Bulletin of Yale University
New Haven 15 October 1932

Obituary Record of Graduates of Yale University
Deceased during the Year 1931-1932
BULLETIN OF YALE UNIVERSITY

Entered as second-class matter, August 30, 1906, at the post office at New Haven, Conn., under the Act of Congress of July 16, 1894.

Acceptance for mailing at the special rate of postage provided for in Section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized August 12, 1918.

The Bulletin, which is issued semimonthly, includes:
1. The University Catalogue.
2. The Reports of the President and Treasurer.
3. The Catalogues of the several Schools.
5. The Obituary Record.
OBITUARY RECORD

OF GRADUATES DECEASED DURING
THE YEAR ENDING JULY 1, 1932

INCLUDING THE RECORD OF A FEW WHO DIED PREVIOUSLY, HITHERTO UNREPORTED

NUMBER 91

Twenty-ninth Series · Number Three
New Haven · 15 October 1932
Yb 65

1931 1932-1933/34

copy 2
Virgil Maro Dow, B.A. 1856.

Born April 5, 1833, in New Haven, Conn.
Died February 19, 1932, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Lucius Kalipon Dow, a druggist and apothecary in New Haven; son of Rev. Hendricys Dow (B.A. 1784, M.A. 1790) and Hannah (Gilbert) Dow, of New Haven. Mother, Julia Ann (Townshend) Dow; daughter of Robert and Sarah (Ford) Townshend, of New Haven. Yale relatives include: Rev. Daniel Dow (B.A. 1793) (great-uncle); James G. Dow (B.A. 1820) and Dr. Virgil M. Dow (honorary M.A. 1842) (uncles); Dr. Pinckney W. Ellsworth (B.A. 1836) (brother-in-law); and Rev. Wolcott W. Ellsworth, '90, and Ernest B. Ellsworth, '93 S. (nephews).

Hopkins Grammar School. Entered Yale with Class of 1855; joined Class of 1856 as a Sophomore in 1853; member Beethoven Society and Linonia.

After graduation went to New York City to engage in the perfumery business and study chemistry in connection with it; studied medicine there 1857–58; then returned to New Haven and carried on his father's drug business for fifty years; studied in Yale School of Medicine 1862–64 (M.D. 1864); practiced medicine in New Haven from 1864 until retirement in 1906; assistant surgeon in Knight United States Army General Hospital in New Haven 1863–65; partner with John Cooley in the eighties in business of extracting oil from cotton waste, with factory in Westville, Conn.; deacon in Plymouth (Congregational) Church 1893–1905.

Unmarried.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by no immediate relatives. He was the last survivor of the Class of 1856 and of the Class of 1864 in the School of Medicine and the oldest living graduate of Yale College at the time of his death.

† If the father of an alumnus is a Yale graduate, the father's record is not given in this volume, but may be found in published form elsewhere.
Joseph Aldrich Cooper, B.A. 1859.

Born August 27, 1834, in Mattituck, N. Y.
Died June 27, 1932, in Edinboro, Pa.

Father, Sylvester Cooper, a farmer and school trustee. Mother, Rosetta (Reeve) Cooper.

Amenia (N. Y.) Seminary and tutors. Taught for three years and was a clerk in Brooklyn before entering Yale in 1855. Third prize in mathematics Freshman year, second prize in special Greek examination and oration appointment Junior year, high oration appointment Senior year; speaker at Junior Exhibition and Commencement, member Brothers in Unity, Sigma Delta, Alpha Delta Phi, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Principal of Ulysses (Pa) Academy 1859–1861; professor of chemistry at State Normal School, Edinboro, 1861–63, and principal 1863–1892; editor of Educational Independent from 1892 until retirement 1900; member of firm of Cooper Brothers Company, wholesale dealers in postcards, in Edinboro 1909–1927; spent one summer in the field with Geological Survey of Kentucky, in connection with the Harvard Summer School; member Methodist Episcopal Church, Edinboro.

Married December 26, 1861, in Ulysses, Lydia Maria, daughter of Ambrose and Susan Carpenter (Olds) Corey. Children: Mary Emma (died in infancy); Charles Joseph, Allegheny College ex '91 (died in 1932); Harry Lee; and George Whitefield (died in childhood).

Death due to infirmities of age. Buried in Edinboro Cemetery. Survived by wife, one son, and three grandchildren. Was the last surviving member of his Class and the next to the oldest living graduate of Yale College at the time of his death.

James Mascarene Hubbard, B.A. 1859.

Born August 15, 1836, in Boston, Mass.

Father, Samuel Hubbard (B.A. 1802, LL.D. 1827 and Harvard 1842); son of William and Joanna (Perkins) Hubbard, of Boston. Mother, Mary Ann (Coit) Hubbard; daughter of Elisha and Rebecca (Manwaring) Coit, of New York City. Yale relatives include: Rev. Joseph Coit (honorary M.A. 1702) (great-great-great-grandfather), Gurdon Saltonstall (B.A. 1725) (great-great-grandfather); Daniel Hubbard (B.A. 1727) and David Manwaring (B.A. 1759) (great-grandfathers); John Hubbard (honorary M.A. 1730) (great-great-uncle); Russell Hubbard (B.A. 1751) (great-uncle); Charles Eustis Hubbard, '62 (brother); Edward Buck (B.A. 1835) (brother-in-law); Walter Buck, '70 (nephew); and William J. Hubbard (B.A. 1820) (first cousin).

Boston Latin and Boston English high schools. Third prize in English composition Sophomore year; oration appointment Junior year and speaker at Junior Exhibition; dissertation appointment Senior year and speaker at Commencement; purser of Thulia Boat Club Sophomore year and second lieutenant Junior year; librarian of Beethoven Society Sophomore year and secretary Junior year; member Brothers in Unity (assistant librarian Senior year), Delta Kappa, and Alpha Delta Phi.

Studied in Andover Theological Seminary 1859–1861 and continued his theological studies at home in Boston 1861–62; ordained July 23, 1862; pastor of the Sears Chapel, Longwood, Brookline, 1862–63; pastor Middleton, Mass., 1864–68 and Grantville (Wellesley Hills), Mass., 1868–74; assistant in Boston Public Library 1875–1887, during the last seven years engaged in cataloging the Barton Collection (Shakespeare); associate editor of the Youth's Companion 1887–1917; also book critic for the Nation 1880–1916, treasurer and clerk of Bostonian Society 1881; charter member St Botolph Club, Boston; member Church of Our Saviour (Episcopal), Longwood, Brookline.

Married October 16, 1861, in New Haven, Sarah Hill, daughter of Henry Abraham Tomlinson (B.A. 1828, M.D. 1832) and Maria Beers (Ives) Tomlinson, granddaughter of Dr. Eli Ives (B.A. 1799), and sister of Charles Tomlinson, '58. Children: Florence Mascarene (Mrs. Robert Rantoul); Roberta Wolcott (died in childhood); and Paul Mascarene (B.A. Harvard 1898 and LL.B. 1901). Mrs. Hubbard died June 15, 1918.

Death due to bronchopneumonia. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Wellesley, Mass. Survived by son and daughter Joseph Fitz Randolph, B.A. 1862.

Born December 4, 1843, in New Brunswick, N. J.
Died February 16, 1932, in Morristown, N. J.

Father, Joseph Fitz Randolph (honorary M.A. Princeton 1851), a lawyer; judge of Supreme Court of New Jersey; member U.S. House of Representatives from New Jersey and of New Jersey Constitutional Convention; son of Robert Carter Randolph (M.D. University of Pennsylvania 1830) and Nancy (Campion) Randolph. Mother, Sarah Ann (Cooper) Randolph; daughter of John Cooper (M.D. University of Pennsylvania 1829) and Mary (Erwin) Cooper, of Easton, Pa.

Trenton (N. J.) Academy. Entered Yale as a Sophomore in 1859; oration appointment Junior year; high oration appointment Senior year; member Alpha Delta Phi and Phi Beta Kappa; graduate member Wolf’s Head.

Studied at universities of Berlin, Heidelberg, and Göttingen and at École de Droit, Paris, 1862-64; studied law in his father’s office in Trenton 1864-65 and at Columbia Law School 1865-66; admitted to New York Bar 1866 and to New Jersey Bar as attorney 1867 and as counselor 1870; practiced law in New York City for short time during 1866-67 and in Jersey City 1867-1911; member of firm of Randolph & Talcott 1876-1882 and of Randolph, Condict & Black 1887-1901; also had a law office in Morristown 1878-1884; and in New York City 1882-1911; retired from court practice about 1905 and from private practice about 1920; advisory master in Court of Chancery of New Jersey 1885-1905; bankruptcy referee, New Jersey District Court, 1894-98; president of New York Title & Abstract Company 1888-1895, president of Morristown Board of Education; chairman of executive committee of Morristown Civil Service Association; trustee of German Theological Seminary, Bloomfield, N. J., 1887-1890; a manager of American Bible Society 1911-16; an editor of Jarman on Wills, 5th American edition (1880-81) and Williams on Executors (1895); author: Randolph on Commercial Paper (1888 and 1901), Succession Law in New Jersey (1906 and 1907), New Jersey Transfer Tax Laws (1913), U. S. Inheritance and Transfer Taxes (1917), Succession Statutes in New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania (1925), The Lord’s Death (1909), The Law of Faith (1914), and Beliefs and Bibles (1929); contributed to Cyclopedia of Law and Procedure, volumes 7 and 8 (1903); member New York Bar Association and South Street Presbyterian Church, Morristown (elder 1879-1914, superintendent of Sunday school 1880).

Death due to lobar pneumonia and chronic myocarditis. Buried in Easton Cemetery, Easton, Pa. Survived by a niece, Miss Harriet T. Buxton, of Morristown.
Selah Brewster Strong, B.A. 1864.

Born October 1, 1841, in Setauket, N. Y.
Died December 4, 1931, in Setauket, N. Y.

Prepared for college at Setauket. Member Glyuna Boat Club, Linonia, Delta Kappa, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

L.L.B. Albany Law School 1865; practiced law in New York City 1865–1879; in office of Forster & Weeks 1865–67; and then in partnership with his brother, Thomas S. Strong, under firm name of T. S. & S. B. Strong three years and of Strong & Spear from 1870; had lived in Setauket since 1879; engaged in farming 1879–1918; trustee of Setauket Union Free School 1894–1916; on board of visitors of Suffolk County Almshouse since 1898; former vice-president and a director of Mallory Wheeler Lock Company of New Haven; one time vice-president of Long Island Bible Society; president of board of trustees of Presbytery of Long Island since its incorporation 1880; an elder of Setauket Presbyterian Church and superintendent of its Sunday school since 1879 and trustee since 1882; corresponding secretary of Suffolk County Historical Society 1905–08; volunteer observer for New England Meteorological Society three years and for U. S. Weather Bureau from 1885; secretary and treasurer of Class of 1864 since 1919 and Class agent of Alumni Fund 1920–22.

Tale Obituary Record

port; Caroline Amelia (died in infancy); Kate Wheeler; and Russell Wheeler, '09 S. Mrs. Strong died May 25, 1913.

Death due to the infirmities of age. Buried in St. Georges Manor Cemetery, Setauket. Survived by three daughters, son, and three grandchildren

William Henry Drury, B.A. 1865.

Died February 25, 1932, in Waltham, Mass.

Father, William Embert Drury, a coal dealer; son of Ephraim and Betsy (Wheeler) Drury, of Holden, Mass. Mother, Martha Kendall (Haskell) Drury; daughter of Calvin and Polly (Seaver) Haskell, of Templeton, Mass.

Worcester High School. First prize in English composition Sophomore year; second dispute appointment Senior year; president of McClellan Club; member Varuna Boat Club, Linonia (third prize in Bishop Prize debate Freshman year and second prize Senior year, vice-president and president Senior year), Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Spade and Grave.

Spent the year 1865-66 in the West, chiefly in Ohio; Paymaster's Clerk, U S. Navy, 1866-1871, stationed in Pensacola, Fla., New Orleans, La., and Boston, and on cruise to the Pacific in spring of 1871; studied at Harvard Law School 1871-72, practiced law in Boston from 1872 until his retirement about 1913; associated with his classmate, Francis W. Kittredge, 1910-13; member Bar Association of the City of Boston.

Married September 29, 1875, in Ellsworth, Maine, Mary Alice, daughter of George Stevens Peters (B A. Bowdoin 1847) and Charlotte Ann (Clark) Peters. Children: George Peters (B A Harvard 1897 and LL.B. 1900); and William Clark, Harvard ex-'06 S.

James Glynn Gregory, B.A. 1865.

Born May 12, 1843, in Norwalk, Conn.
Died February 1, 1932, in Norwalk, Conn.

Father, Ira Gregory (M D. 1829); son of Moses and Abigail (Gregory) Gregory, of Wilton, Conn. Mother, Frances Augusta Tale College

9

(Gregory) Gregory; daughter of Moses and Esther (Hoyt) Gregory, of Norwalk. Yale relatives include two first cousins: Rev. Samuel G Willard, '46, and Rev. Lewis Gregory, '64.

Norwalk and Wilton academies. Oration appointment Junior year; second dissertation appointment Senior year; member Glyuna Boat Club, Presentation Day Committee, Brothers in Unity, Delta Kappa, Alpha Beta Phi, and Phi Beta Kappa; graduate member Wolf's Head.

M.D. Columbia 1868; interne at Brooklyn City Hospital 1868–69; had practiced medicine and surgery in Norwalk since 1869; surgeon general of Connecticut 1881–82; a founder of Norwalk Hospital 1892; consulting surgeon to Soldiers' Home, Noroton, Conn, 1900; member of Connecticut Legislature 1879–1880; president of Fairfield County Savings Bank of Norwalk since 1922; member of Court of Burgesses of Norwalk 1886–87; warden of the Borough (mayor) 1888–89; president of Norwalk Public Library since its incorporation in 1879; trustee of Norwalk Union Cemetery, Norwalk, since 1902, member of Governor's Foot Guard 1881; charter member Sons of the American Revolution; member Norwalk Medical Association and Norwalk Historical Society; affiliated with First Congregational Church.

Married December 5, 1877, in Greenwich, Conn., Jeannette Lindsley, daughter of Timothy Stone Pinneo (B.A. 1824; M.D. Ohio Medical College 1843) and Jeannette (Lindsley) Pinneo, granddaughter of Rev. Bezaleel Pinneo (B.A. Dartmouth 1791; honorary M.A. Yale and Dartmouth 1798), great-granddaughter of Rev. Timothy Stone (B.A. 1763), great-great-granddaughter of Rev Solomon Williams (D.D. 1773), and great-grandniece of William Williams (honorary M.A. 1753). Children: Ward Slosson (Ph B. 1899; M.D. Columbia 1903) (died in 1917); Jeannette Lindsley (B.A Wellesley 1902), the wife of Homer M. Byington; and Alyse, the wife of Llewellyn Powys (B.A Corpus Christi College, Cambridge, 1906).

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Cremation took place in North Bergen, N. J.; ashes buried in Union Cemetery, Norwalk. Survived by wife, two daughters, six grandchildren, two of whom are Homer M. Byington, Jr., '30, and James G. Byington, '34, and two sisters, Mrs. Esther H. Barclay, of Plainfield, N. J, and Mrs. Antoinette G White, of Norwalk Robert Proudfit Gibson, B.A. 1866.

Born September 2, 1844, in Erin, N. Y.
Died February 5, 1932, in Pinebluff, N. C.

Father, Rev. John Dunlap Gibson, a United Presbyterian minister in Stamford, N. Y.; son of Colin and Margaret (Miller) Gibson, of Albany, N. Y. Mother, Catherine Denniston (Wood) Gibson.

Delaware Academy, Delhi, N. Y. Attended Union College 1862–64 as member of Class of 1866. Entered Yale as a Junior in 1864; member Linonia.

Taught at Alexander Military Institute, White Plains, N. Y., 1866, graduated from Princeton Theological Seminary 1869; on account of eye trouble engaged in no regular occupation for two years, but served as stated supply of church in Conklingville, N. Y., 1870; ordained to Presbyterian ministry April 7, 1871, at Greenville, Tenn., where he served as stated supply that year; pastor at Silver Spring, Pa., 1871–75 and at Middletown, Pa., 1876–77; stated supply at Hobart, N. Y., 1878–79 and at Franklin, Pa., 1880; home missionary in Louisville, Colo., 1883–84; stated supply of Presbyterian Church, Longmont, Colo., 1884; stated supply of Presbyterian Church, Croton Falls, N. Y., 1885 and then pastor until retirement 1916, lived in Olean, N. Y., 1916–1921, White Plains, N. Y., 1921–23, and since then in Pinebluff.

Married (1) April 18, 1877, in Franklin, Pa., Agnes Clementina, daughter of Samuel and Eliza (McClellan) Dale. Children: Alice Schieffelin (B.A. Vassar 1901, M.A. Columbia 1902), the wife of James P Locke (BS Harvard 1900); Helen (died in infancy); Anna Dale (B.A. Vassar 1905), the wife of Thomas E. Fugate (BS Pennsylvania State College 1901); and Agnes Dale (died in infancy).

Mrs Gibson died June 30, 1884. Married (2) January 12, 1887, in Middletown, Pa., Katharine Rebecca, daughter of Benjamin J. and Evelyn (Ross) Westling. One son, Robert Ross (died in childhood).

Death due to cardiac failure. Buried in Ivandell Cemetery, Somers, N. Y. Survived by wife, two daughters, five grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.
John Epaphras Miller, B.A. 1866.

Born August 26, 1842, in Oxford, N. Y.
Died March 29, 1932, in Oxford, N. Y.

Oxford Academy. Member Brothers in Unity and Gamma Nu.

Clerk with Miller, Perkins & Company, Oxford, 1866–67 and again 1870–72; teller in First National Bank, Oxford, 1867–69 and in State National Bank of Minneapolis 1869–1870; engaged in quarrying and selling blue and gray sandstone in Oxford 1872–1886, during a part of the time (1881–83) as member of firm of John E. Miller & Company, with offices also in New York City; conducted his own farm, "Forest Hill Farm," near Oxford, from 1886 until retirement from active business 1910; also supervised other farms and engaged independently in real estate business; member of board of trustees of Village of Oxford six years; vice-president of Yale Club of Utica and Vicinity 1915; member Oxford Congregational Church.

Unmarried.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Riverview Cemetery, Oxford Survived by a niece, Miss Elizabeth M. Miller, of Woodmere, N. Y., and a nephew, Benjamin M. Miller, of North Plainfield, N. J.

Samuel Howard Dana, B.A. 1869.

Born February 11, 1847, in Portland, Maine.
Died February 24, 1932, in Exeter, N. H.

Father, Luther Dana, a merchant in Portland; member Portland Rifle Corps in War of 1812; son of Lieut. Ephraim Dana and Tabitha (Jones) Dana, of Natick, Mass Mother, Louisa (Kidder) Dana; daughter of John Kidder, of Hallowell, Maine.

Phillips-Andover. Third prize in declamation Sophomore year; member '69 Glee Club, College Choir, Beethoven Society, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Alpha Sigma Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Graduated from Andover Theological Seminary 1872; ordained to Congregational ministry October 9, 1872; pastor Congregational Church, Newton Highlands, Mass., 1872-77; traveled abroad and lived in Torquay, England, and Mentone, France, 1877-79; pastor Congregational Church, Stratford, Conn., 1879-1882; lived in New Haven 1882-83 and supplied pulpits in various places; pastor First Congregational Church, Quincy, Ill., 1883-1903; Phillips Church, Exeter, from 1903 until retirement 1918; D.D. Illinois College 1888, clerk of board of trustees of Phillips Academy, Exeter, 1912-1924; vice-president of Yale Club of Boston 1918-19; member Congregational Church, Exeter, at time of death.

Death due to chronic degenerative nephritis. Buried in Exeter Cemetery. Survived by daughter.

Cornelius Thomas Driscoll, B.A. 1869

Born May 2, 1845, in Cahie, County Kerry, Ireland
Died August 15, 1931, in Milford, Conn.

Father, Daniel Driscoll. Mother, Hannah (Sullivan) Driscoll Norwich (Conn) Free Academy. Second colloquy appointment Junior and Senior years.
L.L.B. 1871; admitted to Connecticut Bar in December, 1870; had practiced law in New Haven since 1871; partner with Adolph Asher, '72 L., 1872-1884 and with Carleton E. Hoadley, '87 L., 1887-1890; member New Haven Common Council two years (president 1876-77) and Board of Aldermen 1878-1882; corporation counsel for New Haven 1883-1889 and again 1891-95, member Connecticut Legislature 1881; a founder, organizer, and incorporator of the Knights of Columbus 1882 and advocate of San Salvador Council No. 1 for a number of years; member New Haven County and Connecticut Bar associations and St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, Milford.

Married (1) September 11, 1877, in New Haven, Mary Benedicta, daughter of Owen and Elizabeth (Saunders) O'Brien. Children: Mary Elizabeth (Mrs. Earle D. Wood); Hannah Benedicta; and Cornelius Edward (died in infancy). Mrs. Driscoll died October 28, 1883. Married (2) July 27, 1915, in New Haven, Rose A. Ward, ex-'91
Art, daughter of Patrick and Rosanna (Healey) Ward. No children by second marriage. Mrs. Driscoll died April 11, 1926.

Charles Shafer Belford, B.A. 1870.

Born November 24, 1848, in Mauch Chunk, Pa.
Died May 1, 1932, in Mauch Chunk, Pa.

Father, George Belford, a coal operator; also an associate judge Mother, Hannah (Rhinesmith) Belford.

Saunders Institute, West Philadelphia, Pa. Member Linona, Gamma Nu, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), Delta Kappa Epslon, and Scroll and Key.

M.D. University of Pennsylvania 1873; had never engaged in the practice of medicine; in hay and grain business in Mauch Chunk 1873-1887; in auditor's office of coal sales department Lehigh Valley Railroad at Fort Washington, Pa., from 1887 until retirement about 1912; a manager of the Mauch Chunk Y. M. C. A. and an elder in the Presbyterian Church.

Married February 24, 1881, in Philadelphia, Jennie, daughter of J. A. and Sarah (Richards) Boyle. No children. Mrs. Belford died
May 6, 1916.

Death due to chronic myocarditis. Buried in Mauch Chunk Cemetery. Survived by no immediate relatives.

Edward Bement, B.A. 1870.

Born May 30, 1848, in West New Brighton, N. Y.
Died November 21, 1931, in Paris, France.

Father, Edward Bement, a banker; member of firm of Ketchum, Rogers & Bement, New York City; son of William and Deborah (Nicolls) Bement, of Salisbury, Conn. Mother, Sarah Jenkins
(Havens) Bement; daughter of Rensselaer and Anna (Jenkins)
Havens, of New York City. Yale relatives: Nicoll Havens (B A 1753) (great-grandfather); and Jonathan N. Havens (B.A. 1777)
(great-uncle).

Reid and Hoffman School, Stockbridge, Mass., and Phillips-Andover. Left college at end of Sophomore year; in 1891 received honorary degree of M.A., with enrollment in Class of 1870; member Linonia, Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, and Psi Upsilon; graduate member Wolf's Head.

Traveled and studied in Europe 1869; clerk with Morton, Bliss &
Company, bankers, New York City, 1869-1871; traveled in South America 1871-72; studied at Columbia Law School 1872-74
(LL.B 1874); never practiced law; engaged in brokerage business in New York City from 1874 until retirement 1902; partner in firm of
L. Chase & Company 1874-1883; member of firm of W. H. Goadby & Company, members of New York Stock Exchange, 1883-1902; became member of Exchange 1884; since retirement had spent much of his time abroad and made his home in Paris; member New York Historical Society, American Fine Arts Society, and Société de l'Histoire de Paris; elected to Elizabethan Club 1916.

Unmarried.

Death due to apoplexy. Buried in Fountain Cemetry, West New Brighton, Staten Island. Survived by an aunt, Miss Kate E. Havens, of Stamford, Conn. Gave Philobiblon of Richard de Bury Collection to the Yale University Library in 1894; by the terms of his will a bequest of $50,000 was left to the Library Fund and trust funds amount-mg to $100,000 for the ultimate benefit of Yale University, as well as $5,000 to the Alumni Fund and $5,000 for the annual award of the Montaigne Prizes, which had been given anonymously by him since 1914.

Willard Eddy, B.A. 1870.

Born August 29, 1845, in Turner, Maine.
Died February 26, 1932, in Omaha, Nebr.

Father, Rev. Henry Eddy (B.A. 1832, M.D. 1851); son of Thomas and Abi (Lewis) Eddy, of Berlin, Conn. Mother, Sarah Hayward (Torrey) Eddy, a graduate of Mount Holyoke Seminary (now College) in 1839; daughter of Turner and Sarah (Snell) Torrey, of North Bridgewater (Mass.) Academy. First prize in mathematics Freshman year; second dispute appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; member Brothers in Unity and Gamma Nu.

LL.B. Albany Law School 1871; in a law office in Hartford, Conn., for a time and while there taught Greek at Hartford Theological Seminary 1871-72; practiced law in Hartford 1873-1908, specializing in patent law, and then in Omaha until his retirement in 1930; had been lecturer at University of Minnesota on corporation law and special lecturer at Creighton Law School, Omaha; president of Bailey Manufacturing Company of New York City (letter presses) 1905; member Unity Church of Omaha.
Tale College

Married September 28, 1876, in Hartford, Marie Minna, daughter of Christian Frederick and Christiana Fredericka (Bachman) Hertel. Children: Sarah Snell; David Birge (died in 1893); Willard Hertel; and Charles Parker, '16 (died in 1928). Mr. and Mrs. Eddy were divorced in 1908.

Death due to a cerebral embolus and toxemia, with contributory causes. Buried in Haddam (Conn.) Central Burial Association Ground. Survived by daughter and one son.

Joshua Miltorr Fiero, B.A. 1870.

Born October 14, 1850, in Catskill, N. Y.
Died March 28, 1932, in Yonkers, N. Y.

Father, Joshua Fiero, Jr.; New York State assemblyman and senator; acting governor of New York; son of Joshua Fiero. Mother, Mary Elizabeth (Pierson) Fiero; daughter of William Pierson.

Phillips-Andover. First colloquy appointment Junior and Senior years; member Beethoven Society, Brothers in Unity, Delta Kappa, and Alpha Delta Phi; graduate member Wolf's Head.

Studied law with Beebe, Donahue & Cooke 1870-71 and with Arnoux, Ritch & Woodford 1871-73 in New York City; admitted to New York Bar 1873; practiced law in New York City from 1875 until retirement in 1920; associated with firm of Arnoux, Ritch & Woodford 1875-1880; member of firm of Fiero, Chittenden & Fiero (in which Simeon B. Chittenden, Jr., also a member) 1880-1910; later practiced as member of firm of Fiero, Conklin & Fiero and of Fiero & Fiero, with his two sons in partnership with him.

Married October 16, 1882, in Binghamton, N. Y., Jeannette Waterman, daughter of Charles and Pamela Jeannette (Waterman) Eldredge. Children: Jeannette Waterman Eldredge; Mary Elizabeth-Pierson (Mrs. Sidney S. Wormsa); Joshua Milton, Jr.; Charles Eldredge; and Dorothy E. Mrs. Fiero died January 22, 1894.

Death due to cerebral apoplexy. Buried in Catskill Rural Cemetery. Survived by two sons and three daughters.
James Gore King McClure, B.A. 1870.

Born November 24, 1848, in Albany, N.Y.
Died January 18, 1932, in Lake Forest, Ill.

Father, Archibald McClure; president of A McClure & Company, wholesale druggists; son of Archibald McClure, who came from Armagh, Ulster County, Ireland, and settled in Guilderland, N.Y., in 1801, and Elizabeth (Craigmiles) McClure. Mother, Susan Tracy (Rice) McClure; daughter of Col William Rice, of the 4th Massachusetts Regiment in War of 1812, and Welthea (Cottrell) Rice, of Worthington, Mass. Yale relatives include a nephew, Ledyard Cogswell, Jr., '99.

Albany Academy and Phillips-Andover. Dissertation appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; vice-president of Yale Baseball Club Junior year and member second Yale Baseball Team; gave presentation address of the Cochleaureati of Class of 1870; a Class deacon and member of Committee of Yale College Church; vice-president of Yale Temperance Society Junior year and president Senior year; member Brothers in Unity, Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, Psi Upsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Graduated at Princeton Theological Seminary 1873; ordained to Presbyterian ministry December 10, 1874; pastor Presbyterian Church, New Scotland, N.Y., 1874–79; traveled abroad 1879–1880; preached in various places in New York and Rhode Island 1880–81; pastor Presbyterian Church, Lake Forest, 1881–1905; president pro tem Lake Forest University 1892–93 and president 1897–1901 (trustee 1889–1923); president McCormick Theological Seminary (now Presbyterian Theological Seminary), Chicago, 1905–1928 and president emeritus since 1928; university preacher at Yale, Harvard, Princeton, and many other universities and colleges; also preached at boys' preparatory schools and delivered the Baccalaureate at Culver Military Academy for twenty-two successive years; gave the Bross lectures at Lake Forest University 1929; D.D. Lake Forest 1888 and Yale and Princeton 1906, LL.D. Illinois College 1904 and Lake Forest 1929; author: History of New Scotland (N.Y.) Presbyterian Church (1876), Possibilities (1896), The Man Who Wanted to Help (1897), The Great Appeal (1898), Environment (1899), For Hearts That Hope (1900), A Mighty Means of Usefulness (1901), Living for the Best (1903), The Growing Pastor (1904), Loyalty, the Soul of Religion (1905), Supreme Things (1907), sermons in series entitled Modern Sermons by World Scholars (1909), Grandfather's Stories, I (1926), Grandfather's Stories, II (1928), History of the Presbyterian Henry Burrall Mason, B.A. 1870.

Born December 20, 1848, in Bridgeport, Conn
Died February 20, 1932, in Chicago, Ill

Father, Roswell B. Mason, a civil engineer; builder of Illinois Central Railroad; mayor of Chicago; son of Capt. Arnold Mason of War of 1812 and Mercy (Coman) Mason, of New Hartford, N. Y
Mother, Harriet Lavinia (Hopkins) Mason Yale relatives include Edward G. Mason, '60 (brother); Henry E. Mason, '89, Edward H Mason, '92, James R. Trowbridge, '94, Roswell B. Mason and Henry G. Miller, both '95, William S. Miller, '96, Julian S. Mason, '98, Huntington Mason, '99, Maurice Mason, '01, Roy Mason and Mason Trowbridge, both '02, Elmer B. Mason, ex-'02, Macdonnell Mason, ex-'03, Lawrence Mason, '04, George C. Mason, ex-'07, and Frederick O. Mason, '09 (nephews); and Edward G. Mason, 2d, '26, William W. Miller, '28, and Barrett K Mason and Mason Trowbridge, Jr., both '32 (grandnephews)

Chicago High School. Second prize in English composition Sophomore year; Townsend Premium Senior year; a Class historian and Class poet; member Linonia (first prize in debate Freshman and Junior years and second prize Sophomore and Senior years), Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Phi Theta Psi, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones Studied law in office of Mattocks & Mason (Edward G. Mason,

Tale Obituary Record

'60) in Chicago 1870-72 and in Columbia 1872-74 (L.L.B. 1874; third prize for essay at graduation); practiced law in Chicago from 1874 until death; in partnership with John Andrews, '70, under firm name of Mason & Andrews 1874-79; since 1881 had been member of firm of Mason Brothers, of which Edward G. Mason was a partner until his death in 1898 and Alfred Bishop Mason, '71, a partner until 1882, and of which Henry E. Mason, '89, is now a member; member Illinois State Board of Law Examiners several terms, Chicago Bar Association, Illinois and United States Supreme Court bars, and Chicago Historical Society; wrote stories for children, including Letters from Uncle Henry (1924).

Married June 12, 1880, in Hyde Park, Ill., Frances Fay, daughter of John Benjamin and Frances (Thompson) Calhoun, and sister of Gouverneur Calhoun, '91, and Robert Calhoun, ex-'91 S. Children: Frances Eleanor (B.A. Bryn Mawr 1905), the wife of James R. Trowbridge, '94; Rosalind (B.A. Bryn Mawr 1911); and Calhoun, ex-'04 (died in 1907). Mrs. Mason died June 28, 1928.

Death due to cerebral thrombosis, with contributory causes. Buried in Rosehill Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by daughters and brother, Alfred Bishop Mason, '71.

George Douglas Miller, B.A. 1870.

Born November 5, 1847, in Rochester, N.Y.
Died February 9, 1932, in Richmond, Va.

Father, Samuel Miller (B.A. Middlebury 1822), a lawyer; judge of the County Court, Rochester; New York state senator; son of Elisha and Loraine (Jackson) Miller, of Williston, Vt.

General Russell's Collegiate and Commercial Institute and Williston Academy. Entered Yale with Class of 1869; joined Class of 1870 as a Junior in 1868; member '69 Baseball Club, Linonia, Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Studied modern languages in Yale Graduate School 1870-71 and also acted as librarian of the Linonia Library; connected with publishing house of Pott, Young & Company, New York City, 1871-72; secretary of New England Car Spring Company 1872-79; general manager of New York and Straitsville Coal & Iron Company of Shawnee, Ohio, 1879–1881; connected with Connecticut Electric Company, New Haven, 1881–82; secretary of Thompson Paper & Pulp Company of New Haven; treasurer, secretary, and office manager of Wheeler & Melick Company (agricultural machinery manufacturers), Albany; treasurer of Charity Organization of Albany and of Albany Vigilance Committee; president of Albany Art and Historical Society four years; member St. Peter’s Episcopal Church, Albany.

Married (1) May 3, 1877, in Albany, Anna dePeyster, daughter of Volckert Peter Douw (B.A. Princeton 1809) and Helen Louis (Franchot) Douw. Children. Mary, the wife of Hunsdon Cary, University of Virginia Law School 1894–96; Helen Franchot (Mrs. Levi Hasbrouck) (died in 1931); Samuel (died in childhood); and Margaret Livingston (died in infancy). Mrs. Miller died July 10, 1921. Married (2) December 30, 1924, in Troy, N. Y., Florence Farrington Young, daughter of John and Ann (Ferguson) Farrington.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Albany Rural Cemetery. Survived by wife, one daughter, a stepson, Everett G Young, two stepdaughters, Anna M. Young and Esther F. Young, ten grandchildren, and a sister, Miss Julia Miller, of Santa Barbara, Calif.

James Banks, B.A. 1871.

Born August 22, 1850, in Griffin, Ga.
Died December 21, 1931, in Chicago, Ill

Father, Henry Banks, a shoe merchant and manufacturer in Griffin and Atlanta; son of Hyatt and Elizabeth (Wakeman) Banks, of Greenfield Hill, Conn. Mother, Mary Margaret (Cox) Banks; daughter of John Morris and Mary Blanton (Hawkins) Cox, of Lexington, McDonough, and Griffin, Ga. Great-grandfather, Gershom Banks (B.A. 1732).

Prepared for college in New Haven under James M. B. Dwight, ’46. Member Delta Kappa, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Studied at Harvard Law School 1871–72; admitted to Georgia Bar at Griffin in February, 1872; practiced law in Atlanta 1872–1883; private secretary to U. S. senator Benjamin H. Hill of Georgia in 1881; engaged in saw and sill milling in Milltown, Ga., in rice milling and farming in Berrien County, Ga., 1883–88, and in orange growing at City Point, Fla., 1893–1927; public administrator of Fulton Country, Ga., 1896–1900; assistant tax collector of Atlanta; chairman of Democratic executive committee of Atlanta and president of Young Men's Democratic League; state librarian of Georgia 1875–77, a director of Atlanta Title & Trust Company; retired from active business in 1927 and had since made his home in Chicago, where member of Good Shepherd Congregational Church.

Married July 7, 1927, in Chicago, Dolly Stroud Gardner, daughter of Jackson and Victorie (Chapman) Stroud.

Death due to bronchopneumonia and pulmonary hypostasis. Buried in Oakwoods Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife and a sister, Mrs. Enoch Calloway, of LaGrange, Ga.

William Dolsen Mills, B.A. 1871.

Born November 11, 1849, in New York City
Died January 23, 1932, in Goshen, N. Y.

Father, Jacob Doremus Mills; member New York Stock Exchange; son of David Smith and Lydia Almira Joan Mills, of Newtown, N. Y. Mother, Phoebe Ann (Dolsen) Mills; daughter of William and Elizabeth Ann (McCamly) Dolsen, of Warwick, N. Y.

Columbia Grammar School, New York. Entered Yale with Class of 1869, but left during Freshman year; reentered with Class of 1871; second dispute appointment Junior and Senior years; member Delta Kappa and Phi Theta Psi.

Lived on a dairy farm in Warwick 1871–72; studied law in office of F. V. Sanford in Warwick 1872–75 and in Columbia Law School 1875–77 (LL.B. 1877); practiced law in Warwick 1877–79 and in New York City 1879–1881; assistant general counsel of Pennsylvania Railroad for New Jersey at Trenton 1881–84; assistant in law office of Joel Parker in Freehold, N. J., 1884–87; practiced law in Goshen from 1888 until retirement 1925; corporation counsel of Village of Goshen 1890–1900; justice of the peace in Township of Goshen 1889–1901

Unmarried

Death due to myocarditis. Buried in Rosedale Cemetery, Orange, N. J. Survived by a half brother, Robert D. Mills, '97.

John Curtis Chamberlain, B.A. 1872.

Born August 18, 1847, in Bridgeport, Conn
Died July 14, 1931, in Bridgeport, Conn

Father, John Chamberlain, a farmer; son of Salmon and Orilla (White) Chamberlain, of Woodbury, Conn. Mother, Emeline Lucretia (Curtis) Chamberlain; daughter of David and Betsey (Seeley) Curtis, of Bridgeport.

Golden Hill Institute, Bridgeport. Second colloquy appointment Junior year; first colloquy appointment Senior year; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon.

Taught school and studied law in Springfield, Ill., 1872-73; taught school and studied law in office of William F. Bailey in York, Pa., 1873-74; conducted a government claim agency in Bridgeport March-August, 1874; admitted to Minnesota Bar in September, 1874, and practiced law in Minneapolis 1874-75; admitted to Connecticut Bar in January, 1876; practiced law in Bridgeport 1876-1931; member of firm of Chamberlain & Hull and later of Chamberlain, Hull & Newman; clerk of Bridgeport City Court 1877 and 1878; prosecuting attorney of Bridgeport 1878-1893; Fairfield County health officer 1893-94; president of City Title and Guarantee Trust & Safe Deposit Company of Bridgeport 1907-1915, Georgia Loan & Trust Company of Macon since 1914, Watervliet (N. Y.) Hydraulic Company, Metabetchanan Fish and Game Club of Canada, and Seaside Outing Club of Bridgeport.

Married (1) September 1, 1874, in Ascutneyville, Vt., Mary Lois, daughter of John and Lorintha Tuttle. Mrs. Chamberlain died December 5, 1875. Married (2) September 12, 1878, in Sharon, Conn., Nettie Ocain, who died in October, 1902. Married (3) August 3, 1904, in Waterbury, Conn., Harriet Louise, daughter of Eugene Pulaski and Margaret Eleanor (Smith) Slason. No children.

Death due to tabes dorsalis and progressive paralysis. Buried in Mountain Grove Cemetery, Bridgeport. Survived by wife.

Edward Hopkins Jenkins, B.A. 1872.

Born May 31, 1850, in Falmouth, Mass.
Died November 6, 1931, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, John Jenkins, a shipping agent in Falmouth; president of the Falmouth Bank; Massachusetts State senator and representative; son of Weston and Elizabeth (Robinson) Jenkins, of Falmouth. Mother, Chloe (Thompson) Jenkins; daughter of Augustus and Kezia (Hopkins) Thompson, of Goshen, Conn.

Phillips-Andover. Member Class Boat Club Sophomore year (member executive committee), '72 Shell Crew Junior year; a Class historian; member Linonia, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Phi Theta Psi, and Psi Upsilon.

Studied agricultural chemistry in Sheffield Scientific School 1872-
75 (elected to Berzelius) and in Leipzig and Tharandt, Germany, 1875–76; Ph D. Yale 1879; connected with Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station from 1876 until retirement in 1923 (in Middletown 1876–77 and then in New Haven); assistant chemist 1876–1882; chemist and vice-director 1882–1900; director 1900–1923; director and treasurer 1901–1923; president of American Association of Agricultural Colleges and Experiment Stations 1911–12 (on executive committee and chairman of section of experiment station work); member of advisory board of Connecticut Forestry Association 1903 and 1904, president 1905, and vice-president 1906–1915; charter member (1884) of Association of Official Agricultural Chemists, one of its early presidents, and member of its committee on food standards, member board of directors of New Haven Hospital 1886–1919; compiler of Fifty Years' Index, 1877–1927, Bulletin 309, of Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station; contributor to the History of Connecticut (compiled 1925); an editor of the first edition of the Century Dictionary (1889–1891); member American Association for the Advancement of Science and New Haven Colony Historical Society, had been secretary of the Class of 1872 for about fifty years.

Married June 18, 1885, in Guilford, Conn., Elizabeth Eliot Foote, ex-'73 Art, daughter of George Augustus and Eliza (Spencer) Foote. No children.

Death due to coronary sclerosis. Buried in Nut Plains Cemetery, Guilford. Survived by wife. The new building of the Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station has been named Jenkins Laboratory in his honor.

Charles Addison Northrop, B.A. 1872.

Born March 21, 1850, in Ridgefield, Conn.
Died September 19, 1931, in Danbury, Conn.

Father, Benjamin Keeler Northrop, a teacher and farmer; member Ridgefield Board of Education and Connecticut Legislature; son of Cyrus and Polly Bouton (Fancher) Northrop, of Ridgefield. Mother, Catherine (Keeler) Northrop; daughter of Jeremiah and Hannah (Smith) Keeler, of Ridgefield. Uncle: Cyrus Northrop, ’57.

Williston Academy. Third prize in English composition Sophomore year, oration appointments Junior and Senior years; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Principal of classical department and teacher of classics and mathematics. University Grammar School, New York City, 1872–75; studied at Union Theological Seminary 1875–78 (graduated); or-Edward Thomas Owen, B.A. 1872.

Born March 4, 1850, in Hartford, Conn.
Died November 9, 1931, in Madison, Wis.

Hartford Public High School. Entered Yale with Class of 1871, but left at end of Junior year because of illness; joined Class of 1872 Senior year; third prize in English composition and third prize in mathematics Sophomore year; oration appointment Junior and Senior years; second College Premium in English composition Senior year; captain of '71 Boat Club; Class historian of '71; member '71
Tale Obituary Record

Glee Club, College Choir two years, Beethoven Society, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Phi Theta Psi, Psi Upsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Took graduate work at Yale 1872-73, University of Göttingen 1873-75, and in Paris 1875-76; lived in Hartford 1876-77 and New Haven 1877-78, engaged in literary pursuits; instructor in modern languages at University of Wisconsin 1878-79, professor of the French language and literature 1879-1905, and of the French language and linguistics from 1905 to retirement 1915; since then professor emeritus; during leave of absence 1886-87 taught French and Spanish at University of California; Ph.D. Yale 1900; author notes on the Jeune Homme Pauvre of Feuillet (1883), Petite Fadette of Sand (1885), Travailleurs de la Mer of Victor Hugo (1888), Ursule Mirouet of Balzac (1889), and Cinq Mars of Vigny (1892); monographs on Meaning and Function of Thought Connectives (1898), Revision of the Pronouns, with Special Examination of Relatives and Relative Clauses (1900), Interrogative Thought and the Means of Its Expression (1903), Hybrid Parts of Speech (1907), and Syntax of the Adverb, Preposition, and Conjunction (1931), life member Home Missionary Society; member First Congregational Church, Madison

Married April 11, 1874, in Brooklyn, N. Y., Emilie Brace, daughter of Henry Zachariah and Lucy E. (Brace) Pratt, of Hartford. Children: Ethel (died in childhood); Cornelia Loomis (died in childhood); Emily Pratt (B.A. Smith 1907; M.A. University of Wisconsin 1910), the wife of Barry H. Cerf (B.A. University of California 1902, M.A 1903; Ph.D. Harvard 1908); and Gladys (B.A. Smith 1911), the wife of William H. Kiekhofer (B.A North Central College 1904, Ph D University of Wisconsin 1913).

Death due to cardiorenal disease and pulmonary embolism. Buried in Forest Hill Cemetery, Madison. Survived by wife, two daughters, and five grandchildren.

Charles Percy Latting, B.A. 1873.

Born May 28, 1850, in New York City.

Died November 1, 1931, in New York City.

Father, John Jordan Latting (B.A. Middlebury 1838), a lawyer, member of firm of Wakeman & Latting, New York City; son of Charles and Elizabeth (Frost) Latting, of Lattingtown, N. Y.

Mother, Harriet Augusta (Emerson) Latting; daughter of Rev. Brown Emerson (B.A. Dartmouth 1802, and D.D. 1835) and Mary (Hopkins) Emerson, of Salem, Mass., and sister-in-law of Brown
Emerson (B.A 1833). Yale relatives include a nephew, Leslie D. Carter, ex-’02 S.

Phillips-Andover. First prize in declamation Sophomore year; member Junior and Senior Promenade committees, Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, and Psi Upsilon; graduate member Wolf’s Head.

LL.B. Columbia 1875; practiced law in New York City from 1875 until retirement May 1, 1931; clerk with Wakeman & Latting 1875–78; organizer and partner in firm of Russell & Latting 1878–1884 and partner in its successor, Russell, Dennison & Latting, 1884–1891; United States loan commissioner 1881–1904; on local Legal Advisory Board 1919; member Bar Association of the City of New York, Sons of the Revolution, New York Zoological Society and St. Bartholomew’s Episcopal Church, New York; chairman of perpetual committee of Class of 1873

Death due to coronary thrombosis. Buried in Green-Wood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, daughter, sons, and a sister, Mrs Clarence R. vanBenthuyesen, of New York City

James Wessell Smith, B.A. 1873.

Born February 1, 1853, in New York City.

Died July 20, 1931, in New York City.

Father, Charles Henry Smith (B.A. Trinity 1836; M.A. Trinity 1839; L.L.B.), a lawyer; member of firm of Charles H. Smith & Sons, New York; son of James and Elizabeth (Sell) Smith, of Jamaica, N. Y. Mother, Lucretia Colt (Spencer) Smith; daughter of Isaac and Anne (Wells) Spencer, of Hartford, Conn. Yale relatives include a brother, George J. Smith, ex-’78

Columbia Grammar and Lyon’s Collegiate schools, New York City. Won Southworth cup for single sculls; member Delta Kappa.

LL.B. Columbia 1875 (member Phi Gamma Delta); practiced law in New York City 1875–1886; also studied in General Theological Seminary 1883–86 (B.D. 1886); ordained deacon in Protestant Episcopal Church at Garden City, N. Y., 1886 and priest 1887; rector of Grace Church, Riverhead, N. Y., 1886–88, Christ Church, Sag Harbor, N. Y., 1888–1890, Trinity Church, Vincentown, N. J., 1890–93, St. Paul's Church, Kinderhook, N. Y., 1893–1903, St. Andrew's Church, Newark, N. J. (also chaplain of Hospital of St. Barnabas), 1903–07, and St. Mary's Church, Tomah, Wis., 1907–1916 (while there engaged in missionary work among the Winnebago Indians); chaplain of Protestant Episcopal City Missionary Society of New York 1917–18; assistant priest of Corpus Christi Church, New York, from 1919 until retirement 1930; had made his home in Ridgefield, N. J., since 1917; member New York Society of the Order of Founders and Patriots of America and Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament.

Married July 7, 1892, in Vincentown, May Gordon, daughter of John Gordon Herbert, ex-'48, and Mary Jane (Poole) Herbert. Children Spencer Herbert, University of Wisconsin ex-16; Agnes Herbert (B A. Vassar 1917), the wife of Daniel Merrill VanCott (special student at Columbia 1915–17); and Gordon Herbert, University of Wisconsin ex-'19.

Death due to angina pectoris, with contributory causes. Buried in Green-Wood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, two sons, daughter, and three grandchildren.

Wellington Campbell, B.A. 1874.

Born September 27, 1852, in Millburn, N. J.
Died June 17, 1932, in Orange, N. J.

Father, Wellington Campbell, a paper manufacturer; son of Thomas and Agnes Campbell, of Southfield, N. Y. Mother, Mary Tenbrook (Wade) Campbell; daughter of Oliver and Phoebe (Dennan) Wade, of Springfield, N. J. Brother: Charles Campbell, ex-'69 S.

Prepared for college at his home in Millburn by Thomas R. Lounsbury, '59. Member Kappa Sigma Epsilon.

M.D. Columbia 1877; practiced medicine in Springfield, N. J., 1877–78; North Branford, Conn., 1878–1881 and Short Hills, N. J., since 1881, member Millburn Board of Health 1915–1929; health physician of Millburn since 1907, member of Millburn Township Committee 1904–08 (chairman and treasurer 1906 and 1907) and again 1915–1929 (in charge of roads and sewers); a founder of Orange Mountain Medical Society and of Summit Medical Society in 1905 (president two terms).

Married February 8, 1888, in New Haven, Carolyn Sibyl, daughter of Frederick and Sibyl Celestia (Tuttle) Foote, of Northford, Conn. Children: Agnes Foote (B.A. Vassar 1913) (died in 1929); Katharine Wade (Wellesley 1914–15), the wife of Edward A. Hill (M.E. Cornell 1915); Wellington Foote, Lehigh ’19; and Ruth (died in infancy). Mrs. Campbell died July 28, 1912.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in St. Stephen’s Episcopal Church Cemetery, Millburn. Survived by son, one daughter, and two grandchildren.

George Levi Fox, B.A. 1874.

Born November 16, 1852, in New Haven, Conn.
Died August 6, 1931, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Levi Goodell Fox, an engineer; son of Joseph Kneeland and Sally (Gray) Fox, of Hadley, Mass. Mother, Elizabeth Hamlin (Bodfish) Fox; daughter of Simeon and Elizabeth (Hamlin) Bodfish, of Windsor, Conn.

Hopkins Grammar School. Entered Yale with Class of 1873, but left during the first term on account of ill health; re-entered with Class of 1874; first prize in English composition Freshman year; second Berkeley Premium Sophomore year; dissertation appointment Junior and Senior years; speaker at Commencement; an editor of Yale Courant; member Gamma Nu, Phi Theta Psi, and Psi Upsilon.

Taught the classics at General Russell’s Collegiate and Commercial Institute, New Haven, 1874–75; engaged in private tutoring in New Haven 1875–77; studied in Yale Graduate School 1874–77 and Yale School of Law 1878–79 (LL.B. 1879); admitted to bar of New Haven County; senior teacher in Latin and Greek at Hillhouse High School, New Haven, 1877–1885; M.A. 1885; rector of Hopkins Grammar School 1885–1901; head of Fox Tutoring School, New Haven, 1885–1926; lecturer on municipal administration at Yale 1895–1900; gave course of twelve lectures on the Great Public Schools of England before Lowell Institute, Boston; had also lectured widely on same subject and against Sinn Feinism; assisted in Liberal Budget Election campaign in England 1909; took part in campaign against the House of Lords 1910; member Connecticut Commission on Arbitration and Mediation 1917–1920; member Committee of Seven of American Historical Association on the teaching of history 1896–98 and contributed to its Report; author: The Study of Politics (1885) and of numerous critical pamphlets on Prussianized Germany, Sinn Feiners, and Panama Canal; contributed to the Nation, Journal of Education (London), London Spectator, Political Science Quarterly, Yale Review, Yale Alumni Weekly, Proceedings of American Political Science Association (of which a member) (1906), School and Society, New York World, and Springfield Republican; member Connecticut Civil Service Reform Association, and Center Church (Congregational), New Haven.

Unmarried.

Death due to acute myocardial failure and diabetes mellitus. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by two nephews, one of whom is Edward L. Fox, '93 S. By the terms of his will Yale was made one of the residuary legatees, the bequest to be used for scholarships to be known as the George L. Fox Scholarships, his library also was given to Yale University with the provision that duplicates should be made available to the New Haven Public Library.

George Edmund Munroe, B.A. 1874.

Born December 9, 1851, on board the California clipper ship "Mandarin" in the Indian Ocean.

Died April 3, 1932, in New York City

Father, George Downes Munroe; a stock broker and later in Chinese tea trade; son of Edmund and Sophia (Sewall) Munroe, of Boston. Mother, Pauline (Washburn) Munroe; daughter of Abiel and Pauline (Tucker) Washburn, of Boston.

Edwards Place School, Stockbridge, Mass. Second colloquy appointment Senior year; on Class Crew Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior years, member Thanksgiving Jubilee Committee Sophomore year, Committee for the new Boat House, Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones.

M.D. Columbia 1877; house physician on staff of Bellevue Hospital, New York, 1877-79 and of Woman's Hospital 1879-1880; practiced medicine in New York City from 1881 until retirement about 1922; sanitary inspector on Board of Health for a few years; vice-president of East Hampton (N. Y) Electric Light Company 1902-1922; vice-president of Maidstone Club, East Hampton, 1892-1914 and president 1915-1920; president of Maidstone Improvement Company; member tariff reform committee of Reform Club of New York, American Medical Association, New York Academy of Medicine, Medical Society of the County of New York, and Medical Society of the State of New York.

Married February 3, 1881, in Burlington, N. J., Jessie, daughter of John Longley and Julia (Farmer) Reynolds: One daughter, Marjory. Mrs. Munroe died March 20, 1928.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Cremation took place and ashes were buried in Green-Wood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by daughter and a sister, Mrs. Ellen S. Cory, of New York City.

Henry Spencer Robbins, B.A. 1874.

Born February 5, 1853, in Stoughton, Mass
Died April 27, 1932, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, John Virgin Robbins, a shoe manufacturer. Mother, Anastasia (Ford) Robbins; daughter of Jacob John and Mary (Halstead) Ford.

Hopkins Grammar School. Left college during Junior year, but in 1894 given his degree and enrollment in Class of 1874; secretary of Class Baseball Club Freshman year; member Delta Kappa and Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi).

Studied law in office of Gregory & Pinney in Madison, Wis., a year and a half and also at Law School of University of Wisconsin (LL.B 1874); admitted to bar of Wisconsin in June, 1874; went to New York City and following his admission to the New York State Bar in 1875 practiced law in New York for a year; had practiced law in Chicago since 1876; partner in firm of Washburne & Robbins 1876–1883, Trumbull, Washburne & Robbins 1883–1890, and Green, Robbins & Honore 1890–98; practiced independently 1898–1918; partner in firm of Robbins, Townley & Wild 1918–1924; associated with firm of Taylor, Miller, Dickinson & Smith (in which Jacob M. Dickinson, ’12, and George D. Smith, ’08 S, were partners) 1924–27 and with its successor, Taylor, Miller, Busch & Boyden, from 1927 until death, counsel for Chicago Board of Trade 1898–1924, special assistant to U. S. Attorney General 1910; had represented New York Stock Exchange and New York Cotton Exchange before U. S. Supreme Court; active chairman of Illinois delegation to National Democratic Convention at Indianapolis in 1896; member American Bar Association and Fourth Presbyterian Church, Chicago.

Married (1) December 12, 1883, in Chicago, Frances Fuller, daughter of Henry Morris and Frances (Fuller) Johnston. Children Marjorie Johnston (Mrs. James M. Hopkins); Dorothy Ford (Mrs Frank Hibbard); Isabelle Mcibirney (Mrs. Charles W. Isaacs, Jr.), and Frances Spencer, the wife of William R. Odell, Jr. (B.A. Harvard 1919). Mrs. Robbins died June 29, 1927. Married (2) in September, 1929, in Toronto, Canada, Helen Beatrice, daughter of Herbert Graham.

Death due to coronary thrombosis. Buried in Graceland Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife, four daughters, five grandchildren, and a sister, Miss Alice B. Robbins.
Yale Obituary Record

Thomas Townsend Sherman, B.A. 1874.

Father, Edward Standish Sherman, a metal merchant in New York City; son of Roger Sherman (B.A. 1787) and Susannah (Staples) Sherman, of New Haven. Mother, Catharine Augusta (Townsend) Sherman; daughter of Solomon Davis Townsend (B.A. Harvard 1811 and M.D. 1815) and Catherine Wendell (Davis) Townsend, of Boston. Yale relatives include: Roger Sherman (honorary M.A. 1768) (great-grandfather); Oliver Sherman (B.A. 1795), Seth P. Staples (B.A. 1797), Job Staples (B.A. 1808), and Sophos Staples (B.A. 1809) (great-uncles); Frederick R. Sherman (B.A. 1836) and George Sherman (B.A. 1839) (uncles); Roger Sherman, '10 (nephew); and Henry D. White, '51, Charles A. White, '54, Willard W. White, ex-'56, Roger S. White, '59, Dr. Thomas H. White, '60, Oliver S. White, '64, George E. White, '66, Sherman D. Thacher, '83, and William L. Thacher, '87 (first cousins).

Yale relatives include: Roger Sherman (honorary M.A. 1768) (great-grandfather); Oliver Sherman (B.A. 1795), Seth P. Staples (B.A. 1797), Job Staples (B.A. 1808), and Sophos Staples (B.A. 1809) (great-uncles); Frederick R. Sherman (B.A. 1836) and George Sherman (B.A. 1839) (uncles); Roger Sherman, '10 (nephew); and Henry D. White, '51, Charles A. White, '54, Willard W. White, ex-'56, Roger S. White, '59, Dr. Thomas H. White, '60, Oliver S. White, '64, George E. White, '66, Sherman D. Thacher, '83, and William L. Thacher, '87 (first cousins).

Fairfield (Conn.) Academy and Hopkins Grammar School. Member first University Football Eleven and Delta Kappa; graduate member Wolf's Head.

Taught at Frossard's School, Irvington-on-Hudson, N. Y., 1874-75, attended Columbia University Law School 1874-76 (LL.B. 1876); admitted to New York Bar December 13, 1876; in law offices of Evarts, Southmayd & Choate (William M. Evarts, '37, and Joseph H. Choate, LL.D. 1901) 1875-1884 and Evarts, Choate & Beaman 1884-1902; member of firm of Evarts, Tracy & Sherman (Allen W. Evarts, '69, and J. Evarts Tracy, '57 L.) 1902-08, Evarts, Choate & Sherman (Joseph H. Choate, counsel) 1908-1919, and Evarts, Choate, Sherman & Leon since 1919; director, vice-president, and president of James Gordon Bennett Memorial Home for New York Journalists; trustee of New York Genealogical and Biographical Society 1912-1931 (member executive committee 1917-1931) and fellow 1931, life member New York Historical Society since 1911 (member executive committee since 1918 and domestic corresponding secretary since 1923); a governor of Apawamis Club, vice-president 1903-05, and president 1905-07; vestryman of Christ's Church at Rye, N. Y. (Episcopal), 1883-1906 (clerk of vestry from 1893) and warden since 1906; delivered address at 200th anniversary of founding of Parish of Rye 1895; author: Sherman Genealogy (1920); member Association of the Bar of the City of New York, New York County Lawyers Association, New England Historic Genealogical Society, and New England Society of New York.
Married October 19, 1887, in Rye, Anne Loder, daughter of Augustus Wiggin, Rutgers ex-'46, and Ann Elizabeth (Loder) Wiggin. One daughter, Emily Balch (Mrs. Arthur Talbot).

Death due to uremia. Buried in Greenwood Union Cemetery, Rye. Survived by wife, daughter, a sister, Miss Rose Standish Sherman, of Rye, and two brothers, Arthur Outram Sherman, of Mahopac, N. Y., and Vinton Sherman, of Rye.

Harry Seymour Barnes, B.A. 1875.

Born December 21, 1852, in Buffalo, N. Y.
Died September 13, 1931, in North Sutton, N. H.

Farrand's Collegiate Academy, New York City. An editor of Yale Courant; member Class Glee Club, Delta Kappa, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

In office of Russell Sturgis, architect, New York City, 1875-77; studied architecture in Paris ateliers and at the Beaux Arts 1877-78; practiced architecture in partnership with Charles H. Smith in New York 1879-1882; engaged in dry goods business as partner in firm of Dale, Barnes, Morse & Company in Minneapolis, Minn., for a short time from 1882; subsequently studied painting under William Sartain and exhibited at the National Academy and in various cities, but since 1893 had not painted on account of eye trouble; director of Artist-Artisan Institute, New York City (founded by John W. Stimson, '72), for several years; honorary Ph.D. Iowa College 1882; had made his home in North Sutton since 1901; an associate of American Institute of Architects since 1881; member New England Society of Orange, N. J.

Married (1) August 4, 1879, in Nuremberg, Germany, Helen Estelle, daughter of Daniel Sanford (honorary M.A. Wesleyan 1850) and Helen Eliza (Sammis) Sanford, of Redding Ridge, Conn., and sister of Daniel S. Sanford, '82. Children: Helen Seymour, the wife of Frederick S. Mabrey (B.S. University of Chicago 1907); and Hilda (died in childhood). Mrs. Barnes died December 18, 1884. Married (2) July 20, 1889, in New York City, Minnie L. O’Brien. Married (3) August 13, 1913, in North Sutton, Kate Lincoln, daughter of Edmund Hitchcock and Malvina Chapin (Rowell) Rogers.
Death due to cancer. Buried in Ridge Cemetery, Redding Ridge. Survived by wife, one daughter, two grandchildren, a brother, Herbert S. Barnes (LL B. Columbia 1893), of White Plains, N Y., and a sister, Mrs. Lucretia S. Howard, of Cambridge, Mass.

Henry Blodget, B.A. 1875.

Born October 22, 1854, in Greenfield, Mass
Died May 23, 1932, in Bridgeport, Conn.

Hartford Public High School High oration appointment Junior and Senior years; second Winthrop prize Junior year; member Theta Psi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Phi Beta Kappa; graduate member Wolf's Head.

Student in Yale Graduate School 1875–76 and in Yale School of Medicine 1876–77; taught Latin and mathematics in Norwich (N Y.) Academy 1877–79; M D. Bellevue Hospital Medical College 1881, on staff of Bellevue Hospital 1880–82, as house physician; studied at the General Hospital and the Polyclinic in Vienna and in Leipzig 1882–83, resident physician at New York Foundling Hospital 1883–84, practiced medicine and surgery in Bridgeport from 1885 until retirement in 1929; pathologist to Bridgeport Hospital 1887, visiting physician and surgeon 1893–96, attending surgeon 1896–1915, and consulting surgeon since 1915; visiting surgeon to St Vincent's Hospital, Bridgeport, 1905–1914 and since then consulting surgeon; in 1907 went abroad again for study, member of Bridgeport Board of Health 1897–1901 and of board of medical visitors at Hartford Retreat since 1915; director of Bridgeport People's Savings Bank 1928–1929; member of board of trustees of Connecticut Junior Republic at Litchfield; on board of Bridgeport Mental Hygiene Society from its organization in 1924 until death and on advisory board of Visiting Nurse Association since 1919; member American Medical Association, Bridgeport, Fairfield County, and Connecticut Medical societies, and United Congregational Church, Bridgeport.
Married June 1, 1893, in Bridgeport, Mabel, daughter of Rev. Hugh Aiken McKelvey (B.A. Indiana University 1843) and Dotha Ann (Hotchkiss) McKelvey, and sister of Charles W. McKelvey, '00. Children: Donald McKelvey, '17; and Henry Blodget, 2d (died at birth).

Death due to chronic endocarditis and myocarditis. Buried in Mountain Grove Cemetery, Bridgeport. Survived by wife, son, three grandchildren, and a sister, Charlotte B. Richards, the widow of Rev. William R. Richards, '75, of Bridgeport.

Alpheus Tompkins Bulkeley, B.A. 1875.

Born July 4, 1851, in Albany, N. Y.
Died September 5, 1931, in Albany, N. Y.

Father, Henry H. Bulkeley, a wholesale grocer; son of Abel and Elizabeth (Brundage) Bulkeley, of Galway, N. Y. Mother, Sarah Maria (Tompkins) Bulkeley; daughter of Stephen S. and Esther (Jaycox) Tompkins, of Clarkesville, N. Y.

Albany Academy. Member Freshman Class Supper Committee, Phi Theta Psi, and Psi Upsilon.

Studied law in office of Hand, Hale & Schwarz, Albany, and at Albany Law School 1875-76 (LL.B. 1876); admitted to New York State Bar 1876; managing clerk for Hand, Hale & Schwarz 1876-78; partner in firm of Hand, Hale & Bulkeley 1879-88, Hale & Bulkeley 1881-87, Hale, Cowen & Bulkeley 1887-88, Hale & Bulkeley 1888-1892, Hale, Bulkeley & Tennant 1892, Hale & Bulkeley 1892-96, Patterson, Bulkeley & VanKirk 1897-1906; had since practiced independently; counsel for United States Fidelity & Guaranty Company of Baltimore and on advisory board of its Albany office 1906-1929; chairman of board of trustees of Emmanuel Baptist Church (of which a member) since 1918; trustee of Fort Orange Club (founder and charter member 1880) 1909-1915; vice-president of Albany Country Club 1910-16 and president 1917-1921; president of Yale Alumni Association of Northeastern New York 1913-15; member Albany County Bar Association and Sons of the Revolution.

Unmarried

Death due to angina pectoris and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Albany Rural Cemetery. Survived by a sister, Miss Albena M. Bulkeley, of Albany.
Frank Hatch Jones, B.A. 1875.

Born March 6, 1854, in Griggsville, Ill.
Died October 2, 1931, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, George Watson Jones; merchant and manufacturer of agricultural implements; clerk of Circuit Court, Pittsfield, Ill., and of Appellate Court, Springfield, Ill.; son of Nathan Watson and Hannah Pulsifer (Glazier) Jones, of Griggsville. Mother, Cecelia (Bennett) Jones; daughter of Simeon Losee and Katherine (Wolcott) Bennett, of Henry, Ill.

Pittsfield High School Vice-president of Class Boat Club Sophomore year; sang in College Choir, University Glee Club, and '75 Glee Club three years, floor manager of Junior and Senior promenades, member Delta Kappa, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Studied law in office of Matthews & Wike, Pittsfield, 1875-76, in Columbia University Law School 1876-77, and in Union College of Law, Chicago, 1877-78 (LL.B. 1878); admitted to Illinois Bar 1878, practiced law in Pittsfield 1878-79, and in Springfield 1879-1893 (as member of firm of Wilson & Jones 1886-1893); first assistant postmaster general 1893-97; practiced law in Chicago 1897-1900 as member of firm of Uhl, Jones & Landis; secretary of American Trust & Savings Bank, Chicago, 1900-1910; secretary and trust officer of Continental and Commercial Trust & Savings Bank, Chicago, from 1910 until retirement 1915; active in reorganization of railroads, street railways, and other corporations, in railroad, coal mine, and other receiverships, and in management of trust properties; delegate to Democratic National Convention 1892; president of League of Democratic Clubs of Illinois; member Illinois Legislature 1891; attended Presbyterian church.

Married (1) November 28, 1883, in Springfield, Sarah Irwin, daughter of Jacob and Elizabeth Jane (Ferguson) Bunn. Mrs. Jones died November 20, 1892. Married (2) July 4, 1912, in Coburg, Ontario, Ellen Wrenshall Grant Sartoris, daughter of President Grant and Julia Boggs (Dent) Grant. Mrs. Jones died August 30, 1922. No children by either marriage.

Death due to cardiovascular disease, with contributory causes. Buried in Springfield. Survived by a brother, Fred Bennett Jones, of Chicago. By the terms of his will a bequest was made to Yale University Class of 1875 Fund.
Yale College

Charles Newell Fowler, B.A. 1876.

Born November 2, 1852, in Lena, Ill.
Died May 27, 1932, in Orange, N. J.

Father, Joshua Durant Fowler, a farmer; son of James and Unity (Durant) Fowler, of Springfield and Pawlet, Vt. Mother, Rachel (Montague) Fowler.

Preparatory Department of Beloit College. On Class Crew Sophomore and Junior years and University Crew Senior year; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon (first declamation and first oration prizes), Phi Theta Psi, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Read law in office of Williams & Thompson in Chicago and attended Chicago Law School 1876-78 (LL.B. 1878; honors at graduation); instructor in mathematics and political economy at Bryant & Stratton’s Business College 1877 and 1878; admitted to the bar 1878 and practiced law in Beloit, Kans., 1879-1883; local attorney for Missouri Pacific Railroad Company 1880-83; helped organize Equitable Mortgage Company 1883 and was an incorporator 1884; first vice-president of the company and in charge of New York City office 1884-87; president of company 1887-1893; aided in forming Union Typewriter Company 1893-94 and member of the board 1895-97; member of Congress from New Jersey 1895-1911, served on banking and currency committee of the House 1895-1909 (chairman 1901-09); member New Jersey Republican State Committee 1898-1901; advocate of gold standard in 1896; in 1900 instrumental in establishing monetary commission of that year, which brought about enactment of gold standard; member of committee on civil service reform throughout his term in Congress and at times of committees on insular affairs and foreign affairs; in 1910 prepared and introduced in Congress the Federal Reserve Act (approved by Congress with slight changes December 23, 1913); president of Rutland Florence Marble Company of Fowler, Vt., 1900-1910; author: Seventeen Talks on the Banking Question (c. 1913), National Issues of 1916 (c. 1916), and United States Reserve Bank (1922).

Married April 30, 1879, in Beloit, Wis., Hilda Sophia Heg, daughter of Colonel Hans Christian Heg, 15th Wisconsin Volunteers, and Cornelia (Einong) Heg. One son, Charles Newell, Jr., ex-’05. Mrs. Fowler died February 20, 1932.

Death due to nephritis and bronchopneumonia. Buried in Fairview Cemetery, Westfield, N. J. Survived by son, two grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.
Yale Obituary Record

John B. Kendrick, B.A. 1876.

Born September 18, 1851, in Wallingford, Conn.
Died October 9, 1931, in Wallingford, Conn.

Father, John Kendrick; part owner and captain of merchant ship "Defiance"; later in coal business in Wallingford; son of John Kendrick, of Harwich, Mass. Mother, Frances Myra (Edmonds) Kendrick, daughter of Meredith Muse and Mary (Cauthorn) Edmonds, of Westmoreland County, Va.

Suffield (Conn.) School and Hopkins Grammar School. Third prize in mathematics Freshman and Sophomore years; first prize in English composition Sophomore year; philosophical oration appointment Junior and Senior years; second prize in mathematics Senior year; member Phi Beta Kappa.

Taught mathematics and English at the Peddie School, Heights-town, N. J., 1876-78; studied in Yale Graduate School 1878-79, vice-president and instructor in sciences, mathematics, and the classics at the Peddie School 1879-1882; had lived in Wallingford since 1882, private tutor 1882-83; instructor at Hopkins Grammar School 1883-84; in charge of office and warehouse in Montreal, Canada, of Simpson, Hall, Miller & Company, silver manufacturers, of Wallingford during parts of the years 1884-87; private secretary to Samuel Simpson of that company and engaged in accounting and auditing for the firm 1888-1897; an auditor in city comptroller's office, New Haven, 1899-1901; special accountant for International Silver Company, Wallingford, and engaged independently as an expert accountant and consultant, Hartford, 1901-03; auditor for Scovill Manufacturing Company, Waterbury, Conn., from 1903 until retirement 1919, represented Wallingford in Connecticut General Assembly 1887, 1899, and 1901; member Constitutional Convention of Connecticut 1902; an incorporator of First National Bank of Wallingford 1882; a founder of Wallingford Historical Society and its president since 1928; treasurer Wallingford Town Park Commission 1915-1931 and member School Committee 1919-1926; author. History of the Wallingford Disaster (1878), member First Baptist Church, Wallingford.

Married August 24, 1881, in Wallingford, Hattie Amelia, daughter of Lyman and Elizabeth (Johnson) Treadway. One son, John Treadway, ex-'08 S Mrs. Kendrick died May 2, 1920.

Death due to pulmonary edema from cardiac insufficiency. Buried in In Memoriam Cemetery, Wallingford. Survived by son and a brother, Thomas M. Kendrick ex-'66 S.
Nathan Peabody Tyler, B.A. 1876.

Born October 11, 1848, in Barrytown, N. Y.
Died January 22, 1932, in Norfolk, Va.

Father, Phineas Lovejoy Tyler; engaged in steamboat and barge freighting business on Hudson River; son of Nathan Peabody and Persis (Lovejoy) Tyler, of Blenheim, N. Y. Mother, Jane Ann (VonWaldron) Tyler.

Hasbrouck Institute, Jersey City, N. J. Second prize in mathematics Freshman year; second dispute appointment Junior year; second colloquy appointment Senior year; member '76 Glee Club three years, College Choir Senior year, and College Church Committee three years; chairman Picture Committee Senior year; a Class deacon; member Gamma Nu.

College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia 1876–77; studied in Yale School of Medicine in fall of 1877, and took courses in French and German in Yale Graduate School, but left on account of ill health; reentered Yale School of Medicine in 1878 (M.D. 1879); interne at New Haven Hospital 1879–1880; practiced medicine in New Haven 1880–85, Jersey City 1885–86, and New Rochelle, N. Y., 1886–1907; consulting physician to New Rochelle Hospital 1897–1906; deacon in First Presbyterian Church, New Rochelle, 1887–1904; engaged in fruit growing in Manati, Porto Rico, 1905–1913 and in Millville, W. Va., 1913–17; had since lived in New York City, Barrytown, Portsmouth, Va., and Norfolk; former member New Rochelle, New Haven, and Westchester County Medical societies; member Ghent Methodist Church, Norfolk Married June 16, 1884, in Tarrytown, N. Y., Mary Wallace, daughter of John and Mary (Craigg) Millar. Children: Frank McIntosh (died in infancy); Margaret Eloise McIntosh (Mrs. Charles F. Matthew); and Lyon Leavenworth. Dr. and Mrs. Tyler were divorced in 1913.

Death due to chronic myocarditis and interstitial nephritis. Buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Norfolk. Survived by one son, daughter, and seven grandchildren.
Charles Henry Willcox, B.A. 1876.

Born May 11, 1855, in Fitchburg, Mass.
Died March 30, 1932, in Windsor, Conn.

Father, Rev. Giles Buckingham Willcox (B.A. 1848; Andover Theological Seminary 1851; D.D. Drury 1877 and New York University 1881); son of Oliver and Sally (Stanton) Willcox, of New York City. Mother, Mary Jane (Cooley) Willcox; daughter of Charles Ingraham and Lucy Beckwith (Ely) Cooley, of Norwich, Conn. Yale relatives include: Rev. Henry E. Cooley, ’63 (uncle), Alfred B. Willcox, ’82 S (brother); Rev. Edward W. Willcox, ’21 (nephew); and David Willcox, ’72 (first cousin).

Hasbrouck Institute, Jersey City, N. J. Hurlbut Scholar Sophomore year, high oration appointment Junior year and second prize at Junior Exhibition; oration appointment Senior year; an editor of Yale Courant Senior year; Class Supper historian Sophomore year, member Kappa Sigma Epsilon and Phi Beta Kappa.

Principal of Staples Academy, Easton, Conn., 1876–78; studied in Yale Divinity School 1878–1882 (B.D. 1881; Hooker Fellow 1881–82), studied at University of Leipzig 1882–83 and spent next year in travel, ordained to Congregational ministry November 6, 1884, at Lowell, Mass., where pastor of Pawtucket Congregational Church until 1892, Greek master and assistant minister at Lawrenceville School (N. J.) and master of Dickinson House from 1892 until retirement 1921; had since made his home in Windsor; member of executive and finance committees of board of Windsor Public Library since 1923; president of Windsor Historical Society 1928–1930, member Mayflower Society and First Church of Windsor (Congregational).

Married August 1, 1882, in Springfield, Mass., Mary Chaffee Dudley, a graduate of Mount Holyoke Seminary (now College) in 1878, daughter of Rev. Martin Dudley (B.A. 1839; Yale Divinity School 1843) and Sarah (Rowland) Dudley, a great-granddaughter of Rev. David S. Rowland (B.A. 1743), and sister of Edward M. Dudley, ’77, and Charles R. Dudley, ’77 L. One son, Dudley, ’08.

Death due to myocarditis. Cremation took place and ashes were buried in Palisado Cemetery, Windsor. Survived by wife, son, and three sisters, Gertrude M. Weakley (B.S. Wellesley 1888), the wife of William R. Weakley (Ph.B. Central College, Mo., 1893), of Hardin, Mo., and Mrs. Lucy B. E. Wallace (B.L.S. University of Illinois 1900), and Harriet B. Gunn (B.A. Wellesley 1903), the wife of Alexander Hunter Gunn (B.S. University of Illinois 1907), both of Evanston, Ill.
Allen Everett Beeman, B.A. 1877.

Born August 4, 1855, in Litchfield, Conn.
Died April 17, 1932, in Bridgeport, Conn.

Father, Frederick Dan Beeman (B.A. 1842); son of Daniel and Abigail (Everett) Beeman, of Warren, Conn. Mother, Maria Hall (Brisbane) Beeman; daughter of John Wilson and Mary Susannah (Gillon) Brisbane, of Charleston, S. C Stratford (Conn.) Academy. Member Delta Kappa.

Studied theology at Oriel College, Oxford University, 1877–78; graduated from Berkeley Divinity School 1880; ordained as deacon in the Protestant Episcopal Church June 2, 1880, and priest 1881; honorary M.A. Trinity 1881; rector Christ Church, Unionville, Conn., 1880–85 and Christ Church, West Haven, Conn., 1885–86; assistant rector Christ Church, Hartford, Conn., 1887–88; rector Christ Church, Gardiner, Maine, 1889–1893; supplied at Grace Church, Charleston, S. C., and elsewhere 1893–95 and rector of Grace Church 1895; missionary at Port Henry, N. Y., 1896; rector St. Paul’s Church, Fairfield, Conn., from 1897 until retirement 1926, when made rector emeritus; archdeacon of Fairfield County 1907–1924; secretary of Farmington (Conn.) School Committee 1880–85, of Fairfield School Committee 1898–1925, and of Fairfield Historical Society since 1903; vice-president of Audubon Society of Connecticut since its incorporation 1918 (chairman of its executive committee); trustee of Birdcraft Sanctuary, Fairfield, since 1918; member St. Paul’s Church.

Married June 11, 1885, in Farmington, Sarah Cowles, daughter of Charles Carrington (M.D. Columbia 1860) and Elizabeth (Whiting) Carrington. One son, Charles Carrington, ’09.

Death due to diabetes mellitus, with contributory causes. Buried in Farmington Cemetery. Survived by wife, son, and two grandchildren.

Elbridge Clinton Cooke, B.A. 1877.

Born October 31, 1854, in Tiskilwa, Ill
Died November 4, 1931, in Minneapolis, Minn.

Father, Joseph Clark Cooke, a retired sea captain; son of William and Betsey (Burgess) Cooke, of Gloucester, R. I. Mother, Amy (Wade) Cooke; daughter of Rev. Charles Wade, a Baptist minister, and Sally (Pray) Wade, of Rhode Island.

Norwich (Conn.) Free Academy. First colloquy appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year; member Class Crew three years (captain Junior and Senior years) and University Crew Junior and Senior years, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Taught at Norwich Free Academy and studied law in office of George C. Ripley, '62, Norwich, 1877-79; admitted to Connecticut Bar 1879 and practiced law in Norwich as partner in firm of Ripley & Cooke until 1883; city attorney of Norwich 1881-83; founder of Northern Pacific Bank in Mandan, N. Dak., 1883 and president 1883-86, member of firm of Meech & Cooke, bankers, Mandan, 1883-86, also practiced law in Bismarck, N. Dak., 1884-86 as partner in firm of Flannery & Cooke; practiced law in Minneapolis 1886-1915, as member of firm of Morrison & Cooke until 1887, Morrison, Flannery & Cooke 1887-1890, and Flannery & Cooke 1890-1915; associated with Minneapolis Trust Company (now First Minneapolis Trust Company) from 1895 until death; director from 1895, vice-president 1896-1903, president 1903-1920, and chairman of the board 1920-29; also served as trust officer 1910-18; president of Real Estate Title Company of Minneapolis 1907-1929; treasurer of North American Telegraph Company 1889-1919; director of Northwestern National Bank 1897-1912 and First and Security National Bank (now First National Bank) of Minneapolis since 1912; member St. Mark's Episcopal Church, Minneapolis.

Married October 9, 1883, in Norwich, Isabella Boies, daughter of Sidney and Isabella (Boies) Turner. No children.

Death due to coronary sclerosis and occlusion. Buried in Lakewood Cemetery, Minneapolis. Survived by wife. By the terms of his will a trust fund was left to Yale University to establish the Elbridge C. Cooke and Mrs. Elbridge C. Cooke Scholarship in Yale College, as a memorial for his namesake, Elbridge Clinton Day, of the Class of 1923.

Gustavus Eliot, B.A. 1877.
Born March 22, 1857, in North Haven, Conn
Died March 1, 1932, in North Haven, Conn

Father, Whitney Elliott; member of Connecticut State Senate, school visitor, selectman, town agent, and justice of the peace; son of Wyllys and Lucy (Camp) Elliott, of North Guilford, Conn. Mother, Emma Elvira (Benton) Elliott; daughter of Joseph William and Esther (Harrison) Benton, of Guilford. Yale relatives include: Dr. Harvey Elliott (B.A. 1805) (great-uncle); Dr. Ellsworth Eliot, '49 (uncle), and Dr. Ellsworth Eliot, Jr. '84 (first cousin).

Hopkins Grammar School. Second Berkeley Premium in Latin composition Sophomore year; second dispute appointment Junior and Senior years; member Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi) and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Studied in Yale School of Medicine 1877-78; M.D. Columbia 1880; resident physician and surgeon at Blackwell's Island Hospital, New York, 1880-81; traveled in the West 1881-82; had since practiced medicine in New Haven; attending physician to New Haven Dispensary 1882-87; physician to New Haven Jail 1887-1901 and to Home for Neglected Children and Leila Day Nursery; medical examiner for towns of North and East Haven; charter member of Connecticut Society of Mental Hygiene 1908 and director until 1922; an organizer (in 1925) of Connecticut College of Pharmacy, of which dean and professor of physiology and materia medica 1925-28; had since been dean emeritus and vice-president of board of trustees; during the war assisted two draft boards and afterwards examined and treated disabled and discharged soldiers, at first with the U. S. Public Health Service and later with U. S. Veterans Bureau until July 1, 1923; contributed to American Journal of Medical Sciences, Journal of American Medical Association, New York Medical Journal, Buffalo Medical and Surgical Journal, Transactions of Ninth International Medical Congress, and Proceedings of Connecticut Medical Society; associate editor of New England Medical Monthly 1887-1894; member New Haven Medical Association (chairman of library committee and librarian several years), New Haven County Medical Society, Connecticut Medical Society (represented it in house of delegates of American Medical Association in 1904), New Haven Colony Historical Society, charter member Graduates Club 1894, and belonged to Trinity Church (Episcopal), New Haven.

Married (1) April 21, 1887, in New Haven, Mary Ann, daughter of Samuel and Mary Ann (Potter) Forbes. Children: Ruth Forbes (B.A. Smith 1908; B.L.S. New York State Library School 1911; M.A. Columbia 1927); Margaret (graduate, School of Nursing of Presbyterian Hospital, New York, 1921); Mary Forbes (died in infancy); and Esther Harrison (B.A. Smith 1915; Yale Graduate School 1916-18), the wife of William A. Forbes, '18. Mrs. Eliot died November 30, 1896. Married (2) July 29, 1905, in North Haven, Clara Frances Selleck Bailey, daughter of James Keeler and Samantha Brockway (Bontecou) Selleck No children by second marriage.

Death due to coronary occlusion and bronchopneumonia. Buried in Greenlawn Cemetery, East Haven. Survived by wife, three daughters, a granddaughter, a stepdaughter, Florence Bailey Swiggett, the wife of Howard Swiggett, '14, two step-grandchildren, a sister, Miss Mary W. Eliot, of North Haven, and a brother, Henry W. Eliot (M.D. University of Vermont 1898), of Manchester, Vt
George Thomson Elliot, B.A. 1877.

Born December 20, 1855, in New Orleans, La.
Died September 14, 1931, in Otisfield, Maine.

Father, Andrew Foster Elliot, a cotton broker; son of George Thomson and Rebecca Giraud (Foster) Elliot, of New York City. Mother, Marie Antoinette Odile (deBuys) Elliot; daughter of Pierre and Clemence (deViel) deBuys, of New Orleans and Biloxi, Miss.

St John’s School, Ossining, N. Y. Chairman of Senior Promenade Committee, member Delta Kappa, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Studied medicine at University of Louisiana (now Tulane University) 1877-1881 (M.D. 1881); intern at Charity Hospital, New Orleans, 1879-1881; took graduate work in medicine in Vienna 1881-84, specializing in dermatology; practiced medicine in New York City from 1884 until retirement 1921; attending physician at Demilt Dispensary 1886-1896; pathologist and assistant visiting physician at New York Skin and Cancer Hospital 1884-1904 and consulting dermatologist 1884-1902; dermatologist to New York Infant Asylum; at time of death consulting dermatologist to St. Luke’s, Columbus, and New York Lying-in hospitals and New York Eye and Ear Infirmary; professor of dermatology at New York Post-Graduate Medical School 1896-98 and at Cornell University Medical College 1898-1920 and then professor emeritus; corresponding member Société Francaise de Dermatologie et de Syphilologie; member New York State and New York County Medical societies, American Academy of Medicine, Medical and Surgical Society, New York Clinical Society, American Medical Association, Dermatological and Pathological societies, Society of Dermatological and Genito-Urinary Surgery, American Dermatological Association, Physicians’ Mutual Aid Association, and American Association for the Advancement of Science; American secretary of International Congress of Dermatologists 1890. Episcopalian.

Married November 8, 1892, in Bath, Maine, Eva Brown Maria Briggs, daughter of Willard Otis and Averick Angeline (Jones) Brown. No children.

Death due to acute dilatation of the heart, following chronic myocarditis. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by wife and a sister, Mrs. Marie R. O Lawrance, of Rochester, N. Y.
Yale College

John Herbert Johnston, B.A. 1877.

Born February 22, 1855, in New York City.
Died December 7, 1931, in New York City.

Connected with Dolphin Jute Mills, Paterson, N. J., as director 1876–1905 and 1908–1931, secretary 1877–1888 and in 1891, treasurer 1877–1893, vice-president 1889–1893 and again 1909–1918, and president 1893–1905; vice-president Central New Jersey Land Improvement Company; secretary Agatine Shoe, Hook, and Eyelet Company 1894–1925 (director from organization of company until his death); director of Niagara Fire Insurance Company since 1886, retired from active business some years before his death and subsequently traveled extensively; owner of country estate on Lloyd Harbour, Huntington, Long Island; member Presbyterian Church.

Married May 23, 1892, in New York City, Celestine, daughter of Augustine and Emilie (Raberg) Noel. One daughter, Emilie Noel, the wife of William H. Appleton (B.A. Harvard 1906).

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Green-Wood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, daughter, four grandchildren, and two sisters, Emilie Johnston deForest, the widow of Robert W. deForest, '70, and Eva Johnston Coe, the wife of Henry E. Coe, '78.

Charles Sumner Miller, B.A. 1877.

Born June 2, 1856, in Hornellsville, N.Y.
Died April 30, 1932, in Brooklyn, N.Y.

Father, Josiah Conger Miller; in real estate and fire insurance business; son of Abraham Miller, of Elizabeth, N. J. Mother, Emeline (Gibbs) Miller.
Yale Obituary Record

LL.B. Columbia 1879; admitted to New York Bar in May, 1879; clerk and office assistant in law offices of Hall, Brown & Westcott in New York City 1879-1882; had since practiced law in New York; associated in practice with Daniel D. Sherman and Gerritt Smith, both '77, 1909-1921; former vice-president of Patria Club of New York; member First Congregational Church, Chappaqua, N. Y.; secretary of Class of 1877 since 1912.

John Proctor Clarke, B.A. 1878.

Born April 23, 1856, in Florence, Italy.

Died January 12, 1932, in New York City.

Father, Isaac Edwards Clarke, '55; son of Isaac and Harriet (Amsden) Clarke, of Northampton, Mass. Mother, Mary Louise (Proctor) Clarke; daughter of Rev. David Choate Proctor (B.A. Dartmouth 1818; graduate Andover Theological Seminary 1821) and Frances Watkins (Nantz) Proctor, of Frankfort, Ky. Yale relatives include. David C. and John Proctor, both '54 (uncles); and Henry G. Hayes, 3d, '27 (nephew).

Hopkins Grammar School and a tutor, Josiah Clark (B.A. 1833), in Northampton Third prize in English composition Sophomore year, Townsend Premium Senior year; on Class Crew four years (captain Junior and Senior years); substitute on University Crew; member Class Cup Committee, Linonia, Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, and Delta Kappa Epsilon, graduate member Wolf's Head.

Studied law in office of T. G. Spaulding, Northampton, 1878-1880; admitted to Massachusetts Bar October 27, 1880; assistant United States district attorney for Southern District of New York 1881-86; member of law firm of Hascall, Clarke & Vanderpoel, New York, 1886-1895, assistant corporation counsel of New York City 1895-97; practiced law independently in New York 1897-1900; deputy attorney general of New York 1900; in December, 1900, appointed by Governor Roosevelt to fill vacancy on bench of New York Supreme Court; elected for full term 1901 and re-elected 1916; assigned to Appellate Division of Supreme Court 1905 and served as justice in that division until retirement for age limit 1926 (presiding justice from 1916); practiced law in New York as member of firm of Clarke & Kresel 1927–1930; appointed official referee for life of Appellate Division of Supreme Court of New York January 1, 1930; LL.D. 1917; president of 21st Assembly Republican District 1892 and of West Side Republican Club 1899–1901; vice-president of Republican Club of City of New York 1896 (chairman of executive committee 1895); delegate to many Republican conventions; vice-president of Union League Club of New York 1905–07 and 1927–29 (chairman executive committee 1904; on admissions committee 1899–1901 and chairman 1901); vice-commodore of Larchmont Yacht Club 1908, 1911, and 1915–19; member American and New York State Bar associations, New York County Lawyers Association, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York (vice-president 1928–1930); member committee of the University of New York Yale Club 1927–28 and advisory committee of Class of 1878 since 1928.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Old Burying Ground, Northampton. Survived by wife, son, two grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Henry Hayes, of San Francisco.

Frederick Benjamin Lathrop, B.A. 1878.

Born May 12, 1854, in Springfield, Mass.
Died June 11, 1932, at Long Beach, Calif.

Father, Benjamin Lathrop, a lawyer in Stafford, Conn; son of Roland and Hannah (Craft) Lathrop, of Tolland, Conn. Mother, Mary Jane (Ladd) Lathrop; daughter of Ariel and Mary (Winchell) Ladd, of Tolland.

Wilbraham (Mass.) Academy and Greenwich (R. I.) Academy. Second colloquy appointment Junior year; member Linonia, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, and Hé Boulé.

Taught 1878–1881, and was principal of North Manchester (Conn) High School 1880-81; during that period read law in the office of Benezet H. Bill '54 L., in Rockville, Conn.; admitted to Connecticut and Tolland County bars 1881; admitted to Minnesota
Bar in August, 1882, and practiced law in Minneapolis until about 1907; then went to San Francisco and made that city his headquarters for ten years, while engaged in mining operations in various parts of California, since 1921 had resided at Long Beach.

Married March 31, 1886, in Holyoke, Mass., Lodicea, daughter of John and Mary Lathrop (Little) Merrick. No children.

Death due to diabetes mellitus. Interment in Sunnyside Ma-soleum, Long Beach. Survived by wife and a sister, Miss Mary E.
Lathrop, of Long Beach.

Edmund Roderick Terry, B.A. 1878.

Born June 11, 1856, in Brooklyn, N.Y.
Died April 5, 1932, in Brooklyn, N.Y.

Father, Edmund Terry (B.A. 1837); son of Roderick and Harriet (Taylor) Terry, of Hartford, Conn. Mother, Anne (Prentice) Terry; daughter of John Hill and Sarah Nichols (Davis) Prentice, of Brookylyn. Yale relatives include Rev. John Taylor (B.A. 1784) (great-grandfather), Henry W. Taylor (B.A. 1816) (great-uncle); Roderick Terry, ex-1840 (uncle); Henry T. Terry, '69, Rev. Roderick Terry,
D.D., '70, John T. Terry, '79, Charles P. Kellogg, ex-'97, Prentice Strong, '01, and Theron R. Strong, '03 (first cousins); and Wyllys
Terry, Jr., '31 (nephew).

College Grammar School, Brooklyn (principal, Rev. Levi W.
Hart, '46) Entered Yale with Class of 1877; joined Class of 1878 in spring of 1876; took part in Sophomore play at Thanksgiving Jubilee
1874 and in Junior play 1877; secretary of Yale Athletic Association Senior year, member Linonia, Delta Kappa, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Studied law at Dwight Law School (later merged with Columbia Law School), New York, 1878-79; admitted to New York Bar 1880 and practiced law in New York until his death; associated in practice with his father until 1890 and later with his brother, Eliphalet B.
Terry, '88, for a time; member First Ward Democratic Association
1880 and later chairman of committee on organization of General Democratic Committee of Kings County; member New York Assembly 1908 and 1910; author. Votes for Women—Why? (1917) and The Universal Language and Other Poems (1932); wrote a play, "The Matchmaker," which was produced at Criterion Theatre, Brooklyn, 1888, contributor to Century, Scribner's, The Independent, St.
Nicholas, and Tidbits (London); deacon of Spencer Memorial Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, since 1902

Unmarried.

Death due to indigestion followed by heart failure. Buried in Green-Wood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by a sister, Miss Marion J. Terry, of Brooklyn, and four brothers, John P. Terry, ’84 S., Wyllys Terry, ’85, George D. Terry, ’92, and James T. Terry, of New York City. His brother, Rev. Eliphalet B. Terry, died in 1922

George Lester Lewis, B.A. 1879.

Born May 31, 1857, in Buffalo, N.Y.

Died April 26, 1932, in Manhasset, N.Y.

Father, Loran Ludowick Lewis; member of law firm of Lewis & Gurney, Buffalo; a justice of New York Supreme Court; New York state senator; son of John Case and Delecta (Barber) Lewis, of East Aurora, N.Y. Mother, Charlotte Eliza (Pierson) Lewis; daughter of Gordon and Nancy (Ford) Pierson, of East Aurora, N.Y. Yale relatives include two nephews, Austin Roe Preston, ’18, and Julian L. Kahle, ’19.

Briggs Preparatory School, Buffalo. Second dispute appointment Junior year; second colloquy appointment Senior year, member College Choir, Glee Club, Junior Promenade Committee, Linoma, Delta Kappa, Adelphoi, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Studied law in his father’s office in Buffalo 1879–1881 and admitted to New York Bar; practiced law in Buffalo 1881–1908; in partnership with his father in firm of Lewis, Moot & Lewis 1882; member of firm of Lewis & Moot 1883–89, of Lewis, Moot & Lewis (in which his brother, Loran L. Lewis, Jr., Williams ’87, was also a member) 1889–1894, and of Lewis & Lewis 1894–1908; practiced law in New York City from 1908 until retirement about 1927; trustee of Buffalo Trust Company; president of Buffalo & Williamsville and Buffalo, Batavia & Rochester Electric Railway companies for a number of years; made an elder in Westminster Presbyterian Church, Buffalo, 1894 and trustee 1898; later member Brick Presbyterian Church, New York City.

Married May 31, 1883, in Buffalo, Nellie Augusta, daughter of Joseph Buffum and Phebe Eliza (Webster) Sweet. Children: Lester Sweet, ’07; Marjory (B.A. Smith ’08), the wife of Emerson Comings, Oxford University; Jessica, Smith ex-’10, the wife of George F. Coope (E.M. Columbia 1916); and Clement Buffum, ’18 and ’27 Art.

Death due to heart failure. Cremation took place at U.S. Crematory, Fresh Pond, Long Island. Survived by wife, two daughters, two sons, nine grandchildren, and two sisters, Elizabeth L. Preston, the widow of Austin R. Preston, ’83, of East Aurora, N. Y., and Mrs. Francis N. Kahle, Wellesley ex-'82, of Buffalo

Born January 17, 1857, in Rossville, Ind
Died December 27, 1931, in Washington, D. C.

Father, James Joel Bott Perrin; founder and president of Perrin National Bank of Lafayette, Ind.; son of Solomon Perrin, Jr., and Sarah Neal (Bott) Perrin, of Salem, Va. Mother, Margaret Neil (Cason) Perrin; daughter of Judge Samuel Cason and Margaret (Burckhalter) Cason, of Thorntown, Ind. Yale relatives include: Bernadotte Perrin, ’69 (brother-in-law); Lee J. Perrin, ’06, and Lester W. Perrin, ’08 (nephews).

Lafayette (Ind.) High School. Attended Wabash College one year (1874-75) as member of Class of 1878. Second dispute appointment Junior year; second colloquy appointment Senior year; member Freshman Class Supper Committee, Sophomore German Committee, Junior Promenade Committee (floor manager), Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Hé Boulé, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Senior partner in firm of Perrin Brothers (wholesale hardware), Lafayette (in which his brother, William H. Perrin, ex-'79, was his partner), 1879-1889, studied banking methods in Europe 1889-1890; vice-president of Perrin National Bank of Lafayette 1890-99; in 1900 organized American National Bank of Indianapolis, of which he was president until its merger with Fletcher National Bank 1910; chairman of board of Fletcher-American National Bank, Indianapolis, 1910-12, in 1906 chosen member of Currency Commission of American Bankers' Association, whose work led to enactment of Federal Reserve Act in 1913 (prior to its enactment, spent six weeks in Washington at request of Republican senators for consultation and as banking advisor), moved to California 1912; upon establishment of Federal Reserve System in 1914, appointed chairman of the board and agent of Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco, which he helped to organize, and served as such until his resignation in 1926; represented Yale Alumni Association of Indiana on Alumni Board from its organization in 1906 until 1912 (member of executive committee); vice-president of Yale Alumni Association of Northern California in 1917, had published reports on various California industries and a pamphlet entitled Trade Fluctuations and Panics (published by National Citizens' League); Presbyterian.

Married October 3, 1883, in Indianapolis, Ellenor Cathcart Bates,

Death due to myocarditis and acute cardiac dilatation. Buried in Crown Hill Cemetery, Indianapolis. Survived by wife, one son, a grandson (John Bates Perrin), and his brother, William H. Perrin. Another brother, James H. Perrin, '95, died in 1898.

Wilmore Anway, B.A. 1880.

Born April 26, 1854, in Newark, N. J.
Died December 1, 1931, in Scarsdale, N. Y.

Father, Warren Horton Anway, of Florida, N. Y. Mother, Sarah (Sanford) Anway; daughter of Joseph and Ann (Rydner) Sanford, of New Jersey.

Prepared for college in part by himself and partly under Samuel S. Hartwell, '59, in Unionville, N. Y. Taught at Lewisburg, N. Y., one year before entering Yale. Second colloquy appointment Junior year; member Gamma Nu and Psi Upsilon.

Taught Greek and Latin in a private school in New York City 1880-81; studied law at Columbia 1881-83 (LL.B. 1883); managing clerk in office of Jordan & Hodges, New York City, 1883-84; had since practiced law independently in New York; president and counsel of Citizens’ Savings & Loan Association of New York 1892-1924, Presbyterian.

Married November 17, 1883, in New York City, Clara, daughter of Calvin Huson (B.A. Hobart 1845) and Catherine (Miller) Huson Children: Catherine (died in infancy); Raymond (died in infancy); Stewart (Mrs. Henry A. Maurer, Jr.); Clare; Wilmore, Jr. (died in childhood); and Warren (died in infancy).

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Warwick Cemetery, Warwick, N. Y. Survived by wife and two daughters.

William Cooper Asay, B.A. 1880.

Born June 28, 1857, in Chicago, Ill.
Died June 23, 1932, in Chicago, Ill.

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the OBITUARY RECORD.
Yale Obituary Record

Willis Benner, B.A. 1880.

Born August 6, 1858, in Astoria, N.Y.
Died May 5, 1932, in Bronxville, N.Y.

Father, Robert Benner (B.A. 1842); son of Jacob and Margaret (Feroe) Benner, of Red Hook, N.Y. Mother, Mary VanAntwerp (Shaw) Benner, daughter of William and Elizabeth (VanAntwerp) Shaw, of New York City. Yale relatives include three nephews Winthrop M Crane, Jr., '04, Edward W. Benner, '10 S., and Charles VanA Benner, ex-'16 S.

Hopkins Grammar School Member Delta Kappa and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

LL B. Columbia 1882; practiced law in New York City from 1882 until 1902; with exception of three years (1883-86), when engaged in mercantile business in Minneapolis, Minn., with the firm of Benner Brothers; practiced in his father's office 1882-83, associated with Holt & Butler 1886-87, and in partnership with his brother, Charles Benner, '76, under firm name of Benner & Benner 1888-1902; engaged in real estate business in New York from 1902 until retirement in October, 1930, member New York Bar; attended Christ Church (Episcopal), Bronxville, N.Y.

Death due to coronary thrombosis and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by wife, three sons, two daughters, two grandchildren, and a brother, Franklin Benner, ex-'73 Special S. His brother, Charles Benner, died in 1918.

Norris Galpin Osborn, B.A. 1880.

Born April 17, 1858, in New Haven, Conn.
Died May 6, 1932, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Minott Augur Osborn; owner, manager, and editor of New Haven Evening Register; collector of the Port of New Haven; railway commissioner and member of board of road commissioners of New Haven; director and treasurer of New Haven Water Company, Major, 2d Regiment, Connecticut National Guard (member New Haven Grays); son of Eli and Elizabeth (Augur) Osborn, of Hopkins Grammar School. Entered Yale with Class of 1879; joined Class of 1880 in 1876; on Class Crew three years; an editor of Yale Record Junior and Senior years; one of three editors of Yale Index in 1879; chairman of Junior Promenade; a Class historian; member College Glee Club (president Senior year), Thanksgiving Jubilee Committee, Delta Kappa, Hé Boulé, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Had been engaged in newspaper work since graduation; with New Haven Evening Register 1880–1907, as a reporter 1880–84 and then as editor-in-chief and general manager; editor-in-chief of New Haven Journal-Courier since 1907; special contributor to Sunday edition of New York Herald under pen name “Trumbull” for about twenty-five years; editor of Men of Mark in Connecticut (1906–1910) and History of Connecticut in Monograph Form (1925); author: A Glance Backward (1905), Mortaruts of Yale (1912), and Isaac H Bromley (1920); contributor to Independent and Yale Alumni Weekly; Bromley lecturer on journalism at Yale 1919–1920, honorary M.A. Yale 1886; member of board of directors of Connecticut State Prison since 1895 and president of the board since 1912 (chairman of Board of Parole since 1917); active in Connecticut Civil Service Reform Association and its successor, Connecticut Civic Association, as member of executive committee for many years; vice-president of Connecticut Sound Money League 1896; vice-chairman of Connecticut division of Association against the Eighteenth Amendment 1931; delegate to Connecticut Constitutional Convention and to Democratic National Convention 1892; aide-de-camp, with rank of Colonel, on staff of Governor Thomas M. Waller of Connecticut 1883–85; during World War, member of Home Guard, recruiting officer for 102d Infantry, 26th Division, chairman of New Haven Fuel Conservation Commission, an alien property custodian, Four-Minute Man, and member of county auxiliary committee of State Council of Defense; Connecticut committee of American Historical Research Fund, Sons of the American Revolution, and Founders and Patriots of America; elected honorary member Association of the Army of the United States 1925; president of Graduates Club of New Haven 1926-28; and of Associated New England Yale Clubs 1921-22; secretary of Class of 1880 from 1910 until June, 1930, and secretary-emeritus since then; vestryman of St. John's Episcopal Church 1896-1903.

Married December 27, 1881, in New York City, Kate Louise, daughter of Rev. Charles Huntington Gardner (B.A. Williams 1847 and M.A. 1851; Ph D. Hamilton 1863) and Laura (Chamberlain) Gardner. Children: Innis Gardner, ex-80 L.; Minott Augur, '07; Dorothy, the wife of Ernest M. Bristol, '07; Gardner, '15; and Katherine, the wife of Chandler Bennitt, '15, '17 L. Mrs. Osborn died March 3, 1932.

Death due to arteriosclerosis and gangrene of leg. Cremation took place and ashes were buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by three sons, two daughters, eleven grandchildren, one great-grandchild, and a sister, Mrs. Frank Elwood Brown, of New Haven.

Born August 1, 1857, in Richmond, Ky.
Died March 10, 1932, in Atlantic City, N. J.

Public schools in Richmond; attended Central University, Richmond, 1874-76. President of Football Association Senior year; member Gamma Nu, Hé Boulé, and Psi Upsilon.

LL.B. 1882; clerk in law office of Robert W. deForest, '70, New York City, 1882-83, practiced law in Richmond 1883-84 and in Louisville, Ky., 1884-87, as a partner in firm of Chenault & Walker; traveled abroad 1887-88; practiced law in New York with James R. Ely, '82, under firm name of Ely & Walker from 1888 until 1895, when he gave up practice on account of ill health; had since made his home in Richmond, director of State Bank & Trust Company of Richmond 1912-15.

Married October 29, 1901, in Louisville, Texie, daughter of William Orville and Texie (Macpherson) Woodson. No children.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Richmond Cemetery. Survived by wife, a brother, J. Stone Walker, of Louisville, and a sister, Mrs. Leonard C. Hanna, of Cleveland, Ohio.
Ten Eyck Wendell, B.A. 1880.

Born November 7, 1857, in Cazenovia, N. Y.
Died February 3, 1932, in New York City.

Father, Benjamin Rush Wendell, a lawyer in Cazenovia; son of Dr. Peter Wendell and Elizabeth (VanKleeck) Wendell, of Albany, N. Y. Mother, Margaret Ten Eyck (Burr) Wendell; daughter of William Morchlar and Catherine (Ten Eyck) Burr, of Cazenovia.

Cazenovia Seminary. Second colloquy appointment Junior and Senior years; member Class Supper Committee Senior year, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, and Psi Upsilon.

LL.B. Columbia 1882; admitted to New York Bar 1882 and practiced law in New York with his brother, B. Rush Wendell, '78, under name of Wendell & Wendell until 1891; subsequently occupied with law and insurance matters, although with no regular office; lived in Washington, D. C., 1905–1917; president of Yale Club of Washington 1915; member League for Free Trade, Anti-Saloon League, Holland Society, St. Nicholas Society, and First Presbyterian Church, Cazenovia.

Married June 1, 1898, in New York City, Mary Dwight, daughter of Edward and Mary Otis Alger (Tyler) Foote. One son, Ten Eyck, Jr. (University of Virginia ex-'22; LL.B. New York University 1925).

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Cazenovia. Survived by wife, son, and brother.

Benjamin Wisner Bacon, B.A. 1881.

Born January 15, 1860, in Litchfield, Conn.
Died February 1, 1932, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Rev. Leonard Woolsey Bacon (B.A. 1850, M.D. 1856, D.D. 1879); son of Rev. Leonard Bacon (B.A. 1820; D.D. Hamilton 1843; LL.D. Harvard 1870) and Lucy (Johnson) Bacon, of New Haven and Boston. Mother, Susan (Bacon) Bacon; daughter of Nathaniel Almoran and Almira (Selden) Bacon, of Lyme, Conn. Yale relatives include: Benjamin W. Bacon, '47 (uncle); Theodore Bacon, '53 (uncle), and his sons, Henry Selden Bacon, '93, and Leonard B. Bacon, '96; Francis Bacon, '53 M., and Rev. George B. Bacon, '56 (uncles); Eugene Smith, '59 (uncle), and his sons, Leonard B. Smith, '94, and Winthrop D. Smith, '96; Rev. Edward W. Bacon, '69 D., and Rev. Thomas R. Bacon, '72 (uncles); Alfred T. Bacon, '73 (uncle), his sons, Roger T. Bacon, ex-'11 S., and Alfred H. T. Bacon, '14, and his daughter, Agnes W. Bacon, '24 Art; and Leonard Bacon, '09, Wallace G. Corwin, '17, Leonard W. Bacon, ex-'17, and Selden D. Bacon, '31 (nephews). Hopkins Grammar School, Coburg Gymnasium, Germany, and College de Genève, Switzerland. First Berkeley Premium in Latin composition Freshman year; first dispute appointment Junior and Senior years; second Winthrop Prize Junior year and Townsend Premium Senior year; member Freshman Football Team; substitute on University Football Team Junior year and member Senior year; member Yale Orchestra; graduate member Elihu Club (elected 1916).

Married May 27, 1884, in Norwich, Conn., Eliza Buckingham, daughter of William Appleton and Eliza Coit (Buckingham) Aiken, and sister of Alfred L. Aiken, ’91. Children: Dorothy Buckingham, ex-’09 Art, the wife of Heathcote M. Woolsey, ’07; and Benjamin Selden (B.A. 1911, LL.B. 1916).

Death due to coronary thrombosis. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, daughter, son, four grandchildren, four sisters, Margaret W. Corwin, the wife of Professor Robert N. Corwin, ’87, S. Almira Bacon (Ph.D. 1911), Mabel G. Ripley, the wife of Philip F. Ripley, ’97, and Elizabeth R. Greene, the wife of Prescott M. Greene, ’03 S., two brothers, Selden Bacon, ex-’83, and Leonard W. Bacon, ’88 and ’92 M., and a half brother, David L. Bacon, ’16 S. His oldest brother, Nathaniel T. Bacon, ’79 S., died in 1926, and another brother, Rev. Theodore D. Bacon, ’83 S., in 1930.

Otis Hayford Briggs, B.A. 1881.

Born September 30, 1858, in Auburn, Maine.
Died February 13, 1932, in Minneapolis, Minn.

Father, Robert Perkins Briggs, a manufacturer, contractor, and farmer; son of John and Esther (Allen) Briggs, of Auburn. Mother, Susan Tufts (Bisbee) Briggs; daughter of Horatio and Eunice (White) Bisbee, of Sumner, Maine.

Auburn public schools. Second prize in mathematics Freshman year; oration appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; member of Class Crew and substitute on University Crew, engaged in track athletics; member Senior Debating Society and Kappa Sigma Epsilon.

LL.B 1883; practiced law in Minneapolis as member of firm of Stillman & Briggs 1884-89, law editor of National Reporter System of West Publishing Company of St. Paul from 1889 until retirement 1929; member of Company I, 1st Regiment, Minnesota National Guard 1889-1900.

Married December 22, 1908, in St. Paul, Martha Lydia, daughter of Charles Frederick and Marie Frances (Siemers) Heers No children

Death due to carcinoma of the stomach. Buried in Lakewood Cemetery, Minneapolis Survived by wife and two brothers, John H Briggs, '85, and Frederick A. Briggs, of Washington, D.C.

Howard Junior Curtis, B.A. 1881.

Born June 29, 1857, in Stratford, Conn.
Died September 24, 1931, in Stratford, Conn.

Father, Freeman Lewis Curtis, a farmer; son of Freeman and Anna (Peck) Curtis, of Stratford. Mother, Georgianna (Howard) Curtis, daughter of William M. and Elizabeth (Allen) Howard, of New York City.

Sedgwick English and Classical School, Stratford. First colloquy appointment Junior and Senior years; member Class Baseball Team.

Principal of a graded school in Chatham, Va, 1881-82; studied in Yale School of Law 1882-83 (LL.B 1883); admitted to Connecticut Bar June 27, 1883; practiced law in Bridgeport, Conn., in office of Amos Treat summer of 1883 and in partnership with his classmate, George W. Wheeler, under firm name of Wheeler & Curtis 1883-1893, judge of Court of Common Pleas for Fairfield County 1893-1907, of Superior Court of Connecticut 1907-1920, and of Supreme Court of Errors of Connecticut from 1920 until retirement at age limit June 29, 1927; had since been state referee; member Connecticut State Board of Pardons 1922-27, Stratford Board of Education 1894-1906 (chairman 1902-05), and board of Public Library since 1900 (president since 1916); president of Bridgeport Bar Association 1902-03; chairman of library committee of Fairfield County Bar Association 1901-1928; contributed to Yale Law Journal; attended Christ Episcopal Church Married June 5, 1888, in Stratford, Ellen Virginia, daughter of George Augustus and Sarah Abigail (Dorchester) Talbot. Children. Howard Wheeler (B.A. 1912, LL.B. 1915) (died in 1920); Violetta (B.A. Smith 1926), the wife of Robert Brown, '29; and John Talbot (graduate of United States Military Academy 1920; LL.B. 1926).

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Union Cemetery, Stratford. Survived by wife, one son, daughter, two grandchildren, a brother, Lee L. Curtis, of Stratford, and two sisters, Miss Alice E. Curtis, of Stratford, and Mrs. Elmer H. Havens, of Bridgeport.

George Marsh Judd, B.A. 1881.

Born February 17, 1861, in Bridgeport, Conn.
Died February 29, 1932, in New York City.

Father, Andrews Benjamin Judd, a carriage manufacturer in Bridgeport; son of Andrews Benjamin Judd, of Bethel, Conn. Mother, Caroline Polly (Marsh) Judd; daughter of George and Betsey (Hill) Marsh, of New Milford, Conn.

Prepared for college under private tutors. Second dispute appointment Junior and Senior years; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

LL.B. Columbia 1883; admitted to New York State Bar 1884, practiced law in New York from 1884 until death, attorney in office of Title Guarantee & Trust Company 1887-1890; member of firm of Fallows, Judd & Miller 1899-1914; secretary and assistant general counsel for American Brake Shoe & Foundry Company and subsidiaries since 1914; author: Collateral Inheritance and Transfer Tax Law (1903) and supplement (1905); member New York County Lawyers' Association and National Republican Club (member of committee on state affairs since 1920).

Married November 30, 1898, in Brooklyn, N. Y., Ida Benfey (B.L. University of California 1883), daughter of Louis and Delia (Castle) Benfey, of Detroit, Mich. No children.

Death due to a heart attack. Buried in Ferncliff Mausoleum, Hartsdale, N. Y. Survived by wife

Willis Betts Sterling, B.A. 1881.

Born April 20, 1859, in Meadville, Pa.
Died May 24, 1932, in Erie, Pa.

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.
Martin Smith Allen, B.A. 1882.

Born February 12, 1860, in New York City.
Died January 10, 1932, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Father, William Lafayette Allen, a commission merchant, member of firm of William L. Allen & Company, New York City; son of Zachariah and Charlotte (Woodford) Allen, of Ashford, Conn. Mother, Lydia Waterman (Smith) Allen, daughter of Martin and Lydia (Waterman) Smith, of North Scituate, R. I. Yale relatives include two nephews William N. Allen, 'ex-12, and John P. Allen, '17 S.

Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. Member Delta Kappa and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Traveled abroad extensively after graduation; partner in the firm of William L. Allen & Company (commission merchants in dried fruits and California products) from 1895 until retirement from active business upon liquidation of the firm 1919; member Brooklyn Board of Education, District No 27, 1905-07 (chairman 1907); member Republican County Committee and general committee of Republican Party for a number of years; frequent delegate to Republican State conventions, a governor of 10th Assembly District Republican Club; member Sons of the American Revolution (a governor since 1905), Founders and Patriots of America, and Society of Colonial Wars, attended Presbyterian Church.

Married (1) November 11, 1896, in Meriden, Conn, Etta Lyman, daughter of Henry and Josephine (Lyman) Warren. Mr. and Mrs. Allen were divorced about 1900. Married (2) February 21, 1914, in Brooklyn, Caroline Catherine, daughter of Francis T. J. and Catharine (Cekershausen) Murphy, of Washington, D. C. One daughter, Carol Smith.

Born August 23, 1859, in Cincinnati, Ohio.
Died September 20, 1931, in Orange, N. J.

Father, Rev. Henry Martyn Storrs (B.A. Amherst 1846; Andover Theological Seminary 1851; D.D. Western Reserve 1864, LL.D. Western Reserve 1888), pastor of Congregational churches in Lawrence, Mass., Cincinnati, and Brooklyn and of Presbyterian Church, Orange, N. J.; trustee of Marietta College; son of Rev. Charles Backus Storrs (Princeton ex-1814; Andover Theological Seminary 1820), first president of Western Reserve University, and Vashti Maria (Pierson) Storrs, of Ravenna and Hudson, Ohio. Mother, Catherine (Hitchcock) Storrs; daughter of President Edward Hitchcock of Amherst College (honorary M.A. 1818; LL.D. Harvard 1840; D.D. Middlebury 1846) and Orra (White) Hitchcock, of Amherst, Mass. Yale relatives include. Rev. John Storrs (B.A. 1756) (great-great-grandfather); Rev. Richard S. Storrs (B.A. 1783) (great-grandfather); Rev. Richard S. Storrs (honorary M.A. 1865) (great-uncle); and Richard S. Storrs, Jr., '32 (nephew).

Williston Academy. Two first prizes in English composition Sophomore year; first colloquy appointment Junior year and divided first prize at Junior Exhibition; second dispute appointment and Scott Prize in German Senior year; an editor of Tale Courant Senior year; on Freshman Crew and University Crew four years; member University Football Team three years, Sigma Kappa Epsilon, Eta Phi, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

LL.B. Columbia 1884; during course there taught Latin and Greek in a private school in New York 1882-83 and was clerk in law office of McFarland, Reynolds & Lowrie 1883-84; admitted to New York Bar in June, 1884; clerk in law office of Chamberlain, Carter & Hornblower (Daniel H. Chamberlain, '62), New York, 1884-85; exchange professor of Anglo-American law at University of Tokyo 1885-89; practiced law in New York City 1890-95; admitted to New Jersey Bar in June, 1894, and practiced law in Orange until retirement from active practice 1926; judge of Orange District Court 1896-1906; member New Jersey Legislature 1894 and 1895 (Republican leader of the House second term); president of Orange Savings Bank since 1900 and its counsel since 1899, director of American Type Founders Company since 1913; trustee of First Presbyterian Church, Orange, since 1919.

Married December 15, 1897, in Orange, Gertrude Maria Cleveland (B.A. Vassar 1887), daughter of George and Susan Lucy (Cory) Cleveland, and sister of Guy C. Cleveland, '08. One son, Cleveland Hitchcock, '23.

Death due to acute intestinal obstruction caused by carcinoma. Buried in Rosedale Cemetery, Orange. Survived by wife, son, one grandchild, a brother, Richard S. Storrs, '85, and a sister, Miss Katharine Storrs, of Orange.
Frank Herbert Beede, B.A. 1883.

Born February 15, 1859, in Dover, N. H.
Died March 15, 1932, in Woodbridge, Conn.

Father, Augustus Hoag Beede, a mechanic; son of John and Tamson Beede, of Dover. Mother, Abbie Elizabeth (Hopkinson) Beede, daughter of Moses and Elizabeth (Hamlin) Hopkinson, of Buxton, Maine.

Dover High School. First dispute appointment Junior year; dissertation appointment Senior year; member '83 six-oared Barge Crew Junior year, '83 eight-oared Shell Crew Junior and Senior years, Dunham Boat Club, Class Tug-of-war Team, and Gamma Nu.

Married October 24, 1884, in East Northport, Maine, Clara May, daughter of Rev. Leander Samuel Coan (graduate Bangor Theological Seminary 1862) and Faustina (Knowlton) Coan. Children: Victor Augustus, '10 and '12 F.; and Faustina Knowlton (B.A. Vassar 1922), the wife of Charles H. Johnson, '20 S.

Death due to uremia and acute nephritis. Buried in Milford Side Cemetery, Woodbridge. Survived by wife, son, daughter, three grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Henry South, of East Braintree, Mass.
Robert Harrison Cornish, B.A. 1883.

Born September 13, 1857, in Gillette, N. J.
Died April 17, 1932, in Gillette, N. J.

Father, Robert Noah Cornish, a farmer in Morris County, N. J.; teacher in Barrytown, N. Y., and Orange, N. J.; son of Robert Bates and Rachel (Gillette) Cornish, of Westville, N. Y. Mother, Phebe Selina (Harrison) Cornish; daughter of Rev. Abraham Harrison (B.A. Princeton 1797 and M.A. 1816) and Phebe (Crowell) Harrison, of Orange.

Prepared for college by private tutor in Madison, N. J., and at Phillips-Andover. Dissertation appointment Junior and Senior years; a Class statistician; member Delta Kappa.

Engaged in teaching from graduation until retirement in 1928; taught mathematics and science at Park Institute, Rye, N. Y., 1883–84, Robbins Classical School, Norfolk, Conn., 1884–86, Montclair (N. J.) High School 1886–1892, and Morgan Park Academy, Chicago, 1892–97; head of Department of Physics at Wadleigh High School, New York City, 1897–1928; M.A. Yale 1887; had contributed to New York School Journal, School Review, and School Science and Mathematics (associate editor 1906–1916); member Sons of the American Revolution and Broadway Tabernacle Church (Congregational), New York City.

Married August 16, 1888, in New Haven, Conn., Ida Galpin Skilton (B.A. Smith 1884), daughter of Otis Avery and Adeline Maria (Sanford) Skilton, and sister of Charles S. Skilton, '89. Children: Margaret Beach (B.A. Mount Holyoke 1912), the wife of Bradley G. Bissell (B.A. Oberlin 1906); Ruth Harrison (B.A. Mount Holyoke 1914) (Mrs. Harold A. Smith); and Robert Sanford, '16. Mrs. Cornish died November 6, 1930.

Death due to chronic myocarditis and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Baptist Church Cemetery, Millington, N. J. Survived by two daughters, son, four grandchildren, three sisters, Miss Selina R. Cornish and Miss Charlotte H. Cornish (B.S. Columbia 1907), both of Gillette, and Emma C. Freeman, the wife of Ralph Freeman (B.A. Amherst 1905), of Maplewood, N. J., and two brothers, George A. Cornish, Cornell ex-’93, of Gillette, and Abram H. Cornish (B.A. Harvard 1895), of Maplewood. Another brother, William A. Cornish, '87, died in 1931.
John Franklin Crowell, B.A. 1883.

Born November 1, 1857, in York, Pa.
Died August 6, 1931, in East Orange, N. J.

Union Seminary, New Berlin, Pa. Attended Dartmouth in 1878 and 1879–1880 (member Kappa Kappa Kappa). Changed his name to Crowell about the time he left Dartmouth. Entered Yale as a Sophomore in 1880, second colloquy appointment Junior year; first colloquy appointment Senior year.

Principal of Schuylkill Seminary, Fredericksburg, Pa. (now Albright College, Reading), 1883–84 and 1886–87; studied in Yale Divinity School 1884–86 and in Yale Graduate School 1885–86 (Lamed scholar); during that period made special study of child labor in Rhode Island, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, and Virginia and contributed results to the Andover Review; president of Trinity College (now Duke University), Durham, N. C., and also professor of economics and social science and history 1887–1894; acclaimed a deacon of Methodist Episcopal Church South at Winston-Salem, N. C., December 5, 1892; took graduate work at Columbia 1894–95 (Ph D 1897), professor of economics and sociology at Smith College and head of the department 1895–97, studied at University of Berlin 1897–98; superintendent of A. C. Clark Neighborhood House, New York City, 1899; expert agent for U. S. Industrial Commission 1899–1900; expert on internal commerce, Bureau of Statistics, U. S. Treasury Department, 1900–04; educational director of international correspondence at George Washington University 1904–05; associate editor of Wall Street Journal 1906–1915, executive officer of Chamber of Commerce of the State of New York 1915–17 and one of special commission of seven appointed by Mayor Mitchel of New York City to make a study of administration of tax laws of New York 1917; economist and financial statistician on special committee of departmental and field studies, Internal Revenue Office, Washington, 1917–19, director of World Market Institute of New York 1919–1925 and later of research in government war contracts for the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace; lecturer on economics and sociology at Columbia 1896–97, on international trade and commercial geography at George Washington University, Washington, 1903, and on world's commerce at College of the City of New York 1921; Arthur Lyman Fisk, B.A. 1883.

Born May 15, 1860, in St. Paul, Minn
Died October 8, 1931, in New York City

Father, Robert Farris Fisk (B.A. 1844; LL.B. Harvard 1846); son of William and Jane (Farriss) Fisk, of Cambridge, Mass. Mother, Narcissa Perry (Whittemore) Fisk; stepdaughter of S. J. Hitchcock. Yale relatives include: Dr. Samuel A. Fisk (B.A. 1844) (uncle); Dr. Samuel A. Fisk, '77 (brother); and Irving Paris, 2d, '15 (nephew).

Greylock Institute, Williamstown, Mass., and Williston Academy. First colloquy appointment Junior and Senior years; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon.
Began study of medicine at Harvard in September, 1883, but gave it up in December on account of ill health and spent the next year on a ranch near Denver, Colo.; sales clerk with C. A. Roberts & Company, hardware merchants, in Denver 1884–85; resumed study of medicine at Harvard 1885 and received degree of M.D. 1889; resident surgeon, Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston, 1888–1890, practiced medicine in New York City from 1890 until retirement 1925; instructor in surgery at Post-Graduate School and Hospital 1890–95; surgeon to Out-patient Department of New York Hospital 1893–1903; Babies Hospital 1900–07, and Trinity Hospital 1893–1916; assistant surgeon to General Memorial Hospital 1893–1900 and to Roosevelt Hospital 1899; on the staff of St. John’s Guild Seaside Hospital, New Dorp, Staten Island, since 1899; had served as treasurer, secretary, vice-president, and president of the Hospital Graduates Club; published numerous articles in medical journals; member American Medical Association, New York Academy of Medicine, Medical Society of the State of New York, Medical Society of New York County, New York Surgical Society, Massachusetts Medical Society, Harvard Medical Society of the City of New York, and Massachusetts Medical Society; fellow of American College of Surgeons.

Married February 14, 1900, in Baltimore, Md., Alice Bowie, daughter of Bernard Carter (B.A. St. James, Md., 1852; LL.B. Harvard 1854; LL.D. Trinity 1888) and Mary Buckner (Ridgely) Carter. Children: Arthur Lyman, Jr., ’23; Bernard Carter (died in childhood); and Shirley Carter, ’31.

Death due to interstitial nephritis. Buried in Ridgefield, Conn. Survived by wife, two sons, and a grandson.

Louis Kossuth Hull, B.A. 1883.

Born November 9, 1861, in Lebanon, Conn
Died November 22, 1931, in Minneapolis, Minn

Father, Charles Hull, a Commodore in the Navy; later engaged in farming, son of Christopher and Hannah Judith (Perry) Hull, of South Kingston, R I Mother, Lucy Lincoln (Perry) Hull; daughter of Benjamin and Lucy (Lincoln) Perry, of Windham, Conn. Yale relatives—Charles P. Hull, ’79 S. (brother); and Hadlai A. Hull, ’80 L. (first cousin).

Dr. Fitch's School, South Norwalk, Conn., and Hopkins Grammar School. Entered Yale with Class of 1882; joined Class of 1883 the next year, on Freshman Barge Crew 1878–79; substitute University Crew 1879–1880; on University Crew 1880–83 (captain 1882–83); on University Football Team five years; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Hé Boulé, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones.

LL.B. 1885 (on University Football Team two years; captain of University Crew 1883–84 and coach two years); United States district attorney for North Dakota at Bismarck 1885–87; city attorney of Bismarck 1886–87; practiced law in Minneapolis 1887–1922, specializing in corporation law; counsel for Security National Bank of Minneapolis and its successors, First and Security National Bank and First National Bank, since 1914; president of South Minnesota Lumber Company 1901; director and member of executive committee of McCloud River Lumber Company since 1921; vice-president of Carl L. Stewart Lumber Company and of Minnesota & Southeastern Railroad Company; vice-president and secretary of Diamond Boiler Works about 1915; receiver for Sleepy Eye Milling Company 1909–1911; chairman of Minnesota Democratic Central Committee 1888–1892; Colonel, 3d Minnesota Volunteers, during Spanish-American War; member St. Mark's Episcopal Church, Minneapolis.

Married December 12, 1892, in Minneapolis, Agnes Oliphant, daughter of William Woodbridge and Louise Caroline (Wilson) McNair. One daughter, Ruth Agnes (Mrs. Paul Lincoln Cornell) Mrs. Hull died November 20, 1922.

Death due to acute cardiac failure. Buried in Lakewood Cemetery, Minneapolis. Survived by daughter and two grandchildren.

Sherman Day Thacher, B.A. 1883.

Born November 6, 1861, in New Haven, Conn
Died August 5, 1931, in Santa Barbara, Calif.

Father, Thomas Anthony Thacher (B.A. 1835; LL.D. Western Reserve 1869); son of Peter and Anne (Parks) Thacher, of Hartford, Conn. Mother, Elizabeth Baldwin (Sherman) Thacher, daughter of Roger Sherman (B.A. 1787) and Susannah (Staples) Sherman, of New Haven. Yale relatives include: Roger Sherman (honorary M.A. 1768) (great-grandfather); Oliver Sherman and Stephen Thacher (both B.A. 1795), Seth P. Staples (B.A. 1797), Job Staples (B.A. 1808), and Sophos Staples (B.A. 1809) (great-uncles); Frederick R. Sherman (B.A. 1836), George Sherman (B.A. 1839), and Rev. George Thacher (B.A. 1840) (uncles); James K. Thacher, '68, Thomas Thacher, '71, Edward S. Thacher, '72, Alfred B. Thacher, '74, and John S. Thacher, '77 (half brothers); Dr. Henry C. Thacher, '02, Thomas D. Thacher, '04, Thomas A. Thacher, '08, Albert E. Kent,
Tale Obituary Record

Hopkins Grammar School. Second prize in English composition Sophomore year; oration appointment Junior year; dissertation appointment Senior year; an editor of the Yale Record; member Delta Kappa, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones Salesman for W. & J. Sloane, New York City, 1883-84; studied in Yale School of Law 1884-86 (LL.B cum laude 1886; Townsend Prize, John Addison Porter Prize, associated with law firm of Lathrop & Smith, Kansas City, Mo., 1886-87; went to California 1887 and took up 160 acres of government land and planted an orange grove, in 1889 founded the Thacher School at Ojai, Calif.; served as head master until retirement in June, 1931 (his brother, William L. Thacher, '87, associated with him from 1895); honorary M.A. Yale 1923, honorary charter member of Delta chapter of Phi Beta Kappa at Occidental College, Los Angeles, 1926; president of board of trustees of Nordhoff (Calif.) H.gh School 1908-1922; trustee of San Antonio District School 1898-1912; president of Headmasters' Association of Pacific Coast Private Schools for Boys 1930-31 and honorary member Headmasters' Association of Eastern Private Schools for Boys, chairman of standing committee of Ojai Board of Trade 1912, of executive committee of Ojai Valley Men's League 1910-1920, and of local Exemption Board for Ventura County (rank of Major) 1918; Four-Minute Man; director of Ojai Civic Association, on advisory committee of California Junior Republic 1920-1931, in charge of Topa Topa Orange Ranch, Ojai, since 1921; honorary trustee of National Society of Mental Hygiene; vice-president of Yale Club of Southern California 1918-19 and its representative on Alumni Board since 1920; member Yale Committee for Participation in the Restoration of the Library of the University of Louvain 1924; author Edward Tompkins McLaughlin, A Sketch (1894), member American Association for the Advancement of Science, American Academy of Arts and Sciences, and American Academy of Political and Social Science; had attended Ojai Valley Community (Presbyterian) Church since 1887.

Married June 24, 1896, in New Haven, Eliza Seely Blake (B.L. University of California 1895), daughter of Charles Thompson Blake (B.A. 1847) and Harriet Waters (Stiles) Blake, and granddaughter of Eli W. Blake (B.A. 1816). Children: Elizabeth (B.L. University of California 1920); three sons who died in infancy; George Blake, '25, B.S. Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1927;
Anson Stiles, '27; Helen Sherman (B.A. Smith 1930); Harriet Janet, Smith 1934; and Sherman Day, Jr
Death due to an operative shock. Survived by wife, three sons, three daughters, brother, and a sister, Elizabeth T. Kent, the widow of William Kent, '87.

John Elton Wayland, B.A. 1883.

Born October 26, 1860, in Waterbury, Conn.
Died February 27, 1932, in New York City.

Father, Chandler Norton Wayland
Mother, Lucy (Elton) Wayland.

General Russell's Collegiate and Commercial Institute, New Haven. First colloquy appointment Junior and Senior years; member Senior Promenade Committee, Delta Kappa, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.
Married December 9, 1886, in New York City, Mary Isabel, daughter of Thomas Lamson and Mary Elizabeth (Ely) Scovill
Two sons: Elton Scovill, '15, and Thomas Chandler, Williams ex-'19
Mrs Wayland died June 15, 1930
Buried in Stonington, Conn. Survived by sons, and three grandchildren.

Charles Halsted Yates, B.A. 1883.

- Born October 7, 1860, in Utica, N. Y.
Died December 30, 1931, in Carmel, Calif.

Father, Charles Alexander Yates; son of Abraham P. and Cornelia Yates. Mother, Emma Ames (Halsted) Yates.

St. John's Academy, Manlius, N. Y., and Holbrook's Military Academy, Ossining, N. Y. Entered Yale as a Sophomore in 1880; captain of Class Baseball Team; president of University Baseball and Intercollegiate Baseball associations Senior year; member Delta Kappa, Hé Boulé, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Wolf's Head.
Traveled abroad 1883-84; engaged in prospecting and sheep raising in Texas 1884-85, in wholesale clothing business in Syracuse with firm of T. Dissel & Company 1885-89 and in Utica with firm of Roberts, Butler & Company 1891-98; studied agriculture at Cornell 1898-99 (B.S.A. 1899); farm superintendent at Holderness, N. H., 1899-1900; manager of Walker-Gordon Laboratory 1900-07, at first in Boston and later in New York City and Philadelphia; consulting agriculturist in New York City 1907-1911 and again 1916-18; also carried on experimental agriculture on his farm in Huntington, N. Y., 1908-1910; instructor in Dairy Department of University of Illinois 1908-09; general manager of estate of Thomas F. Ryan at Oak Ridge, Va., 1911-16; vice-president and general manager of Liberty Farms Corporation, Corcoran, Calif., 1919-1921; consulting agriculturist at Carmel from 1921 until retirement 1924.

Death due to heart failure, had suffered a stroke of paralysis in February, 1930. Cremation took place at Santa Cruz, Calif., and ashes were buried in family plot in Utica. Survived by wife.

Fredson Herbert Dodge, B.A. 1884.

Born March 7, 1860, in Freedom, Maine.
Died February 20, 1932, in New Brunswick, N. J.

Father, James Henry Dodge. Mother, Isabel (Barstow) Dodge.

Bangor (Maine) High School. Captain of Class Crew three years; member Eta Phi and Psi Upsilon.

Engaged in manufacturing with Porter & Wooster (carriage hardware) in Somerville, Mass.; studied at the Harvard Summer School of Physical Education under Dudley A. Sargent, '78 M., during summers of 1887, 1888, and 1895; instructor in Y.M.C.A. gymnasium, Scranton, Pa.; instructor in physical training and director of the gymnasium at Bates College 1888-89; studied in Bowdoin Medical School 1889; director of the gymnasium in Bangor for a time and later engaged in manufacture of gymnasium apparatus and sporting goods in Waterville, Maine; taught physical training at the Athenæum Gymnasium, Chicago, 1892-93; director of gymnastics at the Harvard School, Chicago, 1893-94; director of the gymnasium and instructor in athletics at University of Illinois 1894-96; instructor in physical training at Rutgers College 1898-1913 and professor from 1913 until retirement in 1919, director of the Ballantine Gymnasium 1898-1919, made honorary member of Rutgers chapter of Phi Beta Kappa 1898; since retirement had engaged in amateur photography and had organized summer camps for boys; in 1907 had charge of Camp Five Islands on Schoodic Lake, near Bangor; former vice-president of Microscopical Society; member Second Reformed Church, New Brunswick.

Married June 4, 1892, in Bangor, Agnes Louise, daughter of Moses Mason and Louisa (Gould) Hastings, of Bethel, Maine. No children. Mrs. Dodge died October 10, 1925.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Dodge family plot in Bethel (Maine) Cemetery. Survived by a half brother, Frank Marston.

Frederic McLeod Barbour, B.A. 1885.

Born August 22, 1862, in Peabody, Mass.
Died January 20, 1932, in Richmond, Va.

Father, Rev. William McLeod Barbour (B.A. Oberlin 1859; Andover Theological Seminary; D.D. Bowdoin 1870; honorary M A. Yale 1877), Chittenden professor of divinity at Yale and pastor of the College Church; professor at Bangor Theological Seminary; principal of Congregational College, McGill University; came to America in 1851; son of Thomas and Madelina (McLeod) Barbour, of Fochabers, Scotland. Mother, Eliza Ann (Ransom) Barbour; daughter of Reuben and Elizabeth (Ahle) Ransom, of LeRoy, N. Y., and Cleveland, Ohio. Yale relatives include two nephews. Alexander L. Barbour, '13, and Edward L. Barbour, ex-'15.

Hopkins Grammar School. Entered Yale with Class of 1884; joined Class of 1885 in 1883; member Yale Lacrosse Team, '84 Lacrosse Club, Gamma Nu, and Psi Upsilon.

Employed in various capacities by Missouri & Kansas Telephone Company in Kansas 1885-89 (manager of exchange in Lawrence; in office of secretary and treasurer of the company in Kansas City); employed in office of Thomson-Houston Electric Lighting Company in Lynn and Boston 1889-1893; head clerk with Herman Strater (brass and copper works), Boston, 1902-06; engaged in farming at Highland Springs, Va., 1906-1917; during this period employed for a time as foreman of shell department of American Locomotive Company of Richmond; moved to New York about 1917; connected with pay roll department of Todd Shipyards Corporation 1918-19; clerk with Stern Brothers 1919-1920; engaged in clerical work for Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad Company and American Locomotive Company at Highland Springs from 1920 until retirement 1924; lived in Miami, Fla., 1924-26 and since then in Richmond; chairman of board of school trustees of Highland Springs 1912-15; also chairman of Park Commission, Laymen's League, and Tennis Club (charter member); active in organization of Church of the Messiah (Episcopal) at Highland Springs; member St. Mark's Episcopal Church, Richmond, at time of death.

Married April 6, 1904, in Brooklyn, N.Y., Laura Edith, daughter of John and Katharine (Atkinson) Dunbar. One daughter, Katharine Dunbar (B.A. Blackstone College 1922).

Sands Kenyon Gorham, B.A. 1885.

Born December 23, 1862, in Fulton, N.Y.
Died February 23, 1932, in Marion, Ohio.

Father, Augustus Stoddard Gorham, a banker and broker; member of firm of Van Schaick & Company of New York; son of John Hood and Sarah (Smith) Gorham, of New Haven. Mother, Victoria Adelaide (Kenyon) Gorham; daughter of Sands Niles and Jane Maria (Chesbro) Kenyon, of Fulton. First cousin: Ralph A. Harman, '78 S.

Mount Pleasant Academy, Ossining, N. Y., and under a tutor in Cleveland, Ohio. Member Class Baseball Team, Freshman Glee Club, Gamma Nu, and Psi Upsilon.

Clerk in brokerage firm of Van Schaick & Company 1885-1900; made his home at Great Neck, Long Island, 1900-05; secretary and treasurer of Blue Ribbon Horse & Carriage Company, Bridgeport, Conn., 1905-07, acting manager of Cleveland Trust Company 1908-09; engaged in manufacture of automobile specialities in Marion as member of firm of Brockett & Gorham from 1909 until retirement in 1916; vice-chairman of Marion chapter of American Red Cross during the war, member St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Marion.

Married June 1, 1891, in New York City, Maud, daughter of Samuel and Frances Theodosia (Coff'n) Shethar. Children: Ruth; Maud Shethar; and Hilda Kenyon, the wife of Grant E. Mouser, Jr., who received a certificate from Ohio State University 1917.

Death due to chronic myocarditis, following an abdominal operation. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by wife, three daughters, and a granddaughter.
George Augustus Sanderson, B.A. 1885.

Born July 1, 1863, in Littleton, Mass.
Died June 11, 1932, in Boston, Mass.

Father, George Webster Sanderson, a farmer; clerk of First District Court of North Middlesex County; member of Massachusetts House of Representatives and of Massachusetts Senate; son of Ira and Asenath Pierson (Hatch) Sanderson, of Littleton. Mother, Charlotte Elizabeth (Tuttle) Sanderson; daughter of Edmund and Louisa (Fletcher) Tuttle, of Littleton.

Lawrence Academy, Groton, Mass. Oration appointment Junior and Senior years; Commencement speaker: on Class Baseball Team Freshman year; chairman of Class Day Committee; member Psi Upsilon.

LL.B. magna cum laude Boston University 1887; admitted to Massachusetts Bar 1887; graduate student in Boston University Law School 1887–88 and also acted as messenger of Boston Municipal Court; practiced law in Boston 1887–1907; assistant district attorney for northern district of Middlesex County January, 1893–January, 1902, and then district attorney to April, 1907; justice of Massachusetts Superior Court 1907–1924, had since been justice of Massachusetts Supreme Court; member of Littleton School Committee 1888–1894 (chairman 1889–1894); trustee of Ayer (Mass.) Public Library since 1904 (president of board 1908–1920), Lawrence Academy since 1890 (president of board for a time, chairman of finance committee), North Middlesex Savings Bank of Ayer 1902–09 (vice-president of board 1904–09), and Walnut Hill School, Natick, Mass.; chairman of War Camp Community Service at Camp Devens, Mass., under Commission on Training Camp Activities; also chairman of local Red Cross Committee during the war; president of Yale Club of Boston 1914–15 and its representative on Alumni Board 1918–1925; fellow of American Academy of Arts and Sciences; member of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Ayer (warden from its organization until about 1927 and member of vestry at death); was to have received degree of LL D. from Boston University in June, 1932.

Married January 11, 1893, in Ayer, Annie Sarah Bennett (special student at Wellesley 1888–89), daughter of Charles Curtis and Sarah Jane Sophia (Nutting) Bennett. Children: Bennett, '16; Sylvia (died in childhood), Charlotte, the wife of Julian Lovejoy (B S. Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1922); Robert, '26, M D. Harvard 1932; and George Augustus, Jr., '28.

Death due to heart attack following an operation for ulcer of the stomach. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Littleton. Survived by wife, one daughter, three sons, six grandchildren, and four sisters, Mrs Josiah P. Thacher and the Misses Fannie A. and Gertrude F Sanderson, all of Littleton, and Mrs. Arthur F. Blanchard of West Acton, Mass.
Yale Obituary Record

Nicholas Minor Goodlett, B.A. 1886.

Born April 21, 1862, in Bedford, Ind.
Died January 26, 1932, in New Orleans, La.

Father, Nicholas Minor Goodlett, a wholesale dry goods merchant, treasurer and mayor of Evansville, Ind.; son of James Ralph Erskine and Eleanor (Minor) Goodlett, of Rockport, Ind. Mother, Melinda (Mitchell) Goodlett; daughter of Robert and Martha (Suter) Mitchell, of Bedford, Ind. Yale relatives include a nephew: John Garth Goodlett, ex-16.

Wiliston Academy, Secretary and treasurer of '86 Baseball Club, captain of Freshman Football Team; president of University Football Club Senior year, won broad and high jumps at winter athletic meet, member Glee Club, College Choir, Senior Promenade Committee, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Wolf's Head.

With U. S. Patent Office, Washington, 1886–1893, as clerk two years and then as second assistant on examining staff; studied law at George Washington University 1886–88 (L.L.B. 1888); admitted to bar in District of Columbia in July, 1888; practiced law in New York City from 1893 until retirement 1929; associated with firm of Witter & Kenyon and its successor, Kenyon & Kenyon, as counselor at law and solicitor of patents 1893-1901; practiced independently 1901-1913; member of firm of Redding, Greeley & Goodlett 1913–19 and Dunn, Goodlett, Massie & Scott 1919–1926; associate member Legal Advisory Board, New York, 1918; president of Yale Alumni Association of Montclair and Vicinity 1913–15; charter member Yale Club of New York; member American Bar Association, New York County Lawyers Association, and First Congregational Church, Montclair.

Married July 21, 1888, in Washington, D. C., Blanche Elaine, daughter of Ex-Surgeon Philip Skinner Wales, U.S.N. (M.D. University of Maryland 1846), and Mary (Grey) Wales. Children. Elaine, the wife of Tom S. Kingman, '96; Ralph Erskine (died in childhood); Nicholas Minor, Jr. (died in childhood); Melinda (Mrs G W. Harold Dunbar); and Eleanor Minor, the wife of Hugh P Kirby, a graduate of U. S. Naval Academy 1920. Mr. and Mrs Goodlett were divorced in 1902.
Charles Adams, B.A. 1887.

Born May 7, 1864, in Terryville, Conn.
Died June 29, 1932, in Litchfield, Conn.

Father, Joseph Hinman Adams; president of Eagle Lock Company of Terryville; son of Charles and Julia (Hinman) Adams, of New Haven. Mother, Emeline Ann (McKee) Adams.

Hartford Public High School. On Freshman and Sophomore Class crews; president of Bicycle Club; member Senior Promenade Committee, Gamma Nu, Hé Boulé, Psi Upsilon, and Wolf’s Head.

Junior partner in firm of F. T. Goldsmith & Company, grain and commission merchants, New York City, 1887-88 and in firm of Miller & Adams 1888-1892; partner in firm of Thompson, Adams & McNeill, bankers and brokers, New York, 1892-97 and in its successor, Adams, McNeill & Brigham (William S., '87), 1897-1907; engaged independently in brokerage business in New York 1907-1916 and subsequently in development of property in Audubon Park, New York City; member New York Produce Exchange; a governor of Lawrence Park Country Club; deacon in Reformed Church, Brooklyn Heights, 1898-1908; member Sons of the Revolution and Dutch Reformed Church, Bronxville, N. Y.

Married (1) October 21, 1890, in Brooklyn, Alice, daughter of John Taylor and Julia Champion (Deming) Sherman, and sister of Frederick D. Sherman, '95 S. No children. Mrs. Adams died September 21, 1901. Married (2) November 7, 1907, in New York City, Elizabeth Frances, daughter of Dr. Edgar Park and Mary (Fisk) Park. Children: Joseph Andrew, Elizabeth, and Mary Frances.

Death due to lobar pneumonia. Buried in Hillside Cemetery, Terryville. Survived by wife and three children.

Arthur Perkins, B.A. 1887.

Born May 16, 1864, in Hartford, Conn.
Died May 16, 1932, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, Charles Enoch Perkins (B.A. Williams 1853), a lawyer in Hartford; city attorney of Hartford; member Board of Water Commissioners, son of Thomas Clap Perkins (B.A. 1818) and Mary Foote (Beecher) Perkins, of Hartford. Mother, Lucy Maria (Adams) Perkins; daughter of Thomas and Jane (Russell) Adams, of Castine, Maine. Yale relatives include: Rev. Timothy Pitkin (B.A. 1747) (great-great-grandfather); Enoch Perkins (B.A. 1781) and Rev. Lyman Beecher (B.A 1797) (great-grandfathers); Rev. George W. Perkins (B.A. 1824) (great-uncle); Frederick B. Perkins, ’50 (uncle); and Farwell Knapp, ’16 (nephew).

Hartford Public High School. Second colloquy appointment Junior and Senior years; member Psi Upsilon.

Death due to generalized arteriosclerosis. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by daughter, a sister, Emily P. Knapp, the widow of Howard H. Knapp, ’82, and a brother, Thomas C Perkins, both of Hartford.
Benjamin Romaine, B.A. 1887.

Born June 4, 1865, in Leonia, N. J.
Died May 7, 1932, in San Francisco, Calif.

Father, Nicholas Theodore Romaine, a commission merchant in New York City and later manager of I. S. VanWinkle & Company, importers of iron, steel, and hardware, in San Francisco; son of Benjamin Albert and Hannah (VanWinkle) Romaine, of New York City. Mother, Catharine (Christie) Romaine; daughter of David and Anna (Brinkerhoff) Christie, of New York City. Uncle: Cornelius Christie, '55.

Boys' High School, San Francisco. Dissertation appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; member, president, and manager of Second Glee Club Senior year.

LL.B cum laude Columbia 1889; admitted to New York Bar 1889 and to California Bar in February, 1890, practiced law in San Francisco from 1890 until death; member of firm of O'Byrne, Romaine & O'Byrne 1894–98; served on Legal Advisory Board 1917–18; secretary of board of trustees of Calvary Presbyterian Church, San Francisco, 1903–1926; president of California Bible Society since 1907; chairman of Loring Club (men's voice chorus) eleven years; treasurer of Yale Alumni Association of Northern California several years.

Death due to heart disease and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Cypress Lawn Cemetery, San Francisco. Survived by wife and a brother, William Romaine, of San Francisco.

Augustus Coburn, B.A. 1889.

Born May 29, 1868, in Indianapolis, Ind.
Died October 16, 1931, in Indianapolis, Ind.

Father, Henry Coburn, founder and owner of Michigan Lumber Company of Indianapolis; president of Henry Coburn Storage & Warehouse Company; son of Henry Peter Coburn (B.A. Harvard 1812) and Sarah (Malott) Coburn, of Indianapolis. Mother, Mary Anne (Jones) Coburn; daughter of William Henry and Eliza (Simpcox) Jones, of Washington and Indianapolis. Nephew: Daniel E Coburn, '21 S.

Indianapolis Classical School. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon and Wolf's Head.
Joseph Sprigg McMahon, B.A. 1889.

Born February 8, 1868, in Dayton, Ohio
Died December 16, 1931, in Dayton, Ohio.

Father, John A. McMahon (graduate of St. Xavier's College, Cincinnati, 1849), a lawyer; member of Congress, son of John Van-Lear McMahon (B A Princeton 1817; LL.D. St John's 1869) and Elizabeth McMahon, of Frederick, Md
Mother, Mary Rianhard (Sprigg) McMahon; daughter of Joseph and Jean (Duncan) Sprigg, of Cumberland, Md
First cousin. Carroll Sprigg, '01 S.

Deaver Collegiate Institute, Dayton. Second dispute appointment Junior year, first colloquy appointment Senior year, a Class historian, member Senior Promenade Committee and Delta Kappa Epsilon Studied law in his father's office in Dayton 1889-1891 and admitted to Ohio Bar in December; in partnership with his father under name of McMahon & McMahon 1892-1920; member of law firm of McMahon, Corwin & Landis 1920-27; had since been consulting counsel for McMahon, Corwin, Landis & Markham; director of Dayton Malleable Iron Company since 1896, People's Railway Company 1921-27 (president 1923-26), Davies Building Company since about 1906, Corrugated Paper Patents Company 1909-1920 (secretary and treasurer), City Railroad Company, and Dayton Realty Company, member Board of Park Commissioners of Dayton 1909-1911 and of Public Library Board 1893-96; chairman of platform committee, Democratic State Convention of Ohio 1924; president of Buz Fuz Club of Dayton from its founding about 1891 until 1929; secretary of Dayton Club 1893–96 (director 1893–94; chairman of house committee 1897–98); president of Yale Club of Dayton since 1923; member Christ Episcopal Church (vestryman one term).

Married November 14, 1894, in Dayton, Mary Davies, daughter of Robert Cumming and Julia (Davies) Schenck, and sister of Peirce D. Schenck, ex-'oo S. Two daughters, Julia Davies, the wife of Stuart vonBeyer Brown (Western Reserve University 1918–19); and Mary Sprigg (Mrs. Cyril Tolley).

Death due to acute indigestion Buried in Woodland Cemetery, Dayton. Survived by wife, daughters, and a sister, Miss Marie Louise McMahon, of Dayton.

Roland Holt, B.A. 1890.

Born December 18, 1867, in New York City.
Died July 5, 1931, in New Canaan, Conn.

Father, Henry Holt (B.A. 1862; LL.B. Columbia 1864; LL D University of Vermont 1901); son of Dan and Ann Eve (Siebold) Holt, of Baltimore. Mother, Mary Florence (West) Holt; daughter of James Selby and Elizabeth (Gale) West, of New York City. Yale relatives include: Charles Holt, '65 S (uncle).

Siglar's Preparatory School, Newburgh, N. Y., and Berkeley School, New York City. Second prize in English composition Sophomore year; first colloquy appointment Junior year, second dispute appointment and one-year honors Senior year; an editor of Yale Courant; dramatic critic of New Haven Palladium.

Associated with Henry Holt & Company, publishers, New York, since graduation; clerk in his father's office 1890–91; traveled for educational book department 1891–93; actively engaged in assisting his father in the business 1893–98; had supervision of miscellaneous book department 1898–1910 (co-director from 1910); in charge of advertising 1898–1910, vice-president of company 1902–1924; director 1902–1926; interested in the Little Theatre movement; director of New York Drama League since 1913 and vice-president 1928–29; lecturer on theatrical subjects in many cities and at various schools and colleges; wrote regularly on New York plays for Springfield Sunday Republican, Bridgeport Life, Cleveland Topics, Los Angeles Saturday Night, and Buffalo Arts Journal; also contributed to Theatre, Theatre Guild Magazine, Drama, Drama League Monthly, Forum, Bookman, The Musician, New York Sun, and Proceedings of national conventions of the Drama League (1913–14); author. List of Music for Plays and Pageants, with Practical Suggestions (1925); director of Century Opera Company 1914-15 and of Oratorio Society of New York 1915-1920 (treasurer 1916-17); president of Good Government Club of 27th and 29th Assembly districts of New York City 1894-96 and of Citizens' Union Club of same districts 1896 (vice-president 1897, trustee 1898, and member executive committee 1899); member Association of Grand Jurors of New York County 1920-1931 (member executive committee 1927-1931); actively interested in work of New York Association for the Blind and Lighthouse No. 1 (edited reports of Lighthouse No. 1 for ten years and during the war prepared reports of Lighthouse No. 3 and Phare de France); member Municipal Arts Society and Sons of the Revolution.

Married April 11, 1923, in New York City, Constance D'Arcy Mackay, Boston University ex-'07, daughter of Robert Glendenning and Anne (D'Arcy) Mackay. No children.

Death due to a relapse following influenza. Buried in Lake View Cemetery, New Canaan. Survived by wife, two sisters, Winifred H. Mather, the wife of Rufus G. Mather (B.A. Williams 1895), and Edith H. Bloodgood, the wife of Joseph C. Bloodgood (B.S. Wisconsin 1888; M.D. Pennsylvania 1891), both of Baltimore, a half sister, Miss Sylvia Holt, of New York City, and two half brothers, Henry Holt, Jr., (B.A. Harvard 1912), and Elliot Holt (Harvard ex-'18), both of New York City.

John Francis McGuire, B.A. 1890.

Born May 16, 1864, in Hopkinton, Mass.
Died March 18, 1932, in West Newton, Mass.

Father, Michael McGuire, a mechanic; son of Richard and Mary (Dooley) McGuire, of Bruff, Ireland. Mother, Margaret Power (Hayes) McGuire, daughter of Dennis and Ann (Power) Hayes, of Cromshill, Ireland.

Phillips-Exeter Dissertation appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; member Athletic Team and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Clerk in Cleveland office of Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railroad Company 1890-92, partner in Hackney Bicycle Company of Cleveland 1892-93; in factory of B. F. Goodrich Company, rubber manufacturers, in Akron, Ohio, 1894-96 and department manager of company 1896-1905, associated with Republic Rubber Company of Youngstown, Ohio, from 1905 until retirement 1911, as vice-president and general manager until 1910 and then president; had lived in West Newton since 1914 and had had a summer home at Sugar Hill, N.H., since 1913; member Second Congregational Church, West Newton.
Married September 28, 1897, in Akron, Julia Folger MacGregor, Lake Erie Seminary (now College) 1886-88, daughter of John MacGregor (B.A. Jefferson College 1863; LL.B. Northern Ohio Law College, Cleveland, 1864) and Harriette Elizabeth (Folger) MacGregor, and sister of John MacGregor, '95. Children: Harriette, the wife of Lloyd H. Fales, Massachusetts Institute of Technology ex-'23; and Julia, Smith ex-'27, the wife of Francis L. Blewer (B.S Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1921).

Death due to sub acute bacterial endocarditis Buried in Newton Cemetery, Newton Center, Mass Survived by wife, two daughters, five grandchildren, a brother, Daniel J. McGuire, and two sisters, Mrs. Elinor McElroy and Miss Margaret McGuire, all of Hopkinton Perry Williams Harvey, B.A. 1891.

Born May 10, 1869, in Cleveland, Ohio.
Died May 24, 1932, in Thomasville, Ga.

Father, Henry Allyn Harvey; partner in H. Harvey's Sons, millers, Cleveland; son of Henry and Emily (Allyn) Harvey, of Chillicothe and Cleveland Mother, Mary Cushing (Williams) Harvey; daughter of William and Laura (Fitch) Williams, of Cleveland Yale relatives include the following first cousins William W. Crehore, '86, William C. Williams, ex-'89, Albert C. Crehore, '90, Dr. Harvey Cushing, '91, Edward M. Williams, '93, Lewis M. Williams, '98, and Douglas G. Harvey, '05 S.

Central High School, Cleveland. Second colloquy appointment Junior year; member Freshman and University Football teams, Junior Promenades Committee, Class Supper Committee, Eta Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

With Brown Hoisting & Conveying Machine Company, Cleveland, 1891-92; head of one of wholesale departments of dry goods house of William Taylor Son & Company, Cleveland, 1892-1905; secretary of Bankers Surety Company of Cleveland 1903-06 and president from 1906 until retirement from active business 1911, director of Cleveland Folding Machine Company 1907-1930 (vice-president 1907-09 and 1911; treasurer 1910), of M. A. Hanna Company (iron and coal) 1929-1932, and of Forest City Live Stock & Fair Company, owners and managers of the North Randall (Ohio) Light Harness Race Track, since 1914 (secretary 1915-1928 and vice-president since 1928); since 1911 had been treasurer and joint owner of Pastime Stables (Henry K. Devereux, '83 S., another owner), maintained at Lexington, Ky., and Thomasville, Ga., for breeding and racing of trotting horses on the Grand Circuit, also Married February 12, 1923, in Thomasville, Ga., Kate Benedict (Hanna) Ireland, daughter of Howard Melville Hanna, Union College ex-'59, and Kate (Smith) Hanna, and sister of Howard M. Hanna, Jr., ex-'00 S.

Herbert Knox Smith, B.A. 1891.

Born November 17, 1869, in Chester, Mass.
Died December 17, 1931, in Farmington, Conn.

Father, Rev. Edward Alfred Smith (B.A. 1856, Yale Divinity School ex-'59); fellow of Yale Corporation, son of Isaac Edward and Emily (Walker) Smith, of Chester. Mother, Melissa Eliza (Knox) Smith; daughter of Charles William and Olive (Clark) Knox, of Blandford, Mass.

Lawrenceville School. Third Lucius F. Robinson Latin Prize
Sophomore year; high oration appointments Junior and Senior years; second prize at Junior Exhibition; Townsend Premium and one-year honors in political science, history, and law Senior year, member Elihu Club and Phi Beta Kappa.

Studied in Yale Graduate School 1891-93 and in Yale School of Law 1893-95 (Junior year honors, Townsend and Jewell prizes Senior year, and LL.B. magna cum laude; chairman of board of Yale Law Journal; member Corbey Court); admitted to Hartford County Bar July, 1895; practiced law in Hartford 1895-1903 and again since 1912; member of firm of Smith, Smith & Canfield (his brother, Ernest Walker Smith, ’01, and Edward T. Canfield, ’99) 1912-18, United States deputy commissioner of corporations, Department of Commerce and Labor, 1903-07; commissioner of corporations 1907-1912; candidate for governor of Connecticut on Progressive ticket 1912, but defeated; candidate for United States senator from Connecticut 1916, but defeated; judge of probate for Farmington District 1915-18; counsel for Hartford-Fairmont Company (glass working machinery) 1919-1928 and director 1922-28; director, secretary, and treasurer of its successor, Hartford-Empire Company, since 1922; vice-president and director of Hartford Special Machinery Company since 1912; director of Farmington Savings Bank since 1905, vice-president 1916-1931, and president from April, 1931 (acting treasurer 1917); member Hartford Common Council 1900-02 and Hartford Park Commission 1903-06; representative in Connecticut Legislature 1903-04; chairman of Republican 6th Ward Committee of Hartford 1900-02 and of Republican Town Committee 1903-04; member Connecticut State Board for Education of the Blind 1917-18; in 1916 organized Farmington Company of Connecticut Home Guard and was its captain in 1917-18; chairman of sub-committee on man power and labor, Connecticut Council of Defense, May 22, 1917-August, 1918; chairman Local Exemption Board, Division 2, Hartford County, June 27-September 13, 1918, commissioned Major, Quartermaster Corps, October 12, 1918, stationed at Philadelphia, at first in charge of port operations and after the armistice chairman of Board of Contract Review, Zone 3, received discharge July 25, 1919; secretary of Yale Alumni Association of Hartford; member Society of Colonial Wars; former member and chairman of executive committee of First Church of Christ (Congregational), Hartford; at death member of First Church of Christ, Farmington (superintendent of Sunday school 1915-1929).

Married September 29, 1908, in Farmington, Gertrude Elizabeth Dietrich (B.A. Bryn Mawr 1903), daughter of Charles Henry and Elizabeth (Slaker) Dietrich, of Hastings, Nebr. No children.

Death due to myocarditis Buried in Riverside Cemetery, Hart-
Tale Obituary Record

William Nelson Runyon, B.A. 1892.

Born March 5, 1871, in Plainfield, N. J.
Died November 9, 1931, in Plainfield, N. J.

Father, Nelson Runyon, a lawyer; city judge of Plainfield; member 30th New Jersey Volunteers in Civil War; son of Squire and Mary (LaFarge) Runyon, of Green Brook, N. J. Mother, Wilhelmina Frances (Trow) Runyon; daughter of William and Jane (Adams) Trow, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Plainfield High School On University Glee Club and soloist two years, an editor of Yale Pot Pourri; a Class historian, member Senior Promenade Committee, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

LL B New York Law School 1894 (secretary, vice-president, and president of his class; member of board New York Law School Journal); clerk in law offices of Wilson & Wallis (Hamilton Wallis, '63, and George E. Coney, '76, members of firm) 1892-94; admitted to New York Bar November, 1894, and to New Jersey Bar 1898; made counselor-at-law 1901; practiced law in New York City 1894-98 and in Plainfield since 1898; associated with his father under firm name of Nelson & William N. Runyon 1898-1915; member Plainfield Common Council 1897-98; city judge of Plainfield 1899-1910, member New Jersey House of Representatives 1915-17; state senator 1918-1922 (president of Senate 1919-1920); acting governor of New Jersey May 20, 1919-January 13, 1920; nominated for governor on Republican ticket 1922, but defeated; United States district judge for District of New Jersey since January, 1923; president of Young Men's Republican Club of Plainfield 1896; made Chevalier of the Order of the Crown (Italy) February 12, 1922; member Park Avenue Baptist Church, Plainfield, and superintendent of its Sunday school several years

Married January 1, 1913, in New York City, Florence Mabel MacDonald, a graduate nurse of Muhlenberg Hospital, Plainfield, daughter of Alexander J and Kate (Holland) MacDonald, of Elizabeth, N. J. Children Jane Trow, William Nelson, Jr.; Frederic Walter (died in infancy), and Florence Felicia. Two adopted sons, James Arthur and Paul Adams Death due to uremic poisoning, with contributory causes. Buried in Hillside Cemetery, Plainfield. Survived by wife, five children, and a brother, Carroll T. Runyon, '02 S

William Denison Young, B.A. 1892.

Born July 13, 1869, in New London, Conn.
Died February 24, 1932, in Highland Park, Ill.

Father, Mason Young, '60; fellow of the Yale Corporation 1873-1884; son of Henry and Anne (Mason) Young, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mother, Louise Matilda (Hurlbut) Young, daughter of George and Sarah Louise (Lewis) Hurlbut, of Brooklyn. Yale relatives include Rev. Isaac Lewis (B.A. 1765) (great-great-grandfather); Zachariah Lewis (B.A 1794) (great-grandfather); Rev. Isaac Lewis, Jr. (B A 1794), and Roswell W. Lewis (B A. 1802) (great-great-uncles), Frank B. Wesson, '78 (uncle); David B Lewis, '80 S., and Charles W Barnes, '77 (cousins); and Mason Young, 3d, '27 (nephew)

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H , and King's School, Stamford, Conn Entered Yale with Class of 1891; joined Class of 1892 as a Sophomore; an editor of Tale Record, member Hé Boulé, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Stock clerk with Tootle, Wheeler & Mottle, wholesale dry goods, in St. Joseph, Mo., 1892-95, traveling salesman in Texas, Oklahoma, and Indian Territory for Hargadine, McKittrick & Company, of St Louis, Mo., 1895–1900; southwestern representative of Farish-Staf-ford Company, a New York dry goods commission house, with headquarters in New Orleans 1900–01; treasurer of Eagle Tile Company in Keyport, N. J., 1901–03; salesman and subsequently city sales manager and secretary of Atwood & Steele Company, manufacturers of food products, Chicago, 1906–1914; in business under his own name 1914–18 and senior partner in firm of Young & Livingston, brokers and sales agents of food products, in Chicago; western manager and director of John Magee & Company, Inc., importers, of New York City since 1923; vice-president of Froston, Inc., manufacturers, Chicago since 1929, member of Episcopal Church until a year before his death when he became a member of the Roman Catholic Church.

Married August 8, 1903, in New York City, Grace, daughter of John and Sarah Elizabeth (Crump) Winn, of St. Louis. One daughter, Alice Elizabeth.

Death due to general carcinomatosis. Buried in St. Mary's Cemetery, Lake Forest, Ill. Survived by wife, daughter, two brothers, George H. Young, '87, and Mason Young, Jr., ex-'97, and three sisters, Mrs Charles N. Barney, of Golden, Colo., Mrs. George W England, of Schenectady, N. Y , and Mrs. Faneuil S. Weisse, of New York City.
Charles Andrew Graham, B.A. 1893.

Born December 4, 1870, in Corinne, Utah.
Died October 22, 1931, in Denver, Colo.

Father, John William Graham (M.D. Jefferson Medical College 1867), a physician in Corinne and Denver; Captain in 211th Pennsylvania Infantry during Civil War; son of Andrew and Jane White (Brown) Graham, of West Fairfield, Pa. Mother, Mary (Gardiner) Graham; daughter of John William and Mary Jane (Covode) Gardiner, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

East Denver High School. Oration appointment Junior year, first dispute appointment Senior year.

Studied at University of Pennsylvania Medical School 1893-96 and 1897-98 (M.D. 1898); obliged to interrupt his medical studies 1896-97 on account of illness and spent the year in Denver; took graduate work in medicine at University of Vienna 1898-1900; practiced medicine in Denver 1900-1910; member of staff of Arapahoe County Hospital 1900-02; physician to Denver City and County Hospital 1902-06; associate professor of medicine at Denver and Gross College of Medicine 1903-1911, since 1910 had been manager of the McClintock estate in Denver; member American Medical Association, Colorado State, Denver City, and Denver County Medical societies, and Central Presbyterian Church, Denver (trustee 1900-06 and elder 1906-1910).

Married December 6, 1904, in Denver, Alice McClintock (B.L. Smith 1899), daughter of Washington McClintock, ex-’99, and Anna Gray (Colton) McClintock, granddaughter of Rev. Aaron M. Colton (B.A. 1835, honorary M.A. Amherst 1840), and niece of Oliver McClintock, ’61. Children: Elizabeth (B.A. Smith 1929), the wife of L. Arthur Henry; and Charles Andrew, Jr., ’30.

Clarence Clifford Harmstad, B.A. 1893.

Born June 9, 1871, in New York City.
Died November 10, 1931, in New York City

Father, Francis Clifford Harmstad; with S. S. White Dental Manufacturing Company in Philadelphia, New York, and Brooklyn; son of Samuel and Wilhelmina (Bargh) Harmstad, of Philadelphia.
Mother, Margaret (Weckerly) Harmstad; daughter of George and Hannah (Hallowell) Weckerly, of Philadelphia.

Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon.

L.L.B. New York Law School 1895; admitted to New York Bar in June, 1895; practiced law in New York City 1895–1901; partner in firm of Lewis & Harmstad 1900–01; connected with Title, Guarantee & Trust Company, New York, from 1901 until retirement in October, 1929; assistant secretary 1909–1916, treasurer 1916–1924, and treasurer and manager of banking department from 1924; secretary of New York Investors' Corporation 1906–1929 and of City Real Estate Company 1914–1928; vice-president of Fire Brokerage Company 1912–1929; member board of managers of Knickerbocker Hospital, New York, since 1929.

Unmarried.

Death due to apoplexy. Buried in North Laurel Hill Cemetery, Philadelphia. Survived by no immediate relatives. By the terms of his will one-fourth of his residuary estate was bequeathed to Yale University.

Edwin Ruthven Lamson, B.A. 1893.

Born March 12, 1867, in New York City.
Died November 29, 1931, in Summit, N. J.

Father, John Sawyer Lamson, a merchant and importer; founder and head of firm of John S. Lamson & Brother, importers of African and South American products, son of Rev. Samuel Lamson, D.D (B. A. Brown 1828; Andover Theological Seminary and Yale Divinity School), and Sarah Ann (Sawyer) Lamson, of Boxford and Andover, Mass. Mother, Mary Hart (Hunter) Lamson, Mount Holyoke Seminary (now College) ex-’54; daughter of Rev. John Hart Hunter (B.A. Union 1826; Princeton Theological Seminary), and Julia Maria (Judson) Hunter, of Bridgeport and Fairfield, Conn. Brother William J. Lamson, ’93.

Pingry School, Elizabeth, N. J., and Oberlin Preparatory Department. Two-year honors in history; member Debating Team against Harvard; second prize in University Bicycle race; second place in Class Tennis Tournament.

manager New Haven branch office of American Finance & Securities Company of New York 1901-03; associated with Catlin-Powell Company, brokers, New York, 1903-1911; vice-president Dustoline for Roads Company, of Summit 1911-15 and then president until death; director Proprietary Mines Company of America 1911; member 1st Corps of Independent Cadets, Volunteer Militia of Massachusetts 1896-99, went to Cuba on the “Yale” with General Miles, member First Congregational Church, Montclair, N. J

Unmarried.

Death due to heart failure. Buried in Boxford, Mass. Survived by a sister, Mrs. George C. Musgrave, of Wimbledon, England. With his brother, presented to Yale University the collection of Chiriqui pottery made by their father.

William Judson Lamson, B.A. 1893.

Born May 14, 1871, in Orange, N. J.
Died November 28, 1931, in Summit, N. J.

(For family history, see preceding sketch.)

Montclair (N. J.) High School. High oration appointment Junior year, philosophical oration appointment Senior year; member Second Banjo Club and Phi Beta Kappa.

M D Columbia 1896; studied at universities of Berlin and Vienna 1896-97, intern St. Luke’s Hospital, New York City, 1897-99; on house staff of Sloane Maternity Hospital, New York, three months; attending physician to Demit Dispensary and practiced medicine in New York and during the summer at West Hampton Beach, L. I., 1900-01; had since practiced in Summit; attending physician at Overlook Hospital, Summit, 1914-1929 and then on consultant staff until death, member Medical Milk Commission of Union County, N. J., 1909-1924; member Union County Mosquito Extermination Commission 1914-19; police surgeon of Summit 1909-1910, medical supervisor of schools of Summit since 1909; vice-president of Highland Club of Summit 1907-08, author: Descendants of William Lamson of Ipswich, Mass (1918), member American Medical Association, Summit Medical Society (secretary since its founding in 1905), and Calvary Episcopal Church, Summit

Unmarried

Death due to perforated duodenal ulcer and peritonitis. Buried in Boxford, Mass. Survived by a sister, Mrs. George C. Musgrave, of Wimbledon, England, and brother, Edwin R. Lamson, ’93 (died November 29, 1931) With his brother presented to Yale University the collection of Chiriqui pottery made by their father.
Emerson Root Newell, B.A. 1893.

Born January 1, 1872, in Bristol, Conn.
Died September 23, 1931, in Greenwich, Conn.

Bristol High School. First dispute appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year; member Second Glee Club, College Choir, and Zeta Psi.

Studied law in Bristol with Noble E. Pierce 1893–95; admitted to Connecticut Bar 1895; examiner in United States Patent Office 1895–98; enrolled in Graduate School of George Washington University 1895–97 (L.L.M. 1896, M.P.L. 1897; member John Marshall chapter of Phi Delta Phi); admitted to bar of District of Columbia 1896; engaged in practice of patent law in Bristol 1897–98 and since then in New York City; associated with firm of Brownell & Mitchell 1898–1900; practiced independently 1900–1910; partner with Chester T. Neal, ’05, in firm of Newell & Neal 1910–17; senior partner in firm of Newell & Spencer since July 1, 1920 (Chauncey M. Sincerbeaux, ’05, member since 1923); served in Squadron A, Cavalry, New York National Guard, 1900–13 (commissioned Captain November 21, 1912); attended second Officers’ Training Camp, Plattsburg, August 23–November 26, 1917; commissioned Captain, Field Artillery, November 27, 1917; assigned to Camp Stanley, Leon Springs, Texas, as assistant instructor of artillery, third Officers’ Training Camp, December 15, 1917–May 4, 1918; battalion commander and instructor, Camp Jackson, Columbia, S. C., May–July, 1918; transferred to 3d Corps Artillery Park, Camp Wadsworth, S. C., July 5; commissioned Major, Field Artillery, August 22, 1918; transferred to 1st Brigade, Field Artillery Replacement Depot; assigned to Headquarters as Depot Ordnance Officer, August 27; appointed member of General Court Martial August 29; stationed at Artillery School of Fire, Fort Sill, Okla, from October 13 until discharge December 21, 1918; director of Greenwich Chamber of Commerce 1924–27 and second vice-president 1926 and 1927; member Greenwich Board of Health 1915–1921 (chairman 1917); sec-

Born August 12, 1871, in Hartford, Conn.
Died May 22, 1932, in Princeton, N. J.

Father, William Ruthven Wheeler, a portrait painter; son of Prosper and Zada (Benham) Wheeler, of Adrian, Mich. Mother, Emily Elizabeth (Crego) Wheeler; daughter of Charles C. and Hannah (Frost) Crego, of Adrian. Nephew: Leslie G Sumner, '15 S.

Hartford Public High School. First Berkeley Premium in Latin composition Freshman year; second Lucius F. Robinson Latin prize Sophomore year, first Winthrop Greek prize Junior year; Thomas Glasby Waterman Scholar Senior year, philosophical oration appointment Junior and Senior years; salutatorian; wrote Ivy Ode; a Class historian; on Senior Baseball and Football teams; member Delta Kappa Epsilon and Phi Beta Kappa (vice-president Senior year)

Graduate student in Latin at Yale 1893-94; instructor in Latin at Yale 1894-95 and tutor 1895-1900; Ph D. 1896; associate professor of Latin at Bryn Mawr 1900-05, professor 1905-1918, and Alumnae professor 1918-1925; faculty member of Board of Directors 1916-1925; member of executive committee of $2,000,000 Campaign 1919; professor of Latin and chairman of Department of the Classics at Death due to apoplexy. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by wife, daughter, two grandchildren, and two sisters, Mrs. Henry M. Sumner, of Hartford, and Lillian E. Wyckoff, the wife of Herbert J. Wyckoff, ’92, of Philadelphia.

James Elwyn Brown, B.A. 1894.

Born March 17, 1873, in Kittanning, Pa.
Died March 31, 1932, in Sewickley, Pa

Father, James Elwyn Brown, president of Kittanning Bank and First National Bank of Kittanning; owner of Pine Creek Furnace; president and owner of Kittanning Iron Company; son of Robert and Rebecca (Brown) Brown, of Kittanning. Mother, Katherine Walter Reid Callender, B.A. 1894.

Born February 28, 1872, in Providence, R. I. Died April 29, 1932, in Providence, R. I. Father, Walter Callender; founder and president of dry goods house of Callender, McAuslan & Troup Company of Providence; served in Civil War and commissioned Captain; son of James and Christian (Reid) Callender, of Stirling, Scotland. Mother, Ann Oswald (Crow) Callender; daughter of William and Sarah (Reevie) Crow, of Glasgow, Scotland Providence High School First colloquy appointment Junior and Senior years, scorer for University Baseball Team; member Delta Kappa Epsilon and Elihu Club With dry goods firm of Brown, Thomson & Company in Hartford, Conn. 1894–97; member of firm of Callender, McAuslan & Troup Company since 1897; vice-president and treasurer 1897–1921 and since then president and treasurer; secretary and treasurer of Boston
Yale College

Store Land Company since 1922; director of Scotch Realty Company of New York City 1919, Pettis Dry Goods Company of Indianapolis 1920–1931, Puritan Life Insurance Company of Providence 1922, Textile Finishing Machinery Company of Providence 1922, Denholm & McKay Company (dry goods) of Worcester, Mass., since 1923, New England Power Association of Boston 1927, Providence Ice Company, Providence Biltmore Hotel Company 1932, Syndicate Trading Company of New York since 1916, Rhode Island Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children 1914, and Providence Art Club; president of Better Business Bureau of Providence 1925–26, chairman of the board 1926–27, and director since 1927, member of Providence Board of Trade 1903–05 and again 1910–12; member of executive committee of retail merchants’ division (later retail trade board) of Providence Chamber of Commerce for a number of years, trustee of People’s Savings Bank of Providence since 1926 (member of corporation since 1913), of Providence Public Library since 1909, and of Rhode Island Hospital Trust Company since 1920; vice-president of Rhode Island Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals since 1914 and of Federal Hill Association of Providence 1916–1926; police commissioner of Providence 1910–13, member advisory board of Rhode Island Boy Scouts 1911–17, during the war member Rhode Island Committee on Public Safety, chairman of Providence Retail Merchants Liberty Bond Committee, and in charge of Rhode Island War Stamps campaign in retail stores; vice-chairman of Providence chapter, American Red Cross, 1920 (on executive committee 1917); on executive committee of Commercial Club of Providence 1910–16 and president of club since 1916; a governor of University Club of Providence 1909 (president 1912–13) and of Turk’s Head Luncheon Club of Providence 1912; president of Hope Club of Providence; member executive committee of Lincoln Memorial Commission to erect statue of Lincoln on grounds of Rhode Island State House 1914, National Wholesale Dry Goods Association (on membership committee 1916), American Civic Association, American Academy of Political and Social Science, American Museum of Natural History, American Forestry Association, New York Zoological Society, Rhode Island Historical Society, Rhode Island School of Design, and Beneficent Congregational Church, Providence; vice-president of Yale Alumni Association of Rhode Island 1913–17 and 1921–23 (also a director); a governor of Yale Publishing Association 1926–1931; on advisory board of Elihu Club 1912; chairman of Vicennial and Quarter-Centennial Reunion committees of Class of 1894; in 1931 made a gift to Providence Public Library of over 2,000 volumes from Yale University Press.

Married February 10, 1927, in New York City, Ivy Moore Ed-
Tale Obituary Record

Dinger, daughter of Lester David and Ella Donaldson (Snowden) Moore. No children.

Death due to injuries received from a fall. Buried in Swan Point Cemetery, Providence. Survived by wife, stepmother, and a brother, John A Callender, '02. Another brother, Robert Callender, '98, died in 1900. By the terms of his will, Yale University was made a residuary legatee.

William Henry Clark, B.A. 1894.

Died March 14, 1932, in Kansas City, Mo.

With H. B. Claflin & Company (dry goods), New York City, 1894-97, New York sales manager for Julius Kraus, glove manufacturer of Gloversville, N. Y., 1897-1900; manager for Sol Littenberg & Krupp, cloak manufacturers, New York, 1903-04; manager of women's wear department of The Fair (department store), Cincinnati, 1904-05 and of J. Bacon & Sons (department store), Louisville, Ky., 1906, manager of Kline's (department store), Kansas City, since 1907 and connected with purchasing office of the company in New York 1915-1922; charter member Hillcrest Golf Club; member Kansas City Chamber of Commerce and St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Death due to subacute hemorrhagic nephritis. Buried in Mount Washington Cemetery, Kansas City. Survived by wife, two children, two stepdaughters, Mildred and Shirley Fromhold, and a sister, Mrs. Frederick C. H. Mearns, of New York City.
William Lester Dench, B.A. 1895.

Born April 8, 1874, in Bridgeport, Conn.
Died November 26, 1931, in Pelham, N. Y.

Father, Josiah Bradford Dench, a manufacturer; partner in firm of Hotchkiss Sons (saddlery hardware), Bridgeport; son of Isaac and Sarah (Bradford) Dench, of Fitchburg, Mass. Mother, Frances Mary (Lester) Dench; daughter of Ichabod L. Lester, M.D., and Antoinette (Landon) Lester, of Hunter, N. Y.

Bridgeport High School Member Zeta Psi.

Clerk in office of Brooklyn (N Y) Union Gas Company 1896-1901; purchasing agent for Elliott & Hatch Book Typewriter Company, New York, 1901-03 and its successor, Elliott Fisher Company, 1903-06; secretary of latter company 1906-1911; secretary and director of Underwood Computing Machine Company 1911-1927; vice-president of Anderson & Wheeler, Inc., of Staten Island (contractors and dock builders), 1929-1931; attended second Officers' Training Camp, Plattsburg and Fort Monroe, 1917; commissioned Captain, Coast Artillery, November 27, 1917; assigned to Coast Defenses, New York, December 15, 1917-June 1, 1918; Personnel Adjutant, 70th Coast Artillery Corps, Fort Wadsworth and France; overseas July 15, 1918-August 28, 1919; chief claims officer, Services of Supply, Nevers, France, July 5, 1918-June 30, 1919, and zone Major July 1-August 1; promoted Major, Coast Artillery Reserve Corps, October 26, 1919, and held commission until death; trustee of Pelham Board of Education 1925-28; member Pelham Post No. 50, American Legion, and Sons of the American Revolution.

Death due to occlusion of coronary artery. Cremation took place and ashes were buried in Albany (N. Y.) Rural Cemetery. Survived by wife and a brother, Dr. Edward B. Dench, '83 S.

Frederick Steinman Franklin, B.A. 1895.

Born January 19, 1873, in Lancaster, Pa.
Died August 2, 1931, at Buck Island, Ont., Canada.

Father, George Mayer Franklin (B.A. 1858, M.A. 1866); son of Thomas Emlen Franklin (B.A. 1828; LL.D. Franklin and Marshall 1874) and Serena Angeliique (Mayer) Franklin, of Lancaster. Mother, Sarah Myer (Steinman) Franklin; daughter of George Michael and Elizabeth Frederika (Myer) Steinman, of Lancaster. Yale relatives include. Emlen Franklin (B A. 1847) and Andrew J. Steinman, '56 (great-uncles), and Hugh M North, '97 S. (first cousin).

Phillips-Exeter Second colloquy appointment Junior year; first colloquy appointment Senior year; captain of Gun Club; member Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Married November 17, 1904, in Lancaster, Carolyn Musselman Herr (B A. Wilson College 1897), daughter of Reuben Daniel and Harriet Frances (Musselman) Herr. Children: Frederick Steinman, Jr., '28, Barbara Ann, the wife of William R. Wolff (B S. Lafayette 1929), Harriet Frances, and Mary Elizabeth.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Cremation took place at Mount Hope Cemetery Crematorium, Rochester, N. Y., and ashes were scattered at Buck Island, memorial to be in Lancaster. Survived by wife, son, three daughters, and a brother, William B. Franklin, '92. His brother, Thomas E. Franklin, '90, died in 1900.

John Edward Good, B.A. 1895.

Born June 21, 1871, in Denver, Colo
Died August 21, 1931, in Montana

Father, John Good, a banker and real estate owner; director and vice-president of German National Bank, Denver; president of Tivoli Union Company, manufacturers, of Denver; born in Urweil-Alsace-Lorraine. Mother, Rosalie Madeleine (Tascher) Good.

St. Augustus School, New Brighton, N. Y., and Irving Institute, Tarrytown, N. Y. Second colloquy appointment Senior year; member Track Team, Banjo Club, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.
Teller in First National Bank, Denver, 1895–98; represented the American Queen Magazine three months; connected with advertising department of Dry Goods Economist five months; advertising manager of Deimel Linen-Mesh Systems Company for some time prior to 1908, when he gave up business for a time on account of ill health and traveled abroad for two years; subsequently president of Tivoli Union Company, manufacturers of denatured alcohol and soft drinks, Denver; president of Western Products Company, Denver. Married April 2, 1927, in New York City, Mabel Loraine, daughter of Harrison L. Crofut, of Rochester, N. Y.

Death, due to angina pectoris, occurred while on a fishing trip. Survived by wife and mother. By the terms of his will a bequest was made to the general funds of Yale University.

Alfred Egmont Schermerhorn, B.A. 1895.

Born November 22, 1871, in New York City.
Died May 11, 1932, in Southampton, N. Y.

Father, Alfred Schermerhorn, a merchant and banker with Bank of New York; son of John Simon and Lucretia Lefferts (Brinckerhoff) Schermerhorn, of New York City. Mother, Charlotte Newton (Benton) Schermerhorn, of Litchfield, Conn.

St. John's School, Ossining, N. Y. Oration appointment Junior and Senior years; two-year honors in history; member Psi Upsilon.

With Title Guarantee & Trust Company, New York, 1895–97, associated with Horace S. Ely & Company, real estate dealers, New York, 1897–1901; in real estate and insurance business under name of A. E. Schermerhorn in New York City and Southampton, from 1901 until death (Robert C. Nesbit, '95, in partnership with him 1906–08); trustee of Village of Southampton 1908–1923; secretary and director of Southampton Hospital Association 1912–1920; treasurer of Meadow Club of Southampton for some years prior to death (chairman of house committee); vice-president of Southampton Club; member St. Nicholas Society of the City of New York and Grace Episcopal Church, New York; trustee since 1907 and treasurer since 1909 of St. Andrew's Dune Church (Episcopal), Southampton.

Married March 16, 1897, in New York City, Elizabeth Mary, daughter of Charles Robert and Marie Bay (James) Coster. One son, Alfred Coster, '20.

Harry Lockman Street, B.A. 1895.

Born February 26, 1871, in Chicago, Ill.
Died December 7, 1931, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, Charles Arthur Street; president of Street-Chatfield Lumber Company of Chicago; son of Rev. George Charles Street and Anne (Smith) Street, of Chicago. Mother, Emily Kate (McReynolds) Street; daughter of John McReynolds, of Detroit, Mich. Yale relatives include a first cousin, Douglas P. Street, '02 S. Fessenden School, Chicago, and St. Austin's School, New Brighton, N. Y. Oration appointment Junior year; high oration appointment Senior year; member University Cricket Team two years, University Banjo and Mandolin Club, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Attended a business college in Chicago 1895; had been connected with Street-Chatfield Lumber Company since January, 1896, clerk 1896–1907, vice-president and treasurer 1907–1925, and president since 1925; member of vestry of Christ Episcopal Church, Winnetka, Ill., since 1920 and treasurer of its Sunday school since 1917.

Married February 20, 1909, in Omaha, Nebr., Jeanné Eleanor, daughter of John and Jeanné (Robidoux) Wakefield. Children. Jeanné Rosalind; Katharine Wakefield; Marjorie Robidoux; and Harriett Florence.

Died suddenly. Buried in Graceland Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife, four daughters, stepmother, a brother, Norman A. Street, '98, two half brothers, Rev. Charles L. Street, '14, and Edward P. Street, '20, and a sister, Margaret S. Loutrel, the wife of Louis F. Loutrel, '11 S.

Emerson Gifford Taylor, B.A. 1895.

Born June 9, 1874, in Pittsfield, Mass.
Died June 25, 1932, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, John Metcalf Taylor (B.A. Williams 1867; honorary M.A. Williams 1892); assistant secretary, secretary, vice-president, and president of Connecticut Life Insurance Company; son of Charles Culvert and Jane Maria (Gifford) Taylor, of Cortland, N. Y. Mother, Edith (Emerson) Taylor; daughter of Charles Noble and Frances Eugenia (Shaw) Emerson, of Great Barrington, Mass.

Collins Street Classical School, Hartford. Honors in English Freshman year, first dispute appointment Junior and Senior years; an editor of Yale Literary Magazine; member Joint Play Committee (1894–95), Chi Delta Theta, Eta Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.
Studied in Yale Graduate School 1895–99 (Ph.D. 1899); assistant in rhetoric at Yale 1898–1902, instructor 1902–04, and tutor 1904–06; had since been engaged in literary work, except for time spent in service; author: A Daughter of Dale (1902), The Upper Hand (1904), Practical Stage Directions for Amateurs (1916), New England in France, a History of the Twenty-sixth Division (1920), The Long Way Round (1921), The Day After Dark (1922), Young October (1928), Paul Revere (1930), Riding High (1930), and a play entitled "A Woman Like You" (produced in 1910); contributed to Atlantic Monthly, Harper's, Reader, Critic, Outlook, and Red Book Magazine; member of foreign correspondence staff of New York Herald-Tribune in London September, 1926–February, 1927; wrote regularly of European politics and political economy for Hartford Courant in 1928; enlisted in Machine Gun Company, 1st Connecticut Infantry, National Guard, in June, 1915; made First Sergeant November 12, 1915; promoted to Second Lieutenant June 20, 1916; elected Captain October 24, 1916; federalized March 30, 1917; assigned 102d Infantry, 26th Division; overseas October 6, 1917–April 6, 1919; graduated from Army General Staff College, Langres, France, in February, 1918; attached to Headquarters, 14th Division (British), February 20–March 1, 1918; served as Regimental Adjutant, 102d Infantry, August 18, 1917–August 6, 1918; Acting Assistant Chief of Staff, G-3, and Acting Chief of Staff, 26th Division, August 7, 1918–April 29, 1919; attached Headquarters, 2d Colonial Corps (French), September 19–October 8, 1918, and Headquarters, 17th Corps (French), October 10–17, 1918; engaged in Battle of Seicheprey, Champagne-Marne Defensive and Aisne-Marne, St.-Mihiel, and Meuse-Argonne offensives; promoted Major February 22, 1919; received citations in divisional general orders July 23, 1918, and at General Headquarters, A.E.F., April 19, 1919; recommended for Distinguished Service Cross July 23, 1918, and for Distinguished Service Medal October 23, 1918; made Chevalier, Légion d'Honneur; commissioned Lieutenant Colonel, Infantry, Officers' Reserve Corps, October, 1919; in 1922 assigned Assistant Chief of Staff, 76th Division, in charge of operations and training; secretary of board of Loomis Institute, Windsor, Conn., 1912–14 and trustee 1913–1923; member Society of Colonial Wars, Military Order of Foreign Wars (vice-commander, Connecticut Commandery, 1920–22 and commander 1922–23), and Connecticut Historical Society; vestryman of Christ Episcopal Church, Hartford, 1909–1919.

Yale Obituary Record

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by wife, son, and daughter.

George Sturges Buck, B.A. 1896.

Born February 10, 1875, in Chicago, Ill.
Died July 5, 1931, in Buffalo, N. Y.

Father, Roswell Riley Buck, a grain merchant; trustee of Buffalo Board of Trade; son of Winthrop and Eunice (Moseley) Buck, of Wethersfield, Conn. Mother, Maria Catherine (Barnes) Buck; daughter of Josiah Barnes (B.A. 1825; M.D. University of Pennsylvania 1829) and Delia (Marsh) Barnes, of Tolland, Conn. Yale relatives include: Daniel Buck (B.A. 1718), Dr. Thomas Moseley (B.A. 1751), and Rev. George Colton (B.A 1756) (great-great-great-uncles), Jonathan Barnes (B.A. 1784) and Abner Moseley and Rev. Truman Marsh (both B.A. 1786) (great-grandfathers); Samuel Marsh (B.A. 1786) and Rev. Marshfield Steele (B.A. 1790) (great-great-uncles), Jonathan Barnes (B.A. 1810), Dr. Julius S. Barnes (B.A. 1815), and Alanson Abbe (M.D. 1821) (great-uncles); and Edwin R. Barnes, '60 (uncle).

Buffalo High School. Dissertation appointment Junior year; second TenEyck Prize at Junior Exhibition; oration appointment Senior year and Townsend Premium; Class orator; member Beta Theta Pi. LL.B. Buffalo Law School 1898 (member Phi Delta Phi); practiced law in Buffalo from 1898 until death; in law office of Clinton & Clark 1898-99, member of firm of Buck & Cole 1899-1905; member Erie County Board of Supervisors 1903-1912 (chairman of finance committee of board 1908-1912); county auditor 1912-17; mayor of Buffalo and ex-officio member of council of University of Buffalo 1917-1921; director of Buffalo City Planning Association 1923-27, president 1927-28, and managing director 1928-1931; trustee of Erie County Bar Association 1907-1910 (chairman of committee on status and condition of minor courts); lecturer on negligence at Buffalo Law School 1904-1911; special lecturer in School of Accounting of Buffalo Y. M. C. A.; trustee of Buffalo Seminary 1925-1930 and of Buffalo Life Association 1926-1930; director of Buffalo Retail Furniture Men's Association; member Republican County Committee 1899, contributor to National Municipal Review and Outlook; deacon in First Presbyterian Church, Buffalo, 1906-08 and elder and member of the session 1908-1931; secretary of Presbyterian Union 1908-1910 and president 1910-11; on board of directors of University Club of Buffalo 1908-1912 and again 1922-26; decorated by King Albert of Belgium as Commander of the Order of Leopold II in October, 1919.

Married October 6, 1903, in Buffalo, Ellen Louise Hussey, special student, Wheaton Seminary (now Wheaton College), 1900, daughter of Elisha Pinkham Hussey (M.D. Boston University School of Medicine 1876) and Matilda (Fisher) Hussey, Wheaton Seminary ex-'75. Children: Roswell Seymour, '16; ; Ruth; Oliver Hussey; and Catherine, Vassar 1935.

Death due to cancer of the liver. Buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Buffalo. Survived by wife, two daughters, two sons, and a sister, Miss Harriet M. Buck, of Buffalo.

Born March 23, 1874, in New Haven, Conn.
Died June 12, 1932, in Hartford, Conn.

Hopkins Grammar School. Second dispute appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; one-year honors in music; member of College Choir; associate organist of Y. M. C. A.

Student in Yale School of Music 1896–1901 (Mus.B 1901; Steinert scholar in organ-playing 1896–97); studied organ with H. R. Shelley in New York 1901–02; organist and choirmaster of Prospect Methodist Episcopal Church, Bristol, Conn, 1898–1903 and organizer and conductor of Bristol Choral Union; organist at St. Luke's Church, Brooklyn, and at St. Agnes Chapel of Trinity Church, New York, May–October, 1903; instructor in music at Westminster School, Simsbury, Conn., and organist of Hay Memorial Chapel 1904–08; secretary to Ralph H. Ensign, president of Ensign-Bickford Manufacturing Company, Simsbury, 1908–1917 and to his successor, Joseph R. Ensign, '89, since 1917; owner of Woods Chandler & Company (grist mill), Simsbury, since 1918; president of Simsbury Bank & Trust Company since its organization in 1916; president and director of Chandler, Pattison & Hall, Inc., 1927–1932 and of The Simsbury Company 1929–1932; director of Simsbury Electric Company since 1920 and secretary since 1922; director, secretary, and treasurer of Simsbury Casino Company 1918–1932; assistant treasurer of Simsbury Visiting Nurse Association; member Simsbury Welfare Committee, Mayflower Descendants in the State of Connecticut, and Society of Colonial Wars of Connecticut; organist and choirmaster of First Church of Christ (Congregational), Simsbury (of which a member), since 1908 and conductor of a chorus, The Chandler Club, 1905-1910

John Howard Douglass, B.A. 1896.

Born May 6, 1873, in St Louis, Mo.
Died April 8, 1932, in St. Louis, Mo.

Father, John H. Douglass, a lumber manufacturer and merchant; president of Knapp, Stout & Company of St Louis; son of Joseph Stevens and Almeda Anne (Knapp) Douglass, of Fort Madison, Iowa. Mother, Caroline Amelia (Durfee) Douglass; daughter of Joseph and Margaret (Moore) Durfee, of Marion, Ohio.

St. Louis Central High School First colloquy appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year; member Alpha Delta Phi.

LL B. magna cum laude Washington University Law School 1898; engaged actively in practice of law in St Louis from 1898 to 1914; associated in a legal capacity with Knapp, Stout & Company 1898-99, connected with firm of Rowell & Ferriss and its successor, Rowell, Zumbalen & Ferriss, 1899-1901; during later years of his life associated with firm of Hornsby, Grossman & Bedal; director in a number of companies; during the war served as chairman of Draft Board No. 20, St. Louis; attended St. John's Methodist Episcopal Church, St Louis.

Married April 26, 1905, in St. Louis, Bessee Barret, daughter of Rev Thomas Monroe Finney (B.A 1847, D.D. Southern University of Alabama 1870) and Lucinda Rebecca (Edmonston) Finney, and niece of Edward F. Finney, '68 S Children: Elizabeth Finney and John Howard, Jr.

Death due to pulmonary tuberculosis, with complications arising from an accidental gunshot wound on a hunting trip in 1914. Buried in Bellefontaine Cemetery, St. Louis. Survived by wife, daughter, son, a brother, Archibald Douglass, of Los Angeles, Calif., and a sister, Mrs. Richard T. Shelton, of St. Louis.

George Wood Govert, B.A. 1896.

Born June 24, 1874, in Jacksonville, Ill.
Died April 3, 1932, in Quincy, Ill.

Father, William Henry Govert (B.S. Illinois College 1867; LL.B. University of Michigan 1870); lawyer; state's attorney for Adams County; city attorney of Quincy, Ill.; president of Collins Plow Company, J. R. Little Metal Wheel Company, and Quincy Corn Planter Company; son of John Bernard and Anna (Schoney) Govert, of Fort Madison, Iowa. Mother, Rosa Frances (Wood) Govert; daughter of Rev. George Clinton Wood (B.A. Williams 1827; graduate Auburn Theological Seminary 1830) and Frances Emeline (Bulkeley) Wood, of Jacksonville.

Quincy High School B.A. Illinois College 1895. Entered Yale as a Senior; oration appointment.

Attended University of Michigan Law School 1897-1900 (LL.B. 1900); practiced law in Quincy from January, 1901, until retirement in 1927; member of firm of Govert, Pape & Govert 1901-08 and of Govert & Lancaster from 1908; president of J. R. Little Metal Wheel Company since 1922, of Gem City Stove Company 1922-29 (director 1908-1929), and of Quincy Foundation since 1925 (director since 1923); director of State Street Bank & Trust Company 1923-28, Modern Iron Works since 1922, Western Stoneware Company of Monmouth, Ill., 1922-29, and Quincy Hotel Company; trustee of Illinois College 1920-1931, of Quincy Y. W. C. A. 1905-1927, and of First Presbyterian Church 1903-1918.

Death due to a cerebral embolism; had had a paralytic stroke in
Tale Obituary Record

1928. Buried in Woodland Cemetery, Quincy. Survived by wife, son, and two sisters, Edith W. Castle, the wife of F. Boyd Castle, University of Illinois ex-’06, and Mrs G. Herschel Earhart, both of Quincy.

Arthur Joy Draper, B.A. 1897.

Born April 28, 1875, in Hopedale, Mass.
Died April 26, 1932, in Charlotte, N.C.

Father, William Franklin Draper; manufacturer and inventor of cotton manufacturing machinery with firm of George Draper & Sons and its successor, the Draper Company of Hopedale; Lieutenant Colonel, 35th Massachusetts, and Brevet Colonel and Brigadier General, U.S.A., in Civil War; member of Congress; ambassador to Italy, son of George and Hannah (Thwing) Draper, of Lowell, Ware, and Hopedale Mother, Lydia Warren (Joy) Draper; daughter of David and Lydia Downs (Bunker) Warren, of Nantucket, Mass., and adopted daughter of David A. Joy, of Nantucket. Nephew: Clare H. Draper, Jr., ex-’26 S.

Phillips-Exeter. Oration appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; a governor of Yale University Club and president of Exeter Club Senior year; member University Banjo Club, Yale Golf Club, Alpha Delta Phi, and Scroll and Key.

LL B. Harvard 1900; practiced law in Lexington, Ky, 1900-02 and in Atlanta, Ga, six months in 1902; treasurer of Pell City (Ala.) Manufacturing Company 1902-05; alderman of Pell City; treasurer of German-American Company (cotton) of Draper, N.C. (a suburb of Spray), 1905-06, treasurer of the Hoskins Mills, Inc., Chadwick Manufacturing Company, Calvine Manufacturing Company, Louise Mills, and Dover Yarn Mills, all of Charlotte, N.C., from October, 1906, until their merger into the Chadwick-Hoskins Company in February, 1908; treasurer of latter company 1908-1911 and president and treasurer 1911-19 (an incorporator and director since 1908); president of North Carolina and American Cotton Manufacturers associations 1918-19 and of Icemorlee Cotton Mills Company, Inc., 1924-27, vice-president of Rhodhiss (N.C.) Mills Company 1920-1932; vice-president of Stephens Company (real estate), Charlotte, 1911-1926 and president since 1920, director of American Trust Company since 1906 and vice-president 1923-28; director of Piedmont & Northern Railroad Company 1914-1927 and Citizens Hotel Company of Charlotte since 1903; member Mecklenburg County Highway Commission 1921-1931; in 1921 attended World's Cotton Conference in London and Manchester as representative of American Cotton Manufacturers Association; enlisted in Battery A, Massachusetts Volunteer Militia, at outbreak of Spanish American War and on coast defense duty at Swampscott, Mass., for two weeks; enlisted in 6th Regiment, Massachusetts Volunteers, June 17, 1898; appointed Corporal July 11 and promoted Sergeant September 5 and Second Lieutenant October 1; on board the "Yale" off Morro Castle at surrender of Santiago; later on duty in Porto Rico; mustered out January 21, 1899, during World War chairman of local War Camp Community Service drives and vice-chairman of Price Fixing Committee, Cotton Textiles Division, War Industries Board; vice-president for Charlotte district of Associated Southern Yale Clubs in 1922; director of Charlotte Country Club since 1910 and president 1910-14; member Unitarian Church, Hopedale.

Married September 7, 1899, in Lexington, Ky., Lily Duncan, daughter of Charles Howard and Nanne (Brand) Voorhies. Children: Lily Joy, the wife of Edward O. Fitzsimons, University of North Carolina 1915-17; William Franklin, 2d (died in infancy); Arthur Joy, Jr. (died in infancy); William Franklin, 3d, University of North Carolina 1932; Helen (died at birth); and Arthur Joy.

Death due to a stroke of paralysis. Buried in Elmwood Cemetery, Charlotte. Survived by wife, one daughter, two sons, four grandchildren, two brothers, George O. Draper, Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1887, and Clare H. Draper, '00, both of Hopedale, a sister, who is the wife of Montgomery Blair (B.A. Princeton 1886; LL.B. George Washington University 1888), and a half sister, Princess Margaret Boncompagni, both of Washington, D.C.

Francis Sherwood Male, B.A. 1898.

Born April 16, 1876, in Brooklyn, N.Y.
Died September 14, 1931, in Mount Kisco, N.Y.

Father, William Henry Male, a banker in Brooklyn; Civil War veteran; later Major in the Regular Army; son of William Henry and Elizabeth (Oxenbridge) Male, of New York. Mother, Frances Husted (Wood) Male; daughter of Charles and Frances Emeline (Husted) Wood, of Brooklyn.

Lawrenceville School Member Zeta Psi.

Engineer with Williamsport (Pa.) Gas Company 1898-99; secretary of Phoenix Tube Company, Brooklyn, 1899-1908 and vice-president 1908-09; real estate broker in New York City 1909-1918; bond salesman with Low, Dixon & Company, New York, 1918-1922; statistician for Graham Parsons & Company (investment securities),
New York, 1922-23; in sales department of Redmond & Company, brokers, New York, 1924; with New York Empire Company (bonds) 1924-25; salesman for Hoquet & Company, New York, 1928-29; had also been connected with United States Managers’ Corporation of New York, vice-president of Eastern Exchange Bank, New York, January-December, 1930; director of Mount Olive & Staunton Coal Company and of Union Ferry Company since 1921; attended Plattsburgh Camp 1916 and 1917; enlisted in 7th Infantry, New York National Guard, in December, 1917; commissioned as First Lieutenant, Machine Gun Company, 12th Infantry, April 16, 1918, and Captain July 9, 1921; received discharge in November, 1921; member St. Matthew’s Episcopal Church, Bedford, N. Y.

Married November 26, 1902, in New York City, Marguerite Meeker, daughter of Minot Elliott and Margaret Mansfield (Moore) Robinson. No children.

William Roderick Kelley, B.A. 1899.

Born June 19, 1876, in Chicago, Ill.
Died April 22, 1932, in Washington, D. C.

Harvard School, Chicago, and Phillips-Andover. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon

Engaged in lumber business 1899-1909; in office of W. E. Kelley & Company 1899-1901 and superintendent of their saw mill in Ruston, La., 1901-02; in lumber business under his own name in Marion, Ind., 1903-09; partner with his brother, the late Asa R. Kelley, ’04, in the Bitter Root Mercantile Company, operating commisaries and stage lines at Forty Nines, Avery, and Grand Forks, Idaho, 1909-1912; subsequently secretary-treasurer of American Freight Audit & Storage Company, Inc, of Chicago (an organizer of the company) for several years, examiner with National War Labor Board September, 1918-June, 1919, and then with Emergency Fleet Corporation in work on codification of Shipbuilding Labor Adjustment Board’s awards until April, 1920, had since been assistant chief of Division of Loans and Currency of U. S. Treasury Department, member First Presbyterian Church, Chicago.

Married February 21, 1903, in St. Clair, Mich., Helen Maude, daughter of Michael and Ella (Devine) Adams. No children.

Death due to carcinoma of the rectum and myocarditis. Buried in Rock Creek Cemetery, Washington. Survived by wife and two sisters, Mrs. Arthur W. Geiger, of Berkeley, Calif., and Mme. Jaques Deprez, of Lille, France.

Born February 28, 1876, in Adrian, Mich.
Died April 16, 1932, in Elgin, Ill.

Father, Adam Hilton Lowrie (B.A. Adrian College 1858); president of Adrian College; United States consul at Freiberg, Germany; owner and publisher of Daily and Weekly Advocate and Elgin Daily News; partner in publishing house of Lowrie & Black, Elgin; son of David and Margaret (Selby) Lowrie, of Dornchester, Scotland, and Cleveland, Ohio. Mother, Samantha Beckwith (Pease) Lowrie, daughter of Henry and Oraline J. (Waldo) Pease, of Glover, Vt.

LL.B. Northwestern University 1902; admitted to Illinois Bar and practiced law in Elgin in partnership with P. C. Tyrrell under firm name of Lowrie & Tyrell 1902-06; city editor of Lowrie & Black 1906-07; assistant editor of Elgin Daily News 1908-1919 and then its editor and publisher until consolidated with Elgin Courier in 1926, associate editor of Elgin Courier-News since 1926; charter member Elgin Country Club 1901; member First Congregational Church, Elgin.

Married January 3, 1905, in Reading, Mass., Adrienne Josephine, daughter of Charles Dwight and Emma Josephine (Temple) Thomas Children: Janet, University of Wisconsin ex-i%; the wife of Desmond V. Moody, Ohio Wesleyan ex-’27; and Robert Thomas, a member of the Class of 1933 at University of Wisconsin.

Death due to myocarditis. Buried in Bluff City Cemetery, Elgin.

Survived by wife, daughter, son, and a brother, Will L. Lowrie, of Frankfort-am-Main, Germany.

William Mersereau Wheeler, B.A. 1899.

Born February 23, 1877, in Portville, N. Y.
Died March 1, 1932, in San Francisco, Calif.

Father, William Egbert Wheeler, ’66; son of William French and Flora (Atkins) Wheeler, of Portville. Mother, Emily Almira (Mer-Phillips-Andover. Oration appointments Junior and Senior years; on Class Crew; Class deacon; member Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Married April 5, 1904, in Cincinnati, Margaret, daughter of Thomas McDougall (Cincinnati Law School) and Mary Bell (Taylor) McDougall. Children: Priscilla McDougall (B A. Wellesley 1927); Mary McDougall and Eleanor Knox (twins) (both B.A. Wellesley 1929), and William Mersereau, Jr., 1935.

Death due to pulmonary edema. Buried in Mountain View Cemetery, Oakland, Calif. Survived by wife, three daughters, son, and a sister, Eleanor W Pfeiffer, the wife of Timothy N. Pfeiffer (B.A. Princeton 1908, LL B Harvard 1912), of Riverdale-on-Hudson, N. Y.

Maurice Philip Gould, B.A. 1900.

Born June 8, 1873, in Wabaunsee, Kans.
Died March 19, 1932, in New York City.

Father, John Henry Gould, a farmer and superintendent of schools; son of James and Sarah (Osgood) Gould, who lived near Washburn Academy, Topeka, Kans. Attended Washburn College 1893–95 (business manager of college monthly; member Football Team); engaged in advertising in Topeka 1895–97, in part independently and for a time with Daggett Dry Goods Company. Entered Yale as a Sophomore in 1897; second dispute appointment Junior year and second prize at Junior Exhibition; first dispute appointment, a DeForest speaker, and Townsend Premium Senior year; a Class historian; member Zeta Psi.

Carried on an advertising business in New Haven while in college, taking his brother, Byron C. Gould, into partnership with him, after graduation continued the business in New York City under the name of M. P. Gould Company, of which he was senior partner until death; since 1928, following the death of his brother and the incorporation of the company, had held the offices of president and treasurer; one of the organizers of New York Association of Advertising Agencies in 1911 (appointed member of national organization committee) and on board of governors 1919–1920; member of first executive board of American Association of Advertising Agencies 1917–19 and chairman of magazine committee of its New York Council 1922; delegate to International Conference of Associated Advertising Companies of the World at London 1924; trustee of West Side Savings Bank of New York and director of U. S. Bond & Mortgage Corporation 1927–29; in 1917 publicity director of Red Cross membership drive for Nassau County, N. Y., member of special trades committee of New York City Third Liberty Loan, and Private in Nassau County Home Guard; in 1918 publicity director of Nassau County United War Work campaign; author Where Have my Profits Gone? (1912); contributing editor to Drugists' Circular 1905–1920; had also contributed to Printer's Ink and Bulletin of Pharmacy; lecturer on advertising at Columbia University, University of Pennsylvania, and University of Buffalo; member Broadway Tabernacle Church (Congregational), New York (deacon since 1925, member of finance committee 1928–29, lay preacher 1921, teacher in Bible School since 1922, and superintendent of the school 1921–22); chairman of board of Bethany Congregational Church, a subsidiary of Tabernacle Church, and superintendent of its Bible School 1901–07.

Married June 12, 1906, in New York City, Anna Jaffray Smith (B.A. Smith 1900), daughter of Stephen Smith (M. D. Columbia 1850; honorary M.A. Brown 1876; LL.D. University of Rochester 1891; D.Sc. Columbia 1922) and Lucie (Culver) Smith. Children:
Lucie Culver (B A. Smith 1929); Sidney Byron; and Eleanor Jaffray.
Death due to pernicious anemia. Buried in Kensico Cemetery, Valhalla, N Y. Survived by wife, two daughters, son, and a brother, Rev. J. Sidney Gould, of Oswego, Ore.

Born September 30, 1877, in Portland, Ore.
Died October 26, 1931, in Portland, Ore.

Father, John Klosterman (graduate of Heidelberg University); owner of John Klosterman & Company, merchants; born in Haja, Germany, and came to this country in 1851; son of John Henry Klosterman. Mother, Sophie E (Wolfe) Klosterman; daughter of John E and Sophie (Kolhoff) Wolfe, of Vancouver, Wash. Cousin. Lloyd O. Mayer, ’12

Bishop Scott Military School and Portland Academy. A DeForest speaker.
LL B University of Oregon 1902 (member Phi Delta Phi); admitted to Oregon State Bar 1901; clerk in law office of Cotton, Teal & Minor in Portland 1901-03; had since been engaged in business in Portland, salesman for Allen & Lewis, wholesale grocers, 1903-07; in grain brokerage business under name of J. H. Klosterman & Company 1907-1924; treasurer of Fidelity Reserve & Loan Company of Portland from 1924 until retirement in 1928; vice-president of Merchants' Exchange of Portland 1920, president of Sunnybrook Company (grain and feed); charter member University Club of Portland 1897; member Oregon State and Multnomah Bar associations and Church of the Madeleine (Roman Catholic).

Married June 14, 1904, in Portland, Della Elizabeth Zimmerman, Mills College ex-'02, daughter of Ferdinand and Mina (Seelig) Zimmerman. Children. John Kemna (died in 1922, while member of Columbia University, Portland, Class of 1923); Harry Wolfe, Gonzaga University, Spokane, ex-'28, Virginia Kemna (died in 1926); Thomas Kemna, Richard Kemna, and Peter Kemna.

Death due to cirrhosis of the liver. Buried in Riverview Cemetery, Portland. Survived by wife, four sons, and a sister, Mrs Thomas Standifer, of Newark, N. J.
Edward Rundel Pidgeon, B.A. 1900.

Born October 12, 1868, in Westport, Conn.
Died June 19, 1932, in Westport, Conn.

Father, Edward Pidgeon; son of Peter and Emily (Hawley) Pidgeon, of Brooklyn, N.Y. Mother, Emily Eliza (Vail) Pidgeon; daughter of William Rundel and Frances Macgareah (Carpenter) Vail.

Studied at New York Homeopathic Medical College and Hospital 1900-02 and at College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia, 1902-03; engaged in farming at Westport from 1908 for a number of years, but had retired some time before his death.

Unmarried.

William Edward Seymour, B.A. 1900.

Born November 22, 1878, in Brooklyn, N.Y.

Father, Walter Allen Seymour, a telegraph operator in New York City; son of George and Emily (Dunning) Seymour, of New York City. Mother, Joanna Sexton (Newcomb) Seymour; daughter of John Hopper and Sarah Mills (Sexton) Newcomb, of Hyde Park-on-Hudson, N.Y.

Lawrenceville School. Entered Yale with Class of 1899; enlisted June 26, 1898, at Newport News, Va., in Battery A, Pennsylvania Volunteers, 2d Brigade, 1st Army Corps; served in Porto Rico August 10-September 4; furloughed September 10-November 10; received discharge November 19, at Philadelphia; returned to Yale as a Junior with Class of 1900; member Alpha Delta Phi.

Cashier 34th Street National Bank, New York, 1900-07; engaged in farming at Middletown, N.Y., on his farm “Waywayonder” 1907-1920; attended Field Artillery Central Officers’ Training School, Camp Zachary Taylor, September 15-December 11, 1918; commissioned Major, Field Artillery Reserve Corps, December 11, 1918; member American Legion and First Presbyterian Church, New York City.

Married December 1, 1902, in New York City, Eleanor, daughter of Leonard Kneeland and Juliet (Cowell) Curtis. Two sons, Samuel Preston and William Edward, Jr.

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Hillside Cemetery, Peekskill, N. Y. Survived by wife and sons.

Eben MacBurney Byers, B.A. 1901.

Born April 12, 1880, in Allegheny, Pa.
Died March 31, 1932, in New York City.

Father, Alexander MacBurney Byers; president of A. M. Byers Company, iron manufacturers, of Pittsburgh and of Iron City National Bank, director of Westinghouse Air Brake and Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing companies; son of Daniel Cannon and Maria (MacBurney) Byers, of Greenfield, Pa. Mother, Martha (Fleming) Byers; daughter of Cochran and Sarah A. (Dugan) Fleming, of Sewickley, Pa. Yale relatives include a nephew, Alexander M. Byers, 1935.

St Paul's School, Concord, N. H Member University Golf Team, Hé Boulé, Alpha Delta Phi, and Wolf's Head.

Had been connected with A M. Byers Company since 1901, as director 1901-04, vice-president 1904-09, president 1909-1925, and chairman of the board since 1925; associated with Girard Iron Company 1901-1910 (president 1904-1910); director of First National Bank of Pittsburgh, Bessemer Coke Company, and Pennsylvania & Lake Erie Dock Company (since 1909); national amateur golf champion in 1906 (runner-up in 1902 and 1903), member executive committee of U S. Golf Association 1905; owned racing stables at Belmont Park and in Kentucky.

Unmarried

Death due to radium poisoning and necrosis of the bones, with abscess of the brain, bronchial pneumonia, and anemia as contributory causes. Buried in Allegheny Cemetery, Pittsburgh. Survived by a sister, Mrs J Denniston Lyon, of Pittsburgh, and a brother, J. Frederic Byers, '04. His other brothers, Alexander M. Byers, Jr., '94 S, and Dallas C. Byers, '98, died in 1899 and 1909, respectively.

Fred Stone Dodson, B.A. 1901.

Born July 7, 1874, in Andover, Mass
Died October 30, 1931, in Lawrence, Mass.

Father, Richard Jarmin Dodson; landscape gardener for John Smith estate, Andover; son of Daniel Dodson, who came from Classifier of wools for E. F. Lewis in Lawrence 1901–04 and again 1907–08; superintendent of Pendleton Scouring & Packing Company, Pendleton, Ore., 1904–07; owner of Grafton Lumber Company, Grafton, Vt., 1908–1913; studied at Massachusetts Institute of Technology (course for health workers) 1913–14; assistant superintendent Wellesley Hills (Mass.) Board of Health 1915; engaged in public health work in Framingham, Mass., as an executive officer, bacteriologist, and milk inspector for Board of Health 1916–1924; special agent of State Mutual Life Assurance Company of Worcester at Boston from 1924 until death; member American Public Health Association, Massachusetts Association of Boards of Health, American Society of Bacteriologists, and West Parish (Congregational) Church, Andover.

Married September 16, 1912, in Andover, Lena Anne, daughter of James and Mary Elizabeth (Walsh) Nolan. No children.

Death due to arteriosclerosis Buried in Old South Cemetery, Andover. Survived by wife, two sisters, Mrs. Walter Morgan, of Windham, N. H., and Mrs. Frank Howland, of Grafton, Vt., and two brothers, Richard and Andrew D. Dodson, both of Lawrence.

John Arthur Keppelman, B.A. 1901.

Born June 18, 1878, in Reading, Pa.
Died October 21, 1931, in West Reading, Pa

Father, John Henry Keppelman, a manufacturer of illuminating gas in Reading; son of John Joseph Conrad and Christiana (Baur) Keppelman, of Reading Mother, Mary Elinor (Arthur) Keppelman; daughter of John Eliot and Rebecca (Moyer) Arthur, of Reading.

Reading High School and Phillips-Andover. Second prize at Junior Exhibition; manager of Glee and Banjo Club; member Junior Promenade Committee, Hé Boulé, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones

LL B. Harvard 1904; in law office of Simpson, Thacher & Bartlett (Thomas Thacher, ’71, Alfred B. Thacher, ’74, and Philip G. Bartlett, ’81) in New York City 1904–06; admitted to New York Bar 1906 and to Pennsylvania Bar 1907; had practiced law in Reading since October, 1907; president of Consumers Gas Company of Reading October, 1924–March, 1931, and counsel 1923–1931; federal food administrator for Berks County, Pa., 1917–19; vice-president of Yale Alumni Association of Central Pennsylvania 1925; member American Academy of Political and Social Science, Academy of Political Science in the City of New York, Pennsylvania Society of New York, Engineers' Society of Pennsylvania, and the Lutheran Church.

Married March 19, 1907, in Reading, Harriet May, daughter of James Hervey and Harriet (May) Sternbergh. Children: John Arthur, Jr., '33; Lambert Sternbergh (died in childhood); Arthur Schuyler; Richard May; and Robert Gaudeas. Mrs. Keppelman died February 16, 1929.

Took his own life. Buried in Charles Evans Cemetery, Reading Survived by four sons

William Benjamin Godfrey, B.A. 1902.

Born August 29, 1878, in Honolulu, Hawaii.
Died March 7, 1932, in Berkeley, Calif.

Father, William Benjamin Godfrey; president of Inter Island Steam Navigation Company of Honolulu; son of John Winslow and Ruth (Scott) Godfrey, of Guysborough, Nova Scotia. Mother, Carrie Elizabeth (McLean) Godfrey; daughter of George Christie and Mary (Healds) McLean, of Honolulu.

Oahu College. Dissertation appointment Junior and Senior years.

Clerk in office of Spohn-Patrick Company, wholesale commission merchants, in San Francisco for four months in 1902; with A. A. Boole & Son, Inc., shipbuilders and engineers, San Francisco, in charge of yard office and later as buyer, 1902-08; manufacturers' agent in San Francisco for various hardware and household specialties companies, including Standard Steel Box Company, Hutchins-Kilbourne Company, Columbian Hardware Company, Gardner Sash Pulley Company, Fuller Brush Company, Milton Chemical Company, Fursyth Metal Goods Company, and Ohio Duster Company, 1908-1916; branch manager in San Francisco of McQuay-Norris Manufacturing Company of St. Louis (pistons and piston rings) 1916-1923; district manager in San Francisco for Pacific Coast Mono Service Company of Newark, N. J., since 1924; member Central Union Congregational Church, Honolulu.

Married February 7, 1906, in Amsterdam, N. Y., Anne Hale, daughter of Martin Luther Stover, Wittenberg College ex-'66, and Helen Eliza (Shuler) Stover. One daughter, Helen McLean (died in childhood).

Death due to acute myocarditis. Cremation took place and ashes were deposited in California Columbarium, Oakland. Survived by wife, three sisters, Mrs. Frank B. Drake, of San Francisco, and the Misses Cora F. and Sophia A. Godfrey, both of Berkeley, and a brother, George C. Godfrey, of San Francisco.

Avard Longley Bishop, B.A. 1903.

Born March 4, 1875, in South Williamstown, Nova Scotia, Canada
Died May 8, 1932, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, William Bishop, a farmer, son of George and Diadema (Longley) Bishop, of South Williamstown. Mother, Mary Ann (Morse) Bishop; daughter of Abner and Margaret (Hicks) Morse, of Nictaux West, Nova Scotia.

Lawrencetown (Nova Scotia) Academy. B.A. Acadia University 1901; special representative of Confederation Life Insurance Company of Canada 1901–02; entered Yale as a Senior; philosophical oration appointment; member Phi Beta Kappa.

Foote fellow in Yale Graduate School 1903–04 and assistant in political economy; M.A. 1904; instructor in commercial geography 1904–08; Ph.D. 1906; assistant professor of science of society 1908–1911; professor of geography and commerce 1911–18; professor of business administration since 1918; acting chairman of Department of Social and Political Science 1923; during World War on teaching staff of Yale S.A.T.C. and Naval Training Unit; D.C.L. Acadia 1930; appointed by Governor Roberts delegate to National Convention of Foreign Commerce of the United States in Washington 1911; in 1912 represented Yale at Conference on Proper Education for Export Trade held in Boston under auspices of Boston Export Round Table, author: Outlines of American Foreign Commerce (1923), The Financing of Business Enterprises (1929), and The State Works of Pennsylvania; co-author, with Professors Herbert L. Gregory and Albert G. Keller, both '96, of Physical and Commercial Geography (1912) and Industry and Trade (1918); contributed to American Economic Review, American Political Science Review, Educational Review, Yale Review, Harvard Business Review, American Geographical Society Bulletin, Journal of American Insurance, Atlantic Monthly, and Yale Alumni Weekly; director of PhotoReflex Corporation (elected in April, 1932); member New Haven Chamber of Commerce, American Economic Association, Association of American Geographers, Sigma Xi (elected 1906), Yale chapter of Phi Gamma Delta (elected 1912), Aurelian Honor Society of Yale (elected 1913), and Center Church (Congregational), New Haven (member of Sunday School board 1924).

Harold Johnson Barbour, B.A. 1904.

Born October 31, 1882, in Chicago, Ill.
Died March 30, 1932, in Elmhurst, New York City.

Father, Samuel Lynes Barbour; founder of Barbour Brothers Silver Company of Hartford, Conn.; manager of Factory A of International Silver Company of Meriden, Conn.; son of James Green Barbour, D.D.S., and Ann Maria (Starr) Barbour, of Norwalk, Conn. Mother, Maria (Johnson) Barbour, daughter of John Wooler and Henrietta Amelia (Carter) Johnson, of Milwaukee, Wis.

Hartford Public High School.

Married October 31, 1914, in Chicago, Emma, daughter of Thomas Lindsay and Adelaide Maria (Saunders) Post. No children.

Death due to lobar pneumonia and myocarditis. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by wife and a sister, Mrs. Albert R. Grinnell, of West Hartford.
Otis Munro Bigelow, Jr., B.A. 1904.

Born April 5, 1881, in Baldwinsville, N. Y.
Died February 12, 1932, in Cornwall-on-Hudson, N. Y.

Father, Otis Munro Bigelow, '72; son of Payn and Hannah (Munro) Bigelow, of Baldwinsville. Mother, Lillian Maude (Swetland) Bigelow; daughter of William Wallace and Elizabeth (Bingham) Swetland, of Freetown, N. Y.

Baldwinsville High School and Westminster School. High oration appointment Junior year and Scott Prize in French; oration appointment Senior year and honors in Romance languages and literature; member Beta Theta Pi and Phi Beta Kappa.

Instructor in French and Spanish at Kingsley School, Essex Fells, N. J., 1904-08 (senior master 1906-08); M.A. Yale 1907; took a trip around the world 1908-09; instructor in French at Yale 1909-1914; taught French at Central High School, Syracuse, N. Y., 1914-15; instructor in French and Spanish at Phillips-Exeter 1915-18; Y.M.C.A. secretary in Italy (with rank of Captain by courtesy in Italian Army) June, 1918-June, 1919; stationed at Como until November and then in front line at Valstaqua (Brenta Valley) until the armistice; regional director of the Trentino, with headquarters in Trenta, from December; awarded the Croce al Merito de Guerra and service stripes; associate master of Kingsley School 1919-1924 and headmaster 1925-26; spent year 1926-27 abroad, had since been instructor in French at Storm King School, Cornwall-on-Hudson; member Presbyterian Church, Baldwinsville.

Married June 12, 1912, in New Haven, Ruth Lillian Spalding, ex-'09 Art, daughter of Warren Alphonso Spalding, '81 S., and Myra (Sanborn) Spalding, and sister of Henry Spalding, '96, Clarence G. Spalding, '98 S., and Edward B. Spalding, '03 S. Children: Otis Munro, 3d (died in infancy); and Otis Munro, 3d.

Death due to uremia and essential hypertension. Buried in Riverside Cemetery, Baldwinsville. Survived by wife, son, two brothers, Wallace Bigelow, '13 S., and Payn Bigelow (B.S. Syracuse 1923), of Syracuse, and two sisters, Marie Louise Connell (B.A. Smith 1906), the wife of James C. Connell (B.A. Amherst 1907), of Baldwinsville, and Olivia Keyes (Bachelor of Oral English Syracuse 1918), the wife of Robert W. Keyes, Union ex-'19.
John Alston Moorhead, B.A. 1904.

Died August 18, 1931, in Sewickley, Pa.

Father, John Moorhead, Jr., ’80 S.; son of John and Anne Catherine (Turner) Moorhead, of Pittsburgh, Pa. Mother, Annie Donaldson (Alston) Moorhead; daughter of John and Margaret (Merten) Alston, of Chicago. Yale relatives include: Frank T. Moorhead, ’78 S (uncle); and John U. Moorhead, ’08 S., and Horace R. Moorhead, Jr., ’29 (first cousins)

St Paul’s School, Concord, N. H. Member Freshman Football Team, University Football Squad three years, Track Team, Alpha Delta Phi, and Wolf’s Head.

Vice-president and general manager of Moorhead Brothers & Company, Inc, of Sharpsburg 1904–1915; member of brokerage firm of Earle & Moorhead, New York City, 1915–1921; sales engineer for Weber Insulating Company 1921; engaged independently in practice as a steel plant and combustion engineer in Pittsburgh 1921-29, vice-president of Interlocking Arch Company from 1929 until resignation about three months before his death on account of impaired eyesight; had been assistant to president of Standard Underground Cable Company; and assistant manager of Pittsburgh Amusement Company; director of Etna & Vesuvius Coal Company, of Pittsburgh (1904–1915) and of Vesuvius Reduction Company; coached University of Pittsburgh Football Team 1906–08; member St Stephen’s Episcopal Church, Sewickley.

Married May 6, 1906, in New York City, Marguerite Emily, daughter of Louis Emile and Emily (Andrews) Clement, of Paris, France. One daughter, Marjone Anne.

Death due to fracture of the skull and cerebral concussion received in a fall at his home in Sewickley. Buried in Allegheny Cemetery, Pittsburgh. Survived by wife, daughter, mother, a sister, Mrs. Margaret Moorhead Ryan, of Pittsburgh and New York, and a brother, Turner D. Moorhead, ex-’10.

Arthur Francis Stoddard Steele, B.A. 1904.

Born January 15, 1877, in Sayre, Pa.
Died July 12, 1931, in Eugene, Ore.

Father, John Steele; foreman of car inspectors for Lehigh Valley Railroad Company; born in Edinburgh, Scotland, and came to
Tale College

America about 1870. Mother, Mary Agnes (Deans) Steele; born in Scotland.

Prepared for college by private tutor in Auburn, N. Y.

Clerk with Lehigh Valley Railroad Company at Auburn 1904–05; chief clerk to general superintendent of Great Northern Railroad Company at St. Paul, Minn., and Sioux City, Iowa, 1905–1910; in wholesale coal business in Spokane, Wash., under name of A. F. S. Steele 1910–11; secretary of Springdale & Long Lake Railway Company and of Natatorium Amusement Company 1911–18; secretary and assistant to vice-president of Washington Power Company, Spokane, 1911–18; production manager of Koken Companies (barbers' chairs and supplies), St. Louis, Mo., 1918–1921; clerk with Idaho Reclamation Service at Boise 1921–23; general manager of Apple Growers' Association, of Hood River, Ore., 1923–27; general manager of Moe Iron Works, manufacturers of fruit cleaning and handling equipment, Toppenish, Wash., 1928; executive secretary of Central Washington Growers' Association, Yakima, Wash., 1928–29; had since been managing secretary of Eugene Chamber of Commerce; president of Employers' Association of Spokane 1915–18 and of Hood River Chamber of Commerce 1925–27; director of Spokane Chamber of Commerce 1915–18; chairman of organization committee of Pacific Northwest Advisory Board 1925 and general chairman of the board 1926 and 1927; chief of district office of American Protective League and with Military Intelligence Bureau 1917–18; contributor to Better Fruit Magazine; local chairman of Hood River District, Yale Endowment Campaign; member First Presbyterian Church, Eugene.

Married November 9, 1905, in Caro, Mich., Mary Cornelia Wise (B.A. Cornell 1902), daughter of Henry Gregory and Josephine Jane (Griggs) Wise, a graduate of Mount Holyoke Seminary (now College) in 1870. Children: Henry John, Arthur Francis Stoddard, Jr., and Josephine Jane. Mr. and Mrs. Steele were divorced in 1929.

Death due to carcinoma of the rectum. Cremation took place and ashes were buried in Portland (Ore.) Mausoleum. Survived by two sons, daughter, and two sisters, Mrs. George A. Brooks, of Auburn, N. Y., and Mrs. John W. Rice, of Syracuse, N. Y.

Robert Morrill Adams, B.A. 1906.

Born May 28, 1882, in Hill, N. H.

Father, Rev. Franklin Elihu Adams (Dartmouth ex-'75; B.D. St. Lawrence 1898; Ph.D. Northern Illinois College 1903); a Universalist minister in Ontario, Quebec, Pennsylvania, Vermont, and Maine; son of George Whitefield and Louisa (Tandy) Adams, of Haverhill, Mass. Mother, Mary Lorenza (Parker) Adams; daughter of Haven and Eliza (Morrill) Parker, of Hill.

Canton (N.Y.) and Haverhill (Mass.) High schools. B.A. National Normal University (Lebanon University) 1905. Entered Yale as a Senior, but left in April, 1906; in 1911 received degree of B.A., with enrollment in Class of 1906.

Taught Latin and science in Provincial High School, Lingayen, Pangasinan Province, P.I., 1906-09; supervising teacher at Anda, island of Cabarruyan, P. I., 1909, at Gerona, Tarlac, 1909-1910, and at Nueva Caceres, Ambos Camarines, 1910-11; taught in Manila Normal School summer of 1911 and again in high school at Lingayen 1911-12; principal of high school at Vineyard Haven, Mass., 1912-13, examiner for United States Civil Service Commission at Washington 1913-16; scientific assistant in horticulture, in office of Horticultural and Pomological Investigations and with States Relation Service, Agricultural Education, U. S. Department of Agriculture, 1916-19; extension assistant professor of vegetable crops at New York State College of Agriculture, Cornell University, and 4-H Club specialist in the Department of Vegetable Crops since 1920; M.A. Columbia 1926; graduate student at Cornell 1927-28; since October, 1921, had syndicated verse, "Rude Rural Rhymes," to weekly papers in the United States and Canada under name of Bob Adams Syndicate; author: Rude Rural Rhymes (published by Macmillan Company 1925) and The Old Times (published by Bob Adams Syndicate 1931); contributed to various newspapers and agricultural periodicals under titles of "Garden Talks" (1921-22), "Indoors and Outdoors" (1922-24), and "Hoe Handle Homilies" (1924-1931), member First Unitarian Church, Ithaca, and Alpha Kappa Delta and Epsilon Sigma Phi (honorary agricultural extension societies)

Death due to meningitis, following an operation for acute suppurative labyrinthitis. Buried in East Lawn Cemetery, Ithaca. Survived by wife, son, a brother, Clifton L. Adams, '08, and a sister, Miss Edith L. Adams (B.A. St Lawrence University 1906), of Washington, D.C.
Roger Yale Flanders, B.A. 1906.

Born November 12, 1883, in Milwaukee, Wis.
Died February 17, 1932, in Milwaukee, Wis.

Father, James Greeley Flanders (B.A. 1867; LL.B. Columbia 1869); a lawyer; son of Walter Powers Flanders (B.A. Dartmouth 1831) and Susan Everett (Greeley) Flanders, of New London, N. H. Mother, Mary Cornelia (Haney) Flanders; daughter of Robert and Delia Cornelia (Dickinson) Haney, of Milwaukee. Yale relatives include. Joseph W. Simpson, Jr., '26 (nephew); and Ralph D. Reed, '96 S. (first cousin).

Milwaukee Academy and East Side High School, Milwaukee. First Division stand Freshman year; first colloquy appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year; member Freshman Banjo Club, Senior Promenade Committee, Class Triennial Committee, Alpha Delta Phi, and Scroll and Key.

LL.B. Harvard 1909; practiced law in Milwaukee with his father's firm, Winkler, Flanders, Bottum & Fawsett, and its successors, Flanders, Bottum, Fawsett & Bottum and Flanders & Fawsett, from his admission to Wisconsin Bar in 1910 until 1917; director for Wisconsin of Four-Minute Men, with headquarters in St. Louis, 1917; district director of War Department Commission on Training Camp Activities, with headquarters in Chicago, 1918; manager of Milwaukee office of Lee, Higginson & Company, investment bankers, 1919-1923; had since been a dealer in investment securities under his own name in Milwaukee; president of Yale Alumni Association of Wisconsin 1930-31; member Wisconsin and Milwaukee Bar associations and St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Milwaukee.

Married June 14, 1913, in Oconomowoc, Wis., Annette Ladd Hoyt (B.A. Smith 1910; B S. University of Illinois 1918), daughter of Frank Mason and Hettie (Jones) Hoyt. No children. Mr. and Mrs. Flanders were divorced in 1918.

Death due to occlusion of coronary artery of the heart. Buried in Forest Home Cemetery, Milwaukee. Survived by a sister, Mrs Joseph W. Simpson, of Milwaukee.

Walter Rudolph Koehler, B.A. 1906.

Born May 4, 1885, in Cincinnati, Ohio.
Died September 30, 1931, in Fort Lee, N. J.

Father, Victor Maximilian Koehler (University of Marburg; M.D. University of Leipzig 1871); came to this country 1882 and practiced medicine in Cincinnati; son of Judge Edward Koehler and Adelaide (Droste) Koehler, of Bad Pyrmont, Waldeck, Germany. Mother, Louise (Balke) Koehler; daughter of Julius and Charlotte Balke, of Cincinnati.

Cincinnati Educational Institute. First division stand Freshman year; first colloquy appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year; on Track Team, first Colloquy Baseball Team, and Whist Team (University whist champion); member Yale Corinthian Yacht Club; president of Cincinnati Club.

LL.B. Harvard 1909; admitted to Ohio Bar and practiced law in Cincinnati with firm of Kittridge, Wilby & Stimson and in Chicago with firm of Adams, Bobbs & Adams; assistant in purchasing department of Indian Refining Company, Cincinnati; a founder of Globe Automatic Sprinkler Company, of which treasurer and a director 1912–16, in Cincinnati three years and then in Philadelphia; associated with the L. S. E. Company, Inc. (decorative linens), Brooklyn, as treasurer and a director 1915–1927 and president and general superintendent 1918–1927; manager of oil burning department of Monitor Furnace Company of Cincinnati several months in 1927–28 and then appointed receiver for the company; secretary and in charge of production of Berger Service, Inc (cleaners and dyers). New York City, since 1929; treasurer of Yale Club of Cincinnati 1915, member Unitarian Church, Cincinnati.

Married October 11, 1917, in New York City, Martha Jenner, daughter of Kneisly and Emily May (Jenner) Jewell. One daughter, Stephanie.

Leonard Enos Todd, B.A. 1906.

Born May 10, 1880, in Woodbridge, Conn.
Died June 11, 1932, in Milford, Conn.

Father, Dwight Ely Todd, a farmer in Woodbridge; son of Leonard and Julia (Bradley) Todd, of Bethany, Conn. Mother, Catherine (Sperry) Todd; daughter of Enos and Rosette (Russell) Sperry, of Bethany. Great-great-uncle: Rev. Ambrose Todd (B.A. 1786).

Hopkins Grammar School. Entered Yale with Class of 1905, joined Class of 1906 the next year.

Studied in Berkeley Divinity School 1906–09; during summer of 1908 did missionary work in Cordova, Alaska; ordained deacon in Protestant Episcopal Church June 2, 1909; ordained priest September 19, 1910, at Christ Church, Bethany; curate of Church of the Ascension, Fall River, Mass., 1909-1911; curate of St. John’s Church, Waterbury, Conn., and priest in charge of All Saints Mission 1911-12; rector of All Saints Church, Oakville, Conn., 1912-1923, rector of St. Paul’s Church, Woodbury, Conn., 1924-1930, and of Christ Church, Bethany, from January to May, 1932, when he retired on account of ill health.

Married May 24, 1917, in Bethany, Grace Lavinia, daughter of Frederick and Emma Georganna (Cummings) Ingraham. Children: Catherine Emma; Leonard Frederick; and (twins) Dorothy Martha (died in infancy) and Edwin Arthur.

Took his own life; had suffered a series of nervous breakdowns. Buried in Carrington Cemetery, Bethany. Survived by wife, daughter, two sons, a sister, Mrs. Paul Chatfield (B.A. Smith 1911), of Ocean Grove, N. J., and a half brother, Burton N. Bishop (D.D S University of Pennsylvania 1899), of New Haven.

Donald Mitchell Ryerson, B.A. 1907.

Born December 2, 1884, in Chicago, Ill
Died May 8, 1932, in Lake Forest, Ill.

Father, Edward Larned Ryerson, ’76 S.; son of Joseph Turner and Ellen Griffin (Larned) Ryerson, of Chicago. Mother, Mary Pringle (Mitchell) Ryerson; daughter of Donald G. Mitchell (B.A 1841, LL.D. 1878) and Mary Frances (Pringle) Mitchell, of New Haven.

University School, Chicago, The Hill School, and the Adirondack-Florida School. Oration appointment Junior and Senior years and honors Junior year; published first edition of Yale-Harvard Song Book and the 1906 Yale Banner; member indoor Class Relay Team, the Pundits, Psi Upsilon, and Wolf’s Head.

Had been connected with firm of Joseph T. Ryerson & Son, Inc., steel manufacturers, Chicago, since graduation; assistant secretary 1909-1911, vice-president 1911-1925, vice-president and general manager 1925–28, and chairman of the board since 1928; president of Reed, Smith & Company, of Milwaukee, Wis., an affiliate of Joseph T. Ryerson & Son, Inc., since 1924; director of Illinois Merchants Bank from 1923 until its merger with Continental Illinois Bank & Trust Company 1929 and director of latter 1929–1930; director of Home for Destitute Crippled Children since 1919 and of Chicago chapter of American Red Cross since 1923; member of executive committee of Illinois Children’s Home and Aid Society 1921, president 1923–26, and vice-president since 1926; trustee of Foundation for Architecture and Landscaping Architecture since 1928; member of executive and finance committees of Chicago Crime Commission since 1923, of executive committee of Industrial Club of Chicago 1931–32 and of Chicago Club since 1927; in 1917 originated and, during leave of absence from the Navy, organized the Four-Minute Men and acted as chairman of founding committee in Washington until June 15, 1917; enlisted as Provisional Ensign, Naval Coast Defense, U S N.R.F., April 3, 1917, at Great Lakes Naval Training Station, commissioned Ensign, U.S N, September 15, 1917, and assigned to Annapolis, supervised construction of U.S.S. “Sigourney” at Four Rivers Shipyard, Boston, February–May, 1918; promoted Lieutenant (j g ) June 1, 1918, and Lieutenant September 21, 1918, overseas May 20–December 13, 1918, on destroyer duty based at Brest; received discharge December 31, 1918; member Church of the Holy Spirit (Episcopal), Lake Forest.

Took his own life, had been suffering from a nervous breakdown since the previous October. Buried in Lake Forest Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughter, one son, mother, and two brothers, Joseph T. Ryerson, ’01 S, and Edward L. Ryerson, Jr., ’08 S.

Wayne Winslow Waite, B.A. 1907.

Born December 30, 1884, in Batchellerville, N. Y.
Died April 11, 1932, in Seattle, Wash.

Father, Charles Waite; in mercantile business in Batchellerville, Dolgeville, and Gloversville, N Y., and Seattle; son of Erasmus and Lovina (Hovey) Waite, of Watertown, N. Y. Mother, Elizabeth Pauline (Snow) Waite; daughter of Winslow E. and Cordelia M. (Jones) Snow, of Batchellerville.
Dolgeville and Gloversville high schools. Dissertation appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year.

Taught at Lockport (Pa) High School 1907–08 and at Jubilee School, Oakhill, Ill., 1908–09; stenographer for Wagner & Wilson, lumber dealers, Monroe, Wash., for Independent Telephone Company, Seattle, and for Hoquiam (Wash.) Lumber & Shingle Company; cashier for Fuller Publishing Company, Seattle; accountant for McCormick (Wash.) Lumber Company at Pe Ell, Wash.; auditor for McKale’s, Inc. (service stations in Seattle and San Francisco), 1930–32; attended First Presbyterian Church, Seattle.

Married July 9, 1924, in Seattle, Vera Juanita, daughter of Alva and Mary (Towler) Pike. One son, Winslow Francis.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Washelli Cemetery, Seattle. Survived by wife, son, parents (father died June 17, 1932), and a sister, Mrs. Glenn Johnston, of Seattle.

Charles Devon Heald, B.A. 1909.

Born January 5, 1884, in Bartlett, Ohio.
Died November 7, 1931, in Dayton, Ohio

Father, Oscar Orland Heald, a farmer in Cutler, Ohio; son of William S and Amanda (Hayes) Heald, of Bartlett. Mother, Sarah Jane (Wood) Heald; daughter of Moses and Armanda (Powell) Wood, of Bartlett.

Bartlett Academy; B.S. Lebanon University 1904; taught in Maple Grove Special District School, Warren County, Ohio, 1904–05 and in a grade school in Lebanon 1905–07; LL.B. Lebanon University 1907; admitted to Ohio Bar June, 1907; B.A. Lebanon 1908; entered Yale as a Senior in 1908.

Married August 22, 1906, in Lebanon, Irene Lydia Hayner, Lebanon ex-'06, daughter of Joseph Edward Hayner and Eusebia (Krewson) Hayner (B.S. National Normal University 1872).
Tale Obituary Record

Children: Charles Devon, Jr., Kenyon College 1935; and Carol Irene

Death due to Bright's disease. Buried in Woodland Cemetery, Dayton. Survived by wife, son, daughter, mother, and two brothers, Walter W. Heald (M.D. University of Louisville 1911), of West Lebanon, Ind., and Howard F. Heald (LL.B. Ohio State University 1921), of Dayton.

Born September 26, 1887, in Leadville, Colo.
Died September 2, 1931, in Denver, Colo.

Father, John Clark Mitchell; president of Denver National Bank, member Federal Reserve Board; son of James and Catherine (Clark) Mitchell, of Freeport, Ill; Mother, Clara Matteson (Goodell) Mitchell; daughter of Roswell Eaton and Mary Jane (Matteson) Goodell, of Springfield, Ill. Yale relatives: Lester E. Grant, '06, and James B. Grant, '09 (cousins).

East Denver High School and Holbrook Military Academy, Ossining, N. Y. First colloquy appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year; member Delta Kappa Epsilon.

E M Columbia School of Mines 1911 (member Tau Beta Pi and Sigma Xi; secretary of Mining Society; secretary and treasurer of Class of 1911); mining engineer with Britannia Mining & Smelting Company, Ltd., at Britannia Beach, British Columbia, 1911–13; superintendent of Isabella Mines Company in Cripple Creek district of Colorado at Victor 1913–16 and manager and director 1916–17, member of firm and treasurer of Wright-Swan & Company, Inc (bonds and investments), Denver, 1919–1920; vice-president and director of Bankers Trust Company 1920–23; vice-president of Denver National Bank since 1923 (director since 1921); vice-president of Colorado Bankers Association 1922–23 and president 1923–24 (chairman of group 1, Denver and Northern Colorado banks, 1921 and 1922 and member of executive council 1924); member executive committee of American Bankers Association 1923–28 and of its bank management commission 1928–1931 and chairman of its membership committee 1926–28; regent of University of Colorado since 1920, director of Central Savings Bank & Trust Company of Denver since 1924, Electrical Products Corporation since March, 1931, Sterling Lumber & Investment Company since 1922, Compressed Gas Corporation 1923–29, Holly Sugar Company 1924–28, and Denver Community Chest since 1922 (on executive committee and chairman of publicity committee 1922 and on advisory committee 1924); vice-president of Denver council of Boy Scouts of America since 1928 (chairman of finance committee 1930 and 1931); active in Big Brothers of Denver 1923–29; treasurer of Mile High Club since 1920 and of the Wigwam Club since 1929; enlisted in the Air Service November 19, 1917; commissioned Second Lieutenant, Aviation Section, Signal Corps, January 3, 1918; promoted First Lieutenant July 16, 1918; with Inspection Department, Equipment Division, Air Service, Washington, D. C., six months; assigned to McCook Field, Dayton, Ohio, September, 1918–January 22, 1919; commissioned Captain, Air Service Reserve Corps, April 4, 1919; contributed articles to Mountain States Banker, Pacific Coast Banker, Bankers Magazine, The Bankers Monthly, Burroughs Clearing House, American Bankers Association Journal, and The Colorado Manufacturer and Consumer; president of Columbia University Club of Denver since February, 1931; member Sons of the American Revolution and Church of Christ in Yale University.
Tale College

Yale College

Married, September 21, 1911, in Denver, Ida Hermine, daughter of Edward Edward and Carrie (Post) Quentin. Children: Clara Elizabeth, Catherine Quentin, John Clark, 2d, and Quentin.

Death due to mesenteric thrombosis. Buried in Fairmount Cemetery, Denver. Survived by wife, two daughters, two sons, mother, and a sister, Mrs. Henry Cruger VanSchaack, of Denver.

Donald Ryder Dickey, B.A. 1910.

Born March 31, 1887, in Dubuque, Iowa.
Died April 15, 1932, in Pasadena, Calif.

Father, Ernest May Dickey; with American Nitrogen Company of Chicago and superintendent of Diamond Joe Steamship Line and of bureau of inspection, Weighing & Transit Company; son of Samuel May and Mary Elizabeth (Hoverland) Dickey, of Illinois Mother, Anna Roberts (Ryder) Dickey; daughter of Noble Camp and Frances Sabin (Smith) Ryder, of Dubuque.

Thacher School. Attended University of California as member of Class of 1909. Honors Freshman year, honors in English composition Sophomore year, and general honors and philosophical oration appointment Junior year; secretary and treasurer of Gun Club Sophomore year; member University Gun Team (captain Senior year), University Glee Club Sophomore year, Apollo Glee Club, College Choir, Psi Upsilon, Elihu Club, and Phi Beta Kappa.

For three years after graduation was unable to engage in any active occupation because of heart trouble; lived in Ojai for a time and since then in Pasadena; took up the study of natural history and began collecting specimens in 1913; made photographs and moving pictures of birds and big game in Africa, the Laysan Islands, and North and Central America and collected specimens for museums; had private collection of over 50,000 specimens of birds and mammals, considered to be the largest private collection in the United States; research associate in vertebrate zoology at California Institute of Technology since 1926; trustee of Southwest Museum, Los Angeles, 1920–28, president of board of Pasadena Hospital Association 1924–25 (director 1923–27); director of Pasadena branch of Pacific Southwest Trust & Savings Bank 1924–29; honorary M.A. Occidental College 1925; attended Small Arms Firing School, Camp Perry, Ohio, as officer candidate August–November, 1918; had contributed to Country Life in America, Outing, Auk, Condor, Ibis, Journal of Mammalogy, and Proceedings of Biological Society of Washington, and of San Diego Society of Natural History; a governor of Cooper Ornithological Club of San Francisco and Los Angeles since 1926; member American Ornithologists Union and American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Married June 15, 1921, in Charles Town, W. Va., Florence VanVechten, daughter of Simon Jones Murphy (B.S. Harvard 1874) and Helena Bogardus (Platt) Murphy. One son, Donald Ryder, Jr.

Death due to toxic myocarditis. Buried in Linwood Cemetery, Dubuque. Survived by wife and son Born August 21, 1885, in Mount Carmel, Ill.

Died October 29, 1931, in Kansas City, Mo.

Father, John D. Nesbitt, a farmer; son of John and Jane (Moffett) Nesbitt, of Hanover, Ill. Mother, Annetta (Stakemiller) Nesbitt; daughter of Samuel and Anna Margaret (Cooper) Stakemiller, of Mount Carmel.

Pawnee City (Nebr.) High School, Preparatory School of Park College, and Preparatory Department of Tarkio (Mo.) College; attended Tarkio College 1903–07, as member of Class of 1908. Entered Yale as a Junior in 1908; member University Orchestra.

Assistant cashier of Bank of Burchard, Nebr., 1910–12; lived in Los Angeles, Calif., 1912–13 on account of his health; engaged in the dairy business in Pawnee City 1913–15; owner of Elite Theatre in that city 1916–18; owner and manager of Linwood Theatre in Tarkio 1918–1922, engaged in advertising business in Kansas City from 1922 until death, as owner of Associated Advertisers, and conducted publicity of the Liberty, Main Street, and Pantages theatres; member Westminster Congregational Church, Kansas City.

Married September 15, 1910, in Tarkio, Sue Marie Stevenson, Tarkio College '10, daughter of Robert McCague and Nina (Bower) Stevenson. Children: Ellen Bower; Jane Annetta; Robert Stevenson; Robert McCague Stevenson; John Moffett; and James Stevenson (died in 1930).

Death due to ptomaine poisoning. Buried in Tarkio. Survived by wife, three daughters, two sons, and a sister, Orpha Ellen Elder, the wife of Earl Elder (B.A. Monmouth College 1908), of Cairo, Egypt.

Arthur Williams, B.A. 1910.

Born April 13, 1889, in Mount Vernon, N Y.
Died November 28, 1931, in Rochester, N. Y.

Father, Arthur Williams, '77; son of Giles and Frances Maria (Gallup) Williams, of Pomfret, Conn. Mother, Harriette Hawley (Stowe) Williams; daughter of Henry and Susan (Folliette) Stowe, of New Haven. Yale relatives include: Nathan Gallup (B.A. 1823) (great-uncle); Job Williams, '64 (uncle); and Henry L Williams, '91, Nathan W. Green, '94, Arthur C. Williams, '98, Allen P. Lovejoy, '04, Henry S. Lovejoy, '07, and Charles G. Williams, '08 S. (first cousins).

Dwight School, New York City, and Phillips-Andover. Contributed to Yale Record and Yale Daily News; member Freshman Glee Club, Apollo Glee Club two years, and Beta Theta Pi.

Married September 9, 1914, in New York City, Hazel, daughter of Moses Perry and Mary (Petticrew) Johnson, of St. Louis, Mo. Children. Arthur, 3d; Robert Petticrew; and Anne Browning.

Death due to coronary thrombosis. Cremation took place in Rochester. Survived by wife, sons, daughter, mother, and two sisters, Mrs. William Valentine (B.A Wellesley 1901) and Mrs. Earl F Streeter (B.A. Mount Holyoke 1918), both of Hartford, Conn.
Gilbert Max Smith, B.A. 1911.
Born March 27, 1887, in Sioux City, Iowa.
Died May 26, 1932, in Evanston, Ill.

Mercersburg Academy, Hopkins Grammar School, and Phillips-Andover. Entered Yale with Class of 1910; joined Class of 1911 in fall of 1909; business manager of Tale Record Senior year; president of Mercersburg Club; member Picture Committee Senior year and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Assistant manager of a ranch at Mapleton, Iowa, 1911-13; had since been connected with New York Life Insurance Company, with San Francisco office 1913-14, agency director of Dearborn Street branch, Chicago, since 1914; director of Standard Motors Securities Corporation, Donoghue-Krumwick Company (bonds), and J. C. McFarland Company; enlisted in the Air Service, Signal Corps, as Private (1st Class) August 17, 1917; attended School of Military Aeronautics at University of Illinois; received flying training at Camp Dick and Benbrook Field; injured in a fall March 22, 1918, and in the hospital five months; commissioned Second Lieutenant, Air Service, October 26, 1918; instructor in flying and tester until given his discharge December 19, 1918; former member Cook County (Ill.) Aviation Commission; president of Yale Club of Evanston 1925-26; member Congregational Church.

Married June 12, 1911, in Springfield, Mass, Bessie Marie, daughter of William J and Elizabeth (Mellen) O'Connell. Children: Gilbert Bristol, Max Knowles (died in childhood); Bruce Monroe, Hugh (died in infancy), and Douglas Mellen.

Took his own life. Buried in Graceland Cemetery, Chicago
Survived by wife and three sons.

Charles Frederic Berg, B.A. 1912.

Born October 2, 1889, in Orange, N. J.
Died February 2, 1932, in Redding, Conn.

Newark Academy. Member Freshman Track and Basketball teams and Zeta Psi.

Married August 6, 1927, in New York City, Margaret, daughter of Alexander and Jessie (Maiden) Smith. One son, Charles Frederic.

Death due to lobar pneumonia and pulmonary edema. Buried in Rosedale Cemetery, Orange. Survived by wife, son, and parents.

William George Phelps, Jr., B.A. 1914.

Born June 5, 1890, in Binghamton, N. Y.
Died January 14, 1932, in Binghamton, N. Y.

Father, William George Phelps; president of First National Bank of Binghamton, of Annord Coal Company, and Binghamton Public Library; vice-president of Security Mutual Life Insurance Company and of Kent Timber Company; son of John Case and Martha Wheeler (Bennett) Phelps, of WilkesBarre, Pa. Mother, Caroline Ives (Shoemaker) Phelps; daughter of Lazarus Denison Shoemaker (B.A. 1840) and Esther (Wadhams) Shoemaker, of WilkesBarre. Yale relatives include: Dr. El Ives (B.A. 1799) (great-great-uncle); Dr. Levi Ives (M.D. 1838) (great-uncle); Henry B. Platt and Levi I. Shoemaker, both '82, and Z. Bennett Phelps, '95 (uncles); John C. Phelps, '06, and Denison S. Phelps, ex-'10 (brothers); Denison S. Phelps, Jr., '33 S., and Marshall C. Phelps, '35 (nephews); and L. Denison Stearns, '96 S., Harold M. Shoemaker, '05, William D. Phelps, ex-'13, Collier Platt, '20, and Z. Bennett Phelps, Jr., '28 S. (first cousins).

Binghamton Central High School, Phillips-Andover, and tutor. Oration appointment Junior year; high oration appointment Senior year; circulation manager of Yale Courant; member Zeta Psi.

Clerk with First National Bank of Binghamton 1914–16 and teller 1916–18; commissioned Second Lieutenant, 4th Infantry, New York National Guard, February 1, 1918; assistant field director of Southern Division, American Red Cross, at Atlanta, Ga., May 15–
June 1, 1918, and then at Camp Greene, S. C., until October 1, 1919, in partnership with Walter L. Chittenden, '00, in firm of Chittenden, Phelps & Company (investment bonds) until Mr. Chittenden's death in 1929, vice-president of the firm 1920-28 and president since 1928 (retained firm name); trustee of Chenango Valley Savings Bank of Binghamton 1928-1931; director of First National Bank 1920-1932; president Binghamton Y. M. C. A. 1931 and of board of trustees of First Presbyterian Church since 1929.

Death due to coronary occlusion. Buried in Spring Forest Cemetery, Binghamton. Survived by wife, daughters, father, and a sister, Esther S. Phelps Pumpelly, the wife of Harold A. Pumpelly, '15.

Richard Forrest Evans, B.A. 1915.

Born July 6, 1894, in Salem, Mass.
Died August 8, 1931, in Los Angeles, Calif.

Salem High School. Dissertation appointment and general honors Junior year, oration appointment and honors in English language and literature Senior year; contributed to Tale Record; member College Orchestra, Beta Theta Pi, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Taught English, Latin, Spanish, and history at Dummer Academy, South Byfield, Mass., 1915-17; enlisted in Coast Artillery Corps, Regular Army, June 23, 1917, at Fort Williams, Maine; commissioned Provisional Second Lieutenant November 15, 1917; attended Officers' School, Fort Monroe, Va., December 1, 1917-April, 1918; commanded 3d Company, Coast Defense of the Columbia, Fort Stevens, Ore.; promoted First Lieutenant May 14, 1918; assigned to 27th Regiment, Coast Artillery, in October and at Camp Eustis, Va., until December, 1918; transferred to Coast Defenses of Boston at Fort Revere; resigned from the Army September 15, 1919; in auditing department of Firestone Tire & Rubber Company, of Akron, Ohio, 1919-1921; traveling auditor for Premier Electrical Appliance Company, of Cleveland 1921-23; had since been on the staff of Price, Waterhouse & Company, public accountants, at first in St. Louis and since October, 1923, as manager of its Los Angeles office; became a certified public accountant of California October 17, 1923; member California State Board of Accountancy and American Institute of Accountants.

Married April 3, 1918, in St. Louis, Mo., Frances Webster, daughter of Francis Webster Smith and Susan (Flintham) Smith, University of Denver '88. Children: Susan Flintham and Adelene Baker.

Death due to acute appendicitis and general peritonitis. Buried in Inglewood (Calif.) Park Cemetery. Survived by wife, two daughters, mother, and a brother, John B. Evans, of Braintree, Mass.

John Galt, B.A. 1917.

Born September 22, 1893, in Seattle, Wash.
Died March 6, 1932, in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Father, John Randolph Galt, '89; son of John and Anne Eveline (Roberts) Galt, of Newburgh, N. Y. Mother, Agnes (Carter) Galt; daughter of Henry Alpheus Pierce and Sybil Augusta (Judd) Carter, of Honolulu. Yale relatives include: Albert F. Judd, '62 (great-uncle); George R. Carter, '88 S., and L. Percival Galt, '08 S. (uncles); and George R Carter, Jr, '28 (first cousin).

McKinley High School, Honolulu, and Westminster School. Second colloquy appointment Senior year; member College Football Team 1915, Class Baseball Team 1917, University Swimming and Water Polo teams (captain of latter), and Zeta Psi; president of Yale Hawaiian Club.

Overseer for Onomea Sugar Company at Onomea Plantation, Honolulu, 1917-1922; had since been connected with C. Brewer & Company, Ltd., of Honolulu; plantation auditor 1922-25 and since then assistant treasurer; appointed chairman of Territorial Boxing Commission by Governor Farrington 1928 and held that position until death; elected a trustee of Palama Settlement in 1928 (member of executive and recreation committees); vice-president of Honolulu Council of Social Agencies 1931-32; enlisted in 2d Hawaiian Infantry, National Guard of Hawaii, December, 1917; enlisted in 32d Infantry, May 14, 1918, at Schofield Barracks, Hawaii; commissioned Second Lieutenant of Infantry August 26, 1918; bayonet instructor in Infantry Replacement Division, Camp Grant, from September 5 until given his discharge December 5, 1918; member Hawaiian Department, American Legion (department vice-commander 1926-27); charter member Honolulu Post No. 1, American Legion (commander 1925); member Central Union Congregational Church, Honolulu.

Married June 19, 1917, in Cohasset, Mass., Eleanor, daughter of Morton Stimson Crehore (B.A. Harvard 1882) and Alicia (Robson) Crehore Children: John Randolph and Cordelia.

Death due to embolus in brain. Buried in Oahu Cemetery, Nuuanu Valley. Survived by wife, son, daughter, father, and a brother, C. L. Carter Galt, '19.

Arthur Chittenden Crunden, B.A. 1918.

Born November 1, 1894, in St. Louis, Mo.
Died May 10, 1932, in New York City.

Father, Frank Payne Crunden, a manufacturer; president of Crunden-Martin Manufacturing Company of St. Louis and of Central States Life Insurance Company; son of Benjamin and Mary (Morgan) Crunden, of Kent, England, and St. Louis. Mother, Elizabeth Baldwin (Chittenden) Crunden; daughter of Abram Baldwin and Elizabeth (Bates) Chittenden, of Keokuk, Iowa. Yale relatives include: Rev. Abraham C. Baldwin (honorary M.A. 1843) and Simeon B. Chittenden (honorary M.A. 1871).

Smith Academy, St. Louis, and The Hill School. First colloquy appointment Junior year; on University Crew; president of Yale Dramatic Association; a director of the University Club; member Freshman Glee Club, Psi Upsilon, Elizabethan Club, and Scroll and Key, Private and Supply Sergeant, Battery A, Field Artillery, Connecticut National Guard (Yale Batteries), Tobyhanna; First Lieutenant, R. O. T. C.; received degree of B.A. honoris causa 1918.

Attended first training camp at Fort Riley, Kans., and School of Fire, Fort Sill, Okla.; commissioned Second Lieutenant, Field Artillery, Officers Reserve Corps, August 15, 1917; commissioned Second Lieutenant, Cavalry, Regular Army, October 26, 1917; promoted to First Lieutenant (temporary) with rank from October 26, 1917; served overseas in 79th Field Artillery August 18, 1918–May 23, 1919; resigned May 26, 1919; commissioned Captain, Field Artillery, U. S. Reserve, June 19, 1919; clerk with Central States Life Insurance Company in St. Louis 1920–22; connected with Crunden-Martin Manufacturing Company 1922–29; represented them in Baltimore 1922–23; assistant sales manager in St. Louis 1923–28; vice-president 1928–29; member of New York Stock Exchange since 1929; partner in firm of O'Brian, Potter & Stafford 1929–February, 1931, and since then general partner (in New York office) in brokerage house of J. C. Dann & Company of Buffalo, in which Jesse C. Dann, '88 S., is a partner and Jesse C. Dann, Jr., '23, a general partner.

Married January 3, 1927, in New York City, Christine Wallace, daughter of Warren Seabury and Violet Lee (Wallace) Crane. One son, Warren Crane.

Death due to toxic poisoning following operation for an intestinal growth. Cremation took place at Missouri Crematory, St. Louis. Survived by wife, son, mother, a brother, Walter M. Crunden, '08, and three sisters, Elizabeth B. Skinner, the wife of William W. Skinner, '08 S., Mary B. Cole, the wife of Wallace H. Cole (M.D. University of Minnesota 1910), and Catherine L. B. Wade, the wife of Festus J. Wade, Jr., '23.

James Bliss Gray, B.A. 1920.

Born August 23, 1898, in Evanston, Ill. Died April 5, 1932, in New York City.

Father, John Henry Gray (B.A. Harvard 1887; Ph.D. University of Halle 1892); economist; chairman of board of analysts and examiners for Bureau of Valuation, Interstate Commerce Commission; professor at American University, Washington; Lieutenant Colonel, U. S. A.; associate editor of Economic Bulletin and Journal of Accountancy; son of James Cowan and Mary Adaline (Mitchell) Gray, of Charleston, Ill. Mother, Helen Rockwell (Bliss) Gray (B.M. Smith 1891); daughter of Franklin Remington and Evelyn (Goodnow) Bliss, of New Haven. Yale relatives: Charles F. Bliss, '80 (uncle); and Edward D. Snyder, '10 (first cousin).

East Minneapolis High School and Phillips-Exeter. Oration appointment and scholar of the third rank Junior year; on Freshman Wrestling Team, University Wrestling Team three years (captain 1920), University Track Squad three years, Fencing Squad 1919, University Glee Club three years, and College Choir Senior year; vice-president of Public Speaking Club 1920; treasurer of Exeter Club 1919; member Psi Upsilon.

Member Yale R. O. T. C.; commissioned Second Lieutenant of Field Artillery at Camp Jackson September 5, 1918; transferred to Camp Zachary Taylor September 28, where member successively of 39th, 2d, 9th, and 6th Training batteries; received discharge December 14, 1918.

Taught English, athletics, and music at Yale-in-China 1920–21; bond salesman for Wells-Dickey Company of Minneapolis in northern Minnesota, Minneapolis, and Michigan 1922–24; with Pacific Lumber Company at Scotia, Calif., during part of 1924; taught English and athletics at Thacher School, Ojai, Calif., 1925; with insurance trust department of Minnesota Loan & Trust Company, Minneapolis, 1925–29; junior executive in same department of the

Unmarried

Took his own life. Cremation took place in Jersey City, N. J. Survived by father and a sister, Evelyn G. Talmadge (B.A. Connecticut College for Women 1922), the wife of George E. Talmadge, Jr (B.A. Rutgers 1920), of Larchmont, N. Y.

Russell Bartow Read, B.A. 1920.

Born May 10, 1898, in New York City. Died September 27, 1931, in Mohawk, Fonda, N. Y.

Father, William Augustus Read; founder and senior partner in firm of Wm. A. Read & Company, bankers, New York City; son of George Washington and Roland Augusta (Curtis) Read, of Brooklyn, N. Y. Mother, Caroline Hicks (Seaman) Read; daughter of Samuel and Hannah Richardson (Husband) Seaman, of Brooklyn.

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. Member Freshman Hockey Team, University Hockey Team Senior year, first Yale Naval Aviation Unit, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Elihu Club.

Enlisted in U. S. Naval Reserve Flying Corps at New London, Conn., March 24, 1917; trained with U. S. Naval Aviation Detachment at Palm Beach, Fla., and Huntington, N. Y.; commissioned Ensign September 1, 1917, and assigned to Naval Air Station, Hampton Roads; overseas November 25, 1917–January 24, 1919; stationed at U.S. Naval Air stations at Moutchic, Le Croisic, and Pauillac, France; with U.S. Naval Aviation Detachment at La Bolsena, Italy, at Naval Air Station, Porto Corsino, Italy; and with U.S. Naval Aviation Detachment at Venice; promoted to Lieutenant (j.g.) April 18, 1918; awarded Italian War Cross December 31, 1918, and Navy Cross October 23, 1920; term of enlistment expired September 1, 1921, received degree of B.A. honoris causa in 1921, with enrollment in Class of 1920.

Studied law at Columbia 1921–24 (LL.B. 1924) and medicine 1924–28 (M.D. 1928); interne on surgical service at Presbyterian Hospital, New York, 1928–1930; resident surgeon at Bellevue Hospital, New York, July, 1930–June, 1931; appointed junior fellow in surgery at Presbyterian Hospital July 1, 1931; member Episcopal church.

Married April 13, 1922, in Lawrence, N. Y., Hope Waldron, daughter of Waldron Williams (B.A. Columbia 1885 and LL.B. 1887) and Josephine (Hotchkiss) Williams. Dr. and Mrs. Read were divorced in 1928.

Killed in an airplane accident. Buried in Green-Wood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by two sisters, Caroline Read McIlwaine, the widow of Archibald G. McIlwaine, Jr., '18, and Miss M. Elizabeth Read, of Bedford Hills and Purchase, N. Y., and three brothers, William A. Read, of New York City, Duncan H. Read, of Bedford Hills and Purchase, N. Y., and Bayard W. Read, of Rye, N. Y. A fourth brother, Curtis S. Read, '18, was killed in service in 1918.

Yu Loo Tang, B.A. 1920.

Born in 1901, in Shanghai, China.
Died July 20, 1931, in Shanghai, China.

Father, Nang Ang Tang (M.D. University of Edinburgh 1898); a physician in Shanghai, connected with Anglo-Chinese Dispensary. Mother, Zootsong Tang, of Quangsai, Kiangsu.

Prepared for college by private tutors. Attended Harvard three years as member of Class of 1920; entered Yale as a Senior.

Professor of English literature at Southeastern University, Shanghai; sub-editor of The China Press, Shanghai; at time of death secretary to T. V. Soong, Chinese minister of finance and vice-chairman of Nationalist Government.

Married.

Death due to gunshot wounds, received when an attempt was made to assassinate Mr. Soong. Buried in Hungjao Road Cemetery, Shanghai. Survived by wife.

Sterling Randolph Decker, B.A. 1921.

Born December 11, 1900, in Montgomery, Pa.
Died June 6, 1932, in Williamsport, Pa.

Father, William Decker, a furniture manufacturer; president of Montgomery Table & Desk Works, First National Bank of Montgomery, Montgomery and Muncy Light, Heat & Power Company, and West Virginia Lumber Company; son of Henry and Mary (Hurr) Decker of Brady Township, Pa. Mother, Adaline Ulman (Bubb) Decker; daughter of Thomas Gucker and Sarah Reeder (Scott) Bubb, of Fredericksburg, Va.

Susquehanna Academy, Selingsgrove, Pa.; B.S. Susquehanna University 1920 (Brownmiller historical prize, Young sociological prize, and Commencement prize; member University Basketball Team Senior year, Class Basketball Team four years, Track Team, Class Baseball Team, and Tennis Team four years; had numerals and his "S"; president of Athletic Board Senior year and of Philo Literary Society; local editor of The Susquehanna; advertising manager of Class Book; took part in Senior Dramatics, Junior Oratorical Contest, and D. A. R. Oratorical Contest; sang in Glee Club; member committee on Freshman conduct and Bond and Key). Enlisted in the Infantry July 15, 1918, and attended Plattsburg Training Camp; transferred to S. A. T. C. at Susquehanna; received discharge December 15, 1918. Entered Yale as a Senior.

Connected with Montgomery Table & Desk Works 1921–1930; general clerical work and assistant treasurer 1921–22, vice-president 1922–23, vice-president and treasurer 1923–24, and president and treasurer 1924–1930; sales manager for Salamanca (N. Y.) Furniture Works February–September, 1931; and then treasurer of Hughesville (Pa.) Cabinet Company until death; vice-president of Montgomery Supply Company 1926–1931; director of Susquehanna University since 1924 and of First National Bank, Montgomery, 1925–29; treasurer of Evangelical Lutheran Church, Montgomery, 1928–1932.

Married September 1, 1923, at State College, Pa., Bernice Viola Swartz (Susquehanna University), daughter of Charles William and Emma Viola (Krumrine) Swartz. Children: Sterling Randolph, Jr., and Vivian Adaline.

Death due to injuries received when his automobile was struck by a railroad train. Buried in Fairview Cemetery, Montgomery. Survived by wife, two children, mother, two brothers, William T. Decker, ex-'22, and Thurston K. Decker (B.S. Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1927), of Montgomery, and two sisters, Bernice Decker Taylor (B.A. Smith 1919; M.A. Columbia 1920), the wife of William M. Taylor (B.A. Ohio Wesleyan 1917; S.T.B. Boston University 1919), of Lock Haven, Pa., and Miss Maxine I. Decker (B.A. Smith 1926, M.A. Bucknell 1930), of Montgomery.

John Joseph Kelly, B.A. 1921.

Born April 30, 1899, in Grand Forks, N. Dak
Died January 14, 1932, in Grand Forks, N. Dak.

Father, James Nelson Kelly (B.A. Emory and Henry College 1882; LL.B. Lake Forest University 1890); lawyer; superintendent of schools in Hinsdale, Ill., and Grand Forks; in real estate business; son of James Nelson and Mahala (Smith) Kelly, of Emory,
Tale College

Va. Mother, Eleanor Geraldine (Murphy) Kelly; daughter of John Joseph and Elizabeth Ann (Donnelly) Murphy, of Woodstock, Ill.

Grand Forks High School. Attended University of North Dakota two years (1916-18) (member Sigma Chi). Entered Yale as a Junior 1919; scholar of the second rank Junior year; member Yale Debating Association and Delta Sigma Rho.

Unmarried.

Death due to tuberculosis. Buried in Calvary Cemetery, Grand Forks. Survived by parents, a brother, James N. Kelly, Jr., ex-'33, and three sisters, the Misses Elizabeth V. Kelly (B.A. University of North Dakota 1921) and Eleanor G. Kelly (B.A. University of North Dakota 1925), of Grand Forks, and Miss Evelyn C. Kelly (B.A. Smith 1930), of Minneapolis, Minn.

Jason Russell Draper, B.A. 1922.

Born May 27, 1900, in Plymouth, N. H.
Died October 31, 1931, in Tucson, Ariz.

Father, Jason Fletcher Draper; partner in firm of Draper-Maynard Company (sporting goods) of Plymouth; son of Nathaniel Fletcher and Emma (Bridgeman) Draper, of Lowell, Mass. Mother, Harriet Cora (Russell) Draper; daughter of Pelatiah and Mary (Woodman) Russell, of Thornton, N. H.

Plymouth High School and Phillips-Exeter. Private in Yale S.A.T.C. in 1918. Scholar of the second rank Freshman year; third rank stand Junior year; oration appointment Junior and Senior years; member Class Tennis Team two years and University Orchestra 1920 and 1921.

In employ of National Lead Company of New York City 1922–25, at first in the die casting division and later as assistant to sales manager of that division; assistant manager of New York office of Draper-Maynard Company 1926–29.
Married September 23, 1926, in East Orange, N. J., Ianthe, daughter of Floyd LeRoy Jennings (D.D.S. University of Pennsylvania 1901) and Ianthe (Green) Jennings. One son, Jason Russell, Jr.

Death due to pulmonary tuberculosis. Buried in Riverside Cemetery, Plymouth. Survived by wife, son, and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Draper Lyman, of Plymouth, and Mrs. Walter B. Adams (B.A. Wellesley 1911), of East Orange, N. J.

Clayton Sherwood Faville, B.A. 1924.

Born October 19, 1901, in Albert Lea, Minn.
Died August 6, 1931, in Des Plaines County, near Chicago, Ill.

Father, Frank Shaw Faville; manager of Stacy Fruit & Produce Company; president of Albert Lea City Council; mayor of Albert Lea; vice-president and director of Albert Lea State Bank; son of Minor and Sarah (Shaw) Faville, of Osage, Iowa. Mother, Lona Zitella (Wilson) Faville; daughter of Alfred and Nancy Elizabeth (Thompson) Wilson, of Owatonna, Minn.

Albert Lea High School and preparatory department of Carleton College; attended Carleton College one year (1919–1920) as member of Class of 1923. Scholar of the second rank Freshman year and of third rank Sophomore and Junior years; oration appointments Junior and Senior years; member Gymnasium and Boxing squads, Glee Club and Choir four years, and University Band and University Orchestra three years; vice-president of El Centro Español.

Receiving teller, Harris Trust & Savings Bank, Chicago, 1924–25 and Sheridan Trust & Savings Bank 1925–26; assistant credit manager for Maurice L. Rothschild, retail clothier, Chicago, 1926–28; had since been territorial manager for General Motors Acceptance Corporation, of Chicago; member First Presbyterian Church, Albert Lea Married July 5, 1930, in Chicago, Josephine Lorraine, daughter of Joseph Anthony and Louise (Borrelli) Clement.

John Allen Miner Thomas, B.A. 1924.

Born January 10, 1900, in New York City.
Died March 12, 1932, in New York City.

Father, Henry Clay Miner; member of 54th Congress (1895–97); theatrical manager in New York City; son of George Noah and Emeline (Lansing) Miner, of New York. Mother, Anne (O'Neill) Miner; daughter of Robert Burns O'Neill (Trinity College, Dublin) and Anna (Whitty) O'Neill, of New York City. Adopted son of Allen Mason Thomas (Ph.B. 1877; M.D. Columbia 1880), who married Mrs. Miner (then a widow) when John Miner was three years old, and when the latter was fourteen adopted him as his legal son, and changed his name. Yale relatives include: Rt. Rev. Elisha S. Thomas, '58, Nathaniel P. S. Thomas, '68, and Aaron S. Thomas, '69 (uncles); and Harold R. Talbot, ex-'01 S., Allen T. Clement, '03, Waldo P. Clement, Jr., '08, and Clarence P. Thomas, '11 (first cousins).

Browning School, New York City, and The Hotchkiss School. Entered Yale with Class of 1922 and remained four years; an associate editor of Time in 1923; studied at the Sorbonne, Paris, summer of 1923; returned to Yale in September, 1923, and remained until February, 1924; received degree of B.A. in June, 1924; scholar of the third rank Junior year; won Metcalfe Prize; chairman of Yale Literary Magazine; an editor of Yale Banner and Pot Pourri; on Freshman Debating Team and secretary of Debating Association; member Yale Union Committee, board of control of Playcraftsmen, and Yale Dramatic Association; took part of Sheriff in "Henry IV," Father in "The Curfew," Priest in "Revelation," and Lucius Septimius in "Caesar and Cleopatra"; private in Yale S.A.T.C.; belonged to Chi Delta Theta, Pundits, Zeta Psi, Elizabethan Club, and Skull and Bones.

Had been engaged in literary work since graduation; author of a novel entitled Dry Martins (1926); had contributed stories and articles to newspapers; member St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York City.

Married April 14, 1925, in New York City, Josephine, daughter of L. Graeme and Eleanor (Russell) Scott. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas were divorced in 1929.

Death due to a sudden gastric hemorrhage and heart failure. Buried in Elmwood Cemetery, Allenton, R I. Survived by parents.
Joseph Foster Pascoe, B.A. 1926.

Born April 16, 1903, in San Francisco, Calif.
Died April 10, 1932, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Father, James Botterell Pascoe (B.A. Acadia College, Nova Scotia, 1890; M.D. Bellevue Hospital Medical College 1894); physician, now retired; in U. S. Army as civilian physician and commissioned medical officer; now Major, retired; son of Rev. Joseph Pascoe and Johanna (Whelan) Pascoe, of Newfoundland. Mother, Cornelia Hannah (Foster) Pascoe; daughter of William Hammond and Cornelia Dorothea (Jocelyn) Foster, of Brooklyn, N. Y. Yale relatives. Samuel Hayes (B.A. 1823), Rev. James B. Cleaveland, '47, and Rev. David Peck, '49 (great-uncles).

Boston Latin School. Member Freshman Swimming and Lacrosse squads, Class Crew Squad 1924, Class Football Team two years, Dwight Hall Cabinet and production staff of Dramatic Association Senior year, and El Centro Español.

Entered Yale School of Law in fall of 1926 but withdrew in February, 1927, an overseer of agricultural department of United Fruit Company in Limon, Costa Rica, 1927–28; assistant secretary in corporation division of Stone & Webster, Inc., New York City, 1930–31, member New Haven Grays April 9–October 10, 1930; made a Corporal August 2; member St. Paul’s Protestant Episcopal Church, New Haven.

Unmarried.

Death due to acute appendicitis. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by parents.

Stanton Francis Kennedy, B.A. 1928.

Born September 21, 1905, in Omaha, Nebr.
Died May 21, 1932, in Omaha, Nebr.

Father, Thomas Francis Kennedy (B.A. Creighton University 1893), president of Bradford Kennedy Lumber Company of Omaha; son of Thomas and Anna Maria (Kennedy) Kennedy, of Omaha. Mother, Josephine Carey (Stanton) Kennedy; daughter of General Thaddeus Harlan Stanton and Marietta Elizabeth (Conger) Stanton, of Washington, Iowa

Creighton High School, Omaha, and Phillips-Andover. Scholar of the second rank Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior years; high oration appointment Junior and Senior years; won New York Yale Club Prize in history Freshman year and Senior honors in English; on Freshman Basketball Team and University Basketball Squad Junior and Senior years; member University Debating Association Senior year, Pundits, Elizabethan Club, Beta Theta Pi, Elihu Club, and Phi Beta Kappa (secretary Senior year).

LL.B. 1931; had expected to enter law firm of Kennedy, Holland & DeLacy of Omaha but prevented by illness; member St. Cecelia's Cathedral (Roman Catholic), Omaha.

Unmarried.

Took his own life; had suffered a complete nervous breakdown in November, while working over a novel (Theresa Oesten) for publication. Buried in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Omaha. Survived by parents and a brother, Thomas C. Kennedy, '30 S

Agon Ingram Nelson, B.A. 1930.

Born October 1, 1908, in Malmo, Sweden.
Died October 14, 1931, in Summit, N. J.

Father, Steven Nelson; president of Cleveland Construction Company, of Newark, N. J.; expediting manager, U. S. Shipping Board, Emergency Fleet Corporation, during World War; born in Kristianstad, Sweden, and came to America 1910; son of Nils and Kerstin (Paulson) Larsson, of Kristianstad and Boros. Mother, Nina (Anderson) Nelson; daughter of Anders and Johanna (Schoholm) Persson, of Kagerod, Sweden Summit High School. On Freshman Basketball Team, Class Basketball Team Junior and Senior years, and University Basketball Squad Sophomore and Junior years; Freshman Football Squad and University Football Squad three years; Track Squad Freshman year; had numerals and a minor “Y”; member Freshman Student Council and Chi Psi.

With planning department of Agfa-Ansco Corporation, Binghamton, N. Y., September, 1930–May, 1931; had since been statistician with Roosevelt & Son, brokers, New York City; organizer and captain of Summit Football Team 1931; member Summit Presbyterian Church.

Unmarried.

Death due to a fractured skull and other injuries, received in an automobile accident two days before. Buried in Fairmount Cemetery, Chatham, N. J. Survived by parents, a sister, Miss Agnes J. Nelson, and two brothers, Bartil H. Nelson (B.S. Colgate 1930) and Kenneth E. Nelson, all of Summit.
Edward Osgood Miller, B.A. 1931.

Father, Gilbert Spencer Miller; salesman for W. E. Truesdell (wholesale dry goods); son of Rev. Simeon Miller (B.A. Amherst 1840) and Lucretia White (Lamb) Miller, of Springfield. Mother, Aurelia (Beane) Miller; daughter of John and Christine (Corbiel) Beane, of Springfield.

Central High School, Springfield. Scholar of the third rank Senior year.

Clerk with Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company June 20–July 4, 1931, member Christ Church (Episcopal).

Unmarried

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage and congenital hydronephrosis. Buried in Hillcrest Park Cemetery, Springfield. Survived by parents and two sisters, the Misses Christine C. and Ruth Miller.
SHEFFIELD SCIENTIFIC SCHOOL

Charles Sheldon Hastings, Ph.B. 1870.

Born November 27, 1848, in Clinton, N. Y.
Died January 31, 1932, in Greenwich, Conn.

Father, Panet Marshall Hastings (B.A. Hamilton 1838; M.D. Columbia 1842); physician in Clinton and Hartford; lecturer at Hamilton; connected with Hartford Hospital; son of Dr. Seth Hastings, Jr., and Huldah (Clark) Hastings, of Clinton. Mother, Jane (Sheldon) Hastings; daughter of Charles and Alicia (Lawrence) Sheldon, of Hartford.

Hartford Public High School. Engineering course; member The Colony and Berzelius.

Studied in Yale Graduate School 1870–73 (Ph.D. 1873); instructor in physics 1871–73; studied physics at Universities of Heidelberg and Berlin 1873–75 and at the Sorbonne, Paris, 1875–76; associate professor of physics at Johns Hopkins University 1876–1884; professor of physics at Yale from 1884 until retirement 1915, when made professor emeritus; co-author, with Professor Frederick E. Beach, '83 S.: Text Book on General Physics (1899) and Light, A Consideration of the More Familiar Phenomena of Optics (1901); author: New Methods in Geometrical Optics (1928); made an Officier de l'Instruction Publique at the Sorbonne 1889; corresponding member Societa degli Spectroscopisti Italiani; member National Academy of Sciences, American Association for the Advancement of Science, American Physical Society, American Philosophical Society (received Elliott Cresson Medal of the society 1926), and the United Church (Congregational), New Haven; president of Graduates Club Association 1905–07.

Married June 28, 1878, in Hartford, Elizabeth Tracy, daughter of Elisha Tracy and Catharine M. (Barker) Smith, and sister of Charles W. Smith, ex-'74 S. One daughter, Katharine Panet, ex-'04 Art, the wife of Horace W. Chittenden, '03 S.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by daughter.

John Nichols Judson, Ph.B. 1871.

Born October 14, 1851, in Bridgeport, Conn.
Died April 2, 1932, in New Canaan, Conn.

Father, Frederick Joseph Judson (B.A. 1824, M.D. 1829); son of Pixlee and Catharine Isabella (Nichols) Judson, of Stratford, Conn.
Mother, Catherine Ann Taylor (Chapelle) Judson; daughter of Dr. Isaac Newton Chapelle and Caroline (Garvin) Chapelle, of St. Mary's, Ga. Yale relatives include: Frederick N. Judson, '66, and Isaac N. Judson, '73 (brothers); and Charles N. Judson, '62, and Frederick A. Judson, '64 (first cousins).

General Russell's Collegiate and Commercial Institute. Engineering course, member St. Anthony and Delta Psi.

After graduation engaged in surveying for railroads in West and Middle West; later consulting mining engineer and metallurgist in Mexico, South America, British Columbia, and the United States until his retirement in 1922; connected for a time with American Metal Company, Ltd., in New York City; member American Institute of Mining Engineers; secretary of Class of 1871 S. since 1927.

Married February 27, 1900, in New York City, Georgiana, daughter of Jacob Henry and Ann Catherine (Smith) Beaver. One daughter, Katherine Jane (B.A. Washington University, St. Louis, 1923).

Death due to septicemia. Buried in Mountain Grove Cemetery, Bridgeport. Survived by wife and daughter.

William Brenton Welling, Ph.B. 1872.

Died January 4, 1932, in New York City.

Father, Charles Hunt Welling; in dry goods commission business as member of firm of Dunbar, Welling & Company, and its successors; later in note brokerage business as member of firms of Charles H. Welling & Company and Charles H. Welling & Son; son of John and Elizabeth (Hunt) Welling, of Mercer County, N. J., near Trenton. Mother, Katharine Celia (Greene) Welling; daughter of William Perry and Susan Elizabeth (Mumford) Greene, of Providence, R. I.

John MacMullen's School, New York City. Chemistry course one year, then select course; member The Colony and Berzelius.

Engaged in the banking and brokerage business in New York 1874-1915, at first with his father and from 1876 independently; president of Charles H. Welling Company (real estate) 1904-1927; senior associate with Charles G. Edwards Company (real estate and insurance) since 1915; member Society of Colonial Wars, Pennsylvania Society, and Grace Episcopal Church, New York.

Married June 7, 1888, in New York City, Gertrude Lindsay, daughter of Lindsay Irving and Gertrude (Nott) Howe. Children: Brenton, Charles Hunt; Lindsay Howe (Mech E. Columbia 1915); and Gertrude, the wife of Augustus VanderPoel, '13.
Death due to streptococcus infection. Buried in family plot on Pojac Point Farm, North Kingstown, R. I. Survived by wife, three sons, daughter, a brother, Richard Welling (B.A. Harvard 1880; Pd.M. New York University 1911), of New York, and four sisters, Miss Katharine Greene Welling, Mrs. J. Noble Hayes, Mary H. W. Baltz, the wife of Harry R. Baltz, '82, and Elizabeth W. Manierre, the wife of Charles E. Manierre (B.A. Princeton 1881; LL.B. Columbia 1883), all of New York City.

Julian Kennedy, Ph.B. 1875.

Born March 15, 1852, in Poland, Ohio.

Father, Thomas Walker Kennedy, a blast furnace builder and operator with Struthers (Ohio) Iron Company; son of James and Sarah (Reid) Kennedy, of Coitsville, Ohio. Mother, Margaret (Truesdale) Kennedy; daughter of Hugh and Rachel (Walker) Truesdale, of Lowellville Poland Union Seminary. Assistant to his father and engineer in charge of operation of Struthers Iron Company 1869–1872 and designed the Anna furnace of the company at the age of seventeen. Chemistry course; member University Crew throughout his course; won single scull race and intercollegiate scull race in 1875; stroke of Yale 4-oared Crew at Centennial in Philadelphia 1876; vice-president of University Navy two years; member Franklin Hall and Theta Xi.

Graduate student in Sheffield Scientific School 1875–76; also served as an instructor in physics; superintendent of blast furnaces and iron works in Pennsylvania 1876–1885; with Briar Hill Iron Company 1876–77, Struthers Iron Works 1877–78, Morse Bridge Works 1878–79, Edgar Thomson Steel Works 1879–1883, and Lucy Furnaces, Pittsburgh, 1883–85; general superintendent of Carnegie, Phipps & Company, Homestead, Pa., 1885–88; chief engineer of Latrobe (Pa.) Steel Works 1888–1890; since 1890 had been a consulting and contracting engineer in Pittsburgh; had been connected with important steel plants in the United States and abroad, among them the Bessemer plant of the Ohio Steel Company, the first blast furnaces of the Youngstown (Ohio) Sheet & Tube Company, and works in Russia and India, and had many patents; president of Emerald Coal & Coke Company 1908–1930 and director since 1908; president and director of Ontario Gas Coal Company since 1919, of Orient Coke Company since 1904, of Poland Coal Company since 1912, and of Lowber Gas Coal Company since 1917; director of Toledo Furnace Company 1903-1930; honorary M.A. Yale 1900; D.Eng Stevens Institute of Technology 1909; awarded grand prize and gold medal at St. Louis Exposition 1904, medal of American Society of Mechanical Engineers (of which president 1915-17) 1928, and the Gary Medal of American Iron and Steel Institute (of which a member) only a week before his death; during the war did consulting work for the United States and for the British Government; president of Engineers' Society of Western Pennsylvania in 1906; member American Society of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers, Association of Iron and Steel Electrical Engineers, British Iron and Steel Institute, Pittsburgh and New York Chambers of Commerce, and First Unitarian Church, Pittsburgh; member Alumni Board, as representative of Yale Club of Pittsburgh, since 1924.

Married November 14, 1878, in Lowellville, Jennie Eliza, daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth (Linn) Breneman. Children: Lucy Bell (B.A Vassar 1902), the wife of John O. Miller (LL.B. University of Michigan 1899); Joseph Walker, '05 S.; Julian, Jr., '08 S.; Hugh Truesdale (died in infancy); Eliza Jane (B.A. Vassar 1912), the wife of R Templeton Smith (B.A. Cornell 1910); and Thomas Walker, Cornell ex-'19 (died in 1922). Mrs. Kennedy died February 7, 1930.

Death due to ruptured myocardium. Buried in Homewood Cemetery, Pittsburgh. Survived by two sons, two daughters, fifteen grandchildren, among whom are Julian Miller, '31, and Joseph W. Kennedy, Jr., '32 S., a sister, Mrs. R. Becker, of Youngstown, Ohio, and three brothers, John H. Kennedy (B.A. Geneva 1886), of East Aurora, N. Y., Samuel A. Kennedy (B.A. Geneva 1887), of Salt Lake City, Utah, and Thomas W. Kennedy (B.L. Westminster 1891), of Boston.

Clarence Fake McMurray, Ph.B. 1875.

Born September 7, 1855, in Brooklyn, N Y.
Died November 23, 1931, in New York City.

Troy (N Y.) Academy. Chemistry course; member Sans Souci.
With Hartford (Conn.) Engineering Company 1875–1887; president of C. F. McMurray Company, manufacturers of power transmission machinery, Troy, 1887–1905; vice-president of Western Cartridge Company, New York City, 1898–1931, but retired from active business in 1926; member Sons of the Revolution and Second Presbyterian Church, Troy.

Married March 1, 1881, in Troy, Jeannie Newcomb, daughter of Daniel Darius Bucklin (M.D. Albany Medical College 1848). One, daughter, Helen, the wife of Sidney G. deKay (B.A. Columbia 1902). Mrs. McMurray died July 3, 1930.

Death due to bronchopneumonia. Buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Troy. Survived by daughter and a brother, Charles B. McMurray (B.A. Union 1887 and L.H.D. 1929), of Troy.

Frederick Wood, Ph.B. 1875.

Born February 20, 1854, in Norwalk, Conn.

Danbury High School and Wilton (Conn.) Academy. Civil engineering course; on Class Football Team; stroke of Freshman Crew in 1873; member University Crew 1874–76; left college in February, 1875, because of a fractured leg; returned the next fall and graduated with Class of 1876 S.; in 1915, by vote of the Corporation, enrolled in Class of 1875 S.; member St. Anthony and Delta Psi.

Attended Yale School of Law 1876–77; engaged in business of selling and collecting books on engineering in Norwalk 1877–1880; stroked University Crew at Springfield in 1877 and coach of Crew 1880–81; with U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey in charge of triangulation on the Delaware River 1880–81, civil engineer with Pennsylvania Railroad from 1881 until retirement in 1924; draftsman and chief draftsman 1881–1893 and then assistant engineer in maintenance of way department; author of a pamphlet on the “Genealogy of Descendants of Dr. Samuel Wood of Danbury,” which was incorporated verbatim in History of Norwalk, Conn., by Rev. Charles M. Sellick (1901); member Pennsylvania Society of the Sons of the American Revolution; deacon, trustee, and treasurer of Muchmore Memorial Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, about twenty-five years.
Tale Obituary Record

Married April 29, 1884, in Philadelphia, Mary (Maud), daughter of William and Rebecca Jane (Holmes) Graham. Children: Frederick (died in infancy); William Charles (M.D. Jefferson Medical College 1908), and Graham. Mrs. Wood died October 8, 1920.

Death due to coronary thrombosis. Cremation took place and ashes were buried in North Cedar Hill Cemetery, Philadelphia. Survived by two sons and three grandchildren.

Charles David Seeberger, Ph.B. 1876.

Born May 14, 1857, in Oskaloosa, Iowa.
Died September 12, 1931, at Oak Bluffs, Mass.

Father, Anthony Frederick Seeberger, a merchant; head of firm of Seeberger, Breakey & Company, of Chicago; collector of Port of Chicago; treasurer of World's Columbia Fair; son of John David and Dorothea Louise (Goth) Seeberger (both born in Wetzlar, Prussia), of Shreve, Ohio. Mother, Jennie Luanda (Cooper) Seeberger, Oberlin ex-'56, daughter of Charles and Almeda (Murphy) Cooper, of Mount Vernon, Ohio.

Lake Forest (Ill) Academy. Select course; secretary and treasurer of his Class Junior and Senior years; member Alpha Chi, The Colony, and Berzelius.

Partner in wholesale hardware firm of Seeberger, Breakey & Company 1876-79; traveled extensively in this country and the Sandwich Islands 1879-1880; member of firm of A. F. Seeberger & Company (wholesale hardware), Chicago, 1880-1895; engaged in private engineering work in Chicago 1895 and 1896; inventor of the escalator; head of escalator department of Otis Elevator Company of New York from 1898 until retirement in 1908, lived in London and Rome most of the time from 1911 to 1914, and since 1917 had lived in Pasadena, Calif., during the winter; had had a summer home at Oak Bluffs since 1903; member Yale Engineering Association.

Married October 15, 1879, in Mount Vernon, Ohio, Emma Pauline, daughter of Lewis Kitchell and Ada Belinda (Curtis) Bridge. Children Lucia, the wife of James Hally Brown (Glasgow Technical College and London University); Pauline Bridge, the wife of R. Vernon Sowers (B A. University College, University of Toronto, 1921; attended St John's College, Oxford); and Frances Bridge (died in childhood)

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Cremation took place at Forest Hills Crematory, Boston, and ashes were buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn, N. Y. Survived by wife, two daughters, two grandsons, a brother, Louis A. Seeberger, of Chicago, and Brewster, Mass., and a sister, Miss Dora A. Seeberger, of Chicago.

Andrew Gilbert Sheak, Ph.B. 1876.

Born April 4, 1854, in Kirkwood, N. Y.
Died January 17, 1932, in Binghamton, N. Y.

Father, Michael A. Sheak, a wholesale grocer; in firm of M. A. Sheak & Company; son of Emery and Sarah (Fairley) Sheak, of Dutchess County, N. Y. Mother, Mary (Gilbert) Sheak.

Binghamton Central High School. Selett course.

Member of firm of M. A. Sheak & Company in Binghamton 1876-1882 and later of firm of Sheak, Rogers & Company and Sheak, Keeler & Company, cigar manufacturers, in Binghamton; manager of Sheak Filter Company, Binghamton, 1900-06; treasurer of First Congregational Church.

Death due to cerebral edema and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Spring Forest Cemetery, Binghamton. Survived by four daughters, son, and two grandchildren.

Frank Lewis Bidwell, Ph.B. 1877.

Born September 24, 1856, at Coldwater, Mich.
Died September 14, 1931, in Kansas City, Mo.

Father, Alonzo Frank Bidwell, a hardware merchant; Major, 1st Michigan Volunteers, and later Captain, 4th Michigan Artillery, in Civil War; son of Asa and Eunice (Underwood) Bidwell, of York, N. Y. Mother, Emeline (Conkling) Bidwell; daughter of Samuel G. and Julia Ann (Corwin) Conkling, of Tecumseh, Mich.

Phillips-Andover. Civil engineering course; member Alpha Chi, Phi Gamma Delta, and Book and Snake.

Engineer in charge of railway construction for St. Louis & San Francisco Railroad for several years prior to 1884; then gave up his profession on account of ill health; subsequently taught piano, violin, and cornet in Kansas City; organist of Holy Rosary (Italian Catholic) Church, Kansas City, since about 1898; had arranged compositions for masses, which he also conducted in that church, and for bands and orchestras; member Holy Rosary Church.

Unmarried.

Death due to bulbar apoplexy and cystitis. Buried in Union Cemetery, Kansas City. Survived by a brother, Joseph M. Bidwell, of Salt Lake City, Utah.

Joseph Gilbert Calhoun, Ph.B. 1877.

Born July 20, 1856, in Manchester, Conn.
Died February 3, 1932, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, David Samuel Calhoun (B.A. 1848); ex-officio Fellow of Yale University 1862-63; son of Rev. George Albion Calhoun (B.A. Hamilton 1814 and D.D. 1852), Fellow of Yale University 1849-1864, and Betsey (Scoville) Calhoun, of Coventry, Conn. Mother, Harriet Antoinette (Gilbert) Calhoun; daughter of Jasper and Elizabeth (Hale) Gilbert, of Coventry.

Hartford Public High School. Select course; honorable mention for excellence in all studies Freshman year; prize in physics and divided prize in English literature Senior year; a Commencement speaker; member Class Picture Committee.

Studied law in his father’s office in Hartford and admitted to Connecticut Bar 1880; had since practiced law in Hartford; attorney and director of Riverside Trust Company 1907-1930; clerk of Police Court 1883-89, member of Common Council 1890; special prosecuting attorney for Hartford 1894-96 and prosecuting attorney 1896-1906; deputy coroner of Hartford County 1894-1905 and coroner since 1905; police commissioner 1906; member Republican State Central Committee 1906-1910; chief compiler and editor of The Judicial and Civil History of Connecticut (1895); president of Twentieth Century Club of Hartford 1895-96; affiliated with Center Church (Congregational), Hartford.

Married November 20, 1889, in Brooklyn, N. Y., Sarah Cornelia, daughter of Oren Milton and Jeanette Rutherford (Johnson) Beach. No children.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage and bronchopneumonia. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by wife and two sisters, Mrs. Edward G. Hart, of Hartford, and Mrs. Ralph Clarkson, of Chicago.
William Day Allen, Ph.B. 1878.

Born October 17, 1855, in Hartford, Conn.
Died October 10, 1931, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, William Gifford Allen, house builder and in real estate business; son of Jacob and Rhoby (Howard) Allen, of Westport, Mass. Mother, Mary Ann (Day) Allen.

Hartford Public High School. Select course; member Junior Class Supper and Graduating committees, Yacht Club, The Colony, and Berzelius.

Engaged in real estate business in Hartford 1878–1880 (carried on and settled his father’s business); since 1880 had been engaged in manufacture of leather and brass goods in Chicago; junior partner in firm of E. B. Preston & Company (leather belting) 1880–86; in 1886, with others, formed the W. D. Allen Manufacturing Company, manufacturers of general mill supplies, and served as its president until death; director of Evanston (Ill.) Hospital and Inter-Mountain Institute of Weiser, Idaho, for several years previous to his death; member of Crime Commission of Chicago and a Juvenile Court advisor for a number of years; president of Yale Club of Evanston 1920–21; Class agent for ’78 S. for Alumni Fund since 1923; former member First Baptist Church, Hartford; member First Congregational Church of Evanston at time of death.

Married October 16, 1884, in Hartford, Cora, daughter of Ludlow and Lydia Ann (Bolles) Barker. One daughter, Ruth Barker (B.A. Vassar 1914), the wife of Harry M. Vawter (B.A. Wesleyan 1912).

Death due to heart failure. Cremation took place and ashes were buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by wife, daughter, and two grandchildren.

Born May 24, 1856, in Buffalo, N. Y.
Died November 8, 1931, in Buffalo, N. Y.

Father, Frederic William Bartlett (M.D. New York University Medical College 1854), a physician in Buffalo; president of Buffalo Polytechnic Institute, Buffalo Medical and Surgical Society, and Medical Society of Erie County, N. Y.; son of Uriah and Olive (Holmes) Bartlett, of Kingston, Mass. Mother, Adelia (Hunter) Bartlett; daughter of James Hunter (M.D. College of Physicians and Surgeons, Fairfield, N. Y., 1829) and Elizabeth (Story) Hunter, of Whitby, Ontario, and Lewiston, N. Y. First cousin: Ernest H. Hunter, '85

Heathcote School, Buffalo, and private tutor. Select course; an editor of Yale Record Senior year; member Class Graduating Committee, a Class historian; vice-president of Linonia; member Alpha Chi and Chi Phi; a founder of York Hall.

M.D. University of Buffalo 1883, but had never practiced medicine; studied architecture in office of Frank Calkins in Buffalo 1881–82 and in 1883 took a course at a business college; assisted his father-in-law in grain elevator and real estate business, had charge of several estates, and engaged in designing and supervising erection of a number of buildings in Buffalo 1883–89; manager of Evans Elevators (grain) 1889–1909; director of Western Elevating Association several years; author: Andrew and Joseph Ellicott: the Plans of Washington City and the Village of Buffalo (1923) and Reminiscences of the First York Hall (1927); co-author and joint editor: History of St Paul's Church (Episcopal), Buffalo, N. Y., 1817–1903 (1903); had patented several inventions, among which were a fusible link for fire protection in a generator used in disinfecting sick rooms (about 1878) and an improvement to router plane of Stanley Rule & Level Company (about 1910); on board of managers of Buffalo Historical Society 1912–1931; member Buffalo Chamber of Commerce since 1912 and Buffalo Real Estate Board several years prior to 1924; first president of Buffalo Camera Club 1888–1890; member Society of Mayflower Descendants, Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, Niagara Frontier Landmarks Association, and Society of the Descendants of Robert Bartlett of Plymouth, Mass., Inc.; life member Buffalo Public Library; clerk of vestry of St. Paul's Church 1885–1892.

Death due to chronic arthritis resulting in secondary anemia. Buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Buffalo. Survived by wife, daughter, son, and three grandchildren.
Francis Hayes Blake, Ph.B. 1882.

Born January 3, 1860, in Hamden, Conn.
Died December 30, 1931, in Litchfield, Conn.

Father, William Phipps Blake (Ph.B. 1852; honorary M.A. Dartmouth 1863; LL.D. University of Pennsylvania 1906); son of Elihu and Adeline Nancy (Mix) Blake, of New York City. Mother, Charlotte Haven Lord (Hayes) Blake; daughter of William Allen Hayes (M.A. Dartmouth 1805) and Susan (Lord) Hayes, of South Berwick, Maine. Yale relatives include: Eli Whitney (B.A. 1792) (great-great-uncle); Eli W. Blake (B.A. 1816) (great-uncle); and Joseph A. Blake, Jr., ex-'16 (nephew).

Hopkins Grammar School. Chemistry course; member The Colony and Berzelius.

Engaged in mining engineering in Idaho 1882-85; superintendent of mill for Silver King Mining Company in Arizona 1885-88; engaged in mining engineering for Allis Chalmers Company of Chicago in Portugal, Italy, and Hungary 1888-89; general manager of El Oro Mines in Mexico for General Frisbie 1890-95; mining engineer in New York City 1895-1905; engaged in farming in Litchfield from 1905 until retirement about 1912; spent next two years in traveling and in Paris; since 1914 had been engaged in making by hand copies of colonial furniture; president of Washington (Conn.) Electric Light & Power Company 1910-12; vice-president of Litchfield Light & Power Company; member American Institute of Mining Engineers.

Married June 1, 1922, in Litchfield, Minerva Wadhams, daughter of Henry Wadhams Buel (B.A. 1844; M.D. Columbia 1847) and Mary Ann (Laidlaw) Buel, and sister of John L. Buel, M.D., '85. No children.

Death due to carcinoma of the stomach. Buried in East Cemetery, Litchfield. Survived by wife and a brother, Joseph A. Blake, M.D., '85, and '86 S. Another brother, T. Whitney Blake, '90 S., died in 1919.

Robert Browning Rood, Ph.B. 1882.

Born May 14, 1861, in Great Barrington, Mass.
Died January 18, 1932, in Concord, Mass.

Father, Calvin Rood, a lumber and real estate dealer; son of Daniel and Belinda (Demming) Rood, of Great Barrington. Mother, Emily (Pelton) Rood; daughter of Joseph Kneeland and Harriet (Ray) Pelton, of Great Barrington.
Williston Academy. Select course; preliminary Senior appointment.

Engaged in the telephone business from 1882 to retirement in 1926; with New England Telephone & Telegraph Company in Boston 1882–83, associated with Thomas Watson, co-inventor of the telephone; manager of exchanges of Southern Bell Telephone & Telegraph Company in Jacksonville, Fla., 1883–86, Greenville, S. C., 1886–87, Savannah, Ga., 1887–89, and Richmond, Va., 1890–98; while in Richmond studied law at Richmond College and was admitted to Virginia Bar but never practiced law; exchange manager of New England Telephone & Telegraph Company in Haverhill, Mass., 1899–1912 and special agent in the commercial department in Boston from 1912 until retirement in 1926; honorary member of Telephone Pioneers of America; vestryman of Trinity Episcopal Church, Haverhill, 1903–1912 and junior warden 1911–12; member at time of death of Episcopal church, Concord.

Death due to coronary thrombosis and angina pectoris. Buried in Mahaiwe Cemetery, Great Barrington Survived by wife, one son, and a sister, Miss Harriet P. Rood (B.A. Wellesley 1880), of Concord.

Henry Kelsey Devereux, Ph.B. 1883.

Born October 10, 1860, in Cleveland, Ohio.
Died May 2, 1932, in Thomasville, Ga.

Father, John Henry Devereux; president of Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railroad Company; military engineer during Civil War, serving as superintendent of U S. military railroads in Virginia under General McCallum; son of John and Matilda (Burton) Devereux, of Marblehead, Mass. Mother, Antoinette Cecilia (Kelsey) Devereux; daughter of Lorenzo Alson and Sophia (Smith) Kelsey, of Cleveland. Brother, John Devereux, ex-'81 S.

Brooks Military Academy, Cleveland. Select course; an editor of Yale Courant Junior year; chairman of Triennial Committee; member St. Anthony and Delta Psi

Employed in engineering department of Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railroad 1883–84; division engineer of Indianapolis Division and real estate agent of entire system and registrar of Indianapolis & St. Louis and Dayton & Union railroads 1884–89; in employ of Paige Car Wheel Company 1889–1897; later director and western representative of Steel Tired Wheel Company, treasurer of Cleveland Railway Supply Company, vice-president and director of Brady Metal Company of New York City, representative of Franklin Steel Castings Company, sales agent and local manager in Cleveland of Chicago-Cleveland Car Roofing Company (1898-1910), director of Railway Steel Spring Company and Patterson-Sargent Paint Company, and agent for Coale Muffler Company; noted race horse owner; secretary of American Association of Trotting Horse Breeders 1907-1924, president-secretary 1924-28, and president since 1928; a founder of Forest City Live Stock & Fair Company of Cleveland (operators of North Randall race track) in 1908 and since then chairman of the board; an organizer of the Pastime Stables (Lexington, Ky., and Thomasville, Ga.) about 1910 (Perry W. Harvey, '91, joint owner since 1911); president of Grand Circuit Racing Association about twenty years and of League of Amateur Driving Clubs (also director) and Gentlemen's Driving Club of Cleveland; director of Cleveland Driving Park Company; on board of review of National Trotting Association 1900-04; member Troop A, Ohio National Guard 1907-1926 and St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Cleveland; while a student at Brooks Military Academy, posed as the drummer boy in the painting, "The Spirit of '76," by Archibald M. Willard, a Cleveland artist, which was subsequently bought by Mr. Devereux's father and presented to Town of Marblehead, where it now hangs in Abbot Hall.

Married February 11, 1885, in Cleveland, Mildred Abeel, daughter of Julius Edwin and Ezerine Backus (Sharpe) French. Children: Julian French, '09 (Class Boy of '83 S) (died in 1920); and Mildred Aileen, the wife of Lawrence L. Winslow, Columbia ex-'08.

Death due to arteriosclerosis, with contributory causes. Buried in Lake View Cemetery, Cleveland. Survived by wife, daughter, daughter-in-law, five grandchildren, and a sister, Antoinette D. Andrews, the wife of Horace E. Andrews, '82 S.

Alexander Jay Wurts, Ph.B. 1883.

Father, Charles Pemberton Wurts; connected with New York, New Haven & Hartford and the Hudson River railroads; general superintendent of Delaware & Hudson Canal Company; son of George and Abigail (Pettit) Wurts, of Boonton, N. J. Mother, Laura (Jay) Wurts; daughter of John Clarkson Jay (B.A. Columbia 1827 and M.D. 1831) and Hannah (Prime) Jay, of Rye Neck, N. Y. Yale relatives include: William Livingston (B.A. 1741) (great-great-great-grandfather); Peter VanB. Livingston (B.A. 1731), John Livingston (B.A. 1733), and Philip Livingston (B.A. 1737) (great-great-great-uncles); Peter A. Jay (honorary M.A. 1798) (great-grandfather); and William Jay (B.A. 1807) (great-great-uncle).
Tale Obituary Record

Hillhouse High School, New Haven. Electrical engineering course; member University Bicycle Association, Yale University Orchestra, Franklin Hall and Theta Xi.

M E. Stevens Institute of Technology 1884 (member Theta Pi); studied electrical engineering at the Polytechnikum, Hanover, Germany, 1884–85 and at University of Berlin in 1885; engineer with United States Electric Light Company in Newark, N. J., and electrician with Julien Storage Battery Company of Camden, N. J., in 1886; on teaching staff of Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Company 1887–1898; during that period developed the Nernst lamp, manager of Nernst Lamp Company 1901–03; professor of applied electricity and head of that department at Carnegie Institute of Technology 1905–1921; professor of engineering research there and head of industrial and engineering research department 1921–24 and since then chairman of student welfare committee; pioneer worker in field of lightning protection; discoverer of the five non-arcing metals in 1892; in 1895 awarded the John Scott medal by City of Philadelphia through the Franklin Institute for his inventions in lightning arresters; contributed to Transactions of American Institute of Electrical Engineers (of which a member), Technical Press, and French, German, Italian, and English technical journals; member American Association for the Advancement of Science, Society for the Promotion of Engineering Education, American Philosophical Society, Pittsburgh Academy of Arts and Sciences, and Church of the Ascension (Episcopal), Pittsburgh; senior warden at Church of Our Father, Bar Harbor, Maine, since 1930.

William Holt Gale, Ph.B. 1885.

Born January 26, 1864, in New York City.
Died April 25, 1932, in Rome, Italy.

Father, William Gale, a manufacturer of silver; partner in firm of William Gale & Son; son of William and Frances (Doty) Gale, of New York. Mother, Elizabeth Varian (Naylor) Gale; daughter of Peter and Elizabeth (Carmer) Naylor, of New York City. Yale relatives include: LeRoy Gale, '74 S., and Allan Murray Gale, ex-'77 S. (brothers); Mme. Demetri Romanovsky, ex-'09 Art (niece); and E. Melville Price, '14 (nephew).

Preparatory training received at School of Mines of New York University. Select course; member Franklin Hall and Theta Xi.

After graduation spent a number of years in travel and study abroad; studied piano in Vienna and organ in Paris; during Spanish-American War served in Cuba with 71st Regiment, New York Volunteers; studied in School of Comparative Jurisprudence and Diplomacy of George Washington University 1900 and 1901, assistant secretary of Porto Rico 1902-04; bought a stock farm near Leesburg, Va., and engaged in dairy farming 1904-06; United States consul at Puerto Plata, Dominican Republic, 1906-07; consul general at Malta 1907-1910 and at Athens 1910-14; consul at Colon, Panama, 1914-15; consul general at Munich 1915-17 and at Copenhagen, Denmark, 1917; commercial adviser to United States Legation at Copenhagen 1918-1920; consul general at Hong Kong 1920-24, at Amsterdam 1924-26, and at Budapest from 1926 until retirement 1929; had continued to live abroad and had made his home in Paris and Nice; member Protestant Episcopal Church.

Death due to an embolism. Survived by wife and a sister, Mrs. Ernest N. Price, of New Haven.

William Washington Gordon, Ph.B. 1886.

Born April 16, 1866, in Savannah, Ga.
Died March 1, 1932, in Savannah, Ga.

Father, William Washington Gordon, '54; son of William Washington Gordon (United States Military Academy 1815) and Sarah Anderson (Stites) Gordon, of Savannah. Mother, Eleanor Lytle (Kinzie) Gordon; daughter of John Harris and Juliette (Magill) Kinzie, of Chicago Yale relatives include: George A. Gordon, ’49 (uncle); and George A. Gordon, Jr., ’34 (nephew).

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. Civil engineering course; prize in English composition Freshman year; an editor of Tale Courant; on Freshman Baseball Team and captain of Sheff Baseball Team Senior year; vice-president of Yale Baseball Association; editor of Class statistics; member St. Anthony and Delta Psi.

Clerk in office of W. W. Gordon & Company, cotton factors, Savannah, 1886–87; studied law at Columbia 1887–89 (LL.B. 1889); B.L. University of Georgia 1890; had practiced law in Savannah since 1890; member of firm of Gordon & Elliott for a time; attorney for W. W. Gordon & Company; director of South Atlantic Export Company and appointed associate general counsel in 1919; secretary of first Park and Tree Commission of Savannah 1896–98; member of committee to draft plan for commission form of government of Savannah; secretary of board of managers of Savannah Public Library 1913 and member of board 1922–29; member National Guard of Georgia 1890–1908 (Major, 1st Squadron, Cavalry, from May 22, 1905), Captain, Georgia Hussars (now Troop A, 108th Georgia Cavalry), 1902–05 and later honorary member; during Spanish-American War served as Second Lieutenant, 8th U. S. Volunteer Infantry, as aide-de-camp to his father (then Brigadier General), and as attaché of Porto Rican Commission; during World War was food administrator for Chatham County and chairman of War Savings Stamp Committee of First District of Georgia; member executive committee, Georgia Bar Association, 1907 and chairman of committee 1911; state chairman of membership committee, American Bar Association, 1919–22 and district director of committee 1922; president of Georgia Historical Society 1922–1931, of Poetry Society of Georgia 1923–24 (charter member 1923), of Kiwanis Club of Savannah 1921 (made honorary member 1925), and of Savannah Yale Club 1912–1921; founder (in 1913) of Associated Southern Yale Clubs and its first president; chairman of board of managers of Savannah Cotillion 1918–19; author: Manual of Military Law, adopted by State of Georgia (1893); contributed to Georgia Historical Society Quarterly, Once a Week, and Cosmopolitan Magazine; commenced painting at sixty years of age and received honorable mention for landscapes exhibited at Telfair Academy of Arts and Sciences, member Savannah Bar Association, Savannah Opera Association, Savannah Art Club, Southern States Art Association, Society of Colonial Wars, and St. John's Episcopal Church (former vestryman and member of music committee); received Order of Polonia Restituta from Polish Republic in November, 1931.

Married March 1, 1892, in Savannah, Ellen Buchanan, daughter of George Proctor Screven (B.A. University of Virginia 1860) and Ellen (Buchanan) Screven. Children: William Washington, Jr.; Ellen Buchanan (died in childhood); Margaret Eleanor, the wife of Samuel C. Lawrence (B.A. Harvard 1910); and Franklin Buchanan (died in infancy).

Death due to chronic nephritis and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Laurel Grove Cemetery, Savannah. Survived by wife, one daughter, one son, three grandchildren, two sisters, Eleanor G. Parker, the widow of R. Wayne Parker (B.A. Princeton 1867), of Hutton Park, Orange, N. J., and Mabel G. Leigh, the wife of Rowland Leigh (B.A. Trinity College, Cambridge, 1882 and M.A. 1886), of London, and a brother, G. Arthur Gordon, '92 S.

David Mark Cummings, Ph.B. 1887.

Born February 18, 1866, in Pekin, Ill.
Died February 29, 1932, in Phoenix, Ariz.

Father, Columbus R. Cummings, a banker; president of Union National Bank, Chicago; associated with Brown, Howard & Company, construction engineers and financiers, in construction of Lake Erie & Western and Nickel Plate railroads; mayor of Pekin; son of James Prindel and Clarissa (Wilson) Cummings, of Canton, N. Y. Mother, Sarah Caroline (Mark) Cummings; daughter of David and Caroline (Wright) Mark, of Pekin.

Preparatory training received at Racine College and Phillips-Andover. Select course; member Freshman Supper Committee and Sigma Theta Chi.

General partner with Watriss, Breese & Cummings, bankers and brokers, Chicago, 1887–1897; had since been a capitalist in Chicago, taking over the handling of various interests of his father; director of Union National Bank from 1897 until its consolidation with First National Bank in 1900 and since then of latter bank; director also of First-Union Trust & Savings Bank of Chicago since 1900, Pullman Trust & Savings Bank of Chicago since 1905, Illinois Bell Telephone Company and Morden Frog & Crossing Works since 1897, Illinois Brick Company since 1905, and Wilson & Company, packers, since 1926; member St. Chrysostom's Episcopal Church, Chicago.

Married June 28, 1893, in Chicago, Ruth, daughter of Charles Pitkin and Mary C. (DeCreet) Dexter. Children: Edith; Dorothy (died in 1902); and Dexter, '25.

Death due to chronic organic heart disease. Buried in Graceland Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife, one daughter, son, two granddaughters, and a sister, Mrs. John G. Bergquist, of New York City.
Frank Adelbert Paul, Ph.B. 1887.

Born November 4, 1865, in New Haven, Conn.
Died June 4, 1932, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Peter Paul, a baker with S. S. Thompson Company, New Haven; born in Sunchstool, Bavaria, and came to this country in 1847, son of John and Margaret (Weaver) Paul. Mother, Amanda (Schinauer) Paul; daughter of Philip and Maria Elizabeth (Riemersnyder) Schinauer, of Pennsylvania Hillhouse High School. Mechanical engineering course.

Clerk in baggage department of Adams Express Company in New Haven 1887-1891; draftsman for Winchester Repeating Arms Company 1891-1915; had since been librarian in the patent department of the company, member Trinity Church (Episcopal).

Unmarried.

Death due to lobar pneumonia. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by a sister, Miss Louina E. Paul, and a brother, Edward O. Paul, both of New Haven.

Franklin Moses Gray, Ph.B. 1888.

Born April 23, 1866, in Goshen, Conn.
Died September 17, 1931, in Seattle, Wash.

Prepared for college at the private school of Rev. Lewis H. Reid (B.A 1847), in Lakeville, Conn. Select course.

Married January 7, 1911, in Seattle, Marguerite, daughter of Augustus Peter and Louise (Spitzley) Conner. No children.
Death due to cancer. Buried in Calvary Cemetery, Seattle. Survived by wife.

Ralph McIntosh Wilcox, Ph.B. 1888.

Born June 2, 1860, in Portland, Conn.
Died March 19, 1932, at Long Beach, Calif.

Gildersleeve High School, Portland. Engaged in farming until 1883; attended Wesleyan University two years (1883–85) as member of Class of 1887 (member Chi Psi). Civil engineering course; member Freshman Crew and University Crew two years.

Lineman and transitman on survey of Hartford & Connecticut Western Railroad 1888–89; draftsman for Berlin Iron Bridge Company June–September, 1889; instructor in civil engineering at Lehigh University 1889–1899; designer of bridges for F. R. Long Company of New York City June–September, 1899; practiced his profession in Middletown, Conn., 1899–1920; president and manager of the firm of Wilcox & Lucey for some years prior to 1916; city engineer of Middletown 1901–06, 1908–09, 1911, and 1915–16; member Middletown City School Board 1907–1913; engaged in engineering at Long Beach 1923–26; also interested in an orange ranch at Redlands; author: Theory and Calculation of Cantilever Bridges (1898); member Connecticut Society of Civil Engineers, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, and First Congregational Church, Long Beach.

Married (1) December 24, 1889, in Portland, Clara Marie, daughter of Luzerne Foote and Betsey (Fowler) Clarke. Children: Horace Luzerne (Class boy of 1888 S.); Bessie Clarke, the wife of H. Virginius Leonard (B.A. Wesleyan 1912); Robert McIntosh (died in service in 1918); and Valeria Pitkin, the wife of Carl O. Winter (Wesleyan 1920–21). Mrs. Wilcox died April 13, 1914. Married (2) November 15, 1916, in Redlands, Frances Stewart, daughter of Lucius Philo and Josephine (Rathbone) Stewart. No children by second marriage.

Death due to coronary arteriosclerosis. Buried in Hillside Cemetery, Redlands. Survived by wife, one son, two daughters, and three grandchildren.
Yale Obituary Record

Paul Skiff Robinson, Ph.B. 1889.

Born February 8, 1868, in New Haven, Conn.
Died July 10, 1931, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, William Callyhan Robinson (B.A. Dartmouth 1854 and LL.D. 1879; honorary M.A. 1881), professor of law at Yale and at Catholic University of America; son of John Adams and Mary Elizabeth (Callyhan) Robinson, of Norwich, Conn. Mother, Anna Elizabeth (Haviland) Robinson; daughter of Henry H. and Mary M. (Juteau) Haviland, of New York City. Yale relatives include: John A. Robinson, '71 L. (uncle); and Philip N. Robinson, '86 L., and George W. Robinson, '88 L. (brothers).

Hillhouse High School. Scientific-medical course
M.D. 1891, took post-graduate work at College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia University, eighteen months; practiced medicine at Stony Creek, Conn., 1893–94 and since then in New Haven, specialized in electrotherapeutics; member American Medical Association, Connecticut State Medical Society, and New Haven Medical Association.

Married (1) April 4, 1893, in New York City, Jennie Louise, daughter of Thomas and Jane Sheldon (Greene) Stirling, of Bridgeport, Conn. Children: Elliott Stirling Andrew (B.A. 1916, M.D. 1918, Ph D 1922); Paul Haviland (B.A. 1926); William Theodore (died in infancy), and Philip George (B.A. 1928). Dr. and Mrs. Robinson were divorced in 1913. Married (2) September 23, 1914, in Weehawken, N. J., Helen Elizabeth, daughter of Patrick Henry and Elizabeth (Faughnan) Keefe. No children by second marriage.

Eugene Lentilhon, Ph.B. 1890.

Born August 14, 1869, in New York City.

Father, Joseph Lentilhon, a stock broker; member of firm of Havemeyer & Lentilhon, son of Eugene and Emily (Smith) Lentilhon, of New York City. Mother, Zella Trelawney (Detmold) Lentilhon; daughter of Christian and Zella (Trelawney) Detmold, of New York City.

Cutler School, New York City. Civil engineering course; member Intercollegiate Track Team 1889 and won second prize; won first prize in half mile run 1888 and 220 yard hurdle race 1889; won in fencing in 1887; a founder and charter member of St. Elmo and Delta Phi.

Assistant engineer with New York Dock Department 1890-97; affiliated with Steers & Bensel, contracting engineers, New York, 1897-98; engaged in independent practice as a civil engineer in New York, with especial attention to harbor improvements and piers, from 1898 until retirement in 1918; during that period investigated engineering projects and harbor conditions in Chile for J. G. White & Company 1906-07; breeder of beagles on his farm at Islip, N. Y., 1919-1924; had made his home in Paris since 1925; member 7th Regiment, New York National Guard, 1891-1908; author: Forty Years Beagling in the United States (1921); member American Society of Civil Engineers and Pro-Cathedral (Episcopal), Paris.

Death due to cancer of the prostate gland. Buried in the cemetery of la Guillotière, Lyons, France. Survived by wife, four sisters, Mrs. John Parkin Gilford, Mrs. Chester C. Boynton, and Mrs. James H. Young, all of New York City, and Mrs. J. deNavarre Macomb, of Chicago, and a brother, Edward Detmold Lentilhon, of Middletown, N. J. His brother, Joseph deT. Lentilhon, ex-93, died in 1917.

Gaius Foster Paddock, Ph.B. 1890.

Born April 3, 1866, in Alton, Ill.
Died March 7, 1932, in Boston, Mass.

Father, Gaius Paddock; member of firm of Paddock & Hawley Iron Company, of St. Louis, Mo.; son of Orville and Mary Elizabeth (Bailey) Paddock, of St. Louis. Mother, Sara Josepha (Foster) Paddock; daughter of Joseph and Sarah (Singleton) Foster, of Virginia.

Episcopal Academy, Cheshire, Conn. Entered Sheffield Scientific School with Class of 1889; joined Class of 1890 in fall of 1889; chemistry course; member Cloister and Book and Snake.

Chemist with Homestead Steel Works, Munhall, Pa., 1890-91; chemist and manager of San Louis Mining & Reduction Company, Sonora, Mexico, 1891-93; corresponding secretary of Paddock &
Hawley 1893–1905; had since been engaged in insurance business in St. Louis; broker with F. Churchill Whittemore Company 1906–1916 and with W. H. Markham & Company since 1916; Private, Missouri Home Guard, 1898–1900; connected with American Protective League; member of Episcopal church.

Married February 21, 1923, in St. Louis, Winifred, daughter of William Flavius Lester Hadley (B.A. McKendree College 1868 and M.A. 1898; LL.B University of Michigan 1871) and Mary Julia (West) Hadley. No children.

Death followed an operation. Buried in Paddock's Cemetery, Madison County (near Edwardsville), Ill. Survived by wife, a brother, Orville W. Paddock, of Chicago, and four sisters, the Misses Mary J., Sara S., and Alice Paddock, and Mrs. Innis Palmer Swift.

Brown Caldwell, Ph.B. 1891.

Born March 25, 1869, in Allegheny, Pa.
Died April 16, 1932, in Wauwatosa, Wis.

Father, John Caldwell; associate of George Westinghouse and treasurer of Westinghouse Air Brake Company; chairman of fine arts committee of Carnegie Institute; Civil War veteran; son of Robert and Jane (Crawford) Caldwell, of The Glen, County Mayo, Ireland. Mother, Lidie (Miller) Caldwell; daughter of William and Elizabeth (Fleming) Miller, of Willow Grove, Pa. Nephew John C. Fountain, '27.

Shadyside Academy, Pittsburgh, and tutors Select course; member The Colony and Berzelius.

Clerk with Allegheny Light Company of Pittsburgh 1891–94; secretary-treasurer of the Peerless Rubber Company of New York 1894–99, traveled abroad 1899 and later connected with the Sargent Company of Chicago; engaged in the turpentine business in the South 1903–07; elected president and treasurer of Caldwell Company, Savannah, Ga., 1904; subsequently engaged in chemical fertilizer business in New York City and served as president of Mona Island (West Indies) Phosphate Company; retired from active business in 1921, on account of illness, had since divided his time between Stockbridge, Mass, and Santa Barbara, Calif., and in traveling; interested in the raising of apples and in landscape painting, his work having been hung in several exhibitions; treasurer of Stockbridge Golf Club ten years and chairman of greens committee; in 1918 served as assistant field director, 3d Naval District, American Red Cross, Brooklyn, and assistant director, Military Relief, Atlantic Division, New York City.
Married (1) October 25, 1894, in New York City, Lillie May, daughter of Gideon and Mary Elizabeth (Keech) Fountain, and sister of George H. Fountain, ex-'76, and Gerard Fountain, ’84. Mrs. Caldwell died August 6, 1895. Married (2) December 29, 1898, in Chicago, Blanche Davis Follansbee (B.A. Bryn Mawr 1894), daughter of George Alanson Follansbee (B.A. Lawrence University 1865 and M.A. 1867; LL.B. Harvard 1867) and Susan Dana (Davis) Follansbee (Lawrence University). Children: George Follansbee; and Elizabeth (Mrs. Robert D. Jenckes).

Death due to nephritis and cardiovascular disease. Buried in Graceland Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife, son, daughter, and a sister, Elizabeth Caldwell Fountain (B.A. Bryn Mawr 1897), the wife of Gerard Fountain, ’84.

Thomas Denny, Ph.B. 1892.

Born September 27, 1869, in Pawtucket, R. I.
Died October 18, 1931, at Beverly Hills, Calif.

Father, John Tappan Denny (B.A. College of the City of New York 1854); member of firm of Thomas Denny & Company, bankers and brokers, New York City; son of Thomas Denny (B.A. Harvard 1823) and Sarah Salisbury (Tappan) Denny, of New York City. Mother, Sophie Brown (Dunnell) Denny; daughter of Jacob and Amey D. (Brown) Dunnell, of Pawtucket. Uncle: Thomas Denny, ’54.

Berkeley Military School, New York City. Chemistry course; rowed in fall regatta, Freshman year; president of New York City Club and vice-president of University Club; captain of Sheff Military Company; winner of military graduation essay; member St. Anthony and Delta Psi.

Connected with Thomas Denny & Company, members of the New York Stock Exchange (Paul Fenn, ’81, also a member), 1892–1914; served as clerk and in other positions 1892–95; member of firm 1895–1914; senior partner of its successor, Denny, Pomroy & Company, 1914–1922; special partner in New York Stock Exchange firm of J. W. Davis & Company since 1922; trustee of Bank for Savings of New York since 1908 and of the Flower Hospital 1917–18; commissioned Second Lieutenant, 12th Regiment, New York National Guard, January 20, 1893; promoted First Lieutenant June 5, 1893, and Captain August 20, 1893; detailed as mustering officer of 112th Regiment, New York National Guard, May, 1898; commissioned Colonel, 112th Infantry, June 6, 1898, and served as such until January 16, 1899; commissioned Colonel, Reserve List, New York Nacolonial Guard, May 25, 1915; assigned as commanding officer, Depot Battalion, 12th Infantry, June 16, 1917; Colonel, 12th Infantry, New York Guard, September 5, 1917-January 10, 1918; commissioned Major, Ordnance Reserve Corps, U. S. A., January 17, 1918; assigned New York District Ordnance Office as financial manager; received discharge January 22, 1919; commissioned Lieutenant Colonel, Ordnance Officers' Reserve Corps, February 12, 1919; assigned to Administrative Division October 23, 1921; commissioned Colonel, Ordnance Officers' Reserve Corps, December 19, 1922; assigned as executive assistant to chief of manufacture (assistant chief of Ordnance) September 8, 1924; member of board of managers (governors) of the New York House of Refuge (state reformatory for boys) 1925-1931 (member of committee on annual report 1925-29 and of committee on buildings and maintenance 1926-29); deputy governor of Society of Mayflower Descendants 1916-17 and governor 1917-18 and 1922-24, governor of the New York State Society of Mayflower Descendants 1917-18 and 1922-25; on board of managers of Sons of the Revolution in the State of New York 1913-15, 1917-18, 1920-23, and 1928-29, third vice-president of society 1916, first vice-president 1924 and 1925, president 1926 and 1927, general president 1926-1931, elected honorary general president for 1931-34; gentleman of the council of Society of Colonial Wars 1915-1920, secretary of Society of American Officers; treasurer of New England Society in the City of New York 1918 and 1919; a governor of the Army and Navy Club and of Manhattan Council of Boy Scouts of America 1925-1931, member Huguenot Society, Society of the War of 1812, St Nicholas Society of the City of New York, Military Order of Foreign Wars of the United States (New York Commandery), Military Order of the World War, New York Society of Military and Naval Officers of the World War, Inc., and St. Thomas' Episcopal Church, New York; hereditary member Headquarters Corps, Artillery Military Society of the War of 1812; member of council of Yale Club of New York 1903-05 (member committee on admissions 1899-1901; auditing committee 1903-05 and 1916-17; library and arts committee 1916, committee on the University 1917 and 1918); Class agent for Alumni University Fund 1914-1922 and director Alumni University Fund Association 1915-1921; president of Class of 1892 S. since 1912.
Tale Obituary Record

Married October 15, 1895, in Orange, N. J., M. Louise, daughter of William L. and Louise (Murray) Jenkins. Children: Esther Louise, the wife of D. Glen Smith (B.S. Union 1912; M.D. Johns Hopkins 1916); Thomas, ex-'20 S.; and Amey Dunnell. Mrs Denny died March 5, 1930.

Death due to carcinoma. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New Sheffield Scientific School

York. Survived by two daughters, son, two grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Lawrence Pope Bayne, of New York City.

Reuben Miller, Jr., Ph.B. 1892.

Born May 26, 1872, in Pittsburgh, Pa.
Died October 23, 1931, in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Father, Reuben Miller, St. James College ex-'57; president of Bank of Pittsburgh and Crescent Steel Company; treasurer, president and chairman of the board of Crucible Steel Company; son of Reuben and Ann Leischman (Harvy) Miller, of Pittsburgh. Mother, Mary Lydia (Fleming) Miller, Pittsburgh Female College ex-'70; daughter of James Matthews and Mary Ann (Kenney) Fleming, of Pittsburgh. Nephews: Cameron Waterman, 3d, '32, and Reuben M. Waterman, '33.

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. Civil engineering course; contributed to Yale Literary Magazine.

With Crescent Steel Company 1892-1900, at first as secretary and later as general sales agent (also a vice-president); in 1900, upon its absorption by Crucible Steel Company of America became vice-president and general superintendent of latter company; also served as assistant to the president, president of Ligonier (Pa) Silica Brick Company 1896-1909; president and owner of Ligonier Electric Light Company 1905-1913; president of Crescent Forgings Company of Oakmont, Pa., which he built in 1905, president of Atlas Corrugated Box Company of Oakmont for several years; commissioned Captain, Aviation Section, Signal Officers' Reserve Corps, January 20, 1918, and assigned to active duty in Equipment Division, office of Chief Signal Officer, Washington, D. C.; attached for duty with Motor Division, office of the Quartermaster General, about June 28, 1918; promoted Major, Air Service (Aircraft Production), U. S. A., August 21, 1918; assigned to temporary duty in office of chief of Motor Transport Corps November 20, 1918; Department Motor Transport Officer, Headquarters, Hawaiian Department, April 26-September 18, 1919; promoted Lieutenant Colonel, Motor Transport Corps, July 23, 1919; on duty at Zone Supply Depot, San Francisco, from September 18 until discharge October 23, 1919; had not since engaged in any active business; member Calvary Episcopal Church, Pittsburgh.

Married June 12, 1895, in Pittsburgh, Rachel Hughey Larimer, Pennsylvania College for Women ex-'91, daughter of Cassius and Laura Chalfont (Gray) Larimer. No children.

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Allegheny Cemetery,
Yale Obituary Record

Pittsburgh. Survived by wife, two sisters, Mrs. William McKennan Reed, of Pittsburgh, and Lois F. Miller Waterman, the wife of Cameron B. Waterman, '01, and a brother, Harvy Miller, '96 S.

Arthur Jarvis Slade, Ph.B. 1892.

Born October 1, 1872, in New York City.
Died March 29, 1932, in Naples, Italy.

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. Mechanical engineering course; private in Sheff Military Company; member York Hall and Chi Phi. Traveled around the world 1892-93; machinist apprentice, draftsman, and tester in Waddel-Entz Electric Company's factory, Bridgeport, Conn., 1893-94; took special course in electrical engineering at Columbia School of Mines 1894; assistant in office of George Hill, consulting engineer, and with Hill & Turner, architects, New York City, 1894-98; engaged in building contracting business 1898-1900; superintendent of construction and equipment of Elizabethport shops of Central Railroad of New Jersey 1900-02; connected with engineering department of New York Central Railroad 1902-04, as assistant to the mechanical engineer 1902-03 and then as mechanical engineer in chief engineer's office; consulting engineer in New York City 1904-1917 and again 1919-1921, specializing in automotive engineering; during this period was consulting engineer for Peerless Motor Car Company and New York Street Cleaning and Fire departments and designed and directed manufacture of Atlantic electric trucks; had lived in Paris since 1926; served seven years in Squadron A, New York Cavalry; in 1898 volunteered for Spanish-American War as Corporal, Troop A, New York Cavalry; stationed at Camps Black and Alger and later went to Porto Rico; served later as First Lieutenant, Coast Artillery Corps, about three years, detailed to staff of Brigadier General, 1st Brigade, New York National Guard, and later as Battalion Adjutant of 8th Coast Artillery District, in spring of 1917 appointed member of civilian committee to recruit personnel for enlistment in motor transport service of Quartermaster Enlisted Reserve Corps; appointed aeronautical mechanical engineer in Aviation Section, Signal Corps, June 8, 1917, and placed in charge of Motor Transport Section, Aircraft Engineering Division; commissioned Captain, Aviation Section, Signal Officers' Reserve Corps, July 18, 1917; on duty in Washington in charge of design and production of motor transport vehicles; also organized courses for transportation personnel; commissioned Captain, Signal Corps, Regular Army (Temporary), March 25, 1918; overseas, for duty in Technical Section, Air Service, March 28, 1918; transferred to Motor Transport Corps as chief of Engineering Division June 18; promoted Major, Motor Transport Corps, October 7, 1918; in Aisne, Marne, and St.-Mihiel and Argonne offensives; with Army of Occupation at Coblenz; member Permanent International Armistice Commission at Spa, Belgium; promoted Lieutenant Colonel April 18, 1919; returned to United States May 13, 1919, and received discharge June 30; made member of French Legion of Honor April 4, 1919; awarded Distinguished Service Order of Great Britain July 18, 1919; in 1920 made commander of Motor Transport Post 815, American Legion; chairman of welfare committee of American Legion of Paris 1930-31; member of jury of awards of Panama-Pacific International Exposition in San Francisco 1915 and of board of governors of New York Skin and Cancer Hospital 1921-1932; contributed technical articles to engineering publications; member American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Society of Automobile Engineers, Yale Engineering Association, and American Cathedral of Trinity Church, Paris; associate member American Institute of Electrical Engineers.
Sheffield Scientific School

Married (1) November 21, 1900, in Newark, N. J., Jessica Hildreth, daughter of Silas Condit and Fannie Halsey. One son, Arthur Halsey (died in childhood). Mr. and Mrs. Slade were divorced in 1920. Married (2) October 28, 1929, in Paris, Yvonne Truchot Tégou, daughter of Pierre Victor Truchot, former professor of art in College de Luxeuil and College de Langres, and Berthe (Boigegrain) Truchot.

Richard Garlick, Ph.B. 1893.

Born November 2, 1871, in Youngstown, Ohio.
Died April 14, 1932, at Daytona Beach, Fla

Father, Henry Manning Garlick, a banker; chairman of board of Dollar Savings & Trust Company, of First National Bank of Youngstown, and of the Standard Textile Products Company; son of Richard and Caroline Lord (Manning) Garlick, of Youngstown. Mother, Sarah Stambaugh (Ford) Garlick; daughter of James Hobart and Arabella (Stambaugh) Ford, of Youngstown. Yale relatives: Ephraim Kirby (honorary M.A. 1787) (great-great-uncle); and George T. Ford, '65 (great-uncle).

Phillips-Exeter. Mechanical engineering course; member The Colony and Berzelius.

Connected with Lloyd Booth Company, manufacturers, in Youngstown 1893-1901, at first as a molder and then learning the machinist trade; secretary of the company 1898-1901; had since been with Youngstown Sheet & Tube Company, as treasurer 1901-1917, vice-president 1917-1922, director since 1904, and member of executive committee since 1927; president of Falcon Bronze Company 1896-1902 and of Concrete Stone & Sand Company several years; at time of death director of First National Bank, Dollar Savings & Trust Company, Central Store Company, and Ohio Iron & Steel Company of Youngstown and Emerald Coal & Coke Company of Pittsburgh; member American Iron and Steel Institute, Ohio Society of New York, and First Presbyterian Church, Youngstown.

Married April 25, 1901, in Youngstown, Mary Holmes, daughter of Thomas Holmes Wells (University of Dublin) and Grace (Jewett) Wells. No children.

Death due to myocarditis. Buried in Oak Hill Cemetery, Youngstown. Survived by wife and a sister, Mrs. Julia Garlick Bonnell, of Youngstown.

William Churchill Hungerford, Ph.B. 1893.

Born February 26, 1871, in New Britain, Conn.
Died June 25, 1932, in Boston, Mass.

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.

George Curtis Treadwell, Ph.B. 1893.

Born August 24, 1872, in Albany, N. Y.
Died May 16, 1932, in Shepherdstown, W. Va.

Father, George Hooker Treadwell; president of George C. Treadwell Fur Company and its successor, George C. Treadwell Company, of Albany; civil service commissioner of New York State; served in Civil War with 113th Regiment, New York Volunteers, and as aide-de-camp on Brigade Staff and assistant adjutant general, 4th Brigrad, 1st Division, 2d Corps; son of George Curtis and Amy Darrow (Roberts) Treadwell, of Albany. Mother, Elizabeth (Schnebly) Treadwell. Yale relative: John Treadwell (B.A. 1767) (great-great-grandfather).
Sheffield Scientific School

Hart's School, Farmington, Conn., and Sedgwick Institute, Great Barrington, Mass. Special chemistry course; on Class Crew and University Crew Squad; won pole vault Freshman year; on Freshman Glee Club and president of Second Glee Club 1892; Class deacon Freshman year; member The Colony and Berzelius.

Director George C. Treadwell Fur Company 1887-1895, secretary and director of George C. Treadwell Company 1893-95; not in active business 1895-97 on account of ill health; military secretary and aide-de-camp (Colonel) to Governor Black of New York 1897-98 and to Governor Roosevelt 1899-1901; military secretary to Governor Hughes of New York 1907-1910 and his private secretary 1910; military secretary to Governor White of New York 1911; secretary, treasurer, and director of Economic Power & Construction Company of Albany 1900-06 and of Citizens Economic Power Company 1906-1911; vice-president of Plymouth Seam Face Granite Company of Boston and manager of its Albany branch 1911-12 and president of the company 1912-16; had since been president and director of its successor, the Plymouth Quarries, Inc., of Boston; member Old Guard Troop B, New York National Guard (during the World War 105th Machine Gun Battery, U. S. A.); placed on Officers' Reserve List, New York State, 1918; assigned from Officers' Reserve to American Red Cross, Southern Division, as assistant director of military relief summer of 1918 until October 22; chief of staff (Major) in charge of personnel with Red Cross Commission to the Balkan States November 1, 1918—December 5, 1919; during this period decorated with Order of the Crown, Officers' Class, by King Ferdinand of Rumania; in 1927 received Grand Cross of the Order; also served during the war as member of three Liberty Loan committees in Albany, of executive committees of Albany chapter of U. S. Navy League and American Red Cross, of Albany War Chest Committee, and of Y. M. C. A. drives; manager of New York State Republican Party campaign 1906; in 1912 appointed by Governor Glynn as delegate to National Rivers and Harbors Congress at Washington; on state campaign committee against tuberculosis; an organizer of Albany Art Students League and its president 1904-06; an organizer of Albany Polo Club 1902 and secretary 1902-06; member Albany City Plan Association, Albany Chamber of Commerce, Albany Philharmonic Society, Mendelssohn Glee Club of Albany, University Glee Club of New York City, advisory board of Albany Orchestra, Albany Historical and Arts Society, Albany Institute, Society of Married May 17, 1911, in Shepherdstown, Laura Hardage Butler Lorraine, daughter of Dr. Hardage Lane Butler and Mary Ellen (Mathiot) Butler. No children.

Death due to arteriosclerosis and diabetes. Buried in Albany Rural Cemetery. Survived by wife, a brother, Louis S. Treadwell, '99 S., and three sisters, Miss Alice Treadwell, of Morristown, N. J., Miss Camilla Treadwell, of Grasse, France, and Amy Treadwell Fiske, the wife of James Porter Fiske (M.D. Columbia 1891), of Paris, France.

Robert William Whitehead, Ph.B. 1893.

Born March 30, 1872, in New York City.
Died December 24, 1931, on board a ferryboat between New York and Hoboken, N. J.

Father, Daniel Whitehead, a transfer agent; son of George and Eliza (Bean) Whitehead, of Charlestown, Mass. Mother, Margaret Little (Byers) Whitehead; daughter of Robert Little and Isabella (Little) Byers.

Phillips-Exeter. Mechanical engineering course; Senior appointment.

Special agent with New England Telephone & Telegraph Company in Boston 1893–1901, telephone construction engineer with Western Telephone & Telegraph Company in Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, and North and South Dakota, with headquarters in Detroit, 1902–04 and also connected with Michigan Telephone Company, engineer with Southern New England Telephone Company in New Haven 1904–1910; division plant superintendent of Western Union Telegraph Company at Denver, Colo, 1910–11 and at Chicago 1911–14, general supervisor of plant department at general offices of the company in New York City since 1914.

Married August 26, 1907, in New York City, Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Richard Taylor and Elizabeth Jane (Boswell) Rollins, and sister of George W. Rollins, '76. Mrs. Whitehead died December 11, 1926.
Sheffield Scientific School

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Kensico Cemetery, Valhalla, N. Y.

Howard Parker Hotchkiss, Ph.B. 1894.

Born April 1, 1870, in New Haven, Conn.
Died September 11, 1931, in Pinehurst, N. C.

Father, Edwin Augustus Hotchkiss; member of firm of Isaac Hotchkiss' Sons, wholesale coal dealers, New Haven; son of Isaac Tomlinson and Eliza (Tomlinson) Hotchkiss, of New Haven. Mother, Caroline Mulford (Parker) Hotchkiss; daughter of Joseph and Caroline (Mulford) Parker, of New Haven. Brother: Edwin A. Hotchkiss, ex-'81 S.

Hopkins Grammar School and a tutor, Percy F. Smith, '88 S. Select course; member Senior Class Book Committee; permanent chairman of Reunion Committee.

Secretary to Mr. Wilson H. Lee of Price & Lee Company, directory publishers, New Haven, 1894-96; clerk with Security Insurance Company of New Haven 1897-1910, when he retired from active business; had lived in Pinehurst since 1916; secretary of Class of 1894 S., 1914-18, treasurer 1919-1929.

Married June 14, 1900, in New Haven, Aurora Mabel, daughter of Joseph and Aurora Ann (Goddard) Lee, of Athol, Mass. Children: Howard Parker, Jr. (died in childhood); Joseph Parker, ex-'25 S.; Caroline Mulford; and Anna Mabel.

Death due to chronic nephritis. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, two daughters, and one son.

Harry Trumbull Clifton, Ph.B. 1895.

Born July 15, 1875, in Washington, D. C.
Died May 13, 1932, in Monrovia, Calif.

Father, Charles Ross Clifton, a clerk in the Surgeon General's office, War Department; son of Thomas and Mary (McHenry) Clifton, of Mc Cleary, Pa. Mother, Katharine (Trumbull) Clifton; daughter of James and Janet (Peet) Trumbull, of Logan County, Ohio.

Washington High School. Electrical engineering course; honorable mention in all studies and in chemistry and mechanical drawing Freshman year; honors and appointment Senior year; member Sigma Xi.

Took graduate work at Yale 1895-96 and served as an assistant in Senior electrical laboratory, Sheffield Scientific School; inspector in traffic department of New York Telephone Company, New York City, 1897-1900; assistant manager of Franklin Street exchange April–November, 1898, manager of Joy Street exchange 1898–99 and of Madison Square exchange February–March, 1900; spent 1900–01 in northern Vermont and at Saranac Lake, N. Y., on account of ill health, patient at Loomis Sanitarium, Liberty, N. Y., 1901–02 and manager of the Annex there 1902–03; had lived in California since 1903; instructor at Throop Polytechnic Institute, Pasadena (mechanical drawing 1903, from February, 1904, physics also, and mathematics 1905–06; physics only 1907–11); also manager of Throop Institute Bookstore 1906–11, chairman of faculty committee on library and methods of grading 1909–10, and registrar of Throop Academy (Preparatory Department of the Institute) 1910–11; instructor in physics, algebra, geometry, and geology at Pasadena High School 1911–1924 and recorder of the school 1912–1924; recorder of Pasadena High School and Junior College 1924–26 (also adviser and chairman of committee on admissions), transferred to teaching mathematics there 1926; on leave of absence on account of ill health since fall of 1927; took graduate work at University of California during summers of 1907 and 1911, at University of Southern California 1925, at California Institute of Technology and at Occidental College 1926; secretary of southern division of Cooper Ornithological Club of California 1904 and treasurer 1906–07; also business manager of The Condor, bi-monthly magazine of the club; member Society for Promotion of Industrial Education, Society for Promotion of Engineering Education (member committee on secondary schools 1912), National Education Association (secretary of department of science instruction for San Francisco 1911), Pacific Division of American Association for the Advancement of Science, Southern California Science Association (a founder and secretary), Southern California Association of Mathematics Teachers, Southern California Science and Mathematics Association (secretary and president 1910), California Teachers’ Association, and First Methodist Church, Pasadena.

Married June 9, 1910, in Pasadena, Marian Elsie Craig (B.A. Pomona 1903; B.A. University of California 1904), daughter of Charles Howard and Mary Ella (Williams) Craig. No children.

Death due to pulmonary tuberculosis and myocardial failure. Buried in Mountain View Mausoleum, Pasadena Survived by wife and mother.
Richard Teller Crane, Jr., Ph.B. 1895.

Born November 7, 1873, in Chicago, Ill.
Died November 7, 1931, in New York City.

Father, Richard Teller Crane; founder and president of Crane Co., manufacturers, Chicago; organized and supported first public graded manual training school in Chicago; son of Timothy Botchford and Maria (Ryerson) Crane, of Paterson, N. J. Mother, Mary Josephine (Prentice) Crane; daughter of Alonzo Tyng and Emeline (Rockwell) Prentice, of Lockport, N. Y. Nephew: Herbert P. Crane, Jr., ex-'06 S.

The Hill School. Mechanical engineering course; Class statistician; chairman of Dance Committee; a governor of University Club; member Cloister and Book and Snake.

Traveled 1895-96; connected with Crane Co. since August, 1896; in the brass and iron foundries for a few months; in charge of city sales department about two years; second vice-president 1898-1912; first vice-president 1912-14; and president since August, 1914; president of Crane, Ltd., of Montreal since June, 1918, and of Crane Export Corporation of New York since October, 1919; consul general of Persia in Chicago 1901-1912; LL D. Hobart 1931; contributed to City of Chicago major part of cost of Iroquois Memorial Emergency Hospital; in 1916, during infantile paralysis epidemic in New York City, offered $25,000 to aid in discovery of a cure or prevention of the disease; presented a valuable collection of Washingtoniana to United States Naval Academy 1918; in 1921 presented the Benjamin Stickney Cable Memorial Hospital to the town of Ipswich, Mass, where he had a summer home; as a memorial to his parents, gave a carillon of forty-three bells and tower (together with an endowment fund for maintenance) to St. Chrysostom's Episcopal Church, Chicago (of which a member), 1927; in 1928, with Mrs. Crane, gave $100,000 toward the endowment of the Department of Therapeutics of New York University and Bellevue Hospital Medical College; presented to the State of Illinois historic Buffalo Rock on the Illinois River (fifty acres) for a public park 1928; with Mrs. Crane gave a $300,000 building, the Florence Crane Hospital, to the Hartford (Conn.) Hospital group 1929; trustee and life member and director of Field Museum of Natural History, Chicago, since 1921; vice-president of Civic Opera Association of Chicago 1921-23; governing life member Art Institute of Chicago since 1917 and Chicago Historical Society since 1929; life member Ipswich Historical Society and New York Yacht Club; member Yale Committee for Participation in the Restoration of the Library of the University of Louvain (1924), Yale
Yale Obituary Record

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Graceland Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife, son, daughter, two brothers, Charles R. Crane, of New York City, and Herbert P. Crane, of St. Charles, Ill., and four sisters, Frances Crane Lillie, the wife of Frank R. Lillie (B.A. University of Toronto 1891; Ph.D. Chicago 1894; Sc.D. 1932), of Chicago, Mrs. Edmund A. Russell, of Lake Forest, Ill., Mrs. Kate C. Gartz, of Pasadena, Calif., and Mrs. Emily C. Chadbourne, of Washington, D. C.

David Arthur Hill, Ph.B. 1895.

Born April 22, 1874, in Chicago, Ill.
Died November 2, 1931, in Evanston, Ill.

Father, David Kimball Hill, a real estate broker; son of Jacob Osborn and Nancy (Kimball) Hill, of Lowell, Mass. Mother, Mary Elizabeth (Tracy) Hill; daughter of Uri Festus and Lucretia Patience (Munn) Tracy, of Lowell.

King's School, Stamford, Conn. Select course; member Track Team Senior year.

Married September 8, 1901, in Chicago, Blanche Holstein, daughter of Roswell Percy and Virginia (Holstein) Fish. Children: Virginia, the wife of Whitney J Oates (B.A Princeton 1926); and David Kimball, 2d, Northwestern University 1932. Mrs. Hill died February 4, 1913.

Death due to carcinoma of liver. Buried in Oakwoods Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by daughter, son, mother, and two brothers, James Tracy Hill, ex-'91 S., and Paul K. Hill, Northwestern University ex-'10.

Robert Allan Niggeman, Ph.B. 1895.

Born September 5, 1874, in St. Louis, Mo.
Died September 11, 1931, in St. Louis, Mo.

Father, Robert Niggeman, a commission merchant with firm of D. I. Bushnell & Company; son of William Niggeman (Wilhelm Niggemann) and Marianna (Rump) Niggeman (both born in Germany), of St. Louis. Mother, Mary Ann (Gartside) Niggeman; daughter of Joseph and Martha (Allan) Gartside, of St. Louis.

Central High School, St. Louis. Select course; Senior appointment.

Had been connected with Gartside Coal Company since 1895; located at Murphysboro, Ill., 1895-98 and since then in St. Louis; secretary and treasurer for some years and president since 1915.

Unmarried.

Death due to acute cardiac dilatation. Buried in Bellefontaine Cemetery, St. Louis. Survived by two brothers, Edward G. and William J. Niggeman, and a sister, Miss Grace D. Niggeman, all of St. Louis.

William Wallace Pike, Ph.B. 1895.

Born November 11, 1872, in Chicago, Ill.
Died April 20, 1932, in Munich, Germany.

Father, Eugene Samuel Pike, Antioch College 1854-55; in real estate business in Chicago; son of Dan Harmon and Jerusha (Hartwell) Pike, of Colbrook, Ohio. Mother, Mary (Rockwell) Pike; daughter of Timothy and Helen (Marshall) Rockwell, of Painesville, Ohio.

Belmont (Mass.) High School. Entered Sheffield Scientific School with Class of 1894; joined Class of 1895 in 1893; chemistry course; member St. Elmo and Delta Phi.

Chemist with Armour & Company, Chicago, in 1895; in 1897 became president and general manager of Chicago Concentrating Company, manufacturers of flavoring extracts and essential oils, and later served as president only of the company; engaged in business as an insurance broker in Chicago since 1916 and served as trustee of Eugene S. Pike Estate Land Trust; had a residence also in Beverly Hills, Calif., and a summer home in Neuhaus, Germany; member Chicago Historical Society.
Married March 15, 1902, in Munich, Johana, daughter of Johan Kaiser. One daughter, Marie Louise.

Augustus Hartje Eggers, Ph.B. 1896.

Born June 13, 1875, in Allegheny, Pa.
Died August 16, 1931, in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Father, Frederick Herman Eggers, a druggist; president of Pittsburgh College of Pharmacy and of Pennsylvania State Pharmaceutical Examining Board; served as a hospital steward with 12th Pennsylvania Cavalry in Civil War; son of Ernest Frederick and Barbara (Lieb) Eggers, of Allegheny. Mother, Hannah (McWhorter) Eggers; daughter of William and Letitia (McCombs) McWhorter, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Allegheny High School Biology course; honors Senior year; member Vernon Hall and Phi Gamma Delta.

M.D. Johns Hopkins 1900; practiced medicine in Ambridge, Pa., 1903-06 and then in Pittsburgh until his death; school doctor with Pittsburgh Department of Health 1910-12, superintendent of Augusta (Ga.) Hospital 1912-14; lung and chest specialist with Tuberculosis Dispensary, Pittsburgh, 1914-17; medical director of Allegheny County, under Pennsylvania State Department of Health 1919-1923, since 1923 had been connected with U.S. Veterans' Bureau; lung and chest specialist in the regional office in Pittsburgh 1923-25 and since June, 1930, ward surgeon at the Veterans' Hospital in Aspinwall, Pa.; commissioned First Lieutenant, Medical Reserve Corps, July 3, 1917, stationed at Medical Officers' Training Camp, Camp Greenleaf, Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., August 3-November 2, 1917, in special tuberculosis work at Cantonment Hospital, Camp Gordon, Ga., November 2, 1917-May, 1918; overseas with 82d Division as tuberculosis specialist (rank of Major) May 19, 1918-May 6, 1919; stationed at St. Mihiel and in Meuse-Argonne Sector with 307th Sanitary Train, received discharge May 29, 1919; member Calvary Episcopal Church, Pittsburgh.

Married October 14, 1903, in Pittsburgh, Annie Mary, daughter of George Frederick and Annie Mary (Boyd) McLean. Children: Mary Martha Peadon (B.S. Carnegie Institute of Technology 1926; M.S. University of Pennsylvania 1930); Annie Mary McLean (died in childhood), Carolyn McLean (B.A. Carnegie Institute of Technology 1928; diploma from Pennsylvania College of Music); James Boyd (died in infancy); and Katherine Elizabeth (died in infancy).

Charles Warren Leland, Ph.B. 1896.

Born July 31, 1873, in Albany, N. Y.
Died September 7, 1931, in La Jolla, Calif.

Father, Warren Franklin Leland; in hotel business in Albany, N. Y., New York City, Newport, R. I., and Chicago; son of Aaron P. and Submit (Arnold) Leland, of Cleveland, Ohio. Mother, Isabella C. (Cobb) Leland.

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., and Harvard School, Chicago. Select course; member St. Elmo and Delta Phi.

Engaged in hotel business with his father at the Windsor Hotel, New York City, 1896-99; subsequently engaged in settlement of estates and in real estate business in Chicago for several years; with firm of Derby & Company in Chicago and later with a commercial house there; treasurer and a trustee of Iroquois Memorial Emergency Hospital, Chicago; trustee of Yale Scholarship Trust of Chicago 1909-1914, secretary and treasurer 1909-1912, treasurer 1912-13, and president 1913-14; a governor of Yale Publishing Association from its incorporation in 1911 until 1924; associate director of Bureau of Supply, Central Division, American Red Cross, during the war; had been in ill health since 1925 and had lived in La Jolla since 1926.

Married (1) January 6, 1904, in Baltimore, Md., May Sells, daughter of Charles M. and Anne (Snowden) Lanahan. One daughter, Helen May (died in childhood). Mr. and Mrs. Leland were divorced in 1920. Married (2) May 28, 1921, in Asheville, N. C., Marjorie Whiting Young, daughter of Alexander Tolman and Louise (Martine) Whiting. No children by second marriage.

Death due to angina pectoris and occlusion of the coronary artery. Cremation took place at the Clover Lawn Crematorium, San Diego, Calif. Ashes buried in Oakwoods Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife and a brother, Ralph C. Leland, of Wilmette, Ill.
Richard Otis Cheney, Ph.B. 1897.
Born February 20, 1874, in South Manchester, Conn.
Died September 19, 1931, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, Richard Otis Cheney, Brown ex-'62; president of South Manchester Railroad Company; member of corporation of Cheney Brothers, silk manufacturers, South Manchester. Mother, Sophia (Bissell) Cheney; daughter of Henry Bissell, of St. Louis.

Hartford Public High School. Entered Sheffield Scientific School with Class of 1896 but left in Senior year on account of illness; joined Class of 1897 S. the next year; civil engineering course.

Engaged in engineering for several years after graduation; since 1903 had been connected with Cheney Brothers; employed in spinning department several months and in throwing department 1903-07; assistant superintendent of shipping department 1907-09 and then of throwing, and winding and spooling departments until death, member of advisory board of the corporation since June, 1909; member Yale Engineering Association.

Married January 24, 1921, in New York City, Ruth Katherine, daughter of Dr. Timothy C. Tiffany, of Yonkers, N. Y. Two sons, Richard Otis and Douglas Tiffany.

Death due to a duodenal ulcer, with contributory causes. Buried in East Manchester, Conn. Survived by wife, two sons, and a sister, Miss Annie H. Cheney, of South Manchester.

Reuben Hitchcock, Ph.B. 1897.
Born July 21, 1874, in Cleveland, Ohio
Died August 29, 1931, in Willoughby, Ohio.

Father, Peter Marshall Hitchcock, Western Reserve ex-'59; senior partner in firm of Cleveland Brown & Company, iron and steel merchants, president of Moon Run Coal Company and Reliance Electric & Engineering Company; First Lieutenant and Regimental Quartermaster, 20th Ohio Volunteer Infantry, in Civil War, son of Reuben Hitchcock (B A. 1826) and Sarah (Marshall) Hitchcock, of Cleveland. Mother, Sarah Jane (Wilcox) Hitchcock (graduate of Lake Erie Seminary [now College] 1861); daughter of Aaron and Eliza Jane (Morley) Wilcox, of Painesville, Ohio. Yale relatives include: Peter Hitchcock (B A. 1801) (great-grandfather); Reuben Hitchcock (B A. 1786) (great-great-uncle); and Rev. Henry L Hitchcock (B.A 1832) (great-uncle).
St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. Electrical engineering course; member Freshman Crew; a Class Day historian.

LL.B. Harvard 1900; practiced law in Cleveland 1900–1920; associated with firm of Kline, Carr, Tolles & Goff 1900–04; member of firm of Douglas, Wood & Hitchcock and its successor, Wood, Hitchcock & Morgan, 1904–1912 and of Hitchcock & Fackler 1912–1920; president of Cleveland Folding Machine Company 1914–1929; had since been president of Cleveland Stoker Company; Captain, Troop A, Ohio National Guard (Cleveland's Black Horse Troop), 1900–1915; commissioned Captain, Aviation Section, Signal Officers' Reserve Corps (non-flying), December 26, 1917; promoted to Major, Aviation Section, Signal Corps, March 6, 1918, and to Lieutenant Colonel, Air Service (Production), October 22, 1918; served on staff of commander of Spruce Production Division, Air Service, in Oregon and Washington; given his discharge February 27, 1919, member Church of the Covenant (Presbyterian), Cleveland.

Married October 9, 1912, in Cincinnati, Ohio, Edith Frances, daughter of Daniel Brownson Meacham (M.D. Starling Medical College, Columbus, 1874) and Lida (Douglas) Meacham, Ohio Wesleyan University ex-'77, and sister of Robert D. Meacham, ex-'07 S., and Standish Meacham, '13 S. Children: Edith Meacham (died in infancy); Sarah Meacham; Reuben, Jr.; and Meacham.

Death, due to a heart attack, occurred while playing golf. Buried in Lakeview Cemetery, Cleveland. Survived by wife, one daughter, two sons, and three brothers, Charles W. Hitchcock, '93 S., Lawrence Hitchcock, '98, and H. Morley Hitchcock, ex-'03.

Seth Sylvester Spencer, Jr., Ph.B. 1897.

Born August 11, 1875, in West Seneca, N. Y.
Died February 19, 1932, in New York City

Father, Seth Sylvester Spencer; manager of National Biscuit Company and also engaged in banking; son of Seth Sylvester and Eliza (Dexter) Spencer, of Corning, N. Y. Mother, Agnes (Ovens) Spencer; daughter of Robert and Janet (Dickson) Ovens, of Galashields, Scotland. Nephew: Robert O. Derrick, '13.

Buffalo (N. Y.) High School and tutor. Mechanical engineering course; an editor of Scientific Monthly; member Class delegation to Princeton Sesquicentennial, and Graduation Committee.

Assistant superintendent with the R. Ovens and Niagara bakeries of National Biscuit Company in Buffalo 1897–1902 and superintendent 1902–1916; partner in investment banking house of O'Brian, Potter & Company in Buffalo 1916–17 and resident partner in New York City 1919–1920; member of firm of Barstow & Company, members of New York Stock Exchange, in which George E. Barstow, Jr., ex-97 S, was senior partner, December 1, 1920–November 1, 1931; had since been associated with J. R. Williston & Company, members of New York and Boston Stock exchanges; with Intelligence Bureau, War Trade Board, Washington, D.C., October, 1917–July, 1918; vice-president Litchfield (Conn.) Country Club 1931–32; member Westminster Presbyterian Church, Buffalo.

Married June 16, 1903, in Buffalo, Martha Miner, daughter of Nathaniel Willis Norton (B.A. Dartmouth 1878; LL.B. Albany Law School 1880) and Mary Estelle (Miner) Norton. Children: Mary Sargent (Mrs. Kenneth T Phillips); Martha Norton (Mrs. Patty Spencer Griggs); and Elizabeth Dexter.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in the Episcopal Cemetery, Litchfield. Survived by wife, three daughters, and three grandchildren.

John Martin Satterfield, Ph.B. 1898.

Born August 5, 1876, in Millerstown, Pa.
Died February 1, 1932, in Buffalo, N.Y.

Father, John Satterfield; manager of Union Oil Company, Buffalo; vice-president of Third National Bank and of Fidelity Trust Company, of which an organizer; president of Williamsport Railroad; son of John Mitchelltree and Matilda (Martin) Satterfield, of Buffalo. Mother, Matilda Sibyl (Martin) Satterfield; daughter of Charles Ludwig Martin (M.D Jefferson Medical College 1842) and Matilda (Detwiller) Martin, of Allentown, Pa. Yale relatives include two uncles: Constantine H. Martin, ex-‘64 S., and William E.
Martin, ’85 S.

Lawrenceville School. Biology course; president of Sheff Debating Club Senior year; member Graduating Committee.

Employed in Buffalo office of New York Central Car Wheel Company and assistant manager of Boston office 1898–99; president of Boise City Irrigation Company, Boise, Idaho, 1899–1905 and of Kensington Investment Company of Buffalo 1899–1908; director of Third National Bank of Buffalo 1898–1907; vice-president of American Savings Bank of Buffalo 1907–1916 and president since 1916, director and vice-president of Fidelity Trust Company 1905–
08, president of Wolfe Machine Company of Buffalo 1903–04; in 1915 opened a ground school of aviation in Buffalo; organized the first air squadron in the United States, the 2d Aero Company, Signal Corps, New York National Guard, and served as its Captain from January, 1916, to September 22, 1917; commissioned Captain, Air Service, in August, 1917; went overseas October 30, 1917; assigned to Air Service Headquarters as chief of Airplane and Motor Division and on April 30, 1918, as assistant chief of supply for Air Service in France; promoted Major August 14, 1918; in Toul and Château-Thierry sectors during active operations; with Army of Occupation in vicinity of Le Mans; returned to this country February 2, 1919, and received his discharge February 6; in charge of designing and construction of Buffalo municipal airport 1925–26; president of Yale Alumni Association of Western New York 1922–24 and one of its representatives on Alumni Board since 1924 (member of executive committee of the Board 1924–27) and chairman of committee on open meeting of the Board 1924; president of Buffalo Boy Scout council 1915–16; member Yale Engineering Association and Trinity Episcopal Church, Buffalo.

Married November 20, 1900, in Boston, Rachel, daughter of James Phillips, Jr., and Elizabeth (Bartlett) Phillips. Children: Elaine, the wife of C. Beckwith Cook, '18; and John Phillips, '28.

Death due to cholecystitis and duodenal ulcer. Cremation took place and ashes were buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Buffalo. Survived by wife, daughter, son, mother, and a sister, Mrs. Somerset Saunderson, of Newbury, Berks, England.

Howard Edward Boardman, Ph.B. 1899.

Born March 17, 1879, in Meriden, Conn.
Died February 28, 1932, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Edward Allen Boardman, a merchant; son of Albert and Mary (Rice) Boardman, of Westfield Society, Middletown, Conn. Mother, Lucy Ellen (Savage) Boardman; daughter of Edwin and Frances Sophia (Wilcox) Savage, of Berlin, Conn. First cousin: Albert W. Savage, '10 S.

Meriden High School. Civil engineering course; two-year honors Senior year.

Draftsman with Delaware & Atlantic Railroad in Philadelphia October, 1899–January, 1900; rodman with the Pennsylvania Railroad on work in central Pennsylvania March and April, 1900, assistant on engineering corps in general maintenance work and in charge of construction of large freight yard near Conway, Pa., 1900–02, senior assistant engineer on construction of tunnel under North River to Pennsylvania Station in New York City 1902–09; assistant engineer in maintenance of way department and division engineer of Missouri Pacific Railroad, with headquarters in St. Louis, 1909–
1912, chief assistant engineer and chief engineer in charge of construction of underground passenger station and four miles of electrified railway tunnels under city of Buenos Aires, Argentina, 1912-16; engineering assistant to general valuation counsel of New York Central Lines in New York City 1916-1922; president and treasurer of Foster, Merriam & Company of Meriden and its successor, Meriden Foster Merriam Company, 1922-26; engaged independently in his profession in Meriden 1926 and 1927; sales manager in charge of sales engineering of Divine Brothers, Utica, N. Y., 1927-28; manager of research and assistant to the president of National Industrial Conference Board in New York City 1928-29; construction engineer of Boston & Maine Railroad 1929-1931; independent consulting engineer in Winchester, Mass., May–July, 1931; first Dudley professor of railroad engineering at Yale from July 1, 1931; appointed member of Committee on Transportation for term of three years beginning July 1, 1931; honorary M.A. Yale 1931; member American Society of Civil Engineers, American Railway Engineering Association, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Connecticut Society of Civil Engineers, Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, and Church of the Redeemer (Congregational), New Haven.

Married September 24, 1903, in Pittsburgh, Enna Maude, daughter of John and Emma (Sheil) Jenkins. Children: Edward Thorpe (B S University of Florida 1928 and M.S. 1929) and Howard Foster.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Walnut Grove Cemetery, Meriden. Survived by wife and sons.

Clifford Langley, Ph.B. 1899.

Born March 16, 1877, in New Haven, Conn.
Died April 22, 1932, in New York City.

Father, Seth Walker Langley, a master shipbuilder, member New Haven Board of Aldermen; son of Orlando and Harriet (Walker) Langley, of Lee, N. H. Mother, Sarah (Newbegin) Langley; daughter of Jonathan and Betsey (Hamilton) Newbegin, of Parsonsfield, Maine Hillhouse High School. Chemistry course; received Senior appointment.

Engaged in research work in chemistry in laboratory of Professor Bertram B. Boltwood, '92 S., at Yale and at the Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station in New Haven 1899–1900; chemist with Huyler's, New York City, 1900–01 and chief chemist and general manager 1901–1917; organized brokerage firm of Noel, Berman & Langley, members of the New York Stock Exchange (Pemberton
Seth Edward Thomas, Jr., Ph.B. 1899.

Born July 2, 1876, in New York City.
Died June 7, 1932, in Jersey City, N. J.

Father, Seth Edward Thomas; treasurer of Seth Thomas Clock Company of New York; founder and director of Thomaston (Conn.) National Bank; son of Seth and Charlotte (Day) Thomas, of Thomaston. Mother, Sarah Adelia (Gross) Thomas; daughter of Mason and Cornelia (Barnard) Gross, of Hartford, Conn. Yale relatives: Charles E. Gross, '69 (uncle); and Charles Welles Gross, '98 (first cousin).

Cutler School, New York City. Select course; member Class Cup Committee and St. Elmo and Delta Phi.

Clerk in New York office of Seth Thomas Clock Company 1899-1901; director, secretary, and assistant treasurer of the company 1901-05, managing director, secretary, and assistant treasurer 1905-1910, treasurer 1910-15, and president since 1915; vice-president of Spingler VanBeuren Estates since 1926; chairman of board of directors of General Time Instruments Corporation since 1930; director of First National Bank of Morristown, N. J., since 1920; director of New York Association for the Blind since 1912 and secretary since 1929; president of Morristown Memorial Hospital 1922-29 and director since 1918; on board of managers of New Jersey Reformatory, Annandale, since 1929; an alderman of Morristown 1921-22; chairman of Harding Township Board 1925-27; co-founder of Morris County Fair Association in 1920 and vice-president until 1928; founder of Morris County Farm Service Exchange 1917, president 1918-1931, and vice-president 1932; member of Morris County Council, Board of Agriculture, 1917-19, of Morris County Republican Committee since 1926; and of Morris County Food Administration 1917-19; member Squadron A, Cavalry, New York National Guard, 1899-1910, New Jersey Militia Reserve, and Yale Engineering Association.
Married February 20, 1908, in New York City, Josephine Frednka VanBeuren, daughter of James Banks Reynolds (M.D. Columbia 1856) and Emily Augusta (VanBeuren) Reynolds. Two daughters, Emily Augusta VanBeuren; and Josephine Frednka (Mrs. Manning Jacob).

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Cremation took place in Linden, N. J. Survived by wife, two daughters, and six sisters, the Misses Mary E. and Grace I. Thomas and Mrs. Arthur T. Day, all of New York City, Charlotte Thomas Wiley, the wife of Bradford Wiley (New York University 1904-05), of Stamford, Conn., Sarah Thomas Paxton, the wife of William M. Paxton, Jr (B.A. Princeton 1889), and Cornelia Thomas Hamlin, the wife of Arthur S. Hamlin, '99

William David Brennan, Ph.B. 1900.

Born October 29, 1877, in Malone, N. Y.
Died November 1, 1931, in Denver, Colo.

Father, William David Brennan (B.A. Middlebury 1866), a lawyer; member of firm of Brennan & Beaman; representative in New York Legislature; son of William David and Miriam (Richardson) Brennan, of Gloucester and Ottawa, Canada. Mother, Laura Cornelina (Smith) Brennan, Vassar ex-'74; daughter of Elisha Boardman and Mary Lucinda (Miner) Smith, of Chateaugay, N. Y.

St. Paul (Minn.) High School; attended University of Minnesota 1896-97 as member of Class of 1900. Civil engineering course; member University Track Team two years; secretary and treasurer of Class Senior year.

Connected with sewerage department of Boston Street Department six months in 1900; mining engineer with Union Pacific Coal Company at Cumberland, Spring Valley, and Rock Springs, Wyo., 1901-06; with Superior Coal Company at Superior, Wyo., as mining engineer 1906-08 and superintendent 1908-1912; general manager of Union Pacific Coal Company at Cheyenne, Wyo., 1912-1920; manager of Stag Cañon branch of Phelps Dodge Corporation at Dawson, N Mex., 1920-1930; president of Utah Fuel Company and Utah Coal Producers Association at Salt Lake City since 1930; during the war member of Wyoming State Labor Board and supervisor of Red Cross and Liberty Loan drives in mining camps at Rock Springs, Superior, Cumberland, and Hanna, Wyo.; contributed to Coal Age and Mining Congress Journal; president of Utah Coal Producers Association 1930 and 1931; member American Mining Congress, Colorado and New Mexico Coal Operators Association, and Dayton Avenue Presbyterian Church, St. Paul.
Married July 3, 1905, in Mansfield, Ohio, Blanche McCoy, Ohio Wesleyan ex-'00, daughter of Ira and Bertha (Condon) McCoy. One daughter, Elizabeth Laura, a member of the University of California Class of 1934.

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Memorial Mausoleum, Salt Lake City. Survived by wife and daughter.

Jasper Morgan Rowland, Ph.B. 1900.

Born December 24, 1879, in New York City.

Died April 6, 1932, at Niagara Falls, N. Y.

Father, George Rowland, a banker and broker; president of Batopilas Mining Corporation of Mexico; served in Civil War; son of Rev. James Edwards Rowland, M.D., and Catharine Avery (Morgan) Rowland, of Windsor, Conn. Mother, Maria Townsend (Durfee) Rowland; daughter of Philo and Mary Warner (White) Durfee, of Buffalo and Brooklyn, N. Y., and Stamford, Conn. Yale relatives include: Rev. David S. Rowland (B A. 1743) and Moses Bliss (B.A. 1755) (great-great-grandfathers); Rev. William F. Rowland (honorary M.A. 1787) (great-great-uncle); Rev. Henry A. Rowland (B.A. 1823) and William S. Rowland (B.A. 1836) (great-uncles); and Henry C. Rowland, Jr., ’34 S. (nephew).

King’s School, Stamford, and Phillips-Andover. Civil engineering course. Enlisted in 1st Naval Battalion, New York Naval Militia, May 2, 1898, as Seaman and assigned to U. S. S. “Yankee”; took part in engagements at Santiago, Guantanamo Bay, Cienfuegos, and Casselda; received discharge September 2, 1898.

Naval architect with Eastern Shipbuilding Company, New London, Conn., and with Tams, LeMoine & Crane, New York City, 1900-03; engineer with Bay Cities Water Company, California, 1903-05; assistant engineer with Development & Funding Company, of Niagara Falls and New York City 1905-09 and of its successor, the Hooker Electrochemical Company, 1909-1915 and chief engineer of latter company since 1915; member American Institute of Chemical Engineers, American Chemical Society, New York State Society of Professional Engineers, Chemists Club, and St. Peter’s Episcopal Church, Niagara Falls.

Married June 2, 1909, in Lawrence, Mass., Nan Gage, daughter of William Henry and Emily Ingham (Gage) Jaquith. Children: Jasper Morgan, Jr., ex-'34; William Jaquith; and George, 2d.

Death due to general peritonitis (streptococci infection), following an operation for appendicitis. Buried in Riverdale Cemetery, Niagara Falls. Survived by wife, three sons, father, two brothers, Henry C. Rowland, '98 M., and John T. Rowland, '11, and two sisters, Katherine R. Lauder, the widow of George Lauder, Jr., '00 S, and Mary R. Ewing, the wife of Frederic Ewing, '06 S.

Frank Pell Underhill, Ph.B. 1900.

Born December 21, 1877, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died June 28, 1932, in New Haven, Conn.

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.

Gratz Dent, Ph.B. 1902.

Born September 24, 1882, in Savannah, Ga.
Died June 11, 1932, in Savannah, Ga.

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.

Wilhelmus Mynderse Stillman, Ph.B. 1902.

Born February 5, 1878, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died January 18, 1932, in San Francisco, Calif.

Father, Alfred Stillman, Williams ex-'71; secretary of the board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, son of Alfred and Elizabeth (Greenough) Stillman, of New York. Mother, Anna (Hewitt) Stillman; daughter of Isaac Lathrope and Ann (Lake) Hewitt, of Cleveland and Brooklyn. First cousins: Philip T. Stillman, '95 S, George S. Stillman, '01, Walter N. Stillman, '05, and J. Frederick Stillman, '15.

Belmont (Calif.) School Civil engineering course; member Bicentennial Decoration Committee, Renaissance Club, and St. Anthony and Delta Psi.

In the employ of the Southern Pacific Railroad from 1902 until death, with exception of time spent in service; axeman, chainman, levelman, and officeman 1902-04; student in the Southern Pacific course in railroading 1904-08; trainmaster of Shasta Division at Dunsmuir, Calif., 1908-1911; assistant superintendent of Stockton Division 1911-18 and 1919-1921; and assistant superintendent of Sacramento Division since 1921; commissioned Captain of Engineers, Officers' Reserve Corps, May 26, 1918; served with 31st Engineers (31st Company, Transportation Corps); stationed at Camp Merritt, N. J., Camp Devens, Mass., and Washington, D. C.; overseas June 28, 1918–June 7, 1919; received discharge June 11; affiliated with Episcopal Church.

Married October 16, 1913, in Stockton, Marie Reeves, daughter of Thomas and Nancy (Parker) Cabney. Children: Alfred, 3d, Dixwell Hewitt, and Mary Patricia.

Death due to an ulcer of the stomach, with contributory causes. Buried in Cypress Lawn Cemetery, Sacramento. Survived by wife, three children, a brother, Edgar Stillman (B.A. Stanford 1907; M.D. Johns Hopkins 1911), of New York City, and a sister, Ann Stillman Waldron, the wife of Richard Waldron (University of California 1899–1900), of Los Angeles.

Charles Rowland Bostwick, Ph.B. 1903.

Born November 12, 1880, in New Haven, Conn.
Died May 5, 1932, in New York City.

Father, Frederick Bostwick; librarian and curator of New Haven Colony Historical Society; assistant editor of Connecticut Genealogy; son of Frederick Levi and Elizabeth Jones (Rowland) Bostwick, of New Haven. Mother, Ida May (Boone) Bostwick, daughter of Jacob Swisher and Mary Ann (Cox) Boone, of New Haven. Yale relatives include: Thomas Fitch (B.A. 1721) (great-great-great-great-grandfather); Andrew Rowland (B.A. 1757) and Ebenezer Parmele (B.A. 1758) (great-great-great-grandfathers); Samuel Rowland (honorary M.A. 1809) (great-great-grandfather); and Thomas A. Bostwick, ex-'78 Special S. (uncle) Hillhouse High School and Booth's Preparatory School, New Haven. Select course; member Gymnasium Team two years.

Instructor in physical and manual training at State Normal School, Brockport, N. Y., 1903-06; supervisor of practical arts and manual training in Plainfield (N. J.) public schools 1906–1915; principal of industrial departments of Kamehameha Schools, Honolulu, 1915–18; welfare manager and assistant in employment of Geometric Tool Company, New Haven, 1920–21; had since been principal and manager of Conrad Poppenhusen Association (Poppenhusen Institute) at College Point, N. Y.; trustee of College Point Savings Bank since 1928; M.A. and Teachers College diploma Columbia 1925; enlisted in National Guard of Hawaii November 16, 1915; commissioned Captain in same November 20, 1915; promoted to Major February 1, 1918; in civilian employ, office of Surgeon General, and chief of technical work, Reconstruction Division, U.S.A. General Hospital 16, Allingtown, New Haven, August 13–November 5, 1918; commissioned First Lieutenant, Sanitary Corps, November 5, chief of technical work, U. S. A. General Hospital, Fort Bayard, N. Mex.; received discharge July 19, 1919; commissioned Captain, Quartermaster Reserve Corps, May 7, 1924, and Major January 19, 1932; member Queensboro Chamber of Commerce since 1922 (member of its school committee 1923–1930 and chairman 1926 and 1927); on board of managers of Fort Totten branch of Brooklyn and Queens Y.M C A. 1928–1930; member Oscar Amman Post of American Legion; deacon of First Reformed Church of America, College Point, since 1923 and treasurer of church since April, 1931.
Tale Obituary Record

Winthrop Alexander Clark, Ph.B. 1903.

Born February 21, 1881, in Cincinnati, Ohio.
Died February 6, 1932, in Stamford, Conn.

Father, Alexander Clark, a hardware merchant; partner in firm of Clark, Widdefield & Company; served in Civil War; son of James and Nancy (Dickson) Clark, of Lansingburg, N. Y. Mother, Margaret Hyndman (Adams) Clark; daughter of John Hyndman and Mary Anna (McClary) Adams, of Wilmington, Del.

Franklin School, Cincinnati, and King’s School, Stamford. Mechanical engineering course; vice-commander of Yale Corinthian Yacht Club, member Vernon Hall and Phi Gamma Delta.

With Norton & Townsend, architects, New Haven, 1903–05; associated with William A. Lilley, '03 S., in the organization and incorporation of Remington Oil Engine Company of Stamford in 1905 and served as a director of the company until 1917, and also as superintendent until about 1911 and later as vice-president and general manager; oil engineer with Stoughton Process Corporation of New York City 1918–1920; sanitary engineer with American Sanitary Products Company of Stamford 1920–22; then returned to Remington Oil Engine Company as president until retirement in 1924; member Park Commission of Stamford 1927; Lieutenant Commander of U. S. Power Squadron (Stamford base) 1928–1932; commodore of Halloween Yacht Club from its organization until his death; member Stamford Council, Boy Scouts of America and chairman seascout ship committee No. 30 since 1929; member St John’s Episcopal Church, Stamford.

Charles Kittredge Crane, Ph.B. 1903.

Born August 28, 1881, in Dalton, Mass.
Died January 24, 1932, in Pasadena, Calif

Father, Zenas Crane, a paper manufacturer; founder and member of firm of Z. & W. M. Crane and member of firm of Crane & Company; donor and founder of Berkshire Museum of Natural History and Art at Pittsfield; son of Zenas Marshall and Caroline E. (Laflin) Crane, of Dalton. Mother, Ellen Judith (Kittredge) Crane; daughter of Charles James and Frances (Birchard) Kittredge, of Hinsdale, Mass. Yale relatives include: James D. Colt, 2d, ex-’27 (nephew); and Winthrop M. Crane, Jr., ’04, Charles J. Kittredge, ’15 S., and Bruce Crane, ’31 (first cousins).

The Hill School. Mechanical engineering course; member Cap and Gown Committee, The Cloister and Book and Snake.

Active in the management of Z. & W. M. Crane 1903–1911, with exception of a few months in 1906 spent in surveying for Oliver Iron Mining Company on Mesaba Iron Range of Minnesota; director of Pittsfield National Bank and Dalton Y. M. C. A.; made his home in England 1912–1924; assistant honorary secretary of Lord Knutsford’s special hospitals in London for officers suffering from shell shock (engaged in organizing and administering the hospitals) 1914–17; apprentice in Darracq automobile factory (aeroplanes and aviation engines), France, 1917–18; assistant to Morton Prince, M.D., in managing Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors Welfare Bureau, Paris, 1918–19; actively interested in management of West London Mission (a boys' club); had lived in California since 1924; in 1926 his attention was turned to the international phase of narcotics and its problems in relation to the world traffic and conditions pertaining to it, and since then had devoted virtually his entire time to the subject; author of Crane plan for international control of narcotics and recognized American authority on the problem; adoption by the international conference at Geneva in 1930 of a convention providing for effective limitation of the manufacture of narcotic drugs considered to have been due in great part to his work; his pamphlet, entitled International Drug Control, Existing Methods and Proposed Solutions, published by Foreign Policy Association of New York 1927; had contributed to Current History and Independent; member First Congregational Church, Dalton.

Married June 11, 1914, in London, Margaret Diana, daughter of George James and Harriette (MacQueen) Wilson, of Kinneal, Lanarkshire, Scotland. An adopted son, Peter. Mr. and Mrs. Crane were divorced in 1926.

Death due to arteriosclerosis and coronary thrombosis. Buried in Dalton. Survived by mother, a brother, Z. Marshall Crane, '00, and a sister, Frances C. Colt, the wife of Samuel G. Colt, '94 S.

Warren Gray Higgins, Ph.B. 1903.

Born July 4, 1881, in Columbus, Ohio.
Died May 12, 1932, in Findlay, Ohio.

Father, Charles Carroll Higgins, a wholesale grocer; president of Charles C Higgins Company of Columbus; son of Martin Luther and Sarah (Gray) Higgins, of St. Louis, Mo. Mother, Anna Belle (Creighton) Higgins; daughter of David Meade and Isabella (Grover) Creighton, of Columbus.

Lawrenceville School. Select course; member York Hall and Chi Phi.

With a Government forestry corps in Maine during July and August, 1903; vice-president of Charles C. Higgins Company of Columbus 1904–1921 and manager of its Findlay branch from 1913; in investment securities business under own name in Findlay 1921–22, salesman for V. C. Taylor & Son, real estate dealers, in Cleveland 1922–27; sales agent for Lorraine Corporation of Chicago, manufacturers of automobile lights, 1928; subsequently engaged independently in business in Findlay.

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Maple Grove Cemetery, Findlay. Survived by wife, sons, parents, and a brother, Grover Higgins, '06.

Arthur Edwin Hodgson, Ph.B. 1903.

Born September 21, 1882, in New Haven, Conn.
Died December 24, 1931, in New Haven, Conn.

Studied in Yale School of Medicine 1903-04 (member Delta Epsilon Iota); statistician in collecting data for the Government manufacturers' census, and manager of Lowe's Drug Store, Woodmont, Conn., summer of 1905; clerk in treasurer's office of New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company in New Haven 1905-09; teller in New Haven Savings Bank 1909–1915; connected with Winchester Repeating Arms Company since 1917; assistant cashier and chief paymaster 1917–19, assistant treasurer since 1919 and secretary since 1929; assistant treasurer of Winchester Company since 1919, Winchester-Simmons Company (now The Mercantile Securities Corporation), since 1922, and of Associated Simmons Hardware Companies and Simmons Hardware Company 1922–29; manager of Whirldry Corporation 1927–29; member United Church (Congregational), New Haven.

Took his own life. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife and stepmother.
Tale Obituary Record

Howard Brewer Allen, Ph.B. 1904.

Born March 22, 1883, in Enfield, Conn.
Died April 2, 1932, in Jefferson City, Mo.

Father, Francis Bancroft Allen, a tobacco grower; son of Horace Bolivar and Mary Ann (Bancroft) Allen, of Enfield. Mother, Laura Lucretia (Brewer) Allen; daughter of Henry Bridgman and Mary Ann (Butchers) Brewer, of Wilbraham, Mass.

Enfield High School Electrical engineering course.

Engineer with New York Telephone Company 1904-07; engaged in real estate and insurance business in Enfield 1907-09; bookkeeper and collector for Allen Investment Company (real estate) in Kansas City, Mo., 1909-1914; bookkeeper for Chicago Conservatory of Music 1914; actuary with Nebraska Inspection Bureau (fire insurance) at Omaha 1914-15; state inspector for Indiana Inspection Bureau in Indianapolis 1915-19, special agent for Northern Insurance Company of New York at Indianapolis 1919, and for American Insurance Company in St. Louis 1919-1920, had since been chief rater for Missouri State Insurance Department at Jefferson City; attended Presbyterian Church, Jefferson City.

Married June 5, 1915, at Fort Dodge, Iowa, Emelme Beatrice, daughter of Ivory Pope and Eliza Ann (Masterman) Hatch, of Stillwater, Minn. No children.

Death due to myocarditis and diabetes. Buried in Mount Washington Cemetery, Kansas City, Mo. Survived by wife and father.

George Orton Elmore, Ph.B. 1904.

Born December 12, 1881, in Litchfield, Conn.
Died February 8, 1932, in Orange, N. J.

Father, George Sheldon Elmore; partner in firm of Granniss & Elmore (general merchandise); son of George W. and Julia (Johnston) Elmore, of Winchester, Conn. Mother, Nellie Rebecca (Peck) Elmore; daughter of Charles Judd and Julia Angeline (Bradley) Peck, of Litchfield.

Litchfield and Torrington (Conn.) high schools. Chemistry course; member Book and Bond.

In employ of Cuban-American Sugar Company in Cuba, Porto Rico, and Louisiana 1904-1912, served as third assistant chemist at Central Nueva Luisa (sugar mill), Jovellanos, Cuba, 1904-05; chemist at the refinery in Cardenas, Cuba, January-October, 1906, and September-November, 1907; chief chemist at Central Nueva
Luisa December, 1906–June, 1907; assistant superintendent at Nueva Luisa November, 1907–May, 1908, at Cardenas May–September, 1908, and at factory and refinery in Gramercy, La., September–November, 1908; superintendent of the mill at Nueva Luisa November, 1908–July, 1909, and November, 1909–May, 1910; assistant to the superintendent at Gramercy July–September, 1909; in charge of refinery at Cardenas September–November, 1909; superintendent of Central Nueva Luisa 1910–11; in Central Quirre, Porto Rico, 1911–12; since 1913 had been connected with Smith & Nichols, Inc., manufacturers and importers of waxes, oils, grease, and candles, in New York City; treasurer and a director of the company 1913–18, vice-president 1918–1924, and president since 1924; president of Wax Importers’ Association about three years; member of board of governors of Rock Spring Country Club of West Orange; member executive committee of Yale Alumni Association of Essex County, N. J., since 1923 and president 1927–29; member First Congregational Church, Litchfield.

Married June 15, 1910, in Orange, Amy Higbie, daughter of Higbie and Erina Shufeldt (Pickering) Smith. Children: George Orton, Jr., and Wilson Shufeldt, both 1935; and Ellen Pickering.

Death due to cerebral apoplexy and arteriosclerosis. Buried in East Cemetery, Litchfield. Survived by wife, sons, daughter, mother, and a brother, Paul B. Elmore, ’07.

Edward Hall Putnam, Ph.B. 1904.

Born March 18, 1882, in Metuchen, N. J.
Died July 2, 1931, in Noroton, Conn.

Father, George Palmer Putnam; treasurer of Atlantic Terra Cotta Company; son of James Osborne Putnam (B.A. 1839, honorary M.A. 1865) and Harriet (Palmer) Putnam, of Buffalo, N. Y. Mother, Agnes Adelia (Hall) Putnam; daughter of Julius and Mary (Hoey) Hall, of Buffalo. Yale relatives include: Rev. Avery Hall (B.A. 1759) (great-great-great-great-uncle); Edward J. Hall, ’73 S. (uncle), and his son, Edward B. Hall, ’06 S.; William C. Hall, ’75 S. (uncle), and his son, William C. Hall, ’04; Sherman R. Hall, ’95 S. (uncle), and his sons, Sherman R. Hall, Jr., ’24 S., and Francis L. Hall, ex-’30 S.; and three other first cousins, John G. Putnam, ’16, Gilbert Colgate, Jr., ’22, and Robert B. Colgate, ’24.

The Hill School and Phillips-Exeter. Biology course; an editor of Yale Record, Yale Courant, and the 1904 Class Book; a Class Day historian and Class Book historian; Class deacon; member of Swimming Team Senior year and St. Anthony and Delta Psi.
With Harper & Brother 1904-05; rodman with American Telephone & Telegraph Company in New Jersey and Pennsylvania 1905; with drafting department of Perth Amboy (N. J.) Terra Cotta (later Atlantic Terra Cotta) Company 1905-08 and at their factory in Atlanta, Ga., 1908-09; spent year 1909-1910 on Marshall Brook Fruit Farm, Hood River, Ore., on account of his health; publicity manager of Atlantic Terra Cotta Company 1910-16 and again from 1921 until retirement in 1930; with advertising department of Scovill Manufacturing Company, Waterbury, Conn., 1917-18; with Wales Advertising Company in New York 1919-1921; member Machine Gun Troop, Squadron A, New York Cavalry, 1912-17; served on Mexican border six months in 1916; attended Plattsburg Camp 1917; author: Watty & Company (book for boys) (1920); contributed verse to Harper's Monthly; member Ex-Members Association, Squadron A; contributing member Brick Presbyterian Church, New York City.

Married August 16, 1917, in New York City, Edith Caldwell, daughter of Caldwell Robertson and Sarah Fletcher (Vosburgh) Blakeman. No children.

Gordon Ferguson Macbeth, Ph.B. 1905.

Born June 16, 1883, in London, Ontario, Canada
Died December 27, 1931, in Denver, Colo.

Father, John Sanders Macbeth (Helmut College 1873), a lawyer, a founder of Crystal Salt Company of Denver; son of George and Anne Gilbert (Sanders) Macbeth, of London, Ontario. Mother, Elsie (Ferguson) Macbeth; daughter of Peter and Andalusia (Perry) Ferguson, of Hamilton, Ontario.

Holbrook's Military Academy, Ossining, N. Y. Mechanical engineering course.

Student at Colorado School of Mines 1905-08; with Colorado & Southern Railway Company in Denver 1908-09; clerk in Colorado National Bank, Denver, 1909-1913; treasurer of McNeil Coal Corporation 1915-1928; general manager of Crystal Salt Company, Denver, since May, 1929.

Unmarried.

Sheffield Scientific School

William Leroy Ulrich, Ph.B. 1906.

Born December 4, 1885, in Buffalo, N. Y.
Died May 27, 1932, in Hartford, Conn.

Hartford Public High School. Civil engineering course; honors in physics and chemistry, divided general honors, and received honorable mention in English Freshman year; general honors and honors in Spanish Junior year; general two-year honors and honorable mention in civil engineering Senior year; William R. Belknap prize in geological studies; member Alpha Chi Rho and Sigma Xi.

Death due to cardiac disease, with contributory causes. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by wife, children, and parents.

Charles Talbot Porter, Ph.B. 1907.

Born November 13, 1885, in Montclair, N J.
Died January 22, 1932, in Torresdale, Pa

Father, John Porter, '76; son of Charles Talbot Porter (B.A. Hamilton 1845) and Harriet (Morgan) Porter, of New York City. Mother, Elizabeth Keeler (Baker) Porter; daughter of William Montclair High School. Mechanical engineering course; general honors each year; vice-president of Sheff Debating Society; chairman of Class Day Historians’ Committee; member Class Day Committee, Y M. C. A. Executive Committee, and Sigma Xi.

Professor of civil engineering at Imperial Polytechnic College, Shanghai, 1907-1910; took graduate work at Columbia 1910-11; instructor in mechanical engineering at Yale 1911-18; M.E. 1913; aeronautical engineer at Naval Aircraft Factory, Philadelphia, 1918-1920; an incorporator of Huff, Daland & Company, manufacturers of aircraft, at Ogdensburg, N. Y. (developed experimental airplane types for United States Government), 1920; treasurer of the company 1920-21, secretary and director 1920-26, and chief engineer 1922-26; vice-president, chief engineer, and director of Keystone Aircraft Corporation of Bristol, Pa., 1926-1931; an authority in design and construction of bombardment airplanes; member of aeronautical standards committee of aircraft division of Society of Automotive Engineers 1930-31; co-author (with Professor Percye F Smith, ’88 S.): Notes on Engineering Mechanics (1917); contributed to Journal of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers and Aviation and the section on applied mechanics in Arthur F. Taggart’s Handbook on Ore Dressing (1927); member American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Society for the Promotion of Engineering Education, and All Saints Episcopal Church, Torresdale.

Sheffield Scientific School

Frank Armstrong Boder, Ph.B. 1908.

Born January 24, 1887, in Anthony, Kans.
Died September 16, 1931, in St. Joseph, Mo.

Father, Louis Boder, a banker; organizer of banks in Troy and Anthony, Kans.; president of Merchants Bank, St. Joseph; son of Henry and Louisa (Mattoit) Boder, of St. Joseph. Mother, Fannie (Quimby) Boder; daughter of John Bartlett and Sarah Eliza (Le- land) Quimby, of Prairie du Sac, Wis.

St. Joseph Central High School. Select course; member Phi Gamma Delta.

Bookkeeper and teller with Merchants Bank, St. Joseph, 1908-1912; receiving and paying teller of First National Bank, St. Joseph, 1912-16; in 1916 assisted in organizing Morris Plan Bank of St. Joseph and was its treasurer and manager until 1918; president of Missouri Valley Trust Company of St. Joseph since 1919; enlisted as Private March 4, 1918; attended Ordnance School at University of Chicago to April 29; then member of Company C, Supply School, Ordnance Training Camp, Camp Hancock, Ga, until June 21; member Company A, Ordnance Machine Gun School, 3d Regiment, at Camp Hancock June 21-September 13, 1918, commissioned as Second Lieutenant of Ordnance September 14, 1918; stationed at Philadelphia and Washington until given his discharge December 10, 1918; president of St. Joseph Automobile Club 1915 (also a director); member St. Joseph Chamber of Commerce and Macdonald-Dugger-Duncan Post of American Legion.

Unmarried.

Carleton Strong Cairoli, Ph.B. 1908.

Born February 12, 1886, in Milford, Conn.
Died June 14, 1932, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, John Stephen Cairoli (D.D.S. Baltimore College of Dental Surgery 1878), a dentist in Milford; member of Milford Board of Education; served in Civil War, son of Lazarus Antonio and Mary Ann (Walker) Cairoli, of Philadelphia. Mother, Susan Maria (Strong) Cairoli; daughter of John Prudden and Susan Maria (Hine) Strong, of Orange, Conn.

Milford High School and Hopkins Grammar School. Mechanical engineering course.
With B. & R. Rubber Company of North Brookfield, Mass., 1908-09, and became foreman of a department; with Yale & Towne Manufacturing Company of Stamford, Conn., 1909-1915, as draftsman in tool and machine department 1909-1910, in the apprentice department 1910-12, and then mechanical engineer in chain hoist department, engineer with Remington Arms-Union Metallic Cartridge Company of Bridgeport; maintenance engineer with National Conduit & Cable Company of Bridgeport 1918-1923; maintenance and construction engineer (heating and ventilating) with Western Electric Company of New York City since 1924, member American Society of Mechanical Engineers and Dutch Reformed Church of Nyack, N. Y.

Married October 16, 1920, in Upper Nyack, Florence Natalie, daughter of John George Maeder (M.D. New York Homeopathic Medical College and Flower Hospital 1885) and Lydia (Bossert) Maeder. Children: Emily Maeder and Myrtis Strong.

Death due to a brain tumor. Buried in Milford Cemetery. Survived by wife, two daughters, mother, a brother, George W. Cairoli (D.D.S. University of Pennsylvania 1902), of Bridgeport, and two sisters, Mrs. Clifford E. Smith and Mrs. Harry C. Usher, both of New Haven.

Donald York Hill, Ph.B. 1908.

Born July 18, 1888, in Cincinnati, Ohio.
Died July 14, 1931, in New York City.

Father, Alfred Hill (L.L.B. University of Cincinnati 1883); member of law firm of Page & Hill, Cincinnati, and later of investment brokerage firm of Alfred Hill & Company, members of New York Stock Exchange; son of Alfred and Martha Jane (Wainwright) Hill, of Cincinnati. Mother, Madge (Martin) Hill, daughter of Henry and Isabel (Stewart) Martin, of the north of Ireland.

Franklin School, Cincinnati. Select course.

Spent the year 1908-09 in travel and in prospecting for oil near Tulsa, Okla., and in Kentucky; general manager of U. S. Motor Truck Company in Cincinnati 1909-1912; connected with firm of Alfred Hill & Company since 1912; customers man to 1917 and since then member of the firm (senior member since 1918); enlisted September 3, 1918; assigned to 35th Company, 9th Battalion, 159th Depot Brigade, at Camp Sheridan; promoted First Sergeant, Infantry, October 1, 1918; received discharge December 4, 1918, member Mount Auburn Presbyterian Church, Cincinnati.

Married November 5, 1918, in Cincinnati, Marie, daughter of William Foster and Elizabeth (Weaver) Foster (Hillsdale, Mich., College ex-'77), of Cleveland. No children.

Death due to basal meningitis. Buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati. Survived by wife, father, and four brothers, Norman S. Hill, Miami ex-'12, Kenneth P. Hill, Douglas W. Hill, ex-'18 S., and Alfred R. Hill, Ohio State University, all of Cincinnati.

Elihu Elias Dickerman, Ph.B. 1909.

Born November 18, 1887, in New Haven, Conn.
Died June 20, 1932, in North Haven, Conn.

Father, William Elihu Dickerman, secretary and treasurer of Morgan & Humiston Company (sash and door merchants) of New Haven; representative in Connecticut Legislature; son of Elihu Justus and Grace Angeline (Blakeslee) Dickerman, of North Haven. Mother, Lillian (Snow) Dickerman; daughter of Albert Rodolphus and Huldah Maria (Warner) Snow, of Hamden, Conn.

Transitman in maintenance of way department of Cincinnati Division of Pennsylvania Railroad July–September, 1909; with The Travelers Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn., 1909–1911, at first in Hartford, then as cashier of Rochester (N Y) branch 1910–11, and as cashier in Cincinnati office 1911; assistant to U. S. manager of personal accident department of General Accident Assurance Corporation of Perth, Scotland, at Philadelphia January–March, 1912, and then in New York City to 1913; explainer of new Workmen's Compensation Law in New Haven 1913; actively connected with Morgan & Humiston Company from 1913 until retirement January 1, 1931; secretary and treasurer of company to 1927 and then president (continued as a director until death); member Connecticut State Guard 1917–19, as Corporal in Company M and later as Sergeant and First Sergeant of the Engineer Company; member board of control of Exchange Club of New Haven 1923–24; in 1930 elected member of board of governors of Yale Publishing Association; acting secretary of Class of 1909 S. 1919–1924 and secretary since 1924; member Alumni Board's standing committee on reunions 1929–1930; member Sons of the American Revolution and North Haven Congregational Church.

Unmarried.

Death due to chronic myeloid leukemia, following an illness of over a year. Buried in Center Cemetery, North Haven. Survived by mother and a sister, Miss Grace L. Dickerman, of North Haven.
Horace Albert Newbury, Ph.B. 1909.

Born March 7, 1887, in New London, Conn.
Died February 4, 1932, in Ledyard, Conn.

Father, Albert Christopher Newbury, a contractor and real estate dealer, son of Abner Buell and Sarah (Dunbar) Newbury, of New London, Conn. Mother, Mary (Paynter) Newbury; daughter of Richard and Barbara (Campbell) Paynter, of New London, Canada.

Bulkeley High School, New London. Mining engineering course; president of mining engineers' Baseball Team.

Death due to bronchopneumonia. Buried in Jordan Cemetery, New London. Survived by wife, parents, and a brother, Frank C. Newbury, of Gales Ferry, Conn.

Walter William Cheney, Jr., Ph.B. 1910.

Born December 2, 1887, in Manlius, N. Y.
Died November 28, 1931, in Manlius, N. Y.

Father, Walter William Cheney; president of S. Cheney & Son (grey iron foundries) and of Manlius Improvement Company; trustee and president of Manlius Village and supervisor of the Town; state senator; son of Stephen and Mary Melissa (Pierce) Cheney, of Manlius. Mother, Delia Leora (Clark) Cheney; daughter of Bronson and Charlotte Chloe (Barnes) Clark, of Pompey, N. Y.

St. John's, Manlius, and Lawrenceville schools. Metallurgical course, member Yale Corinthian Yacht Club and Chi Phi.

Chemist in mine operations for Corrigan McKinney Company at Bessemer, Mich, 1910-11; and its subsidiaries, Castile Mining Company at Ramsay, Mich, and Zenith Furnace Company at Duluth, Minn, 1911-12, blast furnace chemist with Illinois Steel Company in Chicago 1912; had since been connected with S. Cheney & Son; head bookkeeper 1913–15, director and in charge of real estate and insurance 1913–1931, vice-president since 1920, and superintendent since 1928; mayor of Manlius 1918 and 1919; vice-president of Syracuse Foundrymen's Association 1918–19 and president 1920–23; president of Central New York Foundrymen's Association 1929; director and secretary of Syracuse & Eastern Railroad Company since 1921; director of Manufacturers' Association and Cazenovia Golf Club; Corporal, Troop D, 18th New York Cavalry, on Mexican border 1916; attended Field Artillery Central Officers' Training School, Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky., August 27–November 27, 1918; member American Legion and Christ Episcopal Church, Manlius (vestryman since 1923).

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Manlius Village Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughters, son, parents, and two brothers, Stephen C. Cheney, '05 S., and John P. Cheney, '07 S.

Joseph Marion Goss, Ph.B. 1910.

Born November 3, 1887, in Centerville, Iowa.
Died May 3, 1932, in Pasadena, Calif.

Father, Henry Goss, in wholesale and retail shoe business; son of Joseph and Clara (Brough) Goss, of Centerville. Mother, Eva (Drake) Goss; daughter of General Francis Marion Drake and Mary Jane (Lord) Drake, of New Brunswick, Canada. First cousin: Francis M. Drake, ex-9.

Centerville High School and Phillips-Andover. Select course; general two-year honors; on Fence Committee and committee on revision of Sheff election system; member The Colony and Berzelius.

Teller with Pasadena National Bank 1911–14 and with its successor, the National Bank of Pasadena 1914–17; treasurer and a director of H. G. Chaffee Company of Los Angeles from 1920 until retirement on account of ill health in 1926; enlisted in the Army October 3, 1917; with 31st Company, 166th Depot Brigade, to October 26; then assigned to Battery B, 347th Field Artillery, at Camp Lewis, Wash.; promoted Corporal November 1, 1917; overseas July 14, 1918–March 30, 1919; trained at Camp de Souge, and served with 3d Army of Occupation at Coblenz; received his discharge April 25, 1919; member All Saints Church (Episcopal), Pasadena.
Married February 19, 1914, in Pasadena, Madeleine Leffingwell, daughter of John Thomas Binkley (M.D. Medical College of Ohio 1883) and Alice (Leffingwell) Binkley. Children: Norman Leffingwell, Alan Drake, and Eva Vail.

Death due to coronary thrombosis, with contributory causes. Cremation took place and ashes were buried in San Gabriel (Calif) Cemetery. Survived by wife, three children, and mother.

Edgar Malin Hoopes, Jr., Ph.B. 1910.

Born May 18, 1888, in Wilmington, Del.
Died November 20, 1931, in Wilmington, Del.

Father, Edgar Malin Hoopes; president and owner of E. M. Hoopes Advertising Agency; owner of Wilmington Morning News; son of Marshall and Mary (Moore) Hoopes, of Minerva, Ohio. Mother, Elizabeth Letitia (Osborne) Hoopes; daughter of Joseph and Joanna (Kimble) Osborne, of Osborne Hill, Westchester, Pa.

Wilmington Military Academy; attended Swarthmore College 1905 and 1906 as member of Class of 1908 (member Phi Kappa Psi). Electrical engineering course.

Draftsman with Joseph Bancroft & Sons Company of Wilmington 1910–11, assistant engineer of Wilmington Board of Water Commissioners 1911–13 and engineer-in-chief and superintendent 1913–15; chief engineer of City of Wilmington 1915–18; president of E. M. Hoopes Advertising Agency since 1916; engineer with development department of the duPont Company 1919–1923; trust officer with Wilmington Trust Company 1923–25; engineer in office of Coleman duPont since 1925; member of board of Water Commissioners since 1920, appointed member of Regional Planning Commission of New Castle County 1931; director of Wilmington Institute Free Library since 1914 (chairman of building committee 1916), of Wilmington Savings Fund Society since 1915, and of Wilmington Fine Arts Society since 1920, on board of managers of National Economic League; enlisted September 9, 1918, and commissioned Captain in Quartermaster Corps; assigned to Utilities Detachment and stationed at Camp Eustis, Va., and Camp Meade, Md.; served on staffs of Brigadier Generals A. H. Sutherland and B. S. Schindel and Major General B. B. Buck; received discharge June 21, 1919; Colonel on staff of Governor C. D. Buck of Delaware since 1929; member American Society of Civil Engineers, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, and Westminster Presbyterian Church, Wilmington.

Married October 16, 1913, in Newburgh, N. Y., Helen Nelson, daughter of Francis Nash and Amelia (MacQuoid) Bain. Children Francis Bain, Richard Osborne, and Edgar Mail, 3d.

Death due to agranulocytic angina, following a streptococcus sore throat. Buried in Birmingham (Pa.) Cemetery. Survived by wife, three sons, two brothers, Joseph M. Hoopes, '19 S., and William D Hoopes, of Wilmington, and two sisters, Elsie Hoopes Farmer, the wife of Walter Farmer (B S. Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1902), of Harrison, N. Y., and Mrs. Benjamin Morris, of New York City.

•

James Arthur Ingalls, Ph.B. 1910.

Born May 22, 1889, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died March 24, 1932, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Father, James Warren Ingalls (B.A. 1881; M.D. Columbia 1884), son of Warren and Hannah K. (Marcy) Ingalls, of Ashford, Conn. Mother, Abbie Parker (Weaver) Ingalls; daughter of Jabez and Mary (Wilbur) Weaver, of New Haven. Yale relatives include a great-uncle, Lemuel Ingalls (B.A. 1813).

Boys' High School, Brooklyn. Electrical engineering course; member Freshman Track Team and University Cross Country Team in 1908; had numerals.

Had been connected with Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company (now Brooklyn-Manhattan Transit Company) since 1910; steam and electrical tester in the testing bureau until 1916; mechanical assistant to chief of that bureau 1916-19; and chief of bureau since 1919; evening instructor in steam power plant operation at Pratt Institute since 1919; member American Society of Mechanical Engineers, National Electric Light Association, Yale Engineering Society, and Tompkins Avenue Congregational Church, Brooklyn.

Death due to acute lobar pneumonia. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, Putnam, Conn. Survived by wife, sons, daughter, and two brothers, Edmund E. Ingalls, '15 S., and Irving Ingalls, Massachusetts Agricultural (now State) College ex-'19.
Archer Egbert Roberts, Ph.B. 1910.

Born December 17, 1883, in New York City.
Died February 18, 1932, in Peekskill, N. Y.

Father, John Thompson Roberts. Mother, Caroline (Egbert) Roberts, daughter of Edward Harris and Louise (Archer) Egbert, of New York City

Hotchkiss School. Forestry course.

Tutor at Dr. Moore's camp in Aiken, S. C., 1910–11; in employ of United States Forest Service in California 1912–19, except for time in military service; field assistant, Klamath National Forest, June–October, 1912; subsequently assistant forest ranger there and in Sierra National Forest, Sequoia National Forest, and Cleveland National Forest until August, 1916, when made forest ranger; transferred from Cleveland National Forest to Shasta National Forest in August, 1919, and resigned from the Forest Service in November, 1919, enlisted in the Engineers at Fort McDowell, Calif, November 30, 1917; overseas February, 1918–June, 1919; assigned 20th Regiment, Engineers, stationed at Bruion-sur-Souldre to September, 1918, and at Headquarters, Tours, from October, 1918; received discharge July 16, 1919; had lived in Westchester County, N. Y., since 1920, and during the greater part of the time had not been engaged in active business on account of ill health; member Episcopal church.

Unmarried.

Took his own life. Cremation took place at Fresh Pond Crematory, Long Island, and ashes were buried in a cemetery near Bedford Village, N. Y. Survived by mother and a sister, Eleanor Roberts Stoll (Mrs. Henry F. Stoll), ex-'06 Music, of West Hartford, Conn.

Donald McRuer Eddy, Ph.B. 1912.

Born April 10, 1890, in Bay City, Mich.
Died June 10, 1932, in Buffalo, N. Y.

Father, Newell Avery Eddy, '79; son of Jonathan and Caroline (Bailey) Eddy, of Bangor, Maine. Mother, Marianna McRuer (Field) Eddy, daughter of Edward Mann Field (B.A. Bowdoin 1845; M D Jefferson Medical College 1849) and Sally (McRuer) Field, of Bangor

University School, Cleveland, Ohio. Chemistry course; member Freshman Crew and Baseball Team, University Baseball Team, St Elmo and Delta Phi, Sigma Xi, and Aurelian Honor Society

Assistant chemist with Dominion Sugar Company, Wallaceburg,
Ontario, 1912-13; chemist with Wickes Boiler Company of Saginaw, Mich., 1913-14; office manager for Richardson Lumber Company of Bay City 1914-15; assistant sales manager for International Mill & Timber Company of Bay City 1915-16; with Hydraulic Pressed Steel Company of Cleveland 1916-1924, at first as purchasing agent and from 1920 as sales manager; had been with M. A. Hanna Company of Cleveland since 1924; director of purchases in Cleveland 1924-27; manager of Buffalo office of Hanna Furnace Corporation and manager of ore sales 1927-29; president of Hanna Furnace Corporation 1929-1930; in 1930 relinquished presidency (due to inclusion of the corporation as a unit of National Steel Corporation) to become vice-president, but was to be named president in fall of 1932; vice-president of Donner Hanna Coke Company since 1930; president of Buffalo Skating Club 1931-32; member Buffalo Chamber of Commerce and First Presbyterian Church, Bay City.

Death due to fractured skull, caused by a fall. Buried in Elm Lawn Cemetery, Bay City. Survived by wife, daughter, son, mother, two brothers, Newell A. Eddy, '04 S., and Charles F. Eddy, '17 S., and three sisters, Mrs. Harry F. Chapin, of Bay City, Mrs. John N. McCabe, of Evanston, Ill., and Sally E. Tripp, the wife of Albion F. Tripp (Ph.B. Brown 1922), of Youngstown, Ohio.

Thomas Ritch Waterbury, Ph.B. 1912.

Born February 4, 1891, in Greenwich, Conn.
Died March 4, 1932, in Territet, Switzerland.

Father, William Hampton Waterbury; assistant superintendent of retail department of Gorham Manufacturing Company of New York; son of Edward Allen and Julia Maria (Lewis) Waterbury, of New York City. Mother, Mary Bennett (Ritch) Waterbury; daughter of Thomas and Fanny (Runion) Ritch, of Greenwich.

Greenwich Academy and Phillips-Andover. Select course; member Dramatic Association and St. Elmo and Delta Phi.

With American Trading Company, New York, July–October, 1912; with Standard Oil Company of New York 1912-17; in training in the New York office October, 1912–April, 1913, and then sent as a marketer to Constantinople, assistant manager at Smyrna August–December, 1913, and then at Salonica, Greece, until February, 1916, when transferred to London; enlisted in U.S. Naval Reserve, Naval Intelligence Department, October 8, 1917; in June, 1918, placed in charge of ship inspection, New York Harbor; commissioned Ensign July 31, 1918, received his discharge December 13, 1918; in January, 1919, organized and became president of the firm of Waterbury & Carey, Inc., to represent and market abroad products of Suffern & Suffern, general exporters and importers, of New York; since October, 1919, had been connected with the export department of The Texas Company of New York; connected at first with its New York office, district manager for the Continental Petroleum Company at Rotterdam December, 1919–February, 1928; and managing director in London since February, 1928; member Second Congregational Church, Greenwich.

Married September 9, 1920, in New York City, Margaret Louise, daughter of Samuel Lloyd Chamberlaine, St. Stephens College ex-187, and Louise (King) Chamberlaine. Children: Thomas Ritch, Jr. (died in childhood); and Anthony Lloyd-Chamberlaine.

Death due to peripheral neuritis. Buried in Putnam Cemetery, Greenwich. Survived by wife, one son, parents, and two sisters, Marguerite F. Harden, the wife of Acheson A. Harden, Williams ex-'20, of Englewood, N. J., and Lucy-Fay Jenkins, the wife of Murray G. Jenkins (B.A College of the City of New York 1904; M.A. Columbia 1906, LL.B. Columbia 1907), of Greenwich.

Theodore Wright Horner, Ph.B. 1913.

Born December 28, 1891, in DuBois, Pa.
Died April 13, 1932, in Washington, D. C.

Father, John Horner; general superintendent of mills and lumber yard in DuBois; born in Scotland; son of Thomas and Mary Horner, who came to America in 1848. Mother, Luella DuBois (Fowler) Horner (Elmira College 1869-1870); daughter of Sevelon Lawrence and Mary (DuBois) Fowler, of Monroeton, Pa.

Mercersburg Academy. Forestry course.

With Concrete Steel Bridge Company, Clarksburg, W. Va., 1913-1925, except for time spent in service, foreman of construction 1913-14 and then secretary-treasurer until 1925; entered service as First Lieutenant, Company K, 1st West Virginia Infantry, March 28, 1917; personnel adjutant, 38th Division, at Camp Shelby October, 1917–October, 1918; overseas October 1, 1918–May 23, 1919; assistant personnel adjutant, Base Section No 5, Brest, November, 1918–May, 1919, received discharge May 31, 1919; district manager in charge of Knoxville (Tenn.) office of the Concrete Steel Bridge Company 1921–23 and in Clarksburg 1923–25; in 1925 instrumental in forming Cincrete, Inc., manufacturers of cinder blocks, of which treasurer until its absorption by Business Supply & Equipment Company of Clarksburg, and treasurer of latter company until his death; member American Legion and First Presbyterian Church, Clarksburg.

Married September 7, 1918, in Hattiesburg, Miss., Mabel Grace Mixon (B.A. Sullins College 1913), daughter of Thomas Jefferson and Carrie Belle (McCoy) Mixon. Children: John Thomas, Mary Margaret, Theodore Wright, Jr., and David DuBos.

Death due to septic endocarditis. Buried in Clarksburg. Survived by wife, four children, and a sister, Jess Louise McEnteer, the wife of Frank D. McEnteer (B.A. Harvard 1905), of Clarksburg.

Joseph Ernest Rapuano, Ph.B. 1913.

Born July 5, 1889, in Benevento, Italy. Died March 4, 1932, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Carlo Rapuano, a chef; son of Joseph and Marion (Mel- lone) Rapuano, of Faichio, Italy. Mother, Mary (Capelli) Rapuano, daughter of Pasquale and Carmela (Gionotti) Capelli

New Haven High School. Civil engineering course; general honors and prize in German Freshman year, general two-year honors Junior year; general three-year honors Senior year; member Class Baseball Team.

With the Connecticut Company as draftsman in maintenance of way department 1913-17 and as field engineer and assistant engineer in department of maintenance from July, 1919, until death; enlisted in Engineer Corps at Camp Devens, Mass., October 2, 1917; overseas November 26, 1917—June 9, 1919; Sergeant, Company B, 504th Engineers, on detached service; attended Engineer Candidate School, Langres, October, 1918; instructor at St. Bln (Haute Marne); commissioned Second Lieutenant, Engineers, April 22, 1919; received discharge June 14, 1919; an organizer and founder of Italian-American Club of New Haven 1915 and president in 1915, 1925, and 1931; president of Italian-American Loan and Investment Association and its successor, Italian-American Finance Company, of New Haven since 1923; appointed member New Haven Municipal Traffic Commission in January, 1932, for term of four years; examiner in mathematics for Knights of Columbus Correspondence School of New Haven 1922–24; member American Electric Railway Association, Connecticut Society of Civil Engineers, and St. Michael’s Roman Catholic Church.

Married September 22, 1921, in New Haven, Vina Isabelle, daughter of Alfonso and Teresa (Iaccarino) Maresca, and sister of John A Death due to sinus thrombosis and streptococcic meningitis. Buried in St. Lawrence Cemetery, West Haven. Survived by wife, sons, three brothers, Albert Rapuano, of Bristol, Conn., Frank Rapuano, of New Haven, and Henry Rapuano, of New York City, and two sisters, Mrs. James Ambrogne and Miss Margaret Rapuano, both of New Haven.

Nelson John Vetter, Ph.B. 1913.

Born December 17, 1888, in New Haven, Conn.
Died February 12, 1932, in Mineola, N. Y.

Father, Emil Henry Vetter; cabinet maker and interior decorator; president of E. H. Vetter & Company, upholsterers; Spanish American War veteran; son of Emil Henry and Emma (Vetter) Vetter, of Rodach, Saxony. Mother, Louise Katherine (Hartmann) Vetter; daughter of A. and Anna Barbara Hartmann, of Coburg, Saxony.

New Haven High School. Electrical engineering course.

Married March 16, 1918, in New York City, Estelle, daughter of Isaac and Rose (Davis) Choyke. Children: Nelson John and Joan Louise.

Death due to pulmonary tuberculosis. Buried in Blain Lawn Cemetery, Hicksville, N. Y. Survived by wife, son, daughter, a sister, Mrs. Henry A. Loomis, of New Haven, and a brother, Louis H. Herrmann, of New Haven.

Carl Frederick Westerberg, Ph.B. 1913.

Born June 21, 1894, at Dobbs Ferry, N. Y.
Died January 25, 1932, in Washington, D. C.

Father, John Ludwig Westerberg (University of Upsala); horticulturist in Litchfield, Conn.; born in Malmo, Sweden, and came to America in 1887. Mother, Inga (Hansen) Westerberg, of Kragero, Norway.

Litchfield High School. Civil engineering course; Boardman scholar.

In employ of Connecticut State Highway Commission 1913-14; assistant topographer in expedition to Peru, under auspices of National Geographic Society and Yale University April–November, 1914; resident engineer of R. W. Hebard & Company, Inc., of New York in construction of Chiriqui Railroad in Panama 1914–16; employed at Balbach Smelting & Refining Company, Newark, N. J., in 1916; assistant superintendent of Turner Construction Company, New York City, 1917; enlisted in Coast Artillery Corps October 26, 1917; commissioned First Lieutenant March 12, 1918; on special staff duty with various coast defenses and with Middle Atlantic Coast Artillery District until September, 1918; then assigned to 37th Regiment, Coast Artillery Corps, 41st Brigade, and detailed Battalion Adjutant; resigned December 12, 1918; with New York Central Railroad Company at Cleveland, Ohio, 1919–1920; engineer with Walter Kidde & Company (construction) of New York City 1920–21; engineer with Francisco & Jacobus, architects and engineers, of New York, in charge of construction in Brooklyn, and of air reduction plant in Sharon, Pa., and Continental Can Factory in Chicago 1921–24; engineer with Pantepo Petroleum Company in Venezuela 1924–25; with R. W. Hebard & Company, Inc., as superintendent of construction of Salvador-Guatemala Railroad 1925–27; engaged in negotiations for private individuals in regard to water supply for Maracaibo, Venezuela, 1928–29; represented R. W. Hebard & Company, Inc., in regard to Maracaibo Railway construction 1929 and 1930; contributed an article on Peru to North American Review of March, 1931; affiliated with Protestant Episcopal church.

Death due to cancer. Buried in Rosedale Cemetery, Orange, N. J. Survived by wife, a brother, Harold P. Westerberg, ex-'17 S., and a sister, Miss Inga Westerberg, of Litchfield.

John Thompson Maffett, Ph.B. 1914.

Born October 18, 1890, in Brookville, Pa.
Died February 28, 1932, in Gstaad, Canton of Berne, Switzerland.

Father, Robert Rose Maffett; general superintendent of International Nickel Company, of Bayonne, N. J.; son of James Guthrie and Elizabeth (Rose) Maffett, of Clarion, Pa. Mother, Mabel Reigner (Thompson) Maffett; daughter of John Jameson Ypsilanti and Agnes Susan (Kennedy) Thompson, of Portsmouth, Ohio.

Bayonne High School and Riverview Academy. Metallurgical course; member Class Baseball Team, Bowling Team (won individual championship 1913), and Franklin Hall and Theta Xi.

Engaged independently in paper brokerage business in New York City March, 1915–August, 1919; connected with International Nickel Company 1919–1921; in research department until 1916 and then chief of testing department at the Oxford works in Bayonne; engaged in ranching for himself in Ontario, Calif., since 1922, with his home in Upland; commissioned First Lieutenant, Air Service, February 23, 1918; overseas March 11, 1918–April 21, 1919; assigned to Headquarters, Services of Supply, and Headquarters, Paris, received discharge May 14, 1919; member American Legion and First Methodist Church, Ontario, Calif.

Death due to an aneurysm and internal hemorrhage. Cremation took place in Berne; ashes buried in Ontario, Calif. Survived by wife, two sons, and daughter.

William Lacy Kenly, Ph.B. 1915.

Born May 14, 1894, at Fort Monroe, Va.
Died April 3, 1932, at Short Hills, N. J.

Father, Colonel William Lacy Kenly, U.S.A., ret. (United States Military Academy 1889); served in Cuba campaign and in the Philippines; during World War first chief of Air Service, A.E.F., with rank of Brigadier General, later director of military aeronautics with rank of Major General until retirement; son of William Lacy Kenly, Major of Infantry during Civil War, and Marion (Hook) Kenly, of Baltimore, Md. Mother, Julie Woodbridge Terry (Closson) Kenly, daughter of Henry Whitney Closson (United States Military Academy 1854) and Julia Woodbridge (Terry) Closson, of Cleveland, Ohio. Yale relative: Henry W. Closson, '16 (first cousin).

Friends' School, Washington. Electrical engineering course; prize in mechanical technology Senior year; member Freshman Crew Squad and Phi Sigma Kappa and Sachem Club.

Assistant to superintendent of Bridgeport (Conn.) Screw Company 1915–17; enlisted April 15, 1917; attended Officers' Training Camp at Fort Myer, Va.; commissioned Second Lieutenant, Infantry, May 14, 1917; assigned 318th Infantry, Camp Lee, Va., to September 28, 1917, and then 313th Machine Gun Battalion there to April 22, 1918; promoted First Lieutenant April 10, 1918; transferred to Aviation Section, Signal Corps, April 22; trained at Mather and Rockwell fields; commissioned First Lieutenant (Reserve Military Aviator) October 25, 1918; received discharge March 18, 1919; with Kenney-Cleary Oil Company, Ponca City, Okla., in June, 1919; with Continental Sugar Company, Toledo, Ohio, 1919–1920; salesman and secretary to the president of American Sugar Refining Company, New York City, 1920–22; later associated with E. Atkins & Company and with Meinrath Brokerage Company, both of New York.

Married June 11, 1921, in Newport, R. I., Mary Stevens Burdick, Vassar ex-’21, daughter of Clark Burdick (Harvard Law School 1893–94) and Elizabeth Louise (Peckham) Burdick. Children: Mary and William Lacy.

Took his own life. Cremation took place at Rosehill Crematory, Linden, N. J., and ashes were buried in Arlington National Cemetery. Survived by wife, two children, mother, and a brother, Henry C. Kenly, ex-’18 S.

Benjamin Paxton Collings, Ph.B. 1916.

Born August 17, 1893, in Washington, D. C.
Died September 10, 1931, near Northport, N. Y.

Father, Howard Paxton Collings (B.S. Central Normal College, Danville, Ind., 1888; M.D. New York University 1891); physician and surgeon at Hot Springs, Ark.; former director and vice-president of Security Bank of Hot Springs; fellow of American College of Surgeons; son of Spotsard and Rebecca (Mattox) Collings, of Rockville, Ind. Mother, Jessie (Snyder) Collings (graduate of Helmuth College, London, Canada, 1889); daughter of Benjamin Pettit and Clarinda Blackman (Collings) Snyder, of Washington, D. C.

Phillips-Exeter. Entered Yale with Class of 1915 S., but left at end of Freshman year; joined Class of 1916 S. in 1914; mechanical engineering course; honors in Freshman year; general two-year honors Junior year; general three-year honors; member Sigma Xi.

Took graduate work at Amos Tuck School of Administration and Finance, Dartmouth College, 1916–17; enlisted as Private in Ordnance Department at Portland, Maine, July 12, 1917; appointed Sergeant November 13, 1917, and Sergeant (1st Class) April 13, Walter Lewis Ross, Jr., Ph.B. 1916.

Died November 29, 1931, in Newtown, Pa.

Father, Walter Lewis Ross, a stockbroker, son of Christian Kunkle and Anne (Lewis) Ross, of Germantown, Pa. Mother, Julia Peabody (Chandler) Ross; daughter of Charles Wesley and Julia Adelaide (Peabody) Chandler, of Germantown. Yale relatives include: George Peabody, ex-1835 (great-uncle); George P. Chandler, '95 (uncle); and Joseph W. Lewis, '11 S. (first cousin).

Chestnut Hill Academy. Mechanical engineering course; general two-year honors; member Battery B, Field Artillery, Connecticut National Guard, and Delta Phi and St. Elmo.

In employ of Day & Zimmerman, Inc., engineers, in Philadelphia from 1916 until death, with exception of time spent in service; engineer with engineering and construction department 1916–1922, with public utility management department 1922–25, and in investigations and reports department 1925–27; assistant manager of investigations and reports department from 1927; enlisted in U. S. Marine Corps May 6, 1918; took recruit course at Parris Island, S. C.; transferred to Quantico, Va., July 4, 1918; admitted to Officers' Training Camp, Quantico, August 20, 1918; commissioned as Second Lieutenant in November, 1918; received his discharge in December, 1918; member St. Thomas' Episcopal Church, Whitemarsh, Pa.

Death due to a fracture of the skull received in an automobile accident. Buried in cemetery of St. Thomas' Church, Whitemarsh. Survived by wife, two sons, parents, two brothers, C. Chandler Ross (B.S. Cornell 1921) and Donald P. Ross, '25, and two sisters, Miss Margaret Ross, of New York City, and Miss Julia Peabody Ross, of Chestnut Hill.

Charles Phelps Stevens, Jr., Ph.B. 1917.

Born April 22, 1894, in Normansville, N. Y.
Died May 7, 1932, in Albany, N. Y.

Father, Charles Phelps Stevens; president and owner of Norman's Kill Farm Dairy Company of Albany; son of Mark Wheeler and Lucy (Phelps) Stevens, of Sloansville, N. Y. Mother, Jennie Frances (Beasom) Stevens; daughter of William Dutton and Jane (Boardman) Beasom.

Albany Academy and Phillips-Andover. Mechanical engineering course; member second Wrestling Team, Lambda Chi Band, and Franklin Hall and Theta Xi.

In service overseas May, 1917–April, 1919; volunteer ambulance driver with American Field Service June 5–September 13, 1917; transferred to U. S. Army Ambulance Service as Corporal September 13, 1917; assigned to Section Sanitaire Unit 621 attached to French Army; promoted to Sergeant November 18, 1917; awarded Croix de Guerre October 12, 1917; received discharge April 19, 1919; connected with Norman's Kill Farm Dairy Company from 1919 until death; manager of ice cream department 1919–1921, vice-president 1921–27, and president since 1927.

Married November 15, 1925, in Salem, N. Y., Marguerite Helena, daughter of Edward James and Nancy Anne (Crowley) Blanchfield. Children: Charles Phelps and Nancy Anne.

Took his own life, because of shots through both eyes, received in a hunting accident in October, 1931. Buried in Albany Rural Cemetery. Survived by wife, son, daughter, mother, two brothers, William B. Stevens, ex-'18, and Mark W. Stevens, '26 S., and three sisters, Mrs Elizabeth S. Shuman, of Easton, Pa., Miss Frances Stevens, of Albany, and Mrs. Jane S. Owen, of Lausanne, Switzerland
T. Obituary Record

John Edward Hussey, Ph.B. 1921.

Born January 8, 1900, in St. Charles, Mo.
Died May 29, 1932, in St. Louis, Mo.

Father, Dennis Bernard Hussey; president of Hussey Tie Company of St. Louis and of Houston (Texas) Wood Preserving Company; son of John and Mary (Brennan) Hussey, of Weston, W. Va.
Mother, Tennie Oakley (Nolen) Hussey; daughter of James Martin and Lucy Mary (Oakley) Nolen, of Talladega, Ala.

Smith Academy, St. Louis, and Phillips-Andover. Select course; member St. Anthony and Delta Psi. Enlisted for Naval Aviation June 21, 1918, trained at Ground School, Naval Training Station, Great Lakes, Ill., until October 30, 1918, when given his discharge, transferred to Yale Naval Unit and later to Army Aviation Unit

Spent first two years after graduation in Europe, chiefly in Vienna, engaged in the study of German; assistant treasurer of Hussey Tie Company 1923–24, treasurer 1926–28, vice-president and assistant treasurer 1928–29, and president since 1929; engaged in management of his father’s real estate in Oklahoma 1924–26; vice-president and treasurer of Houston Wood Preserving Company 1926–27, secretary and assistant treasurer 1927, and vice-president and secretary 1927–29

Married October 15, 1924, in New York City, Tamara, daughter of Boris and Maria (Gerd) Danalova. No children.

Death due to Hodgkin’s disease. Buried in Calvary Cemetery, St. Louis. Survived by wife, mother, two brothers, Robert E. Hussey, of Santa Fé, N. Mex., and Nolen L. Hussey, of Providence, R. I., and a sister, Mrs. James L. Bailey, of Mt. Kisco, N. Y.

Donald Gordon Fraser, B.S. 1925.

Born May 6, 1905, in New Haven, Conn.
Died September 11, 1931, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Angus Fraser; supervisor of rights of way for Southern New England Telephone Company; member New Haven City Plan Commission, born in Stornoway, Scotland, and came to this country in 1888, son of Thomas Gordon and Catherine Ann (McDiarmid) Fraser, of Buffalo, N. Y. Mother, Mabel Augusta (Canada) Fraser (B. A. Mount Holyoke 1900); daughter of Charles Bradley and

New Haven High School. Electrical engineering course; held New Haven High School Scholarship four years.

With Southern New England Telephone Company from graduation until death; equipment inspector 1925–26, transmission tester 1926–28, and engineer's assistant since 1928; member American Institute of Electrical Engineers and St. Ædan's Roman Catholic Church.

Married September 15, 1930, in New Haven, Irene Mary, daughter of James Francis and Mary Rosella (Bruyette) McKenna.

Death due to aortic regurgitation and dilatation. Buried in St. Lawrence Cemetery, West Haven. Survived by wife, parents, a brother, Angus W. Fraser, Brown University ex-'34, and five sisters, Miss Dorothy M. Fraser (B.A. Mount Holyoke 1927), Mrs. Edward C. Hitchcock, and the Misses Mabel C., Marian E., and Eleanor L. Fraser, all of New Haven.

Kenneth Eugene Dayton, B.S. 1927.

Born August 22, 1906, in Bridgeport, Conn.
Died January 18, 1932, in Hamden, Conn

Father, Albert Baldwin Dayton, Georgetown Law School ex-1924; accountant in New York City under own name; former First Lieutenant, United States Navy; son of William Henry and Frances (Ell) Dayton, of Port Jefferson, N. Y. Mother, Florence Loretta (Stevens) Dayton; daughter of Charles Lockwood and Margaret (Downey) Stevens, of Bridgeport.

Central High School, Washington, D C. Industrial engineering course; scholar of second rank Freshman year; one-year honors in all studies Sophomore year and honorable mention for prize in mathematics; on Freshman Basketball Squad and Class Basketball Team two years, on Class Baseball Team Sophomore year; member Phi Sigma Kappa and Sachem Club; treasurer of Tau Beta Pi (honorary engineering society) Senior year.

Unmarried.

Took his own life. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Port Jefferson. Survived by parents and a sister, Miss Jean Dayton, all of Port Jefferson.
GRADUATE SCHOOL
MASTERS OF ART
Albert Granberry Reed, M.A. 1899.

Born December 28, 1870, near Paducah, Ky.
Died May 18, 1932, in Baton Rouge, La.

Father, Pleasant Green Reed (M.D. University of Louisville 1869), a physician in Paducah; son of Thomas Jefferson and Polly (Miller) Reed. Mother, Martha Jane Lovelace (Martin) Reed; daughter of Levi and Mary (Lovelace) Martin.

Paducah High School; B.A. Vanderbilt University 1895 (member Sigma Chi); taught mathematics at St. Charles College 1895-96; studied in Yale Graduate School 1896-97 and at Columbia 1897-98; professor of English and philosophy at Baker University (Kansas) 1898-99, of English and history at Austin College (Texas) 1899-1900, and of English at Hendrix College (Arkansas) 1900-01; instructor in English at University of Texas 1901-04; instructor in English and in charge of debating at University of Missouri 1904-08; Austin Scholar at Harvard 1906-07 (Ph.D. 1907), associate professor of English at Louisiana State University 1908-09, professor of English 1909-1914, and professor of English and comparative literature and chairman of the Graduate Council since 1914; lecturer in English at University of Texas summer of 1919 and professor of English at Washington University, St. Louis, five summers (1925-29); chairman of committee to investigate teaching of English in grade and high schools of Louisiana 1909; author: Rhetoric and Composition (1905); editor of English Literature of the Romantic Period (1929); contributor to educational and literary journals; member Modern Language Association of America, Advisory Council of Simplified Spelling Board, National Council of Teachers of English, Louisiana State Teachers Association (president of English department 1929), and First Methodist Church South, Baton Rouge.

Married December 22, 1898, in St. Charles, Mo., Margaret McDearmon (B.S. Lindenwood College, St. Charles, 1893), daughter of Theodorick Fackler McDearmon, St. Charles College, and Fannie (Fielding) McDearmon Children: Albert Granberry, Jr. (B.A. Louisiana State University 1918) (died in 1919); Frances McDearmon (died in childhood); Mary Barton (B.A. Louisiana State University 1922 and M.A. 1931); John Fielding, Louisiana State University 1933, and Margaret McDearmon, Louisiana State University 1934.

Death due to endocarditis. Buried in Oak Grove Cemetery, St Charles. Survived by wife, one son, two daughters, a brother, Avery H. Reed (M.E. University of Virginia 1930), of Marion, Ky., and three sisters, Mrs. Charles C. Scott and Gurtha Reed Meister, the wife of James F. Meister (M.E. Cornell 1905), both of Kansas City, Mo., and Mrs Bell Reed Magee, of Hickory, Ky.

Francis Jerome Holder, M.A. 1905.

Born August 11, 1876, in Santa Fe, Fla.
Died December 30, 1931, in Macon, Ga.

Father, Ivin Holder, a planter; son of Daniel and Martha (Ellis) Holder, of Newnansville, Fla. Mother, Priscilla (May) Holder; daughter of William and Nancy (Sparks) May, of Newnansville.

Alachua (Fla.) High School; B.S. National Normal University, Lebanon, Ohio, 1896; principal of High Springs (Fla.) High School 1896-1900; vice-president and manager of King's Business College, Raleigh, N. C., 1901-03, studied in Yale Graduate School 1903-08 (M.A. 1905, Ph D. 1908); principal of School of Commerce, University of Wyoming, 1908-09; head of Mathematics Department, Colby College, 1909-11, Buchtel College, 1911-12, and University of Pittsburgh 1912-18; in 1919 established School of Commerce, Mercer University, and had since been its dean and head of the Mathematics Department; author of mathematical textbooks and scientific treatises; member American Mathematical Society, Mathematical Association of America, Society for the Promotion of Engineering Education, American Association for the Advancement of Science, University of Pittsburgh chapter of Theta Chi, and First Baptist Church, Macon.

Married June 17, 1908, in New Haven, Isabella Leffingwell, daughter of Theodore and Mary Elizabeth (Durand) Pierson. Children: Lois Rosalind (B.A Wesleyan College, Macon, 1929); Mildred Louise, B.A Mercer University 1932; Curtis Raymond (died in childhood); Gladys May; and Floyd Pierson.

Death due to intestinal obstruction. Buried in Rose Hill Cemetery, Macon. Survived by wife, three daughters, one son, and a brother, John C. Holder, of Crystal River, Fla.

Stephen Chiang Lei, M.A. 1930.

Born May 20, 1900, in Wuchang, China.
Died November 15, 1931, in Wuchang, China.

Father, Shiu-Shêng Lei, a building contractor, under name of I Hsing Lei; also owner of furniture shop; son of Ko-chen and Shih
(Li) Lei, of Kiayu Mother, Foo Kuo (Wang) Lei; daughter of Hsiang Chieh and I (Tu) Wang, of Hanyang.

Wuchang Government School and YaH Middle School; B.A. College of Yale-in-China 1924; religious instructor and proctor at Yale-in-China Middle School 1924–27, member of the Christian Council in Changsha and voluntary worker in Chinese Y. M. C. A 1925–27, came to Yale in 1927 and as holder of the Class of 1898 Fellowship took work in Yale Divinity School; principal of Wesley Middle School, Wuchang, since August, 1930; member Wuchang Y M C A and Wesley Methodist Church, Wuchang.

Married January 6, 1923, in Wuchang, May Kuo-Fang, daughter of Kai Keng and Chin Kuei (Tu) Hsiao. One daughter, An Mei.

Death due to nephritis. Buried in the Lei Family Cemetery, Kuei Chih San, Wuchang. Survived by wife, daughter, mother, and three brothers, Chun Pin Lei and Ung Lie Lei (Yale-in-China), both of Hankow, and Ung Chih Lei, of Shanghai.

MASTER OF SCIENCE

George Herbert Lamson, M.S. 1905.

Born April 8, 1882, in Malden, Mass.
Died December 4, 1931, in New York City.

Father, Rev. George Herbert Lamson, a Methodist minister in East Hampton and Coventry, Conn.; son of John and Mary (Ford) Lamson, of Lubec, Maine. Mother, Sarah (Liscombe) Lamson; daughter of Douglas and Harriet (Green) Liscombe, of Sydney, Cape Breton, Nova Scotia.

East Hampton High School; B.Agr. Connecticut Agricultural College 1902; B.S. Massachusetts Agricultural (now Massachusetts State) College 1903; took graduate work and lectured in biology at Wesleyan 1903–04; student in Yale Graduate School 1904-05; had since been connected with Connecticut Agricultural College, instructor in geology, ornithology, and entomology and curator of the museum 1905–06; instructor in geology, ornithology, entomology, zoology, and physiology 1906–07; instructor in entomology and geology 1907–08; associate professor of entomology and geology 1908–1910 and of zoology and geology 1910–12; professor of zoology and geology 1912–1924, of zoology and entomology 1924–26, and of zoology and geology since 1926; dean of the Division of Agricultural Science 1928–29 and of the Division of Science since 1929; economic zoologist at Storrs Experiment Station since 1910; connected with Bureau of Entomology at Washington, D. C., in 1918; author of numerous agricultural bulletins; fellow of American Association for the Advancement of Science; member American Society of Economic Entomologists; honorary member Connecticut Agricultural College chapter of Gamma Chi Epsilon; chairman of board of trustees of Storrs Congregational Church (of which a member) 1930–31.

Married July 27, 1909, in Bridgeport, Conn., Kate, daughter of Robert Arroll (University of Glasgow) and Mary Eliza (Neville) Arroll. One son, Arroll Liscombe, Connecticut Agricultural College 1933.

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Lakeview Cemetery, East Hampton, Conn. Survived by wife, son, mother (died December 5, 1931), and a sister, Mrs. Lucien A. Barton, of East Hampton.

DOCTORS OF PHILOSOPHY

Laura Johnson Wylie, Ph.D. 1894.

Born December 1, 1855, in Milton, Pa.
Died April 2, 1932, in Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

Bellefonte (Pa.) Academy; B.A. Vassar 1877; taught in Miss Storer and Miss Lupton’s School, Cincinnati, 1882–84; connected with Packer Collegiate Institute, Brooklyn, 1884–1895, as teacher of Latin 1884–88, teacher of English 1888–1892, and director of the Department of English 1892–95; student in Yale Graduate School 1892–94; instructor in English at Vassar 1895–96, associate professor 1896–97, professor 1897–1924, and professor emeritus since 1924; editor of The Sir Roger de Coverly Papers (1900), The Winter’s Tale in the Tudor Shakespeare (1912), Adam Bede (1917), and Poems and Plays of Gertrude Buck (1922); author: Evolution of English Criticism (1894) and Social Studies in English Literature, Vassar Series (1915); president of Dutchess County Women’s Suffrage Organization 1910–18 and of Women’s City Club of Poughkeepsie 1918–1928; member Modern Language Association of America, English Association, National Council of Teachers of English, American Association of University Professors, and Vassar chapter of Phi Beta Kappa (alumna member 1899, president of the chapter 1902–03 and 1907–08).

Death due to myocarditis and nephritis. Cremation took place at Union Hill, N. J., and ashes were buried in Woodlands Cemetery, Philadelphia. Survived by a half brother, Walter L. Wylie (M.D. Hering Medical College, Chicago, 1897), of St. Petersburg, Fla.

Charlotte Fairbanks, Ph.D. 1896.

Born December 11, 1871, in St. Johnsbury, Vt.
Died February 14, 1932, in Framingham, Mass.

Father, Henry Fairbanks (B.A. Dartmouth 1853, Ph.D. Dartmouth 1880), Appleton professor of natural philosophy and professor of natural history at Dartmouth; inventor; vice-president of E. T. Fairbanks & Company, manufacturers of scales; son of Thaddeus and Lucy Peck (Barker) Fairbanks, of St. Johnsbury. Mother, Annie Stuckney (Noyes) Fairbanks; daughter of Rev. Daniel James Noyes (B.A. Dartmouth 1832; D.D. University of Vermont 1853) and Jane Marston (Aiken) Noyes, of Hanover, N. H.

St. Johnsbury Academy; B.A. Smith 1894 (on honor roll; member of honorary society, Colloquium); student in Yale Graduate School 1894–96, fellow at Bryn Mawr 1896–97; instructor in chemistry at Wellesley 1897–99; studied at Woman's Medical College of Philadelphia 1899–1902 (M.D. 1902); intern at Woman's Hospital, Philadelphia, 1902, practiced medicine and surgery in Philadelphia 1902–08 and then in St. Johnsbury until retirement on account of ill health in 1929; special surgeon on staff of American Woman's Hospital at Luzancy, France, October, 1918–September, 1919; awarded gold medal by mayor of the city and made a "citizen of France"; member American Medical Association, American College of Surgeons, Northeastern County Medical Society (Vermont), and South Church (Congregational), St. Johnsbury; made honorary member Smith College chapter of Phi Beta Kappa 1915.

Death due to ischio rectal sepsis and terminal bronchopneumonia. Buried in Mount Pleasant Cemetery, St. Johnsbury. Survived by stepmother, two brothers, Arthur Fairbanks (B.A. Dartmouth 1886, Litt. D. Dartmouth 1909; Ph.D. University of Freiburg 1890; Yale Divinity School ex-'90) and Robert N. Fairbanks (B.A. Dartmouth 1888), of London, a sister, Lucy F. Alvord (B.L. Smith 1891), the wife of James C. Alvord (B.A. Williams 1885), and two half sisters, Marion F. Adams (B.A. Smith 1903), the wife of Chauncey A. Adams (B.A. McGill 1902), and Dorothy F. Nelson (B.A. Smith 1910), the wife of John E. Nelson (M.E. Cornell 1910).
Henry Barrett Learned, Ph.D. 1909.

Born March 21, 1868, in Exeter, N. H.
Died October 12, 1931, in Stanford University, Calif.

Father, Rev. John Calvin Learned (Harvard Divinity School 1862), a Unitarian minister in St. Louis, Mo.; president of St. Louis Public Library; son of Calvin and Hannah Dunster (Barrett) Learned, of Dublin, N. H. Mother, Lucelia (Wakefield) Learned; daughter of William and Lucy (Parker) Wakefield, of Reading, Mass.

Smith Academy, St. Louis; B.A. cum laude Harvard 1890; head master of Mr. Knapp's school in Plymouth, Mass, 1890-92; taught history at University School, Chicago, 1892-93; director of Department of History, Armour Institute, Chicago, 1894-96; M.A. University of Chicago 1894; studied at Harvard 1896-99 (M.A. 1897); assistant in history there 1897-98 and lecturer in Summer School 1898; studied at University of Leipzig 1899-1900; literary editor of Hartford (Conn.) Courant 1900; instructor in history at Yale 1900-06; student in Yale Graduate School 1906-09; lecturer in history at Wesleyan University 1909-1910; had made his home in Washington, D. C., since 1913 and engaged in literary work; special agent of Bureau of Investigation, Department of Justice, 1917-19; member of Board of Education of the District of Columbia 1917-1921 (vice-president 1919-1921) and again 1925-1931 (vice-president 1929-March, 1931, and then president); treasurer of Chamber Music Society several years and of The Friends of Music in the Library of Congress 1930; president of Washington Choral Festival Association 1930; lecturer in history at Stanford University 1919-1921, acting associate professor of history 1921-22, and acting professor of history 1925-26 and 1928-29 (appointed for 1931-32); delegate from Yale and Stanford to fifth International Congress on History at Brussels 1923 and delegate from Stanford to sixth congress at Oslo 1928; author: The President's Cabinet (1912), Some Aspects of the Cabinet Meeting (1915), and sketch of William L. Marcy in American Secretaries of State and Their Diplomacy, Vol. VI (1928); editor: Sermons for the New Life by Horace Bushnell (1903); contributed Chapter V (“The Attitude of the United States Senate toward the Versailles Treaty: 1918-1920”) to Vol. VI of H. W. V. Temperly's A History of the Peace Conference of Paris (published in London 1920-24); also contributor to American Historical Review, Political Science Review, The Nation, and The Saturday Review of Literature; member American Historical Association (chairman of committee on publications and member committee on endowment), American Political Science Association, New Haven Colony Historical Society, and All Souls (Unitarian) Church, Washington

Married June 14, 1899, in South Manchester, Conn., Emily, daughter of Frank Woodbridge Cheney (B.A. Brown 1854 and honorary M.A. 1886) and Mary (Bushnell) Cheney, granddaughter of Rev. Horace Bushnell (B.A. 1827), sister of Horace B. Cheney, '90 S., Howell Cheney, '92, J. Davenport Cheney, ex-'92 S., Ward Cheney, '96, Austin Cheney, '98 S., and Frank D. Cheney, '00, and sister-in-law of Charles A. Goodwin, '98. Children: John, Williams '22; Frank Cheney; Horace Bushnell, ex-'28; Mary (died in infancy); Emily (B.A. Vassar 1930); and Barrett (died in childhood).

Death due to obstruction of the coronary artery. Buried in East Cemetery, South Manchester. Survived by wife, one daughter, three sons, and two sisters, Agnes L. Dawson, the wife of Percy M. Dawson (B.A. Johns Hopkins 1894 and M.D. 1898), of Swarthmore, Pa., and Harnet Learned Taussig, the wife of Albert E. Taussig (M.D. Washington University 1894), of St. Louis.
SCHOOL OF THE FINE ARTS

Born December 3, 1893, in Durand, Wis.
Died July 6, 1931, in Bend, Ore.

Father, Anton Mueller; in shoe business at Zumbro Falls, Minn.; also section foreman on railroad; musician; born in Witschin, Austria, and came to this country in 1877; son of Joseph and Frances (Heidle) Mueller. Mother, Lena Elizabeth (Feltner) Mueller; daughter of Michael Joseph and Mary (Schrube) Feltner, of Wabasha County, Minn.

High School, Hayward, Wis.; on staff of Sawyer County Record, Hayward, 1911-15; editor of Dassel (Minn.) Dispatch 1915-16; attended Oshkosh (Wis) State Normal School 1916-18; enlisted in Aviation Corps at Minneapolis January 7, 1918; trained at Pensacola, Fla., January-May, 1918; overseas June 4-November 18; served in Observation Balloon Section, Naval Aviation Corps, as Quartermaster, at Pauillac and Brest; wounded; received discharge March 20, 1919; with DeLuxe Check Printers, Minneapolis, March-September, 1919; studied at Minneapolis Institute of Fine Arts 1919-1920 and at Yale School of the Fine Arts 1920-24 (honorable mention in composition 1922; held American Institute of Architects Scholarship and awarded Fourth Year Honor Certificate, Course in Painting, 1923; honorable mention in advanced composition 1924); won a first medal in mural painting competition held by Beaux Arts Institute of Design, New York, 1922 and a second medal 1923; assistant in drawing at Yale 1923-24 and instructor in drawing 1924-25; won second place in competition for prize in painting of American Academy in Rome in 1924 and Prix de Rome Scholarship 1925; studied in Rome 1925-27; F.A.A R. 1928; had a private studio in New York City 1927-29; had since been professor and head of the Department of Painting and Drawing at University of Oregon; had exhibited at annual exhibition of New Haven Paint and Clay Club three years and in Milwaukee, Seattle, Portland, Ore., and Los Angeles; member American Academy of Rome and American Legion.

Unmarried.

Death due to acute appendicitis and peritonitis. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Cable, Wis. Survived by father, two brothers, Edward T. Mueller, of Cable, and Anton Mueller, of Milwaukee, and a sister, Mrs. Louis Brimmer, of Plum City, Wis.
SCHOOL OF MUSIC

Mary Louise Throop, Mus.B. 1928.

Born August 2, 1903, in Lakeside, Conn.
Died August 11, 1931, in Lakeside, Conn.

Father, George Throop, a farmer, millwright, and wagon maker; son of Dan and Olive (Smith) Throop, of Morris, Conn. Mother, Mary Louise (Bay) Throop, daughter of Christian Ludwig and Louise (Rau) Bay, of Wurttemberg, Germany.

Morris High School; taught in West Morris School 1920-23, studied in Yale School of Music 1923-28 (awarded Julia E. Stanley Knight Scholarship 1928); during that period taught music in Lakeside and was organist of Congregational Church, Morris; organist of First Congregational Church, Waterbury, Conn., 1928-29; assistant supervisor on music staff of Northfield Seminary 1929-1931; taught music in Lakeside and Waterbury 1931; member Christ Church (Episcopal), Bethlehem, Conn.

Death due to carcinoma of the breast and liver Buried in Lakeside Cemetery, Morris. Survived by mother, a sister, Mrs Albert J. Humphrey, of Morris, and a brother, George B. Throop, and a half brother, William C. Weik, both of Lakeside.
SCHOOL OF FORESTRY

Born April 7, 1881, in New York City.
Died March 10, 1932, in Pasadena, Calif.

Father, George Adam Weber; president of the Weber Rail Joint Company; founder and director of The Rail Joint of America; member 7th Regiment, New York National Guard; son of John Harrison and Caroline (Hoke) Weber, of New York City. Mother, Annie (Hoyt) Weber; daughter of William and Mary (Cahoon) Hoyt.

King’s School, Stamford, Conn., and tutor; B.A. Wesleyan 1903 (member Psi Upsilon); traveled during 1903-04; student in Yale School of Forestry 1904-06 (member Society of Robin Hood); consulting forester in Stamford 1907-08; with Gunn Richards Company, public accountants, 1908; vice-president of Munson-Whitaker Company, commercial and landscape foresters, New York City, 1908-1915; also chief fire warden and administrative officer of West Virginia Coöperative Fire Association 1913-15; with W. Hoyt Weber & Company, forest engineers, New York City, 1915-18; in Office of Forest Investigations on war work for the Forest Service in Washington, D. C., 1918-19; with Staats-Macy Company (real estate) in Pasadena December, 1920-May, 1921, becoming member of firm in April; had since been connected with its successor, the William Wilson Company (loans, real estate, and insurance), at first as a salesman and since July, 1921, as president; member Society of American Foresters and Union Chapel, Pasadena; secretary of Class of 1906 F., 1906-1920.

Married April 21, 1908, in Mount Vernon, N. Y., Helen Elethia, daughter of Hiram Lane and Helen (Lamb) Roberts. Children: Helen Elethia (Mrs. Dallas Sanders Scott); Ann Hoyt; and George Adam, 2d.

Death due to influenza and bronchopneumonia. Buried in San Gabriel (Calif.) Cemetery. Survived by wife, two daughters, son, mother, and three sisters, Mrs. Maurice Sweet, of Pasadena, and Mrs. Helen H. W. Anderson and Mrs. Caroline W. Luther, both of Stamford.

Frank Joseph Klobucher, M.F. 1916.

Born August 13, 1889, in Wilbur, Wash.
Died March 18, 1932, in Portland, Ore.

Father, John Klobucher, a wheat farmer; son of Joseph and Annie (Banyan) Klobucher, of Cernomel, Yugoslavia. Mother, Louise (Berghaus) Klobucher; daughter of Jacob and Mary (Loder) Berghaus, of Agram, Austria.

Wilbur High School; B.S. University of Washington 1914; ranger with U.S. Forest Service during summers 1911-15; studied in Yale School of Forestry 1915-16; assistant in forest products office of U.S. Forest Service at Missoula, Mont, 1916-17; enlisted as Sergeant in Corps of Engineers September 19, 1917; overseas November 12, 1917-April 11, 1919; served with Company E, 2d Battalion, 20th Engineers, and on detached service with 1st Army; at the front in advance sector on railroad survey and construction June-November 12, 1918, given discharge May 17, 1919; fire assistant in Selway National Forest, Kooskia, Idaho, 1919-1921; assistant in timber appraisal at Missoula 1921-23; general superintendent, secretary, and treasurer of Fred Herrick Lumber Company and the Malheur Railroad Company at Burns, Ore, 1923-29; independent timber broker at Burns 1929 and consulting engineer there 1930; consulting forester on timber lands and logging at Portland November, 1929-April, 1931, and since November, 1931; consulting engineer with James D. Lacey Company of Seattle April-November, 1931, being located in Manila, P. I., April-September; elected as senior member Society of American Foresters in 1923.

Married May 27, 1925, in Burns, Ore., Jeane Cook (B.A. University of Washington 1921), daughter of Jesse Silas and Agnes Lee (Nixon) Cook. One son, James Cook

Howard Rodgers Spelman, M.F. 1922.

Born November 17, 1899, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died January 26, 1932, in Rockville Center, N. Y.

Father, John Rodgers Spelman, consulting engineer in New York City and for Nassau County, N. Y.; son of William Dey Ermand and Julia Frances (Rodgers) Spelman, of Brooklyn. Mother, Elsie Rankin (Warnock) Spelman; daughter of John and Ellen Jane (Stewart) Warnock, of Orangeville, Ontario, Canada.

South Side High School, Rockville Center; B.S. Syracuse University 1920 (member Phi Kappa Psi and Alpha Xi Sigma); with United States Forest Service in Montezuma National Forest, Colorado, Selden Thomas Huntting, M.F. 1926.

Born November 16, 1902, in Cresco, Iowa.
Died at sea, near the coast of Texas, September 24, 1931.

Father, William Thomas Huntting, a grain dealer; manager of Cresco station of Huntting Elevator Company; son of Benjamin and Mary (Thomas) Huntting, of Cresco. Mother, Carrie Belle (Dale) Huntting; daughter of Thomas Bulmer and Matha Sandusky (Tibbetts) Dale, of Cresco.

Cresco Public High School; B.S. University of Michigan 1925 (member Tau Kappa Epsilon); entered Yale School of Forestry as a Senior; member of staff of Ohio State Forestry Department while at Yale; with United Fruit Company at Puerta Castilla, Honduras, and member of engineering staff of Truxillo Railroad Company 1926–27; connected with Firestone Tire & Rubber Company of Akron, Ohio, 1927–1931; planter and forester of the Firestone Plantations Company at Monrovia, Liberia, Africa, 1927–29; representative of the purchasing department at Singapore, Straits Settlements, and assigned to the office of Seremban, Federated Malay States, 1929–May, 1931; then at the Akron plant office of the company for a short time; member First Congregational Church, Cresco.

Unmarried.
Jumped overboard from a steamship bound from Beaumont, Texas, to New Orleans, La. Survived by mother, three brothers, Edward B. Huntting (University of Iowa and Missouri School of Mines and Metallurgy), of Prairie du Chien, Wis., Charles F. Huntting (B.S. in Business University of Minnesota 1928), of Minneapolis, Minn., and George G. Huntting (Michigan State College 1934), and five sisters, Miss Emily L. Huntting (B.S Iowa State College 1919), of Marquette, Mich., Miss Dale Huntting, of Wauwatosa, Iowa, Miss Inez Huntting (Milwaukee Downer College), Miss Marion Huntting, and Marjorie H. Nickel, the wife of Donald F. Nickel (B.S Michigan State College 1921).
SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

Albert Eugene Merrill, M.D. 1866.

Born July 24, 1842, in Barkhamsted, Conn.
Died July 14, 1931, in Los Angeles, Calif.

Father, Merlin Merrill, a farmer; town clerk of Barkhamsted; member of Connecticut Legislature; son of John and Elisabeth (Shepard) Merrill, of Barkhamsted. Mother, Clarissa (Newton) Merrill; daughter of Israel and Wealthy (Clark) Newton, of Colchester, Conn.

Williston Academy; attended Long Island College of Medicine 1865 and then entered Yale School of Medicine; practiced medicine in Hartford, Conn., 1866-68; owner of a general store and a drug store in Barkhamsted 1868-1870; member Connecticut Legislature 1869; practiced medicine in Vermilion, Ohio, 1870-79; mayor of Vermilion 1876-79; moved to Sandusky, Ohio, 1879 and studied law; admitted to the bar by Supreme Court of Ohio 1879; judge of probate for Erie County 1879-1891; practiced law in Sandusky as member of firms of Finney & Merrill and Kelley & Merrill 1891-1901 and then in Los Angeles until retirement in 1924; member of firms of Merrill & Hawkins and Hester, Merrill & Craig 1906-1914; also in mercantile business in Los Angeles as member of firm of Pierce Brothers, furniture dealers, 1902-05; member Ira Harris Cavalry, Hartford, 1861; founder and first president of The Macsmen (men's club) of the First Presbyterian Church, Hollywood, of which a member.

Married January 1, 1868, in Hartford, Frances Emily, daughter of Nathaniel Walter and Emily French (Haydon) Gaylord. Children: Albert Nathaniel (adopted); Annie Casad; and Monroe Erasmus (M.A. University of Southern California 1908).

Death due to chronic myocarditis. Buried in Hollywood Cemetery. Survived by wife, two sons, daughter, three grandchildren, one great-grandson, and a brother, Heman F. Merrill, of East Granby, Conn.

Richard Ward Westbrook, M.D. 1891.

Born February 3, 1864, in New Haven, Conn.
Died May 11, 1932, in New Canaan, Conn.

New Haven schools; general assistant in secretarial work with Professor Othniel C. Marsh of Yale 1879-1891; attended lectures in biology in Sheffield Scientific School before entering Yale School of Medicine in 1888; received M.D. cum laude and Campbell gold medal; interne at St. Mary’s Hospital, Brooklyn, N. Y., 1891-93; practiced surgery in Brooklyn from 1893 until retirement in 1930; assistant surgeon to Brooklyn Hospital 1896-1900, associate surgeon 1900-06, attending surgeon 1906-1919, senior surgeon 1919-1926, and consulting surgeon since 1926; consulting surgeon to Bethany Deaconess Hospital since 1921; consulting orthopedic surgeon to Jamaica Hospital 1903-06; lecturer on anatomy at Long Island College Hospital 1895-1905 and clinical professor of orthopedics 1902-06, had contributed articles on surgery to Brooklyn Medical Journal, American Journal of Surgery, Long Island Medical Journal, and Transactions of the Associated Physicians of Long Island (of which a member) and of the Brooklyn Surgical Society (of which president 1912-13); president of Brooklyn Medical Society 1905 and of Brooklyn Pathological Society 1906; on board of managers of Society for Relief of Widows and Orphans of Medical Men 1904-1913 and vice-president 1913 and 1914; during the war served as member of Medical Volunteer Service Corps and of medical section of New York State Council and of Kings County Committee of Council of National Defense and as president of Medical Advisory Board of Brooklyn; a founder and fellow of American College of Surgeons; member New York State and New York City Medical associations, American Medical Association, American Association for Cancer Research, Kings County Medical Society, Medical Society of Greater New York, Brooklyn Practitioners Club, and Phi Delta Fraternity; vestryman of St. Paul’s Episcopal Church, New Haven, 1887-1891 and of Church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn, 1924-1930.

Married July 22, 1895, in Brooklyn, Mary Lloyd, daughter of George and Henrietta Beebe (Lloyd) Wykes. Children. Lloyd (B.S. Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1924); and Katherine (B.A. Smith 1925) (Mrs. A. William Schoonmaker).

Death due to coronary thrombosis. Buried in Lakeview Cemetery, New Canaan. Survived by wife, son, daughter, and two grandchildren.

Joseph Barnard Hall, M.D. 1892.

Born September 29, 1868, in Hartford, Conn
Died May 24, 1932, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, Joseph Hall (Williams ex-'55; honorary M.A. Brown 1860, and Trinity 1875); teacher in Shelburne Falls (Mass.) Academy and Connecticut Literary Institution, Suffield, and principal of Hartford Public High School; state chemist; member Hartford Board of Health and Water and Park commissions; son of Seth and Olive Richardson (Graves) Hall, of Ashfield, Mass. Mother, Orvilla (Bassett) Hall; daughter of Francis and Mehetabel (Ford) Bassett, of Ashfield. Yale relatives include two nephews, Talcott Wainwright, '27, and Grosvenor Wainwright, ex-'30.

Hartford Public High School; entered Sheffield Scientific School with Class of 1890 (member Theta Delta Chi); left in December, 1889, and entered Yale School of Medicine; practiced medicine in Hartford 1892-1910; medical director of Hartford Life Insurance Company 1897-99; assistant medical director of Connecticut Life Insurance Company 1899-1907; secretary of Hartford Board of Health 1897-1903; member Hartford Public High School Committee 1907-08; member Hartford Medical Society and Trinity Church (Episcopal), Hartford.

Married June 29, 1905, in Hartford, Elizabeth Mayhew, daughter of William Augustus Muhlenberg Wainwright (B A. Trinity 1864; M.D. Columbia 1867) and Helena Barker (Talcott) Wainwright, and sister of Philip S. Wainwright, '08 S. One son, Joseph Talcott.

Death due to disease of the coronary arteries and chronic nephritis. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by wife and son.

Myron Potter Robinson, M.D. 1895.

Born February 24, 1871, in Lebanon, Conn.
Died May 4, 1932, at Windsor Locks, Conn.

Father, Henry Clinton Robinson, a farmer in Glastonbury, Conn.; son of Henry Minor and Harriet (Burnham) Robinson, of Scotland, Conn. Mother, Calista Angeline (Potter) Robinson; daughter of Thomas Cranston Hazard and Lucinda (Loomis) Potter, of Lebanon.

Connecticut Literary Institute, Suffield; attended Trinity College two years (1890-92) as member of Class of 1894 and then entered Yale School of Medicine; member Skull and Sceptre (Phi Rho Sigma); interne at Lying-in Hospital, New York City, 1895; practiced medicine in Terryville, Conn., 1895-1901 and since then in Windsor Locks; member Windsor Locks Chamber of Commerce 1915-1925, Hartford, Connecticut State, and American Medical associations, and Second Baptist Church, Suffield.

Married November 6, 1895, in Hartford, Minnie Deborah Edwards (Bethany College, Kans., 1885-87), daughter of John Penny and Sarah Leethe (Phillips) Edwards, of Glastonbury. One daughter, Marjorie Louise, the wife of Charles O. Bidwell, '12 S.

Death due to apoplexy. Buried in Green Cemetery, Glastonbury. Survived by wife, daughter, two grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Irvin Kinne, of Fort Edwards, N. Y.

Alva George Provost, M.D. 1905.

Born November 2, 1879, in Mowrystown, Ohio.
Died August 17, 1931, in Boston, Mass.

Father, Rev. Joseph Provost, a Congregational minister; pastor of French Church in Mowrystown, Craig Church, Montreal, and French churches in Springfield, Mass., and Torrington, Conn.; son of Joseph and Arckange (Danserau) Provost, of Sorell, Canada.

Mother, Sara (Vernier) Provost; daughter of Jean and Lydia (Boder) Vernier, of Pointe aux Trembles, Canada.

Springfield and Torrington high schools; entered Yale School of Medicine 1901 (chairman of Cap and Gown Committee; member Skull and Sceptre), connected with City Hospital, Blackwell's Island, N. Y., 1905-07 and with Riverside Hospital, New York City, 1907-08, had practiced medicine in New Haven since 1908, specializing in neurology, clinical assistant in neurology at Yale 1915-1921; member Church of the Messiah (Universalist), New Haven.

Married July 8, 1913, in New York City, Sarah Olive, daughter of Henry Augustus and Sarah Anne (Witham) Pierce. No children.

William Phelan Driscoll, M.D. 1919.

Born September 27, 1896, in Ansonia, Conn.
Died March 29, 1932, in New York City.

Father, William Francis Driscoll; engaged in wire manufacturing under name of Driscoll Wire Company, of Shelton, Conn.; town auditor, councilman, alderman, and member of Board of Education of Ansonia; son of Timothy and Bridget (Donahue) Driscoll, of Ansonia.

Mother, Elizabeth Gertrude (Phelan) Driscoll; daughter of Patrick and Jo Anna (Kennedy) Phelan, of Ansonia.
Ansonia High School; attended Catholic University, Washington, 1913–15 as member of Class of 1917; entered Yale School of Medicine 1915 (alternate Ramsay Scholar Junior year; Parker Prize Senior year and honorable mention for Keese Prize; M.D. cum laude; member Alpha Kappa Kappa); interne, New Haven Hospital, 1918–19; interne in surgery, Kings County Hospital, Brooklyn, 1919–1921; on staff of Bellevue Hospital since January, 1921, as interne on obstetrical service six months, resident obstetrician 1921–23, adjunct assistant visiting obstetrician 1923–1930, and assistant visiting obstetrician since 1930; adjunct assistant surgeon in gynecology at Woman’s Hospital since 1923; resident at John E Berwind Free Maternity Clinic 1922; interne, Woman’s Hospital in the State of New York, 1922–23; engaged in private practice in New York City since 1923, specializing in obstetrics; hematologist on staff of Mission Hospital since 1928 (on courtesy staff from 1925); assistant adjunct attending in gynecology on staff of City Hospital since 1929; member of courtesy staff of Booth Memorial Hospital since 1924; instructor in obstetrics and gynecology at Cornell Medical College since 1924; fellow of American College of Surgeons since 1928; member New York State and Celtic Medical societies and St. Patrick’s Cathedral, New York; secretary of Class of 1919 M. since 1920.

Married September 4, 1926, in Norwalk, Conn, Florence, daughter of John F. and Mary E. (McGinnis) Finn. One daughter, Patricia.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in St. Mary’s Cemetery, Ansonia. Survived by wife, daughter, mother, and two brothers, Joseph Driscoll (University of Maryland Dental School 1922–24), of St. Louis, Mo., and Leo Driscoll, of New York City.
SCHOOL OF LAW
BACHELORS OF LAWS

Granville Moss White, LL.B. 1877.

Born May 21, 1855, in Danbury, Conn.
Died October 16, 1931, in Morristown, N. J.

Father, Nelson Lloyd White, a lawyer; states attorney for Fairfield County, Conn.; member Connecticut State Legislature; Lieutenant Colonel of 1st Connecticut Artillery in Civil War; son of Ephraim Moss and Charity (Tucker) White, of Danbury. Mother, Sarah (Booth) White; daughter of David and Lorraine (Converse) Booth, of Kent, Conn.

The Gunnery School, Washington, Conn., and Hopkins Grammar School; entered Yale School of Law 1875 (member Lambda Sigma); admitted to Connecticut Bar 1877 and practiced law in Danbury until 1880, studied medicine at Columbia 1880–84 (M. D. 1884); interne at Charity, Maternity, and Chambers Street hospitals, and at Outpatient department, Roosevelt Hospital, 1884–86; practiced medicine in New York City 1886–1902; connected with Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York from 1886 until retirement in 1929, as medical examiner 1886–1890, assistant medical director and medical director 1890–1903, secretary of the company 1903–06, second vice-president 1906–1929, and manager of selected risks department 1927–29, a director of Morristown Trust Company twenty-nine years; member Loyal Legion and St Peter's Episcopal Church, Morristown.

Married June 12, 1884, in Danbury, Laura Dunham, daughter of Theodore and Maria Lois (Granniss) Tweedy. Children: Theodore Tweedy and Nelson Lloyd.

Death due to carcinoma of the esophagus. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Morristown. Survived by wife, two sons, and a sister, Mrs. Abbott Foster, of Danbury.

Born January 15, 1859, in Dorchester, Mass.
Died June 2, 1932, in New Haven, Conn.

New Haven High School; attended Yale School of Law 1881–83; member of Kent Club, practiced law in New Haven for a time and in... partnership with Robert E. Lee, '06 L.; later engaged in real estate business in Boston; retired from active business in 1922.

Jacob Bernard Klein, LL.B. 1884.
Born February 28, 1861, in Bridgeport, Conn.
Died March 17, 1932, in Bridgeport, Conn.

Father, Bernard Klein, a merchant in Bridgeport; son of Jacob Klein of Tiefenthal, Germany. Mother, Mary (Loewenthal) Klein; daughter of Bernhard and Bertha (Levy) Loewenthal, of Munich.

Bridgeport High School; began study of law in office of Robert E. DeForest, '67, in Bridgeport in 1882; entered Yale School of Law 1882; admitted to the bar in 1884 and had since practiced law in Bridgeport; partner with Robert E. DeForest in firm of DeForest & Klein 1885–1923; prosecuting attorney for City of Bridgeport 1893–97; counsel to Board of County Commissioners; member Bridgeport Board of Aldermen 1885–87; director of First National Bank & Trust Company of Bridgeport since 1911 and member of executive committee since 1926; on Commission of Child Welfare in the State of Connecticut and on advisory board of Bridgeport Community Chest; justice of Court of Appeals for B’nai B’rith since 1925; chairman of Democratic Town Committee; member American Bar Association, Bridgeport Bar Association (former president), and Congregation B’nai Israel (Park Avenue Temple), Bridgeport.

Married June 30, 1896, in Cleveland, Ohio, Ray, daughter of Henry Samuel and Hannah (Westheim) Rosenfeld. No children.

Death due to chronic valvular heart disease. Buried in B’nai Israel Cemetery, Fairfield, Conn. Survived by wife, a brother, Milton M. Klein, of New York City, and a sister, Mrs. Hiram Straus, of Cleveland, Ohio.

Fred Brainerd Mitchell, LL.B. 1885.
Born June 2, 1860.
Died August 11, 1931, in Hartford, Conn.

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the OBITUARY RECORD.
Samuel Clinton Morehouse, LL.B. 1885.

Born September 14, 1865, in Fairfield, Conn.
Died August 13, 1931, in Fairfield, Conn.

Father, Samuel Morehouse, principal of a public school in New York City; son of Samuel and Elizabeth (Ogden) Morehouse, of Fairfield. Mother, Angelina (Burr) Morehouse; daughter of Eben and Hannah Allen (Osborn) Burr, of Fairfield. Yale relatives include a first cousin, Bacon Wakeman, ’88 L.

Death due to hypertensive heart disease and nephritis. Buried in Oak Lawn Cemetery, Fairfield. Survived by wife, daughter, son, and two sisters, Mary E. Morehouse Jennings, the wife of Charles B. Jennings, ’87, and Miss Anne O. Morehouse, of Fairfield.

Carleton Edson Hoadley, LL.B. 1887.

Born February 16, 1862, in Plymouth, Conn.
Died November 14, 1931, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Henry Tomlinson Hoadley, a farmer; son of George Thompson and Eunice (Tomlinson) Hoadley, of Hoadleyville (Plymouth), Conn. Mother, Sarah Jennette (Judd) Hoadley; daughter of Amos Murray and Elizabeth Ann (Titus) Judd, of Watertown, Conn.

Plymouth High School; entered Yale School of Law in 1885 (a charter member of Corbey Court); had practiced law in New Haven since 1887; associated in practice with Cornelius T. Driscoll, ’69, 1887–1890; in partnership with Edwin S. Thomas, ’95 L., under firm name of Hoadley & Thomas 1900–1914; health officer for New Haven County 1893–1914 and also director of Gaylord Farm Sanitarium; member New Haven Common Council 1892 and 1893; referee in bankruptcy of United States District Court since 1914; member David Humphreys branch, Sons of the American Revolution, and United (Congregational) Church, New Haven.

Married (1) December 12, 1888, in Fishkill-on-Hudson, N. Y., Minnie, daughter of William Stotesbury, Jr., and Charlotte Fredericka (Meyer) Stotesbury. Children: Henrietta Judd (died in childhood); Charlotte Stotesbury (died in childhood); Sarah Jennette Judd (B.A. Smith 1914), the wife of Clarence C. Abbott, Williams ’21 S.; and Nelson Titus (B.S. Connecticut Agricultural College 1927). Mrs. Hoadley died December 18, 1926. Married (2) November 10, 1931, in New Haven, Kathryn Roys, daughter of Lawrence and Louise (Roys) Spencer, of Waterbury, Conn.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, one daughter, two sons, and two grandchildren.

Lyman Ormond Perley, LL.B. 1890.

Born February 28, 1866, in Emporia, Kans
Died November 24, 1931, in Omaha, Nebr.

Father, Isaiah Edward Perley; cashier of Emporia National Bank; junior partner in firm of Hamlin & Perley (music and art store), councilman of Emporia and county commissioner; son of Jesse Nye and Eliza (Emerson) Perley, of Berlin, Vt. Mother, Mary Jane (Allen) Perley; daughter of Asaph K. and Isabel (Frary) Allen, of New Hudson, N. Y.

Emporia High School; B.S. Northwestern University 1887; read law in office of Gillett & Sadler, Emporia, before entering Yale School of Law in 1889; LL.B. magna cum laude; member Corbey Court (Phi Delta Phi); practiced law in Omaha 1890–96 and again 1898–1931; specialized in documentary law; junior partner in firm of Meikle & Perley 1891–94; senior member of firm of Perley & Nolan 1904–1910; practiced in Kansas City, Mo., 1896–98; manager for Nast Mining Company at Bingham Canyon 1895; directed scientific stock feeding interests for Perley & Nolan in Wyoming and western Nebraska; member Omaha Bar Association and First Central Congregational Church, Omaha

Married December 10, 1895, in Omaha, Nora Racel, daughter of Edgar Milton and Julia Ann (Lawrence) Gibson Children: Edward Gibson, University of Nebraska 1915-17; Constance (B.A. Grinnell 1926), the wife of James A. Work (B.A. Grinnell 1926; Yale Graduate School 1928-1932), Anne Macgregor (B.A. Grinnell 1927; M.A. University of Nebraska 1929); and Nora, Grinnell 1933.

Death due to a brain tumor. Buried in Maplewood Cemetery, Emporia. Survived by wife, son, three daughters, and two sisters, Mrs. Francis A. Brogan, of Omaha, and Mrs. Justin Soden, of Emporia.

Jeremiah Dean Toomey, LL.B. 1890.

Born June 15, 1868, in Bridgeport, Conn.
Died June 14, 1932, in Mount Vernon, N. Y.

Father, Jeremiah Dean Toomey, a merchant; son of Jeremiah D. and Mary (McGuiness) Toomey, of Kilgarvin, Ireland. Mother, Bridget (Redmond) Toomey. Nephew: Frank H. Connelly, Jr., ’28 Bridgeport High School, studied law at Columbia 1888–89 and entered Yale School of Law as a Senior 1889; practiced law in Bridgeport 1890–1906 and then in Mount Vernon until death; member of firm of Gescheidt & Toomey 1906–1921; and since then of Toomey & Toomey, of which his son, Harold D. Toomey (B.A. 1920; LL.B. Fordham University 1922), is junior partner; city attorney of Bridgeport 1897; represented Bridgeport in Connecticut General Assembly 1892–94; special corporation counsel for Mount Vernon 1921 and 1922; chairman of Westchester County Progressive Committee 1912; member Westchester County Bar Association and St. Ursula’s Roman Catholic Church, Mount Vernon.

Married (1) June 26, 1896, in Bridgeport, Nellie T. Boland, who died December 20, 1899. Married (2) June 18, 1904, in New York City, Mary Gilbertha, daughter of Greenleaf Deforest and Virginia (Murgatroyd) Brown. Children: Harold Dean and Helen Lorraine.

Death due to septicaemia and diabetes. Buried in Gate of Heaven Cemetery, Valhalla, N. Y. Survived by wife, son, daughter, three sisters, Mrs. Frank H. Connelly and Mrs. Sarah Redmond, both of New Rochelle, N. Y., and Mrs. John J. McLaughlin, of New York City, and a brother, Dr. Frank D. Toomey, of New York City.

Robert Hughes McCreary, LL.B. 1891.

Born April 16, 1868, in Richmond, Ky.
Died March 1, 1932, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, James Bennett McCreary (B.A. Centre College 1857; LL.B. Cumberland University 1859); lawyer; member and speaker.
School of Law

of Kentucky House of Representatives; twice governor of Kentucky; member of Congress 1885–1897 and again 1903–09; Lieutenant Colonel, 11th Kentucky Cavalry, in Civil War; son of Robert and Sabrina (Bennett) McCreary, of Richmond. Mother, Catherine (Hughes) McCreary, daughter of Thomas Hughes, of Lexington, Ky.

Private schools in Richmond; B.A. Central University of Kentucky 1888 (member Delta Kappa Epsilon); attended Yale School of Law 1889–1891 (member Phi Delta Phi); practiced law 1891–93; deputy collector of customs in Chicago from 1893 until retirement in December, 1931; member Fourth Presbyterian Church, Chicago.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage following pneumonia. Buried in Richmond Cemetery. Survived by wife, son, and daughter.

Howard Clifford Joyce, LL.B. 1892.

Born May 11, 1871, in New Haven, Conn.
Died June 18, 1932, in Northport, N. Y.

Father, Charles Joyce; son of William Baird and Lucy (Lacy) Joyce, of Stepney, Conn Mother, Catherine Perina (McNeil) Joyce; daughter of James McNeil, of Stepney.

Bridgeport (Conn.) High School; entered Yale School of Law in 1890; practiced law in New York City for a short time in 1892 and then in Bridgeport until 1894; subsequently traveled for six months in this country; engaged in editorial work in San Francisco 1896–97; and in literary work in New York City 1900–1912 and in Albany 1912–16; had been an editor for the Edward Thompson Publishing Company, law book publishers, in Northport since 1916; joint author with his brother, Joseph A. Joyce: A Treatise on the Law Governing Damages (1903–04), A Treatise on the Law Governing Nuisances (1906), Electric Law (1907), A Treatise on the Law Governing Indictments (1908); author. A Treatise on the Law Relating to Injunctions (1909), Law Relating to Intoxicating Liquors (1910), The Law of Automobiles (1916); and editor of fourth edition of A Treatise on the Modern Law of Evidence, 5 vols. (1911–16); had contributed to Cyclopedia of Law and Procedure and to Encyclopedia of Evidence; member Trinity Episcopal Church, Northport.
Yale Obituary Record

Married April 5, 1897, in Nyack, N. Y., May Maud, daughter of Wilson Lee and Margaret (Muller) Defendorf, of New York City. Children: Gretchen Katharyn (Mrs. William J. Rixon); May Elizabeth (Mrs. Raymond Terry); Howard Clifford, Jr.; Joseph Defendorf (died in infancy); Winifred Isabel, Robert Edward; and John Charles (died in infancy).

Death due to pulmonary tuberculosis. Buried in Genola Cemetery, Northport. Survived by wife, three daughters, two sons, four grandchildren, and a brother, Joseph A. Joyce, of New York City.

James Parsons Woodruff, LL.B. 1893.

Born October 30, 1868, in Litchfield, Conn.
Died September 13, 1931, in Litchfield, Conn.

Father, George Morris Woodruff (B.A. 1857; LL.B. Harvard 1859), son of George Catlin Woodruff (B.A. 1825) and Henrietta Sophronia (Seymour) Woodruff, of Litchfield. Mother, Elizabeth Ferris (Parsons) Woodruff, daughter of James Bowne and Eliza Ferris (Cock) Parsons, of New York City. Yale relatives include: Horatio Seymour (B.A. 1797) (great-great-uncle); Origen S. Seymour (B.A. 1824) and Lewis B. Woodruff (B.A. 1830) (great-uncles), and George C. Woodruff, ex-'85 (B.A. Amherst 1885) (brother).

Phillips-Andover and Housatonic Valley Institute, Cornwall, Conn., B.A. Amherst 1891 (Freshman Baseball Team, manager of College Baseball Team; on Intercollegiate Tennis Team; member Psi Upsilon), student in Yale School of Law 1891-94 (LL.M. 1894; member Corbey Court), admitted to Litchfield County Bar 1893; practiced law in Litchfield from 1894; in partnership with his father under firm name of George M. and James P. Woodruff 1894-1930; clerk of Litchfield Probate Court 1895-1906 and judge of that court 1906-07, judge of Court of Common Pleas for Litchfield County 1914-1925, represented Litchfield in Connecticut General Assembly 1899 and 1903, member of Board of Burgesses of Litchfield 1895-98, warden of the Borough 1896-98, and auditor of the Borough 1927-1930, member Litchfield Board of Education 1894-1909 (chairman of board 1899-1900), director of Litchfield Savings Society since 1896, treasurer since 1926, vice-president 1909-1930, and president 1930-31, president of Mutual Savings Banks' Association of Connecticut 1930-31; director of First National Bank of Litchfield since 1910, vice-president 1926-1930, and president since then; director of Litchfield Mutual Fire Insurance Company since 1896, treasurer since 1903, and president since 1930; director of Litchfield Water Company since 1901 and vice-president since 1906; secretary
Robert Scott Alexander, LL.B. 1896.

Born December 22, 1873, in Danbury, Conn
Died May 14, 1932, in Danbury, Conn.

Father, Thomas Tindar Alexander, a politician; son of John Steel and Barbara (Tindar) Alexander, of Mount Freedom, N. J. Mother, Helen Jerusha (Wildman) Alexander; daughter of Levi Knapp and Mary Ann (Lovelace) Wildman, of Bristol, Conn.

Danbury High School; entered Yale School of Law in 1894 (first-year honors); practiced law in Danbury from 1896 until death; member of firm of Booth & Alexander 1903-1910; counsel for town of Danbury 1911; associate judge of City Court of Danbury 1901-07 and judge 1913-15; director of City National Bank of Danbury 1909-1929; served on Legal Advisory Board No. 12 of Danbury in 1918; attended Episcopal church.

Married November 24, 1897, in Danbury, Carrie Louise, daughter of Edgar and Martha Jammison (Elder) Peck. One son, Robert Scott, Jr.

Death due to angina pectoris and cardiac thrombosis. Buried in Wooster Cemetery, Danbury. Survived by wife and son
Yale Obituary Record

Walter John Walsh, LL.B. 1897.

Born July 7, 1875, in Pittsfield, Mass.
Died October 22, 1931, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Martin Walsh; connected with Candee Rubber Company of New Haven; born in Ireland; son of Walter John Walsh, of County Wicklow, Ireland. Mother, Elizabeth (Ahern) Walsh; born in Ireland. Yale relatives include a nephew, Walter T. Walsh, '20 S.

Hillhouse High School; entered Yale School of Law 1895; practiced law in New Haven from 1897 until death; in office of Pigott, Pardee & Ingersoll (James P. Pigott, '78, William S. Pardee, '82) 1897; in partnership with David E. FitzGerald, '95 L., under name of FitzGerald & Walsh 1897-1920; alone for ten years, and since June, 1931, had had his son, Walter W. Walsh, '29 and '31 L., in partnership with him; vice-president of New Haven County Bar Association 1924-27 and president 1927-1930 (member of committee on reorganization); president of New Haven County Bar Library Association 1927-1930; vice-president and chairman of police commission of Eastern Indian Neck Association since 1925; member American Bar Association, Connecticut State Bar Association, New Haven Chamber of Commerce (on board of directors), and St. Brendan's Roman Catholic Church, New Haven.

Married November 25, 1903, in Waterbury, Conn., Sarah Agnes, daughter of Anthony and Bridget (Mitchell) Whyte. Children: Mary Elizabeth (B.A. New Rochelle College 1926; ex-'29 L.); Walter Whyte; Helen Agnes; Lillian Veronica; and Rita Anne.

Death due to bronchial pneumonia. Buried in St. Lawrence Cemetery, West Haven. Survived by wife, four daughters, son, a sister, Mrs. Rose Walsh McDermott, and a brother, Edward M. Walsh, both of New Haven. Two other brothers, James E. Walsh, '80 L., and Maurice H. Walsh, ex-'93 Special M., died in 1910.

William Joseph Coughlin, LL.B. 1899.

Born October 18, 1876, in Middletown, Conn.
Died September 20, 1931, in Middletown, Conn.

Father, William Joseph Coughlin; member of firm of W. J. Coughlin & Sons, undertakers; son of John and Elizabeth (Daly) Coughlin, of Portland, Conn. Mother, Harriet E. (D'Arcy) Coughlin; daughter of Michael and Margaret (O'Connell) D'Arcy, of Middletown.

Middletown High School; attended Holy Cross College, Worcester, Frank Evans Northrop, LL.B. 1899.

Born July 16, 1871, in Milford, Conn
Died March 25, 1932, in Summit, N. J.

Father, Lennon Haswell Northrop, a carriage builder; son of Nathaniel and Minerva (Lennon) Northrop, of West Winfield, N. Y. Mother, Sarah Lucella (Roberts) Northrop; daughter of Albert and Sally Maria (Stevens) Roberts, of Thomaston, Conn.

Married (1) October 18, 1911, Edna May, daughter of William C.
Korth, of Jersey City, N. J. Married (2) October 1, 1927, in Summit, Ruth Minor, daughter of George Kramer and Harriet (Henion) Thompson. No children.

Death due to carcinoma of the stomach and pancreas, with contributory causes. Buried in Fairmount Cemetery, Chatham, N. J. Survived by wife and brother, Harry R. Northrop, of Trenton, N. J.

Alexander Arnott, LL.B. 1902.

Born September 12, 1875, in Belfast, Ireland.
Died April 4, 1932, in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Father, William Alexander Arnott; foreman of raw silk department of Cheney Brothers, South Manchester, Conn. Mother, Margaret Hasty (Drake) Arnott; daughter of James Drake, of Donaghadee, Ireland.

Came to Manchester, Conn, when about six years of age; prepared for college at South Manchester High School; B.A. Trinity 1900 (Commencement orator), attended Yale School of Law 1900-02 (member Kent Club and Pi Delta Alpha); had practiced law in Manchester since 1902 and also in Hartford since 1907; member of firm of Markham & Arnott 1907-1921 and again since 1925; member of firm of Markham, Arnott & Markham (in which John A. Markham, '21 L., was also a partner) 1921-25; assistant prosecuting attorney, Town Court of Manchester, 1903-09 and judge of the same court 1909-1921, town counsel of Manchester 1917-1921; member Manchester and Hartford Bar associations and Center Congregational Church, South Manchester.

Married November 24, 1908, in South Manchester, Frances Mae, daughter of Edwin Tracy and Sarah Doane (Bidwell) Carrier. No children.

Death due to hemorrhage from duodenal ulcer. Buried in East Cemetery, South Manchester. Survived by wife, mother, and a sister, Margaret A Collins (died April 9, 1932), the wife of Robert G Collins (D M D Harvard 1906).

Wilfrid Alan Greenwell, LL.B. 1905.

Born November 7, 1878, in Kealakekua, Kona, Hawaii.
Died October 29, 1931, in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Father, Henry Nicholas Greenwell (graduate of Royal Military College, Sandhurst, England, 1843); son of William Thomas and Dorothy (Smales) Greenwell, of Greenwell Ford, Lancaster, Dur-
School of Law

Charles Joseph Martin, LL.B. 1908.

Born June 16, 1887, in New Haven, Conn.
Died October 14, 1931, in West Haven, Conn.

Father, James Francis Martin; ranchman and cattle raiser in Iowa; son of Mathew and Margarett (Magann) Martin, of Davenport, Iowa. Mother, Annie Josephine (Kalaher) Martin; daughter of Michael and Mary Jane Kalaher, of New Haven.

Booth Preparatory School, New Haven; entered Yale School of Law 1905; took graduate work in the Law School 1908–09 (LL.M. 1909); had practiced law in New Haven since 1908; prosecuting attorney of Town Court of West Haven 1909–1915; deputy judge and clerk of same court June 3, 1915–November 1, 1920; corporation counsel for Town of West Haven since 1927; trial attorney for General Adjustment Bureau and for National Board of Fire Insurance Underwriters in Connecticut 1913–1928; member of Connecticut Legislature 1915–17; director and legal adviser of Grace Hospital, New Haven, since 1929; served on local Draft Board during the war; director of Orange Bank & Trust Company 1920–21; had engaged in real estate operations and aided in development of West Haven and of Pleasure Beach, Bridgeport, Conn; political agent in support of Federal Prohibition Amendment 1919-1920; member New Haven County Bar Association and St Lawrence Roman Catholic Church, West Haven.

Married April 17, 1912, in Bridgeport, Anna Elizabeth, daughter of William and Mary A (Campbell) Chew. Children: Charles Joseph, Jr (died in 1929); Anna Elizabeth (died in 1930); Dorothy Mary; Marion Gilmore; and Jane Sally Took his own life. Buried in St Lawrence Cemetery, West Haven. Survived by wife, three daughters, mother, and a brother, Edward J. Martin, of New Haven.

George LeRoy Weekes, LL.B. 1909.

Born August 2, 1884, in Harwich, Mass.
Died March 20, 1932, in Boston, Mass.

New Haven High School; attended Yale School of Law 1903-04 and again 1906-09 (chairman of recent case committee of board of editors of Yale Law Journal, editor-in-chief of Yale Shingle, and member Wayland Club and Cor bey Court); principal of West Side School, Middleboro, Mass., 1905-06; private secretary to S. W. Winslow, president of United Shoe Machine Company, Boston, 1909-1910, admitted to Massachusetts State Bar 1910 and had since practiced law in Boston.

Death due to broncho pneumonia. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Hudson, N Y. Survived by wife and three sons.

Alfred John White, LL.B. 1911.

Born March 1, 1889, in Boston, Mass.
Died February 13, 1932, in Winchester, Mass.

Father, Alfred Corbett White; district manager in New York for John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company of Boston; son of Thomas Hoxland and Caroline (Corbett) White, of London, England. Mother, Henrietta (Buch) White; daughter of Johannes and Rebecca (Myers) Buch, of Bremen, Germany.

Springfield (Mass.) High School; entered Yale School of Law 1908 (member Book and Gavel); admitted to Massachusetts Bar 1911; connected with a law firm in Boston 1911-13; head of legal department of Massachusetts Bonding & Insurance Company 1913-16; had since been engaged in manufacturing with Bicknell & Fuller Paper Box Company of Boston; assistant treasurer 1916-1920, treasurer 1920-28, and general manager since 1928, vice-chairman of New England division of National Paper Box Makers Association 1922 and chairman 1923; director of the National Association 1924-26; treasurer of Employers' Association of Eastern Massachusetts 1927-1931; in 1931 elected member for three years of Greater Boston Advisory Board of the Salvation Army; member finance committee of Town of Winchester 1930-32; president of Carton Club of Boston 1922; Private in Ambulance Company, Massachusetts State Guard, 1916-19; member Boston Chamber of Commerce and Faith Church (Congregational), Springfield.

Death due to acute appendicitis. Buried in Wildwood Cemetery, Winchester. Survived by wife, son, three daughters, father, a sister, Miss Beatrice White, of Scarsdale, N. Y., and a brother, Cecil K. White, of New Haven.

Charles Sumner Wiltsie, Jr., LL.B. 1927.

Born June 13, 1901, in Indianapolis, Ind.

Father, Charles Sumner Wiltsie, a lawyer; son of George and Lydia Ann (Nixon) Wiltsie, of Indianapolis. Mother, Mabel (Timberlake) Wiltsie; daughter of Arthur and Huldah (Williams) Timberlake, of Indianapolis.

Emerich Manual Training High School, Indianapolis, B.A. University of Indiana 1922 (member Beta Theta Pi); attended Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, 1923-24; advertising salesman and copywriter for Brooklyn Daily Eagle February-August, 1924; student in Yale School of Law 1924-27; had practiced law in Indianapolis since 1927; junior partner in firm of Wiltsie & Wiltsie 1927-29; deputy prosecuting attorney for Marion County 1929-1930; assistant counsel in legal department of Railroadmen's Building & Savings Asso-
Tale Obituary Record

250

Married August 24, 1929, in Hazelton, Pa., Alice Bernice, daughter of John Martin and Lizzie Dell (Beishline) Callaway. Children: David Sumner and John Callaway

Death due to influenzal pneumonia. Buried in Crown Hill Cemetery, Indianapolis. Survived by wife, sons, and parents.

MASTERS OF LAWS

Isaac Franklin Russell, LL.M. 1879.

Born August 25, 1857, in New Haven, Conn.
Died November 20, 1931, in New York City.

Father, Rev. William Henry Russell (honorary M.A. Wesleyan 1878), a Methodist Episcopal minister; son of Captain Russell and Eliza (Bell) Russell. Mother, Susan Voorhies (Hiller) Russell; daughter of Isaac Hiller, of Michigan.

Southold (N. Y.) Academy; B.A. New York University 1875 (Junior orator, Latin salutatorian; joint first fellow; president of Eucleian, winning Butler essay prize; and member Psi Upsilon and Phi Beta Kappa), LL.B. New York University 1877 (first prizeman and member Phi Delta Phi) and M.A. 1878; admitted to New York Bar August 25, 1878, graduate student in Yale School of Law 1878-1880 (D.C.L. 1880, president of Kent Club); LL.D. Dickinson College 1893; J.D. New York University 1904; practiced law in New York City from 1878 until retirement January 1, 1931; member of firm of Russell, Shevlm & Russell 1928-1930; specialized in bankruptcy cases and corporate law, special bankruptcy commissioner 1920-1931, chief justice of New York Court of Special Sessions 1910-16, professor of law at New York University since 1881 and also professor of political science 1882-1894; general secretary of American Social Science Association 1907-1910; special lecturer at St. Lawrence University 1918-1931; author. Outline Study of Law (1894, 1895, and 1900) and Outline of the Law of Damages (1912); edited Cases on Measure of Damages (1909); contributed to Albany Law Journal, Law Notes, American Lawyer, Bench and Bar, The Brief, University Law Review, Yale Law Journal, Columbia Law Review, Cyclopedia of Law and Procedure, Methodist Review, and Youth's Companion; president of New York City Phi Delta Phi Club 1928-1930; member American Academy of Political and Social Science, Institute of Christian Philosophy, Brooklyn Institute,
School of Law

Long Island Historical Society, New York University chapter of Theta Nu Epsilon, and Central Congregational Church, Brooklyn.

Married July 8, 1886, in Bay Ridge, N. Y., Ruth Ferriss (honorary L.H.M. New York University 1918), daughter of Walter Morgan Ferriss (B.A. Union 1845) and Sarah (Ryder) Ferriss. Children: William Morgan (New York University Law School 1904-06), Franklin Ferriss (B.A. New York University 1911; B.A. Oxford University 1913, B.C.L. 1914, M.A. 1924; J.D. New York University 1915); George Phelps (B.A. New York University 1917); and Austin Abbott.

Alfred John Brockschmidt, LL.M. 1883.

Born August 11, 1860, in Quincy, Ill.
Died October 22, 1931, in Quincy, Ill.

Father, John Henry Brockschmidt; owner and operator of a hat store in Quincy; born in Hanover, Germany. Mother, Caroline Mary (Epple) Brockschmidt; daughter of John Paul and Mary Ann (Raes) Brockschmidt, of Quincy.

St. Boniface Parochial School, Quincy; B.A. St Francis (now Quincy) College 1879 and M.A. 1881; LL.B. Chaddock College 1882; also studied law in office of Orville H. Browning, Quincy; graduate student in Yale School of Law 1882-84, admitted to Illinois Bar in October, 1883; had practiced law in Quincy since 1884; had studied music in Quincy and during law course at Yale was organist in a Roman Catholic Church in New Haven and taught piano; organist of St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church, Quincy, 1884-88; member St. Boniface's Roman Catholic Church, Quincy.

Married August 28, 1901, in St. Louis, Mo., Mathilda Alexandrine, daughter of Philibert Alexandre and Emilie Jean Francoise (Sire) Loire. No children.

Death due to cardiac dilatation. Buried in Calvary Cemetery, St. Louis. Survived by wife.
William Henry Burtner, Jr., LL.M. 1895.

Born April 30, 1873, in Cincinnati, Ohio
Died February 5, 1932, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Father, William Henry Burtner; son of Peter Burtner. Mother, Teresa Elizabeth (Deagle) Burtner; daughter of Lorenzo M. Deagle.

LL.B University of Michigan 1894; graduate student in Yale School of Law 1894–95; had practiced law in Cincinnati since 1895; connected for a time with Stephens, Lincoln & Stephens; adviser to Ohio State Historical Site Marking Commission; Republican precinct committeeman in 13th Ward for several years and secretary of Republican Central Committee at death; director of Avondale Republican Club; vice-president of Southwestern Fish and Game Commission; member Cincinnati Home Guard 1918 and of Legal Advisory Board and Draft Board No. 5; member Bar Association of Cincinnati, Sigma Chi Fraternity, and Episcopal Church, Hartwell, Ohio.

Death due to cancer of pancreas and liver. Buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati. Survived by wife and mother.
DIVINITY SCHOOL
Lucius Orren Lee, B.D. 1875.

Born January 12, 1845, in Kenosha, Wis.
Died January 22, 1932, in Auburndale, Mass.

Father, Leonard Lee; farmer; owner and manager of a flax tow factory and manager of a furniture factory at Kenosha; son of Orren and Ruth (Johnson) Lee, of Manlius, N. Y. Mother, Sophia Alathea (Cook) Lee; daughter of Major Aaron Cook and Miriam (Munn) Cook, of Northampton, Mass.

Oberlin Preparatory Department; B.A. Oberlin 1872; studied in Yale Divinity School 1872-75; ordained to Congregational ministry November 17, 1875, at Owosso, Mich., where pastor five years; missionary of the American Board in Marash, Turkey, 1880-1910; also principal of Marash Theological Seminary and professor of systematic and New Testament theology and comparative religions; during a furlough studied at Andover Theological Seminary 1885-86 and at Union Theological Seminary 1886-87; member board of managers of Central Turkey College at Aintab and College for Girls in Marash; taught literature of the Bible and general history at Fisk University 1910-11; resided in Chicago 1911-12, in Evanston, Ill., 1912-1926, and in Auburndale since 1926; D.D. Tabor 1897; member Auburndale Congregational Church.

Married (1) June 9, 1880, in Olivet, Mich., Mary Eliza Topping (B.A. Olivet 1878), daughter of Albert and Hepsey (Mosier) Topping. Children: Frank Albert (died in 1898); Harriet Althea (B.A. Mount Holyoke 1907); and Mary Effie (Ph.B. Parsons College 1909), the wife of Eugene A. Turner (B.A. Wake Forest College 1905, M.A. 1906, LL.B. 1907). Mrs. Lee died March 5, 1885.

Death due to infirmities of age. Buried in Newton (Mass.) Cemetery. Survived by wife, three daughters, and a brother, Rev. Frank T. Lee, '77 D.
Edward Payson Armstrong, B.D. 1878.

Born May 28, 1852, in Mansfield, Conn.
Died November 26, 1931, in State College, Pa.

Father, George Badger Armstrong, a farmer; also a grocer in New York City, son of Azariah and Martha (Waterman) Armstrong, of Franklin, Conn. Mother, Delia (Arnold) Armstrong; daughter of John Arnold, of Mansfield Center, Conn.

Natchaug High School, Willimantic, Conn.; B.A. Amherst 1875; studied in Yale Divinity School 1875-79 (member Yale Glee Club 1875-77 and Lowell Mason Society 1878-79); pastor of Congregational Church, Bridgewater, Vt., 1879-1880; ordained to Congregational ministry February 15, 1881, in Killingworth, Conn., where pastor 1880-82; pastor Taftville, Conn., 1882-85; organizer of Physical and Musical departments of School for Christian Workers, Springfield, Mass., 1885 and instructor in the Sunday School Department until 1894; also superintendent of Hope Church (Congregational) Bible School 1885-1894; organizer of Central Presbyterian Church Sunday School, Rochester, N.Y., 1894 and its superintendent until 1896, associate pastor of Humphrey Street Congregational Church, New Haven, 1896-98; pastor of Bay Shore (N.Y.) Congregational Church 1898-1908; Ocean Avenue and Borough Park Congregational churches, Brooklyn, N.Y., 1908-1913; Immanuel Congregational Church, Atlanta, Ga., 1913-15; East Side Congregational Church, Binghamton, N.Y., 1915-19; Union Congregational Church, Henrietta, N.Y., 1919-1921; and First Congregational Church, Randolph, N.Y., from 1921 until retirement in 1929, had since resided in State College; editor of Church News, Rochester, 1894-96; member Springfield (Mass.) Superintendents' Union, New York City and Western New York Congregational Church associations, and First Congregational (now Federated) Church, Randolph.

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Oak Ridge Cemetery, Unionville, Pa. Survived by wife and sons.

Born January 16, 1853, in Wheelersburg, Ohio.
Died December 10, 1931, in New Brunswick, N. J.

Father, Rev. Lysander Kelsey (B.A. Middlebury 1840; Lane Theological Seminary 1845), a Presbyterian minister in Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, and Oregon; son of Ethan and Olive (Oliver) Kelsey, of Sudbury, Vt. Mother, Mary Selby (Duncan) Kelsey; daughter of Ennis and Hester Duncan (Collard) Duncan.

Columbus (Ohio) High School; B.A. Marietta 1874; taught in district schools near Columbus 1874–75; studied at Andover Theological Seminary 1875–77; acting pastor of Congregational Church, Ashville, N. Y., 1877–78; attended Yale Divinity School 1878–1881; ordained to Congregational ministry at New Haven April 21, 1881; pastor at Weston, Conn., 1881–82; Congregational Church, Almont, Mich., 1882–84; assistant pastor Seventh Presbyterian Church, New York City, 1884–85; pastor Presbyterian Church, Cutchogue, N. Y., 1885–89; Prospect, Ohio, 1889–1890; and South Amenia, N. Y., 1890–94; principal of high school, Sharon, Conn., 1894–99; pastor Congregational Church, Coney Island, N. Y., 1899–1901; had since been engaged as a music teacher, piano tuner, and director of orchestras in Brooklyn, N. Y., 1901–1917 and in New Brunswick since 1917; member First Presbyterian Church, New Brunswick.

Married (1) July 29, 1881, in New Haven, Julia Childs Baldwin, a graduate of Mount Holyoke Seminary (now College) 1880, daughter of Elijah Clark and Juliett (Childs) Baldwin. Children: Arthur Baldwin; Florence Duncan (B.A. Syracuse 1911), the wife of T. Edward DuBois (Ph.B. Syracuse 1909); and Josephine Dykman (Mrs. David J. Schultze). Mrs. Kelsey died February 3, 1893.

Married (2) July 1, 1896, in Dover Plains, N. Y., Marion Augusta, daughter of George Marvin Wellman (B.A. Amherst 1861 and M.A. 1867; M.D. Georgetown Medical College 1868) and Jennie (Cole) Wellman. Children: Marion Wellman (Mrs. Walter G. Osborn); Marguerite Bliss (Mrs. Austin J. Tressler); and Lucille Maude.

Death due to pulmonary edema. Buried in Van Liew Cemetery, New Brunswick. Survived by wife, five daughters, son, eight grandchildren, a sister, Mrs. Charles F. Hauke, of Washington, D. C., and a brother, George D. Kelsey, of Cleveland, Ohio.
Charles Wellington Shelton, B.D. 1881.

Born July 3, 1857, in Derby, Conn.
Died March 1, 1932, at Redding Ridge, Conn.

Father, George Wellington Shelton; head and principal owner of firm of Shelton & Osborn, manufacturers of wooden novelties, in Derby; son of George and Betsy (Wooster) Shelton, of Huntington, Conn. Mother, Margaret (Atwood) Shelton; daughter of Elijah Gregory and Jane (Gray) Atwood, of Salem, N.Y.

Peekskill Military Academy; attended Yale Divinity School 1878-1881; ordained to Congregational ministry at Derby, March 12, 1881; pastor at Dell Rapids, S. Dak., 1881-83; financial secretary of Yankton College 1883-85; western district secretary of American Missionary Association at Chicago 1885-86; secretary of Indian missions work of the association in New York City 1886-1892; eastern field secretary of Congregational Home Missionary Society 1892-1902; superintendent and treasurer of the Congregational churches in New York State and of New York City Congregational Church Extension Society from 1902 until retirement in 1923; D.D. Yankton 1910; an incorporator of the present Congregational Conference of the State of New York in 1914 and of New York City Congregational Church Association in 1922; member Broadway Tabernacle Church, New York City.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage and nephritis. Buried in Redding Ridge Cemetery. Survived by wife (died April 22, 1932), a son, a granddaughter, a brother, William A. Shelton, ex-'76 S., and two sisters, Mrs. Cora S. Smith, of Larchmont, N.Y., and Mrs. Margaret S. Wright, of Tallmadge, Ohio.

Charles Edgar Wilbur, B.D. 1882.

Born October 8, 1853, in Manorville, N.Y.
Died December 1, 1931, in Bellevue, Pa.

Father, Jeremiah Greenfield Wilbur; merchant, justice of the peace, and postmaster in Manorville; Captain of militia during Civil War, son of William Benjamin and Marcia (Greenfield) Wilbur, of Delhi, N.Y. Mother, Hannah Amelia (Morse) Wilbur; daughter of Freeman Porter and Sarah (Worthington) Morse, of Stoughton, Mass.

Manorville School and private tutor; B.A. Adrian 1877 (member Delta Tau Delta); ordained to Methodist Protestant ministry in New York City October 8, 1878; pastor Grand Street Methodist Church, Brooklyn, 1877–1880; studied at Yale Divinity School 1879–1882; during his course pastor of Temple Street (now Dixwell Avenue) Congregational Church 1880; pastor at Sharpsburg, Pa., 1882; professor of history and English literature at Adrian College 1883–1892 (also supplied pulpit of Congregational Church there eight years); pastor at Amity, Pa., 1892–94, Fairmount, W. Va., 1894–95, and Bellevue 1895–98 (pastor emeritus since 1926); editor of Sunday school periodicals of Methodist Protestant Church, Pittsburgh, 1898–1926; retired from active work 1927; Ph.D. Adrian 1890, LL.D. 1920; D.D. Temple University 1892; taught men's Bible class at Bellevue Church over thirty years; director of Pittsburgh Milk & Ice Association; member World Sunday School Association, International Sunday School Lesson Committee 1914–1924, and Sunday School Commission under American Near East Relief Commission 1918 and 1919; honorary member Adrian chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Married October 18, 1882, in Glassboro, N. J., Julia Lovinia (student in music at Adrian), daughter of Walter Henry and Rose Anna (Conover) Zane. An adopted daughter, Cordelia Morgan, the wife of John Jewell (B.A. Washington and Jefferson 1916).

Death due to paralysis. Buried in Methodist Protestant Cemetery, Glassboro. Survived by wife, daughter, four grandchildren, and three sisters, Mrs. Homer Whitson, of Port Jefferson, N. Y., Mrs. Fannie Wilbur Lane, of Manorville, and Mrs. Julia Wilbur Maynard, of Speonk, N. Y.

James Alexander Craig, B.D. 1883.

Born March 5, 1854, at Fitzroy Harbor, Ontario, Canada.
Died May 15, 1932, in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Father, James Craig, a farmer. Mother, Rachel (Cughan) Craig. B.A. McGill University 1880; studied in Yale Divinity School 1880–83; ordained at Grand Haven, Mich., June 22, 1883; instructor in Hebrew and adjunct professor of Biblical languages at Lane Theological Seminary 1886–1890 and professor of Biblical exegesis 1890–91; acting professor of Old Testament language and literature at Oberlin Theological Seminary 1891–92; carried on special investigations in Assyrian at the British Museum and in Berlin 1892–93; professor of Oriental languages at University of Michigan 1893–94 and professor of Semitic language and literature and Hellenistic Greek 1894–1913; professor of Semitics at University of Toronto from 1913 until retirement in 1919; lecturer on relation of Semitics to religion; author: Inscriptions of Salmanassar, King of Assyria, 859–826 B.C. (1887), Metrical Translation of the Epic of Ishtar; Hebrew Word Manual (1890), Assyrian and Babylonian Religious Texts (Vol. I 1895; Vol. II 1897), and Astronomical-Astrological Texts of Babylonians (1899); editor of The Semitic Series of Handbooks; member of Congress of Arts and Sciences at St. Louis, Mo., 1894, member Vorderasiatische Gesellschaft, Berlin; Ph.D. University of Leipzig 1886.

Married April 19, 1899, in Lawrence, Kans., Marion Matheson Innes (Kansas University 1896–97), daughter of George and Eliza (Matheson) Innes. Children: Catherine Gibson (Mrs. C. C. Stonier), University of Southern California 1925; and Shirley Cughan, University of Southern California 1923, the wife of Duane Jones (B.S. University of Pennsylvania 1921).

Death due to coronary thrombosis and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Craig family plot, Arnprior, Ontario. Survived by two daughters, one grandchild, a brother, J. Thompson Craig, of Fitzroy Harbor, and a sister, Mrs. Annie Craig Hamilton, of Quyon, Quebec.

Robert Mann Strickler, B.D. 1883.

Born August 13, 1851, in Philippi, W Va.
Died March 16, 1932, in New Castle, Pa.

Father, Isaac Harrison Strickler, a merchant and postmaster in Philippi; officer in Confederate Army; son of Joseph Strickler, 2d, and Mary (Miley) Strickler, of Page County, Va. Mother, Margaret (Jarvis) Strickler; daughter of Solomon and Elizabeth (Rightmire) Jarvis, of West Virginia

Preparatory Department, University of West Virginia; attended University of Virginia 1871–72, took an optional course at Cornell in 1876; studied law, admitted to the bar at Philippi in May, 1878, and practiced law there; studied in Yale Divinity School 1880–83; ordained to Baptist ministry May 1, 1884, at Guyandotte, W. Va., where he was pastor of First Baptist Church; subsequently held pastorates in Virginia, Maryland, Kentucky, Alabama, and District of Columbia, retired from ministry in December, 1917; member First Baptist Church, New Castle, at death (honorary member of advisory board of the church and teacher in Men’s Bible Class five years).
Married October 13, 1881, in Luray, Va., Laura Rebecca, daughter of Isaac Mann and Mary Ellen (Strickler) Spitler. Children: Laura (Georgetown [Ky.] College); Arthur Preston (died in 1887); Margaret (West Virginia University); Robert Mann, Jr.; and Mary (Broadus College 1914-17). Mrs. Strickler died September 5, 1927.

Death due to acute nephritis. Buried in Oak Park Cemetery, New Castle. Survived by one son, three daughters, and four sisters, Mrs. Samuel VanH. Woods, Mrs. William A. Burdette, Mrs. E. Fay Ervin, and Mrs. Richard E. Talbott.

Edmund Lyman Hood, B.D. 1885.

Born August 18, 1858, in Ravenna, Ohio.
Died August 14, 1931, in Oakland, Calif.

Father, Edmund Bostwick Hood, a civil engineer; son of John M. and Maria Starr (Curtis) Hood, of Ravenna. Mother, Mary Rose (Lyman) Hood; daughter of Darius Lyman (B.A. Williams 1810) and Lucy Ann (Walbridge) Lyman, of Ravenna.

- Cleveland (Ohio) High School; studied at University of Minnesota 1877-1880; attended Yale Divinity School 1882-85; ordained to Congregational ministry August 15, 1885; at Glen Ullin, N. Dak., where pastor 1885; studied at Oxford University 1885-86; pastor, Knoxville, Tenn., 1886-87; superintendent of Congregational missions and schools in New Mexico and Arizona 1887-1894; pastor Park Church, Berkeley, Calif., 1894-95; took graduate work at University of California 1895-98 (M.A. 1896; fellow 1896-98) and at New York University 1898-99 (Ph.D. 1899); pastor, Aquebogue, N. Y., 1899-1903 and Union Congregational Church, Jacksonville, Fla., 1904-05; president and professor of church history, Atlanta Theological Seminary, 1905-1919; pastor First Congregational Church, River Edge, N. J., 1919-1924; professor of history at Honolulu Theological Seminary and lecturer in philosophy and ethics at University of Hawaii 1924-26; pastor Congregational Church, Roseland, La., from 1926 until retirement in 1928; lived at Penney Memorial Home, Penney Farms, Fla., 1928-1930 and since then in Claremont, Calif.; delegate to International Council of Congregational Churches in London 1891, Boston 1899, and Edinburgh 1908; delegate from Hawaii 1925; secretary at one time of Congregational Ministers Meeting of New York and vicinity; author: Pedagogy in the Middle Ages (1898), History of the National Council of Congregational Churches (1901), History of the Greek Russian Church in America (1902), History of the New West Education Commission (1905), and Christ in the Church and in Literature (1911); secretary of Class of 1885 D. since graduation; vice-president of Yale Association of Class Secretaries 1919–1920; charter member American Church History Society; member Church of Christ in Yale University.

Death due to a stroke of paralysis. Buried in Pomona, Calif. Survived by wife, son, two daughters, nine grandchildren, and a brother, William L. Hood (M.D. Hahnemann Medical College of the Pacific, San Francisco, 1897), of Sonora, Calif.

Charles Luther Kloss, B.D. 1885.

Born November 7, 1862, in New Berlin, Pa.
Died October 28, 1931, in San Francisco, Calif.

Father, Rev. Daniel Kloss (B.A. University of Michigan 1858, Union Theological Seminary ex-’61; D.D. Highland 1884), a Lutheran minister in Pennsylvania and Kansas; professor of French and German, Highland University; regent of Tempe (Ariz.) State Teachers College; son of Daniel and Elizabeth (Sterninger) Kloss, of Union County, Pa. Mother, Rebecca Jane (Kloss) Kloss; daughter of David and Margaret (Kantz) Kloss, of Pennsylvania.

Public schools in Lykens, Pa., and Highland, Kans.; B.A. Highland College 1882, M.A. 1886; studied at Chicago Theological Seminary 1882–84 and then entered Yale Divinity School; studied at University of Heidelberg six months in 1887 and at University of Berlin 1887–88; ordained to Congregational ministry October 12, 1885, at Axtell, Kans., where pastor to 1887 and two months in 1888; pastor Argentine, Kans., 1889–1891; Tabernacle Church, Kansas City, Mo., 1891–97; First Congregational Church, Webster Groves, Mo., 1897–1904; Central Congregational Church, Philadelphia, 1904–1910; spent year 1910–11 in travel and supply of various pulpits; pastor First Congregational Church, Webster Groves, 1911–17; Plymouth Church, Oakland, Calif., 1917–1923; and San Mateo (Calif.) Community Church 1923–1931; D.D. Highland 1905 and Drury 1907; secretary of Church Building Society while in Philadelphia; alumni lecturer in Yale Divinity School 1906-07; contributed daily articles to Oakland (Calif.) Tribune for some time.
Divinity School

261

Married November 7, 1888, in Axtell, Mary, daughter of Edwin Phillips (M.D. Jefferson Medical College 1864) and Sara (Tate) Phillips, of St. Louis. Children: Daniel Charles (Pomona ex-14 and University of Pennsylvania Law School 1911 and 1912); Roxana (died in childhood); Sara, University of Wisconsin 1914 and 1915; and Phillips (B.A. University of California 1925).

Death due to lymphosarcoma. Buried in Mountain View Cemetery, Oakland, Calif. Survived by wife, two sons, one daughter, and a sister, Mrs. Peru P. Daggs, of Claremont, Calif.

Ward Taylor Sutherland, B.D. 1887.

Died August 18, 1931, at Clifton Springs, N. Y.

Father, Rev. Andrew Sutherland, Oberlin ex-48; a Methodist Episcopal minister in the Genesee Conference; son of Andrew and Naomi (Cooley) Sutherland, of Lockport, N. Y. Mother, Mary (McLean) Sutherland; daughter of William and Elizabeth (DeGroat) McLean, of New York City. Nephews: Charles R. Ely, ’91, and Richard G. Ely, M.A. 1907.

Genesee Wesleyan Seminary, Lima, N. Y.; B.A. University of Rochester 1878, M.A. 1882 (member Psi Upsilon); taught at Western New York Institute for Deaf Mutes in Rochester 1878-1884; studied at Yale Divinity School 1884-87; ordained to Congregational ministry September 1, 1887, at Ashland, Wis., where pastor until 1889; pastor Park Avenue Congregational Church, Meadville, Pa., 1889-1894; First Congregational Church, Oxford, N. Y., 1894-1903; First Congregational Church, Wellsville, N. Y., 1903-1914; First Congregational Church, Tallmadge, Ohio, 1914-1920; and First Congregational Church, Rock Creek, Ohio, from 1920 until his retirement January 1, 1931; D.D. University of Rochester 1896; an organizer of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America; chaplain of Masonic Lodge of Rock Creek at death.

Lucius Harrison Thayer, B.D. 1888.

Born November 28, 1857, in Westfield, Mass.
Died September 20, 1931, in Dublin, N. H.

Father, Lucius Fowler Thayer; civil engineer; president of Westfield Savings Bank; member dry goods firm of Gillett, Snow & Thayer; son of Lucius Fowler and Lydia (Ellsworth) Thayer, of Westfield. Mother, Martha Ann (Harrison) Thayer; daughter of Hiram and Martha (Lee) Harrison, of Westfield.

Westfield High School; entered Amherst with Class of 1878, but left in a short time on account of ill health; supercargo on ship "Lucy S. Wills" 1876–78; then reentered Amherst (B.A. 1882; president of his class, manager of Glee Club, and member Psi Upsilon); with Franklin Foundry & Machine Company, Providence, R. I., 1882–84; read law in office of H. B. Stevens in Westfield and taught in the Green District Grammar School 1884–85; student in Yale Divinity School 1885–1890 (graduate fellow 1888–89); had charge of a mission parish in Cando, N. Dak., summer of 1887 (work resulted in organization of a church); ordained to Congregational ministry January 28, 1891, at Portsmouth, N. H., where pastor of North Congregational Church 1890–1928 and then pastor emeritus; D.D Dartmouth 1909 and Amherst 1929; alumni lecturer in Yale Divinity School 1914–15; president of New Hampshire Home Missionary Society from 1909 until its merger with New Hampshire Congregational Conference in 1920 and then president of the latter until death (member of finance and investment committee of both organizations); director of Congregational Home Missionary Society 1909–1923; member of prudential committee of American Board 1907–1916 and first vice-president since 1929; chairman of commission on missions of Congregational National Council 1923–27; director of Boston's Seaman's Friend Society 1920–1930, vice-president 1922–23, and president 1923–25; member Portsmouth Board of Education 1895–1929; author of several addresses printed in pamphlet form, among them the historical discourses at the 250th anniversary celebration of founding of Town of Westfield in 1919, the 250th anniversary exercises of the First Congregational Church, Westfield, in 1921, and the 250th anniversary of the First Congregational Church, Westfield, in 1929, composed several hymns; editor and compiler of Responsive Readings in first edition of the Pilgrim Hymnal (1904); had contributed a series of twenty “Congregationalist Services” to the Congregationalist (1893–94), and also poems, member of commission on public worship of National Council of Congregational Churches 1917–19, of commission on missions Married June 29, 1892, in Westfield, Helen Chadwick Rand (B.A. Smith 1884; student at Newnham College, Cambridge, 1886–87), daughter of Albert Tyler and Sophia Anna (Chadwick) Rand. Children: Dorothy Goldthwait (B.A. Smith 1915), the wife of Rev. Theodore A. Greene (B.A. Amherst 1913 and M.A. 1915; Union Theological Seminary); Lucius Ellsworth (B.A. Amherst 1918; LL.B. Harvard 1923); and Sherman Rand (B.A. Amherst 1926; M.B.A. Harvard 1928).

Death due to coronary thrombosis. Buried in Pine Hill Cemetery, Westfield. Survived by wife, daughter, two sons, four grandchildren, a sister, Miss Mary S. Thayer, of Westfield, and two brothers, Rev. Charles S. Thayer (B.A. Amherst 1886; B.D. 1895; Ph.D. Göttingen 1901) and William F. Thayer (B.S. Worcester Polytechnic Institute 1885), of Charlestown, Mass.

Dryden William Phelps, B.D. 1892.

Born March 16, 1854, in New Haven, Conn.
Died December 22, 1931, in Berkeley, Calif.

Father, Rev. Sylvanus Dryden Phelps (B.A. Brown 1844; graduate Yale Divinity School 1847; honorary M.A. Yale 1849; D.D. Colgate 1854); son of Israel and Mercy (Stevens) Phelps, of Suffield, Conn. Mother, Sophia Emilia (Linsley) Phelps; daughter of Rev. James Harvey Linsley (B.A. 1817) and Sophia Brainard (Lyon) Linsley, of Stratford, Conn. Yale relatives include a nephew, Rev. Dryden L. Phelps, '17.

Hopkins Grammar School; entered Yale College with Class of 1876, but left at end of Sophomore year (member Delta Kappa); studied at Brown 1874–77 (B.A. 1877); licensed to preach 1876; assistant editor of Christian Secretary 1877–1880; studied in Hartford Theological Seminary 1880–83; engaged in study in New Haven 1884–85; agent of Connecticut Bible Society in Bethel, Litchfield, Seymour, and Danbury 1885–1894; ordained to Baptist ministry February 16, 1887, at Wilmington, Vt., where pastor until 1889; supply at Haddam (Conn.) Baptist Church of Shalerville 1889–1890; student in Yale Divinity School 1891–92; lived in Huron, Mich., 1892–93; pastor in North Egremont, Mass., for part of 1893; First Groton Church, Old Mystic, Conn., 1895–99; and also Ledyard, Conn., 1898–99; had subsequently engaged in literary work and in preaching in various churches; made his home in New Haven, but often spent the winter in Los Angeles and San Diego, Calif.; during 1907-08 served as pastor of Baptist Church, Hueneme, Calif.; Litt.D. National University (Chicago) 1893; clerk of New Haven Baptist Association 1901, 1902, and 1917-1921; chairman of necrology committee of Connecticut Baptist State Convention 1927-1931; chaplain general of Order of Founders and Patriots of America 1902-04 and chaplain of the Connecticut Society 1898-1900 and again 1930-31; chaplain of David Humphreys Branch No. 1, Connecticut Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, 1891, 1903, and 1918, historian 1903-06 and 1920, and necrologist 1903-05 and 1920; elected a founder of the Institute of American Genealogy 1928; contributed to numerous periodicals; secretary of Class of 1892 D.; confirmed in Trinity Episcopal Church, New Haven, in 1905, but did not withdraw from the Baptist denomination; member Calvary Baptist Church, New Haven, at death.

Unmarried.

Morgan Everett Powelson, B.D. 1892.

Born November 13, 1865, in Plainfield, Ohio.

Died November 3, 1931, in Melba, Idaho.

Father, Valentine Johnson Powelson, a farmer; son of Conrad and Kathryn (Johnson) Powelson, of Plainfield. Mother, Ellen Hilton (Thrap) Powelson; daughter of Rev. Mr. Thrap, a Methodist Episcopal minister, and Jemima (VanCampen) Thrap, of Virginia.

Parker Academy, Woodbury, Conn.; B.A. Lafayette 1889; studied in Yale Divinity School 1889-1892; taught at Tacoma (Wash.) Academy two years; manager of a sheep ranch in Sumter, Ore., 1898-99 and in Parma and Lardo, Idaho, for the firm of Gooding-Powelson 1904-08; later engaged in same business in Weiser, Idaho.

Unmarried.

Burt Leon Yorke, B.D. 1899.

Born May 22, 1869, in Augusta, Maine.
Died February 22, 1932, in Alton, N. H.

Father, Jesse Holbrook Yorke, a tailor. Mother, Julia Augusta (Hinckley) Yorke.

Putnam (Conn.) High School; B.A. Amherst 1896 (member Phi Delta Theta); studied in Yale Divinity School 1896–99; ordained to Congregational ministry June 15, 1899, in Roxbury, Conn., where pastor until 1901; pastor West End Congregational Church, Bridgeport, Conn., 1901–03; Congregational Church, West Medford, Mass., 1904–1912; traveling salesman for National Contest Company (advertising) of Boston and for Brenard Manufacturing Company 1912–14; established a summer camp for girls at Alton in 1904 and in 1914 the Yorke School, for girls, of which he and his wife had since been co-proprietors and co-directors; owner of Overlook Farm at Alton, which he had conducted since 1914; moderator of Woburn (Mass.) Conference of Congregational Churches 1906 and 1907 and of Boston Congregational Ministers' Meeting 1910; school visitor and secretary of Roxbury (Mass.) School Board 1899–1901; Third Sergeant, 2d Regiment, Connecticut National Guard, 1887–1892; charter member Religious Educational Association; member Actors' Church Alliance, Massachusetts Ministerial Association, and Congregational Sunday School Committee for Massachusetts; deacon in Alton Congregational Church since January, 1931.

Death due to coronary thrombosis. Buried in Riverside Cemetery, Alton. Survived by wife.

William Ernest Andrew Slaght, B.D. 1902.

Born November 3, 1874, in Woodstock, Ontario, Canada.
Died March 26, 1932, in Mount Vernon, Iowa.

Father, Philander Slaght; son of Job and Sarah (Corliss) Slaght, of Long Point, Ontario. Mother, Catherine (Malcolm) Slaght; daughter of George and Elizabeth (Averill) Malcolm, of Scotland, Ontario.

Collegiate Institute, London, Ontario; B.A. University of Toronto 1898 (won Governor General's gold medal); took graduate work in philosophy and psychology at University of Toronto 1898–99; studied in Yale Divinity School 1899–1904; student in Biblical liter-Married June 23, 1902, in London, Ontario, Minnie Edith, daughter of James Edward and Roxana (Woolson) Deacon. Children: Morley Frederick (B.A. State University of Iowa 1927); Leonard Malcolm, a member of Cornell College Class of 1933; and William Henry, Cornell College 1935.

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Mount Vernon Cemetery. Survived by wife, three sons, and two sisters, Mrs. George F. Allen, of San Gabriel, Calif., and Mrs. Henry B. Sterling, of Richmond Hill, Ontario.

Philip Johnson, B.D. 1905.

Born February 18, 1869, in Lanesville, Va.
Died July 1, 1931, in Sebring, Fla.

Father, John Pemberton Johnson, a farmer; served in the Confederate Army; son of William and Rebecca (Smith) Johnson, of King William County, Va. Mother, Sarah Elizabeth (Lipscomb) Johnson; daughter of Warren and Sarah Elizabeth (Smith) Lipscomb, of King William County.

Lanesville School; engaged in carpentry trade in Washington, D.C., 1887-1891; B.A. Bethany 1895, M.A. 1896; taught Latin, Bible, and Biblical history at Tazewell (Va.) College 1896-1901; professor of Latin at Bethany College 1901-04; studied in Yale Divinity School 1904-05; professor of philosophy, church history, and Greek exegesis at Bethany from 1905 until retirement in 1917; studied at universities of Berlin and Leipzig 1909-1910 and at University of Chicago 1911-12; engaged in agriculture at Rising Sun, Md., 1918-1927; member Psi chapter of Beta Theta Pi and Church of Christ (Disciples), Bethany.
Married February 2, 1918, in Wheeling, W. Va, Julia Elizabeth White, Bethany '03, daughter of Albert Phipps and Caroline Virginia (Wilkinson) White. No children.

Death due to gall stones. Buried in Campbell Cemetery, Bethany. Survived by wife, a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth J Robins, of Cohoke, Va., and three brothers, John W. Johnson, of Cohoke, Albert S. Johnson, of Annapolis, Md., and George W. Johnson (M.D. Medical College of Virginia 1907), of McAlpin, W. Va.

John Franklin Candy, B.D. 1915.

Born April 9, 1886, in Dakota, Ill.
Died November 7, 1931, in Geneva, Ohio.

Father, John Andrew Candy, a farmer; son of Levi and Catherine (Emerich) Candy, of Dakota. Mother, Catherine Alma (Gochnaur) Candy; daughter of Andrew and Mary Ann (Brenizer) Gochnaur, of Dakota.

Beloit Academy; B.A. Beloit College 1911; taught English and psychology at St. Paul's Institute, Tarsus, Turkey, 1911–12; studied in Yale Divinity School 1912–15 (during course served as student pastor of First Congregational Church, Wethersfield, Vt); ordained to Congregational ministry September 6, 1915, at Geneva, where pastor of First Congregational Church until death; trustee on state board of Ohio Congregational Conference since 1921 and scribe 1918–1924 and 1928–1930; connected with Lakeside Young People's Conference since 1924, as teacher of Bible and church history, head of department of world friendship, dean in 1929, boys' head counselor 1926–1930 and 1931, and registrar of the conference 1925, 1927, 1930, and 1931; engaged in Y. M. C. A. work at the Base Hospital at Camp Sherman, Ohio, 1918–19; secretary of Y. M. C. A. War Fund at Geneva and chairman of Geneva Food Conservation Committee.

Married November 1, 1915, in Centerbrook, Conn., Mary Pierpont Hubbard (B.A. Beloit 1910), daughter of Rev. William Beardsley Hubbard (B.A Beloit 1876 and M.A. 1881; B.D. 1881) and Mary Ella (Tuttle) Hubbard, sister of George C. Hubbard, '13, granddaughter of Rev. George B. Hubbard (B.A. 1842), and granddaughter of Joseph S. Hubbard (B.A. 1843). Two sons, Dallas Hubbard and George Theodore.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Geneva. Survived by wife, sons, a sister, Mrs. Hayes Mitchell, of Dakota, and a brother, Walter Candy (B.A. Beloit 1916), of Milwaukee, Wis.
Charles Edward Moss, B.D. 1931.

Born March 21, 1903, in Birmingham, Ala.
Died January 3, 1932, in West Haven, Conn.

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.
SUPPLEMENT
NOTICES OF DEATHS PRIOR TO JULY 1, 1931
NOT PREVIOUSLY REPORTED

YALE COLLEGE

James Andrews Swan, B.A. 1867.

Born September 15, 1844, in Columbus, Ohio.
Died June 26, 1931, in Newport, R. I.

General Russell’s Collegiate and Commercial Institute, New Haven. First colloquy appointment Junior year; second colloquy appointment Senior year; member Linonia, Delta Kappa, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Spade and Grave; made honorary member of Wolf’s Head in 1895.

Engaged in manufacture of hinges in Columbus 1867-1871 and of hardware in Joliet, Ill., from 1871 until retirement in 1880; lived in Columbus 1880-1890 and in Newport since 1890; member Trinity Church, Newport.

Married June 4, 1885, in Columbus, Jane, daughter of George McClellan and Jane (Swan) Parsons. No children.

Death due to chronic endocarditis. Buried in Berkeley Memorial Cemetery, Middletown, R. I. Survived by wife.

Granville Corning, B.A. 1878.

Born January 25, 1848, in Monroe, Conn.
Died January 11, 1930, in Auburn, N. Y.

Father, David Corning, a builder and carpenter; son of Captain Allen Corning, of Trumbull, Conn. Mother, Polly Ann (Parmelee) Corning; daughter of Nathaniel and Alathea [Althea] (Whitmore) Parmelee, of Newtown, Conn.

Easton (Conn.) Academy. Attended Wesleyan College two years (1872-74) as member of Class of 1876. Entered Yale as a Senior in 1877.

Principal of Greens Farms Academy, Westport, Conn., 1878-79 and of Cheshire (Mass.) High School 1880–81; subsequently taught in Auburn, shoe salesman for his half brothers, George and Charles St L. Corning, in Des Moines, Iowa, several years; engaged in real estate business in Auburn; retired from active business 1927; trustee of First Universalist Church, Auburn, 1907–1914.

Married August 7, 1889, in Auburn, Cora Louise, adopted daughter of Peter VanRensselaer and Mary Anne (Rude) Coventry. No children. Mrs. Corning died August 13, 1920.

Death due to carcinoma of the stomach. Buried in Fort Hill Cemetery, Auburn. Survived by a brother, Franklin P. Corning, of Hartford, Conn.

Born July 27, 1864, in Columbus, Ind.
Died January 8, 1931, in Indianapolis, Ind.

Prepared for college in Columbus and at Classical School, Indianapolis. Left Yale at end of Junior year; in 1914 received degree of B.A., with enrollment in Class of 1886; member Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Read law in office of Herod & Winter, Indianapolis; admitted to Indiana Bar June, 1887, had since practiced law in Indianapolis; in partnership with his father in firm of Herod & Herod until 1905 and then independently, except for two years, when member of firm of Herod & Thomson; admitted to bar of United States Supreme Court 1905, special judge of Superior Court of Marion County; counsel for Grain Dealers National Mutual Fire Insurance Company 1910–1930; receiver for Central Indiana Railroad Company 1923 and for Lexington Motor Company 1923–25; United States commissioner for District of Indiana 1906–1910; lecturer and professor of medical jurisprudence at Central College of Physicians and Surgeons, Purdue University, 1901–05, volunteer worker at War College, Washington, 1917–18, engaged in work for Military Intelligence Section of General Staff at Indianapolis; member of executive committee of War Camp Community Service; branch chairman of Military Training Camps
Supplement

Association; chairman of entertainment committee of War Service Recreation Board for Reserve Officers' Training Camps, Fort Benjamin Harrison, and of executive committee of Funston Reserves (an Indianapolis military organization); member of executive committee, British-Canadian Recruiting Mission, which assisted in obtaining recruits in Indiana, and of executive committee of Citizens' Committee of One Hundred; a Four-Minute Man; trustee of the Boys Preparatory School, Indianapolis, 1920–26 (secretary of the board); member Indiana State and Indianapolis Bar associations, Indianapolis Art Association, and National Security League.

Married June 5, 1890, in Indianapolis, Mary Beaty, daughter of Bergen and Mary Jane (Beaty) Applegate. Children: Bergen, '13 S.; Mary Beaty, the wife of Nelson M. Graves, '16 S.; and William Rogers, '18 S. Mrs. Herod died April 25, 1923.

Death due to hepatitis. Buried in Crown Hill Cemetery, Indianapolis. Survived by two sons, daughter, one grandchild, and two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Herod Baldwin, of Parkersburg, W. Va., and Mrs. Hiram G. Keays, of Elkhart, Ill.

Ralph Thompson, B.A. 1890.

Born December 27, 1869, in Schenectady, N. Y.
Died June 27, 1931, in Jamaica, N. Y.

Father, Charles Thompson, president of Mohawk National Bank of Schenectady. Mother, Louise Arnold (Tillinghast) Thompson; daughter of John Jay and Mary Sheldon (Arnold) Tillinghast, of Cranston, R. I.

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. Coxswain of Class Crew Freshman and Sophomore years and of University Crew three years; member Delta Kappa Epsilon and Wolf's Head.

Studied at Columbia Law School 1890–91 and at Albany Law School 1891–92 (LL.B. 1892), admitted to New York Bar at Albany in 1893; practiced law in New York City from 1893 until retirement 1895; had since spent much time traveling in this country and abroad; had lived in Paris for several years and had also spent several winters in Cuba and New Orleans.

Married (1) April 9, 1898, in Schenectady, Clara Burnham, daughter of William Alexander and Ida Luella (Burnham) Slocum. Married (2) October 7, 1903, in New Haven, Julia E., daughter of Joseph F. Woodruff. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson were divorced in 1911. Married (3) November 17, 1912, in New Haven, Mrs. Maude E. Gray, of New York City. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson were divorced in 1915. No children.

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Vale Cemetery, Schenectady.
Charles Howard Remington, B.A. 1895.

Born December 27, 1872, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died March 17, 1931, in Coventry, R. I.

Father, James Henry Remington (B.A. Brown 1862), a lawyer in Norfolk, Va., and member of firm of TenEyck & Remington, New York City; member Rhode Island House of Representatives; Captain and Major, 7th Rhode Island Regiment, in Civil War; commander of Department of Virginia, G.A.R.; son of James Henry and Lydia (Tillinghast) Remington. Mother, Ellen Frances (Howard) Remington; daughter of Warner and Juliette (Allen) Howard. Uncle: Charles N. Howard, ex-'64.

Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. Second colloquy appointment Junior year; member University Banjo Club.

With C. N. Howard & Company in New York City learning the commission business 1896-98; in music department John Wanamaker 1899-1901; clerk and salesman, Congdon & Carpenter Company (hardware) in Providence, R. I. 1901-03; president of Howard Braiding Company of East Providence 1903 until retirement 1910; author: Nesting Birds of Rhode Island (1909); chairman of Bird Commission of Rhode Island 1907-1910; member Sons of the American Revolution, Loyal Legion, and Christian Science Church.

Married September 7, 1899, in Brooklyn, Pearl May, daughter of Ozias Danforth and Josephine (Bennett) Tillinghast, of Natick, R. I. One daughter, Mary Howard.

Death due to benign hypertrophy; had been ill with sleeping sickness since 1909. Buried in North Burial Ground, Providence. Survived by wife and daughter.

Joseph Oudinot Moré, B.A. 1896.

Born May 9, 1868, in Fontainebleau, France
Died June 23, 1930, in Houston, Texas.

Father, Olivier Octave Moré (born in Fontainebleau). Mother, Marie Ludivene (Boucher) Moré (born in Paris).

Came to America at an early age and lived in Canada for a time and later in Boston, Salem, and Dorchester, Mass., and Monmouth, Maine.

Phillips-Andover and Williston Academy. First colloquy appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year; active in debates of Yale Union.

LL.B 1898 (Townsend Prize oration Senior year; member Book and Gavel); took graduate work in Yale School of Law 1898–99 (an editor of Yale Law School Mirror); admitted to St. Louis (Mo.)
Bar and practiced law in that city about ten years (1899–1909); practiced in St. Louis Court of Appeals; associated for a time with James B. Maginn; member of law firm of More, Field & Fenn (Thomas J. Fjeld, Jr., '99 L., a member) 1900–03; attorney for a number of corporations; went to Oklahoma City about 1909; associated with Charles H. Garnett, '99 L., in organization of Oklahoma Bankers Trust Company; an incorporator (with Charles H. Garnett and Thomas E. Kirby) of Southwest Securities Company and president of the company; admitted to practice in the Supreme and other courts of Oklahoma June 6, 1911; vice-president and general counsel of Mercantile Trust Company, Oklahoma City, about 1911–13; president of Mid-Western Oil Company of Tulsa, Okla., and of Great American Refining Company (in Indianapolis, Ind., about 1917–1921 and in Tulsa about two years); subsequently financial representative in Buffalo, N. Y., of National Petroleum Royalties Corporation; became fiscal agent of Vandome Petroleum Corporation of Baltimore, Md. (a Delaware corporation), September 12, 1925.

Unmarried.

Death due to heart failure. Buried in Forest Park Cemetery, Houston. Survived by no immediate relatives.

Herman Shaffer, B.A. 1900.

Everton Seminary and Friends' Central School, Philadelphia.

Studied at Yale Divinity School 1900–01, at Berkeley Divinity School 1901–03, and at Protestant Episcopal Divinity School, Philadelphia, 1903–04 (B.D. 1904); deacon in Protestant Episcopal Church 1904–05; ordained priest June, 1905, at Wilmington, Del.; missionary to churches in Buckingham and Lahaska, Pa., 1905–07; rector St. James' Episcopal Church, Newport, Del., and also of mission chapels at Stanton and Marshalltown, Del., 1907–09; associate superintendent of Shaffer Farms, Fort Washington, 1910–16; employed in laboratory of H. K. Mulford Company, Philadelphia, March, 1917–April, 1918, and again from September, 1918, until retirement in 1922 on account of ill health; member St. Thomas' Episcopal Church, Whitemarsh, Pa.
Married September 15, 1903, in East Haddam, Conn., Louise Cannon Bradley (B.A. Smith 1902), daughter of Franklin Seymour Bradley, '61, and Mary Trowbridge (Cannon) Bradley. One son, Howard.

Death due to acute cardiac dilatation. Buried in St. Thomas' Church Cemetery, Whitemarsh. Survived by wife, son, a brother, Earl Shaffer (B.A. Harvard 1910), of Sugar Grove, Ohio, and a sister, Wilhelmina Shaffer Palmer, Bryn Mawr ex-'14, the wife of Morrow Palmer (B.A. University of Pennsylvania 1901).

Frederick Harvey Winters, B.A. 1900.

Born July 20, 1880, in Indianapolis, Ind.
Died June 17, 1931, in Detroit, Mich.

Father, James Michal Winters, ex-'73, a lawyer and judge; son of Thomas and Bridget (Fogarty) Winters, of Granby, Conn. Mother, Katherine (Rand) Winters; daughter of Frederick and Emily Maury (Harvey) Rand, of Indianapolis.

St. Paul’s School, Concord, N. H. Member Cup Committee and Delta Kappa.

Practiced law in Indianapolis and later lived in California for a time and engaged in manufacturing at Bay City, Mich.; special student at University of Michigan Law School 1922–23; subsequently with trust department of American Trust Company, Detroit; enlisted in Ohio National Guard June 22, 1916; called to active duty April 6, 1917; served as Private and Sergeant with Battery A, 1st Field Artillery, to June 10, 1918, and then with Battery A, 134th Field Artillery, until given his discharge December 23, 1918; stationed at Camp Sherman, Ohio, Fort McPherson, Ga., and Camp Upton, N.Y.; overseas June 28–October 11, 1918; wounded and gassed.

Death due to carbon monoxide poisoning. Buried in Indianapolis. Survived by wife, son, father, and two sisters, Emily R. Winters Minor, the wife of James B. Minor, '03, and Mrs. Mary W. Winters Schopp.
Howard Taft, B.A. 1905.

Born June 11, 1882, in Cincinnati, Ohio.
Died February 28, 1931, in Providence, R. I.

Father, Charles Phelps Taft (B.A. 1864, LL.B. Columbia 1866; J.U.D. Heidelberg 1867; LL.D. University of Cincinnati 1922); son of Alphonso Taft (B.A. 1833, LL.D. 1867) and Fanny (Phelps) Taft, of Cincinnati. Mother, Annie (Sinton) Taft (LL.D. University of Cincinnati 1922); daughter of David and Jane (Ellison) Sinton, of Cincinnati. Yale relatives include: Peter R. Taft, '67, William H. Taft, '78, Henry W. Taft, '80, and Horace D. Taft, '83 (uncles); David S. Ingalls, '20 (nephew); and Hulbert Taft, '00, Walbridge S. Taft, '07, William Howard Taft, '09, Robert A. Taft, '10, Helen Taft Manning, M.A. 1917, and Charles Phelps Taft, 2d, '18 (first cousins).

Taft School. Member Psi Upsilon.

Spent a short time on a ranch in Gregory, Texas, in fall of 1906 and traveled abroad for six months in 1907; had been in ill health since 1908 and unable to engage in any occupation.

Unmarried.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati. Survived by two sisters, Jane E. Taft Ingalls, the wife of Albert S. Ingalls (B.A. Harvard 1896), of Cleveland, Ohio, and Louise Taft Semple, the wife of William T. Semple (B.A. William Jewell College 1900), of Cincinnati.

Harold Watson, B.A. 1917.

Born January 1, 1895, in East Orange, N. J.
Died June 18, 1931, at Colorado Springs, Colo.

Father, Clarence Austin Watson; partner in firm of George Watson & Company, clothiers, in Newark, N. J.; son of George and Sarah Frances (Kilpatrick) Watson, of Newark. Mother, Mabel Jordan (Hill) Watson; daughter of Robert and Cornelia Ann (Jordan) Hill, of Goshen, N. Y.

Thacher School and Phillips-Andover. Second colloquy appointment Junior year; first colloquy appointment Senior year; member University Tennis Team Sophomore and Junior years, Yale R. O. T. C., and Alpha Delta Phi.

Entered Officers' Training Camp, Fort Myer, Va., May 14, 1917; commissioned Second Lieutenant, Quartermaster Corps, August 15, 1917; assigned to Camp Lee, Va.; went overseas December 24, 1917; with Headquarters, Services of Supply, Tours, 1918; transferred Motor Transport Corps and promoted First Lieutenant October 7, 1918, and Captain May 8, 1919; returned to United States August 18, 1919, and received discharge September 5; superintendent of wire department, Acme Wire Company of New Haven, 1919–1922; had lived in Colorado since 1923; manager of investment department of Boettcher, Newton & Company, brokers, Colorado Springs, since January, 1930.

Married November 3, 1917, in New York City, Frances Elizabeth, daughter of William Walter and Mary Ann (Mann) Solliday. One son, Harold, Jr.

Death due to tuberculous meningitis. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by wife, son, mother, and a brother, George Watson, of San Bernardino, Calif.
SHEFFIELD SCIENTIFIC SCHOOL

Walter Warner Palmer, Ph.B. 1895.

Born July 11, 1872, in Westmoreland, N. Y.
Died May 15, 1931, in New York City.

Father, Henry Clay Palmer (M.D. New York University 1865), a physician in Utica, N. Y. Mother, Amelia Harriet (Warner) Palmer.

Lawrenceville School and Phillips-Andover. Select course.

In lumber business in Utica 1895-96; studied medicine at University of Buffalo 1897-98 and at New York University 1898-99 (M.D. 1899); interne at Bellevue Hospital 1899-1900; practiced medicine in New York City 1900-01 and in Erie, Pa., 1901-09; visiting surgeon at St. Vincent's Hospital, Erie, 1901-09; then gave up practice temporarily on account of ill health and engaged in raising poultry and fruit in Saugerties, N. Y., until 1912; had since practiced medicine again in New York; former member Erie County (Pa.) and Pennsylvania State Medical societies; member American Medical Association and Society of Colonial Wars.

Married July 18, 1900, in Buffalo, Maria Card, daughter of General John Card Graves (honorary B.A. Hamilton 1865) and Augusta Caroline (Moore) Graves. One daughter, Anne Graves, the wife of John Harkins (B.A. Dartmouth 1923).

Death followed an abdominal operation. Buried in Forest Hill Cemetery, Utica. Survived by wife, daughter, and a granddaughter.

Harold Cother Tiebout, Ph.B. 1910.

Born April 4, 1889, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died March 17, 1931, in Lynbrook, N. Y.

Father, Wallace Tiebout; owner of C. H. Tiebout & Sons (hardware), Brooklyn; son of Cornelius Henry and Maria Bosworth (Cother) Tiebout, of Brooklyn. Mother, May Bell (Jurgens) Tiebout; daughter of Louis and Naomi (Thurber) Jurgens, of Brooklyn.

Polytechnic Preparatory School, Brooklyn. Mining engineering course.

With Pittsburgh (Pa.) Oil Refining Company 1911-13 and with Cairo (W. Va.) Refining Company 1913-15; partner in firm of J. E. Gerrodette & Company (petroleum oil), New York City, 1915-19; New York manager of Western Petroleum Company of Illinois 1919-1922; treasurer of Thrift Service Stations, Inc., Brooklyn, 1922-25; owner of Town Service Stations, Lynbrook, 1925–1931; director of Andes Petroleum Company of New York; member Central Congregational Church, Brooklyn

Married July 24, 1920, in New York City, Emma Paula, daughter of Charles Frederick and Katherine (Bauer) Weidner. One daughter, Lorraine

Death due to injuries received in a motor accident. Buried in Cypress Hill Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, daughter, and father.

Ralph Sterling Rowe, Ph.B. 1914.

Born September 27, 1893, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Jonathan Nicholson Rowe, president and treasurer of Mortgage Investment Company; president of New Haven Mortgage Company; selectman and commissioner of New Haven; member New Haven Board of Finance and Board of Assessors; son of Robert and Abby Ann (Story) Rowe, of Bridgeport, Conn. Mother, Margary Matilda (Kenty) Rowe. Yale relatives include: Alfred H. Rowe, ex-'82 S (uncle); and A. Burdette Hughes, '95, Walter A. Jones, '02 S, Hal R Kellogg, '07, and Robert S Rowe, ex-'18 S. (first cousins).

New Haven High School. Metallurgical course.

Took graduate work in Sheffield Scientific School 1914–16 (Met.E. 1916); enlisted in Aviation Section, Signal Enlisted Reserve Corps as a Sergeant May 1, 1917; assigned to duty at Curtiss Aviation School, Newport News, Va; transferred successively to Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Aviation Station, Essington, Pa, Signal Corps Aviation School, Mt. Clemens, Mich., and Guernster Field, Lake Charles, La; received discharge March 2, 1918, to accept commission as First Lieutenant, Aviation Section, Signal Officers' Reserve Corps, on duty at Guernster Field and at Taliaferro Field, Texas, assigned to Aircraft Acceptance Park No. 1 and served overseas with that organization at Camp Flower Down, Winchester, England, August 18–September 19, 1918, then on duty with the aviation officer in London until his return to the United States December 11, 1918; received his discharge December 31, 1918; salesman for Coral Gables Corporation of Miami, Fla., in 1926, employed by Bethlehem Steel Company in blast furnace department from November 22, 1926, until death, at which time held position of turn foreman; member Center Church (Congregational), New Haven.

Unmarried.

Death due to an accidental gun shot wound while hunting. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by mother, a brother, Roger Rowe, and two sisters, Miss Margary S. Rowe, ex-25 Graduate School, and Miss Madeline Rowe, of New Haven.
GRADUATE SCHOOL
MASTER OF ARTS
Junichiro Kinoshita, M.A. 1907.

Born September 3, 1875, in Okayama, Japan.
Died December 6, 1929, in Los Angeles, Calif.

Graduated from Doshisha College in 1889 and from Doshisha Theological School in 1892; engaged in evangelical work in Omuda, Kyushu, three or four years; studied law in Tokyo; B.L. Meiji University 1898; student in social science in Yale Graduate School 1904-07, subsequently attended lectures in philology at Columbia; in 1914 went to Oakland, Calif., and worked in flower nurseries of Mr. Domoto; had lived in Los Angeles since 1915; engaged in real estate business 1926-29; organized the Japanese Development Company in effort to establish a Japanese colony on the Pacific coast of Mexico.

Unmarried.

Death due to carcinoma of the pylorus. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Los Angeles. Survived by a sister.
SCHOOL OF MEDICINE
Scott Robert Baker, M.D. 1879.
Born October 2, 1854, in Derby, Conn.
Died May 12, 1931, in Ansonia, Conn.

Father, Scott Baker, a wood turner; served in 20th Connecticut Volunteers during Civil War; son of Asa and Deborah (Keeler) Baker, of New Hartford, Conn. Mother, Abby Elizabeth (Burwell) Baker; daughter of Robert and Polly (Satterlee) Burwell, of Milford, Conn.

Derby public schools; began study of medicine in office of Dr. Ambrose Beardsley, Derby; had practiced medicine in Ansonia since 1879; physician to Lord Nelson Lodge, Sons of St. George, many years; member Ansonia Board of Charities twenty-seven years; member Sons of Veterans, G. A. R.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Pine Grove Cemetery, Ansonia. Survived by daughter, one son, two grandchildren, and a sister, Miss Elizabeth Baker, of Ansonia.

George Washington Lawrence, M.D. 1890.
Born April 2, 1869, in Roxbury, N. H.
Died January 16, 1931, in Lakewood, N. J.

Father, George Sylvester Lawrence, a farmer in Roxbury and Nashua, N. H., and Pepperell, Mass. Mother, Cynthia Hopkins (Smith) Lawrence.

Lawrence Academy, Groton, Mass.; studied in Yale School of Medicine 1887–1890; practiced medicine in Cornwall and East Berlin, Conn.; member Town Consolidated School Board of East Berlin six years; had practiced in Lakewood since 1906, specializing in surgery; member of surgical staff of Paul Kimball Hospital, Lakewood, since its founding in 1913 and chief of staff since 1929; vice-president of First National Bank of Lakewood 1918–19 and of Lakewood Trust Company 1920–25; a founder of Ocean County Building & Loan Association 1921 and its president until 1930; commissioned as Captain, Medical Corps, New Jersey State Militia, October 23, 1917; recruited a sanitary company and served at State Camp at Sea Girt during summer of 1918; in October directed medical work following explosion of Gillespie Munition plant at Morgan, N. J.; promoted Major November 11, 1918, and appointed chief surgeon of Medical Department of the State of New Jersey; fellow of American Medical Association; member Medical Advisory Board of Ocean County and Ocean County Medical Society (reporter); former member Connecticut Medical Society; affiliated with Presbyterian Church, Lakewood.

Married November 9, 1892, in Solebury, Pa, Letitia, daughter of Eastburn and Eleanor (Kenderdine) Reeder. Children: Ruth Eleanor, the wife of Walter M Brown, Lafayette ex-'20; and Elizabeth Reeder (Mrs. Russell Scott). Mrs. Lawrence died September 25, 1925.

Death due to apoplexy. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Lakewood. Survived by daughters and one grandson.

Richard Francis Brown, M.D. 1892.

Born September 1, 1870, in Kensington, Conn.
Died April 12, 1929, in Middletown, Conn.

Father, James Dennis Brown, Jr.; a manufacturer of carpenters' supplies; son of James Dennis and Charlotte (James) Brown, of Brighton, England. Mother, Catherine Ann (Donahue) Brown; daughter of Peter and Bridget Donahue, of County Meath, Ireland.

New Britain (Conn.) High School; studied in Yale School of Medicine 1889–1892; practiced medicine in New Britain 1892–1927; member St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, New Britain.

Unmarried.

Death due to bronchopneumonia. Buried in St. Mary's Cemetery, New Britain. Survived by a sister, Mrs. Margaret Brown Brady, of New Britain.
SCHOOL OF LAW

BACHELORS OF LAWS

Henry Rucker, LL.B. 1874.

Born December 6, 1850, in Georgetown, Ky.
Died February 17, 1930, in Dayton, Ohio.

Father, Henry M. Rucker, a graduate of Georgetown (Ky.) College; teacher of mathematics at Bowling Green, Ky., and in Georgetown; cashier of Deposit Bank, Paris, Ky.; son of Lewis D. and Margaret (Goddard) Rucker, of Scott County, Ky. Mother, Frances S. (Scott) Rucker; daughter of Thomas B. and Frances (Sappington) Scott, of Jessamine County, Ky.

Preparatory training received in Paris, Ky.; studied in Yale School of Law 1872–74 (member T. K. M.); practiced law in Paris, Perry, Okla., San Francisco, Oklahoma City, and Dayton; member Dayton Bar Association.

Married in 1874, Norma P. Moore. No children.

Death due to pyelonephritis and diabetes. Buried in Memorial Park Cemetery, Dayton. Survived by wife.

Mercer Leyburn Robertson, LL.B. 1882.

Born April 22, 1858, in Alexandria, Va.
Died June 2, 1931, in Dallas, Texas.

Father, Thomas Bolling Robertson (William and Mary College), landowner and farmer; son of William and Christina (Williams) Robertson. Mother, Martha Lindsay (Fairfax) Robertson, daughter of Henry and Elizabeth (Lindsay) Fairfax, of Freestone Point, Va.

Hanover (Va.) Academy; studied law at University of Virginia; entered Yale School of Law as a Senior; practiced law in Dallas from 1882 until retirement in 1929; junior member in firm of Simpson, Robertson & Simpson 1885–1895; member of firm of Davis & Robertson 1895–1900, then of Robertson & Firmin for a time, and of Robertson, Diehl & Berryhill 1924–26; an alderman of Dallas 1894–96; member Commercial Law League of America and St. Matthew’s Cathedral (Episcopal), Dallas.

Married March 13, 1889, in Dallas, Edna Geils Simpson, Bethany College 1885, daughter of James Bates and Harriett Jerusha (Goldsmith) Simpson. Children: Edna Geils, the wife of Herbert H. Harrison (LL.B. University of Michigan 1907), Harriett Simpson (Mrs. Thomas E. Chancellor); and Martha Fairfax.
Tale Obituary Record

Death due to paralysis and general debility. Buried in Grove Hill Cemetery, Dallas. Survived by wife, three daughters, and a brother, Powhatan Robertson, of Keswick, Va.

William Elisha Prentice, LL.B. *888.

Born February 22, 1857, in LeRoy, N. Y.
Died February 26, 1929, in Batavia, N. Y.

LeRoy Academic Institute; student at Cornell 1876; principal of schools in Stafford and South Byron, N. Y., and of Churchville (N. Y.) Union School and Batavia Union High School 1876–1881; school commissioner of Genesee County, N. Y., 1881–87; B.S. University of Rochester 1884, M.S. 1888; studied at Columbia 1885–86 and in Yale School of Law 1887–88; admitted to the bar in 1885 and practiced law in Batavia from 1885 until retirement in 1928; counsel for comptroller of New York State 1900; member of 5th Separate Company ("The Batavia Rifles"), 31st Brigade, New York National Guard, about 1882; attended First Presbyterian Church, Batavia.

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Elmwood Cemetery, Batavia. Survived by wife, daughter, four sisters, Mrs. Jennie Louise Kelsey, of Minneapolis, Mrs. Lewis S. Henion, of Batavia, Mrs. DeWitt Sixbey, of Boston, and Mary J. Edgerton, the wife of Charles A. Edgerton (B.A. Williams 1891), and four brothers, David K. Prentice and Wendell H. Prentice, both of Stafford, Stephen R. Prentice, of Kansas, and Colonel James Prentice, U.S.A., ret., of Batavia and Coconut Grove, Fla.

William Stephen McCaughey, LL.B. 1895.

Born October 12, 1866, in Pawtucket, R. I.
Died May 10, 1931, in Boston, Mass.

Father, William McCaughey; employed by Dunnell Print Works of Pawtucket; born in Ireland and came to this country in 1847; son of John and Mary (McCaughey) McCaughey. Mother, Teresa (Casey) McCaughey; daughter of Bernard Casey, of Tyrone, Ireland.

Pawtucket public schools; bookkeeper for Home Bleach & Dye Works, Inc., Pawtucket, six years before entering Yale School of Law in 1892; practiced law in Pawtucket 1895–1900 as member of firm of Robinson & Farnsworth; subsequently a salesman for Thomas Kennedy Company (clothiing), Pawtucket; orderly at State Hospital for Mental Diseases in Howard, R. I., May–November, 1922; later field manager for Regina Corporation, of Providence, and salesman for Beaudette & Graham, of Boston; sales supervisor for Beaudette Appliance Corporation, of Boston, 1927–28; represented Pawtucket in Rhode Island Legislature in 1897; member St. Joseph’s Roman Catholic Church, Pawtucket.

Unmarried.

Death due to dilatation of the heart. Buried in Mount St. Mary’s Cemetery, Pawtucket. Survived by a brother, Edward J. McCaughey, of Pawtucket.

George White Skinner, Jr., LL.B. 1899.

Born April 1, 1876, in Oxford, N. Y.
Died June 28, 1931, in Los Angeles, Calif.

Father, George White Skinner, president of Skinner Brothers & Wright Clothing Company of Denver, Colo.; son of Truman and Lydia M. (Jones) Skinner, of Van Buren, N. Y. Mother, Lenora (Wormuth) Skinner; daughter of Moses and Mary (Failing) Wormuth, of Syracuse, N. Y. First cousins: James D. Skinner, ’94 S., and Edmond N. Skinner, ’00 S.

Holbrooke’s Military Academy, Ossining, N. Y., and Phillips-Andover; entered Yale School of Law 1896 (member Kent Club, Track Team, and Phi Gamma Delta); connected with Skinner Brothers (wholesale woolens) in Chicago 1899–1902; director and vice-president of George W. Skinner Investment Company of Denver 1902–1911; president and treasurer of the Bar J H Cattle & Land Company of Denver (Skinner & Tabor Ranch, Pueblo County) 1912–18; president of Crystal Springs Farm 1912–1930; had lived in Los Angeles since 1927, interested in mining and real estate; director of Gold Valley Land & Mining Company and of State Historical Society of Colorado; assistant state director of Colorado Liberty Loan Committee; president of Mile High Club of Denver; member Colorado Scientific Society, American Live Stock Association, Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, Los Angeles Real Estate Exchange, and St. Mark’s Episcopal Church, Denver; represented Colorado Yale Association on Alumni Board 1920–22.

Death due to chronic myocarditis. Buried in Mountain View Cemetery, Pasadena, Calif. Survived by wife, sons, and a half sister, Mrs. Cyrus M. Birney, of Pasadena.

Thomas Christopher Coughlin, LL.B. 1900.

Born December 24, 1867, in Bridgeport, Conn.
Died October 23, 1930, in Stratford, Conn.

Waltersville Grammar School, Bridgeport; machinist with Bullard Company, Bridgeport, and mail clerk in Bridgeport Post Office before entering Yale School of Law in 1897; had practiced law in Bridgeport since 1900; partner in firm of Coughlin & Wilder 1906–1912, from 1928 his daughter, Mary C. Coughlin, '28 L., in partnership with him; judge of Probate Court, District of Bridgeport, 1903–04, judge of Bridgeport City Court 1913–14; took graduate work in Yale School of Law 1904–05; member Bridgeport Bar Association and St James Roman Catholic Church, Stratford.

Married February 11, 1903, in Bridgeport, Mary, daughter of John and Catherine (Glendenning) Burns. Children: Mary Catherine (B.A. Cornell 1926; LL.B. 1928); Elizabeth (Mrs. Flavian F. Arsenault), Ruth; Thomas Burns; and Rita.

Death due to paralysis agitans. Buried in St. Michael’s Cemetery, Stratford. Survived by wife, four daughters, son, two brothers, Joseph P. Coughlin, of Bridgeport, and Daniel Coughlin, of New Britain, Conn., and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Green and Mrs. John Barske, both of Bridgeport.

Francis Merian Colvin, LL.B. 1905.

Born March 21, 1869, in Altmar, N. Y.
Died February 1, 1921, in San Francisco, Calif.

Father, John C. Colvin, a farmer; son of Sherman and Sarah Ann (Presley) Colvin, of Orwell, N. Y. Mother, Susan (Wallace) Colvin, of Oswego City, N. Y.
Leonardsville (N. Y.) Academy; licensed to teach in New York State 1887; subsequently taught in Nebraska and in Hadlock, Wash.; studied law in office of John W. James, Anaconda, Mont., a year and at Valparaiso University Law School 1903-04 (LL.B. 1904); admitted to Indiana Bar 1904; entered Yale School of Law as a Senior (member Kent and Wayland clubs); admitted to California Bar 1906 and practiced law in San Francisco for a number of years.

Charles Francis Mitchell, LL.B. 1908.

Born February 8, 1885, in New Haven, Conn.
Died May 23, 1931, in New Haven, Conn

Father, Charles Mitchell; founder and president of Connecticut Pie Corporation. Mother, Julia (Gallivan) Mitchell.

New Haven High School; attended Yale School of Law 1903-04 and again 1906-08; began practice of law in New Haven 1909; associated with firm of FitzGerald & Walsh (David E. FitzGerald, '95 L., and Walter J. Walsh, '97 L.) about ten years; later organized Charles F. Mitchell Company, attorneys and accountants, of which he was president and treasurer; vice-president of H. H. Olds & Company, wholesale bakers; treasurer of Connecticut Pie Corporation; elected treasurer of McCusker & Schroeder Coal Company and later vice-president and a director; director of New Haven Bond & Mortgage Company and of Elm City Nursery Company; engaged in munitions work during the war; member New Haven Board of Civil Service Commissioners since 1925 (president of board 1927-29); member of Connecticut State Senate 1911-12; United States revenue agent in collection of income tax for Connecticut and Rhode Island 1913-16, or longer; member New Haven County Bar Association, Theta Sigma Fraternity, St. Brendan’s Roman Catholic Church Married September 24, 1914, in Woodmont, Conn., Helen Virginia, daughter of William and Mary H. (Clerkin) Kennedy, of Naugatuck, Conn. Children: Charles Francis, Jr., and Kennedy.

Death due to cirrhosis of the liver and pulmonary edema. Buried in St. Lawrence Cemetery, West Haven. Survived by wife, two sons, a brother, William J. Mitchell, '04 S., and a sister, Mrs. Gustav W. Keller, of New Haven.

Born November 31, 1887, in San Diego, Calif.
Died January 23, 1931, in Jacksonville, Fla.

Father, John Edgar Stillman, a real estate dealer; president of Pensacola (Fla.) Investment Company; son of John Edgar and Mary (Lashier) Stillman, of Orange City, Fla. Mother, Martha (DeYarman) Stillman; daughter of Hugh Hadden and Sophia (Clark) DeYarman, of Orange City.

Pensacola Classical School; entered Yale School of Law in 1906 (member Book and Gavel); admitted to Florida State Bar January 18, 1909, and had since practiced law in Jacksonville; member First Presbyterian Church, Jacksonville.

Unmarried.

Took his own life. Buried in Hollywood Cemetery, Orange City. Survived by mother, two brothers, Hugh D. Stillman, University of Florida ex-’19, of New York City, and John E. Stillman, University of Florida Law School ex-’18, of Jacksonville, and a sister, Jane S. Manning, the wife of John H. Manning (B.A. University of North Carolina 1909), of Raleigh, N. C.

Shunsan Chen-Chang Chu, LL.B. 1910.

Born October 27, 1884, in Hankow, China.
Died December 29, 1930, in Shanghai, China.

Father, Ming Tsin Chu, a merchant in Hankow.

Preparatory School of St. John’s University, Shanghai; graduated at Boone College, Wuchang, and at St. John’s University 1907; attended Yale School of Law 1907–1910 (member Wayland Club and the Forum); English secretary to Szechuen-Hankow Railway 1910; chief of the department of general affairs of the Ministry of Communications 1910–12; chief secretary of Shanghai-Nanking and Shanghai-Ningpo-Hangchow railways 1912–17; became sub-manager of Shanghai Commercial and Savings Bank in 1917, and at time of death was general manager of Manufacturers Bank of China, Ltd.; founder (in 1922) and first president of China Travel Service; trustee of Chinese Bankers Club; president of National Committee of the Y.M.C.A. in China; treasurer of Shanghai Y.M.C.A., Pan Pacific Association, and Boone University Club of Shanghai (member of foreign affairs discussion group); acting secretary, treasurer for a number of years, and vice-president in 1930 of Yale Club of Shanghai; Married Miss Wong, daughter of Yow Chang and Sow Ba Chun Wong, and sister of Wing-dau Wong, to S.

Death due to a bullet wound inflicted by kidnappers. Survived by wife, five children, and father.
DIVINITY SCHOOL

Born September 5, 1856, in Galesburg, Ill.
Died March 17, 1931, in Claremont, Calif.

Father, George Churchill (B.A. Knox College 1851 and Ph.D. 1896), teacher in Knox College and principal of Knox Academy; Galesburg city engineer; alderman; member Galesburg Board of Education, Library Board, and Park Commission; son of Norman and Anna (Eggleston) Churchill, of Galesburg. Mother, Clarissa Amelia (Hurd) Churchill; daughter of Elisha and Harriet (Willard) Hurd, of Galesburg.

Knox Academy; B.A. Knox 1877 (member Phi Gamma Delta); studied pharmacy in Kewanee, Ill., 1877-78; instructor in Latin and Greek at Knox College 1878-1880 and again 1885-87, studied in Yale Divinity School 1880-83; principal of Emerson Institute, Mobile, Ala., 1883-85; professor of Latin at Blackburn (Ill.) College 1887-1891, took graduate work at University of Leipzig 1891; professor of Greek and German at Illinois College 1891-1902 (acting president 1899-1900 and dean 1901-02); member of faculty of Pomona College since 1903, instructor in Greek 1903-04, associate professor of Greek and Latin 1904-1911, associate professor of German 1911-1925, secretary of the faculty 1907-1925 and of Appointment Bureau 1913-1925; editor of publications 1925-1930, and secretary of the faculty and associate professor of Germanics, emeritus, 1930-31 (member college life committee 1912-1920, public events and lectures committee 1911-1920, publications committee 1904-1927, rooms committee 1915-1920 and 1921-25, and rules committee 1910-1920); Litt.D. Knox 1900; honorary member Pomona chapter of Phi Beta Kappa 1913; Claremont city clerk 1907-09, author Viti Romae Illustres (1894); member Claremont Congregational Church (clerk since 1905).

Married September 19, 1883, in Waverly, Nebr., Ida Post (B.A. Knox 1878), daughter of Edwin and Mary Tabia (Doolittle) Post. Children: Jessie Lucinda (B.A. Pomona 1907); George Milton (B.S. Pomona 1911); and Delia (B.A. Pomona 1913).

Death due to carcinoma. Cremation took place, and ashes were scattered under his office window on Pomona College campus. Survived by wife, two daughters, son, and stepmother.
Edward Everett Keedy, B.D. 1893.

Born January 6, 1869, in Rohrersville, Md.
Died April 16, 1931, in Minot, N. Dak.

Father, Rev. David Daniel Keedy, Mount Pleasant College 1852–53; a minister of the United Brethren Church; trustee and financial agent of Lebanon Valley College; son of Daniel and Sophia (Miller) Keedy, of Rohrersville. Mother, Lucinda Nancy (Breechbill) Keedy; daughter of Christian and Nancy (George) Breechbill, of Mount Pleasant, Pa.

Academy of Lebanon Valley College; B A. Lebanon Valley 1889; studied in Yale Divinity School 1889–1894; ordained to Congregational ministry October 16, 1894, in Hadley, Mass., where pastor until 1902; pastor of Warren Congregational Church, Cumberland Mills, Westbrook, Maine, 1903–1916, Cooperstown, N. Dak, 1916–19, and First Congregational Church, Minot, since 1919; in 1925 appointed member for two years of commission for recruiting by National Council of Congregational Churches; author: The Naturalness of Christian Life (1902), Moral Leadership and the Ministry (1912), High Mark Congregations (under pseudonym Henry Gurting 1914), and The Habit of Church-Going (under pseudonym Henry Gurting 1916).

Married February 22, 1929, in Minot, Alice Gilman Burnham, New York University 1925–27, daughter of William Webster and Annie Carver (Foster) Burnham. No children.

Death due to lobar pneumonia Buried in Fairview Cemetery, Keedysville, Md. Survived by wife, a sister, Mrs Samuel S. Stine, of Hagerstown, Md., and five brothers, Daniel D. Keedy (B.S. Lebanon Valley College 1878), of Keedysville, John L. Keedy, '93 D. (twin), Cyrus C. Keedy, of Rohrersville, Horace B. Keedy, of Duluth, Minn., and David H. Keedy (B.A. Amherst 1902), of Amherst, Mass.
SUMMARY

YALE COLLEGE

CLASS NAME AND AGE AT DEATH

1856 V. M. Dow, 98
1859 J. A. Cooper, 97
1859 J. M. Hubbard, 95
1862 J. F. Randolph, 88
1864 S. B. Strong, 90
1865 W. H. Drury, 91
1865 J. G. Gregory, 88
1866 R. P. Gibson, 87
1866 J. E. Miller, 89
1869 S. H. Dana, 85
1869 C. T. Driscoll, 86
1870 C. S. Belford, 83
1870 Edward Bement, 83
1870 Willard Eddy, 86
1870 J. M. Fiero, 81
1870 J. G. K McClure, 83
1870 H. B. Mason, 83
1870 G. D. Miller, 84
1871 James Banks, 81
1871 W. D. Mills, 82
1872 J. C. Chamberlain, 83
1872 E. H. Jenkins, 81
1872 C. A. Northrop, 81

PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH

New Haven, Conn.
Mattituck, N. Y.; Edinboro, Pa.
Boston, Mass.; Brookline, Mass.
New Brunswick, N. J.; Morristown, N. J.
Setauket, N. Y.
Norwalk, Conn.
Erin, N. Y.; Pinebluff, N. C.
Oxford, N. Y.
Portland, Maine; Exeter, N. H.
Cahie, County Kerry, Ireland; Milford, Conn.
Mauch Chunk, Pa.
West New Brighton, N. Y.; Paris, France.
Turner, Maine, Omaha, Nebr.
Catskill, N. Y.; Yonkers, N. Y.
Albany, N. Y.; Lake Forest, Ill.
Bridgeport, Conn., Chicago, Ill.
Rochester, N. Y.; Richmond, Va.
Griffin, Ga.; Chicago, Ill.
New York City; Goshen, N. Y.
Bridgeport, Conn.
Falmouth, Mass.; New Haven, Conn.
Ridgefield, Conn.; Danbury, Conn.

DATE OF DEATH

February 19, 1932
June 27, 1932
January 7, 1932
February 16, 1932
December 4, 1931
February 26, 1932
February 1, 1932
February 5, 1932
March 29, 1932
February 24, 1932
August 15, 1931
May 1, 1932
November 21, 1931
February 26, 1932
March 28, 1932
January 18, 1932
February 20, 1932
February 9, 1932
December 21, 1931
January 23, 1932
July 14, 1931
November 6, 1931
September 19, 1931
1872 E. T. Owen, 81
1873 C. P. Latting, 81
1873 J. W. Smith, 78
1874 Wellington Campbell, 79
1874 G. L. Fox, 78
1874 G. E. Munroe, 80
1874 H. S. Robbins, 79
1874 T. T. Sherman, 78
1875 H. S. Barnes, 78
1875 Henry Blodget, 77
1875 A. T. Bulkeley, 80
1875 F. H. Jones, 77
1876 C. N. Fowler, 79
1876 J. B. Kendrick, 80
1876 N. P. Tyler, 83
1876 C. H. Willcox, 76
1877 A. E. Beeman, 76
1877 E. C. Cooke, 77
1877 Gustavus Eliot, 74
1877 G. T. Elliot, 75
1877 J. H. Johnston, 76
1877 C. S. Miller, 75
1878 J. P. Clarke, 75
1878 F. B. Lathrop, 78
1878 E. R. Terry, 75
1879 G. L. Lewis, 74
1879 John Perrin, 74
1880 Wilmore Anway, 77
1880 W. C. Asay, 74

Hartford, Conn.; Madison, Wis.
New York City.
New York City.
Millburn, N. J.; Orange, N. J.
New Haven, Conn.
On Indian Ocean; New York City.
Stoughton, Mass.; Chicago, Ill.
Buffalo, N. Y.; North Sutton, N. H.
Greenfield, Mass.; Bridgeport, Conn.
Albany, N. Y.
Griggsville, Ill.; Chicago, Ill.
Lena, Ill.; Orange, N. J.
Wallingford, Conn.
Barrytown, N. Y.; Norfolk, Va.
Fitchburg, Mass.; Windsor, Conn.
Litchfield, Conn.; Bridgeport, Conn.
Tiskilwa, Ill.; Minneapolis, Minn.
New Haven, Conn.
New Orleans, La.; Otisfield, Maine.
New York City.
Hornellsville, N. Y.; Brooklyn, N. Y.
Florence, Italy; New York City.
Springfield, Mass.; Long Beach, Calif.
Brooklyn, N. Y.
Buffalo, N. Y.; Manhasset, N. Y.
Rossville, Ind.; Washington, D. C.
Newark, N. J.; Scarsdale, N. Y.
Chicago, Ill.

November 9, 1931
November 1, 1931
July 20, 1931
June 17, 1932
August 6, 1931
April 3, 1932
April 27, 1932
August 27, 1931
September 13, 1931
May 23, 1932
September 5, 1931
October 2, 1931
May 27, 1932
October 9, 1931
January 22, 1932
March 30, 1932
April 17, 1932
November 4, 1931
March 1, 1932
September 14, 1931
December 7, 1931
April 30, 1932
January 12, 1932
June 11, 1932
April 5, 1932
April 26, 1932
December 27, 1931
December 1, 1931
June 23, 1932
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>NAME AND AGE AT DEATH</th>
<th>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</th>
<th>DATE OF DEATH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>Willis Benner, 73</td>
<td>Astoria, N Y., Bronxville, N. Y. New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>May 5, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>N. G. Osborn, 74</td>
<td>Richmond, Ky., Atlantic City, N J. Cazenovia, N. Y.; New York City.</td>
<td>May 6, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>Ten Eyck Wendell, 74</td>
<td></td>
<td>May 6, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>B. W. Bacon, 72</td>
<td></td>
<td>March 10, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>O. H. Briggs, 73</td>
<td></td>
<td>February 3, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>H. J. Curtis, 74</td>
<td></td>
<td>February 1, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>G. M. Judd, 71</td>
<td></td>
<td>February 13, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>W. A. Sterling, 73</td>
<td></td>
<td>September 24, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882</td>
<td>M. S. Allen, 71</td>
<td></td>
<td>February 29, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882</td>
<td>C. B. Storrs, 72</td>
<td></td>
<td>May 24, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>F. H. Beede, 73</td>
<td></td>
<td>January 10, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>R. H. Cornish, 74</td>
<td></td>
<td>September 20, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>J. F. Crowell, 73</td>
<td></td>
<td>March 15, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>A. L. Fisk, 71</td>
<td></td>
<td>April 17, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>L. K. Hull, 70</td>
<td></td>
<td>August 6, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>S. D. Thacher, 69</td>
<td></td>
<td>October 8, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>J. E. Wayland, 71</td>
<td></td>
<td>November 22, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>C. H. Yates, 71</td>
<td></td>
<td>August 5, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>F. H. Dodge, 71</td>
<td></td>
<td>February 27, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>F. M. Barbour, 69</td>
<td></td>
<td>December 30, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>S. K. Gorham, 69</td>
<td></td>
<td>February 20, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>G. A. Sanderson, 68</td>
<td></td>
<td>January 20, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>N. M. Goodlett, 69</td>
<td></td>
<td>February 23, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>Charles Adams, 68</td>
<td></td>
<td>June 11, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>Arthur Perkins, 68</td>
<td></td>
<td>January 26, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>Benjamin Romaine, 66</td>
<td></td>
<td>June 29, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889</td>
<td>Augustus Coburn, 63</td>
<td></td>
<td>May 16, 1932</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Note: The date of death information is from 1932 and 1933.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Age</th>
<th>City, State</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1889</td>
<td>J. S. McMahon</td>
<td>63</td>
<td>Dayton, Ohio.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>Roland Holt</td>
<td>63</td>
<td>New York City; New Canaan, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>P. W. Harvey</td>
<td>63</td>
<td>Cleveland, Ohio; Thomasville, Ga.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>H. K Smith</td>
<td>62</td>
<td>Chester, Mass.; Farmington, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>W. N. Runyon</td>
<td>60</td>
<td>Plainfield, N. J.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>C. A. Graham</td>
<td>60</td>
<td>Corinne, Utah; Denver, Colo.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>C. C. Harmstad</td>
<td>60</td>
<td>Plainfield, N. J.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>E. R. Lamson</td>
<td>64</td>
<td>New York City; Summit, N. J.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>W. J. Lamson</td>
<td>60</td>
<td>Orange, N. J.; Summit, N. J.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>E. R. Newell</td>
<td>59</td>
<td>Bristol, Conn.; Greenwich, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>A. L. Wheeler</td>
<td>60</td>
<td>Hartford, Conn.; Princeton, N. J.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>W. R. Callender</td>
<td>60</td>
<td>Providence, R. I.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>W. L. Dench</td>
<td>57</td>
<td>Bridgeport, Conn.; Pelham, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>F. S. Franklin</td>
<td>58</td>
<td>Lancaster, Pa.; Buck Island, Ont., Canada.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>J. E. Good</td>
<td>60</td>
<td>Denver, Colo.; Montana</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>A. E. Schermerhorn</td>
<td>60</td>
<td>New York City; Southampton, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>H. L. Street</td>
<td>60</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>E. G. Taylor</td>
<td>58</td>
<td>Pittsfield, Mass.; Hartford, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>G. S. Buck</td>
<td>56</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill.; Buffalo, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>Woods Chandler</td>
<td>58</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; Hartford, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>J. H. Douglass</td>
<td>58</td>
<td>St. Louis, Mo.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>G. W. Govert</td>
<td>57</td>
<td>Jacksonville, Ill.; Quincy, Ill.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>A. J. Draper</td>
<td>56</td>
<td>Hopedale, Mass.; Charlotte, N. C.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>F. S. Male</td>
<td>55</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mount Kisco, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>W. R. Kelley</td>
<td>55</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill.; Washington, D. C.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>NAME AND AGE AT DEATH</td>
<td>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</td>
<td>DATE OF DEATH</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-------</td>
<td>----------------------</td>
<td>--------------------------</td>
<td>---------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>Richard Lowrie, 56</td>
<td>Adrian, Mich ; Elgin, Ill</td>
<td>April 16, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>W M Wheeler, 55</td>
<td>Portville, N. Y., San Francisco, Calif.</td>
<td>March 1, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>M. P. Gould, 58</td>
<td>Wabaunsee, Kansas; New York City.</td>
<td>March 19, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>J. H. Klosterman, 54</td>
<td>Portland, Ore.</td>
<td>October 26, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>E. R. Pidgeon, 63</td>
<td>Westport, Conn.</td>
<td>June 19, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td>E. M. Byers, 51</td>
<td>Allegheny, Pa.; New York City.</td>
<td>March 11, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td>F. S. Dodson, 57</td>
<td>Andover, Mass.; Lawrence, Mass.</td>
<td>October 30, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td>J. A. Keppelman, 53</td>
<td>Reading, Pa.; West Reading, Pa.</td>
<td>October 21, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>W. B. Godfrey, 53</td>
<td>Honolulu, Hawaii; Berkeley, Calif.</td>
<td>March 7, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>A. L. Bishop, 57</td>
<td>South Williamstown, Nova Scotia; New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>May 8, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>H. J. Barbour, 49</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill.; New York City.</td>
<td>March 30, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>O. M. Bigelow, Jr., 50</td>
<td>Baldwinsville, N. Y.; Cornwall-on-Hudson, N. Y.</td>
<td>February 12, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>J. A. Moorhead, 49</td>
<td>Sharpsburg, Pa.; Sewickley, Pa.</td>
<td>August 18, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>A. F. S. Steele, 54</td>
<td>Sayre, Pa.; Eugene, Ore.</td>
<td>July 12, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>R. Y. Flanders, 48</td>
<td>Milwaukee, Wis.</td>
<td>February 17, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>W. R. Koehler, 46</td>
<td>Cincinnati, Ohio; Fort Lee, N. J.</td>
<td>September 30, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>L. E. Todd, 52</td>
<td>Woodbridge, Conn.; Milford, Conn.</td>
<td>June 11, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>D. M. Ryerson, 47</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill.; Lake Forest, Ill.</td>
<td>May 8, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>W. W. Waite, 47</td>
<td>Batchellerville, N. Y.; Seattle, Wash.</td>
<td>April 11, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>C. D. Heald, 47</td>
<td>Bartlett, Ohio; Dayton, Ohio.</td>
<td>November 7, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>C. G. Mitchell, 43</td>
<td>Leadville, Colo.; Denver, Colo.</td>
<td>September 2, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910</td>
<td>D. R. Dickey, 45</td>
<td>Dubuque, Iowa; Pasadena, Calif.</td>
<td>April 15, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910</td>
<td>E. S. Nesbitt, 46</td>
<td>Mount Carmel, Ill.; Kansas City, Mo.</td>
<td>October 29, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910</td>
<td>Arthur Williams, 42</td>
<td>Mount Vernon, N. Y.; Rochester, N. Y.</td>
<td>November 28, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1911</td>
<td>G. M. Smith, 45</td>
<td>Sioux City, Iowa; Evanston, Ill.</td>
<td>May 26, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1912</td>
<td>C. F. Berg, 42</td>
<td>Orange, N. J.; Redding, Conn.</td>
<td>February 2, 1932</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
1914 W. G. Phelps, Jr., 41
1915 R. F. Evans, 37
1917 John Galt, 38
1918 A. C. Crunden, 37
1920 J. B. Gray, 33
1920 R. B. Read, 33
1920 Y. L. Tang, 30
1921 S. R. Decker, 31
1921 J. J. Kelly, 32
1922 J. R. Draper, 31
1924 C. S. Faville, 29
1924 J. A. M. Thomas, 32
1926 J. F. Pascoe, 29
1928 S. F. Kennedy, 26
1930 A. I. Nelson, 23
1931 E. O. Miller, 21

Binghamton, N. Y.
Salem, Mass.; Los Angeles, Calif.
Seattle, Wash.; Honolulu, Hawaii.
St. Louis, Mo.; New York City.
Evanston, Ill.; New York City.
New York City; Fonda, N. Y.
Shanghai, China.
Montgomery, Pa.; Williamsport, Pa.
Grand Forks, N. Dak.
Plymouth, N. H.; Tucson, Ariz.
Albert Lea, Minn.; Des Plaines County, Ill.
New York City.
San Francisco, Calif.; Brooklyn, N. Y.
Omaha, Nebr.
Malo, Sweden; Summit, N. J.
Springfield, Mass.

1870 C. S. Hastings, 83
1871 J. N. Judson, 80
1872 W. B. Welling, 79
1875 Julian Kennedy, 80
1875 C. F. McMurray, 76
1875 Frederik Wood, 78
1876 C. D. Seeberger, 74
1876 A. G. Sheak, 77
1877 F. L. Bidwell, 77
1877 J. G. Calhoun, 75

Clinton, N. Y.; Greenwich, Conn.
Bridgeport, Conn.; New Canaan, Conn.
Philadelphia, Pa.; New York City.
Poland, Ohio; Pittsburgh, Pa.
Brooklyn, N. Y.; New York City.
Norwalk, Conn.; Springfield, Pa.
Oskaloosa, Iowa; Oak Bluffs, Mass.
Kirwood, N. Y.; Binghamton, N. Y.
Coldwater, Mich.; Kansas City, Mo.
Manchester, Conn.; Hartford, Conn.

January 14, 1932
August 8, 1931
March 6, 1932
May 10, 1932
April 5, 1932
September 27, 1931
July 20, 1931
June 6, 1932
January 14, 1932
October 31, 1931
August 6, 1931
March 12, 1932
April 10, 1932
May 21, 1932
October 14, 1931
August 27, 1931

January 31, 1932
April 2, 1932
January 4, 1932
May 28, 1932
November 23, 1931
May 20, 1932
September 12, 1931
January 17, 1932
September 14, 1931
February 3, 1932
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>NAME AND AGE AT DEATH</th>
<th>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</th>
<th>DATE OF DEATH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td>W. D. Allen, 75</td>
<td>Hartford, Conn; Chicago, Ill</td>
<td>October 10, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>G. H. Bartlett, 75</td>
<td>Buffalo, N. Y</td>
<td>November 8, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882</td>
<td>F. H. Blake, 71</td>
<td>Hamden, Conn; Litchfield, Conn.</td>
<td>December 30, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882</td>
<td>R. B. Hood, 70</td>
<td>Great Barrington, Mass; Concord, Mass.</td>
<td>January 18, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>H. K. Devereux, 71</td>
<td>Cleveland, Ohio; Thomasville, Ga</td>
<td>May 2, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>A. J. Wurts, 69</td>
<td>Carbondale, Pa; Pittsburgh, Pa</td>
<td>January 21, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>W. H. Gale, 68</td>
<td>New York City, Rome, Italy</td>
<td>April 25, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>W. W. Gordon, 65</td>
<td>Savannah, Ga</td>
<td>March 1, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>D. M. Cummings, 66</td>
<td>Pekin, Ill; Phoenix, Ariz.</td>
<td>February 29, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>F. A. Paul, 66</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>June 4, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888</td>
<td>F. M. Gray, 65</td>
<td>Goshen, Conn; Seattle, Wash.</td>
<td>September 17, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888</td>
<td>R. M. Wilcox, 71</td>
<td>Portland, Conn.; Long Beach, Calif.</td>
<td>March 19, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889</td>
<td>P. S. Robinson, 63</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>July 10, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>Eugene Lentilhon, 62</td>
<td>New York City; Paris, France</td>
<td>January 25, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>G. F. Paddock, 65</td>
<td>Alton, Ill.; Boston, Mass.</td>
<td>March 7, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>Brown Caldwell, 63</td>
<td>Allegheny, Pa; Wauwatosa, Wis</td>
<td>April 16, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>Thomas Denny, 62</td>
<td>Pawtucket, R. I.; Beverly Hills, Calif.</td>
<td>October 18, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>Reuben Miller, Jr., 59</td>
<td>Pittsburgh, Pa.</td>
<td>October 23, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>A. J. Slade, 59</td>
<td>New York City; Naples, Italy</td>
<td>March 29, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Richard Garlick, 60</td>
<td>Youngstown, Ohio; Daytona Beach, Fla</td>
<td>April 14, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>R. W. Whitehead, 59</td>
<td>New York City; Hoboken, N. J.</td>
<td>December 24, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>H. P. Hotchkiss, 61</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; Pinehurst, N. C.</td>
<td>September 11, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>H. T. Clifton, 56</td>
<td>Washington, D. C.; Monrovia, Calif.</td>
<td>May 13, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>R. T. Crane, Jr., 58</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill.; New York City</td>
<td>November 7, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>D. A. Hill, 57</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill.; Evanston, Ill.</td>
<td>November 2, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>R. A. Niggeman, 57</td>
<td>St. Louis, Mo.</td>
<td>September 22, 1931</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
1895 W. W. Pike, 59
1896 A. H. Eggers, 56
1896 C. W. Leland, 58
1897 R. O. Cheney, 57
1897 Reuben Hitchcock, 57
1897 S. S. Spencer, Jr., 56
1898 J. M. Satterfield, 55
1899 H. E. Boardman, 52
1899 Clifford Langley, 55
1899 S. E. Thomas, Jr., 55
1900 W. D. Brennan, 54
1900 J. M. Rowland, 52
1900 F. P. Underhill, 54
1902 Gratz Dent, 49
1902 W. M. Stillman, 53
1903 C R. Bostwick, 51
1903 W. A. Clark, 50
1903 C. K. Crane, 50
1903 W. G. Higgins, 50
1903 A. E. Hodgson, 49
1904 H. B. Allen, 49
1904 G. O. Elmore, 50
1904 E. H. Putnam, 49
1905 G. F. Macbeth, 48
1906 W. L. Ulnch, 46
1907 C. T. Porter, 46
1908 F. A. Boder, 44
1908 C. S. Caroli, 46
1908 D. Y. Hill, 42

Chicago, Ill.; Munich, Germany.
Allegheny, Pa; Pittsburgh, Pa.
Albany, N. Y.; La Jolla, Calif.
South Manchester, Conn.; Hartford, Conn.
Cleveland, Ohio; Willoughby, Ohio.
West Seneca, N. Y.; New York City.
Millerstown, Pa.; Buffalo, N. Y.
Meriden, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.
New Haven, Conn.; New York City.
New York City; Jersey City, N. J.
Malone, N. Y.; Denver, Colo.
New York City; Niagara Falls, N. Y.
Brooklyn, N. Y.; New Haven, Conn.
Savannah, Ga.
Brooklyn, N. Y.; San Francisco, Calif.
New Haven, Conn.; New York City.
Cincinnati, Ohio; Stamford, Conn.
Dalton, Mass.; Pasadena, Calif.
Columbus, Ohio; Findlay, Ohio
New Haven, Conn.
Enfield, Conn.; Jefferson City, Mo.
Litchfield, Conn.; Orange, N. J.
Metuchen, N. J.; Noroton, Conn.
London, Ont., Canada; Denver, Colo.
Buffalo, N. Y.; Hartford, Conn.
Montclair, N. J.; Torresdale, Pa.
Anthony, Kans.; St. Joseph, Mo.
Milford, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.
Cincinnati, Ohio; New York City.
CLASS NAME AND AGE AT DEATH

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Age</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>E. E. Dickerman</td>
<td>44</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>H. A. Newbury</td>
<td>44</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910</td>
<td>W. W. Cheney, Jr.</td>
<td>43</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910</td>
<td>J. M. Goss</td>
<td>43</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910</td>
<td>E. M. Hoopes, Jr.</td>
<td>43</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910</td>
<td>J. A. Ingalls</td>
<td>42</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910</td>
<td>A. E. Roberts</td>
<td>48</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1912</td>
<td>D. M. Eddy</td>
<td>42</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1912</td>
<td>T. R. Waterbury</td>
<td>41</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1913</td>
<td>T. W. Horner</td>
<td>40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1913</td>
<td>J. E. Rapuano</td>
<td>42</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1913</td>
<td>N. J. Vetter</td>
<td>43</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1913</td>
<td>C. F. Westerberg</td>
<td>37</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1914</td>
<td>J. T. Maffett</td>
<td>41</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1915</td>
<td>W. L. Kenly</td>
<td>37</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1916</td>
<td>B. P. Collings</td>
<td>38</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1916</td>
<td>W. L. Ross, Jr.</td>
<td>36</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1917</td>
<td>C. P. Stevens, Jr.</td>
<td>38</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1921</td>
<td>J. E. Hussey</td>
<td>32</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1925</td>
<td>D. G. Fraser</td>
<td>26</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1927</td>
<td>K. E. Dayton</td>
<td>25</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Birth and Death</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>E. E. Dickerman</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; North Haven, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>W. W. Cheney, Jr.</td>
<td>Manlius, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>J. M. Goss</td>
<td>Centerville, Iowa; Pasadena, Calif.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>E. M. Hoopes, Jr.</td>
<td>Wilmington, Del</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>J. A. Ingalls</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A. E. Roberts</td>
<td>New York City; Peekskill, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D. M. Eddy</td>
<td>Bay City, Mich.; Buffalo, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>T. R. Waterbury</td>
<td>Greenwich, Conn.; Territet, Switzerland.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>T. W. Horner</td>
<td>DuBois, Pa.; Washington, D. C.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>J. E. Rapuano</td>
<td>Benevento, Italy; New Haven, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>N. J. Vetter</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; Mineola, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C. F. Westerberg</td>
<td>Dobbs Ferry, N. Y.; Washington, D. C.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>J. T. Maffett</td>
<td>Brookville, Pa.; Gstaad, Switzerland.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>W. L. Kenly</td>
<td>Fort Monroe, Va.; Short Hills, N. J.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. P. Collings</td>
<td>Washington, D. C.; Northport, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C. P. Stevens, Jr.</td>
<td>Normansville, N. Y.; Albany, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>J. E. Hussey</td>
<td>St. Charles, Mo.; St. Louis, Mo.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D. G. Fraser</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>K. E. Dayton</td>
<td>Bridgeport, Conn.; Hamden, Conn.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

GRADUATE SCHOOL

MASTERS OF ARTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>School</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A. G. Reed</td>
<td>Paducah, Ky.; Baton Rouge, La.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>F. J. Holder</td>
<td>Santa Fe, Fla.; Macon, Ga.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>S. C. Lee</td>
<td>Wuchang, China.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

DATE OF DEATH

- June 20, 1932
- February 4, 1932
- November 28, 1931
- May 5, 1932
- November 20, 1931
- March 24, 1932
- February 18, 1932
- June 10, 1932
- March 4, 1932
- February 12, 1932
- January 25, 1932
- February 28, 1932
- April 3, 1932
- September 10, 1931
- November 29, 1931
- May 7, 1932
- May 29, 1932
- September 11, 1931
- January 18, 1932
- May 18, 1932
- December 30, 1931
- November 15, 1931
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Age</th>
<th>Location</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>L. J. Wyli</td>
<td>76</td>
<td>Milton, Pa.; Poughkeepsie, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>Charlotte Fairbanks</td>
<td>60</td>
<td>St. Johnsbury, Vt.; Framingham, Mass.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>H. B. Learned</td>
<td>63</td>
<td>Exeter, N. H.; Stanford University, Calif.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1924</td>
<td>M. J. Mueller</td>
<td>37</td>
<td>Milton, Pa.; Poughkeepsie, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1866</td>
<td>A. E. Merrill</td>
<td>88</td>
<td>St. Johnsbury, Vt.; Framingham, Mass.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>J. B. Hall</td>
<td>63</td>
<td>Milton, Pa.; Poughkeepsie, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>M. P. Robinson</td>
<td>61</td>
<td>Exeter, N. H.; Stanford University, Calif.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>W. H. Weber</td>
<td>50</td>
<td>Milton, Pa.; Poughkeepsie, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1916</td>
<td>F. J. Klobucher</td>
<td>42</td>
<td>Milton, Pa.; Poughkeepsie, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1922</td>
<td>H. R. Spelman</td>
<td>32</td>
<td>Milton, Pa.; Poughkeepsie, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1926</td>
<td>S. T. Huntting</td>
<td>28</td>
<td>Milton, Pa.; Poughkeepsie, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>A. E. Merrill</td>
<td>88</td>
<td>Milton, Pa.; Poughkeepsie, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>R. W. Westbrook</td>
<td>68</td>
<td>Milton, Pa.; Poughkeepsie, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>J. B. Hall</td>
<td>63</td>
<td>Exeter, N. H.; Stanford University, Calif.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

SCHOOL OF THE FINE ARTS
- Durand, Wis.; Bend, Ore.
  - July 6, 1931

SCHOOL OF MUSIC
- Lakeside, Conn.
  - August 11, 1931

SCHOOL OF FORESTRY
- New York City; Pasadena, Calif.
  - March 10, 1932
- Wilbur, Wash.; Portland, Ore.
  - March 18, 1932
- Brooklyn, N. Y.; Rockville Center, N. Y.
  - January 26, 1932
- Cresco, Iowa; near coast of Texas.
  - September 24, 1931

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE
- Barkhamsted, Conn.; Los Angeles, Calif.
  - July 14, 1931
- New Haven, Conn.; New Canaan, Conn.
  - May 11, 1932
- Hartford, Conn.
  - May 24, 1932
- Lebanon, Conn.; Windsor Locks, Conn.
  - May 4, 1932
CLASS NAME AND AGE AT DEATH

1905 A G Provost, 51
1919 W. P. Dunsoll, 35

PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH

Mowrystown, Ohio; Boston, Mass
Ansonia, Conn.; New York City

SCHOOL OF LAW

BACHELORS OF LAWS

1877 G. M. White, 76
1883 W. D. Warren, 73
1884 J. B. Klein, 70
1885 F. B. Mitchell, 71
1885 S. C. Morehouse, 65
1887 C E Hoadley, 69
1890 L O. Perley, 65
1890 J D. Toomey, 63
1891 R. H. McCreary, 63
1892 H. C. Joyce, 61
1893 J P. Woodruff, 62
1896 R. S. Alexander, 58
1897 W. J. Walsh, 56
1899 W. J. Coughlin, 54
1899 F. E. Northrop, 60
1902 Alexander Arnott, 56
1905 W. A. Greenwell, 52
1908 C. J. Martin, 44
1909 G. L. Weeks, 47
1911 A. J. White, 42
1927 C. S. Wiltse, Jr., 30

PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH

Danbury, Conn.; Morristown, N. J.
Dorchester, Mass.; New Haven, Conn
Bridgeport, Conn
Fairfield, Conn.
Plymouth, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.
Emporia, Kans.; Omaha, Nebr.
Bridgeport, Conn.; Mount Vernon, N. Y.
Richmond, Ky.; Chicago, Ill.
New Haven, Conn.; Northport, N. Y.
Litchfield, Conn.
Danbury, Conn.
Pittsfield, Mass.; New Haven, Conn.
Middletown, Conn.
Milford, Conn.; Summit, N. J.
Belfast, Ireland; St. Petersburg, Fla.
Kealakekua, Kona, Hawaii; Honolulu, Hawaii.
New Haven, Conn.; West Haven, Conn.
Harwich, Mass.; Boston, Mass.
Boston, Mass.; Winchester, Mass.
Indianapolis, Ind

DATE OF DEATH

August 17, 1931
March 29, 1932

October 16, 1931
June 2, 1932
March 17, 1932
August 11, 1931
August 13, 1931
November 14, 1931
November 24, 1931
June 14, 1932
March 1, 1932
June 18, 1932
September 13, 1931
May 14, 1932
October 22, 1931
September 20, 1931
March 25, 1932
April 4, 1932
October 29, 1931
October 14, 1931
March 20, 1932
February 13, 1932
December 31, 1932
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Age</th>
<th>Location</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>I. F. Russell</td>
<td>74</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>A. J. Brockschmidt</td>
<td>71</td>
<td>Quincy, Ill.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>W H. Burtner, Jr.</td>
<td>58</td>
<td>Cincinnati, Ohio.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875</td>
<td>L. O. Lee</td>
<td>87</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td>E. P. Armstrong</td>
<td>79</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>E. D. Kelsey</td>
<td>78</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>C. W. Shelton</td>
<td>74</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882</td>
<td>C. E. Wilbur</td>
<td>78</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>J. A. Craig</td>
<td>78</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>R. M. Strickler</td>
<td>80</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>E. L. Hood</td>
<td>72</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>C. L. Kloss</td>
<td>68</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>W. T. Sutherland</td>
<td>74</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888</td>
<td>L. H. Thayer</td>
<td>73</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>D. W. Phelps</td>
<td>77</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>M. E. Powelson</td>
<td>65</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>B. L. Yorke</td>
<td>62</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>W. E. A. Slaght</td>
<td>57</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905</td>
<td>Philip Johnson</td>
<td>62</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1915</td>
<td>J. F. Candy</td>
<td>45</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1931</td>
<td>C. E. Moss</td>
<td>28</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1867</td>
<td>J. A. Swan</td>
<td>86</td>
<td>Columbus, Ohio; Newport, R. I.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td>Granville Corning</td>
<td>81</td>
<td>Monroe, Conn.; Auburn, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

MASTERS OF LAWS

New Haven, Conn.; New York City.

Quincy, Ill.

Cincinnati, Ohio.

DIVINITY SCHOOL

Kenosha, Wis.; Auburndale, Mass.

Mansfield, Conn.; State College, Pa.

Wheelersburg, Ohio; New Brunswick, N. J.

Derby, Conn.; Redding Ridge, Conn.

Manorville, N. Y.; Bellevue, Pa.

Fitzroy Harbor, Ont., Canada; Toronto, Ont., Canada.

Philippi, W. Va.; New Castle, Pa.

Ravenna, Ohio; Oakland, Calif.

New Berlin, Pa.; San Francisco, Calif.

Towanda, Pa.; Clifton Springs, N. Y.

Westfield, Mass.; Dublin, N. H.

New Haven, Conn.; Berkeley, Calif.

Plainfield, Ohio; Melba, Idaho.

Augusta, Maine; Alton, N. H.

Woodstock, Ont., Canada, Mount Vernon, Iowa.

Lanesville, Va.; Sebring, Fla.

Dakota, Ill.; Geneva, Ohio.

Birmingham, Ala.; West Haven, Conn.

SUPPLEMENT

YALE COLLEGE

Columbus, Ohio; Newport, R. I.

Monroe, Conn.; Auburn, N. Y.

November 20, 1931

October 22, 1931

February 5, 1932

January 22, 1932

November 26, 1931

December 10, 1931

March 1, 1932

December 1, 1931

May 15, 1932

March 16, 1932

August 14, 1931

October 28, 1931

August 18, 1931

September 18, 1931

November 3, 1931

February 22, 1932

March 26, 1932

January 3, 1932

June 26, 1931

January 11, 1930
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>NAME AND AGE AT DEATH</th>
<th>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</th>
<th>DATE OF DEATH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>W. P. Herod, 66</td>
<td>Columbus, Ind.; Indianapolis, Ind</td>
<td>January 8, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>Ralph Thompson, 61</td>
<td>Schenectady, N.Y., Jamaica, N.Y.</td>
<td>June 27, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>C. H. Remington, 58</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N.Y., Coventry, R.I.</td>
<td>March 17, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>J. O. Moré, 62</td>
<td>Fontainebleau, France, Houston, Texas</td>
<td>June 23, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>Herman Shaffer, 52</td>
<td>Philadelphia, Pa.; Chestnut Hill, Pa.</td>
<td>November 7, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>F. H. Winters, 50</td>
<td>Indianapolis, Ind.; Detroit, Mich.</td>
<td>June 17, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905</td>
<td>Howard Taft, 48</td>
<td>Cincinnati, Ohio; Providence, R.I.</td>
<td>February 28, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1917</td>
<td>Harold Taft, 38</td>
<td>East Orange, N.J.; Colorado Springs, Colo</td>
<td>June 18, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>W. W. Palmer, 58</td>
<td>Shefield Scientific School</td>
<td>May 15, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910</td>
<td>H. C. Tiebout, 41</td>
<td>Westmoreland, N.Y.; New York City</td>
<td>March 17, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1914</td>
<td>R. S. Rowe, 37</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N.Y.; Lynbrook, N.Y.</td>
<td>November 2, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>Junichiro Kinoshita, 54</td>
<td>Shefield Scientific School</td>
<td>December 6, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>S. R. Baker, 76</td>
<td>Graduate School</td>
<td>May 12, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>G. W. Lawrence, 61</td>
<td>Master of Arts</td>
<td>January 16, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>R. F. Brown, 58</td>
<td>School of Medicine</td>
<td>April 12, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882</td>
<td>M. L. Robertson, 73</td>
<td>School of Law</td>
<td>February 17, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>Henry Rucker, 79</td>
<td>Bachelor of Laws</td>
<td>June 2, 1931</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
The total number of deaths reported for the year 1931-32 is 302. The age of the 153 graduates of Yale College averages 64.4, and the age of the 88 graduates of the Sheffield Scientific School averages 55.6. There are also recorded 29 deaths which occurred before July 1, 1931.

The oldest living graduate of the College is:

Augustus Field Beard (B.A. 1857), of Norwalk, Conn., born May 11, 1833.

The oldest living graduate of the Sheffield Scientific School is:

Arthur VanHarlingen (Ph.B. 1864), of Bryn Mawr, Pa., born October 25, 1845.
Graduates of the different Schools of the University are distinguished from graduates of Yale College by italic letters as follows: School of the Fine Arts, rt; Divinity School, d; School of Forestry, f; Graduate School, ma, ms, or dp; School of Law, l or ml; School of Medicine, m; School of Music, mus; Sheffield Scientific School, s.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Class</th>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Page</th>
<th>Class</th>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>Adams, Charles</td>
<td>73</td>
<td>1895 m</td>
<td>Burtnor, William H., Jr.</td>
<td>252</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896 l</td>
<td>Alexander, Robert S.</td>
<td>117</td>
<td>1901</td>
<td>Byers, Eben M.</td>
<td>110</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904 s</td>
<td>Allen, Howard B.</td>
<td>194</td>
<td>1908 s</td>
<td>Caroli, Carleton S.</td>
<td>199</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882</td>
<td>Allen, Martin S.</td>
<td>58</td>
<td>1891 s</td>
<td>Caldwell, Brown</td>
<td>164</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878 s</td>
<td>Allen, William D.</td>
<td>151</td>
<td>1877 s</td>
<td>Calhoun, J. Gilbert</td>
<td>150</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>Anway, Wilmore</td>
<td>49</td>
<td>1894</td>
<td>Callender, Walter R.</td>
<td>90</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878 d</td>
<td>Armstrong, Edward P.</td>
<td>254</td>
<td>1874</td>
<td>Campbell, Wellington</td>
<td>26</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902 l</td>
<td>Arnott, Alexander</td>
<td>246</td>
<td>1915 d</td>
<td>Candy, J. Franklin</td>
<td>267</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>Asay, William C.</td>
<td>49</td>
<td>1872</td>
<td>Chamberlain, John C.</td>
<td>20</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>Bacon, Benjamin W.</td>
<td>53</td>
<td>1897 s</td>
<td>Chandler, Woods</td>
<td>99</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879 m</td>
<td>Baker, Scott R.</td>
<td>281</td>
<td>1910 s</td>
<td>Cheney, Richard O.</td>
<td>180</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td>Banks, James</td>
<td>19</td>
<td>1910 l</td>
<td>Cheney, Walter W., Jr.</td>
<td>202</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>Barbour, Frederic M.</td>
<td>69</td>
<td>1883 d</td>
<td>Chu, Shusan</td>
<td>288</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>Barbour, Harold J.</td>
<td>114</td>
<td>1894</td>
<td>Churchill, Milton C.</td>
<td>290</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875</td>
<td>Barnes, Harry S.</td>
<td>31</td>
<td>1903 s</td>
<td>Clark, William H.</td>
<td>92</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879 s</td>
<td>Bardett, G. Hunter</td>
<td>151</td>
<td>1878</td>
<td>Clark, Winthrop A.</td>
<td>190</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>Beede, Frank H.</td>
<td>60</td>
<td>1895 s</td>
<td>Clarke, John Proctor</td>
<td>44</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>Beeman, Allen E.</td>
<td>39</td>
<td>1889</td>
<td>Clifton, Harry T</td>
<td>173</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>Belford, Charles S.</td>
<td>13</td>
<td>1916 s</td>
<td>Coburn, Augustus</td>
<td>75</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>Bement, Edward</td>
<td>13</td>
<td>1905 l</td>
<td>Collings, Benjamin P.</td>
<td>213</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>Benner, Willis</td>
<td>50</td>
<td>1877</td>
<td>Colvin, Francis M.</td>
<td>286</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1912</td>
<td>Berg, Charles F.</td>
<td>128</td>
<td>1859</td>
<td>Cooke, Elbridge C.</td>
<td>39</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877 s</td>
<td>Bidwell, Frank L.</td>
<td>149</td>
<td>1878</td>
<td>Cooper, Joseph A.</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>Bigelow, Ous M., Jr.</td>
<td>115</td>
<td>1883</td>
<td>Cornings, Granville</td>
<td>269</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>Bishop, Avard L.</td>
<td>113</td>
<td>1900 l</td>
<td>Cornish, Robert H.</td>
<td>61</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882 s</td>
<td>Blake, Francis H.</td>
<td>153</td>
<td>1899 l</td>
<td>Coughlin, Thomas C.</td>
<td>286</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875</td>
<td>Blodget, Henry</td>
<td>32</td>
<td>1883 d</td>
<td>Coughlin, William J.</td>
<td>244</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899 s</td>
<td>Boardman, Howard E.</td>
<td>183</td>
<td>1903 s</td>
<td>Craig, James A.</td>
<td>257</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908 s</td>
<td>Boder, Frank A.</td>
<td>199</td>
<td>1895 s</td>
<td>Crane, Charles K.</td>
<td>191</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903 s</td>
<td>Bostwick, Charles R.</td>
<td>189</td>
<td>1883</td>
<td>Crane, Richard T.</td>
<td>175</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900 s</td>
<td>Brennan, William D.</td>
<td>186</td>
<td>1918</td>
<td>Crowell, John Franklin</td>
<td>62</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>Briggs, Ots H.</td>
<td>55</td>
<td>1887 s</td>
<td>Crunden, Arthur C.</td>
<td>132</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883 m</td>
<td>Brockschmidt, Alfred J.</td>
<td>251</td>
<td>1881</td>
<td>Cummings, D. Mark</td>
<td>159</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>Brown, James E.</td>
<td>89</td>
<td></td>
<td>Curtis, Howard J.</td>
<td>56</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892 m</td>
<td>Brown, Richard F.</td>
<td>282</td>
<td>1889</td>
<td>Dana, Samuel H.</td>
<td>11</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>Buck, George S.</td>
<td>187</td>
<td>1927 s</td>
<td>Dayton, Kenneth E.</td>
<td>217</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875</td>
<td>Bulkeley, Alpheus T.</td>
<td>33</td>
<td>1921</td>
<td>Decker, Sterling R.</td>
<td>135</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>PAGE</td>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>PAGE</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-------</td>
<td>------</td>
<td>-------</td>
<td>------</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1835</td>
<td>Dench, William L.  93</td>
<td>1920</td>
<td>Gray, James B.  133</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1852 s</td>
<td>Denny, Thomas  105</td>
<td>1905 l</td>
<td>Greenwell, Wilfrid A.  246</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902 s</td>
<td>Dent, Gratzi  188</td>
<td>1865</td>
<td>Gregory, James G.  8</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883 s</td>
<td>Devereux, Henry K.  154</td>
<td>1892 m</td>
<td>Hall, Joseph B.  232</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909 s</td>
<td>Dickerman, Elihu E.  201</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Harmstad, Clarence C.  84</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910</td>
<td>Dickev, Donald R.  125</td>
<td>1891</td>
<td>Harvey, Perry W.  79</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>Dodge, Fredson H.  68</td>
<td>1890 s</td>
<td>Hastings, Charles S.  143</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td>Dodson, Fred S.  110</td>
<td>1909</td>
<td>Heald, Charles D.  123</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>Douglass, John H.  100</td>
<td>1886</td>
<td>Herod, William P.  270</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td>Dow, Virgil M.  3</td>
<td>1803 s</td>
<td>Higgins, Warren G.  192</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>Draper, Arthur J.  102</td>
<td>1895 s</td>
<td>Hill, David A.  176</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1922</td>
<td>Draper, J. Russell  137</td>
<td>1908 s</td>
<td>Hill, Donald Y.  200</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1869</td>
<td>Driscoll, Cornelius T.  12</td>
<td>1897 s</td>
<td>Hitchcock, Reuben  180</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1919 m</td>
<td>Driscoll, William P.  234</td>
<td>1887 l</td>
<td>Hoadley, Carleton E.  238</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1865</td>
<td>Drury, William H.  8</td>
<td>1903 s</td>
<td>Hodgson, Arthur E.  193</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1912 s</td>
<td>Eddy, Donald M.  206</td>
<td>1905 ma</td>
<td>Holder, Francis J.  219</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>Eddy, Willard  14</td>
<td>1890</td>
<td>Holt, Roland  77</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896 s</td>
<td>Eggars, Augustus H.  178</td>
<td>1885 d</td>
<td>Hood, E. Lyman  259</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>Eliot, Gustavus  40</td>
<td>1910 s</td>
<td>Hoopes, Edgar M., Jr.  204</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>Elliot, George T.  42</td>
<td>1913 s</td>
<td>Horner, Theodore W.  208</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904 s</td>
<td>Elmore, George O.  194</td>
<td>1894 s</td>
<td>Hotchkiss, Howard P.  173</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1915</td>
<td>Evans, Richard F.  130</td>
<td>1859</td>
<td>Hubbard, James M.  4</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896 dp</td>
<td>Fairbanks, Charlotte  222</td>
<td>1893 s</td>
<td>Hull, Louis K.  64</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1924</td>
<td>Faville, Clayton S.  138</td>
<td>1926 f</td>
<td>Hungerford, William C.  170</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>Fiero, Joshua M.  15</td>
<td>1921 s</td>
<td>Huntting, Selden T.  229</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>Fisk, Arthur L.  63</td>
<td>1913 s</td>
<td>Hussey, J. Edward  216</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>Flanders, Roger Y.  119</td>
<td>1910 s</td>
<td>Ingalls, James A.  205</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td>Fowler, Charles N.  35</td>
<td>1872</td>
<td>Jenkins, Edward H.  21</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>Fox, George L.  27</td>
<td>1905 d</td>
<td>Johnston, Philip  266</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>Franklin, Frederick S.  93</td>
<td>1877</td>
<td>Johnston, J. Herbert  43</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1925 s</td>
<td>Fraser, Donald G.  216</td>
<td>1875</td>
<td>Jones, Frank H.  34</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885 s</td>
<td>Gale, William H.  157</td>
<td>1892 l</td>
<td>Joyce, Howard C.  241</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1917</td>
<td>Galt, John  131</td>
<td>1881</td>
<td>Judd, George M.  57</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893 s</td>
<td>Garlick, Richard  169</td>
<td>1871 s</td>
<td>Judson, John N.  143</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1866</td>
<td>Gibbon, Robert P.  10</td>
<td>1893 d</td>
<td>Keedy, Edward E.  291</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>Godfrey, William B.  112</td>
<td>1899</td>
<td>Kelley, William R.  104</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>Good, John E.  94</td>
<td>1921</td>
<td>Kelly, John J.  136</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>Goodlet, Nicholas M.  72</td>
<td>1881 d</td>
<td>Kelsey, Edward D.  255</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886 s</td>
<td>Gordon, William W.  157</td>
<td>1876</td>
<td>Kendrick, John B.  36</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>Gorham, Sands K.  70</td>
<td>1915 s</td>
<td>Kenly, William L.  212</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910 s</td>
<td>Goss, Joseph M.  203</td>
<td>1875 s</td>
<td>Kennedy, Julian  145</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>Gould, Maurice P.  106</td>
<td>1928</td>
<td>Kennedy, Stanton F.  140</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>Govert, George W.  101</td>
<td>1901</td>
<td>Keppelman, John A.  111</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Graham, Charles A.  84</td>
<td>1907 ma</td>
<td>Kinoshita, Junichiro  286</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888 s</td>
<td>Gray, Franklin M.  160</td>
<td>1907 ma</td>
<td>Kinoshita, Junichiro  286</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>PAGE</td>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>PAGE</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-------</td>
<td>------</td>
<td>-------</td>
<td>------</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>Klein, Jacob B.</td>
<td>309</td>
<td>Nelson, Agon I.</td>
<td>141</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1916</td>
<td>f</td>
<td>Klobuchar, Frank J.</td>
<td>227</td>
<td>Nesbitt, Earle S.</td>
<td>126</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>d</td>
<td>Kloss, Charles L.</td>
<td>260</td>
<td>Newbury, Horace A</td>
<td>202</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td></td>
<td>Klosterman, John H.</td>
<td>108</td>
<td>Newell, Emerson R.</td>
<td>87</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td></td>
<td>Koehler, Walter R.</td>
<td>119</td>
<td>Niggeman, Robert A.</td>
<td>177</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td></td>
<td>Lamson, Edwin R.</td>
<td>85</td>
<td>Northrop, Charles A.</td>
<td>22</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>ms</td>
<td>Lamson, George H., Jr.</td>
<td>220</td>
<td>Northrop, Frank E.</td>
<td>245</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td></td>
<td>Lamson, William J.</td>
<td>86</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>s</td>
<td>Langley, Clifford</td>
<td>184</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td></td>
<td>Lathrop, Frederick B.</td>
<td>45</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873</td>
<td></td>
<td>Latting, Charles P.</td>
<td>24</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>m</td>
<td>Lawrence, George W.</td>
<td>281</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>dp</td>
<td>Learned, H. Barrett</td>
<td>233</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875</td>
<td>d</td>
<td>Lee, Lucus O.</td>
<td>253</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930</td>
<td>ma</td>
<td>Lei, Stephen C.</td>
<td>219</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>s</td>
<td>Leland, Charles W.</td>
<td>179</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>s</td>
<td>Lentilhon, Eugene</td>
<td>162</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td></td>
<td>Lewis, George L.</td>
<td>47</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td></td>
<td>Lowrie, Richard</td>
<td>105</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905</td>
<td>s</td>
<td>Macbeth, Gordon F.</td>
<td>196</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>l</td>
<td>McCaughhey, William S.</td>
<td>284</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td></td>
<td>McClure, James G. K.</td>
<td>16</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>l</td>
<td>McCreary, Robert H.</td>
<td>240</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td></td>
<td>McGuire, John F.</td>
<td>78</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889</td>
<td></td>
<td>McMahon, J. Sprigg</td>
<td>76</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875</td>
<td>s</td>
<td>McMurray, Clarence F.</td>
<td>146</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1914</td>
<td>s</td>
<td>Maffett, John T.</td>
<td>211</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td></td>
<td>Male, Francis S.</td>
<td>103</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908</td>
<td>l</td>
<td>Martin, Charles J.</td>
<td>247</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td></td>
<td>Mason, Henry B.</td>
<td>17</td>
<td>1880</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1866</td>
<td>m</td>
<td>Merrill, Albert E.</td>
<td>231</td>
<td>1895</td>
<td>s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td></td>
<td>Miller, Charles S.</td>
<td>43</td>
<td>1926</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1931</td>
<td></td>
<td>Miller, Edward O.</td>
<td>142</td>
<td>1887</td>
<td>s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td></td>
<td>Miller, George Douglas</td>
<td>18</td>
<td>1887</td>
<td>s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1866</td>
<td></td>
<td>Miller, John E.</td>
<td>11</td>
<td>1890</td>
<td>l</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>l</td>
<td>Miller, Reuben, Jr.</td>
<td>167</td>
<td>1879</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td></td>
<td>Mills, William D.</td>
<td>20</td>
<td>1892</td>
<td>d</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908</td>
<td>l</td>
<td>Mitchell, Charles F.</td>
<td>287</td>
<td>1914</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td></td>
<td>Mitchell, Clark G.</td>
<td>124</td>
<td>1900</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>l</td>
<td>Mitchell, Fred B.</td>
<td>237</td>
<td>1895</td>
<td>s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td></td>
<td>Moorhead, John A.</td>
<td>116</td>
<td>1907</td>
<td>s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td></td>
<td>Moré, Joseph O.</td>
<td>272</td>
<td>1892</td>
<td>d</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>l</td>
<td>Morehouse, Samuel C.</td>
<td>238</td>
<td>1888</td>
<td>l</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1931</td>
<td>d</td>
<td>Moss, Charles E.</td>
<td>268</td>
<td>1905</td>
<td>m</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1924</td>
<td>art</td>
<td>Mueller, Michael J.</td>
<td>225</td>
<td>1904</td>
<td>s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td></td>
<td>Munroe, George E.</td>
<td>28</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>PAGE</td>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>PAGE</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-------</td>
<td>------</td>
<td>-------</td>
<td>------</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td></td>
<td>1890</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sanderson, George A.</td>
<td>71</td>
<td>Toomey, Jeremiah D.</td>
<td>240</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td></td>
<td>1893</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Satterfield, John M.</td>
<td>182</td>
<td>Treadwell, George Curtis</td>
<td>170</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td></td>
<td>1876</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Schermerhorn, Alfred E.</td>
<td>95</td>
<td>Tyler, Nathan P.</td>
<td>37</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Seeberger, Charles D.</td>
<td>148</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td></td>
<td>1906</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Seymour, William E.</td>
<td>109</td>
<td>Ulrich, W. Leroy</td>
<td>197</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td></td>
<td>1900</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Shaffer, Herman</td>
<td>273</td>
<td>Underhill, Frank P.</td>
<td>188</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sheak, Andrew G.</td>
<td>149</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td></td>
<td>1913</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Shelton, Charles W</td>
<td>256</td>
<td>Vetter, Nelson J.</td>
<td>210</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sherman, Thomas T.</td>
<td>30</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td></td>
<td>1907</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Skinner, George White, Jr.</td>
<td>285</td>
<td>Waite, Wayne W.</td>
<td>122</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td></td>
<td>1880</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Slade, Arthur J</td>
<td>168</td>
<td>Walker, Eugene W.</td>
<td>52</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td></td>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Slaght, William E. A.</td>
<td>265</td>
<td>Walsh, Walter J.</td>
<td>244</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1911</td>
<td></td>
<td>1883</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Smith, Gilbert M.</td>
<td>128</td>
<td>Warren, Willard D.</td>
<td>236</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td></td>
<td>1912</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Smith, Herbert Knox</td>
<td>80</td>
<td>Waterbury, Thomas R.</td>
<td>207</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873</td>
<td></td>
<td>1917</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Smith, James Wessell</td>
<td>25</td>
<td>Watson, Harold</td>
<td>275</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1922</td>
<td></td>
<td>1883</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Spelman, Howard R.</td>
<td>228</td>
<td>Wayland, John Elton</td>
<td>67</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
<td>1906</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Spencer, Seth S., Jr</td>
<td>181</td>
<td>Weber, W. Hoyt</td>
<td>227</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td></td>
<td>1909</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Steele, Arthur F. S.</td>
<td>116</td>
<td>Weekes, George L.</td>
<td>248</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td></td>
<td>1872</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sterling, Willis B.</td>
<td>57</td>
<td>Welling, W. Brenton</td>
<td>144</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1917</td>
<td></td>
<td>1880</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stevens, Charles P., Jr.</td>
<td>215</td>
<td>Wendell, Ten Eyck</td>
<td>53</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td></td>
<td>1891</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stillman, Richard E.</td>
<td>288</td>
<td>Westbrook, Richard W.</td>
<td>231</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td></td>
<td>1913</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stillman, Wilhelmus M.</td>
<td>188</td>
<td>Westerberg, C. Frederick</td>
<td>210</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882</td>
<td></td>
<td>1893</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Storrs, Charles B.</td>
<td>58</td>
<td>Wheeler, Arthur L.</td>
<td>88</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td></td>
<td>1899</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Street, Harry L.</td>
<td>96</td>
<td>Wheeler, William M.</td>
<td>105</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td></td>
<td>1911</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Strickler, Robert M.</td>
<td>258</td>
<td>White, Alfred J.</td>
<td>248</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1864</td>
<td></td>
<td>1877</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Strong, Selah B.</td>
<td>7</td>
<td>White, Granville M.</td>
<td>236</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td></td>
<td>1893</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sutherland, Ward T.</td>
<td>261</td>
<td>Whitehead, R. William</td>
<td>172</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1867</td>
<td></td>
<td>1882</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Swan, James A</td>
<td>269</td>
<td>Wilbur, Charles E.</td>
<td>256</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905</td>
<td></td>
<td>1876</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Taft, Howard</td>
<td>275</td>
<td>Wilcox, Ralph M.</td>
<td>161</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1920</td>
<td></td>
<td>1910</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tang, Yu Loo</td>
<td>135</td>
<td>Willcox, Charles H.</td>
<td>38</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td></td>
<td>1927</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Taylor, Emerson G</td>
<td>96</td>
<td>Williams, Arthur</td>
<td>127</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td></td>
<td>1900</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Terry, Edmund R.</td>
<td>46</td>
<td>Wiltse, Charles S., Jr.</td>
<td>249</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td></td>
<td>1875</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thacher, Sherman D.</td>
<td>65</td>
<td>Winters, Frederick H.</td>
<td>274</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888</td>
<td></td>
<td>1893</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thayer, Lucius H.</td>
<td>262</td>
<td>Wood, Frederick</td>
<td>147</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1924</td>
<td></td>
<td>1883</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thomas, John Allen M</td>
<td>139</td>
<td>Woodruff, James P.</td>
<td>242</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td></td>
<td>1894</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thomas, Seth E., Jr.</td>
<td>185</td>
<td>Wurts, Alexander J.</td>
<td>155</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td></td>
<td>1894</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thompson, Ralph</td>
<td>271</td>
<td>Wylie, Laura J.</td>
<td>221</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1928</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Throop, Mary L.</td>
<td>226</td>
<td>Yates, C. Halsted</td>
<td>67</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tiebout, Harold C.</td>
<td>277</td>
<td>Yorke, Burt L.</td>
<td>265</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Todd, Leonard E.</td>
<td>120</td>
<td>Young, William D.</td>
<td>83</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>