BULLETIN OF YALE UNIVERSITY

Entered as second-class matter, August 30, 1906, at the post office at New Haven, Conn, under the Act of Congress of July 16, 1894.

Acceptance for mailing at the special rate of postage provided for in Section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized August 12, 1918.

The Bulletin, which is issued semimonthly, includes:
1. The University Catalogue.
2. The Reports of the President and Treasurer.
3. The Catalogues of the several Schools.
5. The Obituary Record.
John Donnell Smith, B.A. 1847.

Born June 5, 1829, in Baltimore, Md
Died December 2, 1928, in Baltimore, Md

Father, Samuel W. Smith (Princeton ex-1820); son of Robert Smith (B.A. Princeton 1781), Secretary of the Navy 1802–05, Attorney-General 1805–09, and Secretary of State 1809–1811, and Margaret (Smith) Smith; nephew of Samuel Smith, a Brigadier General in the Revolutionary Army and a Major General in the War of 1812; grandson of John Smith, who came to Pennsylvania in 1759 but moved to Baltimore the following year. Mother, Ellinor (Donnell) Smith; daughter of John Donnell, who was born in Coleraine, County Londonderry, Ireland, and came to Baltimore about 1783.

Townsend Premium Senior year; member Alpha Delta Phi and Skull and Bones.

Read law in office of Brown & Brule in Baltimore 1847–1850; admitted to the bar in January, 1851, but never practiced law; spent several years in Europe and attended lectures on law and history at University of Heidelberg; in January, 1862, entered the Confederate Army as aide-de-camp to General John B. Magruder; commissioned as a Second Lieutenant of Artillery in Page’s Battery in March and the following October transferred to Jordan’s Battery as First Lieutenant; in February, 1864, promoted to Captain and subsequently commanded Battery A, 10th Battalion (Huger’s Battalion), Virginia Artillery (known as the “Bedford Light Artillery”); served in every campaign and battle of the Army of Northern Virginia, was severely wounded at Gettysburg and commended for his coolness under fire, and was present at the surrender at Appomattox; subsequently engaged in cotton planting in Alabama for a year and in the manufacture of bricks in Baltimore for a time; in the accounting department of the Marietta & Cincinnati Railroad at Cincinnati 1868–1870; had since made his home in Baltimore; had been engaged in botanical research and study for more than thirty years, spending much time in Central and South America and Europe; honorary associate in Botany of Smithsonian Institution, to which he gave his botanical library and collections in 1927; trustee of McDonough (Md.) Farm School 1871–72 and of Peabody Institute, Baltimore, 1888–1915; contributor to Bulletin of Torrey Botanical Club and the Botanical Gazette; Fellow of Linnaean Society, London; member American Academy of Arts and Sciences and St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, Baltimore.
Obituary Record

Unmarried.

Death due to broncho-pneumonia. Buried in Greenmount Cemetery, Baltimore. Survived by several nieces and nephews; one of his grandnieces is the wife of Dr. Stanhope Bayne-Jones, Jr., '10; and Samuel Y. Smith, ex-'30 S., is a grandnephew.

George Augustus Wilcox, B.A. 1852.

Born September 20, 1830, in Madison, Conn.
Died September 22, 1928, in Madison, Conn

Father, Jonathan Samuel Wilcox, a ship owner and merchant in East Guilford (now Madison), Conn.; son of Jonathan and Elizabeth (Todd) Wilcox; descendant of John Wilcox (Willcocks), who came from Leicestershire, England, and was an original proprietor of Hartford, Conn., in 1636; descended also from Governor Theophilus Eaton and numerous other early settlers of Connecticut. Mother, Chloe (Hand) Wilcox; daughter of Daniel Hand, a lawyer, and Artemisia (Meigs) Hand; descendant of John Hand, who was born in Maidstone, Kent, England, came to Lynn, Mass., in 1635, and was an original grantee of East Hampton, Long Island, in 1649; descended also from colonists prominent in the early history of Connecticut. Yale relatives include: Timothy Todd (B.A. 1747) (great-grandfather); Rev. Jonathan Todd (B.A. 1732) (great-great-uncle); George E. Hand (B.A. 1829) (uncle); William W. Wilcox (B.A. 1835) (brother); Ansley Wilcox, James Lyman Rackleff, B.A. 1856.

Born February 9, 1836, in Portland, Maine
Died August 21, 1928, in Hollis, Maine.

Father, Charles Rackleff; son of James and Olive (Basteen) Rackleff; descendant of Benjamin Rackleff, the first American ancestor of the Rackleff family. Mother, Mary (Nelson) Rackleff; daughter of Lot Packard and Caroline Sawyer (Starr) Nelson; descendant of William Nelson, who came from Bridgton Academy, North Bridgton, Maine. High oration appointment Senior year; member Delta Kappa Epsilon, Scroll and Key, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Private tutor in Louisiana 1856–57; studied in Yale School of Law 1857–58 and in law office of Judge Edward I. Sanford (B.A. 1847) in New Haven for a few months; taught in Waterproof, La., 1858–59, and at the same time continued his studies in a lawyer's office; admitted to Chicago Bar in 1859; practiced law in El Paso and Tuscola, Ill., 1859–1861 and since then in Portland; assistant United States assessor of internal revenue in Portland 1863–1871, acting assessor 1871–73, and deputy collector of internal revenue for first Maine District 1873–1896; one of the founders of Cumberland Loan & Building Association in 1890 (secretary until June, 1912); trustee of Knights of Pythias 1894–1919; a patron of music, subscribing annually to the Maine Musical Festivals; attended State Street Congregational Church.

Married October 30, 1877, in Portland, Marcia Woodman, daughter of Nathaniel Jones and Mary (Woodman) Miller. One daughter, Edith Katherine (died in 1897). Mrs. Rackleff died January 3, 1926.

Death due to acute dilatation of the heart arising from arteriosclerosis. Survived by no immediate relatives. Left a trust fund of $100,000 for the benefit of the citizens of Portland by the name of Miller, Rackleff, or Nelson, or for the opening of a studio or workroom for the free analysis of every kind of food, and for the perfecting of inventions that may eventually lead to the establishment of some useful and profitable business in Portland.

Henry Josiah Griswold, B.A. 1862.

Born July 4, 1837, in Madison, Conn.
Died April 6, 1929, in East Haven, Conn.

Father, John Griswold, a farmer and sailing master; son of Josiah and Chloe (Nettleton) Griswold; descendant of Matthew Griswold, who came from England to Windsor, Conn., and was a pioneer of the Lyme (Conn.) colony in 1639. Mother, Clarissa (Evarts) Griswold; daughter of Julius and Acsah (Norton) Evarts; descendant of Thomas Hooker of Hartford, Conn.

Guilford Institute: Member of College Choir.

Taught in Port Jervis, N. Y., and drafted guns for the Government in Scranton, Pa., 1862–64; salesman for J. Hammett & Company, manufacturers of blackboards and slates, in Boston, Mass., 1864–66; while there invented first blackboard eraser and a paper substitute called Bostonite; in 1867 went to Paris to act as assistant director of the American Exposition and there disposed of some of his patent rights and invested in an American newspaper, the European News, which was taken over by New York Herald about 1870; assistant manager of Singer Sewing Machine Company in London 1870–73; subsequently devoted his time to the development of hosiery machinery and in 1877 formed the partnership of Griswold & Hainworth, to develop and test his inventions; continued in that connection until 1881, when he formed the London & Leicester Hosiery Company, Ltd., to purchase his patents, manufacture and sell machines, and manufacture Niantic hosiery; became manager of the company, but withdrew after five years and engaged in business for himself until 1890, when he sold his patent rights and returned to this country; engaged in closing out his European interests 1890–92 and then organized the Griswold Knitting Machine Company in New Haven; manager of Glendora Knitting Company in Madison, Conn., 1893–99 and in New Haven 1899–1906; subsequently organized Griswold Economical Tours of Europe and Miller-Griswold Tours of the Holy Land and Egypt, which he conducted until about 1912; member Plymouth Congregational Church, New Haven.

Married (1) December 24, 1863, in Norwich, Conn., Ora Elizabeth, daughter of Jason and Harriet Newell (Phillips) Glezen (later Gleason). Children: Anne Phillips (died in 1913), the wife of David Watkin, of London; Alice Bertha (Mrs. James Frederick Hemingway); Ernest Halsey (died in childhood); Irene Ora; and Harriet Ruth, the wife of James Stephen Neil. Mrs. Griswold died November 16, 1897. Married (2) October 6, 1907, in New Haven, Mrs. Emily
Obituary Record

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in West Cemetery, Madison. Survived by three daughters and a sister, Miss Mary Augusta Griswold, of Madison.

Charles Eustis Hubbard, B.A. 1862.

Born August 7, 1842, in Boston, Mass
Died August 24, 1928, in Antwerp, Belgium.

Father, Samuel Hubbard (B.A. 1802, LL.D. 1827 and Harvard 1842); member of Massachusetts General Court, state senator, and justice of the Supreme Court of Massachusetts; trustee of Andover Theological Seminary and Phillips Academy, Andover; president of American Education Society; a founder and vice-president of American Tract Society; son of William and Joanna (Perkins) Hubbard; descendant of William Hubbard (B A. Harvard 1642), who came from Essex, England, to Ipswich, Mass., in 1632. Mother, Mary Ann (Coit) Hubbard; daughter of Elisha and Rebecca (Manwaring) Coit; probably descendant of John Coit, who came from Glamorganshire, Wales, about 1634, was granted land at Salem, Mass., in 1638, removed to Gloucester, Mass., 1644, and to New London, Conn., 1650. Yale relatives include: Daniel Hubbard (B.A. 1727) (great-grandfather); John Hubbard (honorary M.A. 1730) (great-great-uncle); Russell Hubbard (B.A. 1751) (great-uncle); Edward Buck (B.A. 1835) (brother-in-law); Walter Buck, '70 (nephew).

Boston Latin School. Oration appointments Junior and Senior years; member Phi Beta Kappa.

Served from September, 1862, to July, 1863, as a Corporal in Company A, 45th Massachusetts Volunteers, 18th Army Corps, in the Department of North Carolina; subsequently studied law in office of Dwight Foster (B.A. 1848) in Boston and attended Harvard Law School 1864-65; was later in law office of Henry W. Paine in Boston; admitted to Massachusetts Bar January 27, 1866; and to Suffolk Bar the same year; practiced law in Boston for many years; clerk and director of original Bell Telephone Association (of which his brother, Gardiner Greene Hubbard, was projector and organizer in 1877) 1877–78, and of its successors, New England Telephone Company (1878), Bell Telephone Company (1878), National Bell Telephone Company (1879), and American Bell Telephone Company (1880–1900); secretary of American Telephone & Telegraph Company 1900–1912 and director from 1900 until his death; dean of directors of American Telephone & Telegraph Company and its predecessors since 1919; as secretary of Company A Associates published The Campaign of the Forty-fifth (1882); attended the Church of Our Saviour (Episcopal) in Longwood (Brookline), Mass.

Married December 10, 1872, in Boston, Caroline Dennie, daughter of Frederic Uriah and Eliza Martin (Dennie) Tracy Children: Helen Tracy (died in infancy); Frederic Tracy (B.A. Harvard 1898); Gardiner Greene (B.A. Harvard 1900); and Gertrude (died in 1908). Mrs. Hubbard died March 1, 1924.

Death due to pneumonia; about three weeks before suffered injuries in an automobile accident, which resulted in paralysis. Buried in Mount Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge, Mass. Survived by sons and a brother, James M. Hubbard, ’59.

Cornelius Ladd Kitchel, B.A. 1862.

Born July 5, 1841, in Plymouth Hollow (now Thomaston), Conn
Died February 15, 1929, in New Haven, Conn

Father, the Rev. Harvey Denison Kitchel (B.A Middlebury 1835, honorary M.A. Yale 1865, D.D. Middlebury 1858), a Congregational minister, studied at Andover Theological Seminary and Yale Divinity School; pastor in Connecticut, Michigan, and Illinois; president and trustee of Middlebury; member Phi Beta Kappa; son of Jonathan Kitchel, a non-graduate member of the Middlebury Class of 1809, and Caroline (Holley) Kitchel; descendant of Robert Kitchel (born in Kent, England, in 1604), who came to America in 1639 and settled in Guilford, Conn., and whose son, Samuel, married a sister of Rev. Abraham Pierson, the first president of Yale. Mother, Ann Smith (Sheldon) Kitchel; daughter of Judge David Sheldon and Jerusha (Smith) Sheldon; descendant of Isaac Sheldon, who came from Weymouth, England, in 1634 and settled at Dorchester, Mass. Yale relatives include: Cornelius P. Kitchel, ’97, and Allan F. Kitchel, ’09 (nephews); and Charles S. Sheldon, ’63 (cousin).

Phillips-Andover. Berkeley Premium in Latin composition Freshman year; two second prizes in English composition Sophomore year; philosophical oration appointments Junior and Senior years; speaker at Commencement; member Psi Upsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Taught Latin at Troy (N. Y.) University during fall of 1862; private secretary to Enoch Lewis, general superintendent of Pennsylvania Railroad at Altoona, Pa., January 1, 1863–October 15, 1864, when he entered Princeton Theological Seminary; in 1865 served for several months as a Private in 136th Pennsylvania Infantry and was also attached to the Christian Commission; tutor in Greek at Yale 1865–67; during that period studied in Yale Divinity School (B.D. 1867); traveled abroad 1867–69 and continued theological studies in Berlin; took graduate work in Yale Divinity School 1869–1870; ordained to Congregational ministry April 13, 1870, at Guilford, Conn., where pastor of First Congregational Church three years; left Guilford on account of ill health of his wife and remained at her home in Altoona, Pa., until her recovery in 1877; pastor of Congregational Church, Salisbury, Conn., 1877–1883, when he gave up ministerial work on account of ill health; spent the next three years in various places while regaining his health; instructor in Greek at Yale 1887–1900; in 1900 became assistant to the Dean of Yale College in charge of beneficiary aid and later in the same year took charge of the Bureau of Self Help, which subsequently expanded into the Bureau of Appointments, of which he was active secretary until 1909 and since then secretary emeritus; author of an edition of Plato’s Apology, Crito, and Phaedo (1898); contributor to New Englander; member Center Church (Congregational), New Haven.

Married August 1, 1867, in Altoona, Alice, daughter of William Moore and Jane Eliza (Lowery) Lloyd. One son, William Lloyd (B.A. 1892, LL.B. 1895).

Death due to broncho-pneumonia. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, son, four grandchildren, of whom three are Lloyd Kitchel, ex-'20, Saxton W. Kitchel, ex-'23, and Denison Kitchel, '30, and a brother, Courtney S. Kitchel, '65. His brothers, Harvey S. Kitchel, '61, and Luther H. Kitchel, '67, died in 1915 and 1903, respectively.

Charles Stuart Sheldon, B.A. 1863.

Born January 14, 1842, in New York Mills, N. Y
Died April 20, 1929, in Madison, Wis

Brockport (N, Y.) Collegiate Institute and Phillips-Andover. First dispute appointments Junior and Senior years, a speaker at Commencement; rowed on Yale crew; one of the earliest members of the Yale Glee Club, member Gamma Nu and Alpha Delta Phi.

Principal of 1st Ward Grammar School in Madison, Wis., 1863–64; principal and assistant superintendent of State Reform School, Waukesha, Wis., 1864–65; studied medicine at Buffalo Medical College (M.D. 1867); during his course there served as assistant resident physician in Buffalo General Hospital; studied at College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia University, 1867–68 (M.D. 1868); practiced medicine in Winona, Minn., 1868–1872, in Greenville, Mich., 1872–1885, and in Madison from 1885 until his retirement in October, 1928; a founder of the Wisconsin State Medical Society, served as its secretary 1889–1913 (secretary emeritus since then) and as president 1913–14 (made an honorary member 1924); president of Dane County Medical Society (formerly the Madison Medical Club) 1913–14; member of judicial council of American Academy of Medicine, first vice-president, and president 1910–11; member and Fellow of American Medical Association (member of its House of Dele-
Charles Ruggles Strong, B.A. 1864.

Born January 12, 1844, in Setauket, N. Y.
Died October 20, 1928, in Plainfield, N. J.

Father, Selah Brewster Strong (B.A. 1811), a lawyer; district attorney of Suffolk County, N. Y.; judge of the Supreme Court of New York; member of Congress and of New York State Constitutional Convention in 1867; son of Thomas Shepard Strong, chief justice of Court of Common Pleas for Suffolk County, and Hannah (Brewster) Strong; descendant Prepared under private tutor, Dr. Evans, in Setauket.

Member Glyuna Boat Club, Beethoven Society, Linonia, Delta Kappa, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

LL.B. Albany Law School 1866; studied at Princeton Theological Seminary during the next three years, graduating in 1869; preached in Ossining, N. Y., 1869-1870 (ordained September 19, 1870); pastor Presbyterian Church, Roslyn, N. Y., 1871-77, when obliged to give up the ministry on account of throat trouble; lived in Santa Barbara, Calif., 1877-1880, and taught Latin and mathematics in the State Teachers College there as his health permitted, lived in St. Paul, Minn., 1880-83, in New Brunswick, N. J., 1883-1893, and in Plainfield since 1893; also had a country place near Palmer, Mass.; member First Presbyterian Church, New Brunswick, at time of death.

Married July 6, 1870, in Ossining, Esther, daughter of Robert and Sarah Ann (Hodges) Boorman. Children: Robert Boorman (B.A. Princeton 1891, E.E. 1894) (died in 1904); Henry Nicoll (died in infancy); Charles Ruggles (Princeton ex-’94) (died in 1891); Arthur Temple, ex-’97; Richard Udall, ’99; Edward Austen (died in infancy); Dudley Selah; Carll Webster; and Louis Bergner (Princeton ex-’17) (received war certificate of graduation).

Death due to arteriosclerosis and myocarditis. Buried in Roslyn, N. Y. Survived by wife, five sons, and a brother, Selah B. Strong, ’64. Another brother, Thomas S. Strong, ’55, died in 1909.
Obituary Record

Adelbert Putnam Chapman, B.A. 1865.

Born October 17, 1844, in Ellington, Conn.
Died May 23, 1929, in Bridgeport, Conn.

Edward Hall’s private school in Ellington. Oration appointments Junior and Senior years; member Linonia and Delta Kappa.

Taught in Ellington 1865-66 and in Quincy, Ill., 1866-68; attended Boston Theological Seminary 1868-1870; during this period carried on some work for Home for Little Wanderers in Boston; joined New York East Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1870 and was ordained as deacon April 14, 1872, and as elder April 12, 1874; pastor Newton and Southville, Conn., 1870; Litchfield, Conn., 1871; Naugatuck, Conn., 1872-73; Summerfield Methodist Episcopal Church, West Stratford, Conn., 1874-75; and Bethel, Conn., 1876-79, when he resigned his pastorate on account of ill health; subsequently entered the Protestant Episcopal ministry and was ordained as deacon December 19, 1879, and as priest December 23, 1880; rector Christ Church, Middle Haddam, Conn., 1879-1882; St. Philip’s, Putnam, Conn., 1882-86; St. John’s, Sandy Hook, Conn., 1886-1891; St. Luke’s, Bridgeport, 1891-96; St. James’, Fair Haven, Conn., 1897-98; St. Andrew’s, Northford, Conn., 1898-99; St. Michael’s, Naugatuck, 1899-1901; and Trinity Church, Northfield, Conn., from 1901 until his retirement in 1917; had since lived in Bridgeport; attended Yale Divinity School 1904-07; active in public school affairs in Putnam and Sandy Hook, and conducted a private school for a time in Sandy Hook.

Married April 2, 1874, in Mansfield, Conn., Ellen, daughter of Samuel Cone and Delia (Shepard) Harvey. Children: Harvey Wood, '96; Bertha Louise (Mrs. Louis C. Chapman); Paul Stanley, '08 L.; and Wolcott Pitkin, ex-'06 S. Mrs. Chapman died January 12, 1898.

Death, due to myocarditis and arteriosclerosis, followed an illness of over two years. Buried in Mountain Grove Cemetery, Bridgeport. Survived by daughter, three sons, and two grandchildren.

Charles Francis Brown, B.A. 1866.
Born September 12, 1844, in Newburgh, N. Y.
Died June 19, 1929, in Newburgh, N. Y

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the OBITUARY RECORD.

Lucius Duncan Bulkley, B.A. 1866.
Born January 12, 1845, in New York City.
Died July 20, 1928, in Englewood, N. J

Father, Henry Daggett Bulkley (B.A. 1821, M.D. 1830); first in this country to lecture upon and practice dermatology; attending physician to New York Hospital from 1848 until his death in 1872; founder (1869) and first president of New York Dermatological Society; president of New York Academy of Medicine; son of John and Amelia (Daggett) Bulkley; descendant of the Rev. Peter Bulkley (Bulkeley), a graduate of St. John's College, Cambridge, who came to Cambridge, Mass., in 1635, was the first settler and minister at Concord, Mass., and founded the twelfth church in the colony. Mother, Julianna (Barnes) Bulkley; daughter of Judge Wheeler Barnes (B.A. University of Vermont 1804) and Emma White (Olmstead) Barnes, great-granddaughter of Asa Barnes, a Captain in the Revolutionary Army; ancestors came to America from the north of England. Yale relatives include: Henry Daggett (B.A. 1771) (great-grandfather); and President Naphtali Daggett (B.A. 1748), Charles W. Barnes, '77,
Obituary Record

Public School No. 13 and Anthon's Grammar School, New York City. Member Sophomore Crew of '66, which rowed against the Harvard Sophomore Crew in 1864, Glyuna Boat Club, Beethoven Society, Brothers in Unity, and Delta Kappa.

M.D. Columbia 1869 (awarded Stevens Triennial Prize of $200 in 1870 for graduation thesis on "Thermometer in Disease"); interne and house physician at New York Hospital 1868-69; continued his medical studies in Vienna, Paris, and London 1869-1870; subsequently practiced in New York City, specializing in dermatology until 1920 and then in the medical treatment of cancer; during his last years had devoted practically his entire time to the investigation of the medical and dietetic treatment of cancer, in 1882 aided in founding New York Skin and Cancer Hospital, of which he had since been a governor (attending physician 1883, secretary of the medical board 1915, and president of the board 1919); lectured on skin diseases to physicians at that hospital 1884-1924; attending physician (skin diseases) at New York Hospital 1890-93 and to its Out-Patient Department 1892 and 1893, consulting physician 1894, and lecturer on the skin 1884; attending physician to New York Dispensary (1872) and Demilt and Central dispensaries; consulting dermatologist at Manhattan Eye and Ear Hospital 1883-1906, at Hospital for the Ruptured and Crippled 1885-1919, and at Randall's Island Hospital 1894; professor of dermatology at Post-Graduate Hospital 1890 and at Woman's Medical College of the New York Infirmary for Women and Children; dermatologist to New York City Children's Hospital and schools for some time previous to 1903 and then consulting dermatologist; founder of American Dermatological Association 1876; president of New York Dermatological Society 1880; vice-chairman of section on dermatology of Pan-American Medical Congress 1893; in 1907 made a study of leprosy and diseases of the skin in the Far East; trustee of American Savings Bank since 1894 and second vice-president since 1908; associated with Robert McBurney in organizing the New York branch of the Y. M. C. A.; author: The Skin in Health and Disease (1880; second edition 1902), Eczema and Its Management (1881; second edition 1901), Manual of Diseases of the Skin (1883; second edition 1903), Acne, its Etiology, Pathology, and Treatment (1885), Acne and Alopecia (1892), Syphilis in the Innocent (1894; won the Alvarenga Prize of $200 for “The Best Memoir on any Medical Subject” in 1890), The Influence of the Menstrual Function on Certain Diseases of the Skin (1906), On the Relations of Diseases of the Skin to Internal Disorders (1906), Principles and Application of Local Treatment in Diseases of the Skin (1907), Compendium of Diseases of the Skin (1912), Diet and Hygiene in Diseases of the Skin (1913), Cancer, its Cause and Treatment (1915; second edition 1917), Medical Treatment of Cancer (1919), Nurses' Manual of the Skin in Health and Disease (1921), Cancer and its Non-Surgical Treatment (1921), Cancer of the Breast (1924; second edition 1925), End Results in the Medical Treatment of Cancer (1925), Daily Devotional Bible Readings (1910), and Five Minute Bible Readings (1925); translated Neumann’s Hand Book of Skin Diseases (1872); founder of Archives of Dermatology, a quarterly journal, and editor of eight volumes 1874–1882; founder of Cancer, a quarterly journal, 1923; collaborator in dermatology for the Annual of Universal Medical Sciences, in 1906 presented to Yale University Library twenty-three bound volumes of his works, including the eight volumes of Archives of Dermatology; in 1911 the Bulkley Training School for Nurses was established in his honor in connection with New York Skin and Cancer Hospital; member New York Academy of Medicine since 1874 (on its council 1883), American Medical Association, Medical Society of the State of New York (vice-president 1896 and delegate to International Medical Congress and meeting of British Medical Association 1890), American Academy of Medicine (member of executive board 1883), Medical Association of the Greater City of New York, New York County Medical Society, Connecticut Medical Society, Litchfield County (Conn) Medical Society, New York Academy of Sciences, hygiene reference board of Life Extension Institute, and Philosophical Society of Great Britain; corresponding member French Society of Dermatology and Syphilis, Italian Society of Dermatology and
Obituary Record

Syphilis, Berlin Dermatological Society, and Argentine Dermatological Society; member Brick Presbyterian Church, New York City.

Married May 27, 1872, at Bergen Point, N. J., Kate LaRue, daughter of Andrew D. and Elizabeth Dunham (Ayers) Mellick. Children: Elizabeth Ayres (M.D. Woman’s Medical College of New York 1894), the widow of Henry H. Janeway (B.A. Rutgers 1893, M.D. Columbia 1898); Julia, the wife of Edward V. Cox (Ph.B. 1894, E.E. Columbia 1895); Lucius Constant (B.A. Columbia 1898, M.D. 1901); Henry Duncan (B.A. Columbia 1901); Kathleen, the wife of Nathan A. Smyth (B.A. 1897, M.A. 1899, LL.B. 1900); and Kenneth (B.A. Columbia 1906, M.D. 1909). Mrs. Bulkley died January 20, 1928.

Death due to myocarditis and chronic nephritis, a fracture of the femur caused by a fall being a contributory cause. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by three sons, three daughters, twenty-four grandchildren, three of whom are Duncan B. Cox, '28, John L. Cox, 2d, '31, and William Smyth, '32, and a sister, Miss Mary Daggett Bulkley.

Edmund Coffin, B.A. 1866.

Born November 8, 1844, in New York City.

Died December 26, 1928, in New York City

Father, Edmund Coffin, a merchant; Surgeon’s Mate, 4th Regiment, 2d Brigade, 4th Division, Maine Militia 1830-33; son of James and Jane (McMillan) Coffin; descendant of Tristram Coffin, who came from Plymouth, England, to Salisbury, Mass., in 1642 and purchased the greater part of the island of Nantucket in 1659. Mother, Sarah Harrison (Lambdin) Coffin; daughter of Harrison and Rachel (Wilbur) Lambdin. Yale relatives include: James Coffin, ’68, and Joseph W. Coffin, ex'70 (brothers); and John S. Eells, Jr., '28 (grandnephew).

Prepared at Irvington, N. Y. Third prize in English composition and second prize in declamation Sophomore year; oration appointments Junior and Senior years; second prize in Senior Prize Debate; on University Crew three years; mem-member Varuna Boat Club, Brothers in Unity, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Alpha Sigma Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.
Tale College, 19

LL.B. Columbia 1868; during his two years of study there was also in law office of Lord, Day & Lord in New York City; admitted to practice by Supreme Court of New York in fall of 1867; had practiced law in New York since 1868, during the first three years as member of firm of Davies & Coffin and then independently; counsel for Phelps-Dodge Company since 1869 and for Union Theological Seminary since 1892; vice-president and director of Curtiss Southwestern Corporation since 1911; vice-president of the Union Settlement 1900–1926; trustee of Brick Presbyterian Church Corporation since 1915.

Death, due primarily to injuries received on November 25, when he was struck by an automobile and sustained fractures of an arm and a leg, occurred at the Flower Hospital, New York City; had seemed to be recovering from his injuries, when pneumonia developed. Buried in Sleepy Hollow Cemetery, Tarrytown, N. Y. Survived by sons and five grandchildren.

William Whitman Farnam, B.A. 1866.

Born April 6, 1844, in New Haven, Conn.
Died June 28, 1929, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Henry Farnam (honorary M.A. 1871), a civil engineer; began work on Erie Canal; assistant and chief engineer of Farmington (New Haven & Northampton) Canal, chief engineer and superintendent of New Haven & Northampton Railroad; with his partner, Joseph E. Sheffield
Obituary Record

(honorary M.A. 1871), built Michigan Southern Railroad and Chicago & Rock Island Railroad, and was president of the latter 1854–1863; donor to Yale of Farnam Hall; son of Jeffrey Amherst and Mercy (Tracy) Farnam; descendant of Ralph Farnam, who came from England in 1635 and settled in Andover, Mass. Mother, Ann Sophia (Whitman) Farnam; daughter of William and Elizabeth (Whiting) Whitman; descendant of Samuel Whitman, member of the Yale Corporation 1724–1746; descended also from John Whitman, who came from Herefordshire, England, and was admitted as freeman at Weymouth, Mass., 1638, and from John Howland, one of the “Mayflower” company. Yale relatives include: Eli Whitney, '69 (brother-in-law); Henry Farnam, '95, Charles H. Farnam, '95 S, George B. Farnam, '97, Thomas W. Farnam, '99, Tracy Farnam, ex-’11 M., and Henry W. Farnam, Jr., ex-’17 (nephews); Mrs. Thomas M. Debevoise, ex-’97 Art, and Louise W. Farnam, Ph.D. 1916 and '20 M. (nieces); and Malcolm Oakes, '20 S., Eli Whitney Debevoise, '21, and William F. Sanford, '28 (grandnephews).

Phillips-Andover. Second colloquy appointment Junior year; member Varuna Boat Club, Spoon Committee, Linonia, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Alpha Sigma Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones.

In Europe 1866–69; studied at Universities of Berlin and Heidelberg and received degree of J.U.D. from the latter 1868; student at Columbia Law School 1869–1871 (LL.B. 1871), practiced law in New Haven for a short time from 1873; member of Yale Corporation 1885–89; treasurer of the University 1888–1899; trustee of Sheffield Scientific School 1894–1923 (president of board 1922–23) and of the Peabody Museum 1904–1923; member Board of Managers of Winchester Observatory since 1889; established William W. Farnam Fund at Yale 1899; director National Bank of New Haven 1888–1900; member East Rock Park Commission from its organization in 1880 to merger with present Park Commission in 1889; permanent member of Commission of Public Parks 1889–1913 (vice-president 1902–1912 and then president); at various times donated sums of money for construction of Farnam Drive, East Rock Park; member New Haven Chamber of Commerce 1897–1926, World Court Committee of New Haven since 1925, and New Haven Colony Historical Society, Connecticut Academy of Arts and Sciences, and Alliance Française; attended St. Thomas Church at time of death.

Married (1) June 4, 1873, in New York City, Susan Frances, daughter of Gen. William Kerley Strong and Helen Mary (Hart) Strong. Mrs. Farnam died May 7, 1917. Married (2) June 8, 1918, in New Haven, Anna Heaton, daughter of John Brewster Fitch, ex-'80, and Anna Bujac (Heaton) Fitch. No children by either marriage.

Death due to subacute bacterial endocarditis. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife and a brother, Professor Henry W. Farnam, '74. The late Charles H. Farnam, '68, and George B. Farnam, '69 M, were brothers.

William Henry Bishop, B.A. 1867.

Born January 7, 1847, in Hartford, Conn.
Died September 26, 1928, in Brooklyn, Conn.

Father, Elias Bishop; son of John and Harriet (Heminway) Bishop; descendant of Governor James Bishop of the New Haven Colony, and of John Bishop, a founder of Guilford, Conn., in 1639; descendant also of Major Moses Mansfield, who married Abigail, sister of Elihu Yale. Mother, Catherine (Kelley) Bishop. Yale relatives include the Rev. Jacob Heminway (B.A. 1704) (great-great-great-uncle), the first and for some months the only student of Yale College.

Hartford Public High School and preparatory department of St. John's College, Fordham, N. Y. Entered Yale as a Sophomore in 1864; prize for English poem in Sophomore year; Class poet; an editor of Yale Courant; member of Yale Crew, Linonia (president), Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi, and Delta Kappa Epsilon; graduate member of Wolf's Head.

Studied architecture in office of Peter B. Wight, in New York City; art critic on New York Evening Post; draftsman in office of Government architect in Washington; editor and proprietor of Milwaukee Journal of Commerce (with his classmate, Henry A. Chittenden) 1873–75, and of Milwaukee Daily Commercial Times 1875–77; subsequently traveled in Mexico and abroad; lived in France 1888–1893; instructor in French and Spanish at Yale 1893–1903; American consul at Genoa, Italy, 1903–04, and at Palermo, Italy, 1905–1910, when he resigned; awarded medal of honor by King of Italy, for services in aiding sufferers during the Messina earthquake in 1908; since 1910 had lived in the United States, and of late years in Brooklyn, Conn, and devoted his time largely to painting; exhibited at the New Haven Paint and Clay Club in 1924; had also exhibited sketches at the Academy of Design in New York City in 1872, and in 1874 sketched Milwaukee for Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper; author: Detmold (1879), The House of a Merchant Prince (1882), Choy Susan and Other Stories (1884), Old Mexico and Her Lost Provinces (1884), Fish and Men in the Maine Islands (1885), The Golden Justice (1887), A House Hunter in Europe (1893), Sergeant Von (anonymously) (1889), The Faience Violin (translated from the French of Champfleury) (1893), A Pound of Cure (1894), Writing to Rosina (1894), The Brown Stone Boy and Other Queer People (reissued as Queer People) (1902), The Yellow Snake (reissued as Tons of Treasure) (1902) and Anti-Babel (1919); author also of a war song, "The Khaki and the Blue"; contributed short stories and articles to the Century, Harper's Magazine, Scribner's, Atlantic Monthly, and Nation; translated selections from Spanish authors for the Library of the World's Best Literature; commemorated the sixtieth reunion of his class in a poem; had been president of the Brooklyn Library Association, vice-president of the Connecticut Library Association, first vice-president of the Graduates Club, New Haven, and vice-president of Brooklyn Golf Club; honorary member of Connecticut chapter of American Institute of Architects; member of National Institute of Arts and Letters; Society of Letters, Science, and Arts, of Nice, France; Authors' Club, and Society of Colonial Wars.

Married July 28, 1886, in New York City, Mary Dearborn, daughter of George Follansbee Jackson (B.A. Bowdoin 1850, M.D. Jefferson Medical College 1853), and Rachel (Dearborn) Jackson. Children: Duquesnes (died in childhood), and Julian Brocklehurst (died in 1912 when a midshipman at United States Naval Academy). Mr. and Mrs. Bishop separated in 1917.

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in the Old Cemetery at East Haven, Conn. By the terms of his will the residue of his estate was bequeathed to Yale, to establish the William Henry Bishop Fund for promoting the study of architecture in the University. He had also established in 1912 the Midshipman Julian B. Bishop Memorial, a fund of $1,000 to be used for the purchase and care of books on marine lore in the University Library.

Henry Clay Sheldon, B.A. 1867.

Born March 12, 1845, in Martinsburg, N.Y.
Died August 4, 1928, in West Newton, Mass

Father, Ira Sheldon, a farmer; son of Joseph and Mary (Arthur) Sheldon. Mother, Fanny Maria (Bingham) Sheldon; daughter of Abial and Sally (Fowler) Bingham

Lowville (N.Y.) Academy. Entered Yale in January, 1864; second prize in English composition Sophomore year; high oration appointment Junior year; philosophical oration appointment and Townsend Premium Senior year; member Brothers in Unity and Phi Beta Kappa Taught in Franklin, N.Y., 1867-68, studied theology at Boston University 1868-1871 (B.D. 1871); ordained to Methodist Episcopal ministry April 23, 1876, at the Maine Conference in Lewiston; pastor St. Johnsbury, Vt., 1871-72; Brunswick, Maine, 1872-74; studied at University of Leipsic, Germany, 1874-75; member of faculty of Boston University since 1875; assistant professor (1875-1884) and professor (1884-1896) of historical theology in the School of Theology; professor of systematic theology in same school from 1896 until his retirement in 1922, when made professor emeritus; also connected with the Academical Department of the University as instructor in logic, rhetoric, and mental science 1876-77, political economy, rhetoric, and English literature 1877-78, and political economy 1879, and as professor of sacred and church history 1890-1900 and systematic theology 1900-04; D.D. Lawrence University (Wis) 1887 and Wesleyan 1906; author: The History of Christian Doctrine (1886), History of the Christian Church (1894), System of Christian Doctrine (1903), History of Unbelief in the Nineteenth Century (1907), Sacerdotalism in the Nineteenth Century (1909), New Testament Theology (1911), The Message of Rudolf Eucken to Our Age (1913), Christian Science So Called (1913), A Fourfold Test of Mormonism (1914), Studies in Recent Adventism (1915), Theosophy and New Thought (1916), The Mystery Religions and the New Testament (1918), Pantheistic Dilemmas and Other Essays in Philosophy and Religion (1920), and The Essentials of Christianity (1922); member Harvard Street Methodist Episcopal Church, Cambridge, Mass., at death, but had attended Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church, Auburndale, Mass., since 1883

Obituary Record

Married September 16, 1875, in Brunswick, Maine, Mary Louise, daughter of Theodore Stone and Mary Jane (Owen) McLellan. Children: Herbert Prescott (B.A. Boston University 1899, LL.B. 1902); and Ernest McLellan, Williams ex-'04, who graduated from the Violin Department of New England Conservatory of Music in 1906.

Death due to cardiorenal disease. Buried in Newton (Mass.) Cemetery. Survived by wife and two sons.

Charles William Bingham, B.A. 1868.

Born May 22, 1846, in Cleveland, Ohio.
Died March 1, 1929, in Cleveland, Ohio.

Father, William Bingham; president of William Bingham & Company, hardware merchants; director of Mercantile National Bank, Society for Savings, Citizens Savings & Loan Company, and National Commercial Bank; son of Cyrus and Abigail (Foote) Bingham; descendant of Thomas Bingham, who came from Birmingham, England, in 1660, settled in Norwich, Conn., and later moved to Saybrook, Conn. Mother, Elizabeth (Beardsley) Bingham; daughter of David Hersh Beardsley, a Quaker, who moved from Philadelphia to northern Ohio in 1820 and was appointed judge of Court of Common Pleas, and Cassandra (Hersh) Beardsley. Yale relatives include: J. Foote Bingham, ’52 (uncle); William B.
Brayton, ex-‘95 S., and Charles A. Brayton, ’99 (nephews); William B. Brayton, Jr., ’21 S. (grandnephew); and Theodore A. Bingham, ’76, and Turner C. Brown, ex-’09 M. (cousins).

Hopkins Grammar School. First colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years; served on Freshman Jubilee Committee and Wooden Spoon Committee; second lieutenant Glyuna Boat Club Sophomore year and captain ’68 Boat Club Senior year; stroke on Glyuna shell and ’68 shell Senior year; rowed on either Glyuna or Class Crew every fall or spring while in college; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key Traveled abroad 1868–1870; assistant cashier with William Bingham & Company 1870–71; with Cleveland Iron Company 1871–78, became general superintendent; treasurer of William Bingham & Company 1888–1911 and vice-president 1904–1912 (became member of firm 1868); had been president of Standard Tool Company since 1881, of Perry-Payne Company (real estate) since 1898, and of Whitney Power Company since 1911; president Standard Welding Company 1899–1916; vice-president the Canadian Copper Company and Anglo-American Iron Company 1897–99; director Cleveland Iron Company, Western Reserve National Bank 1892–99, Bank of Commerce 1899–1921, National Commercial Bank 1904–1921, Citizens’ Savings & Loan Association 1883–1921, Union Trust Company 1921–29, Cleveland Cliffs Iron Company from 1904, and Bourne-Fuller Company since 1911; trustee of Case School of Applied Science since 1899 (member of the corporation since 1895); trustee and treasurer of the Case Library since 1893; trustee of Western Reserve University 1901–1922, Adelbert College 1914–1922, Cleveland Museum of Art 1913–1920, Western Reserve Historical Society since 1892, and First Presbyterian Church, Cleveland, 1905–1925; had also been trustee of various funds left for charity and art; first president of University Club 1898–99 and a director 1902–05 and 1907–1910; in 1917 established the Charles W. Bingham scholarship at Yale for students from Cleveland and vicinity; in his honor his children gave Charles W. Bingham Hall at Yale in 1928.

Married June 8, 1876, in Cleveland, Mary, daughter of
Obituary Record

Death due to cardiac thrombosis, arteriosclerosis, and paralysis agitans. Buried in Lakeview Cemetery, Cleveland. Survived by two sons, two daughters, and seven grandchildren.

Frank Cramer, B.A. 1868.

Born August 7, 1847, in Milwaukee, Wis.
Died September 22, 1928, in Chicago, Ill

Father, Eliphalet Cramer (B.A. Union 1832); admitted to the bar; president of Milwaukee National Bank and of Milwaukee Gas, Light & Coke Company; one of the framers of the Constitution of the State of Wisconsin; member Phi Beta Kappa; son of John Cramer, member of Congress and of New York State Senate, and Hannah Mary (Close) Cramer; grandson of the Rev. John Close (B.A. Princeton 1763, honorary M.A. Yale 1771); descendant of Thomas Close, one of the original patentees of Greenwich, Conn. Mother, Electa (Fay) Cramer; daughter of Dr. Jonas Fay, who studied at Harvard and served as surgeon on the "Constitution," and Electa (Allen) Fay; descendant of John Coolidge, of Cambridge, England, who came to Watertown, Mass., about 1656; descended also from John Fay, who arrived from England in the "Speedwell" in 1656 and settled in Marlborough, Mass.

General Russell's Collegiate and Commercial Institute. Member Gamma Nu and Phi Theta Psi.

Traveled abroad for the greater part of two years following his graduation and was subsequently associated with his brother, Edward Cramer, '71, in the banking business in Milwaukee, associated with his brother, Eliphalet W. Cramer, in the firm of Cramer & Company, Chicago (established in 1870), foreign exchange bankers and general western agents of the Guion Line of steamships, from 1882 to 1887, when his brother retired from the firm; subsequently carried on the business alone until his retirement in 1898; member of The Orchestral Association of Chicago (Chicago Symphony Orchestra) since 1920 and of St. Chrysostom's (Episcopal) Church, Chicago.

Unmarried

Death due to myocarditis. Buried in Forest Home Cemetery, Milwaukee. Survived by his brother, Eliphalet W. Cramer, of Chicago, and a sister, Mrs. J. Lawrence Laughlin, of Washington, D.C.

Robert Allen Hume, B.A. 1868.

Born March 18, 1847, in Byculla, Bombay, India.
Died June 24, 1929, in Brookline, Mass

Father, the Rev. Robert Wilson Hume (B.A. Union 1834, Princeton Theological Seminary 1837), missionary of the American Board, connected with the Marathi Mission, western India; a founder in 1841 and editor of Dnyanodaya, a weekly Anglo-Marathi newspaper of Bombay; secretary of Bombay Book and Tract Society and of the Bombay Branch of the Bible Society; son of Robert Hume, born in East Gordon, Berwickshire, Scotland, and came to America with his parents who settled in Galway, N.Y., in 1795, and of Catherine (Rose) Hume. Mother, Hannah Derby (Sackett) Hume, daughter of Edward and Sarah (Elridge) Sackett Yale relatives include: Rev. Edward S. Hume, '70 (brother); Alfred B. Miller, '55 (brother-in-law); Dr. Edward H. Hume and Robert H. Miller, both '97, John Chandler Hume, ex-'05, and Robert W. Hume, ex-'07 (nephews); and Theodore C. Hume '25 (grandnephew).

Springfield (Mass) High School and Williston Academy. Third prize in English composition and second prize in declamation Sophomore year; Clarke scholar Senior year; oration appointments Junior and Senior years; speaker at Junior Exhibition and at Commencement; an editor of the Courant; treasurer of Yale Missionary Society; member Brothers in Unity (won third prize in its debate Senior year and represented it as orator at the Statement of Facts), Gamma Nu, Alpha Delta Phi, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Taught in General Russell’s Collegiate and Commercial Institute, New Haven, 1868–69; studied in Yale Divinity School 1869–71; taught at the Edwards School in Stockbridge, Mass., 1871–72; graduated at Andover Theological Seminary 1873; taught again in New Haven 1873–74; ordained to Congregational ministry at New Haven May 10, 1874; missionary of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions in the Marathi Mission, western India, 1874–1926; founder (in 1878) of the Ahmednagar Divinity College, of which for a few years he was dean, and then president until his retirement from active missionary work in India in 1926; for a time principal of the Ahmednagar High School and also of the Ahmednagar Girls’ School; superintendent of the Parner District, west of Ahmednagar, where he built eighteen churches and schools; in Ahmednagar erected a large church-building with distinctive Oriental architecture adapted to purposes of Christian worship, the second instance of this kind in India; editor of Dnyanodaya for a number of years; member of Ahmednagar Municipality; was returned by an Indian electorate as their representative to the Indian National Congress in 1907; was appointed by the Governor of Bombay as member of the Presidency’s Committee on Problems of Religious Mendicancy; was the only American summoned by the Montagu-Chelmsford Royal Commission to give testimony concerning problems of political progress in India; was elected in 1925 as the first Moderator of the newly organized United Church of India North, and in 1927 served as its official delegate at World-Conference on Christian Faith and Order at Lausanne, Switzerland; worked for cause of foreign missions among various churches, colleges, and theological seminaries during an extended furlough 1885–87; Hyde Lecturer at Andover Theological Seminary 1904–05; lecturer at University of Chicago, Oberlin College, Beloit College, and International College, Springfield, Mass., during 1910–11; and at Union Theological Seminary 1920; Professor of Missions at Kennedy School of Missions, Hartford Theological Seminary, 1919–20; Vice-Moderator of National Congregational Council of Congregational Churches 1919-21; acting pastor of Central Congregational Church, Worcester, Mass., July and August, 1919; D.D. Yale 1895; president Representative Missionary Council of India, and Christian Endeavor Union of India, Burma, and Ceylon; was presented by Queen Victoria in 1901 with the Kaiser-i-Hind Gold Medal "for public service in India," especially for raising and distributing nearly $2,000,000 of famine-relief funds during the severe famine 1898-1900, when he served as Secretary of the America-India Famine Relief Committee, and principal manager of the committees of the Christian Herald of New York and the Congregationalist of Boston; translator of Ecclesiastical Polity of the New Testament from English into Marathi; author of Missions from the Modern View (1905), and of An Interpretation of India's Religious History (1911), contributor to Missionary Herald, Missionary Review of the World, Christian Herald, Christian Endeavor World, Congregationalist, Presbyterian, Modern Review, India, Indian Review, Hindustan Review, Indian Interpreter, Native States of India, Indian Social Reformer, Indian Christian Missionary Intelligencer, Young Men of India (organ of the Y. M. C. A. of India, Burma, and Ceylon); had published about two hundred pamphlets both in English and in Marathi; had lived in the Missionary Home of the American Board in Auburndale, Mass., since 1926; member for sixty-five years of the United Church (Congregational), New Haven.

Married (1) on July 7, 1874, in New Haven, Abbie Lyon Burgess, Mount Holyoke '69, daughter of Rev. Ebenezer Burgess (B.A. Amherst 1831, B.D. Andover Theological Seminary 1837; instructor in Union Theological Seminary 1837-38; missionary in India 1839-1854) and of Abigail Lyon (Moore) Burgess. Children: Ruth Peabody (B.A. Wellesley 1897, M.D. Women's Medical College of Philadelphia 1902); Robert Ernest (B.A. 1898, M.A. 1900, Ph.D. 1901, B.D. Union Theological Seminary 1904); Hannah (B.A. Wellesley 1900), the widow of the Rev. Theodore S. Lee (B.A. Amherst 1900, Union Theological Seminary 1900-03), and Alfred Penfield (died in infancy in India). Mrs. Hume died in India, July 25, 1881. Married (2) on September 7, 1887, in Ahmednagar, Katie Fairbank, Mount Holyoke ex-'79, daughter of Death, due to recurrent carcinoma of the prostate and pyelonephritis, occurred at the Corey Hill Hospital, Brookline, Mass. Cremation took place at Mount Auburn Crematory, Watertown, Mass., and the ashes will be deposited in Ahmednagar, India. Survived by wife, three daughters, four sons, and thirteen grandchildren, two of whom are Robert C. Hume, '30 S., and Theodore H. Lee, '32.
Obituary Record

Thomas Wilson Pierce, B.A. 1868.

Born August 3, 1845, in Dilworthtown, Birmingham, Pa
Died March 30, 1929, in West Chester, Pa

Father, Wilson Pierce, a blacksmith; son of Joshua and Mary (Wilson) Pierce; descendant of George Pierce, who came from Gloucestershire, England, to Pennsylvania about 1685 and founded the town of Thornbury. Mother, Elizabeth Harvey (Levis) Pierce; daughter of William and Rebecca Darlington (Brinton) Levis; descendant of William Brinton, who came from England to Pennsylvania in 1684 and founded the township of Birmingham.

Taught Latin and Greek in West Chester Academy 1868–1870 and studied law there with William E. Barber three years; admitted to Chester County Bar March, 1871, and had since practiced law in West Chester; in 1871 appointed special United States assessor for legacies and successions for 7th District of Pennsylvania; district attorney for Chester County one term January 1, 1879–January 1, 1881; nominee for Congress from the 7th District on Democratic and Independent Republican ticket 1890, but failed of election; member Classical Society of Pennsylvania.

Married March 11, 1884, in Russellville, Pa, Sarah Jane Ferree Woodward, daughter of Adam and Isabelle (Hunter) Ferree. One son, Thomas Wilson, Jr. Mrs. Pierce died July 8, 1918.

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Lafayette Cemetery, Birmingham Township. Survived by son and a step-daughter, Mrs. Walter K. Woolman, Swarthmore ex-1900, of Riverton, N. J.

William Merrick Slay, B.A. 1868.

Born August 5, 1846, in Templeville, Md
Died October 23, 1928, in Atlantic City, N. J

Father, William Slay; son of John and Polly (Green) Slay; original home of Slay family in Camden, Del. Mother, Louisa (Onins) Slay.

Prepared for college by William A. Reynolds (B.A. Wesleyan 1858) in Dover, Del. Entered Yale as a Sophomore in 1865.

Taught at Chestertown, Md., 1868–69; studied law in same city with his brother, John O. Slay, '59, member of firm of Vickers & Slay, 1869–1871; admitted to the bar October, 1871, and practiced law in Chestertown until his retirement about 1924, with the exception of ten years (1898–1908), when he was in poor health following an attack of typhoid fever and a nervous breakdown; as trustee, had been manager of various estates; in 1883 was candidate for state's attorney, but defeated; in 1891, however, elected to that office, which he held for eight years; nominated for presidential elector at Democratic National Convention 1898, but defeated; elected state senator 1907; director and attorney of The People's Bank of Chestertown since 1911; member of board of visitors and governors of Washington College, Chestertown, 1890–1912.

Obituary Record

Death, due to angina pectoris, occurred at the Hotel Morton, Atlantic City. Buried in Chester Cemetery, Chester-town. Survived by a sister, Miss Mary E. Slay, of Chester-town.

Henry Clay Bannard, B.A. 1869.

Born December 21, 1844, in New York City.
Died April 15, 1929, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, John Winslow Bannard, a merchant; born in Finmere, Oxfordshire, England; came to America in 1834 with his parents, William and Susan (Umney) Bannard, who settled in Schenectady, N. Y. Mother, Eliza Landon (Stone) Bannard; daughter of Asher and Sally (Nicholson) Stone; descended from the Rev. Samuel Stone, of Hereford, England, whose son, John Stone, came to Guilford, Conn., in 1639. Yale relatives include two cousins: Arthur U. Bannard, ’77, and William N. Bannard, Jr., ’07 S

Prepared in Quincy, Ill. First and third prizes in English composition and second prize in declamation Sophomore year; high oration appointments Junior and Senior years; Townsend Premium Senior year; member Class Picture Committee, Gamma Nu, Psi Upsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Read law while in college and with Judge Ewing in Chicago for two months; admitted to the Illinois Bar November 3, 1869, and entered the law office of Norman C. Perkins (B.A. 1857) in Chicago; gave up the practice of law after a few months and in 1870 became connected with the wholesale grocery house of Franklin MacVeagh & Company; admitted to partnership in the firm October, 1872, but sold his interest in January, 1881; then organized firm of Bannard, Lyman & Company to carry on same line of business; firm dissolved in August, 1885; in following October he became a department manager of N. K. Fairbank & Company, manufacturers of lard, soap, and oils, in Chicago; subsequently vice-president and general manager of the company until 1896; treasurer and secretary of United Breweries Company, Chicago, 1899–1902, president and treasurer 1902–1921, and chairman of board of trustees from dissolution of firm 1921 until his death, although retired from active business in 1921, contributor to Political Science Quarterly; governing member of Art Institute of Chicago 1895–1927; member Chicago Club (president in 1896 and 1897), Chicago Historical Society, and St. Chrysostom's (Episcopal) Church, Chicago.

Death due to chronic myocarditis. Buried in Graceland Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by daughter, a granddaughter, two stepdaughters, Louise Stockton Quarles, Smith ex-'99, the wife of William C. Quarles (Ph.B. University of Michigan 1892), and Lisa Stockton Batten, who married Percy H. Batten (B.S. Purdue 1898), and a brother, Hubbard F. Bannard, of San Marino, Calif. Another brother, Otto T. Bannard, ’76, died on January 15, 1929.

Henry Lear, B.A. 1869.

Born March 21, 1848, in Doylestown, Pa
Died April 27, 1929, in Germantown, Pa

Father, George Lear, a lawyer; attorney-general of Pennsylvania under Governors Hartfrant and Hoyt; son of Robert and Lucy (Lee) Lear. Mother, Sidney (White) Lear; daughter of James and Mary White Saunders Institute, Philadelphia. Second prizes in English composition Sophomore and Senior years; high oration appointment Senior year and speaker at Commencement; member Gamma Nu, Psi Upsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Studied law in his father's office in Doylestown 1869–1870 and at University of Pennsylvania 1870–71, admitted to bar of Bucks County September, 1871, and practiced law in
Obituary Record

Doylestown until 1906, at first in partnership with his father in firm of G. & H. Lear and from 1884 independently; salesman for Equitable Life Insurance Company from 1910 to about 1920, but for several years prior to his death had not been actively engaged in business; had spent much time in translating French, German, and Spanish plays; president of Doylestown National Bank 1884–1906; had also been president of Doylestown Electric Company, Doylestown Gas Company, Doylestown Mutual Storm Insurance Company, Lahaska Insurance Company, and Bucks County Railway Company; solicitor of Pennsylvania Railroad Company at Doylestown 1884–1904.

Married June 10, 1875, in Doylestown, Louisa Philler, daughter of John Jones and Louisa (Philler) Brock. Children: John Brock; George, '02; William Philler; Julia Brock (died in 1919); and Sidney.

Death due to chronic parenchymatous nephritis. Buried in Doylestown. Survived by wife, three sons, one daughter, four grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs George P. Brock, of Philadelphia.

Delamer Edward Clapp, B.A. 1870.

Born November 9, 1849, in Ira, N Y
Died February 11, 1929, in Auburn, N Y

Father, Emerous Donaldson Clapp; president of E. D. Clapp Manufacturing Company, carriage and drop forgings (founded by him in Auburn), and of Auburn Wagon Company; director of Southern Central Railroad Company; son of Othniel Palmer and Lucy (Tilden) Clapp; descendant of Roger Clapp, born in Devonshire, England, who came from Plymouth to Dorchester, Mass., in 1630; descended also from Nathaniel Tilden, who came from Kent, England, to Scituate, Mass., in 1634. Mother, Sarah (VanPatten) Clapp; daughter of Nicholas and Sarah VanPatten, who came from Holland and settled in the Mohawk Valley.

Auburn Academy, Fairfield (N. Y.) Seminary, and Phillips-Andover. Second colloquy appointment Junior year; member Linonia and Delta Kappa.
Night editor of Hartford (Conn.) Courant 1870–73; studied in Hanover, Berlin, and Munich, Germany, 1873–74; during that period also served as correspondent for the Courant and the New York Tribune at the Vienna Exposition; foreign correspondent for the Courant 1874–75; connected with E. D. Clapp Manufacturing Company, as secretary 1875–1889, president and general manager 1889–1910, and president since 1910; treasurer of Auburn Wrought Bit & Iron Company, Ltd.; school commissioner 1877–1880; member Auburn Board of Education 1883–86; founder of old Auburn City Club 1883; member Auburn Chamber of Commerce, Finger Lakes Association, and Second Presbyterian Church, Auburn.

Married (1) December 28, 1876, in Lyme, Conn., Florence Elizabeth, daughter of Samuel Cullick and Sarah Frances (Brockway) Ely. Children: Josephine Ely, the wife of Byron B. Taggart (Ph.B Hamilton 1896); Lucy (Mrs. E Chester Cochrane); Emerous Donaldson (B.A. Williams 1904); and Edward Allison (B.A. Williams 1906). Mrs. Clapp died November 28, 1889. Married (2) March 1, 1899, in Auburn, Adaline Maria Olmsted Watson, daughter of Morris Morales and Hannah Wharton (Coffin) Olmsted. No children by second marriage. Mrs. Clapp died February 19, 1923.

Death due to chronic myocarditis. Buried in Fort Hill Cemetery, Auburn. Survived by two sons, two daughters, five granddaughters, and two sisters, Mrs. Eugene Whitworth and Mrs. Thomas C. Ward, both of Rochester, N. Y.

Walter Scott Hull, B.A. 1870.

Born March 13, 1846, in Industry, Ohio
Died January 25, 1929, in Chicago, Ill

Father, James Standiford Hull, a trader, shipped provisions from Cincinnati to New Orleans on the Ohio River, later a farmer in Indiana; senator in Indiana Legislature, Colonel of 37th Indiana Infantry, U.S. Army, in Civil War until wounded in 1862 at the battle of Stone River near Murfreesboro, Tenn., and then president of Military Examining Board for Department of the Cumberland; son of John and Mary (Standiford) Hull; ancestors on his father's side came from England and settled in Virginia, and his mother’s ancestors came from Wales and settled near Baltimore. Mother, Ellen (Long) Hull; daughter of James and Eliza (Switzer) Long, both Protestant Irish, who came to America from County Limerick, Ireland, in 1815 and settled near Cincinnati, Ohio.

Ran away from home and enlisted in his father’s regiment during the Civil War; later transferred to the Quartermaster’s Department for the Department of the Cumberland, and became chief voucher clerk; on the firing line at battle of Nashville Indiana College (now Indiana State University), where member of Sigma Chi, and Ypsilanti (Mich) Union School Third prize in English composition Sophomore year; second colloquy appointment Senior year; member Linoma, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi, and Delta Kappa Epsilon Became connected with a New York commercial news agency after graduation and in summer of 1871 was sent to Liverpool to take charge of the company’s office in that city; shortly afterwards, upon the failure of the company, returned to America and was subsequently employed by Atlantic & Pacific Telegraph Company in New York City and later as a receiving clerk and manager of its Chicago office; during latter period studied law in office of Stephen F. Brown and admitted to Illinois Bar in September, 1874; had since practiced law in Chicago; member of firm of Brown & Hull for some years and later in partnership with a Mr. Stevens for a time, but in independent practice since about 1887; member Chicago City Council 1882–85.

Married September 30, 1885, in Chicago, Genevieve, daughter of Narcisse Antoine and Henrietta (Woodworth) Lafayette. No children.

Yale College

Philip Lindsley, B.A. 1870.

Born February 2, 1850, in Nashville, Tenn
Died October 17, 1928, in New York City

Father, Adrian VanSinderen Lindsley; member of firm of A. V. S. Lindsley & Son (real estate and insurance) in Nashville; state senator; trustee of Nashville University; postmaster of Nashville; son of the Rev. Philip Lindsley (B. A. Princeton 1804, D.D. Dickinson 1823), professor and vice-president of Princeton and president of Cumberland College (now University of Nashville), and Margaret Elizabeth (Lawrence) Lindsley; descendant of John Lindsley, lord of manor of Lindsley in Leicestershire, England, whose son, Francis Lindsley, fought in the Civil War under Cromwell, came to New England, and later settled in New Jersey. Mother, Eliza Malvina (Trimble) Lindsley; daughter of Judge James Trimble, attorney-general of Tennessee, and Laetitia (Clark) Trimble, descendant of Sir Thomas Fleming, who came from Scotland to Virginia in 1616. Yale relatives Adrian V. S. Lindsley, '69 (brother); Goodloe Lindsley, '97 (nephew); and James Trimble, '68, and VanSinderen Lindsley, '98 (cousins).

Anderson School, Nashville. Second dispute appointment Junior year; dissertation appointment Senior year; member Brothers in Unity (third prize in debate Junior year), Delta Kappa, Alpha Delta Phi, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Tutor in private family near Nashville and also engaged in farming 1870–71; editor of Miner's Journal of Pottsville, Pa, 1871–1880; had subsequently been engaged in newspaper work in New York City, night editor of New York Tribune 1880–84 and of New York Times 1884–1899; telegraph editor of New York Evening Mail from 1900 until his retirement in 1921.

Married September 23, 1894, in New York City, Margaret Magdalen Catherine, daughter of Claus Hermann Friedrich and Dorothea Sophia (Eggars) Tietgen. Children: Philip, Jr; Norman (died in infancy); Norman; and Margaret Dorothy (died in infancy).

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Mount Olivet Cemetery, New York City. Survived by wife, two sons, and two brothers, John T. Lindsley, of Nashville, Tenn., and Frank Lindsley, of Greenwood, Tenn.
Obituary Record

John Hoyt Perry, B.A. 1870.

Born July 26, 1848, in Southport, Conn.
Died September 2, 1928, in Avenll, Vt

Father, Oliver Henry Perry (B.A. 1834, honorary M.A. 1875), a banker, representative in Connecticut Legislature and at one time secretary of the state of Connecticut; son of Walter and Elizabeth Burr (Sturgis) Perry; descendant of Richard Perry, who came from England to New Haven in 1638 and settled in Fairfield, Conn., in 1649. Mother, Harriet Eliza (Hoyt) Perry, daughter of Eli Thacher and Mary Matilda (Wildman) Hoyt, and sister of Henry T. Hoyt, '53; descendant of Simon Hoyt (Hoyte), who came from England to Charlestown, Mass., in 1629 and settled at Scituate, Mass., between 1633 and 1636, in Windsor, Conn., in 1639, and in Fairfield, Conn., in 1650. Yale relatives include: Henry H Perry, '69 S., and Winthrop H. Perry, '76 (brothers); and Oliver H Perry, '99 S. (nephew)

Wilton (Conn.) Academy Entered Yale with Class of 1869, but withdrew at the end of Sophomore year and joined Class of 1870 in Junior year; high oration appointments Junior and Senior years, member Linonia, Gamma Nu, Delta Beta Xi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa

LL B Columbia 1872; practiced law in Norwalk, Conn., 1872-1887 and then in Bridgeport, Conn., until his retirement in 1902, as member of successive firms of Perry, Woodward & Perry (1872-1886), Woodward & Perry (1886-87), Perry & Perry (1887-89), and Perry, Perry & Hill (1893-1902), and independently (1889-1893), judge of Court of Common Pleas for Fairfield County 1889-1893; instructor in evidence and commercial law in Yale School of Law 1892-96 and lecturer on parliamentary law 1901-1912; counsel for the United States in the arbitration with Chile 1901-02; member of Connecticut House of Representatives in 1877, 1878, 1881, and 1889 (speaker in 1889) and of State Senate 1913-15 (Republican member of Judiciary Committee); first vice-president of Connecticut Constitutional Convention 1902; vice-president of Connecticut Civil Service Reform Association 1919–1923; member of Board of Commissioners of the State Police 1904–1921 (president of the board from 1910); member of advisory board of Hartford Chamber of Commerce 1919–1924, trustee of Southport Trust Company 1903–1921 and of Hartford Seminary Foundation 1908–1925; president of Southport (Conn) Savings Bank since 1887 and of Pequot Library Association of Southport since 1893; a governor of Society of Colonial Wars 1916–18; member executive council of Fairfield Historical Society since 1904, vice-president 1921–22, and president since 1922; corporate member of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions since 1893, chairman of executive committee of National Council of Congregational Churches October, 1925–January, 1928; member Southport Congregational Church (chairman of its executive committee for over twenty-five years and representative of the church at the International Congregational Conference in Edinburgh 1902); chairman of Fairfield chapter of American Red Cross 1906–1916 and vice-chairman since 1916; member of Yale Alumni Advisory Board 1909–1926, author of a chapter in The Monographic Study of Connecticut, compiled by Norris G. Osborn, ’80 (1925), and of various theses on parliamentary law and articles on points of historical interest around the town of Fairfield; member Connecticut State Bar Association.

Married September 23, 1874, in Southport, Frances Virginia, daughter of George and Elizabeth (Andrews) Bulkley, and sister of James E. Bulkley, ’63. Children: George Bulkley, ’98 (died in 1923); John Walter, ex-’01 S.; Richard Andrews, ex-’05; Virginia Bulkley; and Hoyt Ogden, ’16 Mrs Perry died November 15, 1923.

Death, due to myocarditis, occurred at a summer camp at Averill. Buried in Oaklawn Cemetery, Fairfield, Conn. Survived by three sons, daughter, and three grandchildren The George Bulkley Perry Scholarship Fund at Yale was established by Mr and Mrs Perry in 1923, in memory of the son who died.
Edward Beers Thomas, B.A. 1870.

Born August 4, 1848, in Cortland, N.Y.
Died March 27, 1929, in Brooklyn, N.Y.

Father, John Hanson Thomas, a lawyer; son of John Thomas (B.A. 1811, M.A. 1814) and Caroline (Beers) Thomas; descendant of John Thomas, who died in New Haven in 1671; descended also through his mother from Governor William Bradford of the Massachusetts Bay Colony. Mother, Mary (Stiles) Thomas; daughter of Otis and Deborah (Wood) Stiles; descendant of John Stiles, who came from England to Windsor, Conn., about 1636.

Cortland Academy On editorial board of Yale Courant; member Linonia, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi, and Delta Kappa Epsilon, graduate member Wolf's Head.

Studied law with Judge William H. Shankland in Cortland and admitted to New York State Bar December, 1871; associated in practice of law with David L. Follett and Albert F. Gladding in Norwich, N.Y., 1872–1885; member New York State Senate 1881–85; Republican nominee for attorney-general of New York 1885, but defeated; moved to Brooklyn 1885 and engaged in independent practice of law in New York City until 1898; United States judge for Eastern District of New York 1898–1906; justice of Supreme Court of New York 1907–1919, associate justice of Appellate Division 1909–1919; retired from the bench on account of age limit 1919; resumed practice of law and acted as official referee; lecturer at St. Lawrence University Law School (Brooklyn) 1918–19, director of Long Island Historical Society since 1903, and of Hamilton Club of Brooklyn; author. Negligence (1895) and Estates Created by Will (1898); member Brooklyn Bar Association, attended the Presbyterian Church.

Death due to the infirmities of age. Buried in Cortland (N. Y.) Rural Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughter, and four grandchildren.
Seelye Benedict, B.A. 1871.

Born August 8, 1848, in New York City
Died June 5, 1929, in New York City.

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the OBITUARY RECORD.

Luther Fuller, B.A. 1871.

Born June 22, 1847, in Scotland, Conn
Died November 22, 1928, in Washington, D C

Father, Pearley Brown Fuller, a farmer, surveyor, and teacher; son of Luther Elderkin and Polly (Witter) Fuller, direct descendant in the fourth generation of Anne Franklin, a sister of Benjamin Franklin; descended also from John Fuller, who came to America from England with John Winthrop, Jr., in 1634 and settled in Ipswich, Mass
Mother, Esther Palmer (Smith) Fuller; daughter of Roger and Alice (Bingham) Smith; great-granddaughter of Joseph Smith, of England, who was one of the settlers of Canterbury, Conn, in 1701, and of Jeremiah Bingham, who married Mary Brewster, fifth in descent from Elder William Brewster of the “Mayflower” company. Yale relatives include: Ezra Witter (B.A. 1793) (great-uncle); and Zedekiah S. Barstow (B A 1813), Asa W. Fuller (M.D. 1839), Egbert B. Bingham, ’63, William C Witter, ’65, and William Witter, ’65 M (cousins)

Cheshire (Conn.) Academy. Entered Yale as a Junior in 1869; dissertation appointment Senior year; member Yale Missionary Society and Phi Beta Kappa Taught at Blooming Grove (N. Y.) Academy 1871-73; principal of New Brighton (Pa.) Union School 1873-75; principal of schools in Ansonia and Birmingham, Conn, 1875-79; spent the year 1880-81 in travel in Europe, Egypt, and Palestine with his brother, Thomas H Fuller, ’63, assistant examiner of patents at Patent Office in Washington from 1882 until his retirement in 1924; member Society of Mayflower Descendants and Congregational Church; in 1877, with his brother, established the Thomas H. and Luther Fuller Scholarship Fund at Yale.
Unmarried.

Death due to arteriosclerosis and interstitial nephritis. Buried in New Cemetery, Scotland. Survived by a niece and two nephews, Hubert B. Fuller, '01, and Dr. Homer G. Fuller, '01 S.

Joseph French Page, Jr., B.A. 1871.

Born November 28, 1848, in Philadelphia, Pa
Died December 3, 1928, in Menton, France

Father, Joseph French Page, a merchant; son of Gilbert and Atlantic (French) Page; descended from Thomas Page, who came from England to settle in Virginia about 1667, and later moved to New Jersey. Mother, Ellen Ford (Hansell) Page; daughter of William Sutton and Ellen (Ford) Hansell; descended from Peter David Hansell, who came from Wales via Seaford, England, in 1730 and settled near Philadelphia.

Dr Ferris’ School, Philadelphia. Member Yale Missionary Society, Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

After graduation went west with the second expedition conducted by Professor Othniel C Marsh, '60; was then engaged in the wool business in Philadelphia for a short time; later was associated in real estate business with his father; retired about 1890 and maintained a farm in Paoli, Pa, until 1904; continued to live in Paoli until 1921, and later spent most of the time traveling; had been a vestryman and accounting warden, Church of the Good Samaritan (Episcopal), in Paoli.

Married (1) June 13, 1878, in Philadelphia, Josephine Richards, daughter of Alfred Morris and Hannah Collins. Children: Charles Collins (University of Pennsylvania ex-'01); Edith, the wife of Stanley W. Holmes, '09; Elizabeth, the wife of James K. Willing (University of Pennsylvania ex-'01); Joseph French, 3d (B.A. University of Pennsylvania 1906); and Richard Lloyd (B.S. Princeton 1920). Mrs. Collins died February 10, 1921. Married (2) September 3, 1921, in Jamestown, R. I., Elizabeth Lawrence, daughter of Rear Admiral William Alexander Marshall (U. S. Naval Academy 1871), and Mary Bartlett (Foster) Marshall. No children

Death due to pneumonia and pleurisy. Buried in Menton, France. Survived by wife, three sons, two daughters, eight grandchildren, a brother, Louis R. Page, of Bryn Mawr, Pa, and two sisters, Mrs. Henry C. Butcher, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Winthrop Burr, of Lawrence, N. Y

Born January 26, 1849, in Brooklyn, N. Y
Died September 18, 1928, in Whitefield, N. H

Second colloquy appointment Junior year; vice-president of '72 Baseball Club Freshman year; member Chess Club, New York Club of '72, Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Traveled abroad during the summer of 1872 and spent the following winter in Mandarin, Florida, on account of his health; in summer of 1873 joined the fourth expedition of Professor Othniel C. Marsh, '60, to study fossils in the West; studied at Columbia Law School 1873-75 (LLB 1875); practiced law in New York City from 1875 until his retirement in 1925 (partner in firm of Lewis & Beecher 1875-1885); assistant district attorney for New York County 1881-82; member of legal staff of Long Island Railroad 1893-1919; one of three commissioners of Brooklyn to determine value of Coney Island property; member of executive committee of New York Society for the Suppression of Vice 1882-1897, counsel 1897-1922, and member of board of managers since 1922, counsel for Brooklyn Excise League 1886-87; Judge Advocate on staff of 3d Brigade, New York National Guard (rank of Major), 1880-86; published, in association with his brother-in-law, the Rev. Samuel Scoville, '57, a biography of his father, the Rev Henry Ward Beecher (1888); compiled and completed the second volume of The Life of Jesus, the Christ, begun by his father and left unfinished at the time of his death (1891), with Austin Abbott of New York, edited and prepared Abbott's Trial Brief of Criminal Causes (1890); deacon of Plymouth Congregational Church 1883-85, 1893-95, 1898-1900, 1903-05, 1907-09, and 1915-17; member of its church work committee 1903 and 1906 and of its membership committee 1901-03; and assistant superintendent of its Sunday school in 1879 and superintendent 1885-87.

Married November 23, 1881, in Brooklyn, Jessie Howe, daughter of Charles Dana and Eunice Ann (Howe) Bigelow. Children. Gertrude Roxana (B.A Smith 1903), the wife of Charles F. Park, Jr (B.A Williams 1901); Bertha Bigelow, who married Paul S. Ney, '04 (divorced in 1920); and Eunice Anna (Mrs George S White).

Death due to bronchopneumonia. Buried in the Bigelow lot in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, three daughters, and eleven grandchildren.
Francis Robert Schell, B.A. 1872.

Born January 12, 1851, in New York City
Died December 19, 1928, in New York City

Father, Robert Schell; president of Bank of the Metropolis, New York City; director of New York & Harlem Railroad Company and of Woodlawn Cemetery; a manager of New York Eye and Ear Infirmary and of the Presbyterian Hospital; trustee of Rutgers College; member of the council of University of the City of New York; son of Christian and Elizabeth (Hughes) Schell; descendant of Richard Schell, who came to America about 1750 and settled in Rhinebeck, N. Y. Mother, Mary (Taber) Schell, daughter of Corey and Esther (Morehouse) Taber; descendant of Philip Taber, who came from Essex, England, in 1630 and settled in Plymouth, Mass. Cousin Edward H Schell, '70

M. W. Lyon's School, New York City First dispute appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year; member Yale Missionary Society, Delta Kappa, and Alpha Delta Phi.

LL.B. Columbia 1874; practiced law in New York City from 1874 until his retirement in 1890, being associated with John Delahunty for a number of years and with him counsel for Bank of the Metropolis; patron and member of executive committee of New York Historical Society since 1901, foreign corresponding secretary of the society 1902, and a vice-president since 1903; recording secretary of the Bowery Branch of the Y. M. C. A. 1896–1903; member of board of corporators and trustees of The Northfield Schools (Mount Hermon School and Northfield Seminary) 1891–98; had a summer home at East Northfield, Mass, for forty years, and in 1902 built and gave to the town of Northfield a bridge across the Connecticut River to East Northfield, which bears the name of the Schell Bridge in memory of his parents; member St. Nicholas Society; former member Marble Collegiate Church (Dutch Reformed), New York City, but later attended the Episcopal Church.

Married May 7, 1884, in Brooklyn, Mary Stewart, daughter of Lewis and Agnes (Stewart) Morris No children

Death due to pernicious anaemia and arthritis Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. His wife survives him.
Francis Bond Swayne, B.A. 1872.

Born June 8, 1850, in Columbus, Ohio
Died September 18, 1928, in New York City

Father, Noah Haynes Swayne (LL.D. Dartmouth and Marietta 1863, Yale 1865); associate justice of the United States Supreme Court 1862–1881; son of Joshua and Rebecca (Smith) Swayne, descendant of Francis Swayne, M.D., who came to America with William Penn in 1710 and settled in East Marlborough, near Philadelphia. Mother, Sarah Ann (Wager) Swayne, daughter of John Wager, Jr., and Catherine (Bate) Wager, descendant of Peter Wager, who was born in Germany, came to America early in the eighteenth century, and settled in Virginia. Yale relatives include, Wager Swayne, '56, Henry S. Swayne, '68, and Noah H. Swayne, '70 (brothers); Alfred H. Swayne, '92, Noah H. Swayne, '93, and Wager Swayne, ex-'95 (nephews), and Noah H. Swayne, 3d, '31 S. (grandnephew)

Prepared in Gambier, Ohio, and at Mount Pleasant Academy, Ossining, N.Y., and Hopkins Grammar School. Member Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, Psi Upsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Studied law for a time in Washington, D.C., and then in the office of his brother, Wager Swayne, in Toledo, Ohio, admitted to Ohio bar 1874 and practiced law in Toledo until 1895; in partnership with his brother, Wager Swayne, in firm of Osborn & Swayne until 1877 and then with his brother, Noah H. Swayne, in firm of Swayne & Swayne and its successor, Swayne, Swayne & Hayes, general counsel for a predecessor of the Wheeling & Lake Erie Railroad Company for several years; again in partnership with his brother, Wager Swayne, in firms of Swayne & Swayne and Swayne, Swayne, Morris & Fay in New York City from 1895 until his retirement from active practice in 1902; assistant United States district attorney for northern Ohio 1875; vestryman of Trinity (Episcopal) Church, Toledo, 1886–88, senior warden 1888–1897; lay reader 1892–97, and member of the Toledo Church Club, member of standing committee of the Diocese of Ohio 1891–96, deputy to the general convention of the Episcopal Church 1884, 1887, 1888, 1889, and 1891–96; vestryman of Trinity Church, New York City, since 1903.
Married December 29, 1875, in Toledo, Eunice Helen, daughter of Samuel M. and Angeline Lucy (Upton) Young. No children.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Trinity Cemetery, New York City. His wife survives him.

Theodore Salisbury Woolsey, B.A. 1872.

Born October 22, 1852, in New Haven, Conn.
Died April 24, 1929, in New Haven, Conn

Father, Theodore Dwight Woolsey (B.A. 1820, LL.D. Wesleyan 1845 and Harvard 1886, D.D. Harvard 1847); member of the Yale faculty as tutor 1822-25, professor of the Greek language and literature 1831-1851, president 1846-1871, Fellow of the Yale Corporation 1871-1885, and lecturer on international law 1873-77; president of American Oriental Society and member of American Philosophical Society; son of William Walton and Elizabeth (Dwight) Woolsey; descendant of George (Joris) Woolsey, who came from Holland to New York in 1623 and bought land at Flushing, N.Y., in 1647 and at Jamaica, N.Y., in 1664, descended also from Thomas Hooker, a proprietor of Hartford, Conn., in 1636. Mother, Elizabeth Martha (Salisbury) Woolsey, daughter of Josiah Salisbury (B.A. Harvard 1798) and Abigail (Breese) Salisbury, who was a daughter of Judge Samuel Breese of New Jersey and sister of Arthur Breese (honorary M.A. 1789); descended from John Salisbury, who came from England to Boston, Mass., where he died in 1702, and from Samuel Sewall, chief justice of the Supreme Court of Massachusetts. Yale relatives include: Benjamin Woolsey (B.A. 1709) and Jonathan Edwards (B.A. 1720) (great-great-grandfathers); Benjamin Woolsey and Timothy Dwight (both B.A. 1744) (great-grandfathers); Sylvester Muirson (B.A. 1771) and Heathcote Muirson (B.A. 1776) (great-great-uncles), Timothy Dwight (B.A. 1769) (great-uncle); John M. and William C. Woolsey (both B.A. 1813) and Edward E. Salisbury (B.A. 1832) (uncles), Edgar L. Heermance, ’58 (brother-in-law), T. Woolsey Heermance, ’93, Edgar L. Heermance, ’97, Roger T. Bacon, ex-’11 S., and Alfred H. T. Bacon, ’14 (nephews), Hopkins Grammar School. Oration appointments Junior and Senior years; member Yale Missionary Society, Delta Kappa, Psi Upsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Studied in Yale School of Law 1872–73; traveled abroad 1873–75, and studied Roman law at University of Leipsic during the last year; continued his law studies at Yale 1875–76 (LLB 1876) and received the Civil Law Prize for his dissertation on Roman law; instructor in public law at Yale 1877–78, professor of international law 1878–1911, and professor emeritus since then; acting dean of the Law School 1901–03; honorary M A Yale 1887; LL.D. Brown 1903, in 1895 with Henry B Sargent, '71 S, and Walter Camp, '80, founded the Yale Financial Union to affiliate athletic activities, which continued until 1914; an incorporator of Yale Field Corporation 1900; served on executive committee of Bicentennial celebration; elected director of New Haven Bank 1899, and upon its consolidation with City Bank elected director of present New Haven Bank, N.B A., and continued as such until death, member New Haven Board of Common Council 1880–81, and represented it on New Haven Board of Park Commissioners (East Rock Park Commission); permanent member and president of the New Haven Board of Park Commissioners 1914–1928; director of New Haven Colony Historical Society 1913, member of its publications committee 1914 and of its building committee 1925–27; president of Graduates Club of New Haven 1897–99; contributed to Yale Review, North American, Forum, Outlook, and Scribner's; editor of Woolsey's Introduction to the Study of International Law (6th edition, revised and enlarged, 1906, 1908) and of Pomeroy's International Law (1886); wrote series of articles on international law for Johnson's Encyclopedia (new edition) 1893–95, author. The Right of Search and its Limitation in Time of Peace (1896), Suez and Panama—A Parallel (1903), America's Foreign Policy (1898), and Daniel Cady Eaton (1896); member Huguenot Society, Order of Colonial Wars (lieutenant governor 1895–1900, deputy governor 1900–02, and governor 1902–05 of Connecticut.
Society and member of committee on historical documents (1894-1900), Century Association, American Society of International Law, New Haven Chamber of Commerce, and Church of Christ in Yale University; elected associate member Institut de Droit International at Paris 1921; had traveled abroad extensively and lived in California from 1886 to 1890, although continuing his connection with the Law School.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by sons, eight grandchildren, a half brother, George Woolsey, '81, and two half sisters, Mrs. Mary P. W. Bacon, the widow of Alfred T. Bacon, '73, and Miss Edith Woolsey, of New Haven. By the terms of his will a trust fund of $35,000 was bequeathed to Yale for the purchase of books or other printed or written matter relating to international law, diplomatic history, and collections of treaties; gave also to the University similar books and material in his library. For many years had made an annual gift to the School of Law for scholarships.

Robert Weeks Kelley, B.A. 1874.

Father, James Edward Kelley, a banker; son of Eli and Emily (Weeks) Kelley; grandson of Judah Kelley, who came to America from Devonshire, England, where the name was originally spelled Kellich, served as a member of the 7th Regiment of Dutchess County (N.Y.) Militia during the Revolutionary War, and settled in Carmel, N.Y., about 1811. Mother, Roxanna (Drew) Kelley; daughter of Thomas and Abigail (Mead) Drew; granddaughter of Gilbert Drew, member of the 7th Regiment of Dutchess County Militia during the Revolution. Yale relatives include: Robert N.
Seney, ex-'96 (nephew) and Nelson Robinson, ex-'74 S. (cousin).

H. H. Fay's Classical and English School, Newport, R. I. Member University Football Team, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi, Psi Upsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Traveled through the West in the interest of J. B. Brewster & Company, carriage makers, of New York City 1874-75; then lived in Baltimore, Md., for a short time; secretary of Philadelphia City Oil Manufacturing Company 1876-77; accountant for Georgian Bay Lumber Company at Oswego, N Y., 1877-1881; president of Echo Farm Company at Litchfield, Conn., 1881-88; president of Kanawha & Ohio Railroad Company 1888-89, when appointed receiver of the company, upon its reorganization, elected president of the new company, Kanawha & Michigan Railroad Company, and lived in Charleston, W. Va., having general management of the property, until 1890, when he moved to New York City; member of New York Stock Exchange 1891-92 and 1895-96; lived in Calais, Maine, 1900-04, during which period served as general manager of Washington County Railway Company, president of Brewster Oil Company in New York City 1904-05; traveled in Europe 1905-06; assistant to receiver of Third Avenue Railroad Company in 1908; president of Vulcan Portland Cement Company, Ltd., 1908-09, Virginia Portland Cement Company 1908-1916, Warren-Burnham Company (a holding company) 1908-1923, Holly Sugar Company 1911-16, Kingsbridge Railroad Company, and William Holland Wilmer Foundation (a charitable organization) from its incorporation in 1922 until his death; vice-president of Collosceus Cement Company; elected a director of American Ice Company in July, 1917, member of executive committee October, 1917, vice-president 1921, and chairman of the board 1927, elected director of Knickerbocker Ice Company 1917 and chairman of the board 1927, director of Southwest Metals Company since 1922, director also of Shawingan Water & Power Company, Canada Cement Company, Ltd., Empire Coal & Coke Company, and the 115 East 53d Street Corporation; director of Navy League of the United States since 1922 and its president 1922-26; member of executive committee of American Olympic Committee 1922-25, of Committee of One Hundred on Foreign Affairs of National Civic Federation two years, of Society of New York Hospitals, and of Protestant Episcopal Church; Class agent for '74 since 1899 and director of Alumni University Fund Association since 1916; in 1913 offered a prize of $100 for the best essay by an undergraduate on the Yale Alumni Fund and in 1922 one for the best essay on "America's Need for a Strong Navy", in 1917 made a gift to Yale of $125,000 to be added to the Yale Alumni Fund as an addition to the permanent memorial fund of the Class of 1874; in 1919 gave $10,000 through the Yale Alumni Fund for military expenses at Yale; in 1924, with his classmate, Henry S. Robbins, raised the 1874 Class gift to the Alumni Fund from $10,000 to $25,000; and in 1926 gave the University $100,000.

Married January 14, 1926, in New York City, Edith Lawrence Speyers McVickar, daughter of Albert George Pigot and Selina Lippincott (Lawrence) Speyers, and widow of Edward McVickar, '92 S.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Carmel, N. Y. Survived by wife and a sister, Mrs. Robert Seney, of New York City.

Rutherford Hayes Platt, B.A. 1874.

Born September 6, 1853, in Columbus, Ohio
Died December 7, 1928, in Columbus, Ohio

Father, William Augustus Platt, a merchant, son of William and Pamela (Royce) Platt, descendant of Richard Platt, born in Hertfordshire, England, who came to America in 1638 and settled in Milford, Conn. Mother, Fanny (Hayes) Platt, daughter of Rutherford and Sophia (Birchard) Hayes, and sister of President Rutherford B. Hayes (LL D 1880), great-great-granddaughter of John Russell (B.A 1704); great-great-great-granddaughter of the Rev Samuel Russel, of Branford, Conn., one of the founders of Yale College; descendant of George Hayes, a Scotchman, who settled in Windsor, Conn., before 1680 and in 1698 moved to a part of Simsbury (now Granby), Conn. Yale relatives include: Grant Mitchell, '95 (nephew); and James H. Heyl, '17, Winslow F. Hubbard, '25, and Rutherford Hubbard, '29 (grandnephews)
Phillips-Andover. First dispute appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year; member Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, and Psi Upsilon.

Traveled abroad 1874-76, and during a part of the time studied languages and literature at University of Hanover; studied at Columbia Law School 1877-79 (LL.B. 1879); practiced law in Columbus from 1879 until his retirement in 1913, to devote himself to travel, study, and civic enterprises; professor of pleading and practice in Ohio State University Law School 1891-95; president of Columbus & Xenia Railroad Company 1914-1928; member of first board of directors of Columbus Workhouse and of Board of State Charities 1901-1913 (chairman 1910-13), trustee of Columbus Gallery of Fine Arts since February, 1893; chairman of Local Draft Board No 3 1917-19; member American Academy of Political and Social Science and Trinity Episcopal Church, Columbus (member of vestry 1908-1918).

Married January 5, 1887, in Columbus, Maryette Andrews, daughter of Robert Swanton Smith (B.A. Urbana University 1857, Harvard Law School 1857-58) and Ann Floyd (Swan) Smith. Children William Augustus (died in childhood); Anne Swan (died in infancy); Robert Swanton (B.A. 1914, Ph.D. University of Chicago 1921), Rutherford Hayes, Jr. (B.A. 1918); Joseph Swan (B.A. 1924, LL.B. Harvard 1927), and Emily, the wife of W Ellsbury Benua (B.A. Princeton 1921)

Death due to gastric carcinoma Buried in Green Lawn Cemetery, Columbus Survived by wife (died January 2, 1929), three sons, one daughter, and three sisters, Mrs. Rutherford P. Hayes, of Clearwater, Fla., Mrs Hermon M. Hubbard, of Lyme, Conn, and Mrs. Walter S. Crane, of Pasadena, Calif

Edwin Forrest Rouse, B.A. 1874.

Born June 17, 1852, in Clay, N. Y
Died August 27, 1928, in Pasadena, Calif.

Father, James Madison Rouse, a manufacturer of lumber and salt in the Saginaw Valley, Mich; son of William and Rebecca (Spore) Rouse; ancestors came from England and settled in Greenwich, R. I., later moving to Lake George, N. Y.; George Rouse moved to Baldwinsville, N. Y., in 1809. Mother, Margaretta (Chambers) Rouse; daughter of Enoch and Sarah (Hungerford) Chambers.

Bay City (Mich.) High School. First dispute appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year, sang in College Choir Senior year; member Delta Kappa.

Read law in office of Rugers & Jenny in Syracuse, N. Y., in 1875, but gave up the profession of law on account of ill health; engaged in the manufacture of lumber and salt at Bay City 1876-1883, at first in partnership with his father under the name of Rouse's Mill and from 1879 in partnership with his brother, William B. Rouse, under the firm name of Rouse Brothers; from 1883 to 1920 engaged in manufacturing under his own name, at first of miscellaneous articles and from 1894 of heading, with factories in Bay City and Omer, Mich.; in the coal business in Bay City from about 1920 until his retirement on account of illness in January, 1928.

Married June 18, 1879, in Syracuse, N. Y., Georgianna, daughter of Ambrose and Dorothea Emily (Williams) Sadler.

Children: Dorothea (B. A. University of Michigan 1905), the wife of Orrin K. Earl (B. A. University of Michigan 1902); and Robert Burton (M. E. University of Michigan 1907).

Mrs. Rouse died August 30, 1922.

Death due to chronic myocarditis. Buried in Elm Lawn Cemetery, Bay City. Survived by daughter, son, a sister, Miss Fredda Rouse, and a brother, William B. Rouse, both of Bay City.

John Chamberlain Collins, B. A. 1875.

Born September 19, 1850, in Albion, N. Y.
Died August 26, 1928, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Michael Collins, a farmer; born in Ireland and came to America in 1820. Mother, Susan (Prime) Collins; descendant of a Pennsylvania Dutch family.

During the Civil War joined 16th New York Cavalry (although too young to enlist) and remained with it as a volunteer helper, stationed near Washington most of the time; with that regiment at time of capture of the assassins of President Lincoln and also accompanied it in the scouting and warfare against Colonel John S. Mosby. Attended Brockport (N.Y.) Normal School Second dispute appointment Junior year, first colloquy appointment Senior year; member Delta Kappa.

Founder of New Haven Boys’ Club in 1874 (first organization of its kind) and in charge of the club 1874-77; studied in Yale Divinity School 1875-78 (B.D. 1878); spent summer of 1876 in missionary work in Nebraska; superintendent of New Haven Gospel Union (first city mission in New Haven) 1877-1886; during that period served as editor-publisher of Gospel Union News 1881-86; ordained as an evangelist in North Congregational (now United) Church, New Haven, June 2, 1886, managing director and secretary of International Christian Workers Association 1886-1896; secretary of executive committee of seven of that association for establishing boys’ clubs in the United States and Canada; in 1896 organized the Mountain Retreat Association which founded a religious community and health resort (now the town of Montreat) in North Carolina, on land purchased for the purpose by John S. Huyler, president of the Association 1896-1900, occupied the next six years in raising money for various enterprises; a founder in 1906 of The Friends of Boys, Inc., in New Haven, and subsequently served as its executive secretary, national secretary of the organization since 1923, director of New York Friends of Boys in 1923; chairman of committee of New Haven Amateur Athletes; editor and publisher of The Temple Builder; contributor of articles in reports of Christian Workers Association and to other periodicals.

Married September 19, 1878, in Brockport, N.Y., Fannie Moulton, daughter of John and Rebecca Ellen (Ingalls) Smith Children: Justine; Franklin Carter; Royce; Paul; Ruth (Mrs. Carl Bendixen); John Chamberlain, Jr. (died in 1925), Roger; Edward Smith; Francis Isabel; Marion Ingalls (Mrs. Benjamin Pelton). Mrs. Collins died in October, 1905.

Death occurred at the Liberty Baths, New Haven. Buried in Whitneyville (Conn.) Cemetery. Survived by four daughters, five sons, and eight grandchildren.
Harry Higbee, B.A. 1875.

Born December 13, 1854, in Pittsfield, Ill.
Died January 29, 1929, in Pittsfield, Ill.

Father, Chauncey Lawson Higbee; lawyer, judge of Circuit Court for 8th Judicial Circuit of Illinois, and judge of the Appellate Court for the 3d Division; president of First National Bank of Pittsfield, which he helped to organize; son of Elias and Sarah Elizabeth (Ward) Higbee; descendant of Edward Higbee, who came from Irvinghoe, County Bucks, England, in 1646 and settled in New England. Mother, Julia May (White) Higbee.

Pittsfield High School. Member '75 Glee Club, Senior Promenade Committee, Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, and Psi Upsilon.

Studied law at his home 1875-76, at Columbia University Law School 1876-77, and at Union College of Law in Chicago 1877-78 (LL.B. 1878); admitted to Pike County (Ill.) Bar 1879; had since practiced law in Pittsfield, with exception of a year (1884), when he practiced in Minneapolis, Minn., in partnership with Robert D. Russell in the firm of Higbee & Russell; junior partner in firm of Matthews, Wike & Higbee 1879-1884, Wike & Higbee 1885-1893, and Matthews & Grigsby and its successor, Matthews, Higbee & Grigsby, 1893-97; judge of Circuit Court for 8th Judicial District of Illinois 1897-1927 and also justice of Appellate Court for 4th District from October, 1898; at close of term of office in 1927 appointed a commissioner of Supreme Court of Illinois, but owing to ill health obliged to decline the appointment; member of Illinois Senate 1889-1896; president of First National Bank of Pittsfield since 1899; of Pittsfield Board of Education 1898-1900 and 1908-09; of Illinois State Bar Association 1912-13; of Pike County Bar Association; and of Oakwood Cemetery, Pittsfield, since 1909; delegate to International Bar Association in London 1894; member American Bar Association, Lincoln Centennial Association, National Economics League of Boston, and St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

Married (1) December 18, 1879, in Pittsfield, Emma, daughter of Daniel DeTompkins and Julia Ann (Burbridge).
Obituary Record

Hicks. One son, Chauncey Daniel (died in infancy). Mrs. Higbee died July 12, 1881. Married (2) July 8, 1919, in Pittsfield, Maude, daughter of Daniel and Mollie Ellen (Forrest) Moreland. Death, due to gall bladder trouble, followed an operation performed some time ago. Buried in the Pittsfield Mausoleum. His wife survives him.

Frederic Elkanah Snow, B.A. 1875.

Born March 10, 1851, in Waterbury, Conn. Died September 7, 1928, in Guilford, Conn.

Father, Elbridge Gerry Snow, a farmer in Barkhamstead, Conn; son of Elkanah and Sally (Snow) Snow; descendant of Nicholas Snow and Governor Thomas Prence, who came from England and were among the early settlers in Massachusetts. Mother, Eunice (Woodruff) Snow; daughter of Ebenezer and Rhoda (Coe) Woodruff; descendant of Matthew Woodruff, who came from England to Cambridge, Mass., in 1639, settled in Hartford, Conn., in 1640, and was an original proprietor of Farmington, Conn., in 1672.

Williston Academy First colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years; member '75 College Church Committee, Class Picture Committee, and Delta Kappa. B.D. Yale 1878; graduate work at Yale Divinity School (1878-79), pastor, Oxford, Conn., 1878-1883, and there ordained to the Congregational ministry April 21, 1880; pastor, South Windsor, Conn., 1883-88; acting pastor Harwinton, Conn., 1888-1891; pastor, First Congregational Church, Guilford, 1891-1920, when made pastor emeritus; chairman of board of trustees of Guilford Institute (now High School) 1891-1920 (by virtue of his pastorate); appointed by the governor member of original board of trustees of the Henry Whitfield State Historical Museum in Guilford 1900 and continued as such until 1915 (secretary of the board 1900-07 and treasurer 1903-06); during the war served as member of registration committee of Y.M.C.A. War Fund Relief Work for state of Connecticut; publisher of First Church Review, a monthly parish paper (1895-97), Proceedings of the 250th Anniversary of the First Congregational Church of Guilford (pamphlet) (1893), and numerous hymns and poems in the Outlook and other periodicals.

Death due to carcinoma of the prostate gland. Buried in Alderbrook Cemetery, Guilford. Survived by wife (died December 28, 1928) and a sister, Miss Alice E. Snow (died September 26, 1928).

Reuben Archer Torrey, B.A. 1875.

Born January 18, 1856, in Hoboken, N J
Died October 26, 1928, in Asheville, N C

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.

Otto Tremont Bannard, B.A. 1876.

Born April 28, 1854, in Brooklyn, N Y
Died January 15, 1929, at sea, en route from Seattle, Wash, to Manila, P I

(For family history, see sketch of brother, Henry C Bannard, '69, p. 32.)

Preparatory department of Beloit College. First prize in English composition Sophomore year, first dispute appointment Junior year and second prize at Junior Exhibition; second dispute appointment Senior year; Class Historian Freshman year; an editor of Yale Record Senior year; member Delta Kappa, Delta Beta Xi, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones.

LL.B. Columbia 1878; admitted to New York Bar in January, 1879; in clerk's office of United States District Court, New York City 1879–1881, practiced law 1881–88 as chief clerk in office of Anderson & Howland, New York, and in law department of New York, West Shore & Buffalo (now the West Shore) Railroad Company as assistant to the general counsel (1883-86); vice-president of Dolphin Jute Mills, Paterson, N J., 1888-89, president until 1893, then chairman of board; in January, 1893, became president of Continental Trust Company of New York City; in 1904, when that company was merged with New York Security & Trust Company, to form The New York Trust Company, became president of the new company and continued until 1916, when he declined reelection and was made chairman of the board and of the executive committee; since the consolidation of the Liberty National Bank with The New York Trust Company in 1921, had been chairman of the advisory committee; in 1898 served as receiver for New England Loan & Trust Company, under appointment of the Federal Court; in 1907 was appointed one of three receivers for Knickerbocker Trust Company, but declined the appointment; one of the first active committeemen of Charity Organization Society of New York, at its founding in 1882, and vice-president since 1899, founder of the Society's Penny Provident Fund in 1888 and served as chairman and treasurer until 1905, one of the organizers of Provident Loan Society of New York, incorporated in 1894, and served as secretary 1894-96, and 1903-04; as treasurer 1897-99, 1906-08, 1915-17; as president 1900-02, 1909-11, 1918-20; had been trustee and member of executive committee 1894-1928; elected a director in 1908 and vice-president in 1917, of Burke Foundation; a founder of National Employment Exchange in 1909, and president since then; member of board of trustees and treasurer of the Commonwealth Fund since 1918; chairman of board of trustees of Chemical Foundation since 1919; charter member of National Committee for Mental Hygiene in 1919, and treasurer until 1923; elected trustee of United Charities Building 1891; secretary and treasurer of American Passimetre Company 1887-1900; director of Dolphin Jute Mills since 1889; Niagara Fire Insurance Company since 1894; Herring-Hall-Marvin Safe Company since 1906, Securities Company 1901-1920; New Hampshire Electric Railway Company 1905-1921; Hudson Trust Company, Hoboken, N J., since 1912; Mahoning & Shenango Railway & Light Company 1906-07, 1908-1911; Metropolitan Life Insurance Company since 1915 (member of finance, insurance, and agency committees); International Mercantile Marine Company 1916–1920; Pacific Coast Company 1917–1926; India Trading Company 1916–1920; Metropolitan Water Company of Kansas City 1899–1910; and Tubercular Home for Children; member New York Board of Education in 1897 and 1898; treasurer of New York County Republican Committee 1905–09; nominated for mayor of New York City 1909, but failed of election; president of Republican Club of New York City 1911; delegate to Republican National Conventions in 1908, 1912, and 1916, and New York state member of the Presidential Notification Committee 1908 and 1912; had also been delegate to state (1910), county and congressional conventions; chairman of Yorkville Commission 1915; worked actively for many years for the building of the Nicaragua Canal; in 1916 went to the Balkan States for American Red Cross and War Relief Committee of the Rockefeller Foundation; subsequently served as New York director of Red Cross Supply Service 1917–18; chairman of Advisory Committee on Sales of Corporations under Alien Property Custodian 1917–1921; member of Yale Corporation 1910–1928 (served on Committee on Investments 1910–19, Prudential Committee since 1911, and as chairman of Committee on Finance since 1919); chairman of National Committee of Yale’s $20,000,000 Endowment Fund campaign; member of Yale committee for Participation in the Restoration of the Library of the University of Louvain 1924; Class agent for Yale Alumni University Fund 1893–99 and director 1894–99, president of Yale Club of New York 1902–04; secretary 1901–04, and member of the council 1894–1904, of University Club of New York; a governor of Union Club of New York 1911–14, honorary M.A Yale 1908, LL.D Colgate 1924 and Yale 1928; member New York Clearing House Committee, and of distributing committee of the Saturday and Sunday Association

Unmarried

Death due to valvular heart disease with asthma His body was brought back from Yokohama and after funeral services at Battell Chapel on February 21, burial took place in the Yale plot of Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by two brothers, Hubbard F. Bannard, of San Marino, Calif, and Henry C. Bannard, '69 (died April 15, 1929). By the terms of his will a bequest of about $2,000,000 was left to Yale, in addition to the generous gifts made to many departments, especially the Library, during his long connection with the University.

Allen Shaw Bush, B.A. 1876.

Born July 8, 1852, in New London, Conn
Died February 17, 1929, at Gales Ferry, Conn.

Hopkins Grammar School. Member '76 Orchestra and Gamma Nu.

B D. Yale 1879, served under American Home Missionary Society as pastor of churches in Wakeeney and Ellis, Kans., 1879–1883; lived in New Haven 1883–84; ordained to Congregational ministry October 15, 1885, at Centralia, Kans., where pastor 1884–1895; in 1895 became connected with Congregational Sunday School & Publishing Society and served as assistant superintendent for Kansas two years, with headquarters in Topeka, pastor in Newton, Kans., 1897–98; again with Sunday School & Publishing Society as superintendent for Colorado and Utah, with headquarters in Denver, from 1898 until his retirement in 1915; lived in New London 1915–16 and had since made his home at Gales Ferry, being active in the supply of various churches; delegate to National Council of Congregational Churches from Kansas 1892 and 1895 and from Colorado 1904–1916; secretary of Congregational Ministers' Association of New London County since April, 1922, assistant editor of Rocky Mountain Congregationalist 1908–1911; contributor of articles to various other denominational papers and magazines; secretary of his Class in the Divinity School since 1926; member Society of Mayflower Descendants of Colorado (elder 1906–1910) and of Connecticut (elder 1907–1911) and Second Congregational Church, New London.

Death due to chronic interstitial nephritis Buried in Cedar Grove Cemetery, New London. Survived by wife, son, and a brother, Charles Haskell Bush, of New Haven Another brother, George M. Bush, ’81 M., died in 1892

Edward Stiles Ely, B.A. 1876.

Born November 7, 1853, in Chicago, Ill
Died April 7, 1929, in New Haven, Conn

Phillips-Andover. Entered Princeton in 1872, but transferred to Sophomore Class at Yale in 1873 and New York City 1881; in 1890 went to Chicago and founded real estate firm of Pratt & Ely and became treasurer of Acme Bag Company and continued in such relations until 1900; returned to New York 1900 and was president of Albert Palmer Company of New York and London until his retirement from active business in 1906, lived in New York City 1907–1911 and had since made his home in Lyme, engaged in agriculture and forestry; traveled abroad in 1877, 1881, 1899, 1905, and 1907, spent year 1922–23 in California, looking after his oil interests; member American Forestry Association; former member Madison Square Presbyterian Church, New York; deacon of First Congregational Church of Lyme (formerly North Lyme Congregational Church).

Obituary Record

Death, due to hypertrophy of the prostate, followed an operation at Hospital of St Raphael, New Haven. Buried in Ely Burial Ground, Lyme. Survived by wife (died April 26, 1929), daughter, two sons, four grandchildren, and two sisters, Mrs. Anson D. Morse, of Amherst, Mass., and Mrs. Ernest C. Richardson, of Princeton, N. J.

Robert Johnson Jessup, B.A. 1876.

Born February 17, 1852, in New York City
Died March 15, 1929, in Glendale, Calif

Father, Benjamin Townsend Jessup; senior partner in firm of Jessup & Childs, paint and oil business, New York City, president of board of trustees of South Baptist Church, New York, and treasurer of Baptist Missionary Convention for state of New York; son of Abraham and Phebe (Holliday) Jessup; descendant of Edward Jessup, who came from England to New England prior to 1649 and settled in Stamford, Conn. Mother, Emily Catherine (Johnson) Jessup; daughter of Robert and Esther (Gear) Johnson Prepared at Wilson's Grammar School, Rochester, N. Y., and Grammar School No. 35, New York City. Attended University of Rochester in 1869 and 1870 as member of Class of 1873 and entered Yale in 1872. On Sophomore Supper Committee; a Class historian Senior year; member Courant board, Gamma Nu, Phi Theta Psi, and Psi Upsilon.

Assistant editor Springfield (Mass.) Republican 1876–1880; assistant superintendent Dighton (Mass.) Chemical Works 1880–85, during which time took a home study course in theology; reporter and assistant editor Denver (Colo.) Tribune-Republican 1885–86; reporter for Salt Lake (Utah) Tribune 1886–1891; on city staff of Salt Lake Evening News 1891–94 (in 1893 was also music editor of Denver Times); city editor El Paso (Texas) Herald 1894–98 and of Santa Fé New Mexican 1898–99; assistant editorial writer and railroad and musical editor Salt Lake Tribune 1899–1902 and subsequently music and financial editor Deseret Evening News of Salt Lake City until 1925; took graduate work at University of California 1922–23; had made his home in Glendale since 1925; in 1910 walked the "Old Mormon Trail," to locate and identify it, and wrote an article about it for the Evening News; had been actively engaged in Christian Endeavor work in prisons for many years, a founder of University Club of Salt Lake City 1886; civilian member for a time of 18th U S Infantry Band; honorary member of Drake Zouaves, a patriotic organization of Elizabeth, N. J.; member American Federation of Musicians, Patriotic Order of Sons of America, and First Presbyterian Church, Salt Lake City.

Married May 11, 1878, in Springfield, Mass., Clarabelle Webster Drake, daughter of Sheldon and Rhoda (Wolcott) Webster. Children: Emily Catherine (B.A. Teachers College, Columbia, 1906); Douglas Webster (E.M. Columbia 1908); Florence Benedict, who attended University of Utah several years and later University of California; Roger Wolcott, who studied at University of Utah three years and later at Agricultural College of Utah; and Marguerite Kibbe, who attended University of Utah, and married Milton P. Kitchel.

Death, due to Bright’s disease, occurred at Physicians and Surgeons Hospital, Glendale. Buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Glendale. Survived by wife, two sons, three daughters, a stepdaughter, Linda Belle Jessup, six grandchildren, and a brother, Benjamin A Jessup, of Brooklyn, N. Y.
Obituary Record

Edwin Dean Worcester, B.A. 1876.

Born February 25, 1856, in Albany, N.Y.
Died May 21, 1929, in New York City

Mother, Mary (Low) Worcester; daughter of Warren S. and Mary Armenia (Walker) Low; descendant of Thomas Low, who came from England to Ipswich, Mass., about 1645.

Nephew: Dean K. Worcester, ’19

Albany Boys’ Academy. Third Freshman Scholarship; first and third prizes in English composition Sophomore year; philosophical oration appointment Junior year and first prize at Junior Exhibition; Salutatorian Senior year, W W. DeForest Scholar and winner of DeForest Gold Medal; College premium in English composition; Class historian Freshman year; member Ivy Committee, Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, Psi Upsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

LL B. Yale 1878 (honors Senior year), clerk in law office of Hand & Hale in Albany 1878–1880; admitted to New York Bar 1879, managing clerk for Mr. Samuel Hand and also engaged in the practice of law independently 1881–82; spent the year 1882–83 abroad; had lived in New York City since 1883; in 1884 formed a law partnership with George C. Webb, ’76 and ’78 L, and Thorndike Saunders under firm name of Saunders, Webb & Worcester and continued in that connection until 1907; senior member of Worcester, Williams & Lehman 1907–09, Worcester & Williams 1909, and Worcester, Williams & Saxe since 1909, had traveled extensively abroad; secretary of Class of 1876 since 1906 and Alumni Fund agent since 1900; foundation member of Fort Orange Club of Albany and New York Yale Club; member Association of the Bar of the City of New York, New York State Bar Associa-
Charles Wheeler Barnes, B.A. 1877.

Born May 13, 1855, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died December 19, 1928, in Brookline, Mass

Father, Henry Wheeler Barnes, a merchant, son of Judge Wheeler Barnes (B.A. University of Vermont 1804) and Emma White (Olmstead) Barnes, great-grandson of Asa Barnes, a Captain in the Revolutionary Army; ancestors came to America from the north of England. Mother, Mary Caroline (Young) Barnes; daughter of Henry and Ann (Hyde) Young; descendant of Alexander Young, the founder of a Long Island family, who later removed with the Quakers to New York. Yale relatives include: Mason Young, '60 (uncle); and Dr. L. Duncan Bulkley, '66, William H. Young, ex-'78 S., George H. Young, '87, William D. Young, '92, and Mason Young, ex-'97 (cousins).

Friends' School and Charlier Institute, New York City. Second dispute appointments Junior and Senior years; member '77 Glee Club, Delta Kappa, Delta Beta Xi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Traveled abroad after graduation; studied at Columbia Law School 1878-1880 (LL B. 1880); admitted to New York Bar 1880 and practiced law in New York City until his retirement in 1919; associated with successive firms of Young, VerPlanck & Prince, VerPlanck, Prince & Flanders, and VerPlanck & Prince (now Prince & Burlingame) from about 1887; had been active in reform politics in New York (for a time secretary of Good Government Club and member of executive committee of Reform Club during the period
Charles Melville Clarke, B.A. 1877.

Born February 3, 1856, in Southwick, Mass
Died January 24, 1929, in New York City

Father, the Rev. James Augustus Clark (B.A. 1834), a Presbyterian minister; studied at Princeton Theological Seminary and Yale Divinity School, pioneer missionary of American Home Missionary Society to Iowa; pastor of churches in Connecticut, Massachusetts, and New York; son of James and Anna (Champion) Clark; great-grandson of Col. James Clark, who served in the Continental Army from Bunker Hill to Yorktown; descendant of Daniel Clark, who came from England and settled in the locality of the present Windsor, Conn; secretary of Connecticut Colony from 1639 to 1666. Mother, Louisa Rachel (Thompson) Clark; daughter of Lemuel and Hadassah (Dewey) Thompson; ancestors of the Thompson family settled in Monson, Mass., early in the seventeenth century. Yale relatives include two brothers: William C. Clarke, '69, and James K. Clarke, ex-'75.

Williston Academy. Entered Yale with Class of 1876, but left during Freshman year and attended Hopkins Grammar
Tale College

School for the rest of the year; reentered Yale with Class of 1877; second colloquy appointment Junior year, member Delta Kappa and Delta Beta Xi.

Taught in Monterey, Mass, 1877–79; in office of his uncle, Reuben W. Ropes, of Ropes Brothers & Company from 1879 until his uncle’s death and the dissolution of the firm in 1880, subsequently connected with marketing department of Gilbert & Barker Manufacturing Company, manufacturers of the Springfield gas machine, and self-measuring pumps and tanks, in New York City until 1917 (associated with his brother, William C. Clarke, in the company until the latter’s death in 1911); later became associated with Detroit Heating & Lighting Company in the merchandising of their gas machine, as their New York representative, but during the last five years of his life had gradually withdrawn from active business; member of the Yale Club of New York from its foundation

Unmarried.

Death, due to pneumonia, occurred at the Presbyterian Hospital, New York City. Buried in Kensico Cemetery, Valhalla, N. Y. Survived by a niece and four nephews

Kennedy Turner Friend, B.A. 1877.

Born October 14, 1853, in Pittsburgh, Pa
Died May 26, 1929, in London, England

Father, William Charles Friend (B.A. Western University of Pennsylvania, now University of Pittsburgh, 1845), a lawyer and banker; ancestors settled in Friendville, Md
Mother, Margareta Dorothy (Herron) Friend; daughter of John and Clara (Anderson) Herron; granddaughter of William Anderson, who was born in Ireland in 1747 and served as a Corporal and Orderly Sergeant in Captain Richey’s Volunteer Company, Colonel Irvine’s Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers in 1776; later entered the Commissary Department and served until the end of the war Nephews: George W. Stephenson, ex-’10 S., and Francis L Stephenson, ’13 S.

Prepared at Western University of Pennsylvania and at Cornell University (1868–69) Entered Yale with Class of 1876, but left in Senior year, returned the next year and graduated with Class of 1877 (also studied at Western University of Pennsylvania in 1874); first colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years; member Delta Kappa, Delta Beta Xi, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Studied law in his father's office in Pittsburgh and admitted to Allegheny County Bar 1879; practiced law in Pittsburgh as member of firm of Petty & Friend for a number of years; since 1898 had spent most of his time in travel and study abroad, living at various times in France, Italy, Switzerland, Spain, and North Africa; attended lectures at the College de France, Paris; had made a special study of international law and languages; member American Bar Association, American Chamber of Commerce in France, Pennsylvania Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, and Presbyterian Church.

Death due to chronic kidney trouble. Cremation took place in London and ashes are to be buried in Allegheny Cemetery, Pittsburgh. Survived by wife, three nieces, and three nephews. By the terms of his will, Mr. Friend left a fund for the education of children of members of the Allegheny County Bar, at Yale and the University of Paris.

Francis Wisner Murray, B.A. 1877.

Born September 10, 1855, in Goshen, N. Y
Died April 12, 1929, in Florence, Italy

Father, Ambrose Spencer Murray, a banker; member of Congress 1855–59; son of William and Mary Ann (Beakes) Murray, descendant of George Murray, who came to America from Scotland. Mother, Frances (Wisner) Murray; daughter of Henry Gabriel Wisner (B.A. Princeton 1799, M.A. 1803) and Sarah (Talman) Wisner; descendant of Johannes Weesner, who came from Switzerland about 1714 and settled in Orange County, N. Y. Nephew: Lang Murray, '97 S.

Cheshire (Conn.) Academy and St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. Second colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years; member Senior Promenade Committee, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

M.D. Columbia 1880; interne at Chambers Street Hospital, New York City, 1880–82 and at the House of Relief 1881–82; studied in Berlin, Vienna, and Heidelberg 1882–83; specialized in surgery in New York City from 1883 until his retirement in 1922; in charge of Chambers Street Hospital dispensary two years; surgical registrar at New York Hospital 1884–86, attending surgeon 1893–1915, and consulting surgeon since 1915; attending surgeon to St Luke's Hospital 1887–1902 and consulting surgeon since then; attending surgeon to New York Eye and Ear Infirmary 1901–1921; professor of clinical surgery at Cornell University Medical College 1898–1907; Surgeon Major in 1st Brigade, New York National Guard, three years; member American Academy of Medicine, American Medical and American Surgical associations, New York Surgical Society, the Surgical and the Clinical societies, International Surgical Society, Century Association of New York, and Church of the Incarnation (Episcopal), New York City; associate member Surgical Society of France.

Married October 26, 1886, in New York City, Mary Gertrude, daughter of Newbold and Anna Hough (Trotter) Lawrence. Children: Francis Wisner, Jr., '09; Caroline Lawrence (died in 1917); Lawrence Newbold, '17; and Gertrude Lawrence, the wife of Charles R. Smith, who attended Victoria College, Island of Jersey, England.

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Goshen, N. Y. Survived by wife, daughter, two sons, nine grandchildren, and a brother, Russell Murray, of New York City.

Henry Roberts, B.A. 1877.

Born January 22, 1853, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died May 1, 1929, in Hartford, Conn

Father, George Roberts; president of Hartford Woven Wire Mattress Company and of Hartford Carpet Company; an organizer of Metropolitan Bank in New York City; descended from George Roberts, an officer in the Revolutionary War; descendant also of William Roberts, who came from
Obituary Record

Wales in 1654 and was an early settler in Hartford. Mother, Elvira (Evans) Roberts; descendant of Capt. Thomas Evans, who fought in the French and Indian War; descended also from John Taylor, a settler of Windsor, Conn. Yale relatives include two nephews: George Roberts, '03, and Philip Roberts, ’10.

Hartford Public High School. An editor of Yale Record Junior year; member Senior Promenade Committee, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Phi Theta Psi, and Psi Upsilon.

Studied law at Columbia 1877-78 and at Yale School of Law 1878-79 (LL.B. 1879); in law office of Chamberlain & White in Hartford for a few months after graduation from the Law School and admitted to the Hartford Bar, but had never practiced law; entered employ of Hartford Woven Wire Mattress Company 1880, later elected secretary, and became president 1886; retired from active business about 1901; president and director of Hartford Bedstead Company; trustee of State Savings Bank of Hartford since 1891 and vice-president since 1918; director of Phoenix National Bank 1904–1926 and of Phoenix State Bank & Trust Company (formed by consolidation of Phoenix National Bank and State Bank & Trust Company) since 1926, director of Hartford Electric Light Company since 1887, trustee of Hartford Trust Company 1889–1916, director of Farmington River Power Company and Hartford Dairy Company; on Hartford Board of Aldermen 1897–99 (chairman of committee on ways and means of Common Council); represented Hartford in Connecticut General Assembly 1899–1901 (chairman of Committee on Finance 1899 and member of Committee on Appropriations); state senator 1901–03 (president 1901 and acting governor for part of the time and chairman of Committee on Appropriations 1901); lieutenant governor of Connecticut 1903–05 and governor 1905–07; chairman of Board of Water Commissioners, and of Arsenal and Armory Commission 1905–09, member of Hartford Committee for Soldiers’ Relief during Spanish-American War; vice-president of Hartford Philharmonic Society; trustee for several years of Slater Industrial Academy in Winston, N. C. (later Slater State Normal School and now Winston-Salem Teachers College); trustee of International Young Men's Christian
Tale College

Married October 5, 1881, in Bridgeport, Conn., Carrie Elizabeth, daughter of Isaac William and Julia Thatcher (Olmstead) Smith. Children: John Taylor, '05; Francis Thatcher (died in 1899), and Edward Constant, '10

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by wife and two sons.

Charles Haley Stevens, B.A. 1877.

Born March 10, 1851, in Danbury, Conn.
Died November 19, 1928, in Canton, Conn

Father, Elias Birchard Stevens, a carpenter and builder, son of Wait and Aphia (Stevens) Stevens; descendant of John Stevens, who settled in Stamford (Darien), Conn., about 1641. Mother, Elizabeth (Cooke) Stevens; daughter of Horace and Mary Elizabeth (Dibble) Cooke; descendant of the Rev. Samuel Cooke (B.A. 1705) and of Joseph P Cooke (B.A. 1750), member of the Continental Congress. Yale relatives include two cousins: Sidney Painter, '25, and Thomas Painter, '29.

New Haven High School and Hopkins Grammar School. Instructor at Greens Farms (Conn.) Academy 1877–78, studied at Union Theological Seminary 1878–81, graduating in 1881; licensed April 5, 1881, by Manhattan Congregational Association of New York City; ordained to Congregational ministry at Alma, Mich., September 13, 1881, and pastor at Alma and Breckenridge, Mich., until 1885; pastor, Chenoa, Ill., 1885–87, when he gave up his pastorate on account of ill health and moved to Canton Center, Conn., where he owned a dairy farm of pure-bred Jerseys and also engaged in poultry raising and fruit growing; non-resident pastor of Congregational Church in West Avon, Conn., 1887–1892 and in Nepaug, Conn., 1893–94; pastor, Canton Center, 1894–98; engaged in wholesale drug business (manager of business for a friend) in New York City 1899–1906; had since lived in Canton; served as non-resident pastor at West Avon 1907–08 and as pastor at Canton Center from 1908 until his retirement in 1917, when made pastor emeritus; had been member Canton School Board, Canton Memorial Association, and Michigan, Illinois, and Hartford North Ministerial associations, member Congregational Church, Canton Center, at time of death.

Death due to mitral regurgitation and acute indigestion. Buried in Dyer Cemetery, Canton. Survived by wife, daughter, son, and a brother, Horace C. Stevens, of Orange, Conn.

Nathaniel Upham Walker, B.A. 1877.

Born January 14, 1855, in Concord, N. H.
Died February 13, 1929, in Brookline, Mass.

Phillips-Andover. Played on '77 Baseball Team Freshman and Sophomore years (captain in 1875); secretary of University Boat Club and '77 Boat Club Junior year; treasurer of University Baseball Club Senior year; member University Football Team Senior year; on Jubilee Committee Freshman year; chairman of Junior Promenade Committee; member Delta Kappa (second prize for declamation), Phi Theta Psi, and Psi Upsilon; graduate member Wolf's Head.

Studied in Harvard Law School 1877-79 and read law with Harvey Jewell, a Boston lawyer, 1879-1880; admitted to Massachusetts Bar 1880 and to Circuit Court of the United States 1893; practiced law in Boston from 1881 until his retirement in September, 1928; trustee and secretary of Free Hospital for Women, Brookline, Mass., since 1885; member Brookline Water Board since 1911 and chairman of the board since 1915; had been member of Republican Town Committee of Brookline (treasurer 1911-13 and chairman 1914-17); charter member and on executive committee of Taft League of Massachusetts; vestryman of All Saints’ Parish (Episcopal), Brookline, 1900-1929, and clerk 1901-1928; member Suffolk Bar Association, Bar Association of the City of Boston, Brookline Historical Society, New Hampshire Historical Society, and Society of Mayflower Descendants; one of the donors to Yale Law School of Massachusetts State Reports and Massachusetts Digest Annotated in 1925.

Married June 6, 1888, in Boston, Helen Frances, daughter of John William and Elizabeth Pratt (Currier) Dunklee. Children: Nathalie Elizabeth (Mrs. Charles P. Purdy) and John Dunklee (died in childhood).

Obituary Record

Alexander Martin Wilcox, B.A. 1877.

Born June 19, 1849, in Baltimore, Md.
Died January 3, 1929, in Lawrence, Kans.

Father, William Littleton Wilcox; ancestors of the Wilcox (Willcocks) family came from England and settled in Massachusetts in 1634. Mother, Mary (Rose) Wilcox; born on the Island of Guernsey and came to Maryland as an infant with her parents about 1819; daughter of John Rose.

Baltimore City College (won second Peabody prize of $100 at graduation). Attended Wesleyan University 1873-75 and then entered Yale as a Junior; high oration appointment Senior year; awarded Clark and Larned scholarships; speaker at Commencement; member Delta Kappa Epsilon and Phi Beta Kappa.

Took graduate work in Greek, Sanskrit, philosophy, and political economy at Yale 1877-1880 (Ph.D. 1880); tutor in Greek at Wesleyan 1880-83; student at American School of Classical Studies, Athens, and traveled in Asia and Europe 1883-84; studied Sanskrit, comparative philology, and archaeology at Johns Hopkins 1884-85; professor of Greek in University of Kansas 1885-1916; had since been curator of the classical museum there; charter member of University of Kansas chapter of Phi Beta Kappa; member American Philological Association, Archaeological Institute of America, Religious Education, and Kansas Historical Society; trustee of Plymouth Congregational Church, Lawrence Married December 19, 1889, in Lawrence, Mina Elizabeth Marvin (B.A. University of Kansas 1881, B.D. 1883, M.A. 1888), daughter of James Marvin (B.A. Allegheny College 1841, D.D. Alfred University 1865, LL.D. University of Kansas 1883), third chancellor of University of Kansas, and Armina (LeSuer) Marvin, a graduate of Alfred University in 1849. No children.

Death due to pneumonia, following influenza. Buried in Oak Hill Cemetery, Lawrence. Survived by wife and two brothers, Theodore F. Wilcox and Louis N. Wilcox, both of Baltimore
Ralph Barker, B.A. 1879.

Born August 26, 1857, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died December 10, 1928, in Dunnellon, Fla.

Father, George Barker, a merchant; son of Ralph and Sarah Lord (Kirtland) Barker; ancestors came from England about 1632 and settled in the Plymouth colony. Mother, Cornelia (Clark) Barker; daughter of Myron and Laura (Galusha) Clark; ancestors came from England about 1690.

Hopkins Grammar School High oration appointment Junior year; dissertation appointment Senior year; member Class Cup Committee, Delta Kappa, Psi Upsilon, Scroll and Key, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Clerk in a land broker's office in New York City 1879-1880; taught in a grammar school in West Bridgewater, Mass., 1880-81; principal of the high school in same town 1881-83; employed in various companies of Auchincloss Brothers (phosphates) in New York City (of which John W. Auchincloss, '73 S., is a member), 1883-1928; secretary and general manager of Madison Cotton Ginning Company of the Phoenix Mills in Madison, Fla., 1883-1899; managing director of Dunnellon Phosphate Company since 1889; president and secretary of Barker Chemical Company of Inglis, Fla., since 1904; secretary and treasurer of Port Inglis Terminal Corporation since 1899; director of Reliance Fertilizer Company of Savannah, Ga., since 1910 and of Florida Central & Gulf Railroad, a subsidiary of Seaboard Railroad, since 1920; member of Old South (now the United) Congregational Church, Bridgeport, Conn., where he had made his home since 1895, and chairman of the Society's committee.

Married March 16, 1881, in Bridgeport, Eugenia Frear, daughter of Frederick H. and Julia (Frear) Robinson. Children: Cornelia Clark, the wife of George H. Edwards, '05; Grace Lillian (died in infancy); Eugenia Kirtland (Mrs. Hubert C. Morfrey); Charles Edwards (died in 1906); Ralph Frederick; and George Myron, '21. Mrs. Barker died March 18, 1924.

Death due to acute dilatation of the heart, with acute indigestion as a contributory cause. Buried in Mountain Grove Cemetery, Bridgeport. Survived by two daughters, two sons, two grandchildren, and a sister, Miss Sarah K Barker, of Bridgeport.

Born February 1, 1855, in Pittsburgh, Pa
Died September 23, 1928, near Lakeport, Calif

Father, Brigadier General Thomas Jackson Rodman, U. S. A. (United States Military Academy 1841); served in the Mexican War; in command of the Watertown (N. Y.) Arsenal during the Civil War, and later stationed at the Rock Island (Ill.) Arsenal, which he had designed and built; inventor of first heavy ordnance gun (the Rodman gun), used in the United States, and of mammoth powder; son of James and Elizabeth (Burton) Rodman. Mother, Martha Ann (Black) Rodman; daughter of the Rev John Black, a graduate of Glasgow University and later professor of ancient languages at Western University (now University of Pittsburgh), and Elizabeth (Watson) Black; descendant of Alexander Thomson (Thompson) who came from Scotland to Franklin County, Pennsylvania, in 1771

Phillips-Andover. Member of University Football Squad, Class Supper committees in Freshman and Sophomore years, Linonia, Delta Kappa, Hé Boulé, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Began study of law at Columbia in 1879, but gave it up on account of ill health; spent the next few years in traveling in western United States and Hawaii; in 1885 went to California and settled in Lake County where he had since lived on his ranch near Lakeport; was associated for a time with the Sixes Mining Company Married October 14, 1908, in Alameda, Calif, Jessie, daughter of Alexander and Rosalina (Rothermel) Mackie. No children.

Death due to carcinoma of the rectum, with acute hemorrhage; had been in failing health for many months. Buried in Hartley Cemetery, Lakeport. Survived by wife, a brother, Addison B. Rodman, of Lakeport, and one sister, Mrs. Florence Butler, of Honolulu, Hawaii.
Ambrose Tighe, B.A. 1879.

Born May 8, 1859, in Brooklyn, N. Y
Died November 11, 1928, in St Paul, Minn

Father, James Meagher Tighe (LL.B. New York University 1863), a lawyer; later engaged in business; son of a missionary clergyman of the Protestant Episcopal Church, who came to America from Ulster, North Ireland, in the middle of the nineteenth century. Mother, Kate M. (Hammer) Tighe Adelphi Academy, Brooklyn. Second Berkeley Prize in Latin Composition Freshman year, two first prizes in English composition Sophomore year, a second prize at Junior Exhibition, and Townsend Premium Senior year; high oration appointments Junior and Senior years; on board of Yale Literary Magazine; member Delta Kappa, Psi Upsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Reporter for New York Tribune for several months in summer of 1879; private tutor in Frankfort, Ky., 1879-1880, during which period read law and admitted to Kentucky Bar on June 8, 1880; Douglas Fellow at Yale 1880-82, studying political and statistical history in the Graduate School; tutor in Roman history and law in Yale College 1882-85; read law in New York City for several months during 1885-86; admitted to Minnesota Bar in St. Paul January 16, 1886, and to practice before the United States Supreme Court January 8, 1892, by motion of William H. Taft, '78, then Solicitor General of the United States; had practiced law in St. Paul since 1886, and specialized in municipal and life insurance law; special assistant attorney-general of Minnesota and counsel for Minnesota Commission of Public Safety 1917-19; member St. Paul Charter Commission 1899, which prepared the charter which constitutes the present municipal code of St. Paul, and of the commissions that drafted the charter of 1900, and the amendments of 1904; member Minnesota House of Representatives 1903 and 1907 (chairman of appropriations committee of first session and chairman of elections committee and of sub-committee of judiciary committee on substantive law in 1907 session); candidate for nomination for Congress on Republican ticket 1912, but failed of nomination; in 1900 organized, with others, St. Paul College of Law and lected in it on the law of public corporations until about 1904, in 1889 made receiver of Brainerd Water Company and reorganized it as Minnesota Water Works Company; became its president and owner in 1900 and remained as such until about 1915, in 1894 organized, with others, St. Paul & Suburban Railway Company (electric), which was later purchased by Twin City Rapid Transit Company; in 1901 purchased Duluth, Red Wing & Southern Railroad Company and became its president; organized and became first vice-president of Luger Lumber Company 1904 (also served as its counsel until 1918), vice-president and counsel of Security Trust Company 1904–1915; vice-president of C. Gotzian & Company, shoe manufacturers, 1906–1909 (served as legal representative of the owners and then president); secretary of General Investment Company and of Gotzian Land Company since 1915, attorney for Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York since 1890, for Eastman Kodak Company since 1900, for Fairbanks, Morse & Company since 1926, and for a number of Minnesota counties and municipalities, including the city of St Paul (1920–28), secretary Ramsey County Bar Association 1890–92, and president 1900; vice-president of Minnesota Bar Association 1919–1920 and president 1920–21, M. A. Yale 1891; author History of the Roman Constitution (1886 and 1889), contributed articles on political and legal subjects, especially in reference to municipal law, to Minnesota Law Review, Yale Law Journal, and other periodicals, some of which were later reprinted in pamphlet form; member American Bar Association, New York Bar Association, Minnesota Historical Society, and Church of St. John the Evangelist (Episcopal), St Paul.

Death resulted from acute insomnia and a nervous collapse of three months' duration. Buried in Oakland Cemetery, St. Paul. Survived by wife, two sons, two daughters, and six grandchildren.
Frank Goodrich, B.A. 1880.

Born April 21, 1856, in Dryden, N.Y.
Died April 29, 1929, in New York City

Father, Milo Goodrich, a lawyer, attended Oberlin College 1835–36, studied law in Worcester, Mass., and practiced in Dryden and Auburn, N.Y.; representative in 42d Congress; member of New York Constitutional Convention in 1867, postmaster of Dryden; son of Philander and Almira (Swift) Goodrich; grandson of Elisha Goodrich, a soldier in the Revolutionary Army; descendant of William Goodrich, who came to America from England in 1648 and settled in or near Hartford, Conn. Mother, Eunice Amanda (Eastman) Goodrich, daughter of Timothy and Lucy (Branch) Eastman; descendant of Joseph Eastman, who was living in Hadley, Mass., as early as 1682.

Auburn (N. Y.) High School. Third prize in mathematics Sophomore year; high decoration appointments Junior and Senior years; Scott prize in German Senior year; member Linonia, Delta Kappa, Quidlibet, Psi Upsilon, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Taught Greek, Latin, and ancient history in Auburn High School 1880–81; studied Greek and German in Graduate School on Clark and Larned scholarships 1881–82 and continued those studies at Universities of Berlin, Halle, Leipsic, and Heidelberg 1882–84; principal of Drury High School, North Adams, Mass., 1884–87, instructor in German at Yale 1887–1891, 1893–94; studied German and history at University of Halle 1891–93 (Ph.D. 1893), professor of European history and German at Williams 1893–1903 and professor of European history 1903–1924, when he retired, had lived in New York City since 1926; honorary M.A Williams 1896; L.H.D. Marietta 1910, editor of Freytag's Doktor Luther (1894) and Goethe's Gotz von Berlichingen (1896), member Modern Language Association and American Historical Association.

Married August 16, 1881, in Merritton, Ontario, Kate Maude, daughter of John and Charlotte (Phelps) Hara, of St. Catherine's, Ontario. Children: Dorothy Allen and Charlotte Phelps (B.A. Vassar 1909), the wife of James P. Woods.
Obituary Record

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Williams College Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughters, a brother, George Eastman Goodrich, of Dryden, N. Y, and a sister, Mrs. Fanny Goodrich Schweinfurth, of Greenville, N. H.

Born May 23, 1857, in Huntington, Conn.
Died November 22, 1928, in Topeka, Kans.

Hopkins Grammar School. Second Berkeley prize in Latin composition Freshman year; third prize in mathematics Sophomore year; premium in astronomy Senior year; high oration appointments Junior and Senior years; member Gamma Nu and Phi Beta Kappa.

Tutor in family of the Rev. D. Stuart Dodge, '57, in Simsbury, Conn., and Columbia, S. C., 1880–83; studied in Yale Divinity School 1883–86 (B.D. 1886); in summer of 1884 preached in Washburn, Wis., and following summer at Lower Lake and Aldrich, Minn.; ordained to Congregational ministry November 9, 1886, at Alma, Kans., where pastor three years; pastor at Chapman, Kans., 1889–1898, Newton, Kans., 1898–1903, Wellington, Kans., 1903–06, Seneca, Kans., 1906–09, and Seabrook, Kans. (half time) 1909–1911; instructor in mathematics at Washburn College 1909–1911; principal of Washburn Academy 1911–17; on the faculty of Washburn College since 1917 (instructor in Biblical history and literature 1917–1922, assistant professor of mathematics 1922–24, and since then assistant professor emeritus); president of Association of Biblical Instructors of the Middle States 1919 and its secretary and treasurer 1920; registrar of Kansas Congregational Conference 1895-1923, with exception of the year 1912-13; had made many addresses before teachers' Bible schools and had contributed to Christian Education; member Central Congregational Church, Topeka, at time of death.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Mount Hope Cemetery, Topeka. Survived by wife and three daughters.

Born June 6, 1861, in Cincinnati, Ohio.
Died May 8, 1929, in Paris, France.

Father, John Durand, a railroad builder and manager; had charge of the Pan Handle Railroad in 1865 and was later connected with Houston & Texas and Cleveland & Pittsburgh railroads; son of Samuel and Eloiza (Lewis) Durand; descendant of Dr. John Durand, a Huguenot, who came from France to America in 1685 and settled in Derby, Conn. Mother, Martha Boyd (Stewart) Durand; daughter of James and Mary (McKenzie) Stewart; descendant of Archibald Stewart, who went from Galloway, Scotland, to Londonderry, Ireland, before the Revolution, came to America in 1790 and settled in Pennsylvania, and moved to Madison County, Ohio, in 1816. Yale relatives: John S. Durand, '81 (brother); Frederick L. Durand (B.A. 1836) (uncle); Harry S. Durand, '13 S., and Edward D Mulligan, '16 (nephews); and John E. Durand, '76, and Samuel E. Durand, '19 (cousins).

Wilson School, Rochester, N. Y., and Hopkins Grammar School. Second prize in declamation Sophomore year; con-distributed to all college papers; Class poet Senior year; author of "Bright College Years"; compiler, with Joseph E. Whitney, '82, of Elm Leaves, a collection of verses from Yale papers, in Senior year; member Delta Kappa, Psi Upsilon, and Wolf's Head.

Traveled in Europe after graduation from Yale; studied at Harvard Medical School 1882-86 (M.D. 1888); interne at Massachusetts General Hospital 1885-87; practiced medicine in Rochester 1888-1908; in 1889 received endorsement of Bellevue Hospital Medical College and elected by Monroe County Medical Society as a delegate for two years to Central New York Medical Association; appointed surgeon to out-patients at Rochester Hospital 1891, physician and surgeon for Erie Railroad at Rochester 1897, and consulting surgeon to Sisters of Charity Hospital in Buffalo 1898; invented an irrigator for use in surgical operations and a surgical bandage machine; in 1909 went to Mexico to look after his mining interests and remained until 1916; during his stay there built up a large medical practice (wholly for charity) and during the Mexican Revolution took care of wounded and sick without remuneration, lived in Los Angeles, Calif., 1916-1923, recovering from an illness contracted in Mexico; had lived abroad since 1924, residing in Nice, Vienna, and Paris; had served as president of Rochester Pathological Society and of Monroe County Medical Society 1895; with Mr. George Eastman gave Durand-Eastman Park (on Lake Ontario) to city of Rochester in 1907; had contributed to medical magazines and written occasional poems for Yale alumni dinners; one of the latter, "The House of Old Yale," was read at a meeting in Paris of Yale Alumni in France in 1927, represented Yale Alumni Association of Rochester on Alumni Advisory Board during War Memorial campaign; elected fellow of American Academy of Medicine 1894 and permanent member of Medical Society of the State of New York 1896; associated with First Presbyterian Church, Rochester.

Married August 9, 1916, in Urique, Chihuahua, Mexico, Harriet Blanche Robinson Best, daughter of George Clarence Bacheldor and Luella Delia (Page) Robinson.

Death, due to heart disease, occurred in American Hospital, Paris. Buried in Mount Hope Cemetery, Rochester. Survived by wife, an adopted daughter, Margaret F. (Mrs. Marcos Topete Bordes), a granddaughter, and a sister, Mrs. Emmett H. Jennings, of Avon, N. Y.

Thomas Burr Osborne, B.A. 1881.

Born August 5, 1859, in New Haven, Conn
Died January 29, 1929, in New Haven, Conn

Father, Arthur Dimon Osborne (B.A. 1848), a lawyer and banker; director, president, and later vice-president of Second National Bank of New Haven; member of New Haven Board of Education and chairman of committee on schools, and clerk of Supreme and Superior courts for New Haven County, son of Thomas Burr Osborne (B.A. 1817, LL.D. Wesleyan 1856) and Elizabeth Huntington (Dimon) Osborne; descendant of Richard Osborne, who came from London in 1634 and settled in New Haven in 1639, and of Thomas Sherwood, who came from Ipswich, England, in 1634, settled first in Massachusetts, and moved to Fairfield, Conn, before 1650. Mother, Frances Louisa (Blake) Osborne; daughter of Eli Whitney Blake (B.A. 1816, LL.D. 1879) and Eliza Maria (O'Brien) Blake, sister of Charles T. Blake, '47, Henry T. Blake, '48, George A. Blake, ex-'54, Eli W. Blake, '57, Edward F. Blake, '58, and James P. Blake, '62, and sister-in-law of George Bushnell and Alexander McWhorter (both B.A. 1842) and John F. Seely, '60; descendant of William Blake, who came from Essex, England, to Dorchester, Mass., in 1630; descended also from the Rev. James Pierpont, one of the founders of Yale. Yale relatives include. Ebenezer Dimon (B.A. 1728) (great-great-great-grandfather); Ebenezer Dimon (B.A. 1783) (great-grandfather); Eli Whitney (B.A. 1792), David Dimon (ex-1828), and Theodore Dimon (B.A. 1835) (great-uncles); Arthur S. Osborne, '82 (brother); and Frank W. Blake, '72, George E. Bushnell, '76, Francis H. Blake, '82 S., Edward Blake, '84 S., Joseph A. Blake, '85, Henry W. Blake, '86 S., Donald M. Barstow, '89, T. Whitney Blake, '90 S., James K. Blake, '91, Robbins B. Anderson and Howard C. Robbins, both '99, H. Kingsley Blake, '16, and Joseph A. Blake, Jr., ex-'16 (cousins)
Obituary Record

Hopkins Grammar School. First colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years; president of Yale Natural History Society three years; member Psi Upsilon and Skull and Bones.

Specialized in chemistry in Yale Graduate School 1882–85 (Ph.D. 1885); assistant in analytical chemistry at Yale 1883–86; member of scientific staff of Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station (the first of its kind in this country) 1886 until his retirement June 30, 1928, when he became advisory biochemist at the Station; in 1889 began investigation of the proteins of plant origin, which formed the main subject of his scientific work; his researches early won for him the reputation of being the foremost expert on plant proteins in the world; beginning in 1904 was assisted by grants from Carnegie Institution of Washington, which he served as a research associate from 1904 until December 31, 1928; research associate in biochemistry at Yale since 1923; president of American Society of Biological Chemists 1910; associate editor of Journal of Biological Chemistry 1906–1929; author: Proteins of the Wheat Kernel (1907) and The Vegetable Proteins (1909, second edition 1924); author also of numerous papers, many of them in collaboration with various co-workers, on the chemistry of vegetable proteins, and collaborator since 1909 with Lafayette B. Mendel, '91, in extensive studies on proteins and nutrition, results of his investigations being published chiefly in American Chemical Journal, Journal of the American Chemical Society, American Journal of Science, American Journal of Physiology, Year Book of Carnegie Institution of Washington, Journal of Biological Chemistry, Journal of Infectious Diseases, and Zeitschrift für physiologische Chemie; had contributed also to the Atlantic Monthly; Sc.D. Yale 1910; elected to Sigma Xi in March, 1928; received gold medal of the Exposition of Paris 1900 and John Scott Medal 1922; first recipient (in 1928) of Thomas Burr Osborne Gold Medal, established in his honor by American Association of Cereal Chemists in 1926; director of Second National Bank of New Haven since 1916, a governor of the Graduates Club, New Haven, 1914; honorary fellow London Chemical Society, associate member La Société Royale des Sciences Morales et Naturelles de Bruxelles; fellow American Academy of Arts and Sciences; member National Academy of Sciences, American Society of Biological Chemists, American Chemical Society, American Philosophical Society, American Physiological Society, Society of Experimental Biology and Medicine, Deutsche Chemische Gesellschaft, and Die Kaiscrlich Deutsche Akademie der Naturforscher zu Halle.

Married June 23, 1886, in New Haven, Elizabeth Annah, daughter of Samuel William Johnson (honorary M.A. 1857), professor of chemistry at Yale and founder of Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station, and Elizabeth Erwin (Blinn) Johnson. Children: Arthur Dimoré (B.A. 1908, LL.B. Harvard 1911) and Francis Blake (died in childhood)

Death due to coronary occlusion. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife and son

Edwin Stewart Underhill, B.A. 1881.

Born October 7, 1861, in Bath, N Y
Died February 7, 1929, in the town of Erwin, at Coopers, N Y

Father, Anthony Lispenard Underhill, a newspaper publisher and editor; publisher for many years of Steuben Farmers' Advocate at Bath; postmaster of Bath; son of Charles and Portia Maria (Brooks) Underhill; descendant in the seventh generation of Capt. John Underhill, who came from Warwickshire, England, to Boston in 1630 and was a leader in the Pequot wars and colonial governor of New Hampshire. Mother, Charlotte Louise (McBeath) Underhill; daughter of James and Charlotte (Oakley) McBeath; ancestors came from Scotland and Holland early in the eighteenth century and settled in New York. Yale relatives include a nephew, John L. Underhill, ex-'24 S.

Haverling High School, Bath Member Kappa Sigma Epsilon.

Had been engaged in newspaper publishing business ever since graduation, associated with his father in editing and publishing Steuben Farmers' Advocate 1881–1902, at first as assistant manager of the paper and after 1884 as partner under firm name of A. L. Underhill & Son; sole editor of the paper 1902–1924, when he sold it; in 1899, with his father, purchased Corning (N. Y.) Daily Democrat (Corning Evening Leader), of which he was sole owner and publisher from 1901 until his death; upon the death of his brother, William Underhill, in 1883, published Ontario County Messenger of Canandaigua, N. Y., for a year; president of New York State Editorial Association 1902 and of New York State Associated Dailies 1907; chairman of Steuben County Democratic Committee 1884-1894 and then its secretary for a short time, member of Congress from 33rd New York District 1911-13 and from 37th District 1913-15 (member of Committee on Industrial Arts and Expositions during the second term); candidate for Congress again in 1922, but defeated for election; presidential elector on Cleveland and Thurman electoral ticket of New York state 1884 and nominated for elector in 1888; delegate to Democratic National Convention 1928, appointed United States delegate to meeting of Interparliamentary Union in Stockholm 1914; served as delegate to International Rotary Convention at Ostend 1927, and attended convention of the Press Congress of the World in Honolulu 1923; vice-president and chairman of board of Farmers & Mechanics Trust Company of Bath since 1921 and president of Farmers & Mechanics Investment Corporation since 1924; president of Gold Seal Products Company 1919-1929; director of Urbana (N Y) Wine Company 1905-1919; former trustee of village of Bath; vice-president of Davenport Library Association of Bath 1908-1911 and then president until his death; member of board of managers of Davenport Orphans' Home since 1927; member of Board of Education of the Haverling High School and served as chairman of the building committee of the new Haverling High School in 1924; chairman of building committee of the Masonic Temple in Bath 1923; vestryman of St Thomas' Episcopal Church, Bath, since 1902; served as food administrator for Steuben County in 1918 and chairman of Bath chapter of American Red Cross 1917-19 and again 1921-27.

Was instantly killed in an automobile accident in the town of Erwin at Coopers, N. Y., on the state highway between Bath, where he resided, and Corning. Buried in Grove Cemetery, Bath. Survived by wife, two sons, two sisters, Mrs. Frederick A. Mandeville, of Rochester, N. Y., and Mrs. Isaac W. Brewer, of Bath, and a brother, Professor Anthony L. Underhill, of the University of Minnesota. Another brother, John Underhill, '89, died in 1911.

LaSalle Hayden White, B.A. 1881.

Born March 17, 1851, in Richmondville, N. Y.
Died November 10, 1928, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Father, Alfred White, a farmer and teacher in Richmondville; son of Isaac and Rachel (Bates) White; ancestors came with the Pilgrims from Holland and settled in Mansfield, Mass. Mother, Hannah (Brooker) White; daughter of Peter and Mary (Sherman) Brooker; of English descent.

Albany Commercial School, Oswego (N. Y.) Normal School, and Hopkins Grammar School. Engaged in farming and teaching in Richmondville and in business as a pharmacist in New Haven before entering Yale in 1877; second colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years, member Linonia and Senior Debating Society.

Principal of Flatbush School in Parkville, N. Y., 1881-86, superintendent of schools at Ilion, N. Y., 1886-1890; principal of Paterson (N. J.) High and Normal schools and instructor in psychology and method in the Normal School 1890-95; principal of School No. 94, Brooklyn, 1895-97 and School No. 3, Brooklyn, 1897-1921; engaged in welfare work as field executive of Junior American Red Cross in New York City from 1921 until his death; Ph D New York University 1893, secretary of Department of Pedagogy of Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences 1898-1901, chairman of School of Pedagogy 1901-08, and president of Department of Psychology and member of the council since 1901; president of Bowling Association of Union League Club of Brooklyn for a number of years prior to 1909; member Brooklyn Principals’ Association and Central Congregational Church, Brooklyn.
Married (1) June 29, 1881, in New Haven, Delilah, daughter of Isaac Weller and Mary Jane Miers. Mrs. White died June 23, 1904. Married (2) October 26, 1907, in New Haven, Annie Louise, daughter of Richard and Anne (Dawson) Shannon. No children by either marriage.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Richmondville Rural Cemetery. Survived by wife.

James Ferguson Allen, B.A. 1882.

Born December 23, 1860, in New Haven, Conn.
Died October 7, 1928, in Meriden, Conn

Father, Heman Bangs Allen, a manufacturer; president of Quinnipiac Fertilizer Company of New Haven and of Meriden Bronze Company; son of Charles Jarvis and Maria (Bliss) Allen; descendant of Edmund Allen, who came from England to Suffield, Conn, in 1660, and later settled at Northfield, Mass. Mother, Margaret Eddy (Ferguson) Allen; daughter of the Rev. John Ferguson, who was born in Scotland and came to this country with his parents in 1806, and Margaret Snow (Eddy) Ferguson Yale relatives include: William E. Gard, '77 S. (brother-in-law); Allen Gard, '01 S., Walter E. Gard, '08, Mansfield A. Lyon, ex-'20 S., and Charles D. Lyon, '27 (nephews).

New Haven High School and Hopkins Grammar School. Captain of Dunham Boat Club; member Class Day Committee, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

With Illinois Watch Case Company in Chicago 1882–83; traveling salesman for Meriden Bronze Company 1883–84, in 1884 went to Montana and engaged in ranching in Billings four years, being partner in firm of Carter, Allen & Company in 1886 and in Allen & Schuyler 1887–88; returned to Meriden and was associated in the sales management of Meriden Bronze Company 1889–1890, although he retained his interest in the ranching business, which was managed by his partner, since 1890 had been president and treasurer of Meriden Gravure Company; secretary of Parker Clock Company of Meriden 1900–1916; director City Savings Bank since 1916, Meriden National Bank since 1926, Meriden Hospital since 1925, Visiting Nurse Association since 1919, and Meriden Boys' Club since 1916; vice-president Meriden Yale Alumni Association 1905–1927; trustee of First Methodist Church, Meriden.

Death due to myocarditis. Buried in Walnut Grove Cemetery, Meriden. Survived by sons, three grandchildren, and a sister, Caro Graves Allen Lyon, Mount Holyoke ex-'85 (Mrs. Charles L. Lyon), of Meriden

Born December 9, 1859, in Brooklyn, N.Y.
Died August 15, 1928, in Stonington, Conn

Father, Lucius Noyes Palmer (M.D. New York University 1849), a physician; connected with St. Catherine's Hospital in Brooklyn and the New York Academy of Medicine; son of Luther and Sarah (Wells) Palmer; descendant of Walter Palmer, who came from England to Salem, Mass., in 1628, lived in Charlestown, Mass., 1629–1643, and later in Rehoboth, Mass., and was a founder of Stonington, Conn., in 1653, descended also from the Rev. James Noyes, a founder of Yale. Mother, Anne (Culbert) Palmer; daughter of John Culbert, who came from the north of Ireland to New York in 1803, and Jean (Crothers) Culbert. Yale relatives: Lucius N. Palmer, '88 (brother); and Dr. William Ledlie Culbert, '85 S., and William L. Culbert, Jr., '23 (cousins).

Adelphi Academy. First colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years; member Delta Kappa; graduate member Wolf's Head.

LL.B. Columbia 1884; admitted to New York Bar that year and subsequently practiced law in New York City until his retirement in 1924, being a partner in firm of Lindsay, Kalish & Palmer, admiralty lawyers, 1899–1917; served as member of local Draft Board during the war; had a summer home in Stonington; chairman of '82 Reunion Committee 1917; president of Stonington Historical Society 1922–28 and of Wadawanuck Association since 1920; member Association of the Bar of the City of New York, Sons of the Revolution in the State of New York, New England Society, and Brick Presbyterian Church, New York City.

Death due to endocarditis Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, sons, one grandchild, and a sister, Miss Jean C Palmer, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

James Quackenbush Rice, B.A. 1882.

Born October 10, 1859, in Goshen, Conn
Died July 22, 1928, at Dobbs Ferry, N Y

Father, James Quackenbush Rice (Wesleyan ex-’50, honorary M.A. 1856); principal of the academy in Goshen; Captain and Major of 2d Connecticut Heavy Artillery in Civil War; killed at second battle of Winchester, Va., in 1864; son of Nathan and Anna Mariah (Quackenbush) Rice; descendant of John Rice (born in England 1646), who settled in Warwick, R. I., in 1661. Mother, Harriet E. (Cook) Rice; daughter of Moses Cook; descendant of Samuel Cook, one of the founders of Wallingford, Conn.; ancestors later moved to Goshen Hartford Public High School Served on Senior Promenade Committee; prepared Class statistics; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Entered United States Patent Office as third assistant examiner January 22, 1883; promoted to second assistant March 20, 1886, and to first assistant March 4, 1887; appointed principal examiner May 3, 1889, and served as such until his resignation April 14, 1898; studied law at Columbian (George Washington) University Law School 1882–84 (LL.B. 1884); admitted to bar of Supreme Court of District of Columbia April 11, 1887, and to practice before United States Supreme Court October 31, 1890; member of firm of Philipp,
Phelps & Sawyer, patent attorneys, in New York City 1898–1900 and then of its successor, Philipp, Sawyer, Rice & Kennedy until his death; among the outstanding cases won for his clients, which claimed international attention were: the Crown Cork & Seal Company’s suit against the Standard Stopper Company, won for the latter company in 1911, sustaining its patent on the crimped bottle cap; the Gillette Safety Razor Company’s suit sustaining their patent in 1909–1911; the Worthington Pump & Machine Corporation’s suit on stone crushing machine patent against the Traylor Manufacturing Company, brought in 1919, sustained by Court of Appeals for the 3d Circuit, and only lately finally disposed of; the suits of the Permutit Company concerning water softeners against the Refinite Company in 1919 and against the Wayne Pump Company in 1926; the suits of the John Simmons Company on the acetylene mine lamp, brought in 1913 and won in 1920; the Scovill Manufacturing Company’s suit concerning a radio condenser; and the American Burtonizing Company’s suits on the Wallerstein chillproofing patents covering a number of years; vice-president of New York Patent Law Association 1925–26; member Loyal Legion

Death due to myocarditis and coronary thrombosis. Buried in Goshen Survived by wife, son, daughter, and a sister, Mrs. Anne R. Kenyon.

Seward Henry Fields, B.A. 1883.

Born June 29, 1861, in Atlanta, Ill.
Died March 27, 1929, in Pinehurst, N C

Father, Samuel Henry Fields, farmer, lumber dealer, and banker; president of Atlanta National Bank; son of Samuel and Eliza (Brooks) Fields; grandson of John Fields, a soldier in the Revolutionary Army; descended from John Chedsey, deacon of first church in New Haven, and a signer of the colony constitution in 1644, and from Henry and John Brooks, who came from Cheshire, England, in 1670, settled in New Haven, and later moved to Cheshire, Conn. Mother, Mary Louisa (Leonard) Fields; daughter of David Hurd and Anna Manning (Merrill) Leonard; great-granddaughter of Giles Jackson, Lieutenant Colonel of 1st Regiment, Berkshire Company, Massachusetts Militia, during the Revolutionary War Yale relatives include: Stephen M. Clement, '82, Norman P Clement, '07, S Merrell Clement, '10, Harold T. Clement, '12, Stuart H. Clement, '17, and Asa C. Barnes, '23 (cousins).

Atlanta (Ill.) High School and Shurtleff College Academy. Second dispute appointments Junior and Senior years; member University Bicycle Association, '83 Gun Club, Class Day Committee, Yacht Club, Elihu Club, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Engaged in lumber business with his father, in Atlanta, 1885-86; assistant cashier, Atlanta National Bank 1887-88; subsequently moved to Salt Lake City, Utah, where with Mr. Fred Walker, he established the Bank of Commerce about 1890; served as cashier and vice-president; part owner of Diamondville Coal Company which was sold to Anaconda Mining Company in 1895; returned to New York after the liquidation of the Bank of Commerce in 1900; private banker and cotton factor in New York City from about 1902 until his retirement in 1914; had since lived in New York summers, and North Carolina winters; had been manager and leader of Glee Club of New York Circle of '83; member Sons of American Revolution in State of New York; gave land for Atlanta Library, and many additional gifts of volumes and funds.

Unmarried

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Atlanta (Ill.) Cemetery. No immediate survivors. Funds totalling $60,000 were bequeathed to the University.
Henry Anthon Forchheimer, B.A. 1883.

Born October 6, 1861, in Mobile, Ala
Died November 18, 1928, in Mobile, Ala.

Father, Manuel Forchheimer, a merchant; born in Hersdorf, Bavaria, and attended a rabbinical college in Germany; came to this country in 1842 from Hersdorf and settled in Mobile; founder of M. Forchheimer & Company, wholesale grocers, importers, and exporters in Mobile; son of Simon and Emma (Mayerfeldt) Forchheimer. Mother, Antoinette (Koch) Forchheimer; born in Mainz, Germany; daughter of Anthon and Bertha (Lipman) Koch.

Hopkins Grammar School. First colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon

Connected with firm of M. Forchheimer & Company and its successor, the M. Forchheimer Grocery Company, Inc., since graduation; confidential clerk 1883–85; became member of firm 1886; vice-president and general manager of the company since its incorporation in 1914; in San Francisco engaged in the firm's business 1889–1891; in 1894 made an extensive trip through Latin-American countries to establish trade relations; president of Wilmer Pure Cane Syrup & Farming Company of Mobile County about 1909–1911; first vice-president Alabama Wholesale Grocers' Association 1903–08 and of Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association 1907–09; first chairman of trade commission of Mobile Chamber of Commerce 1913–15; chairman of trade commission of fifteen sent to Central America to promote commercial relations 1913; delegate from Alabama to National Gold Standard Democratic Convention in Indianapolis, Ind., 1896; Lieutenant Colonel on staff of Governor of Alabama 1915; during the war served as member of U. S. Food Administration for Alabama, president of Alabama Navigation Association, chairman of Southern Division of Alabama first Red Cross drive, member of executive committee and cashier of second Red Cross drive of Mobile city and county, and member of Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. Recreation Fund committees, and European War Sufferers Committee; member of Russian Jewish Relief Committee 1904–06; president of Congregation Shaarai Shomayim, Mobile, since February, 1928.
Obituary Record

Married November 22, 1888, in San Francisco, Miriam, daughter of Ferdinand and Setta (Lippman) Haber. Children: Marion Haber, University of Pennsylvania ex-'11, and Edith Vera, the wife of Mendel Pokorny Goldstein, Tulane University ex-'12.

Death due to hypertrophy of the prostate. Buried in Shaarai Shomayim Cemetery, Mobile. Survived by wife, son, daughter, three grandchildren, and a brother, Louis Forchheimer, of Mobile.

Daniel Stimson Knowlton, B.A. 1883.

Born September 19, 1861, in Alfred, Maine
Died November 26, 1928, in Brookline, Mass

Father, George Henry Knowlton, a lawyer; judge of probate in Alfred; one of three owners and editorial writer of Portland Press; son of Josiah and Lucy Maria (Lowd) Knowlton; descendant of Samuel Witt, who came to America in 1676. Mother, Mary Abby (Pilsbury) Knowlton; daughter of Samuel and Jane Elizabeth (Sutherland) Pilsbury; descendant of John Pilsbury, who settled in Lowell, Mass.

Phillips-Andover. Oration appointments Junior and Senior years; on Class, Apollo, and University Glee clubs; member Senior Promenade Committee, Delta Kappa, and Psi Upsilon.

Took graduate work in political economy at Yale 1883–84; employed in office and editorial work for New Haven Register 1884–85; in 1885 purchased Boston Sunday Times and was its editor and publisher until 1894, when he became secretary and chief clerk at the Boston Customs House; served as such until 1910; treasurer of Egremont Marble Company, Boston, 1906–1911; editorial secretary to the executive officers of United Shoe Machinery Company of Boston 1911–1928; compiled and arranged a series of calendars for that company: Lincoln (1920), Pilgrim (1921), Washington (1922), Calendar of the Constitution of the United States (1923), Laws, Liberties and Rights (1924), Calendar for Americans (1925), New England (1926), Voyages and Discoveries (1927), Franklin (1928), and Rivers, Lakes and Mountains (1929); correspondent for New York Times 1891; editor of In the Early Eighties and Since with Yale '83 (1923); clerk of the vestry of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Brookline, at time of death.

Married January 19, 1887, in New Haven, Alice Maria, daughter of Joseph Lacey and Harriet Ann (Rhodes) Joyce, and sister of Harry L. Joyce, '94 S. Children. George Kemp-тон (died in infancy); Joyce (B.A. Smith 1911), the wife of William H. Zinsser (B.A. Princeton 1909); and Hugh (B.A 1914; LL B. Harvard 1921).

Death due to lobar pneumonia. Cremation took place at Forest Hills Crematory, Boston, and the ashes were buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Biddeford, Maine. Survived by wife, daughter, one son, and seven grandchildren.

Born February 18, 1859, in Pittsburgh, Pa
Died July 31, 1928, in Pittsburgh, Pa

Father, Alexander Mitchell; partner of Samuel Martin Kier in a steamship company on the Ohio River. Mother, Henrietta (Keller) Mitchell.

Hopkins Grammar School. Member Junior Promenade Committee, Senior Class Supper Committee, Delta Kappa, Eta Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and a founder of Wolf's Head.

Studied at Columbia Law School for a time after graduation from Yale and then took a trip around the world; admitted to Allegheny County Bar December 24, 1887, and practiced law in Pittsburgh until his retirement in 1900; school director of 22d ward, Pittsburgh, three years; had spent much time in Florida since 1900; attended Shady Side Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh.

Married December 12, 1889, in Pittsburgh, Margaret MacLeod, daughter of Judge Christopher Magee (B.A. University of Pennsylvania 1849, LL B 1852) and Louise (MacLeod) Magee. One daughter, Elizabeth Louise MacLeod, the wife of John Stephens Jenkins (M.D. McGill University 1912). Mrs. Mitchell died November 13, 1894.

Death due to myocarditis. Buried in Allegheny Cemetery, Pittsburgh. Survived by daughter
Obituary Record

Born March 30, 1863, in New Haven, Conn.
Died December 5, 1928, in Providence, R. I.

Father, Leopold Gruener; born in Hitzkofen, Province of Hohenzollern, Germany; came to America in 1851 and settled in New Haven, where he was an upholsterer; son of Matthaeus and Martina (Pfeifer) Gruener. Mother, Katharina Elisabeth (Kern) Gruener; born in Morscheim, Rhenish Palatinate, Germany; daughter of Christian Kern, who left Germany after the Revolution of 1848, and Eva Katharine (Hoffmann) Kern. Yale relatives include three nephews: Leopold Gruener, '19, and James C. and Theodore Gruener, both '24.

New Haven High School. First Berkeley Premium for Latin composition Freshman year; first Winthrop Prize Junior year; Woolsey Scholar three years; philosophical oration appointment Junior year; valedictorian of his Class; member Freshman Debating Society, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Psi Upsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Studied in Yale Graduate School 1884–86 (held Clark and Foote scholarships); instructor in German at Yale 1885–87; studied at University of Berlin 1887–88 (two semesters) and at University of Munich (first semester) and University of Berlin (second semester) 1888–89; tutor in German at Yale 1889–1892, assistant professor of German 1892–97, professor of German 1897–1924, and Leavenworth professor of the German language and literature since 1924; chairman of Department of Germanic Languages 1918–1928 and reappointed in October, 1928, for three years; on leave of absence during 1893–94 on account of ill health; during a second leave of absence in 1904–05 studied at University of Berlin; Ph.D. Yale 1896; Litt.D. Washington College (Md.) 1909; lectured at Columbia University under auspices of The Germanistic Society of America on Schiller's Wilhelm Tell 1908; edited three German novels with introduction and notes: Gottfried Keller's Die Teggen (1892), Hermann Sudermann's Frau Sorge (1900; revised edition with vocabulary 1911); and E. T. W. Hoffmann's Das Fraulein von Scuderi (1907); also edited German exercises and verb lists and wrote numerous technical articles on German literature for Publications of the Modern Language Association, Modern Philology, and German Classics of the 19th and 20th Centuries; first vice-president of Modern Language Association of America 1909; elected member of its executive council and editorial committee 1924 and reelected 1926 for term ending January 1, 1930; charter member of New England Modern Language Association 1903 and had served as member of governing board of its Connecticut group; active participant in work of College Entrance Examination Board 1910–17 (associate examiner in German until 1916 and then chief examiner in German); chiefly through his efforts that the Board’s comprehensive examination in German was organized and developed; vice-president of Germanic Museum Association of Harvard 1901; member of governing board 1902–05, and board of admissions 1911–12 of Graduates Club, New Haven; member New Haven Board of Education 1915–17; had served in the New Haven Grays, Company F, 2d Regiment, Connecticut National Guard; member American Association of University Professors, Connecticut Academy of Arts and Sciences, Goethe Gesellschaft in Weimar, German Society of the City of New Haven (an aid society), of which he was a director at time of death, and New Haven Chamber of Commerce; attended United Church, New Haven, and the Church of Christ in Yale University.

Unmarried.

Death due to uremia; had been ill since early in October. Funeral services were held in Battell Chapel and burial took place in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by four brothers, Edward O. Gruener, of Boston, Henry R. Gruener, senior assistant in Yale University Library, Hippolyte Gruener, '91, and Alfred G. Gruener, of Fitchburg, Mass.

Oliver McKee, B.A. 1884.

Born May 2, 1861, in Brooklyn, N Y.
Died August 29, 1928, in Randolph, N H.

Father, Joseph McKee, a merchant; born in Ireland and came to America about 1850, settling in Brooklyn. Mother, Lydia (Dodds) McKee.
Obituary Record

Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. Entered Yale with Class of 1883, with which he remained three years; joined Class of 1884 in fall of 1882; member of '83 Freshman Baseball Nine, '84 Baseball Nine Senior year, and University Nine Junior and Senior years; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Hé Boulé, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Wolf's Head, of which he was a founder.

Spent the year 1884–85 as a salesman in the South, representing the bicycle company of which his brother, Joseph McKee, was the head; on the reporting staff of New Haven Morning News and correspondent for New York Evening Post and the Sun 1885–86; connected with New York World 1886–1892, at first as a reporter in the New York office and from 1887 as New England correspondent in Boston; managing editor of Boston Traveler 1892–93; assistant editor of New York Sunday World 1893–96 and of New York Sunday Journal 1896–99; connected with staff of Daily Mail in London as an editor of the Sunday edition in 1899; associated with Encyclopedia Britannica 1899–1919, with his headquarters in London until 1910 (although in charge of the company's interests in Calcutta 1901–02, in Tokyo 1903, 1905–06, and 1908–09, and in Tientsin 1906–07, and on the editorial staff in New York office 1903–05); advertising manager of the Encyclopedia in New York, conducting the nation wide campaign for the eleventh edition, 1910–19; managing editor of Harper's Pictorial History of the World War 1919–1920; had since been connected with New York office of Yale University Press as assistant editor of The Pageant of America; member American Historical Association and St. John's Episcopal Church, Pleasantville, N. Y.

Married November 11, 1886, in Litchfield, Conn., Julia Lucretia, daughter of Alvin and Elvira (McNeill) Wilber. Children: Wilber (B.A 1909, LL.B. Columbia 1923); Dorothy (B.A Vassar 1912, M.A. Columbia 1916), the wife of John W. Kirkpatrick (B.A. Western Reserve 1910); Oliver, Jr. (B.A 1915); and Elmore McNeill (B.A. 1919, B.D. 1921).

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Kensico Cemetery, Westchester County, N. Y. Survived by wife, daughter, three sons, and four grandchildren.
Edward Isaac Sanford, B.A. 1884.

Born December 12, 1861, in New Haven, Conn
Died August 20, 1928, in New York City

Father, Edward Isaac Sanford (B.A. 1847, LL.B. 1849), a lawyer in New Haven; state senator, judge of Superior Court of Connecticut; son of Ehhu and Susan (Howell) Sanford, descendant of Thomas Sanford, who came from Gloucester, England, with the Winthrop colony in 1632–33, settled in Dorchester, Mass., and was a founder of Milford, Conn., 1639. Mother, Sarah Jane (Lyon) Sanford; daughter of Hanford and Hettie Ann (Thompson) Lyon. Yale relatives include three cousins: Henry T. Shelton, ’84, Dr. Leonard C Sanford, ’90, and William F Sanford, ’28

Hopkins Grammar School. Sang in College Choir, Class Glee Club two years, and University Glee Club two years, member of Tale Record board, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Psi Upsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Studied in Hanover and Göttingen, Germany, 1884–85 and then entered Yale School of Law (LL.B. 1887); admitted to the bar in New York City 1887 and practiced law there until 1907; associated with firm of Hornblower, Byrne & Taylor until 1902; since his retirement from active practice had spent much of his time abroad, chiefly in London and Paris, where he lived from 1908 to 1914 and from 1922 to 1925; had made his home at the University Club in New York for about three years before his death; active member of Indian Harbor Yacht Club of Greenwich, Conn., and built and sailed the yawl “Maya.”

Married June 13, 1893, in New York City, Amy, daughter of George and Elizabeth (Johnston) Bradish. No children

Mrs. Sanford died April 22, 1899.

Death, due to arteriosclerosis and bronchitis, occurred in his sleep. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by a nephew, Sanford L. Hotchkiss, ex-'03 S.
Obituary Record

John Trumbull Swift, B.A. 1884.

Born April 3, 1861, in Colchester, Conn
Died August 14, 1928, in Tokyo, Japan.

Bacon Academy, Colchester. Second dispute appointments Junior and Senior years; member of Class Crew Junior year and captain of Dunham Boat Club Senior year; member Delta Kappa and Delta Kappa Epsilon; secretary of Class of 1884 from 1884 to 1888.

Assistant secretary of Y. M. C. A. in New York City 1884-85 and general secretary in Orange, N. J., 1885-88; instructor in English language and literature in Presbyterian College, Tokyo, 1888-89; first Y. M. C. A. secretary for Japan under International Board at Tokyo 1889-1898; studied in Yale Graduate School 1898-1900 (M.A. 1900); recalled to Tokyo in 1900 by the Japanese Government to become professor of English in the Tokyo Higher Commercial College (now Tokyo University of Commerce) on a three years' contract, which was renewed four times; lecturer on the English language in Tokyo Imperial University 1900-1927; correspondent in Japan for New York Sun 1904-1911 and for Laffan's Bureau in Tokyo for four years (during Russo-Japanese War and after); also served during that war as honorary secretary of Perry Relief Association of Japan, organized by American residents to help families of Japanese soldiers and sailors; acting chief of Tokyo Bureau of Associated Press winters of 1917-19; editor of America-Japan 1920-22; during World War served as member of executive committee of American War Relief Fund in Japan 1917-18 and vice-president and acting president of Japan chapter of American Red Cross 1919; president of American Association of Japan 1915 and 1916 and president and member of executive committee of the Yokohama branch; president of American Association of Tokyo 1919 and 1920 and custodian 1923-26; councillor of Asiatic Society of Japan and its vice-president 1915; councillor of American Japan Society; member of executive committee of International Press Association; acting secretary of Yale Alumni Association of Japan for several years and later honorary secretary; also second vice-president 1913, 1917, 1919, 1921, and 1924; on committee of Tokyo Club for many years, decorated by Emperor of Japan with 4th Order of the Sacred Treasure 1915, with 4th Order of the Rising Sun 1922 and raised to the rank of Chokunin, and with 3rd Order of the Sacred Treasure at time of death; member St. Andrew's (Church of England) Church, Tokyo.

Married April 25, 1889, in East Orange, N. J., Isabel Wallace, daughter of George Augustus and Alida Antoinette (Ward) Newman. Children: Alida (Mrs. Fred E. Carver); Dorothy (died in infancy); Everest Lathrop; David Wallace, who attended University of Virginia 1913-15, leaving to enter the Navy; Paul Tennant (died in infancy); Carolyn Elisabeth; Howard Newman (B.A. Stanford University 1926); and Leonora Parsons.

Death due to injuries sustained in a street accident two years before. Buried in Foreign Cemetery, Bluff, Yokohama. Survived by wife, three sons, three daughters, and a sister, Mrs. Daniel W. Willard (Caroline L.), of Carmel-by-the-Sea, Calif.
Manly Dayton Ormes, B.A. 1885.

Born April 25, 1858, in Tuscola, Mich.
Died January 13, 1929, at Colorado Springs, Colo

Father, Orson Jonathan Ormes, a pioneer farmer and contractor; son of Jonathan Ormes, Jr., and Lucinda Brown (Cutter) Ormes; grandson of Jonathan Ormes, who settled in Windham, Conn., in 1764, was a Private in the Revolutionary War and General of Vermont Militia in War of 1812. Mother, Harriet Angeline (Toogood) Ormes; daughter of Charles Toogood Flint (Mich.) High School. Second dispute appointments Junior and Senior years; president of Class Debating Society Freshman year, chairman of Class Picture Committee Senior year, member Psi Upsilon.

Private tutor in New York City 1885–86 and in New Haven 1886–87; studied in Yale Divinity School 1886–89 (B.D. 1889), during his course in the Divinity School spent summer vacations in home missionary work in Colorado, and in 1889, following his ordination to the ministry on August 18, organized Second Congregational Church at Colorado Springs, of which he was pastor until 1904; during that period served in 1889 as scribe of the conference at Greeley of Colorado State Association of Congregational Churches, and for a number of years as president of El Paso County Bible Society; since 1904 had been librarian of the Coburn Library of Colorado College; under his direction much valuable historical material was added to the library, and he was recognized as an authority on historical events of Pike's Peak region; president of Colorado Librarians' Association 1919–1920 (chairman of executive committee); served on Colorado Springs School Board 1897–1902 (president in 1899); president of Colorado Springs branch of the Archaeological Society 1917–1924, deacon of First Congregational Church since 1907; trustee of Colorado Congregational Association 1918–1922; moderator of the conference of State Association of Congregational Churches 1918–19 and member of board of directors of the conference 1921–22.

Married May 6, 1890, in Philadelphia, Pa., Jane Eleanor, daughter of Archibald and Rachel Jane (Ferguson) Reddie.
Children: Ferguson Reddie (B.A. Colorado College 1912 and Yale 1913; M.A. University of Chicago 1925); Jean Harriet (B.A. Colorado 1915), the wife of Ellsworth L. Guy (B.A. University of Chicago 1915); Margaret Rachel (died in childhood); Eleanor Frances (B.A. Smith 1921), the wife of Paul E. Chopard (B.A. Hiram College 1920, M.A. Columbia 1925); and Robert Manly (B.A. Colorado 1926, M.A. 1927).

Death due to broncho-pneumonia, following an attack of influenza. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Colorado Springs. Survived by wife, two sons, two daughters, five grandchildren, and two brothers, Lester C. Ormes, of Cripple Creek, Colo., and Guy Nelson Ormes, of Vassar, Mich.

Edwin Wales Robertson, B.A. 1885.

Born September 3, 1863, in Columbia, S. C.
Died November 20, 1928, in New York City.

Father, Thomas James Robertson (B.A. South Carolina College 1843), a planter; United States senator; member South Carolina State Constitutional Convention; grandson of Joseph Robertson, who moved to South Carolina from Virginia, where his ancestors had settled. Mother, Mary Ophelia (Caldwell) Robertson; daughter of John and Rebecca (Wells) Caldwell; descendant of John Caldwell (whose ancestors fled from France to Ireland after the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes and thence to America), who settled on Caldwell Creek, S. C., and was an officer in the Revolutionary Army. Yale relatives include John C. Calhoun (B.A. 1804).

Emerson Institute, Washington, D. C., and Hopkins Grammar School. Secretary and treasurer of '85 Football Club; member Dunham Boat Club, Gamma Nu, and Psi Upsilon.

Studied law at University of South Carolina 1885-87 (LL.B. 1887); admitted to bar in May, 1887, and practiced law in Columbia until 1894; during two years of that time was a member of firm of Robertson & Moore; in 1892 was an organizer of the Canal Dime Savings Bank of Columbia (name changed to Canal Bank in 1895), which was merged with Loan & Exchange Bank of Columbia under name of Loan & Exchange Bank of South Carolina in 1898; served as president of the latter bank (with which the Central National Bank was merged in 1902) and its successor (in 1903), the National Loan & Exchange Bank of Columbia, 1898–1927 and had since been chairman of its board of directors; president of Columbia Savings Bank & Trust Company 1909–1910 and Columbia Real Estate & Trust Company from its organization in 1901 until his death; in 1904 secured control of and reorganized Columbia Electric Street Railway, Light & Power Company and served as its president until 1924 (name changed to Columbia Railway, Gas & Electric Company in 1911); in 1911 the latter company acquired the stock of the Columbia Gas Light Company, leased its property, and operated it until 1924; in 1912, with associates, acquired control of Parr Shoals Power Company and served as its president and treasurer until 1924; president of Union-Buffalo Mills Company March–November, 1906, and then treasurer until April, 1907; president of Union Manufacturing & Power Company of Union, S. C., 1906–07 and of Carolina Mills Company; vice-president of Olympia & Capital City Cotton Mills; vice-president and member of board of directors of Standard Warehouse Company of Columbia from its organization in 1905 until his death; receiver of Union & Glenn Springs Railroad Company 1905; director of State Bank & Trust Company 1900–03, of Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States since 1905, South Carolina & Georgia Railroad Company 1895–1902, and First National Bank of Batesburg, S. C.; responsible for construction of numerous buildings in Columbia and elsewhere, including National State Bank (1893), National Loan & Exchange Bank (1903) and addition (1926), Columbia Savings Bank & Trust Company (1906), Berkeley Apartments and Craven Hall (1903), Arcade Building (1911), building for Columbia Record (1913), Standard Warehouse Company’s building No. 1 (1898), gas plants (1906 and 1922), car barns for street railway system (1911), dam and hydroelectric power house of Parr Shoals Power Company (1913–14) and its substation in Columbia (1914), and a number of residences; served as chairman for South Carolina in first four Liberty Loan drives and as chairman of Fifth Federal Reserve District, with headquarters in Richmond, Va., in Victory Loan drive; member Yale Alumni Advisory Board 1913–1924; president of Associated Southern Yale Clubs 1921–23; chairman of Southeastern Division in Yale Endowment Campaign 1927; member of Yale Committee for Participation in the Restoration of the Library of the University of Louvain 1924; member of Chamber of Commerce of the United States (committee on foreign relations), Southern Settlement and Development organization (executive committee), executive council of American Bankers’ Association, South Carolina State Bankers’ Association (president 1903–04), South Carolina Bar Association, Law Association of the University of South Carolina (former president), American Sons of the Revolution, and Trinity Episcopal Church, Columbia; in 1913 thirty-eight of the surviving eighty members of the Class of ’85 were Mr. Robertson’s guests for a week on a sight-seeing trip through South Carolina.

Married September 29, 1886, in Kennebunkport, Maine, Evelyn Perkins, daughter of Joseph Augustus and Frances Eveline (Perkins) Titcomb. Children: Evelyn Perkins, the wife of Joseph B. S. Lyles (B.A. South Carolina University 1905, LL.B. Harvard 1908); Helen (Mrs. Edward B. Cantey); Frances, the wife of Basil Hwoschinsky, a graduate of the Imperial Naval Academy in St. Petersburg, Russia, in 1908, and Thomas James, ’21.

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Elmwood Cemetery, Columbia. Survived by wife, son, three daughters, and nine grandchildren.

Sharswood Brinton, B.A. 1886.

Born March 25, 1865, at “Hardwicke,” Lancaster County, Pa

Father, John Ferree Brinton (B.A. 1848), a lawyer; son of Judge Ferree Brinton and Elizabeth (Sharpless) Brinton; descendant of William Brinton, who came to America from Nether Gournall, parish of Sedgeley, Staffordshire, England, in 1684 and settled in Chester County, Pa., near the Brandywine River. Mother, Anna (Binney) Brinton; daughter of York Collegiate Institute. Won fencing event of winter athletic games Senior year; served on Senior Promenade Committee, member Gamma Nu, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Wolf's Head.
Obituary Record

Studied law in office of Judge William W. Wiltbank in Philadelphia 1886–88; admitted to Philadelphia Bar 1888 and had since practiced law in Philadelphia; in independent practice 1888–89; in 1889 became associated with firm of Hughes & Eyre and in 1891 made member of the firm, which then became Hughes, Eyre & Brinton, and continued in that connection until 1893; admitted to bar of Supreme Court of Pennsylvania 1891; practiced alone 1893–95; assistant to Messrs. George Tucker Bispham, A. H. Winsteen, and John Hampton Barnes, '81, 1895–1906; became their partner in 1906 and continued in that relation until 1917 (with latter two after Mr. Bispham's death); partner with John Hampton Barnes 1917–1922; partner in firm of Barnes, Biddle & Morris 1922–28 and of its successor, Barnes, Brinton & Biddle, from 1928 until his death; had been counsel (with his partners) for Pennsylvania Railroad Company, Girard Trust Company, Philadelphia National Bank, Westmoreland Coal Company, and Giant Portland Cement Company; editor of ninth edition of Bispham's Principles of Equity 1909; member Law Association of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania State Bar Association, and American Bar Association; vestryman of Old St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Philadelphia, since 1911 and rector's warden since 1927 (chairman of committee on grounds and buildings 1919–1922 and member of budget committee since 1927); alternate delegate to Diocesan Convention in Philadelphia 1924 and delegate to each annual convention since 1925.

Married June 16, 1904, in Lakewood, N. J., Gertrude, daughter of William White and Edith (Brinton) Wiltbank. No children.

Death due to acute bronchitis. Buried in Old St. Peter’s Churchyard. Survived by wife, two brothers, Ferree Brinton, ’82, and Binney Brinton, of Tucson, Ariz., and a sister, Mrs. Anne Binney Hancock, the wife of James Hancock (B.A. Princeton 1888), of St. David’s, Pa.

Francis Asbury Christian, B.A. 1886.

Born December 18, 1863, in Canandaigua, N.Y.
Died March 31, 1929, in Canandaigua, N.Y.

Canandaigua Academy. Entered Yale with Class of 1884 and spent two years with it; took Sophomore and Junior years with Class of 1885 and Senior year with Class of 1886 (at his home in Canandaigua during 1884—85); played on ’84 Class Nine Freshman year and on Freshman Nine of ’85, member Kappa Sigma Epsilon and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Read law at his home in Canandaigua 1886—1892 and admitted to New York State Bar in 1892; had since practiced law in Canandaigua; senior partner in Christian & Thompson since 1900; had served as justice of the peace, city attorney, and secretary of Ontario County Bar; director and attorney of Ontario County Trust Company since 1917; trustee of Ontario Orphan Asylum, secretary of Memorial Hospital, and clerk of First Congregational Church; charter member of Rotary Club (vice-president June—October, 1921, and then president for two years); director of Canandaigua Y. M. C. A and Canandaigua Country Club.

Married October 3, 1896, in Canandaigua, Katherine Isaphine, daughter of Charles and Mary (Meade) VanBuren.

Children: Elizabeth Sherwood and Francis Asbury, Jr., Cornell ’32.

Death due to septic poisoning, following an operation for gangrenous appendix. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery.
Canandaigua Survived by wife, daughter, son, and a sister, Miss Caroline E. Christian, of Canandaigua.

Frederic Wells Hart, B.A. 1887.

Born July 12, 1866, in Plainville, Conn.
Died October 27, 1928, in Berthoud, Colo.

Father, Edward Selah Hart, a carriage trimmer; photographer of daguerreotypes; son of Edward and Viana (Perry) Hart, descendant of Stephen Hart, who came from Braintree, England, to the Massachusetts Bay Colony early in the seventeenth century (about 1632) and later settled in Hartford. Mother, Jane Eliza (Webster) Hart; daughter of Ebenezer Wells and Sarah Jane Webster; descendant of John Webster, who came from England, probably from Warwickshire, was one of the first settlers of Hartford County in 1639, and governor of Connecticut 1656-57, later moved to Massachusetts and founded town of Hadley in 1659.

Hartford Public High School High oration appointment Junior year; oration appointment Senior year; member Class Ivy Committee and Phi Beta Kappa.

Had charge of Howard Avenue Mission of Calvary Baptist Church, New Haven, September, 1887–January, 1888; then moved to Colorado Springs, Colo; ordained to Baptist ministry in 1888 at Fountain, Colo., where he held a pastorate for two years; in 1890 organized First Baptist Church at Colorado City and served as its pastor for a year; acting pastor of Baptist Church, Colorado Springs, 1891–94; pastor at La Junta, Colo, 1894–1900; on account of his health not engaged in the active ministry 1900–1921, but since then had been pastor of the Baptist Church in Berthoud; lived in Cañon City, Colo., 1900–01 and in Denver, Colo, 1901–1921; served on Board of Charities and Corrections of Otero County two years, while living in La Junta.

Married June 14, 1893, in Cañon City, Carrie Emeline, daughter of George Oliver and Maria Celestia (Thompson) Baldwin. Children: Helen Wells, the wife of Rev. John L. Entwisle (M E Stevens Institute of Technology 1912); Edward Baldwin (B A. University of Colorado 1922);
Howard Webster (B.A. University of Michigan 1922; University of Southern California Law School '30); Grace Louise, Colorado Woman's College '30; and Margaret Jean.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Green Lawn Cemetery, Berthoud. Survived by wife, two sons, three daughters, and four grandchildren.

Henry Barnard Brownell, B.A. 1888.

Born November 8, 1865, in East Orange, N. J.
Died January 2, 1929, at Staten Island, N. Y.

Father, Franklin Clinton Brownell; manufacturer of scientific instruments and school equipment; son of James Harvey and Louisa W. (Canfield) Brownell; descendant of Thomas Brownell, who came from Derbyshire, England, in 1639 and settled in Aquidneck, Portsmouth, R. I. Mother, Mary Ballentine (Mather) Brownell; daughter of Epaphros and Lydia (King) Mather; descendant of the Rev. Richard Mather, who came from Lowton, Lancashire, England, in 1635 and settled in Dorchester, Mass.

Hartford Public High School. Member of Trinity College Class of 1888 for a year (1884–85) before entering Yale as a Sophomore in 1885; high oration appointment Junior year; oration appointment and two-year honors in natural and physical science Senior year; member Trinity chapter of Alpha Delta Phi and Yale chapter of Phi Beta Kappa.

Assistant examiner in U. S. Patent Office in Washington 1888–1892, during which time studied law at Georgetown University 1889–1891 (L.L.B. 1890, L.L.M. 1891); admitted to bar of District of Columbia 1891 but in 1892 moved to New York City, where he had since been engaged in practice, making a specialty of patent law; admitted to New York Bar 1896; associated with firm of Mitchell, Hungerford & Bartlett 1892–97; partner in firm of Mitchell, Bartlett & Brownell 1897–1904, Bartlett, Brownell & Mitchell 1904–1915, and Bartlett & Brownell since 1915 (John P. Bartlett, '78 S., also a member); vestryman of Church of the Ascension (Episcopal), West New Brighton, N. Y., 1911–14 and warden 1914–1920; vestryman of Christ Church, New Brighton, since 1923,
Obituary Record

Married October 26, 1899, in Hudson, N. Y., Martha Elizabeth, daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth (Wright) Moffat. Children: Henry Barnard, Jr., ex-'25; Elizabeth Moffat, who studied at New York School of Fine and Applied Arts for two and a half years and received a diploma from the continuation school of that institution in Paris in 1926; and Mary Mather (B.A. Brown University 1928).

Death, due to intestinal carcinoma, occurred at Staten Island Hospital, after a brief illness. Buried in Moravian Cemetery, New Dorp, Richmond Borough, N. Y. Survived by wife, son, two daughters, and three sisters, the Misses Jane L. and Harriet M. Brownell, of Hartford, Conn., and Grace B. Peck, the wife of Epaphroditus Peck, '81 L.

Willard Lamb Velie, B.A. 1888.

Born May 10, 1866, in Moline, Ill
Died October 24, 1928, in Moline, Ill.

Father, Stephen Henry Velie; director and secretary of Deere & Company, manufacturers of farm implements in Moline; ancestors settled in Staatsburg, N. Y. Mother, Emma (Deere) Velie, attended normal department of Rockford Seminary (now college) 1855–56; daughter of John Deere, who came from England and settled in Granville, Vt., and Demanus (Lamb) Deere. Yale relatives include the following cousins: George W. Mixter, '95 S., Willard D. Hosford, '06, Charles Deere Wiman, '14 S., and Dwight Deere Wiman, ex-'18 S.

Phillips-Andover Member Freshman Baseball Team and president of Baseball Association Senior year; member Delta Kappa Epsilon and Wolf's Head.

In January, 1889, became a clerk in firm of Deere & Company, of which his grandfather, John Deere, was the founder; made sales manager July, 1891, and credit man the next October; succeeded his father as a director and secretary of the company in 1895, but resigned the latter position in 1902, when he organized the Velie Carriage Company and became its president and general manager, serving as such until 1911; upon the reorganization of Deere & Company in 1911, again became active in its affairs and assumed the office of chairman of its executive committee, which he continued to hold until 1918; also served as vice-president of all the subsidiaries of the company; organized the Velie Motor Corporation in 1908 and was its president and general manager until his death; president and general manager of the Velie Engineering Corporation since its organization in 1923, president of Velie Monocoupe Aircraft Corporation 1928.

Death due to an embolism and thrombosis of the right ileac artery. Buried in Riverside Cemetery, Moline. Survived by wife, son (died March 20, 1929), daughter, three grandchildren, two brothers, Charles D Velie, of Minneapolis, Minn. (died in January, 1929), and Stephen H Velie, of Kansas City, Mo., and a sister, Mrs. Grace Velie Harris, of Carmel, Calif (died in April, 1929)

Thomas Mitchell Cullinan, B.A. 1889.

Born November 14, 1867, in Springfield, Mass.
Died July 10, 1928, in Bridgeport, Conn.

Father, John Cullinan, a funeral director; born in Ennis, County Clare, Ireland, came to America in 1849, and settled in Springfield. Mother, Catherine (Keating) Cullinan; born in Kilrush, County Clare; daughter of Cornelius and Bridget (Keating) Keating. Yale relatives include: John Keating, ex-76 M., and Bernard Keating, '80 L. (uncles); and Thomas E. Keating, '05 S., and Vincent L. Keating, '13 (cousins).

Bridgeport High School. First dispute appointments Junior and Senior years.

LL B. 1891; formed a law partnership with his brother, John J Cullinan, '87, under firm name of Cullinan & Cullinan in Bridgeport, after his admission to the bar in 1891; in 1915 Vincent L. Keating, ’13, became a member of the firm, the name of which was changed to Cullinan, Cullinan & Keating; Mr. Keating withdrew in 1925, and the firm had since continued as Cullinan & Cullinan; served as corporation counsel of Bridgeport 1901-05 and 1907-1911; president of Connecticut Land & Title Company 1920; director, vice-president, and counsel of Times Publishing Company (publishers of Bridgeport Times, originally Republican Farmer and now Bridgeport Times-Star) 1920-25; director of St. Vincent’s Hospital since 1917; director also of Telegram Publishing Company, Bridgeport Theater Company, and Newfield Development Company, delegate to various Democratic state conventions and to Democratic National Convention at Denver, Colo, 1908; trustee of Bridgeport Community Chest since 1921 and member of its budget committee 1921-25; defeated for mayor of Bridgeport 1925; during World War served as appeal agent for local Draft Board No. 2 in Bridgeport and later in an advisory capacity to the district board; member Bridgeport Bar Association (president 1912) and St. Augustine’s Roman Catholic Church, Bridgeport.

Married October 16, 1901, in Bridgeport, Lucy Agnes, daughter of Michael Edward and Lucy Ann (Blake) Fitzpatrick. Children: Catherine (B.A. Smith 1924) and John Thomas (B.A. Notre Dame 1928), now a student in Yale School of Law.

Death due to cerebral thrombosis and chronic myocarditis. Buried in St. Michael’s Cemetery, Stratford, Conn. Survived by wife, daughter, son, brother, and a sister, Miss Ellen E. Cullinan, of Bridgeport.

Philip Patterson Wells, B.A. 1889.

Born February 5, 1868, in Grand Rapids, Mich
Died March 12, 1929, in San Francisco, Calif.

Father, Lewis Gray Wells, a merchant; in dry goods business in Madison, Wis., and Grand Rapids and in fruit commission business in Baltimore; secretary and treasurer of Turner, Day & Woolworth Manufacturing Company of Louisville, Ky., and Savannah, Ga.; clerk in Quartermaster's Department, U. S. Army; son of Lewis Wheeler and Affa Maria (Gray) Wells; descendant of Thomas Wells (Welles), who came from Essex, England, to Boston in 1635, moved to Saybrook, Conn., in 1636 and to Hartford, Conn., in 1637 and was attaché to Lord Saye and Sele and colonial governor of Connecticut. Mother, Mary Ellen Hubbard (Wetmore) Wells; daughter of Chauncey and Rebecca (Hubbard) Wetmore; descendant of Thomas Whitmore (Wetmore), who came from Bristol, England, to Boston in 1635 and later went to Wethersfield, Conn., and was one of the first settlers of Middletown, Conn., in 1649; descended also from Elder William Brewster of the "Mayflower" company and from the Rev. Timothy Edwards, chaplain of the Colonial Forces of Connecticut in 1711 and father of the Rev. Jonathan Edwards (B.A. 1720). Yale relatives include: John Colton Wells, ex-'19 (nephew); and Rev. James Wetmore (B.A. 1714), G. Peabody Wetmore, '67, Edward Gray, '71, Alliene W. Treadwell, '91, George Gay, L.L.D. 1903, and Albert Woodruff Gray, '04 (cousins).
Tale College

Prepared for college at private schools (Colton and Smith schools in Middletown, Conn., and Professor Chenault's School in Louisville, Ky.). First dispute appointments Junior and Senior years; two-year honors in political science, history, and law; won Cobden Club medal; rowed on Freshman Crew and '89 Class Crew Sophomore and Junior years; member Psi Upsilon.

Graduate student in political and social science and history at Yale, holding Macy fellowship, 1889-1891; student in Yale School of Law 1891-92 (chairman of editorial board of Yale Law Journal June-September, 1892, and member Corbey Court and Phi Delta Phi); attended law school of Columbian (now George Washington) University 1892-93; admitted to Connecticut State Bar in June, 1893; on editorial staff of West Publishing Company, Washington, D. C., editing Supreme Court Reporter, The Federal Reporter, and Federal Cases, 1892-94; practiced law in New Haven 1894-1906, in partnership with Henry G. Newton, '72 L., under firm name of Newton & Wells 1894-96; librarian of Yale School of Law 1896-1906, instructor in evidence 1898-99, and lecturer in history 1902-06; during this period was a founder of the Elihu Club in 1903; Ph.D. Yale 1900; appointed to law department of United States Forest Service in February, 1906, under his classmate, George W. Woodruff, and when latter became assistant attorney-general for Department of the Interior in 1907, appointed to succeed him as chief law officer of the Forest Service; served as such, under Gifford Pinchot, '89, until 1910; counsel for National Conservation Association and also engaged in private law practice in Washington 1910–11; admitted to United States Supreme Court March 14, 1911, and to District of Columbia Supreme Court May 5, 1911; chief law officer of United States Reclamation Service and special adviser to Secretary of the Interior on legal and economic questions concerning the conservation of natural resources, including those on public and Indian lands, '11–13; practiced law in Washington 1913–17 and in Middletown, Conn., and Washington 1917–1923, deputy attorney-general of Pennsylvania 1923–27; during that time served as member of Giant Power Survey Board 1923–25 and as its chairman the next year, as member of Delaware River Treaty Commission 1924–26, and as counsel for Water and Power Resources Board 1923–27 and for Sanitary Water Board 1923–25; counsellor in conservation matters to Gifford Pinchot in Washington since 1927; author of papers and addresses on conservation of natural resources in Proceedings of the Academy of Political Science, National Municipal Review, Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science, Journal of Forestry, Giant Power Number of Survey Graphic, and other publications, and on legal and bibliographical subjects in American and English Encyclopedia of Law (second edition) and Yale Law Journal; joint editor and reporter of sundry law reports; author. "Proposals for Legislation" in Giant Power Report (1925); joint author (with W. Dawson Johnston) of Annotated Titles of Books on English and American History (1898–1904); editor: Literature of American History, supplement for 1900–01 (1902), E. J. Payne's Colonies of the World (revised and partly rewritten) (1907, 1913, 1916), and Déberlé's South America (translated from the French and edited) (1907, 1913, 1916); joint editor: Young Folks' Library (1903) and American Law Association Catalogue (1904); member Company F, 2d Regiment, Connecticut National Guard, 1889–1892 and of 1st Division, Connecticut Naval Militia, 1894–97; during World War served on Draft Advisory Board in Middletown; member American Political Science Association, American, Connecticut State, and Middlesex County Bar associations, American Forestry Association, Connecticut Forestry Association (now Connecticut Forest and Park Association) (became annual member 1920, life member 1924, and vice-president and chairman of committee on private forest owners and the public, and member of committee on forest policy 1920; president of association 1921–23, member of executive committee 1923–26), Society for the Protection of New Hampshire Forests, American Association for the Advancement of Science, American Historical Association, Middlesex County Historical Society, and South Congregational Church, Middletown; associate member Society of American Foresters.
Obituary Record

Death, due to staphylococcus meningitis, following a long illness, occurred at St. Luke's Hospital, San Francisco. Buried in Indian Hill Cemetery, Middletown. Survived by wife, son, daughter, a granddaughter, three brothers, Hubert W. Wells, '89, Ernest H. Wells, '93, and Chauncey W. Wells, '96, and a half brother, James L. Wells, of Atlanta, Ga.

George Newton Lawson, B.A. 1890.

Born July 2, 1865, in Union, Conn
Died January 12, 1929, in Middle Haddam, Conn

Father, Edwin Newton Lawson, a farmer; held various town offices; son of Paul and Lydia (Holman) Lawson; descendant of John Lawson, who came from Linlithgow, Scotland, about 1724 (wrecked off the coast of Nova Scotia) to Worcester, Mass., and moved to Union, Conn., in 1728. Mother, Sarah Ellen (Corbin) Lawson; daughter of Penuel and Mary (Chamberlain) Corbin; descendant of Clement Corbin, who is said to have come from the west of England (called a Welshman) in 1637, settled at Muddy River (now Brookline), Mass., but moved to Woodstock, Conn., in 1687. Hitchcock High School, Brimfield, Mass.

Attendant at Connecticut State Hospital in summer of 1891; M.D. Yale 1892; had practiced medicine in Middle Haddam, in town of East Hampton (called Chatham until 1915), since 1892, being in partnership with Dr. Albert B. Worthington (M.D. 1847) until 1897; medical examiner for East Hampton 1893–1927 and health officer of the town 1901–1925; an incorporator of Middlesex County Hospital in 1895; and associate county consultant since; councillor of Middlesex County Medical Society 1912–1921 (delegate to Vermont Medical Society's meeting 1896); former vice-president of Anti-Tuberculosis Society; member East Hampton School Board 1915–1924; secretary and treasurer of Middle Haddam Public Library 1893–1908, when it became Middle Haddam Public Library, Inc., and then secretary, treasurer, and director until his resignation on account of ill health 1927; selectman 1905–06, justice of the peace 1911 and 1912 and notary public since 1919; first vice-president of East Hampton Bank & Trust Company in 1915 and a director since then; deacon of Second Congregational Church, Middle Haddam, since 1895 and chairman of the Society's committee many years, president of Middlesex County Christian Endeavor Union 1895; during the war served as a member for Middlesex County of Committee on Sanitation and Medicine of Connecticut State Council of Defense, as member of Auxiliary Medical Defense Committee for Middlesex County and of Legal Advisory Committee for town of East Hampton, and as medical examiner for drafted men, examining surgeon for the Home Guard, chairman for Middle Haddam of Home Service Committee of the Red Cross and of committee in Middle Haddam for two Red Cross drives, and director for town of East Hampton of campaign for raising funds for libraries for soldiers and sailors; director of Connecticut Public Health Association since its formation in 1916; contributor to Proceedings of Connecticut State Medical Society and Yale Medical Journal, member American Medical Association and Middletown (Conn.) Medical Society.

Married June 17, 1897, in Middle Haddam, Ida Louise, daughter of Daniel Nicholas and Mary Gardner (Hurd) McLean, of Chatham. Children: George McLean, '24 M.; Donald Hurd (B.S. Connecticut State Agricultural College 1923); and Clement Corbin, '25 S.

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Union Hill Cemetery, Middle Haddam. Survived by wife, three sons, a brother, Rev. Harvey M. Lawson, '90 S., and a sister, Mrs. Susie M. L. McCrea (B.A. Mount Holyoke 1898), of Middle Haddam.

Walter Irenæus Lowe, B.A. 1890.

Born January 30, 1867, in Ilion, N.Y.
Died February 21, 1929, in Winter Park, Fla.

Father, Irenæus Hezekiah Low, a machinist; member of Massachusetts Legislature in 1894; president of Whitinsville (Mass.) Republican Club; son of Thomas Semington and Susan (Decker) Low; descendant of Thomas Low, who came from County of Londonderry, North Ireland, in 1660 and settled in New York state. Mother, Jane Anne (Griffith) Low; daughter of Henry Perry Griffith, who came from Anglesea, North Wales, in 1831 and settled in Utica, N.Y., and Elizabeth (Pritchard) Griffith.

Williston Academy. Second dispute appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year and one-year honors in political science, history, and law; sang on Freshman Glee Club; member Mott Haven Team Junior year and Tug of War Team of Intercollegiate Athletic Team Senior year.

Taught at Morris Academy, Morristown, N. J., 1890–91; took graduate work in history and political science at Yale 1891–94 (Foote Scholarship 1891–92 and Woolsey Scholarship 1892–93; Ph.D. 1897); during that period taught at Williams Memorial Institute, New London, Conn., during winter of 1891–92 and served as principal of New Haven Night School 1892–95; instructor in history at Yale 1892–1900; professor of history and political and social science at Wells College 1900-1920; had since been professor of history at Colgate University, on leave of absence for a year at time of death; attended lectures at universities of Munich and London and Oxford University while on leave of absence 1911–12; in 1925 made a trip around the world, and lectured before Yenching University and the mayor’s staff in Peiping and before various mission schools and churches in China and India; served with Y M. C. A in France December, 1918–July, 1919, as director of educational work; with 7th Division of the 2d Army at Saizerais and member of the history faculty of A. E. F. University at Beaune; earlier in the war was manager of Wells College farm and a Four-Minute speaker; author: Wells College and Its Founders (1901); had contributed historical monographs, literary articles, poems, and book reviews to American Historical Review, Yale Review, New York Observer, and other magazines, member American Historical Association, American Political Science Association, and American Association of University Professors; elder Presbyterian Church, Aurora, N. Y., 1910–1920; trustee and member First Baptist Church, Hamilton, N. Y., since 1927.

Married June 6, 1894, in Morristown, N. J., Catherine Young, daughter of Enoch Todd and Mary Adelaide (Young) Caskey. Two daughters: Catherine Caskey (B.A. Mount Holyoke 1916, M.A. Columbia 1923), who married the Rev. Laurence M. Sears (B.A. Princeton 1918) and died in 1926; and Elizabeth Pritchard (B.A. Mount Holyoke 1920), the wife of Sidney D. Gamble (Litt.B Princeton 1912, M.A. University of California 1916).

Death due to apoplexy. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Morristown. Survived by wife, one daughter, two grandchildren, mother, and a sister, Miss Grace E. Low, of Worcester, Mass.

Charles Sheldon, B.A. 1890.

Born October 17, 1867, in Rutland, Vt.
Died September 21, 1928, in Kedgemakooge, Nova Scotia.

Father, John Alexander Sheldon, a marble manufacturer, treasurer of Sheldon Marble Company; mayor and postmaster of Rutland; member Vermont House of Representatives; attained rank of Captain in Civil War, and served on staff of General Grant; son of Charles and Janet Somerville (Reid) Sheldon; descendant of Isaac Sheldon, who came from England and settled in Windsor, Conn., in 1640. Mother, Caroline Amelia (Eastman) Sheldon; daughter of Augustus Mortimer and Mary Jane (Hatfield) Eastman; descendant of Roger Eastman, who was born in Wales in 1611 and died in Salisbury, Mass., in 1694; descended also from Matthias Hatfield, who came to America in 1765 and settled in Elizabethton, N. J. Yale relatives include. George P. Sheldon, '67, and Richard K. Sheldon, '69 (uncles); and Lewis P. Sheldon, '96, Richard Sheldon, ex-'98 S, and Waldo Sheldon, '06 S. (cousins)

Phillips-Andover. First colloquy appointment Senior year, winner of Cobden Club Medal; on Freshman Crew and president of Varsity Boat Club; member Eta Phi, Psi Upsilon, and Scroll and Key.

In employ of Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railroad Company 1890-94, in Chicago for a few months and later as assistant superintendent at Toledo, Ohio (1890-92), and at Elkhart, Ind. (1892-94); general manager and treasurer of Consolidated Car Heating Company in Albany 1894-99; general manager of Chihuahua & Pacific Railroad Company and Chihuahua & Pacific Exploration Company 1899-1903, when he retired from business; since 1904 had been engaged in exploring and hunting big game in Alaska, the Yukon, British Columbia, the United States, and Mexico, in gathering information and specimens for the scientific study series of the U.S. Biological Survey, and in natural history work for Smithsonian Institution; author: The Wilderness of the Upper Yukon (1911) and The Wilderness of the North Pacific Coast Islands (1919); at his death left practically completed an unpublished manuscript giving an account of his life on the slopes of Mount McKinley, Alaska, during 1907-08, with an assistant, Henry Karstens, now superintendent of Mount McKinley National Park, which he aided in establishing 1915-17; also left notes covering a number of expeditions for mountain sheep in Arizona and into Seriland, in Sonora, Mexico (now being edited for publication); co-editor, with George Bird Grinnell, '70, of Hunting and Conservation, the book of the Boone and Crockett Club (1925); aided in organization of National Conference on Outdoor Recreation 1925 and of Wild Fowlers League 1928; during the war served as a voluntary aid in Naval Intelligence Bureau, in charge of Latin-American affairs, 1917-18; trustee of National Parks Association since 1924 (member of executive committee since 1925); member of President Coolidge's Coordinating Commission on National Parks and National Forests 1925-26 and chairman of President Coolidge's Commission on Conservation of Jackson's Hole Elk, Wyoming, 1927; a founder of National Conference on Outdoor Recreation 1924 and since then member of its executive committee; director of American Forestry Association since 1926; director and chairman of executive committee of Wild Fowlers League; vice-president of Boone and Crockett Club for about two years and member of its editorial committee and advisory member of its game conservation committee; member of committee on research of National Geographic Society since 1920 and in 1925 elected special life member; member of American Ornithologist Union, American Society of Mammalogists, Biological Society of Washington, Zoological Society of New York, American Game Protective Association, National Association of Audubon Societies, Izaak Walton League of America, and Rutland (Vt.) Congregational Church; in 1920 elected to graduate membership in Elizabethan Club of Yale.

Death, due to angina pectoris, occurred at his summer camp in Nova Scotia. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Rutland, Vt. Survived by wife, four children, three brothers, Augustus G. Sheldon, of Louisville, Ky., John S. Sheldon, of Rutland, and Archibald M. Sheldon, '08, and two sisters, Mrs. Edward Keck and Mrs. Thomas F. Marsten, of Bay City, Mich. Mr. Sheldon's library of over six thousand volumes dealing with the United States, Canada, Mexico, England, India, and Africa has been presented to Yale by Francis P. Garvan, '97, and Mrs. Garvan

Albert Jason Willson, B.A. 1890.

Born April 2, 1865, in Marion, Ind
Died February 21, 1929, in Marion, Ind

Marion High School and Racine (Wis) Grammar School. Attended Racine College (member Phi Gamma Delta) for a year before entering Yale with Class of 1889; joined Class of 1890 the next year; second colloquy appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year.

After graduation entered his father's banking business; served as cashier until the bank merged with the Marion National Bank in 1911, and then as assistant cashier until 1918; had since dealt in stocks and bonds, and had also been engaged in real estate business; director of Canton Glass Company since January, 1928; member Gethsemane Episcopal Church, Marion.

Unmarried.

Death, due to heart trouble, occurred at the Grant County Hospital. Buried in the I. O. O. F. Cemetery, Marion. Survived by a brother, Fred W. Willson, of Marion.
Amasa Junius Parker, Jr., B.A. 1891.

Born June 19, 1869, in Albany, N. Y.
Died July 14, 1928, in Cooperstown, N. Y.

Father, Amasa Junius Parker (B.A. Union 1863, LL.B. Albany Law School 1864, LL.D. Union 1904), a lawyer; member of firm of Parker & Parker and later of Parker & Countryman in Albany; member New York Assembly; state senator; chief organizer and president of National Guard Association in 1878; one of the compilers of New York Military Code in 1882; trustee of Albany Law School and president of the board for many years; alumni trustee of Union College and a governor of Union University; trustee of Albany Medical College and of Union Trust Company of New York; manager and president of board of Hudson River State Hospital for the Insane at Poughkeepsie for sixteen years; son of Judge Amasa Junius Parker (B.A. Union 1825, LL.D. Hobart 1846), a justice of the Supreme Court of New York and regent of the University of the State of New York, and Harriet Langdon (Roberts) Parker; a great-grandnephew of John Langdon, Signer of the Constitution, of Governor Thomas Dudley of the Massachusetts Bay Colony, and of Governor Theophilus Eaton of the New Haven Colony; descendant of Edward Parker, who came from England to New Haven in 1644. Mother, Cornelia Kane (Strong) Parker; daughter of Paschal Neilson and Louisa (Hall) Strong; descendant of Selah Strong, the first of the family to settle on Long Island, N. Y.; descended also from John Strong, born in Taunton, England, who came to Nantasket, Mass., in 1630, was a founder of Dorchester, Mass., in 1635, and later moved to Windsor, Conn., and Northampton, Mass., in 1663. Yale relatives include: Rev. Daniel Parker (B.A. 1798) (great-grandfather), Amasa Parker (B.A. 1808) (great-great-uncle), Charles H. Hall (B.A. 1842) (great-uncle); Charles H. Strong, '70 (uncle); Lewis R. Parker, '28, and Dean Sage, Jr., '30 (nephews), and George W. Strong (B.A. 1803), Selah B. Strong (B.A. 1811), Thomas S. Strong, '55, Charles R. and Selah B. Strong, both '64, Parker Corning, '95, Thomas S. Strong, '96, James B. Strong, '96 S., Arthur T. Strong, ex-'97, Richard U. Strong, '99, Edwin Corning, '06, and Russell W. Strong, '09 S (cousins).
Albany Academy and St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. On University Baseball Nine and Freshman Nine; won college tennis championship 1890 and doubles with his brother as partner 1889 and 1890; second in doubles in Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament 1890 and represented Yale in doubles in same tournament 1889; member Junior Promenade Committee, Psi Upsilon, and Wolf's Head.

Studied law in office of Parker & Fiero (his father's firm) in Albany 1891–92 and then at Albany Law School (LL B 1893); admitted to the bar 1893 and had since practiced law in Albany, confining his practice almost exclusively to civil law; argued in Court of Appeals, in Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, and in other courts of the state; also engaged before different state departments in matters relating to taxation of corporations and other matters with the State Insurance Department; counsel for Albany Excise Board 1896; special counsel to attorney-general of the state 1903–05, for the city of Albany in its revision and codification of its laws and ordinances 1925, and for New York City in matters relating to legal proceedings in connection with the Ashokan Reservoir for several years; had been attorney for Banks & Company, Moose River Lumber Company, L Thomson & Company, Albany & Greenbush Bridge Company, and Remington Arms Company; director of Park Bank of Albany until it was merged with Union Trust Company; trustee of Fort Orange Club of Albany 1920–26; author Code of Criminal Procedure of New York (1917); had edited numerous editions of Parker's New York Insurance Law, Parker's New York Banking Law, Parker's Penal Law and Criminal Code, Parker's Code of Civil Procedure, Parker's New York State Constitution (1914), and Stover's New York Annotated Code of Civil Procedure; editor of Albany Law Journal 1893-96; secretary and counsel for the Argus Company, printers and publishers; delegate to Democratic state, county, and city conventions; secretary of New York State Bar Association 1893–95 and secretary of its committee on law reform; member St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Albany.

Married December 28, 1895, near Springfield Center, N. Y, Jane Martindale, daughter of Lieut. William Kidd and Caroline (Martindale) Kidd. One daughter, Caroline, the wife of Staunton Williams, '20.
Obituary Record

Death, due to pneumonia, occurred at his summer home in Cooperstown. Buried in Rural Cemetery, Albany. Survived by wife, daughter, two grandchildren, father, and four sisters, Harriet P. McElroy, the wife of Charles E. McElroy, ex-'96 S., Louise P. Sweny, the widow of Harry R. Sweny, ex-'90 S., Grace P. McLane, the wife of Charles E. McLane, '93 S., and Anna P. Sage, the wife of Dean Sage, '97. His only brother, Lewis R. Parker, '92, died in 1922.

Henry Riggs Rathbone, B.A. 1892.

Born February 12, 1870, in Washington, D.C.
Died July 15, 1928, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, Henry Read Rathbone (B.A. Union 1857); Major in 12th U.S. Infantry during the Civil War; breveted Colonel and on the staff of General McClellan; breveted Major General August 1, 1864; was a guest, with Mrs. Rathbone, before their marriage, of President and Mrs. Lincoln in the box at Ford’s Theatre at the time of Lincoln’s assassination and was severely wounded by Booth, when he tried to protect the President; son of Jared Lewis and Pauline (Penney) Rathbone; ancestors settled in Connecticut in colonial times, but later moved to Albany, N.Y. Mother, Clara (Harris) Rathbone, daughter of Ira Harris (B.A. Union 1824), New York state senator, justice of New York Supreme Court, and U.S. senator; trustee of Union, founder of the Albany Law School, president of Albany Medical College, a founder of Rochester University and its only chancellor, and trustee of Vassar; ancestors came from England and settled in Rhode Island.

Phillips-Andover. Entered Yale with Class of 1891, but left at end of junior year; reentered in 1891; second colloquy appointment senior year; Class orator; member Delta Kappa Epsilon

LL.B. Albany Law School 1893 and University of Wisconsin 1894; traveled extensively in the West 1894–95; admitted to Illinois Bar 1895 and had since practiced law in Chicago, in later years specializing in common law trial; attorney for Bridge and Structural Iron Workers’ Association at the Coliseum inquest; lecturer on evidence, U.S. Constitution, and trial practice at John Marshall Law School, Chicago, since 1919, on trial tactics at National University Law School since 1922, and on current legislation at American University Law School during 1925-26; had also lectured on Lincoln throughout the country; elected Congressman-at-Large from Illinois 1922 and had served continuously ever since, being Republican nominee for re-election at the time of his death; in Congress championed the cause of prohibition, farm relief, lake-to-gulf waterway, aviation, and child labor bill; served as chairman of War Veterans’ Committee (then known as the War Committee) of Chicago Bar Association 1917-18; president of Lawyers’ Association of Illinois 1910 and of Hamilton Club of Chicago 1916-17, member of Chicago Association of Commerce (member of Illinois relations committee 1917 and its vice-chairman 1918; member of committee on legislation 1919; chairman of Mississippi Valley committee 1919; member of committee on agriculture 1922 and 1923) and American Bar Association.

Married December 22, 1903, in Oshkosh, Wis., Laura Lucile, daughter of Richard James and Amanda (Stroud) Harney. No children.

Death, due to benign prostate hypertrophy, thrombo-phlebitis, and chronic embolism, followed an operation for acute bladder trouble and occurred at the Presbyterian Hospital, Chicago. Buried in Rosehill Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife and a brother, Gerald L. Rathbone, of San Francisco and Burlingame, Calif.

John Sitcher Woodruff, B.A. 1892.

Born September 4, 1870, in New Britain, Conn.
Died January 13, 1929, in Washington, D.C.

Father, Mahlon John Woodruff; president of Russell & Erwin Manufacturing Company of New Britain; chairman of American Hardware Association; son of Robert and Charlotte (Fuller) Woodruff. Mother, Genevra (Wright) Woodruff; daughter of Cornelius and Mary (Sitcher) Wright.

Polytechnic Institute, Brooklyn, and Columbia Grammar School, New York City. Second dispute appointments Junior and Senior years; sang in College Choir and on Second Glee Club; member Senior Promenade, Class Day, and Class Photograph committees and Zeta Psi.

Studied at Harvard Law School 1892-94 (an editor of Harvard Law Review); in law office of Root & Clark in New York City 1894-95; admitted to New York Bar in May, 1895, and then engaged in the practice of admiralty law with Wheeler & Cortis in New York until 1900 (member of firm from May, 1896); subsequently engaged in manufacture of lasts as treasurer of New York Last Company 1901-1917 and as vice-president of Vermont Last Block Company 1913-17; enlisted in U. S. Naval Reserve as a Seaman (2d Class) April 17, 1917, and was assigned to Brooklyn Navy Yard for a time; promoted to chief petty officer about September, 1917; later assigned to Pelham Bay, where he served as battalion commander in 1st Training Regiment November, 1917-May, 1918, as adjutant May-July, 1918, and as member of the court marshal board, and was commissioned as Ensign March 13, 1918; detailed to special service with the Pacific Fleet in July, 1918, and served as watch and division officer on U. S. S. "Pittsburgh" off the east coast of South America until released from active duty July 13, 1919; was subsequently connected for several months with the Kerr Steamship Company, engaged in familiarizing himself with the storage of cargoes in ships, resumed the practice of law in New York City in 1922 with firm of Bingham, Englar & Jones; since 1924 had been connected with United States Shipping Board, engaged in the codification of the navigation laws of the United States; made director of Bureau of Law of the Board in August, 1926 (title changed in 1927 to director of Navigation Laws Division of the U. S. Shipping Board); at the time of his death was engaged in revising the navigation and shipping laws of the United States, a preliminary report of his work having been made public in November, 1926; in October, 1928, appointed member of the Shipping Board's general committee on safety of life at sea (specially engaged on sub-committee on revision of the international rules to prevent collision at sea) and was to have represented this country in an expert capacity as member of United States Navigation Committee at the International Convention on Safety of Life at Sea held at London in May, 1929; had held rank of Lieutenant Commander in the Navy since 1927; member Admiralty Law Association; attended Christian Science Church.

Married March 12, 1895, in Malden, Mass., Marion Edwards, daughter of Jabez Pratt and Harriet Cook (Lawrence) Parker. One daughter, Beatrice (Mrs. Charles P. Weeks).

Death, due to a relapse of influenza, occurred in the George Washington University Hospital, Washington. Buried in Arlington National Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughter, mother, and a sister, Mrs. Oscar A. Woodruff.

Albert Hutchinson Putney, B.A. 1893.

Born September 28, 1872, in Boston, Mass.
Died October 22, 1928, in Washington, D.C.

Father, Albert Baker Putney, a carpet dealer in Boston, descendant of John Putney, who was living in Salem, Mass., before 1670; descended also from Peter Brown of the "Mayflower" company. Mother, Sarah Bliss (Abbott) Putney; ancestors came from England about 1660.

Newton (Mass.) High School. Dissertation appointment and two-year honors in political science, history, and law Senior year; a Townsend speaker.

LL.B. Boston University 1895; following his admission to Massachusetts Bar that year, practiced law in Boston until 1898, when obliged to give up practice temporarily on account of ill health; lived at Sioux Falls, S. Dak., 1898-99; practiced law in Chicago 1899-1913 (member of firm of Ricketts & Putney for a time), except for a year (1903-04) when he was in the office of the attorney-general of the Philippines at Manila; professor of international law, domestic relations, and evidence at Illinois College of Law 1900-1912, also dean of the college from 1904; chief of the Near East Division of Department of State in Washington 1913-1920, during which period was instrumental in development of official memoranda concerning the recognition of some of the smaller nations of Europe by the United States Government; since 1914 had been professor of law at National University in Washington, uniting his services there with his duties in the State Department; maintained a law office in Washington from 1920, specializing in questions of international law; since 1920 had also been connected with American University; professor of constitutional law and diplomatic history since 1920, dean of the School of Diplomacy from 1920 until reorganization of the schools in 1923, when the School of the Political Sciences took the place of the School of Diplomacy, and since then director of the former school; in 1923 had charge of courses on American government and politics at University of Maryland; LLM Illinois College 1899, LL.D. 1912; D.C.L. DePaul University 1901; Ph.D. American University 1918; in 1923 lectured on the government and constitution of the United States at Charles and Masaryk universities in Prague, upon the invitation of the government of Czechoslovakia, which decorated him with the Order of the White Lion; had also been decorated by Rumania and Lithuania; had served as honorary Persian consul for Chicago and Washington; author: Government in the United States (1904), Law Library (twelve volumes) (1908), United States Constitutional History and Law (1908), Currency, Banking, and Exchange (1909), Corporations (1909), Principles of Political Economy (1909), Bar Examination Review (1910), Foreign Commercial Law (1910), Handbook of Election Laws (with James Hamilton Lewis) (1912), and Historical Background of the Law of Real Property (with Charles F. Carusi) (1923); contributor to Yale Law Journal, Bench and Bar (of which editor in 1901), Chicago Law Register, Case and Comment, and Law Students’ Monthly; president of 2d Ward Democratic Club of Chicago 1911 and member of executive committee of Cook County Democracy; elected honorary member of John Marshall chapter of Chi Psi Omega of American University in 1921; member National Press Club, Chicago Press Club, and Unitarian Church.

Married April 6, 1911, in Chicago, Pearl L., daughter of Jesse O. and Ida J. (Meek) Avery. No children.

Death due to arteriosclerotic heart disease. Buried in Rock Creek Cemetery, Washington. Survived by wife, father, and two sisters, Mrs. George Bryant and Mrs Albert Christensen, both of Chicago.
Harry Campbell Quintard, B.A. 1893.

Born September 19, 1869, in Greenwich, Conn.
Died October 19, 1928, in West Haven, Conn.

Father, Henry Ferris Quintard, a farmer; son of William Knapp and Mary Jane (Ferris) Quintard; descendant of Isaac Quintard, who was born of Huguenot parents in Bristol, England, in 1696 and came to America as a youth. He died in 1738 and his tombstone is in St. Andrew's Cemetery, Stamford, Conn. Mother, Mary Jane (Campbell) Quintard; daughter of Robert Campbell, who came from County Ayr, Scotland, about 1835 and settled in Fairfield, Conn.

Stamford High School and Hudson River Institute, Claverack, N. Y. Dissertation appointment Junior year; oration appointment Senior year

Taught Greek and mathematics at University School, Bridgeport, Conn., 1893–1901 and then entered business; with Nonpareil Cork Manufacturing Company of Bridgeport until 1906, as manager of their Camden (N. J.) works from 1902; assistant manager of New York office of insulation department of Armstrong Cork Company of Pittsburgh, Pa., 1906–1913, when he gave up active business on account of ill health; in fall of 1913 opened a magazine subscription agency at his home in Stamford, which he continued until a few months before his death, since 1918 being aided in running the business by his wife; member First Congregational Church, Stamford, of which he was a deacon 1906–09 and again 1916–18 (member of prudential committee; prepared manual of the church; wrote historical sketch of the church, which was placed in the cornerstone of the new edifice, and aided in establishment of its Men’s Club, of which he was president 1908 and 1909).

Death, due to pulmonary tuberculosis, occurred at the William Wirt Winchester Hospital, West Haven, where he had been since the previous March. Buried in Sound Beach (Conn.) Cemetery. Survived by wife, son, three daughters, three grandchildren, and a brother, Charles G. Quintard, of New York City.

John Payson Chamberlain, B.A. 1894.

Born March 3, 1869, at Seneca Falls, N.Y. Died December 19, 1928, in New York City.

Father, Harrison Chamberlain (B.A. Syracuse 1859), a woolen manufacturer. Mother, Ophelia Gidney (Seymour) Chamberlain; descended from the Duke of Hertfordshire, a founder of Hartford, Conn.

Phillips-Andover. First prize in English composition Sophomore year; first colloquy appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year.

Had been engaged in the dry goods (woolen) business ever since graduation; with his father’s woolen mills at Seneca Falls 1894-99, becoming proprietor of the concern; with A. D. Juillard & Company of New York City as selling agent for the Seneca Falls mills and also for Gavin, Morton & Company of Skaneateles, N.Y., 1899-1907; with Vietor & Achelis, wholesale dry goods merchants, in New York City 1907-08; subsequently member of firm of J. P. Chamberlain Company, importers of woolens (a department of James Talcott, dry goods commission merchants), in New York and later United States representative of Associated Woolen Factories, Ltd., of Norrkoping, Sweden, through James Talcott, Inc., a textile banking house; deacon of First Congregational Church, Mount Vernon, N.Y.

Married March 3, 1904, in Pittsburgh, Pa., Elizabeth Jennings, daughter of the Rev. George Webster (B.A. University of Pennsylvania 1851) and Elizabeth Jennings (Lindsay) Webster. Children: John Seymour, ’26, Elizabeth Linard (B.A. Smith 1929); and Margaret.

Death occurred at the Presbyterian Hospital in New York. Buried at Seneca Falls. Survived by wife, son, two daughters, and a sister, Miss Alice F. Chamberlain, of Scarsdale, N.Y.
Henry Lane Eno, B.A. 1894.

Born July 8, 1871, in New York City
Died September 10, 1928, in Somerset, England

Father, Henry Clay Eno (B.A. 1860, M.D. Columbia 1864), an eye specialist in New York City; attending surgeon to New York Eye and Ear Infirmary; later devoted a great part of his time to his extensive realty interests; son of Amos Richards and Lucy Jane (Phelps) Eno; descendant of Jonathan Eno and Major General Roger Eno of the Revolutionary Army; descended also from James Enno (originally spelt Hainault), a French Huguenot, who came from England to Windsor, Conn., in 1648. Mother, Cornelia (Lane) Eno; daughter of George William and Ann Augusta (Bulkeley) Lane; descendant of George Lane, who came from England to Rye, Conn. (now N. Y.), in 1660. Yale relatives include: Elisha Phelps (B.A. 1800) (great-grandfather); Noah A Phelps (B.A. 1783) (great-great-uncle); John C. Eno, '69, and William P. Eno, '82 (uncles); and William Walter Phelps, '60, William G. Case, ex-'70 M., John J. Phelps, '83, Sheffield Phelps, '86, Gifford Pinchot, '89, Morris Woodruff, '93, Phelps Montgomery, '95, George W. L. Woodruff, '95 S, Amos R. E. Pinchot, '97, Edmund C. Stanton, '11, and Gifford Pinchot, 2d, ex-26 (cousins)

Berkeley School, New York City Second colloquy appointment Junior year; first colloquy appointment Senior year, an editor of Yale Literary Magazine; member Psi Upsilon

LL.B Columbia 1898; spent the next year in travel and study abroad; subsequently engaged in a variety of enterprises; cooperated with Professor William James in work for Society for Psychical Research; research associate in psychology at Princeton since 1915 (donor of Eno Hall for Department of Psychology in 1924); associated with President Eliot of Harvard and George B. Dorr in creation of Lafayette National Park at Mount Desert, Maine (his summer home), 1910-18 and served as custodian and ornithologist of the park 1912-1920; selectman of town of Bar Harbor 1918-19; built the Fifth Avenue Building on site of old Fifth Avenue Hotel 1908 and was president and director of Fifth Avenue Building Company of New York 1914-1928; assistant custodian of Sieur des Monts National Monument 1917-18; during the war worked for the Air Service in Washington, designing and constructing an apparatus for the testing and training of aviators; author: Activism (1920), three volumes of poetry, The Wanderer (1921), Indian Summer (1921), and The Maid of Gloucester (1923), and a play in verse, The Baglioni (1905); had contributed articles to the Critic and to Psychological Review; member American Philosophical Association, American Psychological Association, American Oriental Society, Archaeological Institute of America, New York Archaeological Society, Society of Psychical Research, American Ornithological Union, and Authors' League of America; lived at Mountcute House, Somerset, England, for six months in 1925 and again during the last year of his life.

Death due to heart failure. Buried in Simsbury, Conn. Survived by wife, two sons, and three daughters.

Clinton Hart Furbish, B.A. 1894.

Born July 18, 1869, in New Hartford, N Y.
Died December 5, 1928, in Rochester, N Y.

Father, the Rev Edward Brown Furbish (B A. 1860 and graduate of Yale Divinity School), pastor of Presbyterian and Congregational churches in New Hartford, Potsdam, Lockport, and Spencerport, N. Y.; Chaplain of 25th Maine Volunteers during the Civil War and of the New York State Soldiers' Home at Bath; son of Dependence Hart and Persis (Brown) Furbish. Mother, Grace Harrison (Townsend) Furbish, daughter of Robert and Elizabeth (Harrison) Townsend; descendant of Thomas Townsend (Townshend), who came from Norfolk, England, to Lynn, in the Massachusetts Bay Colony, about 1637. Yale relatives include two uncles: Robert J. Carpenter, ’59, and Clinton Furbish, ex-’60.

Lockport High School; attended Oberlin College 1889–1890. Studied law in Potsdam, N. Y., 1895–96; continued his law studies and was clerk in a law office in Rochester, N. Y., 1896–99, except for time spent in the army, Private, Company H, 3d Regiment, New York Volunteers, stationed at Camp Alger, Falls Church, Va, May 1–December 5, 1898; during this time he was war correspondent for Rochester Herald, admitted to New York State Bar, and had since practiced law in Rochester; in association with John VanVoorhis & Sons, 1900–05, and its successor, John VanVoorhis’ Sons, 1905–1928; member First Congregational Church, Spencerport, N. Y.

Married June 14, 1905, in Spencerport, Maude Udell (attended Oberlin College 1904–05), daughter of Parson Genet Udell (M.D. University of Pennsylvania 1871), and Sarah Jane (Warner) Udell One son, Edward Townsend. Death due to carcinoma of the stomach. Buried in Fairfield Cemetery, Spencerport Survived by wife, son (died May 9, 1929), a brother, Robert T. Furbish, of Lockport, N. Y., and a sister, Mrs. Azariah B. Sias, of Athens, Ohio.

Carl Frederick Stahl, B.A. 1894.

Born April 28, 1872, in New Haven, Conn
Died November 1, 1928, in New Haven, Conn

Father, William Frederick Stahl, an undertaker and merchant in New Haven; member of firm of Stahl & Hegel, cabinet makers and undertakers, and later of William F. Stahl & Son; born in Meldorf, Germany, and came to America in 1854. Mother, Wilhelmina (Rompf) Stahl, born in Nassau, Germany.

New Haven High School. Second colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years; member College Choir and Zeta Psi. LL.B. Yale 1896; had since practiced law in New Haven; associated for a time with David Strouse, ’76 L.; had served as clerk of New Haven Board of Assessors since 1910; charter member of Connecticut Naval Militia, and served in it 1893–98; member Connecticut Bar Association, and Trinity (Episcopal) Church.

Married (1) September 11, 1897, in New Haven, Ruth Edwards, daughter of Major Ambrose E. Beardsley. Mr. and Mrs Stahl were divorced in 1904. Married (2) March 25, 1913, in Winthrop, Mass., Mary Derrick Bulford Physeck, daughter of John Henry and Cornelia (Pomeroy) Bulford, and granddaughter of Jerome B Pomeroy (M.D. 1829). No children

Death, due to arteriosclerosis, occurred at Hospital of St. Raphael after an illness of two days. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, two stepdaughters, the Misses Harriet and Margaret Stahl, and three sisters, Mrs Otto C Marx, Mrs Harry W. Manville, and Miss Daisy T Stahl, all of New Haven.

Larz Augustus Whitcomb, B.A. 1894.

Born March 26, 1871, in Clinton, Ind.
Died April 1, 1929, in Indianapolis, Ind

Father, John Whitcomb (attended Wabash College 1840), a merchant and landowner, son of Benjamin Raymond and Anna (Sutton) Whitcomb; descendant of John Whitcomb, who came from England to Dorchester, Mass., before 1633. Mother, Lydia Amelia (Parks) Whitcomb; daughter of Barzillai and Susan Maria (Budd) Parks. Yale relatives include a nephew: John M. Whitcomb, ’30 DePauw Academy. Ph.B. DePauw University 1893 (on Tennis Team which represented DePauw at state tennis tournament, member Delta Tau Delta). Entered Yale as Senior; first dispute appointment.

LL.B. Yale 1895; had since practiced law in Indianapolis; associated with Senator Albert H Beveridge 1896–1910; partner in law firm of Whitcomb, Dowden & Stout 1910–1916; Whitcomb & Dowden 1916–1921; Shirley, Whitcomb & Dowden 1921–28; Whitcomb, Ewbank & Dowden since 1928; had been special master in chancery; charter member of Farmers Trust Company of Indianapolis in 1905, and director since then; director R. V. Law Motor Company since 1917; director Christomore House (college settlement association) eighteen years, treasurer 1912-17, president 1919-1922; elected representative for Marion County in Indianapolis General Assembly on Republican ticket in 1898, and reelected to legislature in 1900 as joint representative of Marion and Hancock counties; member American, Indiana, and Indianapolis Bar Associations, and Methodist Episcopcal Church.
Yale College 135

Death due to chronic myocarditis and aortitis. Buried in Crown Hill Cemetery, Indianapolis. Survived by wife, two sisters, Mrs. Francis B. Shepardson, of Chicago, and Mrs. Henry Holloway, of Glencoe, Ill, and a brother, William A. Whitcomb, '95 S.

John Heermans, B.A. 1895.

Born June 6, 1873, in Corning, N Y
Died August 20, 1928, in Tacoma, Wash

Father, John Heermans, a real estate dealer; son of Philip and Catherine (Fellows) Heermans; descendant of Fochen Jansz, who came with his family from Ruymere, Province of Drenthe, Holland, in 1660, landing at the present site of New York City; family name was changed from Jansz to Heermans by the second in line, Jan Fochen Jansz, who settled in Dutchess County, N. Y.; descended also from Joseph Fellows, who came from England and was a pioneer of Luzerne (now Lackawanna) County, Pa. Mother, Nancy (Travis) Heermans; daughter of Levi and Catherine Travis.

Hopkins Grammar School Member Zeta Psi

Salesman for U. S. Net & Twine Company of New York City 1895-98; went to Hoquiam, Wash, 1898 and had since been connected for the greater part of the time with Hoquiam Water Company (of which his brother, Harry C Heermans [B.A. Wesleyan 1875], was president and manager); served as engineer for the company since 1922, in engineering work. also for North Shore Electric Light Company 1898–99 and 1900–02 and for H C. Heermans Real Estate Company of Hoquiam 1904–09, 1910–1920, and 1922–28; bridge inspector for Northern Railroad Company in Hoquiam 1903–04; superintendent of Molberg Lumber & Shingle Company in Sherlock, Wash., 1909; manager of a fish cannery for Queet's Trading Company at the mouth of the Queets River 1920–22; member of Presbyterian Church.

Married May 3, 1900, in Portland, Ore., Alice Maude, daughter of James Harvey and Elizabeth (Hatt) King. No children

Death due to a perforated ulcer of the stomach. Buried in Corning, N. Y. Survived by wife, brother, Harry C. Heermans, of Olympia, Wash., and two sisters, Mrs. Lovasso Field, of Rochester, N. Y., and Mrs. Henry Boswell, of New York City.

Paul Kennaday, B.A. 1895.

Born September 25, 1873, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died May 4, 1929, in New York City

Father, John Robert Kennaday (LL.B. Dickinson College 1846), lawyer; member of New York Assembly and senate; son of John and Jane (Walker) Kennaday; ancestors came to America from the south of Scotland in the late eighteenth century. Mother, Anna Maria (Martin) Kennaday (studied at Cambridge under Professor Agassiz); daughter of John Thomas and Priscilla (Spence) Martin; descended from Thomas Martin, who came from Hertfordshire, England, during the latter part of the seventeenth century, and settled in Maryland.

Montclair (N. J.) High School

LL.B. New York Law School 1897, admitted to New York Bar and was clerk in law offices of Shipman, Lorocque & Choate, New York City, 1897–98; practiced law in New York for six years, with Willis B. Dowd, as member of firm of Dowd & Kennaday for part of the time; in 1899 became interested in social work, and in 1901 assisted in founding Greenwich House, traveled in New Zealand, Australia, Japan, and India at various times during 1900–04; executive secretary of New York Committee for the Prevention of Tuberculosis of the Charity Organization Society 1904–09 (instrumental in formation of the national organization for the prevention of tuberculosis); adviser and director of the work of the National Association for Advancement of Colored People since 1909; director of Committee on Public Information of Government Foreign Press Bureau 1915–19; director of Foreign Press Bureau Service, Inc., of New York City, since 1919.

Married June 30, 1910, in Montclair, N. J., Helen, daughter of John and Mary Elizabeth (Shattuck) Macpherson. One daughter, Priscilla.

Death, due to meningitis following a mastoid operation, occurred at St. Luke's Hospital after a week's illness. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, daughter, two brothers, Percy Kennaday of Mendham, N. J., and Allan Kennaday, of Wellington, New Zealand, and a sister, Mrs. Gilbert Maxwell, of Montclair, N. J.

Lloyd Lowndes, B.A. 1895.

Born November 29, 1871, in Cumberland, Md
Died October 20, 1928, in Cumberland, Md

Father, Lloyd Lowndes, LL.D. (B.A. Allegheny College 1865, LL B. University of Pennsylvania 1867), a lawyer; president of Second National Bank of Cumberland; member of Congress; Governor of Maryland 1896–1900; son of Lloyd and Maria Elizabeth (Moore) Lowndes; grandson of Commodore Charles Lowndes, U. S. N.; great-great-grandson of Richard Lowndes of Bostwick House, Cheshire, England; descendant of James Neale, who came from England to settle in Charles County, Maryland, in 1635. Mother, Elizabeth Tasker (Lowndes) Lowndes, daughter of Richard Tasker and Louisa Lucretia (Black) Lowndes, descended also from James Neale Yale relatives include: Richard T. Lowndes, 3d, '24, John R. Lowndes, ex-’27 S, and Richard A. Lowndes, ’31 S. (nephews).

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. Member Psi Upsilon.
LL.B. Yale 1897; admitted to Allegany County Bar 1897, and practiced law in Cumberland as member of firm of Lowndes & Whiting until 1900; continued in independent practice until the death of his father in 1905, and then engaged in farming near Rawlings, Md., operating the Bloomingfield estate along the Potomac for two years; was subsequently president of the Ritz Company, importers, in New York City; in 1915 resumed the practice of law in Cumberland and continued until death; attorney to Allegany County Board of Commissioners and Board of Road Directors since 1917, director of Second National Bank of Cumberland 1905-09, Lowndes Savings & Trust Company of Clarksburg, W. Va., 1905-1928 (incorporator in 1905), and Western Maryland Lumber Company of Cumberland 1923-28 (also counsel 1925-28); member of board of visitors of Maryland Institution for the Deaf at Frederick 1898-1928; candidate for congressman in 1906 and 1908, but defeated; vestryman of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, Cumberland.

Married November 23, 1899, in Chillicothe, May Campbell, daughter of James Cecil and Sarah (Campbell) Quinn. Children: Lloyd, Jr., ex-'25, James Quinn, Hobart ex-'28; Richard Tasker, ex-'30 S.; and Tasker Gantt, 2d. Mrs. Lowndes died December 15, 1919.

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Rose Hill Cemetery, Cumberland. Survived by four sons, a sister, Miss Elizabeth Lloyd Lowndes, of Cumberland, and two brothers, W. Bladen Lowndes, ex-'99 S., and Tasker G. Lowndes, '07. His twin brother and classmate, Richard T. Lowndes, died in 1905.

William Arthur Moore, B.A. 1895.

Born July 5, 1873, in Rutland, N Y
Died December 12, 1928, in New York City

Father, George Arthur Moore, a farmer; son of Anson and Nancy (Cleveland) Moore, descendant of Thomas Moore, who came from County Devon, England, to Windsor, Conn., in 1630. Mother, Cornelia Edney (Dunlap) Moore, daughter of William Middletown and Edney (Scott) Dunlap; descendant of William Dunlap, who came from Londonderry, Ireland, to Somerset County, N J., in 1792 and later moved to Charlestown, N Y.
Watertown (N. Y.) High School. Taught school at Perch Lake, N. Y., and was editor of the Watertown Herald 1890–91. Dissertation appointment Junior year; oration appointment Senior year; Class poet; member Chi Delta Theta.

Tutor in Madison, N. J., 1895–96; University Scholar at Columbia 1896–97 in political science and sociology (MA 1897); LL B. New York Law School 1899 and admitted to New York Bar in June of that year; clerk with Horace E. Deming, Guthrie, Cravath & Henderson, and one other law firm 1899–1901; formed law firm of Dunlap & Moore in New Rochelle, N. Y., 1901; the name became Moore, Dunlap & Swan, upon the admission of Joseph R. Swan, '95, in 1903, and offices were moved to New York City; member successively of firms of Fitch, Moore & Swan (1905–07), Redding, Greeley & Austin (1907–09), Swan, Beardsley & Moore (1909–1911), Swan & Moore (1911–16), Swan, Moore & Danforth (1916–1921), and since 1921 of Moore, Hall, Swan & Cunningham, corporation lawyers, of which he was senior member, and William E. Hall, '00 S, is also a member, assistant district attorney of Westchester County (N. Y.) 1903–07; represented state comptroller as attorney in transfer tax proceedings in that county 1910 and 1911; served on three successive charter commissions for New Rochelle, preparing the original drafts from which the present charter of the city, and others of the same class in the state, were derived, member New Rochelle Board of Education 1915–1927 (president of board 1924–27); president and director of Park Avenue Operating Company, Inc., of New York 1925–28; director of E. W. Gillett Company of Canada 1928, Royal Baking Powder Company 1921–28, American Maize Products Company 1922–28, Taylor-Wharton Iron & Steel Company 1927–28, Wright-Crossley & Company, Ltd., 1927–28, Royal Distributing Company 1922–28, Horton Cato Manufacturing Company 1926–28, and the Whitney Company 1917–1925 (president 1925–28); member Westchester County Republican Committee 1906–1926, charter member Yale Alumni Association of Westchester County, elected director 1909, and vice-president 1927; trustee Annie R. Tinker Memorial Home 1924–28 (secretary 1927–28); member Association of the Bar of the City of New York, New York State Bar Association, Westchester County Bar Association, American Society of International Law, New York State and Westchester County Historical societies, American Anthropological Association, and First Presbyterian Church of New Rochelle, of which he had been deacon and elder for twenty-one years; widely known for his collection of Indian relics of the St. Lawrence valley; had financed an archaeological expedition to Texas and New Mexico during the summer of 1928; in recognition of his services to the public school system of New Rochelle, an athletic field bears his name.

Death, due to a transverse myelitis, occurred at St. Luke's Hospital after an illness of six weeks. Buried in Brookside Cemetery, Watertown, N. Y. Survived by wife, two sons, and a sister, Mrs. Bissell C. Grommon, of Wilmington, Del.

Hermann Thomas, B.A. 1895.

Born March 30, 1873, in New York City.
Died May 28, 1929, in Newark, N. J.

Father, Theodore Thomas (honorary Mus.D. 1880 and Hamilton 1881), born in Essen, Germany, and came to America with his parents in 1845, founder and head of the Theodore Thomas Orchestra; conductor of the Brooklyn Philharmonic Society and the New York Philharmonic Society; director of the College of Music, Cincinnati; musical director of Centennial Exposition 1876, World's Columbian Exposition 1893, American Opera Company, and Chicago Orchestra; son of August Thomas, a musician. Mother, Minna Louise (Rhodes) Thomas. Yale relatives include Danford N. B. Sturgis, '89 S. (brother-in-law)

Morse School, New York City, and Phillips-Andover. Second dispute appointments Junior and Senior years; member Track and Gymnasium teams and Alpha Delta Phi.

Connected with the American Telephone & Telegraph
Company since graduation; as clerk in the contact department, chief clerk for the division superintendent 1897, chief clerk for assistant general superintendent 1901–03, for the general superintendent 1903–08, and for the division superintendent, with headquarters at Philadelphia, 1908–1911; held a similar position in Chicago 1911–1920, had since been general supervisor of employment in New York City; served in Squadron A, New York National Guard, 1895–99, member of St. John’s Episcopal Church, Nutley, N. J.

Death, due to acute cardiac dilatation following a ruptured appendix, occurred at the Presbyterian Hospital. Buried in Mount Hebron Cemetery, Upper Montclair, N. J. Survived by wife, three sons, a brother, Hector W. Thomas, ’88, and two sisters, Mrs Minna W. Sturgis, and Marian, wife of Gale H. Carter (Columbia ex-’97), of New York City.

Born April 13, 1872, in Bridgeport, Conn
Died March 9, 1929, in Cromwell, Conn

Bridgeport High School. Entered Yale with Class of 1894, but joined Class of 1895 in fall of 1892; member Zeta Psi.

Became connected with Wheeler & Howes after graduation, as bookkeeper until 1913, secretary 1913–16, president 1916–1921; president of John W Wheeler Company, dealers in masons' supplies, Bridgeport, 1921–29, president New Eng-
Alexander Smith Cochran, B.A. 1896.

Born February 28, 1874, in Yonkers, N Y
Died June 20, 1929, at Saranac Lake, N Y

Father, William Francis Cochran; treasurer of Alexander Smith & Sons Carpet Company, and philanthropist; son of Alexander Gifford and Sara (Phillips) Cochran Mother, Eva (Smith) Cochran; daughter of Alexander and Janet (Baldwin) Smith. Yale relatives include: Thomas Ewing, Jr., ex-'19, William F. C Ewing, '21, Sherman Ewing, '24, and Gifford C Ewing, '26 (nephews); and John Sanford, '72 (cousin).

St Paul’s School, Concord, N H Second colloquy appointment Senior year; member Kappa Psi, Alpha Delta Phi, and Wolf’s Head

Became associated with Alexander Smith & Sons Carpet Company in Yonkers 1896; made president of the company 1902, resigned that position 1910, but continued as a director until 1919, president of Hollywood Inn, Yonkers; director of Seaboard Air Line Railroad, Northern Pacific Railroad, and Union Trust Company of New York City; a founder of the New Theatre, New York City; founded and supported Sprain Ridge Memorial Hospital for the care of tuberculosis patients, built Sherman Memorial Dispensary of St. John’s Riverside Hospital, gave large amount toward enlargement of St. Joseph’s Hospital, and donated the land for the municipal tuberculosis hospital, all in Yonkers, in 1911 founded the Elizabethan Club at Yale and provided endowment for the maintenance of a clubhouse, in which is deposited the unique collection of early editions of Elizabethan writers, which he presented to the University Library at that time; yachting enthusiast, owner of the schooner yacht “Westward,” which defeated the Kaiser’s “Meteor” for the Jubilee Prize at Kiel in 1910; in 1914 built the sloop “Vanity” as a trial yacht for the America’s cup races; early in the war gave a motor ambulance to the American Volunteer Motor Ambulance Corps, which operated under the British Red Cross Society and was attached to the Second French Army; in 1917 served as a special dispatch bearer to Germany under the direction of the British Foreign Office and was a volunteer courier between the American embassies in London and Berlin; turned over to the British Navy his steam yacht “Warrior,” and at that time was commissioned a Lieutenant in British Royal Naval Reserve; commissioned a Commander in February, 1916, and until 1918 served as Captain of the “Warrior,” which was converted into an armed cruiser and attached to the North Atlantic and West Indian Squadron; later engaged in other activities connected with the British Navy and at the end of the war received the decoration of Commander of the Order of the British Empire; life member of Metropolitan Museum of Art; member of committee of the Associates in Fine Arts at Yale and St John’s Episcopal Church, Yonkers. Married September 15, 1920, in Paris, France, Ganna Walska. They were divorced in 1922.

Death due to pulmonary tuberculosis, from which he had suffered for fifteen years Buried in Oakland Cemetery, Yonkers. Survived by three sisters, Mrs Thomas Ewing, of Yonkers, Mrs. Percy H. Stewart, of Plainfield, N J., and Mrs. Harry S. Bowen, of New York, and two brothers, William F. Cochran, ’98 S., and Gifford A. Cochran, ’03

Gilbert Lawrence Hedges, B.A. 1896.

Born January 19, 1874, in Canemah, Ore. Died January 23, 1929, in Oregon City, Ore

Father, Joseph Hedges, a contractor and builder, school director of Canemah for many years; son of Isaac and Mary (Fouts) Hedges; ancestors settled first in Virginia. Mother,
Obituary Record

Phillips-Andover. Entered with Class of 1896 S., but joined College class early in the course; first colloquy appointment Junior year, first dispute appointment Senior year; member Yale Union, ’96 Baseball Team, and substitute on University Nine.

LL B 1898 (Townsend Prize Senior year; member Pi Alpha Delta); had since practiced law independently in Oregon City, except for two years in the firm of Hedges & Galoway 1902–04; member Oregon legislature 1900–02; district attorney for Fifth Judicial District of Oregon 1907–08, 1913–1921, during the World War acted as Government Appeal Agent, and as four-minute speaker; author of Where the People Rule (1914); member Oregon State and Clackamas County Bar Associations.

Married October 3, 1904, in Oregon City, Dorothy Hinsdale (B.A. Stanford University 1902), daughter of James Winslow and Sarah Augusta (Stevenson) Chase. Children: Judith Virginia (B.A. Stanford 1928, M.A. 1929) and Barbara Hinsdale, member of Class of 1930, University of Oregon.

Death, due to perforated duodenal ulcer with peritonitis, occurred in Oregon City Hospital. Buried in Mountain View Cemetery, Oregon City. Survived by wife, two daughters, a sister, Mrs. James A. Jacobs, of St. John, Wash, and three brothers, William A. Hedges, of Barlow, Ore., Frederick R. Hedges (M.D. University of Oregon 1900), of Everett, Wash, and Joseph E. Hedges, ’91.

Howard Seymour Peck, B.A. 1896.

Born May 17, 1874, in Bristol, Conn.
Died September 9, 1928, in Bristol, Conn

Father, Miles Lewis Peck, treasurer (1871–1923) and since then president of Bristol Savings Bank, former president of Bristol & Plainville Tramway Company; son of Josiah Tracy and Ellen Lewis (Barnard) Peck; descendant of Deacon Paul Peck, who came from England about 1635 and to Hartford, Conn., with Rev. Thomas Hooker in 1636. Mother, Mary Harriet (Seymour) Peck; daughter of Henry Albert and Electa (Churchill) Seymour; descendant of Richard Seymour, who came from England about 1636 and lived in Hartford, Farmington, and Norwalk, Conn. Yale relatives include Tracy Peck, ’61 (great-uncle); Epaphroditus Peck, ’81 L (uncle); and Tracy Peck, Jr., ’95 (cousin).

Bristol High School. Member Yale University Drum Corps.

Associated with his father in the insurance business in Bristol 1895–1919, at first as clerk and from 1905 as a partner in firm of M. L. Peck & Son; also clerk in Bristol Savings Bank 1895–1919; since 1919 had been member of real estate and insurance firm of Peck & Barnard; director of Bristol Savings Bank since 1910 and of Chippanee Country Club 1923–25; president of Bristol Club 1915–17 (member board of managers 1907–1912, 1917–1920, and 1925–28), during the war served as Corporal in the Bristol Company, Connecticut Home Guard.

Married October 16, 1900, in Bristol, Florence Edna, daughter of Charles and Mary Matilda (Naasson) Roe. Children: Seymour Roe, ’23; and Nancy, Vassar ex–’25, the wife of Edward J. Quinlan (B A St John’s College 1897, LL.B. Boston University 1900)

Death, due to an unknown lesion of the heart, occurred in his sleep. Buried in West Cemetery, Bristol. Survived by wife, son, daughter, father, brother, Josiah H. Peck, ’95, and three sisters, Rachel K Peck Jennings (B A. Vassar 1905), the wife of Newell Jennings, ’04; Miss Hilda M. Peck (B A Vassar 1903), and Miss Mary M L Peck (B A Vassar 1917), of Bristol, Conn.

Alexander Bierce Clark, B.A. 1897.

Born March 23, 1874, in Canton, Ohio.
Died March 16, 1929, in Canton, Ohio

Father, William Wallace Clark, a lawyer; president Canton Art Metal Company, president and general manager of Diebold Safe & Lock Company and J. H McLain Company; president and treasurer of Hampden Watch Case Company; president Board of Trade, Canton Library, City National Bank, and People's Savings Bank; son of James Clark, who came from County Antrim, Ireland, in 1829, and settled near the village of Atwater, Portage County, Ohio, and Abigail (Bell) Clark. Mother, Eunice (Bierce) Clark, daughter of Alexander and Angelina Grey (Conant) Bierce. Yale relatives include two nephews: William W. Clark, Jr., and Robert V. Clark, both '31 S.

Canton public schools; attended Wooster University 1892-93. Entered Freshman year in Sheffield Scientific School 1894; joined College Class of 1897 the following fall; second colloquy appointment Senior year; member Beta Theta Pi.

Studied law in office of Clark, Ambler & Clark, Canton, 1897-98 and at Ohio State University 1898-99 (LL B. 1899); admitted to Ohio Bar March 23, 1899, but never practiced; became connected with Canton Steel Roofing Company (name changed to Canton Art Metal Company in 1903), and served as secretary until 1906; had been president since 1906, and treasurer since 1922; president and treasurer of Massillon (Ohio) Rolling Mill 1909-1913; president of Canton Securities Company since 1919; treasurer of Market Avenue Realty Company since 1916; director of Diebold Safe & Lock Company 1900-06, City National Bank, Canton, 1903-1922, Arctic Ice Machine Company 1903-1927, The Canton Stamping & Enameling Company since 1906, Morris Plan Bank since 1916; vice-president and president of Aultman Memorial Hospital; member Canton Board of Education 1914-16; had been president of Canton Public Library since 1912.

Married September 26, 1900, in Canton, Faith, daughter of Henry Clay and Clara (Underhill) Fogle. Children: Alexander Bierce, Jr., '25, Henry Fogle (B.A. University of Michigan 1927, Harvard Law School ex-'30); Roger Conant (Lehigh ex-'27, Kenyon ex-'29); Faith, Marion, and Marcia.

Death, due to ileus paralyticus, occurred at Aultman Hospital, following a major operation. Buried in West Lawn Cemetery, Canton. Survived by wife, six children, a brother, William W. Clark, Jr., and a sister, Mrs. J. Stauffer Shanks, of Canton.
Theobald Mathew Connor, B.A. 1897.

Born August 6, 1874, in Florence, Mass
Died December 10, 1928, in Northampton, Mass

Father, Michael Hannifin Connor, a machinist and tool-maker; came to America from Tralee, County Kerry, Ireland, about 1854. Mother, Margaret (Foley) Connor; daughter of Bernard Foley, who came to America in 1846 from Rathcormack, County Cork, Ireland, and Hannorah (Connor) Foley.

Northampton High School. High oration appointments Junior and Senior years; honors in history; member Phi Beta Kappa.

LL.B. cum laude 1899 (member of Corbey Court), had practiced law in Northampton since 1899, city solicitor 1902-05; mayor of Northampton 1905 and 1906; member of Democratic State Committee 1916; delegate to Democratic National Convention in 1916 (acted as temporary chairman) and Democratic candidate for the U. S. House of Representatives that year, from the 2d District, but defeated; director of Cooley Dickinson Hospital, Northampton, 1913-1927; became a trustee of the Peoples’ Institute, Northampton, 1908 and served as treasurer of the Institute 1908-1921, vice-president of Northampton High School Alumni Association 1906-09 and president 1909-1912; president of St. Vincent de Paul Society 1900-1915; member St. Mary’s Roman Catholic Church, Northampton.

Married August 21, 1906, in Hartford, Conn., Ellen Hedican Duggan (B.L. Smith 1901), daughter of Bernard and Ellen (Hedican) Duggan. Children: Neil Anthony, ’28, now studying architecture at Yale School of the Fine Arts, Margaret Foley; and Virginia Mary.

Death due to heart disease Buried in St. Mary’s Cemetery, Northampton. Survived by wife, son, and two daughters
Henry Timothy Kneeland, Jr., B.A. 1897.

Born May 23, 1875, in Brooklyn, N.Y.
Died August 18, 1928, at Saranac Lake, N.Y.

Adelphi Academy, Brooklyn. Second colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years; member Yale Golf Club and Psi Upsilon.

Connected with Kneeland & Company (successors to Henry T. Kneeland & Company) 1897-1925, at first as clerk in its New York office for six months and from 1898 as manager of its grain elevator in Buffalo, N.Y.; treasurer and manager of Electric Grain Elevator Company in Buffalo (controlled by Kneeland & Company) 1898-1925; president of Williamson Forwarding Company of Buffalo 1916-1925; retired from all active business in 1926 and had lived at Saranac Lake for a year before his death; member First Unitarian Church, Buffalo.

Married February 12, 1904, in Buffalo, Emma Genevieve, daughter of George James and Mary Isabella (Weber) Shuman. No children.

Death due to pulmonary tuberculosis. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, brother, Yale Kneeland, '90, and four sisters, the Misses Alice, Jessie, and Edith Kneeland, of New York City, and Mrs. Williamson Pall, of Rye, N.Y.

Arthur Charles Sherwood, B.A. 1897.

Born May 7, 1877, in Englewood, N.J.
Died May 5, 1929, in Englewood, N.J.

Father, John Diddel Sherwood (B.A. 1839), a lawyer; served as aide-de-camp with rank of colonel on staff of General James S. Wadsworth, in Army of the Potomac; author; member Phi Beta Kappa; son of Thomas and Ruth (DuBois) Sherwood; descendant of Thomas Sherwood, who came from England to Stratford, Conn, early in the seventeenth century. Mother, Emeline Catherine (Dunn) Sherwood, daughter of Charles and Polly Dunn. Yale relatives include: John H. Sherwood, '90 (brother), and Thomas D Sherwood, '46 (uncle).

Englewood School for Boys. Oration appointment Junior year; dissertation appointment Senior year.

Employed in office of Jewett Brothers, bankers and brokers, New York City, from graduation until February, 1899; cashier with Brown, Burns & Company 1899–1900; cashier and manager for J. M. Fiske & Company, members of the New York Stock Exchange 1900–01, member of firm 1901–1910; manager for Sanderson & Brown, members of the New York Stock Exchange, six months, manager of touring department of Automobile Club of America 1910–12; salesman for W. F. Powers Company, lithographers and printers, January–August, 1913, and then manager of typographical department until 1916; in 1917 became connected with Hayden, Stone & Company, investment brokers, as manager of investment department; made member of firm 1923; director and member of finance committee of Architects’ Samples Corporation since 1920; member executive and finance committees Pacific Fire Insurance Company since 1920; member executive committee and director Georgia & Florida Railroad Company since 1927; secretary and director of Haystones Securities since 1927; member finance committee of Svea Life Insurance Company since 1928; director of Mavis Bottling Company 1929; had been director also of Sonora Phonograph Company, Ray Consolidated Copper Company, Old Dominion Terminal Company, Old Dominion Steamship Company, Nassau Light & Power Company, Acoustic Products Company; president of Yale Alumni Association of the Northern Valley of New Jersey 1921–22; served as captain in Englewood Home Guard during the World War, and as First Lieutenant in Company B, Englewood Battalion, New Jersey State Militia Reserve, when the home guard company was taken over; manager of the first intensive campaign for members of American Red Cross, in New York, 1916; also aided Republican National Committee in organizing campaigns for sustaining memberships in Republican Party, 1916; had served as chairman of finance committee of Central Council of Welfare Agencies; member Englewood Presbyterian Church.

Married April 2, 1902, in Englewood, Carolyn Courtney, daughter of John Archibald and Mary Wilson (Singleton) Bartow Children: John Diddel (died in infancy), Elizabeth (B A Smith 1926), and Carolyn Bartow, member of Class of 1932, Smith College.

Edward Tillotson, B.A. 1897.

Born July 2, 1875, in Farmington, Conn.
Died March 11, 1929, in Swampscott, Mass.

Father, Charles Edward Tillotson, a business man in New Haven. Mother, Cornelia Lucy (Cowles) Tillotson.

New Haven High School. Second colloquy appointment Junior year, first colloquy appointment Senior year; member Second Glee Club Junior year.

B D Berkeley Divinity School 1900; curate, St. George's Episcopal Church, Newburgh, N. Y., 1900–02; ordained to Episcopal priesthood June 5, 1901; curate 1902–03 and minister in charge 1903–04 St. Paul's Church, Boston, had since been rector of Church of the Holy Name, Swampscott, chairman of Swampscott School Committee twelve years; spent summer of 1908 at Field Museum of Natural History, Chicago, during World War engaged in social service work at plant of the Burgess Company, navy plane manufacturers, in Marblehead, Mass; published a sermon, "Christian Citizenship," in 1912; secretary of Clerical Club of Boston several years; member Massachusetts Clerical Association and Massachusetts Church Union Married October 30, 1905, in Boston, Alice Lethbridge Duer, daughter of Enos Dwyer and Lucy Smith (Duer) Sawyer. One daughter, Cornelia Duer.

Death due to coronary occlusion. Buried in Riverside Cemetery, Farmington, Conn. His wife and daughter survive him.

Edward Octavius Emerson, B.A. 1898.

Born July 21, 1876, in Titusville, Pa.
Died October 9, 1928, in New York City.

Father, Edward Octavius Emerson, a gas and oil producer, member of Titusville City Council and mayor of the city, Lieutenant and Adjutant, 19th Wisconsin Infantry, 1861–65, son of Charles Octavius Emerson (B.A. Harvard 1818) and Harriet J (Phillips) Emerson; descendant of Thomas Emerson, who came from England to Ipswich, Mass., in 1638. Mother, Lucy Harriet (Johnson) Emerson, daughter of John Alexander and Almira Barrows (Hafford) Johnson; of Scotch-Irish ancestry, descendant of John Johnson, who settled in Pennsylvania about 1780. Yale relatives include Dr. Job Lyman (B.A. 1756), great-great-grandfather, and four nephews, E. Waldo Emerson, '16, John E. Emerson, ex-'19, Charles F. Emerson, ex-'21, and William B. Emerson, '25.

Hotchkiss School. Member of Freshman honor division, oration appointments Junior and Senior years.

Cashier of People's Natural Gas Company of Pittsburgh, Pa., 1898–1900; in fire insurance business in Titusville 1900–03; in business with his father 1903–04; in 1904 acquired an interest in the Titusville Forge Company and served as treasurer until 1912; managed father's estate 1912–17; in 1912 with his brother, John L. Emerson, ex-'93, formed the general investment company of Emerson Brothers in Titusville, and continued in it until his death; vice-president and director of Commercial Bank & Trust Company (now merged with Titusville Trust Company under that name) 1906–1928, vice-president and treasurer of Buffalo Machine & Iron Company (now Lake Erie Engineering Corporation) since 1921; director of American Plate Glass Company of Kane, Pa., about 1913–1923; director Keystone Gas Company of
Obituary Record

Olean, N Y.; president of Select Council of Titusville 1904–06; member of School Board 1908–1914 (president 1910–14); promoter of Titusville Y. M. C. A., member of committee to raise funds for its establishment and of building committee in 1912; president 1912–1920, and then elected honorary chairman of Board of Directors for life; chairman of foreign work committee, attended district, state, and national conventions of the association; member Pennsylvania State Y. M. C. A. Committee 1920–28, and National Council of the Association 1923–28; member Pennsylvania State Y. M. C. A. War Work Council, and director for Crawford County; member Local Draft Board No. 1 (eastern), Crawford County, 1917–19; chairman United War Work Drive for Crawford County and on executive committee of Red Cross drives; governor of Titusville Country Club 1909–1910, 1919, 1921, 1923, 1924 (president 1910 and 1912); member of committee of Presbyterian Church in his district to raise endowment fund for pensions of Presbyterian ministers 1926; one of three original members of advisory committee elected to sit with trustees of Hotchkiss School 1922–24.

Death, due to arteriosclerosis, occurred at New York Hospital after a serious illness of two months, had been in failing health for a year Buried in Emerson mausoleum, Woodlawn Cemetery, Titusville. Survived by wife, sons, two grandchildren, a sister, Mrs William E. Geil (B.A. Wellesley 1896), of Doylestown, Pa., and his brother, John L. Emerson. Another brother, Charles F. Emerson, ex-'86 S., died in 1904.

John Jay, B.A. 1898.

Born November 19, 1875, in New York City

Father, the Rev Peter Augustus Jay (B.A. Columbia 1863), a Protestant Episcopal minister; rector of churches in Warwick, N Y., and Fair Haven, Conn.; son of John Clarkson Jay (B.A. Columbia 1827, M.D. 1830) and Laura (Prime)
Jay; grandson of Peter A. Jay (B A. Columbia 1794, honorary M.A. Yale 1798, LL D. Harvard 1831 and Columbia 1835); great-grandson of John Jay (B A. Columbia 1764, LL D. Harvard 1790, Edinburgh 1792, and Brown 1794), signor of the Declaration of Independence and first chief justice of the United States, great-great-grandson of William Livingston (B.A. 1741); fifth in descent from Augustus Jay, who came to America from La Rochelle, France, in 1685 and settled in New York City. Mother, Julia (Post) Jay, daughter of Alfred Charles Post (B A. Columbia 1822, M D 1827, LL.D. New York University 1872) and Harriet (Beers) Post; descendant of Richard Post, who came from England to Massachusetts, settled on Long Island in 1640, was one of the founders of Southampton, and was one of the early settlers of New London, Conn., in 1646 or 1647. Yale relatives include: Peter VanB Livingston (B A. 1731), John Livingston (B A. 1733), and Philip Livingston (B A. 1737) (great-great-great-uncles); William Jay (B A. 1807) (great-great-great-uncle); and Alexander Jay Bruen and John and Rudolf Wurts, all '78, W Livingston Bruen, '79, Charles P. Wurts, '80, Alexander J. Wurts, '83 S, and P. Jay Wurts, '91 S (cousins).

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. First colloquy appointment Senior year; an editor of Yale Daily News, member Kappa Psi and Psi Upsilon.

Connected with bond department of Strong, Sturgis & Company, bankers and brokers, in New York City 1898-1904; engaged in literary (biographical) work in New York City 1904-08; employed in one of the offices of Post & Flagg, bankers, in New York 1908-1913; had since been connected with New York Stock Exchange firm of Tailer & Robinson; manager successively of two of their branch offices in New York until May, 1928, when he became a special partner in the firm; interested in book collecting, mainly first editions of English literature, also Americana, prints, and autographs; author: Memorials of Peter A. Jay (1905); member Society of Colonial Wars and Grace Episcopal Church, New York.

Obituary Record

Death, due to acute general peritonitis following rupture of the appendix, occurred at Cape Cod Hospital, Hyannis. Buried in Jay Cemetery, Rye, N. Y. Survived by wife, mother (died February 18, 1929), a brother, Pierre Jay, ’92, and two sisters, Miss Mary Rutherfurd Jay and Mrs. Frederic DeWitt Wells, both of New York City.

George Willis Field, B.A. 1899.

Born February 24, 1875, in Worcester, Mass.
Died March 7, 1929, in Scarsdale, N. Y.

Father, Edwin Herbert Field, a merchant; son of Horace H. and Nancy Maria (Rice) Field, descendant of John Field, who came to America from England. Mother, Emma Moore (Smith) Field, daughter of S. Moore and Ellen E. (Grout) Smith.

Worcester High School. Oration appointment Junior year and high oration appointment Senior year; two-year honors in English; member Phi Beta Kappa.

Private tutor in New York City and Florida 1899-1901; studied law at New York Law School 1901-03 (LL B. 1903), and served as law clerk in office of Boardman, Platt & Soley (Albert B. Boardman, ’73, and Frank H. Platt, ’77) 1901-06; admitted to Bar of New York in July, 1903; practiced in New York City with firm of O’Brien, Boardman & Platt 1906-1916, partner in firm of Platt & Field (F. H. Platt and Livingston Platt, ’07) 1916-21; Platt, Field, Taylor & Patterson 1921-24; and Platt, Field & Taylor since 1924; had maintained a branch office in Scarsdale since 1922; connected with Batopilas Mining Company as director and member of executive committee since 1912, and vice-president since 1922; director and counsel for Scarsdale National Bank & Trust Company since 1922, and for Scarsdale Supply Company and Scarsdale Improvement Corporation since 1923; president of Village of Scarsdale 1919-1921, member of Westchester County Government Commission (served on Village Planning Commission) as village trustee 1918-1920; supervisor of Town of Scarsdale 1927-29, president Leewood Golf Club 1924-26, and Scarsdale Town Club 1922; member New York Phi Beta Kappa Alumni Association, and Scarsdale Congregational Church (had been trustee and treasurer).

Married July 2, 1901, in Holden, Mass, Ethel Elizabeth, daughter of John Thomas and Julia (Pierce) Brierly. Children: Brierly, Massachusetts Agricultural College ex-’24 (died in 1927); George Willis, Jr., Wesleyan ex-’29, and Ethel Elizabeth.

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Grove Cemetery, Holden, Mass. Survived by wife, son, daughter, and a brother, Herbert E. Field, of Wheeling, W Va

Edward Houston Bindley, B.A. 1900.

Born June 11, 1878, in Pittsburgh, Pa

Father, John Bindley, a steel manufacturer; chairman of board of Pittsburgh Steel Company; president Duquesne National Bank, trustee of Dollar Savings Bank of Pittsburgh; son of John Cooper and Elmina (McEwen) Bindley; grandson of John Bindley, who came from England to Pennsylvania in the latter part of the eighteenth century. Mother, Emeline Catherine (Houston) Bindley, daughter of Edward Houston, who came to America from Ireland in 1824 and settled in Pittsburgh in 1837, and Mary (Conery) Houston. Yale relatives include a brother, William A. Bindley, ’01 S

Shady Side Academy, Pittsburgh Second colloquy appointment Junior year; first colloquy appointment Senior year; member Beta Theta Pi

Attended Harvard Law School 1900–01; became connected with Pittsburgh Steel Company as assistant to the superintendent at Monessen, Pa, in 1901; went to California for his health in January, 1904, and spent most of the next two years there; returned in October, 1905, and continued with Pittsburgh Steel Company until death, as director since 1906, assistant secretary 1913–1922, vice-president since 1922, member of executive committee since its inception in 1915; president of Neely Nut & Bolt Company since 1922 (director since 1912); vice-president and general manager of Pittsburgh Steel Products Company since 1914; director Albion Land
Obituary Record

Company since 1908; director of Monessen Southwestern Railroad Company and Monessen Coal & Coke Company since 1914, vice-president and director of McKelvy-Brackenridge Land Company 1919–1928; director of Alicia Supply Company since 1919, National Steel Fabric Company since 1921, Duquesne National Bank since 1922, and Workingman's Savings and Trust Company of the North Side since 1926; had also been connected with Pittsburgh-Arizona Gold & Copper Company and Bindley Hardware & Manufacturing Company; member Calvary Episcopal Church.

Married November 1, 1904, in Pittsburgh, Cornelia Brackenridge, daughter of James Erastus McKelvy (B.A Dickinson 1866) and Caroline Cornelia (Brackenridge) McKelvy. Children: John, member of Class of 1932, Lehigh; Edward Houston, Jr., and James McKelvy.

Death, due to diphtheria, followed an illness of less than a day. Buried in Allegheny Cemetery, Pittsburgh. Survived by wife, three sons, and a sister, Mrs. George Davidson, of Los Angeles, Calif.

Walter Lyon Chittenden, B.A. 1900

Born September 15, 1877, in Binghamton, N.Y.
Died February 10, 1929, in New York City.

Father, Joseph Henry Chittenden (M.D New York University 1864), a physician; founder of public school system in Binghamton and president of Board of Education; son of Adijah and Miranda (Lyon) Chittenden; descendant of William Chittenden, who came from England in 1656 and settled in Guilford, Conn. Mother, Helen DeEtta (Smith) Chittenden, daughter of Lyman Burton and Malinda (Simmons) Smith.

The Hill School, First colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years, two-year honors in natural science Senior year; commodore of Dunham Boat Club; member Sophomore German and Junior Promenade committees and Psi Upsilon.

Had been engaged in the bond business since graduation; with Harris, Forbes & Company, New York City, 1900–02; correspondent in Binghamton, for N.W. Harris & Company. and Lee Higginson & Company 1902–06, in business independently 1906–1920; formed partnership with William G. Phelps, Jr., ’14, under firm name of Chittenden, Phelps & Company, Inc., in Binghamton, in 1920, and was president of company at time of death; president Binghamton Chamber of Commerce 1927–28; trustee City National Bank since 1919; completed organization of Investment Trust Company of Binghamton in 1928 and made president, vice-president of Universal Motor Company 1922–27; secretary of Russell Auto Sales Company 1923–28; director of Larrabee Deyo Motor Truck Company 1924–29, and of Agency Investment Company; secretary and treasurer Chipman Electric Purifying Company 1920–25; during the World War was active in Liberty Loan and Red Cross committee work; member Trinity Memorial Church (Protestant Episcopal), Binghamton.

Married October 31, 1904, in Binghamton, Eva Bronson, daughter of William Worth and Eva (Bronson) Sisson Children: William Sisson, ’30; and Madeleine Sisson Mrs. Chittenden died December 16, 1927.

Took his own life; had suffered from melancholia since the death of his wife and had been a patient in Park West Hospital, New York City. Survived by son, daughter, and a brother, Arthur S. Chittenden, ’96

Harry Augustus Dow, B.A. 1900.

Born April 30, 1877, in Pittsfield, Ill
Died November 5, 1928, in Evanston, Ill

Father, Augustus Dow, a grain merchant and mill owner, senior partner in firm of Dow & King, flour manufacturers; mayor of Pittsfield; member of Illinois General Assembly; Paymaster's Clerk with Army of the Cumberland during the Civil War; son of Alonzo and Chanty (Chapman) Dow. Mother, Judith White (Morton) Dow, Mount Holyoke ex-’57; daughter of John Bardwell and Elizabeth M. (White) Morton.

Pittsfield High School, Whipple Academy, and Illinois College (attended 1894–95). Philosophical oration appointments Junior and Senior years; two-year honors in history; member Sophomore Wigwam, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Phi Beta Kappa.

LL B. University of Michigan 1903 (class orator, treasurer of Athletic Association, and member Delta Chi); admitted to Michigan Bar in June, 1903, and to Illinois Bar, August, 1903; practiced law in Pittsfield 1903-04; private secretary to N. W. Harris, head of banking firm of N. W. Harris & Company of Chicago, 1904-08; had since been connected with Harris Trust & Savings Bank in that city; assistant secretary 1911-1920, attorney 1920-21, secretary and attorney 1922-25, and vice-president since 1926; licensed to practice before United States Supreme Court November 9, 1911; secretary Evanston Zoning Commission 1921-25; a founder of Fiduciaries Association of Chicago in 1923; deacon 1911-13, and chairman of board of trustees 1923-24 and 1927-28, of Hyde Park Presbyterian Church, Chicago; member Chicago Bar Association.

Death due to arterial hypertension and myocarditis. Buried in Rosehill Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife, two sons, and daughter.

Eugene Francis Farley, B.A. 1900.

Born July 6, 1878, in Naugatuck, Conn.
Died October 27, 1928, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, James C. Farley; connected with Sterling Piano Factory; son of Nicholas and Ann (Colligan) Farley; descended from Nicholas Farley, who came from County Cavan, Ireland, and settled in Taunton, Mass. Mother, Mary (Kelly) Farley; daughter of Richard Kelly, who came from Derrinane, Ireland, and settled in Norwich, Conn., in 1847, and Nancy (McCarthy) Kelly. Yale relatives include a cousin, Edward L. Kelly, '21 L.

Derby (Conn.) High School. First Berkeley premium
Freshman year; second Winthrop prize Junior year; oration appointments Junior and Senior years.

Taught English and Latin in Bridgeport (Conn.) High School 1900–04; assistant superintendent Prudential Life Insurance of New Haven 1904–08; studied in Yale School of Law 1908–1911 (during 1909–1911 taught Latin half time in New Haven High School); LL B 1911; admitted to Connecticut Bar in June, 1911; had since practiced law in New Haven; served as assistant prosecuting attorney of New Haven City Court 1915–1923 and as judge of the Court 1925–27; founder and first president (1912–13) of Knights of Columbus Club of New Haven; member New Haven City Bar Association and St. Aiden's Roman Catholic Church, Westville, New Haven.

Married January 31, 1914, in Norwich, Conn., Nellie Agnes, daughter of Denis and Margaret Theresa (Trainor) Lyons. Children: Barbara (died in 1918), and Frances (died in infancy).

Death due to heart disease; taken ill while attending Yale-Army football game, and died on the way to Grace Hospital. Buried in St. Lawrence Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, an adopted daughter, Ruth, three sisters, Mrs. John Duigan, of Naugatuck, Mrs. William Nolan and Miss Anne Farley, both of Derby, and a brother, Dr. Edward B. Farley, ’11 M

John Morgan Hopkins, B.A. 1900.

Born November 12, 1861, in College Grove, Tenn.

Died January 1, 1929, in Charlottesville, Va.

Father, James Copeland Hopkins, a farmer; served in the Confederate Army as escort of General Nathan Bedford Forrest; son of Cynthia (Copeland) Hopkins. Mother, Nancy (Adcock) Hopkins; daughter of William Adcock.

Winchester Normal School and Carrick Academy, Winchester, Tenn. Principal of public school, Sewanee, Tenn., 1881; B.A. Winchester Normal School 1884; principal, Scottsboro (Ala.) Normal School, 1884–85; attended Vanderbilt University 1886–87; principal, Flovilla (Ga.) School, 1887–1891; taught Greek and Science, Terrill College, Decherd, Tenn, 1891–96. Entered Yale 1896; won DeForest Mathematical prize Freshman year; Waterman scholarship 1898–1899, 1899–1900; philosophical oration appointment Junior year; an editor and business manager of Yale Literary Magazine, and an editor of the Banner; vice-president of German Club; member Senior Class Supper Committee, Alpha Delta Phi, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Assistant in mathematics, The Hill School, January, 1901–April, 1902; obliged to give up work on account of ill health and went to the Adirondacks; the following winter, with Paul C. Ransom, organized the Adirondack-Florida School, which was located at Rainbow Lake during autumn and spring terms, and near Miami, Fla., in the winter; continued in this connection until 1905, when he organized the Lake Placid School for Boys (autumn and spring terms at Lake Placid, and winter term at Cocoanut Grove, Fla.); was headmaster until 1921 (associate headmaster Herbert L. Malcolm, '07); had lived at Keswick, Va., since 1921, engaged in farming, active in Masonic homes for aged, tubercular, and orphans, Charlottesville, Va.; member Sons of Confederate Veterans, and Charlottesville Presbyterian Church.

Married August 28, 1901, in Decherd, Tenn., Maud Terrill (attended University of Chicago 1898–99), daughter of James William Terrill (attended William Jewell College 1858–59; M.A University of Missouri 1872), and Araminta Suggett (Bradley) Terrill. No children.

Death due to carcinoma of liver. Buried in Maplewood Cemetery, Charlottesville. Survived by wife and two sisters, Mrs. John W Faris and Mrs. Sarah H Shelton, both of Overall, Tenn.

---

Preston Kumler, B.A. 1900.

Born December 5, 1877, in Evansville, Ind.
Died November 21, 1928, in Washington, D.C.

Father, Daniel Beary Kumler (LL.B. University of Michigan 1869); a lawyer in Evansville. Mother, Juliet Amelia (Preston) Kumler.
Evansville High School and Westminster School. First colloquy appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year; an editor of Yale Daily News; undergraduate editor of Yale Alumni Weekly; chairman of Class Day Committee; member Alpha Delta Phi LL.B. Harvard 1903 (associate editor of Harvard Law Review); in law office of Baker & Daniels in Indianapolis, Ind., 1903–04; in 1904 became associated with law firm of Bentley & Burling in Chicago (of which Cyrus Bentley, '82, was senior partner) and made member of firm 1909; remained with that firm and its successors, Bentley, Burling & Swan (in which his classmate, Thomas W. Swan, was also a partner), Bentley, Burling & Kumler, and Bentley, Burling, Kumler & Gordon, until entering service May 15, 1917; attended first Officers' Training Camp at Fort Sheridan, where commissioned a Captain of Infantry August 15, 1917; assigned to command of Company M, 342d Infantry, 86th Division, with which he served at Camp Grant, Ill., and in France, going overseas September 10, 1918, as member of Advance Detachment of 86th Division; on November 18, 1918, assigned to 59th Infantry, 4th Division, and later to special duty as officer in charge of liaison and communications at the Headquarters of 8th Infantry Brigade with Army of Occupation; given his discharge February 23, 1919, resumed practice of law in Chicago 1919, but in 1921 went to Russia with American Relief Administration; spent a month in Moscow and then was assigned successively to organize relief work in provinces of Tsaritsin and Astrakhan on lower Volga and as inspector for the Crimea; returned to Chicago 1923 and in fall of that year became connected with State Department at Washington, in which he had since been engaged on Russian affairs; director and member of executive committee of Illinois and Cook County Civil Service Reform associations; director of Chicago City Club and chairman of its committee on political nominations and elections, president of Chicago Legal Club, member executive committee of Municipal Voters League and secretary 1914–16; elected second vice-president of Yale Club of Washington for the year 1928–29.

Unmarried
Obituary Record

Death, due to a fractured skull received in an automobile accident three hours earlier, occurred at the Georgetown Hospital, Washington. Buried in Evansville. Survived by no immediate relatives.

Born November 7, 1878, in Newburgh, N. Y.
Died April 21, 1929, in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Father, Joel Wakeman Burdick; president and chairman of Board of Directors of West Penn Steel Company; vice-president and traffic manager of Delaware & Hudson Railroad Company, author; son of Russell Maxson and Sarah Elizabeth (Farnsworth) Burdick; descended from Robert Burdick, who came from England to Rhode Island in 1651, was a freeman at Newport 1655, and a founder of Westerly. Mother, Ella Pixley (Bartlett) Burdick, daughter of William Winsor and Esther E. (Pixley) Bartlett; descendant of Richard Bartlett, who came from Stopham, England, to Newbury, Mass., prior to 1647, and of Roger Williams.

Albany Academy; Bishops College, Canada; Phillips-Andover. On University Football Squad three years; served as chairman of Sophomore German and Junior Promenade committees; second wrangler; member Kappa Psi, Psi Upsilon, and Wolf's Head. Received degree in 1927 with enrollment in Class of 1902.

Clerk with Rand, Avery Supply Company, Boston, Mass., 1902-03; time clerk and laborer, Passaic Steel Company, Paterson, N. J., 1903-04, and salesman 1904-05; steel inspector, Allegheny Steel Company, Pittsburgh, Pa., 1906; chief clerk, Interstate Steel Company, Brackenridge, Pa., 1907-08; spent the next six months in organizing West Penn Steel Company, in Brackenridge, served as secretary and treasurer 1908-1919, and as president since 1919; president of Board of Managers of Children’s Hospital of Pittsburgh 1924-27 (secretary 1923-24); member campaign committee of Allegheny County for third and fourth liberty loans; director of Phillips Academy Alumni Fund 1921; president Yale Alumni Association of Western Pennsylvania 1920-22; member (third) Regional Council of Boy Scouts 1925-29; auxiliary vestryman of Church of the Ascension (Episcopal); member American Iron and Steel Institute, Yale Engineering Association, Audubon Society, American Game Protective Association, and Wild Life League.

Married April 26, 1905, in Andover, Mass., Helene Frances, daughter of Eben Augustus and Martha (Woods) Baldwin. Children: Frances (wife of Charles H. Cromwell, Jr., B.A. Princeton 1926); Julian, Jr. (died 1921); Joel Wakeman, 2d, '32; and Martha Ann.

Death due to myocardial degeneration. Buried in Homewood Cemetery, Pittsburgh. Survived by wife, two daughters, son, and four sisters, Mrs. Harry W. Cross, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs. Lewis P. Evans, of Bronxville, N. Y.; Mrs. Charles E. Magrane, of Swampscott, Mass.; and Mrs. Elizabeth Burdick Knable, wife of G. Elkins Knable, '12 S.

Frederic Wells Campbell, B.A. 1902.

Born June 22, 1880, in New Haven, Conn.
Died August 1, 1928, in New Haven, Conn.

Curtis School, Brookfield, and Hopkins Grammar School. First colloquy appointment Senior year.
Associated with the Frederick M. Ward Company in real estate business in New Haven since graduation; clerk for Mr. Ward 1902–1911, assistant treasurer 1911–1919, and treasurer since 1919; alderman from 21st Ward two terms, 1922–1925, and during that period served on committee on streets and squares; was responsible for many important achievements in development of New Haven, including widening of Church Street, the so-called Grove Street extension, now known as Tower Parkway, the new approach to the station, the building of Tomlinson Bridge, and development of West River Memorial Parkway and public golf course; with Mr. George Dudley Seymour (honorary M.A. 1913), and with his fellow alderman, Mr. Greenberg, achieved purchase of Lighthouse Park, member of Building Lines Commission 1916–1927; member of Municipal Traffic Commission (for the formation of which he was largely responsible) October, 1927–January, 1928, and of Traffic Committee of Chamber of Commerce; in 1925 served on World Court Committee of New Haven; treasurer of Florence Crittenden Mission about 1903; member New Haven Real Estate Board since 1919, 2d Company, Governor's Foot Guards, Connecticut Historical Society, and Dwight Place Congregational Church (treasurer 1908–1911)

Married October 22, 1917, in New Haven, Loretta Cecilia, daughter of John and Margaret Loretta (Kelly) Shea. No children

Melancholia caused him to take his own life. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, mother, and three sisters, Winnifred, wife of Harry W. Vanneman (LL.M. 1910), Mary, wife of Newton A. Merritt, Jr., '97, and Mrs. Philip Klein, of New York City.

Howard Frank Taylor, B.A. 1902.

Born February 26, 1879, in Manchester, Conn.
Died November 8, 1928, in Jersey City, N. J.

Father, Frank Smith Taylor, a builder; son of Oliver Brewster Taylor (M.D. Harvard 1842) and Jane Elizabeth (Smith) Taylor; direct descendant of Elder Brewster in the ninth generation, and of the Reverend Edward Taylor (B A Harvard 1671, M A. 1720), of Coventry, England, who came to America in 1660, and was a minister at Westfield, Mass Mother, Mary (Avery) Taylor; daughter of Samuel Thomas and Amelia (Bunce) Avery; descendant of Christopher Avery, who came from Devonshire, England, to New London, Conn, in the seventeenth century. Yale relatives include a cousin: Walter A. Sadd, '84 S.

Hartford Public High School. Entered Yale with Class of 1901 but withdrew at end of Junior year and during following year studied at Y. M. C. A. (now International) College, Springfield, Mass.; then returned to Yale for his Senior year, held Hurlbut scholarship and was awarded a Berkeley Premium; high oration appointments Junior and Senior years, member Phi Beta Kappa Apprentice with Jewell Belting Company, Hartford, Conn., and salesman for Ohio Rubber Company, Cleveland, Ohio, for about a year; after traveling in Europe, did graduate work in Latin and Greek at University of Chicago 1904-05 (M A 1906); had been engaged in teaching since 1905, taught Latin at Shortridge High School, Indianapolis, Ind, 1905-1916, at New Rochelle (N. Y.) High School 1916-18, at Horace Mann School for Boys, New York City, 1918-19; had since taught Spanish at Lincoln High School, Jersey City; took graduate work in education and Spanish at Columbia at various times during 1916-1926 (member local chapter of Phi Delta Kappa); member Jersey City and New Jersey State Teachers' associations, National Education Association, New York chapter of American Association of Teachers of Spanish, and Bergen Dutch Reformed Church, Jersey City.

Married August 19, 1905, in Cleveland, Wilhelmine Catherine Klostermeier (graduate of Cleveland Normal School, now School of Education at Western Reserve University, 1897), daughter of Henry John and Anna Elizabeth (Flasche) Klostermeier. Children: Paul Howard (M.E. Stevens Institute of Technology 1927); and Louise Wilhelmine, member of Class of 1931, Barnard College.

Death due to general septicaemia, following a nasal abscess. Buried in Bayview Cemetery, New York City. Survived by wife, son, daughter, and father.
Obituary Record

Born May 10, 1879, in New York City.
Died November 24, 1928, in Ridgewood, N. J.

Father, the Rev. William Wylie (graduate of Theological Seminary of Reformed Presbyterian Church in North America 1871), a Reformed Presbyterian minister; born in Scotland and came to America in 1850; son of Andrew and Lillias (Buchanan) Wylie. Mother, Susan Leodania (McLeod) Wylie, daughter of the Rev. John Niel McLeod (B.A. Columbia 1826, M.A. 1833, graduate of Theological Seminary of Reformed Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, 1828, D.D. Dickinson 1846), and Margaret Thomson (Wylie) McLeod; descended from the Rev Alexander McLeod, D.D. (B.A. Union 1798), who came from Island of Mull, Scotland, to Princeton, N. J., in 1792. Yale relatives include a cousin, R. Louis Clarkson, '22 S.

Dwight School, New York City. Entered Yale with Class of 1901 but joined 1902 the next year; member Cross Country Club and Zeta Psi.

Connected with Knickerbocker Trust Company in New York City as clerk, assistant receiving teller, and assistant paying teller 1902-08; had since been in the advertising business in New York City; associated with Bankers & Merchants Agency Company; with Maclay & Mullally Brothers (of which William T. Mullally, ex-'02, was a member), as account executive and vice-president 1910-1915; with McLain-Hadden Simpers Company for six months; director of special service department of Rudolph Guenther, Inc. (now Rudolph Guenther-Russell Law, Inc.) 1916-17; since 1916 had been connected with P. W Brooks & Company, Inc., investment and bond house, as advertising manager; advertising counselor and editor of Bond Talk, published quarterly as a service to investors in Brooks bonds, 1913-1928; contributor to Earning Power; member of Board of Directors of Class of 1902 since 1924; member First Reformed Presbyterian Church, New York City Married December 9, 1915, in Clifton, N. J., Louise Elizabeth, daughter of William Henry and Mary (Willis) Young. Children Evan McLeod and Elizabeth Knight.

Death due to lobar pneumonia. Buried in Cedar Lawn Cemetery, Paterson, N. J. Survived by wife, son, daughter, and two half brothers, William Wylie and Fremont Wylie, of Manhattan, Kans.

Burton John Baldwin, B.A. 1903.

Born April 5, 1875, in Woodbridge, Conn.
Died September 18, 1928, in Providence, R. I.

Father, John Jeremiah Baldwin, a farmer; son of Abner Spencer and Mary Ann (Camp) Baldwin; descended from Richard Baldwin, who came from England to Milford, Conn., in 1650. Mother, Ellen Frances (Baldwin) Baldwin, daughter of Parsons and Mary Jane (Crofton) Baldwin.

Hopkins Grammar School and Mount Hermon School. B.A. Wesleyan 1902, member there of Delta Kappa Epsilon, entered Yale as a Senior in fall of 1902; second colloquy appointment.

Studied in Yale Divinity School 1902–04 and at Union Theological Seminary 1904–06, 1907–08 (B.D. 1908), had spent summers in preaching for Home Missionary Society at Minneapolis, Minn., 1903, Mankato 1904, near Burlington, Vt., 1905, and at Sixth Presbyterian Church, Newark, N. J., 1906; private tutor and did editorial work on an encyclopedia of the history of civilization 1906–07; did graduate work in sociology at Columbia while studying at Union Theological Seminary and at various times until 1915; made a study of part-time school children, ordained to Congregational ministry at Woodbridge, Conn., in May, 1908, and subsequently preached at South Reformed Church and Manor Chapel, New York City, and at First United Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, N. Y.; managing director of Muenchinger-King Hotel, Newport, R. I., 1916–1921, and owner and manager 1921–28, private tutor to Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., 1916–1921; member Yale and American Sociological societies, and Congregational Church, Woodbridge, Conn.

Married May 4, 1921, in Newport, Martha Josephine, daughter of Adolf Carl and Maria Josefina (Gohde) Ekberg, of Gustafberg, Sweden. Two daughters, Tuve Maria and Marta Adele. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin separated in 1926
Took his own life. Buried in Milfordshire Cemetery, Woodbridge. Survived by wife, two daughters, mother, a brother, Irving W Baldwin, '16 S, and a sister, Mrs. Egbert M. Stuart, of New Haven.

Merit Lancaster Davidson, B.A. 1903.

Born September 15, 1882, in Lexington, Ky.
Died August 3, 1928, in Newark, N. J.

Father, John Hull Davidson (attended Kentucky University, now Transylvania College, 1869-1872); in hotel business; connected at various times with Atlantic Hotel, Norfolk, Va., Hotel St. Andrew, New York City, and Robert Treat Hotel, Newark, N. J.; former mayor of Lexington, Ky.; son of James Thompson and Catherine (Hull) Davidson. Mother, Magdalen Davis (Lancaster) Davidson, daughter of Merit Proctor and Anne Elizabeth (Skillman) Lancaster. Yale relatives include a cousin, Merritt P. Lancaster, '02.

Columbia Institute, New York City. Oration appointment Junior year, dissertation appointment Senior year.

Studied in Yale School of Law during Senior year in college, and 1903–04; connected with auditing department of Chicago Tribune 1905; had subsequently been engaged in the hotel business, connected with Royal Arms Hotel, Hotel Astor (assistant manager), Hotel St. Andrew (publicity agent), and Arlington Hotel, New York City, and Monticello Hotel, Norfolk, Va., retired in 1922 on account of ill health and had since lived in Newark, N. J.

Unmarried

Death resulted from a fracture of the skull received in a fall. Cremated in Rosehill Cemetery, Newark, and ashes interred in Lexington Cemetery, Lexington, Ky. Survived by a sister, Mrs. William Tuttle, of Bala-Cynwyd, Pa.

Ralph Hill Melcer, B.A. 1903.

Born July 4, 1880, in San Francisco, Calif.
Died July 13, 1928, in New York City.

Father, William Melczer; engaged in mining; came to America from Austria. Mother, Elizabeth (Hughes) Melczer, descendant of John Hughes, who came to Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, from England early in the nineteenth century.

Thacher School and Phillips-Andover Second dispute appointment Junior year, first dispute appointment Senior year; member Delta Kappa Epsilon and Sigma Xi

Employed in comptroller’s office of American Locomotive Company in New York City, from fall of 1903 to January, 1904; then in actuarial department of New York Life Insurance Company until March, 1904; spent the next few months in Palo Alto, Calif., settling his father’s estate, and entered New York Law School in fall of 1904, helped organize the Frank Hagny Company, contractors, of New York City, the next year, and was its vice-president until September, 1906; then entered employ of Palmer Brothers Company, cotton manufacturers, of New London, Conn. (of which George S. Palmer, ’78, was later president), as assistant to superintendent of the New London mill; made superintendent of their mill at Montville, Conn, in 1907; served as manager and treasurer of the company 1917–1928, and was made president in January, 1928; president of Massasoit Manufacturing Company of Fall River, Mass., 1917–1920, and of Pequot Point Beach Company since 1923; treasurer of Swansea (Mass.) Dye Works, and director of National Bank of Commerce in New London since 1917; had served as chairman of Montville School Board 1915–1924 and as trustee of Montville Church; agent for War Industries Board and chairman of Liberty Loan Committee of Montville 1917–18.

Married October 29, 1907, in New York City, Grace, daughter of Edward Augustus and Isabel Silliman (Mitchell) Palmer, and niece of George S. Palmer, ’78 No children. Mr. and Mrs. Melcer separated in 1925

Death, due to Bright’s disease, occurred after an illness of about two months. Buried in Cedar Grove Cemetery, New London. Survived by mother (died May 25, 1929), a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth H. Melcer, of Paris, France, and a brother, Alfred Melcer, of Berkeley, Calif.
Obituary Record

William Butler Tyler, B.A. 1903.

Born March 11, 1878, in New Haven, Conn.
Died April 25, 1929, in New York City.

Father, William Roger Tyler, partner in firm of Butler & Tyler, wholesale boot and shoe dealers; director of New Haven Savings Bank, New Haven County Bank, Security Insurance Company; son of Morris Tyler, Lieutenant Governor of Connecticut, and Mary Frisbie (Butler) Tyler; grandson of Ezekiel Butler, a soldier in the Revolutionary army. Mother, Sarah Pierpont (Coon) Tyler; daughter of Abram and Anne (Husted) Coon. Yale relatives include an uncle, Morris F. Tyler, '70, and the following cousins: Victor M. Tyler, '98, Ernest F. Tyler, ex-'00 Art, Leonard S. Tyler, '05, Audubon Tyler, ex-'07 S, and Morris Tyler, '24.

New Haven High School, Hopkins Grammar School, and Andover. Entered Yale with Class of 1902, but joined 1903 the next year, on Freshman Glee Club, and leader of Apollo Glee Club; member Hé Boulé, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Wolf's Head.

Connected with New York Telephone Company and Munson Steamship Line in New York 1903-04; with Railway Steel Spring Company 1904-06, with Machine Sales Company 1906-09; auditor and head of commission department of Fisk & Robinson, bankers, 1909-1912; bond salesman for Crawford, Patton & Cannon, brokers, with headquarters in New Haven, 1912-13; New York representative of Hallgarten & Company, bankers, New York City, 1913-14; personal representative for Cornelius Vanderbilt, '95, in New York City, 1914-18; had since been associated with William A. Bours, Jr., as general insurance broker in New York, served on the Mexican border in 1916 as a Corporal in Troop D, 1st Squadron of Cavalry, New Jersey National Guard.

Married February 18, 1905, in New Haven, Mary Benham Woolverton, ex-'01 Art, daughter of Charles Benham and Mary (Chapman) Woolverton. Children: Elizabeth Pierpont, the wife of Gaines T Roberts, '25 S, and Richard, an adopted son. Mr. and Mrs. Tyler were divorced in 1919.

Death due to diabetes. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by daughter, adopted son, a brother,
Roger P. Tyler, '01, and two sisters, the Misses Eleanor F. and Zaidee P. Tyler, of Pine Orchard, Conn

Donald Charles Bunn, B.A. 1904.

Born December 25, 1882, in LaCrosse, Wis
Died August 3, 1928, near Prosser, Wash

Father, Charles Wilson Bunn (Ph.B University of Wisconsin 1874, LL.B. 1875), lawyer, former general counsel, now vice-president and special counsel for Northern Pacific Railroad Company; son of Romanzo and Sarah (Purdy) Bunn. Mother, Mary (Anderson) Bunn.

Taft School. Member Psi Upsilon

Engaged in lumber business 1904–08, at first with Potlatch Lumber Company in Idaho, and after 1906, independently at Spokane, Wash; since 1908 had lived near Prosser, where he was engaged in raising and selling fruit as owner and manager of the Riverby Orchard, and raising Berkshire hogs for breeding purposes.

Married November 16, 1913, in Evanston, Ill, Carrie, daughter of Lewis Alonzo and Cordelia Ann (Stewart) Malone. Children: Mary Anderson (died in 1926); Robert Charles; Barbara (died in infancy); and Annabell, an adopted daughter.

Death due to lobar pneumonia. Buried in Prosser Cemetery, Prosser. Survived by wife, son, adopted daughter, father, a sister, Miss Helen Bunn, and a brother, Charles Bunn (B.A. Princeton 1914, LL B Harvard 1917), all of St Paul, Minn.

William Field Rundel, B.A. 1904.

Born August 29, 1879, in Penfield, N. Y.
Died April 19, 1929, in Rochester, N. Y

Father, Jerome Rundel, a farmer; son of Calvin and Emeline (Cook) Rundel; descended from William Rundel, who came from England to Greenwich, Conn., about 1670. Mother, Lydia Jane (Field) Rundel; daughter of Ebenezer and Beda (Rundel) Field; descended from Zechariah Field, who came from Yorkshire, England, to Dorchester, Mass., in 1629.

Connected with New York & New Jersey Telephone Company 1904-05, at first as chief service inspector for the New Jersey division, and later as manager of the Morristown district; resigned on account of ill health and lived in Fairport, N. Y., 1905-07; traveling salesman for Shinola Company, Rochester, N. Y., for six months, and for American Chemical Manufacturing and Mining Company, 1907-08; then organized Rundel Sales Company to market Rundel Automatic Stropper, which he had invented; general manager of that company until August, 1909, when he became superintendent and secretary of its successor, the Rundel Manufacturing Company, Inc.; later was traveling salesman for the White Crown Fruit Jar Company of Louisville, Ky., and for Fisk Rubber Company for a time; traveling salesman for Diamond Match Company of New York City 1916-1921, and served as supervisor for the company in Washington, D. C., traveling sales representative for Mush & Company, Inc., of Baltimore, 1925-26, for the territory of New England and the southern states; and for Pompeian Romanza Corporation (later Pompeian Corporation) 1926-28, when he retired on account of ill health.

Unmarried

Death due to acute myocarditis Buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Penfield, N. Y. Survived by two sisters, Mrs. Charles A. Clark and Miss Beda E. Rundel, both of Fairport, N. Y.

Born October 10, 1882, in Wilkes Barre, Pa.
Died May 16, 1929, in Wilkes Barre, Pa.

Father, William Mercer Shoemaker, ex-'61; in fire insurance business; partner in Thompson Derr & Brother, Wilkes Barre, served in Civil War as Lieutenant in 92d Pennsylvania Volunteers; son of Charles Denison Shoemaker (B.A. 1824) and Stella (Mercer) Shoemaker. Mother, Ella (Hunt) Shoemaker. Yale relatives include: Austin D. Shoemaker, '49 M., and Robert C. Shoemaker, '55 (uncles)
Tale College

Hotchkiss School. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon.

In employ of Bethlehem Steel Company 1905-06 at South Bethlehem, Pa; then with Thompson Derr & Brother, Inc, of Wilkes Barre, as superintendent of department of daily reports, for a time, for the past few years had devoted his entire time to the management of the family estate; member Wilkes Barre Chamber of Commerce.

Married April 14, 1910, in Wilkes Barre, Esther Shoemaker, daughter of Irving Ariel Stearns (M.E. Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute 1868) and Clonnda Wadhams (Shoemaker) Stearns; granddaughter of L Denison Shoemaker (B.A. 1840), and niece of Levi I. Shoemaker, ’82. Children: Irving Stearns (died in 1926), and William Mercer. Mrs. Shoemaker died March 20, 1926.

Death due to acute nephritis. Buried in Forty Fort (Pa.) Cemetery. Survived by one son.

Leonard Sanford Tyler, B.A. 1905.

Born April 20, 1881, in New Haven, Conn
Died September 24, 1928, in New Haven, Conn

Father, Morris Franklin Tyler (B.A. 1870, LL.B. 1873), a lawyer; member of firms of Tyler & Hubbard and Tyler, Ingersoll & Moran, of New Haven; member New Haven Board of Education; president of Southern New England Telephone Company for nearly twenty-five years, instructor and professor of jurisprudence at Yale 1893-99 and Treasurer of Yale 1899-1904; son of Morris Tyler, Lieutenant Governor of Connecticut, and Mary Frisbie (Butler) Tyler, granddaughter of Ezekiel Butler, a soldier in the Revolutionary Army. Mother, Delia Talman (Audubon) Tyler, daughter of Victor Gifford and Georgiana (Mallory) Audubon; granddaughter of John J. Audubon, the ornithologist; great-granddaughter of Jean Audubon, a French admiral, who came to Louisiana about the middle of the seventeenth century. Yale relatives include. Morris Tyler, ’24 (nephew); and Roger P. Tyler, ’01, William B Tyler, ’03, Robert C Clifford, ’10, and Berthoud Clifford, ’13 (cousins).

Hopkins Grammar School, New Haven High School, and Philp's-Andover Entered Yale with Class of 1904 but left at end of Sophomore year on account of illness and joined Class of 1905 as a Junior; leader of Freshman Glee Club; on University Glee Club four years (recorder in Sophomore year) and Quartette Junior year; member College Choir four years; cheer leader, member Linonia and Alpha Delta Phi, chairman of Triennial Committee of Class of 1905.

During first year after graduation took a trip around the world, private branch assistant to traffic engineer of New York and New York & New Jersey Telephone companies 1906-08, connected with Southern Pacific Railway Company of Mexico (in charge of commissary for construction gangs) at Sonora 1908-1910, connected with Acme Wire Company of New Haven from 1911 to March, 1928, as assistant treasurer 1911-16, production manager and vice-president of the company 1917-1928, director of New Haven Chamber of Commerce 1921-26 and of Morris Plan Bank since 1921, president of New Haven Improved Housing Association since 1922; vice-president of National Electric Condenser Company of New Haven 1921-28; chairman of New Haven Zoning Commission January, 1924-December, 1925; member World Court Committee of New Haven since 1925; member Industrial Research Bureau of Manufacturers' Association of Connecticut, Industrial Foremen of New Haven, national executive committee of the movement to reestablish Hopkins Grammar School as a national organization, and committee on admissions of Graduates Club of New Haven; served on committees of the manufacturers of New Haven for Liberty Loan, Red Cross, Y M C A., and War Savings campaigns; president of Yale Alumni Musical Corporation 1922-23 and treasurer 1922-26, member Yale Alumni Musical Committee (closely connected with the Musical Corporation) 1921-24; charter member University Glee Club of New Haven in 1924 and vice-president from 1924 until death; graduate treasurer of Alpha Delta Phi (Yale chapter) since 1918.

Death due to carcinoma of the lung Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, two daughters, son, and three brothers, Victor M. Tyler, '98, Ernest F. Tyler, ex-'00 Art, and Audubon Tyler, ex-'07 S.

George Stuart Dole, B.A. 1906.

Died September 6, 1928, in Winthrop, Maine

Father, the Reverend George Henry Dole (LL.B University of Michigan 1885), a minister of the New Jerusalem Church in Bath, Maine, LaPorte, Ind., Grand Rapids, Mich., and Wilmington, Del.; son of Henry Clinton and Marie Antoinette (Derby) Dole; descended from Richard Dole, who came from England to Newbury, Mass., in 1630. Mother, Louise Harriet (Stuart) Dole; daughter of Alexander and Eliza (Edwards) Stuart.

Bath (Maine) High School. Member of first Yale Wrestling Team; won four cups and a gold medal for intercollegiate wrestling championship; member Class Crew, won cup, member Acacia and Book and Bond.

Studied economics in Yale Graduate School 1906–09 (M.A. 1907); during that period was member of Yale Wrestling Team 1906–07, 1907–08, and coach of the team 1909; went to London with American Olympic Team in 1908, athletic director at Drury College and instructor in science at Drury Academy 1909–1911; taught languages and mathematics and was athletic director at Rock Ridge School, Wellesley Hills, Mass., 1911–12; instructor at the Allen School, West Newton, Mass., 1912–13; instructor in mathematics and assistant physical director at Worcester (Mass.) Academy 1913–14; taught various subjects, including physical training, at Milton (Mass.) Academy 1914–17, enlisted in the Navy April 11, 1917, as Quartermaster (3d Class), served on the “Malay” April 20–June 19; attended Cadet School, 1st Naval District, June 19–October 15; and was commissioned Ensign September 8, 1917; served as district enrolling officer at Boston Navy Yard October 15–30; commanding officer of U. S. Submarine Chaser No. 93 from October 30, 1917, to April 1, 1919, with headquarters at Corfu, Greece, for part of the time, operating in Straits of Gibraltar, off Malta, and in the Adriatic; after the armistice was on duty in connection with taking over naval craft and movement of troops; commanding officer, U S. Submarine Chaser No. 354, April 1–December 16, 1919; served first with North Russia Unit, until July 20, and afterward with North Sea Mine Sweeping Detachment, based at Orkney Islands; released from active duty January 10, 1920, awarded the Navy Cross with citation November 11, 1920; taught history, Latin, and science at Milton Academy 1920–23; took courses in social and political science in Yale Graduate School 1923–25; had since been professor of economics at St Lawrence University, Canton, N Y ; member Boston Society of New Jerusalem Church.

Unmarried

Death due to acute dilation of the heart. Buried in Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Wayne, Maine Survived by father, stepmother, a brother, Louis A. Dole, ’06, and a half brother, Thomas H. Dole, ex-’20.

John C. McNary, B.A. 1906.

Father, the Reverend William Pollock McNary (B.A. Washington and Jefferson 1861, B.D. Xenia Theological Seminary 1865, D.D Westminster 1889, LL.D. Tarkio 1923), minister of the United Presbyterian Church in Kansas, Indiana, Wyoming, and Missouri; president of board of directors of Tarkio College, and of school board of Bloomington; member board of directors of Xenia Theological Seminary; Adjutant, 123d Pennsylvania Volunteers, and Lieutenant Colonel, 58th Pennsylvania Regiment, during Civil War; son of William Hill and Margaret (Murray) McNary; descended from John McNary who came from Scotland in 1760, settled in Chanceford Township, York County, Pennsylvania, and served in 6th Battalion, York County militia, during the Revolutionary War. Mother, Elizabeth Macfarlane (Graham) McNary, daughter of James and Elizabeth (Macfarlane) Graham, descended from John Graham, who came from Scotland before 1776, settled in Lancaster County, Pa., and fought in the Revolution.

East Denver (Colo.) High School and Las Vegas (N. Mex.) Normal University. B.S. Tarkio College 1905 (president of his class; editor of The Trumpeter, year book; member college debating team, Athenian Literary Society, football and basketball squads); entered Yale as a Senior with Class of 1906; philosophical oration appointment, member of New Haven Oratorio Society.

Took up a homestead in Torrington, Wyo., under the Cary Act in June, 1906, but sold it in a few months; associated with his brother in newspaper work at Las Vegas as assistant manager of the Daily Optic September–November, 1906; engaged in farming and ranching 1906–1921, at Berino, N. Mex., at first as manager of the HO & RA Ranch Company and later as secretary and manager of its successor, the Lucerne Farm Company, of which he was part owner; and as secretary and manager and later president of the International Karakul & Rambouillet Sheep Company; president and manager of The Music Store, El Paso, Texas, 1921–24; had since been connected with the Cady Lumber Corporation (name changed from W. M. Cady Lumber Company in 1926), as general superintendent of the plants at McNary, Flagstaff, and Standard 1927–28, and as assistant to the president since January 1, 1928; served as chairman of the county commissioners of Dona Ana County about 1912–14, and as president of the Southern New Mexico Farmers’ Association about 1911–12; member First Presbyterian Church, El Paso.

Death, due to sleeping sickness, occurred after an illness of five weeks from influenza. Survived by wife, son, daughter, two brothers, James G McNary (B.A. Tarkio 1898), of Albuquerque, N. Mex., and George R McNary (B.A. Tarkio 1900), of Greensburg, Pa., and three sisters, Mrs Samuel E Marshall (B.A. Tarkio 1889), of Denver, Colo., Mrs Henry R Chalfant, of Loveland, Colo., and Mrs Henry T Bowie (B.A. Tarkio 1896), of El Paso, Texas.
Spencer Turner, B.A. 1906.

Born March 16, 1884, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died October 18, 1928, in New York City.

Father, Thomas Morgan Turner, a cotton merchant; president of the J. Spencer Turner Company; son of John Spencer and Cornelia (Eddy) Turner, descended from John Turner, who came from Wales to Georgia in the latter part of the seventeenth century. Mother, Emilie Thorp (Barnes) Turner; daughter of Alfred Smith and Harriet (Burr) Barnes; descended from Deacon Samuel Chapin, a founder of Springfield, Mass. Yale relatives include: Henry B. Barnes, '66, and William D. Barnes, '80 (uncles); John S. Turner, '30 (nephew), and A. Victor Barnes, ex-'01 S., Henry B. Barnes, '93, Lucius B. Barbour, '00, Courtlandt D. Barnes, '02, Clarence A. Barnes, '04, E. Mortimer Barnes, '04 S., Donald MacKay, 2d, '06, William D. Barnes, '07, Thomas S. Barnes, '10, Lucius H. Barbour, ex-'26, Ray P. Foote, '23, Alfred S. Foote and George A. Phelps, both '28, and Clarence A. Barnes, Jr., and Courtlandt D. Barnes, Jr., both '29 (cousins).

Hartford Public High School, Brooklyn Latin School, and Hotchkiss School. First dispute appointment Junior year, dissertation appointment Senior year; University Glee Club; played on Freshman and University Football teams; manager of Freshman and University Baseball teams; president of University Baseball Association; member Sophomore German and Junior Promenade committees, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Had been engaged in cotton goods business since graduation; connected with J. Spencer Turner Company 1906-1914 (director and manager from about 1910); became vice-president of Turner, Halsey Company in 1914, and had been president since 1920, manager of Imperial Cotton Company of Hamilton, Ontario, and chairman of mills committee of Cosmos Cotton Company, Yarmouth, N.S., 1912-14; president of Cotton Duck Association and of Hoskins Corporation since 1922; president of Association of Cotton Textile Merchants of New York 1927 and 1928 (had also been a director and treasurer); secretary Merchants' Club since 1924; member of executive committee of Farmers' Federation, Inc., since 1927; member of advisory board of Chemical National Bank 1928; director of Mount Vernon-Woodberry Mills, Inc., of Baltimore, since 1916; Chadwick-Hoskins Company of Charlotte, N. C., and Ashland Cotton Company of Jewett City, Conn., since 1920; Harlmoor Company of New York since 1924; during the war served as executive director of the Cotton Goods Section of the War Industries Board; member New York National Guard 1908–1912, and of St. George’s Church, New York City.

Married (1) September 14, 1912, in Pittsfield, Mass., Jessica Pomeroy, daughter of Henry Walker Bishop, of Chicago. Two daughters, Anne and Jane. Mr. and Mrs. Turner were divorced in 1923. Married (2) May 29, 1924, in New York City, Marjorie Sturges Turner, daughter of Lothrop Lewis and Mary Randolf (Buckley) Sturges.

Death due to carcinoma of the intestines. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York City. Survived by wife, two daughters, and a brother, Harold M. Turner, ’05.

Robert Campbell Wheeler, B.A. 1907.

Born May 6, 1884, in Chicago, Ill.
Died December 20, 1928, in Chicago, Ill.

Princeton (N. J.) Preparatory School, Armour Institute, and Harvard Preparatory School, Chicago. Received honors and first dispute appointment Junior year, dissertation appointment Senior year; treasurer of Fencing Club Sophomore year, member Yale Corinthian Yacht Club and Zeta Psi.

LL.B. Northwestern University 1910 (member Phi Delta Phi); during course in law school studied in office of Peck, Miller & Starr, lawyers, Chicago, practiced law with that firm 1910–14, with its successor, Miller, Starr, Packard & Peckham 1914–16, and independently 1916–1921; had since been a partner in firm of Wheeler & Kenly, stockbrokers; member Chicago Board of Trade, Chicago Stock Exchange, and New York Stock Exchange since 1921; and of New York Cotton Exchange 1922–28; member Chicago Bar Association, Chicago Association of Commerce, and Chicago Law Institute; attended Field Artillery Central Officers' Training School at Camp Zachary Taylor October 23–November 11, 1918.
Obituary Record

Married October 27, 1908, in Pueblo, Colo, Lydia Genevieve, daughter of Mahlon Daniel and Luna (Jordan) Thatcher. Children: Winifred and Robert Thatcher

Death due to broncho-pneumonia Buried in Graceland Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife, daughter, son, and mother.

Thomas Achelis, B.A. 1908.

Born November 2, 1885, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died May 3, 1929, in Florence, Italy.

Father, John Achelis, a partner in Frederick Vietor & Achelis, factors; son of Thomas Achelis, who came to New York from Germany in 1834, and Julie (Hutterott) Achelis Mother, Emmy (Bockler) Achelis, who came to America from Bremen, Germany, in 1884; daughter of Fritz and Emmy (Moeller) Bockler. Yale relatives include. Carl L. Vietor,'00 S., George F. Vietor, ex-'04, Frederic A Achelis, '07, and John A Vietor, '07.

Cutler School, Pomfret School, and private tutors. Vice-president of Dramatic Association Junior year, and president Senior year, took part in several plays; contributed to Yale Courant, member Zeta Psi.

Went to Paris shortly after graduation and studied architecture at the Beaux Arts Institute 1910–11, and dramatic art at Comédie Française 1911–12; was later with Rase, Eleanora Duse's leading man, in Italy; returned to United States in 1912; member Madame Yorska's French Company at the Century Theatre for a time; subsequently engaged as an actor under the name of "Paul Gordon"; played in "Romance" (1913), "Prunella" (1913–14), "John Gabriel Bjorkman" (1914), "A Husband in Love with his Wife" (1914), "Kitty McKay" (1914), "Paganini" (1915), "Moloch" (1917), "Playthings," "The Merry Wives of Windsor," "The Phantom Legion" (1919), "The Man Who Came Back" (1920–21), "Tin Pan Alley" (1921), "Rubicon" (1922), "Children of the Moon" (1923), "Hail and Farewell" (1923), had also played in stock company in Denver, Colo.; retired in 1925, and had since lived in Florence, Italy; entered Officers' Training Camp at Plattsburg, N. Y., in May, 1917; received a commission as Captain of Infantry August 15, 1917; assigned to command of Company C, 305th Infantry, at Camp Upton; went overseas with that unit April 16, 1918, transferred to Headquarters of 77th Division July 22 and to Group 2 of Adjutant General's Headquarters August 3, gassed on British Front, near Arras, and evacuated home December 24, 1918; discharged January 14, 1919; spent two months in Battle Creek (Mich.) Sanitarium.

Married July 18, 1921, in Denver, Colo., Saidie Barksdale, daughter of John Wright Read (Randolph-Macon ex-91), and Emma Mason (Barksdale) Read. No children.

Death due to heart failure. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn, N. Y. Survived by wife, father, two sisters, Miss Dorothy Achehs, and Mrs. Gardiner H. Miller, of New York City, and a brother, Johnfritz Achels, '13. Another brother, George T. Achels, '19, died in 1920.

Samuel Ellis Dunham, B.A. 1908.

Born August 7, 1868, in Inchbey, New Brunswick
Died September 8, 1928, in Norwalk, Conn.

Father, Samuel Dunham, a farmer; son of Samuel and Mary (Briggs) Dunham; descendant of Captain Ashur Dunham, a loyalist who moved from the colonies to New Brunswick in 1783. Mother, Rebecca Townsend (Redstone) Dunham; daughter of William Henry Redstone who came from Devonport, England, to New Brunswick about 1830, and Catharine (Watson) Redstone

Attended Ricker Classical Institute, Houlton, Maine, Maine Wesleyan Seminary, Kents Hill, Maine; Phillips-Exeter; University of New Hampshire 1901–03; mechanical engineer, Durham, N H , 1903-04. Entered Yale as a Sophomore in 1905, first colloquy appointment Senior year; held the Mead scholarship, during his college course, preached regularly at Stafford Springs, Conn

B D Yale 1910; S T M. Hartford Theological Seminary 1912, ordained to Congregational ministry December 22, 1910, pastor of Buckingham Congregational Church, Glastonbury, Conn , 1910-1916; employed by Colt Manufacturing Company in Hartford 1916-19; during this period taught in Hartford night schools, engaged in Americanization work on mayor's committee 1917-19, and served on several educational committees; did graduate work at Columbia 1919-1922 (MA 1921; Diploma in Vocational Education, Teachers College, 1922), taught English at Brooklyn Technical High School 1922-27, since June 1, 1928, had been headmaster of the Pine Art-Craft School and Camp in Lakewood, N. J; had completed the work for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in education at New York University, with the exception of his dissertation; lectured on religion at the Y M.C.A., New York City, 1922, former member of Hartford East Ministers' Association and Hartford Central Association of Congregational Ministers; had been secretary of Ministers' Club of Glastonbury and vice-president of Parents and Teachers Association, former secretary of New York Philosophical Society, and of Phi Delta Kappa (New York University) 1924; author of The Christology of the Colonial Period; member Plymouth Congregational Church, Brooklyn, N. Y

Married September 12, 1892, in Canton, Maine, Mary Ann, daughter of Roscoe G and Ella M. (Gibbs) Goding. Children. Vesta Ellen (died in 1916); Roscoe Goding; Madeleine Redstone (Mrs Howard E. Stafford); and Rebecca Melicent (Mrs John Hunt, Jr.) Mr. and Mrs. Dunham separated about 1919.

Death, due to a fracture of the skull received when struck by an automobile, was instantaneous. Buried in Old Norwalk Cemetery, Norwalk, Conn. Survived by wife, son, two daughters, several grandchildren, two sisters, Mrs Annie Bell D. Langley, of Lakeville, New Brunswick, and Miss Helen Dunham, of Adams, Mass., and a brother, William H E. Dunham, of Everett, Wash
Ralph Porter Mackenzie, B.A. 1908.

Born October 13, 1887, in Lima, Ohio
Died August 24, 1928, in Cincinnati, Ohio

Father, William Leonard Mackenzie, a lawyer; member of firm of Mackenzie, Weadock, Mackenzie & Landis; city solicitor of Lima four years; son of Judge James Mackenzie, a district judge of Ohio 1865–1880, and Lucina P. Mackenzie; descendant of William Lyon Mackenzie, who came from Elwyth, Scotland, to Toronto, Canada, in 1820. Mother, Florence Edna (Holmes) Mackenzie (attended Wooster College one year); daughter of Branson Perry and Jane (Williams) Holmes, who came from Montgomeryshire, Wales, to America, in 1832. Yale relatives include a cousin, William Lyon Mackenzie King, LL D. 1924.

Lawrenceville School First colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years

LL.B. University of Michigan 1911; had since practiced law in Lima in association with his father, as member of firm of Mackenzie & Weadock 1911–1921, and its successor Mackenzie, Weadock, Mackenzie & Landis 1921–28; had also been in partnership with his brother, W Holmes Mackenzie, '08, in real estate firm of Mackenzie Brothers since 1911, president Allen, County (Ohio) Bar 1922, 1925, 1927, 1928; had also been president of Law Library Association of Allen County, University of Michigan Alumni Association of Lima, the Y Men's Club; solicitor for South Side Building & Loan Company; trustee of Lima Public Library 1922–27, helped to select site for new post office of Lima, and was in charge of the legal work in connection with its purchase by the Government 1927–28; during the war served as educational secretary at the Army Y.M.C.A. at Camp Wadsworth 1917, and as an attorney in office of Alien Property Custodian in Washington 1918; in 1917 was Democratic nominee for city solicitor of Lima, but was defeated, member American Bar Association (a representative from the United States, when the association was entertained in London in 1924 by the Bar Association of Great Britain), Ohio State Bar Association (chairman of committee on admissions, member of council of bar association delegates, and of committee on American citizenship), Ohio Society of New York, and Market Street Presbyterian Church.

Unmarried

Death, due to myocarditis, followed a nervous breakdown. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Lima. Survived by parents and brother.

Raymond Joseph Schweizer, B.A. 1909.

Born April 6, 1887, in New York City
Died September 8, 1928, in Stamford, Conn

Father, Joseph Schweizer, secretary and general manager of Ansonia Clock Company, born in Frankfort-on-Main, Germany, and came to America in 1874; son of Joseph and Jeanne (Tevlée) Schweizer. Mother, Ernestine (Rossi) Schweizer, born in Milan, Italy; daughter of Ernesto and Marguerita (Valy) Rossi.

Cutler School, New York City. Leader of Apollo Glee Club Junior year; member of Freshman Glee Club, University Glee Club, and College Choir; took part in several plays and on eligibility list of Dramatic Association Senior year; manager of Freshman Crew; contributed to Yale Record; member of the Pundits and Zeta Psi.

With the Ansonia Clock Company in New York City 1909–January, 1920 (with exception of time spent in service), in charge of export department, as assistant in the executive department, as assistant secretary from 1915, and secretary from 1917; since 1920 had been engaged in business as an independent broker; associated for six months in 1920 with Carlisle, Mellick & Company; member of New York Stock Exchange since 1920, enlisted in U. S Naval Reserve Force March 26, 1918, first assigned to Naval Training Station at Pensacola, Fla.; transferred to Bureau of Construction and Repair in Washington, D. C., for three months from May, 1918; subsequently with Aviation Detachment at Massachusetts Institute of Technology until November, 1918, and then at Hampton Roads, where he served as communication officer and was commissioned as an Ensign December 16, 1918; released from active duty January 8, 1919; member St. John's Roman Catholic Church, Noroton, Conn.
Tale College

Married October 24, 1914, in New York City, Emily Jeannette, daughter of William Jennings and Mary Ella (Comfort) Weller. Children: Marie Louise Henriette (died in infancy), Emily Josephine, Raymond Joseph, Jr, and Thomas. Death, due to a fracture of the spine received three days before when thrown from a horse, occurred in the Stamford Hospital. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by wife, daughter, two sons, and father.

Born April 24, 1887, in Tamaqua, Pa.
Died June 28, 1929, in New York City.

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.

Thomas Elton Canfield, B.A. 1910.

Born August 12, 1885, in Thomaston, Conn.
Died August 14, 1928, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, Frederick Abial Canfield, formerly superintendent of the Seth Thomas Clock Company, of Thomaston, Conn; son of George Washington and Mary (McAuley) Canfield, descended from Thomas Canfield, who came from England in 1636, and settled in Milford, Conn. Mother, Martha Boardman (Thomas) Canfield; daughter of Edward and Clarissa (Boardman) Thomas; descended from Seth Thomas, who came from England, settled in Thomaston about 1812, and established the Seth Thomas Clock Company. Yale relatives include a cousin· Edward Thomas, ’99.

Preparation for college received under private tutors

Had been engaged in real estate and insurance business in Hartford since graduation; associated with F G Whitmore & Son 1911–15; then in business for himself until 1921, when he organized the firm of Canfield & Tracy, Inc, of which he was president and treasurer until death; member of Congregational Church, Thomaston.

Death, due to heart failure after an illness of several months, occurred at the Hartford Hospital. Buried in Hillside Cemetery, Thomaston. Survived by wife, son, daughters, father, and two brothers, George W. Canfield, of Scarsdale, N.Y., and Edward T. Canfield, '99

Born October 5, 1887, in East Lansing, Mich.
Died April 20, 1929, in Escondido, Calif.

Father, Henry Graham Reynolds (B.A. Michigan Agricultural College 1871, M.S. 1872), horticulturist; member of Michigan Board of Agriculture, secretary State Agricultural College; member of Pasadena, Calif., City Council; son of James Lusk and Mary Greene (Duncan) Reynolds; descended from Robert Reynolds, who came from England to Boston, Mass., in 1634. Mother, Frances Arbuthnot (Llewellyn) Reynolds; daughter of Robert Llewellyn, who came from Birmingham, England, and lived in Massillon, Ohio, prior to 1837, and later moved to Louisville, Ky., and Abigail (Knott) Llewellyn. Yale relatives include: Rev. James Lockwood (B.A. 1735), great-great-great-grandfather, Edward V. Reynolds, '80 S. (uncle), and Dr. Randolph Raynolds, '09 (cousin).

Belmont (Calif.) School, Pasadena High School, and St. John's School, Santa Barbara, Calif. Oration appointment Junior year; dissertation appointment Senior year.

Spent the first year after graduation at his home in Pasadena, engaged in tutoring for part of the time; attended General Theological Seminary, New York City, to prepare for Episcopal ministry 1911-12; then transferred to St. Joseph's Seminary, Yonkers, N.Y., to prepare for Roman Catholic priesthood 1912-17, ordained in St Patrick's Cathedral, New York City, June 2, 1917; assistant pastor of St. Anthony's Parish at Long Beach, Calif., July-September, 1917; assistant chaplain of Knights of Columbus at Camp Kearny, September, 1917–March, 1918; appointed instructor in Latin and Greek at Catholic University of America, Washington, D. C., 1918; studied at Institut Catholique de Paris and the Sorbonne 1918–19, and received degree of Licencié ès Lettres at University of Paris 1919; resident member of Lincoln College, Oxford, 1919–1921; was instructor at Catholic University until 1926 and had been associate professor since then; on leave of absence since September, 1928, on account of ill health, and had lived in Idaho and California; Ph D Catholic University 1924; author. The Clausulae in the Civeitate Det of St. Augustine (1924); had been president of St. Thomas’ Hall two years and Moderator of Abbey Club until 1928, at Catholic University; member of Cathedral of St. Vibiana, Los Angeles.

Unmarried.

Death due to pulmonary embolus. Survived by two sisters, Jessie (Wellesley ex-06), wife of Major Frederick Terrell (Swarthmore ex-05), of Los Angeles; Mrs. Arthur Mace, of Pasadena, and three brothers, Robert L. Reynolds (B S Michigan Agricultural College 1895, M.E. Cornell 1897), of La Habra, Calif.; Frederick L Reynolds (E.M. Michigan College of Mines 1898), of Orland, Calif., and Kenyon L Reynolds (B A. University of California 1914), of Pasadena.

Treat Clark Hull, B.A. 1911.

*Born April 4, 1889, in Danbury, Conn
Died January 22, 1929, in Danbury, Conn*

Father, Frederick Ambler Hull, hardware merchant, president of F. A. Hull & Son, founded by his father; owned extensive lands in Kentucky, and coal mines; son of Charles and Hannah (Ambler) Hull; descendant of Jedidiah Hull, First Lieutenant under General Wolfe, who came from England. Mother, Mary Whiting (Clark) Hull; daughter of Treat and Sarah Clarina (Clark) Clark; descendant of George Clark, Sr., who came from England and was one of the first settlers in Milford, Conn., in 1639.

Danbury High School. First colloquy appointment Senior year; contributor to the Record; sang in Freshman Glee Club and College Choir; member Beta Theta Pi.
Reporter for Danbury Evening News 1911–12; junior partner in firm of F. A. Hull & Son 1912–19; vice-president and treasurer (then the Hull Hardware & Plumbing Company) 1919–1920, president and treasurer 1920–22; president and treasurer of Metal Ball Company 1922–23, and secretary at the same time of Hull Hardware Company; in real estate business in Florida 1924–28; associated with Wilbur B. Bronson, ex-’11, for a time, and as salesman with J. B. McGinley, became sales manager with firm of William A. White in 1925; assistant sales manager for Consolidated Realty Company April, 1927–September, 1928; had been president of Deerfield Land Company, Inc., and vice-president of White & Wright, Inc.; assisted in Red Cross relief work after the hurricane of 1928; since December, 1928, had been salesman for Field Real Estate in Bronxville, N. Y., of which William P. Field, ’96, is owner, and with which Edgar K. Parker and Louis B. Sheldon, both ’04 S., are connected; secretary of Mercantile Bureau of Danbury Chamber of Commerce 1915 and 1916; during the war served as Private, 1st Danbury Company, Connecticut Home Guard, and on Liberty Loan Committee; member First Congregational Church, Danbury.

Married November 28, 1911, in Danbury, Elizabeth Joy Schmidt (B A Vassar 1911), daughter of Louis and Henriette Louise (Seifert) Schmidt, and sister of Louis W. Schmidt, ’19. Children: Frederick Ambler, 2d, and Louise and Treat Clark, Jr (twins)

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Wooster Cemetery, Danbury. Survived by wife, daughter, two sons, a brother, Milton F. Hull, of Newtown, Conn., and a sister, Mrs Herbert R. Armstrong, of New York City.

Gerard Livingston Jackson, B.A. 1914.

Born January 8, 1891, in Orange, N. J.
* Died February 25, 1929, at Saranac Lake, N. Y.*

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.
Charles Parker Eddy, B.A. 1916.

Born October 27, 1891, in Haddam, Conn
Died July 4, 1928, at Castle-on-Hudson, N. Y.

Father, Willard Eddy (B.A. 1870, LL.B. Albany Law School 1871), a lawyer in Hartford, Conn., and Omaha, Nebr.; former president of Bailey Manufacturing Company of New York City; son of the Rev. Henry Eddy (B.A. 1832, M.D. 1851) and Sarah Hayward (Torrey) Eddy (graduated Mount Holyoke Seminary 1839); descendant of Samuel Eddy, who came to Plymouth, Mass., from England in 1628. Mother, Marie Minna (Hertel) Eddy, born in Zwickau, Saxony; daughter of Christian Frederick and Christiana Fredericka (Bachman) Hertel. Yale relatives include an uncle, Henry T. Eddy, '67.

Hartford Public High School. Entered Sheffield Scientific School in 1905 but remained only a year; was member of Crew Squad; engaged in business as office assistant with Cheney Brothers, South Manchester, Conn., 1907–1910; stock manager with H K. Taylor & Company (Taylor, '04, and J. N. H Campbell, '02) in Hartford 1910–11, and purchasing agent for Hartford Auto Parts Company 1911–12, entered Yale College 1912; third division honors Freshman year; held Connecticut Scholarship for Hartford, Freshman year and Thomas Hamlin Curtis Scholarship Junior and Senior years; dissertation appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; president of Yale Dining Club; member Alpha Delta Phi

Enlisted in the Signal Corps November 2, 1917; stationed at Camp Devens, as member of 2d Battalion, Depot Brigade, until December, and then assigned to 401st Telegraph Battalion, with which he went overseas March 17, 1918; served successively with 34th, 40th, and 42d Service Companies in France, Holland, and Belgium; promoted to Sergeant August 16 and to Sergeant (1st Class), October 16; returned to the United States July 27, 1919, and was discharged August 1; connected with Associated Press offices in Springfield, Mass., and Hartford, Conn, 1919–1923; with Bankers Trust Company of New York City in Hartford, as telegrapher 1923–26, and in Albany 1927–28; had his own

Married October 15, 1927, in South Manchester, Conn., Marion Dale Richmond (B S. Teachers College, Columbia, 1921), daughter of Robert and Mary Elizabeth (Tracy) Richmond

Death due to tracheal varicose veins and pulmonary hemorrhage. Buried in East Cemetery, South Manchester, Conn. Survived by wife, father, a sister, Miss Sarah S. Eddy, of Hartford, and a brother, Willard H. Eddy, of New Britain, Conn.

Fairfax Stuart Landstreet, Jr., B.A. 1917.

Born June 5, 1895, in Davis, W. Va.
Died February 17, 1929, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Father, Fairfax Stuart Landstreet, a coal operator; chairman of board of New York Dock Company and Pennsylvania Coal & Coke Corporation, formerly president of Davis Coal & Coke Company, vice-president of Western Railroad Company, and Consolidation Coal Company; son of John and Mary Frances (Swink) Landstreet; descended from John Landstreet, who came from Amsterdam, Holland, to Baltimore, Md., in 1801. Mother, May (Davis) Landstreet; daughter of William Robinson and Mary Healy (Tilson) Davis, and sister-in-law of John K. Berry, ’96; descended from Thomas Davis, who came from Wales to Maryland in 1700. Yale relatives include: Thomas B. Davis, ’97 S, and Joseph E. Davis, ’00 (uncles), and Fairfax D. Downey, ’16, G. Faber Downey, Jr, ’18, and John K. Berry, ’30 (cousins).

The Hill School Member Apollo Banjo and Mandolin clubs, University Swimming Team (numerals), and Zeta Psi; private, Yale batteries, R. O. T. C.

Commissioned Second Lieutenant in the Reserve May 10, 1917; trained at Fort Myer, and was assigned to 12th Field Artillery at Camp St. Asaphs, Va., August 27, 1917; commissioned Second Lieutenant of Field Artillery in the Regular Army, October 25, 1917, and made First Lieutenant on same date; went overseas January 11, 1918; attached to 6th Regi-
Tale College

Clinton Davis Backus, B.A. 1918.

Born December 18, 1895, in New York City.
Died October 21, 1928, in New York City.

Father, Henry Clinton Backus (B.A. Harvard 1871, LL.B. Columbia 1873), a lawyer; son of Charles Chapman and Harriet Newell (Baldwin) Backus; descendant of William Backus, who came from England to Saybrook, Conn., in 1637 and was a founder of Norwich, Conn., in 1659. Mother, Harriet Ivins (Davis) Backus; daughter of Lemuel Wilmer and Jane (Hastings) Davis; descendant of Isaac Davis, who came from England and settled at Somerville, N.J., in 1642.

Collegiate School, New York, and The Hill School. Went out for track and football; business manager of Yale Record; member Debating Society, Geographical Society, and Alpha Delta Phi.

Left college in April, 1917, and enlisted April 30 as a Seaman (2d Class), in U.S. Naval Reserve, at Navy Yard, New York, organized Unit 3 of Aerial Coast Patrol to train men for officers in U. S. Navy, and donated an airplane as part of the equipment for the unit, trained with that unit at Mastic, Long Island, until October 1, 1917; assigned to Naval Aviation Detachment at Massachusetts Institute of Technology October 1–November 26; Naval Air Station, Hampton Roads, Va., November 26, 1917–January 9, 1918; Pensacola, Fla., January 9–March 15 (commissioned Ensign February 18); Chatham, Mass., March 15–June 15; Montauk, Long Island, June 16–December 7; appointed Lieutenant (j g) December 10, 1918; assigned Naval Air Station, Moorhead City, N. C, December 13, 1918–February 8, 1919, when released from active duty; honorably discharged April 29, 1921; studied in France until September, 1919, when he returned to Yale; received degree of B A, honoris causa, June, 1920, with enrollment in Class of 1918; enrolled in School of Law, Columbia, 1920–22; salesman for Tidewater Oil Sales Corporation of New York 1923–26; promotion sales manager of Royal Blue Corporation (machinery belting) 1927 and 1928, and vice-president of the company 1928; patron of Metropolitan Museum; member of Military Order of Foreign Wars, League for Political Education, National Security League, Aero Club of America, Naval History Club, and Central Presbyterian Church, New York City.

Unmarried

Death due to heart trouble. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn Survived by mother.

William Winter Dean, B.A. 1918.

Born July 11, 1895, in St Paul, Minn.
Died April 20, 1929, in St. Paul, Minn.

Father, William John Dean; president Nicols, Dean & Gregg, hardware merchants; vice-president State Savings Bank of St Paul; director of First National Bank, Oakland Cemetery Association, Minneapolis Iron Store Company, and St Paul Fire & Marine Insurance Company; member United States Chamber of Commerce (former director and member of executive committee); son of William Blake and Mary

St. Paul Central High School and The Hill School. Member Freshman Track Team, Class Hockey Team, and third Football Team 1916; contributed to the News; member Freshman Glee Club, Sigma Delta Psi, Zeta Psi, and the Pundits. Was enlisted October 30, 1915, for Battery B, 10th Field Artillery, Connecticut National Guard; mustered into Federal service July 7, 1916, and mustered out September 18, 1916.

Left college to attend Citizens' Training Camp at Fort Snelling, May 9, 1917–July 11, 1917, as candidate for commission; accepted appointment as provisional Second Lieutenant, Infantry, Regular Army, July 11, 1917, and was assigned to duty with 50th Infantry; transferred to 5th Machine Gun Battalion September 17, 1917; went overseas at once, and served with that organization in the Troyon sector, Aisne defensive, Chateau-Thierry sector, and St-Mihiel and Meuse-Argonne offensives; promoted to provisional First Lieutenant January 6, 1918, and to temporary Captain June 9, 1918; wounded in action June 22 and November 5, 1918; was awarded the Croix de Guerre with silver star and citation certificate by the French Government, for bravery and courage displayed under heavy bombardment at Blanc Mont, October 5, 1918; received his discharge February 2, 1919; commissioned Major in American Red Cross and served with Interallied Commission to Germany for the Repatriation of Russian prisoners, until September; returned to United States October 11, 1919, and at Commencement in 1919, received the degree of B.A., honoris causa, with enrollment in Class of 1918.

Assistant manager of bond department, Capital Trust & Savings Bank of St. Paul, November, 1919–December, 1920; had since been secretary of Nicols, Dean & Gregg; wrote occasional book reviews for St. Paul Daily News; member Disabled American Veterans of the World War and chairman of its committee to raise $40,000 in St. Paul for a rest camp; member Second Division Association, Joyce Kilmer Post 107, American Legion, and House of Hope Presbyterian Church; honorary member 3d United States Infantry, member 40 and 8 Voiture 39, American Legion.
Obituary Record

Married September 3, 1919, in Paris, France, Jane, daughter of Henry and Sadie (Scott) Earnest. Two daughters, Sally and Jane.

Death, due to spinal meningitis, occurred at St Luke's Hospital. Buried in Oakland Cemetery, St. Paul. Survived by wife, daughters, parents, two brothers, Winter Dean (B.S. Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1921) and George W. Dean, '29, and five sisters, the Misses Alice, Helen, and Evelyn Dean and Mrs. Walter Kennedy, all of St. Paul, and Mrs. Robert O. Read, of Providence, R. I.

George Ellsworth Keeler, B.A. 1918.

Died March 28, 1929, in New York City.

Father, Miner Spaulding Keeler, president of Keeler Brass Company and Weber Knapp Company; former president of Middleville; State senator (Mich.) 1895; director of Michigan Trust Company and Old Kent Bank; son of Isaac Nathaniel and Harriet (Ellsworth) Keeler; descendant of Ralph Keeler, who came from England to Hartford, Conn., in 1640, and moved to Norwalk in 1651. Mother, Gertrude Irma (Spaulding) Keeler; daughter of Perry and Cheny Theresa (Norton) Spaulding; descendant of Edward Spaulding, who came from England to Virginia in 1619, and later moved to Massachusetts.

The Hill School. Dissertation appointment Junior year; member Freshman Track Team 1915 (won numerals and second place medal in 100-yard dash at Yale-Harvard meet, and third place medal 220-yard dash in Yale-Princeton meet); University Track Team 1916 and 1917, and Alpha Delta Phi, Private in Battery B at Tobyhanna and Lieutenant in Yale R. O. T. C.

Left college to enter the Army May 9, 1917; attended first Officers' Training Camp at Fort Sheridan and commissioned First Lieutenant, Field Artillery, August 15, 1917; instructor in second Officers' Training Camp at Fort Sheridan, third and fourth Officers' Training camps at Camp Grant, and at Field Artillery Central Officers' Training School at Camp Zachery Taylor; promoted to Captain October 23, 1918; given his discharge December 7, 1918; received B.A., honoris causa, with enrollment in Class of 1918, in June, 1919.

Since January 4, 1919, had been connected with Keeler Brass Company, in Grand Rapids, Mich., at first as production manager and since 1923 as treasurer; treasurer of Keeler Realty Company since 1924; secretary of Morton Building Company since 1922; assistant secretary and treasurer of Morton Hotel Company since 1923; treasurer of Alpha Delta Phi Alumni of Grand Rapids 1925; charter member of University Club in 1923, and member of Fountain Street Baptist Church.

Married September 19, 1925, in Amherst, Mass., Marion Georgiana Olds (Smith ex-’26), daughter of George Daniel Olds (B.A. University of Rochester 1873, LL.D 1907, Amherst 1921, Wesleyan 1927), president emeritus of Amherst College, and Marion Elizabeth (Leland) Olds. One daughter, Marion Elizabeth.

Death, due to lymphosarcoma, occurred at Presbyterian Hospital. Buried in Oak Hill Cemetery, Grand Rapids. Survived by wife, daughter, parents, and a brother, Isaac S. Keeler, all of Grand Rapids.

Allen Clark Brockman, B.A. 1919.

Born August 9, 1896, in Columbia, S. C.
Died November 27, 1928, in Bombay, India.

Father, Fletcher Sims Brockman (B.A. Vanderbilt 1891), an associate general secretary of Y. M. C. A. in China and United States; son of Willis Allen Brockman (attended Emory and Henry College 1851–52) and Rosa Emory (Woods) Brockman (graduate of Women's College, Va); descendant of John Brockman, who came to Williamsburg, Va, probably from England, in the seventeenth century. Mother, Mary Buford (Clark) Brockman (Presbyterian College for Women ex-'95); daughter of Washington August Clark (South Carolina College ex-'62) and Ester Virginia (Melton) Clark (attended Legare Female College 1860-61); descended from Jeremiah Clark, who came from England in 1680 and settled on Edisto Island, S. C. Yale relatives include: Edwin C. Lobenstein, '95 (uncle).

Hotchkiss School. Honors of the third rank Freshman year; dissertation appointment Junior year, on Soccer Squad in 1916; active in work of Boys' Club and served on executive committee of Dwight Hall.

In Army Y. M. C. A. work in New York City June-November, 1917, and at Newport News, Va, from November, 1917, until he enlisted in U. S. Naval Reserve January 18, 1918; trained at Pelham Bay, N Y ; made a Quartermaster (3d Class) in summer of 1918; later attended Officers' Training School at Pelham and was recommended for a commission as Ensign about the time of the armistice; returned to college after his release from active duty December 22, 1918, and in June, 1919, received degree of B A honoris causa; subsequently a junior officer with International Banking Corporation of New York City; in New York until August, then in Hong Kong, China, until November, 1921; Canton, China, until September, 1922; Hong Kong again until July, 1925; in November, 1925, after a furlough, became connected with the Bombay branch of National City Bank of New York; continued in this until death, having been promoted to acting accountant September 20, 1928; member First Presbyterian Church, Columbia, S. C.

Married May 5, 1923, in Shanghai, China, Hazel Carver Iles (attended Randolph-Macon Woman's College 1918-1920), daughter of James Alfred and Aurelia (Smith) Iles. Children. James Fletcher and Allen Clark.

Alfred Maurice Wakeman, B.A. 1919

Born March 30, 1897, in New York City
Died March 2, 1929, at sea.

Father, Alfred John Wakeman (Ph B. 1887, Ph D Leipsig 1894), research chemist in the Christian A. Herter Laboratory, New York City, seventeen years; research chemist since 1912 under the Carnegie Institution of Washington, at the Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station; son of Henry Burr and Esther Meeker (Jennings) Wakeman; descendant of John Wakeman, who was born at Bendley, Worcestershire, England, and settled in New Haven before 1639. Mother, Harriet Pierson (Taylor) Wakeman (Mount Holyoke ex-'86 and Yale ex-'84 Art); daughter of Edward Jessup and Charlotte (Burr) Taylor; descended from Thomas Taylor, who came from England to Norwalk, Conn., prior to 1667. Yale relatives include: William J. Wakeman, '76 (uncle), and Howard C. Taylor, '88 S., Henry R. Wakeman, '04 S., Howard C. Taylor, Jr., '20 S., Arthur C. Taylor, ex-'23 S., Edward J. Taylor, '23 S., and Burton W. Taylor, '28 S. (cousins).

Greenwich (Conn.) Academy, Greenwich High School, and New Haven High School. First dispute appointment Junior year, scholar of the second rank; went out for track, member Sigma Xi and Book and Bond; enrolled in first year medical work Senior year; in 1915 joined Yale batteries and was Private, Battalion A, 10th Field Artillery, Connecticut National Guard, at Tobyhanna; Yale R. O T C 1917, and in Yale Naval Unit part of spring of 1917; enlisted in Medical Enlisted Reserve Corps, July 25, 1918, at Springfield, Mass., and served as Private in medical unit of S. A. T C. at Yale until he received his discharge December 14, 1918.

M D. cum laude 1923 (received Perkins Scholarship in 1919, for the best record in scholarship in basic subjects of medical and biological sciences in first year of residence; and the Ramsay Memorial Scholarship in 1920; awarded Campbell Gold Medal at graduation; member Nu Sigma Nu); spent eight months completing work begun for his thesis in the Department of Pediatrics; interne and medical house officer at Presbyterian Hospital, New York City, 1924–25; assistant
Obituary Record

In medicine in Yale School of Medicine and resident physician at New Haven Hospital 1925-26; instructor in Department of Internal Medicine and associate physician at New Haven Hospital and Dispensary since 1926; had been on leave of absence since February, 1926, when he was appointed a member of the Yellow Fever Commission of International Health Board of Rockefeller Foundation, and had been investigating the chemical pathology of yellow fever at Lagos, Nigeria; was to have been appointed assistant professor upon his return to Yale; had practically completed his investigations, and was returning to America, when he suffered a relapse of a previous illness; had contributed to Proceedings of American Society for Clinical Investigation, Journal of Clinical Investigation, Journal of Biological Chemistry, and American Journal of Diseases of Children; had been Alumni Fund Agent for the Medical School Classes of 1923 and 1924; member of American Medical Association, New Haven Medical Society, and United Church (Congregational), New Haven.

Briton Hadden, B.A. 1920.

Born February 18, 1898, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died February 27, 1929, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Father, Crowell Hadden, Jr., a banker; son of Crowell and Elizabeth (Stevens) Hadden; descended from Lieutenant Colonel Thomas Hadden, who came from England to New England in 1736. Mother, Elizabeth (Busch) Hadden (now the wife of Prof. William P. Pool, B.A. Rutgers 1891, M.A. 1894, M.D. Long Island College Hospital 1894); daughter of Peter Busch, who came to Brooklyn from Germany in 1869, and Emily (Richardson) Busch. Yale relatives include: Dr. William T. Bull, ’88 S. (uncle by marriage), and H. Douglas Hadden, ’21, Briton Martin, ’22, and Henry Bull, ’28 (cousins).
Tale College

Hotchkiss School. Second colloquy appointment and Class of 1868 Prize, Junior year; chairman of the acting board of the News Sophomore year, and of the 1920 Board Senior year; member student council three years, secretary Senior year; on Dwight Hall cabinet two years, Class deacon; member Junior Promenade, Class Day, and Triennial committees, Pundits, Elizabethan Club, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones. With Yale R. O. T. C. February, 1917–August, 1918, as Private, Corporal, and Sergeant; at summer camp Harvard R. O. T. C. 1917; in training at Camp Jackson, summer 1918, and commissioned Second Lieutenant, Field Artillery, September 13 as of September 5; transferred to Camp Zachary Taylor and attached to Headquarters, Field Artillery Central Officers’ Training School; received his discharge December 14, 1918.

Reporter on New York World August, 1920–August, 1921; traveled in Central America three months; again reporter with the World until December, 1921; reporter for Baltimore News December, 1921–February, 1922; had conceived the idea of Time, a weekly commentary on events, and organized it with the cooperation of Henry R. Luce, ’20, first number appeared March 3, 1923; had since alternated each year with Luce as editor-in-chief and general manager, in New York City, except for years 1925–27 when they maintained offices in Cleveland; member Christ Episcopal Church, Brooklyn.

Unmarried.

Death, due to blood poisoning following influenza, occurred at Brooklyn Hospital. Buried in Greenwood cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by mother, stepfather, grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Crowell Hadden and Mrs. Peter Busch, of Brooklyn, a brother, Crowell, 3d (B.A. Princeton 1917), of Glen Cove, Long Island, and a sister, Mary Maud, wife of John J. Farrell, ex’14, of Darien, Conn.
Obituary Record

Edwin Binney, Jr., B.A. 1921.

Born March 20, 1899, in Sound Beach, Conn.
Died December 29, 1928, in Pasadena, Calif.

Father, Edwin Binney, president of Binney & Smith, manufacturers, New York City; vice-president Columbian Carbon Company; donor with his wife of the Edwin Binney Fellowship in Geology at Yale; son of Joseph Walker Binney, who came from Leeds, England, to New York City about 1862, and Annie Eliza (Conklin) Binney. Mother, Alice (Stead) Binney (graduated Normal, now Hunter, College, New York City, 1884); daughter of William Henry Stead, who came from London to New York in 1872, and Mary Ellen (Morris) Stead.

King and Thorpe schools, Stamford, Conn., and Stamford Preparatory School. Entered Yale with Class of 1920, but was obliged to leave within a few months on account of serious illness; reentered the following fall with Class of 1921; member Freshman Track and Swimming teams, and University Swimming Team three years; in 1919 broke intercollegiate record 50-yard free style, was intercollegiate champion 50-yard free style and member of intercollegiate world's record relay team (200 yards); in 1920 broke intercollegiate 50-yard record and was again intercollegiate champion 50-yard free style, and member of 200-yard world record relay team, which was also intercollegiate champion; in 1921 broke intercollegiate 50-yard record twice, member of 200-yard relay team which broke world's and intercollegiate records twice, 250-yard relay team which broke world's and intercollegiate record twice, of 880-foot relay team which broke intercollegiate record twice, of 160-yard relay team which established new intercollegiate record; in summer of 1921 was member of transcontinental team, and as such equalled Weissmuller's 50-yard record in 60-foot pool; numerals and a major "Y"; member Delta Iota and Beta Theta Pi; member Connecticut State Guard April–December, 1917, and Yale R. O. T. C. September, 1917–September, 1918; Sergeant in S. A. T. C., September–December, 1918; commissioned Second Lieutenant, Field Artillery Corps, December 18, 1918.

Connected with Columbian Carbon Company at Cowley,
Wyo., September–October, 1921; research assistant with Southern Carbon Company at Fairbanks, La., October, 1921–April, 1922; student in geology in Yale Graduate School 1922–25 (Ph.D. 1925, elected to Sigma Xi); during summer of 1923 was engaged in field work at King City, Calif., under auspices of University of California, and at Lead, S. Dak., under University of Iowa; research geologist with U. S. Geological Survey 1925–26; acting instructor in geology at Yale in spring of 1926, and appointed an instructor in geology for following year, but resigned on account of serious eye trouble; research assistant in geology Yale 1926–28; had lived in California for a time prior to his death.

Married August 12, 1921, in Portland, Ore., Elizabeth Wilson, daughter of Joseph Trimble and Lucy Preston (Wilson) Peters (attended Conservatory of Music, Oberlin, 1889–1890) One son, Edwin, 3d.

Death due to acute double lobar pneumonia. Buried in Cemetery of the Congregational Church, Sound Beach. Survived by wife, son, parents, and three sisters, Mrs. George P. Putnam, of Rye, N. Y., Mrs. James A. G. Davey, of Sound Beach, and Helen, wife of Allan F. Kitchel, ’09. His parents have established in his honor the June Binney Fund for furthering the study of geology at Yale.

John Burrell Bridgman, B.A. 1922.

Born August 2, 1899, in Lake Forest, Ill.
Died April 21, 1929, in Scarsdale, N. Y.

Father, Walter Ray Bridgman (B.A. 1881, honorary M.A. 1892, and Miami 1891), author; tutor in Greek at Yale; professor of Greek at Miami University and Lake Forest College; alderman, Lake Forest; son of Isaac Bridgman (B.A. Dartmouth 1856, Ph.D. 1886) and Mary Elizabeth (Gleason) Bridgman (Mount Holyoke Seminary 1853); descended from James Bridgman, who came from Winchester, England, in 1640 and settled near Springfield and Northampton, Mass. Mother, Leoline (Waterman) Bridgman; daughter of Thomas Storrs and Lydia Mellen (Daniels) Waterman; granddaughter of Rev. Thomas T. Waterman (B.A. 1822); great-granddaughter-cher of Rev. Elijah Waterman (B.A. 1791); great-great-granddaughter of Shubael Abbe (B.A. 1764), and niece of Alfred T. Waterman (B.A. 1855); descended from Thomas Waterman, of Welsh descent, who came from Norwich, England, to Norwich (then Borzah), Conn, on the "Anne" in 1632. Yale relatives include: John C. Bridgman, '85 (uncle), and John C. Bridgman, ex-'28, and David C. Bridgman, ex-'31 (cousins).
Obituary Record

Lake Forest (Ill.) Academy and Taft School. Sang in University Glee Club three years, member of quartet Freshman and Sophomore years, member College Choir four years; took part in Y. M. C. A. deputations work; enrolled in Yale Naval Training Unit as Apprentice Seaman, United States Navy, October 16–December 21, 1918, when placed on Reserve list.

Employed in various positions (at one time as assistant to buyer of china and glassware) with R. H. Macy & Company, New York City, 1922–23; accountant with Whittlesey & Millar (Willis S. Whittlesey, '03), certified public accountants, December, 1923–May, 1924; became connected with New York Branch of H. J. Heinz & Company, and was made chief clerk in May, 1926; resigned in September, 1928, and had since been a junior partner and senior accountant with W. S. Whittlesey, New York City.

Married September 17, 1920, in New London, Conn., Flora May, daughter of Lester Amos and Jane Morrison (Robertson) Holt. Two daughters: Jane Leoline and Margaret Louise.

Death due to septicemia, following erysipelas. Buried in Kensico Cemetery, Mount Pleasant, N. Y. Survived by wife, daughters, parents, a sister, Margaret Bridgman (B.A. Lake Forest 1915, M.A. Yale 1923), and two brothers, Donald S. Bridgman, '13, and Ray C. Bridgman, '17.

Born May 5, 1898, in East Hartford, Conn.
Died March 30, 1929, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, Thomas Smith O'Connell (M.D. College of Physicians and Surgeons, Baltimore, 1889), a physician in East Hartford. Mother, Nellie (Flynn) O'Connell.
East Hartford High School and Phillips-Andover. Entered Yale with Class of 1921, but left in Freshman year to enter the Army; served as a Cadet in the Air Service March 6, 1918—January, 1919, and trained at School of Military Aeronautics, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and at Ellington Field, Houston, Texas; returned to Yale in 1919; won his numerals on Class Baseball Team in 1920; member Zeta Psi.

Studied in Yale School of Medicine 1921–25 (M.D. 1925; member of Alpha Kappa Kappa); assistant in pathology at Yale and assistant resident pathologist, New Haven Hospital, 1925–26; on house staff of New York Hospital 1926–28; had since been engaged in practice of medicine in Hartford.

Unmarried.

Death due to a hemorrhage into the crus cerebri and medullary paralysis. Buried in St. Mary’s Cemetery, East Hartford. Survived by parents, a brother, Richard D. O’Connell, ’23, and a sister, Miss Margaret A. O’Connell, all of East Hartford.

Lewis Pond Parker, B.A. 1922.

Born July 25, 1898, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, Lewis Darling Parker, formerly a manufacturer, and now president of Parker & Snow, Inc., wholesale coal dealers in Hartford; son of the Rev. Edwin Pond Parker (B.A. Bowdoin 1856, D.D. Yale 1875, LL.D. Trinity 1912), a member of the Yale Corporation 1895–1919, and Lucy (Harris) Parker; descendant of William Parker, who came from England to Dover, N. H., in 1633, was an original proprietor of Hartford, Conn., in 1636, and later moved to Saybrook. Mother, Carrie Isabel (Knous, originally Knauss) Parker; daughter of Jacob and Caroline (Shultas) Knous; ancestors came from Holland to Pennsylvania in 1743. Yale relatives include an uncle, Beecher M. Crouse, ’93

Hotchkiss and Taft schools. Member Freshman Mandolin Club, Apollo Mandolin Club Sophomore year, and University Banjo and Mandolin Club three years; member Naval Training Unit in fall of 1918.
Obituary Record

Salesman for Billings & Spencer in Hartford 1922–23; audit salesman for Miller, Franklin, Basset & Company, New York City, 1923–24; had since been connected with the group department of the Connecticut General Life Insurance Company as a special representative.

Unmarried.

Death, due to injuries received in an automobile accident, occurred at the House of Mercy Hospital. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by parents and three sisters, Mrs Sydney Smith, of Canaan, N. Y., Miss Robina Knous Parker, of Hartford, and Mrs Caroline W. P. Wallace, wife of Frederic W. Wallace, 2d, '26.

Harold Alexander Hogue, B.A. 1925.

Born June 15, 1902, in Darlington, Wis.
Died January 22, 1929, in Boston, Mass.

Father, Delos Wiley Hogue (B.A. Monmouth 1895, M.D. Iowa State University 1899), a surgeon; son of William McMaster and Sarah Jane (McCoy) Hogue; descended from James Hogue, who came from Bermersyde, Scotland, to Augusta County, Va., in 1745. Mother, Lillian (Ferguson) Hogue (attended Monmouth College 1893–94); daughter of Isaac Alexander and Lydia Martha (Kyle) Ferguson; descended from William Ferguson, who came from Ireland and settled in Mechlinburg County, N. C., about 1770. Yale relatives include an uncle, James F. Ferguson, '06.

Springfield (Ohio) High School. Attended Monmouth College one year before entering Yale. Scholar third rank Sophomore year; oration appointment Junior year; rowed on Sophomore B Crew; active in Y. M. C. A. work; member Zeta Psi.

Enrolled in Yale School of Medicine 1924–25 (member Nu Sigma Nu), M.D. Johns Hopkins 1928; served as interne in the American Hospital, Neuilly, France, summer of 1928; since November, 1928, had been an interne at Boston City Hospital; member First United Presbyterian Church, Springfield.

Death, due to lobar pneumonia, occurred at the Boston.
City Hospital. Buried in Ferncliff Cemetery, Springfield. Survived by parents and a sister, Helen F. Hogue.

Godfrey Pierson Connfelt, B.A. 1926.

Born January 9, 1904, in New York City
Died August 9, 1928, in New York City.

Buckley and Browning schools, New York City Private, Company K, 107th Infantry, New York National Guard, October, 1921—September, 1922. On Crew, Baseball, Track, and Wrestling squads Freshman year; Class Crew Squad Sophomore year; University Soccer Squad Junior and Senior years; member production staff of Playcraftsmen Studied at Columbia Law School October, 1926—February, 1927 (member Hamilton Moot Court); withdrew on account of ill health and had since traveled in England and France, and in Florida; member Associates of the Engineer Corps and Company K.

Unmarried.

Death due to gland and blood infections. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by parents

Stanley Hoyt Ives, Ph.B. 1927.

Born July 3, 1904, in Germantown, Pa
Died March 16, 1929, in Pelham, N.Y.

Father, Arthur Stanley Ives (C E Columbia 1889, E.E. 1891), partner in firm of Ives & Davidson, consulting engineers, New York City; president of various electric public utility corporations; member Pelham (N. Y.) Board of Education; son of Arthur Cowles Ives and Celestia Blinn (Adams) Ives, who attended Oberlin College 1856–1862; descendant of William Ives, who was born in England, came from London.
Obituary Record

to Boston in 1635, and was one of the original signers of the Fundamental Agreement of Quinnipiac at the founding of New Haven in 1639, and whose son, Capt. Joseph Ives, married Mary Yale, a cousin of Governor Elihu Yale; direct descendant in the seventh generation of the Rev. Nathaniel Chauncey (B.A. 1702) and in the eighth generation of the Rev. Samuel Russel, of Branford, Conn., a trustee of Yale College from 1701 to 1730. Mother, Emma Elizabeth (Hoyt) Ives; daughter of Judson Quincy Hoyt, who served with 134th Illinois Zouave Regiment in the Civil War, and Emma Lilybell (Hoyt) Hoyt, who attended Oberlin College 1879-72; descendant of Simon Hoyt, who was born in England, was first recorded at Salem, Mass., 1628, and appeared as an original proprietor of Charlestown 1629, Dorchester 1630, Scituate 1635, Windsor, Conn., 1639, Fairfield, Conn., 1649, and Stamford, Conn., 1657. Yale relatives include the following cousins: Wilbur Ives, '63, Frederick Ives, '95, Philip B. Cowles, '21, Frederic M. Cowles, Jr., '26, F. Palmer Pendleton, '29 S., and Miles S. Pendleton, '32.

Phillips-Andover. Scholar of the second rank Junior year; oration appointment Senior year; heeled the News Freshman year; member Freshman Year Book Board; played on Freshman Soccer Team, winning numerals; member of University Soccer Squad Sophomore year and heeled baseball managership; member of University Soccer Team Junior and Senior years and won insignia; battalion commander, Yale Unit, Field Artillery Reserve, Senior year; member Beta Theta Pi.

Spent summer of 1927 in Europe; upon his return became connected (in November) with Lybrand, Ross Brothers & Montgomery of New York City as junior accountant and was so employed at time of death; commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the Field Artillery Reserve June 15, 1927, and assigned to 304th Field Artillery and held that commission at death; assistant treasurer, Siwanoy Council, Boy Scouts of America; member Christ Episcopal Church, Pelham Manor, N.Y.

Unmarried.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Beechwood Cemetery, New Rochelle, N.Y. Survived by parents, and a sister, Mrs. William H. Crawford (B.A. Smith 1922), of Bridgeport.
Luzerne Ludington Stirling, B.A. 1927.

Born November 26, 1905, in New Haven, Conn.
Died May 25, 1929, in Chambersburg, Pa.

New Haven High School. Entered Yale with Class of 1926, but withdrew in December, 1922, on account of illness, and joined Class of 1927 the following fall; New Haven High School scholarship all four years; scholar of the second rank Freshman and Sophomore years; second Lucius F. Robinson Latin Prize Sophomore year; scholar of the third rank, high oration appointment and second Anthony D. Stanley Mathematical Prize Junior year; oration appointment Senior year; member 1926 Freshman Crew Squad; played in University Band during whole course; member 1927 Freshman Glee Club, University Dramatic Association, and Playcraftsmen (took part in several of their productions).

Studied classical languages at Yale Graduate School September, 1927–April, 1929; held Douglas Fellowship 1927–28; had since been master in Latin at Mercersburg Academy, Mercersburg, Pa.; member of The Linguistic Society of America, and United Church, New Haven.

Unmarried.

Obituary Record

Charles Gross Bondy, Ph.B. 1928.

Born January 28, 1906, in New York City.
Died March 17, 1929, in Amsterdam, Holland.

Father, Richard Charles Bondy, senior vice-president of the General Cigar Company, Inc.; son of Charles Bondy, who came from Austria to New York City in 1848, and Henrietta (Lederer) Bondy. Mother, Bessie (Gross) Bondy; daughter of Raphael and Hannah (Strauss) Gross.

Choate School. On Freshman Polo Squad; heeled the News Freshman year and Banner and Pot Pourri Sophomore year; member Yale Aeronautical Society.

Since graduation had been employed as assistant tobacco purchaser by the General Cigar Company, Inc.; at the time of his death was on a business trip.

Unmarried.

SHEFFIELD SCIENTIFIC SCHOOL

William Henry Glenny, Ph.B. 1865.

Born September 8, 1845, in Buffalo, N. Y.
Died February 9, 1929, in Boston, Mass.

Father, William Henry Glenny, a merchant; founder of firm of W. H. Glenny Sons & Company, wholesale and retail dealers in silver, glassware, and china; born in Ireland and came to America in 1836; son of William Henry and Jane (Brown) Glenny. Mother, Esther Ann (Burwell) Glenny; daughter of Dr. Bryant Burwell and Ann (Clark) Burwell; descendant of John Burwell, who was born in Hertford, England, in 1602 and died in Milford, Conn., in 1666. Yale relatives include: Bryant B. Glenny, ex-'70 S. (brother), and Bryant Glenny, '09 (nephew).

Public schools in Buffalo and General Russell's Collegiate and Commercial Institute, New Haven. General course.

Member of firm of W. H. Glenny Sons & Company from 1865 until 1898, when the business was sold and he retired from active business; trustee of Buffalo Savings Bank since 1877 and of Buffalo Cemetery Association since 1890 (vice-president of latter since 1904); president of Spencer Lens Company of Buffalo 1914-19 and chairman of board of directors since 1919; charter member University Club and its president 1903-06; charter and honorary member Buffalo Club; member First Presbyterian Church, Buffalo.

Death, due to pneumonia, occurred at the Brooks Hospital, Brookline, Mass. Buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Buffalo. Survived by son, daughter, and three grandchildren.
Obituary Record

James Allan Macdonald, Ph.B. 1866.

Born March 16, 1844, in New York City.
Died April 15, 1929, in Flushing, N.Y.

Father, James Macdonald (M.D. Columbia 1825), a physician; visiting physician at New York Hospital; lecturer on mental diseases at College of Physicians and Surgeons; author; son of Dr. Archibald Macdonald (born in Inverness, Scotland, and came to this country in 1757), and Flora (McLean) Macdonald. Mother, Eliza Harris (Miller) Macdonald; daughter of Judge Silvanus Miller (B.A. Columbia 1795), surrogate of New York City and examiner in chancery, and Margaret (Akerly) Miller; descendant of John Miller, probably born in England and died on Long Island in 1663, whose wife, Mary Pierson Miller, was probably a sister of the Rev. Abraham Pierson, first president of Yale. Yale relatives include Donald M. Barstow, '89, and Archibald M. Miller, '14 S. (nephews); and Landon Ketchum (honorary Ph.B. 1865), Willard Parker, Jr., '90, Grosvenor Atterbury, '91, Grenville Parker, '98, Morris K. Parker, '01, Landon K. Thorne, '10 S., and Francis B. Thorne, '14 S. (cousins).

Anthon's School, New York City. Served as Private and Corporal in Company K, 7th (now 107th) and 37th Regiments, New York Volunteer Infantry, 1862-63. B.A. Columbia 1863. Entered Sheffield Scientific School 1863; chemical course; member Berzelius, received degree of Ph.B. in 1892, with enrollment in Class of 1866 S.

After graduation entered insurance business in New York City; in 1890 established American branch of the Queen Insurance Company, of which he was president 1891-1900 and a director until 1928; associated with Senator William A. Clark of Montana in mining enterprises for many years; with him established (in 1883) the United Verde Copper Company, of which he was president for nine years, then vice-president 1892-1926, and a voting trustee until death; vice-president of Equator Mining & Smelting Company 1900-1925, Waclark Wire Company 1897-1925 (then president to 1928), Waclark Realty Company 1905-09 (then president to 1925), Clark Coal Company 1902-07, and Butte Electric Railway Company 1904-09 (director 1899-1909); first vice-

Death due to spondylitis degeneration incident to age. Buried in Flushing Cemetery. Survived by daughter and a sister, Miss Eliza Macdonald, of Flushing.

Jacob Houtz Grove, Ph.B. 1874.

Born October 14, 1852, in Fredericksburg, Pa

Father, Elias Grove, a farmer and miller; member Grove Brothers, pig iron manufacturers, Danville, Pa ; son of John and Anna Elizabeth (Wenner) Grove; descendant of Peter Grove, born in Zurich, Switzerland, in 1724, and settled in Lancaster County, Pa. Mother, Sabina (Houtz) Grove; daughter of Jacob and Mary (Stroh) Houtz. Yale relatives include: Peter H. Grove, '67 S. (brother), and Robert M. Grove, '67 S., and John H. Grove, 1866–68 Spec. S. (cousins)

Attended private schools in Danville, Pa., and Hires Academy, West Chester, Pa. Select course.

Clerk at Columbia Furnaces, Danville, 1874–1884; proprietor, Union Boiler Works, Lebanon, Pa., 1884–1895, when he retired from business; lived in New Egypt, N. J., 1895–1927, and Philadelphia, Pa., 1927–29; was connected for a time with First National Bank & Trust Company, New Egypt, as receiving teller; member Botanical Club of Philadelphia.

Death, due to chronic parenchymatous nephritis, occurred at the home of a niece. Buried in Jacobstown (N. J.) Cemetery. No immediate relatives survive.

Charles Alexander Watson, Ph.B. 1876.

Born February 21, 1852, in Chicopee, Mass
Died January 23, 1929, in New Brunswick, N. J.

Father, William Burnham Watson, a blacksmith. Mother, Jane (Gibboney) Watson.

Hartford (Conn) public schools. Select course; sang on Sheff Glee Club; an editor of Yale Record; member Alpha Chi and Phi Gamma Delta (a founder)

Remained in New Haven for about two years after graduation and took courses in philosophy in the Graduate School; subsequently with Norwich (Conn.) Bulletin for a time, later steward of the St. Denis Hotel, New York City, manager of a hotel in the Catskills, news editor of Bradford (Pa) Star, and assistant civil engineer for Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad Company; connected with Funk & Wagnalls publishing house, New York City; editorial writer for the Voice, the organ of the National Prohibition Party; assisted in preparing and editing a number of encyclopedic works; connected with various magazines and trade and technical papers; adviser and chef at Phi Gamma Delta House, Rutgers University, 1923–29, while preparing material for a book on fraternity life and dietetics; national vice-president of Phi Gamma Delta; a founder of Phi Gamma Delta Club, New York City; member Yale Engineering Association and Presbyterian Church.

Unmarried.

Death due to apoplexy Funeral services were held in Kirkpatrick Chapel, Rutgers University, cremation took place at Rosehill Cemetery, New Brunswick, and the ashes were buried in Hartford, Conn. Survived by a brother, Seymour Watson, of Lynn, Mass, and a niece, Mrs. Charlotte M. Jack, of Plainfield, N. J.

Arthur John Tenney, Ph.B. 1877.

Born January 26, 1856, in Manchester, N. H.
Died February 26, 1929, in Branford, Conn.

Father, Ulysses Dow Tenney, a portrait painter, with studios in Manchester and Portsmouth, N. H., and New Haven; son of John and Tryphena (Dow) Tenney, descendant of Ensign Thomas Tenney, who came from England to Salem, Mass, in 1638 and settled at first in New Haven and later in Rowley, Mass. Mother, Hannah Wales (Dow) Tenney; daughter of Francis and Sarah (French) Dow; descendant of Henry Dow, who was born in Norfolk County, England, in 1608 and was admitted freeman in Watertown, Mass, in 1638. Yale relatives include Forrester L. Hammer, ex-'11 S, and Thorvald F. Hammer, ex-'18 S. (nephews); Mrs. Delphina H. Miller, ex-'14 Art (niece), and the Rev. Samuel Wales (B A. 1767), Isaac M. Wales (B A. 1793), John Wales (B A. 1801), Leonard E. Wales (B A. 1807), H. Melville Tenney, '76 D., and Edward S. Parsons, '87 D (cousins).

Hopkins Grammar School Mechanical engineering course.

Taught mathematics in a preparatory school in Media, Pa., 1877–78 and also took a course in practical anatomy at University of Pennsylvania; studied in Yale School of Medicine 1878-79 and again 1881-83 (M.D. 1883); between the two periods of study at Yale connected with E. P. Judd’s bookstore in New Haven for a time and taught in Warren, Mass., 1880-81; house physician and surgeon at Connecticut State Hospital, Hartford, 1883-84; physician and surgeon in Branford since 1884; member Branford Board of Education 1910-13; physical examiner for Branford Troop, Boy Scouts; a founder (about 1894) of Home Club of Branford; appointed Post-Surgeon, Battery A, Connecticut National Guard, for New Haven County September 14, 1900, but resigned after the Battery (then Battery E) returned from the World War; under special orders again appointed Post Surgeon, C. N. G., June 29, 1927, and served as such until death; commissioned as a First Lieutenant in Medical Reserve Corps July 15, 1912, and received his discharge April 28, 1914; during World War served as a volunteer medical examiner on Draft Board No. 4 for Branford, Hamden, and Wallingford until December, 1917, when appointed medical examiner on same board and served until the armistice; also chairman of Branford branch of Council of Defense and a fuel administrator; member American Medical Association, State and New Haven County Medical societies, American Association for the Advancement of Science, and Sons of the American Revolution; former member United Church (Congregational), New Haven, and member First Congregational Church, Branford, at death.

Married December 19, 1888, in Branford, Laura Johanna, daughter of Thorvald Frederick Hammer, a graduate of the Royal School of Navigation of Denmark, and Delphina (Lundsteen) Hammer, and sister-in-law of George F. Eaton, '94. Children: Thora Hannah (died in 1904); Thorvald Frederick Hammer, ex-'15 S.; Laura Lundsteen (Mrs. Robert Wilson Gibb); Arthur John, 2d (died in 1899); and Warren Chandler.

Death due to angina pectoris, caused by chronic myocarditis and chronic nephritis. Buried in Center Cemetery, Branford. Survived by wife, two sons, one daughter, and a grandson. A sister, Julia F. Tenney, ex-'03 Mus., died in 1925.
Seymour Landon Alvord, Ph.B. 1878.

Born August 6, 1856, in West Winsted, Conn.
Died July 8, 1928, in Winchester, Conn.

Father, James Richard Alvord, president of Empire Knife Company; son of James Hall and Lucy (Cook) Alvord; descendant of Alexander Alvord, who came to this country from England before 1646, and settled in Windsor; other ancestors include Ruel Alvord, a soldier and sailor in the Revolutionary War, and Elder William Brewster, Francis Cook, and Stephen Hopkins, all of the Plymouth colony. Mother, Mary Eliza (Landon) Alvord; daughter of the Rev. Seymour Landon and Phoebe (Thompson) Landon; descendant of Danice Landon, who came from Herefordshire, England, and settled near Boston. Yale relatives include: D. Fletcher Alvord, '08, Elliot L. Alvord, '11 S., and Curtis H. Alvord, '23 S. (nephews).

Winsted public schools. Select course.

Connected with Empire Knife Company from 1878 until his retirement on January 1, 1921; had served as secretary, manager, director, and treasurer of the company, of which he was a part owner, in 1925 engaged in the investment business in Winsted under his own name; incorporator in 1908 of Winsted Savings Bank, director since then and vice-president since 1915; connected with the American Pocket Cutlery Association for about thirty-five years; trustee of the William L. Gilbert Home since 1908, of the Gilbert School 1909-1911; director of William L. Gilbert Clock Company 1916-1926; president of Winsted Business Men's Association in 1911, and had been a director of the State Association; first president of the Winsted Club, which he was instrumental in organizing; member of Connecticut House of Representatives 1897-98, and of the Senate 1915-16; member Second Congregational Church, Winsted.

Married January 11, 1882, in Winsted, Ellen, daughter of George Brasset and Emily (Hopping) Owen. Children: Louise Landon; Edith Helen (B.A. Vassar 1906), the wife of William C. Burwell (B.A. Trinity 1906); and Russell Owen (B.S. Dartmouth 1909).

Death, due to arteriosclerosis, occurred at his summer home in Winchester. Buried in Center Cemetery, Winsted. Survived by wife, two daughters, son, three grandchildren, and a brother, George S. Alvord, of Winsted. Another brother, Charles L Alvord, ’77, died in 1927.

Samuel Fessenden Clarke, Ph.B. 1878.

Born June 4, 1851, in Geneva, Ill.
Died August 1, 1928, in Williamstown, Mass.

Father, Samuel Nye Clarke, a merchant; son of Fessenden and Abigail (Nye) Clarke; descendant of Thomas Clarke (Clark), who came from England to Plymouth in 1623 and settled at Eel River (now Chiltonville), Mass. Mother, Polly Hooper (Patten) Clarke; daughter of William and Sally (Williams) Patten; descendant in the eighth generation from William Patten, who settled in Cambridge prior to 1636, and is supposed to have come from Somerset, England.

Preparatory department of Antioch (Ohio) College, and Union School, Ann Arbor, Mich.; took special course in chemistry and geology at Antioch College 1872–73. Special student in zoology and modern languages in Sheffield Scientific School 1873–76, also served as an assistant in zoology 1874–76; during the summer of 1874 and 1875 was assistant to the United States Fish Commissioner at Woods Hole, Mass.

Fellow in zoology at Johns Hopkins 1876–79 (Ph.D. 1879) and assistant in biology 1879–1881; lecturer in botany and physiography at Smith College during spring of 1881; professor of natural history at Williams College from 1881 until his retirement in 1916, and since then professor emeritus; in 1882 organized Society of Working Naturalists, which later became American Society of Naturalists, of which he was president in 1914; trustee of Marine Biological Laboratory at Woods Hole, Mass., 1891–1921; was the first American student at the International Zoological Station at Naples, in 1884, and was instrumental in establishing the Williams College Table there, which later was supported by the American Association for the Advancement of Science; honorary M.A. Williams 1891; the Samuel Fessenden Clarke Plant House at Williams, given to the college by one of its alumni.
Sheffield Scientific School

in 1925 for a botanical experiment station, is named in his honor, and the Samuel Fessenden Clarke Wild Flower Prize, offered annually in many summer camps for boys and girls, is also named for him; contributor to Transactions of the Connecticut Academy of Arts and Sciences, Memoirs of the Museum of Comparative Zoology (Harvard College), American Naturalist, Cuv Zoologischen Anzeigers, Journal of Morphology, Proceedings of the United States National Museum, and Boston Journal of Natural History; Fellow of American Association for the Advancement of Science; member American Academy of Arts and Sciences, American Morphological Society, American Society of Zoologists, American Breeders' Association, American Forestry Association, Massachusetts Civic League, Institute of Politics, Williamstown, and Church of Christ in Williams College.

Married April 5, 1892, in Newton Center, Mass, Elizabeth Crocker Lawrence (B.A. Smith 1883, M.A. 1889), daughter of Amos Edward Lawrence (B.A. 1840) and Ann Maria (Crocker) Lawrence (Wheaton Seminary 1835-37). One daughter, Elizabeth Lawrence (B.A. Smith 1916).

Death due to hemorrhage of the brain. Buried in Williams College Cemetery, Williamstown. Survived by wife, daughter, a brother, William O. Clark, of Jacksonville, Ill, and a sister, Miss Mary S. Clark, of Chicago, Ill.

Charles Theodore Richmond, Ph.B. 1878.

Born June 15, 1856, in Johnsonville, N.Y.
Died November 17, 1928, in Los Angeles, Calif.

Father, Theodore Cyphon Richmond, farmer and wool dealer; justice of the peace; son of Josiah and Phebe (Warren) Richmond; descendant of John Richmond, who came from England, and was one of the purchasers of Taunton in 1637. Mother, Caroline (Baucus) Richmond; daughter of William Irving and Phebe (Stover) Baucus; ancestors came from Holland and settled in Dutchess County, N.Y., in time of the patroons.

Greylock Institute, Williamstown, Mass. Select course; member Delta Psi
Obituary Record

Superintendent of iron mines, Minesville, N. Y., in 1879; deputy collector of United States Internal Revenue, North Adams, Mass., 1879-1886, and inspector of Internal Revenue 1878-1881; about 1886 became a partner in the Richmond Carbon Company of North Adams, but remained in this connection only a short time; subsequently connected with the Thompson-Houston Carbon Company of Fremont, Ohio; this company later merged with the National Carbon Company, Inc., and he became general superintendent of the Cleveland factory; was made consulting engineer in 1907, and later assistant secretary and assistant treasurer; retired from active business in November, 1919, and removed to Los Angeles; had been treasurer of Iroquois Portland Cement Company, Caledonia, N. Y., and vice-president of Mine Development Company, Cleveland, 1900-05; consulting engineer with Union Carbide & Carbon Company, Cleveland, 1918-19, member Cleveland Chamber of Commerce.

Married January 28, 1891, in Fremont, Ohio, Addie Gallagher Noble, daughter of Francis William and Rebecca Eleanor (Simpkins) Gallagher. No children.

Death due to thrombosis of the coronary artery. Cremation took place at the Mortuary Chapel, Los Angeles, and ashes were interred at Forest Lawn Memorial, Glendale, Calif. Survived by wife, a stepson, Frank G. Noble, three sisters, Mrs. William S. Gunnison, of Los Angeles, Mrs. Vliet Quackenbush and Miss Mary Richmond, both of Pembina, N. Dak., and a brother, William I. Richmond, of New York City.

Edward Hubbard Russell, Ph.B. 1878.

Born December 27, 1855, in New Haven, Conn.
Died November 21, 1928, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, William Huntington Russell (B.A. 1833, M.D. 1838), founder and head of General Russell’s Collegiate and Commercial Institute in New Haven; Major General of Connecticut Militia 1862-1870; son of Matthew Talcott Russell (B.A. 1779), tutor at Yale, and Mary (Huntington) Russell; grandson of Noadiah Russell (B.A. 1750) and of Enoch Huntington (B.A. 1759), great-grandson of William Russell
Sheffield Scientific School

(B.A. 1709); great-great-grandson of Noadiah Russel, one of the founders of Yale; descendant of William Russell, who came from Hertfordshire, England, and settled in New Haven in 1638 or 1639. Mother, Mary Elizabeth (Hubbard) Russell; daughter of Thomas Hubbard (honorary M.D. 1818), professor of surgery and obstetrics in Yale School of Medicine, and Elizabeth (Gray) Hubbard, and sister of Thomas G. Hubbard (B.A. 1822); descendant of John Hubbard, who came from England to Boston in 1670 and in 1686 was a settler and founder of Pomfret, Conn. Relatives include: James Pierpont, one of the founders of Yale (great-great-great-grandfather); Daniel Russell (B.A. 1724) (great-great-great-uncle); William Russell (B.A. 1745), Nathaniel Huntington (B.A. 1747), and Joseph Huntington (B.A. 1762) (great-great-uncles); Enoch Huntington (B.A. 1785), Joseph Russell (B.A. 1793), and Samuel G. Huntington (B.A. 1800) (great-uncles); and Samuel Huntington (B.A. 1743), Giles Russell (B.A. 1751), Eliphalet Huntington (B.A. 1759), Nathaniel Huntington (B.A. 1772), William A. Russell (B.A. 1776), Samuel Huntington (honorary M.A. 1779), a signer of the Declaration of Independence, Samuel Huntington (B.A. 1785), and Enoch Huntington (B.A. 1821) (cousins).

General Russell's Collegiate and Commercial Institute. Entered Yale with College Class of 1878 and became member of Kappa Sigma Epsilon; joined Class of 1878 S. the next year; dynamic engineering course; member Sigma Delta Chi.

Did graduate work in metallurgy in Sheffield Scientific School 1878-79; was then a mining engineer in the West for between fifteen and twenty years; connected with Ontario Mining Company in Park City, Utah, for a time and with other similar concerns in the United States and Mexico; during this period developed several patents (granted in 1880, 1883, 1884, 1885, 1886, and 1889) for separating metals from ores and metallurgical products, for leaching ores, for purifying hyposulphites, and for purifying soda ash; in 1895 gave up mining and lived abroad until May, 1928, when he returned to New Haven; spent most of the time in London and devoted himself to the study of sociology and work among the poorer classes; member Center Church (Congregational), New Haven.
Obituary Record

Unmarried.

Harry Washington Asher, Ph.B. 1879.

Born December 17, 1858, in New York City.
Died May 15, 1929, in New York City.

Father, Lewis Asher, a tailor; born in Strasbourg, Germany, came to the United States in 1847, and settled in New Haven. Mother, Harriet (Strouse) Asher; daughter of Benjamin and Deborah (Weil) Strouse, born in Ellerstadt, Germany, came to America in 1846, and first lived in Stratford, Conn. Yale relatives include a nephew, Frank L. Asher, '28, and a niece, Mrs. Philip L Buxbaum, who received a certificate from the Yale School of Music in 1903.

New Haven High School Select course.

Bookkeeper at corset factory of Lewis Schieles & Company in New Haven and also taught in the New Haven Night School 1879-1881; studied in Yale School of Law 1881-83 (LL B 1883, member of Kent Club); admitted to Connecticut Bar 1883 and practiced law in Hartford 1883-84 and in New Haven 1884-1925, when he retired on account of illness; associated with Cornelius T Driscoll, '69 and '71 L., under firm name of Driscoll & Asher 1884-85 and partner in firm of Wright, Hotchkiss & Asher with William A. Wright, '72 L., and Hobart L. Hotchkiss, '73 L, 1892-99; a founder of New Haven Building & Loan Association 1890 (counsel until 1927); an incorporator of Civic Federation of New Haven, Inc., 1907 (on legislative committee 1913-1920); one of the organizers of Peoples' Bank & Trust Company 1905; member of executive committee of Law Enforcement Committee of 100 in 1907; member World Court Committee 1925; chairman of New Haven Air Board 1922–26; member New Haven Board of Education 1892–1900 (president of board 1898–1900); elected to Common Council of New Haven 1886 and 1887; nominated for judge of probate for District of New Haven on Democratic ticket 1914; member of Legal Advisory Board during the World War; secretary of Class of 1879 S for many years until 1926 and Alumni Fund agent 1920–26; vice-president for Law School, of Yale Association of Class Secretaries 1914; had served as trustee, vice-president, and president of Congregation Mishkan Israel, New Haven; member American Bar Association (attended meeting of International Bar Association in London 1924), and New Haven County Bar Association.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage, had been ill for four years. Buried in Salem Fields Cemetery, Cypress Hills, N.Y. Survived by wife, daughter, son, a sister, Miss Celia Asher, of New Haven, and a brother, Abraham Asher, ex-'84

Malcolm Booth, Ph.B. 1879.

Born June 30, 1853, in Woonsocket, R.I.
Died March 28, 1929, in Glendale, Calif.

Father, George Booth, a manufacturer; with Peace Dale (R.I.) Manufacturing Company; born in Lancashire, England, and came to America in 1849; lived in Woonsocket four years, and later in Peace Dale, son of John Booth Mother, Mary Jane (Hudson) Booth Yale relatives include: Mary Booth Perry, ex-'05 Mus (sister), George A. Booth, ex-'06 S. (nephew), and Ethel Booth Greacen, ex-'00 Art (niece).

General Russell's Collegiate and Commercial Institute. Attended Yale 1876–79; mechanical engineering course, member Alpha Chi and Book and Snake.

Taught mathematics in General Russell's Collegiate and Commercial Institute 1879–1880; assistant headmaster and instructor in mathematics and military tactics in Cheshire (Conn.) Military Academy 1880–86; taught mathematics in New Haven High School 1886–1894; during this time also assisted in field work of Juniors in Sheffield Scientific School, and for part of the time served as assistant principal of Boardman Manual Training School; principal of Steele High School, Dayton, Ohio, 1894–97; engaged in private tutoring in New Haven 1897–99; principal Wallingsford (Conn.) High School 1899–1901; conducted teachers’ agency and private tutoring school in New Haven 1901–03; headmaster Culver Military Academy 1903–04; engaged in private business in Canada 1904–05 and in New York City 1905–1910; head of Booth’s School, Inc., New York City, 1910–14; taught mathematics in Boys’ High School, Brooklyn, N. Y., 1914–16; head of mathematics department of the McBurney School (branch of West Side Y M. C. A.) 1916–1927; had also taught higher mathematics at evening school in Mechanics Institute, New York City, 1907–1927, with the exception of four years; suffered a shock two years ago, and had since lived in Pasadena, Calif.; member Dwight Place Church, New Haven.

Married (1) May 8, 1880, in Peace Dale, R. I., Ellen Florence, daughter of Auson and Amelia Avis (DeWolf) Cadwell Children: Malcolm DeWolf, ex-’04; George Hudson, ex-’06 S; and Helene May (died in infancy) Mrs. Booth died August 19, 1923. Married (2) December 22, 1924, in Detroit, Mich, Sophia Ellis (Ph.B. Granville Female College 1883), daughter of Griffith Ellis (born in Wales) and Jane Hoge (Woods) Ellis.

Death, due to arteriosclerosis, occurred in Glendale Sanitarium Cremated in Mountain View Crematory, Pasadena; ashes to be interred in Urbana, Ohio. Survived by wife, sons, and three brothers, Arthur E. Booth, ’91 S, George A. Booth, ex-’97 G, and Elmer E. Booth of Wakefield, R. I.

Charles Backus Ball, Ph.B. 1880.

Born August 31, 1854, in New Haven, Conn.
Died October 18, 1928, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, Charles Ball, engaged in iron work, ornamental and structural Mother, Sarah Lathrop (Backus) Ball.
Warren (Ohio) High School. Civil Engineering course; member Phi Gamma Delta.

Transit man with New Haven & Northampton Railroad Company in New Haven July–September, 1880; transit man and division engineer with Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad in Nebraska and Kansas October, 1880–November, 1881; division engineer with New York, West Shore & Buffalo Railroad at Newburgh, N. Y., December, 1881–November, 1883; assistant engineer for Storm King Bridge Company at Cornwall, N. Y., November, 1883–May, 1884; field inspector of Flower Street bridge in Hartford, Conn., May–November, 1884; field inspector of Potomac River Improvement Association at Washington, D. C., 1884–86; assistant examiner in U. S. Patent Office in Washington 1886–87; assistant engineer of sewer division of Engineer's Department of District of Columbia 1887–1894; inspector of plumbing in Washington 1895–1901; chief inspector of the tenement house department of New York City 1902–04; had since been engaged in private practice as a civil and sanitary engineer in Chicago, secretary of City Homes Association 1904–07; chief sanitary inspector of Chicago Health Department since 1907; director of City Missionary Extension Society 1908–1928, and the Chicago Regional Planning Association since 1923, secretary of city planning division of American Society of Civil Engineers since 1923; member of Hoover advisory committee on city planning and zoning of U. S. Department of Commerce since 1924; lecturer for Army Education Commission in France in 1919 (rank of Captain); author: The Plumbing Catechism (1906) and Plumbing (1916); contributed to American City, Domestic Engineering, and Chicago Health Department Bulletins; member American Society of Civil Engineers, American Society of Plumbing and Sanitary Engineers, Royal Sanitary Institute of Great Britain, and the North Shore Congregational Church.

Married January 12, 1881, in Essex, Conn., Lydia Graves, daughter of Gustavus and Eunice Williams (Bull) Pratt. One son, Dwight Backus, Class Boy of '80 S. (B S Case School of Applied Science 1905).

Death due to heart disease. Cremation in Graceland Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife and son.
George Strong Daniels, Ph.B. 1881.
Born April 12, 1862, in New York City.
Died May 12, 1929, in New York City.

Father, John Lothrop Daniels, a lumber merchant; son of John Lothrop and Maria (Peck) Daniels. Mother, Mary (Moseley) Daniels; daughter of the Rev. Samuel Moseley and Harriet (Bulkley) Moseley; ancestors came from Lancahshire, England, and settled in Dorchester, Mass., in 1630.

Prepared at Hopkins Grammar School. Select course; member Theta Xi; left during Senior year, but in 1911 was voted the degree of Ph B. with enrollment in Class of 1881 S L B Cincinnati Law School 1883; had been engaged in the practice of law in New York City; member Association of the Bar of the City of New York.

Death, due to ulcers of the stomach, occurred at Murray Hill Sanitarium. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York City. Survived by a half brother, Harold P. Daniels, of Forest Hills, N. Y., one sister, Mrs. Axel W. Nilsson, of Port Washington, N. Y., and two half sisters, Mrs. Philip C. Washburn, of Greystone Park, N. J., and Mrs. Frederick P. Whitaker, of Piedmont, Calif.

Henry Jonathan Biddle, Ph.B. 1882.
Born May 14, 1862, in Carlisle, Pa.
Died September 27, 1928, in Lakeview, Ore.

Father, Henry Jonathan Biddle, an engineer, who attended the United States Military Academy for three years; Adjutant General on General McCall’s staff during the Civil War; died from wounds received in action at Newmarket Cross Roads; son of Thomas and Christine (Williams) Biddle; descendant of William Biddle, who came from London and settled in New Jersey in 1678, on the Delaware River at what is now Kinkora, Burlington County, near what is known as Biddle’s Island, and called his place Mount Hope; was a proprietor of New Jersey. Mother, Mary Deborah (Baird) Biddle; daughter of Samuel and Lydia Mcfann (Biddle) Baird; descendant of Thomas Baird, who was born in Scotland in 1724 and came to America about 1747, settling at first in Chester County, Pa., and later in Cumberland County, Pa.; descended also from the above William Biddle. Yale relatives include the following cousins: George W. Biddle, '63, Charles P. Biddle, '66, A. Sydney Biddle, '68, Arthur Biddle, '73, Edward M. Biddle, '06, Alfred A. Biddle, '09, and Julian C. Biddle, '12.

Hopkins Grammar School. Select course; first prize in English composition Freshman year; honors Senior year, member Book and Snake.

Took graduate work in chemistry in Sheffield Scientific School 1882-83; continued his studies at University of Freiberg, Germany, three years; after his return to this country was connected for a time with United States Geological Survey at Zuni, N. Mex, collecting information for department of mineral statistics; later connected with various business enterprises in the West; consulting engineer and vice-president of Columbia Contract Company in Portland, Ore, 1898–1926; president of Oregon Independent Paving Company 1910–16; interested in the development of stone quarries on the Columbia River, ten miles east of Vancouver, Wash., and served as vice-president and consulting engineer for the quarry company; retired from active business 1926; was an ardent naturalist and lover of the scenic beauty of the Columbia River country, and had devoted much time to building of roads and trails in the mountains near Portland and Vancouver; purchased Beacon Rock on the Columbia River and built a trail up it, constructed a road to the top of Biddle Butte in Skamania County, and built a road and trail up Hamilton Mountain, on the Washington side of the Columbia; in his later years took up the study of botany and painted flowers in water colors; member Navy League.

Married May 21, 1887, in Hanover, Germany, Helene, daughter of Carl Haspelmath Children: Rebecca Baird, the wife of Erskine Wood (B.A. Harvard 1901, LL.B. University of Oregon 1912); and Spencer, '12 S.

Died suddenly of heart trouble, while on an outing with his son. Cremation took place and the ashes were buried near Vancouver. Survived by wife, daughter, son, six grandchildren, two sisters, Miss Christine W. Biddle, of Westtown, Pa., and Mrs. Moncure Robinson, of Paoli, Pa., and a brother, Spencer F. B. Biddle, of Paris, France (died April 1, 1929).
Obituary Record

Benjamin Safford Barrows, Ph.B. 1883.

Born October 6, 1860, in Hartford, Conn.
Died April 1, 1929, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, Frederick Freeman Barrows; principal of Brown School, Hartford, forty-three years; son of Dan and Abigail (Freeman) Barrows; descendant of John Barrows (1609–1692), who came from Yarmouth, England, to Salem, Mass., in 1637 and was at Plymouth, Mass., in 1665. Mother, Harriet (Harris) Barrows; daughter of Mardin and Maria (Follett) Harris.

Hartford Public High School. Biological course.

Studied medicine with Dr. John A. Steven in Hartford 1883–84 and at Yale School of Medicine 1884–85; M.D. New York University 1886, on staff of New Haven Hospital November, 1886–February, 1888; practiced medicine in Manchester, Conn., 1888–1892 and since then in Hartford; member American Medical Association, Connecticut State Medical Society, Hartford Medical Society, and Immanuel Congregational Church, Hartford.

Married September 11, 1888, in New Preston, Conn., Emma Charlotte, daughter of George Waller and Harriet (Stokes) Beardsley. Children: Dorothy, the wife of Leigh Fowler Robinson (M.D. Jefferson Medical College 1912); Olive (B.S. Simmons 1918); and Porter Harris (Tufts ex. '24).

Death due to arteriosclerosis, cholecystitis, and coronary thrombosis. Buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by wife, two daughters, son, and four grandchildren.

Henry William Blake, Ph.B. 1886.

Born December 7, 1865, in New Haven, Conn.
Died May 20, 1929, in Englewood, N. J.

Father, Henry Taylor Blake (B.A. 1848), a lawyer; president of New Haven Park Commissioners; son of Eli Whitney Blake (B.A. 1816, LL.D. 1879) and Eliza Maria (O'Brien)
Blake; descendant of James Pierpont (B A Harvard 1681), a founder of Yale (born in Roxbury, Mass, 1659), son of John Pierpont, who had settled in Roxbury in 1640; descended also from William Blake, who came from England to Dorchester, Mass., about 1630 and later was associated with William Pynchon in the settling of Springfield, Mass. Mother, Elizabeth Cott (Kingsley) Blake, daughter of James Luce Kingsley (B.A 1799, LL D. Middlebury 1831), professor of ecclesiastical history, Hebrew, Greek, and Latin at Yale, and Lydia (Cott) Kingsley; descendant of John Kingsley, who came to America in 1634 and settled in Dorchester.

New Haven High School and Hopkins Grammar School. Civil engineering course; divided first prize in English Freshman year; prize in German Senior year; vice-president of his Class Senior year.

Went abroad for six months after graduation from Yale and then studied in Yale School of Law two terms; took special course in electrical engineering at Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1887–88; employed in advertising and publicity work for Sprague Electric Railway & Motor Company and its successor, the Edison General Electric Company, 1888–1891, at first in Boston and during the last year in its New York office; connected with Street Railway Journal and its successor, Electric Railway Journal (name changed in 1908), from 1891 until his death; associate editor until 1894, editor-in-chief 1894–1925, and senior editor since 1925; in 1889 and 1890 delivered courses of lectures on electric railways at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology; co-author, with Walter Jackson, of Electric Railway Transportation (1917); member American Institute of Electrical Engineers and American Electric Railway Association; associate member Union Internationale de Tramways et de Chemins de Fer d'intérêt local of Brussels; deacon of Presbyterian Church, Englewood, many years and served on its Board of Sessions three terms (1916–19, 1921–24, and 1926–29); Alumni Fund Agent for Class of 1886 since 1921.

Married June 1, 1891, at Staten Island, N. Y., Ida, daughter of Charles Henry and Mary Adelaide (Hull) Jewett. Children: Henry Kingsley (B.A. 1916, M.D. Columbia 1921); James Pierrepont (died in 1912); and Mary Adelaide, Vassar '30.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Brookside Cemetery, Englewood. Survived by wife, son, daughter, and two grandchildren.

Everett Mason Grimes, Ph.B. 1886.

Born October 31, 1864, in San Francisco, Calif.
Died August 3, 1928, in San Francisco, Calif.

Father, Nathan Everett Grimes, a stockbroker; ancestors came from England and settled in Massachusetts. Mother, Mary Mason (Buffington) Grimes; ancestors came from England and settled in Rhode Island in 1640.

Urban Academy, San Francisco. Mechanical engineering course

Director and cashier of Napa Valley Wine Company, a corporation of grape growers and wine makers, of Napa County, Calif., for the wholesale marketing of their products, 1887–1892, president of Livermore Warehouse Company, wholesale shippers of hay and grain 1892–99; engaged in the liquidation of the Warehouse Company on account of failure of crops and losses in country loans 1899–1901; with North Contra Costa Water Company and its successor, Peoples' Water Company, which supplied water to Oakland and surrounding country, 1901–09, at first in the engineering department and later in charge of service supply and contracts; in charge of adjusting, accounting, and meter departments of Spring Valley Water Company of San Francisco 1910–13; later was business adviser for L. M. & V. Jacks, land owners and capitalists in Monterey and San Francisco; of late years had been engaged in the real estate business in San Francisco; served in Oakland Light Cavalry, California National Guard, in 1882 and 1883; member Yale Engineering Association; former member Episcopal Church, Oakland.

Death due to lobar pneumonia. Cremation took place and ashes were buried in Cypress Lawn Cemetery, San Mateo County, Calif. His wife survives him.

Willis Benjamin Herr, Ph.B. 1886.

Born August 24, 1863, in Lancaster, Pa.
Died June 4, 1929, in Seattle, Wash.

Father, Theodore Witmer Herr, a lawyer and realtor; son of Benjamin Groff and Mary Emma (Witmer) Herr; grandson of the Rev. John Herr, founder and first minister of the Reformed Mennonite Church in Lancaster County, Pa.; descendant of Hans Herr, who came from Switzerland to Lancaster County in 1709. Mother, Annie (Musser) Herr; daughter of Dr. Martin Musser and Anna (Hostetter) Musser; descendant of Johan Musser, who came from the Lower Palatinate to Lancaster County in 1716. Yale relatives include three nephews: Charles F. Clise, '11 S., James W. Clise, Jr., '22 S., and Herbert T. Herr, Jr., '23 S.

Denver (Colo.) High School. Select course; second prize in English composition Freshman year; one of the original directors of Yale Cooperative Association; member Berzelius.

LL.B. Columbian (now George Washington) University 1887; continued his legal studies in his father's office and others in Denver, and was admitted to Colorado Bar 1888; engaged in practice in Denver until 1899; gave particular attention to real estate and mining law and organized some of the first companies which operated in the Cripple Creek district; had practiced in Seattle since 1899, engaged especially in real estate, probate, and corporation law; independently 1899-1905; member of firms of Wiley, Herr & Bayley (of which the late Charles S. Wiley, '85, was also a partner) 1905-08; Herr, Bayley & Wilson 1908; Herr, Bayley, Wilson & Smith 1909-1911; and Herr, Bayley & Wilson
1911-16 (of which Worrall Wilson, '97, was a partner); Herr,
E. B Bayley & Croson 1916-1927; and Herr, Bayley, Croson
& Innis since 1927; counsel for Grand Trunk Pacific Railroad Company since 1908, Washington Title Insurance Company
1911-13, and National City Bank 1923-25; had been president of Grand Trunk Pacific Alaska Steamship Company
1918-1928, vice-president of Grand Trunk Pacific Dock
Company 1918-1929, and of Title Trust Company of Seattle
1918-19, chairman of board of trustees of Seattle Bar Association (had also served on professional ethics committee); trustee of Seattle Municipal League, vice-president and member of board of directors of Fine Arts Association; president of Colorado Yale Association 1895; president of Yale Club of Seattle 1922-24; served as an advisory member of Draft Board in his district 1917-18, and on various Liberty Loan and Red Cross committees; member American Bar Association, Denver Bar Association, American Association for the Judicial Settlement of International Disputes, Yale Engineering Association, and Children's Orthopedic Hospital Association.

Married July 6, 1904, in Seattle, Jean Elizabeth, daughter of Adam and Ann (Keyes) Holmes. No children.

Death due to carcinoma of the pancreas and liver. Cremation took place, and ashes were interred in Evergreen Cemetery, Seattle. Survived by wife, two brothers, Edwin M.
Herr, '84 S, and Arthur T. Herr, of Denver, Colo., a half brother, Herbert T. Herr, '99 S, and a sister, Mrs. James W.
Clise, of Altadena, Calif.

William Evelyn Hutchings, Ph.B. 1886.

Born October 31, 1864, in New York City
Died May 2, 1929, in Louisville, Ky.

Father, Eusebus Hutchings, a banker; son of Samuel and Martha Hutchings; descendant of Samuel Hutchings, who came from Hampshire, England, in the eighteenth century and settled in Portsmouth, N. H. Mother, Elizabeth Harriet (Bacon) Hutchings; daughter of Charles Pattison and Caroline Jemima (Castleman) Bacon; descendant of John Bacon, of Frankfort, Ky., who married Elizabeth Ware in 1799; descended also from Lewis 'Castleman, who came from England in 1740 and settled in Virginia. Cousins: William S Moody, ’71, and John B. Moody, ex-'74 Williston Academy. Mechanical engineering course; member Delta Psi.

Assistant engineer in office of chief engineer for Louisville & Nashville Railroad in Louisville 1887–1905, had not been engaged in active business since then, because of ill health, member American Society of Civil Engineers; deacon and elder in Highland Presbyterian Church, Louisville

Married June 22, 1910, Eleanor Hord, daughter of Judge William Bowyer Fleming (B.A. University of Toronto 1864, M.A. 1865) and Susan Wells (Harris) Fleming Children: William Evelyn, Jr.; a son and a daughter, both of whom died in infancy; and Eleanor Fleming

Death due to coronary occlusion and myocarditis Buried in Cave Hill Cemetery, Louisville Survived by wife, son, daughter, and a sister, Miss Caroline Castleman Hutchings, of Louisville.

Frederick Anderson Marsh, Ph.B. 1886.

Born November 25, 1863, in Cincinnati, Ohio
Died June 18, 1929, in Montclair, N. J

Father, William Norcross Marsh, a manufacturer, son of Horatio Marsh. Mother, Amanda (Horner) Marsh; daughter of Thomas and Cassandra (Anderson) Horner

Kansas City (Mo) schools. Select course; president of his Class Senior year; member University and Sheffield Baseball teams.

Had been engaged in the castor oil business since graduation; secretary for Marsh Oil Company, Kansas City, until 1905, and since then secretary and treasurer of Baker Castor Oil Company, New York City; vice-president Linseed Asso-Married June 19, 1889, in Westville, Conn., Adaline Marjory, daughter of John Marshall Lines, of Woodbridge, Conn. Children: Marguerite (Mrs. Ingersoll E. Haight); Donald Lines; Harriette Lines (Mrs. Albert D. Purvis); and Adele, the wife of Roger M. Rowe (B.A. Princeton 1923).

Death due to combined sclerosis and hypostatic pneumonia. Buried in Mount Hebron Cemetery, Upper Montclair, N. J. Survived by wife, son, three daughters, three sisters, and three brothers.

Charles Willcox, Ph.B. 1886.
Died June 28, 1929, in Washington, D. C.

Father, Charles Gilbert Willcox (C.E. University of Pennsylvania 1860), member of firm of Willcox & Whiting Iron Works, Philadelphia; son of Norris Willcox and Harriet (Hart) Willcox, a niece of Emma Hart Willard, pioneer in women's education; descended from John Wilcox (Wilcocks), who came from England to Hartford, Conn., in 1639; and from William Willcox, a lieutenant governor of Massachusetts in the seventeenth century. Mother, Caroline (Jennings) Willcox; daughter of Napoleon Augustus and Caroline (Thomas) Jennings.

Ury House School, Fox Chase, Philadelphia. Attended University of Pennsylvania for a year with Class of 1886 before entering Sheffield Scientific School in 1883; civil engineering course; member Sheffield Tug-of-War Team and Delta Psi.

M.D. University of Virginia 1889; commissioned as First Lieutenant in Medical Corps, U. S. A., October 29, 1889; promoted to Captain October 29, 1894; to Major April 7, 1902; to Lieutenant Colonel December 27, 1910; and to Colonel July 1, 1916; served in the United States, Philippines, Cuba, and Porto Rico; in charge of various hospitals in the United States, of general hospitals in the Philippines 1900–03, and of Field Hospital in Cuba 1906–08; director of vaccination for Island of Porto Rico 1898 and 1899; in command of hospital at Corregidor, P. I., during cholera epidemic 1902; in 1916 stationed at Grayling, Mich., to inspect the National Guard prior to its muster in for service on Mexican border; in charge of recruiting depot at Columbus (Ohio) Barracks 1917; commanding officer of Base Hospital at Camp McClellan, Ala., 1918; went overseas with Base Hospital No. 63 August 15, 1918; commanding officer of Base Hospital Center, Caen, France, until the armistice; later in charge of Orthopedic Hospital Center, Châteroux; returned to the United States March 15, 1919; in charge of Medical Department of Hawaii at Honolulu 1919 to retirement at his own request December 31, 1922; author of a pamphlet, Physical Examination of Large Bodies of Men (used in training camps during the war), reports on prophylaxis and cure of beri-beri in Dutch Indies, and suggestions for simplifying medical equipment of mobile units in campaign; wrote translations for the General Staff, U. S. A.; lectured on field service before militia of various states; contributed articles on “Medical Service in the War” to the Military Surgeon; member American College of Surgeons, American Medical Association, Yale Engineering Association, and St. John’s Episcopal Church, Washington.

Married June 14, 1899, at Fort Leavenworth, Kans., Jane Arnold, daughter of Col. Jacob Arnold Augur, 10th U. S. Cavalry (United States Military Academy 1869), and Katherine Jane (Dodge) Augur. Children: Caroline Dodge (George Washington University ex-’30) and Arnold Augur, ’32.

Death due to carcinoma of the stomach. Buried in Arlington National Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughter, son, and a half brother, Dr. Anton Heger, of New York City.

Henry Lewis Davis, Ph.B. 1888.

Born November 16, 1866, in Bethlehem, Conn.
Died November 22, 1928, in Wallingford, Conn.

Father, Henry Davis (M.D. 1855), a physician in Bethlehem, Seymour, and Wallingford; member Connecticut General Assembly; treasurer of town of Seymour; son of Lewis and Lucinda (Perkins) Davis; ancestors came from Wales and settled in Derby, Conn., between 1680 and 1690. Mother, Amelia (Beecher) Davis; daughter of Abraham and Harriet (Wooding) Beecher; descendant of Isaac Beecher, who came from England to Boston, Mass., in 1637.

Hopkins Grammar School. Mechanical engineering course. Borough engineer of Wallingford 1888–89; surveyor in city engineer's department, New Haven, 1889–1891; appointed chief engineer of Wallingford water works in 1891, and superintended their construction during the ensuing year; member Board of Water Commissioners until 1901; since 1892 had been engaged in fire insurance and real estate business in Wallingford, as special agent for Middlesex and Holyoke Fire Insurance companies of Concord, Mass., and, since 1919, for Lynn (Mass.) Mutual Fire Insurance Company; deputy judge of Borough Court since 1909, and justice of the peace for past twenty years; vestryman St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Wallingford, 1905–08.

Death due to cardiorenal vascular disease. Buried in In Memonam Cemetery, Wallingford. Survived by wife, son, and daughter.

Matthew Griswold, Ph.B. 1888.

Born November 21, 1866, in Erie, Pa.
Died February 10, 1929, in Erie, Pa

Father, Matthew Griswold, an iron manufacturer; president of Griswold Manufacturing Company, which he established in 1865, member of Connecticut Legislature two terms and of 52d and 54th Congresses from twenty-sixth district of Pennsylvania, son of Matthew and Phebe (Ely) Griswold; grandson of Judge Roger Griswold (B.A. 1780), member of Congress 1794–1804 and Governor of Connecticut 1811–13; descendant of Matthew Griswold, of Kenilworth, England, one of the settlers of Windsor, Conn., in 1636, who moved to Saybrook, Conn., in 1639. Mother, Sarah (Olmstead) Griswold; daughter of Lemuel and Sarah Olmstead. Yale relatives include: Matthew Griswold (LL D. 1779) (great-great-grandfather); Matthew Griswold (B.A. 1780) (great-great-uncle); Charles Griswold (B.A. 1808) and Jared Griswold (B A 1817) (great-uncles); Lee Griswold, '22 (nephew); and William G. Lane (B.A. 1843), James Griswold (B.A. 1848), Joseph P. Griswold, '51, John Griswold, '57, Wolcott G. Lane, '88, Charles C. G. Lane, '89, Matthew G. Ely, '11 S., Samuel Selden, '22, John K. Selden, '24, and Alfred W. Griswold, '29 (cousins)

Erie Academy Mechanical engineering course.

Graduate student at Yale under Professor Charles B. Richards 1888-89 and attended World's Fair in Paris with him 1889; M.E. 1904; in 1889 entered Griswold Manufacturing Company, in which he served as manager, vice-president, and president until 1912; chairman of committee which was instrumental in interesting the General Electric Company in establishment of a plant at Erie and served as acting plant manager 1910-12 and as works manager from December 12, 1912, until he resigned January 1, 1929, but was retained as member of advisory board; first president East Erie Connecting Railway; vice-president Shaw Piano Company of Erie; had been active in the development of Lawrence Park by the General Electric Company and was vice-president of Lawrence Park Realty Company at death; vice-president National Founders Association 1921; treasurer of Erie Chamber of Commerce 1928-29 (former director; chairman of advisory committee of three on bond issue and public improvements projects; chairman of Erie Union Station and Subway Committee); member City Planning Committee, Erie Board of Trade, board of Hamot Hospital, American Institute of Electrical Engineers, Cost Accountants' Association, and Church of the Covenant (Presbyterian), Erie, president Yale Alumni Association of Erie 1915; in recognition of his services to the city of Erie in connection with every progressive movement, the new plaza at the station was given the name Griswold Square a few days before his death.

Married October 12, 1893, in Erie, Jessie Gardner, daughter of William T. and Jean (Inglis) Black. Children: Matthew
Obituary Record

(B.A. 1918, M.D. 1925); William Black (Ph.B. 1919); Roger Wolcott, 2d (Ph.B. 1921); and Inglis.

Death due to muscular spinal paralysis, the first evidences of which appeared in 1927. Buried in Erie Cemetery. Survived by wife, three sons, daughter, mother, and three half brothers, William E. S. Griswold, '99, Roger W. Griswold, '02 S., and Ely Griswold, '04 S. His brother, Marvin Griswold, '90, died in 1927, and a half brother, Dwight T. Griswold, '08, in 1908.

Edward Hangary Day, Ph.B. 1889.

Born November 21, 1868, in New Albany, Ind.
Died August 3, 1928, in Louisville, Ky.

Father, John S. Day, a merchant and railroad superintendent. Mother, Mary A. (Hangary) Day.

New Albany High School. Select course; member Class Baseball Nine Freshman year and Chi Phi.

Connected with a rolling mill in New Albany for a time after graduation; later engaged in silver mining in Chihuahua, Mexico, and with government improvements in Kentucky; for about thirty years had owned a drug business in Louisville.

Married February 24, 1896, Louise A. Albert. One son, Edward Hangary, Jr.

Death, due to pulmonary tuberculosis, occurred in Norton's Infirmary. Buried in Fairview Cemetery, New Albany. Survived by wife, son, and a sister, Mrs. Paul Moosmiller, of New Albany.

David Lyman, Ph.B. 1889.

Born April 5, 1867, in Middlefield, Conn.
Died January 20, 1929, in Sierre, Switzerland.

Father, David Lyman, a manufacturer; originator of Air Line Railroad; son of William and Alma (Coe) Lyman; descendant of Richard Lyman, who came from England to Boston in 1631 and was an original proprietor of Hartford, Conn., in 1636; descended also from Capt. Giles Miller of the Revolutionary Army. Mother, Catherine Elizabeth (Hart) Lyman; daughter of William and Catherine (Starr) Hart; great-great-granddaughter of the Rev. Jonathan Hart (B.A. 1703); descendant of Stephen Hart, who came from Braintree, England, to Newton, Mass., in 1632 and settled at Hartford, Conn., in 1639; descendant also of Dr. Comfort Starr, who came from England to Boston in 1635 and later settled successively at Cambridge, Duxbury, and Dedham, Mass. Yale relatives include four nephews: Henry H. Lyman, '09 S, Oliver B. Lyman, ex-'15 S., Charles E. Lyman, '16 S., and John Lyman, '17 S.

Phillips-Exeter. Dynamic engineering course; received a Senior appointment.

Treasurer of Brindle Webbing Company in Providence, R. I., for a time; lived in Sierra Madre, Calif., from about 1891 to 1895; owned and conducted Sierra Madre Villa and owned citrus groves; for a number of years previous to his death had lived abroad, making his home at various times in Florence, Italy, and Montreux, Vevey, and Sierre, Switzerland; member Sons of the American Revolution, Connecticut Humane Society, and Congregational Church in Middlefield.

Married June 26, 1901, in Woonsocket, R. I., Mary Cook Larned (B.S. Wellesley 1893), daughter of William and Elizabeth Earle (Cook) Larned. No children.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Central Burying Ground, Middlefield. Survived by wife, a sister, Miss Mary E. Lyman, of Middlefield, and a brother, James Lyman, '83 S. Another brother, John Lyman, ex-'83 S., died during his Junior year at Yale.

Walter Dodge, Ph.B. 1890.

Born March 11, 1868, in Stamford, Conn.
Died September 4, 1928, in Orange, N. J.

Father, Joseph Smith Dodge (B.A. Columbia 1853, M.D. 1856, D.D.S. Baltimore College of Dentistry 1848, and D.D. Tufts College 1892), a dentist in New York City; professor of dental pathology in New York College of Dentistry; son of Joseph Smith and Julia Ann (Burger) Dodge; descendant of
Obituary Record

Tristram Dodge, who came from England in 1670, and settled on Block Island, R. I. Mother, Mary Richards (Hall) Dodge, daughter of Jonathan Miller and Sarah Dibble (Waring) Hall.

King's School, Stamford. Biology course.

M D. Columbia 1893; interne at Memorial Hospital, Orange, 1893–94; had since practiced his profession in Orange; visiting obstetrician at Memorial Hospital 1896–1920; served on committee for smallpox pavilion of South Orange Bureau of Health 1902–03; diagnostican, West Orange Bureau of Health, since 1904, and pathologist, Orange Bureau of Health, since 1908, member American Medical Association, New Jersey State and Essex County Medical societies, Orange Mountain Medical Society, Practitioners' Society of the Oranges, and Memorial Hospital Medical Society of Orange; served in Company C, 4th Regiment, Connecticut National Guard, 1885–87, member Second Universalist Church, Stamford.

Married October 19, 1897, in Newburgh, N Y., Sarah Ann, daughter of John and Emma Louise (VanWyck) Clark. One son, Joseph Clark (M E. Stevens Institute of Technology 1922) Mrs Dodge died August 12, 1912.

Death due to broncho-pneumonia and septic poisoning. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Morristown, N. J. Survived by son, a sister, Mrs. Roland H. Horne, of Stamford, Conn, and a brother, Arthur Dodge, '8o S

William Sterling Roby, Ph.B. 1890.

Born July 2, 1868, in Rochester, N Y
Died June 7, 1929, in Rochester, N Y

Father, Sidney Breese Roby, in wholesale saddlery business; partner in firms of Roby & Stevens and Roby & Carey; owner of Sidney B Roby Company and Rochester Wheel Company; son of Joseph and Margaret (Breese) Roby; grandson of Joseph Roby, who was a member of the "Boston Tea Party" Mother, Sarah Eliza (Loop) Roby; daughter of Peter and Eliza Irene (Ross) Loop; granddaughter of Gen. William Ross, who was given a sword by the State of Pennsylvania for his service in the Wyoming massacre. Yale relatives include: Sidney R. Curtis, '25 S., and Joseph Roby, Jr., '28 (nephews), and Samuel F. B. Morse (B.A. 1810), a cousin.

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. Select course; member Delta Psi.

Had been engaged in the carriage hardware manufacturing business as vice-president of Sidney B. Roby Company, dealers in iron, steel, and mill supplies, in Rochester, since 1890.

Married February 5, 1907, in Oswego, N. Y., Adelaide, daughter of Clark and Mary (McLaughlin) Morrison. One son, William Sterling, Jr., '32.

Death due to carcinoma of the bladder. Buried in Mount Hope Cemetery, Rochester. Survived by wife, son, two brothers, S. Sidney B. Roby, '88, and Dr Joseph Roby, '93, and a sister, Mrs. William T. Dorrance, of New Haven

Walter Tuttle Spencer, Ph.B. 1890.

Born July 5, 1869, in Guilford, Conn
Died August 19, 1928, in Brookline, Mass.

Father, Christopher Spencer, a hardware manufacturer; senior member of firm of I. S. Spencer's Sons; son of Isaac Stowe and Charlotte (Brickell) Spencer; descended from Thomas Spencer, who came from Essex, England, to New-town, Mass., where he was made a freeman in 1634; later moved to Hartford, Conn., and was one of the original proprietors in 1637. Mother, Jane Eliza (Collins) Spencer; daughter of Jonathan and Betsey (Johnson) Collins Yale relatives include a cousin, C. Stowe Spencer, '94 S.

New Haven High School. Civil engineering course.

Had been connected with New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company since September, 1890, rodman 1890–92; transit man 1892–93; division engineer of old Air Line division, with headquarters at New Haven, 1893–1909; later served at various times as division engineer of the Western division at Waterbury, and Hartford and Providence divisions; appointed train master at Providence in September, 1914, but two months later became superintendent of Old
Obituary Record

Colony division, with headquarters at Taunton, Mass.; since 1917 had been superintendent of Boston division; member American Society of Civil Engineers, Connecticut Society of Civil Engineers, and Yale Engineering Association, Traffic Club of New England, New England Railroad Club, New Haven Railroad Club, and Boston Chamber of Commerce.

Married June 10, 1911, in Watertown, Conn., Dorothy Eliza, daughter of Norman and Ellen Sophia (Tolles) Dains. No children.

Death, due to appendicitis, occurred at Brooks Hospital. Buried in Riverside Cemetery, Guilford. Survived by wife and a brother, Frederick C. Spencer, of Guilford.

George Fetter Stickney, Ph.B. 1891.

Born January 24, 1869, in St Paul, Minn
Died January 27, 1929, in Albany, N. Y.

Father, Amos Stickney (United States Military Academy 1864), Brigadier General, Atlantic Division, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A ; president of Missouri River and Mississippi River commissions and New York Harbor Line Board; division engineer, Eastern Division, and engineer officer, Atlantic Division, Corps of Engineers; son of Benjamin and Sarah Jane (Powars) Stickney; descendant of William and Elizabeth Stickney, who came from England about 1638 and settled in Rowley, Mass. Mother, Virginia (Fetter) Stickney; daughter of George Griffith and Catherine (Gray) Fetter; ancestors came from England about 1800 and settled in Virginia Yale relatives include a cousin, Benjamin S. Cable, ’95. St John’s Military Academy, Ossining, N. Y., and New Haven High School. Civil engineering course; member Chi Phi.

Connected in various capacities with Mexican International Railroad on location surveys and construction of Durango extension 1891–93; assistant engineer for United States Government on river improvement work in Kentucky 1893–98; commissioned as a Captain of Company C, 3d Regiment, U. S. Volunteer Engineers, June 28, 1898, and served in United States and Cuba until mustered out in May, 1899; engaged in various engineering projects 1899–1901, among them being surveys for terminal railroad at Sabine Pass, Texas, construction of highways at Paducah, Ky., preparation of plans for improvements at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., and survey of Flat River valley in Missouri for Mississippi River & Bonne Terre Railroad Company; as assistant engineer for Lake Superior Power Company constructed compensating works, a movable dam in rapids of St. Mary’s River at Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, 1901–02; superintendent for Patterson, Collier & Company, contractors, and for J. S. Patterson Construction Company, building piers for Louisville & Nashville Railroad bridge across the Alabama River at Selma, and the east approach viaduct for bridge across the Mississippi River at Thebes, Ill., 1902–03; United States assistant engineer at New York on surveys and dredging of various harbors in northern New Jersey and along Long Island Sound 1904–05; supervising engineer for New York State Barge Canal 1905–1914 (prepared plans and estimates and supervised construction for large part of the waterway); consulting engineer to Lake Erie and Ohio River Canal Board of Pennsylvania, in charge of preliminary investigation for proposed canal 1914–15; since 1915 had been engaged in private practice as a consulting engineer in Albany, invented Stickney Siphon Spillway 1911; contributed articles to various technical engineering publications, among them the Engineering News, Engineering Record, Transactions of the American Society of Civil Engineers, and Proceedings of the Engineers Society of Western Pennsylvania; member American Society of Civil Engineers, American Water Works Association, Albany Society of Civil Engineers, and St. Paul’s Episcopal Church, Albany.

Married October 3, 1894, in Frankfort, Ky, Katherine, daughter of Thomas Halloran (attended Dublin University) and Anne (Clark) Halloran. Children: Josephine and George Fetter, Jr., ex-’30.

Death due to carcinoma of the pancreas. Buried in West Point (N. Y.) Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughter, son, mother, and two sisters, the Misses Josephine and Virginia Stickney, both of New York City.
Obituary Record

Edward Owen Sutton, Ph.B. 1891.

Born August 8, 1871, in Bedford, N. Y.

Father, George Haviland Sutton (B.A. Union 1865), an investment broker with N. W. Harris & Company, New York City; also general agent for New York Mutual Life Insurance Company; son of Leonard and Lydia Jane (Haviland) Sutton; descended from John Sutton, who came from Lincolnshire, England, to Westchester County, N. Y. Mother, Mary Elizabeth (Owen) Sutton; daughter of St. John and Mary Ann (Smith) Owen; descendant of Jonathan Owen, who came from Bristol, England, and settled in Bedford, N. Y.

Springfield and New Haven High schools. Select course; prize for excellence in all studies in Freshman year; prize for excellence in German Senior year, and a Senior appointment; played on Hockey Team.

Engaged in insurance business in Springfield 1891-1911; as sales agent for Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York 1891-1899, assistant manager 1899-1903, district manager 1903-08; with firm of Sutton, Allis & Richards, general agents of Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company 1908-1911; then became assistant to general manager and a director of Knox Automobile Company in Springfield, was made assignee of the company in 1912, and receiver 1913; in 1914 purchased the factory of that company and organized the Knox Motors Company, of which he had since been treasurer, general manager, and director; president of Life Underwriters Association of Western Massachusetts 1904-05; director of Springfield Brick Company since 1910; had received prizes from National Association of Life Underwriters for his articles on insurance subjects published in various insurance periodicals 1900-03, among which were the Ben Williams Prize (1899 and 1901) and the Ben Calif Prize (1900 and 1902); president Union Relief Association (associated charities) of Springfield 1915-16; member South Congregational Church, Springfield.

Married May 13, 1902, in Springfield, Ada Frances, daughter of Alfred Nye and Julia Cornelia (Billings) Mayo. Children Emily Mayo (B.A Smith 1927); Alfred Mayo; Owen Mayo, and Haviland Mayo.
Death due to accidental gas asphyxiation Buried in Oak Grove Cemetery, Springfield. Survived by wife, daughter, three sons, a brother, Herbert L. Sutton, '97, two sisters, Marian Sutton Berry (B.A. Smith 1901), the wife of George L. Berry, and Carrie Sutton Kirschner (Smith ex-'94), the wife of Charles L. Kirschner, 'go S., and a half sister, Ruth Haviland Sutton, of Springfield.

Otis Gridley Bunnell, Ph.B. 1892.

Born December 19, 1868, in Burlington, Conn
Died January 3, 1929, in New Haven, Conn

Father, Norris W. Bunnell, a farmer; held various town offices, and represented Burlington in state legislature 1883; son of Joel and Fanny (Gridley) Bunnell; of French ancestry on the paternal side. Mother, Kavanna (Edwards) Bunnell; daughter of Abel and Ruth (Lyons) Edwards; descended from William Edwards, who came from England to Hartford in 1639; of the same branch of the Edwards family as Jonathan Edwards (B.A. 1720). Yale relatives include a cousin, Lyman B. Bunnell, '60

Bristol (Conn.) High School. Select course, received honors and a Senior appointment; member of Alpha Gamma Nu and Chi Phi.

Traveled in Europe, northern Africa, and the Near East for about two years after graduation; assistant in French 1894–95, and instructor 1895–1900, Sheffield Scientific School; M.S. 1900; studied at the Collège de France, and at University of Paris, 1900–01; taught French in the Flexner School, Louisville, Ky., 1901–05; Hopkins Grammar School 1905–09, and since 1909 in the New Haven High School, edited Mérimee's Colomba (1894), Goldos' Electra (1902), and Valera's El Pajan Verde (1911); member United Church (Congregational), New Haven.

Married April 27, 1905, in Louisville, Ky., to Madge, daughter of Daniel and Katherina (Smith) Buford. One son, John Buford.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife and son.
Ernest Bradford Ellsworth, Ph.B. 1893.

Born April 27, 1870, in Hartford, Conn.
Died October 2, 1928, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, Pinckney Webster Ellsworth (B.A. 1836, M.D. Columbia 1839), a physician and surgeon, specialist in eye and ear diseases; son of William Wolcott Ellsworth (B.A. 1810; LL.D New York University 1838), judge of Superior Court of Connecticut and Supreme Court of Errors, and governor of Connecticut, and Emily (Webster) Ellsworth; grandson of Oliver Ellsworth (B.A. Princeton 1766, LL.D. Yale 1790 and Dartmouth and Princeton 1795), Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court, and of Noah Webster (B.A. 1778, LL.D. 1823 and Middlebury 1830); great-grandson of William Wolcott (B.A. 1734); great-grandnephew of Governor Roger Wolcott of Connecticut; descendant of Josiah Ellsworth, who came from Yorkshire, England, and settled in Windsor, Conn, before 1650. Mother, Julia Townshend (Dow) Ellsworth; daughter of Lucius Kalipon and Julia Ann (Townshend) Dow; descendant of Governor William Bradford of Massachusetts and Governor Matthew Gilbert of Connecticut. Yale relatives include: Oliver Ellsworth (B.A. 1799), Martin Ellsworth (B.A 1801), and Henry L. Ellsworth (B.A. 1810) (great-uncles); Virgil M. Dow, '36 (uncle); and Bradford Ellsworth, '03, and Roger W. Davis, '11 (cousins).

Hartford Public High School. Civil engineering course. Engaged in engineering work for some months after graduation; studied in Yale School of Law in fall of 1894; completed law studies in office of John C. Parsons, '55, in Hartford and admitted to Hartford Bar December, 1896; practiced law in Hartford from 1896 until 1923, when obliged to retire on account of ill health; elected member of Hartford Common Council 1902 and served as acting president 1904; member Board of Aldermen 1905-06; a governor of Connecticut Society of the Founders and Patriots of America 1913-14; had been president of Colonel Daniel Putnam Association and the Birch Mountain Club; member Colonel Jeremiah Wadsworth Branch of Connecticut Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, Connecticut Historical Society, and Historical Society of Hartford; clerk of First Church of Christ (Center
Sheffield Scientific School

Congregational School, Hartford, 1920–23, when he resigned on account of ill health, and vice-president of its Men's Club 1913–14; during the war served as clerk of local Exemption Board September, 1917–July, 1918.

Married September 25, 1901, in Danielson, Conn., Helen Ludentia, daughter of Frank and Annie Elizabeth (Rickard) Day, of Brooklyn, Conn. Children: Frank Day (died in 1908); Eleanor Webster (B.A. Wellesley 1924); Ernest Bradford, Jr., a midshipman in Class of 1931 at United States Naval Academy; and Anne Greenleaf.

Death due to osteitis deformans, Paget's disease, and mitral insufficiency. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by wife (died January 3, 1929), one son, two daughters, a brother, the Rev. Wolcott W. Ellsworth, '90, and four sisters, Mrs. Augustus Julian Lyman, of Asheville, N. C., Mrs. Andrew Julius Anderson, of Wethersfield, Conn., Mrs. John Dobson Parker, of Hartford, and Mrs. George Burnham, of Falmouth Foreside, Portland, Maine

Lysander Royster Moore, Ph.B. 1893.

Born May 14, 1872, in Kansas City, Mo
Died February 5, 1929, in Miami, Fla

Father, Lysander Royster Moore; one of the founders of mercantile house of Bullene, Moore & Emery (now Emery Bird Thayer Company) in Kansas City; interested in Qui-taque ranch, Panhandle, Texas; vice-president of Kansas City Bank; built and donated to foreign missions the Moore Memorial Church, parsonage, and Y. M. C. A. at Shanghai, China; son of Thomas Jefferson and Julia (Royster) Moore; related by descent to Thomas Jefferson and John Marshall. Mother, Mary Adams (Thomas) Moore; daughter of George and Mary (Adams) Thomas; granddaughter of William Thomas, Jr., a soldier in the Cavalry during Revolutionary War and member of North Carolina Legislature and Senate; great-granddaughter of William Thomas, member of Committee of Safety at Wadesboro, N. C., and of first and second Colonial Congress of North Carolina; descendant of Tristram Thomas, who came from Wales to the Province of Maryland. in 1698; descended also from Henry Adams, who came from Northamptonshire, England, in 1640, through one of his sons who settled in Pennsylvania and later in Virginia (Presidents John Adams and John Quincy Adams descendants of one of his five sons, who settled in Mount Wollaston [now Quincy], Mass.). Cousins: Gaston Gunter, '93 S., and Robert R. Moore, '08 S.

Phillips-Andover Select course; first honors at graduation; member Delta Phi Spent about a year in travel abroad after graduation; superintendent and later manager of Goodnight Cattle Company, Quitaque, Texas, 1894–98; organized Thayer-Moore Brokerage Company January 1, 1899, and served as its treasurer until 1908 and then as president until 1917; entered United States Naval Reserve as Chief Petty Officer August 8, 1917; promoted to Warrant Officer, December 26, 1917, when he entered the Navy; commissioned as Ensign, March 22, 1919, and served as aide to the commandant of the 9th, 10th, and 11th Naval districts at Great Lakes, III.; released July 12, 1919; one of the organizers of Haines, Moore & Company (insurance) in Chicago in 1919 and partner in the firm until fall of 1920, connected with the Glidden Company, manufacturers of paints and varnishes, in Cleveland, Ohio, from 1920 until his death (on leave of absence on account of ill health since 1926), and with the office force 1926–27; vestryman of Trinity Episcopal Church, Kansas City, for a number of years, and served also as its treasurer for a time, since his retirement from active business had spent the winters in Cleveland and Miami, Fla., and the summers at his summer home in Pentwater, Mich.

Unmarried

Death due to paralysis. Buried in Elmwood Cemetery, Kansas City. Survived by mother, two brothers, George T. Moore, of Kansas City, and Charles W. Moore (B A. University of Chicago 1904), of Pentwater, and a sister, Mrs. William M. Reid, of Kansas City
Harold Edmonds Hewlett, Ph.B. 1894.

Born November 26, 1873, in Babylon, N Y
Died April 15, 1929, in Babylon, N Y

Siglar's School, Newburgh, N. Y. Biological course; had a "Y" in wrestling; a Class historian Senior year; member Chi Phi.

M D. Columbia 1898; served interneship at Blackwell's Island Hospital 1898; had since practiced medicine in Babylon; had been on staff of Southside Hospital, Bayshore, N Y, and member of board of directors of Central Islip Hospital; member Suffolk County Medical Society, Southside Clinical Society, and Presbyterian Church, Babylon.

Married May 21, 1898, in Philadelphia, Pa, Winifred, daughter of Charles Clifford and Mary (Pennell) Roberts. No children.

Death due to acute dilatation of the heart; had been ill a year Buried in Babylon Rural Cemetery. Survived by wife, mother, and a brother, Percy Hewlett, of Brentwood, N. Y.

Charles Wilson Hoyt, Ph.B. 1894.

Born March 23, 1872, in New Haven, Conn
Died September 16, 1928, in Mineola, N Y

Father, Nehemiah Hardy Hoyt, wholesale provision dealer; son of Nehemiah Hardy and Lucy (Baldwin) Hoyt; descendant of John Hoyt, who came probably from England to Salisbury, Mass., about 1639. Mother, Emma (Gardner) Hoyt; daughter of William Pilcher Gardner, who came from England as a boy and settled in New Haven, and Grace Azuba (Parmelee) Gardner. Yale relatives include two nephews: Samuel E. Hoyt, Jr., '26 S., and Spencer S Hoyt, '27.

New Haven High School. Mechanical engineering course.
Connected with his father’s wholesale provision business as salesman 1894–99, and as secretary and treasurer 1899–1904; then became manager of Armour & Company’s New Haven branch, and shortly afterwards was appointed superintendent of southern New England district; in April, 1909, established an advertising agency under his own name in New Haven; added a branch in New York in 1910, and one in Boston in 1912; moved his business to New York in 1914, and remained as president of the company until his death; his sons, Winthrop C. Hoyt, ’22, and Everett W. Hoyt, ’27, had been associated with him since 1925 and 1927 respectively, at first under the name of Hoyt’s Service, Inc., and from 1923 as Charles W. Hoyt Company, Inc.; president of Advertising Agencies Corporation 1920–28; director of A. C. Gilbert Company of New Haven, Industrial Banking Corporation, and Nassau Hospital, Mineola, N. Y.; author: Preparation of Marketing Plan (1919), Training for the Business of Advertising (1922), Scientific Sales Management (1925), and Scientific Sales Management Today (1929); editor and publisher of several magazines, including Theta Xi Quarterly, Rubber, The Junior, and XXtb Century, and had contributed to Sales Management Magazine; member American Academy of Political and Social Sciences, Metropolitan Museum of Art, American Association of Advertising Agencies, Pilgrims Publicity Association of Boston, Yale Engineering Association, and New Haven Chamber of Commerce.

Death, due to a broken neck sustained when he was thrown from a horse, occurred in the Nassau County Hospital. Buried in Fair Haven (Conn) Union Cemetery. Survived by wife, two sons, father, stepmother, and a brother, Samuel E. Hoyt, ’97 S.
William Spencer Pope, Jr., Ph.B. 1894.

Born December 27, 1872, in St. Louis, Mo.
Died January 30, 1929, in St. Louis, Mo.

Smith Academy, St. Louis. Select course; Class poet; member Book and Snake.

LL.B. St. Louis Law School 1896; admitted to St. Louis Bar and practiced in St. Louis for three years; later engaged in manufacturing business with Universal Accountant Machine Company for about a year; subsequently practiced law again in St. Louis.

Unmarried.

Death due to coronary thrombosis. Buried in Bellefontaine Cemetery, St. Louis. Survived by mother and a sister, Mrs. George Barnet McBean, of Chicago.

Charles Rogers Treat, Ph.B. 1894.

Born August 2, 1872, in Orange, Conn.
Died February 12, 1929, in Orange, Conn

New Haven High School. Civil engineering course.
250

Obituary Record

Connected with DeLamar (Nev.) Gold Mining Company 1894-96 as engineer for a year and then superintendent of its cyanide and bullion refining plant; took graduate work at Yale 1896-97 (C E. 1897); had since been engaged in scientific farming and lumber business in Orange; an organizer of New Haven County Farm Bureau 1915 and since then member of its board of directors; member State Board of Agriculture 1917-1925 and State Milk Regulation Board since 1927; member board of control of Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station since 1919 and vice-president and chairman of its executive committee since 1924; director and chairman of executive committee of Federal Land Bank for Springfield (Mass.) district 1923-29; vice-president Home Bank & Trust Company of West Haven since 1925; represented Orange in State Assembly 1917 and 1919 (chairman of agricultural committee second term); state senator 1921 (chairman of committee on agriculture); first selectman of town of Orange 1921-25; member Orange Board of Education 1908-1923; elected treasurer of New Haven County October 1, 1928; awarded a certificate of honorary recognition by Connecticut Agricultural College in August, 1928, as a tribute to his outstanding leadership and intelligent devotion to rural interests, director Wepawaug Country Club.

Married July 29, 1896, in Orange, Daisy May, daughter of Elias Treat and Mary Sophia (Hine) Clark Children: Julia Rogers (B A Smith 1919), the wife of Stanley B. Wright, '19; and Charles Rogers, Jr, Dartmouth, ex-25.

Death due to a pulmonary abscess. Buried in Orange. Survived by wife, daughter, son, two grandchildren, a brother, Robert B Treat, of Waterbury, Conn., and a sister, Victoria J Treat Bartholomew, the wife of Jeremiah H. Bartholomew, '00 S.

Benjamin Glyde Wells, Ph.B. 1894.

Born November 8, 1868, in Pittsburgh, Pa
Died May 6, 1929, in Pittsburgh, Pa

Father, Calvin Wells, Western University of Pennsylvania (now University of Pittsburgh) Class of 1849, president

Phillips-Andover. Select course; member Senior Class Supper Committee and Delta Psi

Connected with Philadelphia Press 1895–1917 (secretary and treasurer 1898–1910 and president 1910–17); engaged in manufacturing as president of Illinois Zinc Company of Peru, Ill, from 1918 until his retirement in 1925; trustee of Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church about 1920–26

Married October 30, 1895, in Uniontown, Pa, Louise, daughter of William Caldwell and Louise (Badger) Dewey. Children: Mary Glyde, the wife of James I Marsh (B A. Princeton 1911, LLB University of Pittsburgh 1914); Calvin, 2d, University of Pennsylvania ex-'21; Louis Badger, and Elizabeth Dewey.

Death due to a coronary thrombosis. Buried in Allegheny Cemetery, Pittsburgh. Survived by wife, two sons, two daughters, four grandchildren, and two sisters, Mrs. Samuel deN. Caldwell, of Colorado Springs, Colo, and Mary Chaffey Wells Griggs, the wife of C. Milton Griggs, '83

Walter Barry Jennings, Ph.B. 1895.

*Born February 28, 1873, in New York City
Died January 22, 1929, in Norwalk, Conn*

Father, Isaac Sammis Jennings; treasurer of Banks Law Publishing Company of New York; councilman of South Norwalk, Conn., and senior warden of Trinity Church; son of Joseph Hiram and Elizabeth Ann (Barry) Jennings; descendant of Joseph Jennings, who came from England about 1645, was in Hartford in 1647, moved to Fairfield, Conn., before 1656, and died there 1674. Mother, Sarah Deshon (Kirby) Jennings; daughter of John and Mary Ann Thomas (Burgis) Kirby; descendant of John Kirby, who came from Warwickshire, England, to Plymouth, Mass., in 1635, in 1645 was a resident of Hartford, and became a resident of Middletown, Conn., between 1651 and 1654. Yale relatives include: Thomas Burgis (B.A. 1758) (great-great-uncle); Thomas B Kirby, '62 (uncle); and Gould J. Jennings, ex-'53 L., C Ellis Jennings, Jr., LL.M. 1898, and John B Kirby, Jr., '21 S. (cousins).

Wilson's School, South Norwalk. Biological course.

M D. New York University Medical College 1898 (member Nu Sigma Nu); on medical and surgical staffs, Bellevue Hospital, 1898–99; practiced in New York City 1899–1919; during that period was connected with Roosevelt Clinic 1899–1901, assistant in X-ray department at New York Hospital 1903, and chief of clinic at Wilkes Dispensary of St. Mary's Free Hospital for Children 1899–1911; member medical staff of New Jersey State Hospital, Trenton, 1919–1920; resident physician at Stamford Hall Sanitarium, Stamford, Conn., 1920–23; had since been senior assistant physician at Connecticut State Hospital, Middletown; held a commission as Lieutenant (j g) in the Medical Corps, United States Naval Reserve Force, October 8, 1918–October 8, 1922, but was not called to active duty; special correspondent for Medical Record at meetings of American Association of Physicians and American Medical Association at Washington, D. C., and Atlantic City, N. J., 1900; associate editor Medical Review of Reviews (department of obstetrics and gynecology); contributed monographs to Medical Record, Medical Journal, St. Louis Medical Journal, Louisville Monthly Journal of Medicine and Surgery, and Medical Herald; Fellow American Medical Association, member New York State Medical Association, New York County Medical Association, Connecticut State and Middlesex County Medical associations, Psychiatric Association, New York Academy of Medicine, Society of Alumni of Bellevue Hospital, Society of Mayflower Descendants, American Legion, and Military Order of the World War; life member Middletown Chamber of Commerce; corresponding secretary Physicians' Mutual Aid Society; president of New York University Alumni Association of Nu Sigma Nu; communicant of Trinity Episcopal Church, Middletown.

Married September 30, 1908, at Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., Mabel, daughter of Champion Hiram Judson (M.D. Columbia 1871) and Jennie (Mabie) Judson. One son, Walter Barry, Jr. Mrs. Jennings died January 1, 1928.

Death, due to encephalitis lethargica (sleeping sickness), occurred at the Norwalk Hospital. Buried in Norwalk Cemetery. Survived by son, a sister, Miss Mary Kirby Jennings, of South Norwalk, and a brother, Burgis D. Jennings, '05 S.

Carl Robbins Lindenberg, Ph.B. 1895.

Born January 13, 1875, in Columbus, Ohio
Died August 30, 1928, in Manchester, Vt

Father, Charles Herman Lindenberg, a manufacturer; president of M. C. Lilley & Company, manufacturers of uniforms and military equipment and lodge furniture in Columbus; organized and was president of Edison Electrical Company of Columbus (later absorbed by Columbus Railway & Light Company); born in Blenheim, Prussia, and came to America in 1854. Mother, Sarah Elizabeth (Robbins) Lindenberg. Yale relatives include five cousins: Otto H. Lindenberg, '99 S., George W. Lindenberg, '02, Philip H. Lindenberg, '16, John T. Lindenberg, '32, and F. Hubbard Lindenberg, '33

Siglar's School, Newburgh, N. Y. Electrical engineering course; received Senior appointment.

Took a trip around the world 1895–96; connected with M. C. Lilley & Company and its successor (in 1924), The Lilley Company, since 1896; started and managed the suitcase and handbag factory in 1900, became vice-president and assistant manager in 1910, and served as president from 1920 until his death; president of Columbia Brass Company since 1922; in June, 1924, bought the stock, material, machinery, and building of Indestructo Trunk Company of Mishawaka, Ind., organized a new company in Ohio under same name, and served as president until his death.

Married February 18, 1902, in Columbus, Frances, daughter of Francis and Joanna (Loofborrow) Hicks. No children.
Death, due to a cerebral hemorrhage, occurred at his summer home in Manchester. Buried in Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Sterling, Ohio. Survived by wife and three brothers, Frank H. Lindenberg, ’99 S, Paul Lindenberg, ’03, and Leo Lindenberg.

Richard Turner Dana, Ph.B. 1896.

Born June 13, 1876, in Lenox, Mass.
Died August 26, 1928, in East Islip, N.Y.

Harvard School, New York City. Civil engineering course; honors Senior year.

Assistant engineer in maintenance of way department of Erie Railroad, 1896-1902, during last two years of the period having charge of all maintenance engineering on New York Division, Greenwood Lake Division, and New Jersey & New York Division; since 1902 had been engaged in private practice as a consulting civil and mechanical engineer in New York City, chief engineer, vice-president, and treasurer of Construction Service Company; secretary and treasurer of R. T. & D. T. Dana Company (technical books); president of Codex Book Company, Inc.; treasurer of Clark Book Company, Inc.; consulting engineer 1903-1921 and director since 1911, of Dansville & Mount Morris Railroad Company; director Corporation Service Company of Hartford, Conn., since 1926, member Gillette & Dana; secretary and treasurer Yale Engineering Association in 1914 and 1918 and member executive committee 1919 and 1920; with Clarence B. Sturges, ’96 S., organized Yale Graduate Placement Bureau in 1923, served as secretary-treasurer 1926, and as secretary since then; served in 1st Division, Naval Battalion, Connecticut National Guard, two years, and in 130th Separate Company at Elmira, N.Y., one year; during the World War was stationed at Brooklyn Navy Yard as supervising engineer in Public Works Division of the Navy Department July, 1917-February, 1918, author: Cost Analysis Engineering (1908), Cost Keeping and Management Engineering (with H. P. Gillette) (1909), Rock Drilling (with W. L. Saunders) (1911), Handbook of Steam Shovel Work (1911), Handbook of Construction Plant (1914; reprinted 1918), Practical Track Work (joint author) (1916), The Trackman's Helper (1917), Handbook of Construction Equipment (1921; second edition 1926), Handbook of Mechanical and Electrical Cost Data (joint author) (1918), Construction Cost Keeping and Management (1922), Concrete Computation Charts (1922), The Bridge at Windsor (Vt.) and Its Economic Implications (1926), The Human Machine in Industry (1927); member American Society of Civil Engineers, American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers, American Society of Engineering Contractors (director), Yale Engineering Association, Society of Colonial Wars, and Episcopal Church.

Married April 22, 1902, in New York City, Mary Rattcone, daughter of William T. and Mary Rattcone (Watson) Meredith. One daughter, Mary Florine (B.A Bryn Mawr 1928), the wife of William C. Kopper (B.A. Columbia 1925).

Death due to chronic myocarditis. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by wife and daughter.

George Hamilton Flinn, Ph.B. 1897.

Born March 12, 1875, in Pittsburgh, Pa
Died March 29, 1929, in Pittsburgh, Pa

Father, William Flinn, a contractor; president of Booth & Flinn, Ltd, of New York and Pittsburgh, former senator of Pennsylvania Legislature; director in numerous corporations, among them the Gulf Oil and Pittsburgh Coal companies; son of John and Mary (Hamilton) Flinn, descendant of John Flinn, who came from England in 1851 and settled near Scranton, Pa. Mother, Nancy (Galbraith) Flinn; daughter of Joseph and Jane (Early) Galbraith.

Pittsburgh High School. Entered Yale with Class of 1896 S, but left during Freshman year on account of illness and reentered with '97 S., select course; vice-president of Class Junior year; a Class Day historian; chairman of Senior Supper Committee; member Delta Phi.
Traveled for nearly a year after graduation, principally in Mexico; connected with Booth & Flinn, Ltd., since 1898, as secretary and treasurer of the company until 1924 and since then as chairman of the board (firm had built several of the tubes under the East River and the Holland Tunnel under the Hudson and had recently been awarded the contract for building new tubes under the Harlem River); president of Flinn-O'Rourke Company, Inc., Pittsburgh, 1914–1921, Pittsburgh Contracting Company 1909–1914, Harmon Creek Coal Company, Pittsburgh, 1914–1921, and Freehold Real Estate Company, since 1927; treasurer of Sharon Water Works Company 1907–1926; chairman of Beechwood Improvement Company, Ltd., 1899–1907; director of Colonial Trust Company, Pittsburgh, since 1904; delegate to Republican National Conventions 1916 and 1920; member Pennsylvania Society.

Married April 26, 1900, in Pittsburgh, Clara Louise, daughter of Daniel Charles and Lillie (Berry) Negley. Children: Louise, the wife of Stuyvesant Wainwright, Jr., '13; George Hamilton, Jr., '26 S., and Lawrence, '32.

Death, due to cerebral edema and bronchial pneumonia, occurred at Western Pennsylvania Hospital, Pittsburgh. Buried in Homewood Cemetery, Pittsburgh. Survived by wife, daughter, two sons, three brothers, Ralph E. Flinn, ex-'00 S., A. Rex Flinn, '06, and William A. Flinn, of Greenwich, Conn., and two sisters, Mrs. John W. Lawrence, of Glenshaw, Pa., and Edith Flinn Patterson, the wife of Simon T. Patterson, '07.

Hugh MacAlister North, Ph.B. 1897.

Born September 21, 1873, in Columbia, Pa.
Died May 20, 1929, in Lancaster, Pa.

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.
Richard Norris Wilcox, Ph.B. 1899.

Born May 12, 1877, in New York City
Died November 23, 1928, in New York City

Father, Dennis Caldwell Wilcox; secretary of Meriden (Conn.) Britannia Company (silversmiths) and manager of the New York business; president of Rogers & Brothers, silversmiths; son of Elisha Bacon and Hepzibah (Cornwell) Wilcox; descendant of John Wilcox, Sr., who came from England and was an original proprietor of Hartford in 1636. Mother, Mary (Peck) Wilcox; daughter of Norris and Elizabeth Edwards (Langdon) Peck; descendant of Deacon Paul Peck (born in Essex County, England), who came to America in 1635 and settled in Boston, moving to Hartford in 1636. Cousins: George H Wilcox, '75 S, Donald R Hooker, '99, Harold C. Wilcox, '12, Roy C Wilcox, ex-'16, Horace Wilcox, '16 S., and Kirtland W. Decherd, '19 S

St. Paul's School, Concord, N H. Select course; rowed on Freshman Crew

Connected with Meriden Britannia Company in New York City 1899–1908, at first as a salesman and later as assistant manager of retail department; engaged in poultry farming in Princeton, N. J., 1908–1914 and then connected with International Silver Company of New York for a very short time, had made his home in Ridgewood, N. J., since 1914; member St. Elizabeth's Church (Episcopal), Upper Ridgewood, N. J.

Married October 30, 1896, in Jersey City, N J, Jessie Virginia, daughter of the Rev. Richard Jones (born in Wales) and Jessie (Gardener) Jones. One daughter, Marion Virginia

Death, due to cirrhosis of the liver, occurred at the Presbyterian Hospital, New York Buried in West Street Cemetery, Westfield, Conn. Survived by wife, daughter, a sister, Miss Elizabeth Wilcox, of New York City, and two brothers, Frederick P. Wilcox (B A. Trinity 1880), of New York, and Paul P Wilcox, of Durham, Conn.
Obituary Record

John Appleton Allen, Ph.B. 1900.

Born January 29, 1880, in New York City
Died October 16, 1928, in Goshen, N. Y.

Father, Elisha Hunt Allen, Jr., a merchant; partner in Bliss & Allen and E. H. Allen, dry goods commission business, New York City, Hawaiian consul general 1875–1898; son of Elisha Hunt Allen (B.A. Williams 1823, LL.D. Colby 1869), and Sarah Elizabeth (Fessenden) Allen; descendant of Edward Allen, who came from England and settled in Ipswich, Mass., in 1670, and was a settler of Suffield, Conn., in 1678. Mother, Julia Anna (Herrick) Allen; daughter of Jacob Burton and Julia Ann (Lyon) Herrick, descendant of Henry Herrick, who came from England, probably to Virginia, and was in Salem, Mass., in 1629.

Dwight School, New York City. Select course; honors in history Senior year, University tennis champion; vice-president of Yale Tennis Association; secretary of Intercollegiate Tennis Association; member Graduate Committee and Delta Psi.

Order clerk and bond salesman with Harvey Fisk & Sons, bankers, New York City, for about seven years; subsequently assistant manager and a director of Dutchess Silver Mining Company, Ltd., of Cobalt, Ontario, and of the Trout Lake (Ontario) Mining Company; returned to United States in 1913, and retired from active business on account of ill health, member Squadron A, New York National Guard, and All Angels’ (Episcopal) Church, New York City.

Unmarried.

Death, due to broncho-pneumonia, occurred at the Interpines Sanitarium. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Brooklyn, N. Y. Survived by a sister, Mrs. Edmund Dwight, and a brother, Robert H. Allen, both of New York City.

John Hamilton Inman, Ph.B. 1900.

Born November 10, 1877, in New York City.
Died June 4, 1929, in New York City.

Father, John Hamilton Inman, a cotton merchant; founder of Inman, Swann & Company, New York City; served in Confederate Army 1861–65; son of Shadrach Walker and Jane (Martin) Inman; descendant of Abednego Inman, who came from England about 1765 and settled at Limestone, Va, and later at Danridge, Tenn.; served as a Major during the American Revolution. Mother, Margaret McKinney (Coffin) Inman; daughter of James Ayer and Margaret (Martin) Coffin, descendant of Tristram Coffin, who came from Plymouth, England, in 1642 and lived in Salisbury and Haverhill, Mass., and in Newbury, Mass., in 1648, a founder of Nantucket, Mass, 1666 Yale relatives include two nephews: Clifford V. Brockaw, Jr., '25 S, and John I Pearce, '32.

Cutler and Blake schools, New York City Select course, a Class Book historian and Cup man; member Delta Psi.

Traveled abroad for two years after graduation; in the employ of Flower & Company, brokers, New York City, 1902–03, had since been a partner in firm of Inman, Swann & Company, cotton brokers, members of the New York Cotton Exchange; retired from active business in 1918; during the World War served as Captain with the American Red Cross October, 1918–June, 1919; member Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York City.

Married August 4, 1921, in New York City, Marguerite Stone Cameron, daughter of Francis Williams and Mary Jeannette (Jones) Stone. No children.

Antoine Jacques Newell, Ph.B. 1902.

Born December 9, 1881, in Brooklyn, N Y
Died November 21, 1928, in Philadelphia, Pa

Father, Albert Wellington Newell, president Newell Brothers Manufacturing Company (buttons), Springfield, Mass; son of Nelson Cyrus and Mary M. (Chandler) Newell;

St Paul’s School, Concord, N. H. Select course; member of 1902 Hockey Team and Chi Phi.

Engaged as salesman in electrical manufacturing business in Boston 1902-03, and with Crocker-Wheeler Company, Ampere, N. J., 1903-05; real estate salesman for Herbert A. Sherman, New York City, 1905-06, subsequently had an alfalfa and fruit farm in Barstow, Texas, for some years, and was employed for a time with the Railway Improvement Company, New York City; district manager in Philadelphia for Onondaga Litholite Company of Syracuse, N. Y., 1917-1922, president and owner of A J Newell Company (building materials), Philadelphia, 1922-28; had been president of Newell & Bilyea, Inc (sales and installation of specialties for buildings), in Philadelphia, since 1927.

Married August 16, 1912, in Germantown, Pa., Marion Ella, daughter of Frank and Ella Frances (Palmer) Leake. One son: Antoine Jacques, Jr.

Death due to angina pectoris and chronic nephritis. Buried in West Laurel Hill Cemetery, West Manayunk, Philadelphia. Survived by wife, son, and a brother, Albert N. Newell, of New York City.

Irving Atwater Andrew, Ph.B. 1903.

Born January 21, 1883, in Orange, Conn.
Died March 21, 1929, in Derby, Conn.

Father, Wellington Miles Andrew (Ph. B 1868), a farmer; member Connecticut General Assembly; son of Dennis and Martha (Merwin) Andrew, great-great-grandson of the Rev. Samuel Andrew, one of the original trustees of Yale and Rector for some years; descendant of William Andrew, who came from England to America in 1632 and settled in Cambridge, Mass. Mother, Flora Booth (Treat) Andrew; daughter of Isaac Platt and Sarah (Booth) Treat.
Sheffield Scientific School 261

New Haven High School. Chemistry course; general two-year honors; member Sigma Xi.

Assistant chemist National Battery Company, Buffalo, N. Y, June-September, 1903; assistant in chemical laboratory of Sheffield Scientific School and also engaged in graduate work 1903-04; assistant chemist in analytical laboratory of Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station, New Haven, 1904-05; had since engaged in farming in Orange with his father until the latter’s death in 1928; clerk of Orange Center School District 1909-1923, member of School Committee 1913-1926 (chairman 1922-26); tax collector of Orange 1921-25; member Republican Town Committee 1921-26; in 1917 served as member of Company I, 2d Regiment, Connecticut Home Guard; together with Professor H. W. Foote contributed articles to American Chemical Journal 1905; on March 6, 1929, elected to board of directors of New Haven County Farm Bureau to represent town of Orange.

Married November 6, 1907, in Orange, Amelia May, daughter of William James and Anna Maria (McVoie) Scobie. Children: Ruth Scobie, Mount Holyoke 1930; Margaret Merwin, Russell Sage College 1932; Merwin Atwater; Mary Elizabeth; Jane, and Frances Treat

Death, due to a fractured spine sustained four days before, when he fell from a scaffold in his barn, occurred at Griffin Hospital, Derby. Buried in Orange Center Cemetery. Survived by wife, five daughters, son, mother, two brothers, Ashley M. Andrew, ’06 S, and Wellington B. Andrew, of Orange, and two sisters, Mrs Horace T Hills, of Westville, Conn, and Miss Helen B. Andrew, of Orange Douglas Warner Franchot, Ph.B. 1903.

Born December 29, 1880, in Olean, N Y
Died September 23, 1928, in Muncy, Pa

Father, Nicholas VanVranken Franchot (B A. Union 1875), an oil producer, one of the first presidents of Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association; chairman of board of directors of Exchange National Bank of Olean, director of Western New York & Pennsylvania Railroad, first mayor of Olean, superintendent of public works of New York State, son of Richard Hanson Franchot (Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute ex-1839), member of the 37th Congress, Colonel of 121st New York Volunteer Infantry in Civil War (breveted Brigadier General), first president of Albany & Susquehanna Railroad, and Anne (VanVranken) Franchot; descendant of Stanislaus Pascal Franchot, who came from France to Morris, N. Y, in 1790. Mother, Annie Conyne (Wood) Franchot; daughter of Ezekiel Guernsey and Ellen Louise (Conyne) Wood; descendant of Jesse Wood, and of Leendert Philips Conyne, who came from Holland to New Amsterdam and was a freeholder at Beverwyck in 1657. Yale relatives include: Richard H Franchot, '88 S (uncle), and John T B. Hillhouse, '69 (cousin).

Berkeley School, New York City; St. Paul's School, Concord, N H; Westminster School, Simsbury, Conn., and a private tutor. Select course; member Gun Team, Track Team, and Cross-Country Team all three years, Relay Team Freshman and Junior years (captain Senior year), and International Track Team; first inter-collegiate cross-country champion in 1901; vice-president of Yale Athletic Association, and of his Class Senior year, member Book and Snake.

Associated with his father July, 1903–November, 1904, at Graysville, Ohio, for nine months, and then at Cleveland, Okla, as superintendent of several oil properties in which he had an interest; since 1904 had been half owner and manager of D W. Franchot & Company, producers of crude petroleum, and was made president when the company was incorporated in 1927, during 1905–07 Horatio W. Wales, '03 S, was associated with him; spent the winter of 1906–07 in Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory, where he developed a lease in which he had a half interest; moved to Tulsa, Okla, in 1907, and had lived there since; discovered and purchased oil properties throughout Oklahoma and Texas, in 1911 built the first commercial casing head gasoline plant in the West; Joseph E. Washington, '05 S, was associated with him 1911–1914; had engaged in cattle raising as a side issue 1914–1921; received a patent on single trigger mechanism for a double-barreled shotgun in 1927; a founder of Tulsa Crippled Children's Home; contributor to Oil & Gas Journal; member Republican State Finance Committee, chairman of 3d Congressional District
Finance Committee, member of advisory board of Oklahoma Taft-Sherman Club, and treasurer of Republican Party in Oklahoma, in 1908; president of University Club of Tulsa 1921–25; president of Oklahoma Yale Club from its organization in 1916, and chairman of Southwestern division of $20,000,000 endowment campaign in 1927; inspector in American Red Cross, with assimilated rank of Captain in the Army, November 7, 1918–May 15, 1919; junior warden, vestryman, and treasurer of Trinity Episcopal Church, Tulsa

Married April 18, 1914, in Philadelphia, Pa., Constance, daughter of Craige Lippincott (University of Pennsylvania ex-'66), and Sallie Erie (Bucknell) Lippincott. Children: Nicholas VanVranken, Constance, Douglas Warner, Jr., and Diane Death due to carcinoma. Buried in Hillington Cemetery, Morris, N. Y. Survived by wife, two daughters, two sons, parents (mother died October 12, 1928), a brother, Charles Pascal Franchot, '10, and three sisters, Janet F. Hickok, the wife of William O. Hickok, 4th, ex-'98 S., Louise F. Munson, the wife of Edgar Munson, '04, and Anne F. Godley, the wife of Frederick A. Godley, '08.

Charles Arthur Norton, Ph.B. 1903.

Born May 5, 1883, at Middletown Springs, Vt
Died July 2, 1928, in Wells, Vt

Father, Arthur Clarence Norton (M D New York Homeopathic Medical College 1882), a specialist in obstetrics, health officer of Middletown Springs forty years, Fellow of American Medical Association; son of Lucius Malcham and Eliza Barker (White) Norton. Mother, Lucy Alice (Randall) Norton; daughter of John Randall (B.A University of King’s College 1855, M A 1863) and Frances Elizabeth (Dalzell) Randall; descendant of Elisha Randall, who came from England to Nova Scotia in the latter half of the eighteenth century.

Vermont Episcopal Institute, Burlington, and Phillips-Andover. Mining engineering course, honors in chemistry. Freshman year, two-year general honors Married June 1, 1912, in St. Lambert, Quebec, Kathleen Anna Bolton, daughter of Andrew Hugh and Caroline (Woodworth) McKee. Children: Eleanor Kathleen, Margaret Caroline, and Ruth Lois.

Death due to a fractured spine, received when struck by an automobile. Buried in Pleasant View Cemetery, Middletown Springs. Survived by wife, three daughters, parents, a sister, Mrs. Albert B. Clark, of Readsboro, Vt., and a brother, J. Randall Norton, of Shanghai, China.

Alan Zook VanNatta, Ph.B. 1903.

Born November 11, 1882, in St. Joseph, Mo.
Died November 9, 1928, in St. Joseph, Mo.

Father, Thomas Frailey VanNatta, president of VanNatta Drug Company, St. Joseph, son of Shelby and Rebecca (Willis) VanNatta. Mother, Mary (Zook) VanNatta; daughter of William and Sarah (Waterman) Zook.

St. Joseph High School. Select course.

Connected with VanNatta Drug Company from graduation, as shipping clerk, salesman, secretary, manager-buyer, and general manager; became member of the firm in 1907; retired in 1924, when the company was absorbed by the C. D. Smith Drug Company; during the war served as member of Food Conservation Committee of St. Joseph, member Christ Church.

Married October 15, 1918, in St. Joseph, Caroline Belle, daughter of Carlos Erasmus and Susan Belle (Smith) Betts. No children.

Death due to cerebral hemorrhage Buried in Mount Mora Cemetery, St. Joseph. Survived by wife, mother, a brother, Lieutenant Colonel Thomas F VanNatta (United States Military Academy 1903), of Fort Riley, and a sister, Mrs. Schuyler VanIngen, of Yonkers, N.Y.

Claude Carpenter Pinney, Ph.B. 1904.

Born September 5, 1880, in Stafford, Conn.
Died June 27, 1929, at Saratoga Springs, N.Y.

Father, Edwin Carpenter Pinney, president of Phoenix Woolen Mill and Stafford Savings Bank; director of Stafford Springs National Bank; state senator; son of Daniel and Azuba (Carpenter) Pinney; descendant of Sir Oliver Pinney, who came from Broadway, England, and settled in Stafford, Conn. Mother, Esther Smith (Harvey) Pinney, daughter of Moses B and Rachel (Jennings) Harvey. Yale relatives include a cousin: George H. Pinney, ex-’91 S.

Worcester Academy and Hotchkiss School. Select course; entered Sheffield Scientific School with Class of 1903, but left during Freshman year on account of illness; reentered as a Junior in 1902; member Freshman Track Team, 1904 S Golf Team, and Theta Xi.

Salesman for commission house of James Talcott (woolen goods), New York City, 1904-06; president of Black Cañon Coal Company, Denver, Colo., for six months in 1906, partner in firm of Brown & Pinney (hardware), Stafford, Conn., 1906-09; vice-president and superintendent of Phoenix Woolen Company, Stafford, 1909-1911; part owner and manager of Florida Keys Sponge & Fruit Company for four months in 1911; organized Advance Rubber Company, Brooklyn, January, 1912, and was president and general manager until 1916; director and vice-president of Wilmore Realty Company, New York City, 1916-17; partner of Emanuel, Parker
& Company and floor member for the firm on New York Stock Exchange 1918–1923, and then partner in its successor, Parker, McElroy & Company until 1926; partner in New York Stock Exchange firm of Watson, Williams & Company January, 1926–January, 1929; associated also since 1926 with Hemphill, Noyes & Company, as floor member on New York Stock Exchange

Married (1) January 1, 1906, in New York City, Melicent Reid, daughter of William VanDuyn and Annabelle C. (Reid) Ford Mrs Pinney died July 25, 1907. Married (2) September 17, 1913, in New York City, Katherine Chenoweth Sears, daughter of William Wood and Judith (Paddock) Rhaipe. One son, Peter.

Charles Buchanan Stuart, Ph.B. 1907.

Born July 9, 1883, in Cleveland, Ohio
Died February 14, 1929, at sea

Father, Charles Francis Stuart (Hobart ex-'72), manufacturer in Chicago and Cleveland, son of Charles Beebee Stuart, engineer-in-chief of United States Navy 1850–53, and Frances (Wells) Stuart Mother, Annie (Buchanan) Stuart; daughter of the Rev John Junkin Buchanan and Jane (Mowry) Buchanan; descended from President James Buchanan

Phillips-Andover Select course; on Freshman Football Team, and University Football Team Senior year; manager of University Hockey Team, Senior year, and of University Club; member Government Club and Berzelius.

In employ of Pennsylvania Rubber Company as shipping clerk in its Boston branch, July–November, 1907, and then as salesman in its New York branch until 1910; salesman for Brewster & Company (automobiles and carriages) in New York 1910–11; with New York branch of General Motors Truck Company as salesman and secretary 1911–1920, vice-president and director of N. K. Fairbank Company of Chicago 1920-22; manager of eastern business of Diamond T Motor Car Company of Chicago, at Long Island City, 1922-23, special representative of G Maurice Heckscher, Inc., in New York 1923-25; president of Veedan Air Spring Company, Inc., 1925-26; associated with Smith, Graham & Rockwell (Kenneth R Smith, ex-’17 S, Fred W.W Graham, Jr., ’18, and Foster Rockwell, ’06), members of New York Stock Exchange 1926-28; at time of death was member of brokerage firm of Clark, Childs & Company, in New York; member of executive committee of New York group of Investment Bankers Association of America, commissioned as a First Lieutenant of Infantry at Plattsburg, September, 1916; attended Officers' Training Camp at Fort McPherson, Ga, and promoted to Captain August 15, 1917, promoted Major, National Army, December 31, 1917, at Camp Gordon, where he commanded 11th Battalion, 157th Depot Brigade, until October, 1918, when he was transferred to Washington, D C, to serve with War Plans Division and Operations Committee of the General Staff; discharged January 2, 1919.

Clarence Holloway Cogswell, Ph.B. 1908.

Born September 20, 1886, in New Haven, Conn
Died April 12, 1929, in Middletown, Conn

Father, Frederick Hull Cogswell, ex-’83 L; official reporter for Superior Court, New Haven, author of Compendium of Phonography, The Regicides, and Art Works of New Haven; joint author of Historic Towns of New England; son of Egbert and Mary Eliza (Hull) Cogswell, descendant of John Cogswell, of Westbury Leigh, County of Wilts, England, who came from Bristol, England, in 1635 and settled in Ipswich,
Obituary Record

New Haven High School. Select course

Entered the employ of New England Telephone & Telegraph Company in Boston, September, 1908, transferred to Pittsfield, Mass., January, 1909, and to Portland, Maine, the next May, and made manager of the company in Plymouth, Mass., in August; special agent (assistant to the general manager) of Southern New England Telephone Company 1910-11; development engineer for American Telephone & Telegraph Company in the larger cities in New England, the South, and Middle West 1911-17, in 1917 connected with bond department of Bankers' Trust Company of New York City, subsequently in charge of sales research department of National Aniline & Chemical Company in New York until 1921, in charge of engineering work for Bell Telephone Company in Pittsburgh, Pa., September, 1921-July, 1922, and in Philadelphia July-November, 1922, when he retired from active business on account of a nervous breakdown; member United Church (Congregational), New Haven.

Married January 14, 1909, in New Haven, Ruth Lunella McIntosh, ex-'06 Art, daughter of Dr. Edward Francis McIntosh, '97 M., and Harriet Lucretia (Hyde) McIntosh. One daughter, Dorothy McIntosh, now a student in the Yale School of the Fine Arts (department of painting)

Death due to tuberculosis. Buried in Woodbridge (Conn.) Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughter, a brother, Frederick H. Cogswell, '09, and a sister, Mrs. Eldridge Sumner Bates, of Jersey City, N. J.

Conrad Gotzian Driscoll, Ph.B. 1908.

Born January 13, 1887, in St. Paul, Minn
Died April 15, 1929, in St. Paul, Minn

Father, Arthur Brown Driscoll; member of firm of McKibbin, Driscoll & Dorsey, manufacturers and jobbers of hats, gloves, caps, and furs; son of Frederick and Anna Lavina (Brown) Driscoll. Mother, Helen (Gotzman) Driscoll, daughter of Conrad Gotzman, who came from Germany about 1854 and settled in St. Paul, and Caroline (Busse) Gotzman Yale relatives include: Ambrose Tighe, '79 (uncle), and Lawrence G. Tighe, '16, and Richard L. Tighe, '23 (cousins) St. Paul Academy. Select course; played on Freshman Hockey Team and on University Hockey Team two years, a governor of University Club; member City Government Club and Book and Snake.

Salesman for McKibbin, Driscoll & Dorsey 1908-1911; salesman for C Gotzman & Company, shoe manufacturers, St. Paul, 1911-13; representative of Bond & Goodwin, bankers, in Minneapolis 1913-1923, with exception of time spent in service; salesman for W S Nott Company, belt manufacturers, 1924-26; treasurer of Cartwright, Inc., in Minneapolis July-November, 1927, and vice-president from 1927 until death, manager of Minneapolis office of Livingston & Company, brokers, of New York City since January, 1929; enlisted in the Army August 27, 1917, and attended second Officers' Training Camp at Fort Snelling, commissioned as First Lieutenant of Field Artillery November 27, 1917, and assigned to 332d Field Artillery, 86th Division, at Camp Grant; later on detached service at School of Fire ten weeks, went overseas in August, 1918, returned to the United States February, 1919, and given his discharge February 28, member House of Hope Presbyterian Church, St. Paul.

Married December 31, 1912, in Minneapolis, Charlotte, daughter of William Stephen and Jessica (Cory) Nott Children: Charlotte, William Nott, Conrad Gotzman, Jr. (died in 1923), and Jessica.

Death, due to fractured skull and ribs (with a cerebral hemorrhage) sustained in an automobile accident, occurred at Ancker Hospital, St. Paul Buried in Oakland Cemetery, St. Paul. Survived by wife, two daughters, one son, parents, a sister, Helena G. Driscoll Robbins, the wife of Harry M Robbins, '02, and five brothers, Arthur G. Driscoll, '09, Robert Driscoll, '13, Theodore G Driscoll, '15 S., Egbert G Driscoll, '20, and Donald G. Driscoll, '20 S.
Obituary Record

William Octave Chanute, Ph.B. 1909.

Born September 24, 1885, in Denver, Colo
Died October 18, 1928, in Atlantic City, N. J

University School, Chicago, and St. Paul’s School, Concord, N. H. Entered Yale with Class of 1908 S., but joined Class of 1909 S. the next year; chemistry course; member ’08 S Class Basketball Team, Freshman and Senior University Football squads, and Berzelius; vice-president of City Government Club and governor of University Club.

Assayer and chemist for Western Chemical Company, Denver, Colo, 1909-1910; president of Oxford Real Estate Company of Denver 1910-11; since 1911 had been engaged in investment bond business in Denver; salesman for William E. Sweet & Company 1911-12, secretary and treasurer of the company, manager of the sales department, member of the firm, and a director, 1912-14, secretary and treasurer and member of its successor, the firm of Sweet, Causey, Foster & Company 1914-16; in 1916 organized with Arthur H. Bosworth, ’08 S., Paul Loughridge, ’15 S., and Mr. George W. Ballantine, Jr., firm of Bosworth, Chanute & Company (later Bosworth, Chanute, Loughridge & Company) and served as treasurer of the firm 1916-17, and then as vice-president until his death; in July, 1922, was elected a governor of Investment Bankers’ Association of America; assisted in compiling A Primer on Municipal Bonds, and was the compiler of A Life Income for You; during the war was active in Liberty Loan and Red Cross campaigns; member Denver Civic League, and St. John’s Cathedral (Episcopal), Denver.

Married November 15, 1911, in Denver, Hazel Mae, daughter of Alfred John and Ida (Ebert) O’Brien Children: Elaine and Octave Arthur
Death resulted from injuries received in an airplane crash near Atlantic City and occurred in the Atlantic City Hospital. Buried in Fairmont Cemetery, Denver. Survived by wife, daughter, son, mother, and a sister, Mrs. Matie Chanute Morgan, of Denver.

Orlando Bronson Potter, Ph.B. 1910.

Born May 13, 1886, in Ossining, N.Y.
Died July 16, 1928, in Ardsley-on-Hudson, N.Y.

Father, Frederick Potter (B.A. 1878, LL.B. Columbia 1880), a lawyer; member of firm of Coe & Potter, and of Potter & Johnson; president of the O. B. Potter Properties, Inc.; trustee of Title Guarantee & Trust Company; son of Orlando Bronson Potter (LL.D. Williams 1889) and Martha Green (Wiley) Potter; descendant of John Potter, who came from England in 1638 and settled in New Haven, Conn. Mother, Helen Ward (Brandreth) Potter; daughter of George Adlington and Virginia (Ward) Brandreth; descendant of Benjamin Brandreth (Dawbeeny), who came from Leeds, England. Yale relatives include three cousins: George Borup, '07, John I. Kane, '08 S., and Walter Geer, Jr., '11 S.

St. Paul's School, Concord, N.H. Select course

LL.B. New York Law School 1912, connected with O. B. Potter Properties, Inc., as employee and a director from 1913, became vice-president in 1917, and had been president since the death of his father in 1923; director of Bond & Mortgage Guarantee Company since 1923 (member of executive committee 1925-27), and of Hospital for the Ruptured and Crippled 1915-1926; trustee of Ossining Hospital Association; attended Field Artillery Central Officers' Training School, Camp Zachary Taylor, November 7–December 15, 1918; member Society of Colonial Wars in State of New York, and Trinity Episcopal Church, Ossining.

Married September 27, 1919, in Ossining, Eleanor Louise, daughter of Charles Ernest Acker (Ph.B. Cornell 1888) and Alice (Beal) Acker. No children.

Death due to carcinoma of the sigmoid. Buried in Dale Cemetery, Ossining. Survived by wife, two brothers, Frederick
Obituary Record

A Potter, ex-‘14 S., and Eugene W. Potter, ex-‘21 S., and two sisters, Mrs. Kenneth Rose McAlpin, of New York City, and Miss Dorothy W. Potter, of Ossining.

Peyton Randolph Anness, Ph.B. 1914.

Born March 22, 1892, in New York City
Died July 14, 1928, in Bronxville, N Y

St Paul’s School, Concord, N. H. Select course; on board of Sheffield Scientific Monthly; member Phi Sigma Kappa.

Had been engaged in investment brokerage business in New York City since graduation, with exception of time spent in service, with bond department of Guaranty Company until 1927 and since then with Eastman, Dillon & Company; enlisted in the Army September 21, 1917, and assigned to 311th Infantry, 78th Division, at Camp Dix; advanced to Corporal November 23, 1917, and to Sergeant January 16, 1918, went overseas in May, 1918, and attended Army Candidates School at Langres, where commissioned as Second Lieutenant September 25, subsequently assigned to 323d Infantry, 81st Division, and served in Meuse-Argonne offensive; studied at University of Bordeaux March–July, 1919; given his discharge August 7, 1919; member American Legion and Protestant Episcopal Church

Married December 3, 1923, in New York City, Helen A. Donovan Two sons, Peyton Randolph, Jr., and Edward John

Death due to chronic endocarditis, myocarditis, and fibrosis of the lung Buried in Kensico Cemetery, Valhalla, N. Y.

Survived by wife, two sons, and parents.
Henry Edward Genz, Ph.B., 1918.

Born September 1, 1897, in Elizabeth, N. J.
Died February 16, 1929, in Oteen, N. C.

Father, Alexander Jacob Genz, overseer and master mechanic, Borne & Scrymser Oil Company; born in Strasburg, Germany, came to New York City in 1874, and later moved to Elizabeth; son of Rheinhart and Margaret (Becker) Genz.

Mother, Catherine Frances (O'Brien) Genz; born in Ireland, and came to Elizabeth in 1892, daughter of Henry and Catherine (Griffin) O'Brien.

Battin High School, Elizabeth Mechanical engineering course; Boardman scholar; second grade honors Freshman year; general two-year honors Junior year, degree conferred cum laude; went out for baseball and track Freshman year; member University Baseball Squad; active in work of Byers Hall; an officer in Les Chiens de Chasse; member Sigma Delta Psi and Sigma Xi; Private Yale R O. T C

Commissioned Ensign in United States Naval Reserve Force in June, 1918, and served until January, 1919; attended Steam Engineering School at Hoboken, N. J., six months, served on U. S. S. "Kanawha" and "Carrillo"; for the next year and a half was engaged in marine engineering work for various shipbuilding companies in Staten Island, New Jersey, and Florida; assistant professor of mechanics at Georgia School of Technology 1920–23, and then associate professor, for six months before his death had been at the Government Naval Hospital, Oteen, N. C.; member American Society of Mechanical Engineers, and of Phi Kappa Phi (had been president), Tau Beta Pi, and Sigma Chi, at Georgia School of Technology, and Sacred Heart Church (Catholic), Atlanta.

Married July 12, 1922, in Atlanta, Ga., Maude Exa, daughter of John Allan and Maude Exa (Hopkins) Pickard

Children: Henry Edward, Jr., and Maude Catherine

Obituary Record

Raymond Burr Jones, Ph.B. 1918.

Born July 6, 1895, in Wilmington, Del
Died July 18, 1928, in Yonkers, N. Y

Father, Alfred Robinson Jones; president of Hilles & Jones, builders of machine tools, son of Joseph and Deborah (Hodgson) Jones. Mother, Eliza Hungerford (Burr) Jones; daughter of Horace Burr (M.D. 1842) and Louisa Nancy (Hungerford) Burr. Yale relatives include John W. Shepard, '79 (uncle); and Noah A. Burr, '98, and Frederic B. Shepard, '15 (cousins).

Friends' School, Wilmington, and DeLancey School, Philadelphia. Mechanical engineering course, contributed to Sheffield Scientific Monthly; member Yale Naval Training Unit and Signal Unit, S. A. T. C.

In the engineering department of Western Electric Company (now Bell Telephone Laboratories), New York City, November, 1920-July, 1923; subsequently engaged in general engineering work with Surface Combustion Company, Vacuum Gear Shift Company, and Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company until 1925; chief engineer with Arva Stroud (machine tools) 1925–27; employed in boiler division of Combustion Engineering Corporation 1927–28; draftsman for Semet-Solvay Corporation from June 19, 1928, until death.

Married March 17, 1928, in Yonkers, Katherine Lyon Bryant (B.A. Wells 1926), daughter of Emmons Bryant (B.A. Amherst 1895) and Dorothy Wilberforce (Lyon) Bryant (B.A. Wells 1887).

Death, due to intestinal obstruction, occurred in Homeopathic Hospital, Yonkers. Buried in Old Swedes Cemetery, Wilmington. Survived by wife and mother. A son, Raymond Burr, 2d, was born on March 15, 1929.

Donald Sykes McKinnon, Ph.B. 1918.

Born October 14, 1897, in Springfield, Mass
Died June 24, 1929, at Saranac Lake, N.Y.

Father, James McKinnon, a photo-engraver; founded the James McKinnon Company in 1904, and has since been treasurer and manager; born in Cumnock, Ayrshire, Scotland, came to America in 1892, and settled in Springfield, Mass, son of James and Elizabeth (Russell) McKinnon. Mother, Grace Josephine (Sykes) McKinnon, daughter of Joseph and Mary Jane (Moore) Sykes. Yale relatives include a cousin: Howard C. Norton, '17 S

Central High School, Springfield. Biology course; honors in French Freshman year; laboratory assistant in biology Senior year; degree granted cum laude.

Studied in Harvard Medical School 1918–1922 (member Phi Rho Sigma); house officer at Boston City Hospital September, 1922–March, 1924; became executive assistant May, 1924, and continued in this position until March, 1928, when he was granted a leave of absence on account of illness, had lived at Saranac Lake since June, 1928; member of First Baptist Church, Springfield.

Unmarried

Harry Richmond Kelley, Jr., B.S. 1927.

Born September 17, 1906, in Troy, N Y

Died April 26, 1929, in New York City

Father, Harry Richmond Kelley (attended Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute 1891–93), vice-president of Knowlson & Kelley Company. Mother, Emma Carey (Gormly) Kelley Albany (N. Y) Academy, industrial engineering course, on Freshman Polo Squad; on University Polo Squad Sophomore year and heeled lacrosse managership; member Class Tennis Team Junior year; member Chi Phi.

Since August 1, 1927, had been employed as general clerk, Income Tax Department, Farmers' Loan & Trust Company, New York City, attended Graduate School of Business Administration, New York University, September, 1928–February, 1929.

Unmarried.

Took his own life. Survived by parents.
Charles Ellsworth Nettleton, B.S. 1928.

Born January 8, 1907, in Rockville, Conn.

Rockville High School. Chemical engineering course; scholar of second rank Freshman year; one-year honors, Sophomore year, and two-year honors, Junior year; received degree cum laude; member Freshman Football Squad, Class Basketball Team Sophomore year, Class Crew and University Swimming squads, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior years; active in Boys' Club work Sophomore year; served as president of Student Branch of Chemical Engineers and as corresponding secretary of Tau Beta Pi, Senior year; member of Class Book Committee, of Alpha Chi Sigma, and associate member of Sigma Xi.

Had been a graduate student in chemical engineering at Massachusetts Institute of Technology since graduation; member Union Congregational Church of Christ, Rockville.

Unmarried.

Death, due to pneumonia, occurred at the Homberg Memorial Infirmary, Cambridge. Buried in Grove Hill Cemetery, Rockville. Survived by parents, a brother, Frank, and a sister, Gladys, all of Rockville.
GRADUATE SCHOOL

Walter Melville Patton, M.A. 1904.

Born November 12, 1863, in Montreal, Canada
Died August 5, 1928, in Montreal, Canada

Father, James Patton; son of James Patton, who came from Clones, Ireland, to Montreal about 1833, and Sarah Patton Mother, Margaret (Mathewson) Patton, daughter of Samuel Mathewson, who came from Strabane, Ireland, to Montreal in 1833, and Elizabeth (Adams) Mathewson, granddaughter of Nathan and Martha Adams, of Nashville, Tenn., who came from Strabane in 1784.

Montreal High School; studied at McGill University 1887-1890; B.D Wesleyan Theological College, Montreal, 1891, ordained a minister of Methodist Church, Canada, at Berlin, Ontario, June 7, 1891; professor of Hebrew and Old Testament at Wesleyan Theological College 1891-99; during that period studied at University of Chicago 1893-94, University of Heidelberg, Germany, 1894-95 and 1897 (Ph.D. 1897), and University of Leiden, Holland, 1895-97; instructor in Biblical literature and Semitic languages at Yale 1899-1904 and student in the Graduate School 1899-1901 (M.A. 1904), professor of philosophy and Biblical literature 1904-06 and Biblical literature 1904-08 at Baker University, professor of Old Testament literature at Wesleyan Theological College 1908-1913; lecturer on Semitics at McGill 1911-13; professor of Biblical literature and history of religion at Carleton College 1913-1923 and director of Carleton College Library 1916-1928; author: Ahmed ibn Hanbal and the Misbaa (1897) and Israel's Account of the Beginnings (1915); had contributed articles to Hastings' Encyclopedia of Religion and Ethics; member Society of Biblical Literature, Society for Bible Study, American Oriental Society, Victoria Institute, England, and New York East Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church (since 1901); honorary foundation member Carleton College chapter of Phi Beta Kappa.

Married June 22, 1893, in Montreal, Harriet Webster, daughter of John and Sarah (Faulkner) Royan. No children

277
Obituary Record

Death followed an operation for the removal of the prostate gland. Buried in Mount Royal Cemetery, Montreal. Survived by wife and a brother, Dr. Charles J. Patton, of Westmount, Quebec.

Marion Bruner Seevers, M.A. 1906.

Born February 2, 1886, in Oskaloosa, Iowa
Died May 3, 1929, in Des Moines, Iowa.

Father, William Allen Seevers, who attended Oskaloosa College; a merchant and coal operator; also interested in real estate; son of Robert and Ellen (Bryan) Seevers. Mother, Mary Ethel (Bruner) Seevers, Oskaloosa ex-'76; daughter of Francis Marion Bruner, LL D. (M.A Knox 1857), and Esther (Lane) Bruner.

Culver Military Academy; Ph.B. Penn College, Oskaloosa, 1904, M.A. 1905; B A Haverford 1905 (member of Football Team 1904), studied in Yale Graduate School 1905-06; attended University of California 1906-09 (J D. 1909); admitted to Iowa and California bars 1909; had practiced law in Des Moines since 1910, member of firm of Spurrier, Seevers & Spurrier 1910-12, Brammer, Lehmann & Seevers 1914-19, Brammer, Seevers & Hurlburt 1919-1921, Brammer, Lehmann, Seevers & Hurlburt 1921-22, and Lehmann, Seevers & Hurlburt since 1922; in independent law practice 1912-14; member American, Iowa State, and Des Moines Bar associations and Plymouth Congregational Church, Des Moines

Married November 24, 1914, in Bethlehem, Pa., Lucile Meredith (Ph B. Penn College 1905, M.A. 1906; graduate work, Bryn Mawr 1905-06), daughter of Robert and Alice Rachel (Sheridan) Meredith. Children: Elaine, Marion Bruner, Jr., William Meredith, and Katharine (died in 1925)

Death followed an operation for paralytic ileus. Buried in Glendale Cemetery, Des Moines. Survived by wife, one daughter, two sons, mother, and two sisters, Miss Rita Seevers, of Hollywood, Calif., and Mrs Robert M Borden, of Des Moines.
Thomas Adams Martin, M.A. 1912.

Born August 19, 1860, at Commercial Point, Ohio
Died September 11, 1928, at Commercial Point, Ohio

Father, John Luther Martin, a merchant; son of Robert Luther and Sarah Jane Martin, who went to Ohio from Virginia in 1808. Mother, Jane (Fulcher) Martin.

Preparatory training received in public schools of Commercial Point; B.S. Ohio University 1895; took graduate work at Ohio Wesleyan University 1895-98 (M.A. 1898); taught at Ada, Ohio, 1905-06, at Mount Union College, Alliance, Ohio, 1907-08, and at University of Michigan (surveying and statics) 1909; studied in Yale Graduate School 1911-12; professor of mathematics at East Texas Normal College, Commerce, 1912-16, studied at University of Illinois 1916-17; assistant professor of mathematics at Norwich University, Northfield, Vt., 1917-1921, had since been head of the mathematics department at Berea College; member American Mathematical Society and Methodist Episcopal Church, Commercial Point

Unmarried

Death due to exhaustion following an operation for double hernia. Buried in the Methodist Episcopal Cemetery, Commercial Point. Survived by no immediate relatives

Chapin Brinsmade, M.A. 1924.

Born March 1, 1885, in Washington, Conn
Died August 7, 1928, in New Haven, Conn

Father, John Chapin Brinsmade (B.A. Harvard 1874), principal of the Gunnery School; member Connecticut House of Representatives and state senator; member State Civil Service Commission eight years (president four years) and State Constitutional Convention in 1902; son of William Bartlett Brinsmade (B.A. 1840) and Charlotte Blake (Chapin) Brinsmade; great-grandson of Daniel N. Brinsmade (B.A. 1772); great-great-grandson of the Rev. Daniel Brinsmade (B.A. 1745); descendant of John Brinsmade, who was born in England 1617 and settled in Charlestown, Mass, as early Gunnery School; B.A. Harvard 1907, LL.B. 1910; during the period 1911-14 was located in New York and acted as secretary to assistant district attorney Raymond Brown, as clerk in law offices of VanWyck & Mygatt, and as counsel for Association for the Advancement of the Colored Race; instructor in Abbott School, Farmington, Maine, 1914-16; taught English and French at Gunnery School 1916-17; enlisted in 102d Infantry (Connecticut) July 23, 1917, and attended Officers' Training Camp, Plattsburg; commissioned as Second Lieutenant, Infantry, November 27, 1917; assigned to duty at Camp Devens with Machine Gun Company, 304th Infantry, in December; overseas July 8, 1918, to July 12, 1919, and was given his discharge July 31, 1919, at Camp Dix, studied at the Sorbonne, Paris, during summer of 1919; instructor at the Gunnery School 1919-1921; studied at Grenoble summer of 1921; instructor in French at Yale 1921-26 and enrolled in the Graduate School 1921-26 (M.A. 1924, Ph.D. 1926); part-time instructor in French at Hopkins Grammar School 1926-27; instructor in French and English at Hopkins Grammar School since 1927; member Modern Language Association, Société des Anciennes, and First Congregational Church, Washington, Conn.

Death due to acute meningitis following mastoidectomy. Buried in Washington. Survived by daughter, parents, two brothers, Frederick G Brinsmade, of New Haven, and John C. Brinsmade, Jr, of Mandan, N. Dak, and three sisters, Mrs. Hunnewell Braman and Miss Mary Brinsmade, both of Washington, Conn., and Charlotte B. Brinsmade Bellinger, the wife of Alfred R Bellinger, ’17.

William North Rice, Ph.D. 1867.

Born November 21, 1845, in Marblehead, Mass
Died November 13, 1928, in Delaware, Ohio

Father, the Rev. William Rice (honorary M.A. Wesleyan 1853, D.D. 1876), a Methodist Episcopal minister, prominent in New England Conference; librarian of Springfield (Mass.) Public Library; trustee of Wesleyan Academy and Wesleyan University; member Massachusetts Board of Education, chaplain of Hampden County (Mass.) House of Correction, son of William and Jerusha (Warriner) Rice; descendant of Deacon Edmund Rice, who came from England to Sudbury, Mass., in 1638. Mother, Caroline Laura (North) Rice; daughter of William and Laura (Hyde) North; descendant of John North, who came from England in 1635 and was among the first landowners in Farmington, Conn.; descended also from Edward Hyde, Earl of Clarendon, whose eldest son settled on a tract of land in Connecticut in the present town of Derby. Nephew: William C. Rice, M.A. 1902

B.A. Wesleyan 1865 (valedictorian; member Phi Nu Theta); studied in Yale Graduate School 1866–67, and at University of Berlin 1867–68; had been connected with the Wesleyan faculty since 1867 (on leave of absence the first year), as professor of geology and natural history 1867–1884 and G. I. Seney professor of geology 1884–1918, when made professor emeritus; secretary of the faculty 1869–1880 and again 1882–1892; college librarian 1868–69, acting president 1907, 1908–09, and 1918; on leave of absence for study and travel abroad 1892–93 and 1911–12; LL.D. Syracuse 1886 and Wesleyan 1915; assistant with United States Fish Commission 1873–74; assistant geologist, United States Geological Survey, 1891–92; superintendent of Connecticut State Geological and Natural History Survey 1903–1916; lecturer at Hamilton
Obituary Record

Theological Seminary of Colgate University 1897-1900; president of Middletown Board of Education 1885-1891; author: Geology of Bermuda (1884), Science Teaching in the Schools (1889), Twenty-five Years of Scientific Progress and Other Essays (1894), Christian Faith in an Age of Science (1903), Manual of Geology of Connecticut (with Herbert E. Gregory, '96) (1906), Return to Faith and Other Addresses (1916), Through Darkness to Dawn (1917), Poet of Science and Other Addresses (1919), Science and Religion—Five Supposed Conflicts (1925), and Guide Book to the Geology of the Vicinity of Middletown (in collaboration with Professor W. G. Foye) (1928); editor of fifth edition of Dana's Textbook of Geology (1897) and of Wesleyan Alumni Record (1873); contributed chapter on James Dwight Dana in Leading American Men of Science (1910) and chapters on evolution in Outlines of Christianity, Vol. IV (1927), vice-president of Geological Society of America 1911; Fellow of American Association for the Advancement of Science (vice-president 1905-06); president of Gamma Chapter of Connecticut (Wesleyan) Phi Beta Kappa 1902-1911, member American Academy of Arts and Sciences, Connecticut Academy of Arts and Sciences, Association of American Geographers, American Society of Naturalists (president 1891), Connecticut Council of Education (president 1902-05), and Yale chapter of Sigma Xi (1895); a founder of Middletown Scientific Association 1871, served as corresponding secretary 1871-1882, as vice-president 1882-84, and president 1884-87; ordained deacon and joined New York East Conference of Methodist Episcopal Churches at Middletown 1869 and elder at East Bridgeport, Conn., 1872, and served as chairman of board of examiners 1896-1925, member board of governors of West China Union University 1913, elected to University Senate of Methodist Episcopal Church at the General Conference 1924, president of Middletown Bible Society 1902-1926 and of Middletown Federation of Churches, director Middletown Y M. C A for many years and honorary president since 1920; member Council of Connecticut Federation of Churches since 1908 (secretary 1913-19, president 1910-11 and again 1919-1920, and honorary president since 1920); member First Methodist Episcopal Church, Middletown; for a number of years clerk of Church of Christ in Wesleyan University (of which an organizer)

Death, due to acute intestinal dyspepsia, occurred at the home of his son. Buried in Indian Hill Cemetery, Middletown. Besides his son, he leaves two grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Morris L. Crawford (B. A. Wesleyan 1879). The January, 1929, issue of Wesleyan University Bulletin was published as the Rice Memorial Number and contains tributes by his associates, resolutions, and the addresses made at the funeral service held in the Memorial Chapel of the University.

Jeremiah Kreider Light, Ph.D. 1893.

Born June 3, 1863, in North Cornwall Township, Lebanon County, Pa.
Died October 9, 1928, in Mt. Gretna, Pa.

Father, Jeremiah Light, a farmer; son of Joseph E. and Katharine (Bomberger) Light, descendant of John Light, who came from the Rhine country in Germany, in 1720, to Lebanon, Pa. Mother, Elizabeth (Kreider) Light; daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth (Elenberger) Kreider.

Millersville and Lock Haven (Pa.) normal schools, and Albright College (Meyerstown) 1886–87; taught school in Jonestown rural school 1881–82, and Jonestown Academy 1882–83, Lebanon County; in Richland rural school 1883–84; and in Palmyra rural school 1884–85; B.A Franklin and Marshall 1889; principal of school in Strasburg, Pa., 1889–1890; student Yale Graduate School 1890–92, student University of Berlin (Germany) 1892–93; vice-principal, Jersey City High School, 1893–1902; superintendent of schools, Belleville, Ill., 1902–03; principal, model school, Central State Normal School, Lock Haven, Pa., 1903–1910, principal, Public School No. 23, Jersey City, N. J., 1910–1925, when he retired; had since lived at Mt. Gretna; member New Jersey State Teachers’ Association, Jersey City Teachers’
Obituary Record

Married May 16, 1889, in Schaefferstown, Pa., Eliza, daughter of David and Rosanna (Thomas) Bomberger. Children. Ralph Herman (B.S. Columbia 1923), and Ruth Hermina (B.S. Rutgers 1928)

Death due to a complication of diseases; had suffered a stroke of paralysis five weeks earlier. Buried in Mt. Lebanon Cemetery, Lebanon, Pa. Survived by wife, son, daughter, and a brother, Joseph K. Light, of Cleona, Pa

Artemus Ward Reynolds, Ph.D. 1893.

Born March 22, 1858, at Springwater, N. Y
Died June 15, 1929, in Elmira, N. Y

Father, Edwin Reynolds, who owned and operated a large truck garden; son of Joseph and Hannah (Ostrander) Reynolds, descendant of John Reynolds, who came from Kent County, England, to Watertown, Mass., in 1630, and was at Wethersfield, Conn., in 1635; and of Pierre Ostrander, a French Huguenot, founder of Esopus, N. Y. Mother, Elizabeth (Pontius) Reynolds; daughter of William and Katherine (Miller) Pontius, descendant of John Pontius, who came to Philadelphia, Pa, in 1738, from Alsace, France, and through the maternal line, from John Jacob Miller, who came to Pennsylvania in 1738, and from Konrad Emerich, of Darmstadt, Germany, who also emigrated in 1738. Yale relatives include a cousin, Adelbert L. Reynolds, '91

Elmira and Colgate academies; B. A. Colgate University 1885; studied at Baptist Union Theological Seminary, 1885–86, studied at Colgate Theological Seminary 1886–88 (M. A. 1888); ordained September 27, 1888, at Corry, Pa, and pastor of First Baptist Church there until 1890; studied Semitics in Yale Graduate School 1890–93; professor of Hebrew and cognate languages at Crozer Theological Seminary 1893–99, spent the next two years recuperating from an illness and supplying churches, including that at Waterloo; pastor of Memorial Baptist Church, Salem, N. J, 1901–05; pastor of Broad Street Baptist Church, Philadelphia, 1906–1912; resigned on account of ill health, and had since lived in Elmira; associated with Dr. Edwin Judson, the founder of the Memorial Baptist Church, New York City, during the summers of 1897 and 1898; in 1907 went to England as a representative of American Baptists to strengthen the friendship between the two countries.

Married June 29, 1887, in Wellsburg, N. Y., Minnie, daughter of Edgar and Emma (Gillette) Griswold. No children

Death followed a long illness. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Elmira. Survived by wife, and a sister, Mrs Lena M R. Field, of Elmira.

Susana Smith Sheridan, Ph.D. 1902.

Born October 31, 1851, in New Haven, Conn
Died July 18, 1928, in New Haven, Conn

Father, Patrick Sheridan, a well driller; came from County
Cavan, Ireland, to New Haven about 1840; son of John and Margaret (Reilly) Sheridan. Mother, Susan (Smith) Sheridan, daughter of Valentine and Sarah (Matthews) Smith Yale relatives include the following cousins. Frederick R Shanley,
'06 S., Harold J. Sheridan, '11 S., Bernard E. Lynch, Jr., '17,

New Haven High School; had taught in New Haven public schools since 1871; Eaton School and Edwards Street School (grammar) 1871–1880; then in Hillhouse High School, various subjects at first; from 1895 was connected with the English department, of which she was in charge from 1900 to 1922, when she retired and was made adviser to the department; took special courses at the University of Omaha, by correspondence, and received the degree of B.A. in 1897; enrolled in Yale Graduate School for several years, had given English courses at the Y. W. C. A. in 1903 and 1905, and at the Security Insurance Company 1920–22, assisted in organizing English courses at Albertus Magnus College in 1925, and for the next two years was a lecturer there; president of Connecticut Women's Council of Education 1914–16, and honorary vice-president since 1925, chairman of education committee of Council of Catholic Women (New Haven branch) 1921–27; member education committee of Connecticut Branch of Association of Collegiate Alumnae; member state committee (of seven) on the teaching of English in secondary schools, appointed to cooperate with the secondary division of the State Board of Education in the preparation of a Course of Study in English Composition and Literature for Secondary Schools (1924); edited Essays in Criticism, by Matthew Arnold (The Academy Series of English Classics, 1896 and 1923); Reading Reports (1922 and 1924); Don Quixote (Modern Readers' Series, Macmillan, 1926); was editing an anthology of poetry at the time of her death; member American Association of University Women, New England Association of Teachers of English, Classical Teachers' Association of Connecticut, and New Haven Teachers' League (vice-president in 1919), in recognition of her services as a teacher, the first junior high school erected in New Haven was named the Susan S. Sheridan Junior High School (1924); member St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church

Unmarried.

Death, due to bronchial pneumonia, followed a general breakdown in health; since 1903 she had suffered from an injury received in a fall. Buried in St Bernard's Cemetery, New Haven. No immediate survivors.
William Edwin Haesche, Mus.B. 1897.

Born April 11, 1867, in New Haven, Conn
 Died January 26, 1929, in Roanoke, Va

Father, Henry William Haesche, piano agent for M Steinert Company, New Haven; came to America from Bremerhaven, Germany, in 1854 and settled in Ansonia, Conn; son of Henry and Anna Haesche. Mother, Rosina (Gaffney) Haesche, daughter of Terrence Gaffney, who came to America from Dublin, Ireland, in 1844 and settled in Brooklyn, N. Y., and Bridget (Delehant) Gaffney

New Haven High School; studied violin with Bernard Listermann and piano and theory of music with Ernst Perabo in Boston, attended Yale School of Music 1894-99, taught in New Haven and Bridgeport 1899-1902, acting Battell Professor of Music at Yale (in the absence of Professor Parker) 1902-03; instructor in instrumentation at Yale 1903-1922; since 1923 had been head of the theoretical and violin departments at Hollins College (Va), conducted the Choral Club at Hollins 1923-25, established the Ensemble Club 1923, and was instrumental in starting a music library and in publishing the Hollins Glee Club book in 1928, gave class lectures on the history and appreciation of music in Roanoke, Va, 1925, 1926, and 1927; taught harmony, counterpoint, and violin and lectured at the summer school of University of Virginia 1926, 1927, and 1928; while in New Haven taught music at the Gunnery School 1898-1915 and at the Taft School 1904-1911, served as instructor of the Hopkins Grammar School Glee Club 1905-1911, and as director of New Haven Orchestral Club 1902-06, New Haven People’s Choral Union 1902-1914, Yale University Band 1901-02, and of Dorscht Lodge, and conducted the New York Catholic Oratorio Society 1908 and the glee club of the music department of New Haven Women’s Club 1918-1923, charter member of New Haven Symphony Orchestra 1895 and member of its board of governors until 1923; an incorporator of New Haven Oratorio Society 1903 and member of its board of government 1904-06 and again 1911-13; conducted operettas for New Haven Grays 1906-07 and an opera for the Governor's Foot Guard 1915-16; arranged the band music for the Yale Pageant 1916; served as musical adviser to the management of Second Regiment Band; composer (for orchestra) Frithjof and Ingeborg, a symphonic poem (prize composition 1897), Springtime, overture (1899), Symphony in A Flat (1901), A Forest Idylle (1905), and Legend of the South (not yet published); (for orchestra and full chorus) The Haunted Oak of Nannan (1903); (for orchestra and women's voices) Young Lovel's Bride (1898); (for violin and piano) Souvenir de Wieniawski (1905), Hungarian Dance (1909), and Sonata in E Minor (prize composition, not published), (for two violins and piano) Mazurka and Woodland Danse (1918); (for men's voices) The Heavy Frost (1904); (for women's voices) Red Godwin's Wooing (1929); (for mixed voices) The Nativity, a sacred anthem (1899), Friendship (1905), and Our School (1908), (solo for high voice) Love Song (1905), (solo for low voice) Swing High and Swing Low (1905); Songs for Young People (1905); member Virginia State Teachers' Federation of Music Clubs and New Haven Musical Protective Society; Roman Catholic.

Married April 23, 1890, in New Haven, Nora, daughter of John Michael and Catherine (Kirby) Russell. No children.

Death, due to peritonitis following a major operation, occurred at Jefferson Hospital, Roanoke. Buried in St. Lawrence Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife and a sister, Mrs Charles Collier, of West Haven, Conn.
SCHOOL OF FORESTRY

James Girvin Peters, M.F. 1903.

Born November 14, 1876, in Baltimore, Md
Died October 9, 1928, in Camden, Ark

Father, Winfield Peters, a lieutenant in the Confederate Army 1861–65; son of George Peters, a colonel in the Confederate Army 1861–65, and of Sarah (Cordray) Peters, ancestors came to Virginia from Germany. Mother, Mary Elizabeth (Girvin) Peters, daughter of James Girvin, who came to Baltimore from North Ireland, and whose ancestors came originally from Girvan, Scotland, and Sarah Ann (Smith) Girvin.

Baltimore City College and University School for Boys (now Marston’s School), Ruxton, Md.; B.A. Johns Hopkins 1900 (leader of Glee, Banjo and Mandolin clubs, member Delta Phi); in lumber business with Joseph T Peters & Company at The Dalles, Oregon, and with the Bridal Veil Lumbering Company, at Bridal Veil, Oregon, 1900–1901, entered Yale School of Forestry 1901; had been with the United States Forestry Service since 1902; student assistant 1902; forest assistant 1903–08 (during this period studied forest conditions in Northern New Hampshire July–September, 1903, in Louisiana and Texas, December, 1903–March, 1904; gave a six weeks’ course on field methods of Forestry Service at Biltmore, N C, Forest School, October–November, 1904; made forest working plans in Hudson River Valley May–September, 1905; gave another course at the Biltmore School October–November, 1905; accompanied Gilbert Rogers of the British Indian Forestry Service on a tour of the lumbering regions and national parks June–July, 1906; made working plan for Henry’s Lake district of the Targhee Forest, Idaho, August–November, 1906, engaged in cooperative timber sale with War Department on Fort Wingate Military Reservation, New Mexico, May–September, 1907), forest examiner 1908–09; chief of State and Private Cooperation 1909–11; chief of State Cooperation 1911–21, chief of Branch of Forest Management, Eastern Division, 1921–26, assistant chief of Public Relations, in charge of State Coöperation, 1926–28; since May 1, 1928, had been chief of Branch of Public Relations; member Graduate Advisory Board, Yale
Forestry School, 1905–1916; member executive committee chairman of committee on organization (1920), of committee on meetings (1908–1912), and member of committee on admissions (1909–1911), of Society of American Foresters; represented United States Forest Service on committee to arrange joint session of Southern Forestry Congress and American Forestry Association, in Richmond, Va., in 1926; contributor to American Forestry, Forestry and Irrigation, Yearbook of U S Department of Agriculture, American Lumberman, and Annual Report of Canadian Forestry Association; author:
“Rah, for Black and Blue,” in Songs of All the Colleges (1900), “We’re Here to Win Again,” Johns Hopkins’ Songs (1909), and a banjo solo, “Black and Blue” (1897); member Society of American Foresters, National Academy of Sciences, and Protestant Episcopal Church.

Married November 12, 1907, in Garrison, Md., Harriet
Dugan, daughter of Horace Waters and Jane Mary (Ward)

Death, due to cardiovascular renal disease, occurred in Camden (Ark) Hospital. Buried in Green Mount Cemetery,
Baltimore, Md. Survived by wife and two sons.
Morris Dore Slattery, M.D. 1893.

Born January 9, 1868, in New Haven, Conn.
Died May 7, 1929, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Patrick Joseph Slattery, a mechanic; came to New Haven from Herbeston, County Limerick, Ireland, in 1847; son of Patrick Joseph and Margaret (Lynch) Slattery. Mother, Margaret (Dore) Slattery, born in Ireland, daughter of Patrick and Catherine (McMillan) Dore. Yale relatives include two cousins: William J O'Meara, '04 S, and William Flynn, '27.

Hillhouse High School, New Haven, and private tutors; enrolled in Yale School of Medicine 1890–93; had since practiced in New Haven; assistant attending surgeon to the Hospital of St. Raphael since its organization in 1908; during the war enlisted in Connecticut State Guard, and was assigned to Sanitary Detachment; held rank of Captain; also examined recruits; member American Medical Association, Connecticut State Medical Society, and New Haven County Medical Society.

Death due to carcinoma of the bladder. Buried in St. Lawrence Cemetery, West Haven. Survived by wife, daughters, son, and a sister, Mrs. Lewis A. Boone, of New York City. His daughter Alice died on September 30, 1929.

Ernst Hermann Arnold, M.D. 1894.

Born February 11, 1865, in Erfurt, Germany.
Died March 9, 1929, in Atlantic City, N J.

Father, Dr. Johann Bruno Arnold, a homeopathic physician and a master mechanic with Royal Prussian Railroad; son of
Obituary Record

Johann Arnold, a veteran of the Napoleonic Wars of 1813 and an officer of the gendarmes’ district of Halle. Mother, Ernestine (Orzakowski) Arnold, daughter of a Polish refugee of the Napoleonic Wars, through her mother, of German (Moller) and French Huguenot stock (Viol)

Preparatory training received at Real Gymnasium, Halle; came to America in 1883 and engaged in newspaper work as traveling agent (also contributor) for Amerikanische Turnzeitung of Milwaukee, Wis, 1883–87; graduated Normal School of Gymnastics, Milwaukee, 1888; taught gymnastics at Trenton (N J.) Turnverein 1888–1891; studied orthopedics at universities of Halle and Leipzig in summer of 1891 and entered Yale School of Medicine the following fall; took graduate work in orthopedics and surgery at universities of Leipzig and Halle 1895 and again 1906; director of New Haven Normal School of Gymnastics 1895–1921, and president of its successor, Arnold College for Hygiene and Physical Education, since 1921; president of Anderson Gymnasium Company since 1901; had also practiced in New Haven, specializing in orthopedic surgery; attending orthopedic surgeon to Grace Hospital, New Haven, 1910–1923 and consulting orthopedic surgeon since then, consulting orthopedic surgeon to Griffin Hospital, Derby, Conn, since 1911; chief of orthopedic clinic at New Haven Dispensary 1910–17; orthopedic surgeon and chief of New Haven Orthopedic Dispensary; assistant in clinical surgery at Yale 1895–98 and instructor in orthopedic surgery 1898–1917, during World War served as chairman of Committee on Education of Reconstruction Aides for the Army Medical Service, in 1927 was awarded Cross of Honor by German Red Cross for his services as national secretary of the Central Relief Committee, which, with the Quakers, took over the feeding of German children after the war; president of American Physical Education Association 1916 and made honorary member 1927, president of Connecticut Society of Physical Education 1918; chairman of physical training department of National Education Association 1904–07, author: Elementary Apparatus Work (1896), Manual of Free Gymnastics (1898), Gymnasium Tactics (1899), Gymnastic Games (1900), Tactics of the Rank (1914), and Tactics of the Body of Ranks (1922); contributor to American Orthopedic Journal, Hygeta, and American Physical Education Review; associate editor of Mind and Body; had given addresses at various schools and colleges and before medical associations throughout the country and lectured on games and plays in the Olympic Lecture Course at St. Louis in 1904; member New Haven, New Haven County, Connecticut State, and American Medical associations, New York Academy of Medicine, New Haven Society of the American Physical Education Association, Public School Physical Education Society, Playground and Recreation Association, National Tuberculosis Association, American Association for the Advancement of Science, American Science Association, Connecticut Academy of Arts and Sciences, Metropolitan Museum of Art, American Museum of Natural History (New York), Steuben Society of America (financial secretary of the national council and chairman of the Connecticut state council), American Medical Authors Association, New Haven Chamber of Commerce, and New Haven Turnverein

Married March 16, 1889, in Trenton, N J , Marie, daughter of August and Marie (Pietsch) Nagel. Children: Marie Ernestine (B A Wellesley 1919), the wife of Joachim Heinrich Meyer, who attended the Ober-Realschule II in Hanover, Germany, and Hermann Bruno, ’23 and ’26 M

Death due to acute dilatation of the heart. Cremation took place and ashes will be buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, daughter, son, three sisters, Mrs. Anna Beer and Mrs. Sophie Habermalz, both of Halle, Germany, and Mrs. Otto Wille, of Leipzig, Germany, and two brothers, Albin Arnold, of Kreis Weissenfels, Germany, and Otto Arnold

John Lawrence Kelly, M.D. 1896.

Born March 7, 1868, in New Britain, Conn
Died April 19, 1929, in New Britain, Conn.

Father, John Joseph Kelly, contractor in polishing department of Stanley Works, New Britain, came with his wife from Miltown Malbay, County Claire, Ireland, in 1858. Mother, Catherine (Meade) Kelly, daughter of John William and Ellen (McMahon) Meade.
New Britain High School; B.A Holy Cross 1892, honorary M.A 1905; attended Yale School of Medicine 1892–96; had practiced in New Britain since 1897; member medical staff New Britain General Hospital 1909–1929; member New Britain School Board 1906–1918; physician for Court of Friendly Foresters of America (New Britain district) since 1899, president New Britain Medical Society 1928–29; member St Mary’s Roman Catholic Church Married November 30, 1899, in New Britain, Eleanor, daughter of Henry and Catherine (Tracy) Emmett. No children.

Death, due to cirrhosis of liver and chronic myocarditis, occurred at New Britain General Hospital. Survived by wife, mother, five brothers, Dennis J. Kelly, Thomas Kelly, George Kelly, and James A. Kelly, all of New Britain, and the Rev. Charles F. Kelly, of New Haven, and four sisters, Mrs Joseph Ward and the Misses Catherine and Nellie Kelly, of New Britain, and Mrs William Walsh, of Derby, Conn.

James Vincent Smith, M.D. 1904.

Born January 20, 1881, in New Haven, Conn
Died October 12, 1928, in Chicago, Ill

Father, Bernard Smith Mother, Margaret (Conlon) Smith
New Haven High School; entered Yale School of Medicine 1900, one of the class historians; intern in Gouverneur and Bellevue hospitals 1905–07, practiced medicine in New York City 1907–1914; served as an intern in contagious disease hospitals of Department of Health, New York, February–August, 1914, spent the next three years in Panama and Central America investigating hookworm disease and yellow fever; practiced medicine in Des Moines, Iowa, 1919–1923, and on staff of Mercy Hospital 1920–23; had since practiced in Chicago; served on staff of Columbus Hospital there; commissioned as a Lieutenant in the Army September 14, 1917, and assigned to 371st Aero Squadron at Garden City, N. Y.; sent to Halifax, Nova Scotia, February 14, 1918, and on March 8, 1918, appointed Transport Surgeon on S. S. "Scotian" until arrival overseas, promoted to Captain May 10, 1918, and in camp at Winchester, England, where assigned to 100th Aero Squadron; left for France August 20, 1918, and in camp at Ourches (Meuse); returned to the United States June 30, 1919, and received his discharge July 18 at Mitchel Field, N. Y., Fellow, American Medical Association, member North Shore Post of American Legion.

Married December 29, 1922, in Boone, Iowa, Josephine, daughter of Rudolph Von Gra, a graduate of a German university, and Sarah Ida (Arnold) Von Gra. No children.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in All Saints' Cemetery, Des Plaines, Ill. Survived by wife and two brothers, John T. Smith, '01 L., and Joseph B Smith, of San Francisco, Calif.

Thomas Franklyn Smallman, M.D. 1905.

Born April 1, 1883, in New Haven, Conn.
Died December 21, 1928, in Brooklyn, N. Y

Father, Joshua Smallman, a fishhook maker, son of William and Elizabeth (Little) Smallman. Mother, Mary Agnes (Foley) Smallman.

New Haven High School; entered Yale School of Medicine 1901; interne at St. Joseph's Hospital, Paterson, N. J., 1905-06 and at Kings County Hospital, Brooklyn, March, 1906–March, 1908; had since practiced medicine and surgery in Brooklyn; visiting surgeon to Unity Hospital 1927–28, member Kings County Medical Society and Trinity Episcopal Church, New Haven.

Married (1) October 8, 1909, in Brooklyn, Anna Elizabeth, daughter of Harry Thomas Hasburg, who attended a college in Germany, and Katherine Ann (MacQuigglin) Hasburg. Dr. and Mrs. Smallman separated in 1921 and were divorced in 1923. Married (2) March 4, 1923, in Brooklyn, Jane Christina, daughter of George Christopher and Amelia Charlotte (Haltzman) Maulbach. No children by either marriage.

Death, due to cancer of the liver, followed a long illness. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife and father. By the terms of his will a bequest of $225,000 comes to the Yale School of Medicine on the death of Mrs. Smallman.
SCHOOL OF LAW

Delphin Michael Delmas, LL.B. 1865.

Born April 14, 1844, in Claremont, France
Died August 1, 1928, in Santa Monica, Calif

Father, Antoine Delmas, a vineyardist, came to America from France in 1849, and settled in San José, Calif. Mother, Coralie Delmas, BA Santa Clara College 1862, M.A 1863, PhD 1903; attended Yale Law School 1863–65; admitted to Connecticut Bar September, 1865, and to California Bar 1866; practiced in San José 1866–1882 (member of firm of Moore, Laine & Delmas 1873–76), in San Francisco 1882–1906 (with firm of Delmas & Shortridge 1902–06); in New York City 1906–1911; served as chief counsel for Harry K. Thaw 1906–07, and as member of firm of Delmas, Towne & Spellman 1908–1910, had since practiced independently in Los Angeles; district attorney for Santa Clara County 1867; a regent of University of California 1885; delegate-at-large to the Democratic National Convention in St Louis 1904; author: Speeches and Addresses (1901); member California State and Los Angeles Bar associations.

Married April 7, 1869, in San Francisco, Pauline, daughter of Colonel Joseph Pendelton Hoge and Octavia (Brown) Hoge. Children: Delphine (widow of William S. Barnes, BA Harvard 1886); Paul Hoge (died 1916); Antoinette Hoge; and Josephine (Mrs. William L. Fitzgerald-Kerney; died 1917). Mrs Delmas died April 4, 1918. Death due to a cerebral embolism. Cremated in Los Angeles Crematory, Roselawn Cemetery; ashes strewn at Point Lobos, Monterey, Calif. Survived by two daughters, three grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Charles George Root, LL.B. 1877.

Born August 13, 1855, in Naugatuck, Conn.
Died August 7, 1928, in Devon, Conn

Father, Reuben Herman Root; son of George and Susan (Payne) Root; descendant of John Roote, who came from Bagley, England, to Farmington, Conn., in 1638. Mother, Laura Elizabeth (Penfleld) Root; daughter of Norris and Emeline (Fenton) Penfleld; descendant of Samuel Penfield, who was living in Lynn, Mass., in 1675, and later moved to Rehoboth, Mass., and Bristol, R. I., and died in Guilford, Conn.

Preparatory training received in Waterbury, Conn.; assistant librarian, Brownson Library, Waterbury, 1871–75; attended Yale School of Law 1875–77; admitted to bar 1877; had since practiced law in Waterbury; senior member of Root & McNiff 1912–1927; had an office in New Haven 1907–1920, associated with his son-in-law, Charles W. Evarts, ’07 L, 1907–1912; deputy judge of District Court of Waterbury and judge of City Court 1893–97; judge Waterbury Police Court 1893–94; represented Waterbury in State Legislature 1891 (member of Judiciary Committee); state senator 1893 (chairman of Committee on Bridges and Roads, and member special State Prison Board); delegate to Democratic National Convention at Indianapolis 1896; member Waterbury Board of Education 1890–91; president Laurel Beach Land Association since 1901; member Devon Improvement Association and Connecticut Bar Association.

Married (1) February 2, 1880, in Bristol, Conn., Caroline May, daughter of Albert and Betsy L. (McAlpine) Chapin. Children: Mabel Frances (widow of Charles W. Evarts, now wife of Frederick D. Osborn); Josephine Laura (married Frank N. Platt, ’98 S., and died in 1905); Reuben Howard (graduated from one-year course in machine construction, Pratt Institute, 1908); and Helen Louise (Mrs. Oscar Widinghoff). Mrs. Root died September 14, 1914. Married (2) November 13, 1915, in New York City, Josephine, daughter of Wenzel William and Elizabeth Marie (Busch) Scheick. One son, Charles George, Jr.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Milford (Conn.) Cemetery. Survived by wife, two sons, two daughters, and eight grandchildren, one of whom is Richard N. Platt, ’27.
John Martin Sweeney, LL.B. 1879.

Born August 15, 1854, in Naugatuck, Conn.
Died November 10, 1928, in Naugatuck, Conn.

Father, Edward Sweeney, a farmer Mother, Ann (McKeon) Sweeney Both parents were born in Ireland.

Naugatuck High School; entered Yale School of Law 1877; had practiced law in Naugatuck since 1879, with an office also in Waterbury for a time; corporation counsel for Naugatuck eleven years; prosecuting attorney of Naugatuck Borough Court since its organization in 1895, judge of probate for Naugatuck District four terms; member Naugatuck and Waterbury Bar associations and St. Francis' Roman Catholic Church, Naugatuck.

Married August 12, 1884, in Waterbury, Maria Cecelia, daughter of Samuel Jones. Children: Edward Francis, '07 and '10 L.; John Martin, Jr., '10; Margaret A., the wife of Charles H. Stokesbury, '11 S.; William Jones, '13 S.; Alice K., the wife of Dominic Ruotolo, '12 S.; Mary Grace; and Elizabeth C. (Mrs Frederick Louis Wilhelm). Mrs. Sweeney died in November, 1923.

Death due to general arteriosclerosis and a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in St. James' Cemetery, Naugatuck Survived by three sons and four daughters.

John George Wilson, LL.B. 1880.

Born September 14, 1868, in Rochester, N Y
Died April 20, 1929, in Washington, D C.

Father, John Wilson Mother, Charlotte Wilson Both parents were born in Scotland

Practiced law before entering Yale School of Law as a senior from Rochester, N Y, in 1879; practiced law in Washington and managed estates after graduation; resident manager of McCormick Apartment House 1920–28.

Death, due to hypertrophy of prostate and myocarditis, followed an operation. Cremation took place at Fort Lincoln Crematory, Washington. His wife survives him.

Livingston Warner Cleaveland, LL.B. 1881.

Born January 31, 1860, in South Egremont, Mass. Died March 6, 1929, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, the Rev. James Bradford Cleaveland (B.A 1847), a graduate of Yale Divinity School and a Congregational minister; agent of American Sunday School Union for State of Connecticut; son of John Cleaveland; descendant of Moses Cleaveland, who came from England to Woburn, Mass., in the seventeenth century; descended also from Governor William Bradford of the Massachusetts Bay Colony. Mother, Elizabeth Hannah (Jocelyn) Cleaveland; daughter of Nathaniel Jocelyn; direct descendant of John Howland and Elizabeth Tilley of the "Mayflower" company. Yale relatives include a brother, Jocelyn P Cleaveland, ’76 L., and a nephew, Cleaveland J. Rice, ’09.

Prepared under private tutors; attended Yale School of Law 1879–1881 (member of Kent Club); admitted to the bar 1881 and had since practiced law in New Haven; associated at various times with Harrison Hewitt, ’97, Ward Church, ’99 L., Clarence W. Bronson, ’00, and his nephew, Cleaveland J. Rice; only commissioner of deeds in New England outside of Boston for many years; judge of probate for District of New Haven 1895–1907; LLM 1888, member New Haven Board of Aldermen 1891–92 and Board of Finance 1891; served on New Haven Independence Day Celebration Committee 1910–14 and on New Haven Charter Revision Committee 1916; director of Union & New Haven Trust Company and of New Haven Colony Historical Society (member of relics committee); elected director of Dixwell Avenue Community House in January, 1929, an organizer of New Haven Republican Club and director many years; candidate for Republican nomination for governor 1900 and 1902, but failed of nomination; chairman of Division No 1, Exemption Board of New Haven, June–December, 1917, of New Haven division of campaign committee for Near East Relief Fund.
1919, and of World Court Committee of New Haven; former president of Admiral Foote Post Citizens' Corps of the G A R; deacon of United Church (Congregational) for many years until 1925 and then deacon emeritus; member of Society's Committee two terms and president of Men's Club of the church twice; assistant superintendent of New Haven City Mission 1885-89 and president 1889-1925, member executive committee Yale Hope Mission 1924; director of New Haven Y M. C. A, chairman of state committee of the Association 1910-18, and president of Y M C A state convention 1903, moderator of Connecticut Congregational Conference 1905, president of New Haven Congregational Club; director of American Sunday School Union, member Pilgrim Memorial Fund Commission of 100 appointed by National Council of Congregational Churches, had been connected with the Grenfell movement and with various negro institutions in the South; trustee of "Mountain Rest," a summer home for missionaries, at Goshen, Mass; had served on a number of committees in connection with award of prizes in Yale School of Law; secretary of Class of 1881 L, vice-president of Yale Alumni Association of Class Secretaries 1915-16, member executive committee of New Haven Yale Alumni Association 1919, and Alumni Fund agent for Law School Classes of 1880-83 L from 1921 to 1926, joint author with Hewitt and Clark of Probate Law and Practice in Connecticut (1915) and of a supplement published later; member American Bar Association, Connecticut State Bar Association, New Haven County Bar Association, New Haven Bar Association (chairman of moral fitness committee), International Law Association, New Haven Chamber of Commerce, Connecticut Academy of Arts and Sciences, and Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants.

Married April 8, 1912, at Battle Creek, Mich, Mrs. Frances Elizabeth Ferrins Dowkontt, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Robbins) Ferrins. No children.

Death due to cerebral arteriosclerosis. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, a stepdaughter, Mrs Rowan P Perkins, a stepson, Dr. Clifford F. Dowkontt, '15 and '19 M., and a sister, Mrs. Robert L. Rice, of West Haven, Conn.
Dennis William Coleman, LL.B. 1895.

Born March 21, 1873, in Cheshire, Conn
Died March 23, 1929, in Waterbury, Conn

Father, Michael Coleman, a farmer; son of Dennis Coleman, who came from Cork, Ireland, to Cheshire, Conn, in 1850, and Honora (Marks) Coleman. Mother, Catherine Josephine (Meany) Coleman; daughter of Patrick and Margaret (Brennan) Meany, who came from Cork, Ireland, to New Haven, in 1849.

Married September 23, 1908, in Hartford, Conn, Elizabeth Burke, daughter of William Driscoll and Theresa (Burke) Gorman. One son, John Philip, Trinity ’32.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage and arteriosclerosis. Buried in St. Bridget’s Cemetery, Cheshire. Survived by wife, son, father, two sisters, the Misses Mary and Margaret Coleman, and one brother, Michael Coleman, all of Cheshire.

Samuel Solomon Doroff, LL.B. 1895.

Born September 10, 1858, in Elizavetgrad, Russia
Died July 13, 1928, in Boston, Mass

Father, Solomon Doroff, a graduate of the Rabbinical College of Russia, came to America about 1882. Mother, Etta (Levenson) Doroff Yale relatives include a nephew, Louis A. Doroff, ’05 M.
Entered Yale School of Law in 1893; practiced law in New Haven with his classmate, Bernard E. Lynch, under the firm name of Lynch & Doroff 1895–99; in New York City 1899–1909, and in New Haven again 1909–1918; engaged in dry goods business in New Haven for the next three years, and since 1921 in Jamaica Plain, Mass., member First Church of Christ Scientist, Boston, Mass.

Married September 18, 1897, in New York City, Annie, daughter of Harris and Miriam (Kwallman) Subow One daughter, Jeanne Death due to heart failure. Buried in Adat Jeshunu Cemetery, West Roxbury, Mass. Survived by wife, daughter, a brother, Moses Doroff, of New York City, and two sisters, Mrs. Libba Bonoff, of New York City, and Mrs. Edward Rubin, of Woodmere, Long Island, N. Y. necticut State Bar Examining Committee since 1916, first vice-president since 1917, and director since 1904, of First-Stamford National Bank; an incorporator of Stamford Savings Bank in 1918, and a director since then; director Stamford Gas & Electric Company 1910-1928, and Western Connecticut Title & Mortgage Company 1920-28, Stamford Hospital 1905-1928, Ferguson Library 1907-1928, Stamford Children's Home 1926-28; trustee Stamford Home for the Aged 1909-1928; member American Bar Association, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, Connecticut Bar Association (member executive committee), Fairfield County Bar, and St. Andrew's Episcopal Church (junior warden). Married November 5, 1892, in Darien, Conn, Elizabeth Hannah, daughter of George Heath and Harriett (Brown) Tilley. Children: Harriet Dorothy and Frederick Heath (Williams ex-'20, received certificate in Textile Engineering, Georgia School of Technology, 1921). Mrs. Taylor died December 26, 1924.

Death, due to a cerebral hemorrhage, occurred at New Haven Hospital. Buried in St. Andrew's Cemetery, Stamford. Survived by son, daughter, two sisters, the Misses E Louise and Sally H Taylor, all of Stamford, and a brother, Frank G Taylor, of Seattle, Wash.

Charles William Bauby, LL.B. 1899.

Born April 15, 1875, in Waterbury, Conn
Died March 23, 1929, in New Haven, Conn

Father, Peter Bauby, a merchant in Waterbury; born in Genoa, Italy, came to New York City in 1871; son of Carlo and Rosa (Barberi) de Barbiere. Mother, Rosa (Musante) Bauby, born in Genoa; daughter of Celeste and Rosa (Bernardo) Musante.

Crosby High School, Waterbury, B A Holy Cross 1897; entered Yale School of Law 1897; had practiced law in Waterbury since 1899; member Company G, 2d Regiment, Connecticut National Guard, 1901-08, and of St. Margaret's Roman Catholic Church.

Married April 23, 1911, in Jersey City, N J., Mary Eleanor,
Obituary Record

daughter of James Francis and Bridget (Rafferty) Mahon.
Children Eleanor Joan and Peter Charles

Death, due to carcinoma of the pelvis, occurred at St. Raphael’s Hospital, following an illness of a year. Buried in Calvary Cemetery, Waterbury. Survived by wife, daughter, son, a sister, Mrs. William Buckley, and four brothers, Frederick C. Bauby, ’07 L., Leo, John, and Joseph P. Bauby, all of Waterbury.

William Thomas Rawlins, LL.B. 1901.

Born September 4, 1877, in Honolulu, Hawaii
Died at sea, December 18, 1928, on S S “City of Honolulu,” en route from California to Hawaii

Father, Thomas William Rawlins, a retired merchant; son of Thomas and Malvina (Watts) Rawlins; of English descent.
Mother, Marian (Evans) Rawlins, daughter of Frederick and Frances (Ringrose) Evans

Punahou College, graduated from Oahu College 1898; entered Yale Law School that year; member Kent Club and Book and Gavel; admitted to Hawaiian Bar 1901, and had since practiced law in Honolulu; in law office of Holmes & Stanley for a short time, referee in bankruptcy 1901–02; elected county attorney on organization of first county government in 1903, but county act was declared unconstitutional by Supreme Court; deputy high sheriff of the Territory October, 1904–June, 1905; chairman of Board of Registration of Oahu, and second district magistrate 1904–05; special territorial deputy attorney-general in 1905; assistant United States district attorney for Hawaii 1907–1912; in 1924 appointed judge of United States District Court for Hawaii for term ending January 15, 1930, member House of Representatives for Fourth District, 1907, 1915, and 1919; served as chairman of house judiciary committees during his first two terms, and as chairman of committee on public lands and improvements, and member of judicial committee during the last term, chairman of Banana Claims Commission 1913; member of Hawaiian Commission to Jamestown (Va.) Exposition 1907, of the first Hawaiian legislative commission to Wash-
Frank Angelo Gaynor, LL.B. 1902.

Born June 24, 1880, in Waterbury, Conn
Died April 8, 1929, in Rye (Harrison), N Y

Father, Dennis Joseph Gaynor, a manufacturer of brass and electrical devices in Stratford, Conn Mother, Charlotte (Gibson) Gaynor.

Bridgeport High School; entered Yale School of Law in 1899; admitted to Connecticut and New York bars in 1902, had since practiced in New York City, had served as assistant general counsel for General Motors Corporation since 1919, and Metropolitan Golf Association since 1926, member New York Bar Association and Church of the Resurrection (Roman Catholic), Rye, N Y Married June 24, 1919, in Rye, Ethel, daughter of William and Margaret Elizabeth (Gollan) Murray Children: Marguerite, Frank Arthur, and Jacqueline.

Death, due to cancer, followed an illness of three months. Buried in Ferncliff Mausoleum, Hartsdale, N. Y. Survived by wife, two daughters, a son, mother, three brothers, Edwin G. Gaynor, '10 S., Arthur Gaynor, of Stratford, Conn., and Joseph Gaynor, of Fairfield, Conn., and two sisters, Miss Charlotte Gaynor, of Stratford, and Mrs. William Styles, of Montreal, Canada.

Robert Newton Crane, LL.B. 1907.

Born January 3, 1885, in Plainfield, N. J.
Died March 16, 1929, in Plainfield, N. J.

Father, Uzal Barton Crane, in real estate business; son of Job and Catharine (Lasey) Crane; descendant of Jasper Crane, who came from Bradley Plain, Hampshire, England, to Newark, N. J., in 1639. Mother, Mary Elizabeth (Smith) Crane; daughter of Stephen Hand and Mary Eliza (Johnson) Smith.

Plainfield High School and Sempter Preparatory School, New York City; studied at George Washington University Law School 1904–05; entered Yale School of Law in 1905 (assistant treasurer of Kent Club, member Book and Gavel); admitted to New Jersey Bar March 16, 1907; had since practiced law in Plainfield; admitted also to Connecticut and New York bars; master in chancery; member New Jersey, Union County, and Plainfield bar associations.

Death due to cirrhosis of the liver. Buried in Hillside Cemetery, Plainfield. Survived by wife, two sons, two daughters, two brothers, Judge Sidney C. Crane, of New York City, and Dr. Arthur B. Crane, of Washington, D. C., and two sisters, Mrs. Hugh M. Smith, of Westfield, N. J., and Mrs. Thomas L. Mellick, of Plainfield.
Marion Roscoe Davis, LL.B. 1907.

Born January 27, 1882, in Niantic, Conn.
Died February 12, 1929, in Niantic, Conn

Father, Calvin Sexton Davis, a granite manufacturer; selectman of East Lyme, and representative to General Assembly in 1885; son of James and Eliza (Beebe) Davis. Mother, Mary Ann (Beebe) Davis; daughter of Capt Lemuel Beebe and Nancy Dixon (Clark) Beebe, descendant of Capt James Sands, who came from Reading, England, to Block Island, in 1622.

Morgan School, Clinton, Conn; B.A. Hamilton 1904 (member Football Team and Emerson Literary Club); studied law in offices of Judge Ralph Wheeler and John C Geary 1904-05, studied in Yale School of Law 1905-07 (member Kent Club); had since practiced law in New London, Conn; member of Geary, Davis & Keefe (Arthur T Keefe, '10 and '13 L.) since 1915; member General Assembly in 1915 (on finance committee); director of Winthrop Trust Company and Thames Dyeing & Bleaching Company of East Lyme, Conn.

Married June 21, 1910, Myra Eunice, daughter of Edwin Howard and Angelina Stag (Peck) Bronson No children.

Death due to myocarditis and nephritis. Buried in Union Cemetery, Niantic. Survived by wife and a sister, Mrs Earl D. Northrop, of Rockville, Conn

Henry Patrick Roche, LL.B. 1912.

Born June 4, 1886, in Berlin, Conn
Died January 16, 1929, in New Britain, Conn

Father, James Roche, a lawyer, member firm of Walsh & Roche, New Britain; clerk of Probate Court, judge of Police Court, president of School Board, member of Connecticut General Assembly, and chairman Democratic Town Committee; son of Patrick and Mary (Brown) Roche Mother, Nora (Warren) Roche; daughter of Denis and Hanora (Callahan) Warren.

New Britain High School; B.A. Holy Cross 1909 (on
Obituary Record

Football Team), attended Yale School of Law 1909–1912 (honors first and second years, Jewell Prize second year, LL B cum laude 1912; member Chi Tau Kappa; permanent secretary of his Class); admitted to Hartford County Bar in 1912, and had since practiced in New Britain, member of firm of Walsh, Meskill & Roche 1912–16 (of which James T. Meskill, '97 L., was also a partner); in partnership with Joseph A. Glover, '13 S., under firm name of Roche & Glover 1916–18; practiced independently 1918–1920; member of firm of Mitchell, Roche & Cabelus since 1920 (of which Charles H Mitchell, ex-'97, was a member); candidate for councilman of New Britain in 1910 on Democratic ticket; member New Britain Bar Association

Unmarried

Death due to influenza Buried in St. Mary's Cemetery, New Britain Survived by a brother, the Rev. J. Warren Roche, of Derby, Conn., and a sister, Miss Katharine A. Roche, of New Britain.

Colin Montague Ingersoll, LL.B. 1917.

Born February 9, 1893, in New Haven, Conn.
Died February 5, 1929, in Stamford, Conn.

Father, George Pratt Ingersoll (B.A. Trinity 1883, M.A. 1889, LL.B. Yale 1885), a lawyer; member of firm of Tyler, Ingersoll & Moran, in New Haven, and of Murray, Bennett & Ingersoll, and Murray, Ingersoll, Hoge & Humphrey, in New York City, United States minister to Siam; son of Colin Macrae Ingersoll (B.A. Trinity 1839), member of Congress, secretary of legation and later chargé d'affaires in Russia, and Julu Harriet (Pratt) Ingersoll; descendant of John Ingersoll, who came from Bedfordshire, England, to Hartford, Conn., about 1650 Mother, Alice (Witherspoon) Ingersoll; daughter of the Rev. Orlando Witherspoon (B.A. Trinity 1836; Berkeley Divinity School 1859), and Cora Victoria (Taylor) Witherspoon, and sister of Herbert Witherspoon, '95; descendant of Dr. John Witherspoon, who came from Paisley, Scotland, president of Princeton University 1768–1794, signer of Declaration of Independence, and member of first Congress. Yale relatives include: Rev. Joseph Ridgefield (Conn.) School for Boys; B.A. Trinity 1914 (chairman Junior Promenade; member Delta Psi), attended Yale School of Law 1914-1917; admitted to Connecticut Bar June 8, 1917; from 1919 to 1923 was associated with firm of Cummings & Lockwood, in Stamford, of which Homer S. Cummings, '91 S, and Charles D. Lockwood, '00 S, were partners, and of which his father was associate counsel, served with Company F, 2d Infantry, Connecticut National Guard, in summer of 1915, on Mexican border, enlisted as a Private in the 2d Infantry, Connecticut National Guard, June 15, 1917, and was assigned to 102d Infantry, 26th Division, commissioned Second Lieutenant, August 4, 1917; in active service at Chemin des Dames, Seicheprey, Château-Thierry, St-Mihiel, Marcheville, and Meuse-Argonne; wounded July 22, 1918, at Trugny; wounded and gassed November 8, 1918, at Haumont; promoted First Lieutenant in November, 1918; served as summary court-martial officer, 102d Infantry, November, 1917-November, 1918, Adjutant, Auvergne Leave Area, November, 1918-January, 1919; commanding officer, Casual Company 992, February-April, 1919; released from active duty April, 1919; commander Everett Ray Seymour Post of American Legion, Ridgefield, Conn., 1920; Oscar H. Cowan Post, Stamford, 1921, and Stamford Post Veterans of Foreign Wars 1920-22 and honorary president 1922-29; member St. Andrew's Church, Stamford.

Unmarried

Death due to inflammation of the brain; suffered from sleeping sickness in 1923, and had since been an invalid. Buried in Fairlawn Cemetery, Ridgefield. Survived by mother and a sister, Miss Gertrude V. Ingersoll, of Stamford

James Albert Allen, LL.M. 1896.

Born June 1, 1871, in Chenault, Ky.
Died March 20, 1929, in New York City.

Father, Abraham Scott Allen, a farmer; son of James Madison and Melinda (Ronner) Allen. Mother, Letitia Emeline (Gilliland) Allen; daughter of John Adam and Emeline (Springer) Gilliland.

Prepared for college at public schools in Chenault, Ky.; B A. and LL.B University of Kentucky 1894, M.A. 1895; attended Yale School of Law 1895–97 (LL M. 1896, D.C.L 1897), taught school at Chenault 1894–95, practiced law in Louisville, Ky., in association with Augustus E. Willson, 1897–98, and since then in New York City, defeated as candidate for New York Assembly in 1899; elected to Assembly as fusion candidate from the old 9th Assembly District (now the 3d), in 1901, and served 1902; defeated for same office in 1902, Republican candidate for senate in 1905, but defeated, presided at Independence League State Convention 1908 and was candidate for judge of City Court on the League ticket, but failed of election; candidate on Independence League ticket for Judge of Court of Appeals 1910, but defeated, elected judge of City Court 1915 and served through 1919, counsel to county clerk 1919–1925; member of commission in condemnation proceedings of property for docks in New York 1902–05; member New York City Bar Association, New York State Bar Association (honorary), Society of American Jurisprudence, Kentucky Society, Southern Society, Society of Medical Jurisprudence, and West Side Taxpayers' Association

Married October 31, 1900, in Covington, Ky., Lula Pearl, daughter of Nathan Hall and Susan Veach (Dills) Jeffers. Their two children died in infancy.
Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York City. Survived by wife, father, a brother, Willard S. Allen, '06 L., and two sisters, Mrs. Floyd St. E. Miller, of Henderson, Ky., and Mrs. James Edward Vessells, of Evansville, Ind.

Vernon Calvin Randolph, LL.M. 1909.

Born July 7, 1883, in Chicago, Ill.
Died October 26, 1928, at Colorado Springs, Colo.

Father, Charles Wintemute Randolph, a contractor; son of Reuben Fitz and Charlotte Shotwell (Wintemute) Randolph; descended from Jeptha F. Randolph, who came from England and settled in Wantage, N. J., prior to 1821. Mother, Rose Anna (Passmore) Randolph; daughter of Joseph Fillmore and Elizabeth Florinda (Calvin) Passmore; first American ancestor came from Germany in 1736, and lived at Stillwater, N. J.; direct descendant of John Calvin.

Lake View High School, Chicago; studied in the academic department of University of Michigan 1904–05, and in the Law School 1905–07 (LL B. 1907), admitted to bar and to practice in United States courts; attended Yale School of Law 1908–09 (member executive committee, Yale Senate, and Book and Gavel); practiced law in Chicago with firm of Shepard McCormick, and later in Detroit; had been in Colorado Springs since 1913, engaged intermittently as a bond salesman, and in legal work in an attorney's office; during the World War served as a Private, 1st Class, in Aviation Section of the Signal Enlisted Reserve Corps, February 19–August 12, 1918, and then attended Field Artillery Central Officers' Training School at Camp Zachary Taylor until his discharge on October 25, 1918.

Married February 9, 1923, in Louisville, Ky., Josephine, daughter of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Reed Mr and Mrs. Randolph were divorced in July, 1923.

Obituary Record

Elijah Hussey Matthews, LL.M. 1912.

Born October 16, 1884, in Wayne, Ohio
Died February 8, 1929, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Father, John Wilbur Matthews, a farmer and contractor; mayor of New Vienna, Ohio; son of Elijah Hussey and Ellen (Elliott) Matthews. Mother, Sarah (Pierce) Matthews; daughter of Thomas and Eliza (McFadden) Pierce.

Centerville High School; LL B. Y. M. C. A. Law School, Cincinnati, 1906, admitted to Ohio Bar in December, 1905; subsequently practiced law in Cincinnati as member of firm of Matthews & Matthews, until he entered Yale School of Law in 1911 as a graduate student (vice-president of Yale Senate and of Graduate Class, chairman Class Picture Committee, and member Phi Delta Alpha), engaged again in practice with Matthews & Matthews 1912–1924; president of Hamilton County Bank of Cincinnati 1918–1922; president of Bank of Commerce & Trust Company 1924–29.

Married December 6, 1913, in Cincinnati, Lida, daughter of William Henry Dunham (M.D. Cincinnati Medical College 1881) and Mary (MacPherson) Dunham. No children.

Death, due to streptococcic septicaemia, occurred at Christ Hospital. Buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati. Survived by wife, and a brother, Judge Stanley Matthews (LL B University of Cincinnati 1900), of Cincinnati.

Charles Robert Frankham, D.C.L. 1915.

Born December 28, 1872, in Dayton, Va
Died August 5, 1928, in Columbus, Ohio.

Father, Walker Jefferson Frankham, manufacturer of carriages, son of George W. and Priscilla (Gaines) Frankham; ancestors came from England to Virginia. Mother, Sarah (Showalter) Frankham; daughter of Samuel and Mary Catherine (Peterson) Showalter; descended from Ezekiel Peterson, who came to New Jersey from Switzerland in 1728, and from Jackson Showalter, who came to Virginia from Holland in the middle of the eighteenth century.

Shenandoah Collegiate Institute (now Shenandoah Junior College), Dayton, Va, B.A. Otterbein 1896; taught in Shenandoah Collegiate Institute 1896–97; graduate student in political economy Ohio University, 1897–98; superintendent of schools in Worthington 1898–99, and in Mechanicsburg, Ohio, 1899–1902; taught English and mathematics in Central High School, Columbus, Ohio, 1902–04; M.A. Ohio State University 1903, LL.B. 1904; practiced law in Columbus 1904–1913; senior partner in firm of Frankham & Shook 1909, associated with Calvin V. Trott and W. B. Cockrell 1909–1913, dean of Y. M. C. A. Law School, Columbus, 1904–1913, lecturer on law, New York University, 1913–14, LL.M. Columbia 1914; student Yale School of Law 1914–15 (member Chi Tau Kappa); professor of law, Brooklyn Law School, 1915–17; special assistant Department of Justice, Washington, D.C., 1921–23, lecturer on law, George Washington University Law School, summer session 1921; lecturer on Roman Law, American University, summer session 1922, professor of law, Washington College of Law, 1921–23, had practiced law in Columbus 1917–1921, with Frankham, Trott & Cockrell as senior partner 1917, associated with Trott and Cockrell 1917–19; had also practiced in Columbus since 1923, dean Columbus Law School 1927–28, member Columbus Bar Association (at time of death was member of Unification of Bar Committee) and Broad Street Presbyterian Church, honorary member Evarts Inn, Phi Delta Phi.

Married June 24, 1896, in Westerville, Ohio, Ada Markley (B. Ph.B. Otterbein 1897), daughter of Joseph William Markley (attended Otterbein 1869–1872) and Sallie (Hopper) Markley. One son, Markley (B.A. Ohio State University 1920, LL.B. 1922; LL.M. Columbia 1923).

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Otterbein Cemetery, Westerville, Ohio. Survived by wife, son, and two sisters, Mrs. Davis Whitesel and Mrs. Owen Keiter, of Harrisonburg, Va.
Obituary Record

Joseph F. Francis, J.S.D. 1926.

Born February 27, 1890, in Vienna, Austria.
Died January 19, 1929, in Oklahoma City, Okla.

Father, William Bogynska, a farmer; came from Austria to Fall City, Ore, about 1892. Mother, Margaret (Baumberger) Bogynska. (Son changed his name from Bogynska to Francis in 1919.)

Oregon State Normal School; engaged in teaching, as superintendent of schools in Challis, Idaho, for a time; studied at University of Chicago (Ph B. 1920, J D. 1921); while a student, enlisted in the Army June 24, 1918; took part in Meuse-Argonne offensive, October 25–29, 1918; honorably discharged August 26, 1919, at Camp Dodge, Iowa; professor of law at Law School of University of Oklahoma 1921–29 (member Phi Delta Phi, Acacia, and Order of the Coif); enrolled in Yale School of Law summers of 1924, 1925, and 1926 (J.S D 1926)

Married August 5, 1918, in Rockford, Ill., Nellie Prather (B.S. Kansas State Teachers' College 1917, graduate student University of Oklahoma 1928–29), daughter of Eli Franklin and Mary Magdeline (Bailey) Prather. Children: Joseph and Billie Prather.

Death due to meningitis following mastoiditis. Buried in I. O. O. F. Cemetery, Norman, Okla. Survived by wife, two sons, mother, four brothers, William and John Bogynska, of Oregon City, and Henry and Jake Bogynska, of Los Angeles; a half brother, D A Larmer, and two sisters, Mrs. Albert D Cox and Mrs. Clyde E Timme, of Salem, Ore.
DIVINITY SCHOOL

Robert Brown Stimson, B.D. 1873.

Born June 23, 1844, in Noblesville, Ind
Died December 20, 1928, in Terre Haute, Ind

Father, the Rev William Nelson Stimson, a Presbyterian minister. Mother, Mary Wilson (Johnson) Stimson.

Preparatory Department of Wabash College; member Wabash College Class of 1870 three years, left at the end of Junior year and taught school 1869–1870; studied in Yale Divinity School 1870–73, joined Senior Class in Yale College in 1873 (B.A. 1874), had charge of Broadway Presbyterian Church, Logansport, Ind, 1874–76; during this time studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1876, deputy prosecuting attorney 1876–78 and United States Commissioner 1878–1880, Logansport, moved to Terre Haute, Ind, 1880, engaged in general practice of law as member of firms Stimson & Stimson; Stimson, Stimson & Higgins; Stimson, Higgins & Condit; Stimson & Condit; and Stimson, Hamill & Davis, until his retirement in 1922; assistant attorney-general of Indiana 1880–82; city attorney of Terre Haute, Ind, 1880, engaged in general practice of law as member of firms Stimson & Stimson; Stimson, Stimson & Higgins; Stimson, Higgins & Condit; Stimson & Condit; and Stimson, Hamill & Davis, until his retirement in 1922; assistant attorney-general of Indiana 1880–82; city attorney of Terre Haute, Ind, 1880, engaged in general practice of law as member of firms Stimson & Stimson; Stimson, Stimson & Higgins; Stimson, Higgins & Condit; Stimson & Condit; and Stimson, Hamill & Davis, until his retirement in 1922; assistant attorney-general of Indiana 1880–82; city attorney of Terre Haute, Ind, 1880, engaged in general practice of law as member of firms Stimson & Stimson; Stimson, Stimson & Higgins; Stimson, Higgins & Condit; Stimson & Condit; and Stimson, Hamill & Davis, until his retirement in 1922; assistant attorney-general of Indiana 1880–82; city attorney of Terre Haute, Ind, 1880, engaged in general practice of law as member of firms Stimson & Stimson; Stimson, Stimson & Higgins; Stimson, Higgins & Condit; Stimson & Condit; and Stimson, Hamill & Davis, until his retirement in 1922; assistant attorney-general of Indiana 1880–82; city attorney of Terre Haute, Ind, 1880, engaged in general practice of law as member of firms Stimson & Stimson; Stimson, Stimson & Higgins; Stimson, Higgins & Condit; Stimson & Condit; and Stimson, Hamill & Davis, until his retirement in 1922; assistant attorney-general of Indiana 1880–82; city attorney of Terre Haute, Ind, 1880, engaged in general practice of law as member of firms Stimson & Stimson; Stimson, Stimson & Higgins; Stimson, Higgins & Condit; Stimson & Condit; and Stimson, Hamill & Davis, until his retirement in 1922; assistant attorney-general of Indiana 1880–82; city attorney of Terre Haute, Ind, 1880, engaged in general practice of law as member of firms Stimson & Stimson; Stimson, Stimson & Higgins; Stimson, Higgins & Condit; Stimson & Condit; and Stimson, Hamill & Davis, until his retirement in 1922; assistant attorney-general of Indiana 1880–82; city attorney of Terre Haute, Ind, 1880, engaged in general practice of law as member of firms Stimson & Stimson; Stimson, Stimson & Higgins; Stimson, Higgins & Condit; Stimson & Condit; and Stimson, Hamill & Davis, until his retirement in 1922; assistant attorney-general of Indiana 1880–82; city attorney of Terre Haute, Ind, 1880, engaged in general practice of law as member of firms Stimson & Stimson; Stimson, Stimson & Higgins; Stimson, Higgins & Condit; Stimson & Condit; and Stimson, Hamill & Davis, until his retirement in 1922; assistant attorney-general of Indiana 1880–82; city attorney of Terre Haute, Ind, 1880, engaged in general practice of law as member of firms Stimson & Stimson; Stimson, Stimson & Higgins; Stimson, Higgins & Condit; Stimson & Condit; and Stimson, Hamill & Davis, until his retirement in 1922; assistant attorney-general of Indiana 1880–82; city attorney of Terre Haute, Ind, 1880, engaged in general practice of law as member of firms Stimson & Stimson; Stimson, Stimson & Higgins; Stimson, Higgins & Condit; Stimson & Condit; and Stimson, Hamill & Davis, until his retirement in 1922; assistant attorney-general of Indiana 1880–82; city attorney of Terre Haute, Ind, 1880, engaged in general practice of law as member of firms Stimson & Stimson; Stimson, Stimson & Higgins; Stimson, Higgins & Condit; Stimson & Condit; and Stimson, Hamill & Davis, until his retirement in 1922; assistant attorney-general of Indiana 1880–82; city attorney of Terre Haute, Ind, 1880, engaged in general practice of law as member of firms Stimson & Stimson; Stimson, Stimson & Higgins; Stimson, Higgins & Condit; Stimson & Condit; and Stimson, Hamill & Davis, until his retirement in 1898, honorary M.A Wabash 1890.

Married September 1, 1874, in Alamo, Ind, Edna, daughter of Dr. Iral L. Brown and Elizabeth J. Brown. Children Mary (B.A Coates College for Women 1897, M.A University of Wisconsin 1910) and Lucy (died in 1903)

Death due to heart failure Buried in Highland Lawn Cemetery, Terre Haute. Survived by wife and daughter Oren Dennis Fisher, B.D. 1875.

Born July 6, 1847, in Brighton, Ohio
Died February 13, 1929, in Sutton, Mass

Father, Danforth Fisher, a shipbuilder, built the first steamship launched on the Great Lakes Mother; Lucinda (Wilcox) Fisher.
Obituary Record

Oberlin Preparatory Department; B.A. Olivet 1872, M.A 1876, attended Yale Divinity School 1872-75; ordained to Congregational ministry at Cleveland, Ohio, September 28, 1875, and pastor of Madison Avenue Church there until 1885; a founder of the Schaussler Missionary Training School 1885-86; pastor First Congregational Church, Chagrin Falls, Ohio, 1885-88; Washington Street Congregational Church, Toledo, Ohio, 1885-1895; Peoples' Church, Indianapolis, Ind., 1895-99, Maverick Congregational Church, East Boston, Mass, 1899-1902; First Congregational Church, Wolfeboro, N.H., 1902-05; West End Church, Bridgeport, Conn., 1905-07, Congregational Church, Storrs, Conn. (chaplain also of Connecticut Agricultural College), 1907-1910; South Windsor, Conn, 1910-15; First Congregational Church, North Stonington, Conn., 1915-1925; Sutton, Mass, since 1925.

Death due to grippe. Buried in Howard Cemetery, Sutton. Survived by wife, four sons, three grandchildren, a sister, Mrs Hiram W Wilson, of Los Angeles, Calif, and two brothers, George F. Fisher, of Chicago, and Wilbur Fisher, of Lorain, Ohio.

Henry Thorne Sell, B.D. 1877.

Born September 30, 1854, in Brooklyn, N.Y.
Died July 20, 1928, in New York City

Father, Henry Thorne Sell, in wholesale jewelry and novelty buttons business; son of Amos Thorne and Mehitable (Squires) Sell, of English descent. Mother, Martha Ann (Fordham) Sell, daughter of the Rev. Stephen and Harriet (Squires) Fordham
B.A. Wesleyan 1873; taught mathematics and German at Chamberlain Institute and Female College, Randolph, N.Y., 1873-74; attended Yale Divinity School 1874-77, ordained to Congregational ministry at Lysander, N.Y., December 17, 1877, and remained as pastor of the First Congregational Church there until 1881; pastor First Congregational Church, Cortland, N.Y., 1881-86; district secretary for Illinois and Wisconsin of the Congregational Sunday School and Publishing Society, with headquarters in Chicago, 1886-1892; pastor Auburn Park Congregational Church, Chicago, 1892-96; engaged in literary work 1896-97; pastor Covenant Congregational Church, Chicago, 1898-1901; editor-in-chief of The Advance 1901-03; for the next three years engaged in literary work, lecturing, and preaching as stated supply at Grand Avenue Church, Milwaukee, Wis., Kenwood Evangelical Church, Chicago, and Webster Groves (Mo.) Congregational Church; pastor, Plymouth Congregational Church, Fort Wayne, Ind., 1906-1910; lectured and wrote 1911-12, pastor, Union Congregational Church, Jacksonville, Fla., 1912-16; First Congregational Church, Kenosha, Wis., 1917-1923; retired to give his time exclusively to completing his Bible study textbooks, and to lecturing; D.D. Ripon 1902, moderator of Florida Congregational Conference 1915 and 1916; member of Board of Examiners of Chicago Theological Seminary 1919-1921; Bible lecturer and one of the Sunday preachers at Great Miami Valley Chautauqua, near Dayton, Ohio, 1904-1910; conducted City Union Teachers' Saturday Noon Meetings and Union Teacher Training Classes in Chicago, and gave the Bible lectures for Chicago West and South Side schools of Methods for Sunday School Workers; had lectured for the Independent and the Redpath-Horner Chautauqua circuits; author. Supplemental Bible Studies (1890, translated into Spanish); Bible Study by Books (1896; translated into Roumanian and African dialects), Bible Study by Doctrines (1897); Bible Study by Periods (1899), Bible Studies in the Life of Christ (1902), Bible Studies in the Life of Paul (1904), Bible Studies in the Life of Christ (1905), Studies in Early Church History (1906), Bible Studies in Vital Questions (1916), The Twentieth Century Story of the Christ, a Harmony of the Four Gospels (1917), Studies in the Four
Obituary Record

Gospels (1917), Sermons in Stories (1923), Studies of Great Bible Characters (1923), Sermons in Objects (1924), Studies of Famous Bible Women (1925), Sermons in Action (1926), Studies of Great Bible Cities (1927); had nearly completed another book, Bible Study of the Parables, to be published, several Children's Sermons are also to appear at an early date, had written articles for the Sunday School Times, Chicago, for many years; served as secretary and treasurer of Apollos Club, Chicago, about 1900–06; member New York City Congregational Association, and Central Congregational Church, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Married November 21, 1888, in Whitewater, Wis., Mary Blackman (special course, Northwestern University, 1887), daughter of Charles Morris and Mary Elizabeth (Billings) Blackman Children: Henry Blackman and Charles Jesse (died in infancy).

Death due to pernicious anemia; had been ill since 1926 Buried in Cypress Hills Cemetery, New York City. Survived by wife, son, and a sister, Mrs. Georganna H. Squires, of Cortland, N. Y.

Frank Sargent Hoffman, B.D. 1880.

Born February 9, 1852, at Sheboygan Falls, Wis.
Died December 21, 1928, in Schenectady, N. Y.

Father, Dr Wendell Hoffman, a physician, descended from Frederick Hoffman, who came from Leipzig, Germany, to Poughkeepsie, N. Y., in 1820 Mother, Mary Currier (Sargent) Hoffman; daughter of Moses and Hannah (Dearborn) Sargent; descendant of Samuel Sargent, who came from England to Amesbury, Mass., in 1680.

Knox College preparatory department; attended Knox College 1872–74; entered Amherst as a Junior in 1874 (B.A. 1876, member Phi Gamma Delta and Phi Beta Kappa); taught in Princeton, Ill., High School 1876–77; studied in Yale Divinity School 1877–1881 (held Hooker Fellowship and studied at University of Berlin 1881); studied at University of Heidelberg 1881–82; instructor in mental philosophy at Wesleyan University 1883–85, professor of mental and moral philosophy at Union College from 1885 until his retirement in 1918 when he became Archibald Spencer Emeritus Professor of Philosophy; M.A. Amherst 1884, Ph.D. 1896; LL.D. Knox 1914; made his home in New York City 1918–1925, and then returned to Schenectady; member state board of moving picture censors 1924–25; lectured at Cornell University occasionally; author: The Sphere of the State (1894, 1898), The Sphere of Science (1898), Psychology of Common Life (1904, 1907), The Sphere of Religion (1908), and Tales of Hoffman (1926); contributed to North American Review, International Journal of Ethics, Popular Science Monthly, and Outlook, fellow American Association for the Advancement of Science; member American Philosophical Society, American Psychological Society, American Political Science Association, Institute of Social Sciences, American Academy of Political Science, National Institute of Social Sciences, and First Reformed Church, Schenectady

Married (1) June 23, 1887, in New York City, Jessie Blossom, daughter of Henry and Eunice P. (Knight) Lathrop Children: Emma Louise Booth, the wife of Ransom R. Micks (B.A. Union 1911); and Grace May (B.A. Smith 1912), who married Jesse Willis Amey (M.D. New York University 1907), and died in 1924. Mrs. Hoffman died December 18, 1893 Married (2) April 25, 1900, in Schenectady, Rebecca Russell, daughter of the Rev. Robert Trail Spence Lowell (B.A. Harvard 1833, D.D Union 1864) and Mary Ann (Duane) Lowell Mrs. Hoffman died October 24, 1927

Death due to cerebral apoplexy and arteriosclerosis Buried in Vale Cemetery, Schenectady Survived by daughter, four grandchildren, and a sister, Miss Grace M. Hoffman, of Schenectady.

David Dyffrynog Jenkins, B.D. 1881.

Born May 9, 1849, in Merthyr Tydfil, South Wales
Died August 4, 1928, in Wilkes Barre, Pa.

Father, David William Jenkins, who came from South Wales to Wilkes Barre in 1867. Mother, Ann (Nicholas) Jenkins.
Obituary Record

Wyoming Seminary, Kingston, Pa.; non-graduate member of Princeton Class of 1877 (Class poet); graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary 1880; entered Yale Divinity School as a Senior in 1880, ordained to Presbyterian ministry, Baltimore, Md., November 29, 1881; pastor First Presbyterian Church, Frostburg, Md., 1882–85; had been in ill health since 1885, resided at Uniondale, Pa., 1888–1903; pastor Presbyterian Church, Smithville Flats, N. Y., 1903–05; had since lived in Wilkes Barre, with the exception of 1908–1913 in Forest City, Pa., member of Lackawanna Presbytery Married December 6, 1881, in Whites Valley, Pa., Laverne, daughter of John Bennett and Mary Ann (Hull) Sherwood. Children: Albert Sherwood (died in 1900), and Harriet Marjorie (B P State Teachers' College, Westchester, Pa., 1910, M P 1911), wife of Thomas M. Evans. Mrs. Jenkins died December 20, 1898.

George Washington Trimble, B.D. 1881.

Born September 9, 1855, in Bucyrus, Ohio
Died August 10, 1928, in Sacramento, Calif

Preparatory training received at Beloit College Academy; B A Beloit 1878, studied in Yale Divinity School 1878–1881 and 1882–83, member Yale Dakota Band; ordained to Congregational ministry and served as pastor of churches in Oregon and Washington; engaged in research work 1881–1904 in various places in California; taught in Sacramento, Calif., 1889, subsequently engaged as a consulting engineer on asphalt and concrete tests of material and construction in Sacramento, testing engineer for city of Sacramento 1911–13 (superintended the equipment of a laboratory for testing of materials used in road work and building construction), and inspector on highway construction 1921 and 1922.

Married

Death, due to arteriosclerosis and myocarditis, occurred at the Sacramento Hospital. Buried in Masonic Lawn Cemetery, Sacramento. Survived by a daughter, Mrs Roy G. Russell, of Sacramento.

John Michael Holzinger, B.D. 1882.

Born May 14, 1853, in Hachtel, Wurttemburg, Germany
Died May 31, 1929, in Winona, Minn

Father, Godfrey Holzinger, a carpenter and contractor, born in Germany and came to America about 1867
Mother, Marie (Schmitt) Holzinger; born in Germany

Preparatory training received at Realschule, Kunselson, Wurttemburg; B.A and M.S Olivet College 1879; studied in Yale Divinity School 1879–1882; professor of natural science and curator of the scientific collection at State Normal School, Winona, from 1882 until his retirement in 1918, also held an appointment as assistant botanist with the Department of Agriculture (botanical division) at Washington, D.C., 1890–93; had engaged in study of North American mosses since his retirement and had issued a series of 671 pamphlets on mosses, which were subscribed for by universities in this country and abroad; his large collection of mosses has now been purchased by the University of Minnesota, member First Congregational Church, Winona

Married June 4, 1884, in Winona, Sarah, daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth (Kennedy) Ritchie, of Canada Two sons: Karl (B.A University of Minnesota 1915, M.A 1917; Ph.D. University of Chicago 1922) and Donald Death due to chronic endocarditis Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Winona. Survived by wife, two sons, and a brother, Godfrey A. Holzinger, '94 D

George Martin Duncan, B.D. 1884.

Born November 26, 1857, in Haledon, N.J.
Died July 26, 1928, in Fair Lawn, N.J.

Father, James Duncan, a farmer; came from Newhills, Scotland, in 1844, and settled at Paterson, N.J., son of David and Isabella (Farquhar) Duncan Mother, Jean Martin (Torbet) Duncan; daughter of Francis Torbet, who came from Stony Wood, Scotland, in 1836, settled in Morristown, and later moved to Paterson, and Jean (Martin) Torbet.

Paterson Seminary; B A. New York University 1881, M.A. 1884 (honorable mention Junior oration, Junior regent Inter-collegiate Literary Association, president Eucleian, winner of Eucleian Prize 1880–81, English salutatory, member Psi Upsilon and Phi Beta Kappa); attended Yale Divinity School 1881–85 (graduate fellow in divinity and philosophy 1884–85; honorable mention John Addison Porter Prize), studied at University of Jena 1885, University of Leipzig 1885–86, University of Berlin 1886–87, and Paris 1887–88; had since been connected with Yale; instructor in mental and moral philosophy 1888–1891, assistant professor 1891–94, professor 1894–1904; professor of logic and metaphysics 1904–1923, and professor emeritus since then; LL.D. New York University 1901; chairman of section on logic at World’s Congress of Arts and Sciences, St. Louis, 1904; translator and editor of the Philosophical Works of Leibnitz (1890, 1908); contributor to Memoirs of President Porter (Dr. Porter as a Philosopher) (1893), and to Philosophical Review, Psychological Reviews, Kant Studien, and Journal of Philosophy; editorial writer for New York Examiner 1883; fellow of American Association for the Advancement of Science; member American Philosophical Society (chairman of organization committee and member of first council), American Psychological Association (member council 1903–06), Connecticut Academy of Arts and Sciences, and Church of Christ in Yale University.

Married August 29, 1889, Mary Abigail Carter (B L. Smith 1886), daughter of Theodore Russell and Sarah (Bernardine) Carter No children Mrs Duncan died November 19, 1927

Death due to pulmonary tuberculosis. Buried in Cedar Lawn Cemetery, Paterson, N J. Survived by two sisters, Mrs Garret H. Demarest and Miss Christine Duncan, of Fair Lawn, N J Ursinus Olevianus Mohr, B.D. 1884.

Born July 7, 1859, in Williamsport, Pa
Died January 11, 1929, in Baltimore, Md

Father, Franklin John Mohr, a minister of the Reformed Church. Mother, Catherine (Coppel) Mohr

B.A. Franklin and Marshall 1880 (member Phi Kappa Sigma); studied in Yale Divinity School 1881–84 and 1891–92, ordained to the Congregational ministry at Eagle Rock, Conn., February 27, 1887; pastor West Torrington, Conn, 1887–88; Ferry Street Congregational Church, New Haven, 1892–93; First Congregational Church, Georgetown, Conn., 1894 to 1899, when he retired; lived in Branchville, Conn, until 1925, and since then in Baltimore; had served as superintendent of New York Life Fresh Air Home at Branchville, since 1925; member Georgetown Congregational Church.

Married August 14, 1878, in Lancaster, Pa, Mary, daughter of Jacob and Maria (Gast) Shirk One son, Dwight Harold (M.D. Maryland Medical College 1909).

Death due to angina pectoris and arteriosclerosis Buried in Lancaster, Pa. Survived by wife and son

George Evan Paddock, B.D. 1885.

Born July 5, 1854, in Livonia, Mich
Died November 26, 1928, in Charleston, S C

B.A. Olivet 1882; studied in Yale Divinity School 1882–85, ordained to Congregational ministry September 22, 1885, at Argentine, Kans., where he held a pastorate, pastor Presbyterian Church, Northville, Mich, 1887–88; Minneapolis, Minn., 1888–1892; Third Congregational Church, Denver, Colo., 1892–96; Vermilion, S. Dak.; First Congregational Church, Boise, Idaho; and Hassalo Street Congregational Church, Portland, Ore.; superintendent of home missions for Oregon 1910–16; pastor Tryon, N C., 1916–17, Circular Congregational Church, Charleston, S. C., from 1917 until his retirement 1926; had since been pastor emeritus and lived on a farm near Charleston; D.D. Tabor 1905.

Married.
Death, due to hernia, occurred at Roper Hospital, Charleston. Buried in Circular Congregational churchyard.

Edward Roberts, B.D. 1885.

Born May 5, 1856, in Salem, Cardiganshire, North Wales
Died September 22, 1928, in Olean, N Y

Father, David Roberts, a mason and carpenter. Mother, Margaret (Davies) Roberts.

Attended Bala College, Bangor, North Wales; entered Yale upon his arrival in America in 1883; ordained to Congregational ministry September 2, 1886, at Farmersville, N Y.; had since served as pastor in western New York; at Farmersville and Fairview 1886–1891; Java and Java Village 1891–1902, subsequently at Strykersville, Friendship, Johnsonburg (1914–17), and at Black Creek (1902–09, part time 1917–1925, and 1925–28).

Married August 15, 1889, in New Hudson, N Y., Belle, daughter of Benjamin and Evelyn Catherine (Carmer) Van Fleet. Children. Benjamin (died 1916), and Lena (Mrs Charles H Rich)

Death due to shock and paralysis, resulting from fracture of the spine. Buried in Black Creek (N. Y.) Cemetery
Survived by wife, daughter, and three grandchildren

Howard Allen Bridgman, B.D. 1887.

Born August 20, 1860, in Northampton, Mass
Died March 16, 1929, in Shirley Centre, Mass

Father, Sidney Edwin Bridgman, a bookseller; son of Sylvester and Betsy (Clapp) Bridgman; descended from James Bridgman, who came from Winchester, England, to Hartford, Conn, prior to 1640 Mother, Harriet (Phelps) Bridgman; daughter of Timothy Allen and Thankful (Cleaveland) Phelps; descended from William Phelps, who came from England to Nantucket, Mass., in 1630.

Northampton (Mass) High School; B.A. Amherst 1883 (editor of Amherst Student two years, member Psi Upsilon
Benson Newell Wyman, B.D. 1891.

Born June 17, 1863, in Conneaut, Ohio.
Died October 17, 1928, in Canandaigua, N.Y.

Father, Orrin Tertius Wyman (graduated Meadville Theological Seminary 1859), minister of Christian Church; president of Erie Conference and of State Christian Association; trustee of Christian Bible Institute; son of Oliver and Emily (Morse) Wyman; descendant of Francis Wyman, who came from England between 1620 and 1640, and was an original settler of Woburn, Mass. Mother, Tacy Victoria (Putnam) Wyman; daughter of Newell and Lucy (Winchell) Putnam; descendant of John Putnam, who came from Astor Abbotts, County of Bucks, England, to Danvers, Mass., about 1634.

Oberlin College preparatory department, B.A. Oberlin 1886; taught classics in Lakemont Seminary, Starkey, N. Y., 1886-87; attended Yale Divinity School 1888-1891; stated supply, Emory, S. Dak, summer of 1890; ordained to Congregational ministry October 20, 1891, at Baldwin, Wis, and pastor there until 1893; pastor Sinclairsville, N. Y., 1893-97; First Congregational Church, Savannah, N. Y., 1897-1905, and Salamanca, N. Y., 1905-1912; Sinclairville 1913-18, and Lenox, Mass., 1918-1927; retired in 1927, but had since preached occasionally in First Congregational Church, Canandaigua, in West Bloomfield, and other towns in the vicinity; moderator of South Berkshire Association of Congregational Churches of Massachusetts 1921-22, and 1923; represented the Association as delegate to National Council of Congregational Churches, at Los Angeles, Calif, in 1921, and to State Conference in Springfield, Mass, in 1920; secretary New York branch of Alumni Association of Divinity School 1916-17; published sermons and articles on travel.

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Canandaigua. Survived by wife and two sons.

William Marston Weeks, B.D. 1896.

Born June 14, 1859, at Marstons Mills, Mass
Died August 30, 1928, in Tiverton, R. I.

Father, Robinson Weeks, blacksmith and music director; son of Senas Weeks Mother, Sylvia (Lovell) Weeks.

Greenwich (Mass) Academy; attended Meadville Theological Seminary 1876–78, Tufts Divinity School 1878–1880, Newton Theological Institution 1880–81, and Yale Divinity School 1895–96; ordained to Baptist ministry April 7, 1881, at St. John, N. B., where he was pastor of Germain Street Baptist Church 1881–82; pastor Bunker Hill Baptist Church, Charlestown, Mass., 1882; Baptist Church, Rock, Mass., 1883–84; Second Baptist Church, East Cambridge, Mass., 1884–87; at Plaistow, N. H., 1887–88; Miles City, Mont., 1888–89; Easton, Conn., 1889–1891; Livingston, Mont., 1891–92; superintendent of schools, Miles City, Mont., 1892–93; pastor at Easton, Conn., 1894–98; principal high school, Woodbury, Conn., 1899–1900; pastor, First Congregational Church, Chester Center, Mass., 1901–04; Andover, Conn., 1904–07; studied at Cumberland University (LL B 1908), and at University of Maine (LL B 1909, LL M 1910); pastor Congregational Church, Shullsburg, Wis., 1910–1916, and Amicable Congregational Church, Tiverton, R.I., 1916–1928.

Death due to fracture of skull, was struck by an automobile. Buried at Marstons Mills. Survived by wife and son.

Warren Morse, B.D. 1899.

Born July 9, 1860, in Dover, N. H.
Died June 11, 1929, in Denver, Colo.

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.

Paul Moore Strayer, B.D. 1903.

Born December 30, 1871, in Edesville, Md.
Died April 3, 1929, in Rochester, N. Y.

Father, Webster Matthew Strayer, a Methodist Protestant minister; president of Maryland Conference three years, and of Board of Home Missions; several times delegate to general.
Obituary Record

conference; son of Jacob Seifert and Sarah Ann (O'Burn) Strayer; descendant of John Strayer (Hannes Stroether), who came from Starkenburg, Germany, to Pennsylvania in 1727. Mother, Martha (Bevan) Strayer; daughter of John and Sarah Ann (Smulhns) Bevan; descendant of Rowland Bevan, who came from Wales to Maryland in 1650.

Baltimore City College; taught in public schools of Baltimore; officer in city union of Christian Endeavor; conducted children's column in the Methodist Protestant; lectured on temperance, supplied in People's Church, Kansas City, summer of 1896; ordained by Methodist Protestant Conference of Pittsburgh, Pa., May, 1897; studied at University of Chicago 1896–97; pastor First Methodist Protestant Church, Pittsburgh, 1897–98; studied in Yale Divinity School 1898–99 (preached at Somers, Conn) and 1902–03; at University of Edinburgh 1899–1900, and at University of Bonn; served as pastor of the Crouch Hill Presbyterian Church, London, England, for several months in 1900; pastor First Congregational Church, South Norwalk, Conn, 1900–03; installed pastor of Third Presbyterian Church, Rochester, N Y, in November, 1903, and served until 1925, when he became pastor emeritus (had retired temporarily in 1923 on account of ill health and suffered a relapse when he attempted to resume work the next year); organized Social Service Department of Third Presbyterian Church in 1912, and People's Sunday Evening Meetings, Rochester, 1908–1916; president of Social Service Commission of Presbyterian Church 1917–19, served as fraternal delegate from the Ministerial Association of Rochester to Central Trades and Labor Council, for several years from 1907; director Rochester Orphans' Home 1905–1925 and International Reform Movement about 1920, engaged in social service work for the Y. M. C A in various cantonments along the coast and in the South during 1917–18; member War Time Commission of Federal Council of Churches, and of regional food commissions; author: The Reconstruction of the Church with Regard to Its Message and Program (1915), A Sheaf of Prayers (1926), and Miniature Sermons (1928); D.D University of Rochester 1915; member of Commission Government Association, Chamber of Commerce, Prohibition Committee of Twenty-five, of Rochester; a founder and first president of Rochester City Club; official visitor to School of Industry.

Married (1) October 11, 1899, in Baltimore, Md., Beulah Gilbert (attended Women's College, Baltimore, and Maryland Institute of Art), daughter of Jarrett Nelson and Lydia (Lauder) Gilbert. One son, Paul Gilbert (attended Oberlin 1921–22, Western Maryland College 1922–24) Mrs. Strayer died February 27, 1903. Married (2) May 15, 1912, in Brooklyn, N. Y., Emily (Betts) Loomis (B. L. Smith 1896) (widow of Horace A. Loomis, '96), daughter of Edward Richmond Betts, '66, and Emma (Whitney) Betts, and sister of Roland W. Betts, '00 S.

Death due to lobar pneumonia and Parkinson's disease. Buried in Druid Ridge Cemetery, Baltimore, Md. Survived by wife, son, three brothers, the Rev. Charlton B. Strayer, of Norwalk, Conn., Webster M. Strayer, of Baltimore, and Col. Seibert Strayer, United States Army, and two sisters, Mrs. John Kronmiller, of Baltimore, and Mrs. William Myers, of Oxford, Md.

Robert Cheney Mansfield, B.D. 1926.

Born August 10, 1901, in New Haven, Conn.
Died March 3, 1929, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, William Frederick Mansfield; president of F. Mansfield & Sons Company, oyster dealers; trustee of East Pearl Street Methodist Church and Methodist Church Home; son of Frederick and Emily (Barnes) Mansfield; descendant of Richard Mansfield, who came from Exeter, Devonshire, England, and settled in Quinnipiac (now New Haven) in 1639.

Mother, Annie Emeline (Robertson) Mansfield; daughter of William and Evangeline (Palmer) Robertson; descendant of Henry William Robertson, who came from Scotland to Ottawa, Canada. Yale relatives include: Moses Mansfield (B.A. 1730) and Richard Mansfield (B.A. 1741) (great-great-great-uncles); Achilles Mansfield (B.A. 1770) (great-great-uncle); and Robert B. Trench, '29 S. (cousin).

New Haven High School; B.A. Wesleyan 1923 (member of Senate, chairman of Honor System Committee, Class Treasurer, on University and Class Baseball teams, University Basketball Squad and Class Basketball Team, Class Football Team, member Y. M. C. A Cabinet, treasurer of College Church, vice-president William James Club, secretary Oxford Club, president Gamma Psi [Phi Sigma Kappa], and member Phi Beta Kappa); studied in Yale Divinity School 1923–26 (vice-president of his Class), during that period served as an assistant at East Pearl Street Methodist Church 1923–24, assisted the Rev. Franklin J. Kennedy of First Methodist Episcopal Church 1925–26, and served as president of Epworth League, New Haven District, and as vice-president and president of Wesley Club at Yale; assistant in sociology at Yale and student in Divinity School 1926–27; had charge of Henry Wright Cottage; licensed to preach by New York East Conference 1927, and ordained deacon April 15, 1928; since June, 1927, had been pastor of First Methodist Episcopal Church, Wallingford, Conn.; had served as secretary for his Divinity School Class since 1926, member board of governors of Young Men's Athletic Club, Inc., of Wallingford since 1928

Unmarried.

Death, due to meningococcus meningitis, occurred at New Haven Hospital. Buried in Fair Haven Union Cemetery. Survived by parents, two brothers, Frederick W. and Kenneth R. Mansfield, both of New Haven, a sister, Mrs. Robert P. Bedell, of Bound Brook, N. J., and a half sister, Mrs. Harry K. Rowe, of Worcester, Mass.
SUPPLEMENT

NOTICES OF DEATHS PRIOR TO JULY 1, 1928
NOT PREVIOUSLY REPORTED

YALE COLLEGE

George Thorncliffe Sperry, B.A. 1872.

Born March 15, 1850, in Marbledale, Conn
Died June 10, 1926, in New Milford, Conn.

Father, George Sperry, a merchant; son of Wilmot and Dolly (Whittlesey) Sperry, descendant of Gilleod Sperry, who came to this country from England. Mother, Nancy Sophronia (Tomlinson) Sperry; daughter of Abijah and Betsey (Tomlinson) Tomlinson; descendant of David Tomlinson, who came to America from England and settled near Derby, Conn.

Hopkins Grammar School Second dispute appointment Junior year; second colloquy appointment Senior year; member College Choir, '72 Glee Club, Delta Kappa, and Psi Upsilon

Engaged in mercantile business with his brother, Edward O. Sperry, in Marbledale 1873-1884; also served as postmaster of the town during that period; engaged in wheat farming in Red River Valley of North Dakota 1884-1890; then returned to Marbledale and was engaged in tobacco business as member of firm of Sperry Brothers, until his retirement in 1915; had since lived in New Milford summers, and in St. Petersburg, Fla., winters, member of Washington (Conn.) School Committee 1898-1901, and represented his town in the General Assembly 1905 and 1911

Unmarried

Death due to apoplexy. Buried in New Preston, Conn.
No immediate survivors.
Obituary Record

George Douglas Munson, B.A. 1879.

Born July 5, 1856, in Wallingford, Conn.
Died June 27, 1928, in Wallingford, Conn.

Father, Medad Douglas Munson, a leather manufacturer; son of Medad Ward and Henrietta (Dutton) Munson; descendant of Samuel Munson; descended also from Thomas Munson, who came from England to Hartford in 1637 and was an original settler of New Haven in 1638, and from William Douglas, who took part in the Revolutionary War. Mother, Laura Sophia (Gordon) Munson; daughter of Washington and Tryphena (Augur) Gordon.

Hopkins Grammar School First dispute appointments Junior and Senior years; member Class Baseball Team, University Football Team Freshman year, and Linonia.

In the employ of Wallace & Sons Manufacturing Company (silversmiths) in Wallingford 1879–1881; subsequently spent some time with G. I. Mix Company, manufacturers of tin ware, in Yalesville, Conn; treasurer of Watrous Manufacturing Company of Wallingford from its organization in 1896 until 1898, when it was taken over by International Silver Company; served as manager of the latter company's factory in Wallingford until his death; also manager of their factory in Meriden, Conn. (the William Rogers Manufacturing Company), since 1903; second vice-president of the company 1912–19, first vice-president since 1919, and member of board of directors since 1898; director of Dime Savings Bank of Wallingford since 1901 and first vice-president since 1926; member of Congregational Church, Wallingford.

Married June 16, 1884, in New York City, Mary Atkinson, daughter of John Craig Clark (B.A. Bowdoin 1842) and Jeanne (Dunlop) Clark. Children: Marjory Jean, wife of Rosewell G. Rolston (B.A Princeton 1910), and Craig Douglas, '20.

Death due to heart disease. Buried in In Memoriam Cemetery, Wallingford Survived by wife, daughter, son, four grandchildren, and an adopted sister, Miss Mabel Munson, of Meriden.
Sheldon Pharis Patterson, B.A. 1881.

Born August 15, 1859, in Huron, Ohio
Died June 20, 1928, in Saratoga, Calif

Father, Austin Leroy Patterson, business manager of Chicago Times; son of Norman and Eliza (Fox) Patterson, great-great-grandson of John Patterson, who moved from Scotland to the North of Ireland, and whose son, Adam Patterson, came to America from Ulster, in 1730 Mother, Mary Elizabeth (Pharis) Patterson; daughter of Isaac and Lavina (Root) Pharis, whose ancestors came from England and settled in Connecticut.

Chicago High School Second dispute appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year, treasurer of Class Boat Club; member Class Day Committee, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Studied law in Chicago 1881-83, and was admitted to Illinois Bar in 1883, but never practiced; spent the year 1883-84 on a ranch in California; engaged in journalism in Chicago 1884-1912; connected with Times as business manager 1884-1895 (also editorial writer for Evening Journal 1892-95), founded the Globe in 1895 and was connected with it for the next two years, assistant editorial writer for Times-Herald 1897-1902, and chief editorial writer for its successor Record-Herald 1902-1912, had lived in California since 1912; owned an orange grove in Fair Oaks for a time, lived in San José 1912-15, and then moved to Saratoga; served as school trustee and clerk of school board of Saratoga 1920-28, president of Saratoga Improvement Association, member Saratoga Library Building Committee, Saratoga War Council, and was active in Liberty Loan, Red Cross, and Y. M. C. A. drives, the Saratoga Library building, completed in 1928, has been named the Sheldon P. Patterson Memorial Library in his honor.

Married (1) July 17, 1897, in Chicago, Marian Elizabeth Clark Austin, daughter of Erastus Washburn and Almira (Fox) Clark. Mrs. Patterson died June 22, 1923. Married (2) March 11, 1927, in Saratoga, Lillian Roberts Deming, daughter of Charles and Mary Matilda (McKenzie) Roberts. No children by either marriage.
Obituary Record

Death due to heart failure. Cremated, and ashes buried in Graceland Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife (died August 27, 1928).

Born July 15, 1861, in Bennington, Vt.
Died April 26, 1928, in Miami, Fla

Father, William Bates; engaged in business in Bennington; of English ancestry Mother, Melissa Roberts (Scribner) Bates; daughter of Josiah and Hannah (Roberts) Scribner. Nephew, William L Bates, '12

Bennington High School. Second dispute appointment Junior year, first colloquy appointment Senior year; member Gamma Nu and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Studied law in Chicago after graduation from Yale and was admitted to the bar in 1883; practiced law in Chicago in partnership with his classmate, Frank E. Page, 1883–85; then went to Florida on account of ill health, and practiced there a year; returned to Chicago in 1886 and resumed practice, at first as member of firm of Mason, Ennis & Bates, and later independently; was obliged to give up practice on account of partial blindness, had been a member of Illinois Militia Married September 21, 1886, in Derby, Conn, Minnie Lydia, daughter of Dr Charles Frederick Couch (attended Berkshire Medical College) and Alice (Montville) Couch. Children Alice, Melissa and Winnifred Roberts.

Death, due to carcinoma of the intestines, occurred at Jackson Memorial Hospital. Buried in the family plot at Bennington. Survived by wife, two daughters, and a brother, Edward L Bates, of Bennington Richard Ellis, B.A. 1885.

Born October 13, 1862, in New York City.
Died March 31, 1928, in Nice, France

Father, Levi Ellis, a merchant Mother, Charlotte Rachel (Purdy) Ellis; daughter of Lewis and Mary Ann (Hart) Purdy, descendant of Capt Obadiah Purdy, an officer in the Revolutionary War
Supplement

Peekskill Military Academy and Hudson River Institute. Dissertation appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; financial editor of the Yale Courant; member Class Ivy Committee and Psi Upsilon.

Taught at Peekskill Military Academy 1885–86; studied at Medical College of New York University 1886–88 (M.D. 1888); interne at Bellevue and St. Catherine's hospitals, New York City, 1888–89; practiced medicine in Danbury, Conn., 1889–1896 and in Utica, N.Y., for a time; chief medical examiner for Equitable Life Assurance Society from about 1900 to 1909; then resumed medical practice in New York; later practiced in Troy, N.Y., and was subsequently located in Hemet, Los Angeles, and Santa Barbara, Calif.; contributed to medical journals; M.A. 1905; member Connecticut State, Fairfield County, and Danbury Medical associations, and Sons of the Revolution.

Took his own life. Buried in Caucade English Cemetery, Nice. His wife survives him.

James Ormerod Heyworth, B.A. 1888.

Born June 12, 1866, in Chicago, Ill
Died March 15, 1928, in Lake Forest, Ill

Father, James Ormerod Heyworth, a graduate of St John’s College, Cambridge University; Captain in Fourth West York Regiment of militia; born in England and came to Chicago in 1860; son of Lawrence and Betty (Aked) Heyworth.

Mother, Julia Frances (Dimon) Heyworth, daughter of George and Frances (Hubbell) Dimon Yale relatives include a nephew, J. French Waterman, ’26.

South Division High School, Chicago Member Freshman Baseball Team, University Baseball Squad, Junior Promenade Committee, Eta Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

In employ of Chicago City Railway 1888–89; superintendent of Knickerbocker Ice Company of Chicago 1889–
1894; in 1894 built the Coliseum in Chicago and was its president and manager for two years; member of contracting firm of Christie, Lowe & Heyworth 1896–1903 (superintendent for the firm of harbor improvements at Port Arthur, Texas, and Fernandina, Fla, for the United States Government, and locks and dams on Warrior River, Alabama), engaged in independent practice as an engineer and general contractor since 1904 (business incorporated under his name about 1923); the drag line excavator was one of his inventions, for the past twenty years had specialized in hydroelectric plants, his contracts included track elevation work for all principal railroad systems entering Chicago; dredging part of Chicago Drainage Canal, 2,000-foot inter-city bridge between St. Paul and Minneapolis; 4,500-foot North Hill Viaduct, Akron, Ohio; Jefferson Street Bridge, South Bend, Ind; approximately two hundred and fifty miles of concrete road in Illinois and North Carolina; hydroelectric plants for Great Lakes Power Company, Sault Ste. Marie, Canada; Olympia Power Company, Port Angeles, Wash.; Sturgeon Falls, Canada; Boney Falls Development, Escanaba, Mich; Marathon Paper Mills, Rothschild, Wis.; Wisconsin River Power Company, Prairie du Sac, Wis.; La Crosse Light and Power Company, Milwaukee, Wis.; Blanchard Rapids Development, Electric Bond and Share Company, near Royalton, Minn.; Jim Falls Development, Jim Falls, Wis., Fox River Development, near Ottawa, Ill., built the Winton Building, Chicago, the first reinforced concrete structure in the city in 1904, had since built City Hall Square Building, Garland, Harvester and Musical College buildings; had also built blast furnaces and ore docks, and during the war constructed cantonments and hospitals at Great Lakes, Ill., for United States Bureau of Yards and Docks, president and treasurer of Michigan Avenue Company and City Hall Square Company, of Harvester Office Company 1923–28 (secretary and treasurer 1908–1923); of Wabash & Washington Trust Company until his death; director of Wood Ship Division of United States Shipping Board, Emergency Fleet Corporation, November, 1917–January, 1919 (at Washington until May, 1918, and then at Philadelphia); chairman Chicago Yachtsmen's Naval Auxiliary for several months in 1917 before it was turned over to the United States Navy; president of Chicago Engineers' Club 1910–13, director First National Bank of Lake Forest 1915–1928; commodore Chicago Yacht Club 1910 and 1913, first vice-president Onwentsia Club 1923–26; vice-president of Izaak Walton League of America 1923–24 and 1925, and a director (president Chicago branch 1924 and 1926), chairman zoning commission, Lake Forest, 1926–27; chairman committee on water transportation in Commercial Club 1923–24 (member 1924–26), city engineer of Lake Forest ten years; vice-president of Yale Engineering Association 1922–24; president of Yale Club of Chicago 1919–1920; member of Yale Alumni Advisory Board since 1921, and on executive committee of the Board since 1923; director of Harvard-Yale-Princeton Club in Chicago 1924; member of Yale Committee for Participation in the Restoration of the Library of the University of Louvain 1924; chairman of North Central Division of Yale's $20,000,-000 Endowment Campaign 1927; member American Society of Civil Engineers, Western Society of Engineers, Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers, Chicago Historical Society, Geographical Society of Chicago, and Church of the Holy Spirit (Episcopal), Lake Forest (vestryman 1902–1928)

Death due to an abscess on the lung; had been ill since August, 1927, and had just returned from Phoenix, Ariz., where he had been living since December. Buried in Graceland Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife, daughter, son, a brother, Lawrence Heyworth, '90 S., and a sister, Mrs Sydney R. Heap, of Churchstoke, Montgomeryshire, Wales.
Obituary Record

Born June 18, 1873, in St. Louis, Mo
Died April 5, 1928, in New York City.

Father, Huntington Smith, a graduate of the United States Naval Academy in 1868; son of Hamilton Smith (B.A. Dartmouth 1829), a lawyer, and Louise Elizabeth (Rudd) Smith. Mother, Laura Isabella (Griswold) Smith; daughter of William Dickinson Griswold (B.A. Middlebury 1836) and Maria Mosby (Lancaster) Griswold.

Preparatory training received at Christian Brothers College, St. Louis. Entered Yale as a Sophomore in 1893; member College Choir, Glee Club, and Zeta Psi.

After graduation from Yale began study of law at Washington University, St. Louis, but interrupted his course there to serve in Spanish-American War; enlisted in Battery A, Missouri Volunteers, April, 1898; mustered into service May 10 and served in Porto Rico until September; mustered out December 2; LL.B. Washington University 1898, having previously passed the bar examinations; practiced law in Washington, D.C., for a few months in 1899; with law firm of Howland & Murray and its successor, Howland, Murray & Prentice, New York City, 1899-1902, having been admitted to New York Bar July, 1900; member of law firm of Smith & Koerner and its successor, Holmes, Blair, Smith & Koerner, St. Louis, 1902-05; in 1905 became engaged in stock and bond brokerage business in New York City in partnership with Victor Sutro, '97, and Laurance Tweedy, '99, under firm name of Sutro, Tweedy & Company, but retired from the firm about two years later and engaged in farming on his family estate in Castleton, Vt., until 1919, had subsequently been with United States Rubber Company of New York; had also served as president, treasurer, and director of Quick Tire Service of Delaware (a subsidiary of United States Tire Company) and of a number of affiliated corporations in New York, Kentucky, Tennessee, and Arkansas, and of Atlantic Tire Service, Inc.; president and director of Newsum Auto Tire Vulcan Company of Arkansas; president of Huntington Real Estate Company in Missouri; secretary and attorney for Citizens' Industrial Association of St. Louis 1903-05; member Sons of the Revolution, Society of Mayflower Descendants, and Society of Colonial Wars

Lloyd Grosvenor Hall, B.A. 1921.

Born July 9, 1899, in Norwich, Conn.
Died March 28, 1928, in Norwich, Conn.

Father, Joseph Henry Hall (special student, Harvard, 1889-1892), secretary of Joseph Hall & Son, Inc., woolen manufacturers. Mother, Grace Manning (Smith) Hall.

Norwich Free Academy Private in Yale R O. T. C 1917
Studied at the Philadelphia Textile School September, 1921–January, 1922; had since been connected with Joseph Hall & Son, Inc., first as a clerk, and since 1926 as second vice-president; had also been a director of the company
Unmarried

Death due to a fractured skull received in an automobile accident Buried in Maplewood Cemetery, Norwich Survived by parents and a brother, Joseph H Hall, Jr., '20 S

Edward Boyd Stewart, B.A. 1926.

Born December 3, 1903, in Dallas, Texas
Died May 19, 1928, in Dallas, Texas

Father, Robert Henry Stewart, former president of City National Bank of Dallas; son of Charles T and Elizabeth (Boyd) Stewart Mother, Ada (Rauch) Stewart, daughter of Jacob and Emma (Cassity) Rauch; descendant of John Jacob Rauch, who came to this country from Stuttgart, Germany, in 1818, and settled in Philadelphia

Terrill School, Dallas, and Hotchkiss School. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon

Since graduation had been a clerk in statistical department of Commercial Standard Fire Insurance Company, of Dallas; member First Presbyterian Church, Dallas.
Obituary Record

Unmarried.

Death due to an accidental gunshot wound Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Dallas. Survived by parents, two brothers, Robert H. Stewart, Jr, '17, and Charles J. Stewart, '18, and two sisters, Mrs. William W. Caruth, of Dallas, and Mrs. Clarence W. Robinson, of Shreveport, La.
Rafael Espinosa y Escallón, Ph.B. 1854.

Born November 28, 1829, in Bogotá, Colombia, S A
Died February 3, 1917, in Bogotá, Colombia, S A

Father, Bonifacio Espinosa de los Monteros y Quevedo, a farmer; connected with the War Department during secretaryship and presidency of General Santander and was his private secretary; son of Bruno Espinosa de los Monteros and Blasina Quevedo; grandson of Antonio Espinosa de los Monteros, who was sent to New Granada by the King of Spain to serve in the first printing office there. Mother, Rita (Escallón y Castillo) Espinosa; daughter of Antonio Josef Escallón y Flores and Maria (Gregoria del Castillo Sanz de Santa Maria) Escallón.

Colegio de la Concordia, Bogotá; Mr. Hall’s School, Ellington, Conn., and also in Plainfield, Mass. Entered Sheffield Scientific School 1851; engineering course.

Returned to his home in Bogotá after graduation from Yale and devoted himself to civil engineering and architectural work there; constructed Elbers House, Bogotá, 1860, and Sesquila Bridge 1889; professor of mathematics and rector of faculty of National University 1885-1891; superintendent of Sabana Railroad 1891-94, and in charge of construction and repairing of roads in Department of Cundinamarca for several years; in 1886 reestablished Engineering School, which had been closed for many years; promoted establishment of Sociedad de Ingenieros á Colombia (also a member); director of National Museum, Bogotá, 1905-1910; member Roman Catholic Church.

Married December 24, 1856, in Calamar, State of Bolivar, Manuela Posada y Bravo, of Santa Marta, Magdalena, daughter of Gen. Joaquin Posada Gutressez and Concepcion Bravo. Children: Teresa Espinosa Posada, who married Fernando Conde and died in 1905; Antonio Espinosa Posada (studied at Keferstein’s Institut, Jena, and Beckmann’s, Bremen, Germany, and St. Charles College, London); Joaquin Espinosa Posada (died 1887); Alejandrina Espinosa Posada.
Obituary Record

(died in childhood), and Manuelita Espinosa Posada (died in childhood). Mrs. Escallón died in February, 1919.

Death due to the infirmities of age. Buried in Cemeterio Viejo, Bogotá. Survived by one son, two grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren.

Hezekiah Bissell, Ph.B. 1861.

Born February 7, 1835, in East Windsor, Conn.
Died June 28, 1928, in Pasadena, Calif.

Father, John Bissell, a farmer; descended from John Bissell, who escaped from France after the Massacre of St. Bartholomew’s Day, remained in England until 1628, and was one of the first settlers in Windsor, Conn. Mother, Elizabeth (Thompson) Bissell, daughter of John McKnight and Sabra (Allen) Thompson; descended from William Thompson, who came from Scotland to Windsor, Conn., about 1718.

Yale relatives include a nephew, Willis M. Thayer, ’96 S.

East Windsor Academy and Williston Academy Entered Sheffield Scientific School in 1859; civil engineering course; left in spring of 1861 to enlist in the Army; degree granted 1881, with enrollment in Class of 1861.

Served in Civil War as Private in Company A, 1st Regiment, Connecticut Volunteers, April–July, 1861; served in Company G, 25th Regiment, August, 1862–August, 1863 (commissioned First Lieutenant September 4, 1862); with General Banks in Louisiana campaign, engaged in siege of Port Hudson, and Battle of Bayou Teche; subsequently practiced his profession of civil engineering until his retirement in 1910; with Union Pacific Railroad during its construction 1864–69; with Adirondack Railroad 1869–1872; with Puno & Cuzco Railroad in Peru 1872–74; with Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St Louis Railroad 1875–78; with Eastern Railroad (Mass.) 1878–88, chief engineer of Boston & Maine Railroad 1888–1909, consulting engineer 1909–1910, with headquarters in Boston, Mass.; lived in Altadena, Calif., 1911–19 and in Pasadena 1919–1928; member Boston Society of Civil Engineers, American Society of Civil Engineers (director 1905–07), Southern California Association of Engineers, Engineers and Architects Association, and Yale Engineering Association; had been vestryman of Grace Church, Medford, and St. Peter’s Church (Episcopal), Salem, Mass.

Death due to arteriosclerosis and chronic myocarditis. Buried in Mountain View Cemetery, Pasadena. Survived by sons and eight grandchildren.

Alfred Caldwell, Ph.B. 1867.

Born July 14, 1847, in Wheeling, W. Va,
Died March 11, 1925, in Wheeling, W. Va

Father, Alfred Caldwell (B.A. Washington College 1836, LL.B. Harvard 1838), a lawyer; senior partner in Caldwell & Caldwell; mayor of Wheeling, state senator; chairman of Virginia delegation to Republican Convention in Chicago 1860; United States consul at Honolulu 1861–67, son of James Caldwell, member of Congress from Ohio, and Ann (Booker) Caldwell; descendant of James Caldwell, who came to America from Ireland in 1765 and settled in Wheeling. Mother, Martha (Baird) Caldwell; daughter of George Baird, a trustee of Washington College (now Washington and Jefferson College), and Jane (Wilson) Baird; granddaughter of Dr. Absalom Baird, a surgeon in the Revolutionary War; of Scotch descent. Yale relatives include a nephew, Perry M. Caldwell, ’89 S., and a grandson, Alfred C. Schroll, ex-'23 S Harding’s Academy, Wheeling, and West Liberty (W. Va) Academy. Graduated Oahu College, Honolulu, 1864 General scientific course; member Undine Boat Club.

Studied law in his father’s office and was admitted to the bar in 1868; practiced law in Wheeling from 1868 until his retirement from active practice in 1917; senior partner in Caldwell & Caldwell, of which his son, William G. Caldwell, '95 S., was a member, since 1897; had acted as a special judge; state senator from West Virginia during sessions of 1875 and 1877; served on Court of Impeachment of the state treasurer of West Virginia in 1876; attorney-general of West Virginia 1884-1892, city solicitor of Wheeling 1881 and 1882; member of both branches of council of Wheeling and clerk of the first branch 1868-1875; member Wheeling Board of Education; chairman of West Virginia delegation to Democratic National Convention 1896, but later became a Republican; member West Virginia State and Ohio County Bar associations (served on committees of each), and West Virginia Society of Sons of the Revolution.

Married September 14, 1871, in Wheeling, Laura Ellen, daughter of William Scott and Priscilla Ann (Zinn) Goshorn. Children: William Goshorn, ’95 S.; Jane Goshorn, the wife of Otto Schroll (C E. Ohio State University 1886); Laura Belle, the wife of Armistead D Mead (United States Military Academy); Helen Baird, the wife of Earl F. Glass (M.D. College of Physicians and Surgeons, Baltimore, 1907); Martha Baird; Mary, the wife of Walter H. Davidson (attended Washington and Jefferson 1889–1890); Alfred, Jr.; and Isabel Goshorn (Mrs. George McD. Flynn) (died in 1912).

Death due to apoplexy Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Wheeling Survived by wife (died November 6, 1927), two sons, five daughters, eight grandchildren, two brothers, Henry Caldwell, of St. Paul, Minn., and Joseph Caldwell, of Chicago, Ill., and six sisters, Mrs. Jennie W. Dougherty and Miss Eleanor B. Caldwell, both of Florence, Italy; Miss Martha T. Caldwell, of Washington, Pa.; Mrs. Fanny W. Hempstone, of New York City; Mrs. Alice B. C. Atkinson, of Philadelphia, Pa.; and Mrs. Maud C. Scheutzner, of Columbus, Ohio.

Archibald Rogers, Ph.B. 1873.

Born February 22, 1852, in Jersey City, N. J.
Died May 9, 1928, in Hyde Park-on-Hudson, N Y

Father, Edmund Pendleton Rogers; son of Archibald and Anna Pierce (Pendleton) Rogers; descendant of James Rogers, who came from England in 1635 and settled in Connecticut before 1660; descended also from Philip Pendleton, who came from England to Virginia in 1674. Mother, Virginia Holt (Dummer) Rogers; daughter of Phineas Cook and Elizabeth Dobbs (Holt) Dummer; descendant of Edward Dummer, who came to America before August 8, 1744, and settled in New Haven, Conn. Yale relatives include: Edmund P. Livingston and Herman Livingston (both '79), John S Rogers, '98, H Pendleton Rogers, '02, Herman Livingston, Jr, ex-'05, Henry H. Livingston, '09, and Edmund P Livingston, '11 (cousins)

Prepared at private school near Peekskill, N Y Special student in Sheffield Scientific School 1871-73, chemical course, received degree of Ph B in 1898, with enrollment in Class of 1873 S.; member Sheffield Shell and Barge crews, '74 S. Crew, Sheffield Baseball Nine, and Sigma Delta Chi.

After leaving Yale was a draftsman and designing engineer at Rogers Locomotive Works in Paterson, N J; subsequently traveled extensively and became assistant engineer of the "City of Tokyo" on her first trip from New York to Japan, after his return to this country engaged in engineering work with Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad until 1879 and was connected as civil engineer and general manager with Milwaukee, Lake Shore & Western Railroad in Wisconsin for a number of years, afterwards, in 1882, formed firm of Pancoast & Rogers, agents for Reading Coal & Iron Company; became president about 1894 of Jacksonville, Tampa & Key West, and Cornwall & Lebanon Railroads, retired from presidency of these roads and from active business about 1900, and had since been engaged in farming and forestation on his estate, "Crumwold Hall"; trustee of American Museum of Natural History 1891-1910, vice-president of Boone and Crockett Club 1903-1922; first Captain of Myopia Hunt Club polo team about 1884, Master of Hounds of an English pack owned by him and the late Samuel Colgate, about 1888-1898; interested in yachting and headed the syndicate which built the "Colonia" which competed with the "Vigilant," "Pilgrim," and "Puritan" for America's cup; served as Commodore of Seawanhaka Yacht Club, and as Rear Commodore of New York Yacht Club in 1889, was Captain and Aide-de-Camp of 2d Brigade, New York National Guard, 1886, and Colonel and Aide-de-Camp on Governor Morton's staff 1895, joined United States Naval Reserve Force April 18, 1917, and was appointed a Lieutenant; did active duty at Brooklyn Navy Yard and was honorably discharged May 17, 1917; placed on reserve list of New York National Guard, with rank of Colonel, October 23, 1917, and on November 22 commissioned Lieutenant Colonel of Infantry, New York Guard, and detailed to First Infantry; appointed to Military Intelligence Section of War Department April 30, 1918, and was in charge of the field comprised by Dutchess County and some neighboring counties, placed on reserve list of New York National Guard, with rank of Colonel, March 20, 1919; also served as chairman of Dutchess County Council of Defense 1917–1921; member of Society of Colonial Wars, Society of War of 1812, Sons of the Revolution; New York Society of Military and Naval Officers of the World War; senior warden of St. James Episcopal Church, Hyde Park, 1901–1928.

Married May 11, 1880, in New York City, Anne Caroline, daughter of William and Ellen (Habersham) Coleman, Children Archibald, Jr. (died 1889); Edmund Pendleton, '05, Robert Coleman (died 1884); William Coleman, Rae Habersham, ex-'10, Ellen Habersham, the wife of Kenneth B. Schley, '02 S.; Herman Livingston, '14; and Anne Pendleton, the wife of J Griswold Webb (B.A. Harvard 1913).

Death resulted from injuries received in an automobile accident a year before Buried in Cemetery of St. James Church, Hyde Park Survived by wife, four sons, two daughters, and eleven grandchildren.

Edward Everett Paramore, Ph.B. 1882.

Born August 31, 1860, in Washington, Mo
Died May 25, 1928, in Santa Paula, Calif.

Father, James Wallace Paramore (L.L.B. Albany Law School 1854), a lawyer, president and builder of St. Louis & Southwestern Railroad and of St. Louis Cotton Compress Company; Colonel of 3d Ohio Cavalry during Civil War; son of J W Paramore Mother, Nancy Helen (Kloch) Paramore; daughter of Samuel and Helen (VanVechten) Kloch Yale relatives include two brothers, Frederick W. Paramore, '79 S., and James A. Paramore, ex-'91 S.

Preparation for Yale received at Washington University, St. Louis, Mo. Select course; a Class historian; member Triennial Committee and Book and Snake.

In the employ of St. Louis & Southwestern Railroad Company 1882–88, as general agent in the freight department at Pine Bluff, Camden, and Texarkana, Ark., and in Texas and later as eastern agent at St. Louis; in 1888 formed, with his brother, Frederick W. Paramore, the firm of Paramore Brothers & Company, dealers in investment securities, in St. Louis and served as secretary and treasurer of the company until 1896 and then of its successor, the Paramore Investment Company, until 1904; during 1900–01 built the plant of St. Louis Portland Cement Company (now Missouri Portland Cement Company) and was its president until 1905, when he resigned to complete the construction of the irrigation system of the Houston River Canal Company in Louisiana, was engaged in this work and also in the irrigation and milling of rice in Louisiana until 1911; retired from active business in 1914 and spent much of his time in Montecito, Calif., until 1920, had since been engaged in developing a fruit ranch in the Antelope Valley, ninety miles from Santa Barbara where he made his home.

Married June 5, 1888, in Monroeville, Ohio, Mary Tuttle, daughter of George Wilcox and Sarah (Patterson) Clary
Two sons: James Wallace (Ph B 1911; LL B Harvard 1914) and Edward Everett, Jr (Ph B 1917)

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Bellefontaine Cemetery, St. Louis. Survived by wife and two sons.

William Godfrey Dyas Sage, Ph.B. 1884.

Born October 13, 1864, in Hamilton, Ontario
Died December 18, 1926, in Chicago, Ill

Father, William Mackintosh Sage, who studied at the University of Edinburgh for four years and settled in Kingston, Ontario, 1851 and in Chicago 1864; in U. S. Quartermaster's Department in Chicago and later traffic manager for Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railroad; son of the Rev. Donald Sage (D.D. University of Aberdeen 1807), of Resolis, Scotland, and Elizabeth (Mackintosh) Sage, of Thurso, Scotland. Mother, Jane Georgina (Dyas) Sage, daughter of William Godfrey Dyas (M.D. Trinity College, Dublin, 1845) and Georgina (Keating) Dyas.

Harvard School, Chicago. Dynamic engineering course; member Chi Phi.

Employed in the shops of Pennsylvania Railroad at Altoona 1884–85; studied in Chicago Medical School 1885–86; then became salesman and assistant manager for A.T. Thatcher (coal mining company) in Chicago; in the coal business for himself under name of Sage & Company in Chicago 1896–1906; was later associated for some time with his brother, C.F. Sage, as expert freight accountants under name of C.F. Sage in Chicago, for about ten years prior to his death had been engaged in farming at the Otis Ranch, Rose Lawn, Ind.; member Christ Church (Reformed Episcopal), Chicago.

Married April 29, 1897, in Chicago, Grace Raymond, daughter of Frederick R. Otis. One son, William Otis, ex-'27.

Death due to myocarditis and apoplexy. Buried in Grace-land Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife, son, a sister, Miss Anne White Sage, and two brothers, Donald Alexander and George Kenneth Sage, all of Chicago.

William Adair McDowell, Ph.B. 1885.

Father, Henry Clay McDowell, a lawyer; president of Lexington & Eastern Railroad; Assistant Adjutant General, U. S. Volunteers, with rank of Captain at beginning of Civil War, and later Lieutenant Colonel of 62d Kentucky Regiment, son of Dr. William Adair McDowell (attended Washington College, Lexington, and Medical College of Philadelphia), a soldier in the War of 1812, and Maria Hawkins (Harvey) McDowell, descendant of Ephraim McDowell, a soldier in siege of Londonderry and Battle of the Boyne, of Scotch descent, came from Ireland to Pennsylvania in 1729 and settled in Burden's Grant (now Rockbridge) County, Va., in 1737. Mother, Anne (Clay) McDowell; daughter of Henry and Julia (Prather) Clay; granddaughter of the orator Henry Clay; descendant of Capt. John Clay, one of the Jamestown colonists. Yale relatives include two nephews: Goodloe McDowell, ex-19, and William B Brock, Jr. (third year, Department of Architecture, School of the Fine Arts)

Prepared by private tutors. Civil engineering course, a Class statistician; member Delta Psi.

Employed with Belknap Hardware Company, Louisville, and Simmons Hardware Company, St. Louis, 1885-88; manager of Red River Lumber Company, Clay City, Ky., 1888-1890; president of Appalachian Bank, Big Stone Gap, Va., 1890-95; assistant engineer and purchasing agent of Lexington & Eastern Railroad 1896-1907, and then general manager until 1915; executive agent for Louisville & Nashville Railroad 1915-17; president of Lexington Union Station since 1906 and of Kentucky Union Company since 1917; president of Lost Creek Coal Company since 1908, and of Goff Coal Land Company since 1913; vice-president of Third National Bank of Lexington for several years prior to 1911, when it was consolidated with the Phoenix National Bank under name of Phoenix & Third National Bank; vice-president of the latter bank 1911-17 and president 1917-1922; president of its successor, the Phoenix National Bank & Trust Company, from 1922 until his death; member of Sons of Revolution and Christ Church Cathedral (Episcopal), Lexington

Married (1) October 26, 1887, in Louisville, Alice Harrison Dudley (attended Wellesley 1880-81), daughter of Bishop Thomas Underwood Dudley, of Protestant Episcopal Diocese of Kentucky (M.A. University of Virginia 1858; D D St. John's College, Annapolis, 1874, and University of the South 1876; D.C.L. University of King's College 1890; LL.D. Griswold College), and Fanny Berkley (Cochrane) Dudley. Children: William Cochrane (attended University of Kentucky 1905-07) and Henry Clay, 3d (died in infancy)

Mrs. McDowell died January 1, 1911. Married (2) May 27, 1914, in Lexington, Katherine Ramsey (attended University of Kentucky 1891–93), daughter of James Pollock and Jennie (Davidson) Ramsey. No children.

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Lexington Cemetery. Survived by wife, son, two brothers, Major Thomas C. McDowell, of Lexington, and Henry C. McDowell, '84, and two sisters, Mrs. Thomas S. Bullock and Mrs. William B. Brock, both of Lexington.

Harry Helmer Jackson, Ph.B. 1892.

Born July 5, 1869, in Middletown, N.Y.
Died November 14, 1927, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, William Stanley Jackson, a partner in the firm of Jackson Brothers & Company, commission merchants, Chicago, president Board of Trade, and an alderman; son of Darius Comstock and Mary Ellen (Cook) Jackson; of English ancestry. Mother, Ella (Helmer) Jackson; daughter of Joseph William and Lovina (Schuyler) Helmer; descendant of John Godfrey Helmer, who came to this country from Hesse-Cassel, Germany, in 1709, and settled in Stone Arabia, N. Y. Yale relatives include the Rev. Charles D. Helmer, '52 (uncle), and A. Stanley Jackson, Jr., '20 S. (nephew).

The Hill School. Civil engineering course; member Freshman Baseball Team and Berzelius.

Employed as civil engineer by Chicago Drainage Board 1892–98; member of contracting firm of Hayes Brothers & Company, Janesville, Wis., which built the power house on the Chicago Drainage Canal, and the Belle Fourche Dam at Orman, S. Dak., 1898–1911; engaged with Kounze Brothers Company, Pittsburgh, Pa., 1911–13, locating water power in Pennsylvania and the South; engaged in farming near Easton, Md., until 1926, when he sold the farm and moved to Easton.

Married April 30, 1895, in Chicago, Hallie Hope, daughter of Lot Perry and Nora Ellen (Diggins) Smith. One son, Harry Helmer (killed in action in France in 1918).

Thomas Bucklin Owen, Ph.B. 1894.

Born September 17, 1873, in Providence, R. I.
Died June 23, 1928, in New York City.

Father, Charles Dexter Owen, a woolen manufacturer, president of Atlantic Mills, Providence; served in the Civil War as Captain of Battery G; son of George and Fally (Palmer) Owen; descended from Samuel Owen, who came from Wales in 1685, and moved to Providence after a time in Massachusetts

Mother, Mary (Bucklin) Owen
University Grammar School, Providence
Mechanical engineering course

Studied the textile industry in Reutlingen (Germany) Textile School and machine shops abroad until the fall of 1895, when he became connected with the Atlantic Mills; was made general superintendent 1898, and continued until 1904; went to California with his classmate, Alexander P. Rogers, to engage in gold mining, settled in San Francisco and after a year of experimenting took up a large farm, which he operated for several years; became connected with the Beacon Manufacturing Company as selling agent in San Francisco, in 1908, and since 1918 had been selling agent in New York City; had also been connected with Salt's Textile Company of New York City, and with Salt's Textile Manufacturing Company as assistant to the president about 1919-1925; member First Congregational Church (Unitarian), Providence.

Death due to embolism caused by blood poisoning Buried in Swan Point Cemetery, Providence Survived by wife and two brothers, Charles D. Owen, of Providence, and Evan B. Owen, of Stamford, Conn
Joel Ives Butler, Ph.B. 1897.

Born March 26, 1878, in Kensington, Conn.
Died June 28, 1928, in Los Angeles, Calif.

New Haven High School. Biology course; member University Bicycle Team Junior and Senior years, and Theta Xi.

M. D. Johns Hopkins 1901; interne at Johns Hopkins Hospital 1901-02; pathologist on the surgical staff of the hospital and assistant in anatomy at Johns Hopkins Medical School 1902-03; interne in surgery at Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston, 1903-05; subsequently practiced medicine in Springfield, Mass., 1905-09, also served on staff of Springfield Hospital and as medical referee for western Massachusetts for Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, instructor in surgery at Yale School of Medicine 1909-1912; had since been engaged in practice as a surgeon, urologist, and radiologist in Tucson, Ariz.; attending surgeon to Rodgers Hospital, Tucson, 1912-18, connected with its successor, Arizona Hospital and Sanatorium, as consulting surgeon, urologist, and radiologist, and as member of Board of Directors, 1919-1928, with Tucson Medical Clinic as surgeon and radiologist 1920-28, during the war served as a Captain in Medical Reserve Corps at Fort Des Moines, Iowa, June 4, 1918-January 24, 1919, president Southwestern Medical and Surgical Association 1917; president Civic Club of Tucson 1925-27; director of Tucson Golf and Country Club 1914-1928; member American Medical Association, American College of Surgeons, Arizona Archaeological and Historical Society, and Tucson Natural History Society.

Death due to cardiac and pulmonary block from metastatic sarcoma. Cremation took place at Los Angeles Crematory; buried in Walnut Grove Cemetery, Menden, Conn. Survived by wife, four children, and a sister, the wife of Walter E. Crittenden.

Robert Sylvester Stewart, Ph.B. 1913.

Born January 29, 1891, in Denver, Colo.
Died May 21, 1928, in Buffalo, N.Y.

Father, Robert Lowery Stewart, a mechanical engineer with Rock Island Lines. Mother, Grace (Sylvester) Stewart.

Pittsburgh (Kans.) High School and Prossor Preparatory School, Kansas City, Mo.; held Kansas City Yale Alumni Association prize for entrance examinations. Mechanical engineering course; heeled Yale Daily News; went out for crew Freshman year; vice-president of Freshman Track Team Junior year and of City Government Club Senior year, served on Senior Council, member Senior Promenade Committee and Phi Sigma Kappa.

Special apprentice in mechanical department of Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railroad July, 1912–February, 1916; employed by American Brake Shoe & Foundry Company in Chicago from November, 1917, until his death; inspector of brake shoes until 1920 and sales representative in brake shoe department 1920–25 and in miscellaneous casting department since 1925; member Congregational Church.

Married March 2, 1914, in Chicago, Helen Pattison, daughter of Albert G. and Lulu May (Ford) Brandenburg. One daughter, Helen Margaret.

Took his own life. Buried in Kansas City. Survived by wife and mother.
GRADUATE SCHOOL

Wade Hampton Rothgeb, M.A. 1906.

Born August 27, 1881, in Wellington, Ill
Died May 17, 1928, on a train near Danville, Ill., en route for Wellington

Father, John DeKal Rothgeb, head of firm of J. D. Rothgeb & Company, retail general merchandise, coal, and lumber, in Wellington, son of Isaac and Barbara (Coffman) Rothgeb; descendant of Jacob Rothgeb, who came from Rhine Bavaria, Germany, to Virginia, in 1735. Mother, Anna Bell (Austin) Rothgeb; daughter of Potter and Rachel (Rothgeb) Austin.

Preparatory education received in Wellington schools; B.A University of Illinois 1905 (student adjutant in University regiment; instructor in military tactics; president of class Senior year; was offered a Captain's commission in Illinois National Guard, but did not accept), studied in Yale Graduate School 1905-06; bond salesman for Thomas C. Perkins in Hartford, Conn., 1906-07, and for Edward Canfield in New York City 1907; subsequently became connected with Farson, Son & Company, bankers and brokers in New York City, and was head of the trading department; general partner in firm of Bull & Eldredge, members of New York Stock Exchange, 1915-1920; connected with bond department of Evans, Stillman & Company 1920-23; manager of railroad bond equipment department of Green, Ellis & Anderson, members of New York Stock Exchange, 1923-27; partner in investment firm of Greenough & Rothgeb from March, 1927, until dissolution of the firm in February, 1928; in 1918 served as Corporal in New Jersey State Militia; president of East Orange Tennis Club 1925-27; attended Trinity Congregational Church, East Orange, N. J.

Married December 28, 1907, in Ottawa, Ill., Mabel Strickland Hayward (B.A University of Illinois 1905), daughter of George and Nettie (Strickland) Hayward Children: Mildred Ann (University of Illinois '30), John Hayward, and Alice Marie (died in infancy).

Death followed a year’s severe illness from Bright’s disease and heart trouble Buried in Ottawa Avenue Cemetery, Ottawa, Ill. Survived by wife, daughter, son, parents, and a sister, Mrs. Eugene A Mueller, of Seattle, Wash

Fritz Jacobson, Ph.D. 1889.

Born March 17, 1863, in Yuestad, Vestergotland, Sweden.
Died June 29, 1928, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Father, Joseph Jacobson, a master carpenter. Mother, Maria (Kruse) Jacobson.

Augustana Academy; B.A. Augustana College 1885, studied in Yale Divinity School 1886-89; B.D. Augustana Theological Seminary 1890, ordained to Lutheran ministry June 22, 1890, at Jamestown, N. Y.; pastor Bethesda Swedish Lutheran Church, New Haven, 1890–92; lecturer on history of philosophy at Yale 1891–93, pastor Swedish Lutheran Bethlehem Church, Brooklyn, since October, 1892, president of New York Conference of the Augustana Synod and of its Board of Home Missions 1909–1912; founder of Augustana Home for the Aged in Brooklyn in 1907, served as president of its board of directors to 1918 and then as member of the board until death; trustee of Board of Foreign Missions of the Synod 1908–1910; editor of Lutheran Monthly 1892–1928, author of articles on travel and theological questions, contributing to Augustana and other papers; member Swedish Culturar Society of New York.

Married June 29, 1887, in Rockford, Ill., Othelia, daughter of the Rev. Bengt Magnus Halland, who attended Augustana College and Theological Seminary, and Hanna (Swenson) Halland. No children.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, two sisters, Mrs. Mathilda Bodsen, of Rockford, Ill., and Mrs. Amanda Larson, of Los Angeles, Calif., and two brothers, John Jacobson, of Rockford, Ill., and the Rev. Henning Jacobson, of Cambridge, Mass
SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

William Edwin Hitchcock, M.D. 1866.
Born May 1, 1842, in New Haven, Conn
Died October 6, 1927, in Newark, N J

Father, Edward DeForest Hitchcock; member of mercantile firm of Hitchcock & Osborne, Richmond, Va; ancestors came from England and were among the original founders of the New Haven Colony. Mother, Lydia A. (Fuller) Hitchcock

General Russell's Collegiate and Commercial Institute, enrolled in Medical Department of University of Virginia 1862-63, employed as assistant surgeon in charge of Bellevue Hospital in Richmond for part of this time, served as Private, Company C, 25th Virginia Infantry, Confederate Army, 1863-64, entered Yale School of Medicine in 1865, had since practiced in Newark, and specialized in urology; police surgeon in Newark 1872-76; had been a Surgeon with 1st Regiment, New Jersey National Guard, and with 1st New Jersey Brigade of State Militia; Brigadier General, New Jersey Brigade, U. S. P.; member Medical Society of New Jersey, Pharmaceutical Association, and Anthropological Society of London.

Married in 1882, in Morristown, N. J., Annie Stella Beam Children: William Bayard and Armand Zeh (deceased).
Death due to apoplexy. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Morristown. Survived by wife and son William Virgil Wilson, M.D. 1867.

Born December 26, 1845, in Milford, Conn

Father, Elisha Wilson, ex-'47; owner of a telegraph line between New Haven, Waterbury, Winsted, and Hartford, inventor of the telegraph repeater in 1849, and of an electric clock, son of Hiram and Leah (Mallory) Wilson; ancestors came from England prior to the Revolutionary War and Hopkins Grammar School; attended Yale School of Medicine 1864–67; practiced medicine in Monmouth Junction and Dayton, N. J., 1869–1882 (surgeon for Pennsylvania Railroad 1872–1882); Willington, Conn., 1882–86, and West Haven, Conn., 1886–1902; retired on account of ill health and had lived in Hatboro, Pa. (1902–08), and Boston, Mass (1908–1919); member Middlesex County (N. J.) Medical Society, New Haven County Medical Society, and St. Paul’s Cathedral Church (Protestant Episcopal), Boston.

Married November 7, 1867, in Hoosick, N. Y., Nelly Hubbell, daughter of William Potter and Cornelia Lorraine (Hubbell) Brayton. Children Cornelia Gertrude (died 1878), Philip Elisha (died 1913); Nelly Adeline (Mrs. George B Clark); Annetta (Mrs. Nehemiah Newell), and Elizabeth Brayton, the wife of Edward LeRoy Dennis, '04 (LL B New York Law School 1908).

Death due to lobar pneumonia. Buried in Woodside Cemetery, Yarmouth Port, Mass. Survived by wife, three daughters, and three grandchildren.
SCHOOL OF LAW

Simeon Straus, LL.B. 1874.

Born November 21, 1855, in Milwaukee, Wis.
Died May 24, 1928, in Chicago, Ill

Father, Samuel Straus, a lawyer in Chicago; born in Germany and a graduate of a German University; came to America in 1852 and settled in Chicago; son of Simeon and Caroline Straus Mother, Rosine (Haas) Straus. Yale relatives include James E Greenebaum, '86 S, and his sons, Frederick J Greenebaum, '16 S, and Charles J. Greenebaum, '18 S. (cousins).

Chicago High School; attended Yale School of Law 1872–74 (member T. M. K.); admitted to Connecticut Bar in 1874, and to Illinois Bar in 1877, had since practiced law in Chicago; with his father 1874–75, and then independently until 1905; attorney for German National Bank, German Savings Bank, Henry Greenebaum & Company, bankers, and Greenebaum Sons Bank; member of firm of Simeon Straus & Bertram J Cahn 1905–08 (Bertram J Cahn, '96), since 1908 had been in partnership with his son under the name of Simeon Straus & Ira E Straus; vice-president of Oakland Club 1893–1903, member Chicago, Illinois State, and American Bar associations, and Sinai Temple, Chicago.

Married (1) February 24, 1880, in Chicago, Adelaide, daughter of David and Lisetta (Loewenstein) Eisendrath Children: Samuel Noel (B A University of Chicago 1903); David Copperfield (B S. University of Chicago 1905), Ira Elias (LL B. Northwestern University 1906), Marion Rosine, the wife of Maurice H. Flexner (B.S. Purdue 1908, E.E. 1912), and Edna Adelaide (studied at University of Chicago 1914–15) Mrs Straus died November 19, 1911 Married (2) August 12, 1912, in Binghamton, N Y, Josephine Wangersheim Friedman, daughter of Leopold Wangersheim (attended University at Frankfort, Germany), and Rachel (Fish) Wangersheim No children

Death due to chronic myocarditis and arteriosclerosis Buried in Rosehill Cemetery, Chicago Survived by wife, three sons, two daughters, one grandchild, and a sister, Mrs Sarah Despres, and a half brother, Joseph G Straus, both of Chicago

John Wilbur Parrott, LL.B. 1875.

Born September 3, 1841, in Bridgeport, Conn.

Father, John Parrott, a farmer in Bridgeport; superintendent of public schools; of French ancestry
Mother, Esther (Hubble) Parrott

Bridgeport public schools, and a military institution; was in business in Bridgeport for several years prior to and during his course at Yale, formed the Naugatuck Valley Ice & Stone Company, and had general supervision of its business; studied law with Curtis Thompson (honorary MA 1871) in Bridgeport and at Yale School of Law 1873-75, admitted to Connecticut Bar and practiced in Bridgeport until 1882, moved to Philadelphia where he was admitted to the bar and practiced until about 1900, and from 1906 to 1909; had also been engaged in the real estate and fire and life insurance business, legal representative of several companies, served for a time as president and counsel of Profit Sharers Life Insurance Company (originator of plan on which that organization was based); since 1914 had been engaged in developing his own inventions; in 1917 took out a patent on the Parrott Dry Process Street Cleaner, and was perfecting it at the time of his death; member Cooper Union and Park Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, Philadelphia.

Married June 27, 1867, in Bridgeport, Sarah Grace, daughter of Christopher and Sarah Ann (Marigold) Fones. Children: Bertha and Willie (both died in infancy), and Ava Louise (widow of Daniel B Carey)

Death due to accidental illuminating gas poisoning
Buried in Fernwood (Pa) Cemetery Survived by wife and daughter
Charles Sherman Everest, LL.B. 1878.

Born October 1, 1850, in Hamden, Conn.
Died February 14, 1927, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, the Rev Charles William Everest (B.A. Trinity 1838), an Episcopal minister; founded the Rectory School, Hamden, Conn., in 1843; poet, edited several editions of Poets of Connecticut, beginning 1843; son of Sherman B. and Betsey (Parmelee) Everest; descendant of Andrew Everest, who came from England to America about 1650, and settled at York, Maine. Mother, Catharine Ann (Dowdall) Everest; daughter of George Robert Dowdall, who came to this country from Ireland prior to 1805, and Eliza Hopkins (Nicoll) Dowdall, descendant of Hon. Matthias Nicoll (mayor of New York in 1672), who came to New York in 1664 with his cousin, Sir Richard Nicoll, the first English governor of the colony.

St. Paul’s School, Concord, N. H.; B.A. Trinity 1871; taught school 1871–76 at Greenwich Institute, Burlington College, and Ury House School, Philadelphia; attended Columbia University Law School for a short time, and then Yale School of Law 1877–78, admitted to the bar in 1878, and for a time was in the office of Watrous & Day; town clerk of Hamden 1880, in 1884, with his brother, the Rev. Haynes Lord Everest, re-opened the Rectory School, which had been closed since their father’s death in 1876; continued in this connection until 1899 (the school moved to New Milford, Conn., in 1894) when he returned to Hamden, affiliated with Grace Episcopal Church, Hamden, had served as clerk 1876–77, 1880–1896, and 1902–06, and as senior warden and treasurer, also

Unmarried

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford, Conn. Survived by two nephews, Winter H Everest, of New Haven, and Haynes L Everest, of Hartford, and a niece, Mrs. Ruth C. Everest, of Naugatuck, Conn.
William Henry Everett, LL.B. 1880.

Born May 17, 1851, in Easton, Conn.
Died November 19, 1925, in Fairfield, Conn

Father, Charles William Everett, a farmer; son of Jeremiah and Hannah (Morehouse) Everett. Mother, Eliza (Summers) Everett.

Easton Academy; taught in Easton and in Mill Plain School, Fairfield, Conn, and studied in the University of Michigan Law School for a year (1878–79) before entering Yale School of Law in 1879; taught in Loveridge’s Business College, New Haven; principal of Mill Plain School, Fairfield, from about 1885 to 1902; principal of Southport (Conn ) School two years; engaged in agriculture in Fairfield 1904–1923; had been in ill health for two years prior to his death

Married September 30, 1880, in New Haven, Grace Evelyn, daughter of Merwin and Almira (Haywood) Austin Children: William Haywood and Louise (Mrs. Harold W Hull)

Death due to arteriosclerosis Buried in Oaklawn Cemetery, Fairfield. Survived by wife, daughter, son, and a brother, Charles S Everett, of Bridgeport, Conn

Daniel William Lawler, LL.B. 1883.

Born March 28, 1859, in Prairie du Chien, Wis
Died September 15, 1926, in St Paul, Minn

Father, John Lawler; general agent Milwaukee & Missouri Railroad (now Prairie du Chien Division of Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad), vice-president of McGregor & Missouri Railroad (later part of Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad); invented and built Pontoon Transfer Bridge between Prairie du Chien and McGregor, Iowa; a founder of St. John’s and St Mary’s Academy, Prairie du Chien, member of Board of Regents of University of Wisconsin; came to America from County Carlow, Ireland, in 1836, and lived first near Jersey City, N J.; son of Patrick and Mary (Cantwell) Lawler. Mother, Catharine (Dinan) Lawler; born in County Cork, Ireland, and came to America in 1836, daughter of Daniel and Catharine (Reardon) Dinan Yale relatives include two brothers Frank J. Lawler, ’87 L., and Joseph C. Lawler, ex-'88 L.
Obituary Record

St John’s College (now College of the Sacred Heart), Prairie du Chien; B.A. Georgetown University 1881; attended Yale School of Law 1881–84 (Betts Prize, Junior year; Townsend Prize, Senior year; LL.B magna cum laude 1883; LL.M. 1884; member Kent Club); had been engaged in practice of law in St Paul since 1884, assistant United States district attorney for Minnesota 1886–88; corporation attorney for city of St Paul 1891–93; general attorney for Chicago & Great Western Railroad Company 1893–1901; professor of criminal law and procedure at St Paul College of Law 1902–1926; member St. Paul Board of Commissioners 1900–03, member of Board of Visitors of State Institutions of Minnesota 1907–1913, mayor of the city 1908; candidate of Democratic party for governor of Minnesota in 1892 (defeated), and nominee for United States Senator 1893, 1912, and 1916 (defeated), member Democratic State Central Committee 1890–92, and in 1896 delegate-at-large to Democratic National Convention at Indianapolis (appointed member of executive committee of Palmer and Buckner National Committee); M.A. Georgetown 1889, LL.D. 1897, member Delta Theta Phi and Cathedral Parish (Roman Catholic), St Paul.

Married February 10, 1886, in St. Paul, Elizabeth Catherine, daughter of John James and Emma (Fahnestock) O’Leary. Children: John Daniel (died in infancy); Samuel Fahnestock (attended Georgetown University 1910–11; special law course, University of Minnesota Law School, 1914), and Margaret Elizabeth Mrs. Lawler died March 5, 1924.

Death due to chronic myocarditis; had been in poor health for several years. Buried in Calvary Cemetery, St. Paul. Survived by son, daughter, and two sisters, Miss Katharine Lawler and Miss Ellen C. Lawler, of Kansas City, Mo.
Supplement 363

Forrest Oscar Murdock, LL.B. 1884.

Born September 27, 1862, in Milton, Pa
Died March 30, 1926, in Chicago, Ill

Father, Robert Hammond Murdock, an agent with Pennsylvania Railroad Company at Corry, Pa; member Corry City Council ten years Mother, Annie Markle (Kep-ler) Murdock
Corry High School; entered Yale School of Law in 1882, member Kent Club, had since practiced law in Chicago, associated with Judge Sidney Smith 1886-89, and then became a member of firm of Muhlke & Murdock.
Married August 24, 1887, at Sioux Falls, S. Dak., Helen Jenette, daughter of Eugene and Janet (Williams) Wright. Children: Robert Hammond (died in infancy), Eugene Wright, and Joseph Kepler Death due to kidney and heart disorders Buried in Rose Hill Cemetery, Chicago Survived by wife and two sons

Frank William Igo, LL.B. 1893.

Born October 18, 1871, in New Haven, Conn.
Died August 9, 1927, in New Haven, Conn

Father, John Henry Igo, a merchant. Mother, Celia (Gibbons) Igo
Gile's Academy, New Haven; entered Yale School of Law in 1891; served for a time as clerk for an insurance company in Hartford, Conn., was later owner and proprietor of a café in New Haven for many years, but had retired from active business at time of death
Married August 12, 1894, in New Haven, Mary Elizabeth Barrett. Children: Mary C, Frank Henry (D D'S Georgetown University 1923), and Henry N
Death, due to complications following an operation for appendicitis, occurred at Hospital of St Raphael, New Haven Survived by wife, daughter, two sons, and three brothers, John E and Joseph Igo, both of New Haven, and Charles Igo George McCobb Coombs, LL.B. 1895.

Born November 29, 1862, in Lincolnville, Maine
Died January 31, 1928, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Jacob Cushion Coombs, a sea captain; son of Jacob Cushion and Prudence (Turner) Coombs; descendant of Anthony Coombs, who came from France in 1660 and settled at New Meadows River, Maine. Mother, Harriet (Bragg) Coombs; daughter of William and Mary (Staples) Bragg

Preparatory training received at public schools in Lincolnville; graduated from Eastern State Normal School, Maine, 1885, taught at Islesboro, Maine, 1885-87; went to sea with his father 1887-89; in the grocery business in New Haven 1889-1893, when he entered Yale School of Law; practiced law in New Haven 1893-95, engaged in the grocery business again in New Haven in partnership with H M Tower for several years and later was foreman with Sperry & Barnes Company (meat supplies) in New Haven; had been engaged in the coal business in New Haven since 1920; member First Congregational Church, West Haven.

Married November 27, 1889, in Belfast, Maine, Jessie Ada, daughter of Henry Augustus and Annie (Witham) Pierce. Children. George Pierce, John Clifford, Ralph Douglas (B.S. Princeton 1927), and Mildred Jessie Mrs Coombs died June 2, 1911.

Death, due to chronic nephritis, occurred in New Haven Hospital Buried in Oak Grove Cemetery, West Haven Survived by three sons, daughter, a brother, Ralph Coombs, of Yonkers, N Y, and three sisters, Mrs. Adelaide Hahn, of Yonkers, Mrs Nellie Brown, of Lincolnville, Maine, and Mrs. William Whitaker, of Providence, R. I.

William Roland Hall, LL.B. 1895.

Born June 3, 1874, in Farmsdale, Ala
Died May 19, 1928, in Wetumpka, Ala.

Father, Richard F. Hall, a cotton planter
High School, Uniontown, Ala, and Marion ( Ala.) Military Institute; LL B University of Alabama 1894; studied at Yale School of Law the next year (member Corbey Court), had since been engaged in teaching, at Houston, Miss, for a time; also engaged in agriculture

Married. One daughter, Willie May

Death due to tuberculosis Buried in Rosemont Cemetery, Uniontown, Ala. Survived by daughter

George Burton Thayer, LL.B. 1897.

Born May 13, 1853, in Rockville, Conn.
Died June 28, 1928, in Manchester, Conn.

Father, John Wales Thayer, a woolen manufacturer, member of Connecticut General Assembly three terms, Colonel of 5th Regiment, Connecticut Militia, son of Caleb and Patience (Phillips) Thayer; descendant of Thomas Thayer, who came from Thornbury, Gloucester County, England, to Braintree, Mass., in 1630 Mother, Adaline (Burton) Thayer, daughter of Raymond and Deborah (Sayles) Buron; descendant of John Burton, who came from London in 1635 and settled at or near Providence, R. I.

Hall's School, Ellington, Conn.; owner of a general store in Ellington and Vernon Junction, Conn, 1869-1886, in newspaper work in Hartford, Conn, 1886-1895, at first with the Post and from 1890 with the Courant, entered Yale School of Law in 1895 (secretary of his class during his course and until 1922), after receiving his LL B. degree, returned to the Law School for a year of graduate study and received degree of LLM. in 1898, practiced law independently in Hartford from 1898 until his retirement in 1912 (admitted to the bar in 1897); served as liquor prosecuting attorney for Hartford County 1901-1911, physical instructor at West Hartford High School 1926-28; member Company K, 1st Regiment, Connecticut National Guard, 1889-1895, served with Company K, 1st Connecticut Volunteer Infantry, for six months during Spanish-American War, member Hartford Home Guard 1917, YMCA secretary in France December 24, 1918-October 31, 1919, serving at Ferriers three months, at Beaune three months, and at the base warehouse in Paris four months, devoted salary from Y. M. C. A work to supporting for two years twelve war orphans whom he adopted; a noted pedestrian and traveler, on a walking trip in France in 1914 and at Chamonix when war was declared; visited his war orphans in France 1921, covering 1200 miles on foot; made a trip around the world 1922; author: Pedal and Path (1886), Thayer-Burton Ancestry (1894), History of Company K (1899), In Hell—Shut In (account of his trip in France in 1914) (1915), and Trips to Hell (1924); member West Hartford Congregational Church.

Married February 28, 1881, in Danielson, Conn., Katherine Waterman, daughter of Pardon and Eunice (Tillinghast) Tillinghast. One son, Charles Tillinghast. Mr. and Mrs Thayer were divorced.

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Grove Hill Cemetery, Rockville, Conn. Survived by son and two grandchildren. By the terms of his will the income from half of a $4,000 trust fund will eventually revert to Yale for the use of the Law School

Harold Gordon Spencer, LL.B. 1908.

Born November 22, 1879, in Maui, Hawaii.
Died May 31, 1927, in Honolulu, Hawaii

Father, James Gordon Spencer; son of Ambrose H. and Julia Spencer Mother, Isabel (Thomas) Spencer; daughter of William H. and Sarah (Bulkley) Thomas.

Preparatory training received at Punahou School, Honolulu; attended Oahu College; attended Harvard as a special student 1899-1904; with law firm of Kinney & Ballou 1904-05; entered Yale School of Law 1905; admitted to practice in courts of Connecticut June 23, 1908, in Hawaii July 14, 1908, and in United States District Court July 16, 1908; had practiced law in Honolulu since 1908; referee in bankruptcy of United States District Court for District of Hawaii November 11, 1908—August 21, 1909, when appointed United States Commissioner for same district; during the war served as an associate member of Legal Advisory Board, in 1926 appointed member of National Executive Committee of the Civil Legion.
Unmarried

Death due to heart disease and subacute nephrosis. Cremation took place and ashes were buried in Oahu Cemetery, Honolulu.Survived by no immediate relatives.

Robert Lee Allen, LL.B. 1911.

Born January 7, 1875, near Litchfield, Ky
Died June 29, 1928, in Hamilton, Ohio.

Father, James Easton Allen, a farmer, school teacher, and justice of the peace; ancestors came from England to Culpeper County, Va. Mother, Molivia Sims (Cave) Allen; daughter of Abner and Ophelia (Cave) Cave; ancestors came from Ireland to Orange County, Va., about 1775.

B.S. National Normal College 1900; served in Spanish-American War as quartermaster's clerk 1898–99; lived in Owensboro, Ky., 1900–1910, served as county superintendent of schools, Daviess County, and practiced law, studied in Yale School of Law 1910–11 (LL B. cum laude 1911), practiced law again in Owensboro 1911–13, and in Denver, Colo, 1913–14; special representative for Todd Protectograph Company of Rochester, N. Y, in Cincinnati 1914–19, had since been interested in oil properties and developments as independent promoter, broker, and legal adviser, Amarillo, Texas, 1919–1924, and Fayetteville, Ark, 1924–28; member Third Baptist Church, Owensboro (deacon, and superintendent of Sunday school eight years)

Married June 4, 1903, in Williamsburg, Ohio, Frances Ethel, daughter of Francis Washington and Anna Bell (Reed) Walker. Children: Dorothy Lee (Georgetown, Ky., College 1923–24, University of Arkansas 1924–25, Kansas State College 1926–29, B S in Music 1929), Frances Annabel (University of Arkansas 1924–26, 1927–29, B S in Education 1929); Mary Charlotte.

Death, due to injuries received in an automobile accident on June 28, occurred at the Mercy Hospital, Hamilton. Buried in Williamsburg (Ohio) Cemetery Survived by wife, three daughters, five brothers, Lloyd Green Allen, of Canyon, Texas; Jefferson Davis Allen, of Bentonville, Ark, William Riley Allen and John Griffith Allen, of Memphis, Tenn., and Captain James Thatcher Allen, of Louisville, Ky.; and three sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Rutledge, of Big Spring, Texas, Mrs. Powell A. Griffin, of Coleman, Texas, and Mrs. Andrew Jackson Scaife, of Commerce, Texas

Seijiro Sho, LL.M. 1887.

Born in Omura, Nagasaki Prefecture, Japan
Died December 25, 1926, in Tokyo, Japan

LL.B Imperial University, Tokyo, 1885; graduate student in Yale School of Law 1886–87; connected with Mitsubishi Goshi Kaisha, Tokyo, from 1887 until his retirement in 1917, as manager of their Osaka and Kobe branches and later as managing director of the company; auditor of Asahi Glass Company, Tokyo; had lived at Kamakura since his retirement

Married in 1889 in Tokyo, Chika, daughter of Nobutane and Teruko Tajitsu. One son, Kiyohiko, a graduate of the Imperial University, Tokyo, who married Hanako, daughter of Sukehide Kabayama, '91 L

Death due to influenza  Buried in Tokyo  Survived by wife and son

Henry Deutsch, LL.M. 1895.

Born August 28, 1874, in Minneapolis, Minn
Died January 9, 1928, in Minneapolis, Minn

Father, Jacob Deutsch, a merchant in Davenport, Iowa; came to America from Austria; son of Simon Deutsch

Mother, Malchen Amalia (Valfer) Deutsch; daughter of Aaron Loew and Regina (Ettlinger) Valfer

Minneapolis High School, LL.B University of Minnesota 1894; attended Yale School of Law 1894–95 (LL.M magna cum laude June, 1895), admitted to bar in October, 1895, and had since practiced law in Minneapolis; associated in practice with Frank B. Nye 1896–1908; member of firm of Deutsch, Allen & Breding 1908–1925 and since then of Deutsch, Loeffler & Amick; president of Commercial Law League of America 1910 and of Association of Professional Men's Clubs 1927; director of Commercial Club of Minneapolis 1902–1910; member American and Minnesota State Bar associations, Second Church of Christ, Scientist, Minneapolis; and First Church of Christ, Scientist, Boston.

Death due to heart failure. Buried in Lakewood Cemetery, Minneapolis. Survived by two sons, daughter, and a sister, Mrs. Bernard Burton, of Little Falls, Minn.
DIVINITY SCHOOL

John Pentrych Evans, B.D. 1873.

Born May 14, 1841, in Glamorganshire, South Wales.
Died September 25, 1925, in Bangor, Wis.

Father, John Evans, in grocery business; son of John and Mary (Edwards) Evans. Mother, Mary (Lewis) Evans; daughter of Edward and Mary Lewis

B A. Bala College, Wales, 1867; came to America in 1867, and was engaged in preaching in Welsh Congregational Church, Plymouth, Pa., until he entered Yale Divinity School in 1870; ordained to Congregational ministry at Plymouth September 25, 1867; pastor at Welsh Congregational Church, Portland, Maine, 1873-77, Cambria, Wis., 1877-79, and Bangor, Wis., 1879-1889; had since resided in Bangor; engaged in nursery business 1890-1900; member Presbyterian Church, Bangor Married September 17, 1872, in Plymouth, Pa., Jane, daughter of Lewis and Jane (Aubrey) Jones. Children: Anna Jane (Mrs. Dwight E. Winsor); Bertha Evans (Mrs. Toff W. Jolivette); Mae (Mrs. David Jolivette); Bessie (Mrs. William M. Gordon), Edith (Mrs. Edward Benson); John Lewis; Mariam (died in 1881), Aubrey (died in 1890), and Isabel (died in 1911).

Death due to intestinal nephritis; had been in poor health for many years. Buried in Bangor Cemetery. Survived by wife, six children, twelve grandchildren, and three sisters, Mrs. Gwilym J. Thomas, of New York City, Mrs. Aaron Jones, of Kingston, Pa., and Mrs. Robert Roberts, of Detroit, Mich.

Daniel Marshall Moore, B.D. 1878.

Born July 31, 1848, in Athol, Mass.
Died January 9, 1928, in Orange, Mass.

Father, Daniel E. Moore. Mother, Mary Taber (Pierce) Moore

Kimball Union Academy, Meriden, N. H., B.A. Amherst
1875; attended Yale Divinity School 1875–78; ordained to Congregational ministry January 6, 1880, at Falls Village, Conn., where he held a pastorate 1878–1887; pastor at Colebrook, Conn., 1888–1895; engaged in farming at Orange, Mass., 1895–1916, when he retired.

Death due to cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Jones Cemetery, North Orange. Survived by son and daughter.

Joseph Perry Dyas, B.D. 1879.

Born June 4, 1848, in Peru, Mass.
Died April 18, 1925, in Sandwich, Ill.

Father, Joseph Dyas; in hotel business; son of Joseph and Abbie (Bartlet) Dyas. Mother, Mary Ann (Miner); daughter of Demmon and Lucy (Abby) Miner.

B.A. Beloit College 1876, and M.A.; ordained to Congregational ministry at Silver Creek, Nebr., March 10, 1880, and minister there 1879–1882, also at Genoa, Nebr., 1880–82; at Bradshaw, Nebr., 1883; subsequently joined Yale Dakota Band; held pastorates in South Dakota 1886–1893, at Athol and Frankfort 1886–87, Henry and Elad 1880–1890, and Garretson and Sherman 1890–93; in Iowa 1893–97, at Baxter 1893–94, at Nora Springs 1894–95, and Salem 1895–97; had since lived in Sandwich.

Death due to edema of the lungs and diabetes. Buried in Oak Ridge Cemetery, Sandwich. Survived by a brother, Charles D. Dyas, of Sandwich.
Obituary Record

Clinton Dorsey Hoover, B.D. 1886.

Born October 19, 1859, in Smithsburg, Md.
Died August 31, 1916, in Los Angeles, Calif.

Father, David Hoover, a farmer; president of Planters' Mutual Fire Insurance Company, president and director of Washington County Agricultural and Mechanical Association, and of Hagerstown and Smithsburg Turnpike Company; son of David and Elizabeth (Zentmyer) Hoover; descendant of Christian Hoover, who came from Switzerland to Frederick County, Maryland, in 1750. Mother, Elizabeth (Stephey) Hoover, daughter of John Daniel and Sarah (Hartle) Stephey, descendant of Andrew Stephey, who came from Switzerland to America between 1790 and 1800.

Prepared by private tutors; B.A. Gettysburg College 1883 (honor student); attended Gettysburg Theological Seminary 1883-84 and Yale Divinity School 1884-86, ordained to Lutheran ministry at Waynesboro, Pa., in October, 1886, pastor Presbyterian Church, Circleville, Ohio, 1887-89; Presbyterian Church, Wapakoneta, Ohio, 1889-1897, clerk of United States District Court, Tucson, Ariz., 1898-1906, in real estate business in Los Angeles, Calif., 1906-1916.

Married Sarah Blanche, daughter of William Henry and Sarah (Ustick) Albaugh. One daughter, Helen, the wife of Robert T. Smith (attended University of California).

Death due to cerebral apoplexy. Buried in Smithsburg (Md.) Cemetery. Survived by wife (died January 17, 1919), daughter, two granddaughters, and two sisters, Mrs. Daniel S. Beard and Miss Emma C. Hoover, of Waynesboro, Pa.

Thomas Fremington May, B.D. 1904.

Born February 2, 1863, in Staten Island, N.Y.
Died December 8, 1927, in Tacoma, Wash.

Father, George Thomas May, adjuster of averages and accounts, came to Missouri from England in 1845; son of James and Elizabeth (Rogers) May. Mother, Isabella (Couper) May; came from Scotland in 1849; daughter of William and Margaret (Stephen) Couper.
Attended Theological School of St. Lawrence University; ordained to Universalist ministry June 29, 1897, at Canton, N.Y.; pastor of Universalist churches at Bristol, N.Y., 1897–99, Providence and Valley Falls, R.I., 1899–1901, Congregational Church at Carbondale, Pa., 1901–02, and East Lyme Congregational Church, Niantic, Conn., 1902–04, studied in Yale Divinity School 1902–04, pastor Congregational Church, Campbell, Nebr., 1904–05, division engineer for Colorado Fuel & Iron Company, Pueblo, Colo., 1905–06, pastor Plymouth Congregational Church, Kellogg, Idaho, 1906–07 and 1910–12 (spent the time between these pastorates on a homestead in Stevens County, Wash.); pastor in Ritzville, Wash., and in Vancouver (First Congregational Church) 1912–1916; studied at College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons, Los Angeles, 1917–1921 (DO 1921); had since been engaged in practice of osteopathy in Tacoma.

Death due to tuberculosis of the spine. Cremated, and ashes buried in Mountain View Cemetery, Tacoma. Survived by wife, son, two stepdaughters, Charlotte Mary and Beverly Louise Cook, a sister, Mrs. Gilbert Swezy, of Milford, Pa., and two brothers, John C. C. May and James May, of New York City.

George Douglas Milbury, B.D. 1907.

Born October 17, 1878, in Wicklow, New Brunswick
Died February 8, 1925, in Waverly, Mass

Father, Nathan Bradstreet Milbury (attended Harvard Medical School 1866–1870), an agriculturalist, son of Nathan and Margery (Squires) Milbury. Mother, Priscilla (Brown) Milbury, daughter of George Abram and Margaret (Fitzherbert) Brown; descendant of Captain Ebenezer Brown, who came from Dublin, Ireland, and settled in Rhode Island, fought in the Revolutionary War, and at the close of it, moved to Fredericton, New Brunswick.

Death due to brain tumor. Buried in Woodland Cemetery, South Berwick. Survived by wife and children.

Howard Garfield Connelly, B.D. 1908.

Born April 23, 1880, in Baltimore, Md.

Died November 13, 1927, in Terre Haute, Ind.

Father, Isaac Connelly, an engineer with the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad forty years, son of John and Sarah Elizabeth (Shillenburg) Connelly. Mother, Mary (Powers) Connelly, daughter of Patrick Powers, who came from Ireland to Baltimore in 1847, and Mary (Buchanan) Powers.

Peoples’ College, Baltimore; B A Bethany (W. Va) 1905 (member Sigma Nu); divinity student at Bethany, and pastor of Christian Church at Chaveli, Pa, 1905-07; ordained Disciples Church September 15, 1907, in Baltimore; enrolled as Senior in Yale Divinity School 1907-08; pastor First Christian Church, Ardmore, Okla., 1908-1910; Grand Avenue Church, Minneapolis, Minn., 1910-13; Central Christian Church, New Albany, Ind., 1913-1925, Central Christian Church, Terre Haute, Ind., 1925-27; president of Indiana State Board of Missions 1920-22, Rotary Club of New Albany 1922-23, Ministers’ Council of Indiana 1925-26, Married October 5, 1909, in Cleveland, Ohio, Lily Bond Pinney (attended Oberlin Conservatory of Music 1900–03, Cleveland Conservatory of Music 1904–05, and Louisville, Ky, Conservatory 1921–24), daughter of Alexander Norton and Ruth (Linton) Bond. One son, Orestes Carl Pinney.

Death, due to acute appendicitis and general peritonitis, occurred at Union Hospital Buried in Highland Lawn Cemetery, Terre Haute Survived by wife, son, and two sisters, Mrs Sarah E. Wright and Mrs. William H. Connelly, of Arbutus, Md.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Class</th>
<th>Name and Age at Death</th>
<th>Place of Birth and Death</th>
<th>Date of Death</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1847</td>
<td>J. D. Smith, 99</td>
<td>Baltimore, Md</td>
<td>December 2, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1852</td>
<td>G. A. Wilcox, 98</td>
<td>Madison, Conn.</td>
<td>September 22, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1856</td>
<td>J. L. Rackett, 92</td>
<td>Portland, Maine, Hollis, Maine</td>
<td>August 21, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1862</td>
<td>H. J. Griswold, 91</td>
<td>Madison, Conn., East Haven, Conn</td>
<td>April 6, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1862</td>
<td>C. E. Hubbard, 86</td>
<td>Boston, Mass, Antwerp, Belgium</td>
<td>August 24, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1862</td>
<td>C. L. Kitchel, 87</td>
<td>Plymouth Hollow (Thomaston), Conn., New Haven, Conn</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1863</td>
<td>C. S. Sheldon, 87</td>
<td>New York Mills, N. Y., Madison, Wis</td>
<td>February 15, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1864</td>
<td>C. R. Strong, 84</td>
<td>Setauket, N. Y., Planfield, N. J.</td>
<td>April 20, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1865</td>
<td>A. P. Chapman, 84</td>
<td>Ellington, Conn., Bridgeport, Conn</td>
<td>October 20, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1866</td>
<td>C. F. Brown, 84</td>
<td>Newburgh, N. Y.</td>
<td>May 23, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1866</td>
<td>L. D. Bulkley, 83</td>
<td>New York City, Englewood, N. J.</td>
<td>June 19, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1866</td>
<td>Edmund Coffin, 84</td>
<td>New York City</td>
<td>July 20, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1866</td>
<td>W. W. Farnam, 85</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>December 26, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1867</td>
<td>W. H. Bishop, 81</td>
<td>Hartford, Conn.; Brooklyn, Conn.</td>
<td>June 28, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1867</td>
<td>H. C. Sheldon, 83</td>
<td>Martinsburg, N. Y.; West Newton, Mass</td>
<td>September 26, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1868</td>
<td>C. W. Bingham, 82</td>
<td>Cleveland, Ohio</td>
<td>August 4, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1868</td>
<td>Frank Cramer, 81</td>
<td>Milwaukee, Wis.; Chicago, Ill.</td>
<td>March 1, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1868</td>
<td>R. A. Hume, 82</td>
<td>Byculla, Bombay, India, Brookline, Mass</td>
<td>September 22, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1868</td>
<td>T. W. Pierce, 83</td>
<td>Dillworthtown, Birmingham, Pa., West Chester, Pa</td>
<td>June 24, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1868</td>
<td>W. M. Slay, 82</td>
<td>Templeville, Md.; Atlantic City, N. J.</td>
<td>March 30, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1869</td>
<td>H. C. Bannard, 84</td>
<td>New York City; Chicago, Ill</td>
<td>October 23, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1869</td>
<td>Henry Lear, 81</td>
<td>Doylestown, Pa.; Germantown, Pa</td>
<td>April 15, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>April 27, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Year</td>
<td>Name</td>
<td>Place</td>
<td>Location</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>------</td>
<td>-----------------------</td>
<td>--------------------------------</td>
<td>---------------------------------------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>D E Clapp, 79</td>
<td>Ira, N Y, Auburn, N Y</td>
<td>Industry, Ohio, Chicago, Ill</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>W S Hull, 82</td>
<td>Nashville, Tenn, New York City</td>
<td>Southport, Conn, Averill, Vt</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>Philip Lindsley, 78</td>
<td>Cortland, N Y, Brooklyn, N Y</td>
<td>New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>J H Perry, 80</td>
<td>Scotland, Conn; Washington, D C</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>E B Thomas, 80</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y, Whitefield, N H</td>
<td>New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td>Seelye Benedict, 80</td>
<td>Columbus, Ohio, New York City</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td>Luther Fuller, 81</td>
<td>New York City, Paris, France</td>
<td>Columbus, Ohio</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>W C Beecher, 79</td>
<td>Clay, N Y, Pasadena, Calif</td>
<td>Albion, N Y, New Haven, Conn</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>F R Schell, 77</td>
<td>Hoboken, N J, Asheville, N C</td>
<td>Pittsfield, Ill</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>F B Swayne, 78</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y, at sea</td>
<td>Waterbury, Conn, Guilford, Conn</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>T S Woolsey, 76</td>
<td>New London, Conn, Gales Ferry, Conn</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>R W Kelley, 75</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill, New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>New York City, Glendale, Calif</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>R H Platt, 75</td>
<td>Albany, N Y, New York City</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y, Brookline, Mass</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875</td>
<td>Harry Higbee, 74</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y, Hartford, Conn</td>
<td>New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875</td>
<td>F E Snow, 77</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875</td>
<td>R A Torrey, 73</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td>O T Bannard, 74</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td>A S Bush, 76</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td>E S Ely, 75</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td>R J Jessup, 77</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td>E D Worcester, 72</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>C W Barnes, 73</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>C M Clarke, 72</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>K T Friend, 75</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>F W Murray, 73</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>Henry Roberts, 76</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
CLASS NAME AND AGE AT DEATH

1877  C H Stevens, 77
1877  N U Walker, 74
1877  A M Wilcox, 79
1879  Ralph Barker, 71
1879  R S Rodman, 73
1879  Ambrose Tighe, 69
1880  Frank Goodrich, 73
1880  W C Wheeler, 71
1881  H S Durand, 67
1881  T B Osborne, 69
1881  E S Underhill, 67
1881  L H White, 77
1882  J F Allen, 67
1882  J C Palmer, 68
1882  J Q Rice, 68
1883  S H. Fields, 67
1883  H A Forchheimer, 67
1883  D. S Knowlton, 67
1883  Kier Mitchell, 69
1884  Gustav Gruener, 65
1884  Oliver McKee, 67
1884  E I Sanford, 66
1884  J T. Swift, 67
1885  M D Ormes, 70
1885  E. W Robertson, 65
1886  Sharswood Brinton, 63
1886  F A Christian, 65

PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH

Danbury, Conn ; Canton, Conn
Concord, N H ; Brookline, Mass
Baltimore, Md ; Lawrence, Kans
Brooklyn, N Y ; Dunnellon, Fla
Pittsburgh, Pa ; near Lakeport, Calif
Brooklyn, N Y ; St Paul, Minn
Dryden, N Y ; New York City
Huntington, Conn ; Topeka, Kans
Cincinnati, Ohio ; Paris, France
New Haven, Conn
Bath, N Y ; town of Erwin, at Coopers, N Y
Richmondville, N Y ; Brooklyn, N Y
New Haven, Conn ; Menden, Conn
Brooklyn, N. Y ; Stonington, Conn
Goshen, Conn ; Dobbs Ferry, N. Y
Atlanta, Ill ; Pinehurst, N C
Mobile, Ala
Alfred, Maine ; Brookline, Mass
Pittsburgh, Pa
New Haven, Conn ; Providence, R I
Brooklyn, N Y ; Randolph, N H
New Haven, Conn ; New York City
Colchester, Conn ; Tokyo, Japan
Tuscola, Mich ; Colorado Springs, Colo
Columbia, S C ; New York City
Canandaigua, N. Y

DATE OF DEATH

November 19, 1928
February 13, 1929
January 3, 1929
December 10, 1928
September 23, 1928
November 11, 1928
April 9, 1929
November 22, 1928
May 8, 1929
January 29, 1929
February 7, 1929
November 10, 1928
October 7, 1928
August 15, 1928
July 22, 1928
March 27, 1929
November 18, 1928
November 26, 1928
July 31, 1928
December 5, 1928
August 29, 1928
August 20, 1928
August 14, 1928
January 13, 1929
November 20, 1928
January 14, 1929
March 31, 1929
1887  F. W. Hart, 62
1888  H. B Brownell, 63
1888  W. L. Velie, 62
1889  T. M. Cullinan, 60
1889  P. P. Wells, 61
1890  G. N. Lawson, 63
1890  W. I. Lowe, 62
1890  Charles Sheldon, 60
1890  A. J. Willson, 63
1891  A. J. Parker, Jr., 58
1892  H. R. Rathbone, 58
1892  J. S. Woodruff, 58
1893  A. H. Putney, 56
1893  H. C. Quintard, 59
1894  J. P. Chamberlain, 59
1894  H. L. Eno, 57
1894  C. H. Furbish, 59
1894  C. F. Stahl, 56
1894  L. A. Whitcomb, 58
1895  John Heermans, 55
1895  Paul Kennaday, 55
1895  Lloyd Lowndes, 56
1895  W. A. Moore, 55
1895  Hermann Thomas, 56
1895  J. W. Wheeler, 56
1896  A. S. Cochran, 55
1896  G. L. Hedges, 55
1896  H. S. Peck, 54
1897  A. B. Clark, 54

Plainville, Conn, Berthoud, Colo.
East Orange, N. J., Staten Island, N. Y
Moline, Ill.
Springfield, Mass, Bridgeport, Conn.
Grand Rapids, Mich, San Francisco, Calif
Union, Conn, Middle Haddam, Conn
Ithaca, N. Y, Winter Park, Fla
Rutland, Vt, Kedgemaooee, Nova Scotia
Marion, Ind
Albany, N. Y, Cooperstown, N. Y.
Washington, D.C., Chicago, Ill
New Britain, Conn, Washington, D.C
Boston, Mass, Washington, D.C
Greenwich, Conn, West Haven, Conn
Seneca Falls, N. Y, New York City
New York City, Somerset, England
New Hartford, N. Y, Rochester, N. Y
New Haven, Conn
Clinton, Ind, Indianapolis, Ind
Corning, N. Y, Tacoma, Wash
Brooklyn, N. Y, New York City
Cumberland, Md
Rutland, N. Y, New York City
New York City, Newark, N. J
Bridgeport, Conn, Cromwell, Conn
Yonkers, N. Y, Saranac Lake, N. Y
Canemah, Ore, Oregon City, Ore
Bristol, Conn
Canton, Ohio

October 27, 1928
January 2, 1929
October 24, 1928
July 10, 1928
March 12, 1929
January 12, 1929
February 21, 1929
September 21, 1928
February 21, 1929
July 14, 1928
July 15, 1928
January 13, 1929
October 22, 1928
October 19, 1928
December 19, 1928
September 10, 1928
December 5, 1928
November 1, 1928
April 1, 1929
August 20, 1928
May 4, 1929
October 20, 1928
December 12, 1928
May 28, 1929
March 9, 1929
June 20, 1929
January 23, 1929
September 9, 1928
March 16, 1929
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>NAME AND AGE AT DEATH</th>
<th>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</th>
<th>DATE OF DEATH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>H T Kneeland, Jr, 53</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y , Saranac Lake, N. Y.</td>
<td>August 18, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>A C Sherwood, 51</td>
<td>Englewood, N J.</td>
<td>May 5, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>Edward Tillotson, 53</td>
<td>Farmington, Conn , Swamscott, Mass</td>
<td>March 11, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>E O Emerson, 52</td>
<td>Titusville, Pa , New York City</td>
<td>October 9, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>John Jay, 52</td>
<td>New York City, Hyannis, Mass</td>
<td>July 23, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>G W Field, 54</td>
<td>Worcester, Mass , Scaradale, N. Y</td>
<td>March 7, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>E H Bindley, 51</td>
<td>Pittsburgh, Pa.</td>
<td>June 21, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>W L Chittenden, 51</td>
<td>Binghamton, N. Y , New York City</td>
<td>February 10, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>H A Dow, 51</td>
<td>Pittsfield, Ill , Evanston, Ill</td>
<td>November 5, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>E F Farley, 50</td>
<td>Naugatuck, Conn., New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>October 27, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>J M Hopkins, 67</td>
<td>College Grove, Tenn., Charlottesville, Va</td>
<td>January 1, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>Preston Kumer, 50</td>
<td>Evansville, Ind , Washington, D C</td>
<td>November 21, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>Julian Burdick, 50</td>
<td>Newburgh, N Y , Pittsburgh, Pa</td>
<td>April 21, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>F W. Campbell, 48</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>August 1, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>H F. Taylor, 48</td>
<td>Manchester, Conn , Jersey City, N J</td>
<td>November 8, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>J. McL Wyle, 41</td>
<td>New York City, Ridgewood, N J</td>
<td>November 24, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>B J. Baldwin, 53</td>
<td>Woodbridge, Conn , Providence, R I.</td>
<td>September 18, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>M L Davidson, 45</td>
<td>Lexington, Ky , Newark, N. J</td>
<td>August 3, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>R H. Melcer, 48</td>
<td>San Francisco, Calif , New York City</td>
<td>July 13, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>W B Tyler, 51</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn ; New York City</td>
<td>April 25, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>D C. Bunn, 45</td>
<td>LaCrosse, Wis., near Prosser, Wash</td>
<td>August 3, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>W F. Rundel, 49</td>
<td>Penfield, N Y , Rochester, N. Y.</td>
<td>April 19, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905</td>
<td>H M Shoemaker, 46</td>
<td>Wilkes Barre, Pa.</td>
<td>May 16, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905</td>
<td>L S Tyler, 47</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>September 24, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>G S. Dole, 43</td>
<td>Ypsilanti, Mich , Winthrop, Maine</td>
<td>September 6, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>J C. McNary, 45</td>
<td>Bloomington, Ind ; McNary, Ariz.</td>
<td>March 4, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>Spencer Turner, 44</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y , New York City</td>
<td>October 18, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Year</td>
<td>Name</td>
<td>Age</td>
<td>Location</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>------</td>
<td>--------------------</td>
<td>-----</td>
<td>---------------------------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>R. C. Wheeler</td>
<td>44</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908</td>
<td>Thomas Achelis</td>
<td>43</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y, Florence, Italy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908</td>
<td>S. E. Dunham</td>
<td>60</td>
<td>Inchbey, New Brunswick, Canada, New York City, Stamford, Conn</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908</td>
<td>R. P. Mackenzie</td>
<td>40</td>
<td>Lima, Ohio, Cincinnati, Ohio</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>R. J. Schweitzer</td>
<td>41</td>
<td>New York City, Stamford, Conn</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>C. C. Walbridge</td>
<td>42</td>
<td>Tamaqua, Pa, New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910</td>
<td>T. E. Canfield</td>
<td>43</td>
<td>Thomaston, Conn, Hartford, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910</td>
<td>G. L. Reynolds</td>
<td>41</td>
<td>East Lansing, Mich, Escondido, Calif, Danbury, Conn</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1911</td>
<td>T. C. Hull</td>
<td>39</td>
<td>Orange, N Y, Saranac Lake, N Y</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1914</td>
<td>G. L. Jackson</td>
<td>39</td>
<td>Haddam, Conn, Castle-on-Hudson, N Y</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1916</td>
<td>C. P. Eddy</td>
<td>36</td>
<td>Davis, W Va, Cincinnati, Ohio</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1917</td>
<td>F. S. Landstreet, J</td>
<td>33</td>
<td>New York City, St Paul, Minn</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1918</td>
<td>C. D. Backus</td>
<td>32</td>
<td>Middleville, Mich, New York City, Columbia, S C, Bombay, India</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1918</td>
<td>W. W. Dean</td>
<td>33</td>
<td>New York City, at sea</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1918</td>
<td>G. E. Keeler</td>
<td>33</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1919</td>
<td>A. C. Brockman</td>
<td>32</td>
<td>Sound Beach, Conn, Pasadena, Calif</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1919</td>
<td>A. M. Wakeman</td>
<td>31</td>
<td>Lake Forest, Ill, Scarsdale, N Y</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1920</td>
<td>Briton Hadden</td>
<td>31</td>
<td>East Hartford, Conn, Hartford, Conn</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1921</td>
<td>Edwin Binney</td>
<td>29</td>
<td>Hartford, Conn, Pittsfield, Mass</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1921</td>
<td>J. B. Bridgman</td>
<td>29</td>
<td>Darlington, Wis, Boston, Mass</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1922</td>
<td>T. W. O'Connell</td>
<td>30</td>
<td>New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1922</td>
<td>L. P. Parker</td>
<td>30</td>
<td>Germantown, Pa, Pelham, N Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1924</td>
<td>H. A. Hogue</td>
<td>26</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn, Chambersburg, Pa</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1925</td>
<td>G. P. Connfelt</td>
<td>24</td>
<td>New York City, Amsterdam, Holland</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Addresses:
- Danbury, Conn
- Orange, N Y, Saranac Lake, N Y
- Haddam, Conn, Castle-on-Hudson, N Y
- Davis, W Va, Cincinnati, Ohio
- New York City, at sea
- Brooklyn, N Y
- Sound Beach, Conn, Pasadena, Calif
- Lake Forest, Ill, Scarsdale, N Y
- East Hartford, Conn, Hartford, Conn
- Hartford, Conn, Pittsfield, Mass
- Darlington, Wis, Boston, Mass
- New York City
- Germantown, Pa, Pelham, N Y.
- New Haven, Conn, Chambersburg, Pa
- New York City, Amsterdam, Holland
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>NAME AND AGE AT DEATH</th>
<th>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</th>
<th>DATE OF DEATH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1865</td>
<td>W H Glenny, 83</td>
<td>Buffalo, N Y, Boston, Mass</td>
<td>February 9, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1866</td>
<td>J A Macdonald, 85</td>
<td>New York City, Flushing, N Y</td>
<td>April 15, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>J H Grove, 76</td>
<td>Fredericksburg, Pa, Philadelphia, Pa</td>
<td>February 18, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td>C A Watson, 76</td>
<td>Chicopee, Mass, New Brunswick, N J</td>
<td>January 23, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>A J Tenney, 73</td>
<td>Manchester, N H, Branford, Conn</td>
<td>February 26, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td>S. L Alvord, 71</td>
<td>West Winsted, Conn, Winchester, Conn.</td>
<td>July 8, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td>S F Clarke, 77</td>
<td>Geneva, Ill, Williamstown, Mass</td>
<td>August 1, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td>C T Richmond, 72</td>
<td>Johnsonville, N Y, Los Angeles, Calif</td>
<td>November 27, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td>E. H. Russell, 72</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>November 21, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>H W. Asher, 70</td>
<td>New York City</td>
<td>May 15, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>Malcolm Booth, 75</td>
<td>Woonsocket, R I, Glendale, Calif</td>
<td>March 28, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>C B. Ball, 74</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn, Chicago, Ill</td>
<td>October 18, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>G S Daniels, 67</td>
<td>New York City</td>
<td>May 12, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882</td>
<td>H J Biddle, 66</td>
<td>Carlisle, Pa, Lakeview, Ore</td>
<td>September 27, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>B. S Barrows, 68</td>
<td>Hartford, Conn</td>
<td>May 20, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>H W Blake, 63</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn, Englewood, N J</td>
<td>August 3, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>E. M Grimes, 63</td>
<td>San Francisco, Calif</td>
<td>June 4, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>W B Herr, 65</td>
<td>Lancaster, Pa., Seattle, Wash</td>
<td>May 2, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>W E Hutchings, 64</td>
<td>New York City, Louisville, Ky</td>
<td>June 18, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>F A Marsh, 65</td>
<td>Cincinnati, Ohio, Montclair, N J</td>
<td>June 28, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>Charles Willcox, 63</td>
<td>Philadelphia, Pa, Washington, D C</td>
<td>November 22, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888</td>
<td>H L Davis, 62</td>
<td>Bethlehem, Conn, Wallingford, Conn</td>
<td>February 10, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888</td>
<td>Matthew Griswold, 62</td>
<td>Erie, Pa.</td>
<td>August 3, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889</td>
<td>David Lyman, 61</td>
<td>Middlefield, Conn, Sierra, Switzerland</td>
<td>September 4, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>Walter Dodge, 60</td>
<td>Stamford, Conn, Orange, N. J</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Year</td>
<td>Name</td>
<td>Location</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>------</td>
<td>---------------------</td>
<td>-----------------------------------------------</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>W. S Roby, 60</td>
<td>Rochester, N. Y.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>W. T Spencer, 59</td>
<td>Guilford, Conn., Brookline, Mass</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>G F Stickney, 59</td>
<td>St Paul, Minn., Albany, N. Y.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>E O Sutton, 57</td>
<td>Bedford, N Y ; Springfield, Mass</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>O G Bunnell, 60</td>
<td>Burlington, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>E B Ellsworth, 58</td>
<td>Hartford, Conn</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>L R Moore, 56</td>
<td>Kansas City, Mo ; Miami, Fla.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>H E Hewlett, 55</td>
<td>Babylon, N. Y.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>C W Hoyt, 56</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn., Mineola, N Y.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>W. S. Pope, Jr, 56</td>
<td>St. Louis, Mo</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>C R Treat, 56</td>
<td>Orange, Conn</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>B G Wells, 60</td>
<td>Pittsburgh, Pa</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>W. B Jennings, 55</td>
<td>New York City; Norwalk, Conn</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>C R Lindenburg, 53</td>
<td>Columbus, Ohio; Manchester, Vt</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>R T Dana, 52</td>
<td>Lenox, Mass ; East Islip, N Y</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>G H Flinn, 53</td>
<td>Pittsburgh, Pa</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>H M North, 55</td>
<td>Columbia, Pa ; Lancaster, Pa</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>R. N Wilcox, 51</td>
<td>New York City</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>J A Allen, 48</td>
<td>New York City; Goshen, N Y</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>J H Inman, 51</td>
<td>New York City</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>A J Newell, 46</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y ; Philadelphia, Pa</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>I A Andrew, 46</td>
<td>Orange, Conn ; Derby, Conn</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>D W Franchot, 47</td>
<td>Olean, N Y ; Muncy, Pa</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>C A Norton, 45</td>
<td>Middletown Springs, Vt ; Wells, Vt.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>A Z VanNatta, 45</td>
<td>St Joseph, Mo</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>C C Pinney, 48</td>
<td>Stafford, Conn ; Saratoga Springs, N. Y.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>C B Stuart, 45</td>
<td>Cleveland, Ohio, at sea</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908</td>
<td>C H Cogswell, 42</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn ; Middletown, Conn</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908</td>
<td>C G Driscoll, 42</td>
<td>St Paul, Minn</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Note: The entries are followed by their dates of death or last known date of residence.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>NAME AND AGE AT DEATH</th>
<th>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</th>
<th>DATE OF DEATH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>W. O. Chanute, 44</td>
<td>Denver, Colo, Atlantic City, N. J</td>
<td>October 18, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910</td>
<td>O. B. Potter, 42</td>
<td>Ossining, N. Y., Ardsley-on-Hudson, N. Y.</td>
<td>July 16, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1914</td>
<td>P. R. Anness, 36</td>
<td>New York City, Bronxville, N. Y.</td>
<td>July 14, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1918</td>
<td>H. E. Genz, 31</td>
<td>Elizabeth, N. J., Oteen, N. C.</td>
<td>February 16, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1918</td>
<td>R. B. Jones, 33</td>
<td>Wilmington, Del., Yonkers, N. Y.</td>
<td>July 18, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1918</td>
<td>D. S. McKinnon, 31</td>
<td>Springfield, Mass., Saranac Lake, N. Y.</td>
<td>June 24, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1927</td>
<td>H. R. Kelley, 22</td>
<td>Troy, N. Y., New York City</td>
<td>April 26, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1928</td>
<td>C. E. Nettleton, 22</td>
<td>Rockville, Conn., Cambridge, Mass</td>
<td>January 28, 1929</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

GRADUATE SCHOOL

Masters of Arts

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>NAME AND AGE</th>
<th>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</th>
<th>DATE OF DEATH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>W. M. Patton, 64</td>
<td>Montreal, Canada</td>
<td>August 5, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>M. B. Seevers, 43</td>
<td>Oskaloosa, Iowa, Des Moines, Iowa</td>
<td>May 3, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>T. A. Martin, 68</td>
<td>Commercial Point, Ohio</td>
<td>September 11, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Chapin Brinsmade, 43</td>
<td>Washington, Conn., New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>August 7, 1928</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Doctors of Philosophy

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>NAME AND AGE</th>
<th>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</th>
<th>DATE OF DEATH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>W. N. Rice, 82</td>
<td>Marblehead, Mass., Delaware, Ohio</td>
<td>November 13, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>J. K. Light, 65</td>
<td>North Cornwall Township, Lebanon County, Pa., Mt. Gretna, Pa</td>
<td>October 9, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A. W. Reynolds, 71</td>
<td>Springwater, N. Y., Elmira, N. Y.</td>
<td>June 15, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>S. S. Sheridan, 76</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>July 18, 1928</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

SCHOOL OF MUSIC

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>NAME AND AGE</th>
<th>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</th>
<th>DATE OF DEATH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>W. E. Haesche, 61</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn., Roanoke, Va</td>
<td>January 26, 1929</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

SCHOOL OF FORESTRY

Master of Forestry

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>NAME AND AGE</th>
<th>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</th>
<th>DATE OF DEATH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>J. G. Peters, 51</td>
<td>Baltimore, Md., Camden, Ark</td>
<td>October 9, 1928</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Name</th>
<th>City/Location</th>
<th>Date</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>M. D. Slattery, 61</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>May 7, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>E. H. Arnold, 64</td>
<td>Erfurt, Germany, Atlantic City, NJ</td>
<td>March 9, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>J. L. Kelly, 61</td>
<td>New Britain, Conn.</td>
<td>April 19, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>J. V. Smith, 47</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn., Chicago, Ill</td>
<td>October 12, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905</td>
<td>T. F. Smallman, 45</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn., Brooklyn, NY</td>
<td>December 21, 1928</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

SCHOOL OF LAW

BACHELORS OF LAWS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Name</th>
<th>City/Location</th>
<th>Date</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1865</td>
<td>D. M. Delmas, 84</td>
<td>Claremont, France, Santa Monica, Calif</td>
<td>August 1, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>C. G. Root, 72</td>
<td>Naugatuck, Conn.; Devon, Conn.</td>
<td>August 7, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>J. M. Sweeney, 74</td>
<td>Naugatuck, Conn.</td>
<td>November 10, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>J. G. Wilson, 60</td>
<td>Rochester, N. Y., Washington, D.C</td>
<td>April 20, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>L. W. Cleaveland, 69</td>
<td>South Egremont, Mass., New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>March 6, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>D. W. Coleman, 56</td>
<td>Cheshire, Conn., Waterbury, Conn.</td>
<td>March 23, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>S. S. Doroff, 69</td>
<td>Elizabethgrad, Russia, Boston, Mass</td>
<td>July 13, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>F. C. Taylor, 62</td>
<td>Stamford, Conn., New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>November 27, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>C. W. Bauby, 53</td>
<td>Waterbury, Conn., New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>March 23, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td>W. T. Rawlins, 51</td>
<td>Honolulu, Hawaii, at sea</td>
<td>December 18, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>F. A. Gaynor, 48</td>
<td>Waterbury, Conn., Rye (Harrison), N. Y</td>
<td>April 8, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>R. N. Crane, 44</td>
<td>Plainfield, N. J.</td>
<td>March 16, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>M. R. Davis, 47</td>
<td>Niantic, Conn.</td>
<td>February 12, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1912</td>
<td>H. P. Roche, 42</td>
<td>Berlin, Conn., New Britain, Conn</td>
<td>January 16, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1917</td>
<td>C. M. Ingersoll, 35</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn., Stamford, Conn</td>
<td>February 5, 1929</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

MASTERS OF LAWS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Name</th>
<th>City/Location</th>
<th>Date</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>J. A. Allen, 57</td>
<td>Chenault, Ky., New York City</td>
<td>March 20, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>V. C. Randolph, 45</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill., Colorado Springs, Colo</td>
<td>October 26, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1912</td>
<td>E. H. Matthews, 44</td>
<td>Wayne, Ohio, Cincinnati, Ohio</td>
<td>February 8, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Class</td>
<td>Name and Age at Death</td>
<td>Place of Birth and Death</td>
<td>Date of Death</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-------</td>
<td>-----------------------</td>
<td>--------------------------</td>
<td>---------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1915</td>
<td>C R Frankham, 55</td>
<td>Dayton, Va, Columbus, Ohio</td>
<td>August 5, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1926</td>
<td>J F Francis, 38</td>
<td>Vienna, Austria, Oklahoma City, Okla</td>
<td>January 19, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873</td>
<td>R B Stimson, 84</td>
<td>Noblesville, Ind, Terre Haute, Ind</td>
<td>December 20, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875</td>
<td>O D Fisher, 81</td>
<td>Brighton, Ohio, Sutton, Mass</td>
<td>February 13, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>H T Sell, 73</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y, New York City</td>
<td>July 20, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>F S Hoffman, 76</td>
<td>Sheboygan Falls, Wis, Schenectady, N Y</td>
<td>December 21, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>D D Jenkins, 79</td>
<td>Merthyr Tydfil, South Wales, Wilkes Barre, Pa</td>
<td>August 4, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>G W. Trimble, 72</td>
<td>Bucyrus, Ohio, Sacramento, Calif.</td>
<td>August 10, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882</td>
<td>J M Holzinger, 76</td>
<td>Hachtel, Wurttemburg, Germany, Winona, Minn</td>
<td>May 31, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>G M Duncan, 70</td>
<td>Haledon, N J; Fair Lawn, N J</td>
<td>July 26, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>U. O Mohr, 69</td>
<td>Williamsport, Pa, Baltimore, Md</td>
<td>January 11, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>G E Paddock, 74</td>
<td>Livonia, Mich, Charleston, S C</td>
<td>November 26, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>Edward Roberts, 72</td>
<td>Salem, Cardiganshire, South Wales, Olean, N Y</td>
<td>September 22, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>H A Bridgman, 68</td>
<td>Northampton, Mass; Shirley Centre, Mass</td>
<td>March 16, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>B N Wyman, 65</td>
<td>Conneaut, Ohio, Canandaigua, N Y</td>
<td>October 17, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>W. M. Weeks, 69</td>
<td>Marston's Mills, Mass, Tiverton, R I</td>
<td>August 30, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>Warren Morse, 68</td>
<td>Dover, N H, Denver, Colo</td>
<td>June 11, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>P. M Strayer, 57</td>
<td>Edesville, Md, Rochester, N Y</td>
<td>April 3, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1926</td>
<td>R. C. Mansfield, 27</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>March 3, 1929</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
SUPPLEMENT

YALE COLLEGE

Marbledale, Conn, New Milford, Conn
Wallingford, Conn
Huron, Ohio, Saratoga, Calif.
Bennington, Vt., Miami, Fla
New York City; Nice, France
Chicago, Ill, Lake Forest, Ill
St Louis, Mo, New York City
Norwich, Conn
Dallas, Texas

SHEFFIELD SCIENTIFIC SCHOOL

Bogotá, Colombia, South America
East Windsor, Conn, Pasadena, Calif.
Wheeling, W Va
Jersey City, N. J, Hyde Park-on-Hudson, N Y
Washington, Mo, Santa Paula, Calif
Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, Chicago, Ill
Pewee Valley, Oldham County, Ky, Lexington, Ky
Middletown, N Y, Chicago, Ill
Providence, R I, New York City
Kensington, Conn, Los Angeles, Calif
Denver, Colo, Buffalo, N Y

GRADUATE SCHOOL

Master of Art

Wellington, Ill, near Danville, Ill
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>NAME AND AGE AT DEATH</th>
<th>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</th>
<th>DATE OF DEATH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1889</td>
<td>Fritz Jacobson, 65</td>
<td>Yuestad, Vestergotland, Sweden, Brooklyn, N Y</td>
<td>June 29, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1866</td>
<td>W E Hitchcock, 85</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn, Newark, N J</td>
<td>October 6, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1867</td>
<td>W V. Wilson, 84</td>
<td>Milford, Conn, Yarmouth Port, Mass</td>
<td>January 12, 1920</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>Simeon Straus, 72</td>
<td>Milwaukee, Wis, Chicago, Ill</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875</td>
<td>J. W. Parrott, 86</td>
<td>Bridgeport, Conn, Philadelphia, Pa</td>
<td>May 24, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td>C S Everest, 76</td>
<td>Hamden, Conn, New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>May 27, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>W. H. Everett, 74</td>
<td>Easton, Conn, Fairfield, Conn</td>
<td>February 14, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>D W Lawler, 67</td>
<td>Prairie du Chien, Wis, St. Paul, Minn</td>
<td>November 19, 1925</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>F O Murdock, 63</td>
<td>Milton, Pa, Chicago, Ill</td>
<td>September 15, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>F W. Igo, 55</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>March 30, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>G M Coombs, 65</td>
<td>Lincolnville, Maine; New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>August 9, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>W R Hall, 53</td>
<td>Farmsdale, Ala, Wetumpka, Ala</td>
<td>January 21, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>G B Thayer, 75</td>
<td>Rockville, Conn, Manchester, Conn</td>
<td>May 19, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908</td>
<td>H G Spencer, 47</td>
<td>Maui, Hawaii, Honolulu, Hawaii</td>
<td>June 28, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1911</td>
<td>R L Allen, 53</td>
<td>near Litchfield, Ky, Hamilton, Ohio</td>
<td>May 31, 1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>Seijiro Sho, —</td>
<td>Omura, Nagasaki Prefecture, Japan, Tokyo, Japan</td>
<td>December 25, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>Henry Deutsch, 53</td>
<td>Minneapolis, Minn.</td>
<td>January 9, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Year</td>
<td>Name</td>
<td>Age</td>
<td>Location</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>------</td>
<td>----------------</td>
<td>-----</td>
<td>-------------------------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873</td>
<td>J. P. Evans</td>
<td>84</td>
<td>Glamorganshire, South Wales, Bangor, Wis.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td>D. M. Moore</td>
<td>79</td>
<td>Athol, Mass, Orange, Mass</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>J. P. Dyas</td>
<td>76</td>
<td>Peru, Mass, Sandwich, Ill</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>C. D. Hoover</td>
<td>56</td>
<td>Smithsburg, Md, Los Angeles, Calif</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>T. F. May</td>
<td>64</td>
<td>Staten Island, N Y, Tacoma, Wash</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>G. D. Milbury</td>
<td>46</td>
<td>Wicklow, New Brunswick, Waverly, Mass</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908</td>
<td>H. G. Connelly</td>
<td>47</td>
<td>Baltimore, Md, Terre Haute, Ind</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The total number of deaths reported for the year 1928–29 is 277. The age of the 162 graduates of Yale College averages 61.6 years, and the age of the 63 graduates of Sheffield Scientific School averages 56.7 years. There are also recorded 45 deaths which occurred before July 1, 1928.

The oldest living graduate of the College is

Edward Payson Bradstreet (B A 1853), of Cincinnati, Ohio, born June 5, 1830.
INDEX

Graduates of the different Schools of the University are distinguished from graduates of Yale College by italic letters as follows: Divinity, d; Graduate, ma or dp; Law, l, jd, jsd, or ml; Medicine, m; Sheffield Scientific School, s.

CLASS | PAGE | CLASS | PAGE
--- | --- | --- | ---
1868 | Achels, Thomas | 180 | 1892 | Bunnell, Otis G | 243
1866 ml | Allen, James A | 310 | 1902 | Burdick, Julian | 162
1882 | Allen, James F | 88 | 1876 | Bush, Allen S. | 60
1900 s | Allen, J Appleton | 258 | 1897 s | Butler, Joel I. | 352
1911 l | Allen, Robert L | 367 | 1867 s | Caldwell, Alfred | 343
1878 s | Alvord, S Landon | 215 | 1902 | Campbell, Frederic W | 163
1903 s | Andrew, Irving A | 260 | 1910 | Canfield, Thomas E | 185
1914 s | Anness, Peyton R | 272 | 1894 | Chamberlain, John P | 130
1894 m | Arnold, E Hermann | 291 | 1909 s | Chanute, W. Octave | 270
1879 s | Asher, Harry W | 220 | 1865 | Chapman, Adelbert P | 14
1818 | Backus, Clifton D | 191 | 1900 | Chittenden, Walter L | 156
1903 | Baldwin, Burton J | 167 | 1886 | Christian, Francis A | 107
1880 s | Ball, Charles B | 222 | 1870 | 'Clapp, Delamar Edward | 34
1869 | Bannard, Henry C | 32 | 1897 | Clark, Alexander B | 145
1876 | Bannard, Otto T | 57 | 1877 | Clarke, Charles M | 66
1879 | Barker, Ralph | 75 | 1878 s | Clarke, Samuel F | 216
1877 | Barnes, Charles W | 65 | 1881 l | Cleaveland, Livingston W | 299
1883 s | Barrows, Benjamin | 226 | 1896 | Cochran, Alexander S | 142
1882 | Bates, Robert P | 334 | 1866 | Coffin, Edmund | 18
1899 l | Bauby, Charles W | 303 | 1908 s | Cogswell, Clarence H | 267
1872 | Beecher, William C | 43 | 1895 l | Coleman, Dennis W | 301
1871 | Benedict, Sedleye | 41 | 1875 | Collins, John C | 53
1882 s | Biddle, Henry J | 224 | 1908 d | Connelly, Howard G | 374
1900 | Bingley, Edward H | 155 | 1926 | Connfet, Godfrey P | 205
1868 | Bingham, Charles W | 24 | 1897 | Connor, Theobald M | 147
1921 | Binney, Edwin, Jr | 200 | 1895 l | Coombs, George M | 364
1867 | Bishop, William Henry | 21 | 1868 | Cramer, Frank | 26
1862 s | Bissell, Hezekiah | 342 | 1907 l | Crane, Robert N | 306
1886 s | Blake, Henry W | 226 | 1889 | Cullinan, Thomas M | 111
1928 bp | Bondy, Charles G | 208 | 1896 s | Dana, Richard T | 254
1879 s | Booth, Malcolm | 221 | 1881 s | Daniels, George S | 224
1887 d | Broadman, Howard A | 324 | 1903 | Davidson, Merit L | 168
1922 | Bridgman, John B | 201 | 1888 | Davis, Henry L | 233
1924 ma | Brinsmade, Chapin | 279 | 1907 l | Davis, Marion R | 307
1886 | Brinrot, Sharswood | 105 | 1889 s | Day, Edward H | 236
1919 | Brockman, Allen C | 195 | 1918 | Dean, William W | 192
1866 | Brown, Charles F | 15 | 1865 l | Delmas, Delphn M | 296
1888 | Brownell, Henry B | 109 | 1895 ml | Deutsch, Henry | 368
1866 | Bulkley, L Duncan | 15 | 1890 s | Dodge, Walter | 237
1904 | Bunn, Donald C | 171 | 1906 | Dole, George S | 175

390
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>PAGE</th>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>PAGE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1895 l</td>
<td></td>
<td>Doroff, Samuel S</td>
<td>301</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td></td>
<td>Dow, Harry A</td>
<td>157</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908 s</td>
<td></td>
<td>Driscoll, Conrad G</td>
<td>268</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884 d</td>
<td></td>
<td>Duncan, George M</td>
<td>321</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908</td>
<td></td>
<td>Dunham, S Ellis</td>
<td>181</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td></td>
<td>Durand, Henry S</td>
<td>81</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879 d</td>
<td></td>
<td>Dyas, J Perry</td>
<td>371</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1916</td>
<td></td>
<td>Eddy, Charles P.</td>
<td>189</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td></td>
<td>Ellis, Richard</td>
<td>334</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893 s</td>
<td></td>
<td>Ellsworth, Ernest B</td>
<td>244</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td></td>
<td>Ely, E Stiles</td>
<td>61</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td></td>
<td>Emerson, Edward O</td>
<td>151</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td></td>
<td>Eno, Henry Lane</td>
<td>131</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1854 s</td>
<td></td>
<td>Espinosa y Escallon, Rafael</td>
<td>341</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873 d</td>
<td></td>
<td>Evans, John P</td>
<td>370</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878 l</td>
<td></td>
<td>Everest, Charles S</td>
<td>360</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880 l</td>
<td></td>
<td>Everett, William H.</td>
<td>361</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td></td>
<td>Farley, Eugene F</td>
<td>158</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1866</td>
<td></td>
<td>Farnam, William W</td>
<td>19</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td></td>
<td>Field, George W</td>
<td>154</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td></td>
<td>Fields, Seward H</td>
<td>91</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875 d</td>
<td></td>
<td>Fisher, Oren D</td>
<td>315</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897 s</td>
<td></td>
<td>Flinn, George H</td>
<td>255</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td></td>
<td>Forchheimer, Henry A</td>
<td>93</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903 s</td>
<td></td>
<td>Franchot, Douglas W</td>
<td>261</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1926isd</td>
<td></td>
<td>Francis, Joseph F</td>
<td>314</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1915 dl</td>
<td></td>
<td>Frankham, Charles R</td>
<td>312</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td></td>
<td>Friend, Kennedy T</td>
<td>67</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td></td>
<td>Fuller, Luther</td>
<td>41</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td></td>
<td>Furbish, Clinton H</td>
<td>132</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902 l</td>
<td></td>
<td>Gaynor, Frank A</td>
<td>305</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1918 s</td>
<td></td>
<td>Genz, Henry E</td>
<td>273</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1865 s</td>
<td></td>
<td>Glenny, William H</td>
<td>209</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td></td>
<td>Goodrich, Frank</td>
<td>79</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886 s</td>
<td></td>
<td>Grimes, Everett M</td>
<td>228</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1862</td>
<td></td>
<td>Griswold, Henry J</td>
<td>6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888 s</td>
<td></td>
<td>Griswold, Matthew</td>
<td>234</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874 s</td>
<td></td>
<td>Grove, Jacob H</td>
<td>211</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td></td>
<td>Gruener, Gustav</td>
<td>96</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1920</td>
<td></td>
<td>Hadden, Briton</td>
<td>198</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897 mus</td>
<td></td>
<td>Haesche, William E</td>
<td>287</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1921</td>
<td></td>
<td>Hall, Lloyd Grosvenor</td>
<td>339</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895 l</td>
<td></td>
<td>Hall, William R</td>
<td>364</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td></td>
<td>Hart, Frederic W</td>
<td>108</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td></td>
<td>Hedges, Gilbert L</td>
<td>143</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td></td>
<td>Heermans, John</td>
<td>135</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886 s</td>
<td></td>
<td>Herr, Willis B</td>
<td>229</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894 s</td>
<td></td>
<td>Hewlett, Harold E</td>
<td>247</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>NAME</td>
<td>PAGE</td>
<td>CLASS</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-------</td>
<td>---------------------------</td>
<td>------</td>
<td>-------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1868</td>
<td>Mackenzie, Ralph P</td>
<td>183</td>
<td>1892</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td>McKinnon, Donald S</td>
<td>274</td>
<td>1901</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td>McNary, John C</td>
<td>176</td>
<td>1893</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>Marshfield, Robert C</td>
<td>329</td>
<td>1910</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>Martin, Thomas A</td>
<td>279</td>
<td>1867</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1912</td>
<td>Matthews, Elijah H</td>
<td>312</td>
<td>1878</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1912</td>
<td>May, Thomas F</td>
<td>372</td>
<td>1886</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>Melcer, Ralph H</td>
<td>168</td>
<td>1877</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>Milbury, G Douglas</td>
<td>373</td>
<td>1877</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>Mitchell, Kier</td>
<td>95</td>
<td>1890</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>Mohr, Ursinus O</td>
<td>323</td>
<td>1912</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>Moore, Daniel M</td>
<td>370</td>
<td>1879</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Moore, Lysander R</td>
<td>245</td>
<td>1873</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>Moore, William A</td>
<td>138</td>
<td>1877</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>Morse, Warren</td>
<td>327</td>
<td>1906</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>Munson, George D</td>
<td>332</td>
<td>1874</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>Murdoch, Forrest O</td>
<td>363</td>
<td>1904</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>Murray, Francis W</td>
<td>68</td>
<td>1878</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>Nettleton, Charles E</td>
<td>276</td>
<td>1884</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>Newell, Antoine J</td>
<td>259</td>
<td>1884</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>North, Hugh M</td>
<td>256</td>
<td>1872</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>Norton, Charles A</td>
<td>263</td>
<td>1909</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1922</td>
<td>O'Connell, T Ward</td>
<td>202</td>
<td>1906</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>Ormes, Manly D</td>
<td>102</td>
<td>1877</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>Osborne, Thomas B</td>
<td>83</td>
<td>1890</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>Owen, Thomas B</td>
<td>351</td>
<td>1863</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>Paddock, George E</td>
<td>323</td>
<td>1867</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td>Page, Joseph F, Jr</td>
<td>42</td>
<td>1902</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882</td>
<td>Palmer, J Culbert</td>
<td>89</td>
<td>1897</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882</td>
<td>Paramore, Edward E</td>
<td>346</td>
<td>1887</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>Parker, Amasa J, Jr</td>
<td>122</td>
<td>1905</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1922</td>
<td>Parker, Lewis Pond</td>
<td>203</td>
<td>1893</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875</td>
<td>Parrott, J Wilbur</td>
<td>359</td>
<td>1868</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>Patterson, Sheldon P</td>
<td>333</td>
<td>1905</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>Patton, Walter M</td>
<td>277</td>
<td>1896</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>Peck, Howard S</td>
<td>144</td>
<td>1847</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>Perry, John H</td>
<td>38</td>
<td>1904</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>Peters, J Girvin</td>
<td>289</td>
<td>1875</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888</td>
<td>Pierce, Thomas W</td>
<td>30</td>
<td>1908</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>Pinney, Claude C</td>
<td>265</td>
<td>1890</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>Platt, Rutherford H</td>
<td>51</td>
<td>1872</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>Pope, William S, Jr</td>
<td>249</td>
<td>1894</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910</td>
<td>Potter, Orlando B</td>
<td>271</td>
<td>1877</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Putney, Albert H</td>
<td>127</td>
<td>1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Quintard, Harry C</td>
<td>129</td>
<td>1913</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1856</td>
<td>Rackleff, James L</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>1891</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>Randolph, Vernon Calvin</td>
<td>311</td>
<td>1873</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>NAME</td>
<td>PAGE</td>
<td>CLASS</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-------</td>
<td>-----------------------</td>
<td>------</td>
<td>--------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1827</td>
<td>Stirling, Luzerne L.</td>
<td>207</td>
<td>1888</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>Straus, Simeon</td>
<td>358</td>
<td>1919</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Strayer, Paul M</td>
<td>327</td>
<td>1909</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1864</td>
<td>Strong, Charles R</td>
<td>12</td>
<td>1877</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>Stuart, Charles B.</td>
<td>266</td>
<td>1876</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>Sutton, Edward O.</td>
<td>242</td>
<td>1896</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>Swayne, Francis B.</td>
<td>46</td>
<td>1894</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>Sweeney, John M</td>
<td>298</td>
<td>1889</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>Swift, J Trumbull</td>
<td>100</td>
<td>1895</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>Taylor, Frederick C</td>
<td>302</td>
<td>1907</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>Taylor, Howard F</td>
<td>164</td>
<td>1880</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>Tenney, Arthur J</td>
<td>213</td>
<td>1894</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>Thayer, George B.</td>
<td>365</td>
<td>1881</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>Thomas, Edward B</td>
<td>40</td>
<td>1877</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>Thomas, Hermann</td>
<td>140</td>
<td>1852</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>Tighe, Ambrose</td>
<td>77</td>
<td>1899</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>Tillotson, Edward</td>
<td>150</td>
<td>1886</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875</td>
<td>Torrey, Reuben A.</td>
<td>57</td>
<td>1890</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>Treat, Charles R.</td>
<td>249</td>
<td>1880</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>Trumble, George W.</td>
<td>320</td>
<td>1867</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>Turner, Spencer</td>
<td>178</td>
<td>1892</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905</td>
<td>Tyler, Leonard S</td>
<td>173</td>
<td>1872</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Tyler, William B.</td>
<td>170</td>
<td>1876</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>Underhill, Edwin S</td>
<td>85</td>
<td>1902</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>VanNatta, Alan Z</td>
<td>264</td>
<td>1891</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>