Obituary Record of Graduates of Yale University

Deceased during the Year 1929-1930
BULLETIN OF YALE UNIVERSITY

Entered as second-class matter, August 30, 1906, at the post office at New Haven, Conn., under the Act of Congress of July 16, 1894.

Acceptance for mailing at the special rate of postage provided for in Section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized August 12, 1918.

The Bulletin, which is issued semimonthly, includes:

1. The University Catalogue.
2. The Reports of the President and Treasurer.
3. The Catalogues of the several Schools.
5. The Obituary Record.
George William Baldwin, B.A. 1853.

Born April 24, 1832, in New Haven, Conn.
Died January 23, 1930, in Vevey, Switzerland.

Father, Roger Sherman Baldwin (B.A. 1811, LL.D. Trinity 1844, Yale 1845); governor of Connecticut 1844-46, ex-officio Fellow of Yale; United States senator 1847-1851; son of Simeon Baldwin (B.A. 1781), member of Congress and judge of Superior and Supreme Courts of Connecticut, and Rebecca (Sherman) Baldwin, of New Haven. Mother, Emily (Perkins) Baldwin; daughter of Enoch Perkins (B.A. 1781) and Anna (Pitkin) Perkins, of Hartford, Conn.; through the Pitkins, descendant of five Colonial governors, Bradford, Dudley, Haynes, Wyllys, and Pitkin Yale relatives include: Roger Sherman (honorary M.A. 1768), a signer of the Declaration of Independence and fifth treasurer of Yale (great-grandfather); Rev. Timothy Pitkin (B.A. 1747), a Fellow of Yale (great-grandfather); Ebenezer Baldwin (B.A. 1808) (uncle); Thomas C. Perkins (B.A. 1818) (uncle), and his son, Frederick B Perkins, '50; George W. Perkins (B.A. 1824) (uncle); Edward L. Baldwin, '42, and Roger S. Baldwin, '47 (brothers); Simeon E. Baldwin, '61 (brother), his son, Roger S Baldwin, '90, his granddaughter, Charlotte W Gilman (Mrs. Paul Livingston Penfield), M.A. 1921, and his grandson, Bradley B Gilman, '25; Dwight Foster, '48 (brother-in-law), his sons, Roger Foster '78, Burnside Foster, '82 (son, Roger S Foster, '21), and Reginald Foster, '84 (sons, Lawrence Foster, '21, Reginald Foster, Jr., '22, and Maxwell E. Foster, '23); William D. Whitney (honorary M.A. 1867) (brother-in-law), his daughter, Marian P Whitney, Ph.D. 1901, and his son, Edward B. Whitney, '78 (sons, William D. Whitney, '20, Simon N. Whitney, '24, and Roger S. and Hassler Whitney, both
Obituary Record

'28); Henry C Thacher, '02, and Thomas A Thacher, '08 (grandnephews), and Henry deF. Baldwin, '85, Roger S. Baldwin, '95, DeForest Baldwin, '99, and Simeon Baldwin, '08 (first cousins once removed); and Sherman Baldwin, '19 (second cousin)

Hopkins Grammar School Third prize in English composition Sophomore year; member Alpha Delta Phi and Skull and Bones Studied in Yale School of Law 1853–54 and in the law office of Arnold, Larned & Lay in Chicago 1854–56, began the practice of law there independently April 1, 1856, was in association with Edward Houghton, '52, for a short time, and on December 1, 1856, formed a partnership with Hasbrouck Davis under firm name of Davis & Baldwin; continued in that connection until October, 1857, and after several months of independent practice went abroad; practiced law in Worcester, Mass., 1858–1861, in partnership with his brother-in-law, Dwight Foster, under the name of Foster & Baldwin; in November, 1861, entered United States Army as Adjutant of 15th Regiment, Massachusetts Volunteers, and saw action at siege of Yorktown and Fair Oaks; invalided home for a time; early in October, 1862, was commissioned by President Lincoln as Assistant Adjutant General of Volunteers and served with Army of the Potomac on Brigade and Division Staff of 3d Division, 6th Army Corps, until he met with a serious accident in the line of duty; honorably discharged April 19, 1863; spent some time in Carver (military) Hospital, Washington, D. C., followed by several months in travel abroad; resumed the practice of law November 13, 1863, with Dwight Foster, then Attorney General of Massachusetts, in Boston, Mass., and continued in active practice until his retirement on account of ill health, about 1880; had since spent the greater part of his time abroad, traveling extensively in Europe, China, Japan, Egypt, India, Palestine, and South America; had made his home in Vevey since 1914, and upon his ninety-seventh birthday the municipality presented him with a silver vase as a token of esteem for his contributions to that city during the World War.

Unmarried.

Death due to bronchitis and advanced age. Buried in Cimetière de St-Martin, Vevey. Survived by no immediate relatives. By the terms of his will $1,000 was left to Yale for the purchase of books for the University Library.

George Morris Woodruff, B.A. 1857.

Born March 3, 1836, in Litchfield, Conn
Died April 29, 1930, in Litchfield, Conn.

Father, George Catlin Woodruff (B.A. 1825), a lawyer, judge of Probate Court; member of Connecticut Legislature and member of Congress; Colonel in Connecticut State Militia; son of Morris Woodruff, Major General in Connecticut Militia, and Candace (Catlin) Woodruff, of Litchfield. Mother, Henrietta Sophronia (Seymour) Woodruff; daughter of Ozias and Selima (Storrs) Seymour, and sister of Origen S. Seymour (B.A. 1824), of Litchfield. Yale relatives include: Horatio Seymour (B.A. 1797) (great-uncle); Lewis B Woodruff (B.A. 1830) (uncle), his sons, Charles H. Woodruff, '58 (with his sons, Lewis B. Woodruff, '90, Frederick S. Woodruff, '92, and Charles H. Woodruff, '96), and Morris Woodruff, '60 (with his sons, Morris Woodruff, '93, and George W. L. Woodruff, '95 S.); and the following cousins: John F. Seymour (B.A. 1835), his son, Horatio Seymour, '67, and his grandson, Horatio Seymour, '07 S., Edward W. Seymour, '53, Storrs O. Seymour, '57, and Morris W. Seymour, '66, his son, Origen S. Seymour, '94, and his grandson, Morris W. Seymour, ex-'29

Phillips-Andover. Third dispute appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year, member Alida Boat Club, Presentation Day Committee, Linonia, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, and Psi Upsilon.

Studied law with his father in Litchfield 1857-58 and at Harvard Law School 1858-59; admitted to the bar in Litchfield September 14, 1859, and had since practiced law in that town, his son, James P. Woodruff, '93 L., having been associated with him since 1894 under the firm name of George M & James P. Woodruff; judge of probate for District of Litchfield 1868-1906, with the exception of the year 1871-72; treasurer of the town 1860-1906; town clerk 1865-68; justice of the peace 1860–1906; appointed assistant clerk of the Superior Court in 1862 but served only a short time; member of Connecticut General Assembly in 1863, 1865, and 1872; appointed by Governor English in 1867 to serve on a commission to examine and report on military system of Connecticut;
Obituary Record

commissioner to Universal Exposition in Hamburg in 1863;
state railroad commissioner 1874–1897, president of the board 1875–1879); in 1913 appointed representative from Connecticut to a conference for solving the railroad problems of the New England states; president of Litchfield Savings Bank since 1885 (a director since 1870), of the First National Bank of Litchfield since 1899 (director 1887–1890 and since 1896), and of Litchfield Mutual Fire Insurance Company since 1902 (director since 1878 and treasurer 1885–1902); director of Connecticut branch of Citizens’ League for the Promotion of Sound Banking; an organizer of Colonial Trust Company of Waterbury, Conn., in 1899 (director until death, second vice-controller and trust officer to 1907 and first vice-president since 1907), served on Connecticut State Board of Education
1865–1877; deacon in Litchfield Congregational Church since 1867; vice-president and president (1895–97) of Connecticut Congregational Club; president White Memorial Association since 1913; life member Connecticut and Litchfield Historical societies; corporate member American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missionaries; member American and Connecticut State Bar associations, Connecticut Civil Service Reform Association, Archaeological Institute of America, American Historical Association, and The Sanctorum (president at death); former president of Litchfield County University Club.

Married June 13, 1860, in Flushing, N. Y., Elizabeth Ferris, daughter of James Bowne and Eliza Ferris (Cock) Parsons.
Children: George Catlin, ex-’85 (B.A. Amherst 1885) (died March 17, 1929), Eliza Parsons, the wife of Alexander Mc-Neill, Lafayette ex-’85; and James Parsons (B.A. Amherst 1891, M.A. 1894, LL.B. Yale 1893, LL.M. 1894). Mrs. Woodruff died May 14, 1911.

Death due to colliquative diarrhoea and heart block.
Buried in New East Cemetery, Litchfield. Survived by one son, daughter, six grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.
Tale College

Russell Woodbridge Gridley, B.A. 1859.

Born December 13, 1837, in Candor, N.Y.
Died February 14, 1930, in Amboy, Ill

Father, William Cadwell Gridley, a farmer; son of Russell and Sally (Kelsey) Gridley, of West Camden, N.Y.; grandson of Selah Gridley, an aide-de-camp to General Washington.

Mother, Elizabeth (Woodbridge) Gridley; daughter of Joseph and Anne (Hollister) Woodbridge, of Salem, Pa.

Yale relatives include: the Rev. Ashbel Woodbridge (B.A. 1724), a Fellow of Yale 1755-58 (great-great-grandfather); Timothy Woodbridge (B.A. 1706) (great-great-great-uncle), and his son, Timothy Woodbridge (B.A. 1732), and his grandson, Joshua L Woodbridge (B.A. 1773); Samuel Woodbridge (B.A. 1763), Ephraim Woodbridge (B.A. 1765), and William Woodbridge (B.A. 1780) (great-great-uncles), and the latter's son, William C. Woodbridge (B.A. 1811), and grandson, William R. Woodbridge, '55.

Homer (N.Y.) and Owego (N.Y.) academies. Entered Yale as a Sophomore in 1856; first colloquy appointment Junior year; member Linonia.

Superintendent of several farms in Candor 1859-1862 and read law at home during a part of the time; lived at home without any special occupation because of ill health 1862-65; engaged in the mercantile business with his father-in-law in Amboy 1865-1886; member of the firm of Wheat & Gridley (dry goods) 1886-1897, and then of its successor, H.W. Gridley & Company until death; former member of Congregational Church at Candor and member since 1867 of First Congregational Church, Amboy.

Married June 20, 1865, in Lee Center, Ill., Josephine, daughter of Lyman Curtis and Mary (Warnick) Wheat. Children: Harry Wheat, Belott ex-'92; Grace Eliza (died in 1913); and Alice Woodbridge. Mrs. Gridley died July 7, 1921.

Death due to general debility, with contributory cause an injury to the nerve of the leg resulting from a fall several years before. Buried in Prairie Repose Cemetery, Amboy. Survived by son, one daughter, and two brothers, S Egbert Gridley, of Candor, and Charles F. Gridley, of West Candor.
Obituary Record

Joseph Frederic Kernochan, B.A. 1863.
Born December 8, 1842, in New York City.
Died August 17, 1929, in New York City.

Father, Joseph Kernochan, a dry goods merchant; born in Scotland and came to America in 1790; son of William and Esther Kernochan. Mother, Margaret (Seymour) Kernochan; daughter of William Seymour. Nephew: Edward L. Kernochan, ‘91.

Prepared for college at the school of Aaron N. Skinner in New Haven and by private tutors, Addison VanName, ’58, and Cyrus Northrop, ’57. Third prize in English composition Sophomore year; dissertation appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; member Alpha Sigma Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

LL.B Columbia 1865; admitted to the bar of the Supreme Court of New York County in May, 1865; then traveled abroad for a year and a half; in law office of Abraham R. Lawrence in New York City 1867–69; in partnership with his brother, Francis E. Kernochan, ‘61, under firm name of F. E. & J. F. Kernochan in New York 1869–1873; had since practiced independently, making a specialty of testamentary law; president of Arminius Chemical Company 1898–1918; director of Lawyers’ Title Company and of the Stephen Whitney Estate Company 1909–1929; president of New York Free Circulating Library (now absorbed by New York Public Library) 1893–1901; charter member of Association of the Bar of the City of New York 1869; warden of All Saints Memorial Church, Navesink, N. J, 1884–1904; member of vestry of Grace Episcopal Church, New York City, since 1887 and senior warden since 1905; secretary of Class of 1863 since 1923 and also Class agent for the Alumni Fund.

Married April 15, 1869, in New York City, Mary Stuart, daughter of William and Mary Stuart (McVickar) Whitney. Children Eweretta; William (died in childhood); Frederic, ’98; Mary Stuart Whitney (Mrs. Courtland Smith); and Whitney, ’07 Mrs. Kernochan died August 11, 1922.

Death due to a stroke of paralysis. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by two sons, two daughters, and two grandchildren.
Alanson Douglas Miller, B.A. 1864.

Born December 13, 1842, in Rochester, N.Y.
Died December 17, 1929, in Glen Ridge, N.J.

Father, Samuel Miller (B.A. Middlebury 1822), a lawyer, judge of the County Court in Rochester; New York state senator; son of Elisha and Loraine (Jackson) Miller, of Williamston, Vt. Mother, Mary Ann (Douglas) Miller; daughter of Alanson and Ann (Sutherland) Douglas, of Troy, N.Y. Yale relatives include: Sutherland Douglas (B.A. 1822) and George H. Douglas (B.A. 1828) (uncles), and the following cousins, Elisha W. Miller, '68, Elliot S. Miller, '73, Hiram A. Miller, '76 S., and his sons, Buckingham Miller, ex-'10, and Hiram Allen Miller, Jr., '17, and Charles A. Miller, '79.

Collegiate Institute, Northampton, Mass. Two second prizes in English composition and a second prize in declamation Sophomore year; second dispute appointment Junior year; third dispute appointment and Townsend Premium, Senior year; an editor of Yale Literary Magazine; member Varuna Boat Club, Linonia, Delta Kappa, Alpha Sigma Phi, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Studied in Sheffield Scientific School 1864-65; spent next three years abroad in travel and study (in Paris for some time, and attended lectures at King's College, Cambridge University, in spring of 1868); graduated from General Theological Seminary in 1870; ordained deacon June 12, 1870, in New York City, and priest in 1871; assistant minister of Holy Trinity Church, Brooklyn, N.Y., 1870-71; rector of St. Peter's Church, Milford, Conn., 1871-76; St. John's Church, Hartford, Conn., 1876-1881; Holy Trinity Church, Middletown, Conn., 1881-82; St. Luke's Church, San Francisco, Calif., 1883-86; St. James Church, New London, Conn., 1886-89; and Grace Church, New Haven, 1889-1896; traveled in Egypt, Palestine, Turkey, and Greece 1896-97, and in Europe 1897-99; had since lived in Glen Ridge, N.J.; in charge of St. James Church, New Haven, winter of 1899-1900; in charge of Protestant Episcopal Church, Green Cove Springs, Fla., winter of 1903-04; took a trip around the world in 1905; had served as pulpit supply for St. Agnes Church, Little Falls, and Christ Church, Glen Ridge, N.J., 1900-1915; at various times, 1900-1912, when at his summer home at the Thousand Islands, officiated at Church of the Redeemer, Rockport, Ontario; member Christ Church, Glen Ridge, at time of death.

Death due to lobar pneumonia. Buried in Mount Hope Cemetery, Rochester. Survived by wife, son, daughter, six grandchildren, a sister, Miss Julia Miller, of Santa Barbara, Calif, and a brother, George Douglas Miller, '70. By the terms of his will, Mr. Miller bequeathed the sum of $10,000 to the University to establish the Mary Miller Fellowship, in honor of his mother, his wife, and his daughter; the income to be awarded to any member of the Graduate School, preferably, a recent graduate of Yale College.

Charles Phelps Taft, B.A. 1864.

Born December 21, 1843, in Cincinnati, Ohio.
Died December 31, 1929, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Father, Alphonso Taft (B.A. 1833, LL.D. 1867), a lawyer; judge of the Superior Court of Cincinnati; United States Secretary of War and Attorney General in Cabinet of President Grant; minister plenipotentiary to Austria and Russia; tutor at Yale 1835-37; Fellow 1872-1882; trustee of University of Cincinnati; son of Peter Rawson Taft, a judge of Windham County, Vt, and Sylvia (Howard) Taft, of West Townshend, Vt. Mother, Fanny (Phelps) Taft, daughter of Judge Charles Phelps (B.A. honorary University of Vermont 1812), and Eliza (Houghton) Phelps, of Townshend, Vt. Yale relatives include. Peter R Taft, '67 (brother), and his son, Hulbert Taft, '08; Walbridge S Taft, '07, William Howard Taft, 2d, '09, Robert A Taft, '10, and Charles P. Taft, 2d, '18 (nephews); Helen Taft Manning, Ph.D. 1924 (wife of Frederick J Manning, '16) (niece); and Hulbert Taft, Jr., '30 (grandnephew).

Phillips-Andover High oration appointment Junior and Senior years; speaker at Junior Exhibition; member Glyuna Boat Club, Brothers in Unity, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Studied law in Cincinnati 1864–65, and then at Columbia (LL.B. 1866); admitted to the bar and practiced law in Cincinnati for a few months as member of firm of Sage, Haacke & Taft; took graduate work at universities of Berlin (four months) and Heidelberg, and received degree of J.U.D. at latter institution 1867; spent 1868 and 1869 in Paris (studied at the Sorbonne one year) and traveled in Italy and the British Isles; practiced law in Cincinnati 1869–1879, at first in partnership with his classmate Murray C. Shoemaker, during 1870–71 as a partner of General Edward F. Noyes, and 1871–79 with his father and brother, Peter R. Taft, under the firm name of A. Taft & Sons; about 1875 bought an interest in the Cincinnati Volksblatt and was vice-president of the company which published it until 1890; in 1879 became editor (with H. P. Boyden) and controller of Cincinnati Times, which was consolidated with the Daily Star the following year under name of Cincinnati Times-Star, of which he was editor until his death; vice-president of Western Associated Press 1892–93; director of Associated Press 1901 and 1902; trustee of Sinking Fund of City of Cincinnati 1892–1908 (president of the board 1898–1908); served on Union Board of the High Schools 1876–1892; director and treasurer of Cincinnati May Musical Festival Association 1878–1880 and director and vice-president 1917–1925; a founder of the Zoological Garden in 1873 and president 1917–1929; president Cincinnati Art Museum Association 1914–1927 and then honorary president; representative in Ohio General Assembly 1871 (chairman of Committee on Common Schools); nominated for Republican candidate for Congress 1872, but defeated; member of Congress from 1st District of Ohio 1895–97 (served on Committees on Foreign Affairs and on Territories); renominated in 1897, but withdrew before election; delegate to Republican National Convention 1900; presidential elector at large from Ohio 1904, delegate at large from Ohio 1908; president of Ohio Electoral College 1905; president and director Dixie Terminal Building 1916–1929; vice-president Covington & Cincinnati Bridge Company 1901–1929; director Cincinnati
Suburban Bell Telephone Company since 1902, Cincinnati Gas & Electric Company 1902–08 (president 1906–08) and 1917–1929, Cincinnati Street Railway Company since 1905, and Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation 1907–1927; instrumental in development of southern Texas as president since 1894, and treasurer 1894–1911, of Coleman-Fulton Pasture Company (known as the “Taft Ranch”), and established the town of Taft about 1904; part owner of Chicago National Baseball Team 1905–1916, and of Philadelphia National Baseball Team 1909–1913; one of the original members of Cincinnati Yale Club, founded by his father in 1864, and served as president 1903 and 1904, and as vice-president 1910; president of University Club of Cincinnati 1887–1895, 1913–1929; in 1920 gave to Yale $271,700, the income to be used for general purposes; had made large gifts to the University of Cincinnati, among them $75,000 for the erection of a Law School building named the Alphonso Taft Hall in memory of his father, and the endowment of the department of heliotherapy for the treatment of tuberculosis; had also made substantial gifts to the Hebrew Union College of Cincinnati, Princeton, Harvard, and Walter Hines Page School of International Relations of Johns Hopkins University; with Mrs. Taft established the Anna Louise Inn, a home for working girls, built a unit of Christ Hospital in memory of their grandson, Charles Taft Semple, and in 1927 gave their home and art collection to the Cincinnati Institute of Fine Arts and endowed the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra; LL.D. University of Cincinnati 1922 and Lincoln Memorial University, Cumberland, Tenn., 1922; member Ohio Society of Mayflower Descendants, Ohio Society of New York, and Christ Episcopal Church, Cincinnati.

Married December 4, 1873, in Cincinnati, Annie Sinton (LL D. University of Cincinnati 1922), daughter of David and Jane (Ellison) Sinton Children: Jane Ellison, the wife of Albert S. Ingalls (B.A Harvard 1896); David Sinton (died in 1891); Anna Louise, the wife of William T. Semple (B.A. William Jewell College 1900, Ph.D. Princeton 1910); and Charles Howard, '05.

Death due to lobar pneumonia and the infirmities of age. Buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati. Survived by wife, two daughters, son, three grandchildren, one of whom is David S. Ingalls, '20, three half brothers, William H. Taft, '78 (died March 8, 1930), Henry W. Taft, '80, and Horace D. Taft, '83, and a half sister, Mrs. William A. Edwards, of El Cajon, Calif.

Everett Howard Converse, B.A. 1865.

Born November 20, 1843, in Monson, Mass.
Died February 2, 1930, in Bethel, Conn

Father, Welcome Converse, a builder and farmer; son of Welcome and Huldah (Howard) Converse, of Monson Mother, Mary Frances (Newell) Converse; daughter of Austin and Polly (Hoar) Newell, of Monson. Cousins: George N. Whittlesey, '00, Richard E. Whittlesey, '06, and William S Whittlesey, '07.

Monson Academy. Second dispute appointment Junior year; second colloquy appointment Senior year; member Varuna Boat Club, Brothers in Unity, Gamma Nu, and Alpha Delta Phi.

Was actively engaged in dry goods commission business in New York City from graduation until his retirement in 1912; connected with firm of Coffin & Altemus 1865-1876; member of firm of Coffin, Altemus & Company 1876-1899, and had general supervision of their store in New York; during that period also acted as manager of print works in Rhode Island; member of firm of Treat & Converse 1899-1903, Treat, Converse & Company 1903-05, and Converse & Company 1905-07; in 1907 founded firm of Converse & Company, Inc., and served as its president until 1912, retaining his directorship in the company after his retirement from active business; since 1912 had lived on an estate in Bethel; member of Congregational Church.

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Hillside Cemetery, Monson. Survived by wife (died March 20, 1930), and a sister, Mrs. Henry Sherman Gould, of Brookline, Mass.
Obituary Record

William Stocking, B.A. 1865.

Born December 11, 1840, in Waterbury, Conn
Died January 26, 1930, in Detroit, Mich

Father, John Miles Stocking; a button burnisher, also engaged in the foundry business and the manufacture of matches; a deacon in the Congregational Church, temperance worker, and ardent abolitionist, whose barn was used as a way station of the "underground railway"; son of Anson and Phila (Miles) Stocking, of Hartford, Conn. Mother, Emeline (Newell) Stocking, daughter of Amos and Lucy (Root) Newell, of the part of Farmington, Conn., which became Southington
Brother, Gilbert M Stocking, '61

Waterbury High School and Williston Academy. Two first prizes in English composition Sophomore year; Townsend Premium Senior year; high oration appointments Junior and Senior years, an editor of Yale Literary Magazine; member Presentation Day Committee, Brothers in Unity, Gamma Nu, Alpha Delta Phi, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Served as a Private in 60th Regiment, Massachusetts Volunteers, July 18–November 30, 1864, being stationed at Indianapolis, Ind., during greater part of the time; spent fall of 1865 in New Haven, engaged in reading and attending lectures; city editor of Hartford (Conn) Evening Press December, 1865–May, 1867, and then of Hartford Morning Courant until November, 1867, when he became connected with Detroit Daily Post; served as its legislative correspondent at Lansing, December, 1872–April, 1873, in March, 1874, and January–May, 1875; editor of the Post from January, 1876, until its consolidation with the Detroit Advertiser and Tribune in October, 1877; Washington correspondent of the Post and Tribune in 1878 and Lansing correspondent in 1879 and 1881, managing editor 1881–83, and editor-in-chief 1883; engaged in building and miscellaneous work 1885–86; special writer for Detroit Tribune 1886–1891 (Lansing correspondent in 1887); engaged in special and newspaper work 1891–1903; connected with the Chamber of Commerce office for a part of the year 1894–95; in November, 1903, became acting secretary of municipal art committee of Detroit Board of Commerce and shortly after secretary of taxation and municipal affairs com-committee; committee secretary 1905–1910, secretary of membership, foreign trade, and entertainment committees 1910–12 and of membership and entertainment committees 1913–16; during latter period became statistician and historian of the Board and served as such until his retirement in 1923; compiled Michigan Almanac six years; furnished much of the political literature for Republic State Central Committee in three campaigns; author: Under the Oaks, a history of the first Republican convention in Michigan, published on its twenty-fifth anniversary 1879 and rewritten and enlarged 1904, History of the Republican Party (1900), History of Banks and Banking in Michigan (1902), and History of the Judiciary of Wayne County (1903); associate editor of The City of Detroit (1922); wrote some chapters in Life of Zachariah Chandler (joint work of three editors of Detroit Tribune, 1880), M.A. Yale 1869; member Detroit chapter, Sons of the American Revolution (historian 1914–17 and 1919–1921; honorary member since 1927), Detroit Citizens’ League, Detroit Historical Society, and First Congregational Church, Detroit.

Married May 19, 1869, in Hartford, Elizabeth, daughter of Normand and Elizabeth (Walker) Lyman. Children: Elizabeth Lyman (died April 8, 1930); Margaret, University of Michigan ex-'66, the widow of Edward VanFleet, who attended Valparaiso University two years; and Frederick Newell, Michigan Agricultural College ex-'00. Mrs. Stocking died February 17, 1926.

Death due to chronic endocarditis and mitral regurgitation. Buried in Woodmere Cemetery, Detroit. Survived by son and two daughters.

William Bates Davenport, B.A. 1867.

Born March 10, 1847, in New York City.

Died November 14, 1929, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Father, Julius Davenport, a teacher in Brooklyn many years; later in real estate business under name of J. Davenport & Son; deacon Clinton Avenue Congregational Church; son of William and Abigail (Benedict) Davenport, of New Canaan, Conn. Mother, Mary Ann (Bates) Davenport; daughter of William and Armenia Dean (Wilkeyson, or Wilkinson) Bates, of New York City. Yale relatives include: Davenport Hooker, '08, and Henry D Hooker, ’12 (nephews); and James P Davenport, ’77 (cousin).
Obituary Record

Overheiser’s School, Brooklyn, and Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. Left college at end of Sophomore year; member Class Committee, Brothers in Unity and Delta Kappa; received honorary M.A. 1887 and enrolled in Class of 1867 in June, 1896, graduate member Wolf’s Head.

Served with United States Sanitary Commission and as a Second Lieutenant in the Quartermaster’s Department of the Department of East Tennessee 1865–66; cashier of Metropolitan Life Insurance Company of New York City 1866–68; in real estate business in New York 1869–1870, and studied law at the same time; admitted to the Bar of the State of New York December 15, 1870; practiced law in Brooklyn until his retirement in 1904; specialized in equity and real estate law; public administrator of Surrogate’s Court, Kings County, N. Y., 1889–1904; trustee of Peoples’ Trust Company of Brooklyn (now National City Bank of New York) about 1891–1905; trustee 1896–1917, and treasurer 1896–1904, of Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences; trustee of Brooklyn Art Association 1896–1917 and of Brooklyn Children’s Aid Society 1904–1918; connected with Long Island Historical Society as director since 1908, chairman of executive committee since 1912, second vice-president 1912, first vice-president 1913–1924, and president since 1925; president Brooklyn New England Society 1897–98, Polhemus Memorial Clinic since 1897, and Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute Alumni Association since 1907; member Constitutional Convention of State of New York 1894 (on committees of cities and corporations), member Democratic State Committee 1895; delegate to Democratic National Convention 1884, and to many state and local conventions; member United States District Appeals Board for New York City 1917–18, served as first secretary, and also as member of special committee of Mayor’s Committee for National Defense; president of Yale Alumni Association of Long Island 1896–98 and again 1907–1915; director Alumni Fund Association 1903–1911, chairman 1906–07, and Class Agent since 1914, member Alumni Board since 1907, on Executive Committee 1916-18, and on Nominating Committee 1919-1920, chairman of Committee on Revision of Life at Yale 1918, and of Committee on Commencement Exercises 1912 and 1913; president of Class of 1867 since 1912; member New York Bar Association, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution, Settlers and Defenders, and Saint Nicholas Society.

Married (1) June 4, 1868, in Brooklyn, Caroline Cady, daughter of Benjamin and Mary (Hoxie) Peckham. One daughter, Edith Hoxie (died in childhood) Mrs Davenport died December 11, 1871. Married (2) September 9, 1874, in Elizabeth, N. J., Charlotte Cordelia, daughter of George Frederick and Sarah Elizabeth (Boyd) Shepherd. One daughter, Florence (died in childhood).

Death due to a heart attack. Buried in River Bend Cemetery, Westerly, R. I. Survived by wife, and a sister, Mrs Henry D. Hooker, of New Haven. In 1923 gave to the Yale School of Law the gift of $1,000, bequeathed to him under the will of Chief Justice Edgar M. Cullen By the terms of his will, his residuary estate is bequeathed to the University for a fund bearing his name, the income of which is to be used for general purposes.

Frank Libbey, B.A. 1867.

Born January 20, 1847, in Georgetown, D C
Died October 9, 1929, in Washington, D C.

Father, Joseph Libbey; owner of the Joseph Libbey Lumber Company of Georgetown; son of John and Sarah (Leathers) Libbey, of Durham, N. H. Mother, Louisa (Myers) Libbey; daughter of John and Charlotte (Miller) Myers, of Georgetown.

Received preparation for college under Francis Miller, '52, at Sandy Spring, Md. Second dispute appointments Junior and Senior years; member Brothers in Unity (won second prize in their Freshman debate), Gamma Nu, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones.

After graduation studied law for a time at Columbian (now George Washington) University; had since been engaged in the lumber business in Washington; in the employ of his Married March 22, 1876, in Washington, Emma Margaret, daughter of the Rev. Theodore Denny Valiant, a Methodist Protestant minister, and Martha Melvina (Albers) Valiant. Children: Clara (died in infancy); Ethel (Mrs. Ralph S. Campbell); Emily May, and Florence, the wife of Lucien B. Crist (LL.B. George Washington 1906) Mrs. Libbey died March 18, 1916.

Death due to arteriosclerosis and chronic myocarditis. Buried in Oak Hill Cemetery, Washington. Survived by three daughters, one grandchild, and a sister, Mrs. Walter Alexander, of Washington.

Henry Freeman Homes, B.A. 1868.

Born April 20, 1847, in Pera, Constantinople, Turkey.
Died September 15, 1929, in New York City.

Father, Henry Augustus Homes (B A. Amherst 1830, M A. 1834, LL.D Columbia 1873); student in Andover Theological Seminary 1831–32 and in Yale Divinity School 1832–34; a missionary of the American Board in Turkey; chargé d'affaires and acting consul of the United States at Constantinople; librarian of New York State Library at Albany; author and translator; son of Henry and Dorcas (Freeman) Homes, of Boston, Mass. Mother, Anna Whiting (Heath) Homes; daughter of John Heath, of Brookline, Mass.

Albany Academy. Member Gamma Nu.

Employed in New York State Insurance Department at Albany 1868–1871; secretary of Commonwealth Life Insurance Company in New York City for a short time in 1871; consulting actuary in New York City 1871–78; LL.B Columbia 1879; admitted to practice in the Supreme Court May 6, 1879, at Ithaca, N. Y.; practiced law in Albany 1879-1885 and since then in New York, specializing in insurance matters and estates; member Association of the Bar of the City of New York; served on library and art committee of Yale Club of New York 1927-28

Unmarried.

Death due to heart trouble. Buried in Mount Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge, Mass. By the terms of his will one fourth of his residuary estate was bequeathed to Yale as a permanent fund, to be known as the Henry A. Homes Library Fund, in memory of his parents.

David McCoy Bone, B.A. 1870.

Born April 18, 1846, in Rock Creek Community, Menard County, Ill
Died October 25, 1929, in Kansas City, Mo

Father, Robert Smith Bone, a farmer and stock raiser at Rock Creek; son of Ehhu Bone, who served in War of 1812, and Nancy Brown (Warnick) Bone, of Menard County, Ill Mother, Nancy (McCoy) Bone; daughter of David and Mary (Kirkpatrick) McCoy, of Sangamon County, Ill.

Hopkins Grammar School. Rowed on University Crew Junior and Senior years, and was stroke captain in 1870, commodore of Yale Navy Senior year, one of the Cocheleau-reati; member Brothers in Unity, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta X1 (Alpha Sigma Phi), and Delta Kappa Epsilon Spent the years 1870-72 on his father’s farm at Rock Creek, principal of Petersburg (Ill.) Seminary 1872-73, engaged in the drug business in Petersburg as member of firm of Bone & Fisher 1873-74, in the furniture and undertaking business under name of D. M. Bone & Company 1874-1884, and in the manufacture of spring beds (using his own patent) 1884-87, then moved to Kansas City and continued in the same business until 1908, at first in his own company, the Bone Spring Company, and later with its successor, the Bone-Baird Spring Bed Company, vice-president of Burdett Manufacturing Company (now Burdett-Rose Manufacturing Company), makers of floor dusters, brooms, mops, etc., about 1908-1911; bookkeeper for Commercial State Bank of Mount Washington.

Obituary Record

ton, Mo., from about 1911 until his retirement in 1918; an organizer of Business Men's League of Kansas City 1906 and its secretary 1906–08; during this period compiled and published the Kansas City annual, Greater Kansas City, in 1907 and 1908; also published Biographical Sketch and Genealogy of Elitho Bone (1919), a reprint from Journal of Illinois Historical Society, and his address at the centennial celebration of Rock Creek Presbyterian Church in 1922, on the history of the church and community, was published in the same periodical in 1923; a founder of Oakland Cemetery, Petersburg, 1881; elder in Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Petersburg, 1874–1884; later member Mount Washington Methodist Church South (organized Men's Brotherhood of the church 1910 and taught the Men's Bible Class 1910–15).

Married April 16, 1874, in Petersburg, Mary Paul, daughter of Alexander F. Rainey (M.D. Pennsylvania Medical College 1856) and Virginia Emily (Regnier) Rainey. Children: Virginia Maria (Mrs. Charles E. Schooley); Harriet Moore (Mrs. Francis N. Flynn); Mary McCoy, Missouri University ex.’01, the wife of Junius L. Meriam (A.B. Oberlin 1895, M.A. Harvard 1902, Ph.D. Columbia 1905); Albert Jack; Ione Antle, the wife of George C. Peck; Robert David; and Nancy Ethel (Mrs. Carl L. Wells).

Death due to acute cardiac dilatation, with aneurysm of thoracic aorta with hypertension as secondary cause. Buried in Mount Washington Cemetery. Survived by wife, five daughters, two sons, thirteen grandchildren, and two brothers, Robert E. Bone, of Tallula, Ill., and James F. Bone, of Fort Scott, Kans.

Franklin Countryman, B.A. 1870.

Born September 23, 1849, in New Haven, Conn
Died January 26, 1930, in North Branford, Conn

Father, Nicholas Countryman, a builder; selectman and counselman, New Haven; member 2d Company, Governor's Horse Guards, during Civil War; son of Nicholas and Elizabeth (Eckler) Countryman, of Stark, N. Y. Mother, Louisa (Hine) Countryman; daughter of Hezekiah and Abigail
Hopkins Grammar School. First colloquy appointment Junior and Senior years; member Linonia and Delta Kappa Taught in Morgan School, Clinton, Conn., 1870-71, studied in Yale Divinity School 1871-74; ordained to Congregational ministry May 28, 1874, at Prospect, Conn, and was pastor there until 1877; then withdrew temporarily from active ministry on account of ill health, and lived in New Haven for three years; pastor at Georgetown, Conn, 1880-82, North Branford 1882-1906, Stony Creek, Conn., 1906-09, and First Congregational Church, East Haddam, Conn, from 1909 until his retirement in October, 1929, served on Town School Committee of North Branford 1883-1901, and was chairman of the School Board in East Haddam several years, chaplain of Connecticut House of Representatives 1909 and 1910, of Connecticut State Grange 1902-1910, and of Governor's Horse Guards (now Troop A, National Guard) two years; delegate to National Congregational Council 1915; moderator of Connecticut State Association of Congregational Ministers 1918; registrar of New Haven East Consociation 1893-1908; member of Middletown County Committee of Interchurch Movement 1919; member of State Committee on Rural Life 1920; delegate to District Senatorial Convention; during the war served as fuel and food commissioner for town of East Haddam and as chairman of local Council for Defense and president of the War Bureau; had published several sermons; member Sons of the American Revolution, and North Branford Congregational Church.

Married (1) December 26, 1870, in New Haven, Mary Isabel, daughter of Judge Rufus Starr Pickett, '73 L, and Catherine (Keeler) Pickett, and half sister of Edwin S. Pickett, '99. Mrs Countryman died August 24, 1877. Married (2) November 18, 1880, in New Haven, Ella Sophia, daughter of George Henry and Sophia Blackmer (Kilbourn) Butricks, and sister of Wallace A. Butricks, ex-'85 Special S One daughter, Ella May. Mrs. Countryman died May 17, 1927.

Death due to a shock. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by daughter, a sister, Mrs. Louis Wight, of
Obituary Record

James Matson Russell, B.A. 1870.

Born December 29, 1846, in Paris, Ky.
Died October 10, 1929, in Mount Sterling, Ky

Father, Robert Spotswood Russell, who graduated at Transylvania University in 1836; breeder of shorthorn cattle; son of Thomas Allen Russell, who attended Transylvania and was Colonel of 10th Regiment, Kentucky Militia, and Anne Mastin (Allen) Russell, of New Lexington, Ky Mother, Louise (Matson) Russell; daughter of James Spears and Lucy (Webb) Matson, of Paris, Ky.

Private tutors in New Haven and White Plains (N. Y.)
Military Institute Entered Yale with Class of 1869, but joined Class of 1870 Junior year; member Linonia, Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, Alpha Delta Phi, and Scroll and Key.

Went to the West with Professor Othniel C. Marsh's expedition in 1870 and later spent some time in California, went to Sitka, Alaska, and took a trip of several months through Mexico; engaged in farming and breeding of trotting and saddle horses and thoroughbred cattle in Paris 1875-1892; served as receiver of First National Bank of Rico, Colo., in 1893; gauger in Internal Revenue Service 1893-1914; member Christian Church, Paris.

Death, due to organic heart disease and Bright's disease, occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Barnes. Survived by wife, two daughters, and four grandchildren.
Charles Hezekiah Hamlin, B.A. 1871.

Born January 11, 1850, in Farmington (now Plainville), Conn
Died August 16, 1929, in Farmington, Maine

Father, Hezekiah Wells Hamlin, a farmer; son of Asahel and Rhoda (Andrews) Hamlin, of Farmington. Mother, Catharine M. (Cowles) Hamlin; daughter of William and Olive (Pierce) Cowles, of Farmington. Nephew: Charles B. Rodman, ex-'95 S.

Hartford Public High School Entered Yale with Class of 1870, but joined Class of 1871 the next year; third prize in English composition Sophomore year and college premium in same subject Senior year; high oration appointments Junior and Senior years; member Brothers in Unity, Gamma Nu, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Taught in Unionville (Conn.) High School 1871–72, studied in Yale Divinity School 1872–74 and at Universities of Bonn and Leipzig, Germany, 1874–75; ordained to Congregational ministry September 19, 1876, at Chester, Mass., where he held the pastorate of the Second Congregational Church until 1879; pastor South Church, Pittsfield, Mass., 1879–1884; and Payson Church, Easthampton, Mass., 1885–1913, since then pastor emeritus and member of that church, which in 1918 united with First Congregational Church under name of Easthampton Congregational Church; spent the year following his retirement from the active ministry abroad and had since resided in Amherst, Mass., engaged in writing and supplying various pulpits; had served on committees of moral and social betterment of Massachusetts State Conference of Congregational Churches and taken part in suppression of race-track gambling; trustee of Williston Academy since 1899 and member of its prudential committee since 1900, director of Easthampton Public Library 1899–1915; president of Connecticut Valley Congregational Club 1892; vice-president of Yale Alumni Association of Western Massachusetts 1893.

Married January 17, 1877, in New Haven, Fanny, daughter of William Woodbridge Rodman (B.A 1838, M.D Jefferson Medical College 1844) and Jerusha (Pomeroy) Rodman, sister of Dr. Charles S. Rodman, ex-'68 S., and half sister of Thomas Rodman, '96 S., and Henry B. Rodman, '98 S. Children: Wil
Obituary Record

Ham Rodman (B.A. 1900, B.D. 1905); Margaret Ruth Pomeroy (B.A. Smith 1904); and Benjamin Pomeroy (B.A. 1907, Ph.B. 1908) Mrs. Hamlin died October 18, 1920.

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Brookside Cemetery, Easthampton. Survived by daughter, two sons, and four grandchildren.

Charles Hensley Starling, B.A. 1871.

Born January 3, 1851, in New York City
Died October 4, 1929, in Medicine Hat, Alberta, Canada.

Father, Lyne Starling; practiced law with Phineas B. Wilcox (B.A. 1821) in Columbus, Ohio; wholesale merchant in New York; owned a cotton plantation in Arkansas; Major and Assistant Adjutant General on the staff of Major General Crittenden in Civil War; son of William and Mary (McDowell) Starling, of Mercer County, Ky. Mother, Maria Antoinette (Hensley) Starling; daughter of Benjamin and Prudence (Culbertson) Hensley, of Frankfort, Ky. Brother, Lyne Starling, '71.

B B Sayre's School, Frankfort. Entered Yale as a Sophomore in 1869, honorary member Delta Kappa and belonged also to Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Studied law in Cincinnati with firm of King, Thomson & Longworth, but had to leave Cincinnati on account of his health, went to Sunnyside, Ark., and engaged in business as a cotton planter until 1883; then moved to Greenville, Miss., was admitted to the bar, and practiced law until 1908, at first as member of firm of Campbell & Starling and from 1902 independently, gave up the law in 1908 on account of deafness and moved to Alberta, where he was engaged in farming on his own property, "Old Glory," during the rest of his life; secretary of Greenville School Board 1883–1908; treasurer of Church of the Disciples (Campbellites), Greenville, 1905–08; member of Church of the Disciples at Erskine, Alberta, at time of death.

Married October 15, 1878, at Lake Port Plantation, Ark., Annie, daughter of Lycurgus Leonidas and Lydia (Taylor)
John Johnson. Children: Lydia Taylor (died in childhood); William (died in 1921); Cave, who attended Johnson Bible College two years (1899–1901); Antoinette, who attended University of Missouri 1901–03 and married Lee E. Lakin (B.A. Transylvania 1905, M.A. 1906); Mary Cable (died in 1904); Charles Hensley; Benjamin Taylor; Lyne (died in 1920); and Linn Mrs. Starling died April 17, 1913.

Death followed an operation for removal of stone from the bladder and occurred at the hospital in Medicine Hat. Buried in the cemetery near Gadsby, Alberta. Survived by one daughter, four sons, ten grandchildren, and a sister; Miss Laura P. Starling, of Frankfort, Ky.

Rush Benjamin Wheeler, B.A. 1871.

Born January 29, 1844, in South Butler, N Y.
Died April 2, 1930, in St Paul, Minn.

Father, Orange Hall Wheeler, a fruit farmer; son of Eli and Grizel (Osborn) Wheeler, of New Fairfield, Conn. Mother, Eve (Tucker) Wheeler; daughter of Dr. Benjamin Tucker, Jr., and Eve (Viele) Tucker, of Butler, N. Y.

Private school in South Butler and Cazenovia (N. Y.) Seminary. Second colloquy appointment Junior year; first colloquy appointment Senior year; member Gamma Nu.

Taught natural sciences and mathematics at South Berkshire Institute, New Marlboro, Mass., 1871–72; secretary of Remington Mowing Machine Company, at Ilion N. Y., 1872–73; then moved to Austin, Minn., and studied law under his brother, Eber Osborn Wheeler, and acted as his assistant until 1876; member of firm of E. O. and R. B. Wheeler (law and land business) April, 1876–February, 1880, being admitted to Minnesota Bar March 23, 1877; continued in the law, real estate, loans, and insurance business in Austin until 1883 and then in St. Paul until his retirement in July, 1923; director of First National Bank of Austin 1880–83; president of Real Estate Board of St. Paul 1894–96 and its treasurer 1900–04; elected honorary member of the board 1923; director of Chamber of Commerce of St. Paul 1885–1900; secretary of Summit Avenue Improvement Association 1886; treasurer of St. Paul Y M C.A. 1888–1903; trustee of Park Congregational Church, St. Paul, for over fifteen years and treasurer for about ten; member National Association of Real Estate Boards and charter member (in 1918) Athletic Club of St. Paul Married May 17, 1876, in Rochester, Minn., Harriet Sophia, daughter of Asa Spaulding Clark, Jr., and Rhoda (Shaw) Clark. Children: Frost Montaine, '01; Cleora Clark (B.A. University of Minnesota 1903); Everett Clark (died at nine years of age); and Ross Clark (died at fifteen years of age).

Death due to chronic myocarditis with complications. Buried in Oakland Cemetery, St Paul. Survived by wife, daughter, one son, and three grandchildren.

Edward Allen Wilson, B.A. 1871.

Born August 12, 1851, in St. Louis, Mo.
Died August 3, 1929, in San Antonio, Texas.

St Louis Public High School. Dissertation appointment and first Clark Premium for classical essay Junior year; oration appointment Senior year; member Yale Missionary Society, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Studied in Sheffield Scientific School 1871–73 (Ph.B. 1873); clerk for Pennsylvana Railroad in New York City 1873–75; engaged in farming and surveying in Texas 1875–1880; took a short course in metallurgy in 1880; assayer and chemist with Chrysolite Company in Leadville, Colo., 1880–87; assayer, agent, and superintendent of various smelting works in Mexico 1887–1897, when he retired from active business on account of ill health; had been connected with Ohio & Missouri Smelting Company, La Plata Company of Colorado, St Louis & Zacatecas Ore Company, and Constancia Company of Mexico; superintendent of smelting works at Sierra Mojada and later of smelters of Peñoles Company in Napimi, Mexico; organized Monterey Smelting Company; connected with Industrial Lumber Company of Beaumont, Texas; vice-president of Industrial Lumber Company of Elizabeth, La, but never actively engaged in management of the concern; lived in Monterey, Mexico, 1899–1914 and in San Antonio since 1915.

Married April 5, 1895, in St. Louis, Mary, daughter of Daniel Tarbox and Sarah (Wilson) Jewett. No children.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Bellfontaine Cemetery, St. Louis. Survived by wife and two sisters, Mrs Minnie W. Cragin, of Worcester, Mass., and Mrs. Josephine W. Hamilton, of Caledonia, N. Y. By the terms of his will a bequest of $300,000 will revert to Yale after the death of his wife.

Edgar Frost Belding, B.A. 1872.

Born January 17, 1850, in West Northfield, Mass.
Died December 27, 1929, in Fairhaven, Mass

Father, Elijah Eastman Belding, a farmer; postmaster of West Northfield; chairman of Board of Selectmen; member Massachusetts Legislature; son of Elijah and Lois Stowe (Steavens) Belding, of West Northfield. Mother, Eliza (Frost) Belding; daughter of Jacob and Dolly (Kathan) Frost, of Vernon, Vt. Nephew: Dr. John E. Belding, '95 S.

Powers Institute, Bernardston, Mass., Deerfield (Mass.) Academy, and Williston Academy. Member Brothers in Unity, Gamma Nu, and Alpha Delta Phi.

Assisted in management of his father's farm from graduation until spring of 1873; engaged in shoe business 1873–1900; in wholesale boot and shoe house of J. H. Lee & Company, Boston, until December, 1874; partner (with his uncle, E. M. Dickinson) in firm of E. M. Dickinson & Company, manufacturers of shoes, in Fitchburg, Mass, 1874–1885; owner of E. F. Belding & Company, shoe manufacturers, in Fitchburg 1885–1900; also organized Fitchburg Shoe Tip Company in 1874, and served as treasurer and manager until 1894; in sales department of Atlas Tack Company, Fairhaven, 1900–November, 1911, when retired from active business; director of Rollstone National Bank, Fitchburg, 1883–1898; an organizer of Fitchburg & Leominster Street Railway Company 1888, and a director until 1898; in 1889 nominated for alderman of Fitchburg on Independent Party ticket, but defeated; president of Board of Alderman 1895–96 and chairman of finance and streets committees; in 1897 nominated for mayor of Fitchburg, but defeated; president of College Men’s Association of Fitchburg 1897–98; vice-president of Fitchburg Athletic Club; member Fitchburg Board of Trade and Merchants’ Association and of First Parish Unitarian, Fitchburg (chairman of board of parish assessors).

Married April 30, 1879, in Boston, Mathilde Leopoldine, daughter of Herman Askenasy, a graduate of the University of Vienna, and Josephine (Esterhazy) Askenasy. Children: Clarence Edgar, ex-‘01; and Edward Leopold (died in 1923; left bequest of $10,000 to Yale). Mrs Belding died February 8, 1900.

Death due to hypertrophy of the prostate gland, following an operation. Buried in Forest Hills Cemetery, Fitchburg. Survived by one son and a brother, Elijah Belding, of West Northfield.

William Harrison Bradley, B.A. 1872.

Born June 3, 1848, in Galena, Ill
Died September 17, 1929, in New York City.

Father, William Henry Bradley, a lawyer in Chicago; clerk of the United States District and Circuit courts; vice-president of National Bank of Illinois; president of West Division Street Railway Company; a trustee of the Newberry estate and Newberry Library; a founder of the City Missionary Society and of Illinois Home Missionary Society; corporate member of American Board; son of Judge Jesse Smith Bradley (B A 1800) and Elizabeth (Baker) Bradley, of Ridgefield, Conn. Mother, Idea Sophronia (Strong) Bradley; daughter of Erastus and Abigail Wright (Harrison) Strong Yale relatives include Philip B. Bradley (B.A. 1758) (great-grandfather); and Thaddeus B. Wakeman (B.A. 1799), Luther D. Bradley, ex-'77, and his son, Francis Bradley, ex-'26 (cousins).

Monson (Mass.) Academy. Treasurer of Yale Boat Club, member Yale Glee and '72 Glee clubs, Junior and Senior Promenade committees, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Engaged in business in Chicago as member of firm of Bliss & Torrey, wholesale importers of druggists' supplies, 1873-76; then went to California on account of ill health and remained until 1879, living in San Francisco for a part of the time, special student in Columbia School of Mines during winter of 1879-1880; spent summers of 1879 and 1880 in charge of mines in San Juan County, Calif; connected with Union Iron & Steel Company of Chicago 1881-88; United States Consul at Nice, France, 1889-1893; then spent some time in study in various European cities and in the Valley of the Nile; United States Consul at Tunstall, England, 1897-1903, consul-general at Manchester, England, 1903-07 and at Montreal, Canada, 1907-1917; during the latter period placed in charge of the interned aliens; retired from Government service in 1917 on account of ill health and made his home in Ridgefield, Conn.; member of numerous scientific and commercial organizations.

Married (1) September 24, 1873, in Springfield, Mass, Mary Capen Gray, a special student at Vassar three years, daughter of James Harrison Gray (M.D Harvard 1840) and Rachel White (Capen) Gray, and stepdaughter of Charles Merriam. Two sons. William Henry (died in 1876); and Bryson Delavan (died in 1878). Mrs. Bradley died December 28, 1878. Married (2) November 13, 1883, in Chicago, Carolina, daughter of Iver and Malinda I. (Henderson) Lawson Two daughters: Marion Kari (Mrs William Livingstone Rodgers) and Mary Linda. Mrs. Bradley died September 29, 1916.

Death due to apoplexy. Buried in Titicus Cemetery, Ridgefield. Survived by two daughters and an adopted daughter, Anne Louise Smith.
Obituary Record

Fred Thomas Dubois, B.A. 1872.

Born May 29, 1851, in Palestine, Ill.
Died February 14, 1930, in Washington, D.C.

Father, Jesse Kilgour Dubois; state auditor of Illinois; member of Illinois Legislature; had charge of Lincoln's campaign for president in 1860; son of Capt Toussaint Dubois, who came to America with Lafayette, and Jane (Baird) Dubois, of Vincennes, Ind. Mother, Adelia (Morris) Dubois; daughter of Joshua and Adelia Morris, of Indiana. Yale relatives: Jesse K. Dubois, '72 (brother); and Morris Mitchell, '15 (cousin).

Prepared at Shurtleff Preparatory School, Alton, Ill., and under private tutor in New Haven. Member '72 Baseball Team, Hat Committee Sophomore year, Senior Class Supper Committee, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Salesman for wholesale dry goods house of John V Farwell & Company in Chicago 1872-73; secretary of the Board of Railway and Warehouse Commission of the State of Illinois 1875-76, moved to Idaho Territory in 1880 and became engaged in the cattle business at Blackfoot and Cheyenne, was later engaged in the real estate and mining business and served as assistant Indian agent at Cheyenne for a time; United States marshal of Idaho 1882-86 and during this period was active in anti-Mormon agitation; delegate to Congress 1887-1891, and was a prominent factor in the admission of Idaho as a state in 1890; served as its first senator 1891-97; delegate to Republican National Conventions of 1888, 1892, and 1896, and at the last two conventions served as chairman of the delegation from Idaho; withdrew from the 1896 convention and the party after the adoption of the gold standard platform and later in the same year ran as a silver Republican candidate for election to the Senate, but was defeated; in state convention of 1900 nominated for the Senate by Democrats, Populists, and silver Republicans and elected as a silver Republican; shortly afterwards became a Democrat and served as such 1901-07; delegate to Democratic National conventions of 1904 and 1908 (chairman of Idaho's delegation); in 1908 directed Champ Clark's campaign for Democratic nomination for president; later served as president of the Capital Service and Information Bureau at Washington, as vice-president of First National Fire Insurance Company and of the American Government Society, and as a director of National Investment & Mortgage Company; civilian member of Board of Ordnance and Fortifications of the War Department in 1918; since 1924 had been member of International Joint Commission for the Settlement of Boundary Disputes between the United States and Canada; LL.D. National University School of Law 1926; trustee of National University since 1914 and chairman of the board since 1924.

Married January 11, 1899, in Chicago, Edna Maxfield, daughter of William Whited, who served in the Civil War, and Mary Alice (Maxfield) Whited. Children: Elizabeth Mary and Toussaint.

Death due to broncho-pneumonia and myocarditis. Buried in Grove City Cemetery, near Blackfoot, Idaho. Survived by wife and daughters.

Edward Henry Peaslee, B.A. 1872.

Born October 23, 1850, in Hanover, N. H
Died February 10, 1930, in New York City.

Father, Edmund Randolph Peaslee (B.A. Dartmouth 1836, M.D. Yale 1840, LL.D. Dartmouth 1859); professor of anatomy, physiology, and gynecology at Dartmouth, of anatomy and surgery at Bowdoin, of physiology, pathology, and obstetrics at New York Medical College, and of gynecology at Bellevue Hospital Medical College; president of New Hampshire State, New York Pathological, New York County, New York Obstetrical, and American Gynecological societies, New York Academy of Medicine, and New York Medical Journal Association; trustee of Dartmouth; author. Human Histology and Progress and Spirit of Medical Science, son of James and Abigail (Chase) Peaslee, of Newtown, N. H. Mother, Martha Thankful (Kendrick) Peaslee; daughter of Stephen and Thankful (Howe) Kendrick, of Lebanon, N. H. Yale relatives include: John Kendrick (B.A. 1843); and Greene Kendrick '72 (cousin).
Phillips-Andover. Member Senior Promenade Committee, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Phi Theta Psi, and Psi Upsilon; graduate member Wolf's Head.

M.D. Columbia and Bellevue Hospital Medical College 1875; interne at Bellevue Hospital 1875–77; studied in Berlin, Germany, winter of 1877–78; engaged in practice of medicine in New York 1878–1891; assistant surgeon at New York State Woman's Hospital 1879–1889; since 1891 had devoted most of his time to financial affairs; president of Fidelity Bank 1900–1917 (also director); director and vice-president of Second National Bank of New York 1907–1921, when it was absorbed by National City Bank of New York, and then vice-president of the latter bank until 1923; trustee of Fifth Avenue Safe Deposit Company 1907–1921; director of New England Mortgage Security Company, Black, Starr & Frost, Witherbee, Sherman & Company (1917–1926), Brooklyn & Manhattan Beach Railway Company, National Machine Company, and Cubitas Iron Ore Company (1917–1926); district delegate member of central council of Charity Organization Society 1886–87; member New York Board of Education 1888–1892 and again 1895–98; president of Nursery and Children's Hospital 1921–25; trustee of University Settlement Society of New York; member New York Academy of Medicine, Medical Society of New York County, New York Obstetrical Society, and New York Clinical Society; attended Grace Church (Episcopal), New York.

Death due to coronary thrombosis. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife and son.

George Richards, B.A. 1872.

Died May 24, 1930, in New York City.

Father, the Rev George Richards (B.A. 1840, M.A. 1841), a Congregational minister; pastor of Central Congregational Church, Boston; tutor at Yale 1844-45 and member of Yale Corporation 1868-1870; son of Peter and Ann Channing (Huntington) Richards, of New London, Conn. Mother, Anna Maria (Woodruff) Richards; daughter of Elias DeCou and Abigail (Whitall) Woodruff, of Woodbury, N. J. Yale relatives include: Guy Richards (B.A. 1807) (great-uncle); Wolcott Richards (M.D. 1825) (uncle), and his son, Charles A. L Richards, ’49; George H. Richards, ’03, Henry B. Richards, ’12, Dickinson W. Richards, Jr., ’17, and Edward L. Richards, ’25 (nephews); and William H. Richards, ’50, Channing Richards, ’58. James W. McLane, ’61, George R Lyman, ex-’67 S., William L. McLane, ’69, Hart Lyman, ’73, James Woods McLane, Jr, ex-’93, Guy R. McLane, ’95, Thomas S. McLane, ’98, and Huntington Lyman, ’16 (cousins).

Golden Hill Institute, Bridgeport, Conn. First and second prizes in English composition and second prize in declamation Sophomore year; high oration appointment Junior year and second prize at the Exhibition; philosophical oration appointment and second College Premium in English composition Senior year; speaker at Commencement; played on University Baseball Team all four years (given a prize bat for best score against Harvard) and on ’72 Baseball Team Freshman and Sophomore years, and president of Class Baseball Club Freshman year; an editor of Yale Literary Magazine Senior year; sang in College Choir and on University and Class Glee clubs Junior and Senior years; secretary of Yale Temperance Society Sophomore year; vice-president of Yale Missionary Society Junior year; member Brothers in Unity (won third prize in Freshman debate), Delta Kappa, Delta Kappa Epsilon (second prize in its debate), Scroll and Key, and Phi Beta Kappa Taught at Edwards Place School, Stockbridge, Mass., 1872-74 and then entered Columbia Law School (LLB 1876); admitted to New York Bar and in law office of Van-Winkle, Candler & Jay in New York 1876-79; since 1879 had been member of successive law firms of Richards & Heald 1879-1911 (of which John O. Heald, ’73, was a member, and of which his brother, Dickinson W. Richards, ’80, was also a member from 1886), Richards & Richards (with his brother) 1911-15, and Richards & Affeld since 1915; had specialized in insurance law, and was lecturer on that subject at Columbia Law School 1892–94 and during 1894–95 delivered a course of lectures on insurance at the New York Law School, while temporarily filling the position of professor of insurance at the school; counsel for several fire insurance companies and in special cases for New York Board of Fire Underwriters; assisted in framing the new form of the Standard Policy in New York state 1886; author: Law on Insurance (1st and 2d editions 1892, 3d edition 1909), Cases on Insurance (1910), and Notes for Instructors (1911); honorary M.A. Yale 1893; member of district committee No. 10 of Charity Organization of the City of New York 1887 and chairman of district committee No. 1 1888–89; member of board of advice of Orange (N J.) Free Library 1891–1907 and trustee 1907–09; member and trustee of Central Presbyterian Church, Orange, an organizer of Litchfield (Conn.) Country Club 1916 and president 1922–26; member American and New York State Bar associations, Insurance Society of New York, and New England Society of Orange.

Obituary Record

Married June 7, 1882, in New York City, Harriet McMartin, daughter of Finlay and Anna (Winslow) MacLaren. Children: Harriet McMartin; Marjorie (Mrs. Marjorie R. Reynolds); George MacLaren (died in infancy); Archibald McMartin, ’16; Anna Woodruff, the wife of Robert Crane (B.A. Williams 1913); and Guy Huntington, ’19.

Death, due to coronary thrombosis following an operation, occurred in the Doctors Hospital. Buried in Litchfield (Conn.) Cemetery Survived by wife, three daughters, two sons, four grandchildren, a sister, Miss Anna W. Richards, of Litchfield, and his brother, Dickinson W. Richards. His other brother, William R. Richards, ’75, died in 1910.

John Ward Stimson, B.A. 1872.

Born December 16, 1850, in Paterson, N. J.
Died June 13, 1930, in Corona, Calif.

Father, Henry Clark Stimson, a banker and railroad president; president of the Peoples Bank in Paterson and of Paterson & Hudson River, Paterson & Ramapo, and Dayton &

Prepared under private tutor in New York City. First colloquy appointment Junior and Senior years; a Class historian Senior year; illustrator of Yale Naugtical Almanac, member Brothers in Unity, Delta Kappa, and Psi Upsilon.

Studied in the School of the Fine Arts 1872-73; spent next six years in travel and in study of art in France, Italy, Belgium, Holland, and England; graduated from École des Beaux Arts, Paris, 1876 and received a medal for his proficiency; returned to New York in 1879 and for several years combined his painting with illustrating work for various magazines; lectured on art at Princeton 1883-84, director of the art schools of New York Museum of Art 1884-88; then organized the Artist-Artisan Institute in New York and was its director until 1900, during which period he lived at Saranac Lake, N. Y., 1895-1900 and in Montgomery, Ala., 1900 on account of ill health; in 1901 founded the Art and Science Institute in Trenton, N. J., served as its director until 1903, and later founded the Interlaken Art School in LaPorte, Ind., of which he was also a director; lecturer and instructor at Art Students League, New York, 1906-07; art director at Ruskin College, Florida, 1916-17, an associate editor of the Arena; resided in Nordhoff, Calif., 1901-03 and in Corona since 1915; author: The Gate Beautiful (1903).
Principles of Vital Art Education (1892), The Law of the Three Primaries, Wandering Chords, and To Teach Boys
How to Live the New Education; contributor to art periodicals; had lectured widely in this country and Canada and exhibited his paintings in numerous cities, affiliated with Conggregational Church, Corona.

Married (1) in 1882, in Metuchen, N. J., Eleanor Elvira Maxson. Children: John Frank, ex-'06, and Eleanor Kenyon (BA Wellesley 1906) (Mrs. VanWyck Brooks). Mr. and Mrs. Stimson were divorced in 1909. Married (2) June 16, 1915, in Corona, Mary Rose, daughter of Abraham Bennett and Amanda Clay (Sutherland) Laster. Three daughters, Rosalie Kathleen, Marie Juanita, and Grace Ariel.

Death due to obstructive jaundice. Buried in Olivewood Cemetery, Riverside. Survived by wife, son, four daughters, two sisters, Catherine S. Weston, the widow of Theodore Weston, '53, of New York City, and Mrs Henry P. Loomis, of Tuxedo Park, N. Y., and a brother, the Rev. Henry A Stimson, D D , '65. His other brothers, Lewis A. Stimson,
'63, and Frederick J. Stimson, '77, died in 1917 and 1926 respectively

Norman Hammond Burnham, B.A. 1873.

Born April 17, 1848, in New York City
Died March 24, 1930, in Springfield, Mass

Father, Thomas H. Burnham, a lawyer in Shaftsbury, Vt.; son of Asa N. and Martha S. (Hammond) Burnham, of Union Springs, N. Y. Mother, Mary Reed (Fisher) Burnham, daughter of Samuel and Mary (Reed) Fisher, of North Yarmouth, Maine.

Hartford Public High School Member Gamma Nu, and won a third prize in its Junior debate Studied in Hartford Theological Seminary 1874–76 (except for four months, when he taught at Newport, R. I.), and graduated in May, 1876; attended the Protestant Episcopal Divinity School in West Philadelphia, Pa., 1876–78 (graduated in June, 1878); ordained as deacon in Philadelphia in March, 1879, and preached in and near Philadelphia and at Merchantville, N. J., until September; in charge of three parishes at Brushton, N. Y., 1879–1880; ordained as priest July 22, 1880, at St. Mark’s Church, West Bangor, N. Y.; rector of St. Stephen’s Church, Pittsfield, N. H., 1880–82; Trinity Church, Collinsville, Conn., 1882–83; and Church of the Heavenly Rest, Plainfield, N. J., 1884–85; spent the next year at his home in West Suffield, Conn., on account of ill health and then six months in Pennsylvania; lived in West Suffield March–September, 1887, following the death of his step-father, the Rev. Newell A. Prince (B. A. Bowdoin 1840), and acted as assistant to the rector of St John’s Church, East Hartford, 1887–88, also conducting services at Grace Church, Parkville, a suburb of Hartford, in summer of 1888; rector of St. Andrew’s Church, Norwich, Conn., 1888–1891, when resigned on account of ill health; rector at Chesapeake City, Ind., 1894–95; moved to New London, Conn., early in 1895 and later that year to Brooklyn, N. Y., where he had charge of the Holy Cross Mission until 1898; subsequently established a private school in Suffield with his sister and lived in Thompsonville and Enfield, Conn., for a time; engaged in clerical work in Springfield 1904–06, priest in charge of the Church of the Prince of Peace at Gettysburg, Pa., 1907–08 and later of Trinity Church, Orbisonia, Pa., and St. John’s Church, Catawissa, Pa., all in the Diocese of Harrisburg; in summer of 1911 had charge of Grace Church, Randolph, N. Y., and also acted as assistant to a rector in Buffalo, N. Y., for several months that year; retired from the active ministry several years before his death and had since made his home in Springfield, where he was a member of All Saints Episcopal Church.

Unmarried.

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Enfield Street Cemetery, Enfield, Conn. Survived by no immediate relatives.

Reuben Knox, B.A. 1873.

Born April 28, 1850, in St. Louis, Mo.
Died March 12, 1930, in North Plainfield, N. J.

Father, Samuel Knox (B.A. Williams 1836); studied in Harvard Law School a year; a lawyer in St. Louis; city counsellor; member Missouri House of Representatives and member of Congress, son of Alanson Knox (honorary M.A. Williams 1818), who was commissioned in the Massachusetts Militia in 1808 and served as Lieutenant Colonel of 4th Regiment, 4th Division, in War of 1812, and was later commissioned Major General commanding 4th Division, and Lucinda (Knox) Knox, of Chagrin Falls, Ohio. Mother, Mary (Kerr) Knox; daughter of Matthew and Hannah (Skinner) Kerr, of St. Louis.
Obituary Record

Phillips-Andover. Entered Yale with Class of 1870, but withdrew during Freshman year; studied law at Harvard 1869-1870; joined Yale Class of 1873 in second term of Junior year; member Linonia and Delta Kappa.

Studied in Yale Divinity School 1873-74; private tutor in Litchfield, Conn., and in New York City for a year and a half, at the same time continuing study of law privately; studied again at Harvard Law School 1875-76 and then became a clerk in his father’s law office in St. Louis; admitted to St Louis Bar January 3, 1877; spent next two years in travel in Texas, Arkansas, and Kansas, in ranching in Colorado for six months, and in practice of law in St. Louis; in 1879 moved to New York and entered law office of his cousin, Henry E. Knox, and during the next year was associate member of the firm of Fullerton & Knox; practiced law in Minneapolis, Minn., 1880-83, being admitted to Minnesota Bar January 7, 1881; then withdrew from practice temporarily because of ill health and traveled abroad and in this country and engaged in literary work until 1904; resided at various times in Brooklyn, N. Y., Morristown, Plainfield, and Lawrenceville, N. J., and St Louis; practiced law in Plainfield from May, 1904, until his retirement from active practice in November, 1917; admitted to the New Jersey Bar as attorney in February, 1904, and as counsellor in June, 1909; author: Law of Married Women in New Jersey (1912), The Law of Chattel Mortgages in New Jersey, including Conditional Sales Act (1918), The Law of Real Property Mortgages in New Jersey (1918), and Mortgages in New Jersey (1918); contributed exposition of Sunday School lessons to the church paper of First Baptist Church in Morristown and wrote articles for Indiana Baptist; deacon in First Baptist Church, Morristown, 1891–94 and in First Baptist Church, Plainfield, 1896–1918; vice-president of Hydewood Golf Club, North Plainfield, 1907 and 1908.

Death due to cerebral apoplexy. Buried in First Baptist Church Cemetery, Woodstown, N. J. Survived by wife, son, three grandsons, a sister, Mrs. Hannah S. Knox Luscomb, of Allston, Mass., and a brother, Henry Knox, of Morristown.

Holmes Elias Sadler, B.A. 1873.

Born May 19, 1851, in Brockport, N. Y.
Died October 10, 1929, in Memphis, Tenn.

Father, Manley Chapin Sadler, a hardware merchant; son of the Rev. Levi Sadler and Jerusha (Chapin) Sadler, of Brockport. Mother, Sara Farnsworth (Holmes) Sadler; daughter of Joseph and Diantha (Bellows) Holmes.

Phillips-Andover. Second colloquy appointment Junior year; member Delta Kappa and Phi Theta Psi

Taught at Albany Boys Academy 1873–74; also studied law at Albany Law School (LL.B 1874); read law in office of J. D. Decker in Brockport 1874–75; studied in Sheffield Scientific School 1875–77, acted as supervisor of the erection of some buildings in Brockport for his mother about two years; instructor in natural science at Kansas State Normal School in Emporia 1879–1885; in 1885 founded (with George Fowler, Amherst '72, and Almerit Gillett, University of Wisconsin '61) the law firm of Gillett, Fowler & Sadler in Emporia and was member of the firm until 1888 and then of its successor, Gillett & Sadler, until 1890; manager and attorney for Central Loan & Debenture Company of Kansas City, Mo., at Sedan, Kans., 1890–1902 and later for The Investors Agency Corporation of Kansas City, Kans., for several years; in 1902 organized, with his son, the Union Investment Company in Sedan, of which he was president and manager until 1906; member of law firm of Sadler & Ferrell in Sedan 1906–1913; a director of Oil Producers' Association of Sedan from its incorporation in 1903 until about 1912; retired from active business in 1917 and had since made his home in Memphis; had been secretary of the Oil Producers' Association of Sedan and president of the Sedan Commercial Club; helped establish the Church of the Epiphany (Episcopal) in Sedan, and served as lay reader, senior warden, and superintendent of its Sunday school for a number of years; in 1915 aided in establishing a library in Sedan; former chairman of County Central Committee; in 1909 appointed by the governor of Kansas a delegate to the second National Peace Congress in Chicago, but unable to attend; author of a biography of Professor Benjamin Silliman (1885); had contributed to Kansas City Review of Science and Industry; elected an honorary life member of Yale Club of Memphis in 1928; member of St. Mary's Cathedral in Memphis at time of death.

Married October 19, 1875, in New Haven, Mary Everit, daughter of John Hyde and Mary Mercein (Everit) Coley, and granddaughter of John H. Coley (B.A. 1816). Children: Isabel Coley (Mrs. Robert F. Clark); Everit Jay, a graduate of the United States Naval Academy in 1899; and Sara Farnsworth.

Death due to carcinoma of the esophagus. Buried in Forest Hill Cemetery, Memphis. Survived by wife, two daughters, son, two grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

Ullman Strong, B.A. 1873.

Born June 30, 1851, in Racine, Wis
Died April 23, 1930, in Summit, N J.

Father, Marshall Mason Strong, a member of the Union Class of 1833 and also of the Amherst Class of 1834; a lawyer in Racine, president of the territorial council of Wisconsin; son of Hezekiah Wright Strong (honorary M.A. 1800) and Martha (Dwight) Strong, of Amherst, Mass. Mother, Emilie Mack (Ullman) Strong; daughter of Isaac James and Delia Maria (Johnson) Ullman, of Racine. Yale relatives include: Simeon Strong (B.A. 1756) (great-grandfather); Nehemiah Strong (B.A. 1755) (great-great-uncle); Simeon Strong (B.A. 1786) (great-uncle); and Henry Strong, ex-75 (brother).

Racine Grammar School and Racine College School. First colloquy appointment Junior year; second colloquy appointment Senior year; member Delta Kappa Studied law in office of Frederick Ullman in Chicago for eight months after graduation, then went abroad and studied under private tutors in Paris and St. Servan six months, in Heidelberg one month, in Hanover two months, and in Berlin four months; upon his return to America in November, 1875, resumed his law studies with Frederick Ullman and was admitted to the bar in September, 1877; practiced law in Chicago 1877–1900, being in partnership with N. M. Jones under firm name of Jones & Strong during the first two years; engaged in literary pursuits in New York City 1900–01 and during the next twelve years lived in various places in the West and South on account of the health of his wife, and in Brooklyn, N.Y., and Morristown, N. J.; had made his home in Summit since 1913.

Death due to acute cardiac dilatation following an attack of pneumonia. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife.

Samuel Clarke Bushnell, B.A. 1874.

Born March 8, 1852, in New Haven, Conn
Died April 27, 1930, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Cornelius Scranton Bushnell; established wholesale grocery business of Bushnell & Company in New Haven; also a shipbuilder; instrumental in extension of Shore Line Railroad to New London and an incorporator of Union Pacific Railroad; member of Connecticut Legislature; his services as financial sponsor of the "Monitor" and his responsibility for its adoption by the Union through his influence with President Lincoln are marked by the bronze tablet on the Ericson-Bushnell monument at Chapel Street and Derby Avenue, New Haven; son of Nathan and Chloe (Scranton) Bushnell, of Madison, Conn. Mother, Emily Fowler (Clark) Bushnell; daughter of Samuel and Mary Emeline (Fowler) Clark, of New Haven. Yale relatives include: Winthrop G Bushnell, '88, and Levi I. Bushnell, ex-'91 (brothers); and Cornelius B. Watson, '08 S., and Henry T. Bushnell, '22 (nephews).

Hopkins Grammar School On Freshman Hat Committee, Class Supper Committee Junior year; Junior and Senior Promenade committees, and Class Cup and Church committees; member '74 Barge Crew No 2 Freshman year; played in first Yale-Princeton football game Senior year; secretary of University Baseball Club Junior year and president Senior year and manager of Baseball Team Senior year; vice-president of Yale Missionary Society; a Class deacon; member Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Studied in Yale Divinity School 1874-77 (B.D. 1877); during his course preached at East Braintree, Vt., in summer of 1876, took a trip around the world 1877-78 and then became pastor of First Congregational Church, Acushnet, New Bedford, Mass., where he remained until 1890, his ordination taking place June 4, 1879; pastor of Orthodox Church (Pleasant Street Congregational), Arlington, Mass., 1890-1920; had since made his home in New Haven; served as acting pastor of United (Congregational) Church 1922-23; appointed as delegate of that church to New Haven Council of Churches in 1929 and 1930; trustee of Robbins Library in Arlington 1894-1921 (chairman of the board 1898-1921); had been member of school boards of Arlington and New Bedford; vice-president 1905-1917, president 1919, and director 1896-1919 of Congregational Church Union; a director of American Congregational Association 1911-19, Congregational Education Society 1907-1914, American Peace Society of Boston 1895-1915, and New Haven Y M.C.A. 1927-1930; trustee of Tabor Academy, Marion, Mass., since 1889 (member of the original board); director of E. C. Scranton Memorial Library, Madison, Conn., since 1907; member of executive committee of Massachusetts Federation of Churches 1910-18; secretary of Winthrop Club of Boston 1900-1922; vice-chairman of national executive committee to reestablish Hopkins Grammar School as a national institution 1923; member of Yale Board of Friends of Boys, Inc., of New Haven 1928-1930; represented Yale Club of Boston on Alumni Board 1914-19, and served as chairman of the board 1916-19; one of special committee of three to consider and report to the board with regard to the effort to be made by which other members of the Corporation than the six alumni fellows might be selected by the alumni-at-large; ex-officio member of Alumni Board as president of Divinity School Alumni Association 1922-25; president of Associated New England Yale Clubs 1914-16 (chairman of the committee on relations with Yale) and of Yale Club of Boston 1903-06 and again 1916-17; second vice-president of Yale Alumni Association of New Haven 1924-26 and president 1926-27; vice-president of Yale Association of Class Secretaries 1915; a governor of Yale Publishing Association 1922-24; trustee of Yale-in-China 1921-1930; member Yale Bowl Committee of Twenty-one; secretary of Class of 1874 since 1914 and Class agent since 1928, and secretary of his class in the Divinity School since 1877; had published sermons in pamphlet form from time to time and three other pamphlets, The Story of the Monitor and the Merrimac (1926), Robert Collyer (1926), and A Brief Tribute to Dr. George E Munroe, '74 (1926); had contributed to Yale Alumni Weekly and to the 50th Anniversary Supplement of Yale Daily News (1928); had preached at many boys' preparatory schools, including Andover, Exeter, Milton and Tabor academies, Westminster and Pomfret schools, and Cornwall-on-Hudson Military Academy, had delivered an annual sermon at the Madison (Conn.) Congregational Church every summer for thirty-nine years, and in 1892 preached the historical sermon at the 50th anniversary of the Orthodox Congregational Church at Arlington and in 1921 at the 50th anniversary of the church in East Braintree, Vt.; had also delivered numerous addresses, former Henry Ammon James, B.A. 1874.

Born April 24, 1854, in Baltimore, Md.
Died August 1, 1929, in East Hampton, N Y.

Father, Henry James, a lumber merchant in firm of Henry James & Company; also engaged in banking; son of Nathaniel Emmes and Betsy (Ingersoll) James, of Truxton, N. Y. Mother, Amelia Belknap (Cate) James; daughter of Ammon and Eunice (Belknap) Cate, of Catonsville, Md. Yale relatives include three nephews: Henry James, '03, Allan McLane, Jr., '16, and Oliver B. James, '18.

Prepared for college under private tutors. Second Berkeley Premium for Latin composition Sophomore year; oration appointments Junior and Senior years; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Studied at University of Jena 1874-75 and at University of Berlin 1875-76; attended Yale School of Law 1876-78 (LL B. 1878; Jewell Prize Junior year, John Addison Porter Prize and honors Senior year); practiced law in Baltimore in office of Luther M. Reynolds for about a year and a half after graduation from the Law School and then spent over a year in rest and travel on account of ill health; in 1881 became a clerk in law office of Edward Heaton, '69, in New York City; subsequently managing clerk in law office of Anderson & Howland, of which Henry E. Howland, '54, was a member; from 1884 to 1901 shared an office with Howard Mansfield, '71, and Albert Symington, '83; had since practiced independently, devoting much of his time to the management of certain estates which devolved to his care; author: Communism in America (1879).

Death due to a pulmonary hemorrhage. Buried in Old West End Cemetery, East Hampton. Survived by daughter, son, four sisters, Mrs. Harry White, of New York City, Mrs. Francis Newton, of East Hampton, Mrs. Allan McLane, of Garrison, Md., and Mrs. John H. Johnson, of Chase, Md., and a brother, Norman James, '90 His brother, Walter B. James, '79, died in 1927, and his youngest brother, Robert C. James, '94, in 1896.

Ansley Wilcox, B.A. 1874.

Born January 27, 1856, in Augusta, Ga
Died January 26, 1930, in Buffalo, N.Y.

Father, Daniel Hand Wilcox, a merchant; son of Col Jonathan Wilcox and Chloe (Hand) Wilcox, of Madison, Conn. Mother, Frances Louisa (Ansley) Wilcox; daughter of Jesse and Catherine (Urquhart) Ansley, of Summerville

Yale relatives include: George E. Hand (B.A. 1829) (great-uncle); George A. Wilcox, '52 (uncle), George P. Sawyer, '72 (brother-in-law), and his sons, James D. Sawyer, '96, and Ansley W. Sawyer, '07; Walter I Badger, '82 (brother-in-law), and his son, Walter I. Badger, Jr., '13; Edward A. Fellowes, ex-'18 S., and Eric L Hedstrom, '21 (nephews); and George E. Hand, '69; and Francis U Downing, '72 (cousins).

Hopkins Grammar School. Second prize in English composition Sophomore year; oration appointments Junior and Senior years and second prize at Junior Exhibition; first College Premium in English composition Senior year; took part in Single Scull Race in Senior year and won intercollegiate Sculling Championship at Lake Saratoga in July, 1874; member Linonia, Delta Kappa, and Alpha Delta Phi.

Spent the year 1874-75 in travel and then studied at University College, Oxford, a year; since 1876 had lived in Buffalo, where he read law (for a part of the time with Sprague, Gorham & Bacon), was admitted to the bar in 1878, and practiced law until his retirement in 1927; practiced independently 1878–1882, member of Crowley, Movius & Wilcox 1882–83, Allen, Movius & Wilcox 1883–1892, Movius & Wilcox 1892–93, Wilcox & Miner 1894–1903, Wilcox & Bull 1903–1910, and Wilcox & VanAllen from 1910; active in court work for about fifteen years and then in advisory and corporation law; as counsel assisted in the entrance of West Shore Railroad into Buffalo 1882; served as counsel for the first Niagara Falls Commission, which acquired land for the New York State Reservation, and as member of the board 1917–1927; in 1891 carried to the United States Supreme Court the Briggs Spaulding contest, involving liability of directors of national banks for negligence in duties, won the case and established the validity of the present law; successfully advocated plan of holding municipal elections separated by a year's time from national and state elections, the plan being adopted by New York State Constitutional Convention in 1894; head of jury reform movement which led to the adoption of New York Jury Law in 1895 and took part in drawing up the present law providing for a commissioner of jurors; served on special commission to examine public health laws of New York state, which resulted in a new public health law and system in 1913, member of Charity Organization Society of Buffalo since its foundation in 1877 (pioneer society in that field in the United States), serving as member of the council and chairman of the mendicity committee until the incorporation of the society in 1879, volunteer secretary 1880–81, trustee since 1881, secretary of the board 1883, chairman of the executive committee 1889–1900 (member of committee from 1881), vice-president 1900–06, and president from 1906 until death; chairman of executive committee of the Federation of Charities and Social Service Agencies 1917–19 and chairman of governing committee and member of executive committee since 1920; senior counsel of Legal Aid Bureau from its organization in 1912 until death; member New York Civil Service Reform Association since 1880; member of executive committee of Buffalo Civil Service Reform Association since 1889 and president of the board since 1900; member of council of National Civil Service Reform League since 1903; member National Municipal League for Better Municipal Government; trustee and counsel of Buffalo General Hospital since 1888; lecturer 1885-87 and then professor of medical jurisprudence at University of Buffalo until 1906; engaged in movements for ballot and electoral reform, serving as member of executive committee of the Joint Committee on Ballot Reform, New York City, 1903 and as chairman of executive committee of Buffalo Election Laws Enforcement Association 1906-1913; member of board of managers of state reformatory at Elmira 1899; chairman of a Red Cross disaster relief committee in Buffalo in 1906 (after the San Francisco disaster), of the Buffalo War Relief Committee 1914-15, and of the American Red Cross Buffalo War Relief and Work Rooms Committee 1915-16, and member of executive committee of Buffalo chapter of the American Red Cross since 1916; member of Buffalo Chamber of Commerce and its national councillor in the Chamber of Commerce of the United States since 1920, and individual member of the latter organization since 1916; member of local council for the state of New York of American Bar Association 1906-09 and vice-president 1909-1910; member of executive committee of New York State Bar Association 1909-1911; active in the independent movement which elected Cleveland president in 1884, and personal friend of Roosevelt, who took the oath of office as president at his home in 1901, following the death of President McKinley, and held his first cabinet meeting there; president of Buffalo Club 1893 and of Wanakah Country Club 1914-17; founder of Buffalo Polo Club 1877 and member of first Buffalo team; vice-president of Yale Alumni Association of Buffalo (now Yale Association of Western New York) 1915 and 1916.

Married (1) January 17, 1878, in Buffalo, Cornelia Coburn, daughter of Dexter Phelps and Mary (Coburn) Rumsey. One daughter, Cornelia Rumsey (Mrs Nina Bull). Mrs Wilcox died December 22, 1880. Married (2) November 20, 1883, in Buffalo, Mary Grace Rumsey, a sister of his first wife. One daughter, Frances, the wife of Thomas F. Cooke (Mech.E. Columbia 1904).
Obituary Record

Edwin Allston Hill, B.A. 1875.

Born January 18, 1850, in New York City
Died October 28, 1929, in Washington, D.C.

Father, Benjamin Scranton Hill; engaged at various times in the dry goods, steam, water, and gas pipes and fittings, and insurance business; Captain in Vermont Militia; publisher of The Landmark, a Masonic journal; son of Julius and Mary Ann (Brown) Hill, of Madison, Conn. Mother, Elizabeth Stokes (Jones) Hill; daughter of Joseph Bolles and Eliza (Stokes) Jones, of Orange Court House, Va.

Hudson River Institute, Claverack, N.Y., and Williston Academy Third prize in mathematics Freshman year and first prize Sophomore year; second Clarke Premium in astronomy and second college premium in English composition Senior year; second dispute appointment Junior and Senior years; member ’75 Football Twenty and Delta Kappa.

Studied law at Columbia and with Anderson & Man in New York City 1875-77; engaged in legal work for that firm in New Haven in connection with real estate matters of the Boston & Air Line Railway, a division of New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, 1877-78; admitted to Bar of the Supreme Court of the State of New York May 25, 1878 and to the Connecticut Bar October 28, 1879; assistant attorney, right of way and claim agent, and assistant superintendent for Boston & Air Line Railway 1878-1883; right of way agent, engaged in surveys in southern Connecticut, for Hartford & Harlem Railroad 1883-85; right of way agent and chief engineer for Indianapolis, Decatur & Springfield Railway Company, with headquarters in Indianapolis, 1885–88; real estate, tax, and insurance agent and assistant engineer for Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railroad 1888–1893, with home in Fernbank, Ohio; railway expert with banking house of Hatch & Foote in New York City 1893–94, during which time represented them as assistant receiver on Jacksonville Southeastern System; spent 1894–95 in literary work in New Haven; connected with United States Patent Office in Washington from 1895 until his retirement August 19, 1926; served as private secretary to three commissioners of patents, John S. Seymour, '75, Benjamin Butterworth, and Charles H. Duell, until 1898, assigned to chemical work in the Classification Division as third assistant examiner December 3, 1898, and appointed first assistant examiner July 1, 1907; from 1907 to 1914 in charge of assistant examiners detailed to prepare examination questions and mark papers for examinations held by United States Civil Service Commission for fourth assistant examiners in the Patent Office; in 1912 member of special committee appointed in the Office to cooperate with President Taft's Commission on Efficiency and Economy; admitted to Bar of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia February 14, 1903, and to Court of Appeals February 24, 1903; registered to practice as an attorney before United States Patent Office September 9, 1926; studied chemistry at George Washington University 1900–03 (M.S. 1901, Ph.D. 1903); instructor in chemistry there (night work) 1901–03, assistant professor (night work) 1903–1926, and professor (night and day work) since 1926; elected professor emeritus by the faculty on the day of his death, but not in time for confirmation by the Board of Trustees; while living in Fernbank (1888–1893), served as member of the Common Council, chairman of committee on street improvements, mayor of the village in 1892, and secretary of Church of the Resurrection (Episcopal) 1890–93; alternate delegate to Diocesan Convention of Southern Ohio 1891 and delegate 1892; director of Cincinnati & Springfield Railroad Company several years; a managing director of Engineers' Club of Cincinnati 1892; served on presidential inaugural committees of 1905, 1909, and 1913, on Citizens' Committee on Civic Improvement, and on reception com-
Yale College

Death due to heart disease Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. His wife survives him

William Sloane Kennedy, B.A. 1875.

- Born September 26, 1850, in Brecksville, Ohio
- Died August 4, 1929, in West Yarmouth, Mass.

Father, the Rev. William Sloane Kennedy (B A Western Reserve 1846), a Presbyterian minister; son of William Sloane Kennedy, of Hudson, Ohio. Mother, Sarah Eliza (Woodruff) Kennedy; daughter of the Rev. Simeon Woodruff (B A 1809), a graduate of Andover Theological Seminary, and Mary (Granger)Woodruff, of Talmadge and Strongsville, Ohio

Preparatory department of Miami University. Attended Miami University 1869–1871 and again 1872–73 as member of Class of 1874 (belonged to Beta Theta Pi). Entered Yale as a Junior in 1873.

Studied privately at Yale 1875–76, taught 1876–78, during the last year at Meadville, Pa., also studying in the Meadville Theological Seminary 1877–78; studied at Harvard Divinity School 1878–1880, but never ordained; on the regular staff of The American in Philadelphia 1880–81; proof reader with Boston Evening Transcript 1892–95; special contributor to New York Critic, Boston Herald, Boston Index, and Literary World; had been engaged in literary pursuits for many years, living in Belmont, Mass., and after 1923 in West Yarmouth; spent 1924–25 and 1926–27 in Italy and England; devoted his whole time from 1909 to 1920 to the Italian language and literature; author: Henry Wadsworth Longfellow (1882), John Greenleaf Whittier (1882), Oliver Wendell Holmes (1883), Wonders and Curiosities of the Railroads (1884), Art and Life–A Arthur Twining Hadley, B.A. 1876.

Born April 23, 1856, in New Haven, Conn.
Died March 6, 1930, in Kobe, Japan

Tale College

(uncle), his sons, Kinsley Twining, '53, Theodore W. Twining, '58, and S. Douglas Twining, '59 S, and his grandson, Kinsley Twining, '01; William Twining (B A 1825) and Henry H. Hadley (B. A. 1847) (uncles); and Mary H. Hadley, ex-'92 Art (cousin).

Hopkins Grammar School. First prize in mathematics Freshman and Sophomore years; first and second prizes in English composition Sophomore year; second Winthrop Prize Junior year; College Premium in English composition, first Clarke Premium in astronomy, first prize in mathematics (with a gold medal), and Townsend Premium Senior year; held a Woolsey Scholarship three years and a Bristed Scholarship Junior and Senior years; philosophical oration appointment Junior year (second prize at Junior Exhibition); valedictorian of his Class; in 1875 member of '76 Debating Team; member Class Cup Committee, Delta Kappa, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), Delta Kappa Epsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Studied history and political science in Yale Graduate School as Bristed Scholar 1876-77 and at University of Berlin 1877-79; tutor in Greek, logic, German, and Roman law at Yale 1879-1883; instructor in political science 1883-86; professor of political science in the Graduate School 1886-1891; professor of political economy in the College 1891-99 (during that period trained the University Debating teams which met Harvard and Princeton 1895-99); president of the University from 1899 until his resignation in 1921 to devote his time to the study of economics and to writing and lecturing; president emeritus since 1921; also served as acting professor of political economy in the Sheffield Scientific School 1890-91, as dean of the Graduate School 1892-95, and as acting treasurer of the University 1909-1910; during his term as president notable progress was made in University building, including the Bicentennial group of buildings and Woodbridge Hall, Sloane and Osborn laboratories, Fayerweather, Wright, and Haughton dormitories, Sprague Memorial Hall, Leet Oliver Memorial Hall, Byers Memorial Hall, Mason, Dunham, and Hammond engineering buildings, Brady Laboratory, Memorial Quadrangle, Yale Bowl, Lampson Hall, Kirtland Hall, Day Missions Library, and Yale Armory; other features of his administration include an increase in endowment and current income, development from a group of schools to a university, starting of School of Forestry, the Freshman year, Alumni Advisory Board (now Alumni Board), Yale University Press, Yale Review, and Yale-in-China, and gift of the Sterling Fund, member of Yale Committee for Participation in the Restoration of the Library of the University of Louvain 1924, vice-chairman of Yale Endowment campaign 1926; member of advisory committee for Human Welfare Group at New Haven, organized around the Institute of Human Relations, 1929; honorary M.A. Yale 1887; LL D. Yale, Harvard, and Wesleyan 1899, Columbia and Western Reserve 1900, Johns Hopkins 1902, Williams 1908, Dartmouth 1909, University of California 1910, and Brown 1914; Ph D and M.L A University of Berlin 1910; commissioner of labor statistics of State of Connecticut 1885–87; in May, 1885, summoned as expert witness before Cullom Senate Committee, which drafted Interstate Commerce Law; associate editor of Railroad Gazette of New York 1887–89, having special charge of the department of foreign railroads; chairman of Railroad Securities Commission appointed by Act of Congress in 1910 and of Hadley Commission appointed by President Taft in 1911 under Interstate Commerce Act to investigate conditions of the railroads, the report of which commission resulted in the railway valuation act of 1913; appeared before the legislative commission investigating the operation of the Public Service Law in New York City as an expert economist in November, 1929; lectured at Harvard on "Problems of Railroad Administration" 1886–87, and on "The History of Academic Freedom" in the Lowell Institute course of public lectures at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1902, gave the Dodge lectures on "The Responsibilities of Citizenship" at Yale 1902–03, the Kennedy lectures on "Standards of Public Morality" before the New York School of Philanthropy 1906, and lectures at Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh, and at Stanford University on the West Memorial Foundation in 1924; Roosevelt professor of American history at University of Berlin 1907–08; lecturer at Oxford University 1914; in 1922, as incumbent of the Sir George Watson chair of American history, lectured before the Anglo-American Society in London and was the first American lecturer on the Watson Foundation (established by a gift of Sir W. G. Watson to the society) on "Economic Problems of Democracy" at London, Birmingham, Manchester University, Sheffield University, Cambridge Art School, and Oxford Examination School; made an address before the World Power Conference in London 1924 and had given numerous other addresses on various occasions, trustee of Institute for Government Research from 1916 until its consolidation with the Brookings Institution of Washington, D. C., in December, 1927, when he resigned, his resignation not being accepted, however, until May, 1929, trustee of Institute of Economics from its organization in 1922 until its merger in the Brookings Institution (also December, 1927); trustee of Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching from its foundation in 1905 until 1921, vice-chairman of the board 1914-17 and chairman 1917-1920; president of American Economic Association 1899 and 1900, American Academy of Arts and Letters 1926, and National Institute of Arts and Letters 1925-26, vice-president of National Civil Service Reform League 1902-1927; elected honorary vice-president of Royal Institute of Public Health, London, 1920; member of College of Electors to the Hall of Fame at New York University 1900-1930 and re-elected for the election of 1930 and accepted, but died before the names of candidates had been sent to the electors; director of First National Bank of New Haven since 1899, Engineers Public Service Company of Boston for many years, New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad and one of its subsidiaries, New York, Westchester & Boston Railroad, Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fé Railroad (member executive committee since 1920), Rutland Railroad of Vermont, and The Connecticut Company; author: Railroad Transportation, Its History and Laws (1885; translated into Russian 1886 and into French 1887, and awarded a silver medal for the latter from the Paris Exposition in 1889), Connecticut Labor Reports (1885-86), Economics—An Account of the Relations between Private Property and Public Welfare (1896), The Education of the American Citizen (1901), Freedom and Responsibility (1903), Baccalaureate Addresses (1907), Standards of Public Morality (1907), Some Influences in Modern Philosophic Thought (1913), Undercurrents in American Politics (1915), Truth, a Civic Virtue (1916), The Moral Basis of Democracy (1919), and The Conflict between Liberty and Equality (1925; German translation, Probleme der Demokratie, 1926); contributed an article on “Railways” to ninth edition of Encyclopaedia Britannica (1886) and wrote for the tenth edition, of which he was the American editor (1902); wrote a series of articles on industrial subjects for third volume of Lalor’s Cyclopedia of Political Science, Political Economy, and Political History of the United States (1883–84); revised and prepared all of the definitions in economics for Webster’s New International Dictionary, which was first published in 1909, and had since taken care of any changes in, or additions to, these definitions whenever necessary; in charge of department of economics in MacMillan’s Dictionary of Philosophical Terms (1889), contributed articles on political economy to R H Inglis Palgrave’s Dictionary of Political Economy (1894–99, appendix 1909; new edition 1923–26); author of a chapter on the railway in its business relations in Scribner’s American Railway (1888), editorial writer for Railway Gazette (1884–1891), author of an article on Yale in Harper’s Four American Universities (1892), had also contributed to Current History Magazine, Financial Chronicle, Transportation World, American Economic Review, The Independent, Harper’s Monthly, Forum, Popular Science Monthly, the Republican campaign book entitled Republicanism of Nineteen-Twenty, Yale Review, and Yale Alumni Weekly, and an article entitled “Yale in 1876 and Yale in 1928” to the 50th Anniversary Supplement of Yale Daily News; author of the inscription on the tablet of the Elihu Yale Memorial in Boston, which was unveiled in January, 1927; member of Republican Advisory Committee on Policies and Platform of Republican National Committee 1920, in 1926 refused the offer of the Democratic nomination for United States senator from Connecticut because he was a Republican; corresponding fellow of British Academy; charter member of International Institute of Statistics (1886); member British Association for the Advancement of Science (since 1890), American Historical Association, American Philosophical Society, American Academy of Arts and Sciences, Advisory Council of International Education of New York City, Advisory Board of University Presidents of the Military Training Camp Association of the United States of America, New Haven Chamber of Commerce, and World Court Committee of New Haven; honorary member Connecticut Society of Civil Engineers; in 1918 made honorary member of Lloyd's Neck (N. Y.) Club, organized by Reginald C. Vanderbilt, '02, for initial purpose of cooperating with the Government in extending Army and Navy aviation practice; member Church of Christ in Yale University; secretary of Class of 1876 from 1876 to 1881 and acting secretary since June, 1929; his portrait, painted by William Sergeant Kendall, Dean of the Yale School of the Fine Arts 1913-1922, and given to the University by several of the alumni, hangs in the University Dining Hall; an oil painting of him by Frank Fowler, N.A., in 1900 hangs in the lounge of the Yale Club of New York, and another portrait hangs in the Skull and Bones Hall.
Yale College

Death, due to pneumonia, after an illness of only two days, occurred at Kobe, Japan, March 6, 1930, on board the S S "Empress of Australia," on which, with Mrs Hadley, he was taking a trip around the world. Funeral services held in Battell Chapel on April 11. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Memorial service held in Battell Chapel on June 15, 1930. In addition to his wife, he leaves two sons, daughter, and three grandchildren.
Obituary Record

James Pierpont Davenport, B.A. 1877.

Born July 27, 1856, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died July 7, 1929, in New York City.

Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute and Williston Academy. Second dispute appointment Junior year and second prize at Junior Exhibition; second colloquy appointment Senior year; on Yale Courant Board Junior and Senior years; wrote the Class Ivy Ode, member Delta Kappa and Psi Upsilon.

Bookkeeper for a hardware company in Keeseville, N. Y., 1877-78; clerical assistant, with his brother, John I. Davenport, in office of United States chief supervisor of elections, New York City, 1878-79; reporter for New York Tribune 1879-1885 (engaged principally in reporting court transactions and in special writing on legal subjects), with exception of two periods, when he was engaged in mining survey work in Maysville, Colo., for six months in 1880, and when he was city editor of Waterbury (Conn.) Daily Independent for two months in 1881; while with the Tribune studied law with his brother and was admitted to the New York Bar 1883; had practiced law in New York since 1885; deputy clerk of Court of General Sessions 1887-1895; in 1896 aided in establishing an additional District or Municipal Court in northern part of New York City and served as justice of the court until 1898; since 1910 had been a deputy registrar in Registrar's office of New York County, where he was engaged in indexing the older records and in writing a series of articles on Farms of Manhattan Island (published in New York daily papers); president of North Manhattan Taxpayers Association and of Sterling Republican Club; vice-president and president (in 1917 and 1918) of the Brotherhood of the Presbytery of New York; an elder of Mount Washington Presbyterian Church, New York City, 1912–1920; vice-president of Mount Washington Men's Club 1912–14; had contributed to encyclopedias and was American correspondent of London Law Times 1888–1908.
Yale College

Married June 15, 1886, in Brooklyn, Lemoine, daughter of Darius Green Farwell (M.D New York University Medical College 1860) and Charlotte (Fish) Farwell. Children: Dorothy; Pierrepont; Margery (B.A Vassar 1913), the wife of the Rev. Francis R. Casselman (B.A Friends University 1910, M.A Columbia 1915, B.D. Union Theological Seminary 1914); and Farwell (died in 1925).

Death due to a paralytic stroke. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, one son, two daughters, two brothers, the Rev. William E Davenport, of Brooklyn, and Charles B. Davenport (B.A Harvard 1889, Ph.D 1892), of Cold Spring Harbor, N.Y., and a sister, Mrs Mary V. Crandall, of Sound Beach, Conn.

Samuel Lewis Eaton, B.A. 1877.

Born January 15, 1853, in Lancaster, Wis.
Died April 17, 1930, in Newton Highlands, Mass.

Father, the Rev. Samuel Witt Eaton (B.A 1842, D.D Beloit 1883); studied theology at Yale Divinity School and Union and Andover Theological seminaries; a Congregational minister in Lancaster and in Roscoe, Ill.; chaplain of 7th Wisconsin Volunteers during Civil War; a trustee of Beloit and corporate member of the American Board; son of Eben and Sally Chadwick (Spofford) Eaton, of Framingham, Mass.

Beloit Academy. Attended Beloit College two years (1872–74) as member of Class of 1876. Entered Yale as a Sophomore in 1874; dissertation appointment Junior year and first prize at Junior Exhibition; first dispute appointment, Townsend Premium, and second College Premium in English composition Senior year and speaker at Commencement; member Delta Kappa Epsilon and Skull and Bones.
Obituary Record

Taught at Sing Sing (N. Y.) Academy 1877–78 and at Montclair (N. J.) High School 1878–79; M.D. Hahnemann Medical College, Chicago, 1882; associated with Dr. Clarence W. Butler, homeopathist, at Montclair 1882–83; practiced in Orange, N. J., 1883–89 and since then in Newton Highlands; trustee and member of medical staff of Newton Hospital ten years, medical examiner for Prudential Insurance Company in the Newton, Watertown, and Cambridge districts 1889–1929, also owned and conducted a private sanatorium known as the Newton Highlands Nervine (later renamed Highland Hall) for some years until 1928; delegate to Democratic State Convention 1890; in 1903 candidate for mayor of Newton on Democratic ticket but defeated; honorary M.A. Beloit 1899; member American Institute of Homeopathy, International Hahnemannian Association, Massachusetts Homeopathic Medical and Surgical and Gynecological societies, and Sons of the American Revolution; vestryman of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Newton Highlands, 1894–1900.

Death due to tuberculosis of the lungs. Cremation took place at Mount Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge, and ashes interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Newark, N. J. Survived by son, of Newton Highlands, a stepson, Vernon J. Hasbrouck, of Longmeadow, Mass., a stepdaughter, Mrs. Edwin S. Drowne, of Newton Highlands, and a brother, the Rev. Edward Dwight Eaton, '75 D.

Henry Dickinson Green, B.A. 1877.

Born May 3, 1857, in Reading, Pa.
Died December 29, 1929, in Reading, Pa.

Father, Albert Gallatin Green (B.A. 1849), a lawyer in Reading; president of Reading Board of Education and of Berks County Historical Society; auditor of Reading; served during Civil War in State Militia in "Emergency Campaign" of September, 1862; son of John and Catharine Huber (Bright) Green, of Reading. Mother, Rebecca (Dickinson) Green; daughter of William Penn and Elizabeth (Miller) Dickinson, of Reading. Yale relatives include: Erastus R. Green, '51 (uncle); David B. Green, '52 (uncle), and his son, Douglas B. Green, '04; George W. Green, ex-'60 (uncle); and R. Green Annan, ex-'24 S. (nephew).

Reading High School Member Delta Kappa and Phi Theta Psi.

Studied law with his father in Reading and was admitted to practice in Berks County courts 1879, in Supreme Court of Pennsylvania 1890, and in United States Supreme Court 1900, had been engaged in the practice of law in Reading since 1879; in partnership with his brother, Herbert R. Green, '85, under firm name of Green & Green for a number of years from 1887; member of Pennsylvania House of Representatives 1883–84 and again 1885–86; represented Berks County in the State Senate 1889–1896; member of Congress from 9th District of Pennsylvania 1899–1903; in 1890, with his brother, Herbert R. Green, organized Reading Real Estate Exchange, of which he was vice-president 1909–1921 and then president until his death; became president of Reading Telegram Publishing Company 1903 and was one of the owners and general manager of the Telegram 1904–1910; during Spanish American War served as Captain of Company G (which he raised), 9th Pennsylvania Volunteers, June 25–October 21, 1898, being stationed at Camp Thomas, Chickamauga Park, Camp Hamilton, Lexington, Ky., and Wilkes Barre and Reading; took a trip around the world in 1901.

Unmarried.

Orlando Hall, B.A. 1877.

Born September 28, 1855, in Akron, Ohio.
Died August 28, 1929, in Cleveland, Ohio.

Father, Orlando Hall; son of Richard and Sarah (Hurlburt) Hall. Mother, Sophia (Towne) Hall; daughter of Benjamin and Mehitable (Gage) Towne. Cousins: Frank L. Hall, '72, Ralph Hickox, '86, Charles R. Hickox, '93, Fayette Brown, '04, and Harvey H. Brown, Jr., '15

Cleveland Academy and Greylock Institute, South Williamstown, Mass. Second colloquy appointment Junior year; member Freshman Supper Committee, Delta Kappa, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), and Delta Kappa Epsilon; graduate member Wolf's Head.

Studied law in office of Judge Rufus B. Ranney in Cleveland and at Columbia Law School 1877–79; admitted to Cleveland Bar 1880 and practiced law in Cleveland for a time; owned and managed extensive real estate properties in Akron; during the last part of his life spent much time in traveling; member Church of the Covenant (Presbyterian), Cleveland.

Unmarried.

Death due to arteriosclerosis and hemiplegia. Buried in Akron Rural Cemetery, Glendale, Akron.

George Benjamin Edwards, B.A. 1878.

Born January 14, 1854, in Russellville, Ky.
Died December 15, 1929, in Louisville, Ky.

Father, George Trotter Edwards, a lawyer and judge in Russellville and Louisville courts; state senator; son of Pressley and Hester (Pope) Edwards, of Logan County, Ky.
Mother, Margaret (Connelly) Edwards; daughter of the Rev Mr. Connelly.

Louisville High School and Williston Academy. First and second prizes in English composition Sophomore year and first prize in declamation; Townsend Premium Senior year; chairman of board of Yale Literary Magazine; member Freshman Class Supper Committee, Gamma Nu, Hé Boulé, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones.
Attended lectures in law at University of Virginia in summer of 1878 and continued his law studies privately at his home in Russellville for about a year and a half, being admitted to Kentucky Bar November 8, 1879; practiced law in Russellville 1880–1891, being member of firm of Browder & Edwards about ten years; referee in bankruptcy about 1898–1900; retired from profession of law on account of ill health and engaged in banking as president of Deposit Bank of Russellville 1891–1918; had since devoted his time to the management of his personal affairs; attended First Christian Church, Russellville.

Unmarried.

Death due to acute dilatation of the heart and chronic myocarditis Buried in Maple Grove Cemetery, Russellville Survived by a niece and three nephews, two of whom are William M. Duncan, ’06, and James C. Edwards, ’09

Clarence Hill Kelsey, B.A. 1878.

Born December 23, 1856, in Bridgeport, Conn.
Died April 30, 1930, in West Orange, N.J.

Father, Courtland Kelsey, a merchant in Bridgeport; son of Julius and Sylvia (Hill) Kelsey, of North Madison, Conn. Mother, Sarah (Hoyt) Kelsey; daughter of William Bennett and Anna Maria (Wheeler) Hoyt, of Danbury, Conn.

Bridgeport public schools and Golden Hill Institute, Bridgeport Bookkeeper for his father for a year (1873–74) before entering Yale. Woolsey Scholarship Freshman and Sophomore years; third prize in mathematics and first Berkeley prize in Latin composition Freshman year; two second prizes in English composition Sophomore year; divided Scott Prize in German Junior year; philosophical oration appointment Junior year; valedictorian of his Class; an editor of Yale Literary Magazine; member Linonia, Gamma Nu, Hé Boulé, Psi Upsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Studied German and history in Yale Graduate School as Soldiers Memorial Fellow 1878–79; studied law in Yale School of Law as member of the Junior Class in winter of 1879–1880 and then at Hamilton, where he received degree of LL.B. in 1880, also received degree of M.A. at Yale 1880; following his admission to the New York Bar in 1880, practiced law in New York City three years, acting as managing clerk for law firm of Chamberlain, Carter & Hornblower 1881–83; since 1883 had been connected with Title Guarantee & Trust Company of New York, which he helped to organize in 1882; office manager at first, made secretary 1885, became vice-president 1886, was president of the company from January, 1892, to January, 1923, and had since been chairman of the board; in 1892 helped to organize Bond & Mortgage Guarantee Company, of which he was second vice-president and general manager until 1925 and chairman of the board since 1925; vice-president of City Real Estate since 1895; had been president and director of Yale Building Company and director of Westchester Title & Mortgage Guaranty Company (since 1902), Lincoln Trust Company, Corn Exchange Bank & Trust Company (since 1892), Corn Products Refining Company (since 1909), Madison Safe Deposit Company, Realty Associates, Commercial Trust Company of Jersey City, N. J., Home Insurance Company (since 1910), United States Life Insurance Company (since 1895), Mechanics & Metals Bank, Thompson-Starrett Company (building construction) (since 1903), Southern Pacific Railroad Company (until recently), and Consolidated Gas Company (since December 26, 1929); became chairman of trustees committee of New York Community Trust in June, 1928, member Real Estate Board of New York since 1923 and of New York Chamber of Commerce since 1897 (chairman of its taxation committee 1922–24); trustee of O. B. Potter Trust 1894–1913; treasurer and trustee of O. B. Potter Properties, Inc., since 1913; a corporator of Miriam Osborn Memorial Home in 1923 and since then a trustee; member of council of New York University since 1903 and of its executive committee for 1929 and 1930; trustee of Hampton Normal and Agricultural Institute since 1909, made vice-president of the investment committee 1915, and chosen chairman of the board on April 24, 1930, to succeed his classmate, William Howard Taft; treasurer of Robert C. Ogden Memorial Committee (auditorium built at Hampton in honor of the former president of the board of trustees of Hampton Institute) 1917–19; chairman of executive committee of Hampton-Tuskegee endowment fund campaign 1924-26; former trustee of Kowaliga School (industrial school for colored youth), Benson, Ala., between 1900 and 1927; had been trustee of Brick Presbyterian Church, East Orange, vice-president of Citizens' Union and member of Sinking Fund Commission of East Orange, and chairman of East Orange Division of Welfare Federation of the Oranges 1921-27; general chairman of Business Men's Division of Greater New York Federation of Churches since January, 1929; vice-president of National Board of Friends of Boys, Inc.; corporate member of American Board; member of Yale Corporation 1910-1925 as one of the successors of the original trustees; member Finance Committee 1905-1922 and of Prudential Committee 1914-19, director of Alumni Fund Association 1904-1916; treasurer of Class of 1878 since about 1903 and Class agent 1893-98 and since 1904; president of Yale Foreign Missionary Society 1905-1923; wrote an article on "Guarantee Companies" for Johnson's Universal Cyclopedia 1894 and articles on "Title Guarantee Companies" for the 10th, 11th, and 14th editions of Encyclopedia Britannica (1902-03, 1910-11, and 1929).

Married December 1, 1885, in Bridgeport, Elizabeth Baldwin Tomlinson, Mount Holyoke ex-76, daughter of Stephen and Mary Hall (Falconer) Tomlinson Children Stephen Tomlinson and Courtland, both '09, and John Forsyth, '14 S.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Rosedale Cemetery, West Orange. Survived by wife, three sons, eight grandchildren, two sisters, Miss Louise H. Kelsey, of New York City, and Miss Annie H. Kelsey, of Bridgeport, and a brother, Clifford S. Kelsey, '83. His other brother, William H. Kelsey, '77, died in 1923. By the terms of his will a gift of $3000 was left to Yale University to be credited to the Class of 1878 fund of the Alumni University Fund, and a gift of $15,000, known as the Clarence H. Kelsey Fund, was made to the Yale Divinity School.

Born April 21, 1856, in Indianapolis, Ind.
Died October 22, 1929, in Indianapolis, Ind.

Father, Charles Washington Moores (B.A. Wabash 1852), a book publisher with Merrill-Cathcart Company and later with Bowen-Merrill Company (now Bobbs-Merrill Company) of Indianapolis, one time teacher in Indiana State School for the Deaf; Private in 132d Indiana Volunteer Infantry from May 21 until his death on June 9, 1864, at the Stevenson (Ala.) Camp, where he had been appointed regimental postmaster; son of Isaac Ross Moores, a Colonel of Illinois Volunteer Infantry in the Black Hawk War, and Jane (Alexander) Moores, of Illinois and Oregon. Mother, Julia Dumont (Merrill) Moores; daughter of Samuel Merrill, a non-graduate member of the Dartmouth Class of 1812, and Lydia Jane (Anderson) Merrill, of Indianapolis.

Indianapolis public schools; attended Butler College 1870-72 and again 1873-75 and Willamette University 1872-73, spent five months with John Muir, the California naturalist, in the Yosemite Valley and was member of first party to ascend Mount Lyell and of party which helped to discover the Hetchy-Hetchy Valley. Entered Yale as a Sophomore 1875; third prize in English composition and second mathematical prize Sophomore year; an editor of Yale Daily News Senior year, member Hoi Philologoi and Linonia.

LL.B. Central Law School of Indianapolis 1880; connected with law office of Baker, Hord & Hendricks in Indianapolis 1880-84; admitted to the bar in 1883; practiced law independently in that city 1884-1915 and again from 1925 until death, assistant attorney general of Indiana 1894-1903; member of Congress 1915-1925, serving on House Committee on Foreign Affairs; in 1919 elected by Congress member of executive council of Interparliamentary Union at Geneva; chairman of Marion County Republican Committee 1892-96; commissioner from Indiana to National Conference for Uniform State Laws 1909-1921; former vice-president of Systems & Audit Company of Indianapolis; secretary of Indiana State Bar Association 1899-1906 and president 1907–08; president of Marion County Bar Association 1908–09; brought Rowell’s Digest of Contested Election Cases down to date (by order of the House) and edited supplement to Barnes’ Federal Codes about 1926; delivered numerous addresses before the State Bar Association, which were published in Indiana Historical Magazine and in Reports of the association; secretary of Yale Alumni Association of Indianapolis 1883–1902 and president 1902–1913, vice-president of Yale Alumni Association of Indiana 1927–28, member of Yale Alumni Board since 1926; had been president of Indianapolis Contemporary Club and chancellor of Indiana Society of Colonial Wars; member American Bar Association, Indianapolis Board of Trade, Sons of the American Revolution, Sons of Veterans, Maennerchor (a German-American choral and musical society), and Fourth Presbyterian Church, Indianapolis.

Unmarried.

Death, due to fracture of the skull and injuries to his spine received three hours earlier, when struck by an automobile while crossing the street, occurred at the City Hospital. Buried in Crown Hill Cemetery, Indianapolis. Survived by a nephew, Charles W. Moores, of Indianapolis, and a niece, Miss Emily B. Moores, of Dayton, Ohio.

Charles Martin Stone, B.A. 1878.

Born February 6, 1856, in Binghamton, N.Y.

Died July 2, 1929, in Binghamton, N.Y.

Father, Martin Stone; in the real estate and lumber business; son of Stephen K. and Eliza (Allen) Stone, of Chenango Bridge, N.Y. Mother, Rebecca (McKinney) Stone; daughter of John and Betsy (Crocker) McKinney, of Great Bend, Pa. Nephew: George H. W. Stone, ’14 S.

Binghamton High School. On Freshman Class Supper Committee and ’78 Class Baseball Nine, president of Class Baseball Club Sophomore and Junior years and secretary and treasurer Senior year; member Class Football Twenty two years and Senior Promenade Committee, Linonia, Delta Kappa, Hé Boulé, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones.
Studied law in office of Richard & Sessions in Binghamton 1878–1881 and following his admission to the New York State Bar was associated with the firm until 1891; had since practiced independently, specializing in real estate and patent law, through his interest in a number of patent suits became connected with business of manufacturing carriage hardware and in 1882 founded Crandall, Stone & Company, of which he was a member until 1917, serving as vice-president 1882–1896, president 1896–1915, and director 1888–1915; vice-president of Cortland Forging Company 1896 and director 1896–1915; director of Cortland Carriage Goods Company 1904–1915; member of firm of John Ray Clarke Company (wholesale hat and cap business) and president and manager for some years; retired from manufacturing interests 1917 and had since been occupied with real estate and investment matters; vice-president of City National Bank of Binghamton since 1915, having been made a director in 1899; elected a trustee of Binghamton Savings Bank 1883 and secretary 1891, and had been vice-president since 1907; director First National Bank 1901–1921, Security Mutual Life Insurance Company since 1891 (member executive, finance, and auditing committees), Binghamton Gas Light Company since 1887, and Binghamton Club 1903–05 and 1906–08, on board of managers of Binghamton City Hospital 1894–97 and 1898–1901; member Board of Education 1899–1901 (president 1900–01) and Board of Water Commissioners 1905–08; attended Trinity Memorial (Episcopal) Church, serving as a vestryman from about 1892 to 1913.

Married September 13, 1882, in Binghamton, Anna Eliza, daughter of John Ray and Elizabeth W. (Glover) Clarke. Children: Elizabeth, the widow of Douglas V Ashley (B.A. Princeton 1904); Ray Clarke (died in infancy); Mary (died in 1927); and Ruth Glover (died in infancy). Mrs. Stone died November 10, 1927.

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Spring Forest Cemetery, Binghamton. Survived by one daughter, a granddaughter, and a sister, Mrs. George Mather Ely, of Cortland, N. Y.
William Howard Taft, B.A. 1878.

Born September 15, 1857, in Cincinnati, Ohio
Died March 8, 1930, in Washington, D. C.

Father, Alphonso Taft (B.A. 1833, LL.D. 1867), a lawyer; judge of Superior Court of Cincinnati; United States Secretary of War and Attorney-General in Cabinet of President Grant; minister plenipotentiary to Austria and to Russia; tutor at Yale 1835–37; member of Yale Corporation 1872–1882; trustee of University of Cincinnati; son of Peter Rawson Taft, a judge of Windham County, Vt., and Sylvia (Howard) Taft, of West Townshend, Vt. Mother, Louisa Maria (Torrey) Taft; daughter of Samuel Davenport and Susan Holman (Waters) Torrey, of Milbury, Mass. Yale relatives include: Charles P. Taft, ’64 (half brother), and his son, Howard Taft, ’05; Peter R. Taft, ’67 (half brother), and his son Hulbert Taft, ’00; Walbridge S. Taft, ’07, and William Howard Taft, 2d, ’09 (nephews); and David S. Ingalls, ’20, and Hulbert Taft, Jr., ’30 (grandnephews).

Woodward High School, Cincinnati. Third Woolsey Scholar and first prize in mathematics Freshman year; two first College Premiums in English composition Sophomore year; philosophical oration appointment Junior year and second prize at Junior Exhibition; salutatorian of Class of 1878; president of his Class and of Class Boat Club and chairman of Class Supper Committee Freshman year; Class orator; member Hayes-Tilden Campaign Committee Freshman year and of victorious Tug-of-War Team in fall athletic games Senior year, and of Linonia, Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, Hé Boulé, Psi Upsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Governor of the Philippines, Secretary of War, President of the United States, and Chief Justice of the United States; LLB Cincinnati Law School 1880 (divided first prize at graduation); admitted to Ohio Bar 1880 and in his father’s law office 1880–81, also acting as law reporter for Cincinnati Times-Star, of which his brother, Charles P. Taft, was editor, and for Cincinnati Commercial; assistant prosecuting attorney of Hamilton County, Ohio, 1881–82; collector of internal revenue for 1st District of Ohio March, 1882–January, 1883; practiced law in Cincinnati in partnership with Major Harlan P. Lloyd (a former partner of his father) under the name of Lloyd & Taft 1883–87; assistant county solicitor of Hamilton County 1885–87; appointed by Governor Foraker judge of the Superior Court of Cincinnati to fill a vacancy 1887–88 and in 1888 elected for a five-year term; served only until 1890, when appointed by President Harrison solicitor-general of the United States; served as such until 1892; United States circuit judge for 6th Circuit, comprising federal districts in Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky, and Tennessee 1892–1900; as such became ex-officio member of Circuit Court of Appeals of 6th Circuit, and in March, 1893, succeeded Judge Howell E. Jackson as senior circuit judge and presided at nearly all sessions; also served as professor of the law of real property at University of Cincinnati and dean of the Law Department 1897–99, helping to consolidate this department with the old Cincinnati Law School and also to establish the law library of the United Circuit Court of Appeals at Cincinnati; president of United States Philippine Commission March, 1900–July, 1901; first civil governor of the Philippine Islands July, 1901–February, 1904; while governor went to Washington to testify before the Senate Committee on the Philippine Islands and the House Committee on Insular Affairs in December, 1901; in June, 1902, sent to Rome by President Roosevelt to confer with Pope Leo XIII concerning purchase of church lands in the Philippines, returning to the Philippines in July; Secretary of War under Roosevelt February 1, 1904–June 30, 1908; placed in charge of Isthmian Canal project in 1904, visiting the Isthmus in November and thereafter; visited Philippine Islands, Japan, and China with a congressional committee July–October, 1905; in September, 1906, sent by the President to adjust an insurrection in Cuba and acted as provisional governor there for a month; in 1907 made a tour of investigation and pacification to Cuba, Porto Rico, and Panama, and later in that year went to the Philippines to inaugurate the first Filipino Legislative Assembly, stopping in Japan on the way and returning through Russia; nominated for President of the United States at Republican Convention in Chicago June 19, 1908, elected in November, and served from 1909 to 1913; renominated for President at Republican Convention in Chicago in June, 1912, but failed of election in November; Chief Justice of the United States from 1921 until his resignation on February 3, 1930, on account of ill health; co-chairman of National War Labor Board 1918-19; arbitrator between Dominion of Canada and Grand Trunk Railway in Montreal in 1921; arbiter in Amory oil concessions in 1922, at joint request of British and Porto Rican governments; member of Yale Corporation 1906-1913 and again 1922-25 (served on committee on honorary degrees); Kent professor of law in Yale College and professor of constitutional law in the Law School 1913-1921; one of the vice-chairmen in Yale Endowment campaign; president of Associated Western Yale Clubs 1907-08; Dodge Lecturer at Yale on "Four Aspects of Civic Duty" 1905-06; had also lectured at Amherst College, Boston University School of Law 1913-1921, Bowdoin College 1919-1920, Cornell University (on Goldwin-Smith Foundation) 1915, University of Minnesota 1914, New York University (on James Stokes Foundation) 1921, University of Rochester (first lecturer on Cutler Foundation) 1921, and Oxford 1922; made an honorary bencher of Middle Temple, London, 1922; author. Four Aspects of Civic Duty (1906), Present Day Problems (1906), Political Issues and Outlooks (1909), Popular Government (1913), The Anti-Trust Act and the Supreme Court (1914), The United States and Peace (1914), Ethics in Service (1915), The Presidency, its Duties, its Powers, its Opportunities, and its Limitations (1916), Our Chief Magistrate and His Powers (1916), World Peace (a written debate with William Jennings Bryan) (1917), Taft Papers on League of Nations (1920), Representative Government in the United States (1921), and Liberty Under the Law (1922); one of the authors (with George W Wickersham, A. Lawrence Lowell, and Henry W Taft) of The Covenanter, an American Exposition of the League of Nations (1919); during the war served as contributing editor of Philadelphia Ledger; LL.D. Yale 1893, University of Pennsylvania and Johns Hopkins 1902, Harvard and Miami 1905, State University of Iowa 1907, Wesleyan 1909, Princeton 1912, McGill 1913, Amherst and Brown 1914, Union 1917, Baylor 1920, Cambridge and Aberdeen 1922, University of Cincinnati 1925, and University of the State of New York 1926; D.C.L. Marietta 1910, Hamilton 1913, and Oxford 1922, president of American Bar Association 1913; president of American Academy of Jurisprudence 1914 and of League to Enforce Peace 1915 (one of its founders); an incorporator of American Law Institute; president of American Red Cross 1905–1913 and vice-president since 1921; president of Life Extension Institute 1916, of board of trustees of Hampton Normal and Agricultural Institute since 1919, and of General Conference of Unitarian Church Societies several years; elected president of International Congress of Religious Liberals 1927, honorary president of Connecticut Civil Service Reform Association; reelected vice-president of American Institute of International Law 1929; honorary vice-president of Legal Aid Society 1924; chancellor of Smithsonian Institution 1923, trustee of Carnegie Institution of Washington 1906–1915, of National Geographic Society since 1917 (contributor of numerous valuable articles), and of Taft School since 1928; honorary member of board of trustees of Howard University since 1919; member board of electors of Hall of Fame, New York University, 1920; member National Race Relations Commission; fellow of American Academy of Arts and Sciences; member All Souls' Unitarian Church, Washington; his portrait by Ernest L. Ipsen, N.A., hangs in Circuit Court of Appeals for the 6th Circuit in Cincinnati, and another by August Franzen hangs in the University Dining Hall. A bust of him is placed in Hague Palace of Peace.
Tale College

71

Married June 19, 1886, in Cincinnati, Helen, daughter of Judge John Williamson Herron (B.A. Miami 1844) and Harriet Anne Clinton (Collins) Herron. Children: Robert Alphonso (B.A. 1910, LL.B. Harvard 1913); Helen Herron (B.A. Bryn Mawr 1915, M.A. Yale 1917, Ph.D. 1924), the wife of Frederick J. Manning, '16; and Charles Phelps, 2d (B.A. 1918, LL.B. 1921).

Augustus Wood Bell, B.A. 1879.

Born July 16, 1855, in Morristown, N J.
Died April 5, 1930, in Morristown, N J.

Father, Augustus Wood Bell, a lawyer; son of Robert P. and Charlotte (Stoll) Bell, of Morristown. Mother, Caroline Louisa (Conklin) Bell; daughter of Zebulon Williams and Eliza Caroline (Johnes) Conklin.

Prepared at the Morristown Academy and by Wilbert W. Perry, '71. Member Freshman Football Team and Delta Kappa.

Began the study of law with his father in Morristown, but was obliged to devote much of his time to the management of his father’s real estate after the latter’s death in 1881, and finally gave up the study of law and engaged in the real estate business, was one of the pioneers in the improving and beautifying of Morristown; treasurer and director of the Y.M.C.A. for many years, elected a trustee of Market Street Mission 1897 and served as its secretary 1909–1922 and as treasurer 1919–1922; a prime mover in securing the establishment of the fire alarm system in Morristown; member of the Independent Hose Company of the Fire Department and author of a history of the department, beginning with its organization in 1797 and covering a period of about one hundred years; trustee of Emmanuel Presbyterian Church.

Married December 14, 1881, in Newburgh, N. Y., Ella Martha, daughter of Alfred and Martha Mahatable Tuttle (King) Bridgman. Children: Alfred Augustus and Caroline Louise (Mrs. Roy Shank).

Death, due to an ailment of the bladder, occurred at All Souls’ Hospital. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Morristown. Survived by wife, son, daughter, and two grandchildren.

Samuel Peters Fosdick, B.A. 1879.

Born August 2, 1857, in New York City
Died May 15, 1930, in Stamford, Conn

Father, William Robbins Fosdick, a leather merchant in New York; president of St. Nicholas National Bank; son of William and Cornelia (Paxton) Fosdick, of Stamford. Mother, Elizabeth Jarvis (Ferris) Fosdick; daughter of Joshua Beal Ferris (B.A. 1823) and Sally Hannah (Peters) Ferris, of Stamford. Yale relatives include: Rev. Samuel Peters (B.A. 1757) (great-great-grandfather); and John S. Peters (honorary M.D. 1818) (cousin).

Stamford Military Institute, Holbrooke's Military Academy, Ossining, N. Y., and Hopkins Grammar School. Member Linonia, Delta Kappa, and Psi Upsilon.

LL.B. Columbia 1881; admitted to New York State Bar 1882 and practiced law in New York City six months; then bought a seat on the Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange and continued as a member until about 1900; engaged in business as an advertising agent 1900-05; secretary and auditor of Vuono Construction Company of Stamford since 1905; had been a partner in firm of Allen & Fosdick, bankers and brokers, in New York, a member of firm of Blickensderfer Manufacturing Company of Stamford in 1904, and an agent for New York Life Insurance Company 1898-1900, 1910-12, and for six months in 1915 through their Connecticut branch office.

Married July 26, 1915, in Port Chester, N. Y., Louise, daughter of William and Fredericks (Weber) Julius. No children

William Whitney Hawkes, B.A. 1879.

Born June 7, 1857, in Davenport, Iowa
Died April 12, 1930, in West Haven, Conn.

Portland (Maine) High School. Member of Dunham Boat Club; served on committee to establish a summer athletic association, winning two first prizes given by it; member Lunonia M.D. Yale 1881; during his medical course served as an instructor in gymnastics; resident physician and surgeon at Connecticut General Hospital 1881–82; practiced medicine in partnership with Dr. Charles W. Gaylord, '70, at Branford, Conn, 1882–84; practiced independently in New Haven from 1884 until his retirement in 1925; attending surgeon at New Haven Hospital 1888–1913; medical examiner for Branford and North Branford 1883 and 1884; an organizer of the Connecticut Naval Militia in 1893; appointed surgeon with rank of Lieutenant (j.g.) in Connecticut National Guard April 11, 1896, and promoted Lieutenant June 11, 1897; served as surgeon of Naval Battalion of Connecticut until May 25, 1899; appointed Passed Assistant Surgeon during Spanish American War, but not called to active duty; retired June 24, 1902; director of Connecticut General Hospital 1899–1925 and of The Hoggson & Pettis Manufacturing Company of New Haven 1903–06; examining surgeon on local draft board in 1918; contributed to Journal of Nervous and Mental Diseases and Proceedings of the Connecticut Medical Society; member American, Connecticut State, New Haven, and New Haven County Medical societies, New Haven Chamber of Commerce, and Trinity Episcopal Church.

Married June 4, 1890, in New Haven, Jennie Welton, daughter of George Clinton and Nancy Emily (Welton) Pettis, and sister of Clinton M. Pettis, ex-’96 S. No children.

Death, due to angina pectoris, occurred while he was attending the Yale-Dartmouth baseball game. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife and a brother, Samuel N. Hawkes, '83 and '85 L. Two other brothers, Charles B. Hawkes, '82 and '83 L., and George P. Hawkes, '91 and '94 L., died in 1916 and 1905 respectively. By the terms of his will a scholarship fund to be known as the William Whitney Hawkes Fund is to be established at Yale, which will eventually become the residuary legatee of his estate. The income of the fund is to be used annually to aid worthy and deserving students of American ancestry in Yale College.
Severyn Bruyn Sharpe, B.A. 1879.

Born January 1, 1857, in Kingston, N Y.
Died November 24, 1929, in New York City.

Father, George Henry Sharpe (B.A. Rutgers 1847); student in Yale School of Law 1847-48; admitted to bar and practiced law until he entered the Union Army as Captain in 20th New York Infantry 1861; participated in all battles of Army of the Potomac as Colonel of 120th New York Infantry and served on staffs of Hooker, Mead, and Grant; detailed to parole officers and men of Army of Northern Virginia in 1865; special agent of State Department in Europe in 1867; United States marshal for southern district of New York; surveyor of Port of New York; member New York Assembly and speaker of the House; United States commissioner to South American Republics; member of Board of United States General Appraisers; trustee of Rutgers; son of Henry and Helen (Hasbrouck) Sharpe, of Kingston. Mother, Caroline Hone (Hasbrouck) Sharpe; daughter of Abraham Bruyn Hasbrouck (B.A. 1810, LL.D. Columbia 1840 and Union 1841) and Julia Frances (Ludlum) Hasbrouck, of Kingston. Yale relatives include five cousins: Alfred Hasbrouck (B.A. 1844), Louis B. Hasbrouck, '81, George S. Hasbrouck, '04 S., Joseph J. Hasbrouck, '06 S., and Louis Hasbrouck, '11 S.

Phillips-Andover. Entered Yale with Class of 1878, joining Class of 1879 in fall of 1876; member Junior Promenade Committee, Linonia, Delta Kappa, Delta Beta Xi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Studied law in office of Judge William S. Kenyon in Kingston 1879-1880 and at Columbia 1880-81; admitted to New York State Bar 1881 and began practice of law in Judge Kenyon's office; practiced in New York City in association with Alexander & Green 1882-87; in partnership with Judge Kenyon in Kingston 1887-1896; had since practiced independently, at first in Kingston, and since 1905 in New York; county judge of Ulster County, N. Y., in 1898; chairman of Republican Committee of Kingston 1895-97; president of board of trustees of Kingston Academy 1915; in 1914 elected Republican delegate from First Assembly District of Ulster County to Constitutional Convention of New York; member Legal Advisory Board for City of New York and chairman of local board for Division No. 136 during 1917–18, member St. Nicholas Society; affiliated with Reformed Protestant Dutch Church in Kingston and New York City.

Married February 17, 1897, in Kingston, Frances Payntar, daughter of Abram and Emma D. (Shaw) Payntar. One daughter, Katharine, the wife of Albro N. Dana, ’20.

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Wiltwyck Cemetery, Kingston. Survived by wife, daughter, two grandchildren, a sister, Mrs. Ira Davenport, and a brother, Major General Henry G. Sharpe, U.S.A., retired, both of New York City.

John Eastman Wilson, B.A. 1879.

Born December 9, 1857, in Rockville, Conn
Died December 19, 1929, in New York City

Father, Ephraim Farnum Wilson (M.D. Castleton [Vt] Medical College), a physician and druggist; son of Dr. Job Wilson and Nancy (Farnum) Wilson, of Franklin, N H Mother, Eleanor (Eastman) Wilson, daughter of Samuel and Eleanor (Campbell) Eastman, of Exeter, Maine.

Rockville High School. On Class Baseball Team three years and on University Nine Senior year; rowed on one of Dunham Boat Club crews; member Linonia, Gamma Nu, Hé-Boulé, and Psi Upsilon

Assisted his father in his drug store in Rockville 1879–1881, and studied medicine at home; then entered New York Homeopathic Medical College (M.D. 1883); in 1886 received a certificate in laryngology from New York Ophthalmic Hospital; practiced medicine in Bloomfield, N J , 1883–1900; then took special work in neurology at New York Post Graduate Hospital and at Montefiore Home, New York, for about a year; studied under Professor Oppenheim in Berlin 1901–02; continued his special studies in mental diseases at New York State Asylum in Middletown for several months in 1902; in summer of 1904 spent some time at Hospital for the Paralyzed and Epileptic in London; since 1902 had specialized in nervous diseases in
Obituary Record

New York City; lecturer on pathology at New York Homeopathic Medical College and Hospital 1902-1914, adjunct professor of nervous diseases 1904-06, and professor 1906-07 and again 1919-1920; attending and consulting neurologist at Fifth Avenue Hospital; professor of diseases of the nervous system at New York Medical College and Hospital for Women; neurologist at Hahnemann, Flower, and Laura Franklin Women's hospitals, New York, and St Mary's Hospital, Passaic, N. J.; on advisory board of Flower Hospital during the war; member of Board of Education of Bloomfield 1898-1900 and New Jersey Board of Medical Examiners 1900-01; Private in Connecticut National Guard four years; author: Diseases of the Nervous System (1909; second edition 1916); had contributed to various professional journals and an article on nervous diseases to Carlton's Urological and Venereal Diseases; former member Second Congregational Church, Rockville, and trustee of Congregational Church in Bloomfield; member American Institute of Homeopathy, Homeopathic Medical Society of New York State, Homeopathic Medical Society of the County of New York, and Academy of Pathological Science.

Married May 9, 1888, in Glen Ridge, N. J., Alice Louise, daughter of Frank Seabury and Louise (Pope) Hall. No children.

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York City. Survived by wife and a half sister, Miss Ellen L. Wilson, of Rockville, Conn.

Charles Platt Barker, B.A. 1880.

Born July 12, 1857, in Brooklyn, N Y
Died May 19, 1930, in Brooklyn, N Y.

Father, Ezra Dennis Barker; president of University Publishing Company of New York; son of Ezra and Lucy (Platt) Barker. Mother, Maria Day (Otis) Barker; daughter of Jacob Day and Agnes Otis, of DeRuyter, N. Y.

Morgan School, Clinton, N Y. Member Linonia.

LL.B. Columbia 1882; during his course there was clerk in law office of Bushe & Clark; admitted to Bar of New York 1882; entered law office of Edward Heaton, '69, in 1884 and was subsequently in the offices of E. I. Hatch, Childs & Hull, and John E. Eustis; spent 1886–87 on a cattle ranch in Colorado and on the sheep ranch of his classmate, Wyllys A. Hedges, in Montana; in 1888 was in law office of Charles Rudolph & Company in St. Paul, Minn., for a few months and was engaged in real estate business in St. Paul for a short time; in 1888 formed the law firm of Merrill & Barker in St Paul, and when the firm preempted some government land in Wisconsin spent six months there; subsequently returned to St. Paul and engaged in the mortgage and loan business with Graves & Vinton Company for some years; in 1890, after a serious illness, moved to Brooklyn and had since been engaged in the practice of law in New York City, being member of firm of Hildreth & Barker 1891–94; life member Central Branch, Brooklyn Y M C.A.; member Columbia chapter of Phi Delta Phi; had been affiliated with the Congregational Church.

John Philip Helfenstein, B.A. 1880.

Born November 26, 1856, in Shamokin, Pa.
Died October 6, 1929, in Shamokin, Pa.

Father, Charles Philip Helfenstein (B A 1841, honorary M.A. 1880), a civil engineer; mayor of Shamokin; son of John Philip and Elizabeth (Leonard) Helfenstein, of Carlisle, Pa. Mother, Caroline Hill (Perkins) Helfenstein; daughter of Jeremiah Colcord and Esther Ann (Colcord) Perkins, of New Market, N. H. Yale relatives: Charles P. Helfenstein, '25 (nephew); and Wallace D. Simmons, '90, Edward H. Simmons, '92 S., George W. Simmons, 'oo, Roy C. Helfen-stein, ‘13 D, Richard W. Simmons, ’27, and Edward C. Simmons, 2d, ex-’29 (cousins).

Shamokin High School and private tutor in Philadelphia. Second colloquy appointment Junior year; first colloquy appointment Senior year; member Linonia and Kappa Sigma Epsilon.

With Shamokin Gas Light Company 1880-81; studied in Yale School of Law 1881-83 (LL.B. 1883); secretary for Shamokin Gas Light Company 1883-86; had since practiced law in Shamokin, being in partnership with George B. Reimensnyder under firm name of Helfenstein & Reimensnyder 1886-89; director of Consolidated Telephone Companies of Pennsylvania and Xenia (Ohio) Water Company; secretary of Shamokin Board of Trade ten years; vestryman of Trinity Episcopal Church, Shamokin, 1889-1904.

Married (1) February 22, 1883, in Hazleton, Pa., Caroline Atwood, daughter of John and Sophra (Warr) Northall. Children: Esther Colcord, Wheaton Seminary (now College) ex-’04, who married Dr. Roger K. Williams; and Gretchen Elizabeth (died in infancy). Mrs. Helfenstein died January 11, 1902. Married (2) August 12, 1908, in New York City, Helen Crawford Holl, who studied at Hood College 1904-06, daughter of Thomas Andrell and Louisa Jane (Reed) Holl, of Shamokin. Children: Helen Leonard, a student at Antioch College; John Philip, Jr.; Carolyn Adeha and Louisa Holl (twins), and George Alvin (died in infancy).

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage and pneumonia. Buried in Shamokin Cemetery. Survived by four daughters, one son, two grandchildren, a brother, William L. Helfenstein, ’96, and a sister, Mrs. Caroline H. Forsyth (art student at Vassar three years), of Shamokin.

Sidney Catlin Partridge, B.A. 1880.

Born September 1, 1857, in New York City
Died June 22, 1930, in Kansas City, Mo

Father, George Sidney Partridge; head of importing department of A. T. Stewart & Company of New York City; gazetted for Legion of Honor for services to merchants of Paris and Lyons during siege of Paris in 1870, but died before the decoration could be conferred; son of George Sidney and Mary (Tew) Partridge, of New York City. Mother, Helen Derby (Catlin) Partridge; daughter of Charles Taylor
Catlin (B.A. 1822) and Lucy Ann (Derby) Catlin, of Brooklyn, N. Y. Yale relatives include: Lynde Catlin (B.A. 1786) great-grandfather); John M. Catlin (B.A. 1820) (great-uncle); Lynde A. Catlin, '53, Charles T. Catlin, '56, Hasket D. Catlin, '59 (uncles); Arnold W. Catlin, '62 (uncle) and his son, Reginald W. Catlin, '08; and George L. Catlin, '60, Arthur T. Hadley, '76, and his sons, Morris Hadley, '16, and Hamilton Hadley, '19 (cousins).

Adelphi Academy. Two first prizes in English composition Sophomore year; dissertation appointment Junior year and second prize at Junior Exhibition; first dispute appointment
Senior year and a DeForest Scholarship; an editor of Yale Record and a Class Day historian; member Linonia, Delta Kappa, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Studied at Yale Divinity School 1880–82 and at Berkeley
Divinity School 1882–84; ordained as a deacon in Protestant Episcopal Church June 4, 1884, at Middletown, Conn., by the Rt. Rev. John Williams, D.D., Bishop of Connecticut, and as priest in 1885 in China, by the Rt. Rev. William J. Boone, D.D., Missionary Bishop of Shanghai; during the summer of 1884 employed under the Board of Missions in giving account of its missionary work in the Far East in various cities of the United States; instructor in natural science at St. John's Missionary College in Shanghai 1884–87, and treasurer of the mission; had charge of Bishop Boone Memorial School for Boys in Wuchang 1887–1899, teaching in both Chinese and English; during that period also taught Bible and exegesis in St. Peter's Divinity School; elected first missionary bishop of Kyoto, Japan, in 1900 (consecrated in Tokyo on February 2) and served as such until 1911, when elected bishop of the Diocese of West Missouri (then called Diocese of Kansas City), his enthronement taking place at Grace Church in Kansas City on June 27; continued in office until death;
ex-officio president of executive council of the Diocese;
preached in various churches in England and Scotland during summer of 1912 and attended Lambeth Conference of Bishops in London in 1920; of late years had frequently preached during the summer months in the “Little Church Around the Corner” in New York; D.D. Berkeley Divinity School 1900; president of St. Luke’s Hospital, Kansas City, since 1911; chairman of Social Service Commission of the Province of the Southwest; a founder of St. Andrew’s Church in Kansas City in 1916; state chaplain of Rhode Island Society of the Cincinnati and of Missouri Society of the Sons of the Revolution; member of Yale Alumni Board since 1913; president of Yale Club of Kansas City for a number of years; had delivered numerous addresses before clubs, colleges, and patriotic societies and published some sermons in pamphlet form and religious books in Chinese; translated the Declaration of Independence into Chinese, had it engraved on a scroll, and gave it to the American consul; wrote five series of stories on Chinese life and character, which were published by McClure Newspaper Syndicate in papers in the United States and Canada during 1918-19 under the title of “The Mysterious Ways of Wang Foo.”
Obituary Record

Married (1) June 12, 1884, in Brooklyn, Charlotte Irene, daughter of Louis and Charlotte Irene (Ritter) Mills, of New Haven. One daughter, Helen Louise (Mrs. George E. Chapin). Mrs. Partridge died May 3, 1886. Married (2) November 27, 1901, in San Francisco, Calif., Agnes Laura Louise, daughter of John Simpson, a graduate of the University of Copenhagen and one time Danish consul in San Francisco, and Amalia (Ortwed) Simpson. One daughter, Amalia Ortwed Lucy, the wife of Frederic Pomeroy Lyman, Jr., a student in civil engineering at Cornell for two years.

William Allison Peters, B.A. 1880.

Born March 8, 1858, in Atlanta, Ga.
Died October 26, 1929, in Seattle, Wash

Father, William Graham Peters, a landowner and planter in Georgia; officer in Confederate Army; son of Ralph and Catherine (Conyngham) Peters. Mother, Eugenia Earle (Coryell) Peters; daughter of Tunison and Sophia (Head) Nelson Coryell. Yale relatives include: Herbert Conyngham, ’95 S., John N. Conyngham, ex-’88 S., and William H. Conyngham, ’89 S. (cousins)

Wilkes Barre (Pa.) Academy and St. Paul’s School, Concord, N. H. Dissertation appointments Junior and Senior years; on University Football Team 1877-1880 (substitute 1877-78); member Hé Boulé, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Taught at Hillman Academy, Wilkes Barre, for a year or two after graduation and then read law in an office in Philadelphia; admitted to Pennsylvania Bar in March, 1883, and was employed as claim agent by the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati & St. Louis Railway Company until 1885; spent the next two years traveling; in 1887 moved to Seattle, where he had since been engaged in the practice of law; independently until 1889, member firm of Strudwick, Peters & Collins 1889-1890, Strudwick, Peters & VanWyck 1891-1892, Strudwick & Peters 1893-1900, Peters & Powell 1900-1928, and Peters, Powell, Evans & McLaren 1929; president Washington State Bar Association 1903-04, Seattle Bar Association 1907-08, Rainier Club 1888-89 (charter member 1888), and University Club 1908 and 1909 (charter member 1900); trustee Carnegie Endowment for International Peace 1926-29; vice-chairman of Washington State Council of Defense 1918; vestryman of St. Mark’s Episcopal Church, Seattle 1908, 1909, 1910, 1919; member Seattle Chamber of Commerce, and Sons of the Revolution.

Obituary Record

Death due to pyelitis. Buried in Lakeview Cemetery, Seattle. Survived by wife, daughter, four sons, and four grandchildren.

Horatio McLeod Reynolds, B.A. 1880.

Born April 13, 1857, in Wakefield, N H
Died October 3, 1929, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, William Buzzell Reynolds (M.D. Dartmouth 1852), a physician in Lynn, Lawrence, and Cambridge, Mass., and Union (Wakefield) and Chocorua, N. H.; enlisted as Private in 2d Regiment, United States Sharpshooters, 1861; promoted to Second Sergeant; later Assistant Surgeon and Surgeon, 2d United States Sanitary Service, until 1865; son of Samuel and Hannah (Farnham) Reynolds, of Acton, Maine. Mother, Clara Ellen (Swasey) Reynolds; daughter of Charles and Eunice (Buck) Swasey, of Milton Mills, N. H.

Maine Central Institute Attended Bates College 1876-78; entered Yale as a Junior 1878; Winthrop Prize Junior year; oration appointment Senior year and speaker at Commencement; member Psi Upsilon.

Did graduate work at Yale on Soldiers' Memorial Fellowship 1880-82; taught the classics at Park Institute, Rye, N. Y., 1882-83; tutor in Greek at Yale 1883-88; assistant professor 1888-1893; Talcott professor of the Greek language and literature from 1893 until his retirement 1922, when made professor emeritus; studied Greek at Leipzig University in summer of 1885 and spent five months at University of Berlin in 1888; secretary of managing committee of American School at Athens 1901-1921; vice-president of Connecticut Society of Archeological Institute of America 1914-1920; honorary M.A. Yale 1896; member American Philosophical Association, American Philological Association, and The Church of Christ in Yale University.

Married April 4, 1904, in New Haven, Florence Maud, daughter of Winston John and Margarette Elford (Dean) Trowbridge, a niece of James J. Dean (B.A. 1845), a great-great-granddaughter of Daniel Trowbridge (B.A. 1725), sister of Winston J. Trowbridge, '79, Frank D. Trowbridge, Tallow College

85

'84, and Elford P. Trowbridge, '87 (died September 14, 1930), and sister-in-law of William K. Townsend, '71. No children.

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. His wife survives him. By the terms of his will a bequest was made to Yale as a residuary legatee, to establish a fund to be known as the Maud Trowbridge Reynolds and Horatio McLeod Reynolds Fund, the income of which is to be used for the purchase of books for the University Library, and to constitute an auxiliary fund for the promotion of classical studies.

John Foster Shepley, B.A. 1880.

Born October 11, 1858, in St. Louis, Mo
Died January 11, 1930, in St. Louis, Mo

Father, John Rutledge Shepley (B.A. Bowdoin 1837, LL D 1868), attended Harvard Law School one year; a lawyer in St. Louis; member Board of Directors of Washington University, and vestryman Christ Church Cathedral, St. Louis, son of Ether Shepley (B.A. Dartmouth 1811, LL D 1845 and Colby 1842), lawyer, United States senator, and chief justice of Maine Supreme Court, and Anne (Foster) Shepley, of Portland, Maine. Mother, Mary Augusta (Clapp) Shepley; daughter of Benjamin and Catherine (Behn) Clapp, of New York City. Yale relatives include: Arthur B. Shepley, '95 (brother); Charles Nagel, Jr., '23, and Arthur B. Shepley, Jr., '29 (nephews); Benjamin C. Riggs, '65, and Leonard Shepley, '19 S. (cousins).

Washington University, St. Louis, and private tutor
Second colloquy appointment Junior year, sang on '80 Glee Club; played on Class Baseball Nine and was president of University Baseball Club; member Delta Kappa, Hé Boulé, and Psi Upsilon; graduate member Wolf's Head

LL B. Washington University 1882 and admitted to the bar; practiced in St. Louis until 1901; member of firm of Lionberger & Shepley 1886-1896; had been engaged in banking since 1901; vice-president of Union Trust Company of St. Louis 1901, and president January-April 1902, when it merged with the St. Louis Trust Company, under the name
Obituary Record

Married May 18, 1893, in St. Louis, Sarah, daughter of Ethan Allen Hitchcock, Secretary of the Interior under McKinley and Roosevelt, and Margaret Dwight (Collier) Hitchcock, and niece of Henry Hitchcock, '48. Children: John Rutledge, '17; Ethan Allen Hitchcock, '18, who received the degree of LL.B. at Washington University in 1922; and Margaret.

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Bellefontaine Cemetery, St. Louis. Survived by wife, daughter, two sons, and two sisters, Mrs. Charles Nagel, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Charles A. Coolidge, of Boston, Mass.

Charles Pemberton Wurts, B.A. 1880.

Died May 27, 1930, in Winnetka, Ill.

Jay, '92, Edward V. Wurts, '92 S., John Jay and Josiah D. Whitney, both '98, and James L. Whitney, '01 (cousins).

Hopkins Grammar School. First colloquy appointment Junior year; rowed on Class Crew four years; on University Football Team Sophomore year; member Yale Orchestra two years; enthusiastic bicycle rider, making some of the early records on Hamilton Park track; member Delta Kappa.

Spent six months after graduation in brokerage office of Belden, Bennet & Company in New York City; from 1881 until his retirement in February, 1926, with the exception of two years, was engaged in the fire insurance business; connected with Commercial Union Assurance Company of New York 1881-84, at first as a clerk and later as collector and assistant cashier and inspector of risks; conducted his own office for the transaction of insurance and real estate business 1884-85; assistant auditor of Delaware & Hudson Canal Company 1885-87; associated with Commonwealth Insurance Company of New York 1887-1892, acting as its Chicago representative after the first year; independent insurance broker in Chicago 1892-1902, acting as agent for a number of companies and also taking up a mortgage and loan business; in 1902 became member of firm of Fisher, Martin & Wurts, general fire insurance agents in Chicago; afterwards occupied as a specialist in insurance for about ten years and served as general manager of Federal Fire Insurance Company of Chicago; former member of Company I, 7th Regiment, New York National Guard; member St Chrysostom's Episcopal Church, Chicago.

Death due to hypertensive cardio-vascular renal disease. Buried in Graceland Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by daughter, son, three grandchildren, a sister, Miss Martha H. Wurts, of Caldwell, N. J., and four brothers, John and Rudolf Wurts, both '78, Alexander J. Wurts, '83 S., and Pierre Jay Wurts, '91 S.
Obituary Record

Joseph Dunn Burrell, B.A. 1881.

Born December 12, 1858, in Freeport, Ill
Died April 13, 1930, in Barcelona, Spain

Father, David Burrell, a merchant at Stahlstown and Mount Pleasant, Pa., and Freeport; son of John and Nancy (Grove) Burrell, of Johnstown, Pa. Mother, Elizabeth (Felgar) Burrell, daughter of Ludwig and Catharine (Dunn) Felgar, of Johnstown. Yale relatives: David J. Burrell, '67 (brother); Louis H. Burrell, ex-'93, David DeForest Burrell, '98, and Norman M. Burrell, '99 (nephews); and David M. Burrell, '29 (grandnephew).

Freeport High School. First and second prizes in English composition Sophomore year; oration appointment Junior and Senior years; second prize at Junior Exhibition; took part in DeForest speaking contest; Townsend Premium Senior year, wrote the Ivy Ode; speaker at Commencement; sang on Freshman Glee Club; an editor of Yale Literary Magazine and contributed to Yale Record and Yale Courant; member Gamma Nu, Chi Delta Theta, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Graduated at Union Theological Seminary 1884; preached at Faith Chapel, New York City, in summer of 1883 and at the Second Presbyterian Church in Dubuque, Iowa (of which his brother was pastor), in summer of 1884; pastor of Clinton (Iowa) Presbyterian Church 1884-1892, his ordination taking place there November 13, 1884; pastor of Classon Avenue Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, N. Y., 1882-1919; during leave of absence from his church served as chaplain at Camp Devens, Mass., under National Service Commission of the Presbyterian Church, May–August, 1918; chaplain with American Red Cross (rank of Captain) in Paris, Brest (Camp Ponteuyen), France, and Berlin October, 1918–October, 1919; secretary of Metropolitan District of New Era Movement of the Presbyterian Church in the United States 1920-21; executive secretary for Church Extension Board of the Presbytery of Brooklyn-Nassau, Inc., from 1922 until his resignation in June, 1929; M.A. Yale 1893; D.D. Park College 1906; president of Brooklyn Presbyterian Union for Church Extension 1897–98, 1900–01, and 1907–1911, of Brooklyn Federation of Churches in 1927, and of Board of Home Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (now merged in Board of National Missions) 1923–29; moderator of the Brooklyn Presbytery April–September 1893, and 1909–1912; vice-president of Metropolitan Federation of Daily Vacation Bible Schools 1924–29; director of Union Theological Seminary since 1908 and president of its Alumni Association; historian of Brooklyn Clerical Union and its president one year; author. Hints and Helps (for Sunday School lessons) 1891–93 (with his brother), 1903, and 1904, The Early Church (1897), The Singular Death of Christ (1900), and A New Appraisal of Christian Science (1906); contributor to Homiletic Review; member New York Presbyterian Ministers’ Association, Alpha Kappa Clergy Club (an association of twenty-five Brooklyn clergymen), and Brooklyn Social Union; secretary of Class of 1881 since 1923.

Married October 18, 1888, at Lake Forest, Ill., Caroline Frances Benedict (a writer under pen name of Caroline French Benton), daughter of Amzi and Catherine (Walrath) Benedict. Children: Katharine Benedict (B.A. Smith 1911), the wife of George Hallam Sicard (B.A. Hamilton 1906); and Monica (B.A. Smith 1913), the wife of Roberts Bishop Owen (B.A. Chicago 1910, Ph D. 1915).

James Sheldon, B.A. 1881.

Born February 21, 1858, in Geneva, N.Y.
Died June 14, 1930, in Ascot, England

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.
Obituary Record

Samuel Maxwell Parke, B.A. 1882.

Born May 4, 1859, in Pittston, Pa.
Died September 12, 1929, in Pittston, Pa.

Father, the Rev. Nathan Grier Parke (B.A. Washington and Jefferson 1840, D.D. 1884), a Presbyterian minister; a graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary in 1844; founder and first pastor of First Presbyterian Church of Scranton, Pa., and pastor of First Church of Pittston; moderator of the Synod and stated clerk of the Presbytery; son of the Rev. Samuel Parke (B.A. Dickinson 1809) and Martha (Grier) Parke, of Slate Ridge, Pa. Mother, Ann Elizabeth (Gildersleeve) Parke; daughter of William Camp and Nancy Spencer (Riggs) Gildersleeve, of Wilkes Barre, Pa.

Wilkes Barre Academy, Newton (Mass.) Collegiate Institute, and The Hill School. Dissertation appointment Junior year; oration appointment Senior year; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Entered law office of George R. Bedford in Wilkes Barre in fall of 1882; admitted to bar of Luzerne County in January, 1885, and had since practiced law in Pittston; vice-president of First National Bank of Pittston 1920-29 and director from 1886 until death; member of West Pittston Board of Health 1895-1924 and of West Pittston Town Council; elder of First Presbyterian Church, Pittston, since 1890, treasurer since 1906, trustee since 1909, secretary of the board 1909-1913, and secretary-treasurer 1913 until death; had also been treasurer of Luzerne Presbytery for a number of years.

Married October 6, 1908, in Ariel, Pa., Bertha Louise Sandercock, Wells ex-’00, daughter of John W. and Susan (Green) Sandercock. One daughter, Mary Gildersleeve. Mrs. Parke died January 16, 1922.

Death due to an embolism and acute dilatation of the heart. Buried in Pittston Cemetery. Survived by daughter.
Edward Vernon Silver, B.A. 1882.

Born July 24, 1860, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died March 5, 1930, in New York City

Father, Charles Alexander Silver (B.A. Norwich University 1841); merchant, real estate operator, and builder; son of Alexander Simpson and Jemima (Peterson) Silver, of Norwich, Vt. Mother, Helen Lydia (Mann) Silver; daughter of Nathaniel and Mary (Mason) Mann, of Orford, N. H. Yale relatives include: Henry M. Silver, 2d, '26 (nephew); and Herbert B. Wilcox, '98, Herbert B. Wilcox, Jr., '30, and Jarvis G. Wilcox, '32 (cousins).

Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute, St. Johnsbury (Vt.) Academy, and Phillips-Andover. First colloquy appointment Junior year; second colloquy appointment Senior year; member Class Glee Club Freshman year and Delta Kappa.

Studied physiological chemistry in Sheffield Scientific School 1882-83; M.D. Columbia 1885; house surgeon at Roosevelt Hospital, New York, 1885-87; took graduate work in Vienna 1887-88; practiced in New York City 1888-1891; assistant surgeon to Outdoor Department of Roosevelt Hospital and assistant physician to Vanderbilt Clinic 1889-1891; from 1891 until his retirement in 1927 practiced in Salt Lake City, specializing in dermatology; visiting physician to St. Mark's Hospital 1902-1922 and consulting physician 1922-27; visiting physician to Holy Cross Hospital 1892-1902; member Salt Lake City Board of Health 1894-96; examiner for New York Life Insurance Company 1901-1927 (chief examiner from 1905), Home Life Insurance Company 1893-1927, and Equitable Life Insurance Company 1902-March, 1930; elder in First Presbyterian Church 1902-1926; in 1891-92 aided in organizing Third Presbyterian Sunday School, which later became Third Presbyterian Church (an integral part of Westminster College), of which he was a charter member and an elder 1892-94; president of Utah State Sunday School Association 1893-1901; president of Salt Lake City Y.M.C.A. 1897-1900; helped to organize the Orpheus Club; member Collegiate Church of St Nicholas in New York since 1928; fellow of American Medical Association and American College of Physicians; member Utah
Edward Nelson Dingley, B.A. 1883.

Born August 21, 1862, in Auburn, Maine
Died March 18, 1930, in Washington, D.C.

Lewiston High School. Attended Bates College 1879–1880 and then entered Yale as a Sophomore; second dispute appointment Junior year, first colloquy appointment Senior year, member Class Day Committee and Delta Kappa Epsilon

LL.B Columbian (now George Washington) University Law School 1885 (member Phi Delta Phi); admitted to Maine State Bar in October, 1885, but never practiced law; on editorial staff of Lewiston Journal 1885–86, and made a world tour for the paper in 1886; one of the political and legislative editors of Boston Advertiser and Boston Record 1886–87; part owner and editor of Leavenworth (Kans.) Times 1887–88, editor and publisher of Kalamazoo (Mich.) Daily Telegraph 1888–1909 and of Kalamazoo Evening Press 1909–1911; then forced the consolidation of the Telegraph and the Press to form the Telegraph-Press, of which editor and publisher until 1912; created the Progressive Herald of Kalamazoo 1912, and acted as editor and publisher until 1917; was also president and general manager of Saginaw (Mich.) News, which he bought with four others in 1890; while in Kalamazoo wrote political prospectuses, published articles in the Indianapolis Star defending the gold standard, and published the pamphlet "Quon's Financial School"; editor of American Economist, the official publication of the American Protective League in New York City 1918–19; assistant editor of New York Herald 1919–1920, then became editorial writer for Republican National Committee and was soon afterwards transferred to Washington, where he had since lived; in 1923 also conducted, in conjunction with George B. Lockwood (secretary of National Republican Committee) the Dingley Syndicate, based upon political developments from the Republican standpoint; clerk of Ways and Means Committee of National House of Representatives 1897–98; member of Michigan House of Representatives 1898–1902 (chairman of Ways and Means Committee and floor leader 1900–01); connected with Committee on Ways and Means of United States House of Representatives as tariff expert 1921–24 and since then had served as majority expert on tariff, finance, and economics with Senate Finance Committee; president of Michigan League of Republican Clubs 1897–98, in 1900 delegate to Republican National Convention, serving on Committee on Resolutions; in 1908 unsuccessful candidate for Congress from 3d Michigan District; addressed Academy of Political Science on "A Tariff for a Creditor Nation" in New York 1921 and American Institute of Political Science at St. Louis on "The International Labor League" 1922; debated tariff questions with United States Representative Collier of Mississippi in Pennsylvania House of Representatives, upon invitation of Pennsylvania Club of Women Voters 1922; on speakers' bureau of Republican National Committee (of which a member since 1916) for a number of years; author. The Life
Obituary Record

Married December 20, 1888, in Dorchester, Mass., Miriam Gardner, daughter of Henry Crane and Francena (Reed) Robinson. Children: Irene (died in 1902); Miriam (died in 1891), Nelson; Madalen, the wife of William D. Leetch, Cornell ex-'15; and Edward Nelson, Jr. (B.S. Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1923).

Death due to carcinoma of the thyroid gland. Buried in the Dingley family lot at Oak Hill Cemetery, Auburn. Survived by wife, one daughter, two sons, three grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. James C. Hooe, of New Haven.

Albert (Edmond) Symington, B.A. 1883.

Born October 24, 1862, in New York City.
Died May 17, 1930, in New York City.

Father, James Symington, a wine merchant and cotton broker; British consul to Madeira; son of James and Mary (Walt) Symington, of Scotland. Mother, Eliza (Kelly) Symington, daughter of John Kelly, a graduate of the University of Edinburgh, and Mary (Fynne) Kelly of County Galway, Ireland.

Hopkins Grammar School. Served on Class Supper Committee Freshman year; secretary and treasurer of Football Club Junior year; president of Athletic Association Senior year; member Hare and Hounds Club, Yale Yacht Club, Delta Kappa, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Spent the year 1883–84 abroad; LL.B. Columbia 1887; subsequently practiced law in New York City until his retirement about 1926; associate member of Legal Advisory Board No. 163 for the City of New York 1917–18, was active in the Liberty Loan drive of 1917, and was captain for Monmouth Beach, N. J., in two Red Cross drives; member St. James’s Protestant Episcopal Church, New York.

Married April 24, 1889, in Cleveland, Ohio, Edith Louise, daughter of William Hamilton Harris, a graduate of the United States Military Academy in 1861, and Emma (Witt) Harris. Children: William Harris, ’12; Hazen, the wife of George deForest Lord, ’14; and James Mansfield, ’16.

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, two sons, daughter, and five grandchildren.

Willson Carpenter, B.A. 1884.

Born October 7, 1861, in Stamford Township, near Shekomeko, N. Y.
Died June 30, 1930, in Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

Father, Isaac Smith Carpenter, a farmer; director of Farmers and Manufacturers Bank of Poughkeepsie; supervisor of town of Stamford; member New York General Assembly 1879–1880; son of Morgan and Maria (Bockée) Carpenter, of Poughkeepsie. Mother, Sarah Rebecca (Willson) Carpenter; daughter of Hiram and Eliza (Reynolds) Willson, of Pine Plains, N. Y. Yale relatives: B. Platt Carpenter, ex-’57 (uncle) and Henry C. Clark, ’12 L. (nephew).

Williston Academy. First colloquy appointment Junior and Senior years; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon and Psi Upsilon.

Held various positions with First National Bank of Helena, Mont., 1884–1893; had since been owner and manager of several farms in Dutchess County, N. Y., near Shekomeko, principally situated on “Carpenter Hill,” the homestead farm having been owned by the Carpenter family since Revolutionary days; president of Farmers and Manufacturers National Bank since 1923; director of Poughkeepsie Savings Bank; trustee of Vassar Brothers Hospital, Poughkeepsie; active in Dutchess County politics and served often as a delegate to Republican State Conventions; member Dutchess County So-
Obituary Record

George Marvin Cheney, B.A. 1884.

Born August 24, 1861, in Southbridge, Mass.

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.

John Rogers Halsey, B.A. 1884.

Born September 23, 1864, in Brooklyn, N.Y.
Died February 9, 1930, in New York City.

Father, John Rogers Halsey, a merchant; partner in William Halsey & Company, dealers in imported goods in New York City, son of Thomas and Phoebe (Walker) Rogers, who were both born in Ireland, adopted son of Charles and Caroline (Curtis) Halsey, of New York City. Mother, Frances Anna (Dall) Halsey, daughter of Charles and Susan (Lowber) Dall, of New York City.

Brooklyn Collegiate and Polytechnic Institute Oration appointments Junior and Senior years; financial editor of Yale Record; member Junior Promenade Committee, Delta Kappa, Eta Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Studied law at Columbia Law School 1884–85 and in offices of Richards & Heald 1885–86; admitted to New York Bar in May, 1886, had since practiced law in New York City; managing clerk for Richards & Heald 1886–1893; member of firm of Tierney & Halsey 1893–97; engaged in independent practice 1897–1914; member of firms of Halsey, Kiernan & O'Keeffe 1914–19, and Halsey & O'Keeffe 1919–1928; had since practiced alone; member Association of the Bar of the Horace Edward Hand, B.A. 1884.

Born November 21, 1862, in Montrose, Pa
Died April 13, 1930, in Hollywood, Calif

Father, Alfred Hand (B.A. 1857, M.A. 1866), a lawyer; member of firm of Jessup & Hand and later in partnership with his son, William J. Hand, '87, under name of Alfred Hand & William J. Hand; judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania; helped draft first city charter of Scranton, Pa.; first president of Third National Bank of Scranton; president of Davis Oil Company of New York; director in Peoples Street Railway Company, Lackawanna Mills, Lackawanna Valley Coal Company, National Elevator & Machine Company, and Oxford Iron & Nail Company; president of Scranton Public Library and president and director of Lackawanna Hospital, Scranton, Lackawanna Bible Society, and Scranton Y.M.C.A.; trustee of Lafayette College; a founder of Pennsylvania Oral School for the Deaf and president three years; son of Ezra and Catherine (Chapman) Hand, of Honesdale, Pa. Mother, Phebe Anne (Jessup) Hand, daughter of William Jessup (B.A. 1815, LL.D. Hamilton 1848) and Amanda (Harris) Jessup, of Montrose. Yale relatives include: William H. Jessup, '49 (uncle), his son, William H. Jessup, '84, and the latter's sons, William H. Jessup, Jr., '15, and James M. Jessup, '16; Henry H. Jessup, '51 (uncle), Samuel Jessup, '60 (uncle), and his son, Stuart D. Jessup, '91; Huntting C. Jessup, '64 (uncle); Alfred Hand, Jr., '24, and John G. Hand, '25 (nephews); and Samuel B. Mulford, '42, Rev. Elisha Mulford, '55, George F. Bentley, '73, Alfred C. Hand, '82, and Philip C. Jessup, '24 L. (cousins).
School of the Lackawanna, Scranton. First colloquy appointment Junior year; second colloquy appointment Senior year, sang in College Choir three years and in University Glee Club two years; member Senior Promenade Committee, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Eta Phi, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Studied law in Scranton under his uncle, William H. Jessup, and admitted to bar in January, 1886; practiced law in Scranton 1886-1899 as member of firm of Jessup & Hand, of which his uncle and his cousin, William H. Jessup, '84, were also members; connected with legal department of St. Louis & San Francisco Railroad as chief clerk in the general solicitor's office at St. Louis 1899-1907; conducted a fruit ranch in Anaheim, Calif., 1910-15, assistant treasurer of California Shipbuilding Company at Long Beach 1915-1920; had since been engaged in moving picture industry in Hollywood, at first as casting director at William Fox Studio and since 1926 as reception clerk in the executive department of Warner Brothers, Inc.; secretary-treasurer of Peoples Street Railway Company 1887-1896 and of Scranton Suburban Railway Company 1889-1896; member First Presbyterian Church, Long Beach.

Married September 28, 1887, in Montrose, Mary Buell, daughter of William Jessup and Mary Huntting (Cook) Mulford. Children: Anna Mulford, the wife of Frederick M. Sayre (B.A. and B.S. University of Richmond 1906, M.E. Lehigh 1908); and Kathryn Louise (died in 1929).

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Hollywood, with later burial in Montrose Cemetery. Survived by wife, one daughter, two grandchildren, a sister, Miss Charlotte C. Hand (B.A. Wellesley 1892), of Scranton, two half sisters, Mrs. Clarence N. Callender, Smith ex.-'08, of Merion Station, Pa., and Mrs. John Lyman Peck, of Scranton, and a brother, Dr. Alfred Hand, '88. His brothers, William J. Hand, '87, and Miles T. Hand, ex.-'93, died in 1927 and 1926 respectively.
George Washington Patterson, B.A. 1884.

Born February 1, 1864, in Corning, N. Y.

Father, George Washington Patterson (B.A. Dartmouth 1848); president of George Washington Bank, Corning; trustee and acting president of village of Corning; president of Corning School Board; later lived in Westfield, N. Y., and served as engineer (without remuneration) for system of waterworks there; president of the water boards of Corning and Westfield, first president of Patterson Library, and vestryman of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Westfield, son of George Washington Patterson, lieutenant governor of New York and member of Congress, and Hannah Whiting (Dickey) Patterson, of Westfield Mother, Frances DeEtta (Todd) Patterson; daughter of Zerah and Martha (Carr) Todd, of Corning. Yale relatives include three nephews: Francis Crandall, '11, G. Patterson Crandall, '15, and Duncan P. Forbes, '19.

Westfield Free Academy, and School of Languages in New York City. First prize in mathematics Freshman and Senior years and second prize Sophomore year; dissertation appointment Junior and Senior years; first president and captain of Bicycle Club; member Senior Promenade Committee and Psi Upsilon.

Spent the year 1884-85 abroad, studying at the University of Berlin eight months; then entered Massachusetts Institute of Technology, where he received degree of B.S. in 1887; instructor in mathematics there 1887-88; in factory of Thomson-Houston Electric Company, Lynn, Mass., summer of 1888; studied law at Harvard 1888-89; since 1889 had been a member of the faculty of University of Michigan; instructor in physics 1889-1892, assistant professor of physics 1892-98 and junior professor 1898-1901, junior professor of electrical engineering 1901-05 and professor 1905-1915; professor of engineering mechanics since 1915; assistant dean of College of Engineering 1922-28 and associate dean since 1928, acting dean of College of Engineering and Architecture 1927-28; member of the board in control of athletics of the University 1907-1915 (chairman 1907-1910); president of First National Bank of Ann Arbor 1922–29 and then chairman of the board until death, having also been a director since 1908; director of Erie & Kalamazoo Railroad Company; president of Patterson Library of Westfield, N. Y., since 1909; treasurer of St. Andrew’s Episcopal Church, Ann Arbor, 1903–1926, with exception of the year 1910–11, vestryman since 1893, junior warden 1915–1924, and senior warden since 1924; author: Industrial Photometry (translated from the French of A. Palaz) (1893) and Revolving Vectors (1911); co-author of Electrical Measurements (1895); had contributed to Physical Review and Annalen der Physik und Chemie (Vol. 69, 1889); M A Yale 1891, Ph.D. summa cum laude 1899 (graduate student 1898–99); graduate study at Berlin and Charlottenberg 1910–11, making a specialty of wireless telegraphy; fellow of Association for the Advancement of Science; member American Institute of Electrical Engineers, American Physical Society, American Electro-Chemical Society, Illuminating Engineering Society, Sigma Xi (as member of the faculty at University of Michigan elected 1903), and Sons of the American Revolution.

Death, due to heart disease, occurred at the University Hospital Cremation took place and his ashes were scattered over the Atlantic by his son, Robert R. Patterson, on his return to Bucharest, Rumania, May 31, as near as possible to the spot where his elder son went down on February 19, 1925, a victim of melancholia Survived by wife, daughter, son, eight grandchildren, and two sisters, Mrs. Frank W. Crandall (B A Vassar 1884), of Westfield, N. Y., and Mrs. William H. Faust (B A Vassar 1888), of Ann Arbor.
Albert Foote Welles, B.A. 1884.

Born March 11, 1862, in Durham, Conn.
Died February 28, 1930, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Joel Welles. Mother, Emma Jane (Foote) Welles; daughter of Lucius and Lois (Hubbard) Foote, of Durham.

Joseph Gile's School, New Haven. Member Phi Gamma Delta and Vernon Hall.

Engaged in various business enterprises in New Haven 1884-86; on staff of New Haven Palladium 1886-87 and later of New Haven Evening Register; LL.B. Yale School of Law 1892; assistant clerk of Probate Court, New Haven, 1884-1898 and clerk 1898-1902; chairman of Democratic Town Committee 1904 and secretary of Democratic State Central Committee at one time; title examiner for Title Guarantee & Trust Company of New York 1906-07; subsequently went west and was connected with newspapers in Sioux City, Iowa, and Los Angeles, Calif., engaged in advertising work in Chicago, and taught in New Mexico; editor of Rapid City (S. Dak.) Daily Journal 1911-15; city editor of Duluth (Minn.) Tribune 1915-1921; associated in the practice of law with George E. Beers, '89 L., in New Haven 1921-22; had since been librarian of New Haven County Bar Library.

Married (1) July 2, 1902, in New Haven, Phoebe A., daughter of Thomas and Sydney (Jones) Thomas. One daughter, Dorothy Thomas. Mr. and Mrs. Welles were later divorced. Married (2) January 18, 1913, in Rapid City, S. Dak., Erna Maguire (B.S. Iowa State College 1899), daughter of Thomas Henry and Ella May (Fordham) Maguire. Two daughters, Helen Maguire and Esther Foote.

Death, due to carcinoma of the bladder, occurred at St Raphael's Hospital. Buried in Durham Cemetery. Survived by wife and three daughters.

John Stone Pardee, B.A. 1885.

Born December 8, 1863, in New Haven, Conn.
Died April 10, 1930, in Duluth, Minn.

Father, Benjamin Sherman Pardee, a newspaper writer in Baltimore, Worcester, Mass., and New Haven (New Haven Palladium); son of Stephen Dickerman and Jane (Stevens) Pardee, of New Haven. Mother, Harriet Eliza (Gilbert) Pardee; daughter of Levi and Clymena Sophronia (Allen) Gilbert, of New Haven.
Obituary Record

New Haven High School. Second Berkeley Premium in Latin composition Freshman year; dissertation appointment Junior and Senior years; an editor of Yale Record; treasurer of Freshman Debating Club; president of Hare and Hounds Club; member Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Engaged in newspaper business for some years after graduation; editor of Lake Superior News, a weekly paper, in Duluth and its successor, Duluth Daily News, January, 1886—March, 1889, editor of Saratoga (N. Y.) Union 1889—1892 and of Duluth Commonwealth (which he founded) 1892—96; subsequently connected with papers in New York City and Newark, N. J.; special reporter for St. Paul (Minn.) Pioneer Press for a short time; editor of Red Wing (Minn.) Argus (a Sunday paper) and the Goodhue County News (a weekly) 1900—05; special reporter for St. Paul Daily News 1905—06; editor of St. Joseph (Mo.) Star 1906—07, editor of Duluth Daily Star 1907—09; engaged in publicity work for Commercial Club of Duluth, as its assistant secretary, and also for the Producers' Cooperative Market Association 1909—1919; secretary of Board of Public Welfare of Duluth 1912 and of Minnesota Economy and Efficiency Commission 1914—15; edited a private news service 1913, engaged in commercial writing in Duluth 1915—17; secretary of Safety Committee of Minnesota at St. Paul April—September, 1917; called to Washington by the Food Administration September 9, 1917, and served as editorial secretary in the Food Conservation, Public Speaking Division, October 9, 1917—December, 1918; then served with War Loan Organization, Savings Division, of the Treasury Department until April 1, 1919; had lived in Duluth since 1919, engaged as a free lance writer for Duluth and Minnesota on civic, educational, agricultural, and reforestation problems; member Duluth City Planning Commission 1916 and of Duluth Charter Commission 1928—29; vice-president of Minnesota Tax Conference 1926—1930; secretary of Democratic County Committee of Goodhue County 1900—05; had also been secretary of the Civic Council and of the Goats Club, an officer of the Advertising Club and of the Saturday Lunch Club, and member of Duluth Committee of the League of Nations Association; had written a number of pamphlets in connection with the World Peace movement and contributed to the Outlook, American, and several trade papers; member Trinity (Episcopal) Church, New Haven.

Married June 23, 1906, at St Croix Falls, Wis., Laura Williard, daughter of William Pitt and Lucy Ann (Williard) Peckham, of Neenah, Wis. No children.

Death due to coronary thrombosis and myocardial insufficiency. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife and two sisters, Miss Allena Gilbert Pardee, of Saratoga Springs, N. Y., and Miss Harriet L. Pardee, of New Haven.

Everett Alanson Bates, B.A. 1886.

*Born September 14, 1860, in Danielson, Conn
Died January 24, 1930, in Springfield, Mass*

Father, Lorrin Bates, a manufacturer with the firm of Young & Bates (mill machinery); held borough offices; son of Alanson and Betsey (Keith) Bates, of Webster, Mass. Mother, Lucy (Carpenter) Bates; daughter of Eliot and Mariah Leavens (Arnold) Carpenter, of Putnam, Conn. Yale relatives include two nephews: Philip B. Hopkins, '26, and Timothy E. Hopkins, ex-'26 S.

Williston Academy. Second prize in declamation Sophomore year; first dispute appointment Senior year; a Class historian; member College Choir, '86 Glee Club, Senior Promenade Committee, Gamma Nu, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

M.D. Harvard 1890; house physician at Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston, 1889-1891 and at Lying-in Hospital March-July, 1891; then traveled with a patient until March, 1892; had since practiced medicine in Springfield; visiting physician on medical staff of Springfield Hospital 1895-1926, a trustee of the hospital from 1910, and chairman of its Training School for Nurses 1910-1920; an incorporator of Wesson Maternity Hospital in 1906, continuing as such and also as a trustee from its opening in 1909 until his death;
Obituary Record

Connecticut Valley examiner at Massachusetts State Sanatorium for Consumptives at Rutland 1903–1910; associate medical examiner for Springfield District of Hampden County 1898–1904 and examiner 1904–1911; during the war served as medical member of local draft exemption board No. 1; in 1917 appointed chairman of subcommittee on hygiene, medicine, and sanitation of Springfield Committee of Public Safety; had been president of Hampden District Medical Society and of Springfield Academy of Medicine; secretary of Springfield Medical Club 1892–97 and president 1905–07; member Massachusetts Medical Society, American Medical Association, Massachusetts Medico-Legal Society, Sons of the American Revolution, and Bates Family Association.

Married July 25, 1900, in Springfield, Ellen Ruth, daughter of Daniel Lewis and Roxana (Lewis) Bowen. Children: Elizabeth, Smith ex-23, the wife of Lieut. Paul D. Dingwell, U.S.N., a graduate of the United States Naval Academy in 1918 (Class of 1919); Ruth, Smith ex-26, the wife of Ronald A. Mitchell (B.S. Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1925); and Louise.

Death due to coronary thrombosis. Cremation took place and ashes buried in Springfield Cemetery. Survived by wife, three daughters, two grandchildren, and two sisters, Clara L. Bates Hopkins, the wife of Earle C. Hopkins, ex-’94 S, and Mrs. Donald F. Campbell, of Evanston, Ill.

David Denison Lambert, B.A. 1886.

Born August 7, 1862, in New Haven, Conn.
Died May 10, 1930, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Denison David Lambert, a real estate agent; son of Benjamin Lott and Eunice (Hemingway) Lambert, of Orange, Conn. Mother, Jane Adams (Hinman) Lambert; daughter of Benjamin and Harriet (Minor) Hinman, of Southbury, Conn. Brother: Benjamin L. Lambert, ex-’79 M.

New Haven High School. Dissertation appointments Junior and Senior years.

Took work in mathematics and chemistry in Yale Graduate School 1886–88 (M.A. 1888); taught mathematics at summer session of Woodbridge School, New York, 1888 and was an instructor in mathematics and physics there the next year; principal of West Ansonia (Conn.) Public School 1889–
1891 and of the Benton School in Westville, Conn., 1891–
94; supervising principal of the Horace Day District in New Haven 1894–1911 and since then principal of the Truman Street School; vice-president of the Hill Community Association (community work for children) from its founding in 1924 until 1926 and honorary vice-president since then; a founder of the New Haven Chess Club, which merged with the Young Men's Institute in 1898, and director since 1918; deacon in Church of the Redeemer (Congregational), New Haven, 1926–29.
Married December 27, 1888, in New Haven, Katharine
Austen, daughter of Joseph Ambrose and Ellen (Atkins)
Latham. Children: Cecile, Wheaton ex ‘12, the wife of Harry
S. Irons, ’11; Rheta (B.A. Vassar 1913), the widow of John G. Miller, who attended the College of the City of New York two years; Denison David, ’17; and Latham Benjamin, ’25.
Death due to rheumatic heart disease. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, two daughters, two sons, and seven grandchildren.

Horace Sedgwick Hart, B.A. 1887.

Born August 31, 1865, in New Haven, Conn.
Died May 13, 1930, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Franklin Henry Hart; in wholesale provision busi-ess as member of firms of Hart & Strong and Strong, Barnes & Hart; member New Haven Board of Selectmen and Board of Police Commissioners; son of William Augustus and Sally Maria (Jones) Hart, of Durham, Conn. Mother, Adaline
(Jackson) Hart; daughter of John Jackson, a soldier in the War of 1812, and Mary Ann (Nettleton) Jackson, of Durham.
Preparation for college received under private tutors.
Studied biology in Sheffield Scientific School 1887–88
(Ph.B. 1888); M.D. College of Physicians and Surgeons
(Columbia) 1893; interne at Bellevue Hospital, New York
Obituary Record

City, 1894–95; practiced medicine in Cambridge, N. Y., from 1895 until his hearing began to fail and he gave up active practice in 1918; lived in New Haven 1920–23 and since then at Short Beach, Conn.; had contributed to Transactions of Connecticut Academy of Arts and Sciences and to National Sportsman; member Church of the Redeemer (Congregational), New Haven.

Death due to thrombosis of the coronary artery of the heart. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, daughter, son, and one grandchild.

Frederick Trevor Hill, B.A. 1887.

Born May 5, 1866, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died March 17, 1930, in Yonkers, N. Y.

Father, Edward Hill, a merchant; born in Lincoln, England, and came to America about 1850; founder of Edward Hill's Son & Company (chemicals). Mother, Mary (Johnson) Hill; also born in Lincoln.

Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon, Wolf's Head, and Elizabethan Club.

LL B Columbia 1889; also studied law in office of Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll 1888–89; during period of study wrote football columns for New York Evening Post 1888–89; admitted to the bar in June, 1889, and was a clerk in Colonel Ingersoll's office for a time; had since practiced law in New York City, specializing in the handling of large estates; in partnership with Frederick C. Train, ex-'80, under firm name of Train & Hill 1890–92; member of firm of Wood & Hill 1892–1900, former director of Mathison & Company; Private in 1st Training Regiment at Plattsburgh 1915 and Sergeant in 3d Training Regiment there 1916; commissioned as Captain. in Quartermaster Reserve Corps February 1, 1917; elected Captain of Home Defense Infantry Company at Irvington, N. Y., April, 1917; answered call from Plattsburgh for volunteers to help prepare Officers' Training Camp and served there as purchasing agent for a short time in May, 1917; went overseas as member of General Pershing's staff May 28, 1917; served as executive officer to the Chief Quartermaster, Colonel McCarthy, June-August, 1917, and to Major General H. C. Rogers, Quartermaster General, A.E.F., September, 1917-January, 1919; saw brief service in British front line trenches and on several occasions at their General Headquarters June-August, 1917; appointed executive officer to Colonel H. E. Wilkins and drafted the "Convention of October 23, 1917," a treaty between the A.E.F. and the French Government covering the coal supply of the A.E.F.; appointed deputy to Colonel Wilkins, designated by General Pershing to represent the A.E.F. in administering the Convention and later representative in its administration, to succeed Colonel Wilkins; promoted to Major December 22, 1917, and Lieutenant Colonel October 19, 1918; given his discharge February 4, 1919; made a chevalier of the Legion of Honor April 10, 1919, at Tours, the presentation in absentia being made by General Pétain; received citation from General Pershing for "exceptional, meritorious, and conspicuous service" in July, 1919; appointed by the War Department on the Initial List of the General Staff, with rank of Lieutenant Colonel, December 16, 1920; his services commented upon and commended by General Charles G. Dawes in his Journal of the Great War (1921) and in his report to the Commander in Chief; received Village of Irvington Medal July, 1919, New York State Medal September, 1919, and Overseas Medal, with citation, October, 1919; author: The Case and Exceptions (stories of counsel and clients; some translated into German and published in German periodicals) (1900), The Care of Estates (1901), Lincoln, the Lawyer (1906), Decisive Battles of the Law (1907), The Story of a Street, a narrative history of Wall Street from 1644 to 1908 (1908), Lincoln's Legacy of Inspiration (1909), On the Trail of Washington (1910), On the Trail of Grant and Lee (1911), Washington in Action (1914), Tales Out of Court (short stories) (1920), and Lincoln, Emanci-
Obituary Record

...ator of the Nation (1928); the following novels, The Minority (1902), The Web (1903), The Accomplice (1905), and The Thirteenth Juror (1913), and High School Farces (plays) (1920); one of the editors (with S. P. Griffin) of Miniatures from Balzac's Masterpieces (1892); contributor to Century, Harper's Monthly Magazine, Everybody's Magazine, Frank Leslie's Monthly, Collier's, Smart Set, Appleton's Magazine, North American Review, Putnam's Monthly, American Magazine, Outlook, Atlantic Monthly, New York Times, and Yale Law Journal; honorary M.A. Yale 1907; member board of managers of New York Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor 1906–1913 and secretary 1910–13; member Criminal Courts Committee of the Charity Organization from its inception in 1910 until his death; had been greatly interested in the Boy Scout movement and formed a Boy Scout troop in 1914; became member of Manhattan Council, Boy Scouts of America, in 1916, was appointed chairman of its camp committee in 1921, and served as field director 1925–26; member executive board of Boy Scout Foundation for about four years; connected with Big Brother movement 1911–1921; member New York Bar Association (on several of its committees), New York County Lawyers' Association (an incorporator in 1908), New York Historical Society, Century Association, Garden Corporation of the New York Botanical Gardens, American Legion, and council of Authors' Club; counsel for St. Faith's House, New York; vestryman of St. Barnabas's Episcopal Church, Irvington, for a number of years.

Married October 22, 1895, in Brooklyn, Mabel Wood (B.L. Smith 1891), daughter of Cornelius Delano and Helen (Ogden) Wood, a sister of Cornelius D. Wood, ’06 S., and an aunt of Howard O. Wood, Jr., ’16. One son, Edward Trevor, ’23. Mr. and Mrs. Hill were divorced in 1924.

Death, due to coronary thrombosis and acute mastoiditis, occurred during an operation in St. John's Hospital. Buried in Sleepy Hollow Cemetery, Tarrytown, N. Y.; given a military funeral, with an entire battalion of the 16th Infantry in attendance at the services. Survived by son and two grandchildren.
Robert Irving Jenks, B.A. 1887.

Born January 17, 1865, in Cincinnati, Ohio
Died March 30, 1930, in New York City.

Father, Edward Augustus Jenks (honorary M.A. Dartmouth 1899); partner in printing firm of MacFarland & Jenks of Concord, N. H.; publisher, manager, and treasurer of Concord Monitor and Independent Statesman; son of Oliver and Lavina (Jackson) Jenks, of Newport, N. H. Mother, Harriet S. (Stickney) Jenks; daughter of George Stickney and —— (Stackpole) Stickney, of Waterville, Maine.

Newport (N. H.) High School. Third premium in English composition Sophomore year; high oration appointment Junior year; oration appointment Senior year; business manager of Glee Club and of Tale Courant; an editor of Pot Pourri; member Eta Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Scroll and Key, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Had been engaged in the coal business since graduation; salesman for Boyd, Stickney & Company in Chicago 1887–1892, but had since been located in New York, with Stickney, Conyngham & Company at first, becoming member of the firm about 1898; manager of New England department of Berwind-White Coal Mining Company since January 1, 1904; president of Staples Coal Company since 1913 and director since 1894; vice-president (also a director) of Havana Coal Company since 1928, Kentland Coal & Coke Company 1910–1922, and Havana Marine Railways, Inc., since 1919; director of International Coal Company since 1910 (secretary-treasurer in 1916), Archer Coal Depot Company and Porto Rico Coal Company since 1928, Porto Rico Lighterage Company since 1920, Wilmore Steamship Company, Inc., of New York since 1928, National Surety Company of New York since 1912, Interborough Metropolitan Company, and San Juan Hotels Corporation since 1928; treasurer of Bretton Woods (N. H.) Company; member of house committee of University Club of New York in 1907, and member Sons of the American Revolution and St. Bartholomew’s Episcopal Church, New York.

Married March 29, 1894, in Chicago, Mabel, daughter of
Obituary Record

John Sumner Runnells (B.A. Amherst 1865) and Helen Rutherford (Baker) Runnells. No children.

Death, due to an abscess in the jaw, occurred in the Harbor Hospital. Buried in St. Thomas' Cemetery, Whitemarsh, Pa. Survived by wife and a sister, Mrs. Hartstein W. Page (died April 3, 1930)

Edward Staehlin, B.A. 1887.

Born June 25, 1865, in Newark, N J
Died December 10, 1929, in Newark, N J

Father, Christian Staehlin; born in Baden, Germany, and came to America in 1847; a shoe manufacturer in Newark. Mother, Magdalena (Vogel) Staehlin; born in Baden.

Newark High School First colloquy appointment Junior and Senior years; Class Ivy orator.

M.D. Columbia 1890; interne at German Hospital, New York City, December, 1890–August, 1891, and then assistant at Vanderbilt Clinic until February, 1892; on resident staff of Chambers Street Hospital 1892–93; attended clinics at various hospitals in Berlin and at the Leopold Clinic (under Drs. Crospek and Lorenz) in Vienna 1893–94; interne at Sloane Maternity Hospital June–August, 1894; had since practiced in Newark, giving especial attention to surgery during the last few years; president of medical staff of Newark Memorial Hospital 1898–1923; attending physician at Newark City Hospital 1905–1923 and then consulting surgeon until his death, contributed to Annals of Surgery, American Journal of Surgery, and Journal of the Medical Society of New Jersey; fellow of American College of Surgeons; member American Medical Association, New York State Medical Society, Essex County (N. J.) Medical Association (president in 1917), Society of Surgeons of the State of New Jersey (president in 1914 and 1916), Pathological and Anatomical Society of Essex County, and Academy of Medicine of Northern New Jersey.

Unmarried.

Death due to coronary thrombosis. Cremation took place at Rosehill Crematory, Linden, N J., and ashes buried in Fairmount Cemetery, Newark. Survived by two nieces and two nephews.

Jesse Hatch Behrends, B.A. 1888.

Born May 8, 1867, in Yonkers, N Y
Died April 16, 1930, in Brooklyn, N Y.

Father, the Rev. Adolphus Julius Frederick Behrends (B.A. Denison 1862, D.D. Richmond 1873 and Yale 1890); born in Nijmegen, Holland, and came to America with his parents in 1845; served during the Civil War with 1st Brigade of Ohio State Militia at Harrison's Landing, graduated at Rochester Theological Seminary 1865; pastor of Warburton Avenue Baptist Church, Yonkers, First Baptist Church, Cleveland, Ohio, Union Congregational Church, Providence, R. I., and Central Congregational Church, Brooklyn, Lyman Beecher lecturer on preaching at Yale and lecturer on Ely Foundation at Hartford Theological Seminary, in the Bond course at Bangor Theological Seminary, on the Graves Foundation at Syracuse, and at Andover Theological Seminary, Union College, and Crozer Theological Seminary; trustee of New York Baptist Union for Ministerial Education, author of Socialism and Christianity, Philosophy of Preaching, and The World for Christ; chaplain of 13th Regiment, New York National Guard; son of the Rev. Augustus C. Behrends, a Lutheran minister, of Nijmegen. Mother, Harriet E (Hatch) Behrends; daughter of Jesse W. and Harriet E. (Allen) Hatch, of Rochester, N. Y.

Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute High oration appointment Junior year; philosophical oration appointment Senior year; member Phi Beta Kappa.

Employed as clerk in the office of a lumber firm in North Tonawanda, N. Y., for a few months after graduation, then studied law in Buffalo and admitted to New York Bar in April, 1891; practiced law in Buffalo for ten years, being member of firm of Lawless & Behrends 1895-1901; since February, 1902, had been connected with Lawyers Title & Trust Company and its successors, Lawyers Title, Insurance & Trust Company and Lawyers Title & Guaranty Company, as assistant solicitor and counsel; also served as manager of the closing department in 1904; enlisted in 65th New York Infantry in May, 1890, and was promoted to Corporal November, 1890, to Sergeant March, 1891, to Second Lieutenant May, 1892, to First Lieutenant February, 1896, and to Captain April, 1898; enlisted as Captain of Company C, 65th Regiment, New York Volunteers, May 1, 1898, was mustered in at Camp Black, Long Island, May 17, and served at Camp Alger, Va., until his resignation and discharge August 24, 1898, member First Presbyterian Church, Buffalo.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, son, daughter, two sisters, Mrs. Allan Cook and Mrs. H. George Olney, both of Brooklyn, and a brother, Frederick Rouse Behrends, of Los Angeles, Calif.

Brownlee Robertson Ward, B.A. 1888.

Born July 19, 1868, in New Haven, Conn.
Died August 26, 1929, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, George Augustus Ward (M.D. 1861) a physician in New Haven and later in charge of hospital service attached to some railroads in Peru; son of Dr. Charles Samuel Ward and Lucinda Jane (Taggart) Ward, of New Haven. Mother, Elizabeth Dixon (Robertson) Ward, daughter of John Brownlee Robertson (B.A. 1829, M.D. Charleston Medical College 1832, honorary M.A. Trinity 1852) and Mabel Maria (Heaton) Robertson, of New Haven. Yale relatives include: Charles S. Ward, '63 M., and A. Heaton Robertson, '72 (uncles); and Heaton Manice, ex-'85, Edward A. Manice, '91, Arthur R. Manice, '97, Heaton R. Robertson, '04, and DeForest Manice, ex-'11 S. (cousins).
Hopkins Grammar School. Member Senior Promenade Committee and Psi Upsilon.

Studied in Yale Graduate School 1888–89 (Ph.B. 1889); studied medicine at Columbia 1889–1892 (M.D. 1892); commissioned Assistant Surgeon in U. S. Navy January 14, 1893, with rank of Ensign; promoted to Passed Assistant Surgeon, with rank of Lieutenant, January 14, 1896; attached to North Atlantic Squadron 1894–95; on the "San Francisco," the flagship of the European Squadron, 1896–97; served during Spanish American War as Chief Surgeon on the ram "Katahdin" at Provincetown, Mass., and at Fortress Monroe, Va.; ordered to the gunboat "Bennington" of the Pacific Squadron at San Francisco in September, 1898, and served at Honolulu, where he volunteered and was accepted for service in the U. S. Military Hospital for a time, and at Guam and Manila, P. I.; in charge of hospital at Mare Island, San Francisco, in 1900, and was later on the training ship "Lancaster"; resigned his commission June 28, 1902; subsequently practiced medicine in New Haven for a time and during that period studied French history in Yale Graduate School 1902–04 (Ph.D. 1904); since 1908 had spent most of his time abroad, living in Russia for some years, engaged in work relating to Russian history and literature; in France 1915–18, doing independent relief work, and since then in Italy, chiefly in Rome; had retained a residence in New Haven, however, and returned there about three weeks before his death. Member Society of Colonial Wars.

Unmarried.

Death, due to a heart attack, followed an operation in St. Raphael’s Hospital. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by no immediate relatives.

William Drew Washburn, B.A. 1888.

Born April 3, 1863, in St. Paul, Minn.
Died October 10, 1929, in Minneapolis, Minn.

Father, William Drew Washburn (B.A. Bowdoin 1854, LL.D. 1901); president of Minneapolis & St. Louis, Minneapolis & Duluth, Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie, and Bismark, Washburn & Great Falls railroads, Washburn & Crosby Flour Mills, and Washburn Lignite Coal Company; U. S surveyor-general of Minnesota 1861-65; senator in Minnesota Legislature; and member of Congress three terms (one term in the Senate); son of Israel and Martha (Benjamin) Washburn, of Livermore, Maine. Mother, Elizabeth Little (Muzzy) Washburn; daughter of Franklin and Elizabeth (Little) Muzzy, of Bangor, Maine. Yale relatives include cousins: John Crosby, '90, and his sons, John Crosby, Jr., ex-'20, Albert H. Crosby, '22, and Henry S. Crosby, '26, and Franklin M. Crosby, '97, and his sons, Franklin M. Crosby, Jr., '24, and Sumner M. Crosby, '32.

Phillips-Andover. Entered Yale with Class of 1887; joined Class of 1888 Junior year; second colloquy appointment Senior year; an editor of Yale Courant; member Delta Kappa Epsilon and Wolf's Head.

Engaged in lumber and flour business in Minneapolis 1888-1892; connected with Minneapolis Tribune three years as reporter, associate editor, and editor; became engaged in the business of dealing in farm lands about 1894 or 1895 and served as president from the time of formation until his death of Northland Lakesites Company, Farm Lands Investment Company, Minnesota Timber Lands Company (subsequently Hardwood Farm Lands Company), and Cuyuna Northern Land & Iron Company; since about 1901 had also been actively interested in the iron, timber, and investment business in Minneapolis; had been president of W D. Washburn Farm Lands Company, and Minnesota Fruit Land Company, vice-president and director of Washburn Lignite Coal Company, member of Washburn Steel Castings & Copper Company (chairman of executive committee), president of Minnesota Child Labor Commission, and director of Northwestern and National Reciprocity leagues; member of Minnesota Legislature during four regular sessions (1901-1905, 1911, and 1917) and two extra sessions (1902 and 1909) and in June, 1929, stood for election to the State Senate but failed of nomination, author of Some Rejected Verse (1902) and of several pamphlets; member Universalist Church.

Married September 25, 1890, in Portland, Ore., Florence, daughter of Thomas and Mary (Miller) Savier. Children:
Beatrice, a non-graduate of the University of Minnesota, who married Charles P. Jones, who attended the University of Tennessee as a member of the Class of 1904, William Drew, Jr., ex-'20; Thomas Savier (B.S. Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1926); and John Franklin.

Death due to cancer. Buried in Lakewood Cemetery, Minneapolis. Survived by wife, daughter, three sons, one grandchild, two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Washburn Wright and Mrs. Mary Washburn Baldwin, of Lakewood, N. J., and three brothers, Cadwallader Washburn, of Paris, France, Stanley Washburn, of Lakewood, N. J., and Edwin C Washburn, ex-'94 S.

Lester Bradner, B.A. 1889.

Born March 9, 1867, in Chicago, Ill
Died September 21, 1929, in Providence, R I

Father, Lester Bradner, '57; general freight agent of Illinois Central Railroad at Chicago; later in lumber business with Bradner, Charnley & Company; son of Lester and Fanny (Hammond) Bradner, of Dansville, N Y. Mother, Lucy Atwater (Charnley) Bradner; daughter of William Slater and Elizabeth Badger (Atwater) Charnley, of New Haven, Conn. Yale relatives include: Charles M. Charnley, '65 (uncle), and his son, Charles M. Charnley, Jr, '97; James Charnley, '65 (uncle), and his son, Douglas Charnley, '96, and Walter H Charnley, '71 (uncle).

Hopkins Grammar School. First Berkeley Premium in Latin composition Freshman year; third prize in composition and Hurlbut scholar Sophomore year; philosophical oration appointments Junior and Senior years; member University Track Team four years (several first places in the half-mile event), Alpha Delta Phi, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Studied in Yale Graduate School 1889–1891 (Ph D. 1891); student at University of Berlin 1891–93; attended General Theological Seminary 1893–94 (B D. 1894); ordained deacon and priest of Protestant Episcopal Church 1894; curate of Church of the Ascension, New York City, 1894–1901; rector of St. John's Church, Providence, 1902–1912; subsequently traveled in Palestine, Italy, and Germany for eight months, secretary of General Board of Religious Education of the Episcopal Church and director of Department of Parochial Education under that board 1913-19; secretary of Department of Religious Education under the National Council, into which the General Board was merged, 1919-1923; consultant in religious education on his own account at Summit, N. J., 1924-25; field secretary for Department of Christian Education, Diocese of Rhode Island, since 1925; director of Community Training School of Rhode Island State Council of Religious Education during 1928-29; taught Hebrew at Brown University 1928-29; chairman of Teacher Training and Correspondence School Department of General Board of Religious Education and of National Council 1913-1923; departmental editor for religious education of Anglican Theological Review from May, 1918 (first issue), until time of his death; author: Organizing the Smaller Sunday School (1917); contributed numerous brochures and articles on educational subjects to various periodicals; gave part time in office of Church War Commission during first year of the war; D.D. University of the South 1922; former member American Oriental Society, member Religious Education Association and Society of Biblical Literature and Exegesis; canon of St. John's Pro-Cathedral, Providence, 1929.
Obituary Record

Married October 15, 1895, in Flushing, N. Y., Edith Mitchell, daughter of William King and Annie Cornelia (Mitchell) Murray. Children: Leicester (B.A. 1920, Ph.D. 1926), William Murray (B.A. 1922, B.D. Episcopal Theological School 1925); John (B.A. 1925); and Edith, a non-graduate member of the Wellesley Class of 1929. Mrs. Bradner died February 14, 1919

Death due to cardio-renal disease. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Dansville, N. Y. Survived by three sons, daughter, and two grandchildren.

Claude Lamot Forbes, B.A. 1889.

Born November 30, 1867, in Clockville, N. Y.
Died December 23, 1929, in Syracuse, N. Y.

Father, Gerrit Angelo Forbes, a lawyer; justice of the Supreme Court of New York; son of Isaac J. and Abigail (Sayles) Forbes, of Clockville. Mother, Ellen (Brooks) Forbes, daughter of Colon and Matilda (Hills) Brooks, of Clockville.

Canastota (N. Y.) Union Free School and Academy. Second colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years; member Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Studied law with firm of Vann, Forbes & Ayling in Syracuse and admitted to the bar in 1891; had practiced law in Syracuse since 1892, being member of firm of Wilson & Forbes 1892–95; secretary and treasurer of Monitor Time Clock Company 1910–1920; member 41st Separate Company, New York National Guard, 1891–95; attended the Episcopal Church.

Married (1) June 21, 1895, in Cortland, N. Y., Mabelle Halstead Murphy. One child (born and died the same day). Mrs. Forbes died May 10, 1898. Married (2) January 3, 1914, in New York City, Martha Lydia, daughter of Frederick Thomas and Frederica Mortimer (Whittlesey) Sibson No children by second marriage.

Death, due to lobar pneumonia and chronic endocarditis, occurred at St. Joseph’s Hospital. Buried in Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Canastota, N. Y. Survived by wife and a sister, Mrs. Daniel F. Kellogg, of New York City.

Howland Hoadley, B.A. 1889.

Born July 2, 1866, in New Rochelle, N Y
Died October 22, 1929, in Los Angeles, Calif.

Cutler School, New York City. An editor of Yale Courant Sophomore year; member Eta Phi and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Became a clerk in office of Hoadley & Company in November, 1889, and the following May was sent by the firm to Valparaiso, Chile, where he was employed as a clerk with Graham, Rowe & Company for a time; because of the Civil War in progress in that country was unable to leave for some time and became captain of a company of Anglo-Saxons formed to guard the lives and properties of foreigners; returned to New York in September, 1892, and the following December went to Australia, where he was engaged in the import business in Sydney, New South Wales, for a year; private secretary to United States consul general at Melbourne 1894–98, then returned to Sydney for about a year and in July, 1900, to New York City, where he was a clerk in his father’s office until September, 1901, when he went to Yokohama and subsequently spent two years in travel in Japan, in 1903 went to Tacoma, Wash, and was engaged in the land and timber business with A. Reith until 1908; taught Latin and Greek at the Hill Military Academy in Portland, Ore., 1908–1912, had since been engaged as a private tutor and in literary work and journalism; had been a reporter and writer of special articles for News Advertiser, Guardian, and World of Vancouver, B. C., associate editor of Westward Ho, a monthly of Vancouver, editor of Peoples Press in Portland, founder and editor of Antipodian of Sydney, the first monthly magazine in Australia, editor and manager of Football and Cricket of Sydney, reporter for Telegraph of New South Wales, and had contributed articles to Everybody’s Magazine, Popular, and Black Cat; author: An International Episode, Vendetta, History of Vancouver, and Episodes from My Own Life; during the war served with the Nathan Hale Volunteers, an official, but volunteer, branch of the Government Secret Service, and later as a departmental clerk in the office of the Chief Signal Officer at Washington (Department of Military Aeronautics, which afterwards became the Air Service); was afterwards given the drafting of all contracts for the purchase of planes and supplies for the Air Service, but resigned his position June 30, 1922, on account of ill health; had since lived in Los Angeles, spending the winters of 1927 and 1929 in Tucson, Ariz.; member St. Thomas’ Episcopal Church, New York City.

Married (1) in 1893, in Sydney, Adele Sutor. They were later divorced. Married (2) October 10, 1908, in Victoria, Elyzabeth Maud, daughter of William and Margaret Smith, of Ontario, Canada. Mrs. Hoadley died on June 4, 1930. No children by either marriage.
Death due to pulmonary emphysema after a long illness. Cremation took place in Los Angeles and ashes buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by a sister, Mrs. Richard P. Durkee, of New York City, and a brother, Charles Hoadley, of Englewood, N. J.

Harry Jenkins Bardwell, B.A. 1890.

Born December 13, 1863, in Tunkhannock, Pa
Died January 30, 1930, in Chicago, Ill

Father, Daniel Jones Bardwell, a farmer; son of Daniel Abbot and Susannah (Jones) Bardwell, of Tunkhannock. Mother, Frances (Jenkins) Bardwell; daughter of Elijah and Nancy (Fitch) Jenkins, of Tunkhannock.

Phillips-Exeter. Berkeley Premium in Latin composition Freshman year; dissertation appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; member of Athletic Team; financial manager of Yale Daily News; a Class historian; member Sigma Nu.

Death due to organic heart disease. Buried in Sunnyside Cemetery, Tunkhannock. Survived by two sisters, Mrs. John R. Fahs, of Solvay, N. Y., and Mrs. Oliver W. Struble, of...
Newton, N. J., and three brothers, D. Burton Bardwell, of Lisle, N. Y., Dr. Walter S. Bardwell, of Newport, Wash., and Robert W. Bardwell, of Dakota City, Nebr. (died March 11, 1930). A fifth brother, Frank J. Bardwell, ’91 M., died in 1918. In 1927 made a gift of securities, subject to an annuity, to be used as the Judson Memorial Scholarship in the School of Medicine, in 1928 established by gift the Harry J. Bardwell Loan Fund in the School of Medicine, and by the terms of his will the sum of two hundred dollars was bequeathed to the Alumni Fund.

Edward Brooks, Jr., B.A. 1890.

Born May 10, 1868, in Millersville, Pa.
Died July 4, 1929, in Paris, France

Father, Edward Brooks (M.A. Union 1858, honorary Ph.D. Lafayette and Washington and Jefferson 1876); studied at the University of Northern Pennsylvania for a year (1852) and also taught music and botany; later taught at Monticello Academy, and was professor of mathematics and principal of Pennsylvania State Normal School at Millersville, president of National School of Oratory in Philadelphia, and superintendent of Philadelphia public schools; author of mathematical works, lecturer, editor of The Normal Monthly, and president of Pennsylvania State Teachers Association; inaugurated observance of Flag Day in 1893. Mother, Hannah Marie (Dean) Brooks.

Millersville Normal School and North Broad Street Select School, Philadelphia; studied at Haverford College 1884–85 as member of Class of 1888 (second prize for declamation; member Freshman and University Baseball teams and Glee Club) At Yale received dissertation appointments Junior and Senior years, manager Yale Orchestra; member Junior Promenade Committee, University Glee and Banjo Clubs, Gamma Nu, Hé Boulé, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key

LL B. University of Pennsylvania Law School 1893 (member Order of the Coif); admitted to Philadelphia County Bar June, 1893, and to practice in Superior Court November 4, 1895, and in Supreme Court of Pennsylvania May 6, 1896, practiced law in Philadelphia from 1893 until his retirement in 1922; assistant to law firm of Porter & Geiger 1893–98; partner (with Frederick J. Geiger) in firm of Geiger & Brooks 1898–1905, Geiger, Brooks & Faries 1905–09, and Geiger & Brooks 1909–1918; in independent practice 1918–1922; had since lived in Paris most of the time and had been president of the Yale Alumni Association in France since 1927; during World War served as an associate member of Draft Board No. 19 and of the local War Chest Board at Bala, Pa., as associate chairman of public schools of War Savings Stamps Committee and in charge of parochial schools of Philadelphia, and as member of Philadelphia Red Cross campaign committee; author: An Essay on the Law Relating to Telegraph Companies; became an active singing member of Orpheus Club of Philadelphia 1897 and served as its librarian 1898–99, as secretary 1899–1901, as member of executive committee 1904–06, 1911–12, and 1915–17, as vice-president 1918–1920, and as president 1920–21; had also been vice-president of the Mask and Wig Club.

Married October 14, 1911, at Atlantic City, N. J., Mariá Carstairs deKosenko, daughter of James and Mary White (Haddock) Carstairs of Philadelphia. No children.

Death due to a stroke of apoplexy. Buried in Laurel Hill Cemetery, Philadelphia. Survived by wife and three step-daughters, the Misses Lucile and Mariá deKosenko, of Paris, and Mrs. Charles Spring-Rice, of London.

Robert Dillon Crane, B.A. 1890.

Born January 9, 1869, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died May 31, 1930, in Wantagh, N. Y.

Father, Harold Leslie Crane; member of firm of Shannon, Miller & Crane, importers of military, ecclesiastical, and theatrical goods in silver and gold; son of Leslie and Nancy (McAlpine) Crane, of Brooklyn. Mother, Elsie Elizabeth (Dillon) Crane; daughter of Robert and Charlotte Matilda (Lyon) Dillon, of Bellmore and Wantagh.

Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. Secretary of Berkeley
Obituary Record

Association; an editor of the Class Book and a Class statistician; member Alpha Delta Phi.

Engaged in dry goods business early in 1891; partner in firm of Camp & Crane, manufacturers of rubber goods, in New York City 1891–95; partner in firm of Moeshein & Crane, manufacturers of ornamental iron work, for a short time in 1895; entered firm of Shannon, Miller & Crane in 1895 and in 1904 bought out the company and established firm of R. D. Crane & Company to carry on the same business; in 1917 became deputy collector of internal revenue in Brooklyn; made an inspector on that service in 1919, and in 1921 appointed internal revenue agent at New York Customs House and held the position until death; Private of 23d Regiment, New York National Guard, 1891-96 and secretary of the regiment's Mutual Benefit Association; president of Beverly Club of Flatbush, N. Y., two years; member of Knickerbocker Field Club of Flatbush 1906–1921 (appointed advertising manager of the News 1908); member Wells Memorial Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, and secretary of its Bible school 1912–14.

Married (1) April 11, 1893, in New York City, Annie Edna, daughter of William T. Walton. The marriage was later annulled. Married (2) February 14, 1913, in Brooklyn, Nellie Irving Youlin, daughter of William Henry and Emma Lucy (Gay) Irving. Children: Harold Leslie and Nancy McAlpine.

Death due to arterial hemorrhages. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, son, and daughter.

Clark Terry Durant, B.A. 1890.

Born October 2, 1868, in Albany, N. Y.
Died May 31, 1930, in Hartford, Conn

Father, Edward Payson Durant; senior partner in firm of Durant & Company, commission merchants; elder of State Street Presbyterian Church, Albany; son of George Washington and Mary Lucinda (Harrington) Durant, of Rensselaerville, N. Y. Mother, Jeannie (Terry) Durant; daughter of Milo and Abigail (Parsons) Terry, of Bristol, Conn. Yale relatives include two cousins: Rev. William Durant, '68, and Edward W. Durant, '87 S.
Albany Academy. Second dispute appointment Junior and Senior years; member Freshman Crew; secretary of University Club.

Member of firm of Durant & Company 1890–1900; moved to Great Barrington, Mass., 1901 and spent the next year in reading and travel; with Title Guaranty Trust Company, Brooklyn, 1902–03; treasurer and general manager of Leland Manufacturing Company of Great Barrington 1904–08, studied at Harvard Law School 1908–1911 (LL B. 1911), with Perkins, Wells & Scott, lawyers (of which Arthur Perkins, '87, and Ralph O. Wells, '01, were partners), in Hartford, 1911–12, lived in Great Barrington 1912–16, during the first year of that period without active occupation on account of ill health, and then engaged in the practice of law, being in partnership with John Stone 1913–14 and being admitted to the Massachusetts State Bar January 25, 1916; moved to Hartford in 1916 and following his admission to the Connecticut State Bar on October 4, 1916, became a partner in the firm of Perkins, Wells & Scott; in 1918 appointed attorney for Connecticut Trust & Safe Deposit Company, which merged with Hartford Trust Company in 1919, becoming Hartford-Connecticut Trust Company, of which he was attorney until 1925, when he became trust officer; had been vice-president of the company since January, 1930; during 1917–18 served as assistant federal food administrator of Connecticut in charge of enforcement; secretary of Wyantenuck Country Club of Great Barrington many years, trustee of Great Barrington Congregational Church three years; member Drama Society of Hartford, Wadsworth Athenæum, Hartford, Sons of the Revolution in the State of New York for some years, and Asylum Hill Congregational Church, Hartford.

Married October 31, 1895, in Great Barrington, Maria Louise, daughter of George and Maria Louise (Bostwick) Church Children: George Church, ex- '19 S.; Louise, the wife of Durant Rice (B A. Harvard 1912), Edward Clark; and Richard Church, '28

Death due to coronary thrombosis, myocarditis, and angina pectoris Buried in Albany Rural Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughter, three sons, and three grandchildren.
May Humphreys, B.A. 1890.

Born December 18, 1869, in New York City.
Died June 9, 1930, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, George Hoppin Humphreys (University of Pennsylvania ex-’54; M.D. Jefferson Medical College 1856); practiced medicine in New York City, surgeon in 9th New York Regiment, United States Volunteers (with rank of Major), 1861-63, during which period served as medical director of 3d Division, 9th Army Corps; son of May and Mary Anne (Hoppin) Humphreys, of Philadelphia. Mother, Emilie Julie (Barnes) Humphreys, daughter of Major General James Barnes, United States Military Academy 1829; Colonel, 18th Massachusetts Volunteers 1861; Brigadier General, United States Volunteers, Brevet Major General 1865; and Charlotte Adams (Sanford) Barnes, of Springfield, Mass. Yale relatives: William H. L. Barnes, ex-’55 (uncle); and J. Sanford Barnes, ’91 (cousin).

Everson School, New York City. First dispute appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year; member Hé Boule, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Engaged in the banking business in New York City 1890-91; in the office of Savannah Steamship Company 1891-96; studied law at Columbia 1896-99; from April 4 to May 21, 1910, was connected with the United States Census Bureau as special agent to assist the supervisor of the 1st District of New York; since 1913 had been connected with Yale University Library, at first as an assistant and from 1919 as head of the purchase department, with rank of assistant professor; member of Elizabethan Club since 1914.

Unmarried

Death, due to arteriosclerotic heart disease, occurred at the New Haven Hospital. Funeral services held in Battell Chapel on June 12. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by three brothers, Dr. George H. Humphreys, ’98 S., Dr. Frederick B. Humphreys, ’99 S., of Columbia University, and John S. Humphreys, of Harvard University. By the terms of his will a bequest of $5000 was left to Yale University, the income of which is to be used solely for the purchase of books for the University Library. At Commencement, 1930, the Class of 1890, by a first gift of $5000, established the May Humphreys Fund, the income of which is to be devoted annually to books for the Library.

George Arthur Hurd, B.A. 1890.

Born August 20, 1869, in Brooklyn, N.Y.
Died November 15, 1929, in New York City

Father, Melancthon Montgomery Hurd, a book publisher;
Senior partner in the Houghton Mifflin Company of New York and Boston; son of Philo and Melinda (Tomlinson)
Hurd, of Intervale, N.H. Mother, Clarissa Armstrong (Hatch)
Hurd; daughter of Daniel and Anna (Nichols) Hatch, of Bridgeport, Conn. Yale relatives include: A. Donald Fisk,
'15, Richard M. Hurd, Jr., '28, and Clement G. Hurd, '30
(nephews); and Harold A. Hatch, '98 (cousin).

St. Paul's School, Concord, N.H. First dispute appointment Junior year and winner of a second prize at Junior Exhibition; second dispute appointment Senior year, an editor of Tale Literary Magazine; won tennis championships in both singles and doubles; member Senior Promenade Committee,
'90 Literary Society, Eta Phi, Psi Upsilon, and Chi Delta Theta.

LL B. Harvard 1893; practiced law in Seattle, Wash, in association with firm of Carr & Preston 1893–95; resident agent in Seattle of United States Mortgage & Trust Company 1895–1903; manager of the company's mortgage department in New York City 1903–04; assistant secretary of the company 1904–05; helped to organize The Mortgage-Bond Company of New York 1905 and served as vice-president until 1910, as president 1910–July, 1929, and then as chairman of the board until his death; director of Lawyers Mortgage Company 1909–1929; member Church of the Incarnation (Episcopal), New York.

Married March 8, 1898, in Mobile, Ala., Emily Lea, doughter of Charles Wood and Mary Goodwin (Thomas) Gazzam. Children: Arthur Melancthon, '21; Katharine, the wife of John B. Cumings, Harvard ex-19; Charles Gazzam, ex-25; and Clarissa, the wife of Everett W Cady, Harvard ex-25.
Obituary Record

Death due to thrombo angitis obliterans, a circulatory disease from which he had suffered for twenty-seven years. Buried in Mountain Grove Cemetery, Bridgeport Survived by wife, two sons, two daughters, five grandchildren, a brother, Richard M. Hurd, '88, and a sister, Miss Alice G. Hurd, of Intervale, N. H.

Wallace Delafield Simmons, B.A. 1890.

Born November 24, 1867, in St. Louis, Mo.
Died December 7, 1929, in St. Louis, Mo

Father, Edward Campbell Simmons; founder, president, and chairman of board of directors of Simmons Hardware Company of St. Louis, pioneer mercantile corporation in the United States, son of Zechariah T. and Louisa Charlotte (Helfenstein) Simmons, of St. Louis. Mother, Garafelia (Welch) Simmons; daughter of George S. and Lucy (Tufts) Welch, of Roxbury, Mass, and St. Louis. Yale relatives include Richard W. Simmons, '27 (nephew); and Charles P. Helfenstein (B.A. 1841) and his sons, John P. Helfenstein, '80, and William L. Helfenstein, '96, Leslie H. Thompson, '99 S, N David Thompson, ex-'03 S., and Henry F. Gee, Jr., ex- '22 (cousins).

Smith Academy, St. Louis. Dissertation appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; on Freshman Baseball Team, Freshman Glee Club, and University Glee Club (soloist and leader); member Delta Kappa Epsilon and Skull and Bones.

Became connected with Simmons Hardware Company in fall of 1890, clerk in various departments and traveling salesman until 1892, assistant treasurer 1892–98, also sales manager for several years; president from January 1, 1898, until his retirement from active business January 1, 1923 (headquarters in Philadelphia 1912–16), the interests of the Simmons Hardware Company and the Winchester Company of New Haven being merged on July 1, 1922, into the Winchester-Simmons Company of Delaware, of which he was then made a director and continued as such until his death (had been a director of Simmons Hardware Company since 1892), trustee of Associated Simmons Hardware Companies 1911–1929; director of Commonwealth Trust Company of St. Louis 1907–1912, St. Louis Union Trust Company 1924–29, National Bank of Commerce of St. Louis 1910–14, Third National Bank 1917–19 (when it consolidated with several others and became the First National Bank, of which he was a director until 1929), and Philadelphia National Bank 1915–1929; vice-president of Chamber of Commerce of the United States during its first year (1913–14), acting as chairman of its banking and currency committee; on March 19, 1917, appointed by Mr. R. G. Rhett, president of the National Chamber, chairman of its War Finance Committee; as a result of that service, appointed by William G. McAdoo, Secretary of the Treasury, a member of Excess War Profits Advisory Board on October 23, 1917, and served as such at Washington until its work was finished on April 3, 1918, and the Board of Review was appointed; made an advisory member of the latter board and served as supervisor of field plans until the board was dissolved in September, 1919; during 1917–18 also served (under appointment by the Secretary of War) as member of Commercial Economy Board of the Council of National Defense (which later became the Conservation Division of the War Industries Board); designated a member of the Colombian Group Committee of the Inter-American High Commission at its organization in 1915, at the time of First Pan-American Financial Conference in Washington, and on March 13, 1919, appointed chairman of the committee and served as such until his resignation about 1928; member of Committee of Fifteen on Educational Preparation for Foreign Service of the Bureau of Education, Department of the Interior, 1918–19; member of National Foreign Trade Council 1919–1921; served as member of citizens' force of the sheriff of St. Louis during railway employees' strike in 1900, president of Yale Alumni Association of St Louis and secretary of Associated Western Yale Clubs 1904, member Church of the Redeemer (Episcopal), St. Louis.

Married October 31, 1900, in St Louis, Jessamine Barstow, Randolph-Macon ex-'01, daughter of Charles Warren and Ella Rebecca (Gale) Barstow, and sister of Edward H Barstow, '07. Children: Eleanor (Mrs. Carl J. Koehler); and Edward Campbell, 2d, ex-'29.
Obituary Record

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Bellefontaine Cemetery, St. Louis. Survived by wife, daughter, son, one grandson, and two brothers, Edward H. Simmons, '92 S., and George W. Simmons, '00 (died May 21, 1930).

Frederick Strong Kimball, B.A. 1891.

Born July 29, 1869, in Hartford, Conn.
Died March 21, 1930, in Beacon, N. Y.

Father, Carlos Clinton Kimball; New England manager of Insurance Company of North America; member of firm of C. C. Kimball & Company, general insurance agents; president of Smyth Manufacturing Company; son of Daniel and Roxana (McCray) Kimball, of Ellington, Conn. Mother, Caroline Ellen (Converse) Kimball; daughter of Eliab Alden and Sarah (Young) Converse, of Staffordville, Conn.

Hartford Public High School. Member Zeta Psi.

Married October 21, 1914, in Hartford, Carmen Reata, daughter of Joseph Handy and Gertrude Classman (Lewis) King. One daughter, Reata King.

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by wife, daughter, and a brother, George C. Kimball, '88 S.

William Josiah Leverett, B.A. 1891.

Born January 11, 1870, in Binghamton, N. Y.
Died December 28, 1929, in Knoxville, Tenn.

Father, Josiah Salisbury Leverett, a hardware commission merchant in New York City; also owned a factory in Nap-Williston Academy, Binghamton High School, and Lawrenceville School. Dissertation appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year.

Spent the summer of 1891 in work for the Rescue Mission of St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church in New York; studied at Princeton Theological Seminary 1891–92 and graduated from Auburn Theological Seminary 1894; engaged in missionary work under the Presbyterian Board in South Dakota during summer of 1892; ordained to Presbyterian ministry at Binghamton September 19, 1894, and went to China as a missionary under the Presbyterian Board; connected with the Hainan Mission until his resignation on account of ill health December 31, 1925; stationed at Kiungchow at first and from 1896 at Nodoa, where, in addition to his preaching, he served as principal of the Boys' School, teaching science, mathematics, English, and religion, for several years; spent six months (April–September) in 1924 at Clifton Springs (N. Y.) Sanitarium, endeavoring to recover from a tropical disease, and in May, 1925, sustained serious injuries in a motor accident at Centerville, Ohio, which were followed by an attack of pneumonia; at Clifton Springs Sanitarium again February–May, 1926, and then spent a year with his sister in Buffalo, N. Y.; recovered his health sufficiently to take charge of a church at White Rock, N. C., under the Presbyterian Board of National Missions in 1927; since 1928 had had charge of a parish in the mountains of Tennessee, preaching at Huntsville, where he resided, and at Helenwood; member of the Presbytery of Cumberland Mountain, Synod of Tennessee.

Unmarried.

Loren Pinckney Waldo Marvin, B.A. 1892.

Born October 19, 1876, in Hartford, Conn
Died June 1, 1930, in West Hartford, Conn

Father, Edwin Eliphalet Marvin, a lawyer; clerk of United States District and Circuit courts, Hartford; master in chancery; United States commissioner and extradition commissioner, Captain of Company F, 5th Regiment, Connecticut Volunteers, 1861–64, son of Ira Kilbourn and Julia (Young) Marvin, of Tolland, Conn. Mother, Cynthia Pauline (Waldo) Marvin, daughter of Loren Pinckney Waldo, lawyer, judge, and member of Congress, and Frances Elizabeth (Eldredge) Waldo, of Tolland. Yale relatives include three cousins: William W Hyde, '76, and his son, Alvan W. Hyde, '02, and Frank E. Hyde, '79.

Hartford Public High School. Member Alpha Delta Phi and Elishu Club.

LL B Yale 1894; an editor of Yale Law Journal and member of Corbey Court; admitted to Connecticut Bar 1894 and practiced law in Hartford until 1907, when he became judge of probate, served as such until 1921, when appointed a judge of the Superior Court and served on the bench until death, member of committee of judges (appointed by Superior Court) on allotment of the state judges 1928–1930; president of Connecticut Probate Assembly 1911–1921; justice of the peace 1894–96, 1898–1902, and 1906–1910; vice-president of Connecticut Peace Society; director of Phoenix Insurance Company of Hartford and of Hartford Public Library since 1916 and of West Hartford Trust Company since 1927; member Hartford Board of Street Commissioners in 1906 and of High School Committee of Hartford 1900–06; charter member of board of trustees of School for Imbeciles at Lakeville, Conn., when it became a state institution in 1913, and when it combined with the Colony for Epileptics under name of Mansfield State Training School and Hospital (Mansfield Depot, Conn.) in 1917 was made president of the board of trustees; president of Connecticut Society for Mental Hygiene 1916, director of Hartford Y.M.C.A. 1912–1920 and again 1928–29, president of the Association 1913, 1914, and 1915, and member of board of trustees from 1921 until death; trustee of Hartford Theological Seminary 1912–1921; secretary and treasurer of Open Hearth Association 1900–02, secretary 1902–06, and president 1906–1919; president of Hartford City Club 1914–15; first president of Hartford Choral Club in 1909; chairman of Democratic Town Committee 1904–06, vestryman of Trinity Episcopal Church 1899–1921 and warden since 1921; president of St. Andrew’s Brotherhood in the Hartford District; delegate to Diocesan conventions 1906–1927 and deputy to General Convention 1922–25; one of two lay members of Committee on Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Diocese of Connecticut since 1909; candidate for Connecticut Legislature on Democratic ticket in 1898, but failed of election; member of New Haven Grays for two years while in college; Private in Company F, 2d Regiment, Infantry, Connecticut National Guard 1892–94, later paymaster on the staff of the Major and Fourth Lieutenant, 1st Company, Governor’s Foot Guard (resigned in May, 1919); during the war served as member of Legal Advisory Board, Division No. 1, Hartford, as member of state executive committee of Y.M.C.A., and as chairman of all instruction boards for Hartford in War Work campaign; vice-president of Yale Alumni Association of Hartford 1914–15, president the next year, and member of its executive committee 1920; member American and Connecticut State Bar associations (on executive committee of latter), Hartford Board of Trade, Sons of the American Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of Veterans, Connecticut Society of Mayflower Descendants (elected deputy governor-general in 1915), Hartford Saengerbund, and Hartford committee with regard to transfer of the Berkeley Divinity School to New Haven.
Tale College

Married June 4, 1895, in Chicago, Ill., Florence Belle, daughter of Christopher and Charlotte (Kendall) Watrous. Children: Florence Watrous, the wife of James W. Hatch, Trinity ’17; and Edwin Waldo, ’22

Death due to a growth in the esophagus. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by wife, daughter, son, and four grandchildren.

Henry Colwell Beadleston, B.A. 1893.

Born May 31, 1871, in New York City.
Died September 25, 1929, in Edinburgh, Scotland.

Father, William Henry Beadleston (B.A. New York University 1862); president of Beadleston & Woerz, brewers; member of New York Stock Exchange, director of several banks and trust companies; son of Ebenezer and Mary (Nash) Beadleston, of Troy, N.Y., and New York City. Mother, Susan Ann (Colwell) Beadleston; daughter of Chauncey Perry and Jane (Van Auken) Colwell, of New York City, and Mobile, Ala.

St. Paul’s School, Concord, N.H. First colloquy appointment Junior year, second colloquy appointment Senior year; member Freshman Football Team, Senior Promenade Committee, Renaissance Club, Hé Boulé, Psi Upsilon, and Wolf’s Head (secretary).

LL.B. cum laude New York Law School 1895; admitted to New York Bar in June, 1895; had since been engaged in independent practice of law in New York City; president of Beadleston Realty Corporation since 1916; former secretary, counsel and director of Controller Company, Inc., manufacturers of calculating machines; trustee of many estates; associate member of Legal Advisory Board for the City of New York 1917–18; former member New York Bar
John Darling Clarke, B.A. 1893.

Born June 29, 1865, in Canterbury, Conn.

Father, Thomas Gates Clarke, a farmer; attended Brown University and graduated at Hartford Theological Seminary (then called Theological Institute of Connecticut) 1840; state representative and state senator; chairman of Canterbury Board of Selectmen; son of Thomas and Edith (Darling) Clarke, of Canterbury. Mother, Cressa (Judson) Clarke; daughter of Zwinglius and Cressa (Storrs) Judson, of Pomfret, Conn. Nephew: Harold S. Hetrick, '01.

Dean Academy, Franklin, Mass., and Phillips-Andover.

Studied law in office of Albert E. Addis in Northampton, Mass., 1893–96; admitted to Hampshire County Bar in January, 1897, and practiced law in Northampton 1897–98 and since then in Springfield; member Northampton Common Council 1894–96, and served as president in 1896; member First Church of Christ (Congregational), Springfield.

Married March 7, 1900, in Palmer, Mass., Clara Viola, daughter of George Merdanic and Sarah Elizabeth (Andrews) Brown. Children: Cressa Elizabeth, the wife of Ralph F. Beaudry, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute ex-'26; Ruth
Obituary Record

Darling (Mrs. Frederick H. Faulstich); Alta Enola; John Darling, Jr., and Thelma Viola.

Death due to primary broncho-pneumonia. Buried in Hillcrest Park Cemetery, Springfield. Survived by wife, son, four daughters, and a brother, Andrew T. J. Clarke, of Brooklyn, Conn.

Jesse Breland Johnson, B.A. 1893.

Born November 25, 1866, in Clayton, Ala.
Died December 17, 1929, in Waco, Texas

Father, Jacob Elijah Johnson, a farmer and merchant; son of Timothy and Bettie (Johnson) Johnson, of Clayton, Ala. Mother, Louvenia (Miller) Johnson; daughter of George and Tempy (Hilliard) Miller, who lived near Clayton, Ala.

Baylor Academy, Waco; B.A. Baylor University 1891; taught Latin and mathematics, and served as superintendent of schools in Greenwood, Texas, 1891–92; entered Yale as a Senior 1892 and received honors in mathematics; studied in Yale Graduate School on the Foote Fellowship 1893–95 (Ph D. 1895); instructor in Latin, French, and German, Henry College 1895–96; studied mathematics at University of Chicago 1896–97; taught mathematics 1897–99 and served as president June–October 1899, at Burleson College; had been professor of mathematics at Baylor University since 1899; secretary of the faculty 1911–1924, and also of the Faculty Club 1924–28; had also been engaged in farming in Waco; deacon in the First Baptist Church 1902–1929; member American Mathematical Association.

Married December 20, 1895, in Whitewright, Texas, Jessie Clara Brown (B.A. Baylor 1890), daughter of John Herring and Elizabeth (Davenport) Brown. Children: Ruth (B.A. Baylor 1919) (died 1925); Frederick Edgerton (died in childhood); Florence Elizabeth (B.A. Baylor 1925); Margaret (B.A. Baylor 1922), the wife of Paul C. Porter (B.A. Baylor 1915, M.A. Brown 1916); Jessie Brown, the wife of Irl L. Allison (B.A. Baylor 1915, Mus B 1916, M.A. 1922); Halbert Herring (B.A. Baylor 1926, M.A. Agricultural and Mechanical College [Texas] 1928); Hubert Newton (died in infancy); Catherine (B.A. Baylor 1924) (Mrs. Hugh Henson); Jesse Breland, Baylor '33; and Louise. Mrs. Johnson died November 1, 1929.

Death due to coronary thrombosis. Buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Waco. Survived by five daughters, two sons, four grandchildren, two sisters, Mrs. Doc Brown, of Mt. Pleasant, Texas, and Mrs. Patrick Coon, of Kerrville, Texas, and five brothers, Jacob E. Johnson, of El Paso, J. Whitfield Johnson of Cookville, and David Johnson of McLean, Texas, and Foreign Johnson, of Ardmore, Okla., and Elmore Johnson, of Jackson, Tenn.

Edward Thomson Mathison, B.A. 1893.

Born June 21, 1870, in Old Town, Maine.
Died April 10, 1930, in Clinton, Conn.

Father, the Rev. Robert Lauder Mathison (B.A. Wesleyan 1860), a Methodist Episcopal minister with New York East Conference at Barkhamsted, Cornwall, Trumbull, and Nichols Farms, Conn., and Vista, N. Y., with East Maine Conference at Damariscotta and Old Town, and with Central New York Conference at Burdett, N. Y., and Bridgeport, Conn.; later ordained as a priest in Protestant Episcopal Church and rector at Cleveland, Oriskany, and Antwerp, N. Y., and at Poquetannock, North Guilford, North Branford, and Northford, Conn.; afterwards a Methodist minister again under New England South and New York conferences and engaged in business in Springfield; son of Robert Mathison (B.A. Wesleyan 1840, M.D. New York University 1848) and Rebecca Jane (Desborough) Mathison, of Middletown, Conn., and Brooklyn, N. Y. Mother, Catharine Susan (Roberts) Mathison; daughter of John Eno and Deborah (Blakeslee) Roberts, of Granby, Conn. Yale relatives: Frederic H. Mathison, '96 (brother); and Frederic W. Eliot, Jr., '12 (nephew).

Upson Seminary, New Preston, Conn., and Guilford (Conn.) Institute. Attended Wesleyan for a time as member of Class of 1892 and Washington and Jefferson during 1889–1890 as member of Class of 1893. Entered Yale as a Junior in 1891; first dispute appointment Senior year.
B.D. Berkeley Divinity School 1895; ordained as a deacon in the Protestant Episcopal Church that year and later as priest; rector St. Andrew's Church, Marbledale, Conn., 1895-96, Immanuel Church, Ansonia, Conn., 1896-1900, St. Michael's Church, Brattleboro, Vt., 1900-07, St. Timothy's Church, Massillon, Ohio, 1907-1910, and Grace Church, Oak Park, Ill., 1910-13; assistant rector 1913-14 and rector 1914-15 at Shattuck School, Faribault, Minn.; rector St. John's Church, Rockville, Conn., 1915-1923; had since lived in Clinton; priest in charge of St. Luke's Mission, Chester, Conn., 1923-29 and of All Saints' Mission, Ivoryton, Conn., and St. Paul's Mission, Westbrook, Conn., September, 1923-March 30, 1930; archdeacon of Hartford Archdeaconry of Diocese of Connecticut January 9, 1919-November 1, 1923; member Cathedral Chapter of Christ Church Cathedral, Hartford, 1919-1923 and of executive council of Diocese of Connecticut 1921-23; alternate delegate to the General Convention 1909; member of Diocesan Board of Missions of Ohio 1908-09 and of Chicago 1909-1912; president of Rockville Chamber of Commerce and of municipal playground of Rockville; during the war served as chairman of Rockville War Bureau, Vernon (Conn.) Council of Defense, and second Red Cross campaign for Tolland County, and as a Four-Minute speaker; chairman of Municipal Christmas Tree Association of Rockville 1916-17; member of firm of Clinton Land Company, Inc., since 1925 and treasurer 1929-1930; president of Beach Park (Conn.) Association for about six years and secretary and treasurer since about 1923.

Married February 16, 1898, in Ansonia, Elizabeth Hull, daughter of Frederic Erastus and Flora Ann (Smith) Colburn. Children: Flora Annette (B.S. Columbia 1921), an instructor in Yale School of Nursing 1924-26; Catharine Elizabeth, Columbia (Fine Arts course) ex-'23; Robert Edward, ex-'25 S.; and Frederic Huntington (died in 1927).

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Riverside Cemetery, Shelton, Conn. Survived by wife, one son, three daughters, and two sisters, Mrs. Walter F. Green, of San Francisco, Calif., and Mrs. Robert Stewart (B.A. Mount Holyoke 1903), of New York City.
John Dorrance Warnock, B.A. 1893.

Born February 11, 1868, in Geneva, N. Y.
Died August 9, 1929, in Wolfeboro, N. H.

Father, Hugh Warnock, a farmer; born in Ballyfrias, County Down, Ireland; after coming to this country settled first in Flushing, N. Y.; son of Hugh and Jane (McCormack) Warnock, of Ballyfrias. Mother, Susan Martha (Hurlbut) Warnock, of Arkport, N. Y.

Geneva High School. Attended Hobart College for a year (1888-89) as member of Class of 1892 before entering Yale in 1889. Second Berkeley Premium in Latin composition Freshman year; third Lucius F. Robinson Latin prize Sophomore year; philosophical oration appointments Junior and Senior years; chairman of Bible Study, Y M.C.A.; treasurer of Yale Union; member Alpha Delta Phi and Phi Beta Kappa (secretary).

Foote Fellow at Yale 1893-94 and Douglas Fellow 1894-96; Ph.D. 1899; assistant principal and instructor in Latin at Cheshire (Conn.) Episcopal Academy 1896-99, connected with the English Department of The Hill School, Pottstown, Pa., 1899-1905; had since been head of the Latin Department there; member of the executive committee since 1914, chairman of the curriculum committee since 1919, and president of the Masters' Club since 1927; director of Pottstown Associated Charities 1914-17 and chairman of finance committee 1914-19; author of four pamphlets: First Latin (Caesar), Caesar Nepos (examination papers), Second Latin (Cicero and Virgil) (1917), and New First Latin; member of session of First Presbyterian Church, Pottstown, since 1909; had conducted a boys' camp at Wolfeboro since 1909.

Married (1) September 1, 1897, in Rochester, N. Y., Gertrude, daughter of Cassius Carrol and Mary Dawson (Kelly) Peck. Children: Constance, Vassar ex-'22, the wife of David A. Tirrell (B.A. Harvard 1918); Dorrance Hurlbut, Amherst ex-'23; and Charles Alden, Amherst ex-'25. Mrs. Warnock died June 21, 1922. Married (2) June 26, 1929, in New York City, Anna, daughter of Wilson and Evelyn (Singleton) Stead.

Death due to apoplexy. Buried in Mount Zion Cemetery, Pottstown. Survived by wife, daughter, and two sons.
Obituary Record

James Crosby Brown, B.A. 1894.

Born September 28, 1872, in New York City.

St. Paul’s School, Concord, N. H. Oration appointment Junior and Senior years; two-year honors in political science and law; member Delta Kappa Epsilon and Wolf’s Head.

Had been engaged in the banking business with Brown Brothers & Company ever since graduation; connected with their New York office in various clerical positions until 1898, when transferred to the Philadelphia office; admitted to partnership in the firm in 1904 and had since been senior resident partner in Philadelphia; member of Philadelphia
Stock Exchange; president and director of Locust Mountain Coal Company since 1913 and of Pine Hill Coal Company and Pine Hill Collieries Company since 1925; vice-president of American Pulley Company 1919–1921 (also director) and Monroe Coal Mining Company 1917–1926 (also director); secretary since 1914 and treasurer since 1921 of Pennsylvania Glass Sand Corporation (formerly Pennsylvania Glass Sand Company) (also director); treasurer of Pennsylvania Pulverizing Company since 1921 (also director); director of Lehigh Valley Transit Company, Whitehall Cement Manufacturing Company, Edward G. Budd Manufacturing Company (steel automobile bodies), Beaver Coal Company, Virginia Coal & Iron Company, Stonega Coke & Coal Company, Rockhill Coal & Iron Company, East Broad Top Railroad & Coal Company, Temple Coal Company, Philadelphia Orchestra Association, and Musical Fund Society; manager since 1906 and treasurer since 1912 of Pennsylvania Institution for the Instruction of the Blind; treasurer of Philadelphia branch of Navy Y.M.C.A. 1908–1921; trustee of Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia; trustee of Polyclinic Hospital and College of Physicians until its merger with University of Pennsylvania in 1917, when he became a member of the board of managers of the Hospital of the Graduate School of Medicine of the University; during the war served as director of finance and accounts (with rank of Major) of American Red Cross Commission to France in Paris September, 1917–March, 1918; also as member of general distributing committee of Liberty Loan organization of Philadelphia in charge of trust companies, savings funds, and newspapers for first Liberty Loan, as chairman of retail stores committee for fourth Liberty Loan, and as vice-chairman of investment bankers’ committee for fifth Liberty Loan; in August, 1917, at the request of the acting chairman of Y.M.C.A. Committee in Paris, spent a week at Headquarters of 1st Division at Gondrecourt to study the method of the various secretaries' accounts and prepare forms for a simple accounting system; member Troop A (later Squadron A), New York National Guard, October, 1894–January, 1898; and Society of Mayflower Descendants and Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church.

Death due to valvular heart disease. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, daughter, two sons, two stepdaughters, Miss Hope VanGelder Jenkins, and Gladys Jenkins Stevens, the wife of William D. Stevens, ’23, three stepsons, Allston Jenkins, ’25, William P. Jenkins, ’29, and John J. Jenkins, ex-’33, two brothers, the Rev. William Adams Brown, ’86, and Thatcher M. Brown, ’97, and three sisters, Amy B. deForest, the wife of Henry Lockwood deForest, ’97, Eliza B. Moore, the wife of Rev. Prof. Edward C Moore (A.B. Marietta 1877, M.A. 1880; Ph.D. Brown 1909, D.D. Yale 1909), and Miss Mary M. Brown, of New York City.

Albert Henry Buck, B.A. 1894.

Born March 9, 1873, in Wilmington, Del.
Died June 8, 1930, in Baltimore, Md

Father, Charles Elton Buck, Ph.D., an analytical chemist with Walton & Wahn Chemical Company of Wilmington; president of Wilmington Board of Education and trustee of Delaware College; editor and writer; vestryman of St. Andrew’s Episcopal Church; son of Francis Nixon and Jane E. (Coe) Buck, of Wilmington. Mother, Sophia (Stratton) Buck; daughter of Nathan Leake and Hannah (Buck) Stratton, of Wilmington. Cousins: Francis D. Buck, ’69 S., Albert H. Buck, ’64, his son, Harold W. Buck, ’94 S., and his grandson, Winthrop P. Buck, ex-’25 S., and Gurdon S. Buck, ex-’70.

Friends School, Wilmington. Member Alpha Delta Phi.

Became engaged in journalism after graduation and was member of editorial staff of Baltimore Evening News 1895-1900 and was correspondent for Washington Star; in 1900 became connected with United States Fidelity & Guaranty Company as supervisor of the company's business in Baltimore and was third assistant secretary of the company 1904-1915; had been secretary of Riggs, Rossman & Hunter, general agents of the company in Baltimore, since 1915; had been member of executive committees of Civil Service Reform Association of Maryland and of Associated Southern Yale Clubs; secretary and member of board of University Club of Baltimore since 1907 and financial secretary of Journalists' Club of Baltimore, member Maryland Society of the Sons of the Revolution and St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Baltimore.

Married June 13, 1908, in Glenwood, Md, Sally, daughter of Gustavus and Ella Gertrude (Hoffman) Warfleld. No children.

Death due to a brain tumor. Buried in Greenmount Cemetery, Baltimore. Survived by wife and a brother, Charles Elton Buck, of Birmingham, Detroit, Mich.

Anson McCook Beard, B.A. 1895.

Born March 17, 1874, in Richmond, Va
Died November 9, 1929, in Tuxedo Park, N Y

Father, Oliver Thomas Beard, a lawyer, teacher, and editor of Detroit Tribune, part owner of warehouse and dock business known as Erie basin, Brooklyn, N. Y.; author of Bristling with Thorns; Lieutenant Colonel of 48th New York Regiment during Civil War; son of William and Mary (Johnston) Beard, of Brooklyn. Mother, Elizabeth (Mossgrove) Beard; daughter of William and Elizabeth (Johnson) Mossgrove, of Steubenville, Ohio. Yale relatives include: J. Robinson Beard, ex-'94 L. (uncle) and his son, Jeremiah R. Beard, Jr., '22, and Louis W. Hill, Jr., '25, and J. Jerome Hill, 2d, ex-'27 (nephews).

Riverview Military Academy, Poughkeepsie, N Y. First colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years; on University Football Team two years; rowed on Freshman Crew and captain of Class Crew Junior year, member Junior Promenade Committee, Eta Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones.

LL B Columbia 1898; admitted to New York Bar and served as clerk in law office of Hobbs & Gifford in New York City until 1900 and of its successor, Gifford, Stearns & Hobbs, 1900-03, member of the latter firm, which then became Gifford, Hobbs, Haskell & Beard, 1903-06 and of its successor, Gifford, Hobbs & Beard, 1906-1923; had since practiced independently; member New York County Lawyers Association and St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Tuxedo Park.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Poughkeepsie Rural Cemetery. Survived by wife, son, daughter, a brother, William M. Beard, '96, and a sister, Mrs. Edward E. Perkins, of Genoa, Italy.

George Peabody Chandler, B.A. 1895.

Born November 5, 1872, in Zanesville, Ohio
Died October 27, 1929, in Philadelphia, Pa

Father, Charles Wesley Chandler, a lawyer; son of Z. Morris and Katherine (Goshen) Chandler. Mother, Julia Adelaide (Peabody) Chandler; daughter of David and Phoebe (Delamater) Peabody. Yale relatives include: George Peabody, a non-graduate member of Class of 1835 (uncle); Joseph W. Lewis, '11 S., Walter L. Ross, Jr., '16 S., and Donald P. Ross, '25 (nephews); and Othniel C. Marsh, '60 (cousin).

William Penn Charter School, Philadelphia. Second colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years; member Psi Upsilon.

Studied in Yale Graduate School 1898-1900; later studied law for a time, but had never been actively engaged in any occupation on account of poor health and very imperfect eyesight.

Unmarried.

Death resulted from accidental carbon monoxide gas poisoning. Buried in Laurel Hill Cemetery, Philadelphia. Survived by four sisters, Mrs. Walter L. Ross and Mrs. Francis D Lewis, both of Philadelphia, Elizabeth D. C. Winston, the wife of Frederick J. Winston, '86, of Pasadena, Calif., and Miss L. R. Chandler of Germantown, Pa.

Charles Lyon Hill, B.A. 1895.

Born October 5, 1873, at Greenfield Hill, Fairfield, Conn
Died November 14, 1929, in Boston, Mass

Father, Nathaniel Barlow Hill, a farmer; justice of the peace at Fairfield; son of Horace and Eleanor (Lyon) Hill, of Greenfield Hill. Mother, Mary Esther (Morehouse) Hill; daughter of William Burr and Mary Burr Hayes (Lyon) Morehouse, of Greenfield. Yale relatives include. Morris W. Lyon (B A. 1846) (great-uncle); and Albert B. Hill, '69 S. (cousin)
Fairfield Academy and Hasbrouck Institute, Jersey City, N. J. First dispute appointments Junior and Senior years
LL.B. Yale 1897; practiced law in Bridgeport, Conn, 1897-1903, for a number of years as a member of firm of Toomey & Lynch; justice of the peace for Fairfield County 1899-1906; attended Yale Divinity School 1903-06 (B D 1906); ordained to Congregational ministry at Fairfield May 8, 1906; minister of Congregational Home Missionary Circuit in South Minnesota 1906-09, acting as pastor at Cream 1906-09, St. Clair 1906-08, Alma City 1907-09, and Pemberton 1908-09; pastor First Congregational Church, Granada, Minn, 1909-1910, Hutchinson, Minn, 1910-14, North Hadley, Mass., 1915-December, 1922, and Goshen, Mass, since then; served as president of Bridgeport Christian Endeavor Union 1902-04, and was at one time a reporter for the Southport (Conn.) Chronicle
Married October 5, 1901, in Bridgeport, Grace Ethlena, daughter of Benjamin Franklin and Drusilla (Adams) Squier, of Bethel, Conn. Children: Bradford Morehouse (B A. Boston University 1925); Constance (Mrs. Lee Higgins), Nathaniel; and Faith
Death, due to a pulmonary embolus and angina pectoris following an operation for colostome, occurred in the Deaconess Hospital. Buried in North Hadley Cemetery Survived by wife, four children, one grandchild, and three brothers, Horace Hill, of Bridgeport, Burr Hill, of Fairfield, and Joseph Hill, of Easton, Conn. A fourth brother, William B. Hill, '86 S., died in 1898.

Russell Almeron Marks, B.A. 1895.

Born March 2, 1874, in Sioux City, Iowa.
Died June 20, 1930, in Sioux City, Iowa

Father, Constant Roberts Marks, ex-’67, a lawyer; partner in law firms of Marks & Hubbard (with Elbert H. Hubbard, ’72), Marks & Mould, and Marks & Marks; member of Iowa Legislature; president of Sioux City School Board and of Sioux City Academy of Sciences; former director or officer in banks and other corporations; Private in Company K, 8th Massachusetts Volunteers in 1861; author of History of Woodbury County, Iowa, History of Monona County (Iowa) Mormon Colony, and Life of Charles Floyd; son of Almeron Marks, a lawyer, and Mary (Phelps) Marks, of Durham, N. Y. Mother, Harriet Josephine (Kilbourn) Marks; daughter of Russell and Harriet (Seeley) Kilbourn, of Great Barrington, Mass. Yale relatives include: Hezekiah Kilborn (B.A. 1720) (great-great-great-grandfather); Pelatiah Kilborn (B.A. 1724) (great-great-great-great-uncle); and Lynde P. Wheeler, ’94 S., and Alexander Wheeler, ’97 (cousins).

Sioux City High School. First dispute appointment Junior and Senior years; member Beta Theta Pi.

Studied law in the office of Marks & Mould in Sioux City 1895-98 and also at Iowa State University Law School 1897; admitted to Iowa Bar in January, 1898, and had since practiced law in Sioux City; member of Marks & Mould March 1, 1898–October 1, 1906, and of Marks & Marks since then; director and commodore of Sioux City Boat Club, secretary of Sioux City Country Club, a founder of Sioux City High School Civics Club in 1890 and its alumni president, a founder of Sioux City High School Alumni Association, and district chief of the Beta Theta Pi Fraternity 1920; state chairman of North Central Division for Yale Endowment campaign in 1926; vestryman of St. Thomas' Episcopal Church about 1901–1914; member Sioux City Bar Association and Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity.

Married October 2, 1907, in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Marie
Pratt, daughter of Artemas Mead and Lida Ann (Payne) Shelley. Children: Kilbourne Payne, ’30; Marion, University of South Dakota ex-’31; Margery, Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., ex-’33; and Marcia (died in infancy).

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Logan Park Cemetery, Sioux City. Survived by wife, son, two daughters, parents, a brother, Constant R. Marks, Jr, of Montrose, Colo., and a sister, Mrs. David Holbrook Bartlett, Rockford College ex-’09, of St. Paul, Minn.

Charles Storey Thurston, B.A. 1895.

Born April 17, 1872, in Whitinsville, Mass
Died March 7, 1930, in New York City

Worcester (Mass.) Academy Third Freshman Scholarship and third DeForest Prize in mathematics and first Berkeley Premium Freshman year; philosophical oration appointment Junior year; two-year honors in political science and law Senior year; salutatorian of Class of 1895; vice-president of Phi Beta Kappa; member also of Psi Upsilon.

LL.B. Harvard 1898; practiced law in Boston until 1904, when obliged to give up practice on account of ill health; associated with law firm of Brandeis, Dunbar & Nutter 1898—
Obituary Record

99; lived in Liberty, N. Y., 1904–06 and had since resided at Saranac Lake, N. Y., where he had been engaged in practice of law since 1907, making a specialty of income tax problems and serving as adviser to several corporations; served on local draft board during the war.

Married June 1, 1904, in New York City, Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Charles Dewar and Cornelia Neilson (Harriman) Simons. No children. Mr. and Mrs. Thurston were divorced in 1911.

Death, probably due to tubercular meningitis, occurred at the Hospital for the Ruptured and Crippled after a short illness. Buried in Pine Grove Cemetery, Whitinsville. Survived by a sister, Miss Isabel S. Thurston (B.A. Mount Holyoke 1902), and a half sister, Mrs. Gilman D. Frost, of Hanover, N. H.

Ralph DeForest Tucker, B.A. 1895.

Born January 21, 1870, in Monson, Mass.
Died August 19, 1929, in Monson, Mass.

Father, Joel Moulton Tucker; member of firm of Capt. Joel Tucker & Son, owners of a foundry and blacksmith shop; son of Joel Moulton and Lomene (Keep) Tucker, of Monson.
Mother, Helen Mar (Deming) Tucker; daughter of Martin and Phoebe (Baker) Deming, of Lanesboro, Mass.

Monson Academy First colloquy appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment and one-year honors in history Senior year.

Headmaster of Taghonic Private Tutoring School for boys in Pittsfield and of its successor, the Wendell School, in Lanesboro 1897–1905; owner of the “Tucker Forge Farm” in Monson since 1897, and made his home there from 1905; member Monson Board of Trade and Congregational Church.

Married October 12, 1904, in Detroit, Mich, Louise Alice, daughter of George Henry and Alice (Dewey) Brodie. One son, Ralph DeForest, Jr.

Henry Richardson Bond, Jr., B.A. 1896.

Born November 23, 1873, in New London, Conn
Died January 14, 1930, in New York City

Father, Henry Richardson Bond (B.A. 1853), a whaling merchant; also engaged in banking in Norwich, Conn., and president of Bank of Commerce and of Marine Savings Bank of New London; trustee of Williams Memorial Institute of New London; colonel on staff of Governor Buckingham of Connecticut during Civil War; son of the Rev. Alvan Bond (B.A. Brown 1815, D.D. 1846), a graduate of Andover Theological Seminary, professor at Bangor Theological Seminary, and fellow of Brown, and Sarah (Richardson) Bond, of Norwich. Mother, Mary Pent (Ripley) Bond, daughter of James Lathrop and Ruth Lathrop (Huntington) Ripley, of Norwich and New York City. Yale relatives include the Rev. Joseph Coit (honorary M.A. 1702); William W. Bond, ex-'83 S (brother); Ebenezer Learned, Jr., '28 (nephew); and James H. Carll, Jr., '14 S (cousin).

Norwich Free Academy and Bulkeley School, New London. Member Class Cup and Picture committees, Renaissance Club, Phi Kappa Psi, and Psi Upsilon and New London Public Library 1912–1925; alderman of New London 1913–15; member First Presbyterian Church, New London.

Married June 30, 1915, in Norwich, Harriet Margaret Learned Howland, daughter of Bela Peck Learned, '57, and Mary Worthington (Bulkeley) Learned; granddaughter of Ebenezer Learned (B.A. 1831); great-granddaughter of Ebenezer Learned (B.A. 1798); great-great-granddaughter of Amasa Learned (B.A. 1772); granddaughter of Billings P. Learned (B.A. 1834) and William L. Learned (B.A. 1841); and sister of Ebenezer Learned, '99. No children.

Death, due to pneumonia, occurred at the Fifth Avenue Hospital. Buried in Yantic Cemetery, Norwich. Survived by wife and a stepdaughter, Mrs. Carl Foster, of New Bedford, Mass.

William Wallace Chace, B.A. 1896.

Born March 11, 1872, in Hudson, N.Y.
Died January 19, 1930, in Albany, N.Y.

Father, A. Frank Benjamin Chace, a lawyer; member of firm of A. Frank B. Chace & Sons; Private in Company K, 14th Regiment, New York Volunteer Infantry, during Civil War; enlisted April 23, 1861, wounded at Malvern Hill and taken prisoner and confined in Libby Prison, and exchanged and discharged October 11, 1862; son of John McGonegal and Eliza Ann (Becker) Chace, of Austerhitz, N.Y. Mother, Mary Zilpah (Bruce) Chace; daughter of Alfred and Mary Ann (McAlpine) Bruce, of Hudson, and sister of Wallace Bruce, '67, and W. Irving Bruce, '82. Yale relatives include two cousins: Kenneth Bruce, '00, and Donald Bruce, '06.

Williston Academy. Dissertation appointments Junior and Senior years.

Studied law and was a clerk in his father's office in Hudson 1896–1900; admitted to the bar of New York State January 12, 1900, and member of firm of A. Frank B. Chace & Sons, and its successor, Chace Brothers, of which his brothers, Alfred Bruce Chace, '92, and the late J. Frank Chace, ex-'94, were also members, from 1900 until his death; director of First National Bank of Hudson since 1921; trustee, secretary, and treasurer of Home for the Aged since 1920; member of Municipal Civil Service Commission 1928; corporation counsel for city of Hudson 1929; member New York Legislature 1915–17, serving on codes, banks, and commerce and navigation committees and also on Mills Committee of the Legislature in New York City 1916; delegate to a number of county and district Republican conventions during the period 1912–17; during the war served as member of Legal Advisory Board of the County Selective Service Board and as Columbia County chairman of Four-minute Men 1917–18, director of Hudson Y.M.C.A. between 1909 and 1912 and a former recording secretary, secretary and treasurer of University Club of Hudson; president of Hudson Masonic Club 1921–22; member of consistory of First Reformed Church of Hudson, serving as a deacon and clerk 1901–07 and as an elder 1912–16; with his brother, Alfred Bruce Chace, compiled Briefs (published in special limited editions 1909); member Hudson Chamber of Commerce and Sons of Veterans.

Married September 7, 1910, in Hudson, May Agnes, daughter of Eugene Day and Catherine (Friss) Smith

Children: Malcot Eugene and Althea Bruce

Death, due to heart disease, occurred in the Albany City Hospital. Buried in Cedar Park Cemetery, Hudson. Survived by wife, son, daughter, and his brother, Alfred Bruce Chace

Joseph Oudinot Moré, B.A. 1896.

*Born May 9, 1868, in Fontainebleau, France.
Died June 23, 1930, in Houston, Texas*

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.

Samuel Brinckerhoff Thorne, B.A. 1896.

*Born September 19, 1873, in New York City.
Died June 3, 1930, in New York City*

Father, Jonathan Thorne, Haverford ex-'63, a leather merchant; member of firm of Thorne, Watson & Company and later partner in Thorne, McFarland & Company and
Obituary Record

Berkeley School, New York City. Entered Yale with Class of 1895 but left in Freshman year to take a trip around the world with his cousin, Samuel Thorne; joined Class of 1896 the next fall, dissertation appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; on Freshman Football Team and University Football Team three years (captain Senior year), on Class Baseball Team and University Baseball Team (reserve catcher) Senior year; president of Intercollegiate Football Association; vice-president of Yale Gymnastic Association; member Junior Promenade Committee, Hé Boulé, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones Studied mining engineering at Lafayette 1896–97; connected with Pennsylvania Coal Company 1897–1901, at first on engineering staff at Dunmore, Pa., and then as assistant mine boss at the Muddy Brook Colliery for six or seven months in 1898, locomotive fireman, and superintendent of breakers until 1899; comptroller of the company 1899–1901; general manager of Temple Iron Company of Scranton, Pa., 1901–02; then became associated with his classmate, James B. Neale, in working the Buck Run Colliery near Minersville, Pa.; in 1903 they bought the Darkwater Colliery and in 1909 formed a wholesale coal agency under firm name of Thorne, Neale & Company, Inc., with offices in New York and Philadelphia; had since been president of that company; president of Darkwater Coal Company 1903–07, treasurer of Buck Run Coal Company since 1901; general manager of Temple Coal Company 1901–03, president and director 1914–1922, chairman of the board 1922–24, and director of its successor, Temple Anthracite Coal Company since 1924; director of Sonman Shaft Coal Company 1905–1926, Lehigh & Wilkes Barre Coal Company since 1922, Canmore Coal Company since 1911, West Virginia Coal & Coke Company since 1917, Lehigh Valley Railroad Company (on executive committee) since 1925, Chatham and Phoenix National Bank & Trust Company since 1914, and Continental Can Company, Inc., since 1923; trustee of East River Savings Bank since 1927, Title Guarantee & Trust Company since 1921, and Museum of Natural History, New York, since 1928 (secretary of the board and member of executive committee and of departmental committee on birds of the world since January, 1930); member of Chamber of Commerce of the State of New York since 1919, serving on committee on public service in the Metropolitan District May, 1927–May, 1930; president of Oakland Golf Club, Bayside, N. Y., 1919–1922; during the war served as one of a commission of three sent abroad in 1918 by the Federal Fuel Administration to report upon coal conditions in England, France, and Italy, member of Board of Control of Yale Athletic Association 1920–21 and also chairman of its football committee, chairman of Walter Camp Memorial Committee 1925; member St Bartholomew’s (Episcopal) Church, New York, and of Church Club of New York.

Married February 14, 1913, in Pasadena, Calif., Gertrude Leisenring Kemmerer, Bryn Mawr ex-'01, daughter of Mahlon Sistie and Annie (Leisenring) Kemmerer, of Mauch Chunk, Pa. One adopted daughter, Joan. Mrs Thorne died August 20, 1927.

Death occurred in Harbor Hospital, where a few weeks before he underwent an operation for a blood clot on his hip, which had been injured in a fall while fishing; subsequently had an infarct in the lung, from which he had apparently recovered; it is believed that a particle of the blood clot found its way into his circulatory system, causing instant death when it reached his brain. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by his adopted daughter and a brother, Dr. Victor C. Thorne, '94 S.
Obituary Record

Frank Edward Wade, B.A. 1896.

Born October 6, 1873, in Malta Bend, Mo.
Died March 3, 1930, near Oneida, N. Y

Father, William Henry Wade, a farmer; enrolled in the preparatory course of Antioch College 1856-57; enlisted in the Civil War as Captain of Company K, 31st Ohio Infantry, August 20, 1861, and mustered out as Lieutenant Colonel of the 40th Regiment October 26, 1865, having served with the Army of the Cumberland; member Missouri Assembly and Member of Congress 1884-1890; son of Isaac Smith and Eleanor (Lamb) Wade, of Springfield, Mo. Mother, Mary (Knott) Wade; daughter of William Hendrickson and Lydia Elizabeth (Price) Knott, of Clinton, Mo. Uncle: George T. Knott, '78

Drury College Preparatory School. Entered Yale as a Sophomore in 1893; second colloquy appointment Junior year; member of Track Team two years and of Football Squad; treasurer of Gymnastic Association; belonged to Alpha Delta Phi Attended St. Louis Law School 1896-97; LL B. Syracuse 1898, during this period coached DePauw Football Team in 1896 and Syracuse Football Team 1897 and 1898; enlisted in the Army July 11, 1898, and was stationed at Camp Black, Long Island, from July 15 to August 10, with 203d Regiment, New York Volunteers, as Sergeant in Company A and Acting Sergeant Major, except for about two weeks; stationed at Camp Meade, Pa, after September 10; admitted to New York State Bar 1899 and practiced law in Syracuse as member of firm of McKenzie & Wade until 1909; became engaged in piano manufacturing in 1903 and in 1909 gave up the law; president of Amphion Piano Player Company from its incorporation in 1903 until 1927 and of Premier Pneumatic Action Company 1909-1911; vice-president of the Ampico Company and of the American Piano Company 1921-27; retired from active business in 1927; chairman of the board of Precision Castings Company 1918-1922; director of Syracuse Trust Company since 1908 and of Bankers' Commercial Securities Company since 1921; in 1927 was unsuccessful candidate for Republican nomination for Congress. from the Syracuse District, chairman of Onandaga County (N. Y.) Defense Committee 1917–19; originator of War Chest system in 1917 and president of Syracuse War Chest Association 1917–19; vice-president of National Investigation Bureau 1918–19; member Syracuse Bar Association, Phi Delta Phi, and Presbyterian Church.

Married June 4, 1904, in Edgewater, Chicago, Ill., Margaret Burnet Silsbee (B.S. Smith 1899), daughter of Joseph Lyman Silsbee (B.A. Harvard 1869) and Anna (Sedgwick) Silsbee. Children: Anne Sedgwick (B.A. Smith 1928); William Henry, '30; and Margaret Silsbee.

Death, probably due to a cerebral hemorrhage, occurred on a New York Central train as it neared Oneida. Buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Syracuse. Survived by wife, two daughters, son, stepmother, a brother, William Stone Wade, of Helena, Mont., and two sisters, Mrs. Joseph P. Masterman, of Stillwater, Minn., and Mrs. Lewis T. Searles, of Columbus, Ohio.

Robert Wallace Burnet, B.A. 1897.

Father, Jacob Staats Burnet (B.A. 1857), a lawyer in Cincinnati; son of Robert Wallace Burnet, a graduate of the United States Military Academy in 1829, and Margaret (Groesbeck) Burnet, of Cincinnati. Mother, Annie (Stubbs) Burnet; daughter of William Stubbs, a graduate of an English Naval College and a Commander in the British Merchant Marine, and Mary (Payne) Stubbs, of Cincinnati.

Franklin School, Cincinnati. First colloquy appointment Junior year.

Huntington, W. Va., 1920–25; inspector for Yellow Poplar Lumber Company in Crum, W. Va., 1925; inspector and superintendent of manufacturing with Kenova Sawmill Company in Kirk, W. Va, 1926–27 and at Kenova from 1927 until his death; member Second Presbyterian Church, Cincinnati.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Zanesville, Ohio. Survived by wife, son, a granddaughter, two sisters, Margaret B Phelps, the wife of Dudley Phelps, '83, and Mrs Charles G. V. Clark, of New York City, and a brother, G Harold Burnet (B.A Harvard 1901), of Stamford, Conn. Another brother, Jacob B. Burnet, '98, died in 1915.

William James Calyer, B.A. 1897.
Born May 26, 1869, in Newburgh, N. Y
Died December 22, 1929, in Fishkill, N Y

Father, Abram Morrell Calyer, a farmer; collector of the town of Newburgh; Private in Company E, 19th Regiment, New York State National Guard, eighteen years and fought in the Civil War for several months; son of Daniel King and Maria (Morrell) Calyer, of Jamaica, N. Y, and Newburgh. Mother, Nancy Rose (Anderson) Calyer; daughter of James Hiram and Luzetta (Decker) Anderson, of Cronomer Valley, Newburgh.

Centenary Collegiate Institute, Hackettstown, N. J. First dispute appointment Junior year; dissertation appointment Senior year

Studied at Yale Divinity School 1897–98; served as pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Florida, N. Y., 1898–99, Trout Creek, N. Y., 1899–1901, Washingtonville, N. Y., 1901–02, Cook’s Falls, N. Y., 1902–04, and Bellvale, N. Y., 1904–08, being admitted to the clerical order of a deacon April 9, 1905, ordained April 7, 1907, at the Washington Square Methodist Church, New York City; pastor in Stevensville, N Y., 1908 and 1909, Modena, N. Y., 1910–14, Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Newburgh. Survived by wife and a sister, Mrs Alfred D. Stewart, of Newburgh.

William Augustus Hart, B.A. 1897.

Born July 22, 1875, in New Haven, Conn.
Died December 22, 1929, in New Haven, Conn

Father, Charles Edgar Hart, a marketman; Captain of 109th Colored Troops (commissioned by President Lincoln) 1864–66; son of William Augustus and Sally Maria (Jones) Hart, of Durham, Conn. Mother, Isabelle Francis (Burns) Hart; daughter of Ozias and Isabella (Shillington) Burns, of New Haven. Cousin: Dr. Horace S. Hart, '87.

New Haven High School. An editor of Yale Record Senior year; president of Hillhouse High School Club

Studied law at Harvard 1897–99; LL B. New York Law School 1900; continued his law studies in office of Avery, Schlessinger & Paul in New York City 1900–01 and was then associated with that firm in practice of law until 1910; practiced law independently in New York and also acted as assistant manager of Standard Home Construction Company 1910–18; in 1918 became connected with The Associated Arts and served as its New York representative for a year, had since been Connecticut manager of its successor, the Consolidated Appraisal Company, Inc, with his office in New Haven; member Center (Congregational) Church, New Haven.

Unmarried.
Obituary Record

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by father and a sister, Edith Hart Holcomb, the wife of Fred A. Holcomb, '96 S.

Wallis Gibson Rowe, B.A. 1897.

Born April 1, 1866, in Afton, N Y
Died July 28, 1929, at Spring Lake, N J.

Father, Hanford D. Rowe, a farmer; served in Company E, 114th Regiment, New York Volunteers, during the Civil War; son of Henry and Selina (Smith) Rowe, of Afton. Mother, Cornelia (Applington) Rowe; daughter of Nathan Dean and Lovisa (Williams) Applington, of Afton.

Geneseo (N Y.) State Normal School. Principal of the school at Bergen, N. Y., 1890–91 and at Honeoye Falls, N. Y., 1891–93, and then entered Yale. High oration appointments Junior and Senior years; member Phi Beta Kappa.

Taught mathematics at Staten Island Academy 1897–98; head instructor in mathematics at Smith Academy (preparatory department of Washington University), St Louis, Mo., 1898–1917 (served as faculty representative and manager of athletics), and during this period did post-graduate work at Cornell in summer of 1904; income tax expert with St Louis Union Trust Company 1917-1920, assistant secretary 1920-23, and vice-president and secretary since 1923; lecturer on state and federal taxes at Washington University 1918–1928; president of Corporate Fiduciaries Association of St. Louis in 1928; vice-president of The Kennett Estate since 1927, director of East Coast Development Company since 1927 and of Coppell-Cravens-Babcock Real Estate & Investment Company since 1921; co-author: The Modern Arithmetic (1903); director of University Club 1926–29 and vice-president 1929; member Civic League of St. Louis, Sons of the Revolution, and Pilgrim Congregational Church, St Louis (president of Men's Club since January 1, 1929).

Married August 5, 1914, in St. Louis, Mary Medora, daughter of Edward Stewart and Medora Sarah (Cadien) Jeffrey. No children

Death due to a streptococcic infection and erysipelas. Buried in Glenwood Cemetery, Afton. Survived by wife (died August 16, 1929) and a brother, Percy A. Rowe, of Chicago, Ill.

Abner Pierce Hayes, B.A. 1898.

Born January 25, 1876, in Bethlehem, Conn.
Died July 26, 1929, in Woodmont, Milford, Conn.

Father, Franklin Pierce Hayes, a farmer; member of Connecticut Legislature two terms; son of Stephen and Lucy (Platt) Hayes, of Bethlehem. Mother, Catherine Pierce (Bloss) Hayes; daughter of Samuel and Mary (Pierce) Bloss, of Bethlehem.

Mount Hermon School. In Freshman honor division; high oration appointments Junior and Senior years; member Phi Beta Kappa.

Chief statistician of Pennsylvania Railroad lines west of Pittsburgh at that city 1898–1900; studied in Yale School of Law 1900–02 (LL.B. 1902), serving as president of the Kent Club and being also member of Wayland Club and Pi Delta Alpha; had practiced law in Waterbury, Conn., since 1902, member of firm of Hayes, McGrath & Weisman (of which John F. McGrath, ’02 L., and Hermann J. Weisman, ’09 L., were also members) 1915–1922; associated with J Gregory Lynch, ’23 and ’25 L., since 1925; judge of Waterbury City Court since 1923; prosecuting liquor agent of Waterbury 1907–08 and prosecuting agent of New Haven County 1907–1919; an incorporator of Ansonia (Conn.) Bank & Trust Company 1924; represented Bethlehem in Connecticut Constitutional Convention 1902; and Waterbury in the State Legislature 1907–1911 (member judicial committee first term; chairman of joint committee on constitutional amendments and member of committee on insurance and of special committee on Public Utilities Commission second term); author: A History of Railroad Strikes in the United States (1900); member Connecticut Civil Service Reform League and First Congregational Church, Waterbury.

Married November 4, 1908, in Newark, N. J., Margaret Ingoldsby, daughter of John and Mary (Ingoldsby) Fitz-Patrick. No children.
Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Bethlehem. His wife survives him.

Jay Chandler McLauchlan, B.A. 1898.

Born March 12, 1874, in Cleveland, Ohio.
Died October 8, 1929, in Cleveland, Ohio.

Father, William McLauchlan; partner in Pickands, Mather & Company, producers and sellers of iron ore, coal, and pig iron, Cleveland; son of James and Caroline (Hughes) McLauchlan, of Cleveland. Mother, Dora (Chandler) McLauchlan; daughter of Samuel Wayland and Calista (Sherwood) Chandler, of Cleveland.

University School, Cleveland, and Phillips-Andover. Rowed on Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior crews; member Apollo Glee Club Sophomore year and University Glee Club next two years, Kappa Psi, and Alpha Delta Phi.

Connected with iron and steel firm of F. A. Goodrich & Company of Detroit, Mich, 1898–1904, as a salesman until 1901 and then manager, and served also as treasurer of the company 1899–1902, secretary of Arizona Company of Detroit (gold mining) 1898–99; district sales agent for Michigan with Lackawanna Steel Company of Buffalo and district sales manager with Pickands, Mather & Company 1902–1917; partner in latter firm since 1917; vice-president of Toledo Furnace Company since 1919 and of Perry Iron Company since 1927 (director 1925–27); director Central Alloy Steel Corporation since 1925, Erie Dock Company and Ashtabula Steamship Company since 1926, and Domestic Coke Company since 1927, served as chief of pig iron section of War Industries Board in Washington October, 1917–January 1, 1919, and given a complimentary commission in Officers' Reserve Corps as Captain in the Ordnance Department February 3, 1919; on August 15, 1921, decorated by the King of Italy a Knight of the Crown of Italy for his cooperation in supplying Italy with pig iron needed for war work; had been active in settlement work and Cleveland Community Fund campaigns; president of Yale Alumni Association of Detroit 1914–15.
Married December 3, 1901, in Detroit, Edith, daughter of Nathan Gallup and Julia (Hanna) Williams, and half sister of Nathan G. Williams, '84. Children: Eloise, the wife of Walter E. Sterrett (B.A. Princeton 1924, M.B.A. Harvard 1926); and William, 2d, '32

Death due to carcinoma of the rectum. Buried in Lake View Cemetery, Cleveland. Survived by wife, daughter, son, one grandchild, and father Luther Louis Beard, B.A. 1899.

Born November 18, 1876, in Harmony Township, Ohio
Died April 30, 1930, in Philadelphia, Pa

Father, John Reeser Beard, a mechanic; served with Battery C, 1st Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteer Light Artillery, 1863-64; son of Henry and Eliza (Reeser) Beard, of Pennsylvania. Mother, Fannie Jane (Wragg) Beard; daughter of Joshua and Ann (Hoyland) Wragg (both born in England), of Clark County, Ohio Springfield (Ohio) High School. Oration appointment Junior and Senior years; went out for football; captain of Basketball Team Senior year.

Assistant city editor of Philadelphia Times 1899-1903; news editor of Philadelphia North American 1903-1924 and editor of its Pennsylvania political page 1924-25, copy reader with Philadelphia Evening Bulletin from May, 1925, until his retirement in July, 1926; was also night editor of Philadelphia Press 1900-01 and of Philadelphia Public Ledger 1901-03, member Central Methodist Episcopal Church, Springfield, Ohio.

Married March 26, 1901, in Springfield, Cora Belle Schaefer, who attended Wittenberg College four years, daughter of Charles Henry and Susan (Netts) Schaefer, and sister of Frederick W. Schaefer, '10. One daughter, Marcia Lael (B.A. Wellesley 1925)

Death due to essential hypertension. Buried in Ferncliff Cemetery, Springfield. Survived by wife, daughter, father, and a sister, Mrs. Evert Bangham, of Royal Oak, Mich.
Obituary Record

Nicholas Frederic Brady, B.A. 1899.

Born October 25, 1878, in Albany, N Y.
Died March 27, 1930, in New York City

Father, Anthony Nicholas Brady, a capitalist; born in Quesnoy-sur-Deule, France, and came to this country in childhood; largely interested as an officer or director in gas and electric lighting corporations in Albany, Troy, New York City, and Chicago, and in traction lines in Albany, Troy, New York City, Washington, Philadelphia, and Paris; founder of Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company; son of Nicholas and Ellen (Malone) Brady, of New York City. Mother, Marcia Ann (Myers) Brady; daughter of Harmon Myers, a Vermont jurist, and Margaret Ruth (Eldred) Myers, of Pownal, Vt. Nephew: James C. Brady, Jr., ’29.

Albany Academy. Second colloquy appointment Junior and Senior years; member Zeta Psi

After graduation became connected with Edison Electric Illuminating Company of Brooklyn, serving as director 1898–1919, as vice-president 1912–13, as president 1913–19, and as member of executive committee 1901–1919; since 1919, following its merger with Kings County Electric Light & Power Company (of which he had been a director from 1900 and member of executive and provident committees and trustee of the investment fund) to form the Brooklyn Edison Company, Inc., had been chairman of the board of the latter company, continuing as director and with the two committees and investment fund; director and treasurer of Edison Electric Illuminating Company of New York 1900–01, when it merged with New York Edison Company, of which he had since been a director, also serving as treasurer 1901–1910, as vice-president 1901–1913, as member of executive committee since 1902, as president 1913–1928, and as chairman of the board since 1928; under his direction a commercial school and club house for employees of the company were established and an employees’ savings and loan association; president of Amsterdam Electric Light, Heat & Power Company 1899–1920 (director since 1899); president of United Electric Light & Power Company 1912–1928 and since then chairman of the board (director since 1902 and member of executive commit-
Tale College

Tale College

Company, Ltd., 1917–1928, United States Rubber Plantations, Inc., 1921–28, United States Tire Company 1915–1928, United Timber Corporation since 1925, Utica Gas & Electric Company 1917–1920, Visayan Refining Company 1915–16, Wall and Cortlandt St. Ferries Railway Company 1902, and Westchester Lighting Company since 1914 (on executive committee); member finance committee of National Electric Light Association since 1914 and public policy committee since 1911; trustee of Homeopathic Hospital of Albany 1914, Brady Maternity Home of Albany since 1913, New York Foundling Asylum since 1914, College of New Rochelle 1919–1922, Irish-Emigrant Society since 1915, Italy-America Society since 1910, and Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of New York since its foundation in 1919 (one of the founders); member board of managers of Roman Catholic Orphan Asylum of New York since 1919; trustee and member of advisory board of New York Foundling Hospital 1920 and on advisory board of Broad Street Hospital in 1919 and of St. Vincent’s Hospital since 1919, member of finance committee of National Security League, Inc., 1914, of executive committee of National Civic Federation and of committee on plan and scope of Industrial Inquiry Commission organized by the federation since 1913, and of City Planning and Survey Committee of New York 1926; vice-president of Welfare Council of New York since 1925, vice-president of Manhattan Council of Boy Scouts of America; in 1914 established the Brady Memorial Awards (a series of medals given in memory of his father and annually awarded to street car companies and public utilities for outstanding accident prevention work); during the war served as member of a special American Red Cross Commission to Italy on the Italian front (with rank of Major) July 29–October 22, 1917, and also on two committees of Advisory Commission of the Council of National Defense 1919, as chairman of committee on transportation of the Mayor’s Committee of National Defense of New York City 1918, as vice-chairman of general committee of New York Catholic War Fund 1918 and 1919, as treasurer of National Catholic War Council (New York Diocesan Council) 1917–1919, as director of Society to Help Devastated Churches in France, Inc., 1919, and as chairman of Knights of Columbus war drive 1918; member New York State Chamber of Commerce, American Institute of Electrical Engineers, American Gas Association, New York Electrical Society, American Academy of Political and Social Science, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York Zoological Society, Albany Society of New York (on board of governors since 1928), Japan Society of New York, Bibliophile Society, Society of Friendly Sons of St. Patrick in the City of New York, American Irish Historical Society, and Church of St. Ignatius Loyola; member of corporation of Canterbury School, Milford, Conn, and interested in the Sisters’ College, Washington, D. C; made a Knight of St. Gregory and Knight Commander of St. Gregory 1916 and Knight of the Grand Cross 1919 (decorations of the Gregorian Order); first layman in the United States to receive title of Papal Chamberlain 1918, made Papal Duke 1927 and was a founder that year of Knights of Malta in the United States; in 1928 selected by the Pope as representative of the laity of the United States in the entourage of Cardinal Bonzano, Papal Legatee of the International Eucharistic Congress in Chicago, in 1929 decorated by Pope Pius XI with Ordine Supremo del Christo of the first class, an honor never before received by an American citizen; a founder, with Mrs. Brady, of the Carroll Club (Catholic working girls’ club) in 1920, and gave them a camp at Pawling, N Y., in 1929; gave altar of St Teresa to St Patrick’s Cathedral 1928; in 1914, with his brother, the late James C. Brady, ’04, gave to Yale the Brady Memorial Laboratory in memory of their father, and in 1925, with his brother, made a further gift of $500,000 to the endowment of the Anthony N. Brady Memorial Foundation in the School of Medicine; in 1928 established the James Cox Brady Memorial Fund of $500,000 as part of the Yale Endowment Fund; in 1925 was a candidate for member of Yale Corporation, and at time of death was member of national advisory committee of the Human Welfare Group at Yale

Death due to arthritis, accompanied by a heart complication. Buried in Gate of Heaven Cemetery, Westchester County, N. Y.; later to be buried in the Chapel of the Novitiate of St. Isaac Jogues in the township of Wernersville, Pa., which was built by Mr. and Mrs. Brady as a gift to the Maryland-New York Province of the Order of Jesuits. Survived by wife and three sisters, Mabel B. Garvan, Marcia B. Tucker, the wife of Carll Tucker, '04, and Mrs. James C. Farrel, of Albany.

Alfred Cox Smith, B.A. 1899.

Born July 12, 1875, in Clinton, Iowa
Died February 26, 1930, in Clinton, Iowa.

Father, Alfred Garret Smith, a banker; member of Stone & Smith, bankers (founded by him), which became the City National Bank of Clinton, of which he was president and later chairman of the board; son of Newell John and Marinda (Parsons) Smith, of Camden, N. Y. Mother, Hannah Elizabeth (Cox) Smith; daughter of Daniel Putnam and Sarah (Littler) Cox, of Camden.

Worcester (Mass.) and Lake Forest (Ill.) academies. Attended Lake Forest College 1894–95 as member of Class of 1898.

Had been connected with City National Bank of Clinton ever since graduation; assistant cashier 1899–1901, cashier 1901–1914, vice-president and cashier 1914–19, and president since 1919; director of the bank since January, 1905; vice-president of American Bankers' Association in 1916 and member of its executive council 1917–19; president of Iowa Bankers' Association 1926–27; director of Clinton Coliseum Company since 1912, of Clinton Commercial Club 1912–17 (also treasurer 1915–17) and its successor, Clinton Chamber of Commerce, since 1923 (also treasurer 1927–29), and of Clinton Board of Education 1918–1925 (president of the board 1920–22); president of Clinton Y. M. C. A. 1928 and 1929 and of Clinton Country Club 1922 and 1923; elected to board of managers of Iowa Children's Home Society of Des Moines January, 1929; treasurer of Clinton Rotary Club.
alternate years since its organization in 1915; trustee of Clinton Public Library since 1922; appointed member board of curators of State Historical Society in 1922 for term of four years; treasurer of First Congregational Church since 1915 and deacon since January, 1925.

Married August 1, 1905, in Clinton, Grace Ann, daughter of George Wesley and Mary Loretta (Robinson) Huston. Two adopted daughters, Eleanor and Elizabeth Ann.

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Springdale Cemetery, Clinton. Survived by wife and daughters.

Born October 20, 1878, in Washington, D.C.
Died October 20, 1929, in New York City

Father, Stephen Benton Elkins (B.A. University of Missouri 1860); president of Elkins Coal & Coke Company of West Virginia; member New Mexico Territorial Legislature and delegate to Congress from New Mexico; Secretary of War under President Harrison; United States senator from West Virginia, founder of town of Elkins, W. Va.; son of Philip Duncan and Sara Pickett (Withers) Elkins, of Perry County, Ohio, and Missouri. Mother, Hallie (Davis) Elkins; daughter of Henry Gassaway Davis, United States senator from West Virginia, and Katherine Ann Sowers (Bantz) Davis. Cousin: Joseph E. Davis, 'oo.

The Hill School. First colloquy appointment Senior year; member Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Took a trip around the world after graduation; then became connected with Elkins Coal & Coke Company; vice-president of the company 1901–1911 and president 1911–19, when it was sold to Bethlehem Steel Company; president of National Fuel Company of West Virginia, with offices at Morgantown, W. Va., from 1921 until death; vice-president of Morgantown & Kingwood Railroad Company 1902–1920, when road was purchased by Baltimore & Ohio; during Spanish American War appointed 2d Lieutenant, Signal Corps, United States Volunteers, August 1, 1898, assigned to the staff of Brigadier General Frederick D. Grant, 2d Brigade, 1st Division, 1st Army Corps, and appointed personal aide to General Grant, and sailed for Porto Rico August 9; stationed at Ponce, Mayaguez, Guayama, and San Juan; relieved from duty on staff of General Grant September 12, and given his discharge December 15, 1898

Unmarried.

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Maplewood Cemetery, Elkins. Survived by mother, a brother, Davis Elkins, of New York City, a sister, who is the wife of William F. R. Hitt, ’01, and two half sisters, Mrs. William C. Wiederseim, of Abington, Pa. (died February 20, 1930), and Mrs. Sara Elkins Oliphant, of Trenton, N. J.

Thomas Andrews Howell, B.A. 1900.

Born November 10, 1878, in Brooklyn, N. Y
Died April 19, 1930, at Saranac Lake, N. Y

Father, Henry Banks Howell, a merchant; member of firm of B. H. Howell Son & Company of Brooklyn (fiscal and financial agents for refined and raw sugar); son of Benjamin Hunting and Elizabeth (Banks) Howell, of Brooklyn. Mother, Mary Anne (Blackwell) Howell. Yale relatives include three cousins: Hampton P. Howell, ’91, Hampton Howell, ’93 S, and Lloyd M. Howell, ’94.

Hotchkiss School. On executive committee of University Club; member Psi Upsilon and Scroll and Key.

After graduation became a commission merchant; partner in firm of B. H. Howell Son & Company 1901–1923, vice-president of B. H. Howell Son & Company, Inc., since 1923, president and director of Cuban-Dominican Sugar Corporation 1925–26; president of West India Sugar Finance Corporation 1913–1925, of La Inmobiliar y Comercial C por A since 1921, and of Compañía Azucarera Boca Chica C por A of Andies, Dominican Republic and Dominican Sugar Refining Company C por A since 1927; vice-president of Cuban American Sugar Company 1906–1922 and of National Sugar Refining Company of New Jersey 1914–1923 (director of latter since 1902); treasurer of Suffolk Securities Corporation since 1922; director of Fajardo Sugar Company 1913–1925, of Central Aguirre Associates, New Niquro Sugar Company, and Guantanamo Sugar Company since 1913, and of Holly Sugar Company 1920–25, in 1926 elected member of citizens' advisory committee to cooperate with New York State Canal Centennial Commission in the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the opening of the Erie Canal.

Married (1) February 8, 1902, in New York City, Helen, daughter of Albro and Mary (Reed) Akin. Children: Thomas Andrews, Jr., and William Hunting, both ’25; John Akin, ’31; and Elena. Mr. and Mrs. Howell were divorced in 1915. Married (2) April 10, 1918, in New York City, Emilia de Apezteguia, daughter of Julio José de Apezteguia y Tarapa and Helen (Vincent) de Apezteguia. No children by second marriage.

Death due to pulmonary tuberculosis. Buried in Green Farms (Conn.) Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughter, three sons, and a sister, Mrs. Albert B. Strange, of Bernardsville, N. J.

John Cleveland Phillips, B.A. 1900.

Born July 28, 1876, in Putnam, Conn.
Died February 7, 1930, in Hartford, Conn

Father, Gilbert Wheeler Phillips, a lawyer; counsel for New York & New England (now a part of New York, New Haven & Hartford) Railroad; Connecticut state senator (president of Senate one term); assistant clerk of Connecticut House of Representatives and later member of that body; son of Wheeler and Eunice (Corbin) Phillips, of West Woodstock, Conn. Mother, Jane (Stoddard) Phillips; daughter of Ebenezer Stoddard (B.A. Brown 1807), member of Congress and lieutenant governor of Connecticut, and Lucy (Carroll) Stoddard, of West Woodstock. Uncle: John M. F. Stoddard (B.A. 1833).

Phillips-Andover and Black Hall (Conn) School. Second colloquy appointment Junior year; first colloquy appointment Senior year, member Senior Class Supper Committee and Psi Upsilon.

With Hammond & Knowlton Silk Company in Putnam,
Yale College

George Welch Simmons, B.A. 1900.

Born August 12, 1878, in St. Louis, Mo
Died May 21, 1930, in St. Louis, Mo.

Father, Edward Campbell Simmons; founder, president, and chairman of board of directors of Simmons Hardware Company of St. Louis; son of Zechariah T. and Louisa Charlotte (Helfenstein) Simmons, of St. Louis. Mother, Garafelia (Welch) Simmons; daughter of George S. and Lucy (Tufts) Welch, of Roxbury, Mass., and St. Louis. Yale relatives include: Edward C. Simmons, 2d, ex-'29 (nephew); and Charles P. Helfenstein (B.A. 1841) and his sons, John P. Helfenstein,
Obituary Record

Smith Academy, St. Louis. First dispute appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year; sang on University Glee Club four years; president of St. Louis Club; member Kappa Psi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Wolf's Head

Entered the employ of Simmons Hardware Company in 1900 and spent next four years in familiarizing himself with the organization, both at its warehouses and in traveling for the company; served as assistant secretary 1905-06 and as general manager in charge of traffic, sales and branch house departments 1905-07; vice-president of the company 1906-1928 and director 1904-1928; following the merger of the company with the Winchester Company of New Haven in 1922, served as president, general manager, and a director of the Winchester-Simmons Company of St. Louis until 1924; vice-president of Mechanics & Metals National Bank of New York 1924-26 and, after its merger with Chase National Bank, vice-president of the latter 1926-27, had since been president of the Plee Zing Brand Corporation and its successor, the George W. Simmons Corporation, distributors of package groceries, of New York City and St. Louis and of Huttig Sash & Door Company in St. Louis; vice-president and director of Winchester-Simmons Company of Delaware since 1922 (name changed to The Mercantile Securities Corporation in 1929); trustee of Associated Simmons Hardware Companies 1920-22 and again from January 31, 1930, until his death; president of Mound City Paint & Color Company 1920-22; had also been president of Aluminhide Keg Company of St. Louis and Lorned Manufacturing Company of Long Beach, Calif., vice-president of Railway Business Association, treasurer of New York Board of Trade and Transportation, and a director of First National Bank of St. Louis for about ten years, and, until 1924, of St. Louis Union Trust Company (also member of executive committee), Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Southern Wheel Company (also vice-president), Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railway Company, Pacific Development Company, Consolidated Coal Company, Union Electric Light & Power Company, Mermod, Jaccard & King Jewelry Company, and Scruggs-Vandervoort-Barney Dry Goods Company; director of Business Men's League of St. Louis (the forerunner of the St. Louis Chamber of Commerce) 1906–1920 and of the latter organization February–November, 1920; vice-chairman of organization committee of Council on Civic Needs of St. Louis; member of railroad committee of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States 1917–1923 and of its railroad consolidation committee 1922–24, director of St. Louis Skin & Cancer Hospital 1909–1910 and of its successor, the Barnard Free Skin & Cancer Hospital 1910–1921; president of Traffic Club of St. Louis 1907–09; vice-president of St. Louis Horse Show Association 1924 and active member of horse show committee of St. Louis National Horse Show 1929; an organizer and officer of St. Louis Pageant 1914; an organizer of the Municipal Opera 1920 and an officer 1920–24 and again in 1930; during 1918–19 lectured on business organization at Washington University; captain of polo team of St. Louis Country Club; chairman of membership campaign committee of St. Louis Chapter, American Red Cross, 1917, and director of New York County Chapter and chairman of its disaster relief committee 1924–28; Major in American Red Cross June 1, 1917–July 1, 1919, serving as manager of Southwestern Division, with headquarters in St. Louis, April, 1917–July, 1919, and as member of special executive mission to France, Belgium, Italy, and England January–April, 1918, and to Siberia, Russia, and China January–June, 1919, Alumni Fund agent for Class of 1900 since 1926; member St. Peter's Episcopal Church, St. Louis.

Married November 21, 1903, in St. Louis, Virginia Logan, daughter of Richard Beck and Virginia (McCampbell) Wright. Children: Richard Wright, '27; Virginia, Lulie; and Georgia.

Death, due to heart disease, occurred while playing polo at the St. Louis Country Club. Buried in Bellefontaine Cemetery, St. Louis. Survived by wife, son, three daughters, and a brother, Edward H. Simmons, '92 S. Another brother, Wallace D. Simmons, '90, died December 7, 1929.
Obituary Record

David Ogle Thomas, B.A. 1900.

Born October 15, 1876, in Belleville, Ill.
Died November 24, 1929, in Belleville, Ill.

Father, Edward Livingston Thomas, a lawyer; organizer and builder of Belleville & Southern Railroad, St. Louis & O'Fallon Railroad, St. Louis & St. Libory Railroad, and Belleville & Mascontah Electric Railway, and organizer of Crown Coal & Tow Company, St. Louis & O'Fallon Coal Company, and St. Libory Coal Company; son of William Smith and Elizabeth (Wait) Thomas, of St. Clair County, Ill. Mother, Mary (Ogle) Thomas; daughter of David and Margaret Hook (Randleman) Ogle, of St. Clair County. Cousins: W. Bissell Thomas, ex-'90 L., and Charles E. L. Thomas, '97.

Studied law with his father 1900–01; surveyor for Belleville & Southern Railway Company in Belleville 1901; manager of a dairy farm in Stookey Township, near Belleville, 1902–04; associated with his father in developing coal lands in southern Illinois and building railroads to them 1904–1914; engineer of St Louis & O'Fallon Railway Company and St. Louis & O'Fallon Coal Company 1904–1910; engineer and general manager in charge of construction of properties of St. Louis & St. Libory Railway Company and St. Libory Coal Company 1910–14; since 1914 had been county superintendent of highways of St. Clair County, Ill.; member High School Board of Belleville Township 1915–1928; during the war member of Registration Board of his precinct 1917–18; president of State Association of County Superintendents of Highways 1919; vice-president of Illinois Society of Civil Engineers at time of death; member National Society of Civil Engineers, Belleville Chamber of Commerce, Belleville Board of Trade, Regional Planning Organization of St. Louis Territory, and Sons of the American Revolution; associate member American Society of Civil Engineers

Married September 1, 1904, in St. Louis, Elsa, daughter of Otto Wangelin and Emma (Leunig) Ropiequet. Children: David Ogle, 2d, a graduate of Western Military Academy in 1927; Edward Otto; Mary Catherine, who attended Rockford College; and Virginia Louise.

Death due to carcinoma of the recto-sigmoid junction. Buried in Green Mount Cemetery, Belleville. Survived by wife, two sons, two daughters, a sister, Mrs. William Wetzel, of Beaucoup, Ill., and a brother, Livingston Thomas, of Chicago.

Henry Wilder Healy, B.A. 1901.
Born April 19, 1878, in Brooklyn, N Y
Died August 16, 1929, in Bay Head, N. J.

Father, Aaron Augustus Healy (LL.D. Oberlin 1919), a manufacturer and dealer in leather, head of A. Healy & Sons, private bankers; vice-president and director of Central Leather Company; special partner in firm of A. Olivotti & Company, dealers in Italian antiques; collector of internal revenue in Brooklyn; president of board of trustees of Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences; son of Aaron and Elizabeth (Weston) Healy, of Brooklyn. Mother, Elizabeth Carson (Bradley) Healy; daughter of Charles and Ann Catherine (Coyle) Bradley, of Washington, D. C.

The Hill School. Honors in English composition Freshman year; oration appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; member Zeta Psi.

Studied at Columbia Law School 1901-02 (member Phi Delta Phi); connected with United States Leather Company (later Central Leather Company) 1902-1919, except for two years (1904-06); during that period employed at Eagle Valley Tannery of Elk Tanning Company at Ridgeway, Pa., July, 1902-February, 1903, at the plant in Reynolds ville, Pa., February-June, 1903, at the Mellen (Wis.) Tannery June-September, 1903, and with Pennsylvania Tanning Company (sub-company of United States Leather Company) at Sheffield, Pa., October, 1903-June, 1904; then gave up work for a time to live with his parents; assistant manager of tanning department of United States Leather Company in New York City 1906-1919; had since been a partner in firm of A. Healy & Sons, bankers; also interested in practical farming 1910-1921, being associated with his father in the raising of pure bred Holstein and Jersey cattle, poultry, and fruit at their Lime Ridge Farm, Poughquag, N Y, treasurer of Hide & Leather Association of New York 1904 and vice-president 1905 and 1906; had also been connected with National Association of Tanners as a member of the advisory committee to the tanning committee at Pratt Institute 1913-17; member of research laboratory committee of Tanners' Council of America 1920-24; member American Leather Chemists' Association, American Jersey Cattle Club, and National Dairy Association; a vice-chairman of Christmas label committee formed in connection with American Society for Control of Cancer 1928; contributed to Leather Chemical Journal and agricultural papers, Hoard's Dairyman and Jersey Bulletin.

Married August 7, 1903, in Washburn, Wis, Elizabeth Josefine Zita vonFischbach Dickens, daughter of Peter and Katharín (vonWendling) vonFischbach, of Mellen, Wis Children Rhoda (died in infancy), and a son, who also died in infancy.

Death due to coronary thrombosis. Buried in Cold Spring-on-Hudson (N. Y ) Cemetery. Survived by wife and stepmother

Garrett Bergh Kip, B.A. 1901.

Born December 7, 1877, in New York City
Died February 23, 1930, in New York City.

Father, William Bergh Kip (LL B. Albany Law School 1867), a lawyer, son of Henry James and Sarah Ann (Bergh) Kip, of Rhinebeck, N. Y. Mother, Sarah Ann (Spies) Kip; daughter of Adam William and Sarah Ann (Morrison) Spies, of New York City Yale relatives include. William B. Kip, '26 (nephew), and A DeWitt Cochrane, ex-'96 S, and William Post, ex-'00 (cousins)

Cutler School, New York City, and Westminster School, Dobbs Ferry, N Y Member University Banjo and Mandolin Clubs, Kappa Psi, Psi Upsilon, and Wolf's Head.

Took a trip around the world after graduation; attended the New York Law School for two weeks in 1903; subsequently engaged in the real estate business for six months, was in the employ of Alexander & Thomas, brokers, and was manager of the branch office of Alexander, Thomas & Davies, brokers, in New York City; took a second trip around the world 1908–09, engaged in farming at Barrytown, N. Y, 1910–15, also served as president of Pioneer Mining & Smelting Company of New York 1913–14; attended first Officers’ Training Camp at Plattsburg in 1915 and was an instructor at the Boys’ Training Camp at Plum Island the next year; commissioned as a Second Lieutenant, Quartermaster Corps, at Plattsburg August 15, 1917, and stationed at Camp Upton during September and October; transferred to Army Transport Service November 1, 1917, and served in Supplies Division at Port of Embarkation at Hoboken, N. J., until given his discharge December 6, 1918, having been promoted to First Lieutenant May 25, 1918, member of advertising firm of Evans, Kip & Hackett, Inc, from 1918 until death, serving as treasurer and a director; had been member of Squadron A, New York National Guard six months; member American Legion, National Security League, and Church of the Heavenly Rest (Episcopalian), New York City.

Married April 25, 1903, in Tivoli, N. Y, Carola, daughter of Col Johnston Livingston dePeyster, U S Vols, and Julia Anna (Toler) dePeyster. One daughter, Carola dePeyster. Death due to a blood clot in an artery of the heart Buried in Rhinebeck (N Y ) Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughter, and a brother, W. Ruloff Kip, ex-’97 S Another brother, Henry S. Kip, ’96, died in 1920

Herman Parker Olcott, B.A. 1901.

Born January 1, 1879, in New York City
Died November 4, 1929, in Wallingford, Conn

Father, Emmet Robinson Olcott (LLB University of Berlin 1867); member of firm of Olcott, Mestre & Gonzales, lawyers, in New York City and Cuba, owner of Walfran silver and sulphur mines in the United States and Mexico, son of Henry Wyckoff and Emily (Steel) Olcott, of New York City Mother, Mary Gardner (Clapp) Olcott; daughter of Joshua Gardner and Mary (Greene) Clapp, of Boston.

Barnard School, New York City, and Betts Academy, Stamford, Conn. Member of Class of 1899 at College of the City of New York two years (on Football Team). At Yale member Freshman and Second University crews, University Football Team three years (becoming all-American center in 1900), Track Team, Swimming Team, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Took graduate work at Yale 1901–02; coached the University of North Carolina Football Team three months of each year in 1902 and 1903, spending the rest of the year in the study of law in his father's office; in 1904 took a trip around the world; in charge of tax paying department of Title Guarantee & Trust Company 1905–08; during that period coached the United States Naval Academy Football Team 1904, 1905, and 1906; member of law firm of Humiston, Olcott & Hincks and its successor, Humiston & Olcott (in which Harold D. Humiston, '02, was also a partner), 1908–1915; during that time was head coach of the New York University Football Team 1907–1912; professor of physical education and head football coach at University of Kansas 1915–17; Sergeant in Lawrence (Kans.) Home Guard in 1917; was regularly enlisted in the Navy, and served as director of athletics at the United States Naval Training Station at Great Lakes, Ill., November 4, 1917–July 31, 1919 (appointed by Walter Camp under the Fosdick Commission); director of Freshman athletics at Yale 1919–1921, general athletic director (head coach of football, basketball, and track) at The Choate School, Wallingford, from 1921 until retired by the school in June, 1927, and then acted as an adviser until his death; candidate for deputy police commissioner in Lawrence, Kans., about 1913; contributed articles to Leslie's Weekly and Outing; member Sachems (honor society at University of Kansas), Cum Laude (honor society at The Choate School), American Legion, and Episcopal Church

Married December 22, 1915, in New York City, Evelyn Dutton, daughter of Orrin Stanley and Helen Josephine (Barker) Fogg. No children

Death due to myocarditis and arteriosclerosis. Cremation took place by his own wish and his ashes were taken care of in the way that he most wished. Survived by his wife and a brother, Mestre Olcott, ex-’04.

Leonard Theaker Bushnell, B.A. 1902.

Born August 8, 1880, in New Bedford, Mass
Died April 7, 1930, in Seattle, Wash.

Father, Leonard Bushnell, manufacturer; connected with firm of Peirce & Bushnell (picture frames and passe partouts) of New Bedford; son of Leonard and Jerusha (Lee) Bushnell, of Saybrook, Conn. Mother, Margaret Elizabeth (Theaker) Bushnell, a special student at Vassar during 1867–68; daughter of Thomas Clark and Mary (McConahey) Theaker, of Mansfield, Ohio.

Friends’ Academy, New Bedford. Dissertation appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year Attended Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1902–05 (B.S. 1905) (editor-in-chief of The Tech, press agent for the Tech show, Class Day marshal, and member of Senior Portfolio and Class Day committees); assistant to the registrar of the Institute 1905–06; draftsman for electrical engineering department of New York Central Railroad in its initial zone, at Brooklyn, N. Y., 1906–07; had since lived in Seattle, secretary, treasurer, manager, and a director of Rockwood Sprinkler Company 1909–1928; had since been engaged in the insurance and real estate business with Smith & Clise, president of Automatic Sprinkler Association of the Pacific 1920–28 and of Seattle Rotary Club 1917; trustee of Automobile Club since 1919; chairman of Domestic Consumption Committee of Washington State Fuel Administration 1915 and 1916 and of members’ council of Seattle Chamber of Commerce 1920; secretary of Alumni Fund Committee of Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1927–28, member American Society of Mechanical Engineers and Pilgrim Congregational Church, Seattle, serving as its director of religious education since 1928 and as a teacher in its Sunday school since 1910.

Death due to influenza and pneumonia. Cremation took place and ashes buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Seattle. Survived by wife, four children, and mother.

Martin Peck Miller, B.A. 1902.

Born December 29, 1879, in West Springfield, Mass.
Died March 4, 1930, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Dr. Henry Martin Miller, a dentist in Westfield, Mass; son of Asa and Laura (Rogers) Miller, of West Springfield. Mother, Sylvia (Clark) Miller; daughter of Henry Othni and Sylvia (Root) Clark, of Westfield.

Westfield High School. Oration appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year.

Taught various subjects in Durango (Colo.) High School 1902-03; with The Travelers Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn., 1904-October, 1912, serving as a special agent in the Hartford branch office 1909-1911 and then as manager of the casualty department for Colorado and Utah, with headquarters in Denver; subsequently lived in New York City, Mamaroneck, N. Y., and San Diego, Calif., until 1918; clerk with Bridgeport (Conn.) Brass Company 1918-1920; teller in savings department of American Bank & Trust Company of Bridgeport October, 1920-February, 1921; engaged in independent social service work in New Haven 1921-25; night supervisor of Seaman’s Church Institute of New York City 1925-27; took a course in social work at the Children’s Village at Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., in 1927; had since been engaged in social service work in New Haven for sub-normal, problem, and delinquent children.

Married (1) May 22, 1907, in Hartford, Julia, daughter of Robert Gallaudet Erwin (B.A. Trinity 1874) and Julia Henrietta Monroe (Rogers) Erwin. Children: Robert Martin (died in childhood); and Sylvia Rogers. Mr. and Mrs. Miller were later divorced. Married (2) June 27, 1927, in New Haven, Mrs. Emily Heugh Russell, daughter of William Ward and Elizabeth Frances (Escott) Heugh. No children by second marriage.

Death due to lobar pneumonia. Buried in Hillside Gemetery, Rindge Center, N. H. Survived by wife, daughter, mother, a brother, Gilbert W. Miller of New Haven, a half brother, Harry Miller, of Westfield, and a half sister, Mrs Elizabeth Spencer, of South Manchester, Conn.

Kersey Coates Reed, B.A. 1902.

Born November 15, 1880, in Kansas City, Mo
Died August 29, 1929, in Beacon, N' Y

Father, Homer Reed (B.A. University of Michigan 1872), a lawyer, also engaged in real estate and brokerage business; postmaster of Kansas City, son of Thomas Hitchcock and Mary (Wilcox) Reed, of Leslie, Mich Mother, Laura (Coates) Reed; daughter of Kersey Coates, Colonel of 77th Regiment, enrolled Missouri Militia, during Civil War, and Sarah (Chandler) Coates, of Kansas City Yale relatives include two uncles: J. Lindley Coates, ex-'83 S, and Arthur C Coates, '85 S.

Kansas City Central High School First Berkeley Premium in Latin composition Freshman year; Lucius F. Robinson Latin Prize Sophomore year; philosophical oration appointment Junior and Senior years; third prize at Junior Exhibition; Townsend Premium Senior year; took part in first annual Academic-ShefF debate; member Dunham Boat Club and Phi Beta Kappa.

Studied law at Kansas City Law School and in law office of J. C. Rosenberger 1902–04; admitted to bar of Jackson County, Mo., June 17, 1904, and practiced law in Kansas City until 1914, being member of firm of Rosenberger & Reed 1909–1914; had been connected with Marshall Field & Company in Chicago since 1914, serving as secretary since 1917, as secretary and treasurer 1919–1924, and as a director since January, 1918; director of the Davis Store, Chicago, 1923–29, of the Northern Trust Company of Chicago 1921–29, and of the Chicago Latin School for Boys since its reorganization as a parent-owned school in 1926; secretary of Country Club of Kansas City 1908–1911, second vice-president of Yale Alumni Association of Kansas City 1914–15 and director of Chicago Yale Club 1918; former member Kansas City Bar Association.
Married November 25, 1911, in Chicago, Helen May Shedd (B A. Smith 1905), daughter of John Graves and Mary Roenna (Porter) Shedd. Children: Mary Shedd and John Shedd.

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Rose Hill Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife, daughter, son, mother, two brothers, Homer Reed, Jr., '10 S., and Thomas H. Reed, of Jacksonville, Fla., and three sisters, Sarah E. R. Stone, the wife of Alfred W. Stone, '94, Laura R. Yaggy, the wife of Edward E. Yaggy, '99, and Isabel R. Smith, the wife of J. Neil Smith, '16 S.

Henry Goodman Waters, B.A. 1902.

Died April 7, 1930, in Springfield, Mass.

Father, Henry Harrison Waters, a manufacturer; son of Harrison P. and Angeline (Cutter) Waters, of Buffalo, N. Y. Mother, Clara Burnett (Goodman) Waters; daughter of Calvin H. and Clara (Burnett) Goodman, of Springfield.

Buffalo Central High School. Second colloquy appointment Junior and Senior years; went out for wrestling; member Yale Corinthian Yacht Club.

LL B. Buffalo Law School 1904; during his course there acted as a clerk in law office of Bissell, Carey & Cooke (of which Wilson S. Bissell, '69, was the head); admitted to New York State Bar 1904 and practiced law in Buffalo until 1909, except for six months in 1905, when he served as secretary of Civil Service Committee of Buffalo; had been engaged in real estate management in Springfield since 1909; on Board of Aldermen and member of finance and city property committees 1910-12; director of Chicopee National Bank of Springfield 1913-1927, and after its consolidation with the Third National Bank in 1927 to form the Third National Bank & Trust Company; continued on the board of the latter company until his death; director of Wico Electric Company since 1923; member of board of governors of Colony Club since 1925 and vice-president since 1927; attended Plattsburg Camp September 7-October 5, 1916, served as a Lieutenant with Section 68 of the American Field Ambulance Service overseas from June to October, 1917; member Christ Church Cathedral (Episcopal), Springfield.

Death due to heart disease (probably angina pectoris) Buried in Springfield Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughter, and son.

Born June 22, 1882, in New York City
Died October 12, 1929, in New York City

Father, Jesse Rosenthal, a merchant; member of firm of J. Rosenthal & Company, importers; son of Joseph and Caroline (Fleishman) Rosenthal, of New York City. Mother, Emma (Bernhard) Rosenthal; daughter of Benjamin and Sarah Fredericka (Wurzburg) Bernhard, of New York City. Cousin: Richard J. Bernhard, '15 S.

Hotchkiss School. Second dispute appointment Senior year; member University Gun Team.

Had been engaged in banking and brokerage business in New York City ever since graduation; connected with Ladenburg, Thalmann & Company 1903-1911 (worked his way through various departments, during latter part of the time having charge of arbitrages in the bond department), except for the year 1906-07, which he spent in the study of banking abroad with the Credit Lyonnais of Paris and London and with the Bank fur Handel und Industrie of Berlin (six months with each house); in 1911 organized international banking firm of Bernhard, Scholle & Company (in which William D. Scholle, '08, was also a partner) and was member of firm until 1922; special partner in its successor, Bernhard, Schiffer & Company, 1922-24; in 1924, with Alfred E. Vondermuhll, founded Stock Exchange firm of Arthur J. Rosenthal & Company, of which he was senior member until his death (Radcliffe Swinnerton, '14, special partner in firm from January 1, 1925); established Overseas Securities Corporation 1920 and served as its president until 1922; executive secretary of committee on foreign relations of Investment Bankers’ Association 1919–1920, had been member of New York Stock Exchange since 1911 (governor 1917–1922); during the war served as member of Advisory Trades Committee and of Liberty Loan Committee of Second Federal District during last four Liberty Loan drives.

Death, due to bronchial pneumonia, occurred at the Presbyterian Hospital; had suffered from sleeping sickness from time to time, during the last ten years, but this is not thought to have contributed to the cause of his death. Buried in Rosenthal mausoleum, Beth-El Cemetery, Queens, New York City. Survived by wife, daughter, son, and mother.

William Roy Stuart, B.A. 1903.

Born April 27, 1878, in Cleveland, Ohio
Drowned January 12, 1930, in Clifton Park Lagoon, Lakewood, Ohio.

Father, William Frazer Stuart; in the carriage business as foreman for Raugh & Lang, Cleveland; son of William Frazer and Elizabeth (Johnson) Stuart, of Hamilton, Ontario, Canada. Mother, Agnes (Roy) Stuart; daughter of Peter and Katherine (Galloway) Roy, of Deseronto, Ontario.

Oberlin Academy. Attended Oberlin 1899–1901 as member of Class of 1903 before entering Yale as a Junior in 1901; second dispute appointment Senior year.

Had been engaged in the insurance business almost since graduation, with New York Life Insurance Company as assistant cashier in its Cleveland office October, 1903–February, 1904, and then as cashier in its Santiago (Cuba) office until September, 1904; cashier in Yonkers (N. Y.) office of Aetna Life Insurance Company 1904–1911; while holding this position studied at New York Law School 1905–07, received degree of LL.B. 1908 and was admitted to New York State Bar that year; practiced law in Yonkers 1905–08 and also served as justice of the peace in 1905, special agent in Brooklyn of The Travelers Insurance Company of Hartford 1912-13 and manager of its Brooklyn office 1913-16; manager of the Cleveland branch of Connecticut General Life Insurance Company 1917-1924 and branch manager of one of the Manufacturers Life Insurance Company’s offices in Cleveland since November, 1928; during the war served as a Four-minute Man; had written articles on insurance and lectured on the same subject at several Ohio colleges, member Cleveland Chamber of Commerce, Delta Theta Phi (legal fraternity); former member Archwood Avenue Congregational Church, Cleveland; member at death of Lakewood Presbyterian Church, of which he was an elder for seven years; charter member and first president of Cleveland Mercator Club in 1922 and president again 1927; instrumental in organization of Mercator International in 1922, served as its first president that year and as a trustee for several years.

Married (1) June 2, 1911, in Barnesville, Ohio, Maude Lillian, daughter of Charles Harry and Margaret (Armstrong) Little. One son, William Little. Mrs. Stuart died February 10, 1922. Married (2) November 17, 1928, in Lakewood, Ohio, Mildred Henrietta, daughter of Herman Frederick and Caroline Marie (Krueger) Geist. A posthumous daughter, Caroline Geist Buried in Riverside Cemetery, Cleveland. Survived by wife, son, daughter, mother, and a sister, Mrs Eva Smale, of Cleveland.

Seth Weaver Baldwin, B.A. 1904.

Born December 7, 1880, in Naugatuck, Conn
Died May 14, 1930, in Bethany, Conn

Father, Henry Chalmers Baldwin, ’72 L, a lawyer in Naugatuck, Waterbury, and New York City; editor and owner of Naugatuck Agitator; wrote on political economy, Private in 15th Connecticut Volunteers during Civil War; son of Lucius and Maria (Willard) Baldwin, of Naugatuck. Mother, Millicent Ann (Bingham) Baldwin; daughter of Elijah Whitfield and Rozilla (Daniels) Bingham, of Middletown, Conn. Yale relatives include: Carleton M. Saunders, '29 (nephew); and Seth Bingham, '04, and his son, Alfred J. Bingham, '32 (cousins).

Naugatuck High School. Third Benjamin F. Barge Prize in mathematics Freshman year and second prize Sophomore year, honors in mathematics Senior year; oration appointment Junior year; high oration appointment Senior year; member Sigma Xi.

Attended Yale School of Law 1904-06, receiving honors and LL B 1906 and serving as an editor of Yale Law Journal and member of Picture Committee; member Corbey Court; clerk in law office of Watrous & Day in New Haven (George D. Watrous, '79, and Harry G. Day, '90 S.) during summer of 1905 and did special work at Medford (Mass.) Woolen Mills for a few months during 1905-06; managing clerk for Watrous & Day 1906-07; claims attorney for state of Connecticut of New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company and its subsidiaries, Central New England Railroad, Westchester Railroad, New England Navigation Company, New York & Stamford Railway, and The Connecticut Company 1907-1914, with offices in New Haven and, after 1909, in New York City also, since 1914 had been attorney and claims agent for The Connecticut Company; in 1916, when the company was awarded the Anthony N Brady Gold Medal by the American Museum of Safety as having done the most to conserve the health and safety of its employees and patrons, was given a silver replica of the medal as the officer who had done the most towards that end; one of the first members of the Aero Club of Connecticut in 1911; member of New Haven Air Board 1925-29, serving as chairman from 1927, having been chairman of the legislative committee of the Mayor's Advisory Air Board 1926-27, in 1925 appointed by the president of New Haven Chamber of Commerce member of the board of control of the Safety Council of New Haven and served until death, acting as vice-chairman of the board 1926-27; president of Morris Cove Company 1918-1929; served on Legal Advisory Board and as a Four-minute Man 1917-18, and was member of Machine Gun Company, Connecticut National Guard, member American and Connecticut Bar Associations, American Electric Railway Association, New England Street...

Married October 11, 1911, in Milwaukee, Wis., Jessie Wells, daughter of Winslow Watson and Frances Marie (Boyd) Thayer. One son, Thayer.

Death, due to heart disease, followed an operation earlier in the year and a subsequent period of ill health. Buried in Groveside Cemetery, Naugatuck. Survived by wife, son, mother, and two sisters, Mrs. Robert A. Saunders, of Bethany, and Mrs. Thomas P. Saunders, of Naugatuck.

Frank Brinley Porter, B.A. 1905.

Born December 3, 1883, in New York City
Died April 29, 1930, in New York City.

Father, Frank Brinley Porter, a real estate broker; son of Benjamin and Rebecca Seton (Maitland) Porter, of Bellows Falls, Vt. Mother, Clara Floyer (Pond) Porter; daughter of Charles Floyer Pond (B.A. 1830) and Harriet Newell (Phelps) Pond, of Hartford, Conn. Yale relatives include five cousins. J. G. Phelps Stokes, '92 S., Anson Phelps Stokes, '96, and his sons, Anson Phelps Stokes, Jr., '27 and I. N. Phelps Stokes, '29, and Harold Phelps Stokes, '09.

Cutler School, New York City Second colloquy appointment Senior year; treasurer of Fencing Club.

Employed in the order department of the General Chemical Company of New York City 1906–08; later engaged in the brokerage business in New York for a number of years; connected with Ruggles, Gray & Wilmerding and Gray & Wilmerding; special partner in New York Stock Exchange firm of Morris & Pope 1914–15 and full partner 1915–16; retired from active business in 1920; member of Company K, 7th Regiment, New York National Guard, 1908–1912 and again 1920–22; member of Associates of the Engineer Corps and Co. K, 7th Infantry, New York National Guard, Veterans of the 7th Regiment, New York National Guard, Society of Colonial Wars in the State of New York, St. Andrew's Society of the State of New York, and Presbyterian Church.
Married April 29, 1907, in New York City, Rachel Lenox, daughter of Henry VanRensselaer and Marian (Robbins) Kennedy, and niece of Allan Appleton Robbins, '93 S. Children: Frank Brinley, Jr., '31, and James Lenox, '33. Mr. and Mrs. Porter were divorced in 1926.

Death due to hemostatic pneumonia. Buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by two sons and a sister, Mrs Harriet P. Glover, of Sorrento, Maine.

Harold Burton Jamison, B.A. 1906.

Born June 2, 1884, in Gloversville, N.Y.
Died July 1, 1929, in Albuquerque, N. Mex.

Father, Joseph Jamison, a farmer; son of William Burton and Clarissa (McKonkey) Jamison, who lived near Burtonville, N.Y. Mother, Mina (VanVranken) Jamison; daughter of Samuel and Hannah (Smith) VanVranken, who lived near Broadalbin, N. Y.

Gloversville High School. Honors Freshman year; high oration appointment Junior and Senior years; first honors Junior year and honors in social sciences Senior year; Daniel Lord Scholar Senior year, on executive committee of Dwight Hall and Yale Union; member Phi Beta Kappa

LL B. Yale 1908 (first Munson Prize); counsel for legal department of United States Forest Service 1908–1910, in Washington, D.C., four months and then in Albuquerque; since 1910 had engaged in the practice of law in Albuquerque; clerk in office of Neill B. Field for about six months in 1912; partner (with Manuel U. Vigil) in firm of Vigil & Jamison 1912–15 and in independent practice since then; assistant district attorney of 2d Judicial District of New Mexico 1912–15; counsel for city of Albuquerque 1922–29; president of New Mexico Game Protective Association 1926 and 1927; candidate for senator from New Mexico in 1928, but defeated; M.A Yale 1915; state chairman of Northwestern division for Yale Endowment Campaign; member Bernamnillo County Bar Association

Married February 18, 1913, in Winchester, Mass., Edna Jewett, daughter of Edward Jewett and Mary Louise (Dunn)
Charles Milton Morse, B.A. 1906.

Born May 30, 1873, in New Woodstock, N. Y.
Died March 23, 1930, in Auburn, N. Y.

Father, Leander Morse, a farmer; served in Civil War with the 15th New York Volunteer Cavalry and mustered out in the 2d New York Cavalry; son of Alonzo and Mary (Sweet) Morse, of Sheds, N. Y. Mother, Almira (Randall) Morse; daughter of Curtis and Parizâde (Wood) Randall, of Sheds.

Cortland (N. Y.) State Normal School. Taught at South Orange, N. J., 1900–02 and then entered Yale Honors in studies of Junior year and an oration appointment, high oration appointment Senior year and honors in natural sciences, member Phi Beta Kappa.

Principal of high school, Shelton, Conn., 1906–07, superintendent of schools at Southington, Conn., 1907–09 (during 1908–09 also supervisor of schools in Cheshire), superintendent of Southington-Cheshire District September–December, 1909; had charge of William L. Gilbert Home, Winsted, Conn., December 1, 1909–July 1, 1914; attended Teachers College, Columbia, specializing in the study of school administration, September, 1914–June, 1915; received degree of M.A. and certificate of ability to superintend a city school system; head of English department in Auburn High School 1915–1926, when he retired from teaching on account of ill health; member First Presbyterian Church, Auburn.

Married July 5, 1906, at Union Springs, N. Y., Susanna, daughter of John Yawger Davis, Cornell ex-’72, and Mary (Russell) Davis. One daughter, Cornelia Davis.

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Fort Hill Cemetery, Auburn. Survived by wife, daughter, two brothers,
Obituary Record

Clayton G. Morse, of Ithaca, N. Y., and Alvin L. Morse, of Sheds, and a sister, Mrs. Arthur E. Edgerton, of Frankfort, N. Y.

George Berger Struby, B.A. 1906.

Born January 9, 1885, in Denver, Colo.
Died July 9, 1929, in Paris, France.

Father, Frederick Francis Struby, a wholesale grocer in Denver; president of Northern Coal & Coke Company; director of Colorado Ice & Storage Company; son of Frederick William and Harriet (van der Veen) Struby, of Buffalo, N. Y. Mother, Laura Margaret (Ruth) Struby; daughter of William and Adeline (Kountze) Ruth, of Denver, Colo. Yale relatives include the following cousins: George B. Berger, '88 S., William B. Berger, '93 S., Walter F. B. Berger and George S. Oliver, both '99, Augustus B. Berger, ex-'01, Augustus K. Oliver, '03, George R. B. Berger, '08, Bennett Oliver, ex-'17, and George B Berger, Jr., '28.

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. Second colloquy appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year; member Alpha Delta Phi.

LL B. New York Law School 1909 and Denver University Law School 1910; admitted to the Colorado and Denver Bar associations 1910 and practiced law independently in Denver until 1916; served as Conducteur in Section Sanitaire Unit 2, and as assistant commander of Transport Militaire 397, American Field Service, attached to the French Army, May, 1916—October, 1917; attended Centre d'Instruction Automobile, Meaux, France, May, 1917; enlisted as a Private in Motor Transport Corps at Soissons October, 1917; commissioned as Second Lieutenant, Motor Transport Corps, November, 1917; promoted to First Lieutenant November, 1918, saw active service in Cambrai Offensive, Somme, Aisne, Montdidier-Noyon, and Champagne-Marne defensives, and Aisne-Marne, Somme, Oise-Aisne, and Meuse-Argonne offensives; awarded Croix de Guerre, with citation, at Verdun, April 28, 1917; returned to United States in June, 1919, and given his discharge at Fort Russell, Wyo., in July, 1919; returned to Denver and engaged in farming until 1921; had since been engaged in agricultural pursuits near Vergeze, France, and was interested in the collection of antique furniture in association with Henry Peters, in Paris; member St. John’s Cathedral (Episcopal), Denver.
Unmarried.
Death, due to a cerebral hemorrhage, followed a sudden heart attack. Buried in Pantin-Parisien Cemetery, Paris Survived by two brothers, Frederick W. Struby, ’01, and Walter V. Struby, ’11 S., and a sister, Mrs. John W. Graham, of Denver.

Dwight Raymond Meigs, B.A. 1907.

Born August 12, 1884, in Pottstown, Pa
Died March 18, 1930, in Knoxville, Tenn

Father, John Meigs (B.A. Lafayette 1871, Ph.D. 1876, honorary M.A. Yale 1908); instructor and assistant professor at Lafayette 1872–76 and headmaster of The Hill School 1876–1911; a director of Union Theological Seminary; son of Matthew Meigs (B A Union 1836, Ph.D. Lafayette 1868, LL.D.), student at Union Theological Seminary two years, professor at University of Michigan, president of Delaware College, founder of The Hill School, and United States consul to Piraeus, Greece, and Mary (Gould) Meigs, of Pottstown. Mother, Marion (Butler) Meigs; daughter of Cyrus and Maria Webb (Beardsley) Butler, of New York City. Yale relatives include: Uriah Tracy (B.A. 1778) (great-great-great-grandfather); James Gould (B.A. 1791) (great-great-grandfather); William T. Gould (B.A. 1816) (great-great-uncle), and his son, James G. Gould (B.A. 1845), James R. Gould (B.A. 1824) (great-great-uncle); George Gould (B.A. 1827) (great-grandfather); and Hermon B. Butler, ’76 S (uncle).
The Hill School and Hotchkiss School. Second colloquy appointment Junior and Senior years; member Scrub Football Team and University Swimming Team (captain Junior year); associate business manager of Yale Courant Junior year and business manager Senior year; an editor of Yale Record; member Apollo Musical Club, Dramatic Association, Yale Corinthian Yacht Club, Campus Committee, and Zeta Psi, elected to Triennial Committee Senior year.
Engaged in boys' club work at the Chicago Commons and as probation officer of the Juvenile Court 1907-08; studied at Merton College, Oxford, 1908-1911 (except for a few months in the winter of 1910-11), specializing in English (captain of Merton College Tennis Team two years, played on Merton College Football Team, and was on Oxford University Tennis and Swimming teams); vice-president of The Hill School 1911-13 (also teaching English), assistant headmaster 1913-14, and headmaster 1914-1922; also served as secretary of the board of trustees 1920-22; during his administration the Dining Hall, Music House, and Memorial Hall were built, the Infirmary remodeled and enlarged, and the Dell Theatre and Outdoor Swimming Pool constructed; since 1922 had been engaged in timber and coal developments, in the real estate business, and in golf course design and construction, with his headquarters in Knoxville; vice-president and director of Thomas Hall Lumber Company of Charleston, W. Va., 1921-24; president of Round Mountain Lumber & Coal Company 1912-1928 and of Lea Springs Corporation of Knoxville since 1926; secretary of Holston Hills Realty Company of Knoxville 1923-26; treasurer of Henry Potts & Company, Inc (iron and steel) of Philadelphia since 1916; vice-president of U. S Axle Company of Pottstown 1920-28 and director since 1920; president of Pottstown Y. M. C. A. 1912-17; charter member of Headmasters Club of Philadelphia in 1916 and member of its executive committee until 1923; during 1917-18 served as secretary of Local Exemption Board No. 5 of Montgomery County, Pa., as chairman of Red Cross campaign in Pottstown and of Federal Labor Board of Montgomery County, and as member of Liberty Loan executive committee of Pottstown; while at The Hill School played on Merion Cricket Club Tennis Team in the Philadelphia inter-club matches three years, was chairman of the greens committee of Brookside Country Club and member of Philadelphia Golf Association, and played in National Amateur Golf Championship of the United States and Great Britain; former member College Entrance Examination Board; member First Presbyterian Church, Pottstown; elected member of Elizabethan Club of Yale 1916.

Married (1) August 31, 1909, in London, Ruth, daughter of William Holt Averell, '72, and Mary Blossom (Buell) Averell, of Rochester, N. Y. One daughter, Marcia, member of Sarah Lawrence College Class of 1931. Mr and Mrs. Meigs were divorced in 1923. Married (2) November 22, 1923, in Harrisburg, Pa., Ruth Kinzer, daughter of Frank Payne (B S in Agriculture Virginia Polytechnic Institute 1882) and Nelle Quarrier (Norvell) Payne. No children by second marriage. Took his own life. Buried in Edgewood Cemetery, Pottstown. Survived by wife, daughter, mother, and two sisters, Mrs. Kenneth Howard and Marion M. Hyde, the wife of Theophilus R. Hyde, '12 S.

John Dicks Cutter, B.A. 1908.

Born October 31, 1885, in Orange, N. J
Died March 11, 1930, in New Britain, Conn.

Father, John Dicks Cutter, a silk manufacturer; senior partner in John D. Cutter & Company of Brooklyn, N. Y (silk mills in Bethlehem, Pa ); son of William and Margaret (Dicks) Cutter, of Portland, Maine. Mother, Adelaide Cornelia (Paulk) Cutter; daughter of Ephraim and Juliette (Learned) Paulk, of Bangor, Maine

Adelphi Academy First dispute appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year; sang on Freshman Glee Club; member Beta Theta Pi.

M.E. Stevens Institute of Technology 1910; clerk with Billings & Spencer Company (drop forgings) of Hartford 1910-12; secretary of Hartford Metal Treating Company 1912-13 and president and treasurer 1913-15; metallurgist and superintendent of heat treatment with Remington Arms Company of Bridgeport, Conn, 1915-17; held a similar position with Savage Arms Company of Utica, N. Y., 1917-18, sales engineer with Crucible Steel Company of America 1918-1920, with his home in Sewickley, Pa., at first and later in Detroit, Mich.; sales engineer and later metallurgist and vice-president of Climax Molybdenum Company of New York 1920-27; had since been connected with shackle department of Fafnir Bearing Company of New Britain, at first in the Detroit office and since 1928 as sales manager in New Britain; member Troop B, Cavalry, Connecticut National Guard, March 9, 1911-January 15, 1916; was an officer of Atlantic Yacht Club at Seagate 1926-27; member Central Congregational Church, Brooklyn.

Married June 2, 1917, in Waterbury, Conn., Elizabeth Chadbourne, daughter of Thomas and Jenny (White) Lane. Two daughters, Elizabeth Dicks and Nancy Lane.

Death due to coronary thrombosis and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, two daughters, a brother, Dr. William D. Cutter, '99, and three sisters, Ruth C. Nash (B.A. Mount Holyoke 1903), the wife of Roy Nash, ex-'07 M., Mrs. Charles A. Goodrich, of Hartford, Conn., and Miss Marion Cutter, of New York City.

Robert Mallory, Jr., B.A. 1909.

Born March 21, 1887, in Brooklyn, N.Y.
Died December 1, 1929, in Rye, N.Y.

Father, Robert Mallory; executive manager of C. H. Mallory & Company, agents for Mallory Steamship Company; director of Clyde, Ward, and Mallory Steamship companies; partner in Spencer Trask & Company (bonds and stocks); son of Charles Henry and Eunice (Clift) Mallory, of Mystic, Conn. Mother, Elizabeth Denison (Holmes) Mallory; daughter of Jabish and Emeline (Williams) Holmes, of Stonington, Conn. Yale relatives include: Charles Mallory, ex-'65 S. (uncle); and Charles M. Williams, '92 S., Philip R. Mallory, '08, and John H. Mallory, ex-'09 (cousins).

Brooklyn Latin School and Hotchkiss School. Second dispute appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; on staff of Yale Daily News; manager of Dramatic Association; played on Second Dispute Baseball Team; a Wrangler, member Campus, Cup, and Class Day committees, City Government Club, Yale Corinthian Yacht Club, Psi Upsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Clerk in transfer department of Winslow, Lanier & Company, bankers, 1909-1910; had since been connected with Spencer Trask & Company in New York; in the bond department, specializing in railroad securities (in which he was considered an authority) 1910–17, general partner in the firm 1917–January 1, 1929, and special partner since then; director of Alabama Great Southern Railroad Company 1920–26, Northern Insurance Company of New York since 1920, Staten Island Edison Corporation 1923–27, and Redman and Redbird Steamship corporations 1923–28; trustee of Village of Rye 1924–26 and of Rye Y. M. C. A. since 1926 (on board of directors 1923–26); elected trustee of Rye Country Day School January 8, 1924, for term of three years, but resigned during the first year; assistant with War Trade Board, Bureau of Enemy Trade, at Washington, D.C., November, 1917–January, 1918; commissioned Ensign, U.S. Naval Reserve Force, January 16, 1918; assigned to Naval Overseas Transportation Service as aide to the District Supervisor in New York City; promoted to Lieutenant (j.g.) July 1, 1918, and to Lieutenant (s.g.) December 23, 1918; released from active duty January 7, 1919, resigned from inactive list May 8, 1920; vestryman of Christ Church (Episcopal), Rye, since June, 1923; in 1927, with his brother, Charles H. Mallory, '15, established the Holmes Mallory Scholarship at Yale in memory of their brother, Holmes Mallory, '18, who died in service.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Putnam Cemetery, Greenwich, Conn. Survived by wife, sons, mother, a sister, Mrs. George E Hite, Jr., of Port Chester, N.Y., and brother, Charles H. Mallory.

Allan Douglas Parker, B.A. 1909.

Born December 6, 1886, in Lowell, Mass.
Died September 7, 1929, at Little Boar’s Head, North Hampton, N.H.

Father, Walter Lang Parker, a banker; former president of First National Bank of Lowell and now vice-president of Union National Bank of Lowell; former owner of Walter Lang Parker Company, manufacturers of bobbins and spools; son of William Harrison and Lucy Bean (Lang) Parker, of Lowell. Mother, Rebecca Alice (Johnson) Parker; daughter of William Augustus and Lucy Adams (Hutchins) Johnson, of Lowell

Lowell High School and Phillips-Andover. Second colloquy appointment Senior year; on Class Baseball and Basketball teams, member City Government Club and Psi Upsilon.

Had been connected with Walter L. Parker Company since graduation; employed in various capacities until 1920 and since then an equal partner with his brother, H. Hutchins Parker, ex-’08 S.; director of Union National Bank since 1921, Lowell Morris Plan Bank since 1917, Lowell Chamber of Commerce since 1927, and Lowell Community Chest 1929 (special gift man for several years); trustee of Five Cents Savings Bank since 1922; director of Social Service League since 1922, serving as treasurer 1922–23 and as president since 1923; alumni fund agent for Class of 1905 at Phillips-Andover, member St Anne’s Episcopal Church, Lowell.

Married January 17, 1917, in Kansas City, Mo., Elizabeth, daughter of Robert Milton Cook (B.S. University of Missouri 1882) and Lida (Reed) Cook (B.S. University of Missouri 1882). Children: Elizabeth Ann, Nancy, and Allan Douglas, Jr.

Struck by lightning and killed at his summer home at Little Boar’s Head Buried in Lowell Cemetery. Survived by wife, two daughters, son, parents, brother, H. Hutchins Parker, and a sister, Mrs William Hendrix Scarritt, of Kansas City

Edward Boies Cowles, B.A. 1910.

Born April 13, 1888, in Rye, N. Y.
Died June 8, 1930, in New York City.

Father, David Smith Cowles, a paper manufacturer; president of W. H. Parsons Company and Pejepscot Paper Company, son of Edward Pitkin Cowles (B.A. 1836) and Sarah (Boies) Cowles, of New York City Mother, Matilda (Parsons) Cowles; daughter of William Henry and Laura Cecilia (Palmer) Parsons, of Rye Yale relatives include: the Rev. Pitkin Cowles (B.A. 1800) (great-grandfather); David
S. Cowles (honorary M.A. 1847) (great-uncle), William H Parsons, '82 (uncle), and his sons, William H. Parsons, Jr., '10, and John P. Parsons, '85 (uncle), and Herbert Parsons, '90, and his sons, John E. Parsons, '25, and Herbert Parsons, '31 (cousins).

Pomfret School. Sang in Freshman, Apollo, and University Glee clubs and in College Choir; member of Crew Squad Freshman year; contributed to Yale Literary Magazine; active in work of Yale Hope Mission; member Yale Corinthian Yacht Club and Zeta Psi.

Engaged in transportation business with Dearborn & Lapham, New York City, 1910-11 and in commission business with Williams, Dimond & Company, New York, in 1911; secretary of Pejepscot Paper Company 1911-17 and during this period was also secretary of W. H. Parsons Company and Sagadahoe Towing Company, vice-president of Interstate Pulp & Paper Company 1919-1921; sales manager of Bedford Pulp & Paper Company 1921-23, also connected with Arthur V. R. Thompson & Company, Inc., 1921-22, assistant director of sales in Philadelphia district for Industrial Extension Institute July-December, 1923, had since been connected with American Engineering Company (manufacturers of Taylor stoker) in sales department at first and since 1925 as manager of pulp and paper mill department, located in Philadelphia 1924-27 and since then in New York City; commissioned as a First Lieutenant, Ordnance Reserve Corps, November 9, 1917; on active duty at Holt Manufacturing Company, Peoria, Ill., December 20, 1917-January 2, 1918; attended instruction school of Nash Motor Company January 10-17, at Rock Island (Ill.) Arsenal February 2-March 1; then appointed commanding officer of 302d Company, Mobile Ordnance Repair Shop, 77th Division, then at Camp Upton; served overseas with 77th Division April 11, 1918-April 26, 1919; promoted to Captain April 30, 1918; served as artillery inspector of 152d Artillery Brigade and saw active service in Baccarat Sector and in Vesle-Aisne and Argonne-Meuse offensives; gassed August 24 near Fismes; given his discharge May 10, 1919; member Rye Presbyterian Church

Married (1) June 4, 1912, in London, Vera Boswell, daugh-
Obituary Record

- ter of Sir Arthur Eliott, Bart., and Lady Eliott. One son, Edward Boies, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Cowles were divorced in 1919. Married (2) March 17, 1920, in Stamford, Conn., Sara Louise Danenhower deMairette, daughter of Henry Keil and Anna (Fitzpatrick) Danenhower. No children by second marriage.

Death, due to cirrhosis of liver and myocarditis, occurred at the Knickerbocker Hospital. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Rye. Survived by wife, son, mother, two brothers, David S. Cowles, '17, and William H. P. Cowles of Montreal, Canada, and a sister, Mrs. Elsie Cowles Lesher, of Taormina, Sicily.

Lyman Northrop Hine, B.A. 1910.

Born June 22, 1888, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died March 5, 1930, in Paris, France.

The Hill School. Rowed on Class Crew; active in Yale Hall work; member Class Supper Committee, Yacht Club, Alpha Delta Phi, and Wolf's Head

Took a trip around the world 1910–11; connected with American Cotton Oil Company December, 1913–1927, with exception of time spent in service, served as treasurer 1913–17 and as director, first vice-president, and member of executive

Married November 10, 1914, in New York City, Sibyl Eager, daughter of Edward Lewis and Sibyl (Eager) Young Children: Francis Lyman, 2d, and Sibyl Young

Death due to injuries received in an automobile accident. Buried in Locust Valley, N. Y. Survived by wife, son, daughter, a brother, F. Worthington Hine, ex-'15, and a half brother, Ethelbert Ide Low, ’02

Joseph Henry Bragdon, B.A. 1911.

Born June 9, 1887, in Melrose, Mass
Died February 19, 1930, in New Rochelle, N Y

Father, Joseph Henry Bragdon; head of firm of J H. Bragdon & Company, publishers, in New York City; founder of Textile Manufacturers Journal in 1894; son of Joseph Henry and Rebecca (Chase) Bragdon, of Newburyport, Mass. Mother, Mary Marks (Waters) Bragdon; daughter of William and Mary Elizabeth (Hardt) Waters, of Lewistown, Pa.

Boys’ High School, Brooklyn, and Hotchkiss School
Member Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Had been engaged in the publishing business ever since graduation, joined staff of Textile Manufacturers Journal (published by J. H. Bragdon & Company) in 1911 and was a salesman in the advertising department a year, reporter for the editorial department 1912-13, and circulation manager 1913-15; in 1915 helped to bring about the merger of the journal with Textile World Record under name of Textile World Journal and served as treasurer of the latter paper and its successor, Textile World, and of Bragdon, Lord & Nagle Company, Inc., which publishes it, until 1928; also supervised the mill property department of the company from 1920; since 1928 had been vice-president and general manager of that company, member of executive committee and of board of directors of McGraw-Hill Publishing Company (of which Bragdon, Lord & Nagle Company, Inc., is a division), and publishing director of Textile World; president of New York Business Publishers Association 1924-25 and of Associated Business Papers, Inc., 1926-28; vice-president of General Insulate Company, Inc., of Brooklyn 1919-1927; member of board of governors of Advertising Federation of America since 1928, treasurer and member of executive committee of Class of 1911 since 1924 and member of its reunion committee for 1926, graduate member of Elihu Club; member North Avenue Presbyterian Church, New Rochelle.

Married June 26, 1911, in Brooklyn, Emily Katherine, daughter of Ernest John Kaltenbach (B.S. Cooper Union 1876) and Anna (Fahrenkoff) Kaltenbach. Children: Joseph Henry, Jr., the Class Boy of 1911, and Ernest Kaltenbach.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife and two sons.

Stanley Ernest Brown, B.A. 1911.

Born March 20, 1890, in New Haven, Conn.
Died February 7, 1930, in Bridgeport, Conn.

Father, the Rev. Herbert Stanley Brown (B.A. 1881, B.D. 1886, M.A. 1906, Ph.D. 1908), a Congregational minister successively in Mystic, Conn., Lockport, N.Y., and Danielson, Darien, and Bridgeport, Conn.; son of Hiram Slauson and Sarah Jane (Fancher) Brown, of Pound Ridge, N.Y., and Stamford, Conn. Mother, Emma Cornelia (Hall) Brown, daughter of James Henry and Marietta (Kelsey) Hall, of New Haven. Yale relatives include a cousin, John B. Kirby, Jr., '21 S.

Stamford High School. Honors in studies of Freshman and Junior years; honors in English Senior year; high oration appointment Junior and Senior years; member Alpha Chi Rho and Phi Beta Kappa.

Private secretary to J. H McFarland, head of McFarland Printing Company, in Harrisburg, Pa, 1911-15; connected with sales department of William P. Bonbright & Company, Inc., investment bankers, in New York City 1915-18; manager of Naugatuck Valley Morris Plan Company, with headquarters in Ansonia, in 1918; had since been engaged in the bond business; salesman in New York City for Hemphill, Noyes & Company 1919-1920, salesman and representative in Connecticut for Harris & Abbott 1920-21, for Harris, Ayers & Company 1921-24, and Brown Brothers & Company 1924-26, with his home in Bridgeport; since January 2, 1927, had been in business for himself as president of Stanley Brown & Company, Bridgeport; Private in Connecticut Home Guard (Company C, 5th Regiment) January 25–June 17, 1918; served as Private with Depot Brigade and at Division Headquarters at Camp Meade June 22–August 13, 1918, and then attended Field Artillery Central Officers' Training School at Camp Zachary Taylor with 5th Training Battery; commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in Field Artillery Reserve Corps and given his discharge November 27, 1918, member board of control of Exchange Club January–July, 1927, and of Bridgeport Chamber of Commerce and Olivet Congregational Church.

Married October 1, 1925, in Bridgeport, Ethel Rebecca, daughter of George Bronson and Sarah (Whitcomb) Sterling, and granddaughter of Edward Sterling, ’52

Death, due to septicemia, occurred at the Bridgeport Hospital. Buried in Mountain Grove Cemetery, Bridgeport. Survived by wife, an adopted daughter, Mary Gunn Brinsmade, whose father, Chapin Brinsmade, M.A 1924, Ph.D. 1926, died in 1928, his father, and a brother, Theodore H Brown, ’10.
Wallace Nathaniel Sweet, B.A. 1911.

Born October 24, 1887, in Lebanon, Conn.
Died July 5, 1929, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, Dr. Charles Sweet, a physician in Lebanon; also interested in farming; son of Dr. Charles Sweet and Elizabeth (Throop) Sweet, of Lebanon. Mother, Mary Eve (Manning) Sweet; daughter of Warren Filmore and Ruby Ann (Johnson) Manning, of Lebanon. Uncle: Frederick B. Sweet, '93 M.

Stonington (Conn.) High School Attended Yale School of Medicine 1906–07 and then joined College Class of 1911.

Employed in dining car service department of Southern Railroad October, 1911–May, 1912; M.D. Columbia 1916 (during summers of 1912–16 served as office manager of Norfolk [Conn.] Inn); interne at City Hospital, Blackwell's Island, 1916–18, assistant to William S. Russell, '80 M., in Wallingford, Conn., until entering service; commissioned as First Lieutenant, Medical Reserve Corps, January 14, 1918; called to active duty April 7, 1918, and assigned to Army Medical School, Washington, D.C.; went overseas May 3, 1918, and served with the 2/2 North Midland Field Ambulance of the British Expeditionary Force; promoted Captain March 3, 1919; awarded British Military Cross in April or May, 1919, returned to United States May 22, 1919, and received his discharge May 24; associated again with Dr. Russell 1919–1922; practiced independently in Wallingford 1922–26, had since engaged in the practice of orthopedic surgery in Hartford, in association with his cousin, John H. T. Sweet, Jr. (M.D. Tufts Medical School 1912); on staff of Hartford Municipal Hospital and of Hartford Dispensary since 1926; member Connecticut Medical Society, Hartford and American Medical associations, and New Haven County Medical Association (on executive committee); attended St. John's Episcopal Church, West Hartford.

Death, due to streptococcus septicemia, followed an operation for appendicitis and occurred at the Hartford
Hospital. Buried in In Memoriam Cemetery, Wallingford. Survived by wife, son, daughter, mother, and four brothers, Leon and Herbert Sweet, both of Lebanon, Henry Sweet, of Norfolk, Conn., and Clifton Sweet, of Burlington, Vt.

Henry Daggett Hooker, B.A. 1912.

Born January 25, 1892, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died October 26, 1929, in Columbia, Mo.

Father, Henry Daggett Hooker, a non-graduate member of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Class of 1884; an architect; son of Commander Edward Hooker, U. S. N., and Esther Ann (Battey) Hooker, of Brooklyn. Mother, Mary Theodora (Davenport) Hooker; daughter of Julius and Mary Ann (Bates) Davenport, of Brooklyn. Yale relatives include: John Davenport, a member of Yale Corporation 1714–1731 (great-great-great-great-great-grandfather); Henry Daggett (B.A. 1771) (great-great-grandfather); Edward Hooker (B.A. 1805) (great-grandfather); John Hooker (B.A. 1796) (great-great-uncle); John Hooker (B.A. 1837) (great-uncle); William B. Davenport, '67 (uncle); and Thomas Hooker, '08, and Joseph K. Hooker, '09 (cousins).

Polytechnic Preparatory School, Brooklyn, and Hotchkiss School Second Barge Prize in mathematics Freshman year; honors and oration appointment Junior year; honors in natural sciences and philosophical oration appointment Senior year; vice-president of University Chess Club Senior year (won Dimock Chess Cup) and on Intercollegiate Chess Team; member Sigma Xi and Phi Beta Kappa (awarded Borden Fellowship Senior year).

Studied at University of Strassburg 1912–13, continued graduate work at Yale 1913–15 (M.A. 1913, Ph. D. 1915); during that period acted as an assistant in plant physiology for a year (1914–15); instructor in botany at Yale 1915–18, worked under Gas Defense Service, U.S. Bureau of Mines, in New Haven September, 1917–September, 1918, when commissioned as a First Lieutenant in the Chemical Warfare Service; served at the laboratory at Puteaux sur Seine September 30–December 3, 1918, and given his discharge December 27, subsequently entered the Reserve as First Lieutenant, Chemical Warfare Service, and was promoted to Captain November 19, 1923, and to Major February 15, 1929; since January 1, 1919, had been connected with the University of Missouri as assistant professor of horticulture to August 31, 1920, and since then as associate professor of horticulture; served on the Division of Biology and Agriculture of National Research Councils 1922, 1923, and 1924; secretary 1920–21, councilor 1923, and chairman 1924 and 1925 of University of Missouri section of American Chemical Society; secretary 1925–27, vice-president 1927–28, and president 1928–1930 of University of Missouri chapter of Sigma Xi, editing its lectures on Growth (published by Yale University Press in December, 1928); co-author of The Fundamentals of Fruit Production (1922) and Orcharding (1927); at time of death was completing the manuscript of a book on plant chemistry; contributor to Science, Plant World, Torrey Bulletin, Annals of Botany, Entomological News, American Naturalist, Journal of Experimental Zoology, American Journal of Physiology, Journal of Industrial and Engineering Chemistry, Journal of Pomological and Horticultural Science, Proceedings of American Society for Horticultural Science, and Proceedings of National Academy of Science; fellow American Association for the Advancement of Science; member American Botanical Society, American Society for Horticultural Science, Missouri State Horticultural Society, Alpha Chi Sigma (honorary chemical society), Gamma Alpha (graduate fraternity, University of Missouri chapter), Gamma Sigma Delta (honorary agricultural society), and Clinton Avenue Congregational Church, Brooklyn

Married December 16, 1919, at Grosse Ile, Mich., Mary Douglas, daughter of Frederick Pope Anderson (B.A. Harvard 1864, M.D. Miami Medical College 1871) and Mary Campbell (Douglas) Anderson, who attended University of Michigan two years (1874–76) No children.

Death due to an accidental electric shock. Cremation took place in St Louis. Survived by wife, mother, and a brother, Davenport Hooker, '08 In his memory the Henry Daggett Hooker Fellowship Fund in Plant Physiology has been established at Yale by his mother.
Selden Palmer Spencer, B.A. 1912.

Born April 1, 1889, in St Louis, Mo
Died March 6, 1930, in Canton, China

Father, Selden Palmer Spencer (B.A. 1884, LL.B. Washington University 1886, M.A Westminster 1892, Ph.D. 1896, honorary M.D Missouri Medical Society 1897, LL D Westminster 1909), a lawyer; member of firm of Spencer & Donnell and Spencer, Donnell & MacDonald in St Louis, judge of 8th Judicial Circuit Court of St. Louis, professor of medical jurisprudence at Washington University and lecturer on law at University of Missouri, member Missouri Legislature and United States senator; president of Missouri Bar Association and of New England Society of St. Louis; vice-president of American Bar Association, and president general of Sons of the Revolution and president of its St. Louis chapter; son of Samuel Selden Spencer (B.A. 1848) and Eliza Deborah (Palmer) Spencer, of Erie, Pa. Mother, Susan Mary (Brookes) Spencer, a graduate of Lindenwood College in 1884, daughter of the Rev. James Hall Brookes (B.A. Miami 1853, D.D. Westminster and University of Missouri 1864) and Susan Ann Livingston (Oliver) Brookes.

Central High School and University School, St. Louis, and Hotchkiss School. Awarded Hugh Chamberlain Greek Prize at entrance; honors in studies of Junior year and second dispute appointment; rowed on Class Crew; member University Football and Crew squads and captain of Senior Giants Football Team; member Freshman Debating Union; leader of High School Boys’ Clubs; taught in Bethany Mission; member Psi Upsilon.

Studied at Washington University Graduate School 1912–13, receiving degree of M.A in 1915, Y. M. C. A secretary in Washington, D.C., 1913–14; head of English Department at Asheville School 1914–15; since 1915 had been engaged in missionary and educational work under the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, in China, except for a year (1921–22), when he took graduate work at Johns Hopkins, received degree of Ph.D. there in 1924; connected with the Mission in South China 1915–1926, during which period he taught science and English at the Noyes Memorial School in Canton 1915–1920 (became Union Middle School in 1919), was principal of East River Academy (the mission's boys' preparatory school) at Sheklung, and supervisor of Christian education in the East River District 1920–23, and taught part time at Pin Ying Middle School 1923–24; from 1924 until his death was associate professor of English literature at Lingnan University (formerly Canton Christian College) and since 1929, head of the department of psychology; in 1926 contributed a poem, "China, My Love Land," to Yale Alumni Quarterly for September.

Death due to a brain abscess. Buried in Lingnan University Cemetery, Canton. Survived by wife, five children, mother, and two brothers, J. Brookes Spencer, '10, and Oliver W. Spencer, '17

John Warwick Clark, B.A. 1913.

Father, Franklin Haven Clark (B A Harvard 1884, M.D. 1888), a physician and traveler. Mother, Mattie Lindsay (Poor) Clark; daughter of Major Richard Henry Poor of the Confederate Army and Mattie Lindsay (Stark) Poor. Cousin: Charles Carroll Glover, Jr., '10

Groton School Second honors in Freshman and Junior years, philosophical oration appointment Junior year; high oration appointment Senior year; managing editor of Yale Literary Magazine; contributor to Yale Daily News and Yale Courant, member Squash Team, Pundits, Elizabethan Club, Psi Upsilon, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Directly after graduation took a trip around the world, joined the American Ambulance Corps in November, 1915, and during the next two years served with Field Section 3 in the Vosges Mountains, at Verdun, Pont-a-Mousson, and Bois-le-Prêtre, and in Serbia; sent to French post at Koritsa,
Albania; and in French attack at Monastir; with French Army of Occupation in Greece, enlisted in the French Army in November, 1917, and ordered to Artillery School at Fontainebleau; graduated in February, 1918, and assigned Aspirant (Second Lieutenant) to 9th Battery, 36th Regiment of Artillery; in action at Bois de Chippy, Argonne, Verdun, Marne, Vesle River, Aisne, and Chemin des Dames; with French Army of Occupation at Mayence; appointed Sous-Lieutenant in November, 1918, and given his discharge in March, 1919; received Croix de Guerre at Verdun and again at Aisne; returned to the United States in April, 1919, and sailed for China in May and was agent for China Mutual Life Insurance Company, Ltd (a subsidiary of the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada), at Shanghai for two years; had since been agent for Kennedy, Burkill & Company, Ltd (also a subsidiary of the Sun Life Assurance Company), at Penang; member of Episcopal Church
Unmarried.

Death due to appendicitis and peritonitis. Buried in Penang. Survived by mother (now Mrs M Lindsay Poor Baker), a sister, Mrs Victor A. Hearne, of Charlwood, Surrey, England, and two brothers, Richard B Clark, of Freehold, N. J., and F. Haven Clark, of Boston.

Harold Merriman Deane, B.A. 1913.

Born October 24, 1891, in Waterbury, Conn
Died August 27, 1929, in Montreal, Canada

Father, Frank Benedict Deane; former inspector for New England Watch Company of Waterbury and now salesman for Tilden-Thurber Company (jewelers) in Providence, son of Elliot Benjamin and Margaret (Venton) Deane, of Waterbury. Mother, Kate Beers (Abbott) Deane, daughter of Anson Fletcher and Nancy (Merriman) Abbott, of Waterbury.

Taft School. Second Berkeley Premium in Latin composition Freshman year; honors in Freshman and Junior years, high oration appointment Junior and Senior years; member University Orchestra (librarian Senior year) and Beta Theta Pi.
Taught English, Latin, and mathematics at Robert College, Constantinople, 1913–17; clerk in American Legation at Berne, Switzerland, June, 1917–December, 1918; attached to American Commission to Negotiate Peace in Paris, December, 1918–June, 1919, appointed (after examination May 26, 1919) secretary of Embassy or Legation of class four September 5, 1919, assigned to Berlin October 29, 1919, and to Quito, Ecuador, August 3, 1921, with appointment as secretary of class three August 24, 1921, assigned to Tegucigalpa, Honduras, January 3, 1924, appointed foreign service officer of class seven July 1, 1924, and assigned as third secretary at San Jose, Costa Rica, July 12, 1924, appointed also consul and assigned to Valparaiso, Chile, June 16, 1925; appointed foreign service officer of class six August 31, 1925, assigned temporarily as second secretary at Santiago, Chile, April 20, 1926; consul again at Valparaiso September 9, 1926–November 28, 1927; had since been consul at Montreal; member Roman Catholic Church, Companion of Jesus, at Quito.

Married April 19, 1922, in Quito, Maria Luisa Plaza Espinosa (B.A. Providence College, Quito, 1916), daughter of Domingo Plaza Iglesias (B.A. Guayaquil University 1886) and Baroness Mary Espinosa Rau von Holzhausen (B.A. Sacred Heart College, Ecuador, 1897) One daughter, Maria Luisa Josephine.

Death due to asphyxiation. Buried in Riverside Cemetery, Waterbury. Survived by wife, daughter, father, stepmother, and a half brother, Donald Knox Deane, and two half sisters, the Misses Marion Venton and Gertrude Lois Deane, of Cranston, R. I.

Frederick Benjamin Kaye, B.A. 1914.
(formerly Kugelman)

Born April 20, 1892, in New York City.
Died February 28, 1930, in Boston, Mass.

Father, Julius Gustav Kugelman; president of Mill Factors Corporation, senior partner in firm of Kugelman, Frankland & Foreman, bankers, New York City; vice-president of Forty-second Street Property Owners Association; former vice-president of Stern Brothers and former commissioner of municipal statistics, New York City; born in Hamburg, Germany, and came to America in 1874; son of Gustav and Charlotte (Emden) Kugelman, of Hamburg. Mother, Carrie (Stern) Kugelman; daughter of Meyer Abraham and Sophia (Rosenstock) Stern, of Albany, N. Y. Cousins: Melville A. Stern, '02, Robert B. Stearns, '10, and Louis Stern, 2d, '31. Columbia Grammar School, New York City, and Phillips-Andover. Entered Yale with Class of 1913, but stayed out of college for a year on account of illness and joined Class of 1914 in fall of 1911; third honors Freshman and Junior years, oration appointment Junior year; high oration appointment Senior year; contributed to Tale Literary Magazine, Record, and Courant, member Intercollegiate Debating Team, Pundits, and Phi Beta Kappa.
Tale College

Took graduate work in English at Yale 1914–17, receiving degrees of M.A. in 1916 and Ph D in 1917, instructor in English at Northwestern University 1917–18 and returned to that position when released from active duty in the Navy in 1919; assistant professor of English there 1923–26, associate professor 1926–29, and professor from 1929 until death, entered U. S. Naval Reserve Force as Storekeeper (3d Class) May 23, 1918; advanced to Chief Storekeeper September 26 and attended Officers' Material School for the Pay Corps at Princeton October 1–November 30, 1918; commissioned as Ensign in the Pay Corps December 17, and was on duty in New York until February 15, 1919, and then on board the U.S.S. "Madawaska" until May 13, 1919, when put on inactive list; edited Bernard Mandeville's Fable of the Bees (published by Oxford Clarendon Press 1924), author of monographs in Mid-West Quarterly, New Republic, Nation, Modern Language Notes, Studies in Philology, and Journal of English and Germanic Philology; in 1927, in collaboration with Professor Crane of the University of Chicago, issued a Census of British Newspapers and Periodicals, 1629–1800; member Authors Club of London and Bibliographical Society of England

Unmarried.

Death, due to chromophobe adenoma of the pituitary gland, followed an operation for pituitary tumor at the Peter Bent
Obituary Record

Brigham Hospital Buried in Cypress Hills Cemetery, Brooklyn, N.Y. Survived by father and a sister, Mrs. Sam Schiffer, both of New York City.

Warren Jay Keyes, B.A. 1914.

Born June 1, 1893, in Terre Haute, Ind
Died October 1, 1929, in New York City

Father, Jay Hiram Keyes; president of Standard Wheel Works of Terre Haute; vice-president of Kentucky Lumber Company; treasurer of American Wheel Company; son of Horatio and Maria (Smith) Keyes, of Terre Haute; Mother, Annie Whitcomb (Warren) Keyes; daughter of William Bowen and Susan Frances (Whitcomb) Warren, of Terre Haute; Cousins Larz A Whitcomb, ’94, and William A Whitcomb, ’95 S, and his son, John M. Whitcomb, ’30.

Classical School, Terre Haute; and Phillips-Andover. Sang in Freshman and Apollo Glee clubs and University Choir; member Freshman Tennis Team, University Swimming Team, Yale Corinthian Yacht Club, and Zeta Psi

Studied at Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration 1914–16 (M.A. 1916); auditor in accounting department of American International Corporation, New York, 1916–17, commissioned as Second Lieutenant, Ordnance Department, November 9, 1917, and stationed in office of Chief of Ordnance in Washington, D.C., engaged in work of calculating artillery ammunition requirements until September 20, 1918, when he went overseas; assigned to duty in Regimental Division of Ordnance Department and conducted troops from Tours to Blois until February 12, 1919; then assisted in liquidation of contracts with the British Government in London until April 14, when he returned to the United States; promoted to First Lieutenant February 17, 1919; given his discharge May 1, 1919; auditor and accountant with G Amsinck & Company, a subsidiary of the American International Company, 1920–22; treasurer of Sonora Phonograph Company, Inc., New York, 1922–28; vice-president and treasurer of Charles Freshman Company, Inc., New York, June, 1928–August, 1929, when the name was changed to Earl Radio Corporation, of which he continued as vice-president, treasurer, and a director until death; affiliated with the Congregational Church in Terre Haute.

Death due to a nervous breakdown from overwork, which caused him to take his life. Buried in Warwick (N.Y.) Cemetery. Survived by wife, two sons, and mother.

Franklin Head Perkins, B.A. 1916.

Born September 4, 1894, in Chicago, Ill.
Died October 21, 1929, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, Herbert Farrington Perkins, '87; president of International Harvester Company of Chicago, Wisconsin Steel Company, and Wisconsin Lumber Company; director of Continental & Commercial Bank, Chicago Savings Bank & Trust Company, and United Coal Mining Company; son of the Rev. George Augustus Perkins (B.A Bowdoin 1849), who graduated at Bangor Theological Seminary, was a graduate student in Sheffield Scientific School 1861–63, and was pastor of various churches in New England, and Sarah Elizabeth (Farrington) Perkins Mother, Margaret Dana (Head) Perkins; daughter of Franklin Harvey Head (B.A Hamilton 1856, LL.B 1858, LL.D. 1896) and Catherine (Durkee) Head, of Chicago. Uncle: William A Perkins, ex-'88 D.

Chicago Latin School and Hotchkiss School. Second division honors Freshman year; third division honors and high oration appointment Junior year and high oration appointment Senior year; went out for basketball, football, track, and cross country and took part in Boys' Club work, member Freshman Mandolin Club, University Lacrosse Team, Beta Theta Pi, and Yale Battery.

Salesman for Hickman, Williams & Company of Chicago (makers of pig iron) 1916–17, enlisted May 15, 1917, and attended Officers' Training Camp at Fort Sheridan, Ill., commissioned as a Second Lieutenant of Field Artillery.
August 15, 1917, and assigned to Battery B, 331st Field Artillery; stationed at Camp Grant, Ill., until May, 1918, and then at Camp Robinson, Wis., until September; overseas September 29, 1918, and stationed at Camp Hunt, France, and elsewhere until February 5, 1919; given his discharge February 20, became connected with International Harvester Company at their tractor works in Chicago March 17, 1919, and was enrolled in the progressive student course of its automotive works, specializing in heat treating, carbonizing, and foundry practices, until October, 1922; was then transferred to the purchasing department of the general office, where he served as a buyer until April 30, 1923, when obliged to give up active work on account of ill health; lived in Ojai, Calif., May, 1923–July, 1929; trustee of Ojai Public Library from 1927; treasurer of Community Arts Association 1929; president of Community Chorus 1927–28; vice-president of Tennis Association 1927–29; roll call chairman of the Red Cross 1927; secretary of board of trustees of Ojai Valley Presbyterian Church 1927–29 and chairman of building committee for the new church 1928–29; conducted a column in The Ojai, under the pseudonym of “Harlequin” 1927–28 and also contributed special articles to it; collaborated with Frank Gerard in a description of the Ojai Valley under the title of Ojai, the Beautiful (published in booklet form 1927).

Married November 3, 1921, in Chicago, Margaret Shortall (B.A. Radcliffe 1918), daughter of John Louis Shortall, Massachusetts Institute of Technology ex-’87, and Mary (Carter) Shortall. One son, John Shortall.

Death, due to Hodgkins disease, occurred at the Passavant Hospital Buried in Green Ridge Cemetery, Kenosha, Wis. Survived by wife, son, parents, and three sisters, Helen Perkins Knight (B.A. Smith 1918), the wife of Francis M. Knight, ’12, Margaret Perkins Bliss (B. A. Smith 1918), the wife of Earle F. Bliss (Ph.B Brown 1912), and Elizabethe Perkins, Smith ’31
Louis Goetter Bernheimer, B.A. 1917.

Born December 5, 1894, in New York City
Died January 10, 1930, in Los Angeles, Calif

Father, Sidney Bernheimer; senior partner in firm of Sidney Bernheimer & Company, selling agents for Pawtuxet Valley Printing Company and Clifford Manufacturing Company (cotton goods), New York City; son of Samuel and Henrietta (Cahn) Bernheimer, of Port Gibson, Miss Mother, Fannie (Goetter) Bernheimer; daughter of Joseph and Leonora (Ezekiel) Goetter, of Montgomery, Ala, and sister-in-law of Emile Godchaux, '96 and '98 L., and Manfred W. Ehrich, '98.

Gunnery School. Went out for Freshman football, engaged in work of Hope Mission; contributed to Yale Literary Magazine; member of Yale Battery, during the summer of 1916 training for the Artillery at Tobyhanna.

Attended first Officers' Training Camp at Plattsburg, where he entered the Air Service in June, 1917; went overseas as a Cadet with 88th Air Squadron November 1, 1917, commissioned as a First Lieutenant at Issoudun January 12, 1918; served as flight commander of 88th Aero Squadron February 22–November 11, 1918; saw active service in Toul Sector, at Château-Thierry and St.-Mihiel, and in Argonne-Meuse offensives; pilot of a photographing expedition at Fismes August 11, for which awarded the Distinguished Service Cross on January 11, 1919; also received citations entitling him to a silver star October 20, 1918, and to an oak leaf November 2, 1918; returned to the United States January 5, 1919, and given his discharge January 11; in March, 1919, made a Chevalier of the Belgian Order of the Crown, received a medal for aviation from the State of New York and one from the Aero Club of America; partner in Sidney Bernheimer & Company 1920–22, engaged in writing for Sunday Magazine department of New York World 1922 and had since spent his time in traveling and writing, living abroad the greater part of the time

Married (1) February 6, 1920, in New York City, Mary, daughter of Herman Ellis Mr. and Mrs Bernheimer were later divorced. Married (2) June 19, 1923, in Greenwich, Conn, Lillian Kemble, daughter of Frank Kemble Cooper, of London, England, and May (Taunton) Cooper. No children by either marriage.

Death due to injuries received in a fall from a window. Buried in Salem Fields Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, parents, and a sister, Miss Leona Bernheimer, all of New York City.

Born December 31, 1893, in New Haven, Conn
Died February 25, 1930, in Stratford, Conn

Father, Richard Francis Phelan; foreman painter with signal department of New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, son of Jeremiah and Catherine (Moore) Phelan, of Clonmel, County Tipperary, Ireland. Mother, Ellen Agnes (McDermott) Phelan; daughter of Thomas and Ellen Agnes (Trench) McDermott, of Derby, Conn.

New Haven High School During his college course also studied in Yale School of Medicine 1915-17 (member Alpha Kappa Kappa)

Enlisted January 10, 1918, for Medical Enlisted Reserve Corps, called to active duty October 19, and assigned to Tufts College, Medford, Mass; served as a private Company C, Tufts College, Students' Army Training Corps; discharged December 11, 1918; M.D Tufts 1919; house physician at St Elizabeth's Hospital, Boston, 1918-19 and interne and ambulance surgeon at St. Mary's Hospital, Boston, January-November, 1920; since 1921 had practiced medicine and surgery in Stratford and Bridgeport, with office in Stratford; member of surgical staff of St Vincent's Hospital, Bridgeport, since 1921; medical examiner for the coroner of Fairfield County since 1923; during September and October, 1927, traveled abroad and attended surgical clinics at the American Hospital in Paris and in Rome, member Anderson-Dunn-Koehiss Post, American Legion, of Stratford, American Medical Association, Connecticut Medical Society, and St James (Roman Catholic) Church, Stratford.

Married September 8, 1926, in New York City, Virginia.
Ann, daughter of Clifford and Grace Veronica (Clarey) Davis. No children.

Death due to lobar pneumonia. Buried in Mount St Peter's Cemetery, Derby, Conn. Survived by wife, parents, and three brothers, George Phelan, of New Haven, and Harold R. and Edward Phelan, both of West Haven.

Archibald Graham McIlwaine, Jr., B.A. 1918.

Born November 20, 1895, in New York City
Died August 21, 1929, in Biarritz, France

Bovee School, New York City, Fay School, Southboro, Mass., and St. George's School, Newport, R. I. Member Hockey Team two years and Class Crew; won University Golf Championship 1914; went out for baseball; member Sword and Gun Club, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key. Private in Battery A at Tobyhanna summer of 1916, left college in March, 1917, and enlisted as Machinist's Mate (1st Class) in U. S. Naval Reserve Force March 24; trained at West Palm Beach, Fla., and at Huntington, N Y, where commissioned Ensign, Naval Aviation, August 31, 1917, overseas September, 1917, with 1st Naval Aviation Detachment; at French Seaplane School, Hourtin, and U. S. Aviation School, Clermont-Ferrand; Chief Pilot, U S Naval Aviation Station, Montchic; promoted Lieutenant (j.g.) March 4, 1918, and Lieutenant January 17, 1919; attached to Royal Air Force Squadron 217; represented Northern Bombing Group at Paris office; in testing work on U.S S "Texas", released from active duty January 21, 1919; awarded the Navy Cross October 23, 1920; received degree of B A honoris causa in June, 1919, with enrollment in Class of 1918.

Salesman for William A. Read & Company, bankers, in Albany, N. Y., 1919-1920; assistant to the sales manager of
Obituary Record

Dillon, Read & Company (successors to William A. Read & Company) in New York City 1920–28, general partner in New York Stock Exchange firm of Toerge & Schiffer January–December, 1928; associated with Henderson & Company, member of New York Stock Exchange, since February 1, 1929; Class agent for Alumni University Fund since 1922.

Married June 19, 1920, in Purchase, N. Y., Caroline Hicks, daughter of William Augustus and Caroline Hicks (Seaman) Read, and sister of Curtis S Read, '18, and Dr R. Bartow Read, '20. Children: Archibald Graham, 3d, and John Curtis.

Death, due to an ulcer of the stomach, followed an operation. Buried in Rural Cemetery, Southampton, N. Y. Survived by wife, two sons, stepmother, a sister, Mrs. Howard Gibb, of West Hartford, Conn, and a half brother, David R. McLlwaine, '31.

Sidney Lockwood Lyon, B.A. 1919.

Born October 14, 1895, in Bridgeport, Conn.

Died April 14, 1930, in New Haven, Conn.

Bridgeport and DeWitt Clinton (New York City) high schools and Phillips-Exeter DeForest scholar Freshman and Sophomore years; on Freshman Track Squad and went out for crew; sang on Freshman Glee Club; advertising representative of Yale Daily News; took part in Boys' Club work
Tale College

Freshman and Sophomore years; member Delta Kappa Epsilon. Connected with Winchester Repeating Arms Company in various positions during summer of 1916 and 1917 (apprentice there 1913-15).

Commissioned as a Second Lieutenant of Ordnance May 21, 1917, called to active service December 1, and assigned to Artillery Ammunition Section of Ordnance Department at Washington, transferred to Machine Gun and Small Arms Section at Springfield (Mass.) Armory in February, 1918, and demonstrated Browning Machine Gun at various cantonments; from July to October, 1918, with Experimental Department of Ordnance Department at Blandford, Mass, and with Metallurgical Section at Washington; transferred to the Infantry in October, 1918, and served with 33rd Machine Gun Battalion, 11th Division, at Camp Meade until given his discharge January 22, 1919; received degree of B.A honoris causa in fall of 1919; clerk in contract agent's office of New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad in New Haven during winter of 1919-1920 and then with sales department of Winchester Repeating Arms Company in New Haven until February, 1921; storekeeper for Safety Car Heating & Lighting Company in New Haven 1921-23; had since been salesman for the following companies: The Atwell Company of Boston, New England distributors of the Ediphone January, 1923-June, 1925, Index Visible (which consolidated with Rand Kardex) June-October, 1925, Blue Ribbon Garage, Inc., dealers in Dodge Brothers cars, in New Haven October, 1925-June, 1926, and Hincks Brothers & Company, investment brokers, in New Haven since then; director of The Connecticut Commercial Travelers' Accident and The Nutmeg State Commercial Travelers' Health associations since January 1, 1930; member Hamden (Conn.) Zoning Board of Appeals 1929 and 1930; member Hamden Post No 88, American Legion, and First Church of Christ (Scientist), New Haven.

Married September 11, 1920, in Hartford, Conn., Carolyn Hanmer, daughter of Clarence Maxwell and Mary Anne (Hanmer) Rodgers. Children. Margaret Rodgers, Lockwood, and Mary Elizabeth

Death, due to diabetes, occurred in Grace Hospital. Buried in Mountain Grove Cemetery, Bridgeport. Survived by wife, two daughters, son, father, and mother, who is now the wife of Harold M. Gould, ’07 S.

Howard Waldron Waterman, B.A. 1920.

Born September 3, 1899, in Valatie, N. Y.
Died December 4, 1929, in Albany, N. Y.

Father, Theodore Howard Waterman; president of Knickerbocker Milling & Grain Company; director of Albany Trust Company; member Chicago Board of Trade; son of Jeremiah and Mary (Waldron) Waterman, of Albany.

Mother, Grace Edith (VanAntwerp) Waterman; daughter of William Meadon and Suzanne (Irwin) VanAntwerp, of Albany.

Albany Academy and Taft School. Scholar of the third rank Freshman and Junior years; dissertation appointment Junior year; on Freshman Cross Country Squad and on University Track Team Sophomore and Junior years and University Relay Team Junior year; won third place ribbon in two mile event at Yale-Harvard-Princeton meet 1918, and first place medal at Yale-Harvard meet and second place medal at Yale-Princeton meet 1919; awarded two first prize Willisbrook cups in two mile event 1918 and 1919 and also numerals and a “Y”; member Debating Team Freshman year; enrolled as a Private in Yale R.O.T.C. February, 1917, and in Field Artillery Unit of S.A.T.C. the next year until given his discharge December 15, 1918; left college at end of Junior year and was member of Class of 1923 at United States Military Academy 1919-1920; returned in the fall of 1920 and received degree of B.A. in June, 1921, with enrollment in Class of 1920.

Employed by Albany Lumber & Planing Mill Company, Inc., 1921-23; cashier with Albany general agency of Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company of Milwaukee 1923-25; taught various subjects at the Albany Academy 1925; engaged in writing of short stories 1925-26; contract clerk in the group department of Travelers Insurance Company of Hartford in Albany 1926-27; with Waterman & Company (investment securities) in Albany as statistician 1927–28, clerk January and February, 1929, and cashier March 1–September 30, 1929, when the company consolidated with W. T. Bonn & Company of New York under firm name of Waterman, Bonn & Company, with offices in New York and Albany; had since been manager of the Albany office; had a farm in the township of Schodack, N. Y., 1924–29 and was interested in reforestation; member Westminster Presbyterian Church, Albany.

Took his own life at the Albany Hospital, where he was to have undergone an operation. Buried in Albany Rural Cemetery. Survived by wife, son, mother, a brother, William Van A. Waterman, '06, and two sisters, Mrs Charles N. Waldron and Mrs Mills Ten Eyck, both of Schenectady, N. Y.

John Sidney Acosta, B.A. 1921.

Born December 13, 1898, in Jacksonville, Fla.
Died July 18, 1929, in Waverly, Ga.

Father, Tracy Lucien Acosta, University of Georgia ex-'82, state agent for Florida of Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia; member of Jacksonville Board of Public Works two years; son of Eustace John and Katharine Isabelle (Hatcher) Acosta of Blackshear, Ga. Mother, Cora (Bailey) Acosta; daughter of James Sylvester and Nancy (Sweat) Bailey, of Bailey's Mill, Ga.

Lawrenceville School. Captain of Freshman Football Team and member of University Football Team Junior and Senior years; on Freshman Track Team and University Track Team three years; had numerals and "Y" and won Willisbrook Cup for hammer throwing; on Student Council, and Sophomore German and Junior Promenade committees, treasurer of Southern Club, member Sword and Gun Club, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones. Joined Yale R.O T.C. in October, 1917, and served with it in New Haven and at Camp Jackson, S. C, until September 13, 1918, when commissioned.
as a Second Lieutenant of Field Artillery and assigned to 39th Training Battery at Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky, where he remained until given his discharge December 4, 1918.

Member of Florida Agency of Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company of Jacksonville from 1921 until death, associated with his father in the business under firm name of Tracy L. Acosta & Son 1921–27 and sole owner having active charge of the business under name of Tracy Acosta, Jr., 1928–29; during the period 1923–27 was inactive in the agency and was employed as a clerk in various departments of the Farmers Loan & Trust Company of New York 1923–25 and was vice-president of Central Farmers Trust Company at West Palm Beach 1925–26, served as coach of Duval High School Football Team in Jacksonville 1921–22 and of Freshman Football Team of the University of Florida in 1922; treasurer of Southern Club of Yale 1926; member Church of the Good Shepherd (Episcopal), Jacksonville.

Unmarried.

Killed in an automobile accident. Buried in Oaklawn Cemetery, South Jacksonville. Survived by parents, a brother, Tracy Acosta, '17, and a sister, Mrs. Charles Hamlin Black, Jr., of Tampa, Fla.

Horace Bushnell Cheney, Jr., B.A. 1922.

Born April 19, 1899, in South Manchester, Conn
Died March 1, 1930, in Hartford, Conn

Father, Horace Bushnell Cheney, '90 S., a silk manufacturer; vice-president and director of Cheney Brothers of South Manchester, chairman of legislative committee of Silk Association of America; director of United States Testing Company, Hartford Steam Boiler Inspection & Insurance Company, Ètna Insurance Company of Hartford, and Manchester Trust & Safe Deposit Company; son of Frank Woodbridge and Mary (Bushnell) Cheney, of South Manchester. Mother, Mary Caroline Ogden (Pierson) Cheney; daughter of Stephen Condit Pierson, '64, and Hannah (Latimer) Pierson, of Meriden, Conn. Yale relatives include: Abraham Pierson, first president of Yale (grand-uncle), and his son, the Rev.

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. Entered Yale with Class of 1921; student in Yale Graduate School 1921-22, and in November, 1922, received degree of B A. with enrollment in Class of 1922; rowed on Sophomore Crew in 1919 and on 150 pound Crew in 1920, winning his numerals and a sculling cap; member Beta Theta Pi; belonged to Yale R O.T.C. 1917-18 and commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the Field Artillery at Camp Jackson, S. C., September 13, 1918, attended Field Artillery Central Officers' Training School at Camp Zachary-Taylor, Ky., from September 25 until his discharge December 14, being assigned successively to the 39th and 12th Training Batteries.

After leaving Yale was connected with the Theatre Guild of New York until 1923, taking part in the production of "Peer Gynt"; also directed plays for numerous amateur organizations, including the Junior League of Montclair, N. J.; in 1923, with his wife, organized The Jitney Players, Inc (also called "The Theatre on Wheels"), a band of strolling actors, which had since played each year at various summer resorts in New England, New Jersey, and Long Island and during 1929-1930 made a winter tour of various cities; acted as director, manager, and president of the company, which he owned, and which, from time to time, included a number of Yale graduates; member the Little Theatre Guild.

Married April 1, 1923, in New York City, Alice Brayley, daughter of Francis Root and Grace (Brayley) Keating, of Buffalo, N Y. No children.

Death, due to thrombosis of left middle cerebral artery, following pneumonia and pleurisy, occurred in the Hartford Hospital. Buried in the Cheney Cemetery, Inc., of the East Cemetery, Manchester. Survived by wife, parents, two sisters, Mrs. Frank W. Crocker, of Boston, Mass., and Miss Hannah L. Cheney, of South Manchester, and two brothers, Stephen P. Cheney, ex-'27, and Roger W. Cheney, 3d, ’30.

Nathaniel Taylor Guernsey, Jr., B.A. 1922.

Born December 26, 1898, in Des Moines, Iowa.
Died December 17, 1929, in New York City

Father, Nathaniel Taylor Guernsey (B.A. 1881, LL.B 1883), a lawyer in Des Moines; formerly general counsel and vice-president of American Telegraph & Telephone Company in New York; now associated with law firm of Platt, Sanford & Walker as counsel; trustee of Equitable Life Insurance Company of Iowa; lecturer at Yale (in 1927), Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration, Brown University Business School, University of Pennsylvania Law School and Business School, Columbia University, and numerous other colleges, universities, and law schools; son of the Rev. Jesse Guernsey, Western Reserve ex-'46, a non-graduate member of the Yale Divinity School Class of 1845, who received degree of D.D. at Iowa College (now Grinnell) in 1870, and Elizabeth (Eaton) Guernsey, of Dubuque, Iowa. Mother, Martha Godman (Love) Guernsey, a special student at Helmuth College, London, Canada, 1879–1881; daughter of Henry King and Susan Florence Kingman (Otis) Love of Keokuk, Iowa. Yale relatives include a great uncle, Rev. Edward Dwight Eaton, ’75 D., and Dr. Samuel L. Eaton, ’77

Taft School Scholar of the third rank Junior year and oration appointment, oration appointment Senior year; member University Football Team one year and University Swimming Team three years; had numerals and a "Y" in both football and swimming and held two world records in the plunge, treasurer of Taft School Club, member Naval Training Unit at Yale in fall of 1918 and held rank of Seaman (2d Class) in U. S. Naval Reserve; member Alpha Delta Phi and Elihu Club.
Studied in Yale School of Law 1922–24 (LL B. 1924); during both years was assistant coach of Freshman Football Team; admitted to New York Bar 1924 and since October 1 of that year had been associated with law firm of Platt, Field & Taylor in New York City, at first as clerk and later in their practice; was to have become a partner in the firm on January 1, 1930; member executive committee of Yale Law School Association 1927–28; had been confirmed at Christ Episcopal Church, Watertown, while at the Taft School.

Unmarried

Death occurred at the Fifth Avenue Hospital; had undergone an operation for appendicitis and was apparently safely convalescent, when a clot of blood reached the heart and caused instantaneous death. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York City. Survived by parents and a brother, Otis L Guernsey, '16.

William Lohmeyer, Jr., B.A. 1922.

Born February 22, 1895, in Charleston, W Va
Died August 26, 1929, in Huntington, W Va.

Charleston High School B.S. Virginia Military Institute 1916 (awarded Jackson Hope Medal); B S. Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1921 (member Delta Tau Delta), attended Engineers School at Fort Leavenworth October, 1917–January, 1918; commissioned Second Lieutenant, Corps of Engineers, Regular Army, October 14, 1917; promoted to First Lieutenant in February, 1918, and to Captain June 25, 1918; with 4th Engineers at Camp Greene, N C , January–April, 1918, and overseas with that unit April 30, in action near Château-Thierry and in Aisne-Marne engagement; wounded July 19, 1918, and in Field Hospital at Soisson, Base Hospital 6, Bordeaux, Fox Hills Hospital, Staten Island, N. Y., Camp Sherman Hospital, Chillicothe, Ohio, and Fort Sheridan Hospital, Ill., until May 28, 1920; acted as Provost Marshal at Fort Sheridan in 1920; retired from active service on account of physical disability May 24, 1920, but held rank of Captain, U. S. A., retired, until death; entered Yale as a Senior 1921; oration appointment.

Studied at the Sorbonne, Paris, September, 1922–January, 1923, and at Christ Church, Oxford University, January, 1923–July, 1926 (M.A. 1926); studied in Harvard Graduate School of Arts and Sciences 1926–28, member Mayflower Society and St. John’s Protestant Episcopal Church, Charleston.

Death, due to nervous prostration caused by wounds, occurred in Huntington Neurotic Hospital. Buried in Spring Hill Cemetery, Charleston. Survived by wife and parents.

Edward Cutter Scheide, B.A. 1922.

Born December 23, 1899, in Orange, N. J.
Died January 20, 1930, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, William Cornell Scheide; of Wm. C. Scheide & Company, Inc., insurance agents, in Hartford; son of Hamilton Augustus Scheide (M.D. St. Louis Medical College 1865) and Virginia (Cornell) Scheide, of Milwaukee, Wis. Mother, Isabelle Jane (Cutter) Scheide; daughter of James Henry and Jane Anna (Beach) Cutter, of San Francisco, Calif.

Phillips-Andover (member of R.O.T.C. two years). Attended the Government Training Camp at Fort Terry, Plum Island, in 1916 and qualified as an expert rifleman, and in fall of 1918 was a Private in the Field Artillery Section of the S A T C. at Yale.

Clerical employee with Wm. C. Scheide & Company, Inc., 1922–25; secretary of the company since January 20, 1925; enlisted in U. S. Naval Reserve at Boston as Seaman (2d Class) for aviation duties June 3, 1926, trained at Squantum, Mass., until July 17 and at Hampton Roads, Va., August 15–September 28, 1926; commissioned Ensign for aviation duties, March 5, 1927, and trained at Squantum, Mass., November 17–December 1, 1927, at Pensacola, Fla., March 19–April 17, 1928, and at Rockaway, N.Y., August 23–September 6, 1928, on active duty as an instructor at the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, August 4–November 14, 1929, when released from active duty and his resignation accepted; appointed a naval aviator March 21, 1927, and when not on active duty was associated with VS-5 Squadron, U.S. Naval Reserve, New York City; member Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce of America.

Unmarried.

Joseph Austin Wright, Jr., B.A. 1923.

Born August 8, 1900, in San Marcos, Texas
Died January 7, 1930, in El Paso, Texas.

El Paso High School Member of Class of 1923 at University of Texas two years before entering Yale as a Junior in 1921; scholar of the third rank.

Traveled abroad for several months after graduation; engaged in farming at La Union, N. Mex., 1924–29; had also spent some time in writing

Unmarried
Obituary Record

Death due to encephalitis following influenza and pneumonia. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, El Paso. Survived by parents and a brother, Richard Joyce Wright, of El Paso.

Edward Pierpont Isham, B.A. 1925.

Born August 18, 1903, in Smithtown Branch, N.Y.
Died July 24, 1929, in New York City.

Father, Edward Swift Isham, ’91; engaged in electrical manufacturing and engineering business in New York City with General Incandescent Arc Light Company, Russell Electric Company, and Electrical Manufacturing Company; son of Edward Swift Isham (B.A. Williams 1857, LL.D. 1893) and Frances (Burch) Isham, of Chicago, Ill. Mother, Laura (Miller) Isham; daughter of Charles Addison Miller, ’59, and Mary Elizabeth (Ely) Miller, of New York City. Yale relatives include: James R. Ely, ’82 (great-uncle), and his son, David Jay Ely, ’13, Charles D. Miller, ’02, and James E.
Miller, ’04 (uncles); and Percy W. Knapp, 1931 (cousin).

St. Bernard’s School and Browning School, New York City, and St. Paul’s School, Concord, N. H. On Freshman Crew, Combination Crew Sophomore year, and Junior University
Crew Junior year; member Freshman Year Book board, Alpha Delta Phi, and R.O.T.C (commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in Field Artillery at graduation).

Studied at Harvard Law School 1925–28 (LL.B. 1928); clerk in law office of Simpson, Thacher & Bartlett (Philip G Bartlett, ’81) from October 1, 1928, until death; member Church of the Incarnation (Episcopal), New York.

Unmarried

Death, due to septicemia, occurred in St. Luke’s Hospital Buried in Dellwood Cemetery, Manchester, Vt. Survived by mother and two sisters, Mrs. Paul C. Colonna (B.A. Barnard 1925) and Miss Susan D. Isham, all of New York City.
Allen Edward Whiting, Jr., Ph.B. 1926.

Born November 18, 1904, in Philadelphia, Pa
Died July 4, 1929, in Radnor, Pa.

Mother, Elisabeth Harkness (Patterson) Whiting; daughter of James Willson Patterson (attended universities of Heidelberg and Munich 1859-1861) and Emma Elizabeth (Robb) Patterson, of Devon, Pa.

Yale relatives include: Charles S Heminway, '73, and Frederick S. Morrison, '80 (great-uncles); and Fred F. Bennett, '96 (uncle).

Attended Fessenden School, West Newton, Mass., and St Paul’s School, Concord, N. H. On Class Football, Hockey, and Swimming squads Freshman year, Class Hockey Team two years, and University Swimming Squad three years, sang in University Glee Club Senior year; member Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Attended Peterhouse College, Cambridge University 1926-28 (B.A. 1928; captain of Ice Hockey Team and member Swimming Team; member Hawks and University Pitt clubs), had since been employed as salesman with Townsend, Whelen & Company, brokers, in Philadelphia; member Old St David’s (Episcopal) Church, Radnor, Pa.

Unmarried
Killed in an automobile accident Buried in Old St David’s Cemetery, Radnor Survived by parents, and two brothers, Willson Whiting, '30, and John Robb Whiting, of Devon.

Born September 17, 1905, at Clifton Springs, N Y.
Died June 26, 1930, in Wichita, Kans

Father, William Seymour Edwards (B.A. Cornell 1879, LL.B. Columbia 1881, Litt D. West Virginia Wesleyan College 1912); owner and operator of coal mines and oil and gas wells in West Virginia, member and speaker of West Virginia

Gilman Country School, Baltimore, Md., and Phillips-Andover Member Freshman Track Team (won numerals), University Track Team Sophomore and Junior years (major "Y"), and University Track Squad Senior year.

Student in Yale School of the Fine Arts (second year class, Department of Architecture) 1928–29; graduate student in aeronautical engineering at Stanford University, 1929–1930, having charge of the extension and base flying field in collaboration with Lewis Deming Hobart, ex-'31 Art; member American Amateur Athletic Association; had been confirmed at St. John’s Episcopal Church, Mount Washington, Md

Unmarried

Killed in an airplane accident, while on his way east from California Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by mother and two sisters, the Misses Katharine Dagmar and Hildegarde Edwards, both of Brooklyn.

Richard Martin Paskus, B.A. 1928.

Born May 7, 1908, in New York City
Died March 1, 1930, in Washington, N. Y

Father, Martin Paskus, College of the City of New York ex-'93, LL B. New York University 1893; a lawyer; member of firm of Paskus & Cohen and later of Paskus, Gordon & Hyman, son of Jacob and Augusta (Teschner) Paskus, of New York City. Mother, Elsie Kubie (Bamberger) Paskus, Hunter College ex-’88, daughter of Emanuel and Jennie (Kubie) Bamberger, of New York.

Ethical Culture School, New York City, and Phillips-Andover. Had a second rank three years and received honors in history; high oration appointment Junior and Senior years; Donald Annis Prize in English and German and Andrew D. White Prize in European history Senior year; member Phi Beta Kappa.

At the time of his death was member of second year class in Yale School of Law; ranked second in his class during his first year; member of board of Yale Law Journal in his second year.

Unmarried.

Death due to a fractured skull received in an automobile accident. Buried in Union Cemetery, Brooklyn, N Y Survived by mother and a sister, Miss Elsie B. Paskus, both of New York City.

Woodbury Malcolm Ayers Saunders, B.A. 1928.

Born April 30, 1906, in Winchester, Mass
Died April 19, 1930, in Boston, Mass

Father, Antoine Beghin Saunders; transit manager in Merchants National Bank, Boston; born in Armentieres, France, and came to this country in 1881; son of John and Mary Joan (Greene) Saunders, of Lille, France. Mother, Florence Gifford (Ayers) Saunders; daughter of Albert Augustus and Rebecca (Woodbury) Ayers, of Jamaica Plain, Mass. Cousin: David G. Saunders, ’20

Winchester High School and Stone School, Boston. Elected to Playcraftsmen Freshman year; served as associate director Senior year, took part in several of their plays, and was the author of Genius, a one-act play presented by them in May, 1928; also member of cast of Macbeth, given by University Dramatic Association during Commencement week.

Student at the Episcopal Theological School at Cambridge from October, 1928, until his death; during this period taught history at the New Preparatory School of Cambridge and also had private pupils in Latin, French, Spanish, English, and mathematics; in March, 1929, was in cast of Vanity Fair, produced by members of the Little Theatre Guild of New Haven; member Church of the Epiphany (Episcopal), Winchester.
Obituary Record

Death, due to general peritonitis, occurred during an operation for acute gangrenous appendicitis at the Eliot Hospital. Buried in Forest Hills Cemetery, Boston. Survived by parents.

Charles Noyes deForest, B.A. 1929.

Born August 7, 1905, at Cold Spring Harbor, N. Y.
Died December 19, 1929, in Palermo, Sicily

Father, Henry Wheeler deForest (B.A. 1876, LL.B. Columbia 1878), partner in deForest Brothers, lawyers, in New York City; chairman of board of Southern Pacific Company, director and member of executive committee of Illinois Central and Delaware & Hudson railroads, Western Union Telegraph Company, Guaranty Trust Company, and various other corporations; chairman of executive committee of Pacific Oil Company; president of board of managers of New York Botanical Garden; son of Henry Grant deForest (B.A. Amherst 1839), who attended Yale School of Law 1840-41, and Julia Mary Brasher (Weeks) deForest, of New York City. Mother, Julia Gilman (Noyes) deForest; daughter of Charles Phelps Noyes, a soldier in 22d Regiment, New York Militia, in the Civil War, and Emily Hoffmann (Gilman) Noyes, of St. Paul, Minn. Yale relatives include: Robert W. deForest, '70 (uncle), and his sons, Johnston deForest, '96, and Henry L. deForest, '97; C. Reinold Noyes, '05 (uncle), and his son, Charles Phelps Noyes, 2d, '33; Robert H. Noyes, '08, and Laurance G. Noyes, '16 (uncles); and Henry deF. Weekes, '74, John Abeel Weekes, '77 S., Charles H. Ludington, '87, and his sons, C. Townsend Ludington, '19, Wright S. Ludington, ex-'22, and Nicholas S. Ludington, '27, William H. Ludington, '87, Winthrop G. Noyes, '91, Winthrop E. Dwight, '93, Charles N. Loveland, '94, and his sons, Charles N. Loveland, Jr., '29 S., and George Loveland, '32, D. Raymond Noyes, '05, John Crosby Brown, '15, William Adams Brown, Jr., '17, R. Sanford Saltus, Jr., '18, Winthrop N.
Tale College

Aiken (S. C.) Preparatory School and Groton School. Member Freshman 150 pound Crew, Class Crew Squad Sophomore year, Chi Psi, and Elizabethan Club.

Was traveling abroad with his parents at the time of his death; member Grace Episcopal Church, New York City.

SHEFFIELD SCIENTIFIC SCHOOL

William Wheelwright Skiddy, Ph.B. 1865.

Born April 26, 1845, in New York City
Died October 6, 1929, in Stamford, Conn.

Father, William Skiddy; educated in France; a Midshipman in U. S. Navy in War of 1812; captured by the English and imprisoned in Dartmoor Prison for several months; engaged in merchant marine business; later a marine architect, designing and operating clipper ships and side wheel steamers. Mother, Mary Ann (Anderson) Skiddy; daughter of an English barrister.

Anthon’s School, New York City, and General Russell’s Collegiate and Commercial Institute, New Haven Chemistry course; manager of University Crew Senior year; a founder of Book and Snake in 1865 and at time of death sole survivor of the seven founders (member of the board of directors of the Stone Trust Corporation, which controls its affairs, since the foundation of the corporation and president 1890–1920 and again since 1923).

Broker in office of his uncle, Francis Skiddy, in New York City 1866–68; engaged in coal business in New York with his brother-in-law, Edward A. Quintard, 1868–1875; since 1875 had been actively identified with Stamford Manufacturing Company and its successor (since 1919), the Cove Investment & Improvement Company, serving as president of the company 1887–1915 and since then as president and treasurer; director of The First-Stamford National Bank & Trust Company since 1884 and vice-president since 1905; an original director of the Stamford Trust Company in 1891, continuing as member of the board until 1921; a corporator of the Stamford Savings Bank in 1878, continuing as director until death; director of Stamford Gas & Electric Company from its formation in 1893 until 1896; Commissary General on staff of Governor Thomas A. Waller of Connecticut, with rank of Brigadier General, 1883–85; frequent delegate to State Democratic Conventions previous to 1896; delegate from Connecticut to National Democratic Convention 1884 and 1892 and alternate delegate 1896; member of St. John's Episcopal Church, Stamford, (vestryman 1878–1918, and junior warden 1905–1918, and during that period served as delegate of St. John's Parish to all of the Diocesan Conventions); chairman of the Conference of Church Clubs 1896–97 (organized in 1893; now has name of National Federation of Church Clubs of the United States); foundation member of Church Club of Connecticut 1892, vice-president 1897–98, and president 1898–99; member also of Grace Church, New York City, and at death president of its Men's Club and member of the executive committee of the Parish Council; represented the New York Diocese as treasurer at the General Convention; chairman of the committee in charge of Grace Church Summer Home for a number of years; trustee of the Church Club of New York 1911–14; treasurer of the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America since 1891; elected to board of trustees of the Boys' Club of New York 1900 and in 1902 made member of the house committee; vice-president of the club since 1906, member of the executive committee since 1900, and chairman of camp committee since 1920 (member of committee since 1913); one of the founders of Yale Alumni University Fund Association in 1890 and a director since then, serving as chairman of the board 1907–09; vice-president of Yale Alumni Association of Fairfield County, Conn., and president 1910–11; vice-president of Yale Club of New York; alumni fund agent for the Sheffield classes from 1854 through 1874; secretary of the Sheffield classes from 1854 through 1867; vice-president of Yale Association of Class Secretaries 1916–17; a governor of Yale Publishing Association 1919–1923; graduate adviser of rowing 1900–05; accompanied Yale Crew to England for the Henley Regatta 1896; member Yale Engineering Association, Society of the War of 1812, Society of Mayflower Descendants, St Nicholas Society of the City of New York, and Society of Colonial Wars in the State of New York.

Married April 25, 1867, in Stamford, Eleanor Mott, daughter of William Gay. Children: William Gay, ex-'92 (died in 1901), Lillie, the widow of Willard Parker, '90, and Adele W., the wife of Robert W. Carle, '97. Mrs. Skiddy died March 6, 1926.
Obituary Record

Death due to femoral thrombosis and myocarditis. Buried in Woodland Cemetery, Stamford. Survived by daughters and a granddaughter was the last survivor of his class.

Daniel Halsey Wells, Ph.B. 1867.

Born August 19, 1845, in Riverhead, N.Y.
Died July 17, 1929, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, Alden Wells, a farmer; son of John and Mehetabel (Tuthill) Wells, of Aquebogue, N.Y. Mother, Amanda Maria (Youngs) Wells; daughter of James and Amanda (Brown) Youngs, of Aquebogue Prepared privately, teaching himself Latin and Greek, with the assistance of a local minister. Engineering course.

Student in Yale Graduate School 1867–68 (C.E. 1868); assistant in mathematics at Yale 1867–1870 and instructor in civil engineering 1870–73 and in mathematics 1873–74; had since been connected with Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, clerk 1874–76; second assistant secretary 1876–78; assistant secretary 1878–1881; actuary 1881–July, 1917; during this period served also as secretary pro tem 1882–84, assistant secretary 1884–85, and actuary and assistant secretary 1885–1897; had been consulting actuary since July, 1917; charter member of Actuarial Society of America, of which he served as vice-president 1903–05 and as president 1906 and 1907; author: The Mortality Experience of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company (1881) and Tables Based on the American Table of Mortality and Three Per Cent Interest (1890), had contributed articles to the Transactions of the Actuarial Society of America; member First Church of Christ (Congregational), Hartford.

Married December 23, 1869, in Meriden, Conn., Martha Ann, daughter of Elias Keyes and Martha Cook (Culver) Breckenridge. Children: Clara Eugenia; Maud Eloise (B.A. Wesleyan 1895), the wife of Edgar Weeks; Ernest Alden (B.A. 1897, M.D. Johns Hopkins 1901) (died in 1927); Ralph Olney (B.A. 1901, LL.B. Harvard 1904); Donald Breckenridge (B.A. 1907, M.D. Johns Hopkins 1912); and Alden (Ph.B. 1907). Mrs Wells died November 4, 1928.
Death due to arteriosclerosis and broncho-pneumonia Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by two daughters, three sons, thirteen grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Jane F. Wells Reeves, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Leonard Strong Austin, Ph.B. 1868.
Born February 26, 1846, in Stratford, Conn
Died October 28, 1929, in Los Angeles, Calif

Father, Thomas Austin; born on Island of Demerara, West Indies, where he lived for over twenty years, educated in England; later lived in New York City for a short time and then in Stratford, engaged in the management of his private property; son of Dr. John Austin, a graduate in medicine at St. Andrews, Edinburgh, in 1803, and Mary (Redding)
Austin, of Essequebo, British Guiana Mother, Elvira (Reed)
Austin; daughter of John Grosscourt Reed, of Essequebo.

Stratford Academy. Mechanical engineering course.
Took graduate work at Yale 1868–69; subsequently engaged in mechanical engineering work for three years and later took up work in chemistry, mineralogy, and assaying, studying at Colorado School of Mines for three months in 1896; chemist with the Exploration Company on east coast of Patagonia 1877–79; chemist and foreman for Germania Lead Works 1880–86; superintendent of metallurgical plants in Rocky Mountain region 1886–1902, during this period having charge of a smelter at Wood River, Idaho, 1881–82, of a small plant at Pioche, Nev., 1882–83, and of the Germania Plant at Murray, Utah, about 1891–94; head of the Department of Metallurgy and Ore Dressing at Michigan College of Mines from 1903 until his retirement in 1909; had since lived in Salt Lake City, Utah, and Los Angeles; author: Metallurgy of the Common Metals (1906; fifth edition 1920) and The Fire Assay (1907); had contributed articles on the metallurgy of copper to Mineral Industry annually since 1903; also contributed to Appleton’s Year Book 1911–1920; honor member of American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers; member Mining and Metallurgical Society of America, In-
Obituary Record

Frederick Smillie Curtis, Ph.B. 1869.

Born February 8, 1850, in Stratford, Conn.
Died February 9, 1930, in Brookfield Center, Conn

Father, Calvin Curtis, a portrait painter; son of Stephen and Maria Lewis (Birdseye) Curtis, of Stratford, Conn. Mother, Elizabeth Augusta (Wieks) Curtis; daughter of Haviland and Mary (Scudder) Wicks, of Huntington, Long Island, and New York City. Yale relative: Nathan Birdseye (B A 1736) (great-great-grandfather).

Stratford Academy Chemistry and mining engineering course.

Graduate work at Yale 1869–1870, taught mathematics and science at West Chester (Pa.) State Normal School 1870–71; member of faculty of Swarthmore College, 1872–75, as instructor in chemistry 1872–73 and then as assistant professor in same subject; in 1875 founded the Curtis School for Young Boys, in Bethlehem, Conn, which he moved to Brookfield Center in 1883, and of which he had always been the head, member Brookfield Board of Education 1894–1915; trustee of Danbury (Conn.) Hospital 1915–1930; deacon Congregational Church of Brookfield since 1892; in 1902 served as moderator of State Conference of Congregational Churches, and in 1908 was a delegate to third International Council of Congregational Churches in Edinburgh; during the war served as chairman of War Savings Committee for Brookfield; member of Alumni Board since 1909; in 1921 elected member of council of Yale Alumni Association of Fairfield County; member National Institute of Social Sciences, Yale Engineering Association, and the League of Nations Association; charter member of American Eugenics Society, 1926.

Married October 29, 1873, in Stratford, Ida Jewell, daughter of Ezra and Mary Ann (Jewell) Whiting. Children: Chloe (B.A. Wellesley 1900), the wife of Herman N. Baker, '98; Gerald Beckwith (Columbia ex-'06); and Lawrence (B.A. 1913; D.D.S. University of Pennsylvania 1916, M.D. 1923).

Death due to arteriosclerosis and myocarditis, with pneumonia as a contributory cause. Buried in Union Cemetery, Stratford. Survived by wife, daughter, two sons, and eight grandchildren. A sister, Mrs. Elgin A. Angell, ex-'81 Art, died in 1927.

Albert Banks Hill, Ph.B. 1869.

Born May 28, 1847, in Redding, Conn.
Died January 2, 1930, in New Haven, Conn.

Attended schools in Redding and prepared himself for college, with the exception of one term at Mr Brown's School in Wilton, Conn.

Took graduate work at Yale 1869–1870 (C.E. 1870); instructor in engineering at Yale 1870–71; then became connected with Engineering Department of the City of New Haven, having charge of a party engaged in surveying the city; assistant engineer in charge of sewer construction 1872–
Obituary Record

1883; city engineer 1883-1892; had since been engaged in private practice as a civil and consulting engineer in New Haven; had been consulting engineer for New Haven Water Company, designed the swing bridge over the Norwalk River at South Norwalk, the steel arch bridges over Mill River, New Haven, Lake Whitney, Hamden, and Lieutenant River, Lyme, the suspension bridge over Lake Whitney, for the New Haven Country Club, and the stone arch bridges in East Rock Park, the East Rock, West Rock, and Beacon Hill Park drives, sewage systems for Danbury and Shelton, Conn., disposal works for Litchfield and Greenwich, Conn., electric railways in Norwalk, New Haven, Bridgeport, Fairfield, Derby, Cheshire, and Waterbury, Conn., and from Palmer to Ludlow and Springfield, Mass., and reservoirs, dams, stand-pipes, and pipe lines for New Haven Water Company, Bridgeport Hydraulic Company, and Birmingham, Greenwich, New Canaan, and Stamford Water companies, and the Water Department of the City of Meriden; president of Connecticut Society of Civil Engineers 1905 and director of American Society of Civil Engineers 1892, member New England Water Works Association, American Water Works Association, New Haven Chamber of Commerce, finance committee of Organized Charities Association of New Haven, Connecticut Academy of Arts and Sciences, and First Congregational Church Society of Redding.

Unmarried.

Death due to acute cardiac failure Buried in Uppawaug Cemetery, Redding. Survived by several nieces and nephews.

George Christopher Moore, Ph.B. 1873.

Born March 8, 1849, in Derby, Conn.
Died October 20, 1929, in New Canaan, Conn.

Father, William H. Moore, a farmer; member Company A, 13th Regiment, Connecticut Volunteers, during the Civil War, dying in service; parents came from Wales and lived in Bridgeport, Conn. Mother, Emeline (Baldwin) Moore; daughter of Isaac Stillwater and Susanna (Bassett) Baldwin, of Milford, Conn. Cousin: Eli Mix, '76 L.
Attended district school in Wallingford, Conn, and prepared himself for college in one year with the help of tutors. Mechanical engineering course

Draftsman or pattern maker at Birmingham Iron Foundry in Derby for a short time after graduation and then held a similar position with Norwalk (Conn) Iron Works until 1876, draftsman for Birmingham Iron Works again until about 1880; draftsman and assistant to the superintendent of F. C. & A. E. Rowland, machinists, in New Haven 1880-1906, when the firm went out of business; elected vice-president and secretary of its successor, Rowland Machine Company, and appointed mechanical engineer 1906 and remained in that connection until 1920, when the company was sold to Candee Rubber Company and he retired from active business, had been secretary of Class of 1873 S, since 1928; member Methodist Episcopal Church, Derby.

Married May 11, 1874, in Wallingford, Arabella Amelia, daughter of Selden and Ellen (Doolittle) Tuttle One daughter, Nettie Ellen (Mrs. James B. Bouck, Jr.) Mrs Moore died November 4, 1918.

Vincent Gilpin Hazard, Ph.B. 1874.

Born January 20, 1853, in Philadelphia, Pa
Died April 13, 1930, in Claymont, Del

Father, Willis Pope Hazard, who attended the University of Pennsylvania during 1839-1840 and received honorary degree of M.A. at University of Delaware 1882; a publisher and bookseller in Philadelphia; one of the originators and vice-president of the Book Trade Association; later engaged in breeding of pedigreed Jersey and Guernsey cattle, chief of Bureau of Agriculture of the Permanent Exhibition, following the Centennial, Philadelphia, president of Chadd’s Ford Farmers’ Club, vice-president American Dairymen’s Association and first vice-president Pennsylvania State Dairymen’s
Association, member of commission to revise the constitution of International Dairy Fair Association; Secretary Guenon Commission, and vice-president Microscopical Society of West Chester, Pa; lecturer on agriculture two years at University of Delaware (then Delaware College); son of Samuel Hazard, Princeton ex 1801, and Abigail Clark (Hatfield) Hazard, of Philadelphia Mother, Susan Robinson (Gilpin) Hazard, daughter of Vincent and Naomi (Robinson) Gilpin, of Philadelphia

Worral and Paulin School, West Chester. Mechanical engineering course

Connected with machine shop of John Roach, a ship builder, in Chester, Pa, for some time after graduation; since April, 1877, had been connected with Pusey and Jones Corporation (formerly Pusey, Jones & Company and Pusey & Jones Company), engineers, of Wilmington, Del.; employed as a draftsman at first, becoming foreman of the draftsmen who designed paper machinery; had been erecting engineer and an office executive, and, for a number of years before his death, field engineer in charge of paper machinery erectors in the United States, Canada, and foreign countries; special designer of paper mill machinery and paper mills; editor of The Super Calendar, a monthly trade paper published by the company, head of Wilmington Institute Drafting School (a night school for shop apprentices and others) several years and member of its board of managers over twenty years; member Central Presbyterian Church of Wilmington for some years, trustee 1892–1920, and secretary of the board of trustees 1906–1920; at time of death member of First-Central Presbyterian Church, of which he had been a trustee 1920–21; interested in the Boy Scouts and member of its Court of Honor, member Yale Engineering Association and National Rifle Association

Married (1) June 24, 1886, in Wilmington, Maria Denning, daughter of Nehemiah and Harriett Clark One daughter, Mary Pusey, the wife of Robert F. Brnton. Mrs. Hazard died January 1, 1894. Married (2) December 3, 1896, in Wilmington, his cousin, Anna Shipley, daughter of Edward Robinson and Elizabeth (Harvey) Gilpin No children by second marriage Mrs Hazard died March 14, 1921.
Death due to heart disease. Buried in Wilmington and Brandywine Cemetery, Wilmington. Survived by daughter and a sister, Mrs. William Jefferis, of Passaic, N. J.

Mercelon Sylvester Wilson, Ph.B. 1874.

Born March 3, 1850, in Fairfield, Conn
Died December 25, 1929, in Upper Montclair, N. J.

Father, John Albert Wilson, a farmer and teacher in Fairfield. Mother, Ruth Ann (Platt) Wilson, daughter of Josiah and Anna (Sherman) Platt, of North Easton, Conn. Nephew Charles S. Munson, '12.

Preparatory training received at the Suburban Home School, New Haven, where he taught for five years before entering Yale in 1872; took a special elective course. Taught Latin, history, and English at Flushing (N. Y.) Institute 1874–1883; had since been with the United States Civil Service as acting deputy collector at the New York Customs House; member of Board of Education of Upper Montclair and Montclair 1900–09; chairman of standing committee of Union Congregational Church, Upper Montclair, 1898–1906, a deacon 1906–1912, and assistant superintendent of its Sunday school 1904–09; a founder of the Commonwealth Club of Upper Montclair in 1904, an incorporator in 1906, and member of the council 1904–09; president of the Progress Club 1899–1902, contributor of prose and verse to periodicals, newspapers, and religious weeklies.

Death due to cerebral thrombosis. Buried in Mount
Obituary Record

Hebron Cemetery, Upper Montclair. Survived by wife, daughter, and three grandchildren.

George Reinard Kleeberger, Ph.B. 1875.

Born February 25, 1849, in Monticello, Wis.
Died December 12, 1929, in Berkeley, Calif

Father, George Philip Louis Henry Kleeberger, a farmer near Shullsburg, Wis., and at Apple River, Ill., and later a storekeeper; born in Germany. Mother, Harriet (Funk) Kleeberger.

Normal School, Platteville, Wis. Taught school for three years before entering Yale, serving as principal of the school at Manitowoc, Wis., and of the high school at Green Bay, Wis., one year each. Entered Sheffield Scientific School 1873; biology course; an editor of Yale Literary Magazine.

Taught science at Whitewater (Wis.) Normal School 1875-78; principal of public school in San Diego, Calif., 1878-79, and in Weaverville, Calif., 1879-1880, and of high school in Marysville, Calif., 1880-82, taught science at San Jose (Calif.) Normal School 1882-1895, and was vice-principal of the school from 1888, principal of St. Cloud (Minn.) Normal School 1895-1902 and of high school, Visalia, Calif., 1902-06; traveling salesman for Whitaker, Ray, Wiggin Company (school furniture), of San Francisco 1906-1910; retired from business for a time on account of ill health and lived in Tucson, Ariz.; served as an agent for Ætna Life Insurance Company 1925-29; author of articles on education and co-editor of a geography; member Academy of Sciences and Congregational Church.

Married April 19, 1879, in San Francisco, Mary Louise, daughter of the Rev. Lorenzo Allen and Nancy (Prime) Allen, of Minneapolis, Minn. Children: George (died in infancy), Ralph Allen (died in childhood); and Frank Louis (B.S. University of California 1908, M.A. 1915).

Death, due to arteriosclerosis and pernicious anemia, occurred in the Dickinson Sanatorium. Buried in Sunset View Cemetery, El Cerito, Calif. Survived by wife, one son, and a grandson.
Sheffield Scientific School

Thomas Howard Linsley, Ph.B. 1876.

Born December 18, 1854, in Meriden, Conn
Died March 7, 1930, in Turlock, Calif

Father, Randolph Linsley, a horticulturist; son of William Augustus and Abigail (Tyler) Linsley, of Meriden. Mother, Temperance Jennette (Bush) Linsley; daughter of Fenner and Eunice (Kirkland) Bush, of Meriden. Yale relatives: Noah Linsly (B.A. 1791) (great-uncle); and Jared Linsly (B.A. 1826), his son, Wilford Linsly, '66 S., and his grandson, Wilford W. Linsly, '10 (cousins).

Hopkins Grammar School. Civil Engineering course; member Book and Snake.

Assistant agent, with immediate charge of the ore docks, of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway at Escanaba, Mich., 1876-1881 and station agent at Ishpeming, Mich., 1881-83; from 1884 until his retirement from active business in 1928 had been engaged in the lumber business, auditor for Kirby-Carpenter Lumber Company at Evanston, Ill., and Menomnie, Mich., 1884-89; then engaged in retail lumber business under his own name until 1908, being located at Evanston until 1900, at Fortuna, Mo., 1900-02, Windsor, Mo., 1902-03, and Evanston again 1903-08; moved to Berkeley, Calif., in 1908 and was president and manager of Terminal Lumber Company of Oakland from 1910 to 1928; had made his home in Turlock since his retirement; member Oakland Lumberman's Association and First Congregational Church of Berkeley (member of Men's Forum).

Married September 24, 1884, in Escanaba, Sarah, daughter of Samuel Hart Selden (B.A. 1848) and Sarah (Lay) Selden, a granddaughter of Richard E. Selden (B.A. 1818), and a sister-in-law of Charles P. Coffin, '81. One son, Selden Randolph Mrs. Linsley died March 1, 1928.

Death due to chronic myocarditis Buried in the family plot in Turlock Cemetery. Survived by son, one grandson, and two sisters, the Misses Jessie E. and Nellie Linsley, of Escanaba.

1
Obituary Record

Ralph Augustus Harman, Ph.B. 1878.

Born December 9, 1857, in Cleveland, Ohio
Died December 12, 1929, in Cleveland, Ohio

Father, Ralph Hascall Harman, ship owner on the Great Lakes and engaged in iron manufacturing; son of Silas and Lucy (Wales) Harman, of Pulaski, N. Y. Mother, Helen (Kenyon) Harman; daughter of Sands Miles and Jane Maria (Chesboro) Kenyon, of Fulton, N. Y.

Mount Pleasant Military Academy. Civil engineering course; prize for excellence in German Freshman year, member Class Supper Committee Freshman year; member Graduating Committee and a Class historian Senior year; belonged to Sigma Delta Chi.

Associated with banking, manufacturing, and electric railroads until his retirement in 1922; founder of Cleveland Trust Company in 1894 and director until 1914; became a trustee of Cleveland City Forge & Iron Company 1878, assistant general manager 1888, vice-president and general manager 1903, and served as president 1909–1922; elected director of East Cleveland Railway Company and member of its executive committee 1893; director and member of executive committee of Cleveland Electric Railway Company, Inc. (a consolidation of East Cleveland Railway, Broadway & Newburgh Street Railway, Brooklyn Street Railway, and South Side Street Railway companies) and of its successor, the Cleveland Railway Company, 1893–1923 and vice-president 1901–03 and again 1911–1923; director of First National Bank 1904–1920 and of Union Trust Company of Cleveland 1920–22; director or officer of United States, Cuyahoga, and Federal Telephone companies, two building and loan associations, and three real estate and building companies; director of United Mines and California Mines corporations, Detroit United Railway, Cleveland & Eastern Railway Company, Eastern Ohio Traction Company, Illinois Traction Company, Avery Stamping Company (also vice-president and president), and Brown Hoisting Machinery Company; formerly affiliated with Protestant Episcopal Church; chairman of finance committee of Second Presbyterian Church many years and a trustee 1907–1920.
Married June 14, 1882, in Cleveland, Grace, daughter of Jesse Leighton and Mary Horton (Moore) Fleming. Children: Grace Fleming, the wife of S. Livingston Mather, '05; Sue Wade, the wife of John Peley, a graduate of the Imperial Royal Consular Academy of Vienna; Pearl (died in 1887); and Mary Helen, the widow of Donald McBride, '06 Mrs Harman died October 12, 1920.

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Lake View Cemetery, Cleveland. Survived by three daughters, seven grandchildren, and a sister, Mme Edouard Charpentier, of Paris, France.

Thomas Mastin Jacks, Ph.B. 1878.

Born October 14, 1855, in Helena, Ark
Died January 13, 1930, in Helena, Ark

Father, Thomas Mastin Jacks (M.D. Philadelphia School of Medicine 1851); physician in Helena; son of the Rev. David Jacks, a Baptist minister in Alabama. Mother, Lovie (French) Jacks, whose parents lived in New Albany, Ind.

Engaged in assaying at Leadville, Colo., 1878–79, had been engaged in engineering and surveying work almost continuously since 1880; rodman and assistant engineer of construction with Iron Mountain & Helena Railroad in eastern Arkansas 1880–81 and for Mississippi River levees in Arkansas and Mississippi 1881–83; partner in Jacks Wholesale Drug Company, Helena, 1883–87; resident engineer with Mobile & Birmingham Railroad in Alabama 1887–88; engaged in planting and wholesale grocery business in Helena 1889–1899; resident engineer with Arkansas & Chocktaw Railroad in Indian Territory at Dokesville, Choctaw Nation, 1900–01; division engineer of construction with Memphis, Helena & Louisiana Railroad of Missouri Pacific System 1902–03; had since been county surveyor of Phillips County, Ark, during which time laid out the historical base line of Arkansas, originally established at the time of the Louisiana Purchase; was also resident engineer with Mobile, Jackson & Kansas City Railroad for a time in 1905, spent the year 1905-06 in Los Angeles, Calif., and was resident construction engineer for the Virginia-Carolina Coast Railroad in Norfolk, Va., in 1906; member First Baptist Church, Helena.

Married December 23, 1884, in Helena, Lula Bee, daughter of William Thomas and Lucy Jane (Buckingham) Moore. Children: Claudine, who received a diploma in expression at Ouachita College in 1905; Thomas Harold; and Eugene Edward, who was a student in university extension teaching at Columbia 1920-21.

Instantly killed when struck by a train; was engaged in surveying some lots beside the railroad right of way, and not hearing the approaching train on account of deafness, stepped directly in front of it. Buried in Maple Hill Cemetery, Helena. Survived by wife, two sons, daughter, a sister, Mrs. Isaac J. Mayfield, of Fort Worth, Texas, and two half brothers, Dan W. Jacks, of Marianna, Ark., and Mastin E. Jacks, of Douglas, Ariz

Robert Wilson Patrick, Ph.B. 1879.

Born December 22, 1858, in Omaha, Nebr
Died April 30, 1930, in Omaha, Nebr

Father, John Nelson Hays Patrick, a lawyer; district attorney of Fayette County, Pa.; Second Lieutenant and Quartermaster of Nebraska Volunteers and First Lieutenant and Quartermaster of 5th Iowa Cavalry during Civil War; a Nebraska state senator; government director of Union Pacific Railroad; son of John and Eliza (Erskine) Patrick, of Uniontown, Pa. Mother, Eliza Dixon (Wilson) Patrick; daughter of Thomas and Mary Wilson, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Wilcox School, Stamford, Conn. Entered Sheffield Scientific School with Class of 1878, joining 1879 the next year; select course; honorable mention in German Senior year; member Theta Xi Studied law in office of James M. Woolworth in Omaha 1879-1880 and at Columbia next two years, receiving degree of LL. B. 1882; admitted to bar of Douglas County, Nebr, before entering Columbia Law School; practiced law in Omaha 1882–1914, being member of firm of Lindsay & Patrick 1885–86; assistant district attorney 1884–88; nominated for judge of District Court on Democratic ticket from 4th Judicial District 1911, but defeated at the polls; judge of Municipal Court of Omaha since 1914, becoming presiding judge January 1, 1924; member First Presbyterian Church, Omaha.

Unmarried.

Death due to chronic Bright's disease and cerebral apoplexy. Buried in Prospect Hill Cemetery, Omaha. Survived by a brother, John E. Patrick, '88 S.

Harold Roorbach, Ph.B. 1879.

Born August 6, 1857, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died May 19, 1930, in Orange, N. J

Father, Orville Augustus Roorbach; treasurer and secretary of Northern Railroad of New Jersey from about 1865 until his death in 1893; previously connected with the publishing firm of Putnam (later Putnam & Sons); son of Orville Augustus and Hannah Ann Eliza (Cropsey) Roorbach, of New York City and Charleston, S. C. Mother, Mary Underhill (VanZandt) Roorbach; daughter of the Rev. Washington VanZandt (ex-1827) and Cornelia Augusta (Hull) VanZandt, of New York City.

New York City Grammar School; attended the College of the City of New York for a time before entering Sheffield Scientific School with the Class of 1878, joined Class of 1879 in fall of 1878; select course; on editorial boards of Yale Courant and Yale Daily News; member Class Graduating Committee; vice-president and member of executive committee of Linonia in 1878; belonged also to Alpha Chi and Theta Xi.

Studied law at Columbia 1879–1882 (LL B. 1882) and during that period was a clerk in the law office of Huntley & Bauer in New York; admitted to New York Bar 1882, but never engaged actively in the practice of law; clerk in the office of the Northern Railroad of New Jersey for six weeks in 1882; in 1883 clerk in the publishing house of The Happy Hours Company, which he bought in 1884 and conducted under the firm names of Roarbach & Company (to 1889) and Harold Roarbach, dramatic publishers and booksellers, until 1902; circulation manager of the Metropolitan Magazine 1902-06; in 1906 representative of Frazer Paint Company of Detroit, Mich., for a time; manager of mortgage department for John N. Golding, a real estate broker, in New York 1906-07; connected with the manufacturing department of the Macmillan Company 1908-1920; assistant in the manufacturing department of Henry Holt & Company 1923-25; in the royalty department of Macmillan Company since 1926, having been given an indefinite leave of absence on account of illness in September, 1929, during 1921-22 attended a night school in New York and was valedictorian of the class at commencement, member Grace Episcopal Church, Orange.

Death due to acute cardiac dilatation. Buried in Rockland Cemetery, Sparkill, N. Y. Survived by wife and a sister, Miss Isabelle Roarbach.

Albert Lowry Webster, Ph.B. 1879.

Born August 3, 1859, in Orange, N. J.
Died March 24, 1930, in New York City

Father, Benjamin Crampton Webster; president of Lehigh Zinc Company, Jewett & White Lead Company, and John Jewett & Sons (until merged with National Lead Company); private secretary to Governor Morgan of New York during part of the Civil War; son of Orrin and Amelia (Danforth) Webster, of Litchfield, Conn. Mother, Eliza Campbell (Wilbur) Webster; daughter of Marcus and Catharine (Campbell) Wilbur, of Orange, N. J. Brother, Benjamin Webster, ’79.

Holbrook’s Military Academy (the Brarcliff School), Ossining, N. Y. Civil engineering course; honorable mention for excellence in physics and thesis at Commencement; member Alpha Chi and Berzelius.

Took graduate work at Yale 1879–1880, and served as an assistant in surveying and drawing; connected with U. S Geological Survey as an assistant topographer in Utah, New Mexico, and Nevada 1880–83; fellow by courtesy at Johns Hopkins 1883–84; spent 1884–85 abroad, chiefly in the office of W. H. Lindley, Stadtbaurat (city surveyor of buildings) at Frankfort-on-the-Main, Germany, as an associate in the design of the sewage disposal plant and waterworks of that city, during this period designed water tower in Warsaw, Poland, upon his return to New York in 1885, opened an office for the practice of his profession and incidentally pursued work in architecture at Columbia for a time; from 1885 until his retirement in 1926 was engaged as a consulting civil and sanitary engineer in New York City; expert sanitary engineer for Department of Public Works of the City of New York 1888 and 1889; on board of organizers of Tenement House Department 1897; expert for Tenement House Commission 1901; consulting engineer for Property Owner’s Committee in the matter of the slide in Park Avenue Subway Tunnel, for construction of water main and sewers in the extension of Riverside Drive, and for many New York buildings, among them the Grand Central Terminal, New York County Courthouse, Postal Telegraph building, Bellevue Hospital group, Public Library, Woolworth, Municipal, and Equitable buildings, Barnard College, Brooklyn Y M.C.A, Mount Sinai Hospital, and New York Infirmary for Women and Children; consulting expert in connection with various other projects, such as the construction of the sewerage plant at Hampton Institute, the Esmeralda Water Company, Goldfield, Nev, and the Carnegie building and the Carnegie Institute, Pittsburgh; C.E. Yale 1893; member American Society of Civil Engineers, American Public Health Association, American Association for the Advancement of Science, Philosophical Society of Washington, Franklin Institute, and Century Association; during the war served as chairman of committee on drinking water for sanitary committee of Council of National Defense; member executive committee of Yale Engineering Association 1917–1920 and 1922–24; member subcommittee on plumbing of Building Code Committee for the United States, appointed in 1921 by Herbert Hoover, then Secretary of Commerce; author: various reports and monographs for the United States Geological Survey, Principles of Modern Plumbing Practice (1901), and Caleb and the Friendly Animals, a story for children (with illustrations by himself) (1928); contributor of articles on technical sanitary subjects to various scientific periodicals.

Married June 1, 1897, in New York City, Mary Say, daughter of Cyrus Jay and Emily Amelia (Hoe) Lawrence. Children: Benjamin Lawrence, ex-'20 S., who studied architecture in the School of the Fine Arts of the University of Pennsylvania 1919–1923, and Aileen (B.A. Vassar 1923).

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Rosedale Cemetery, Orange, N. J. Survived by wife, son, and daughter.

---

Ernest Theophilus Liefeld, Ph.B. 1880.

Born February 8, 1860, in New Haven, Conn.

Died June 10, 1930, in Berne, Switzerland

Father, Charles Augustus Liefeld, a merchant in New Haven; deacon in German Baptist Church; born in Ludwigfelde, Germany, and came to America in 1855. Mother, Caroline Frederika (Ruden) Liefeld; daughter of Karl Friedrich Ruden, of Siethen, Germany. Yale relatives: Edward J. Rungee, '00 S., William C. Rungee, '03 L., Benjamin F. Rungee, ex-'04 Mus, William B. Lipphard, '08, and Harry A. Rungee, '12 (nephews), and Julia M Rungee Sherman, ex-'04 Mus (the wife of Charles P. Sherman, '96) (niece).

New Haven High School. Select course; prize in German Freshman year and honorable mention in German Senior year.

Graduated at New Britain (Conn.) Normal School 1881; taught mathematics at Mr. Shepard's School at Saybrook, Conn., 1881–83; studied science at University of Leipsic 1883–85; taught German, geology, and history at New Haven High School 1885–1895, traveled in California and Alaska 1895–97; appointed United States consul at Freiburg, Baden, Germany, November 3, 1897, and served as such until consulate was abolished in 1908; studied at Freiburg University 1898–1908, taking courses in international law, geology, mineralogy, geography, and physics; from 1908 to 1916 lived in Brooklyn, N. Y., engaged in translation work, in work for the New York Herald, and as an examiner in the Educational Department at Albany; had taught English and Latin at Berlitz School of Languages since 1917; member of the Commission for the Relief in Belgium June 17, 1916–April 2, 1917, in Brussels, as translator of documents received from the Germans; author: Faces and Phases of German Life (published in New York and London 1910); treasurer and auditor for several years of First Baptist Church, New Haven, of which he was a member at death; member Geological Society of South Germany, Scientific and Mathematical Society of Freiburg University, and Naturforscher Gesellschaft of Freiburg; founder and president of Phrenological Society.

Death, due to coronary sclerosis and general sclerosis with apoplexy, occurred at the Salem Hospital. Buried in Elizabethtown (N. J.) Cemetery. Survived by wife, two daughters, a granddaughter, three brothers, J. Albert Liefeld, of New Haven, Augustus F. Liefeld, of Passaic, N. J., and Benjamin Liefeld, of Los Angeles, Calif., and four sisters, Mrs. Pauline F. Rungee, of New Haven, and Mrs. Worden McLees, Mrs. Charles Vahlsing, and Miss Huldah Liefeld, all of Los Angeles.
Edward Loder Whittemore, Ph.B. 1882.

Born September 12, 1861, in Rye, N.Y.
Died January 29, 1930, in Cleveland, Ohio.

Father, Edward Payson Whittemore, a stock broker; member of firm of Whittemore & Anderson; member New York Stock Exchange and later of New York Consolidated Exchange; elder of Rye Presbyterian Church; son of the Rev. Williams Howe Whittemore (B.A. 1825) and Maria (Clark) Whittemore, of New Haven. Mother, Caroline Amelia (Loder) Whittemore; daughter of Benjamin and Polly Ann (Church) Loder, of New York City and Rye. Yale relatives include: Williams C. Whittemore, '55 (uncle); William P. Bacon, '58 (uncle), and his son, Arthur W. Bacon, '03 S.; Edward L. Whittemore, 2d, ex-'31 (nephew); and the following cousins: William H. Parsons, '82, and his sons, William H. Parsons, Jr., '10, and John P. Parsons, ex-'12, John P. Parsons, '85, Edward L. Parsons, '89, and his son, Arthur W. Parsons, '22, Herbert Parsons, '90, and his sons, John E. Parsons, '25, Herbert Parsons, '31, and McIlvaine Parsons, '33, and Harris Whittemore, Jr., '18.

Adelphi Academy, Brooklyn, Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute, and Park Institute, Rye. Mechanical engineering course, received preliminary appointment; member Alpha Chi.

Had been engaged in malleable iron business ever since graduation; held various positions with Bridgeport (Conn.) Malleable Iron Company 1882–87; secretary and treasurer of Indianapolis (Ind.) Malleable Iron Company 1887–1890; from 1890, when Toledo (Ohio) Malleable Iron Company was started, had supervision of both Indianapolis and Toledo plants until 1910; director of National Malleable Castings Company of Cleveland from its formation in 1891 until its reorganization in 1923 as the National Malleable & Steel Castings Company, continuing as director of the latter company until death; vice-president of National Malleable Castings Company 1891–1913 and then chairman of the board, director of Eastern Malleable Iron Company 1928 and 1929, By-Products Coke Corporation of Chicago from about 1916, Parsons & Whittemore, Inc., for about twenty years, and Interlake Iron Corporation of Syracuse, N. Y., at time of death; secretary of Class of 1882 S. since 1912 and Class agent 1905–1918 and again since 1920; member advisory council of Cleveland Museum of Art since 1920; trustee of Cleveland
School of Art since 1927 and member of its advisory council since 1925; president of Rowfant Club, Cleveland, 1922–23;
vice-president of Castalia (Ohio) Sporting Club since 1922; member Cleveland Chamber of Commerce and Rye Presbyterian Church.

Unmarried.

Death due to arteriosclerosis and angina pectoris. Buried in Greenwood Union Cemetery, Rye. Survived by three brothers,
Howard Whittemore, of Rye, N. Y., Norman C. Whittemore,
'92, and Ernest W. Whittemore, '98, and two sisters, the Misses Helen C. and Florence Whittemore, of Rye. By the terms of his will a gift of $50,000, in trust, was left to Yale University, the income thereof to be used for the Sheffield Scientific School.

Wallace Sherman Clark, Ph.B. 1885.

Born October 13, 1864, in Watertown, N. Y.
Died October 12, 1929, in Schenectady, N. Y.

Father, Ambrose Julius Clark; paymaster and inspector in U. S. Navy 1862–1892; son of Ambrose Williams Clark, member of Congress from New York, and Pauline (Stuckney)
Clark, of Watertown. Mother, Emma Maria (Sherman)
Clark; daughter of Wooster and Wealthy (Dickenson) Sherman, of Watertown. Yale relatives include three cousins.
Francis S. Hunn, '99 S., Edward S. Lansing, ex-'17 S., and John P. Kellogg, '21 S.

Hopkins Grammar School. Dynamic engineering course, second prize in English composition Freshman year; received a preliminary appointment; a Class historian; member Berzelius.

Engineer with commercial and engineering office of Edison Electric Company in New York City 1885–86 and then in charge of construction work on the underground tube in connection with the Edison station line in New Bedford, Mass., until 1892, when the company was absorbed by the General Electric Company, had since been with the latter company in Schenectady, as manager of wire and cable department until August, 1929, and then as general consultant in the same department; chairman of Wire and Cable Section of War Defense Council 1917-18, member Insulated Power Cable Engineers Association 1926-29; member National Electric Light Association, American Institute of Electrical Engineers, National Electric Manufacturers Association, and St. George's Episcopal Church, Schenectady; served as president of Yale Alumni Association of Schenectady 1910.

Death due to acute Bright's disease. Buried in Brookside Cemetery, Watertown. Survived by wife, three sons, daughter, and eight grandchildren.

John Chamberlain, Ph.B. 1886.

Born January 30, 1865, in St. Louis, Mo
Died May 7, 1930, in Lexington, Mo

Father, John Chamberlain (B.A. Dickinson 1825); professor at Oakland College, Miss; son of James and Ann (Sample) Chamberlain, of Gettysburg, Pa. Mother, Elizabeth (Hutchins) Chamberlain; daughter of Anthony Wayne and Mary (Bomar) Hutchins, of Baton Rouge, La.

Private school in LaGrange, Mo., and Peekskill Military Academy. Attended Westminster College for a time before entering Yale Select course, received a Senior appointment; member Picture Committee and Chi Phi.

Traveled abroad for six months after graduation; engaged in mining engineering in the zinc fields of southern Missouri, with his headquarters in Webb City, from about 1888 to 1893; since 1895 had been connected with Traders Bank of Lexington; assistant cashier 1895-1919, vice-president 1919-1930, and president since March 17, 1930; an organizer of the Lexington Public Library in 1923 and a director since then; a founder of Lexington Historical Society about 1900, serving since then as its secretary, aided in organizing Lexington Chamber of Commerce 1920 and served as director 1922–24; member of executive committee of Lexington Boy Scouts since 1920; during the war member of local committee in Liberty Loan, Red Cross, and Salvation Army campaigns; helped in the publication of the pamphlet, The Battle of Lexington, containing personal recollections of various officers, in 1901; member of the Baptist Church in La Grange, Mo, but attended the First Presbyterian Church, Lexington.

Unmarried.

Death due to inflammation of the bladder. Buried in Machpelah Cemetery, Lexington. Survived by a niece and two nephews.

Robert Elder Forster, Ph.B. 1886.

Born October 1, 1864, in Harrisburg, Pa

Father, John Montgomery Forster, a lawyer; insurance commissioner of the state of Pennsylvania; an officer of the Harrisburg Trust Company; editor of Harrisburg Patriot; one-time secretary to General Simon Cameron; son of John Montgomery and Jennette (Wright) Forster, of Harrisburg. Mother, Sarah (Elder) Forster, daughter of Robert Robinson and Sarah (Sherer) Elder, of Paxton, Pa.

The Hill School and Phillips-Andover. Select course.

Employed as actuary’s clerk or assistant in Philadelphia 1886–1891; had since been actuary of the Pennsylvania State Insurance Department in that city; member Actuarial Society of America; former trustee of Northminster Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia; at time of death member Wayne (Pa) Presbyterian Church.

Married September 27, 1892, in Philadelphia, Ella, daughter of William Henry and Ella (Murdoch) List. Children: John Montgomery, '15 S; and Cecel Hollingshead Mrs Forster died November 27, 1928.
Obituary Record

Death due to intestinal trouble. Buried in Valley Forge (Pa.) Cemetery. Survived by son, daughter, and a sister, Mrs. Jennette Forster Rankin, of Mercersburg, Pa.

Edwin Hoyt Lockwood, Ph.B. 1888.

Born October 31, 1866, in New Canaan, Conn
Died April 16, 1930, in New Haven, Conn

Father, Samuel Kellogg Lockwood, a farmer; selectman of New Canaan; representative in Connecticut Legislature; son of David and Polly (Kellogg) Lockwood, of New Canaan. Mother, Mary (Hoyt) Lockwood; daughter of Captain Stephen Hoyt and Siley (Benedict) Hoyt, of New Canaan. Cousins: Edwin Hoyt, ex'56 S, Benjamin H. Mead, '06, Stanley P. Mead, '11, Edwin Hoyt, ex-'20, and Robert D. Tunney, '29 S

New Canaan Seminary Taught arithmetic and grammar at the Rock School, New Canaan, for a year before entering Sheffield Scientific School. Mechanical engineering course, honorable mention for excellence in all studies and for excellence in chemistry, physics, and mathematics, and third prize in English Freshman year; divided prize for excellence in mathematics Junior year; prize for excellence in mechanical engineering Senior year and a Senior appointment.

Draftsman on special machinery for Diamond Match Company of New Haven 1888–89; took graduate work at Yale and served as an assistant in drawing 1889–1890; instructor in drawing and mechanism at Yale 1890–1901, assistant professor of mechanical engineering 1901–1924, and associate professor 1924–27; since 1927 had been Robert Higgin professor of mechanical engineering and member of governing board of Sheffield Scientific School; M.E. Yale 1892, Ph.D. 1901; in 1893 took a summer course at Cornell; engaged in engineering practice with Southwark Foundry & Machine Company of Philadelphia in 1895 and with Deane Steam Pump Company in Holyoke, Mass, in summer of 1900; during the war served as volunteer supervisor of fuel conservation for New Haven District and as member of District Fuel Board, and, with others, conducted a course in radio communication for the R.O.T.C.; author: Notes in Mechanical Drawing (a pamphlet, 1892); wrote the chapter on “Perspective” in Tracy’s Mechanical Drawing (1892), contributed a series of articles to Journal of the Society of Automotive Engineers (1914–1925) and had also contributed to Yale Scientific Magazine, Yale Alumni Weekly, Scientific American, American Machinist, Power, American Artisan and Hardware Record, Heating and Ventilating Magazine, The Automobile, Automobile Topics, India Rubber World, The Rubber Age, American Highways, and Proceedings of the Society of Automotive Engineers, in 1924 invented the seismograph for automobiles; had aided the State Department of Motor Vehicles in an advisory capacity, making many tests in regard to fuel consumption and loss of power in transmission, and thus aiding the Department in the administration of the motor vehicle laws; in 1927 worked with General Motors Corporation on measurement of air resistance of motor cars traveling at high speeds; member of reception committee for New Haven Machine Tool Exhibition in 1925, charter member of Sigma Xi at Yale 1895, serving as vice-president that year, as treasurer 1895–96, and as corresponding secretary 1901–05; in 1925 elected to graduate membership in Tau Beta Pi, the honorary engineering society at Yale, fellow of American Association for the Advancement of Science, life member of American Society of Mechanical Engineers, member of National Advisory Committee on Highway Research, Yale Engineering Association, Society of Automotive Engineers, Society for the Promotion of Engineering Education, Society of Heating and Ventilating Engineers, Highway Research Road Committee No. 1, American Academy of Arts and Sciences, Connecticut Academy of Arts and Sciences, New Haven Chamber of Commerce, New Haven Colony Historical Society, New Haven County Anti-Tuberculosis Society, Connecticut Society for Mental Hygiene, and New Haven City Missionary Society; treasurer of St. John’s Episcopal Church 1919–1926; member United Church (Congregational) at time of death (secretary of Men’s Club 1912–16)

Married September 5, 1900, in New Haven, Elizabeth Kate, daughter of Samuel and Eliza (Jones) Pendleton Children: Elizabeth Pendleton (B.A Mount Holyoke 1924), the wife of William W. Parker, '27 S.; and Edwin Hoyt, Jr., '27 S. Mrs Lockwood died March 16, 1929.

Death due to arteriosclerotic heart disease. Buried in In Memoriam Cemetery, Wallingford, Conn. Survived by daughter, son, one grandson, and a brother, Samuel K. Lockwood, of Maywood, Calif.

Francis Cole Pratt, Ph.B. 1888.

Born January 19, 1867, in Hartford, Conn.
Died January 26, 1930, in New York City.

Father, Francis Asbury Pratt; founder and president of the Pratt & Whitney Company, tool manufacturers, in Hartford; director of Pratt & Cady Company, valve manufacturers, and of First National Bank, Hartford, son of Nathaniel and Euphemia (Nutting) Pratt, of Hartford. Mother, Harriet
Elizabeth (Cole) Pratt; daughter of John and Elizabeth (Ames) Cole, of Dracut, Mass. Yale relatives include two cousins Albert S Cook, '89, and his son, C Beckwith Cook,
'18.

Hartford Public High School Mechanical engineering course; on University Football Team; vice-president of Consolidated Freshman Boat Club and of Yale Tennis Club
Junior year; member Freshman Cane Committee, Senior Class Supper Committee, and Book and Snake

Connected with Pratt & Whitney Company 1888-1906, except for two short periods devoted to special engineering work and investigations (October, 1890-April, 1891, abroad on a business trip, August, 1891-February, 1892, draftsman on special machinery for T. & B Tool Company of Danbury, Conn); employed in machine shop 1888-1891, in drafting room in 1891, and in the general office, holding positions of foreign sales manager 1898-1901 and of secretary 1901-06; represented the company at the World's Fair in Chicago in 1893 and in Paris in 1900 and served as a juror at the Atlanta Exposition in 1895; from 1906 until his retirement in 1927 was with the General Electric Company in Schenectady; assistant to the vice-president in charge of manufacturing and engineering 1906-1912, assistant to the president 1913-18, vice-president in charge of engineering 1919-1924, and vice-president in charge of engineering and manufacturing 1924–27; in the last capacity had supervision of the instruction of student engineers and devoted much time to educational problems as related to industries; member of the advisory committee of the company 1913–1927 and chairman of manufacturing committee 1925–27; had been vice-president and director of General Vehicle Company and director of Schenectady Illuminating Company, Mohawk Gas Company, Schenectady Trust Company since 1925, and Morris Plan Company of Schenectady (charter member 1916) since 1916; trustee of Hospital Association of the City of Schenectady (Ellis Hospital) since 1907 and president 1921–22; trustee of Albany Medical College 1916–1928; Private in Connecticut National Guard 1884–85; during the war served as member of Munitions Standards Board of Council of National Defense 1917–18; vice-president of Yale Engineering Association 1918–1920 and president 1920–22, serving on several of its committees; at time of death represented the association on Yale Alumni Board (elected 1924 and reelected 1927 for three years); ex-officio member of executive committee of the Board since 1927; member of committee on university affairs of Yale Engineering Association 1924–25 and of alumni committee on plan for university development 1920–21, trustee of Sheffield Scientific School since 1920; honorary M.A. Yale 1925; elected honorary member of Aurelian Honor Society 1922; member Schenectady Chamber of Commerce and American Society of Mechanical Engineers; associate member American Institute of Electrical Engineers; made a Chevalier of the French Legion of Honor 1901; trustee of diocesan foundation of Albany Episcopal Diocese since 1928 and member of Cathedral Chapter 1929–1930; vestryman of St. George's Church, Schenectady, 1920–28; in 1927 established the Francis A. Pratt Scholarship in engineering at Yale in memory of his father.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by wife, son, and daughter.
Obituary Record

Ralph Hebert Smith, Ph.B. 1888.

Born October 25, 1867, in Waterbury, Conn.
Died February 12, 1930, in Waterbury, Conn.

Father, John Edward Smith; founder, president, and treasurer, and a director of Smith & Griggs Manufacturing Company of Waterbury, secretary, treasurer, and president of Waterbury Buckle Company and director of Waterbury Button Company; son of Richard and Lovine (Hebert) Smith, of Southbury, Conn; Mother, Lucy Ann (Clark) Smith; daughter of John Clark (B.A. 1806) and Lucy (Peck) Clark, of Waterbury. Yale relatives include: Jehu Clark (B.A. 1794) (great-uncle); Ralph D. Smyth (B.A. 1827) (uncle); John C. Smith, '81 (brother); John C. Munger, '26 (nephew); and Peter F. Clark (B.A. 1821), Bernard C. Steiner, '88, and Dr. Walter R. Steiner, '92 (cousins).

Had been connected with Smith & Griggs Manufacturing Company ever since graduation; assistant treasurer 1892-97, secretary 1897-1907 (also treasurer 1900-07), and president and treasurer since 1907; had been a director of the company since 1897; assistant treasurer and secretary of Waterbury Button Company 1916-1920 and president and treasurer since 1920 (director since 1893); vice-president of Randolph-Clowes Company 1913-1922 and since then president (director since 1908); director of Waterbury Buckle Company since 1898, of Manufacturers National Bank 1910-1920, and of Waterbury National Bank since 1920; a corporator of West Side Savings Bank and director since 1920; on board of managers of Waterbury Club 1897-1900; member Yale Engineering Association, Connecticut Sons of the Revolution, and First Congregational Church, Waterbury.

Married February 27, 1906, in Waterbury, Sarah Benton, daughter of Charles and Sarah Eliza (Benton) Miller. No children.

Death due to hepatic cirrhosis, after a long illness. Buried in Riverside Cemetery, Waterbury. Survived by wife and a sister, Lucy Lovine Smith Munger, the wife of Dr. Carl E. Munger, '80 S.
Sheffield Scientific School

Perry Moore Caldwell, Ph.B. 1889.

Born in 1863, in Wheeling, W Va.
Died August 3, 1929, in Los Angeles, Calif

Father, George Baird Caldwell (B.A. Washington and Jefferson 1859), a lawyer in Wheeling; served in the United States Army during the Civil War; Private in 12th Pennsylvania Infantry and in 100th Regiment, Pennsylvania Infantry (Roundheads); First Lieutenant and Adjutant in 12th West Virginia Infantry; breveted Captain, Major, and Lieutenant Colonel; Companion of the First Class of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States (through the Commandery of the District of Columbia); son of Alfred Caldwell (B.A. Washington College 1836, LL.B. Harvard 1838) and Martha (Baird) Caldwell, of Wheeling. Mother, Sue M. (Smith) Caldwell, of Accomac County, Va. Yale relatives: Alfred Caldwell, '67 S (uncle), and his son, William G. Caldwell, '95 S

Chickering Institute. Chemical course; received a Senior appointment; member Theta Delta Chi

Engaged in the automobile business in Chicago for some years with Stratford Motor Sales Company, Inc.; retired from active business about 1923 and had since traveled extensively.

Married in Los Angeles, Lenore Reynolds Fisher, daughter of A. J. and Mary (Kelley) Reynolds. No children.

Death, due to carcinoma of the larynx with metastasis, occurred in St. Vincent's Hospital. Buried in Forest Lawn Memorial Park Cemetery, Glendale, Calif. Survived by wife and a sister, Mrs Martha D C. Rice, of Atlantic City, N.J.

Willis James Black, Ph.B. 1891.

Born August 29, 1870, in Bridgeport, Conn
Died January 21, 1930, in Stratford, Conn

Father, Joseph Alexander Black, a merchant; son of Peter Joseph and Maria (Laughton) Black, of Bridgeport. Mother, Gertrude Elizabeth (Bronson) Black; daughter of Garadus Noble and Laura Louise (Davidson) Bronson, of Bridgeport.

Bridgeport High School. Civil engineering course; received Senior appointment Taught mathematics at Bridgeport High School 1891–92; engaged in mercantile business with his father in Bridgeport for a few months in 1892; from 1892 until his retirement in 1911 was connected with New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad in the following positions: chairman 1892–93, draftsman 1893–95, transitman 1895–97, assistant engineer 1897–98, division engineer 1898–1905, engineer, maintenance of way, 1905–07, and assistant engineer of construction 1907–1911; member Connecticut Society of Civil Engineers.

Married June 28, 1899, in Bath, N. Y., Flora May, daughter of Judge Sebastian Gonzales Lewis and Martha (Stickney) Lewis. No children.

Death due to high blood pressure and a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Mountain Grove Cemetery, Bridgeport. Survived by wife and a brother, Frank L. Black, '04 S.

David Lynde Huntington, Ph.B. 1891.

Born October 18, 1870, in New London, Conn.
Died September 27, 1929, in Spokane, Wash.

Father, David Low Huntington (B. A. 1855, M. D. University of Pennsylvania 1857), a physician in Philadelphia; assistant surgeon throughout the Civil War; medical director of Department of Virginia and of Army of Tennessee, attaining rank of Colonel in the Volunteer Army; later stationed at various army posts serving as surgeon-in-charge of the Soldiers' Home, Washington, D. C., in the surgeon general's office, and as medical director of Department of the Colorado, and being promoted through various ranks to Lieutenant Colonel, editor of Medical and Surgical History of the Civil War; son of Lynde Atwater and Margaret Adams (Low) Huntington, of Charlestown, Mass. Mother, Gertrude Elizabeth (Shoemaker) Huntington; daughter of Captain William Rawle Shoemaker, U. S. A., and Julie (Hepburn) Shoemaker, of Fort Union, N. Mex. Yale relatives include: the Rev. Lynde Huntington (B. A. 1788) (great-grandfather); and Samuel Huntington (B. A. 1743) and William Lynde (B. A. 1760) (great-great-great-uncles).

Washington (D. C.) High School and private tutors. Mechanical engineering course; honorable mention in physics Freshman year and in mechanical engineering Senior year, member Chi Phi.

Employed by Thomson-Houston Electric Company (now General Electric Company) in Lynn, Mass., 1891-92 and assistant engineer at company's office in Philadelphia 1892-94; connected with Washington Water Power Company at Spokane since 1894; treasurer 1894-96, assistant secretary 1895-96, secretary and general manager 1896-1903, and second vice-president and general manager 1903-1910, and president since 1910; president of Spokane United Railways since 1922; regent of University of Washington 1906-09; overseer of Whitman College 1908-1912; honorary M.S. Washington State College 1916; president of Yale Club of Spokane 1920; author: Hydro-Electric Power and Western Agriculture (1922); member American Institute of Electrical Engineers, Yale Engineering Association, and National Electric Light Association Death, due to carcinoma of the prostate, followed an illness of nearly three years. Cremation took place in Spokane. Survived by wife, daughter, and a sister, Miss Gertrude L. Huntington, of Spokane.

Lucius Lucine Button, Ph.B. 1892.

Born September 11, 1869, in Norwich, Conn. Died December 30, 1929, at Clover Hills, Brighton, N Y.

Father, Lucius Lucine Button, M.D. Mother, Helen (Rathbun) Button; daughter of George and Olive H. (Chapman) Rathbun, of Salem, Conn.

Norwich Free Academy. Biology course; won his "Y" on the Athletic Team.

M.D. New York Homeopathic Medical College 1895; interne at Rochester (N Y) Homeopathic Hospital 1895-97; had since practiced in Rochester; connected with Homeopathic Hospital as dispensary surgeon 1897-1903, assistant surgeon 1900-05, member of attending medical staff 1911-1924 and of consulting staff since then, as president of the medical and surgical service, and on its social service committee; special health physician for Rochester Health Bureau (part-time) since 1900, serving as physician and medical inspector in the public schools 1900-09 and then as special medical examiner on the Board of Education; had also been psycho-medical examiner for the Frances School in Pittsford, N. Y., president of Western New York and Monroe County Homeopathic Medical societies; councillor of Rochester Academy of Medicine 1916-18, chairman of its section on pediatrics and obstetrics 1916, and vice-president 1921; vice-president and member of council of Rochester Academy of Science, director of Rochester Medical Association 1919-1922 and on its house committee; director of Rochester Housekeeping Center and clinical director of Rochester Clinical Club, had served on Bureau of Pediatrics of New York State Homeopathic Medical Society, on committee on physical and mental defectives of New York State Conference of Charities and Correction and mental hygiene committee of New York State Charities Aid Association, on committee on family rehabilitation of United Charities of Rochester, on the sub-committee on clinics of New York Committee on Feeble-mindedness, and on advisory committee of Child Study Club; fellow of American Medical Association and American College of Physicians, member American Association for the Study and Prevention of Infant Mortality, American Institute of Homeopathy, American Association for the Study of Feeble-mindedness, New York State Homeopathic Medical Society, Monroe County Medical Society, National and New York State Conferences of Charities and Correction, New York State Teachers' Association, Rochester Kindergarten Association, Rochester Chemical Club, Social Workers' Club, and Alpha Sigma; charter member Rochester City Club; had contributed to The Training School, The Common Good, and Proceedings of New York State Probation Commission; former member Universalist Church, Norwich

Married October 17, 1901, in Buffalo, N. Y., Rosalie Howard, daughter of Dr. Andrew Robinson Wright and Charlotte (Trathen) Wright. Children. Charlotte Helen, University of Rochester ex-'26, the wife of Herbert B. Messinger, University of Rochester ex-'25, who completed the two-year course in medicine with certificate at Dartmouth in 1928, and is now a member of McGill University Class of 1931; Rosalie Howard (died in childhood); Margaret Thankful; and Lucius Lucine, 3d, a student at University of Rochester.

Death due to angina pectoris. Cremation took place and ashes buried in Mount Hope Cemetery, Rochester. Survived by wife, son, two daughters, and one grandchild

Lauren Kellogg Warnick, Ph.B. 1892.

Born September 19, 1870, in Amsterdam, N Y
Died September 17, 1929, in Buffalo, N Y

Father, Middleton Warnick; partner in Greene Knitting Company of Amsterdam; son of George and Eliza (Keyes) Warnick. Mother, Marion (Kellogg) Warnick; daughter of Lauren Kellogg (B.A. Union 1847) and Elizabetb (Miller) Kellogg, of Amsterdam.

Amsterdam Academy and Lawrenceville School Select course; Private in Sheff Military Company; member Chi Phi.

Teller in First National Bank of Amsterdam 1892-1905, during 1905-06 spent nine months in England and three months in Buenos Aires, Argentina, in the interests of Spencer Kellogg & Sons (linseed crushers) of Buffalo; private secretary to his uncle, Spencer Kellogg, 1906-1912; had since been assistant treasurer of Spencer Kellogg & Sons; also director of the company since 1923; member St John’s Episcopal Church, Buffalo.

Married September 7, 1897, in Amsterdam, Elizabeth Hedden Shottenkirk, a special student at Cornell 1889-1890, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Hedden) Shottenkirk No children.

Mortimer Harmount Alling, Ph.B. 1893.

Born November 16, 1872, in New Haven, Conn.
Died June 14, 1930, in Providence, R.I.

Father, Edward James Alling; member of firm of G. & T. Alling (lumber and planing mill) of New Haven; son of Thomas and Amanda (Anderson) Alling, of New Haven.
Mother, Martha Anna (Harmount) Alling; daughter of William Simpson and Jane (Morgan) Harmount, of New Haven.

Yale relatives include three cousins: Arthur H. Graves, '00, William L. Harmount, '03, and George S. Harmount, '04 S.

Hopkins Grammar School. Mechanical engineering course.

Engaged in meter testing in the laboratory of the Boston (Mass.) Electric Light Company 1893-95; salesman with Kile & Morgan, manufacturers and wholesale dealers in hardwood lumber, of Providence, 1895-1903, after which time the corporation of Kile & Morgan Company was formed and he served as treasurer 1903-1910 and as treasurer and vice-president since 1910; treasurer of Kessawayne Lumber Company of Providence 1914-19; secretary of Tyronza Lumber Company, a subsidiary of Kile & Morgan Company, with mills in Earle, Ark., 1904-1917; treasurer of Tyronza & St. Francis Railway Company of Earle 1904-1917; trustee of the Kibolmg Company since 1917; member Central Congregational Church, Providence, serving as deacon 1919-1924 and again since 1926, and as chairman of committee in charge of drawing up plans for new buildings and additions to the old buildings 1927-28; member of executive committee of Congregational Church Extension Boards of the United States and of its successor under the homeland merger, the administrative committee, from January, 1926, until his death; chairman of church building and budget committees 1927-28; elected director of Congregational Home Missionary Society and member of the board of the Commission on Missions of the National Council of Congregational Churches of the United States in 1927 for the term of four years; member State Central Committee of Progressive Party in 1918; member American Sociological Society, Yale Engineering Association, and reunion committee of '93 S. in 1923; had made a study of Egyptology, giving occasional lectures on the subject.
Sheffield Scientific School

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Swan Point Cemetery, Providence. Survived by two sons, daughter, and a sister, Mrs. Theodore Abbott, of Saltillo, Mexico.

Harry Lottimer Bloodgood, Ph.B. 1893.

Born March 12, 1874, in New York City.
Died July 11, 1929, in New York City.

Father, John Bloodgood, a private banker; owner of John Bloodgood & Company; son of John and Mary (Hildreth) Bloodgood, of Mobile, Ala., and New York City. Mother, Emily (Lottimer) Bloodgood; daughter of William and Jane (Edey) Lottimer, of New York City.

Berkeley School, New York City. Select course; member Delta Psi.

Had been engaged in the brokerage business in New York City for a number of years; connected at one time with André Jacobi & Company; customer’s man for H. Hentz & Company 1922–23, and for Kelley, Drayton & Company 1925–27, manager of a branch office of Clark, Childs & Company for a time, and had held the same position with A. L. Scheuer & Company, members of New York Stock Exchange, since March, 1929; member Calvary (Episcopal) Church.

Unmarried.

Death, due to Bright’s disease and heart trouble, occurred at the French Hospital. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York City. His mother survives him.
Edward Anthony Mitchell, Ph.B. 1893.

Born April 17, 1872, in East Haven, Conn.
Died January 24, 1930, in Washington, D. C.

Father, Charles LeMoyne Mitchell; president of Mitchell Vance Company, New York, manufacturers of bronzes and lighting fixtures; member Connecticut House of Representatives 1878 and member of Congress from Connecticut 1883–87; son of Edward Anthony and Elizabeth Mary (Gorham) Mitchell, of New Haven, Conn. Mother, Emma C. (Morse) Mitchell; daughter of Wareham and Elizabeth (Lathrop) Morse, of Lebanon, N. H.

St. Paul's Cathedral School, Garden City, N. Y. Mechanical engineering course, entered Sheffield Scientific School with Class of 1892, but joined '93 S. the next year.

Remained in New Haven until 1896, and had since made his home in Washington; commissioned as an Ensign, U. S. Naval Reserve Force, early in March, 1917; promoted to Lieutenant (j. g.) April 3, 1917, Lieutenant July 23, 1918, Lieutenant Commander February 11, 1919, and Commander June 14, 1919; served continuously in Disbursing Division of Supplies and Accounts of the Navy Department, in Washington, from April, 1917, until placed on inactive duty December 6, 1920; member Augustus P. Gordon Post of American Legion, Military Order of the World War, and St. John's Episcopal Church.

Married January 8, 1895, in Washington, Mary Alexander, daughter of Richard Wallach, who attended George Washington University, and Rosa (Brown) Wallach. One son, Edward Alexander, the Class boy of 1893 S., a graduate of the U. S. Naval Academy in 1917.

Death due to myocarditis and angina pectoris. Buried in Arlington National Cemetery. Survived by wife, son, and two grandchildren.
Charles Milton Edwards, Ph.B. 1894.

Born December 29, 1872, in Plattsburg, N. Y.
Died August 26, 1929, in Binghamton, N. Y.

Father, Charles Edward Milton Edwards, a hardware merchant; member of firm of Sowles & Edwards Hardware Company; vice-president of First National Bank of Plattsburg and member of board of water commissioners; son of Gustavus Vasa and Augusta (Goodnow) Edwards, of Plattsburg. Mother, Margaret (Dimon) Edwards; daughter of John Dimon, founder of Nassau National Bank of Brooklyn and builder of First Reformed Dutch Church, Brooklyn, and Margaret (Joralemon) Dimon, of Brooklyn. Cousins: James P. Davenport, '77, and Roland D. Crandall, ex-'12 Art.

Plattsburg High School and Williston Academy. Civil engineering course; member Phi Gamma Delta.

Engaged in civil engineering work since graduation; in charge of construction of water pipe line in Plattsburg for three months in 1894; employed in surveying and assaying at Silver Mine, Colo, 1895-96; connected with New York State Department of Public Works since December, 1897, except for two years (1899-1901), when engaged in private practice as an engineer and surveyor in Plattsburg, and a year (1901-02) as draftsman for Lackawanna Steel Plant at Buffalo, N. Y.; leveler under New York state engineer and surveyor, in charge of Erie Canal contract, in Orleans County, December, 1897-May, 1898; and under State Adirondack Land Survey July-October, 1898; leveler, assistant engineer, and first assistant engineer, state engineer's department, June, 1902-March, 1909; subcontractor on state highway 1909; on organization of New York State Highway Department in 1910, made first assistant engineer at Rochester; resident engineer of same department at Niagara Falls, Buffalo, and Rochester 1913-16, and division engineer at Hornell 1916-19, at Rochester 1919-1923, and at Binghamton since March, 1923; former member of Rochester Engineering Society; member American Society of Civil Engineers and Trinity Episcopal Church, Binghamton.

Married April 11, 1898, in Plattsburg, Mildred, daughter of Millard Fillmore and Beatrice Theresa (Doran) Parkhurst.
Obituary Record

Children: Beatrice Margaret, Alfred University ex-'20; and Marian Parkhurst, Certificate School of the Fine Arts 1927.

Death due to multiple sclerosis. Buried in Riverside Cemetery, Plattsburg. Survived by wife, two daughters, a brother, George H Edwards, of New York City, and a sister, Mrs. Charles H Winship, of Plattsburg.

Frederick Searle Munger, Ph.B. 1894.

Born January 18, 1873, in Herkimer, N. Y.
Died April 29, 1930, in Utica, N. Y.

Father, Henry Gillet Munger; president of Horrocks Desk Company and of First National Bank of Herkimer; son of Jairus and Lilian Irene (Gillette) Munger, of Camden, N. Y. Mother, Ellen Arville (Searles) Munger, daughter of William Walton and Lucinda Bicknel (White) Searles, of Belleville, N. Y.

Chester (Pa.) Military Academy. Mechanical engineering course, member of second Banjo Club; a Class statistician.

Clerk with McMillan Company of Ilion, N. Y., 1894-96; then became clerk with Horrocks Desk Company, of which he was secretary 1900-1912 and treasurer and manager from 1908 until death, director of First Bank & Trust Company of Utica since 1916, member of its executive committee since 1919, vice-president 1927-29, and president since July 1, 1929; director of McMillan Book Company of Syracuse, N. Y., since 1919, McMillan Holding Corporation since 1923, and First National Bank of Herkimer since 1921; original director of Utica Mutual Insurance Company since 1914, and Allied Fire Insurance Company of Utica since 1923; member Grace Episcopal Church, Utica.

Death followed an operation for gall bladder trouble at the Faxton Hospital, Utica, had undergone an operation for appendicitis about two months before. Buried in Herkimer Cemetery. Survived by wife, two daughters, father, and three sisters, Mrs. Guernsey R. Jewett, of White Plains, N.Y., Mrs. Montgomery Johnson, of Cambridge, Mass., and Mrs. Philip Simmons, of Herkimer.

Francis Downs Wanning, Ph.B. 1894.

Born March 11, 1873, in Shelton, Conn.
Died April 7, 1930, in New Haven, Conn.

Derby High School. Mechanical and electrical engineering course, member Theta Delta Chi.

Connected with Birmingham Iron Foundry 1894–1927, spending one year in the engineering department and then serving as secretary and treasurer 1905–1916, as secretary and vice-president 1916–18, and as vice-president and general manager 1918–1927; since 1927 had been vice-president and chairman of executive committee of Farrel-Birmingham Company, Inc.; second vice-president of Derby and Shelton Board of Trade 1923–24; director of Derby Securities Company since 1926, Birmingham National Bank of Derby since 1925, Shelton Water Company 1913–1927, Ousatonic Water Power Company 1920–27, Derby Gas & Electric Company since 1925 (reelected for 1930–31), and Industrial Association of the Lower Naugatuck Valley since 1915 (second vice-president 1919 and 1920, president 1921 and 1922), treasurer of Park Commissioners of Shelton since 1919, in 1929 elected member of executive committee of Griffin Hospital, Derby, for ensuing year; vice-president of Boy Scouts' executive board since 1928; former member Yale Engineering Association; member Second Congregational Church, Derby.

Paul Beck Belin, Ph.B. 1895.
Born July 26, 1875, in Scranton, Pa.
Died February 27, 1930, in Scranton, Pa.

Father, Henry Belin, ’63, a manufacturer; connected with E. I. duPont Powder Company as president of the Pennsylvania Corporation, the E. I. duPont de Nemours & Company; director of Delaware Corporation of the company; treasurer and president of Pennsylvania State Oral School for the Deaf; treasurer and trustee of Scranton Public Library and member of Pennsylvania State Library Commission; member of finance committees of Hahnemann Hospital and of Margaretta Belin Home for Nurses; director and secretary of Lackawanna Trust Company; president and director of Wyoming Shovel Works, vice-president and director of Scranton Lace Company, director of First National Bank, Cherry River Boom & Lumber Company, Cherry River Paper Company, Hebard Cypress Company, and Klots Throwing Company; trustee of Second Presbyterian Church, member Pennsylvania National Guard three years as Major on Brigade Staff and inspector of rifle practice; son of Henry Belin, who was a Cadet at the United States Military Academy 1820–22, and Isabella (d’Andelot) Belin, of Philadelphia. Mother, Margaretta Elizabeth (Lammot) Belin, daughter of Ferdinand and Marietta (Allen) Lammot, of Wilmington, Del. Yale relatives include: Charles H. Welles, Jr., ’99, Paul B. Welles, ’04, and Kenneth B. Welles, ’08 (brothers-in-law); and Henry B. Robertson, ’14 S., Nathaniel G. Robertson, Jr., ’17 S., Charles H. Welles, 3d, ’28, and James D. Welles, ’31 (nephews). School of the Lackawanna, Scranton. Mechanical engineering course; received Senior appointment, member Sigma Xi.
Manager of the office of L. C. Holden, an architect in Scranton, June–October, 1895; then studied for a year in Department of Architecture at Columbia; had charge of Mr. Holden’s branch office in Scranton 1896–98; draftsman with Green & Wicks, architects, in Buffalo, N. Y., six months; since September, 1898, had been engaged in the manufacturing business in Scranton with Scranton Lace Curtain Company (name changed to Scranton Lace Company in 1916), general manager 1902–1920 and also treasurer 1904–1920; president of the company since 1920; director of First National Bank of Scranton, Scranton Lackawanna Trust Company, E. I. duPont de Nemours Powder Company of Pennsylvania, Cherry River Boom & Lumber Company, Wyoming Valley Shovel Works, and Hahnemann Hospital; president of Waverly Community House since 1920; treasurer of Lace Curtain Manufacturers Association since 1905; trustee of Hickory Grove Cemetery since 1920, president of Yale Alumni Association of Scranton 1923–24, member Scranton Chamber of Commerce, Yale Engineering Association, and Westminster Presbyterian Church.

Death, due to complications which followed an operation for acute appendicitis, occurred in the Hahnemann Hospital. Buried in Hickory Grove Cemetery, Scranton. Survived by wife, two sons, one grandson, two sisters, Mary Belin Robertson, the wife of Nathaniel G. Robertson (B.S. Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1885), of Scranton, and Alice Belin duPont (B.A. Bryn Mawr 1892), the wife of Pierre S. duPont (B.S. Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1890), of Wilmington, Del., and three brothers, Charles A. Belin, ’99, F. Lammot Belin, ’01 S., and G. d’Andelot Belin, ’08 S.

Frederick Wead Drury, Ph.B. 1895.

Born April 30, 1871, in Alton, Ill.
Died February 16, 1930, in New York City

Father, Frederick Wead Drury, a merchant, son of Luther Keyes and Grace (Wead) Drury, of St. Louis, Mo. Mother,
Obituary Record

Phillips-Andover. Entered Sheffield Scientific School with Class of 1893; subsequently a member of Class of 1894 S two years, but joined Class of 1895 S in fall of 1893; mechanical engineering course; member Delta Phi.

Clerk with American Telephone & Telegraph Company in New York City 1896-97; later with Consolidated Cross Tie Company and Henry Brothers & Company, brokers, in that city; in 1913 became an engineer with MacArthur Brothers Company, contractors, New York, and at same time acted as director of New York Architectural Cotta Company; during 1917-18 managed the construction of forty auxiliary boats for the French Government at Portland, Ore., and Tacoma, Wash., and five boats for the British Government at Victoria, B. C.; connected with Spencer Trask & Company, investment bankers, of New York 1922-24; vice-president of Utilities Power & Light Corporation of Chicago from 1924 until death; had also been vice-president of Indianapolis Power & Light Company since 1927; vice-president, treasurer, and director of Newport (R. I.) Electric Corporation (since 1925) and of Colonial Gas & Electric Company; director of Derby Gas & Electric Corporation of Chicago and Eastern New Jersey Power Company of Asbury Park since 1927; member of Protestant Episcopal Church Married September 27, 1898, in Haydenville, Mass., Josephine Stratton, daughter of Henry Berton Sands (M.D. Columbia 1854) and Sarah Masten (Curtis) Sands, and sister of Robert A. Sands, '85, and H. Hayden Sands, ex-'99 S. One daughter, Frances Sands.

Leslie Gross Parker, Ph.B. 1896.

Born November 2, 1875, in Chicago, Ill
Died May 2, 1930, in Elkhorn, Wis.

Father, George Green Parker, a grain and commission merchant; former vice-president of Chicago Board of Trade, son of Orlando Lucius and Clarissa Spaulding (Fitch) Parker, of Chicago. Mother, Inez Luella (Knapp) Parker; daughter of Nathan Hollowell and Susan Harnett (Robbins) Knapp, of Boston.

Chicago Manual Training School Mechanical engineering course; member Class Cup Committee.

In the drafting room of the Illinois Steel Company at South Chicago December, 1896; engineer for Luxfer Prism Company November, 1897–June, 1899, at first in Chicago and from June, 1898, as their scientific representative in St. Louis, Mo; mechanical and chemical engineer for the Crane Company of Chicago, manufacturers of pipe fittings and valves, 1899–1904, serving as clerk, draftsman, foundry chemist, and assistant superintendent of malleable iron department; president of Mercantile Laundry Company of Chicago 1904–1918; inspection engineer for Pensacola Shipbuilding Company 1918–19; test engineer for Swift & Company of Chicago 1919–1929; treasurer and president of Swift-Lift Company of Chicago 1924–27; treasurer and president of Visometer, Inc. (oil meters) in Chicago since 1926; librarian of Centennial Baptist Church 1897–1902.

Married April 8, 1902, in Chicago, Adelaide Cornelia, daughter of the Rev. William Mangan Lawrence (Ph B Colgate 1870, M.A. 1876, D.D Chicago Seminary 1881, S.T D. Colgate 1921) and Anna Isabelle (Hyde) Lawrence

One daughter, Elinor

Death, due to injuries received in an automobile accident, occurred at the Walworth County Hospital, Elkhorn. Buried in Rosehill Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife, daughter, mother, a brother, Fred A. Parker, of Chicago, and a sister, Mrs. Lelia Parker Sturges, of Pasadena, Calif.
Edward Bontecou Morris, Ph.B. 1897.

Born August 16, 1875, in Hartford, Conn
Died December 19, 1929, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, John Emery Morris, secretary and director of The Travelers Insurance Company; director of Charter Oak National Bank; son of Henry and Harriet (Bontecou) Morris, of Springfield, Mass. Mother, Mary Pamela (Felt) Morris; daughter of Festus C. and Sarah King (Lincoln) Felt of Hartford. Yale relatives: Moses Bliss (B.A. 1755) and Daniel Bontecou (B.A. 1757) (great-great-grandfathers); George Bliss (B.A. 1784) (great-great-uncle) and his son, George Bliss (B.A. 1812), and William M. Bliss (B.A. 1790) (great-great-uncle).

Hartford Public High School. Mechanical engineering course; member Freshman Football Team, Track Team Senior year, Delta Phi, and St. Elmo.

Clerk in advertising business of his brother, Henry L. Morris, in New York City during winter of 1897–98; since August, 1898, had been with The Travelers Insurance Company as clerk 1898–1906, assistant actuary in the life department 1906–1914, and actuary since 1914, one of the original committee of six actuaries appointed by the Actuarial Society of America in October, 1917, at the request of the Convention of Insurance Commissioners, to investigate group insurance and served on this group mortality committee of the Group Insurance Association (into which the original committee grew) until his death, also being member of its combined mortality committee since 1919; in 1927 appointed by former superintendent Beha of New York state as member of committee of five actuaries to recommend revisions of certain of New York life insurance laws; frequent writer on actuarial and other insurance subjects, his articles appearing in general in Record of the American Institute of Actuaries, Proceedings of the Casualty Actuarial Society, and Transactions of the Actuarial Society of America, in the last of which appeared a report on "The Mortality Experience of Yale Graduates, 1792–1901," which had been given at the fall meeting of the society in 1907; became an associate of that society 1905 and fellow 1906, and had been its vice-president since 1928; fellow Death, due to circulatory failure following an operation for acute disease of the gall bladder, occurred at the Hartford Hospital. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by wife, two daughters, and a brother, John Felt Morris, of West Hartford. By the terms of his will Yale was made a residuary legatee of his estate subject to the life interest of his wife and children.

Obituary Record

Henry Sparks Pickands, Ph.B. 1897.

Born October 4, 1875, in Marquette, Mich.
Died August 10, 1929, in Cleveland, Ohio

Father, James Pickands; organizer and senior partner in firm of Pickands, Mather & Company, dealers in iron ore, pig iron, and coal; president of Western Reserve National Bank; chairman of finance committee of Cleveland Chamber of Commerce; during Civil War active in organization of soldiers, accepting a commission in 124th Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry, organized in Cleveland; was made Sergeant, promoted to Major and Colonel, and mustered out in July, 1865; son of the Rev. James Dinsmore Pickands (B.A. Princeton 1825), who graduated at Princeton Theological Seminary 1828 and was a Unitarian minister, and Louisa (Sparks) Pickands, of Akron, Ohio. Mother, Caroline (Outhwaite) Pickands; daughter of John P. Outhwaite, of Cleveland. Brother, Jay M. Pickands, ’02

St. Mark’s School, Southboro, Mass, and University School, Cleveland Civil engineering course; an editor of Yale Scientific Monthly.

Had been connected with Pickands, Mather & Company since graduation, engaged in general office work three years and was made member of firm in 1900, president of Toledo Furnace Company since 1916; vice-president of Interlake Steamship Company since 1913; and of Perry Iron Company since 1925, director of subsidiary companies of Pickands, Mather & Company (Ashtabula & Buffalo Dock Company, Erie Dock Company, Perry Iron Company, and Ashtabula Steamship Company), and of American Shipbuilding Company (since 1919), Great Lakes Towing Company (1929), Empire Steel Corporation of Mansfield, Ohio (also member of executive committee) (since 1921), Zenith Furnace Company of Duluth, Minn. (since 1921), and Union Trust Company (since 1921), president of board of trustees of University School since 1918; influential in the incorporation of Euclid Village, Ohio, and served as first mayor of the town 1903-08; treasurer of dry campaigns in state of Ohio 1915–18 and of Dry Maintenance League 1919; elected president of the League 1920 and served as such until death; member Cleveland Chamber of Commerce, Yale Engineering Association (second vice-president since 1927), and Loyal Legion.
Sheffield Scientific School

Married December 27, 1899, in Marquette, Jeanne Kennedy, daughter of Charles Henry and Charlotte Elizabeth (Kennedy) Call. Children: Elizabeth Call (Mrs. Robert T Comey); Caroline Outhwaite, the wife of Robert Cass, London University ex-'15; James, ex-'30 S, Henry Sparks, Jr., a Sophomore at Lehigh University; and Seville Jeanne.

Death due to heart disease Buried in Lakeview Cemetery, Cleveland. Survived by wife, three daughters, two sons, and three grandchildren.

Noah Samuel Wadhams, Ph.B. 1897.

Born May 27, 1875, in Goshen, Conn
Died October 4, 1929, in Southampton, N Y

Father, Francis Morris Wadhams, salesman for Holley Manufacturing Company (cutlery) of Lakeville, Conn; dealer in real estate; deacon in Goshen Congregational Church; son of Noah Samuel and Lucy (Ray) Wadhams, of Goshen. Mother, Frances (Palmer) Wadhams, daughter of Joseph and Ann Jeannette (Miner) Palmer, of Goshen and New Haven. Yale relatives include: Clifford F. Thompson, '19 S. (nephew); and Sanford H. Wadhams, '94 S, Fred U Wadhams, '95, Darius T Wadhams, '99 S, Robert P. Wadhams, '02 S, and John M. Wadhams, 3d, '19 S (cousins)

New Haven High School.

M.D. Yale 1900 (member Delta Epsilon Iota); practiced medicine in Goshen 1900-08 and at Westhampton Beach, N. Y., since then; represented Goshen in Connecticut Assembly 1907-08; member American, New York State, Long Island, and Suffolk County Medical associations, and Association of Physicians and Surgeons; president of Sunrise Rifle Association.

Married October 17, 1900, in Hull, Quebec, Eva Irene Butler, a graduate of the Connecticut Training School for Nurses 1900, daughter of Nathan and Amanda Lois (Thompson) Butler. One son, Gordon Butler, '26.

Death, due to cardiac dilatation at the beginning of an operation under novocaine for tonsilectomy, occurred at the Southampton Hospital. Buried in Westhampton Cemetery. Survived by wife, son, two brothers, Joseph P. Wadhams, '99 S, and Francis R. Wadhams, of Goshen, and a sister, Mrs Clifford P. Thompson, of Springfield, Mass.
Obituary Record

Richard Nicholls Barnum, Ph.B. 1898.

Born April 8, 1876, at Hoosick Falls, N Y.
Died October 24, 1929, in Riverside, Conn.

Father, Charles William Barnum; president of Barnum Richardson Company, iron manufacturers, of Lime Rock, Conn; state senator; son of William Henry Barnum, member of Congress, and Charlotte Ann (Burrall) Barnum, of Lime Rock Mother, Mary (Nicholls) Barnum; daughter of George Huntington and Julia Louise (Phelps) Nicholls, of Hoosick Falls Yale relatives include: William M. Barnum, '77 (uncle), and his sons, William H. Barnum, '04 S, Walter Barnum, '10, and Phelps Barnum, '13.

Westminster School. Select course; member Class Cane Committee and Book and Snake.

Secretary of Barnum Richardson Company in 1900–1912 and vice-president 1912–1920, general manager of the M. Armstrong Company of New Haven (automobile bodies) 1921–22, president of Mercer Motors Company of Trenton, N. J, 1922–23 and of Lavenham Corporation of New York City (moving picture cameras) 1924–25; bond salesman for Watson & White of New York since 1926; served as member of the U S Secret Service at Lime Rock during the last two years of the war, member Trinity Episcopal Church, Lime Rock, president of Graduates Cloister Club of New York in 1929.

Married May 23, 1900, in Brooklyn, Marian Hutchison, daughter of James and Florence (Hutchison) Cocks. Children: John Cocks; Eleanor, the wife of Treat P. Andrew, '21 S.; Richard Nicholls, Jr.; and William Henry, 3d.

Death due to malignant endocarditis streptococcus. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, three sons, daughter, three grandchildren, father, and a sister, Mrs. William Floyd, of Silver Bay, N. Y.
John Foster Archbold, Ph.B. 1899.

Born May 9, 1877, in New York City.
Died January 5, 1930, in Thomasville, Ga

Father, John Dustin Archbold; director, vice-president, and president of Standard Oil Company, and president of Standard Oil Company of New Jersey; president of board of trustees of Syracuse University; director of St. Christopher’s Home and Orphanage, and Post Graduate Hospital and Training School, New York City; son of the Rev. Israel Archbold and Frances Foster (Dana) Archbold, of Marietta, Ohio. Mother, Annie Eliza (Mills) Archbold; daughter of Major Samuel Myers Mills, a Civil War veteran, and Lavinia (Jenkins) Mills, of Coudersport, Pa.

Westminster School. Select course, commodore of Yale Corinthian Yacht Club; member Class Picture Committee, Delta Psi, and St. Anthony.

Spent the first year after graduation as an apprentice with the South Penn Oil Company (a subsidiary of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey) at Mannington, W. Va; held the same position with the Carter Oil Company of Sisterville, W. Va, and visited oil fields in West Virginia and Ohio, 1900-01; made a trip around the world 1901-02, visiting oil fields in various countries; then entered his father’s office and assisted in developing the subsidiary companies in which the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey was interested, until 1906 when he was elected president and a director of one of them, the Prairie Oil & Gas Company, resigned these positions in 1910 when ill health made it impossible for him to stay in the North, and had since spent most of his time in Thomasville, where he had a 10,000 acre estate, on which he raised cattle; while connected with the Standard Oil Company had lived at various times in Tarrytown, Ardsley-on-Hudson, Southampton, and Glen Cove, N. Y, Asheville, N. C, Trinafour, Scotland, and Cannes, France; in 1924 founded and endowed the John D. Archbold Memorial Hospital at Thomasville, in memory of his father, served as chairman of the board 1925-26, and treasurer 1926-1930, director of Bank of Thomasville 1923-28, Rotary Club 1928 and 1929, Georgia-Florida Field Trial Club 1917, 1918, 1927 (vice-president 1919 and president 1920), Glen Arven Country Club 1923-1930, and of Three Toms Tavern 1924-1930; donated buildings for Girl Scout Camp erected on his plantation in 1922, contributed largely to the building of a school for colored children in 1927, served as lieutenant colonel on staff of Governor Clifford Walker 1925-27.
Obituary Record

Married February 16, 1904, in Irvington, N. Y., May, daughter of John Conner Barron, ex-'59 M., who received the degree of M.D. at Columbia 1861, and Harriet (Williams) Barron. Children: John Dana (died in childhood); Richard; Adrian, and Frances May Death due to lobar pneumonia. Buried in Sleepy Hollow Cemetery, Tarrytown. Survived by wife, two sons, daughter, and two sisters, Mary A vanBeuren, the wife of Michael M. vanBeuren, ex-'96, and Mrs. Anne Archbold, of Washington, D. C.

Thomas LeBoutillier, 2d, Ph.B. 1899.

Born January 18, 1879, in New York City.
Died September 18, 1929, in Westbury, N. Y.

Father, John LeBoutilher; partner in LeBoutillier Brothers (dry goods), New York, member 7th Regiment, New York National Guard, eighteen years (Captain and inspector of rifle practice), vestryman of Calvary Church (Episcopal), New York; son of Thomas LeBoutillier, who attended Elizabeth College, Guernsey, Channel Islands, and Margaret (Gallier) LeBoutillier, of New York City. Mother, Fannie (Goodman) LeBoutillier; daughter of William Augustus and Lucy (Grandin) Goodman, of Cincinnati, Ohio. Cousins: Martin LeBoutillier, '12, and Austin LeBoutillier, '14 S.

Halsey School, New York City, and Phillips-Andover. Mechanical engineering course; member Apollo and University Banjo clubs and Book and Snake.

Engaged in the dry goods business with LeBoutillier Brothers 1899-1908; manager of a real estate corporation 1908-09, secretary and treasurer of Wheatley Building & Contracting Company of Long Beach, N. Y., 1909-1910; manager of Long Beach Estates Corporation 1910-15; broker.
with Tefft & Company, member of New York Stock Exchange 1915-17 and again 1918-1925; broker with McDonnell & Company, 1927-29, president of Dubois Fence Company since February 1, 1929; enlisted as a Private in the Air Service November 27, 1917, and attended the Ground Officers' Training School at Kelly Field, Texas; given his discharge January 11, 1918, accepted commission as a Captain in the Infantry April 26, 1918; instructor at Small Arms Firing School, Camp Perry, Ohio, to September, 1918; assigned to 57th Infantry, 15th Division, Houston, Texas, September-November 5, 1918; instructor at Infantry School of Arms, Fort Benning, Ga., from November 5 until his discharge December 5, 1918; member Squadron A, New York National Guard as Private 1904-08 and Corporal 1908-09, held title of revolver champion of Europe and was member of American revolver team in Olympic games 1908, member Church of the Advent (Episcopal) at Westbury

Married February 4, 1909, in New York City, Florence, daughter of David and Marion Swannee (Clark) Stevenson. Children: Florence Stevenson; Thomas, Marjorie Swannee; and John.

Death, due to acute cardiac dilatation, occurred during a polo game at the Meadow Brook Club, where he was playing as member of the Old Westbury team. Buried in Friends Cemetery, Westbury. Survived by wife, two sons, two daughters, and two brothers, Philip LeBoutillier, of New York City, and William A. G. LeBoutillier, of Larchmont, N.Y.

Harry Longyear Preston, Ph.B. 1900.

Born November 29, 1877, in Roxbury, N.Y.
Died March 25, 1930, in New York City

Father, Otis Marshall Preston, a farmer; son of Ezekiel and Cornelia Laraway (Smith) Preston, of Roxbury. Mother, Angeline (Lawrence) Preston; daughter of George and Abigail C. (Longyear) Lawrence, of Delaware County, N.Y. Cousins: John F. Keator, '77, and his sons, John F. Keator, Jr., ex-’19, and Clement S. Keator, ex-’22, Dr. Bruce S. Keator, ’79,

Rodman for Pennsylvania Railroad at chief engineer's office, Northwest System, Pittsburgh, 1900-01; assistant engineer of construction with Jones & Laughlin, Ltd., Pittsburgh, 1901-02; assistant engineer with Pittsburgh & Lake Erie Railroad 1902-05; with New York Central & Hudson River Railroad 1905-1913; transitman and draftsman, Eastern District, exterior zone, New York City, May-November, 1905, assistant engineer, Eastern District, New York, November, 1905-March, 1906, in charge of double tracking of Harlem Division, at Brewster, N. Y., March, 1906-June, 1907 (also in charge of construction of Poughkeepsie improvement February-June, 1907), assistant engineer on construction in Syracuse, June, 1907-July, 1909, and assistant district engineer in charge of all construction (title changed to resident engineer January 1, 1910), Syracuse District, with home in Jordan, N. Y., July, 1909-1913; owner and manager of Jordan Wheelbarrow Company 1913-17; since 1917, with exception of two years spent in service, had again been connected with New York Central, as field engineer, valuation department, on lines east of Buffalo, in charge of field work in connection with federal valuation, 1917-18 and since 1919 as assistant engineer, valuation department, with headquarters in New York, making periodical trips to Washington for conferences with Bureau of Valuation and Interstate Commerce Commission; commissioned Captain of Engineers July 27, 1918, and attended Engineer Officers' Training Camp at Camp Humphreys, Va., August 9-September 25; overseas September 25, 1918-June 23, 1919, as commanding officer of Company K, 22d Engineers (Light Railway), to February 15, and then as supply officer of 4th Battalion, 22d Engineers; took part in Meuse-Argonne offensive; given his discharge at Camp Upton, N. Y., July 11, 1919; member American Society of Civil Engineers, Sons of the American Revolution, and Military Order of World War, and organizer and trustee of American Society for the Promotion of Aviation in 1926; member Christ Episcopal Church, Jordan; provisional deputy from Diocese of Central New York to General Convention of Protestant Episcopal Church in Cincinnati, Ohio, October, 1910; member executive committee of Church Club of the diocese; well-known philatelist.

Death due to a blood clot on the brain. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Cazenovia. Survived by wife, a brother, Bruce Preston, and two sisters, Mrs. Arthur Edsall and Miss Mildred Virginia Preston, all of Roxbury.

Frederick Clark Inman, Ph.B. 1902.

Born June 7, 1881, in Newport, R.I.
Died December 16, 1929, in New York City.

Father, John Hamilton Inman; founder of Inman, Swann & Company, cotton brokers, members of New York Cotton Exchange; soldier in Confederate Army 1861–65, son of Shadrach Walker and Jane (Martin) Inman, of Dandridge, Tenn. Mother, Margaret McKinney (Coffin) Inman; daughter of James Ayer and Margaret (Martin) Coffin, of Madisonville, Tenn. Nephews: Clifford V. Brokaw, Jr., '25 S., and John I. Pearce, '32 S.

Cutler School, New York City. Select course, played on Hockey Team three years; member governing boards of University and Renaissance clubs and of St. Anthony.

Traveled extensively in this country and abroad 1902–05, became connected with Inman, Swann & Company in November, 1905, and made a partner in firm January 1, 1908, later engaged in investment banking; connected with United States Shipping Board as clerk in charge of Telegraphic Section, Division of Operations, in Washington, D.C., July 29, 1918–February 1, 1919, had been prominent as a tennis player, winning the Connecticut State singles title 1914, the
Obituary Record

Metropolitan mixed doubles championship with Molla Bjurstedt (now Mrs Mallory) 1915, and Palm Beach doubles tournament with G. M. Church 1916; member Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York.

Unmarried.

Death due to cerebral thrombosis, with arteritis as a contributory cause. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by two sisters, Mrs Lucy I. Pearce, the widow of Arthur W. Pearce, '96 S., of Hewlett, N Y., and Mrs. Inman Brokaw, of Glen Cove, N. Y., and a brother, Charles S. Inman, ex-'08 S. His eldest brother, Hugh M. Inman, ex-'96 S., died in 1921, and another brother, John H Inman, '00 S., in June, 1929

Mortimer Nelson Judd, Ph.B. 1902.

Born February 3, 1879, in New Britain, Conn
Died May 9, 1930, in New Britain, Conn

Father, Mortimer Nelson Judd, salesman and secretary of North & Judd Manufacturing Company (harness hardware); son of Loren Francisco and Josephine (Lee) Judd, of New Britain. Mother, Emma Amelia (Dale) Judd, daughter of Eli Gowdy and Lucinda Hanaford (Smith) Dale. Cousin: George M. Landers, '91 S

New Britain High School. Select course; sang on Freshman Glee Club, member Phi Gamma Delta

Foreman for North & Judd Manufacturing Company in New Britain from 1902 until his retirement from active business in 1912

Married (1) August 16, 1909, in New York City, Susan Edna Shotwell Lawry, daughter of Byron and Sarah (Crane- dall) Shotwell. One daughter, Marjorie Lee. Mrs. Judd died February 6, 1911. Married (2) November 14, 1914, in New Britain, Mary Agnes, daughter of Michael and Anna (Con- cannon) Noonan. Children: Gertrude Dale; Mortimer Nelson, Jr., Mary Patricia; and Grace Landers Death due to heart disease and gastric hemorrhage. Buried in Fairview Cemetery, New Britain. Survived by wife, four daughters, son, mother, and a sister, Mrs. Charles M. Bradley, of Chicago and Wequetonsing, Mich.

Sheffield Scientific School

John Emmet Sweet, Ph.B. 1903.

Born October 1, 1875, in Montrose, Pa.
Died April 21, 1930, in St. Petersburg, Fla.

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.

David Pearson Thompson, Ph.B. 1903.

Born August 3, 1880, in New Castle, Pa.
Died March 24, 1930, at Miami Beach, Fla.

Phillips-Andover. Select course; member University Track Team Freshman and Senior years; a Class Day historian; member Senior Dance Committee, Cloister, and Book and Snake.

In employ of Republic Iron & Steel Company at Thomas, Ala., 1903-07, holding various positions, one of which was assistant chemist; with Sharpsville Furnace Company of Sharon, Pa., at Cleveland, Ohio, 1907-1912, becoming president 1910; assistant general superintendent of Inland Steel Company at Indiana Harbor, Ind., 1912-19 and since then assistant to the president in Chicago, being in charge of operations; director of the company since 1915; had been president and director of Inland Tar Company since 1925, Inland Lime & Stone Company since 1928, and Indiana Harbor Homes Company since 1919, and vice-president and director of Inland Colliers Company since 1917 (all subsidiaries of Inland Steel Company), and director of Susquehanna Ore Company since 1925, Wakefield Iron Company since 1925,
Holman Cliffs Mining Company since 1927, Mahland Iron Company since 1927, and Inland Steel Company of Wisconsin since 1928

Married November 20, 1905, in Birmingham, Ala, Willie, daughter of Andrew Eugene and Annie (Haines) Caffee. One son, Alexis Mr and Mrs Thompson were divorced in 1923.

Adelbert Arthur Skeel, Ph.B. 1904.

Born May 15, 1878, in Lena, Ill
Died July 20, 1929, in Stamford, Conn

Father, James Dudley Skeel, superintendent of Stover Manufacturing Company, of Freeport, Ill., makers of windmills, gasoline engines, and light hardware; son of Oren and Caroline Maris (Douglas) Skeel, of Lena and Freeport, Ill. Mother, Elizabeth (Schadel) Skeel; daughter of Samuel and Barbara (Druck) Schadel, of Lena.

Freeport (Ill.) High School, Academy of Northwestern University, and Cheshire (Conn.) Military Academy. Select course.

LL B Yale 1907 (associate critic and critic of Kent Club); practiced law in New Haven in association with Seymour C. Loomis, '82 and '84 L., 1907-1911, and in Stamford, in association with Cummings & Lockwood (Homer S. Cummings, '91 S. and '93 L., and Charles D. Lockwood, '00 S. and '03 L.) 1911-14; had since practiced independently in Stamford; corporation counsel for city of Stamford 1913-1923, 1925, 1926, and 1929; clerk of City Court 1923, 1924, and since April, 1929; member Republican Town Committee for about eighteen years, and served as secretary for some time; vice-president 1918 and director 1918-1929, of Atlantic Realty Company of Stamford; served with Company A, 3d Mississippi Volunteer Infantry, in Spanish American War, and was commander in 1914 of Frederick A. Hill Camp, United Spanish War Veterans, served as Judge Advocate for Department of Connecticut of the organization 1913-14; during World War served in Company G, 6th Separate Battalion, Connecticut Home Guard, as Private, Corporal, and Sergeant, and was also member of Legal Advisory Board and a Four-minute speaker; member St John’s Episcopal Church, Stamford.

Married July 5, 1904, in Cheshire, Helen Louise, daughter of Benjamin Hall and Ann Eliza (Hubbard) Peck One daughter, Esther Elizabeth (B.A. Mount Holyoke 1928), a student in Yale Graduate School.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage and cardiac vascular disease. Buried in St. Peter’s Episcopal Cemetery, Cheshire. Survived by wife, daughter, two brothers, Alva and Maurice Skeel, of Freeport, Ill., and three sisters, Mrs. William Schlott, of Savannah, Ill., and Mrs. Daniel MacNeill, and Mrs. Albert Albright, both of Davenport, Iowa.

Kenneth Percy Grant, Ph.B. 1905.

Born November 29, 1880, in St Paul, Minn
Died November 28, 1929, in St Paul, Minn

Father, George Johnstone Grant, a contractor and builder; founder and president of the George J. Grant Construction Company of St. Paul; son of George and Catherine (Matthewson) Grant, of Pictou, Nova Scotia. Mother, Teresa (Thompson) Grant; daughter of Alexander and Sarah (Perley) Thompson, of Fredericton, New Brunswick.

Phillips-Andover. Sanitary engineering course; member Class Day Committee and Book and Snake.

Had been connected with the George J. Grant Construction Company since graduation; became vice-president in 1908, treasurer 1913, and president 1924, member Junior Pioneers of St. Paul; attended Dayton Avenue Presbyterian Church, St. Paul.

Married January 16, 1913, in St. Paul, Maud, daughter of Alvin Ernest Macartney (attended Carroll College 1877-79, LL.B. University of Wisconsin 1880) and Isabel (Street) Macartney (University of Wisconsin ex-’82). One son, George Wallace.

Death due to lobar pneumonia. Buried in Oakland Cemetery, St. Paul. Survived by wife, son, and three sisters, Mrs.

Douglas Gray Harvey, Ph.B. 1905.

Born September 28, 1882, in Cleveland, Ohio
Died June 17, 1930, in New Haven, Conn

Father, William Henry Harvey; secretary and treasurer of Commonwealth Company; son of Henry and Emily (Allyn) Harvey, of Cleveland. Mother, Mary Josephine (Gray) Harvey; daughter of Joseph William and Keziah (Foster) Gray, of Cleveland. Cousins: William C. Williams, ex-’89, Perry W Harvey, ’91, Allyn F. Harvey, ’93, and Mervin C. Harvey, ’99.

University School, Cleveland. Electrical engineering course; won the light-weight wrestling match Freshman year; an editor of Yale Daily News Senior year; member Yale City Government Club, Book and Snake, and the Cloister.

Apprentice seven months and then inspector of motors with Crocker-Wheeler Company of Ampere, N. J., 1905-06; engaged on construction work for Sandusky Portland Cement Company in the erection of their mill at Dixon, Ill., 1906-07; had since been connected with Reynolds Wire Company of Detroit; apprentice 1907-09, master mechanic 1909-1910, superintendent 1910-15, treasurer 1912-14, vice-president 1914-1923, and president since 1923 (also director since 1912); secretary of Dixon (Ill.) Yale Club 1910; vestryman St. Luke’s Episcopal Church, Dixon.

Married June 10, 1911, in Dixon, Jane Pauline, daughter of Horace Gilford and Jane Letitia (Lyon) Reynolds. Children: Jane Gray, Pauline, and Douglas Gray, Jr.

Death, due to heart disease, occurred at the reunion headquarters of the Class of 1905 S. Buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Dixon. Survived by wife, two daughters, son, and mother, now of Pasadena, Calif.
Frederic Ross Wickwire, Ph.B. 1905.

Born January 16, 1883, in Cortland, N. Y.
Died September 17, 1929, in Cortland, N. Y.

Father, Chester Franklin Wickwire, a manufacturer of wire products; president of Wickwire Brothers, Inc.; director of First National Bank, founder and donor of Cortland County Hospital, and trustee of First Presbyterian Church, Cortland; son of Raymond and Elmira (Greenman) Wickwire, of McGraw, N. Y. Mother, Ardell (Rouse) Wickwire; daughter of Simeon and Sabina (Rowley) Rouse, of South Cortland, N. Y. Yale relatives include: Theodore H. Wickwire, Jr., ’03, Jere R. Wickwire, ’06, and Ward A. Wickwire, ex-’08 S. (cousins).

Phillips-Andover. Mechanical engineering course; member Freshman and Apollo Banjo clubs.

Had been connected with Wickwire Brothers, Inc., since graduation as purchasing agent; had also held the offices of director since 1906, secretary since 1911, and second vice-president since 1925; director of Cortland Trust Company 1910–1928; trustee of Cortland County Hospital since 1910, and of First Presbyterian Church since 1921.

Married June 1, 1912, in Owego, N. Y., Marian Aileen, daughter of Lyman Truman and Cynthia (Cornell) Goodrich. Children: Chester Frederic, Cynthia Margaret, Lyman Goodrich, and Winthrope Ross.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Cortland Rural Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughter, three sons, and a brother, Charles C. Wickwire, of Cortland.

Douglas Vaille Wallace, Ph.B. 1906.

Born November 27, 1885, in Springfield, Mass

Father, Andrew Brabner Wallace; founder, owner, and president of Forbes & Wallace, dry goods merchants; president of Syndicate Trading Company of New York City, Consolidated Dry Goods Company of Springfield, and Denholm McKay Company, of Worcester, Mass; director of Springfield High School. Select course; member Yale Corinthian Yacht Club.

Assistant buyer and manager with Consolidated Dry Goods Company's department stores at Pittsfield, Mass., 1906–07 and at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., 1907–08; since 1908 had been a partner in firm of Forbes & Wallace, Inc.; buyer and manager of several departments 1908–1916, treasurer 1916–1929, and vice-president 1924–29; director of Consolidated Dry Goods Company since 1916 and vice-president since 1924; director of Springfield Safe Deposit & Trust Company and life member of City Library Association since 1924; former member of Church of the Unity (Unitarian), Springfield, and member Longmeadow (Mass.) Congregational Church at time of death.

Married October 8, 1913, in Springfield, Mary Foote, daughter of John Cooley Robinson (B.A. Williams 1886) and Cora Eugenie (Mack) Robinson. Children: John Robinson and Mack Foster.

Death, due to an abscess of the lung, appendicitis, and lobar pneumonia, followed an operation for the abscess and occurred at the Chapin Memorial Hospital. Cremation took place and ashes interred in Springfield Cemetery. Survived by wife, two sons, mother, two brothers, Andrew B. Wallace, of Springfield, and Norman Wallace, '14 S., and two sisters, Madora W. Thomson, the widow of Douglas H. Thomson, '08 S., and Ruth W. Demarest, the wife of L. McGregor Demarest, '11 S.
Arthur James Robin, Ph.B. 1908.

Died May 31, 1930, in London, England

Father, James Hutchinson Robin; occupied with mining interests; son of Nicholas and Esther N. Robin, of St Peter Port, Guernsey Channel Islands, England. Mother, Amelia (Roberts) Robin.

East Denver (Colo) High School. Mining engineering course; member Theta Xi.

Sampler with Nevada Consolidated Copper Company of Ely 1908–09; then located at Salt Lake City, Utah, for a short time; assayer with Star Mining Company at Cherry Creek, Nev., six months during 1909–1910; operated customs assay office at Porcupine, Ontario, 1911–12; assayer, chemist, and ore shippers agent at Durango, Colo., 1912–16 and 1917–19; chemist with Arizona Consolidated Smelting Company at Humboldt 1916–17; chief chemist with Mazapil Copper Company, Ltd., at Concepcion del Oro, Zacateras, Mexico, in 1919; chemist with American Smelting & Refining Company at Aguascalientes, Mexico, and at Matehuala, San Luis Potosi, Mexico, 1919–1920 and with Real del Monte Company at Pachuca, Hidalgo, Mexico, October 21, 1920–April 30, 1930; member Presbyterian Church, Pachuca

Married November 19, 1911, in Montreal, Canada, Kate Marion, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Walker Downie, of Melbourne, Australia. Children. Peter Hutchinson and Mary Margaret. Mrs. Robin died July 5, 1926

Death due to carcinoma of the liver. Cremation took place at Golders Green Crematorium. Survived by son, daughter, and a sister, Miss Edith Robin, of London and Geneva, Switzerland.

Stephen Whitney, Ph.B. 1908.

Born April 13, 1887, in New Haven, Conn
Died May 31, 1930, in Hamden, Conn

Father, Stephen Whitney; owner of a plantation near New Orleans, La., and later engaged in agriculture in New Haven;
Obituary Record

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. Select course; vice-president of Freshman Football Team and of University and St. Paul's clubs Senior year; member Delta Psi and St. Anthony.

LLB Yale 1911; assistant registrar of the Law School in his second year and registrar third year; member Corbey Court; clerk in law office of Watrous & Day (George D. Watrous, '79, and Harry G. Day, '90 S.) 1911-14; practiced independently for several years and was associated with James E. Wheeler and J. Frederick Baker for a time; in 1913 elected an alderman-at-large for term of two years; elected state senator on Democratic ticket 1914 and reelected 1916; delegate to Democratic National Convention in St. Louis 1916 and to Democratic State Convention 1924; in 1922 nominated for congressman from 3d District, but failed of election, commissioned as a First Lieutenant in Cannon Section, Gun Division, Ordnance Officers' Reserve Corps, September 24, 1917, stationed in office of Chief of Ordnance in Washington October 12, 1917–January 30, 1918, and then at Bridgeport, Conn., until September 19, 1918, when he resigned to enter Field Artillery Central Officers' Training School at Camp Zachary Taylor; served with 18th Observation Battery until given his discharge December 7, 1918; in 1919 served as Director of Yale Bureau of American University Union in Paris; member New Haven Board of Education 1921–23 (president 1922–23); director of New Haven Hospital 1923–26 and elected again in 1929 for ensuing year; member of board of governors of Mory's Association 1917–1920, 1925–28, and 1929–1930; elected member of board of governors of Graduates Club in 1927 for a three year term; member of board of directors of Association Against the Prohibition Amendment (Connecticut Division) 1930; president of Hammonassett Club of Madison, Conn., six years; former member of 2d Company, Governor's Foot Guard; member Connecticut State Bar Association, New Haven chapter of National Aeronautic Association, St. Paul's School Alumni Death due to heart disease. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, two sons, two daughters, a stepsister, Mrs. Charles D. Dickey, and a stepbrother, Harry Whitney, both of New York City. His brother, Lawrence Whitney, ex-'96 S., died while in college.

Arthur John St. Lawrence, Ph.B. 1909.

Born August 26, 1886, in Hartford, Conn
Died June 14, 1930, in Fairmont, W Va

Father, John James St. Lawrence; manager of the Allyn House and the United States Hotel, Hartford, and manager and proprietor of the Homestead at Savin Rock, New Haven, son of Timothy David and Ann (Hogan) St. Lawrence, of Hartford. Mother, Mary (Bowen) St. Lawrence; daughter of Patrick Henry and Anastasia (Ward) Bowen, of New Haven

Cousin: John L. Gilson, '99

New Haven High School and Mount St Mary's College, Emmetsburg, Md. Select course; member Freshman and Apollo Glee clubs.

Attended Yale School of Law in fall of 1909 and then went to New York City; employed by a publishing house for a short period, connected with bonding department of Fidelity & Casualty Company nine months, and traveling salesman for Oliver Typewriter Company; studied medicine at College of Physicians and Surgeons in Baltimore, Md., and Fordham, where he received degree of M.D. in 1918; interne and house surgeon at Knickerbocker Hospital in New York 1917-18, took post-graduate course at Manhattan Eye and Ear Hospital, New York, 1919-1920; practiced medicine in New Haven, specializing in diseases of the eye, ear, nose, and throat, 1920-22, and served as clinical assistant in oto-rhinolaryngology at Yale; had been engaged in practice in Fairmont since 1922, as a specialist in treatment of the eye, ear, nose, and throat; commissioned as First Lieutenant in the Medical Corps in February, 1917; attended Medical Officers' Training Camp at Camp Greenleaf, Ga., February–June, 1918, and assigned to Ambulance Corps 358; went overseas June 12, 1918, and served with 90th Division at St.-Mihiel and with 3d Battalion of 360th Infantry (as Battalion Surgeon) during the Argonne campaign; gassed and wounded November 2 and gassed again November 9; received a regimental citation for conduct under fire on November 1 and 2; with Army of Occupation on the Moselle, with headquarters at Broucastle, until May 28, 1919, serving with Ambulance Company 35, 315th Sanitary Train; returned to the United States June 20 and given his discharge June 21; member of 2d Company, Governor's Foot Guard 1919–1922; former member Connecticut and New Haven County Medical associations; member national medical fraternity, Omega Upsilon Phi, La Société des 40 Hommes et 8 Chevaux, Voiture Local 1005, and St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church, Fairmont.

Married November 11, 1921, in New York City, Irene Post, daughter of Melville Lee and Maud Davison (Post) Hutchinson. No children.

Death due to acute dilatation of the heart and chronic fibrosis of the lungs, the result of gas injury in the war. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Fairmont. Survived by wife and a sister, Mrs. Thomas A. McPartmand, of West Haven.

Henry Hull, Ph.B. 1910.

Born January 9, 1889, in Savannah, Ga.
Died January 10, 1930, in Alameda, Calif.

Father, Henry Harvie Hull, a banker in Savannah; son of Henry and Anna (Thomas) Hull, of Athens, Ga. Mother, Alice Stewart (Baker) Hull; daughter of William Henry Baker (B.A. Oglethorpe University 1852) and Mary Goodrich (Morrell) Baker, of Savannah. Cousins: John L. Hammond, '02, George H. Baldwin, '05 S., and Fort Hammond, ex-'06 Taft School. Mining engineering course; member Chi Phi.
Entered employ of the Seattle (Wash.) Electric Company (under executive management of Stone & Webster) in July, 1910, as office assistant to the superintendent of steam operation; later became clerk to the superintendent of steam stations and then assistant superintendent of stations; appointed superintendent of steam heat and steam stations upon the reorganization of the Puget Sound companies in February, 1916, and served as such until July, 1917; in charge of Oriental imports department of W. R. Grace & Company, importers and exporters, at their San Francisco office 1917–19; partner in firm of D. H. McClure & Company, produce brokers, San Francisco, 1919–1921 and in firm of C. B. Jennings Company, commission merchants, since 1921; member Christ Episcopal Church, Watertown, Conn.

Married April 24, 1916, in Seattle, Mabelle Claire Wilton, who attended the University of Washington, daughter of Albert and Mary Alice (Crutcher) Wilton. One daughter, Harvie.

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Washelli Mausoleum, Seattle. Survived by wife, daughter, mother, two sisters, Mrs. Robert M. Cooper, of Wisacky, S. C., and Miss Alice Hull, of Atlanta, Ga., and a half sister, Miss Virgia Smith, of Atlanta.

Harry George Legg, Ph.B. 1911.

Born November 15, 1886, in Minneapolis, Minn.
Died January 10, 1930, in Minneapolis, Minn

Father, Harry Floris Legg, a diamond merchant; member of firm of H. F. Legg & Company and of its successor, H. F. Legg & Son, jewelers; son of George B. and Fidelia A. Legg, of Minneapolis. Mother, Dora Victoria (Wiedemann) Legg, daughter of George Wiedemann, of Newport, Ky, and Cincinnati, Ohio.

Lawrenceville School. Entered Sheffield Scientific School with Class of 1910, joining Class of 1911 S. the next year, select course; played on University Golf Team; captain of Freshman, Junior, and Senior Golf teams; runner-up in Individual Intercollegiate Golf Championship; on Basketball.
Team of 1911 S. Freshman year and captain Senior year; had “Y.G T.” and “Y.B.B.”

Had been engaged in general insurance business in Minneapolis ever since graduation; solicitor for the Hood Agency of the Ocean Accident & Guarantee Corporation, Ltd., 1911–1926; also conducted a brokerage business under his own name from 1914 until his death; enlisted in Motor Transport Corps in November, 1918, but was not called for duty; Minnesota amateur golf champion 1905, 1908–1913, 1917, 1919, and 1920; Trans-Mississippi amateur golf champion 1909–1912 and 1916; Western amateur golf champion at St. Louis, Mo., 1919; Minnesota open champion (score, 297) 1925; during the war did golf exhibition work for American Red Cross and also engaged in Liberty Loan work and work for the Department of Justice.

Death, due to a pulmonary embolus following an operation for a stone in the kidney, occurred at the Eitel Hospital. Buried in Lakewood Cemetery, Minneapolis. Survived by wife, two daughters, father, and a brother, Frederick C. Legg, of Minneapolis.

Jokichi Takamine, Jr., Ph.B. 1913.

Born August 28, 1888, in Tokyo, Japan.
Died February 22, 1930, in New York City.

Father, Dr. Jokichi Takamine, a Samurai of the Kanazawa Clan; a chemist; studied medicine at Osaka in 1872; attended University of Glasgow and Andersonian University in Glasgow 1880–83; Sc.D. Imperial University of Japan 1899, Phar D. 1906; received medal for discovery of adrenalin 1912; decorated by Emperor of Japan with Fourth Order of the Rising Sun 1915; received Fourth Rank, senior degree, and Third Merit decoration 1922; chemist in Department of Agriculture and Commerce, Japanese Government, in Tokyo; Japanese commissioner to Cotton Centennial World’s Fair in New Orleans, La.; president of Sankyo & Company, Ltd. (pharmaceutical house), in Tokyo and of Takamine Ferment Company, International Takamine Ferment Company, Takamine Corporation, and Takamine Laboratory, Inc.; member Franklin Institute, Royal Academy of Science, Royal Chemical Society of England, American Chemical Society, Institute of Chemical Engineers, and Japan and America Society; founder of Research Institute of Physics and Chemistry in Japan; one of the founders of Japan Society of New York, Japanese Association of New York, and Nippon Club of New York (president); donor to Mrs. Taft of the famous cherry trees in Potomac Park, Washington, D. C., in 1910; son of Dr. Sei-Ichi Takamine and Yuki (Minami) Takamine, of Kanazawa. Mother, Caroline Fields (Hitch) Takamine; daughter of Ebenezer Vose and Mary Beatrice (Fields) Hitch, of New Orleans.

Horace Mann School, New York City, and Phillips-Andover. Chemical course; active in Byers Hall work.

Did graduate work in chemistry at Pasteur Institute, Paris, and University of Freiburg, Germany, 1913–14; treasurer of Takamine Laboratory, Inc., manufacturers of enzymes, in Clifton, N. J., 1914–1922 and president since then (also a director since 1914); director of International Takamine Ferment Company since 1918 and president since 1922; vice-president of Takamine Ferment Company since 1922; vice-president and director of Clifton Piece Dye Works since 1920; director of Takamine & Darby since 1918, of Takamine Corporation since 1925, of Bankers Petroleum Company since 1926, and of Sankyo & Company since 1927; member American Chemical Society, American Biological Society, Yale Engineering Association, New York Zoological Society, Bankers Club of America, Japan Society, and Christ Church (Episcopal) in Ridgewood, N. J.; at time of death had just returned from a two months' trip in Japan, where he was an official delegate of the American Chemical Society at the World Engineering Congress in Tokyo in November, 1929, had been scheduled to speak before New York section of Textile Chemists and Colorists at their meeting in Paterson, N. J., on March 28.

Married June 4, 1917, in New York City, Hilda Isabelle, daughter of David and Hilda (Nelson) Petrie. Children: Caroline and Jokichi, 3d.
Obituary Record

Death, due to a fractured skull resulting from an accident, occurred in the Hospital for the Ruptured and Crippled. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by wife, son, daughter, mother (Mrs. Charles Beach), of Vail, Ariz., and a brother, Eben T. Takamine, ex-'13 S.

Benjamin Sprague Story, Ph.B. 1916.

Born December 24, 1893, in Chillicothe, Ohio.
Died January 4, 1930, in Cleveland, Ohio.

Father, Willard Austin Story, a railroad contractor and farmer; son of Austin Putnam and Esmeralda Gennette (Sprague) Story, of Chillicothe, Ohio. Mother, Annie Smith (Frost) Story; daughter of Benjamin Burt and Mary (Ingalls) Frost, of Chillicothe, Ohio. Yale relatives include: William D. Fullerton, ’31 S. (nephew), and Frost Snyder, ’13 S. (cousin).

Chillicothe High School, University School, Cleveland, Ohio, and Phillips-Andover. Select course; general two-year honors; on Freshman Track Team (won a first and a second prize), and University Track Team in 1915 (won a third prize and numerals); secretary of Sheff Student Council; member Class Book Committee, Berzelius, and the Colony.

Assistant to the manager in safety and welfare department of Pickands, Mather & Company (iron ore) in Cleveland 1916-1923, and salesman in coal department 1923-29; since September, 1929, had been a salesman with Butler Brothers, iron ore shippers, in Cleveland; from September 30 to December 7, 1918, served as a Private in 18th Recruit Company, General Service Infantry, at Jefferson Barracks, Mo.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Grandview Cemetery, Chillicothe. Survived by wife, son, a stepdaughter, Constance Fauntleroy Savage, mother, a half brother, Willard F. Story, ’08 S., and a half sister, the wife of Dr. William D. Fullerton, ’07 S.
Eldridge LeBaron Bridgman, Ph.B. 1918.

Born April 24, 1894, in Norfolk, Conn.
Died April 30, 1930, in Santa Monica, Calif.

Father, Henry Harrison Bridgman. Mother, Alice Bradford (Eldridge) Bridgman.

Served in the Norton-Harjes Ambulance formation June-October, 1917; returned to the United States and to college in November, 1917, on leave of absence and with American Red Cross Ambulance at Milan, Italy, March-August, 1918; later enlisted in Artillery Section of the Foreign Legion and was assigned to Artillery School at Fontainebleau, where he served with 115th Artillery Brigade at first and later with 66th Battalion, 32d Artillery, until January, 1919; returned to the United States February 24, 1919; subsequently connected with Packard Motor Company of Detroit, Mich., as business manager of the advertising department and with Winquard Manufacturing Company in Los Angeles, Calif. For a number of years, however, had not been engaged in any occupation, because of ill health.

Married (2) December 4, 1928, in Santa Monica, Claire Bullock, a sister of his first wife.

Death, due to acute dilatation of the heart and nephritis, occurred at the Loamshire Hospital. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Santa Monica. Survived by wife, mother, and a sister, Mrs. George Griswold, of Greenwich, Conn.

Watson Stiles Woodruff, Jr., B.S. 1923.

Born January 6, 1901, in Orange, Conn.
Died August 21, 1929, in Orange, Conn.

Father, Watson Stiles Woodruff; partner in firm of S. D. Woodruff & Sons, seed growers; president of West Haven
Obituary Record

Bank & Trust Company; son of Stiles Denison Woodruff and Elizabeth Maria (Clark) Woodruff (a non-graduate member of the Mount Holyoke Seminary Class of 1857), of Orange. Mother, Harriet (Hotchkiss) Woodruff; daughter of Merritt Lockwood and Ellen Cynthia (Smith) Hotchkiss, of Derby, Conn. Yale relatives. Stiles D. Woodruff, ex-'18 S. (brother); and Frank C. Woodruff, '88 S., and Robert J. Woodruff, '96 (uncles).

New Haven High School and Hotchkiss School. Entered Yale with Class of 1921 S., but joined Class of 1923 S. in 1919; pre-forestry course; on Baseball Squad 1921, Golf Team 1922, Class Baseball Team 1921 and 1922, and Class Hockey Team 1922 and 1923, member Delta Psi and St. Anthony.

Attended Kings College, Cambridge University, 1923–24 (on College Golf and Hockey teams, Class of 1923–24); connected with S. D. Woodruff & Sons as assistant to his father from May, 1924, until December 13, 1925, when his neck was broken in an automobile accident; although hopelessly crippled had since been engaged in scientific experiments with plants, taking over the direction of the seed trial grounds operated by his father's firm, and had developed a number of useful hybrids through his researches; member Orange Congregational Church.

Unmarried.

Buried in Orange Cemetery. Survived by parents (father died September 4, 1930) and three sisters, Mrs. M. Grant Blakeslee, who studied in Yale School of Music for a year and whose husband graduated from Sheffield Scientific School in 1915, Mrs Robert T. Elliott, of Germantown, Pa., and Mrs. Sanford M. Treat, of Jackson Heights, N. Y.

Charles Williams Garrett, B.S. 1927.

Born June 10, 1903, in Weldon, N. C

Father, Paul Garrett; president of Garrett & Company, Inc, Brooklyn, N. Y.; president of Virginia Dare Vineyards, Inc, Penn Yan, N. Y.; chairman of board of directors of Fruit Industries, Inc., of California; son of Francis Marion Garrett (M.D. University and Bellevue Hospital Medical College of New York University 1852) and Della Elizabeth (Williams) Garrett, of Halifax County, N. C. Mother, Evelyn Ghio (Edwards) Garrett (attended Suffolk College 1892–94); daughter of Robert Octavius (formerly Octavius Franklin) Edwards, who served as a Private in Company E, 34th Regiment, Virginia Infantry, Confederate Army, and Caroline Rebecca (Campbell) Edwards, of Weldon, N. C.

Culver Military Academy and Phillips-Exeter. Industrial engineering course; heeled the crew managership Sophomore year; received a "Y" with crossed oars; chairman of Class Loan Fund three years; on Student Advisory Council of Bureau of Appointments Junior year; member Delta Psi, St. Anthony, and Torch Honor Society.

Connected with Virginia Dare Vineyards, Inc., as secretary and treasurer until his illness in April, 1929; had been in Tucson for three months prior to his death; member Yale Engineering Association and Christ Church, Exeter, N. H.; attended St. Marks' (Episcopal) Church, Penn Yan.

Married June 29, 1927, at Flat Rock, N. C., Marjorie Virginia, daughter of Edward Reginald Hodgson, Jr. (B L University of Georgia 1892) and Mary Arthur (McCullough) Hodgson, of Athens, Ga. No children.

Death, due to tuberculosis, occurred at the Desert Sanatorium, Tucson. Buried in Memorial Chapel, Bluff Point, N. Y. Survived by wife, parents, and three sisters, Evelyn, the wife of Howard C. Paulsen, ’27 S., and the Misses Dorothy V. and Mary Emily Garrett, of Bluff Point.

Born November 1, 1905, in Fargo, N. Dak.
Died April 17, 1930, in New York City.

Father, John Harry Rindlaub (M.D. George Washington University Medical School 1893 and Howard University School of Medicine, Washington, D. C., 1894), a physician in Fargo and later in Pasadena, Calif; fellow of American Medical Association and member of American Academy of Ophthalmology and Oto-Laryngology and American College of Surgeons; has served on staffs of Pasadena General Hospital, South Pasadena Hospital, and Los Angeles Eye, Ear, Nose, and Throat Hospital. Mother, Maie Bruce (Douglas) Rindlaub. Cousin Hayden N. Smith, '23.

Fargo High School and Phillips-Andover. Attended North Dakota State Agricultural College 1924–25. Industrial engineering course; held a Yale Club of New York Scholarship throughout his course; member Freshman Water Polo and Track teams, Class Football Team Sophomore year, and University Water Polo Squad Junior year, and won numerals in all three sports; member of board of Yale Calendar three years, belonged to Chi Phi and York Hall.

Entered employ of Timken Roller Bearing Company of Canton, Ohio, after graduation, but at the time of his death was in the employ of William White & Sons, a real estate firm in New York.

Unmarried.

GRADUATE SCHOOL
MASTERS OF ARTS

George Washington Dungan, M.A. 1879.
Died May 22, 1930, in Portland, Ore

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the OBITUARY RECORD.

George William Carter, M.A. 1899.
Born January 4, 1867, in Rosario, Argentine Republic.
Died March 19, 1930, in New York City

Attended Drew Theological Seminary, Madison, N. J.; B.A. Wesleyan 1892 (charter member there of Beta Theta Pi); B.D. Drew Theological Seminary 1893; ordained to Methodist Episcopal ministry in April, 1893, and joined New York East Conference; assistant pastor of Trinity Church, New York City, 1893–94; fellow at Oxford University 1894–95; pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Church, Hartford, Conn., 1895–98, First Methodist Church, West Haven, 1898–99, during which period took graduate work at Yale, and Methodist Church, Sea Cliff, N. Y., 1899–1907, studied at New York University 1899–1900, receiving degree of Ph.D. in 1900; since 1907 had been general secretary of New York Bible Society; joined Reformed Church of America in 1911 and from 1910 to 1912 was acting pastor of Grace Reformed Church, Brooklyn; author: A Comparison between Zoroastrianism and Judaism (1918), The Faith of the Presidents, and The Logos of Philo and John; also of articles on "Social Life in East London” (1894–95), an account of his study of social conditions in Manchester, London, and Edinburgh; instituted Universal Bible Sunday 1907; editor of The Bible in New York since 1908, member of Collegiate Church of St. Nicholas (New York Classis of Reformed Church of America).

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, an adopted daughter, Mrs. Ambrose Travers, of New York City, and a sister, Miss Annie W. Carter, of Delhi, N. Y.

Harley Fish Roberts, M.A. 1908.

Born December 8, 1861, in LaRue, Ohio.
Died April 29, 1930, in Watertown, Conn.

Father, Truman H. Roberts, owner of a general store and later a commercial traveler; parents lived near St. Albans, Vt. Mother, Ruby Jane (Fish) Roberts; daughter of Samuel Artimus and Hannah Camellia (Love) Fish, of Marion County, Ohio.

Central High School, Cleveland, Ohio; B.A. Western Reserve 1884 (member Delta Upsilon); taught Latin at Western Reserve Academy 1884–86; studied in Yale Graduate School 1886–88, taught Latin at Norwich (Conn) Academy 1888–1891; tutor in Greek and Latin at Yale 1891–96; studied at University of Munich 1896–97, head of the Latin Department at the Taft School from 1897 until his retirement in February, 1928; vice-president, treasurer, and part owner of the school since 1912 and a trustee since 1926; president of Litchfield County University Club 1927–28; during the war served as chairman of War Savings Committee of Watertown and of third and fourth Liberty Loan drives, as member of executive committee of the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., and United War Work drives, the local War Bureau, and the Council of Home Defense, and as treasurer of the Armenian Fund; in his memory a bronze tablet has been erected by the Connecticut Forest and Park Association at the Black Rock State Park and Mattatuck State Forest, Watertown, to commemorate his interest in these sites.

Unmarried.

Death due to coronary thrombosis. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Watertown. Survived by a sister, Ruby Roberts Hill, the widow of Dr. Joseph W. Hill, '78.

Howard George Dibble, M.A. 1912.

Born October 31, 1874, in Ellenburg, N. Y.
Died December 27, 1929, in Portage, Wis.

Father, Lorenzo Albert Dibble, a Methodist minister; held pastorates in Ellenburg, Fonda, Watervliet, Green Island, and Gansevoort, N. Y., and Shelburne, Vt.; son of George and Jane (Haywood) Dibble, of Summit, N. Y. Mother, Frances Anne (Carr) Dibble, daughter of William and Sophia (McCranken) Carr, of Port Byron, N. Y.

Death due to generalized carcinoma. Buried in Silver Lake Cemetery, Portage. Survived by wife, sons, three sisters, Miss Evelyn J. Dibble and Mrs. John W. Van Vranken, of Schenectady, and Mrs. Carl M. Moot, of Richmondville, N. Y., and a brother, Lawrence L. Dibble, of Cleveland, Ohio.

MASTER OF SCIENCE

Henry H. Conover, M.S. 1902.

Born March 4, 1878, in Dayton, N. J.
Died December 11, 1929, in Sarasota, Fla.

Father, Thomas Combs Conover; in the retail meat business; son of Henry H. and Elizabeth Runyon (Combs) Conover of Red Bank, N. J. Mother, Mary Ann (VanDerveer) Conover; daughter of Cornelius and Abigail Ann (Williamson) VanDerveer, of Dayton.

New Brunswick (N. J.) High School; B.S. Rutgers 1900 (member Delta Upsilon and Phi Beta Kappa); taught at Fairfield (Conn.) Academy 1900–01; studied in Yale Graduate School 1901–02 and a part of 1902–03 (elected to Sigma Xi); taught at the Hotchkiss School 1903–05; studied again in Yale Graduate School 1905–07 (Ph.D. 1907), also serving as an instructor in mathematics; instructor in mathematics at Brown University 1907–08, when obliged to give up teaching on account of ill health; subsequently lived at various times in Milwaukee, Wis., Baltimore, Md., Newport News, Va., and Passaic, N. J.; since 1923 had owned a farm in Sarasota, where he was engaged in poultry raising; former member First Presbyterian Church, Dayton (member of the choir, teacher in the Sunday school, and president of the Christian Endeavor Society); at time of death member First Dutch Reformed Church, New Brunswick.

Married July 19, 1929, in Sarasota, Elsie, daughter of Bernhardt Raymond and Barbara (Greber) Klemm. No children.

Death due to meningitis and blood poisoning, caused by a sore on his lip which became infected. Buried in Elm Ridge Cemetery, Three Mile Run, between New Brunswick and Franklin Park, N. J. Survived by wife and a sister, Miss Elizabeth R. Conover, of New Brunswick.

DOCTORS OF PHILOSOPHY

Thorstein Bunde Veblen, Ph.D. 1884.

Born July 30, 1857, in Cato, Wis
Died August 3, 1929, in Menlo Park, Calif

Father, Thomas Anderson Veblen, a cabinet maker and carpenter (trained in Norway) and later a farmer; son of Anders Haldorsen Oiger (assumed name of Veblen, when he became a farmer of the farm Veblen, according to custom in Norway) and Jartrud Thomasdatter (Thorstad) Oiger, of Valdres, Norway. Mother, Kari (Bunde) Veblen; daughter of Thorstein Osteinsen and Berit Olsdatter (Egge) Bunde, of Valdres.

Preparation for college received in preparatory department of Carleton College, B.A. Carleton 1880; instructor at Monona Academy, Madison, Wis., 1880–81; did graduate work at Johns Hopkins 1881–82; student in Yale Graduate School 1881–82 (second semester) and 1882–84; on account of ill health lived with his parents on a farm in Rice County, Minn., 1884–85 and 1886–88, with his brother in Iowa City, Iowa, 1885–86, and in Stacyville, Iowa, 1888–1890, engaged in literary work during a part of the period; studied in the Graduate School of Cornell 1891–92, holding a University fellowship in economics and finance; connected with University of Chicago 1892–1906, as fellow 1892–93, reader in political economy 1893–94, associate 1894–96, instructor 1896–1900, and associate professor of economics 1900–06, associate professor of economics at Stanford University 1906–1911; lecturer in economics at School of Business and Public Administration, University of Minnesota, 1911–18; lecturer in economics at New School for Social Research, New York City, from 1918 until his retirement in 1927; had since devoted his time to the work of translation and writing of essays; managing editor of Journal of Political Economy 1896–1905; Married (1) April 10, 1888, in Stacyville (probably), Ellen May Rolfe (B A. Carleton 1881), daughter of Charles Gilman and Ellen Sylvia (Strong) Rolfe. Mr. and Mrs. Veblen were later divorced. Married (2) June 17, 1914, in Chicago, Ann Fessenden, daughter of Alexander Stuart and Harriet Ayer (Towle) Bradley. Mrs. Veblen died October 7, 1920. No children by either marriage.

Death due to heart disease. Cremation took place at Cypress Lawn Cemetery near San Francisco and ashes were scattered in the Pacific Ocean. Survived by an adopted daughter, Becky B. Veblen, two brothers, Andrew A. Veblen and John Edward Veblen, both of Los Angeles, Calif, and four sisters, Mrs. Knut K. Viken, of Sacred Heart, Minn., Mrs. Sigurd Olsen, of Minneapolis, Minn., Mrs. Ole T. Hougen, of Nerstrand, Minn., and Mrs Hans J. Hanson, of Veblen, S. Dak.
Asaph Hall, Ph.D. 1889.

Born October 6, 1859, in Cambridge, Mass.

Father, Asaph Hall (Hon. Ph.D. Hamilton 1878, M.A. Harvard 1879, LL.D. Yale 1879 and Harvard 1886), attended Central College, McGrawville, N. Y., and University of Michigan; professor of mathematics at U. S. Naval Observatory, Washington (with rank of Captain); lecturer on celestial mechanics at Harvard; president of American Association for the Advancement of Science; vice-president and secretary of National Academy of Sciences; member Academy of Science, Institut de France, Academy of Imperial Science, Petrograd, Royal Astronomical Society, London, and American Philosophical Society; Chevalier of the Legion of Honor, son of Asaph and Hannah Clarissa (Palmer) Hall, of Goshen, Conn. Mother, Chloe Angeline (Stickney) Hall; daughter of Theophilus and Electa (Cook) Stickney, of Rodman, N. Y.

Columbian College Preparatory School, Washington, D. C.; B.A. Harvard 1882 (Phi Beta Kappa), assistant in U. S. Naval Observatory, Washington, 1882–85; assistant astronomer at Yale 1885–89, during that period took work in the Graduate School 1886–88; assistant astronomer at the Naval Observatory 1889–1892; professor of astronomy and director of the observatory at University of Michigan 1892–1905; assistant astronomer again at the Naval Observatory 1905–08; in 1908 became professor of mathematics in the Navy, with the rank of Lieutenant, and held that position until his retirement in June, 1929, having been promoted to rank of Commander June 1, 1920; also professor of astronomy at George Washington University 1906–1921; registrar general of Society of American Wars of the United States 1918–1929 and genealogist general 1919–1929; member American Mathematical Society, Astronomical and Astrophysical Society of America, Philosophical Society of Washington, Michigan Academy of Sciences, Washington Academy of Sciences, Sigma Xi, Astronomischen Gesellschaft, American Association for the Advancement of Science (secretary of the council 1896, general secretary 1897, and vice-president and chairman of Section A 1900), and All Souls’ Unitarian Church, Washington.
Married July 14, 1897, in Kane, Ill., Mary Estella Cockrell, University of Michigan ex'99, daughter of Jesse and Mary Elizabeth (Hamer) Cockrell. Two daughters: Katharine Cockrell (B S. Teachers College, Columbia, 1929); and Mary (B A Vassar 1924), the wife of Wylie Kilpatrick (B.A. Stanford 1922, M.A. Columbia 1925, Ph.D. Robert Brookings Graduate School of Economics and Government 1927).

Death, due to cancer of the stomach, occurred at the Naval Hospital. Buried in Arlington National Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughters, and two brothers, Samuel Stickney Hall, of New York City, and Percival Hall, of Washington, D.C.

Clark Eugene Crandall, Ph.D. 1891.

Born June 28, 1857, in Nile, N.Y.
Died December 8, 1929, in Madison, Wis.

Father, Ezra Crandall, a shoemaker; director of Milton Bank and trustee of Milton College; held several town offices; son of Samuel Park and Anna (Crandall) Crandall, of Friendship, N.Y. Mother, Mary (Smith) Crandall; daughter of Daniel Follett and Mary (Peck) Smith, of Avoca, N.Y.

Milton Academy; B.A. Milton College 1879; principal of school in Emerald Grove, Wis, 1879-1880, taught French in Milton College 1880-81; studied at Baptist Theological Seminary 1881-84; B D University of Chicago 1885, and M.A. Milton College 1885; instructor in Correspondence School of Sacred Literature under William R. Harper, Ph.D, 1884-1900, attended Yale Divinity School 1888-1891; assistant in Semitic languages at Yale 1889-1891, in charge of Correspondence School of Sacred Literature in Chicago 1891-92; instructor in Hebrew and kindred languages at University of Chicago 1892-1900, delegate from University of Chicago to Oriental Congress in Rome in summer of 1899, and traveled abroad for several months, removed to Milton, Wis, where he had since lived, in 1901, and was not actively engaged for several years, on account of ill health; bookkeeper and collector for Milton and Milton Junction Telephone Company 1908-1920; treasurer of Milton College 1910-1924, had been in poor health since 1924; member Seventh Day Baptist Church, Milton.

Death, due to arteriosclerosis, occurred in Mendota Hospital, Madison, Wis. Buried in Milton (Wis) Cemetery. Survived by wife and a sister, Mrs William W Clarke, of Milton.

Edward Franklin Buchner, Ph.D. 1893.

Born September 3, 1868, in Paxton, Ill.

Died August 22, 1929, in Munich, Germany

Father, Jacob Buchner, a blacksmith; born in Germany and came to the United States in 1854; son of Johannes and Wilhelmina Buchner, of Zatzenhausen, Wurtemberg, Germany. Mother, Louise Caroline (Lohmann) Buchner, daughter of Jacob and Caroline Lohmann, of Reher, Germany.

Gibson City (Ill.) High School; B.A. Western College 1889, M.A. 1892; instructor in botany and physiology at Western College 1889-1890, studied in Yale Graduate School 1890-93; lecturer on pedagogy at Yale 1892-94 and instructor in pedagogy and philosophy 1894-97, professor of analytical psychology at New York University 1896-1901; docent in philosophy at Clark University 1901-03; professor of philosophy and education at University of Alabama 1903-08; professor of education and philosophy at Johns Hopkins University 1908-1915 and professor of education since 1915; chairman of committee in charge of College Courses for Teachers 1909-1915 and director 1915-1924, and director of the College for Teachers since 1924; instrumental in the creation of the degree of Master of Education and Doctor of Education at Johns Hopkins, concurrent with the establishment of the School of Higher Studies in Education in spring of 1929; lecturer on psychology at Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences 1898-1900 and at Goucher College 1911-15, special collaborator with U.S. Bureau of Education 1914-19, departmental and contributing editor of Cyclopedia of Education 1910-15; editor, in cooperation with Dr. C. Macfie Married June 1, 1898, in Westport, Conn, Hannah Louise Cable (B.S. Johns Hopkins 1922), daughter of Rufus Davenport and Elizabeth Sanford (Morgan) Cable. Children: Edward Franklin, Jr. (B.A. Johns Hopkins 1923, M.D. 1927); Morgan Mallory (B.A. Johns Hopkins 1926), now student at University of Maryland Law School; Elizabeth Sanford (B.S. Johns Hopkins 1928), now candidate for degree of M.A in Romance languages at Johns Hopkins; and Margaret Louise, student at Johns Hopkins.

Death due to arteriosclerosis with heart complications Cremation took place in Germany and ashes buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Baltimore. Survived by wife, two sons, two daughters, and a sister, Mrs. G. Ellis Porter, of Riverside, Calif.

Mary Crowell Welles, Ph.D. 1904.

Born November 1, 1860, in Newington, Conn
Died January 2, 1930, in Newington, Conn.

Father, Roger Welles, '51, a lawyer; financial clerk in United States Patent Office and later in office of the Assistant Attorney-General; member of Connecticut Legislature, author of articles on Newington and Sketch of the Constitutional History of Connecticut; son of Roger and Electa (Stanley) Welles, of Newington. Mother, Mercy Delano (Aiken) Welles; daughter of Lemuel Smith and Sarah (Coffin) Aiken, of Fairhaven, Mass. Yale relatives include: Solomon Welles (B.A. 1739) (great-great-grandfather); Roger Welles (B.A. 1775) (great-grandfather); Martin Welles (B.A. 1806) (great-uncle), his sons, Thomas N Welles (B.A. 1830) and Charles R. Welles (B.A. 1834), and his grandson, Charles S. Welles, ex-'70; William P. Aiken, '53 (uncle), his sons, Edwin E. Aiken, '81, and William P. Aiken, '89, and his grandsons, Edwin E. Aiken, Jr., '16, and George L. Aiken, '17; and Leonard A. Beadle, '19, and Roger P. Welles, '24 (nephews).

Hartford Public High School; B A. Smith 1883, taught the classics at Danielson (Conn) High School 1883–85; engaged in private tutoring at her home in Newington 1885–86, taught the classics at New Britain (Conn.) High School 1886–89.
Obituary Record

and at Washington (D C.) High School 1889–1892; took graduate work at the University of Leipzig for six months and at the Classical School in Athens for four months during 1892–93; instructor in Greek 1893–94 and assistant professor of Greek 1894–98 at Goucher College; student in Yale Graduate School 1898–99 and again 1901–02; did graduate work at Columbia 1902–03 and at Harvard 1904; instructor in Greek at Smith 1899–1901; taught Greek in Hartford Public High School 1904–07; had since served as secretary of Consumers' League of Connecticut, wrote a large number of monographs on various phases of the work of the League, which were published by the League in 1911 under the title of A Glance at Some European and American Schools (the result of investigations made by her during 1909–1910); elected to Smith chapter of Phi Beta Kappa in 1915; secretary of Smith Class of 1883, 1928–29; member of Hartford branch of Archaeological Institute of America, Esther Stanley chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution, and Church of Christ (Congregational), Newington.

Charles Andrew Armstrong Bennett, Ph.D. 1913.

Born June 15, 1885, in Dublin, Ireland.
Died May 1, 1930, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, James Cavendish Bennett; son of Charles Bernard and Elizabeth (Cavendish) Bennett, of Dublin. Mother, Susan Elizabeth (Boulger) Bennett; daughter of Edward Vaughan Boulger, who attended Trinity College, Dublin, and Elizabeth (Copperthwaite) Boulger, of Dublin.

Preparatory education received at Trent College, Derbyshire, England, B A. Queen's College, Oxford, 1908; did graduate work at Oxford, holding a fellowship from Queen's College, 1908–09 and then came to the United States; studied in Yale Graduate School 1909–13; instructor in philosophy at Yale 1911–15, assistant professor 1915–1924, associate professor 1924–26, and professor since 1926, at time of death was serving as chairman of the department for the current year; delivered the Lowell Institute lectures in Boston in February and March, 1925, and in March and April, 1930, and had given occasional lectures at the Theological School in Harvard University; in 1924 delivered an address on "Experience and Religion" at the annual meeting of the General Association of Congregational Clergy of Connecticut in New Haven; one of the speakers in the series of lectures on "Professions of Professors," held by the Liberal Club of Yale in 1925; spoke on "Existence of Divinity as Tested by Philosophy" in the lecture course in religion arranged by the University Christian Association in 1926 and at the dinner of the New Haven County Medical Association held in connection with its annual meeting in 1927; author: A Philosophical Study of Mysticism, published by Yale University Press in 1923, and At A Venture, published by Harper & Brothers in 1924; contributor to Yale Review, Journal of Philosophy, Journal of Religion, Proceedings of the Sixth International Congress of Philosophy, Harvard University, September 13–17, 1926 (1927), Saturday Review of Literature, Harper's Monthly Magazine, The Bookman, and Independent; elected director of Connecticut League of Civil Liberties and Progressive Legislation at its founding in 1924; confirmed in the Church of England while at Trent College.

Married June 18, 1912, in Oak Park, Ill, Anne Laura Ferris, who attended Milwaukee-Downer College two years, daughter of the Rev. Hiram Janes Ferris, who attended Milton College and Chicago and Andover Theological seminaries, and Harriet (Sanbourne) Ferris, a non-graduate of Milton College. Children: Charles Cavendish and Michael Ferris.

Death due to agranulocytic angina, a form of septic poisoning, brought on by an attack of trench mouth, which was an important contributing factor to his final illness, although not the direct cause. Buried in East Lawn Cemetery, East Haven, Conn. Survived by wife, sons, and a sister, who is the wife of the Rev. Willard L. Sperry, M.A. 1909, dean of the Theological School in Harvard University.
SCHOOL OF FORESTRY

Frederick Franklin Moon, M.F. 1909.

Born July 3, 1880, in Easton, Pa
Died September 3, 1929, in Syracuse, N.Y.

Father, William White Moon, Lafayette ex-'60, a manufacturer; Quaker, son of Samuel Moon, a noted portrait painter, and Matilda (White) Moon, of Easton. Mother, Ophelia Frances (Nightingale) Moon; daughter of John Allen and Anna (Wilkins) Nightingale, of Easton.

Easton High School; attended Lafayette one year (1896–97) as member of Class of 1900 (member Zeta Psi); B.A. Amherst 1901; studied at Harvard Medical School 1902–04; foreman of construction work with Pennsylvania Cement Company at Bath, Pa, 1904–07; studied in Yale School of Forestry 1907–09 (member Robin Hood Society) and also in Yale Graduate School 1907–08; made forestry reconnaissance studies for state of Connecticut in summer of 1908 and conducted Kentucky reconnaissance for United States Forest Service the next summer; state forester of New York Forest, Fish, and Game Commission in charge of highlands of the Hudson forest reservation 1909–1910; associate professor of forestry at Massachusetts Agricultural College 1910–12; professor of forest engineering at New York State College of Forestry 1912–1920 and since then dean of the college and professor of silviculture; during his administration the Charles Lathrop Pack Demonstration Forest was established near Warrensburg, N.Y., 1000 acres of land on Cranberry Lake in the Adirondacks acquired for a summer camp, and new headquarters for Ranger School (a branch of the College of Forestry) erected at Wanakena on Cranberry Lake; presided at the dedication of the building on August 24, 1928, and also at a conference on Ranger School education the next day; one of the prime movers in urging measures for state-wide reforestation and reclamation of idle forest lands in the state, which eventually became the Hewitt laws; studied forestry practice in Germany, France, and Switzerland in summer of 1912 and in various countries during leave of absence 1918–19; delegate to International Congress of Forestry at Rome in May, 1926, and spent following year studying systems of forestry education in eleven European countries; member of council of Northeastern Forest Experiment Station at Amherst, Mass (organized in 1924, the first of its kind in this country), since 1926; chairman of New York Section, Society of American Foresters 1924–26 and of its committee on international relations 1929; had been appointed to represent state of New York at the annual conference of National Tax Association at Saranac Lake September 9–13, 1929; author: The Book of Forestry (1916); joint author (with Nelson C. Brown, '06 and '08 F.) of Elements of Forestry (1914); with H. C. Belyea wrote the bulletin Forestry for the Private Owner (1925); contributor to Educational Review, Forest, Fish, and Game, Illustrated Canadian Forest and Outdoors, and Nature Magazine; had published various reports on forestry subjects; executive secretary of New York State Forestry Association 1914–17, member New York State Waterways Association (member of executive committee 1928 and 1929), American Forestry Association, American Association for the Advancement of Science, Sigma Xi, Phi Kappa Phi, and St. Paul’s Episcopal Church, Syracuse; corresponding member of Suomen Metsätieteellinen Seura (Society of Forestry in Suomi, Finland); member-at-large of National Council of Boy Scouts of America since 1922; president of Syracuse chapter Sons of the American Revolution, 1925–26 and of Amherst Club of Syracuse and Central New York 1924–25; vice-president of Yale Club of Syracuse since 1924; secretary of Class of 1909 F. since its graduation.

Married June 1, 1912, in New York City, Marion Browning, daughter of Matthew Wilson and Mary (Browning) Stutson, of Columbus, Ohio. One son, Frederick Franklin, Jr.

Death, due to a perforated gall bladder, followed an operation at the Hospital of the Good Shepherd. Buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Syracuse. Survived by wife, son, and a sister, Mrs. John A. Miller, of Nazareth, Pa.
SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

Willis George Alling, M.D. 1870.

Born April 7, 1837, in Woodbridge, Conn.
Died May 2, 1930, in West Haven, Conn.

New Haven schools; began the study of medicine with Frederic L. Dibble, ’59 M., in New Haven; entered Yale School of Medicine in 1867; on staff of New Haven Hospital 1870–72; had since been engaged in the practice of medicine in New Haven (until 1927) and West Haven.

Married (1) February 26, 1857, in Brooklyn, N. Y., Gertrude, daughter of Pliny and Harriet Louisa (Munn) Bartholomew. Children: Minnie Gertrude, the wife of Marcus D. Munn, ’81 S.; and Willis H. Alling, ex-’95 S. Dr. and Mrs. Alling were divorced in 1888. Married (2) November 15, 1888, in Bridgeport, Conn., Happy, daughter of Charles Henry and Isabell (McMillan) Daniels. Children: Roger Willis, ex-’17 (B.S. in Architecture Georgia School of Technology 1922); Gordon Kenneth; and Hope Daniels, who attended Elizabeth Mather College, Atlanta, Ga., 1917–18.

Death due to acute myocarditis. Buried in Westville Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, two daughters, three sons, and seven grandchildren.

Ozro Erwin Powers, M.D. 1871.

Born September 16, 1846, in Abington, Mass.
Died December 16, 1929, in Wallingford, Conn.

Father, Harvey Alphonso Powers, a farmer in Hollis, N. H. Mother, Sarah Adeline (Colborn) Powers.
Early education received in Hollis; studied in Yale School of Medicine 1869-1871; practiced medicine in Meriden for a number of years; subsequently engaged in the manufacture of silver plate in Wallingford, at first with Simpson, Hall, Miller & Company (now the International Silver Company) until 1902, then as superintendent with Biggins, Rogers & Company (now the Dowd Rogers Company), and from 1913 until his retirement in 1923 with The Wallingford Company; affiliated with St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Wallingford.

James Ebenezer Stetson, M.D. 1881.

Born April 24, 1844, in Northampton, Mass
Died April 27, 1930, in New Haven, Conn

Father, James Alexander Stetson, a carriage maker, with a factory in Brooklyn, Conn., member of firm of Stetson Carriage Company; later agent for Nonotuck Silk Company of Northampton and a farmer in Brooklyn; represented that town in the Connecticut Legislature in 1864, son of Benjamin and Mary (Alexander) Stetson, of Scituate, Mass Mother, Dolly (Witter) Stetson; daughter of Ebenezer Witter, 3d, and Dolly (Sharpe) Witter, of Brooklyn, Conn.

Preparatory training received at Hampton (Conn) Academy; employed by Whitney Arms Company of New Haven 1861–66 and by Winchester Repeating Arms Company of New Haven 1868–1880; while with the Winchester Company became an expert rifle shot and traveled widely through the United States promoting the Winchester rifle and attending rifle tournaments, at one of which he won a diamond belt as champion shot of the country; entered Yale School of Medicine 1878 and won Keese Prize at graduation; member of "Yaromets"; practiced medicine in New Haven from 1881 until his retirement in 1915, being associated in practice with Frederic L. Dibble, ’59 M., for several years; member of New Haven City Council 1874 and 1875, of Board of Aldermen 1877, and Chamber of Commerce 1891–1926; president of the Republican League (now the Union League) 1908–1911, first to administer diphtheria anti-toxin in New Haven and wrote an article on the same, which was published in the Yale Medical Journal in 1895; member American, Connecticut, New Haven County, and New Haven Medical societies, New Haven Colony Historical Society, New Haven Y. M. C. A, and Connecticut State Society of the Sons of the American Revolution and the David Humphreys branch; served as state brigade inspector of target practice 1877–1882, with rank of Major in Connecticut National Guard; an organizer of the Yale Medical Society in 1880 now known as the Association of Yale Alumni in Medicine; secretary of his Class in the Medical School; attended Center Church (Congregational).
Obituary Record

Married May 1, 1866, in New Haven, Caroline A., daughter of William and Caroline (Mansfield) Burritt, of Cincinnati, Ohio. One son, James Frederick (died in infancy). Mrs. Stetson died April 20, 1909.

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by a brother, Joseph B. Stetson, of Brooklyn, Conn.

Miles Remond Gordon, M.D. 1894.

Born October 22, 1864, in Richmond, Va.

Father, Christopher Harding Gordon, a baker; son of William Gordon, of Richmond. Mother, Susan Frances (Robinson) Gordon; daughter of John and Violet Robinson, of Richmond.

Natick (Mass.) High School; entered Yale School of Medicine in 1890; had been engaged in the practice of medicine in Springfield since 1894, member St. Luke’s Episcopal Church, New Haven.
Harry Hall Hartung, M.D. 1896.

Born March 6, 1875, in New Haven, Conn.
Died September 4, 1929, in Boston, Mass.

Father, Charles Otto Edward Hartung, a merchant in New Haven; born in Frankfort-am-Oder, Germany, and came to America in 1852; son of Frederick Charles and Sophia (Jancke) Hartung, of New Haven. Mother, Georgiana Chapman (Hall) Hartung; daughter of William C. and Hannah S. (Vanhorn) Hall, of New Haven.

New Haven High School, studied in Yale School of Medicine 1893–96; spent six months in the Hospital Charite in Berlin, Germany, and six months at the Universitats Frauenklinik, Munich, Germany, during 1896–97; served as interne at the New York Hospital for a short time; had practiced his profession in Boston since 1897; served as assistant surgeon and First Lieutenant in Massachusetts Volunteer Militia 1903–1912; with the Ambulance Corps 1903–04, with the 5th Regiment 1905–06, and then with the Massachusetts Coast Artillery Corps 1906–1912; surgeon (with rank of Major) of Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Boston for eight years; instructor in first aid to Boston Police since 1901; examining surgeon for Prudential Life Insurance Company of Newark, N. J., since 1900, for Ætna Life Insurance Company of Boston since 1901, and for Standard Accident & Liability Company of Detroit, Mich., Twin Mutual Fire Insurance Company and Twin Mutual Liability Insurance Company of Boston, and a number of others; published First Aid to the Injured 1909; contributed articles to Journal of the Association of Military Surgeons and Boston Medical and Surgical Journal; member American Medical Association, Massachusetts Medical Society, Association of Life Examining Surgeons, Association of Military Surgeons, and St. Paul's Episcopal Church, New Haven; associated with Trinity Church, Boston.
Obituary Record

Married August 17, 1897, in Munich, Germany, Creszentia, daughter of Clement and Johanna (Gunz) Baumueller. Children: Robert William Rolfe and Centa Genevieve.

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, son, daughter, father, and stepmother.

Born October 14, 1874, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died February 16, 1930, in Newark, N. J.

Father, John Sanford Ferris, a graduate of Greenville and Tusculum College in 1861; in the carpet business with the H B Armstrong Company in New Haven. Mother: Mary Ferris Hopkins Grammar School; attended Sheffield Scientific School 1893–94 and then entered Yale School of Medicine; served internship at French Hospital, New York, and New York Lying-in Hospital; had practiced medicine in Newark since 1899, visiting physician at the House of the Good Shepherd until 1922 and consulting surgeon until 1930; chief of staff of St Mary’s Hospital, Orange, N. J., since 1921; visiting surgeon at St. Mary’s Hospital, Passaic, N. J., since 1906, vice-president of Metcalfe Foundation for Cancer Research since its organization in 1923; president of Essex County Medical Society 1926–27; fellow of American Medical Association; member New Jersey State Medical Society and St. Antoninus Roman Catholic Church, Newark.

Married April 10, 1926, in New York City, Clare Regina Maguire (B.Mus. St Elizabeth College 1914), daughter of Thomas Joseph and Ellen (Hartnett) Maguire. No children.

Death due to Hodgkin’s disease. Buried in Cemetery of the Holy Sepulchre, East Orange, N. J. Survived by wife and a brother, Samuel Ferris, of Newark.

Dean Foster, M.D. 1899.

Born March 7, 1870, in Edwardsburg, Mich.
Died September 16, 1929, in Stamford, Conn.

Father, Thomas Jefferson Foster, a farmer; son of Andrew and Rachael (McMichael) Foster, of Edwardsburg. Mother, Alice (Dean) Foster; daughter of Joseph and Adaline (Cole) Dean, of Milton, Pa.

Lewis Academy, Wichita, Kans.; B. A. University of Kansas 1896; entered Yale School of Medicine that year as member of second year class; interne at Manhattan Eye, Ear, Nose, and Throat Hospital; practiced medicine in New York City and Stamford 1903–1923 and in Stamford only since 1923, specializing in diseases of the eye, ear, and throat; assistant surgeon to Manhattan Eye, Ear, Nose, and Throat Hospital (also oculist and aurist) 1903–1923; oculist and aurist to Stamford Hospital since 1903 and to Greenwich (Conn.) Hospital since 1905; president of Stamford Medical Society 1909; councilman-at-large of Stamford 1911–15; park commissioner 1908–1924; state senator 1913–14; appointed to Stamford Board of Public Safety a week before his death; Fellow of American College of Surgeons; member American Medical Association, Medical Society of the State of New York, and First Presbyterian Church, Stamford Married January 8, 1903, in New York City, Mabel Eyles, daughter of Frederick and Catherine Louise (Tayler) Neale, of Toronto, Canada. Three daughters: Alice Dean (B.A. Vassar 1925); Kathryn Neale, B.A. Beaver College 1930; and Mabel, a member of the Vassar Class of 1931.

Death, due to coronary thrombosis and myocarditis, occurred at the Stamford Hospital. Buried in Woodland Cemetery, Stamford. Survived by wife, three daughters, four brothers, Andrew J. Foster, of Shippan Point, Stamford, Graham Foster, ’08 L., Hugh M. Foster, of Los Angeles, Calif., and Lloyd P. Foster, of Argonia, Kans., and a sister, Mrs. Edwin L. Fulton, of Caldwell, Kans.
Robert William Kerr, M.D. 1903.

Born January 25, 1880, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died January 31, 1930, in New York City.

Father, Robert Kerr, a cigar manufacturer in Brooklyn; member of firm of Steinecke & Kerr; later lived in Newport, R. I., and was member of Rhode Island House of Representatives; son of Robert Johnston Kerr, a graduate of the University of Edinburgh, and Elizabeth Ball (Rusher) Kerr, of Newport. Mother, Anna (Burggraf) Kerr; daughter of Mathias Burggraf, of Brooklyn.

Rogers High School, Newport; attended Yale Medical School 1899–1903, becoming a member of Skull and Sceptre; interne at New York Children’s Hospital 1903–04, at New York Infant Asylum and Marion Street Maternity Hospital 1904–05, and at Willard Parker Hospital, New York, 1905; bacteriologist at Newport Hospital 1907–08 and attending physician 1908–09; appointed First Lieutenant, Medical Reserve Corps, September 14, 1908, and attended Army Medical School, Washington, until May 29, 1909; commissioned as First Lieutenant, Medical Corps, Regular Army, June 1, 1909, on duty at Army General Hospital, The Presidio, San Francisco, to September 7; then went to the Philippines and served as assistant to the surgeon at Fort Mills to July 9, 1910; on duty at Warwick Barracks, P. I., to August 25, 1910, returned to the United States and served as surgeon on U. S. Army Transport “Sheridan” to December 12, 1911; post surgeon at Fort D. A. Russell, Wyoming, in 1912, at Columbus Barracks, Ohio, 1912–14, and at Fort Adams, R. I., 1914–16; promoted to Captain June 25, 1912; served on the Mexican border at Fort Clark, Texas, and Columbus, N. Mex., and with punitive expedition into Mexico to 1916–17; surgeon at Base Hospital, Fort Bliss, Texas, February–July, 1917, promoted to Major May 15, 1917; served overseas June 29, 1917–October 14, 1920, post surgeon with 5th Field Artillery, 1st Division, at Army Artillery Headquarters at Valdahon to January 24, 1918, and at Bar sur Aube to March 12; promoted to Lieutenant Colonel, National Army, January 7, 1918, and Colonel, May 5, 1919; commanding officer at Camp Hospital 11, St. Nazaire, to July 30; division surgeon of 77th Division, with which he served throughout the Meuse-Argonne campaign, to January 28, 1919; commanding officer, Evacuation Hospitals 3 and 19 at Trier and Coblenz, Germany, to October 10, 1920; wounded at Rancourt, France, November 9, 1918; awarded a silver star citation for gallantry in action there and decorated by the French Government; in charge of Medical Corps Unit, R.O.T.C., Washington University Medical School, St. Louis, to June 3, 1922; medical instructor, R.O.T.C., Carlisle Barracks, Pa., to July 25, 1922; surgeon, C.M.T.C., Camp Dix, N. J., to September 2, 1922; assistant professor of military science and tactics at Washington University School of Medicine to June 5, 1923, surgeon, R.O.T.C., Fort Snelling, Minn., to August 23, 1923; R.O.T.C. duty at Washington University Medical School to July 1, 1924; executive officer at Headquarters, Army Medical Center, Washington, 1924–29; had since been assistant professor of military science and tactics at New York University; since June 1, 1929, had ranked as Lieutenant Colonel in the Regular Army; fellow of American Medical Association and of American College of Surgeons; member Rhode Island and Newport Medical societies.

Married (1) in May, 1905, in New York City, Frances Johnson. Dr. and Mrs. Kerr were divorced in 1922. Married (2) December 31, 1924, in St. Louis, Rose Gabrielle, daughter of Harry and Rose Gabrielle (Comiskey) Berliner. No children.

Bernard Jules Rosen, M.D. 1906.

Born September 11, 1883, in Wilki, Russia.
Died February 1, 1930, in New York City.

Father, the Rev. Abraham Abbe Rosen, a Rabbi in New Haven and later in New York City; came to this country from Russia in 1891; son of David and Eva (Abelman) Rosen, of Rosseiny, Kovno Province, Russia (now Lithuania). Mother, Golde (Karnov) Rosen; daughter of Uriel and Libie (Gitel) Karnov, of Vilke, Kovno Province, Russia. Nephews: James F. Rosen, '21, and David P. Rosen, '33 S.

Came to this country in 1891 with his parents and attended the Rochester (N. Y.) and New Haven high schools; studied in Yale School of Medicine 1902-06; interned at Lebanon Hospital, Bronx, N. Y., 1906-08; had since practiced in New York, specializing in obstetrics and gynecology; member Bronx County Medical Society and Physicians League.

Married July 11, 1914, in New York City, Augusta, daughter of Charles and Celia (Schulman) Carton. Children: Avram Abbot, who attended College of the City of New York and is now a member of the Yale Class of 1934, and Carolyn.

Death, due to diabetes and arteriosclerosis, occurred in the Lebanon Hospital. Buried in Mount Hebron Cemetery, Flushing, N. Y. Survived by wife, son, daughter, a brother, Morris I. Rosen, of New Haven, and four sisters, Anna Rosen Bolton, the wife of William M. Bolton, '13 S., Mrs. Morris Rosen, of New Haven, Mrs. Louis Picker, of New York City, and Mrs. Louis S. Pava, of Springfield, Mass.

Charles Arthur Tétrault, M.D. 1906.

Born September 17, 1876, in Danielson, Conn.
Died April 8, 1930, in Southbridge, Mass.

Father, François Xavier Tétrault; owner of men's furnishing and clothing store in Southbridge; member of Southbridge School Committee fifteen years and of Finance Committee; representative in the General Court of Massachusetts 1901-03, son of François and Marguerite (Beauregard) Tétrault, of Ste. Marie de Monnoir and Ste. Brigid, Quebec. Mother, Celina (St Onge) Tétrault; daughter of Jean Baptiste and Flavie (Boulais) St. Onge, of Ste Angele de Monnoir.

Southbridge High School; clerk in store of J. B. Plante, Southbridge, Ph B. Brown 1902; entered Yale School of Medicine 1902 (member Delta Epsilon Iota); interned in New Haven Hospital 1906-07; contract surgeon in United States Army at Borongan, Samar, and Zamboanga, Mindanao, Israel Kleiner, M.D. 1909.

Born March 10, 1888, in New Haven, Conn.
Died August 6, 1929, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Charles Kleiner (LL.B. 1883), a lawyer in New Haven; corporation counsel and alderman; compensation commissioner of New Haven since 1923; director of New Haven Public Library; trustee and president of Congregation Mishkan Israel; son of Israel and Eva (Meyer) Kleiner, of

New Haven High School; entered Yale School of Medicine 1905 (member Phi Rho Sigma [Skull and Sceptre]); intern at New Haven Hospital 1909–1910; clinical assistant in surgery at Yale 1910–19; engaged in general practice of medicine in New Haven 1910–19 and had since specialized in urology; attending urologist to St. Raphael’s Hospital since 1920 and to Grace Hospital since 1925; appointed to consulting staff of physicians and surgeons of Griffin Hospital, Derby, Conn., for 1929–1930; during 1918–19 served as acting assistant surgeon in United States Public Health Service, assigned as director of the Municipal Clinic, New Haven; member Grace Hospital Relief Association 1928; member New Haven Medical Association (on house committee 1925), Connecticut and American Medical associations, New York and American Urological associations, American Social Hygiene Association, and Congregation Mishkan Israel.

Death, due to cerebral spinal tuberculosis, occurred at St. Raphael’s Hospital after an illness of four months. Buried in Mishkan Israel Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, son, daughter, parents, a brother, Manfred Kleiner, of Providence, R. I., and two sisters, the Misses Leah R. and Estelle Kleiner, of New Haven.
SCHOOL OF LAW

BACHELORS OF LAW

Lucius Bement Tuttle, LL.B. 1863.

Born August 1, 1840, in Milford, Conn.
Died November 22, 1929, in North Haven, Conn.

Father, Lucius Tuttle, a merchant and farmer; Colonel of Militia; son of Lucius and Rebecca (Harrison) Tuttle, of Wolcott, Conn. Mother, Laura Ann (Bement) Tuttle; daughter of Jonathan and Hannah (Higgins) Bement, of Middlebury, Conn. Yale relatives include: Luzon B. Morris, '54 (brother-in-law); Charles G. Morris, '95, and Ray Morris, '01 (nephews); and Morris Hadley, '16, Hamilton Hadley, '19, Woodbridge E. Morris, '23, Daniel L. Morris '29, and Charles L. and Grinnell Morris, both '32 (cousins)

Connecticut Literary Institute, Suffield, Conn.; entered Yale School of Law in 1861; paymaster's clerk on U.S.S. "Arkansas" September, 1863–August, 1864, when appointed acting assistant paymaster in the Navy; served on U.S.S. "Isonomia" and U. S. Sloop "Dale" until honorably discharged in November, 1865; practiced law for a time and served as judge of probate for District of Madison, Conn., 1868–69; subsequently traveled for a New York firm until 1879 and for Swan & Fitch Company (lubricants) of New York from 1879 until his retirement in 1922; attended Center Church (Congregational), New Haven.

Married May 4, 1876, in Southington, Conn., Emma Louise Hotchkiss, a non-graduate member of the Mount Holyoke Seminary (now College) Class of 1877, daughter of George Louis and Louisa (Price) Kunz and adopted daughter of Edwin Plant and Mary (Higgins) Hotchkiss. Children: Lucius (B.A. 1901, M.D. Johns Hopkins 1907); Edwin Hotchkiss (B.A. 1901); and Charles Pratt (B.A. 1906)

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Cremation took place at Fresh Pond, Long Island, N.Y., and ashes were buried in the old cemetery at Wolcott, Conn. Survived by three sons and three grandchildren.
Obituary Record

Henry Rucker, LL.B. 1874.
Born December 6, 1850, in Georgetown, Ky.
Died February 17, 1930, in Dayton, Ohio.

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the OBITUARY RECORD.

Eli Mix, LL.B. 1876.
Born October 20, 1849, in New Haven, Conn.
Died February 18, 1930, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Allen Mix, a leather merchant; selectman of town of New Haven ten years; member of New Haven Board of Assessors eight years; alderman, councilman, and commissioner to establish the boundaries of New Haven; son of Eli and Elizabeth Ann (Gilbert) Mix, of New Haven.Mother, Maria (Baldwin) Mix; daughter of Isaac Stillwater and Susanna (Bassett) Baldwin, of Milford, Conn. Cousin: George C. Moore, '73 S.

Robbins Grammar School, New Haven; bookkeeper for Benjamin, Peck & Kellam and also councilman 1872–74; entered Yale School of Law in 1874; member law fraternity T. K. M.; practiced law in New Haven from 1876 until death; coroner for New Haven County from September, 1885, until his retirement from the active work of the office on account of failing health in April, 1928, and at time of death still technically held that office, member New Haven Board of Fire Commissioners 1874–77; alderman 1882–84; president of New Haven Board of Police Commissioners 1897–1900, member New Haven Library Board 1918–1929; member 2d Company, Governor's Foot Guard July, 1893–September, 1901; director of Citizens Bank & Trust Company since 1924; trustee of Trinity Methodist Church many years; councilor of Connecticut Society of the Order of Founders and Patriots of America 1898–99, registrar 1907, 1911, and 1912, and genealogist 1923; held the national office of Genealogist-General of the general court of the Order 1914–16; member New Haven Chamber of Commerce, New Haven Colony Historical Society, Sons of the American Revolution, and Society of Mayflower Descendants; secretary of Class of 1876 L. since 1906; Alumni Fund agent for Law classes from 1854 to 1879 since 1921.

Married September 1, 1869, in New Haven, Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Stephen VanRensselaer and Sophia (Clark) Taft. Children: Charles Williamson; Eli Gilbert (died in childhood); Stephen VanRensselaer Taft, ex-'00 Art; and Bessie Gilbert, the wife of William S. Pritchard, '01 and '04 L. Mrs. Mix died October 6, 1928.

Death due to cystitis and inanition. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by daughter, two sons, and three grandchildren.

James Hodge McLean, LL.B. 1880.

Father, Andrew McLean. Mother, Sarah (Cyphers) McLean.

Studied in Yale School of Law 1878–1880 (honors in Senior year; member of Kent Club); returned to Yale for graduate work in fall of 1880 and received degree of LL.M. 1881 and that of D.C.L. 1882; practiced before Committee of Elections in Washington, D. C., 1882–84 and also engaged in other legal work there; practiced law in Chattanooga, Tenn., from 1885 until a year or two before his death; partner in firm of Wheeler & Marshall for a time; professor of elementary law at Chattanooga Law School 1898–99; member of Chattanooga Bar Association and Second Presbyterian Church, Chattanooga; one of the organizers of the Chattanooga Yale Club in 1915.

Married December 24, 1889, Frances Biese. No children.

Death, due to apoplexy, occurred at Brawners Sanitarium, Smyrna. Buried in Forest Hills Cemetery, Chattanooga. Survived by wife.
Obituary Record

Arthur Courtlandt Ely, LL.B. 1884.
Born May 5, 1861.
Died June 12, 1930, in Hampton, Va.

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.

Henry Graham Crocker, LL.B. 1891.
Born August 10, 1868, in Milwaukee, Wis.
Died May 6, 1930, in Washington, D.C.

Father, Henry Clay Crocker; partner in firm of J. G. Flint & Company, Milwaukee, and in Crocker & Cooke, Milwaukee and Chicago (wholesale coffee and spices); also an oil producer; son of George Lewis and Sarah (Orr) Crocker, of Albany, N. Y. Mother, Jane Ophelia (Cooke) Crocker; daughter of Peter and Phoebe (Brooks) Cooke, of Hartford, Conn.

Attended Upper Canada College, Toronto, 1885-88; entered Yale College with Class of 1892, but withdrew at the end of the year and entered Yale School of Law; took graduate work at Yale 1891-92, receiving degree of LL.M. cum laude at end of the year; admitted to Connecticut Bar June 29, 1892, to Illinois Bar November 16, 1892, and to California Bar 1893; admitted to practice before Bar of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia March 12, 1923; practiced law in Chicago 1892-93 and in San Diego 1893-96, being also engaged in teaching 1894-96; principal of Coronado (Calif.) High School 1896-1900; taught in Los Angeles High School 1900-02; assistant in library of Department of State, Washington, 1902-08; law clerk in solicitor's office of Department of State, Washington, 1908-1913; assistant in division of international law, Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, since January 1, 1914; served with American Peace Commission at Paris as assistant to the technical adviser in international law December, 1918-October, 1919; also member of Peace Conference as American delegate on the Commission on Responsibilities July-October, 1919; conducted department of chronicle of international events in American Journal of International Law 1907-09; author: The Extent of the Marginal Sea (1919) and Nathaniel Crocker. His Descendants and Ancestors (1923); co-author: The Laws of Land Warfare (with Joseph R. Baker) (1918) and Memorandum of Authorities on the Law of Angary (with Theodore Henckels) (1919); contributor to American Journal of International Law and other law journals; corresponding member Société de Legislation Comparée, contributing to its bulletin in 1909; member American Society of International Law, Connecticut, Illinois, and California Bar associations, Society of American Wars, and Society of Mayflower Descendants; former member American Historical Association; attended Protestant Episcopal church.

Death due to a pulmonary embolus, following an operation for hernia at the Emergency Hospital. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Md. Survived by wife, son, and three sisters, Mrs. Charlotte W. Lyman, of Washington, D.C., Mrs. George H. Hornibrook, of Alhambra, Calif., and Miss Sarah A. Crocker, of Sarnia, Ontario, Canada.

Wallace [Grant] Olmstead, LL.B. 1891.

Born May 27, 1868, in New Fairfield, Conn.
Died March 2, 1930, in Danbury, Conn.

Father, Frederick S. Olmstead, a contractor; superintendent of public works and a burgess of town and city of Danbury. Mother, Mary Jane (Boughton) Olmstead

Danbury High School; employed as a telegraph operator by New York Central Railroad Company in Fordham, N.Y., about five years; studied law with Judge James E. Walsh,'80 L., in Danbury 1888-89 and then entered Yale School of Law; shortly after his graduation from the Law School became a reporter for the Danbury Evening Daily Dispatch and in 1894 bought an interest in the paper and became editor; became owner the following year and also established a job and book printing business, having his brother, Frederick S. Olmstead, in partnership with him for several years; had been engaged in the real estate and insurance business in Danbury since 1903, for a number of years as senior member of firm of Olmstead & Krom; deputy registrar of voters 1892; clerk of the city court 1892–94, city clerk 1897–1903; acting mayor and president of Board of Aldermen 1905–07 and also chairman of the water committee which supervised the construction of Westlake reservoir; collector of internal revenue 1918–1920; chairman Democratic Town Committee several times and secretary and treasurer of the committee at death; member Democratic State Central Committee four years, charter member Pahquioque Rod and Gun Club, representing the club in trap shooting at tournaments and acting as captain of that team many years

Married (1) October 6, 1893, in Ridgefield, Conn., Nellie E. Conklin, who died November 2, 1914. Married (2) April 19, 1922, in Danbury, Bertha E., daughter of Charles and Marie Gilbert. No children by either marriage.

Death due to carcinoma of the tonsil and pneumonia Buried in Wooster Cemetery, Danbury. Survived by wife and his brother, Frederick S. Olmstead, of Danbury.

Richard Harvey Johnson, LL.B. 1892.

Born July 19, 1870, in Silver City, Idaho
Died July 14, 1929, in Boise, Idaho.

Father, Richard Zina Johnson (LL.B. 1859, LL.D. University of Idaho 1894); lawyer in Boise; attorney-general of Idaho; president of Board of Regents of Idaho State University; chairman of Idaho Code Commission; member of Board of Capitol Commissioners; president of Idaho State Bar Association; son of Harvey H. Johnson, member of Congress, and Calista F. (Munger) Johnson, of Rutland, Vt., and Akron, Ohio Mother, Kathrina (Broeg) Johnson; daughter of Zacharius and Anna Broeg, of Lindau, Bavaria.
Boise High School; graduated at Concordia College, Zurich, Switzerland; entered Yale School of Law 1890; had practiced law in Boise since 1892; junior member of the firm of Johnson & Johnson, of which his father was senior partner, 1892-1912; practiced independently 1912-1920; senior member of law firm of Johnson & Nixon since 1920; member of Idaho House of Representatives 1896-98; in 1904 served as temporary and permanent chairman of Democratic State Convention in Lewiston; member American and Idaho State Bar associations, and Sons of the American Revolution.

Married December 29, 1889, in New Haven, Catharine, daughter of John Enoch and Catharine (Bowen) Ashdown. One daughter, Kathrina Cecilia (B.A. Stanford University 1916), the wife of Carey H. Nixon, Stanford ex-15

Death due to carcinoma of the liver. Buried in Morris Hill Cemetery, Boise. Survived by wife, daughter, and three grandchildren.

William Doolittle Bailey, LL.B. 1893.

Born April 3, 1868, in Grinnell, Iowa.
Died August 31, 1929, in Duluth, Minn

Father, James Fordyce Bailey, a farmer; son of Eliphalet and Nancy (Bradish) Bailey, of Westmoreland Township, N. Y. Mother, Cornelia (Doolittle) Bailey; daughter of Amzi and Hannah (Cone) Doolittle, of Hampton, N. Y.

Grinnell High School; B.A Iowa College 1891; studied at Law School of State University of Iowa 1891-92 and then entered Yale School of Law; practiced law in Enid, Okla, 1893-94 and since then in Duluth; admitted to Bar of Minnesota 1895; with firm of Towne & Harris for a few months in 1894 and then with J. L. Washburn until 1896; member of firm of Washburn, Lewis & Bailey 1896-99, J. L Washburn & W. D. Bailey 1899-1904, and since then of Washburn, Bailey & Mitchell; member Bar Association of 11th Judicial District (vice-president 1913-14 and president 1914-15), Minnesota State Bar Association (president 1921-22), and Duluth Bethel Society for Men since 1919 (vice-president 1926-29); attended Pilgrim Congregational Church, Duluth.
Married June 12, 1901, in Duluth, Ora Gridley, University of Minnesota ex-'01, daughter of Elijah Chauncey Gridley, a lawyer, and Emma (Eby) Gridley. Two daughters: Marian Gridley (B.A. cum laude University of Minnesota 1928), the wife of Alexander D. Robertson, '20; and Helen Gridley, Smith 1933.

Death, due to mesenteric thrombosis and myocarditis, occurred at St. Luke's Hospital. Buried in Forest Hill Cemetery, Duluth. Survived by wife, daughters, and two sisters, Mrs. Elmer C. Read, of Parsons, Kans., and Miss Jennie Bailey, of Grinnell.

Edward Bernard Reiley, LL.B. 1902.

Born December 3, 1878, in Waterbury, Conn.
Died August 6, 1929, in Elizabethtown, N. Y.

Father, Edward Bernard Reiley; superintendent of streets and builder of roads in Waterbury; member Board of Aldermen, son of Edward Bernard and Margaret (Wallace) Reiley, of Waterbury. Mother, Mary Ann (Bresnahan) Reiley; daughter of Jeremiah and Julia (Allman) Bresnahan, of Boston, Mass.

Waterbury High School, attended Holy Cross College 1896–97 and then St. Francis Preparatory School, Brooklyn, N. Y., before entering Yale School of Law in 1899; had practiced law in Waterbury since 1902; assistant corporation counsel 1909–1914; prosecuting attorney of District Court 1914–18, member Waterbury Board of Education 1906–07; one of the principal promoters of Mattatuck Country Club; member St. Margaret's Roman Catholic Church.

Married January 8, 1908, in Waterbury, Bessie Adelaide, daughter of John Madden and Margaret (Moriarty) Mulville. One son, Edward.

Death, due to acute cardiac failure, occurred at the Deer Head Inn, Elizabethtown, where he was spending a vacation. Buried in St. Joseph's Cemetery, Waterbury. Survived by wife, son, two brothers, John and Joseph Reiley, and four sisters, the Misses Julia, Mary, Anne, and Margaret Reiley, all of Waterbury.
Barnett Berman, LL.B. 1904.

Born December 1, 1879, in Elisabethgrad, Russia
Died December 24, 1929, in New Haven, Conn

Father, Joseph Maurice Berman; born in Russia and came to America in 1888; a plumber in New Haven; son of Joseph Maurice and Esther Ida (Astrachan) Berman, of Elisabethgrad. Mother, Bluma (Lear) Berman; daughter of David and Rose (Davis) Lear, of Elisabethgrad. Yale relatives: Samuel J. Allinson, '23, and Jack Astran, '27 Art (nephews); and Louis B. Lear, '11 S, and Maxwell Lear, '11 M. (cousins).

New Haven High School; attended Yale School of Law 1901-04 (member of Kent Club); practiced law in New Haven from 1904 until death; member of firm of Berman & Cohen 1916-1925, his partner being Charles Cohen (now Charles Ress), '14 and '16 L.; member New Haven Board of Aldermen 1907-1911; treasurer of the drive for Palestine Restoration Fund in New Haven 1917-18; while alderman was active in establishment of the public baths in Oak Street and of the Jewish Home for the Aged; member Congregation B'nai Jacob.

Death due to rheumatic heart disease. Buried in B'nai Jacob Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, two children, and four sisters, Mrs. David A. Lederer, Mrs. Louis Allinson, Mrs. Benjamin J. Abrams, and Mrs. Ida Astran, all of New Haven.

Alfred Chalenor Fairbanks, LL.B. 1904.

Born February 13, 1881, in Meriden, Conn
Died December 6, 1929, in Springfield, Mass

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.
Obituary Record

John Harold Sears, LL.B. 1904.

Born May 9, 1882, in Knoxville, Iowa
Died October 21, 1929, in Ridgefield, Conn.

Father, William Henry Hosmer Sears, a realtor; son of John and Mary Jane (Curtis) Sears, of Chicago, Ill. Mother, Kate (Milner) Sears; daughter of John Monroe and Mary (McGrew) Milner, of Knoxville, Iowa. Cousins: John B. Sears, '91, Philip R. Sears, '99 S., J. Alden Sears, '05 S., and R. William Burnet, '07 S.

Rugby School, Kenilworth, Ill., and Union High School, St Louis, Mo.; entered Yale School of Law 1901; Jewell Prize and a first Wayland Prize Middle year, Junior and Middle year honors, and Munson Prize Senior year; LL.B. magna cum laude; chairman of Yale Law Journal; president of his Class; member Corbey Court, Kent Club (diploma for excellence in debate Senior year), and City Government Club; admitted to practice in Missouri in October, 1904, and to New York Bar in December, 1913; practiced law in St. Louis 1904-1913, acting as representative and counsel of Corporation Trust Company of New York 1906-1913; associated with law firm of Stanchfield & Levy in New York 1913-16 and with Charles T. Lark '99 in that city 1924-28; office attorney for Corporation Trust Company 1916-1924 and then counsel until death; treasurer and counselor for De Bothezat Impeller Company, Inc, of New York since January, 1925; counsel for Wyoming Montana Railroad Company since 1925; active in reorganization of New York Stock Transfer Association in 1920; editor-in-chief of the Stock Transfer Guide and Service, the official organ of that association from 1920 until death, legal editor of the Trust Companies Magazine 1915-1928; editor of Corporation Journal since 1916; author: Missouri Corporations (1910), Trust Estates as Business Companies (1st edition 1912, 2d edition 1921), Trust Company Law (1917), Minimizing of Taxes (1922), and New Place of the Stockholder (1929), member Missouri and New York Bar associations.

Death due to sacro-iliac sarcoma. Buried in Fairlawn Cemetery, Ridgefield. Survived by wife, mother, a brother, Joseph Milner Sears, of Ukiah, Calif., and two sisters, Mrs. John W. Bonham, of San Diego, Calif., and Mrs Louise Burnett Sears, of Altadena, Calif.

William Hale Macdonald, LL.B. 1906.

Born January 1, 1880, in Boston, Mass.
Died March 30, 1930, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, William Macdonald.

Williston Academy and under private tutors, entered Yale School of Law 1902 with Class of 1905; withdrew at the end of his first year and was engaged in selling books in Hartford, Conn.; reentered the Law School in fall of 1904 with Class of 1906; was awarded the Montgomery Prize in 1902; since 1906 had been engaged in the practice of law in Hartford; drafted several bills for establishment of Juvenile Courts in Connecticut in 1915 and later, and was known in Hartford as the "Father of the Juvenile Court Bill"; one of the founders of the Travelers' Aid Society in Hartford in 1913.

Married June 20, 1906, in Hartford, Bertha Hale White, daughter of Carlos and Leonora (Pease) Hale. No children

Death due to spinal meningitis following lobar pneumonia. Buried in Indian Hill Cemetery, Middletown, Conn. Survived by wife and a stepson, Percival Hale White, who attended Boston University two years (1914 and 1915).

William Edward Egan, LL.B. 1908.

Born May 6, 1880, in Southington, Conn.
Died September 14, 1929, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, Thomas Francis Egan; superintendent of state police; deputy sheriff in Court of Common Pleas; son of William Edward Egan, a member of the 9th Regiment, Connecticut Volunteers, who died in the Civil War, and Catherine (Gorry) Egan, of Southington (both born in Kings County, Ireland). Mother, Ellen Mary (White) Egan
Obituary Record

Southington High School; employed as an apprentice in factory of Peck, Stow & Wilcox, tool makers, in Southington and Hartford before entering Yale School of Law in 1905; received honors in first and second years and LL.B. cum laude; member Wayland Club, Corbey Court, and Chi Tau Kappa, admitted to Connecticut Bar June, 1908, and practiced law in Hartford until April, 1929; partner in firm of Healy & Egan, of which Frank E. Healy, '93 L., was senior member, 1926–29; director of Suisman & Blumenthal, Inc., metal dealers, of Hartford since 1920 and of old New Haven Marine Construction Company since 1927; member Governor's Foot Guard 1909–1915 and St. Joseph's Cathedral (Roman Catholic), Hartford.

Death, due to a cerebral hemorrhage and chronic myocarditis, following a long illness from pneumonia, occurred in St Francis Hospital. Buried in Mount St. Benedict Cemetery, Bloomfield, Conn. Survived by wife, two sons, stepmother, three brothers, Joseph P. and Thomas F. Egan, both of Hartford, and John B. Egan, of New York City, and two sisters, Miss A. Teresa Egan, of Hartford, and Mrs. Michael J. Sullivan, of New London, Conn.

John Joseph Bailey, LL.B. 1911.

Born April 23, 1888, in Hartford, Conn.
Died November 21, 1929, in Beacon, N. Y.

Father, John Henry Bailey; connected with John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company, as superintendent in Waterbury and South Norwalk, Conn.; son of John Henry and Julia Theresa (McDonald) Bailey, of Hartford, Waterbury, and South Norwalk, Conn. Mother, Catherine Theresa (Dailey) Bailey; daughter of Patrick and Julia Dailey, of Springfield, Mass.

Waterbury High School and Booth Preparatory School, New Haven; entered Yale School of Law 1908; member of Kent Club and Invitation Committee; admitted to Connecticut Bar upon graduation and practiced law in Waterbury until 1919, with exception of time spent in service; practiced in New York City from 1919 until his retirement on account of ill health in 1925; had spent the past four years in veterans' hospitals in New York; enlisted in the U. S. Naval Reserve as a Seaman (2d Class) April 30, 1918, and assigned to Pay Office at Naval Training Station at Pelham Bay, N. Y.; promoted to Yeoman August 18 and released from active duty December 18, 1918; member St. Anthony's (Roman Catholic) Church, Waterbury.
School of Law

Married April 2, 1913, in Brooklyn, N. Y., Josephine, daughter of John Joseph and Mary Agnes (Cassidy) Glynn. One son, John Henry.

Death, due to tuberculosis, occurred at the Veterans' Hospital, Castlepoint, Beacon. Buried in Naval Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by father, and a brother, Charles H Bailey, of Port Washington, Long Island.

MASTER OF LAW

Samuel Sisisky, LL.M. 1916.

Born June 15, 1895, in Maspeth, N. Y.
Died July 9, 1929, in Thompsonville, Conn

Father, Nathan Sisisky, a real estate broker; came to America in 1880; son of Joseph Aaron and Belle (Abrams) Sisisky, of Janowa, Kovna, Lithuania, Russia. Mother, Pauline (Rosenberg) Sisisky; daughter of Philip and Flora (Schmidt) Rosenberg, of Konigsberg, Germany.

Enfield (Conn.) High School; attended Boston University 1912-14; LL.B. George Washington University 1915; graduate student in Yale School of Law 1915-16; practiced law in Thompsonville 1916-18 and in Springfield, Mass., 1917-18; enlisted in Ordnance Department, with waiver on account of defective eyesight, August 21, 1918; stationed at Fort Slocum, N. Y., August 21-27; attended Ordnance Supply School, Camp Hancock, Ga., August 27, 1918-January 7, 1919; with 16th Company, 4th Battalion, 153d Division, at Camp Dix, N. J., from January 7 until his discharge February 1, 1919; had since practiced law again in Thompsonville and Springfield; representative in Connecticut General Assembly 1921–22 and again 1923–24; justice of the peace 1917–1929; member Thompsonville Republican Town Committee and Thompsonville Board of Trade since 1920, district committee of Thompsonville Fire and Sewer Commission 1919 and 1920, and of Legal Advisory Board for 3d Exemption District in Thompsonville 1917; clerk and interpreter on draft work for Division 3, Hartford County, in Thompsonville 1917 and 1918; associate member Legal Advisory Board of Springfield 1917–18; commander of Horace J. Torquay Post 80, American Legion, 1928–29; president of Soldiers and Sailors Club 1919–1920; member Commercial Law League of America, Connecticut State and Massachusetts State and Hampden County (Mass.) and Hartford County (Conn.) Bar associations, Enfield Fish and Game Association, Enfield Society for the Detection of Thieves and Robbers, 40 and 8 Voiture 370, and Beth El Temple, Springfield.

Unmarried.

Death due to acute nephritis and cardiac dilatation, and malignant hypertension. Buried in Beth El Cemetery, West Springfield. Survived by six sisters, Mrs. Max Block, of Bronx, N. Y., Mrs. Albert Lewis, of Springfield, and Mrs. Joseph Slaybard and the Misses Lillian, Frances, and Bernice Sisisky, of Thompsonville, and three brothers, Michael Sisisky, of Miami, Fla., and Philip and Abraham Sisisky, of Thompsonville.
DIVINITY SCHOOL

James Lyman Harrington, B.D. 1876.

Born June 2, 1848, in Bennington, Vt
Died February 27, 1930, in Eagle Mills, N Y.

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the OBITUARY RECORD.

Phaon Silas Kohler, B.D. 1878.

Born February 26, 1856, in Egypt, Pa.
Died May 1, 1930, in McKeesport, Pa.

Father, Edward Kohler, a surveyor; justice of the peace; instrumental in establishing the first public high school in Whitehall township, Lehigh County, Pa.; a correspondent of the Smithsonian Institution at Washington for some years, son of John Peter and Susanna (Kern) Kohler, of Lehigh County. Mother, Lydia (Remaley) Kohler; daughter of George and Regina (Schaefer) Remaley, of Lehigh County.

Palatinate College (now known as Kutztown Normal School); studied at Yale Divinity School 1875-78; filled different pulpits during 1878-79; ordained to ministry of the Reformed Church on October 12, 1879, in Overton, Pa., where he held a pastorate for two years; pastor at Berwick, Pa., 1881-82; pastor of Presbyterian churches at Monroeton, Pa., 1882-87, Jersey Shore, Pa., 1887-1900, at Pitcairn, Pa., 1900-1911, and at Glassport, Pa., 1911-1929; had since made his home in McKeesport; Ph.D. Wooster 1886; chaplain of the McKeesport Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution since February, 1923; member of Redstone (Pa.) Presbyterian at time of death.

Married September 11, 1879, in Unionville, Pa., Anna Elizabeth, daughter of Louis Beiber Balliet (M.D. University of Pennsylvania 1854) and Anna Maria Catherine (Loeser) Balliet. Children: Florence Blanche; Louis Edward, College of Engineering, Ohio Northern University ex-'11; Arthur

343
Paul, Bucknell University ex-'10; and Ellen Gamble (Mrs. William Earl Boyles).

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Monroeville (Pa.) Cemetery. Survived by wife, two sons, and two daughters.

Frank Anson Bissell, B.D. 1879.

Born March 6, 1855, in Sirur, India
Died November 23, 1929, in Sunnyvale, Calif.

Father, the Rev. Lemuel Bissell (B.A. Western Reserve 1848, B.D. Lane Theological Seminary 1851, D.D. Western Reserve 1886), a missionary of the American Board in India; son of Anson and Joanna (Dart) Bissell, of South Windsor, Conn., and Milan, Ohio. Mother, Mary Elizabeth (Beaumont) Bissell, daughter of Randolph and Mercy (Webster) Beaumont, of Bennington, Vt., and Milan, Ohio. Yale relatives: Lemuel B. Bissell, '80 D., Arthur D. Bissell, '82 D., and Dwight W. Bissell, ex-'89 (brothers); Henry N. Bissell (B.A. 1839) (uncle); and Noah Webster (B.A. 1778) (cousin).

Mt. Clemens (Mich.) High School; B.A. Western Reserve 1876; studied in Yale Divinity School 1876-1880, studied privately in New Haven 1880-81; ordained to Congregational ministry March 28, 1882, at Nashville, Mich., where pastor 1882; pastor Otsego, Mich., 1883-85, Mount Pleasant, Mich., 1885-87, Cameron, Mo., 1887-88, Ottawa, Kans., 1888-1891, Wichita, Kans., 1891-93, Anthony, Kans., 1894, National City, Calif., 1895-98; took graduate work at University of California 1898-99; acting professor of psychology and ethics at Pomona College 1899-1902; pastor Palo Alto, Calif., 1902-03, also studied at Stanford University, 1902-03; Green Valley, Calif., 1903-08, San Lorenzo, Calif., 1908-1918, Soquel, Calif., 1918-1921, Sunnyvale, 1921-25, and Angels Camp, Union, Calif., from 1925 until his retirement in 1927; retained his membership in that church until death, but had resided in Sunnyvale since 1927.

Death due to lobar pneumonia. Buried in California Crematorium, Oakland, Calif. Survived by wife and a sister, Miss Emily R. Bissell (honorary M.A. Mount Holyoke 1925), of Auburndale, Mass.

George William Reynolds, B.D. 1880.

Born June 6, 1852, in Sidney, Maine
Died August 5, 1929, in Hartford, Conn

Father, Dr. Austin Reynolds, who attended the Philadelphia Eclectic Medical College and the Harvard Medical School 1863–64; son of Luther and Charlotte Rhoda (Jackson) Reynolds, of East Wilton, Maine. Mother, Abby (Eustis) Reynolds.

Wilton (Maine) Academy and Kents Hill (Maine) Seminary; B.A. Amherst 1877; studied in Yale Divinity School 1877–1880; ordained to Congregational ministry November 23, 1880, at Stuart, Iowa, where he held a pastorate until 1885; pastor Osage, Iowa, 1885–87, Gorham, Maine, 1887–1900, Center Congregational Church, South Manchester, Conn., from 1900 until his retirement in 1914; had since resided in West Hartford and engaged in occasional pulpit supply; D.D. Redfield College 1906; trustee of South Manchester High School three years; in charge of Hartford district in Y.M.C.A. drive during the war; director of Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief; trustee of Maine Missionary Society three years and of Annuity Fund for Congregational ministers; member of Center Church (Congregational), Hartford, at time of death, and of Hartford Congregational Club.

Married September 30, 1880, in Colchester, Conn., Kate Ellis, daughter of Edwin Timothy and Ardelia Ellis (Sparrow) Cragin. No children.

Death, due to arteriosclerosis, occurred in the Hartford Hospital. Buried in Linwood Cemetery, Colchester. His wife survives him. Just before his death gave a fund of over $140,000 to Amherst College; by the terms of the gift, after the death of his wife and when the fund has reached $150,000 the income is to be used for three lectureships, one in religion, one in science, and one in political science.
Edward Clark Winslow, B.D. 1880.

Born August 24, 1845, in Sunderland, Mass.
Died December 28, 1929, in Brookline, Mass.

Father, William Bainbridge Winslow; son of Luther and Mary (Hitchcock) Winslow, of Sunderland. Mother, Mary Lovina (Clark) Winslow; daughter of Eliphalet and Flavilla (Graves) Clark, of Sunderland.

Hitchcock Free High School, Brimfield, Mass., and Williston Academy; B.A. Amherst 1870 (elected to Phi Beta Kappa; speaker at Commencement; treasurer of his Class Sophomore year and secretary Senior year; member Psi Upsilon); principal of Amherst (Mass.) High School 1870-72; founder of the Morgan School, Clinton, Conn., 1872 and its preceptor until 1878; studied in Yale Divinity School 1878-1880, also serving as pastor of the Congregational Church in Northfield, Conn., 1878-79; pastor Taylor Congregational Church, New Haven, 1880-81; ordained to Congregational ministry November 2, 1881, at Galesburg, Mich., where pastor until 1883; pastor Westminster Presbyterian Church, Big Rapids, Mich., 1883-85; Williams professor of the Latin language and literature at Wabash College 1885-1891; pastor Central Congregational Church, Attleboro Falls, Mass., 1891-93, Congregational Church, Westminster, Mass., 1894-95; in 1893 founded the Mount Doma School for Girls in Amherst, Mass., and served as its head until 1898; appointed missionary agent of New England Home for Little Wanderers in Boston and served as a visitor and social worker for a year and a half; had been publicity agent, social worker, and chaplain of the Home since 1898; member Mount Vernon Congregational Church, Boston, at death.

Death due to rheumatic heart disease. Buried in Riverside Cemetery, Sunderland. His daughter survives him.
Divinity School

Edwin Victor Bigelow, B.D. 1890.

Born June 9, 1866, in Kingsport, N. S., Canada
Died October 26, 1929, in Boston, Mass

Father, Isaac Newton Bigelow, a shipbuilder in Nova Scotia and later a builder and contractor in the United States; son of David and Martha (Weaver) Bigelow, of Nova Scotia. Mother, Emeline (Davison) Bigelow; daughter of Edward and Margaret (Payzant) Davison, of Nova Scotia.

Preparatory department of University of Washington; B A. University of Washington 1887 (member Washington Guards and Debating Society; alumnus member of Phi Beta Kappa in 1914); studied in Yale Divinity School 1887–1890 and at Harvard Divinity School 1890–91 and again at Yale 1891–93 (M.A. 1891); ordained to Congregational ministry September 24, 1891, at Cohasset, Mass., where pastor until 1901; pastor Eliot Church, Lowell, Mass., 1901–1912 and Old South Church, Andover, Mass., 1913–1928; D D. Taylor University 1923; attended first Scout Council in Washington and helped to frame constitution and laws of that body 1910, president of Isles of Shoals Conference 1920–25 (director since 1919); member executive committee of Massachusetts Home Missionary Society 1918–1923; chairman of board of visitors of Andover Theological Seminary since 1928 (member of board since 1925); gave lectures on geology at Star Island Congregational Conference 1916 and 1919–1927; author: A Narrative History of Cohasset, Mass. (1898), Mistakes of the Interchurch Steel Report (1920), and Brief History of the Isles of Shoals (1922); elected member New England Historic Genealogical Society of Boston 1900; member South Congregational Church, Andover, at death.

Married October 9, 1895, in Quincy, Mass., Carrie Theodosia Hardwick (B.A. Wellesley 1893), daughter of Franklin and Theodosia Oakes (Stoddard) Hardwick. Children: Carita (B.A. Wellesley 1921), the wife of Donald J. Moore, ex-’18, David Hardwick, ’23; and Victor Stoddard, ’27 and ’29 L.

Death, due to retroperitoneal abscess (broncho-pneumonia), occurred in the New England Baptist Hospital. Buried in Mount Wollaston Cemetery, Quincy. Survived by wife, daughter, two sons, three grandchildren, a brother, David E.
Bigelow, of Berkeley, Calif., and a sister, Miss Clara M. Bigelow, of Seattle, Wash.

Edgar Franklin Blanchard, B.D. 1893.

Born May 19, 1862, in Wilton, Maine.
Died February 10, 1930, at Hot Springs, N. Mex

Father, Jesse Blanchard, a farmer; son of Cyrus and Elizabeth (Floyd) Blanchard, of Wilton. Mother, Phebe (Holt) Blanchard; daughter of Nathan and Phebe (Severy) Holt, of Weld, Maine.

Married August 6, 1927, Edith Scanland Leonard, of Albuquerque, N. Mex., daughter of Dr. Simeon Eben Scanland (M.D. Rush Medical College, University of Chicago, 1867) and Agnes (Leonard) Scanland. No children.

Robert John Thomson, B.D. 1894.

Born April 26, 1862, in Kinsdale, Ireland.
Died October 4, 1929, in Hohokus, N. J.

Father, John Thomson, a merchant and contractor in Templemore, Ireland; church warden of Templemore Parish Shipping clerk for Hugh Moore & Company, Dublin, Ireland, before coming to the United States in 1884; attended Mount Hermon School; special student at Johns Hopkins 1889–1891; ordained to Congregational ministry June 29, 1888, in Baltimore, where pastor of Second Congregational Church 1888–1891; studied in Yale Divinity School 1891–94; pastor Greens Farms, Conn., 1894–1902; during that period attended Yale School of Law 1895–98 (LL B. 1897, LL M. 1898; contributed to Yale Shingle of 1897); pastor Congregational Church, Bound Brook, N. J., 1902–08; while there studied at General Theological Seminary in New York 1906–07; ordained as a deacon of the Protestant Episcopal Church November 1, 1908, and priest July 4, 1909; rector St. Agnes Church, Little Falls, N. J., 1908–1912; St. John's Church, Dover, N. J., 1912–14; and St. Bartholomew's Church, Hohokus, since 1914; also priest in charge of St. Elizabeth's Chapel (now Church), Ridgewood, N. J., 1914–1922; secretary pro tem (1895), had served as moderator pro tem (1899), and member of standing committee (1899–1900) of Fairfield Association of Ministers; president of Washington Camp Ground Association at Bound Brook 1905–06; former member Raritan (N. J.) and New York Ministers meetings and Northern New Jersey Congregational Brotherhood; in 1908 asked to serve on National Council of Congregational Churches, but prevented from doing so by his study for the diaconate in the Episcopal Church; member of Board of Examining Chaplains of Diocese of Newark since 1923, appointed member of the seal committee of that diocese in May, 1929; president of Paterson (N. J.) Clericus 1927–28; member Newark (N. J.) Clericus, Church Club of the Diocese of Newark, Clergy Club of New York and vicinity, English Speaking Union, New York, and New York branch of the Clerical Union for the Maintenance and Defense of Catholic Principles.

Married July 14, 1890, in Baltimore, Cora Gilman, daughter of John Wentworth and Mary Lois (Gilman) Dodge. No children.
Obituary Record

Death due to acute dilatation of the heart and chronic myocarditis. Buried in Valleau Cemetery, Ridgewood, N. J. Survived by wife and a sister, Miss Emily Thomson, of Dublin, Ireland.

Luther Bateman Henderson, B.D. 1909.

Born February 22, 1882, in Newport, N. J
Died June 12, 1930, in Davidson, N. C

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record

Erastus Lewis Wall, B.D. 1913.

Born April 10, 1875, at Tenants Harbor, Maine
Died January 13, 1930, in Dover-Foxcroft, Maine.

Father, Abram Wall, a sailor. Mother, Susan (Cook) Wall.
Hebron (Maine) Academy; B.A. Bates 1902 (manager of Baseball Team Senior year), LL.B. University of Maine Law School 1905 (class orator), admitted to practice and was connected with a law firm in Bangor, Maine, 1905-06, but gave up the profession of law for the ministry in 1906, and was admitted to East Maine Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church for study; pastor at Patten 1906-07; attended Garrett Biblical Institute at Evanston, Ill., 1907-1910; ordained to the ministry at Calais, Maine, April 24, 1910; pastor at Eastport 1910; pastor at Delort and Holstein, Iowa, 1910-1912, studied in Yale Divinity School 1912-13; transferred to Northwest Iowa Conference in 1913 and served as pastor at Holstein again for a year, at the same time doing graduate work at Oskaloosa College (Ph.D. and D.D. 1914); pastor at Williston, N. Dak., 1914; had since been connected with East Maine Conference; pastor at Boothbay Harbor 1914-17, Randolph and Chelsea 1917-18, Mars Hill 1918-19, Lubec 1919-1920, Fort Fairfield 1920-24, Bath 1924-25, Madison
William Ernest Sullens, B.D. 1922.

Born December 12, 1882, near Jefferson City, Mo
Died July 5, 1929, in Kirkwood, Mo

Father, the Rev. James Leonard Sullens, a Methodist Episcopal minister in Webb City and Springfield, Mo.; son of Peter Washington Green and Sarah Ann (Johnston) Sullens, of Jefferson City. Mother, Laura Ann (Tipton) Sullens; daughter of Alfred H. and Sophrona (Scott) Tipton, of Mills County, Iowa.

Webb City High School; attended Central College 1903-06 and 1907-08, receiving degree of B.A. in 1908, salesman for The Hub, a clothing house, in Webb City 1901-03 and 1906-07; ordained as a deacon in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, September 18, 1910, at Webb City and as elder September 22, 1912, at Springfield; pastor Campbell Street Methodist Episcopal Church, Springfield, 1908-1912, Windsor, Mo., 1912-16, and Harrisonville, Mo., 1916-18; U. S. Army chaplain, with rank of First Lieutenant, with 137th Infantry, 35th Division, June 1, 1918-May 26, 1919; stationed at Camp Taylor, Ky., and served overseas August 17, 1918-April 23, 1919, in the Argonne, the Meuse offensive, and the trenches near Verdun, and, after the armistice, at Sampigny, France; studied in Yale Divinity School 1919-1922; pastor South Meriden Methodist Episcopal Church 1920-22; pastor University Methodist Church, South, in St. Louis 1922-26 and Kirkwood Methodist Church since 1926; in June, 1923, 1924, and 1925 served on staff of Pastors' School of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Fayette, Mo., and in June, 1926, 1927, 1928, and 1929 on staff of Missouri School for Leadership Training of the church at Fayette; member Austin and Floyd Key Post, American Legion, in Kirkwood and St. Louis Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

SUPPLEMENT

NOTICES OF DEATHS PRIOR TO JULY 1, 1929
NOT PREVIOUSLY REPORTED

YALE COLLEGE

Charles Francis Brown, B.A. 1866.

Born September 12, 1844, in Newburgh, N. Y.
Died June 19, 1929, in Newburgh, N. Y.

Father, John W. Brown, a lawyer and judge of the Supreme Court of New York; member of the 23d and 24th Congresses; born in Dundee, Scotland, and in 1802 came to America with his parents, who settled in Newburgh. Mother, Eliza (Reeve) Brown; daughter of Selah and Elizabeth (VanDuzer) Reeve, of Newburgh.

Phillips-Andover Member Sophomore Crew, University Crew Senior year, Nixie Boat Club, and captain of Varuna Boat Club; one of the Cochlaureati and recipient of the Wooden Spoon; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Alpha Sigma Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Studied law in office of Abram S. Cassedy in Newburgh and admitted to the bar in 1868; member of firm of Cassedy & Brown (with A. S. Cassedy) 1869–1883 and of Brown & Cassedy (W. F. Cassedy) 1897–98; district attorney for Orange County, N. Y., 1875–78; county judge of Orange County 1878–1883; justice of the Supreme Court of New York, 2d Division, 1883–1897; associate justice of Court of Appeals of New York, 2d Division, 1889–1892; presiding justice of General Term of Supreme Court 1893–96 and of Appellate Division during 1896; renominated to bench of Supreme Court 1896, but declined candidacy; moved to New York 1897 and served as general counsel for Metropolitan Street Railway Company until 1900; also engaged in the private practice of law from 1898 until his retirement in 1922, member New York Legislature 1911; delegate to Democratic National Convention 1874; secretary of Democratic State Committee 1880–82; LL.D. Yale 1896; member New York State Bar Association, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, New York County Lawyers' Association, and First Presbyterian Church, Newburgh.

Married June 27, 1876, in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Harriet Emigh, daughter of Norman Luther and Harriet (Emigh) Schaeffer. Two daughters, Florence Emigh, the wife of Edouard A. Jova, Columbia ex-'97; and Nanna Higginson (Mrs. Dudley S. Harde).

Death due to an acute intestinal obstruction. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Newburgh. Survived by wife, daughters, and three grandchildren, one of whom is Dudley-Brown Harde, '27.

Seelye Benedict, B.A. 1871.

Born August 8, 1848, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died June 5, 1929, in New York City.

Father, Lewis St. John Benedict (B.A. 1834), a merchant in New York City and Brooklyn; partner, with his brother, Andrew C. Benedict, in firm of A. C. Benedict & Company, jewelers; later partner with William A. Hall in firm of Benedict, Hall & Company, wholesale boot and shoe dealers; deacon and trustee of Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, and one of original members of First Congregational Church, Montclair, N. J.; son of Ezra and Hannah (Comstock) Benedict, of New Canaan, Conn. Mother, Harriet (Jones) Benedict; daughter of E. Czar and Sally (Scribner) Jones, of Ridgefield, Conn. Yale relatives include a nephew, W. St. John Benedict, ex-'24 S., and a cousin, Walter S. Edwards (Mus.B. 1920).

Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute, Eastman's Business College, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and Williston Academy. First dispute appointment Junior year; member College Choir, Beethoven Society, '71 Glee Club, South Middle Orchestra, Junior Exhibition Committee, Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, Psi Upsilon, and Scroll and Key.

In business in New York City 1871–72; salesman for Weaver & Taylor, shoe merchants, in San Francisco, Calif., 1872–73, for Beecher & Silliman, lumber merchants, in Albany, N. Y., 1873–74, and for Monen & Company, lumber merchants, in Oswego, N. Y., for a few months in 1875; had since been engaged in the insurance business in New York City and Brooklyn; in partnership with John C. Thompson for a time under firm name of L. S. Benedict & Company, life insurance agents, and general representatives of Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Milwaukee, Wis., and then carried on the business alone under same name until 1878; partner with his brother-in-law, Henry Barton Beecher, in firm of Beecher & Benedict 1878–1893; senior partner in firm of Benedict & Benedict (with his brothers, Walter St. John and Andrew Czar Benedict) from 1893 until his death; president of Insurance Brokers' Association of New York 1910–12; member of committee on fire prevention and insurance of Merchants' Association in New York since 1912, of committee on insurance and fire regulation of New York Board of Trade and Transportation, and of Chamber of Commerce of the State of New York since 1910; affiliated with the Protestant Episcopal Church.

Married in December, 1877, in Brooklyn, Sarah, daughter of Benjamin Pierson and Elizabeth H. (Simpson) Lunt, of that city and Newburyport, Mass. Children. Bertha (B. L. Smith 1901), the wife of Colonel Henry W. Torrey, a graduate of the United States Military Academy in 1906; and Seelye (died in infancy). Mrs. Benedict died May 2, 1881.

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Fairlawn Cemetery, Ridgefield, Conn. Survived by daughter, a granddaughter, and two brothers, Edward L. Benedict, of Pleasanton, Calif., and Walter St. John Benedict, of Brooklyn.

Reuben Archer Torrey, B.A. 1875.

Born January 28, 1856, in Hoboken, N. J
Died October 26, 1928, in Asheville, N. C

Father, Reuben Slayton Torrey, a banker and collector of internal revenue; son of Hiram and Polly (Slayton) Torrey, of Geneva, N. Y. Mother, Elizabeth Ann (Swift) Torrey, daughter of James and Delight (Curtis) Swift, of Rushville, N. Y. Walnut Hill School, Geneva, N. Y. Second dispute appointment Junior and Senior years; member Class Supper Committee Sophomore year; treasurer of '75 Baseball Club Junior year and secretary and treasurer Senior year; member Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi) and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

B D. Yale 1878; ordained to Congregational ministry December 5, 1878, at Garretsville, Ohio, where he held a pastorate until 1882 (also pastor at Nelson); during that period was secretary of the Temperance Society, president of the County Sunday School Union, chaplain of the Young People's League, and deputy delegate to Republican Convention; studied at Leipzig and Erlangen, Germany, 1882–83; pastor of Open Door Congregational Church, Minneapolis, Minn., 1883–86 and of Peoples' Church, Minneapolis, 1886–89, serving as superintendent of City Missionary Society 1887–89; superintendent of Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, and of Chicago Evangelization Society 1889–1905 and pastor of the Moody Church 1894–1906; during the period 1901–1912 spent much time in evangelization work abroad and in this country and Canada; preached in England, Scotland, Ireland, Germany, France, Australia, New Zealand, Tasmania, China, Japan, and India 1902–03 and held meetings in principal English and Scottish cities (including five months in Royal Albert Hall, London), 1903–05; preached in Toronto, Ottawa, Montreal, and numerous cities in the United States 1906–1911 and revisited England, Scotland, and Ireland in 1911; pastor of Church of the Open Door, Los Angeles, Calif., 1912–1924 and also dean of the Bible Institute in that city; also served as editor of a paper; since 1924 had held evangelistic meetings in various parts of this country, had lectured on the Bible at summer schools and conferences, and had been a special lecturer at the Moody Bible Institute since 1927; in 1917 was a speaker at the Northfield Conference of Christian Workers, in 1919 revisited Japan and China, taking part in a missionary conference at Kuling, in 1920 gave the principal address at the convention in Boston under the auspices of the Evangelical Association of New England, in 1921 held meetings in China and Korea, and in 1926 lectured at various colleges and institutes, during the Spanish American War engaged in Y.M.C.A. work at Camp Chickamauga and during the World War at Camps Kearney and Bowie, though not a regular secretary of the association; also served on various committees and was connected with the food conservation movement 1917–18; founder of Montrose (Pa.) Bible Conference Association in 1908 and leader and speaker at its conferences and one of the trustees since then, serving as chairman of the board for a number of years; trustee of Mount Hermon School and Northfield Seminary; president of International Christian Workers' Association, Open Air Workers' Association, and home council of Africa Inland Mission; vice-president of World's Gospel Union, member of advisory council of China Inland Mission, and president or director of several foreign missionary societies and philanthropic organizations in America, England, France, and Belgium; D.D. Wheaton 1906, author: How to Bring Men to Christ, How to Obtain Fullness of Power, The Baptism with the Holy Spirit, What the Bible Teaches, Divine Origin and Authority of the Bible, How to Work for Christ, Gist of the Lesson (annual), How to Promote and Conduct a Successful Revival, Revival Addresses, How to Study the Bible for the Greatest Profit, Talks to Men, How to Pray, Vest-Pocket Companion for Christian Workers, Ten Reasons Why I Believe the Bible Is the Word of God, Ought Christians to Keep the Sabbath, Real Salvation and Whole-hearted Service (1905), The Bible and Its Christ (1906), How to Succeed in the Christian Life (1906), Anecdotes and Illustrations (1907), Lessons in the Life and Teachings of Our Lord, Difficulties and Alleged Contradictions in the Bible, Practical and Perplexing Questions Answered, The Person and Work of the Holy Spirit (1910), The Return of the Lord Jesus (1913), The Wondrous Joy of Soul Winning (1914), The Voice of God in the Present Hour (1917), The Fundamental Doctrines of the Christian Faith (1919), The Real Christ (1920), Jesus, The Prophet, The Priest, The King (1920), The Importance and Value of Proper Bible Study (1921), The Gospel for Today (1922), Is the Bible the Inerrant Word of God? (1922), The God of the Bible (1923), How to Be Saved and How to Be Lost (1923), Why God Used D. L. Moody (1923), Divine Healing, Does God Perform Miracles Today? (1923), The Christ of the Bible (1923), Death Defeated and Denied (1923), Soul Winning Sermons (1924), The Power of Prayer and Prayer of Power (1924), The Bible the Peerless Book, God's Own and Only Book (1925), The Conversion and Christian Nurture of Children, and Lectures on First Epistle of John (1928); his works had been translated into over twenty foreign languages; contributed to various religious papers, among them being the Moody Bible Institute Monthly; editor of The King’s Business (the paper of the Bible Institute of Los Angeles) 1912–18 and contributing editor 1918–19; former member Chicago Association of Congregational Ministers and Chicago Conference.

Married October 22, 1879, in Garrettsville, Clara Belle Smith, who attended Hiram College, daughter of Orris Crosby and Josephine (Jones) Smith. Children: Edith Clare, Mount Holyoke ex-’04; Blanche, the wife of Herbert L. Wiggs (B.A. Wake Forest 1906, M.A. and LL.B. 1907); Reuben Archer, Jr. (B.A Lafayette 1910, M.A. Princeton 1912, Princeton Theological Seminary 1913), Elizabeth Swift (died in 1898); and Margaret (died in 1922), the wife of Joseph L. Parker (B.S. Georgia School of Technology 1912).

Death due to bulbar paralysis, with an intercurrent bronchitis. Buried on Conference Hill, Montrose. Survived by wife, two daughters, son, nine grandchildren, one great-grandchild, and a sister, Mrs. Charles Emerson, of Brooklyn.

James Edwin Zunts, B.A. 1881.

Born September 29, 1860, in Canton, Miss.
Died January 24, 1927, in New Orleans, La

Father, Marcus Junius Zunts, a cotton dealer; son of Uriah and Phoebe (Abbott) Zunts. Mother, Margaret Johns (Magruder) Zunts; daughter of John Hawkins and Eliza Briggs (Wailes) Magruder, of Canton, Miss.

Baton Rouge (La.) Collegiate Institute. Entered Yale as a Sophomore; contributed to Yale Record, Courant, and Literary Magazine; member Psi Upsilon.

LL.B Tulane University 1883; practiced law in New Orleans 1883–87, Birmingham, Ala., 1887–1896, and New Orleans again 1896–1922, when obliged to give up all active work; partner in firm of Zunts, Cooper & Westerfield, of which Asahel W. Cooper, ’97, was also a member, 1919–1921; associated in practice with John C. Foster 1921–22; counsel for Board of Commissioners, Port of New Orleans, January–June, 1912, director of New Orleans Branch, Federal Reserve Bank, January, 1915-May, 1918, and chairman of the board of that branch January, 1916-May, 1918, director of Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, Ga., January, 1917-October, 1919; member Capital Issues Committee, 6th Federal Reserve District, from creation of committee in 1917 until its dissolution in 1919; ex-officio member Liberty Loan committee of 5th Federal Reserve District.

Unmarried.

Death due to myocarditis and dilatation of the heart. Buried in the Metairie Cemetery, New Orleans. Survived by no immediate relatives.

William Penn Nixon, Jr., B.A. 1903.

Born December 17, 1881, in Chicago, Ill
Died January 19, 1928

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the OBITUARY RECORD

Born April 24, 1887, in Tamaqua, Pa
Died June 28, 1929, in New York City.

Father, Thomas Chester Walbridge (C.E. Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute 1873), a retired banker; son of Henry Thomas and Esther Margaret (Knickerbocker) Walbridge. Mother, Anne Editha (Carter) Walbridge; daughter of William Thornton and Jane Paull (Jewill) Carter. Yale relatives: Thomas Chester (B.A. 1780) (great-great-grandfather) and his son, Alfred Chester (B.A. 1818), Leonard K Walbridge, ex-’05 (brother); and William K Wallbridge, ’02 S (cousin)

Chestnut Hill Academy, Philadelphia, and St. Paul’s School, Concord, N H. Second colloquy appointment Senior year; contributed to Tale Record; rowed on Class Crew Sophomore, Junior, and Senior years (captain Junior year); on governing board of Yacht Club; member Zeta Psi.

With United Gas Improvement Company, Philadelphia, 1909-1915; in commercial and auditing departments to 1913 and then accountant in treasury department; partner in firm of Newhall, Churchman & Company, bankers and brokers, in Philadelphia, 1915-18; with West & Company, members of the New York Stock Exchange, since July 1, 1919, as manager of their New York office until July 1, 1921, and since then as a general partner; elected member of the New York Stock Exchange July 14, 1921; enlisted in U. S. Naval Reserve as Seaman (1st Class) June 17, 1918; called to duty July 15 and stationed at Wissahickon Barracks, Cape May, N. J., until October 1, when sent to Officers’ Matériel School at University of Pennsylvania; released from active duty December 17, 1918; member Pennsylvania Society of Foreign Wars, Society of Colonial Wars, Pennsylvania Society of Colonial Governors, and St. Michael’s Episcopal Church, Germantown, Pa., of which he had been a vestryman since about 1912.

Married August 10, 1911, in Jamestown, R. I., Margaret Cope, daughter of William Potter Buffum (B.A. Brown 1879) and Joanna Sophia (Kimber) Buffum. One son, Cope Buffum.

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Island Cemetery, Newport, R. I. Survived by wife and son.

Gerard Livingston Jackson, B.A. 1914.

Born January 8, 1891, in Orange, N. J.
Died February 25, 1929, at Saranac Lake, N. Y.

Father, George J Jackson; with National Conduit & Cable Company. Mother, Minnie Blakely (Koster) Jackson.

St Paul’s School, Concord, N. H. First colloquy appointment Junior year; second colloquy appointment Senior year; member Alpha Delta Phi

With Commonwealth Edison Company in Chicago 1914-15, holding a clerical position in the office of one of their vice-presidents; later lived abroad for a time, but had been at Saranac Lake for some years prior to his death.

Married (1) June 20, 1914, in New York City, Else, daughter of Dr Carl von Bergen. Married (2) Pauline Turgeon Davis

Death due to intestinal obstruction, general peritonitis, and ruptured appendix. Buried in Kensico Cemetery, Catskill, N. Y. Survived by wife and mother.
Murray Shipley, Ph.B. 1885.

Born February 24, 1865, in Cincinnati, Ohio.
Died May 29, 1929, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Father, Murray Shipley, a wholesale dry goods merchant; principal owner of Shipley, Doisy & Company; attended St Xavier College, Cincinnati, 1845-46; founder of The Children's Home, Cincinnati, and chairman of board of trustees many years; son of Morris and Sarah (Shotwell) Shipley, of Uttoxeter, England. Mother, Hannah Davis (Taylor) Shipley; daughter of Caleb Wright and Mary Jordan (Davis) Taylor, of Cincinnati. Yale relatives include: the Rev. Murray Shipley Howland, '97 (nephew); and Murray S. Howland, Jr., '33 (grandnephew).

Friends' School, Kendall, England, Chickering Institute, Cincinnati, and private tutor. Select course; member Yale Yacht Club and Theta Xi.

Engaged in dry goods business with Shipley, Doisy & Company 1885-86; in the structural iron business with Manley Cooper Company, Philadelphia, 1886-88; in the carriage manufacturing business with Sechler & Company, Cincinnati, 1888-1892; in 1892 organized, with William Lodge, the Lodge & Shipley Machine Tool Company of Cincinnati and was vice-president and secretary of the company until June, 1917, when he became less active in business; connected, however, with several companies, of one of which, the Trailmobile Company, his brother, Caleb W. Shipley, '82, was president and he was vice-president 1917-1921; trustee of Hospital and Home for the Friendless, Cincinnati, for ten or fifteen years, and served as secretary of the board; trustee of College of Music of Cincinnati since January, 1928; a founder of the Wawenock Country Club at Damariscotta, Maine, in 1925 and its president 1926 and 1927; member Yale Engineering Association; member of vestry of Church of the Advent (Episcopal), Walnut Hills, Cincinnati, 1907-1915, being senior warden 1914-15; served as treasurer of the Parish 1908-1911 and on various parish and diocesan committees, as chairman of the Clergy Pension Fund for the Diocese of Southern Ohio 1917, and as member of the Church Foundation and of the board of trustees of the Children's Hospital 1925.

Death due to a clot in the coronary artery and pericarditis, with myocarditis as a contributory cause. Buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati. Survived by wife, son, three daughters, nine grandchildren, two sisters, Miss Hannah T. Shipley and Mrs Charles S. Howland, both of Bryn Mawr, and two brothers, William Shipley, of Germantown, Pa., and Caleb W. Shipley, '82 A third brother, Morris S. Shipley, '77, died in 1898.

Hugh MacAlister North, Jr., Ph.B. 1897.

Born September 21, 1873, in Columbia, Pa
Died May 20, 1929, in Lancaster, Pa.

Father, Hugh MacAlister North (LL.D. Franklin and Marshall 1887), a lawyer; president of First National Bank of Columbia, member Pennsylvania Legislature; son of John and Jane Houston (MacAlister) North, of Juniata County, Pa, near MacAlisterville. Mother, Serena (Franklin) North; daughter of Thomas Emlen Franklin (B.A. 1828, LL.D. Franklin and Marshall 1874) and Serena Angélique (Mayer) Franklin of Lancaster. Yale relatives include: Emlen Franklin (B.A. 1847) (great-uncle); and George M. Franklin, '58 (uncle), his sons, William B. Franklin, '92, Frederick S. Franklin, '95, and Thomas E. Franklin, '80, and his grandson, Frederick S. Franklin, Jr , '28.

Lawrenceville School. Select course.

Studied law with his father 1897-1901 and had since practiced law in Lancaster and Columbia, being in partnership with his father under the name of North & Son 1901-07;
Supplement

had also been engaged in banking; director of First National Bank, Columbia, 1903-08, vice-president 1908-1914, and president 1914-17, when it consolidated with Columbia National Bank under name of First-Columbia National Bank, of which he was president until death; president of Steinman Hardware Company 1913 and of board of managers of Columbia Hospital 1915-1926; director and solicitor of Heeley Stove Company of Columbia since 1908; solicitor for Borough of Columbia 1920-24, Battalion-Adjutant of 4th Regiment, Pennsylvania National Guard 1900-04, secretary of Democratic State Convention four years; candidate for Congress in 1904 but failed of election; nominee for judge of the Common Pleas Court in 1910 but withdrew his name in order to make the election of Judge Charles I. Landis unanimous; member American, Pennsylvania State, and Lancaster County Bar associations, Lancaster County Historical Society, Historical Society of Pennsylvania, Swedish Colonial Society, Scotch-Irish Society, St Andrew's Society, Pennsylvania Society of Sons of the Revolution (delegate to triennial meeting of General Society in Boston 1922; elected a manager 1923; vice-president 1926-29), and St. John’s Episcopal Church, Lancaster.

Hovsep Kevork Missirian, Ph.B. 1912.

Born November 25, 1888, in Antab, Asia Minor.
Died in August, 1922, in Smyrna, Asia Minor

Father, Kevork Garabed Missirian, a tailor; active in church work; son of Garabed and Mariam (Loshgajian) Missirian, of Antab. Mother, Hosanna (Babikian) Missirian; daughter of Hagop Garabed and Sultan Babikian, of Antab. Cousins: Essie G Missirian, ex-’01, Jesse S Matossian, M.A. ’05, and Loutfi H Babikian, ’08 S.
Obituary Record

Aintab High School; B A. Central Turkey College at Aintab 1908. Entered Sheffield Scientific School 1909; electrical engineering course; honors for excellence in all studies Freshman year, honorable mention in physics and mathematics; general two-year and general three-year honors; two prizes for declamation.

Professor of mathematics at Cilicia Institute, Aintab, 1912–14, taught in Reushdié Academy (a Turkish school) 1914–15; included in the list of Armenians to be deported in 1915, but escaped and was near his brother, Dr. Garabed Missirian, at Killis six months; in February, 1916, by order of the governor of Aintab, was arrested, imprisoned there six days, deported, and imprisoned at Biredjik on the Euphrates, east of Aintab, a week; after his release, under name of "The Long Tailor," worked as a tailor to the mayor of Biredjik for about two years; in 1918 acted as draftsman with the Bagdad Railway Company for about three months previous to the armistice, served as an A Class interpreter with the English at General Headquarters of the 5th Division in Aleppo; organizer and director of schools in Killis February–July, 1919; subsequently engaged in the rug business and in the exporting of sugar in Smyrna; spent four months in this country in 1921; member Protestant Episcopal Church.

Married in 1917, in Biredjik, Haighanhi, daughter of Hagop and Mariam (Dadourian) Morookian, of Caesarea, Turkey. No children.

Lost his life during the massacre of Armenians by the Turks. Survived by wife and his brother, Dr. Garabed Missirian.
GRADUATE SCHOOL

MASTER OF ARTS

Curtis Edward Cook, M.A. 1909.

Born April 6, 1876, in Perry County, Pa.
Died March 15, 1928, in Omaha, Nebr.

Father, Benjamin W. Cook, a potter; son of Thomas and Mary (Elden) Cook, of Menallen Township, Pa. Mother, Catherine Elizabeth (Gardner) Cook; daughter of Jacob and Catherine Elizabeth (Rex) Gardner, of Butler Township, Pa. Harrisburg (Pa.) High School; B.A. Gettysburg (formerly Pennsylvania) College 1903; principal, Newtown (Conn.) High School 1903-06; attended Yale Graduate School 1906-09 (member Alpha Sigma Phi); in charge of English department of Blair Academy, Blairstown, N. J., 1909-1911, head of English department of George School at George School, Pa., 1911-12; taught English at Union High School, Phoenix, Ariz., 1913-16; head of English department at South High School, Omaha, from 1916 until death; during the war served on Special Draft Board and Medical Examination Board in Omaha; ruling elder in Wheeler Memorial Presbyterian Church, Omaha, since 1918.

Married (1) July 24, 1912, in Blairstown, Eliza Emily, daughter of William Shuster. No children. Mr. and Mrs. Cook were divorced in 1915. Married (2) July 12, 1916, in Baltimore, Md., Edith May, daughter of William Abdil and Mary Catherine (Baumer) Becker. Children: Catherine Dae and Robert Curtis.

Death due to peritonitis and cancer of the colon. Buried in Graceland Park Cemetery, Omaha. Survived by wife, daughter, son, two sisters, Mrs. Dae Miller and Mrs. Amos E. Smith, both of East Berlin, Pa., and two brothers, Chester A. Cook, of Marion, Iowa, and Charles E. Cook, of Harrisburg, Pa.
Alice Maud Barbour, Ph.D. 1913.
Born November 22, 1872, in Ansonia, Conn
Died December 14, 1928, in Derby, Conn.

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.
SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

Henry Plumb, M.D. 1861.

Born May 29, 1836, in Wolcott, Conn
Died January 4, 1929, in Ormond, Fla

Father, Wells Plumb, a farmer; son of Solomon and Lucretia (Scarritt) Plumb, of Wolcott Mother, Hilah (Kenea) Plumb; daughter of John J. and Obedience (Alcott) Kenea, of Wolcott.

Waterbury (Conn.) High School; taught for a time and was employed on a farm in Wolcott and in the factory of the Eagle Lock Works at Terryville, Conn., before entering Yale School of Medicine in 1859; practiced medicine in Milford, Conn., 1861-62; served in the Union Army during the Civil War from September 11, 1862, to August 18, 1865, as surgeon of 19th Connecticut Infantry and later of 2d Connecticut Heavy Artillery, having charge of 1st Division, 6th Corps, Hospital from summer of 1864 as surgeon-in-chief of the division; served at the Wilderness, Spotsylvania, Cold Harbor, and Winchester; practiced medicine in Meriden, Conn., 1865-66, forming a partnership with Drs Averill and Nickerson, during that period served on a commission appointed by President Johnson to administer the oath of allegiance to former confederate soldiers and to aid in the reconstruction of the South; practiced medicine in Harrisonville, Mo., and, in partnership with Dr. Nickerson and a Mr Allen, conducted a drug store and a hardware store there under firm name of Plumb, Nickerson & Allen 1866-67 (continued, however, as member of firm until 1869); practiced medicine and engaged in the hardware business at Trading Post, Kans., 1867-68, practiced in Pleasanton, Kans. (of which town he was a founder), and was member of firm of Plumb & Allen (hardware business) 1868-1881; practiced in Chicago, Ill., 1881-89 and in Texas and Mexico 1889-1891; then returned to Pleasanton and continued in practice until his retirement in 1899; also engaged in manufacturing as president of Pleasanton Handle & Manufacturing Company for several years, local surgeon of Kansas City, Fort Scott & Memphis Railroad

367
Obituary Record

Charles Ellsworth Bush, M.D. 1894.

Born October 9, 1869, in Niantic, Conn.
Died December 20, 1924, in Cromwell, Conn.

Father, Asa Ellsworth Sperry Bush, postmaster at Niantic; Corporal in Company H, 10th Connecticut Volunteers during Civil War; son of Ira and Matilda (Austin) Bush, of Niantic. Mother, Cornelia (Haynes) Bush; daughter of Marcus and Henrietta (Douglass) Haynes, of Niantic. Uncle: Austin I. Bush, '79 L.

Niantic schools, Morgan School, Clinton, Conn., and Dr. Buckland's private school in Mystic, Conn.; entered Yale School of Medicine 1891; received honorable mention in award of Campbell Gold Medal; member Delta Epsilon Iota; had been engaged in practice of medicine and surgery in Cromwell since 1894; chief of surgical staff of Middlesex Hospital since 1920; medical examiner for town of Cromwell since 1895; member Cromwell School Board; selectman of Cromwell one term, during the war served as member of Medical Examining Board No. 21 in 1917, of Medical Advisory Board for Middlesex County in 1918, of Middlesex County Medical Auxiliary of State Council of Defense 1916-18, and of Volunteer Medical Service Corps 1916-18; helped to organize and was chosen First Lieutenant of Cromwell Home Guards, Company D, 6th Infantry, Connecticut State Guard; served as surgeon of 6th Infantry 1916-18, as chairman of Home Service committee of the Red Cross and as member of Cromwell War Bureau; member Middlesex County Medical Asso-
Supplement

Edwin Thomas Murray, M.D. 1922.

Born December 28, 1894, in Bangor, Maine
Died September 7, 1927, in East Millinocket, Maine

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the OBITUARY RECORD.
SCHOOL OF LAW

BACHELORS OF LAW

Frank Edwin Hawkes, LL.B. 1891.

Born March 21, 1869, in Oxford, Maine.
Died April 14, 1929, in Brookline, Mass.

Father, George Edwin Hawkes, a merchant; member of firm of Durell & Hawkes in Oxford; town treasurer; son of Jeremiah and Mary Ann (Fellows) Hawkes, of Windham, Maine. Mother, Sarah Ellen (Durell) Hawkes; daughter of Charles and Sally Hall (King) Durell, of Oxford.

Hebron (Maine) Academy and Phillips-Andover; entered Sheffield Scientific School with Class of 1891, but after Freshman year transferred to the Law School in fall of 1889; practiced law in Portland, Maine, 1891–97 and in Boston 1897–1909; in 1909 formed banking and brokerage house of Hawkes, Marcotte & Company in Boston; New England representative in Boston of Lawyers' Cooperative Publishing Company of Aqueduct, Rochester, N. Y., 1913–16; had been interested in railroad, water power, lighting plant industries, and industrial and timber land enterprises in Maine, New Hampshire, and Vermont; at one time a dealer in second hand law books and later engaged in real estate business in Boston under his own name; member Boston Real Estate Exchange and its sub-organization, the Brokers Board, 1920–27; member Pilgrim Fathers, United Commercial Travelers, and Sons of the American Revolution.

Married March 12, 1912, in New Orleans, La., Marguerite Cecile, daughter of Julius A. and Mary (Peters) Pratt. No children. Mr. and Mrs. Hawkes were divorced in 1914.

Daniel Louis Parsons, LL.B. 1893.

Born December 19, 1869, in Johnstown, Pa.
Died April 23, 1929, in Johnstown, Pa.

Father, Robert Parsons, a tailor; born in Trowbridge, England, and came to America in 1853; served four years in the Civil War in Company E, 54th Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry, being captured at Newmarket, Va, and taken to Andersonville Prison, where he was prisoner for nearly nine months. Mother, Naomi (Aubrey) Parsons; born in Merthyr-Tydwil, Wales.

Johnstown High School; entered Yale School of Law in 1891; admitted to the Connecticut State Bar in 1893 and to the Pennsylvania Bar in Cambria County in March, 1895, had practiced law independently in Johnstown since 1893; member Sons of Veterans and First Christian Church, Johnstown.

Married January 11, 1892, in Baltimore, Md, Annette, daughter of Frederick and Elizabeth (Hoffman) Border. One son, Reginald (L.L.B Dickinson 1924).

Death due to lobar pneumonia. Buried in Grandview Cemetery, Johnstown. Survived by wife, son, two grandchildren, a brother, Joseph E. Parsons, of Columbus, Ohio, and a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Hoerle, of Johnstown.

Born July 30, 1887, in Grand Rapids, Mich
Died March 22, 1927, in Minneapolis, Minn

Father, Frank Leslie Danforth, a lawyer; connected with councillor's office, Grand Rapids, as student and assistant, assistant to the president and general manager of Grand Rapids & Indiana Railway (now consolidated with Pennsylvania lines) many years; at present engaged in real estate business and affiliated interests in Grand Rapids and Minneapolis; son of William Asa and Caroline Ann (Gintz) Danforth, of Rockford, Mich. Mother, Cora Eleanor (Young) Danforth; daughter of Elihu R. and Rachel (Watkins) Young, of Courtland Township, Mich.

Grand Rapids High School; entered Yale School of Law in 1906; member Class Day Committee; during the period 1909–1915 employed by St. Cloud (Minn) Marble Company as a bookkeeper and assistant in the office and as a salesman in O Young's Music House at Grand Forks, N. Dak; bookkeeper of Buzza Company, wholesale manufacturers of greeting cards, in Minneapolis 1915–16; took special course in accounting and business practice at University of Minnesota and special evening course in languages at Minneapolis South High School 1918; office manager of Loose-Wiles Biscuit Company of Minneapolis 1917–19; bookkeeper for Moline Plow Company, St Louis Park, Minn., for a time between 1919 and 1922, had since been an accountant in the comptroller's office, Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie Railway; affiliated with the Christian Science Church.

Married December 6, 1913, in Minneapolis, Delia Verezella, daughter of Peter Ogder (born in Germany; name changed to Peter Hanson in America) and Anna (Ince) Hanson. Children: Sherwood Leon and Earl Mitchell.

Death due to lobar pneumonia and chronic nephritis. Buried in Lakewood Cemetery, Minneapolis. Survived by wife, two sons, father, and three brothers, Howard O. Danforth, of Cedar Springs, Mich, Russell E. Danforth, of Los Angeles, Calif., and Paul E. Danforth, of Washington, D. C.

MASTERS OF LAWS

William Angus Hamilton, LL.M. 1893.

Born November 11, 1867, in Jersey City, N. J.
Died March 14, 1929, in Richmond, Va.

Father, William Hamilton, Lieutenant Commander, U. S. Navy, during Civil War; son of Alexander Hamilton (educated in England) and Eliza (Decker) Hamilton, of Jersey City, N. J. Mother, Anne Louise (Fraser) Hamilton; daughter of Judge Philip Fraser, Union College ex-1836, and Mary (DeWees) Fraser, of Jacksonville, Fla.

Studied law at Cornell 1887–89 (LL.B. 1889); attended Union College 1889–1890 as member of Class of 1893 (member Psi Upsilon); studied at Harvard 1890–92 (B.A. 1892); attended Yale School of Law 1892–94 (LL.M. 1893, D.C.L. 1894, member Book and Gavel), also member of Phi Kappa Delta, Omicron Delta Kappa, Kappa Phi Kappa, Alpha Kappa Psi, and Phi Beta Kappa; assistant at Grace Church, New York City (Rev. William R. Huntington, rector) 1895; ordained as deacon in Protestant Episcopal Church by Bishop Potter at St. Thomas' Church, New York City, June 9, 1895; archdeacon of Idaho and Wyoming 1895; rector of Christ Church, Sausalito, Calif., 1896–1900; engaged in writing at Mill Valley, Calif., 1900–1911; practiced law independently in San Francisco 1911–16; commissioned as Major in Coast Artillery, Officers' Reserve Corps, May 11, 1917, and trained at Reserve Officers' Training Camp, Fort Winfield Scott, Calif., where commissioned as Captain, Coast Artillery, National Army, August 15, 1917; attended School of Fire at Fort Sill, Okla., March 23–May 26, 1918; joined 57th Ammunition Train at Camp Eustis, Va., in July, 1918, serving as adjutant for a period and as commanding officer of Companies A and C and becoming judge advocate of the camp in November, 1918; joined 42d Regiment, Coast Artillery, there July 1, 1919, and served as regimental adjutant, as judge advocate special court martial and summary court martial, and as camp inspector and intelligence officer; received discharge December 31, 1920; commissioned as Captain, Judge Advocate General's Department, Officers' Reserve Corps, May 20, 1921; promoted Major October 4, 1922, and held that rank at death; engaged in research work at Newport News, Va., 1920–21; had since been professor of jurisprudence at William and Mary College and dean of the School of Economics and Business Administration since 1924; national secretary-treasurer of Pi Gamma Mu Society from its organization in December, 1924, until death.

Married July 6, 1896, in Boise City, Idaho, Ruby Violet, daughter of John Williams and Frances Harriet (MacIntyre) Plummer. Children: Anne Louise Fraser (Mrs. Walter Damrosch Hofman); and William Angus, Jr. (B.A. University of California 1924), now a Lieutenant in U.S. Marine Corps.

Death, due to kidney and bladder infection, occurred in St. Elizabeth Hospital. Buried in Cedar Grove Cemetery, Williamsburg, Va. Survived by wife, daughter, son, three grandchildren, and mother (died November 23, 1929)
Obituary Record

Wilhelm George Dettloff-Mueller, LL.M. 1895.
Born in 1871, in Gorlitz, Silesia, Germany
Died February 8, 1914, in Halle, Germany

Graduated at a college in Germany, later taking a course in agriculture; after coming to the United States, studied at University of Minnesota, receiving degree of LL.B. in 1894; graduate student in Yale School of Law 1894–95; admitted to the bar in Minneapolis and joined his brother in practice there for a short time; upon his return to Europe served as secretary to Bartlett Tripp, United States ambassador to Austria at Vienna; later clerk and vice-consul at Hamburg six months; afterwards returned to Vienna and became legal and commercial adviser to Blaisdell, the inventor of the paper pencil; headmaster in English and English composition at the Commercial School in Olmutz, Moravia; in 1901 became connected with Commercial High School in Leipzig; made superintendent of the school 1903 and held a professorship there from 1909 until 1912, when obliged to give up teaching on account of a severe illness; author.

Married. No children.
Survived by wife, Margarete Dettloff-Mueller.

William Harrison Holmes, LL.M. 1903.
Born February 26, 1875, in Ellsworth, Maine.
Died November 6, 1917, in Washington, D.C.

Father, William H. Holmes, a farmer. Mother, Harriett F. Holmes.

Attended the University of Maine 1899–1900; LL.B. University of Iowa 1901; studied in Yale School of Law 1902–03; subsequently lived in Ellsworth, Omaha, Nebr., Duluth, Minn., Montana, and Oklahoma.

Married in 1901. One daughter, Pauline. Mr and Mrs. Holmes (Ruth E. Holmes) were divorced in 1905.

Death, due to pneumonia, occurred at the Garfield Memorial Hospital. Buried in Ellsworth. Survived by daughter and a sister, Miss Minnie E. Holmes, of Ellsworth.
DIVINITY SCHOOL

Frank Oscar Hellier, B.D. 1892.

Born August 24, 1865, in Dyersville, Iowa
Died March 11, 1925, in Bessemer, Ala

Father, William Hellier, a farmer; son of William and Sarah Ann Hellier, of Bristol, England. Mother, Hannah (Collings) Hellier; daughter of William and Hannah (Sutcliffe) Collings, of Bristol.

Grass Lake (Mich.) High School; studied at University of Michigan 1886–89, at Chicago Theological Seminary 1889–1891, and at Yale Divinity School 1891–92; ordained to Congregational ministry at Tekoa, Wash., September 15, 1893; pastor Congregational Church, Caledonia, Ill, 1892–94; studied at University of Edinburgh 1894–96 (Ph D. 1896); president of Sheridan College, Wyoming, 1898–1902; professor of New Testament Greek at Atlanta Theological Seminary 1902–03; engaged in lyceum work 1903–06; pastor First Presbyterian Church, Frankfort, Kans., 1906–08, professor of chemistry at Highland (Kans.) University 1908–09; principal of School of the Ozarks, Forsyth, Mo, 1909–1910; pastor First Presbyterian Church, Mendota, Ill, 1910–12; First Presbyterian Church, Lisbon, N. Dak., 1912–14; Presbyterian Church, Friendswood, Texas, 1914–16; Laurel Hill Presbyterian Church, Laurinburg, N. C., 1916–1920; and First Presbyterian Church, Bessemer from 1920 until death; chairman of Home Mission Committee of the Presbytery while at Lisbon; Y.M.C.A. secretary (with rank of Lieutenant) in France July, 1918–May, 1919, at first in Epinol and later at Headquarters of 2d Division at Nancy and Toul.

Married September 5, 1900, in Yonkers, N Y, Jane Connell (Ph.B. Wooster 1890, Ph D New York University 1898), daughter of John McNeill and Jane Keziah (Cox) Connell
One son, William (B.S. Washington and Lee 1924).

Died suddenly. Buried in Greenlawn Cemetery, Columbus, Ohio. Survived by wife, son, two brothers, Darley G Hellier, of Lakeland, Fla., and William Hellier, of Wauchula, Fla, and two sisters, Mrs. G. E. Moorehouse, of Laurinburg, N. C., and Mrs. Julius Hoyt, of Wauchula.

375
Obituary Record

Leslie Wilbert Morgan, B.D. 1895.

Born August 28, 1869, in Creswell, Iowa.

Father, William Allen Morgan, a farmer; son of David and Mary (Evans) Morgan, of Warren County, Ohio. Mother, Nancy Jane (Matthews) Morgan; daughter of Tunstal Quales and Jane Chloe (Morgan) Matthews, of South English, Iowa.

Drake Preparatory School; B.A. Drake University 1893, M.A. 1894 (won the Iowa State speaking contest while there); entered Yale Divinity School as a Senior 1894; ordained to the ministry of the Church of the Disciples at the University Place Church of Christ, Des Moines, Iowa, in June, 1895; pastor Christian Church, Atlanta, Ill., 1895-99; in that period Illinois superintendent of Christian Endeavor work among churches of the Disciples 1898-99; pastor Christian Church, Southampton, England, 1899-1905 and Hornsey, London, 1905-1915; engaged in munition work in London 1915-18; Y.M.C.A. secretary with United States Army in London 1918-19 and with the British Army as chief of street patrols, dealing with the social evil, 1919-1921; lectured in the United States on his street patrol work and on “Why I Became a British Subject” in 1921; lived in London 1921-24, not actively engaged in any occupation on account of his health but contributing some news letters to the Christian Century; went to Australia in 1924 under the Y.M.C.A. emigration scheme and worked in Melbourne, Sidney, and other places for a year and a half; had given much time and study to the subject of Christian union in the effort to unite the two types of churches of the Disciples in England; president of Free Church Ministers Golf Society.

Married June 3, 1902, in Southampton, Edith Mary, daughter of Frederick and Mary (Harman) Misselbrook. Children: Nancy, Alan Misselbrook, and David Misselbrook.

Death due to Bright’s disease. Buried in Golers Green Cemetery, London. Survived by wife, daughter, two sons, a sister, Mrs Clara G. Wilkinson, of Huntington Park, Calif., and two brothers, the Rev. Frank A. Morgan, '92 D., and Elmer E Morgan, of Knoxville, Iowa.
Benjamin Franklin Dailey, B.D. 1896.

Born October 25, 1864, in Clinton, Ind.
Died June 23, 1929, in Indianapolis, Ind.

Father, Charles Dailey, a farmer; son of Benjamin and Catherine (Redding) Dailey, of Park County, Ind. Mother, Linna (Wright) Dailey; daughter of Nathan and Rachel (Combs) Wright, who lived near Greencastle, Putnam County, Ind.

Butler Preparatory School, Indianapolis; B.A. Butler 1887, M.A. 1892, Ph.D. 1894; took graduate work at Butler 1891-93; pastor Christian (Church of the Disciples) Church, Oxford, Ind., 1887-89, Winchester, Ind., 1889-1891, and Greenfield, Ind., 1894-95; studied in Yale Divinity School 1895-96; served rural churches in Indiana 1897; pastor Christian Church, Greenfield, Ind., 1898, Somerset, Pa., 1899, Greenfield 1900-04; served rural churches in Indiana 1905-1910, including part-time work with Mount Pleasant Church 1906-1910; pastor Greenfield 1911-12, Mooresville, Ind., 1913-1920, and Mount Pleasant Christian Church from 1921 until his retirement in February, 1925; president of Butler College Alumni Association 1912-13; member Campbell Institute (a national organization of clergymen and laymen of the Disciple Denomination) and Downey Avenue Christian Church, Indianapolis, at death.

Married September 13, 1887, in Montgomery County, Pa., near Waynesville, Mary Urith, daughter of Joseph and Charlotte (Ramsey) Thomas. Children: Urith Catherine (B.A. Butler 1917), the wife of George E. Gill (B.A. Indiana State University 1912, M.A. Columbia 1915); Edith Christina (B.A. Butler 1919) (died in 1923); and Charles Thomas, Butler ex-’24.

Death due to pulmonary tuberculosis. Buried in Memorial Park Cemetery, Indianapolis. Survived by wife, daughter, one son, a grandson, and a sister, Mrs. Charles T. Cook, of Clinton.
Obituary Record

Warren Morse, B.D. 1899.

Born July 9, 1860, in Dover, N H
Died June 11, 1929, in Denver, Colo.

Father, Moses Leland Morse (B.A. Bowdoin 1846); teacher and superintendent of schools in Maine; studied law at Harvard, admitted to the bar, and practiced law in Boston in association with John C. Parks; principal of Dover High School; son of Charles Moody and Abigail (Scales) Morse, of Wilton, Maine. Mother, Lucy Ann (Marston) Morse; daughter of Caleb Morse and Betsy Hubbard (Ambrose) Marston, of Sandwich Center, N H.

Early education received at Boston Latin School; during the period 1878-1892 employed as a machinist by New York & New England Railroad near Boston and later as draftsman for that railroad and for companies in Providence, R. I., Erie, Pa., Akron, Ohio, Stamford, Conn. (Yale & Towne Manufacturing Company), and Cambridge, Mass.; special student at Williams College 1892-96; during that period served as pastor of The Church of Christ in the White Oaks (Congregational), Williamstown, 1892-96 and of Congregational Church of South Williamstown 1892-94; attended Yale Divinity School 1896-99; while there pastor Bridgewater, Conn., 1897-99; ordained to Congregational ministry December 13, 1899, at Bennington Center, Vt., where pastor of Old First Church until 1905; pastor First Congregational Church, Brewer, Maine, 1905-1912; studied at University of Maine 1906-07 and 1908-09, receiving degree of B.A. in 1907 and an M.A. 1909, pastor First Congregational Church, Bellingham, Wash., 1912-16, Atkinson Memorial Congregational Church, Portland, Ore., 1917-18; served as chaplain (with rank of First Lieutenant) with 75th Infantry, 13th Division, at Camp Lewis, Wash., October 29, 1918-July 20, 1919, and at General Hospital No. 21 at Denver, July 23-October 29, 1919, engaged in work for Near East Relief in Oregon and Nebraska 1919-1920 and state director of the work in Wyoming 1920-21; pastor First Congregational Church, Ogallala, Nebr., 1921-24 (also serving Brule, Nebr., 1921-22); and Wahoo, Nebr., from 1924 until his retirement from active ministry 1926; had since been engaged in drafting for Dorr Engineering Company in Denver; president New England Club, Bellingham, 1914; chaplain American Legion Post, Ogallala 1923 and 1924 and Wahoo 1925 and 1926; member First Congregational Church, Denver, at time of death.

Married July 6, 1897, in Stamford, Conn., Grace Seymour Bean, Wellesley ex-'96, daughter of the Rev. David Marks Bean (B.A. 1858) and Fanny Maria (Hoyt) Bean. Children: Frances Margaret, Oberlin ex-'28; and Lucy Marston (B.A. Pacific University 1923) (Mrs. R. Ben Pullen).

Death, due to pulmonary embolism and thrombosis, occurred at the Colorado General Hospital. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Colorado Springs, Colo. Survived by wife, two daughters, and a half brother, Edward L. C. Morse (B.A. Harvard 1877, LL.B. Lake Forest 1893), of Los Angeles, Calif.
SUMMARY

YALE COLLEGE

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>NAME AND AGE AT DEATH</th>
<th>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</th>
<th>DATE OF DEATH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1853</td>
<td>G W Baldwin, 97</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn, Vevey, Switzerland</td>
<td>January 23, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1857</td>
<td>G M Woodruff, 94</td>
<td>Litchfield, Conn.</td>
<td>April 29, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1859</td>
<td>R W Gridley, 92</td>
<td>Candor, N Y, Amboy, Ill</td>
<td>February 14, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1863</td>
<td>J F Kernochan, 86</td>
<td>New York City</td>
<td>August 17, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1864</td>
<td>A D Miller, 87</td>
<td>Rochester, N. Y; Glen Ridge, N J.</td>
<td>December 17, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1865</td>
<td>C P Taft, 86</td>
<td>Cincinnati, Ohio</td>
<td>December 31, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1867</td>
<td>E H Converse, 86</td>
<td>Monson, Mass, Bethel, Conn.</td>
<td>February 2, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1865</td>
<td>W Stocking, 89</td>
<td>Waterbury, Conn, Detroit, Mich</td>
<td>January 26, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1867</td>
<td>W B Davenport, 82</td>
<td>New York City; Brooklyn, N Y</td>
<td>November 14, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1867</td>
<td>F Libbey, 82</td>
<td>Georgetown, D. C, Washington, D C</td>
<td>October 9, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1868</td>
<td>H. F. Homes, 82</td>
<td>Constantinople, Turkey, New York City</td>
<td>September 15, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>D M Bone, 83</td>
<td>Rock Creek Community, Menard County, Ill, Kansas City, Mo.</td>
<td>October 25, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>F Countryman, 80</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn, North Branford, Conn</td>
<td>January 26, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td>C H Hamlin, 79</td>
<td>Farmington (now Plainville), Conn; Farmington, Maine</td>
<td>August 16, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td>C H Starling, 78</td>
<td>New York City; Medicine Hat, Alberta, Canada</td>
<td>October 4, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td>R B Wheeler, 86</td>
<td>South Butler, N Y; St. Paul, Minn.</td>
<td>April 2, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td>E A Wilson, 77</td>
<td>St. Louis, Mo; San Antonio, Texas</td>
<td>August 3, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>E F Belding, 79</td>
<td>West Northfield, Mass, Fairhaven, Mass.</td>
<td>December 27, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>W H Bradley, 81</td>
<td>Galena, Ill, New York City</td>
<td>September 17, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>F T Dubois, 78</td>
<td>Palestine, Ill, Washington, D C.</td>
<td>February 14, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>E H Peaslee, 79</td>
<td>Hanover, N. H, New York City</td>
<td>February 10, 1930</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
1872  G. Richards, 81
1872  J. W. Stimson, 79
1873  N. H. Burnham, 81
1873  Reuben Knox, 79
1873  H. E. Sadler, 78
1873  Ullman Strong, 78
1874  S. C. Bushnell, 78
1874  H. A. James, 75
1874  Ansley Wilcox, 73
1875  E. A. Hill, 79
1875  W. S. Kennedy, 78
1876  A. T. Hadley, 73
1877  J. P. Davenport, 72
1877  S. L. Eaton, 77
1877  H. D. Green, 72
1877  Orlando Hall, 73
1878  G. B. Edwards, 75
1878  C. H. Kelsey, 73
1878  M. Moores, 73
1878  C. M. Stone, 73
1878  W. H. Taft, 72
1879  A. W. Bell, 74
1879  S. P. Fosdick, 72
1879  W. W. Hawkes, 72
1879  S. B. Sharpe, 72
1879  J. E. Wilson, 72
1880  C. P. Barker, 72
1880  J. P. Helfenstein, 72
1880  S. C. Partridge, 72

Boston, Mass; New York City
Paterson, N. J; Corona, Calif.
New York City; Springfield, Mass.
St. Louis, Mo; North Plainfield, N. J.
Brockport, N. Y; Memphis, Tenn.
Racine, Wis.; Summit, N. J.
New Haven, Conn.
Baltimore, Md.; East Hampton, N. Y.
Augusta, Ga, Buffalo, N. Y.
New York City, Washington, D. C.
Brecksville, Ohio, West Yarmouth, Mass.
New Haven, Conn., Kobe, Japan
Brooklyn, N. Y, New York City
Lancaster, Wis; Newton Highlands, Mass.
Reading, Pa.
Akron, Ohio, Cleveland, Ohio
Russellville, Ky, Louisville, Ky.
Bridgeport, Conn., West Orange, N. J
Indianapolis, Ind
Binghamton, N. Y.
Cincinnati, Ohio, Washington, D. C
Morrstown, N. J.
New York City, Stamford, Conn
Davenport, Iowa, West Haven, Conn
Kingston, N. Y, New York City
Rockville, Conn, New York City
Brooklyn, N. Y.
Shamokin, Pa
New York City, Kansas City, Mo

May 24, 1930
June 13, 1930
March 24, 1930
March 12, 1930
October 10, 1929
April 23, 1930
April 27, 1930
August 1, 1929
January 26, 1930
October 28, 1929
August 4, 1930
March 6, 1930
July 7, 1930
April 17, 1930
December 29, 1929
August 28, 1929
December 15, 1929
April 30, 1930
October 22, 1929
July 2, 1929
March 8, 1930
April 5, 1930
May 15, 1930
April 12, 1930
November 24, 1929
December 19, 1929
May 19, 1930
October 6, 1929
June 22, 1930
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>NAME AND AGE AT DEATH</th>
<th>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</th>
<th>DATE OF DEATH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>W A Peters, 71</td>
<td>Atlanta, Ga ; Seattle, Wash</td>
<td>October 26, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>H M Reynolds, 72</td>
<td>Wakefield, N H ; New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>October 3, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>J F Shepley, 71</td>
<td>St Louis, Mo</td>
<td>January 11, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>C P. Wurts, 70</td>
<td>Carbondale, Pa ; Winnetka, Ill</td>
<td>May 27, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>J D. Burrell, 71</td>
<td>Freeport, Ill ; Barcelona, Spain</td>
<td>April 13, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>J Sheldon, 71</td>
<td>Geneva, N Y ; Ascot, England</td>
<td>June 14, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>S M Parke, 70</td>
<td>Pittston, Pa</td>
<td>September 12, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882</td>
<td>E V Silver, 69</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y ; New York City</td>
<td>March 5, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882</td>
<td>E N Dingley, 67</td>
<td>Auburn, Maine ; Washington, D C</td>
<td>March 18, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882</td>
<td>Albert Symington, 67</td>
<td>New York City</td>
<td>May 17, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>Willson Carpenter, 68</td>
<td>Stamford Township, N Y ; Poughkeepsie, N Y. Southbridge, Mass</td>
<td>June 30, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>G M. Cheney, 68</td>
<td>Brookly, N. Y ; New York City</td>
<td>June 23, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>J R. Halsey, 65</td>
<td>Montrose, Pa ; Hollywood, Calif</td>
<td>February 9, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>H E. Hand, 67</td>
<td>Corning, N Y ; Ann Arbor, Mich</td>
<td>April 13, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>G W Patterson, 66</td>
<td>Durham, Conn ; New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>May 22, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>A F. Welles, 67</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>February 28, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>J S Pardoe, 66</td>
<td>Danielson, Conn ; Springfield, Mass. New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>April 10, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>E A Bates, 69</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>January 24, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>D. D. Lambert, 67</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y ; Yonkers, N. Y.</td>
<td>May 10, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>H S Hart, 64</td>
<td>Cincinnati, Ohio ; New York City Newark, N J</td>
<td>May 13, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>F. T. Hill, 63</td>
<td>Yonkers, N Y ; Brooklyn, N. Y. New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>March 17, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>R I. Jenks, 65</td>
<td>St. Paul, Minn. ; Minneapolis, Minn.</td>
<td>March 30, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>Edward Staehlin, 64</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill. ; Providence, R. I.</td>
<td>December 10, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888</td>
<td>J H. Behrends, 62</td>
<td>Clockville, N. Y. ; Syracuse, N. Y.</td>
<td>April 16, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888</td>
<td>B. R. Ward, 61</td>
<td></td>
<td>August 26, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888</td>
<td>W. D. Washburn, 66</td>
<td></td>
<td>October 10, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889</td>
<td>Lester Bradner, 62</td>
<td></td>
<td>September 21, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889</td>
<td>C. L. Forbes, 62</td>
<td></td>
<td>December 23, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Class</td>
<td>Name and Age at Death</td>
<td>Place of Birth and Death</td>
<td>Date of Death</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-------</td>
<td>------------------------</td>
<td>--------------------------</td>
<td>--------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>R W Burnet, 54</td>
<td>Cincinnati, Ohio; Kenova, W Va.</td>
<td>November 6, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>W J Calyer, 60</td>
<td>Newburgh, N Y, Fishkill, N Y New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>December 22, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>W A Hart, 54</td>
<td>Afton, N Y; Fishkill, N Y</td>
<td>December 22, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>W. G. Rowe, 63</td>
<td>Bethlehem, Conn; Woodmont, Milford, Conn.</td>
<td>July 28, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>A P Hayes, 53</td>
<td>Cleveland, Ohio</td>
<td>July 26, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>J C. McLauchlan, 55</td>
<td>Harmony Township, Ohio, Philadelphia, Pa.</td>
<td>October 8, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>L. L. Beard, 53</td>
<td>Albany, N. Y., New York City</td>
<td>April 30, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>N F Brady, 51</td>
<td>Clinton, Iowa</td>
<td>March 27, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>A C Smith, 54</td>
<td>Washington, D C, New York City</td>
<td>February 26, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>S B Elkins, 51</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N. Y.; Saranac Lake, N. Y.</td>
<td>October 20, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>T. A Howell, 51</td>
<td>Putnam, Conn.; Hartford, Conn.</td>
<td>April 19, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>J C Phillips, 53</td>
<td>St Louis, Mo.</td>
<td>February 7, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>G W Simmons, 51</td>
<td>Belleville, Ill</td>
<td>May 21, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>D O. Thomas, 53</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y, Bay Head, N. J.</td>
<td>November 24, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td>H W Healy, 51</td>
<td>New York City</td>
<td>August 16, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td>G B Kip, 52</td>
<td>New York City; Wallingsford, Conn.</td>
<td>February 23, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td>H. P Olcott, 50</td>
<td>New Bedford, Mass.; Seattle, Wash</td>
<td>November 4, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>L. T. Bushnell, 49</td>
<td>West Springfield, Mass.; New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>April 7, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>M. P. Miller, 50</td>
<td>Kansas City, Mo, Beacon, N. Y.</td>
<td>March 4, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>K. C. Reed, 48</td>
<td>Springfield, Mass New York City</td>
<td>August 29, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>H G. Waters, 49</td>
<td>Cleveland, Ohio, Lakewood, Ohio</td>
<td>April 7, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>A. J. Rosenthal, 47</td>
<td>Naugatuck, Conn., Bethany, Conn.</td>
<td>October 12, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>W R. Stuart, 51</td>
<td>New York City</td>
<td>January 12, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>S W Baldwin, 49</td>
<td>Gloversville, N Y; Albuquerque, N. Mex.</td>
<td>May 14, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905</td>
<td>F. B. Porter, 46</td>
<td>New Woodstock, N. Y, Auburn, N. Y.</td>
<td>April 29, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>H B Jamison, 45</td>
<td>Denver, Colo.; Paris, France</td>
<td>July 1, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>C. M. Morse, 56</td>
<td></td>
<td>March 23, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>G. B. Struby, 44</td>
<td></td>
<td>July 9, 1929</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
1907  D R Meigs, 45
1908  J D Cutter, 44
1909  Robert Mallory, Jr, 42
1909  A D Parker, 42
1910  E. B Cowles, 42
1910  L N. Hine, 41
1911  J H Bragdon, 42
1911  S E Brown, 39
1911  W N. Sweet, 41
1912  H. D Hooker, 37
1912  S. P Spencer, 40
1913  J W Clark, 38
1913  H M Deane, 37
1914  F. B. Kaye, 47
1914  W J Keyes, 36
1916  F H Perkins, 35
1917  L G Bernheimer, 35
1917  R. E. Phelan, 36
1918  A G McIlwaine, Jr, 33
1919  S. L. Lyon, 34
1920  H W Waterman, 30
1921  J S Acosta, 30
1922  H B. Cheney, Jr, 30
1922  N T Guernsey, Jr, 30
1922  William Lohmeyer, Jr, 34
1922  E C Scheide, 30
1923  J A. Wright, Jr, 29
1925  E P Isham, 25

Pottstown, Pa; Knoxville, Tenn.
Orange, N J; New Britain, Conn
Brooklyn, N Y; Rye, N Y
Lowell, Mass.; Little Boar's Head,
North Hampton, N. H
Rye, N Y; New York City
Brooklyn, N Y; Paris, France
Melrose, Mass., New Rochelle, N Y
New Haven, Conn.; Bridgeport, Conn.
Lebanon, Conn.; Hartford, Conn.
Brooklyn, N Y; Columbia, Mo.
St Louis, Mo; Canton, China
Detroit, Mich., Penang, Straits Settlements
Waterbury, Conn., Montreal, Canada
New York City, Boston, Mass.
Terre Haute, Ind., New York City
Chicago, Ill
New York City; Los Angeles, Calif.
New Haven, Conn., Stratford, Conn
New York City, Biarritz, France
Bridgeport, Conn., New Haven, Conn
Valatie, N Y, Albany, N. Y
Jacksonville, Fla, Waverly, Ga
South Manchester, Conn., Hartford, Conn
Des Moines, Iowa, New York City
Charleston, W Va, Huntington, W Va
Orange, N J, Hartford, Conn
San Marcos, Texas, El Paso, Texas
Smithtown Branch, N. Y., New York City

March 18, 1930
March 11, 1930
December 1, 1929

September 7, 1929
June 8, 1930
March 5, 1930

February 19, 1930
February 7, 1930
July 5, 1929
October 26, 1929
March 6, 1930
July 3, 1929
August 27, 1929
February 28, 1930
October 1, 1929
October 21, 1929
January 10, 1930
February 25, 1930
August 21, 1929
April 14, 1930
December 4, 1929
July 18, 1929
March 1, 1930
December 17, 1929
August 26, 1929
January 20, 1930
January 7, 1930
July 24, 1929
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>NAME AND AGE AT DEATH</th>
<th>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</th>
<th>DATE OF DEATH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1926</td>
<td>A E Whiting, Jr, 24</td>
<td>Philadelphia, Pa; Radnor, Pa</td>
<td>July 4, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1928</td>
<td>W S Edwards, 24</td>
<td>Clifton Springs, N Y, Wichita, Kans</td>
<td>June 26, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1928</td>
<td>R M Paskus, 21</td>
<td>New York City, Washington, N Y</td>
<td>March 1, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1928</td>
<td>W M A Saunders, 23</td>
<td>Winchester, Mass, Boston, Mass</td>
<td>April 19, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1929</td>
<td>C N deForest, 24</td>
<td>Cold Spring Harbor, N Y, Palermo, Sicily</td>
<td>December 19, 1929</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1865 W. W Skiddy, 84
1867 D. H. Wells, 83
1868 L S Austin, 83
1869 F. S Curtis, 80
1869 A B Hill, 82
1873 G C. Moore, 80
1874 V G Hazard, 77
1874 M S Wilson, 79
1875 G. R Kleeberger, 80
1876 T. H. Linsley, 75
1878 R. A. Harman, 72
1878 T. M Jacks, 74
1879 R W Patrick, 71
1879 Harold Roorbach, 72
1879 A L Webster, 70
1880 E. T Liefeld, 70
1882 E. L Whittemore, 68
1885 W S. Clark, 64
1886 John Chamberlain, 65
1886 R. E Forster, 64
1888 E. H. Lockwood, 63

SHEFFIELD SCIENTIFIC SCHOOL

Philadelphia, Pa; Stamford, Conn
Riverhead, N. Y, Hartford, Conn
Stratford, Conn, Los Angeles, Calif
Stratford, Conn, Brookfield Center, Conn
Redding, Conn, New Haven, Conn
Derby, Conn, New Canaan, Conn
Philadelphia, Pa, Claymont, Del
Fairfield, Conn; Upper Montclair, N J
Monticello, Wis.; Berkeley, Calif
Meriden, Conn; Turlock, Calif
Cleveland, Ohio
Helena, Ark
Omaha, Nebr
Brooklyn, N Y, Orange, N J
Orange, N J.; New York City
New Haven, Conn, Berne, Switzerland
Rye, N Y; Cleveland, Ohio
Watertown, N. Y.; Schenectady, N Y
St Louis, Mo.; Lexington, Mo
New Canaan, Conn; New Haven, Conn
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Name</th>
<th>City</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1888</td>
<td>F. C. Pratt, 63</td>
<td>Hartford, Conn., New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888</td>
<td>R. H. Smith, 62</td>
<td>Waterbury, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889</td>
<td>P. M. Caldwell, 66</td>
<td>Wheeling, W. Va., Los Angeles, Calif.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>W. J. Black, 59</td>
<td>Bridgeport, Conn., Stratford, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>L. L. Button, 60</td>
<td>Norwich, Conn., Clover Hills, Brighton, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>L. K. Warnick, 58</td>
<td>Amsterdam, N. Y., Buffalo, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>M. H. Alling, 57</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; Providence, R. I.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>H. L. Bloodgood, 55</td>
<td>New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>E. A. Mitchell, 57</td>
<td>East Haven, Conn.; Washington, D. C.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>C. M. Edwards, 56</td>
<td>Plattsburg, N. Y., Binghamton, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>F. S. Munger, 57</td>
<td>Herkimer, N. Y., Utica, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>F. D. Wanning, 57</td>
<td>Shelton, Conn., New Haven, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>P. B. Belin, 54</td>
<td>Scranton, Pa.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>F. W. Drury, 58</td>
<td>Alton, Ill., New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>L. G. Parker, 54</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill., Elkhorn, Wis.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>E. B. Morris, 54</td>
<td>Hartford, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>H. S. Pickands, 53</td>
<td>Marquette, Mich., Cleveland, Ohio</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>N. S. Wadham, 54</td>
<td>Goshen, Conn., Southampton, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>R. N. Barnum, 53</td>
<td>Hoosick Falls, N. Y., Riverside, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>J. F. Archbold, 52</td>
<td>New York City, Thomasville, Ga.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>Thomas LeBoutillier, 2d, 50</td>
<td>New York City, Westbury, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>H. L. Preston, 52</td>
<td>Roxbury, N. Y., New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>F. C. Inman, 48</td>
<td>Newport, R. I., New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>M. N. Judd, 51</td>
<td>New Britain, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>J. E. Sweet, 54</td>
<td>Montrose, Pa., St. Petersburg, Fla</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>D. P. Thomson, 49</td>
<td>New Castle, Pa., Miami Beach, Fla</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>A. A. Skeel, 51</td>
<td>Lena, Ill., Stamford, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905</td>
<td>K. P. Grant, 48</td>
<td>St. Paul, Minn.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Name</th>
<th>City</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1929</td>
<td>F. R. Pratt, 63</td>
<td>Hartford, Conn., New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1929</td>
<td>R. H. Smith, 62</td>
<td>Waterbury, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1929</td>
<td>P. M. Caldwell, 66</td>
<td>Wheeling, W. Va., Los Angeles, Calif.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930</td>
<td>W. J. Black, 59</td>
<td>Bridgeport, Conn., Stratford, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930</td>
<td>L. L. Button, 60</td>
<td>Norwich, Conn., Clover Hills, Brighton, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930</td>
<td>L. K. Warnick, 58</td>
<td>Amsterdam, N. Y., Buffalo, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930</td>
<td>M. H. Alling, 57</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; Providence, R. I.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930</td>
<td>H. L. Bloodgood, 55</td>
<td>New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930</td>
<td>E. A. Mitchell, 57</td>
<td>East Haven, Conn.; Washington, D. C.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930</td>
<td>C. M. Edwards, 56</td>
<td>Plattsburg, N. Y., Binghamton, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930</td>
<td>F. S. Munger, 57</td>
<td>Herkimer, N. Y., Utica, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930</td>
<td>F. D. Wanning, 57</td>
<td>Shelton, Conn., New Haven, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930</td>
<td>P. B. Belin, 54</td>
<td>Scranton, Pa.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930</td>
<td>F. W. Drury, 58</td>
<td>Alton, Ill., New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930</td>
<td>L. G. Parker, 54</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill., Elkhorn, Wis.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930</td>
<td>E. B. Morris, 54</td>
<td>Hartford, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930</td>
<td>H. S. Pickands, 53</td>
<td>Marquette, Mich., Cleveland, Ohio</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930</td>
<td>N. S. Wadham, 54</td>
<td>Goshen, Conn., Southampton, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930</td>
<td>R. N. Barnum, 53</td>
<td>Hoosick Falls, N. Y., Riverside, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930</td>
<td>J. F. Archbold, 52</td>
<td>New York City, Thomasville, Ga.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930</td>
<td>Thomas LeBoutillier, 2d, 50</td>
<td>New York City, Westbury, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930</td>
<td>H. L. Preston, 52</td>
<td>Roxbury, N. Y., New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930</td>
<td>F. C. Inman, 48</td>
<td>Newport, R. I., New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930</td>
<td>M. N. Judd, 51</td>
<td>New Britain, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930</td>
<td>J. E. Sweet, 54</td>
<td>Montrose, Pa., St. Petersburg, Fla</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930</td>
<td>D. P. Thomson, 49</td>
<td>New Castle, Pa., Miami Beach, Fla</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930</td>
<td>A. A. Skeel, 51</td>
<td>Lena, Ill., Stamford, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930</td>
<td>K. P. Grant, 48</td>
<td>St. Paul, Minn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>NAME AND AGE AT DEATH</td>
<td>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>--------</td>
<td>------------------------------------</td>
<td>-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905</td>
<td>D. G. Harvey, 47</td>
<td>Cleveland, Ohio; New Haven, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905</td>
<td>F. R. Wickwire, 46</td>
<td>Cortland, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>D. V. Wallace, 44</td>
<td>Springfield, Mass</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908</td>
<td>Stephen Whitney, 42</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; Hamden, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>A. J. St. Lawrence, 43</td>
<td>Hartford, Conn.; Fairmont, W. Va.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910</td>
<td>Henry Hull, 41</td>
<td>Savannah, Ga.; Alameda, Calif.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1911</td>
<td>H. G. Legg, 43</td>
<td>Minneapolis, Minn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1913</td>
<td>Jokichi Takamine, Jr., 41</td>
<td>Tokyo, Japan, New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1916</td>
<td>B. S. Story, 36</td>
<td>Chillicothe, Ohio, Cleveland, Ohio</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1918</td>
<td>E. L. Bridgman, 36</td>
<td>Norfolk, Conn.; Santa Monica, Calif</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1923</td>
<td>W. S. Woodruff, Jr., 28</td>
<td>Orange, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1927</td>
<td>C. W. Garrett, 26</td>
<td>Weldon, N. C.; Tucson, Ariz</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1929</td>
<td>J. N. Douglas, 24</td>
<td>Fargo, N. Dak.; New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>G. W. Dungan, 91</td>
<td>——; Portland, Ore.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>G. W. Carter, 63</td>
<td>Rosario, Argentine Republic, New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908</td>
<td>H. F. Roberts, 68</td>
<td>LaRue, Ohio, Watertown, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1912</td>
<td>H. G. Dibble, 55</td>
<td>Ellenburg, N. Y.; Portage, Wis</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>H. H. Conover, 51</td>
<td>Dayton, N. J.; Sarasota, Fla.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

GRADUATE SCHOOL

MASTERS OF ARTS

- 1879, Portland, Ore.
- Rosario, Argentine Republic, New York City
- LaRue, Ohio, Watertown, Conn.
- Ellenburg, N. Y.; Portage, Wis

MASTER OF SCIENCE

- Dayton, N. J.; Sarasota, Fla.
DOCTORS OF PHILOSOPHY

1884  T. B. Veblen, 72  Cato, Wis.; Menlo Park, Calif.
1891  C. E. Crandall, 72  Nile, N. Y.; Madison, Wis.
1893  E. F. Buchner, 60  Paxton, Ill., Munich, Germany.
1904  M. C. Welles, 69  Newington, Conn.
1913  C. A. A. Bennett, 44  Dublin, Ireland; New Haven, Conn

SCHOOL OF FORESTRY

1909  F. F. Moon, 49  Easton, Pa.; Syracuse, N. Y.

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

1870  W. G. Alling, 93  Woodbridge, Conn.; West Haven, Conn.
1871  O. E. Powers, 83  Abington, Mass.; Wallingford, Conn.
1881  J. E. Stetson, 86  Northampton, Mass.; New Haven, Conn.
1897  Sanford Ferris, 55  Brooklyn, N. Y.; Newark, N. J.
1899  Dean Foster, 59  Edwardsburg, Mich.; Stamford, Conn.
1903  R. W. Kerr, 50  Brooklyn, N. Y.; New York City.
1906  B. J. Rosen, 46  Wilki, Russia; New York City.
1909  Israel Kleiner, 41  New Haven, Conn.
SCHOOL OF LAW

BACHELORS OF LAWS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Class</th>
<th>Name and Age at Death</th>
<th>Place of Birth and Death</th>
<th>Date of Death</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1863</td>
<td>L.B Tuttle, 89</td>
<td>Milford, Conn.; North Haven, Conn</td>
<td>November 22, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>Henry Rucker, 79</td>
<td>Georgetown, Ky.; Dayton, Ohio; New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>February 17, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td>Ehi Mix, 80</td>
<td>Wilkes Barre, Pa.; Smyrna, Ga</td>
<td>January 11, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>J.H. McLean, 70</td>
<td>——; Hampton, Va</td>
<td>June 12, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>A.C. Ely, 69</td>
<td>Milwaukee, Wis.; Washington, D.C.</td>
<td>May 6, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>H.G. Crocker, 61</td>
<td>Georgetown, Ky.; Dayton, Ohio</td>
<td>March 2, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>Wallace Olmstead, 61</td>
<td>New Fairfield, Conn.; Danbury, Conn</td>
<td>July 14, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>R.H. Johnson, 58</td>
<td>Silver City, Idaho; Boise, Idaho</td>
<td>August 31, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>W.D. Bailey, 61</td>
<td>Grinnell, Iowa; Duluth, Minn.</td>
<td>August 6, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>E.B. Reiley, 50</td>
<td>Waterbury, Conn.; Elizabethtown, N.Y.</td>
<td>December 24, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>Barnett Berman, 50</td>
<td>Elizabethtown, N.Y.</td>
<td>December 6, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>A.C. Fairbanks, 48</td>
<td>Meriden, Conn.; Springfield, Mass</td>
<td>October 21, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>J.H. Sears, 47</td>
<td>Knoxville, Iowa; Ridgefield, Conn</td>
<td>March 30, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>W.H. Macdonald, 50</td>
<td>Boston, Mass.; Hartford, Conn</td>
<td>September 14, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908</td>
<td>W.E. Egan, 49</td>
<td>Southington, Conn.; Hartford, Conn</td>
<td>November 21, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1911</td>
<td>J.J. Bailey, 41</td>
<td>Hartford, Conn.; Beacon, N.Y.</td>
<td>July 9, 1929</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

MASTER OF LAWS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Class</th>
<th>Name and Age at Death</th>
<th>Place of Birth and Death</th>
<th>Date of Death</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1916</td>
<td>Samuel Sisisky, 34</td>
<td>Maspeth, N.Y.; Thompsonville, Conn</td>
<td>July 9, 1929</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

DIVINITY SCHOOL

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Class</th>
<th>Name and Age at Death</th>
<th>Place of Birth and Death</th>
<th>Date of Death</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td>J.L. Harrington, 81</td>
<td>Bennington, Vt.; Eagle Mills, N.Y</td>
<td>February 27, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td>P.S. Kohler, 74</td>
<td>Egypt, Pa.; McKeesport, Pa</td>
<td>May 1, 1930</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
1879 F A. Bissell, 74
1880 G W Reynolds, 77
1880 E C Winslow, 84
1890 E V Bigelow, 63
1893 E. F. Blanchard, 67
1894 R J. Thomson, 67
1909 L. B. Henderson, 48
1913 E L Wall, 54
1922 W. E. Sullens, 46

Sirur, India; Sunnyvale, Calif
Sidney, Maine, Hartford, Conn
Sunderland, Mass; Brookline, Mass.
Kingsport, N. S., Canada, Boston, Mass
Wilton, Maine; Hot Springs, N. Mex.
Kinsdale, Ireland; Hohokus, N. J
Newport, N. J.; Davidson, N. C.
Tenants Harbor, Maine; Dover-Foxcroft, Maine
Near Jefferson City, Mo; Kirkwood, Mo

November 23, 1929
August 5, 1929
December 28, 1929
October 26, 1929
February 10, 1930
October 4, 1929
June 12, 1930
January 13, 1930
July 5, 1929

SUPPLEMENT

YALE COLLEGE

Newburgh, N. Y
Brooklyn, N. Y.; New York City
Hoboken, N. J.; Asheville, N. C.
Canton, Miss.; New Orleans, La
Chicago, Ill.; Kankakee, Ill
Tamaqua, Pa.; New York City
Orange, N. J.; Saranac Lake, N. Y

June 19, 1929
June 5, 1929
October 26, 1928
January 24, 1927
January 19, 1928
June 28, 1929
February 25, 1929

SHEFFIELD SCIENTIFIC SCHOOL

Cincinnati, Ohio
Columbus, Pa.; Lancaster, Pa
Aintab, Asia Minor, Smyrna, Asia Minor

May 29, 1929
May 20, 1929
August, 1922
GRADUATE SCHOOL

CLASS NAME AND AGE AT DEATH

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Class</th>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Age</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>C. E. Cook</td>
<td>51</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1913</td>
<td>A. M. Barbour</td>
<td>56</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1861</td>
<td>Henry Plumb</td>
<td>92</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>C. E. Bush</td>
<td>55</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1922</td>
<td>E. T. Murray</td>
<td>32</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH

- Perry County, Pa, Omaha, Nebr.
- Ansonia, Conn.; Derby, Conn.
- Wolcott, Conn; Ormond, Fla.
- Niantic, Conn., Cromwell, Conn.
- Bangor, Maine, East Millinocket, Maine
- Oxford, Maine, Brookline, Mass
- Johnstown, Pa
- Grand Rapids, Mich; Minneapolis, Minn.
- Jersey City, N. J.; Richmond, Va.
- Gorlitz, Silesia, Germany, Halle, Germany
- Ellsworth, Maine, Washington, D. C.

DATE OF DEATH

- March 15, 1928
- December 14, 1928
- January 4, 1929
- December 20, 1924
- September 7, 1927
- April 14, 1929
- April 23, 1929
- March 22, 1927
- March 14, 1929
- February 8, 1914
- November 6, 1917
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Age</th>
<th>Location 1</th>
<th>Location 2</th>
<th>Date</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>F. O. Hellier, 59</td>
<td>59</td>
<td>Dyersville, Iowa</td>
<td>Bessemer, Ala.</td>
<td>March 11, 1925</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>B. F. Dailey, 64</td>
<td>64</td>
<td>Clinton, Ind.; Indianapolis, Ind</td>
<td>Dover, N. H.; Denver, Colo.</td>
<td>June 23, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>Warren Morse, 68</td>
<td>68</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>June 11, 1929</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The total number of deaths reported for the year 1929-1930 is 284. The age of the 169 graduates of Yale College averages 60.2 years, and the age of the 64 graduates of the Sheffield Scientific School averages 57.7 years. There are also recorded 25 deaths which occurred before July 1, 1929.

The oldest living graduate of the College is:

Edward Payson Bradstreet (B.A. 1853), of Cincinnati, Ohio, born June 5, 1830.
INDEX

Graduates of the different Schools of the University are distinguished from graduates of Yale College by italic letters as follows: Divinity, d; Forestry, f; Graduate, ma, ms, or dp; Law, or ml; Medicine, m; Sheffield Scientific School, s.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>PAGE</th>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>PAGE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1921</td>
<td>Acosta, John S</td>
<td>217</td>
<td>1894</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893 s</td>
<td>Alling, Mortimer H</td>
<td>264</td>
<td>1911</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870 m</td>
<td>Alling, Willis G</td>
<td>318</td>
<td>1893 dp</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899 s</td>
<td>Archbold, John F</td>
<td>279</td>
<td>1894</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1868 s</td>
<td>Austin, Leonard S</td>
<td>233</td>
<td>1897</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1911 /</td>
<td>Bailey, John J</td>
<td>340</td>
<td>1881</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893 l</td>
<td>Bailey, William D</td>
<td>335</td>
<td>1894 m</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1853</td>
<td>Baldwin, George W</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1902</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>Baldwin, Seth W</td>
<td>183</td>
<td>1874</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1913 dp</td>
<td>Barbour, Alice Maud</td>
<td>366</td>
<td>1892 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>Bardwell, Harry J.</td>
<td>119</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>Barker, Charles P</td>
<td>78</td>
<td>1889 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898 s</td>
<td>Barnum, Richard N</td>
<td>278</td>
<td>1897</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>Bates, Everett A</td>
<td>103</td>
<td>1884</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Beadleston, Henry C</td>
<td>132</td>
<td>1899 ma</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>Beard, Anson M</td>
<td>141</td>
<td>1896</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>Beard, Luther L</td>
<td>159</td>
<td>1886 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888</td>
<td>Behrends, Jesse H</td>
<td>111</td>
<td>1895</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>Belding, Edgar F</td>
<td>27</td>
<td>1922</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895 s</td>
<td>Belin, Paul B</td>
<td>270</td>
<td>1884</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>Bell, Augustus W</td>
<td>73</td>
<td>1913</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td>Benedict, Seelye</td>
<td>354</td>
<td>1885 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1913 dp</td>
<td>Bennett, Charles A A</td>
<td>314</td>
<td>1893</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904 l</td>
<td>Berman, Barnett</td>
<td>337</td>
<td>1902 ms</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1917</td>
<td>Bernheimer, Louis G</td>
<td>211</td>
<td>1865</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890 d</td>
<td>Bigelow, E Victor</td>
<td>347</td>
<td>1909 ma</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879 d</td>
<td>Biswell, Frank A</td>
<td>344</td>
<td>1870</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891 s</td>
<td>Black, Willis J.</td>
<td>259</td>
<td>1910</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893 d</td>
<td>Blanchard, Edgar F</td>
<td>348</td>
<td>1891 dp</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893 s</td>
<td>Bloodgood, Harry L</td>
<td>265</td>
<td>1890</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>Bond, Henry R , Jr</td>
<td>147</td>
<td>1891 l</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>Bone, D McCoy</td>
<td>19</td>
<td>1869 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>Bradley, William Harrison</td>
<td>28</td>
<td>1908</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889</td>
<td>Bradner, Lester</td>
<td>115</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>Brady, Nicholas F</td>
<td>160</td>
<td>1896 d</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1911</td>
<td>Bragdon, Joseph H</td>
<td>197</td>
<td>1909 l</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1918 s</td>
<td>Bridgman, Eldridge LeB</td>
<td>299</td>
<td>1877</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>Brooks, Edward, Jr</td>
<td>120</td>
<td>1867</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1866</td>
<td>Brown, Charles F.</td>
<td>353</td>
<td>1913</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>PAGE</td>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>PAGE</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-------</td>
<td>------</td>
<td>-----------</td>
<td>------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1929</td>
<td>deForest, Charles N. 228</td>
<td>1874 s</td>
<td>Hazard, Vincent G 237</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895 ml</td>
<td>Dettloff-Mueller, Wilhelm 374</td>
<td>1901</td>
<td>Healy, Henry W 173</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1912 ma</td>
<td>Dibble, Howard G. 305</td>
<td>1880</td>
<td>Helfenstein, John P 79</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>Dingley, Edward Nelson 92</td>
<td>1892 d</td>
<td>Helmer, Frank O 375</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1929 s</td>
<td>Douglas, John N. 301</td>
<td>1909 d</td>
<td>Henderson, Luther B 350</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895 s</td>
<td>Drury, Frederick W. 271</td>
<td>1869 s</td>
<td>Hill, Albert B. 235</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>Dubois, Fred T. 30</td>
<td>1895</td>
<td>Hill, Charles L 143</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879 ma</td>
<td>Dungan, George W. 303</td>
<td>1875</td>
<td>Hill, Edwin A. 48</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>Durant, Clark T. 122</td>
<td>1887</td>
<td>Hill, Frederick Trevor 106</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>Eaton, Samuel L. 59</td>
<td>1889</td>
<td>Hine, Lyman N. 196</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894 s</td>
<td>Edwards, Charles M. 267</td>
<td>1903 ml</td>
<td>Hoaldrey, Howland 117</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td>Edwards, George B. 62</td>
<td>1868</td>
<td>Holmes, William H 374</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1828</td>
<td>Edwards, William Seymour 225</td>
<td>1912</td>
<td>Homes, Henry F 18</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908 l</td>
<td>Egan, William E 339</td>
<td>1900</td>
<td>Hooker, Henry D 201</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>Elkins, Stephen B. 166</td>
<td>1910 s</td>
<td>Howell, Thomas A. 167</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884 l</td>
<td>Ely, Arthur Courtlandt 332</td>
<td>1890</td>
<td>Hull, Henry 294</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904 l</td>
<td>Fairbanks, Alfred C. 337</td>
<td>1890 s</td>
<td>Humphreys, May 124</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897 m</td>
<td>Ferris, Sanford 322</td>
<td>1891 s</td>
<td>Huntington, David L 260</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889</td>
<td>Forbes, Claude L. 116</td>
<td>1878</td>
<td>Hurd, George A 125</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886 s</td>
<td>Forster, Robert E 253</td>
<td>1890</td>
<td>Inman, Frederick C 283</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>Forthick, Samuel P 73</td>
<td>1925</td>
<td>Isham, Edward P 224</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899 m</td>
<td>Foster, Dean 323</td>
<td>1878 s</td>
<td>Jacks, Thomas M 243</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1927 s</td>
<td>Garrett, Charles W. 300</td>
<td>1914</td>
<td>Jackson, Gerard L 360</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894 m</td>
<td>Gordon, Miles R 320</td>
<td>1874</td>
<td>James, Henry A 44</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905 s</td>
<td>Grant, Kenneth P. 287</td>
<td>1906</td>
<td>Jamison, Harold B 186</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>Green, Henry D. 60</td>
<td>1887</td>
<td>Jenks, Robert E. 109</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1859</td>
<td>Gridley, Russell W. 7</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Johnson, Jesse B 134</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1922</td>
<td>Guernsey, Nathaniel T., Jr. 220</td>
<td>1902 s</td>
<td>Johnson, Richard H. 334</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td>Hadley, Arthur T. 52</td>
<td>1914</td>
<td>Judd, Mortimer N 284</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889 dp</td>
<td>Hall, Asaph 309</td>
<td>1878</td>
<td>Kaye, Frederic B 206</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>Hall, Orlando 62</td>
<td>1875</td>
<td>Kelsey, Clarence H 63</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>Halsey, John R. 96</td>
<td>1863</td>
<td>Kennedy, W Sloane 51</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893 ml</td>
<td>Hamilton, William A. 372</td>
<td>1903 m</td>
<td>Kernochan, J. Frederic 8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td>Hamlin, Charles H. 23</td>
<td>1914</td>
<td>Kerr, Robert W 324</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>Hand, Horace E. 97</td>
<td>1891</td>
<td>Keyes, Warren J 208</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898 s</td>
<td>Harman, Ralph A. 242</td>
<td>1901</td>
<td>Kimball, Frederick S 128</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876 d</td>
<td>Harrington, James L. 343</td>
<td>1901</td>
<td>Kip, Garrett B 174</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>Hart, Horace S. 105</td>
<td>1875 s</td>
<td>Kleeberger, George R 240</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>Hart, William A. 155</td>
<td>1873</td>
<td>Klinefer, Israel 327</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896 m</td>
<td>Hartung, Harry H. 321</td>
<td>1878 d</td>
<td>Knox, Reuben 37</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905 s</td>
<td>Harvey, Douglas G. 288</td>
<td>1886</td>
<td>Kohler, Phaon S 343</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891 l</td>
<td>Hawkes, Frank E 370</td>
<td>1886</td>
<td>Lambert, David D 104</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>Hawkes, William W 74</td>
<td>1899 s</td>
<td>LeBoutillier, Thomas. 2d 280</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>Hayes, Abner P 157</td>
<td>1911 s</td>
<td>Legg, Harry G 295</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>Name</td>
<td>Page</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>---------</td>
<td>-----------------------</td>
<td>------</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>Leverett, William J</td>
<td>128</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>Libbey, Frank</td>
<td>17</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>Liefeld, E. Theophilus</td>
<td>248</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td>Linsley, Thomas H.</td>
<td>241</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888</td>
<td>Lockwood, Edwin H.</td>
<td>254</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1922</td>
<td>Lohmeyer, William, Jr</td>
<td>221</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1919</td>
<td>Lyon, Sidney L.</td>
<td>214</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>Macdonald, William H</td>
<td>339</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1918</td>
<td>McIlwaine, Archibald G</td>
<td>213</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>McLachlan, Jay C.</td>
<td>158</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>McLean, J. H.</td>
<td>381</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>Mallory, Robert, Jr.</td>
<td>192</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>Marks, Russell A.</td>
<td>144</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>Marvin, L. P. Waldo</td>
<td>130</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Mathison, Edward T.</td>
<td>135</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>Mengs, Dwight R.</td>
<td>189</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1864</td>
<td>Miller, A. Douglas</td>
<td>9</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>Miller, Martin P.</td>
<td>178</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1912</td>
<td>Missman, Hoseph</td>
<td>363</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Mitchell, Edward A.</td>
<td>266</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td>Mix, Eli</td>
<td>330</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>Moon, Franklin</td>
<td>316</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873</td>
<td>Moore, George C.</td>
<td>236</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td>Moores, Merrill</td>
<td>66</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>Moré, Joseph O.</td>
<td>149</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>Morgan, Leslie W.</td>
<td>376</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>Morse, Edward B.</td>
<td>274</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>Morse, Charles M.</td>
<td>187</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>Morse, Warren</td>
<td>378</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>Munger, Frederick S.</td>
<td>268</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1922</td>
<td>Murray, Edwin T.</td>
<td>369</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>Nixon, William P., Jr</td>
<td>359</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>North, Hugh M., Jr</td>
<td>362</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td>Olcott, Herman P.</td>
<td>175</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>Olmstead, Wallace</td>
<td>333</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>Pardee, John S</td>
<td>101</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882</td>
<td>Parke, S. Maxwell</td>
<td>90</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>Parker, Allan D.</td>
<td>193</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>Parker, Leslie G</td>
<td>273</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Parsons, Daniel L.</td>
<td>370</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>Partridge, Sidney C.</td>
<td>80</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1928</td>
<td>Paskus, Richard M.</td>
<td>226</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>Patrick, Robert W.</td>
<td>244</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>Patterson, George W.</td>
<td>99</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>Peaslee, Edward H.</td>
<td>31</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1916</td>
<td>Perkins, Franklin H.</td>
<td>209</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>Peters, William A.</td>
<td>83</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1817</td>
<td>Phelan, Robert E.</td>
<td>212</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>Phillips, John C.</td>
<td>168</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>Pickands, Henry S.</td>
<td>276</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1861</td>
<td>Plumb, Henry</td>
<td>367</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888</td>
<td>Pratt, Francis C.</td>
<td>256</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>Preston, Harry L.</td>
<td>281</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>Reed, Kersey C.</td>
<td>179</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>Reiley, Edward B.</td>
<td>336</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>Reynolds, George W.</td>
<td>345</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>Reynolds, Horatio M.</td>
<td>84</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>Richards, George</td>
<td>32</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908</td>
<td>Roberts, Harley F.</td>
<td>304</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908</td>
<td>Robin, Arthur J</td>
<td>291</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>Roerbach, Harold</td>
<td>245</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>Rosen, Bernard J.</td>
<td>325</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>Rosenthal, Arthur J</td>
<td>181</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>Rowe, W. G.</td>
<td>156</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>Rucker, Henry</td>
<td>330</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873</td>
<td>Sadler, Holmes E</td>
<td>39</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>St. Lawrence, Arthur J</td>
<td>293</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1928</td>
<td>Saunders, Woodbury M. A</td>
<td>227</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1922</td>
<td>Scheide, Edward C.</td>
<td>222</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>Sears, John H.</td>
<td>338</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>Sharpe, Sevyn B</td>
<td>76</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>Sheldon, James</td>
<td>89</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>Shepley, John F.</td>
<td>85</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>Shipley, Murray</td>
<td>361</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882</td>
<td>Silver, Edward V.</td>
<td>91</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>Simmons, George W.</td>
<td>169</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>Simmons, Wallace D.</td>
<td>126</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1916</td>
<td>Sisisky, Samuel</td>
<td>341</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>Skeel, Adelbert A</td>
<td>286</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1865</td>
<td>Skiddy, William W.</td>
<td>230</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1809</td>
<td>Smith, Alfred C.</td>
<td>165</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888</td>
<td>Smith, Ralph H</td>
<td>258</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1912</td>
<td>Spencer, Selden P.</td>
<td>203</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>Staehlin, Edward</td>
<td>110</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td>Starling, Charles H.</td>
<td>24</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>Stetson, James E.</td>
<td>319</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>Stimson, John Ward</td>
<td>34</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1865</td>
<td>Stocking, William</td>
<td>14</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>Page</td>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>Page</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-------</td>
<td>------</td>
<td>-------</td>
<td>------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td>67</td>
<td>1906 s</td>
<td>Wallace, Douglas V.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1916 s</td>
<td>298</td>
<td>1894 s</td>
<td>Wanning, Francis D.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873</td>
<td>40</td>
<td>1888</td>
<td>Ward, Brownlee Robertson</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>188</td>
<td>1892 s</td>
<td>Warnick, Lauren K</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>182</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Warnock, John Dorrance</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1922 d</td>
<td>351</td>
<td>1888</td>
<td>Washburn, William D.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903 s</td>
<td>285</td>
<td>1920</td>
<td>Waterman, Howard W.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1911</td>
<td>200</td>
<td>1902</td>
<td>Waters, H. Goodman</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>94</td>
<td>1879 s</td>
<td>Webster, Albert L.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>1884</td>
<td>Welles, Albert F</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1864</td>
<td>10</td>
<td>1904 dp</td>
<td>Welles, Mary C.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td>69</td>
<td>1867 s</td>
<td>Wells, Daniel H.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1913 s</td>
<td>296</td>
<td>1871</td>
<td>Wheeler, Rush B.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906 m</td>
<td>326</td>
<td>1926</td>
<td>Whiting, Allen E., Jr.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>172</td>
<td>1908 s</td>
<td>Whitney, Stephen</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903 s</td>
<td>285</td>
<td>1882 s</td>
<td>Whittimore, Edward L.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894 d</td>
<td>348</td>
<td>1905 s</td>
<td>Wickwire, Frederic R</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>149</td>
<td>1874</td>
<td>Wilcox, Ansley</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>145</td>
<td>1871</td>
<td>Wilson, Edward A</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875</td>
<td>355</td>
<td>1879</td>
<td>Wilson, John E.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>146</td>
<td>1874 s</td>
<td>Wilson, Mercelon S</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1863 l</td>
<td>329</td>
<td>1880 d</td>
<td>Winslow, Edward C.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884 dp</td>
<td>Veblen, Thorstein</td>
<td>307</td>
<td>Woodruff, George M.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>152</td>
<td>1857</td>
<td>Woodruff, Watson Stiles, Jr</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897 s</td>
<td>277</td>
<td>1923 s</td>
<td>Wright, Joseph A., Jr.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>359</td>
<td>1880</td>
<td>Wurts, Charles P.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1913 d</td>
<td>350</td>
<td>1881</td>
<td>Zunts, James E.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>