Thomas Heaton, ex-’95 S. (died in February, 1926), Elizabeth Clerc; Katherine, the wife of Lucius H. Holt (B.A 1902, M.A. 1904, Ph.D. 1905); Frederick, ’02; Dorothy (Mrs. Howard Husted); Mary Heaton (Mrs. Vanderbilt Reginald Spader), Henry Augustin, Jr., ’09, and Donald, ’12

Death, due to anæmia, followed a long illness. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, three sons, four daughters, several grandchildren, among whom is Guy B. Holt, ex-’27, and a sister, Mrs. Charlotte G. Heaton, the widow of Edward Heaton, ’69.

Alexander Cameron, B.A. 1869.

Born March 9, 1849, in Charleston, S. C.
Died July 5, 1926, in Forest Hills, N. Y.

Father, George Scarron Cameron, a banker and merchant; born in Dunkeld, Scotland, came to this country about 1840; son of Alexander and Elizabeth (Brown) Cameron, of the Lochiel branch of the Cameron Clan. Mother, Eliza (Lewis) Cameron; born in Charleston, daughter of Isaac and Laetitia (Cairns) Lewis, who was born in London. Cousin, Charles Chamberlain, ex-’81 S.

Brooklyn Collegiate and Polytechnic Institute Second dispute appointments Junior and Senior years, member ’69 Baseball Club and Alpha Delta Phi; graduate member Wolf’s Head. Assistant corresponding secretary Niagara Fire Insurance Company of New York City January-April, 1870; read law and was admitted to bar in fall of 1870; managing clerk in a law office 1871–72; in 1872 spent three months as a rodman in engineering department of New York, West Shore & Chicago Railroad, engaged in survey of Mohawk valley, managing clerk in law office of Barney, Butler & Parsons in New York City 1872–74, partner with his classmate, James H. Gilbert, in law firm of Gilbert & Cameron 1874–1885; practiced independently for a while and then gave up general practice of law to become president and counsel of Long Island Telephone Company, which was afterwards merged with New York & New Jersey Telephone Company; served latter company as treasurer, vice-president, president, counsel, and director, upon its merger with New York Telephone Company, became general counsel for the company and held position until his death; in 1912, on motion of Attorney-general George W. Wickersham, admitted to plead before U. S. Supreme Court, since 1914, although an American citizen, entitled to plead before the Scots' Court; president and counsel of National Automatic Fire Alarm Company of Long Island; president New York Supply Company, Ltd.; member New York National Guard two years (about 1878–1880), refused a West Point appointment by General Slocum in summer of 1869, served as Judge Advocate on General Beebe's staff, 5th Brigade, New York State Militia; charter member New York University Club; former member St James' Episcopal Church, Brooklyn; member St Luke's Church, Forest Hills, at time of his death.

Married (1) September 28, 1876, in Brooklyn, Florence, daughter of Charles Kennedy and Margaret Kingsland (Sargeant) Burt. Children. Margaret (Mrs George W. Topliff) and Alexander, Jr., '01. Mrs. Cameron died November 14, 1900. Married (2) February 22, 1912, in New York City, Agnes Burke, daughter of John A. and Catherine (Burke) Nicholson. One son, George Burke.

Death, due to myocarditis and kidney trouble, followed a long illness. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, daughter, two sons, three grandchildren, and a great-granddaughter.
Arthur Shirley, B.A. 1869.

Born November 19, 1845, in Portland, Maine
Died February 5, 1927, in Stratford, Conn.

Father, George Henry Shirley; deputy surveyor of the Port of New York; son of Arthur and Ruth (Foster) Shirley; descendant of Edward Shirley, who was born in Burton, Devonshire, England, and later lived in Fryeburg, Maine. Mother, Mary Mayo (Colcord) Shirley, daughter of Josiah and Mary (Griffith) Colcord.

Portland High School Two prizes in English composition Sophomore year; philosophical oration appointment Junior year; valedictorian; Scholar of the House three years, member Junior Exhibition Committee, Gamma Nu, Alpha Delta Phi, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa

B D. 1872; ordained to Congregational ministry July 3, 1872, at Conway, Mass., where pastor until 1881; engaged in study and teaching in Boston 1881–82; pastor of Congregational churches in Upton, Mass., 1882–85 and New Gloucester, Maine, 1885–88; in 1888 went abroad as a private tutor and spent a year in England and France, pastor of Old Lyme (Conn) Congregational Church 1890–97; had since been engaged in private tutoring in Stratford, preaching occasionally, member Stratford Congregational Church

Married (1) June 4, 1872, in Portland, Mary Ann, daughter of Frederick and Ellen (Gould) Davis One adopted daughter, Charlotte Russell (Mrs Henry P Camp) Mrs Shirley died June 23, 1910. Married (2) December 1, 1911, in Stratford, Amy Talbot, who studied in the Yale School of the Fine Arts for three years, daughter of George Augustus and Sarah Abigail (Dorchester) Talbot No children by second marriage

Death due to heart failure Buried in Union Cemetery, Stratford Survived by wife, daughter, and a sister, Miss Isabel Shirley, of Brooklyn, N. Y.
William Henry Backus, B.A. 1870.

Born July 29, 1844, in West Killingly, Conn.
Died November 14, 1926, in Danielson, Conn.

Father, Thomas Backus (B.A. Brown 1819), a lawyer; representative and senator in Connecticut Legislature, president of the Senate, and lieutenant governor; son of Thomas Backus, a physician, and Lydia (Lathrop) Backus; descendant of William Backus, one of five brothers who came to Saybrook, Conn, from England in 1635 and settled in Norwich, in 1660. Mother, Sarah Anna (Young) Backus; daughter of Ebenezer Young (B.A. 1806), member of Congress, and Anna (Burnett) Young; descendant of the Rev Robert Cushman of Plymouth Colony. Cousins: Louis C. Tiffany (honorary M.A. 1903) and Charles L. Tiffany, '00.

Phillips-Andover. Entered Brown University with Class of 1868, but in January, 1865, transferred to the Freshman class at Yale, left at end of Sophomore year and in 1868 reentered as Junior with Class of 1870; member College Choir, Beethoven Society, Linonia, Delta Kappa, Delta Beta Xi, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

After graduation became engaged in newspaper work in Boston, at various times was reporter, night and exchange editor, special writer, musical critic, and assistant dramatic critic for Boston Advertiser; also with Boston Times for a time; in 1886 gave up his work on account of ill health and took a trip to California and Hawaii; since then had lived in Danielson, where he was a member of the Westfield Congregational Church.

Unmarried.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Westfield Cemetery, Danielson. Survived by no immediate relatives. Leaves a niece and a nephew.

Walter Buck, B.A. 1870.

Born September 29, 1847, in Boston, Mass.
Died March 7, 1927, in Andover, Mass.

Father, Edward Buck (B.A. 1835), a lawyer; editor of Massachusetts Ecclesiastical Law; son of Gurdon and Susannah.
Manwaring) Buck; grandson of David Manwaring (B.A. 1759); great-grandson of Gurdon Saltonstall (B.A. 1725); descendant of Emanuel Buck, who came from Devonshire, England, to Wethersfield, Conn, about 1645. Mother, Elizabeth Greene (Hubbard) Buck; daughter of Samuel Hubbard (B.A. 1802, LL.D. 1827 and Harvard 1842) and Mary Ann (Greene) Hubbard, half sister of James M Hubbard, '59, and Charles Eustis Hubbard, '62; great-granddaughter of Daniel Hubbard (B.A. 1727); descendant of William Hubbard (B.A. Harvard 1642), who came to this country from Ipswich, England, in 1635 and settled at Ipswich, Mass. Yale relatives include: Russell Hubbard (B.A. 1751), Gurdon Saltonstall (B.A. 1752), and Winthrop Saltonstall (B.A. 1756) (great-great-uncles); John Hubbard (honorary M.A. 1730) (great-uncle); David Buck (B.A. 1823) (uncle); and William J. Hubbard (B.A. 1820), Gardiner Greene (B.A. 1843), David G. Hubbard, '52, Albert H. Buck, '64, Francis D. Buck, '69 S., Gurdon S Buck, ex-70, Gardiner Greene, '73, Leonard V. Greene, '78 S., Harold W Buck, '94 S., and Winthrop P. Buck, ex-25 S. (cousins).

Phillips-Andover. Entered Yale with Class of 1868, but left college in Freshman year on account of illness; reentered with Class of 1870; oration appointment Junior year; dispute appointment Senior year; member Class and University Baseball nines, Linonia, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Phi Beta Kappa.

After graduation studied engineering at Massachusetts Institute of Technology for six months, was then employed by the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad on surveys in Iowa and Missouri for eleven months; subsequently engaged in the nursery business for a short time in Geneva, N. Y.; had lived in Andover since 1876; bookkeeper and cashier for J. M. Meredith, a real estate agent in Boston, for some time and then for real estate firms of Meredith & Nelson and Meredith & Grew successively until his retirement in 1921; member Seminary Church, Andover.

Married April 10, 1888, in Boston, Mary Westcott, daughter of William and Harriet (Westcott) Lawrie. No children.

Death due to arterial trouble. Buried in the Andover Chapel Cemetery. His wife survives him.
Obituary Record

Neville B. Craig, B.A. 1870.

Born December 1, 1847, in Allegheny City (now Pittsburgh), Pa.
- Died August 8, 1926, in Germantown, Pa.

Father, Isaac Craig, a lumber merchant and historian; son of Neville B. Craig, who attended Princeton, studied law, and was editor and owner of the Pittsburgh Gazette, the first daily paper published west of Alleghany mountains, and Jane Ann (Fulton) Craig; grandson of Major Isaac Craig, who came to this country from Ireland in 1766, served with distinction throughout the Revolutionary War (married Amelia, daughter of General John Neville, an officer in the Revolutionary Army, who was commandant at Fort Pitt, and sister of Col. Presley Neville, aide-de-camp to General Lafayette, who was second burgess of Pittsburgh). Mother, Rebecca (McKibbin) Craig, daughter of Chambers and Jane (Bell) McKibbin, of Chambersburg, Pa.

Trevillian's School, Sewickley, Pa., and Pittsburgh Academy Third prize in mathematics Sophomore year and second prize Senior year; member Linonia and Delta Kappa.

Studied law during 1870-71; then returned to Yale and took a special course in civil engineering in Sheffield Scientific School (Ph B 1873); worked for U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey on topographic and hydrographic surveys of New Haven harbor and vicinity June, 1873–July, 1875; then appointed inspector of harbor improvements at New Haven; in December, 1877, appointed draftsman on the ill-fated Collins Expedition, which had for its object construction of the Madeira & Mamoré Railway in Brazil, and later promoted to assistant and acting principal assistant engineer on that road; during 1879 and 1880 engaged upon surveys of the Delaware River conducted by Coast and Geodetic Survey and was assistant on New York State Survey under James T. Gardner, director; appointed assistant engineer on Mexican National Railway in January, 1881, and subsequently promoted to resident engineer in charge of construction of forty miles of that line between Morelia and Patzcuaro; in 1882 was for a time assistant engineer in charge of surveys between Vera Cruz and Rincónada on projected railway to City of Mexico via Jalapa; assistant engineer under Mississippi River Commission 1882–85; employed upon surveys for city of Philadelphia and private individuals September, 1885–May, 1886, from that date until August, 1887, was successively expert current observer in hydrographic party of H. L Mandarin, an assistant in U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey, draftsman in maintenance of way department of Union Pacific Railway at Omaha, Nebr , assistant engineer in charge of surveys of Red River in Louisiana, assistant engineer on St Louis & San Francisco Railway, and chief of corps on Louisville Southern Railway; employed by Commonwealth Title Insurance &
Trust Company of Philadelphia September, 1887–March, 1888; engaged upon surveys of Delaware water front for city of Philadelphia 1888–1890, in November, 1890, appointed chief engineer of Antioquia Railway, Colombia, South America, but compelled to resign after about a year owing to severity of the climate; principal assistant on surveys under Philadelphia Department of Public Works 1892–99, subsequently engaged in literary work of various kinds; published in Engineering News for February, 1898, a new and original method of reducing stadia observations which he had devised, in 1907, at the request of the Madeira and Mamoré Association, composed of survivors of the Collins Expedition, wrote and published its history under title of Recollections of an Ill-fated Expedition to the Headwaters of the Madeira River in Brazil; in recognition of the value of this work as a contribution to geographical literature, was soon after elected a Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society of London, member Society of the Cincinnati of Pennsylvania, Sons of the Revolution, St Andrew's Society, American Academy of Political and Social Science, Pennsylvania Historical Society, and First Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh

Married (1) January 1, 1880, in Albany, N. Y., Margaret E., daughter of Daniel and Margaret (Coffee) Sullivan.
Children: Margarita, Swarthmore ex-'05; Winifred Neville
(B.A. Swarthmore 1905), who married Walter S. Gee, Edith Oldham (Mrs Charles Russell Deare), Rebecca Eleanor (died in childhood); and Lillian (died in infancy) Mrs Craig died
January 19, 1910 Married (2) May 2, 1911, in Wilkes Barre,
Pa., Gertrude Agnes, daughter of Ellwood and Agnes Virginia
(Dickson) Byers. One son, Neville B., 3d (died in infancy).

Frank Fanning Jewett, B.A. 1870.

Born January 8, 1844, in Newton, Mass
Died July 1, 1926, in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Father, Dr. Charles Jewett; studied at Berkshire Medical Institute, Pittsfield, Mass; practiced medicine at East Greenwich, Conn, and at Providence, R. I; later engaged in temperance reform movement, chiefly in New England; son of Joseph and Betsey (King) Jewett; descendant of Edward Jewett, who came from Lincolnshire, England, to Rowley, Mass, in 1638; his great-great-great-grandson, Eleazer Jewett, moved to Griswold, Conn, and later founded Jewett City, Conn. Mother, Lucy Adams (Tracy) Jewett; daughter of Fanning Tracy (B.A. 1796) and Lucy (Adams) Tracy; descendant of Lieut. Thomas Tracy, who came from Gloucestershire, England, to Salem, Mass, in 1636; also descended from Capt. Miles Standish and from Governor William Bradford of Plymouth Colony.

Private school in Philadelphia and Norwich (Conn.) Free Academy Dissertation appointment Junior year; oration appointment Senior year; member Yale Missionary Society, Beethoven Society, Brothers in Unity, Gamma Nu, Alpha Delta Phi, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Taught natural science and mathematics at Norwich Free Academy 1870-72, 1873-74; studied chemistry and mineralogy in Sheffield Scientific School 1872-73 (M.A. 1873); studied physics and chemistry at Gottingen University 1874-75, after teaching another year at Norwich, became private assistant to Dr. Wolcott Gibbs of Harvard; professor of chemistry at Imperial University of Tokyo 1877-1880; professor of chemistry and mineralogy and head of the department at Oberlin from 1880 until his retirement in 1912; dean of the college 1894-95; during leave of absence in 1895-96 studied for a time at University of Berlin; after his retirement spent about two years in adding to the mineralogical collection at Oberlin and carried on chemical investigations in his laboratory (assisting the chemical staff of Oberlin), part of the latter work being investigations for the Government to ascertain whether a better "anti-dimmer" for soldiers' masks could be devised than the one then in use (work completed successfully just before the armistice); served Ohio State Meteorological Bureau as voluntary observer at Oberlin for almost forty-two years; member Oberlin Town Council eight years and president of Board of Trustees of Public Affairs for many years; treasurer Oberlin Missionary Home Association fifteen years; with help of Professor A. A. Wright of Oberlin, planned and installed Oberlin water softening system, the first of the kind in the country; clerk and deacon of Second Congregational Church, Oberlin, for many years, moved to Honolulu for permanent residence, on account of Mrs. Jewett's health, in September, 1923; member of Central Union Church there; author: Tables of Qualitative Chemical Analysis (1883) and A Laboratory Manual of General Chemistry (1885); member Deutsche Chemische Gesellschaft, American Association for the Advancement of Science, and American Chemical Society
Tale College

Death due to generalized arteriosclerosis. Cremation took place in Honolulu; the ashes are to be buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Oberlin. His wife survives him

Lauriston Livingston Scaife, B.A. 1870.

Born May 23, 1850, in Pittsburgh, Pa.
Died December 17, 1926, in Boston, Mass

Father, William Borrett Scaife, a manufacturer; son of Jeffery Scaife (born in Cambridge, England) and Lydia (Borrett) Scaife; grandson of Henry Scaife, a bookbinder, who came to America about 1790. Mother, Mary (Frisbee)
Scaife; daughter of Ephraim Frisbee, one of three brothers who settled in Pittsburgh in 1810 and were among the earliest steamboat builders, and Sibyl (Peake) Frisbee; granddaughter of Hezekiah Frisbee, who lived near Albany and was a captain in the Revolutionary Army. Yale relatives include William M. Scaife, '87 S., and Oliver P. Scaife, Jr., '89 L. (nephews); and Frederick M. Scaife, ex-'19 S., Alan M. Scaife, '20 S., and J. Verner Scaife, Jr., '27 S. (grandnephews).

Pittsburgh Central High School. Dissertation appointments Junior and Senior years; member Beethoven Society (treasurer Senior year), Brothers in Unity, Delta Kappa, Alpha Delta Phi, and Phi Beta Kappa; graduate member Wolf's Head.

Studied at Harvard Law School 1870–71 and then entered a Boston law office; admitted to bar April 26, 1872, and practiced law in Boston until 1923; founder of firm of Scaife, Robbins & Fullerton, of which his son-in-law, Reginald L. Robbins, is a member; traveled extensively in Europe during middle life besides making frequent visits to England upon legal business; translated German opera, composed music, and was member of Apollo Club of Boston, member American Bar Association, secretary Yale Club of Boston 1874.

Married December 31, 1873, in Boston, Helen Amelia, daughter of Charles James and Amelia Melverda (Stodder) Sprague. Children: Roger Livingston (B.A. Harvard 1897) and Helen Sprague, the wife of Reginald L. Robbins (B.A. Harvard 1897, LL.B. 1900).

Death due to pneumonia, following an operation. Buried in the Milton (Mass) Cemetery. Survived by wife, son, daughter, six grandchildren, two sisters, Miss Lois E. Scaife, of Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Emma J. Wilde, of Denver, Colo., and a brother, Walter B. Scaife, of Berkeley, Calif. Another brother, William L. Scaife, '73 S., died in 1924.

John Waldo Shattuck, B.A. 1870.

Born August 18, 1846, in Colerain, Mass.
Died September 18, 1926, in Menands, N. Y.

Father, Calvin Wilbur Shattuck, a cotton manufacturer; justice of the peace; son of Luther and Margery (Wilbur)
Shattuck; descendant of William Shattuck, who came to America from England about 1639 and was in Watertown, Mass., in 1642. Mother, Mary (Thompson) Shattuck; daughter of Charles and Mary Thompson; descendant of Alexander Thompson. Yale relative: Sidney F. Shattuck, '99 S.

Williston Academy. Second dispute appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; one of the Cochlaureati; member Class Baseball Nine, Junior Exhibition Committee, Brothers in Unity, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Phi Theta Psi, Psi Upsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Engaged in dry goods commission business in New York City as member of firm of L. T. Shattuck & Company 1870–1885; was subsequently engaged in independent business until his retirement in 1914; resided in Albany 1914–1922 and since then in Menands.

Unmarried.

Death due to apoplexy; had been in poor health for some years. Buried in Arms Cemetery, Shelburne Falls, Mass. Survived by two nieces and four nephews.

Greenleaf Cash Wattles, B.A. 1870.

Born October 2, 1847, in Lapeer, Mich
Died January 13, 1927, in Chicago, Ill

Father, John Morris Wattles, a lawyer; founder of banking house of J. M. Wattles & Company of Lapeer. Mother, Phila Ann (Hart) Wattles, daughter of Oliver Burnham and Amanda (Harrison) Hart

Detroit (Mich.) High School. Attended University of Michigan 1866–68; entered Yale as a Junior 1868; member Brothers in Unity, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, and Alpha Delta Phi.

After graduation returned to Lapeer and studied law in his father's office; in 1872 admitted to practice in state and federal courts and became member of firm of J. M. & G. C. Wattles; in 1879, on account of failure of his health, went to Colorado and remained there four years; spent the year 1883–84 in England and Scotland; then returned to Colorado and was in charge of corporate and mining interests in Lake City two years, in 1886 went to New York City and became interested in some Ohio railway properties, which later became a part of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton system; left New York in 1907 and had since lived in Detroit and Chicago.

Married (1) May 22, 1872, in Flint, Mich., Julia Ella, dughter of Charles and Julia (Williams) Hascall One son,
Frederick Green. Mrs. Wattles died August 7, 1910. Married
(2) June 28, 1913, in New York City, Lillian, daughter of Francis and Henrietta (Wallace) Lemke

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery,
Brooklyn Survived by wife and son.

Robert Wodrow Archbald, B.A. 1871.

Born September 10, 1848, in Carbondale, Pa
Died August 19, 1926, at Marthas Vineyard, Mass

Father, James Archbald, a civil engineer; born on Little Cumbrae Island, Buteshire, Scotland, in 1794; came to America with his parents, James and Mary Ann (Wodrow) Archbald, who settled in the Mohawk Valley at Auriesville, N. Y , in 1807, concerned in the construction of the Erie Canal and as operating official responsible for opening of anthracite fields of Pennsylvania; engineer in charge of Delaware & Hudson
Canal and superintendent of mines and railroads 1827–1852; chief engineer in layout and construction of Washington Railroad (now a part of the Erie Railroad) and opening of Pennsylvania Coal Company and vice-president of Michigan
Southern 1854–55; chief engineer of Delaware, Lackawanna
& Western Railroad 1855–1870 Mother, Sarah Augusta
Temple (Frothingham) Archbald; daughter of Major
Thomas Frothingham of the Continental Army and Elizabeth (Frost) Frothingham; descendant of William Frothingham, who came from England in 1630 and settled in Charlestown,
Mass Yale relatives include James Archbald, ’87, Joseph A.
Archbald, ’88 S, and Thomas F Archbald, ’96 (nephews); and Joseph A Archbald, Jr , ’19, Edward B Archbald, ’19 S , Thomas W Archbald, ’24, and Wodrow Archbald, ’30 (grandnephews)
Flushing (N Y.) Institute. Oration appointments Junior and Senior years; member Yale Glee Club, Wooden Spoon Committee, Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, Psi Upsilon, Scroll and Key, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Studied law in office of Alfred Hand, '57, and Isaac J. Post, '60, in Scranton, Pa; admitted to bar in 1873 and began practice in Scranton; elected an additional judge of Court of Common Pleas of 45th Judicial District of Pennsylvania in January, 1885, for a term of ten years, becoming president judge in 1888; reelected in 1894 and continued in office until 1901; resigned to accept position of United States district judge for newly created middle district of Pennsylvania, to which he was appointed by President McKinley, had previously been mentioned as a candidate for judge of Supreme Court of Pennsylvania; offered United States circuit judgeship in 1909, on condition of residing in Philadelphia, but declined offer, appointed by President Taft United States circuit judge in 1911 and was assigned to new U S Court of Commerce for a four-year term; in 1912, during the agitation over the judiciary, which expressed itself in the demand for the recall of judges, and the opposition to the existence of the Court of Commerce, and during the heat of the political agitation against the railroads, was impeached by the United States Senate on the ground that he had attempted to enter into business relations with coal companies owned by railroads (two out of the three having been started by his father) which might have litigation in his court, and was removed from office; only one charge concerned an official act and on that charge he was acquitted, subsequently resumed general practice of law in Scranton and continued in active practice until his death; served as Private in Scranton City Guard in 1877; member Scranton Shade Tree Commission; had served as president of Yale Alumni Association of Northeastern Pennsylvania (now Yale Alumni Association of Scranton), LL D Dickinson 1908; member St Andrew's Society of Philadelphia and First Presbyterian Church, Scranton

Married January 21, 1875, in Oxford, N Y., Elizabeth Baldwin, daughter of Benjamin and Anna (Miller) Cannon

Children: Robert Wodrow, Jr (B A 1898, LL B University of Pennsylvania 1901); Anne (B. A. Bryn Mawr 1902), Hugh
Obituary Record

(B.A. 1903, E.M. Columbia 1907); and a son who died in infancy. Mrs. Archbald died October 12, 1923.

Death, due to heart trouble, occurred at the home of a niece. Buried in Dunmore Cemetery, Scranton. Survived by two sons, a daughter, and four grandchildren.

Charles Hopkins Clark, B.A. 1871.

Born April 1, 1848, in Hartford, Conn.
Died September 5, 1926, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, Ezra Clark, a merchant; member of Congress; first president of Hartford Board of Water Commissioners; son of Ezra and Laura (Hunt) Clark; descendant of William Clark, who came to this country from England and settled in Northampton, Mass., in 1633. Mother, Mary (Hopkins) Clark, daughter of Daniel Payne and Mary (Whiting) Hopkins; members of the Hopkins family came from Wood Ditton, England, in 1635, and settled in Wethersfield, Conn.; other ancestors settled in Dedham, Mass.

Free Academy, New York City, and Hartford Public High School. Prize for excellence in Freshman scholarship examination; dissertation appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year, member Junior Exhibition and Class Ivy committees; secretary Brothers in Unity; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

On editorial staff of Hartford Courant since graduation (reporter for some years; made assistant editor about 1890; editor-in-chief since 1900); became secretary of the Hartford Courant Company upon its incorporation in 1890, vice-president 1892, and president and a director 1906; a director of The Associated Press since 1910 and member of its executive committee at time of death; a director Connecticut Mutual Life, Phoenix (Fire), and Travelers Insurance companies and of the Collins Company, edge toolmakers, of Collinsville, Conn. (also vice-president since 1887); became head of the Young Men’s Institute (now Hartford Public Library) in 1877, a director of the Library Association in 1879, and its treasurer in 1883, serving in the last capacity for about thirty... years; trustee of Wadsworth Athenæum since 1884 and its treasurer for many years; trustee of Watkinson Library of Reference since 1883, secretary 1884–86, and treasurer 1902–1925; director Watkinson Farm School since 1887, Good Will Club of Hartford since its incorporation in 1888 (also treasurer until 1912), and Connecticut Reformatory since its establishment in 1909 (president since 1920); corporate member Connecticut Humane Society (1884), becoming member of its executive committee and board of directors 1890 (had served as vice-president since 1919); member Hartford Board of Park Commissioners 1908–1912, director of Connecticut Civil Service Reform Association for a time, later resigned and advocated repeal of Connecticut Civil Service Law, which was accomplished by the Legislature in 1921; in 1926 elected member of council of Connecticut Civic Association, successor to Connecticut Civil Service Reform Association; member Connecticut Constitutional Convention 1902 and of commission created by the Legislature in 1905 to study the direct primary; had attended every Republican National Convention since 1888, the first eight as a reporter, and the others as a delegate-at-large from Connecticut, Bromley lecturer at Yale 1906–07; member of Yale Corporation 1910–1925 (chairman of committee on honorary degrees 1921–25); member of general committee on the Bicentennial; former president of Yale Alumni Association of Hartford and its representative on Alumni Advisory Board; M A. 1874; Litt D. Trinity 1910; aided in editing Memorial History of Hartford County in 1884; had contributed articles to Scribner’s Magazine, North American Review, and Critic; honorary member Society of the Cincinnati in the State of Connecticut, charter member Twentieth Century Club of Hartford, member Second (South) Congregational Church, Hartford, 1885–1916, and since then of Asylum Hill Congregational Church, of which he had been a member prior to 1885.

Death, due to a cerebral hemorrhage, followed an illness of several months. Buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by wife, son, daughter, five grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Albert L. Butler, of Hartford.

Joseph Bulkeley Morse, B.A. 1871.

Born October 3, 1850, in New Haven, Conn.
Died June 15, 1927, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Gardner Morse, a real estate broker; tax collector of New Haven 1837–1857; Colonel of 2d Regiment, Connecticut State Militia, in 1836 and Major of 2d Company, Governor's Foot Guard, in 1840; son of Stephen and Rebekah (Howe) Morse, great-grandson of David Howe of Sudbury, Mass., the host of the Wayside Inn; descendant of Joseph Morse, who came from Ipswich, England, to Ipswich, Mass., in 1634 and later settled in Watertown, Mass Mother, Mary Loring (Brigham) Morse; daughter of George and Margaret (Shattuck) Brigham, ancestors came from England in 1640 and settled in Suffolk County, Mass. Yale relatives include: Gardner Morse, Jr., ex-'74 M (half brother); J. Mansfield Morse, '04 S (nephew), and Gardner M. Corbin, ex-'24 S (grandnephew).

Hillhouse High School Second colloquy appointment Senior year; member Linonia, Delta Kappa, and Delta Beta Xi.

Studied in Yale Graduate School 1871–72 (M.A. 1874), entered Yale School of Law in 1874 (LL.B. 1876); admitted to the bar in 1876 and practiced law in New Haven until 1920, being associated with his brother, Charles T. Morse, '72 S and '76 L., until the latter's death in 1889; had also been actively engaged in the real estate and fire insurance business (established by his father in 1837) as member of firm of Gardner Morse & Son 1871–1906 and then of its successor, Cannon, Morse & Company, until 1909; member Connecticut Naval Militia 1893–98; former vestryman of Christ Episcopal Church, New Haven.

Married (1) September 14, 1875, in New Haven, Annie Loring, daughter of Samuel and Mary (Hotchkiss) Bassett, of Seymour, Conn. Children: Stephen (died in 1886) and Julia Ann. Mrs. Morse died April 19, 1881. Married (2) May 18, 1898, in New Haven, Bessie Eva, daughter of Edwin Thayer and Emma Henrietta (Weiler) Jones One son, Joseph Bulkeley, Jr. (B.A 1920, LL.B. 1926)
Death due to heart disease Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, daughter, one son, and a granddaughter.

David Nelson Beach, B.A. 1872.

Born November 30, 1848, in South Orange, N. J
Died October 18, 1926, in Southington, Conn

Father, Joseph Wickliff Beach, a farmer; son of David Juniah and Huldah (Crowell) Beach; descendant of Thomas Beach, who came from England (probably) to America in 1652, took the oath of fidelity at New Haven in 1654, and lived in Milford, Conn., 1655-1662 Mother, Mary Angeline (Walkley) Beach; daughter of Stephen and Olive (Newell) Walkley; descendant of Richard Walkley [Wakly], who came from Edinburgh to Saybrook, Conn., soon after 1632 and later settled in Hartford, Conn., and of Thomas Newell, who came from Hertfordshire, England, to Newtown, Mass., later went to Hartford, and settled permanently in Farmington, Conn., of which he was one of the original proprietors in 1640. Yale relatives include: the Rev. Aaron C. Beach (B.A 1835) (uncle); and the Rev. J. Wickliffe Beach, '64, Robert H. Cornish, '83, William A. Cornish, '87, Raymond L. Walkley, '09, Stanley Cummings, '12, Earle R. Cummings, '14, and Robert S. Cornish, '16 (cousins)

Golden Hill Institute, Bridgeport, Conn. Class poet; member Gamma Nu; New Haven correspondent of New York Tribune 1870-71.

Reporter for New York Tribune 1872-73; studied in Yale Divinity School 1873-76 (B.D. 1881), managing editor of Yale Courant for a time while in the Divinity School and literary and night editor of New Haven Palladium in 1874; worked on the Independent and also helped in reorganization of the Sunday School Times, summer of 1875; ordained to Congregational ministry June 15, 1876, in Westerly, R.I.
and remained there as pastor three years; pastor First Congregational Church, Wakefield, Mass, 1879–1884, Prospect Street Church, Cambridge, Mass, 1884–1896, Plymouth Congregational Church, Minneapolis, Minn., 1896–98, and First Congregational Church, Denver, Colo, 1899–1902; president and professor of sacred rhetoric, Bangor Theological Seminary, from 1903 until his retirement in 1921 (trustee 1906–1921 and president of the board 1911–1921; during last five years of his life had been engaged in writing and in independent preaching, acting as stated supply at various periods in Branford, Plainfield, and Putnam, Conn, and as acting pastor of Park Place Congregational Church, Pawtucket, R. I., for eight months in 1923–24, and of Beneficent Church, Providence, R. I., for three months in 1924; resided in Guilford, Conn, 1921–23 and since then in Southington; trustee of Colorado College 1899–1902; corporate member A B C. F M. since 1889; D.D. Western Reserve 1896; author: Senior Question Book, Pilgrim Quarterly (1879); Historical Value of the First Eleven Chapters of Genesis, with some Discussion of the New Criticism (1884); Plain Words on Our Lord's Work (1886); The Newer Religious Thinking (1893); How We Rose (a Resurrection Parable) (1895); The Intent of Jesus (1896), Meanings of the Battle of Bennington (1903); The Annie Laurie Mine (1903); and Handbook of Homiletics (1917); contributed articles to New England Magazine, New World, Advance, Congregationalist, Zion's Herald, Christian Century, and Journal of New England Water Works Association, published two poems commemorating the Yale Bicentennial, October, 1901; prominent in civic betterment movement in Cambridge; when he left there in 1896 was presented with an engrossed address signed by a representative committee and by hundreds of Cambridge citizens at a farewell mass meeting, three months later was a guest of the city on the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of its incorporation, at which time at a banquet held in his honor was presented with a bronze statute of David; was active in work for church unity and was a founder of the League of Catholic Unity and a member of the Catholic Unity Circle, New York, during 1894–95, Secretary of his Divinity School Class since January, 1923, his portrait was painted for the alumni of Bangor Theological Seminary and given by them to the Seminary in 1922.

Death due to myocarditis. Buried in South End Cemetery, Southington. Survived by wife, daughter, three sons, eleven grandchildren, and a brother, Harlan P. Beach, '78.

Gerald Livingston Hoyt, B.A. 1872.

Born November 6, 1851, in New York City
Died December 20, 1926, in New York City

Father, Lydig Monson Hoyt (B.A Columbia 1840); son of Goold and Sabina (Sheaff) Hoyt, descendant of Simon Hoyt, who came to America from England in 1635 and settled in Connecticut. Mother, Geraldine (Livingston) Hoyt; daughter of Maturin and Margaret (Lewis) Livingston; sister-in-law of Joseph Delafield (B.A. 1808); granddaughter of General Morgan Lewis (B.A. Princeton 1773); great-granddaughter of Francis Lewis, a signer of the Declaration of Independence, descendant of the Livingstons of Livingston Manor, N.Y., who came to this country from Scotland in the seventeenth century. Brother, Henry S. Hoyt, '73 S.

Lake Mohegan Institute, Peekskill, N.Y. First dispute appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year; president University Baseball Club Senior year; treasurer New York Club; member Yale Missionary Society,
Obituary Record

Junior Promenade Committee, Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, Psi Upsilon, and Scroll and Key

After graduation spent eight months in Europe; was then with banking house of Duncan, Sherman & Company of New York; became member of firm of Staber, Hoyt & Company, cotton brokers, in New York in 1875 and of New York Stock Exchange 1883, subsequently member of firm of Maitland, Phelps & Company, bankers, and its successor, Maitland, Coppell & Company, until his retirement from active business in 1922 (became senior partner of firm 1902); director in various railroad and industrial companies previous to 1922 and at death director of American Car & Foundry Company; member Sons of the American Revolution and the Order of Colonial Lords of Manors in America, vestryman of St. James' Episcopal Church, Hyde Park, N. Y., and of St. Margaret's, Staatsburg, N. Y., where he had a country home.

Married November 22, 1881, in New York City, Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Daniel Fuller and Julia (Randall) Appleton, of Ipswich, Mass. Children: Julia Marion, the wife of Samuel A. Welldon (B.A. Harvard 1904, LL.B. 1908); and Lydig (B.A. 1906, LL.B. New York Law School 1913).

John Knox Brown, B.A. 1872.

Born December 14, 1852, in Buffalo, N.Y.
Died October 1, 1926, in Los Gatos, Calif.

Father, Benjamin Franklin Brown. Mother, Nancy Watkins (Knox) Brown; daughter of Judge Knox, of Waterloo, N.Y.

Heathcote School, Buffalo. Member Yale Chess Club, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, and Alpha Delta Phi.

Studied law in office of Williams & Potter in Buffalo 1872-73 and then, because of the death of his stepfather, took charge of a foundry in Buffalo for a year; in 1874 resumed his law study with P. G. & E. L. Parker of Buffalo and was admitted to the bar in October, 1876; practiced law in Virginia
City, Nev., 1876–1881, serving as justice of the peace in 1880, attorney in San Francisco, Calif., 1881–84; then returned to Buffalo and practiced five years; practiced in Seattle, Wash., 1889–1896, at one time being a member of the firm of Gorham, Brown & Gorham; corporation counsel for the city of Seattle 1896–98; lived in Fairbanks, Alaska, 1898–1915, serving as United States district attorney there 1910–13 and also as United States commissioner; retired in 1916 on account of ill health and had since lived in Los Gatos; member Protestant Episcopal Church

Married October 12, 1876, in Rochester, N. Y., Jennie, daughter of Horace and Harriet Melinda (Smith) Nott. One son, Frank Knox.

Died suddenly, of heart failure. Cremation took place at Mount Olivet Cemetery, San Francisco; interment at San Francisco. Survived by wife, son, and a half brother, William H. Bull, of San Mateo, Calif.

Robert Fingland Tilney, B.A. 1872.

Born March 9, 1849, in Cincinnati, Ohio
Died August 3, 1926, in Rangeley, Maine

Father, Joseph Tilney, a merchant; born in Manchester, England; at eighteen years of age came to Canada and lived in Paris; son of Joseph and Elizabeth (Hemmingway) Tilney. Mother, Janet (Fingland) Tilney; daughter of Thomas and Mercy (Sawyer) Fingland, of Aberdeen, Scotland. Yale relatives include: Frederick Tilney, '97, Joseph T. Wadsworth, '01, and Robert F. Tilney, 2d, '05 (nephews); Bradford S. Tilney, '30 (grandnephew); and George F. Doughty, '74 (cousin).

Prepared at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute and under a private tutor. Second dispute appointment Senior year, a Class historian; member College Choir four years, Beethoven Society, Brothers in Unity, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi, Delta Kappa Epsilon; graduate member Wolf's Head.

LL.B. Columbia 1875; admitted to New York Bar and had since practiced in New York City, for some years in partnership with his brother, the late Thomas J. Tilney, '70, under firm name of T. J. & R. F. Tilney; had also been engaged in business for about sixteen years, at first with Samuel Thompson's Nephew & Company, wholesale wool dealers in New York, and then in the manufacture of enamel and flooring tile in Brooklyn, in 1898 appointed a referee in bankruptcy for Eastern District of New York and had since held that office by successive appointments; member board of regents of Long Island College Hospital and Plymouth Congregational Church, Brooklyn.

Married October 30, 1877, in Brooklyn, Mary Thompson, daughter of John William and Hannah Maria (Peckham) Mason. Children: Janet Finlayson (died in 1894); Jessie Mason; and John Mason, '13 Mrs. Tilney died January 22, 1914, in Calcutta, India Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by one daughter, son, two grandchildren, and a brother, Albert A. Tilney, '90

John Wesley Wescott, B.A. 1872.

Born February 20, 1849, in Waterford, N. J
Died June 11, 1927, in Haddonfield, N. J

Father, John Wescott, an expert glass cutter with Porter's Waterford Glass Works; son of Reuben and Amanda (Beebe) Wescott, descendant of Stukeley Westcote, who came to America with Roger Williams, the founder of Rhode Island, and one of whose sons, Daniel Westcote, settled in Cumberland County, N. J. Mother, Catherine Van Overterfer (Bozarth) Wescott; daughter of a French emigrant, Samuel Bozarth, whose father had served under Napoleon and came to this country from France, settling in Camden County, N. J., near Waterford. Yale relatives include two nephews: Irving Fisher, '88, and Herbert W. Fisher, '98

Wesleyan Academy, Wilbraham, Mass. Third prize in declamation Sophomore year; helped to establish the modern game of football and was member Yale Football Team 1871 (first football team to meet Princeton), Yale champion wrestler and boxer, acted as one of the coaches in boxing and rowing; member Gamma Nu and Alpha Delta Phi.
Taught at General Russell’s Collegiate and Commercial Institute 1872–74; studied at Yale School of Law 1874–76 (Townsend Prize; LL.B. 1876; member Law School Barge Crew in fall of 1874 and of first eight-oared crew to compete with Harvard June 30, 1876); admitted to Connecticut Bar 1876, to New Jersey Bar 1878, and to Pennsylvania Bar 1896, appointed Master in Chancery 1881 and Supreme Court Commissioner 1884; had practiced law in Camden, N. J., since 1878, forming a partnership with his son, Ethan P. Wescott, '03, under firm name of Wescott & Wescott in 1910; at time of death was senior member of firm of Wescott & Weaver, which succeeded Wescott & Wescott in 1912, with Francis D. Weaver, Ethan P. Wescott, and Ralph W. Wescott, '06, as his partners; had also practiced in Philadelphia in association with S. Morris Wain, '77, and in 1910 formed in that city the firm of Wescott, Wescott & McManus, of which his eldest son, Harry D. Wescott, '01, was a member until its dissolution in 1920; president judge of Camden Court of Common Pleas 1884–87; renominated by the governor (a Democrat), but nomination not confirmed by the State Senate (Republican); candidate for United States senator in 1912 primaries, but withdrew in favor of William Hughes, who was elected, candidate for congressman from 1st District of New Jersey in 1888 and ran ahead of his ticket, which was defeated, attorney-general of New Jersey 1914–19; counsel for Glass Bottle Blowers Union of United States and Canada for many years until his death; Democratic presidential elector in 1892, chairman of New Jersey delegation to Democratic National Convention in Baltimore in 1912 and made the nominating speech for Woodrow Wilson; in 1916 again placed Wilson in nomination at the St. Louis convention; advocate of the entrance of the United States into the League of Nations and as head of the Woodrow Wilson Democracy (a New York City organization with branches in many states) tried to obtain the adoption of a pro-League plank in the Democratic National Convention in New York in 1924, trustee of New Jersey State School Fund and of New Jersey College for Women 1914–19; president of New Jersey Bar Association 1913–14; member American Academy of Political and Social Science.

Married December 31, 1873, in Springfield, Mass, Frances Marie Louise Leclerc, daughter of Ethan and Marian Pryor, of New Haven. Children: Harry Dexter, Ethan Pryor, and Ralph Wesley.

Death, due to hyperstatic pneumonia, followed a long illness from heart disease. Buried in Harleigh Cemetery, Camden. Survived by wife, three sons, three grandchildren, a sister, Ella Wescott Fisher, the widow of the Rev. George W. Fisher, '59, and a brother, William A. Wescott (M.D Jefferson Medical College 1883). Dr. Wescott died July 19, 1927.

Jeremiah Day, B.A. 1873.

Born September 10, 1851, in Catskill, N.Y.
Died April 18, 1927, in Hudson, N.Y.

Hopkins Grammar School First dispute appointment Junior year; first colloquy appointment Senior year; member Class Crew Freshman and Sophomore years and University Crew in 1872 and 1873, took part in two university races, eight class races, the intercollegiate freshman race in 1870, and the race with the Atalantas of New York; member Delta Kappa, Delta Beta X, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.
Studied law in Catskill 1874-77 and at the Albany Law School 1877-78 (LL B. 1878); admitted to the bar in January, 1878, and practiced law in Catskill 1878-1883, then gave up the law and, with Samuel E. Holt, formed hardware firm of Day & Holt; withdrew from active participation in the business in 1891 but at the time of his death was president of the Day & Holt Company, successors to Day & Holt, trustee of the Catskill Savings Bank since 1884, serving as secretary of the bank 1891-1923 and since then as president; director of Tanners National Bank, Catskill, an elder in Christ's Church of Catskill (Presbyterian), for many years

Married November 25, 1878, in Catskill, Fanny, daughter of Henry and Mary (Jerome) Spencer, of San Francisco, Calif. Children: Alice Jerome (Mrs. Henry T. Cole), a non-graduate member of the Smith Class of 1901; Rodney Dean (B.A. 1903, M.E. Cornell 1906); and Harold Spencer (B.A. 1912)

Mrs. Day died February 1, 1915

Death, due to pneumonia, occurred at the Hudson Hospital. Interment in Catskill Village Cemetery. Survived by daughter, two sons, five grandchildren, one of whom is the wife of R. Halstead Mills, '20 S., and two great-grandchildren

James Hayward, B.A. 1873.

Born February 1, 1852, in Bangor, Maine
Died January 20, 1927, in Johnson City, Tenn

Father, John Thornton Kirkland Hayward, a civil engineer, first president of Hannibal & St Joseph Railroad Company; head of wholesale grocery firm of Hayward & Company; son of Stephen and Janette (Bisbee) Hayward. Mother, Eliza (Crane) Hayward; daughter of Jonathan and Orpah (Burrows) Crane.

Phillips-Andover. Entered Amherst with Class of 1873, of which he remained a member until January of Junior year. Entered Yale as a Senior in 1872; Townsend Premium; member Alpha Delta Phi Studied law by himself at his home in Hannibal, Mo, 1873-74 and then at Washington University School of Law (LL B. 1875); practiced law in St. Louis, Mo, for a year and a half and then in Hannibal until 1878; actively engaged in newspaper work as controlling owner of Hannibal Clipper-Herald 1878–1880; connected with Hayward & Company in Hannibal and St. Louis 1880–84; became secretary and treasurer of Hayward Grocery Company of Hannibal upon its formation in 1885 and retained that position until 1892; then went to Tennessee and, with associates, organized the Cumberland Building Loan Association, of whose central office in Chattanooga he was manager for a time; lived in Harriman, Tenn., until 1893 and then in Chattanooga until 1898; during that period was assistant manager of East Tennessee Land Company and Harriman Manufacturing Company, treasurer of East Tennessee and Harriman Furniture companies, Duthrie Foundry Company, Harriman Tack Company, and Hoe & Tool Company, and manager of Bailey Bit & Augur Company, in 1898 returned to St. Louis and resumed his law practice, acting as attorney and actuary for several building and loan associations, assignee of Ætna Loan Company 1904–05 and auditor of People’s U. S. Bank for a time; from 1907 until his retirement in 1920 connected with Missouri-Lincoln Trust Company as assistant secretary, assistant treasurer, and trust officer 1907–09 and then as secretary, treasurer, and trust officer; was also secretary, treasurer, and trust officer of Lincoln Trust Company 1910–1920; member Protestant Episcopal Church.

Married December 31, 1884, in St. Louis, Elizabeth Claiborne, daughter of George C and Annie (Bosworth) Thompson. No children.

Death, due to bronchial and heart trouble, followed an illness of six years and occurred at the home of his brother, Charles T. Hayward. Buried in Bellefontaine Cemetery, St. Louis. Survived by wife and two brothers, the elder of whom, John K. Hayward, lives in Pasadena, Calif.

Isaac Nichols Judson, B.A. 1873.

Born July 3, 1853, in Bridgeport, Conn.
Died December 30, 1926, in New York City.

Father, Frederick Joseph Judson (B.A. 1824, M.D. 1829), a physician in Bridgeport; first president of the Bridgeport
Yale College

Library Association, established in 1857, from which the Bridgeport Public Library originated; chairman of Bridgeport Board of School Visitors, which, in 1848, led the movement for abolishing rate bills for tuition in the Bridgeport district, some ten years before the state legislature made it compulsory for the towns to support free schools, son of Pixlee and Catherine Isabella (Nichols) Judson; sixth in descent from William Judson, who came from Kirkby Moorside, near Helmsley, Yorkshire, England, to Concord, Mass., in 1634, settled in Stratford, Conn., in 1638, and in 1647 moved to New Haven; in 1644 was appointed by the General Court of the Connecticut Colony one of a committee of two to solicit subscriptions for the maintenance of scholars at New Towne (Harvard). Mother, Catherine Ann Taylor (Chapelle) Judson, daughter of Dr. Isaac Newton Chapelle and Caroline (Garvin) Chapelle; her father, a member of a French family living in Ireland, while en route to Havana in the early part of the eighteenth century was shipwrecked on the coast of Florida, then a Spanish province, and was rescued and taken to Fernandina; after his marriage settled in St. Mary's, Ga. Yale relatives include five cousins, Charles N. Judson, '62, Frederick A. Judson, '64, Arthur Judson, '94, Henry H. Judson, '14, and Oliver B. Judson, ex-'25.

Hillhouse High School and Hopkins Grammar School High oration appointment Junior year, oration appointment Senior year; a speaker at Junior Exhibition and Commencement; member Yale Missionary Society, Gamma Nu, Delta Beta Xi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Taught in a boarding school at Greenwich, Conn., 1873-74, tutor in a private family in St. James Parish, La., 1874-75; taught at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., 1875-76 and at Ossining, N. Y., 1876-77; taught Latin at the Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute 1877-1880, taught Latin and Greek at the Central High School and later Greek at the Soldan High School, St. Louis, Mo., from 1880 until 1911, when he gave up his position on account of ill health; spent a year in Europe and upon his return to the United States engaged in apple raising at Roswell, N. Mex., for a time; subsequently returned to St. Louis, where he taught Greek at Washington University. for six months and at the old Jackson Academy for a while; connected with a trust company in St. Louis for a few months in 1918, in 1919 opened a tutoring school in that city and continued it until September, 1925, when he went to Italy on account of his health; returned to this country in May, 1926, and had since lived in St. Louis and in Tryon, N. C.; member of Protestant Episcopal Church.

Unmarried.

Death, due to cancer, occurred at the House of Calvary, New York City, where he had been a patient for ten days. Buried in family lot in Mountain Grove Cemetery, Bridgeport. Survived by a brother, John N. Judson, '71 S. Another brother, Frederick N. Judson, '66, died in 1919. By the terms of his will a bequest of $2,000 was made to Yale, to be paid through his Class to the Alumni Fund.

Henry Meyer, B.A. 1873.

Born November 26, 1848, in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Died February 3, 1927, in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Father, John Meyer, a hotel proprietor; born in Regelsweiter, Germany. Mother, Margaretha (Feldner) Meyer; born in Crailsheim, Germany.

Preparatory training received at Western University of Pennsylvania (now University of Pittsburgh) First colloquy appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year, member Sophomore Barge, Junior Barge and Shell, Senior Shell (captain), and University crews, and Delta Kappa and Phi Theta Psi.

Studied law in office of Miller & McBride in Pittsburgh 1873-74 and at Harvard Law School 1874-75; admitted to Pittsburgh Bar October 13, 1876, and had since practiced law in that city, his son, Henry G. Meyer, '06, having been associated with him since 1910; director and attorney for Allegheny Trust Company; in 1877 was Democratic candidate for assistant district attorney and in 1888 for auditor general and register of wills of Allegheny County, but was defeated both times; candidate of his party for state senator in 1890 and for congressman-at-large in 1894, but failed of election; delegate-at-large from Pennsylvania to National Democratic Convention 1892; select councilman from 11th Ward of Pittsburgh 1879-1881; member of Common Council of Allegheny City 1903-05; founder of Yale Alumni Association of Western Pennsylvania (president 1915 and 1916); president of Iron City Tilden Club 1880; member Allegheny County Bar Association and Third Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh.

Death due to heart failure Buried in Homewood Cemetery, Pittsburgh. Survived by wife, son, a granddaughter, and two sisters, Mrs. Amelia Eisenbeis and Miss Matilda Meyer, both of Pittsburgh.

John Beale Mills, B.A. 1873.

Born September 1, 1852, in Yazoo City, Miss
Died May 8, 1927, in Bristol, R.I.

Father, Dr. William Mills, Jr. (M.D. University of Pennsylvania 1832), a physician in Yazoo City, Miss; son of Dr. William Mills and Elizabeth (Gardiner) Mills, descendant of William Mills, who came to America from the north of England about 1630 and settled in Virginia. Mother, Harriet (Beale) Mills; daughter of Joseph and Margaret (McDowell) Beale, descendant of John Beale, who came to this country from Calene, Wiltshire, England, about 1670 and settled in Pennsylvania. Yale relatives. William H. Law (B.A. 1822) (stepfather); William J. Mills, ’77 L (brother), William H Law, ’78 (half brother); Wilson W Mills, ’10 S (nephew); and Haliburton Fales, Jr, ’08 (cousin)

Hopkins Grammar School Member ’73 Baseball Nine, executive committee of ’73 Baseball Club, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi, and Delta Kappa Epsilon; graduate member Wolf’s Head.

Studied chemistry in Sheffield Scientific School 1873-74; attended Yale School of Law 1874-76 (LL.B. 1876; Jewell Prize; member T. K. M.), practiced law in New Haven 1876-1886, at first in office of John S. Beach (B.A. 1839), and from 1879 independently; in 1886 moved to New York City and practiced there until his retirement in 1891; had made his home in Bristol since 1896; member Protestant Episcopal Church.

Married (1) February 18, 1886, in New York City, Mary Georgina, daughter of John Jacob Crane (B.A. Princeton 1840, M.D Columbia 1844) and Jane (Young) Crane. Mrs. Mills died July 12, 1906. Married (2) April 17, 1920, in Washington, D. C., Anna Rogers, daughter of Daniel Rogers and Helena de St. Prie (Sanderson) Case, of Bristol. No children by either marriage.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage; had been ill since December. Cremation took place and interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery. His wife survives him.

Frederick Charles Webster, B.A. 1873.

Born October 17, 1850, in Litchfield, Conn.
Died June 14, 1927, in Missoula, Mont

Father, Charles Baldwin Webster, a farmer; son of Benjamin and Rachel (Baldwin) Webster; descendant of John Webster, who came from England and settled in Connecticut. Mother, Lucinda (Baldwin) Webster; daughter of Isaac and Rachel (Baldwin) Baldwin.

Litchfield Institute. High oration appointments Junior and Senior years; took part in races of Sophomore and Junior years as member of Class Barge Crew; member Delta Kappa, Alpha Delta Phi, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Studied law in office of Edward W. Seymour, '53, in Litchfield and admitted to Connecticut Bar 1874; practiced law in Cohoes, N. Y., in partnership with his classmate, Henry A. Strong, July-December, 1875; practiced in Minneapolis, Minn., as member of firm of Atwater & Webster 1875-78; then returned to Litchfield and was associated for a time with Governor Charles B. Andrews (B.A. Amherst 1858, LL.D. Wesleyan 1879, Yale 1893, Amherst 1895), by whom he was appointed member of the board to revise the joint stock laws of Connecticut; moved to the West about 1881 and lived in Leadville, Colo., where he served as city attorney for a time, and then practiced law in Butte, Mont.; since 1887 had lived in Missoula; member of firm of Webster & Evans 1887–89, of Woody & Webster 1889–1896, and of Webster & Wood 1896–1900; judge of 4th Judicial District of Montana 1900–1912; prosecuting attorney for the county 1889–1893 and again 1912–14; mayor of Missoula 1896–1900; in 1916 appointed by U. S. District Court receiver of Bitter Root Valley Land & Irrigation Company; retired from practice in June, 1926; past grand master of Masonic Order of the State of Montana; member Holy Spirit Parish (Episcopal), Missoula.

Married (1) August 7, 1877, in Minneapolis, Lena A. Allen. They were divorced in 1880. Married (2) June 1, 1889, in Missoula, Anna Caroline, daughter of Olaf C. and Ida Pauline (Hofgaard) Bye, of Decorah, Iowa. Children. Lucy Beatrice (died in 1910); Frederick Bye, who attended Virginia Military Institute for two years and Washington and Lee Law School a year; Charles Norman (died in 1922), and Anna Ingeborg (B.A. University of Montana 1924)

Death, due to the infirmities incident to old age, occurred in St. Patrick’s Hospital, Missoula, following an illness of a year. Buried in Missoula. Survived by wife, one son, one daughter, three grandchildren, and a brother, Wilbur Webster, of Litchfield.

Thomas Means Adams, B.A. 1874.

Born February 15, 1854, at Buena Vista Furnace, Ky
Died November 13, 1926, in Ashland, Ky

Father, John Calhoun Adams, a lawyer. Mother, Mary Anne (Means) Adams; daughter of Thomas Williamson and Sarah (Ellison) Means; granddaughter of John Means, a Captain and Colonel of Militia in 1812, who moved from Spartanburg, S. C., to Ohio in 1819 with twenty-four slaves and set them free; descendant of William Means, who married Nancy Simonton in Ireland and came to America about 1760, settling in Juniata County, Pa., and later in Union District, S. C.; descended also from Andrew Ellison, who came to this country from County Tyrone, Ireland, in 1790 and settled at Washington, Ky., and later at Manchester, Ohio, in the stockade; was captured by Indians and taken to Detroit but re-
William Cutler Bowers, B.A. 1874.

Born March 17, 1852, in Springfield, Mass
Died October 23, 1926, in Bridgeport, Conn

Father, Caleb Bailey Bowers; secretary of Hartford (Conn.)
Fire Insurance Company and officer in other insurance firms;

Hopkins Grammar School. Second colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years; member Delta Kappa.

Studied at Yale School of Medicine 1874-76 and then at Columbia (M.D. 1877); on staff of Charity Hospital, New York City, 1877-78; had since been engaged in active practice in Bridgeport; member of Board of Aldermen in 1892, police surgeon six years, and member U. S Pension Board of Examiners one year; trustee Peoples Presbyterian Church, member Volunteer Medical Service Corps, USA, U. S. Navy League, Fairfield County U. S. Board of Revision Examiners, American Medical and Connecticut State Medical associations, Fairfield County and Bridgeport Medical societies, and Sons of the American Revolution; interested in philately.

Married June 1, 1882, in Haverstraw, N Y, Katharine Ward, daughter of Judge Andrew Edward Suffern and Mary Jane (Sloat) Suffern Two daughters, Mary Dwight (died June 25, 1904) and Katrina Sloat, who received a certificate from the Yale School of the Fine Arts in 1906, the wife of William C. Shepard (M.F. 1907, F.E. Cornell 1907) Mrs. Bowers died April 30, 1913

Death due to heart trouble. Buried in Miner Cemetery, Westfield, Mass Survived by daughter, three grandchildren, and a sister, Miss Fannie A. Bowers, of New Haven.
Obituary Record

George Miles Gunn, B.A. 1874.

Born August 10, 1851, in Milford, Conn
Died September 7, 1926, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Samuel Buckingham Gunn, Jr., a plumber; member of Connecticut General Assembly; son of Samuel Buckingham and Catherine (Miles) Gunn; sixth in descent from Dr. Jasper Gunn, who came to America from England in 1635 and was the first physician of the Milford colony. Mother, Caroline Elizabeth (Stow) Gunn; daughter of Jedidiah and Martha (Camp) Stow; descendant of John Stow, who came to this country from England in 1634 and settled in Roxbury, Mass.

General Russell's Collegiate and Commercial Institute, New Haven. Oration appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; member first Football Team, Class Barge Crew 1871, Shell and University crews 1872 and 1873, Committee for the new Boat House, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Taught at Episcopal Academy, Cheshire, Conn, 1874-77, having charge of classical department and military drill, studied law during that time and in 1877 entered Yale School of Law (LLB 1878); admitted to New Haven County Bar and practiced law in New Haven and Milford until 1911; had since been president of National Tradesmens Bank & Trust Company of New Haven, of which he had been a director since 1906; president of Milford Savings Bank since 1890 and a director since 1881; chairman of New Haven Clearing House Committee 1925-26; an incorporator of Fidelity Mortgage & Investment Company of New Haven in 1923; state auditor 1884-86; prosecuting attorney for criminal side of Court of Common Pleas of New Haven County 1889-1904; judge of probate for District of Milford 1888-1903; president of Milford Board of Education 1899-1920; established a Yale scholarship for students from the Milford High School in 1924; charter member Milford Village Improvement Association; became member of Connecticut General Assembly in 1880 and was afterwards elected to the Lower House seven times (becoming Democratic leader of that body and serving on Judiciary Committee two years) and to the Senate twice; delegate from Connecticut to National Democratic Convention in 1896; had presided at several state, county, and town Democratic conventions; declined Democratic nomination for governor several years prior to his death; during the war served as chairman of one of the local exemption boards; president of Quinnipiack Club of New Haven 1923–26; member Society of Colonial Wars.

Married October 25, 1882, in Milford, Harriet Cannon, daughter of John William and Jane (Hyde) Fowler. Children: Jasper (died at birth) and Marjorie (died in 1917), who was the wife of James T. Patterson, ’04.

Death, due to a post-operative shock, occurred in St. Raphael’s Hospital, New Haven; had undergone the amputation of his right leg two weeks earlier. Buried in Milford. Survived by wife, a grandson, James Tyler Patterson, Jr., ’30, and two sisters, Mrs. Caroline Gunn Tibbals and Mrs. David E. Platt, both of Milford

Levi Sanderson Tenney, B.A. 1874.

Born January 19, 1853, in Orwell, Vt.
Died February 6, 1927, in Montclair, N J

Father, Levi Tenney, a farmer; son of Jesse and Harriet (Sanderson) Tenney; descendant of Thomas Tenney, who came to America from Yorkshire, England, in 1638 and settled at Rowley, Mass. Mother, Maria Phebe (Mallett) Tenney.

Wilbraham (Mass) Academy and Amenia (N Y) Seminary. First colloquy appointment Senior year, member Gamma Nu and Alpha Delta Phi.

Studied in law office of Mann & Parsons in New York City and at Columbia Law School 1874–75; clerk in Mann & Parsons’ office 1875–76 and associated with that firm from his admission to the bar in September, 1876, until 1881, then began to practice independently; while continuing his own practice, attended to the real estate work of law firm of Prichard, Smith & Dougherty until 1902; member of firm of Dougherty, Olcott & Tenney 1902–08; had since practiced alone; from 1892 to 1905 lived in Glen Ridge, N. J., where he served as a vestryman of the Episcopal Church for six years and as a delegate to the Diocesan Convention; member Association of the Bar of the City of New York since 1881 and of New York State Bar Association.

Married June 15, 1887, in New Brighton, N. Y., Louise Agnes, daughter of George Washington and Mary Amelia (June) Todd. Children: Dwight (Chem. E. Columbia 1914); Malcolm (B.A. 1914); Grace Amelia (died in childhood); Helen Louise, Levi Sanderson, Jr., ex-’20 (killed in action in Belgium in 1918), George; and Elizabeth Rundle (B.A. Vassar 1925, B.S. Simmons 1926).

Death due to a sudden attack of heart trouble. Buried in Rosedale Cemetery, Montclair. Survived by wife, two daughters, three sons, and four grandchildren.

Charles Hammond Avery, B.A. 1875.

Born April 8, 1854, in Cincinnati, Ohio
Died January 3, 1927, at Clearwater, Fla

Father, Dr. Charles L'Hommedieu Avery, who studied medicine in this country and in France, was appointed Surgeon in the French Army, and saw much service in Algiers; son of John Coleman and Nancy (Satterlee) Avery; descendant of Capt. James Avery (born in 1620), who came from England to Gloucester, Mass., between 1620 and 1629.

Mother, Martha (Bakewell) Avery; daughter of Thomas Woodhouse and Elizabeth (Page) Bakewell; descendant of William Bakewell, who came to New Haven, Conn., from England in 1802. Yale relatives: William Ledyard Avery, '55 (uncle), and Charles H. L’Hommedieu, ex-’70, and Charles H. L’Hommedieu, '03 (cousins).

Bliss Collegiate School, Cincinnati. Second dispute appointments Junior and Senior years; member Class Baseball Nine three years, captain and pitcher University Baseball Team Junior and Senior years; member ’75 Football Twenty and University Football Team, Junior Promenade Committee, Delta Kappa, Delta Beta Xi, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Read law in office of Judge Alphonso Taft (B.A. 1833) in Cincinnati and studied at Cincinnati Law School 1877–78 (LL.B 1878); in Judge Taft's office 1878–79; practiced law in Cincinnati in partnership with Charles H. L'Hommedieu 1879–1892; subsequently in partnership with John R Holmes under firm name of Avery & Holmes for many years and afterwards in partnership with Ralph A. Kreimer under firm name of Avery & Kreimer; attorney for College Hill Loan & Building Company and for the village of College Hill, Cincinnati; retired from practice and all business in February, 1924; had been a delegate to Republican county conventions and one state convention, member Grace Episcopal Church, Cincinnati.

Married (1) June 28, 1882, in South Acton, Mass, Antoinette Norton, daughter of Jonathan Hosmer and Antoinette (Ammidown) Barker, who died July 6, 1883 Married (2) June 26, 1890, in Cincinnati, Alice Cordelia, daughter of Charles and Martha (Merrill) Aiken Children. Olivia, the wife of Philip Hubert Frohman, who attended the Throop Polytechnic Institute and the Throop College of Engineering (now California Institute of Technology); and Charles Hammond, Jr., a non-graduate member of the University of Cincinnati Class of 1919.

Death, due to heart disease, occurred at his winter home at Clearwater. Buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati. Survived by wife, daughter, son, two grandchildren, and two sisters, Mrs Lucy Avery Aiken and Miss Florence Avery, both of Cincinnati.

Henry McLellan Harding, B.A. 1875.

Born November 1, 1851, in Bath, Maine
Died August 24, 1926, in New York City.

Father, Edward Kelloran Harding, a shipbuilder and contractor; son of Nehemiah and Rachel (Reed) Harding. Mother, Louisa Harrington (McLellan) Harding; daughter of General James McLellan and Lydia (Osgood) McLellan; descendant of Hugh McLellan, who came from Scotland in 1743 and settled in a colony in Massachusetts (Narragansett No. 7, now Gorham, Maine).
Bath High School Second dispute appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; member Ivy Committee, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi, and Delta Kappa Epsilon

Headmaster of Brooks Military Academy, Cleveland, Ohio, 1875–1880, also connected with Brooks Chemical Laboratory, manager of Equitable Life Assurance Society of Boston 1881–83; head of firm of D. W. Russell & Company, real estate and insurance agents in Boston, 1883–85; general manager of Massachusetts Electric Power Company 1883–88; in 1890 president of Industrial Railway Company, manufacturers of narrow gauge railways at Ampere, N. J.; for many years previous to his death had been a consulting engineer for design of terminal installations and electrical freight handling machinery, with his office in New York City; had been associated with Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Company of Pittsburgh, Mather Electric & Manufacturing Company of Cleveland, and electrical concerns in Chicago, and had been consulting electrical engineer for New York and other cities, New York State Barge Canal Commission, and New Haven Harbor Commission; during the war served as member of Advisory Board of Port and Harbor Facilities Commission of U. S. Shipping Board; had contributed many articles to engineering magazines; first president of Society of Terminal Engineers; member International Permanent Association of Navigation Congresses; had lectured before Connecticut Society of Civil Engineers.

Death due to apoplexy Buried in Mount Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge, Mass. Survived by daughter, two grandchildren, and two sisters, Mrs Mary H Russell, of Brookline, Mass., and Mrs Emma Patten Twitchell, of Los Angeles, Calif.
Daniel Burr Cushman, B.A. 1876.

Born December 18, 1852, in Plymouth, N.Y.
Died February 18, 1927, in Norwich, N.Y.

Father, Danforth Rockwell Cushman, a farmer; son of Luke and Hannah (Rockwell) Cushman; descendant of Robert Cushman, an English merchant, who was one of the founders of Plymouth Colony. Mother, Ruth (Potter) Cushman, daughter of David and Ruth Potter.

Norwich (N.Y.) Academy. Second colloquy appointment Senior year; member Delta Kappa, Delta Beta Xi, and Psi Upsilon.

LL.B. Columbia 1878; had practiced law in Norwich since his admission to the bar in 1878; had also been engaged in cattle raising and farming on a large scale in Plymouth and neighboring towns in Chenango County; candidate for office of district attorney on Democratic ticket in 1885, but was defeated; had declined offer of nomination for county judge and also for member of the Assembly; director Chenango National Bank and Trust Company; member of Board of Supervisors of Chenango County, representing Plymouth, 1882–89 and of Norwich Board of Education 1895–1923; member Chenango County Bar Association; attended the Methodist Church in Norwich.

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Mount Hope Cemetery, Norwich. Survived by wife, two sons, and daughter.

Arthur Howard Ely, B.A. 1876.

Born September 12, 1853, in Janesville, Wis.
Died July 15, 1926, in Greenwich, Conn.

Father, Colonel George Byron Ely, a lawyer; member of the Iron Brigade in the Civil War; twice brevetted by Act of Congress for gallant and meritorious service; seriously wounded at battle of Antietam in 1862 and rendered unfit for further service in the field; appointed by President Lincoln as Paymaster and had charge of Department of Deferred Claims until close of the war; son of James and Maria (Hofmire) Ely; grandson of General Peter Hofmire, who served as Adjutant General in War of 1812; descendant of Joshua Ely, who came to America from Dunham, Nottinghamshire, England, in 1685 and settled in Burlington County, N. J. Mother, Caroline Ely (Boies) Ely; daughter of Justus and Sarah (Ely) Boies; descendant of Nathaniel Ely, who came from Tenterden, Kent, England, to Hartford, Conn., in 1634, the family later moving to Springfield and Longmeadow, Mass. Yale relatives: Edward P. Cowles (B.A. 1836) (uncle); and William Ely Boies (B.A. 1844), Henry M. Boies, ’59, Henry W. Boies, ’88, Joseph M. Boies, ex-’95 S., David Boies, ’04, Edward B. Cowles, ’10, and David S. Cowles, ’17 (cousins)

Park Institute, Rye, N. Y., and Brooklyn (N. Y.) Polytechnic Institute Second colloquy appointment Senior year; won the mile walk and quarter-mile run Junior year and half-mile and three-mile runs Senior year; member ’76 Football Twenty and Gamma Nu

Taught in private families in New York, Brooklyn, and Tenafly, N. J., 1876–1882, during this period studied law in office of Judge John R. Reid of New York City for two years and at Columbia for a year; admitted to bar of the State of New York 1881 and later to practice in United States Circuit Court, practiced in New York City from 1882 until his retirement in 1907 (in partnership with his father under firm name of George B. and Arthur H. Ely 1882–86), his practice being largely in the care of New York estates; was active in reform and philanthropic work and served as member of Committee of Seventy formed in New York City in 1894 for the reform of municipal government; since his retirement had lived in Greenwich; secretary, treasurer, and business manager of the Ely School for Girls (later The Ely School, Inc.), founded by his sisters, the Misses Ely, in New York City and subsequently located in Greenwich for twenty-five years; had served as treasurer of Yale Alumni Association of Long Island, member Good Government Club, Lafayette Camp of Sons of Veterans, New York Commandery of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion, and Second Congregational Church, Greenwich.

Unmarried.
Death, due to angina pectoris, occurred in his sleep, during the night. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by two sisters, Miss Elizabeth Ely, of Greenwich, and Mrs. William H. Parsons, of Rye, N. Y.

John Francis Nelson, B.A. 1876.

Born December 17, 1855, in New York City
Died February 15, 1927, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Father, Daniel Nelson, a manufacturer in Boston; son of Nels Nelson, who came from Calma, Sweden, to New York in 1810. Mother, Mary (McLocklen) Nelson, who came to this country from Longford, Ireland, and settled in Boston.

Hopkins Grammar School. Second colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years; member Delta Kappa and Delta Beta Xi.

LL.B. Columbia 1878; admitted to New York State Bar and began the practice of law in 1881, but continued to devote some time to real estate business in which he became engaged in 1878; practiced law exclusively in Brooklyn from 1881 until his retirement in 1923, being associated with his brother, the late James A. Nelson, ex-'73 S., from 1889 to 1895; member Church of the Redeemer (Protestant Episcopal), Brooklyn.

Death due to bladder trouble. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. His wife survives him.

Charles Palmer Sanford, B.A. 1876.

Born June 6, 1854, in New York City
Died October 12, 1926, at Roberval, Lake St John, Quebec.

Father, Charles Frederick Sanford (B.A. 1847, M.A. 1858); a lawyer and judge of Superior Court of New York City;
Obituary Record

son of Hervey and Mary (Lyman) Sanford; descendant of Thomas Sanford, who came from England to Dorchester, Mass., in 1632. Mother, Elizabeth Anice (Looney) Sanford; daughter of David and Mary Looney; ancestors settled in Columbia, Tenn. Yale relatives include: John K. Beach, '77 (brother-in-law); and Charles H. Woodruff, '58, George B. Sanford, '63, Lewis B Woodruff, '90, Frederick S. Woodruff, '92, Carl Woodruff, ex-'96, and Edward S Woodruff, '99 (cousins)

Alexander Institute, White Plains, N. Y., and Hopkins Grammar School. Member Delta Kappa, Delta Beta Xi, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Studied law in office of Robinson & Scribner in New York City and at Columbia (LL B 1878); member of firm of Robinson & Scribner 1879-1882 and of Moore, Low & Sanford 1882-85; had since practiced independently; secretary Republican district organization of 21st Assembly District of New York City 1885-86 and, in November, 1886, elected alderman; in June, 1897, after a competitive examination in which several hundred candidates participated, was placed fourth on the list and appointed confidential agent and attorney to New York State Commissioner of Excise; continued as counsel for the commissioner until 1907; member Republican district committees for many years and district delegate to the county committee; member Association of the Bar of the City of New York and Church of the Transfiguration (Episcopal), New York City.

Married July 3, 1894, in New York City, Annie, daughter of Andrew and Sarah Isabel (Post) Bruen No children.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. His wife survives him.

Horace Cheney Wait, B.A. 1876.

Born June 29, 1852, at Highgate, Vt
Died September 4, 1926, in Atlanta, Ga.

Father, Norval Douglass Wait, a manufacturer; son of Jonathan and Lucina (Chapin) Wait; descendant of Richard Wait, who came to America from England in 1637 and settled at Watertown, Mass. Mother, Marion Sarah (Willson) Wait; daughter of Loton Earl and Lodisa (Felton) Willson; ancestors came to America from England.

Phillips-Exeter. Member Gamma Nu.

Taught at a school in Lawrenceville, N. J (later known as the John C. Green Foundation), for a few years after leaving Yale and later at Hasbrouck Institute, Jersey City, N. J., of which he became vice-principal and part owner; sold his interest in the school in 1898 and then taught Latin and Greek in DeWitt Clinton High School, New York City, until his retirement in 1921; had since traveled quite extensively and lived in various cities, about two years before his death establishing his home in Tamassee, S. C.; had published several pamphlets on the study of English grammar and also a number of musical compositions, mostly ballads; while in Jersey City was actively interested in the philanthropic work of the People’s Palace and was a member of the Congregational Church.

Death due to pleurisy. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife and a sister, Mrs Frances W Comstock, of New Hyde Park, N. Y.

William Milo Barnum, B.A. 1877.

Born January 25, 1856, at Lime Rock, Conn. Died October 5, 1926, in New York City

Father, William Henry Barnum; member of Congress from 1867 to 1879; chairman of Democratic National Executive Committee in campaigns of 1880 and 1884; son of Milo and Laura (Tibbets) Barnum, descendant of Thomas Barnum, who came to America from Kent, England, in 1640 and settled at Bethel, Conn, and later at Danbury, Conn. Mother, Charlotte Ann (Burrall) Barnum; daughter of Charles and Lucy (Beach) Burrall, descendant of Governor Bradford of Plymouth Colony. Nephew: Richard N. Barnum, '98 S

Rocky Dell Institute, Lime Rock Chairman Freshman Supper Committee, member Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones.

LLB Columbia 1879; practiced law in New York City 1879–1904; member of firm of Simpson, Thacher & Barnum and its successors, Reed, Simpson, Thacher & Barnum and Simpson, Thacher, Barnum & Bartlett, 1884–1904 (among his partners were Thomas Thacher, '71, Alfred B. Thacher, '74, Philip G. Bartlett, '81, Charles B. Eddy, '93, and Graham Sumner, '97); member of banking firm of Harvey Fisk & Sons 1904–08; chairman reorganization committee of McCall's Ferry Power Company 1908–1912; since 1913 president Pacific Coast Company, a holding company controlling mines, railroads, and other properties on the Pacific Coast, and chairman of board at time of death; director Hudson & Manhattan Railway Company, United States Guarantee Company, Electrical Securities Corporation, Pennsylvania Water & Power Company, and Greeley Square Realty Company; president and trustee St. Andrew's Convalescent Hospital, trustee New York Saturday and Sunday Hospital Association; president Yale Club of New York 1906 and 1907; former governor Yale Publishing Association; chairman Yale Alumni University Fund Association 1897–1900 and director 1898–1914; Alumni Fund Agent for Class of 1877 from 1893 until his death; member Yale Committee for the Restoration of the Library of Louvain and of Walter Camp Memorial Committee; in 1923, with his sister, Miss Laura C. Barnum, gave to Yale the Barnum homestead at Lime Rock, to be known as the Charlotte Burrall Barnum House; member American Historical Society and St. Thomas' Episcopal Church, New York City.

Married June 2, 1879, at Hoosick Falls, N. Y., Anne Theresa, daughter of Walter and Eliza Ann (Schenck) Phelps. Children: Laura, who married Richmond Levering, '02 S. (later divorced), William Henry, '04 S.; Walter, '10; and Phelps, '13

Death resulted from an operation. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York City Survived by wife, three sons, daughter, eight grandchildren, his sister, Miss Laura C Barnum, of New York City, and a brother, Charles W Barnum, of New Haven, Conn. By the terms of his will a bequest of $5,000 was left to Yale, to be added to the gifts from the Class of 1877 to the Alumni University Fund.

Charles Frederic Chapin, B.A. 1877.

Born August 3, 1852, at South Hadley Falls, Mass.
Died October 27, 1926, in Waterbury, Conn

Father, Enoch Cooley Chapin, a merchant; son of Enoch and Lydia (Cooley) Chapin; descendant on both sides of his family from Deacon Samuel Chapin, who came from England to Roxbury, Mass., in 1635 and was one of the founders of Springfield, Mass. Mother, Harriet Jenks (Abbe) Chapin; daughter of John Swetland and Electa (Chapin) Abbe, descendant of John Abbe, who came from England to Salem, Mass., about 1635.

Lowville (N. Y.) Academy and Wesleyan Academy, Wilbraham, Mass. While at Lowville was an apprentice printer with Lewis County Democrat and Lowville Journal and Republican. First and second prizes in English composition Sophomore year, oration appointments Junior and Senior years, second prize at Junior Exhibition and speaker at Commencement; chairman Yale Literary Magazine; a Class historian; member Class Picture Committee, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Phi Theta Psi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Had been connected with Waterbury American since July 26, 1877; became editor-in-chief in May, 1878, and since 1883 had also been secretary of American Printing Company, publishers of the American (served as president of the company for a few months in 1922, prior to consolidation of the American and Republican); for many years his classmates, Henry S. Chase and Arthur R. Kimball, were associated with him, the former as treasurer and manager 1892-96 and as president 1896-1918, and the latter as associate editor 1881-1907, treasurer 1907, and business manager 1918-1922; since 1910
Mr. Chapin's son, Carl M. Chapin, '04, had been associate editor; member of advisory board of The Associated Press since 1923, vice-president Yale Club of the Naugatuck Valley 1917 and president 1923-26; had written several essays and historical sketches of Waterbury; member Society of Colonial Wars and Mattatuck Historical Society (member of council) of Waterbury; attended First Congregational Church, Waterbury

Married October 12, 1877, in South Shaftsbury, Vt., Katharine Adèle, daughter of William P. and Sarah (Stickle) Mattison Children: Carl Mattison, '04; Mrs. Barbara C Russell; and Marjorie (Mrs. Harold A. Marvin), who died August 23, 1913. Mrs. Chapin died July 10, 1905.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage followed by a shock. Cremation at Springfield, Mass., with burial of ashes in Riverside Cemetery, Waterbury. Survived by son, daughter, two granddaughters, and a brother, Theodore Chapin, of Davis Creek, Calif

Robert Goodsell Chidsey, B.A. 1877.

Born April 16, 1851, in North Branford, Conn
Died June 20, 1927, in Newton Center, Mass

Father, Jared Goodsell Chidsey, a farmer; son of Caleb and Rebecca (Page) Chidsey; descendant of Deacon John Chidsey, who came to America from England and signed the Connecticut Colony Constitution in 1644. Mother, Julia Ann (Barnes) Chidsey; daughter of Joshua and Amelia (Daggett) Barnes; granddaughter of Philip Daggett (B.A 1762); seventh in descent from John Daggett, who came in the fleet with Governor Winthrop in 1630 and settled in Watertown, Mass, and from Governor Thomas Mayhew, who came in the first voyage of the "Griffin" in 1631, settled in Watertown, but removed to Marthas Vineyard in 1647; descended also from Joshua Barnes, who was born in 1739. Yale relatives include: Naphtali Daggett (B.A. 1748), sixth president of Yale College (great-great-uncle); John H. Eden, '73 M. (brother-in-law); and John H. Eden, '12 S. (nephew).

Williston Academy Member Kappa Sigma Epsilon
Yale College

After graduation studied medicine for a time at New York University and also taught at Stewart Memorial School, Garden City, N. Y.; connected with F. A. Reichardt & Company, dealers in surgical instruments, New York City, 1877–1886; member of firm of Chidsey & Partridge, importers and dealers in surgical instruments, Boston, 1886–1904; subsequently sold his share in the business and moved to New Rochelle, N. Y.; had engaged in the importing of surgical and electrical instruments in Brooklyn since 1904; had lived in Roxbury, West Newton, and Newton Center at various times; member of Trinity Episcopal Church, Newton Center. Married May 18, 1887, in New Haven, Emma Louise, daughter of Lewis Dexter and Julia DeClifford (Hogan) Brown. One daughter, Marion.

Death due to infection of the bladder and heart trouble; had been in failing health for more than two years. Buried in Newton Cemetery, Newton Center. Survived by wife, daughter, and a sister, Miss Harriet Chidsey, of Great Neck, N. Y.

John Everett Keeler, B.A. 1877.

Born February 26, 1856, in Stamford, Conn
Died May 28, 1927, in Stamford, Conn

Father, Samuel Smith Keeler, a saddler and harness maker, son of Benjamin and Sarah (Slessor) Keeler; descendant of Ralph Keeler, who came to this country from England as early as 1639, settled first at Hartford, Conn., and later became one of the first settlers of Norwalk, Conn. Mother, Mary Jane (June) Keeler; daughter of Benjamin J. and Jane (Smith) June; descendant of Pierre Juin, who, with other Huguenots, came to America in the seventeenth century and settled at New Rochelle, N. Y.

Stamford High School; also prepared under a private tutor
Entered Yale as a Sophomore in 1874; first colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years; second College Premium in English composition Senior year.

Studied law with Calvin G. Child, '55, of Stamford; admitted to the bar in July, 1879, and thereafter in association with firm of Child & Strobridge, Child & Hart, and Nathananiel R. Hart until 1887, when he became member of firm of Hart & Keeler, which continued until the death of Mr. Hart in 1906; practiced alone in Stamford 1906-1913, when he formed a partnership with John C. Durey, '06 L., under firm name of Keeler & Durey, which lasted until his Superior Court appointment; attorney of borough of Stamford 1880-82; first judge of Borough Court of Stamford 1883-87; appointed a judge of Superior Court of Connecticut in 1918 for a term of eight years, but in 1922 was elevated to the bench of Supreme Court of Errors and served as an associate justice of that court until February 26, 1926, when he retired because of the age limit; had since been a state referee and was also associated as counsel with law firm of Taylor, Durey & Pierson, of which his former partner, John C. Durey, and Frederick C. Taylor, '96 L., are members; elected director Citizens Savings Bank, Stamford, 1917 (vice-president 1925-27), Stamford Trust Company 1924, Western Connecticut Title & Mortgage Company of Stamford 1917, Stamford Water Company 1897 (treasurer 1905-1927), and Ferguson Library of Stamford 1907 (secretary 1911-1927); elected a corporator of Stamford Hospital in 1905; trustee and secretary of Stamford Children's Home 1906-1919; member of character committee of Fairfield County Bar 1907-1918 and of grievance committee 1912-18; president of Stamford Bar Association 1917-18; vice-president of committee in charge of the celebration of the town of Stamford's 275th anniversary in 1916; a vestryman and comptroller of the glebe lands of the parish of St. John's Episcopal Church; president of Fairfield County Yale Alumni Association 1913-15, member Connecticut State Bar Association.
Obituary Record

Married October 14, 1885, in Morristown, N. J., Alice, daughter of William Clarke and Harriet Jane (Dodge) Horne Children: Ralph (B.A. 1912, B.F. Biltmore Forest School 1913) and Margery (B.A Wellesley 1918, M.A. Columbia 1921)

Death due to myocarditis. Interment in Woodland Cemetery, Stamford. Survived by wife, son, and daughter.
Herbert Wolcott Bowen, B.A. 1878.

Born February 29, 1856, in Brooklyn, N Y
Died May 29, 1927, in Woodstock, Conn

Father, Henry Chandler Bowen; head of the dry goods firm of Bowen, McNamee & Company; a founder of The Independent in 1848 and its editor until 1896; son of George and Lydia Wolcott (Eaton) Bowen; descendant of Griffith Bowen, who came from Slade, Wales, to Boston in 1638, and whose third son, Henry, was a founder of Woodstock in 1686

Mother, Lucy Maria (Tappan) Bowen; daughter of Lewis and Susanna (Aspinwall) Tappan, granddaughter of William Aspinwall (B.A Harvard 1764, honorary M.D. Harvard 1808), who attended the University of Pennsylvania Medical School during 1768-69 and who was a surgeon in the Continental Army; descendant of Abraham Tappan [Toppan], who came to Newbury, Mass., from Calbridge, Yorkshire, England, in 1637. Yale relatives include four nephews: Hamilton Holt, '94, Stuart Holt, '99, Henry C. Holt, '03, and Gardner Richardson, '05

Juvenile High School and Polytechnic Institute, both of Brooklyn. Studied languages and instrumental music in Paris and Berlin in 1871. Won half-mile run Freshman year, member Tug-of-War Team Senior year; judge in fall and spring sports; member Class Crew Junior year and of victorious Class Crew Senior year, with his classmate, Frank V. McDonald, founded, edited, and published Yale Daily News; wrote the Class ode Senior year; member Linonia, Hoi Philologoi, Delta Kappa, and Psi Upsilon; was not graduated with his Class, but received honorary degree of M.A. in 1903, with enrollment in Class of 1878; a founder of Wolf's Head Society in 1883.

Studied music and Italian in Italy 1878-79; upon his return to this country began the study of law at Columbia (LL B. cum laude 1881); following his admission to the bar, entered law office of William M. Ivins in New York and shortly afterwards began practice in association with his brother-in-law, George C. Holt, '66; in 1890 gave up his practice to accept an appointment by President Harrison as United States consul at Barcelona, Spain, was promoted to consul general in 1895 and held that post for four years; was the last American official to leave Spain before the Spanish-American War and faced a hostile mob in front of the Consulate before he came away; minister resident at Teheran, Persia, 1899-1900 and then consul general until 1901; minister plenipotentiary to Venezuela 1901-05 and as such had charge of American interests during the Venezuelan claims crisis, acting as counsel for Venezuela and the United States in the case before the Hague Court in 1903, since his retirement from the diplomatic service had lived in Woodstock on the estate founded by his ancestors in 1686; in 1917 served as district chairman of Connecticut State Council of Defense and of the War Savings work; author. Verses (1884), In Divers Tones (poems) (1884), Losing Ground (a book of sonnets) (1890), De Genere Humano (a philosophical essay on government and religion) (1893), International Law (1896), Passing Thoughts (1902), Smoke Rings (1921), and Recollections: Diplomatic and Undiplomatic (1926); member American Society of International Law and American Political Science Association.
Obituary Record

Married (1) February 26, 1895, in New York City, Augusta Floyd, daughter of George F. and Augusta (Floyd) Vingut. They were divorced in 1901. Married (2) January 25, 1902, in Caracas, Venezuela, Carolyn Mae, daughter of Arthur Wellesley and Cornelia (Mix) Clegg, of Galveston, Texas.

Death, due to heart disease, followed an illness of five and a half years. Buried in Woodstock. Survived by wife, two sisters, Mrs. Arthur S. Hardy, of Woodstock, and Alice Bowen Richardson, the widow of Rufus B. Richardson, '69, and two brothers, Clarence W. Bowen, '73, and Franklin D. Bowen, '84. Another brother, John E. Bowen, '81, died in 1890.

Marrion Wilcox, B.A. 1878.

Born April 3, 1858, in Augusta, Ga
Died December 26, 1926, in New York City.

Father, Daniel Hand Wilcox, a merchant; son of Col. Jonathan Samuel Wilcox and Chloe (Hand) Wilcox; nephew of Daniel Hand, who established through the American Missionary Association the Daniel Hand Educational Fund in 1888 and gave the Hand Academy to Madison, Conn., his native town; descendant of Capt. Daniel Hand of the Revolutionary Army; descended also from John Wilcox [Wilcocks], who came from England to America and was one of the original proprietors of Hartford, Conn., in 1636. Mother, Frances Louisa (Ansley) Wilcox; daughter of Jesse and Catherine (Urquhart) Ansley; ancestors came to this country from Scotland in the eighteenth century. Yale relatives include, besides four brothers named below, George E. Hand (B.A. 1829) (great-uncle); George A. Wilcox, '52 (uncle); George P. Sawyer, '72, Walter I. Badger, '82, and Edward C. Fellowes, '88 (brothers-in-law); James D. Sawyer, '96, Ansley W. Sawyer, '07, Walter I. Badger, Jr., '13, Edward A. Fellowes, ex-'18 S., and Eric L. Hedstrom, '21 (nephews); and George E. Hand, '69, and Francis U. Downing, '72 (cousins).
Yale College

Hopkins Grammar School. Second colloquy appointment Senior year; won Yale Literary Magazine prize medal in 1876; member Class Glee Club, Freshman and Sophomore Football Twenty, Junior Crew, Delta Kappa, Delta Beta Xi, Hé Boulé, Psi Upsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Studied history and Anglo-Saxon in Yale Graduate School 1878; studied law in office of Box & Norton in Buffalo for about a year and at Hamilton College (LL.B. 1880); admitted to New York State Bar 1880 and practiced in Buffalo for a time; graduate student at Yale 1880 and 1881, spent the years 1881–83 abroad (took special courses in history and philology at Heidelberg, Jena, Berlin, and Oxford universities); instructor at Williston Academy 1883–84, instructor in German at Yale 1884–86; editor of New Englander and of Yale Review for a time; went abroad in 1888 and spent two years in study and travel; had lived in New York City since 1893; from 1900 to 1909 served as associate editor of Encyclopedia Americana Corporation, which published Encyclopedia of Latin America, of which he was senior editor, and contributed to North American Review, Atlantic Monthly, Churchman, Scientific American, Harper's Magazine, Harper's Weekly, Putnam's, and other leading magazines and reviews, visited Cuba as a student of economic and political conditions.
in 1902, advocated in American and Cuban periodicals the adoption of the Cuban policy which was submitted to Congress and accepted in 1903; continued his studies of Latin America in 1906 and 1907, visiting Mexico, Panama, and South America as a representative of Yale and the Hispanic Society of America and suggesting, especially for Mexico, Brazil, and Argentina, interchange of professors between the United States and Latin-American countries; in 1911 did further work abroad; from 1915 to 1921 wrote for Art, Life, International Studio, and Architectural Record, an article in the last-named magazine for September, 1921, being on the Yale Memorial Quadrangle; author: Real People (1886), Senora Villena and Gray (1888), History of the War with Spain (1898), Sketches in Spain, England, and Italy (1899), Harper's History of the War in the Philippines (1900), and Completed for Labour (a novel) (1923)

Married April 2, 1885, in New York City, Eleanor Patricia, daughter of Louis Buenaventuro and Eleanor Sanchez, of Porto Rico Children: Inez Coralie (Mrs. Nina Wilcox Putnam) and Elinor Hand Mrs. Wilcox died in 1918

Death due to heart failure. His body was cremated. Survived by daughters, one grandson, three sisters, Ethel W. Fellowes, wife of the Rev. Edward Colton Fellowes, ’88, and Miss Mabel M Wilcox and Mrs Arthur E. Hedstrom, both of Buffalo, and three brothers, Ansley Wilcox, ’74, Frank U. Wilcox, ex-'86, and Urquhart Wilcox, ’95 S. Another brother, Daniel H Wilcox, ex-'84, died in 1906.

John Jacob Hill, B.A. 1879.

Born April 4, 1854, in Freeport, Pa
Died October 17, 1926, in Pittsburgh, Pa

Father, Samuel Anson Hill, a refiner of petroleum; son of John and Margaret (Galbreath) Hill. Mother, Helen Mar (Alter) Hill, daughter of Jacob and Helen (McFarland) Alter

Pittsburgh High School. Taught in that school for two years (1873–75) before entering Yale. First dispute appointments Junior and Senior years; member Linonia, Delta Kappa, and Adelphoi.
Studied in Yale Divinity School 1879-1882 (B D 1882), during course there was in employ of U S Government in connection with the census of 1880; joined Pittsburgh Conference of Methodist Episcopal Church in 1882 and served as minister at Evergreen and North End for a year, ordained as deacon September 30, 1883; minister at Freedom 1884-85, pastor of Homewood Avenue Church, Pittsburgh, 1885-88; ordained as elder September 26, 1886, at Connellsville; pastor at Elizabeth 1888-1892, Washington 1892-97, Sewickley 1897-1905, Uniontown 1905-08, South Avenue Church, Wilkinsburg, 1908-1910, and Homewood Avenue Church, Pittsburgh, 1910-11; district superintendent of Pittsburgh Conference at Blairsville 1911-15 and McKeesport since 1915.

Married June 24, 1882, in New Haven, Conn., Mary Lizzie Landon, daughter of Charles Russell Whedon, '73 L., and Mary Elizabeth (Burwell) Whedon Children: John Edward; Harry Charles, '11 S; Sumner Anson (M D Hahmemann Medical College 1910), Elizabeth Helen (Mrs W S. Parkinson); Russell Whedon (B S Pennsylvania State College 1914); Florence Gertrude (Mrs James T Jackson), Donald Willis (killed in France in 1918); Robert Franklin Wilkinson, and Lloyd Nelson (died in childhood) Mrs. Hill died February 1, 1921.

Death due to arteriosclerosis Buried in Homewood Cemetery, Pittsburgh. Survived by five sons, two daughters, and nine grandchildren.

James William Hillhouse, B.A. 1879.

Born June 21, 1854, in Montville, Conn.
Died September 9, 1926, in Willimantic, Conn.

Father, James William Hillhouse, a farmer, son of William and Eliza (Fitch) Hillhouse, descendant of the Rev James Hillhouse (M.A. University of Glasgow), first minister of the North Parish in New London (now the separate township of Montville), who came from England in 1719 and whose son James A. and grandson James were graduated at Yale in 1749 and 1773 respectively. Mother, Louisa Mulford (Dolbeare) Hillhouse; daughter of Lemuel R and Eleanor (Raymond) Dolbeare, descendant of John Dolbeare, who came from Wales to Boston, Mass., in 1720. Yale relatives include two cousins, Raymond A. Parker, '12, and Leslie T. Gager, '15.

Norwich Free Academy.

LLB Columbia 1881, but never practiced law; in 1883 formed a partnership with George F. Taylor, of Willimantic, to engage in the lumber and coal business under firm name of Hillhouse & Taylor, and remained in that connection until his death; since 1887 his firm had also been engaged in the wood finishing business; member First Congregational Church, Willimantic.

Married May 26, 1886, in Newton, Mass., Annie Laura, daughter of Aaron Henry and Sophia Jane (Rogers) Niles. Children: James Theodore (B.A. 1911, M.A. 1912, Ph.D. 1914), Kenneth Niles (B.A. 1913); Eleanor (B.S. Columbia 1915), the wife of Harold Crowell; and Marion Strong (B.A. Smith 1922).

Death due to a cerebral embolism. Buried in New Cemetery, Willimantic. Survived by wife, sons, daughters, and three grandchildren.

Walter Belknap James, B.A. 1879.

Born May 11, 1858, in Baltimore, Md
Died April 6, 1927, in New York City.

Father, Henry James, a lumber merchant; member of firm of Henry James & Company; also engaged in banking; son of Nathaniel Emmes and Betsy (Ingersoll) James; descendant of Captain James, a mariner, who came to America from Wales during the first half of the seventeenth century and settled at Bristol, R. I Mother, Amelia Belknap (Cate) James; daughter of Ammon and Eunice (Belknap) Cate
Yale relatives include seven nephews, Henry James, '03, Allan McLane, Jr., '16, Ellery S. James and Oliver B. Jennings, both '17, Hugh D. Auchincloss and B. Brewster Jennings, both '20, and Lawrence K. Jennings, ex-'26.

Hopkins Grammar School. Dissertation appointment Junior year, second dispute appointment Senior year; mem-Delta Kappa, Hé Boulé, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Began medical studies at Johns Hopkins and then attended Columbia for three years, receiving degree of M.D. in 1883; on staff of Roosevelt Hospital, New York City, for a year and a half and then continued his studies in Europe for two years; practiced in New York City from 1887 until his retirement in 1922; since 1889 had been connected with Columbia as clinical lecturer on medicine (1889-1897), instructor in general diagnosis (1897-1900) and in medical diagnosis (1900-01), lecturer on practice of medicine (1901-02), professor of same (1902-04), Bard professor (1904-09), and professor of clinical medicine (1909-1918); member of University Council (1903-09); in 1918 elected an alumni trustee and upon the expiration of his term in 1924 elected to life membership by the board; assistant pathologist to New York Hospital; visiting physician to Roosevelt Hospital 1901-09 and to Presbyterian Hospital 1904-09, consulting physician to Bellevue Hospital and to Hospital for the Ruptured and Crippled; in 1918 served as member of American Medical Committee of American Red Cross Hospital of Paris (later the American Red Cross Military Hospital); president of Long Island Biological Association since 1926; head of the State Hospital Development Commission appointed by Governor Whitman in 1918 for the study of the feeble-minded; president of National Committee for Mental Hygiene in 1918; Fellow of New York Academy of Medicine since 1889, serving as its president in 1915 and 1918 and since then as a trustee; trustee of American Museum of Natural History since 1911 (member of executive committee, committee on building and plans, pensions board, and committee on African Hall Collections), of St. Stephen's College 1922-27, and of the Trudeau Sanatorium 1895-1927 (president of board since 1915); councillor of American Geographical Society since 1910; a manager of Society for Instruction in First Aid to the Injured, leader in plans for the projected $10,000,000 medical center on Washington Heights, member of Advisory Council of the Association of Yale Alumni in Medicine in 1921, honorary M.A. Yale 1906, LL.D. Columbia 1904 and Harvard 1922; had written numerous articles on the practice of medicine and had edited and assisted in the publication of a number of medical works; member New York County Medical Society, Practitioners' Society, Maryland Society of New York, and St. John's Episcopal Church, Cold Spring Harbor, N. Y.; elected member of Elizabethan Club at Yale in 1916; in recognition of his services to Columbia and to Yale a gift of a set of the Chronicles of America Photoplays was made to Columbia in 1925.

Married February 20, 1894, in New York City, Helen Goodsell, daughter of Oliver Burr and Esther Judson (Goodsell) Jennings, and sister of Walter Jennings, '80, and Oliver G Jennings, '87, and sister-in-law of Hugh D. Auchincloss, '79. Children: Walter Belknap, Jr (died in childhood); Oliver Burr (B.A. 1918, LL.B Columbia 1922); Helen, the wife of Henry H Anderson, '16, and Eunice, the wife of Henry E. Coe, Jr., '17.

Death due to heart disease; became seriously ill three weeks before while at the Jekyll Island Club in Brunswick, Ga, of which he was president. Buried at Cold Spring, N. Y. Survived by wife, one son, two daughters, four sisters, Mrs. Harry White, of New York City, Mrs. Francis Newton, of East Hampton, Long Island, Mrs. Allan McLane, of Garrison, Md, and Mrs. John H. Johnson, of Chase, Md, and two brothers, Henry A James, '74, and Norman James, '90. A third brother, Robert C. James, '94, died in 1896.

Elisha Brooks Joyce, B.A. 1879.

Born November 14, 1857, in New York City
Died July 13, 1926, in New Haven, Conn

Father, James Follett Joyce, a merchant; member New York Produce Exchange. Mother, Harriet (Joyce) Joyce; of English ancestry. Yale relatives include a cousin, J. Stanley Joyce, '10 S.

Charter Institute, New York City; also prepared under a private tutor Second colloquy appointment Junior year; first colloquy appointment Senior year; an editor of Yale Courant, member Kappa Sigma Epsilon and Delta Kappa Epsilon
B.D. General Theological Seminary 1882 (one of three essayists at graduation), during his course there had charge of a mission chapel, ordained to the diaconate and in June, 1882, took charge of St. Mark's Church, Brooklyn, N. Y., for the summer; the following October became assistant in Christ Church, New Brunswick, N. J., and, upon the death of the rector, Dr. Alfred Stubbs (B.A 1835), was made minister-in-charge December 12, 1882; ordained as a priest May 20, 1883, and instituted as rector November 7, 1883, remained with that church until forced by ill health to retire in 1916, when made rector emeritus; served as examining chaplain of Diocese of New Jersey for many years and for a time as trustee of General Theological Seminary; D.D. Rutgers 1916, lived in Basking Ridge, N. J., 1917–1922, during that period served for a time as assistant minister of St. Bernard's Church, Bernardsville, N. J., since 1922 his home had been in New Haven, where he was a member of the Church of St. James the Apostle.

Married June 27, 1888, in Watkins, N. Y., Sarah Rebecca, daughter of Josiah and Sarah (Hewette) Davis Children: Hewette Elwell (B.A 1912, M.A 1915, Ph.D. 1926) and Dorothy, the wife of Frederick L. Sexton (B.F.A 1917)

Death, due to a cerebral hemorrhage, followed arteriosclerosis and paralysis Buried in churchyard of Christ Church, New Brunswick Survived by wife, son, daughter, and three grandchildren.

James Stetson Metcalfe, B.A. 1879.

Born June 27, 1858, in Buffalo, N. Y
Died May 26, 1927, in New York City.

Father, James Harvey Metcalfe, a banker, son of Thomas and Nancy (Pearsall) Metcalfe; descendant of John Metcalfe, who was born in England and after coming to this country settled in Virginia. Mother, Erzelia Frances (Stetson) Metcalfe; daughter of Asa P. Stetson. Nephew: Lyman M. Bass, '97.

Buffalo Classical School and Phillips-Andover. Member '79 Orchestra, Delta Kappa, and Delta Kappa Epsilon, left college in Junior year and took up newspaper work; in 1891 was given an honorary M.A. by Yale, with enrollment in Class of 1879.
Obituary Record

Editor of The Modern Age, a monthly periodical, 1883–84; editorial writer on the Buffalo Express 1884–85; editor of Peoples Pictorial Press in 1886; manager of American Newspaper Publishers’ Association 1886–89; dramatic critic of Life 1889–1920 (literary editor 1890–95 and art editor 1919); art and dramatic editor of Judge 1920–22; had since been dramatic editor and critic of Wall Street Journal; was also dramatic managing editor of Cosmopolitan Magazine in 1895, in 1917 organized and carried on Life’s French Orphans’ Fund and in 1919 was made a Chevalier of the Legion of Honor; in 1915 established at Yale the Metcalfe Prize (offered biennially for the best essay on a subject dealing with theatrical conditions), Democratic candidate for New York State Assembly from 19th District of New York City in 1903, but was defeated; author: Mythology for Moderns (1900), The American Slave (1900), Another Three Weeks (1908), Diary of a District Messenger (1909), and Jane Street (1921); a founder, in 1925, of the Superior Club of Critics (“The First Nighters”) and its president for a year.

Married (1) August 27, 1896, Edith Williams, of Batavia, N.Y., a graduate of Rochester University. Married (2) July 14, 1904, Elizabeth, daughter of Samuel and Henrietta Tyree, of New York City. No children by either marriage.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Buffalo. Survived by wife, a brother, George S. Metcalfe, of Buffalo, and a sister, Mrs Frances M. Wolcott, of New York City.

Charles Rollin Pence, B.A. 1879.

Born July 3, 1858, in Peru, Ind.
Died January 12, 1927, in Kansas City, Mo.

Father, Rollin Pence (M.D. Medical College of Cleveland 1853), ancestors settled in the Shenandoah Valley, Va., about 1750. Mother, Elizabeth (Phillips) Pence; daughter of Jonas and Barbara (Pence) Phillips; of English ancestry.

Preparatory training received at Earlham College, attended Smithson College, Logansport, Ind., for a time, Buchtel College 1874–76, and Indiana University, before entering Yale as a Junior in 1877; second colloquy appointment Senior year; member Linonia.

Studied law at University of Michigan six months (1879–1880) and in April, 1880, entered law office of Claypool & Ketcham in Indianapolis, Ind., where he remained until his admission to the Indiana Bar in September, 1881; in partnership with W. E. Mowbray in firm of Pence & Mowbray in Peru 1881–84; prosecuting attorney of 27th Judicial Circuit of Indiana 1884–86; went to Kansas City in 1889 and became associated with law firm of Scammon, Stubenrauch & Pence and remained in that connection until 1892; in partnership with E. E. Porterfield under firm name of Porterfield & Pence 1892–1900; then practiced independently until 1920, when elected on Republican ticket to circuit bench for term of six years; had retired just twelve days before his death; defeated for re-election in November, 1926; in 1924 was unsuccessful candidate for Republican nomination as judge of Supreme Court of Missouri; during World War served as chairman of Legal Advisory Board, Division No. 9, in Kansas City; had contributed to Central Law Journal of St. Louis and to American Law Review; member St. George’s Episcopal Church, Kansas City.

Married June 30, 1897, in Kansas City, Jean Howard, daughter of S. Howard and Laura (Ferguson) Calhoun. One daughter, Katherine Calhoun (Mrs. Truman J Mathews).

Death, due to gallstones, followed an illness of five months; underwent an operation three months before his death and a second one the day before. Buried in Forest Hill Cemetery, Kansas City. Survived by wife, daughter, a brother, William Pence, of Bunker Hill, Ind., and a sister, Mrs. Minerva Jones, of North Grove, Ind.

Frederick Thomas Simpson, B.A. 1879.

Born July 3, 1857, in Bath, Maine.
Died May 4, 1927, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, Thomas Simpson, a ship builder; later owned a market; descendant of William and Agnes Simpson, who came to America from Edinburgh, Scotland, by way of the north of Ireland, about 1700. Mother, Elizabeth Titcomb (Mitchell) Simpson, descendant of Experience Mitchell, who came from England to the Plymouth Colony in 1623. Yale relatives include: Edward M. Noyes, '79 (brother-in-law), and Edward S. Noyes, '13 (nephew).

Bath public schools Oration appointments Junior and Senior years; second Berkeley Premium in Latin composition, a class deacon; member College Choir, '79 Glee Club, Gamma Nu, and Hé Boulé.

Taught at Poughkeepsie, N.Y., 1879–1880 and at Bath 1880–84; during the latter period was also engaged in managing his father's business and in study at Bowdoin Medical School (M.D. 1884), member Bath School Board 1883–84; intern at U.S. Marine Hospital, Portland, Maine, for a time, practiced at Yonkers, N.Y., 1885–86; studied at New York Post Graduate Medical School and at New York Polyclinic for a year; had practiced in Hartford since 1886, specializing in nervous diseases and insanity, visiting physician and neurologist to Hartford Hospital; physician to American School for the Deaf; consulting physician in insanity to Connecticut State Prison at Wethersfield 1899–1901; lecturer in medicine at Hartford Theological Seminary and at Kennedy School of Missions, director of Hartford Babies Hospital and Hartford Social Settlement; during the war served as District Surgeon (rank of Major) in Connecticut State Guard and as member of U.S. Medical Advisory Board for District of Hartford; member of Hartford Home Guard; author: Psycho Neurosis, a series of lectures published in 1909; contributor to Medical Record, New York Medical Journal, Philadelphia Medical Journal, Journal of Mental and Nervous Diseases, and Yale Medical Journal, member Hartford Medical Society (president in 1915), Connecticut State Medical Society (former vice-president), American Academy of Medicine, New York Neurological Society, Connecticut Society of Alienists, and Immanuel Congregational Church, Hartford.

Married (1) October 25, 1892, in Hartford, Katharine Silliman, daughter of Lucian Sumner Wilcox (B.A. 1850, M.D. 1855), professor in Yale School of Medicine 1877–1881, and Harriet Catherine (Silliman) Wilcox, niece of Thames A.

Died suddenly. Interment in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by wife and daughter.

Mountford Samuel Wilson, B.A. 1879.

Born May 26, 1857, in San Francisco, Calif.
Died April 21, 1927, in Burlingame, Calif.

Father, Samuel Mountford Wilson, a lawyer in Steubenville, Ohio, Galena, Ill., and San Francisco; member California State Constitutional Convention in 1879; president of San Francisco Bar Association; trustee of University of California Law School; son of Peter Miller and Frances Pope (Stokeley) Wilson; grandson of George Wilson and Col. Thomas Stokeley, both of whom fought in the Revolution; descendant of George Wilson (of Welsh-Norman ancestry), who was born at sea while his parents were coming to Philadelphia in 1745; descended also from Peter Miller, who came to Philadelphia from Alsace-Lorraine in the eighteenth century and was a colonial justice of Pennsylvania, and from Samuel Mountford, who came to America from England in 1750 and settled in Delaware. Mother, Emily Josephine (Scott) Wilson, of Scotch-Welsh ancestry; daughter of John Scott, the last attorney-general of Louisiana Territory and the only delegate in Congress from Missouri Territory and its first representative in Congress as a state, and Harriett (Jones) Scott; granddaughter of John Rice Jones, born in Mallwyd, Wales, who came to this country from London in 1784; descendant of Andrew Scott, who came to America from England about 1750.

Preparatory training received in San Francisco schools and under a private tutor, the Rev. Thomas Kirkland of that city. Attended Kenyon College for two years, becoming member of Alpha Delta Phi. Entered Yale as a Sophomore in 1876; member Dunham Boat Club, Senior Class Supper Committee, and Delta Kappa Epsilon, graduate member of Wolf's Head.
Obituary Record

After graduation entered his father's law office in San Francisco, while there also studied law at University of California (LL.B. 1882), admitted to practice that year and entered into partnership with his father and his brother, Russell J. Wilson (B.A. Kenyon 1870), in firm of Wilson & Wilson, had since practiced continuously in that firm and had been its head since 1895, his brother being associated with him until his death in 1905; member Bar Association of San Francisco, California Bar Association, American Bar Association, and Grace Episcopal Church, San Francisco.

Born January 31, 1859, in Pikesville, Md
Died October 2, 1926, in Baltimore, Md.

Father, James Howard McHenry (B.A. Princeton 1840), a gentleman farmer in Baltimore County, Md.; son of John and Juliana Eager (Howard) McHenry; grandson of James McHenry, military secretary to Washington and aide to Lafayette during Revolutionary War, member of Constitutional Convention of 1787, and Secretary of War from 1796 to 1800, and of General John Eager Howard, an officer in the Revolution and fifth governor of Maryland; descendant of Daniel McHenry, who came from Ballymena, County Antrim, Ireland, to Maryland in 1772; Mother, Sarah Nicholas (Cary) McHenry, daughter of Col. Wilson Miles Cary and Jane Margaret (Carr) Cary; descendant of Miles Cary, who came from England to Warwick County, Va., in 1640. Yale relatives include: John McHenry, Jr., '17, James McHenry, '20, and C. Morton Stewart, Jr., '24 (nephews), and Fairfax Harrison, '90, Francis Burton Harrison, '95, and Archibald Harrison, '98 (cousins).

George G. Carey's private school in Baltimore. Attended
Pennsylvania Military Academy 1875–76. First colloquy appointment Junior year, an editor of Yale Daily News; member Freshman Football Team and Class Supper Committee, president University Boat Club Senior year; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Hé Boulé, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

LL.B. University of Maryland 1882, admitted to bar of Baltimore County and to practice in Maryland Court of Appeals, did not practice except for a brief period in Baltimore; traveled extensively in this country and abroad and took an active interest in fox hunting, member Maryland State Society of the Cincinnati.

Death due to sudden heart failure. Buried in St Thomas’ Church Cemetery, Garrison, Md. Survived by son, daughter, a brother, John McHenry, ’85, and two sisters, Mrs R Brent Keyser and Mrs. C. Morton Stewart, both of Baltimore.

Henry Choate Ordway, B.A. 1880.

Born August 8, 1856, in Hampstead, N H
Died October 31, 1926, in Winchester, Mass.

Atkinson (N. H.) Academy and Phillips-Andover. First dispute appointments Junior and Senior years, an editor of Yale Record Junior and Senior years, member Delta Kappa, Hé Boulé, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones.

LL.B Columbia 1882; soon afterwards admitted to New York Bar, but never practiced law; associated with his father in business in Hampstead 1882–85; during that time served as justice of the peace; with J. F. Bumpstead & Company, importers of paper hangings, of Boston 1885–88; then became engaged in iron, steel, and heavy hardware business as member of firm of Butts & Ordway of Boston; made treasurer of firm when business was incorporated as the Butts & Ordway Company and served as such until 1898; had since been engaged in trust services; had lived in Winchester since 1885; treasurer of Home for the Aged; member board of investment of Winchester Savings Bank, Water and Sewer Board, and church committee of First Congregational Church; during World War served on all Liberty and Victory Loan committees of the town.

Death due to arteriosclerosis Buried in Wildwood Cemetery, Winchester. Survived by wife, son, two daughters, and eight grandchildren.

Max Stern, B.A. 1880.

Born October 29, 1858, in Norwich, Conn.
Died November 20, 1926, in New York City.

Father, Levi Stern, a merchant; born in Prussia and came to this country in 1854; son of Solomon and Lena Stern Mother, Caroline (Plaut) Stern; daughter of Abraham and Bertha Plaut, who came from Germany to Hartford, Conn., in 1854.

Norwich Free Academy and Hartford Public High School. Dissertation appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon.

LL.B Columbia 1882; admitted to New York Bar May
Tale College

17, 1882; clerk in law office of Duysters & Neil 1882-83 and with Fraser & Minor 1883-89; since then had practiced independently, although associated with Fraser & Minor until 1895 and then with Mr Minor until 1920; specialized in real estate law, particularly in searching and restoring of titles; counsel for Lawyers' Title Insurance Company; general retainer for Kops Brothers, manufacturers, since 1912; executor for a number of estates; secretary of New York Zinc & Lead Company since 1889; secretary and a director of Bedford Park (N. Y.) Improvement Association, during the war served as member of Legal Advisory Board, New York City; member New York County Lawyers Association and Temple Israel, New York

Married May 24, 1887, in New York City, Clara, daughter of Solomon and Hannah (Stern) Lorsch. One daughter, Helene, who attended Teachers College, Columbia, for three years as member of Class of 1912.

Death due to coronary thrombosis. Buried in Mount Hope, N. Y. Survived by wife, daughter, and two sisters, Mrs. Solomon Plaut and Mrs. George Heineman, both of New York City.

William Emerson Peck, B.A. 1881.

Born June 30, 1858, in New Britain, Conn
Died October 22, 1926, in New York City.

Father, Charles Peck, a manufacturer; son of Elnathan and Mary (Dewey) Peck; descendant of Joseph Peck, who came from England to New Haven about 1638 and later settled at Milford, Conn. Mother, Mary Folger (Davis) Peck; daughter of the Rev. Emerson Davis (B.A. Williams 1821, D.D. Harvard 1847), a trustee, vice-president, and acting president of Williams and later pastor of the Westfield (Mass) Congregational Church for thirty years, and Mary Mayhew (Folger) Davis; ancestors came from Norwich, England, to Watertown, Mass., in 1635 and later settled at Marthas Vineyard, Mass.; direct descendant of Governor Thomas Mayhew and of Peter Folger. Yale relatives include Ronald P. Boardman, '21 S., and William E. B. Boardman, '27 (nephews); and Edward H. Hart and Maxwell S. Hart, both '94 S., Walter H.

Hartford Public High School and Williston Academy. Played in Freshman Orchestra; member Senior Debating Society, Linonia, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Almost immediately after graduation became engaged in the export business and in October, 1881, went to Valparaiso, Chile, representing ten United States manufacturers; returned to the United States in 1882 but went back to South America the next year and spent considerable time in Peru and Bolivia; in October, 1883, crossed the Andes on foot and spent the rest of the year in Buenos Aires and Montevideo; opened his own office in New York City in 1884 and two years later established a branch in Buenos Aires, his firm, William E Peck & Company, Inc, becoming one of the chief importing and exporting houses in the United States (had recently combined with the American Trading Company, Inc, of which he was vice-president at the time of his death [former secretary]); a founder of the American Exporters and Importers Association and its president in 1912 and 1913; at one time treasurer and director of Hale Company, Inc, of New York, president of Peck Steamship Line, and a director of Colonial Trading Company; member of Chamber of Commerce of the State of New York since 1904 and had served on many of its committees, had also acted as a delegate, on behalf of the Chamber, to the National Foreign Trade Convention and other gatherings; member of advisory committee of foreign commerce department of Chamber of Commerce of the United States of America since 1920 and of its committee on metric system 1920–23; trustee of United States Savings Bank of the City of New York since 1907; trustee and general manager of Mount Meigs (Ala.) Colored Institute for several years beginning in 1888; director of Pan-American Society; in 1918 served as special director of American War Trade Board in New York in charge of Bureau of Exports, had published the Precios Corrientes, a Spanish trade paper, and also Peck's Export Index, a trade paper circulating in over seventy countries; had written many papers for the Dry Goods Economist and similar articles on the export trade, and had lectured on this subject at Dartmouth, had made numerous trips to Europe, Mexico, the Azores, and Morocco, as well as to South America, and during 1909-1910 made a trip around the world; helped to organize the Sachem's Head (Conn.) Yacht Club and was its commodore for two years; secretary of Outlook Club of Montclair, N J, for several years and former president of Circumnavigators Club; member Sons of the Revolution, New England Society of New York, and The Pilgrims of London; his portrait is to be painted and hung in the New York Chamber of Commerce Building.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Fairview Cemetery, New Britain. Survived by wife, daughter, two grandchildren, a brother, Edward F Peck, of Hampton, Va., and a sister, Mrs Henry B. Boardman, of Schenectady, N Y.

Wilson Howard Pierce, B.A. 1881.

Born October 12, 1857, in Northford, Conn
Died December 27, 1926, in Chicago, Ill.

Prepared for college at Newtown (Conn.) Academy and with private tutor. Taught for a year and a half before entering Yale in 1877.
Obituary Record

After graduation was principal of high school in New Milford, Conn., for a while, at the same time studying law by himself, entered Yale School of Law in 1884 (LL.B. 1885; Townsend Prize); admitted to Connecticut Bar 1885; with law firm of Butler, Stillman & Hubbard in New York City for a time; then practiced with Brewster, Tweedy & Scott in Danbury, Conn., until 1888; practiced independently in Waterbury, Conn., from 1888 until his retirement in 1924; specialized in defending damage cases against corporations, clerk of Waterbury City Court 1896, prosecuting liquor attorney for New Haven County several terms and for Connecticut Humane Society 1888; member Waterbury Board of Education 1891-93; president University Extension Club of Waterbury 1895-96 and at one time of Waterbury Field Club, delivered numerous educational and political addresses, member American Bar Association and First Congregational Church, Waterbury; moved to Chicago 1924.

Death, due to pneumonia, followed a long illness; had been in failing health for seven years. Buried in the new cemetery at Brookfield Center, Conn. Survived by wife, daughter, son, and a brother, Dr. Elbridge W. Pierce, ex-’84 S.

Born April 7, 1861, in Milwaukee, Wis. Died November 27, 1926, in New York City.

Father, Joseph B. Schram; engaged in wholesale grocery business, born in Raudnitz, Austria; came to America in 1844 and settled in Milwaukee; son of Bernhard and Esther Schram. Mother, Therese (Schram) Schram; born in Austria; daughter of David and Marie (Neustatel) Schram. Nephew: Herman Schram, ’15 S.

German and English High School and Markham Academy, Milwaukee. Oration appointments Junior and Senior years; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon.
Studied at Harvard Medical School 1881–86 (M.D. and M.A. Harvard 1886) and at University of Giessen, Germany, 1897; house physician at Boston Lying-in-Hospital and at Massachusetts General Hospital 1884–86; had since practiced in New York City; resident and visiting physician to Montefiore Home for Chronic Invalids 1886–89; physician to children’s department of out-patient department of Mount Sinai Hospital in 1892 and 1893; special study in physical and physiological optics at Columbia during 1919–1920; president of Harvard Medical Society of New York 1905; trustee of the United Brothers, had contributed articles to American Journal of Gynecology and other magazines; member Massachusetts Medical Society, New York Academy of Medicine, New York State Medical Society, German Medical Society, New York County Medical Society, and Metropolitan Medical Society of New York.

Married (1) December 18, 1889, in New York City, Therese, daughter of Leopold and Sophia Herrmann, who died September 28, 1901. Married (2) August 18, 1913, in Zurich, Switzerland, Anna, daughter of Joseph and Fannie (Bar) Adler.

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Mt. Sinai Cemetery, St. Louis, Mo. Survived by wife, a sister, Mrs. Alma C. Nessler, of New York City, and a brother, Samuel Schram, of Chicago. Another brother, Louis B. Schram, ’76, died in 1921.

Frederick Richardson Vernon, B.A. 1881.

Born October 31, 1858, in Brooklyn, N.Y.
Died February 22, 1927, in Freeport, N.Y.

Father, Samuel Vernon, a manufacturer and merchant, a founder and head of the paper manufacturing firm of Vernon Brothers & Company; born in Appledore, England, in 1809 and came to this country in 1840, settling in Brooklyn, son of Richard Vernon, of Devonshire, whose ancestors belonged to the branch of the Vernon family at Plymouth, and Elizabeth (Wills) Vernon, of Honiton, a descendant of John Wills, of Camelford. Mother, Martha Adeline (Richardson) Vernon, who attended Mount Holyoke College in 1843 and graduated at the Rutgers Female Institute, New York City, in 1845; daughter of Edward and Martha (Smith) Richardson; descendant of Samuel Richardson, one of the founders of Woburn, Mass., in 1640 and of Seth Richardson, a soldier of the Revolution; descended also, through the Waters family, from Capt. William Trask, one of the “Old Planters” of Salem, Mass., in 1628, who had command, under Endicott, against the Pequots in 1637, and, on her mother’s side, from Capt. Thomas Bull and Thomas Bunce, who fought in the Pequot War, from Silas Matthews, a Sergeant in the Revolution, and from Joseph Smith, an early settler of Hartford, Conn. Yale relatives include: Richardson V. Turner, ’26 (nephew), and T. Alfred Vernon, ’75 S., Harold Vernon, ’83, and Howard W. Vernon, ’89 (cousins).
Obituary Record

Lockwood’s and Adelphi academies, Brooklyn. Second dispute appointment Junior year, first colloquy appointment Senior year, on University Football Team three years; substitute on University Crew and captain of Class Crew and rowed on the Senior Eight; member Freshman Class Supper and Junior Promenade committees, College Choir, Delta Kappa, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones.

After graduation traveled extensively in Europe, Canada, and the United States and then studied at Columbia Law School for a year, admitted to New York State Bar in 1886, but had never practiced, had been chiefly occupied in the manufacture of paper boxes and novelties; was with Vernon Brothers & Company for a time and later with Clark, Radcliffe & Company, subsequently formed a partnership with his brother, Francis J. Vernon, ’85, under firm name of F. R. & F. J. Vernon and continued in that connection until his brother’s death in 1914, secured four patents on boxes and paper novelties, continued in the same business for a few years and since 1915 had also been president and treasurer of the Samuel Vernon Estate, Inc.; served for two terms as the second president of the Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, of which he was a founder, and one term as its secretary, taking a prominent part in the development of the club, member Long Island Poultry Association, Sons of the Revolution, and Washington Avenue Baptist Church, Brooklyn.

Married December 16, 1897, in Brooklyn, Mary Virginia
Genevieve, daughter of Daniel Vincent Arguimbau, of Spanish descent, and Emma Jane (Logan) Arguimbau. One daughter, Mary Virginia (Mrs. Peter Edward Smith) Mrs Vernon died March 3, 1901.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Greenfield Cemetery, Hempstead, N. Y. Survived by daughter and three sisters, Mrs. James A. Radcliffe and Mrs Frederick G. Corning, both of New York City, and Mrs. Austin G. Turner, of Brooklyn

Julius Howard Pratt, B.A. 1882.

Born August 20, 1860, in Montclair, N. J.
Died April 20, 1927, in Milwaukee, Wis.

Father, Julius Howard Pratt (B.A. 1842), a manufacturer and railroad builder, son of Julius and Lydia (DeWolfe) Pratt; great-grandson of Phineas Pratt, a member of the 7th Connecticut Regiment during the Revolutionary War, descendant of Lieut. William Pratt, who came from Hertfordshire, England, to Cambridge, Mass., in 1633, later lived in Hartford, Conn., and moved to Saybrook, Conn., in 1646. Mother, Adeline Forbes (Barnes) Pratt, daughter of Eli and Susan (Morris) Barnes; granddaughter of Capt. Amos Barnes, a Revolutionary soldier, descendant of Thomas Morris [Maurice], who came from Barbados to Westchester County, N. Y., and signed the plantation covenant in New Haven in 1639; he settled at Morris Cove, near New Haven.

Montclair High School. Philosophical oration appointment Junior year and second prize at Junior Exhibition, high oration appointment Senior year and speaker at Commencement; contributor to Yale Record; member Class Day and Class Picture committees, Gamma Nu, Psi Upsilon, and Phi Beta Kappa; graduate member Wolf’s Head.

Taught in Montclair High School 1882-84, attended Yale Graduate School 1884-87 (Ph.D. 1887), during which time taught mathematics 1886-87, instructor in physics at Cornell 1887-88; instructor in mathematics and physics at Illinois College 1888-1890; in 1890 became owner of Milwaukee Academy and was its principal until 1909, when it merged into the German-English Academy (now the Milwaukee University School); head of its academic department 1909-1924, also taught Latin and mathematics there from 1909 until 1926, with the exception of a year (1924-25), when he was president of Oil Heating Sales Company of Milwaukee; had accepted his reappointment for 1926-27, but was unable to resume his teaching after June, 1926; member of board of visitors of University of Wisconsin 1894-96; member of North Central Academic Association, of the committee auxiliary to the Committee of Ten on the Study of Greek in Secondary Schools, and of executive committee of Yale Alumni Association of Wisconsin 1921-24; choir master and superintendent of the Sunday school of an Episcopal Church for a number of years; later became a Christian Scientist.

Married December 27, 1892, in Washington, D. C., Annie, daughter of David Robert and Mary Melinda (Shepard) Barclay, who died December 7, 1913. No children.

Death due to cancer. Cremation took place in Milwaukee and interment in Arlington, N. J. Survived by two sisters, Mrs. James D. Eaton, of Los Angeles, Calif., and Mrs. Charles H. Johnson, of Montclair, and a brother, John Barnes Pratt, of Montclair. Another brother, William A. Pratt, ex-'76 S., died in 1912.

Arthur Bethuel Wright, B.A. 1882.

Born February 23, 1862, in Meriden, Conn.
Died May 25, 1926, in Hinsdale, Ill.

Father, Dexter Russell Wright (B.A. Wesleyan 1845, LL.B. Yale 1848, honorary M.A. Trinity 1853); state senator and representative; U. S. district attorney; president New Haven Common Council, corporation counsel, and police commissioner of New Haven; Lieutenant Colonel of 15th Regiment, Connecticut Volunteers, during Civil War; son of Alpheus Wright, a soldier in War of 1812, and Anna B. (Loveland) Wright Mother, Maria Huldah (Phelps) Wright; daughter of Epaphras L. Phelps.

Episcopal Academy, Cheshire, Conn., and Hopkins Grammar School. Member Kappa Sigma Epsilon and Delta Kappa Epsilon.
Yale College

LL.B. 1884; practiced law in partnership with his father in firm of Wright, Stoddard, Thompson & Wright (later Wright, Stoddard & Wright) of New Haven from 1884 until his father's death in 1886; then in office of Lynde Harrison, '60 L., in New Haven for a short time; subsequently practiced in New York City for a number of years, until the failure of his health obliged him to abandon practice temporarily; later moved to Chicago and resumed his law practice, in 1898 being member of firm of Steere & Furber; made an extended trip to Alaska and after his return to Chicago became associated with Eugene E. Prussing and was engaged in corporation and reorganization work 1903-1915; was subsequently with Levinson, Becker & Schwartz, and at the time of his death was with Wetten, Pegler & Dale; member Illinois Commandery of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion and Christian Science Society of Chicago.

Married May 18, 1900, in Fargo, N. Dak., Florence Boyington, daughter of Albert Curtis and Harriet Felicia (Boyington) Henderson. No children.

Death due to apoplexy. Survived by his wife.

Hong Yen Chang [Kang-jen Chang], B.A. 1883.

Born December 20, 1859, in Han Shan, China.
Died August 4, 1926, in Berkeley, Calif

Father, Chang Shing Tung, a merchant, who died in 1870
Mother, Yee Shee.

Came to the United States in 1872 and prepared for college at Phillips-Andover. Studied at Yale 1879-1881, when he was recalled by the Chinese Government; was given his degree in 1913, with enrollment in Class of 1883.

After his return to China was placed in the naval school at Tientsin, but left in 1882 and went to Honolulu, where his brother was a merchant; studied law there in office of A. S. Hartwell for a year; then came to New York and entered Columbia Law School (LL.B. 1886), had planned to practice law among the Chinese in New York City, but at first was thwarted in his plan because citizenship, which was required for admission to the bar, was then forbidden to the Chinese; finally a special act was passed by New York Legislature, removing the disability in Mr. Chang's case (drafted the bill himself and argued in support of it before Governor Hill in April, 1887); admitted to New York Bar May 17, 1888; adviser at Chinese Consulate, San Francisco, 1888–1895; connected with San Francisco branch of the Yokohama Specie Bank 1895–1907; returned to China in 1907 and was given a chair at Nanking Government University, where he lectured on international law 1907–08, member of special Chinese embassy to Washington 1909–1910; Chinese consul at Vancouver, British Columbia, 1910–13; first secretary at Chinese Legation, Washington, March–November, 1913, and then chargé d'affaires to March, 1914; director of Chinese naval students in the United States at Berkeley 1916–17; had retired from active occupation some time before his death.

Married March 14, 1897, in San Francisco, Charlotte, daughter of Yee Ah Tye and Chan Shee Ah Tye. Children: Ora Ivy (B A. University of California 1924) and Oliver Carrington (B S University of California 1923).

Death, due to myocardial insufficiency, with apoplexy as a contributory cause, followed an illness of two and a half years. Cremation and burial took place at the Berkeley Crematory. Survived by wife and children.

Born April 27, 1863, in Booneville, N Y.
Died October 14, 1926, in Paris, France.

Father, the Rev. William Henry Moffett, Hobart ex.'57; born in Ireland; came to this country about 1850 and settled in Cincinnati, Ohio, graduated at General Theological Seminary, New York City; rector of Episcopal churches in Mississippi, western New York, New Jersey, and Delaware, U S consul at Athens; son of James and Charlotte (Langston) Moffett. Mother, Mary (Cleveland) Moffett, daughter of William Phelps and Mary Ann (Tower) Cleveland; descendant of Anson Cleveland and Moses Cleveland, who came to America in 1635 and settled at Woburn, Mass., in 1640. Yale relatives include two nephews, William T Lusk, '24, and Louis T Lusk, '29.
St Paul's School, Garden City, N. Y. Oration appointment Junior year and second prize at Junior Exhibition, first dispute appointment Senior year; played on one of the '83 Tennis teams.

Taught mathematics and English at St Paul's School, Garden City, 1883-85 and at Dearborn Morgan School, Orange, N. J., 1885-86, had since been engaged in newspaper and literary work; on European staff of New York Herald 1887-1891 and on its New York City staff 1891-92, Sunday editor 1908-09, foreign editor of New York Recorder 1893-94, connected with McClure's Magazine and the S. S McClure Syndicate for several years both in New York and abroad; wrote a series of stories for Leslie's Weekly in 1898 entitled "True Soldiers' Stories," and a series of articles on the "Shameful Misuse of Wealth" for Success during 1905-06; author: Real Detective Stories (1898), Careers of Danger and Daring (1901), A King in Rags (1907), Through the Wall (1909), The Bishop's Purse (in collaboration with Oliver Herford) (1913), The Hand of Mystery (1913), The Mysterious Card (1913), The Conquest of America (1916), How to Live Long and Love Long (1917), The War Beautiful (1917), Possessed (1919), and Glint of Wings (in collaboration with Virginia Hall) (1922); also the prose poems, A Woman's Creed, The Litany of the Men, A Vision of Christmas, and Glorious France, and the plays, Money Talks (with W. H Thompson) (1906), Playing the Game (with Joseph and William Jefferson) (1907), The Battle (with Wilton Lackaye) (1908), For Better, For Worse (1910), The Seed; Esther Frear (1910), and Greater than the Law (1912), translator of Paul Bourget's Cosmopolis (1893); had traveled extensively and had lectured for two years on his travels in the East, in 1917 served for a few months as chairman of American Defense Vigilantes, trustee of American Defense Society; member Church of the Ascension (Episcopal), New York City.

Married February 11, 1899, in New York City, Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Dr. William Thompson Lusk (B A 1859, M.D New York University 1864, honorary M.A Yale 1872, LL.D 1894) and Mary Hartwell (Chittenden) Lusk, and sister of Dr William C. Lusk, '90, and Graham Lusk (honorary M.A. 1896, Sc D. 1908) Children: Anne Eunice, Cleveland Lusk (died in childhood); Langston; and Mary Cleveland, Cornell ex-'28, who married Chauncey Hackett. Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by wife, son, two daughters, one grandchild, and a brother, Charles W. Moffett, of Flushing, N. Y.

James Frank Raymond, B.A. 1883.

Born May 13, 1861, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died January 28, 1927, in Plainfield, N. J

Father, James Estabrook Raymond, a merchant; manager of white goods department of H. B. Claffin & Company, New York City; son of James and Elvira (Kendall) Raymond; ancestors settled in Salem, Mass., in 1652. Mother, Catharine Lott (Taggart) Raymond; daughter of George and Alletta Taggart.

Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. Second dispute appointments Junior and Senior years; member Class Day Committee, Delta Kappa, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

From January, 1884, to January, 1886, represented seven manufacturers of linen and cotton goods, whose plants were in England, Scotland, Ireland, and Belgium, spending part of the time abroad; with H. B. Claffin & Company, wholesale dry goods merchants, 1886-1898, at first as a buyer of linens and white goods and after 1892 as manager of their white goods department; was subsequently in business for himself as a dry goods commission merchant for some years and was later connected for a time with the Picardie Woven Fabrics Company of New York; for a number of years previous to his death had been a salesman for Leland Wright & Company of New York; member Grace Episcopal Church, New York.

Married April 30, 1890, in Plainfield, Lilian, daughter of Eben Edward and Annie (Conklin) Dorman. No children.

Death due to an embolism following pneumonia. Buried in Hillside Cemetery, Plainfield. Survived by a brother, George Edward Raymond, of Philadelphia, and two sisters, Mrs. William C. Burling, of New York City, and Miss Caroline Raymond, of Brooklyn.
Charles Colebrook Sherman, B.A. 1883.

Born December 18, 1860, in Syracuse, N.Y.
Died May 8, 1927, in New Rochelle, N.Y.

Syracuse High School. Second Berkeley Perium in Latin composition Freshman year; first Winthrop Prize Junior year and philosophical oration appointment; high oration appointment Senior year; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon and Phi Beta Kappa.

Taught at Hopkins Grammar School, New Haven, 1883-84; private tutor in Syracuse 1884-86; studied at Yale Divinity School 1886-88; after his father's death in December, 1888, was occupied for some time with the settlement of his estate, on the staff of Syracuse Journal 1889-1890; conducted a school for boys in Syracuse 1890-94; studied Semitic languages and Biblical subjects at University of Chicago 1895-96 (honorary Fellow in Semitics), at University of Berlin 1897-98, and again at University of Chicago 1899-1900, having spent the year 1898-99 in travel in Syria and Palestine; while at University of Chicago was also engaged in literary work, which he had since continued in New York City; religious editor of New International Encyclopedia and of Nelson's Encyclopaedia 1902-03; managing editor of New Schaff-Herzog Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge 1903-07, had since been engaged in private tutoring; vice-president of Class of 1883 since 1908; member American Oriental Society, American Academy of Political and Social Science, and First Presbyterian Church, Syracuse.

Married November 11, 1908, in New Rochelle, Mary Louise, daughter of Jesse and Mary Elizabeth (Barrett) Colebrook. No children.
Obituary Record

Death due to heart disease; had been in poor health for ten years. Buried in Beechwood Cemetery, New Rochelle. His wife survives him. By the terms of his will the University is a beneficiary of his estate.

Herbert Rodgers Smith, B.A. 1883.

Born December 23, 1858, at Rock Island, Tenn
Died September 15, 1926, in Norwalk, Conn

Father, William Randel Smith (B.A Columbia 1851), a lawyer, Brigadier General, Connecticut National Guard, for a number of years, son of Charles W and Harriet (Randel) Smith. Mother, Annie Clark (Rodgers) Smith; daughter of John Brown and Louisa (Clark) Rodgers; ancestors on her father's side came from Scotland.

Hopkins Grammar School. Oration appointments Junior and Senior years; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

In the fire insurance business in Norwalk, Conn., 1883–85; clerk of Probate Court 1885–1890; town clerk, recorder of deeds, registrar of vital statistics, and title searcher from October, 1890, until his death; during the war served as chairman of Committee on Information and Research of Norwalk War Bureau, prepared an Index of Town Land Records.

Unmarried.

Death due to myocarditis and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn, N.Y. Survived by a sister, Miss Annie Estella Smith, of Norwalk, and a brother, Clarence William Smith, of Cold Spring-on-the-Hudson, N.Y.

James Smith Havens, B.A. 1884.

Born May 28, 1859, in Weedsport, N.Y.
Died February 27, 1927, in Rochester, N.Y.

Father, Dexter Eber Havens, a merchant, son of William Vinson and Susan (Stone) Havens. Mother, Lucy Bell (Smith) Havens; daughter of James S and Percis (Bell) Smith Yale relatives Charles W Mills, ’93 (nephew); and Henry H Covell, ’88 (cousin).
Syracuse (N. Y.) Classical School and Monroe Collegiate Institute, Elbridge, N. Y. Entered Yale with Class of 1882 but compelled to leave during Sophomore year on account of ill health; reentered college as a Sophomore in Class of 1884 in 1881; high oration appointments Junior and Senior years; speaker at Commencement; a Class historian; member Psi Upsilon and Phi Beta Kappa.

Studied law in office of Cogswell, Bentley & Cogswell in Rochester and admitted to New York Bar in October, 1886; opened a law office in Rochester the following February and had since practiced there, becoming well known as a trial lawyer in western New York; in 1894 formed a partnership with Nathaniel Foote under firm name of Foote & Havens, which became Foote, Perkins & Havens in 1901 and Perkins & Havens in 1905; in 1907 joined the firm of Harris & Harris, which then became Harris, Havens, Beach & Harris; continued in that connection until 1912, when he went into partnership with his nephew, Samuel M. Havens (B A University of Rochester 1899, LL B Columbia 1902), under firm name of Havens & Havens; head of firm of Havens, Mann, Strang & Whipple since 1918; had been assistant treasurer and counsel for Eastman Kodak Company since June 1, 1918, and secretary, vice-president in charge of the legal department, and a director since October, 1919; was active in Democratic campaigns of 1888 and 1892 and in 1904 represented his district at the Democratic National Convention in St. Louis; secretary of Flower City Democracy 1891 and president 1892; in 1910 was elected on the Democratic ticket to the Sixty-first Congress to fill an unexpired term caused by the death of the Republican representative; in 1911 was prominently mentioned for Democratic nomination as governor of New York, in August, 1926, appointed member of the law committee of the Democratic State Committee for the ensuing year; had been member of executive committees of New York State and National Bar associations and president of Rochester Bar Association in 1915; president of Yale Alumni Association of Rochester, Inc., 1912-13 and had represented the association on Alumni Advisory Board since 1919; member First Unitarian Church, Rochester.

Married January 16, 1894, in Rochester, Caroline Prindle, daughter of Jacob S. Sammons. Children: Lucy Prindle (Mrs. Roland E. Packard) (died September 30, 1924); Mary Eleanor; James Dexter, University of Rochester ex-’22; and Nathaniel Foote.

Death, due to an arteriosclerotic heart, occurred at Strong Memorial Hospital, Rochester, after a brief illness. Buried in Mount Hope Cemetery, Rochester. Survived by wife, two sons, and one daughter.

Charles Elmer Holmes, B.A. 1884.

Born February 2, 1863, in North Stonington, Conn.
Died October 28, 1926, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, Wheeler Hakes Holmes, a merchant; son of David Holmes, a soldier in the War of 1812, and Hannah (Hakes) Holmes; descendant of Robert Holmes, who settled in Stonington in 1670, and his son, Joshua Holmes, who fought in King Philip’s War; descended also from Isaac Wheeler, an officer in the Revolutionary War, and from George Holmes, who came from Essex County, England, in 1637 and settled in Roxbury, Mass. Mother, Esther Amelia (Smith) Holmes; daughter of John and Hope (Whipple) Smith; descendant of William Whipple, a signer of the Declaration of Independence; the Smith ancestors came to this country from Bremen, Germany, in 1815 and settled in Ledyard, Conn.

Norwich (Conn.) Free Academy. Dissertation appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; Berkeley scholar; on Class and University Baseball teams; class statistician; member Delta Kappa and Psi Upsilon.

Principal of Ainsworth (Nebr.) High School 1884–87 and Rushville (Nebr.) High School 1887–89; studied law in Lincoln, Nebr., and admitted to bar 1889; practiced law in Harrison, Nebr., 1889–1890; then gave up practice and served three years as vice-president of State Bank of Harrison, which he had organized; since 1906 had been connected with Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York; state manager in Sioux Falls, S. Dak., 1906–1910, Providence, R I, 1910–14, Columbus, Ohio, 1914–18, and New London, Conn., January–September, 1919, and supervising agent at Hartford since 1919; chairman Republican Central Committee of Minnehaha County, S. Dak., 1896 and State Central Committee of Progressive Party in Rhode Island 1913; had made an extensive study of fossil deposits in Nebraska and South Dakota, discovering one of the giant fossils, and in 1889 and 1890 conducted two geological expeditions into that region in the interest of Vassar College; political speaker and lecturer on natural science; author: Happy Days (verse), From Court to Court, and Birds of the West; while in Harrison raised a company of volunteers to protect the settlers from raids by Sioux Indians and saw some active service; member National Association of Audubon Societies and former president Audubon Society of South Dakota; member Episcopal Church, Sioux Falls.

Married June 15, 1903, in Dover, S Dak., Josephine Collier, daughter of the Rev John Wesley Etter (B.A. Lebanon Valley College 1872, M A. 1874, B.D. Drew Theological Seminary 1875) and Sarah (Collier) Etter. No children.

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by wife and two sisters, Mrs. Frank D. Lawton, of Unionville, Conn, and Mrs. W. H. Butler, of DeFuniak Springs, Fla.

Ernest St. George Lough, B.A. 1884.

Born May 20, 1863, in Brooklyn, N Y.
Died May 9, 1927, at Trois Rivieres, Guadeloupe, French West Indies

Father, George Forbes Lough, of New York City; one of the pioneer exporters of American merchandise to various parts of the world, senior member of the firm of G F Lough & Company, importers and exporters, doing business with the West Indies and South America; son of the Rev. John Lough, B.A Queens College, Oxford, 1813, and clergyman of St. Peter’s Church, St. George, Bermuda, and Mary (Hinson) Lough; descendant of the Rev. John Lough, born at Newby, Westmoreland, in 1756, and rector at Sittingbourne, Kent, England, who conducted a preparatory school for Oxford about 1800. Mother, Rosalie (St George) Lough; daughter of William Lightbourn; lineal descendant of Randolph St.
Obituary Record

George Tucker (LL D William and Mary 1790), who came from Bermuda to Virginia, and during the Revolution led a successful expedition by sea to his native Bermuda for the capture of British supplies there and was a Lieutenant Colonel at the siege of Yorktown; took part in drafting the constitution of the United States, was later a member of the Virginia Legislature and of the United States Senate from Virginia, professor of law at William and Mary College, and a judge in state courts, the Court of Appeals, and the U S. District Court.

Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute Member '84 Tennis Club, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, and Psi Upsilon.

After graduation entered his father's office in New York City and in 1886 became a partner in the firm of G. F. Lough & Company and a member of the New York Produce Exchange; since 1908 had confined his attention to the coffee, cocoa, and vanilla plantation known as L'Hermitage, at Trois Rivières, Guadeloupe, becoming proprietor of the estate and making his home there for the last seventeen years, 1909-1927, honorary vice-consul at Guadeloupe for eight years, 1919-1927; member of the Episcopal church.

Married September 25, 1894, in Cumberland, Md., Eloise Lowndes, daughter of J Philip and Eloise (Lowndes) Roman. No children

Death due to myocarditis Interment in Rose Hill Cemetery at Cumberland, Md Survived by wife and two sisters, Miss Helen M Lough and Mrs Alfred Chaplin, of Lynwood, Ascot, Berkshire, England

William Henry Sanford, B.A. 1884.

Born November 10, 1861, in Newtown, Conn
Died October 13, 1926, in Woodmont, Conn

Father, Aaron Sanford, sheriff of Fairfield County; member Connecticut Legislature; selectman of Newtown and president Newtown Savings Bank, son of Aaron and Fanny (Hill) Sanford, descendant of Thomas Sanford, who came from England to America in 1639 and settled at Milford, Conn, his descendants settling later in Redding, Conn.
Mother, Flora Jane (Beardsley) Sanford; daughter of Israel A. and Esther (Toucey) Beardsley; descendant of William Beardsley, who came to this country from England in 1635 and later settled at Stratford, Conn. Yale relatives: William Procter, ’94 S, and Rodney Procter, ’03 S (nephews); and Daniel S. Sanford, ’82, Samuel C. Shaw, ’91, Daniel S. Sanford, Jr., ’24, and Frederick S. Shaw, ’30 (cousins).

Newtown Academy Second colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years; member Psi Upsilon.

Taught at Jarvis Military Academy, Weston, Conn., 1884–85; then bookkeeper and correspondent for Caxton Advertising Agency of Cincinnati, Ohio, for a short time, taught in New York City 1887–88; in advertising department of Century Company from 1888 until July, 1910, when obliged to give up his position on account of ill health, lived in Edgartown, Mass, 1910–12; later was engaged in farming in Newtown; retired from active business some years before his death and during last three years of his life had been a patient in Peck’s Sanitarium in Woodmont; associate member Legal Advisory Board for 13th Connecticut District 1917; member General Assembly 1919

Unmarried.

Death due to heart trouble. Buried in Newtown. Nearest surviving relatives are nephews and a niece.

James Hall, B.A. 1885.

Born March 11, 1846, at Great Point, Belfast, Ireland
Died June 9, 1927, in Bellmore, N Y

Father, Henry Hall, a fishline manufacturer; son of Henry and Sarah Hall Mother, Maria (Simpson) Hall; daughter of Thomas and Mary Simpson. Nephews: Norman C Thorne, ’02, and Clarence E Andrews, ’06

Was engaged in the fishline business with his father before preparing for Yale at Siglar’s Institute, Newburgh, N Y
Second colloquy appointment Senior year

Studied at Yale Divinity School 1885–86 and at Union Theological Seminary 1886–87, in summer of 1887 started a Presbyterian mission church at Garfield, N. J., and in 1888 was instrumental in its organization; served as its pastor for a year and also preached regularly at Kingsland, N. J.; pastor of Presbyterian Church, Bellmore, 1890–92; then lived in New York City for two years; head of a private preparatory school at Roslyn, N. Y., 1894–1900, during which time was also minister of the Congregational Church at Roslyn Highlands for a year (1894–95); preached regularly in the Methodist Church at Roslyn 1896–1900 and trained its choir for two years (1898–1900); was subsequently engaged in real estate business in New York City for a time and later in civil engineering; fuel inspector for New York City 1903–1915; preached occasionally in Presbyterian churches in Bellmore and Amityville, N. Y.; of late years had lived in Florida; pastor of Community Church at Bonnieview, West Palm Beach, for several years and had also lived at Lake Worth and Delray.

Married December 13, 1866, in Highland Mills, N. Y., Julia Matilda, daughter of Moses Mark and Mehitabel (Earl) Clark. Children: James Julian and May (Mrs. Townsend G. Smith).

Death due to pneumonia. Cremation took place at Middle Village, Long Island. Survived by wife, son, daughter, six grandchildren, one great-grandchild, a brother, Alexander Gordon Hall, of Highland Mills, and two sisters, Mrs. Barbara Tilley Rodgers, of Central Valley, N. Y., and Mrs. Mary Grace Davis, of Portsmouth, England.

Oramel Whittlesey Pratt, B.A. 1885.

Born August 8, 1862, in Norwich, Conn
Died December 4, 1926, in Kansas City, Mo.

Father, George Pratt (B.A. 1857), a lawyer; city attorney and corporation counsel of Norwich; son of Bela Lyon and Nabby (Tirrell) Pratt; descendant of Matthew Pratt, who came from England in 1624 and settled in East Weymouth, Mass. Mother, Sarah Victoria (Whittlesey) Pratt; daughter of Oramel and Charlotte Maconda (Morgan) Whittlesey; descendant of John Whittlesey, who came to America from Cambridgeshire, England, in 1635 and settled at Saybrook, Conn., in 1680. Yale relatives include: Bela L. Pratt, ’99 Art (brother); and Dudley Pratt, ’19, and Minot W. Pratt, ex-’21 (nephews).

Norwich Free Academy. First dispute appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year; member Psi Upsilon.

Studied law in office of Lathrop, Smith & Morrow in Kansas City and since 1886 had been member of the firm, the name of which was Lathrop, Morrow & Fox 1885–1894 and since then Lathrop, Morrow, Fox & Moore; among his associates in practice were Gardiner Lathrop, ’69, a founder and now senior member of the firm, John M. Fox, ’79, Thomas R. Morrow, ’80, Porter B. Godard, ’89, Samuel W. Sawyer, ’99, and John H. Lathrop, ’05; an authority on corporation, real estate, and insurance law; member Kansas City Bar Association; first treasurer of St. Paul’s Episcopal Church, Kansas City, and vestryman at time of his death.

Married May 3, 1898, in Kansas City, Bertha Ellen, daughter of John and Mary Ellen (Prettyman) Pepper. Children: Elizabeth Brereton, a non-graduate member of the University of Wisconsin Class of 1918 (died April 7, 1926); Sarah Whittlesey (B.A. Milwaukee-Downer 1922, M.A. University of Wisconsin 1924) (Mrs. Johnson Bennett); George Oramel (B.A. 1925, LL.B. 1927); and Bertha Maconda, Connecticut College for Women 1930.

Death, due to a cerebral hemorrhage, followed an illness of five weeks. Buried in Salem, Conn. Survived by wife, son, two daughters, four grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Alice P. Bodman, of Winchester, Mass.

Arthur Cecil Thomson, B.A. 1885.

Born March 19, 1860, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Charles Henry Thomson (honorary M.A. Williams 1871); junior partner in manufacturing firm of W. S. & C. H. Thomson; son of Eben Norton and Sarah Parmalee (Merri- man) Thomson; descendant of Anthony Thomson, who came from Kenham, Kent, England, to Boston in 1637 and was one
Obituary Record

Hopkins Grammar School Entered Yale with Class of 1884 and was member of Freshman Football Team; left during Freshman year and reentered college the next fall with Class of 1885; president of Athletic Association Senior year; member Delta Kappa, Eta Phi, Psi Upsilon, and Scroll and Key; granted his degree in 1900 with enrollment in Class of 1885.

Engaged in looking after his real estate interests in Chicago and New Haven, with his home in the latter city, from graduation until 1890; then moved to New York City; since 1896 had lived in Brookline but had been interested in real estate in Chicago and the suburbs; retired from all active business in 1923, one of the donors of the land on which the Yale Bowl was built and donor of the silver cups bestowed annually on the best all-round graduates of Phillips-Andover, Phillips-Exeter, and the Hotchkiss School, who intended to enter Yale, member of Unitarian Church, Brookline.

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, one son, two daughters, and nine grandchildren.

Edward Lathrop Burke, B.A. 1887.

Born December 14, 1864, in Waverly, Iowa
Died July 20, 1926, in Boston, Mass

Father, John Edmund Burke (B A. Hamilton 1855), a lawyer; member of Iowa Legislature; district attorney in Iowa, assistant district attorney of Chicago, Ill.; son of Edmund and Katherine (Donnelly) Burke; grandson of John Burke, who came from County Clare, Ireland, about 1810 and settled first in New York City and later at Silver Lake, Pa. Mother, Emily Francis (Trowbridge) Burke, daughter of William and Lavinia (Littlefield) Trowbridge; descendant of Thomas Trowbridge, who came from England to Dorchester, Mass, in 1636 and soon after moved to New Haven.

North Division High School and Fessenden's North Side Preparatory School, Chicago Second dispute appointments Junior and Senior years; member University Football Team in 1885 and 1886, Class Crew (substitute on University Crew), Junior Promenade Committee, Hé Boulé, and Psi Upsilon.

After graduation studied in a business college for three months and then engaged in the lumber business in Evanston, Ill, for six months; later became manager of Kent Cattle Company of Genoa, Nebr; since 1903 in partnership with his classmate, William Kent, under firm name of Kent & Burke and its successor, the Kent & Burke Company, dealers in live stock, grain, and land in Genoa until 1912, and since then in Omaha, Nebr; became president of the company in 1910; vice-chairman market committee of American National Live Stock Association 1916–1921, helping to secure passage of Packers and Stock Yards Act of Congress; director Genoa National Bank, United States National Bank, and United States Trust Company of Omaha; during World War served as chairman of Advisory Committee on Cattle for Meat Division of U.S. Food Administration and of Live Stock Committee of Nebraska Food Administration, and also assisted Department of Agriculture in determining cost of beef production; president Yale Alumni Association of Nebraska 1914–17; had represented that association on Yale Alumni Advisory Board since 1919; attended All Saints' Episcopal Church, Omaha, and served on its vestry at one time.

Death due to a tumor of the brain. Buried in Forest Lawn
Obituary Record

Cemetery, Omaha. Survived by wife, daughter, son, one grandchild, and two sisters, Mrs. Stella M. Lunt, of Chicago, and Marion Burke (B.A. Vassar 1881, M.D. Women's Medical College of New York Infirmary 1895), of Palo Alto, Calif.

Ernest Leroy Caldwell, B.A. 1887.

Born July 12, 1858, in Windsor, Conn.
Died November 2, 1926, in Newton Center, Mass

Father, Woodruff Caldwell, a farmer. Mother, Abigail (Brown) Caldwell.

Hartford Public High School. Entered Harvard with Class of 1886, but remained for only a short time. Entered Yale as a Freshman in 1883; rowed on Class Crew Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior years (stroke except in spring of Freshman year); stroke of University Crew in 1886 and 1887; rowed in thirteen successful contests; member Class Day Committee, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Wolf's Head.

Studied in Yale Divinity School 1887–89 (stroke of University Crew in 1889); taught classics at Harvard School, New York City, 1889–1890; private tutor 1890–91; instructor in mathematics at Academy of University of Chicago 1891–1905 and then at University High School until 1914; since 1917 in charge of delivery report desk in jobbing department of Washburn-Crosby Company (flour and milling) in Boston office; member First Baptist Church, Newton Center.

Married March 22, 1894, in Morgan Park, Ill., Mary Free- man, daughter of the Rev. Galusha Anderson (B.A. University of Rochester 1844, D.D. 1866, LL.D. 1885) and Mary Eleanor (Roberts) Anderson. One son, Stuart Hill, ex'-17 S., who received degree of B.S. at Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1917.

Death, due to cancer of the colon, occurred after a long illness. Buried in Mount Auburn Cemetery, Watertown, Mass. Survived by wife, son, and a brother, Harry Caldwell.
William Jessup Hand, B.A. 1887.

Born July 26, 1866, in Scranton, Pa.
Died May 20, 1927, in Scranton, Pa

Father, Alfred Hand (B.A. 1857, M.A. 1866); justice of the Superior Court of Pennsylvania; son of Ezra and Catharine (Chapman) Hand; descendant of John Hand, who came from Stanstede, England, in 1640 and settled at Southampton, Long Island, and afterwards assisted in founding Easthampton, Long Island; descended also from Robert Chapman, who came from Hull, England, in 1635 with the company sent by Lords Say and Sele and others interested in the Connecticut Patent, to erect a fort at the mouth of the Connecticut River, and later helped to found Saybrook, Conn., of which he was a commissioner for many years and deputy to the General Court. Mother, Anna (Jessup) Hand; daughter of William Jessup (B.A. 1815, LL.D. Hamilton 1848) and Amanda (Harris) Jessup; ancestors came from England to Easthampton in the seventeenth century. Yale relatives include: Samuel Huntting (B.A. 1767); William H. Jessup, '49, Henry H. Jessup, '51, Samuel Jessup, '60, and Huntting C. Jessup, '64 (uncles); Alfred Hand, Jr., '24, and John G. Hand, '25 (nephews); and George F. Bentley, '73, Alfred C. Hand, '82, William H. Jessup, '84, Stuart D. Jessup, '91, William H. Jessup, Jr., '15, James M. Jessup, '16, and Philip C. Jessup, '24 L. (cousins).

School of the Lackawanna, Scranton. First Berkeley Premium Freshman year; high oration appointments Junior and Senior years; member Senior Promenade Committee, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Studied law in his father's office in Scranton and in 1890 admitted to the Lackawanna County Bar; had since practiced law in Scranton, in partnership with his father until a few years before the latter's death in 1917, and since then independently; admitted to bar of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court 1892 and to bar of the U. S. Supreme Court 1910; had been president of American Chair Manufacturing Company of Hallstead, Pa., and of Nay Aug Coal Company, vice-president of Scranton Suburban Railway Company, secretary of Animas La Plata & San Juan Irrigating Canal Company of New Mexico, and director of Third National Bank of Scranton, Thouron Coal Land Company, and Three Shaft Mining Company; member of Common Council 1892–94; on Scranton Board of Control (School Board) in 1900; interested in reform work of the Municipal League and an organizer of the Scranton Rescue Mission; elder of First Presbyterian Church, Scranton, since 1907; had served as clerk of the session, as vice-moderator of Synod of Pennsylvania in 1915, as member of the Moderators' Committee in 1916 and 1919–1923 and of the Lackawanna Presbytery's executive committee on work among the foreign born, and as superintendent of the Sunday school; director of Scranton Y.M.C.A. for twenty-five years, serving as its president for two years; president of the Lackawanna Valley Evangelistic Association in 1914; during the war served as a member of the Legal Advisory Board for his district.

Married January 12, 1893, in Scranton, Caroline Bailey, daughter of Thomas Miner and Lucy (Chambers) Smith. One son, Alfred (B.S. Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1920), a member of U.S. Naval Reserve.

Death, due to toxemic poisoning, followed a nervous breakdown lasting for two years and a half. Buried in Hickory Grove Cemetery, Waverly, Pa. Survived by wife, son, three sisters, Miss Charlotte C. Hand (B.A. Wellesley 1892) and Mrs. John Lyman Peck, both of Scranton, and Mrs. Clarence N. Callender, Smith ex-'08, of Merion Station, Pa., and two brothers, Horace E. Hand, '84, and Alfred Hand, '88. Another brother, Miles T. Hand, ex-'93, who received the degree of B.A. at Williams in 1894 and an M.E. at Cornell in 1897, died in April, 1927.

Frank Day Tuttle, B.A. 1887.

Born October 11, 1865, in Brooklyn, N.Y.
Died December 9, 1926, in Brooklyn, N.Y.

Father, Ezra Benjamin Tuttle; president of Williamsburg Savings Bank; vice-president of Cross-town Railroad Company of Brooklyn; son of Sylvester and Sara (Greene) Tuttle; descendant of William and Elizabeth Tuttle, who came to America from England in 1638 and settled in New Haven.

Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute Member Freshman Baseball Team, Hé Boulé, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Wolf's Head.

Had been engaged in the coal business since graduation, member of firm of S. Tuttle's Son & Company of Brooklyn until 1920 (senior partner 1912–1920); since 1920 had been president and a director of Tuttle-Burger Coal Company, Inc., of New York City, of which Laidlaw B. Burger, '08 S., is vice-president; chairman board of directors of Commonwealth Fuel Company of Brooklyn 1921–25, director Brooklyn Coal Exchange, of which he was vice-president and president 1905–07, Brooklyn Safe Deposit Company, Franklin Trust and Franklin Safe Deposit companies, Brooklyn Savings Bank, Nassau Electric and Coney Island & Brooklyn Railroad companies, Heights Company, Inc. (real estate), and Children's Aid Society of Brooklyn (chairman of executive committee); trustee Brooklyn Eye and Ear Hospital and Brooklyn Y. M. C. A. (chairman of financial committee); member of advisory committee of Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute, of civic improvement and citizens' committees, and committee on establishing a Brooklyn university, in 1907 member of Anti-Tammany Fusion Committee; during the war served as chairman of Liberty Loan Committee for the coal trade of Brooklyn; a governor of Union League Club, a director of Hamilton Club, and member of executive committee of Yale Alumni Association of Long Island; member Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, and St. John's Methodist Episcopal Church, Brooklyn.

Death, due to pneumonia, followed an illness of only six days. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, two sons, and a brother, Winthrop M. Tuttle, of Brooklyn.

Frank Rufus Herrick, B.A. 1888.

Born April 26, 1865, in Cleveland, Ohio.
Died December 6, 1926, in Phoenix, Ariz

Father, Gamaliel Ephraim Herrick, who attended Oberlin College during 1844–45 and later studied law; as a lawyer gained distinction in management of estates; was a pioneer in the development of electric street railways; son of Ephraim and Chloe Louise (Wilcox) Herrick; descendant of Henry Herrick, who came to America from Beau Manor, County of Leicester, England, in 1629 and settled in Salem, Mass.; ancestors include Major Ezekiel Herrick and Colonel Francis Herrick (1769–1855), representatives in the General Court of Massachusetts, and Ephraim Herrick (1794–1860), of Wellington, Ohio, a Captain of Militia. Mother, Ursula (Andrews) Herrick, daughter of Judge Sherlock James Andrews (B.A. Union 1821, LL.D. Western Reserve 1852, Denison 1878), who was an assistant in chemistry at Yale 1821–24 and during that period studied in Yale School of Law one year (1823–24), and Ursula McCurdy (Allen) Andrews; granddaughter of John Andrews (honorary M.D. 1827); great-granddaughter of Matthew Griswold (LL D. 1779), deputy governor of Connecticut 1769–1784 and governor 1784–86; great-great-granddaughter of Roger Wolcott, governor of Connecticut 1750–54; ancestors on her father’s side came from England; descendant on her mother’s side from Henry Wolcott of Somerset, England, one of the earliest settlers in this country. Yale relatives include: John W. Andrews (B.A. 1830) (great-uncle); William W. Andrews, ex-'59 (uncle); Robert W. Pomeroy, Jr., ’24 (nephew), and John W. Andrews, ’70, Chauncey W. Goodrich, ’86, Hubert K. Wood, ex-'88 S., William Whiting Andrews, ’98, and Myron T. Herrick, LL.D. 1917 (cousins).

Cleveland Academy. First colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years, speaker of Yale Assembly; member College Choir, Freshman and Second Glee clubs, Eta Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Wolf's Head.

Studied law in his father's office in Cleveland 1888–89 and at Harvard the next year; admitted to Ohio Bar October 10, 1890, and had since practiced law in Cleveland; associated with firm of G E & J. F. Herrick 1890–93, in partnership with Evan H. Hopkins (LL B Harvard 1892) in firm of Herrick & Hopkins 1893–1916 and of its successor, Herrick, Hopkins, Stockwell & Benesch, from 1916 until his death, both firms acting as Ohio attorneys for the American Express Company; professor and lecturer on torts and public service companies at the Franklin T. Backus Law School of Western Reserve University 1897–1910; officer in Cleveland Troop A for several years following his graduation from Yale, secretary of Children's Fresh Air Camp, Cleveland, 1902–1914 and active member of its board of trustees until his death, member Cleveland Chamber of Commerce and First Presbyterian Church.

Married October 7, 1891, in Auburn, N Y, Josephine, daughter of Theodore Medad Pomeroy (B A Hamilton 1842, LL D. 1892) and Elizabeth (Watson) Pomeroy, and sister of Robert W. Pomeroy, '91 Children: Theodore Pomeroy (B A 1915, MD Harvard 1919); Sherlock Andrews (B A 1919), and Josephine Ursula (B.A. Western Reserve 1920).

Death, due to pneumonia, followed an illness of ten days Buried in Lake View Cemetery, Cleveland Survived by wife, sons, daughter, three grandchildren, and a sister, Miss Ursula Andrews Herrick, of Cleveland.

George Clarke Peck, B.A. 1889.

Born September 13, 1867, in Lowell, Mass
Died January 27, 1927, in Baltimore, Md

Father, the Rev. Jonas Oramel Peck (B A Amherst 1862, honorary M.A. Wesleyan 1870, D D Lawrence University 1874); corresponding secretary of the Methodist Episcopal Church six years; son of Jonathan J and Myra Jane (Tucker) Peck; ancestors came from Scotland to America about the middle of the seventeenth century and settled in Groton, Vt.
Mother, Susan (Robinson) Peck; daughter of Ferdinand and Emelme Robinson

Sterk Institute and Brooklyn Preparatory School. First dispute appointments Junior and Senior years; member College Choir, Freshman and Apollo Glee clubs, Class Cup and Class Day committees, and Zeta Psi.

Studied at Union Theological Seminary 1889–1890; B.D Drew Theological Seminary 1892; admitted to New York East Conference in spring of 1892 and appointed pastor of Methodist Episcopal Church at Westport, Conn; pastor of Methodist Church, Bay Shore, N. Y., 1894–97; First Methodist Church, Mount Vernon, N. Y., 1897–1908; Elm Park Church, Scranton, Pa, 1908–1910; St Andrew's Methodist Church, New York City, 1910–15; First Methodist Church, Baltimore, from 1915 until his retirement on account of ill health in 1919, had since been superintendent of Maryland General Hospital, Baltimore; secretary of New York City Church Extension and Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church 1912–13; director of the Federation of Churches; member Committee of Counsel of Methodist Board of Foreign Missions 1912–1920; trustee Drew Seminary for Young Women, Carmel, N. Y.; D.D. Syracuse 1905; author: Bible Tragedies (1900), Ringing Questions (1902), Old Sins in New Clothes (1904), Vision and Task (1906), Method of the Master (1912), Desert, Pinnacle and Mountain (1914), Men Who Missed the Trail (1916), Side Stepping Saints (1917), Forgotten Faces (1919), Cross Lots and Other Essays (1921), Pot of Gold (1922), and Flashes of Silence (1924); editor The Christian City; regular contributor to various religious periodicals and reviews, had published a large number of monographs in pamphlet form.

Married October 8, 1889, in Brooklyn, N. Y., Kate Hamilton, daughter of William Hamilton and Elizabeth (Bernard) Marshall. One son, James Oramel, a non-graduate member of the Cornell Class of 1918.

Death due to a complication of diseases. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, son, and a brother, Carl R. Peck, of Bogota, N. Y.

Born July 8, 1868, in Navesink, N. J.
Died July 20, 1926, in Kobe, Japan.

Father, George Washington (B.A. 1839); studied law at Yale two years; lawyer and planter in Kinston, N. C.; later in business in Indianapolis, Ind.; son of John and Elizabeth (Cobb) Washington. Mother, Eleanor Phoebe (Stephens) Washington; daughter of John H. Stephens, who married a Miss Ely.

General Russell’s Collegiate and Commercial Institute, New Haven, and Hopkins Grammar School Entered Yale with Class of 1888 but left during Freshman year, reentered with Class of 1889; second dispute appointment Junior year; dissertation appointment Senior year; member Gamma Nu and Psi Upsilon.

Clerk in a New York law office for seven months in 1890-91; then spent several years in travel in Europe, Asia, and North Africa, spending one winter on the Nile and another in excavating in Greece under direction of American School for Classical Studies in Athens; subsequently spent a winter on an orange plantation in Florida, studied architecture at the Beaux Arts, Paris, and at Columbia; studied in the Yale School of Law 1893-96 (LL.B. cum laude 1895), becoming member of Phi Delta Phi and receiving honors one year; continued law studies in office of Stephen P & John McL. Nash in New York City 1896-97; in spring of 1898 received a diploma as navigator from College of Navigation in New York City; spent most of the year 1899 abroad; admitted to New York City Bar in 1900; studied biology in Yale Graduate School 1900-01 (M.A. 1901); studied Sanskrit and comparative philology at Columbia 1901-03 and classics in Yale Graduate School 1903-04; engaged in study in New Haven during winters of 1904-05 and 1906-07; practiced law in office of Nash & Jones, New York City, during spring and summer of 1905; in spring of 1907 went to Kobe and studied the Japanese language until December, 1908, when he returned to America by way of India; had resided in Japan since 1912, except for a brief visit to America in 1924; spoke half a dozen languages (including Japanese) fluently, and could read many others, among them Sanskrit, ancient Persian, and Chinese; member Protestant Episcopal Church.

Unmarried.

Buried in All Saints Memorial Cemetery, Navesink. Survived by a brother, Henry S. Washington, '86, and a half sister, Miss Anita Washington.

George Loveless Amerman, B.A. 1890.

Born December 14, 1865, in Chicago, Ill
Died August 22, 1926, in Syracuse, N, Y

Father, George Kershaw Amerman (M.D. New York University 1854); surgeon of Illinois Central Railroad from 1857 until his death in 1867 and visiting surgeon to Illinois State and Cook County hospitals, son of Abram and Anna (Cownover) Amerman; descendant of Dierk Jansa Amerman, who came from Ammersfoort, Holland, to Ammersfoort (now Williamsburg), Long Island, in 1654. Mother, Sarah Matilda (Loveless) Amerman; daughter of Solomon and Harriet (Thompson) Loveless; ancestors came to America from England and settled in Vermont.

Syracuse High School. Third Lucius F Robinson Prize Junior year, philosophical oration appointments Junior and Senior years, two-year honors in ancient languages and one-year honors in natural and physical science; salutatorian; member Gamma Nu, Psi Upsilon, and Phi Beta Kappa

Graduate student in Sheffield Scientific School 1890–92 (PhD 1892); special course at Columbia during winter of 1892–93, studied medicine at Harvard 1893–95, leaving on account of ill health; traveled in Europe during next four years, registrar of Sheffield Scientific School 1899–1905; lived in Cazenovia, N. Y, 1905–06 and during latter year studied in the Agricultural Department of Cornell; engaged in farming at Marcellus, N. Y, 1907–1921; had since resided in Skaneateles, N. Y.; studied at Auburn Theological Seminary from 1911 to 1914; was active in civic affairs at Marcellus; in 1915 established the Marcellus Free Library and was its librarian 1915–16, with Franklin Automobile Company of Syracuse, in charge of statistical division of industrial relations department, 1919–1920; during same year also in charge of Franklin Branch Library at Syracuse; during the war operated machines in finishing department of Crown Woolen Mills, Marcellus. “A comparison of artificial and natural gastric digestion, together with a study of the diffusibility of proteoses and peptone,” his thesis for the Ph D degree, was published in London in Sir Michael Foster’s Journal of Physiology, and he had also published statistical studies on The Cost of Living and The Standard of Living and An Historical Sketch of the Village of Marcellus; member First Presbyterian Church, Skaneateles.

Married April 25, 1898, in Syracuse, Harriet Eliza Duguid, a graduate in art at Smith in 1888, daughter of Henry Lyman Duguid (B.A. Hamilton 1856) and Eliza (Wells) Duguid Children: Henry Duguid, Hamilton ex-’23; Peter vanBuren; and George Loveless, Jr.

Death, due to pneumonia, followed an operation at the Syracuse Memorial Hospital, where he had been a patient for three weeks. Buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Syracuse Survived by wife, three sons, and two grandsons.

Bert Francis Case, B.A. 1890.

Born April 8, 1865, in Granby, Conn
Died May 22, 1927, in Windsor, Conn.

Father, Oscar Denison Case, a farmer, son of Denison and Sarah Ardelia (Searles) Case. Mother, Frances (Lincoln) Case.

New Britain (Conn ) High School. Second dispute appointment Junior year; first colloquy appointment Senior year, contributed to Yale Literary Magazine.

Studied at Yale Divinity School 1890–93 (Class poet; B D. 1893); ordained to Congregational ministry January 16, 1894, at Kiantone, N. Y., where he had served as pastor since August, 1893, and remained for two years, during which time also had charge of the church in Farmington, Pa ; pastor at East Granby, Conn , 1896–98; then went to California on account of his wife’s health and worked on a fruit ranch until July, 1899; pastor at Middle Haddam, Conn , 1900–09, First Congregational Church, South Bend, Wash , 1909–1912,
Obituary Record

Pleasant Valley, Wash., 1912-14, and East Granby from 1920 until his retirement on account of ill health in 1923; lived at Seabreeze, Fla., 1923-24 and was caretaker for ruins of a Franciscan Mission in New Smyrna, Fla., 1924-25; had since conducted at Windsor a business (chiefly by mail) in old and rare books, during the war served as member of Tolland Town Committee appointed by Connecticut State Council of Defense and as chairman of Fourth and Fifth Liberty Loan committees; had contributed a number of articles on antiques and genealogy to Connecticut Magazine and Hartford Times and other newspapers and several illustrated articles to Bird Lore; had two poems published in Yale Lyrics (1889); at time of death member First Church of Christ, Windsor.

Married (1) August 1, 1893, in Granby, Mary Helen, daughter of William M. and Emily R (Moses) Clark. One son, Bert Francis, Jr (died in 1917). Mrs Case died July 9, 1899 Married (2) October 22, 1901, Emma Viola, daughter of George and Emeline (Payson) Albro, of Plantsville, Conn. One son, Albro Mrs. Case died August 31, 1910 Married (3) July 1, 1914, in Boston, Martha, daughter of Daniel and Jane N (Matheson) McLean No children by third marriage.

Death due to heart trouble Interment in Granby. Survived by wife, one son, his stepmother, and two brothers, William O Case, of Hartford, Conn., and Walter D. Case, of North Bloomfield, Conn.

Marvin Elihu Griswold, B.A. 1890.

Born November 18, 1868, in Erie, Pa.

Father, Matthew Griswold, an iron manufacturer; president of Griswold Manufacturing Company, which he established in 1865; member of 52d and 54th Congresses; son of Matthew and Phebe (Ely) Griswold; grandson of Judge Roger Griswold (B.A. 1780), member of Congress 1794-1804 and Governor of Connecticut 1811-13; great-grandson of Matthew Griswold (LL.D. 1779), descendant of Matthew Griswold, of Kenilworth, England, one of the settlers of Windsor, Conn., in 1636, who moved to Saybrook, Conn., in 1639 Mother, Sarah (Olmstead) Griswold; daughter of Erie Academy. Second colloquy appointment Junior year; first colloquy appointment Senior year; secretary and treasurer of Bicycle Club; member Athletic Team, Gamma Nu, and Alpha Delta Phi.

Associated with Horace S Ely & Company, real estate brokers, in New York City 1891–93; then returned to his home in Erie and was treasurer of Shaw Piano Company until 1897; had since been associated with Griswold Manufacturing Company, secretary and treasurer 1897–1912 and president since 1912; director of Erie Board of Commerce several times and president in 1903; member Board of Education fourteen years and president of board several times; trustee of Erie Academy; director Security Savings Bank since 1919 and of Y.M.C.A since 1915; trustee Park Presbyterian Church for many years and president of board five years; in 1920 delegate from 25th District of Pennsylvania to Republican National Convention at Chicago; elected to Pennsylvania Senate 1924 and reelected 1926 (member of many committees).

Death due to a sudden heart attack; had been taken ill about a week before but had apparently recovered. Buried in Black Hall Cemetery, Old Lyme, Conn. Survived by wife, son, a brother, Matthew Griswold, '88 S, and three half brothers, William E. S. Griswold, '99, Roger W. Griswold, '02 S., and Ely Griswold, '04 S. Another half brother, Dwight T. Griswold, '08, died in 1908.
Robert Hartshorne, B.A. 1890.

Born July 9, 1866, in San Francisco, Calif.
Died January 13, 1927, in New York City

Father, Benjamin Minturn Hartshorne; son of Robert Hartshorne (B.A 1817) and Mary Anne (Minturn) Hartshorne; descendant of Richard Hartshorne, who came to New Jersey from Hathcairn, Leicestershire, England, in 1666, settled in Monmouth County, and was a member of the New Jersey Assembly 1686–1693. Mother, Julia Love (Norton) Hartshorne; daughter of Charles and Julia (Maltby) Norton; granddaughter of Isaac Maltby (B.A. 1786), Brigadier General of Connecticut Militia in War of 1812. Yale relatives include. Benjamin H Trask, ’11, James D Trask, ’13 S, and Robert H Trask, ’15 S. (nephews); and Reginald L. Foster, ’91 (cousin)

Preparatory training received at private schools in New York City. Entered Yale with Class of 1889 but left in Sophomore year; reentered as a Junior in 1888 with Class of 1890; member Hé Boulé, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Wolf’s Head.

Studied law in New York City, 1891–92; then returned to his home in Highlands, N. J., where he had since been engaged in scientific farming on land by the Shrewsbury River which had come down to him by almost unbroken succession from the days of colonial grants; member Board of Education in Middletown Township for several years and introduced first free dental clinic in a rural district in state of New Jersey; vice-president of Second National Bank of Red Bank, N. J., 1915–17 and of Monmouth County Fair Association; during World War served as member of executive committee of local Red Cross and, from July to December, 1918, as assistant chief of Bureau of Agriculture of American Red Cross in Paris, with rank of First Lieutenant; member American Committee for Devastated France; collector of etchings, prints (large collection of Callot, a selection of Whistler’s work, and probably the best existing collection of Mary Cassatt), rare and beautiful books, historical documents, and maps of New Jersey; had exhibited collections at the Grolier Club, of whose council and art committee he was a member, and at Providence School of the Fine Arts and at Yale School of the Fine Arts; member of councils of University Club and Century Association and of their respective art committees; a governor of Yale Publishing Association in 1919 and 1922–24; member of committee on Yale University Library appointed by Alumni Advisory Board 1925; had an hereditary right to preach in the old church of Middletown, N. J.; vestryman of All Saints' (Episcopal) Church, Navesink, N. J.

Married April 16, 1895, in Flushing, N. Y., Margaret, daughter of William P. and Sarah Caroline (Davenport) Willis. Children: Mary Minturn (Mrs. William J. Noonan) and Richard, '23

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Middletown. Survived by wife, daughter, son, and two sisters, Mrs James D. Trask, of Highlands, N. J., and Mrs. Henry H. Ward, of Newport, R. I., and Highlands.

Henry Smith Mathewson, B.A. 1890.

Born February 27, 1867, in Pomfret, Conn.
Died May 8, 1927, in Pomfret, Conn.

Norwich Free Academy. First dispute appointments Junior and Senior years; chairman Yale Courant

M.D Columbia 1893; on house staff of New York Hospital 1894–95; resident physician at New York Lying-in Hospital 1895–96; commissioned as an Assistant Surgeon in U.S. Public Health Service April 1, 1896; promoted to Passed Assistant Surgeon April 7, 1901, to Surgeon February 2, 1912, and to Senior Surgeon May 24, 1924; had been stationed at San Francisco (1896–98), Liverpool (1898–1900), San Juan (1900–02), Detroit (1902–03), Cleveland (1903–08), Fort Stanton, N Mex. (1908–1911), Milwaukee (1911–13), Portland, Maine (1913–17), Boston (1917–19), Vineyard Haven, Mass. (1919–1923), U. S. Quarantine Station, Portland, Maine (1923–25), and Providence, R. I., since 1925; while at Fort Stanton was in command of the U. S. Marine Hospital Sanatorium for consumptive seamen and had charge of running the 30,000 acre ranch connected with the sanatorium; during the World War was in charge of the Marine Hospital at Boston, which was open to any one in the service of the United States; attended the Congregational Church, Pomfret.
Obituary Record

Married December 24, 1898, in San Francisco, Helen Washburn Montague, daughter of Frederic Augustus and Mary Jane (Swan) Washburn. Children: Hope (B.A Wellesley 1921, B.S Simmons 1922); Marian Chandler (B.A. Wellesley 1924); Allen Hunt (B.S Bowdoin 1926); and Jane Washburn.

Death, due to heart failure, occurred on the golf links at Pomfret. Buried in Pomfret. Survived by wife, son, three daughters, a brother, Robert Holt Mathewson, of Wakefield, Nebr, and a sister, Miss Elinor Bowen Mathewson, of Pomfret.

Willard Parker, B.A. 1890.

Born January 17, 1869, in New York City.
Died May 19, 1927, in New Canaan, Conn.

Father, Willard Parker (B.A. Columbia 1866, M.D. 1870), a physician and surgeon in New York; trustee of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia; son of Willard Parker (B.A Harvard 1826, M.D. 1830, LL.D. Princeton 1870), professor of surgery at Columbia, and Henrietta (Bissell) Parker; descendant of Deacon Thomas Parker, who came from England to Chelmsford, Mass, in 1640. Mother, Margaret (Ketchum) Parker; daughter of Morris and Margaret (Miller) Ketchum; a sister of Landon Ketchum (honorary Ph.B. 1865) and Miller Ketchum, ex-’68; descendant of Edward Ketchum, who came from Wales to Ipswich, Mass, in 1637. Yale relatives include five cousins: Edwin Thorne,
Tale College

Preparatory training received in New York City and at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. Floor manager of Senior Promenade; member Freshman Glee Club, Class Cup Committee, Eta Phi, Psi Upsilon, and Wolf's Head.

Connected with Stamford (Conn.) Manufacturing Company (dyestuffs and chemicals) 1890-1906, serving as manager of the company 1901-06; engaged in the brokerage business in New York City 1906-1927 (with Sidney Love & Company 1906-09, Hollister, Fish & Company 1909-1910, and Sharp & McVickar since 1910), with the War Trade Board in Washington in 1917; later engaged independently in the real estate business in that city for a time; subsequently lived in New Canaan until 1921, when he returned to Washington, where he represented various business interests before the Federal Reserve Board and other federal departments, being associated for a time with Samuel H. Boyd, a former tax expert in the Treasury Department, and Congressman John H. Small, and with the law firm of Williams, Myers & Quiggle for a number of years prior to his last illness; vestryman of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, New Canaan.

Death followed a long illness resulting from a stroke of paralysis in October, 1926. Buried in New Canaan. Survived by wife, daughter, and mother. His brother, Grenville Parker, '98, died in 1924, and another brother, Morris K. Parker, '01, in 1925.

James Allen Warner, B.A. 1890.

Born April 7, 1867, in Albany, N.Y.
Died January 31, 1927, in Albany, N.Y.

Father, James Meech Warner, a graduate of the U.S. Military Academy in 1855; brevet Brigadier General, U.S. Army; a manufacturer; son of Joseph and Jane (Meech)
Obituary Record

Albany and Phillips-Andover academies Secretary and treasurer of Freshman Football Club; member Hé Boulé and Delta Kappa Epsilon

Had been associated with Albany Card & Paper Manufacturing Company since graduation, serving successively as secretary, treasurer, vice-president, and, at the time of his death, president; elected vice-president of Schuylerville (N Y ) Paper Company 1902; director Albany Exchange Savings Bank since 1919 and New York State Fire Insurance Company for about ten years; trustee Albany Public Library (since 1924) and Westminster Presbyterian Church, Albany; member of executive committee of Yale Alumni Association of Northeastern New York 1921 and of its nominating committee 1924

Married March 9, 1897, in Middlebury, Vt., Maud Annette, daughter of Gardner Southworth and M. Agnes (Bissell) Wainwright Two daughters, Maud Wainwright (died in infancy) and Agnes Allen (Mrs. Edwin S. S. Sunderland), who died in 1920.

Death due to heart disease Buried in Middlebury, Vt.

Survived by wife and a sister, Mrs. Sophia Warner Fletcher, of Middlebury.

Born October 16, 1870, in Pittsburgh, Pa
Died March 9, 1927, in Pittsburgh, Pa

Father, James Wayne Brown, a steel manufacturer; president Howe, Brown & Company, Ltd., and Colonial Steel Company; vice-president Crucible Steel Company of America, member of Congress; son of William R. and Margaret (McGunnegle) Brown; grandson of John Brown, who came to America from near Belfast, Ireland, and settled in Pittsburgh in 1804 Mother, Clara Palmer (Howe) Brown; daughter of Thomas Marshall and Mary (Palmer) Howe; descendant of John Howe, who was born in England and settled in Sudbury, Mass, in 1638 Yale relatives include. Henry M.
Howe, ex-’68 (uncle); and James B. Blair, ex-’20, and William W. Blair, Jr., ex-’20 S. (nephews).

Shadyside Academy, Pittsburgh Oration appointments Junior and Senior years, member second Glee Club and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Had been engaged in the steel business ever since graduation; connected with Howe, Brown & Company, Ltd, until it was absorbed by Crucible Steel Company in July, 1900; remained with the latter company in the sales department for almost a year; had since been connected with Colonial Steel Company as secretary and treasurer 1901-1917 (also in active charge of sales from 1909), secretary, general sales manager, and vice-president 1917-1923, and president since 1923; vice-president Betz-Pierce Company (steel) of Cleveland 1911-1921; director Pennsylvania Trust Company (formerly South Side Trust Company of Pittsburgh) 1906-1925; member American Society of Mining Engineers; vestryman Calvary Episcopal Church, Pittsburgh

Death, due to pneumonia, followed an illness of only three days. Buried in Allegheny Cemetery, Pittsburgh. Survived by wife, two sons, three daughters, mother, a brother, Thomas M. H. Brown, ex-’03, and three sisters, Mrs. William W. Blair and Mrs. Samuel Clarke Reed, both of Pittsburgh, and Mrs. H. Hutton Kennedy, of Ardmore, Pa.

Edwin Victor Hale, B.A. 1891.

Born August 1, 1869, in Cleveland, Ohio
Died June 19, 1927, in Cleveland, Ohio

Father, Edwin Butler Hale, a banker; son of Philo and Carolyn Mathilde (Butler) Hale. Mother, Susan Converse (Hoyt) Hale; daughter of Sylvester and Eleanor (Converse) Hoyt Yale relatives include two nephews: Willis W Hale, ’08 S, and William Hale Harkness, ’22.
Obituary Record

Brooks Military Academy, Cleveland. Manager of University Glee Club; president of University Club; member Eta Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

In the manufacturing business in Cleveland 1891–92; had since been engaged in banking in that city; became paying teller in Western Reserve National Bank 1892, secretary and treasurer of American Trust Company 1897, and subsequently treasurer and vice-president of Citizens Saving & Trust Company; had been vice-president of Union Trust Company since 1921.

Death due to cirrhosis of the liver. Buried in Lake View Cemetery, Cleveland. Survived by wife, son, two daughters, five grandchildren, and a sister, Edith H. Harkness, the widow of William L. Harkness, ’81.

Edward Swift Isham, B.A. 1891.

Born January 2, 1868, in Chicago, Ill
Died May 14, 1927, in New York City

Father, Edward Swift Isham (B.A. Williams 1857, LL D. 1893), studied law at Harvard, member of law firm of Isham, Lincoln & Beale, Chicago; son of Pierrepont and Samantha (Swift) Isham, descendant of John Isham, who came from Lamport Hall, Northamptonshire, England, to Newburyport, Mass., in 1667; descended also from the Rev James Pierpont, one of the founders of Yale Mother, Frances (Burch) Isham; daughter of Thomas and Anna Eliza (Todd) Burch

Phillips-Andover and King’s School, Stamford, Conn. Captain and president of Class Crew, a governor and member of house committee of University Club, member University Boat Club, Eta Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones

Connected with Marshall Field & Company in Chicago 1891–97; spent the next three years in travel; engaged in electrical manufacturing and engineering business in New York City from 1900 until his retirement in 1906, at first with General Incandescent Arc Light Company, then with the Russell Electric Company, and subsequently as secretary, treasurer, and a director of Electrical Manufacturing Company; had traveled extensively since 1906; had a home in Manchester, Vt., where he spent the summers except when traveling.

Death due to pneumonia. Interment in Dellwood Cemetery, Manchester, Vt. Survived by wife, son, two daughters, a granddaughter, and a sister, Frances I. Shelton, the wife of Henry T. Shelton, '84.

William Frederick Poole, B.A. 1891.

Born January 14, 1868, in Melrose, Mass.
Died September 19, 1926, in Canton, Mass.

Father, William Frederick Poole (B.A 1849, LL D Northwestern University 1882); a librarian, author of Poole's Index to Periodical Literature; son of Ward and Eliza (Wilder) Poole; seventh in descent from John Poole, who came from England to Cambridge, Mass., in 1630 and settled in Reading, Mass., in 1632. Mother, Fanny Maria (Gleason) Poole; daughter of Dr. Ezra W Gleason and Fanny Belding (Hubbard) Gleason; descendant of Thomas Gleason [Leeson, Leason], who was born in Sulgrave, Northampton County, England, in 1617 and died in Cambridge, Mass., in 1686; descended also from William Hulberd, who came from Northumberland County, England, to Dorchester, Mass., in 1630 and moved to Windsor, Conn., in 1635. Yale relatives include an uncle, Henry W Poole (B.A. 1845), and a brother-in-law, the Rev Z. Swift Holbrook (B.A. 1875).
Obituary Record

Evanston (Ill) High School and Phillips-Andover Second dispute appointment Junior year; first colloquy appointment Senior year, captain Freshman Baseball Team and member University Baseball Team three years; member Apollo and University Glee clubs, College Choir, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones

LL.B Northwestern University 1893; during next six years practiced law in Chicago, being connected with firm of Hamline, Scott & Lord; then moved to Boston, where he acted as attorney for Massachusetts Telephone Company until 1902, since then had been engaged in the general practice of law in Boston, associated in practice with Charles G. Bancroft and John Curtin 1904-1915; since then partner in firm of Curtin, Poole & Allen and its successor, Curtin, Poole, Allen & Cooch, officer and director in several corporations; member New Old South (Congregational) Church, Boston, and also First Congregational Church, Canton.

Married November 10, 1915, in Canton, Mass, Sally McKendry, daughter of Larra Wentworth and Hannah Eliza (Day) Sumner Children. Elizabeth, William Frederick, and Sally Sumner Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Canton Corner Cemetery, Canton Survived by wife, son, two daughters, and two sisters, Miss Mary Poole, a non-graduate member of the Wellesley Class of 1883, and Mrs. C. Clarence Poole, both of Evanston, Ill

Percy Coe Eggleston, B.A. 1892.

Born September 12, 1868, in New London, Conn
Died October 31, 1926, in New London, Conn.

Father, Julius Whiting Eggleston, a china merchant; appointed postmaster of New London by President Lincoln in 1862, son of Chauncey and Chloe (Coe) Eggleston; descendant of Begat Eggleston, who came from Exeter, England, to Dorchester, Mass, in 1630, direct descendant of John and Priscilla Alden Mother, Katherine Amelia (Percy) Eggleston; daughter of Israel and Mary (Wooster) Percy; descendant of Nathan Percy. Yale relatives include three nephews, Stephen M. Wells, Jr., '24 S., Albert S. Wells, ex'-27, and Joseph W. Wells, '30, and a cousin, Julius W. Eggleston, '92 D.

Bulkeley High School, New London. First dispute appointment Junior year and a second prize at Junior Exhibition; dissertation appointment and two-year honors in political science, history, and law Senior year, member Yale Record board for a short time, Zeta Psi, and Chi Alpha Theta.

Taught history, Latin, German, and English at Bulkeley School 1892–94; also principal of New London Night School during that time; advertising manager for Brainerd & Armstrong Company (now the Corticelli Silk Company), New London, 1894–1914 and purchasing agent from 1914 until his death; during the war had charge of all contracts and transactions between the United States Government and his company; trustee and director of Mariners’ Savings Bank and of Winthrop Trust Company; secretary, treasurer, and director of New London Cemetery Association; president of board of trustees of Bulkeley School since 1919 and member of New London School Board since 1911; served on Board of Aldermen 1899–1903; during that time was chairman of its finance committee three years and acting mayor of the city at various times; chairman of budget committee of the Community Chest in 1926; member of his ward committee and chief registrar of ward in 1917 and 1918; in 1905 represented Board of Trade on executive committee which had charge of city’s celebration in connection with the unveiling of statue of founder of New London, in 1910 was instrumental in the location of Connecticut College for Women at New London, served as a Captain in American Protective League in 1918; author of booklet entitled Silk, the Real versus the Imitation and of several magazine articles, among which were “Yale and Her Presidents, 1777–1795” (New England Magazine, 1909), “The Exploits in Silk Culture by President Stiles of Yale” (American Silk Journal, 1918), and “Lincoln’s Second Visit to New England” (1922), an incorporator, in 1896, of New England Society of the Mayflower (now the Society of Mayflower Descendants in the State of Connecticut), served as its secretary in 1897, and at one time as member of board.
Obituary Record

of assistants of the National Society; member Sons of the American Revolution, chairman of board of trustees of Second Congregational Church, New London, and president of its Men’s Club.

Married June 12, 1901, in Wethersfield, Conn., Emily Hart Wells, who studied in Yale School of the Fine Arts for a year, daughter of Stephen Morgan and Sarah Crannell (Tate) Wells. Two daughters, Virginia (B.A. Connecticut College for Women 1924), a member of the second year class in the Department of Drama of the Yale School of the Fine Arts, and Katherine Percy.

Henry Stoddard Lyman, B.A. 1892.

Born August 15, 1871, in Omaha, Nebr.
Died November 30, 1926, in Omaha, Nebr.

Father, Charles Werz Lyman, a broker and commission merchant, president of Commercial National Bank of Omaha 1893-1905; son of Hiram and Abigail Ann (Stoddard) Lyman, grandson of Jesse Lyman, who was born in Alexandria, Va., in 1786. Mother, Mary Cornelia (Belden) Lyman; daughter of Seymour and Rebecca (Pfout) Belden; descendant of Daniel Belden; descended also from Greenberry Griffith, who was on the Committee of Observation for Frederick County, Md., appointed to carry into execution the resolutions of the Continental Congress and of the Provincial Convention in 1775. Nephew: Dean B. Lyman, Jr., ex-’18 S
St. Paul’s School, Concord, N. H Member and president of Freshman Crew; member Glee Club, Hé Boulé, Psi Upsilon, and Wolf’s Head.
Teller for McCormick & Company, bankers of Salt Lake City, 1892-93 and Commercial National Bank, Omaha, 1893-95, studied medicine at Columbia 1895-99 (M.D. and
Tale College

M.A. 1899); practiced medicine in Omaha 1899-1902; professor of diseases of children and obstetrics at Omaha Medical College 1901-02; had been an invalid since 1902 and lost his sight in 1904; member Protestant Episcopal Church

Married September 26, 1900, in Omaha, Jessie Adele, daughter of Edward and Margaret Blanche (Hovey) Dickinson, and sister of Albert H. Dickinson, '04 S. One son, Edward Dickinson.

Death due to paralysis Buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Omaha. Survived by wife, son, parents, and two brothers, Dean B. Lyman, '94, and Wallace Lyman, of Omaha

Eben [Foster] Stevens, B.A. 1892.

Born February 7, 1871, in New York City
Died December 7, 1926, in New York City

Father, Alexander Henry Stevens (B.A 1854), a commission merchant in firm of Stevens, Angulo & Company, later a banker, son of Byam Kerby Stevens (B.A 1811) and Frances (Gallatin) Stevens, grandson of General Ebenezer Stevens, one of the Boston Tea Party, an artillery officer in the Revolutionary War, and Major General of Artillery of the State of New York in War of 1812, and grandson of Albert Gallatin, who came to America from Geneva, Switzerland, in 1780, was a member of Congress 1795-1801, Secretary of the Treasury 1801-1813, and U. S. Minister to France and England successively; descendant of Erasmus Stevens, born in Pemaquid, Maine, about 1645 Mother, Mary Allyne (Otis) Stevens; daughter of William Foster Otis (B.A. Harvard 1821) and Emily (Marshall) Otis; descendant of John Otis, who came to this country from Glastonbury, England, in 1631 and settled in Hingham, Mass. Yale relatives include: Samuel Stevens (B.A 1805), Alexander H. Stevens (B.A. 1807), and John A. Stevens (B.A 1813) (great-uncles), Frederic W. Stevens, '58 (uncle), and Ledyard Stevens, '64 (cousin).

Berkeley School, New York City, and St Paul's School, Concord, N. H. Member Psi Upsilon.

Following graduation was connected for a time with Sixth
National Bank, New York City, and with banking houses of Speyer & Company and Ladenburg, Thalmann & Company, member New York Stock Exchange since 1896; partner in firm of Hollister & Babcock 1901–06, without business associates 1906–1925; since then member of firm of Stevens & Legg

Death due to a sudden heart attack. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by wife, sons, two grandchildren, a brother, Francis K. Stevens, '97, and two sisters, Miss Mary O. Stevens, of Lawrence, N. Y, and Mrs. Adolf Ladenburg, of New York City.

Casselberry Dunkerson, B.A. 1894.

Born July 9, 1872, in Evansville, Ind.
Died July 8, 1926, in Louisville, Ky

Father, Robert Kendrick Dunkerson, a banker, son of Washington and Jane (Blackwell) Dunkerson, ancestors of the Blackwell family came from Scotland to America in 1760 and settled in Lunenberg County, Va. Mother, Laura (Casselberry) Dunkerson, daughter of Isaac and Louisa (Garvin) Casselberry; descendant of Henrich Casselberry, who came to this country from the Holland border of Germany in 1680 and settled at Norristown, Pa. Nephew: Samuel Orr, '28.

Westminster School. Second colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years, member Freshman Crew and Football Team, Eta Phi, Psi Upsilon, and Scroll and Key Engaged in tobacco commission business in Louisville, Ky, 1894–1903; in the tool manufacturing business in Evansville 1903–04, tobacco exporter in Louisville from 1904 until his factory was destroyed by fire in 1916, during 1918–19 was connected with Export Department of War Trade Board in Washington, D. C; in the general export business in Louisville 1918–1920; had since been vice-president of Lincoln Bank & Trust Company of Louisville, member Grace Presbyterian Church, Evansville.

Married January 30, 1908, in Louisville, Bonner Semple (B.A. Vassar 1903), daughter of Mrs. Patty Blackburn Semple. One daughter, Patricia Semple

Death due to lymphatic leukaemia. Buried in Cave Hill Cemetery, Louisville. Survived by wife, daughter, and a sister, Louise D. Orr, Smith ex-’00, the wife of Samuel L. Orr, ’94.

Edward Russell Thomas, B.A. 1894.

Born December 29, 1873, in Columbus, Ohio.
Died July 6, 1926, in New York City.

Father, General Samuel Russell Thomas (honorary M.A. Marietta College 1888), who served in Union Army during the Civil War, president of East Tennessee, Virginia & Georgia, Louisville, New Albany & Chicago, and Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic railroads; also an iron manufacturer and contractor for building the Croton aqueduct; son of James and Nancy (Callahan) Thomas. Mother, Ann Augusta (Porter) Thomas, daughter of Carson and Mary Jane H. Porter.

Berkeley Military School, New York City. Philosophical oration appointments Junior and Senior years, an editor of Yale Courant, member Alpha Delta Phi and Phi Beta Kappa

Assistant treasurer of Standard Straw Board Company and president of Ohio Southern Railroad Company 1894–1900, senior member of firm of Thomas & Post, bankers and brokers, members of New York Stock Exchange, 1894–1907; president of Seventh National Bank 1902–04, in 1904 opened the first all-night bank (former Hudson Trust Company) and served as its vice-president until 1907; also interested in United National Bank, director of Mercantile Bank, Bowling Green Trust Company, Metropolitan Trust Company, Provident Savings Life Assurance Society, and United States Pipe Company; vice-president Lewis Publishing Company 1916–1925; one of the owners and the publisher of New York Morning Telegraph, which was combined with The Running Horse, a daily turf paper, under name of The Morning Telegraph-Running Horse, of which he was president at time of death; was greatly interested in horse racing and was a pioneer in automobile racing, a sport which nearly cost him his life in 1908, when he was severely injured in a crash and as a result was lame for the rest of his life; member New York Chamber of Commerce, New York Stock Exchange, and Presbyterian Church.

Married (1) June 29, 1901, in New York City, Linda Belle, daughter of William Paca Lee, of Louisville, Ky. They were divorced in 1912. Married (2) November 5, 1912, in Newport, R. I., Elisabeth Rebecca, daughter of Henry Hamilton and Charlotte Augusta (Reynolds) Finley. One son, Samuel Finley Mr. and Mrs. Thomas were divorced in 1924. Married (3) October 10, 1924, in Paris, France, Lucy, daughter of Mrs. Adelaide Wisbey Cotton, of Houston, Texas. One daughter, Lucetta.

Death, due to an infected tooth, occurred after an illness of only three days at The Harbor Hospital, New York City. Buried in Sleepy Hollow Cemetery. Survived by wife, son, daughter, mother, and a brother, Dr. Harold E. Thomas, of Evanston, Ill.

Shelton King Wheeler, B.A. 1894.

Born August 13, 1872, in Chattanooga, Tenn.

Died February 26, 1927, in Los Angeles, Calif.

Richard Hardesty Worthington, B.A. 1894.

Born December 1, 1872, in Baltimore, Md
Died January 20, 1927, in Baltimore, Md

Father, William Cooke Worthington, a broker; son of William Henry and Ellen Dall (Cooke) Worthington; descendant of Capt John Worthington, who came from England to Annapolis, Md., in 1670. Mother, Blanche (Hardesty) Worthington; daughter of Richard S. and Elizabeth (Moore) Hardesty; ancestors came to Prince George's County, Md., from Ireland.

G. G. Carey's School, Baltimore, and St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. First colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years; member Class Baseball Team, Psi Upsilon, Wolf's Head, and Chi Delta Theta.

LL.B University of Maryland 1897, began practice in office of Isidor Rayner, attorney-general of Maryland; was subsequently engaged in independent law practice in Baltimore until his death; journal clerk of State Senate 1900–02; deputy clerk of Circuit Court No. 2 1907–1916; chief deputy clerk of same court since 1916, Chief Paymaster (with rank of Major), 1st Brigade, Maryland National Guard 1907–1912; during World War served as an associate member of Legal Advisory Board; acting president Yale Alumni Association of Maryland 1925–26, member Grace and St. Peter's Protestant Episcopal churches, Baltimore.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Greenmount Cemetery, Baltimore. Survived by sons, mother, and a brother, Frank Hardesty Worthington, of Coyote Crossing Ranch, Grover, Colo.

Hiram Arthur Bryant, B.A. 1895.

Born March 27, 1873, in Greenwich, Conn. Died January 3, 1927, in Schenectady, N.Y.

Father, the Rev James Polk Bryant (B.A. Union 1870, B.D. Union Theological Seminary 1873), a Presbyterian minister; later independently engaged in real estate business in Schenectady, while in college changed his name from Bryan to Bryant; son of Ward W and Elizabeth (Wanzer) Bryan; descendant of Alexander Bryan, who came from England to Milford, Conn, in 1639, removed to Meriden, and finally to Watertown, Conn. Mother, Sarah Maria (Knapp) Bryant; daughter of Hiram and Sarah (Kent) Knapp. Yale relatives: Elisha Kent (B.A. 1729), Moss Kent (B.A. 1752), and James Kent (B.A. 1781). Troy Conference Academy, Poultney, Vt., and Phillips-Andover.
M.D. Albany Medical College 1898; practiced medicine at Rensselaerville, N. Y., 1898–1900, at Huntersland, N. Y., 1900–01, and at Schenectady since 1901, medical examiner for the Draft Board in 1917; member American Medical Association, Schenectady County Medical Society, Physicians' Mutual Aid, and All Souls' Unitarian Church, Schenectady.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Pine Plains (N. Y.) Cemetery. Surived by wife

John Watson Dixon, B.A. 1895.

Born September 5, 1873, in Memphis, Tenn.
Died July 22, 1926, in New York City.

Father, Thomas Dixon, a livestock merchant of New Orleans, La, and Memphis, ancestors came from Scotland and settled in Ohio. Mother, Saccharissa Long (Watson) Dixon; daughter of John and Elizabeth (Close) Watson; descendant of John Watson, who came from England to Virginia.

Nebraska City (Nebr.) High School. B.A. University of Nebraska 1894. Entered Yale as a Senior; first dispute appointment; member Sigma Xi and Phi Delta Phi at University of Nebraska, graduate member Elihu Club at Yale.

LL.B. University of Nebraska 1896; admitted to the bar that year and practiced in Nebraska City until 1904, serving as official reporter of 2d Judicial District of Nebraska, attorney in law department of Chicago & Eastern Illinois Railroad 1904–05; then went to New York City, where he was connected with legal departments of various roads until 1914 (attorney for St. Louis & San Francisco Railroad Company and Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railroad Company 1905–08; assistant general solicitor of Erie Railroad Company 1908–1910; and assistant general counsel for the Frisco Lines 1910–14); member of law firm of Hornblower, Miller & Potter 1914–16; of O'Brien, Boardman, Harper & Fox (of which 154

Obituary Record

Albert B. Boardman, '73, Lyttleton Fox, '02, Philip W. Boardman, '07, and Morgan J. O'Brien, Jr., '11, were members 1916-1926; and, since May 1, 1926, of Mayer, Warfield & Watson; had been president of Yale Club of New York since April, 1924 (served as chairman of house committee and member of board of governors in 1917, vice-president 1922-23, and on council of advisory board 1923-24); member St. Thomas' Episcopal Church, New York City.

Death, due to a paralytic stroke, followed a collapse two hours earlier in his office. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by wife, a stepdaughter, mother, and a sister, Mrs. William James Flather, Vassar ex-'98, of New York City.

John King Moore, B.A. 1895.

Born April 18, 1873, in Berlin, Conn.
Died August 23, 1926, in Sharon, Mass.

Father, the Rev. William Henry Moore (B.A. 1841); a Congregational minister; registrar of National Council of Congregational Churches, son of John and Emily (Crane) Moore, descendant, through John Brewster, of Elder William Brewster of the "Mayflower" company. Mother, Mary Ballantine (King) Moore; daughter of Seth and Anne (Moore) King, descendant, through Adam Winthrop, of Governor John Winthrop of Massachusetts. Brother, Winthrop B. Moore, ex-'99 S.

Hartford Public High School. Oration appointments Junior and Senior years, president of Hartford Club.

Served in Yale Divinity School 1895-98 (Fogg Prize; B.D. 1898), ordained to Congregational ministry at Hartford October 11, 1898; pastor of First Congregational Church, Elizabethtown, N.Y., 1898-1904; special student in Yale Divinity School 1904-05; pastor of Central Congregational Church, Orange, Mass., 1905-08, of Pilgrim Congregational Church, Hartford, 1908-09, and of a church in Thompson, Conn., 1910-16; spent the year 1909-1910 at Short Beach,
Yale College

155

Conn., and in Dalton, Mass., recuperating from an illness; since 1917 compiler of Sunday school lessons for Congregational Publishing Society of Boston, making his home in Sharon, where he was a member of the Congregational Church.

Married October 15, 1902, in New Haven, Grace Morse, daughter of Newton Wilbur and Abigail Grace (Peck) Perkins. Children: Winthrop Perkins (B.A. University of New Hampshire 1927) and Margaret Scott.

Death due to tuberculosis. Buried in Westbrook, Conn. Survived by wife, son, daughter, a sister, Miss Anne W. Moore, Smith ex'-95, of Hartford, and a half brother, George R. Moore, of Chicago, Ill.

Charles Heald Weller, B.A. 1895.

Born November 7, 1870, in Tyrone, N.Y.
Died March 2, 1927, in Iowa City, Iowa.

Father, Newton Weller (B.S. Genesee College 1865), a merchant; partner in firm of Weller Brothers, son of Charles and Orrilla (Cronkrite) Weller. Mother, Della M. (Heald) Weller; daughter of Fletcher and Maria (Boyce) Heald.

Dundee (N.Y.) Preparatory School and Genesee Wesleyan Seminary, Lima, N.Y. Taught at Leonardsville (N.Y.) Union School and Academy 1890-92, during which time attended Syracuse University for a year (1890-91), becoming member of Delta Kappa Epsilon. Entered Yale as a Sophomore in 1892; philosophical oration appointments Junior and Senior years; two-year honors in ancient languages and one-year honors in philosophy, member Phi Beta Kappa.

Principal of Gloversville (N.Y.) High School 1895-98; taught at Hillhouse High School, New Haven, 1898-1900, at the same time studying in Yale Graduate School; Fellow American School of Classical Studies in Athens 1900-01, rector Hopkins Grammar School, New Haven, 1901-06, lectured on Greek literature in Yale Graduate School 1903-06; Ph.D. 1904; since 1906 has been connected with State University of Iowa, professor of Greek and acting head of the department 1906-07; head of department of Greek and archaeology and university editor 1907–1916; professor and head of department of Greek and history of art since 1916; also lecturer on commerce since 1916, chairman of summer session since 1917, and head of School of Journalism since its founding in 1924; had lectured on archaeology in all parts of the United States; director of Iowa Commercial Club; author Athens and Its Monuments (1913), contributor to American Journal of Archaeology, Classical Philology, Classical Journal, Bulletin of the State University of Iowa, Bulletin of the Archaeological Institute of America (secretary of Iowa Society of the Institute), and Art and Archaeology; member Classical Association of the Middle West and South, American Philological Association, Ohio State Hellenic Society, and University of Iowa chapters of Sigma Delta Chi and Phi Delta Kappa; secretary of board of trustees of Congregational Church, Iowa City, 1915–19.

Married August 30, 1895, in New Haven, Mary Elmer, daughter of Frederick and Clarissa Jane (Clapp) Bradley. Children Clara Heald, a non-graduate member of the University of Iowa Class of 1919, who married Leon H Bingham (B A University of Iowa 1920); George Bradley (B A University of Iowa 1925); Ruth; and Newton.

Death due to an infection of the kidneys. Buried in Oakland Cemetery, Iowa City. Survived by wife, four children, three grandchildren, stepmother, Mrs. Anna Babbitt Weller, a half brother, Franklin Babbitt Weller (D D.S. University of Maryland 1897), of New York City, and two half sisters, Mrs. John N Dean (Ph B Syracuse 1905), of Buffalo, N. Y., and Mrs. Frederick W. Gregory, a graduate of Syracuse with the degree of Bachelor of Music, of New Rochelle, N. Y.

John Kirkman Berry, B.A. 1896.

Born September 5, 1874, in Nashville, Tenn
Died February 14, 1927, in New York City.

Father, Coburn Dewees Berry, ’68, a lawyer; partner in firm of McCampbell, McEwen, Berry & Lea; son of William Tyler and Mary Margaret (Tannehill) Berry; descendant of James Berry, who came to Baltimore, Md, from England in 1640. Mother, Amanda McNairy (Kirkman) Berry; daughter of John and Catherine (McNaery) Kirkman; descendant of Major Thomas Kirkman of the British Army, who came to this country from Ireland in 1806 and settled at Nashville, Tenn.

Norwich (Conn.) Free Academy Second dispute appointments Junior and Senior years; member Class Baseball Nine Junior year; chairman Senior Promenade Committee, president Southern Club Senior year; member Psi Upsilon LL.B. New York Law School 1898, admitted to Tennessee Bar July, 1898; during next four years connected with law department of Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis Railway in Nashville; assistant with law firm of Lindsay, Kremer, Kalish & Palmer in New York City 1900-01; then entered office of Wilmer & Canfield in New York and subsequently became member of the firm, remained in that connection until October 1, 1906, when he formed a law partnership with George O. Redington, '94 L., under firm name of Redington & Berry; since the dissolution of the firm in 1907 had practiced independently; served with Alien Property Custodian in New York during 1919-1920, member Order of the Cincinnati and Christ Church (Episcopal) in Greenwich, Conn., where he had resided for a number of years.

Death due to meningitis contracted after an attack of the grippe ten days before. Buried in Mount Olivet Cemetery, Nashville. Survived by wife, son, daughter, mother, and a brother, William T. Berry, '06 S. His brother, Coburn D. Berry, '99, died in 1901, and another brother, James P. K. Berry, ex-'04 S., in 1903.

Albert Corey Jones, B.A. 1896.

Born June 5, 1873, in New Haven, Conn
Died May 3, 1927, in New Haven, Conn

Father, Edward Lewis Jones, a merchant, son of David Lewis and Sarah (Clinton) Jones; descendant of Samuel Jones, who came from Wales in 1748 and settled in Stratford, Conn. Mother, Charlotte Amelia (Corey) Jones; daughter of John Francis and Melinda (Camp) Corey; ancestors of the Corey [Cory] family came from France and settled in Alexandria, N Y. Brother: Edward C. Jones, ’95.

Hillhouse High School. First dispute appointment Junior year, second dispute appointment Senior year; while in college also studied in School of Music and received a certificate in 1894.

Studied in Yale Divinity School 1896–98 and graduated at Berkeley Divinity School 1899; ordained as a deacon in the Protestant Episcopal Church June 7, 1899; curate of St. Paul’s Church, Cleveland, Ohio, 1899–1901; ordained to the priesthood in the Kenyon College chapel June 24, 1900; rector of St. Philip’s Church, Cleveland, 1901; St. Mark’s Church, Mystic, Conn., 1902–1912; then moved to New Haven and for two years engaged in literary work and acted as Connecticut representative of the Living Church; also supplied pulpits of Episcopal churches in New Haven occasionally, minister-in-charge of Grace Church, Hamden, Conn., 1914–15 and since then rector of that church; secretary of New London Archdeaconry in 1912 and of New Haven Convocation 1920–22; president of Hamden Public Library Association 1916–1920; chairman of board of directors of Hamden Free Public Library, Inc., 1920–24; charter member Hamden Chamber of Commerce; during the war served as a Four-minute speaker and as chairman of Centerville District of Hamden in War Savings campaign

Married June 28, 1905, in Noank, Conn., Katharine Spicer, daughter of Walter Scott and Prudence (Spicer) Chesebro. Children: Katharine Charlotte, who attended Yale School of Music 1923–24; Edward Chesebro, Robert Lewis; Grace Alberta, Elizabeth Spicer, and Albert Corey (died in childhood)

Death, due to furunculosis, occurred at the New Haven Hospital after an illness of five weeks. Interment in Centerville, Conn. Survived by wife, three daughters, two sons, and a sister, Miss Lillian B. Jones, of Hamden

Born December 12, 1875, in Newark, N. J.
Died February 24, 1927, in West Orange, N. J.

Father, William Perry Woodhull, a wholesale woolen merchant; son of William Miller and Mary Caroline (Howell) Woodhull; descendant of Richard Woodhull, who came from England to Setauket, Long Island, before 1648. Mother, Sarah Reeve (Sayre) Woodhull; daughter of William Randolph and Catherine (Littell) Sayre; ancestors came from England to Long Island about the middle of the seventeenth century.

Dearborn Morgan School, Orange, N. J. Oration appointment Junior year; dissertation appointment Senior year, secretary of Athletic Association; member Track Team, Ivy Committee, and Zeta Psi.

LL.B. New York Law School 1898, had since practiced law in New York City, in the offices of J. Culbert Palmer and Edwin L. Kalish for a time, managing attorney for law firm of Rollins & Rollins 1902–1912 and since then member of the firm; had been member of advisory board of West Orange Community League, police commissioner of West Orange, director of public safety for the town (1921–26), and was connected with Welfare Federation of the Oranges; secretary of West Orange Boy Scouts; during the war served as a member of the Home Guard and of the local draft board, chairman of local committee for European Relief Fund 1921; president of Yale Alumni Association of Essex County (N. J.) 1918.

Married March 25, 1903, in Orange, Anne Louise, daughter of Frederick William and Aletta (Patterson) Horn. Children: Anne Patterson and William Sayre, Jr.

Death, due to a septic infection, occurred at the Orange Memorial Hospital and followed an illness of many weeks. Buried in Rosedale Cemetery, Orange. Survived by wife, daughter, son, and two sisters, Mrs. Julian L. d’Este, of Montclair, N. J., and Helen W. Farr, the wife of Dr. Charles E. Farr, ’98.
Richard Schieffelin Chisolm, B.A. 1897.

Born September 4, 1876, in New York City
Died February 11, 1927, in New York City

Father, Colonel Alexander Robert Chisolm, Columbia ex-'55, served throughout the Civil War in the Confederate Army as Lieutenant Colonel on the staff of General Beauregard; later founded The Financial and Mining Record in New York City and the stock brokerage firm of A. R. Chisolm & Company; one of the organizers of the Mining Board, now the New York Consolidated Stock Exchange, son of Edward Neufville and Mary Elizabeth (Hazzard) Chisolm; descendant in the sixth generation of Alexander Chisolm, who came from Inverness, Scotland, to Charleston, S. C., about 1746. Mother, Helen Margaret (Schieffelin) Graham Chisolm; daughter of General Richard Lawrence Schieffelin (B.A. Columbia 1819) and Margaret Helen (McKay) Schieffelin; descendant of Jacob Schieffelin, who came to America from Weilheim, Germany, in 1746 and settled at Philadelphia, Pa.

St. Paul’s School, Concord, N. H. First colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years; member Psi Upsilon.

Studied at New York Law School 1897–98, 1899–1900 (LL.B 1900); with Edison Electrical Illuminating Company of New York 1898–99; managing clerk in law office of Luce, Davis & Griffin 1900–01; member of law firm of Brookfield, Chisolm & Thompson (Frank Brookfield and John H. Thompson, both ’97), 1901–04; then gave up the law to devote his attention to the management of his father’s estate and to other business, assistant business manager of Railroad Gazette (now Railway Age Gazette) 1904–1910; vice-president and treasurer of a brass goods manufacturing company in New York City (which later became United Metal Manufacturing Company) 1910–11; no business connections for ten months on account of ill health; in charge of a commercial apple orchard in Charlestown, W Va., in 1912; since then had been connected with United Metal Manufacturing Company, Inc., of Norwich, Conn., of which he became president in 1916, secretary and treasurer of State Construction Company (real estate operation and management) since 1913; member Squadron A, New York National Guard, 1898–1901; during World War served as chairman of Local Advisory Board 107 in New York October, 1917–March, 1918, and then as chairman of Hospital Committee of New York chapter of American Red Cross until June, 1919; also as Field Director (with rank of Major), Atlantic Division, American Red Cross, November, 1918–April, 1919; member Association of Ex-Members of Squadron A, and American Association of Variable Star Observers.

Married June 8, 1901, in New York City, Mary Lockwood, daughter of William Henry Boardman (B.A. University of Michigan 1868) and Frances (Hall) Boardman, and sister of Francis Boardman, '97, Dixon Boardman, '02, and Bradford Boardman, '05. Children: Helen Schieffelin (B.A. Bryn Mawr 1925) and Frances Boardman, Bryn Mawr 1929.

Death due to pneumonia. His body was cremated. Survived by wife and daughters.

Born December 31, 1874, in Binghamton, N.Y.
Died September 16, 1926, in New York City.

Father, Theodore Freelinghuysen Macdonald (LL.B. Albany Law School 1867); a lawyer in Binghamton and later in New York City; Sergeant in 179th New York Regiment during Civil War; prisoner of war September 30, 1864–March 2, 1865; son of Asa and Elizabeth (Aytes) Macdonald; ancestors came from Scotland. Mother, Betsey Viola (Dwight) Macdonald; daughter of Alonzo and Adelia (Hoadley) Dwight; sister of Col Walton Dwight and Webster Dwight, Civil War veterans; descendant of Brigadier General Joseph Dwight (B.A. Harvard 1722), a lawyer and judge; trustee of the Indian schools at Stockbridge, Mass.; took part in expedition against Cape Breton and the attacks upon Louisburg in 1745 and Ticonderoga in 1756; descended also from John Dwight, who came to Dedham, Mass., from Dedham, England, in 1634.

Phillips-Exeter Member Zeta Psi.

LL.B. New York University 1899; while studying law organized a coaching school for boys in New York and Southampton, Long Island, and conducted it until 1903, during part of the time in partnership with Mr. William Freeland (B A. Harvard 1881); in law office of Noble, Jackson & Hubbell in New York 1903–05; then formed partnership with Arthur Bostwick (LL B. New York Law School 1903) for general practice of law under firm name of Macdonald & Bostwick and continued in that connection until Mr. Bostwick’s death in 1920; practiced independently 1920–22; since then had been senior member of firm of Macdonald, Ackley & Casey; had served on boards of several motion picture firms, and in 1919 lectured at Yale on the history and development of motion picture industry; during the war was member of a local registration board; member Bar Association of New York and Rutgers Presbyterian Church, New York City.

Married April 24, 1905, in New York City, Alice Eliza, daughter of George Brown and Ada Leonora (Howell) Hedges Children: Dwight, Jr., ’28, and Hedges, ’30.

Death, due to heart disease, occurred at the Pennsylvania Station, New York City. Cremation took place and the ashes were buried in the cemetery in Hoboken, N. J. Survived by wife, son, a brother, Hugh Macdonald, of Scarsdale, N. Y., and two sisters, Miss Elizabeth Macdonald and Mrs. E. B. Karnopp, both of New York City.

Charles Edward Livingston Thomas, B.A. 1897.

Born April 11, 1876, in Belleville, Ill
Died November 30, 1926, in New York City

Father, Charles Wait Thomas (B.A. Urbana University 1861), a lawyer; served throughout the Civil War as Captain of Vaughn’s Independent Battery of Illinois Volunteers; son of William and Elizabeth (Wait) Thomas; ancestors came to Virginia from Wales. Mother, Rhoda (Bissell) Thomas; daughter of William Henry Bissell (M.D. Jefferson Medical College 1835; later studied law at Transylvania University), who served as Colonel of the 2d Illinois Infantry in the Mexican War, was a member of Congress (1851–55) and governor of Illinois (1856–1860), and Emily S. (James) Bissell; descendant of John Bissell, who came to this country from England in 1641 and settled in Windsor, Conn.

After graduation went abroad and studied at Heidelberg University for a few months; returned to this country at the outbreak of the Spanish-American War and enlisted in Company D, 4th Illinois Volunteer Infantry; acted as mounted courier on staff of General Fitzhugh Lee, commander of the 7th Army Corps, and raised the first United States flag over Havana January 1, 1899; after being mustered out in May, 1899, read law in his father's office, was admitted to practice before Supreme courts of Illinois and Missouri, and practiced in St. Louis until 1909, serving as Cuban consul there 1905-06; vice-president of Commercial Bureau, New York City, 1909-1911 and of the Leverich Company, printers and publishers, New York, 1911-13; was subsequently with Atlantic Vehicle Company of New York for a time and later with Continental Car & Equipment Company of Highland Park, Ky.; vice-president of Osaka (Japan) Gas Company, Ltd., and attorney for the Anthony N. Brady Estate in Japan 1915-1925; during the earthquake disaster in 1923 was in charge of American Red Cross Relief for Kobe-Osaka district; with Consolidated Gas Company of New York City 1925-26; had since been vice-president and a director of Bronx Gas & Electric Company; while in St. Louis was member of Republican County Central Committee and served as First Lieutenant and Adjutant, 1st Regiment, Missouri National Guard; during his residence in Japan founded the Japan-America Society of Kansai (Western Japan), which is affiliated with Japan Society of New York, and was elected vice-president for Osaka in 1923; president of American Association in Kobe in 1920; secretary of Yale Association of Kansai 1924-25; member American Gas Association, American Gas Association of Japan, and Roman Catholic Church.

Married January 11, 1904, in St. Louis, Eugenie, daughter of Eugene and Mary T. (Booth) Papin. One daughter, Mary.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Calvary Cemetery, St. Louis. Survived by wife, daughter, a brother, W. Bissell Thomas, ex-'90 L., and a sister, Mrs. B. H Portuondo, of Belleville.
Obituary Record

Edward Twichell Ware, B.A. 1897.

Born March 24, 1874, in Atlanta, Ga
Died May 19, 1927, in Claremont, Calif.

Father, the Rev. Edmund Asa Ware, '63; founder and first president of Atlanta University; son of Asa B. and Catharine (Slocum) Ware, of Wrentham, Mass. Mother, Sarah Jane (Twichell) Ware; daughter of Edward and Selina Dwight (Carter) Twichell; descendant of Joseph Twichell, who was made a freeman of the Massachusetts Colony in 1634 and later went to Hartford, Conn. Yale relatives include: Joseph H. Twichell, '59 (uncle); and David C. Twichell, '98, Reuben C. Twichell, '00, Burton P. Twichell, '01, and Joseph H. Twichell, '06 (cousins).

Hartford Public High School. First dispute appointments Junior and Senior years; president of Yale Gymnastic Association; member Zeta Psi.

Northern secretary of Atlanta University 1897–98; studied at Union Theological Seminary 1898–1901 (class orator Junior year, class president Middle year); also studied at Columbia School of Social Science during his course in the seminary; chaplain of Atlanta University 1901–07 and president 1907–1922, when obliged to resign on account of ill health; had since been president emeritus and chairman of board of trustees; trustee and member of board of Leonard Street Orphans’ Home of Atlanta; during the war helped to organize and presided over the Army School for Mechanics at Atlanta University; lived in Montclair, N. J., 1922–26 and since then in Claremont; member Asylum Hill Congregational Church, Hartford.

Death due to tuberculosis. Buried in Claremont. Survived by wife, two sons, and three sisters, Gertrude Ware Bunce, the wife of Alexander Bunce, '98, and Mrs. George M. Smith and Mrs. Percy W. Bridgman, both of Cambridge, Mass.
Ernest Alden Wells, B.A. 1897.

Born July 1, 1875, at Rocky Hill, Conn.
Died April 15, 1927, in Hartford, Conn

Father, Daniel Halsey Wells (Ph.B. 1867, C.E. 1868); assistant in mathematics (1867–1870), instructor in civil engineering (1870–73), and instructor in mathematics (1873–74) at Yale; actuary of Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company (1875–1917) and consulting actuary since 1917, president of the Actuarial Society of America 1906–08; son of Alden and Amanda Maria (Youngs) Wells; descendant of William Wells, who came to America from Norwich, England, between 1635 and 1640 and settled at Southold, Long Island, in 1640. Mother, Martha Ann (Breckenridge) Wells; daughter of Elias Keyes and Martha (Culver) Breckenridge; descendant of James Breckenridge, who came to this country from Scotland in 1727 and settled in Palmer, Mass.

Hartford Public High School Second dispute appointment Junior year; dissertation appointment Senior year; two-year honors in natural sciences; member Freshman Glee Club

M.D. Johns Hopkins 1901; during his course acted as laboratory assistant in pathological chemistry, studied pathology at Harvard Summer School in 1899, and was a substitute on staff of Hartford Hospital in summer of 1900; interne and house surgeon at New York Hospital 1901–03; had since practiced in Hartford, confining his practice largely to general surgery; assistant attending surgeon to Hartford Hospital 1904–1915 and attending surgeon since then; chief surgeon to Mount Sinai Hospital since 1924; consulting surgeon to New Britain (Conn.) General Hospital and Manchester (Conn.) Memorial Hospital since 1919 and to St. Francis Hospital, Hartford, since 1923; became a member of the medical department of Aetna Life Insurance Company in 1905 and not long after was made associate medical director and held the position until his death; assistant attending physician to Hartford Orphan Asylum in 1905; trustee of Handicraft Schools of Hartford since 1920 and of the Watkinson School since 1911; author of A Manual of First Aid, with Special Reference to Industrial Accidents (1911); contributor to Annals of Medical History (1921); in 1914 made a charter member and Fellow of American College of Surgeons; member Hartford Medical Society, Hartford County Medical Society (president 1920-21), Connecticut State Medical Society (member of various committees), New England Surgical Society (secretary since 1925), and Life Insurance Medical Directors Association; senior deacon of First Church of Christ (Congregational), Hartford Married January 1, 1906, in Springfield, Mass., Anne May, daughter of George Francis and Maude Adelaide (Blackwell) Sweet. Children: Ernest Alden, Jr. (born and died the same day); Jean, John Breckenridge; and Daniel Halsey, 2d.

Death followed an operation for gall bladder disease. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by wife, daughter, two sons, parents, three brothers, Ralph O. Wells, '01, Donald B Wells, '07, and Alden Wells, '07 S., and two sisters, Miss Clara E. Wells, of Hartford, and Mrs. Edgar Weeks, of Marlboro, Mass.

James Frank Adams, B.A. 1898.

Born July 6, 1875, in Greyhawk, Ky.
Died May 26, 1927, in Sherman, Texas.

Father, Edmond Frank Adams, a lumber dealer in Kentucky and Texas; son of William S. and Martha Adams; descendant of Patrick Adams, who came to this country from Scotland and settled in Virginia. Mother, Elizabeth (Bates) Adams.

Preparatory training received at Baylor University, Waco, Texas; attended Calhoun College for a time and graduated at Baylor University with the degree of B.A. in 1896. Principal of high school at Lone Oak, Texas (also teaching history) 1896-97. Entered Yale as a Senior in 1897; oration appointment and one-year honors in political science and law and in history.

Studied in Yale Graduate School 1898-99 and in Yale School of Law 1899-1902 (LL.B. 1902); representative of Remington Typewriter Company in Eastern Ohio at Canton 1902-04; manager of a ranch farm in partnership with his father at Aylesworth, Indian Territory, 1904-05; later practiced law independently in Aylesworth, serving also as principal of the high school in 1905; salesman for Hale & Company, wholesale grocers, of McAlester, Okla., 1909-1915; salesman for Hale-Halsell Company of Durant, Okla.; salesman for Hopkins-McLain Company (wholesale dry goods, notions, and grocery), of Denison, Texas, 1915-1927; at the time of his death was a salesman for Knaur Grain Company in Denison; member Texas and Oklahoma bars and the Methodist Church.

Married November 23, 1904, in Durant, Hazel Veonona, daughter of Michael and Mary (Shafer) Barr. No children.

Death, due to a hemorrhage of the brain, occurred after an illness of only a few hours. Interment in Fairview Cemetery, Denison. His wife survives him; and he also left several half brothers and half sisters.

Abraham Burtis Baylis, B.A. 1898.

Born October 29, 1875, in Brooklyn, N Y
Died at sea, February 16, 1927

Father, Abraham Burtis Baylis (B.A. Princeton 1866), a stock broker; vice-president of Brooklyn Trust Company; son of Abraham Burtis and Deborah (McDonald) Baylis; descendant of John Baylis, who died in 1682. Mother, Agnes Howard (Marvin) Baylis; daughter of Charles Ruland and Mary Elizabeth (Howard) Marvin; ancestors came from England to New England in 1635.

Brooklyn Latin School. Second colloquy appointment Senior year; manager Freshman Football Association; member Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Attended New York Law School 1898-99; associated with Cuyler, Morgan & Company, bankers and brokers, in New York City 1899-1903; in 1903 purchased a seat on the New York Stock Exchange and was in business for himself until 1906, when he became a board member for Mayer & Company; subsequently suffered a nervous breakdown, sold his seat on the Stock Exchange, and was engaged in farming and horse breeding in Mountville, Va., for a number of years until his health again failed; had since traveled extensively; lived in Meadowbrook, Pa., 1922-25 and since then in Del
Obituary Record

Mar, Calif.; commissioned as a First Lieutenant in the Quartermaster Corps July 5, 1918, and stationed at Washington, D. C., and at Camp Wadsworth until receiving his discharge January 2, 1919; member Christ Episcopal Church, Brooklyn.

Married March 1, 1919, in New York City, Marjorie Coats Miller, daughter of Edward M. Coats. No children. They were divorced in 1920.

Death, due to acute asthma, occurred on board the Matson liner "Mam" while en route from Honolulu to San Francisco. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by a sister, Mrs. James E. Morris, of Pelham Manor, N. Y.

Charles Thomas Payne, B.A. 1898.

Born December 1, 1875, in Evanston, Ill.
Died March 17, 1927, in New York City.

Father, Eugene Beauharnais Payne (L.L.B. Northwestern University 1860); a leading member of the Illinois Bar; at the outbreak of the Civil War recruited the 1st Illinois Regiment and was its first captain; rose to the rank of brevet Brigadier General; son of Thomas H. and Susannah N. S. Payne; grandson of Judge Elisha Payne, a founder of Hamilton, N.Y., and of Colgate University; descendant of Thomas Payne [Paine], who came from England to Salem, Mass., in his own ship in 1637. Mother, Adelia Teressa (Wright) Payne; daughter of Jonathan Wright, 3d, of Litchfield, Conn.

Central High School, Cleveland, Ohio. Member of Freshman honor division; dissertation appointments Junior and Senior years, assistant superintendent of Bethany Sunday school.

L.L.B. Harvard 1901; became a clerk in the law office of Root, Howard, Winthrop & Stimson in New York City in 1901 and had since been actively engaged in practice with that firm and its successors, Winthrop & Stimson and Winthrop, Stimson, Putnam & Roberts, becoming a member of the firm in 1914 (partners included Henry L. Stimson, '88, George Roberts, '05, Allen T. Klots and Alfred L. Loomis, both '09, and G. Herbert Semler, '14); admitted to New York State Bar 1902, the bar of the United States Circuit Court 1903 and of the United States District and Supreme courts 1909, and the Connecticut Bar 1913; had served as referee in New York State Supreme Court cases; made a specialty of corporation law and was an expert in federal equity receiverships; took a conspicuous part in the long receiverships of the Metropolitan Street Railway Company, the Ætna Explosives Company, and the New York Railways Company; vice-president and a director of the Ludlow Estates, Inc; in 1909 began the organization of the Marshpaug Forest Club and the creation of the Marshepaug Forest near Litchfield, Conn., an extensive forest, fish, and game preserve; in 1915 explored a great part of the accessible portions of Newfoundland; author of Litchfield Inscriptions, privately printed in 1922; had contributed to Yale Law Journal; member Association of the Bar of the City of New York since 1906, Litchfield County Bar Association, Society of Mayflower Descendants, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Connecticut Forestry Association, and First Congregational Church, Litchfield; interested in Boy Scouts' work and Occupational Therapy Society.

Death due to pneumonia and meningitis following an illness of several weeks. Buried in Litchfield. Survived by wife and sons.

Josiah Dwight Whitney, B.A. 1898.

Born November 11, 1878, in Beloit, Wis
Died November 5, 1926, in White Plains, N. Y

Father, the Rev. Henry Mitchell Whitney (B.A. 1864, Litt.D. Beloit 1900), a graduate of Andover Theological Seminary; professor of rhetoric and English literature at Beloit for twenty-eight years; lecturer; Civil War veteran, serving as chaplain of his regiment; son of Josiah Dwight and Clarissa (James) Whitney; grandson of Abel Whitney (honorary M.A. 1781); descendant of John Whitney, who came Beloit Academy. Attended Beloit College for three and a half years as member of Class of 1898 (on Football Team, manager of Baseball and Track teams, editor of the college magazine, winner of a Greek prize, and member of Sigma Chi) Entered Yale as a Senior.

Studied in Yale Graduate School 1898–99; during that time was on Football Squad and was an assistant in the Library; became a reporter for New York Evening Post in 1899 and was assistant city editor of the paper 1901–04; member of general staff of New York World 1904–07; assistant editor and political correspondent of the Post 1907–1915; engaged in advertising business as member of firm of Bromfield & Field of New York 1915–16; since then publicity manager for The Travelers Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn.; lived in Haworth, N. J., 1907–1916 and served the town as borough marshal, vice-president of volunteer fire department, and member of Shade Tree Commission; elected member Haworth Council in 1911; contributed a story to Harper’s Magazine and short fiction to New York Evening Post; made cartoons for the World.

Married November 11, 1902, in Beloit, Katherine Grace Woods Bill (B.A. Beloit 1901), daughter of Edward Woolsey and Grace (Woods) Bill. Children: Katherine Dey (B.A. Smith 1925), the wife of J. Malcolm Stratton (B.A. University of California 1924); Mary Alice, who married Lieut Willard Merrill Downes, U.S.N., a graduate of the United States Naval Academy in the Class of 1920; and Josiah Dwight, Jr.
Death due to arteriosclerosis and nephritis; had been in poor health for two years. Buried in Branford, Conn. Survived by wife, daughters, son, two brothers, Albert W. Whitney (B.A. Beloit 1891), of White Plains, and James L. Whitney, '01, and a sister, Mrs. Harold W. Files (B.A. Beloit 1899), of River Edge, N. J.

Payne Whitney, B.A. 1898.

Born March 20, 1876, in New York City
Died May 25, 1927, in Manhasset, N. Y

Father, William Collins Whitney, '63, a lawyer; Secretary of the Navy 1885–89; son of James Scollay Whitney, superintendent of the U. S. Armory at Springfield, Mass., collector of the Port of Boston, Massachusetts senator, and Brigadier General of 2d Brigade, Massachusetts Militia, and Laurinda (Collins) Whitney; descendant of John Whitney, who came to America from England in 1635 and settled at Watertown, Mass. Mother, Flora (Payne) Whitney; daughter of Henry B. Payne (B.A. Hamilton 1832), member of Congress, and Mary (Perry) Payne; descendant of Nathan Perry; descended also from Thomas Payne, who came to this country from England before 1635 and settled at Eastham, Mass., in 1653; married Mary Snow, daughter of Nicholas Snow, who married Constance Hopkins, one of the "Mayflower" company. Yale relatives include: Henry F. Dimock, '63, Oliver H. Payne, '63, Henry W. Payne, '67, and Charles W Bingham, '68 (uncles); Cornelius V. Whitney, '22 (nephew); and Harry Payne Bingham, '10 (cousin).

Harrington's School, Westminster, Mass., and Groton School. Second dispute appointments Junior and Senior years; rowed on Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior crews; substitute on University Crew Sophomore year, No. 2 Junior year, and captain (bow) Senior year; member Hé Boulé, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones.

LL.B. Harvard 1901; admitted to New York Bar, but shortly afterwards became engaged in business; director and member of executive board of Great Northern Paper Company 1903–1927; director and vice-president of Northern Finance Corporation 1911–1927 and of Whitney Realty
Robert Campbell Adams, B.A. 1899.

Born July 21, 1878, in Brooklyn, N. Y
Died August 21, 1926, in New York City.

Father, David Adams, a publisher; member of firm of Beadle & Adams. Mother, Fredericka Bremer (Kline) Adams. Brother, Frederick L. Adams, '05.
Adelphi Academy, Brooklyn. Oration appointment Junior year; dissertation appointment Senior year.
With Redfield Brothers, printers, in New York City, for a short time after graduation; subsequently became Brooklyn representative of Jacob Racich, a New York manufacturer of steam pipe covering; with operating department of Erie Railroad 1904–05; in export department of American Express Company 1905–1913; secretary and treasurer of Behr Electrical Contracting Company of St. Louis, Mo., 1913–14; with Anglo-American Cotton Products Corporation (one of the incorporators) 1914–1922 (cashier four years and then assistant treasurer); then became connected with Consolidated Textile Corporation of New York City (in Boston office for about three months in 1923 and then with its subsidiary, the Terry Textile Corporation, in New York); with Consolidated Selling Company, Inc., agents for Consolidated Textile Corporation, from September, 1924, until his death, at first as assistant secretary and subsequently as cashier.

Married November 13, 1900, in New York City, Claire Maude, daughter of Samuel B. and Sarah R. Behr. No children.

Death, due to a lesion of the brain, occurred at the Post-Graduate Hospital, New York, where he had been since July 28, when he sustained a fracture of the right leg; had suffered from poor health during most of his life. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. His wife survives him.

Isham Henderson, B.A. 1899.

Born May 27, 1877, in Louisville, Ky.
Died March 15, 1926, in New York City.

Father, Isham Henderson, a graduate of Center College; a lawyer and later a builder and organizer of engineering works, railroads, and canals; one of the owners and founders of the Louisville Courier-Journal; son of Isham Henderson, a prominent lawyer of Henry County, Kentucky, and Harriotte (Kirtley) Henderson; grandson of Bennett Henderson, who served in the Revolutionary Army; descendant of William Randolph, who settled in Virginia at Turkey Island in the James River about 1674 and married Mary Isham, of Bermuda Hundreds; descended also from Robert Lewis, the Welshman, who settled in Gloucester in 1635, from Capt. Augustine Warner, who came from the West Indies to Virginia prior to 1640 and was a member of the House of Burgesses and of the Royal Council, from Col. George Reade, who came from England to Virginia about 1637 and was the secretary of the colony and, for a short time, the acting governor, and from Capt. Nicholas Martian, one of the early settlers in the colony of Virginia, who is supposed to have been a Huguenot and naturalized in England, and who patented land in York County and lived on the present site of Yorktown. Mother, Sally Nielsen (Yandell) Henderson; daughter of Dr. Lunsford Pitts Yandell (M.D. University of Maryland 1825), professor of chemistry in the Medical College of Transylvania University 1831-37, a founder (in 1837) of the Louisville Medical Institute, which became the University of Louisville, professor of chemistry, materia medica, and physiology at University of Louisville, geologist and editor, and Susan Juliet (Wendel) Yandell; ancestors came from England to South Carolina in colonial times. Nephew: Malcolm C. Henderson, '25.

Hopkins Grammar School. First colloquy appointment Junior year; speaker at Junior Exhibition and winner of a second TenEyck Prize; second colloquy appointment Senior year; an editor of Tale Literary Magazine and winner of the magazine's medal Junior year; member Chi Alpha Theta (Senior Literary Society).

Traveled in Europe for fifteen months after graduating from Yale; then attended New York Law School (LL B. 1903); admitted to New York Bar 1902 and had since practiced law in New York City; clerk in office of Moses & Morris and its successor, Moses, Morris & Westervelt 1902-05; then became member of the firm, the name of which was changed to Moses, Morris & Henderson, and continued in that connection until 1917; member of firm of Henderson, Ely & Aldcroft 1920-23; had since practiced independently; secretary and a director of Ridley's (The Old Chambers Street Candy Manufactory) February, 1922-September, 1925, when he resigned the office; secretary, treasurer, and director of Rocco Realty Company April, 1922, until its dissolution in 1925; member Squadron A, New York National Guard, 1901-1914; attended second Officers' Training Camp at Plattsburg, receiving commission as a Captain in the Field Artillery November 27, 1917; assigned to 351st Regiment (heavy artillery) and stationed at Camp Meade, Md., for a while, serving there as Judge Advocate; then attended School of Fire at Fort Sill; given command of Battery A, 351st Field Artillery, in May, 1918, and went overseas the next month; was sent successively to the Army School of the Line and to the Army General Staff College, both at Langres, to the camp at Gondrecourt, and to the A. E. F. University at Beaune; returned to the United States May 15, 1919, and received his discharge a week later; member Association of the Bar of the City of New York and Association of Ex-Members of Squadron A.

Unmarried.

Death due to chronic nephritis. Remains cremated at Fresh Pond, Long Island, and ashes buried in Cave Hill Cemetery, Louisville. Survived by a brother, Yandell Henderson, ’95, professor of applied physiology at Yale.

William Churchill Hodge, Jr., B.A. 1899.

Born October 24, 1877, in Buffalo, N Y
Died November 6, 1926, in Berkeley, Calif.

Father, William Churchill Hodge; in the insurance business; son of William Hodge. Mother, Helen Maria (Hopkins) Hodge; daughter of Nelson K Hopkins.

Buffalo High School and Phillips-Andover Dissertation appointments Junior and Senior years; member Psi Upsilon.

Student assistant U. S Forest Service 1899–1901; attended Yale School of Forestry 1901–02 (M.F. 1902); forest assistant 1902–09; deputy state forester of California with headquarters at Sacramento 1909–1911; returned to U. S. Forest Service in May, 1911, with appointment as expert for purpose of organizing the reconnaissance work on the national forests in District 5; later designated as forest examiner and continued as such until 1916; then entered private forestry work and was with Union Lumber Company of Fort Bragg, Calif., for a time; engaged in manufacture of concrete ships with Concrete Barge & Ship Company of San Francisco 1919–1920; subse-
Obituary Record

Henry Hutchinson Hollister, B.A. 1899.

Born June 2, 1878, in New York City.
Died January 29, 1927, in Hanover, Mass.

Father, Henry Hutchinson Hollister, a banker and broker; member of firm of Hollister & Babcock; treasurer and a director of National Horse Show Association; son of Edwin M. and Gratia T (Buell) Hollister; descendant of John Hollister, who came from England to America in 1642 and settled in Wethersfield, Conn. Mother, Sarah Louise (Howell) Hollister; daughter of William A. and Lucetta B. (Gould) Howell. Cousin: George B Hollister, '92.

Westminster School Second colloquy appointment Junior year, member Psi Upsilon and Wolf's Head

Private secretary to president of Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad Company 1899–1904; junior partner in firm of Hollister & Babcock 1904–09; member of New York Stock Exchange firm of Hollister, Fish & Company 1909–1913; purchasing agent for Corning (N. Y.) Glass Works from 1913 until his retirement from active business in 1917; since then had made his home in Middletown, Conn., Islip, N. Y., and North Scituate, Minot, and Hanover, Mass., successively; member Society of the Cincinnati, Sons of the American Revolution, and St. Mark's Protestant Episcopal Church, Islip.

Quently field secretary for California Committee of Coöperation for study of effect of light forest burning; in February, 1926, temporarily appointed as associate forester and engaged in a technical study of the major consumption uses of wood in California; in recent years had had a walnut ranch in Kelseyville, but made his home in Berkeley during the winter; also engaged in writing for magazines; member of Society of American Foresters.

Married June 10, 1915, in San Francisco, Marguerite Theresa, daughter of Thomas and Margarettta (McKnight) Murphy. One son, William Churchill, 3d.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Survived by wife, son, and two brothers, Harold H. Hodge, ex-'04 S., and Sheldon Hodge.
Married (1) October 25, 1906, in Providence, R. I., Hope, daughter of Col. George L. Shepley and Caroline Shepley. Mr. and Mrs. Hollister were divorced in 1914. Married (2) August 24, 1918, in Hartford, Conn., Ruth, daughter of Augustus and Mary Francis (Phipps) Turner. No children by either marriage.

Death, due to cancer, followed a long illness. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by wife, a brother, Buell Hollister, '05, and a sister, Mrs. Langdon B. Valentine, of New York City.

Frederick Willoughby Weston, B.A. 1899.

Born May 3, 1879, in New York City.
Died April 17, 1927, in Wynnewood, Pa.

Philip M. Stimson, ’10, Frederick B. Stimson, ex-’15, Bou-dinot Stimson, ex-’20, and William B. Stimson, ex-’22 (cousins).

Hotchkiss School. Dissertation appointment Junior year, first dispute appointment Senior year.

After graduation was an apprentice with Baldwin Locomotive Works of Philadelphia and subsequently put in charge of a department at their plant in Burnham, Pa.; in 1908 became their New York representative; during the World War was called to the main office at Philadelphia for their war work and remained there until his resignation on account of ill health in February, 1927; had resided in Wynnewood, Pa., since 1918 and was an organizer of its Civic Association (president for four years)

Married October 24, 1914, in Philadelphia, Phyllis, daughter of Charles Mortimer and Fanny (Kingsley) Whitcomb Children: Theodore, 2d, Kingsley Whitcomb, Phyllis, and Frederick Willoughby, Jr.

Death due to heart disease Interment in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by wife, three sons, daughter, mother, and a sister, Mary S Weston Dominick, the wife of William F. Dominick, ’98. His half brother, T. Winthrop Weston, ’85, died in 1919.

John Everett Keach, B.A. 1900.

Born July 4, 1874, in Northampton, Mass.
Died September 12, 1926, at Warm Springs, Mont

Father, John Keach, a merchant; served with 18th Connecticut Volunteers during Civil War; son of John H. and Harriett (Young) Keach Mother, Ellen Maria (Jackson) Keach Brother, Walter E. Keach, ex-’05 S.

Northampton High School and Phillips-Andover.

Entered the employ of U. S. Forest Service in July, 1900, and was engaged in field work in various states and in office work at Washington, D. C, until 1905, when he entered Yale School of Forestry; in 1915 received degree of M F., with enrollment in Class of 1906; forest assistant in national forests in Montana, Idaho, Wyoming, and Arkansas 1905-08, engaged in office work in Missoula, Mont., 1908-1910; assistant in national forests in Montana from 1910 until his resignation from the Service on account of ill health in 1920; member American Forestry Association and Society of American Foresters.

Buried in Missoula, Mont. Survived by wife, son, and daughter.

Sydney Byron Morton, B.A. 1900.

Born October 13, 1878, in Chicago, Ill.
Died April 28, 1927, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, George Morton; born in Portsmouth, England, where he was employed by the British Government as a mechanic on battle ships at the Navy Yard, came to America in 1869 and was a scale maker for a number of years and later a real estate dealer. Mother, Elizabeth Sanford (Tapley) Morton; born in Folkestone, England; daughter of Mark Sanford and Sarah (Bennett) Tapley.

Morgan Park (Ill.) Academy. High oration appointments Junior and Senior years; member Freshman, Apollo, and University Glee clubs and Phi Beta Kappa.

Instructor in Latin at Kiskiminetas Springs School, Saltsburg, Pa, 1900-02; graduate student at Yale 1902-04 (M.A. 1904; member second Football Team, University Football Squad, and Bond and Bond); partner in Indian Lake (N. Y.) Camp for Boys in 1903; instructor in Greek at the Taft School March-June, 1903, and master of Latin since 1904; also devoted much time to the organization of the lower school and to other activities, especially football and track; during the war was chairman of publicity committee for Watertown Civic Union, Red Cross, and Liberty Loan campaigns; former member Western Avenue Baptist Church, Chicago, and later member Congregational Church, Watertown.

Obituary Record

Death, due to pneumonia, followed an operation at St. Raphael's Hospital, New Haven. Buried in West Laurel Hill Cemetery, Philadelphia, Pa. Survived by wife, a brother, Merville V. Morton, of Berwyn, Ill, and a sister, Mrs. Carolyn E. Swan, of Los Angeles, Calif.

Harry Monteith Flint, B.A. 1901.

Born July 28, 1880, at McIndoes Falls, Vt.
Died August 23, 1926, in Pasadena, Calif.

Father, George Washington Flint (B.A. Bates 1871); principal of Collinsville (Conn.) High School 1874-1898; president of Connecticut Agricultural College 1898-1901; son of Capt. William Henry Flint, 29th U. S. Colored Infantry, who was killed while leading his troops in the operations against Petersburg, Va., in the Civil War, and Emeline (Vickery) Flint; great-grandson of Ephraim Churchill, who fought in the Revolution; descendant of William Flint, who came from Wales to Salem, Mass., about 1640; descended also from John Churchill of Plymouth, whose wife, Hannah, was a daughter of William Pontus, one of the grantees of Plymouth Colony. Mother, Mary Elizabeth (Monteith) Flint; daughter of William Ruthven and Isabella (Gilchrist) Monteith; granddaughter of William Monteith, a master weaver, who came from Scotland in 1826 and settled in Barnet, Vt.; descendant of James Gilchrist, who came from Scotland to Barnet about 1771; descended also from John Knox.

Collinsville (Conn.) High School Second dispute appointments Junior and Senior years.

Principal of Brewster (Mass.) High School 1902-03; assistant principal of Abbott School, Farmington, Maine, 1903-04; because of a breakdown in health, moved, in 1904, to Pasadena; later became connected with Rare Metals Refining Company there and afterwards with the Electro Alloys Company of which he was secretary until 1920; since then had been engaged in manufacturing as vice-president and a trustee of Vanessa Products Company of Los Angeles; member of the Congregational Church in Collinsville.

Unmarried.
Death due to pneumonia. Buried in the family lot at Mc-Indoes Falls. Survived by mother, a sister, Miss Elisabeth Flint (B.A. Smith 1906), of Pasadena, and a brother, William Ruthven Flint, '98.

John deKoven Alsop, B.A. 1902.

Born April 7, 1879, in Middletown, Conn
Died September 29, 1926, in Hartford, Conn

Father, Joseph Wright Alsop (Sheffield Scientific School 1858-59; M.D. New York University 1864); Connecticut state senator and representative, lieutenant governor 1890; son of Joseph Wright and Mary Alsop (Oliver) Alsop; descendant of Richard Alsop, who came to America from England about 1680 and settled at Newtown, N.Y. Mother, Elizabeth Winthrop (Beach) Alsop; daughter of Hunn Carrington and Mary Charlotte (deKoven) Beach; descendant of Thomas Beach, who came from England to Milford, Conn, before 1652. Yale relatives include a great-uncle, Charles R. Alsop (B.A. 1821), and a cousin, John deK Bowen, '10

Groton School. Member Yale Corinthian Yacht Club, Hé Boulé, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

With publishing firm of R.H. Russell in New York City 1902-03; then with advertising and editorial departments of Metropolitan Magazine until 1910, when he retired and returned to his home in Middletown; during next seven years spent much of his time in travel; enlisted as a Private June 28, 1917; called to active duty August 9 and served overseas from August 22, 1917, to April 18, 1919; with Yale Mobile Hospital Unit until September 22, 1918; made a Corporal January 3 and promoted to Sergeant July 6; then assigned to Headquarters Instruction and Assembly Park for Mobile Units; commissioned a Second Lieutenant in Sanitary Corps November 26, 1918, and served with Evacuation Hospital No. 6 at Coblenz; received his discharge April 22, 1919; studied at Harvard School of Landscape Architecture 1919-1920; member Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, Middletown.

Unmarried.

Death due to heart trouble, following a long illness. Buried in
Obituary Record

Indian Hill Cemetery, Middletown. Survived by two brothers, Joseph W. Alsop, '98 S, and Francis J. O. Alsop, '03.

Born December 10, 1880, in St. Louis, Mo.
Died September 10, 1926, in Alexandria, Egypt.

Father, Lorenzo Medici Johnson (Ph.B. 1874, C.E. 1875); in Pay Department of U. S. Army 1861–63; vice-consul in Syria and consul general at Beirut; general manager and vice-president Cairo & St. Louis Railroad Company, general manager Mexican International Railroad Company, and president Pittsburgh, Shawmut & Northern Railroad Company; son of the Rev. Lorenzo Dow Johnson and Mary (Burges) Johnson; ancestors settled in Rochester, Mass.

Mother, Helen Wolcott (Stewart) Johnson; daughter of General Hart Louis Stewart and Hannah Blair (McKibbin) Stewart Cousins: Stewart Clark, ex-'75, Barclay Johnson, '82, Rankin Johnson, '95 S., Stewart Patterson, '97, Bascom Johnson, '00, and Paul B Johnson, '01.

St Paul's School, Concord, N. H.

Clerk of American Legation at Rio de Janeiro 1902–04; studied law at Harvard 1904–07 (L.L.B. 1907); practiced law in Chicago 1907–1915 (in office of Stuart G. Shepard two years, then with firm of Isham, Lincoln & Beall until 1911, and afterwards independently); director Northern Liquidation Company of Illinois 1911–13; entered U. S. diplomatic service as secretary of the Legation at Santo Domingo 1915; in September, 1916, assigned to Guatemala as chargé d'affaires during absence of the Minister and served as such until January, 1917; chargé d'affaires at San José, Costa Rica, 1917–19 and at Caracas January, 1919–March, 1920; assistant chief of Latin American Division, Department of State, Washington, D. C., 1920–21; first secretary of Embassy at Berlin December, 1921–March, 1924, when transferred to Cairo; appointed Foreign Service Officer, Class 4, and assigned as first secretary of Legation at Cairo July 1, 1924; at time of death chargé d'affaires there; while practicing law in Chicago served as secretary and treasurer of Democratic Club of Winnetka, Ill., where he had his home; member Winnetka Congregational Church.

Married November 17, 1917, in Chicago, Catharine Haven, daughter of Charles Howard and Alice (Haven) ReQua. One daughter, Catharine ReQua.

Death, due to a puncture of the intestines, occurred during an operation in the Anglo-Swiss Hospital in Alexandria; had met with a serious automobile accident two days before. Buried in Graceland Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife, daughter, and three sisters, Mrs. Raymond W. Hardenbergh, of Governors Island, Mrs. Ayres Boal, of Winnetka, Ill., and Dorothea Johnson Massey, the wife of George B. Massey, '95 S.

Alfred Edgerton Manierre, B.A. 1902.

Born August 13, 1878, in Chicago, Ill
Died December 9, 1926, in Winnetka, Ill

Father, George Manierre (B.A. 1868, LL.B Columbia 1869, honorary M.A. Yale 1893), a real estate dealer; son of George and Ann Hamilton (Reid) Manierre; descendant of Louis Manierre, who settled in New London, Conn., before 1785, and whose ancestors came from Normandy in 1680. Mother, Ann Eliza (Edgerton) Manierre; daughter of Alfred Peck Edgerton, member of Congress, and Charlotte (Dixon) Edgerton; descendant of Thomas Miner, one of the settlers of both New London and Stonington, Conn.; descended also from Richard Edgerton, who came from England to Norwich, Conn., in 1659. Yale relatives include two cousins, Egerton Swartwout, '91, and C. Edson Manierre, ex-'16. University School, Chicago. Member Yale Corinthian Yacht Club.

In office of general superintendent of Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company at Lincoln, Nebr., 1904-05; secretary and sales manager for Newsom Crushed Stone & Quarry Company of Nashville, Tenn., 1905-09; studied at University of Illinois 1909-1912 (B.S. in architecture 1912), had since been engaged in independent practice as an architect in Chicago, making a specialty of private residences in the north shore suburbs; elected member of American Institute of Architects April 29, 1913.

Married March 20, 1907, in Chicago, June Griffin, daughter of Robert Henry Parkinson (B.A. Dartmouth 1870) and Helen Byrd (McGuffey) Parkinson. Children: Barbara Drake and Jeannette Lee.

Born May 13, 1881, in New Haven, Conn.
Died October 26, 1926, in New York City.

Father, Arthur Martin Wheeler (B.A. 1857, honorary M.A. 1887, LL.D. Hamilton 1896); Durfee professor of history at Yale for forty-one years; son of Willis and Eliza (Fairchild) Wheeler; ancestors came from England to Weston, Conn. Mother, Harriette Skinner (Staples) Wheeler; daughter of George Washington and Mary (Knight) Staples; granddaughter of Seth P Staples (B.A. 1797) and of Dr. Jonathan Knight (B.A. 1808, honorary M.D. 1818); great-granddaughter of James Lockwood (B.A. 1766) and of Rev. Samuel Wales (B.A. 1767, D.D. 1782 and Princeton 1784); descendant of Seth Staples, who came to this country from England. Yale relatives include a great-uncle, John B. Staples (B.A. 1827).

Hopkins Grammar School and Phillips-Andover. Honors in English composition Sophomore year; first dispute appointment Junior year and a third Ten Eyck Prize at Junior Exhibition; divided John Hubbard Curtis Prize Junior year and winner of that prize Senior year; Cook Poetry Prize Senior year; member Zeta Psi.

Instructor in English at University of Wisconsin 1902-03; was subsequently an insurance agent, a book agent, and a private tutor in Cambridge, Mass.; took special courses at Harvard for a year and was later engaged in writing in New York City and in Washington, D.C.; in 1912 became postmaster at Grove Beach, Conn., where he was also engaged in poultry raising until 1917; during that period was treasurer of Grove Beach Improvement Association, Inc., vice-president of Shore Line Poultry and Pet Stock Association, Inc., and treasurer of Menunketesuck Club; during the war served as a clerk in the Postal Service in France from November, 1917, to July, 1918; was later advertising manager for Siegel-Levy Company, Inc., of New York City for about three years and then salesman for American Mortgage & Finance Corporation for a while; author of Profitable Breeds of Poultry (1912); had written numerous short stories for various magazines under the nom de plume of Stephen Ta Van and had contributed a poem to the Andover Book of Graduate Verse Married April 30, 1906, in Washington, D. C., Edith Angel, daughter of Alexander Wiley. No children. Mr and Mrs Wheeler were later divorced.
Took his own life while temporarily insane. Buried in the Staples family plot in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven Survived by mother, a brother, Kenneth K. Wheeler, ex-11 S, and a sister, Mrs. Rowley W. Phillips, of Waterbury, Conn.

Minton Fluhrer, B.A. 1903.
Born February 25, 1882, in New York City.
Died June 20, 1927, in Norwalk, Conn.

Father, William Francis Fluhrer (M.D. New York University 1870), a physician in New York City; son of John Christopher and Julia (Greiner) Fluhrer; ancestors came to Providence, R. I., from Germany in 1820. Mother, Emily Caroline (Pullman) Fluhrer; daughter of James Lewis and Emily Caroline (Minton) Pullman, ancestors came from England and settled in New England

Holbrook Military School, Ossining, N. Y.

Studied law at Columbia 1905-06 and practiced law in New York City 1907-1914, secretary Lewis P. Fluhrer Company, Inc (building construction), of New York 1914-18 and to Dudley Field Malone, collector of the Port of New York, 1914-1921; special deputy collector of customs in New York 1914-1924, secretary-treasurer Grinnell Realty Corporation of New York 1920–27, at time of death was vice-president and treasurer of Johnson Clark & Company, exporters, New York; had had a summer home in Norwalk for two years.
Obituary Record

Married November 14, 1914, in New York City, Elsa Marie, daughter of Christian and Amelia Elizabeth (Kern) Arndt. One daughter, Helen Pullman.

Death due to apoplexy. Buried in Kensico Cemetery, New York. Survived by wife, daughter, father, a brother, Lewis Pullman Fluhrer, of New York City, and a sister, Miss Helen Pullman Fluhrer, of Mountaindale, N. Y.

Thomas Nicholas Hogan, B.A. 1903.

Born December 6, 1879, in Hartford, Conn
Died March 1, 1927, in Belvidere, Kans.

Father, Matthew Hogan; founder and president of Hogan Manufacturing Company (plumbing supplies); Connecticut state senator; born in Ireland and came to America in 1853; son of William and Margaret (Sullivan) Hogan. Mother, Ann (Hanley) Hogan; daughter of John and Mary (Ryan) Hanley, who came to Hartford from Ireland.

Hartford Public High School. Left college at end of Junior year and spent a year in Yale School of Law, returned to college as a Senior in Class of 1904; in 1909 given his degree with enrollment in Class of 1903.

Had been associated since graduation with Edward D. Robbins, '74, at first in his law office in Hartford, and later as manager of a cattle ranch at Belvidere; member St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church, Hartford.

Married December 6, 1913, in Centerville, Iowa, Bertha May, daughter of George and Kate (Halshauser) Goodale. No children.

George French Porter, B.A. 1903.

Born July 26, 1881, in Chicago, Ill.
Died February 23, 1927, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, Henry Homes Porter, railroad president; son of Rufus King and Lucy Lee (Hedge) Porter; descendant of John Porter, who came to America from Dorset, England, in 1635 and settled in Hingham, Mass. Mother, Eliza (French) Porter; daughter of George H. and Eliza (Thayer) French, descendant of Daniel French. Yale relatives include George S. Isham, '81 (brother-in-law), and Henry P. Isham, '17, Ralph N. Isham, '24 S., and Henry H. Porter, Jr., '26 S (nephews)

Lawrenceville School. Second colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years; member Psi Upsilon.

Attended Northwestern Law School 1903–04; had since been engaged in business in Chicago, particularly in connection with railroads and real estate; secretary and treasurer of Chicago Transfer & Clearing Company 1905–1911 and of Chicago Union Transfer Railway Company for some years; former director of the latter company, the Security Bank of Chicago, Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company, and Chicago & Eastern Illinois Railroad Company; at the time of his death director of Chicago Transfer & Clearing Company, Judson Mining Company, Nevada Land Company, and Chicago Daily News; trustee Field Museum of Natural History 1907–1915 and Chicago Art Institute since 1925; former vice-president of Friends of American Art, director of University Club of Chicago 1921 and first vice-president 1923, in 1912 was active in formation of the Progressive Party and served as chairman of the committee on hall at the first national convention of the party and as western treasurer of the Progressive National Committee; was later member of the party's finance committee, chairman of convention committee in the Progressive Presidential campaign in 1916, and chairman of Republican National Convention Committee and member of its policies and platform committee in 1920; in 1917 resigned from all his business positions to engage in war work; on April 6, 1917, made assistant to the director and chief of State Councils Section of Council of National Defense; in March, 1918, appointed special expert of planning and statistics on U. S. Shipping Board; resigned this position in June, 1918, to enter the Army; had attended Plattsburg Training Camp August–September, 1916; on August 16, 1918, was commissioned a Captain in the Chemical Warfare Service and served until his discharge December 11, 1918; in January, 1921, went to Europe to study economic and political conditions, especially in the Near East, acting as correspondent for the Chicago Daily News and visiting Egypt, Palestine, Syria, and Transjordania.

Married June 3, 1925, in Ootacamund, India, Mima, daughter of Etienne and Irma (Luther) deManziarly, of Paris, France. No children.

Took his own life; had been in ill health for about four years and had only recently returned from Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore. Buried in Graceland Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife and a brother, Henry H. Porter, ’98 S. By the terms of his will a bequest of twenty-five thousand dollars was left to Yale.

Asa Rathborne Kelley, B.A. 1904.

Born July 31, 1881, in Chicago, Ill.
Died May 24, 1927, in Rutland, Mass.

Harvard School, Chicago, Hotchkiss School, and Black Hall (Conn) School; member Alpha Delta Phi.

From graduation until 1907 was engaged in lumber business with his father in various capacities in Chicago, California, and Oregon; in 1907 became president of St. Joe Mining and Exploration Company and a partner in Bitter Root Mercantile Company, which operated commissaries and stage lines at Forty Nines, Avery, and Grand Forks, Idaho, during the construction of the Chicago, Milwaukee & Puget Sound Railroad to the coast; at that period became interested in mining and traveled extensively through the far west and Mexico, prospecting and looking over mining properties; in 1924 went to New York City as assistant to the president of the Homestake Extension Mining Company of Deadwood, S. Dak., and was also vice-president and transfer agent of the Idaho Copper Corporation of Jersey City, N. J.

Married June 16, 1909, in Los Angeles, Calif., Evadne Bri Conroy. One daughter, Emma Virginia.

Death, due to pulmonary tuberculosis, occurred at the Summit Sanitarium, Rutland. Buried in Graceland Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by daughter, mother, a brother, William R Kelley, '99, and two sisters, Miss Dorothy S. Kelley, of Paris, France, and Madame Jaques Deprez, of Lille, France.

Born June 24, 1882, in New York City.
Died January 16, 1927, in Englewood, N. J.

Obituary Record

The Hill School First dispute appointment Junior year; dissertation appointment Senior year; member Freshman Baseball Team, Class Hockey Team, and Psi Upsilon.

Clerk in coupon and foreign exchange department of Knickerbocker Trust Company of New York City 1904-07; loan clerk with United States Trust Company 1907-1911; general partner in firm of Dominick Brothers & Company, brokers, 1912-18, with Walker Brothers, brokers, in New York for about three months; investment adviser for New York Stock Exchange firm of Ladd & Wood and its successor, Wood, Low & Company since 1919; had lived in Englewood, N. J, since 1908 and during the war served as member of Englewood Battalion, New Jersey State Militia Reserve; member First Presbyterian Church, Englewood (deacon 1918-1922).

Unmarried

Henry Fowler Damon, B.A. 1906.

Born January 16, 1883, at sea between San Francisco and Honolulu, on the British Steamship "Suez" Died December 19, 1926, in Moanalua, Hawaii.

Father, Samuel Mills Damon, a graduate of Oahu College in 1860, a pioneer banker in Hawaii; minister of finance of the Kingdom of Hawaii, the Provisional Government, and the Republic; minister of the interior two terms and member of Advisory Council of the Republic; trustee of Bernice Pauahi Bishop Foundation and director of the Kamehameha Schools; decorated with Order of the Golden Treasure, Japan; Knight of the Order of Christ, Portugal; son of the Rev. Samuel Chenery Damon (B.A. Amherst 1836, D.D. 1868), chaplain of American Seaman's Friend Society for almost thirty years, and Julia Sherman (Mills) Damon; descendant of John Da-Punahou Preparatory School; attended Oahu College three years, final preparatory training received at Hotchkiss School. Member Class Swimming Team.

Articled for study and training with McClelland, Kerr & Company, certified accountants, in Glasgow, Scotland, 1906-1910; upon his return to Honolulu in 1910 entered Audit Company (owned and directed by Bishop & Company, his father's bank), with which he remained a year; then entered Bishop & Company and served in many departments; in 1919, upon the incorporation of Bishop & Company, became a director, secretary, and assistant cashier of the company; on account of his health relinquished the positions of secretary and cashier in 1925, but remained a director until his death; was much interested in the ranch and dairy belonging to the Damon estate, and also in the introduction of game birds, many of which were turned loose in Moanalua and protected; member Central Union Church, Honolulu.

Death due to heart failure, following a severe attack of influenza. Buried in Nuuanu Cemetery, Honolulu. Survived by wife, three daughters, son, a stepson (also nephew), Samuel R. Damon, '28, mother, a sister, Miss Mary M. Damon, and a brother, Douglas Damon, both of Moanalua.

Samuel Field, Jr., B.A. 1906.

Born October 24, 1883, in Philadelphia, Pa
Died August 17, 1926, at Battle Creek, Mich

Father, Robert Patterson Field (B.A. University of Pennsylvania 1872, M.E. 1874), a consulting engineer; son of Samuel and Mary Gray (Patterson) Field; descendant of Robert Field, who came from England with the Winthrop and Saltonstall expedition in 1630 and settled at Flushing, N. Y., after 1638; descended also from Robert Patterson (LL.D. University of Pennsylvania 1816), who came from Ireland to Pennsylvania in 1768, was military instructor, Adjutant Assistant Surgeon, and Brigadier Major in American Revolution, professor of mathematics and vice-provost of University of Pennsylvania, and director of U. S Mint, Philadelphia, 1805–1824. Mother, Mary Prime (Trumbull) Field; daughter of the Rev Henry Clay Trumbull (honorary M.A. Yale 1866, D.D. Lafayette and New York University 1882) and Alice Cogswell (Gallaudet) Trumbull; descendant of John Trumbull, who came from England to Charleston, Mass, in 1636 and later settled in Rowley, Mass. Yale relatives include: John Trumbull (B.A. 1735); Benjamin Trumbull (B.A. 1759); John Trumbull (B.A. 1767); Benjamin Trumbull (B.A. 1790); Joseph Trumbull (B.A. 1801); Leverett H. Trumbull (B.A. 1806); Jonathan G. W. Trumbull (B.A. 1807); J. Hammond Trumbull (B.A. 1842) and Charles E. Trumbull, '54 (great-uncles); Charles G. Trumbull and Samuel Scoville, Jr., both '93 (uncles); and Edson F. Gallaudet, '93, Herbert D. Gallaudet, '98, William P. Wattles, 01, Edward D. Gallaudet, '24, Gurdon T. Scoville, '26, Francis C. Gallaudet, '27, and William B. Scoville, '28 (cousins).

Hamilton and Winthrop schools, Philadelphia. Honors in all studies of Freshman and Junior years; honors in English composition Senior year; oration appointments Junior and Senior years; member University Tennis Team and captain of Class Tennis Team; won championship in doubles and was runner up in singles at Yale and runner up in doubles in Intercollegiate Tournament; member Freshman, Apollo, and University Banjo clubs and Alpha Delta Phi

Entered employ of American Pipe & Construction Company of Philadelphia as timekeeper September, 1906, and was later foreman on reservoir construction and pipe line work until 1908; partner in brokerage house of Robert P Field & Company of Philadelphia 1908–1912, during last two years of that period being also secretary of Armstrong Engineering Company; engaged in sale and installation of automobile accessories under his own name 1914–15, treasurer and sales manager Standard Briquet Corporation of Trenton, N. J., 1915–1920, then resigned to establish himself independently as a heating engineer; resident manager in Trenton of Minneapolis Heat Regulator Company 1921–23; distributor in central New Jersey for Kelvinator Corporation of Detroit 1923–24 and distributor for Philadelphia district 1925–26; member New Jersey Society of Sons of the Revolution and Prospect Street Presbyterian Church, Trenton Married April 20, 1911, in Mifflintown, Pa., Margaret, daughter of the Rev. Clarence Eugene Hills (B A Wabash 1876, D.D. Grove City 1905), a graduate of Lane Theological Seminary, and Susan Wood (Stone) Hills, of Trenton. Children: Betty Winchester (died in childhood) and Samuel, 3d.

Death, due to endocarditis, occurred at the Battle Creek Sanitarium; had been suffering from neuritis and complications for several years Buried in Ewing Churchyard, Trenton Survived by wife, son, parents, and a sister, Mrs Norman Bruce Armstrong, of Macon, Ga.

Donald McBride, B.A. 1906.

Born May 16, 1884, in Cleveland, Ohio
Died March 13, 1927, in Cleveland Heights, Ohio

Father, John Harris McBride, a merchant; president of Root & McBride; one of the founders of the University School, Cleveland, and its president for many years; trustee of Western Reserve University; president of the Board of Park Commissioners and as such instrumental in establishing the present system of parks in Cleveland; son of Samuel H. and Phoebe (Harris) McBride; descendant of Samuel McBride, who came from Belfast, Ireland, to Newcastle, Del., in 1772, later moved to western Pennsylvania, and subsequently settled on the present site of Bedford, Pa. Mother, Elizabeth Amy (Wright) McBride; daughter of Walter and Lydia (Richardson) Wright; descendant of John Wright, who came to this country from England in 1636 and settled in Chelmsford, Mass. Nephews: George H. Crile, ’29, and Henry S. Sherman, Jr., ’30.
Obituary Record

University School, Cleveland. First colloquy appointment Senior year, engaged in Dwight Hall work; member University Crew Squad, Pundits, Psi Upsilon and Elihu Club; attended the Yale Forestry Camp in the summer of 1904 and 1905.

During the first three months after graduation was engaged in forestry work in Northern Michigan, West Virginia, and Ohio; then studied at Western Reserve Medical School for a year; studied law at Harvard 1907-08 and then at Western Reserve (LL B. 1910), practiced law in Cleveland with firm of Squire, Sanders & Dempsey 1910-13; had since been connected with Cleveland-Akron Bag Company, becoming a director and secretary of the company in 1919 and president in 1922, director of Wagner Awning & Manufacturing Company, the Philip H. Collins Company, and (since 1921) of the Midland Bank; trustee of the University School; had been actively associated with the Mentor Headlands allotment, where he had a summer home, and with the Mentor Harbor development, took an active part in Cleveland Community Fund campaigns, member Troop A, Ohio National Guard; served as Captain with American Red Cross in France in 1918, having charge of its warehouses in Nancy for over eleven months, on March 17, 1918, one of a relief party of three who were the first to enter Metz after the departure of the Germans, donor (in 1913) with his brother, two sisters, and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Herbert McBride, of $50,000 to Western Reserve University to endow a lecture foundation as a memorial to his parents and to his brother, Herbert McBride,
Tale College

'90 S., who died in 1907; member Calvary Presbyterian Church, Cleveland

Married December 9, 1913, in Cleveland, Mary Helen, daughter of Ralph Augustus Harman, '78 S., and Grace (Fleming) Harman. Children: Harman Wright, Donald, Jr., Richard Lee, and Herbert.

Death, due to pneumonia, occurred after a week's illness. Buried in Lake View Cemetery, Cleveland. Survived by wife, four sons, brother, Malcolm L. McBride, '00, and two sisters, Mrs. George W. Crile, of Cleveland, and Edith McBride Sherman, the wife of Henry S Sherman, '02.

Born March 14, 1885, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Dead September 18, 1926, in Greenwich, Conn

Father, Fritz Achelis; president American Hard Rubber Company of New York City; son of Thomas Achelis, who came to America from Germany in 1833 and settled in New York, and Julie (Hutterett) Achelis. Mother, Bertha F. (Konig) Achelis, daughter of Friederich Konig, who came from Germany to New York in 1849, and Alette (Cramer) Konig. Cousins: Carl L. Vietor, '00 S., George F. Vietor, Jr., ex-'04, John A. Vietor, '07, Thomas Achelis, '08, Johnfritz Achelis, '13, and George T. Achelis, '19.

The Hill School. Honors in studies of Freshman and Junior years; dissertation appointments Junior and Senior years; member Freshman, Apollo, and University Glee clubs, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Elihu Club.

Had been connected with American Hard Rubber Company since graduation; assistant secretary 1911-18, general manager 1918-1925, president since 1925; during World War served as chairman of Hard Rubber Division of Rubber Association, of fourth Liberty Loan Committee, and United War Work Campaign Committee, and as vice-chairman of Hard Rubber War Service Committee; in 1925 presented to Yale School of the Fine Arts as a memorial to his father a valuable group of Rembrandt and Durer prints, which his father had collected; member St. Thomas' Episcopal Church, New York.
Obituary Record

Married April 9, 1913, in New York City, Helen, daughter of William Jenkins and Edith (Haynes) Bruff, and sister of Austin Jenkins Bruff, '02 S., and the late Harold Bruff, '05. Children. Audrey, Frederic, and Gertrude.

Death due to myelitis, after an illness of three months Buried in Kensico Cemetery, Valhalla, N. Y Survived by wife, three children, and two sisters, Mrs Frederick A. Sansome and Miss Elisabeth Achelis, both of New York City.

William Carmichael Blyth, B.A. 1907.

Born September 23, 1885, in Evanston, Wyo
Died June 26, 1927, in Salinas, Calif

Father, Thomas Blyth, a merchant; head of firm of Blyth, Fargo & Company of Evanston; born in Kirkcaldy, Scotland; came to America in 1868, son of Peter and Catherine (Haxton) Blyth Mother, Isabella (Carmichael) Blyth; daughter of Robert and Anne (Dickie) Carmichael, of Glasgow, Scotland

Worcester Academy and St Paul's School, Garden City, N Y. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon

Connected with his father's firm during the first year after graduation; engaged in the culture of walnuts and oranges in Whittier, Calif, January, 1909-April, 1911; secretary of Blyth, Fargo & Company 1911-1922, becoming a member of the firm in 1912 and its general manager in 1917; assistant general sales manager of Sperry Flour Company of San Francisco 1922-23, with Blake, Moffitt & Towne of San Francisco since 1923, at the time of his death was traveling representative of the firm, with headquarters in San Luis Obispo, Calif; attended the first Reserve Officers' Training Camp at The Presidio, San Francisco, from May 14 to July 14, 1917, when he was disqualified from service on account of poor eyesight; served as Four-minute Man chairman for Uinta County, Wyo, and as member of the Fourth Liberty and Victory Loan committees; member Medicine Butte (Wyo.) Post of the American Legion and the Episcopal Church.

Married December 22, 1908, in San Bernardino, Calif,
Grace, daughter of Frank and Virginia (Griffith) Griffin. No children. Mr. and Mrs. Blyth were divorced in 1926.

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Glendale, Calif. Survived by father, two brothers, Tom H. and Charles R. Blyth, both of Los Angeles, and two sisters, Mrs. J. T. Keith, of Los Angeles, and Mrs. A. P. Thompson, of Maywood, Calif.

Leroy Ewalt Brunner, B.A. 1907.

Born January 12, 1883, in Central City, Iowa
Died February 26, 1927, in Jacksonville, Fla

Father, Eli Brunner, an orange grower in Orlando, Fla., son of Alexander and Lydia (Minehart) Brunner; descendant of John Brunner, who came to America from Germany and settled in Fairfield County, Ohio. Mother, Mary Augusta (Burns) Brunner; daughter of Richard Ewalt and Abigail (Williams) Burns; descendant of John Burns, who came to Pennsylvania from Scotland.

Winchester (Tenn.) Normal College. Attended Rollins College as a member of Class of 1903 during 1902-03. At Yale received first dispute appointments Junior and Senior years.

Engaged in private teaching in Orlando 1907-08, in employ of U. S. Reclamation Service on location of Kuna High Canal 1908-09; chairman with Twin Falls (Idaho) Land & Water Company for four months; transitman for Sacramento Valley Irrigation Company at Willow, Princeton, and Anderson, Calif., 1909-1911, inspector of street improvements and later field engineer on construction for water development for San Diego, Calif., 1914-15; was then employed for a time by California State Highway Commission; engaged in irrigation engineering in Imperial Valley, Mexico, with headquarters in Calexico, 1917-19; spent the year 1919-1920 in Anderson, Calif., and then went to Florida and was associated for about a year with E. W. Watkins in general practice of engineering in Palatka; became a registered engineer entitled to practice professional engineering in Florida by act of State Board of Engineers Examiners in April, 1921; had since been surveyor of Putnam County, Fla; was also appointed supervising engineer of special road and bridge districts of that county in September, 1921, chief engineer for East Palatka Drainage District in 1922, for South Hastings Drainage District in 1923, and for North Ormond Drainage District in 1926; elected member of Florida Engineering Society in 1921; member Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Winchester, Tenn.

Married January 1, 1914, in Palatka, Edna Hope, daughter of Samuel Stanton and Marjorie Estelle (Webster) Browning. Children: Frederick Stanton; Marjorie Estelle; Edna Hope, and Shirley Louise.

Death, due to acute myloid leukemia, occurred at Riverside Hospital, Jacksonville, following an illness of eight weeks. Buried in Oak Hill Cemetery, Palatka. Survived by wife, son, three daughters, mother, and a sister, Mrs Ethel Goldsberry, of Alpine, Calif.

Harrison Pierce Rich, B.A. 1907.

Born February 5, 1884, in Red Wing, Minn.
Died April 27, 1927, in Portland, Ore

Red Wing High School and Mount Pleasant Academy; also studied under a tutor. Second dispute appointments Junior and Senior years.

Manager of Forest Products Company of Red Wing for a time following his graduation from Yale; was subsequently on a fruit ranch in Dufur, Ore; since 1909 had not been able to engage in any occupation on account of ill health; had traveled widely in search of health, both abroad and in this country; lived in Seattle, Wash, 1910–14, in Walker, Minn., 1914–16, at Three Tree Point on Puget Sound, 1918–1926, and since then in Portland.
Yale College

Took his own life after developing incurable lung trouble as the result of severe asthma, from which he had suffered all his life. Interment in Oakwood Cemetery, Red Wing. Survived by wife, a sister, Mrs. Joseph Dain, Jr., of Moline, Ill., and a brother, Williston C. Rich, of Minneapolis.

Harold Arthur Rosenbaum, B.A. 1907.

Born March 21, 1886, in New York City
Died June 9, 1926, near Offenburg, Germany.

Father, Selig Rosenbaum, former owner of Rothenberg & Company, drygoods merchants in New York City; born in Unsleben, Germany, and came to America in 1873, son of Abraham and Jette (Seligmann) Rosenbaum. Mother, Leonora (Selig) Rosenbaum; daughter of Abraham Selig, who came from Bavaria to New York, and Antoinette (Sapiro) Selig Hotchkiss School. Second dispute appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year, took part in a German play in 1906.

With Brown, Durrell & Company, a hosiery and underwear house in New York City, 1907–09 as stock clerk at first, then as floor salesman, and finally as a city salesman, in spring of 1909 became assistant superintendent of Rothenberg & Company and remained with them a year, became secretary and manager of Barnett Brothers, importers and retailers in New York, in May, 1910, and was made member of the firm on June 1; in 1912 took an eight months' trip around the world on account of poor health; became owner and president of Barnett Brothers about February 1, 1913; sold the business in 1924 and on March 1, 1925, became second vice-president of Felix Brunschwig & Company, Inc., a department store of El Paso, Texas, in their executive offices in New York, where he was associated with Mr. Gaston Coblentz, first vice-president of Central Park West and Columbus Avenue Association, of which he was a charter member and organizer; appointed a Captain in Quartermaster Department, U. S
Army Reserve Corps, June 22, 1925; trustee of Society for Ethical Culture, New York.

Married March 27, 1913, in New York City, Hulda, daughter of Henry and Babette (Born) Lashanska. Two daughters Lenore Babette and Margaret Hulda.

Died suddenly, of acute indigestion, while traveling in Germany with his wife, daughters, and father; was on his way to see his mother, who was living abroad temporarily. Cremation took place on June 11 at Konstans, Germany, and ashes were buried in the Mount Pleasant (N. Y.) Cemetery.

Prescott Dudley, B.A. 1908.

Born September 13, 1888, in Chicago, Ill.
Died July 30, 1926, in Franconia, N H.

Father, Emilus Clark Dudley (B.A. Dartmouth 1873, Yale School of Medicine 1874-75, M.D. Long Island College Hospital 1875, honorary M.A. Iowa College 1892, LL.D. Grinnell 1917); professor of gynecology at Northwestern University; former president of American Gynecological Association; founder of Chicago Medical Review; son of John Harmon and Marana Philinda (Mason) Dudley; descendant of William Dudley, who came from England to Guilford, Conn., in 1638; Mother, Ann Maria (Titcomb) Dudley; daughter of Silas Betton and Mary Jane Gray (King) Titcomb; descendant of William Titcomb, who came from Newbury, Berkshire, England, to Newburyport, Mass., in 1634, ancestors through her paternal grandmother came from Switzerland.

Howard School and South Side Academy, Chicago; also prepared under a private tutor. Member Alpha Delta Phi.

Clerk with Malleable Iron Company of Chicago 1908-09; salesman for Diamond Glue Company of Chicago 1909-10 and for Peter Cooper’s Glue Factory in that city 1910-12, salesman in New York City 1912-15; subsequently became salesman for McCord & Company, railroad supplies, of Chicago, on account of his health spent the winters of 1915-17 in the West and the next winter on a ranch in Colorado; enlisted May 15, 1917, and attended Officers’ Training Camp at Camp Sheridan; commissioned a First Lieutenant of Infantry August 15, 1917, and assigned to 333d Machine Gun Battalion, 86th Division, at Camp Grant; went overseas in September, 1918, and after attending the Machine Gun School near Paris was with 11th Machine Gun Battalion, 4th Division, Army of Occupation, during winter of 1918-19, received his discharge from service April 22, 1919, had since been partner in the firm of Smith & Gallatin, brokers in New York City.

Unmarried.

Death due to tubercular meningitis. Buried in Littleton, N. H. Survived by parents and four sisters, the Misses Katharine and Helen Dudley, of Chicago, and Mrs. Dorothy Dudley Harvey and Mrs. Caroline Dudley Reagan, of New York City.

Walter Richardson, B.A. 1908.

Born June 21, 1885, in Janesville, Wis
Died August 19, 1926, at Miami Beach, Fla

Father, Harris Richardson (B.A. 1881, LL.B. University of Wisconsin 1883), a lawyer, member of firm of Kerr & Richardson of St. Paul, Minn; son of Edwin Ball and Mary Elizabeth (Tenney) Richardson; ancestors came to America from England between 1630 and 1642 and settled at Woburn, Mass. Mother, Mary Kate (Fairchild) Richardson Phillips-Andover. First dispute appointment Junior year, dissertation appointment Senior year; president of Freshman Union; active in work of Oak Street Boys’ Club; contributed to Yale Literary Magazine; member Chi Delta Theta and Psi Upsilon.

LL.B University of Minnesota 1911; practiced independently in Minneapolis 1911-12; then formed a partnership with his father for the practice of law in that city, although his father still remained member of the firm of Richardson & Kerr in St Paul, in 1917 became junior partner in firm of Kerr & Richardson of St. Paul and continued in that connection until winter of 1925, when a nervous breakdown caused him to go east temporarily; in July, 1925, went to Florida and was legal advisor to Flagg & Company of Miami, during the war served as an associate member of Legal Advisory Board.

Took his own life. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Princeton, Mass. Survived by wife, two sons, daughter, father, and a sister, Mrs. Austin Angell, of Wheaton, Ill.

Daniel Lathrop Lawton, B.A. 1909.

Born December 28, 1886, in Albany, N.Y.
Died November 4, 1926, at Saratoga Springs, N.Y.

Father, George Perkins Lawton (B.A. Williams 1868), a lawyer, son of Anthony and Mary (Wilkinson) Lawton; descendant of George Lawton, governor's assistant of Rhode Island in 1685 and 1690 and member of Council of War 1671; descended also from John Coggeshall, 2d, governor's assistant of Providence Plantations in 1663 and deputy governor in 1686 and 1690, from Governor Joseph Jenckes, 3d, of Rhode Island, and, in direct line, from John Alden. Mother, Jeannie Menteith Wilson (Lathrop) Lawton; daughter of Daniel S and Harriet (Wilson) Lathrop; descendant of the Rev. John Lathrop, pastor of First Congregational Church in London, who came to America in 1634 and was first pastor of the church at Scituate, Mass., and one of the first settlers of Barnstable, Mass., in 1639, descended also from Hugh Caulkins, deputy from Gloucester to General Court of Massachusetts Bay 1650 and 1651 and from New London (and later from Norwich) to General Court of Connecticut, from Jacob Jansen Schermerhorn, Indian commissioner under Dutch rule at Magistrate Fort Orange 1656–1674, and from Philip Sherman, founder of the Historical Charter Colony of Portsmouth, R.I., 1638 and one of the original proprietors of the Aquidneck who settled Pocasset.

Berkeley and Nathan Hale schools, New York City. Second dispute appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year, member Yale Yacht Club and Zeta Psi.
Studied law at Columbia 1909–1910 and then at New York Law School (LL.B. 1912), where he became member of Phi Delta Phi, of which he was legal counsellor two years; also studied in law office of Morris & Plante, admitted to New York Bar in 1912 and was associated with Morris & Plante until 1915, when he retired from practice on account of ill health; since that time had not been engaged in active business; member Society of Colonial Wars, Society of the Sons of the Revolution, St Nicholas Society, and Bethesda Episcopal Church, Saratoga Springs

Unmarried.

Took his own life; had been ill for over three years with an incurable malady. Buried in Lathrop-Lawton mausoleum in Albany Cemetery. Was survived by his mother, who died in January, 1927. By the terms of her will the sum of $8,500 was bequeathed to Yale for the establishment of a scholarship in his memory.

Emery Holland Smith, B.A. 1909.

Born June 21, 1886, in Adrian, Mich
Died January 28, 1927, in New York City

Father, Alfred Holland Smith; president of New York Central & Hudson River Railroad Company; son of William and Charlotte (Holland) Smith, who came from England in 1831 and settled at Newburgh, Ohio; descendant of John Smith. Mother, Maude (Emery) Smith; daughter of William Henry and Lydia (Holley) Emery; descendant of John Emery, who came from England to Vermont in the seventeenth century.

University School, Cleveland, Ohio, and The Lyon School, New York City. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Soon after graduation became a partner in metal importing firm of Vivian Bond & Company of New York City and remained in that connection until 1921; had since been president of Merchants Despatch Transportation Company and Merchants Despatch, Inc., New York Central subsidiaries; director of Clearfield Bituminous Coal Corporation, National Railway Express Company, Western Maryland Railroad

Married April 23, 1910, in New York City, Ann, daughter of Isaac and Mary (Williams) Hughes. One daughter, Ann Charlotte

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Kensico Cemetery, Westchester County, N.Y. Survived by wife, daughter, and mother, now Mrs. Howard F. LeBaron Chester Alan Wardwell, B.A. 1909.

Born April 28, 1887, in Haverhill, Mass
Died July 29, 1926, in Boston, Mass

Father, Jacob Otis Wardwell (LL.B Boston University 1879), a lawyer; member of firm of Burdett, Wardwell & Snow of Haverhill and its successors, Burdett & Wardwell, Burdett, Wardwell & Ives, and Burdett, Wardwell & McLeod; member Massachusetts Legislature five years; son of Zenas C. and Adrianna (Pillsbury) Wardwell; descendant of Thomas Wardwell, who came to Boston from England in 1634
Mother, Ella M (Eaton) Wardwell; daughter of Sheldon M. and Delia (Boynton) Eaton, of English ancestry

St. Paul's School, Concord, N.H. Second colloquy appointment Senior year; member Banjo and Mandolin clubs; contributed to Yale Record

Attended Harvard Law School 1909–1910, then entered Boston University Law School (LL.B 1912), where he became member of Gamma Eta Gamma; in office of Burdett, Wardwell & Ives 1912–13, admitted to bar 1913 and with legal department of Boston Elevated Railway two years; then returned to his father's firm and remained with them until he entered service; assistant Lawyers' Preparedness Committee of Boston November, 1917–January, 1918; assistant to officer in charge of the draft at Adjutant General's office, Boston, January–May, 1918; member 1st Motor Corps, Massachusetts State Guard, from 1917 to enlistment; enlisted as a Private in 301st Infantry May 22, 1918, and assigned to 76th Division at Camp Devens; went overseas with that organization in July, was made a Corporal in August, and in October was transferred to Officers’ Training School at Langres, where he remained until the armistice; assigned to 42d Division and served with 12th Company, Infantry Replacement Unit, at Montrichard and Contres until March, 1919; then with Headquarters Company, 1st Replacement Depot, at St Aignan three months, received his discharge at Camp Mills June 19, 1919; insurance broker associated with Patterson, Wylde & Windeler of Boston from 1920 until his last illness; member Episcopal Church, Brookline, Mass.

Married April 25, 1916, in Winnetka, Ill, Henrietta Mae, daughter of Frank Ogden and Florence (Quick) Magie. Children: Henrietta Mae and Mary Florence

Death, due to peritonitis, occurred at Deaconess Hospital, Boston, after a long illness Buried in Lynnwood Cemetery, Haverhill. Survived by wife, two daughters, father, and a brother, Sheldon E. Wardwell, ’04.

Steuart Lansing Pittman, B.A. 1912.

Born August 10, 1888, in Detroit, Mich
Died January 30, 1927, in Detroit, Mich

Father, Lansing Mizner Pittman; founder of Pittman & Dean Company (coal and ice) of Detroit, son of Samuel Emlen and Mary (Mizner) Pittman Mother, Annette Phelps (Steuart) Pittman, daughter of William Donaldson and Mathilda (Montell) Steuart; descendant of George H Steuart, who came to this country from Scotland in 1643 and settled in Maryland.

Flushing (N. Y.) High School and Phillips-Andover Member Apollo and University Banjo and Mandolin clubs, Freshman and University Basketball teams, Class Baseball Team, Sophomore German Committee, Junior Promenade Committee (treasurer), Class Supper Committee, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key

Director and superintendent of Pittman & Dean Company 1912-19; secretary, treasurer, and a director of Keane, Higbie & Company, investment bankers, since 1919, active in organization of Guardian Trust Company in 1924, becoming vice-president and a director and continuing as such until his death; director of Jefferson Savings Bank of Grosse Pointe Park and of Community Union; member of executive committee of Michigan Children's Aid Society; member Business Men's Training Battalion for two years; enlisted in 328th Field Artillery September 6, 1917, and made Corporal September 20, commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Signal Corps December 18 and promoted to First Lieutenant, Air Service, Aircraft Production, August 19, 1918; stationed at Camp Custer, Mich., and later in Washington, D. C., until his discharge February 1, 1919; president of Country Club of Grosse Pointe 1921; had been secretary of Detroit Country Club and a director of University Club of Detroit; vice-president Associated Western Yale Clubs 1921–22; president Michigan Yale Alumni Association 1923–25; member Christ Episcopal Church, Detroit.
Obituary Record

Death due to acute pulmonary inflammation. Buried in Elmwood Cemetery, Detroit. Survived by wife, two sons, two daughters, mother (now Mrs. Homer C. Wise), a brother, Ernest W. Pittman, '12; and a half brother, John C. Wise, '23 S

Frederic Lazier Walters, B.A. 1912.

Born July 29, 1888, in Belleville, Ontario, Canada
Died March 8, 1927, in New York City

Father, Harry Walters, a merchant; born in London and came to America in 1873, settling in Montreal, Canada. Mother, Philone (Lazier) Walters; daughter of John and Sarah (Doxsee) Lazier; descendant of Jacobus R. Lazier, who came to this country from France during the persecution of the Huguenots and settled at Yonkers, N. Y.

Churchville (N. Y.) High School. Entered Yale with Class of 1911 but left college at end of Freshman year; during 1908-09 was engaged in traveling for Foster-Milburn Company of Buffalo; reentered college in 1909 as a Sophomore with Class of 1912; first colloquy appointment Senior year.

Reporter for Rochester (N. Y.) Herald 1912-13 and for City News Association of New York City and Buffalo Enquirer 1913-14; telegraph editor of Rochester Democrat & Chronicle 1914-17; enlisted in Canadian Mounted Rifles September 28, 1917, at Hamilton, Ontario; later transferred to 58th Canadian Infantry, with which he went overseas November 1, 1917; stationed at various places in England and France and saw action at Amiens and Arras, being wounded in the latter engagement; returned to America May 14, 1919, and received his discharge two days later; on staff of American Legion Weekly July-September, 1919; was subsequently reporter for Cleveland Plain Dealer until about March, 1920, and then rewrite man for New York Evening Mail, Daily News, New York Evening Post, and Brooklyn Daily Eagle at various times until about eight months before his death; had since been in charge of newspaper publicity for Western Electric Company in New York; had contributed to Life.

Unmarried.

Death, due to pneumonia, occurred at St Vincent’s Hospital, New York. Buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Buffalo. Survived by mother and a brother, Maurice B. Walters, '13 S

Louis Shelton Middlebrook, B.A. 1915.

Born December 15, 1892, in Bridgeport, Conn
Died March 10, 1927, in New York City.

Father, Albert James Middlebrook, a steel manufacturer; son of Louis Nathaniel Middlebrook, Captain of 1st Connecticut Volunteer Cavalry in Civil War, and Juliette (Tomlinson) Middlebrook; grandson of Lieutenant Robert Middlebrook, who served in the War of 1812; great-grandson of Stephen Middlebrook, a soldier in the Revolutionary War; great-great-grandson of Captain Stephen Middlebrook of the Revolutionary Army; descendant of Joseph Middlebrook, who came to America from England in 1635 and settled at Concord, Mass., moving with others to the Fairfield Colony of Connecticut in 1644. Mother, Isabel (Shelton) Middlebrook; daughter of George Pierce Shelton, who was appointed adjutant general of Connecticut in 1847 and elected a state senator in 1850, and Mary (Webster) Shelton; sister of the late Brigadier General George H. Shelton (U. S. Military Academy 1896), who served in the Spanish and World wars, and was awarded posthumously the Distinguished Service Medal and the Legion of Honor; descendant of Roswel Shelton Cousins: Robert B. Middlebrook, ’78 L., Robert Middlebrook, ’07, and Louis F Middlebrook, Jr., ’26 S.

Bridgeport High School and Phillips-Andover. First colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years; played center field on University Baseball Nine three years and was captain in 1915, member Senior Council, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Studied law at Columbia from 1915 until June 28, 1917, when he enlisted in the Yale Mobile Hospital Unit, with which he went overseas August 23; commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Field Artillery November 20, 1917, and served with 146th Field Artillery, 66th Brigade, from December 19, 1917, until his discharge June 23, 1919; saw service at St-Mihiel and in the Meuse-Argonne, was slightly wounded on November 1, and was promoted to First Lieutenant November 25, 1918; subsequently resumed his law studies at Columbia (LL B 1920); practiced law with Masten & Nichols in New York City 1920–22, had since been assistant to the president of the Oxford Paper Company of New York; member baseball committee of Graduate Board of Control, Yale Athletic Association, 1921; member St John’s Protestant Episcopal Church, Bridgeport

Unmarried

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Mountain Grove Cemetery, Bridgeport. Survived by father and two brothers, Harry T Middlebrook, ’16 S, and Albert J. Middlebrook, Jr., ex-’29
Willard Holmes Eckman, B.A. 1916.

Born August 21, 1894, in Wilmington, Del.
Died July 4, 1926, at Colorado Springs, Colo.

Father, Aument Eckman, a contractor and builder; son of Martin F. and Rebecca (Howett) Eckman; descendant of Hieronymus Eckman, who came to America from Sweden before 1710 and settled near Williamstown, Pa. Mother, Margaret Anne (O'Neal) Eckman; foster daughter of John A. and Sarah (Andrews) Holmes, of Oxford, Pa.

Friends' School, Wilmington. Second dispute appointments Junior and Senior years, member Freshman Basketball Team and University Basketball and Track squads.

Assistant to head of schedule and order department of E. I. duPont deNemours & Company at their Arlington (N. J.) plant 1916-17; commissioned as a Second Lieutenant, Quartermaster Corps, August 15, 1917, at Officers' Training Camp, Fort Myer, Va.; stationed at first at Camp Johnston, Fla., and later at Camp Lee, Va., with 80th Division until March, 1918; then Assistant Material Control Officer, in charge of material control shipping for New England, at Boston until September, with rank of First Lieutenant from May 15, 1918; was then ordered to Camp Merritt; at time of armistice was at Hoboken, N. J., waiting to go overseas; received his discharge there December 2, assistant to works manager of W. H. Machine Works at Whitinsville, Mass., until April, 1919, when obliged to give up his position on account of ill health; assistant to secretary of Bilton Machine Tool Company of Bridgeport, Conn., 1920–21; executive secretary for a committee of board of directors of United Security Life Insurance & Trust Company of Philadelphia 1921–22; statistician for Laird, Bissell & Meeds, investment bankers, of Wilmington 1922–23; in January, 1924, went to Colorado on account of failing health; secretary of Yale Alumni Association of Delaware 1923–24.

Married September 4, 1919, at Saranac Lake, N. Y., Florence, daughter of James Franklin and Emma Louise (Cutting) Bigelow, of Marlboro, Mass. One son, James Bigelow.

Death due to tuberculosis. Buried in Denver, Colo.
Survived by wife, son, mother, two sisters, the Misses Jeannette and Emma Eckman, and a brother, Charles A. Eckman, all of Wilmington

Born January 27, 1895, in Auburn, Nebr
Died January 13, 1927, in New York City.

Mercersburg Academy First colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years; member Alpha Delta Phi.

Enlisted as a Private in the Medical Corps June 27, 1917; assigned to Base Hospital No 1; went overseas February 25, 1918, transferred to Headquarters Company and made a Corporal September 10; advanced to Sergeant November 1 and to Sergeant (1st Class) January 1, 1919; released from active duty May 8, returned to the United States June 9, and received his discharge June 14, 1919; studied at Columbia Law School 1919-1922; admitted to New York State Bar in January, 1923; associated with the law firm of Root, Clark, Buckner & Howland and its successor, Root, Clark, Howland & Ballantine, in New York City since 1923; member of the Episcopal Church in Auburn.

Unmarried.

Born August 2, 1895, in Brooklyn, N.Y.
Died May 28, 1926, at Saranac Lake, N.Y.

Father, Daniel Christopher Lucey; born in County Cork, Ireland; came to America in 1866, salesman for Armour Packing Company, and lived in Cortland, N.Y.; son of Dennis and Mary (Healy) Lucey. Mother, Rose Anna (Gallagher) Lucey; born in Rossemor, Ireland; came to this country from County Leitrim, Ireland, in 1884; daughter of Thomas and Annie (O’Rourke) Gallagher.

Bridgeport (Conn ) High School. Dissertation appointment Junior year and scholar of the first rank; high oration appointment and Townsend Premium Senior year; member of Dramatic Association, taking parts in "Quentin Durward" and "Troilus and Cressida"; member Class Basketball Team and Psi Upsilon.

Engaged in tutoring in Duluth, Minn , June–September, 1917; then taught at University School, Cleveland, Ohio, for four months; during that time studied law at Western Reserve University; enlisted as Quartermaster (3d Class) in U. S. Naval Reserve Force January 6, 1918; commissioned Ensign August 10; transport duty on U S S. "Orizaba" from August to December, 1918; then engaged in repatriation of French prisoners between Copenhagen, Rotterdam, and Cherbourg until his discharge March 3, 1919; bond salesman for Harris, Forbes & Company in New York City 1919–1920, for Strother, Brogden & Company of Baltimore, Md , 1921–23, and for Colston, Heald & Trail (George A. Colston, ’98, and Daniel A. Heald, ’12) in Baltimore from 1924 until his death; member Sacred Heart Roman Catholic Church, Bridgeport.

Unmarried.

Death due to tuberculosis Buried in St Thomas’ Cemetery, Bridgeport. His mother survives him.

Fayette Samuel Curtis, Jr., B.A. 1918.

Born February 13, 1896, in Danbury, Conn
Died November 4, 1926, in Otowi, N Mex

Father, Wallace Bishop Curtis, an expert accountant; son of Fayette Samuel and Mary (Bishop) Curtis; descendant of William Curtis, who came to America from England and settled at Roxbury, Mass. Mother, Leila May (Forbes) Curtis; daughter of Alexander W. and Jane (Tuttle) Forbes; descendant of Samuel Forbes, who came from Scotland in 1700 and settled in East Haven, Conn
Obituary Record

Taft School First McLaughlin Prize Freshman year; high oration appointments Junior and Senior years; captain of Freshman Fencing Team 1915, member University Fencing Team 1916-17 and captain 1918; winner of Bartoli prize foils, member Freshman Triangular Debating Team 1915; associate member Dramatic Association; recording secretary Cosmopolitan Club 1917.

Since graduation had been headmaster of Los Alamos Ranch School, which was founded by Ashley Pond, ex-’96 S, in Buckman, N. Mex, but which has been located in Otowi since 1918, and also secretary and treasurer of its board of directors; had also been engaged in collecting photographs of Indian pictographs, studying Greek and archaeology, translating from the Spanish the first history of New Mexico, studying local Spanish dialect and social customs of Spanish-Americans and Indians and their agricultural customs and methods, and acting in plays which were produced by the Santa Fé Fiesta, of which he was assistant dramatic director; author of a play, El Conejo, which was published in El Palacio, the journal of the Museum of New Mexico, in 1919 and produced by the community theatre, of a catalogue of the Borrowdale collection of weapons, and of articles in New Mexico Journal of Education and in Southwest Review; member Episcopal Church.

Married June 16, 1926, in Santa Fé, Rosa Margaret, daughter of Lindsay Cole and Anna Rachael (Fox) Parker, of London, England.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in the forest at Otowi. Survived by wife and mother.

Robert Leslie Terrill, B.A. 1919.

Born June 1, 1897, in Newtown, Conn.
Drowned June 5, 1927, in Long Island Sound.

Father, Mortimer Beach Terrill, a clerk in Ansonia (Conn.) Savings Bank; son of Henry Botsford and Delia (Fairchild) Terrill; descendant of Roger Terrill, who came to America from England in 1637 and settled at Milford, Conn. Mother, Ellen Lucy (Clark) Terrill; daughter of Robert Adams and Emeline (Blackman) Clark; descendant of James Clark, who came to New Haven from England in 1637.

Ansonia High School Second colloquy appointment, Junior year; Charles H. Pine Scholar three years, associate member of Yale Dramatic Association and took part in "Troilus and Cressida."

Enlisted as a Private in the Signal Corps September 18, 1918, and attended School for Officer Candidates at Yale until December (member of 3d Service Company), then served as Sergeant in 13th Service Company at Camp Vail, N. J., until his discharge March 7, 1919; commissioned a Second Lieutenant in Signal Officers' Reserve Corps, assistant in Yale Bureau of Appointments August, 1919–January, 1920; then with advertising department of Colgate & Company in Jersey City, N. J., until April, 1925; had since been engaged in research work with Association of National Advertisers, Inc., in New York City, member Christ Episcopal Church, Ansonia.

Unmarried

Drowned in Long Island Sound, when the sloop in which he and two other members of the Manhasset Bay Yacht Club were sailing capsized in a squall; one of his companions, Lowell F. Stoner, a Dartmouth graduate, also lost his life, but the other, Basil H. Pillard, Yale '17, was rescued. The body was recovered June 15 and buried in Pine Grove Cemetery, Ansonia. Survived by parents, two brothers, Mortimer C. Terrill, '09, and Herbert W. Terrill, of Ansonia, and three sisters, Miss Edna Clark Terrill, of South Manchester, Conn., Miss Grace F. Terrill, of Ansonia, and Helen Terrill Vidal, the wife of Howard A. Vidal, '06 S.
Charles Holt, Ph.B. 1865.
Born April 21, 1846, in Baltimore, Md.
Died April 25, 1927, in New York City.

Father, Dan Holt, a merchant; son of Philemon and Desire (Smith) Holt, descendant in the sixth generation of William Holt, who came to America from England about 1640 and settled in New Haven in 1644. Mother, Ann Eve (Siebold) Holt; daughter of Philip and Rachael (deHasse) Siebold; ancestors came from Wurttemberg to Pennsylvania about 1776. Yale relatives include: Henry Holt, '62 (brother); Roland Holt, '90; Walter T. Ives, '90; and Sherwood B. Ives, '93 (nephews); and Edwin H. English, ex-'75, Charles L. English, '10, Edwin H. English, ex-'16 S, and Frank K. English, ex-'20 S (cousins).

General Russell's Collegiate and Commercial Institute. General course, member Berzelius.

In a publishing office 1866–68; engaged in manufacturing 1869–1875, partner with his brother (who later became its president) in firm of Henry Holt & Company, publishers, 1875–1903; since then had not been engaged in any active business.

Married November 18, 1868, in New Haven, Ellen Julia, daughter of William A. and Julia (Root) Ives, and sister of Brayton Ives, '61. One son, Dorsay Ives.

Death due to lung trouble with complications. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife.

Wedworth Wadsworth, Ph.B. 1867.
Born June 22, 1846, in Buffalo, N Y
Died October 21, 1926, in Durham, Conn.

Father, James Wadsworth (B A 1841), a lawyer; city attorney and mayor of Buffalo; state senator; son of Wedworth and Content (Scranton) Wadsworth; nephew of James Wadsworth (B A 1787); grandnephew of James Wadsworth (B.A.

Mount Washington Collegiate Institute, New York City. Member Undine Boat Club and Book and Snake

Spent some years in the custom house in New York following his graduation; studied art under the influence of the English school of water colorists directly from nature and without masters; had traveled, sketched, and written in Spain, France, Egypt, and the Holy Land; had exhibited his work in many cities of this country and in Paris and Munich; was a landscape painter in pure aquarelle, most of his work being done in Durham; had been secretary of Brooklyn Art Club and was member of many New York art societies, author: Under the Greenwood Tree with Shakespeare, Through Wood and Field with Tennyson, Leaves from an Artist's Field Book, A Winter's Walk with Cowper, and Illustrations to the "Song of the Brook"; member of Durham Congregational Church.

Death due to pneumonia Buried in Durham. Survived by a sister, Mrs. Frances Wadsworth Cauchois, of New York City.
Obituary Record

Clarence Augustus Warren, Ph.B. 1870.

Born December 22, 1846, in Louisville, Ky.
Died December 11, 1926, in Louisville, Ky

Presbyterian College for Boys, Louisville, and Louisville Male High School Civil engineering course; member Scientific Baseball Club

After graduation became engaged in wholesale boot and shoe business with L L Warren & Company and traveled through the southern states for about fifteen years, city solicitor for Louisville Insurance Company for a number of years; engaged in the insurance business with Brown & Martin during the last two or three years of his life; member Sons of the American Revolution and Warren Memorial Presbyterian Church, Louisville Married November 20, 1873, in Louisville, Cora Olive, daughter of Dr. John Edward Sutcliffe and Frances (Herr) Sutcliffe. Children: John Sutcliffe, Francis Wood; Levi Legg; and Frances Sutcliffe (Mrs. William Caldwell Cross). Mrs. Warren died April 21, 1924.

Death due to the infirmities of age. Interment in Cave Hill Cemetery, Louisville. Survived by four children and two brothers, the Rev. Edward L. Warren (B.A. Central College 1873 and Princeton 1874, D.D. Central 1888) and Cary I. Warren, and a sister, Mrs. Benjamin F. Atchison, all of Louisville.
Henry Bradford Sargent, Ph.B. 1871.

Born March 4, 1851, in New York City
Died February 3, 1927, in New Haven, Conn

Hillhouse High School. Chemical course; second lieutenant Undine Boat Club Junior year and first lieutenant Senior year, pulled bow oar on its six-oared crew; in 1871 personally built the sliding oars used in winning the spring races, the first ever used in a Yale rowing shell, captain Scientific Baseball Club; member Class Dinner Committee and Book and Snake; honorary member Aurelian Honor Society, in 1870 member of Professor Othniel C Marsh's paleontological expedition west of the Mississippi.

Immediately after graduation became connected with Sargent & Company as general inspector of product and in a short time was made assistant superintendent, became vice-president of the company in 1887 and had been president since 1917; trustee and a corporator of National Savings Bank 1906–07, director of City Bank from 1904 until its consolidation with New Haven and County banks in 1915 and since then a director of New Haven Bank; vice-president New Haven County Employers Association, director of Organized Charities of New Haven 1888–1900; original member of board of incorporators of New Haven Community Chest in.
1921, a director 1921–25, and member of executive committee of the campaign organization 1921–26; director New Haven Dispensary and New Haven Chamber of Commerce, councilman 1883–85; member of board of Ethel Walker School in Simsbury, Conn, for ten years and chairman of board for the past few years, member of Yale Corporation 1902–1920; graduate member Yale University Athletic Committee 1878–1912, serving as its secretary for many years; treasurer and a director of Yale Field Corporation 1880–1899; secretary of Class of 1871 S since graduation; honorary M.A. Yale 1907; member American Society of Mechanical Engineers since 1898 and vice-president of the society 1918–1920; served on many committees, took an active part in the founding and operation of the New Haven section, and was interested in the New Haven Machine Tool Exhibition; member Connecticut Academy of Arts and Sciences, Franklin Institute of Philadelphia, and Century Association of New York.

Married December 4, 1879, in New Haven, Harriet Amelia, daughter of Charles Henry and Rhoda (Miles) Oaks, and sister of Henry A Oaks, '75. Children: Elizabeth Collier; Ziegler, '03; Rhoda Miles (Mrs. Tilney); Murray, '05; and Bradford (died in childhood).

Death, due to septicæmia, occurred after an illness of only a few days. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, two daughters, two sons, six grandchildren, one of whom is Bradford S Tilney, '30, stepmother, four sisters, Ellen S Fenn, the wife of Bruce Fenn, '77 S., May S Rice, the wife of William A Rice, '86 S., Margaret S Fisher, the wife of Samuel H. Fisher, '89, and Miss Laura Sargent, of New Haven, and four brothers, Edward R Sargent, '80 S., G Lewis and Joseph D. Sargent, both '81 S., and John Sargent, '94 S. Another brother, Russell Sargent, '84 S., died in 1904.

William Allen Cowles, Ph.B. 1873.

Born December 22, 1852, in Montgomery, Ala.
Died September 3, 1926, in Washington, D.C.

Father, George Cowles, a merchant in Montgomery; son of Roswell Cowles, who served as Ensign, Lieutenant, and Captain of Connecticut Militia in the War of 1812, and Laura (Brooks) Cowles; descendant of John Cowles, who came from England to Farmington, Conn., in 1635. Mother, Ellen Wheelwright (Tyler) Cowles; daughter of Abraham and Susan Giddings (Tyler) Tyler; of English ancestry, descendant of Job Tyler, of Andover, Mass.

Attended a military preparatory school in Racine, Wis., and General Russell’s Collegiate and Commercial Institute, New Haven. Civil engineering course.

Assistant in office of New Haven city surveyor for a short time after graduating from Yale; then became a topographer with U. S. Geological and Geographical Survey west of the 100th Meridian (known as the “Wheeler Expedition”), while carrying out some triangulation operations in the Sierra Nevada near the head of the Carson River, Calif., in 1877, was caught in a rock slide and had both legs seriously crushed and broken; after more than a year was able to work again, although unable to engage in field work; returned to Washington, D. C., about 1879 and was appointed from the state of Connecticut as clerk in the General Land Office July 1 of that year and had charge of mining claims until July, 1884, when he transferred to the Patent Office; remained with that office as one of the principal examiners until 1923, when obliged to retire from all active work because of disability, attended the Episcopal Church; member Sons of the American Revolution

Unmarried

Death due to acute nephritis. Buried in Walnut Grove Cemetery, Meriden, Conn. Survived by a brother, John T Cowles, of Wantagh, N. Y., and two sisters, Mrs. Frank S. Hicks, of Wantagh, and Mrs. Albert F. Skinner, of Washington, D. C.

Robert Jaffray, Ph.B. 1873.

Born July 4, 1854, in New Rochelle, N. Y.
Died October 15, 1926, in New York City

Father, Robert Jaffray, a banker; son of Robert and Rebecca Champlin (Dexter) Jaffray, who came to America from London about 1800 and settled in New York. Mother, Eliza Catharine (Smith) Jaffray; daughter of Albert and Emily (Meier) Smith; descendant of Richard Smith, who came to this country from England about 1666 and settled at East Lyme, Conn.

Farrand School, New York City. Select course; prize in French Senior year; member Book and Snake.

Since graduation had been engaged in trade with West Coast of South America; employed by Fabbri & Chauncey, importers and exporters, 1873–1883, when the firm was liquidated; subsequently associated with various other exporting houses until 1891; had since been connected with firm of Hemenway & Browne and its successors, Beeche, Duval & Company and Wessel, Duval & Company, being admitted to partnership in firm in 1905; retired from active management in January, 1923, but remained as a special partner; trustee and member of board of governors of New York Skin and Cancer Hospital; director of Union Settlement Association, member of council of Grolier Club of New York for nearly twenty years and treasurer since 1910; former director of the Manuscript Society (a musical organization), Secretary of Class of 1873 S since graduation; president of Yale Association of Class Secretaries 1911–14; in 1922 elected a governor of Yale Publishing Association for term of five years; author: Iona, the Sacred Isle (1907) and The Two Knights of the Swan, Lohengrin and Helyas (1910); contributed an article on the Sheffield Scientific School to The University Magazine for April, 1892 (later reprinted in pamphlet form), member New York Historical Society, New York Zoological Society, and Grace Episcopal Church, New York.

Married October 7, 1880, Lydia Butler, daughter of George and Elizabeth Frances (Benson) Griffin, of Catskill, N. Y. No children.

Death due to pernicious anæmia. Buried in Beechwood Cemetery, New Rochelle. Survived by wife and a sister, Miss Emily Meier Jaffray, of New York City (died March 16, 1927) By the terms of his will a bequest of $5,000 was left to Yale for the maintenance and extension of the University Library and the University will eventually receive about one-tenth of his residuary estate.
Edward Jasper Francke, Ph.B. 1876.

Born January 6, 1856, in Mantanzas, Cuba
Died November 21, 1926, in Orange, N. J.

Attended schools in England, final preparatory training received at General Russell’s Collegiate and Commercial Institute, New Haven. Chemical course; member Alpha Chi Spent first two years after graduation in travel; was then a clerk in his father's business house in Havana until the latter's death in 1886, in sugar commission business with his brothers, Joaquin J. Francke, '77 S, and Luis J Francke, Columbia ex-'83, under firm name of Francke Hijos & Company, planters and exporters of Cuban sugars, from 1886 until his retirement from active business in 1916 (became head of the firm 1894); consul general for Sweden and Norway at Havana 1888–1901; member Episcopal Church.

Married September 28, 1918, in New York City, Elizabeth A Frantz, of Flushing, N. Y. They were separated some years ago.

Death, due to apoplexy, occurred at the Orange Memorial Hospital. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by a sister, Miss Rosalie Francke, of New York City, and three brothers, Luis J. Francke, of Glen Head, N. Y, Richard T. Francke, '86, and Albert Francke, '91 S. His brother, Joaquin J. Francke, died in 1894. He had three other brothers: Pedro F Francke, ex-'87 S (died in 1919), Leopold J. Francke, '89 (died in 1902), and Robert O. Francke (died in 1923).

William Stanley Hine, Ph.B. 1877.

Born March 7, 1853, in Bridgeport, Conn.
Died March 16, 1927, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, Henry Marsh Hine, a wholesale grocer, grandson of Amos Hine, who was appointed district attorney for Vermont Prepared under a private tutor. Civil engineering course; class historian Freshman year, an editor of Yale Record Senior year, member Sheffield Glee Club and Octette and Theta Xi.

Engaged in the publishing business in Buffalo, N. Y., and New York City 1877-1888; was subsequently connected with various electric companies; with United States Electric Lighting Company and Westinghouse Electric Company 1888-1894, president and treasurer of Wallace Electric Company of Chicago 1894-99; sales engineer for Western Electric Company of Chicago 1899-1905 and in Chicago office of Fort Wayne Electric Works for a number of years, in 1911, having served as director of the small parks of Lincoln Park System of Chicago, became manager of Seward Park, a playground of the system, and had since been active in athletic, recreational, and community center work; at time of death was director of Armour Square playground of South Park System; had been active in the work of Americanization and promotion of community spirit and had served for fourteen years as an active volunteer leader of the Commission on Immigration and Citizenship of the Y. M. C. A.; was tenor soloist in Madison Square Presbyterian Church, New York City, for a number of years, and had also been a member of choirs of First Presbyterian Church, Chicago, First Presbyterian Church, Lake View, Ill., and First Baptist Church, Evanston, Ill.; was active in Chicago Civic Association and Lower North Community Council for many years; member Second Church of Christ, Scientist, Chicago.

Married (1) May 14, 1879, in Bridgeport, Annie Louise, daughter of William Bowen Dyer Children: Louise (died in Death, due to calcified prostate gland, occurred at the Augustana Hospital, Chicago. Buried in Graceland Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife, three sons, one daughter, and two sisters, Miss Lucy J. Hine, of Berlin, Germany, and Miss Sarah Hine.

Frederick Beckwith Jillson, Ph.B. 1878.

Born July 21, 1854, in Whitehall, N. Y.
Died October 25, 1926, in Troy, N. Y.

Father, Nathan Taylor Jillson; vice-president of Lake Champlain Transportation Company; son of Joseph and Anne (Chapin) Jillson; descendant of William Jillson, who came from England to Scituate, Mass., in 1633. Mother, Betsey (Beckwith) Jillson; daughter of Dr. Baruch Beckwith and Lucy (Mather) Beckwith.

Greylock Institute, Williamstown, Mass. Agricultural course; member Graduation Committee and Delta Psi.

For several years after graduation was engaged in business at Whitehall with his father in the Lake Champlain Transportation Company; in 1896 took part, as one of the trustees, in the incorporation from American Chain Cable Works of the J. B. Carr Company of Troy, manufacturers of cables and chains; became secretary and treasurer of the company and moved to Troy in 1898; in 1903 severed his connection with that company and was one of the founders of the Troy Fire Proofing Company, of which he was secretary until 1920, when failing health necessitated his retirement; had suffered from attacks of the tic douloureux for twenty years, member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Troy.

Married February 6, 1894, in Troy, Katherine Lillian, daughter of Rice Cook and Katherine (Johnson) Bull. One son, Ralph Mather, a non-graduate member of the Columbia Class of 1924.
Obituary Record

Death due to pernicious anaemia. Buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Troy. Survived by wife, son, a sister, Mrs. David F. Dobie, of Plattsburg, N. Y., and a brother, Henry Chapin Jillson, of Whitehall.

Willey Solon McCrea, Ph.B. 1880.

Born April 12, 1858, in Morrison, Ill.
Died May 27, 1927, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, Samuel Harkness McCrea; engaged in grain commission business with S. H. McCrea & Company; an alderman and park commissioner of Chicago; treasurer of Cook County, Ill., and president of Chicago Board of Trade; son of William and Mary (Harkness) McCrea, both of whom were born in Ireland, lived in Moneymore, County Londonderry, and, after coming to America, in Goshen, N. Y., and later in Brighton, N. Y. Mother, Coralinn Isabella (Johnson) McCrea; daughter of Daniel and Rachel (Willey) Johnson. Nephew, Samuel H. McCrea, 3d, ex-'14 S.

Chicago High School and Cecil Barnes' School, Chicago. Select course; an editor of Tale Record; member Sheffield Baseball Team, Alpha Chi, and Book and Snake; vice-president of Linonia.

Engaged in the grain and provision business in Chicago and elsewhere as president of firm of W. S. McCrea & Company 1880-1898; treasurer of Peoples Gas Light & Coke Company, Chicago, from 1898 until his retirement in 1917.

Married (1) in October, 1884, in Chicago, Alice, daughter of Amos J. and Henrietta Snell. Children: Snell (died October 2, 1920) and Henrietta Alice (Mrs. Marcus Aurelius Goodrich) Mr. and Mrs. McCrea were divorced. Married (2) in 1891, Reinette Thompson Lester, daughter of A. C. Thompson, of Peoria, Ill. Mrs. McCrea died February 22, 1916. Married (3) December 31, 1921, in Chicago, Vera, daughter of Simon and Frances (Themar) Danford No children by second or third marriage.

Death due to cancer of the spine. Buried in Rose Hill Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife, daughter, and a brother, S. Harkness McCrea, '88 S
John Moorhead, Jr., Ph.B. 1880.

Born April 28, 1859, in Pittsburgh, Pa

Father, John Moorhead, an iron merchant and private banker; organized Exchange National Bank of Pittsburgh in 1836 and was a director of other banks and numerous corporations; son of Joseph and Jane (McElhose) Moorhead; descendant of Turner Moorhead, who came to America from Scotland early in the seventeenth century and settled in North Carolina. Mother, Annie C. (Turner) Moorhead; daughter of Samuel and Katherine Turner. Nephews: John U. Moorhead, '08 S., and Horace R. Moorhead, Jr., '29.

Attended preparatory department of Western University of Pennsylvania 1873-75 and then Phillips-Andover four months; completed preparatory training at Hopkins Grammar School. Entered Sheffield Scientific School with Class of 1879 but received degree in 1880; chemistry course; member Freshman Football and Baseball teams, University Football and Track teams (winner of 100 and 220 yard dash and ball throw), and Book and Snake.

After graduation became engaged in the iron and steel business in Pittsburgh as junior partner and a director of firm of Moorhead, Brother & Company, Inc., owners of the Vesuvius Iron Works at Sharpsburg, Pa, since 1881 had been president of the company, of which his brother, Frank T. Moorhead, '78 S., was a member from 1880 to 1895; vice-president of Exchange National Bank of Pittsburgh since 1910 and a director since 1889; director of Standard Underground Cable Company since 1891; represented Yale Club of Pittsburgh on Alumni Advisory Board 1923-24, member Sons of the Revolution; vestryman and senior warden of Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church, Pittsburgh.

Married April 7, 1881, in Chicago, Ill, Anne Donaldson, daughter of John and Margaret (Merten) Alston. Children: John Alston, '04; Gordon (died in childhood); Turner Donaldson, ex-'10; Anne Katherine (died in 1907); and Margaret Alice, the wife of Henry O. Rea, ex-'18.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Allegheny Cemetery, Pittsburgh. Survived by wife, two sons, daughter, four grandchildren, a brother, Horace R. Moorhead, of New York City, and a sister, Mrs. William J. Holland, of Pittsburgh.

George Sherman Folsom, Ph.B. 1881.

Born December 21, 1858, in Springfield, Mass.
Died November 24, 1926, in Portland, Ore.

Father, the Rev. George DeForest Folsom (B.A. 1845); attended Yale Divinity School and graduated at Union Theological Seminary 1849; a Congregational minister with pastorates in Massachusetts, Connecticut, and California; son of Joseph Robinson and Elizabeth (Winship) Folsom; descendant of John Folsom [Foulsham], who came from Hingham, England, in 1638 and settled in Hingham, Mass. Mother, Susan Benjamin (Curtis) Folsom; daughter of Munson G. and Phebe (Macomber) Curtis; ancestors settled in Bath, Maine. Brothers: Joseph R. Folsom, '69 S., and Wallace L. Folsom, ex-72 S.

Williston Academy. Select course; prize in English Senior year; member Berzelius.

After graduation entered employ of Union Iron Works in San Francisco, Calif., as paymaster, made general bookkeeper in 1883 and held that position until the company was sold; in 1906 and 1907 bought wool for the Boston market, with his headquarters in Salt Lake City, Utah; connected with Visitation House Building & Loan Association in San Francisco from 1907 until 1913, when he went to Portland; on August 1, 1913, entered the employ of Portland Gas & Coke Company (formerly Portland Gas Company) in the stores accounting bureau; in April, 1918, made paymaster and held that position until October, 1920; was then transferred to the general office as assistant auditor of that company and also of Pacific Power & Light Company, an affiliated company, and continued in that position until his death; member Congregational Church.

Married February 22, 1911, in San Francisco, Genevieve Valane, daughter of Frederick and Caroline (Eddy) Berens. No children.
Death, due to arteriosclerosis, followed an illness of four weeks. Buried in Riverview Cemetery, Portland. His wife survives him.

Charles Sumner Brown, Ph.B. 1883.

Born August 23, 1860, in East Hampton, Conn.
Died August 31, 1926, in Woodmont, Conn.

Hopkins Grammar School. Entered Sheffield Scientific School with Class of 1880, but left at end of Freshman year; was then with his father's firm in East Hampton until 1880, when he reentered Yale with Class of 1883 S.; mechanical engineering course; member Sheffield Baseball Team, a Sheffield tennis team Senior year, Alpha Chi, and Chi Phi.

Superintendent of his father's factory 1883-84; construction engineer for Blake Crusher Company of New Haven 1884-87, during which time was engaged in construction of the Hale Gold Mine in South Carolina, in the design of an iron ore crushing and concentrating plant for Chateaugay Ore & Iron Company of Lyon Mountain, N. Y., and in erection of a mill for crushing zinc and lead at Webb City, Mo; engineer for a cable railroad in Kansas City, Mo., 1887-88; during next eight years connected with Rose Polytechnic Institute, Terre Haute, Ind., serving as an instructor one year and then as professor of steam engineering and machine design and as superintendent of the workshops; since 1896 had been pro-
Professor of mechanical engineering at Vanderbilt University, during which period he invented a number of mechanical devices which are now being manufactured; was also a consulting engineer in mechanical and electrical lines, serving as consulting engineer for State Board of Prison Commissioners, expert for city of Knoxville, Tenn., and supervising engineer for Nashville, Tenn.; during war was Fuel Administrative Engineer and Chief of Conservation of the U. S. Fuel Administration for Tennessee; M.E. Yale 1894; president of Engineering Association of the South 1915 and of Engineering Association of Nashville 1919; secretary of Yale Alumni Association of Tennessee three years; official representative of Yale at centennial celebration of founding of University of Tennessee, at the fiftieth anniversary celebration of University of the South, and at a similar celebration of the George Peabody College for Teachers, had published many papers in Engineering Society Proceedings; member American Society of Mechanical Engineers, American Society for the Promotion of Industrial Education, American Society for Testing Materials, American Association for the Advancement of Science, National Electric Light Association, Franklin Institute, and Christ Episcopal Church, Nashville.

Married June 24, 1891, in New Haven, Clara Gold, daughter of William Alexander and Jane Elizabeth (Hall) Foskett. Children. Agatha (B.A. Vanderbilt University 1919, M.A. 1920) and William Charles Foskett, who took a special course in aeronautical engineering at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1918–19.

Death, due to a septic sore throat, followed a short illness. Buried in East Cemetery, Meriden, Conn. Survived by wife, daughter, son, five sisters, Mrs. Frederick S. Blackall, of Woonsocket, R. I., Mrs. Henry E. Tuley, of Louisville, Ky., Mrs. John M. Kinder, of Meriden, Miss Carol Brown, of Minneapolis, Minn., and Mrs. Ralph Hartley, of Yonkers, N. Y., and a brother, Harry B. Brown, of New Haven.
Harry Nelson Covell, Ph.B. 1883.

Born March 25, 1862, in Troy, N. Y.
Died May 6, 1927, in Charlottesville, Va.

It has been impossible to secure the desired information for an obituary sketch of Mr. Covell in time for publication in this volume. A biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.

James Jacob Morgan, Ph.B. 1885.

Born June 18, 1863, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died October 31, 1926, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, James Gardner Morgan, an architect; son of Samuel and Sophia (Pierce) Morgan; ancestors came from Wales and settled in New Haven. Mother, Julia (Hotchkiss) Morgan, daughter of George Willis and Julia E. (Gilbert) Hotchkiss, descendant of Samuel Hotchkiss, who came to America from Essex County, England, and settled in New Haven. Cousins: W. Morgan Hartshorn, '98, and Stephen H. and Willis E. Hartshorn, Jr., both '29.

Prepared at University of Wisconsin. Chemistry course; a class historian.

M.D. Northwestern University 1888; spent next three years on a cattle ranch in Garden City, Kans.; had practiced medicine in Chicago since 1891, for a number of years devoting a great deal of time to chemical research and to research on the possible cause of cancer; had given much time to charitable work; was an accomplished pianist and musical critic.

Unmarried.

Death due to heart trouble, from which he had suffered for many years. Buried in Forest Hill Cemetery, Madison, Wis. Leaves a niece and numerous cousins.
Obituary Record

William Alpheus Nettleton, Ph.B. 1885.

Born October 24, 1863, in Hannibal, Mo

Father, George Henry Nettleton, a civil engineer; attended Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute; built the Kansas City, Fort Scott & Memphis Railroad and was later its president; also president of Union Depot Company, Kansas City, Memphis & Birmingham, Kansas City, Clinton & Springfield, and Current River railroads; built the bridge over the Mississippi at Memphis; son of Alpheus and Deborah Williams (Belcher) Nettleton. Mother, Julia Augusta (Hearne) Nettleton; daughter of William Lowder and Maria Elizabeth (Ross) Hearne; descendant of William Hearne, who came to America from London in 1688 and settled in Maryland. Yale relatives include: Edward P Nettleton, '56 (uncle); and George H. Nettleton, '96, and Edward T. Nettleton, '26 (cousins).

Phillips-Andover. Civil engineering course; member University Bicycle Club and took part in Intercollegiate Bicycle Tournament Junior year; member Senior Class Supper Committee, Alpha Chi, and Berzelius.

Engaged in field work as a rodman and surveyor for Kansas City, Fort Scott & Memphis Railroad in Missouri 1885–86; later studied with Westinghouse Air Brake Company and was an inspector for the company and also studied with Union Bridge Company of New York; during the next five years was successively an inspector for Morrison & Corthell at Athens, Pa, and on the Cairo, Nebraska City, and Sioux City bridges, an inspector for Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fé Railway, member of firm of Hildreth & Nettleton (bridge and structural iron inspectors), inspector for A. P. Boller on Thames River bridge, and engineer of tests for Kansas City, Fort Scott & Memphis Railroad; superintendent of terminals of Kansas City & Memphis Railway & Bridge Company 1892–93; employed by Kansas City, Fort Scott & Memphis Railroad as assistant superintendent 1893–95 and as superintendent 1895–1901; assistant superintendent of motive power for Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fé Railway 1901–02; engaged in general consulting work 1902–04, but spent much time at his farm at Ballston Lake, N. Y.; general superintendent of motive power for St. Louis & San Francisco and Chicago & Eastern railroads, with headquarters in St. Louis, 1904–08; then held a similar position with Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway at Chicago until his retirement in 1912, at which time his health was impaired by an automobile accident; member American Society of Mechanical Engineers and Franklin Institute.

Death, due to an ulcer of the stomach, occurred at the Cottage Hospital, Hendon; had been motoring with friends in England and became seriously ill on August 29; the following morning was taken to the hospital, where he died four hours later. Buried in Elmwood Cemetery, Kansas City, Mo. His son survives him.

John Cunningham Oliver, Ph.B. 1885.

Born October 29, 1863, in Pittsburgh, Pa.
Died April 28, 1927, in Baltimore, Md.

Father, David Brown Oliver; member of firm of Oliver Iron & Steel Company, Pittsburgh; active member of Pittsburgh Board of Education for fifty-five years; born in Donaghmore, Ireland; came to this country in 1842; son of Henry William and Margaret (Brown) Oliver. Mother, Rebecca Beall (Cunningham) Oliver; daughter of John and Maria (Beall) Cunningham; descendant of Alexander Cunningham, who came to this country from the north of Ireland before the Revolutionary War. Yale relatives include: David O. Ross, ’29, and Henry Oliver, Jr., ’30 (nephews), and Berne H. Evans and George S. Oliver, both ’99, Augustus K. Oliver, ’03, Daniel L. Oliver, ex-’07 S., Deane M. Evans, ’11 S., Bennett Oliver, ex-’17, Oliver Evans, ’23, Oliver Blair, ’28 S., and Joseph W. Oliver, ’30 (cousins).

Pittsburgh Academy. Dynamic engineering course; member Yale Baseball Team and Berzelius.

Shipping clerk at Allegheny works of Oliver Iron & Steel Company for a few months after graduating from Yale and then made assistant superintendent of the company; in 1889 appointed vice-president and general manager and held that position until 1893; in 1893, with associates, organized Monongahela Tin Plate Company and served as its vice-president and general manager until it was taken over by American Tin Plate Company in 1898; in 1899 had charge of mills of latter company in the Pittsburgh district, after which he returned to Oliver Iron & Steel Company as vice-president, having charge of operating end of the business; served as president from 1905 until retirement from active business in 1916; represented 11th Ward in the common branch of the Allegheny Council 1891–93 and in select branch 1893–1908; member of select branch of Council of Greater Pittsburgh 1909–1913 (served on corporation, appropriations, finance, and public works committees); member of board of South Side Hospital of Pittsburgh since February 13, 1906; president of Yale Club of Pittsburgh 1906; member St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Sewickley.

Married February 26, 1910, in Edgeworth, Pa., Elizabeth Shaw Young, daughter of Dr. Thomas Wilson Shaw and Catherine (Stoner) Shaw. Two sons, John Cunningham, Jr., and David Brown.

Death, due to liver complications, occurred at the Union Memorial Hospital, Baltimore. Interment in Allegheny Cemetery, Pittsburgh. Survived by wife, sons, a stepson, Ledlie W. Young, ex'-25, father, four sisters, Mrs. Charles S. Shoemaker and Miss Jessie Oliver, both of Pittsburgh, Mrs. John H. Ross, of Madison, N. J., and Mrs. Charles L. Doyle, of Sewickley, Pa., and two brothers, Henry Oliver, also '85 S., and Charles Oliver, '07. A third brother, David B. Oliver, Jr., ex'-97 S., died in his Senior year at Yale.

Warren Silas Bartlett, Ph.B. 1886.

Born September 3, 1865, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died March 24, 1927, in New York City.

Father, Phineas Bartlett, wholesale dry goods merchant; member of firm of Bartlett, Reed & Company; son of Phineas and Pamela (Pomeroy) Bartlett; descended from William Bartlett, who is said to have gone from England to Barbados and thence to Guilford, Conn., settling in the neighborhood called Flanders in 1694. Mother, Lydia (Ingraham) Bartlett; daughter of Asa and Hannah (Bliss) Ingraham; descended from Jared [or Jarrett] Ingraham, who came to America from Leeds and settled in Savoy (formerly Rehoboth), Mass. Yale relatives include: the Rev. Moses Bartlett (B.A. 1730), Moses Bartlett (B.A. 1763), Elihu Bartlett (B.A. 1764), and Charles F. Bliss '80 (cousin).

South Orange (N. J.) Academy and Hopkins Grammar School. Select course; member Chi Phi.

Attended Yale School of Law 1886–87, Columbia Law School 1887–89, and then New York Law School (LL.B. 1892); admitted to New York Bar in June, 1892, but for a time was engaged in the silk business with a New York firm; clerk in office of Forster & Speir in New York 1893–1903; in 1903 formed a law partnership with Francis Speir under firm name of Speir & Bartlett which continued until the death of Mr. Speir in 1925, when he retired; continued to serve as counselor to the firm, however, until his death; specialized in real estate and corporation law and surrogate's practice; in 1918 served as associate member of the Legal Advisory Board; Secretary of Class of 1886 S from graduation until his resignation in 1911; member Association of the Bar of the City of New York and New York County Lawyers Association

Unmarried.

Death, due to pneumonia, followed an illness of only a week. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by a brother, Harry P. Bartlett, of New Haven.

Howard Cone Bolton, Ph.B. 1886.

Born November 24, 1867, in Cleveland, Ohio
Died July 1, 1926, in Trenton, N. J.

Father, Thomas Kelly Bolton (B.A Harvard 1861), a lawyer; son of Thomas Bolton (B.A. Harvard 1833) and Elizabeth (Cone) Bolton; descendant of William Bolton, who came from Ulster, Ireland, to Windham, Mass., in 1718. Mother, Cornelia (Ranney) Bolton; daughter of Judge Rufus
Obituary Record

Percival Ranney, who attended Western Reserve University, and Adeline (Warner) Ranney; descendant of Jonathan Warner, who settled in Chester, Conn.

St. Paul’s School, Concord, N. H. Select course.

Studied law in Cleveland; subsequently practiced law in New York City for a time, but for a number of years previous to his death had not been engaged in any occupation; member of an Episcopal church in Atlantic City, N. J., where he at one time resided.

Married October 21, 1911, in Atlantic City, Mary Allen Phillips.

Death due to pulmonary tuberculosis. Buried in Lake View Cemetery, Cleveland. Survived by wife, a brother, Dr. Percival R. Bolton, ’86 S, and a half-sister, Edith B Mullally, the wife of Mandeville Mullally, ’98.

Henry Cloyd Hamill, Ph.B. 1886.

Died January 12, 1927, in Santa Fé, N. Mex

Father, William Arthur Hamill; engaged in mining; railroad commissioner of Colorado; a Civil War veteran; born in Liverpool, England. Mother, Priscilla Leadom (McKee) Hamill.

Ury House School, Fox Chase, Pa. Select course; member Berzelius

After graduation was engaged in mining with his father in Colorado for a number of years and in 1899 went to Mexico to work along similar lines; chief clerk with Colorado State Railroad Commission in Denver for two years; entered Government service in 1901 as a draftsman in United States Land Office, Department of the Interior, at Denver and was transferred to Santa Fé two years later; at the time of his death was chief of the Mineral Division of the Department in Santa Fé; member Presbyterian Church.

Married November 9, 1896, at Cripple Creek, Colo., Marguerite Louise, daughter of George Egbert and Margaret (Gaylord) Thornton. Children: Henry Cloyd, Jr. (died in infancy); Harold Arthur; and Herbert (died in infancy).
Death due to dropsy. Buried in Fairview Cemetery, Santa Fé. Survived by wife, one son, and two brothers, James N. Hamill and Hockley T. Hamill, both of Denver.

Arthur Mansfield Everit, Ph.B. 1887.

Born June 12, 1865, in New York City
Died July 24, 1926, in New York City

Father, Richard Mansfield Everit, an export merchant in Brazil and West Indies trade; lived in Brazil for ten years, later member of firm of Burdett & Everit of New York City; son of Richard Everit, a sea captain and ship owner of New York, trading with Holland, Trieste, Italy, and Brazil, and Sarah (Mansfield) Everit; descendant of Richard Everit, a patentee of Jamaica, Long Island, in 1686, who probably came to America from England Mother, Mary Talman (Lawrence) Everit; daughter of Watson Effingham and Augusta Maria (Nicoll) Lawrence; ancestors on both sides of her family came to New England but settled on Long Island about 1644 and were prominent there in colonial times. Yale relatives include: John Hart (B.A. 1703); Benjamin and William Nicoll (both B.A. 1734) and John H Lynde (B.A. 1796) (great-uncles); L. Effingham deForest, '12, and C. Shepard deForest, '12 S (nephews); and Lawrence McCully, '52, William A. Reynolds, '52, Charles G. McCully, '53, John Nicoll, '54 M., Lynde Harrison, '60 L., William L. Harrison, ex-'87 S, and Paul W. Harrison, '96 L. (cousins).

Hopkins Grammar School. Dynamic engineering course; third prize in English composition Freshman year, member University Bicycle Club.

Before entering Sheffield Scientific School was with Good-year India Rubber Glove Manufacturing Company of Naugatuck, Conn., for a year; with Goodyear Rubber Company in New York City 1887–88; secretary to technical inspector of the railways of Province of Buenos Aires 1888–89; since then had been engaged as an interpreter or translator with railroads or machinery export business; translator with George L. Squier Manufacturing Company, makers of export machinery, in Buffalo, N.Y., 1889–1902; then took a trip to South America and the West Indies with a party of railroad capitalists, upon his return opened a private office in New York and was engaged in translation work until 1905; secretary and interpreter for an engineering commission house in Brazil, in connection with river and harbor work at Rio Grande do Sul and Pará in 1905; foreign correspondent with American Trading Company of New York 1906–1911; had since been connected with National Association of Manufacturers in New York City as Portuguese and Spanish translator and later as chief translator; member Trinity Episcopal Church, New Haven.

Unmarried.

Death, due to a paralytic stroke, followed an illness of only four days. Cremation took place in Springfield, Mass., and the ashes were interred in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by two brothers, Richard L. Everit, '82 S., and Edward H. Everit, of New Haven, and a sister, Annie E. deForest, the wife of Dr. Louis S. deForest, '79.

Frink Mansfield Smith, Ph.B. 1887.

Born July 31, 1866, in East Haven, Conn.
Died February 25, 1927, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Horace Abbey Smith, a blacksmith; assessor, member of school board, and state representative one term; son of Charles and Melinda (Spencer) Smith; descendant of Joseph Smith, who came from England to Haddam, Conn. Mother, Mary Frances (Beach) Smith; daughter of David Young and Sally (French) Beach; ancestors settled in Trumbull, Conn.

Hillhouse High School Civil engineering course; prize for excellence in English composition Freshman year and honorable mention for excellence in civil engineering Senior year.

Had been engaged in engineering since graduation; with Erie Railroad Company 1887–89; Norfolk & Western Railroad Company 1889–1892; New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company 1892–95, 1896–97, and 1905–09; engineer for city of Hartford, Conn., 1895–96; engaged in building forts for the Government at New London, Conn., and Gull Island 1897–98; built the third-rail road from Sheffield Scientific School

Hudson to Albany, N. Y., for the Southern Railroad Company 1899-1902 and from Hazleton to Wilkes Barre, Pa., 1902-05; contracting superintendent for C. W. Blakeslee & Sons of New Haven 1909-1923; had since been an engineer with Connecticut State Highway Department in charge of the New Haven office; member First Methodist Church of New Haven at time of death.

Death, due to endocarditis, followed an attack of pneumonia. Buried in East Haven. Survived by wife, daughter, two grandchildren, a sister, Mrs. Benjamin F. Taylor, of Washington, Conn., and a brother, Clifford Beach Smith, of Rensselaer, N. Y.

Charles Alling Tuttle, Ph.B. 1888.

Born October 23, 1864, in New Haven, Conn.
Died January 18, 1927, in Clinton, Conn.

Hillhouse High School. Biological course.

M.D. Yale 1890 (Keese Prize at graduation; member Nu Sigma Nu and Delta Epsilon Iota); interne at New Haven Hospital 1890-92; practiced in New Haven from 1892 until his retirement on account of ill health in 1920; assistant in surgical clinic Yale School of Medicine 1892-94 and lecturer on orthopedic surgery 1894-98; on staff of New York Orthopedic Dispensary and Hospital 1893-95; lecturer and examiner at Connecticut Training School for Nurses 1895-1916 and a director since 1911; lecturer on orthopedic surgery at Anderson Gymnasium for Women for a time, director of
Obituary Record

Broadway Bank & Trust Company of New Haven since 1913; secretary of Connecticut Medical Examining Board 1900–1919 and then president of the board until December 31, 1925; former president of National Confederation of State Medical Examining and Licensing Boards; during the war served as member of Medical Section of Connecticut State Council of Defense; member New Haven City Medical Association, New Haven County and Connecticut State Medical societies, and American Medical Association; Fellow New York State Medical Association; member of relics committee of New Haven Colony Historical Society and of Congregational Church.

Death, due to heart disease, followed eight years of ill health. Buried in Indian River Cemetery, Clinton. His wife survives him.

Edgar Burr Northrup, Ph.B. 1890.

Born April 21, 1867, in Broadalbin, N. Y.
Died November 17, 1926, at Sioux Falls, S. Dak.

Father, Leonard Smith Northrup, a manufacturer; son of Major D. Northrup and Agnes (Spier) Northrup; ancestors came from England to New Haven and Ridgefield, Conn., in 1737, members of the family later settling in Galway, N. Y.
Mother, Jane Elizabeth (Burr) Northrup; daughter of William G. and Mary (Wakeman) Burr; descendant of Jehu Burr, who came to this country from England about 1630 and settled at Roxbury, Mass., was a founder of Springfield, Mass., in 1636, and later settled in Fairfield, Conn.

Peekskill Military Academy and Phillips-Andover. Civil engineering course.

Had been engaged in the banking and brokerage business since 1891, in Duluth, Minn., for a year, then in Fulton, S. Dak., until 1893, and since then in Sioux Falls; member South Dakota Senate from Minnehaha County 1903–07; attended the Congregational Church, Sioux Falls.

Married March 14, 1894, in Johnstown, N. Y., Laura, daughter of David and Mary (Yost) Hays, and sister of David A. Hays, '91 S. Children: Elizabeth Hays, who married Horace Franklin Candee (LL.B. Syracuse University 1915); and David Hays.

Death due to an acute attack of influenza. Buried in Galway, N. Y. Survived by wife, daughter, son, and a sister, Mrs. John Milton Gardner, of New York City and Rhinebeck, N. Y.

Augustus Frederick Kountze, Ph.B. 1891.

Born March 4, 1870, in Omaha, Nebr.
Died March 14, 1927, in Atlantic City, N. J.

Father, Herman Kountze; president of First National Bank of Omaha; one of the founders of Kountze Brothers, bankers; son of Christian Kountze, who came from Germany in 1812 and settled in Osnaburg, Ohio, and Margaret (Zerbe) Kountze, who was born in Greensburg, Pa, and whose family had settled in Stouchsburg, Pa., in the seventeenth century. Mother, Elizabeth (Davis) Kountze; born in Liverpool, England; daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth (Bemion) Davis, who came to America in 1847 from Hawarden, County Flint, Wales, and settled in Omaha. Yale relatives include: Palmer D. Kountze, '23, Denman Kountze, ex-'24 S, John T. Stewart, 3d, ex-'25, and Meredith Nicholson, Jr., ex-'26 S. (nephews); and Charles B. Berger and George B. Berger, both '88 S., William B. Berger, '93 S., Barclay W. Kountze, '97 S, Walter F. B. Berger, deLancey Kountze, and George S. Oliver, all '99, Augustus B Berger, ex-'01, Augustus K. Oliver, '03, Harold Kountze, '07, and Bennett Oliver, ex-'17 (cousins).

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. Chemistry course; member Mott Haven Team Freshman year and Berzelius.

With First National Bank of Omaha 1891–92; became a member of firm of Kountze Brothers, bankers, in New York City in October, 1892 (senior member since October, 1918); president of Burnside Avenue Realty Corporation since 1920; director of Atlantic National Bank (purchased by Kountze Brothers in 1914) 1914-16 and of J. G. White Engineering Corporation since February, 1913 (first meeting after organization of the corporation); Alumni Fund Agent for Class of 1891 S. 1890-1922, and director of Alumni University Fund Association 1919-1922; a governor of Yale Publishing Association 1919-1922; treasurer of Yale Committee of Twenty-one; chairman of the Thirty-year Reunion Committee of his Class; an incorporator of the Yale Club of New York and its first treasurer 1897-1905; member Trinity Cathedral, Omaha.

Death due to heart failure; had suffered a stroke of apoplexy in September, 1924, and had been in ill health for several months previous to his death, but attended actively to his banking business up to the day before he died. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by wife, adopted son, two sisters, Mrs. Meredith Nicholson (B.A. Vassar 1888), of Indianapolis, Ind., and Gertrude K. Stewart, the wife of John T. Stewart, 2d, ex-'99, and two brothers, Charles T. Kountze, '92 S., and Herman D. Kountze, '97. A third brother, Luther L. Kountze, '97, died in 1925.

George Marcellus Landers, Ph.B. 1891.

Born May 19, 1870, in New Britain, Conn.
Died January 25, 1927, in New York City.

Father, Charles Smith Landers, a manufacturer; president of Landers, Frary & Clark (hardware and cutlery) and of North & Judd Manufacturing Company; a director of New Britain National Bank and Savings Bank of New Britain; son of George Marcellus Landers, founder of firm of Landers, Frary & Clark, and Catherine Landers; descendant of Capt. Asael Landers, of Lenox, Mass., who served in the Revolution; descended also from Thomas Landers, who came to America from London in 1635 and settled at Sandwich, Mass. Mother, Grace Helen (Judd) Landers; daughter of Loren Fontenal and Josephine (Lee) Judd; descendant of Thomas Judd, who came to this country in 1633 and lived in Cambridge, Mass., but in 1644 settled in Farmington, Conn. Cousin: Mortimer N. Judd, '02 S.

New Britain High School. Mechanical engineering course; on board of Yale Daily News Junior and Senior years; member Delta Psi.

After graduation entered the employ of Landers, Frary & Clark; in 1895 was made a director of the company and held that office until his death; elected secretary in 1897, treasurer and secretary in 1900, and vice-president, secretary, and treasurer in 1906, but relinquished all three offices in 1911; in 1922 became sales manager of the New York office and continued in that connection until his death; president of North & Judd Manufacturing Company 1901-1918, continuing as a director of the company until his death; member New Britain Common Council 1897-98 and 1912-19; alderman 1904-06, and mayor of the city 1906-08 (nominated by the Republicans and endorsed by the Democrats); reelected in 1908; in 1912 elected to State Senate and served as president pro tempore of that body during his term of office (1913 and 1914); candidate for lieutenant governor in 1914 but defeated; delegate from Connecticut to Democratic National Convention in St Louis 1914; in 1918 was an unsuccessful candidate for Congress; during the World War served as Assistant Food Administrator for Connecticut and as chairman of Department of Food Supply of Connecticut State Council of Defense; honorary M.S. Connecticut Agricultural College 1918.

Married (1) July 18, 1911, in New London, Conn., Katherine Sanford Sheffield, daughter of Prof. Samuel Simons Sanford (honorary M.A. 1894) and Katherine (Cecil) Sanford Divorced in 1918. Married (2) February 25, 1919, in New York City, Hazel, daughter of Henry R and Ida May (VanKeuren) Rexford. No children by either marriage.

Death followed an operation for abscess in the throat after an illness of two days. Buried in Fairview Cemetery, New Britain. Survived by wife and mother.
Obituary Record

Charles Morgan Wood, Ph.B. 1891.

Born July 23, 1870, in Dayton, Ohio.

Father, Ephraim Morgan Wood, ’57, a manufacturer; first president of National Linseed Oil Company; vice-president of Winters National Bank for fifteen years; trustee of Kenyon College; president of Dayton School Board and of the Council of Dayton; son of Dr. William Wood and Mary (Morgan) Wood. Mother, Victoria Helen (Clegg) Wood; daughter of Joseph Clegg, who came to America from England when a boy, and Thirza (Bailey) Clegg.

Williston Academy. Chemical course; received a Senior appointment; vice-president of Navy and Tennis associations; member of Yale Record board, Banjo Club, and Book and Snake.

Traveled and took a course in bookkeeping in Dayton 1891-93; then spent a year abroad; engaged in manufacture of gas engines from 1895 until 1898, when he gave it up on account of his health and went to Mexico; engaged in mining in Torreon and Avino 1898-1900; in the agricultural implement business in Dayton 1900-02; then resumed manufacture of gasoline engines for three years; in 1905 his health failed again and he lived in Denver, Colo., for four years and then abroad two years, chiefly in Italy and France; during 1911-12 studied language and literature, making his home at Irvington-on-the-Hudson; took a course in sociology and economics at Columbia (M.A. 1912); lived in New York City 1912-14 (made a study of public utilities and corporation finance during 1912-13, spent some time at the Union Settlement, and was consultant in business economics at Alexander Hamilton Institute during 1913-14); in 1914 returned to Dayton and devoted much time to civics and sociology; bought a farm at Ipswich, Mass., and spent the summers there from 1918 until his death; had spent five winters in Arizona, where he was at work on a history of the Apache Indians at the time of his death; had made extensive researches in the early history of the Southwest and had collected much valuable material about the early settlers and the Indians; since 1922, for a part of every year, had traveled through the Indian reservations in Arizona and New Mexico; director of the Eastern Association on Indian Affairs, Inc., with headquarters in New York, member of the Massachusetts and New Mexico branches, and an organizer of the Arizona branch; had collected a library of Southwest Americana; had translated from the Italian Life of Old Siena (published in Italy 1914); during the war served in a civilian capacity as Aeronautical Mechanical Engineer in the Signal Corps, being head of the Planning Section of the Production Engineering Department of the Equipment Division; member Christ Episcopal Church, Dayton, and on the vestry of Ascension Memorial Church, Ipswich.

Death, due to pneumonia, followed an illness of only three days. Buried in Woodland Cemetery, Dayton. Survived by wife, daughters, and four grandchildren.

---

Waldo Clayton Briggs, Ph.B. 1892.

*Born March 14, 1870, in New Haven, Conn
Died December 13, 1926, in Jersey City, N J*

Father, William Alexander Briggs; partner in firm of Townsend & Briggs, merchants, New Haven, son of Daniel and Hency (Bicknell) Briggs; descendant of Joseph Briggs, who, with his father, Richard Briggs, and his brothers, Joshua and George Briggs, served in the American Revolution

Mother, Sarah Maria (Baldwin) Briggs; daughter of Ransom and Sarah (Twiss) Baldwin; descendant of Joseph Baldwin, who came from Cholesbury, County Bucks, England, to Milford, Conn, in 1639 and moved to Hadley, Mass, in 1666

Yale relatives: Charles A. Ferry, '71 S (brother-in-law), and Edna L. Ferry (M.S. 1913) (niece)

Hillhouse High School. Civil engineering course; award for excellence in mechanical drawing Freshman year; private in Sheffield Military Company.
Assistant to city engineer of Hartford, Conn., 1892–93; resident engineer on construction of dam at Bethany, Conn., for New Haven Water Company 1893–94; city engineer of South Norwalk, Conn., 1894–97, junior engineer with U. S. Engineers on fortifications at eastern entrance of Long Island Sound at New London 1897–1900; assistant engineer with Degnon Contracting Company on a section of New York Rapid Transit Subway 1901–04, having charge of the work during the last eighteen months; resident engineer for New York Contracting Company on Pennsylvania Terminal in 1905 and 1906; chief engineer for Degnon Realty & Terminal Improvement Company, in charge of building Sunnyside yards for Pennsylvania Railroad at Long Island City 1907–1913; chief engineer of Carpenter & Boxley & Herrick, Inc., on construction of part of Brooklyn Rapid Transit Subway 1913–16; construction engineer with Degnon Contracting Company of New York 1916–1921 and with Thomas Crimmins Company 1921–22; since 1923 contracting engineer for Henry Steers, Inc., of New York City; member American Society of Civil Engineers, Yale Engineering Association (member of executive committee), and Hitchcock Memorial Church (Presbyterian) in Scarsdale, N. Y., where he resided (former member of First Baptist Church, New Haven).

Married September 2, 1897, in South Norwalk, Belle, daughter of Frank Arthur and Mary Ann (Cape) Ferris, of New York City, and sister-in-law of James H. Knapp, '96. Children: Amy Ferris (B.A. Mount Holyoke 1920) and Ferris Baldwin, ex-'21 S., who received degree of B.S. at Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1922.

Death due to heart disease, brought on by acute indigestion. Cremated. Survived by wife, daughter; son, and a sister, Miss Sarah E. Briggs, of New Haven.

Thomas Simmons Homans, Ph.B. 1892.

Born February 26, 1871, in Englewood, N. J.
Died February 26, 1927, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Father, Isaac Smith Homans, 2d (B.S. Harvard 1853); a civil engineer, publisher and one of the editors of the Banker's Magazine of New York, and partner in the Connecticut Valley Lumber Company; son of Isaac Smith and Sarah (Sheppard) Homans; grandson of Capt. Benjamin Homans, secretary of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts 1810–11, chief clerk of the Navy from 1812 until his death, acting secretary of the Navy in 1814; descendant of Thomas Homans, who came to Boston from England in 1703; Mother, Martha (Simmons) Homans; daughter of Thomas and Sarah Homans (Thwing) Simmons; of English ancestry; Nephews; George D. Robinson, ex-'15 Art, and Walter S. Robinson, Jr., ex-'20 S. H. L. Coar's School, Springfield, Mass., and Phillips-Exeter. Mechanical engineering course; honors at graduation; member Sheffield Military Company.

In employ of Paige Compositor Manufacturing Company of Chicago as a draftsman 1892–94; designer of paper cutting machines for Oswego (N. Y.) Machine Works 1895–96; draftsman and designer of photo-engraving machines for John Royle & Sons, Paterson, N. J., 1896–97; draftsman for Pond Machine Tool Company, Plainfield, N. J., 1897–98; experimental engineer with Unitype Company of New York City 1898–1903; designing engineer for Oswego Machine Works 1903–04; experimental engineer with Mergenthaler Linotype Company of Brooklyn 1904–1912; during this period originated a number of radical improvements, remodeled three quarters of the matrix plant, and designed Linotype model No. 5, the first to have a "quick change" magazine; chief designing engineer for the International Typesetting Machine Company of Brooklyn and its successor, the Intertype Corporation, since 1912; designed the first Intertype machine with one magazine and later a two-magazine and a three-magazine machine; his inventions of simplification and improvements in typesetting machines are covered by over fifty patents; during the war was connected with the Aircraft Industrial Service in a civilian capacity as chief designer for the Intertype Corporation, which was engaged on war contracts for the Liberty Motor; member Yale Engineering Association, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, and Subcommittee No. 5, Woodruff Keys of the American Machinist.

Married April 5, 1906, in New York City, Mary, daughter of George Burdett and Isabel (Barnard) Alexander. One son, Robert Alexander.
Obituary Record

Death, due to the failure of a major operation, occurred at the Brooklyn Hospital; a heart attack the previous October had been diagnosed as due to gall bladder trouble. Body was cremated. Survived by wife, son, and four sisters, Miss Nancy Homans and Mrs. Albert M Woodruff, both of Huntington, N Y, Mrs Harold Ward, of Amherst, Mass., and Mrs. Walter S. Robinson, of Springfield, Mass.

Vincent Jay Youmans, Ph.B. 1892.

Born February 1, 1869, in Winona, Minn.
Died February 20, 1927, at Saratoga Springs, N Y.

Father, William Jay Youmans (M.D. New York University 1865), who studied at Sheffield Scientific School during 1860-61; physician and editor of Popular Science Monthly; son of Vincent and Catherine (Scofield) Youmans; descendant of Christopher Yeamans, who came to America from England before 1659 and settled at Hempstead, Long Island. Mother, Celia (Greene) Youmans; daughter of Irving and Julia (Filkins) Greene University Grammar School, New York City. Biology course; private in Sheffield Military Company.

M D. Columbia 1895; had never practiced medicine; assistant editor of Popular Science Monthly 1895-99; engaged in editorial work for New York Evening Post, New York Sun, and New York Commercial Advertiser (now Globe) 1899-1913, when obliged to give up work on account of ill health; had since been engaged in farming at Ballston Spa, N. Y.

Married May 28, 1910, in New York City, Lily Harriet Fiske, daughter of Albert Marshman and Laura (Mowbray) Palmer. No children.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by wife, a brother, Edward L. Youmans, of Pittsburgh, Pa., and two sisters, Alice C. Youmans (M.D. Woman’s Medical College of New York Infirmary for Women and Children 1899), of Lake George Village, N. Y., and Mary Youmans Long, the wife of James M. Long, ’00.
Sheffield Scientific School

Born January 27, 1874, in San Antonio, Texas
Died June 27, 1927, at Tuxedo Park, N. Y.

Father, Major Clifton Comly (U.S. Military Academy 1862); served in the Civil War as Lieutenant of Cavalry and Captain and Major of Ordnance; later instructor at West Point and president of Ordnance Board at Governors Island and Sandy Hook, N. Y.; son of Richard Nesbit and Julia (Sanders) Comly; descendant of Henry Comly, who came to America from England with William Penn in 1682. Mother, Sarah (Garrard) Comly; daughter of William H. Garrard, who came to America from England in 1832 and settled in Pittsburgh, Pa., and Sarah (Thomas) Garrard; granddaughter of Thomas Thomas, who came from London to America in 1828.

Classical School, Indianapolis, Ind. Entered Sheffield Scientific School with Class of 1892 but, due to illness, remained less than a month; reentered with Class of 1893; mechanical engineering course; member Berzelius.

Clerk in Lockwood National Bank, San Antonio, 1893-95; clerk and teller Fletcher National Bank of Indianapolis 1895-1901; secretary and treasurer Varney Electrical Supply Company of Indianapolis 1901-04; with Eliot National Bank of Boston 1904-1912, engaged in special soliciting work for a year and vice-president from 1905; upon the consolidation of the Eliot National Bank with the Shawmut National Bank in 1913, went to New York City as vice-president of Citizens National Bank of that city; served as director, member of executive committee, and, in an honorary capacity, as senior vice-president until 1920, when the Citizens National Bank was merged with the Chemical National Bank; became a partner in firm of Bacon & Company, commission merchants and textile bankers, of New York January 1, 1920, and remained in that connection until his death, director of Chemical National Bank and trustee of Greenwich Savings Bank of New York since 1920; First Lieutenant of Artillery, Indiana National Guard, 1901-02; Captain, 2d Indiana Infantry 1902-04, and served during the Evansville riots 1902; during World War was a representative of the Alien Property Custodian in New York City until he entered the Army; commissioned a Major in the National Army May 3, 1918, and assigned to duty as a member of the General Staff, at Washington, D.C., until September 26, when he went to France; detailed as member of General Staff Corps at Headquarters in Chaumont until his return to this country November 1, 1918; resigned from the service November 20, 1918; appointed Major, Staff Specialist, Officers' Reserve Corps, in 1922; treasurer and a director of Carry-On Association for the relief of blind and crippled soldiers and sailors; member of advisory council of Federation of Boys' Clubs and of St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Tuxedo Park.

Married October 12, 1898, in Indianapolis, Katherine Virginia, daughter of Charles Hubbard and Ellen (Sernng) Wallcott. Children: Lamer (Mrs. J Murray Mitchell); Katherine; Ellen; and Sarah Garrard.

Drowned in Weewah Lake, Tuxedo Park; while swimming, attempted to right an overturned canoe and received a blow on the head which rendered him unconscious. Interment in St. Mary's Churchyard, Tuxedo Park. Survived by wife, four daughters, one grandchild, mother, a sister, Mrs. Marvin R. Maxwell, of Cleveland, Ohio, and a brother, Lieut. Col. George B. Comly, Cavalry, U.S.A

Frederic Bogart McMullen, Ph.B. 1893.

Born June 19, 1871, in Chicago, Ill.
Died June 7, 1927, in Evanston, Ill.

Father, James Bates McMullen; former owner and publisher of Chicago Post; president of McMullen Woven Wire Fence Company of Chicago; later engaged in operating a railroad in Canada; born in Picton, Ontario; son of Daniel and Eliza Barrett (Conger) McMullen; grandson of Peter McMullen, who came to America with the British Army during the Revolutionary War and settled at Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, of Roger Bates, who was born in Scotland in 1745, came to America in 1797, and settled in Springfield, Vt., and of David Conger, who was born in 1731 at Piscataqua, N.J., and moved to Canada in 1787. Mother, Mary Elizabeth
Sheffield Scientific School

(Bogart) McMullen; born in Adolphustown, Ontario; daughter of Lewis Lazier and Elizabeth (Cronk) Bogart; descendant of Jan Louwe Bogart [Bogaert], born in 1630 in Schoonderwoerd, Holland, who married Sara Rapelje in 1652, settled in Bedford, N. Y., in 1663, and in 1672 moved to Harlem, of which he was one of the twenty-three original patentees; ancestors include James Barker, who came from England in 1634 and settled in Rhode Island. Cousin: Herbert Y. McMullen, '93 S.

Picton (Ontario) High School. Graduated at Victoria University, Cobourg, Ontario. Civil engineering course in Sheffield Scientific School; received a Senior appointment.

After graduation took a course in mineralogy at Queen's University, Kingston, Ontario, and for a short time afterwards was engaged in civil engineering for a Canadian railway; went to Chicago in 1894 and became secretary of McMullen Woven Wire Fence Company and held that position until 1898; assistant manager of fence department of American Steel & Wire Company 1898–1900; treasurer of McMullen Lumber Company and its successor, Chicago-Mississippi Land & Lumber Company, 1900–05; was then manager of Chicago office of Fullerton-Powell Hardwood Lumber Company of South Bend, Ind, until 1912, when it became affiliated with McMullen-Powell Lumber Company, which was organized that year, and of which he had since been vice-president and general manager; had also been secretary and treasurer of Corinth Saw Mills, Inc., since 1916, treasurer, secretary, and president of Chicago Hardwood Lumber Exchange, and vice-president of Lumbermen's Association of Chicago (1917); was largely instrumental in consolidating the various lumber trade organizations into the Chicago Hardwood Lumber Association; during the war served on campaign committees of Red Cross, Liberty Loan, and other drives; president of Men's Club of St Mark's Episcopal Church, Evanston, Ill, of which he was a member, and had done much towards making it one of the largest clubs in the diocese; a founder of the Yale Club of Evanston in 1915 (president January, 1921–September, 1922) and the University Club of Evanston (a director for several years); member Yale Engineering Association; Secretary of Class of 1893 S.
Obituary Record

Death due to cirrhosis of the liver; had been in ill health since the previous October and underwent an operation for the removal of the gall bladder and appendix in April. Cremation took place at Graceland Cemetery, Chicago, and the ashes were interred in West Aurora (Ill.) Cemetery. Survived by wife and daughter.

Edwin Howard Thomes, Ph.B. 1894.

Born April 5, 1875, in Rowayton, Conn
Died October 29, 1926, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Father, Charles Francis Thomes, a merchant; son of Charles and Margaret (MacKrell) Thomes; descendant of Samuel Thomes, who lived in Stroudwater, Maine. Mother, Mary Esther (Godfrey) Thomes; daughter of Charles Edward and Mary (French) Godfrey; descendant of Isaac Godfrey, a grandson of Charles Chauncy (B.A. Trinity College 1613), the second president of Harvard, who came to Massachusetts from England in 1638

South Norwalk (Conn.) High School. Civil engineering course.

C E Columbia 1895; assistant engineer of New York State Department of Canal Improvements 1896–98; during following year made surveys and designed sewerage system of Weedsport, N Y, and had charge of surveys and construction of an electric railroad in Michigan; with U. S. Engineer Corps during winter of 1899, having charge of surveys in New Jersey; assistant engineer with New York City Rapid Transit Subway 1900–04; had since been assistant engineer of Bureau of Highways of Queen’s Borough, New York City; represented city of New York at International Road Congress in London (1913); member American Society of Civil Engineers, Municipal Engineers of the City of New York, and Volunteer Fireman’s Association; treasurer Jamaica (N. Y.) Club.

Married February 3, 1900, in Dayton, Ohio, Cora Mayo
Lake, a graduate of the Northern Indiana Normal School (kindergarten department) at Valparaiso in 1896, daughter of Col. Carson Lake and Viola (Helfer) Lake. One daughter, Wilma Esther (B.A. Adelphi College 1922) (Mrs H. Landon Holt).

Death, due to acute inflammation of the brain, followed a four days' illness. Cremation took place at Fresh Pond Crematory, Long Island, and the ashes were interred in the family plot in Rowayton Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughter, a granddaughter, mother, and a brother, Earl F Thomes, of Rowayton.

Levi Arthur Johnson, Ph.B. 1895.
Born September 1, 1873, in Cleveland, Ohio
Died November 10, 1926, in Cleveland, Ohio.

Father, Philander Levi Johnson, a real estate and vessel owner; son of Levi and Margaret (Montier) Johnson; descendant of John Johnson, who settled in Herkimer County, N.Y. Mother, Sarah Minnie (Clarke) Johnson; born in Dublin, Ireland; daughter of Michael Clarke

Phillips-Andover. Select course; member Delta Psi

In charge of his father's real estate holdings in and around Cleveland from graduation until his father's death in 1907, had since been secretary, treasurer, and general manager of the Johnson Realty Corporation; member Trinity Cathedral (Episcopal), Cleveland.

Married October 26, 1911, in Cleveland, Margaret Taylor, daughter of Lorenzo Dudley and Katherine (Taylor) Dodge. One son, Levi Clarke. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were divorced in 1924.

Death due to tuberculosis; had been ill for over a year and was a patient in the Cleveland Clinic for eight months. Buried in Lake View Cemetery, Cleveland. Survived by son and four sisters, Miss Harriet K. Johnson, Mrs. James Lorimer Porter, and Mrs. Lester N. Cobb, all of Cleveland, and Mary Josephine Johnson Spencer, the wife of Albert K. Spencer, ex-'89 S.
Obituary Record

Henry Hooker, Ph.B. 1896.

Born September 21, 1871, in New Haven, Conn.
Died August 15, 1926, in Kensington, Conn.

Father, Norman Albert Hooker, a manufacturer; connected with Henry Hooker & Company, carriage manufacturers; son of Henry and Charlotte (Lum) Hooker; great-grandson of Elijah Hooker, of Kensington, who was a committee man during the Revolution and carried supplies to Boston; descendant, through the Rev. Samuel Hooker, second rector at Farmington, Conn., of the Rev. Thomas Hooker (B.A. Emmanuel College, Cambridge, 1608), who came to Newtown, Mass., in 1633 and in 1636 settled in Hartford, Conn. Mother, Anna Louisa (Newton) Hooker; daughter of Erastus and Caroline (Zeiley) Newton; descendant of Lieut. Isaac DeForest, of the first company of Minute Men, who received his commission in May, 1776. Yale relatives include: Frank H. Hooker, ’64, and Marquis B. Newton, ex-’69 (uncles); R. Schuyler Goodwin, ’27 (nephew), and Donald R. Hooker, ’99, and Howard M. Newton, ’18 (cousins).

Mount Pleasant Military Academy, Ossining, N. Y., and private tutors. Civil engineering course; member Theta Delta Chi.

In charge of sales department Henry Hooker & Company of New Haven from graduation until about 1908; then became treasurer of Remington Oil Engine Company of New York City, with which he remained until 1920, when he suffered a nervous breakdown and, in consequence of the development of a serious heart condition, continued in poor health until his death; possessed a rare knowledge of birds and the ability to carve them in wood, during the last two years of his life having carved with his penknife models of most of the native birds of his region; aide-de-camp, with rank of Major, to Governor Chamberlain of Connecticut 1903-05; member Arts and Crafts Society of Boston and Kensington Congregational Church.

Married April 1, 1913, in New York City, Jean Elizabeth, daughter of William and Jean (Wynter) Chalmers. One daughter, Nancy.

Death due to heart trouble; had been acutely ill for about eight weeks. Buried in West Lane Cemetery, Kensington. Survived by wife, daughter, and a sister, Carolyn H. Goodwin, of New Haven, the widow of Dr. Ralph S. Goodwin, '90 S.

Arthur Williams Pearce, Ph.B. 1896.

Born October 11, 1874, in Black Hawk, Colo.
Died January 24, 1927, in New York City.

Father, Richard Pearce (Ph.D. Columbia 1890); a graduate of the Royal School of Mines, London; born in Cornwall, England, and died in London, May 18, 1927; British vice-consul in Colorado 1885-1901; actively interested in mining and smelting in Colorado and Montana; son of Richard and Jenifer (Bennett) Pearce. Mother, Emilie Elizabeth (Hawken) Pearce; daughter of John Hawken, of Cornwall, and Amelia (Tressider) Hawken.

Lawrenceville School Select course; member University Banjo Club and Delta Psi.

Practiced as a mining engineer in Denver, Colo., 1896-98, at Cripple Creek, Colo., with Venture Corporation of London 1898-1900, in Sonora, Mexico, 1900-02, and in Bolivia, South America, 1902-06, in 1908 bought a seat on New York Stock Exchange and the next year formed firm of Simpson, Pearce & Company to engage in banking and brokerage business; firm dissolved April 1, 1916; since 1917 had been identified with Williams Harvey Corporation, tin smelters, of New York City, as treasurer and director, although he retired from active business in 1923; during the war served as assistant supervisor with U.S. Postal Censorship in New York City.

Death due to pleural pneumonia with complications. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by wife, three sons, and a brother, Harold V. Pearce, of Seaford, Alfred Howlett Durston, Ph.B. 1899.

Born December 13, 1876, in Syracuse, N. Y.
Died October 5, 1926, in Syracuse, N. Y.

Father, James Franklin Durston, president and general manager of Lefever Arms Company; son of John and Sarah (Hurst) Durston; descendant of Thomas Durston, who came to America from England about 1826 and settled at Syracuse. Mother, Augusta Adele (Howlett) Durston; daughter of Alfred A. and Minerva (Ames) Howlett; descendant of Parley Howlett, who came to this country from Shaftesbury, England, in 1791 and founded the settlement at Howlett Hill, N. Y. Yale relatives: John H. Durston, ex-'69 (uncle), and Charles H. Sanford, Jr., '28 S. (nephew)

Phillips-Andover. Select course; played on Freshman Football Team and on University Football Team two years; vice-president Freshman Crew Association; Class Secretary Freshman year; Class President Senior year (continued as such until his death); member Book and Snake.

With Lefever Arms Company of Syracuse 1899–1916 (in the factory until 1902; salesman 1902–04; secretary 1904–08; vice-president 1908–1916); in 1916, when Durston Gear Corporation succeeded to the business of Lefever Arms Company, became president and treasurer of the latter and continued as president until his death; director Syracuse Trust Company, Syracuse Savings Bank, Mack Miller Candle Company, Syracuse chapter of American Red Cross, and Syracuse Boys' Club; president Salina Solar Coarse Salt Company and Manufacturers Association; an organizer of the Syracuse community chest; during the war served as captain of American Protective League, vice-chairman War Savings Stamp Committee, and member of standardization committee for building transmissions for army trucks; president Yale Alumni Association of Syracuse since 1922; member Yale Engineering Association and St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Syracuse.
Married December 6, 1904, in Syracuse, Jessie, daughter of John and Jane (Brewster) Brummelkamp. Two daughters, Jane Brewster and Barbara.

Death followed an operation for appendicitis and gall stones and occurred at Hospital of the Good Shepherd, Syracuse. Survived by wife, daughters, a sister, Mrs. Charles Hamilton Sanford, and a brother, Marshall H. Durston, both of Syracuse.

William Mann Fincke, Ph.B. 1901.

Born January 1, 1878, in New York City.
Died May 31, 1927, in New York City.

Father, William Mann Fincke, a business man, son of Charles and Mary Anna (Mann) Fincke, descendant of Andrew Fincke, who came to America from Germany in 1760 and settled at Schoharie, N. Y. Mother, Julia Muirheid (Clarke) Fincke; daughter of Benjamin Graeme and Sarah Ann (Muirheid) Clarke; descendant of Henry Clarke, who came to this country from the north of Ireland and settled in Easton, Pa. Yale relatives: Lincoln Ellsworth, ex-'03 S (step-brother); and Charles L Fincke, '96, and Clarence M Fincke, '97 (cousins).

The Hill School. Select course, captain Freshman Football Team; member University Football Team two years, vice-president Freshman Navy, member Track Team three years and captain Senior year; vice-president of Class Freshman year and of University Football Association Senior year; a class deacon; chairman of Class Supper Committee; member Delta Psi.

Chief clerk for Ellsworth & Company of Ellsworth, Pa., 1901-02, and associated with the same interests in Cleveland 1902-06; general manager for Pennsylvania-Ontario Transportation Company, with his headquarters at Woodstock, 1906-07; graduated at Union Theological Seminary in 1911; assistant pastor of Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York City, 1911-12; pastor of Greenwich Presbyterian Church, New York, 1912-17; enlisted as a Private in the Medical Corps May 5, 1917, and went overseas May 17; served with Base Hospital 2 (Presbyterian Unit); promoted to Sergeant; received his discharge in January, 1918; acting director of the Labor Temple, New York, April, 1918–June, 1919; then became a cooperator and treasurer in the establishment of Brookwood, the first resident workers' college in this country, on his former estate at Katonah, N. Y.; subsequently became engaged in dairy farming at Pawling, N. Y.; at the time of his death was co-director with Mrs. Fincke of the Manumit School, which they founded on their farm for the children of the workers.

Married January 8, 1902, in Buffalo, N. Y., Helen, daughter of Frank and Elizabeth (Miller) Hamlin. Children: William Mann, Jr (B A Columbia 1925), the Class Boy of 1901 S; Frank Hamlin, who attended Columbia for a year and the Anderson-Milton School of the Theatre for two years; John Meigs; and Benjamin Green Clarke.

Death, due to lymphatic leukemia, occurred at St. Luke's Hospital, New York City, after an illness of two years. Buried, at his own request, on the farm at the Manumit School. Survived by wife, four sons, and a brother, Benjamin C. Fincke, of New York City.

Clifford Lewis Buckingham, Ph.B. 1903.

Born August 12, 1882, in Ansonia, Conn.
Died September 25, 1926, in Parsons, Kans.

Father, Lewis Munson Buckingham; superintendent of a brass foundry; engineer of tests for Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroad Company; son of Isaac and Fanny Matilda (Branson) Buckingham; descendant of Thomas Buckingham, who came to Massachusetts from England in 1636, and later went to Milford, Conn. Mother, Margaret Eliza (Cawley) Buckingham; born in Stockport, England; daughter of William and Ellen (Crossbray) Cawley, who came to this country in 1858.

Hopkins Grammar School. Mechanical engineering course.

With Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway 1903–1925 (special apprentice 1903–05; machinist for a month; draftsman 1905–08; assistant chief inspector of materials in testing department 1909–1915; and chief material inspector, with his headquarters in Chicago, 1915-1925); since February, 1925, had been engineer of tests for Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroad Company at Parsons, Kans; served in Inspection and Test Section of Rock Island Railroad at Washington for a few weeks in 1918; member American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Yale Engineering Association; vestryman St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church, Chicago.

Death due to heart failure. Buried in Parkview Cemetery, Schenectady. Survived by wife, three children, father, and three sisters, Miss Lillian F. Buckingham, of Chicago, Mrs. George Ticehurst, of Bakersfield, Calif., and Miss Attalee Buckingham, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Vahram Yettvart Davoud, Ph.B. 1903.

Born May 25, 1881, in Constantinople, Turkey.
Died August 28, 1926, in New York City.

Hartford Public High School. Electrical engineering course; prize for excellence in French, honorable mention for excellence in English, and divided prize in mechanical drawing Freshman year; general honors Junior year; two-year honors Senior year; member Track Team Freshman year and Sigma Xi.

Assistant to construction engineer at Lackawanna Steel Plant in Buffalo, N. Y., 1903-04; then held similar position with International Railway Company in that city six months; assistant engineer of Ontario Power Company of Niagara Falls 1904-05, during next two years assistant to the consulting engineer and then chief engineer of Niagara, Lockport & Ontario Power Company of Buffalo; electrical and mechanical engineer of Telluride Power Company at Provo, Utah, 1907–1912; was then engaged in special investigation for Utah Power & Light Company at Salt Lake City until 1923; had since been engineer for Electric Bond & Share Company of New York City; member Society for Promotion of Engineering Education, American Institute of Electrical Engineers, and American Society of Mechanical Engineers; associate member American Society of Civil Engineers; junior member Western Society of Engineers; member St. James' Episcopal Church, Montclair, N. J.

Death, due to heart failure, occurred in Grand Central Station, New York. Buried in Cataraque Cemetery, Kingston. Survived by wife, three children, and three sisters, Mrs. Stephen Chenorhavor, of Manchester, England, Mrs Samuel B. Donchian, of Hartford, Conn., and Miss Nouvart Davoud, of New York City.

Wilson Begges Hickox, Ph.B. 1905.

Born November 11, 1883, in Cleveland, Ohio
Died June 23, 1927, in New York City.

Father, Frank Freeman Hickox, a banker; son of Charles and Laura (Freeman) Hickox; ancestors settled in Connecticut. Mother, Annie (Begges) Hickox; daughter of A. J. and A. E. Begges.

University School, Cleveland. Select course; chairman Class Cup Committee, member Delta Psi.

In fall of 1905 entered the iron and steel business in Cleveland with Bourne-Fuller Company, with whom he remained five years; assistant to the president of Adams-Bagnall Electric Company of Cleveland 1910–15; then formed, with Laurence Hamill, Hamill-Hickox Company to deal in iron, steel, and railroad supplies and served as its secretary and treasurer until it ceased active operations in 1921; at time of death was president of the S. LeMur Company of Cleveland (makers of permanent waving machinery and cosmetics); director of Enamel Products Company, Brownell Mercantile Company, the Litchfield Company, and the Bankers Guaranteed Manufacturing Company; served five years in Troop A, Ohio National Guard; commissioned a Captain in the Ordnance Department July 3, 1917; assigned to active duty in Washington, D.C., July 23 and served until his resignation July 18, 1918.

Married October 12, 1912, in Cleveland, Martha M., daughter of Patrick and Sallie (Williams) Calhoun Children: Charles, Martha Anne, and Patricia. Mrs. Hickox died in March, 1921.

Death due to double mastoiditis. Buried in Cleveland. Survived by son, two daughters, and mother.

Argyle Reginald Scott, Ph.B. 1905.

Born April 24, 1884, in La Crosse, Wis.
Died February 14, 1927, at Miami Beach, Fla.

Father, Robert Alexander Scott; son of John and Mary Jane (Rogers) Scott; descendant of John Scott, who came to America from Lisburn, Ireland, in 1809 and settled at Lilly, Pa. Mother, Elsie (Gile) Scott; daughter of Abner and Mary Elizabeth (Smith) Gile; descendant of Samuel Gile [Guild], who came to this country from Scotland in 1636 and settled in Haverhill, Mass.

Lawrenceville School. Forestry course.

Lived in Watertown, Fla., 1910–16 and then moved to Billings, Mont., where he was connected with the Billings Land & Irrigation Company; later was president of La Crosse Box Company for a time and was also engaged as a building contractor in La Crosse, but he had retired from active business at the time of his death; had lived at Miami Beach for the last two years; had served as Captain of 120th Field Artillery, Wisconsin National Guard; member Christ Episcopal Church, La Crosse.

Married April 6, 1910, in La Crosse, Jessie, daughter of Nymphus Blackwell and Jessie M. (Hogan) Holway. One son, Argyle Holway.
Death, due to peritonitis, occurred at the Jackson Memorial Hospital, Miami. Buried in Oakgrove Cemetery, La Crosse. Survived by wife, son, mother, and a sister, Mrs. Edna Scott Paul, of Miami Beach.

Leonard Morgan Keeling, Ph.B. 1906.

Born March 24, 1885, in Chicago, Ill.
Died August 4, 1926.

It has been impossible to secure the desired information for an obituary sketch of Mr. Keeling in time for publication in this volume. A biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.

Charles Thruston Ballard, Jr., Ph.B. 1907.

Born November 28, 1886, in Louisville, Ky.
Died January 13, 1927, in New York City.

Father, Charles Thruston Ballard, ’70 S.; president of Ballard & Ballard Company (flour milling); son of Andrew Jackson Ballard, who attended Transylvania University, and Frances Ann (Thruston) Ballard; descendant of Bland Ballard, Jr., of Spottsylvania County, Va., who was a Corporal in Major George Slaughter’s Battalion and was killed in an Indian massacre in 1788; descended also from Edward Thruston, who came from England to Norfolk County, Va., in 1663. Mother, Emelina Modeste (Breaux) Ballard; daughter of Gustave Arvilleu Breaux (B A. Norwich University 1847, LL.B. Harvard 1850) and Emile (Locke) Breaux; descended from John Locke, who came from England to Plymouth, Mass, in 1636. Uncle: R. C. Ballard Thruston, ’80 S.

Hotchkiss School. Mechanical engineering course; member Class Tennis Team.

After graduation became engaged in business with Ballard & Ballard Company in Louisville and subsequently went to Costa Rica, where he built a flour mill; later traveled through the Northwest, buying wheat for the company; was then connected with engineering department of American Creosoting Company of Louisville, being stationed for a time at their plant in Indianapolis, Ind.; owned the Ballard Sales Company in Dayton, Ohio, for five years; only a short time before his death had gone to New York to associate himself with the Studebaker sales organization there; enrolled for enlisted service in the Navy June 5, 1917; appointed machinist November 14, 1917; given provisional rank of Ensign (Class 4) January 4, 1918; assigned to U. S. Naval Academy for study and appointed Ensign from June 8, 1918; served on the U. S. S. "Illinois" (May 20–September 7) and the U. S. S. "Woolsey"; resignation accepted December 21, 1918; member Society of the Cincinnati, Sons of the American Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, and Christ Church Cathedral, Louisville Married (1) September 28, 1908, in Louisville, Paula, daughter of Emory and Paula Beauchamp. Mr. and Mrs. Ballard were divorced in 1912. Married (2) in May, 1921, Helen, daughter of Colonel McNary and Helen McNary. No children by either marriage.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Cave Hill Cemetery, Louisville. Survived by wife, mother, a brother, G. Breaux Ballard, ex-’09 S., and two sisters, Mrs. Charles Horner and Mrs. Henning Chambers, both of Louisville.

Harold Bennett Kline, Ph.B. 1907.

Born March 14, 1883, in Amsterdam, N. Y.
Died August 15, 1926, in New York City.

Father, Harlan Page Kline; senior member of Kline & Hubbs; son of Adam W. and Bata (Simonds) Kline; descendant of William Kline, who came from Holland to Amsterdam. Mother, Delia (Bennett) Kline; daughter of Lyman and Almeria (Greene) Bennett; descendant of William Bennett, who came to this country from Ipswich, England, and settled at Hampton, Conn. Yale relatives: Henry E. Taintor, ’65 (uncle); and Edward B. Bennett, ’66, and Harlan H. Taintor, ’92 (cousins).

Hartford Public High School. Entered Sheffield Scientific School with Class of 1906 but received his degree in 1907.

Was engaged in mercantile business in Columbia, Mo, for a time after graduation; enlisted in the Canadian Expeditionary Force October 30, 1917, and the following March was commissioned a Lieutenant in the Royal Field Artillery; served with British 5th Army in France until his discharge in February, 1919; was subsequently vice-president and general manager of Industrial Banking System, Inc., of Buffalo, N. Y., for a time and later was in the employ of National Automatic Teller Company of Utica, N. Y.; engaged in the advertising business in New York City 1924-26; at time of death was vice-president of National Service Bureau of New York, Inc.; member Asylum Hill Congregational Church, Hartford.

Married (1) October 30, 1909, in Columbia, Mo., Florence, daughter of Mrs. Florence Rollins Gray. One son, Harold Bennett. Mr. and Mrs. Kline separated in 1918. Married (2) in June, 1921, in Buffalo, Mary, daughter of George and Margaret Gillies. One son, Wilfred Gillies.

Death due to chronic myocarditis Buried in Green Hill Cemetery, Amsterdam. Survived by wife, two sons, and mother.

Arthur Carr Sherman, Ph.B. 1907.

Born May 14, 1887, in New York City.
Died November 9, 1926, in Wayne, Pa.

Father, Arthur Whiting Sherman, cashier of Gallatin National Bank, New York City; son of George and Mary (Flagg) Sherman; grandson of Henry C. Flagg (B.A. 1811), former mayor of New Haven; descendant of the Rev. John Sherman, who came from England to Watertown, Mass., in 1634. Mother, Carrie (Carr) Sherman; daughter of Dabney Carr, ex-’52, and Mary Elizabeth (Dyer) Carr.

Prepared privately at Pension Graeter-Amez-Droz, Thun, Switzerland, two years and at Phillips-Andover. Civil engineering course; member University Swimming and Water Polo teams, winning three medals and four cups, Freshman Football Team, Freshman Banjo and Mandolin Club; Third Sergeant in University Corps of Cadets, winning gold medal in competitive drill.

Engaged in construction work at the Charleston (S. C.) Navy Yard 1907-09; assistant engineer in maintenance of way department of New York Central & Hudson River Railroad, with his office in New York City, 1909–1917; had since been superintendent of Morris Wheeler & Company of Philadelphia (iron and steel); served on the Mexican border in 1916; member of Society of 9th Company, Veterans, 7th Regiment, New York National Guard; member executive committee of Yale Alumni Association of Philadelphia in 1922; vestryman of Old St. David's (Episcopal) Church, Radnor, Pa.
Sheffield Scientific School

Married December 2, 1911, in New York City, Mary Sherman, daughter of the Rev. George Alexander Keller (B.A. St. Stephen's College, Annandale, N. Y., 1874), who attended the Union Theological Seminary Class of 1877, and Mary Flagg (Sherman) Keller. Children: Caroline Carr, Marjorie Flagg, and Barbara.

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in the graveyard of Old St. David's Church, Radnor. Survived by wife, three daughters, and a half sister, Eliza Sherman King, the wife of Frederick A. King, ex-'95.

Douglas Hotchkiss Thomson, Ph.B. 1908.

Born September 24, 1885, in West Hartford, Conn.
Died November 21, 1926, near Warehouse Point, Conn.

Father, James McArthur Thomson, a merchant; a founder of the dry goods house of Brown, Thomson & Company of Hartford; born in Scotland and came to America about 1860; son of William and Anne (McArthur) Thomson, of Perthshire, Scotland. Mother, Cornelia Catherine (Hotchkiss) Thomson; daughter of Ashbel C. and Leontine (Lewis) Hotchkiss.

Hartford Public High School. Select course; member Berzelius.

Had been connected with Terry Steam Turbine Company of Hartford since graduation; purchasing agent 1908–09, assistant secretary 1909–1913, vice-president 1913–17, and president and treasurer since 1917; member of firm of Thomson, Fenn & Company, investment brokers, of which his brother, James L. Thomson, '98 S., is also a member, since 1914; director of the Sesamee Company (locks) and Westwood, Inc. (real estate), of Hartford, Farmington (Conn.) Water Company, and Miller Company (manufacturers of lighting fixtures) of Meriden, Conn.; trustee Bankers Trust Company and Society for Savings; member Congregational Church.

Killed in an automobile accident, in which Edward M. Cummins, ex-’08 S., also lost his life, and George S. Troxell, ex-’08 S., was seriously injured. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by wife, sons, daughter, brother, and a sister, Mrs. James Terry, of Hartford.

Albert Porter McCarthy, Ph.B. 1910.

Born April 25, 1887, in Oswego, N. Y.
Died June 16, 1926, in Bangor, Maine.

Father, Albert Freeman McCarthy, a wholesale shoe dealer; son of William A. and Maria (Hubbard) McCarthy; descendant of William McCarthy, who came to America from Ireland and settled at Oswego. Mother, Helen (Lefaiver) McCarthy; daughter of Stephan and Esther (Scruton) Lefaiver; descendant of Joshua Lefevre, who came to this country in 1844 and settled at Oswego.

Oswego High School. Mechanical engineering course.

With Philadelphia Suburban Gas & Electric Company 1910-1921; located for three years at Chester, Pa., where he had charge, as construction engineer, of the building of a $2,000,000 gas plant; division manager of the company at Coatesville, Pa., 1913-17; manager at Pottstown, Pa., 1917-1921; had since been manager of Bangor Gas Light Company; member Grace Presbyterian Church, Oswego.

Married June 5, 1918, in Philadelphia, Marie Elizabeth, daughter of Robert and Elizabeth (Caskey) Kineavy. One daughter, Helen Louise.

Death due to chronic interstitial nephritis. Buried in Rural Free Cemetery, Oswego. Survived by wife, daughter, parents, and a sister, Miss Esther McCarthy, of Oswego.
Harry Paul Greenough, Ph.B. 1911.
Born December 6, 1886, in Missoula, Mont.

Father, Thomas-Lockman Greenough; engaged as owner and operator in mining and lumber business in Cœur d'Alene district, Idaho; also had banking interests; son of Christian and Martha J. (Lockman) Greenough; descendant of Thomas Greenough, who came from Scotland and settled in Nova Scotia. Mother, Tennessee (Epperson) Greenough, daughter of William Calvin and Nancy L. (Hopson) Epperson; descendant of John Epperson, who settled in East Tennessee.

Attended preparatory department of University of Montana two years (member of University Football Team) and later completed preparation for Yale at Phillips-Andover. Entered Sheffield Scientific School with Class of 1910 and joined Class of 1911 at beginning of Junior year; member University Football and Track teams, Yale Corinthian Yacht Club, and Book and Snake; on governing board of University Club.

Spent a year in travel after graduating from Yale; engaged in banking with Old National Bank of Spokane 1912-13 and in mining with Banner & Bangle Mining Company, of Troy, Mont., 1913-15; had since been engaged in cattle raising as owner of Sunset Valley Ranch at Potomac, Mont., and had been interested in the development of the Blackfoot Valley.

Unmarried.

Death, due to lymphatic leukemia, occurred at St Luke's Hospital, Spokane; had been in poor health for a month. Buried in Missoula. Survived by mother, two brothers, Leo Greenough, of Troy, Mont., and John E Greenough, ex-'13 S, and three sisters, the Misses Ruth and Edith Greenough, of Missoula, and Mrs. S. A. Easton, of Kellogg, Idaho.

Clyde Martin, Ph.B. 1913.

Born March 31, 1890, in Brooklyn, N Y.
Died October 30, 1926, in New York City.

Father, Thomas Betts Martin; in wholesale dry goods commission business under his own name; son of Henry and Margaret (Betts) Martin; descendant of Thomas and Harriet (Stretch) Martin, who came from London to Philadelphia about 1822. Mother, Elizabeth Murdock (Stirling) Martin; daughter of Joseph Stirling, who came from Scotland to Philadelphia about 1840, and Elizabeth (Wilson) Stirling.

Adelphi Academy, Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute, and Phillips-Andover. Member Freshman Hockey Team and University Hockey Team Junior and Senior years; football cheer leader Freshman year; on staff of Yale Scientific Monthly Senior year; chairman Class Book Committee; member executive committee of Byers Hall, Senior Council, Undergraduate Discipline Committee, and Yale Coöperative Council; engaged in Boy Scout work Freshman year and Boys' Club work Junior year, superintendent of Sheffield boys' work and student superintendent of Bancroft Foote Boys' Club work Senior year; member Berzelius and Kopper Kettle Klub.

Associated with his brothers, Henry C. Martin, '02 S., and Stirling Martin, '02 S., wholesale commission merchants, in New York from October, 1913, until March, 1916, and again from May, 1919, until his death; superintendent of the Boys' Club of New York City March, 1916–July, 1917; enlisted as a Sergeant in Squadron A, Cavalry, New York National Guard, and served on Mexican border from June to December, 1916; commissioned a Second Lieutenant in Quartermaster Corps October 6, 1917, and promoted to First Lieutenant November 17; served with Company A, 302d Stevedore Regiment, at Camp Hill and went overseas with that organization in December, 1917; rejected for line duty because of color blindness; stationed at Bordeaux and at the Regulating Station at General Headquarters in St-Dizier for a time; was later Railhead Officer at Varennes, Châtel Chéhéry, and Grand Pré and Post Executive Officer at Regulating Station of Army of Occupation in Coblenz; promoted to Captain of Engineers February 23, 1919; received citation in Meuse-Argonne offensive; returned to United States in April, 1919, and was discharged May 2; secretary of Class of 1913 S. from graduation until 1921; Class Agent for Yale Alumni University Fund Association 1916–17; secretary of Yale Association of Class Secretaries 1916–18; vice-president Yale Civic Service League 1915–19; elected to council of Yale Club of New York 1924 for term of three years; in 1920 elected to board of trustees of the Boys' Club of New York; for some years agent of the Phillips-Andover Class of 1910 for the Phillips Academy Alumni Fund; sustainer of the LeRoy Martin Scholarship given annually to a Phillips Academy graduate, to be used during his Freshman year at Yale; during the war presented a stand of colors to the Academy Regiment, which is now placed in Stone Chapel on ceremonial occasions; member Church of the Messiah (Protestant Episcopal), Brooklyn.

Unmarried.

Death due to an attack of acute indigestion. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by three sisters, the Misses Elizabeth and Florence Martin and Mrs. Leonard B. Cruden, all of Brooklyn, and two brothers, Henry C. and Stirling Martin. His twin brother, LeRoy Martin, '11 S., died in 1919.

Albert Emil Thorpe, Ph.B. 1913.

Born September 21, 1892, in New Haven, Conn.
Died November 30, 1926, in Whitneyville, Conn.

Father, William Barnes Thorpe, a merchant; son of Laurence and Katherine (Barnes) Thorpe. Mother, Pauline Fredrika (Krumweide) Thorpe, who came to this country from Luneburg, Hanover, Germany, in 1878; daughter of Karl and Justine (Siegfried) Krumweide.

New Haven High School Mechanical engineering course
With Chain Belt Company of Milwaukee, Wis., 1913-14; in business with his father in New Haven for a few months in 1914; had since been in the employ of Winchester Repeating Arms Company of New Haven, at first as a tool designer, subsequently planning supervisor on gun parts, and general foreman of the drop forging shop since August, 1916; throughout the World War acted as foreman of one of the machine gun parts sections; former member Yale Engineering Association; associate member American Society of Mechanical Engineers; member Lutheran Church.

Married June 14, 1917, in New Haven, Caroline Elizabeth Lubenow, who received a certificate from the Yale School of Music in 1916, daughter of August H. and Elizabeth (Schwaner) Lubenow. One son, Albert Augustus.
Obituary Record

Death, due to a complication of diseases, occurred after a long illness. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, son, a sister, Miss Adelaide J. Thorpe, of Sussex, N. J., and a brother, William A. Thorpe, ’14 S.

Stephen Payn Nash Rhoades, Ph.B. 1915.

Born April 30, 1893, in New York City.
Died December 27, 1926, in Short Hills, N. J.

Father, Lyman Rhoades, a banker; president of Mercantile Safe Deposit Company of New York City; son of Lyman and Cornelia Rachel (Harsen) Rhoades; descendant of Henry Rhoades (born in 1608), who immigrated to America and settled near Marblehead, Mass. Mother, Elizabeth (Nash) Rhoades; daughter of Stephen Payn and Catharine (McLean) Nash; descendant of Timothy Nash, who came to this country before 1645 and settled in Hadley, Mass.

Collegiate School, New York City, Choate School, and The Hill School. Entered Sheffield Scientific School with Class of 1914; joined 1915 S. Senior year; select course; member Delta Psi.

Connected with Equitable Trust Company of New York July, 1915–August, 1916; was then with brokerage firm of Denny, Pomeroy & Company for a few months; was subsequently a partner in firm of Frost & Rhoades (marine and general insurance) until May, 1917; served as advisor to Intelligence Department of War Trade Board in Washington November, 1917–July, 1918; enlisted in the Field Artillery August 29, 1918, and attended Central Officers’ Training School at Camp Zachary Taylor until December 12, 1918, when he was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in Field Artillery Reserve Corps; partner in insurance firm of G. L. Gilsey & Company, Inc., of New York 1919–1924; had since been vice-president of Stewart, Hencken & Will, Inc., bankers, New York; member Christ Episcopal Church, Short Hills.

Married September 29, 1915, in Summit, N. J., Freda, daughter of the Rev. Henry Weston Folger Frost, who studied Marion Eugene Mattison, Ph.B. 1916.

Born July 14, 1893, in Anderson, S. C.
Died September 8, 1926, at Daytona Beach, Fla.

Father, Marion Marcell Mattison; general agent for South Carolina of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company; son of William John and Sarah (Barmore) Mattison; descendant of Gabriel Mattison. Mother, Clara (Sharpe) Mattison; daughter of Erskine Augustus and Mary (Smith) Sharpe; descendant of Marshall Sharpe, born in this country but of Irish descent.

Anderson High School. B.S. Davidson College 1914 (member Pi Kappa Alpha); entered Sheffield Scientific School as a Junior in 1914; civil engineering course.

Engineer with Cosden Oil & Gas Company in Tulsa, Okla., from July, 1916, until shortly before his enlistment on August 25, 1917; attended second Reserve Officers’ Training Camp at Leon Springs, Texas, August–November, 1917; stationed at Fort Moultrie, S. C., December 15, 1917–April 6, 1918 (made a Corporal January 26), and then at Fort Monroe, Va., until July 14, 1918; received his commission as a Second Lieutenant, Coast Artillery Corps, June 26, 1918; went overseas July 14 with Battery D, 42d Coast Artillery, and saw active service in St.-Mihiel sector; promoted to First Lieutenant in October, 1918; returned to the United States February 18, 1919, and received his discharge March 8; engineer with South Carolina State Highway Department at Columbia in summer of 1919; was subsequently employed by Turner Construction Company in New York City in 1920, in Atlanta, Ga., 1922–23, and at their Chicago office in 1924; in real estate business as a salesman for the Eastwood-Williams Company in Orlando, Fla., 1925–26; member Yale Engineering Association and Central Presbyterian Church, Anderson.
Obituary Record

Unmarried.
Death due to heart failure. Buried in Silver Brook Cemetery, Anderson. Survived by his parents, three brothers, Clyde S. Mattison, of Detroit, Mich., and Wilbur E. and William B. Mattison, both of Anderson, and a sister, Miss Sara Mattison, of Anderson.

Francis Lanson Adams, Ph.B. 1918.

Born April 25, 1896, in New York City.
Died September 12, 1926, in Westport, Conn.

Father, John Lanson Adams (B.A. 1883, M.D. Columbia 1886); brain surgeon and eye, ear, nose, and throat specialist in New York City; son of George Sherwood and Polly Morehouse (Coley) Adams; descendant of Edward Adams, who came with his brother, Henry Adams, from England to America about 1640 and settled in the Providence Plantation, subsequently moving to Wethersfield, Conn., and then to New Haven; one of the founders of Milford, Conn., and later a resident of Fairfield, Conn, where he built the first church; descended also from Capt. Ebenezer Coley, who received his commission from Governor Jonathan Trumbull of Connecticut in 1764 and during the Revolution commanded a regiment which he had raised. Mother, Elizabeth Ellershe (Wallace) Adams; daughter of Francis Barton and Margaret Catherine (Beehler) Wallace; descendant of Sir James Wallace, who came from Scotland and settled at Milford, Pa.; descended also from Tobias Von Beehler, who came from Waldorf, Germany, in 1805 and settled in Philadelphia, Pa. Yale relatives include: Joseph W. Hill, '78, Charles F. Adams, '86, and Henry F. Adams, '87 S. (uncles); and Edward H. Coley and William B. Coley, both '84, Joseph A. Hill, '02 S., Benjamin W. Hill, '12 S., and Bradley L. Coley, '15 (cousins).

Taft and Cheshire (Conn.) schools. Chemistry course; member championship Freshman Swimming Team; captain Water Polo Team; in 1915 and 1916 holder of two intercollegiate records for the plunge; member Chi Phi.

Served as Private in Quartermaster Corps with Company 5, Supply Train Division, New York National Guard, July...
15-21, 1917, when discharged on account of physical disability; in February, 1918, left Yale and served in a civilian capacity in Ordnance Department as Engineer of Tests and later as Assistant Chief Army Inspector in Pittsburgh, Pa., and Pawtucket, R. I., March 8, 1918-May 1, 1919; returned to Yale and received degree of Ph B honoris causa 1920, with enrollment in Class of 1918 S; assistant chief inspector of South Side Works of Jones & Laughlin Steel Corporation of Pittsburgh 1920-23; with American Chain Company of Bridgeport, Conn., as assistant production manager for Page Steel & Wire Company 1923-24; in February, 1924, became distributor of Page Steel & Wire Company's products in northern Connecticut, western Massachusetts, and Vermont, incorporating the company under name of Adams Fence & Wire Company, Inc., with his office in Hartford, Conn; president and general manager of company until time of death; director Deane Company of Hartford; member Yale Engineering Association, American Chemical Society, Sons of the American Revolution, Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, and Christ Episcopal Church, Westport.

Married June 12, 1920, in Yonkers, N Y, Mary Shaw Horne, Vassar '17, daughter of William Dodge Horne (Ph.B. Columbia 1886, Ph D. 1894) and Carrie May (Quigley) Horne. No children.

Death, due to myelogenous leukemia, occurred after an illness of two weeks. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by wife and mother.

Henry Edward Flynn, B.S. 1924.

Born October 5, 1900, in Bridgeport, Conn.
Died October 29, 1926, in Bridgeport, Conn

Father, Thomas Flynn, a cost accountant; son of Henry and Catherine (Redmond) Flynn; ancestors came from Ireland to New Canaan, Conn. Mother, Catherine Agnes (Nugent) Flynn; daughter of Edward and Eliza Nugent; ancestors came to Rahway, N. J., from Ireland.

Bridgeport High School and Wilmer and Chew's Naval Academy Preparatory School, Annapolis, Md. Attended
Obituary Record

Connecticut Agricultural College for two years as member of Class of 1923 (interested in debating there; editor-in-chief of the Year Book; managing editor-elect of the Weekly; member Phi Mu Delta). Entered Sheffield Scientific School as a Sophomore; course in administrative engineering; two-year honors in all studies and honors in physics, mathematics, and engineering mechanics; charter member Tau Beta Pi; member Sigma Xi.

Clerk in claim department of Hulman & Company (wholesale groceries and general merchandise) in Terre Haute, Ind., July 1, 1924–May 1, 1925; had been in failing health since then and a patient in Loomis (N Y.) Sanitarium and Laurel Heights Sanatorium, Shelton, Conn; member St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church, Bridgeport.

Unmarried.

Death due to tuberculosis. Buried in St. Michael's Cemetery, Bridgeport. Survived by his mother.

William Russell Flynn, B.S. 1927.

Born December 23, 1904, in New Haven, Conn.
Died April 9, 1927, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, James Joseph Flynn, a clerk in the United States Railway Mail Service; born in Abbeyfeale, Ireland; came to America in 1880 and settled in New Haven; son of William J. and Mary (Sullivan) Flynn. Mother, Anna (Russell) Flynn; daughter of William J. and Mary (Buckley) Russell, who came to New Haven from Ireland in 1867. Cousins: Morris D. Slattery, '93 M., and William J. O'Meara, '04 S.

New Haven High School. Attended Holy Cross College in 1922; entered Sheffield Scientific School in 1923; general science course; member Freshman Track Team and heeled the Yale Literary Magazine that year; in Senior year took the combined law course; member St. Francis’ Roman Catholic Church; received degree of B.S. post obitum.

Death, due to a compound fracture of the skull, occurred in an automobile accident. Buried in St. Lawrence Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by parents, a sister, Miss Mary E. Flynn, and a brother, James J. Flynn, Jr., all of New Haven.
GRADUATE SCHOOL

Carl Edwin Epler, M.A. 1878.

Born November 20, 1857, in Jacksonville, Ill.
Died March 10, 1927, in Quincy, Ill.

Father, Cyrus Epler (B.A. Illinois College 1847), a lawyer; state's attorney; judge of 18th Judicial Circuit of Illinois for twenty-four years; member of the Legislature and Senate; son of John M. and Sarah (Beggs) Epler; grandson of Capt. Charles Beggs, an officer in the War of 1812 and member of the Constitutional Convention of Indiana; descendant of Abram Epler, who came to America from Switzerland in 1734 and settled in Berks County, near Reading, Pa. Mother, Cornelia (Nettleton) Epler, daughter of Dr. Clark Nettleton, who attended the Yale School of Medicine in 1824, and Anna (Hurd) Nettleton; granddaughter of Capt. Josiah Nettleton and John Hurd, who served in the Revolution; great-granddaughter of Capt. John Holbrook, a member of the Colonial Legislature from Derby; ancestors came from England and settled near Derby. Nephew: Palmer Y. Epler, '27.

Whipple Academy (preparatory department of Illinois College); B.A. Illinois College 1876 (valedictorian and member of Phi Alpha); attended Yale Graduate School 1876-78; M.A. Illinois 1879; studied law at University of Michigan 1878-79 (LLB 1879); admitted to Illinois Bar in June, 1879; practiced in Jacksonville and later in Chicago with the firm of Dent & Black for a short time; had practiced in Quincy since 1880; city attorney 1881-84, state's attorney for Adams County 1891-92; elected county judge on the Democratic ticket in 1894 and reelected in 1898 for another term of four years; had also sat temporarily as county judge in tax cases in Cook County; first judge in the state to uphold the constitutionality of the inheritance tax law of Illinois, his decision being subsequently confirmed by the Illinois and U. S. Supreme courts; compiler of Quincy City Code of 1885; chairman of Legal Advisory Board of Adams County 1917-18; cooperated in the compilation of Funk & Wagnalls New Standard Dictionary; a vestryman of Church of the Good Shepherd (Episcopal) for forty years and chancellor of the Diocese of Quincy for many years.
Obituary Record

Unmarried.

Death due to a hemorrhage, which occurred at the Blessing Hospital, Quincy, where he had been a patient for several weeks on account of an injured ankle. Buried in Diamond Grove Cemetery, Jacksonville. Survived by three sisters, the Misses Effie and Helen Epler, of Jacksonville, and Dr. Blanche N. Epler, Mount Holyoke '84, who received the degrees of B.S. at the University of California in 1895 and M.D. at Johns Hopkins in 1899, and two brothers, the Rev. Percy H. Epler, '96 D., and Ernest Epler (B.A. Illinois College 1880, M.D. Rush Medical College 1883), of Fort Smith, Ark.

Oscar Robert Olsen Farel, M.A. 1905.

Born in 1875, in Forest City, Iowa.
Died September 2, 1923, at Storm Lake, Iowa.

It has been impossible to secure the desired information for an obituary sketch of Mr. Farel in time for publication in this volume. A biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.

Walter Phalti Lawrence, M.A. 1906.

Born June 19, 1867, near Asheboro, N. C.
Died June 2, 1926, at High Point, N. C.

Father, the Rev. John Stanford Lawrence, a minister of the Christian Church for over forty years; son of Isaac and Martha (Macon) Lawrence; descendant of John Lawrence, who was born in 1725 and went to North Carolina from Virginia. Mother, Annie (Covington) Lawrence; daughter of Matthew and Elizabeth (Capple) Covington Shiloh Academy and Richmond Training School, Liberty, N. C.; Ph.B. Elon College 1894 (valedictorian of his class), M.A. 1905; studied at Yale Graduate School 1905-06; professor of the English language and literature and head of the department at Elon College 1906-1926 and dean of the college.

Graduate School

1914-1923; supply professor of English at University of Wooster 1911, in Appalachian Training School, Boone, N. C., 1916, and at Wake Forest College 1924; worked in the Bodleian Library at Oxford in 1908 and was a graduate student at University of Chicago 1919; at time of his death was credit manager of Carolina Casket Company of High Point; mayor of Elon College 1906-1911; town commissioner and member of School Board; county commissioner of Alamance County 1917-1920; president of Elon Banking & Trust Company 1912-1920; director of Alamance Bank & Trust Company and of Standard Realty & Security Company, both in Burlington, N. C.; represented Alamance County in North Carolina General Assembly 1921; member Christian Church, Elon College; president of North Carolina and Virginia Christian Conference 1912-13; author: For Humanity (a three-act play); had contributed articles to Raleigh News and Observer and to Herald of Gospel Liberty

Married June 17, 1896, at Union Ridge, N. C., Mary Annie, daughter of James Henry Graham, who attended Caldwell Institute, Hillsboro, N. C., and Baltimore (Md.) Dental School, and Mary Garrison (Dickey) Graham. Children: Mary Graham, who received the degree of B.A. at Elon in 1924 and completed the course in pianoforte at the New England Conservatory of Music, Boston, in 1927; and Walter Phalti, Jr., Elon College 1929

Death due to heart trouble. Buried in Magnolia Cemetery, Elon College. Survived by wife, daughter, son, three brothers, John I. Lawrence, of Austin, Texas, and Thomas W. and Oscar D. Lawrence, both of Seagrove, N. C., and three sisters, Mrs. James B. Beck, of Hemp, N. C., Mrs. Henry C. Lowdermilk, of El Centro, Calif., and Mrs. Jefferson A. Anman, of Seagrove

Born March 29, 1871, in Drumthie, Scotland
Died April 29, 1927, in Greenwich, Conn

Father, the Rev. James Gammack (M.A. Marischal College, Scotland, 1857, LL.D. Aberdeen 1887), a clergyman of the Scottish Episcopal Church and later of Episcopal churches in Toronto, Canada, and in Plymouth and West Hartford, Conn; born in Turriff, Scotland, came to this country in 1889; son of Alexander and Elizabeth (Robertson) Gammack. Mother, Jane Anne (Wilson) Gammack; daughter of John and Margery (Nicholson) Wilson, of Premnay, Scotland.
Obituary Record

Preparatory training received at King's College, Aberdeen; B.A Trinity College (Toronto) 1891; M.A. 1902; graduate of Berkeley Divinity School 1894; ordained to Episcopal ministry at Middletown, Conn, June 6, 1894; rector of St. Gabriel's Mission, East Berlin, Conn, 1893, and of Calvary Church, Colchester, Conn., 1894-95; assistant, St. John's Church, Stamford, Conn., 1895-96, St. Gabriel's Mission, East Berlin, 1896-98, and Christ Church, New Haven, 1898-1900; built Christ Church, West Haven, and served as its rector 1900-09; rector Trinity Church, Lenox, Mass., 1909-1915 and Christ Church, Fitchburg, Mass., since 1915; studied at Columbia 1897-98 and in Yale Graduate School, specializing in Biblical literature, 1903-08; served as a civilian chaplain at Camp Devens, Mass., in 1917 and was also a member of the Public Safety Committee and a four-minute speaker; deputy to the Episcopal conventions in 1916, 1922, and 1925; member standing committee of Episcopal Diocese of Western Massachusetts in 1924 and of diocesan committee appointed by Bishop Thomas F. Davies, '94, to have charge of plans for the Bishop's Crusade in January, 1927; secretary of Episcopal National Commission on Evangelism since 1926; author: Simple Counsels (1897), Good Friday (1904), and The Contemporary Christ (1917); trustee of Fitchburg Public Library; former president of Ministerial Association of Fitchburg; member Fitchburg Historical Society.

Married June 6, 1899, in Stamford, Conn., Mary Thompson, daughter of William Henry and Sarah Abbott (Smith) Bridgman. Children: Thomas Hubbard (B.A. Harvard 1920); Ellen Bridgman (B.A. Smith 1924); Gordon; and James.

Death, due to injuries received when he was thrown from a horse, occurred at the Greenwich Hospital. Buried in Forest Hill Cemetery, Fitchburg. Survived by wife, three sons, daughter, and four brothers, the Rev. John W. Gammack, of Glen Cove, N.Y., who attended Gordons College, Aberdeen,
Graduate School

Dr. Alexander Penrose Forbes Gammack, of South Bend, Ind., who received the degrees of M.B. and M.D. at Marischal College, George W. Gammack, of West Hartford, Conn., and Fred S. Gammack, of Hampton, Va.

Julian Willis Abernethy, Ph.D. 1878.

Born January 23, 1853, in New Haven, Vt.
Died July 1, 1923, in Burlington, Vt.

Father, Ira Abernethy, a farmer; son of James Pierpont Abernethy, who went from Connecticut to Stockbridge, Mass., and thence to New Haven, Vt., in 1789; ancestors came to Virginia from Scotland about 1620. Mother, Mary (Lawrence) Abernethy; daughter of Diah and Lucretia (Peck) Lawrence; ancestors came from England and settled in Bennington, Vt.

Bristol (Vt.) Academy; in 1871 entered Middlebury; member of Chi Phi and Phi Beta Kappa; B.A. 1876, M.A. 1879; studied Anglo-Saxon and English literature in Yale Graduate School 1876–78; associated with Charles H. Jones, editor of Eclectic Magazine, 1878–79; tutor in English at Middlebury 1879–1880; professor of English literature at Adelphi College, Brooklyn, 1880–1891; student of English philology at Johns Hopkins in 1892 and Fellow by courtesy 1893–94; principal of Berkeley Institute, Brooklyn, 1894–1910; had since been engaged in literary work in Brooklyn and Burlington; Litt. D. Middlebury 1914, author. The Academic Orthoepist (1884), American Literature (1902), Correct Pronunciation (1912), and History of English Literature (1916); annotated editions of Selected Poems of Southern Poets (1904), Milton’s Minor Poems (1906), Coleridge’s Ancient Mariner (1907), Lowell’s Vision of Sir Launfal (1908), Macaulay’s Lays of Ancient Rome (1909), Arnold’s Sokrab and Rustum (1909), and Autobiography of Benjamin Franklin (1918), published in English Classic Series; collector of first editions of American authors, including a special collection of Thoreau of over 500 books, pamphlets, and manuscripts; trustee of Middlebury since 1901; president of department of philology in Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences for about six years; member Congregational Church, New Haven, Vt.
Unmarried.

Death due to septic bronchitis. Buried in Green Mount Cemetery, Burlington. Survived by a brother, Frank D. Abernethy, of Burlington.

Carl August Blomgren, Ph.D. 1893.

Born April 1, 1865, in Solstad, Misterhult Parish, Småland, Sweden.
Died June 29, 1926, in Sparta, Mich.

Father, John Peter Blomgren, a miner, who came to America in 1875 and settled in Calumet, Mich. Mother, Johanna (Daniel) Blomgren.

Preparatory training received at Calumet; studied at Augustana College 1880-85 (B.A. 1885); engaged in ministerial work in the Swedish Lutheran (Congregational) Church, Lowell, Mass., 1885-87, studied at Harvard 1886-87 and at Augustana Theological Seminary 1887-88; ordained to ministry of the Lutheran Church June 24, 1888, at Galesburg, Ill.; pastor of churches in McKeesport and Braddock, Pa, 1888-1890 and in Bridgeport, Conn., 1890-93; during the last period attended lectures in Semitic Department of Yale Graduate School; pastor of a Lutheran church in Philadelphia, Pa., 1893-1904; studied at University of Pennsylvania 1895-98; instructor in Hebrew at Mount Airy Lutheran Theological Seminary, Philadelphia, 1898-1904; instructor and professor of Hebrew and Old Testament Exegesis at Augustana Theological Seminary since 1904; author: A Study in Obadiah (1904), A Treatise on the Book of Job (1905), Old Testament Prophecy (1906), Introduction to the Book of Daniel (1907), Elements of the Christian Religion (1907), Mystery and Revelation (1907), A Critical Review of the New Translation of the Old Testament in the Swedish (1908), The Relation of the Augustana Synod to the General Council (1909), The Lutheran Reformation of the 16th Century in its Bearing on Public Education (1913), The Great Problem of the Biblical Literary Criticism (1914), The Holy Communion (1915), The Divine Tithe (1923), Thy Kingdom Come (an exposition of the Apocalypse) (1924), and The Great Deception (1926); member American Oriental Society since 1900; member Zion Church, Rock Island, Ill.
Married (1) February 13, 1889, in Lowell, Mass, Sigrid Amalia, daughter of A. Wilhelm and Hildegard (Bergmann) Soderberg. Children Elroi Carl Wilhelm (died in infancy); Ariel Gunnar (died in infancy); Sigfrid Luther (B A. Augustana 1912, B D. Augustana Theological Seminary 1915); Svanhild Anna Margareta (B.A Augustana 1916) (Mrs. Walter Erickson); and Mildred Hildegard Ione (B.A Elizabeth College 1921). Mrs. Blomgren died May 8, 1914. Married (2) December 30, 1919, in Lindsborg, Kans., Lydia, daughter of Lars Olof and Matilda (Prino) Jaderborg Children: Gladys Victoria and Ebba Carola.

Death, due to pneumonia, occurred while he was in charge for the summer of the Lutheran Church in Sparta. Buried in Chippiannock Cemetery, Rock Island, Ill. Survived by wife, one son, four daughters, and five grandchildren.

Alice Lincoln Wright, Ph.D. 1901.

Born July 13, 1875, in Oakham, Mass.
Died October 13, 1926, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Henry Parks Wright (B A. 1868, Ph.D 1876, LL.D. Union 1895); dean of Yale College 1884–1909 and Dunham professor of the Latin language and literature 1878–1909, emeritus 1909–1918; served in 51st Massachusetts Infantry during Civil War; trustee of Connecticut College for Women; son of Parks and Relief Willard (Woolley) Wright; great-grandson of Dr. David Woolley, of Hinsdale, N. H, and of Capt. John Crawford, of Oakham, both soldiers in the Revolution; descendant of Samuel Wright, a deacon of the First Church in Springfield, Mass, and Margaret Wright, who came to Springfield from London about 1638 and in 1656 went to Northampton, Mass., where they were among the first settlers. Mother, Martha Elizabeth (Burt) Wright; daughter of Alfred Ely and Elizabeth (Lincoln) Burt; descendant of Richard Burt, who came to Taunton, Mass, from England in 1639

Hillhouse High School; B.A. Wellesley 1897; student in Yale Graduate School 1897–1901; assisted her mother in compiling the History of the Oread Collegiate Institute (published in 1905; student in New Haven State Normal School for a year (1907–1908); taught at Dwight School, a model school for the New Haven Normal School, 1908–1912; taught English at New Haven Normal School 1912–1925 and also nature study 1918–1924; former member of the Church of Christ in Yale College and since 1921 of Church of the Redeemer (Congregational), New Haven.

Death due to carcinoma. Buried in Oakham. Survived by mother and a brother, Ellsworth Wright, of New Haven. Her eldest brother, Henry B. Wright, '98, a member of the Yale faculty for twenty years, died in 1923, and another brother, Alfred P. Wright, B.A. post obitum 1901, died during his Senior year in college. By the terms of her will Miss Wright provided for the establishment of the Henry Parks Wright Scholarship Fund at Connecticut College for Women in memory of her father. The Alice Lincoln Wright Memorial Fund was started at the New Haven Normal School by the Class of 1927, to be completed by the alumnae.
Rollin McNeil, M.D. 1862.
Born July 8, 1837, in North Haven, Conn.
Died August 28, 1926, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Henry McNeil; engaged in the cooperage business; ancestors of Highland Scotch descent from the McNeils of the Island of Barra, one of whom, Archibald McNeil, was a charter member of Hiram Lodge No. 1, A. F. and A. M., which was organized in New Haven in 1750. Mother, Augusta (English) McNeil.

Early education received in North Haven and New Haven schools; entered Yale School of Medicine in 1859; began practice of medicine at Cross River, N. Y., in 1862; served during Civil War as Assistant Surgeon and Captain of the 9th Connecticut Volunteers from June 16 to October 26, 1864, and as Surgeon and Major of the same regiment from November 18, 1864, to August 5, 1865; subsequently came to New Haven and was a member of firm of McNeil & Washburn, dealers in surgical supplies and drugs, for about ten years; then engaged in general practice of medicine in New Haven until his retirement in 1914; member New Haven County Medical Society, Loyal Legion, Admiral Foote Post No. 1, G. A. R., and the Unitarian Church, New Haven.

Married December 30, 1863, in South Salem, N. Y., Esther Mary, daughter of Eli and Sarah M. (Keeler) Keeler. Three children: Mary and Henry K., both of whom died in infancy, and Archibald, ex-'90 S., who received degree of M.D. at Dartmouth in 1896. Mrs. McNeil died March 10, 1925.

Death occurred in the New Haven Hospital, after an illness of three days due to septicemia and pneumonia. Buried in South Salem, N. Y. Survived by son.

William Brinton Hall, M.D. 1873.
Born December 26, 1860, in Lee, Mass.
Died April 18, 1927, in Pittsfield, Mass.

Father, William G. Hall, a farmer. Mother, Sophie C. (Gardner) Hall.
Attended Yale School of Medicine 1870-73; practiced medicine in Brookfield, Mass, from 1875 to 1883; Pittsfield 1883; Springfield 1884; Coltsville (part of Pittsfield) 1885-1890, Pittsfield 1890-1904; admitted to the Pittsfield Alms-house May 28, 1904, where he had lived since except for a time in 1915, when he was at the Norfolk State Hospital in Pondville, Mass.

Unmarried.

Death due to a cerebral embolism and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Pittsfield Cemetery. Survived by a sister, Mrs. M A. Partridge, of Pittsfield Frank Gorham, M.D. 1876.

Born September 27, 1852, in Weston, Conn.
Died June 1, 1926, in Weston, Conn.

Father, George Morgan Gorham, a merchant; son of Isaac Gorham, 3d, and Adeline Eulenna (Bennett) Gorham; descendant of James Gorham, whose son Ralph came to America from Benfield, England, before 1637 and settled at Plymouth, Mass; descended also from James Bennett, who was in Concord, Mass, in 1644 and later settled at Fairfield, Conn. Mother, Angelme (Buckley) Gorham; daughter of Aaron and Anna Buckley; ancestors settled in Fairfield, Conn. Yale relatives include: Frederick N. Bennett (M.D. 1841) (great-uncle), Andrew B. Gorham, '79 M. (brother); Bradley L Coley, '15 (nephew); and Hanford N. Bennett (M D. 1838), William C Bennett, '58, William P. Wood, '72, Frederick Wood, '75 S, Andrew L. Winton, '84 S., Robert P. Winton, '09 S., and Lewis B. Winton, '12 S. (cousins).

Redding (Conn.) Institute; entered Yale School of Medicine 1874 (appointed by the faculty valedictorian of his class but prevented by illness from serving); practiced medicine in Weston from 1876 until his death; health officer and coroner’s medical examiner for the town; represented Weston in lower house of Connecticut General Assembly 1887 and 1901; delegate to Constitutional Convention 1902, member Connecticut State Medical Society.

Married (1) September 5, 1889, in Westport, Conn., Carrie Eunice Coley, Mount Holyoke '85, daughter of Horace Death due to heart and Bright's diseases. Buried in Hull Cemetery, Redding, Conn. Survived by wife.

Jeremiah Francis Calef, M.D. 1880.

Born October 14, 1855, in Middletown, Conn.
Died June 8, 1927, in Middletown, Conn.

Father, Arthur Benjamin Calef (B.A. Wesleyan 1851, M.A. 1860); member of law firm of Calef & North in Middletown; city attorney and judge of Middletown City Court; treasurer of state of Connecticut in 1855; trustee of Wesleyan University eighteen years and president of the board six years, son of Jeremiah and Sally Eastman (Webster) Calef; a first cousin of Daniel Webster; descendant of Robert Calef, who came from London to Boston in 1668 and moved to Roxbury, Mass., in 1707; was active in checking the witchcraft delusion in Salem and Boston. Mother, Hannah Foster (Woodman) Calef; daughter of Caleb Morse and Lucy (Foster) Woodman; granddaughter of Col. Asa Foster of the Revolutionary Army.

Daniel H. Chase's School, Middletown, and Middletown High School; B.A. Wesleyan 1877 (received honors in physiological chemistry and became member of Psi Upsilon); entered Yale School of Medicine in 1878; assistant to Professor Benjamin Silliman at Yale and in his chemical demonstrations during his lecture tours in 1880; took special work at Johns Hopkins in 1904; had practiced medicine in Middletown since 1880 and also in Cromwell, Conn., during his residence there, 1880–1890; town physician of Cromwell 1880–1890 and of Middletown 1891–95; medical examiner for the coroner in Cromwell 1882–1890 and in Middletown since 1891; health officer of Middletown 1896–1900; surgeon general of Connecticut, with rank of Brigadier General, 1899–1901; member State Board of Medical Examiners 1895–1920 and president of the board 1910–1920; president of New England Confedera-
Dwight Alfonso Richardson, M.D. 1881.

Born October 22, 1857, in Bridgeport, Conn.
Died July 13, 1926, in Derby, Conn.

Father, Henry Daniel Richardson; superintendent of various small factories in the Connecticut valley at Greenfield, Florence, Easthampton, and Northampton, Mass; later tool maker with the Graham Manufacturing Company of Bridgeport; son of William Alanson and Salona Richardson; descendant of Amos Richardson, who came to Boston from England before 1640 and later settled in Stonington, Conn. Mother, Mary Ann (Bachelder) Richardson; born in Twiverton, England; daughter of Simeon Bachelder; came to this country with her sister in 1844 and settled in Derby.

Graduated at Williston Academy 1876; entered Yale School of Medicine in 1879; while attending the Medical School was a machinist with the Farrel Foundry & Machine Company of Ansonia; also studied with Dr. Ambrose Beardsley, of Derby; practiced medicine in Monroe, Conn, 1881-84, in Osceola, Ark., 1884-89, and then in Shelton and Derby, Conn, until his retirement in 1919 on account of ill health, obstetrician at Griffin Hospital, Derby, from its founding in 1910 until 1919; health officer of Shelton 1890-93; member of Borough Board 1890-95; member Methodist Episcopal Church, Shelton.

Married December 25, 1884, in Derby, Minnie Elizabeth, daughter of Samuel Hitchcock and Elizabeth Ann (Curtis) Brush. One son, Henry Brush (B A 1909, M.A. 1910, Ph D 1923). Mrs. Richardson died November 26, 1913.

Death, due to cerebral hemorrhages, followed an illness of several years. Buried in Riverside Cemetery, Shelton Survived by son and a sister, Mrs. George S. Northrop, of Derby.

James William Sears, M.D. 1885.

Born April 19, 1857, in New Haven, Conn.
Died April 1, 1927, in West Haven, Conn

Father, Stephen Sears, a blacksmith and coach painter. Mother, Nancy Bontecou (Bristol) Sears; daughter of Anthony and Julia (Bontecou) Bristol.

Hillhouse High School; clerk in Spalding’s Drug Store before entering Yale School of Medicine in 1882; practiced medicine in Danbury, Conn, 1886–88; had subsequently been engaged in retail drug business; manager of drug store in West Haven for A. F. Wood’s Sons for nineteen years; proprietor of drug store in New Haven 1909–1912 and again 1915–1925; had been affiliated with the Episcopal and then the Congregational Church, but for some years previous to his death had attended the First Church of Christ Scientist, New Haven.

Married June 3, 1886, in Monroe, Conn., Lizzie Lorana, daughter of Frederick David and Cornelia Augusta (Mead) Lockwood Hollister; Children: Flora Bristol; Edith Evelyn, the wife of C. Clarence Whittaker, ’11 S., and Raymond Hollister.

Death, due to heart trouble, followed an illness of three weeks. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, two daughters, son, and two grandchildren.

Nathan Leroy Griffin, M.D. 1900.

Born July 12, 1875, in Andover, Mass.
Died December 23, 1926, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, Rev. LaRoy Freese Griffin (B.A. Brown 1866); Peabody instructor in science at Phillips Academy, Andover; president of Peddie Institute; professor of physical science at Lake Forest University twelve years; principal of North Granville (N. Y.) Seminary; professor of science at Colby Academy, New London, N. H.; teacher of English at David Prouty High School, Spencer, Mass., and principal of Frye School, Boston; son of Nathan and Caroline Stearns (Freese) Griffin; descendant of Nathan Griffin, who came to America from England in 1628 and settled at Deerfield, N. H., on original grant which has never been out of possession of Griffins in direct descent. Mother, Ruth Ann (Fitts) Griffin; daughter of George W. and Ruth (Ingalls) Fitts; descendant of Richard Fitts, who came to this country about 1630 and settled in Connecticut.

Preparatory training received at Colby Academy; entered Yale School of Medicine 1896; M.D. cum laude 1900; engaged in substitute practice in Framingham, Mass., six months; spent seven months in 1901 in travel in Far East, studying medical conditions; practiced in Haverhill, Mass., 1902-06 and then moved to New London, N. H.; practiced during the summer in Lake Sunapee (N H ) colony for twenty-one years; house physician of Soo-Nipi Park Lodge and physician to five summer camps; practiced in Florida for seven winters; during the war the only physician for a hundred square miles of territory around New London; head of department of health and physical welfare and university physician at University of New Hampshire since 1924; organized New London Hospital as a war measure, helped build it after the war, and had been actively identified with it; had also been connected with Margaret Pillsbury Hospital, Concord, N. H.; president Center District Medical Society; member American Medical Association, New Hampshire Medical Society, New Hampshire Surgical Club, Dover Medical Society, and Baptist Church, New London.

Married February 24, 1902, in Haverhill, Mass, Florence, daughter of Daniel Truman and Hattie (Bickford) Bickford. Children: Dorothy Wells and Elizabeth Death, due to angina pectoris, occurred at Hotel Bondmore, Hartford, while on his way to South Carolina, where he and his wife were to spend the holidays. Besides his wife and daughters, survived by three sisters, Mrs. Albert Dow, of Exeter, N. H., and the Misses Lillian and Caroline Griffin, of Hempstead, N. Y.

John Wagner Ives, M.D. 1900.

Born January 8, 1876, in West Goshen, Conn.
Died May 20, 1927, in San Diego, Calif.

Father, Henry H. Ives, a farmer; son of Leverett and Huldah Ives; descendant of Ebenezer Ives Mother, Eunice Miriam (Johnson) Ives; daughter of Samuel Joseph Barnett and Desire (Hewitt) Johnson.

Preparatory training received at a private school in Cornwall, Conn.; entered Yale School of Medicine in 1896; practiced in Cornwall 1900–05 and then in Milford, Conn., until 1922, when he went West to regain his health after a physical breakdown brought on by overwork during the influenza epidemic in 1918; practiced in Yuma, Ariz., for two years prior to his death; while living in Milford was proprietor and manager of the Davis Drug Company of New Haven for many years; served as post surgeon for New Haven County
Obituary Record

1918 and 1921; medical examiner for Draft Board No. 7 at Milford and West Haven; former member Connecticut Medical Association; member Sons of Union Veterans.

Married (1) December 6, 1911, and had one son, John Harrison. Was subsequently divorced from his wife, Mary T. Ives. Married (2) Ada Allen Death due to overwork. Buried in Cornwall. Survived by wife, son, and a brother, Harrison Hewitt Ives, of West Goshen.

Edward Francis Crofutt, M.D. 1904.

Born May 15, 1881, in Bethel, Conn.
Died June 1, 1926, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Father, Edward Francis Crofutt, a hatter; son of George S. Crofut, who served as a Captain in the Union Army during the Civil War, and Mary Ann (Foster) Crofut. Mother, Jessie (Foster) Crofutt

Bethel High School; entered Yale School of Medicine in 1900 (member of Skull and Sceptre); interne at New York City Hospital December, 1904—June, 1906, with Willard Parker of New York Board of Health June—October, 1906; employed at Sanford Hall, a private sanitarium in Flushing, N. Y., October, 1906—May, 1907; engaged in general practice in New York City 1907—1913, also specializing in diseases of the ear, nose, and throat; visiting surgeon to Post-Graduate Hospital, New York City, and the Eye, Ear, Nose, and Throat Hospital, Harlem, in 1909 and to the Bronx Eye and Ear Infirmary in 1910; conducted a sanitarium for medical, surgical, obstetrical, and convalescent cases at Poultney, Vt., under name of Poultney Sanitarium, 1913—17; commissioned an Assistant Surgeon with rank of Lieutenant (j.g.), U. S. Naval Reserve Force, March 21, 1917, served on Board of Examiners at Boston Navy Yard April, 1917—June, 1918; promoted to Lieutenant, Passed Assistant Surgeon, March 18, 1918; Medical Officer on U.S.S. "Leviathan" June, 1918—June, 1919, Senior Medical Officer on U.S.S. "Eliza" June—October, 1919, and on U.S.S. "Illinois" (Receiving Ship) at Philadelphia from October, 1919, until his discharge December 16, 1920; resident physician at Sea View Hospital, West New Brighton, Staten Island, N. Y., March–October, 1921; assistant physician in charge of Sanford Hall October, 1921–April, 1922; with U. S. Veterans' Bureau, District No. 2, New York City, April–November, 1922, and at Brooklyn State Hospital November, 1922–June, 1923; medical director at Philadelphia Hospital for Mental Diseases June, 1923–October, 1924; had since been employed by various insurance companies; surgeon and adjuster in accident and health department of Ætna Life Insurance Company in New York; at time of death an examiner for Hartford Accident & Indemnity Company, Morris Plan Insurance Company, and Royal Insurance Company in Brooklyn; member American Medical Association, Rutland County (Vt.) Medical and Surgical Society, and Bethel Congregational Church.

Married June 4, 1908, in Chicago, Ill., Janet Elizabeth, daughter of Burton H. and Elizabeth (VanSlyck) Lape. Children: Edward Francis, Jr., and Burton Lape.

Death due to cancer of the stomach. Buried at Bethel. Survived by wife, one son, two half sisters, the Misses Augusta and Lucy Patee, both of Bethel, and two half brothers, Will and George Patee, both of South Orange, N. J.

Emanuel Charles Fleischner, M.D. 1904.

Born April 11, 1882, in New Haven, Conn.
Died October 11, 1926, in Rochester, Minn.

Father, Charles Fleischner, a druggist; New Haven councilman and selectman; son of Samuel Fleischner, a native of Durrmaul, Austria, and Charlotte (Nadler) Fleischner, also an Austrian by birth; family came to this country in 1851. Mother, Clara (Lowenstem) Fleischner; daughter of Mannes and Frances (Kahn) Lowenstein; descendant of Adam Lowenstein, who came to this country from Hesse, Germany, in 1831 and settled in Baltimore, Md. Yale relatives include an uncle, Henry Fleischner, '78 M.

Hillhouse High School; studied in Yale School of Medicine 1900–04 (Campbell gold medal; M.D cum laude 1904); chairman editorial board of Yale Medical Journal; member Delta Epsilon Iota, Alpha Omega Alpha, and Sigma Xi; intern, New Haven Hospital, 1903-05, Seaside Hospital, St. John's Guild, New York, 1905, and Nursery and Child's Hospital, New York, 1905 and 1906; assistant in Children's Clinic Charity, Berlin, and Carolinen Spital, Vienna, 1906; engaged in postgraduate work in Paris 1907; assistant in pediatrics, Bellevue Medical College, New York City, and adjunct attending physician, Seaside Hospital, St. John's Guild, 1908; in active practice in San Francisco from April, 1909, until his death; instructor in pediatrics at Stanford University 1909-1913; connected with University of California Medical School since 1916 (voluntary assistant in pediatrics 1916-17, instructor 1917-18, assistant clinical professor 1918-1921, and clinical professor from 1921); pediatrician at Mt. Zion Hospital, San Francisco, since 1918 and attending pediatrician in the department of communicable diseases at Children's Hospital, San Francisco, since 1919; his works on the causes of infantile paralysis considered standard and his research in preventive medicine is said to have practically eliminated the danger of the spread of diphtheria; during the war served on a local draft board; had contributed articles to Journal of American Medical Association, Archives of Pediatrics, American Journal of Diseases of Children, Medical Clinics of North America, Journal of Experimental Medicine, and Journal of Infectious Diseases; had served as secretary for three years, and as chairman for a year, of the Pediatric Section of American Medical Association, and as secretary of American Medical Milk Association; member American Pediatric Society, American Society for Clinical Investigation, Society for Experimental Biology and Medicine, and American Association for the Advancement of Science; Secretary of Class of 1904 M since graduation, in his memory a $200,000 foundation has been started in San Francisco for the endowment of free beds in the Children's Hospital and for carrying on research work in pediatrics.

Married September 28, 1911, in San Francisco, Mary, daughter of Almeron and Katherine Elizabeth (Barnes) Skinkle. No children.

Death due to rectal carcinoma. Buried in Los Gatos, Calif. Survived by wife, mother, three sisters, Mrs. Sidney Negbaur and Alma F. Straus, the wife of Samuel H. Straus, ’14, of New Haven, and Mrs. David Siegelman, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and a brother, Henry Fleischner (B.A. 1907, LL.B. 1909).

Samuel Francis Jackson, M.D. 1907.

Born November 11, 1884, in New Haven, Conn.
Died June 10, 1925, in New York City.

Father, John Francis Jackson, a chemist; son of Samuel Jackson, who came from England and settled in New Haven, and Elsie Jackson. Mother, Ellen (Eagen) Jackson; daughter of Patrick Eagen, who came to this country from Ireland and settled in New Haven, and Ellen (Fox) Eagen.

Horace Day School and Hopkins Grammar School; entered Yale School of Medicine in 1902; after graduation practiced in New York City until death; house physician at Fordham, Lincoln, St. Luke’s, and St. Francis hospitals and also connected with Willard Parker Hospital of Contagious Diseases and the Lying-in Hospital, all of New York, and the Paterson (N. J.) General Hospital; in June, 1918, appointed member of Medical Advisory Board No. 1, Bronx, N. Y., and served until the board was discontinued after the armistice; member St. Luke’s Roman Catholic Church, Bronx.

Married November 11, 1910, in New York City, Ada Sullivan, who died April 4, 1924. No children.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by a brother, Christopher C. Jackson, of West Haven, Conn.

August Matern Sartorius, M.D. 1912.

Born June 11, 1888, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died November 2, 1926, in New York City.

Father, Otto Sartorius, a tobacco importer, who came from Germany in 1869 and settled in New York. Mother, Annie (Wills) Sartorius; daughter of John Wills, who came to America from England in 1870, and Jessie (Fanshaw) Wills. B.S. Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute 1909; attended Yale School of Medicine 1909-1912; interne, Sloane Maternity Hospital, New York City; licensed to practice in New York State, but never practiced; since 1914 had been president of Reed & Carnrick, manufacturing chemists, of Jersey City; commissioned a First Lieutenant in the Medical Corps June 20, 1917; ordered to active duty August 25 at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind.; in October, 1917, transferred to Camp Upton, N. Y., and assigned to 305th Ambulance Corps, 77th Division; served overseas with that organization March 28–July 15, 1918; returned to this country because of physical disability incurred in the line of duty; was subsequently in U. S. Hospital 9, Lakewood, N. J., for a time; received his discharge October 25, 1918; lived in Brooklyn until about five years prior to his death and since then in Tenafly, N. J.; Fellow New York Academy of Medicine.

Married February 9, 1918, in Brooklyn, Jessie Kennard, daughter of Jesse and Rose Hopkins. Children: Beverly, John Manfred, and Robert Brook.

Death, due to complications, occurred at Post-Graduate Hospital, New York City. Survived by wife, three children, parents, and two brothers, Otto W. Sartorius, of Montclair, N. J., and Herman U. Sartorius, of Brooklyn.

Robert Benjamin Pastor, M.D. 1924.

Born May 5, 1901, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, Benjamin Pastor, manager of B. Pastor, Inc. (stationery and toys), son of Elihu and Hia (Bin) Pastor. Mother, Fanny (Gimbel) Pastor; daughter of Nathan and Rebecca (Sirlsin) Pastor.

New Britain and East Hartford, Conn., High schools; studied at Trinity College 1918–1920 and then entered Yale School of Medicine; interne at St Francis Hospital, Hartford, 1924-25; resident physician at White Haven (Pa) Sanatorium November, 1925–April, 1926.

Unmarried.
Death, due to an abscess of the lung, occurred at the Jefferson Hospital, Philadelphia, where he had been a patient for eight months. Buried in Barbour Street Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by parents and a sister, Miss Edith A. Pastor, of Hartford.

Edward Thomas Calhoun, M.D. 1927.

Born June 1, 1900, in St. Cloud, Minn
Died April 10, 1927, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, David Thomas Calhoun (LL B. McGee 1873), a lawyer; member of firm of Calhoun & Bennett in St. Cloud; judge of the Probate Court; son of Thomas Persus and Elizabeth (Lowry) Calhoun; descendant of John Calhoun. Mother, Lida Brooks (Toomer) Calhoun; daughter of Benjamin and Lucinda (Huddleston) Toomer; descendant of Joshua Toomer, a Major in General Marion’s army in Revolutionary War; descended also from Joshua Toomer, who came to this country from Wales in 1693 and settled in Charleston, S. C.

St. Cloud, Englewood (N. J.), and West Haven (Conn) High schools; enlisted in the Medical Corps in June, 1918, and served until mustered out on August 23, 1919, with rank of Sergeant; B.A. Carleton 1923 (Phi Beta Kappa); entered Yale School of Medicine 1923; held a James Raymond Goodrich Memorial Scholarship three years and also the Ramsay Memorial Scholarship 1924–25; Perkins Prize for high scholarship 1924; elected to membership in Alpha Omega Alpha 1926 and to alumni membership in Sigma Xi in March, 1927; granted degree of M.D. post obtum; member First Presbyterian Church, St. Cloud.

Unmarried.

Death, due to cancer, followed a long illness. Buried in North Star Cemetery, St. Cloud. Survived by mother and a brother, Robert L. Calhoun, '18 D., assistant professor of historical theology in the Yale Divinity School. A fund has been established in his memory by the members of his Medical School Class through which books are to be given to the Library.
SCHOOL OF LAW

William Rattle Plum, LL.B. 1867.

Born March 24, 1845, in Massillon, Ohio.
Died April 28, 1927, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, Henry Plum, a boot and shoe dealer; son of Benoni and Deborah (Tryon) Plum; descendant of John Plum, who settled at Wethersfield, Conn., in 1635. Mother, Nancy (North) Plum; daughter of Selah and Anna (Newell) North; granddaughter of Simeon North of Middletown, Conn., a manufacturer of arms for the U. S. Government; descendant of John North, who came from England in 1635 and settled in Farmington, Conn.; more than forty ancestors fought in the Revolutionary War. Great-uncle: Rev. Simeon North (B A. 1825).

Preparatory training received at Cuyahoga Falls (Ohio) High School, in charge of telegraph office at Atwater, Ohio, 1860–61 and shortly afterwards in telegraph office at headquarters of Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad at Cleveland; in February, 1862, enlisted as a Private in the Union Army and was assigned to Military Telegraph Corps, with which he served until the close of the war, during the last year acting as chief cipher operator on staff of Major General George R. Thomas, with whom he went through the battles of Nashville, Tenn., and Jonesboro, Ga.; entered Yale School of Law in 1865; in fall of 1867 admitted to Chicago Bar and practiced law in that city until his retirement about 1900; during World War served as a member of County Neighborhood Committee of State Council of Defense and as chairman of the Patriotic Club which was under the auspices of the council; author: History of the Military Telegraph Corps in the Civil War (1881) and The Sword and the Soul, a novel; president of Society of the U. S. Military Telegraph Corps for seventeen years and of Old Time Telegraphers’ Society for a year; member Chicago Bar Association, DuPage County Bar Association, and various horticultural organizations; trustee of Congregational Church, Lombard, Ill.

Married April 10, 1867, in Ledyard, N. Y., Helen, daughter of George and Helen Williams, and a direct descendant of Roger Williams. No children.

Death followed an operation for removal of the prostate gland at the Post Graduate Hospital, Chicago, three days earlier. Buried at Cuyahoga Falls. Survived by two nephews.

Joseph Rothschild, LL.B. 1873.

Born October 5, 1855, in San Francisco, Calif.
Died March 19, 1925, in San Francisco, Calif.

Father, Henry Rothschild, a merchant; born in Niedern, Uruf, near Cassel, Germany, and came to America in 1849, settling in Louisville, Ky.; son of Abraham and Hannah Rothschild. Mother, Hannah (Mossheim) Rothschild; born in Waldorf, Germany.

San Francisco High School; entered Yale School of Law 1871; practiced law in San Francisco from 1873 until his death; president of Board of Education 1889-1890; president of Democratic County Committee and first vice-president and acting chairman of Democratic State Central Committee of California 1903-04; prominent in Masonic circles; served as grand president of B’nai B’rith, with jurisdiction extending over entire Pacific coast, 1889-1900, as president of B’nai B’rith Hall Association 1900-01 and of Free Sons of Israel, and as judge of the court of appeals of the Constitution Grand Lodge, I. O. B. B.; president of South of Market Street Improvement Association for six years after the fire of 1906 and of Exposition Committee of Improvement Clubs during Panama-Pacific International Exposition in 1915.

Married July 31, 1907, in Cincinnati, Ohio, Hannah Elsie Kahn Tauber, daughter of David and Nancy Kahn. No children.

Death due to heart failure. Buried in Home of Peace Cemetery in Lansdale, Calif. Survived by wife and four sisters, Mrs. Sarah Solomon, Mrs. Lena Brownstone, Mrs. Abraham Rothschild, and Mrs. Joseph Schoenfeld, all of San Francisco.
Francis Hubert Parker, LL.B. 1876.

Born September 23, 1850, in East Haddam, Conn.
Died February 9, 1927, in East Haddam, Conn.

Father, Ozias Holmes Parker; representative in Connecticut General Assembly four terms; first selectman of East Haddam; member of Board of School Visitors; town auditor; director of East Haddam Public Library; son of Elial and Prudence (Avery) Parker; grandson of Capt. John Parker, a master of vessels engaged in West India trade and a soldier in the Revolution, and Sarah (Fuller) Parker, of Mayflower ancestry, and of Nathan Avery, a millwright and joiner, who served in the Revolution; descendant of William Parker, who came from England to Hartford with Thomas Hooker's company in 1636 and moved to Saybrook, Conn., in 1645. Mother, Maria Mercy (Ayer) Parker; daughter of Hubert Ayer, a soldier in the War of 1812, and Susanna (Lyon) Ayer; granddaughter of Josiah Lyon, a soldier in the Revolution.

Attended a private school in East Haddam and also studied with the Rev. Silas W. Robbins of that town; B.A. Wesleyan 1874 (editor of the Argus; member of Phi Nu Theta [eclectic], Owl and Wand [now Mystical Seven], and Phi Beta Kappa); read law and taught in Enfield, Conn., 1874–75; attended Yale School of Law 1875–76 (first honors; member T. K. M.); admitted to bar June 29, 1876, and practiced in Hartford, Conn., until his retirement in 1925; prosecuting attorney of Hartford Police Court 1887–1891, 1894–95, and 1915–17; referee in bankruptcy for Hartford County 1898–1900; United States attorney for District of Connecticut 1900–08; corporation counsel for city of Hartford 1908–1910; represented East Haddam in Lower House of General Assembly 1878 and 1880 and Hartford 1909–1910; candidate for state senator on Republican ticket 1894; chairman of Republican Town Committee, of Hartford 1896–1900; trustee of Connecticut School for Boys, Meriden, 1898–1909 (president of the board 1899–1909), president of Hartford County Bar Association 1921–25; member library committee of Connecticut Historical Society since 1901 and chairman of the society for twenty-two years; registrar of Connecticut branch of Sons of the Revolution 1908–1922, vice-president 1922–24, and president since 1924; author: "The Soldier's Field," published in Hartford Courant 1887, and of "Contributions to the History of East Haddam," published for a number of years in Connecticut Valley Advertiser; member Connecticut State Bar Association, American Historical Association, Connecticut Civil Service Reform Association, Municipal Art Society of Hartford, and Hartford Board of Trade; attended First Congregational Church, Hartford.

Death due to heart disease. Interment in Mount Parnassus Cemetery, East Haddam. Survived by wife, two sisters, the Misses Lucy M. and Sarah L. Parker, and a brother, Henry C. Parker, all of East Haddam. Mrs. Parker died April 15, 1927.

Charles Sherman Everest, LL.B. 1878.

Born October 1, 1850, in Hamden, Conn.
Died February 14, 1927, in New Haven, Conn.

It has been impossible to secure the desired information for an obituary sketch of Mr. Everest in time for publication in this volume. A biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.

David Thomas Roberts, LL.B. 1878.

Born July 15, 1854, at sea
Died March 8, 1927, in New Haven, Conn.

It has been impossible to secure the desired information for an obituary sketch of Mr. Roberts in time for publication in this volume. A biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.
Obituary Record

Hadlai Austin Hull, LL.B. 1880.

Born August 22, 1854, in Stonington, Conn.
Died June 27, 1924, in New London, Conn.

Father, Joseph Hull, a master mariner; son of Christopher and Hannah (Perry) Hull; descendant of the Rev. Joseph Hull (B.A. Oxford 1614), who came to Boston in 1635, founded Weymouth, Mass., and was minister there in 1635, founded Barnstable, Mass., and was magistrate and member of the General Court of Massachusetts Bay Colony; his second son, Tristram Hull, was a Captain-General in Miles Standish's army. Mother, Mary Ellen (Fish) Hull; daughter of Hadlai and Mary (Babcock) Fish. Yale relatives include two cousins: Charles P. Hull, '79 S., and Louis K. Hull, '83.

Natchaug High School, Windham, Conn.; attended Amherst College for a year as a member of Class of 1878 (rowed on Amherst Crew in 1875; member Delta Upsilon); entered Yale School of Law in 1879; member Yale Kent Club; had practiced law continuously in New London since 1880 (member of firm of Hull, McGuire & Hull, of which his son, C. Hadlai Hull, '05, is a member); represented Stonington in the lower house of the General Assembly 1884; collector of Port of Stonington 1886-1906; prosecuting attorney for criminal side of Court of Common Pleas for New London County 1894-1906 and state's attorney for same county since 1906; organized Company H, 3d Connecticut Volunteer Infantry, in Spanish-American War and became Major of 3d Battalion of that regiment; member American Bar Association, Connecticut State Bar Association (president 1912-14), and First Baptist Church, New London; had been secretary of his Law School Class for many years.

Death, due to arteriosclerosis, followed an illness of several months. Buried in Cedar Grove Cemetery, New London. Survived by son, daughter, and two grandchildren.
Miner Gibbs Norton, LL.B. 1880.

Born May 11, 1857, in Andover, Ohio.
Died September 8, 1926, in Cleveland, Ohio.

Father, Rowland Miner Norton, a merchant; son of Rolland and Nancy Kellogg (Miner) Norton; descendant of Daniel Norton, who was born in New Marlboro, Mass., in 1780. Mother, Eliza Ann (Gibbs) Norton.

Jefferson (Ohio) High School; attended National Normal University and Baldwin-Wallace College; Ph.B Mount Union College 1878 (member Delta Tau Delta); attended Yale School of Law 1878–1881 (LL.B. 1880, LL.M. 1881); member Yale Kent Club; following admission to Ohio Bar in 1881, practiced law in Cleveland until his death; was active in Republican politics and served as director of law of the city of Cleveland 1895–99 and as United States appraiser for Northern District of Ohio 1905–09; member of Congress from 20th Ohio District 1921–23; at time of death was United States collector of customs for Ohio and Western Pennsylvania; member Cleveland Bar Association.

Married August 5, 1885, in Painesville, Ohio, Agnes, daughter of Homer Hubbel and Julietta (Rue) Hine. Children: Rowland Miner (died in childhood); Homer, a graduate of the United States Naval Academy in 1907; Henrietta Maud, Western Reserve ex-'11; Edward Emerson (B.A. Western Reserve 1913, B.S. Case School of Applied Science 1913); Elizabeth Julietta (B.S. Columbia 1922); Edith Helene (B.S. Columbia 1921); and Margaret Cynthia (Mrs. Sterling S. Smith).

Death due to acute indigestion. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Jefferson, Ohio. Survived by wife, six children, and a sister, Mrs. A. H. Woodward, of Winnetka, Ill.

George Pratt Ingersoll, LL.B. 1885.

Born April 24, 1861, in New Haven, Conn.
Died February 23, 1927, in Stamford, Conn.

Father, Colin Macrae Ingersoll (B.A. Trinity 1839), a lawyer; adjutant general of Connecticut; member of Congress; son of Ralph Isaacs Ingersoll (B.A. 1808), member of Congress and minister to Russia, and Margaret Eleanor (Van den Heuvel) Ingersoll; grandson of Jonathan Ingersoll (B.A. 1766), judge of the Superior Court and lieutenant governor of Connecticut; great-grandson of the Rev. Jonathan Ingersoll (B.A. 1736) and of Ralph Isaacs (B.A. 1761); great-great-grandson of the Rev. Joseph Moss (honorary M.A. 1702); descendant of John Ingersoll, who came from Bedfordshire, England, to Hartford, Conn., about 1650. Mother, Julia Harriet (Pratt) Ingersoll; daughter of Zadoc Pratt, member of Congress, and Abigail (Watson) Pratt; ancestors settled in the Catskills, later the site of Prattsville, N.Y. Yale relatives include: Jared Ingersoll (B.A. 1742) and Isaac Isaacs (B.A. 1750) (great-great-great-uncles); Ralph Isaacs (B.A. 1784) (great-great-uncle); Charles A. Ingersoll (B.A. 1815) and the Rev. Edward Ingersoll (B.A. 1831) (great-uncles); Charles R. Ingersoll (B.A. 1840) (uncle); Ralph McA. Ingersoll, '21 S. (nephew); and Jared Ingersoll (B.A. 1766), John V. Ingersoll (B.A. 1834), Charles D. Ingersoll, '64, Thomas C. Ingersoll, '65, Jonathan Ingersoll, '68, Francis G. Ingersoll, '74, Charles A. Ingersoll, '93 S., Jonathan Ingersoll, '96 S., and Hamilton Ingersoll, '11 S. (cousins).
Obituary Record

Hopkins Grammar School and a school in Geneva, Switzerland; B.A. Trinity 1883 (member Psi Upsilon), M.A. 1889; entered Yale School of Law 1883; admitted to Connecticut and New York bars 1885; practiced law in New Haven as member of firm of Tyler, Ingersoll & Moran 1885-1894; since 1894 partner in firm of Murray, Bennett & Ingersoll and its successor, Murray, Ingersoll, Hoge & Humphrey, New York City, making specialty of care of estates and trust property; associate counsel for firm of Cummings & Lockwood, Stamford, of which Homer S. Cummings, '91 S., and Charles D. Lockwood, '00 S., are members, since 1914; United States commissioner for District of Connecticut 1889-1894; legal member Connecticut Board of Health 1893-99; nominee for congressman-at-large on Democratic ticket 1910 and that same year appointed by Governor Weeks Connecticut representative at International Peace Conference in Washington; U.S. envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Siam 1917–18; vice-president First National Bank of Ridgefield, Conn., where he had a summer home, and of Ridgefield Electric Company; trustee of Ridgefield Public Library and the Ridgefield School 1911–18, of Connecticut School for Boys in Meriden 1913–16, of Berkeley Divinity School since 1915, and of Christ Church Cathedral, Connecticut, and the French-American Chamber of Commerce since 1918; president Stamford Historical Society 1923; member Fairfield County Bar Association; vestryman St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Ridgefield; author: The Measure of Success (1915), Diplomatic Life in Siam (1919), and Our Connecticut Heritage (1923).

Married November 3, 1891, in New Haven, Alice, daughter of the Rev Orlando Witherspoon (B.A. Trinity 1856; Berkeley Divinity School 1859) and Cora Victoria (Taylor) Witherspoon, and sister of Herbert Witherspoon, '95. Children: Colin Montague (B.A. Trinity 1914, LL.B. Yale 1917) and Gertrude Victoria.

Death due to heart disease, following an illness of two months. Buried in Ridgefield Survived by wife, son, daughter, and a brother, Colin M. Ingersoll, '80 S.

Born September 11, 1854, in Newark, N. J.
Died April 19, 1927, in East Newark, N. J.

Father, Edward Kenny, a leather manufacturer; born in Dublin, Ireland, and came to this country in a sailing vessel in 1854. Mother, Margaret (Coburn) Kenny.

Preparatory training received at the Kearney School in Newark; entered Yale School of Law in 1883; admitted to Connecticut Bar 1885 and New Jersey Bar 1887; had since practiced in Newark, being associated with William F. Conway, '60 L., in firm of Kenny & Conway for a number of years; town clerk of Kearny, N. J., 1879–1883 and 1887–89; town collector 1890–91 and subsequently town attorney; in 1895 led the movement which resulted in the separation of East Newark and Kearny; first mayor of East Newark 1895–1908; assemblyman from Hudson County 1908–1912, serving as speaker of the House in 1910; retired from active political life in 1911; since then had devoted much of his time to writing for various newspapers on political and economic subjects; member Holy Cross (Roman Catholic) Church, Harrison, N. J.

Unmarried.

Death, due to arthritis, followed sixteen years of poor health. Buried in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, East Orange. Survived by a brother, Thomas J. Kenny, of Newark, and a sister, Miss Julia Kenny, of East Newark.

Hugh Capner Stover, LL.B. 1885.

Born February 13, 1864, in Erwinna, Pa.
Died October 9, 1916, in Erwinna, Pa.

Father, Jacob Stover, a business man; owner of a grist mill on the Delaware River; son of Henry S. and Barbara (Stout) Stover; descendant of Henry Stover, who came to America from Germany in 1749 and settled in Bucks County, Pa. Mother, Mary Elizabeth (Capner) Stover; daughter of Hugh and Matilda (Anderson) Capner; ancestors came from England and settled in Flemington, N. J.

Preparatory training received in Erwinna and at the preparatory school of Swarthmore College; attended Swarthmore College for a year (1882–83) as a member of Class of 1886; entered Yale School of Law in 1883; after receiving his degree, entered the law office of his cousin, Lewis Stover, in Philadelphia and was subsequently admitted to practice before the courts of Philadelphia and Bucks counties and the Supreme and Superior courts of Pennsylvania; practiced in Philadelphia until 1896 and then in Portland, Ore., for a year, when he gave up his practice on account of ill health; upon his return to his home in Erwinna, bought an island in the Delaware, where he developed a farm in conjunction with carrying on his father's grist mill business for three years; later spent several years in traveling in the West and writing for the press and for various magazines, returning to Erwinna in 1916

Unmarried.
Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Point Pleasant, Pa. Survived by a brother, John J. Stover, and a sister, Miss Matilda C. Stover, both of Erwinna.

Raymond Hoagland, LL.B. 1886.

Born March 1, 1866, in Troy, Ohio.
Died April 17, 1927, in New York City.

Father, Joseph C. Hoagland, one of the founders and president of Royal Baking Powder Company; son of Andrew and Jane Hoagland; descendant in a direct line from Christoffel Hoogland, who came to America from Haarlem prior to 1655 and settled at New Amsterdam. Mother, Caroline Compton (Matlack) Hoagland.

Polytechnic Institute, Brooklyn, N. Y.; entered Yale School of Law in 1884; in 1886 entered employ of Royal Baking Powder Company, of which he became vice-president in 1889; retired from the company when his family sold its interests therein in 1898; thereafter established several companies through which he became largely interested in real estate and real estate development in New York City, New Jersey, and Cuba; at time of his death was chairman of the board of directors of The Hoagland Corporation and a director or officer in several other subsidiary companies.

Married April 5, 1888, in Brooklyn, N. Y., Rosa, daughter of Alfred and Cornelia (Atwood) Porter Children: Joseph C.; Porter; Raymond, Jr.; and Katharine (Mrs. C. Maury Jones).

Death occurred in New York Hospital following an operation. Interment in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, three sons, daughter, seven grandchildren, a brother, John A. Hoagland, and a sister, Mrs. E. Drexel Godfrey, both of New York City.

Born April 16, 1860, in Waterbury, Conn.
Died October 13, 1926, in Waterbury, Conn.

Father, James Russell, a laborer, born in Ireland and came to America in 1848; son of John and Mary (Stevens) Russell.
Obituary Record

Mother, Bridget (Fahey) Russell; born in Ireland; daughter of John and Mary (Russell) Fahey.

Prepared for college at the Waterbury public schools; studied at Holy Cross College for two years as member of Class of 1886; B.A. Fordham University 1886; studied at Yale School of Law 1886–88; since his graduation from the Law School and his admission to the bar had practiced in Waterbury; prosecuting attorney in Police Court 1894–95; secretary and chairman of Board of School Visitors 1895–97; a commissioner of Board of Charities 1914–17; member Board of Agents of Bronson Library since 1904, New Haven County Bar Association, and St. Margaret's Roman Catholic Church, Waterbury

Married June 27, 1900, in Waterbury, Clara Agnes, daughter of James and Catherine (Duffy) McKnight. Children: James Edward (B.A Georgetown 1924, LL.B. Yale 1926); Clara (B.A Marymount College 1925); John, a former member of the Georgetown Class of 1929; Rosalind; George; Mary; and Josephine.

William Mitchell Lewis, LL.B. 1891.

Born February 25, 1869, in Racine, Wis.
Died February 14, 1927, at Daytona Beach, Fla.

Father, William Turnor Lewis, a manufacturer; founder of Mitchell-Lewis Wagon [now Motor] Company; Wisconsin assemblyman; son of William J. Lewis, a graduate of Christ Church, Oxford, and Jane (Turnor) Lewis. Mother, Mary Isabel (Mitchell) Lewis; daughter of Henry and Margaret (Mitchell) Mitchell, who came from Scotland to America in 1834 and settled at Fort Dearborn, Ill.

Racine Academy and Wayland Academy, Beaver Dam, Wis; entered Yale School of Law as a Senior in 1890 (center on Yale University Football Team); immediately after graduation from the Law School became connected with Mitchell-Lewis Wagon Company; in 1898 became general manager of Wisconsin Wheel Works, manufacturers of bicycles, in Racine, which later became Mitchell Motor Car Company and in 1910 was consolidated with Mitchell-Lewis Wagon Company; president and general manager of Mitchell-Lewis Motor Company 1901–1913; in 1910 founded Racine Rubber Company, which in 1916 was bought by and became the principal part of Ajax Rubber Company; also organized the L. P. C. Motor Company; for several years prior to his death had been engaged in private business along financial lines; owner of the Racine Times 1911–15; Republican candidate for governor of Wisconsin in 1910; served during Spanish-American War as Captain of Company F, 1st Infantry, Wisconsin Volunteers, April–November, 1898, at Jacksonville, Fla., acting as assistant provost marshal there; on July 16, 1917, commissioned a Major in the Signal Corps and assigned to 107th Field Signal Battalion, 32d Division, with which he served at Camp Douglas, Wis., until September 15, 1917, and then at Camp MacArthur, Texas, until January 11, 1918; went overseas with that organization January 22 and saw active service in Aisne-Marne, Oise-Aisne, and Meuse-Argonne offensives and in defensive sector in Alsace; wounded in battle of Juvigny August 29, 1918; awarded Croix de Guerre with gold star and citation “for exceptionally meritorious services as Division Staff Officer”; in office of Chief Signal Officer October 9, 1918–January 26, 1919; with Army of Occupation in Rengsdorf, Germany, February 12–April 20, 1919; promoted to Lieutenant Colonel February 12, 1919, and served as Signal Officer of 32d Division until his discharge May 23, 1919; gave to Racine Lewis Field as an addition to the park system and also its first ornamental street lights; largely instrumental in the creation and organization of Racine Country Club; member United Spanish War Veterans, American Legion, and Milwaukee Press Club; secretary and treasurer of First Baptist Church, Racine.

Married October 20, 1892, in Fond du Lac, Wis., Edith Fontaine, daughter of Henry Fontaine Rose (B.A. Union 1849) and Mary (Howard) Rose. Children: Katherine Rose, the wife of Percival S. Fuller, ex-’19; William Turnor; Gordon Sinclair; and Mary Virginia.
Obituary Record

Death due to myocarditis. Buried in Mound Cemetery, Racine Survived by wife, two sons, two daughters, six grandchildren, mother, and two sisters, Mrs. Mary L. Mosher, of Chicago, Ill., and Mrs. George B. Wilson, of Daytona Beach.

LeRoy Delevan Ball, LL.B. 1895.

Born December 17, 1875, in Tallahassee, Fla.
Died December 18, 1926, in Tallahassee, Fla.

Father, LeRoy Delevan Ball, a lawyer; connected with Bureau of School Buildings of New York City; surveyor general of state of Florida; clerk of U. S. Court for Northern District of Florida, member of state senate; U. S. Commissioner, enlisted in 15th Massachusetts Infantry at the opening of the Civil War and served throughout the war (confined in Libby Prison four months); son of Warren W. and Catherine (King) Ball; descendant of Richard Ball, who came to America from England. Mother, Ella Jane (Lane) Ball; daughter of Gerrit Smock and Mary (Smalley) Lane; descendant of Wolphert Geretse van Couwenhoven, who was born at Amersfort, Holland, came to America in 1630, and with Andries Hudder purchased from the Canarsee Tribe of Indians land running from Flatbush to Jamaica Bay, Brooklyn, and was granted the first patent on Long Island by Governor Wouter van Twiller of New Amsterdam on June 6, 1636; other ancestors included Hendrick Hendrickson, soldier in the Revolutionary War.

Preparatory training received in Tallahassee; attended Yale School of Law 1893–95 (member of Pi Delta Alpha); clerk in law office of Arthur J. Westermayr in New York City 1895–96; following his admission to the bar in 1897, practiced law in New York until 1920, when his health failed; served as assistant corporation counsel 1903–05; junior member of firm of Waldo & Ball 1905–1911; since his retirement from practice had lived on his country place in Westchester, N. Y., and in Tallahassee; chief interests were pomology and floriculture, former member New York County Lawyers Association; Republican County Commissioner; attended the Presbyterian Church, Tallahassee, and Manhattan Congregational Church, New York.
Unmarried. *

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by mother and a sister, Miss Mary D. Ball, of Westport, Conn.

Edward Lee Steele, LL.B. 1896.

Born January 29, 1873, in Hartford, Conn.
Died November 25, 1926, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, Timothy Eleazer Steele (B.A. Wesleyan 1863), a lawyer; corporation counsel for city of Hartford; president Hartford Board of Common Council; vice-president Board of Street Commissioners; member Connecticut General Assembly; son of Sanford and Caroline (Sumner) Steele; descendant of George Steele, one of the early settlers of Hartford, who came to America from England in 1639. Mother, Clara Jane (Eaton) Steele; daughter of Levi and Clarissa (Cooley) Eaton; probably in direct line from Francis Eaton, a member of the "Mayflower" company.

Hartford Public High School; B.A. Wesleyan 1894 (member Football Team 1892–93, Track Team four years, and Beta Theta Pi); studied at Yale School of Law 1894–96 (an editor of Yale Law Journal); admitted to Connecticut Bar 1896; had since practiced law in Hartford; associated with his father 1896–99, with Francis H. Parker, '76 L., and George A. Kellogg, '91 L., for over twenty-five years, and with his son, Richard T. Steele, '25 L., for about a year; member Court of Common Council 1897–1903; clerk of City Police Court 1903–08; associate judge of same court 1908–1912 and judge 1915–17; assistant corporation counsel of city of Hartford 1912–13 and counsel 1913–14; alderman; police prosecutor, member Hartford City Guard 1896–99 and later Major in Veteran City Guard; trustee Wesleyan University since 1923; an organizer of Hartford Alumni Association of Beta Theta Pi; charter member and first president Hartford Lions Club; member Asylum Hill Congregational Church, Hartford.

Obituary Record

Death due to thrombosis of the coronary artery of the heart. Buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by wife, son, daughter, three brothers, James E. Steele, of Longmeadow, Mass., William R. Steele, of Hartford, and T. Raymond Steele, of Oklahoma City, Okla., and a sister, Mrs. John M. Steele (B.A. Smith 1899), of Denver, Colo.

Walter Scott Miller, LL.B. 1897.

Father, Thomas Miller, a farmer. Mother, Lucy Miller. Brother, Albert P. Miller, '85 D.

Hillhouse High School, New Haven; LL B. Shaw University 1895; attended Yale School of Law 1895–97; admitted to bar 1897 and practiced law in New Haven for a time; subsequently gave up law and in 1921 served under American Missionary Association as pastor of First Congregational Church of King’s Mountain and Lowell, N. C., for a few months; organized Church of the Redeemer (Congregational) for colored people in Baltimore, Md., in September, 1921; pastor of Bethany Presbyterian Church, Norfolk, since 1924.

Death due to dysentery. Buried in Calvary Cemetery, Norfolk. Survived by a daughter, Blanch.

Benjamin Frank Nead, LL.B. 1901.

Father, Benjamin Matthias Nead (B.A. 1870, Litt.D. Franklin and Marshall 1917), a corporation lawyer, historian, lecturer, and antiquarian; son of Benjamin Franklin and Eleanor (Wunderlich) Nead; grandson of Matthias Nead, an officer of the 2d Regiment, Maryland Militia, during War of 1812, great-grandson of Daniel Nead and John Wunderlich, soldiers in the Revolution; great-great-grandson of Major Peter Dechert and Capt Benjamin Spyker, Jr., officers in the Revolutionary Army; great-great-great-grandson of Peter Spyker, judge of Berks County (Pa.) courts 1768–1789
School of Law

(president judge for most of the period), who took an active part in civil affairs during the Revolution as a commissioner appointed by the Assembly in 1776 to raise war funds; descendant of Matthias Nead, who came to this country from Alsace in 1753 and settled in Washington County, Md., near Sharpsburg; ancestors included four of the party which came to Livingston Manor, N.Y., in 1710 (afterwards going to Schoharie County) and later (in 1723 and 1728) went down the Susquehanna to the Swatara and thence to Tulpehocken, Pa. Mother, Elizabeth Jane (Hayes) Nead; daughter of David and Nancy (Colwell) Hayes; descendant of Patrick Hayes, who came to America from Ireland about 1728 and settled in Lancaster County, later Derry Township, Dauphin County, Pa.; descended also from Robert Culbertson, who served as a Captain and later as Lieutenant Colonel during the Revolutionary War.

Harrisburg Academy; entered Yale School of Law in 1898; one of the organizers of Yale Dramatic Association; member Book and Bond; in the office of his father 1901-05; had practiced law continuously in Harrisburg since his admission to the Dauphin County Bar September 11, 1905; in partnership with his father in firm of Nead & Nead until the latter's retirement in 1921; was a Democrat in politics; served for four years (1908-1913) as member of Harrisburg School Board; during the war was member of Legal Advisory Board and of Registration Board No. 1; member Dauphin County Bar Association, Dauphin County Historical Society, and Zion Lutheran Church, Harrisburg; since boyhood had been interested in archaeology, particularly in the history and relics of Indian tribes in Pennsylvania; while in the Law School studied under Dr. George Grant MacCurdy, curator of anthropology in Peabody Museum; donor of a collection of Indian relics to the museum, the greater part of which he himself had found near Harrisburg; was also greatly interested in general Pennsylvania history and had a large and rare collection of autograph letters and other historical documents.

Married April 20, 1910, in Harrisburg, Margaretta, daughter of John Baker and Emelene (Beaver) Rote. Children: Emelene Beaver and Benjamin Matthias, 2d.
Death, due to a throat infection, followed an illness of three months. Buried in Harrisburg Cemetery. Survived by wife, two children, and a brother, Robert H. Nead, '04.

Avery Theodore Elmer, LL.B. 1902.

Born September 20, 1879, in Middletown, Conn.
Died April 1, 1927, in Middletown, Conn.

Father, William Thomas Elmer (B.A. Wesleyan 1857, LL.D. 1907), a lawyer; studied at Law School of University of Albany; practiced law in Suffield and Middletown; judge Superior Court of Connecticut; clerk of Connecticut House of Representatives and member and clerk of the Connecticut Senate; mayor of Middletown and president of Board of Education; son of Lebbeus E. and Charlotte (Mudge) Elmer. Mother, Katherine Lanman (Camp) Elmer; daughter of William Smithson and Margaret (Cook) Camp; descendant of Israel Camp.

Montclair (N. J) Military Academy; attended Yale School of Law 1899–1902; practiced law in Middletown 1902–1912, when he retired on account of failing health; clerk of Middle- town City Court for a number of years; since his retirement from law practice had been occupied with literary pursuits and boating; owned a house boat and spent all his summers upon it, occasionally going north for fishing trips; member Holy Trinity (Episcopal) Church, Middletown.

Unmarried.

Death due to pneumonia. Interment in Indian Hill Cemetery, Middletown. Survived by two sisters, Mrs. J. Eldred Brown, of Norwich, Conn, and Mrs. Howard H. Hawxhurst, of Washington, D. C

Oliver Edward Fengar, LL.B. 1903.

Born October 6, 1877, in New London, Conn.
Died February 10, 1927, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

It has been impossible to secure the desired information for an obituary sketch of Mr. Fengar in time for publication in this volume. A biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.
Roger Richardson Hill, LL.B. 1906.

Born December 13, 1882, in Saginaw, Mich
Died January 1, 1927, in El Paso, Texas.

Father, Clarence Moore Hill; president of C. M. Hill Lumber Company; son of James Henry and Sarah (Moore) Hill; grandson of Daniel Hill, a native of Massachusetts, who was living in Detroit, Mich., at the beginning of the War of 1812, was made prisoner of war at the surrender of Detroit and taken by the British into Canada, where he was given a pass to the American lines at Niagara and thence made his way back to his old home in Massachusetts; subsequently started West and at Erie, Pa, assisted in the completion of the fleet of Commodore Perry and joined in Perry’s expedition; ancestors came from England. Mother, Susie (Richardson) Hill; daughter of Noah Cordon and Susanna Mercy (Tutner) Richardson; ancestors came from England and settled in Madison, N. Y. First cousin: Arthur H. Vincent, ’07

East Side High School, Saginaw; attended University of Michigan Law School 1902-04; entered Yale School of Law in January, 1905 (member University Track Team in 1906; winner of 120 yard hurdles in meet with Harvard in May, 1906; awarded a major “Y”; since 1906 had been engaged in mining and timber business in Minnesota and Washington and in real estate and investment business in Saginaw and Florida; president and owner of the Palomar Realty Company, a Florida holding company; had resided at Palm Beach, Fla., for about eight years previous to his death; had traveled extensively in Europe and elsewhere and collected many works-of art; member First Congregational Church, Saginaw Unmarried.

Death due to tuberculosis; had been in poor health for several months. Buried in a private plot at Flat Rock, N C Survived by mother, a brother, Walter C. Hill, and a sister, Mrs. E. B. Wickes, all of Saginaw.
Carl Springer, LL.B. 1907.

Born May 1, 1879, in New Castle, Pa.
Died November 14, 1922, in New York City.

Father, Charles Springer, a jeweler. Mother, Clara (Waddington) Springer.

Graduated at the New Castle High School in 1898; entered Yale School of Law as a special student in 1904 and received his degree in 1908 with enrollment in the Class of 1907; since that time had been located in New York City.

Unmarried.

Death, due to meningitis following an infection of the right middle ear, occurred at the Lexington Hospital, New York.
Buried in Oak Park Cemetery, New Castle. Survived by no immediate relatives

Harry Griffy Tolliver, LL.B. 1908.

Died June 25, 1927, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, William B. Tolliver, a coal miner; ancestors (of pure African descent) settled in Christiansburg, Va. Mother,
Jane T. (Powell) Tolliver; daughter of Anthony and Sarah
Powell; ancestors came from Holland and settled in Salem, Va.

New Lexington (Ohio) High School; attended the law department of Ohio State University 1900–01 as member of Class of 1903; entered Yale School of Law in 1905; had since practiced law in New Haven; elected member of Board of Aldermen in 1921, reelected in 1923 and 1925; chairman of Committees on Street Lighting and Ordinances; assistant corporation counsel for city of New Haven since 1926, having charge of cases arising under Compensation Law and also of legal matters in Department of Charities and Corrections; represented the 19th Ward on the Republican Ward Committee 1915–1927; justice of the peace since 1915; member of New Haven Teachers’ Retirement Board since January, 1926; member New Haven County Bar Association; trustee of Immanuel Baptist Church, New Haven.

Joaquin Martinez-Cintrón [formerly Joaquin Martinez], LL.B. 1911.

Born October 27, 1891, in Mayaguez, Porto Rico.

Died March 16, 1925, in White Haven, Pa.

Father, Joaquin Guasp Martinez; son of Leoncio and Isolina (Guasp) Martinez. Mother, Olivia (Cintrón) Martinez; daughter of José Marin and Rosa (Ramiez) Cintrón.

Came to this country in 1902; attended Baltimore (Md) Polytechnic Institute 1904–05 and then entered Frederick College (B A. 1907); studied in Albany Law School 1907–08 (LL.B. 1908) and in Yale School of Law 1908–09 and 1910–11 (member Chi Tau Kappa); had subsequently practiced law in Mayaguez and other places in Porto Rico; justice of the peace in Mayaguez 1913–17; registrar of property at Aguadilla, Porto Rico, 1917–1921; professor of Spanish at Fordham University 1921–23; M.A Columbia 1923; in 1920 was one of the delegates from Porto Rico to Republican National Convention at Chicago; author of two books; contributor to various magazines; member Catholic church.

Married October 31, 1914, in Mayaguez, Guillermina, daughter of Enrique and Julia (Martinez) Rousset Children: Julia Oliva, Joaquin Enrique, and Zaida.

Death, due to tuberculosis, occurred at the White Haven Sanatorium, where he had been a patient for five months. Buried at White Haven. Survived by wife, children, mother, two brothers, Luis Martinez-Cintrón, of Manzanilla, Cuba, and Rafael Martinez-Cintrón, of Maracaibo, Venezuela, and a sister, Marina Martinez de Serra, of Vega Baja, Porto Rico.
Obituary Record

Howard Lucius Peck, LL.B. 1911.

Born July 4, 1889, in Hartford, Conn.
Died May 13, 1927, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, George Herbert Peck; engaged in real estate business; son of George Levett and Harriett (Nettleton) Peck; descendant of Paul Peck, who came to America from England and settled in Hartford. Mother, Ella Augusta (Goodrich) Peck; daughter of Lucius Westreo and Sarah Frances (Robbins) Goodrich. Great-great-uncle: Asahel Nettleton (B.A. 1809).

Hartford Public High School; entered Yale School of Law in 1908 (LL.B. 1911, LL.M. 1912); had since practiced in Hartford; had been attorney and claim adjustor for the Hartford Accident & Indemnity Company since February 1, 1916 (chief claim adjustor at time of death); member Fourth Congregational Church.

Married October 24, 1917, in Hartford, Kathryn Irene, daughter of Timothy Francis and Mary Agnes (Guinan) McGrath. No children.

Death due to acute indigestion. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by wife and parents.

William Howard Hartley, LL.M. 1916.

Born August 17, 1890, in Newburgh, N. Y.
Died June 26, 1927, in East Orange, N. J.

Father, a Methodist minister. Mother, Ida Bell (Mann) Hartley. Of English ancestry on both sides of his family.

Wilbraham Academy; LL.B. Syracuse University 1915 (member University Football Team three years); at Yale became member of Phi Delta Phi (Corbey Court); after graduation was admitted to New York and New Jersey bars and was employed in law department of Swift & Company in New York City until August, 1921; was subsequently in law department of Jones & Laughlin Steel Corporation in Pittsburgh and later in that of the London Guaranty & Accident Insurance Company of Chicago and New York; since 1924 had been connected with New York Indemnity Company, at time of death being in charge of the metropolitan area of the claim department; member Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church, Pittsburgh.

Married September 25, 1923, in St. Paul, Minn., Florence, daughter of the Rev. Samuel Wales Dickinson (B.D Bangor Theological Seminary 1872) and Martha (Barnum) Dickinson.

Death, due to a nervous breakdown, followed an illness of several weeks. Buried in Bloomfield (N. J) Cemetery. Survived by wife and a brother, Leonard H. Hartley, of Oklahoma City, Okla.

Shih-Min Kang, J.D. 1921.

Born December 1, 1893, in Sinchang, near Shanghai, China.

Died March 5, 1924

Father, H. S. Kang, a merchant.

Preparatory training received at Nanyang College, Shanghai; LL.B. Pei-Yang University 1917; came to the United States in 1918 and during the next year studied at Columbia (LL.M. 1919); studied at Yale School of Law 1919-1920 (J D. 1921); spent the greater part of 1920-21 in travel in this country on account of his health; returned to China in 1921 and had subsequently engaged in the practice of law in Shanghai; had translated one book on law.

Unmarried.

Samuel Edwin Busser, B.D. 1874.

Born August 5, 1850, in York, Pa.
Died September 17, 1926, in Los Angeles, Calif.

Father, John Busser; came to the United States from Switzerland when five years old. Mother, Matilda Reisinger; of German descent.

York County Academy; B.A. Gettysburg College 1871; M.A. 1874; studied at Yale Divinity School 1871–74; ordained to Congregational ministry September 15, 1874, at Saranac, Mich., where pastor until 1877; pastor Lowell, Mich., 1877–1880; Loda, Ill.; South Boston, Mich.; Kinsley, Kans., 1883–87; Wichita 1888–89; Topeka 1889–91; Dodge City 1891–95; ordained to Episcopal priesthood at Newton, Kans., 1894; served for two years as general missionary of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Kansas under Bishop Thomas, rector St. Andrews Episcopal Church, Emporia 1895–98; had since been in the employ of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fé Railway, having charge of establishment of reading rooms and recreation facilities for the employees of the company; had lived in California for more than twenty years, first at Berkeley and subsequently at Los Angeles; author, Monkeys and Myths, or Evolution in Harmony with the Bible (1926); had completed for publication two other books at time of death; past grand high priest, Royal Arch Masons, Kansas.

Married October 28, 1874, in Saranac, Mich., Elizabeth, daughter of John Sutherland and Eliza (Wright) Malcolmson. Children: Herbert Wright (died October 7, 1888); Alma Eliza (B.A. Los Angeles Business College 1901), the wife of Charles Herbert Phillips; Edith Matilda (B.A. University of California 1907), now Mrs. Herbert W Whitworth; Paul Philip (died January 10, 1889); Samuel Malcolmson (died November 11, 1891); Ida Marguerite (College of the Sisters of Bethany, Topeka, 1910), the wife of W. H. D. King, Jr.; and Edwin McLaren (attended University of California 1916–17; died October 14, 1918).
Death due to acute dilation of the heart. Buried in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Glendale, Calif. Survived by widow and three daughters.

John Philander Trowbridge, B.D. 1874.

Born December 10, 1849, in Eastford, Conn.
Died February 11, 1927, in Plainfield, N. J.

Father, Philander Trowbridge, a farmer; son of Elisha and Esther (Work) Trowbridge; descendant of James Trowbridge, who came to America from England in 1638 and settled in Dorchester, Mass. Mother, Harriett (Durfee) Trowbridge; daughter of Thomas and Sarah (Carder) Durfee.

Norwich Free Academy; studied at Amherst 1870-71 as member of Class of 1874 and then entered Yale Divinity School; while studying at Yale supplied the pulpit of First Congregational Church in Putnam, Conn., for a time in 1872; ordained to Congregational ministry September 17, 1874, at Standish, Maine, where he held a pastorate for seven years; pastor of Second Congregational Church, Woodstock, Conn., 1882-88; Bethlehem, Conn., 1888-1892; Eastford, Conn., 1892-1900 and also Second Congregational Church, Woodstock, 1892-97; North Rochester, Mass., 1901-08; West Groton, Mass., 1908-1917, and during that period supplied the Congregational Church in Lenox, Mass., for a year (1916-17); Interlaken, Mass., 1917 until his death; secretary of Class of 1874 D.; author: History of Windham, Conn., The History of the Second Congregational Church in Woodstock, Conn., and Biographical Sketch of Rev. Joseph Bellamy, D.D. (first pastor of the Church of Christ in Bethlehem, Conn.); had published many articles of biographical interest in weekly and monthly periodicals and was the author of many poems which are to be published in book form.

Married May 15, 1874, in New Haven, Clara Parker, daughter of Andrew Jackson and Esther (Goodspeed) Hooker. One daughter, Esther Hooker (Mrs. Joseph P. Catlin). Mrs. Trowbridge died January 4, 1922.

Death, due to pneumonia and heart trouble, occurred at the Muhlenberg Hospital, Plainfield. Interment in Eastford. Survived by daughter and a grandson

Arthur Jared Benedict, B.D. 1875.

Born March 12, 1849, in Bethel, Conn.
Died March 14, 1927, in Tucson, Ariz.

Father, Andrew Leavenworth Benedict, a farmer; postmaster at Bethel; son of John Mitchel and Elizabeth (Leavenworth) Benedict; ancestors came from England and settled in Bethel. Mother, Ruth Newell (Allen) Benedict. Yale relatives: George Benedict (B.A. 1849) (uncle); and George Benedict, ex-'80, Ralph C. Benedict, '04, and Herbert H. Benedict, '09 (cousins).

Milton (Conn) Academy; B.A. Amherst 1872 (member Amherst Crew which won the intercollegiate boat race on the Connecticut River at Springfield in 1872, defeating Yale, Harvard, and other crews, and in 1922 awarded a major athletic A by Amherst as sole surviving member of the crew; member Psi Upsilon); studied at Yale Divinity School 1872-75; ordained to Congregational ministry May 25, 1875, at Bethel; pastor at Berlin Falls, N. H., 1875-76; Gorham, N. H., 1876-1882; Kensington, Conn., 1882-89; St. Paul, Minn., 1889-1892; Housatonic, Mass., 1892-1900; South Natick, Mass., 1900-03; Tombstone, Ariz., 1903-1912; and Pearce, Ariz., from 1912 until his retirement on account of ill health in 1924; resided on his property, "The Last Ditch Ranch," near Cochise, Ariz., 1912-1924 and since then in Tucson, where he was a member of the Congregational Church; had been active in organization of mission Sunday schools and churches in Arizona and in 1912 became a circuit rider, having in his charge six Sunday schools located among the homestead ranches of Sulphur Springs Valley; during last three years of his life was occupied in literary work and occasional preaching; author: Bits of Berkshire (1892) and Sunday School Pioneers of Sulphur Springs Valley (1925); at the time of his death was just completing a book of reminiscences of himself as an athlete, circuit rider, and Congregational minister, a small part of which has been printed for private distribution.
Divinity School

Married June 4, 1879, in Philadelphia, Pa., Ida, daughter of William and Elizabeth (Darling) Raiguel. Children: Elizabeth Darling (born and died the same day); Ruth Allen (B.L. Smith 1902); William Raiguel (B.A. Amherst 1905); Arthur Allen, a non-graduate member of the University of Arizona Class of 1914; Helen Scott, a graduate of Tempe (Ariz.) State Teachers College in 1908; Ida Raiguel (born and died the same day); and Howard Leavenworth (B.A. University of Arizona 1923).

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Tucson. Survived by wife, three sons, two daughters, a sister, Miss Ursula Benedict, of Seymour, Conn., and a brother, Dr. Frank A. Benedict, ex-'84 S.

Frederick Brown Pullan, B.D. 1875.

Born February 4, 1849, in New York City.
Died January 7, 1927, in Newport, R.I.

Father, the Rev. Henry Pullan, a Congregational minister; of English ancestry.

Preparatory training received at Janesville (Wis.) High School; B.A. Beloit 1871; principal of Peabody School, Little Rock, Ark., 1871-72; studied at Yale Divinity School 1872-75; acting pastor Congregational Church, South Amherst, Mass., during first part of 1875; ordained to Congregational ministry September 6, 1876, at Vineland, N.J., where he held a pastorate until 1879; pastor Grove Street Congregational Church, East Orange, N.J., 1879-1890; acting pastor Congregational Church, Berkeley, Calif., for seven months in 1890; pastor Third Congregational Church, San Francisco, Calif., 1890-95; Pilgrim Congregational Church, Providence, R.I., 1895-1905; engaged partly in business and also in ad interim pastoral work 1905-08; pastor Hyde Park Reformed Church, East Orange, 1908-1914; First Congregational Church, River Edge, N.J., from 1914 until obliged to retire from active ministry on account of ill health in 1918; had since resided in East Orange and Newport.

Married March 23, 1890, in East Orange, Sarah Burt
Clark, daughter of Roderick and Mariette (Bestor) Burt, of Springfield, Mass. No children.

Death, resulting from a fractured hip, occurred after an illness of nine weeks. Buried in Springfield. Survived by wife and two stepchildren, Charles Burt Clark, of East Orange, and Mattie Clark Capron, the wife of the Rev. Harold S. Capron (B.A. Brown 1900, B.D. Union Theological Seminary 1903)

Andrew Webster Archibald, B.D. 1876.

Born April 10, 1851, in New Kingston, N. Y.
Died November 15, 1926, in Los Angeles, Calif.

Father, Robert Archibald, a farmer; son of James and Isabel (Atkin) Archibald, ancestors came from Scotland and settled in Bovina, N. Y. Mother, Elizabeth (Hamilton) Archibald; daughter of Thomas Hamilton, whose ancestors also came to Bovina from Scotland.

Roxbury and Andes (N. Y.) academies; B.A Union 1872 (Warner Prize for general high stand, Clark Prize for graduating at the head of his class, and Blatchford Prize for oratory at Commencement; salutatorian of his class; member Alpha Delta Phi and Phi Beta Kappa); taught at Pulaski (N. Y.) Academy 1872-73; studied at Yale Divinity School 1873-76; ordained to Congregational ministry August 24, 1876, at Nevinville, Iowa, where he held a pastorate of a year, also serving the church in Fontanelle, Iowa; pastor at Stuart, Iowa, 1877-1880; First Church, Ottumwa, Iowa, 1880-87; studied at Andover Theological Seminary 1887-88; pastor of Edwards Church, Davenport, Iowa, 1888-1892; Hyde Park, Mass., 1892-97; and Porter Church, Brockton, Mass., 1897-1905; lived in New Haven 1905-07 and during that period served as acting pastor of churches in Wallingford and Milford, Conn.; acting pastor of First Church, New Britain, Conn., 1907-08, First Church, Springfield, Mass., 1909-1910, Pilgrim and Second churches, Dorchester, Mass., 1912-13, and Pilgrim Church, Los Angeles, 1913-15; organizer of Plymouth Church, Ottumwa, Iowa, and of churches in Cliftondale and Waban, Mass., during 1887-88; since his retirement from active ministry in 1915 had traveled quite extensively; spent the summer at Mount Desert, Maine, and the rest of the year in Pasadena and Los Angeles; D.D. Union 1891; trustee of Grinnell College 1889–1899; president of Iowa State Home Missionary Society 1890–91; trustee of Massachusetts Christian Endeavor Union; delegate-at-large from Massachusetts to Congregational National Council; moderator of Boston Congregational Ministers Meeting; author: The Bible Verified (1890), later translated into Spanish and Japanese The Trend of the Centuries (1901), The Easter Hope (1909), Biblical Nature Studies (1915), The Modern Man Facing the Old Problems (1916), A Cruise to the Orient (1921), and Out of Joint with the Moral Order (1922); had written for various periodicals and for Bar Harbor Times; member Boston Congregational Club and First Congregational Church, Los Angeles.
Divinity School

Married (1) May 18, 1876, in New Haven, Julia Agnes, daughter of Charles Austin and Emeline (Curtis) Warren. Children: Warren; Kenneth (B.A. Dartmouth 1902) (died in 1908); and Cecil (B.A. Dartmouth 1905) (died in 1923). Mrs. Archibald died March 5, 1921, and that year he established the Julia A. Archibald High Scholarship Prize Fund of $1500 in Yale Divinity School in her memory; in 1922, by the terms of Mrs. Archibald’s will, the Warren Memorial High Scholarship Prize was established in Yale College in memory of her parents. Married (2) January 22, 1924, in Pasadena, Rena Bennett Gurley, of Springfield, Mass, daughter of Earl and Julia (Barrows) Bennett. No children by second marriage.

Death due to a hemorrhage of the brain caused by an automobile accident. Buried in Union Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, one son, a stepson, J. Worth Gurley, two grandsons, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Phinney, of Sandpoint, Idaho.

Charles Henry Oliphant, B.D. 1876.

Born April 13, 1852, in Dorchester, Mass.
Died October 7, 1926, in Methuen, Mass.

Father, Henry Duncan Oliphant, a merchant; son of the Rev. David Oliphant (B.A. Union 1809) and Mary (Pierson)

Schoharie (N. Y.) Academy; taught in a boys' school in New London, Conn., 1869-1873; during that period was also connected for a part of the time with the Norwich Bulletin and read law in office of Judge Alfred Coit (B.A. 1856); attended Yale Divinity School 1873-76; ordained to Congregational ministry July 12, 1876, at Orange, N. J., pastor Second Church, Orange Valley, N. J., 1876-78; Mystic Bridge, Conn., 1879-1884, First Congregational Church in Methuen from 1884 until his retirement in 1917 and since then pastor emeritus; in 1887 formed the Christian League of Methuen, the first federation of interdenominational churches in America; member of Methuen School and Town committees; trustee of Abbot Academy and lecturer there on Christian theism; author of The Extinction of Evil; contributor to many religious and philosophical publications and collaborator in the compilation and editing of several hymn books; corporate member of American Board; member Andover Association of Churches and Ministers; served as president of Yale Divinity School Alumni Association of Eastern Massachusetts 1903-04 and 1913-14.

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Walnut Grove Cemetery, Methuen. Survived by wife, three sons, six grandchildren, and a brother, David D. Oliphant, of Oakland, Calif.
William Irons Beatty, B.D. 1883.

Born April 23, 1846, near Clifton Mills, W. Va.
Died May 30, 1926, in Muscatine, Iowa.

Father, William Beatty, a farmer; son of John and Hannah (Deford) Beatty; descendant of John Beatty, who came to America from Ireland in 1820 and settled near Clifton Mills. Mother, Mary Jane (Hill) Beatty; daughter of James and Margaret (O'Neil) Hill.

Preparatory training received in Elkader and Dubuque, Iowa, and at Lenox Collegiate Institute, Hopkinton, Iowa; B.A. Leander Clark College 1880; attended Yale Divinity School 1880–83; ordained as minister of the United Brethren September 8, 1877, at Toledo, Iowa; pastor at Muscatine 1883–87 and then a presiding elder for five years; during that time was pastor at Tama, Iowa, 1891–92; minister at Harvey, Ill., 1892–94 and at Toledo, 1894–98; presiding elder 1898–1900; minister at Lisbon, Iowa, 1900–03 and Muscatine 1903–05, when he withdrew from ministerial work for a time on account of ill health and lived in Canada and South Dakota; pastor of Congregational Church, Estel-lime, S. Dak., 1907–08; Congregational Church, Elk Point, S. Dak., 1908 until his retirement in 1921; had since lived in Muscatine; D.D. Lecompton College 1896; at time of death was member of First Congregational Church, Muscatine.

Married October 15, 1890, in Muscatine, Elizabeth, daughter of Jacob and Susan (Funk) Erb. One son, Ernest Lorenz (died in 1918).

Death, due to complications, followed an illness of two and a half months. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Muscatine. Survived by wife, a brother, Hugh I. Beatty, of Homer, Mich., and two sisters, Mrs. Jacob O. Hoover, of Pasadena, Calif., and Mrs. Martin W. Peters, of Wagner, S Dak.

Oscar Garland McIntire, B.D. 1883.

Born September 9, 1854, in Dayton, Maine.
Died May 19, 1926, in West Woodstock, Conn.

Father, Joel McIntire, a farmer. Mother, Eliza (Hooper) McIntire; daughter of Daniel Hooper.
Preparatory training received in Biddeford, Maine; B.A. Dartmouth 1880; attended Yale Divinity School 1880–83 and during that time was pastor of Eagle Rock Congregational Church, Thomaston, Conn., 1882–83; pastor of First and North Congregational churches, Becket, Mass., 1883–84; Congregational Church, Derby, Conn., 1884–86; ordained by Congregational Council March 31, 1886, at Cornwall, Conn., where he held a pastorate for a year; pastor at Wapping, Conn., 1887–89; Jewett City, Conn., 1889–1891; Presbyterian Church, New Boston, N. H., 1891–94; Congregational Church, Hopkinton, N. H., 1894–95; Orford and Orfordville, N. H., 1895–98; West Woodstock 1899–1902, when he retired on account of failing health.

Married January 12, 1887, in Cornwall, Mary Josephine, daughter of Samuel Joseph Barnett and Desire (Hewitt) Johnson. No children.

Had suffered from bronchitis a long time and complications developed about two weeks before his death. Interment in Pine Grove Cemetery, Manchester, N. H. Survived by wife and a brother, Alonzo O. McIntire, of Cleveland, Ohio.

Henry Fairbank, B.D. 1886.

Born June 30, 1862, in Vadala, India. Died September 19, 1926, in Ahmednagar, India.

Father, the Rev. Samuel Bacon Fairbank (B.A. Illinois College 1842, D.D. 1877; graduate Andover Theological Seminary); missionary of the American Board in India 1846–1898; translated many hymns into Marathi and prepared first book of musical notation in the Marathi language; son of John Barnard and Hannah M. (Crissy) Fairbank; descendant of Jonathan Fairbank, who came to America from England in 1636 and settled near Dedham, Mass. Mother, Mary (Ballantine) Fairbank; daughter of the Rev. Henry Ballantine, who attended Princeton in 1830–31 and graduated at Andover Theological Seminary in 1834, missionary in India, and Elizabeth (Darling) Ballantine; descendant of William Ballantine, who came to this country from Ayrshire, Scotland, married in 1648, and settled at Divinity School

Phillips-Andover; B A Amherst 1883 (member Psi Upsilon; Phi Beta Kappa); studied at Yale Divinity School 1883–86; ordained to Congregational ministry at Hatfield, Mass., May 27, 1886; had since been a missionary of the American Board at the Marathi Mission; stationed at Vadala, Bombay, 1886–1898 and since then at Ahmednagar; professor of history and logic at Ahmednagar College 1886–87; principal of Ahmednagar High School for many years; head of Union Theological Seminary (now United Divinity College) since 1919; superintendent of the mission district south of Ahmednagar since 1916; D.D. Amherst 1923; was an authority on the birds of his region and in 1921 published Birds of Mahableshwar.

Married (1) September 16, 1886, in Sholapur, India, Ruby Elizabeth Harding, Wellesley ex-'82, daughter of the Rev. Charles Harding, '53, and Julia M. (Terry) Harding Children: Samuel Ballantine (B A. Amherst 1909), Alan Melvin (B A. Amherst 1911, B.D. Union Theological Seminary 1914); and Ruth Elizabeth (B A. Mount Holyoke 1914) (Mrs. Geddes Smith) Mrs. Fairbank died December 24, 1906. Married (2) November 17, 1908, in Ahmednagar, Mary Etta, daughter of Moses M and Amelia (McDonald) Moulton No children by second marriage.

Death due to bronchitis and heart failure. Buried in the Mission Cemetery, Ahmednagar. Survived by wife, sons, daughter, a brother, the Rev. Edward Fairbank (B.A. Amherst 1889), a non-graduate member of the Yale Divinity Class of 1892, and six sisters, Katie F. Hume, Mount Holyoke ex-'79, the wife of the Rev. Dr. Robert A. Hume, '68, Mrs. Robert M. Woods, Mount Holyoke '79, of Hatfield, Mass, Mrs. Hanford M Burr, Mount Holyoke ex-'88, of Springfield, Mass, Mrs. William W Hastings, Mount Holyoke '93, of Hancock, N. H., Mrs Rose F Beals, of Wai, Satara District, India, and Mrs Mary Darling Evans, of Quincy, Mass., and a half sister, Mrs Emily F Smith, of Waban, Mass.
Avedis Mesrob Bool [formerly Boolgoorjoo],
B.D. 1887.

Born January 18, 1855, in Marash, Turkey.

Began the study of theology at the Marash Theological Seminary and was ordained to the Congregational ministry at Marash September 19, 1880; came to America in 1883; studied at Oberlin Theological Seminary 1884–85 and at Yale Divinity School 1885–87; engaged in evangelistic work in Cilicia 1888–1894 but had since lived in the United States; lectured on missionary work 1894–98; then preached occasionally until 1917; pastor of Cilician Armenian Church, Boston, 1917 until his retirement in 1919.

Married August 6, 1878, in Marash, Katherine Boyagian. Children: Marie H. (Mrs. Charles H Haines); Samuel Harris; Timothy Dwight (B.A. Harvard 1914, M.B.A. 1915); Phebe Rosa (B.A. Bates 1908); Elizabeth Dorothy; and Grace.

Death due to heart trouble and pneumonia, which developed after an automobile accident. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Chestnut Hill, Boston. Survived by wife, four daughters, and two sons.

Wallace Claire Payne, B.D. 1889.

Born December 6, 1863, in Brownsville, Ohio.
Died July 14, 1926, in Indianapolis, Ind.

Father, Francis Marion Payne, a cooper and later a cabinetmaker; son of Bernard and Emily (Brannon) Payne; descendant of Stephen Gamot, who came to America from France in 1685 and settled at New Orleans, La. Mother, Mary Jane (Loughman) Payne; daughter of David and Elizabeth (Martin) Loughman; ancestors settled in Washington County, Pa.

South Bend (Ind.) High School; B.A. Bethany College (W. Va.) 1886, M.A. 1887; studied in Yale Divinity School 1886–87 and 1888–89; pastor Christian Church, North Eaton, Ohio, 1887–88; First Christian Church, Greensburg, Ind.,
1889-1890; Church of the Disciples, Cincinnati, Ohio, 1890-92, where ordained March 15, 1891; pastor Third Christian Church, Philadelphia, 1892-97; West 56th Street Church of Christ (now on 89th Street), New York City, 1898-99; First Christian Church, Evanston, Ill., 1899-1901; attended Divinity School of University of Chicago 1899-1900; occupied the Bible chair established by Christian Woman's Board of Missions in connection with University of Kansas 1901-1913; field representative of that board 1913-17; registrar and professor of missionary history at College of Missions, Indianapolis, 1917 until his retirement on account of ill health in 1923.

Married December 25, 1889, at Mount Healthy, Ohio, Ellie Sarah, daughter of William Nicholas and Julia Ann (Norris) Kinney. Children: Francis William (B.A. Butler 1916, LL.B. Indiana Law School 1922); Florence Mary (B.A. University of Kansas 1913), the wife of Rollin Morris Perkins (B.A. University of Kansas 1910, J.D Stanford University 1912, S.J.D. Harvard 1916); and Helen Claire (B.A. Butler 1926).

Death due to heart failure. Buried in Crown Hill Cemetery, Indianapolis. Survived by wife, son, two daughters, five grandchildren, a sister, Mrs. Mildred Payne Guy, of South Bend, and four brothers, George H. Payne, of Denver, Colo, Herbert G. Payne, of Norfolk, Va., and Raymond C. and Ross G. Payne, both of South Bend.

Milton Royce Kerr, B.D. 1895.

Born May 4, 1859, in Mongaup Valley, N Y
Died June 19, 1926, in Los Angeles, Calif

Father, Samuel Kerr, a farmer; son of Robert Kerr, who came to America from Belfast, Ireland, in 1822 and settled in Greene County, N. Y., and Mary (Buchanan) Kerr. Mother, Charlotte (Royce) Kerr; daughter of Milton and Esther (Tibbetts) Royce; descendant of Uzziel and Wealthy (Pettis) Royce, who moved from Mansfield, Conn, to Sullivan County, N. Y., in 1802.

Preparatory training received at district schools in Mon-gaup Valley; B.S. Cornell 1884; principal of academies in Newark Valley, N. Y., 1884–85 and Van Etten, N. Y., 1885–87; minister of Methodist churches in Orwell, Pa., 1887–1890 and Apalachin, N. Y., 1890–92; studied at Yale Divinity School 1892–95; ordained to Congregational ministry in 1895 at North Guilford, Conn., and pastor there two years; subsequent pastorates: Westville, Conn., 1898–1901, Sandwich, Mass., 1901–08, and Greeley, Colo., 1908–1911; while at Greeley studied for a year (1910–11) at Colorado Teachers' College (B.A. 1911; also taught that year); since 1911 had been engaged in teaching in California; principal of Inglewood High School 1911–13 and of El Centro High School 1913–15; dean of Siskiyou Junior College, Yreka, 1915–18; principal of Union High School, Etna Mills, 1918–1920; had since taught ancient history, geography, and life career in Sentous Junior High School, Los Angeles, and organized supervised study in the city schools.

Married (1) March 29, 1884, in Ithaca, N. Y., Frances Maria, daughter of William and Calpurnia (Congdon) Perry. Children: Frances Hope (B.A. Radcliffe 1910) (Mrs. William R. Holway); Charlotte Clare (B.S. Santa Barbara Normal School 1916); Jessie Grace (Mrs. Ray S. Hamar); Elsie Margarita (Mrs. Henry A. Voss); Robert Perry; and Donal Royce, who attended the University of Southern California from 1920 to 1922. Mrs. Kerr died January 8, 1908. Married (2) August 5, 1910, in Guilford, Conn., Mary Manchester, daughter of Charles Hall. Mrs. Kerr died November 2, 1924. Married (3) December 21, 1925, in San Antonio, Texas, Frances Murray Miller, of Ithaca, N. Y., daughter of Dr. Charles Augustus Murray and Mary (Briggs) Murray. No children by second and third marriages.

Death, due to pneumonia, followed an operation for cancer. Buried in Inglewood. Survived by wife, four daughters, two sons, ten grandchildren, and four sisters, the Misses Charlotte R. and Sara E. Kerr, of Passaic, N. J., and Mrs. Emily K. Montfort and Mrs. John VanKeuren, of Swan Lake, N. Y.

Born October 20, 1869, in Morrisania, N. Y.
Died April 8, 1927, in Arlington, Mass.

Father, William Dick, a merchant; son of John Dick, who came from Ireland about 1846 and settled in Nevada. Mother, Anna (Gillespie) Dick; daughter of John Gillespie, who came from Ireland to Canada about 1846.

Preparatory training received at a private school in Yonkers, N. Y.; attended the International Young Men's Christian Association College, Springfield, Mass., 1890–91 (took the secretarial course and played on baseball team) and Boston University 1892–94 before entering Yale Divinity School in 1895; ordained in May, 1895; subsequently engaged in evangelistic work, making tours and holding meetings especially through the South, in Tennessee and Georgia; served as a Y. M. C. A. secretary in Evanston, Ill., about 1889; in 1891 established Camp Idlewild, a camp for boys on Lake Winnipesaukee, N. H., and served as its director until 1925 when he retired; member Pleasant Street Congregational Church, Arlington, Mass.

Married September 27, 1905, in Cambridge, Mass., Mary Carr, daughter of Phineas and Lucinda Ann (Reed) Hubbard. Children: Marjorie Hubbard (Mrs. Max Laufman) (Boston University School of Religious Education and Social Service 1928); and John Milton, Jr.

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Arlington. Survived by wife, daughter, son, one grandson, and a sister, Mrs. Walter Drinkwater, of East Somerville, N. J.

Walter Kendall Allen, B.D. 1919.

Born September 1, 1891, in Salisbury, Md
Died September 2, 1925, in Shillong, Assam, India

Father, William Francis Allen, a nurseryman and fruit grower; son of Albert James and Elizabeth Ellen (Twillie) Allen. Mother, Martha (Taylor) Allen, daughter of Gillis Twiford and Sophronia Keller (Darby) Taylor; descendant of Levi Taylor.

Death due to typhoid fever. Buried in Government Cemetery, Shillong, Assam. Survived by wife, two daughters, parents, and three brothers, Fulton White, William Lee, and Albert Gillis Allen, all of Salisbury, Md.
SUMMARY

YALE COLLEGE

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Class</th>
<th>Name and Age at Death</th>
<th>Place of Birth and Death</th>
<th>Date of Death</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1858</td>
<td>DeLancy Freeborn, 93</td>
<td>Knoxville, Pa</td>
<td>April 3, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1858</td>
<td>Leslie Robison, 92</td>
<td>Detroit, Mich, Peoria, Ill</td>
<td>November 19, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1859</td>
<td>F J Jones, 89</td>
<td>Cincinnati, Ohio</td>
<td>June 6, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1861</td>
<td>S E Baldwin, 86</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>June 6, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1861</td>
<td>G B Beecher, 83</td>
<td>Zanesville, Ohio, Baltimore, Md</td>
<td>January 30, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1862</td>
<td>J. W Alling, 85</td>
<td>Orange, Conn; New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>April 1, 1925</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1862</td>
<td>W. W Johnson, 85</td>
<td>near Owego, N. Y; Baltimore, Md</td>
<td>January 9, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1862</td>
<td>R C Morse, 85</td>
<td>Hudson, N. Y; Brooklyn, N Y.</td>
<td>May 14, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1863</td>
<td>J H Woodruff, 83</td>
<td>Auburn, N. Y</td>
<td>December 25, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1863</td>
<td>C D T Gibson, 83</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N. Y; New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>October 3, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1864</td>
<td>Ledyard Stevens, 82</td>
<td>New York City</td>
<td>August 29, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1865</td>
<td>C. A. Leland, 83</td>
<td>Ottawa, Ill; El Dorado, Kans</td>
<td>September 21, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1866</td>
<td>E. B. Bennett, 84</td>
<td>Hampton, Conn; Hartford, Conn</td>
<td>October, 16 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1866</td>
<td>E. R Betts, 82</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y</td>
<td>March 24, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1866</td>
<td>G L Bishop, 81</td>
<td>Astoria, N Y; Twilight Park, N Y</td>
<td>July 28, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1866</td>
<td>G. A. Shelton, 85</td>
<td>Huntington, Conn; Shelton, Conn</td>
<td>July 14, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1866</td>
<td>Siegwart Spier, 82</td>
<td>Rothenburg, Hesse, Germany, New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>January 8, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1867</td>
<td>A D. Bissell, 82</td>
<td>New London, N Y; Buffalo, N Y</td>
<td>April 26, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1867</td>
<td>D. J Burrell, 82</td>
<td>Mount Pleasant, Pa; Madison, N. J.</td>
<td>November 13, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1867</td>
<td>F. M Sprague, 85</td>
<td>East Douglas, Mass; Tampa, Fla.</td>
<td>December 5, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1867</td>
<td>William Thomasen, 80</td>
<td>Baltimore, Md</td>
<td>December 30, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1869</td>
<td>H A Beers, 78</td>
<td>Buffalo, N. Y; New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>November 4, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1869</td>
<td>Alexander Cameron, 77</td>
<td>Charleston, S C; Forest Hills, N Y.</td>
<td>September 7, 1926</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Summary
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>NAME AND AGE AT DEATH</th>
<th>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</th>
<th>DATE OF DEATH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1869</td>
<td>Arthur Shirley, 81</td>
<td>Portland, Maine; Stratford, Conn</td>
<td>February 5, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>W H Backus, 82</td>
<td>West Killingly, Conn; Danielson, Conn.</td>
<td>November 14, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>Walter Buck, 79</td>
<td>Boston, Mass; Andover, Mass</td>
<td>March 7, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>N. B Craig, 78</td>
<td>Allegheny City, Pa; Germantown, Pa</td>
<td>August 8, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>F. F. Jewett, 82</td>
<td>Newton, Mass; Honolulu, Hawaii</td>
<td>July 1, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>L L Scaife, 76</td>
<td>Pittsburgh, Pa; Boston, Mass</td>
<td>December 17, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>J. W Shattuck, 80</td>
<td>Colerain, Mass; Menands, N. Y.</td>
<td>September 18, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>G. C Wattles, 79</td>
<td>Lapeer, Mich; Chicago, Ill</td>
<td>January 13, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td>R W Archbald, 77</td>
<td>Carbondale, Pa; Martha's Vineyard, Mass.</td>
<td>August 19, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td>C. H. Clark, 78</td>
<td>Hartford, Conn.</td>
<td>September 5, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td>J. B Morse, 76</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>June 15, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>D. N. Beach, 77</td>
<td>South Orange, N J; Southington, Conn.</td>
<td>October 18, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>G. L. Hoyt, 75</td>
<td>New York City</td>
<td>December 20, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>J. K Brown, 73</td>
<td>Buffalo, N. Y; Los Gatos, Calif</td>
<td>October 1, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873</td>
<td>James Hayward, 74</td>
<td>Bangor, Me; Johnson City, Tenn.</td>
<td>January 20, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873</td>
<td>I. N Judson, 73</td>
<td>Bridgeport, Conn; New York City</td>
<td>December 30, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873</td>
<td>Henry Meyer, 78</td>
<td>Pittsburgh, Pa</td>
<td>February 3, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873</td>
<td>J. B. Mills, 74</td>
<td>Yazoo City, Miss; Bristol, R. I.</td>
<td>May 8, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873</td>
<td>F. C Webster, 76</td>
<td>Litchfield, Conn; Missoula, Mont.</td>
<td>June 14, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>T. M. Adams, 72</td>
<td>Buena Vista Furnace, Ky; Ashland, Ky</td>
<td>November 13, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>W. C. Bowers, 74</td>
<td>Springfield, Mass; Bridgeport, Conn</td>
<td>October 23, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>G. M. Gunn, 75</td>
<td>Milford, Conn; New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>September 7, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>L. S. Tenney, 74</td>
<td>Orwell, Vt; Montclair, N. J.</td>
<td>February 6, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875</td>
<td>C. H. Avery, 72</td>
<td>Cincinnati, Ohio; Clearwater, Fla.</td>
<td>January 3, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875</td>
<td>H. McL. Harding, 74</td>
<td>Bath, Maine; New York City</td>
<td>August 24, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td>D. B. Cushman, 74</td>
<td>Plymouth, N Y; Norwich, N Y.</td>
<td>February 18, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td>A. H. Ely, 72</td>
<td>Janesville, Wis.; Greenwich, Conn</td>
<td>July 15, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td>J. F. Nelson, 71</td>
<td>New York City; Brooklyn, N. Y.</td>
<td>February 15, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Year</td>
<td>Name</td>
<td>Age</td>
<td>City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>------</td>
<td>----------------</td>
<td>-----</td>
<td>-----------------------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td>C. P. Sanford</td>
<td>72</td>
<td>New York City, Roberval, Lake St. John, Quebec</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td>H. C. Wait</td>
<td>74</td>
<td>Highgate, Vt.; Atlanta, Ga.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>W. M. Barnum</td>
<td>70</td>
<td>Lime Rock, Conn., New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>C. F. Chapin</td>
<td>74</td>
<td>South Hadley Falls, Mass; Waterbury, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>R. G. Chidsey</td>
<td>76</td>
<td>North Branford, Conn.; Newton Center, Mass.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>J. E. Keeler</td>
<td>71</td>
<td>Stamford, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td>H. W. Bowen</td>
<td>71</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y., Woodstock, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td>Marion Wilcox</td>
<td>68</td>
<td>Augusta, Ga; New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>J. J. Hill</td>
<td>72</td>
<td>Freeport, Pa; Pittsburgh, Pa.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>W. B. James</td>
<td>68</td>
<td>Montville, Conn; Willimantic, Conn</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>E. B. Joyce</td>
<td>68</td>
<td>Baltimore, Md; New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>S. Metcalfe</td>
<td>68</td>
<td>New York City, New Haven, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>C. R. Pence</td>
<td>68</td>
<td>Buffalo, N Y; New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>F. T. Simpson</td>
<td>69</td>
<td>Peru, Ind.; Kansas City, Mo.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>M. S. Wilson</td>
<td>69</td>
<td>Bath, Maine; Hartford, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>W. C. McHenry</td>
<td>67</td>
<td>San Francisco, Calif; Burlingame, Calif</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>H. C. Ordway</td>
<td>70</td>
<td>Pikesville, Md; Baltimore, Md</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>Max Stern</td>
<td>68</td>
<td>Hampstead, N H; Winchester, Mass.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>W. E. Peck</td>
<td>68</td>
<td>Norwich, Conn; New Winceton City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>W. H. Pierce</td>
<td>69</td>
<td>New Britian, Conn; New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>C. B. Schram</td>
<td>65</td>
<td>Northford, Conn; Chicago, Ill</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>F. R. Vernon</td>
<td>68</td>
<td>Milwaukee, Wis; New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882</td>
<td>J. H. Pratt</td>
<td>66</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y; Freeport, N Y</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882</td>
<td>A. B. Wright</td>
<td>64</td>
<td>Montclair, N J; Milwaukee, Wis</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>H. Y. Chang</td>
<td>66</td>
<td>Meriden, Conn; Hinsdale, Ill</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>C. L. Moffett</td>
<td>63</td>
<td>Han Shan, China; Berkeley, Calif.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>J. F. Raymond</td>
<td>65</td>
<td>Booneville, N Y; Paris, France</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>C. C. Sherman</td>
<td>66</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y; Plainfield, N J.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>Syracuse, N Y; New Rochelle, N Y.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- Summary

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Location</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>October 12, 1926</td>
<td>New York City, Roberval, Lake St. John, Quebec</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>September 4, 1926</td>
<td>Highgate, Vt.; Atlanta, Ga.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>October 5, 1926</td>
<td>New York City, New Haven, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>October 27, 1926</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y; Woodstock, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>June 20, 1927</td>
<td>Augusta, Ga; New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>May 28, 1927</td>
<td>Freeport, Pa; Pittsburgh, Pa.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>May 29, 1927</td>
<td>Montville, Conn; Willimantic, Conn</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>December 26, 1926</td>
<td>Baltimore, Md; New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>October 17, 1926</td>
<td>New York City, New Haven, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>September 9, 1926</td>
<td>Buffalo, N Y; New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>April 6, 1927</td>
<td>Peru, Ind.; Kansas City, Mo.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>July 13, 1926</td>
<td>Bath, Maine; Hartford, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>May 26, 1927</td>
<td>San Francisco, Calif; Burlingame, Calif</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>January 12, 1927</td>
<td>Pikesville, Md; Baltimore, Md</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>April 21, 1927</td>
<td>Hampstead, N H; Winchester, Mass.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>October 2, 1926</td>
<td>Norwich, Conn; New Winceton City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>October 31, 1926</td>
<td>New Britian, Conn; New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>November 20, 1926</td>
<td>Northford, Conn; Chicago, Ill</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>October 22, 1926</td>
<td>Milwaukee, Wis; New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>December 27, 1926</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y; Freeport, N Y</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>November 27, 1926</td>
<td>Montclair, N J; Milwaukee, Wis</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>February 22, 1927</td>
<td>Meriden, Conn; Hinsdale, Ill</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>April 20, 1927</td>
<td>Han Shan, China; Berkeley, Calif.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>May 25, 1926</td>
<td>Booneville, N Y; Paris, France</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>August 4, 1926</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y; Plainfield, N J.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>October 14, 1926</td>
<td>Syracuse, N Y; New Rochelle, N Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>January 28, 1927</td>
<td>May 8, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Class</td>
<td>Name and Age at Death</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-------</td>
<td>-----------------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>H R Smith, 67</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>J S Havens, 67</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>C E Holmes, 63</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>E St G Lough, 64</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>W H Sanford, 64</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>James Hall, 81</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>O W Pratt, 64</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>A C Thomson, 67</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>E L Burke, 61</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>E L Caldwell, 68</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>W J Hand, 60</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>F D Tuttle, 61</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888</td>
<td>F R Herrick, 61</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888</td>
<td>G C Peck, 59</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889</td>
<td>C M Washington, 58</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889</td>
<td>G L Amerman, 60</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>B F Case, 62</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>M E Griswold, 58</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>Robert Hartshorne, 60</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>H S Mathewson, 60</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>Willard Parker, 58</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>C M. Brown, 56</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>E V. Hale, 57</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>E S. Isham, 59</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>W F Poole, 58</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>P. C. Eggleston, 58</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>H S Lyman, 55</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Year</td>
<td>Name</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>------</td>
<td>-----------------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>E F Stevens, 55</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>Casselberry Dunkerson, 53</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>E R Thomas, 52</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>S K Wheeler, 54</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>R H Worthington, 54</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>H A Bryant, 53</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>J W Dixon, 52</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>J K Moore, 53</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>C H Weller, 56</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>J K Berry, 52</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>A C Jones, 53</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>W S Woodhull, 51</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>R S Chisolm, 50</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>Dwight Macdonald, 51</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>C E L Thomas, 50</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>E T Ware, 53</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>E A Wells, 51</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>J F Adams, 51</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>A B Baylis, 51</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>C T Payne, 51</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>J D Whitney, 47</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>Payne Whitney, 51</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>R C Adams, 48</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>Isham Henderson, 48</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>W C Hodge, Jr, 49</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>H H Hollister, 48</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>F W Weston, 47</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>J E Keach, 52</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>S B Morton, 48</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

*Dates of Arrival:
December 7, 1926
July 8, 1926
July 6, 1926
February 26, 1927
January 20, 1927
January 3, 1927
August 23, 1926
March 2, 1927
February 14, 1927
May 3, 1927
February 24, 1927
February 11, 1927
September 16, 1926
November 30, 1926
May 19, 1927
April 15, 1927
May 26, 1927
February 16, 1927
March 17, 1927
November 5, 1926
May 25, 1927
August 21, 1926
March 15, 1926
November 6, 1926
January 29, 1927
April 17, 1927
September 12, 1926
April 28, 1927*
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Class</th>
<th>Name and Age at Death</th>
<th>Place of Birth and Death</th>
<th>Date of Death</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td>H. M Flint, 46</td>
<td>McIndoes Falls, Vt; Pasadena, Calif</td>
<td>August 23, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>J deK Alsop, 47</td>
<td>Middletown, Conn; Hartford, Conn</td>
<td>September 29, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>Stewart Johnson, 45</td>
<td>St. Louis, Mo; Alexandria, Egypt</td>
<td>September 10, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>A E. Manierre, 48</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill.; Winnetka, Ill.</td>
<td>December 9, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>A S Wheeler, 45</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn; New York City</td>
<td>October 26, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>Minton Fluhrer, 45</td>
<td>New York City; Norwalk, Conn</td>
<td>June 20, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>T. N Hogan, 47</td>
<td>Hartford, Conn; Belvidere, Kan.</td>
<td>March 1, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>G. F Porter, 45</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill.</td>
<td>February 23, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>A R. Kelley, 45</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill.; Rutland, Mass.</td>
<td>May 24, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>W S Slade, 44</td>
<td>New York City; Englewood, N J.</td>
<td>January 16, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>H F Damon, 43</td>
<td>on Pacific Ocean; Moanalua, Hawaiian</td>
<td>December 19, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>Samuel Field, Jr, 42</td>
<td>Philadelphia, Pa.; Battle Creek, Mich</td>
<td>August 17, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>Donald McBride, 42</td>
<td>Cleveland, Ohio; Cleveland Heights, Ohio</td>
<td>March 13, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>F. G. Achelis, 41</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y; Greenwich, Conn.</td>
<td>September 18, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>W. C Blyth, 41</td>
<td>Evanston, Wyo.; Salinas, Calif</td>
<td>June 26, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>L E Brunner, 44</td>
<td>Central City, Iowa; Jacksonville, Fla.</td>
<td>February 26, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>H. P Rich, 43</td>
<td>Red Wing, Minn.; Portland, Ore.</td>
<td>April 27, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>H. A. Rosenbaum, 40</td>
<td>New York City; near Offenburg, Germany</td>
<td>June 9, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908</td>
<td>Prescott Dudley, 37</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill.; Franconia, N H.</td>
<td>July 30, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908</td>
<td>Walter Richardson, 41</td>
<td>Jamesville, Wis.; Miami Beach, Fla.</td>
<td>August 19, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>D. L Lawton, 39</td>
<td>Albany, N Y.; Saratoga Springs, N Y.</td>
<td>November 4, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>E. H. Smith, 40</td>
<td>Adrian, Mich.; New York City</td>
<td>January 28, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>C. A. Wardwell, 39</td>
<td>Haverhill, Mass; Boston, Mass.</td>
<td>July 29, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1912</td>
<td>S. L Pittman, 38</td>
<td>Detroit, Mich.</td>
<td>January 30, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1912</td>
<td>F. L. Walters, 38</td>
<td>Belleville, Ontario, Canada; New York City</td>
<td>March 8, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1915</td>
<td>L S Middlebrook, 34</td>
<td>Bridgeport, Conn.; New York City</td>
<td>March 10, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1916</td>
<td>W. H. Eckman, 31</td>
<td>Wilmington, Del; Colorado Springs, Colo.</td>
<td>July 4, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1917</td>
<td>E. D. Boyd, 31</td>
<td>Auburn, Nebr.; New York City</td>
<td>January 13, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Year</td>
<td>Name</td>
<td>Location</td>
<td>Date</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>------</td>
<td>---------------------------</td>
<td>-----------------------------------------------</td>
<td>---------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1917</td>
<td>J. D. Lucey, 30</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N. Y.; Saranac Lake, N. Y.</td>
<td>May 28, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1918</td>
<td>F. S. Curtis, Jr., 30</td>
<td>Danbury, Conn, Otowi, N. Mex.</td>
<td>November 4, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1919</td>
<td>R. L. Terrill, 30</td>
<td>Newtown, Conn; Long Island Sound</td>
<td>June 5, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1865</td>
<td>Charles Holt, 81</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1867</td>
<td>Wedworth Wadsworth, 80</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>C. A. Warren, 79</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td>H. B. Sargent, 75</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873</td>
<td>W. A. Cowles, 73</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873</td>
<td>Robert Jaffray, 72</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td>E. J. Francke, 70</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>W. S. Hine, 74</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td>F. B. Jillson, 72</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>W. S. McCrea, 69</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>John Moorhead, Jr., 67</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>G. S. Folsom, 67</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>C. S. Brown, 66</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>H. N. Covell, 65</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>J. J. Morgan, 63</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>W. A. Nettleton, 62</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>J. C. Oliver, 63</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>W. S. Bartlett, 61</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>H. C. Bolton, 58</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>H. C. Hamill, 62</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>A. M. Everst, 61</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>F. M. Smith, 60</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888</td>
<td>C. A. Tuttle, 62</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>E. B. Northrup, 59</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
<td>Brewing, Md; New York City</td>
<td>April 25, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
<td>Buffalo, N. Y.; Durham, Conn.</td>
<td>October 21, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
<td>Louisville, Ky.</td>
<td>December 11, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
<td>New York City, New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>February 3, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
<td>Montgomery, Ala; Washington, D. C</td>
<td>September 3, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
<td>New Rochelle, N. Y., New York City</td>
<td>October 15, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
<td>Mantanzas, Cuba; Orange, N. J.</td>
<td>November 21, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
<td>Bridgeport, Conn; Chicago, Ill.</td>
<td>March 16, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
<td>Whitehall, N. Y., Troy, N. Y.</td>
<td>October 25, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
<td>Morrison, Ill; Chicago, Ill</td>
<td>May 27, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
<td>Pittsburgh, Pa</td>
<td>March 15, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
<td>Springfield, Mass; Portland, Ore</td>
<td>November 24, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
<td>East Hampton, Conn; Woodmont, Conn.</td>
<td>August 31, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
<td>Troy, N. Y.; Charlottesville, Va</td>
<td>May 6, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
<td>Brooklyn, N. Y.; Chicago, Ill.</td>
<td>October 31, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
<td>Hannibal, Mo; Hendon, England</td>
<td>August 30, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
<td>Pittsburgh, Pa; Cleveland, Ohio</td>
<td>April 28, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
<td>Brooklyn, N. Y., New York City</td>
<td>March 24, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
<td>Philadelphia, Pa; Santa Fe, N. Mex.</td>
<td>July 1, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
<td>New York City</td>
<td>January 12, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
<td>East Haven, Conn; New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>July 24, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
<td>New Haven, Conn; Clinton, Conn</td>
<td>February 25, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
<td>Broadalbin, N. Y.; Sioux Falls, S. Dak</td>
<td>January 18, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>November 17, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>NAME AND AGE AT DEATH</td>
<td>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</td>
<td>DATE OF DEATH</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-------</td>
<td>-----------------------</td>
<td>--------------------------</td>
<td>---------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>A F Kountze, 57</td>
<td>Omaha, Nebr, Atlantic City, N J</td>
<td>March 14, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>G M Landers, 56</td>
<td>New Britain, Conn, New York City</td>
<td>January 25, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>C M Wood, 56</td>
<td>Dayton, Ohio, Tucson, Ariz</td>
<td>February 10, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>W C Briggs, 56</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn, Jersey City, N J</td>
<td>December 13, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>T S Homans, 56</td>
<td>Englewood, N J; Brooklyn, N Y</td>
<td>February 26, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>V J Youmans, 58</td>
<td>Winona, Minn, Saratoga Springs, N. Y</td>
<td>February 20, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>W G Comly, 53</td>
<td>San Antonio, Texas, Tuxedo Park, N Y</td>
<td>June 27, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>F. B McMullen, 55</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill, Evanston, Ill</td>
<td>June 7, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>E H Thomas, 51</td>
<td>Englewood, N J; Brooklyn, N Y</td>
<td>October 29, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>L A Johnson, 53</td>
<td>Cleveland, Ohio</td>
<td>November 10, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>Henry Hooker, 54</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn, Kensington, Conn</td>
<td>August 15, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>A W. Pearce, 52</td>
<td>Black Hawk, Colo, New York City</td>
<td>January 24, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>A H Durston, 49</td>
<td>Syracuse, N Y</td>
<td>October 5, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>W M Funcke, 49</td>
<td>New York City</td>
<td>December 27, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>C L Buckingham, 44</td>
<td>Ansonia, Conn, Parsons, Kans</td>
<td>November 9, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>V. Y Davoud, 45</td>
<td>Constantinople, Turkey, New York City</td>
<td>November 21, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905</td>
<td>W B Hickox, 43</td>
<td>Cleveland, Ohio; New York City</td>
<td>June 16, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905</td>
<td>A R. Scott, 42</td>
<td>La Crosse, Wis, Miami Beach, Fla</td>
<td>January 29, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>L M Keeling, 41</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill,</td>
<td>October 30, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>C T. Ballard, Jr, 40</td>
<td>Louisville, Ky, New York City</td>
<td>November 30, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>H B Kline, 43</td>
<td>Amsterdam, N Y, New York City</td>
<td>December 27, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>A C Sherman, 39</td>
<td>New York City, Wayne, Pa</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908</td>
<td>D. H Thomson, 41</td>
<td>West Hartford, Conn, near Warehouse Point, Conn</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910</td>
<td>A P McCarthy, 39</td>
<td>Oswego, N Y, Bangor, Me</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1911</td>
<td>H P Greenough, 40</td>
<td>Missoula, Mont, Spokane, Wash</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1913</td>
<td>Clyde Martin, 36</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y; New York City</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1913</td>
<td>A E Thorpe, 34</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn; Whitneyville, Conn</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1915</td>
<td>S P. N Rhoades, 33</td>
<td>New York City; Short Hills, N J.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
1916  M E Mattison, 33  Anderson, S. C ; Daytona Beach, Fla  September 8, 1926
1918  F L Adams, 30  New York City; Westport, Conn  September 12, 1926
1924  H E Flynn, 26  Bridgeport, Conn  October 29, 1926
1927  W R Flynn, 22  New Haven, Conn  April 9, 1927

1878  C. E Epler, 69
1905  O R O. Farel, 48
1906  W P Lawrence, 58
1910  A J Gammack, 56

1878  J W. Abernethy, 70
1893  C A Blomgren, 61
1901  A L Wright, 51

1862  Rollin McNeil, 89
1873  W. B Hall, 66
1876  Frank Gorham, 73
1880  J F Calef, 71
1881  D A Richardson, 68
1885  J W Sears, 69
1900  N. L Griffin, 51
1900  J W Ives, 51
1904  E F Crofut, 45
1904  E C Fleischner, 44

GRADUATE SCHOOL

MASTERS OF ART

Jacksonville, Ill ; Quincy, Ill
March 10, 1927

Forest City, Iowa; Storm Lake, Iowa
September 2, 1923

Asheboro, N. C ; High Point, N. C
June 2, 1926

Drumlithie, Scotland, Greenwich, Conn
April 29, 1927

DOCTORS OF PHILOSOPHY

New Haven, Vt ; Burlington, Vt
July 1, 1923

Solstad, Misterhult Parish, Småland, Sweden,
June 29, 1926

Sparta, Mich
October 13, 1926

Oakham, Mass , New Haven, Conn

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

North Haven, Conn , New Haven, Conn
August 28, 1926

Lee, Mass ; Pittsfield, Mass
April 18, 1927

Weston, Conn
June 1, 1926

Bridgeport, Conn , Derby, Conn
June 8, 1927

New Haven, Conn ; West Haven, Conn
July 13, 1926

Andover, Mass , Hartford, Conn
April 1, 1927

West Goshen, Conn , San Diego, Calif
December 23, 1926

Bethel, Conn ; Brooklyn, N Y
May 20, 1927

New Haven, Conn , Rochester, Minn
June 1, 1926

New Haven, Conn , Rochester, Minn
October 11, 1926
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLASS NAME AND AGE AT DEATH</th>
<th>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</th>
<th>DATE OF DEATH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1907 S F Jackson, 40</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn., New York City</td>
<td>June 10, 1925</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1912 A M Sartorius, 38</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y ; New York City</td>
<td>November 2, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1927 E T Calhoun, 26</td>
<td>St Cloud, Minn ; New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>April 10, 1927</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

| 1867 W R. Plum, 82         | New Haven, Conn. | April 28, 1927 |
| 1873 Joseph Rothschild, 69  | San Francisco, Calif. | March 19, 1925 |
| 1876 F H Parker, 76        | East Haddam, Conn | February 9, 1927 |
| 1878 C S. Everest, 76      | Hamden, Conn.; New Haven, Conn | February 14, 1927 |
| 1878 D T. Roberts, 72      | at sea; New Haven, Conn | March 8, 1927 |
| 1880 H A Hull, 69          | Stonington, Conn.; New London, Conn. | June 27, 1924 |
| 1880 M. G. Norton, 69      | Andover, Ohio, Cleveland, Ohio | September 8, 1926 |
| 1885 G P Ingersoll, 65     | New Haven, Conn.; Stamford, Conn | February 23, 1927 |
| 1885 E J Kenny, 72         | Newark, N J.; East Newark, N. J | April 19, 1927 |
| 1885 H. C Stover, 52       | Erwinna, Pa | October 9, 1916 |
| 1886 Raymond Hoagland, 61  | Troy, Ohio; New York City | April 17, 1927 |
| 1888 J E Russell, 66       | Waterbury, Conn. | October 13, 1926 |
| 1891 W M. Lewis, 57        | Racine, Wis.; Daytona Beach, Fla | February 14, 1927 |
| 1895 L. D. Ball, 51        | Tallahassee, Fla | December 18, 1926 |
| 1896 E L Steele, 53        | Hartford, Conn. | November 25, 1926 |
| 1897 W S Miller, 55        | Nashville, Tenn.; Norfolk, Va | May 6, 1926 |
| 1901 B. F. Nead, 48        | Harrisburg, Pa. | October 23, 1926 |
| 1902 A. T. Elmer, 47       | Middletown, Conn | April 1, 1927 |
| 1903 O. E. Fengar, 49      | New London, Conn.; Brooklyn, N Y. | February 10, 1927 |
| 1906 R R Hill, 44          | Saginaw, Mich.; El Paso, Texas | January 1, 1927 |
The number of deaths recorded this year is 285, the age of the 168 graduates of Yale College averages 62.5 years.

The oldest living graduate of the College is:

John Donnell Smith (B.A. 1847), of Baltimore, Md., born June 5, 1829.
Graduates of the different Schools of the University are distinguished from graduates of Yale College by italic letters as follows. Divinity, d; Graduate, ma or dp, Law, l, jd, or ml, Medicine, m, Sheffield Scientific School, s.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>PAGE</th>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>PAGE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1878 dp</td>
<td>Abernethy, Julian W.</td>
<td>1872</td>
<td>Brown, John K.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>Achelis, Frederic G.</td>
<td>1907</td>
<td>Brunner, Leroy E.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898 s</td>
<td>Adams, Francis L</td>
<td>1895</td>
<td>Bryant, H Arthur</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>Adams, J Frank</td>
<td>1870</td>
<td>Buck, Walter</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>Adams, Robert C.</td>
<td>172</td>
<td>Buckingham, Clifford L</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>Adams, Thomas M</td>
<td>1877</td>
<td>Burke, Edward L.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1919 d</td>
<td>Allen, Walter K</td>
<td>329</td>
<td>Burrell, David J.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1862</td>
<td>Alling, John W</td>
<td>13</td>
<td>Busser, Samuel Edwin</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>Alsop, John deK.</td>
<td>181</td>
<td>Caldwell, Ernest L.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>Amerman, George L.</td>
<td>132</td>
<td>Case, Bert F.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td>Archbald, Robert W.</td>
<td>48</td>
<td>Calhoun, Edward T</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876 d</td>
<td>Archibald, Andrew W.</td>
<td>320</td>
<td>Cameron, Alexander</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875</td>
<td>Avery, C Hammond</td>
<td>72</td>
<td>Case, David</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>Backus, William H</td>
<td>40</td>
<td>Chang, Hong Yen [Kang-jen]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1861</td>
<td>Baldwin, Simeon E.</td>
<td>7</td>
<td>Chapin, Charles F</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895 l</td>
<td>Ball, LeRoy D</td>
<td>306</td>
<td>Chidsey, Robert G.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907 s</td>
<td>Ballard, Charles T, Jr</td>
<td>260</td>
<td>Chisolm, Richard S</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>Barnum, William M</td>
<td>79</td>
<td>Clark, Charles Hopkins</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886 s</td>
<td>Bartlett, Warren S</td>
<td>232</td>
<td>Comly, Garrard</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>Baylis, Abraham B</td>
<td>167</td>
<td>Covell, Harry N</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>Beach, David N</td>
<td>53</td>
<td>Cowles, William A.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883 d</td>
<td>Beatty, William I.</td>
<td>323</td>
<td>Craig, Neville B</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1861</td>
<td>Beecher, George B.</td>
<td>12</td>
<td>Crofutt, Edward F.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895 l</td>
<td>Beers, Henry A</td>
<td>35</td>
<td>Curtis, Fayette S , Jr</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875 d</td>
<td>Benedict, Arthur J</td>
<td>318</td>
<td>Cushman, Daniel B</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896 s</td>
<td>Bennett, Edward B.</td>
<td>24</td>
<td>Damon, Henry F</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>Berry, John K</td>
<td>156</td>
<td>Davoud, Vahram Y</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1866</td>
<td>Betts, Edward R</td>
<td>25</td>
<td>Day, Jeremiah</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1866</td>
<td>Bishop, G Lavingston</td>
<td>26</td>
<td>Dickinson, John M</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1867</td>
<td>Bissell, Arthur D</td>
<td>30</td>
<td>Dixon, John W</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893 dp</td>
<td>Blomgren, Carl A.</td>
<td>278</td>
<td>Dudley, Prescott</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>Blyth, William C</td>
<td>196</td>
<td>Dunkerson, Casselberry</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886 s</td>
<td>Bolton, Howard C</td>
<td>233</td>
<td>Durston, A Howlett</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887 d</td>
<td>Bool, Avedis M</td>
<td>326</td>
<td>Eckman, Willard H.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td>Bowen, Herbert W</td>
<td>85</td>
<td>Eggleston, Percy C.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>Bowers, William C</td>
<td>68</td>
<td>Elmer, Avery T</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1917</td>
<td>Boyd, Edward D</td>
<td>210</td>
<td>Ely, Arthur H</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892 s</td>
<td>Briggs, Waldo C</td>
<td>243</td>
<td>Epler, Carl E</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883 s</td>
<td>Brown, Charles S</td>
<td>227</td>
<td>Everest, Charles S.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>Brown, Charles M</td>
<td>140</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>PAGE</td>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>PAGE</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-------</td>
<td>------</td>
<td>-------</td>
<td>------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887 s</td>
<td>235</td>
<td>1880 l</td>
<td>Hull, Hadlai A.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886 d</td>
<td>326</td>
<td>1885 l</td>
<td>Ingersoll, George Pratt</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905 ma</td>
<td>274</td>
<td>1891</td>
<td>Isham, Edward S.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903 l</td>
<td>310</td>
<td>1900 m</td>
<td>Ives, John W.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>192</td>
<td>1907 m</td>
<td>Jackson, Samuel F.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901 s</td>
<td>255</td>
<td>1873 s</td>
<td>Jaffray, Robert</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904 m</td>
<td>289</td>
<td>1879</td>
<td>James, Walter B.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td>180</td>
<td>1870</td>
<td>Jewett, Frank F.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>185</td>
<td>1878 s</td>
<td>Jillson, Frederick B.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1924 s</td>
<td>271</td>
<td>1895 s</td>
<td>Johnson, Levi A</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1927 s</td>
<td>272</td>
<td>1902</td>
<td>Johnson, Stewart</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881 s</td>
<td>226</td>
<td>1862</td>
<td>Johnson, William Woolsey</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876 s</td>
<td>221</td>
<td>1896</td>
<td>Jones, Albert C.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1858</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1859</td>
<td>Jones, Frank J.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910 ma</td>
<td>275</td>
<td>1879</td>
<td>Joyce, Elisha B</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1864</td>
<td>20</td>
<td>1873</td>
<td>Judson, Isaac N.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876 m</td>
<td>282</td>
<td>1921 d</td>
<td>Kang, Shuh-Min</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1911 s</td>
<td>265</td>
<td>1900</td>
<td>Keach, John E.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900 m</td>
<td>286</td>
<td>1877</td>
<td>Keeler, John E.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>134</td>
<td>1906 s</td>
<td>Keeling, Leonard M.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>70</td>
<td>1904</td>
<td>Kelley, Asa R</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>141</td>
<td>1885 l</td>
<td>Kenny, Edward</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>119</td>
<td>1895 d</td>
<td>Kerr, Milton R.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873 m</td>
<td>281</td>
<td>1907 s</td>
<td>Kline, Harold B.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886 s</td>
<td>234</td>
<td>1891 s</td>
<td>Kountze, Augustus F.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>125</td>
<td>1891 s</td>
<td>Landers, George M</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875</td>
<td>73</td>
<td>1906 ma</td>
<td>Lawrence, Walter P.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1916 ml</td>
<td>314</td>
<td>1909</td>
<td>Lawton, Daniel Lathrop</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>136</td>
<td>1865</td>
<td>Leland, Cyrus A.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>114</td>
<td>1891 l</td>
<td>Lewis, William Mitchell</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873</td>
<td>61</td>
<td>1884</td>
<td>Lough, E St George</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>173</td>
<td>1917</td>
<td>Lucey, James D</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888</td>
<td>128</td>
<td>1892</td>
<td>Lyman, Henry S.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905 s</td>
<td>258</td>
<td>1906</td>
<td>McBride, Donald</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>88</td>
<td>1910 s</td>
<td>McCarthy, Albert P.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906 l</td>
<td>311</td>
<td>1880 s</td>
<td>McCrea, Wilsey S</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>89</td>
<td>1897</td>
<td>Macdonald, Dwight</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877 s</td>
<td>221</td>
<td>1880</td>
<td>McHenry, W. Cary</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886 l</td>
<td>303</td>
<td>1883 d</td>
<td>McIntyre, Oscar G.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>175</td>
<td>1893 s</td>
<td>McMullen, Frederic B.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>186</td>
<td>1862 m</td>
<td>McNeil, Rollin</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>176</td>
<td>1902</td>
<td>Manierre, Alfred E.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>116</td>
<td>1913 s</td>
<td>Martin, Clyde</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1865 s</td>
<td>214</td>
<td>1911 l</td>
<td>Martinez-Cintrón, Joaquin</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892 s</td>
<td>244</td>
<td>1890</td>
<td>Mathewson, Henry S.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896 s</td>
<td>252</td>
<td>1916 s</td>
<td>Mattison, Marion E.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>55</td>
<td>1879</td>
<td>Metcalfe, James S.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>PAGE</td>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>PAGE</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-------</td>
<td>------</td>
<td>-------</td>
<td>------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873</td>
<td>Meyer, Henry</td>
<td>1876</td>
<td>Sanford, Charles P.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>Middlebrook, Louis S.</td>
<td>1884</td>
<td>Sanford, William H</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>Miller, W Scott</td>
<td>1871 s</td>
<td>Sargent, Henry B.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873</td>
<td>Mills, John B</td>
<td>1912 m</td>
<td>Sartorus, August M.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>Moffett, Cleveland L.</td>
<td>1870</td>
<td>Scaife, Lauriston L.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>Moore, John K</td>
<td>1881</td>
<td>Schram, Charles</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880 s</td>
<td>Moorhead, John, Jr</td>
<td>1905 s</td>
<td>Scott, Argyle R</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885 s</td>
<td>Morgan, James J</td>
<td>1885 m</td>
<td>Sears, James W.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td>Morse, Joseph B</td>
<td>1870</td>
<td>Shattuck, John W.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1862</td>
<td>Morse, Richard Cary</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>Morton, Sydneys B</td>
<td>1906</td>
<td>Sherman, Arthur C</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901 l</td>
<td>Nead, B Frank</td>
<td>1883</td>
<td>Sherman, Charles C.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td>Nelson, John F</td>
<td>1869</td>
<td>Shirley, Arthur</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885 s</td>
<td>Nettleton, William A</td>
<td>1879</td>
<td>Simpson, Frederick T.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890 s</td>
<td>Northup, Edward B.</td>
<td>1904</td>
<td>Slade, William S.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880 l</td>
<td>Norton, Miner G.</td>
<td>1909</td>
<td>Smith, Emery H.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876 d</td>
<td>Oliphant, Charles H.</td>
<td>1887 s</td>
<td>Smith, Frnk M.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885 s</td>
<td>Oliver, John C.</td>
<td>1883</td>
<td>Smith, Herbert R.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>Ordway, Henry C</td>
<td>1866</td>
<td>Spier, Siegwart</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876 l</td>
<td>Parker, Francis H</td>
<td>1867</td>
<td>Sprague, Franklin M.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>Parker, Willard</td>
<td>1907 l</td>
<td>Springer, Carl</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1924 m</td>
<td>Pastor, Robert B</td>
<td>1896 l</td>
<td>Steele, Edward L.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>Payne, Charles T.</td>
<td>1880</td>
<td>Stern, Max</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889 d</td>
<td>Payne, Wallace C</td>
<td>1892</td>
<td>Stevens, Eben</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876 s</td>
<td>Pearce, Arthur W</td>
<td>1864</td>
<td>Stevens, Ledyard</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889</td>
<td>Peck, George C</td>
<td>1885 l</td>
<td>Stover, Hugh C.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1911 l</td>
<td>Peck, Howard L</td>
<td>1874</td>
<td>Tenney, Levi S</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>Peck, William E.</td>
<td>1919</td>
<td>Terrill, Robert L</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>Pence, Charles R</td>
<td>1897</td>
<td>Thomas, Charles E. L.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1921</td>
<td>Pierce, Wilson Howard</td>
<td>1894</td>
<td>Thomas, Edward R</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1912</td>
<td>Pittman, Stuart L</td>
<td>1894 s</td>
<td>Thones, Edwin H.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1867 l</td>
<td>Plum, William R</td>
<td>1867</td>
<td>Thomsen, William</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>Poole, William F.</td>
<td>1885</td>
<td>Thomson, Arthur C.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>Porter, George F</td>
<td>1908 s</td>
<td>Thomson, Douglas H.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882</td>
<td>Pratt, Julius Howard</td>
<td>1913 s</td>
<td>Thorpe, Albert E.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>Pratt, Oramel W</td>
<td>1872</td>
<td>Tilney, Robert F.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875 d</td>
<td>Pullan, Frederick B</td>
<td>1908 l</td>
<td>Toller, Harry G</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>Raymond, J Frank</td>
<td>1874 d</td>
<td>Trowbridge, John P</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1915 s</td>
<td>Rhoades, Stephen P N</td>
<td>1888 s</td>
<td>Tuttle, Charles A</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>Rich, Harrison P</td>
<td>1887</td>
<td>Tuttle, Frank D</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881 m</td>
<td>Richardson, Dwight A.</td>
<td>1881</td>
<td>Vernon, Frederick R.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908</td>
<td>Richardson, Walter</td>
<td>1867 s</td>
<td>Wadsworth, Wedworth</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878 l</td>
<td>Roberts, David T</td>
<td>1876</td>
<td>Wait, Horace C.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1858</td>
<td>Robson, Leslie</td>
<td>1912</td>
<td>Walters, Frederic L.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>Rosenbaum, Harold A.</td>
<td>1909</td>
<td>Wardwell, Chester A.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873 l</td>
<td>Rothschild, Joseph</td>
<td>1897</td>
<td>Ware, Edward T.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888 l</td>
<td>Russell, James E.</td>
<td>1890</td>
<td>Warner, J. Allen</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>PAGE</td>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>PAGE</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-------</td>
<td>------</td>
<td>-------</td>
<td>------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>216</td>
<td>1898</td>
<td>171</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889</td>
<td>131</td>
<td>1878</td>
<td>86</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>47</td>
<td>1879</td>
<td>97</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873</td>
<td>66</td>
<td>1891</td>
<td>242</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>155</td>
<td>1896</td>
<td>159</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>165</td>
<td>1863</td>
<td>19</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>58</td>
<td>1894</td>
<td>151</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>177</td>
<td>1901 dp</td>
<td>279</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>150</td>
<td>1882</td>
<td>108</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>184</td>
<td>1892 s</td>
<td>246</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>169</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>