YALE UNIVERSITY

OBITUARY RECORD OF GRADUATES

1932-1933
Bulletin of Yale University

New Haven 15 October 1933

Obituary Record of Graduates of Yale University

Deceased during the Year 1932-1933
BULLETIN OF YALE UNIVERSITY

Entered as second-class matter, August 30, 1906, at the post office at New Haven, Conn., under the Act of Congress of July 16, 1894.

Acceptance for mailing at the special rate of postage provided for in Section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized August 12, 1918.

The Bulletin, which is issued semimonthly, includes:

1. The University Catalogue.
2. The Reports of the President and Treasurer.
3. The Catalogues of the several Schools.
5. The Obituary Record.
OBITUARY RECORD
OF GRADUATES DECEASED DURING
THE YEAR ENDING JULY 1, 1933

INCLUDING THE RECORD OF A FEW WHO DIED PREVIOUSLY, HITHERTO UNREPORTED

NUMBER 92

Thirtieth Series • Number Three
New Haven • 15 October 1933
Josiah Jewett, B.A. 1863.

Born October 4, 1842, in Buffalo, N. Y.
Died August 12, 1932, in Skaneateles, N. Y.

Father, Sherman Skinner Jewett; owner of an iron foundry; senior partner in firm of Jewett & Root, stove manufacturers; president and director of the Bank of Buffalo and of Buffalo, New York & Philadelphia Railroad Company; son of Josiah and Sophia (Skinner) Jewett, of Moravia, N. Y. Mother, Deborah (Dusenbery) Jewett; daughter of Benjamin Harrison and Hannah (Harris) Dusenbery, of Buffalo. Yale relatives include two first cousins: Dr. Carlton R. Jewett, '78, and Dr. Charles S. Jewett, '87 S.

Prepared for college by a private tutor in Buffalo. Dissertation appointment Senior year; member Delta Kappa, Alpha Sigma Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Phi Beta Kappa.

In office of Jewett & Root 1863–64; traveled abroad 1864–65; partner in tobacco firm of Gibson F. Howard & Company in Buffalo 1865; later resumed his connection with Jewett & Root and admitted to partnership in 1875; partner in its successor, Sherman S. Jewett & Company, 1878–1897; president of Jewett & Company from 1897 until retirement in 1900; secretary of National Association of Stove Manufacturers 1876–78 and on board of managers 1880 and 1881; director of Bank of Buffalo 1880–1893 and vice-president 1880–1892; an organizer of Columbia National Bank of Buffalo in 1892, its first president until 1899, and a director until 1901; an incorporator of Buffalo Loan, Trust & Safe Deposit Company 1881; trustee of Grosvenor Library 1874–1907, president of the board 1884–89, and treasurer 1889–1898; trustee of Buffalo Seminary 1877–1889; elected life member of Buffalo Fine Arts Academy in 1868, on its board of curators 1870–74, 1881–1891, and 1899–1901, treasurer 1874–77, vice-president in 1878, president 1879 and 1880, and one of three fund commissioners 1876–1897; delegate to Republican National

†If the father of an alumnus is a Yale graduate, the father's record is not usually given in this volume, but may be found in published form elsewhere. Additional information concerning the persons whose biographies appear in this volume is on file in the Secretary's Office.
Yale Obituary Record

Convention at Chicago in 1884; an officer of Young Men's Municipal Reform Club; life member of Buffalo Library; an original member of the Buffalo Club in 1867, director 1867–1874 and 1880–82, treasurer 1867–1873, secretary 1871–73, third vice-president 1880, first vice-president 1881, and president 1882; trustee of Olivet Baptist Church 1880–82 and of its successor, Delaware Avenue Baptist Church, 1882–1893.

Married November 4, 1868, in Buffalo, Grace, daughter of Judge Nathan Kelsey Hall and Emily (Paine) Hall. Children: Sherman Skinner (B.A. 1891; M.A. Columbia 1893 and LL.B. 1894); Nathan Hall, '94; Grace Hall, wife of Frederick H. Williams (B. A. Harvard 1892); Lillian Deborah (Mrs. Franklin Coe); Henry Clay (United States Military Academy 1901), a Colonel in the United States Army; and Josiah (died in 1916).

Death due to acute dilatation of the heart and chronic myocarditis. Buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Buffalo. Survived by wife (died September 23, 1932), two daughters, three sons, and ten grandchildren, among whom are Kelsey H. Jewett, '23 S., and Sherman S. Jewett, Jr., '27 S. He was the last surviving graduate member of the Class of 1863.

Edward Wells Bell, B.A. 1864.

Born December 23, 1841, in Marlborough, Conn.
Died August 11, 1932, in Springdale, Conn.

Father, Rev. Hiram Bell (B.A. Williams 1836; graduate Theological Institute of Connecticut 1839), a Congregational minister in Marlborough, Westchester, and Killingworth, Conn.; son of John and Margaret (Brown) Bell, of Antrim, N. H. Mother, Mary Elizabeth (Wells) Bell; daughter of Noah and Dimmis Wells, of Liberty, N. Y.

Peekskill Academy. Entered Yale as a Junior; member Linonia and Alpha Delta Phi.

Taught Latin and German at Peekskill Academy in 1864; spent greater part of the next two years in travel on account of his health; private tutor in New York City 1866–67; citation clerk for Austin Abbott (B. A. New York University 1851), author of Abbott's Digest, in New York in 1867, LL.B. Columbia 1870; practiced law in New York City 1871–87 and 1889–1897, part of this time with firm of Dillon & Swain; engaged in farming at Marlborough 1887–89; assistant general attorney, American Telephone & Telegraph Company, New York City, 1897–1907; engaged in farming again at Marlborough 1907–1927; a director of American Telephone & Telegraph Company, New England Telephone & Telegraph Company, and Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Company; had been elder, president of board of trustees, and treasurer of Mount Olivet Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn; member New York State and New York City Bar associations, American Academy of Political and Social Science, American Statistical Association, Sons of the American Revolution, and Marlborough Congregational Church.

Married January 15, 1867, in Marlborough, Julia Emily Skinner (M.D. New York Medical College and Hospital for Women 1872), daughter of Prentice Buckley and Hannah Emiline (Smith) Skinner. No children. Mrs. Bell died July 8, 1927.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Westchester Cemetery, Colchester, Conn. Survived by a sister, Mrs. Margaret Bell Swan, of Springdale.

Roswell Parish, B.A. 1864.

Born December 3, 1840, in Smithtown, N. Y.
Died August 10, 1932, in Brookline, Mass.

Father, Roswell Parish; engaged in educational work; son of Major Roswell Parish and Lucy (Harris) Parish, of Canterbury, Conn. Mother, Desire (Smith) Parish; daughter of Captain Thomas Smith and Sarah (Smith) Smith, of Smithtown. Yale relatives include: Percy Jackson, '85 S., and Winslow T. Williams, ex-'85 S. (nephews); and E. Winslow Williams, '14 (grandnephew)

Hartford Public High School. Entered Yale with Class of 1863 but left at end of Sophomore year; taught at Hartford Public High School and Columbia Institute for the Deaf in Washington, D. C., 1861-January, 1864; then returned to Yale as a Senior; member Beethoven Society, Brothers in Unity, and Kappa Sigma Epsilon.

Taught mathematics, English, and history at Columbia Institute for the Deaf 1864-65 and at Norwich (Conn.) Free Academy 1865-67; agent for New York Life Insurance Company at Worcester, Mass., 1867-68; instructor in mathematics and physics at Worcester High School 1868-1875; conducted a private school under his own name in Worcester 1875-76; instructor in mathematics and physics at Williston Academy 1876-1882 and at Mrs. Quincy A. Shaw's Private School in Boston 1882-87 (principal of academic department 1884-87); conducted a private school for girls under his own name in Boston 1887-1893; instructor in mathematics at Mechanical Arts High School, Boston, from 1893 until retirement in 1911 (acting headmaster in 1894); had since been engaged in compiling genealogical records of his ancestors, John Parish, of Groton, Mass., and Stonington, Conn, and Richard Smith, of Smithtown; member New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools,
Yale Obituary Record

Eastern Association of Physics Teachers, and Payson Church (Congregational), Easthampton, Mass.

Married April 30, 1869, in Norwich, Conn., Mary Jeannette, daughter of Marvin and Mary Jeannette (Brinckerhoff) McNulty. One son, Roswell, Jr., ex-'95. Mrs. Parish died February 17, 1915.

Death due to carcinoma of the stomach. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Boston Survived by son.

Charles Henry Smith, B.A. 1865.

Born May 14, 1842, in Beirut, Syria.
Died February 14, 1933, in Rochester, N. Y.

Father, Rev. Eli Smith (B.A. 1821, D.D. Williams 1850); son of Eli and Polly (Whitney) Smith, of Northford, Conn. Mother, Maria Ward (Chapin) Smith; daughter of Moses Chapin (B.A. 1811) and Esther Maria (Ward) Chapin, of Rochester. Uncle: Rev. Henry B. Chapin (B.A. 1847).

Williston Academy. Second prize in mathematics Freshman year and first prize Junior year; prize for poem Sophomore year; Latin oration appointment Junior year; salutatorian at graduation; a Class historian Senior year; member Brothers in Unity, Gamma Nu, Alpha Delta Phi, and Phi Beta Kappa; graduate member Elizabethan Club and Wolf's Head.

Taught in Lenox, Mass., 1865-66 and at Hopkins Grammar School 1866-67, tutor in mathematics at Yale 1867-69; taught at Mount Auburn Institute, Cincinnati, 1869-1874; member of faculty at Bowdoin 1874-1890 (professor of mathematics 1874-1887, history and political science 1887-1890); Larned professor of American history at Yale from 1890 until retirement in 1910 and since then professor emeritus; LL.D. Bowdoin 1894; editor of "The History of Yale University" in Universities and Their Sons (1898); fellow of Royal Historical Society of Great Britain; member American Historical Association, Rochester Historical Society, Rochester Chamber of Commerce, Founders and Patriots of America, New Haven Colony Historical Society (vice-president 1900-1911), and Congregational Church, Brunswick, Maine; honorary member Maine and New London County Historical societies.

Married September 7, 1869, in Wolcott, N. Y., Sarah Elizabeth daughter of John and Sarah (Filkins) Munn. No children.

Death due to coronary occlusion and arteriosclerotic heart disease Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife (died March 12, 1933).
Samuel Keeler, B.A. 1867.

Born November 22, 1845, in Wilton, Conn.
Died July 6, 1932, in Ridgefield, Conn.

Father, LeGrand Watrous Keeler, a farmer; son of Isaiah and Lucy (Watrous) Keeler, of Wilton. Mother, Catherine (Lockwood) Keeler; daughter of Horatio and Bertha (Lockwood) Lockwood, of Poundridge, N. Y. First cousin: William J. Betts, ’70.

Wilton Academy. Oration appointment Junior year; dissertation appointment Senior year; member Brothers in Unity, Gamma Nu, Alpha Delta Phi, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Taught in the Milford (Conn.) public school 1867–1870; studied law with Levy Warner in Norwalk, Conn.; admitted to the bar in October, 1870, and practiced in Norwalk for a short time and then in Locust Valley, N. Y., where admitted to New York Bar in October, 1871; practiced in New York City from 1871 until three weeks before his death, at first in connection with the firm of Payne & New and then independently; president of Ridgefield Savings Bank since 1907; director of First National Bank of Ridgefield 1900–1913; president of Ridgefield Press Printing Company since 1915 (director since 1893); member Board of Burgesses of Borough of Ridgefield for some years and warden of the Borough 1908–09; member of Town School Committee 1892–1914, with exception of year 1895; justice of the peace some years and selectman 1908–09; member Law Institute of New York and Ridgefield Congregational Church.

Married February 8, 1888, in New York City, Arvilla, daughter of Benjamin Bailey. No children.

Death due to myocardiac degeneration and general arteriosclerosis. Buried in Ridgefield. Survived by wife, a brother, Robert W. Keeler, and a sister, Miss Catherine R. Keeler, both of Wilton.

Charles Swan Walker, B.A. 1867.

Born October 7, 1846, in Cincinnati, Ohio.
Died January 14, 1933, in Stamford, Conn.

Father, Samuel Swan Walker (Miami University 1826–29; M.D. Medical College of Ohio 1834); physician, teacher, lecturer, architect, and portrait and landscape painter; son of James and Sarah (Swan) Walker, of Cincinnati. Mother, Harriet Newell (Fowles) Walker; daughter of David Lewis and Olivia (Hurd) Fowles, of Sandgate, Vt.

Albion (N. Y.) Academy. Served as a Private in Company G, 137th Ohio Infantry, May 2–August 19, 1864. Attended Marietta College 1864–65 as member of Class of 1867 (member Alpha Sigma
Yale Obituary Record

Ph). Entered Yale as a Junior in 1865; high oration appointment Senior year; contributed to Yale Courant; member Linonia (third prize in debate Senior year; acting secretary), Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), and Phi Beta Kappa.

Studied in Yale Divinity School 1867–68, 1869–1870 (B.D. 1870); attended Andover Theological Seminary 1868–69, licensed to preach June 8, 1869, at Milford, Conn.; ordained to Congregational ministry August 1, 1871, at Darien, Conn., where acting pastor 1870–71 and pastor 1871–72; also taught Latin in Darien Seminary; organized First Congregational Church, Huntington, W. Va., and served as acting pastor 1872–73; principal (in association with Rev. Robert B. Snowden, Williams '59) of Prospect Park Seminary, Brooklyn, N. Y., 1874, acting pastor First Congregational Church, Holyoke, Mass., 1874–76; acting pastor South Congregational Church of Amherst, Mass, 1876–79 and pastor 1881–86; pastor Congregational Church, Vineland, N. J, 1879–1881, took graduate work in political economy and philosophy at Amherst College 1884–85 (Ph.D. 1885); professor of mental and political science at Massachusetts State College 1886–1906 and also served as chaplain of the College and secretary of the faculty; pulpit supply in Western Massachusetts from 1906 until about 1923; acting pastor First Congregational Church in Amherst 1906; regular correspondent of Springfield Union, Boston Globe, and for the Associated Press from 1906 until retirement in 1923; member Amherst School Committee 1884–1891 (chairman in 1891) and again 1914–16 (secretary both years); secretary of Republican Town Committee, Amherst, 1922–26; trustee of First Congregational Church in Amherst 1904-06 and again 1913-16 and moderator of its annual meeting 1905, 1906, 1908–1910, 1912–14, and 1920, appointed councilman of Amherst Interchurch Union 1922; chaplain of Massachusetts State Grange 1888–1900, of Pacific Lodge of Masons, Amherst, 1905–1913, and of E. M. Stanton Post, G.A.R., Amherst, 1917–1925; during the war served as chairman of local committee of U. S. Fuel Administration; author: Herbert Spencer’s View of the Evolution of Religion (1886) and Samuel Mtnout Jones, The Story of an Amherst Boy (1922); contributed to Yale Review, Andover Review, World’s Work, New England Magazine, New Englander, Bibliotheca Sacra, American Journal of Politics, Congregationalist, Work and Wages, Grange News, Treasury Magazine, Golden Rule, Good Roads, and Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science (of which a member); president of Connecticut Valley Economic Association; a founder of Amherst Historical Society in 1903, director 1903–1925, secretary 1916–1920, and president 1920–25; charter member Connecticut Valley Congregational Club 1882; member American Economic Association
Roger Butler Williams, B.A. 1868.

Born May 8, 1848, in Ithaca, N. Y.
Died February 24, 1933, in Ithaca, N. Y.

Father, Josiah Butler Williams, a banker and lumber merchant; member of firm of Williams Brothers; president of Merchants & Farmers [National] Bank and of First National Bank of Ithaca; trustee of Cornell University and Auburn Theological Seminary; state senator; son of Josiah and Charity (Shaler) Williams, of Cromwell, Conn. Mother, Mary Huggesford (Hardy) Williams; daughter of Charles Elias and Louisa (Walker) Hardy, of Ithaca. Yale relatives: Henry S. Williams, '68 S. (brother), A Shaler Williams, '01, and Roger H. Williams (M.A 1903) (nephews); Gordon Page Williams, '31, and Roderick O. Williams, ex-34 (grandnephews); and Chauncey P. Williams, '82 S. (first cousin).

Ithaca Academy. First dispute appointment Junior and Senior years; speaker at Commencement; member Gamma Nu, Alpha Delta Phi, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Had been engaged in banking in Ithaca since 1868; cashier of Merchants & Farmers National Bank until its merger with First National Bank in 1875; director of latter bank since 1884 and its president since 1907; trustee of Ithaca Savings Bank since 1880, second vice-president 1883–87, first vice-president 1887–88, and president since 1888; also engaged in manufacture of machinery 1872–1922 as member of firm of Williams Brothers (with George R. and Henry S. Williams 1872–79, with George R. Williams 1879–1883, and sole owner from 1883); member Ithaca Board of Education 1886–1915 (president 1890–1915); trustee of Cornell University since 1898, member of building committee 1898–1908, of committee on general administration since 1914, and of finance committee since 1907 (chairman since 1908); trustee of Cornell Library Association 1882-1928 (secretary 1884-1901, vice-president 1901-08, and president 1908-1928); trustee of Ithaca Hospital Association 1890-1913; member of board of managers of New York State Agricultural and Industrial School at Rochester 1905-1911; member visiting committee New York State Charities Aid Association, Willard State Hospital at Ovid 1902-05; president of Central New York Southern Railroad Corporation and of Ithaca Traction Company 1918-1921; director and later treasurer of Brush-Swan Electric Light Company, chairman of Sewer Construction Commission of Ithaca 1895-97, member Creek, Park, and Drainage Commission 1906-09; member Ithaca Protective Police 1875-1911 (made Sergeant in 1889, Lieutenant 1891, and Captain 1894); first honorary member Rotary Club of Ithaca, member American Association for the Advancement of Science and First Presbyterian Church, Ithaca (trustee 1908-1931).

Married (1) November 2, 1870, in Ithaca, Ida, daughter of Samuel and Amanda Harris. One daughter, Pauline Harris (died in 1873). Mrs. Williams died March 8, 1873. Married (2) December 17, 1874, in Brooklyn, N. Y., Caroline Louise, daughter of James Lemuel and Juliet (Young) Romer. Children: Juliet Romer (died in infancy); and Roger Butler, Jr. (C.E. Cornell 1901). Mrs. Williams died November 27, 1924.

Death due to arteriosclerotic heart disease. Buried in Ithaca City Cemetery. Survived by son, four grandchildren, one of whom is Henry M. Williams, ex-'34, two great-grandchildren, and four sisters, Miss Augusta H. Williams, Vassar ex-'71, Jane E. Williams Newman, Wells ex-'79, wife of Jared T. Newman (Ph.B. Cornell 1875; LL.B. Albany Law School 1879), Miss Ella S. Williams (B.A. Wells 1881), and Clara M. Williams Tanner, Wells ex-'83, the wife of John H. Tanner (B.S. Cornell 1891), all of Ithaca.

John TenBroeck Hillhouse, B.A. 1869.

Born October 24, 1848, in Watervliet, N. Y
Died December 5, 1932, in San Francisco, Calif.

Father, John Hillhouse (United States Military Academy 1842) on staff of General Martindale, as Assistant Adjutant General with rank of Captain, during Civil War; son of Thomas and Anne VanSchaick (TenBroeck) Hillhouse, of Watertown, N. Y. Mother Catherine Minden (VanVranken) Hillhouse; daughter of Nicholas and Janet (McClelland) VanVranken, of Schenectady, N. Y. Yale relatives: James A. Hillhouse (B.A. 1749) (great-great-uncle); and James Hillhouse (B.A. 1773) and William Hillhouse (B.A. 1777) (great-uncles).

Prepared for college in New York City by a private tutor. Second James Edgar Moore, B.A. 1869.

Born May 26, 1845, in Cincinnati, Ohio.
Died December 7, 1932, in Passaic, N. J.

Father, William Henry Moore; member of firm of Moore, Wilstach & Keys Company, publishers and printers, and of William H. Moore, Sons & Company, booksellers and publishers; son of Loammi and Huldah (Byram) Moore, of Morristown, N. J. Mother, Anna Jane (Eaton) Moore; daughter of William and Mary (Keys) Eaton, of Cincinnati.

Chickering Institute, Cincinnati. Served in 137th Regiment, Ohio Infantry, in Civil War. Member Varuna Boat Club, Delta Kappa,
Yale Obituary Record

Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), S.L.M., and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

In book business in Cincinnati 1869-1875; store manager of William H. Moore, Sons & Company 1870-75; in charge of Magnolia Quarries on Cape Fear River, Brunswick County, N. C., 1875–78; manager of retail department of C. S. Rankin & Company 1878-1889; partner and manager of Rankin Grate & Mantel Company of Cincinnati 1889-1893, resident agent for Hegan Grate & Mantel Company of Louisville, Ky., in charge of Cincinnati office 1893–94; with Louis Snyder Paper Company of Cincinnati from 1894 until retirement 1907; had since made his home in Passaic; vice-president of Provident Loan Company 1883-1890; elder in Presbyterian Church, Cumminsville, Ohio, 1887-1900 and superintendent of Sunday School 1888-1897.

Married September 19, 1872, at College Hill, Ohio, Harriet Johnson (Ohio Female College), daughter of Harding and Abigail (Allen) Johnson. Children: Abigail Allen, wife of Henry R. Kennedy (Cornell 1885–88), Anna Eaton (Mrs John D. DeWitt); Nicholas Byram (died in childhood), Grace Elizabeth (Mrs. Andrew E. Broadston) (died in 1930); Ralph Emerson (died in 1927); James Edgar, Jr.; William Harding; Ruth Standish; Lois (Mrs. Alonzo Jackson); and Harriet May (Mrs. J. Turner Boyle). Mrs. Moore died January 5, 1927.

Death due to chronic heart disease and cystitis. Buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati. Survived by two sons, five daughters, seventeen grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Born August 26, 1846, in Leicester, Mass.
Died February 1, 1933, in North Brookfield, Mass.

Father, Charles Wheeler Warren, a leather manufacturer, son of Joseph and Sally (Green) Warren, of Leicester. Mother, Jane (White) Warren; daughter of John and Hannah (Green) White, of Leicester.

Phillips-Andover. Entered Yale with Class of 1869, but left at end of Sophomore year, reentered in 1868 as Junior with Class of 1870, oration appointment Junior and Senior years, member Linonia, Delta Kappa, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), and Phi Beta Kappa.

Studied in Yale Divinity School 1870-71 and at Andover Theological Seminary 1871–72, subsequently principal of New Bedford (Mass) High School for a time, later engaged in manufacturing business in Leicester (shoe heels and leather shoe strings) and in Boston, but retired from active business in 1890 on account of ill health, had lived in North Brookfield since 1905; member John Nelson Memorial Church (Congregational), Leicester.

Death due to natural causes. Buried in Pine Grove Cemetery, Leicester. Survived by daughter, a granddaughter, two brothers, Rev.-Albert Warren (B.A. 1867, B.D. 1882) and Walter Warren, of Leicester, and a sister, Mrs. Addie Josephine Harrington, of Leicester.

Edward Buckingham Guthrie, B.A. 1871.

Born July 25, 1849, in Putnam, Ohio.
Died February 28, 1933, in Buffalo, N. Y.

Father, Solomon Sturges Guthrie, Ohio University ex-'43; in mercantile business with J. G. Guthrie & Sons, Putnam; president of Union Steamboat and Union Dry Dock companies; son of Julms Chappell and Pamelia (Buckingham) Guthrie, of Putnam. Mother, Ann Jane (Sherwood) Guthrie; daughter of Buckingham and Susan (Sherwood) Sherwood, of Newark, Ohio. Brother, Henry Guthrie, ex-'77 S

Briggs Classical School, Buffalo. Dissertation appointment Junior year; oration appointment Senior year; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Phi Beta Kappa; graduate member Wolf’s Head.

Studied civil engineering at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute 1871-72; member of engineering corps of Buffalo & Jamestown Railroad 1872-74; assistant city engineer of Buffalo 1874-1880; with Gilbert Starch Works 1880-82, as efficiency engineer in Buffalo and during 1881-82 as engineer in charge of construction of plant in Des Moines, Iowa; partner in firm of Guthrie & Clifton, manufacturers of iron and steel axles, in Buffalo 1882-85; assistant city engineer of Buffalo 1885-1896 and city engineer 1896-97; chief engineer of Grade Crossing Commission of Buffalo 1897-1923; engineer of grade crossings with Grade Crossing and Terminal Station Commission of Buffalo from 1923 until retirement in 1928; senior member of Guthrie & Rockwood, consulting engineers, 1892-99 and of Guthrie & Diehl 1899-1910; in private practice as consulting engineer 1885-1892 and 1910-12; member American Society of Civil Engineers; attended Westminster Presbyterian Church.

Married (1) June 21, 1876, in Buffalo, Jeanie Dorsheimer Clifton, Wells ex-'72, daughter of Henry and Elizabeth (Dorsheimer) Clifton. No children. Mrs. Guthrie died March 21, 1901. Married (2) August 5, 1903, in Walpole, N. H., Maria Elizabeth Seabury (B.A. Smith 1890), daughter of Edwin Kirk and Helen Maria (Hosmer) Seabury. Children: Edward Hosmer, '26; and Anne (died in childhood).

Death due to injuries received when struck by an automobile. Cremation took place and ashes were buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Buffalo. Survived by wife and son.

Alfred Bishop Mason, B.A. 1871.

Born February 23, 1851, in Bridgeport, Conn.
Died January 25, 1933, in Florence, Italy.

Chicago High School. Second prize in English composition Sophomore year, dissertation appointment Junior year; and editor of Yale Literary Magazine; member Linonia (second prize in debate in 1869 and first prize in 1870), Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Phi Theta Psi, Psi Upsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Editorial writer with Chicago Tribune 1871-76, during that period studied law (1875-76) and was admitted to the bar in 1876; practiced law in Chicago for about six years, at first with firm of Mattocks & Mason (in which his brother, Edward G. Mason, '60, was a partner) and later as member of the firm of Mason Brothers with Edward G. Mason and Henry B. Mason, '70; subsequently practiced in Jacksonville, Fla., for a time and served as general counsel, vice-president, and land commissioner of Jacksonville, Tampa & Key West Railroad Company until 1889; from 1889 until his retirement in 1922 engaged in business in New York City; had been vice-president and a director of American Cotton Oil Company, managing director of Sprague, Duncan & Hutchinson, Ltd., consulting engineers, and of Sprague Electric Elevator Company, president of Vera Cruz & Pacific Railroad in Mexico (which he built) and of Cauca Railroad in Colombia; a founder of Provident Loan Society of New York; helped originate Chicago Sunday Lecture Society in 1874 and Illinois Free Trade League in 1876; author: Primer of Political Economy (1875; 13th edition 1914); a series of boys' books, Tom Strong, Washington's Scout (1911), Tom Strong, Boy Captain (1913), Tom Strong, Junior (1915), Tom Strong, Third (1916), and Tom Strong, Lincoln's Scout (1919); A Duchess and Her Daughter (1929), and Horace Walpole's England (1930); translator and editor of VonHolst's Constitutional History of the United States (1876) and Constitutional Law of the United States (1887); contributor to Atlantic Monthly, Century, and Fortnightly Review (London); former president of Manhattan Single Tax Club and former member National Civil Service Reform League.
Yale College

Married (1) November 6, 1872, in New Haven, Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Rev. David Murdoch (B.A. Union 1845; honorary M.A. Yale 1852; D.D. Union 1867) and Julia (Porter) Murdoch. Children: Gladys (born and died same day); and Macdonell, ex-03 (died in 1927). Mrs. Mason died January 18, 1912. Married (2) April 7, 1914, in New York City, Mary Knight Wood, daughter of Horatio Gates and Mary Ann (Huntoon) Knight.

Lucius Adelno Sherman, B.A. 1871.

Born. August 28, 1847, in Douglass, Mass.

Died February 13, 1933, in Lincoln, Nebr.

Father, Asahel Sherman, a carpenter and builder; son of Asahel and Rowena (Ballou) Sherman, of Burrrillville, R. I. Mother, Eunice (Walker) Sherman; daughter of Willis and Ruth (Buffum) Walker, of Douglass. Yale relatives include two first cousins, Willis E. Walker, '71, and Rev. Floyd E. Sherman, '78 D.

East Greenwich Seminary and Phillips-Andover. High oration appointment Junior and Senior years; member Delta Kappa, Alpha Delta Phi, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Taught at Hall's Private School in Ellington, Conn., 1871-72; instructor in Latin, Greek, and English at Hopkins Grammar School 1872-1882; studied in Yale Graduate School 1872-75 (Ph.D. 1875); member of the faculty of University of Nebraska from 1882 until retirement in 1929 (chairman of English Department, professor of the English language and literature 1882-1901, dean of College of Arts and Sciences 1887-1901, and dean of Graduate School 1901-1929, when made dean emeritus); LL.D. Nebraska Wesleyan University 1910; gave a Chautauqua lecture course in 1895 and a course of lectures on elements and inductive study of literature at University of Chicago in 1898; author: Analytics of Literature (1893),
Yale Obituary Record

What is Shakespeare? (1902), Elements of Literature and Composition (1908), and How to Describe and Narrate Visually (1925); editor of Shakespeare's Macbeth (1889) and Hamlet (1903), Tennyson's The Princess (1900), and Massinger (in Masterpieces of the English Drama series) (1912); in 1877 translated into metrical form Frithiof's Saga, a Swedish epic; member Lincoln Chamber of Commerce 1913–1928, Dante League of America, Modern Language Association, and St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church, Lincoln (trustee since 1893).

Married (1) July 6, 1875, in New Haven, Antoinette, daughter of Charles Barnes and Antoinette (Wilcoxson) Whittlesey, and sister of Charles W. Whittlesey, '79 S. One son, Lucius Whittlesey, attended University of Nebraska 1888–1891. Mrs. Sherman died August 14, 1876. Married (2) September 2, 1878, in Athens, Pa., Anna Barber, daughter of Horace and Catherine (Barber) Williston. Children: Horace Williston, University of Nebraska 1897–1901; and Winifred Speranza (B.A. Vassar 1907), the wife of Robert B. Updike, University of Nebraska ex-'06. Mrs. Sherman died August 12, 1900. Married (3) June 26, 1902, in Boston, Josephine Shaw Fisher (special student at University of Nebraska 1896–99), daughter of William and Caroline Frances (Fisher) Shaw.

Death due to myocarditis. Buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Omaha, Nebr. Survived by wife, two sons, daughter, and six grandchildren.

Waller Bennett, B.A. 1872.

Born July 4, 1849, in White Hall, Ky.
Died March 13, 1933, in Richmond, Ky.

Father, Samuel Bennett, a farmer; son of John Bennett, a Methodist minister, and Isabel (Harris) Bennett, of White Hall. Mother, Elizabeth (Chenault) Bennett; daughter of William and Susanna (Phelps) Chenault, of Richmond. Yale relatives include: Samuel Bennett, '82 (brother); and David A. Chenault, '82 (first cousin)

Madison Academy, Richmond. Member Linonia and Kappa Sigma Epsilon.

Married January 22, 1896, in Richmond, Mary Campbell, daugh-
Newell Meeker Calhoun, B.A. 1872.

Born March 2, 1847, in Warren, Conn.
Died August 5, 1932, in Orange, Conn.

Father, William Ferry Calhoun, a farmer; son of William and Elizabeth (Ferry) Calhoun, of Washington, Conn. Mother, Lemira E. (Tracy) Calhoun; daughter of Francis and Clarissa (Clemons) Tracy, of New Preston, Conn.

Connecticut Literary Institute, Suffield. Entered Yale with Class of 1872 (member Gamma Nu), but left during Freshman year on account of ill health; entered Yale Divinity School 1871 (B.D. 1874); honorary M.A. 1887; in 1905 enrolled in Class of 1872.

Ordained to Congregational ministry June 13, 1874, at Creston, Iowa, where pastor one year, and also served the church at Nevinville; pastor Pilgrim Church, Cleveland, Ohio, 1875–1884; First Church, Milford, Conn., 1884–87; First Congregational Church, Canandaigua, N.Y., 1887–1894; traveled abroad 1894–95; president of Keuka College 1896–97; pastor Second Congregational Church, Winsted, Conn., 1897–1907; Orange Congregational Church from 1907 until retirement 1923 and then pastor emeritus; Fellow of Yale Corporation from 1899, when elected one of the successors of the original trustees, until his resignation in 1929 (member of Dining Hall Committee 1924–29); author: Picturesque Litchfield County (1900) and Litchfield County Sketches (1906); president of Connecticut branch of Yale Divinity School Alumni Association 1920–22; honorary member Cleveland Congregational Club, Canandaigua Scientific Society, and Litchfield County University Club.

Married August 24, 1875, in New Haven, Laura Trowbridge, daughter of James William and Laura (Tuttle) Cannon. One son, William Legrande (died in infancy).

Death due to myocarditis. Buried in Orange Center Cemetery.
Survived by wife (died June 19, 1933), an adopted daughter, Florence Marguerite Loomis, the wife of Frederic B. Loomis (B.A. Amherst 1896; Ph.D. Munich 1899), two grandsons, three sisters, Miss Helen Elizabeth Calhoun, Mrs. Ophelia Irena Hayes, and Mrs. Theresa Amelia Catlin, all of Southern Pines, N. C., and Milford, Conn., and a brother, Seth Henry Calhoun, of Stratford, Conn.

Oscar Henry Cooper, B.A. 1872.

Born November 22, 1852, in Carthage, Texas.
Died August 22, 1932, in Abilene, Texas.

Father, William Henry Cooper (M.D. University of Pennsylvania 1849), a physician in Carthage; son of Samuel Cooper, a graduate of United States Military Academy in 1815, and Mary Taylor (Robinson) Cooper, of Cincinnati, Ohio. Mother, Catherine Hunter (Rosser) Cooper; daughter of John and Elizabeth (Tweedy) Rosser, of Campbell County, Va.

Private tutor and Marshall (Texas) Academy. Entered Yale with Class of 1871, but left during Sophomore year; reentered as Junior with Class of 1872, but left at end of the year; in 1876 received degree of B.A., with enrollment in Class of 1872; philosophical oration appointment; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Phi Beta Kappa.

President of Henderson College 1873-79; assistant principal and instructor in Latin at the State Normal School, Huntsville, Texas, 1879-1881; tutor in Latin at Yale 1881-84 and student in the Graduate School 1881-82; studied at University of Berlin 1884-85; principal of Houston (Texas) High School and Normal School 1885-86, state superintendent of public instruction in Texas 1886-1890; superintendent of schools, Galveston, Texas, 1890-96; established Carthage Graded and High School in 1896 and its principal to 1899, president of Baylor University 1899-1902 and of Simmons College (Texas) 1902-09; headmaster of Cooper School for Boys, Abilene, Texas, 1909-1915; had since been professor of philosophy and education at Simmons University and chairman of the faculty; lecturer on history of education at University of Texas in 1922 and visiting professor of the history and philosophy of education there 1928-29 (was author of the bill in 1881 establishing that university, the passage of this act by the Legislature providing for its organization that year, although the university was not opened until 1883); president of Association of Texas Colleges and Universities 1932 (chairman of its commission on military training in 1918); vice-president of National Education Association 1897-98 (member of committee of fifteen in 1915); member of executive board of Conference for Education in Texas 1907-1915 and of Texas State Teachers Association 1909 and again 1917-1921; chairman of Survey Committee for Higher Education in 1922; LL.D. Peabody Normal College (now University of Nashville) 1892 and Baylor University 1914; Litt.D. Simmons 1925; author History of Our Country (1895); published Sixth and Seventh Biennial reports of State Superintendent of Public Instruction (1888 and 1890) and a special report (1887); member advisory council of Simplified Spelling Board, National Council of Education, American Philological Association, American Social Science Association, National Institute of Social Sciences, American Economic Association, Southern Sociological Association, Texas Academy of Science, and First Baptist Church, Abilene; fellow of Texas Historical Society.

Married November 24, 1886, in Marshall, Mary Bryan Stewart (Hellmuth College, Ontario), daughter of James Jackson and Theodosia (Starr) Stewart. Children: Oscar Henry, Jr., '08; Jackson Stewart (M.D. University of Texas 1914); Hubert Newton; and Mary Theodosia (B.A. Simmons 1919 and University of Texas 1920; M.A. University of Texas 1922), the wife of Dan A. Gallagher (B.S. University of Illinois 1923).

Death due to carcinoma of stomach and intestines. Buried in Masonic and City Cemetery, Abilene. Survived by wife, daughter, three sons, and four grandchildren.

Willard Haskell Robinson, B.A. 1872.

Born November 11, 1850, in Lowell, Mass.
Died June 2, 1933, in Holland, Mich.

Father, Benjamin Willard Robinson; son of George and Annis (Willard) Robinson, of Harvard, Mass. Mother, Mary (Haskell) Robinson.

Adelphi Academy, Brooklyn, N. Y. First colloquy appointment Junior year; second colloquy appointment Senior year; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon and Alpha Delta Phi.

Graduated from Rochester Theological Seminary in 1875 and graduate student there 1875-76; ordained to Baptist ministry July 8, 1876, in Auburn, N. Y., where pastor of First Baptist Church until 1882; pastor Epiphany Church, Philadelphia, 1882-89; First Baptist Church, Brooklyn, 1889-1892; united with Presbyterian denomination in 1893; pastor Englewood Presbyterian Church, Chicago, from 1894 until retirement in 1919 and since then pastor emeritus; trustee of Cook Academy 1876-78; member executive board and publishing committee of American Baptist Publishing Society 1882-89.
Married October 1, 1879, in Geneva, N. Y., Ella Raymond, daughter of Rev. David Moore (D.D. University of Rochester 1865) and Edna (St. John) Moore. Children: David Moore (B.A. University of Chicago 1898, Ph.D. 1905; LL.D. Jamestown College 1915; L.H.D. Trinity 1925; Litt.D. Syracuse 1933); Benjamin Willard (B.A. University of Chicago 1902, Ph.D. 1904 and Columbia 1906; B.D. Union Theological Seminary 1907); Edna Moore (B.A. University of Chicago 1904, M.A. 1916; Ph.D Johns Hopkins 1917); Ida May (died in 1904); and Willard Haskell, Jr. (B.A. University of Chicago 1909, Ph.D. 1915; B.D. McCormick Theological Seminary 1913).

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Green-Wood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, three sons, one daughter, and a granddaughter.

Herbert William Lathe, B.A. 1873.

Died August 24, 1932, in Brookline, Mass.

Father, Martin Lathe; head of firm of Lathe & Morse, manufacturers of machinery; son of Moses and Polly (Nutting) Lathe, of Leverett, Mass. Mother, Mary Ann (Putnam) Lathe; daughter of Mark and Rebecca (Carter) Putnam, of West Stockbridge, Mass. Nephew: Herbert L. Drury, '03.

Worcester High School. Third prize in English composition Sophomore year; oration appointment Junior year and second prize at Junior Exhibition; dissertation appointment Senior year and second prize in English composition; on Yale College Church Committee and a Class deacon; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Taught in a private school at Shamokin, Pa., 1873-74; graduated from Andover Theological Seminary 1877; ordained to Congregational ministry 1877 and pastor of Plymouth Congregational Church, Portland, Maine, until 1881; spent part of year 1881-82 abroad and then was resident licentiate at Andover Theological Seminary; pastor of First Congregational Church, Northampton, Mass., 1882-1891; spent six months abroad and two years (1892-94) in Colorado on account of his health, during which time he had charge of the Congregational Church in Silverton; took graduate work at Princeton Theological Seminary 1894-95; pastor of First Congregational Church, Pasadena, Calif., 1895-1902; had charge of the Congregational Church in Manitou, Colo., 1902-04; lived in San Diego, Calif., 1904-07; pastor of Congregational Church, Prescott, Ariz., 1907-1914; lived in Newton, Mass., 1914-16, Washington,
D. C., 1916–1920, Boston 1920–21, and Cambridge, Mass., from 1921; had charge during the summer of a church in Lyndeboro, N. H., from 1914 until his retirement in 1920; author: Chosen of God (1897), Spiritual Life in Its Fullness (about 1900), and Junior Parish (1915); also published a souvenir pamphlet, Six Sermons, in 1902; compiler of Quaint and Quotable Sayings and Incidents under name of Nicholas Nichols (1930); president of Congregational Club of the Connecticut Valley during his pastorate at Northampton; member North Congregational Church, Cambridge, at time of death.

Married November 14, 1878, in West Newton, Mass., Harriet Preble, daughter of Peter Thacher (B.A. Bowdoin 1831) and Margaret Louisa (Potter) Thacher. No children.

Death due to pneumonia; had been confined to his bed since April, when he fell and broke his hip. Cremation took place and ashes were buried in Newton Cemetery. Survived by wife, two brothers, Alfred Lathe, of Butte, Mont., and Fred Lathe, of Seattle, Wash., and a sister, Miss Martha L. Lathe, Smith ex'90, of Boston.

Edward Denmore Robbins, B.A. 1874.

Born October 20, 1853, in Wethersfield, Conn.
Died October 7, 1932, in New Haven, Conn.

Hartford Public High School. First prize in English composition Sophomore year; Woolsey scholar three years and Clark scholar Senior year; philosophical oration appointment Junior year and second prize at Junior Exhibition; first college premium in English composition Senior year; valedictorian of Class of 1874; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Alpha Sigma Phi, Phi Theta Psi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Traveled abroad and studied at University of Jena 1874–75; Douglas fellow at Yale 1875–77 and also Clark scholar 1875–76; tutor in Latin at Yale 1877–79 and in Latin and logic 1879–1880; studied in Yale School of Law 1878–79 (LL.B. 1879 and John Addison Porter prize and general honors); traveled abroad 1880–81; practiced law in Hartford 1881–1907; counsel for New York & New England Railroad Company; Connecticut counsel for New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad 1906–07 and general counsel at New Haven 1907–1914; special counsel for Connecticut State Insurance Department 1926–1932; lecturer on medical jurisprudence
George Woodward Stone, B.A. 1874.

Born January 17, 1852, in Cincinnati, Ohio.
Died December 20, 1932, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Father, Richard Henry Stone (Xavier University), a lawyer.
Mother, Sarah Wilson (Landrum) Stone; daughter of Rev. Francis Landrum and Sally (Wren) Landrum.

Chickering Institute, Cincinnati. Member Delta Kappa.

Studied at Cincinnati Law School and admitted to the bar in April, 1876; practiced law in Cincinnati from 1876 until his retirement in 1927, associated for a time with his father and his brother, Richard H. Stone, Jr.

Unmarried.

Death due to pneumonia and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati. Survived by no immediate relatives.

Thomas Parmelee Wickes, B.A. 1874.

Born April 17, 1853, in Albany, N. Y.
Died January 18, 1933, in Los Angeles, Calif.

Father, Eliphalet Wickes, in oil business in Albany; son of Rev. Thomas Scudder Wickes (B A. 1814) and Julia (Penniman) Wickes, of Albany.
Mother, Ellen (Parmelee) Wickes. Yale relatives include three nephews. Forsyth Wickes, '98, Robert H. Cory, '02, and David U. Cory, '03.

Phillips-Andover. Third prize in English composition Sophomore year; an editor of Yale Record and Yale Literary Magazine; member '74 Boat Club, '74 Glee Club, and College Choir; musical director of Yale Dramatic Association; floor manager of Junior Promenade; Class historian Senior year; member Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones.

LL.B. Columbia 1876; admitted to New York Bar in May, 1876; assistant in office of counsel to Corporation of the City of New York (William C. Whitney, ’65, counsel 1875-1882) 1876-1890; practiced law in New York City 1890-1906 (member of firm of Hatch & Wickes 1892-1902) and, following his admission to bar of District of Alaska, in Juneau 1906-07; subsequently practiced in Seattle a short time; admitted to California Bar in June, 1907, and had since practiced in San Francisco and Los Angeles; member of firm of Wickes, Schwartz & Powell in San Francisco for a time; connected with Pacific Coast Law & Development Company of San Francisco.

Death due to lobar pneumonia. Buried in Valhalla Cemetery, Burbank, Calif. Survived by wife, daughter, and one son.

James Hazleton Cook, B.A. 1875.

Born February 22, 1852, in St. Louis, Mo.
Died March 13, 1933, in New York City.

Father, James Hazleton Cook; engaged in mining as an officer of the Little Giant Gold Company; son of Nathaniel and Mary (Hazleton) Cook, of Haddam, Conn. Mother, Rebecca Ann (Hull) Cook; daughter of Joseph and Fanny (Chittenden) Hull, of Clinton, Conn.

Guilford (Conn.) Institute. Second colloquy appointment Junior and Senior years; member Gamma Nu.

Studied in Yale School of Law during his Senior year in college and until 1876 (LL.B. 1876); practiced law independently in New York City from 1876 until within a few years of his death; served as judge of Middlesex County Court for six or eight years; also engaged in farming and stock raising at Clinton, Conn., from 1885 until about 1910, as owner of Cedarhurst Farm; during later years of his life had contributed to various papers.

Married May 9, 1895, in Clinton, Ethelwyn, daughter of John Thomas and Christine (Carpentier) Salter. No children.

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Alderbrook Cemetery, Guilford. Survived by wife and a brother, Rolland C. Cook, of Torrington, Conn.
Yale Obituary Record

Timothy Davenport, B.A. 1875.
Born February 8, 1854, in Wilton, Conn.
Died December 21, 1932, in Yonkers, N. Y.

Father, George Augustus Davenport (Yale School of Law 1838–1840); lawyer; judge of probate of District of Norwalk, Conn.; state's attorney for Fairfield County, Conn.; son of Nathan and Mary (Smith) Davenport, of Wilton. Mother, Mary (Sturges) Davenport; daughter of Erastus and Abigail (Sturges) Sturges, of Wilton. Yale relatives include: Rev. William Worthington (B.A. 1716) (great-great-great-grandfather); Rev. Cotton M. Smith (B.A. 1751) (great-great-grandfather); Abraham Davenport and Rev. James Davenport (both B.A. 1732) (great-great-uncles); Rev. Daniel Smith (B.A. 1791) (great-grandfather); John C. Smith (B.A. 1783) (great-uncle); Rev. Thomas M. Smith (B.A. 1816) and Edward W. and John C. Smith (both B.A. 1835) (great-uncles); Daniel Davenport, '73, and Benjamin Davenport, ex-'75 (brothers); Davenport White, '01 S., and Darlington Davenport, '05 S. (nephews); and Eugene Smith, '59 (first cousin).

Wilton Academy. Member Delta Kappa.

LL.B. 1877 (honors Junior year); practiced law in New York City from 1877 until death, in office of Cephas Brainerd 1878–1910, associated with Ira H. Brainerd 1898–1932; trustee of Century Company (publishers) since 1926; member Bar Association of the City of New York (member of its committee on amendment of the law 1911–13), New York State and County Bar associations, International Law Association, and Society of Colonial Wars; Episcopalian; elected member Yale chapter of Chi Tau Kappa (honorary legal fraternity) in 1910.

Death due to chronic myocarditis. Buried in St. Matthew's Cemetery, Wilton. Survived by son, daughter, three grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Mary A. White, of Wilton.

Born October 9, 1854, in Bridgeport, Conn.
Died July 11, 1932, in Tallahassee, Fla.

Father, Daniel Jones Day, a transporter of cotton, son of Colonel Noble Day and Elizabeth (Jones) Day, of New Preston, Conn.
Mother, Emily Ellsworth (Jones) Day; daughter of Rev. Henry Jones (B.A. 1820) and Eliza Steele Greenleaf (Webster) Jones, of Bridgeport. Yale relatives include: Rev. Jeremiah Day (B.A. 1756) and Noah Webster (B.A. 1778) (great-grandfathers); Rev. Jeremiah Day (B.A. 1795), Thomas Day (B.A. 1797), and Mills Day (B.A. 1803) (great-uncles); Rev. Henry N. Day (B.A. 1828), Thomas Day (B.A. 1839), Charles Day (B.A. 1840), and Dr. Henry W. Jones (B.A. 1855) (uncles); and Henry M. Day (honorary M.A. 1859) and Jeremiah Day, '73 (first cousins).

Hopkins Grammar School and under his grandfather, Rev. Henry Jones, in Bridgeport. First colloquy appointment Junior year; second colloquy appointment Senior year; on Thanksgiving Jubilee Committee and Class Supper Committee Freshman year; a marshal at inauguration of President Porter; member Delta Kappa, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones.

After graduation entered office of Day & Heaton, bankers and brokers, in New York City and in 1877 became a member of New York Stock Exchange; sold his seat on the Exchange in 1878 and was member of firm of C. McCulloch, Beecher & Company, commission merchants, of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, until 1880; manager of branch office in Chicago of A. W. Dimock & Company, bankers and brokers, of New York 1881–84; connected with A. H. Andrews & Company, manufacturers of furniture, in Chicago 1884–86; in 1886 organized stock department of Orr, Crittenden & Comes, commission merchants, Chicago, and served as its manager for some years; secretary of real estate firm of Ellioott Square Company of Buffalo 1895–1916; president of St. George Development Company (real estate) of Tallahassee since 1912; had also been secretary and treasurer of Wabash Avenue Property Owners' Protective Association and a director of National Electric Service Company, both of Chicago; life member Buffalo Historical Society; member Sons of the American Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, Society of Mayflower Descendants, and Order of the Descendants of Colonial Governors.

Married May 15, 1878, in New York City, Hélène Lenard, daughter of George Edward and Almyra (Gilder) West. Children: Emily Webster, who married Edmund S. Smith (B.S. Cornell 1901) and died in 1929; and Rodney West.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Oakland Cemetery, Tallahassee. Survived by wife, son, four grandchildren, and a stepdaughter, Madeleine Lenard Day.
Robert Donaldson Townsend, B.A. 1875.

Born March 15, 1854, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died March 29, 1933, in Cranford, N. J.

An orphan, adopted by Amos Townsend, a banker, of New Haven, and Melissa Hyde (Huntington) Townsend.

Williston Academy. Third prize in English composition Sophomore year; first dispute appointment Junior year and second prize at Junior Exhibition; second dispute appointment Senior year and speaker at Commencement; on Tale Courant board Senior year; member Delta Kappa.

LL.B. 1878 (member Lambda Sigma); admitted to Connecticut Bar 1878; in law office of C. H. Sulton in Clarksville, Ga., 1878-79; then engaged in editorial and reference-book work in New York City; connected with editorial department of American Book Exchange 1879-1882; editor of Good Literature, a weekly, 1882-84; assistant editor of the Christian Union (later The Outlook) 1885-1897; managing editor of The Outlook 1897-1923 and connected with editorial staff until March, 1932; director of The Outlook Company 1926-28, president of board of trustees of Cranford Free Public Library since 1910.

Married June 11, 1890, in Brooklyn, Elizabeth Harriett, daughter of William and Harriett (Forbes) Gaston No children. Mrs. Townsend died December 5, 1927.

Death due to chronic interstitial nephritis. Buried in Fairview Cemetery, Westfield, N. J. Survived by no immediate relatives.

Julian Halsted Kean, B.A. 1876.

Born April 24, 1854, in Ursino, N. J.
Died August 26, 1932, in Ursino, N. J.

Father, John Kean (B.A. Princeton 1834), a farmer; a founder of Elizabeth & Somerville Railroad Company; president of Central Railroad of New Jersey, National State Bank, and Elizabethtown Gas Light Company, son of Peter Philip James Kean (B.A. Princeton 1807) and Sarah Sabina (Morris) Kean, of Ursino. Mother, Lucy (Halsted) Kean; daughter of Caleb Ogden and Caroline Louise (Pitney) Halsted (Pitney) Halsted, of New York City.

Prepared for college in Stockbridge, Mass., at Churchill's School, Ossining, N. Y., and by private tutor, Herbert E. Kinney, '71, in New Haven. Member Class Day Committee, Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Spent two and a half years in Europe after graduation, and attended lectures at University of Leipzig 1876–77; studied law at Columbia (L.L.B. 1880); admitted to New York State Bar in 1880 and practiced law in New York City until 1900; connected with firm of Olin, Rives & Montgomery 1880–1890; vice-president of National State Bank in Elizabeth, N. J., 1888–1914 and president since 1914 (director since 1881); president of Elizabethtown Water Company Consolidated since 1914 (director since 1893) and of Elizabethtown Gas Light Company 1915–1923, and of its successor, Elizabethtown Consolidated Gas Company, since 1923 (director since 1923); and of Elizabethport Banking Company since 1915; vestryman of St John’s Episcopal Church, Elizabeth, 1915–1928 and warden since 1928; in 1926 gave to Yale University Library a fund of $35,000 in memory of his brother, John Kean, ’76, who died in 1914, to constitute the John Kean Memorial Fund, and in 1927 made an additional gift to the fund of $25,000.

Unmarried.

Death due to malignancy of the pancreas. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Elizabeth. Survived by a sister, Mrs. W. Emlen Roosevelt, of New York City, and a brother, Hamilton F. Kean, United States Senator from New Jersey.

Jacob Livingston Roseboom, B.A. 1876.

Born April 9, 1853, in Roseboom, N. Y.
Died August 10, 1932, in Cherry Valley, N. Y.

Father, Henry Roseboom; with mercantile house of John R. Pitkin, New York City; later managed his 2,000 acre estate; son of Abraham and Ruth (Johnson) Roseboom, of Roseboom. Mother, Cornelia Rutgers (Livingston) Roseboom; daughter of Jacob Livingston (Union College ex-1799; B.A. Columbia 1799) and Catherine Augusta (DePeyster) Livingston, of Livingstonville, N. Y. First cousin: Abraham B. Cox, ’64.

Prepared for college by Rev. Josiah Clark at Northampton, Mass. Member Delta Kappa and Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi).

Studied medicine with Dr. David Little in Rochester, N. Y., and served as an interne at Rochester City Hospital for about a year; continued medical studies at Columbia 1878–1880 (M.D. 1880), assistant physician at Kings County Hospital, Brooklyn, 1880–81; practiced in Utica, N. Y., and served as ward and visiting physician to Utica Orphan Asylum 1882–84; librarian of Utica Medical Library Association; studied at Marburg, Germany, and at University of Vienna 1885–86; practiced in Rochester from 1886 until retirement in 1928 and on staff of Free Out-patient Department of Rochester City Hospital; city physician of Rochester 1887–1890; examining surgeon and secretary of Rochester Board of Pensions 1893-98; director of Monroe County Permanent Saving & Loan Association; fellow and councilor of Rochester Academy of Sciences; councilor of Rochester Pathological Society; censor of Medical Society of Monroe County; member American Medical Association, Medical Society of the State of New York, Oneida Historical Society, and Grace Episcopal Church, Cherry Valley.

Unmarried.

Death due to infirmities of age and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Cherry Valley Cemetery. Survived by a nephew and five nieces.

Walter Brooks, B.A. 1877.

Born March 19, 1856, in New York City.
Died March 26, 1933, in New York City

Lyons Collegiate Institute, New York. Second colloquy appointment Junior year; member Junior Promenade and Senior Class Supper committees, Delta Kappa, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Engaged in banking and brokerage business in New York City 1877-1891, in connection with Vermilye & Company for a time and later as partner in firm of Hatch, Brooks & Hamlin (in which John R. Hatch, '77, was also a partner) and its successor, Brooks & Hamlin, partner in firm of Brooks Brothers from 1891 until retirement in 1913; treasurer of company 1903-1913 and director since 1903; since retirement had spent most of his time abroad, in Brussels 1913-1930, and on the Italian Riviera at Santa Margherita Ligure 1930-33, author: Feather in the Straw (1904), Retold in English (short stories from the French, German, Italian, and Spanish) (1906), Vibrations (collection of translated aphorisms) (1910), and A Child and a Boy (1915).

Married (1) June 1, 1887, in New York City, Louise, daughter of Newton and Emily (Allen) Squire. One daughter, Edith Allen, the wife of Arthur R. S. Nutting (B.A. Trinity College, Cambridge, 1909). Mr. and Mrs. Brooks were divorced in 1915. Married (2) March 9, 1915, in Bridgeport, Conn., Anna Charlotte Fredericke, daughter of Jean and Johanne (Greite) Heine. Mrs. Brooks died February 26, 1933.

Death due to an ulcer of the esophagus. Buried in Green-Wood.
Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by daughter and a sister, Mrs. Adelaide Brooks Baylis, of New York City.

Joseph Hayes Chandler, B.A. 1877.

Born August 14, 1854, in West Brattleboro, Vt.
Died October 5, 1932, in Northampton, Mass

Kimball Union and Williston academies. Studied at Williams College 1873-74 as member of Class of 1876. Conducted a private school at Saxton's River, Vt., 1874-75. Entered Yale as a Sophomore in 1875; first prize in declamation that year; first colloquy appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year; an editor of Yale Courant and a Class historian Senior year; member College Choir, Class and University Glee clubs, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), and Psi Upsilon.

Taught at Park Institute, Rye, N. Y., 1877-79; attended Union Theological Seminary 1879-1881; B.D. Andover Theological Seminary 1882; ordained to Congregational ministry November 13, 1883, at St. Cloud, Minn., where pastor 1882-85; assistant minister of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, St. Paul, Minn., eight months in 1885; pastor of St. Anthony Park Congregational Church, St. Paul, 1886-1893; resident director of the settlement house connected with People's Church, St. Paul, 1893-94; pastor of Congregational Church, Rhinelander, Wis., 1894-97; Owatonna, Minn., 1897-99; and Fond du Lac, Wis., 1900-07; during that period served as correspondent and consulting editor for Wisconsin of the Congregationalist; lecturer on history of worship at Bible School, Ripon, Wis., 1907; engaged in literary work in Chicago 1907-1913, as acting representative of the Congregationalist in Chicago and Middle West 1908-1912; executive secretary of the Chicago Church Federation Council 1911-12 and of Illinois Interchurch Federation 1912-13; assistant to superintendent of home mission work in Illinois in 1913 and also had charge of the churches at Alto Pass and Cobden; acting pastor of Pilgrim Church, Milwaukee, Wis., 1913-14; lecturer on ethics and sociology at Marshall Law School, Chicago, 1914-15; acting pastor of Congregational Church, Calumet, Mich., 1915-16; pastor of Congregational Church, Belchertown, Mass., 1916-18; engaged in Y. M. C. A. work in New York City 1918-19; community organizer and director of Soldiers' Club House, Camp Morgan, N. J., under War Camp Community Service July-November, 1919; engaged in social service work in New York 1919-1920; lecturer on social ethics at Savage School of Physical Culture, New York, 1920-21; resident director of Wright Home for Young Women, Northampton, since 1920; member Tri-Church Council at Dayton, Ohio, in 1906 and at Chicago in 1907.

Married October 21, 1884, in St. Cloud, Elizabeth Curtis Farrar (Carleton College 1883-84), daughter of Benjamin Fay and Emily Cook (Burr) Farrar. One daughter, Ruth Farrar, University of Minnesota ex-'07, the wife of Rexford L. May.

Death due to arteriosclerosis and organic heart disease. Buried in West Brattleboro Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughter, four grandchildren, and a brother, William K. Chandler, of Amarillo, Texas.

Arthur Reed Kimball, B.A. 1877.

Born February 1, 1855, in New York City.
Died January 27, 1933, in Waterbury, Conn.

Hopkins Grammar School. Entered Yale with Class of 1876, but left at end of Sophomore year on account of illness; reentered as Sophomore with Class of 1877, second prize in mathematics and two second prizes in English composition Sophomore year; oration appointment Junior year and second prize at Junior Exhibition; oration appointment, Townsend Premium, and second College Premium in English composition Senior year; an editor of Yale Literary Magazine; member Delta Kappa, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones; elected to Elizabethan Club 1915.

Studied law at Yale 1877-78 and then in office of Frederick H. Winston, the father of his classmate, in Chicago; admitted to Chicago Bar in 1879; practiced law there 1879–1880; engaged in newspaper work 1880–1922; city editor of Iowa State Register at Des Moines 1880–81; reporter for St. Louis Globe-Democrat two months in 1881; connected with Waterbury American 1881–1922, as associate editor until 1907 and then as business manager; director of American Printing Company (publishers of Waterbury American) 1900–1922, treasurer 1908–1922, and president 1918–1922; president and director of Morris Plan Bank of Waterbury since its founding in 1915; vice-president of Dime Savings Bank of Waterbury since 1920 (trustee since 1911 and director since 1916); president of Second Mortgage Company of Waterbury since 1926; director of Colonial Trust Company 1912–1933, Chase Companies 1910–1933, Steele & Johnson Manufacturing Company 1912–1933, and Waterbury Clock Company 1925–1932; director of Waterbury Chamber of Commerce 1919–1926 (second vice-president 1919–1922 and president 1923–26) and of Connecticut Chamber of Commerce 1919–1933 (on executive committee since 1921 and president 1927–29); president of Connecticut Conference on Charities and Corrections in 1912 and 1925; president of board of trustees of Long Lane Farm since 1912 (director since 1904), trustee of Taft School since 1926 and vice-president of Taft School Corporation since 1930, director of Connecticut Society for Mental Hygiene 1918–1929, president and member of executive committee 1920–22, and member of advisory board 1930–33; director of Gaylord Farm Sanatorium, Wallingford, since 1906 and chairman of its executive committee since 1910; founder of Waterbury Anti-Tuberculosis League in 1907 and president until 1929; member State Tuberculosis Commission since 1918; delegate from Connecticut to International Tuberculosis Conference at Brussels in 1922; during World War served as chairman of Connecticut branch of League to Enforce Peace; vice-president of League of Nations Association 1924–29 and member of its national advisory council since 1929; director of Connecticut branch, League of Nations Non-Partisan Association since 1924; connected with Connecticut Civil Service Association and its successor, Connecticut Civic Association since 1881 (elected member of council in 1926); member of council of National Civil Service Reform League 1915–1928 (chairman 1918–1928) and vice-president since 1928; vice-president of Mattatuck Historical Society of Waterbury 1913–17 and since then president; author: A Reporter's Romance (1890) and The Blue Ribbon (1894); contributor to History of Waterbury (1896) and of article on Michael Wigglesworth entitled "A Popular Colonial Poet" to Proceedings of the Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Connecticut (1903) (member of the council of that society 1895–98 and again 1901–04, lieutenant governor 1908–1910, deputy governor 1910–12, and governor 1912–14; had also written for Atlantic Monthly, North American Review, Century, Scribner’s, Harper’s Weekly, The Outlook, Independent, Bookman, and Life; delegate from Connecticut to International Press Congress at San Francisco in 1915; member Connecticut committee of American Historical Research Fund; president of Mattatuck Branch of Connecticut Society of the Sons of the American Revolution 1928–1930; chairman of pageant committee at celebration in 1924 of 250th anniversary of founding of Waterbury; member of Alumni Board as representative of Yale Club of the Naugatuck Valley since 1914 (second vice-president of the Club 1914 and again 1917); Class agent of Alumni Fund for Class of 1877 since 1927; member Connecticut committee of Human Welfare Group, Institute of Human Relations, Yale University; member Church of Christ in Yale University since 1874 (associated with Second Congregational Church, Waterbury, since 1895).
Yale Obituary Record

Death due to myocarditis and diabetes. Buried in Riverside Cemetery, Waterbury. Survived by wife, daughter, son, and two grandchildren.

Frank Whitney Paige, B.A. 1877.

Studied law in Iowa City and admitted to Iowa Bar; practiced law in Fort Dodge 1883–1890 and Laurens, Iowa, 1890–96; engaged in real estate business at Fort Dodge 1890–1900; owned farms in Kingsbury County, South Dakota, and in Kossuth and Emmet counties, Iowa; had given much time to botanical research at Fort Dodge and in Webster River valley; carried on botanical research for Iowa Academy of Science (of which a fellow) 1910–1930; in 1915 contributed weekly articles to Fort Dodge Messenger on his travels in Alaska.

Unmarried.

Death due to apoplexy and diabetes. Buried in Oakland Cemetery,
Fort Dodge. Survived by a brother, Charles H. Paige (M.D. New York University 1880), of Fort Dodge.

Harlan Page Beach, B.A. 1878.

Born April 4, 1854, in South Orange, N. J.
Died March 4, 1933, at Winter Park, Fla.

Father, Joseph Wickliffe Beach, a farmer; son of David Juniah and Huldah (Crowell) Beach, of South Orange. Mother, Mary Angeline (Walkley) Beach; daughter of Stephen and Olive (Newell) Walkley, of Southington, Conn. Yale relatives include: Rev. Aaron C. Beach (B.A. 1835) (uncle); Rev. David N. Beach, ’72 (brother); Joseph W. Beach, ’11, and Rev. David Nelson Beach, ’16 (nephews); and Rev. J. Wickliffe Beach, ’64 (first cousin).

Early education received in South Orange schools and at a business school in Newark, N. J.; bookkeeper with Peck, Stowe & Wilcox Company, Plantsville, Conn., one year and later with Pultz & Walkley there; prepared for college at Phillips-Andover. Second prize in English composition Sophomore year; high oration appointment Junior year; oration appointment Senior year; speaker at Junior Exhibition and Commencement; superintendent of Broadway Mission one year; member Linonia, Gamma Nu, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Instructor in French and mathematics at Phillips-Andover 1878-1880; graduated from Andover Theological Seminary in 1883 and ordained to Congregational ministry at Wakefield, Mass., July 19, 1883; missionary under the American Board at Tung-chau, China, 1883-89 and also an assistant in the High School and the Theological Seminary; speaker on missions for the American Board in this country, with headquarters in Chicago, 1889-1891; pastor of Lowrie Hill Congregational Church, Minneapolis, Minn., 1891-92; instructor in School for Christian Workers, Springfield, Mass., 1892-93 and superintendent of the school 1893-95; educational secretary of Student Volunteer Movement for Foreign Missions, with headquarters in New York City, 1895-1906; D. Willis James professor of the theory and practice of missions at Yale 1906-1921 and then professor emeritus; librarian of Day Missions Library 1912-1921 and honorary librarian 1921-25; lecturer on missions at Union Theological Seminary 1915-17, at Boston University School of Theology 1917-1921, at Ohio Wesleyan in 1921, at Drew Theological Seminary 1921-28, and at Beloit College and Kennedy School of Missions; inaugurated study of missions in over 600 institutions of higher learning; had lived in Winter Park since 1928; helped locate Yale-in-China at Changsha, Hunan, 1904; spent year 1907-08 in a world trip studying mission methods; honorary M.A. 1901; D.D. Amherst 1913, author. The Cross in the Land of the Trident (1895), Knights of the Labarum (1896), Dawn on the Hills of T'ang (1898), New Testament Studies in Missions (1899), Princely Men of the Heavenly Kingdom (1903), Geography and Atlas of Protestant Missions (Vol. I, 1901; Vol. II, 1903), India and Christian Opportunity (1904; revised 1905), Renaissance Latin America (1916), and Missions as a Cultural Factor in the Pacific (1927); published phonographic method of writing the Mandarin as spoken in Peiping; contributed chapter on "The Foreign Missionary's Calling" to Christian Work as a Vocation (1922) and article on "Ethics of Confucianism" to The Evolution of Ethics by Professor E. Hershey Sneath, '84 D. (1927); co-author (with Rev. Frank K. Sanders, Ph.D. 1889): The World's Living Religions (10 vols., 1924–1931); collaborator in publication of The Presentation of Christianity in Confucian Lands (1917); editor of Student Volunteer and The Intercollegian; advisory editor of Missionary Review of the World; connected with International Review of Missions of Edinburgh thirty-five years and member of American committee of World's Missionary Conference at Edinburgh in 1910; one of the compilers of Statistical Atlas of Christian Missions (1910) and co-editor of revised edition (1911); co-editor of World Statistics of Christian Missions (1916) and World Missionary Atlas (1925); trustee of American University at Cairo since its foundation in 1919; member of executive committee of Yale-in-China 1902–1916, trustee 1916–1932, and honorary trustee since 1932; president of American Ramabai Association; corporate member of American Board; fellow of Royal Geographic Association; member American Oriental Society, Foreign Mission Industrial Association, and First Congregational Church, Winter Park.

Married June 29, 1883, at Lake Forest, Ill., Lucy Lucretia Ward (special student Lake Forest University 1881–82), daughter of Samuel Dexter and Mary Augusta (Folsom) Ward. Two sons, Roderick, ex-'14, and Henry Selwyn (died in 1930).

Death due to carcinoma of the liver. Cremation took place at Orlando, Fla. Survived by wife and one son.

Henry Allen Bushnell, B.A. 1879.

Born July 3, 1855, in Old Saybrook, Conn.
Died November 3, 1932, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, John Frederick Bushnell, a farmer and in insurance business, son of John Bushnell, of Saybrook. Mother, Emma Palmer (Caulkins) Bushnell; daughter of Roswell Caulkins, of Lyme, Conn. Seabury Institute, Saybrook, Morgan School, Clinton, Conn., and Hudson River Institute, Claverack, N. Y. First colloquy appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year; member Linonia, Gamma Nu, and Adelphoi.

Graduated from Union Theological Seminary in 1882; ordained to Congregational ministry July 25, 1882; pastor of First Congregational Church, Witoka, Minn., 1882-83; First Congregational Church, Mankato, Minn., 1883-88; First Congregational Church, Galesburg, Ill., 1888-1894; First Congregational Church, La Grange, Ill., 1894-1910; stated supply of First Congregational Church, Lyonsville, Ill., 1910-11; pastor of First Congregational Church, Bloomington, Ill., 1911-13; First Congregational Church, St. Joseph, Mich., 1914-18; retired from active ministry in 1919, but stated supply of Congregational Church, Bridgman, Mich., 1919; lived in St. Joseph 1920-21; stated supply of Congregational Church, Clinton, Wis., 1922-23; had since resided in Chicago; contributor to the Advance, of which editor several months; D.D. Knox 1894; director of Illinois Home Missionary Society 1898-1906 and of Chicago Congregational Ministers Union in 1907; president of Illinois Ministerial Relief Association in 1900 and a director 1900-08; member of Trinity Congregational Church, Chicago, at time of death.

Married July 18, 1883, in Brooklyn, N. Y., Amelia Emily, daughter of Thomas Bailey and Margaret Theresa (Quinn) Bynner. Children: Allen Bynner (University of Illinois Law School 1908-1911) (died in 1918); John Frederick (B.A. Knox 1906; B.D. Union Theological Seminary 1911); Thomas Bailey (died in infancy); Henry Davenport (died in childhood); Dorothy (Mrs. Edward E. Clarke); Donald McKnight (B.A. Beloit 1920; LL.B. Northwestern 1926); and Philip Newell, Beloit ex-i^.

Death due to hypostatic bronchopneumonia. Buried in La Grange. Survived by wife, three sons, daughter, six grandchildren, and two brothers, Rev. John E. Bushnell, '80, and Roswell C. Bushnell, of DeLand, Fla.

Henry Sherwood Green, B.A. 1879.

Born November 12, 1854, in New Milford, Conn.
Died January 22, 1933, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Ethiel Stilson Green, a farmer; son of Seymour Bennett and Rhoda Matilda (Strong) Green, of New Milford. Mother, Mariett (Seeley) Green; daughter of Gregory and Polly (Sherwood) Seeley, of Washington, Conn.

Williston Academy. Third prize in declamation Sophomore year; second dispute appointment Junior year and second prize at Junior Exhibition; second colloquy appointment Senior year; an editor of Yale Courant and Yale Literary Magazine Junior year and Yale Banner Senior year; on Freshman Football Twenty and Class Crew; historian at Freshman Class Supper; Class deacon and member Class Church Committee Freshman year; on Jubilee Committee in 1879 and Picture Committee Senior year; member Linonia (president Senior year), Gamma Nu, Hé Boulé, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Taught Latin and Greek at Hillman Academy, Wilkes Barre, Pa., 1879-1886 and principal 1881-86; manager of his wife's family farm in Hotchkissville, Conn., 1886-1892; acting professor of Greek at Central University, Richmond, Ky., 1892-93; principal of Harrodsburg (Ky.) Academy 1893-96; professor of the Greek language and literature at Bethany College, W. Va., 1896-1900; associate professor of the Greek language and literature at West Virginia University 1900-01 and professor 1901-1912; engaged in publishing business in Morgantown, W. Va., as manager of Acme Press, 1912-13; historian and archivist of State of West Virginia at Charleston 1913-17; librarian of American Library Association at Camp Lee, Va., 1917-19; director of Army Libraries for 1st Corps Area, at Boston, 1919-1921; librarian of Massachusetts State College from 1921 until retirement in 1924; conducted a dairy and poultry farm at Avon, Mass., 1925-26 and engaged in raising poultry at South Braintree, Mass., 1926-27; had since lived in New Haven; LL.D. Bethany 1901; made honorary member West Virginia University chapter of Phi Beta Kappa 1910; contributed to Arena, editorials for Morgantown Post, Chronicle, and Post-Chronicle several years, and a series of articles for West Virginia School Journal; edited the Bethany Banner; member American Historical Society, Ohio Valley Historical Association, American and West Virginia Library associations, National Association of State Librarians, New England College Librarians Association, and Center Church (Congregational), New Haven.

Married October 13, 1880, in Hotchkissville, Martha, daughter of Walker Sherwood and Mary (Averill) Seeley. Children: Ethel Averill (B A. West Virginia University 1908, M.A. 1910); Robert Rodman (B A. West Virginia University 1903); Harry Sherwood (died in infancy), Mabel (died in infancy); and Sherwood Seeley, '15. Mrs. Green died March 11, 1926.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage; had suffered a fracture of the femur in a fall. Buried in Center Cemetery, New Milford. Survived by daughter, two sons, two grandchildren, one of whom is Edward A. Green, '30, and a brother, William G. Green, '85.
Henry Chauncey Savage, B.A. 1879.

Died December 4, 1932, at Chestnut Hill, Pa.

Father, William Lyttleton Savage (College of William and Mary in Virginia 1829); lawyer, gentleman farmer, and railway director; son of Thomas Lyttleton and Margaret (Teackle) Savage, of Northampton County, Va. Mother, Sarah (Chauncey) Savage; daughter of Elihu Chauncey (B.A. 1796) and Henrietta (Teackle) Chauncey, of Philadelphia. Yale relatives include Charles Chauncey (B.A. 1792) and Nathaniel Chauncey (B.A. 1806) (great-uncles), and Henry L. Savage (Ph.D. 1924) (nephew).

Prepared for college under a private tutor, Alfred T. Bacon, '73, in Philadelphia. Entered Yale with Class of 1878 but left in Sophomore year on account of illness; joined Class of 1879 as a Sophomore in 1876; member Class Supper Committee Junior year and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Traveled in the West for a time after graduation; then connected with an oil company in Richmond, Va., until 1885; had subsequently devoted his time to scholarship and art; was proficient in his knowledge of geology, botany, and music; Shakespearean and Biblical scholar; life member of Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts; former boxing champion of the Fencing and Sparring Association (now the Racquet Club); affiliated with Calvary Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia.

Unmarried.

Frederick Brooks, B.A. 1880.

Born July 20, 1858, in New York City.
Died July 18, 1932, in Southampton, N. Y

(For family history see account of his brother, Walter Brooks, '77, on p. 28.)

Lyon's Collegiate Institute, New York. Member Junior Promenade Committee, Senior Class Supper Committee, Delta Kappa, Hé Boulé, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

In grain business in New York City 1881-87, at first as partner in firm of H. T. Kneeland & Company and from 1882 as member of firm of Brooks, Roy & Anthony; partner in firm of Brooks Brothers, clothiers, in which his brothers, John E. Brooks, '65, and Walter Brooks, '77, were also partners, 1887-1903; vice-president of the company 1903-1918; chairman of the board since 1918; member St. Thomas's Episcopal Church, New York.

Walter Jennings, B.A. 1880.

Born September 14, 1858, in San Francisco, Calif.
Died January 9, 1933, at Jekyl Island, Brunswick, Ga.

Father, Oliver Burr Jennings; member of firm of Jennings & Brewster, dry goods merchants in San Francisco; a founder and trustee of Standard Oil Company; son of Abraham Gould and Anna (Burr) Jennings, of Fairfield, Conn. Mother, Esther Judson (Goodsell) Jennings; daughter of David Judson and Ellen (O'Brien) Goodsell, of New York City. Yale relatives include: Oliver B. James, '18, Hugh D. Auchincloss and B. Brewster Jennings, both '20, and Lawrence K. Jennings, ex-'26 (nephews), and William G. Rockefeller, '92, and Percy A. Rockefeller, '89 (first cousins).

LL.B. Columbia 1882; admitted to New York Bar in June, 1882, and practiced law two months with firm of Jennings & Russell in New York City; customhouse clerk and buyer with Pratt Manufacturing Company of New York 1882-86 and general purchasing agent for National Transit Company of Oil City, Pa., 1886-88, both affiliates of Standard Oil Company; assistant in domestic trade department of Standard Oil Company of New Jersey 1890-94, manager 1894–1903, a director since 1903, and secretary 1908–1911; vice-president of National Fuel Gas Company 1907–08 and president 1908–1918; director of Bank of Manhattan 1913–1929; trustee of Continental Trust Company 1893–96 and of New York Trust Company since 1896; a governor of New York State Hospital for Consumptives; trustee of Hopkins Grammar School since 1929; vice-president of New York Historical Society 1920–22; president of Jekyll Island Club since 1927; chairman of New York County chapter of American Red Cross 1918–19; member Long Island committee of Gallatin Memorial Fund 1930–31; Class agent for Class of 1880 of Alumni University Fund and director of Alumni University Fund Association 1893–1913; member Walter Camp Memorial Committee in 1925, Society of Colonial Wars, and St. John’s Episcopal Church, Cold Spring Harbor, N. Y.

Married November 11, 1891, in New York City, Jean Pollock, daughter of Edwin Bergh and Alice (Pollock) Brown. Children: Oliver Burr, '17; Jeannette, the wife of Henry C. Taylor, '17; and Constance, the wife of Albert H. Ely, '15.

Death due to coronary thrombosis. Buried in Memorial Cemetery, Cold Spring Harbor. Survived by wife, son, two daughters, a brother, Oliver G. Jennings, '87, and three sisters, Helen J. James, the widow of Dr. Walter B. James, '79, Emma J. Auchincloss, the widow of Hugh D. Auchincloss, '79, and Miss Annie Burr Jennings, all of New York.

Frederick Platt Skinner, B.A. 1880.

Born October 31, 1858, in Owego, N. Y.
Died March 24, 1933, in Owego, N. Y.

Owego Free Academy. Member Delta Kappa and Psi Upsilon.

Studied at College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia, in 1880; with Tioga National Bank, Owego, 1880–85 (except for a short time in 1882, when with Kountze Brothers, bankers, in New York City), as clerk 1880–82 and bookkeeper and assistant teller 1882–85; subsequently studied civil engineering in New York and served as assistant engineer with Brown, Howard & Company, contractors for building the Croton Aqueduct, 1885–86, with headquarters in Tarrytown; retired from business in 1886 on account of ill health; later engaged in literary pursuits.

Unmarried.

Death due to strangulated hernia. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Owego. Survived by no immediate relatives.

Philip Golden Bartlett, B.A. 1881.
Born November 25, 1859, in Washington, D.C.
Died August 2, 1932, in Southbury, Conn.

Father, David Vandewater Golden Bartlett; a journalist in Washington; editor of the National Era and correspondent for New York Evening Post, Springfield Republican, and Independent; American secretary of Chinese Legation in Washington; son of Rev. John Bartlett (B.A. 1807) and Jane (Golden) Bartlett, of Albany, N.Y. Mother, Julia McMahon (Painter) Bartlett; daughter of Alexis Painter (B.A. 1815) and Thalia Maria (McMahon) Painter, of West Haven, Conn. Yale relatives include: Rev. Shubael Bartlett (B.A. 1800) (great-uncle); Henry W. Painter, '56 M. (uncle): Alexis P. Bartlett, '94 (brother); and John P. Bartlett, '78 S., Francis B. Kellogg, '83, and Henry McM. Painter and James Bronson Reynolds, both '84 (first cousins).

Gonzaga College, Washington, and Hartford Public High School. Woolsey scholar three years; first Berkeley Premium Freshman year; second prize in English composition first term Sophomore year and first prize second term; philosophical oration appointment Junior and Senior years; second prize at Junior Exhibition; Clark scholar Senior year and speaker at Commencement; an editor of Yale Literary Magazine Senior year; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon. Alpha Kappa, Psi Upsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Student in social and political science in Yale Graduate School as Douglas Fellow, 1881-83; attended National University Law School, Washington, 1883-84; clerk in law office of Simpson, Thacher & Barnum (Thomas Thacher, '71, and William M. Barnum, '77) in New York City 1884-1890 (admitted to the bar in 1885); partner in that firm 1890-1903 and its successors, Simpson, Thacher, Barnum & Bartlett 1903-04 and Simpson, Thacher & Bartlett from 1904 until his retirement in 1931; director of Richmond Hill National Bank 1928-29; trustee of Boys’ Club; member of executive committee of New York Law Institute 1918-1930; member American Bar Association, New York State Bar Association, Association of the Bar of the City of New York (member of executive committee 1904-06, committee on admissions 1895-97, nominating committee 1902, and library committee 1906), New York State Historica
Yale College

Society, Society of Mayflower Descendants, and The Pilgrims; governor of Yale Publishing Association 1928–29; president of Class of 1881 since graduation.

Married May 10, 1892, in New York City, Beatrice Cynthia Barney, daughter of Russell Sturgis (B.A. College of the City of New York 1856; honorary M.A. Yale 1872) and Sarah Maria Barney Sturgis, and sister of Danford N. B. Sturgis, '89 S. Children: Priscilla Alden, the wife of Alexander I. Henderson (B.A. Harvard 1913); Russell Sturgis (B.A. 1917, Ph.D. 1924); Julia McMahon; Philip Golden, Jr. (B.A. 1927, B.F.A. 1931); and Sarah Barney, '29.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in White Oak Cemetery, Southbury. Survived by wife, three daughters, two sons, two grandchildren, and a sister, Miss Alice Bartlett, of West Haven.

Isaac Bromley, B.A. 1881.

Born November 9, 1856, in New Haven, Conn.
Died July 29, 1932, in New London, Conn.

Father, Isaac Hill Bromley (B.A. 1853, honorary M.A. 1868); son of Isaac and Mary (Hill) Bromley, of Norwich, Conn. Mother, Adelaide Emma (Roath) Bromley; daughter of Jabez and Clara Wedge) Roath, of Norwich. Yale relatives include two nephews: William C. Warren, Jr., '14; and John D. Warren, '27.

Hartford Public High School and Hopkins Grammar School. In Class Crew Junior year; an editor of Yale Record Junior and Senior years; chairman of Yale Literary Magazine Senior year; won DeForest Gold Medal Senior year; Class Day historian and on Class Cup Committee; member Delta Kappa, Alpha Kappa, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Married October 17, 1883, in Buffalo, Kate, daughter of James Dunlap and Mary (Mills) Warren, sister of William C. Warren, '90 S., and sister-in-law of John H. Vought, '93 S. Children: Mary Warren, the wife of Douglas C. Arnold, ’08 S.; Adelaide (died in 1920); and Isaac Hill.

Death due to cancer of the larynx. Buried in Starr Cemetery, Groton. Survived by wife, son, one daughter, and three grandchildren.

Edward Staats DeGrote Tompkins, B.A. 1881.

Born April 19, 1858, in Chatham, N. Y.
Died December 21, 1932, in Coxsackie, N. Y.

Father, Staats DeGrote Tompkins, a paper manufacturer under his own name; son of Daniel DeGrote and Catherine (DeGrote) Tompkins, of Chatham. Mother, Harriet Martha (Parks) Tompkins; daughter of Peter and Deborah (Ingraham) Parks, of Saybrook, Conn.

Kinderhook (N. Y.) and Williston academies. Second colloquy appointment Junior year; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon.

Studied at Union Theological Seminary 1881–83 and at Berkeley Divinity School 1883–84; spent year 1884–85 in Europe; ordained deacon in Protestant Episcopal Church June 3, 1884, and priest May 31, 1885; in charge of a church in Coxsackie in 1885; assistant rector of St. John's Church, Troy, N. Y., 1886–1891; rector of Christ Church, Coxsackie, from 1891 until retirement from active ministry in 1897; painted in oil and water colors and exhibited at Albany; author. Through David's Realm (1889) and An Honest Hypocrite (1889); member London Society of Authors and Christ Church, Coxsackie.

Married October 20, 1897, in Kingston, N. Y., Rebecca Reed, daughter of Simeon and Jane Maria (Reed) Fitch. No children. Mrs Tompkins died July 21, 1930.

Death due to paralysis and pneumonia. Buried in Riverside Cemetery, Coxsackie. Survived by a brother, Elbert P. Tompkins.

George Wakeman Wheeler, B.A. 1881.

Born December 1, 1860, in Woodville, Miss.
Died July 27, 1932, in Bridgeport, Conn.

Father, George Wakeman Wheeler (B.A. Amherst 1856), a lawyer; judge of Court of Common Pleas of Bergen County, N. J.; son of Charles and Jerusha (Wakeman) Wheeler, of Easton, Conn. Mother, Lucy (Dowie) Wheeler; daughter of Henry and Agnes (Leonard) Dowie, of Andes, N. Y.

Hackensack (N. J.) and Williston academies. On Class Baseball
Tale College

Team Junior year and Consolidated Nine Senior year; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

LL.B. cum laude 1883 (member Kent Club); admitted to New Jersey Bar in November, 1882, Michigan Bar in July, 1883, and Connecticut Bar in October, 1883; practiced law in Bridgeport in partnership with Howard J. Curtis, '81, under name of Wheeler & Curtis 1883-1893; corporation counsel of Bridgeport 1890-92; judge of Superior Court of Connecticut 1893-1910; associate justice of Supreme Court of Errors 1910-1920 and chief justice from 1920 until retirement December 1, 1930; had since been a state referee; member of Connecticut State Bar Examining Committee 1890-92 and 1897-1919 (chairman 1913-19); member of council of American Law Institute, engaged in making restatement of common law of the United States 1923-1932; chairman of Judicial Council of Connecticut 1927-1930; member of State Council of Defense 1918-19; chairman of executive committee of Bridgeport War Bureau 1917-19; trustee of Connecticut College for Women 1931-32; president of Bridgeport Bar Association in 1907; former president of Fairfield County Yale Alumni Association; LL.D. 1919; D.C.L. Wesleyan 1931; decorated by Italian Government as Chevalier of Order of the Crown of Italy in 1920 and as Grand Officer of the Order in 1928; member of Connecticut Tercentenary Commission from its formation to 1932 and of St. John's Episcopal Church, Bridgeport.

Death due to coronary occlusion and angina pectoris. Buried in Mountain Grove Cemetery, Bridgeport. Survived by son, daughter, and a granddaughter.

Born February 26, 1860, in Huntsville, Ala.
Died August 12, 1932, in Durham, N. C.

Father, Rt. Rev. Henry Champlin Lay (B.A. University of Virginia 1841, M.A. 1842; Episcopal Theological Seminary, Alexandria, Va., 1846; D.D. Hobart 1857 and William and Mary 1873; LL.D. Cambridge 1867); Bishop of Diocese of Easton, Md.; son of John Olmstead and Anna Lucy Fitzhugh (May) Lay, of Powhatan Seat, Va. Mother, Elizabeth Withers (Atkinson) Lay; daughter of Roger and Mary Timberlake (Withers) Atkinson, of Sherwood, Va.

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. Entered Yale as a Junior in
Yale Obituary Record

1880; second Winthrop prize Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year and Commencement orator; on Class Barge Crew Senior year; organist of Berkeley Association; member Psi Upsilon.

Graduated at General Theological Seminary 1885 (B.D. 1886); ordained deacon in Protestant Episcopal Church June 5, 1885, and priest April 27, 1886; acting minister of St. Paul's Church, Erie, Pa., 1885-87; rector of St. George's Church, Newburgh, N. Y., 1887-88, taught Greek at St. Paul's School 1888-1907; rector of St. Mary's School for Girls, Raleigh, N. C., 1907-1918; assistant rector of Christ Church, Springfield, Mass., 1918-19; rector of St. Paul's Church, Beaufort, N. C., from 1919 until retirement in 1928; had since resided at Chapel Hill; also in charge of St. Clement's Mission, Beaufort, and priest in charge of St. Andrew's Church, Morehead City; acting rector of Church of the Good Shepherd, Raleigh, March–November, 1930; first alternate deputy from New Hampshire to General Convention at Richmond in 1907; secretary of board of managers of missions for Diocese of New Hampshire 1895-1907; member of executive council of Diocese of East Carolina 1921-29, vice-chairman of department of religious education 1921-28, and chairman of committee on canons 1922-1932; D.C.L. University of the South 1915; correspondent of the Living Church 1884-85; contributor to Science and North Carolina State Health Bulletin; member American Association for the Advancement of Science, North Carolina Academy of Science, Good Roads Association, and Chapel of the Cross, Chapel Hill, N. C.

Married June 26, 1894, in Baltimore, Md., Anna Booth, daughter of Rear Admiral George Beall Balch, U.S.N., and Mary Ellen (Booth) Balch, ex-'18 (B.A. University of North Carolina 1918; M.S. North Carolina State College 1932); Elizabeth Atkinson (B.A. University of North Carolina 1919), the wife of Paul Green (B.A. University of North Carolina 1921); Ellen Booth (B.A. University of North Carolina 1922), the wife of Harold Hodgkinson (B.A. Clark University 1921); Anna Rogers (Mrs. Charles A. White); Lucy Fitzhugh (B.A. University of North Carolina 1925), the wife of Lytle G. Zuber (B.A. Williams 1923; LL.B. Harvard 1927); Henry Champlin, University of North Carolina ex-'28; Virginia Harrison, University of North Carolina ex-'28, the wife of James E. Hawkins, University of North Carolina ex-'25; and Thomas Atkinson (died in childhood).

Death due to carcinoma of the stomach. Buried in Chapel Hill (N. C.) Cemetery. Survived by wife, two sons, five daughters, eight grandchildren, and a brother, Beirne Lay, ’84.

Born June 6, 1860, in Goshen, N. Y.
Died February 5, 1933, in Goshen, N. Y.

Father, George Eager McBride, a farmer at Hamptonburgh, N. Y.; son of John and Sarah (Eager) McBride, of Montgomery, N. Y. Mother, Phoebe (Wilber) McBride; daughter of John Church and Parmelia (Germond) Wilber, of Montgomery.

Williston Academy. First dispute appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year; on Freshman and Consolidated Baseball teams and University Baseball Team Senior year; member Junior Promenade Committee, Delta Kappa, Hé Boulé, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Studied mining engineering in Sheffield Scientific School 1882–83; engaged in lumber business at Marquette, Mich., for a time; later partner in Superior Cattle Company at Miles City, Mont, until 1888; engineer with International Oil Company at Sarnia, Ontario, 1888–89; associated with law firm of Tracy, Boardman & Platt of New York City (in which Albert B. Boardman, '73, and Frank H. Platt, '77, were partners) 1890–92 and with law firm of Anderson, Howland & Murray 1892–94 (Henry E. Howland, '54); partner, with his classmate, James R. Ely, in firm of Ely & McBride 1894–98; practiced independently in New York 1898–1905 and in Goshen since 1907.

Married November 24, 1896, in New York City, Anna Maria Truax, daughter of Henry Philip and Sarah Anne (Shaffer) Truax. Mr. and Mrs. McBride were later divorced.

Death due to cerebral apoplexy and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Hamptonburgh. Survived by a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth H. Merrifield, of Pasadena, Calif., the widow of Webster Merrifield, '77.

Richard Henry Pierce, B.A. 1882.

Born November 20, 1860, in Woonsocket, R. I.
Died March 16, 1933, in Newtonville, Mass.

Father, Henry Reuben Pierce (B.A. Amherst 1853); principal of Uxbridge (Mass.) and Woonsocket High schools; First Lieutenant, 5th Regiment, Rhode Island Volunteers, in the Civil War and killed at battle of Newbern March 14, 1862; son of Warren and Sally (McManus) Pierce, of Coventry, Vt. Mother, Ann Frances (Tillinghast) Pierce; daughter of Joseph A. and Anne Frances (Mellen) Tillinghast, of Hopkinton, Mass.

Hopkinton High School. Member Gamma Nu.
Principal of Columbia City (Ind.) High School 1882–83; studied electrical engineering at Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1883–85 (B.S. 1885); assistant county engineer for Middlesex County, Mass., summer of 1885; wireman for Brockton Edison Company 1885–86; inspector for Western Edison Company in Chicago 1886–1890; agent for Wisconsin and upper Michigan for United Edison Company, with headquarters in Milwaukee, 1890–91; assistant electrical engineer at World’s Fair, Chicago, 1891–93 and chief electrical engineer 1893–94; member of firm of Pierce & Richardson, consulting engineers, in Boston 1894–97 and president of its successor, Pierce, Richardson & Neiler, Inc.; engaged in real estate business in Boston with Fowle & Pierce from 1903 until death; treasurer of Atlantic Rope & Line Company of Boston 1913–1926; chief engineer of Exhibits Power Plant at Louisiana Purchase Exposition 1904 (also associate member of all group juries of awards and of jury in department of machinery and member of international steam jury of awards); author: The National Electric Code (1896); member American Institute of Electrical Engineers (local honorary secretary for some years), American Society of Mechanical Engineers, and Institution of Electrical Engineers of Great Britain.

Married April 15, 1891, at Green Bay, Wis., Carrie deZeng, daughter of Elisha and Josephine (Sayre) Morrow. One son, Richard deZeng, '16 Mrs. Pierce died April 7, 1906.

Death due to a pulmonary embolism and phlebitis. Cremation took place and ashes were buried in Forest Hills (Mass.) Cemetery. Survived by son and three grandchildren.

Gilbert Colgate, B.A. 1883.
Born December 15, 1858, in Orange, N J. .
Died January 5, 1933, in New York City.

Father, Samuel Colgate; head of firm of Colgate & Company, manufacturers of soaps and perfumes; son of William and Mary (Gilbert) Colgate, of New York City. Mother, Elizabeth Anne Breese (Morse) Colgate; daughter of Richard Cary Morse (B.A. 1812, M.A. Middlebury 1825) and Sarah Louisa (Davis) Morse, of New York City. Yale relatives include: Rev. Jedidiah Morse (B.A. 1783) (great-grandfather); Samuel F. B. Morse (B.A. 1810) and Sidney E. Morse (B.A. 1811) (great-uncles); Sidney E. Morse, '56, Rev. Richard Cary Morse, '62, William H. Morse, '67, and Rev. Oliver C. Morse, '68 (uncles); Henry A. Colgate, '13, S. Bayard Colgate, ex-'21, and John K. Colgate, ex-'30 (nephews); and Richard C. Morse, Jr., '06 S., Oliver C. Morse, Jr., '10, and Anthony Morse, '15 (first cousins).

Phillips-Andover, St. John’s School, Williston Academy, and tutors. Entered Yale with Class of 1882; joined Class of 1883 the next year; assistant superintendent of Bethany Sunday School; member '83 Crew, '83 Tennis Club, Junior Promenade Committee, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Associated with Colgate & Company since graduation; from 1883 to 1896 held various positions, finally specializing in the perfumery division; became member of the firm in 1896; first vice-president 1908–1920, president 1920–25, and chairman of the board 1925–28; director of Colgate-Palmolive-Peet Company since 1928; president of American Manufacturers of Toilet Articles Association 1922–24; also president of Travelers' Aid Society 1912–16, of American Waldensian Aid Society 1925–29, of Orange Y.M.C.A. 1885–1891, of Presbyterian Union 1918, and of Quill Club 1914–15; trustee of International Committee of Y.M.C.A. since 1903; treasurer of West Side Y.M.C.A. of New York since 1896; an elder of Rutgers Presbyterian Church, New York, since 1904.

Married June 7, 1888, in Buffalo, N. Y., Florance Buckingham, daughter of Edward Julius and Mary (Hoey) Hall, and sister of Edward J. Hall, '73 S., William C. Hall, '75 S., and Sherman R. Hall, '95 S. Children: Elizabeth Morse, the wife of Stanley M. Rumbough (United States Military Academy 1909); Grace Hall, the wife of Edwin St. John Greble (United States Military Academy 1909); Grace Hall, the wife of J. Wright Rumbough, University of California ex-'09; Gilbert, Jr., '22; and Robert Bangs, '24. Mrs. Colgate died February 24, 1920.

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Rosedale Cemetery, Orange. Survived by three daughters, two sons, nine grandchildren, and a brother, Russell Colgate, '96. His other brothers were Richard M. Colgate, '77, Sidney M. Colgate, '85, Austen Colgate, '86, and Rev. Samuel Colgate, '91.

Eliakim Hastings Moore, B.A. 1883.

Born January 26, 1862, in Marietta, Ohio. Died December 30, 1932, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, Rev. David Hastings Moore (B.A. Ohio University 1869; D.D. Ohio Wesleyan 1875; L.L.D. Mount Union College 1896 and University of Denver 1899); a Methodist Episcopal Bishop; president of Ohio Wesleyan College, an organizer and chancellor of University of Denver; professor in University of Colorado; Lieu-tenant Colonel, 125th Ohio Volunteer Infantry, during Civil War; son of Eliakim Hastings and Amy (Barker) Moore, of Athens, Ohio. Mother, Julia Sophia (Carpenter) Moore; daughter of Cephas and Maria Theresa (Hawkes) Carpenter, of Athens.
Woodward High School, Cincinnati. Woolsey scholar three years; first prize in mathematics and Latin composition Freshman year; first prize in mathematics and third prize in English composition Sophomore year; philosophical oration appointment Junior year and second prize at Junior Exhibition; first prizes in mathematics and astronomy, Foote scholar, and valedictorian Senior year; member Psi Upsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Married June 21, 1892, in Columbus, Ohio, Martha Morris, daughter of Colonel William Henry Young and Martha (Morris) Young. Children: David Hastings (died in 1898); and Eliakim Hastings, 3d (B.S. University of Chicago 1921).

Death due to chronic interstitial nephritis and arteriosclerosis. Cremation took place at Oakwoods Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife, one son, two brothers, Alfred T. Moore (B.A. University of Denver), of New York City, and Julian H. Moore (B.A. University of Denver 1905, LL.B. 1907), of Denver, and a sister, Miss Marion Moore, of Paris, France.
Andrew Linn Sawyer, B.A. 1883.

Born October 8, 1862, in Yonkers, N. Y.
Died January 26, 1933, in Middletown, N. Y.

Father, Rev. Rollin Augustus Sawyer (B.A. Western Reserve 1851, D.D. 1872, Litt.D. 1911), a Presbyterian minister in New York, Ohio, and New Jersey; contributing editor of New York Evangelist and Christian at Work; son of Rufus and Ruth (Alger) Sawyer, of Sawyerville, Quebec, Canada, and Austinburg, Ohio. Mother, Martha Elizabeth (Linn) Sawyer; daughter of Andrew and Sybilla (Beardslee) Linn, of Newton, N. J. Yale relatives: Rev. Rollin Alger Sawyer, '83 (brother); Arthur E. Bostwick, '81 (brother-in-law); and Andrew Linn Bostwick, '08, and Elmore Bostwick, ex-'16 (nephews).

Hunt’s School, New York City. Dissertation appointment Junior and Senior years.

B.D. General Theological Seminary, New York City, 1887; ordained as deacon in Protestant Episcopal Church in May, 1887, and as priest in 1888; assistant rector of St. Paul’s Church, New Haven, 1887-89; subsequently rector of Episcopal Church in Durham, Conn., but obliged to retire from ministry in 1890 on account of ill health.

Unmarried.

William Trumbull, B.A. 1883.

Born December 25, 1861, in Valparaiso, Chile.
Died January 11, 1933, in New York City.

Father, Rev. David Trumbull (B.A. 1842, D.D. 1884 and Indiana State University 1866); son of John M. Trumbull, who studied at Yale in 1811, and Hannah Wallace (Tunis) Trumbull, of Elizabeth, N. J. Mother, Jane Wales (Fitch) Trumbull; daughter of Allan and Harriet West (Morning) Fitch, of Newbern, N. C. Yale relatives include: Governor Jonathan Trumbull of Connecticut (LL.D. 1797) (great-great-grandfather); Rev. Eleazar T. Fitch (B.A. 1810) (great-uncle); Dr. James H. Trumbull (B.A. 1848) (uncle); David Trumbull, '76, Dr. John Trumbull, '78, and Stephen Trumbull, '80 (brothers); J. Hayward Trumbull and Ricardo L. Trumbull, both '81 S., and Arnold G. Dana, '83 (first cousins).

English Board School, Valparaiso, and Hopkins Grammar School.
Two second prizes in English composition Sophomore year; dissertation appointment Junior year and second prize at Junior Exhibition; first dispute appointment and Townsend Premium Senior year; an editor of Yale Daily News Sophomore year and of Yale Literary Magazine and Pot Pourri Senior year; secretary and treasurer of '83 Baseball Club four years; member '83 Glee Club Sophomore and Senior years, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Hé Boulé, Psi Upsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Taught English, mathematics, and science at English Board School 1883-86; engaged in export and import business with firm of Balfour & Williamson in Valparaiso 1886-87; then entered Yale School of Law (LL.B. magna cum laude 1889); practiced law in New Haven in office of Simeon E. Baldwin, '61, 1890-96; librarian of Yale School of Law 1895-96; later engaged in study of markets and general financial work until retirement in 1929; had spent a number of years abroad, in Paris 1900, Dresden 1904, Island of Guernsey 1908-1910, and Florence 1921-22; had a home in Litchfield, Conn., where vestryman of St. Michael’s Episcopal Church 1914-1921 and treasurer 1916-1921; author: Poems (1893-1902), The Problem of Cain (1890), A Study in the Treatment of Criminals (1890), The White Canoe (1894), and Evolution and Religion (1907); one of eight delegates to represent Connecticut at Road Congress in Richmond, Va., in 1911; member Authors’ League of America.

Married March 30, 1891, in Waterbury, Conn., Anne Leavenworth, daughter of Abner Leavenworth Train, '53, and Susan (Bull) Train. Children: Hester Leavenworth (special student at Radcliffe 1913-14), wife of Myles Standish (B.A. Bowdoin 1914); Allan Train, '16 S; Margaret Huntington (Mrs. Edward P. Jennings); Jonathan Alden, Alice Bradford, wife of Warwood E. Mason, Dartmouth ex- '25, and Edith Kingsbury, wife of Axel H. Blomberg (Grinnell College 1917-18). Mrs. Trumbull died January 23, 1930.

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Milford, Conn. Survived by four daughters, two sons, and two sisters, Mrs. Frederick VanLennep, Wellesley ex-'86, of New York City, and Mrs. William E. Dodge, Wellesley ex-'86, of Pasadena.

William Henry Jessup, B.A. 1884.

Born July 25, 1858, in Montrose, Pa.

Father, William Huntington Jessup, '49; son of William Jessup (B.A. 1815; LL.D. Hamilton 1848) and Amanda (Harris) Jessup, of Southampton, N. Y. Mother, Sarah Wilson (Jay) Jessup; daughter of Nelson and Sidney (Wilson) Jay, of Belvidere, N. J. Yale relatives include: Rev. Henry H. Jessup, '51, Rev. Samuel Jessup, '60, and Hunting C. Jessup, '64 (uncles).

Williston Academy. President of Freshman Baseball Association; treasurer of University Athletic Association; member Glee Club
Quartette four years, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Eta Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Studied in his father's law office in Montrose 1884–86 and admitted to Susquehanna County Bar March 29, 1886; partner with his father in firm of Jessup & Jessup in Montrose 1886–89 and in Scranton, Pa., 1889–1902; practiced independently in Scranton 1902–
1921; partner in firm of Jessup, Gunster & Rose and its successor, Jessup, Gunster, Rose & Mackie (in both of which Vandling D.
Rose, '15 S., was a partner), 1921–27; had since been member of firm of Jessup, Gunster & Mackie, of which he was senior partner at the time of his death; member National Guard of Pennsylvania seven years (Lieutenant, 13th Regiment, for a time); member First Presbyterian (now Westminster Presbyterian) Church, Scranton.

Married October 21, 1890, in Upland, Pa., Lucy Ada, daughter of James May and Lucy (Butler) Stotesbury, of Philadelphia. Children:
William Hunting, '15 (killed in the Argonne in 1918); James May,
'16; and Christine Katherine (died in 1928).

Death due to Bright's disease. Buried in Montrose Cemetery.
Survived by wife, one son, two granddaughters, and two sisters,
Miss Sarah L. Jessup, of Montrose, and Mrs. William H. Woodin, of New York City.

Samuel Davis Capen, B.A. 1885.

Born March 28, 1863, in St. Louis, Mo.
Died January 28, 1933, in St. Louis, Mo.

Father, George Dunn Capen; founder and senior partner of fire insurance firm of George D. Capen & Company in St. Louis; president of Lindell Railway Company; son of William Henry and Mary Eliza (Dunn) Capen, of Brookline, Mass. Mother, Frances Isabella (Pond) Capen; daughter of Charles Harvey and Hannah (Wentworth) Pond, of Bangor, Maine.

Smith Academy, St. Louis. Treasurer of Baseball Association
Senior year; member College Choir, Psi Upsilon, and Wolf's Head.

Studied law at Harvard 1885–87; assistant to the general attorney of Phenix Insurance Company of Brooklyn at its Chicago office
1888–1893; had since been member of firm of George D. Capen &
Company, in which his brother, George H. Capen, '90, is also a partner; head of the firm at time of his death; president of Under-Henry Richmond Flanders, B.A. 1885.

Born September 14, 1859, in Chilmark, Mass.
Died September 13, 1932, in Tisbury, Mass.

Father, Stephen Flanders, of West Tisbury. Mother, Isadora Brown (Tilton) Flanders.

Phillips-Andover. On Freshman Football Team and University Football Team Senior year; Freshman Crew and University Crew four years; president of Class Boat Club; member Gamma Nu, Hé Boulé, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones

Engaged in private tutoring at West Tisbury, New York City, and Stanton, Fla., 1885-88; studied medicine at Columbia in 1888; manager of an orange grove in Florida in 1889; agent for Equitable Mortgage Company of New York City 1889-1890; taught mathematics at Fitchburg (Mass.) High School 1890-1900; connected with Mutual Fire Insurance Company of New York 1900-07, as agent in Fitchburg for a time and later traveling inspector; chief inspector and secretary of New England Mutual Fire Inspection Bureau, with headquarters in Salem, Mass., from 1907 until retirement because of age limit in 1929; later engaged independently in insurance business at Vineyard Haven, Mass., as agent for several fire insurance companies.

Death due to lobar pneumonia. Buried in Oak Grove Cemetery, Tisbury. Survived by two sons.

James Benjamin Keogh, B.A. 1885.

Born August 1, 1865, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, William H. Keogh; born in Gurtnanoe, County Tipperary, Ireland, and came to this country in 1849; a civil engineer, but never engaged in the practice of his profession; studied law in Chicago; later established a general commission business; son of Michael and Margaret (Hogan) Keogh. Mother, Lura Dolly (Benjamin) Keogh; daughter of Chester Harp and Tirzah (Fairbank) Benjamin, of Cortland County, N. Y.

Central and South Division High schools, Chicago. Second colloquy appointment Junior and Senior years; vice-commander of Canoe Club; member Senior Promenade Committee and Delta Kappa Epsilon; graduate member Elihu (elected 1917).

LL.B. cum laude 1887 (honors Junior year); clerk in law office of King & Packard and of Edsall & Edsall, Chicago, 1887-1890; member of law firm of Edsall & Keogh 1890-92; practiced law independently in Chicago 1892-1918; had since resided in New York City and had given his attention to the manufacturing business as chairman of the board of Columbia Mills, Inc.; a governor of Yale Publishing Association 1922-26; director, vice-president, and president (1905 and 1906) of Yale Club of Chicago; director of Chicago Yacht Club; member Sons of the American Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Illinois, and Roman Catholic Church.

Married September 29, 1923, in New York City, Mary Ballard Derby (widow of his classmate, William M. Derby, Jr.), daughter of Addison and Catherine (Miller) Ballard.

Death due (probably) to coronary thrombosis. Interred in Keogh Family Mausoleum, Mount Olivet Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife, two brothers, John William Keogh (Georgetown College 1876-1880), of Chicago, and Chester H. Keogh (B.A. 1890; M.D. University of Chicago 1899), a sister, Miss Lura Mary Keogh, of Chicago, a stepdaughter, Dorothy D. Waldo, the wife of C. Gilbert Waldo, Jr., '12 S, and a stepson, William B. Derby, '27.
David Winfield Mulvane, B.A. 1885.

Born January 4, 1863, in Princeton, Ill.
Died November 9, 1932, in Topeka, Kans.

Father, Joab Ragan Mulvane; president of Chicago, Kansas & Western Railroad Company; connected with Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fé Railroad; vice-president of National Bank of Topeka; son of David and Mary (Ross) Mulvane, of Newcomers Town, Ohio Mother, Sarah Ann (Ross) Mulvane; daughter of James and Margaret (Butts) Ross.

Washburn College Preparatory Department. Oration appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; business manager of Quisp, president of University Baseball Association; member Gamma Nu, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Wolf's Head.

Assistant to the president of the Chicago, Kansas & Western Railroad Company at Topeka 1885-1890; and also member of hardware firm of D. A. Mulvane & Company of Topeka; during that period studied law under Archie L. Williams and admitted to the bar in 1890; had since practiced law in Topeka; in law department of Union Pacific Railroad Company 1890-95; partner in firm of Overmeyer & Mulvane 1895-99, of Overmeyer, Mulvane & Gault 1899-1903, and Mulvane & Gault 1903-1919; since 1919 had practiced independently, specializing in insurance and corporation law; manager of Topeka Capital two years; director of National Bank of Topeka since 1918, vice-president 1925-1932, and chairman of the board from January, 1932; president of Bank Savings National Life Insurance Company from its organization in 1908 until 1912; director of Kansas City, Mexico & Orient Railroad Company, Shawnee Fire Insurance Company, American Cement & Plaster Company, Salina Cement Company, Chickasha Cottonseed Oil Company, Topeka Vitrified Brick Company, Beatrice Creamerie Company, and Topeka Provident Association; trustee of Baker University, Washburn College, and Christ's Hospital, Topeka, 1930-32; member of Republican State Central Committee of Kansas 1898-1908 and of National Republican Committee 1900-1912 and again from 1920 until his death, in charge of Republican National headquarters in Chicago 1912, delegate-at-large from Kansas to the Convention in Chicago 1920; chairman of committee on arrangements of Convention in Cleveland 1924; during 1917-18 served as county food administrator, chairman of military committee of Topeka Chamber of Commerce, vice-chairman of Topeka chapter of American Red Cross, and member of committee on Officers' Training Camp and of lawyers' committee on questionnaires, member First Methodist Episcopal Church, Topeka.
Yale College

Married May 5, 1906, in New York City, Helen McKenna Drexel, daughter of Hugh J. and Mary A. (Smith) McKenna, of Omaha, Nebr. No children. Mrs Mulvane died October 24, 1929. Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Topeka Cemetery. Survived by two sisters, Mrs. Harrison Morgan, of Topeka, and Mrs. Speed Hughes, of Los Angeles.

Wolff Willner, B.A. 1885.

Born July 20, 1863, in Strassburg, Germany. Died August 24, 1932, in Frederick, Md.

Father, Rabbi Samuel Herman Willner; born in Pleschen, Poland, and ordained rabbi in 1841; came to America in 1872; rabbi in Newbury and North Haven, Conn.; son of Rabbi Asher Willner, of Pleschen. Mother, Sarah (Herzfeld) Willner; daughter of Emanuel Herzfeld, of Graetz, Poland.

Hillhouse High School. Third prize in mathematics Freshman year.

Studied theology with his father; graduate student in Oriental languages at Yale 1885-87 (M.A. 1887); rabbi of Congregation Oheb Shalom, Newark, N. J., 1887-1890; Congregation Beth Israel, Houston, Texas, 1890-92; Hebrew Friendship Congregation, Baltimore, Md., 1892-94; graduate student in Spanish at Johns Hopkins 1894-95; rabbi of Congregation Beth Israel, Meridian, Miss., 1895-1905; Congregation Ahavai Shalom, Portland, Ore., 1905-07; Adath Yeshurun Congregation, Houston, 1907-1923; manager of Texas Bureau of American Zionist Organization, with headquarters in Houston, 1923-24; rabbi of Congregation Beth Shalom, Frederick, since 1924; author: Hebrew Reader (1897), a Liturgy for the Day of Atonement (with modern English translation) (1925), and playlet entitled Feast of Esther (1890); contributed to Jewish Encyclopedia and to Poets of America; president and secretary of Texas Region Zionist Organization of America 1920-22; founder and president of Jewish Literary Society of Houston since 1927; president of Lions Club of Houston 1920-22; member Rabbinical Assembly of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America and of Ministerial Association of Frederick.

Death due to arteriosclerosis and a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Hebrew Friendship Cemetery, Baltimore. Survived by wife, daughter, son, and two grandsons.

Benjamin Harris Anthony, B.A. 1886.

Born August 1, 1863, in New Bedford, Mass.
Died October 16, 1932, in New Bedford, Mass.

Friends’ Academy, New Bedford. Second dispute appointment Junior year; first colloquy appointment Senior year; financial editor of Yale Record; member ’86 Tennis Team, Yale Corinthian Yacht Club, Gamma Nu, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Married September 26, 1888, in New Bedford, Harriet Davis, daughter of Charles Hinkley and Charlotte (Smith) Pierce. Children: Edmund; Margaret, the wife of Edward Drake, Harvard ex-‘10; and Catherine Chandler, the wife of Abbott M. Smith, Williams ex-‘14.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage and arteriosclerosis. Buried in the Rural Cemetery, New Bedford. Survived by wife, three children, and eleven grandchildren.
Calvin Dickey, B.A. 1886.

Born January 12, 1863, in Newark, Ohio.
Died March 9, 1933, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, Calvin Dickey; engaged in coal mining and manufacturing and refining of coal oil; son of James and Elizabeth (Anderson) Dickey, of Mercersburg, Pa. Mother, Ada Miriam (Arven) Dickey; daughter of Jesse Dustin and Agnes (Robertson) Arven, of Utica, Ohio.

Hughes High School, Cincinnati. Second Berkeley premium in Latin composition Freshman year; philosophical oration appointment Junior and Senior years; winner of Cobden Club medal Senior year; secretary of Y.M.C.A. Senior year; assistant superintendent of Broadway Sunday School; member '86 Tennis Club, '86 Glee Club, Psi Upsilon, and Phi Beta Kappa.

M.A. 1888; in paymaster's office of treasury department of Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company in Chicago 1887-88; secretary and treasurer of Improved Light, Heat, Power & Manufacturing Company of Chicago 1888-1891; member of real estate firm of Morris, Ganse & Company 1891-93; engaged in same business under his own name in Chicago 1893-1924; subsequently salesman for J. H. Kraemer & Son (insurance) in Chicago; in real estate business again in Chicago since 1927; member Cook County Real Estate Board and Chicago Board of Underwriters.

Married June 21, 1912, in Chicago, Katherine Barclay Huling Finley, daughter of Edwin James and Anna Rebecca (Spooner) Huling. No children.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Newark, Ohio. Survived by wife and a half sister, Helena B. Adams Woodbridge (B.A. Smith 1892), the wife of Frederick J. E. Woodbridge (B.A. Amherst 1889; LL.D. Amherst 1903, University of Colorado 1915, Queen's University 1919, and Columbia University 1929; Litt.D. Dartmouth 1924), of New York City.

Harry Leighton Rollins, B.A. 1886.

Born November 13, 1861, in Chelsea, Mass.
Died March 27, 1933, in Wellesley, Mass.

Father, Hiram Rollins, a merchant in Boston; Captain, Company D, 2d New Hampshire Volunteer Infantry, in Civil War; son of John A. and Mary Ann (Leighton) Rollins, of Rollinsford, N. H. Mother, Mary Caroline (Bigelow) Rollins; daughter of Isaac and Harriet (Warren) Bigelow, of Weston, Mass.

Newton (Mass.) High School. Entered Yale with Class of 1885; joined Class of 1886 Senior year; member '85 Lacrosse Team, University Lacrosse Team, Gamma Nu, and Psi Upsilon.
Yale Obituary Record

LL.B. cum laude Boston University 1889; admitted to practice in Massachusetts courts 1889 and in Supreme Court of the United States 1901, had practiced in Boston since 1889; associated with George A. Anderson, '85, 1889-1907; member American and Norfolk Bar associations, Bostonian Society, Boston Society of Natural History, New England Historic Genealogical Society, Wellesley Historical Society, and Massachusetts Audubon Society.

Married December 6, 1898, in Wellesley, Margaret Wilson, daughter of John and Ellen (Pratt) Anderson. One son, Leighton.

Death due to drowning. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Wellesley. Survived by wife and son.

Arthur Wolfe Brady, B.A. 1887.

Born January 13, 1865, in Muncie, Ind.
Died March 24, 1933, in Anderson, Ind.

Father, Thomas Jefferson Brady (DePauw University 1855-56); lawyer; member of firm of Brady & Mellett, publishers of Muncie Times; second assistant postmaster general of United States; during Civil War Captain and Major, 8th Indiana Volunteer Infantry, Colonel of 117th and 140th Indiana Infantry, and brevet Brigadier General; son of John and Mary (Wright) Brady, of Muncie. Mother, Emmeline (Wolfe) Brady; daughter of Adam and Elizabeth (Elliot) Wolfe, of Westfield, Ohio. Yale relatives include: E. Arthur Ball, ex-'18 S. (nephew); and Albert J. Willson, '90 (first cousin)

Upson Seminary (private school of Rev. Henry Upson, '59), New Preston, Conn Cobden Club medal; first dispute appointment Junior year; dissertation appointment Senior year; member Class Supper Committee.

Studied law in office of Bell & Morris, Fort Wayne, Ind., 1887-88 and at University of Michigan 1888-89 (LL.B. 1889); practiced law in Muncie until 1902 (partner in firm of Warner & Brady 1893-1902) and in Indianapolis 1902-03; vice-president of Union Traction Company of Indiana (connected with executive, operating, and legal departments) 1903-04, president and general counsel, with headquarters in Anderson, 1904-1924, and receiver for the company 1924-1930; had since engaged in independent law practice in Anderson, during the war served on Indiana State Counsel of Defense; mayor of City of Muncie 1891-94; member Anderson School Board 1914-1923, president of American Electric Railway Association 1910-11, of Family Welfare Society of Anderson since 1916 (member of the board since 1912), and of Anderson Community Chest since 1928; chairman of board of directors of Citizens' Banking Company of Anderson 1931–33; director of Rotary Club of Anderson; president of Yale Alumni Association of Indiana 1924–26; member American, Indiana State, and Madison County Bar associations, American, Indiana State, and Madison County Historical societies (president of the last), Indiana Pioneer Society, and Loyal Legion; vestryman of Trinity Episcopal Church, Anderson, since 1925.

Married (1) June 28, 1893, at Fort Wayne, Jane, daughter of Lindley M. and Beulah C. Ninde. Mrs. Brady died November 17, 1893. Married (2) December 18, 1901, in Muncie, Caroline Henderson, daughter of James McCulloch (M.D. University of Pennsylvania 1847) and Caroline Jane (Foulke) McCulloch. Children: George Wolfe (B.A. 1925; B.S. Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1927); and Arthur Adam, ex-'27 S. (B.S. University of Arizona 1930).

Death due to subacute bacterial endocarditis. Buried in Beechgrove Cemetery, Muncie. Survived by wife, sons, and two sisters, Mrs. Frank C. Ball, of Muncie, and Winifred B. Adams, the widow of J. Ottis Adams (honorary M.A. Wabash 1900), of Indianapolis.

Philip Dibble Bunce, B.A. 1888.

Born August 6, 1864, in Hartford, Conn.
Died September 13, 1932, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, Jonathan Brace Bunce; president of Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Company and of Society for Savings; son of James Marvin and Frances Ann (Brace) Bunce, of Hartford. Mother, Laura Maria (Dibble) Bunce; daughter of Calvin B. and Lura (Hayes) Dibble, of New York City and Granby, Conn. Yale relatives include: Rear Admiral Francis M. Bunce, U.S.N. (honorary M.A. 1899) (uncle); and David H. Cheney, '27, and Kimberly Cheney, '31 (nephews).

Hartford Public High School. Oration appointment Junior year, dissertation appointment Senior year; member Class Day Committee and Psi Upsilon.

M.D. Columbia 1891; interne at St. Luke's Hospital, New York, 1891–93 and at Sloane Maternity Hospital 1893; connected with various dispensaries in New York 1893–94; practiced medicine in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., 1894–98 and in Hartford since 1898; on staff of Hartford City Hospital since 1895; pathologist and bacteriologist 1897–99, attending orthopedic surgeon 1899–1924, and visiting orthopedic surgeon since 1924; visiting physician for Hartford Orphan Asylum 1900–1918; police surgeon 1895–1902; medical examiner for City of Hartford 1904-1918 and for Town of Bloomfield 1908-1913; took graduate work at Harvard Medical School in 1921; trustee of Hartford Grammar School since 1912; member Hartford Home Guard 1917; commissioned Captain, Medical Reserve Corps, March 6, 1918; assigned to Orthopedic Division, General Hospital No. 3, Fort Ontario, N. Y.; received discharge September 1, 1919; commissioned Major in the Medical Reserve December 24, 1919, and held commission until death; contributor to New York Medical Journal and New York Medical Record; member American Medical Association, Connecticut State Medical Society, Hartford Medical Society (temporary treasurer 1911-12 and treasurer since 1912), Dutchess County (N. Y.) Medical Society, and Society of the Alumni of St. Luke's Hospital; deacon in Immanuel Congregational Church, Hartford, 1928-1931.

Death due to carcinoma of the prostate. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by wife, two brothers, Walter H. Bunce, of Norwalk, Conn., and Alexander Bunce, '98, and a sister, Helen B. Edwards, the widow of Stanley W. Edwards, '00.

William Spencer Clark, B.A. 1888.

Born April 25, 1867, in Granby, Mass.
Died October 9, 1932, in Greenfield, Mass.

Father, Spencer Clark, a farmer; selectman; son of Elihu and Roxana (Ayers) Clark, of Granby. Mother, Arvilla (Davis) Clark; daughter of Almon and Mehitable Hacker (Berry) Davis, of Royalston, Mass.

Williston Academy. Second dispute appointment Junior and Senior years; member Gamma Nu

Engaged in farming at his home in Granby 1888-89; studied law in office of William H. Brooks in Holyoke, Mass., 1889-1891; admitted to the bar December 21, 1891, and practiced law independently in Granby until 1900; member Granby School Committee 1889-1898; selectman 1893-98 (chairman of the board 1896-98); trustee of Granby Public Library 1892-1901 (chairman of the board 1894-1901); secretary and treasurer of Granby Cooperative Creamery Association 1889-1900; chairman of Democratic Town Committee 1889-1895; delegate to Democratic National Convention in 1892; practiced law in Springfield, Mass., 1900-03 and also engaged in real estate and insurance business with the Charles D. Monroe Company, agents for Union Central Life Insurance Company; engaged independently in the insurance business in Northampton, Mass, 1903-08; connected with Northampton Street Railway Company 1908-1912, as assistant treasurer to 1910 and then as assistant superintendent; practiced law in Northampton 1912-16 in association with the late Calvin Coolidge; assistant to chief engineer of Massachusetts Consolidated Railways Company in Northampton 1912-13 and claims attorney for the company 1913-1923, at first in Northampton and from 1916 in Greenfield; since 1921 had engaged in private practice of law and in general insurance business in Greenfield, purchasing agent of Greenfield 1925-26; member First Congregational Church, Greenfield (chairman of parish committee 1922-26).

Married October 1, 1891, in Granby, Maude Inez, daughter of Oramel Lester and Ellen Symms (Washburn) Davis. Children: Ruth Davis (Mrs. Joseph E. Ross); and Donald Spencer (killed in France in 1918).

Death due to dilatation of the heart. Buried in West Cemetery, Granby. Survived by wife, daughter, and two grandchildren.

John William Beckwith, B.A. 1889.

Born April 17, 1867, in Chicago, Ill.
Died July 21, 1932, in Hines, Ill.

Father, Corydon Beckwith (B.A. Burlington College 1845; honorary M.A. University of Vermont 1853); judge of Illinois Supreme Court; general counsel for Chicago & Alton Railroad and for Chicago Board of Trade; son of John and Matilda (Shaw) Beckwith, of Sutton, Vt. Mother, Mary Ann (Smith) Beckwith; daughter of Rev. Worthington Smith (B.A. Williams 1816; Andover Theological Seminary 1819; D.D. University of Vermont 1845), seventh president of University of Vermont, and May Ann (Little) Smith, of Burlington, Vt. Brother: Henry W. Beckwith, ex-’85.

Prepared for college by private tutor in Chicago. Captain of Class Crew Freshman year; member Eta Phi and Psi Upsilon.

LL.B. Kent College of Law 1892; admitted to Illinois Bar and had since practiced in Chicago; member of firm of Felsenthal, Foreman & Beckwith 1906-1911, of Felsenthal & Beckwith 1911-14, and of Schein & Beckwith since 1921; real estate attorney of Chicago 1903-05; special attorney for City Council 1904 and 1905; attorney for trustees of Police Pension Board 1905; assistant corporation counsel for Chicago 1903-1911, first assistant corporation counsel 1911-14, and corporation counsel 1914-15; assistant state’s attorney in 1915; associate judge of Municipal Court of Chicago 1916-18; attorney for Sanitary District of Chicago 1924-28; commissioned Captain, Judge Advocate General’s Department, October
Yale Obituary Record

1, 1918; stationed at Camp Devens, Mass., until discharge May 26, 1919; Acting Judge Advocate and Trial Judge Advocate; commissioned Major, U. S. Reserve Corps, August 16, 1919, and Lieutenant Colonel November 17, 1923; assigned Judge Advocate of 65th Cavalry Division, 6th Corps Area, 1922; reappointed in November, 1928, for five years; since 1924 had been interested in and engaged with legal and hydraulic problems of Illinois and Mississippi rivers with reference to flood control and prevention, and in 1927 made an extended trip along the Mississippi River valley with Army engineers; delegate to Flood Control Conference, Washington, D. C., in 1927; member Illinois and Chicago Bar associations, 65th Cavalry Division Association, American Legion (past commander), and St. James Episcopal Church, Chicago.

Married April 21, 1897, in Chicago, Eunice Mary Stuart (Oxford College 1895-96), daughter of Ernest Boyce and Anna Katherine (Ansley) Stuart. Children. Mary-Anna, Wellesley ex-2$, the wife of Charles D. Heile, Jr. (Ph.B. University of Chicago 1925); Phyllis (died in infancy); Jane Worthington (died in childhood); and Henry Worthington (died in infancy).

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Rosehill Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife and one daughter.

John Cornelius Griggs, B.A. 1889.

Born September 29, 1865, in Spring Valley, Minn.
Died July 20, 1932, in Palo Alto, Calif.

Father, Rev. Leverett Stearns Griggs (B.A. Amherst 1860; Yale Divinity School 1860-61; Lane Theological Seminary 1863), a Congregational minister in Minnesota, Michigan, and Connecticut; son of Rev. Leverett Griggs (B.A. 1829, D.D. 1868) and Katharine (Stearns) Griggs, of Bristol, Conn. Mother, Cornelia (Little) Griggs, daughter of Rev. Henry Little (B.A. Dartmouth 1826; Andover Theological Seminary 1829; D.D. Wabash 1867) and Susan Norton (Smith) Little, of Madison, Ind. Yale relatives include: Elisha Stearns (B.A. 1796) (great-grandfather); Dr. John Stearns (B.A. 1789) (great-great-uncle); and Harlow Gale, '85, and Rev. Arthur M. Little, '89 and '91 D. (first cousins).

Hartford Public High School. Dissertation appointment Junior and Senior years; second prize at Junior Exhibition; an editor of Yale Literary Magazine; member College Choir, University Glee Club, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Taught English and mathematics at Norwich (Conn.) Free Academy 1889-1891; studied music at University of Leipzig 1891-93 (Ph.D. magna cum laude 1893); professor of music at Metropolitan College of Music, New York City, 1893–97; assistant professor of music at Vassar 1897–1919; taught singing in New York City 1893–1906; lecturer at Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences six years; associate professor of English at Canton Christian College (now Lingnan University, Canton, China) 1919–1920 and professor of English and head of the department from 1920 until retirement in 1927; had since made his home in Palo Alto; president of Dutchess County (N. Y.) Association of Musicians 1911–13; author of a textbook on phonetics; contributor to Yale Review, Etude, and Current History; member First Congregational Church, Palo Alto.

Death due to diverticulum of the bladder. Cremation took place at Cypress Lawn Cemetery, Colma, Calif., and ashes were buried in Terryville (Conn.) Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughter, two sons, seven grandchildren, a brother, Henry L. Griggs, '04, and four sisters, Mrs. Arthur Chenoweth, of Windsor, Conn., Mrs. Anthony E. Abel, of New York City, Miss Katharine C. Griggs (B.A. Smith 1900), of Berea, Ky., and Susan G. Graybill (B.A. Vassar 1906), the wife of Henry B. Graybill (B.A. Washington and Lee 1902).

Robert Lee Luce, B.A. 1889.

Born September 19, 1862, in Hartwick, N. Y.
Died March 11, 1933, in New York City.

Father, Rufus Peters Luce, a merchant; son of Torry James and Hulda Eliza (Peters) Luce, of Middlefield Center, N. Y. Mother, Cornelia (Lewis) Luce; daughter of Jeremiah and Mary (Proctor) Lewis, of Brookfield, N. Y.

Williston Academy. Received honorable mention for Cobden Club Medal and two-year honors in political science, history, and law Senior year; member Psi Upsilon.

Studied law in office of Walter H. Bunn, Cooperstown, N. Y., and admitted to the bar April 24, 1892; in office of Platt & Bowers (later Bowers & Sons), New York City, 1892–97 and became managing attorney for the firm 1893; member of firm of Bunn & Luce 1897–99 and then practiced alone until 1900; in partnership with Seward Davis, '91, and Francis H. Griffin, '92, under firm name of Luce, Davis & Griffin 1900–03 and then with Davis under name of Luce & Davis until 1910; subsequently associated with firm of Davis, Donahue, Thompson & Deitz as counsel for some years; chairman of Board of Claims of State of New York 1911–13; justice of City Court
Henry Judson Sage, B.A. 1889.

Born December 27, 1866, in Cincinnati, Ohio.
Died December 29, 1932, in New York City.

Father, Henry Ward Sage; secretary of Cincinnati Gas Company; son of Orrin N. and Elizabeth (Berry) Sage, of Madison, N. Y. Mother, Elizabeth (Hinkle) Sage; daughter of Philip and Martha (Gaither) Hinkle, of Cincinnati. Yale relatives include: Thornton M. Hinkle, ’63 (uncle); and Frederick W. Hinkle, ’92, and Philip Hinkle, ’97 (first cousins).

Walnut Hill School, Cincinnati. Second colloquy appointment Junior year; on University Glee Club four years (president Junior and Senior years) and College Choir; member Hé Boulé, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Studied at Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1890–92
Samuel Lewis Smith, B.A. 1889.

Born August 22, 1867, in Cleveland, Ohio.
Died October 6, 1932, in Cleveland, Ohio.

Father, Stiles Curtiss Smith, a merchant (wholesale tea, coffee, and spices); a founder of National Malleable & Steel Castings Company of Cleveland and of Cleveland Electric Illuminating Company; son of Samuel Smith, Jr., and Caroline (Curtiss) Smith, of South Britain, Conn. Mother, Catherine (Gleeson) Smith; daughter of Moses and Mary (Richardson) Gleeson, of Bedford, Ohio.

Phillips-Andover. Member Freshman Baseball Team, University Banjo Club, Junior Promenade Committee, University Club (on board of governors), Eta Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.
Connected with Eberhard Manufacturing Company 1889–1891; had since been with National Malleable Castings Company and its successor, National Malleable & Steel Castings Company; in the sales department for some years and acted as railroad representative; later sales manager of coupler department; vice-president in charge of sales since 1911 and a director of the company since 1908; director of Eberhard Manufacturing Company since 1908, of Union Trust Company of Cleveland since 1924, and of Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company of Akron, Ohio; president of Associated Western Yale Clubs 1916–19; member of Alumni Board since 1912 (on executive committee 1918–1928; chairman of nominating committee 1921–22 and again 1929–1930; on the Committee on Yale College 1925); member of Alumni Committee of Yale University on Plan for University Development 1917–1921 and of War Memorial Committee 1920; chairman for northern Ohio in the Yale Endowment Fund drive 1926; a governor of Yale Publishing Association in 1919 and again 1923–26; member National Industrial Board since 1922 and of Cleveland Chamber of Commerce, Railway Business Men's Association (on executive committee), Yale Engineering Association, Sons of the American Revolution, and New England Society; member of executive committee of the Chapter of Trinity Cathedral (Episcopal) since 1924.

Death due to coronary occlusion. Buried in Lakeview Cemetery, Cleveland. Survived by wife and two sisters, Mrs Henry S. Abbott and Mrs Frank R. Gilchrist, both of Cleveland.

Amasa Day Chaffee, B.A. 1890.

Born June 13, 1870, in Moodus, Conn.

Died February 27, 1933, in West Haven, Conn.

Hartford Public High School. Oration appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; an editor of Yale Courant; member Zeta Psi.

Studied medicine at Long Island College Hospital 1890–91 and at College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia, 1891–93 (M.D. 1893); interne at Bellevue Hospital 1893–95; practiced in New York City from 1895 until retirement in 1927; district physician and attending physician to tuberculosis, medical, and children's department of New York Dispensary 1899–1927; medical examiner for New York Life Insurance Company 1900–1928; interested in photography and had done much to develop bromoil prints; a founder of Pictorial Photographers of America in 1916 and president 1924–26; member executive committee of Art Center of New York and of First Congregational Church, Chester, Conn., his home since 1927.

Married January 17, 1925, in New York City, Antoinette Hungerford Cleaveland, Mount Holyoke '82, daughter of Edward Coddington and Anna Gilbert (Daniels) Hungerford. No children. Mrs. Chaffee died November 30, 1928.

Death due to tuberculosis. Buried in Laurel Hill Cemetery, Chester. Survived by mother, a sister, Katharine Chaffee Roberts (Mrs. Allan Kirk Roberts), Wheaton '10, of Moodus, and three stepdaughters, Mrs. Ralph B. Monroe (B.A. Hunter 1908) and Faith Cleaveland Booth, the wife of Russell G. Booth (B.A. Illinois Wesleyan 1914; M.A. Columbia 1915), of Hempstead, N. Y., and Cornelia Cleaveland Sparks (B.A. Hunter 1913), the wife of Clarence A. Sparks (B.S. College of the City of New York 1897; LL.B. New York University 1907), of Noroton Heights, Conn.

Robert Eston Phyfe, B.A. 1890.

Born August 29, 1856, in Bovina Center, N. Y.

Died January 12, 1933, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, John Phyfe, a tailor; justice of the peace; son of Archibald and —— (Baxter) Fyfe, of Forfar, Scotland. Mother, Ellen (Hutson) Phyfe; daughter of John and Katharine (Forsyth) Hutson, of Liddesdale, Scotland, and Delhi, N. Y. Grandnephew of Charles F. Stewart, '34.

Delaware Academy, Delhi. First colloquy appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year.

Member of faculty of Hartford Public High School from 1890 until his retirement in 1930; instructor in Latin and history 1890–95 and history and civics 1895–1917; vice-principal of the school and head of Department of History from 1902; president of Headmasters' Association of Central Connecticut and of Men Teachers' Club of the High School 1919–1920 and of Twentieth Century Club of Hartford 1924–25 (member of executive committee 1921–22); honorary M.A. Trinity 1928; member New England History Teach-
William Howard Smith, B.A. 1890.

Born July 21, 1867, in Hamilton, Ohio.
Died November 10, 1932, in Palo Alto, Calif.

Father, Ransford Smith (B.A. Miami 1855), a lawyer in Ogden, Utah, Captain, 35th Ohio Infantry during Civil War; son of William Howard and Phebe Wing (Yost) Smith, of Oxford, Ohio. Mother, Mary (Daly) Smith; daughter of Owen and Catherine Josephine (Dwyer) Daly, of Louisville, Ky.

School of the Good Shepherd, Ogden. Second colloquy appointment Junior year, first colloquy appointment Senior year.

Studied law in office of his father 1890-92 and admitted to Utah Bar in January, 1892; associated with his father in practice of law 1892-1902; moved to Palo Alto in 1902 and had practiced law there since his admission to California Bar January 22, 1906, in partnership with Walter C Rodgers (B.A. Stanford 1899) under firm name of Rodgers & Smith; member Santa Clara Bar Association.

Unmarried.

Death due to nephritis, chronic myocarditis, and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Alta Mesa Memorial Park, near Palo Alto. Survived by two nephews, Arthur R. Fletcher (B.A. Stanford 1906; E.M. Columbia 1911), of El Paso, Texas, and William D. Fletcher (B.A. Stanford 1911), of Palo Alto, and a niece, Isabel Fletcher Utegaard, University of Wisconsin ex-’20, the wife of Thomas Utegaard (B.S. University of Wisconsin 1917).
Cecil Kittredge Bancroft, B.A. 1891.
Born December 15, 1868, at Lookout Mountain, Tenn.
Died November 26, 1932, in Andover, Mass.

Father, Rev. Cecil Franklin Patch Bancroft (B.A. Dartmouth 1860; Andover Theological Seminary 1867; Ph.D. Regents University, State of New York, 1874; Litt.D. Williams 1891; LL.D. Yale 1892); principal of McCollom Institute, Mont Vernon, N. H., Lookout Mountain Institute, and Phillips Academy, Andover; trustee of Dartmouth, Andover Theological Seminary, and Massachusetts State Hospital and State Farm; son of James and Sarah Williams (Kendall) Bancroft, of New Ipswich and Rindge, N. H. Mother, Frances Adelia (Kittredge) Bancroft; daughter of Timothy and Frances (Marsh) Kittredge, of Mont Vernon. Yale relatives: Phillips Bancroft, '02 (brother); and George D. Kittredge, '09 (first cousin).

Phillips-Andover. Second Berkeley Premium Freshman year; high oration appointment Junior and Senior years; member Phi Beta Kappa.

Instructor in Latin at Morristown (N. J.) Academy 1891–93; studied in Yale Graduate School 1893–94; private tutor abroad and also attended lectures in Berlin and Rome 1894–95; tutor in Latin at Yale 1895–1903 and instructor in Latin 1903–06 (chairman of Freshman faculty); since 1906 had been registrar, principal's assistant, and instructor in Latin at Phillips-Andover; trustee of McCollom Institute 1910–1932; president of Andover Home for the Aged from 1914; director of Village Improvement Society of Andover; clerk of Andover Seminary Church since 1908; member American Philological Association.

Unmarried.

Death due to chronic myocarditis. Buried in Chapel Cemetery, Andover. Survived by two sisters, Frances B. Long (B.L. Smith 1894), the wife of Rev. William J. Long (B.A. Harvard 1892; Ph.D. Heidelberg 1897), of Stamford, Conn.; and Miss Mary E. Bancroft (B.A. Smith 1904), a member of the faculty of Abbot Academy, Andover.

William Beach Dean, B.A. 1891.
Born June 24, 1870, in New York City.
Died October 12, 1932, in New York City.

Father, David Jackson Dean, a lawyer; first assistant counsel to Corporation of New York City; Adjutant (Major), 28th New York Regiment, in Civil War; son of Isaac Miller and Mary Jane (Beach)
Dean, of Newark, N. J. Mother, Susan Maria (Mills) Dean; daughter of John H. and Mary (Bergen) Mills, of Brooklyn.

Bordentown (N. J.) Military Institute and Wilbraham (Mass.) Academy.

Studied law 1891–92, engaged in hat manufacturing business 1892–1931; salesman for Connett, Read & Company of New York and later made member of the firm; subsequently connected with William Read & Company and E. V. Connett & Company of New York; salesman in New York for G. W. Alexander & Company of Reading, Pa., and for C. H. Tenney & Company of New York for five years and for Waring Hat Manufacturing Corporation (Daniel G. Tenney, '91, also connected with last two firms); afterwards engaged in the business for himself several years under name of William B. Dean; since March, 1931, had been an agent in New York office of The Travelers of Hartford, Conn.; former treasurer of Columbia Stymite Company, dealers in kaolin, of New York; member St. John's Episcopal Church, Larchmont, N. Y.

Married April 30, 1895, in New York City, Cornelia Harsen, daughter of John Jacob and Sarah Frances (Leonard) Sperry. Three daughters. Katharine Sperry, Wellesley ex-'19, the wife of William T. Woodrow, M.E. Cornell 1915; Elizabeth Frances, the wife of Clinton Gilbert, Princeton ex-'21; and Cornelia Harsen, B.A. Smith 1925, the wife of Theodore H. Lydgate, '25.

Death due to ulcers of the stomach. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by wife, three daughters, six grandchildren, a sister, Mrs Raymond Buffington, of Touisset, Mass., and a brother, I. Miller Dean, of Larchmont.

Russell Kennedy Forsyth, B.A. 1891.

Born October 4, 1869, in Allegheny, Pa.

Father, William Hazlett Forsyth; in oil refining business with firm of Warden & Oxnard, son of Jacob and Margaret (Forsyth) Forsyth, of Pittsburgh. Mother, Emma Louise (Kennedy) Forsyth; daughter of Robert T and Charlotte (Hambright) Kennedy, of Pittsburgh. Yale relatives include. Stuart Brown, Jr., '14, Laurence F. Brown, '25, and Charles Gordon Zug, Jr., '31 (nephews); and George Shiras, 3d, '83 L., and Winfield K. Shiras, '84 L. (first cousins).

Shadyside Academy, Pittsburgh. Second colloquy appointment Junior and Senior years; treasurer of Freshman Glee Club; member Second Glee Club, Eta Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Wolf's Head.

With Marshall-Kennedy Milling Company, Pittsburgh, 1891–99, as its representative on Pittsburgh Grain Exchange; treasurer of Raymond Hilliard Gage, B.A. 1891.

Born August 31, 1869, in Dover, N. J.
Died December 19, 1932, in Wenonah, N. J.

Father, Cornelius Baker Gage; in real estate and insurance business; police justice and alderman; son of Philip Gage, of Woodbridge, N. J. Mother, Sarah Anna (Garrigus) Gage; daughter of Elias and Pamela (Hathaway) Garrigus, of Dover. Yale relatives include three first cousins: Wilmot H. Thompson, '98, Elbert N. S. Thompson, '00, and C. Seymour Thompson, '02.

Morristown (N. J.) High School and Morris Academy, Morristown. Oration appointment Junior year; high oration appointment and one-year honors in political science, history, and law Senior year; member College Choir, Apollo Glee Club, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Graduated from Princeton Theological Seminary 1894; during his course took graduate work at Princeton (M.A. 1893); ordained to Presbyterian ministry October 12, 1894; engaged in city mission work at Vailsburg, N. J., under South Orange Trinity Presbyterian Church 1894-96; had since been pastor of Memorial Presbyterian Church, Wenonah; chairman of committee of Synod of New Jersey in charge of home mission work 1900-1932, trustee of the Synod 1925-1932, and its representative on Home Mission Council of the Presbyterian Church 1924-1932; commissioner to the General Assembly 1912, 1920, and 1928; moderator of Presbytery of West Jersey 1915 and 1932 and of Synod of New Jersey 1921; taught the Bible at William Penn Charter School, Philadelphia, 1918-1928; an organizer of Wenonah Free Public Library in 1901 and its treasurer until his death; trustee of Lincoln (Pa.) University 1918-1928; treasurer of Princeton Theological Seminary Alumni Association; D.D Lafayette 1917, chairman of local committee on second, third, and fourth Liberty Loan campaigns; author: The Life of Frederick R. Brace, D.D.; had also published sermons, home mission leaflets, and annual reports.

Death due to chronic nephritis and angina pectoris. Buried in Wenonah Cemetery. Survived by sons, two grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Ella G. Wildrick, of Germantown, Pa.

Nathan Glicksman, B.A. 1891.

Born June 14, 1870, at Chippewa Falls, Wis.
Died June 26, 1933, in Milwaukee, Wis.

Father, Morris Glicksman; retail merchant and alderman and mayor of Chippewa Falls, born in Poland and came to America in 1865. Mother, Lena (Jacobs) Glicksman, born in Poland and came to America in 1860. Nephew: Maurice G. Phillips, ex-'22 S.

Markham Academy, Milwaukee. Hurlbut Scholarship, first Berkeley Premium, and second DeForest mathematical prize Freshman year; first Lucius F. Robinson Latin prize Sophomore year; philosophical oration appointment Junior year; Cobden Club medal, two-year honors in political science, history, and law Senior year and valedictorian of Class of 1891; member Phi Beta Kappa.

LL.B. University of Wisconsin 1893; clerk in office of W. H. Timlin, Milwaukee, 1893-94; member of firms of Timlin & Glicksman and Timlin, Glicksman & Conway 1894-1907, Glicksman & Gold 1907-09, Glicksman, Gold & Corrigan 1909-1926, and Glicksman & Gold 1926-28; had since practiced independently; director of First National Bank of Milwaukee and First Savings & Trust Company 1906-1913 and Milwaukee Merchants & Manufacturers Association 1908-1913, member of board of examiners for admission to the bar 1906-1911; trustee of Temple Emanuel-El; member of Yale Alumni William Phillips Graves, B.A. 1891.

Died January 25, 1933, in Boston, Mass.

Father, William Blair Graves (B.A. Amherst 1862; honorary M.A. Yale 1902); instructor in mathematics at Amherst College; professor of physics and chemistry at Marietta College; professor of physics and civil engineering at Massachusetts State College; head of Scientific Department at Phillips Academy, Andover, son of Cyrus and Lucena (Thayer) Graves, of West Fairlee, Vt. Mother, Luranah Hodges (Copeland) Graves, Wheaton ex-yg daughter of Elijah and Nancy (Hodges) Copeland, of Mansfield, Mass.

Phillips-Andover. Received honorable mention for Hugh Chamberlain Greek prize; first Berkeley Premium Freshman year; oration appointment Junior and Senior years; an editor of Yale Record four years and editor-in-chief Senior year; member University Football Team three years, Freshman Baseball Team and University Baseball Team Sophomore year, Hockey Team Senior year, Hé Boulé, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Instructor in Latin, American history, and English composition at The Hill School 1891–93 and again 1894–95; spent intervening year in graduate study in art, history, and modern languages at Harvard, student in Harvard Medical School 1895–99 (M.D. summa cum laude 1899); surgical house officer at Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston, 1899–1900; spent year 1900–01 in travel abroad and study in Vienna under Dr. Storck; took graduate work in pathology at Johns Hopkins three months in 1902; had since practiced medicine and surgery in Boston; on staff of Free Hospital for Women, Brookline, 1902–1933; established its pathological laboratory in 1902, member out-patient staff 1902–08, and surgeon-in-chief from 1908; member of faculty of Harvard Medical School 1904–1932, as assistant in gynecology 1904–1911, professor of gynecology 1911–1927, and W. H. Baker professor of gynecology 1927–1932, when made professor emeritus; surgeon-in-chief of Parkway Hospital, Boston, since the time of its foundation in 1921; consulting physician at Boston Lying-in Hospital since 1913; in 1917 served on National Committee for Standardization of Surgical Instruments and in 1918 acted as surgeon on Red Cross Relief Unit No. 5, which went from Boston to Halifax, Nova Scotia; Sc.D. Boston University 1932; in December, 1932, made an honorary fellow of British College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (third man to receive the honor and the first American); author: Graves' Gynecology (first published 1916; fifth edition now in preparation, translated into Chinese) and Female Sex Homology (1931); contributed to Boston Medical and Surgical Journal, American Journal of Obstetrics and Diseases of Women and Children, Surgery, Gynecology, and Obstetrics, Buck's American Practice of Surgery, New England Journal of Medicine, Journal of American Medical Association, and American Journal of Surgery, Gynecology, and Obstetrics; president of Boston Obstetrical Society in 1928 and of American Gynecological Association in 1931; chairman of Massachusetts Medical Cancer Committee 1931–32; fellow of American College of Surgeons; member American, Massachusetts, and Boston Medical associations, New England and Boston Surgical societies, American Gynecological Association, Boston Obstetrical Association, American Society for Cancer Research, and Harvard chapters of Alpha Omega Alpha and Sigma Xi; vice-president of Yale Club of Boston 1914–15, president 1916–17, and again 1932–33.
Yale Obituary Record

Married October 10, 1900, in Boston, Alice Myrick, daughter of Sidney and Ella May (Mernhew) Chase. Children: Sidney Chase (B.A. Harvard 1924, M.D. 1929); William Phillips, Jr. (B.A. Harvard 1927); and Alice.

Death due to endocarditis and acute aortitis. Survived by wife, two sons, daughter, mother, and a brother, Henry S. Graves, '92, dean of the Yale School of Forestry.

Charles Prentice Howland, B.A. 1891.

Born September 15, 1869, in New York City.
Died November 12, 1932, in New Haven, Conn

Father, Henry Elias Howland (B.A. 1854; LL.B. Harvard 1857; honorary M.A. 1893); fellow of Yale Corporation 1892–1910; son of Aaron Prentice and Huldah (Burke) Howland, of Walpole, N. H. Mother, Sarah Louise (Miller) Howland; daughter of Jonathan and Sarah Ross (Blunt) Miller, of New York City. Yale relatives include: John Howland (B.A. 1894; M.D. New York University 1897 and Cornell 1899; honorary M.A. 1914 (brother); and John Howland, Jr., '30, and Elihu S. Howland, '35 (nephews).

Cutler School, New York City. High oration appointment Junior and Senior years; one-year honors in political science, history, and law; president of Freshman Football Association; secretary and treasurer of University Tennis Club; treasurer of University Club; member Delta Kappa Epsilon, Wolf's Head, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Yale Obituary Record

Married September 6, 1905, in New York City, Virginia Cunningham, daughter of Frank and Alice (Furman) Lazarus. Children: Esther (B.A. Vassar 1926; M.A. Columbia 1927; Ph.D. Yale 1932), the wife of Hugh Montgomery (B.A. Haverford 1925; M.D. Harvard 1930), Henry Elias; David, ’33; and Prentice (died in infancy).

Death due to injuries received when struck by an automobile a few hours previously. Cremation took place in Springfield, Mass., and ashes were buried in Walpole, N. H. Survived by wife, daughter, two sons, and a sister, Miss Frances L. Howland, of New York City.

At a meeting of the Yale Corporation in December, 1932, it was voted to approve the proposal that the Yale University Press send to each embassy and legation of the United States and to the Departments of Political Science and Government in one hundred leading American and British universities copies of Yale's important publications during the last three years in the fields of Government and International Relations, as a gift in each case in memory of Professor Howland. In his memory, also, Athens College has received the funded endowment of an annual prize from Stephen Deltas, Greek treasurer of the Greco-American Preparatory School near Athens.

Howard LaField, B.A. 1891.

Born May 6, 1869, in Bridgeport, Conn.
Died October 22, 1932, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Charles Howard LaField; a grocer in Bridgeport; son of George and Elizabeth (Shelton) LaField, of Bridgeport. Mother, Susan (Lobdell) LaField; daughter of Jerome Bonaparte and Catherine (Raymond) Lobdell, of Bridgeport.

Bridgeport High School. Second dispute appointment Junior year; honor in modern languages and first dispute appointment Senior year.

Instructor in French, German, and piano at Racine College Grammar School 1891–93 and again 1894–95 (also organist at the College Chapel); instructor in French, German, and Spanish at Canaan (Conn.) Academy 1893–94; and at St. John's Military Academy, Delafield, Wis., 1896–1913, with exception of three years (1902–05); chaplain of the Military Academy 1898–1902 and 1905–1913, dean 1905–1913, assistant organist 1896–98, and choir master 1899–1900; M.A. Yale 1901; instructor in New Testament exegesis, English, and Greek at Nashotah (Wis.) Theological Seminary 1902–05 and choir master 1902–04; B.D. Nashotah Theological Seminary 1903; instructor in French and German at Central High School, Bridgeport, since 1913 and head of Romanic languages department 1916–1924; ordained deacon in Protestant Episcopal Church January 1, 1898, and priest December 21, 1898; curate at Christ Church, New Haven, since 1914; contributed poems and stories to Cadet Days (St. John's Military Academy) and stories to Golden Days; member Christ Church, New Haven.

Unmarried.

Death due to chronic myocarditis. Buried in Mountain Grove Cemetery, Bridgeport. Survived by two sisters, Miss Grace H. LaField, of New Haven, and Mrs. William A. Platt, of Milford, Conn.

Howard Huntington, B.A. 1892.

Born January 24, 1871, in Plainfield, N. J
Died December 31, 1932, in Plainfield, N. J

Father, Samuel Huntington (B.A. 1863; LL.B. Columbia 1865); son of Samuel Howard Huntington (B.A. 1818) and Sarah Blair (Watkinson) Huntington, of Hartford, Conn. Mother, Azelia Caroline (Zerega) Huntington; daughter of Augustus and Eliza Morch (Uytendael) Zerega, of New York City. Yale relatives include: Aristarchus Champion (B.A. 1807) (great-great-uncle); Henry W. Huntington (B.A. 1811) (great-uncle); Henry K. Huntington, ex-66 (uncle); Augustus Z. Huntington, '95 S. (brother); and Robert W. Huntington, '89, Rev. D. Trumbull Huntington, '92, Richard H. Cole, '02, and Francis W. Cole, '04 (first cousins).

Plainfield High School. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Chemical Company, manufacturers of lacquer, in Kenilworth, N. J.; 1912-16; had been engaged in the bond business in New York since 1916; associated for a short time with Kennedy & Mitchell; later with Liggett & Drexel, and with Sutro & Kimbley for over ten years; since January, 1930, security salesman with H. M. Byllesby & Company, members of the New York Stock Exchange.

Death due to lobar pneumonia. Cremation took place at Rose Hill Crematory, Linden, N. J., and ashes were buried in Hillside Cemetery, Plainfield. Survived by wife and a sister, Miss Florence A. Huntington, of Plainfield.

Abraham Meyer, B.A. 1892.

Born July 27, 1871, in Chicago, Ill.
Died May 6, 1933, in Paris, France.

Father, Max Abraham Meyer; born in Sommerau, Germany; came to America in 1854; partner in firms of Selz, Schwab & Company (wholesale boots and shoes) and Meyer, Straus & Goodman (wholesale clothing), Chicago; son of Abraham Meyer. Mother, Sarah (Frank) Meyer, daughter of Emanuel and Elise (Reese) Frank, of Aufhausen, Germany. Yale relatives include two nephews. Robert H Mayer, '13, and Matthew A. Meyer, '32.

South Division High School, Chicago. Oration appointment Junior and Senior years; coxswain of Class Crew.

Clerk with American Trust & Savings Bank of Chicago 1893-94; studied law in office of Moran, Kraus & Mayer, of which firm his brothers-in-law, Levy Mayer, '76 L., and Isaac H. Mayer, '84, were members, and also at Chicago College of Law 1894-96 (LL.B. 1896); admitted to the bar in March, 1896, and practiced with firm of Moran, Kraus & Mayer and its successor, Moran, Mayer & Meyer (of which his brother, Carl Meyer, '88, was a member) until 1905; had since been member of its successors, Mayer, Meyer & Austrian and Mayer, Meyer, Austrian & Platt; member American, Illinois, and Chicago Bar associations

Unmarried.

Death due to uremic poisoning following an operation. Buried in Rosehill Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by four sisters, Mrs. Levy Mayer, Mrs. Isaac H. Mayer, Clara M. Stein, the widow of Sydney
Stein, ’84, and Mrs. Frederic Fechheimer (B.L. Smith 1901), and two brothers, Carl Meyer and Albert Meyer, all of Chicago. Another brother, Edwin F. Meyer, ’86 S., died in 1931.

Charles Walker Clark, B.A. 1893.
Born November 3, 1871, at Deer Lodge, Mont.
Died April 8, 1933, in New York City.

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the OBITUARY RECORD.

Montgomery Hare, B.A. 1893.
Born February 5, 1870, in Orange, N. J.
Died July 8, 1932, in St. James, N. Y.

Father, James Montgomery Hare; partner in firm of Frame, Hare & Lockwood, U. S. managers of London Assurance Corporation, and later resident manager of Norwich Union Fire Insurance Society, Ltd., of Norwich, England, and president of New York Board of Fire Underwriters, National Board of Fire Underwriters, and New York Fire Insurance Exchange; served with Keystone Battery in Civil War; son of Rev. George Emlen Hare (B.A. Union 1826; D.D. Columbia 1843; LL.D. University of Pennsylvania 1873) and Elizabeth Catharine (Hobart) Hare, of Princeton, N. J. Mother, Mary Emlen (Meredith) Hare; daughter of Joseph Dennie and Sarah Emlen (Scott) Meredith, of Philadelphia. Yale relatives include: John M. Scott (B.A. 1746) (great-great-grandfather).

Groton (Mass.) School. Second colloquy appointment Senior year; member Psi Upsilon.

LL.B. Columbia 1897; admitted to New York Bar in 1896 and had since practiced in New York City; member of the following firms: Rush & Hare 1906–08, Barbour, Rush, Hare & Holter (William R. Barbour, ’80, and Meredith Hare and Edwin O Holter, both ’94, also members) 1908–09, Barbour, Rush & Hare 1909–1910, Rush, Hare & Dodge 1914, Rush & Hare 1914–19, and Shearn & Hare since 1919; assistant corporation counsel of City of New York 1901–06; member of Bar Association of the City of New York (on executive committee 1915) and Protestant Episcopal Church.

Married March 11, 1908, in New York City, Constance Parsons, daughter of John Edward Parsons (honorary M.A 1851) and Mary (Mcllvaine) Parsons, and sister of Herbert Parsons, ’90. Two sons, Michael Meredith, ex-’31, and Montgomery, Jr, ’33.

Death due to coronary thrombosis and bronchopneumonia.
Tale Obituary Record

Buried in cemetery of Congregational Church, Lenox, Mass. Survived by wife, sons, a grandson, a sister, Miss Mary M. Hare, of New York City, and three brothers, Meredith Hare, '94 (died August 17, 1932), William Hare, '96 S., and Morin S. Hare, '05. A fourth brother, Dennie M. Hare, ex-'99, died in 1918.

James Norman Hill, B.A. 1893.

Born February 13, 1870, in St. Paul, Minn.

Died July 3, 1932, at Wheatley Hills, N. Y.

Father, James Jerome Hill (L.L.D. 1910); general manager, vice-president, and president of St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba Railway Company and president of Great Northern Railway Company; son of James and Anne (Dunbar) Hill, of Rockwood, Ontario. Mother, Mary Theresa (Mehegan) Hill; daughter of Timothy and Mary (McGowan) Mehegan, of St. Paul. Yale relatives include: the late Anson M. Beard, '05 (brother-in-law); and George Norman Slade, '24 S., Louis W. Hill, Jr., '25, J. Jerome Hill, 2d, '27, and Anson M. Beard, '32 (nephews).

Phillips-Exeter. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Death due to heart failure. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by wife, two brothers, Louis W. Hill, '93 S., and Walter J. Hill, of St. Paul, and five sisters. Mrs. Samuel Hill, of Tarrytown, N. Y.; Mrs. Pierre Lonllard; Gertrude H. Gavin, the wife of Michael Gavin, '95; and Mrs. Erasmus C. Lindley, all of New York City; and Mrs. Emil Boeckman, of St. Paul. Another sister, who was the wife of George T. Slade, '93, died in 1923.

Benjamin Hodge, B.A. 1893.

Born March 5, 1871, in St. Paul, Minn.
Died March 28, 1933, in Redlands, Calif.

Father, Lyman Davis Hodge, '57; son of Benjamin and Eliza (Patton) Hodge, of Black Rock, N Y. Mother, Mary Norton (Granger) Hodge; daughter of Warren and Mary (Norton) Granger, of Buffalo, N. Y.

St. Paul High School. First colloquy appointment Junior year, second dispute appointment Senior year and two-year honors in mathematics and physical science, rowed in single scull races, spring regatta, 1891 and 1892; captain of Dunham Boat Club; member Alpha Delta Phi and Wolf's Head.

Studied mining engineering at Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1893–95 and followed that profession until 1909; located in Montana 1895–98, assistant engineer of London & British Columbia Gold Fields Company at Nelson, B. C., 1898–1904; practiced in Platteville, Wis., 1904–09 and also member of firm of Jarrett & Hodge Company, dealers in mining supplies; since 1909 had been engaged in orange growing at Redlands; general manager of All Orange Products Company 1922–25; served with American Red Cross overseas August, 1918–June, 1919; at Brest Hospital No. 33, as field representative and later as assistant zone commander, with rank of Captain until November; then with American Red Cross Commission in Berlin, caring for Russian prisoners of war; director and vice-chairman of Redlands chapter of American Red Cross since 1917, secretary of Redlands Social Service Exchange since June, 1932
Married January 18, 1899, in St. Paul, Ruth Stickney (B.A. Vassar 1894), daughter of Alpheus Bede and Kate (Hall) Stickney. Children: Mary Norton; Benjamin; and Ruth Ursula.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Cremation took place and ashes were buried on the Hodge ranch in Redlands. Survived by wife, son, and daughters.

Meredith Hare, B.A. 1894.

Born July 20, 1871, in Orange, N. J.
Died August 17, 1932, at Fort Garland, Colo.

(For family history see biography of brother, Montgomery Hare, '93, p. 79.)

Groton (Mass ) School. First colloquy appointment Junior year; second colloquy appointment Senior year; member Hé Boulé, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones.

LL.B. Columbia 1897, had since practiced law in New York City, associated with firm of Butler, Notman, Joline & Mynderse 1897–99; partner in firm of Cutcheon & Hare 1899–1900 and its successor, Cutcheon, Hare & Holter (Edwin O. Holter, '94, also a member), 1900–02; in firm of Barbour, Hare & Holter (William R. Barbour, '80, senior partner) 1902–08 and its successors, Barbour, Rush, Hare & Holter (Montgomery Hare, '93, also a partner) 1908–09 and Barbour, Rush & Hare 1909–1910; and in firms of Rush, Hare & Dodge 1914 and Rush & Hare 1914–19; subsequently practiced independently.

Death due to tuberculosis. Buried in Sleepy Hollow Cemetery, Tarrytown, N. Y. Survived by wife, son, a sister, Miss Mary M. Hare, of New York City, and two brothers, William Hare, '96 S., and Morn S. Hare, '05. His brother, Dennie M. Hare, ex-'99, died in 1918.

David Bartine Melick, B.A. 1895.

Born May 13, 1872, in Peapack, N. J.
Died May 12, 1933, in Gladstone, N. J.

Father, David Bartine Melick, a farmer; son of James and Lydia (VanSickle) Melick, of Peapack. Mother, Mary Ann (Woodruff) Melick; daughter of Robert and Eliza (Groff) Woodruff, of Mendham, N. J.
Mark Baldwin, B.A. 1896.

Born June 22, 1872, in Perry, Ill.
Died December 27, 1932, in Duluth, Minn.

Father, George Washington Baldwin, miller and grain buyer; son of David and Anne (Desney) Baldwin, of Perry. Mother, Sarah Jane (Mason) Baldwin; daughter of Charles and Louise (Farnam) Mason, of Barry, Ill.

Whipple Academy, Jacksonville, Ill. First dispute appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year.

Taught mathematics, ancient history, and political economy at Duluth High School 1896-1903; secretary of Bridgeman-Russell Company (wholesale dairy products), Duluth, 1903-1918, director 1903-1918, 1919-1923, and vice-president 1921-23, president of Duluth Community Fund 1925-26; director of Bethel Home for Men since 1922; member of Duluth Chamber of Commerce since 1902; field director of American Red Cross in charge of work at Camp Meade, Md., August–November, 1918; president of Kitchi Gammi Club 1931-32 and director until death; member First Presbyterian Church (trustee 1922-24).

Married June 20, 1899, in Jacksonville, Margaret Olive, daughter of Greene Vardiman Black (D.D.S. Missouri Dental College 1877;
Tale Obituary Record

M.D. Chicago Medical College 1884; Sc.D. Illinois College 1892 and University of Pennsylvania 1915; LL.D. Northwestern University 1898; and Elizabeth (Davenport) Black. Children: Clara Elizabeth (B.A. Smith 1923) (Mrs. Richard Hubert); Helen (B.A. Smith 1929); and Margaret Ann.

Death due to coronary occlusion and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Forest Hill Cemetery, Duluth. Survived by wife, three daughters, three granddaughters, a brother, Albert Baldwin (B.A. Illinois College 1890), of Duluth, and a sister, Mrs. Samuel M. Stead, of Covina, Calif.

Samuel Isaac Motter, B.A. 1896.

Born November 7, 1874, in St. Joseph, Mo.
Died August 26, 1932, in St. Joseph, Mo.

Father, Joshua Motter (Pennsylvania College ex-1864); vice-president of Wheeler & Motter Mercantile Company of St. Joseph; son of Isaac and Mary (Snively) Motter, of Williamsport, Md.

Mother, Katherine Augusta (Barrow) Motter; daughter of John Everitt and Katherine (Gingery) Barrow, of New York City.

St. Joseph High School. Entered Yale with Class of 1895, but left at end of Sophomore year on account of an accident; returned in 1894 as a Junior with Class of 1896; member Yale Glee Club, Apollo Glee and Banjo Club, College Choir (soloist in Battell Chapel), and Phi Gamma Delta LL.B. University of Michigan 1899 (member University Glee Club), admitted to Illinois Bar in October, 1899, and practiced law in St. Joseph until retirement in 1929; specialized in real estate law; member of firm of Motter & Shultz 1899–1912, then in independent practice; assistant prosecuting attorney for Buchanan County 1901–03; member of Missouri State Legislature 1930–31, but unable to complete term on account of illness; president of France Investment Company; secretary of Harrigan Supply Company; vice-president of St Joseph Library Board 1914–16 and again 1926–1932; member St. Joseph School Board 1916–1921 (president 1918–1921); attended Chicago Musical College at one time and sang in various churches in St. Joseph; member St. Joseph Chamber of Commerce and Christ Episcopal Church.

Married May 11, 1910, in St. Joseph, Susan Jane, daughter of John Sherrard and Susan Mary (Turner) Brittain, and sister of John S. Brittain, '96 Two daughters, Susan Brittain and Mary Augusta.

Death due to streptococcic and arteriosclerotic myocarditis. Buried in Mount Mora Cemetery, St. Joseph. Survived by wife, daughters, a brother, John B. Motter, '03, and a sister, Mrs. Walton Hall, of Kansas City, Mo.

Ralph Andrews Barker, B.A. 1897.

Born December 2, 1873, in Calais, Maine.

Died August 13, 1932, in South Acton, Mass.

Father, John Barker; partner in hardware firm of Chase, Barker & Company; son of Samuel Foss and Anne (Deming) Barker, of Calais.

Mother, Ann (Andrews) Barker; daughter of John Dewolf and Myra (Albee) Andrews, of Milltown, New Brunswick, Canada.

Calais High School and Black Hall School. First dispute appointment Junior and Senior years.

LL.B. Harvard 1900, admitted to the bar in 1900 and practiced law in Calais in association with the firm of Fowler & Gardner until 1905; studied at Bangor Theological Seminary two years; following his graduation, ordained to Congregational ministry September 24, 1907, at Scarboro, Maine, where pastor three years; pastor Blue Hill, Maine, 1910-16 and South Acton since 1916; scribe of Middlesex Union Association of Congregational Churches 1926-1932.

Married June 19, 1907, in Calais, Harriet May, daughter of John and Mary (Woodcock) Crabtree. No children.

Death due to chronic valvular disease of the heart. Buried in Calais Cemetery. Survived by wife and a brother, D. K. Chase Barker, of Blue Hill, Maine.

Henry Ledyard, B.A. 1897.

Born August 7, 1875, in Detroit, Mich.

Died December 1, 1932, at Grosse Pointe, Mich.

Father, Henry Brockholst Ledyard (United States Military Academy 1865); served in the U.S. Army; president and chairman of the board of Michigan Central Railroad; son of Henry Ledyard (B.A. Columbia 1830) and Matilda Frances (Cass) Ledyard, of Detroit.

Mother, Mary Richardine (L'Hommedieu) Ledyard; daughter of Stephen Satterlee and Almy (Hammond) L'Hommedieu. Yale relatives include: Charles H. L'Hommedieu, '03 (first cousin).

St. Paul's School, Concord, N.H. First colloquy appointment Junior and Senior years; member University Glee Club, Alpha Delta Phi, and Scroll and Key.

LL.B. Harvard 1900; admitted to the Michigan Bar in 1900 and in law office of Russel & Campbell for a time; later partner in law firm of Russel, Campbell & Bulkley and its successor, Russel, Campbell, Bulkley & Ledyard, until 1911 and then of Campbell, Bulkley & Ledyard and its successors, Bulkley, Ledyard, Mills & Dickinson and Bulkley, Ledyard, Dickinson & Wright, until death (Charles H. L'Hommedieu, '03, also partner in last three firms); attorney for the Police Department of Detroit, director of People's Wayne County Bank, National Bank of Detroit, Union Trust Company (chairman of the board), People's State Bank of Highland Park, Hamtramck State Bank, People's Realty Company, Russel Woods Company, Parke Davis & Company, and River Range Improvement Company, associated with Copeland Products, Inc. (manufacturers of household refrigerators); trustee of Children's Hospital of Michigan and of Elmwood Cemetery Association; original member, vice-president, and president of Zoological Park Commission of Detroit; member Selective Service Board No. 8 June–July, 1917, and of District Exemption Board No. 1 for Eastern District of Michigan August, 1917–February, 1919; president of Michigan Yale Alumni Association 1921–22; chairman of entertainment committee of Associated Western Yale Clubs 1922; Michigan State chairman (North Central Division), Yale Endowment campaign, 1926; vestryman of Christ Episcopal Church, Detroit; member executive committee, Episcopal Diocese of Michigan, in nation-wide campaign of the Episcopal Church, member American Bar Association, Association of the Bar of the City of Detroit, American Protective League, and Society of the Cincinnati in the State of New York.

Married September 5, 1900, in Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, Mary Alice Maude, daughter of William and Mary (Murray) Hendrie. Children Augustus Canfield, '24; Henry, Jr., '24 S.; Mary Hendrie; and William Hendrie, ex-'33 S. Mrs. Ledyard died October 29, 1928.

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Elmwood Cemetery, Detroit. Survived by daughter, three sons, a sister, the Baroness VonKettler, of Detroit, and a brother, Hugh Ledyard, '08. Another brother, Augustus C. Ledyard, '98, died in 1899.

Goodloe Lindsley, B.A. 1897.

Born September 3, 1874, in Cherokee, Ala.

Died April 5, 1933, in Nashville, Tenn.

Father, Adrian VanSinderen Lindsley, '69; son of Adrian VanSinderen and Eliza Malvina (Trimble) Lindsley, of Nashville. Mother, Rebecca (Goodloe) Lindsley; daughter of John Calvin Goodloe, of Colbert County, Ala. Uncle: Philip Lindsley, '70.

Worcester (Mass.) Academy and Hopkins Grammar School.

Had been engaged in real estate business in Nashville since graduation; proprietor of Goodloe Lindsley & Company at first and later president of Lindsley, Corson & Company, Inc.; secretary and treasurer of Belle Meade Land Company and of Richmond Realty Company; served with Battery C, Field Artillery, at Officers' Training Camp, Camp Warden McLean, a few weeks in 1917, but discharged on account of physical disability; later commissioned Captain, 4th Infantry, Tennessee National Guard; member North Carolina Society of the Cincinnati and the Episcopal Church.

Married December 14, 1899, in Nashville, Mildred Hopson, daughter of John P. and Elizabeth (Cheney) Williams. One son, John Williams (B.S. Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1925).

Mrs. Lindsley died March 2, 1907.

Death due to acute myocarditis. Buried in Mount Olivet Cemetery, Nashville. Survived by son.

Larkin Goldsmith Mead, B.A. 1897.

Born June 29, 1874, in New Britain, Conn.
Died March 7, 1933, in Bronxville, N. Y.

Father, Charles Levi Mead; head of Stanley Rule & Level Company of New Britain; son of Larkin Goldsmith and Mary Jane (Noyes) Mead, of Chesterfield, N. H. Mother, Isabella S. (Martin) Mead; daughter of Oliver and Lois (Derby) Martin, of Walpole, N. H., and Brattleboro, Vt.

Westminster School. Member College Choir, Freshman and University Glee clubs, University Banjo Club, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Reporter for New York Sun 1897-99; free lance writer 1899-1900; political writer with New York Commercial Advertiser 1900-06; member of firm of Curran & Mead (Henry H. Curran, '98, senior member), newspaper publicity correspondents, New York City, 1906-1912; had since continued in same business under his own name; educational director of The Chemical Foundation 1918-1928; head of bureau of information of Association Against the Prohibition Amendment from its organization in 1928 (vice-president of association since 1931); member committee of seven directing publicity in United War Work drive and director of publicity for National Catholic War Council; adviser on public relations for American Red Cross and for Audubon Society; on Bronxville Board of Education 1908-1912; director of Westminster School, vice-president and member of executive committee of Westminster School Company, and treasurer of Westminster School Alumni Association 1915-1925; a governor of Yale Publishing Association 1922-23; member Dutch Reformed Church, Bronxville.

Married March 3, 1906, in New York City, Edwina Wheeler Winter Smith, daughter of Edwin Wheeler and Elizabeth (Cannon)
Yale Obituary Record

Winter, and sister of Wallace C. Winter, '93 S. Children: Katherine Lois (B.A. Vassar 1930), the wife of Richard R. Hasbrouck (B.A. Williams 1928); and Edwina Winter.

Death due to uremia and chronic endocarditis. Buried in Congregational Cemetery, Norfolk, Conn. Survived by wife, two daughters, a stepson, Winter Mead, '19, three grandchildren, and a sister, Miss Mabel C. Mead, of New York City.

Wyllys Rosseter Betts, B.A. 1898.

Born May 12, 1875, in New York City.
Died July 19, 1932, in Southampton, N. Y.

Father, Frederic Henry Betts (B.A. 1864, M.A. 1871; LL.B. Columbia 1866, LL.D. 1901); son of Frederic Joel Betts (B.A. Williams 1821 and honorary M.A. 1834) and Mary Ward (Scoville) Betts, of Newburgh, N. Y. Mother, Louise (Holbrook) Betts; daughter of John Fiske and Mary Elizabeth (Cheesman) Holbrook, of Boston, Mass. Yale relatives include: William E. Foster, '60, and C. Wyllys Betts, '67 (uncles); Louis F. H. Betts, '91 (brother); and Sheldon E. Hoadley, '15 S. (nephew).

St. Mark's School, Southboro, Mass. On Freshman Football Team, vice-captain of Yale Golf Club Junior year and president Senior year, member Eta Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Wolf's Head.

Death due to carcinoma of the bladder. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by son, daughter, a granddaughter, and a sister, Mrs. Eliot B. Hoadley, of New York City.
Eugene Watson Burlingame, B.A. 1898.

Born August 5, 1876, in Albany, N. Y.
Died August 3, 1932, in Albany, N. Y.

Father, Eugene Burlingame (LL.B. Albany Law School 1871); lawyer in Albany; son of Westcott and Melinda (Eaton) Burlingame, of Cortland County, N. Y. Mother, Emma Patton (Watson) Burlingame; daughter of Rufus Wheeler and Elizabeth (Botsford) Watson, of Catskill, N. Y. Yale relatives: Westcott Burlingame, Jr., 1936 (nephew); and Jesse Olney, '97 (first cousin).

Albany Academy. Freshman honor division; second Berkeley Premium; oration appointment Junior year; dissertation appointment Senior year; an editor of Yale Record.

Instructor in English at St. Luke's School, Bustleton, Pa., 1896-1900, in English and Greek at Hoosac School, Hoosick, N. Y., 1900-03, and in English and the classics at St. Luke's School, Wayne, Pa., 1903-08; M.A. Yale 1902; Harrison fellow in Sanskrit and comparative philology at University of Pennsylvania 1908-09 and again in 1910 (Ph.D. 1910); engaged in research work in Indic philology at Harvard September, 1909-February, 1910; instructor in Greek at Haverford (Pa.) School 1910-14; during that period fellow by courtesy at Johns Hopkins 1912-13 and Harrison research fellow in Indo-European philology at University of Pennsylvania 1913-14; Johnston scholar in Sanskrit at Johns Hopkins 1914-16; lecturer on Pāli at Yale 1917-18; had since been engaged in original investigations in Indic philology and Hindu fiction and other literary work; author: Act of Truth (1917) and of translations from the original Pāli: Buddhist Legends (3 vols. in Harvard Oriental Series) (1921), Buddhist Parables (1922), The Grateful Elephant and Other Stories (1923), and Parablele Buddhista (1926); editor of Library of Hindu Fiction (1927); collector of rare manuscripts and first editions, which had been exhibited in New York State Education Building, Albany, and in various libraries and museums; fellow of American Academy of Arts and Sciences; member American Oriental Society and St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Albany.

Unmarried.

Death due to myocarditis. Buried in Albany Rural Cemetery. Survived by mother, two sisters, Mrs. William J. Munz, of Geneseo, N. Y., and Miss Frances Burlingame, of Tuckahoe, N. Y., and a brother, Westcott Burlingame, of Albany.
Morris Upham Ely, B.A. 1898.

Born April 21, 1876, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died December 14, 1932, in New York City.

Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. Captain of Freshman Football Team, substitute on University Football Team Sophomore year and member of team 1898–99; on Class Baseball Team Junior year; held University lightweight wrestling championship three years and class tennis championship Sophomore year; member Junior Promenade and Class Day committees, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Wolf's Head.

Studied in Yale School of Law 1898–99 and in New York University Law School 1899–1900; admitted to New York Bar in June, 1900; chief clerk with Wilmer & Canfield, lawyers, in New York 1900–02 and managing clerk for Lord, Day & Lord 1902–04; partner in law firm of Ely, Billings & Chester (Luther G. Billings, Jr., and Colby M Chester, Jr, both '98) 1904–07 and again 1909–1911 and of Allen, Ely, Billings & Chester 1907–09; director and secretary of George H. Burr & Company, bankers and brokers, in New York 1911–16, resident counsel of Collier's magazine 1916–18, member of law firm of Dawes, Abbott & Chester (C. Westley Abbott, '99, a member) 1916–19; had since been practicing law independently in New York; in 1924 appointed by United States District Court judges for Eastern and Southern districts upon a committee of six to revise and make uniform the bankruptcy rules of the two districts; vice-president and treasurer of Ely Anode & Supply Company; president of Union Republican Club and of Brooklyn Lawyers' Club; secretary and chairman of Local Draft Board No 49 during the war; secretary of Yale Association of Long Island 1909–1911, vice-president 1916 and 1921, and president 1923; member Republican committee of Kings County, N. Y., New York Bar Association, Loyal Legion, and Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York.

Married November 21, 1911, at Glen Cove, N. Y., Ethel James, daughter of Horatio Mortimer and Mary Isabelle (James) Adams, and sister of John F. Adams, ex-'13 S. Children: Eleanor Kent and Barbara

Mr. and Mrs. Ely were divorced in 1932.
Eugene Hale, B.A. 1898.

Died February 16, 1933, in New York City.

Father, Eugene Hale (honorary M.A. Bowdoin 1869; LL.D. Bates 1882, Colby 1886, Bowdoin 1896); lawyer; member of Maine Legislature; U. S. Senator from Maine; son of James Sullivan and Betsey (Staples) Hale, of Turner, Maine. Mother, Mary Douglas (Chandler) Hale; daughter of Zachariah Chandler, U. S. Senator from Michigan and Secretary of the Interior, and Mary (Douglas) Chandler, of Detroit.

St. Mark's School. In Freshman honor division; dissertation appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year, substitute on Freshman Football Team; member Eta Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Studied at Harvard Law School 1898-1900; connected with Great Northern Paper Company in New York City 1900-05; became member of New York Stock Exchange in 1905 and engaged in brokerage business as member of firm of Ervine & Company 1905-07 and later of Cameron, Hale & Company and Pendergast & Hale, but had retired from active business some time prior to his death; director of Great Northern Paper Company; served with American Red Cross (with rank of First Lieutenant) as "convoyer" of a canteen at the French front near Verdun for five months in 1917; enlisted as a Private in Medical Enlisted Reserve Corps at Washington May 3, 1918; on duty at Camp Devens, Mass., with 12th Company, 3d Training Battalion, 151st Depot Brigade, until given his discharge August 2, 1918; member Union Society of the Civil War.

Married (1) November 15, 1906, in New York City, Eunice, daughter of Rev. Roderick Terry (B.A. 1870; D.D. Princeton 1882) and Linda (Marquand) Terry, and sister of Roderick Terry, '98. No children. Mrs. Hale died December 28, 1919. Married (2) August 18, 1931, in Jersey City, N. J., Grace, daughter of Michael Edward Devlin (B.A. Manhattan College 1875, M.A. 1884) and Helen (Braithwaite) Devlin.

Ernest Howe, B.A. 1898.

Born September 28, 1875, in New York City.
Died December 18, 1932, in Litchfield, Conn.

Father, Walter Howe (B.S. College of the City of New York 1868; LL.B. Columbia 1870), a lawyer in New York; member New York Assembly; son of Augustus and Ann Elizabeth (Massie) Howe, of Elizabeth, N.J.; mother, Mary Bruce (Robins) Howe; daughter of George Washington and Margaret (Bruce) Robins, of New York. Yale relatives include: Arnold Hague, '63 S. (stepfather); and Bruce Howe, '35 (nephew).

J. H. Morse School, New York. Divided second McLaughlin prize in English Freshman year; first dispute appointment Junior year; dissertation appointment and two-year honors in natural sciences Senior year, member Delta Kappa Epsilon and Sigma Xi.

Graduate student in geology at Harvard 1898-1901 (M.A. 1899, Ph.D. 1901); field assistant with United States Geological Survey in Colorado during summers of 1898-1900 and assistant geologist 1900-1910, geologist of first Isthmian Canal Commission 1906-07; engaged as a consulting geologist 1910-1926 (consulting geologist and director, North Star Mine of the Mother Lode in California 1919-1930) and acted in an advisory capacity in mining operations at Grass Valley and Nevada City, Calif.; Butte, Mont.; and at Cobalt and Sudbury, Ontario, spent winter of 1903 in West Indies on a geological study of volcanoes of the Lesser Antilles; member of Hamilton Rice's expedition under the auspices of the Royal Geographic Society of London to headwaters of Rio Negro, Orinoco, and Amazon rivers in 1916; in 1920 engaged in work for the Mexican Government at Mexico City on the reorganization of Mexican Geological Survey; since 1926 had been editor of American Journal of Science, with rank of professor at Yale; resided in Newport, R.I., 1908-1918 and served as member of the Representative Council 1912-13 and of Board of Trade 1912-17; since 1918 had lived in Litchfield, where owner of a farm; represented Litchfield in Connecticut General Assembly 1921-22; delegate to Connecticut State Republican Convention 1922; member of State Senate 1925-26; president of First National Bank of Litchfield since 1931; vice-president of Litchfield County Cooperative Association 1930-32; director of Litchfield County Farm Bureau since 1921; served as Aeronautical Mechanical Engineer in the Air Service (Production Department) June 5, 1918-June 1, 1919, acting as chief of Laboratory Section of Inspection Department; director of PhotoReflex Corporation in 1932 and of Connecticut division of Association against the Prohibition Amendment 1929-1932; a governor of Yale Publishing Asso-
Tale College

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in East Cemetery, Litchfield. Survived by wife, son, daughter, and a brother, Walter Bruce Howe (B.A. 1901; LL.B. Harvard 1904).

Mason Tyler Adams, B.A. 1899.

Born May 18, 1877, in New York City.
Died May 1, 1933, in Waterbury, Conn.

Phillips-Andover. Member Yale Daily News board, Senior Promenade and Class Day committees, Eta Phi, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones.

E.M. Columbia 1901; engaged in mining 1901–1913; engineer for San Carlos Copper Company at San Jose, Tamaulipas, Mexico, 1901–03 and for Buck Run Coal Company at Minersville, Pa., 1903–04; manager of Canadian Coal & Manganese Company at Coal Ranch, New Brunswick, Canada, 1904–06; superintendent of Buck Run Coal Company in 1906; engineer for Moore & Schley, New York bankers, at Britannia Beach, British Columbia, as manager of Britannia Mining & Smelting Company, 1907–09; consulting mining engineer at Denver, Colo., 1909–1910 and in New York City 1910–13; had since been vice-president of Seth Thomas Clock Company of Thomaston, Conn.; director of Thomaston National Bank and of General Time Industrial Corporation; contributed to Columbia School of Mines Quarterly; president of Thomaston Business Men's Richard Earp Forrest, B.A. 1899.

Born July 15, 1877, in Bagni di Lucca, Italy.

Died October 1, 1936, in Rye, N. Y.

St. Paul’s School, Concord, N. H. Second dispute appointment Junior and Senior years, an editor of Yale Daily News; chairman of Senior Class Supper Committee; member Senior Promenade Committee, Eta Phi, Psi Upsilon, and Wolf’s Head.

Took a trip around the world 1899-1900; studied medicine at University of Pennsylvania 1900-02, engaged in banking with William Salomon & Company for several years; member of New York Stock Exchange firm of Barbour & Company 1906-08; a founder of American Philippine Company in 1913 and vice-president 1913-18; vice-president of its subsidiaries, Visayan Refining Company and Bukidnon Company; president of United West Indies Corporation, with offices in New York City, 1918-1921; engaged independently in investment business in New York 1921-25; president of St. Michel Corporation of Haiti (cotton growers); financial agent for Nicholas F. Brady, ’99, and James C. Brady, ’04, 1926-1930; had since been a partner in New York Stock Exchange firm of W. R. K. Taylor & Company; Private, 1st Troop, Philadelphia City Cavalry, 1901-02 and saw active service in Pennsylvania coal fields; volunteer aid, 3d U. S. Infantry, with active service in the Philippines, in 1899; during World War served as a director on executive committee of Duryea War Relief to France; secretary of Philippine Society and co-editor of the Philippine Monthly 1915-16;

Death due to chronic myocarditis and endocarditis. Buried in Kensico Cemetery, Mount Pleasant, N. Y. Survived by wife and a brother, Herbert M. Forrest, of New York City.

John Armstrong Wade, B.A. 1899.

Born October 10, 1868, in Manor-Hamilton, Ireland.
Died February 15, 1933, in New York City.

Father, James Wade; head constable of Royal Irish Constabulary of Manor-Hamilton, Ireland Mother, Anne (Armstrong) Wade.

Peddie Institute, Pennington, N. J. Attended Wesleyan (Conn.) 1894–97 as member of Class of 1898 (member Beta Theta Pi). Entered Yale as a Senior; oration appointment.

Studied in Yale Divinity School 1899–1901 (B.D. 1901) and in Yale Graduate School 1901–03 (M.A. 1903); ordained as deacon in Protestant Episcopal Church December 20, 1903, and priest June 18, 1905; member of staff of New York Episcopal City Mission Society 1903–08 and acted as chaplain of Tombs Prison; curate of Church of All Angels, New York, 1908–1912; had since been rector of St. John's Church (formerly Church of St. John the Evangelist); Protestant chaplain of Police Department 1906–1912 and again since 1916; a founder of National Church League and vice-president of its successor, Protestant Episcopal Church League; vice-president and director of Industrial Christian Alliance; vice-president and member of executive committee of Protestant Episcopal Society for the Promotion of Evangelical Knowledge; director of Legal Aid Society; former president of Society for Instruction in First Aid; attended Plattsburg Camp in 1915 and 1916 as a regimental chaplain in the Roosevelt Division; member executive committee of U. S. Junior Naval Reserve, Legion of Honor, and Churchman's Association.

Unmarried.

Death due to heart disease. Cremation took place and ashes were buried at Manor-Hamilton, Irish Free State. Survived by a sister and a brother, Albert E. Wade, of Sligo, Irish Free State. By the terms of his will a bequest was made to Yale University, for the use of the Divinity School.

Born March 10, 1877, at Lake Forest, Ill.
Died May 9, 1933, at Lake Forest, Ill.

Lake Forest Academy. First dispute appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year; member Zeta Psi.

Had been connected with firm of Sprague, Warner & Company since graduation, secretary of the company 1902–1919, vice-president 1911–15, chairman of the board 1915–18, president 1918–1921, president and treasurer since 1921, and director since 1902; director Northern Trust Company of Chicago since 1914, Chicago Association of Commerce 1926–29 (chairman division of food products 1907; member and means committee 1907–08, and transportation committee since 1924), Illinois Children's Home & Aid Society 1904–1919, Hospital Association of Lake Forest since 1918 (secretary for some years); and Employers' Association 1919–1927 (on advisory council 1927–1933); trustee of Chicago Bureau of Public Efficiency 1924–1932, Chicago Y.M.C.A. since 1925, Chicago Zoological Society since 1921 (chairman of membership committee 1922 and of finance committee since 1926, life governing member since 1928, and vice-president since 1931), and Orchestral Association of Chicago since 1928 (first vice-president and member executive committee since 1930); had been treasurer and vice-president of the Commercial Club and secretary of Sunday Evening Club, during the war served as trustee of U. S. Naval Reserve Force Auxiliary Training School at Chicago, member Yale Alumni Board 1922–25 and of council of Yale-in-China 1926–1930; member First Presbyterian Church, Lake Forest.

Married November 26, 1902, at Lake Forest, Marion Aline, daughter of Frank Gurley and Eliza (Palm) Hall. Children: Marion, the wife of Thomas C. Dennehy, Jr., ex-'23 S.; Jane, the wife of Edison Dick, '22; and Ezra Joseph, Jr., ex-'32.

Death due to coronary thrombosis and myocarditis. Buried in Lake Forest Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughters, son, a brother, Harold R. Warner, of Santa Barbara, Calif., and two sisters, Mrs. Alexander A. McCormick, of Chicago, and Mrs. John L. Mothershead, of Pasadena, Calif.
Roscoe Chase Baker, B.A. 1900.

Born July 25, 1877, in Billerica, Mass.
Died June 27, 1933, in Billerica, Mass.

Father, Ebenezer Baker, a merchant in Billerica; born in England and came to this country in 1837; son of John and Sarah (Bogue) Baker, of Bainton, Yorkshire. Mother, Ann Elizabeth (Boynton) Baker; daughter of Michael and Hannah (Ruther) Boynton, of Leeds, England.

Boston Latin School. Second dispute appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year.

Studied in Harvard Medical School 1900–01 and again 1908–09; spent the years 1901–04 in Colorado on account of ill health; attended Denver and Gross Medical College 1904–07 (M.D. 1907); never practiced medicine, but conducted a private laboratory in Denver for diagnostic microscopical work 1909–1928; assistant bacteriologist of Denver Board of Health 1909–1912 and bacteriologist 1924–28; had since lived in Billerica and devoted much time to the study of birds and ferns and astronomy; collector of Indian relics; philatelist; member American Medical Association, Denver Medical Club, and Billerica Congregational Church.

Unmarried.

Death due to gastric ulcers and peritonitis. Buried in Fox Hill Cemetery, Billerica. Survived by three brothers, John H. and William G. Baker, of Billerica, and Frederick H. Baker, ex-91 (M.D. Harvard 1893), and two sisters, Mrs. Arthur S. Cook and Mrs. Herbert A. King, both of Billerica.

Frederick Arthur Blount, B.A. 1900.

Born June 12, 1879, in Magog, Quebec, Canada.
Died October 19, 1932, in Overbrook, Pa.

Father, Francis Orpheus Blount; cashier for the Boston & Maine Railroad at Newport, Vt.; son of Francis Orpheus and Catherine (Rodgers) Blount, of Stukely, Quebec. Mother, Mary Ann (Boylen) Blount; daughter of Dennis and Amanda (Call) Boylen, of Magog.

Newport (Vt.) High School and St. Johnsbury Academy. First colloquy appointment Junior and Senior years; on University Track Team three years; member Yale–Harvard Track Team, which competed at London against Oxford–Cambridge Track Team in 1899; member Beta Theta Pi.

Taught at Mercersburg Academy 1900–01; private tutor in New York City 1901–02; studied at New York Law School 1901–03 and served as clerk in law office of Luce & Davis (Robert L. Luce, ’89, and Seward Davis, '91) 1901-02; admitted to New York Bar 1904; managing clerk in office of Luce & Davis 1902-06 and in office of George H. Benjamin, solicitor of patents, New York, 1906-07; admitted to Pennsylvania Bar in 1907 and had since practiced law in Philadelphia; admitted to practice before Federal courts 1911 and United States Supreme Court 1913; first assistant in office of Horace Pettit 1907-1914; member of firm of Fenton & Blount 1914-18, Blount & Moulton 1918-1920, Blount, Moulton & Helbert 1920-23, and Blount & Helbert since 1923 (all patent lawyers); during the war served as member of Legal Advisory Board and Overbrook Home Guard; vice-president of Philadelphia Patent Law Association 1923; director of Overbrook Club since 1924 and president 1926-29; director of Overbrook Golf Club 1921-28; member American Bar Association, Law Association of Philadelphia, and Overbrook Presbyterian Church (vice-president of its Men's Association 1923-24).

Married October 21, 1911, in Philadelphia, Sara Keiser, daughter of Samuel McKee Smith (M.D. College of Physicians and Surgeons, Baltimore, Md., 1880) and Cora Catherine (Keiser) Smith, of Carlisle, Pa. One daughter, Sara Frances.

Death due to endocarditis. Buried in Westminster Cemetery, Philadelphia. Survived by wife, daughter, and two sisters, Mrs. Helen Blount Hume and Mrs. Joseph M. Vose, both of Philadelphia.

Dwight Chandler Drew, B.A. 1900.

Born April 16, 1878, in Preston, Minn.
Died July 22, 1932, in Boulder, Colo.

Father, Rev. Stephen Folsom Drew (B.A. Dartmouth 1848; Lane Theological Seminary 1855), a Congregational minister in Minnesota, New York, and Vermont; son of William Cate and Sarah (Folsom) Drew, of Tunbridge, Vt. Mother, Josephine Electa (Chandler) Drew (Mount Holyoke ex-'69); daughter of Daniel and Electa Matilda (Strong) Chandler, of Berlin, Vt.

St. Johnsbury (Vt.) Academy. Second dispute appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; active member Yale Y.M.C.A.

Student secretary of Boston Y.M.C.A. 1900-02; salesman for Brown, Durrell & Company, Boston, 1902-04; engaged in Y.M.C.A. work again from 1904 until his retirement in 1932 on account of ill health, general secretary at Amesbury, Mass., 1904-06; secretary of Norfolk County (Mass.) 1906-08; traveling secretary for Massachusetts and Rhode Island executive committee of Y.M.C.A., with headquarters in Boston, 1908-1919 (acting state secretary of the two states 1917-19); secretary of town and country department of National Council of Y.M.C.A. in New England and Middle Atlantic States 1919-1926; state secretary of Iowa associations, with headquarters in Des Moines, 1926-1932; author: The Y.M.C.A. in Town and Country (1920), Group Leadership (1923), Christian Character Building with Boys and Young Men (1924), and How Men May Serve Their Community (1930); contributed to Association Men and Two States; member Dutch Reformed Church of Hastings-on-Hudson, N. Y.

Married July 25, 1905, in St. Johnsbury, Ethel Rosetta Pierce, Mount Holyoke ex-'01, daughter of Freeman Alonzo and Olive Eliza (Ranney) Pierce. Children: Marjorie Josephine (B.R.E Hartford School of Religious Education 1931); and Freeman Pierce, Iowa State College 1936.

Death due to chronic interstitial nephritis. Buried in St. Johnsbury Center Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughter, son, a brother, Rev. Edward P. Drew (B.A. 1891, M.A. 1895; B.D. Chicago Theological Seminary 1897; D.D. Fargo 1906), and a sister, Miss Mary Drew (Wellesley 1887-89), of Jamaica Plain, Mass.

William Frederick Hamilton, B.A. 1901.

Born February 17, 1877, in New Haven, Conn.

Died November 7, 1932, in Middletown, Conn.

Father, John H. Hamilton, proprietor of retail grocery store; served in Civil War with a Massachusetts artillery battalion; son of Thomas and Mary (Shannon) Hamilton, of County Clare, Ireland. Mother, Lorena Jennette (Brockett) Hamilton; daughter of Dwight Thomas Brockett, of New Haven.

Hillhouse High School. Dissertation appointment Junior year; oration appointment and one-year honors in philosophy Senior year.

Graduate student in philosophy at Yale 1901-02 (M.A. 1902); subsequently engaged in business as an advertising solicitor for a number of years; had been advertising manager of New Haven Times-Leader and of New Haven Union Company; member Howard Avenue Congregational Church, New Haven.

Married (1) February 26, 1903, in New Haven, Mabel Irene, daughter of Charles Raymond and Florence (Parmalee) Densmore. One son, William Frederick, Jr. (B.A. 1928, LL.B. 1930) Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton were divorced about 1908. Married (2) June 18, 1913, in New Haven, Florence Louisa, daughter of Charles Gustav and Christina Charlotte (Schuessler) Miller. One daughter, Jeanette Florence.

Death due to general paralysis. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, son, and daughter.
Yale Obituary Record

Robinson Barnes McFadon, B.A. 1901.

Born February 1, 1879, in Chicago, Ill.
Died September 14, 1932, in Omaha, Nebr.

Father, Andrew Alonzo McFadon; president of Citizens State Bank of Chadron, Nebr.; director of Chadron Academy; served with Ohio regiment in Union Army during Civil War. Mother, Maria Ellen (Robinson) McFadon (Ohio Wesleyan); daughter of James S. and Rachel (Ferguson) Robinson, of West Mansfield, Ohio.

Chadron and Williston academies. First dispute appointment Junior year; dissertation appointment Senior year.

Engaged in grain business in Chadron 1901-03; superintendent of Chadron Electric Light & Power Company 1903-04; deputy assessor in Chadron April-June, 1905, and deputy collector of internal revenue 1905-1911; engaged in automobile business in Chadron 1911-14; lived in San Diego, Calif., on account of his mother's illness, 1914-17; had since lived in Omaha; bookkeeper with Peters Trust Company 1918-1920 and manager of its city loan department 1920-24; manager of city real estate loan department of United States Trust Company and its successor, the United States National Company, 1924-1932; member First Congregational Church, Chadron.

Unmarried.

Death due to coronary thrombosis. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Chadron. Survived by no immediate relatives.

Robert William Parsons, B.A. 1901.

Born June 20, 1877, in Kennebunk, Maine.
Died January 15, 1933, in Summerville, S. C.

Father, Charles Parsons; president of Midlands Railroad of New Jersey and New York & New England, South Carolina & Georgia, and Rome, Watertown & Ogdensburg Railroad companies; son of William and Mary (Parsons) Parsons, of Alfred, Maine. Mother, Sarah Johnson (Shepley) Parsons; daughter of Rev. David Shepley (B.A. Bowdoin 1825, D.D. 1868) and Myra (Nott) Shepley, of Saybrook, Conn. Yale relatives include: Richard T. Nott (B.A. 1818) and Rev. Handel G. Nott (B.A. 1823) (great-uncles); Charles Parsons, '78, and Edwin Parsons, '88 (brothers); Charles Parsons, '12, and H. Humphrey Parsons, '13 (nephews); and W. Usher Parsons, '95 S. (first cousin).

Phillips-Andover. Member Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Associated with his father in business from 1901 until retirement in 1915; vice-president of Rome, Watertown & Ogdensburg Railroad 1904–1912; subsequently spent the winters in Summerville and the summers in Maine; member Brick Presbyterian Church, New York City.

Married January 26, 1904, in Pawtucket, R. I., Alice Parsons, daughter of Daniel Ferdinand and Anna (Parsons) Read. Children: Helen Read, the wife of F. Arnold Merrill (B.A. Williams 1913); Anne Shepley, the wife of George V. Cutler, Harvard ex-'24; and twin sons, William, '31, now student in Yale School of Law, and Robert, '32.

Death due to acute cardiac dilatation following a cerebral hemorrhage three months earlier. Buried in Hope Cemetery, Kennebunk. Survived by wife, four children, a grandson, a brother, George C. Parsons, of Kennebunk, and two sisters, Mrs. Jefferson Hogan and Miss Llewellyn Parsons, both of New York City.

George Luther White, Jr., B.A. 1901.

Born July 14, 1878, in Waterbury, Conn.
Died September 10, 1932, in Waterbury, Conn.

Father, George Luther White; president and treasurer of White & Wells Company, manufacturers of paper boxes, and of L. C. White Company, button manufacturers, of Waterbury; son of Luther Chapin and Jane Amelia (Moses) White, of Waterbury. Mother, Julia Phelps (Haring) White; daughter of James Demarest and Caroline E. (Phelps) Haring, of New York City. Yale relatives include a nephew, Haring W. Griggs, '27.

Phillips-Andover.

Studied at Harvard Law School 1901–02; in 1903 became connected with the L. C. White Company, of which he was secretary until 1914 and president and treasurer from 1914 until his death; a governor of Waterbury Country Club 1921–24 and president 1921–23 (chairman of house committee and member of greens committee).

Married August 7, 1907, in New York City, Carolyn Augusta, daughter of Francis and Adelaide Thompson (Lounsbury) Armstrong. No children.

Death due to coronary thrombosis and adhesive pericarditis. Buried in Riverside Cemetery, Waterbury. Survived by wife, a brother, William H. White, '00 S., and a sister, Caroline W. Griggs, the widow of Robert F. Griggs, ex-'89.
Simon Snyder Wyand, B.A. 1901.
Born November 20, 1871, at Eakles Mills, Md.
Died June 16, 1933, in Duluth, Minn.

Father, Daniel Webster Wyand, Otterbein University ex-'67; farmer and teacher at Eakles Mills and Boonsboro, Md.; son of Simon and Rebecca (Geeting) Wyand, of Eakles Mills. Mother, Mary Etta (Snyder) Wyand; daughter of Ezra J. and Sarah (Staubs) Snyder, of Eakles Mills.

Western College Academy. B.A. Western College (later Leander Clark College) 1900, M.A. 1903. Entered Yale as a Senior; oration appointment.

Ordained to ministry of United Brethren Church in 1902; pastor in Goodell, Iowa, 1901-02; member of faculty of National Memorial University, Mason City, Iowa, 1902-07, as professor of Latin 1902-04, dean 1904-06, and acting president 1906-07; transferred to ministry of Methodist Episcopal Church in 1907; pastor at Albion, Iowa, 1907-09; Fargo, N. Dak., 1909-1911, Reynolds, N. Dak, 1911-13, and Drayton, N Dak, 1913-14, endowment secretary of Wesley College, Grand Forks, N. Dak., 1914-1921, pastor of Methodist Church at Sauk Center, Minn., 1921-26, at Eveleth, Minn., 1926-28, and of Lester Park Methodist Episcopal Church, Duluth, since 1928.

Married March 1, 1898, in Goodell, Frances, daughter of Curtis Samuel and Emily (Devereux) Farman. No children.

Charles Gould, B.A. 1902.
Born April 16, 1881, in Albany, N. Y.
Died May 5, 1933, in Syracuse, N. Y.

Father, Charles Gould, member of firm of William Gould's Sons, publishers of law books, in Albany, son of William and Sarah Margaret (Harkness) Gould, of Albany. Mother, Janet (Gray) Gould, daughter of Daniel Alexander and Catherine (Meyers) Gray, of New York City. Yale relatives: Anthony Gould, ex-'77 (uncle); Edmund L. Decker, Jr., '29 (nephew), and Neil Gray, '90 S. (first cousin)

Albany Academy Second colloquy appointment Junior year, member Freshman Football Team and University Football Team three years (captain Senior year); assistant manager of Track Team
1900–01 and manager 1901–02; manager and president of Athletic Association; on Freshman and Apollo Glee clubs; chairman of Class Day Committee; member Yale Field Corporation and Alpha Delta Phi.

Married January 31, 1906, in New York City, Mary, daughter of John and Elisabeth (Harrington) Williams, of Philadelphia. No children.

Charles Roberts Aldrich, B.A. 1903.

Born March 5, 1877, at Fort Wayne, Ind.
Died March 31, 1933, in Carmel, Calif.

Father, Charles Henry Aldrich (B.A. University of Michigan 1875, M.A. 1893); member of law firms of Aldrich & McRoberts and Aldrich & Aldrich of Chicago; solicitor general of the United States; son of Hamilton Metcalf and Harriet (Sherwood) Aldrich, of Lagrange County, Ind. Mother, Helen Urania (Roberts) Aldrich, Hillsdale College 1872-73; daughter of Daniel Hibbard and Clarissa (Twitchell) Roberts, of Orland, Ind.

Philips-Andover. Entered Yale with Class of 1902, but left at end of Freshman year; joined Class of 1903 as a Sophomore in 1900; second colloquy appointment Senior year; two-year honors in English; secretary, treasurer, vice-president, and president of Le Cercle Français; member '02 Favonian Crew, Pundits, and Psi Upsilon.

Began study of law at Northwestern University in 1903, but obliged to give it up on account of ill health; spent three years in the West and Texas, resumed law studies at George Washington University Law School 1906-09; practiced law in Chicago 1909-1916, at first with firm of Aldrich & McRoberts and from 1910 as member of firm of Aldrich & Aldrich; counsel for Hallgarten & Company, brokers, in New York City 1916-18; on legal staff of Emergency Fleet Corporation May-October, 1919; then went to Constantinople as lawyer for an importing firm; subsequently in employ of United States Department of Justice in that city, in connection with prosecution of persons who had defrauded the American Relief Association in the Near East; studied in Zurich with Carl Jung 1922-28; since 1928 had been engaged in literary pursuits and, to some extent, in the practice of law in Carmel; author: Savages and Ourselves (1929) and The Primitive Mind and Modern Civilization (1931); co-editor, with his classmate, Lucian S. Kirtland, of Thomas Deloney: his Thomas of Reading and Three Ballads on the Spanish Armada (1903); contributed to Carmel and Monterey papers.

Married September 14, 1925, in Zurich, Filomena Baronin von Werdt, daughter of Benedict and Filomena (Hoover) Bilgeri.

Death due to coronary thrombosis Cremation took place at Santa Cruz, Calif. Survived by wife and a sister, Helen A. Hare, Smith ex-'10, wife of Thad D. Hare (Ohio State University 1906-07), of Winnetka, Ill.

Ralph Bristol, B.A. 1903.

Born August 23, 1881, in Ansonia, Conn.
Died July 15, 1932, in Verona, N. J.

Father, Charles Edward Bristol, a druggist in Ansonia; postmaster and vice-president of Ansonia National Bank; son of Charles and Harriet (Bradley) Bristol, of Derby, Conn. Mother, Frances Ellen (Bartholomew) Bristol; daughter of Jeremiah Hotchkiss and Polly Hemingway (Root) Bartholomew, of Ansonia. Yale relatives include two first cousins: Jeremiah H. Bartholomew, '00 S., and Arthur H. Bartholomew, Jr., ex-'06 S.

Taft School and Holbrook's Military Academy, Ossining, N. Y. Member Cap and Gown Committee, Psi Upsilon, and Wolf's Head.

Married October 20, 1906, in Naugatuck, Conn., Elsie Webster, daughter of George Milton and Josephine (Webster) Allerton. Children: Milton Allerton; John Webster, Williams 1935; and Elizabeth Webster.

Death due to cirrhosis of the liver. Buried in Riverside Cemetery, Waterbury. Survived by wife, two sons, daughter, and a brother, Theodore L. Bristol, '93. Another brother, Charles E. Bristol, ex-'96, died in 1917.

Clive Livingston DuVal, B.A. 1903.

Born May 2, 1879, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died July 1, 1932, in New York City.

Berkeley School, New York City, and Brooklyn Latin School. First colloquy appointment Junior and Senior years; member and manager of Track Team; president of University Athletic Association, member Junior Promenade Committee, Kappa Psi, Psi Upsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Took a trip around the world after graduation and spent a few months inspecting mining properties in Arizona; salesman for George D. Harris & Company, wholesale coal dealers, New York, 1904-06; partner in firms of DuVal, Greer & Company and H. C. DuVal & Company 1906-1930 (president of latter company from 1921); special partner in firm of Morrison & Townsend, brokers, New York, 1930-February, 1932; member Sons of the American Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, Colonial Lords of the Manor, and Huguenot Society of New York.

Married November 18, 1909, in New York City, Augusta Harper, daughter of Rollin Harper Lynde (B.A. Princeton 1877; LL.B. Columbia 1880) and Elizabeth Butler (Blaney) Lynde. Children: Clive Livingston, Jr., 1935; Augusta Harper Lynde (Mrs. Alfred Jenkins Yardley); and Philip Livingston Rollin.

Death due to hemorrhages of duodenal ulcer. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by wife, daughter, two sons, and mother.

Almer Mayo Newhall, B.A. 1903.

Born May 14, 1881, in San Francisco, Calif.
Died January 15, 1933, in Berkeley, Calif.

Father, Edwin White Newhall; member of firm of H. M. Newhall & Company, commission merchants (imports, exports, and insurance), of San Francisco; son of Henry Mayo and Sarah Ann (White) Newhall, of San Francisco. Mother, Fanny Silliman (Hall) Newhall; daughter of Almer Ives and Mary Amelia (Hall) Hall, of Wallingford, Conn. Yale relatives. Harry G. Newhall, ex-'74 S., and W. Mayo Newhall, '76 S. (uncles), and W. Mayo Newhall, Jr., '14 S., George A. Newhall, Jr., '26, and Walter S. Newhall, '30 (first cousins).

Mount Tamalpais Military Academy. Second colloquy appointment Senior year, member Vernon Hall and Phi Gamma Delta.

Had been associated with firm of H. M. Newhall & Company since graduation, cashier 1903-05, manager of marine insurance department 1905, secretary 1905-06, in charge of foreign department 1906-09, partner in the firm since 1909 and its head since 1929; vice-president of San Francisco Chamber of Commerce in 1928 and president 1929-1930, director of Bank of California, San Francisco, in 1930 and of Bank of San Rafael at time of death, former director of Bohemian Club; trustee of Occidental College since 1922 and of Tamalpais School for Boys, San Rafael, since 1925; trustee also of San Francisco Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church and of Branson School for Girls, Ross, Calif.; former president of California
Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Children; chairman for Marin County (Calif.) in second War Fund campaign of American Red Cross and of Y.M.C.A. personnel committee 1918; member First Presbyterian Church, San Rafael.

Married April 28, 1910, in San Francisco, Anna Nicholson, daughter of William Anderson and Eva Anna (Mearns) Scott. Children:
Almer Mayo, Jr. (Marin Union Junior College 1930–32); Scott, University of California Class of 1936; and Hall Mearns.

Death due to edema. Cremation took place at Oakland, Calif., and ashes were buried in Cypress Lawn Cemetery, San Mateo County.
Survived by wife, three sons, a sister, Mrs. Frederick N. Woods, Jr., and a brother, Edwin W. Newhall, Jr., both of San Francisco.

John Dougan Rea, B.A. 1903.

Born September 20, 1880, in Minneapolis, Minn.
Died March 6, 1933, in Oxford, Ohio.

Father, Robert Morgan Rea (M.D. Columbia 1868); physician in Minneapolis; druggist in Oxford; son of Dr. William Rea and Mary (Valentine) Rea, of Hackettstown, N. J. Mother, Cora Georgia
(Anderson) Rea; daughter of George and Harriet (Rees) Anderson, of Venice, Ohio.

Richmond (Ind.) High School; attended University of Pennsylvania 1899–1900; B.A. Earlham College 1902. Entered Yale as a Senior; philosophical oration appointment.

Private tutor in Farmington, Conn., 1903–05; graduate student in the classics at Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., 1903–04 and at Yale 1904–05 (M.A. 1905); taught Latin and history at Winchester (Ind.) High School 1905–06; instructor in Latin at Yale 1906–08; acting assistant professor of Latin at University of Cincinnati 1908– 09; professor of English at Earlham College 1909–1919; associate professor of English at Indiana University 1919–1920 and professor and head of English Department 1920–23; had since been head of English Department at Miami University, studied at Institut Tilby, Berlin, 1911, at Harvard Summer School 1913, and in Yale Graduate School, as Foote scholar, 1914–15 (Ph.D. 1918); editor of Earlham
Verse (1914) and of Ben Jonson’s Volpone (1919); contributed to Modern Philology, Hispania, Philological Quarterly, Studies in Philology, The English Journal, and The Shakespeare Association
Bulletin; member Modern Language Association of America, Modern Humanities Research Association, Authors’ Club of London, and Memorial Presbyterian Church, Oxford.
Married June 16, 1920, in Richmond, Ind., Margaret Gentle (Earlham College 1914–16), daughter of Luke Melville Gentle (M.D. Medical College of Indiana 1890) and Evangeline (St. Clair) Gentle. Children: Robert St. Clair (died in 1926); and John Alexander.

Death due to arteriosclerosis and chronic valvular disease of the heart. Buried in Oxford Cemetery. Survived by wife and one son.

Frank Callahan, B.A. 1904.

Born November 28, 1880, in East Hartford, Conn.
Died February 5, 1933, in Huntington, N. Y.

Father, Jeremiah O'Callaghan; in real estate business; son of Patrick and Ellen (Hayes) O'Callaghan, of Brooklyn, N. Y. Mother, Sarah Josephine (Whalen) O'Callaghan; daughter of John and Bridget (Wallace) Whalen, of Queens County, Ireland.

Hartford Public High School.

LL.B. Columbia 1907; clerk with Cravath, Henderson & DeGersdorff, lawyers, in New York City 1907–09; associated with firm of Rushmore, Bisbee & Stern (Henry Root Stern, '03) in New York at first as member of the staff and then as member of the firm 1909–1925; in 1925 became vice-president of Chase Securities Corporation and served as such until July, 1931; had since been executive vice-president; in December, 1932, elected member of committee to protect interests of bondholders of the Kingdom of Yugoslavia; director of General Mortgage & Credits Corporation since 1928, American Sumatra Tobacco Corporation 1930–33, National Distillers Products Corporation 1928–1933, Consolidated Textile Corporation 1929–1933, Chase Harris Forbes Corporation and Henry H. Shufeldt & Company (importers and manufacturers of fancy food products) 1928–1933, Public Utility Associates, Inc., 1930–33, Public Utility Holding Corporation 1932–33, Petroleum Chemical Corporation 1928–1933, and Tide Water Associated Oil Company 1932–33; member American Bar Association, Bar Association of the City of New York, New York County Lawyers' Association, and St. Vincent Ferrer's Roman Catholic Church, New York City.

Married October 4, 1910, in Waterbury, Conn., Margaret Madolin, daughter of Charles and Joanna (O'Reilly) O'Connor, and sister of Charles S. O'Connor, '09 L. Children: John Francis, ex-1935; Charles Jeremiah; and Margaret. Mrs. Callahan died February 4, 1925.

John Caspar Kittle, B.A. 1904.

Born October 8, 1882, in San Francisco, Calif.
Died March 17, 1933, in San Francisco, Calif.

Father, Jonathan Gosman Kittle; head of Kittle & Company, commission merchants; part owner of Pacific Oil & Lead Works; a founder of California Powder Works; son of Rev. Andrew Nicholas Kittle and Eliza (Gosman) Kittle, of Red Hook, N. J. Mother, Harriette deWitt (Gosman) Kittle; daughter of Lucius Hamilton Allen (United States Military Academy 1839) and Sarah (deWitt) Allen, of San Francisco. Yale relatives include: John deW. Allen, ’76 (uncle); Allen I. Kittle, ’00 (brother); and Wyatt H. Allen, ’96 S. (first cousin).

The Hotchkiss School. Member Psi Upsilon and Skull and Bones.

With Hind, Rolph & Company, shipping and commission firm, in San Francisco 1904-06; secretary of Kittle Construction Company (of which a founder) 1906-1913; in charge of oriental department of American Trading Company of San Francisco 1913-17; attended first Officers' Training Camp at The Presidio of San Francisco; commissioned as Second Lieutenant, Quartermaster Corps, August 15, 1917; promoted to First Lieutenant in April, 1918, and to Captain in February, 1919; stationed at Camp Lewis as Assistant Division Quartermaster, 91st Division, with which he served overseas July 5, 1918-April 21, 1919, in the Argonne and Belgium; received his discharge May 1, 1919; manager of oriental department of Mailliard & Schniedell, manufacturers' agents, in San Francisco 1919-1924 and secretary and director of the company from 1924 until retirement in 1926; had since devoted his time to painting; president of Yale Alumni Association of Northern California 1923-24; artist member San Francisco Art Association 1930-33; affiliated with St. John's Episcopal Churchy Ross, Calif.

Married May 8, 1924, in New York City, Marjorie Ellinwood Woolsey (B.A. Vassar 1916), daughter of George Woolsey (B.A. 1881; M.D. Columbia 1885) and Jean Paul (Ellinwood) Woolsey, and granddaughter of President Theodore Dwight Woolsey (B.A. 1820). Children: Jonathan Gosman, George Woolsey, and Andrew Caspar.

Death due to thrombosis of the arteries. Buried in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael, Calif. Survived by wife, three sons, and two sisters, Isabel K. Dibblee, the wife of Benjamin H. Dibblee (B.A. Harvard 1899), of Ross, and Mrs. Harry M. Sherman, of San Francisco.
Harrison Tweed Sheldon, B.A. 1905.
Born March 7, 1883, in New Haven, Conn.
Died May 1, 1933, in New Haven, Conn.

Hillhouse High School. Member 1905 Football Team Sophomore year, chairman Oak Street Boys' Club Freshman year; member executive committees of Dwight Hall and Freshman Union.

LL.B. 1908 (an editor of Yale Law Journal; member Phi Delta Phi and Corbey Court); also enrolled in School of the Fine Arts 1905-06; had practiced law in New Haven since 1908; clerk in office of Watrous & Day (George D. Watrous, '79, and Harry G. Day, '90 S.) 1908-1914; had since been member of the firm and its successors, Watrous, Day, Hewitt, Steele & Sheldon (1921-24) and Watrous, Hewitt, Sheldon & Gumbart (since 1924) (Harrison Hewitt, '97, William B. Gumbart, '15 L., Charles A. Watrous, '21 S., and Arthur L. Corbin, Jr., '23, also partners); director of First National Bank & Trust Company since 1924; secretary of Geometric Tool Company since 1923 and a director since 1924; secretary of Municipal Art Commission of New Haven since 1925 and director since 1921; president of Bethany Agricultural Association since 1922; enlisted as Private, Machine Gun Company, 2d Infantry, Connecticut State Guard, March 21, 1917, made Sergeant June 25, 1917, and Second Lieutenant October 25, 1918, associate member Legal Advisory Board 1918, member New Haven Chamber of Commerce since 1909; a governor of Yale Publishing Association 1925-1930; secretary of Class of 1905 from 1908 to 1915; editor of Volumes III and IV of Class records; life member New Haven Poultry Association; member American, Connecticut State, and New Haven Bar associations, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, New Haven Colony Historical Society, Little Theatre Guild, Paint and Clay Club, and Center Church (Congregational), New Haven.

Married August 19, 1915, in Amherst, Mass., Alice Cooper, daughter of John Gilman Stanton (B.A. Amherst 1870; M.D. University of Wurzburg 1873) and Elizabeth Savage (Cooper) Stanton, of New London, Conn. One daughter, Anne Dudley.

Death due to chronic mediastinitis. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife and daughter.
Clarence Edward Andrews, B.A. 1906.

Born November 25, 1883, in New York City.
Died December 12, 1932, in Columbus, Ohio.

Father, William Sturges Andrews, a confectionery manufacturer, son of Sturges and Elinor Louisa (Clark) Andrews, of Neversink, N. Y. Mother, Ida Augusta (Clark) Andrews; daughter of Moses Mark and Mehetabel (Earl) Clark, of Monroe, N. Y.

Norwalk (Conn.) University School. First division stand and honors Freshman year; first dispute appointment Junior year; dissertation appointment and honors Senior year; secretary and treasurer of Le Cercle Français Junior year and president Senior year; member Book and Bond.

Taught English and French at Cornwall Heights (N. Y.) School 1906-07; studied in Yale Graduate School 1907-09 (M.A. 1908) and also assistant in English 1907-08 and in rhetoric 1908-09; instructor in English at Amherst College 1909-1911 and assistant professor of English 1911-14; Ph.D. Yale 1912; assistant professor of English at Ohio State University 1915-1923 and professor of English since 1923; studied in Paris during leave of absence in 1922, commissioned First Lieutenant, Air Service, September 26, 1917; on staff of Chief Signal Officer at Washington, D. C., to August, 1918, and then overseas; stationed at the front at Tours; attached to Balkan Division of American Peace Commission, Paris, February-May, 1919; field officer with American Relief Administration in Macedonia April-August, 1919; awarded Médaille de Miséricorde of Serbia and Order of St. Sava; returned to the United States in September, 1919, and received his discharge October 8; author: Richard Brome, a Study of His Life and Works (1913), From the Front (1917), Writing and Reading of Verse (1918), Old Morocco and the Forbidden Atlas (1922), and The Innocents of Paris (1928); compiler and editor (with M. O. Percival) of Romantic Poetry (1924), Victorian Poetry (1924), and Poetry of the Nineties (1926); contributor to Saturday Review of Literature and Atlantic Monthly; member Modern Language Association, Elizabethan Club, and St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Norwalk, Conn.

Unmarried.

Death due to influenza and bronchopneumonia. Buried in Rural Cemetery, Grahamsville, N. Y. Survived by parents, a sister, B. Louise Andrews Phelps, the wife of Vincent Phelps (B.S. Cornell 1910), of Newburgh, N. Y., and a brother, Frederick S. Andrews (B.S. Columbia 1926, M.A. 1931), of Winter Park, Fla
George Andrew LaVie, B.A. 1906.

Born September 7, 1884, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died May 12, 1933, in Hoboken, N. J.

Father, George Andrew LaVie; hop broker and exporter; son of George Benjamin and Sophie (Samphere) LaVie, of Bordeaux and New York City. Mother, Mary Cornelia (Gilbert) LaVie; daughter of John Morrow and Mary (Galt) Gilbert, of Montreal.

Lawrenceville School. Member Freshman and Apollo Glee clubs, Dramatic Association, and Yale Corinthian Yacht Club.

Salesman for Western Electric Company in New York City 1906–07 and for George H. Thacher & Company, grate and furnace manufacturers, in Albany 1907–08; subsequently sales manager for some years for his father's firm, George A. LaVie, selling and distributing agent in New York for Standard Alcohol Company of Maine; represented the firm in France 1916–17 and its foreign representative in the London office in 1925; salesman for Gibbs Press, Inc., in New York since 1931; enlisted in Aviation Section of the Signal Corps as Private (1st Class) November 8, 1917; trained at Kelly Field, Texas, until February, 1918, and then at School of Aeronautics of Georgia School of Technology until April; commissioned as Second Lieutenant February 18, 1918; stationed at Camp Dick, Texas, April 19–November 3, 1918; then with 2d Training Brigade, Overseas Depot, Garden City, N. Y., until given discharge December 31, 1918; member All Saints Episcopal Church, Brooklyn.

Unmarried

Death due to injuries received in a fall. Buried in Green-Wood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by two brothers, Richard E. LaVie, ex-'18 S, and R. Morton LaVie, of Plainfield, N. J., and six sisters, Mrs. Theodore P. Seymour, of New York City, Cornelia L. Nason, the wife of Harold B. Nason (B.A. Princeton 1898), of Chestnut Hill, Pa., Helen L. Thacher, the wife of Thomas O. Thacher, Princeton ex-'05, of Greenwich, Conn., Mrs. VanCampen Heilner, of Haverford, Pa., and Marjorie L. Stewart, the wife of Warren T. Stewart, Princeton ex-'18, and Mrs. William L. Schultz, both of South Orange, N. J.

William Disney Nichols, B.A. 1906.

Born September 4, 1882, in Fayetteville, N. Y.
Died September 26, 1932, in San Diego, Calif.

Father, Thomas Disney Nichols, a painter; son of John and Ann (Burrows) Nichols, of Côteau Landing, Canada. Mother, Helen (Snyder) Nichols; daughter of Michael and Catharine (Zion) Snyder, of Alsace-Lorraine.
Yale College

Phillips-Andover. Member Beta Theta Pi.

Clerk in employ of New York & New Jersey Telephone Company in 1906; engaged in railroad construction in El Paso, Texas, and in mining and oil business in Putnam, Texas, and California; in wholesale coal business in El Paso, selling mainly to the United States Government, 1914-18; engaged in road construction in and near El Paso 1920-22; lived in Beaumont, Texas, 1922-23 and worked as a geologist in the West Indies in 1923; since 1926 had been located in San Diego; engaged in field work for Borderland Exploration Company in California 1929-1932; in 1931 bought large acreage in New Mexico and at time of death was engaged in drilling for carbon dioxide; member Trinity Episcopal Church, Fayetteville.

Married September 18, 1921, in Las Cruces, New Mexico, Emma Carroll Smythe Emerson, daughter of Herff Clarence and Mary Emma (Carroll) Smythe (Baylor University 1887-89), of Beaumont. One son, John Albert.

Death due to chronic myocarditis and arteriosclerosis. Cremation took place at Cypress View Crematory. Survived by wife, son, three stepchildren, William, Herff, and Margaret Emerson, three sisters, Mrs. Margaret Nichols Beadle and Mrs. Emma Nichols Snyder, both of East Syracuse, N. Y., and Mrs. Mabel Nichols Kahn, of Schuyerville, N. Y., and three brothers, Albert Nichols, of East Syracuse, Harry Nichols, of Fayetteville, and Matthew Nichols, of Syracuse.

Franklin Goldthwaite Sherrill, B.A. 1906.

Born July 17, 1883, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died March 18, 1933, in Boston, Mass.

Father, Henry Williams Sherrill; in real estate business in Brooklyn; son of Rev. Franklin Goldthwaite Sherrill (B.A. New York University 1846; graduate Union Theological Seminary 1850) and Mary Hooper (Williams) Sherrill. Mother, Maria Knox (Mills) Sherrill; daughter of Samuel and Mary Jane (Knox) Mills, of Lowville, N. Y.

Brooklyn Polytechnic Preparatory School. Member Class Baseball Team Sophomore year, Freshman and Apollo Glee clubs, and Zeta Psi.

With Title Guarantee & Trust Company of New York 1906-07; treasurer of Westwood Realty Company of Brooklyn 1907-1911; salesman for Cruikshank Company (real estate) of New York City 1911-17; agent for City Investing Company, New York, 1917-1922; treasurer and general manager of G. Benenson Investing Company, Inc., of New York 1922-23; vice-president of Chandler & Company, Inc. (dry goods), of Boston 1923-1930; partner in real estate firm of Amory Eliot Offices, Boston, since September, 1931; trustee of Unmarried.

Death due to bronchopneumonia. Buried in Richmond, Mass. Survived by a brother, the Rt. Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill (B.A. 1911; B.D. Episcopal Theological School 1914; D.D. 1929; LL.D. Boston University 1930)

Norman Frederic Thompson, B.A. 1906.

Born March 14, 1884, in Rockford, Ill. Died April 2, 1933, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Norman Frederick Thompson, ’81; son of Norman Cornelius Thompson, ex-’49, and Larentia J. (Blackmer) Thompson, of Perry, Ga. Mother, Adaline Eliza (Emerson) Thompson, Wellesley ’80, daughter of Ralph Emerson and Adaline Elizabeth (Talcott) Emerson, of Rockford. Yale relatives include: Rev. Ralph Emerson (B.A. 1811) (great-grandfather); Rev. Charles Rockwell (B.A. 1826) (great-great-uncle); Rockwell Emerson (B.A. 1844) and Samuel Emerson (B.A. 1848) (great-uncles); and Alan C. Dixon, ’09 S. (brother-in-law).

The Hotchkiss School. On Freshman Baseball Team; member Zeta Psi.

With Burson Knitting Company of Rockford 1906–1925; employed in the mill at first; secretary of the company 1915–1920; treasurer 1915–1922; president 1922–25, since 1925 had been president of William L. Gilbert Clock Company of Winsted, Conn.; vice-president of Clock Manufacturers Association of America; vice-president and president (1929–1930) of Winsted Manufacturers’ Association; vice-president and director of Winsted Building & Loan Association since 1929, director Manufacturers’ National Bank of Rockford 1920–29, Hurlbut National Bank of Winsted 1928–1933, Winsted Hosiery Company since 1929, National Hosiery & Underwear Association, Litchfield County Hospital since 1928, and Winsted Y.M.C.A.; former trustee of Rockford Hospital, and of Boys’ Club. of Rockford; former director of University Club of Rockford; member of executive committee of Public Safety Committee of Rockford; represented town of Colebrook, Conn., in the General Assembly in 1929; and chairman of its Sesquicentennial that year; member Baronial Order of Runnymede and First Church of Christ of Farmington, Conn.

Death due to pulmonary and laryngeal tuberculosis. Buried in South Cemetery, Colebrook. Survived by wife, three children, mother, and a brother, Ralph E. Thompson, '09 S.

Philip Trumbull White, B.A. 1906.

Born June 18, 1884, in Bridgeport, Conn.
Died May 14, 1933, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Father, Robert Jenkins White; secretary and treasurer of Union Metallic Cartridge Company of Bridgeport; son of Samuel Pomeroy White, M.D. (B.A. Union 1822), and Caroline Mary (Jenkins) White, of Hudson, N.Y. Mother, Ellen Williams (Robinson) White; daughter of Edwin and Sarah (Trumbull) Williams, of Brooklyn, Conn.

Yale relatives: Rev. Stephen Steel (B.A. 1718) and Rev. Ebenezer Devotion (B.A. 1732) (great-great-great-grandfathers); Rev. John Devotion (B.A. 1754) (great-great-great-uncle); Thomas Williams (B.A. 1756) (great-great-grandfather); Rev. Eliphalet Williams and Solomon Williams (both B.A. 1743) (great-great-uncles); Solomon Williams, ex-1801 (great-grandfather); Albert S. Field, Jr., 1936 (nephew); and Richard E. Danielson, '07 (first cousin).

William Penn Charter School, Philadelphia. Second colloquy appointment Junior year; first colloquy appointment Senior year; member Track Team, College Football Team, executive committee of Dwight Hall, and Alpha Delta Phi

Had been engaged in railroad business since graduation; yard clerk with Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railway at Elyria, Ohio, July, 1906—February, 1907; since then with Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway; yard clerk at Indianapolis February–June, 1907; yardmaster at Greensburg, Ind., June–December, 1907, and at Springfield, Ohio, December, 1907–August, 1909; assistant trainmaster at Cleveland 1909–1912; trainmaster at Indianapolis 1912–13, at Springfield, Ohio, 1913, and at Cleveland 1913–14; superintendent at Wabash, Ind., April–September, 1915, of Peoria &
Eastern Railroad, a subsidiary, at Indianapolis 1916–18, of St. Louis Division at Mattoon, Ill., 1918–1922, and of Cincinnati Division at Springfield 1922–24; assistant general superintendent and general superintendent at Indianapolis 1924–1931; had since been assistant general manager at Cincinnati; during the war served as state chairman of Indiana Four Minute Men; in 1928 assisted in organization of Commander Byrd’s trip to the Antarctic; member United States Railroad Administration and Church of the Covenant (Presbyterian), Cleveland.

Married May 26, 1914, in Cleveland, Gladys, daughter of Amos Bush McNairy (B.M.E. Cornell 1877) and Mary (Pack) McNairy. Children: Frances Farman, Vassar 1936; Roger Hartley; and Amos McNairy.

Death due to an embolism. Cremation took place, and ashes are buried in Lakeview Cemetery, Cleveland. Survived by wife, daughter, sons, mother, and a sister, Mrs. Albert S. Field, of Brooklyn, Conn.

Charles Lowell Davidson, B.A. 1907.

Born September 3, 1877, in Asbury, Ohio.
Died January 7, 1933, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Father, Isaac Newton Davidson, a farmer in Forestville, Ohio; son of Greenwood and Corinthisa (Newton) Davidson, of Hamilton County, Ohio. Mother, Sarah (Belleville) Davidson; daughter of John and Catherine (Licht) Belleville, of Asbury.

Prepared for college at National Normal University, Lebanon, Ohio, and received B.A. in 1906 (on Football Team and president of his class). Entered Yale as a Senior; philosophical oration appointment.

Taught at Baker-Kemel School, Knoxville, Tenn., 1907–08 and thereafter in Cincinnati; at Fulton School 1908–1910; assistant principal of Chase Public School 1910–18 and of Sands Public School 1918–1920 and also taught mathematics, history, and social science; had since been an instructor in Bloom Junior High School; took graduate work in education at University of Cincinnati 1924–25, 1927–29, and 1931–32; member Cincinnati Schoolmasters Club and Methodist Episcopal Church, Asbury.

Married December 26, 1914, in Cincinnati, Lauretta Quarry Shorten (B.A. University of Cincinnati 1908), daughter of William Reynolds and Elizabeth (Harris) Shorten. No children.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage and chronic nephritis. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Newport, Ky. Survived by wife, a brother, Alden E. Davidson, and two sisters, Mrs. Louis Lear and Mrs. Joseph Ott, all of Cincinnati.
Richard Frank Seidensticker, B.A. 1907.

Born July 1, 1884, in Meriden, Conn.
Died October 9, 1932, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Father, Frederick Robert Seidensticker, a designer for firm of Peck, Stow & Wilcox (hardware and fireplace goods), of Southington, Conn., and a sculptor; son of Jerome Napoleon and Maria (Busch) Seidensticker, of Philadelphia. Mother, Hattie (Beach) Seidensticker; daughter of George and Lydia Griffin (Redfield) Beach, of Meriden. First cousin: Leslie A. Wilson, '10 M.

Meriden High School. First colloquy appointment Junior and Senior years; treasurer in ticket department of University Football Association Senior year.

M.D. 1911 (an editor of Yale Medical Journal 1910–11 and Medical School representative on Yale Daily News 1910–11; member Nu Sigma Nu); interne at Kings County Hospital, Brooklyn, 1911–13; had since practiced medicine and surgery in Brooklyn, with exception of time spent in service; assistant surgeon at Brooklyn Hospital 1915–1929, at Kings County Hospital 1919–1924, Methodist Episcopal Hospital since 1930, and St. John's Hospital since 1931; attending surgeon at Prospect Heights Hospital since 1923; enlisted in the Medical Corps May 19, 1917; commissioned First Lieutenant June 6; attended Military School of Neurological Surgery, University of Pennsylvania, September–December; stationed at Base Hospital, Camp Upton, N. Y., December, 1917–March, 1918; with Base Hospital No. 37 in Brooklyn until May 19 and then overseas; with American Red Cross Military Hospital No. 4, Liverpool, seven weeks; with Base Hospital No. 37 at Dartford, England, in charge of head, chest, and nerve injuries, August, 1918–January, 1919; promoted Captain November 11, 1918; with Field Hospital 352, 313th Sanitary Train, 88th Division, at Headquarters, Gondrecourt (Meuse), January–May, 1919; returned to United States June 1, 1919, and received discharge June 9; fellow of American College of Surgeons; vice-president of Kiwanis Club of Brooklyn 1931; member Kings County and New York State Medical societies, Associated Physicians of Long Island, and First Congregational Church, Meriden.

Married November 12, 1919, in New York City, Mildred, daughter of Edward and Amelia (Ucker) Beckwith. Children: Barbara; Richard (died in childhood); and Robert Beach.

Death due to an inoperable tumor. Buried in Walnut Grove Cemetery, Meriden. Survived by wife, two children, mother (died January 30, 1933), and two sisters, Mrs. Sinclair E. Allison, of New Orleans, La., and Miss May Seidensticker, of Meriden.
Frederick Lamont Gates, B.A. 1909.

Born December 17, 1886, in Minneapolis, Minn.
Died June 17, 1933, in Boston, Mass.

Father, Rev. Frederick Taylor Gates (B.A. University of Rochester 1877, M.A. 1879; Rochester Theological Seminary 1880; LL.D. University of Chicago 1911); a Baptist minister; business and benevolence manager for John D. Rockefeller; president of Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research; chairman of General Education Board; son of Rev. Granville Gates and Sarah Jane (Bowers) Gates, of Maine, N. Y. Mother, Emma Lucia (Cahoon) Gates; daughter of Lyman Hall and Cordelia Lucinda (Teague) Cahoon, of Racine, Wis.

Montclair (N. J.) High School; attended University of Chicago 1905–06 as member of Class of 1909. Entered Yale as a Sophomore; Andrew D. White prize in history Sophomore year; philosophical oration appointment and honors in physical sciences Senior year; member University Orchestra, Alpha Delta Phi, Sigma Xi, and Phi Beta Kappa.

M.D. Johns Hopkins 1913 (member Alpha Omega Alpha); connected with Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, New York City, 1913–1929, as fellow 1913–14, assistant in Department of Physiology and Pharmacology 1914–17, associate 1917–1921, and associate member 1921–29; had since been research fellow and lecturer in Department of Physiology at Harvard; member China Medical Board of Rockefeller Foundation 1916–1929 and of its commission to China 1915; commissioned First Lieutenant, Medical Reserve Corps, April 17, 1917; assigned to Base Hospital, Fort Riley, Kans., in December, 1917, and to Camp Taylor, Ky., in November, 1918; received discharge January 18, 1919; contributed to Journal of Medical Research, Journal of Experimental Physiology, and Science; member Harvey Society, Optical Society of America, Society of Experimental Physiology, and American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Married September 11, 1917, in Duluth, Minn., Dorothy Olcott (B.A. Smith 1913; M.A. Columbia 1917), daughter of William James Olcott (Ph.B. University of Michigan 1883, M.S. 1884, honorary M.A. 1908) and Fanny (Bailey) Olcott. Children: Olcott, Barbara, Frederick Taylor, 2d, Dorothy, and Deborah.

Death due to a fractured skull and brain hemorrhage. Cremation took place. Survived by wife, five children, three brothers, Franklin H. Gates, '12, Russell C. Gates, '14, and Percival T. Gates (B.A.
Henry Booth Hitchcock, B.A. 1909.

Born March 7, 1887, in Canton Center, Conn.
Died March 1, 1933, in Yokohama, Japan.

Father, Edward Wilson Hitchcock; expert machinist; son of Ralph and Melvina (Wilson) Hitchcock, of Enfield, Conn. Mother, Evelyn McCurdy (Bentley) Hitchcock; daughter of Rev. Edward Warren Bentley (B.A. 1850; D.D. New York University 1877) and Emily (Humphreys) Bentley, of Ellenville, N. Y. Yale relatives include: Edward M. Bentley, '80, and William H. Bentley, ex-’84 (uncles); and Edward S. Bentley, '14 (first cousin).

Jamestown (N. Y.) High School. Received honorable mention for Hugh Chamberlain Greek prize; dissertation appointment Junior year.

Studied law in Boston, also attending evening classes at Harvard Law School, 1909-1911; since 1912 had been in the consular service; student interpreter at United States Embassy in Tokyo 1912-14; connected with Consulate General in Yokohama 1914-15; made vice-consul in 1915; in charge of Consulate at Nagasaki 1916-17, then reassigned to Yokohama; promoted to consul in 1918; stationed at Taipheh, Formosa, 1919-1922, Nagasaki 1922-24, Tokyo 1924-25, Kobe in 1925, and Nagasaki again since 1925; founder of American Society of Nagasaki; member Japan-American Society and First Presbyterian Church, Jamestown.

Death due to a blood clot, following inflammation of veins of the leg. Cremation took place at Yokohama. Survived by wife, son, two daughters, mother, and two sisters, Miss Carolyn B. Hitchcock, Oberlin ex-’16, of Wellesley Hills, Mass., and Mary Hitchcock Williams, the wife of Amory Leland Williams, Williams ex-’16; B.S. Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1920, of Cleveland, Ohio.
Yale Obituary Record

James Theodore Carney, B.A. 1912.

Born January 14, 1890, in Bridgeport, Conn.
Died October 30, 1932, in Waterbury, Conn.

Bridgeport High School. Entered Yale with Class of 1911; joined Class of 1912 the next year; dissertation appointment Junior and Senior years Studied at Union Theological Seminary 1912-15 (received diploma); in charge of Presbyterian mission church at Hiawatha, N. Y., summer of 1914 and at Childwold, N. Y., the next summer; ordained deacon in Protestant Episcopal Church at New York City June 18, 1916, and priest June 3, 1917; minister in charge of St. James Church, Calicoon, N. Y., five months in 1915; curate of St. John's Church, Waterbury, 1915-18 and also vicar of St. Paul's Church, Woodbury, Conn., and of Chapel of the Epiphany, Southbury, Conn.; assistant rector of Trinity Church, Bridgeport, 1918-19; priest in charge of St. Andrew's Church and of Mission of the Holy Spirit, Toledo, Ohio, 1919-1922 and summer supply at Church of the Transfiguration 1919-1923; acting rector of St. Clement's Church, Wilkes Barre, Pa., 1923, had since been rector of St. John's Church, Washington, Conn.; member Priests' Fellowship and associate of Cowley Fathers, Boston.

Married June 10, 1916, in New York City, Emma Louise Maynard (B.S. Columbia 1911), daughter of Herbert Cornelius and Sarah (Taylor) Maynard. Children: Mary and Martha (twins; died in infancy), Francis James; Joseph Robert; and John Michael.

Death due to injuries received when struck by an automobile. Buried in Washington Cemetery. Survived by wife, three sons, and four sisters, Mrs. Edith Knapp, Miss Nellie Egbert, Esther Carney Beardsley, the wife of Samuel B. Beardsley, '11, and Mrs. Warren Conklin, all of Bridgeport.

Jay Morse Ely, B.A. 1912.

Born September 19, 1889, in Tower, Minn.
Died May 11, 1933, in Donaldsonville, Ga.

Father, Arthur Courtlandt Ely, '84 L. (Cornell ex-‘84); son of Samuel Partridge Ely (B.A. Williams 1847) and Harriet Howard (Greenough) Ely, of Marquette, Mich. Mother, Carolyn Gertrude (Morse) Ely; daughter of Jay Collins and Mary Ann (Outhwaite) Morse, of Cleveland.
St. Mark's School. Second colloquy appointment Junior year; first colloquy appointment Senior year; on Freshman Football Squad and Freshman Baseball Team; manager of Freshman Basketball Team and assistant manager and manager of University Basketball Team; captain of University Soccer Team and Baseball Squad and of Class Baseball Team Sophomore and Junior years; member Yale Corinthian Yacht Club, Kappa Beta Phi, Pundits, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Elihu.

Employed at Zenith Furnace Company's plant in Duluth January–August, 1913, and with Federal Furnace Company in Chicago 1913–14; salesman for Pickands, Brown & Company of Chicago (pig iron and coke) 1914–1925; vice-president and secretary-treasurer of Marblecote, Inc., of Chicago 1926–28; had since made his home at Inwood Plantation, Thomasville, Ga.; entered service August 27, 1917, at Officers' Training Camp, Fort Sheridan, Ill.; commissioned First Lieutenant, Infantry, November 26, 1917; Adjutant, 315th Machine Gun Battalion, 80th Division, at Camp Lee, Va.; aide-de-camp to General J. A. Ryan, 9th Division; stationed at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, and Camp Sheridan, Ala.; received discharge December 8, 1918; a governor of Glen Arven Country Club, Thomasville, since 1926; member St. Thomas's Episcopal Church, Thomasville.

Married January 1, 1913, in Chicago, Josephine Virginia, daughter of John Henry Hamline (B.A. Northwestern 1875; LL.B. Columbia 1877) and Josephine (Meade) Hamline, and sister of John H. Hamline, *20. Children: Jay Morse, Jr., Caryl, and Adrienne.

Death due to injuries received in an automobile accident. Buried in Lake Forest (Ill.) Cemetery. Survived by wife, son, daughters, and mother.

David Jay Ely, B.A. 1913.

Born June 30, 1888, in New York City.
Died August 23, 1932, in New York City.

Father, James Richard Ely, '82; son of David Jay and Caroline (Duncan) Ely, of Chicago, Ill. Mother, Emma (Stotsenburg) Ely; daughter of John H. and Jane (Miller) Stotsenberg, of New Albany, Ind. Yale relatives include two first cousins: Charles D. Miller, '02, and James E. Miller, '04.

Taft School. Entered Yale with Class of 1910 but left in Senior year and studied law at Columbia for two years and a half; returned to Yale as a Senior with Class of 1913; member Freshman Crew, Dramatic Association, Pundits, Alpha Delta Phi, and Elihu.

Admitted to New York Bar in fall of 1913; since January, 1914, had been associated with law firm of Simpson, Thacher & Bartlett, in which Thomas Thacher, '71, Alfred B. Thacher, '74, Philip G. Bartlett, '81, and Thomas D. Thacher, '04, have been partners; member Squadron A, New York National Guard, five years; attended second Officers' Training Camp at Plattsburg; enlisted in 12th Field Artillery December 12, 1917; served overseas with Headquarters Company, 12th Field Artillery, January 10, 1918–July 4, 1919; made Corporal; commissioned Second Lieutenant in September, 1918; with 2d Division in Aisne-Marne defensive sector; received discharge July 9, 1919, member St. James (Episcopal) Church, St. James, N. Y. Unmarried.

Ralph Comstock Taylor, B.A. 1913.

Born July 31, 1890, in Buffalo, N. Y.
Died October 3, 1932, in White Plains, N. Y.

Father, Frederick Ferguson Taylor; vice-president of Metropolitan Life Insurance Company of New York City; member Greeley Arctic Expedition, son of Gilbert Elkanah and Helen (Ferguson) Taylor, of Cambria, N. Y. Mother, Harriette (Comstock) Taylor; daughter of Artemas Washington and Eveline (Forsyth) Comstock, of Lockport, N. Y.

Lockport High School. Honors and oration appointment Junior year and third prize at Junior Exhibition; honors in social sciences and high oration appointment Senior year; member Freshman Debating Team, University Debating Association, and Beta Theta Pi.

Employed by Metropolitan Life Insurance Company in Chicago during summer of 1913 and on the Pacific coast the next summer, studied in Harvard Law School 1913–16 (LL.B. 1916); clerk in law office of Rogers, Locke & Babcock in Buffalo summer of 1915; assistant to Ralph S. Kent of law firm of Slee & Kent 1916–17; partner in law firm of Kent, Cummings & Smith 1917; enlisted in the Naval Reserve as Seaman (1st Class) April 15, 1917; trained at Great Lakes Station August 28, 1917–February 1, 1918; commissioned Ensign January 28; attended Reserve Officers' Class at Annapolis and promoted to Ensign (T), U. S. Navy, June 18; served on the "Michigan" June–December; promoted to Lieutenant (j.g.) December 15 and served on the "Preble"; received his discharge February 15, 1919; partner in law firm of Kent, Cummings & Means in Buffalo 1919–1920, secretary to Judge Frank C. Laughlin of the Appellate Court of New York 1920–22; associated with law firm of Duer & Taylor in New York 1922–23 and member of firm 1923–26; connected with Title Guarantee & Trust Company of New York, at first as attorney for the company and since 1931 as trust officer for its Manhattan, Bronx, and Richmond offices; former member Republican City Committee; a governor of White Plains University Club 1927-1930 and president 1929-1930; elder in Presbyterian Church of White Plains since 1926.

Married September 6, 1919, in Lockport, Mary White Pound (B.A. Vassar 1915), daughter of Cuthbert Winfred Pound, Cornell ex-87, and Emma Frances (White) Pound. Children: Joann Sybrandt; Stephen Pound; and Mary Elisabeth.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Kensico Cemetery, Mount Pleasant, N. Y. Survived by wife, son, daughters, a brother, Raymond F. Taylor, of Kenmore, N. Y., and a sister, Miss Margaret Taylor (B.A. Mount Holyoke 1920; B.S. Simmons 1922), of Rochester, N. Y.

Stoddard King, B.A. 1914.

Born August 19, 1889, in Jackson, Wis.
Died June 13, 1933, in Spokane, Wash.

Father, Louis Andrew King; freight agent for Spokane International Railway; son of Louis and Rose (Richards) King, of Saratoga Springs, N. Y. Mother, Clara Viola (Stoddard) King; daughter of Alonzo Edward and Florilla (Stiles) Stoddard, of Greenbush, Wis.

Laramore (N. Dak.) and Spokane High schools. Honors in studies of Freshman year and first McLaughlin prize in English; philosophical oration appointment Junior and Senior years; honors Junior year; Austrian scholarship, Robinson Latin prize, and Townsend Premium Senior year; fence orator Sophomore year and Class orator Senior year; press manager for Dramatic Association; an editor of Tale Record and managing editor of Tale Daily News; member Senior Council, Zeta Psi, Elizabethan Club, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Had been connected with Spokane Spokesman-Review since graduation (except for three months in 1916, when an associate editor of Harper's Weekly); reporter 1914-15, Sunday editor 1915-16 and again May, 1916-September, 1917, and since then an editorial writer for the paper; had also conducted a daily column of verse entitled "Facetious Fragments" since 1922; author of four volumes of verse: What the Queen Said (1926) (published as part of the Week End Library 1928), Grand Right and Left (1927), Listen to the Mocking Bird (1928), and The Raspberry Tree (1930); author, in collaboration with Alonzo Elliott, '13, of four songs: There's a Long, Long Trail (first published in 1913 and awarded Francis Joseph Vernon prize of $100), Abdullah (1914), A Wee Cottage on the Hillside (1918), and The Enchanted River (1925), and with Sidney King Russell of Roll Along Cowboy (1925); had contributed to New Yorker, Life, Judge, Saturday Evening Post, and Bookman; honorary M.A. Whitman College 1927; enlisted May 11, 1918, in Company L, 3d Washington Infantry, National Guard (later the 161st Infantry), and served as Sergeant; commissioned Second Lieutenant June 3, 1919; promoted to First Lieutenant February 9, 1920, and Captain March 25, 1921; resigned commission November 1, 1921; secretary of Yale Club of Spokane since its organization in 1915; member University of Washington chapter of Sigma Tau Delta and Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, Spokane.
Obituary Record

Death due to brain tumor. Cremation took place. Survived by wife, daughters, mother, and three brothers, Fred King, of El Monte, Calif., Robert King, of Huntington Park, Calif., and Philip King, of Los Angeles, Calif.

Manuel Kligerman, B.A. 1914.

Born September 16, 1890, in New Haven, Conn.
Died January 10, 1933, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, David Kligerman; with Kligerman Real Estate Corporation; born in Shpola, Russia, and came to United States in 1888; son of Manuel and Rebecca Kligerman, of Kiev. Mother, Fannie (Moscovitz) Kligerman; daughter of Morse and Hannah Moscovitz, of Yosh, Roumania. First cousin, Manuel W. Kligerman, '14 S.

New Haven High School. Second colloquy appointment Junior and Senior years, member of a club crew Sophomore year.

Statistician with New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company at New Haven 1914-17, except for a few months in 1915, when served as a special agent in New Haven office of Aetna Life Insurance Company; chief clerk in cartridge department of Winchester Repeating Arms Company, New Haven, 1917-18; entered Ordnance Department in a civilian capacity February 11, 1918; stationed at first in office of Army Inspector of Ordnance at Winchester Repeating Arms Company as a statistician in charge of transportation and traffic of ordnance material; on April 1, 1919, transferred to Bridgeport District Ordnance Office, where connected with the Salvage Board until July 1, 1919; with ordnance department of Winchester Repeating Arms Company July, 1919-January, 1920, Russell Ellsworth Lomas, B.A. 1914.

Born August 6, 1893, in Cleveland, Ohio.
Died November 9, 1932, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, John Ellsworth Lomas; vice-president of Lomas & Nettleton (investments), of New Haven; president of Lenox Realty Company; treasurer of Mount Carmel Children’s Home; son of John Richard and Jane (Meloy) Lomas, of Bridgeport, Conn. Mother, Marinda Belle (Crane) Lomas; daughter of David Smith and Elizabeth (Woodruff) Crane, of West Haven.

West Haven High School and Booth’s Preparatory School. First colloquy appointment Junior and Senior years; member second Junior Crew, University Glee Club, College Choir, and Zeta Psi.

LL.B. 1916 (member Corbey Court); admitted to Connecticut Bar in 1916; had since been partner in firm of Lomas & Nettleton and its successor (in 1917), the Lomas & Nettleton Company; treasurer 1917–1930 and vice-president since 1921 (Kenneth E. Nettleton, ’12 L., and Donald E. Nettleton, ’19, president and treasurer respectively since 1930); president of Lenox Realty Company since 1930; vice-president of University Glee Club of New Haven 1927–28 and president 1930–31; trustee of Zeta Psi and graduate treasurer 1923–1932; member Church of the Redeemer (Congregational) and auditor 1931–32.

Death due to subarachnoid hemorrhage. Buried in Oak Grove Cemetery, West Haven. Survived by wife, son, three daughters, and a sister, Beatrice L. Gould, Vassar ex-’22, the wife of Sydney W. Gould, United States Military Academy ex-’21, of New Haven.
Amos Morrill, B.A. 1914.

Born February 21, 1892, in New York City.
Died October 12, 1932, in New York City.

Father, Amos Morrill; partner in firm of Heywood Brothers and the Wakefield Company, furniture houses (now Heywood-Wakefield Corporation); son of Amos and Mary A. (Coolidge) Morrill, of Westminster, Mass. Mother, Mary Ann (Thomas) Morrill; daughter of Charles A. and Columbia (Young) Thomas, of New York City.

Browning School, New York City, St. Paul's School, Garden City, N. Y., and the Harström School. Member Apollo and University Banjo and Mandolin clubs, Class Tennis Team, Golf Club, Corinthian Yacht Club, Psi Upsilon, and Elihu.

Statistician in bond department of Hallgarten & Company in New York City 1915-17; served with War Trade Board in New York City in 1917; manager of custodian's license department in office of Alien Property Custodian in Washington 1918 and with the general business department in the New York office April, 1918-January, 1919; associated with Quenelda Graphite Corporation of Alabama in the promotion and development of the graphite industry in this country 1919-1921; agent with insurance firm of Marsh & McClennan, New York, since 1921; member St. James Episcopal Church, New York.

Married October 28, 1916, in Brooklyn, Dorothy, daughter of Clinton and Addie Mabel (Lounsberry) Elliott. Children: Nancy, Patricia, and Amos. Mr. and Mrs. Morrill were divorced in 1931.

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by daughters, son, three brothers, Walter C. Morrill and Henry H. Morrill, Harvard ex-'01, both of New York City, and Edward T. Morrill, '11, and two sisters, Elsie M. Tuckerman, the wife of J. Willard Tuckerman, Jr. (B.A. Harvard 1904), and Miss Louise M. Morrill, both of Cohasset, Mass.

Gurney Lapham Smith, B.A. 1914.

Born October 8, 1892, in Syracuse, N. Y.
Died December 23, 1932, in Syracuse, N. Y.

Father, Walter Snowdon Smith, '77 S.; son of Walter and Elizabeth (Snowdon) Smith, of Cincinnati, Ohio. Mother, Annie (Lapham) Smith; daughter of Smith Gurney Lapham (B.A. Williams 1863) and Emma Jerome (Jackson) Lapham, of Syracuse.

Westminster School. First colloquy appointment Junior year; on Freshman Football Team, Class Baseball Team, and Apollo and University Glee clubs; president of University Club; member Delta Kappa Epsilon and Scroll and Key.
Tale College

127

Studied in Harvard Law School 1915-17 and again 1919-1920 (LL.B. 1920); clerk in law office of Simpson, Thacher & Bartlett in New York City 1920-23 (Thomas Thacher, '71, Alfred B. Thacher, '74, Philip G. Bartlett, '81, and Thomas D. Thacher, '04, members of firm); traveled in Europe and the West 1923-25; vice-president and secretary of Gurney Realty Company of Syracuse since 1925; attended first Reserve Officers' Training Camp at Madison Barracks, N. Y.; commissioned Provisional Second Lieutenant, Regular Army, August 15, 1917; assigned to 21st Field Artillery, 5th Division, at Leon Springs, Texas; promoted to First Lieutenant October 26, 1917; attended School of Fire, Fort Sill, Okla., February-April, 1918; overseas with 21st Field Artillery May 26, 1918; in active duty in various sectors until the armistice and later with Army of Occupation in Luxembourg; returned to the United States May 15, 1919, and given his discharge May 22; member St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Syracuse.

Unmarried.

Death due to injuries received in an automobile accident and lobar pneumonia. Buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Syracuse. Survived by parents and two brothers, N. Jerome Smith, '20, and Walter S Smith, Jr., of Syracuse.

Egbert Hughes Spencer, B.A. 1914.

Born August 18, 1890, in St. Helier, Island of Jersey.
Died October 28, 1932, in Evanston, Ill.

Father, Earl Winfield Spencer; owner of ranches in Texas; later a stock and bond broker in Chicago; son of Nathan and Polly Ann (Price) Spencer, of Virgil, N. Y. Mother, Agnes Lucy Marian (Hughes) Spencer; daughter of Frederick and Mary Ann (LeBas) Hughes, of Buenos Aires and Montevideo, South America.

Deerfield Township High School, Highland Park, Ill., and Phillips-Andover. Member Apollo Glee Club and Alpha Delta Phi.

Training Camp, Fort Sheridan, Ill.; commissioned Second Lieutenant, Infantry, August 15, 1917; assigned to Headquarters, 172d Infantry Brigade, 86th Division, Camp Grant, as aide-de-camp to Brigadier General Charles H. Martin; promoted First Lieutenant January 1, 1918, and Captain July 2, 1918; went overseas September 8, 1918, on staff of General Martin; with 92d Division November 11-December 26, 1918; with Army of Occupation as assistant G-1, 90th Division, until May 22, 1919; then on interallied games committee until July 19; returned to the United States August 13 and received his discharge August 28, 1919; treasurer of Barrington Hills Riding Club at time of death; member Trinity Episcopal Church, Highland Park, Ill.

Married November 28, 1925, in Winnetka, Ill., Frances Dorothea Kemp, Smith ex-'14, daughter of Edward Milton and Minnie (Amoss) Kemp. Two daughters, Susan Marian and Sally Kemp.

Death due to hemorrhage caused by a fall from a horse while jumping. Buried in North Shore Memorial Cemetery, Lake Bluff, Ill. Survived by wife, daughters, mother, two sisters, Mrs. Joseph S. Richardson, of Concord, Mass., and Ethel S. Moseley, the wife of George C. Moseley, '17 S., and two brothers, Commander Earl Winfield Spencer, U.S.N. (United States Naval Academy 1910), and Frederick L. Spencer, ex-'22. His other brother, Dumaresq Spencer, '17, was killed in France in 1918.

Born June 17, 1893, in New Salem, Pa.
Died July 18, 1932, in Boston, Mass.

Uniontown High School and Worcester (Mass.) Academy. Honors in Freshman year and honors of first rank Senior year; high oration appointment Junior and Senior years; member Beta Theta Pi and Phi Beta Kappa.

Studied law at Harvard 1915-17 and again after his war service (LL.B. 1920; member of board of Harvard Law Review); admitted to practice in United States Courts; since 1920 had been connected with Bethlehem Steel Company; with legal department, in office of the secretary 1920-26, and since then assistant secretary; attended second Officers' Training Camp at Fort Oglethorpe in 1917; commissioned Second Lieutenant of Field Artillery November 27, 1917; assigned to 316th Field Artillery, 81st Division, with which stationed at Camp Jackson and overseas August 5, 1918–July 18, 1919, promoted First Lieutenant October 19, 1918, and Captain November 11, 1918; with University Detachment at University of London (Inns of Court) four months; received discharge August 7, 1919; member Iron and Steel Institute, Pennsylvania Bar Association, and First Presbyterian Church, Bethlehem.

Death due to polycystic kidneys. Buried in Oak Grove Cemetery, Unontown. Survived by wife, son, daughter, mother, a sister, Mrs. Arthur W. Defenderfer, of Chevy Chase, Md., and a brother, George W. Hess (B.A. Lafayette 1922), of Washington, D. C.

Born August 6, 1895, in Easthampton, N Y.
Died November 25, 1932, in New York City.

Father, Henry Ammon James (B.A. 1874, LL.B. 1878); son of Henry and Amelia Belknap (Cate) James, of Baltimore, Md.
Mother, Laura Brevoort (Sedgwick) James; daughter of William Ellery Sedgwick (B.A. Harvard 1846) and Constance Irving (Brevoort) Sedgwick, of New York City. Yale relatives include: Dr. Walter B. James, ’79, Norman James, ’90, and Robert C. James, ’94 (uncles); and Dr. Henry James, ’03, Allan McLane, Jr., ’16, and Oliver B. James, ’18 (first cousins).

Lakewood (N. J.) and Groton (Mass.) schools. Benjamin F. Barge mathematical prize Sophomore year; scholar of the second rank and philosophical oration appointment Junior year; philosophical oration appointment Senior year; manager of Glee and Banjo and Mandolin clubs; member Dramatic Association, Battery B, Tobyhanna, 1916, Yale R.O.T.C., Delta Kappa Epsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Attended Officers’ Training Camp at Fort Benjamin Harrison and commissioned Captain, Field Artillery, U. S. Reserve, August 15, 1917; detailed as instructor at second Officers’ Training Camp at Fort Benjamin Harrison August–November; assigned to 324th Heavy Field Artillery, 83d Division, at Camp Sherman December 1, 1917; attended School of Fire, Fort Sill, Okla.; overseas June 12, 1918, in Advance Detachment, 158th Field Artillery Brigade; attended Orientation School at Coetquidan, Brittany; at the front in Nathan Kroll, B.A. 1917.

Born January 1, 1895, in Marlboro, Mass.
Died June 1, 1933, in Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

Father, Louis Kroll; in real estate business. Mother, Sarah (Alberts) Kroll; daughter of Sidney and Esther Alberts, of Vilna, Poland.

Hudson (Mass.) High School and Boston English High School. Attended Harvard 1913-14. Entered Yale as a Sophomore; member Yale R.O.T.C.

Attended Reserve Officers' Training Camp, Plattsburg, N. Y.; commissioned Second Lieutenant, Infantry, August 15, 1917; in September transferred to Field Artillery; overseas September 28, 1917; special duty with Headquarters, 51st Artillery Brigade; transferred to Aviation Section as a Balloon Observer; attended U. S. School of Aviation, France; served with Battery C, 7th Field Artillery, 1st Division, from March 30, 1918; active duty at Montdidier-Noyon, Aisne-Marne, St.-Mihiel, and Meuse-Argonne and with Army of Occupation at Coblenz; returned to this country August 10, 1919, and given discharge August 27; connected with Austin, Baldwin & Company, shippers and exporters, New York City, 1919-1920; with United Drug Company, Boston, 1920-21; partner with his father in real estate firm of Louis Kroll & Son for a few months in 1921 until his father's death; in real estate and insurance business under his own name 1921-28; with real estate department of Green Stores, Inc., of Boston 1928-29; had specialized in chain store leasing since 1929 and developed a block of stores in Northampton, Mass., and one in Poughkeepsie; also manager of the Plymouth Inn, Northampton, 1930-31 and of the Vassar Inn, Poughkeepsie, since 1931; member First Division Society.

Death due to blood poisoning. Buried in Hebrew Benevolent Society Cemetery in Preston, Conn. Survived by wife, son, daughter, a brother, H. David Kroll (B.A. Harvard 1914), of Los Angeles, Calif., and three sisters, Minna Kroll Berkowitz, Smith ex-'15, wife of Abram Berkowitz (L.L.B. Boston University 1916), of Newton Center, Mass; Miss Pearl Kroll, Smith ex-'20, of New York City, and Mrs. Louis Shindler, of Brookline, Mass.
Wallace Estill, B.A. 1922.

Born February 2, 1896, in Lakeville, Conn.
Died January 22, 1933, in San Anselmo, Calif.

Father, Joe Garner Estill (B.A. 1891, M.A. 1897); son of Francis Thomas Estill (B.A. University of Nashville 1842) and Catherine Heslep (Garner) Estill, of Winchester, Tenn. Mother, Mary Russell (North) Estill, Yale School of the Fine Arts 1890–93; daughter of Oliver Burnham and Martha Elizabeth (Post) North, of New Haven. Yale relatives include: John H. North, ex-'82 (uncle); and Oliver B. North, '08, Charles W. Estill, '17, Floyd H. Estill, ex-'20, and John H. North, '26 S. (first cousins).

The Hotchkiss School. Entered Yale with Class of 1918 (member University Gymnasium Team 1915 and 1916 and Sigma Delta Chi); left at end of Sophomore year and entered United States Military Academy, where member of Class of 1920 until June, 1918; drilled Hotchkiss School Battalion and Salisbury Home Guard and helped drill Yale R.O.T.C. and members of Susquehannock Camp, Montrose, Pa., in 1918; attended Field Artillery Officers’ Training School at Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky., August 15–November 27, 1918, when commissioned Second Lieutenant, Field Artillery; clerk with Halle & Stieglitz, brokers, in New York City January–September, 1919, salesman for National Cash Register in 1919; with production department of The Texas Company at West Columbia, Texas, 1920–1921, then reentered Yale as Senior with Class of 1922.

Instructor in history and athletics, coach at Berkshire School, Sheffield, Mass., 1922–24; held similar position at Westminster School, Simsbury, Conn., 1924–26; instructor in French at Allen-Chalmers School, West Newton, Mass., 1926–27; instructor in French and mathematics and assistant in athletics at Pawling (N. Y.) School 1927–28; had since been an instructor in mathematics and director of athletics at Tamalpais School in San Rafael, Calif., and assistant headmaster 1931–32.

Married September 7, 1921, in New York City, Marie Elise, daughter of Kirk E. and Marie (Schlapp) Gardner. Mr. and Mrs. Estill were divorced in 1926.

Killed in an automobile accident. Cremation took place at Berkeley, Calif., and ashes were buried in Salisbury (Conn.) Cemetery. Survived by parents and two brothers, Joe G. Estill, Jr., ex-'17 S., and Gordon N. Estill, ex-'23.
Leon Arthur Tulin, B.A. 1922.

Born March 1, 1901, in Hartford, Conn.
Died December 12, 1932, in New York City.

Father, Samuel Schulman Tulin, owner of S. S. Tulin & Company, wholesale grocers in Hartford; son of Shaya David and Elizabeth (Schulman) Tulin, of Hartford. Mother, Emma (Lerner) Tulin; daughter of Joseph Chaim and Frances Lerner, of Michaelinka, Poland. Uncle, Abraham Tulin, '03.

Hartford Public High School. On Freshman Baseball and Basketball teams; member Freshman Glee Club, Apollo Glee Club Sophomore year, University Glee Club Junior and Senior years, and University Orchestra three years; seaman in Naval Training Unit at Yale in 1918.

LL.B. cum laude 1925 (case and comment editor of Yale Law Journal Senior year); admitted to Connecticut Bar July 7, 1925; practiced law in office of Judge Julius M. Mayer in New York City 1925-26; assistant professor of law at Yale 1926-29; associate professor of law at Columbia since 1929; one of a staff of eleven specialists in criminology to make a survey of every phase of crime detection and prevention in the United States under auspices of Columbia University Law School 1929-1931; member Free Synagogue, New York City.

Married June 14, 1927, in New York City, Justine Waterman Wise (B.A. Barnard 1924; LL.B. Yale 1928), daughter of Rabbi Stephen Samuel Wise (B.A. Columbia 1892 and Ph.D. 1901; LL.D. Syracuse 1930) and Louise (Waterman) Wise, and niece of Sigismond Waterman, '48 M. One son, Stephen Wise.

Death due to leukemia. Buried in Emanuel Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by wife, son, two brothers, Maxwell S. Tulin, Wesleyan '19, of Hartford, and William W. Tulin, ex-'19, and two sisters, Eleanor Tulin Lieberman (B.A. Smith 1927), the wife of Jerome S. Lieberman, Jr. (B.S. Harvard 1928), and Miss Phyllis May Tulin B.A. Smith 1929).

Thomas Ewing Shaw, B.A. 1923.

Born March 18, 1901, in Pittsburgh, Pa.
Died March 14, 1933, in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Father, George Elmer Shaw (LL.B. University of Michigan 1883); member of law firm of Reed, Smith, Shaw & McClay; son of Thomas Wilson Shaw (M.D. University of Pennsylvania 1849) and Catherine Wolf (Stoner) Shaw, of Pittsburgh. Mother, Mary Ellen (Ewing) Shaw (B.A. Vassar 1885); daughter of Thomas Ewing (B.A. Wash-ingston and Jefferson College 1853) and Julia Rupert (Hufnagle) Ewing (Mount Holyoke 1850), of Stockbridge, Mass. Yale relatives include Henry R. Ewing, '81 (uncle); and Ledlie W. Young, ex-'25 (first cousin).
Yale Obituary Record

Shady Side Academy, Pittsburgh, and St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. Member Freshman and Sophomore crews, Hockey Squad, and Alpha Delta Phi.

LL.B. Pittsburgh Law School 1926; had since practiced law in Pittsburgh as junior attorney with firm of Reed, Smith, Shaw & McClay, member Allegheny County Bar Association and Third Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh.

Unmarried.

Death due to accidental carbon monoxide poisoning. Buried in Allegheny Cemetery, Pittsburgh. Survived by parents and two sisters, Mary E. Shaw Scully, the wife of Rees T. Scully (C.E. Princeton 1909), of Pittsburgh, and Elizabeth Shaw Laughlin, the wife of George M. Laughlin, 3d, ex-'18 S.

David Gillis Carter, B.A. 1924.

Born June 27, 1901, in Detroit, Mich.
Died December 18, 1932, at Grosse Pointe, Mich.

Father, David Shelley Carter; director of Detroit Savings Bank and of Detroit & Cleveland Navigation Company; former secretary and treasurer of Larned, Carter & Company, manufacturers of overalls; son of David and Frances (Leonard) Carter, of Detroit. Mother, Grace M. (Gillis) Carter; daughter of Ransom and Helen Augusta (Gaylord) Gillis, of Pontiac, Mich. Uncle, Ransom F. Gillis, ex-'94.

Detroit University School and Central High School, Detroit. Attended University of Michigan for a year as member of Class of 1923. At Yale on Freshman Crew; an editor of Yale Record, Yale Literary Magazine, and Elbub; a governor of University Club; member Interfraternity Council, Pundits, Elizabethan Club, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Chi Delta Theta; 1924 Class poet; awarded John Masefield Poetry prize in 1924, served as Cadet-Captain, R.O.T.C., at Camp Custer, Mich., summer of 1918.

Since graduation had engaged in independent writing; also member of staff of Time April, 1930-September, 1931, and feature writer for New York Sunday World 1926-27; member Squadron A, New York National Guard, 1928-29; Second Lieutenant, U. S. Reserve Corps, lived in Paris in 1925 and 1929, in Santa Fé, N. Mex., 1928 and 1932, and in New York City 1930-31; member First Presbyterian Church, Detroit.

Married October 29, 1927, in Grosse Pointe Village, Mich., Vir-

Death due to progressive muscular atrophy and pneumonia. Buried in Woodmere Cemetery, Detroit. Survived by wife, son, and father.

Daniel Chauncey Knowlton, Jr., B.A. 1924.

Born January 27, 1901, in Ithaca, N.Y.
Died August 10, 1932, in Orange, Conn.

Father, Daniel Chauncey Knowlton (B.A. Cornell 1898 and Ph.D. 1906); professor of history at Teachers College, Columbia; assistant professor of visual instruction at Yale 1926–28 and research associate (associate professorial rank) 1928–29; professor of education at New York University; author; associate editor of Education; son of Charles Montague and Martha Jane (Badley) Knowlton, of Cazenovia, N.Y.
Mother, Louise (Osburn) Knowlton; daughter of James Mead and Carrie (Hope) Osburn, of Ithaca.

Montclair Academy. Attended Wesleyan one year (1919–1920) as member of Class of 1923 (member Phi Nu Theta). At Yale member of Freshman and University 150-pound crews, Class Crew Squad Junior and Senior years, Freshman Glee Club, Freshman Choir, Apollo Glee Club, Dramatic Association, Playcraftsmen, and Zeta Psi.

Had been in the investment business since graduation; customer's man with Noyes & Jackson, New York City, 1924–25 and with Prince & Whitely, New Haven, 1927–29; chief customer's man with W. K. Johnson & Company, New Haven, 1930–31; had since been head customer's man in New Haven office of J. S. Bache & Company; member 2d Company, Governor's Foot Guard, since April 2, 1928, and of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Montclair, N. J.

Unmarried.
Killed in an automobile accident. Buried in Montclair. Survived by parents and a brother, Donald B. Knowlton, '31 S.

Loren Hart Loomis, B.A. 1926.

Born February 1, 1906, in New Haven, Conn.
Died December 1, 1932, in West Haven, Conn.

Father, Henry Arthur Loomis; foreman of New Haven branch of American Mills Company; son of Albert and Calista Howard (Keith) Loomis, of Palmer, Mass. Mother, Kate Elmendorf (Bowman) Loomis; daughter of Charles Gorham and Maria Catharine (Elmendorf) Bowman, of New Haven.
New Haven High School and Phillips-Andover. Held New Haven High School Scholarship four years and John Reed Williams Scholarship Sophomore year; scholar of the second rank Freshman year and of third rank Sophomore year; oration appointment Junior and Senior years.

Graduate student in Germanics at Columbia and part-time instructor in German 1926–27, instructor in Department of Modern Languages at Princeton 1927–28; accountant with Niles & Niles in New York City 1928–29; assistant in Department of Personnel Study at Yale, with rank of instructor, since 1929; took graduate work in education in Yale Graduate School 1929–1931; member United (Congregational) Church, New Haven.

Unmarried

Took his own life. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by father (died March 13, 1933) and stepmother, who is a sister of the late Nelson J. Vetter, '13 S.

Thomas Cleveland Patterson, B.A. 1927.

Died October 24, 1932, in Huntington, W Va.

Father, Samuel White Patterson; president of Sycamore Coal Company of Cinderella, W. Va.; son of Dr. Thomas N. Patterson and Susan (Letchworth) Patterson, of Mahanoy City, Pa. Mother, Mary (Cleveland) Patterson (B.A. Mount Holyoke 1893); daughter of Charles Wheeler Cleveland and Maria Isabel (Torrey) Cleveland (Mount Holyoke 1854), of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Vivian.

Rumsey Hall, Cornwall, Conn., and Gilman Country School, Baltimore. On board of Yale Record Sophomore year and of Yale Literary Magazine Junior and Senior years (chairman Senior year); an editor of Linonia; associate editor of Banner and Pot Pourri; member Interfraternity Council, Senior Class Book Committee, Alpha Chi Rho, Chi Delta Theta, Elizabethan Club (a governor Senior year), and Skull and Bones.

Studied English literature at Berkeley, Calif., 1927–28; traveled in Central America and Mexico in 1928; had since been engaged in literary work as a free-lance writer; affiliated with Second Presbyterian Church, Huntington

Unmarried.

Died suddenly. Buried in Woodmere Cemetery, Huntington. Survived by three uncles and an aunt.
Thomas Franklin Price, B.A. 1928.
Born November 11, 1905, in Greenport, N. Y.
Died September 24, 1932, in Lancaster, Mass.

Greenport High School and Phillips-Exeter. Scholar of the second rank Freshman year and of the third rank Sophomore and Junior years; oration appointment Junior year; member Freshman Crew Squad, Class Crew Squad Sophomore year, Class Crew Junior year, and Zeta Psi.

Clerk with Fifth Avenue Bank of New York City July, 1928—March, 1929; clerk in credit department of National City Bank of New York March—June, 1929; had since been connected with O. C. White Company (electric lighting equipment) of Worcester, Mass., at first as a salesman and since January, 1932, as sales manager; member Sons of the American Revolution and First Baptist Church, Greenport.

Married October 11, 1929, in Worcester, Dorothy Burtis, daughter of Otis Converse White (B.S. Harvard 1896) and Helen Louise (Burtis) White. No children.

Arthur Wesley McKown, B.A. 1932.
Born September 27, 1910, in Albany, N. Y.
Died August 4, 1932, in Albany, N. Y.

Father, Alexander McKown; proprietor of McKown Wholesale Produce Company in Albany; son of William and Lavina (MacMillan) McKown, of McKownville, N. Y. Mother, Viola Susan (Albright) McKown, daughter of Charles and Emma (Helme) Albright, of McKownville.

Albany Academy. Sterling Memorial Scholarship Freshman year; scholar of the third rank Sophomore year; James Fenimore Cooper Scholarship Junior and Senior years; interested in Dwight Hall work; member Book and Bond.

Member Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, Albany.

Death due to sleeping sickness after an illness of three months. Buried in Prospect Hill Cemetery, Albany. Survived by parents.
SHEFFIELD SCIENTIFIC SCHOOL

William Rufus Hopson, Ph.B. 1870.

Born May 24, 1848, in Kent, Conn.
Died August 23, 1933, in New Milford, Conn.

Father, George Hopson; in lumber business in Farrandsville, Pa.; later president of Aetna Spring & Axle Company in Bridgeport, Conn.; son of William Trapp and Ann Waterman (Swift) Hopson, of Kent. Mother, Ann Elisa (Fuller) Hopson; daughter of Rufus and Elizabeth (Drake) Fuller, of Kent.

Dickinson Seminary, Williamsport, Pa., Norwich (Conn.) Free Academy, and Day’s School, Bridgeport. Select course*

Member of wholesale grocery firm of Hopson, Pyle & Company in Bridgeport for a number of years after graduation; subsequently organized the Stratford (Conn.) Land & Improvement Company and planned and directed the work of dredging and dyking the Stratford meadows; for a number of years previous to his retirement in 1900 served as president of the Lordship Park Association, which developed the shore lands in Stratford; resided in Bridgeport until 1920, and since then in Kent; member Bridgeport Scientific Society.

Married October 15, 1881, in Fall River, Mass., Mariana Bridge, daughter of Albion King and Mary Bridge (Canedy) Slade. Three daughters: Elizabeth Fuller (B.A. Vassar 1905; M.A. Columbia 1911); Ann Eliza Canedy (B.A. Vassar 1908); and Dorothy Slade. Mrs. Hopson died July 7, 1930.

Death due to hypostatic pneumonia and a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Congregational Cemetery, Kent. Survived by three daughters and a sister, Miss Mary A. Hopson (B.A. Vassar 1873), of Kent.

Edgar Henry Summerfield Bailey, Ph.B. 1873.

Born September 17, 1848, in Middlefield, Conn.
Died June 1, 1933, in Lawrence, Kans.

Father, Russell Enos Bailey; wood turner and manufacturer of wooden handles; son of Oliver and Anner (Miller) Bailey, of Middlefield. Mother, Hannah (Miller) Bailey; daughter of Seth and Charity (Birdsey) Miller, of Middletown, Conn.

Wilbraham (Mass.) Academy. Chemistry course.

Took graduate work in Sheffield Scientific School 1873-74; instructor in chemistry at Lehigh University 1874-1883; professor of chemistry at University of Kansas from 1883 until retirement in 1923 and then professor emeritus; continued to reside in Lawrence; director of Chemistry Laboratory 1900-1923; studied at Univer-
S. Sheffield Scientific School

University of Strassburg in 1881 and at University of Leipzig in 1895; Ph.D. Illinois Wesleyan 1883; chemist to the Kansas State Board of Agriculture 1885-1923, and of State Food Laboratory 1907-1927; advisory member of State Board of Health 1899-1925; a founder of Kansas City section of American Chemical Society in 1900, president 1900-04, councilor 1906-1915, and chairman of division of water, sewage, and sanitation in 1917; a founder of University of Kansas chapter of Sigma Xi and president 1904 and 1905; chairman, Douglas County, Kans., Fuel Committee 1917-18; author: The Mineral Waters of Kansas (Volume VII, Kansas Geological Survey) (1902), Textbook of Sanitary and Applied Chemistry (1906), Food Products, Their Source, Chemistry, and Use (1914), and Laboratory Experiments on Food Products (1915); co-author: with Walter R. Crane, Gypsum (Volume V, Kansas Geological Survey) (1899), with Hamilton P. Cady, A Guide to Qualitative Chemical Analysis (1901), and with his son, Herbert S. Bailey, Food Products from Afar (1922); author of a report on Dietaries of Some State Institutions Under the Care of the Board of Administration (1927); contributed to Journal of the American Chemical Society, Journal of Industrial and Engineering Chemistry, and Transactions of Kansas Academy of Science; honorary member of American Institute of Homeopathy; fellow American Association for the Advancement of Science; member University of Kansas chapter of Alpha Chi Sigma and First Presbyterian Church, Lawrence.

Married July 13, 1876, in Bethlehem, Pa., Aravesta, daughter of Jacob and —— (Hofford) Trumbauer. Children: Kenneth Russell (died in 1879); Herbert Stevens (B.A. University of Kansas 1902; B.S. Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1906); William Hotchkiss (B.A. University of Kansas 1905; M.D. University of Pennsylvania 1908); Edgar Lawrence (B.A. University of Kansas 1907); and Austin (B.S. University of Kansas 1915; Ph.D. Cornell 1920). Mrs. Bailey died July 28, 1931.

Death due to carcinoma of the prostate. Buried in Oak Hill Cemetery, Lawrence. Survived by four sons and nine grandchildren.

Burton Mansfield, Ph.B. 1875.

Born April 4, 1856, in Hamden, Conn.

Died October 4, 1932, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Jesse Merrick Mansfield, a farmer; brick manufacturer with Warner, Mansfield & Stiles; head of firm of Mansfield & Laverty, coal merchants; son of Jesse and Keziah (Stiles) Mansfield, of North Haven. Mother, Catherine Betsey (Warner) Mansfield; daughter of Elam and Betsey (Merriman) Warner, of Hamden. Yale relatives include two nephews: Henry L. Gower, '80, and Louis A. Mansfield, '85.

Rectory School, Hamden, and Hopkins Grammar School. Select course.

LL.B. 1878 (Betts prize Junior year and honors Senior year); admitted to Connecticut Bar in 1878 and had since practiced law in New Haven; in partnership with Osborne A. Day, '99 S., under name of Mansfield & Day 1911-19; president of Connecticut Savings Bank since 1896; insurance commissioner of Connecticut 1893-95 and again 1911-1923; director of Merchants National Bank 1924-1930 and of Congress Bank & Trust Company, New Haven Water Company, New Haven Organized Charities, New Haven Journal-Courier, Security Insurance Company of New Haven, Pilot Re-insurance Company of New York, West Haven Buckle Company, Connecticut Humane Society, and Association against the Prohibition Amendment (Connecticut division); chairman of Connecticut State Commission of Sculpture and member of Municipal Art Commission of New Haven; vice-chairman of New Haven Building Commission board 1927-28; director of New Haven Colony Historical Society 1904-1924 and elected one of the directors in permanence 1925 (vice-president 1913-1924; on executive and finance committees 1930-31; became a perpetual member in 1931); trustee of Children's Community Center of the New Haven Orphan Asylum since 1906 and chairman of the board 1907-1916; trustee of New Haven Y.M.C.A. 1919-1932 and of Morgan Memorial of Wadsworth Atheneum of Hartford; director and president of Florence Crittenton Home of New Haven; chairman of New Haven chapter of American Red Cross 1906-1917; New Haven chairman for Near East Relief 1928-29; president of Evergreen Cemetery Association of New Haven since 1892; member World Court Committee of New Haven 1925; vestryman of St. Thomas Episcopal Church 1881-January, 1932, and honorary vestryman since then (also junior and senior warden, treasurer for eight years, and chairman of building committee); lay deputy to General Convention of Diocese of Connecticut since 1898 and to Synod of the 1st Province at Diocesan Convention of Episcopal Churches of Connecticut since 1919; one of eight laymen elected to National Council of the Episcopal Church by the General Convention in 1919; chancellor of the Diocese of Connecticut since 1921; secretary and treasurer of Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut forty-three years; member of board of directors of Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States; president of annual conference of Episcopal Church Clubs of the United States and of Church Club of Connecticut in 1910; vice-president of American Church Building
Sheffield Scientific School

Fund; member of National Committee for the Washington (D. C.) Cathedral 1927; D.C.L. Trinity (Conn.) 1924 and Berkeley Divinity School 1925 (trustee since 1892); fellow of National Academy of Design; president of Yale Alumni Association of New Haven 1909-1911; member of Alumni Board 1915-18; second vice-president of Graduates Club of New Haven; acting secretary of Class of 1875 S. in 1920, acting Alumni Fund agent 1925, and president of the Class 1920-25; secretary of Class of 1878 L. over twenty-five years.

Death due to chronic myocarditis. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by a half brother, Howard Mansfield, '71. In 1930 Mr. Mansfield presented to the Gallery of Fine Arts a collection of Greco-Roman and Syrian glass, and one of Rakka and Sultanabad pottery in memory of his wife. Cash bequests to the School of the Fine Arts and the School of Law were designated in his will.

Frederick Noah Pease, Ph.B. 1875.

Born December 3, 1850, in Ellington, Conn.
Died January 26, 1933, in Antis Township, Blair County, Pa.

Father, Noah Edward Pease; engaged in agriculture in Ellington and Somers, Conn.; son of Noah and Lucinda (Russell) Pease, of Somers. Mother, Jane E. (Topliff) Pease; daughter of Andrew J. and Mary E. (Bascom) Topliff, of Hebron, Conn.

Hall's School, Ellington. Entered Sheffield Scientific School in 1871; chemistry course; prizes in chemistry and mineralogy junior year; member The Colony and Berzelius.

Graduate student in Sheffield Scientific School 1875-76; assistant in analytical chemistry at Yale 1876-77; assayist in Colorado gold fields at Lake City 1877-1881; assistant chemist (1881-1909), chemist (1909-1912), and chief chemist (1912-1921) for The Pennsylvania Railroad at Altoona; retired in 1921; continued to reside in Altoona; honorary M.A. Yale 1917; member Association of Mining Engineers, Association of Chemical Engineers, executive committee of Bureau of Explosives, American Railway Association of New York City, and Second Presbyterian Church, Altoona.

Married July 4, 1877, in Ellington, Delia Maria Morris, Mount Holyoke ex-’74, daughter of Sylvester and Frances King (Carpenter) Morris. Children Oscar Dana Allen (M.E. Purdue 1905); Leila Russell (Mrs. John Olsen); Noah Edward (died in childhood); Jennie Lucinda, the wife of Harry Morris, Purdue ex-’07; Willard Noah Morris (died in 1915); and William Henry. Mrs. Pease died March 22, 1924.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Oakridge Cemetery, Altoona. Survived by two sons, two daughters, eight grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.

Thomas Ewing Sherman, Ph.B. 1876.

Born October 12, 1856, in San Francisco, Calif.
Died April 24, 1933, in New Orleans, La.

Father, General William Tecumseh Sherman, U.S.A. (United States Military Academy 1840; LL.D. Dartmouth 1866, Yale 1876, Princeton 1878); son of Charles Robert and Mary (Hoyt) Sherman, of Lancaster, Ohio. Mother, Eleanor Boyle (Ewing) Sherman; daughter of Thomas Ewing (B.A. Ohio University 1815), U. S. Senator from Ohio, Secretary of the Treasury and later Secretary of the Interior, and Maria Wills (Boyle) Ewing, of Lancaster, Ohio. Grandnephew Tecumseh S. Fitch, ’31 S.

Preparatory department of Georgetown College; B.A. Georgetown University 1874. Entered Sheffield Scientific School as a graduate student in 1874 and joined Class of 1876 S. the next year; select course, honors in English literature.

LL.B. Washington University 1878; gave up profession of the law soon after admission to the bar in 1878 to study for priesthood in Roman Catholic Church; joined the Jesuit Order in 1878 and studied for three years in Jesuit novitiates in London, England, and Frederick, Md.; ordained as priest in 1889, belonged to the Western Province of the Jesuit Order (headquarters in St. Louis) and taught for some years in Jesuit colleges, principally in St. Louis and Detroit; preached throughout the country; released from the Order in 1911 on account of ill health and retired from active work; since 1920 had made his home in Santa Barbara; served as chaplain of 4th Regiment, Missouri Volunteers, May 14, 1898–January 28, 1899, at Camp Alger for a time and then on special detail in Puerto Rico; author: Life of General Charles Ewing (privately printed in 1884).

Henry Ellsworth Wood, Ph.B. 1876.

Born January 18, 1855, in Joliet, Ill.
Died October 6, 1932, in Sacramento, Calif.

Prepared for college at Lake Forest, Ill. Special student in chemistry in Sheffield Scientific School 1873-75; in 1884 received degree of Ph.B., with enrollment in Class of 1876 S.; member The Colony and Berzelius.

With Edgar Thompson Steel Works in Braddock, Pa., 1875-76; worked in Boulder (Colo.) mines as miner, ore assorber, and assayer 1876-78; engaged in private research work in engineering for George Pullman and others; maintained an assay office and laboratory at Leadville, Colo., 1878-1889 and in Denver 1889-1921; also carried on the Henry E. Wood Ore Testing Works 1898-1918; president of Canadian Wood Molybdenite Company, Ltd., 1916-18 and of Wood Molybdenite Company of New York City 1919-1921; during the war, with his son, O. Ellsworth Wood, ex-'08 S., furnished molybdenite to England, France, and the United States from their mine in Quyon, Quebec; in 1921, with his son, founded Lewistown (Mont.) Oil & Refining Company, of which general manager until 1923, and Vancouver Oil Refining Company, of which vice-president 1924-27; had since been actively engaged in mining operations with his son on the Mother Lode in California; lived at various times in Santa Barbara, Los Angeles, Vancouver, and San Francisco and had made his home in Sacramento since 1930; in 1909 patented Wood ore flotation process and operated it in the United States, Canada, and Mexico; contributed to Mining and Metallurgical Journal; in 1932 made honorary senior member of American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers.

Death due to angina pectoris. Cremation took place and ashes were buried in East Lawn Cemetery, Sacramento. Survived by wife, two sons, one grandchild, and a brother, John L. Wood (Cornell 1871–72), of Essex Fells, N. J.

William Seth Silsby, Ph.B. 1879.

Born September 28, 1858, at Seneca Falls, N. Y.
Died November 5, 1932, in Rochester, N. Y.

Father, Horace Cady Silsby; president of Silsby Manufacturing Company (steam fire engines); son of Seth and Elizabeth (Cady) Silsby, of Suffield, Conn. Mother, Phoebe M. (Burt) Silsby (born in Mendon, N. Y.).

Mount Pleasant School, Ossining, N. Y. Mechanical engineering course; Class president Freshman and Junior years; a Class statistician; member Thanksgiving Jubilee Committee Freshman year, Class Graduating Committee, Alpha Chi, and Book and Snake.

Spent the first year after graduation in St. Louis; secretary of Silsby Manufacturing Company 1881–1901; with Silsby & Davis, New York brokers, 1903–04; then formed, with William M. Atwater, '79 S., the New England Associates, a mining company (also known as Silsby-Atwater Corporation), with offices in Boston, and served as its president until 1907; assistant treasurer of Standard Optical Company of Geneva, N. Y., 1908–1910; with American Can Company of Geneva 1916–18; accountant in stock distribution department of Eastman Kodak Company of Rochester since 1919; member Yale Engineering Association.

Married September 23, 1891, in Waterloo, N. Y., Eliza Glover, daughter of Charles Cornelius and Eleanor McKenzie (Glover) Gridley. No children.

Death due to carcinoma. Buried in Maple Grove Cemetery, Waterloo. Survived by wife and a brother, Charles T. Silsby, of Rochester

William Lincoln Griswold, Ph.B. 1881.

Born February 12, 1861, in Banksville, N. Y.
Died February 24, 1933, in Greenwich, Conn.

Father, Ralph Barnard Griswold (M.D. Cincinnati Medical School 1857); physician in Banksville; son of Lucius and Julia Elizabeth (Barnard) Griswold, of Colebrook, Conn. Mother, Mary Jane (Derby) Griswold.

Winsted (Conn.) High School. Biology course; Senior appointment; a Class statistician; member York Hall and Chi Phi.
Sheffield Scientific School

M.D. Columbia 1885; had since practiced in Greenwich; surgeon at Greenwich General Hospital 1900–1931; post surgeon for Fairfield County several years; health officer of Town of Greenwich 1886–1891; member Board of Education since 1904; chief of staff of Greenwich Hospital Association 1921–27; director of Putnam Trust Company since its organization; fellow of New York Academy of Medicine; member Connecticut State Medical Society (member of committee on hospitals) and Fairfield County and Greenwich Medical societies; member Sons of the American Revolution and Second Congregational Church, Greenwich.

Married (1) April 4, 1889, in Greenwich, Mattie Elizabeth Kingman Comkey, of Amherst, daughter of Francis Kingman, of Springfield, Mass. Dr. and Mrs. Griswold separated later. Married (2) December 25, 1906, in Lawrenceville, N. Y., Caroline Estelle, daughter of William and Ellen Morrell. One son, Ralph Morrell, Bowdoin ex-'30, and a foster daughter, Virginia.

Death due to intestinal carcinoma. Buried in Putnam Cemetery, Greenwich. Survived by wife, son, daughter, and a sister, Mrs Wilbur Cooper, of Colebrook, Conn.

Frederick Elijah Beach, Ph.B. 1883.

Born June 12, 1863, in New Haven, Conn.
Died April 6, 1933, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Elijah Beach, a manufacturer; son of Elnathan and Abigail (Parker) Beach, of Cheshire, Conn. Mother, Ellen (Botsford) Beach; daughter of Isaac and Melissa Hart (Porter) Botsford, of Berlin, Conn. First cousin: Charles P. Botsford, '94 M.

The New Grammar School, New Haven Dynamic engineering course; honorable mention in all studies of Freshman year and also in mathematics and mechanical drawing; honors in mathematics Junior year and in dynamic engineering Senior year; honorary graduate member The Colony and Berzelius.

Learned the machinist's trade after graduation; draftsman in motive power department of New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad in New Haven 1887–89; student in Yale Graduate School 1890–93 (Ph.D. 1893); member of Yale faculty from 1891 until retirement in 1931 (assistant in physics 1891–94, instructor 1894–95, and assistant professor from 1895); associate editor of American Journal of Science 1921–1933; co-author, with Professor Charles S. Hastings, '70 S., of Textbook on General Physics (1899); contributed section on physics to A. F. Taggart's Handbook of Ore Dressing (1927); contributed also to Popular Science Monthly, Yale Scientific Monthly, and Transactions of American Institute of Mining Engineers and of Metallurgical and Chemical Engineers; member American Physical Society; charter member Yale chapter of Sigma Xi in 1895, vice-president 1895-96, and president 1896-97; director of Chebeague Island (Maine) Golf Club 1929-1933; president of Class of 1883 S. 1889-1903; deacon in Church of the Redeemer (Congregational) since 1896.

Married April 15, 1911, in Chicago, Blanche Nelle, daughter of Charles Frederick and Jessie Helen (Bailey) Harvey. An adopted daughter, Nancy Moreland.

Death due to arteriosclerotic heart disease. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife and daughter.

Robert Hawthorne Wylie, Ph.B. 1883.

Born March 25, 1863, in Chester, S. C.
Died January 13, 1933, in New York City.

Father, Dr. Alexander Pearson Wylie; physician in Chester; son of Peter Wylie, 2d, and Annie (Evans) Wylie, of Lewis Station, S. C. Mother, Juliet Agnes (Gill) Wylie, daughter of Robert Walker and Eliza S. (McNeel) Gill, of Lancaster, S. C. Yale relatives include Edward A. Gill Wylie, '08 S., and W. Gill Wylie, Jr., ex-'17 S. (nephews), and Donald McL. Wylie, '33 S. (grandnephew).

Chester Academy. Biology course, first prize in English composition Freshman year; Senior preliminary appointment; secretary and treasurer of his Class Senior year; member Class Picture Committee and The Colony and Berzelius.

M.D. New York University 1885; interne at Bellevue Hospital, New York, 1885-86, had since practiced in New York City, specializing in gynecology and abdominal surgery; connected with Bellevue Hospital since 1886, at first with the outdoor dispensary; assistant visitor in surgery and assistant gynecologist 1888-1907, visiting gynecologist 1907-1915, and consulting gynecologist from 1915; associate surgeon at the Woman's Hospital since 1917; consulting gynecologist to Hackensack (N. J.) Hospital since 1912; consulting surgeon to St. Elizabeth's Hospital, New York, since 1912; professor of gynecology at New York Polyclinic Medical School and Hospital 1907-1915 and consultant in gynecology since 1915; associated for some years with his brother, W. Gill Wylie, M.D. Bellevue Hospital Medical College 1871, in conducting the Samaritan Hospital (a private institution) in New York; with his brother, developed and owned two electric power transmission plants in South Carolina; director of Southern Power Company and Anderson Water, Light & Power Company; member Academy of Medicine, Greater New York Medical Society, New York County Medical Society, New York Obstetrical Society, Bellevue Hospital Alumni Association, South Carolina Society, and the Church of the Heavenly Rest (Episcopal), New York.

Married November 23, 1904, in Bayonne, N. J., Belle Green, daughter of Randolph M. and Emma (Hill) Mulford. Children: Lucilla Annie, Yale School of Music 1926-27, the wife of Henry C. Potter, '26; Robert Hawthorne, Jr., '27; Kathryn; Amos Kelso, '31; Belle Mulford; and Winifred.

Death due to influenza. Buried in Quogue (N. Y.) Cemetery. Survived by wife, two sons, and four daughters.

Edwin Musser Herr, Ph.B. 1884.
Died December 24, 1932, in New York City.

Father, Theodore Witmer Herr, a lawyer and realtor; son of Benjamin Groff and Mary Emma (Witmer) Herr, of Strasburg, Pa. Mother, Annie (Musser) Herr; daughter of Dr. Martin Musser and Anna (Hostetter) Musser, of Lancaster County, Pa. Yale relatives include three nephews. Charles F. Clise, '11 S., James W. Clise, Jr., '22 S., and Herbert T. Herr, Jr., '23 S.

Boston Latin School. Dynamic engineering course; in Freshman year prize for excellence in all studies, prizes in physics, drawing, and chemistry, and first prize in English composition; honorable mention in mathematics Junior year; preliminary appointment Senior year; member Picture Committee and The Colony and Berzelius.

Apprentice with The Pennsylvania Railroad at Altoona 1884-85 and in shops of Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad 1885-86; with Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company 1886-1890, as draftsman, and engineer of tests 1886-87, superintendent of telegraph 1887-89 and superintendent of St. Louis Division 1889-1890; division master mechanic of Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad Company 1890-92; general superintendent of Grant Locomotive Works, Chicago, 1892-94; in 1894 spent six months abroad (principally in Germany) studying railroad methods and mechanics and in 1895 spent several months in Russia for a New York syndicate, investigating conditions for construction of railroads; general manager of Gibbs Electric Company of Milwaukee 1895; assistant superintendent of motive power and machinery for Chicago & Northwestern Railroad Company 1895-96 and superintendent of motive power and machinery for Northern Pacific Railroad Company 1896-98; with Westinghouse Air Brake Company 1898-1907, as assistant general manager 1898-99, general manager 1899-1905, and vice-president 1903-07; first vice-president of Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Company 1905-1911, president 1911-1929, vice-chairman since 1929, and director since 1905; president of Westinghouse Lamp Company 1911-1930; vice-president of Bryant and Perkins Electric companies of Bridgeport, Conn., 1911-1927 and president 1927-1930; vice-president of R. D. Nuttall Company of Pittsburgh 1915-1925 and president 1925-1930; director of East Pittsburgh Savings & Trust Company 1915-1925; connected with National Pittsburgh Car Builders Association 1894-1900; president and director of American Manufacturers Export Association 1923-25; chairman of American Industrial Mission to Mexico in 1924; on advisory board for conference on bituminous coal at Pittsburgh under auspices of Carnegie Institute of Technology in 1926; member American committee which sponsored World Engineering Congress at Tokyo in 1929; member of Yale Corporation 1920-1932; on Committee on the Presidency 1920, Prudential Committee 1921-28, Educational Policy Committee 1920-25 (chairman 1922-23), Committee on Buildings and Grounds from 1925 (chairman 1928-29 and 1931-32), and Committee on Architectural Plan from 1928 (vice-chairman 1931-32); president of Yale Engineering Association 1915-17 and member of executive committee 1918-1932; Sc.D. Franklin and Marshall 1911; honorary M.A. Yale 1915; in 1920 received from Emperor of Japan decoration of Order of the Rising Sun in recognition of the training of Japanese students at the Westinghouse works and for the company's aid in electrical development of Japan; member of advisory board of Yale Scientific Magazine 1928-29; contributor to Business and the Church by Jerome Davis (1926), to 14th edition of Encyclopedia Britannica, and to Yale Graphic, 50th Anniversary Supplement of Yale Daily News, and Yale Alumni Weekly; member American Society of Mechanical Engineers (vice-president 1910-12) and American Institute of Electrical Engineers; affiliated with Park Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York.

Married June 14, 1900, in Northumberland, Pa., Mary, daughter of William Temple and Rachel Ann (Wheatly) Forsyth. No children.

Edward Simpson Wilson, Ph.B. 1885.

Born February 25, 1862, in New York City.
Died March 5, 1933, in New York City.

Father, Capt. John Wall Wilson, U.S.N.; in U. S. Revenue Marine Service in Civil War; second in command of second Grinnell Arctic Expedition in search of Sir John Franklin; decorated by British Government with Royal Order of the Star and Garter, the silver medal for Arctic Discoveries 1818–1855, and a special gold medal given to officers engaged in the American Arctic Expedition; son of Alexander Murray and Jane (Brobston) Wilson. Mother, Lavinia (Simpson) Wilson; daughter of Edward and Catharine Eleanor Brown (Fay) Simpson, of New York City.

General Russell’s Collegiate and Classical Institute. Biology course; member Picture Committee Senior year and York Hall and Chi Phi.

Studied at College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia, 1885–88; subsequently engaged in private tutoring for about three years; assistant at Camp Chocorua, a boys’ camp, at Asquam, N. H., in 1894; had since been owner and director of Camp Pasquaney, a summer school for boys, on Newfound Lake, Bridgewater, N. H.; member Sons of the American Revolution and Church of the Transfiguration (Episcopal), New York.

Unmarried.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Green-Wood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by no immediate relatives.

Frank Warren Wentworth, Ph.B. 1887.

Born May 14, 1868, in Chicago, Ill.
Died October 31, 1932, in Chicago, Ill.

Harvard School, Chicago. Civil engineering course; on Athletic Team in 1886 and 1887; Class statistician; member York Hall and Chi Phi.

Salesman and sales manager with Armour & Company 1887–89; civil engineer on Board of the Sanitary District of Chicago 1889–1891; with Milwaukee Lithographing Company in Chicago 1891–1914, at first as salesman and from 1909 as vice-president and director; in 1914 formed and became vice-president of Wentworth & Rice, printers, and later became vice-president of the Shirley Press; retired from active business in 1928; secretary of Chicago Athletic Association in 1897 and 1898 and director 1904-09; a governor of South Shore Country Club 1911-14.
Tale Obituary Record

Married (1) January 9, 1895, in Chicago, Phoebe Grace, daughter of Seneca Dennis and Elizabeth (Pruyne) Kimbark. One son, Kimbark Jeffery Howell, '21 S. Mr. and Mrs. Wentworth were divorced in 1902. Married (2) October 2, 1906, in Galesburg, Ill., Bessie Louise Cooke, Knox ex-'02, daughter of Forrest Fenimore Cooke (B.A. Knox 1870). Mr. and Mrs. Wentworth were divorced in 1921. Married (3) May 7, 1927, in Chicago, Bessie Urmston Bender (Oxford College 1894-95), daughter of Benton Enyeart and Martha Ellen (Emerick) Urmston.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Rosehill Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife and son.

George Robert Carter, Ph.B. 1888.

Born December 28, 1866, in Honolulu, Hawaii.
Died February 11, 1933, in Kailua, Oahu, Hawaii.

Father, Henry Alpheus Peirce Carter; senior partner in firm of C. Brewer & Company, Ltd., sugar factors; minister from Hawaii to United States, England, France, Germany, and Spain; son of Joseph Oliver and Hannah Trufant (Lord) Carter, of Honolulu. Mother, Sybil Augusta (Judd) Carter; daughter of Gerrit Parmele Judd (M.D. Fairfield, N. Y., Medical College 1825) and Laura (Fish) Judd, of Honolulu. Yale relatives include. Albert F. Judd, '62 (uncle), John R. Galt, '89 (brother-in-law); John Galt, '17, and Carter Galt, '19 (nephews); and Alfred W. Carter, '93 L., Albert F. and James R. Judd, both '97, Rev. Henry P. Judd, '01, Allan W. Judd, ex-'01, and Charles S. Judd, '05 (first cousins)

Phillips-Andover. Civil engineering course; on Football Team three years and University Crew Junior and Senior years; member Delta Psi.

Took graduate work at Yale 1888-89; connected for a time with Rhode Island Experiment Station at Kingston; teller of Seattle National Bank 1889-1892; confidential financial agent at Seattle for Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York 1892-95; consul for Hawaii at Seattle 1891-95; returned to Hawaii in 1895; cashier of C. Brewer & Company, Ltd., 1895-97; deputy auditor general of the Republic of Hawaii June-September, 1895; member of Audit System Commission since 1895; an organizer of Hawaiian Trust & Investment Company in 1897 (manager 1898-1903, vice-president 1903-1912, and second vice-president 1912-17), of Bank of Hawaii (auditor 1897-1903 and director in 1912 and 1915), of Hawaiian
Sheffield Scientific School

Fertilizer Company in 1898 (manager 1900-02), of Judd Building Company in 1898 (treasurer 1898-1904 and vice-president 1908 and 1909), and of San Carlos Milling Company in the Philippines (president and director) 1913-16; helped reorganize Hawaiian Electric Company (director 1899 and treasurer 1902-03), Mutual Telephone Company in 1909 (treasurer 1909-1910), and Wireless Telegraph Company in 1910; vice-president of Alexander & Baldwin, Ltd., 1900-01, auditor 1901-02, and director 1903-04, 1907-1910, and 1913-14; director of Onomea Sugar Company since 1927; trustee of Central Union Church of Honolulu 1910-15, Palama Settlement 1914-19, Bernice Pauahi Bishop Museum since 1928; member of Tax Appeal Court for First Judicial District, Island of Oahu, 1900-01 and of Hawaiian Senate in 1901; secretary of Hawaii February-November, 1903, and second governor of Hawaii and commander in chief of Hawaiian Militia 1903-07; commissioner of agriculture and forestry 1907-1911; member Park Commission 1898-1901, Board of Archives Commission 1907-1914, Board of Health 1912-15, and Historical Commission of the Territory of Hawaii 1921-23; president of Chamber of Commerce of Honolulu 1914; vice-chairman and chairman of American Red Cross in Hawaii and served under it at Mars-sur-Allier and Le Mans, France, as Captain and Major, U.S.A., September, 1918-October, 1919; awarded a second Médaille de la Reconnaissance Française (through the Red Cross) December 28, 1920; assisted in compilation of History of C. Brewer & Company, Ltd. (1926); published annual reports of governor of Hawaii (1904-07) and report of Sanitary Commission of Hawaii (1912); vice-president of Yale Club of Boston in 1917; member executive committee of Yale Alumni Association of Hawaii 1915-16, 1920-23, and 1926-28; chairman for Hawaii and Philippines of Pacific division in Yale Endowment campaign; an organizer of the University Club in 1907; a founder of the Country Club in 1906 and president 1907-09; honorary president of Honolulu district council of Boy Scouts of America since 1923; honorary member Hawaiian Sugar Association since June, 1932; life member Queen’s Hospital Corporation; member American Forestry Association, Social Science Association, Institute of Pacific Relations (Hawaii group), Navy League of the United States, International Chamber of Commerce of the United States, Hawaiian Mission Children’s Society, Hawaiian Society of Sons of the American Revolution, Hawaiian, Oregon State, and Washington State Historical societies, New England Historic Genealogical Society, Honolulu Symphony Society, Yale Engineering Association, and Yale Library Associates.

Married April 19, 1892, in Rochester, N. Y., Helen, daughter of Henry Alvah and Helen Phoebe (Griffin) Strong, and sister of Henry G. Strong, ex-'96 S. Children: Elizabeth (died in 1928), the wife of the late Everardus Bogardus, ex-'18 S.; Phoebe (Mrs. Douglas C. Alexander); and George Robert, Jr., '28.

Death due to generalized arteriosclerosis and coronary occlusion. Cremation took place and ashes were buried in Oahu Cemetery, Nuuana Valley, Honolulu. Survived by wife, son, one daughter, three grandchildren, and a sister, Frances Isabelle Carter Crehore, the wife of Frederic M. Crehore (B.A. Harvard 1881).

John Raymond Mitchell, Ph.B. 1889.

Born January 9, 1868, in Franklin, Pa
Died January 31, 1933, in Minneapolis, Minn.

Father, John Lamb Mitchell; president of Exchange Bank of Franklin, son of Thomas and Eliza (Lamb) Mitchell, of Bellefonte, Pa. Mother, Harriet (Raymond) Mitchell; daughter of Aaron William and Sarah (Whitaker) Raymond, of Troy, N. Y.

Phillips-Andover and Hopkins Grammar School. Civil engineering course; treasurer of Baseball Club Freshman year; member York Hall and Chi Phi.

Civil engineer in Seattle, Wash., 1889-1894; in oil business, as an independent producer, in Franklin 1894-97; had since been engaged in banking; vice-president of Winona (Minn.) Deposit Bank 1897-1900 and president 1900-06; president of Capital National Bank of St. Paul 1906-1920; chairman of board of directors of Capital Trust & Savings Bank 1916-1921; in 1921 appointed by President Harding member of Federal Reserve Board for term of ten years (had been member of its advisory council since 1919), but resigned position in 1923; in 1924 appointed by Federal Reserve Board its agent in Minneapolis and chairman of board of Federal Reserve Bank and served in that capacity until death; president of Minnesota Bankers Association 1904-05 and on executive council of American Bankers Association 1905-08; president of Yale Alumni Association of the Northwest in 1910 and represented that association on Alumni Board 1919-1922; member House of Hope Church (Presbyterian), St. Paul.

Married (1) January 29, 1896, in Winona, Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Henry W. and Margaret (Plummer) Lamberton. Children Margaret (died in infancy); John Lamberton; Eleanor, the wife of William H. Kennedy (B.A. University of Minnesota 1915); Catherine (died in infancy); and Raymond Otis, '28. Mrs. Mitchell died in July, 1908. Married (2) November 14, 1919, in New York City, Adelia Sanders Anderson, daughter of George Washington and Bertha Louise (Brown) Sanders. No children by second marriage.
Death due to coronary thrombosis. Buried in Winona Cemetery. Survived by wife, one daughter, sons, five grandchildren, a step-daughter, Mrs. Allan L. Melhado, a sister, Miss Lida L. Mitchell, of Hood River, Ore., and three brothers, James L. Mitchell, '07, Mark D. Mitchell (B.A. Amherst 1894), of Independence, Kans., and Thomas W. Mitchell, of Franklin, Pa.

John Conover Powell, Ph.B. 1890.
Born December 15, 1869, in Dayton, Ohio.
Died November 10, 1932, in Seattle, Wash.
Father, John Powell, merchant and banker; son of William and Catherine (Edwards) Powell, of Herefordshire, England. Mother, Caroline (Conover) Powell.
Phillips-Andover. Civil engineering course; member York Hall and Chi Phi.
Constructor with Maryland Steel Company 1890–91; studied electrical engineering at Johns Hopkins 1892–93 and practiced that profession in Baltimore 1893–95; an organizer of Phelps Manufacturing Company (bicycles), New York City, in 1895 and its secretary until 1897; engaged in gold mining in the Klondike 1897–99; manager Troy Laundry Company, Albany, N. Y., 1899–1900, president of Powell Investment Company in Seattle 1900–1910; engaged in real estate and insurance business in Seattle under his own name from 1910 until retirement in 1928; member Trinity Episcopal Church, Seattle.
Married August 22, 1902, in Columbus, Cecilia, daughter of Reuben and Sara Ann (Fawley) Nave. Children: Cecilia Caroline, John Conover, Jr., and Thomas Edward.
Death due to chronic myocarditis and acute nephritis. Buried in Evergreen Park Cemetery, Seattle. Survived by wife, daughter, sons, a half brother, Rev. Arthur Chilton Powell (B.A. Amherst 1876; D.D. St. John's 1905), of Baltimore, and a sister, Mrs. Frank B. Babbitt, of Detroit, Mich.

Laurence Andrew Dodsworth, Ph.B. 1891.
Born April 1, 1870, in New York City.
Died July 3, 1932, in Charlotte, N. C.
Father, Nawton Frederick Dodsworth (graduate of Oxford University); engaged at various times in life insurance, jewelry, and automobile business; son of Lady Nawton Smith, of Kent County, England, and Island of Ceylon. Mother, Alwilda Prouty (Dam) Dodsworth; daughter of Andrew Jackson and Hannah (Wallage) Dam, of New Bedford, Mass.

Moses Brown School, Providence, R. I., and The Hill School Mechanical engineering course.

Traveling salesman for Charlotte Machine Company (designers, erectors, and equippers of cotton mills) 1895–96; entered the cotton business in 1901 and the next year became engaged in the cotton brokerage business as member of New York and New Orleans Cotton exchanges; in May, 1906, sold his seats on the exchanges and became secretary and treasurer of Mayes Manufacturing Company (cotton manufacturers) of Charlotte; engaged in farming at Easton, Md., 1913–14; subsequently agent in Richmond, Va., of Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, traveling salesman for Stockdell-Myers Hardware Company of Petersburg, Va., and southern agent in Charlotte for Gregory & Banks, Inc. (cotton yarns) of New York; engaged in independent business as a cotton yarn broker from about 1919 to 1924; had since been special representative in Charlotte for Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company; member First Presbyterian Church, Charlotte.

Married September 25, 1895, in Charlotte, Mary Moore, daughter of Joseph H. Young, University of Virginia ex ’71, and Ida Lavinia (Moore) Young. One son, Gillespie John.

Frederick James Easterbrook, Ph.B. 1891.

Born December 11, 1870, in New Haven, Conn.
Died March 30, 1933, in New York City.

Father, Nathan Easterbrook; president of manufacturing firms of Easterbrook & Company and the Humiston Company in New Haven; president of New Haven Chamber of Commerce; special deputy collector of United States customs; Captain and Regimental Quartermaster with 34th New York Volunteer Infantry in Civil War, son of Nathan and Caroline (Bagg) Easterbrook, of Herkimer, N. Y. Mother, Mary Catherine (Feeter) Easterbrook; daughter of John and Nancy (Failing) Feeter, of Little Falls, N. Y. Cousin: John A C. Feeter, ’01 S.

Hopkins Grammar School and Hillhouse High School. Mechanical engineering course.

Draftsman with Edison General Electric Company in Chicago 1891–92; connected with engineering department of New York, Willard Rowe Carroll, Ph.B. 1892.

Born February 4, 1871, in Wallingford, Conn.
Died February 3, 1933, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, William Nathaniel Carroll, a carpenter; son of William Nathaniel and Hannah (Porter) Carroll, of Milford, Conn. Mother, Philippa Jane (Rowe) Carroll; daughter of Thomas and Amelia (Jewel) Rowe, of Colborne, Ontario, Canada. Great-great-uncle: Noah Webster (B.A. 1778).

Meriden (Conn.) High School. Mechanical engineering course; member Sheffield Military Company.

Draftsman with Waterbury (Conn.) Farrel Foundry 1892–93; assistant to master mechanic of Randolph-Clowes Company (seamless tubes) in Waterbury 1893–98 and with American Ring Company of Waterbury 1898–99; consulting engineer with Rome (N. Y.) Brass & Copper Company 1899–1904 and again 1910–16; consulting mechanical engineer with American Brass Company of Waterbury 1904–05; superintendent of Peck, Stowe & Wilcox Company (hardware) of Southington, Conn., 1905–1910; in charge of plant of Seymour Manufacturing Company of Derby, Conn., 1916–17 and also consulting engineer with Derby Manufacturing Company and manager of H. A. Mathews Manufacturing Company of Seymour (driving bands); from 1917 to 1919 connected with Ordnance Department, building and operating plants for production of shells at Derby, Seymour, and Baltimore; consulting engineer on rolling mills 1919-1925 and general manager of Lyons Manufacturing Company of North Haven (automobile accessories) 1921-23; since 1925 had been consulting engineer with Farrel-Birmingham Foundry of Ansonia, Conn.; member University Glee Club of New Haven and Center Church (Congregational).

Death due to arteriosclerotic heart disease. Buried in Oak Hill Cemetery, Southington. Survived by daughter, two brothers, Dwight F. Carroll (B.A. Wesleyan 1887) and Charles C. Carroll, of Wallingford, and two sisters, Miss Jennie L. Carroll, of Wallingford, and Mrs Henry Butler, of Meriden

Gustave Erwin Huttle, Ph.B. 1892.

Born February 5, 1867, in New York City

Name originally Huttelmaier; form changed to Huttle in 1918.

Knoxville (Tenn.) public schools; attended University of Tennessee 1884-86. Entered Sheffield Scientific School in 1890; mechanical engineering course; honorable mention in mathematics and divided prize in German Junior year; honors Senior year.

Inspector of guns for U. S. Government at Philadelphia 1892-93 and of engines for Pope Manufacturing Company in Chicago and Hartford, Conn, 1893-95; draftsman in mechanical department of The Delaware & Hudson Company's coal department in Scranton, Pa, 1897-1901; mechanical engineer for H. C. Frick Coke Company at Scottdale 1901-1930; had since been an independent consulting engineer in Scottdale, member Scottdale School Board 1925-1932 (treasurer 1926-1932) and Scottdale Library Board 1930-32; member American Institute of Mining Engineers.

Death due to neuritis and phlebitis. Buried in Scottdale Cemetery. Survived by wife, son, and daughter.
Robert Valentine Massey, Ph.B. 1892.

Born September 29, 1871, in Dover, Del.
Died September 18, 1932, in Wayne, Pa.

Father, George Valentine Massey (LL.D. Ursinus 1910), a lawyer; solicitor for Philadelphia, Wilmington & Baltimore Railroad; assistant general solicitor and general counsel for the Pennsylvania Railroad; Lieutenant Colonel in Civil War; one of four commissioners in charge of World’s Fair, Chicago, 1893; son of Isaac and May (Robinson) Massey, of Whiteland, Pa. Mother, Mary (Woodall) Massey; daughter of John and Mathilda (Calley) Woodall, of Delaware.

The Hill School. Civil engineering course; member Sheffield Military Company and St. Elmo.

Had been connected with the Pennsylvania Railroad since graduation; rodman in construction department 1892–95; in office of principal assistant engineer, maintenance of way department, at Altoona, Pa., 1895; assistant supervisor of western Pennsylvania division at Freeport 1895–97, of Baltimore division 1897–99, and of middle division at Mifflin, Pa., 1899–1900; supervisor of Schuylkill division at Reading 1900–02 and of Philadelphia, Baltimore & Washington Railroad (middle division) 1902–05; yard supervisor at Pittsburgh 1905–07; division engineer, Schuylkill division, at Reading 1907–09 and of New York division at Jersey City, N.J., 1909–1911; superintendent of New York, Philadelphia & Norfolk Railroad (a subsidiary), with headquarters at Cape Charles, Va., 1911–14, of Manhattan division at New York City 1914–16, and of New York division at Jersey City 1916–17; general superintendent of East Pennsylvania grand division at Altoona 1917–18 and of New Jersey grand division at New York City 1918–1920; assistant general manager of eastern region, with headquarters in Philadelphia, 1920–23 and general manager 1923–26; assistant vice-president of personnel at Philadelphia 1926–28 and vice-president since 1928; member Yale Engineering Association.

Death due to arteriosclerosis and heart disease. Buried in Presbyterian Church Cemetery, Dover. Survived by wife, son, a brother, George G. Massey, of Easton, Md., and three sisters, Mrs. John Biggs and Mrs. Macmillan Hoopes, both of Wilmington, Del., and Mrs. Penrose R. Perkins, of Chestnut Hill, Pa.
Charles Cornwell Ramsdell, Ph.B. 1892.
Born October 23, 1869, in New Haven, Conn.
Died February 8, 1933, in Springfield, Mass.

Father, Daniel Perley Ramsdell; owner and manager of D. P. Ramsdell Photo Studio; member Minute Men of Southern New Hampshire in Civil War; son of Daniel Amos and Mary Ann (Symonds) Ramsdell, of New Ipswich, N. H. Mother, Margaret Law (Hayes) Ramsdell, daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth (Law) Hayes, of Scotland.

Hillhouse High School. Mechanical engineering course; member Sheffield Military Company.

Connected with Gilbert & Barker Manufacturing Company of West Springfield from 1892 until retirement in October, 1932; employed at the factory 1892-93; salesman in the New York office 1893-94, manager of Boston office 1894-1909; treasurer of the company 1909-1911; vice-president 1911-1929; president 1929-1932; and director since 1911; director also of Union Trust Company, Standard Development Company, Fire & Marine Insurance Company, and Wesson Memorial Hospital, all of Springfield, Springfield Y.M.C.A., and Wilbraham Academy; western regional manager in Massachusetts of Share-the-Work Movement; chairman of War Service Committee; secretary of Class of 1892 S. from graduation until 1898, member United Church (Congregational), New Haven.

Death due to coronary thrombosis. Buried in Springfield Cemetery. Survived by two sisters, Mrs Caroline R. Herman and Miss Charlotte B. Ramsdell, both of New Haven.

George Frederick Root, Ph.B. 1894.
Born March 23, 1871, in Buffalo, N.Y.
Died October 6, 1932, in Buffalo, N.Y.

Father, Samuel Root, a merchant; manager of Fairbanks Company (heavy hardware and mill supplies); son of Samuel and Julia Ann (Mowry) Root, of Lubec, Maine. Mother, Margaret (Cameron) Root; daughter of Donald and Nancy (Monroe) Cameron, of New Glasgow, Nova Scotia.

Shaw’s School, Buffalo, and private tutors. Mechanical and electrical engineering course.

Engineer with construction department of Buffalo City Railroad Company 1894-95; manager of valve department of Fairbanks Company 1895-1905; organizer of firm of Root, Neal & Company, dealers in special machinery and engineers' and contractors' supplies, in 1905, secretary of the company until 1917, and president and treasurer since 1917; president and treasurer of Farnham Manufacturing Company (paper mill machinery) 1907-1930 and of Buffalo Apparatus Company (laboratory equipment and supplies) 1920-1932; Captain of Company E, 74th Infantry, New York National Guard, 1912-14; member Yale Engineering Association, Society of Colonial Wars, Sons of the American Revolution, Veterans Association of 74th Regiment, and Westminster Presbyterian Church, Buffalo.

Married June 26, 1907, in Buffalo, Alice Mary Nairn (B.A. Vassar 1895), daughter of William John and Elizabeth Ross (Walsh) Nairn. Children: Margaret Nairn, the wife of John L. Auch (B.A. University of Buffalo 1928); and Candace Olney.

Death due to chronic myocarditis. Buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Buffalo. Survived by wife, two daughters (Mrs. Auch died March 17, 1933), and mother.

Irvine Sinclair Jackson, Ph.B. 1895.

Born March 15, 1874, in Chicago, Ill.
Died October 23, 1932, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, Willis Gallup Jackson; in real estate and insurance business under his own name; president of Chicago Real Estate Board; soldier in Civil War; son of Jerome Bonaparte and Lydia Ann (Ward) Jackson, of North Adams, Mass. Mother, Flora (James) Jackson; daughter of William and Catherine (Sinclair) James, of Chicago. Uncle: Rev. George A. Jackson, '68 S.

The Hill School. Electrical engineering course; on Class Baseball Team Freshman year; member The Colony and Berzelius.

Employed by Western Electric Company, Chicago, in the installation of electric plants, 1900-03; Electrician (1st Class), U. S. Navy, on board U.S.S. "West Virginia" 1906-1910; credit manager with Nicoll, The Tailor, and William Jerrems' Sons, tailors, Chicago, 1910-17; etcher and photographer with Chicago Daily News 1919-1929.

Married January 18, 1911, in Chicago, Lulu Alice, daughter of Louis Frank and Mary Elizabeth (Slacke) Johnson. One son (died at birth).

Death due to carcinoma of the larynx. Buried in Rosehill Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife and a sister, Mrs. Alfred K. Woodcock, of Lincoln, Nebr.
Yale Obituary Record

Frederick Israel Jansen, Ph.B. 1895.

Born December 3, 1874, in Fonda, N. Y.
Died September 14, 1932, in San Diego, Calif.

Father, Ferguson Jansen; partner in hardware firm of Jansen & Huestis, Fonda; son of Frederick Elmendorf and Sarah (Farquharson) Jansen, of Fonda. Mother, Laura Luella (Buckbee) Jansen, daughter of Israel I. and Anna Cady (Bunn) Buckbee, of Fonda.

Amsterdam (N. Y.) Academy. Attended Union College one year as member of Class of 1895 (member Alpha Delta Phi). Biological course; Senior appointment.

M.D. Albany Medical College 1898, practiced in Fonda 1898–1910 and in Salt Lake City, Utah, 1910–17; commissioned First Lieutenant, Medical Corps, U. S. Army, June 19, 1917, and attended Medical Officers' Training Camp, Fort Riley, to September; in command of Ambulance Company 160, 115th Sanitary Train, 40th Division, Camp Kearney, September, 1917–August 10, 1918, and overseas until January, 1919, director of ambulance companies, 2d Sanitary Train, Mars-la-Tours, February–June 22, 1919; promoted Captain October, 1918, and Major March, 1919; received discharge August 2, 1919; resided in Salt Lake City until 1930 and had since made his home in Seattle.

Death due to hemorrhagic Bright's disease and uremia. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Fonda. Survived by father and a brother, Romeyn B. Jansen (B.A. Williams 1899), of Seattle, Wash.

William Usher Parsons, Ph.B. 1895.

Born October 24, 1873, in Kennebunk, Maine
Died May 30, 1933, in Birmingham, Ala.

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.

Charles Clearman Walbridge, Ph.B. 1895.

Born November 7, 1872, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Father, Olin George Walbridge; partner in firm of Calhoun, Robbins & Company (wholesale notions); vice-president and a director of the Pacific Bank, New York City; son of George and Lawrenceville School. Select course; member Freshman Football Team, Cap and Gown and Class Cup committees, and The Colony and Berzelius.

Spent the year 1895-96 traveling; engaged in farming at South Egremont, Mass., 1896-1902; in business in New York City from 1902 until retirement in 1906, during the last year as secretary of Paul Taylor Brown Company, fish packers; since 1911 had made his home in Springfield; vice-president of Yale Alumni Association of Western Massachusetts 1915-1924; vice-president of Class of 1895 S. 1915-1925 and president since 1925; president of the Berzelius Trust Association 1913-1926.

Death due to chronic interstitial nephritis and acute myocardial failure. Buried in Green-Wood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, one son, daughter, three brothers, George O. Walbridge, of Brooklyn, and Robert R. and John H. Walbridge, both of New York City, and a sister, Mrs. Anna Walbridge McWilliams, of Princeton, N. J.

Jorge Armstrong, Ph.B. 1896.

Born August 15, 1873, in Ponce, Puerto Rico.
Died October 26, 1932, in Ponce, Puerto Rico.

Father, Cárlos Armstrong, a coffee and sugar dealer; member of firms of Lohse & Company, Cárlos Armstrong, and Cárlos Armstrong & Hijos Succs.; son of Dr. Peter Lothario Armstrong (London Medical College) and Antonia (Toro) Armstrong, of Ponce. Mother, Eulalia (Pou) Armstrong; daughter of José and Cayetana (Carreras) Pou, of Ponce.

Bordentown (N. J.) Military Institute. Civil engineering course; member Theta Xi.

Engineer with Post & McCord, iron builders, Brooklyn, N. Y., June-December, 1896, and with Frank R. Long, contractor, New York City, January-June, 1897; associated with his father in the coffee and sugar business 1895-1920; became member of firm of Cárlos Armstrong & Hijos Succs. in 1900; served as managing partner 1909-1920; engaged in coffee planting independently from 1920 until his death; president of Distrito Cafetero 1925-1932 (also secretary in 1931), of Ponce branch of Puerto Rico Association 1910-11, and of credit department of Coffee Growers Association in 1932 (also director); vice-president of Cafeteros de Puerto Rico 1925–29 and of Puerto Rico Insular Fair 1911; director of Credito y Ahorro Ponceno 1912; during the war served as member of Board of Enlistment of Ponce; member of the Iglesia de las Mercedes, Ponce.

Married (1) May 26, 1901, in Adjuntas, Puerto Rico, Angela, daughter of Lucas and Angela (Villaronga) Amadeo. Mrs. Armstrong died October 23, 1901. Married (2) March 16, 1905, in Ponce, Dolores Toro Vendrell, daughter of Rafael Toro and Rosario (Vendrell)
Gandia. No children.

Death due to septicemia. Buried in the Catholic Cemetery, Ponce.
Survived by wife, two sisters, Julia Armstrong Poventud (graduate College of the Sacred Heart, Manhattanville, N. Y., 1902), the wife of José A. Poventud, University of Virginia ex-'04, and Isabel Armstrong Porrata-Doria, College of the Sacred Heart ex-'06, the wife of Frank L. Porrata-Doria (C.E. Cornell 1913), both of Ponce, and two brothers, Alberto Armstrong (graduate London International Col-

Clarence Baker Sturges, Ph.B. 1896.

Born June 19, 1874, in Scranton, Pa.
Died October 25, 1932, in Fairfield, Conn.

Father, Edward Baker Sturges, a lawyer; president of Ontario,
Carbondale & Scranton Railroad Company; coal operator with Pine Hill, Lackawanna, and New York & Scranton Coal companies; son of Rev Thomas Benedict Sturges (B.A. 1835, Yale Divinity School 1838) and Hannah West (Baker) Sturges, of Greenfield Hill, Conn.
Mother, Marion (Sanderson) Sturges; daughter of George and Marion W. (Kingsbury) Sanderson, of Scranton

Phillips-Andover and New York Military Academy, Cornwall-on-Hudson, N. Y. Civil engineering course; on Class Crew and Class Football Team; substitute on University Football Team; Class treasurer Freshman year; Class deacon three years; member Graduation Committee and St Elmo.

Employed with a mining engineering corps of New York & Scranton Coal Company 1896–97; in charge of the company's Ontario colliery at Peckville, Pa., 1897–98; general manager of that company and of Lackawanna Coal Company 1897–98 and of Clarence Coal Company 1898–1900; connected with Pine Hill Collieries Company 1898–1926, as general manager 1898–1922, vice-president and president 1919–1925, and then chairman of the board; vice-president of Seiler Coal Company 1922–26; connected for a time with sales department of Charles D. Norton & Company, miners and shippers of anthracite coal; organized Spencer Heater Company and its president three years, vice-president of J. A. Breman Drilling Company 1900-08 and president of the company and its successor (in 1915), Pennsylvania Drilling Company, 1908-1918; treasurer of Scranton Steam Pump Company 1902-1911 and director of that company and its successor, Scranton Pump Company, until 1930; director of People's National Bank of Scranton 1900-1910; moved from Scranton to Southport, Conn., 1909; president of Weiss Engineering Company of New York from its incorporation in 1924 until his death; of Pequot Real Estate Development Company of Southport since 1924, of Tide Mill, Inc., of Southport since 1927, and of Pine Dell Land Company in Virginia since 1926; vice-president of Wakeman Memorial of Southport (boys' welfare organization) 1919-1929; a founder of Yale Engineering Association in 1914 and member of executive committee 1919 and 1920; a founder of Yale Graduate Placement Bureau, Inc., in 1926, president 1926-28, and director 1926-1932; president of Class of 1896 S. from 1921 to 1926; member Fairfield Home Guard during the war and of Southport Congregational Church.

Death due to lobar pneumonia. Buried in Oaklawn Cemetery, Fairfield. Survived by wife, son, two daughters, a brother, George S. Sturges, of San Jose, Calif., and a sister, Nanna S. Brooke, the wife of Francis M. Brooke (B.A. Princeton 1906).

Walter Scott Cameron, Ph.B. 1897.
Born March 20, 1875, in Rome, Italy.
Died July 12, 1932, in Southampton, N. Y.

Father, Adam Scott Cameron; president of Bull's Head Bank, New York City; inventor, owner of machine and pump works; son of Robert and Mary (Scott) Cameron. Mother, Julia Elizabeth (Sewell) Cameron; daughter of William and Caroline Elizabeth (Dunscombe) Sewell, of New York City.

Prepared for college under a tutor in Hackensack, N. J. Select course; honors and an appointment Senior year; a Class Day and Class Book historian; member Cap and Gown and Dance committees and St. Elmo.

Traveled extensively after graduation; later engaged in agricultural pursuits for several years; master of the Meadow Brook hounds; commissioned a Captain in the Quartermaster Corps July 7, 1917; stationed at Kansas City, Mo., on remount duty to March 2, 1918; then at Camp Merritt in command of detachments of 19th and 35th Engineers, which he took overseas; returned August 2, 1918, and located at Camps Grant and Taylor; received discharge December 4, 1918.

Married (1) April 30, 1902, in New York City, Rosalie Wall, daughter of Albert Valentino and Cecelia (Wall) deGoicouria, of Havana, Cuba. One daughter, Rhoda (Mrs. John Balfour Clark). Mr. and Mrs. Cameron were divorced in 1920. Married (2) March 20, 1926, in Nassau, Bahama Islands, Cecily Mary, daughter of John and Katharine Agatha (Krudwig) Hilger, of St. Louis, Mo. No children by second marriage.

Death due to apoplexy and hypostatic pneumonia. Buried in Southampton Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughter, an adopted son, Walter Scott Cameron, Jr., and a granddaughter.

Sol Branch Cerf, Ph.B. 1897.

Born November 29, 1874, in Corsicana, Texas.
Died about July 17, 1932, in Auburn, Calif.

Father, David Cerf, a merchant in Evansville, Ind., whose parents lived in Alsace. Mother, Sophia (Meyer) Cerf, whose parents lived in Lorraine. Nephew: Edgar A. Cerf, Jr., M.S. 1926.

Morgan School, Clinton, Conn. Civil engineering course; a Class Day and Class Book historian.

Assistant engineer of bridges and buildings with Tennessee Railroad 1897-98; general manager of Consolidated Night Hawk & Nightingale Gold Mining Company at Cripple Creek, Colo.; later mining engineer and prospector with various mining interests; acting superintendent for Starton’s Independence, Ltd., at Victor, Colo.; with Perseverance Mine, Thane, Alaska; and later engaged in mining at Jerome and Wenden, Ariz.; had been a prospector in Auburn for about three months.

Unmarried.

Buried in Newcastle (Calif.) Cemetery. Survived by four brothers, Edgar A. Cerf, of Atlanta, Ga., Louis A. Cerf, of New York City, Frederic D. Cerf, of Los Angeles, Calif., and Achille A. Cerf, of Tampa, Fla., and a sister, Mrs. Madelaine Cerf Keane, of Atlanta.
Willard Parker Lindley, Ph.B. 1897.

Born October 2, 1875, in St. Augustine, Fla.
Died May 4, 1933, in South Dartmouth, Mass.

Father, Newton Adams Lindley (M.D. Columbia 1869); physician in New York City; son of Daniel and Lucy Virginia (Allen) Lindley, of Alabama and Pietermaritzburg, South Africa. Mother, Katherine (Parker) Lindley; daughter of Willard Parker (B.A. Harvard 1826 and M.D. 1830; LL.D. Princeton 1870) and Mary Ann (Bissell) Parker, of New York City. Yale relatives include F. Vinton Lindley, '33 (nephew); and Willard Parker, '90, Grenville Parker, '98, Morris K. Parker, '01, and Arthur F. Lindley, ex-'01 M. (first cousins).

Cutler and King schools, Stamford, Conn. Entered Sheffield Scientific School with Class of 1896; joined Class of 1897 S. in 1895

Studied at Heidelberg University 1897-98 and at Johns Hopkins 1898-99, specializing in chemistry; during summer of 1899 served as Captain in the Roberts Horse in the Free State and Transvaal campaigns of Boer War; lived in Santa Barbara, Calif., 1902-1915 and then abroad, chiefly in Paris and Florence, until 1930; had engaged in chemistry research but devoted some time to painting and in 1914 was a co-inventor of Lockheed four-wheel brake.

Married February 24, 1902, in Santa Barbara, Charlotte LeRoy, daughter of E. LeRoy and Charlotte LeRoy Ferry, of New York City. No children. Mr. and Mrs. Lindley were divorced in 1928.

Carl Rudolph Schultz, Ph.B. 1897.

Born August 19, 1876, in New York City.
Died November 5, 1932, in Jacksonville, Fla.

Father, Carl Herman Schultz (graduate Gymnasium, Lissa, Germany, 1849; Ph.D. and M.D. University of Leipzig); president and owner of Carl H. Schultz, Inc., manufacturers of mineral waters; son of Carl Herman and Louise Schultz, of Lutrochine, Posen, Germany. Mother, Louise (Eisfeldt) Schultz; daughter of August Eisfeldt, of Hamburg, Germany. Brothers: C. Herman Schultz, '97, and C. Walter Schultz, ex-'02 S.

Phillips-Andover. Mechanical engineering course; member York Hall and Chi Phi.

Connected with Carl H. Schultz, Inc., 1897-1921; vice-president, secretary, and treasurer 1902-03 and president 1903-1921; president of Keller Machine Company; vice-president of Equitable National Bank of New York City 1902-03 and president 1903-04; after 1921 connected for a time with Goodwin, Allen & Company, Inc., of New York (investment securities) and with Donham-Adams Company; president of Samen-Kraft Corporation of Florida at Green Cove Springs 1926-28; had since been with Stimuplant Laboratories, Inc., manufacturing chemists, at Green Cove Springs; member American Chemical Society.

Death due to uremic poisoning and chronic nephritis. Buried in Fairmount Cemetery, Chatham, N. J. Survived by wife, two children, and four sisters, Mrs. Orla Rubsamen, of Murray Hill, Mrs. John D C Towne, of Chicago, Mrs. Ludwig Kast, of Bocagrande, Fla., and Mrs. Andrew G. Foord, of Kerhonkson, N. Y.

Edward Francis Leeds, Ph.B. 1898.

Born January 9, 1877, in Stamford, Conn.
Died January 19, 1933, in Bridgeport, Conn.

King's School, Stamford. Mechanical engineering course; member Franklin Hall and Theta Xi.

Connected for a time after graduation with Hardware & Supply Company in Bridgeport, later president of Leeds Marine Equipment Company of Bridgeport, commodore of Stamford Yacht Club; Episcopalian Married September 6, 1905, Beatrice E. Wiesner. No children.

Death due to acute myocarditis. Buried in Woodland Cemetery, Stamford. Survived by wife, two sisters, Mrs. Louis Doran, of Stamford, and Miss Clymene Leeds, a brother, Charles H. Leeds (B.S. Princeton 1895; M A. Yale 1906), and three half brothers, Walter Pierson, ex-'06 S., Harold S. Pierson, '12 S., and William V. Pierson, of Rutland, Md.
Lee Wilson Dodd, Ph.B. 1899.

Born July 11, 1879, in Franklin, Pa.
Died May 16, 1933, in New York City.

Father, Samuel Calvin Tait Dodd (B.A. Washington and Jefferson 1857), a lawyer, solicitor general for Standard Oil Company; member of Constitutional Convention of Pennsylvania (1872); son of Levi and Julia Ann (Parker) Dodd, of Franklin. Mother, Malvina Eliza (Smith) Dodd; daughter of John Smith, of Erie County, Pa.

Berkeley School, New York City. Select course; Senior appointment; member of board of Tale Literary Magazine and of Chi Delta Theta.

LL.B. New York Law School 1902; assistant attorney in legal department of Standard Oil Company 1902–07; had since been engaged in literary work; author of five plays, The Return of Eve (1909), Speed (1911), The Changelings (1925), A Stranger in the House (1927), and A Strong Man's House (1929), had dramatized two others, His Majesty Bunker Bean (1915) and Pals First (1917); three books of poems, A Modern Alchemist (1906), The Middle Miles (1915), and The Great Enlightenment (1928); three novels, The Book of Susan (1920), Lilia Chenoworth (1922), and The Girl Next Door (1923), a satirical volume entitled The Golden Complex (1927), and a book for children, The Sly Giraffe (1925); assistant professor of playwriting at Yale 1932–33; Frank B. Weeks visiting professor of English at Wesleyan 1932–33; member of the English faculty at Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, N. Y., 1931–33; special lecturer on the English drama at Smith College 1914–16 and also conducted a course in playwriting 1915–16; lecturer on playwriting, stories, and essays at Bread Loaf Writers Conference, Middlebury College, in 1931 and 1932, a governor of Yale Publishing Association 1925–1930; director of Theatre Guild Company of New Haven and Little Theatre Guild 1924–28 and of Book and Quill Lending Library and Book Shop since its inception in 1926; assistant secretary of Yale Bureau of American University Union in Paris January–July, 1918; civilian volunteer with Military Intelligence Bureau, Washington, October–December, 1918; commissioned Captain, Reserve Corps, January 27, 1919 (commission expired January 22, 1924); elected to membership in Elizabethan Club in 1912 and to honorary membership in The Colony and Berzelius in 1927; critic for Saturday Review of Literature since 1924; contributed to Atlantic Monthly, Century, Harper's, Forum, Outlook, Tale Review, The New Yorker, Cosmopolitan, and Life.

James Graham Parsons, Ph.B. 1900.

Born November 27, 1876, in New York City.
Died March 22, 1933, in New York City.

Father, James Anson Parsons; son of Anson Kingsbury and Caroline (Raynolds) Parsons, of Enfield, Conn. Mother, Katherine Maria (Ivison) Parsons; daughter of Henry and Sarah (Brinkerhoff) Ivison, of New York City. Yale relatives include two cousins: Henry Ivison, '87, and William C. Ivison, '92.

Cutler School, New York City. Select course; member York Hall and Chi Phi.

Had been associated with Spencer Trask & Company, investment bankers, since graduation; at first as a runner, then in the cashier's department, later manager of the bond department, and partner in the firm since 1920; resident partner in Albany since July, 1932; member Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by wife, son, and a brother, Henry Ivison Parsons, '95.

Daniel Ingersoll Whittelsey, Ph.B. 1901.

Born July 31, 1878, in Baltimore, Md.
Died February 4, 1933, at Battle Creek, Mich.

Newton Whittelsey (B.A. 1773), Samuel Whittelsey (B.A. 1779), and John Whittelsey (B.A. 1791) (great-granduncles); Chauncey Whittelsey (B.A. 1820) (great-uncle); and Joseph T. Whittelsey, '67 S. (uncle).

Lawrenceville School. Select course; member Banjo Club two years and Book and Snake.

Engaged in ship work with Maryland Steel Company at Sparrows Point, Md., 1901-02; assistant superintendent of Marine Construction & Dry Dock Company, Staten Island, 1903; with real estate firm of Bloodgood, deSaulles & Talbot (in which John L. deSaulles and Harold R. Talbot, both ex-'01 S., were members) 1903-06; superintendent for Williams & Whittelsey Company, boat builders, at Steinway, Long Island, 1906-08; naval architect and secretary for Whittelsey & Whitaker of New York 1908-09, member of firm and secretary and treasurer of Whittelsey & Whittelsey, marine engineers, New York, 1909-1923; had since been president of Oil Transfer Corporation of New York; secretary of Southern Shipbuilding Company 1916-17; Alumni Fund agent 1907-1911; member Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers and Babylon (N. Y.) Episcopal Church.

Married November 2, 1907, in New York City, Freda Marjorie Peck, Barnard '08, daughter of Orlando Haines and Katherine (Miller) Peck, of Minneapolis. Children: Katharine Haines (Mary Baldwin College 1929-1931); Thomas Dunn (student at Tri State College, Angola, Ind.); and Daniel.

Death due to chronic valvular heart disease. Buried in Putnam Cemetery, Greenwich, Conn. Survived by wife, daughter, sons, and a brother, H. Newton Whittelsey (University of Minnesota ex-'96; N.A. University of Glasgow 1898), of Greenwich.

Walter Arnstein, Ph.B. 1902.

Born February 1, 1883, in San Francisco, Calif.
Died January 14, 1933, in San Francisco, Calif.

Sach's School, New York City. Electrical engineering course; member Freshman Relay Team and Track Team Junior and Senior years.
Spent the year 1902-03 in travel abroad and in this country; student worker with Westinghouse Electric Company at East Pittsburgh 1903-05 and in charge of their exhibit at the World's Fair in St. Louis, chief engineer of American River Electric Company in 1906, chief engineer in construction of railroad of Central California Traction Company from Stockton to Sacramento and secretary-treasurer of the company 1906-1910, engineer of Truckee River General Electric Company and general manager of its office in San Francisco 1906-09, organized and operated City Electric System of San Francisco and served as secretary-treasurer of the company 1906-09, promoted and built Oakland & Antioch Railway between Sacramento and San Francisco and its vice-president 1909-1911; president of that road 1911-18, of its successor, Oakland, Antioch & Eastern Railroad, 1918-1920, of San Ramon Railroad (Saranap to Diablo, Calif.) 1911-1920, of San Francisco & Sacramento Railroad Company 1920-27, of Reno Power & Light Company 1906-08, and of Bully Hill Mines Company 1916-19, since 1927 had been engaged in private practice as a consulting engineer; commissioned Captain of Engineers October 31, 1918, and trained at Fort Douglas, Utah, with 403d Engineers, transferred to 93d Engineers at Fort Benjamin Harrison; given his discharge December 16, 1918; member American Institute of Electrical Engineers and Yale Engineering Association.

Married April 23, 1906, in San Francisco, Alice Sussman (Bryn Mawr 1903-04), daughter of Samuel and Emily (Wormser) Sussman. Children Eugene (B.A. Stanford 1927); Richard (B.A. Stanford 1929), Katherine (Smith 1929-1931); and Peter.

Took his own life, had suffered a nervous breakdown. Buried in Home of Peace Cemetery, San Mateo County, Calif. Survived by wife, four children, two brothers, Leo Arnstein, '96, and Hugo Arnstein, ex-'09, and two sisters, Mrs. Adolf Liebmann, of Hollywood, Calif., and Edna A. Lilienthal, the wife of Joseph L. Lilienthal, Harvard ex-'02.

Harry Ackerman Shuart, Ph.B. 1902.

Born June 15, 1882, in Ramsey, N. J.
Died February 28, 1933, in Passaic, N. J.

Father, James Shuart, a butcher; president of Board of Education of Ramsey, mayor, and assessor and collector of Hokokus Township; son of Henry Ackerman and Margeret (Sutherland) Shuart, of Armaount, N. J. Mother, Eleanor (Litchhult) Shuart, daughter of Abraham William and Elizabeth (Shaw) Litchhult, of England.

Peddie Institute, Hightstown, N. J. Select course; a Class Book historian.
LL.B. Columbia 1905; practiced law in New York City in association with C. Monteith Gilpin 1905-07 and with Macgrane Coxe (B.A. 1879) 1907-09; clerk of Board of Freeholders of Hackensack, N. J., 1909-1916; during the war served as purchasing agent for MacArthur Brothers at Camp Merritt and Woodbury Bag Loading Plant; office manager for C. H. Earle, Inc., general contractors, at Atlantic City, N. J., 1920-29; assistant purchasing agent for George M. Brewster & Son, Inc., paving contractors, of Bogota, N. J., 1929-1931; salesman for Hubbard Floyd Company, contractors' equipment, in New York City since 1931; attended Christ Episcopal Church, Hackensack.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Mahwah (N. J.) Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughter, and two sisters, Mrs. Albert G. May, of Glen Rock, N. J., and Mrs. Walter S. Stikeman, of Clifton, N. J.

Norman Leslie Snow, Ph.B. 1902.

Born April 18, 1881, in Albany, N. Y.

Died January 27, 1933, in Beacon, N. Y.

Father, Norman Leslie Snow (B.A. Union 1859 and M.A. 1876; M.D. Columbia 1861); physician in Albany; surgeon in 153d Regiment during Civil War; son of Dr. Simeon Snow and Margaret (Diefendorf) Snow, of Currytown, N. Y. Mother, Elizabeth (Smith) Snow; daughter of John Calvin and Elizabeth (Bassinger) Smith, of Springfield, N. Y. Cousins: Dr. Edgar A. VanderVeer, '95 S., and Dr. Albert VanderVeer, '00.

Morris Academy, Morristown, N. J., and Phillips-Andover. Mechanical engineering course; on Hockey Team; chairman of Class Cup Committee.

B.S. Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1905, during 1904-05 having been a draftsman for Mosher Boiler Company of New York City; draftsman with American Shipbuilding Company for a time in 1905 and also connected with Lindon W. Bates, ex-'79 S., in drawing of plans for the “Three Lakes” Panama Canal; supervising engineer for Empire Engineering Corporation on New York Barge Canal 1905-06; with Roteng Engineering Company (air compressors) in New York 1907; sales manager with Sirocco Engineering Company and American Blower Company of New York City 1907-09; sales manager in New York office of Terry Steam Turbine Company of Hartford 1909-1913, general sales manager 1913-17, and vice-president and general manager of the company 1917–1922; had since been president and chairman of board of directors of Diamond Power Specialty Corporation, with offices in Detroit until 1926 and since then in New York; member American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Mayflower Society, Loyal Legion, and Central Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn.

Married June 5, 1909, in New Windsor, N. Y., Helen Fancher Harris (B.A. Hamilton 1908), daughter of William Hamilton Harris (B.A. Northwestern University 1878 and M.A. 1880; LL.B. Columbia 1880) and Grace (Nicoll) Harris. Children: Norman Harris, 1934, and William Hamilton.

Buried in Rural Cemetery, Albany. Survived by wife, sons, mother (now Mrs. Carl G. Schmidt), and a sister, Miss Frederika Snow, of Brooklyn.

Robert Vail Barkalow, Ph.B. 1904.

Born August 26, 1881, in Omaha, Nebr.
Died September 27, 1932, at Beverly Hills, Calif.

Father, Derrick Vail Barkalow; railway news contractor; founder and senior partner of firm of Barkalow Brothers (metal goods) of Denver, Colo.; son of Benjamin B. and Margaret (Denise) Barkalow, of Omaha. Mother, Kate (Whitehead) Barkalow; daughter of James Richard and Jane Colville (Montgomery) Whitehead, of Cheyenne, Wyo. Cousin Denise Barkalow, '07 S.

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. Metallurgical course; member York Hall and Chi Phi.

Lumber checker for McPhee & McGinnity Lumber Company, Denver, 1904–05, metallurgist with Silver Lake Miners Company, Silverton, Colo., 1905–06; engaged in manufacture of handmade metal goods and in the lithographing business with Barkalow Brothers 1906–09 and vice-president and member of the firm 1909–1927; president and director of Davis Chemical Company in Denver (in which Lafayette M. Hughes, '02 S., was a member) 1914–16; partner in Chemical Products Company 1915–1922; manager of Ore Products Company 1919–1921; bond salesman for Otis & Company (investment banking) of Denver 1921–23; president of the Uintah Company (shale lands in Utah) since 1923; president of Midway Company of Beverly Hills 1928–29 and of its successor, Barkalow, Bull & Company, Ltd., investment bankers and real estate financiers, since 1929, during the war manufactured radium for illumination of dials for the British Government and vanadium for high grade steel for U. S. Government at Watervliet, N. Y.; member of vestry of St. James by the Sea (Episcopal), La Jolla, Calif., 1928–29.
John Lloyd Stearns (New York Law School 1877-79) and Ella (Powell) Stearns. Children: Mary Stearns and Jean.

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Hollywood (Calif.) Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughters, mother, and a sister, the wife of George T. Kearns, Jr. (B.A. Regis College, Denver, 1916), of Denver.

Harold Augustus Swenarton, Ph.B. 1905.

Born May 27, 1885, in Montclair, N. J.
Died November 3, 1932, in Winnetka, Ill.

Father, Seman Augustus Swenarton; member of dry goods firm of Swenarton & Keiser; president of Knitting Mills Trading Company. Mother, Mary Esther (Hastings) Swenarton, Mount Holyoke ex-63; daughter of Waitstill Hastings, of Brooklyn, N. Y. Nephew: Bruce H. Swenarton, 1936.

Montclair High School. Electrical engineering course; a founder and charter member of Yale chapter of Phi Sigma Kappa (The Sachem Club).

In test department of General Electric Company, Schenectady, N. Y., 1905-06; assistant examiner in United States Patent Office, Washington, 1906-1910; during that period studied law at George Washington University (LL.B. 1909, M.P.L. 1910); practiced patent law in Chicago 1910-18; associated with firm of Bulkley & Durand 1910-13 and member of its successor, Bulkley & Swenarton from 1913 until retirement in 1918 on account of ill health; had since lived in Chicago and Winnetka; member Illinois and District of Columbia bars and First Congregational Church, Montclair.

Married October 2, 1912, in Evanston, Ill., Rose Greer. One daughter, Katharine Rose. Mrs. Swenarton died December 11, 1918.

Death due to arthritis deformans and chronic myocarditis. Buried in Graceland Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by daughter, a brother, W. Hastings Swenarton, '00 S., and a sister, Miss Grace Swenarton (B.A. Mount Holyoke 1901), of Chicago.

Richard Ernst Wiles, Ph.B. 1909.

Born April 30, 1888, in Kansas City, Mo
Died January 17, 1933, in Kansas City, Mo.

Father, John Halifax Wiles (Georgetown College 1877-78); vice-president of Loose-Wiles Biscuit Company; son of Peter Blackstone Wiles (Bethany College 1856-57) and Jennie (Jones) Wiles, of Georgetown and Covington, Ky. Mother, Ella (McKnight) Wiles (Butler University 1880-81); daughter of James Garland and Mary Sophrontia (Felts) McKnight, of Calloway County, Ky.

Kansas City High School. Select course; honors in English composition Junior year; chairman of board of Scientific Monthly; member Freshman, Apollo, and University Glee clubs; president of Kansas City Club.

Connected with bakery department of Loose-Wiles Biscuit Company in a supervisory capacity 1909-1912 and assistant sales manager 1912-15; sales manager of Bliss Syrup Refining Company 1915-1920; organized Simon-Wiles Motor Company in 1915 and served as its vice-president and treasurer until death; First Lieutenant, 2d Infantry, Missouri National Guard, August 7–October 17, 1917; promoted Captain October 17 and served with 2d and later with 7th Regiment, Infantry; assigned to Detroit District Office, Bureau of Aircraft Production; attended Liberty Engine Service School, with civilian rating of Aeronautical Mechanical Engineer; commissioned Captain, Air Service (Production), November 7, 1918; Liaison Officer on staff of District Supervisor, Liberty Engines Western Flying District, Rockwell Field, Calif.; received discharge March 15, 1919; commissioned Captain, Aviation Section, Signal Officers' Reserve Corps, May 26, 1919, and held commission until death; member of board of trustees of Jacob L. Loose Million Dollar Charity Fund of Kansas City since 1925; first vice-president of Automobile Club of Kansas City 1926-29; a governor of Automobile Club of Missouri 1931 and 1932; first vice-president of Yale Club of Kansas City 1928-29; member of executive council of Associated Western Yale Clubs 1921 and Country Club Christian Church, Kansas City.

Married January 17, 1912, in Kansas City, Ethel, daughter of Robert Thurston and Lulu (Vertrees) Swofford. Children: Martha, Wells College 1936; Mary Ann; and Richard Ernst, Jr.

Death due to myocarditis, arteriosclerosis, and Bright's disease. Buried in Mount Washington Cemetery, Kansas City. Survived by wife, daughters, son, and parents.

Carroll Dana Winslow, Ph.B. 1910.

Born May 30, 1889, in New York City.
Died December 27, 1932, in New York City.

Father, Francis Dana Winslow (Ph.B. 1878; LL.B. New York University 1880); son of Benjamin Franklin and Mary (Williams) Winslow, of Pittsford, Vt. Mother, Emma (Carroll) Winslow; daughter of Eugene and Mary Carroll, of New York City. Brother: Kenelm Winslow, '05.
Taft and Pomfret schools. Select course; secretary of Yale Automobile Club; member The Cloister and Book and Snake.

With Aristos Company, Chicago (automobile accessories), 1910–13, as salesman 1910–12 and then western manager of Chicago office; salesman for Winslow & Company, members of New York Stock Exchange, 1913–15 and again 1919–1921; partner in the firm and its successors, Munds, Rogers & Stackpole (of which office manager 1921–22) and Munds & Winslow, 1919–1925; in 1925 founded the Electric Ferns, Inc., of New York and served as its president until death (treasurer and director 1926–1932); president of Port Washington & New Rochelle Ferry Company 1930–32; director of Paterson & Ramapo Railroad Company and treasurer in 1926; deputy sheriff of Hudson County, N. J., 1926–1932 and of Bergen County, N. J., 1928–1930; special deputy sheriff of New York County 1926–1931; enlisted in French Aviation Corps October 22, 1915, and attended aviation schools until May 1, 1916; breveted Corporal April 14, 1916; served at the front with Escadrille M.F. 44 and Escadrille N. 112 until given his discharge with rank of Sergeant-Pilot (promoted February 17, 1917) on May 15, 1917, so that he might enter the U. S. Army; commissioned First Lieutenant, Aviation Section, Signal Corps, June 25, 1917, and in command of Squadron 211 (Aero) at Dayton, Ohio; served as Gunnery Sergeant (acting as cadet instructor) in Air Service, U. S. Marine Corps, from June until given his discharge December 21, 1918; First Lieutenant, Air Service, Officers' Reserve Corps, 1918–1924 and Captain from September 4, 1924, until retirement December 6, 1928, author: With the French Flying Corps (1917); had contributed to Scribner's, New York World, and Saturday Evening Post; member New Rochelle Chamber of Commerce and 23rd Street Association of New York City; affiliated with Episcopal Church.

Married February 17, 1912, at Tuxedo Park, N. Y., Rose O'Neil, daughter of Grenville Kane (B.A. Trinity 1875 and M.A. 1880; LL.B. Columbia 1878) and Margaret Adelaide (Wolfe) Kane Children Penelope Rose O'Neil, and John Grenville.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Pittsford. Survived by wife, daughters, son, and father Robert Johnston Badham, Ph.B. 1911.

Born March 14, 1891, in Birmingham, Ala.

Father, Henry Lee Badham; vice-president of American Trust & Savings Bank of Birmingham and president of Bessemer Coal, Iron & Land Company; son of Henry Alexander and Cornelia (Cosby) Badham, of Raleigh and Charlotte, N. C. Mother, Helen Jeanette (Terry) Badham; daughter of John Taliaferro and Elizabeth Jeanette (Kerr) Terry, of Alabama.

Lawrenceville School. Metallurgy course; on Class Football Team; vice-president of University Football Association; member Freshman Glee Club and Delta Phi.

Married April 26, 1923, in Cincinnati, Dorothy Moore Lyon, Smith ex-'21, daughter of Jesse Daugherty Lyon (Rose Polytechnic Institute 1892) and Mary Hervey (Moore) Lyon (B.L. University of Cincinnati 1896). One daughter, Lyon.°

Death due to a heart attack. Buried in Elmwood Cemetery, Birmingham. Survived by wife, daughter, seven brothers, Henry L. Badham, Jr., '14 S., Vernon C. Badham, '16 S., William T. Badham, '17 S., John T. Badham (Lehigh University 1918–19), of Leeds, Ala., Baxter M. Badham, ex-'26, Percy Badham, of Louisville, Ky., and Webb Badham, of Birmingham, and two sisters, Miss Helen Terry Badham, of Birmingham, and Mildred B. Wells, wife of John E. Wells, '17 S.
Edwin Leon Carpenter, Ph.B. 1911.

Born August 28, 1889, in Pueblo, Colo.
Died July 23, 1932, in Miami, Fla.

Father, Edwin Lessel Carpenter; president of Admore Steamship Corporation; vice-president of Chesapeake Coal & Coke Company; son of Erastus and Martha (Bateman) Carpenter, of Bloomington, Ill. Mother, Myra (Cameron) Carpenter; daughter of James Richardson and Roxanna L. (Copp) Cameron, of Arnot and Blossburg, Pa.

Prepared for college privately. Mining engineering course; on Student Council; a Class statistician; member Vernon Hall and Phi Gamma Delta.

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Woodlawn Park Cemetery, Miami. Survived by wife, four children, father, and a brother, James R. Carpenter, '08 S.

Louis Edwin Bomeisler, Jr., Ph.B. 1912.

Born April 3, 1891, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died August 31, 1932, in Santa Monica, Calif.

Father, Louis Edwin Bomeisler (LL.B. Columbia 1887); former member of law firm of Dill, Bomeisler & Baldwin in New York City; son of Edwin L. and Helen Pomeroy (Ives) Bomeisler, of New York City. Mother, Natalie (Cantoni) Bomeisler; daughter of Salvatore and Clarissa Douglass (Olson) Cantoni, of Brooklyn.

Brooklyn Polytechnic Preparatory School and Harstrom School.
Select course; member Freshman Football and Basketball teams, University Basketball Team, and The Colony and Berzelius. During first four years after graduation traveled extensively in Cuba and Mexico and engaged for a time in the manufacturing business in New York; in 1916 served on the Mexican border with the Washington Artillery; commissioned Second Lieutenant, Field Artillery, May 10, 1917, and ordered to Reserve Officers' Training Camp at Plattsburg, assigned Headquarters Company, 305th Field Artillery, 77th Division, and served as Adjutant at Camp Merritt, N. J., until given his discharge June 3, 1919; assistant to the purchasing agent of United Fruit Company of New York 1919-1921; had since been salesman for California Packing Corporation in Los Angeles, member St. George's Episcopal Church, Brooklyn.

Married April 22, 1922, in San Francisco, Kathryn Gaskell, daughter of Joseph and Bertha (Boeniger) Balzfier. Children: Robert Evans and Donald Dwight.

Death due to sclerosis of coronary arteries of the heart. Buried in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Glendale, Calif. Survived by wife, sons, parents, a brother, Douglass M Bomeisler, '13, and a sister, Mrs. Charles L Ross, of Brightwater, N. Y.

Robert Horth Cornell, Ph. B. 1912.

Born December 24, 1890, in Jamestown, N. Y.
Died August 1, 1932, in Jamestown, N. Y.

Father, Lynn Floyd Cornell, a manufacturer; secretary-treasurer of Jamestown Lounge Company, son of Thaddeus Cassius and Eva (Horth) Cornell, of Randolph, N. Y. Mother, Anna (Johnston) Cornell

Holbrook School, Ossining, N. Y. Select course, honors in physical and commercial geography Junior year and in history and social sciences Senior year; member Yale Corinthian Yacht Club, Yale Aero and Auto clubs, and Vernon Hall and Phi Gamma Delta.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Lake View Cemetery, Jamestown. Survived by wife, four children, and a brother, Kenneth J. Cornell, of Jamestown.
Henry Schermerhorn Stearns, Jr., Ph.B. 1913.

Born June 27, 1891, in New York City.
Died May 9, 1933, in New York City.

Father, Henry Schermerhorn Stearns (Columbia ex-'83; M.D. New York University 1884); physician and surgeon in New York City; son of John Noble and Alice Ann (Bloomer) Stearns, of Yonkers, N. Y. Mother, Amy Prentice (Browning) Stearns; daughter of Mason B. and Anne (Brower) Browning, of New York City. Great-great-grandfather: Dr. John Stearns (B.A. 1789).

Syms School, New York City, and Fox Tutoring School (George Levi Fox, '74), New Haven. Select course; member Freshman Golf Team.

Salesman for silk manufacturing house of John N. Stearns & Company in New York 1913-16; served on Mexican border with Squadron A, New York Cavalry, six months in 1916; attended Officers' Training Camp, Plattsburg, where commissioned Second Lieutenant of Cavalry August 15, 1917; served overseas March 28, 1918-July 7, 1919; with 302d Military Police, 77th Division, at Camp Upton and in France until November 1, 1918; then transferred to 1st Corps Military Police Company until January 15, 1919; on detached duty with 2d Corps at Calais as Post Officer April 13-June 15, 1918; Liaison Officer at General Headquarters, Bruges, January 15-June 8, 1919; commissioned First Lieutenant of Infantry March 1, 1919; received discharge July 9, 1919; bond salesman with firm of Hambleton & Company, stock brokers, New York City, 1919-1924; later with Foster, McConnell & Company, members of New York Stock Exchange, and C. Jester Horn & Company, Inc.; member Brick Church (Presbyterian), New York.

Married February 6, 1922, in New York, Margaret, daughter of William C. Reick. One daughter, Margaret Reick. Mr. and Mrs. Stearns were divorced in 1928.

Death due to a complication of diseases, which originated from exposure during his overseas service. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by daughter and father.

Scott Edmund Brown Gillmore, Ph.B. 1914.

Born August 23, 1890, in Elyria, Ohio.
Died February 23, 1933, in Elyria, Ohio.

Father, Quincy Alanson Gillmore (B.A. Ohio Wesleyan 1881; LL.B. Cincinnati Law School 1883); lawyer in Elyria; son of Edmund and Adelaide Elenore (Gillmore) Gillmore, of Lorain, Ohio. Mother, Frankie Graham (Brown) Gillmore (graduate Ohio Wesleyan Female Elyria High School, University School, Cleveland, and Case School of Applied Science. Mechanical engineering course; president of University School Club and on executive committee of Ohio Club; member The Colony and Berzelius.

Apprentice with Warner & Swasey Company, opticians, in Cleveland 1915-17; commissioned First Lieutenant, Ordnance Department, August 24, 1917; stationed at Frankford (Pa.) Arsenal, at Camp Wadsworth, at the plant of Bausch & Lomb Company, Rochester, N. Y., at Electric Auto Light Company, Toledo, Ohio, and at Cleveland Ordnance Office; received discharge August 31, 1919, had been with The Colson Company of Elyria, manufacturers of bicycles, invalid chairs, and trucks, since 1920, as purchasing agent 1920-22, advertising manager 1922-25, factory manager at the Lakewood (Ohio) Plant 1925-28, and production manager since 1928; member of Elyria City Council (1928-29) and of First Congregational Church, Elyria.

Married August 30, 1918, in Elyria, Clara Rodgers, daughter of Max M. and Mary (McConihe) Suppes. Two daughters, Gail and Suzanne.

Death due to hypostatic pneumonia. Buried in Ridgelawn Cemetery, Elyria. Survived by wife and daughters.

Ridgely Hunt, Ph.B. 1914.

Born September 16, 1887, in Washington, D. C.
Died May 1, 1933, in North Branford, Conn.

Father, Ridgely Hunt (United States Naval Academy 1875); served as officer, United States Navy; son of William Henry Hunt, ex-'43, secretary of the Navy and minister to Russia, and Elizabeth Augusta (Ridgely) Hunt, of New Orleans, La. Mother, Virginia deLancy (Kearny) Hunt; daughter of Major General Philip Kearny, U.S.A., and Agnes (Maxwell) Kearny, of Newark, N. J. Yale relatives include: Thomas Hunt, '76, Randell Hunt, '76 S., and William H. Hunt, '78 (uncles); and William H. Hunt, Jr., '09 S. (cousin).

The Hill School and Morristown (N. J.) School. Attended United States Naval Academy 1905-06 as member of Class of 1909. Select course in Sheffield Scientific School; member The Sachem Club, Phi Sigma Kappa, and Elizabethan Club.

With Parsons Trading Company (paper), New York City, 1914-15; export manager for Arnold, Cheney & Company, New York, 1915-17, enlisted as Private, 7th New York Infantry, in summer of 1917; stationed at Camp Wadsworth, S. C., where assigned to 107th
Infantry, 27th Division (member Mounted Detachment, Headquarters Company), with which he went overseas in April, 1918; promoted Sergeant in April and Color Sergeant in June; commissioned Second Lieutenant September 25, 1918; subsequently transferred to 321st Infantry, 81st Division; active service in Ypres and Meuse-Argonne offensives; received discharge April 14, 1919; assistant factory supervisor for Pratt, Read & Company (ivory piano keys), Deep River, Conn., 1919–1920; manager of New York office of Brick Row Book Shop, Inc., 1921–22; assistant sales manager for D. Appleton & Company, publishers, New York, 1922–24 and sales manager 1924–25; sales manager for Duffield & Company, publishers, New York, 1926–27 and secretary 1927–1931; librarian of Linonia and Brothers Library of Yale, with rank of assistant professor, since 1931; in April, 1933, appointed supervisor of College Libraries; collaborator, with George S. Chappell, '99, in The Saloon in the Home, or a Garland of Rumblossoms (1930) and The Gardener's Friend and Other Pests (1931); member Grace Church (Episcopal), New York.

Married November 17, 1915, in New York City, Julia deForest, daughter of George Locke Cheney (B.A. Harvard 1878 and LL.B. 1881) and Harriet (Carnes) Cheney. Children: Julia Livingston, Frances, Harriet Carnes, and Ridgely.

Death due to injuries received in an automobile accident. Buried in Arlington National Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughters, and son.

John Wynne Ryan, Ph.B. 1914.

Born December 9, 1891, in Port Chester, N. Y.
Died April 12, 1933, in Port Chester, N. Y.

Father, John Ryan; in feed and mill business as owner of Port Chester Mills; mayor of village of Port Chester; son of John and Elizabeth (Gleason) Ryan, of Banksville, Conn. Mother, Mary Isabel (Wynne) Ryan; daughter of Thomas Francis and Margaret (Murphy) Wynne, of Sandisfield, Mass. Cousin: Kenneth Wynne, '10 L.

Greenwich (Conn.) Academy. Member of Class Crew, Freshman Basketball Team, University Basketball Squad, and Franklin Hall and Theta Xi.

Engaged in feed and grain business in Port Chester from 1914 until death; manager of John Ryan Elevator & Feed Mill 1914–1923 and owner since 1923; trustee of Port Chester Savings Bank since 1915 and secretary since 1923; member Port Chester Board of Education since 1929; elected mayor of Port Chester in 1932 for two years' term; director of Mutual Trust Company of Westchester County 1919; president of Port Chester Rotary Club 1927; president and vice-chairman of Port Chester Boy Scouts' Court of Honor 1929 and member of committee of Troop 3 sponsored by American Legion 1929-1930, served in Motor Transport Corps May 17–December 3, 1918, as Acting Sergeant, Motor Transport Detachment, at Walter Reed Hospital, Washington, several months and then at Officers' Training Camp, Camp Johnston; member American Legion (vice-commander 1929 and chairman of civic committee 1932), American Irish Historical Society of New York, and Church of Our Lady of Mercy (Roman Catholic), Port Chester.

Married September 30, 1919, at Port Chester, Adele, daughter of Philip and Mary (Devanney) Baker. Children: John Wynne, Jr.; Maybelle (died in childhood); William; Paul Wynne; and Roger Baker.

Death due to streptococcemia following an operation for cyst on the neck. Buried in St. Mary's Cemetery, Rye. Survived by wife and sons.

William Draper Savage, Ph.B. 1916.

Born September 21, 1893, in Nashua, N. H.
Died August 29, 1932, in La Jolla, Calif.

Father, John David Savage; employed in iron business. Mother, Mary (Gill) Savage.

Bridgeport (Conn.) High School and Phillips-Exeter. Entered Sheffield Scientific School in 1912; metallurgical course; member University Football Team in 1915, The Cloister and Book and Snake.

Served on Mexican border with 1st Connecticut Cavalry June, 1916-January, 1917; attended Officers' Training School, Fort Leavenworth, Kans., April-July, 1917; commissioned Second Lieutenant, Cavalry, to rank from August 9, 1917; promoted First Lieutenant August 9, 1917, and Captain June 9, 1918; served with 5th U.S. (Regular) Cavalry at Fort Bliss, Texas, until resignation March 3, 1919; subsequently employed by Oliver Iron Mining Company, Great Northern Iron Ore Properties, and Zenith Furnace Company, all in northern Minnesota; later became connected with John A. Savage & Co., iron mining, in Duluth, Minn., and served as general superintendent of iron mines from 1923; member American Legion.

Unmarried.

Death due to intestinal carcinoma. Buried in Riverside Cemetery, Norwalk, Conn. Survived by mother, three sisters, Mrs. Mary Bourget, of Paris, France, and the Misses Alice H. and Helen D.
Savage of La Jolla, and two brothers, John A. Savage, '04 S., and Edward Savage, '11 S. Another brother, Joseph F. Savage, of the Class of 1907 S., died in 1931.

Rufus Fenner Scott, Jr., Ph.B. 1916.

Born November 29, 1891, in Paris, Texas.
Died October 30, 1932, in Houston, Texas.

Father, Rufus Fenner Scott; president of First National Bank of Paris, Paris Board of Trade, and Paris & Mount Pleasant Railroad; son of George L. and Isabella Jane (Clement) Scott, of Red River County, Texas. Mother, Margaret Rebecca (VanZandt) Scott; daughter of Thomas J. and Mary Francis (Moore) VanZandt, of Ben Franklin, Texas.

Paris High School and Phillips-Exeter. Attended University of Texas School of Law 1912–13 (member Phi Delta Theta). Select course in Sheffield Scientific School; managing editor of Tale Daily News; secretary-treasurer and vice-president of Exeter Club; president of Interfraternity and Society Council; secretary of Junior Promenade Committee; chairman of Class Book Committee; member Elizabethan Club, The Cloister and Book and Snake, and Aurelian Honor Society.

Associated with his father in management of their personal investments, including city real estate, ranch property, and banking, from graduation until death, vice-president and director of Red River Valley Trust Company in Paris 1921-1930 and of Liberty National since 1931; director of First National Bank of Paris since 1919; member of Paris School Board 1930–32; director and chairman of aviation and airport committee of Lamar County Chamber of Commerce 1919–1932 and president 1932; member East Texas Chamber of Commerce for many years and vice-president 1926–29 (chairman of advertising committee and of industrial survey committee); commissioned Captain, Air Service, Signal Corps, June 20, 1917; stationed at Kelly Field, Texas; appointed field supply officer July 27, 1917, commanding officer of 75th Aero Squadron August 13, 1917, and of 112th (later the 633d) Aero Squadron September 3, 1917, president of Examining Board September 14, 1917, and disbursing officer September 21, 1917; organized Ground Officers' Training School, Kelly Field, and served as its assistant commander; member Post Exchange Council and member and treasurer of Athletic Board, Kelly Field; received rating of Reserve Military Aviator December 26, 1918; given discharge March 3, 1919; appointed Lieutenant Colonel, Specialist Reserve, assigned to Air Corps and attached to Materiel Division, Industrial War Plans
Section, Chicago district, and held commission until death; post commander Winfield F. Brown Post No. 30, American Legion, Paris, 1922–23 and chairman of post activities committee for State of Texas; chairman of state Americanization committee of the Legion 1923–24, commander 1st Division, Department of Texas, 1927–28 and department commander for State of Texas and chairman of state aeronautics committee 1928–29; secretary of Class of 1916 S. 1915–1931; member Alumni Board 1921–25; member Yale Committee for Participation in the Restoration of the Library of the University of Louvain 1924; vice-chairman of 9th regional committee of Boy Scouts of America, in charge of finances, since 1927 and member at large of the National Council; special ranger in Texas Ranger Force 1925–1931; trustee of Central Presbyterian Church, Paris, 1927–1930 and elder since 1930; superintendent of its Sunday school 1922–23; trustee of Reynolds Presbyterian Orphanage, Dallas, Texas, since 1924; secretary and treasurer of Fort Worth District, Associated Graduate Cloister Clubs since 1922.

Married October 18, 1924 in Galveston, Texas, Priscilla Allen, daughter of William Richard Allen Rogers (University of Texas 1884–85 and Washington and Lee 1885–87) and Mary Landon (Lowe) Rogers. Two daughters, Priscilla Allen and Mary Margaret.

Death due to complications arising from a throat infection and Vincent's angina; immediate cause a cerebral embolism. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Paris. Survived by wife, daughters, and parents (father died November 30, 1932).

Aaron Ward, Ph.B. 1917.
Born November 4, 1896, in Newark, N. J.
Died September 1, 1932, in Montclair, N. J.

Newark Academy. Electrical engineering course; member Freshman Swimming Team and Yale R.O.T.C.

Enlisted as Private in Signal Corps June 16, 1917; appointed Sergeant (1st Class) July 5; at Camp Devens, Mass., October 5–December 28, 1917, with Company C, 2d Field Battalion, Signal Enlisted Reserve Corps, and later Company C, 301st Field Signal Battalion; with 2d Student Company, first Signal Officers' Training School, Camp Morse, Leon Springs, Texas; commissioned Second Lieutenant April 16, 1918; and at Camp Vail, N. J., until August; then with 22d Service Company, Signal Corps, Hoboken, N. J., until February, 1919; subsequently on General Staff, Transport Quartermaster Section, in Purchase, Storage, and Traffic divisions; overseas May 24–July 9, 1919; received discharge October 17, 1919;
cadet engineer with General Electric Company at Edison Lamp Works, Harrison, N. J., December, 1919–February, 1920; then returned to Yale and in June, 1920, received degree of Ph.B. bonoris causa, with enrollment in Class of 1917 S.; statistician with American Cotton Oil Company, New York City, August, 1920–February, 1921; with Lehigh Valley Ice Company March–June, 1921; engineer with Holmes Electric Protective Company (burglar alarm service), New York City, 1921–23; with Westinghouse Lamp Company, Bloomfield, N. J., 1923–25, at first in commercial engineering department and then assistant manager of miniature lamp sales in New York City; northern New Jersey sales manager for H. E. Williams, Jr., Company, distributors of Williams Oil-O-Matic Heating Equipment, 1925–27; sales manager for Prospect Boiler Company, New Brunswick, N. J., 1928; sales engineer with Beatty Sales Company of Montclair 1929; since 1930 had been president of Standard Steamaker, Inc., of East Orange, N. J., and at time of death also sales engineer for Timken-Detroit Company (oil burners), with which he had been connected since July, 1930.

Married December 31, 1927, in Washington, D. C., Lois Marguerite DeKruif (B.A. University of Michigan 1919), daughter of Henry and Hendrika (Kremer) DeKruif. One daughter, Ann Allen.

Death due to coronary occlusion. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery,
Elizabeth, N. J. Survived by wife, daughter, mother, and a sister,
Miss Ethel M. Ward, and a brother, G. Gilbert Ward, both of Montclair.

Vincent Stephen Wrenn, Ph.B. 1918.

Born April 16, 1897, in New Haven, Conn.
Died March 2, 1933, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Father, James Joseph Wrenn; mechanical engineer with Winchester Repeating Arms Company; son of Patrick and Hannah (Gilroy) Wrenn, of Mount Carmel, Conn. Mother, Catherine (McAveigh) Wrenn; daughter of John and Mary (Hoye) McAveigh, of New Haven.

New Haven High School. Biology course; member Freshman
Hockey and Baseball teams.

Enlisted August 12, 1918, at Washington, D. C., and served with Research Division, Chemical Warfare Service, until given discharge
December 20, 1918; commissioned First Lieutenant, Sanitary Corps,
Officers' Reserve Corps; bacteriologist at U. S. Veterans' Hospital No. 41, West Haven, 1918-1923 and at U. S. Veterans' Bureau, Columbus, Ohio, 1923-25; bacteriologist and chief of the laboratory, U. S. Veterans' Bureau, Rutland, Mass., 1925-26; in charge of bacteriological laboratory of the Bureau at Cincinnati, Ohio, 1926-29; fellow at Mellon Industrial Research Institute of University of Pittsburgh 1929-1931; had since been engaged in medical research work for E. R. Squibb & Sons of New York; member Church of the Holy Angels (Catholic), Brooklyn.

Married August 3, 1929, in Cincinnati, Marcella, daughter of John and Josephine (Vogt) Wilzbacher. One son, Bruce Gilroy.

Death due to meningitis. Buried in St. Mary's Cemetery, Mount Carmel. Survived by wife, son, and three brothers, Harold T. Wrenn, '17 S, and James J. and Francis J. Wrenn, both of New Haven.

Leon Harlow Kibbe, B.S. 1923.

Born January 3, 1898, in New Haven, Conn.
Died July 21, 1932, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Clinton Harlow Kibbe; general manager of New England branch of Texoleum Company of New York; son of Harlow Lawton and Anna Eliza (Durkee) Kibbe, of Stafford Springs, Conn. Mother, Emma Louise (Finck) Kibbe; daughter of Henry and Elizabeth (Harfner) Finck, of New Haven.

New Haven High School. Attended Connecticut Agricultural College 1918-19 as member of Class of 1922 (Corporal in S.A.T.C., member Alpha Phi). At Yale took course in administrative engineering; on Class Crew three years; member Alpha Sigma Phi.

Mechanical engineer with Stanley Works of New Britain, Conn., 1924-1930, coordinator of State Trade School at New Britain since January, 1930; member Calvary Baptist Church, New Haven.

Married October 11, 1924, in New Haven, Kathaleen Myna, daughter of Andrew Peter and Amanda Christina (Andersen) Reese. One son, Jack Lee.

Harry Hayward Charlton, M.A. 1916.

Born May 18, 1887, in Allston, Mass.
Died May 31, 1933, in Columbia, Mo.

Lowell (Mass.) High School, clerk in office of Blake & Knowles Steam Pump Company, Cambridge, Mass, 1907-1911; B.A. Lebanon Valley College 1914; student in zoology in Yale Graduate School 1914-17 (M.A. 1916) and laboratory assistant in biology; technician in pathology in Yale School of Medicine 1917; acting professor of anatomy at Fordham Medical School January, 1918-June, 1919; in Government service in a civilian capacity with Medical Section of National Research Council, Washington, D. C., summer of 1918; student in zoology in Yale Graduate School again 1919-1920 (Ph.D. 1920) and laboratory assistant in biology; assistant professor of anatomy at University of Missouri 1920-22, associate professor 1923-1931, and professor since 1931; during leave of absence in 1923 and 1928-29 engaged in neurological research in laboratory of Professor C. U. Ariens Kappers (Sc.D. 1928) in Amsterdam; secretary of Missouri State Anatomical Board since 1922; member American Association for the Advancement of Science, American Society of Anatomists, American Association of University Professors, University of Missouri chapter of Phi Beta Pi, and Yale chapters of Sigma Xi (1920) and Gamma Alpha (1919).

Married September 29, 1928, in Kansas City, Mo., Mary Elizabeth Polson (B.S. Kansas State College 1916; M.A. University of Chicago 1924), daughter of Virgil Lansdon and Martha Alice (Jackson) Polson. One daughter, Barbara Anne.

Death due to acute appendicitis, hepatitis, and duodenitis. Buried in Columbia City Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughter, a brother, Oscar E. Charlton, of Deerfield, Fla., and a half brother, Loring Charlton, of St. Petersburg, Fla.
Margaret Doolittle, M.A. 1925.

Born January 3, 1891, in Mount Vernon, N. Y.
Died October 24, 1932, in Norwalk, Conn.

Lockwood Collegiate School, Mount Vernon; B.A. Bryn Mawr 1911, M.A. 1912, engaged in private teaching at Cheshire September–December, 1912, taught at Pattie C. Stockdale Memorial School in Lawson, W. Va., under Presbyterian Home Board 1913–14; studied at Kennedy School of Missions, Hartford Seminary Foundation, 1914–16; assistant and instructor in Arabic and phonetics in that school 1916–18; principal of Girls’ School in Tripoli, Syria, under Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions 1919–1930; student in Yale Graduate School 1924–25 and again 1930–31; taught Latin at Hillside School, Norwalk, from 1931 until death; member American Association of University Women, American Philological Association, New England Classical Association, and First Presbyterian Church, Mount Vernon.

Killed in an automobile accident. Buried in Hillside Cemetery, Cheshire. Survived by parents, a sister, Miss Ruth Y. Doolittle (B.A. Mount Holyoke 1921; M.A. Columbia 1923), and a brother, Frank B. Doolittle, ’13 S.

DOCTORS OF PHILOSOPHY

Frank Knight Sanders, Ph.D. 1889.

Born June 5, 1861, in Batticotta, Jaffna, Ceylon.
Died February 20, 1933, in Rockport, Mass.

Father, Rev. Marshall Danforth Sanders (B.A. Williams 1846; graduate Auburn Theological Seminary 1851); missionary under American Board; president of Jaffna College; son of Anthony and Celinda (Brown) Sanders, of Williamstown, Mass. Mother, Georgianna (Knight) Sanders, daughter of Rev. Joseph Knight (B.A. Brown 1813) and Ruby (Harding) Knight, of Granby, Pa., and Stafford, Conn. Cousin: George H. Knight, ’77.

Ripon College Preparatory School; B.A. Ripon College 1882, M.A. 1888; instructor in psychology and physics at Jaffna College 1882–86, student in Yale Graduate School 1886–89 and in Yale
Graduate School

Divinity School 1886-87; assistant in Semitic languages in Yale Divinity School 1889-1891 and instructor 1891-92; assistant professor of Biblical literature 1892-94, Woolsey professor 1894-1901, and professor of Biblical history and archaeology and dean of the Divinity School 1901-05; ordained to Congregational ministry January 6, 1902; secretary of Congregational Sunday School and Publishing Society 1905-08; president of Washburn College 1908-1914; secretary and director of missionary preparation for the committee of reference and counsel of Foreign Missions Conference of North America from 1914 until retirement 1927; had since devoted himself to literary pursuits and lecturing; D.D. Ripon and Wesleyan 1901 and Oberlin 1908; LL.D. Baker University 1912 and Washburn College 1915; trustee of Ripon since 1901; lecturer at Smith 1892-93 and at Vassar 1897-98; chairman of commission on interchurch relations of National Council of Congregational Churches and its successor, General Council of the Congregational and Christian Churches, since 1923; member of commission on Comity, Federation and Unity 1921 and 1922; corporate member of American Board since 1923; member of its Angola Jubilee Committee and as such attended jubilee observance of Angola Mission, West Africa, in 1930; author: The Teacher's Life of Christ (1907), Studies in the Life of St. Paul (1908), History of the Hebrews (1914; revised edition 1929), The Messages of the Sages (1918), The Program of Christianity (1918), Old Testament Prophecy (1921), Old Testament History (1922); co-author (with Professor Charles F. Kent, ’89): The Messages of the Earlier Prophets (1898) and The Messages of the Later Prophets (1899); co-author (with Henry T. Fowler, ’90): Outlines for Study of Biblical History and Literature (1906); co-editor (with Professor Kent): The Historical Series for Bible Students (9 vols.) and The Messages of the Bible (2 vols.) (1897-1918); co-editor (with Professor Harlan P. Beach, ’78): The World’s Living Religions (10 vols.) (1924-1931); co-editor (with H. A. Sherman): The Life and Religion Series (10 vols.) (1921-26); member American Oriental Society, Society of Biblical Literature and Exegesis, Archeological Institute of America, Academy of Political and Social Science, Religious Education Association (president 1903), and First Congregational Church, Rockport.

Married June 27, 1888, at Whitewater, Wis., Edith Blackman, Ripon ex-’84, daughter of Charles Morris and Mary Elizabeth (Billings) Blackman. Children: Helen (B.A. Mount Holyoke 1912), the wife of James S. Allen (B.A. Brown 1898; LL.B. Harvard 1903); Morris Blackman (B.A. Washburn 1914; M.D. Harvard 1919); and Frank Knight, Jr. (B.A. Amherst 1917; M.B.A. Harvard 1921).

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Beech Grove...
Cemetery, Rockport. Survived by wife, daughter, sons, two brothers, Rev. William H. Sanders (B.A. Williams 1877; B.D. Hartford Seminary Foundation 1880; D.D. Williams 1912), of Wilmington, Del., and Joseph Anthony Sanders (B.A. Amherst 1878; M.D. New York University 1882), of Clifton Springs, N. Y., and a half brother, Walter E. Sanders, '94.

Martha Austin Phelps, Ph.D. 1898.

Born February 13, 1870, in Georgia, Vt.
Died March 15, 1933, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, George Austin, a farmer; served throughout the Civil War with 1st Vermont Regiment Mother, Ann Eliza (Wilson) Austin; daughter of William and Tryphosa (Allen) Wilson, of Colchester, Vt.

Easthampton (Mass.) High School; B.S. Smith 1892, M.A. 1910; taught science in the public school in Saratoga, N. Y., 1892–93 and in Holyoke, Mass., 1893–96; student in Yale Graduate School 1896–1900 (graduate scholar 1897–98 and university fellow 1898–99); assistant chemist at Rhode Island Experiment Station 1900–01; taught science at Wilson College 1901–04; subsequently engaged with her husband in research work in chemistry for some years; chemist with Bureau of Standards at Washington 1908–09; had contributed numerous articles to American Journal of Science, a chapter on analysis of prehistoric bronzes to Volume I of Raphael Pumpelly's Explorations in Turkestan; Prehistoric Civilizations of Anan, and to Rhode Island State Bulletins; member Payson Church (Congregational), Easthampton.

Married June 27, 1904, in Easthampton, Isaac King Phelps (B.A. 1894, Ph.D. 1897; M.A. Harvard 1898), son of John and Cornitha Jane (King) Phelps, and brother of Wyllys I. Phelps, '02 S. No children.

Death probably due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Cremation took place in Springfield and ashes were buried in the old East Haven Cemetery. Survived by husband.

Clara Maria Hitchcock, Ph.D. 1900.

Born May 16, 1853, in Columbus, Ohio.
Died April 11, 1933, in Cleveland, Ohio.

Father, Rev. Henry Lawrence Hitchcock (B.A. 1832; D.D. Williams 1855); son of Peter Hitchcock (B.A. 1801; LL.D. Marietta 1845, Western Reserve 1849) and Nabby (Cook) Hitchcock, of Hudson, Ohio. Mother, Clarissa Mary Sophia (Ford) Hitchcock; daughter of Stephen and Eunice (Brooks) Ford, of Burton, Ohio. Yale relatives include; Rev. Reuben Hitchcock (B.A. 1786) (great-uncle); Reuben Hitchcock (B.A. 1826) (uncle); Rev. Charles E. Hitchcock, '86 D. (brother); Charles Seymour, '08, and Lawrence S. Hitchcock, '19 (nephews); Mrs. John Angel, '01 Art Certificate (niece); and Seymour St. John and Charles Seymour, Jr., both 1935 (grandnephews).

Hudson Female Seminary; graduated from Lake Erie Seminary (now College) in 1871; taught English literature at Michigan Seminary, Kalamazoo, 1873-75, and mental philosophy, psychology, and political economy at Lake Erie Seminary 1888-1892; studied in Yale Graduate School 1894-96, at University of Chicago 1896-97 (Ph.B. 1897), at University of Berlin summer of 1897, and at Yale again 1897-1900; professor of philosophy at Lake Erie College 1897-1910, of philosophy and education 1910-16, and psychology, philosophy, and education 1916-17, then retired; member American Philosophical Association and Euclid Avenue Congregational Church, Cleveland; president of National Alumnae Association of Lake Erie College 1917-1921.

Death due to carcinoma of the breast. Buried in Markellie Cemetery, Hudson. Survived by no immediate relatives.

Allan Douglas Risteen, Ph.D. 1903.

Born August 15, 1866, in Amesbury, Mass.
Died December 30, 1932, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, John C. Risteen; expert accountant; member Massachusetts Legislature; son of Jacob and Eliza (Campbell) Risteen, of Fredericton and Jacksonville, New Brunswick. Mother, Hannah Ellsworth (Godsoe) Risteen; daughter of Benjamin and Hannah (Morrill) Godsoe, of Amesbury.

Amesbury High School; B.S. Worcester Polytechnic Institute 1885; took graduate work in languages and physical science at Dartmouth 1885-86; engaged in field work in New Hampshire and Massachusetts with Professor Elihu T. Quimby of Dartmouth summer of 1885 and assistant to Professor Charles S. Peirce of Stevens Institute of Technology upon pendulum observations summer of 1886; computer with U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey 1886-87; editor of Power 1887-88; and also an associate editor of the Century Dictionary; assistant to Professor Peirce in U. S. Coast Survey work at Milford, Pa., May-August, 1888; in charge of computations for State Topographical Survey of Massachusetts August-December, 1888; connected with research department of Hartford Steam Boiler Inspection & Insurance Company as general consultant and editor of The Locomotive 1888-1911; student in Yale Graduate School 1900-03; since 1911 had been director of technical research for The Travelers Insurance Company of Hartford; Eng.D. Worcester Polytechnic Institute 1929; author: Molecules and the Molecular Theory (1895), The Metric System (1898), Biographies of Persons on the Inspection Division in The Travelers Insurance Company (1914), and Scaffolds (1915); assistant editor of the New Americana in charge of topics relating to chemistry; contributed to Foundation Library and The Travelers Standard; an organizer of the National Safety Council (1912) and member of its board of directors until death; vice-director of American Bureau of Welding and former officer of American Welding Society; trustee of Hartford Public Library; member National Association of Stationary Engineers, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, American Association for the Advancement of Science, Society for Testing Materials, Astronomical Society of the Pacific, *Verein Deutscher Ingenieure, Yale Engineering Society, Yale chapter of Sigma Xi, and Hartford Historical Society; honorary member Association des Industriels de France contre les Accidents du Travail.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Maplewood Cemetery, West Upton, Mass. Survived by wife and a sister, Mrs. Walter Burnham, of Beverly, Mass.

Arthur Sargent Field, Ph.D. 1909.

Born February 21, 1874, in Williamsburg, Kans.
Died November 27, 1932, in Washington, D. C.

Father, Alvah Eugene Field, a merchant; son of Sargent and Sarah (Cobb) Field, of Chicago, Ill. Mother, Isabella (Storms) Field; daughter of James and Margaret (Brown) Storms, of Brookline, Ill.

Hyde Park High School, Chicago; B.A. Dartmouth 1902 (member Phi Beta Kappa) and M.A. 1903; fellow in economics at University of Wisconsin 1903-04; instructor in economics at University of Illinois 1904-07; student in Yale Graduate School 1907-08; instructor in economics at Dartmouth 1909-11; expert in research activities of Bureau of Railway Economics, Washington, D. C., 1911-18; had since been connected with Bureau of Valuation of Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, as valuation analyst 1918-1920 and since then as assistant supervisor of accounts; member of committee on tentative valuations of Interstate Commerce Commission 1923-1932 and chairman of committee to recommend recapture values 1929-1932; had contributed to American Economic
Graduate School

Married September 17, 1903, in St. Johnsbury, Vt., Lulu Mabel Harvey, Wellesley ex-'97, daughter of Amos Clarke and Carrie (Field) Harvey. Children: Robert Harvey; Helen Kathrina, Western College, Oxford, Ohio, 1934; and Theodore Sargent, American University, Washington, 1934.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Rock Creek Cemetery, Washington. Survived by wife, sons, and daughter.
SCHOOL OF THE FINE ARTS

Dewey VanCott, B.F.A. 1924.

Born May 12, 1899, in Salt Lake City, Utah.
Died September 21, 1932, in Mount Vernon, N. Y.

Father, Oscar VanCott (B.S. University of Utah 1915); principal of Salt Lake City High School, supervisor of grammar schools, and superintendent of schools of County of Salt Lake; son of John and Caroline (Pratt) VanCott, of Salt Lake City. Mother, Ida (Quayle VanCott; daughter of Thomas and Sarah (Partington) Quayle, of Oakland, Calif.

Salt Lake City High School; attended University of Utah 1915-17; Private, S.A.T.C., University of Utah, October 7—December 5, 1918; connected with Glade & Giles, advertising agency, Salt Lake City, 1919-1920; studied at Chicago Academy of the Fine Arts 1920-22 (graduated 1922); director of art at O. F. Barbour High School, Rockford, Ill., 1921 and organizer and director of Business Men’s Sketch Club; head of Art Institute, Springfield, Ill., 1922-23; studied in Yale School of the Fine Arts 1923-24; taught in summer school of Chicago Academy of the Fine Arts 1924; civic art director of City of New Britain, Conn., 1924-1930 and organizer of summer school there (during leave of absence in 1929 spent eight months studying at the Julian Academy, Paris, and rest of the year at the University of Syracuse); since 1930 had been art director of art schools in Mount Vernon; received honorable mention in a mural painting competition of Beaux Arts Institute of Design, New York in 1923 and the next year won two first medals in its painting competition.

Married November 5, 1921, in Rockford, Ill., Fern, daughter of William Richard and Mary Elizabeth (McCardell) Hill. Children Bryce Dewey and Nancy Joan.

Death due to coronary thrombosis and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Salt Lake City Cemetery. Survived by wife, son, daughter, father, four brothers, W. Vaughn VanCott, B.F.A. 1928, Earl R. VanCott (B.S. University of Chicago 1912; M.D. Rush Medical College 1914), John L. VanCott, University of Utah Law School ex-’27, and Byron Q. VanCott (B.F. University of Utah 1933), all of Salt Lake City, and two sisters, Effay VanCott Young, wife of Dow H. Young (B.S. University of Utah 1914), of Salt Lake City and Mary VanCott Quinn (B.A. University of Utah 1922), wife of Bernard W. Quinn, of Bogota, N. J.
SCHOOL OF FORESTRY

George Lemon Clothier, M.F. 1903.

Died August 29, 1932, in Florence, Kans.

Father, Henderson Hall Clothier, a farmer at Paxico, Kans.; son of Samuel and Rachel (Crawford) Clothier, of West Virginia.
Mother, Jane (Clark) Clothier; daughter of George Bozarth and Matilda (Stone) Clark, of West Virginia.

B.S. Kansas State Agricultural College 1892 (member Alpha Beta Literary Society); taught country schools and worked on his father's farm 1892-95; graduate student and assistant in botany at Kansas State Agricultural College 1895-99 (M.S. 1899); in the U. S. Forest Service 1900-01 and again 1903-05; studied in Yale School of Forestry 1901-03; assistant in horticulture and later professor of botany and forestry at Mississippi Agricultural and Mechanical College 1905-1911; professor of forestry and head of the department at Washington State Agricultural College 1911-15; had since been engaged in farming and stock raising on his farm near Cedar Point, Kans.; superintendent of public instruction for Wabaunsee County 1892-94; contributor to American Breeders' Magazine, American Forestry Magazine, Kansas Farmer, Proceedings of Society of American Foresters, and bulletins of Kansas Experiment Station; member American Forestry Association, American Breeders' Association, and Cedar Point Presbyterian Church.

Married August 14, 1906, in Erica, Va., Nellie Antoinette, daughter of Nathaniel Turner and Mary Farley (Peck) Ames. Children: George Lemon, Jr.; Elizabeth; Mary (Mrs. August Lalouette); and Norman.

Allan Bouton Patterson, M.F. 1904.

Born January 22, 1875, in Concord, N. H.
Died January 24, 1933, in Napa, Calif.

Father, Joab Nelson Patterson (B.A. Dartmouth 1860); Colonel of 1st New Hampshire Volunteers in Civil War; Captain of 2d New Hampshire Volunteers in Spanish-American War and Quartermaster of 3d Division, 1st Army Corps; United States Marshal; second auditor of the Treasury; son of Joab and Mary (Lovering) Patterson, of Hopkinton, N. H. Mother, Sarah (Bouton) Patterson; daughter of Rev. Nathaniel Bouton (B.A. 1821; D.D. Dartmouth 1851) and Elizabeth Ann (Cilley) Bouton, of Concord.

Phillips-Andover; B.S. Dartmouth 1898 (member Alpha Delta Phi); Private, 1st New Hampshire Volunteers, April 9–November 20, 1898, and in 3d Division, 1st Ambulance Corps; in office of General Electric Company, Schenectady, N. Y., 1899–1900; entered Yale School of Forestry in 1902 and also took courses in mineralogy and botany in Graduate School 1902–03; in employ of U. S. Forest Service 1902–1915; student assistant 1902–04, forest assistant 1904–06, special agent of Bureau of Corporations 1907–08, chief of Bureau of Federal Coöperation 1908–1910, and supervisor of Sequoia National Forest, California, with headquarters at Hot Springs 1910–15; during this period also engaged in private consulting work in Baltimore, Md. (1907), in partnership with Alfred K. Chittenden, '00 S. and '02 F., under firm name of Chittenden & Patterson; since 1915 had been engaged in prune growing on his ranch in Napa County; in summer of 1932 again in employ of Forest Service in charge of Banner Mountain Lookout near Nevada City; member Society of American Foresters, Charles King Camp, No. 35, U. S. War Veterans, and St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Napa.

Unmarried.

Death, due to an acute intestinal obstruction, followed an operation. Cremation took place and ashes were buried in Blossom Hill Cemetery, Concord. Survived by a brother, Louis M. Patterson, of Portland, Maine, and a sister, Mrs. Julia Patterson Guyol, of Concord.

Raymond Davis, M.F. 1907.

Born September 5, 1883, in Portland, Maine.
Died January 4, 1933, in Prague, Czechoslovakia.

Father, John Hobart Davis; clerk with Casco Mercantile Trust Company of Portland and cashier of Casco National Bank; served with 13th Maine Regiment in Civil War; son of Solomon and Mary (Berry) Davis, of Portland. Mother, Jennie Elisa (Constable) Davis daughter of William and Mary Ann (Davison) Constable, of New London, Prince Edward Island.

Portland High School, B.A. Bowdoin 1905 (member Psi Upsilon) entered Yale School of Forestry 1905; surveyor with Weyerhaeuser Timber Company of Cloquet, Minn., 1907–09; engaged in fruit ranching at North Yakima, Wash., 1909–1913; subsequently super intendent of county road construction for Leonard & Fitzhugh Company and cashier of Warren Construction Company, North Yakima; enlisted at Fort McDowell, Calif., July 12, 1917, and assigned to Company F, 10th Engineers; later with 20th Engineers, Camp American University, Washington, D. C.; commissioned Second Lieutenant, Engineers Officers' Reserve Corps, January 7, 1918; assigned to 43d Engineers; commissioned First Lieutenant, Engineers, National Army, May 9, 1918; and overseas that month; Adjutant, Battalion Headquarters, Forestry District of LaPuy, until November; assigned to Railroad and Construction Service at Tours and Chaumont May–October, 1918; received discharge in Paris October 1, 1919; served as transportation officer for Serbian Relief Commission in Serbia and Greece October 2, 1919–May 15, 1920; commissioned First Lieutenant, Engineers, Officers' Reserve Corps, September 1, 1921; resigned commission December 22, 1921; again commissioned First Lieutenant, Engineers, Officers' Reserve Corps, November 6, 1922–October 10, 1932; employed at Crossman's Box Factory, Portland, in 1920 and engaged in road construction for Hassam Paving Company in Maine in 1921; had been in the United States Consular Service since November, 1921; consul at Aden, Arabia, 1921–24; consul in charge of visa department, U. S. Consulate, Paris, 1924–29; consul at Rosario, Argentina, 1929–1932 and at Prague since April, 1932; member First Parish Church (Unitarian), Portland.

Death due to a fall. Buried in American division of Versailles Cemetery. Survived by wife and a brother, Marshall Davis, of Portland.

Willis Norman Millar, M.F. 1908.

Born October 18, 1883, in Pittsburgh, Pa.
Died June 29, 1933, in Martinsville, Ind.

Father, Willis Norwell Millar; in insurance business under his own name; son of George Bruce and Margaret (Wandless) Millar, of Pittsburgh. Mother, Mary Ann (Drum) Millar; daughter of Philip and Eliza Ann (Lowe) Drum, of Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh High School; B.S. University of Pennsylvania 1906; attended Yale School of Forestry 1906–08; with U. S. Forest Service 1908–1912, as forest assistant at Kaniksu National Forest, Idaho, 1908 and acting supervisor, Newport, Wash., 1908–09 and supervisor 1909–1912; district forester in charge of forest reserve work, Alberta District, Forestry Branch, Department of the Interior,
Canada, with headquarters at Calgary, 1912-14; assistant professor of forestry, University of Toronto, 1914-1920 and associate professor since 1920; camp superintendent with Civilian Conservation Corps, Morgan-Monroe Forest, Martinsville, since May 21, 1933; Private, Canadian Officers’ Training Corps, 1916; enlisted in U. S. Army April 26, 1917; attended first Officers’ Training Camp at Fort Niagara, N. Y.; commissioned Captain, Engineers, June 28, 1917; assigned to Company A, 10th Engineers, July 19; overseas September 10, 1917-September 20, 1918; promoted to Major July 30, 1918; assigned to Camp A. A. Humphreys, Va., as Engineer Officer in charge of rifle range construction, September 20-December 20, 1918; restored to active service in France June 10, 1919; furloughed to Officers’ Reserve Corps in August, 1919; returned to United States September 28; given his discharge December 19, 1919; author: Game Preservation in the Canadian Rockies (1915), Forest Investigation in Canada (1915), Methods of Communication adapted to Forest Protection (1920), Report on a Subsistence Policy for the Riding Mountains Forest (1921), Status of Forestry in Western Canada (1922), and Let’s Beat the Bugs to It (1932); acting secretary, International Alumni Association, at Toronto 1930 and secretary 1931 and 1932; member Society of American Foresters, American Forestry Association, American Society of Military Engineers, Canadian Forestry Association, Canadian Society of Forest Engineers, and Shadyside United Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh; charter member Toronto Post No. 5, American Legion, first adjutant 1927-28, and commander 1929-1930; first vice-commander Department of Canada, American Legion, 1928 and department commander 1928-29 (alternate on national executive committee 1930-31 and member of committee 1931-32).

Death due to a heart attack. Buried in Allegheny Cemetery, Pittsburgh. Survived by wife, two daughters, two sons, a brother, Bruce D. Millar (B.S. University of Pennsylvania 1907), of Pittsburgh, and a sister, Sylvia M. Magill (B.A. University of Pittsburgh 1919), wife of Robert B. Magill (B.S. University of Pittsburgh 1920), of Edgewood, Pa.
Levon Hampartzum Koomey, M.F. 1912.
(formerly Levon Hampartzum Kooyumjian)

Born December 25, 1885, in Etchma, Harpoot, Turkey.

Father, Hampartzum Boghos (or Paul) Kooyumjian, a merchant; son of Boghos and Toomig (Mardirosian) Kooyumjian, of Etchma. Mother, Arzoon (Mardirosian) Kooyumjian; daughter of Mardiros and Sarah (Movsesian) Mardirosian, of Etchma.

Came to this country at age of seven; Worcester Classical High School; B.A. Amherst 1909 (member Football and Track teams and Sigma Delta Rho); studied in Yale School of Forestry 1909-1910 and 1911-12; in United States Forest Service, with headquarters at Boise National Forest, Idaho, 1912-14; in employ of Hammond Lumber Company at Eureka, Calif., in 1914; in Forest Service again, as assistant forest ranger in Montana, 1914-15; member of firm of Newhall & Koomey, engineers, Montclair, N. J., 1915-17; enlisted as Private, Corps of Engineers, July 21, 1917; served overseas with 3d Company, 20th Engineers (Forest Regiment), November 12, 1917-April 18, 1919; engaged in lumbering in Southern France; injured at Landes July 18, 1918; received discharge April 29, 1919; had been in business in Worcester since 1919, at first as New England representative for Arthur E. Lane Lumber Corporation of New York City and since 1921 as an independent forest engineer and consulting forester; junior member Society of American Foresters; member First Congregational Church, New Britain, Conn.

Death due to arteriosclerosis and a cerebral embolism. Cremation took place at Forest Hills Cemetery, Boston, and ashes were buried in Hope Cemetery, Worcester. Survived by wife, sons, a brother, James Kooyumjian, of Fresno, Calif., and a sister, Mrs. Heranoosh Avakian, of Arlington Heights, Mass.
SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

Henry Floyd Gamble, M.D. 1891.
Born January 16, 1862, in Northgarden, Va.

Father, Henry Harmon Gamble; son of George and Judia Gamble, of Northgarden. Mother, Willie Ann (Howard) Gamble; daughter of Marcus Derrit and Eliza Howard, of Northgarden.

Prepared himself for college; studied at Lincoln University 1882-88 (B.A. 1888); entered Yale School of Medicine in 1888; had practiced medicine in Charleston since 1891; also interested in building houses for persons of moderate means and renting them at least possible cost; member executive board of Supreme Liberty Life Insurance Company since 1921; member National Medical Association (chairman of executive board 1905-09 and of committee on medical education and hospitals 1910), West Virginia State Medical Association, Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity, and First Baptist Church, Charleston.

Maximilian Lawrence Loeb, M.D. 1897.
Born June 1, 1874, in New York City.
Died April 13, 1933, in New York City.

Father, Isaac Loeb, a merchant in New Haven and New York; son of Rachel Loeb. Mother, Jennie (Apple) Loeb; daughter of Louis Apple. Brother: Joseph A. Loeb, '03 M.

Hillhouse High School and The New Grammar School; entered Yale School of Medicine in 1894; took graduate work at University of Heidelberg 1897-98; had practiced in New York City since 1898; served as a Captain in the Medical Corps during the war; received his discharge January 18, 1918; president of Inwood Credit Union of New York City since 1923; member American Legion and Inwood Hebrew Congregation, New York.

Married May 26, 1901, in New Haven, Gertrude, daughter of Maurice and Amelia Hyman. One daughter, Estelle (Mrs. Armand L. Zinn).

Death due to heart failure. Buried in Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, daughter, one grandchild, and two sisters, Mrs. Joseph Mernstein and Mrs. Nathan Schwemer, both of Stamford, Conn.

Frank John McGuire, M.D. 1897.
Born December 12, 1868, in New Haven, Conn.
Died December 22, 1932, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Patrick Henry McGuire; in lumber business. Mother, Beatrice (MacCarthy) McGuire; daughter of Thomas MacCarthy (University of Dublin), of Belfast, Ireland.

New Haven High School; entered Yale School of Medicine in 1894; had practiced in New Haven since 1897, except for two years spent in graduate work at University of Dublin (1897-98) and London Surgical Hospital (1898-99); associated with Dr. Leonard W. Bacon, '88, and Anthony J. Mendillo, '07 M., in the operation of York Square Hospital 1908-1914, as a director and consultant; consultant at Grace Hospital 1927-1932; assistant in medicine at Grace Hospital 1929-1930; member Connecticut State, New Haven County, and American Medical associations, and St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church.

Married October 2, 1907, in New Haven, Katherine Nancy, daughter of John Henry and Josephine (Kennedy) Moore. Children: Richard Francis, ex-'31, and Frank James, '32.

Frederic Tremaine Billings, M.D. 1898.
Born July 5, 1873, in Ridgewood, N. J.
Died January 5, 1933, in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Father, Luther Guiteau Billings; assistant paymaster and paymaster, U. S. Navy, during Civil War and later pay inspector and pay director; son of Andrew and Abby (Sheldon) Billings, of Remsen, N. Y. Mother, Laura Elizabeth (Tremaine) Billings. Yale relatives: Luther G. Billings, Jr., '98 (brother); and Colby M. Chester, Jr., '97 S. (cousin).

Mohegan Lake School; attended United States Naval Academy for a time as member of Class of 1895; entered Yale School of Medicine in 1895 (member Skull and Sceptre); interne at Paterson (N. J.) Hospital 1898-1900; studied pathology, surgery, and medicine at Charité Hospital, Berlin, 1900-01; practiced medicine in Brooklyn, N. Y., 1901-04; on surgical staff of Brooklyn Central Dispensary and of Out-patient Department of Seney Hospital, Brooklyn; medical examiner in Brooklyn 1901-04 and chief medical examiner in Pittsburgh and Allegheny 1904 for Equitable Life Insurance Company; had practiced in Pittsburgh since 1904; on staff of South Side Hospital 1905-08, Tuberculosis Hospital 1905-07, Pittsburgh Sanatorium 1906-08, St. Francis Hospital 1914-16, and Allegheny General Hospital 1916-17; chief of staff, Medical Department of St. Joseph's Hospital 1911-19; chief of 2d Medical Service at Western Pennsylvania Hospital since 1918; instructor in internal medicine at University of Pittsburgh Medical School 1910-16; medical examiner for Local Draft Board in 1918; member of University of Pittsburgh Medical Unit; commissioned Lieutenant Commander, Medical Corps, U.S.N.R.F., October 15, 1918, and stationed at Naval Hospital, Philadelphia, until released from active duty about January 1, 1919; fellow of American College of Physicians; member American Medical Association, Allegheny County Medical Society, Pittsburgh Academy of Medicine, National Association for Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, Brooklyn Pathological Society, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, and Calvary Episcopal Church, Pittsburgh.

Married October 6, 1909, in Eccleston, Md., Romaine, daughter of Frank LeMoyne (M.D. University of Pennsylvania 1863) and Lucretia Orth (Lewis) LeMoyne. Children: Frederic Tremaine, Jr. (B.A. Princeton 1933); Lucretia; and Kirk LeMoyne.

Death due to subacute bacterial endocarditis. Buried in Allegheny Cemetery, Pittsburgh. Survived by wife, sons, and daughter.

Henry Cottrell Rowland, M.D. 1898.

Born May 12, 1874, in New York City.
Died June 6, 1933, in Washington, D. C.

Father, George Rowland; banker and broker; president of Batopilas Mining Corporation of Mexico; served in Civil War; son of Rev. James Edwards Rowland, M.D., and Catharine Avery (Morgan)
Rowland, of Windsor, Conn. Mother, Maria Townsend (Durfee) Rowland; daughter of Philo and Mary Warner (White) Durfee, of Buffalo and Brooklyn, N. Y. Yale relatives include: Rev. David S. Rowland (B.A. 1743) and Moses Bliss (B.A. 1755) (great-great-grandfathers); Rev. William F. Rowland (honorary M.A. 1787) (great-great-uncle); Rev. Henry A. Rowland (B.A. 1823) and William S. Rowland (B.A. 1836) (great-uncles); and Jasper M. Rowland, Jr., ex-'34 (nephew).

King's School, Stamford, Conn.; attended Williams College 1892-93 as member of Class of 1896 (member Sigma Phi); student in Yale School of Medicine 1895-98 (treasurer of his Class; member Class Book Committee); enlisted in 1st Battalion, New York Naval Militia, April 28, 1898; served on board U. S. auxiliary cruiser "Yankee" and took part in bombardment of Santiago; received discharge September 2, 1898; commissioned Assistant Surgeon, U.S.A., in February, 1899, and took part in Philippine campaign 1899-1900 on hospital ship "Relief" and on Luzon and the southern Philippine Islands; practiced medicine in New York City 1900-05; took special course in operative surgery at New York Polyclinic Hospital 1901-02; lived abroad 1905-1919 and engaged in literary work; while in Paris 1905-1911, took graduate work at l'École de Médecine; lived in Vermenton, France, 1911-16; served as health officer of Department of the Yonne, as deputy general of Gendarmerie Nationale, and as director of a military hospital in Accolay 1914-15; also established a military auxiliary hospital at Deauville in July, 1915; engaged in allied publicity and propaganda work in the United States 1916-18; war correspondent for Collier's Weekly during January, 1918; special agent of Intelligence Department, U. S. Navy, in France February-May, 1918, and then continued propaganda work in this country until end of the war; had since continued to engage in literary work; author: Sea Scamps (1903), To Windward (1904), The Wanderers (1905), In the Shadow (1905), The Mountain of Fears (1906), The Countess Diane (1908), Germaine (1909), Across Europe in a Motor Boat (1908), In the Service of the Princess (1909), The Pilot Fish (1910) (republished under title of The Magnet in 1922), The Apple of Discord (1912), The Closing Net (1912), The Sultana (1913), Filling His Own Shoes (1914), Pearl Island (1919), Duds (1919), The Peddler (1920), Mile High (1921), Hirondelle (1922), The Return of Frank Clamart (1923), Of Clear Intent (1923), and Many Mansions (1932); had contributed to numerous periodicals, among them the Atlantic, Century, Harper's, Harper's Bazaar, Scribner's, Outlook, American Magazine, Cosmopolitan, Everybody's, Yachting, and Saturday Evening Post; in 1924 built from his own design a schooner, the "Mary," and used it in cruising about the world; member Author's League, New York County Medical Society, and St. Thomas's Episcopal Church, Washington.

Married June 22, 1910, in London, Mary Fulton, daughter of John Daniel Parkinson (B.A. University of Wisconsin 1861; University of Michigan Law School 1864-65) and Mary Louise (Fulton) Parkinson. Children: Henry Cottrell, Jr., '34 S.; Peter Morgan (died in 1914); and Diana.

Death due to lymphosarcoma. Buried in Arlington National Cemetery. Survived by wife, one son, daughter, father, two sisters, Katherine R. Lauder, the widow of George Lauder, Jr., '00 S., and Mary R. Ewing, the wife of Frederic Ewing, '06 S., both of Greenwich, Conn., and a brother, John T. Rowland, '11. Another brother, Jasper M. Rowland, '00 S., died in 1932.

William Joseph Cooney, M.D. 1902.

Born August 1, 1874, in New Haven, Conn.
Died January 22, 1933, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Lawrence Cooney, a merchant and in plumbing business; son of Christopher and Catherine (Byrnes) Cooney, of Drogheda, Ireland. Mother, Mary (Doyle) Cooney; daughter of Anthony and Mary (Murphy) Doyle, of Ireland.

Hillhouse High School; entered Yale with College Class of 1899; at end of Sophomore year transferred to the Medical School; served internship at Rotunda Hospital, Dublin, Ireland, eight months in 1902 and at Coom Hospital, Dublin, six months in 1903; had practiced in New Haven since 1903 with the exception of the years 1908-1910, during which he practiced in Ansonia, Conn.; assisted in pediatric clinic of Grace Hospital 1921-25; city physician of New Haven 1926-1932; examiner and physician for American Steel & Wire Company 1912-19; examiner for American Insurance Union since 1914 and for Knights of Columbus since 1913; member American Medical Association, New Haven and New Haven County Medical societies, and St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church.

Married June 26, 1907, in New Haven, Agnes Elizabeth, daughter of Michael and Elizabeth (Keough) Hussion. Children: Mary Elizabeth; and Miriam (Albertus Magnus College 1934).

Death due to pulmonary tuberculosis. Buried in St. Lawrence Cemetery, West Haven. Survived by wife and daughters.
School of Medicine

Charles Lester Curtiss, M.D. 1903.

Born March 15, 1879, in New Haven, Conn.
Died September 27, 1932, in Redlands, Calif.

Father, Myron Winchell Curtiss; senior partner in firm of Curtiss & Bradley, stationers, engravers, and bookbinders, New Haven; son of Aaron and Louisa (Winchell) Curtiss, of East Haven, Conn. Mother, Olive Maria (King) Curtiss; daughter of George and Sarah Pease (Abbe) King, of New Haven. First cousins: George R. King, '09 S., and Richmond H. Curtiss, '31 F.

Hopkins Grammar School and New Haven High School; special student in Sheffield Scientific School 1897–99 and then entered Yale School of Medicine (member Skull and Sceptre); practiced in New Haven 1903–05 and in Manchester, N. H., 1905–1915; chief of medical staff of Elliott Hospital, Manchester, 1910–15; had practiced in Redlands since 1916, specializing in internal medicine; internist on Medical Advisory Board for San Bernardino, Riverside, and Imperial counties 1917–18 and local Draft Board of Riverside County 1917; on tuberculosis staff of San Bernardino County Hospital 1919–1922; engaged in special work on tuberculosis at Colorado Springs in 1920; secretary-treasurer of San Bernardino County Medical Society 1917–1920 and president 1920–21; president of Redlands Rotary Club 1920–21; member American Medical Association, California Medical Association (member of council 1923–29), San Bernardino County Medical Society, Southern California Medical Society, and Trinity Episcopal Church, Redlands.

Death due to pneumonia following an operation for duodenal ulcers. Cremation took place and ashes were buried in Hillside Cemetery, Redlands. Survived by wife and a sister, Bertha King Gillette, widow of George W. F. Gillette, '96 S., of Alhambra, Calif.

Born May 24, 1885, in Otterville, Ill.
Died February 11, 1933, in Canton, Mo.

Father, Lyman Trumbull Waggoner (M.D. Missouri Medical College, St. Louis, 1889), a physician in Chicago and Los Angeles; son of Benjamin Franklin and Mary Jane (Hughes) Waggoner, of Otterville. Mother, Della (Teaney) Waggoner; daughter of John Wood and Narcissa Jane (Lee) Teaney, of Fayette, Ill.

Preparatory education received at Shurtleff and McKendree colleges; attended Harvard Dental School 1902-03; studied at American School of Osteopathy at Kirksville, Mo., 1903 and 1904; began study of medicine with his father in 1904 and entered Yale School of Medicine in 1905 (chairman of Graduation Committee; member Nu Sigma Nu); practiced in Kirksville 1909-1919 and taught anatomy, surgery, and physical diagnosis in Kirksville College of Osteopathy and Surgery; practiced in Des Moines, Iowa, 1919-1920; in Atlantic City, N. J., where owner and operator of Waggoner Hospital 1920-21; in Kirksville again 1921-24 and served as surgeon-in-chief to American School of Osteopathy Hospital; and in Canton since 1924; owner and operator of Canton Community Hospital.

Married February 11, 1911, in Kirksville, to Bessie Ammerman (graduate nurse, American School of Osteopathy Hospital 1908), daughter of Frank Sneed and Margaret Ammerman. Children: Bettie Jane and John Lyman.

Died suddenly. Cremation took place. Survived by wife, daughter, son, parents, and a sister, Miss Flora Marguerite Waggoner, of Los Angeles.
SCHOOL OF LAW

BACHELORS OF LAWS

Terah Haggin Patterson, LL.B. 1881.

Born February 21, 1856, near Midway, Ky.
Died November 7, 1932, in El Paso, Texas.

Father, Joseph Patterson (Georgetown College, Ky.), a civil engineer; son of James and Nancy (Fleming) Patterson, of Scott County, Ky. Mother, Susan (Haggin) Patterson; daughter of Terah and Adeline F. (Ben Ali) Haggin, of Harrodsburg, Ky.

Midway and Toronto, Ontario, schools; entered Yale School of Law in 1879; took graduate work in the Law School and received degree of LL.M. in 1882; in hardware business in St. Louis, Mo., 1882-89; practiced law in Kansas City, with firm of R. G. Dun & Company 1889-1890; elder in Church of the Disciples, Galveston, Texas, 1890-92; minister of the Christian Church, Reserve, Beaumont, and San Marcos, Texas, 1892-1903; speculator in oil lands at Houston, Texas, 1903-1910; engaged in ranching at Deming, N. Mex., 1910-14 and then at Ysleta, Texas, until retirement in 1917; elder in First Christian Church, El Paso.

Married March 14, 1891, in Galveston, Leila Roberta Patterson, daughter of Robert and Lucy Durham (Webb) Milam, of Harrisburg, Texas. Children: Robert Milam; Colvin Ben Ali; Martha Webb, Pomona College ex-23 (Mrs. John I. Peterson); Hattie Wheeler, wife of John Morgan McKean, University of Arizona ex-22; and Rosa McDonald (Mrs. Robert Oliver).

Death due to acute bacterial endocarditis. Buried in Restlawn Cemetery, El Paso. Survived by wife, two sons, and three daughters.

John Ireland Howard, LL.B. 1890.

Born January 18, 1866, in St. Paul, Minn.
Died November 6, 1932, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, Thomas Howard (LL.B. St. Paul Law School 1868); judge of Municipal Court of St. Paul; connected with Post Office Department of St. Paul; Civil Service examiner; son of James and Annastatia (Ireland) Howard, of Burn Church, Kilkenny County, Ireland. Mother, Ellen (Wall) Howard; daughter of William and Margaret (Wall) Wall, of Cashel, Tipperary County, Ireland.

Christian Brothers School, Alton, Ill.; took six years' classical course at Sacred Heart College, Prairie du Chien, Wis. (1883-89), and then entered Yale School of Law; practiced law in St. Paul.
George Milton Curtis, Jr., LL.B. 1893.

Born December 29, 1872, in New York City.
Died August 31, 1932, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Father, George Milton Curtis; city and corporation attorney; judge of City Court of New York; member New York Assembly and State Senate; Lieutenant, U.S.A., in Civil War; son of Beriah and Lydia M. Curtis, of Worcester, Mass. Mother, Caroline Gertrude (Minor) Curtis.

Mount Pleasant Military Academy, Ossining, N. Y.; attended Lehigh University as member of Class of 1893 (secretary of Class); entered Yale School of Law in 1891 (member College Baseball Team, Track Team, and Book and Gavel); clerk in office of corporation counsel of New York City, attached to condemnation division, and transfer tax appraiser of New York County 1895–99; trial lawyer with law department of Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company 1898–1910, assistant corporation counsel of City of New York 1911–17, in charge of subway proceedings 1911–12 and then in charge of trial department; special assistant United States district attorney for Southern District of New York 1917–19; commissioner of accounts 1925–26; magistrate of City of New York since July, 1930; chairman of speakers’ bureau of Democratic organization of Kings County 1923–1930; chairman of National Woodrow Wilson College Men’s League 1916; member New York State Naval Militia several years and of New York County Lawyers Association (member committee on criminal courts and procedure), Brooklyn Bar Association, Committee on character and fitness of candidates for admission to New York State Bar, Flatbush Merchants Association, and Flatbush Playground Association; president of Borough Hall Boys’ Association, Brooklyn.

Married July 28, 1903, in New York City, Ethel Louise, daughter of John Morse and Maria (House) Kennan, of Medina, N. Y. No children Mrs. Curtis died April 15, 1928.
School of Law

209

Death due to disease of the heart and kidneys. Survived by a niece.

Charles Boardman Whittlesey, LL.B. 1894.

Born April 16, 1871, in Auburn, Mass.
Died November 4, 1932, in Boston, Mass.

Bulkeley School, New London; connected with The Day in New London 1887-1891 (business manager 1889-1891); entered Yale School of Law in 1892 (honors Junior year; LL.B. cum laude; member executive committee of Kent Club); admitted to Connecticut Bar 1894 and had since practiced law in New London; member of firm of Brandegee, Kenealy, Brennan & Whittlesey (Frank B. Brandegee, '85) 1910-16 and of Whittlesey & Smiddy since 1926; with his partners represented Central Vermont Railroad Company 1910-1928 and the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company many years; prosecuting attorney of Court of Common Pleas since 1909; director of law of City of New London 1925-26; member of lower house of Connecticut General Assembly in 1899 and 1901; trustee of Savings Bank of New London; director of National Whaling Bank of New London since 1922, Atlantic Coast Line Railroad and American Agricultural Chemical Company since 1916, and Day Publishing Company since June, 1931; member New London County and Connecticut State Bar associations, and First Church of Christ (Congregational), New London; president of Thames Club of New London 1918.

Married April 26, 1911, in Carbondale, Ill., Cornelia Allyn, daughter of William Henry Hypes (B.A. McKendree College 1860) and Lucy (Allyn) Hypes (Cincinnati Wesleyan College 1863). No children.

Death due to general peritonitis following an abdominal operation. Buried in Cedar Grove Cemetery, New London. Survived by wife, a brother, George Whittlesey, of New London, and a sister, Mrs. Maria C. Mann, of Amherst, Mass.
William Perry Hopkins, LL.B. 1895.

Born October 25, 1869, in Bridgeport, Conn.
Died December 28, 1932, in Bridgeport, Conn.

Father, Alfred Hopkins, a heating and ventilating engineer; alderman, son of John and Abigail A. (Booth) Hopkins, of Stratford, Conn. Mother, Eunice Anna (Dile) Hopkins; daughter of John and Mary Smith (Joyce) Dile, of Norwalk, Conn.

Park Avenue Institute, Bridgeport; secretary to superintendent of Housatonic Railroad in Bridgeport, clerk with a law firm, and owner of an office for shorthand work before entering Yale School of Law in 1893; practiced law independently in Bridgeport, specializing in estate administration and probate work, 1895-1901; assistant to the president of Locomobile Company of America 1901-03; executive assistant to general superintendent of Crane Company 1903-05 and to treasurer of Columbia Phonograph Company 1905-06; member of firm of Stephen T. Williams & Staff, industrial engineers, New York, and manager of its department of sales development and promotion 1906-11; engaged in private practice as an industrial engineer in New York 1911-17; senior engineer for E. Knoeppel & Company, Inc., New York, 1918-1923, except for leave of absence in 1918, during which time served in executive department of Wright-Martin Aircraft Corporation of Long Island City; since 1923 had engaged in private practice as a consulting industrial engineer in Bridgeport and New York; made economic studies of business enterprises for chambers of commerce and bankers, adjusted appraisals on appeals for municipal tax assessments, aided in unifying and consolidating village public utilities; in recent years devoted effort to sales engineering counsel and supervision in marketing new and unusual products; had contributed to American City, Engineering Magazine, Industrial Power, Forbes Magazine, and Magazine of Wall Street; associate member American Society of Mechanical Engineers; member Fairfield County Bar Association and United Congregational Church, Bridgeport.

Married November 17, 1897, in Bridgeport, Lulu Grant, daughter of John and Sarah Josephine (Grant) Fox. Children: Alfred Lewis (died in 1926); John Ronald (B.S. in M.E. New York University 1925), and William Grant.

Death due to coronary thrombosis and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Mountain Grove Cemetery, Bridgeport. Survived by wife and two sons.
School of Law

William Stephen Levens, LL.B. 1895.

Born January 28, 1873, in Baker, Ore.
Died May 2, 1933, in Eugene, Ore.

Father, Basil Wells Levens, a hotel proprietor and dealer in mines and real estate; son of Washington Franklin and Myranda Frances (Rowles) Levens, of Cooper County, Mo. Mother, Sarah Ann (DeGuire) Levens; daughter of Paul Washington and Emily (Diel) DeGuire, of Minelamote, Mo.

Baker City High School and Hopkins Academy, Oakland, Calif.; entered Yale School of Law in 1893; taught at Hopkins Academy 1895–96; admitted to practice before Supreme Court of Oregon July 20, 1895, and in California January 13, 1896; practiced law in San Francisco part of year 1896–97, went to Alaska 1897 and lived in Skagway, Dawson, and Fairbanks, conducted a hotel at Grandforks, Yukon Territory, and owned a pack train service from White Pass to White Horse Rapids; practiced law in Baker 1900–1925, for some years as a partner in firm of Drowley & Levens; police judge of Baker City 1903–08; district attorney of 8th Judicial District of Baker County 1908–1920; had lived in Salem, Ore., since 1925; state prohibition commissioner 1925–27; practiced law independently 1927–29; assistant attorney general since 1929, assigned at first to State Industrial Commission and later in the main office.

Married (1) June 16, 1896, at Mills College, Calif., Estelle Randall Parker, Mills 1896, daughter of William and Josephine (France) Randall, of Baker. Mr. and Mrs. Levens were divorced in 1911. Married (2) December 26, 1911, in Baker, Ore., Leoda May Riley Ryan, daughter of Walter Cole and Mary Ann (Kersteter) Riley. No children by either marriage.

Bernard Eugene Lynch, LL.B. 1895.

Born June 17, 1859, in New Haven, Conn.
Died December 27, 1932, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Philip Lynch, an upholsterer; son of Bernard and Rose (Smith) Lynch, of Cavan, Ireland. Mother, Margaret Frances (Boylan) Lynch; daughter of William and Frances (Colwell) Boylan, of Kilnalek, Ireland. Yale relatives include a nephew, Richard H. Lynch, 1935.
Preparatory training received in New Haven schools and at Loveridge Business College, New Haven; clerk in shoe store of Michael Dillon, New Haven, nine years and later owner of a shoe store; attended Yale School of Law 1893-95 (charter member Phi Sigma Kappa); admitted to Connecticut Bar in 1895 and practiced law in New Haven until retirement in 1928; in partnership with Samuel S. Doroff, ’95 L., under firm name of Lynch & Doroff 1895-99, with Edwin S. Thomas, ’95 L., under name of Lynch & Thomas 1899-1903, and with his brother, Edward W. Lynch, ’98 L., under name of Lynch & Lynch 1903-1915; United States commissioner for District of Connecticut and United States extradition commissioner 1918-1926; member Municipal Building Commission of New Haven 1927-1930; during the war served as chairman of Draft Board No. 1; provincial organizer for New England of Catholic Total Abstinence Union of Connecticut and treasurer of the St. Aloysius Total Abstinence Society; member American and Connecticut State Bar associations, Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America, and St. Brendan’s Roman Catholic Church, New Haven; secretary of Class of 1895 L. from about 1913 until his resignation in 1928.

Married May 6, 1891, in New Haven, Letitia, daughter of Peter and Hannah (Moylan) Sheridan. Children: Philip Sheridan (died in infancy); Bernard Eugene, Jr., ’17; Hannah Moylan, wife of Paul E. Leary, ’17; Roger Sherman, ’19 S., and Margaret Frances.

Death due to general arteriosclerosis. Buried in St. Lawrence Cemetery, West Haven. Survived by wife, two daughters, two sons, a brother, Edward W. Lynch, and a sister, Miss Frances M. Lynch, of New Haven.

Ambrose Irving Moriarty, LL.B. 1895.

Born November 5, 1863, in Putnam, Conn.
Died March 22, 1933, in Allston, Mass.

Father, Michael Moriarty; owner of Saxon Woolen Mills, Putnam; born on Valentia Island, Ireland, and came to America in 1850; son of Bartholomew Moriarty. Mother, Emma (Seaton) Moriarty; daughter of Thomas and Eleanor (Wade) Seaton, of Osset, Yorkshire, England. Brother: Richard B. Moriarty, ’91.

Public schools, Putnam; bookkeeper with New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company in New Haven and Putnam; graduated at United States Military Academy in 1887; served as a Second Lieutenant with 6th Infantry Regiment 1887-89 and with 9th Infantry Regiment in Arizona and New Mexico 1889-1894; retired June 6, 1894, on account of disabilities received in service; in 1924 received rank of Major by a special act of Congress; entered Yale School of Law in 1893 and received LL.M. 1896; had never engaged in practice because of ill health; had lived in Putnam, Conn., and Boston, Mass.

Married September 8, 1902, in Putnam, Florence, daughter of Henry and Eliza (McFarlane) Cadmus, of Bayonne, N. J. No children. Major and Mrs. Moriarty were later divorced.

Death due to bronchopneumonia. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, Putnam. Survived by a sister, Cornelia M. Flynn (Vassar 1874-79), wife of Col. William F. Flynn (United States Military Academy 1883), of Monticello, N. Y.

Stephen Brooks Davis, LL.B. 1897.
Born November 18, 1874, in Middletown, Conn.
Died February 24, 1933, in New York City.

Father, Stephen Brooks Davis (B.A. Wesleyan 1859); lawyer in Middletown and judge of probate; son of Evan and Rachel Jane (Brooks) Davis, of Middletown. Mother, Harriet Southmayd (Woodward) Davis; daughter of William and Elizabeth Green (Southmayd) Woodward, of Middletown.

Middletown High School; B.A. Wesleyan 1895 (member Alpha Delta Phi); studied in Yale School of Law 1895-97; practiced law in Las Vegas, N. Mex., 1897-1921; city attorney 1901-03; district attorney 1903-08, at first of San Miguel, Mora, Leonard Wood, and Quay counties and from 1905 of San Miguel and Mora counties; assistant United States attorney in New Mexico 1908-1912 and attorney 1912-13; associate justice of Supreme Court of New Mexico 1921-22; solicitor for Department of Commerce, in Washington, D. C., 1923-27; director of joint committee of National Utility Associations 1927-1931; had since practiced law in New York City in association with William J. Donovan; member of first Constitutional Convention of State of New Mexico in 1911 and represented that state on Colorado River Commission in 1922; in 1924 counsel for the United States on St. Lawrence Waterways Commission and federal representative on North Platte River Commission; member of United States delegation to Preliminary Conference on Oil Pollution of Navigable Waters 1926; author: The Law of Radio Communication (1927); compiler of New Mexico Statutes Annotated (1915); vice-chairman of International Radiotelegraph Conference at Washington 1927; member American and New Mexico Bar associations and First Congregational Church, Middletown.

Married June 4, 1903, in East Las Vegas, Mary, daughter of Joseph Alexander and Jeanie Anderson (Rice) LaRue. Children
Tale Obituary Record

Stephen Brooks, Jr., Dartmouth ex-'28; Marion LaRue, wife of Charles Neale Brown, ex-'30; and Jane (B.A. Barnard 1930), wife of Ferdinand W. Bailey (B.A. Princeton 1916). Death due to a heart attack. Buried in Masonic Cemetery, Las Vegas. Survived by wife, son, daughters, and a sister, Rachel Davis deMagnin (Wells College 1897-98), wife of Henri deMagnin (Elysée, Paris, 1893), of Bronxville, N. Y.

Jay Howard Patterson, LL.B. 1898.

Born April 16, 1876, in Milford, N. J. Died April 24, 1933, in Torresdale, Pa.

Father, Rev. Isaac Matheson Patterson (Dalhousie College ex-'54; Princeton Theological Seminary 1859), a Presbyterian minister in Maryland, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey; chaplain of Maryland Senate during Civil War; son of Robert and Elizabeth (Matheson) Patterson, of River John, Pictou County, Nova Scotia. Mother, Frances Grier (Linton) Patterson; daughter of John and Frances (Grier) Linton, of West Middletown, Pa.

Bloomsburg (Pa.) Literary Institute; read law in office of Charles H. Barkley in Bloomsburg and admitted to Columbia County (Pa.) Bar February 3, 1897; entered Yale School of Law in April, 1897; practiced law in Bloomsburg 1898-99; connected with Frank L. Patterson & Company, manufacturers of machinery, in New York City 1899-1906, as clerk, city and traveling salesman 1899-1901, manager of branch office in Philadelphia 1901-02, and advertising manager 1902-06, except for nine months (April 1, 1905—January 1, 1906), when reporter for Dodge Construction Reports, published by F. W. Dodge & Company of New York; admitted to Lycoming County (Pa.) Bar April 27, 1906; practiced in Williamsport 1906-1914 and since then in Philadelphia; member of firm of Patterson & Magaziner 1917-18; United States commissioner for eastern Pennsylvania since 1929; member American and Pennsylvania Bar associations and Second Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia.

Married April 14, 1917, in Philadelphia, Gabriella Biddle, daughter of William Francis Hopkinson (Philadelphia Polytechnic '65) and Jeannette (Hileman) Hopkinson (Vassar ex-'80). Children: Jeannette Frances and Frances Hopkinson. Death due to nephritis and pulmonary edema. Buried in Union Cemetery, Milford, N. J. Survived by wife, daughters, a brother, Frank L. Patterson (C.E. Lafayette 1891), of New York City, and two sisters, Eleanor Patterson Chambers, widow of A. Reeder Chambers (special student Sheffield Scientific School 1886-87; Lehigh ex-'88) and Maud Patterson Petty, wife of Nelson Lane Petty (B.A. Princeton 1891), both of Trenton, N. J.
Clay Stone Briggs, LL.B. 1899.

Born January 8, 1876, in Galveston, Texas.
Died April 29, 1933, in Washington, D.C.

Father, George Dempster Briggs, a cotton factor; son of Jacob L. Briggs. Mother, Olive (Branch) Briggs; daughter of Edward T. and Anne (Wharton) Branch.

Ball High School, Galveston; studied at University of Texas 1894–95 and at Harvard 1895–96 (member Chi Phi); entered Yale School of Law in 1897 (literary editor of 1899 Yale Shingle; first president of Wayland Club; president of Texas Club; vice-president of Southern Club; member Corbey Court and Phi Delta Phi); admitted to Texas Bar 1897; practiced in Galveston 1897–1909; assistant attorney of Galveston County in 1903; member Texas House of Representatives from Galveston County 1906–08; judge of 10th Judicial District of Texas 1909–1919; since 1919 had been a member of Congress from 7th Congressional District of Texas (member Merchant Marine, Radio, and Fisheries Committee); delegate to State Democratic Presidential Election Convention and chairman of Galveston County Democratic Presidential Convention in 1904; member legal committee, Galveston Business League; state secretary of Sons of the American Revolution 1902–1910 and later vice-president; member and secretary of vestry of Grace Episcopal Church, Galveston.

Married August 17, 1927, in Galveston, Lois Slayton Woodworth.

Children: Olive and Clay Stone, Jr.

Death due to coronary occlusion and myocarditis. Buried in Syracuse, N.Y. Survived by wife, daughter, son, and three step-children, Dorothy, Jeanne, and Newell B. Woodworth.

Robert Barlow Harkness, LL.B. 1899.

Born July 16, 1874, in Elkhorn, Wis.
Died June 15, 1933, in Holladay, Utah.

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obiterary Record.

Thomas Francis Noone, LL.B. 1899.

Born September 8, 1873, in Rockville, Conn.
Died September 12, 1932, in Rockville, Conn.

Father, Thomas Noone; employed by Hockanum Mills Company in Rockville; born in Sligo, Ireland, and came to this country in 1860.
Mother, Mary Gertrude (O'Donnell) Noone; daughter of John and Johannah (Ryan) O'Donnell, of Chateaugay, N. Y.

Rockville High School; clerk and bookkeeper in house furnishing goods store in Rockville 1891-96; then entered the Yale School of Law (honor man three years; Betts prize Junior year; LL.B. cum laude; secretary, vice-president, and president of Kent Club; contributed history of Junior year to Yale Single of 1899); had practiced law independently in Rockville since 1899; prosecuting attorney for Rockville 1903-1915; state's attorney for Tolland County since 1915; chairman of commission which constructed and administered state pier in New London harbor 1915 and 1916; member of Connecticut Senate in 1903; represented Vernon in General Assembly in 1907 (member judiciary committee); during the war member of publicity committees of Connecticut State Council of Defense and of Legal Advisory Board for Division No. 23 of Connecticut, delegate to Democratic National Convention in 1908 and 1932; member Connecticut State and Tolland County Bar associations (vice-president of latter) and St. Bernard's Roman Catholic Church, Rockville.

Unmarried.

Edward Henry Kelly, LL.B. 1902.

Born November 17, 1877, in East Windsor, Conn.
Died February 27, 1933, in Unionville, Conn.

Father, Edward Kelly, a farmer; son of Edward Kelly, of Cork, Ireland. Mother, Margaret Theresa (Davis) Kelly; daughter of Edward and Ann Theresa (McCaffery) Davis, of Coolanie, County Connaught, Ireland.

New Britain (Conn.) High School; entered Yale School of Law in 1899 (Edward Thompson Company prize; honors Junior and Middle years; LL.B. summa cum laude; an editor of Yale Law Journal; assistant in University Library; member Kent Club and Book and Gavel, practiced law in New York City 1902-1921; associated with firm of Whalen & Dunn 1902-03; member of firm of Whalen, Kelly & Delaney 1905-07; had practiced in Hartford since 1921; counsel for Star Motor Company, Durant & Moon Motors, and Interstate Busses Corporation 1926-1932; as assistant to the general counsel of the company helped in formation of merger from which General Motors Company resulted; an organizer of Farmers Milk Company about 1925 and its first president; director of Unionville Manufacturing Company (cotton goods) since 1931; member New York and Connecticut Bar associations and St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, Unionville.

Married June 28, 1905, in Unionville, Helen, daughter of Patrick Henry and Bridget Anne (Rourke) Campion. Children: Helen Campion; Margaret Frances (B.A. cum laude College of New Rochelle 1929); Edward Henry, Jr.; Elizabeth Mary; John Francis; and Anne Rosemary.

Death due to arteriosclerosis and chronic myocarditis. Buried in St. Mary's Cemetery, Avon, Conn. Survived by wife, four daughters, two sons, three brothers, Joseph C. Kelly, of Waterbury, Conn., Albert L. Kelly, of Jersey City, N. J., and Frank P. Kelly, of Detroit, Mich., and a sister, Miss Anne M. Kelly, of New York City.

Norman Granger Hewitt, LL.B. 1905.

Born October 18, 1882, at Saratoga Springs, N. Y.
Died July 12, 1932, in Morristown, N. J.

Father, Edgar Frank Hewitt; wholesale and retail grocer at Saratoga Springs; son of Franklin Vail and Fanny (Mitchell) Hewitt, of Saratoga Springs. Mother, Jennie (Granger) Hewitt.
Saratoga High School; entered Yale School of Law in 1902 (chairman of Cap and Gown Committee; member Book and Gavel); attorney for an Italian labor union in New York 1905-07; had since practiced law in New York; attorney for New York Indemnity Company 1923–25 and for Royal Indemnity Company of New York since 1925; councilman for Borough of Mountain Lakes, N. J., 1926–28.
Married November 14, 1907, in Brooklyn, Blanche Emma Delapierre (Adelphi College 1903-05), daughter of Bartholomew and Adella Emma (Oakley) Delapierre. Children: Norman Delapierre and Marion.

Death due to a pulmonary embolism and subacute appendicitis. Buried in Valley Cemetery, Rockaway, N. J. Survived by wife, son, daughter, and a brother, Edgar F. Hewitt, of Saratoga Springs.

Ralph Turner Beers, LL.B. 1907.

Born November 6, 1885, in Bridgeport, Conn.
Died November 16, 1932, in Bridgeport, Conn.

Father, Alfred Bishop Beers; member of law firms of Lockwood & Beers, and Beers & Foster; city attorney; judge of City Court; president of Standard Association, publishers, and Bridgeport Public Library; Captain of 6th Connecticut Volunteers in Civil War; son of Alfred and Mary Elizabeth (Bishop) Beers, of New
Yale Obituary Record

Rochelle, N. Y. Mother, Callie (House) Beers; daughter of William and Eliza Maria (Turner) House, of Little Meadows, Pa.

Park Avenue Institute, Bridgeport; entered Yale School of Law in 1903 (member Book and Gavel); had practiced in Bridgeport since 1907; judge of Bridgeport City Court 1923-27; member Sons of Veterans and Christ Episcopal Church.

Married December 26, 1914, in Norwalk, Conn., Anna Elsie, daughter of Herman and Hannah Mary (Burstein) Burstein. One son, Alfred Bishop.

Death due to acute uremia, subacute nephritis, and acute myocarditis. Buried in Mountain Grove Cemetery, Bridgeport. Survived by wife, son, mother, and two brothers, Alfred B. Beers, Jr., of Bridgeport, and Henry H. Beers, ex-'97 L. (M.D. University of Vermont 1901) (died April 24, 1933).

Graham Foster, LL.B. 1908.

Born July 11, 1881, in Elkhart, Mich.

Died July 28, 1932, in Tempe, Ariz.

Father, Thomas Jefferson Foster, a farmer; son of Andrew and Rachael (McMichael) Foster, of Edwardsburg, Mich. Mother, Alice (Dean) Foster; daughter of Joseph and Adaline (Cole) Dean, of Milton, Pa.

Fairmount Academy, Wichita, Kans.; attended Fairmount College 1902-05 and then entered Yale School of Law (on Freshman Football Team and University Football Team Senior year; had numerals and a “Y”; captain of Wrestling Team; won second place in intercollegiate wrestling tournament in 1907 and first place in 1908; chairman of Class Day Committee; member Book and Bond); practiced law in New York City 1911-19, during the first six years in association with firm of White & Case and from 1917 to 1919 in partnership with Edwin J. Dryer, '08 L., under name of Dryer & Foster, practiced in Miami and Globe, Ariz., in partnership with his brother, Hugh M. Foster, under firm name of Foster & Foster 1919-1925; practiced independently in Globe 1925-1931 and since then in Phoenix, Ariz.; member Arizona State and Gila County Bar associations and First Presbyterian Church in Globe (an elder since 1928).

Death due to chronic myocarditis. Buried in Plainfield, N. H. Survived by wife, four children, a sister, Peggie F. Fulton, Rockford College ex-'96, the wife of Edwin L. Fulton (B.A. University of Kentucky 1896), of Caldwell, Kans., and three brothers, Andrew J. Foster, Kansas State University ex-'96, of Stamford, Conn., Hugh M. Foster, of Los Angeles, Calif., and Lloyd T. Foster, of Argonia, Kans. A fourth brother, Dean Foster, '99 M., died in 1929.

Born February 18, 1861, in Darien, Conn.
Died February 19, 1933, in Stamford, Conn.

Stamford High School; taught in Darien schools 1879-1880; connected with Ira Gregory & Company, coal dealers, in Bridgeport 1880-86; had been connected with Stamford Foundry Company since 1886, as bookkeeper 1886-1895, secretary 1895-1910, treasurer 1910-1926, manager since 1912, and president since 1926; entered Yale School of Law in 1908 (honors second year; LL.B. magna cum laude; member Phi Delta Phi and Corbey Court); had practiced law in Stamford in partnership with Peter T. Dondlinger, Ph.D. 1904 and LL.B. 1910, under firm name of Andrews & Dondlinger since 1911; had been member of Darien School Board and of Finance Board of Darien; Private in Company G, ad Battalion, Connecticut State Guard, 1918; member New England Stove Manufacturers Association (former secretary and treasurer and president), American and Stamford Bar associations, and St. John's Episcopal Church, Stamford.

Married June 3, 1890, in Darien, Caroline Faulkner, daughter of Francis Stuart and Sarah Eleanor (Faulkner) Fitch. Children: Eleanor Faulkner (died in 1904); Dean (Mrs. Ashleigh D. Halliwell); and Francis Stuart Fitch, '19.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Darien. Survived by wife, one daughter, son, four grandchildren, and a sister, Miss S. Helen Andrews, of Stamford.

Henry David Stevens, LL.B. 1924.

Born October 7, 1898, in Asheville, N. C.
Died May 14, 1933, in New York City.

Father, Henry Buist Stevens (University of Virginia 1888-89); lawyer; judge of Criminal Court of Buncombe County, N. C.; son of Samuel Norman and Martha (Buist) Stevens, of Biltmore, N. C. Mother, Katharine Lamb (Millard) Stevens; daughter of Junius Monroe and Mary Elisabeth (Vann) Millard, of Clinton, N. C.

Student at United States Naval Academy 1915–16 and at University of North Carolina 1916–1920 (business manager of Tacky Tack, the college annual; editor-in-chief of the Carolina Tar Baby; member Epsilon Phi Delta, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Phi Beta Kappa); studied in Yale School of Law 1920–22 and summer session 1924 (member Corbey Court); junior partner in law firm of Stevens, Anderson, Howell & Stevens, Asheville, 1924–25; clerk in law office of Wilcox, Hunt & Swiger, New York City, 1925–27, and of Hawkins, Delafield & Longfellow, New York, 1927; attorney with United States Board of Tax Appeals in Washington 1927–28; practiced law independently in Asheville 1929; clerk with law firm of Noble, Morgan & Scammell, New York, 1929–1931; assistant to counsel for Gramatan National Bank of Bronxville, N. Y., April–November, 1932; had since been salesman for William H. Beers Insurance Agency, New York; member Calvary Episcopal Church, New York.

Married September 28, 1927, in Monroeville, Ohio, Jane Marsh (Ohio State University 1924–26), daughter of Charles Wiikes Marsh (B.A. Wellesley 1884). One daughter, Susan Jane.

Death due to heart failure. Buried in Sand Hill Cemetery, Asheville. Survived by wife and daughter.

Francis Howard Gilbert, LL.B. 1930.

Born July 5, 1906, in Columbus, Ga.
Died December 8, 1932, in Atlanta, Ga.

Father, Stirling Price Gilbert (B.S. Vanderbilt 1883; LL.B. Yale 1885), son of Jasper Newton Gilbert (M.D. University of Georgia 1856) and Sarah Louise (Redding) Gilbert, of Stewart County, Ga. Mother, Mary (Howard) Gilbert (Woman's College of Alabama 1887), daughter of Thomas Benjamin and Frances (Anderson) Howard, of Columbus.

Boys' High School, Atlanta; B.S. University of Georgia 1927 (member Phi Delta Theta), attended Lamar School of Law of Emory University 1927–28 (member Phi Delta Phi); then entered Yale School of Law; had practiced law in Atlanta as member of firm of Marshall & Gilbert since 1930; member St. Mark's Episcopal Church, Atlanta.

Married November 5, 1932, in Atlanta, Mary, daughter of Walter Izzard and Mary (Bridge) Middleton.
School of Law

Death due to influenza. Buried in West View Cemetery, Atlanta. Survived by wife, parents, and a brother, Price Gilbert, Jr. (M.E. Georgia School of Technology 1921), of Atlanta.

MASTERS OF LAWS

Ferris Dale Templeton, LL.M. 1910.

Born August 24, 1879, in Champion, Ohio.
Died April 13, 1933, in Warren, Ohio.

Father, William Ira Templeton; farmer, carpenter; served in 6th Ohio Cavalry during Civil War; son of William and Maria (Shafer) Templeton, of Jackson Township, Ohio. Mother, Kate (Hollister) Templeton; daughter of Ichabod and Sarah (Fox) Hollister, of Washington County, Pa.

Warren High School; studied law with Judge Thomas I. Gillmer and Emerson B. Leonard in Warren 1900-04 and admitted to Ohio Bar 1904; had practiced law in Warren since 1904, except during 1909-1910, when a graduate student in Yale School of Law; junior member of firm of Leonard & Templeton 1904-1912; admitted to practice before Supreme Court of Ohio 1912; local attorney for Buckeye Pipe Line Company since 1913; attorney for Trumbull Steel Company 1914-1926; director and attorney for Dana Musical Institute 1914-18, Warren Opera House Company since 1914, and Citizens Commercial Bank 1926-1931; during the war legal adviser to local Draft Board; member Ohio State and Trumbull County Bar associations.

Fred Hamilton, LL.M. 1912.

Born April 23, 1885, in Decatur, Ill.
Died April 15, 1933, in Decatur, Ill.

Father, William James Hamilton; son of Fred and Nancy (Hampton) Hamilton, of Bowling Green, Ky., and Tazewell County, Ill. Mother, Harriett Belle (Williams) Hamilton; daughter of Alexander Williams, of Montgomery County, Ill.

Decatur High School; stenographer in a law office in Decatur; LL.B. University of Iowa 1911; graduate student in Yale School of Law 1911-12 (assistant registrar; member of senate; chairman of Cap and Gown Committee); practiced in Decatur 1912-14, in St.
Paul, Minn., 1914-15, and again in Decatur since 1915; member of firm of Crea, Housman & Hamilton 1915-1923; member Decatur Bar Association.

Married July 14, 1916, in Decatur, Beatrice Elliott (Millikin University 1904-06), daughter of George and Marilla (Post) Elliott.
No children.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Decatur. Survived by wife and a sister, Miss Cora Hamilton, of Decatur.
DIVINITY SCHOOL

Allison Dwight Adams, B.D. 1875.

Born August 29, 1849, at Crystal Lake, Ill.
Died December 6, 1932, in Wallingford, Conn.

Father, Henry Dwight Adams (M.D. Rush Medical College 1852), a physician; son of Dr. Ammon Pinckney Adams and Louisa (Bush) Adams, of Oneida Lake, N. Y., and Racine, Wis. Mother, Priscilla (Cadwell) Adams; daughter of Ebenezer Smith and Sally (Clark) Cadwell, of Lenox, N. Y., and Yorkville, Wis.

Preparatory Department of Beloit College; B.A. Beloit 1871; taught at Beloit College 1871-72; studied in Yale Divinity School 1872-73 and again 1874-75 and in Andover Theological Seminary 1873-74; pastor at Sioux Falls, S. Dak., 1875-78, where ordained to Congregational ministry April 26, 1876; pastor Kearney, Nebr., 1878-1880; Leeds and Windsor, Wis., 1880-85; Antigo, Wis., 1885-89; Zion Congregational Church, Oshkosh, Wis., 1889-1893; Fox Lake, Wis., 1893-95; New Richmond, Wis., 1895-1901; Rio and Wyocena, Wis., 1901-02, Plainview and Waseca, Minn., 1903-09; and Shelton Avenue Congregational Church, New Haven, 1909-1910, when retired from the ministry; lived in Oxford, Conn., 1910-12 and since then in Wallingford; member New Haven West Association, Congregational Club of New Haven, and Wallingford Congregational Church.

Married August 26, 1875, in Beloit, Sarah Lawson, daughter of Rev. Francis Lawson and Fanny (Preston) Lawson. Children: Genevieve Priscilla (Mrs. William Frederick Lasby) (died); Ellie Fanny (B.L. Carleton 1902); and Donald Allison (B.A. Carleton 1903; LL.B. Yale 1908).

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage and general arteriosclerosis. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, daughter, son, and three grandchildren, one of whom is Henry Sage Adams, 1936.

Taral Terjeson Frickstad, B.D. 1877.

Born January 29, 1847, in Christiansand, Norway.
Died March 4, 1933, in Oakland, Calif.

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.
William Fremont Blackman, B.D. 1880.

Born September 26, 1855, in North Pitcher, N. Y.

Died August 9, 1932, in Winter Park, Fla.

Father, John Smith Blackman, a merchant; son of Louis and Charity (Smith) Blackman, of Pitcher. Mother, Orpah (Freeman) Blackman; daughter of Samuel and Huldah (Barrows) Freeman, of Mansfield, Conn.

Oberlin Preparatory Department; B.A. Oberlin 1877; studied in Yale Divinity School 1877-78 and 1879-1880 (member Vernon Hall and Phi Gamma Delta) and in Oberlin Theological Seminary 1878-79; ordained to Congregational ministry in September, 1880, at Steubenville, Ohio, where pastor four years; pastor of Congregational Church, Naugatuck, Conn., 1885-1892 and Ithaca, N. Y., 1892-93; studied at Cornell 1892-93 (Ph.D. 1893); professor of Christian ethics at Yale 1893-1901 and lecturer on social philosophy and ethics 1901-02; studied at University of Berlin 1893-94; president of Rollins College from 1902 until retirement in 1915; LL.D. University of Florida 1910; founder of the Bank of Winter Park in 1911 and its president until 1918; president of Florida Confederate Charities 1911-13, of Florida State Audubon Society 1910-19, of Florida State Live Stock Association 1915-19, and of Wekiwa Ranch, Lake Monroe, Fla., 1915-1925; member Florida Live Stock Sanitary Board 1917-1921; author: The Making of Hawaii—a Study in Social Evolution (1899) and A History of Orange County, Florida (1927); member Congregational Church of Winter Park.

Death due to pneumonia and a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Winter Park Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughter, sons, eight grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Homer Smith, of North Pitcher.
Divinity School

Alden Buell Case, B.D. 1881.

Born July 25, 1851, in Gustavus, Ohio.
Died October 27, 1932, in Pomona, Calif.

- Father, Lucius William Case, a farmer and lumberman, son of Asa and Hepzibah (Buell) Case, of Simsbury, Conn., and Kingsville, Ohio. Mother, Emeline Rebecca (Fitts) Case; daughter of Sylvester and Nancy (Wells) Fitts, of East Windsor, Conn., and Gustavus, Ohio.

Benzonia (Mich) Academy; B.A. Tabor College 1878; studied in Yale Divinity School 1878-1881; member Yale Dakota Band; ordained to Congregational ministry at New Haven May 22, 1881; pastor Madison, S. Dak, 1881-82; Howard, S. Dak, 1882-84; missionary of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions at Parral, Chihuahua, Mexico, where pastor of El Buen Church, 1884-1896; general missionary of California-Spanish Missionary Society, with headquarters in Pomona, Whittier, and Los Angeles, 1896-1904; missionary of the American Board again 1904-1914, stationed at Guerrero, Chihuahua, 1906-08, at San Buenaventura, Chihuahua, 1908-1912, and at Hermosillo, Sonora, 1912-14; missionary to the Mexicans under Southern California Congregational Conference from 1917 until his retirement in 1925, stationed at Pomona, Bakersfield, and Puente; author: Thirty Tears with the Mexicans, in Peace and Revolution (1917); member Mexican Congregational Church, Pomona, at time of death.

Married May 30, 1881, in Magnolia, Iowa, Myra Gertrude Rice (B.S. Tabor 1878), daughter of John Haswell Rice (M.D. Castleton Medical College, Vt., 1854) and Harriett Newell (Taylor) Rice. Children: Juanita (B.A. Olivet 1911) (Mrs. Courtenaye); Lucius William (B.A. Pomona 1910; M.D. University of Michigan 1914); Martina Emeline, Olivet College ex-’13, the wife of Fletcher M. Frame; and Florence Marie, Pomona ex-’17, the wife of Roy E. St. Clair (B.A. Pomona 1914; M.D. University of Minnesota 1919).

Death due to arteriosclerosis and bronchopneumonia. Buried in Oak Park Cemetery, Claremont, Calif. Survived by wife, son, three daughters, five grandchildren, and three brothers, Charles Elmer Case, of Beulah, Mich., and William Lucius Case and James Walker Case, both of Benzonia, Mich.
Charles Benjamin Franklin Pease, B.D. 1889.

Born September 18, 1857, in Poughkeepsie, N. Y.
Died April 8, 1933, in Schenectady, N. Y.

Father, Albert S. Pease, publisher and editor of Poughkeepsie Telegraph and Daily Press, and Saratoga Sun; Second Lieutenant, 29th Regiment, New York State Militia, in Civil War; son of Dudley S and Sarah (Killey) Pease, of Poughkeepsie. Mother, Sarah Elizabeth (Denton) Pease, daughter of Benjamin and Alida (Manney) Denton, of Poughkeepsie.

Prepared for college at Saratoga Springs and Gouverneur (N. Y.) High schools, B. A. Williams 1886, studied in Yale Divinity School 1886–89 and again 1907–08, ordained to Congregational ministry June 25, 1889, at Ashfield, Mass., where pastor 1889–1893; pastor Dutch Reformed Church, West Troy, N. Y., 1893–99; Congregational Church, Plantsville, Conn., 1899–1907; Christ’s Church (undenominational), Quaker Hill, N. Y., 1909–1918, had since been executive secretary of Presbytery of Albany, with his home in Amsterdam until 1924 and since then in Schenectady, secretary and treasurer of Quaker Hill branch of American Red Cross during the war, secretary of Corpus Christi organization (ministers of various denominations) 1931–32.

Death due to arteriosclerosis and a stroke of apoplexy. Buried in Ashfield Cemetery. Survived by wife, two daughters, two sons, three grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Albert Whiteside, of Greenwich, N. Y.

Herbert Bacon Hutchins, B.D. 1890.

Born July 6, 1863, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died April 24, 1933, in New London, Conn.

Father, Rev. Hiram Hutchins (B. A. Colgate 1840 and D. D. 1879), a Baptist minister, son of Samuel Hutchins, of Vermont. Mother, Anna (Bacon) Hutchins; daughter of John and Sarah Robins (or Robbins) (Perry) Bacon, of Wardsboro, Vt.

Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute, B. A. Harvard 1886, studied in Yale Divinity School 1887-1890; ordained to Baptist ministry at Bedford Avenue Baptist Church, Brooklyn, September 15, 1890; pastor Emmanuel Baptist Church, Sacramento, Calif., 1890-92; studied at University of Chicago 1892-93; pastor First Baptist Church, Pittsburgh, 1893; Second Baptist Church, Brooklyn, 1894-95; took graduate work at Yale Divinity School 1895-96; pastor Pleasant View Baptist Church, Pawtucket, R. I., 1896-98 and Pawtuxet (R. I.) Baptist Church 1898-1901; M.A. Brown 1901; associate pastor Calvary Baptist Church, Providence, 1901-02; pastor First Groton Baptist Church, Old Mystic, Conn., 1902-07; First Baptist Church, Lewiston, Maine, 1907-1912; interim pastor First Groton Baptist Church 1912-15; pastor Baptist Church of Thomaston, Maine, 1915-1920; Olivet Baptist Church, Hartford, Conn., 1920-25; Poquonock Bridge (Conn.) Baptist Church 1925-26; Second Waterford (Conn.) Baptist Church from 1926 until retirement in October, 1932; member Quaker Hill Baptist Church in Waterford.

Death due to carcinoma of the pancreas and chronic nephritis. Buried in Oak Hill Cemetery, Woonsocket. Survived by a niece and nephew.

Theophilus Huntington Root, B.D. 1890.

Born October 12, 1861, in Whately, Mass.

Died April 16, 1933, in Barton, Vt

Father, Oliver Dean Root (M.D. Harvard 1854); acting assistant surgeon in the Navy during Civil War; son of Abner and Christina (Hall) Root, of Conway, Mass. Mother, Mary Elizabeth (White) Root; daughter of Luke Brown and Mary (Wells) White, of Whately Yale relatives: Rev. Edward W. Root (B.A. 1844) and Rev. Augustine Root (ex-1848) (uncles); and Rev. E. Tallmadge Root, '87 (cousin).

Framingham (Mass.) High School, clerk in a bank 1878-1881, B.A. Harvard 1885 (member Phi Beta Kappa); taught in Rolfe Grammar School, Memphis, Tenn., 1885-87; studied at Union Theological Seminary 1887-88 and then entered Yale Divinity School; Williams fellow at Harvard 1890-91 (M.A. 1891), instructor in New Testament Greek at University of Chicago 1892-94, ordained to Congregational ministry in Framingham September 9, 1892; on account of ill health resided, without charge, in New Orleans 1894-97, Cincinnati 1897-99, and Whately 1899-1900; pastor Congregational Church, Wood River Junction, R. I., 1900-1920 and Congregational Church, Westmore, Vt., since 1921; editor of Addresses on the Gospel of St. John (1906); contributed to Biblical World.

Unmarried.

Death due to chronic myocarditis. Buried in Edgehill Grove Cemetery, Framingham. Survived by no immediate relatives.

George Page Anderson, B.D. 1891.

Born June 22, 1865, in Newark, Ill
Died July 1, 1932, in Los Angeles, Calif.

Father, Alexander Jay Anderson (B.A. Knox 1856; Ph.D. Pacific University); president of University of Washington and later of Whitman College; born at Grey Abbey, Ireland; son of Joseph and Jane (MacKay) Anderson, who came to the United States from Scotland in 1827. Mother, Maria Louisa (Phelps) Anderson; daughter of Luke and Lucinda (Page) Phelps, of Mayville, N. Y.

Married November 17, 1901, in Seattle, Mary Elizabeth, daughter of John Melmoth and Sarah Jane (Trazzare) Covington. Children: Eugenia Cora (Mrs. Percy Fay); and George Page, Jr. (died in infancy).

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in cemetery of National Military Home. Survived by wife, daughter, two grandchildren, and three brothers, Louis F. Anderson (B.A. University of Washington 1882; L.H.D. Whitman 1922), of Walla Walla, Wash., Oliver P. Anderson, University of Washington ex-‘81, of Seattle, and Charles M. Anderson.

David Lyman Kebbe, B.D. 1891.

Born March 19, 1863, in Holliston, Mass.
Died May 20, 1933, in Nepaug, New Hartford, Conn.

Holliston High School; B.A. Amherst 1888; studied in Yale Divinity School 1888–1893; ordained to Congregational ministry June 17, 1891, in Southwick, Mass., where pastor 1890–95; pastor Emmanuel Congregational Church, Springfield, Mass., 1895–1901; First Church, Granville Center, Mass., 1901–04; Greenwich, Mass., 1904–07; South Dartmouth, Mass., 1907–1910; Federated Church (Congregational and Methodist), Fairlee, Vt., 1910–12; Village Church, Cummington, Mass., 1912–17; Somersville, Conn., 1917–1926; Candia, N. H., 1926–1931; and Nepaug since January 1, 1932; member Litchfield North Association and Litchfield County Ministers’ Union.

Death due to acute dilatation of the heart, following chronic endocarditis and anemia. Buried in Somers, Conn. Survived by wife and a brother, Everett Kebbe, of Everett, Mass.

Julius Wilbur Eggleston, B.D. 1892.

Born February 25, 1866, in Watertown, Conn.
Died January 8, 1933, in Searington, N. Y.

Father, Rev. Asahel Coe Eggleston (B.A. Wesleyan 1858), a Methodist Episcopal minister in New York and Connecticut; son of Chauncey and Chloe (Coe) Eggleston, of Colebrook and Watertown, Conn. Mother, Isabella Victoria (Dare) Eggleston; daughter of Samuel and Elenor (Raney) Dare, of Danbury, Conn. Yale relatives: William Grant Fitch, 2d, ex-’31 S. (nephew); and Percy Coe Eggleston, ’92, Arthur H. Eggleston, ’95, Julius W. Eggleston, ex-’96 S., and Edward P. Eggleston, ’00 (first cousins).

Wesleyan Academy, Wilbraham, Mass.; B.A. Wesleyan 1889 (member Psi Upsilon); studied in Yale Divinity School 1889–1893; ordained deacon in the Methodist Church at Patchogue, N. Y., in April, 1892, and elder in 1895; pastor at Beacon Falls, Conn., 1891-93, East Berlin, Conn., 1893-95; West Farms, N. Y., 1895-97; Mianus, Conn., 1897-98; Naugatuck, Conn., 1898-1901; Glen Cove, N. Y., 1901-05; Stratford, Conn., 1905-09; Orient, N. Y., 1909-1910; Bridgehampton, N. Y., 1910-1920; Maspeth, N. Y., 1920; Roosevelt and East Meadow, N. Y., 1923-24; Hicksville, N. Y., 1924-25; and Seangtown since 1925.

Married September 15, 1897, in New York City, Mary Elizabeth, daughter of William Goulding and Mary Ann (Whittaker) McCormack. Children: Wilbur Goulding (B.A. Syracuse 1923) (died in 1927), Kenneth (Syracuse) and Ruth.

Abraham Lincoln McClelland, B.D. 1894.

Born February 16, 1865, in Brandon, Wis.
Died December 11, 1932, in Rosendale, Wis.

Father, James McClelland, a shoemaker, son of George and Jane McClelland, of Ochiltree, Scotland. Mother, Barbara (Dickie) McClelland, daughter of Thomas and Jean (Gemmie) Dickie, of Ochiltree.

Brandon (Wis.) High School, B.A. Oberlin 1889; taught Greek and Latin at Straight University, New Orleans, 1889-1891; studied in Yale Divinity School 1891-94; ordained to Congregational ministry September 11, 1894, in Nekoosa, Wis., where pastor 1894-98 (member of School Board 1895-98); pastor at Milton, Wis., 1898-1907 (clerk of School Board 1901-04); Hillsboro, N. Dak., 1907-1912 (also Buxton and Cummings), Plymouth Congregational Church, Madison, Wis., 1912-14; Walworth, Wis., 1914-16; and Rosendale since 1916; registrar of Lemonweir Association 1896-97, of Beloit Association 1903-07, and of Winnebago Association 1918-1932; delegate to a number of National Councils of Congregational Church.

Married (1) September 19, 1894, in Beloit, Wis., Sarah Ames, daughter of Enoch and Emily (Gerrish) Coffin. Mrs. McClelland died July 24, 1925. Married (2) June 17, 1931, in Milton, Wis., Clara Bede Leonard (B.A. Milton College 1892), daughter of Cyrus and Henry Hugh Proctor, B.D. 1894.

Born December 8, 1868, near Fayetteville, Tenn. Died May 12, 1933, in Brooklyn, N.Y.

Father, Richard Proctor, a farmer. Mother, Hannah (Wetherley) Proctor.

Fayetteville public school; B.A. Fisk 1891; studied in Yale Divinity School 1891-94; ordained to Congregational ministry July 1, 1894, at Atlanta, Ga., where pastor of First Congregational Church until 1920; had since been pastor of Nazarene Congregational Church, Brooklyn; special lecturer for Y.M.C.A. in France March 10-August 1, 1919; D.D. Clark University, Georgia, 1904; president of Carrie Steel Orphanage, Atlanta; an organizer of Interracial Council, Atlanta, 1908; vice-president of American Missionary Association 1906-09, of Brooklyn Lincoln Settlement since 1927, and of Negro Urban League of Brooklyn; president of National Convention of Congregational Workers Among the Colored People 1906-08 and corresponding secretary since 1908; alumni member of board of trustees of Fisk University 1927-1930; president of Federated Fisk Clubs (chairman of greater alumni committee) and of Fisk Club of Greater New York; assistant moderator of National Council of Congregational Churches of the United States 1904-06; moderator of New York City Congregational Church Association (first negro to hold the office) in 1926; author: Sermons in Melody (1916) and Between Black and White (autobiography) (1925); contributor of series of articles to Sunday New York Herald Tribune in 1932; corporate member American Board 1923-1930.

Married August 16, 1893, in Chattanooga, Tenn., Adeline Davis (Fisk 1890), daughter of Dock and Harriett (Craig) Davis. Children: Henry Hugh, Jr. (B.A. Fisk 1917); Richard Davis (died in infancy); Muriel Morgan; Lillian Steele (B.A. Fisk 1920; M.A. University of Chicago 1929), wife of Arthur Grand Pre Falls (M.D. Northwestern University 1925); Roy Cravath (D.D.S. New York University 1928); and Vashti Adeline (B.A. Fisk 1927).

Death due to septicemia. Buried in South View Cemetery, Atlanta. Survived by wife, three daughters, two sons, a grandson, and a sister, Mrs. Amanda Bauchman, of Stuttgart, Ark.
Yale Obituary Record

Ansel Estano Johnson, B.D. 1897.

Born September 16, 1870, in Newton Center, Mass.
Died March 17, 1933, in New York City.

Father, Samuel Soley Johnson; son of Samuel Adam Johnson, of Lower Truro, Nova Scotia. Mother, Sarah Jane (Kellar) Johnson; daughter of John Kellar, of the north of Ireland.

Mount Hermon; studied in Yale Divinity School 1894–97; ordained to Congregational ministry at Oxford, Conn., April 22, 1897; church organizer and pastor at Antioch, Calif., 1897–1902, at first as representative of Yale Divinity School Missionary Society and from 1899 of Congregational Home Missionary Society; pastor at Spencertown, N. Y., 1902–06; First Congregational Church, Riverhead, N. Y., 1906–07; Monrovia, Calif., under Congregational Home Missionary Society 1907–1913; First Congregational Church, Everett, Mass., 1913–18; Pilgrim Congregational Church, Buffalo, N. Y., 1918–1921; promotional secretary of missions of New York State Congregational Conference, connected with the Commission on Missions, 1921–25; acting secretary of promotion for National Commission on Missions of the Congregational Church 1925–26; had since been assistant secretary and efficiency expert in church management of National Commission on Missions of the Congregational and Christian Churches; in 1913 an organizer of the every member canvass in the churches of his denomination and author of A Guide Book for the Every Member Canvass; member Plymouth Congregational Church, Syracuse, N. Y.

Married May 20, 1897, in Troy, N. Y., Louie Jennie, daughter of Josephus Peck and Mary Lizzie (Wheeler) Leavens, of Melrose, Mass. Children: Aune Ivan (B.A. Bates 1922) and Eva Flossie (Simmons College certificate 1928).

Death due to a stroke of apoplexy. Buried in Morningside Cemetery, Syracuse. Survived by wife, son, daughter, two grandchildren, and a brother, Elmer H. Johnson, of North Bennington, Vt.
SUPPLEMENT
NOTICES OF DEATHS PRIOR TO JULY 1, 1932
NOT PREVIOUSLY REPORTED

YALE COLLEGE

Charles Meigs Charnley, B.A. 1865.
Born October 20, 1845, in Philadelphia, Pa.
Died in July, 1931, in Gainesville, Ga.

Prepared for college in classical school of Rev. Henry M. Colton (B.A. 1848) in Middletown, Conn. Member Glyuna Boat Club, Thanksgiving Jubilee Committee Sophomore, Junior, and Senior years, Biennial Jubilee and Wooden Spoon committees, Linonia, Delta Kappa, Alpha Sigma Phi, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones

Engaged in literary pursuits in New Haven 1865-66 and in New York City 1866-67; lumber merchant and manufacturer in Chicago for some years from 1867, associated at first with his brother, James Charnley, and his brother-in-law, Lester Bradner, in firm of Bradner, Charnley & Company and later member, of firm of Charnley Brothers; president of Sturgeon Bay Lumber Company; treasurer of Presbyterian Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies fifteen years; had lived in Gainesville for some years before his death.

Married (1) March 24, 1870, in New Haven, Louise Edelsten, daughter of Augustin and Margaret (Fraser) Averill. Children: Augustin Averill (died in infancy); Charles Meigs, Jr., '97 (died in 1898); James (died in 1898); Louis E.; and Constance (B.A. Smith 1901) (died in 1914). Mrs. Charnley died July 1, 1893. Married (2) September 18, 1894, in Harwichport, Mass., Ellen Mills, daughter of Joseph Otis and Elizabeth Mary (Smith) Averill.

Buried in Gainesville. Survived by wife (died in April, 1932).
Ambrose Everett Stone, B.A. 1874.

Born October 17, 1850, in Goshen, Mass
Died December 12, 1929, in Brooklyn, N.Y.

Father, Amos Hale Stone, a farmer and owner of saw mill; son of Luther and Mary (Jenkins) Stone, of Goshen. Mother, Sophia Mercy (Parsons) Stone, daughter of Willard and Tryphosa (Naramore) Parsons, of Goshen.

South Berkshire Institute, New Marlboro, Mass. Second dispute appointment Junior and Senior years, member Gamma Nu.

Principal of boys' school of New York Orphan Asylum, New York City, 1874-75, taught at German-American Institute, New York City, 1875-76, principal of South Berkshire Institute, New Marlboro, Mass, 1876, taught Latin, Greek, and mathematics in private school of Marlborough Churchill, New York City, 1877-79; during that period studied law at Columbia (LL.B. 1878); admitted to New York Bar 1878 and practiced in New York City in association with William Ives Washburn (B.A. Amherst 1876) 1879-1881; tutor and later headmaster of preparatory school for boys in New York City 1881-1898, headmaster of Stone Tutoring School, New York, 1898-1929, member Schoolmasters' Association and Broadway Tabernacle (Congregational), New York (deacon 1910-19).

William Cooper Asay, B.A. 1880.

Born June 28, 1857, in Chicago, Ill.
Died June 23, 1932, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, Edward Gowan Asay Mother, Emma Carmichael (Oliver) Asay.

Allen's Academy, Chicago, under John C. Grant, '69. Entered Yale with Class of 1879 but withdrew during the year and reentered with Class of 1880, member '79 Glee Club, Yale Glee Club, College Choir, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, and Psi Upsilon.

Studied at Union College of Law, Chicago, 1880-81, admitted to Illinois Bar in fall of 1881 and had since practiced in Chicago; in partnership with George A. Meech (B.A. 1843) and Wallace Rice 1887-88, member of firm of Meech & Asay 1888-1911 and later of Asay & Byrne and Asay & Streeter, assistant attorney of Sanitary District of Chicago in 1913; member First Regiment, Illinois National Guard, several years, during the war served as member of Registration Board for his local draft district and as attorney in connection with local Secret Service officers of the United States; member Democratic Central Committee of Chicago.

Death due to carcinoma of the lung. Buried in Rosehill Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife, three daughters, and a brother.

Willis Betts Sterling, B.A. 1881.

Born April 20, 1859, in Meadville, Pa

Died May 24, 1932, in Erie, Pa

Father, Frederick Augustus Sterling; president of the Sterling & Welch Company of Cleveland (retail and wholesale house furnishings and interior decorating), son of Frederick Augustus and Caroline Mary (Dutcher) Sterling, of Salisbury, Conn. Mother, Mary Emma (Betts) Sterling, daughter of Eliphalet and Jeannette C. (Benedict) Betts, of Norwalk and New Haven, Conn. Great-grandfather Elisha Sterling (B.A. 1787).

Holbrook’s Military Academy, Ossining, N. Y. Dissertation appointment Junior year, second dispute appointment Senior year; member Delta Kappa, Hé Boulé, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

L.L.B. Columbia 1884; admitted to New York Bar 1884 and practiced in New York City until 1891; managing clerk for Evarts, Southmayd & Choate (William M. Evarts, ’37) 1884–87, member of firm of Pinney & Sterling 1887–1891; lived in Cleveland 1891–94 and since then in Erie; secretary and treasurer of Erie Dock & Transportation Company and later secretary of H. F. Watson Company (roofing paper); retired from active business in 1917.

Married January 14, 1891, in New York City, Mary, daughter of Ebon Clark and Mary (Carter) Ingersoll, of Washington, D. C. Children: Jeannette Ingersoll (Mrs. Richard Philip Murray); and Frederick Clark.

Death due to acute dilatation of the heart. Buried in Erie Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughter, and son.
Morrison Waite Young, B.A. 1883.

Born September 15, 1860, in Maumee, Ohio.
Died June 30, 1932, in Toledo, Ohio.

Father, Samuel Marshall Young, partner of Morrison R. Waite (B.A. 1837) in law firm of Young & Waite, son of Samuel Young, of Lebanon, N. H. Mother, Angeline Lucy (Upton) Young; daughter of John and Eunice (Vinton) Upton, of Maumee.

Hopkins Grammar School Secretary and treasurer of '83 Football Club Sophomore and Junior years and treasurer Senior year; treasurer of University Baseball Club Senior year, member Senior Class Supper Committee, Delta Kappa, and Psi Upsilon

Employed by Clover Leaf and Wheeling & Lake Erie Railroad companies in Toledo 1883–85; in lumber and tie contracting business for Lake Shore & Michigan, Michigan Central, and New York Central Railroad companies 1885–1890; president of Blade Printing & Paper Company of Toledo since 1900; president of Second National Bank of Toledo from 1908 until its consolidation with Toledo Trust Company under the latter name in 1924 and since then chairman of the board; director of Toledo Plate & Window Glass Company since 1905, of Northwestern Elevator & Mill Company since about 1907, and of Title Guarantee & Trust Company 1908–1910, treasurer of Toledo Museum of Art since 1925, member Yale Engineering Association; vestryman and junior warden of Trinity Episcopal Church, Toledo.

Death due to diabetes mellitus, arteriosclerosis, and myocarditis. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Toledo. Survived by wife.

Maximilian Lincoln Stein, B.A. 1887.

Born August 24, 1867, in Waukesha, Wis.
Died November 16, 1928, in Houston, Texas.

Father, Charles Stein; in wholesale hat and cap business in Milwaukee, Wis.; parents lived near Cologne, Germany. Mother, Katherine [or Kathi] (Hirschberg) Stein, daughter of Joseph and Therese (Auer) Hirschberg, of Falkenau, Austria, and Milwaukee.

Prepared for college in Milwaukee First Berkeley Premium in Latin composition Freshman year; oration appointment Junior year; dissertation appointment Senior year Salesman for Frederick H. Bartlett & Company, real estate deal-
Henry H. Stein, in Chicago, for some years; also for a time in office of Ederheimer, Stein & Company, a clothing firm, in Chicago.

Unmarried.

Death due to acute peritonitis and suppurative appendicitis. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Milwaukee. Survived by two brothers, Oswald Stein, of Chicago, and Frank J. Stein, of Bayside, Long Island, N. Y., and a sister, Miss Fannie Stein, of Chicago.

George Haven Abbott, B.A. 1898.

Born October 7, 1876, in Charleston, S. C.
Died June 23, 1932, in Agnew, Calif.

Father, Rev. Thomas Jefferson Abbott, a Methodist Episcopal minister in Massachusetts and South Carolina; served in Christian Commission during Civil War; son of Thomas Malcolm and Clarissa (Eaton) Abbott, of Derby, Vt. Mother, Theresa Maria (Seaver) Abbott; daughter of Asa and Rebecca (Hutchison) Seaver, of Brookline, N. H.

New Hampshire Conference Seminary, Tilton. Honors in Freshman year; high oration appointment Junior and Senior years; member Phi Beta Kappa.

With Notman Photograph Company, Boston, 1898-99; studied at Harvard Law School 1899-1901; admitted to New York Bar in February, 1902; clerk in office of Weeks, Battle & Marshall in New York City 1901-04; subsequently practiced law independently for a number of years; assistant to the general counsel of Standard Oil Company of New York December, 1917-March, 1918; trial attorney with Tanner, Sillcocks & Friend of New York in 1932; member New York Bar Association and Methodist Church, Brookline, N. H.

Death due to general paralysis. Buried in Pinegrove Cemetery, Brookline. Survived by two half sisters, Mrs. Frank Nalder, of Portland, Ore., and Mrs. William A. Abbott, of Stanstead, Quebec, Canada.

Roger I. Capen, B.A. 1899.

Born September 23, 1875, in Cincinnati, Ohio.
Died December 15, 1930, in Gainesville, Fla.

Father, Welcome I. Capen; manager of Postal Telegraph & Cable Company in Cincinnati and vice-president of company in New York; son of James and Maria (Livermore) Capen, of Brattleboro, Vt.
Mother, Arietta E. (Rogers) Capen; daughter of Dr. George Rogers and Eliza (Terrill) Rogers, of Colchester, Conn.

Indianapolis (Ind.) High School.

Engaged in real estate business in Chicago as half owner of firm of Elmer E. Baldwin & Company 1900-1910; studied at Chicago College of Law 1900-02 (LL.B. 1902); in hardware business 1910-1924, at first in Jacksonville, Fla., as secretary and treasurer of Jacksonville Hardware Company and from 1915 in Mount Vernon, N. Y., as owner of Hardware & Supply Company; subsequently in real estate business in Jacksonville and also connected with Pellerin Furniture Company there 1923-28; had since been engaged in farming at Jacksonville.

Married September 13, 1901, in Cleveland, Virginia, daughter of Frederick Howard and Lizzie (Raymond) Houston. One daughter, Vivian Virginia (Mrs. Neal M. Brock), who died in 1929.

Death due to bronchial pneumonia. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Jacksonville. Survived by wife and a grandson.

SHEFFIELD SCIENTIFIC SCHOOL

Frederick Jonathan Hiller, Ph.B. 1881.

Born May 19, 1858, in Cohoes, N. Y.
Died April 20, 1932, in Cohoes, N. Y.

Father, Jonathan Hiller; half owner of American Hosiery Company, manufacturers of knit underwear, in Cohoes; school and fire commissioner, son of Isaac and Dorcas (Randall) Hiller, of Charlton, N. Y. Mother, Ravia Pratt (Foote) Hiller; daughter of Leman and Ruah (Scofield) Foote, of Greenfield, N. Y. Brother: Isaac W. Hiller, ex-'73.

Williston Academy. Entered Sheffield Scientific School in 1879; chemistry course; member Alpha Chi and The Colony and Berzelius.

In business with his father 1881-1890; clerk and cashier with American Railway Express Company in Cohoes from 1890 until retirement in 1928; attended Grace Episcopal Church, Waterford, N. Y.

Unmarried.

William Churchill Hungerford, Ph.B. 1893.

Born February 25, 1871, in New Britain, Conn.
Died June 25, 1932, in Boston, Mass.

Father, Frank Louis Hungerford (University of Vermont ex-’64; Harvard Law School 1864–65), a lawyer, member of firms of Mitchell & Hungerford and Mitchell, Hungerford & Bartlett, of New York, Hartford, and New Britain, and of Hungerford, Hyde, Joslyn & Gilman, of Hartford and New Britain; city attorney and corporation counsel of New Britain; son of John and Charlotte (Austin) Hungerford, of Torrington, Conn. Mother, Sarah Augusta (Churchill) Hungerford; daughter of William Allen and Sarah Wells (Blinn) Churchill, of New Britain.

Prepared for college in New Britain public schools and a private school in Bridgeport, Conn. Select course; member York Hall and Chi Phi.

LL.B. 1895; practiced law in Hartford until 1919, as member of firm of Mitchell, Hungerford & Bartlett 1895–97 and of Hungerford, Hyde, Joslyn & Gilman 1897–1919; had since been member of law firm of Kirkham, Cooper, Hungerford & Camp of New Britain (John H. Kirkham, ’87, and James E. Cooper, ’95); deputy judge of New Britain City Court 1923–27; deputy judge of Police Court 1923–27 and judge May–July, 1927; trustee of New Britain Trust Company since 1926; director of New Britain Hospital since 1929, of Charlotte Hungerford Hospital of Torrington (an original incorporator) since 1924, of New Britain Community Corporation, and Burritt Hotel Corporation; president of New Britain Chamber of Commerce 1925–27 and director 1931–32, director of Connecticut Chamber of Commerce 1929–1930, and national councilor to Washington, D. C., from New Britain 1928 and 1929; president of board of directors of Y.M.C.A. of New Britain 1932, of New Britain Charity Organization 1910–17, of New Britain Civic Music Association 1928–29, of Congregational Club of Connecticut 1913, and of Connecticut Field Trial Club; clerk of First Church of Christ, New Britain, since 1901; during the war served as member of Speakers’ Bureau, State Council of Defense, and chairman of Four-Minute Speakers for Connecticut; since 1927 had been a horse fancier, with stables at Avalon Farms, Kensington, Conn.; member Sons of the American Revolution.

Married (1) November 2, 1898, in Torrington, Charlotte, daughter of Roger Smith Olmstead (M.D. 1849) and Charlotte Austin (Hungerford) Olmstead, a granddaughter of Hawley Olmstead (B.A. 1816, LL.D. 1862), and niece of Edward Olmstead (B.A. 1845) and Samuel H. Olmstead (M.D. 1861). Mrs. Hungerford died April 6, 1926. Married (2) July 5, 1928, in Gloucester, Mass., Mary Elizabeth Osterblom Harris, a graduate of Melrose (Mass.) Hospital Training School for Nurses in 1912, daughter of John Eric and Hulda Louise (Ling) Osterblom. No children by either marriage.

Death due to carcinoma. Buried in Fairview Cemetery, New Britain. Survived by wife.

Roger Stout Woodhull, Ph.B. 1896.
Born February 13, 1875, in Dayton, Ohio.
Died June 8, 1932, in Dayton, Ohio.

Father, Morris Woodhull; founder and president of The Morris Woodhull Company, manufacturers of carriages, Dayton; president of National Carriage Builders' Association; member of first board of Ohio Industrial Commission; son of James and Hannah (Longstreth) Woodhull, of New York City. Mother, Mary (Stout) Woodhull; daughter of Elias Riggs and Lydia Ann (Britton) Stout, of Dayton.

Hopkins Grammar School. Biology course.

With Woodhull Carriage Works 1896–1908, at first as a salesman and from 1900 in charge of all sales; secretary of The Morris Woodhull Company 1908–1910; sales manager for Columbus (Ohio) Buggy Company 1910–13 and also executive in sales department of Columbus Horse Vehicle Company and Firestone Columbus Gas Cars Company 1910–11 and Columbus Electric Vehicle Company 1911–12; sales manager for Ohio Electric Car Company of Toledo 1913–18, for electric passenger car department of Milburn Wagon Company 1916–1923, and for The Dura Company of Toledo 1923–24; vice-president of David Robinson & Company, investment bonds, Toledo, 1924–26; had since been partner in firm of J. R. Woodhull & Company, investments, Dayton; director of S. J. Patterson, wholesale coal dealers, Dayton, 1926–1931; member St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Dayton.

Married October 5, 1910, at Fenton's No. 4, Adirondacks, N. Y., Anne Love, daughter of Stephen Johnston and Lucy (Dun) Patterson, of Dayton, and sister of Robert D. Patterson, '04 S. Children: Roger Stout, Jr. (died in childhood); Robert Patterson; James Morris; and Lucy Anne.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Woodland Cemetery, Dayton. Survived by wife, two sons, daughter, and two brothers, Morris G. Woodhull, of Columbus, and James R. Woodhull, of Dayton.
Frank Pell Underhill, Ph.B. 1900.
Born December 21, 1877, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died June 28, 1932, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, David Bonnett Underhill, a carriage manufacturer; son of Gilbert Pell and Frances M. (Miller) Underhill, of Brooklyn.
Mother, Emma (Housy) Underhill; daughter of John and Emma (Wiley) Housy, of Colorado.

Norwalk (Conn.) High School. Biology course; honorable mention in German Freshman year, honors in all subjects Junior and Senior years, divided Belknap prize in natural history Senior year, awarded a graduate scholarship; member Sigma Xi.

Student in Yale Graduate School and assistant in physiological chemistry 1900–03 (Ph.D. 1903); instructor in physiological chemistry 1903–07 and assistant professor 1907–1912; professor of pathological chemistry, Yale School of Medicine, and assistant professor in same subject in Sheffield Scientific School 1912–18; professor of experimental medicine 1918–1921 and since then professor of pharmacology and toxicology and chairman of the department; his researches, embracing a variety of fields, were notably those pertaining to the physiologic action of protein derivatives, the carbohydrate metabolism, the physiologic action of tartrates, physiology and treatment of lethal gas poisoning, water metabolism, burns, and pellagra; member of Library Committee 1919–1926 and of University Council 1924–25; one of faculty representatives of Yale at inauguration of Library of University of Louvain 1928; student in pathology at Harvard Medical School in summer of 1913; Middleton Goldsmith lecturer of New York Pathological Society 1913; lecturer to Harvey Society of New York 1919, consulting pathologist, Therapeutic Division, United States Gas Investigation, Bureau of Mines, at American University, Washington, June, 1917–August 21, 1918; commanding officer of Yale Chemical Warfare Station June–November, 1918; commissioned Lieutenant Colonel, Chemical Warfare Service, August 22, 1918; overseas September 29–December 2, 1918; represented United States at Interallied Gas Warfare Conference in Paris in October, 1918, and served as a vice-president of the conference, received discharge about February 1, 1919; chairman of sub-committee on biochemistry of National Research Council in 1917 and 1918; while on leave of absence 1925–26, sent by General Education Board (Rockefeller Foundation) to visit principal universities in England and Europe as an observer of medical education; attended International Congress of Physiologists at Stockholm in August, 1925; chemist of New Haven Hospital since 1911; author: Physiology of Amino Acids
William Hastings Ferguson, Ph.B. 1901.

Born July 4, 1871, in Chicago, Ill.
Died June 15, 1932, in Compton, Calif.

Father, William George Ferguson; western manager of Lancashire Insurance Company of England; son of Duncan and Leah (Hill) Ferguson, of Rockford, Ill. Mother, Alice May (Hill) Ferguson; daughter of Alexander and Rachel (Drummond) Hill, of England. Nephew Philip F. Hawley, ’07 S.

Morgan Park Military Academy, Chicago; engaged in engineering and mining engineering before entering Sheffield Scientific School as a special student in 1900; took Senior Class work in sanitary engineering; member Berzelius and Sigma Xi.

Member of firm of Best & Ferguson, engineers, in Denver, Colo., 1901–03; U. S. mineral surveyor in 1904; mining engineer with...
Supplement

Farrington & Company of New York in Honduras 1905-08; superintendent for contracting firm at Prince Rupert, British Columbia, 1909-1912; quantity surveyor in San Francisco 1913-14; engaged in mining and mill designing in Nevada 1915-17; with Farrington & Company again 1919-1921 and 1923-24; structural designer for United Comstock Mining Company 1921-22; building appraiser for C. L. Weeks in Los Angeles 1924-25; partner in firm of Ferguson & Dugan, mining engineers, Los Angeles, from 1925 until retirement in 1927; commissioned Major of Engineers May 8, 1917; attended Officers' Training Camp at The Presidio, San Francisco, one month; stationed at Vancouver Barracks June 15-August 15, 1917; then made commanding officer of 1st Battalion, 317th Engineers, at Camp Sherman, Ohio; overseas with that unit June, 1918-March, 1919; active service in defense of St. Die sector and in Meuse-Argonne offensive; received discharge June 12, 1919.

Married February 4, 1913, in San Diego, Calif., Agnes Brodie, daughter of Thomas and Isabella Cummings (Millar) Dunn. No children.

Death due to tuberculosis. Buried in Soldiers' Home Cemetery, Sawtelle, Calif. Survived by wife and three sisters, Mrs. Henry S. Hawley and Mrs. Robert Kirkland, both of Chicago, and Mrs. Frank Wormwood, of Rockford, Ill.

Gratz Dent, Ph.B. 1902.

Born September 24, 1881, in Savannah, Ga.
Died June 11, 1932, in Savannah, Ga.

Taft School. Mechanical engineering course; president of Sheffield Debating Society; member Class Day Committee and St. Anthony and Delta Psi.

Mechanical engineer with Southern Cotton Oil Company in Montgomery, Ala., July-September, 1902, and in Charlotte, N. C., 1902-03; manager of a farm in Albemarle County, Va., 1903-04; foreman of a ranch in Rio Grande Valley, Texas, near El Paso 1905-06; timekeeper in construction of Southern Pacific roads in Arizona 1906; engaged with his father in rice planting near Brunswick, Ga., 1906-1913 and independently 1913-17; county agricultural agent, engaged in work at Georgia State College of Agriculture,
Tale Obituary Record

U. S. Department of Agriculture and Chatham County Commissioners, since 1917; land appraiser for Federal Farm Loan Bank, with headquarters in Columbia, S. C., in 1917; had served as Private in Hospital Corps, 1st Georgia Infantry, National Guard; president of Savannah Yale Club 1925-1931.

Married December 1, 1923, in Savannah, Ottie Adele Ingram, daughter of Wesley Adrian and Winifred (Harley) Weathers. No children.

Death due to pleurpneumonia. Buried in Laurel Grove Cemetery, Savannah. Survived by wife and two sisters, the Misses Miriam Gratz and Ophelia Troup Dent, of Brunswick, Ga.

Henry Homer Hobbs, Ph.B. 1910.

Born May 10, 1887, in Slatersville, R. I.
Died June 28, 1931, in New York City.

Father, Charles Henry Hobbs; owner of a knitting mill in Palmer, Mass. Mother, Mary Hobbs.

Phillips-Andover. Attended Dartmouth 1906-07 as member of Class of 1910 (member Psi Upsilon). Select course; on University Football Team two years and All-American Team Senior year; member The Colony and Berzelius.

Employed in a department store in Springfield, Mass., 1910-11; in bond department of Hayden, Stone & Company, Boston, 1911-13; associated with Logan & Bryan, commission merchants, in Board of Trade, Chicago, 1913-14; member of organization department of Commission for Relief in Belgium in 1915; with American Field Service attached to 1st French Army 1915-16; became manager of automotive sales department of Vacuum Oil Company, S.A.F., in Paris in June, 1917; commissioned First Lieutenant, Quartermaster Corps, October 5, 1917, in Paris; organized procurement, storage, and distribution of lubricating oils for all branches of the service under direction of Quartermaster General, A.E.F.; promoted to Captain October 31, 1917; received discharge at St. Aignan, France, January 8, 1919; subsequently engaged independently in oil shipping business for some time; at time of death a stone engineer for Fuller Construction Company of New York; coached Amherst Football Team 1911-13 and Yale Football Team in 1916.

Married (1) June 8, 1911, in New York City, Helen Whittier, daughter of John Emory Andrus (B.A. Wesleyan 1862) and Julia Maria (Dyckman) Andrus. One daughter, Eleanor Bourne. Mr. and Mrs. Hobbs were divorced in 1916. Married (2) in 1928, Edna Shirk.

Supplement

GRADUATE SCHOOL

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

Margaret Winifred Landes, Ph.D. 1923.

Born October 27, 1887, in Curityba, Parana, Brazil.
Died June 28, 1932, in Istanbul, Turkey.

Father, Rev. George Anderson Landes (B.A. Pennsylvania State College 1877, M.A. 1884; Princeton Theological Seminary 1880); missionary in Rio de Janeiro, Botacatu, and Curityba, Brazil; son of George and Pauline J. (Pollock) Landes, of Milroy, Pa. Mother, Margaret Newell (Sheeder) Landes; daughter of Rev. Philip Sheeder (B.A. Gettysburg College 1847; Gettysburg Seminary 1849) and Susan M. (Miller) Sheeder, of Pennsylvania.

Northfield Seminary; B.A. Wellesley 1911, M.A. 1914; assistant in reference department of Columbia University Library 1914-16; cataloguer in Yale University Library 1917-18; student in Yale Graduate School 1917-1920 and again 1921-22 (Mary E. Ives Fellow in philosophy 1918-1920); instructor in philosophy and psychology at Wells College 1920-23; instructor in psychology at Wellesley 1923-24; had since been professor of philosophy and psychology at Constantinople College for Women; also acting head of department of philosophy at Robert College 1931-32; author: The Philosophical Writings of Richard Burthogge (1921).

Robert LeRoy Penney, LL.B. 1874.

Born November 25, 1850, in Watertown, Conn.
Died February 3, 1924, in Minneapolis, Minn.

Father, William Penney, a farmer. Mother, Julia Maria (Weller) Penney; daughter of Justus and Clara (Hamlin) Weller, of Bridgewater, Conn.

Cazenovia (N. Y.) Seminary; entered Yale School of Law in 1872; practiced law in New Haven in partnership with an older brother 1874-75; practiced in Newark, N. J., 1875-1880 and in Minneapolis 1880-1923; member of firm of Cochrane & Penney, of Jordan, Penney & Hammond 1884-1890, of Penney & Jamison 1890-92, of Penney, Welch & Heyne 1892-96, and of Penney & Nettleton 1896-1900; had also engaged in real estate business in Minneapolis and was interested in banana culture in Honduras and in land business in Texas; member of Minnesota Legislature 1891-93; member American and Minnesota Bar associations; president of First Congregational Society of St. Anthony, Minn., 1898-99.

Married November 24, 1876, in Madison, Conn., Elizabeth, daughter of Thaddeus Maltby and Caroline E. (Harvey) Leete. One daughter, Florence Julia (Mrs. Alexander K. H. Roehl).

Death due to pernicious anemia. Buried in Lakewood Cemetery, Minneapolis. Survived by wife and daughter.

Samuel Leonard Tilley Carvell, LL.B. 1880.

Born in 1851, in Westmoreland County, New Brunswick.
Died March 24, 1932, in East St. John, New Brunswick.

Student in Yale School of Law 1878-1880; honors both years; member T.K.M.; no information concerning his occupation except that he was at one time engaged in clerical work.

Unmarried.

Death due to myocarditis and pernicious anemia. Buried in Fern Hill Cemetery, St. John County, New Brunswick.
Frederic Brainerd Mitchell, LL.B. 1885.

Born June 2, 1860, in Bristol, Conn.
Died August 11, 1931, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, Moseley Hooker Mitchell, a salesman for J. R. Mitchell Company (dry goods) of Bristol; son of George Henry and Lurene (Hooker) Mitchell, of Bristol. Mother, Ellen (Brainerd) Mitchell; daughter of Gilbert and Almira (Goodwin) Brainerd, of Bristol.

New Britain (Conn.) High School; attended Amherst College 1879–1880; principal of Thompsonville (Conn.) High School 1880–84; studied in Yale School of Law 1884–85; commercial agent successively for Charles Parker Company, Meriden, Conn., Stanley Rule & Level Company, New Britain, and Landers, Frary & Clark, hardware manufacturers, New Britain, until his retirement about 1925; member First Church of Christ (Congregational), New Britain.

Ely Franklin Thompson, LL.B. 1887.

Born August 12, 1854, in Wyanet, Ill.
Died May 4, 1931, in Oakland, Fla.

Father, Moses Mitchel Thompson; farmer; justice of the peace; paymaster for northern Illinois troops during Civil War; son of John Thompson, of Mechanicsburg, Ohio. Mother, Anna Cynthia (Raines) Thompson; daughter of Rev. William Raines, a Presbyterian minister, and Dorothy (Malcolm) Raines, of Paisley, Scotland.

Wyanet High School and private tutor; attended University of Chicago in 1877 and studied law with firm of Edsall & Hawley in Chicago in 1883; engaged in business 1883–86 and then entered Yale School of Law as a Senior; admitted to Illinois Bar in 1887 and practiced in Chicago until 1921; in partnership with Frederic W. Keator, '80, under firm name of Keator & Thompson 1887–1891; member of firm of Thompson & Curtis 1892–96, Thompson & Clark
248  Yale Obituary Record

Married (1) in 1891, in Philadelphia, Florence, daughter of John Cutler and Annie Elizabeth (Palmer) Poulsion. Children: Frederic Stetson, ex-16 S.; Katherine; Donald (Northwestern University 1914–15); and William Cutler (B.S. Pennsylvania State College 1919; LL.B. Temple University 1927). Mr. and Mrs. Thompson were subsequently divorced. Married (2) July 14, 1915, in Seattle, Alice, daughter of H. A. Bartell.

Death due to chronic bronchitis. Buried in Wyanet. Survived by wife (died October 13, 1932), daughter, three sons, seven grandchildren, two brothers, Henry Thompson, of Tulsa, Okla., and Anson Thompson, of Kansas City, Kans., and a sister, Mrs. George Clute

---

Edgar Montgomery Thacker, LL.B. 1890.

Born August 29, 1869, in Columbus, Ohio.

Died August 8, 1930, in Dayton, Ohio.

Father, Newton Thacker, president of N. Thacker & Company, wholesale grocers; son of John and Charlotte (Neil) Thacker, of Perry County, Ohio. Mother, Vashti Calhoun (Montgomery) Thacker; daughter of Eli and Ann (Calhoun) Montgomery, of Perry County.

Deaver's Boys' School, Dayton; attended Yale School of Law 1888–1890; assistant to the president of N. Thacker & Company 1890–1917 and president of the company from 1917 until retirement from active business in 1920; had since resided in Dayton; president of American Board & Box Company 1910–17; director of Dayton Spice Mills since 1917, member Christ Episcopal Church, Dayton.

Married February 6, 1895, in Dayton, Bertha, daughter of James DeLaney and Mary (Barney) Platt, and sister of Edwin F. Platt, ex-'96 S. Children James Platt; Edgar Montgomery, Jr.; and Eliam Barney, '24 S.

Death due to tuberculosis. Buried in Woodland Cemetery, Dayton. Survived by wife, three sons, three grandchildren, and a sister, Myrtle Dickey, the wife of Robert R. Dickey, '88 S.
Martin Conlan, LL.B. 1895.

Born July 19, 1882, in New Haven, Conn.
Died August 16, 1931, in Norwich, Conn.

Father, Patrick C. Conlan, an engineer.
Entered Yale School of Law in 1892; practiced law in New Haven for several years and later in New York City; subsequently engaged in business as a contractor and painter in New Haven and also in the paint manufacturing business.

Unmarried.
Survived by a sister, Mrs. James J. McCullom, of New Haven.

John Harris Lewis, LL.B. 1903.

Born April 4, 1874, near Lumpkin, Ga.
Died May 1, 1932, in Thomaston, Ga.

Father, James Ferrell Lewis; merchant and farmer; son of James Ferrell and Nancy Glascock (McCoy) Lewis, of Upson County, Ga.
Mother, Florence (Harris) Lewis; daughter of Thomas Richardson and Caroline (Brown) Harris, of Stewart County, Ga.

R. E. Lee Institute, Thomaston; B.A. Emory College 1894; principal of Molena (Ga.) High School 1894-96; LL.B. University of Georgia 1898; practiced in Thomaston 1898-1904 and in Columbus, Ga., as member of firm of McNeill & Levy 1904-1915; judge of Municipal Court of Columbus 1915-1925; had since practiced in St. Petersburg, Fla.; member of firm of Anderson & Lewis 1925-1930; member of Bar Association of Florida and First Methodist Episcopal Church, St. Petersburg.

Married November 2, 1915, in Columbus, Byrd Farmer Kelly (B.A. Wesleyan College, Georgia, 1908), daughter of Matthew Whitfield and Mary (Farmer) Kelly. Children: John Harris, Jr., and Mary Florence.

Death due to endocarditis. Buried in Glenwood Cemetery, Thomaston. Survived by wife, son, daughter, mother, and three brothers, Rev. J. Douglas Lewis (B.A. Emory 1898), of Savannah, Ga., and Thomas A. Lewis (Emory ex'-10), and F. Courtney Lewis (Georgia Technical Institute ex'-13), both of Thomaston.
DIVINITY SCHOOL

Glen Albert Taylor, B.D. 1889.
Born July 7, 1860, in Denmark, Iowa.
Died July 20, 1931, near Grinnell, Iowa.

Father, Thomas Scott Taylor, a farmer; president of Denmark Academy board of trustees; son of George and Relief (Nichols) Taylor, of Enosburg, Vt. Mother, Mary Frances (Brown) Taylor; daughter of Joseph Brown, of Groton, Mass.

Denmark Academy; B.A. Williams 1885; studied at Chicago Theological Seminary 1885-86; missionary at Crete, Nebr., under the Congregational Home Missionary Society 1886-87; studied in Yale Divinity School 1887-89; took graduate work at Andover Theological Seminary 1889-1890; ordained to Congregational ministry November 19, 1890, at Stuart, Iowa, where pastor to 1899; studied at Chicago University Summer School in 1895 and at Harvard Summer School in 1904; pastor at Spencer, Iowa, 1899-1902; and Emmetsburg, Iowa, 1902-05; retired from the ministry in 1905 because of ill health and had since been engaged in dairy farming in Grinnell township; member Grinnell Congregational Church.

Death due to heart failure following an operation. Buried in Prairie View Cemetery, Gilman, Iowa. Survived by daughters, two sisters, Mrs. Walker H. Van Dyke, of Caldwell, Idaho, and Mrs. John C. Whitmarsh, of Denmark, and a brother, Edwin W. Taylor, of Minneapolis.

Charles Edward Moss, B.D. 1931.
Born March 21, 1903, in Birmingham, Ala.
Died January 3, 1932, in West Haven, Conn.

Father, Edward Moss, a laborer; son of Edward Moss, of Greensboro, Ala. Mother, Gabrella (Singleton) Moss; daughter of Oliver and Mary Ann (Wilson) Singleton, of Greensboro.

Prepared for college at Miles Memorial College; during period of 1922-28 engaged as printer in Baptist Publishing House, Birmingham, and with Quick Printing Company, Pittsburgh; as checker for Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, Pittsburgh; as assistant pastor of Little Bethel Church, Katan, Pa., and as assistant pastor of Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church, Pittsburgh; also studied at University of Pittsburgh (B.S. 1918; member Kappa Alpha Psi); studied in Yale Divinity School 1928–1931 (Mersick prize scholar Senior year); pastor First Baptist Church, Milford, Conn., 1929–1931.

Death due to pulmonary tuberculosis. Buried in Milford Cemetery. Survived by wife, three children, and mother (now Mrs Gabrella Perrien).
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>NAME AND AGE AT DEATH</th>
<th>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</th>
<th>DATE OF DEATH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1863</td>
<td>Josiah Jewett, 89</td>
<td>Buffalo, N. Y.; Skaneateles, N. Y.</td>
<td>August 12, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1864</td>
<td>E. W. Bell, 90</td>
<td>Marlborough, Conn.; Springdale, Conn.</td>
<td>August 11, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1864</td>
<td>Roswell Parish, 91</td>
<td>Smithtown, N. Y.; Brookline, Mass.</td>
<td>August 10, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1865</td>
<td>C. H. Smith, 90</td>
<td>Beirut, Syria; Rochester, N. Y.</td>
<td>February 14, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1867</td>
<td>Samuel Keeler, 86</td>
<td>Wilton, Conn.; Ridgefield, Conn.</td>
<td>July 6, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1867</td>
<td>C. S. Walker, 86</td>
<td>Cincinnati, Ohio; Stamford, Conn.</td>
<td>January 14, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1868</td>
<td>R. B. Williams, 84</td>
<td>Ithaca, N. Y.</td>
<td>February 24, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1869</td>
<td>J. T. B. Hillhouse, 84</td>
<td>Watervliet, N. Y., San Francisco, Calif.</td>
<td>December 5, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1869</td>
<td>J. E. Moore, 87</td>
<td>Cincinnati, Ohio; Passaic, N. J.</td>
<td>December 7, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>A. H. Warren, 86</td>
<td>Leicester, Mass.; North Brookfield, Mass</td>
<td>February 1, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td>E. B. Guthrie, 83</td>
<td>Putnam, Ohio; Buffalo, N. Y.</td>
<td>February 28, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td>A. B Mason, 81</td>
<td>Bridgeport, Conn.; Florence, Italy.</td>
<td>January 25, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td>L. A Sherman, 85</td>
<td>Douglass, Mass.; Lincoln, Nebr.</td>
<td>February 13, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>Waller Bennett, 83</td>
<td>White Hall, Ky.; Richmond, Ky.</td>
<td>March 13, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>N. M. Calhoun, 84</td>
<td>Warren, Conn.; Orange, Conn.</td>
<td>August 5, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>O. H. Cooper, 79</td>
<td>Carthage, Texas; Abilene, Texas.</td>
<td>August 22, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>E. D. Robbins, 78</td>
<td>Wethersfield, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>October 7, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>G. W. Stone, 79</td>
<td>Cincinnati, Ohio.</td>
<td>December 20, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>T. P. Wickes, 79</td>
<td>Albany, N. Y.; Los Angeles, Calif.</td>
<td>January 18, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875</td>
<td>J. H. Cook, 81</td>
<td>St. Louis, Mo.; New York City.</td>
<td>March 13, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875</td>
<td>Timothy Davenport, 78</td>
<td>Wilton, Conn.; Yonkers, N. Y.</td>
<td>December 21, 1932</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
1875  R. W. Day, 77
1875  R. D. Townsend, 79
1876  J. H. Kean, 78
1876  J. L. Roseboom, 79
1877  Walter Brooks, 77
1877  J. H. Chandler, 78
1877  A R. Kimball, 77
1877  F. W. Paige, 79
1878  H. P. Berch, 78
1879  H. A. Bushnell, 77
1879  H. S. Green, 78
1879  H. C. Savage, 77
1880  Frederick Brooks, 73
1880  Walter Jennings, 74
1880  F. P. Skinner, 74
1881  P. G. Bartlett, 72
1881  Isaac Bromley, 75
1881  E. S. D. Tompkins, 74
1881  G. W. Wheeler, 71
1882  G. W. Lay, 72
1882  Wilber McBride, 72
1882  R. H. Pierce, 72
1883  Gilbert Colgate, 74
1883  E. H. Moore, 70
1883  A. L. Sawyer, 70
1883  William Trumbull, 71
1884  W. H. Jessup, 74
1885  S. D. Capen, 69
1885  H. R. Flanders, 72

Bridgeport, Conn.; Tallahassee, Fla.
Brooklyn, N. Y.; Cranford, N. J.
Ursino, N. J.
Roseboom, N. Y.; Cherry Valley, N. Y.
New York City.
West Brattleboro, Vt.; Northampton, Mass.
New York City; Waterbury, Conn.
West Springfield, Mass.; Fort Dodge, Iowa.
South Orange, N. J.; Winter Park, Fla.
Old Saybrook, Conn.; Chicago, Ill.
New Milford, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.
New York City; Southampton, N. Y.
San Francisco, Calif.; Brunswick, Ga.
Owego, N. Y.
Washington, D. C.; Southbury, Conn.
New Haven, Conn.; New London, Conn.
Chatham, N. Y.; Coxsackie, N. Y.
Woodville, Miss.; Bridgeport, Conn.
Huntsville, Ala.; Durham, N. C.
Goshen, N. Y.
Woonsocket, R. I.; Newtonville, Mass.
Orange, N. J.; New York City.
Marietta, Ohio; Chicago, Ill.
Yonkers, N. Y.; Middletown, N. Y.
Valparaiso, Chile; New York City.
Montrose, Pa.
St. Louis, Mo.
Chilmark, Mass.; Tisbury, Mass.

July 11, 1932
March 29, 1933
August 26, 1932
August 10, 1932
March 26, 1933
October 5, 1932
January 27, 1933
November 15, 1932
March 4, 1933
November 3, 1932
January 22, 1933
December 4, 1932
July 18, 1932
January 9, 1933
March 24, 1933
August 2, 1932
July 29, 1932
December 21, 1932
July 27, 1932
August 12, 1932
February 5, 1933
March 16, 1933
January 5, 1933
December 30, 1932
January 26, 1933
January 11, 1933
July 27, 1932
January 28, 1933
September 13, 1932
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>NAME AND AGE AT DEATH</th>
<th>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</th>
<th>DATE OF DEATH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>J. B. Keogh, 67</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill; Woods Hole, Mass</td>
<td>August 21, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>D. W. Mulvane, 69</td>
<td>Princeton, Ill.; Topeka, Kans</td>
<td>November 9, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>Wulf Willner, 69</td>
<td>Strassburg, Germany; Frederick, Md.</td>
<td>August 24, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>Calvin Dickey, 70</td>
<td>Newark, Ohio; Chicago, Ill.</td>
<td>March 9, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>H. L. Rollins, 71</td>
<td>Chelsea, Mass; Wellesley, Mass</td>
<td>March 27, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>A. W. Brady, 68</td>
<td>Muncie, Ind; Anderson, Ind.</td>
<td>March 24, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>P. D. Bunce, 68</td>
<td>Hartford, Conn.</td>
<td>September 13, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888</td>
<td>W. S. Clark, 65</td>
<td>Granby, Mass; Greenfield, Mass.</td>
<td>October 9, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889</td>
<td>J. C. Griggs, 66</td>
<td>Spring Valley, Minn.; Palo Alto, Calif.</td>
<td>July 20, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889</td>
<td>R. L. Luce, 70</td>
<td>Hartwick, N. Y.; New York City.</td>
<td>March 11, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889</td>
<td>H. J. Sage, 66</td>
<td>Cincinnati, Ohio; New York City.</td>
<td>December 29, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889</td>
<td>S. L. Smith, 65</td>
<td>Cleveland, Ohio.</td>
<td>October 6, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>A. D. Chaffee, 62</td>
<td>Moodus, Conn; West Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>February 27, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>R. E. Phyfe, 76</td>
<td>Bovina Center, N. Y.; Hartford, Conn.</td>
<td>January 12, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>W. H. Smith, 65</td>
<td>Hamilton, Ohio; Palo Alto, Calif.</td>
<td>November 10, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>C. K. Bancroft, 63</td>
<td>Lookout Mountain, Tenn.; Andover, Mass.</td>
<td>November 26, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>W. B. Dean, 62</td>
<td>New York City.</td>
<td>October 12, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>R. H. Gage, 63</td>
<td>Dover, N. J.; Wenoah, N. J.</td>
<td>December 19, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>Nathan Glicksman, 63</td>
<td>Chippewa Falls, Wis.; Milwaukee, Wis.</td>
<td>June 26, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>C. P. Howland, 63</td>
<td>New York City; New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>November 12, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>Howard LaField, 63</td>
<td>Bridgeport, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>October 23, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>Howard Huntington, 61</td>
<td>Plainfield, N. J.</td>
<td>December 31, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>Abraham Meyer, 61</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill.; Paris, France.</td>
<td>May 6, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>C. W. Clark, 61</td>
<td>Deer Lodge, Mont.; New York City.</td>
<td>April 8, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>NAME AND AGE AT DEATH</td>
<td>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</td>
<td>DATE OF DEATH</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-------</td>
<td>-----------------------</td>
<td>--------------------------</td>
<td>---------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>C R Aldrich, 56</td>
<td>Fort Wayne, Ind; Carmel, Calif.</td>
<td>March 31, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>Ralph Bristol, 50</td>
<td>Ansonia, Conn.; Verona, N. J.</td>
<td>July 15, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>A M Newhall, 51</td>
<td>Minneapolis, Minn.; Oxford, Ohio.</td>
<td>January 15, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>J D Rea, 52</td>
<td>East Hartford, Conn.; Huntington, N. Y.</td>
<td>March 6, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>Frank Callahan, 52</td>
<td>San Francisco, Calif.</td>
<td>February 5, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>J C Kittle, 50</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>March 17, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905</td>
<td>H T Sheldon, 50</td>
<td>New York City; Columbus, Ohio.</td>
<td>May 1, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>C E Andrews, 49</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N. Y.; Hoboken, N. J.</td>
<td>December 12, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>G A LaVie, 48</td>
<td>Fayetteville, N. Y.; San Diego, Calif.</td>
<td>May 12, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>W D Nichols, 50</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N. Y.; Boston, Mass.</td>
<td>September 26, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>F G Sherrill, 49</td>
<td>Rockford, Ill.; New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>March 18, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>N F Thompson, 49</td>
<td>Bridgeport, Conn.; Cincinnati, Ohio.</td>
<td>April 2, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>P T White, 48</td>
<td>Asbury, Ohio; Cincinnati, Ohio.</td>
<td>May 14, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>C L Davidson, 55</td>
<td>Menden, Conn.; Brooklyn, N. Y.</td>
<td>January 7, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>R F Seidensticker, 48</td>
<td>Minneapolis, Minn.; Boston, Mass.</td>
<td>October 9, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>F L Gates, 46</td>
<td>Canton Center, Conn.; Yokohama, Japan.</td>
<td>June 17, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>H B Hitchcock, 45</td>
<td>Bridgeport, Conn.; Waterbury, Conn.</td>
<td>March 1, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1912</td>
<td>J T Carney, 42</td>
<td>Tower, Minn.; Donaldsonville, Ga.</td>
<td>October 30, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1912</td>
<td>J M Ely, 43</td>
<td>New York City.</td>
<td>May 11, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1913</td>
<td>R C Taylor, 42</td>
<td>Jackson, Wis.; Spokane, Wash.</td>
<td>October 3, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1914</td>
<td>Stoddard King, 43</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>June 13, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1914</td>
<td>Manuel Kligerman, 42</td>
<td>Cleveland, Ohio; New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>January 10, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1914</td>
<td>R E Lomas, 39</td>
<td>New York City.</td>
<td>November 9, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1914</td>
<td>Amos Morrill, 40</td>
<td>Syracuse, N. Y.</td>
<td>October 12, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1914</td>
<td>G L Smith, 40</td>
<td>St. Helier, Island of Jersey; Evanston, Ill.</td>
<td>December 23, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1914</td>
<td>E H Spencer, 42</td>
<td></td>
<td>October 28, 1932</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
1917  E. S. James, 37  Easthampton, N. Y.; New York City.
1917  Nathan Kroll, 38  Marlboro, Mass.; Poughkeepsie, N. Y.
1922  Wallace Estill, 36  Lakeville, Conn.; San Anselmo, Calif.
1922  L. A. Tuhn, 31  Hartford, Conn.; New York City.
1924  D. C. Knowlton, Jr., 31  Ithaca, N. Y.; Orange, Conn.
1926  L. H. Loomis, 26  New Haven, Conn.; West Haven, Conn.
1932  A. W. McKown, 21  Albany, N. Y.

1870  W. R. Hopson, 84  SHEFFIELD SCIENTIFIC SCHOOL
1873  E. H. S. Bailey, 84  Kent, Conn.; New Milford, Conn.
1875  Burton Mansfield, 76  Middlefield, Conn.; Lawrence, Kans.
1875  F. T. Pease, 82  Hamden, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.
1876  T. E. Sherman, 76  Ellington, Conn.; Antis Township, Pa.
1876  H. E. Wood, 77  San Francisco, Calif.; New Orleans, La.
1879  W. S. Silsby, 74  Joliet, Ill.; Sacramento, Calif.
1881  W. L. Griswold, 72  Seneca Falls, N. Y.; Rochester, N. Y.
1883  F. E. Beach, 69  Banksville, N. Y.; Greenwich, Conn.
1883  R. H. Wylie, 69  New Haven, Conn.
1884  E. M. Herr, 72  Chester, S. C.; New York City.
1885  E. S. Wilson, 71  Lancaster, Pa.; New York City.
1887  F. W. Wentworth, 64  New York City.
1888  G. R. Carter, 66  Chicago, Ill
1889  J. R. Mitchell, 65  Honolulu, Hawaii; Kailua, Oahu, Hawaii

SHEFFIELD SCIENTIFIC SCHOOL

July 18, 1932  August 23, 1932
November 25, 1932  June 1, 1933
January 22, 1933  October 4, 1933
December 12, 1932  January 26, 1933
March 14, 1933  April 29, 1933
December 18, 1932  October 6, 1932
August 10, 1932  November 5, 1932
December 1, 1932  February 24, 1933
October 24, 1932  April 6, 1933
September 24, 1932  January 13, 1933
August 4, 1932  December 24, 1932

25
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Class</th>
<th>Name and Age at Death</th>
<th>Place of Birth and Death</th>
<th>Date of Death</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>J. C. Powell, 62</td>
<td>Dayton, Ohio; Seattle, Wash.</td>
<td>November 10, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>L. A. Dodsworth, 62</td>
<td>New York City; Charlotte, N. C.</td>
<td>July 3, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>L. A. Dodsworth, 62</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn; New York City.</td>
<td>March 30, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>F. J. Easterbrook, 62</td>
<td>Wallingford, Conn; New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>February 3, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>W. R. Carroll, 61</td>
<td>New York City; Scottsdale, Pa.</td>
<td>July 31, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>G. E. Huttle, 65</td>
<td>Dover, Del.; Wayne, Pa.</td>
<td>September 18, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>R. V. Massey, 60</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn; Springfield, Mass.</td>
<td>February 8, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>C. C. Ramsdell, 63</td>
<td>Buffalo, N. Y.</td>
<td>October 6, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>G. F. Root, 61</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill.</td>
<td>October 23, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>I. S. Jackson, 58</td>
<td>Fonda, N. Y; San Diego, Calif.</td>
<td>September 14, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>F. I. Jansen, 57</td>
<td>Kennebunk, Maine; Birmingham, Ala</td>
<td>May 30, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>W. U. Parsons, 59</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N. Y; Springfield, Mass.</td>
<td>September 14, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>C. C. Walbridge, 59</td>
<td>Ponce, Puerto Rico.</td>
<td>October 26, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>Jorge Armstrong, 59</td>
<td>Scranton, Pa.; Fairfield, Conn.</td>
<td>October 25, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>C. B. Sturges, 58</td>
<td>Rome, Italy; Southampton, N. Y.</td>
<td>July 12, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>W. S. Cameron, 57</td>
<td>Corsicana, Texas; Auburn, Calif</td>
<td>July 17, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>S. B. Cerf, 57</td>
<td>St. Augustine, Fla.; South Dartmouth, Mass.</td>
<td>May 4, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>W. P. Lindley, 57</td>
<td>New York City; Jacksonville, Fla.</td>
<td>November 5, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>C. R. Schultz, 56</td>
<td>Stamford, Conn.; Bridgeport, Conn.</td>
<td>January 19, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>E. F. Leeds, 56</td>
<td>Franklin, Pa; New York City.</td>
<td>May 16, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>L. W. Dodd, 53</td>
<td>New York City.</td>
<td>March 22, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>J. G. Parsons, 56</td>
<td>Baltimore, Md; Battle Creek, Mich.</td>
<td>February 4, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td>D. I. Whittelsey, 54</td>
<td>San Francisco, Calif.</td>
<td>January 14, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>Walter Arnstein, 49</td>
<td>Ramsey, N. J.; Passaic, N. J.</td>
<td>February 28, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>H. A. Shuart, 50</td>
<td>Albany, N. Y.; Beacon, N. Y.</td>
<td>January 27, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>N. L. Snow, 51</td>
<td>Omaha, Neb.; Beverly Hills, Calif.</td>
<td>September 27, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>R. V. Barkalow, 51</td>
<td>Montclair, N. J.; Winnetka, Ill.</td>
<td>November 3, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905</td>
<td>H. A. Swenarton, 47</td>
<td>Kansas City, Mo.</td>
<td>January 17, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>R. E. Wiles, 44</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
1910  C. D. Winslow, 43  New York City.
1911  E. L. Carpenter, 42  Pueblo, Colo.; Miami, Fla.
1912  L. E. Bomeisler, Jr., 41  Brooklyn, N. Y.; Santa Monica, Calif.
1912  R. H. Cornell, 41  Jamestown, N. Y.
1913  H. S. Stearns, Jr., 41  New York City.
1914  S. E. B. Gillmore, 42  Elyria, Ohio.
1914  Ridgely Hunt, 45  Washington, D. C.; North Branford, Conn.
1914  J. W. Ryan, 41  Port Chester, N. Y.
1916  W. D. Savage, 38  Nashua, N. H.; La Jolla, Calif.
1916  R. F. Scott, Jr., 40  Paris, Texas; Houston, Texas.
1917  Aaron Ward, 35  Newark, N. J.; Montclair, N. J.
1918  V. S. Wrenn, 35  New Haven, Conn.
1923  L. H. Kibbe, 34  New Haven, Conn.

GRADUATE SCHOOL

Masters of Arts

1925  Margaret Doolittle, 41  Mount Vernon, N. Y.; Norwalk, Conn.

Doctors of Philosophy

1889  F. K. Sanders, 71  Battieotta, Jaffna, Ceylon; Rockport, Mass.
1898  M. A. Phelps, 63  Georgia, Vt.; New Haven, Conn.
1900  C. M. Hitchcock, 79  Columbus, Ohio; Cleveland, Ohio.
1903  A. D. Risteen, 66  Amesbury, Mass.; Hartford, Conn.
1909  A. S. Field, 58  Williamsburg, Kans.; Washington, D. C.

GRADUATE SCHOOL

Masters of Arts

1925  Margaret Doolittle, 41  Mount Vernon, N. Y.; Norwalk, Conn.

Doctors of Philosophy

1889  F. K. Sanders, 71  Battieotta, Jaffna, Ceylon; Rockport, Mass.
1898  M. A. Phelps, 63  Georgia, Vt.; New Haven, Conn.
1900  C. M. Hitchcock, 79  Columbus, Ohio; Cleveland, Ohio.
1903  A. D. Risteen, 66  Amesbury, Mass.; Hartford, Conn.
1909  A. S. Field, 58  Williamsburg, Kans.; Washington, D. C.

GRADUATE SCHOOL

Masters of Arts

1925  Margaret Doolittle, 41  Mount Vernon, N. Y.; Norwalk, Conn.

Doctors of Philosophy

1889  F. K. Sanders, 71  Battieotta, Jaffna, Ceylon; Rockport, Mass.
1898  M. A. Phelps, 63  Georgia, Vt.; New Haven, Conn.
1900  C. M. Hitchcock, 79  Columbus, Ohio; Cleveland, Ohio.
1903  A. D. Risteen, 66  Amesbury, Mass.; Hartford, Conn.
1909  A. S. Field, 58  Williamsburg, Kans.; Washington, D. C.

GRADUATE SCHOOL

Masters of Arts

1925  Margaret Doolittle, 41  Mount Vernon, N. Y.; Norwalk, Conn.

Doctors of Philosophy

1889  F. K. Sanders, 71  Battieotta, Jaffna, Ceylon; Rockport, Mass.
1898  M. A. Phelps, 63  Georgia, Vt.; New Haven, Conn.
1900  C. M. Hitchcock, 79  Columbus, Ohio; Cleveland, Ohio.
1903  A. D. Risteen, 66  Amesbury, Mass.; Hartford, Conn.
1909  A. S. Field, 58  Williamsburg, Kans.; Washington, D. C.

GRADUATE SCHOOL

Masters of Arts

1925  Margaret Doolittle, 41  Mount Vernon, N. Y.; Norwalk, Conn.

Doctors of Philosophy

1889  F. K. Sanders, 71  Battieotta, Jaffna, Ceylon; Rockport, Mass.
1898  M. A. Phelps, 63  Georgia, Vt.; New Haven, Conn.
1900  C. M. Hitchcock, 79  Columbus, Ohio; Cleveland, Ohio.
1903  A. D. Risteen, 66  Amesbury, Mass.; Hartford, Conn.
1909  A. S. Field, 58  Williamsburg, Kans.; Washington, D. C.
SCHOOL OF THE FINE ARTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>NAME AND AGE AT DEATH</th>
<th>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</th>
<th>DATE OF DEATH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1924</td>
<td>Dewey VanCott, 33</td>
<td>Salt Lake City, Utah, Mount Vernon, N. Y.</td>
<td>September 21, 1932</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

SCHOOL OF FORESTRY

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>YEAR</th>
<th>NAME AND AGE AT DEATH</th>
<th>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</th>
<th>DATE OF DEATH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>A. B. Patterson, 58</td>
<td>Concord, N H.; Napa, Calif.</td>
<td>January 24, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>Raymond Davis, 49</td>
<td>Portland, Maine; Prague, Czechoslovakia.</td>
<td>January 24, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908</td>
<td>W. N. Millar, 49</td>
<td>Pittsburgh, Pa.; Martinsville, Ind.</td>
<td>June 29, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1912</td>
<td>L. H. Koomey, 47</td>
<td>Etchmi, Harpoot, Turkey; Worcester, Mass.</td>
<td>May 4, 1933</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>YEAR</th>
<th>NAME AND AGE AT DEATH</th>
<th>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</th>
<th>DATE OF DEATH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>M. L. Loeb, 58</td>
<td>New York City.</td>
<td>April 13, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>F. J. McGuire, 64</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>December 22, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>F. T. Billings, 59</td>
<td>Ridgewood, N J.; Pittsburgh, Pa.</td>
<td>January 5, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>H. C Rowland, 59</td>
<td>New York City; Washington, D. C.</td>
<td>June 6, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>W. J. Cooney, 58</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>January 22, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>C. L. Curtiss, 53</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; Redlands, Calif</td>
<td>September 27, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>J. N Waggoner, 47</td>
<td>Otterville, Ill.; Canton, Mo.</td>
<td>February 11, 1933</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

SCHOOL OF LAW

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>YEAR</th>
<th>NAME AND AGE AT DEATH</th>
<th>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</th>
<th>DATE OF DEATH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>T. H Patterson, 75</td>
<td>Midway, Ky.; El Paso, Texas.</td>
<td>November 7, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>J. I. Howard, 66</td>
<td>St. Paul, Minn.; Chicago, Ill.</td>
<td>November 6, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>G. M. Curtis, Jr., 59</td>
<td>New York City; Brooklyn, N. Y.</td>
<td>August 31, 1932</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
1895  W. P. Hopkins, 63
1895  W. S. Levens, 60
1895  B. E. Lynch, 72
1895  A. I. Moriarty, 69
1897  S. B. Davis, 58
1898  J. H. Patterson, 57
1899  C. S. Briggs, 57
1899  R. B. Harkness, 58
1899  T. F. Noone, 59
1902  E. H. Kelly, 55
1905  N. G. Hewitt, 49
1907  R. T. Beers, 47
1908  Graham Foster, 51
1911  W. T. Andrews, 72
1924  H. D. Stevens, 34
1930  F. H. Gilbert, 26

1910  F. D. Templeton, 53
1912  Fred Hamilton, 47

1875  A. D. Adams, 83
1877  T. T. Frickstad, 86
1880  W. F. Blackman, 76
1881  A. B. Case, 81
1889  C. B. F. Pease, 75
1890  H. B. Hutchins, 69

Bridgeport, Conn.
Baker, Ore.; Eugene, Ore.
New Haven, Conn.
Putnam, Conn.; Allston, Mass.
Middletown, Conn.; New York City.
Milford, N. J.; Torrdsdale, Pa.
Galveston, Texas; Washington, D. C.
Elkhorn, Wis.; Holladay, Utah.
Rockville, Conn.
East Windsor, Conn.; Unionville, Conn.
Saratoga Springs, N. Y.; Morristown, N. J.
Bridgeport, Conn.
Elkhart, Mich.; Tempe, Ariz.
Darien, Conn.; Stamford, Conn.
Asheville, N. C.; New York City.
Columbus, Ga.; Atlanta, Ga.

December 28, 1932
May 2, 1933
December 27, 1932
March 22, 1933
February 24, 1933
April 24, 1933
April 29, 1933
June 15, 1933
September 12, 1932
February 27, 1933
July 12, 1932
November 16, 1932
July 28, 1932
February 19, 1933
May 14, 1933
December 8, 1932

Masters of Laws

Champion, Ohio; Warren, Ohio.
Decatur, Ill.

Divinity School

Crystal Lake, Ill.; Wallingford, Conn.
Christiansand, Norway; Oakland, Calif.
North Pitcher, N. Y.; Winter Park, Fla.
Gustavus, Ohio; Pomona, Calif.
Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; Schenectady, N. Y.
Brooklyn, N. Y.; New London, Conn.

April 13, 1933
April 15, 1933

December 6, 1932
March 4, 1933
August 9, 1932
October 27, 1932
April 8, 1933
April 24, 1933
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Place of Birth and Death</th>
<th>Date of Death</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>T. H. Root, 71</td>
<td>Whately, Mass; Barton, Vt</td>
<td>April 16, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>G. P. Anderson, 67</td>
<td>Newark, Ill.; Los Angeles, Calif.</td>
<td>July 1, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>D. L. Kebbe, 70</td>
<td>Holliston, Mass; New Hartford, Conn.</td>
<td>May 20, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>J. W. Eggleston, 66</td>
<td>Watertown, Conn; Scarsdale, N. Y.</td>
<td>January 8, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>A. L. McClelland, 67</td>
<td>Brandon, Wis.; Rosendale, Wis</td>
<td>December 11, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>H. H. Proctor, 64</td>
<td>Fayetteville, Tenn; Brooklyn, N. Y.</td>
<td>May 12, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>A. E. Johnson, 62</td>
<td>Newton Center, Mass; New York City</td>
<td>March 17, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1865</td>
<td>C. M. Charnley, 85</td>
<td>Philadephia, Pa; Gainesville, Ga.</td>
<td>July, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>A. E. Stone, 79</td>
<td>Goshen, Mass; Brooklyn, N. Y</td>
<td>December 12, 1929</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td>W. C. Assay, 74</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill.</td>
<td>June 23, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>W. B. Sterling, 73</td>
<td>Meadville, Pa; Erie, Pa.</td>
<td>May 24, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>M. W. Young, 71</td>
<td>Maumee, Ohio; Toledo, Ohio.</td>
<td>June 30, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>M. L. Stein, 61</td>
<td>Waukesha, Wis.; Houston, Texas.</td>
<td>November 16, 1928</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>G. H. Abbott, 55</td>
<td>Charleston, S. C; Agnew, Calif.</td>
<td>June 23, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>R. I. Capen, 55</td>
<td>Cincinnati, Ohio; Gainesville, Fla.</td>
<td>December 15, 1930</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>F. J. Hiller, 73</td>
<td>Cohoes, N. Y.</td>
<td>April 20, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>W. C. Hungerford, 61</td>
<td>New Britain, Conn; Boston, Mass.</td>
<td>June 25, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>R. S. Woodhull, 57</td>
<td>Dayton, Ohio.</td>
<td>June 8, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>F. P. Underhill, 54</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N. Y; New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>June 28, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td>W. H. Ferguson, 60</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill.; Compton, Calif.</td>
<td>June 15, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>Gratz Dent, 50</td>
<td>Savannah, Ga.</td>
<td>June 11, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910</td>
<td>H. H. Hobbs, 44</td>
<td>Slatersville, R. I.; New York City</td>
<td>June 28, 1931</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
1923 M. W. Landes, 44

1874 R. L. Penney, 73

1880 S. L. T. Carvel, 80

1885 F. B. Mitchell, 71

1887 E. F. Thompson, 76

1890 E. M. Thacker, 60

1895 Martin Conlan, 49

1903 J. H. Lewis, 58

1889 G. A. Taylor, 71

1931 C. E. Moss, 28

GRADUATE SCHOOL

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

Curitiba, Parana, Brazil; Istanbul, Turkey.

June 28, 1932

SCHOOL OF LAW

BACHELORS OF LAWS

1874 R. L. Penney, 73

Watertown, Conn.; Minneapolis, Minn.

February 3, 1924

1880 S. L. T. Carvel, 80

Westmoreland County, N. B., Canada;

East St. John, N. B., Canada.

March 24, 1932

1885 F. B. Mitchell, 71

Bristol, Conn.; Hartford, Conn.

August 11, 1932

1887 E. F. Thompson, 76

Wyanet, Ill.; Oakland, Fla.

May 4, 1931

1890 E. M. Thacker, 60

Columbus, Ohio; Dayton, Ohio.

August 8, 1930

1895 Martin Conlan, 49

New Haven, Conn.; Norwich, Conn.

August 16, 1931

1903 J. H. Lewis, 58

Lumpkin, Ga.; Thomaston, Ga.

May 1, 1932

DIVINITY SCHOOL

1889 G. A. Taylor, 71

Denmark, Iowa; Grinnell, Iowa.

July 20, 1931

1931 C. E. Moss, 28

Birmingham, Ala.; West Haven, Conn.

January 3, 1932

The total number of deaths reported for the year 1932-33 is 262. The age of the 149 graduates of Yale College averages 62.3, and the age of the 57 graduates of the Sheffield Scientific School averages 56.9. There are also recorded 25 deaths which occurred before July 1, 1932.

The oldest living graduate of the College is:

AUGUSTUS FIELD BEARD (B.A. 1857), of Norwalk, Conn., born May 11, 1833.

The oldest living graduate of the Sheffield Scientific School is:

ARTHUR VANHARLINGEN (Ph.B. 1864), of Bryn Mawr, Pa., born October 25, 1845.
Graduates of the different Schools of the University are distinguished from graduates of Yale College by italic letters as follows: School of the Fine Arts, art; Divinity School, d, School of Forestry, f; Graduate School, ma or dp; School of Law, l or ml; School of Medicine, m; Sheffield Scientific School, s.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>PAGE</th>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>PAGE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td></td>
<td>1878</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Abbott, George H.</td>
<td>237</td>
<td>Burlingame, Eugene W.</td>
<td>89</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875 d</td>
<td></td>
<td>Adams, Allison D.</td>
<td>223</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td></td>
<td>Adams, Mason T</td>
<td>93</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td></td>
<td>Aldrich, Charles Roberts</td>
<td>103</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891 d</td>
<td></td>
<td>Anderson, George P.</td>
<td>228</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td></td>
<td>Andrews, Clarence E.</td>
<td>111</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1911 l</td>
<td></td>
<td>Andrews, William T.</td>
<td>219</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td></td>
<td>Anthony, Benjamin H</td>
<td>56</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896 s</td>
<td></td>
<td>Armstrong, Jorge</td>
<td>161</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902 s</td>
<td></td>
<td>Arnstein, Walter</td>
<td>169</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td></td>
<td>Asay, William C.</td>
<td>234</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898 dp</td>
<td></td>
<td>Austin, Martha</td>
<td>192</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>(Mrs. Isaac King Phelps)</td>
<td>190</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1911 s</td>
<td></td>
<td>Badham, Robert J.</td>
<td>175</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873 s</td>
<td></td>
<td>Bailey, Edgar H S.</td>
<td>138</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td></td>
<td>Baker, Roscoe C.</td>
<td>97</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td></td>
<td>Baldwin, Mark</td>
<td>83</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td></td>
<td>Bancroft, Cecil K.</td>
<td>69</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904 s</td>
<td></td>
<td>Barkalow, Robert V.</td>
<td>172</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td></td>
<td>Barker, Ralph A.</td>
<td>85</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td></td>
<td>Bartlett, Philip G.</td>
<td>40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883 s</td>
<td></td>
<td>Beach, Frederick E.</td>
<td>145</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td></td>
<td>Beach, Harlan P.</td>
<td>33</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889</td>
<td></td>
<td>Beckwith, John W.</td>
<td>61</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907 l</td>
<td></td>
<td>Beers, Ralph T.</td>
<td>217</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1864</td>
<td></td>
<td>Bell, Edward W.</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td></td>
<td>Bennett, Waller</td>
<td>16</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td></td>
<td>Betts, W. Rossetter</td>
<td>88</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898 m</td>
<td></td>
<td>Billings, Frederic T.</td>
<td>201</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880 d</td>
<td></td>
<td>Blackman, William F.</td>
<td>224</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td></td>
<td>Blount, Frederic A.</td>
<td>97</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1912 s</td>
<td></td>
<td>Bonesler, Louis E., Jr.</td>
<td>177</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td></td>
<td>Brady, Arthur W.</td>
<td>58</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899 l</td>
<td></td>
<td>Briggs, Clay S.</td>
<td>215</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td></td>
<td>Bristol, Ralph</td>
<td>104</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td></td>
<td>Bromley, Isaac</td>
<td>41</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
<td></td>
<td>Brooks, Frederick</td>
<td>37</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td></td>
<td>Brooks, Walter</td>
<td>28</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888</td>
<td></td>
<td>Bunce, Philip D.</td>
<td>59</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ASS</td>
<td>PAGE</td>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>PAGE</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-----</td>
<td>------</td>
<td>-------</td>
<td>------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>199 s</td>
<td>167</td>
<td>1910 s</td>
<td>244</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>191 s</td>
<td>153</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>81</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>125 ma</td>
<td>188</td>
<td>1895</td>
<td>210</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>900</td>
<td>98</td>
<td>1870 s</td>
<td>138</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>903</td>
<td>105</td>
<td>1890 l</td>
<td>207</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>911</td>
<td>154</td>
<td>1891</td>
<td>92</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>92 d</td>
<td>229</td>
<td>1893 s</td>
<td>239</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>913</td>
<td>121</td>
<td>1914 s</td>
<td>180</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>912</td>
<td>120</td>
<td>1892</td>
<td>77</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>928</td>
<td>90</td>
<td>1890 d</td>
<td>226</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>922</td>
<td>132</td>
<td>1892 s</td>
<td>156</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>901 s</td>
<td>242</td>
<td>1895 s</td>
<td>159</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>909 dp</td>
<td>192</td>
<td>1917</td>
<td>129</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>885</td>
<td>52</td>
<td>1895</td>
<td>160</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>899</td>
<td>94</td>
<td>1880</td>
<td>38</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>891</td>
<td>70</td>
<td>1884</td>
<td>50</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>908 l</td>
<td>218</td>
<td>1863</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>877 d</td>
<td>223</td>
<td>1897 d</td>
<td>232</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>891</td>
<td>71</td>
<td>1876</td>
<td>26</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>891 m</td>
<td>200</td>
<td>1891 d</td>
<td>229</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>909</td>
<td>118</td>
<td>1867</td>
<td>7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>930 l</td>
<td>220</td>
<td>1902 l</td>
<td>216</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>914 s</td>
<td>179</td>
<td>1885</td>
<td>53</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>891</td>
<td>72</td>
<td>1923 s</td>
<td>186</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>902</td>
<td>102</td>
<td>1877</td>
<td>30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>891</td>
<td>73</td>
<td>1914</td>
<td>123</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>879</td>
<td>35</td>
<td>1904</td>
<td>109</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>889</td>
<td>62</td>
<td>1914</td>
<td>124</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>881 s</td>
<td>144</td>
<td>1924</td>
<td>135</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>871</td>
<td>13</td>
<td>1912 f</td>
<td>199</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>898</td>
<td>91</td>
<td>1891</td>
<td>131</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>912 ml</td>
<td>221</td>
<td>1891</td>
<td>76</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>901</td>
<td>99</td>
<td>1923 dp</td>
<td>245</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>894</td>
<td>82</td>
<td>1873</td>
<td>20</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>893</td>
<td>79</td>
<td>1906</td>
<td>112</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>899 l</td>
<td>215</td>
<td>1882</td>
<td>43</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>884 s</td>
<td>147</td>
<td>1897</td>
<td>85</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1915</td>
<td>128</td>
<td>1898 s</td>
<td>166</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>905 l</td>
<td>217</td>
<td>1895 l</td>
<td>211</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>80</td>
<td>1903 l</td>
<td>249</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881 s</td>
<td>238</td>
<td>1897 s</td>
<td>165</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1869</td>
<td>10</td>
<td>1897</td>
<td>86</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900 dp</td>
<td>190</td>
<td>1897 m</td>
<td>200</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>119</td>
<td>1914</td>
<td>125</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>PAGE</td>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>PAGE</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>--------</td>
<td>------</td>
<td>--------</td>
<td>------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1826</td>
<td></td>
<td>1894</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889</td>
<td></td>
<td>1903</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td></td>
<td>1903 dp</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882</td>
<td></td>
<td>1892 s</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894 d</td>
<td></td>
<td>1874</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td></td>
<td>1872</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897 m</td>
<td></td>
<td>1886</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1932</td>
<td></td>
<td>1888</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875 s</td>
<td></td>
<td>1876</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td></td>
<td>1877</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892 s</td>
<td></td>
<td>1890 d</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
<td>1890 t</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td></td>
<td>1897</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td></td>
<td>1896</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889 d</td>
<td></td>
<td>1895 t</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900 s</td>
<td></td>
<td>1891</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td></td>
<td>1880</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1864</td>
<td></td>
<td>1885</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900 s</td>
<td></td>
<td>1891</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895 s</td>
<td></td>
<td>1891</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894 f</td>
<td></td>
<td>1891</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898 t</td>
<td></td>
<td>1891</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881 t</td>
<td></td>
<td>1891</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1917</td>
<td></td>
<td>1891</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874 d</td>
<td></td>
<td>1891</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td></td>
<td>1891</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882</td>
<td></td>
<td>1891</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890 s</td>
<td></td>
<td>1891</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1928</td>
<td></td>
<td>1891</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>NAME</th>
<th>YEAR</th>
<th>NAME</th>
<th>YEAR</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Loomis, Loren H.</td>
<td>1926</td>
<td>Proctor, Henry H.</td>
<td>1894</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Luce, Robert L.</td>
<td>1889</td>
<td>Ramsdell, Charles C.</td>
<td>1892</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lynch, Bernard E.</td>
<td>1895</td>
<td>Rea, John D.</td>
<td>1903</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>McBride, Wilber</td>
<td>1882</td>
<td>Risteen, Allan D.</td>
<td>1903 dp</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>McClelland, A. Lincoln</td>
<td>1894</td>
<td>Robbins, Edward D.</td>
<td>1874</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>McDaid, Robinson B.</td>
<td>1901</td>
<td>Robinson, Willard H.</td>
<td>1872</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>McGuire, Frank J.</td>
<td>1897 m</td>
<td>Rollins, Harry L.</td>
<td>1886</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>McKown, Arthur W.</td>
<td>1932</td>
<td>Root, George F.</td>
<td>1894 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mansfield, Burton</td>
<td>1875</td>
<td>Root, Theophilus H.</td>
<td>1890 d</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mason, Alfred Bishop</td>
<td>1871</td>
<td>Roseboom, J. Livingston</td>
<td>1876</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Massey, Robert V.</td>
<td>1892 s</td>
<td>Rowland, Henry C.</td>
<td>1898 m</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mead, Larkin G.</td>
<td>1897</td>
<td>Ryan, John W.</td>
<td>1914 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Melick, David B.</td>
<td>1895</td>
<td>Sage, Henry J.</td>
<td>1889</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Meyer, Abraham</td>
<td>1892</td>
<td>Sanders, Frank K.</td>
<td>1889 dp</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Millar, Willis N.</td>
<td>1908 f</td>
<td>Savage, Henry C.</td>
<td>1879</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mitchell, Frederic B.</td>
<td>1885 f</td>
<td>Savage, William D.</td>
<td>1897</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mitchell, John R.</td>
<td>1889 s</td>
<td>Sawyer, Andrew L.</td>
<td>1893 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Moore, Elia Kim H.</td>
<td>1883</td>
<td>Schultz, Carl R.</td>
<td>1897 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Moore, James E.</td>
<td>1869</td>
<td>Scott, Rufus F., Jr.</td>
<td>1907</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Morrarty, Ambrose I.</td>
<td>1895 l</td>
<td>Seidensticker, Richard F.</td>
<td>1923</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Morrill, Amos</td>
<td>1914</td>
<td>Sheldon, Harrison T.</td>
<td>1890 t</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Moss, Charles E.</td>
<td>1931 d</td>
<td>Sherman, Lucus A.</td>
<td>1871</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Motter, Samuel I.</td>
<td>1896</td>
<td>Sherman, Thomas E.</td>
<td>1876 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mulvane, David W.</td>
<td>1885</td>
<td>Sherrill, Franklin Gold-</td>
<td>1906 pu</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Newhall, Almer M.</td>
<td>1903</td>
<td>thwaite</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nichols, William D.</td>
<td>1906</td>
<td>Shuart, Harry A.</td>
<td>1902 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Noone, Thomas F.</td>
<td>1899 l</td>
<td>Silsby, William S.</td>
<td>1879 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Page, Frank W.</td>
<td>1877</td>
<td>Skinner, Frederick P.</td>
<td>1880</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Parish, Roswell</td>
<td>1864</td>
<td>Smith, Charles H.</td>
<td>1885</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Parsons, J. Graham</td>
<td>1900 s</td>
<td>Smith, Gurney L.</td>
<td>1914</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Parsons, Robert W.</td>
<td>1901</td>
<td>Smith, Samuel Lewis</td>
<td>1890 t</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Parsons, W. Usher</td>
<td>1895 s</td>
<td>Smith, William Howard</td>
<td>1890 t</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Patterson, Allan B.</td>
<td>1904 f</td>
<td>Snow, Norman L.</td>
<td>1890 t</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Patterson, J. Howard</td>
<td>1898 l</td>
<td>Spencer, Egbert H.</td>
<td>1902 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Patterson, Terah H.</td>
<td>1881 l</td>
<td>Stearns, Henry S., Jr.</td>
<td>1914 t</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Patterson, Thomas C.</td>
<td>1927</td>
<td>Stein, Maximilian L.</td>
<td>1891 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pease, Charles B. F.</td>
<td>1889 d</td>
<td>Sterling, Willis B.</td>
<td>1887 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pease, Frederick N.</td>
<td>1875 s</td>
<td>Stevens, Henry D.</td>
<td>1888 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Penney, Robert L.</td>
<td>1874 l</td>
<td>Stone, A. Everett</td>
<td>1892 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Phelps, Mrs. Isaac King</td>
<td>1898 d</td>
<td>Stone, George W.</td>
<td>1893 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Phyne, R. Eston</td>
<td>1890</td>
<td>Sturges, Clarence B.</td>
<td>1895 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pierce, Richard H.</td>
<td>1882</td>
<td>Taylor, Glen A.</td>
<td>1896 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Powell, John C.</td>
<td>1890 s</td>
<td>Taylor, Ralph C.</td>
<td>1897 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Price, T. Franklin</td>
<td>1928</td>
<td>Taylor, Ralph C.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>Page</td>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>Page</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-----------</td>
<td>------</td>
<td>-----------</td>
<td>------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910 ml</td>
<td>221</td>
<td>1887 s</td>
<td>149</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890 l</td>
<td>248</td>
<td>1881</td>
<td>42</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887 l</td>
<td>247</td>
<td>1901</td>
<td>101</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>114</td>
<td>1906</td>
<td>115</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>42</td>
<td>1901 s</td>
<td>168</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1875</td>
<td>26</td>
<td>1894 l</td>
<td>209</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>49</td>
<td>1874</td>
<td>22</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1922</td>
<td>133</td>
<td>1909 s</td>
<td>173</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900 s</td>
<td>241</td>
<td>1868</td>
<td>9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1924 art</td>
<td>194</td>
<td>1885</td>
<td>55</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>95</td>
<td>1885 s</td>
<td>149</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909 m</td>
<td>205</td>
<td>1910 s</td>
<td>174</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895 s</td>
<td>160</td>
<td>1876 s</td>
<td>143</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1867</td>
<td>7</td>
<td>1918 s</td>
<td>185</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1917 s</td>
<td>184</td>
<td>1901</td>
<td>102</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>96</td>
<td>1883 s</td>
<td>146</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>12</td>
<td>1883</td>
<td>239</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>Wentworth, Frank W.</td>
<td>149</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>Wheeler, George W.</td>
<td>42</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>White, George L., Jr.</td>
<td>101</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>White, Philip T.</td>
<td>115</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>Whittelsey, Daniel I.</td>
<td>168</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>Whittlesey, Charles B.</td>
<td>209</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>Wickes, Thomas P.</td>
<td>22</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>Wiles, Richard E.</td>
<td>173</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>Williams, Roger B.</td>
<td>9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>Willner, Wolf</td>
<td>55</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>Wilson, Edward S.</td>
<td>149</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>Winslow, Carroll D.</td>
<td>174</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>Wood, Henry E.</td>
<td>143</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>Woodhull, Roger S.</td>
<td>240</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>Wrenn, Vincent S.</td>
<td>185</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>Wyand, Simon S.</td>
<td>102</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>Wylie, Robert H.</td>
<td>146</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>Young, Morrison W.</td>
<td>239</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>