Bulletin of Yale University
New Haven 15 October 1934

Obituary Record of Graduates of Yale University
Deceased during the Year
1933-1934
BULLETIN OF YALE UNIVERSITY

Entered as second-class matter, August 30, 1906, at the post office at New Haven, Conn., under the Act of Congress of July 16, 1894.

Acceptance for mailing at the special rate of postage provided for in Section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized August 12, 1918.

The Bulletin, which is issued semimonthly, includes:
1. The University Catalogue.
2. The Reports of the President and Treasurer.
3. The Catalogues of the several Schools.
5. The Obituary Record.
OBITUARY RECORD
OF GRADUATES DECEASED DURING
THE YEAR ENDING JULY 1, 1934

INCLUDING THE RECORD OF A FEW WHO DIED PREVIOUSLY, HITHERTO UNREPORTED

NUMBER 93

Thirty-first Series • Number Three
New Haven • 15 October 1934
YALE UNIVERSITY
OBITUARY RECORD†

YALE COLLEGE

Payson Merrill, B.A. 1865.

Born December 7, 1842, in Stratham, N. H.
Died October 15, 1933, in New Canaan, Conn.

Father, Phineas Merrill, a farmer; son of Rev. Asa Merrill, a Baptist minister, and Esther (Fowler) Merrill, of Stratham. Mother, Abigail (Rollins) Merrill; daughter of Nicholas and Ann (Fisfield) Rollins, of Stratham. Yale relatives: Charles E. Merrill, Jr., '98, and Payson McL. Merrill, '02 (nephews); and Payson Merrill, '35 (grandnephew).

Phillips-Exeter. Entered Yale as a Sophomore; received prizes in English composition Sophomore year; philosophical oration appointment Junior and Senior years; served four months in summer of 1864 as member of 169th Massachusetts Volunteers; member Varuna Boat Club, Brothers in Unity, Gamma Nu, Alpha Delta Phi, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Taught in private school of Morris W. Lyon (B.A. 1846) in New York City 1865-67; studied in Columbia Law School 1866-68 (LL.B. 1868); practiced in New York City from 1868 until retirement in 1924; clerk in office of Hooper C. VanVoorst 1868-69; in partnership with John E. Brooks, '65, under name of Brooks & Merrill 1869-1873; member of successive firms of Merrill & Rogers 1883-1915, Merrill, Rogers & Terry 1915-1923, and Merrill, Rogers, Gifford & Woody 1923-24; member of board of trustees of United States Savings Bank 1889-1932; vice-president of Union Mortgage & Realty Company (now Union Mortgage Company) 1903-1931 (director since 1902); director of Lawyers Title Insurance & Trust Company 1907-1922, and of Union Guarantee & Mortgage Company 1926-1933; school trustee of 21st Ward, New York City, 1892-97; member of advisory board of National Surety Company of New York many years; honorary M.A. Yale 1907; a founder of Alumni University Fund Association and director 1890-97 and again 1899-1911 (chairman of the board 1900-02); agent for Class of 1865 since 1893; member of Yale Corporation

†If the father of an alumnus is a Yale graduate, the father’s record is not usually given in this volume, but may be found in published form elsewhere. Additional information concerning the persons whose biographies appear in this volume is on file in the Secretary’s Office.
Yale Obituary Record

1905-1922; director of New England Society; member of Association of the Bar of the City of New York, American Fine Arts Society, and Brick Presbyterian Church, New York.

Married April 28, 1879, in New York City, Emma Harrison, daughter of Theron Rudd Strong, member of Congress, and Cornelia Wheeler (Barnes) Strong. One daughter, Cornelia Helen, wife of John Vosburgh Irwin (Ph B New York University 1894, LL.B. 1899). Mrs. Merrill died February 8, 1925.

Death due to myocarditis and general arteriosclerosis. Buried in Sleepy Hollow Cemetery, Tarrytown, N.Y. Survived by daughter and a brother, Edwin C. Merrill, of East Orange, N.J.

Abner Post, B.A. 1866.

Born August 9, 1844, in Westfield, Mass.

Died April 20, 1934, in Cambridge, Mass.

Father, Sylvester Gilbert Langdon, a merchant; son of Reuben and Patience (Gilbert) Langdon, of Connecticut. Mother, Sarah Maria (Post) Langdon; daughter of Abner and Sarah (Gilbert) Post, of Gilead, Conn.

Took maternal grandfather’s name when twelve years old. Williston Academy Member Varuna Boat Club, Linonia, Gamma Nu, Alpha Delta Phi, and Spade and Grave; graduate member Wolf’s Head.

M.D. Harvard 1870; interne at Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston, 1869-1870, studied abroad 1870-72; assistant surgeon at U.S. Marine Hospital, Chelsea, Mass., 1872-75; practiced in Boston from 1876 until retirement in 1923; in genito-urinary department and dermatological clinic of Boston Dispensary 1876-1914; surgeon at Children’s Hospital 1881-87, and at Boston City Hospital 1882-1906; member of faculty of Harvard Medical School from 1882 until 1916, as clinical instructor in syphilis 1882-1895, instructor 1895-1906, assistant professor 1906-1911, and professor 1911-16; associate editor of Boston Medical and Surgical Journal 1881-1890; first president New England Dermatological Society 1915-17; president American Dermatological Association 1917-19; vice-president Yale Club of Boston 1916-17, member American Medical Association, American Association of Genito-Urinary Surgeons, Boston Society for Medical Improvement, Boston Society for Medical Observation, and Massachusetts Medical Society.

Married May 7, 1879, in Boston, Laura Knight Stevens, daughter of Edward and Mary Ann (Wherren) Knight. One daughter, Laura (B.A. Smith 1903), wife of Stephen A. Breed (B.S. Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1894). Mrs. Post died October 2, 1927.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage, chronic myocarditis, and acute

Born September 14, 1844, in Nashua, N. H.
Died February 21, 1934, at Sioux Falls, S. Dak.

Father, John Brown Chapman, merchant tailor; son of John and Clarissa (Jacques) Chapman, of Tewksbury, Mass. Mother, Mehitable Wiggin (Cochran) Chapman; daughter of Nehemiah and Joanna (Norris) Cochran, of Pembroke, N. H.

New Hampshire Conference Seminary, Sanbornton Bridge, N. H. Attended Wesleyan College as member of Class of 1867; entered Yale as a Junior; dissertation appointment Senior year; member Psi Upsilon and Phi Beta Kappa.

Worked in Nashua as a partner in firm of Conant & Chapman, merchant tailors, 1867–1888; clerk of Nashua Common Council 1878–1883; in real estate business at Sioux Falls 1886–1891, as member of firm of Hunter & Chapman; general agent of Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company at Sioux Falls 1891–96; had since been special agent of Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, at first at Deadwood, S. Dak., and since 1898 at Sioux Falls; charter member Sioux Falls Y.M.C.A. in 1886; member Life Underwriters Association and Methodist Episcopal church, at first of Main Street Methodist Episcopal Church in Nashua (treasurer 1872–1887 and superintendent of the Sunday School 1871–73) and since 1894 of First Methodist Episcopal Church at Sioux Falls (treasurer 1890–96 and trustee since 1894).

Married May 20, 1869, in Nashua, Mary, daughter of Josiah Hosmer and Rosetta (Saunders) Cooke. Children: John Cooke; Helen, wife of Benoni C. Matthews (B.A. University of Nebraska 1895, M.A. and L.L.B. 1897); and Emily Kittredge (B.A. University of Minnesota 1907).

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Sioux Falls. Survived by wife, son, two daughters, and three grandchildren.

George Henry Perkins, B.A. 1867.

Died September 12, 1933, in Burlington, Vt.

Father, Rev. Frederick Trenck Perkins (B.A. 1839). Mother, Harriet Thompson (Olmsted) Perkins; daughter of Nathaniel and Fidelia (Burnap) Olmsted, of New Haven. Yale relatives include
Professor Denison Olmsted (B A 1813) (great-uncle)

Lovel's School, New Haven, and Knox Academy, Galesburg, Ill.
Attended Knox College 1863-65 as member of Class of 1866
Entered Yale as a Junior, Clark and Berkeley scholarships and high oration appointment Senior year; member Brothers in Unity and Phi Beta Kappa.

Graduate student in Sheffield Scientific School 1867-69 (Ph D.
1869), had since been member of the faculty of University of Vermont; professor of zoology, botany, and geology 1869-1881; Howard professor of natural history 1881 until retirement June, 1933; dean of Department of Natural Sciences 1898-1907 and of College of Arts and Sciences 1907-1933; dean and professor emeritus since June, 1933; vice-president of the University 1913-1933, acting president 1917-19; state entomologist 1880-1895 and state geologist since 1898; LLD.
University of Vermont 1911; Litt.D. Knox College 1912; author: The Molluscan Fauna of New Haven (1870), Catalogue of the Flora of Vermont (1888); reports on injurious insects (1876-1900) and on marble, slate, and granite industries of Vermont (1898); contributed to Encyclopedia Britannica, Popular Science Monthly, American Naturalist, and other scientific publications, fellow of Geological Society of America, member Anthropological Association, American Ethnological Society, American Association for the Advancement of Science, and College Street Congregational Church, Burlington (deacon since 1871).

Married August 16, 1870, in Galesburg, Ill, Mary Judd, daughter of Eli and Jerusha Brewster (Loomis) Farnham. Children. Henry
Farnham (B A University of Vermont 1898; Ph D. Johns Hopkins 1902); and Harriet Olmsted (died in childhood) Mrs. Perkins died
May 10, 1904

Death due to acute pulmonary edema. Buried in Green Mount Cemetery, Burlington. Survived by son, two grandchildren, and a great-grandchild

James Hazleton Tallman, B.A. 1867.

Born June 3, 1847, in Scotland, Conn.
Died June 14, 1934, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, Rev. Thomas Tallman (B A 1837, graduate Yale Divinity School 1840), son of Eleazar and Susan (Taylor) Tallman, of Colchester, Conn' Mother, Frances Maria (Hazleton) Tallman; daughter of Simon and Brittania (Curtis) Hazleton, of Haddam, Conn

Williston Academy Second colloquy appointment Junior and Senior years; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Linonia, and Varuna Boat Club.

Attended Harvard Law School 1868-69; in office of Welch & Shipman, in Hartford 1869–1870; admitted to Connecticut bar October 29, 1869; practiced in Thompson, Conn., 1870–73; judge of probate, district of Thompson, 1872–73; practiced alone in Hartford in connection with the settlement of estates in the Probate and United States Bankruptcy courts 1873–1881; member of firm of George W. Moore & Company, dealers in southern and western securities, 1881–1923, and had since taken care of active loans and investments held by customers of that firm; chairman of committee of West Middle School District of the City of Hartford 1887–1901; member Connecticut Historical Society and Asylum Hill Congregational Church.

Married October 30, 1873, in Boston, Mass, Alice Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas Eugene Graves (B A Trinity College 1832), and Sarah (Thacher) Graves. Children: Grace (widow of Edgar B. Burr); Alice Parker, the wife of C. Brewster Brainard, Ph B 1894, M D 1898; and Marion (died 1930), the wife of Leonard A. Ellis, B A. Trinity College 1898. Mrs. Tallman died June 29, 1935.

Death due to arteriosclerotic heart disease. Buried in West Thompson (Conn.) Cemetery. Survived by two daughters, four grandsons, and a half-sister, Mrs. Beecher Sterne, of San Diego, Calif.

George Albert Newell, B.A. 1868.

Born January 11, 1846, in Medina, N. Y.
Died August 19, 1933, in Altadena, Calif.

Father, Arthur Wellington Newell, a merchant; son of Solomon and Sarah (Steadman) Newell, of Medina. Mother, Cornelia Elizabeth (Smith) Newell; daughter of Thomas Flagg and Mary Ann (Taylor) Smith, of Middleport, N. Y. Great-great-great-uncle Rev. Daniel Newell (B A 1718).

Medina Academy. Dissertation appointments Junior and Senior years; member University Baseball Team, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Phi Beta Kappa, graduate member Wolf's Head.

Yale Obituary Record

Married September 1, 1886, in Medina, Anna Elizabeth, daughter of Philip and Catherine (Flynn) McGrath. Children: Gladys Cornelia (Mrs H Blake Murray); Frances Berenice (Mrs. Floyd W. Burroughs); George Arthur (B.A. University of Illinois 1914); Hildred Anna (B.A. Syracuse University 1918) (Mrs. Robert V. S. Richmond); and Natalie Christine.

Death due to apoplexy and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Boxwood Cemetery, Medina. Survived by wife, son, four daughters, and two grandchildren.

Edward Kirk Rawson, B.A. 1868.

Born February 21, 1846, in Albany, N. Y.
Died February 1, 1934, in Brookline, Mass.

Father, Rev. Thomas Reed Rawson (B.A. Amherst 1830, M.A. 1839, graduate Auburn Theological Seminary 1834); a Congregational minister in Peru, Mass., and Malta, N. Y.; superintendent of Albany Training and Missionary Society; son of Gardner and Susan (Wilkinson) Rawson, of Townsend, Vt. Mother, Louisa Warner (Dawes) Rawson; daughter of Mitchell and Mercy (Burgess) Dawes, of Cummington, Mass. Yale relatives: Henry L Dawes (B A. 1839) (uncle); and Chester M. Dawes, '76, and Henry L. Dawes, '84 (cousins).

Albany Academy. Clerk in Provost Marshal's office, Springfield, Mass, 1863-65; Entered Yale as a Sophomore in 1865; first colloquy appointment Junior year; second colloquy appointment Senior year; Townsend Premium in English composition Senior year; member Varuna Boat Club and Alpha Delta Phi.

Taught English at General Russell's Collegiate and Commercial Institute, New Haven 1868-69; studied in Yale Divinity School 1869-1870; graduated from Andover Theological Seminary 1872; ordained at Newton Highlands, Mass., October 9, 1872; commissioned chaplain in U. S Navy in January, 1871; traveled in Europe 1872-74 during leave of absence; on U. S "Richmond" 1874-76, on training ship "Monongahela" 1876-78, on training ship "Minnesota" 1878-1881 and at Boston Navy Yard 1881-84, in charge of First Church of Christ, New London, Conn., January-July, 1885; chaplain at U. S Naval Academy 1886-1890; also head of department of English studies, history, and law 1887-1890, professor of mathematics 1890-93; in Library and War Records Office of Navy Department 1893-1902, of which superintendent 1897-1902; head of department of English, history, and law at U. S Naval Academy 1902-07; on detached duty in connection with Naval War Records and engaged in publishing Records of Union and Confederate Navies in the War of the Rebellion 1907-08; retired February 21, 1908, but continued with work of publication of records until 1922; lived abroad 1908–1911; in Washington, D. C., 1911–1930 and in Brookline since 1930; author: Twenty Famous Naval Battles. Salamis to Santiago (1899); had contributed to New Englander, Andover Review, Atlantic Monthly, and American Golfer; secretary of Class of 1868 since 1928; member First Congregational Church, Albany.

Death due to bronchopneumonia. Buried in Brookside Cemetery, Englewood, N. J. Survived by one daughter.

John Howard Webster, B.A. 1868.

Born November 8, 1846, in Portsmouth, N. H.
Died November 25, 1933, in Cleveland, Ohio.

Father, John Webster; president of Webster & Millen, oilcloth manufacturers in Cleveland and of Adrian (Mich.) Gas Company; son of Davison and Lucy Chelsey (Drew) Webster, of Newfield, Maine. Mother, Sarah Baker (Perry) Webster; daughter of Daniel and Mary (Barker) Perry, of Limerick, Maine.

Central High School, Cleveland. Third prize in English composition Sophomore year; oration appointment Junior year and speaker at Junior Exhibition; dissertation appointment Senior year; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon and Phi Beta Kappa.

Studied law at Ohio State and Union Law College 1868–1870 (graduated 1870); admitted to Ohio Bar 1870; practiced independently, specializing in real estate law, 1870–1884; member of law firm of Webster & Angell 1884–1898, and of Webster & Cook, 1898–1901; associate counsel with Brewer, Cook & McGowan for some years after 1901; president and treasurer Variety Iron & Steel Works Company from 1891 until his retirement in 1928; president of Chamberlin Cartridge & Target Company (1892–1908) and of the Buckeye Milling Company; a founder of University School, Cleveland, 1890 and a trustee until 1893; a founder of the Manual Training School, director Cleveland Life Insurance Company (member executive committee) 1907–1926 and of the Cleveland National Bank (now Guardian Trust Company) 1908–1916; charter member Rowfant Club 1892 (treasurer 1897–99, president 1907–08); secretary Yale Alumni Association of Cleveland 1881–83.

Married (1) October 18, 1870, in Stratford, Conn., Helen Augusta, daughter of Calvin and Elizabeth Augusta (Wickes) Curtis, and sister of Frederick S. Curtis, '69 S. Children: Paul Wentworth, ex-'93 S.; Harold Curtis, ex-'96 S.; and Jean Howard. Mr. and Mrs. Webster were divorced in 1910. Married (2) April 27, 1910, in Chicago, Florence Harris Ives Kimball, daughter of Henry Chauncey Ives (B A. Union College 1831) and Sarah (Harris) Ives.
Yale Obituary Record

Death due to chronic interstitial obstruction, chronic myocarditis, and bronchopneumonia Buried in Lakeview Cemetery, Cleveland. Survived by wife, two sons, daughter, four grandchildren, three great grandchildren, two stepdaughters, Mrs Charles T. Ames and Mrs. Harry F. Payne, and two stepsisters, Mrs. Fred W. Day, of St. Augustine, Fla, and Mrs. George White Caldwell, of Mexico City.

John Scudder Chandler, B.A. 1870.

Born April 12, 1849, in Madura, South India. Died June 19, 1934, in Kodaikanal, South India.

Hopkins Grammar School. Runk Scholarship third term of Freshman year, second Sophomore mathematics prize; philosophical oration appointments Junior and Senior years; member Brothers in Unity, Gamma Nu, Psi Upsilon, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Attended Yale Divinity School 1870-73 (B D. 1873); ordained to Congregational ministry in New Haven May 7, 1873, missionary in Madura under the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions 1873 until retirement 1928; engaged in district missionary work and supervision of churches in Madura, taught at Pasumali Theological Seminary 1883–84 and acting principal 1890; engaged in the preparation of a Tamil-English Lexicon for the Government of Madras under the University of Madras 1913-1922; director Tamil Language School at Kodaikanal 1924-28; an organizer of South India United Church 1901; first chairman of the board of examiners for vernacular examinations established by South India Missionary Association; member Municipal Council, Madura Town, and District Board, Madura District, made a Tamil revision of New Testament and put Old Testament into Tamil; author: The Jesuit Mission in Madura, South India (1909), and Seventy-five Years in the Madura Mission (1912), decorated by government with Kaiser-I-Hind medal for distinguished public service 1911; Ordinary Fellow University of Madras
Tale College

1917; D.D. Yale 1923; lived in Auburndale, Mass., 1928–1932, and since with his daughter in Madura.

Death due to the infirmities of age. Buried in Kodaikanal. Survived by three sons, three daughters, a brother, Edward H Chandler, ’85, and six grandsons.

Lewis Wilder Hicks, B.A. 1870.

Born November 20, 1845, in Charlton, Mass.

Died December 23, 1933, in Wellesley, Mass.

Father, Samuel Prescott Hicks, builder and wheelwright; son of Elijah and Nancy (Leland) Hicks, of Charlton. Mother, Abigail (Philips) Hicks; daughter of Daniel and Abigail (Dresser) Phillips, of Charlton.

Worcester (Mass.) High School and private tutor. Second colloquy appointment Senior year; an editor of Tale Courant; member Linonia, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), and Delta Kappa Epsilon; graduate member Wolf’s Head.

Graduated from Hartford Theological Seminary in 1874; ordained to Congregational ministry September 10, 1874; pastor First Congregational Church, Woodstock, Vt., 1874–1881, First Church of Christ (Congregational), Wethersfield, Conn., 1881–88, First Congregational Church, Pueblo, Colo., 1888–1890, Congregational Church, Denison, Texas, 1890–92; First Congregational Church, Wellesley, from 1892 until retirement in 1896; resided in Hartford, Conn, 1896–1903 and since then in Wellesley, trustee of Hartford Theological Seminary 1886–89 and 1898–1910; associate editor of Hartford Seminary Record 1898–1901 and later a contributor; Hartford correspondent of Congregationalist for a number of years; contributed to Boston papers and various magazines, author: Mr Ralph Wheelock, Puritan (1899); author of various biographical records and histories of Class of 1870; member Connecticut Historical Society, New England Historic Genealogical Society (historian 1914–1924), Massachusetts Society of Sons of the American Revolution (chaplain 1905–1929 and chaplain...
Roderick Terry, B.A. 1870.

Born April 1, 1849, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died December 28, 1933, in Newport, R. I.

Father, John Taylor Terry; member of firm of E. D. Morgan & Company, importers and bankers; vice-president of Mercantile Trust Company, son of Roderick and Harriet (Taylor) Terry, of Hartford, Conn. Mother, Elizabeth Roe (Peet) Terry; daughter of Frederick Tomlinson and Elizabeth (Lockwood) Peet, of New York City. Yale relatives include: Rev. John Taylor (B.A. 1874) (great-grandfather); Nathaniel Terry (B.A. 1876) (great-great-uncle); Henry W. Taylor (B.A. 1816) (great-uncle); Edmund Terry (B.A. 1837), Roderick Terry (ex-1840), William Peet (B.A. 1847), and Rev. Robert B. Peet (B.A. 1851) (uncles); John T. Terry, Jr., '11 (nephew); and Henry T. Terry, '69, Edmund R. Terry, '78, John P. Terry, '84 S., Wyllis Terry, '85, Rev. Eliphalet B. Terry, '88, George D. Terry, '92, and Robert A. Peet, '95 (cousins)

Prepared for college by Rev. Edward B. Coe, '62, and Rev. Howard Kingsbury, '63, at Irvington-on-Hudson, N. Y. Entered Yale with Class of 1869, joined Class of 1870 the next year; first colloquy appointment Junior year; on Freshman Crew, '70 Class Crew Senior year, and University Crew (captain) Junior and Senior years and University Baseball Team; one of Coehleureati, member Junior Exhibition Committee, Brothers in Unity, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Studied at Andover Theological Seminary 1870-72; lived in Brooklyn and preached at various churches 1872-73; traveled abroad and studied in Paris and Vienna 1873-74; graduated from Union Theologi-
William Henry Welch, B.A. 1870.

Born April 8, 1850, in Norfolk, Conn.
Died April 30, 1934, in Baltimore, Md.

Father, William Wickham Welch (M.D. 1839, Fellow of Yale Corporation) Mother, Emeline (Collin) Welch; daughter of Henry and Nancy (McAlpine) Collin, of Penn Yan, N. Y.

Winchester (Conn.) Institute. Philosophical oration appointments Junior and Senior years; member Linonia, Kappa Sigma Epsilon,
Yale Obituary Record

Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), Delta Kappa Epsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Taught Greek and Latin at Norwich, N. Y., 1870-71; studied medicine at home 1871-72; took chemistry courses in Sheffield Scientific School 1872-73; studied medicine at Columbia University 1873-75 (M.D. 1875); interne Bellevue Hospital, New York City 1875-76; went abroad with F. S. Dennis, ’72, and studied in laboratories at the Universities of Strassburg, Leipzig, Breslau, and Berlin 1876-79 and during 1884-85; professor of pathological anatomy and general pathology Bellevue Hospital Medical College 1879-1884; first Baxley professor of pathology Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine 1884-1916 and dean 1893-98; first pathologist-in-chief Johns Hopkins Hospital 1889-1916; first director of Johns Hopkins University School of Hygiene and Public Health 1916-1926; first professor of the history of medicine of the Johns Hopkins Institute of the History of Medicine 1926-1931; emeritus since 1931; M.D. (honorary) University of Pennsylvania 1894; LL.D. Western Reserve 1894, Yale 1896, Harvard 1900, Toronto 1903, Columbia 1904, Jefferson Medical College 1907, Princeton 1910, Washington University 1915, University of Chicago 1916, University of Southern California 1930, University of the State of New York 1930; Sc D. Cambridge 1923, Western Reserve 1929, New York University 1932; doctor honoris causa University of Strassburg 1923; L.H.D University of Pennsylvania 1930; went to China in 1915 in connection with the founding of the Peiping Union Medical College and was present at its opening in 1921; attended the Harvey Tercentenary in 1928 and made many other trips abroad; commissioned Major, Medical Corps, U. S. Army July 16, 1917, and assigned to active duty in office of Surgeon General in Washington; promoted to Lieutenant Colonel February 20, 1918, and to Colonel July 24, 1918; discharged December 31, 1918; commissioned Colonel Medical Officers' Reserve Corps February 24, 1919, and Brigadier General December 23, 1921; Brigadier General, Auxiliary Reserve since February 26, 1925, president Medical and Chirurgical Faculty of Maryland 1891-92, Congress of American Physicians and Surgeons 1897, Maryland State Board of Health 1898-1922 (member until 1929), Association of American Physicians 1901, Board of Directors of Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research since 1901, American Association for the Advancement of Science 1906-07 (vice-president 1902-04), American Medical Association 1910-11, National Tuberculosis Association 1910-11 (then honorary president), National Academy of Sciences 1913-16, American Social Hygiene Association 1916-19 (honorary president since 1927), National Committee for Mental Hygiene 1923-24 (honorary president since 1924), History of Science Society 1931; vice-president First International Congress on Mental Hygiene 1930 and Maryland Society for the Prevention of Blindness; trustee Carnegie Institution since 1906; chairman, advisory board, Milbank Memorial Fund, since 1922; delivered Huxley Lecture Charing Cross Hospital Medical School, London, 1902, and William Thompson Sedgwick Memorial Lecture at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1924; appointed by President Roosevelt to commission to devise Federal meat-inspection law 1907; member Baltimore Revision Commission for revision of city charter and code 1928; member of advisory boards of American Red Cross, and of hygiene laboratory of United States Marine Hospital Service; member of committee on medicine and hygiene of National Research Council; president Yale Alumni Association of Maryland 1917; member advisory council of Yale Medical Alumni Association 1921; chairman national advisory committee of Human Welfare Group, Institute of Human Relations 1929; Associate Fellow of Trumbull College; decorated with Crown Order of Second Class (Germany) 1911, Third Order of the Rising Sun (Japan) 1915, Order of St. Olaf, Second Class (Norway) 1926, Distinguished Service Medal 1917, Order of Mercy (Kingdom of Serbs, Croats and Slovenes) 1922, Cross of the Legion of Honor (France) 1923, Order of Benin (Africa); awarded gold medal of the National Institute of Social Sciences 1919, medal of honor of the University of Vienna 1922, first W. W. Gerhard gold medal of the Pathological Society of Philadelphia 1925, Kober medal for scientific research in medicine by the Association of American Physicians 1927, Harbin Plaque by the British Royal Institute of Public Health 1931; fellow American Academy of Arts and Sciences and College of Physicians (Philadelphia); honorary fellow Royal Society of Medicine and Royal Sanitary Institute (London), Royal College of Physicians (Edinburgh), Society of Medical Officers of Health (England); corresponding member British Association for the Advancement of Science; honorary member American Therapeutic Society, Pathological Society of Great Britain and Ireland, Physiological Society (Great Britain), Gesellschaft der Aerzte (in Wien), Hufelandische Gesellschaft (Berlin), Berliner Medizinische Gesellschaft, Die Kaiserlich Deutsche Akademie der Naturforscher (zu Halle); foreign associate Académie de Médecine (Paris); foreign honorary member Académie Royale de Médecine de Belgique, Société Royale des Sciences Médicales et Naturelles (de Bruxelles), Reale Accademia Medica di Roma, Società Medica Chirurgica di Bologna, Comité International d'Histoire des Sciences, Union Internationale contre la Tuberculose; member American Philosophical Society and National Advisory Health Council; founder Journal of Experimental Medicine and editor 1896–1904; founder American Journal of Hygiene 1921, editor 1921–27 and honorary chairman board of editors 1927–1931; author of studies in pathology, preventive medicine, bacteriology, medical education, the relation of medicine to other sciences, and the history of medicine in the United States and elsewhere; in honor of his seventieth birthday (1920) his associates and friends published a collected edition of his Papers and Addresses (3 volumes), including a bibliography of his writings 1875–1920 (411 items); in 1929 the William H. Welch Medical Library of the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine was named in his honor; his eightieth birthday was celebrated in several foreign capitals and in many places in the United States; the Welch Bibliophilic Society honored him on his eighty-fourth birthday by reprinting The Interdependence of Medicine with Other Sciences of Nature, delivered in 1907 before the American Association for the Advancement of Science; his biography is being written by Dr. Simon Flexner.

Unmarried.

Death due to carcinoma of the prostate and chronic pyelonephritis.
Buried in Norfolk Cemetery. Survived by no immediate relatives.

---

John Bethell Uhle, B.A. 1871.

Died July 9, 1933, in New York City.

Father, John Coward Uhle, a conveyancer; son of John and Alice Lee (Coward) Uhle, of Philadelphia. Mother, Mary Avis (Bethell)
Uhle, daughter of Joshua M. and Mary Eggleston (Patterson) Bethell, of Mount Holly, N. J.

Protestant Episcopal Academy, Philadelphia. Second dispute appointment Junior and Senior years; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon, a founder and president of the Berkeley Society.

Studied law privately in Philadelphia and admitted to the bar
October 11, 1873, admitted to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania
January 11, 1876, and to the U. S. Courts for Eastern District of Pennsylvania November 12, 1878, practiced in Philadelphia 1873–
1891, admitted to New York State Bar November 7, 1891, and practiced in New York City until retirement in 1914, admitted to U. S.
Courts for Eastern District of New York April 10, 1896, and for District of New Jersey January 28, 1897, and to U. S. Supreme Court
January 1, 1898; manager of American Law Register in 1888 and editor
1890–91, editor of Current Comment; gave illustrated lectures in Manhattan public schools on Norway and on historic places around New York, member and legal adviser of League of American Wheelmen; an incorporator of Highway Alliance of New York State 1901 and member of standing committee of its supervisors’ conventions 1901–05; member Philadelphia Association of the Bar, Board of Examiners for Admission to the Bar in Philadelphia County (1888–89), Association of the Bar of the City of New York, and New York Law Institute; licensed lay reader for Protestant Episcopal Diocese of New York 1902; member of choir of Cathedral of St. John the Divine.

Married May 2, 1878, in Philadelphia, Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Philip Fielding and Rebecca (Gaskell) Snyder. Children: Mary Caroline and John Fielding (both died in infancy). Mrs. Uhle died May 16, 1933. Death due to myocarditis. Buried in Churchyard of Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, Pa. Survived by no immediate relatives.

Pascal Pratt Beals, B.A. 1872.

Born July 31, 1850, in Buffalo, N. Y. Died April 4, 1934, in Buffalo, N. Y.

Father, Edward Preble Beals; president Beals & Company, manufacturers of iron, steel, and hardware in Buffalo. Mother, Mary (Lorenz) Beals; daughter of Frederick Lorenz, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Classical School, Buffalo. Oration appointments Junior and Senior years; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

In wholesale hardware business with firm of Pratt & Company in Buffalo 1872-1886; partner in the firm of Beals & Company 1886-1917, and of its successor, Beals, McCarthy & Rogers, 1917-19; director Beals, McCarthy & Rogers, Inc., 1919-1930, director of Buffalo Library and of Buffalo Society of Natural Sciences; commissioned Captain, New York National Guard, October 9, 1879, Major October 10, Lieutenant Colonel May 3, 1881, and Colonel January 8, 1884; Colonel, Supernumerary List, from 1892; associate member American Institute of Electrical Engineers; charter member Buffalo Society of Natural Sciences; life member Albright Art Gallery and Library Associates; member Trinity Episcopal Church, Buffalo.

Frederic Shepard Dennis, B.A. 1872.

Born April 17, 1850, in Newark, N. J. Died March 8, 1934, in New York City.

Father, Alfred Lewis Dennis, president of United Railroads of New Jersey; son of Ezekiel and Mary (Baldwin) Dennis, of Newton, N. J. Mother, Eliza Abigail (Shepard) Dennis; daughter of James and Abigail (Andrews) Shepard, of Norfolk, Conn. Brother: Samuel S. Dennis, ex-'74.

Cornwall and Winchester (Conn.) academies and Phillips-Andover.
Member Linonia (second prize in debate), Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones.

M.D. Bellevue Medical College, New York University, 1874; interne at Bellevue Hospital 1874-75; went abroad with W. H. Welch, '70, and studied in laboratories of Universities of Heidelberg and Berlin 1876; attended clinics of Lord Lister at the Royal Infirmary, Edinburgh, and King's College Hospital, London, and worked in Tyndall's laboratory, London; demonstrator in anatomy at Bellevue Hospital 1877-1881; adjunct professor of surgery at New York University 1881-83 and professor of surgery 1883-1898; professor of clinical surgery at Cornell University Medical College 1898-1910 and professor emeritus since 1910; visiting surgeon to St. Vincent's Hospital since 1882 and consulting surgeon since 1910; consulting surgeon to Montefiore Home, New York, since 1888 and to Litchfield County (Conn.) Hospital since 1902; consulting surgeon to New York Society for the Relief of Ruptured and Crippled, and to St. Joseph's Hospital, Yonkers, N. Y.; a founder of Harlem Hospital; first surgeon in this country to demonstrate Lister's theory and practice of antisepsis; with aid of Andrew Carnegie developed first constructive pathological laboratory in America, the Carnegie Laboratory at Bellevue Hospital, in 1884, author: A System of Surgery (four volumes, 1895) and Selected Surgical Papers (1876-1914), two volumes published 1934, which also contains a bibliography of his writings (82 items); president of American Surgical Association in 1894; fellow of Royal College of Surgeons, London (1899), of American College of Surgeons (1925), and of Royal Chemical Society; member Clinical Society of London, German Congress of Surgeons, International Congress of Surgeons, New York Surgical Society, New York Academy of Medicine, American Medical Association, New York and Connecticut State Medical societies, and New York County Medical Society; member Medical Reserve Corps, U.S. Army, 1917-18, had an estate at Norfolk, Conn., where he raised and trained fine horses; an organizer of Norfolk Agricultural Society.

Married February 5, 1880, in Brooklyn, N.Y., Fannie, daughter of James Sydney Rockwell. No children. Mrs Dennis died December 5, 1919.

Edward Higginson Williams, Jr., B.A. 1872.

Born September 30, 1849, in Proctorsville, Vt.

Died November 2, 1933, in Woodstock, Vt.

Father, Edward Higginson Williams (M.D. Vermont Medical College 1846); a civil engineer; general superintendent of The Pennsylvania Railroad; member of firm of Byrnmam, Perry, Williams & Company (now Baldwin Locomotive Works); Knight of the Order of the North Star (Sweden); son of Norman Williams (B.A University of Vermont 1810 and honorary M.A. 1816), secretary of the State of Vermont, and Mary Ann Wentworth (Brown) Williams, of Woodstock. Mother, Cornelia Bailey (Pratt) Williams; daughter of John A. and Sarah (Bailey) Pratt, of Woodstock. First cousin: Norman Williams, '96.

Woodstock High School and Phillips-Andover. Member Kappa Sigma Epsilon and Psi Upsilon

On surveying corps of The Pennsylvania Railroad 1872-73; studied at Lehigh University 1873-76 (B.S. in chemistry 1875, E.M. 1876; valedictorian of Class of 1875); on mining corps of Coxe Brothers & Company, Drifton, Pa., July-December, 1876; in charge of a mining corps for Irving A. Stearns, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., 1877-79; chemist and engineer for Waterman & Company, of Danville, Pa., 1879-1880; superintendent of mines for Montour Iron & Steel Company of Johnstown, Pa., 1880-81; chief assistant mining engineer for Cambria Iron Company of Johnstown in 1881; professor of mining and geology at Lehigh 1881-1902; professor emeritus and special lecturer on same subjects since 1902; made his home in Andover, Mass., 1902-1910; engaged in farming at Woodstock since 1904; director of Woodstock Hotel Company 1906-1925 and vice-president since 1925; director of Woodstock Aqueduct Company since 1918 and vice-president since 1930; director of Woodstock Electric Company since 1920; member Woodstock School Board 1911-13; life trustee of Norman Williams Public Library of Woodstock (erected by his father as a memorial to his parents) and president 1922-28; Sc D. University of Vermont 1912; LL D. Lehigh 1913; author: Manual of Lithology (1886; 2d edition 1895), Vingentennial Record of Class of 1868, Phillips Academy, Andover (1888), Robert Williams of Roxbury, Mass., and His Descendants, Four Generations (1891), and Early History of Woodstock, Vt (1907), edited two editions of Atkinson's Gases Met With in Coal Mines (1886), Coal and Metal Miners' Pocket Book (1890), and Twenty Year Book of Lehigh University (1886); contributed to Science, American Journal of Science, Journal of the American Geological Society, and Proceedings of American Philosophical Society; wrote a brochure, Pennsylvania Glaciation, First Phase (1917); made honorary member of Hobart College chapter of Phi Beta Kappa 1885 and member of Lehigh chapter of Sigma XI 1928; a founder of Tau Beta Pi in 1885; an associate founder of Lehigh University chapter of Psi Upsilon in 1884 (associate editor of Tenth Catalogue of the Psi Upsilon Fraternity and editor of the Beta chapter 1888) and of Williams chapter of Psi Upsilon in 1913; vice-president of Chemical and Natural History Society at Lehigh and president of the Engineering Society 1875-76; vice-president of Lehigh University Alumni Association 1879-1880 and president and member of executive committee 1884-86; recording secretary of Psi Upsilon Association of the Lehigh Valley 1885 and 1886; an original fellow of Geological Society of America and of American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers (member of its Legion of Honor); fellow of Royal Geological Society, emeritus life member of American Association for the Advancement of Science, member American Meteorological Society, Society of American Military Engineers, Vermont Society of Engineers, American Philosophical Society, American Philatelic Society, New England Historical Genealogical Society, Vermont Historical Society, Moravian Historical Society, Legion of Honor of America, and Episcopal Church (vestryman of Trinity Church, Bethlehem, 1885-1892 and superintendent of Sunday School; junior warden of Christ Church, Andover, 1905-07 and senior warden 1907-1910; member St. James' Church, Woodstock, at time of death).

Married June 19, 1883, in Roxbury, Mass., Jennie Olive, daughter of Augustin Samuel and Ophelia (Leland) Bemis. Children. Olive Bemis, wife of Nathan Gner Parke, 2d, Princeton ex-07; Cornelia, wife of Charles W Fowler, '06 S; Elizabeth (Mrs Seymour Ballard); Edward Higginson, 3d (B A Williams 1913, C E. Lehigh 1915); Norman (Williams ex-15; B.S. University of Vermont 1916); Amory Leland (B S. Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1920, M A 1921); Wentworth (B A Williams 1920); and Laurens Augustine Peter (B.A. Lehigh 1925).

Death due to carcinoma of the colon. Buried in River Street Cemetery, Woodstock. Survived by wife, eight children, nineteen grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs William F. Dreer, of Rosemont, Pa.

Albert Barnes Boardman, B.A. 1873.

Born February 26, 1853, in New York City.
Died September 15, 1933, in Southampton, N. Y.

Father, Norman Boardman; member of firm of Tulane, Baldwin & Company, New York drygoods house; son of Jason Boardman, of Rocky Hill, Conn Mother, Annie Young (Williams) Boardman; daughter of Thomas Williams, of New York. Nephew. George M. Randall, ex-10

Chapin Collegiate School (Rev. Henry B. Chapin, '47, principal), New York City Oration appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment and first prize in English composition Senior year; speaker at Commencement; on Football Team; member Linonia (second prize in Freshman and Sophomore debates), Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, and Psi Upsilon.
Yale College

Married (1) October 12, 1876, at Edgewater, Staten Island, Georgina Gertrude, daughter of John and Mary Georgina (Sewell) Bonner. Children: Norman (died in childhood); Sidney Sewell, ex-'01 (died in 1908); Mary Cecil, wife of James H. McLean (B.A. Princeton 1901); Theodosia Gertrude (died in infancy); Philip Waldron (B.A. 1907; LL.B. New York Law School 1909); Albert Barnes, Jr. (died in childhood); and Geraldine (died in 1905). Mrs. Boardman died November 17, 1915 Married (2) January 31, 1922, in New York City, Louise Suydam Oakley Berlin, daughter of William Henry and Adele (Desobry) Oakley.

Death due to a coronary embolism Buried in Southampton Cemetery. Survived by wife, one daughter, one son, five grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Caroline B. Randall, of New York City (died January 1, 1934).
22

Yale Obituary Record

Walter St. John Jones, B.A. 1873.

Born September 2, 1850, in New Haven, Conn.
Died January 8, 1934, in Glendale, Ohio.

Father, John Davies Jones; head of drygoods firm of John D. Jones & Company; son of John and Elizabeth (Graham) Jones, of Reading Forge, Pa. Mother, Elizabeth (Johnston) Jones; daughter of Colonel John Johnston and Rachel (Robinson) Johnston, of Fort Wayne, Ind. Yale relatives: John J Jones, ’52, and Frank J. Jones, ’59 (brothers); Charles D Jones, ’93, and E. Lawrence Jones, ’01 (nephews); and Francis J Jones, 2d, ’28, and Ford H. Jones, ’30 (grandnephews).

Mount Pleasant Military Academy, Ossining, N. Y., and Chester Military Academy, West Chester, Pa. Member Senior Promenade Committee, Delta Kappa, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), and Delta Kappa Epsilon; graduate member Wolf’s Head

In law office of Perry & Jenny in Cincinnati and also attended Cincinnati Law School 1873-75 (LL B. 1875); admitted to Ohio Bar in April, 1875, practiced independently in Cincinnati 1875-1889; an independent broker 1889-1892; president of Miami Valley Insurance Company from 1891 until its merger with Fire Association of Philadelphia in 1893; Cincinnati representative of the firm under successive names of Jones, Montgomery & Company, Jones, Montgomery & Haass, and Jones, Haass & Company 1893-1931; independent insurance broker since 1931; secretary and treasurer of Lewis & Talbot Stone Company of Centerville, Ohio, 1892-93, president and treasurer of Dayton, Lebanon & Cincinnati Railroad Company about fifteen years, an organizer of Security Storage Company in 1903, director since 1903, and treasurer 1918-1933; president of Cincinnati Fire Underwriters Association 1901-02; president of Yale Club of Cincinnati 1915-16, member Sons of the American Revolution, vestryman of Christ Episcopal Church, Glendale, since 1877 (junior warden 1893-1907 and senior warden since 1907).

Married (1) October 5, 1881, in Glendale, Jeanie, daughter of David and Agnes (Clarke) Ross. One daughter, Agnes (Mrs. William M. Galt) Mrs Jones died April 24, 1885. Married (2) April 30, 1889, in Cincinnati, Martha Bullock, daughter of Henry and Maria Ann (Eastburn) Lewis. Two daughters: Elizabeth St John (Mrs George K Thompson), and Henrietta Graham, wife of Thomas G. Wilder (BA Harvard 1920)

Death due to cerebral hemorrhage and diabetes. Buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati. Survived by wife, three daughters, and seven grandchildren.
Frederick Job Shepard, B.A. 1873.

Born January 23, 1850, in Essex, Conn.
Died January 12, 1934, in Buffalo, N. Y.

Father, Frederick William Shepard (M.D. 1834); son of Job and Azubah (Clark) Shepard, of Plainfield, Conn. Mother, Maria Theresa (Green) Shepard; daughter of Timothy and Lucretia (Hathaway) Green, of East Haddam, Conn. Yale relatives include: Nathaniel Clarke (B.A. 1714) (great-great-great-great-uncle); John Shepard (B.A. 1748) (great-great-uncle); Rev. Edward M. Chapman, '84, Frederick S. Chapman, '94, and Frederic B. Shepard, '15 (nephews); and Edward N. Chapman, '17 (grandnephew).

Hartford Public High School. An editor of Yale Courant Senior year; a class historian and a class statistician; member Linonia (divided third prize in Freshman debate), Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Engaged in newspaper work 1873-1897; reporter for Worcester Press 1873-74; telegraph editor of Indianapolis Sentinel 1874-76; on staff of Hartford Courant 1876; assistant night editor of New York World 1877-1880; exchange editor and editorial writer of Buffalo Courier 1880-1897; reference librarian of Buffalo Public Library from 1897 until retirement in 1925; had since devoted his time to literary work, secretary of Class of 1873 since 1879 and as such had published numerous records of the class; author: Index to Illustrations (for use of library assistants) (1924); contributed to J. W. Larned's Literature of American History, Appleton's American Cyclopedia, New England Magazine, Outlook, Buffalo Arts Journal, Buffalo Evening News, Buffalo Express, Grosvenor Library Bulletin, Bobema, of Buffalo, Buffalo Historical Society publications, and Yale Alumni Weekly; editor of reprint of Thomas Budd's Good Order Established in Pennsylvania (1902); in 1910 prepared chapter on "The Class Secretary's Mission" for handbook issued by Yale Association of Class Secretaries, lectured annually for a number of years to Library School students at University of Buffalo; vice-president of Yale Association of Class Secretaries 1920; member of council of University Club of Buffalo 1906-09, chairman of its committee on literature and art 1907-09, and in charge of its library; made an honorary life member of the club in 1920; honorary life member also of Buffalo Historical Society; member Westminster Presbyterian Church, Buffalo; president of Westminster Club (church organization) two years and treasurer of its Penny Savings Bank forty years.

Death due to lobar pneumonia, chronic endocarditis, and arterio-

Henry Walcott Farnam, B.A. 1874.

Born November 6, 1853, in New Haven, Conn.
Died September 5, 1933, in New Haven, Conn.

Hopkins Grammar School. Prize in Latin composition Freshman year and first Berkeley premium in same, Sophomore year; high oration appointment Junior and Senior years; second College premium in English composition Senior year, speaker at Commencement; on Class Hat Committee Freshman year, Class Supper Committee Sophomore year, and Thanksgiving Jubilee Committee Junior year; secretary of the Literary Society, member Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), Delta Kappa Epsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa

Student in Roman law and political economy in Yale Graduate School 1874-75 (M A. 1876); studied at University of Berlin winter of 1875-76, University of Strassburg 1876-77, and Gottingen University 1877-78 (R P D magna cum laude University of Strassburg 1878); tutor in Latin at Yale 1878-1880, professor of political economy 1880-1912 (also in Sheffield Scientific School 1881-1903), professor of economics 1912-18, and professor emeritus since 1918; member of Graduate School faculty 1903-1918 and of governing board of Sheffield Scientific School 1881-1903; director of the restoration of Connecticut Hall 1905, LL D 1923, one of collaborators of Department of Economics and Sociology of Carnegie Institution, Washington, D. C., 1903-1916 (chairman of department 1909-1916); instrumental in reorganization of the department as Board of Research Associates in American Economic History in 1916 and its chairman and treasurer until death; supervised and edited seven volumes of Contributions to American Economic History (1915–1933); for this work received a medal from National Institute of Social Science in 1920 and prepared a volume on The History of Social Legislation in the United States (now being edited for publication by Professor Clive Day), as his contribution to this series; in 1914 appointed Roosevelt professor at University of Berlin, but prevented by the war from entering upon his duties there; active in organization of New Haven Civil Service Reform Association in 1881 (first civil service board in State of Connecticut) and president 1898–1900; upon its expansion into Connecticut Civil Service Reform Association became president in 1902 and served until 1923; in 1924 elected member of executive committee of the association and in 1926 elected member of council of its successor, Connecticut Civic Association; vice-president National Civil Service Reform League 1900, and member of council since 1901; founder of American Association for Labor Legislation as a branch of the International Association in 1906, president 1907–1910, and honorary president since 1910; vice-president of Consumers League of Connecticut since 1910; president of Connecticut State Conference of Charities and Corrections 1910–11; chairman of New Haven branch of National Security League 1915–19, of Community Labor Board under the Federal Government 1918–19, and of executive committee of Senior Service Corps 1917–19; member of publicity and educational committees of State Council of Defense 1917–19, and of executive committee of New Haven War Bureau 1918 and of its subcommittee on women’s labor; on board of Connecticut branch of League of Nations Association since 1924; director New Haven Hospital since 1881, member prudential committee 1881–86, and president of board 1920–27; president of Connecticut Training School for Nurses 1921–29; president of board of trustees of Hopkins Grammar School since 1927 (trustee since 1900); president of Lowell House (now Farnam Community House) 1901–1927 and honorary president since 1927 (member of council 1900–1930 and honorary member since then); in 1907 gave its present building and in 1918 the vacation house at Branford; vice-president of New Haven County Anti-Tuberculosis Association 1902–1927 and of its successor, Gaylord Farm Association, Wallingford, since 1927; trustee of New Haven Orphan Asylum 1885–1925; director of New Haven Community Chest 1924–25; member World Court Committee of New Haven 1925; member (1887–1910), clerk (1887–1903), and chairman of the board (1903–09) of Connecticut State Commission of Sculpture; chairman of executive committee of Salvation Army campaign in Connecticut in 1918 and of executive committee of Near East drive in 1919;
Tale Obituary Record

Married June 26, 1890, in New Haven, Elizabeth Upham Kingsley (certificate in Art 1884), daughter of William Lathrop Kingsley (B.A. 1843, Litt D. 1892) and Hannah Louise (Upham) Kingsley; granddaughter of Professor James L. Kingsley (B.A. 1799; LL.D. Middlebury 1831); and niece of George T. Kingsley (B.A. 1832) and Henry C. Kingsley (B.A. 1834). Children: Louise Whitman (B.A. Vassar 1912; Ph.D. Yale 1916, M.D. 1920) (Mrs. Hugh Brian Wilson); Katharine Kingsley (B.A. Vassar 1914; B.S. Simmons 1919), wife of Professor Samuel C. Harvey, ’07 S. and ’11 M.; Henry Walcott, Jr , ex-17; William Kingsley (died in infancy); and Elizabeth (died in infancy).

Death due to postoperative complications. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, two daughters, one son, and three grandchildren. By the terms of his will his library was left to Yale University.

Henry Prescott Hatch, B.A. 1874.

Born August 22, 1852, in Brooklyn, N.Y.
Died June 16, 1934, in Brooklyn, N.Y.

Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. Member Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Phi Theta Psi, Psi Upsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Partner in firm of W. T. Hatch & Sons, bankers, from 1874 until retirement in 1918; member of New York Stock Exchange 1879-1918; had lived in Brooklyn since retirement; member Sons of the Revolution and Church of the Pilgrims (Congregational), Brooklyn.

Death due to acute appendicitis and coronary sclerosis. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by no immediate relatives.

John Seymour Wood, B.A. 1874.

Born October 1, 1853, in Utica, N.Y.
Died June 15, 1934, in New York City.

Phillips-Andover. In '74 Glee Club Junior and Senior years; member Delta Kappa, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones

Married September 15, 1880, in Brattleboro, Vt., Mary Buell, daughter of Broughton Davis Harris (B.A. Dartmouth 1845) and Sarah Buell (Hollister) Harris No children. Mrs Wood died October 22, 1929.

Death due to heart trouble. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York City Survived by no immediate relatives.

Hamilton Mercer Wright, B.A. 1875.

Born October 26, 1851, in New Orleans, La.
Died July 29, 1933, in Rutherford, N. J.

Father, Hamilton Mercer Wright; a cotton planter and sugar factor; son of Isaac Wright, of Fishkill, N. Y. Mother, Virginia (Hutchins) Wright.

Cheltenham School, Cheltenham, England. Entered Yale with the Class of 1873, left at the end of Sophomore year and spent the years 1871–73 at universities of Pisa and Heidelberg; joined the Class of 1875 in 1873; high oration appointment Senior year; member Delta Kappa and Alpha Delta Phi.

LL B 1877 (valedictorian; received Jewell medal for excellency in scholarship), engaged in the practice of law in Bay City, Mich., from 1877 until his retirement in 1912, with the exception of the year 1886 during which he practiced in Rugby, Tenn; member Michigan State Legislature 1883–87; judge of probate for Bay County 1888–1900; member of Trustees of Bay City 1906–08.

Married November 30, 1871, at Groveland, N. Y., Anne Dana, daughter of William Dana and Anne (Carroll) Fitzhugh. Children: Anne Virginia (died 1907), the wife of Thomas L. Kane (M.D Jefferson Medical College 1886); Hamilton Mercer (LL.B. University of Colorado 1901); Sibyl Katherine (University of Colorado 1896–98), the wife of George McLandress (M.D. Saginaw Valley Medical College 1899); Cornelia Fitzhugh (died in 1896); Archibald Van Rensseelaer, Charles Carroll; Alida Fitzhugh, wife of Herbert P. Malkus (B.A.
University of Missouri 1916); and William Edward Mrs. Wright died January 21, 1907.

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Burial at Point Lookout, Mich. Survived by four sons, two daughters, twenty grandchildren, and nine great-grandchildren.

Michael Furst, B.A. 1876.

Born July 15, 1856, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died June 27, 1934, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Father, Solomon Furst, a retail tailor. Mother, Bertha (Jaffe) Furst. Yale relatives include two nephews, Arnold Furst, '03, and Henry Furst, ex-'15

Brooklyn Collegiate and Polytechnic Institute Dissertation appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon.

Attended Columbia Law School 1876–78 (LL B. 1878); in office of Philip S. Crooke 1876–1881; practiced law independently 1881–1907; member of firm of Furst & Furst, with his nephew, Arnold Furst, 1907–1918; had since been senior member of the firm of Furst, Schwartz & Schwager; assistant corporation counsel of the City of Brooklyn and head of the Brooklyn Street Opening Bureau 1894–98; vice-president Kings County Mortgage Company 1912–16; chairman of commission which codified laws governing the Brooklyn Municipal Court 1915; member of executive committee of Brooklyn Committee on City Plan and of Advisory Commission on City Planning of the City of New York; on Aqueduct Commission and New York Tercentenary Commission; a founder of Montauk Bank of Brooklyn; chairman board of directors Stockholders Realty Corporation and National Title Guaranty Company since 1930; trustee Greater New York Savings Bank; director Mechanics Bank of Brooklyn and National Exchange Bank & Trust Company of New York; chairman Brooklyn Exemption Board 1917–18; founder Young Men's Hebrew Association and president 1906–1910; president Brooklyn Bar Association 1927–29; founder and vice-president of Hebrew Educational Society; trustee Brooklyn Law Library, Jewish Protectors of New York City, Denver Home for Consumptives, and Brooklyn Hebrew Home for the Aged; honorary trustee Brooklyn Hebrew Orphan Asylum and Union Temple; founder and director Brooklyn Federation of Jewish Charities and Girls' Memorial Club; director Brooklyn Young Republican Club; charter member Brooklyn Council Boy Scouts of America; member Board of Child Welfare of New York City, Brooklyn Chamber of Commerce, Kings County Historical Society, Brooklyn Institute, Brooklyn Museum, American Bar Association, and Union Temple.
Unmarried

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Union Field Cemetery, Cypress Hills, Queens, N Y. Survived by no immediate relatives.

Thomas Hunt, B.A. 1876.

Born May 16, 1855, in New Orleans, La.
Died October 19, 1933, in New York City.

Father, William Henry Hunt, ex-'43; a lawyer; attorney general of Louisiana; Secretary of the Navy, minister to Russia; son of Thomas and Louisa (Gaillard) Hunt, of Charleston, S. C. Mother, Elizabeth (Ridgely) Hunt; daughter of Commodore Charles Goodwin Ridgely, U.S.N., and Elizabeth Augusta (Livingston) Ridgely, of Clermont Manor, N Y. Yale relatives include three nephews. William H. Hunt, Jr., '09 S, Ridgely Hunt, '14 S, and Henry G. Hunt, '29

Hopkins Grammar School Member Class Ivy Committee, Delta Kappa, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), and Psi Upsilon; graduate member Wolf's Head

LL.B. Columbia 1878; practiced in New York City from 1878 until retirement in 1922; clerk in office of John S. Washburn 1876-78; with Betts, Atterbury & Betts (Charles L. Atterbury and Frederic H. Betts, both '64, and C. Wyllys Betts, '67, partners in firm) 1876-1886; managing clerk with Evarts, Choate & Beaman, in which William M. Evarts (B.A. 1837) was senior partner, in 1888; private secretary to collector of customs of the Port of New York 1889-1890; deputy collector attached to law division of New York Custom House 1890-92; vice-president of Lawyers' Surety Company 1893-1902; commissioner for U.S. Court of Claims for New York State and for Louisiana; during the war member of Legal Advisory Board of New York; author: The Life of William H. Hunt (1922) and A Historical Sketch of the Town of Clermont (1928); member New York Bar Association, St. Nicholas Society of the City of New York, and St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Tivoli, N.Y., his home for some years after retirement.

Married April 14, 1888, in New York City, Helen, daughter of Hugh Judge and Sarah (Guthrie) Jewett. Children: Hugh Judge Jewett and Thomas, Jr. (both died in infancy).

Thomas Avery Hine, B.A. 1877.

Born April 7, 1855, in New Albany, Ind.
Died August 16, 1933, at Point Pleasant Beach, N. J.

Father, Charles Cole Hine; publisher of the Insurance Monitor; head of Underwriters' Protective Association in New York City; son of Thomas and Harriet (Cole) Hine, of New Haven, Conn. Mother, Mary Hazard (Avery) Hine; daughter of Samuel and Lorinda (Morehouse) Avery, of Westport, Conn. Yale relatives: Edward Avery (B.A. 1810) (great-uncle); and Edward A. Hine, ex-’85 (brother)

Newark (N. J.) Academy and private schools in New York City. Member Class Ivy Committee, Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, and Psi Upsilon.

Engaged in the publishing business with his father 1877–1880 and served as secretary of the Underwriters’ Protective Association; independent manufacturer of chemicals in Newark 1880–81; engaged in growing cocoanuts at Cocoanut Grove, Fla., 1884–1892; while there served as treasurer of Biscayne Bay Manufacturing Company; manufacturer of typewriters in New York City 1892–94, vice-president of Wilson-Meyers, bicycle manufacturers, 1894–95; president of Liberty Cycle Company, New York, 1895–97, vice-president of Underwriters’ Protective Association 1897–1920; president of Hine Brothers, Inc., in New York City since 1897 and proprietor of Hine Legal Directory, Inc., successors to Hine’s Dictionary of Insurance Lawyers, since 1920.

Born September 27, 1857, in Pawtucket, R. I.
Died September 27, 1933, in Pawtucket, R. I.

Father, William Winthrop Blodgett (B.A. University of Vermont 1847); judge of probate at Pawtucket; son of Eli and Irene (Blodgett) Blodgett, of West Randolph, Vt. Mother, Salome Wilkinson (Kinsley) Blodgett; daughter of Martin and Julia (Kingsley) Kinsley, of Providence, R. I.

Private school of Rev. Charles Wheeler, Providence. Attended Brown University two years (1874–76) as member of Class of 1878. Entered Yale as a Junior; member Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Taught in the district school at Ames, Iowa, 1878–79; studied law in his father’s office 1879–1881; had since been engaged in practice of law in Pawtucket; clerk of Tenth District Court 1882–1900; city solicitor 1900-1917; associate justice of the Superior Court of Rhode Island 1917-1929 and presiding justice 1929 until retirement in 1932; chairman of Pawtucket School Board 1885-1902; member American, Rhode Island, and Pawtucket Bar associations, Pawtucket Business Men’s Association, and St. Paul’s Episcopal Church (vestryman since 1890 and member of the choir since 1880).
Tale Obituary Record

Married February 17, 1887, in Warrenton, Va., Caroline Alden, daughter of Theodore Miles and Caroline (Dodge) Morgan. Children: Morgan; Caroline Alden, special student at Brown ex-’13; William Winthrop, Dartmouth ex-’13; and Edith Kinsley, wife of Edward B. Peters, ’14.

Death due to carcinoma of the colon and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Mineral Spring Cemetery, Pawtucket. Survived by wife, sons, daughters, nine grandchildren, and two brothers, Rev. Chauncey H. Blodgett (B.A. Harvard 1892; B.D. Episcopal Theological School 1895), of Nantucket, Mass., and John Blodgett, Massachusetts Institute of Technology ex-’88, of Stamford, Conn.

Henry Eugene Coe, B.A. 1878.

Born September 6, 1856, in New York City.
Died July 27, 1933, in Southampton, N. Y.

Father, Charles Augustus Coe, a cotton factor; son of William S. and Sarah (Hoyt) Coe, of Stamford, Conn. Mother, Martha Caroline (Gassner) Coe; daughter of Peter and Martha (Feltus) Gassner, of New York. Nephew Arthur R. Townsend, ’97 S.

Charlerie Institute, New York, and private tutors. Secretary of Dunham Boat Club Junior year; on Senior Class Crew; member Class Glee Club, Junior and Senior Class Supper committees, Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Beta Xi (Alpha Sigma Phi), Psi Upsilon, and Scroll and Key.

LL.B. Columbia 1880; practiced law in New York from 1880 until retirement in 1929; in partnership with Frederick Potter, ’78, under firm name of Coe & Potter 1881-89; president and director of Wellsbourne Realty Company since 1909 and of Improved New York Properties Corporation since 1913; director of Niagara Fire Insurance Company and Dolphin Jute Mills since 1893; member Sons of the Revolution, St. Nicholas Society, and Grace Episcopal Church, New York; secretary of Class of 1878 from 1916 to 1928 and president since then.

Married November 27, 1888, in New York City, Eva, daughter of John Taylor Johnston (B.A. New York University 1839, LL.D. 1889) and Frances (Colles) Johnston. Children: Emily, wife of Harley L. Stowell (B.A. Hamilton 1905; LL.B. Harvard 1908); Rosalie; Colles Johnston, ’15; and Henry Eugene, Jr., ’17.

Death due to a heart attack following an operation for intestinal stoppage. Buried in St. John’s Cemetery, Cold Spring Harbor, N. Y. Survived by wife, two daughters, two sons, and five grandchildren.

Ernest Clifton Johnson, B.A. 1878.

Born March 9, 1851, in Washington, D. C.
Died July 12, 1933, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Henry Johnson; born in England. Mother, Virginia (Hanson) Johnson.

Walton (N. Y.) Academy. Class statistician; contributed to Yale Literary Magazine; supplied college news to New Haven Journal and Courier; member Senior Class Picture Committee and Gamma Nu.

Spent the first two years after graduation in the West; editor of The Standard at Ridgetown, Ontario, in 1880; private secretary to Governor Ordway of Dakota Territory December, 1880–June, 1882; deputy auditor of the Territory six months; editor of Dakota Outlook at Yankton 1884–85; and of Sioux Falls (S. Dak.) Daily Press 1885–88; in charge of South Dakota bureau of Minneapolis Tribune, St. Paul Pioneer Press, Chicago Tribune, and New York Tribune 1888–1891; had been engaged in life insurance business since 1891; agent for Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company at Sioux Falls 1891–95, at Rapid City, S. Dak., 1895–1902, and at New Haven 1902–1920; had since been agent for Penn Life Insurance Company in New Haven; author of pamphlets on the history and resources of South Dakota and of three books: Our Best Mutual Friend (1909), Working and Winning (1914), and Ideal Estate Building (1921); former deacon of church in Sioux Falls; clerk of Plymouth Congregational Church, New Haven, 1903–1912, deacon 1911–16 and 1919–1924; moderator of New Haven West Association of Congregational Churches and Ministers 1921–22; secretary of Class of 1878 since 1928.

Death due to hypertrophy of the prostate and myocarditis. Buried in Whitneyville Cemetery, Hamden, Conn. Survived by son and two grandchildren.

George Smith Palmer, B.A. 1878.

Born March 20, 1855, in Montville, Conn.
Died January 23, 1934, at Mountain Lake, Fla.

Father, Elisha Hurlbut Palmer, a manufacturer; son of Gideon and Mercy Maria (Turner) Palmer of Montville. Mother, Ellis (Loomis)
Palmer, daughter of Joel and Ellis (Chapel) Loomis, of Lyme, Conn. Yale relatives include a nephew, Frederick P. Latimer, '97, and a grandnephew, Frederick P. Latimer, Jr., '25.

Norwich Free Academy Second Berkeley Premium in Latin composition Freshman year; philosophical oration appointment Junior and Senior years, member Linonia, Kappa Sigma Epsilon (second prize in elocution contest), Phi Theta Psi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Death due to myocarditis and chronic Bright's disease. Buried in Cedar Grove Cemetery, New London. Survived by wife, son, three daughters, and a sister, Mrs. William S. Mitchell, of Norwich.

Edward Enoch Reed, B.A. 1878.
Born December 24, 1852, in Columbia, S. C.
Died July 29, 1933, in Baltimore, Md

Father, Alexander Reed; Mother, Maria Reed.
Attended Howard University. At Yale member Linonia and Hoi Philologoi.
For a number of years after graduation unable to undertake any occupation on account of ill health; subsequently engaged in mercantile business in Baltimore for some years; taught at Virginia Seminary, Lynchburg, from about 1915 to 1928.

Married in 1914, in Baltimore, Mrs. Rebecca Marsh, who died in 1917.
Death due to chronic myocarditis. Buried in Mount Ayburn Cemetery, Baltimore.

Charles Sidney Shepard, B.A. 1878.
Born July 29, 1856, in Buffalo, N. Y.
Died April 26, 1934, in New York City.

Father, Sidney Shepard; president Sidney Shepard & Company, metalware manufacturers; director of Western Union Telegraph Company; son of Dr. Jesse Shepard and Savinnie (Hamilton) Shepard, of Cobleskill, N. Y. Mother, Elizabeth DeAngeis (Wells) Shepard, daughter of Chester Robbins and Hannah LeMoyne (DeAngeis) Wells, of New Haven, N. Y.

Buffalo Classical School. First prize in mathematics Sophomore year, high oration appointments Junior and Senior years; superintendent of Bethany Mission, member Linonia, Delta Kappa, Phi Theta Psi, Hé Boulé, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Yale Obituary Record

Unmarried

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Buffalo. Survived by no immediate relatives.

Louis Howland, B.A. 1879.

Born June 13, 1857, in Indianapolis, Ind
Died March 16, 1934, in Indianapolis, Ind

Father, John Daniel Howland, practiced law in Brookfield, Ind., and Indianapolis; member of firm of Howland & Barbour; clerk of Federal District Court, son of Daniel and Maria (Livingston) Howland, of Baltimore, Md Mother, Desdemona (Harrison) Howland; daughter of Alfred and Caroline (Hanson) Harrison, of Bourbon County, Ky.

City Academy, Indianapolis, and Shattuck Academy, Faribault, Minn. First dispute appointment Senior year; member Gamma Nu

Read law in Indianapolis and admitted to the bar; practiced in Indianapolis until 1888, during that period served as editor of The Freeman, civil service reform journal, 1884-87; engaged in newspaper work in New York City 1888-1892 as associate editor of The People’s Cause and contributor to The Forum; editorial writer for Indianapolis News 1893-1911 and editor from 1911 until retirement January 1, 1934, when made editor emeritus; wrote “Case and Comment” for News Saturday editorial page 1899-1934; author: Day unto Day (1911), Stephen A. Douglas (1920), The Mind of Jesus (1926), and Autobiography of a Cathedral (1927); contributed to Scribner’s Magazine and Yale Review; honorary M.A. Wabash 1901 and Litt.D. 1903; treasurer of Indianapolis Literary Club 1883-87, secretary 1895-98, and president 1898-99; member All Saints’ Cathedral (Episcopal) (vestryman 1899-1934, member standing and finance committees, lay reader; delegate to Diocesan Council).

Unmarried.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Crown Hill Cemetery, Indianapolis. Survived by a sister, Miss Caroline Howland, of Indianapolis, and a brother, Hewitt H. Howland (Litt.D. Wabash 1929), of New York City.

John Slosson Harding, B.A. 1880.
Born August 29, 1859, in Wilkes Barre, Pa.
Died July 1, 1933, in Danville, Pa.

Father, Garrick Mallery Harding (B.A. Dickinson College 1848), a lawyer; judge of Court of Common Pleas, son of Isaac and Nancy (Harding) Harding, of Exeter, Pa. Mother, Maria Mills (Slosson) Harding; daughter of John William and Patty (Mills) Slosson, of Kent, Conn. Yale relatives: Barzillai Slosson (B.A. 1791) (great-grandfather); and Henry M. Harding, ex-'86 (brother).

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. On University Football Team four years; member Delta Kappa and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Studied in Yale School of Law 1880-81 and in his father's office in Wilkes Barre 1881-82; admitted to the bar in November, 1882; had since practiced in Wilkes Barre; assistant to district attorney for Courts of oyer and terminer and quarter sessions of Luzerne County in 11th Judicial District of Pennsylvania 1883-89; Major, 9th Infantry, Pennsylvania Volunteers, during Spanish-American War at Chickamauga Park, Ga., and Camp Hamilton, Lexington, Ky., April-August, 1898; member Wilkes Barre Law and Library Association, Wyoming Historical and Genealogical Society, and St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Wilkes Barre.

Married January 25, 1899, in Chattanooga, Tenn., Mary Belle Brown (B.L. Smith 1891), daughter of Edgar Adams and Elizabeth (Whitman) Brown, and stepdaughter of Xenophon Wheeler, '60. Children: Elizabeth Wheeler (Mrs. John Frederick Wolf) and John Slosson, Jr.

Death due to arteriosclerosis and myocarditis. Buried in Hollenback Cemetery, Wilkes Barre. Survived by wife, daughter, son, and a sister, Mrs. William Wilson Curtin, of Rosemont, Pa.

Charles Newton Ransom, B.A. 1880.
Born November 13, 1857, in Colchester, Conn.
Died September 10, 1933, in Auburndale, Mass.

Father, Elijah Ransom, a merchant; son of John Strong and Lydia (Newton) Ransom, of Salem, Conn. Mother, Sophia Eunicia (Stebbins) Ransom; daughter of William Stebbins (B.A. 1807) and Lucretia (Raynolds) Stebbins, of Salem and Colchester. Yale relatives: Rev. Nicholas Street (B.A. 1751) (great-great-grandfather); and Rev. Stephen W. Stebbins (B.A. 1781) (great-grandfather).
Bacon Academy, Colchester. Second colloquy appointment Junior year; first colloquy appointment Senior year; member Linonia and Kappa Sigma Epsilon.

Taught at Shortlidge’s Academy, Media, Pa., 1880-82; studied at University of Leipzig 1882-83; spent next three years in Colchester recovering from illness, graduated from Chicago Theological Seminary 1889; engaged in home mission work in Colorado 1888 and at western colleges in deputation work 1889 and 1890; missionary in Natal, South Africa, under American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions from 1890 until retirement in 1925, taught at the three mission boarding schools at Inanda, Adams Mission Station, and Unzumbe, 1890-91; assistant in the Adams Theological Seminary, 1892-97, at Ifafa 1897-1901, at Adams Mission Station again as principal of the Theological Seminary 1903-1911, and at Mapumulo 1918-1925; during furlough 1901-03 lectured at Chicago Theological Seminary and during furlough 1911-18 on account of ill health, supplied Congregational churches in Bath, N. H., 1915-16 and in Webster, N. H., 1916-17; supplied Methodist Episcopal Church, East Dennis, Mass., during 1926; had made his home at Walker Missionary Home, Auburndale, since 1925.

Married August 21, 1890, at Rutherford Island, South Bristol, Maine, Susan Howard, daughter of Rev. Simeon Howard Calhoun (B A. Williams 1829, D.D. 1864) and Emily Pitkin (Raynolds) Calhoun One son, Howard Stephen (B.A. Dartmouth 1921).

Death due to coronary occlusion. Buried in Colchester Cemetery. Survived by wife, son, two grandchildren, and two brothers, William S. and Elijah Ransom, both of San Francisco.

Dickinson Woodruff Richards, B.A. 1880.

Born November 30, 1858, in Boston, Mass.
Died September 28, 1933, in New York City.

Father, Rev. George Richards (B A 1840); member of the Yale Corporation 1868-1870. Mother, Anna Maria (Woodruff) Richards; daughter of Elias DeCou and Abigail (Whitall) Woodruff, of Woodbury, N. J. Yale relatives include. Jabez Huntington (B.A. 1741) (great-great-grandfather); Guy Richards (B.A. 1807) (great-uncle); Wolcott Richards (M D. 1825) (uncle); George Richards, '72, and Rev. William R Richards, '75 (brothers), George H. Richards, '03, Henry B. Richards, '12, Arche M Richards, '16, Samuel W Lambert, Jr., and Guy H Richards, both '19, and Adrian Lambert, '30 (nephews); and Rev Charles A. L Richards, '49, William H. Richards, '50, Channing Richards, '58, James W. McLane, '61, George R. Lyman, '67, William L. McLane, '69, and Hart Lyman, '73 (cousins).
Litchfield (Conn.) School. Second prize in mathematics Freshman year; philosophical oration appointment Junior year; salutatorian of Class of 1880; an editor of Pot Pourri Senior year; president of Football Association; member College Musical Association, Jubilee Committee, Delta Kappa, Hé Boulé, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Scroll and Key, and Phi Beta Kappa.

LL.B. Columbia 1882; had since practiced in New York City; clerk in office of Richards & Heald (of which his brother, George Richards, and John O. Heald, '73, were members) 1882-86 and member of the firm 1886-1911; member of firm of Richards & Richards 1911-15 and since then of Richards & Affeld; trustee of Village of South Orange, N. J., 1917-1920 and of Y.M.C.A. of the Oranges 1892-1905; president of board of trustees of Hillside Presbyterian Church, Orange, 1919-1926; director of Dodd, Mead & Company since 1916; during the war member of Legal Advisory Board of New York; member of Yale Alumni Board since 1912 (on executive committee 1922-23); member advisory board of Yale Alumni Association of Essex County (N. J.) and Bar Association of the City of New York.

Death due to infection following an operation. Buried in East Cemetery, Litchfield. Survived by wife, two sons, three daughters, and eight grandchildren.

Alfonzo Paine Sawyer, B.A. 1880.

Born November 13, 1859, in Millbury, Mass.
Died July 23, 1933, in Seattle, Wash.

Father, Samuel Sawyer, a blacksmith; member 36th Massachusetts Regiment in Civil War; son of Obadiah and Harriet (Pond) Sawyer, of Waterville, Maine. Mother, Lucinda (Bacon) Sawyer; daughter of Leonard and Hannah (Hill) Bacon, of Ware, Mass.

Worcester Academy. First colloquy appointment Junior year; member Linonia, Gamma Nu, and Psi Upsilon.

Taught Latin and Greek at Bishop Scott Academy, Portland, Ore., 1880-82; cashier of Dundee Mortgage Company of Portland 1882-83; clerk in pay department of U. S. Army at Fort Cœur d'Alene, Idaho, 1883–86; studied law during that period, partly by himself and in an office at Fort Cœur d'Alene; admitted to the bar at Portland in November, 1886; partner with Nathaniel Curtis, Harvard '77, in real estate business in Portland 1886–88, secretary of Northern Pacific Express Company of Victoria, B. C., 1886–89; engaged in real estate business in Spokane, Wash., 1889–1890, office attorney and assistant secretary of Washington Water Power Company at Spokane 1890–95; secretary of Senate committee on Indian depredations December, 1895–99 and private secretary to Senator John L. Wilson 1896–1904; one of the owners of Seattle Post Intelligencer 1899–1909 and again 1910–12 and secretary and member of executive committee of board of trustees 1912–18, auditor of Puerto Rico at San Juan and member of executive council 1909–1910, president of Telechronometer Company of Washington at Seattle since 1925; member of board of regents of University of Washington 1905–09 (president of the board 1908–09), president of Puget Sound Psi Upsilon Association 1912–16; aided in securing a charter for chapter of Psi Upsilon at University of Washington in 1916 and at University of Toronto 1919; member Christ Episcopal Church, Seattle (vestryman 1916–1920 and treasurer 1920–21)

Unmarried

Death due to chronic myocarditis and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Evergreen Memorial Park, Seattle. Survived by a sister, Mrs. Willis Henri Stone, of Seattle

Born July 18, 1856, in Montville, Conn.
Died October 10, 1933, in New Haven, Conn.

Hopkins Grammar School Member Kappa Sigma Epsilon.

M.D. 1882, resident physician at New Haven Hospital 1882–83; had since practiced in New Haven, assistant pathologist at New Haven Hospital 1884–1895; attending physician and consulting physician to New Haven Orphan Asylum and Children's Community Center since 1883, president of Connecticut State Medical Society 1926–27 and treasurer of its clinical congress since 1928; president of New Haven County Medical Association 1907–08; president of New Haven Medical Association 1901–02, member of finance committee since 1905, and treasurer since 1919, member of board of managers of New Haven
Employees Association 1927–28 and of advisory board of Connecticut Occupational Therapy Society 1926; police commissioner 1901–03 (president of the board 1902–03); during the war served as vice-chairman of medical section of Connecticut Council of Defense and member of its committee on sanitation and medicine, as secretary of state executive committee of Volunteer Medical Corps, as chairman of New Haven County Auxiliary Medical Defense Committee, and as member of Draft Board No. 4 and of a committee of three to form War Bureau of New Haven; member advisory council of Yale Medical Association 1921; Alumni Fund agent for Medical School Classes 1853 to 1892 from 1920 to 1932; had been secretary of Class of 1882 M. for some years; member American Medical Association and Bibliophile Society; affiliated with Congregational Church

Married February 28, 1889, in New Haven, Charlotte Florence, daughter of James Harris and Charlotte (Gillette) Woodhouse. Two sons: James Woodhouse, ex-'15, and Harold Whalley.

Death due to carcinoma of the caecum. Buried in Fair Haven Union Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife and sons.

Herbert Stanton Griggs, B.A. 1882.

Born February 27, 1861, in St. Paul, Minn.
Died August 21, 1933, in Olympia, Wash.

Father, Chauncey Wright Griggs; member of firm of Hill, Griggs & Company, coal and wood merchants of St. Paul; a founder and president of St. Paul & Tacoma Lumber Company of Tacoma; president of St. Paul Board of Water Commissioners; representative and senator in Minnesota State Legislature; Colonel, 3d Minnesota Volunteers, in Civil War; son of Chauncey and Hearty (Dimock) Griggs, of Tolland, Conn. Mother, Martha Ann (Gallup) Griggs; daughter of Christopher Milton and Anna Stanton (Billings) Gallup, of Ledyard, Conn. Yale relatives include: Timothy Dimock (M.D. 1823) and Rev. Leverett Griggs (B.A. 1829) (great-uncles); Milton W. Griggs, '10, Corydon Wagner, '16 S., Everett G. Griggs, 2d, '18, Benjamin G. Griggs, '20, and Chauncey W. Griggs, ex-27 (nephews); and Christopher M. Gallup, '97 S. (cousin).

St. Paul High School. Dissertation appointment Junior and Senior years; light weight wrestler one year; member Delta Kappa and Psi Upsilon.

LL.B. 1884 (on Law School Football and Baseball teams); in law office of Cushman K. Davis, St. Paul, 1884–85; associate city attorney of St. Paul in 1885, spent next three years in travel on account of his health; practiced law in St. Paul in 1888 and had since practiced in Tacoma; attorney and director St. Paul & Tacoma Lumber Company.
Charles Stillman, B.A. 1882.
Born May 22, 1857, at Port Richmond, N.Y.
Died November 15, 1933, in New York City.

Father, Charles Stillman, member of firm of Woodward & Stillman, cotton merchants, in Matamoros, Mexico, and Brownsville, Texas; son of Francis and Harriet (Robbins) Stillman, of Wethersfield, Conn. Mother, Elizabeth Pamela (Goodrich) Stillman; daughter of Joshua and Clarissa (Francis) Goodrich, of Wethersfield. Yale relatives: Rev. James H. Francis (B.A. 1826) (great-uncle); and James R. Goodrich, '53 (uncle).

Greylock Institute, Williamstown, Mass. Attended Amherst College one year as member of Class of 1881. At Yale, member Dunham Boat
Edward Odell Weed, B.A. 1882.

Born September 27, 1860, in Stamford, Conn.
Died March 10, 1934, in Gardena, Calif.

Father, Rev. Levi Stevens Weed, D.D, a Methodist Episcopal minister in New York City, Brooklyn, and New Haven, son of Jonas and Betsy Weed, of Darien, Conn. Mother, Caroline Augusta (Stephenson) Weed, daughter of Patrick and Julia Hubbard (White) Stephenson, of Coxsackie, N. Y.

St. Matthew's Academy, New York City, and Hopkins Grammar School, New Haven. Second colloquy appointment Junior year and first colloquy appointment Senior year; in College Choir Senior year; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Secretary Crescent Watch Case Company at first in Chicago and subsequently in Brooklyn 1882–87; treasurer Silver Creek & Morris Coal Company (Frank H. Snell, '82, an organizer) 1887–1894; had owned and operated a ranch, growing walnuts and alfalfa, at Gardena since 1894; chief deputy assessor of Los Angeles County 1897 until retirement 1932.

Married September 27, 1884, in Chicago, Emma Christie Ramsey, Vassar ex-'86, daughter of Dr. Frank Alexander Ramsey and Anna M (Breck) Ramsey. One daughter, Helen Brooks (Mrs. Chaunce D. Mahannah).
Yale Obituary Record

Death due to dilatation of the heart. Buried in Inglewood Memorial Cemetery, Gardena. Survived by wife, daughter, and a brother, Henry T. Weed, B.S Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1891, of Gardena.

Charles Hudson Burr, B.A. 1883.

Born February 7, 1860, in Bloomington, Ill.
Died February 19, 1934, in Bloomington, Ill.

Father, Hudson Burr, '53 Mother, Lucy Wright (Pelton) Burr, daughter of Robert and Alma (Eggleston) Pelton, of Wolcottville, Conn. Yale relatives include: Dr. Willard B. Soper, '04, and Horace A. Soper, '08 S (nephews); and Robert P. Wadhams, '02 S. (cousin)

Williston Academy Left Yale at end of Junior year and spent two years at Colorado State School of Mines as member of Class of 1885; received degree of B.A. at Yale in 1902, with enrollment in Class of 1883

Engaged in mining engineering in Colorado 1882-88; manager of Hudson Burr & Company, investment brokers, in Bloomington since 1888, financial representative in Illinois for farm loan department of Aetna Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn., since about 1890, member of Second Presbyterian Church, Bloomington Death due to chronic myocarditis and cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Park Hill Cemetery, Bloomington. Survived by wife, son, daughters, five grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Clinton P. Soper, of Bloomington.

Frederick William Havens, B.A. 1883.

Born July 18, 1859, in Hartford, Conn.
Died February 16, 1934, in West Springfield, Mass.

Father, George Oliver Havens, an inspector for Wheeler & Wilson Company, manufacturers of sewing machines, in Bridgeport, Conn., son of George and Sarah (Meacham) Havens, of Somers, Conn. Mother, Clara (Moore) Havens Bridgeport High School. First dispute appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year; member Gamma Nu.

Head clerk and bookkeeper for H. J. Smith & Company, Minneapolis, Minn., 1884-88; president of Old Corner Decorating Company, Inc., Springfield, 1904-1921; owner of Havens' Garage in Springfield since 1924, member Hope Congregational Church, Springfield.
Yale College

Married October 30, 1894, in Springfield, Mary Artie, daughter of Gilbert and Sarah Bardwell (Hamlin) Ashley. Children: Elmer Ashley, Gilbert (died in childhood); Frederick Donald (Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute ex-’23); and Doris (Mrs. Edward J. Kimball).

Death due to heart trouble and asthma. Buried in Springfield Cemetery. Survived by wife, two sons, daughter, and a brother, Elmer H. Havens, of Bridgeport.

Lord Butler Hillard, B.A. 1883.
Born December 5, 1860, in Wilkes Barre, Pa.
Died January 30, 1934, in Wilkes Barre, Pa.

St. Paul’s School, Concord, N. H. Member Barge Crew Freshman year and captain Sophomore year; captain ’83 Boat Club Sophomore and Junior years; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Studied law in office of Edmund G. Butler in Wilkes Barre; admitted to Luzerne County Bar in 1885 and practiced in Wilkes Barre until 1887; president of Wyoming Valley Lumber Company from 1887 until death; also president of West Side Bank of West Pittston, Pa., 1909–1924, of Luzerne County Prison Board since 1912, and of Osterhout Free Library, and Luzerne County Social Hygiene Society since 1932; secretary of the Home for Friendless Children since 1916, chairman of Democratic County Committee in 1924; member Luzerne County Bar Association.

Married November 6, 1893, in Wilkes Barre, Mary Brisbane, daughter of Louis and Ella Hollenback (Bicking) Emory. No children.

Death due to a coronary embolus. Buried in Hollenback Cemetery, Wilkes Barre. Survived by wife and a sister, Miss Josephine Hillard, of Wilkes Barre.

George Henry Anderson Lyford, B.A. 1883.
Born January 30, 1861, in Cincinnati, Ohio.
Died April 17, 1934, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Father, John Lyford, 2d, a furniture manufacturer, lumber dealer, and broker; son of John and Mary (Shortridge) Lyford, of Brookfield, Chickering Institute, Cincinnati.

LL.B. Cincinnati Law School 1885; admitted to the bar in May, 1885, and practiced independently in Cincinnati until 1899; manager Cincinnati Clearing House for several years after 1897; owned a company for the manufacture of a rice-milling machine which he had invented 1899-1907; resumed practice of law in Dayton, Ohio, in 1907; retired in 1920; member Cincinnati Bar Association and Christ Episcopal Church, Dayton.

Married (1) October 24, 1888, in Cincinnati, Alice Williams. One daughter, Alice Alvena (Mrs. John L. Hutchins). Mrs. Lyford died January 26, 1891. Married (2) September 19, 1894, in Cincinnati, Laura Wilhelmina Thedora, daughter of Carl Frederick Emil and Emma (Richter) Kugeman. Children: Dorothea (B.A. University of Cincinnati 1927, Ph.D. Johns Hopkins 1934), the wife of DeLamar T. Bell (B.S. Georgia School of Technology 1926; M.S. University of Cincinnati 1928); Emmita (B.A. Columbia 1930, M.A. 1931); George (M.D. University of Cincinnati 1925), Thomas (Case School of Applied Science), and John, 3d, '34.

Death due to coronary sclerosis and occlusion. Buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati. Survived by wife, three daughters, and three sons

Isaac Burkett Newton, B.A. 1883.

Born September 7, 1861, in Norwich, N.Y.
Died June 22, 1934, in Los Angeles, Calif.

Father, Isaac Sprague Newton (B.A. 1848). Mother, Jane Campbell (Dunlap) Newton. Yale relatives include: Professor Hubert A. Newton (B.A. 1850) and Homer G. Newton (B.A. 1859) (uncles); Howard D. Newton, '79 (brother), William L. Newton, '93 (cousin); and Reuben Jeffery, Jr., '11 (nephew).

Norwich Academy and Hopkins Grammar School Second prize in mathematics Freshman year, first dispute appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year.

Studied law in his father's office 1883-84; secretary and treasurer Harper & Reynolds Company, wholesale hardware merchants in Los Angeles, 1884-1919, chairman of board of Los Angeles Branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco 1920-26; chairman of board of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco and Federal Reserve Agent for the twelfth district since 1926; president Home Building & Loan Association 1903-1924 (director 1889-1926); vice-president Union Oil Associates and Union Oil Company of California 1922-24, president Married (1) January 21, 1885, in Norwich, Mary Elizabeth, daughter of John and Caroline Rowena (Foote) Mitchell. Children: Rowena Mitchell (Mrs. Robert L. Leonard); and Burkett Dunlap, '14. Mrs. Newton died September 1, 1900 Married (2) December 19, 1903, in Los Angeles, Mrs. Emily R. Earl from whom divorced in 1906. Married (3) December 31, 1910, in Los Angeles, Winifred, daughter of James Shelton and Sarah Agnes (Fletcher) Randolph, of Lincoln, Ill.

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Hollywood Cemetery, Los Angeles. Survived by wife, daughter, son, two grandchildren, and a half brother, Edward P. Newton, '97.

Frederick David Shaffer, B.A. 1883.

Born November 20, 1859, in Cincinnati, Ohio.
Died December 30, 1933, in Lawton, Okla

Father, William Shaffer; member of firm of Keck & Shaffer, commission merchants; son of Frederick and Katherine Keck (Shirley) Shaffer, of Greensburg, Pa. Mother, Susan (Lewis) Shaffer; daughter of David and Sarah (Voorhis) Lewis, of Basking Ridge, N. J. Yale relatives include three nephews: Frank H. Shaffer, Jr., '19, William B. Shaffer, '21 S., and Frederic S. Shaffer, '23.

Chickering Institute, Cincinnati. President of '83 Boat Club; member '83 Glee Club, Psi Upsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Married December 20, 1905, in Sedan, Lena Elizabeth Baker Arnold, daughter of Edward Jackson and Elizabeth Williams (Gunn) Baker. No children.
Shot himself, possibly by accident. Buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati. Survived by wife, a sister, Mrs. James R. Reeder, of Hamilton, Ohio, and a brother, Frank H. Shaffer, '77. His brothers, Lewis W. Shaffer, '76, and Stanley Shaffer, '83, died in 1898 and 1928 respectively.

Born April 9, 1862, in Birmingham, Conn.
Died November 20, 1933, in Seattle, Wash.

Father, Ell Stone Smith, a manufacturer in Derby, Conn.; son of William and Julia (Stone) Smith, of Washington, Conn. Mother, Eliza (Holbrook) Smith; daughter of Erasmus and Betsey (Smith) Holbrook, of Stockbridge, Mass. Yale relatives include two nephews, Austin C. Smith, '15, and Rev. Dwight C. Smith, '22.

Birmingham High School and Hopkins Grammar School. First colloquy appointment Junior year, second dispute appointment Senior year, member Gamma Nu.

LL B. 1885, had since practiced law in Seattle, in office of Burke & Haller 1885-86, member of firm of Shephard, Smith & Lyon 1890-92 and of Smith & Cole 1900-1911; since 1912 had been a judge of the Superior Court of King County; member of Seattle School Board in 1890 and again 1910-12 (president 1912); president of Goodwill Industries 1926, member executive board of Seattle Boy Scouts 1921-1933 (president 1924) and chairman of court of honor (awarded Order of Silver Beaver), member board of directors of Volunteers of America 1921-1933 (president 1930-33); president Yale Club of Seattle 1916-17, member Yale Alumni Board since 1923; secretary of his class in the Law School since 1915; member and officer of Plymouth Congregational Church, Seattle.

Death due to a pulmonary embolism and empyema. Buried in Lakeview Cemetery, Seattle. Survived by three sons, six grandchildren, a brother, Dr. Clarence A. Smith, '82, and a sister, Flora S. Trumbull, widow of Dr. John Trumbull, '78, of Santiago, Chile.
Carl Eastman Botsford, B.A. 1884.

Born October 2, 1861, at St. Charles, Ill.
Died May 7, 1934, in Elgin, Ill.

Father, Richard Botsford, a lawyer and judge in Elgin, son of Austin Nichols and Volucia B. (Glover) Botsford, of Connecticut. Mother, Ellen Eliza (Bundy) Botsford; daughter of Phillip Eastman and Pamela (Lowell) Bundy, of Walpole, N. H. Uncle Austin N. Botsford, ’64 L.

Elgin Academy. Attended Lake Forest College 1879–1880 and Beloit College 1880–81. Entered Class of 1884 as a Sophomore; a class historian; member Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Read law in his father’s office 1884–86; member of firm of Botsford, Wayne and Botsford 1886–1907, and of Botsford and Wayne 1907–09; had since practiced independently; editor and general manager of Elgin Democrat 1886–1890; acting counsel for Manufacturers’ & Merchants’ Life Insurance Company of Rockford, Ill., 1918–1920; secretary Elgin Life Insurance Company 1920–24, and of Old Colony Life Insurance Company of Chicago 1927–1932; mayor of the City of Elgin 1905–07, member of Board of Education 1902–05; attended Elgin Episcopal Church.

Survived by wife, two daughters, Alosia Louise, the wife of Robert P. Lamb; and Carlyn Louise (B.A. Mount Holyoke 1926), the wife of Merrill W. Simpson (University of Illinois ex-’21), and four grandchildren.

George Washington Flowers, B.A. 1884.

Died May 3, 1934, in Irwin, Pa.

Father, John Horning Flowers, a farmer in Irwin; son of George and Elizabeth (Horning) Flowers, of White Hall, Pa. Mother, Sara Ann (Lenhart) Flowers; daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth (Bachman) Lenhart, of Irwin.

Public schools and private tutor in Irwin. Taught school 1879–1881; attended Washington and Jefferson College 1881–82; entered the Class of 1884 in Junior year, oration appointment Senior year.

Studied in a law office in Pittsburgh after graduation; prothonotary of Westmoreland County 1888–89; admitted to the bar 1889 and practiced in Pittsburgh and Irwin until retirement in 1930, editor of Irwin Republican 1891–92; an organizer of the First National Bank of Irwin 1909 and vice-president and director until 1929, president of Economic Appliance Company in Irwin 1924; director Parkersburg Iron & Steel Company; president Irwin Chamber of Commerce 1911, vice-president Pennsylvania Council of Community Clubs; member Western Pennsylvania Historical Society and Reformed Church in the United States (deacon 1891–95).

Married June 24, 1894, in Irwin, Sarah Emma Cole Gregg, daughter of Henry Clay and Lucy Anna (Lenhart) Cole.

Death due to apoplexy. Buried in Irwin Union Cemetery. Survived by wife and two brothers, Grant L. Flowers, of Los Angeles, Calif, and John H. Flowers, of Irwin.

Henry Clay McDowell, B.A. 1884.

Born August 24, 1861, in Louisville, Ky.
Died October 8, 1933, in Lexington, Ky.

Father, Henry Clay McDowell, lawyer, farmer, president of Kentucky Union Railroad Company, United States marshal for Kentucky; Lieutenant Colonel, 62d Kentucky Regiment in Civil War; son of William Adair McDowell (M.D. University of Pennsylvania 1818) and Maria Hawkins (Harvey) McDowell, of Fincastle, Va., and Louisville. Mother, Anne (Clay) McDowell, daughter of Henry Clay (B.A. Transylvania 1826; graduate United States Military Academy 1830), Lieutenant Colonel, 2d Kentucky Regiment, in Mexican War, and Julia (Prather) Clay, of Lexington. Yale relatives: William A. McDowell, '85 S. (brother), and Goodloe McDowell, ex-'19, and William B. Brock, Jr., B.F.A 1931 (nephews).

Williston Academy Captain of Class and University Lacrosse teams, business manager of Tale Daily News Senior year, feather-weight sparring champion Junior year; member Kappa Sigma Epsilon, Eta Phi, Psi Upsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Death due to coronary occlusion. Buried in Lexington Cemetery. Survived by wife, a brother, Thomas C. McDowell (University of Virginia 1884–85), and two sisters, Nannette McD. Bullock, wife of Thomas S. Bullock (B.A. Central University 1880; M.D. Columbia 1883), and Mrs. William B. Brock, all of Lexington.
Henry McMahon Painter, B.A. 1884.

Born July 12, 1863, in West Haven, Conn.
Died March 11, 1934, in New York City.

Hopkins Grammar School. Two first prizes in English composition Sophomore year; second dispute appointment Junior year and second prize at Junior Exhibition; first colloquy appointment Senior year; an editor of Yale Literary Magazine Senior year; member Delta Kappa, Psi Upsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Ph.B. 1885; M.D. Columbia 1888, interne at Bellevue Hospital 1888-1890; subsequently practiced in New York City until retirement in 1928, specializing in obstetrics; professor of clinical obstetrics at Columbia 1914-19; attending physician Midwifery Dispensary 1890-92; one of the reorganizers of Lying-In Hospital in 1892 and attending surgeon until 1902, medical director 1903-05; attending obstetrician at New York Nursery and Children's Hospital 1910-14, consulting obstetrician since 1915, director of obstetrical service 1921-24, and chairman of medical board 1921-24; consulting obstetrician at Sloane Hospital for Women since 1919.

Married (1) June 30, 1891, in New Haven, Carrie Amelia, daughter of Hiram Stevens. Children: Sidney, '25, and Thomas, '29. Dr. and Mrs. Painter were divorced in 1926. Married (2) July 14, 1926, in Montclair, N. J., Julie Loraine, daughter of Walter Channing and Julie Loretta (Moran) Wyman.

Death due to chronic myocarditis. Buried in Oak Grove Cemetery, West Haven. Survived by wife, sons, and a brother, Robert K. Painter (E.M. Columbia 1896), of Beverly Hills, Calif.

Harry Goodnow Chase, B.A. 1885.

Born January 31, 1863, in Lakeview, Ill.
Died January 11, 1934, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, Charles Carroll Chase; in abstract business as member of firm of Chase Brothers; appraiser of Chicago public schools; son of Horace Chase (B.A. Dartmouth 1814) and Betsy (Blanchard) Chase, of Hopkinton, N. H. Mother, Julia Marsh (Sawyer) Chase; daughter of Gabriel Smith and Mary (Ogden) Sawyer, of Walton, N. Y. First cousins: Samuel M. Chase, '83 S., and Maurice S. Brandt, '04 S.

Lakeview High School. Dissertation appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year; an editor of Yale Courant; member Freshman Glee Club, College Choir, Psi Upsilon, and Scroll and Key.

On a ranch at La Jara, Ariz., for few months in 1885 and later employed in a bank in Phoenix, Ariz.; in partnership with William M. Derby, Jr., '85, in Chicago under name of Derby & Company (insurance) since 1887.

Unmarried.

Death due to fractured humerus, myocarditis, and nephritis. Buried in Graceland Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by two half sisters, Mrs. Alice L. Scatcliffe and Mrs. Frederick S Dale (B A. Bryn Mawr 1912), both of Chicago.

Albert Heman Ely, B.A. 1885.

Born November 22, 1860, in Elyria, Ohio.

Died April 26, 1934, in Huntington, N. Y.

Phillips-Andover. Entered Yale with Class of 1884; joined Class of 1885 the next year; member Senior Promenade Committee, Hé Boulé, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Wolf's Head.

M.D. Columbia 1888; on surgical staff of St. Luke’s Hospital 1888-89; engaged in graduate work at Vienna Government Hospital 1889-1890 and at Rotunda Maternity Hospital, Dublin, 1890-91; practiced in New York City from 1891 until retirement in 1931, specializing in gynecology; attending surgeon New York City Hospital 1902-04, member of medical board of the Doctors Hospital; consulting surgeon to Southampton (N. Y.) Hospital since 1907; president Southampton Village Improvement Association 1900-1914; fellow of New York Academy of Medicine; member American Medical Association, New York State, County, and City medical societies, and of St.
Bartholomew's Church, New York City, and St. Andrew's Dune Church, Southampton.

Married October 7, 1891, in Rochester, N. Y., Maude Louise, daughter of George Eugene and Frances (Sherburne) Merchant. Children: Reginald Day (died in infancy); Albert Heman, Jr. (B.A. 1915; M.A. and LL.B. Columbia 1917); Gerald Day (died in childhood); and Francis Sherburne (died in 1925).

Death followed a long illness. Buried in Mt. Hope Cemetery, Rochester. Survived by wife, one son, a brother, Charles T. Ely (B.A. Western Reserve 1879), of Cleveland, and a sister, Harriet E. Marshall, the wife of George M. Marshall (B.A. Western Reserve 1883; M.D. University of Pennsylvania 1886), of Philadelphia.

Charles Edward Harris, B.A. 1885.

Born October 3, 1863, in New York City.
Died October 12, 1933, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Father, Rev. Charles Edward Harris (graduate Methodist General Biblical Institute, Concord, N. H., 1855, now the Theological Department of Boston University); a Methodist Episcopal minister in New York City, Brooklyn, and Connecticut. Mother, Charlotte Thibou (Janes) Harris; daughter of Bishop Edmund Storer Janes of the Methodist Episcopal Church (M.A. Dickinson 1842, D.D. 1844), and Charlotte (Thibou) Janes, of New York City.

Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute and Bridgeport (Conn.) High School. First dispute appointment Junior year; dissertation appointment Senior year; member Gamma Nu.

Student at Columbia Law School 1885–86 and also took a course in political science (M.A. 1886); in Colorado 1886–1890; engaged in surveying for Colorado, Midland, Chicago, Burlington & Quincy and Denver & Rio Grande railroads 1886–88; during same period studied law in office of Henry T. Rogers, '66, with firm of Wolcott & Vaile in Denver, and with A. E. Pattison at Colorado Springs, admitted to the bar in December, 1889; superintendent of construction in city engineer's office, Denver, for six months in 1890 and had charge of Colorado's gold and silver statistics for the census of 1890 for three months; student in Yale Divinity School 1890–94 (B.D. 1893); ordained to Congregational ministry October 10, 1894; in charge of Pilgrim Congregational Church, Buffalo, N. Y., 1894–95; pastor of First Congregational Church, Moorhead, Minn., 1896–97, Trinitarian Church, Norton, Mass., 1898–1901, Hyannis and West Yarmouth, Mass., 1902–05, and Wolfeboro, N. H., from 1906 until retirement from active ministry on account of ill health in 1909; then resided in Norton and (since 1922) in Brooklyn.
Unmarried.

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Green Wood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by no immediate relatives.

Guy Ward Mallon, B.A. 1885.

Born April 28, 1864, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Died December 23, 1933, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Father, Patrick Mallon; member of law firms of Mallon & Coffey and Mallon, Coffey & Mallon; judge of Court of Common Pleas for Hamilton County, Ohio, son of Bartholomew and Mary (McGurgh) Mallon, who came from Tyrone County, Ireland, in 1825 and settled in Malone, N Y. Mother, Sophia Pitcher (Beadle) Mallon; daughter of Thomas and Phoebe Anne (Starbuck) Beadle, of Nantucket, Mass.

Woodward High School, Cincinnati Shared Woolsey Scholarship and received first prize in mathematics and first Berkeley Premium Freshman year, first prize in mathematics and first and third prizes in English Sophomore year, philosophical oration appointments Junior and Senior years; Townsend Premium and Woolsey Scholarship Senior year, captain of University Lacrosse Team two years and treasurer of the Lacrosse Association; president of Ohio Club; member Junior Promenade Committee, Gamma Nu, Hé Boulé, Psi Upsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Private tutor in Washington, D. C., 1885-86 and also attended Columbian (George Washington) Law School; LL B. Cincinnati Law School 1888, in office of Mallon & Coffey 1886-88, admitted to the bar May 23, 1888, member of firm of Mallon, Coffey & Mallon 1888-1904, of Mallon & Vordenburg 1904-1930, and of Mallon, Vordenburg & Marble 1930-January, 1933, president of Cincinnati Trust Company 1901-03, vice-president of Guarantee Trust Company 1897-1907 and of its successor, Guarantee Title & Trust Company 1907-1917; member Ohio Legislature 1890-91, on Cincinnati City Council 1906-08 and Citizens' School Committee 1912-1933 (chairman 1913-1920); secretary of City Charter Committee 1924-1932; trustee of Ohio State University 1903-1919 and of Berea College since 1896 (member finance committee 1897-1933 and vice-president 1932 and 1933); director of United States Can Company 1910-1928 and of Cincinnati House of Refuge 1894-1912, chairman of board of Trahern Tobacco Company 1927 and of Nicotine Production Company 1927-28; author: Ohio Election Law (1892), The Mirror (1923), Can We Escape? (1932), and Bankers vs Consumers (1933); president of Literary Club of Cincinnati 1920; first vice-president of Yale Club of Cincinnati 1891; member Cincinnati Home Guard 1917; American Bar Association, American Law Institute, and Church of Our Saviour (Episcopal).
Married November 12, 1891, in Columbus, Ohio, Hannah Neil, Ohio State University ex-'88, daughter of Henry Moore Neil, Harvard ex-'56, and Julia (Stone) Neil. Children: Guy Ward, Jr. (died in infancy); Mary (B.A. Vassar 1915), wife of Professor Alan T. Waterman (B.A. Princeton 1913, M.A. 1914 and Ph.D. 1916); Henry Neil, '17; John Howard, '19; Sophia Beadle (B.A. Vassar 1918), wife of Bryant J. Brooks (B.S. University of Rochester 1914); Patrick, '21; Horace Taft (B.A. Williams 1918); Hannah Neil (B.A. Vassar 1924; M.A. University of Cincinnati 1925), wife of Lewis M. Daniel (B.S. University of Minnesota 1917, M.D. 1923); and Dwight Stone, '28.

Death due to coronary thrombosis and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati. Survived by wife, five sons, three daughters, fifteen grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Mary M. Sargent, the widow of Edward B. Sargent, '83. His brother, Neil B. Mallon, '96, died in 1909.

Francis Rexford Cooley, B.A. 1886.

Born November 21, 1863, in New York City.
Died November 15, 1933, in Hartford, Conn.

Hartford Public High School. First colloquy appointment Junior year; second colloquy appointment Senior year; on Class Crew and auditing committee of University Boat Club; member Dunham Boat Club, Yale Corinthian Yacht Club, Junior Promenade Committee, Gamma Nu, Hé Boulé, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Clerk for Allyn & Blanchard, wholesale grocers in Hartford 1887-89; member of firm of Wilson & Cooley, bankers and brokers, Hartford, 1889-1891; engaged in business alone as a dealer in stocks and bonds 1891-1915; senior partner in firm of Francis R. Cooley & Company, members of New York Stock Exchange, in Hartford (his son Francis B. Cooley, a partner) 1915-1921, and since 1921 a special partner; president of Hartford Stock Exchange 1912-19; vice-president and director Morris Plan Bank of Hartford 1915-1931; vice-president Hartford Gas Company 1915-1932 (director since 1904), Broad Brook Company, manufacturers of woolens, 1916-18, Hartford Hospital 1918-1929 (chairman finance committee 1919-1930; director of Whitlock Coil Pipe Company of Elmwood 1903-1925, Landers, Frary &

Married October 15, 1890, in Plainfield, Conn., Alice Cleveland, daughter of John Dean and Frances Woodward (Cleveland) Browne. Two sons: Francis Browne, ex-’17, and John Cleveland, ’27.

Death due to bronchopneumonia and general arteriosclerosis. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by wife, sons, a brother, Charles P Cooley, ’91, and two sisters, Sarah C. Hall, wife of Rev. George Atwater Hall (B.A. Amherst 1882), and Clara C Jacobus, wife of Rev Melanchthon W. Jacobus (B.A Princeton 1877; D.D. Lafayette 1892 and Yale 1910).

William Randall Crawford, B.A. 1886.

Born November 11, 1864, in New Albany, Ind
Died September 6, 1933, in Lexington, Ky.

Father, Henry Crawford (B.A. Wabash 1853, LL.B. Harvard 1856), lawyer, general counsel for the Wabash Railroad Company; son of Randall Crawford, of New Albany. Mother, Elvina Franklin (Kent) Crawford; daughter of Phineas Kent, of New Albany.

Preparatory training received under private tutors. Entered Yale as a Sophomore, substitute on Football Team Senior year; captain of Bicycle Club; member Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Studied law with his father in Chicago 1886–87 and at Harvard Law School 1887-88; practiced law in Kentland, Ind., 1888-1890; in Chicago in association with his father 1890-1907; and in Seattle, Wash., 1907-1931; owner and operator of Seattle, Renton & Southern Railroad 1907-1912; retired from practice in 1931 and had since made his home in Lexington, devoting much time to the study of truck and bus taxation with relation to interstate commerce; organized All Chicago Football Team of which captain 1890-93; member Presbyterian Church.

Married May 24, 1897, in Milwaukee, Wis., Kate Louise, daughter of James and Mary (Hadley) Wardner. Children: Katharine Louise, University of Washington ex-'20, the wife of John Peere Mills; William Randall, Jr., B.A. University of Washington 1920; and Ella Franklin. Mrs. Crawford died December 23, 1928.

Death due to acute myocarditis. Survived by son, daughters, and two grandchildren.

Charles Thompson Mathews, B.A. 1886.

Born March 31, 1863, in Paris, France.
Died January 11, 1934, in New York City.

Father, Charles Drelincourt Mathews; member of New York Produce Exchange; president of United States Warehouse, New York City; son of Edwin and Hannah (Loree) Mathews, of New York City. Mother, Rebecca Bacon (Thompson) Mathews; daughter of Charles Chauncey and Lydia (Bacon) Thompson, of New York. Uncle: Chauncey M. Thompson, '54.

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. Treasurer of Class Glee Club; member Psi Upsilon.

Traveled abroad 1886-87; studied at Columbia 1887-89 (Ph.B. in Architecture 1889; member Delta Phi) and in Paris 1889-1891; traveled in Europe, Asia, and North Africa studying architecture 1891-96; M.A. Yale 1892; practiced architecture in New York City from 1890 until retirement in 1921; won competition for remodeling Church of the Holy Trinity, New York, 1891; won international competition for remodeling east end of St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York, 1901; designed Milmo Palace, Mexico, and Chapel at Chatsworth, England; exhibited drawings at Chicago Exposition 1893; during the war member of United States Food Administration; a founder of American Society for the Relief of French Orphans; chairman of Society of Musical Arts in New York; author. The Renaissance under the Valois (1893) and The Story of Architecture (1896); contributed articles on painting, music, and architecture to various periodicals; fellow American Institute of Architects; member Architectural League, Municipal Art Society, Metropolitan Museum of Art, Society of Colonial Wars in the State of New York (gentleman of the council...
1920–24, historian 1924–29, and on committee on membership 1916–1920), and The Pilgrims
Unmarried.

Charles Wheeler Pierson, B.A. 1886.

Born May 3, 1864, in Florida, N. Y.
Died May 4, 1934, in New York City.

Phillips-Exeter First prize in mathematics and Berkeley premium in Latin composition Freshman year, two first prizes in English composition and Scott prize in German Sophomore year; philosophical oration appointment Junior year; valedictorian and speaker at Commencement, two year honors in political science, history, and law; Douglas Fellow, an editor of Yale Literary Magazine; member Hare and Hounds, '86 Glee Club, '86 Tennis Club, '86 Whist Club, Psi Upsilon, Chi Delta Theta, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Married December 29, 1903, in Cincinnati, Ohio, Elizabeth Grangeville, daughter of Hermann John Groesbeck (B.A. Harvard 1870; M.D. University of Edinburgh 1873) and Elizabeth (Perry) Groesbeck. Two sons: George Wilson, ’26, instructor in history at Yale, and John Hermann Groesbeck, ’27, student in Yale Graduate School.

Death due to bacterial endocarditis. Buried in Florida Cemetery. Survived by wife, sons, and a sister, Miss Eliza D. Pierson (Mount Holyoke 1890), of Florida, N. Y.

Edgar Crane Stiles, B.A. 1886.

Born October 9, 1863, in Hartford, Conn.
Died August 29, 1933, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Levi Stiles, a harness maker; son of Levi and Phebe (Cook) Stiles, of Hanover, N. J. Mother, Frances B (Thresher) Stiles; daughter of William B and Abigail (Bunce) Thresher

Hartford Public High School Oration appointment Junior and Senior years; honors in ancient languages; member Class Baseball Team, ’86 Glee Club, Senior Promenade Committee, and Gamma Nu.

Principal of a school in Norfolk, Conn, 1886–87, of Litchfield (Conn.) schools 1887–89, and of Seymour (Conn.) High School 1889–1896; had since been superintendent of schools in West Haven; president of School Superintendents’ Association one term, of School Masters Club one term, New Haven Bird Club 1907–1925, and Connecticut Federation of Bird and Nature Clubs in 1924; member of West Haven Village Improvement Association since 1906 and of West Haven Public Library Board 1906–1932; charter member and director of West Haven Rotary Club; member First Congregational Church, West Haven (on standing committee).

Death due to a pulmonary embolus Buried in Enfield. Survived by a brother, Frank B. Stiles, of Windsor, Conn.

Born January 15, 1867, in Newark, N. J.
Died January 7, 1934, in Washington, D. C.

General Russell’s Collegiate and Commercial Institute First dispute appointment Junior year, dissertation appointment Senior year; honors in natural and physical science; secretary and treasurer Yale Society of Natural History; member '86 Tennis and '86 Whist clubs, Hare and Hounds, Yale Yacht Club, Class Day Committee, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Graduate student in physics, mineralogy, and chemistry at Yale 1886–88 (Silliman Fellow 1887–88) (MA. 1888); traveled abroad 1888–89, member of American School of Classical Studies, Athens, Greece, and engaged in excavations 1889–1894; Ph.D. University of Leipzig 1893; assistant in mineralogy at Yale 1895–96; consulting geologist with laboratory at Locust, N. J., engaged in conducting geological, volcanological, and petrological investigations in Greece, Asia Minor, Italy, Spain, Brazil, Hawaiian Islands, and the United States, and in making chemical studies of igneous rocks and minerals 1896–1912, petrologist with the Geophysical Laboratory of the Carnegie Institution, Washington, D. C., since 1912; chairman of board of managers of Geological Survey of New Jersey 1909–1914; chemical associate and scientific attaché, American Embassy at Rome, 1918–19; vice-president section on volcanology, International Geophysical Union 1922–1933, chairman, American Geophysical Union 1926–29; member National Research Council since 1927; member National Academy of Sciences, Geological Society of America (vice-president 1922), American Chemical Society, Archeological Institute of America, Washington Academy of Sciences, Geological Society of Washington, Mineralogical Society of America (president 1924), American Philosophical Society, Maya Society, R. Società Geologica Italiana; foreign correspondent, London Geological Society, London Mineralogical Society, Académie des Sciences (France), Sociedad Española de Historia Natural; foreign member R. Academia di Scienze, Lettere ed Arti degli Zelante (Sicily), R. Accademia Nazionale dei Lincei (Rome), Det Norske Videnskapsakademi (Oslo), Reale Accademia Delle Scienze Di Torino, R. Accademia di Scienze, Lettere, ed Arti (Modena); corresponding member Academy of Science of the U. S. S. R.; in 1926 invested by French Government with the Palms of the Academy of Science for work in connection with Franco-American excavations at Carthage; decorated Cavalière of the Order of the Crown of Italy, 1927; author Chemical Analyses of Igneous Rocks (1903, 1917); Manual of the Chemical Analysis of Rocks (1904, 1910, 1919, and 1930); The Roman Comagmatic Region (1906); joint author, Quantitative Classification of Igneous Rocks (1903); contributed to American Journal of Science and other periodicals; member St. Agnes Episcopal Church

Married October 25, 1893, Martha Rose Beckwith, daughter of Dr. S R Beckwith No children Mr. and Mrs. Washington were divorced about twenty years ago Death due to cirrhosis of the liver, arteriosclerosis, and myocarditis. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Washington. Survived by a half-sister, Miss Anita Washington.

Lewis Sherrill Bigelow, B.A. 1887.

Born June 29, 1863, in New Hartford, N. Y.
Died August 17, 1933, in New York City.

Father, Horace Ransom Bigelow; member of law firm of Bigelow, Flandrau & Squires, in St. Paul, Minn.; son of Erastus and Statira (Ransom) Bigelow, of Watervliet, N. Y. Mother, Cornelia (Sherrill) Bigelow; daughter of Lewis and Clarissa (Burgess) Sherrill, of New Hartford. Nephew: Horace R. B. Allen, '14 S.

Phillips-Exeter. Entered Yale with Class of 1885; captain of '85 Freshman Football Team and on '85 Class Baseball Team; left college at end of Sophomore year and studied law at University of Michigan and at home 1884-85; returned to Yale as a Junior with Class of 1887. LL.B 1889 (member Phi Delta Phi); clerk with firm of Flandrau, Squires & Curtheon, in St. Paul 1889-1893; engaged in newspaper work 1893-98 as special writer on staff of New York World 1893-94, special Washington correspondent for New York Evening Sun 1894-95, and special writer for New York Evening Journal 1895-98; student in Department of Comparative Literature of Columbia University 1898-1903; special writer for Ivy L. Lee & Associates in New York; wrote pamphlet on Ohio floods of 1913 for The Pennsylvania Railroad Company; and other material for that company in 1916; editor of American Red Cross Bulletin 1917-18, had since devoted his time to independent literary work.

Married April 13, 1901, in Boston, Mary Frances, daughter of William Augustus and Elizabeth Haven (Hall) Russell. Children: Betsey Anne (born and died same day); and Lewis Sherrill, Jr., '28.

Richard Dana Morse, B.A. 1887.

Born March 16, 1864, in Newton, Mass.
Died August 21, 1933, in Maplewood, N. J.

Father, Richard Dana Morse; partner in firm of Bazin, Morse & Company, book publishers, in Boston; served in Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry 1864-65; son of Lewis Richard and Mary Elizabeth (Dana) Morse, of Woodstock, Vt. Mother, Helen Sophia (Hutchins) Morse, daughter of Ezra Child and Augusta (St. Clair) Hutchins, of Newton.

Framingham (Mass.) Academy and High School  Member Freshman Crew

Unmarried

Death due to apoplexy  Buried in Mount Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge, Mass. Survived by a brother, Francis B. Morse, of Millis, Mass.

Thomas Penney, B.A. 1887.

Died November 11, 1933, in Buffalo, N. Y.

Father, Thomas Penney, son of Thomas Penney. Mother, Hannah (Nagle) Penney

Came to the United States in 1874; employed in general store of Forbes & Wallace in Springfield, Mass., 1874–77; and in Barnes Store, Lee, Mass., 1877–1880; prepared for college at Williston Academy; second prize in declamation Sophomore year; second dispute appointment Junior year, first colloquy appointment Senior year, an editor of Yale Banner, member of Pundits

LL B. cum laude 1889 (member Phi Beta Theta), admitted to Connecticut Bar in 1889; had since practiced in Buffalo, law clerk in office of Green & Marcy 1889–1890, in partnership with Arthur R. Pennell, ’87, under firm name of Penney & Pennell 1891–94; first assistant district attorney of Erie County 1894–98 and district attorney 1899–1902; member of the firm of Norton, Penney & Sears (Charles B. Sears, ’92) 1902–1912, president of International Street Railway Company of Buffalo, Niagara Falls, and Lockport 1908–1912; member of firms of Norton, Penney, Spring & Moore 1913–18, and Penney, Persons, Blair & Nye 1918–1925; had since been counsel for Howard Crosby Tracy, B.A. 1887.

Born August 1, 1866, in Westboro, Mass.
Died April 19, 1934, in New York City.

Father, J. Evarts Tracy, '57 L. Mother, Martha Sherman (Greene) Tracy. Yale relatives include: Timothy Todd (B.A 1747) (great-great-great-grandfather); Roger Sherman (honorary M.A. 1768) (great-great-grandfather); Jeremiah Evarts (B.A 1802) (great-grandfather); Rev. David Greene (B.A 1821) (grandfather); John J. Evarts (B.A 1832), and William M. Evarts (B.A 1837) (great-uncles); J. Evarts Greene, '53, and Dr. Roger S. Tracy, ’62 (uncles); Evarts Tracy, ’90, Dr. Robert S. Tracy, ’93, and William E. Tracy, ’00 (brothers), and William E. Tracy, ’34 E (nephew).

John Leal's School in Plainfield, N. J., and Dr. Pingree's School, Elizabeth, N. J. Dissertation appointment Junior and Senior years; on Class Lacrosse Team Sophomore year; member Pundits, Gamma Nu, and Psi Upsilon.

LL B cum laude Columbia 1889, had since practiced law in New York and Brooklyn; clerk in office of his father's firm, Evarts, Choate & Beaman, 1889-1893; in partnership with Wolcott G. Lane, ’88, under firm name of Tracy & Lane 1893-1902; practiced alone 1902-03; connected with Lawyers Title Insurance Company 1903-05, engaged in examination of titles to real estate; assistant attorney of its successor, Lawyers Title Insurance & Trust Company 1905–1913; member of law firm of Dean, McBarron & Tracy 1913–18, Dean, Tracy & Stanford 1918–19, and of Dean, King, Tracy & Smith 1919–1921; took three months' course in stock salesmanship with James W. Elliott's Business Builders November, 1921–February, 1922; manager of closing department of U. S. Title Guaranty Company of Brooklyn 1925–26, New York Title & Mortgage Company, Brooklyn 1926–27, and since then an attorney in the department of general litigation; member of Republican City Committee of Plainfield, N. J., for several years from 1906; member district committee of Organized Aid Association of Plainfield (secretary 1899–1904); one of commissioners of sewer assessments of Plainfield in 1911 and 1912; secretary of reorganization committee of Oregon Railway & Navigation Company 1896; Private, Troop A, Cavalry, New York National Guard, 1889–1892; member Association of the Bar of the City of New York, and Grace Episcopal Church, Plainfield (vestryman 1917–1929).

Death due to a heart attack. Buried in Hillside Cemetery, Plainfield. Survived by wife and five sisters: Miss Emily B. Tracy and Dr. Martha Tracy (B.A. Bryn Mawr 1898; M.D. Women's Medical College of Pennsylvania 1904), both of Germantown, Pa., Miss Mary Evarts Tracy, of Yokohama, Japan, Miss Edith H. Tracy, of Stockbridge, Mass., and Mrs. Margaret Tracy Mix, of Muncie, Ind.

Eugene Wendell Harter, B.A. 1888.

Born February 9, 1865, in Utica, N. Y.
Died May 30, 1934, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Father, Henry Laurence Harter (B.A. Union College 1858), vice-principal State Normal School, Potsdam, N. Y.; son of Henry H. and Julia Ann (Gray) Harter, of Jordanville, N. Y. Mother, Aurelia Failing (Wendell) Harter; daughter of Jacob and Margaret (Failing) Wendell, of Minden and Albany, N. Y.

Albany (N. Y.) High School. First prize in English composition Sophomore year, one year honors in English Senior year; dissertation appointments Junior and Senior years; member Chi Delta Theta and Alpha Delta Phi.

Taught at Peekskill, N. Y., 1888–89; instructor in classics Newburgh (N. Y.) Free Academy 1889–1895, and at Dr. Sach's Preparatory School in New York City 1895–96; head of classics department Erasmus Hall High School since 1896; organist at St. George's Episcopal Church in Newburgh 1891–95, and at the Emanuel Baptist Church in Brooklyn 1897-98; had contributed to The Bookman, The Critic, Putnam's and The Reader; president of the Pageant of Brooklyn (1915), New York Classical Club, and Prospect Park South Association; vice-president of the Flatbush Playground Association; member American Philological Association and St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Married July 1, 1897, in Newburgh, Anna Wilhelmina, daughter of Eugene Augustus and Anna Wilhelmina (Brown) Brewster. Children: Eugene Brewster (Cornell 1918-19); Henry Laurence (B.A. Dartmouth 1924); and Nina.

Death due to cerebral thrombosis. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Newburgh. Survived by wife, sons, daughter, and four grandchildren.

Born February 22, 1864, in Dimock, Pa.

Father, Lewis Harlow Woodruff; served in Army during Civil War; established a trading post at Tecumseh, Nebr.; son of Lewis Harlow Woodruff (B.A. Hamilton 1823) and Almeda (Hutchinson) Woodruff, of Dimock. Mother, Cormella (Glidden) Woodruff, daughter of Benjamin and Frances Emma (Stephens) Glidden, of Friendsville, Pa. Yale relatives include: Rev. Aaron Hutchinson (B.A. 1747) (great-great-grandfather); Clarence S. Woodruff, ’78 (uncle); and Frank W. Wheaton, ’77, A. Allen Woodruff, ’12, and Lewis H. Woodruff, ’14 (cousins).

Mansfield (Pa) State Normal School. Second Winthrop prize Junior year; high oration appointments Junior and Senior years, on University Football Team and University Crew four years (captain Senior year); on University Track Team Junior year; member Psi Upsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Taught athletics at The Hill School 1889-1891 and at Penn Charter School, Philadelphia, 1891-92; studied law at University of Pennsylvania 1892-95 (LL.B. 1895); football coach at University of Pennsylvania 1892-1901; admitted to Pennsylvania and U. S. courts and practiced in Philadelphia 1895-1902; law officer of U. S. Forestry Service 1903-07; U. S. Assistant Attorney General, attached to the Department of the Interior, 1907-09; Acting Secretary of the Interior June-October, 1907; secretary of lands section of National Conservation Commission in 1908; U. S. District judge for Territory of Hawaii 1909-1910; general counsel, secretary, and treasurer in New York City of Pocahontas Consolidated Collieries Company of Virginia and West Virginia 1910-18; practiced law again in Philadelphia 1918-1920; also served as special counsel of Pennsylvania Conservation Commission and the Pennsylvania State Grange 1918-1920; chief of the Bureau of Lands of Pennsylvania Department of Forestry 1920-21; attorney general of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania 1923-27; then resumed practice in Philadelphia and also served as special adviser to Governor Gifford Pinchot, '89, on utilities; Public Service Commissioner of Pennsylvania since 1931; served in Naval Reserve as Gunner's Mate and chief petty officer 1895-1902; regent of the College of Hawaii 1909-1910; member American Forestry Association, Society of American Foresters, and Philadelphia County Bar Association; attended Presbyterian Church.

Married (1) August 4, 1898, in Philadelphia, Maud Donald, daughter of George and Margaret (McAlley) Macbride. Mrs. Woodruff died May 18, 1918. Married (2) June 22, 1921, in Baltimore, Md., Anna Elfreda, daughter of Francis Elliott and Anna Elizabeth (Glidden) Foster, of Warren, Pa. No children.

Death due to coronary occlusion following an attack of pleurisy. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York City. Survived by wife.

George Henry Capen, B.A. 1890.
Born September 3, 1868, in St. Louis, Mo.
Died January 9, 1934, in St. Louis, Mo.

Father, George Dunn Capen, founder and senior partner in firm of George D. Capen & Company, fire insurance, in St. Louis; president of Lindell Railway Company; son of William Henry and Mary Eliza (Dunn) Capen, of Brookline, Mass. Mother, Frances Isabella (Pond) Capen; daughter of Charles Harvey and Hannah (Wentworth) Pond, of Bangor, Maine. Nephew: Samuel D. Capen, Jr., ex-‘25.

Smith Academy, St. Louis. First dispute appointment Junior and Senior years, member Freshman and University Glee clubs, Eta Phi, Psi Upsilon, and Wolf's Head.

Studied at Washington University Law School 1890-92; admitted to Missouri Bar June, 1892; partner in firm of George D. Capen & Company general insurance (brother, Samuel D. Capen, '85, also a member) since 1892; an organizer of Capen Belting & Rubber Company in St. Louis in 1900, and president and treasurer 1900-01; president Yale Alumni Association of St. Louis 1909-1910; member Fire Underwriters Association of St. Louis and Pilgrim Congregational Church.

Married November 7, 1893, in Cairo, Ill., Eliza Parker, daughter of Henry Lang and Laura Esther (Evans) Halliday. Children: Lila (B.A. Vassar 1917), the wife of Meredith C. Jones (LL.B. Washington University 1917), and Esther Halliday (B.A. Vassar 1920), the wife of Kenneth H. Bitting (Brown ex-‘20).

Death due to cirrhosis of the liver and chronic myocarditis. Burial in Bellefontaine Cemetery, St. Louis. Survived by wife, daughters, four grandchildren, two brothers, Wallace C. Capen, ex-’96 S., and Charles P. Capen, ’00, and three sisters, Mrs. Alexander H. Boarman, of Westerly, R. I., Jeanne C. Armstrong, the wife of George E. Armstrong, ’01 S., and Miss Ethel Capen, of St. Louis. His brother, Samuel D. Capen, died in 1933.

Rodney Lawrence Glisan, B.A. 1890.

Born April 3, 1869, in Portland, Ore.
Died May 6, 1934, in Portland, Ore.

Father, Rodney Glisan (M.D. University of Maryland 1849); practiced in Baltimore and in Portland; Assistant Surgeon, U. S. Army 1850-1860; professor at Oregon Medical College; president of Multnomah County and Oregon State Medical societies; son of Samuel and Eliza (Pool) Glisan, of Frederick County, Md. Mother, Elizabeth Raynes (Couch) Glisan; daughter of John and Caroline (Flanders) Couch, of Newburyport, Mass. Yale relatives include a brother, Dr. Clarence Glisan, ’87, and a cousin, Robert B. Wilson, ’01.

Hopkins Grammar School. Second colloquy appointment Junior year; first colloquy appointment Senior year; on Class Crew Freshman and Sophomore years; member Zeta Psi.

Studied in office of Williams & Wood in Portland and also attended University of Oregon Law School 1890-92 (LL.B. 1892); admitted to Oregon Bar May, 1892; M.A. Columbia 1893; had been engaged in the independent practice of law in Portland since 1893; president of Portland Common Council 1900-02; member of executive board of City of Portland 1903-05; member of board of directors of Good Samaritan Hospital since 1901; traversed High Sierras and Cascade Range and had made ascents of about thirty-five snow peaks along the Pacific Coast; explored Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes in Alaska; vice-president of American Alpine Club 1914-17 and 1923-26; president of Mazamas of Oregon 1903; life member of Mountaineers, Washington; member Sierra Club of California, Alpine Club of Canada, and Portland Chamber of Commerce; vestryman Trinity Episcopal Church, Portland, 1894-1933, and senior warden 1915-1933.

Unmarried.

Death due to acute cardiac dilatation. Buried in Riverview Cemetery, Portland. Survived by sister, Mrs. Florence G. Minott, of Portland.
Yale Kneeland, B.A. 1890.

Born August 5, 1869, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died December 26, 1933, in New York City.

Adelphi Academy, Brooklyn. High oration appointment Junior and Senior years, speaker at Junior Exhibition; chairman of Senior Promenade Committee; member Psi Upsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Married January 9, 1895, in Buffalo, Anna Ilsley, daughter of John Nye and Mary Virginia Cogdell (Hathaway) Ball. Children: Virginia (B.A. Bryn Mawr 1918; M.D. Columbia 1922), wife of Angus Macclonald Frantz (B.A. Princeton 1916, M.D. Columbia 1922); and Yale, Jr (B.A. 1922; M.D. Columbia 1926).

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in East Clarendon (Vt.) Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughter, son, five grandchildren, and four sisters, the Misses Alice, Jessie, and Edith Kneeland, of New York City, and Vida Kneeland Pell (Vassar 1898-99), wife of H. Williamson Pell (B.A. Princeton 1902, LL.B New York Law School 1904), of Rye, N. Y.

Henry Manning Sage, B.A. 1890.

Born May 18, 1868, in Menands, N. Y.
Died September 25, 1933, in Menands, N. Y.

Father, Dean Sage, a lumber merchant in Albany with Henry W. Sage Lumber Company, son of Henry William and Susan Elizabeth (Linn) Sage, of Ithaca, N. Y. Mother, Sarah Augusta (Manning) Sage, daughter of Richard Henry and Sarah Porter (Swan) Manning, of Brooklyn, N. Y. Yale relatives include: William H. Sage, '65 (uncle); J. Fenimore Cooper, '13, Henry S. Fenimore Cooper, '17, Linn Fenimore Cooper and Paul Fenimore Cooper, both '21, and Edwin O. Holter, Jr., and Dean Sage, Jr., both '30 (nephews); and Henry W. Sage, '95, Andrew G. C. Sage, '96, and DeWitt L. Sage, '97 (cousins).

Albany Academy. Second dispute appointment Junior and Senior years; an editor of Yale Literary Magazine; secretary and captain of Yale Gun Club; member '90 Literary Society, Ivy Committee, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Chi Delta Theta, and Skull and Bones.

Had been engaged in land and timber business in Albany since graduation; with Henry W. Sage & Company 1890–93; with Sage Land & Improvement Company since 1893, as a director since 1893, vice-president 1898–1925, and president since 1925; president of Hudson River Regulation District Board 1922–1932; trustee of Albany Savings Bank since 1905 and of Cornell University 1900–04; first vice-president of New York State National Bank of Albany 1910–16 (director 1901–1929); director of Albany Insurance Company 1899–1922 and of New York Telephone Company 1926–1930; member New York Assembly 1898–99 and state senator 1911–1921 (member finance committee 1914–1920 and of civil service and rules committee); delegate to Republican National Convention in Chicago 1920; member Hospital Development Commission of New York State 1914–1920; member Sons of the Revolution; had contributed poems to an Albany daily and to New York State Service Magazine.

Married (1) October 29, 1895, in Albany, Annie W., daughter of Samuel Baldwin Ward (B.A. Columbia 1861; M.D. Georgetown 1864; Ph.D. Union 1882) and Nina A. (Wheeler) Ward. Children: Anne Erskine (Mrs. Georges Christian Balsiger) (died 1934) and Katharine Linn, wife of Don Ranieri Bourbon del Monte, Prince of San Faustino. Mr. and Mrs. Sage were divorced in 1910. Married (2) May 11, 1911, in Albany, Cornelia, daughter of Ledyard and Cornelia (McClure) Cogswell and sister of Ledyard Cogswell, Jr., '99. Children: Cornelia Cogswell and Henry Manning, Jr.

Death due to a heart attack and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Albany Rural Cemetery, Menands. Survived by wife, two daughters, son, a brother, Dean Sage, '97, and two sisters, Elizabeth S. Hare, widow of Meredith Hare, '94, of Colorado Springs, and Sarah S. Holter, wife of Edwin O. Holter, '94.
Ernest Lynde Selden, B.A. 1890.

Born March 8, 1866, in Hadlyme, Conn.
Died June 20, 1934, in Hadlyme, Conn.

Father, Richard Lynde Selden, engineer with Chicago & North-western Railroad Company; son of Richard Ely Selden (B.A. 1818) and Eliza (Lynde) Selden, of Hadlyme. Mother, Sarah (Loper) Selden, daughter of Rev. Stephen Loper and Sarah (Meigs) Loper, of Connecticut. Yale relatives include: Charles Selden (B.A. 1777) and George Selden (B.A. 1786) (great-great-uncles); Samuel H. Selden (B.A. 1848) (uncle), and Richard S. Spencer, '01, George S. Spencer, '05, and Lynde Selden, '13 (nephews).

Private tutor and Phillips-Andover. Member Gamma Nu and Sigma Nu.

Engaged in mining and iron manufacture 1890-93; paying teller Deep River (Conn.) National Bank 1893-96; engaged in mining in Colorado 1896-1900; chief clerk in Chicago office of Minnesota Iron Company (Duluth) 1900-01; in Duluth office of United States Steel Corporation 1901-05; chief clerk of accounting department of Oliver Iron Mining Company 1905-09, and of real estate department 1909 until retirement in 1910; had since spent winters in Miami, Fla., where he owned a grapefruit grove, and summers in Hadlyme; served in steel section of War Industries Board during war; first selectman Town of Hadlyme 1917-18, member of Connecticut General Assembly since 1932; on Board of Education of Town of Lyme 1915-18 and since 1931, member of Hadlyme Congregational Church.

Henry Leo Sherman, B.A. 1890.
[formerly Henry Leo Scheuerman]
Born December 5, 1870, in New York City.
Died July 11, 1933, at Lake Placid, N. Y.

Father, Aaron Scheuerman, a merchant in Griffin, Ga., whose parents lived in Bavaria. Mother, Emma (Schwab) Scheuerman; daughter of Berin and Sophia (Mann) Schwab, of Nordsbadt, Bavaria, and Natchez, Miss. Cousin: Bertram J. Cahn, ’96.

Samuel Bailey Institute, Griffin. First dispute appointments Junior and Senior years; two-year honors in political science, history, and law; honorable mention for Cobden Club Medal Senior year.

Studied law at Columbia 1890-91 and at New York Law School 1891-92 (LL.B. 1892); admitted to bar of New York State in 1892; in law office of Hoadley, Lauterbach & Johnson 1892-99 and member of the firm 1899-1907; partner in firm of Hirsch, Sherman & Limburg 1907-1927; justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York since 1927 and in 1930 designated a justice of the Appellate Division, First Department; member of committee for examination of character and fitness of applicants for admission to the Bar 1926-27; member City Planning and Survey Committee of New York from its creation until his death; counsel for Alien Property Custodian 1917 and 1918; delegate to Democratic National Convention at Baltimore 1912; president of Ruisseauont Company of Lake Placid since 1910; trustee of Hebrew Orphan Asylum, New York, since 1927; member New York State Bar Association, Association of the Bar of the City of New York, New York County Lawyers’ Association, the Society of Tammany, and Society for Ethical Culture of the City of New York.

Married January 5, 1903, in New York City, Edna Lucy Limburger, Smith ex-’98, daughter of Abraham and Josephine (Treusch) Limburger and sister of Herbert R. Limburg, ex-’96, and Ernest A. Linburn, ’95 S. Children: Ruth Therese (B.A. Vassar 1925; Ph.D. Columbia 1932); John Andrew (B.A. 1927; LL.B. Harvard 1930); and Herbert Henry, 1935 S.

Death due to cancer. Buried in Salem Field Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, daughter, and sons.

Thomas Gove Adams, B.A. 1891.

Born June 13, 1870, in Newark, N. J.
Died July 11, 1933, in Los Angeles, Calif.

Father, Thomas Dwight Adams (B.A. Amherst 1853); lawyer in New York City; superintendent of education in Westerly, R. I.; son of Hubbard and Mary (Storrs) Adams, of Canterbury, Conn. Mother, Malvina Minerva (Gove) Adams; daughter of Jacob and Abigail (Sanborn) Gove, of Newton, Mass.

Newton High School. First colloquy appointment Junior and Senior years; member Yale Union.

Director of Williams College Gymnasium 1891-93; director of athletics and teacher of Spanish at Belmont (Calif.) School 1893-96; studied in Yale School of Law 1896-97 and physical director of New Haven Y.M.C.A.; studied at New York Law School 1897-1900 and during that period served as athletic director of East Orange (N. J.) High School, Hasbrouck Institute, Jersey City, Jersey City Y.M.C.A., and St. John's Episcopal Church, Jersey City; admitted to Supreme Court of Tennessee 1898; went to California in 1899; in a law office in Los Angeles 1900-01 and taught athletics and gymnastics in Harvard Military School, in 1901 founded the Yale School for Boys in Los Angeles and served as its headmaster until 1931; had since been connected with Pacific Amusement Corporation; owner of Camp Halcyon at Big Bear Lake in San Bernardino mountains; director of summer Naval Camp at Corona del Mar, Balboa Beach, 1908-1924; vice-president Yale Club of Southern California 1910-19.

Married (1) October 7, 1899, in Providence, R. I., Marion Louise, daughter of Nathan H. and Celeste O. (Martin) Earle. No children. Mr. and Mrs. Adams were divorced. Married (2) in May, 1910, in Yuma, Ariz, Kathryn Ellis, daughter of Duncan M. and Susan Adrian (Winters) Murtaugh. One daughter, Gertrude Evelyn Ynez (University of California 1928-29). Mr. and Mrs. Adams were divorced. Married (3) June 25, 1918, in Los Angeles, Anne Margaret, daughter of George F. and Clara M. (Collins) Lance, of Reading, Pa. No children by third marriage.

Death due to sclerosis of coronary arteries of the heart. Buried in Rosedale Cemetery, Los Angeles. Survived by wife, daughter, and a sister, Mrs. Gertrude Adams-Fisher (B.A. Wellesley 1882; Yale Graduate School 1893-94), of Los Angeles.

John Wesley Doane, B.A. 1891.

Born March 22, 1869, in Thompson, Conn.
Died September 25, 1933, in New York City.

Father, John Wesley Doane, a coffee merchant under the name of J. W. Doane & Company, president of Merchants Loan & Trust Company of Chicago, vice-president of Pullman Company of Pullman, Ill, son of Joel and Olivia Primrose (Hascall) Doane, of Thompson. Mother, Julia Ann (Moulton) Doane; daughter of Joses and Sarah (Barnard) Moulton, of Gilmanton, N. H. Nephew: Bartlett Wicks, ex-'19
Harvard School, Chicago. Member Eta Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones.

Death due to cancer of the throat. Buried in Mount Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge, Mass. Survived by wife, a brother, John Edwin Doane, '86 S., and three sisters, Mrs. George E. Dresser, of Putnam, Conn., Mrs. Justus Erhardt, of Boston, and Lily M. D. Wicks, widow of Frederick S. Wicks, '73, of Syracuse, N. Y.

Parnell Ellis Fisher, B.A. 1891.

Born February 12, 1868, in Hopkinton, R. I.
Died September 16, 1933, in Providence, R. I.

Father, Samuel Schuyler Fisher; in drygoods business; son of Schuyler and Mary (Rawson) Fisher, of Attleboro, Mass. Mother, Sarah Albro (Hall) Fisher; daughter of Dutee Jerald and Sarah (Lawton) Hall, of Exeter, R. I.

East Greenwich and Wilbraham (Mass.) academies.

M.D. Columbia 1894; had since practiced in Providence; interne at Rhode Island Hospital, Providence, 1894–96, medical externe 1896–1901, physician 1901–05, visiting physician 1905–1920, and member of the corporation since 1920; connected with Providence Lying-In Hospital 1902–1927, as admitting physician 1902–08, physician to Out-Patient Department 1903–08, associate physician 1908–1911, assistant visiting physician 1911–16, and visiting physician 1916–1927; consultant at Miriam Hospital, Providence, since 1925; physician to Dexter Asylum nearly twenty-five years; president of Mount Tom Club since 1905; member American Medical Association, Rhode Island and Providence Medical societies, and First Congregational Church, Providence.

Married March 2, 1916, in Providence, Mary Frances, daughter of Thomas and Nancy Anne (Curley) Creamer. One daughter, Dorothy Rawson, Rhode Island College 1937.
Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage and diabetes mellitus. Buried in Chestnut Hill Cemetery, Exeter, R. I. Survived by wife, daughter, a brother, Deering J. Fisher (D.D.S. Philadelphia Dental College 1892), and a sister, Miss Mary R. Fisher, both of Providence.

William Revell Moody, B.A. 1891.

Born March 25, 1869, in Chicago, Ill.
Died October 12, 1933, in East Northfield, Mass.

Father, Dwight Lyman Moody, evangelist; founder of the Northfield Schools, son of Edwin and Betsy (Holton) Moody, of Northfield. Mother, Emma Charlotte (Revell) Moody; daughter of Fleming Hewitt and Emma (Manning) Revell, of Chicago. Yale relatives include two first cousins, Charles R. Holden, ’92, and Fleming H. Revell, ex-'07.

Mount Hermon. Second colloquy appointment Senior year; member Zeta Psi

After graduation spent a year and a half in travel; clerk with Fleming H. Revell Company, New York, 1892-93; had been connected with the Northfield Schools since 1894; secretary of the Mount Hermon School 1894-1912; executive head of that school and of Northfield Seminary 1899-1912; president of the board of trustees of Northfield Schools, Inc., from merger of the two schools in 1912 to 1925; chairman of board of trustees 1925-29 and since then member of the board; director of Northfield General Conference for Christian Workers since 1900; Litt D. Rutgers 1921; during the war served with Y.M.C.A. at Camp Devens February and March, 1918, and at Walter Reed Hospital in Washington under American Red Cross June–September, 1918; spent period October, 1918–February, 1919, in England on commission for British Ministry of Information, in France, and in Ireland, editor of Record of Christian Work 1897–1929; author: The Life of D. L. Moody by Its Son (1900) and D L Moody (1930); contributed to numerous periodicals, among them the Congregationalist, and to the Springfield Republican; vice-president of Yale Alumni Association of Western Massachusetts 1914–15; member Franklin County (Mass.) Chapter of American Red Cross and Trinitarian Congregational Church, East Northfield (deacon 1925–29).

Married August 29, 1894, in Northfield, Mary, daughter of Daniel Webster Whittle, Major in Civil War, and Abbie (Hanson) Whittle. Children: Irene (died in childhood); Dwight Lyman (died in infancy); Mary Whittle, wife of Arthur W. Packard (Ph B. Brown 1925; M.A. Oxford 1931); Constance Annie (Mrs Chase); Emma Charlotte (B.A. Smith 1927), wife of Frank R. Smith (B.A. 1917; M.D. Harvard 1921); Beatrice Hanson; and Virginia Holden (died in childhood).

Harry Leroy Pangborn, B.A. 1891.

Born April 19, 1870, in Jersey City, N. J.
Died May 8, 1934, in West Caldwell, N. J.

Father, Zebina Kellogg Pangborn (B.A. University of Vermont 1830, M.A. 1852; Harvard Law School 1853); editor and owner of Jersey City Journal; paymaster with rank of Major, U. S. Army, during Civil War; deputy collector of the Port of New York; son of Zebina Knapp Pangborn (Yale Medical School ca. 1820) and Maria (Walton) Pangborn, of Peacham, Vt. Mother, Harriet (Wood) Pangborn, daughter of Araunah and Emeline (Bartlett) Wood, of Malone, N. Y.

Hasbrouck Institute, Jersey City. High oration appointment Junior and Senior years; Scott prize in German Senior year; two-year honors in modern languages and one year honors in philosophy; member Phi Beta Kappa.

Married October 3, 1894, in Newport, R. I., Georgia Wood (Smith ex-'96), daughter of George Hazen Wood (B.A., M.A. University of Vermont 1838; Harvard Law School 1859-51) and Mary Candace

Death due to cancer of the throat. Buried in New York Bay Cemetery, Jersey City. Survived by wife, daughter, son, and a brother, Frederic W. Pangborn, '76.

Henry Crofut White, B.A. 1891.

Born January 29, 1869, in Danbury, Conn.
Died June 22, 1934, in Plainfield, N. J.

Father, Joseph Hand White, member of firm of Crofut & White, hat manufacturers; son of Thomas Phillips and Ann (Booth) White, of Bridgeport, Conn. Mother, Mary Amelia (Crofut) White, daughter of Henry and Sarah (Bevans) Crofut, of Danbury. Yale relatives include: Rev. Ebenezer White (B.A. 1733) (great-great-great-grandfather); Thomas P. White (B.A. 1766) (great-great-grandfather); Rev. Ebenezer R. White (B.A. 1760) and Joseph M. White (B.A. 1760) (great-great-great-uncles).

New York School of Languages. Second dispute appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; member Yale Orchestra and Alpha Delta Phi.

M.A. Columbia 1892; LL.B. cum laude University of the State of New York 1893; law clerk for Wilson & Wallis 1892-93; admitted to New York Bar June, 1893, and with same firm summer of 1894; assistant attorney Deutscher Rechts-Schutz Verein 1893-94; practiced independently 1894-98; member of firms of Cowing & White 1898-1902, Cowing, White & Wait 1902-1914, and White & Wait 1914-17, in New York City; associated with the firm of Groves & Depew, in Elizabeth, N. J., for a short time; member of firm of Moen & Dwight (Henry B. Barnes, '93, and Frederick Dwight, '94, also members) 1917-19, trust officer Corn Exchange Bank Trust Company 1919-1924 and again since 1929, solicitor 1924-29; served as chief signal quartermaster in New York State Naval Militia 1892-1900; on Conservation and Development Board of the State of New York and Boy Scout Council; trustee Taxpayers Association of Plainfield; author: Federal Income Tax Act—Annotated (1913); Speculative Transactions as Affected by the New York State Statutes (privately printed); member Bar Association of the City of New York, and Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church, Plainfield, N. J.

Married October 1, 1901, in Buffalo, N. Y., Elizabeth Louise Darrow (B.A. Vassar 1896), daughter of Charles Boynton and Frederica Maria (Von Michaels) Darrow. An adopted daughter, Leonore Darrow White.

Death due to chronic myocarditis. Buried in Mountain Grove Cemetery, Bridgeport, Conn. Survived by wife and daughter.
Cloyd North McAllister, B.A. 1892.

Born December 18, 1870, in St. Joseph, Mo.
Died October 31, 1933, in Berea, Ky.

Father, Thomas Buck McAllister, an iron worker. Mother, Mary Jane (Jordon) McAllister, daughter of Jeremiah and Margaret (Foresman) Jordon, of Door Village, Ind.

St. Joseph High School. Second colloquy appointment Junior and Senior years; member Phi Gamma Delta and Vernon Hall.

Taught mathematics in the St. Joseph High School 1892-97; studied in Yale Graduate School 1897-1900 (Ph D. 1900; member Sigma Xi); assistant in the psychology laboratory at Yale 1900-03 and an instructor in psychology 1903-06, also a lecturer on experimental pedagogy 1901-06; professor of psychology at Missouri State Normal School in Warrensburg 1906-1912; dean of the Normal School at Berea College 1913-1931; professor of normal instruction at Berea College 1924-1930 and professor of psychology since 1930; member American Psychological Association, American Philosophical Association, Southern Psychological Association, American Association for the Advancement of Science, Kentucky Academy of Science (president 1930-31), Pi Gamma Mu, and Westminster Presbyterian Church in St. Joseph.

Married (1) August 23, 1893, in New Haven, Jean Velmar, daughter of George W. Dean. One daughter, Helen Dean. Mr and Mrs McAllister were divorced in 1911. Married (2) September 5, 1912, in Monticello, Ark, Mary Bard, daughter of James William and Mattie (Bard) Snoddy. Children: Cloyd North, Jr. (University of Kansas '37); John Bard; and William Lewis

Death due to cancer. Buried in Berea Cemetery. Survived by wife, three sons, daughter, two brothers, William A. McAllister, of St. Joseph, and Robert L. McAllister (M D. Central Medical College 1898), of Marysville, Kans., and a sister, Mrs Russell J. Davis, of Mount Pleasant, Texas

Born May 20, 1869, in New York City
Died September 2, 1933, at Cape May, N. J.

Father, Rev. Isaac Riley (B.A. 1858; graduate Union Theological Seminary 1861). Mother, Katherine Antoinette Southmayd (Parker) Riley; daughter of Rev. Joel Parker (B A. Hamilton 1824; Auburn Theological Seminary 1824-26; D D. Princeton 1839) and Harriet (Phelps) Parker, of New York City. Yale relatives include: Henry A Riley, '70 (uncle); and Theodore W. Riley, ex-'77 S, Edward H.

English School, Florence, Italy, and Buffalo (N. Y.) Classical School. High oration appointment Junior and Senior years; member Phi Beta Kappa.

Married December 18, 1909, in Philadelphia, Laura Brooks, daughter of Edward and Linda Hull (Brooks) Troth. Children: Katharine Vaughan, Woodbridge Phelps (Class of 1937); Edward Troth, Margaret Drinker; and Annette Troth.

Death due to angina pectoris. Survived by wife, three daughters, two sons, and two sisters, Miss Emma V. Riley and Miss Katharine P. Riley (Certificate, Yale School of Fine Arts, 1901), both of New York City.

Howard Sidney Bowns, B.A. 1893.

Born January 28, 1873, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died June 12, 1934, at Great Neck, N. Y.

Father, Henry Edgar Bowns, in the coal business under his own name in New York City; son of William and Abigail (Northrup) Bowns, of New Haven, Conn. Mother, Félicité Marie (Menuez) Bowns, daughter of François and Marie (Faivre) Menuez, of Louisville, Ohio.

Adelphi Academy, Brooklyn, and Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. High oration appointment Junior year; oration appointment Senior year; on University Crew Sophomore year; member Phi Beta Kappa and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

In wholesale coal business in New York City with his father 1893-1902; member of firm of Pattison & Bowns for some years from 1902, then treasurer Bowns-Pattison Transportation Company of New Jersey; president Buck Ridge Coal Mining Company, Johnson City Store Company of Shamokin, Pa., Alcorn Lumber Company of New Brunswick, Canada, and the Gray Rapids Lumber Company, Ltd., of New Brunswick; commissioned Major, Ordnance Department, Officers' Reserve Corps, April 30, 1918, and assigned to Fuel Section, Control Bureau, Washington, D. C., in charge of anthracite coal; transferred to Quartermaster Corps, U. S. A., August 15, 1918, and assigned as assistant to Federal Fuel Administrator of New York City; received discharge December 5, 1918; member of Bay Ridge (N. Y.) Episcopal Church.

Married January 15, 1902, at Bay Ridge, Mary Bliss Kelley Whittlesey, daughter of George V and Frances (Bliss) Kelley and widow of Frederick R. Whittlesey, '87 Children: Priscilla, the wife of Donald M. Snell, Williams '29; and Howard Sidney, Jr., Williams '27.

Death due to asthena-hypostatic pneumonia. Buried in Green Wood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, daughter, son, three step-children, Clara Whittlesey Eddy, the wife of E. Welles Eddy, '09, Frederick Roger Whittlesey, and Anne Whittlesey Saunders, and three sisters, Mrs. Blanche E. Begg and Miss Felice M. Bowns of Guilford, Conn., and Miss Cecile M. Bowns, of Brooklyn.
William Thomas Capps, B.A. 1893.

Born April 12, 1871, in Jacksonville, Ill.
Died October 18, 1933, in Jacksonville, Ill.

Whipple Academy, Jacksonville Attended Illinois College 1889-1890 (B.A. 1905) Entered Yale as a Junior in 1891; second colloquy appointment Senior year

Had been connected with J. Capps & Sons, Ltd., since 1893; assistant buyer 1893-1915 and buyer and vice-president since 1915; director of Southern Gypsum Company, Inc.; member Trinity Episcopal Church (vestryman since 1907).

Married (1) April 27, 1897, in Jacksonville, Louisa May, daughter of James F. and Welthea (Clark) Potts. No children. Mrs. Capps died November 13, 1901. Married (2) October 5, 1905, in Jacksonville, Louise, daughter of Henry Stryker (B.A. Illinois College 1853) and Elizabeth (Henshaw) Stryker. Children William Thomas, Jr. (Illinois College 1927-28); Henry McClure (student in Yale School of the Fine Arts), and Elizabeth Stryker (MacMurray College for Women, Jacksonville, 1934)

Death due to diabetes mellitus and lobar pneumonia Buried in Diamond Grove Cemetery, Jacksonville. Survived by wife, sons, daughter, three grandchildren, a brother, James G. Capps, of Jacksonville, and two sisters, Sarah E. Tingle (Ph.B. University of Chicago 1898), widow of John Bishop Tingle (Ph.D. University of Munich 1889), and Miss Alice A. Capps, both of Eugene, Ore.

Walter Rumsey Marvin, B.A. 1893.

Born August 7, 1872, in Allegheny, Pa.
Died February 17, 1934, in Wilmington, N. C.

Father, Sylvester Stephen Marvin; president S. S. Marvin & Company, bakers; Sergeant, 28th New York Volunteers during Civil War; son of Aaron S. and Lucy M. (Stevens) Marvin, of Monroe County, N. Y. Mother, Matilda Earle (Rumsey) Marvin; daughter of Thomas Osborne and Matilda (Earle) Rumsey, of New York City. Brother, Earle R. Marvin, ex-’96 S.

Shadyside Academy, Pittsburgh First dispute appointment Junior and Senior years; member Psi Upsilon and Elihu (since 1908)
With Marvin Bakery of U. S. Baking Company in Pittsburgh 1893–97 and in Boston 1897–98; with Lion Tea Company of Philadelphia 1898–1900; connected with National Biscuit Company 1900–1919, at first in Philadelphia and from 1901 in New York City; vice-president and general manager 1917–19, vice-president of Pennsylvania Chocolate Company in Pittsburgh 1919–1924, in 1924 founded the Trust Company of Larchmont, N. Y., and served as vice-president until 1930; had since been president of the company; director of New Rochelle (N. Y.) Hospital; vestryman and treasurer of St. John's Episcopal Church, Larchmont; member Squadron A, New York National Guard 1901–06 and member Association of Ex-members of Squadron A, Incorporated.

Death due to carcinoma of the pancreas. Buried in Beechwoods Cemetery, New Rochelle. Survived by wife, son, and daughter.

William Allan Osborn, B.A. 1893.

Born October 27, 1869, in Cleveland, Ohio.
Died January 12, 1934, in Cleveland, Ohio

Father, Alanson Thorp Osborn; president of A. T. Osborn Company, paint retailers; son of William and Ann Amelia (Hotchkiss) Osborn, of Horseheads, N. Y. Mother, Catharine Allan (Chisholm) Osborn; daughter of Henry and Jean (Allan) Chisholm, of Cleveland. Yale relatives include: Henry C. Osborn, Jr., '33 S. (nephew); and Alvah S. Chisholm, '93, Wilson K. Chisholm, '98, Clifton Chisholm, ex-'00 S., Henry Chisholm, '01, and Douglas Chisholm, '09 (cousins).

Cleveland public schools, Case School of Applied Science, and private tutor. Oration appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; treasurer and member of board of governors of University Club; secretary of Banjo Club; member Eta Phi, Psi Upsilon, and Scroll and Key.

Student in Yale Graduate School 1893–94 (M.A. 1895); chemist for Cleveland Rolling Mill Company (now U. S. Steel Corporation) 1894–97 and head of analytical department from 1897 until retirement in 1900; had since devoted himself to research work in chemistry and photography; member Euclid Avenue Baptist Church, Cleveland. Unmarried.
Death due to carcinoma of the colon and pneumonia following an operation. Buried in Lakeview Cemetery, Cleveland. Survived by a brother, Henry Chisholm Osborn, of Cleveland, and a sister, Mrs. George R. A. Phillips, of Cleveland Heights.

Edward Holman Tracy, B.A. 1893.

Died August 15, 1933, at Cleveland Heights, Ohio.

Father, Rev. Melville Merrick Tracy (B.A. Amherst 1860; B.D. Hartford Theological Seminary 1876); Congregational minister in Minnesota, Kansas, and Colorado; principal of New Marlboro (Mass.) Academy, Army chaplain during the Civil War; son of Thomas and Anna (Page) Tracy, of Triangle, N. Y. Mother, Abigail Durham (Weston) Tracy; daughter of John Granger and Adeline Augusta (Tidd) Weston, of New Braintree, Mass. Yale relatives: J. Weston Allen, '93, Walter H. Allen, '95, and T. Rufus Tracy, '11 (cousins).

Preparatory School of Washburn College Second dispute appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; one-year honors in political science

L. B. 1895 (member Book and Gavel); during his course in the Law School taught Latin, civics, and history in New Haven Evening School 1893-94 and Highwood School 1894-95; admitted to Ohio Bar 1895; engaged in tutoring in Dayton, Ohio, 1895-96, had practiced law in Cleveland since 1896; director of Art Engraving & Color Type Company since 1913, president of Collinwood (Ohio) Board of Education 1908-09; solicitor for Village of Collinwood 1906-07; member Cleveland Chamber of Commerce, East Cleveland Chamber of Commerce, Cleveland Real Estate Board, and East Cleveland Congregational Church (clerk 1915-1923, deacon 1928-1932, and trustee 1931 and 1932), aided in compilation of Remington's Bankruptcy and (in 1931) of Hosford Addams' Probate Code of Ohio; lecturer at various times in the John Marshall School of Law, Cleveland.

Married September 4, 1902, in Canton, Ill., Anna Lee, daughter of John Bangs and Sarah (Dunlap) Allen. Children: Charlotte (B.A. Connecticut College 1925, M.S. Simmons College 1929), wife of Richard L. Browning (Case School of Applied Science 1921-24); and Barbara (B.S. Connecticut College 1927; M.A. Western Reserve 1929), wife of Peter F. Coogan (Marquette University 1923-26).

Death due to valvular insufficiency and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Knollwood Cemetery, Cleveland. Survived by wife, two daughters, a sister, Mrs. Ralph Henry Oviatt (B.A. Washburn 1883), of Longmont, Colo., and a half sister, Miss Abby R. Tracy (B.A. Wellesley 1900), of Sacramento, Calif.
John Cadwalader, B.A. 1894.

Father, John Cadwalader (B.A. University of Pennsylvania 1862, M.A. 1865, LL.D. 1912), a lawyer and Collector of the Port of Philadelphia; son of John Cadwalader (B.A. University of Pennsylvania 1821) and Henrietta Maria (Bancker) Cadwalader, of Philadelphia. Mother, Mary Helen (Fisher) Cadwalader, daughter of Joshua Francis and Eliza (Middleton) Fisher, of Philadelphia.

Dr. Faire's Classical Institute, Philadelphia; B.A University of Pennsylvania 1893; entered Yale as a Senior in 1893; oration appointment; member St. Elmo and Delta Phi.

Attended University of Pennsylvania Law School 1894-97 (LL.B. 1897); admitted to Pennsylvania bar June 12, 1897; had since practiced law in Philadelphia; member Board of Registration Commissioners of Philadelphia 1906-1911; president Chapin Home for the Aged Blind since 1925, Pennsylvania Society of the War of 1812 since 1925, and Old Philadelphia Library since 1932, vice-president Pennsylvania Historical Society since 1930; treasurer City Park Association since 1900; manager Children's Hospital of Philadelphia 1900-1928; director Pennsylvania Institution for the Blind since 1925; on board of Episcopal Academy 1919-1930; member American Philosophical Society; vestryman St. Peter's Episcopal Church since 1925.

Married August 22, 1908, at York Harbor, Maine, Margaret Nicoll Dudley, daughter of Henry Denton Nicoll (B.A. Williams 1863; M.D. Columbia 1866) and Anne Bancker (Camac) Nicoll of New York City.

Children: John, Jr. (B.A. University of Pennsylvania 1931; Trinity College, Cambridge, 1931-32, University of Pennsylvania Law School 1936); Anne, the wife of John H. W. Ingersoll (B.A. Princeton 1922); Henry (University of Pennsylvania 1936); and George (died in infancy).

Death due to sleeping sickness Buried in St Thomas' Churchyard, Whitemarsh, Pa. Survived by wife, two sons, daughter, mother, and two sisters, the Misses Sophia and Mary H. Cadwalader, of Philadelphia.

Herbert Humphrey Kellogg, B.A. 1894.

Born September 14, 1872, in Warsaw, N. Y.
Died March 23, 1934, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Father, Charles Alexis Kellogg; stock raiser and farmer in Warsaw and Carthage, Mo; son of Bela C and Mary Golden (Bartlett) Kellogg, of Avon, Conn. Mother, Minerva (Humphrey) Kellogg; daughter of Lester Hayden and Hannah (Blakely) Humphrey, of Sheldon, N. Y.

Yale relatives include: Rev. John Bartlett (B A. 1807) (great-grandfather); Rev Shubael Bartlett (BA. 1800) (great-great-uncle); Dr Francis B Kellogg, '83 (uncle); and Morrison B. Yung, '98 S, Bartlett G Yung, '02, and Sanford B Kellogg, '17 (cousins).

Carthage High School, private tutor, and Hillhouse High School, New Haven. Second prize in English composition Sophomore year, high oration appointment Junior and Senior years; second TenEyck prize at Junior Exhibition; two-year honors in political science and law Senior year, on Yale Debating Team Senior year, member Phi Beta Kappa

LL B 1896 (editor and business manager of Yale Law Journal; first prize in Wayland Club debate, president of Kent Club; member Book and Gavel), admitted to the bar in June, 1896, and had since practiced in New York City, associated with firm of Logan, Demond & Harby 1896–99; assistant district attorney for Kings County in 1899 and again 1912–1922; assistant United States attorney since 1924, in charge of civil and appeal division; member of executive committee of Federal Bar Association of New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut 1929–1930, counsel in New York City for State Excise Department 1900–1911, delegate to Republican State Convention several times; member New York State and Brooklyn Bar associations, and Federal Bar Association of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut; deacon Church of the Evangel (Congregational), Brooklyn, since 1933.

Married September 2, 1908, at Stony Brook, N Y., Gladys, daughter of Frederick John Falding (B A. Oxford University 1871; C E University of Freiburg) and Virginia Mayer Falding Children: Eleanor Humphrey (B A Mount Holyoke 1931, M.A. New York University 1932), George Alexis; and Herbert Humphrey, Jr.

Death due to pneumonia following an operation for appendicitis. Buried in Cypress Hills Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, daughter, two sons, a brother, Charles A Kellogg, 'oo, and a sister, Miss Mary B Kellogg, of Carthage

John Edward Lane, B.A. 1894.

Born February 12, 1872, in Whately, Mass.
Died October 17, 1933, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Rev John William Lane (B A Amherst 1856, graduate Andover Theological Seminary 1859), a Congregational minister in Whately and North Hadley, Mass; instructor in elocution and English at Massachusetts Agricultural (now State) College; son of Charles and Hannah (French) Lane, of Newfields, N H Mother, Mary (Haynes) Lane (graduate Mount Holyoke 1864); daughter of Samuel and Eliza
Yale College

Hopkins Academy, Hadley, Mass., and Phillips-Andover. First colloquy appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment and two-year honors in modern languages Senior year.

Taught at Overlook Military Academy, South Norwalk, Conn, 1894-95; studied at Götttingen, at University of Geneva, and at the Sorbonne, Paris, 1895-96; taught French at New Haven High School 1896-97 and at St Mark's School, Southboro, Mass, 1897-98; student in Yale School of Medicine 1898-1901, 1902-03 (M.D. cum laude 1903; member Nu Sigma Nu); house physician at Bridgeport (Conn.) Hospital 1903-04; practiced in New Haven 1904-09 and in North Yakima, Wash., 1910-13; physician for Yakima County 1910-13; spent 1913-14 in study in Paris and Berlin; had since practiced in New Haven, specializing in dermatology and syphilology; clinical assistant in medicine at Yale 1897-1910 and in dermatology 1915-16, clinical instructor in dermatology 1916-1920 and clinical professor 1920-23 and again since 1930; also consulting dermatologist to Department of University Health since 1930; consulting dermatologist at New Haven Hospital and Dispensary since 1923; attending dermatologist and syphilologist at Grace Hospital since 1919; during the war served as member of Medical Section of State Council of National Defense, war committee of Connecticut State Medical Society, and Local Draft Board No. 6 of New Haven; president of New York Dermatological Society 1927-28 and of Beaumont Medical Club 1922-23; vice-president of New Haven Medical Association 1921-22 and president 1922-23 (on executive committee 1923); vice-president of American Dermatological Association 1922-23; second vice-president of Association of Yale Men in Medicine 1926-27; secretary of Connecticut State Medical Society 1917-1920; since 1920, member and at one time chairman of the Council on Scientific Assembly of the American Medical Association, member of the house of delegates 1918-1924, 1926-1932, and chairman of the Section on Dermatology and Syphilology 1924-25; chairman of Section on Dermatology and Syphilis of New York Academy of Medicine (of which elected fellow 1916) 1919 and 1920; had contributed many articles on dermatology and the history of medicine to Journal of the American Medical Association, Annals of Medical History, Bulletin of the Society of Medical History of Chicago, American Journal of Public Health, American Medical History, American Journal of Syphilis, The Urological and Cutaneous Review, Journal of Cutaneous Diseases, Boston Medical and Surgical Journal, New York Medical Journal, Northwest Medicine, Medical Record, Yale Medical Journal, Saturday Chronicle, Yakima Daily Republic, and New Haven Evening Register; member New England Dermatological Society and New Haven County Medical Association, honorary member Société Française de Dermatologie et Syphiligraphie of Paris; vice-president of Graduates Club of New Haven 1925-26 (member of board of admissions 1922-24 and of committee on nominations 1927-28); associate fellow of Branford College; member Second Congregational Church, North Hadley.
Tal Obituary Record

Married May 19, 1909, in Ansonia, Conn., Alice Treat, daughter of Clark Noah and Laura (Treat) Rogers. No children.

Death due to myocardial failure. Buried in Orange (Conn.) Cemetery. Survived by wife, two sisters, Miss Susan K. Lane, Wellesley ex- 4, of Detroit, Mich., and Amy S. Lane Powell (B.A. Wellesley 1896), wife of William P. Powell (B.S. Carleton College 1882), of Amherst, Mass , and a brother, Wallace R. Lane, '00 L. Another brother, Wilfred C Lane, '01 L., died in 1925.

Ralph Reed Lounsbury, B.A. 1894.

Born November 3, 1871, in Meriden, Conn.
Died October 16, 1933, at Blue Ridge, N. C.

Father, Cooke Lounsbury, ’52. Mother, Isabella (Spalding) Louns- bury, daughter of James Spalding (M.D. Dartmouth 1814) and Eliza (Reed) Spalding, of Montpelier, Vt. Yale relatives include: Ralph G. Lounsbury, '18 S (nephew); and Rev, George B. Spalding, ’93 (cousin).

Hartford Public High School. First colloquy appointment Junior year and second prize at Junior Exhibition; second dispute appointment Senior year; contributor to Yale Literary Magazine; member Psi Upsilon and Chi Delta Theta.

Engaged in special work for Hartford Evening Post July and August, 1894; state editor of Hartford Courant August, 1894-January, 1895; associate and news editor of Bridgeport Standard 1895-97 and also studied law in office of Allen W. Paige, ’81 L.; news editor of Chicago Record and Chicago Daily News, assistant editor of Athenaeum Bulletin of Chicago (law journal) and attended Chicago-Kent College of Law 1897-1900 (LL.B. 1900; member Phi Delta Phi); admitted to Illinois Bar April 5, 1900, and U. S District Court September 30, 1901; practiced in Chicago 1900-1918, clerk in office of Hatch & Ritsher 1900-02; member of firm of Wood & Lounsbury 1908-1913; counsel and commissioner for National Association of Steel Furniture Manufacturers 1915-17, for Institute of Lithopone Manufacturers 1917-1921, for Association of Manufacturers of Pyroxylin Compounds 1918-1928, and for Institute of Dry Colors Manufacturers 1919; practiced in New York City 1918-1930, for a time as member of firm of Lounsbury & Maynard and later of Lounsbury, Ely & Fain; admitted to New York State Bar 1920 and to practice in United States Supreme Court 1928; professor of government and political science and director of Institute Married (1) December 4, 1897, in Springfield, Mass., Kathchen W., daughter of Frederick A. and Kathchen (Weill) North. Mr. and Mrs. Lounsbury were later divorced. Married (2) October 15, 1902, in Chicago, Helen, daughter of James Crisfield and Sara (Brackenridge) Beeks. Two sons, Richard Cooke, '25, and James Brackenridge, '31.

Death due to a paralytic stroke. Buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by wife and sons.
Warwick James Price, B.A. 1894.

Born November 25, 1870, in Cleveland, Ohio.

Father, Warwick Price; partner in the firm of Harmon & Price, lumber dealers; son of William and Edith (Ballinger) Price of Springfield, Ohio. Mother, Beulah Rosalie (Farmer) Price, daughter of James and Menbah (Butler) Farmer, of Salineville, Ohio. Yale relatives include three cousins: James E. Farmer, '91, Ernest M. Farmer, ex-'95 S., and Dr. Kenyon V. Painter, '89 S.

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. First prize in English composition Sophomore year, oration appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year, chairman of Yale Courant board; member Psi Upsilon.

Married October 11, 1899, in Springfield, Mass, Anne Rhodelia, daughter of Edward and Kate (Olmsted) Glover, of Denver, Colo. No children. Mrs Price died December 5, 1929.

Leland Stanford Stillman, B.A. 1894.

Born September 8, 1870, in San Francisco, Calif.
Died July 5, 1933, in Redlands, Calif.

Father, Dr. Jacob Davis Babcock Stillman (B.A. Union 1843); a physician in San Francisco and owner of a vineyard in Redlands, son of Joseph and Eliza Ward (Maxson) Stillman, of Schenectady, N. Y. Mother, Mary Gavitt (Wells) Stillman; daughter of William Davis and Abigail (Gavitt) Wells, of Westerly, R. I. First cousin: Harvey Farrington, '86 S.

Married October 25, 1902, in Hutchinson, Kans., Ada Lombard Latimer (B.A. Vassar 1894), daughter of Charles Latimer (graduate United States Naval Academy 1847) and Ada Howard (Lombard) Latimer. Children: Charles Latimer, ’26; and Leland Stanford, Death due to chronic myocarditis and acute bronchitis. Buried in Hillside Cemetery, Redlands. Survived by wife, sons, a brother, Stanley Stillman (University of California ex-’82; M.D. Cooper Medical College 1889), of San Francisco, and two sisters, Mabel S. Morrison, wife of Frank P. Morrison, ex-’78 S., and Amy S. Mulligan, wife of Edward H. Mulligan, United States Military Academy ex-’72.

Lindsay Denison, B.A. 1895.

Born March 23, 1873, in Salem, Mass.
Died March 25, 1934, in Thomaston, N. Y.

Father, James Denison (honorary M.A. Gallaudet); principal of Gallaudet School for the Deaf (now Gallaudet College), Washington, D. C.; son of Joseph Adam Denison, M.D., and Eliza (Skinner) Denison, of Royalton, Vt. Mother, Elizabeth (Lindsay) Denison; daughter of Richard and Sophronia (Fiske) Lindsay, of Salem. Yale relatives
John MacGregor, Jr., B.A. 1895.

Born January 21, 1873, in Akron, Ohio.
Died August 8, 1933, in Cleveland, Ohio.

Father, John MacGregor (B.A. Jefferson College 1863; LL.B. Northern Ohio Law School 1864), lawyer, president of Webster, Camp & Lane Company, manufacturers of machinery; treasurer of Akron Steam Forge Company; son of John and Margaret (McBane) MacGregor, who came from Invernesshire, Scotland, in 1828 and settled in Ohio. Mother, Harrnette Elizabeth (Folger) MacGregor; daughter of William Mayhew and Julia (Heydon) Folger, of Ravenna, Ohio.
Oberlin Preparatory School Dissertation appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; an editor of Yale Daily News; member Alpha Delta Phi and Wolf’s Head.

LL.B. Yale 1897 (an associate editor of Yale Law Journal); admitted to Ohio Bar in 1897 and had since practiced in Cleveland; attorney in the office of Kline, Carr, Tolles & Goff 1899–1901 and in that of Henderson, Qual & Siddall 1901–06; connected with legal department of Cleveland Trust Company 1906–1913; then practiced independently three years; partner in firm of Garfield, MacGregor & Baldwin (in which Arthur D. Baldwin, ’98, was also a partner) 1917–1927 and of its successor, Garfield, Cross, MacGregor, Daoust & Baldwin (in which Edward C. Daoust, ’09 L., is also a partner) since 1927; trustee of Cleveland Society for the Blind 1906–1926 and of Library Board Sinking Fund since 1916; member Troop A, Ohio National Guard, April 26, 1898–July, 1900; member Cleveland Chamber of Commerce and Musical Arts Association; director of University Club of Cleveland 1906–09; member general advisory council of Yale Law School Association in 1932; president of Rowfant Club since 1931.

Unmarried.

Death due to intestinal obstruction and pyelitis. Buried in Maple Grove Cemetery, Ravenna. Survived by two sisters, Julia M. McGuire (Lake Erie Seminary 1886–88), widow of John F. McGuire, ’90, of West Newton, Mass., and Miss Mary F. MacGregor (Lake Erie Seminary 1893–94), of Cleveland.

Augustus Stephen Peabody, B.A. 1895.

Born December 3, 1873, in Chicago, Ill.
Died April 27, 1934, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, Francis Bolles Peabody (B.A. Trinity 1848); a lawyer; founder of Peabody, Houghteling & Company, investment bankers; son of Stephen and Jerusha Pride (Bolles) Peabody, of Milford, N. H.

Mother, Harriet Cutter (TenBroeck) Peabody; daughter of Rev. Petrus Stuyvesant TenBroeck and Lucretia Loring (Cutter) TenBroeck, of Concord, N. H. Yale relatives include: Francis S. Peabody, ’81 S. (brother); James L. Houghteling, ’76 S. (brother-in-law); Francis S. Houghteling, ex-’03, James L. Houghteling, ’05, William Houghteling, ex-’08 S., Francis P. Butler, ’09, Stuyvesant Peabody, ex-’11, and Stuyvesant Butler, ’24 (nephews); Hermon B. Butler, 3d, ex-’36 (grandnephew); and Richard A. Peabody, ’81 (cousin)

University School, Chicago, and The Hill School Oration appointment Junior year; dissertation appointment Senior year; member Delta Kappa Epsilon.

LL.B. Northwestern University 1897 (member Phi Delta Phi); practiced law independently in Chicago 1897–1902; then entered the legal department of Peabody, Houghteling & Company (James L. Houghteling, ’76 S.), investment bankers; became a member of the firm in 1903, vice-president and treasurer 1918–1929; president of Peabody & Company, investment bankers, 1929–1932; resumed practice of law as senior member of firm of Peabody, Westbrook, Watson & Stephenson 1932; president Citizens' Association of Chicago 1921–1931, honorary president 1931–34, and director 1915–1934; president Chicago Chamber Music Society 1927–1932, and of Civic Music Association since 1928 (member of board since 1921); third vice-president of Chicago Symphony Orchestra 1925–1930, and second vice-president since 1931; vice-president of the Arts Club 1920–1932; trustee of Orchestral Association since 1924; member Yale Engineering Association

Howard Whiting Pease, B.A. 1895.

Born September 13, 1869, in Colebrook, Conn.
Died March 16, 1934, in Torrington, Conn.

Father, Horton Pease, druggist and postmaster in Thomaston, Conn.; son of Sylvanus H. and Emeline (Roberts) Pease, of Winchester, Conn. Mother, Julia (Whiting) Pease; daughter of Tracy and Phoebe (Slocum) Whiting, of Colebrook.

Torrington (Conn.) High School. Oration appointments Junior and Senior years.

Had been engaged in teaching since graduation; taught in a district school in Thomaston 1895–96 and in Old Lyme (Conn.) Graded School 1896–99; principal of South Side Grammar School, Bristol, Conn., 1899–1913, of Saybrook (Conn.) High School 1913–19 (also supervisor of local schools), of Glastonbury (Conn.) High School 1919–1921, and of Torrington High School since 1921; member Center Congregational Church, Torrington.

Married August 5, 1896, in Winsted, Conn., Elizabeth C., daughter of Wallace and Jane Eliza (King) Persons. Children: Margaret Whiting (Connecticut College ex-’20); and Wallace Horton (Harvard ex-’22).

Death due to carcinoma of the bladder. Buried in Hillside Cemetery, Torrington. Survived by wife, daughter, and son.
Richard Cameron Haldeman, B.A. 1896.

Born July 13, 1874, in Harnsburg, Pa.
Died October 20, 1933, in Harnsburg, Pa.

Father, Richard Jacobs Haldeman, '51; son of Jacob Miller and Eliza Ewing (Jacobs) Haldeman, of Harnsburg. Mother, Margareta Brua (Cameron) Haldeman; daughter of Simon Cameron, United States senator, Secretary of War, and minister to Russia, and Margaretta (Brua) Cameron, of Harrisburg. Brother: Donald C. Haldeman, '93.

Phillips-Andover. Second dispute appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year.

Studied at Johns Hopkins 1896–98 (certificate for proficiency in applied electricity); with Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Company of Pittsburgh 1898–1905; manager of Hagerstown (Md) Street Railways Company for some years; later engaged in farming for a time; president of Harrisburg Bridge Company since 1918 (director since 1910); director also of Commonwealth Trust Company, Jackson Manufacturing Company, Harrisburg Shoe Company, and Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce; manager of Harrisburg Hospital 1933; president of Motor Club of Harrisburg (of which a founder) and of Pennsylvania Motor Foundation; vice-president of American Automobile Association 1929; during the war served as chairman of Committee of Civilian Service and Labor for Dauphin County, Pa., and as county director of U. S. Public Service Reserve.

Death due to acute cardiac dilatation and myocarditis. Buried in Harrisburg Cemetery. Survived by wife and a sister, Mrs. Eliza H. Wright, of Harrisburg.

Lester Page Hoole, B.A. 1896.

Born May 29, 1873, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died January 1, 1934, in East Moriches, N. Y.

Father, William Henry Hoole, a wholesale hat merchant; son of John and Mary (Barnes) Hoole of Manchester, England. Mother, Celia Augusta (Dame) Hoole (Mount Holyoke 1869), daughter of Rev. Charles Dame (B A Bowdoin 1835, graduate Andover Theological Seminary 1838), and Nancy Jenness (Page) Dame, of Acton, Maine. Adelphi Academy. Second dispute appointments Junior and Senior years; active in organizing Basketball Team.

Attended College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia, 1896–1900 (M D. 1900); interne St. John's Hospital, Brooklyn, 1900, and later at Mothers' and Babies' Hospital; practiced in Brooklyn until 1911; on visiting staffs of the Bedford Hospital and the Bushwick Dispensary and on the associate staff of the Bushwick Hospital, practiced in Eastport, N.Y., 1911-18, and in Quogue, N.Y., 1919 until retirement in 1923, had since resided at East Moriches; on staff of Southampton Hospital 1916-1933, attending physician to Coast Guard Stations 72 to 77, 1918, medical examiner for Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, commissioned First Lieutenant, U.S.A., Medical Reserve Corps, July 10, 1918, stationed at Camp Greenleaf, Ga., where commanding officer of 11th Company, 3d Battalion, Medical Officers' Training Group, took special course in orthopedic surgery after the Armistice and then sent to Camp Pike, Ark.; received discharge February 14, 1919, commissioned First Lieutenant, Medical Officers Reserve Corps July 1, 1922, and Captain August 27, 1924; charter member Suffolk County Post of American Legion, and Commander 1921; member American Medical Association and New York State Medical Society.

Married (1) July 1, 1908, in Brooklyn, N.Y., Marjory Haydock, daughter of Hamilton and Ella Elizabeth (Henry) Wells. Mrs Hoole died April 11, 1928. Married (2) June 12, 1929, in New York City, Bertha Anna, daughter of William and Louisa (Lowe) Bliss, of Brooklyn. No children.

Death due to bronchopneumonia and chronic myocarditis. Buried in Arlington National Cemetery. Survived by wife.

Charles Vernon Hopkins, B.A. 1896.

Born December 11, 1872, at Catskill, N.Y.
Died October 16, 1933, in Cobourg, Ontario, Canada.

Father, Henry Hopkins; importer of iron at New York City with firm of H & J Hopkins, son of Caleb and Keturah (Hill) Hopkins, of New York City. Mother, Mary Elizabeth (Cornell) Hopkins; daughter of Samuel Mott and Emeline (Howland) Cornell, of New York City. Yale relatives include five nephews, Herman Livingston, Jr., ex-'05, Henry H. Livingston, '09, Edmund P. Livingston, '11, Samuel C. Hopkins, Jr., '23, and Howland P. Hopkins, ex-'29.

St Paul's School, Concord, N.H. On Freshman Crew in fall of 1892; secretary and treasurer of St. Paul's Club Junior year; member Psi Upsilon.

Had never been engaged in any active business; had traveled abroad frequently and spent much time in England but had made his home in New York City and Catskill; joined New York National Guard June 4, 1917, made Sergeant July 23; drafted into Federal service August 5, on guard duty, Lehigh Valley Railroad, at Bethlehem and in Eastern Pennsylvania August and September; transferred to Camp Wadsworth; served overseas July, 1918—March, 1919; saw active service in St.-Mihiel offensive, at Woevre, and in operations between the Moselle and Meuse; received discharge at Headquarters, American Camps, Winchester, England, March 6, 1919; member American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Catskill (vestryman 1911–1921 and again since 1928; warden 1921–28).

Unmarried.

Death due to heart trouble. Buried in Catskill Village Cemetery. Survived by a brother, Samuel C. Hopkins, '82, and a sister Emeline Cornell Hopkins Livingston, wife of Herman Livingston, '79.

Born April 6, 1874, in Greenwich, Conn.
Died February 14, 1934, in Augusta, Ga.

Father, George Kellogg, an architect; also partner in the firm of F. E. Weed & Company, coal and lumber merchants in New Canaan, Conn.; son of Matthew and Electa (Crofoot) Kellogg, of New Canaan. Mother, Polly Mills (Benedict) Kellogg; daughter of Caleb St. John and Hannah Elizabeth (Crissey) Benedict, of New Canaan.

Dwight School, New York City. First colloquy appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; member Beta Theta Pi.

M.D. Johns Hopkins 1900; assistant resident surgeon at Barnes Hospital, U. S. Soldiers' Home, Washington, D. C., 1900–01; had since practiced in Augusta, specializing in diseases of eye, ear, nose, and throat; associated with Dr. Theodore E. Oertel 1901–05; assistant in pathology University of Georgia 1905–07, professor of physiology 1907–11, clinical professor of laryngology 1928–31, and professor since 1931; member of Augusta Board of Health 1909–13, Richmond County Board of Education 1911–24; board of the Wilhenford Hospital for Women and Children since 1910, and medical board of the University Hospital 1921–28; secretary and treasurer of Richmond County Medical Society 1905–06 and 1912, vice-president 1908 and president 1909; director Young Men's Library 1929–30; fellow of American College of Surgeons; member Chi Zeta Chi, and Reid Memorial Presbyterian Church.

Married September 18, 1902, in Binghamton, N. Y., Loubelle Kniffin, Cornell ex-'98, daughter of Daniel McNiel and Harriet (Keith) Kniffin. Children: Minot Kniffin, B.S. Emory University 1929, M.D. University of Georgia Medical College 1933 (died February 10, 1934); and Annette, Hollins College 1937.

Death due to acute lobar pneumonia. Buried in Westover Memorial Park, Augusta. Survived by wife, daughter, a brother, George Kellogg, of New Canaan, and a sister, Miss Estelle Kellogg, of New Canaan.
Yale Obituary Record

Chauncey Wetmore Wells, B.A. 1896.

Born May 25, 1872, in Baltimore, Md.
Died August 31, 1933, in Berkeley, Calif.

Father, Lewis Gray Wells; secretary-treasurer of Turner Day & Woolworth Manufacturing Company of Louisville, Ky., and credit manager of Kentucky Wagon Company of Louisville; son of Lewis Wheeler and Affa Maria (Gray) Wells, of Columbus and Savannah, Ga., and Baltimore Mother, Mary Ellen (Wetmore) Wells; daughter of Chauncey and Rebecca (Hubbard) Wetmore, of Middletown, Conn. Nephew John Colton Wells, ex-'19.

Phillips-Andover. Entered Yale with the Class of 1893 but left at end of Freshman year; reporter for Middletown (Conn.) Herald and later for Newcastle (Pa.) News 1890-93; joined Class of 1896 in 1893; dissertation appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year, Courant prize Sophomore year; chairman of board of Yale Literary Magazine Junior year, member Class Ivy Committee, Chi Delta Theta, and Psi Upsilon Studied in Yale Graduate School 1896-1901; assistant in rhetoric at Yale 1896-97 and instructor 1897-1901; had since been member of faculty of University of California; assistant professor of English composition 1901-08, associate professor 1908-1919, and professor of English since 1919, studied at University of Paris 1910-11; author: A Book of Prose Narratives (1914), and Art of Narrative in Autobiography (1922), joint author (with S. E. Frazee), Grammar and Practice (1921); made honorary member University of California chapter of Phi Beta Kappa in 1906; member Philological Association of America and American Association of University Professors.

Married September 8, 1897, in Burlington, N. J., Mary Rebecca Prescott, ex-'84 Art, daughter of William Wallace and Rosetta (Heartt) Prescott No children. Mrs. Wells died October 20, 1931.

Death due to acute thrombosis of coronary artery and arteriosclerosis Buried in Indian Hill Cemetery, Middletown. Survived by two brothers, Hubert W. Wells, '89, and Ernest H. Wells, '93, and a half brother, James L. Wells, of Atlanta, Ga. Another brother, Philip P. Wells, '89, died in 1929.

Thomas Ludlow Clarke, B.A. 1897.

Born October 21, 1874, in New Orleans, La.
Died August 4, 1933, in Syosset, N. Y.

Father, Thomas Ludlow Clarke, a coffee merchant; son of James and Martha Owen (Holloway) Clarke, of New Orleans. Mother, Elizabeth Duncan (McWilliams) Clarke; daughter of Andrew and Pamela L. (Garnhart) McWilliams, of the Parish of West Feliciana, La.

Lawrenceville School. Coxswain of Crew; an editor of Yale Record; Fence Orator; member Delta Kappa Epsilon and Scroll and Key.

Clerk with brokerage firms of Brown Brothers & Company 1897-99 and with George P. Butler & Sons in 1899 in New York City; then with Thatcher M. Adams, ’95 S, formed brokerage firm of Adams & Clarke (Thatcher M. Adams, ’58, special partner), of which a member until 1902; member of its successor, Day, Adams & Company (of which George Parmy Day, ’97, and Julian Day, ’01, were also members) 1902-11; independent floor broker 1911-12; general partner in firm of Mabon & Company, members of New York Stock Exchange, 1912-1929 and then special partner until retirement from business in 1930; also engaged in farming at Oyster Bay, N. Y, 1908-1913; member board of managers New York Institute for the Education of the Blind since 1930; member School Board of Oyster Bay 1917-19; during the war member of Home Guard of Essex County, N. Y; member St. Bartholomew’s Episcopal Church, New York City.

Married April 30, 1907, in New York City, Winifred, daughter of Theodore Milton and Anna Welles (Kellogg) Ives, and sister of Raymonde Ives, ’08. Children: Martha Owen (B.A. Vassar 1932), the wife of William Harlowe Miller; and Thomas Ludlow, Jr., ’33.

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Memorial Cemetery, Oyster Bay. Survived by wife, daughter, and son.

James Israel Lineaweaver, B.A. 1897.

Born September 15, 1874, in Pottsville, Pa.
Died August 19, 1933, at Martha’s Vineyard, Mass.

Father, Washington Kline Lineaweaver, agent for DuPont & Company of Wilmington, Del.; son of Dr. George Peter Lineaweaver and Sarah (Toby) Lineaweaver, of Lebanon, Pa. Mother, Eliza Florence (Pleasants) Lineaweaver; daughter of Charles and Eliza Priestly (Bellas) Pleasants, of Sunbury, Pa.

Phillips-Andover and Hopkins Grammar School. Second colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years; secretary of Yale Golf Club; member Kappa Psi and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

LL.B. University of Pennsylvania 1900; practiced in Philadelphia 1900-07, engaged in brokerage business in Philadelphia from 1907 until retirement in 1918; manager of firm of Drayton & Elkins 1907-09; with sales department of Thomas A. Biddle & Company 1909-1916, member of firm of Wistar & Stokes 1916-18; during the war engaged in special investigations for the Government in Philadelphia; an editor of American Cricketer two years; member Military Order of Loyal Legion and St. Andrew’s Episcopal Church, Edgartown, Mass.

Married January 12, 1911, in Montreal, Canada, Alice Paterson, daughter of William McLennan (B.C.L. McGill University 1880) and Marion (Paterson) McLennan. Children: Marion McLennan; Charles Pleasants, Princeton 1935; and Frances.

Ray Llewelyn Evans, B.A. 1898.

Born May 13, 1876, in Cincinnati, Ohio.
Died February 26, 1934, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, Rev. Llewelyn Joan Evans (B.S. Racine 1854, B.A. 1856), professor of divinity. Mother, Sarah Elizabeth (Fry) Evans.

Franklin School, Cincinnati, and abroad. Attended Oberlin Academy 1892-93 and Oberlin College 1893-94. Second dispute appointments Junior and Senior years.

In grain and lumber business in Minneapolis, Minn., with Brooks Elevator Company 1898-99; in freight and traffic business in New York City 1899-1901; in iron and steel business 1901-03; then gave up business temporarily on account of ill health and went to Texas, remained in Houston and in the Southwest four years; later traveling salesman for Swift & Company and for Callahan & Company, a law-book concern, secretary and manager of Rogers Addresser Company of Chicago 1907-1912; had since been in investment securities business; with Kissel, Kinnicutt & Company 1912-1918 and with Babcock, Rushton & Company 1918-1923; vice-president William L. Ross & Company 1923-1930; vice-president Nichols, Terry & Dickinson, Inc., since 1930; during the war served as secretary of Civilian Recruiting Association and as director of Training Camps Association and of Illinois Food Administration; vice-president of Chicago Yale Club 1915-16 and secretary-treasurer 1918-19; member Presbyterian Church

Unmarried.

Death due to hypostatic pneumonia and nephritis. Buried in Oakwoods Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by no immediate relatives.
William Ruthven Flint, B.A. 1898.

Born April 12, 1875, at McIndoe Falls, Vt.
Died September 23, 1933, in Pasadena, Calif.

Father, George Washington Flint (B.A. Bates 1871); principal of Collinsville (Conn.) High School; president of Connecticut State College; son of William Henry Flint, Captain, 29th U. S. Colored Infantry during Civil War, and Emeline (Vickery) Flint, of Yarmouth, Nova Scotia. Mother, Mary Elizabeth (Monteith) Flint; daughter of William Ruthven and Isabella (Gilchrist) Monteith of McIndoe Falls. Brother: Harry M. Flint, '01.

Collinsville High School. High oration appointments Junior and Senior years; member Phi Beta Kappa.

Mechanical expert with Severy Suppression Process Company of New York 1898–1901; publisher of the Enterprise, a paper published in the interests of Arlington, Lexington, and Belmont, Mass., 1902, principal of Conant High School, East Jaffrey, N. H., 1902–03; instructor in science and mathematics at St. Johnsbury (Vt.) Academy 1903–05; student in Yale Graduate School 1905–06 and 1907–09 (M.A. 1906, Ph.D. 1909; member Sigma Xi); also an assistant in Sloane Physics Laboratory 1905–06 and in Kent Chemical Laboratory 1907–1910; during 1906–07 taught physics at Newark (N. J.) High School; professor of chemistry at Maryville (Tenn.) College 1910–11 and at Throop College of Technology (now California Institute of Technology) 1911–14; had since been in business as a consulting and engineering chemist in California; during 1914–16 made investigations in photographic processes at Mt. Wilson Observatory for the Carnegie Institution; consulting engineer with Rare Metals Refining Company of Pasadena 1917–18; operated a factory for ferro-molybdenum for California Chemical Company 1919–1920; conducted a private laboratory in Los Angeles 1920–22; had since been president of Vanessa Products Company of Los Angeles (trustee since 1927) and engineering chemist for the company; author: Chemistry for Photographers (1916); contributed to Journal of the American Chemical Society, American Photography, Inland Printer, American Journal of Science, Boston Transcript, and Granite Monthly of Concord, N. H.; member American Chemical Society and Second Congregational Church, East Jaffrey.

Death due to organic heart disease. Buried in family lot at McIndoe Falls. Survived by wife, daughter, two sons, and a sister, Miss G. Elizabeth Flint (B.A. Smith 1906), of Pasadena.
Leroy DeWolf Kellogg, B.A. 1898.

Born January 30, 1877, in Chicago, Ill.
Died August 1, 1933, in Pasadena, Calif.

Father, Milo Gifford Kellogg (B.A. University of Rochester 1870), electrical engineer; superintendent of manufacturing department of Western Electric Company; president of Great Southern Telephone Company and of Kellogg Switchboard & Supply Company of Chicago, son of James Gregg and Sarah Jane (Gifford) Kellogg, of Adams, N. Y. Mother, Mary Frances (DeWolf) Kellogg; daughter of Calvin and Frances (Kimball) DeWolf, of Chicago.

Harvard School, Chicago. Freshman honors division; oration appointment Junior year, dissertation appointment Senior year, member Yale Gymnasium Team

Attended Harvard Law School 1898–1900; had since been connected with Kellogg Switchboard & Supply Company, as secretary and treasurer 1900–04, director since 1901, patent attorney for the company 1904–09, vice-president 1909–1910, president 1909–1917, and first vice-president since 1917; retired from active business in 1917; had engaged in farming and raising pure bred Guernsey cattle at Deerfield, Ill, since 1914, director of United States Independent Telephone Association, Deerfield State Bank, and Walter G. Warren & Company (lighting fixtures) of Chicago; honorary member Lawrenceville School Fathers' Association; affiliated with Kenwood Evangelical Church, Chicago

Married July 23, 1901, in Chicago, Elsie, daughter of Samuel Richie and Levenia (Baker) Neel Children: Frances DeWolf (B.A. Vassar 1923), wife of Sven B. Gentzel (Polytechnic University, Copenhagen); Verne Louise (B.A. Vassar 1925); Leroy Gifford (Princeton 1922–23) (died in 1923), and Elsie Neel

Death due to a nervous breakdown. Buried in Oakwoods Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by wife, three daughters, and a brother, James G. Kellogg (M.E. Cornell 1906), of Winnetka, Ill.

John Dolph Carson, B.A. 1899.

Born December 25, 1871, in Portland, Ore
Died December 27, 1933, in Los Angeles, Calif

Father, John Crasthwait Carson, a surgeon in Sacramento, Calif., and subsequently in lumber business in Portland. Mother, Eliza Ann (King) Carson.

Bishop Scott Academy, University of Oregon 1889–1890. High oration appointment Junior year, oration appointment Senior year; member Dunham Boat Club and Phi Beta Kappa.

Married (1) in 1914. Married (2) June 30, 1923, in Los Angeles, Merriam, daughter of Greenwood Tarbell and Marion (Winslow) Fiske. No children.

Death due to cardiac hypertrophy and dilatation. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Portland. Survived by wife and three sisters, Mrs. Rose Sturgis, of Oakland, Calif., Miss Luella Clay Carson, of Claremont, Calif., and Mrs. Francis Platt, of Paris, France.

Frederic Winthrop Allen, B.A. 1900.

Born May 26, 1877, in Walpole, Mass.
Died November 25, 1933, in New York City.

Phillips-Andover. On Crew four years (captain in 1899 and 1900); substitute on Football Team four years; member Hé Boulé, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Skull and Bones

Associated with Simmons Hardware Company of St. Louis, Mo., 1900-1910, as assistant secretary 1900-06 and then managing director of purchasing; first vice-president of Mechanics & Metals National Bank, New York City, 1910-15; partner in firm of Lee Higginson & Company, bankers, New York and London, since January 1, 1915; chairman of the board of North American Reassurance Company since 1923; vice-chairman of board of Dunlop Tire & Rubber Company 1922-1930 and chairman since 1930; chairman of the board of American Enka Corporation; director of Air Reduction Company since 1917, Lima Locomotive Works since 1917, Remington Arms Company since 1920, Shell Union Oil Corporation since 1922 (also member executive committee), Vanadium Corporation of America since 1923 (chairman

Married February 4, 1911, in St. Louis, Mo., Irene, daughter of Yale College

Daniel and Justina Germania (Kayser) Catlin. Three daughters: Justina Catlin, wife of Frederick M. Eaton (B.A. Harvard 1927, LL.B. 1930); Irene Winthrop (Bryn Mawr 1930–31), wife of Benten H. Grant, '33 S.; and Martha Emily.

Charles Stephen Brooks, B.A. 1900.

Born June 25, 1878, in Cleveland, Ohio.
Died June 29, 1934, in Cleveland, Ohio.

Father, Stephen Edmund Brooks; president of The Brooks Company, printers and stationers in Cleveland; president Forest City Savings Bank of Cleveland; son of Henry Johnson and Abigail (Hart) Brooks, of Cleveland. Mother, Mary Elizabeth (Coffinberry) Brooks; daughter of James McClure and Anna Maria (Gleason) Coffinberry, of Cleveland. Yale relatives include. Philip G. Galpin (B.A. 1849) (great-uncle), and James C. Brooks, Jr., '30 (nephew).

West High School, Cleveland. Second dispute appointments Junior and Senior years; member Freshman Glee Club and University Glee Club three years; member Class Day Committee and Alpha Delta Phi.

Married (1) October 12, 1907, in Cleveland, Minerva Cozens Kline.
Yale Obituary Record

Tale Obituary Record

(B A. Vassar 1903), daughter of Virgil Philip Kline (B.A. Williams 1866). No children. Married (2) September 4, 1929, Mary Seymour Curtis-Brown, daughter of John S. Seymour, '75, and Clara Elizabeth (Olmstead) Seymour, and niece of Frederick Seymour, '81.

William Sloane Coffin, B.A. 1900.

Born April 15, 1879, in New York City.
Died December 16, 1933, in New York City.

Cutler School, New York City. Philosophical oration appointment Junior year and first prize at Junior Exhibition; high oration appointment, DeForest Medal, and two-year honors in political science and law Senior year; on Philosophical Baseball Team and Pierson Hall Crew, corresponding secretary and treasurer of Yale Y M.C.A.; member Kappa Psi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Skull and Bones, and Phi Beta Kappa (president).

Associated, as a director, with firm of W & J. Sloane (floor coverings and furniture), New York, since graduation; first assistant treasurer since 1924 and vice-president in charge of New York contract operations since June, 1933, trustee of Metropolitan Museum of Art since February, 1924 (became fellow for life in 1921), treasurer 1930-31, first vice-president May-December, 1931, and president since then; member finance committee 1927-1931 and had also been member executive committee and committees on American decorative art, buildings, cloisters, educational work, European decorative art, and purchases; honorary vice-president of Museum of the City of New York since 1931; president New York City Mission Society since 1919, Hearth and Home, Inc., since 1920, Henry Williams Company since 1923, Arts in Trades Building Corporation since 1924, Company of Master Craftsmen since 1925, Creekfront Realty Company since 1925, Munsey Park, Inc., of Manhasset, N.Y., since 1927, Child Education Foundation of New York since 1929, and Oneidacraft, Inc., 1933; vice-president Spring Street Social Settlement since 1905 and of City Housing Corporation since 1927; trustee of Presbyterian Hospital since 1908 and of Provident Loan Society since 1923, a founder of Art in Trades.
Club in 1906 and its first president, one of two Americans associated with two French directors in charge of Y.M.C.A. work with French Army August, 1917–April, 1919; made Chevalier of Legion of Honor 1919; M.A. Yale 1904; honorary M.A. New York University 1923; trustee of Spring Street Presbyterian Church since 1902; an elder in Brick Presbyterian Church since 1913; chairman of campaign committee of Interchurch Committee for Christian Relief in France and Belgium in 1919; vice-chairman of committee on relation with religious bodies in Europe of Federal Council of Churches in America 1920–29 and member administration committee 1920–24; member St. Andrew's Society of the State of New York and of Associates in Fine Arts at Yale University.

Married September 14, 1920, in Barnstable, Mass., Catherine, daughter of John Locke and Maria Ryder (Griffen) Butterfield. Children: Edmund, 2d, William Sloane, Jr., and Margaret Death due to coronary thrombosis. Buried in Sleepy Hollow Cemetery, Tarrytown, N. Y. Survived by wife, two sons, daughter, and a brother, Rev. Henry Sloane Coffin (B.A. 1897), a member of the Yale Corporation

John Sherlock Ferguson, B.A. 1900.

Born October 14, 1877, in Baltimore, Md.
Died March 14, 1934, in New York City.

Father, Thomas Barker Ferguson; graduate of South Carolina State Military Academy 1861; served in Confederate Army, United States Minister to Sweden and Norway and U. S. Fish Commissioner; son of James and Abby Ann (Barker) Ferguson, of Berkeley County, S. C. Mother, Jane Byrd (Swann) Ferguson; daughter of Governor Thomas Swann of Maryland (University of Virginia 1826–28) and Elizabeth Gilmor (Sherlock) Swann, of Baltimore.

The Hill School.

With Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company at Louisville 1900–02; had since been in the brokerage business in New York City; with Day, Adams & Company 1902–04; member of firm of Benjamin, Ferguson & McMurtry 1904–1917 and of Benjamin & Ferguson, members of New York Stock Exchange (Hamilton F. Benjamin, '98 S., also member) since 1917; member St. Thomas's Episcopal Church, New York City.

Married (1) March 14, 1910, in New York City, Donna Hamilton, daughter of Ralph Hamilton Beach. One daughter, Donita (B.A. Bryn Mawr 1932). Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson were divorced in 1921. Married (2) June 1, 1930, in New York City, Norma, daughter of Frederick Hamm and Madeleine (Oakley) Bidwell.
Death due to heart failure. Survived by wife, daughter, a sister, Elizabeth F. Locke, wife of Edwin A. Locke (Ph B. Brown 1896; M D Harvard 1901), of Boston, Mass, and a brother, James D. Ferguson (C.E. Lehigh 1894), of Rockville, Md.

John Harry Heaton, B.A. 1900.
Born November 11, 1878, in Princeton, N. J.
Died September 21, 1933, in Wingdale, N. Y.

Father, Augustus Goodyear Heaton (École des Beaux Arts 1864); artist and author, teacher in Philadelphia School of Design for Women; son of Augustus and Rosabella (Crean) Heaton, of Philadelphia, Pa. Mother, Mary Adelaide Whiting (Griswold) Heaton; daughter of Almon Whiting Griswold, of Newton, Mass. Yale relatives include a cousin, Ferrars H. Tows, '98

St Paul’s School, Concord, N. H. Took Freshman year with Class of 1898; entered Class of 1900 as a Sophomore; first dispute appointment Junior year

LL.B. Georgetown University 1903; practiced law in Seattle until forced to retire because of ill health, subsequently engaged in the development of rural land holdings in Washington State; member Roman Catholic Church.

Married November 10, 1906, in Baltimore, Md., Mary Elizabeth Jenness, of New York City. Children: John Goodyear (University of Pennsylvania 1928-29), Mary Griswold (Mrs. Grey Villemain); and Caroline Deming

Death due to cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York City. Survived by wife, son, daughters, and two brothers, Augustus Heaton, '97 S., and Dr. D. R. Perry Heaton, '06.

George Melville Shepherd, B.A. 1900.
Born October 8, 1879, in Minneapolis, Minn.
Died March 15, 1934, in New York City

Father, George Byram Shepherd; manager of Commercial and Financial Chronicle, in New York City; son of Nathan Thomas and Ruth Ann (Shove) Shepherd, of Pembroke, Mass. Mother, Louise Melville (Baker) Shepherd, daughter of Moses and Lydia (Durfee) Baker, of New York City and Providence, R. I. Yale relatives include a brother, Frederick R. Shepherd, ex-'89 S.

Lawrenceville School. Dissertation appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; contributed to Yale Record.

With Gallatin Bank, New York City, August–October, 1900; with W R. Grace & Company, exporters, in New York March–October, 1901; in drygoods business in New York 1901-07, as salesman with A D. Juillard & Company 1901-02 and from 1902 member of firm of W. Stoney & Company; salesman for Garden City (Long Island) Estates and Garden City Company 1908-1912; manager of Chicago office of Commercial and Financial Chronicle 1912-15; had since been in investment business in New York; sales manager for Blodgett & Company 1920-23, for Kissel, Kinnicutt & Company 1923-1930, and for Eastman, Dillon & Company 1930-31; independent broker 1931-33; senior partner with VanMeter, Shepherd & Hughes, investment counselors, since 1933; director of Great South Bay Yacht Racing Association 1927-29; member Alumni Council of the Lawrenceville School 1926-1930; served in Second Federal Reserve District during Fourth and Victory Loan campaigns.

Married December 28, 1904, in Brooklyn, N. Y., Rowena Beattie Uptegrove (B.A. Vassar 1903), daughter of Jerome Pierson and Florence May (Palmer) Uptegrove, and sister of the late Ralph P. Uptegrove, '10. Children: George Melville, Jr., '28; Florence Uptegrove (B.A. Vassar 1928), the wife of William W. Staplin, Jr. (LL.B. University of Kansas 1923); Louise (died in infancy); Janet E. (died in childhood); Deane (died in childhood); and Lydia Durfee.

Death due to injuries received in an automobile accident the day before. Survived by wife, one son, two daughters, and father.

Chauncey Blair Spears, B.A. 1900.

Born January 6, 1878, in Chicago, Ill.
Died May 4, 1934, in New York City.

Father, Harry D. Spears, a stock broker; son of James and Julia A. (Crooks) Spears, of Indiana. Mother, Lizzie (Downing) Spears; daughter of Augustus Cornwall and Eliza B. (Rogers) Downing, of New York City. Cousin. Augustus C. Downing, 3d, '07 S.

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. An editor of Yale Record; captain of Yale Gun Team; president of Intercollegiate Shooting Association; member Psi Upsilon.

With Continental Trust Company for a short time after graduation; later connected with Worshipoffer & Company, bankers, bought a seat on New York Stock Exchange in 1909 and had since been an independent stock broker; during the war served on local Draft Board; had had an interest in a ranch at Jackson's Hole, Wyo., since 1922; member St. Nicholas Society.

Unmarried.

Death due to pneumonia following an operation. Buried in Green Wood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by a sister, Miss Ethel D. Spears, of New York City.
William Kingsley Williams, B.A. 1900.

Born December 10, 1876, at Standing Stone, Pa.
Died April 25, 1934, in Washington, D.C.

Father, Rees Lewis David Williams (B.D. St. Lawrence 1873; D.D.S. Philadelphia College of Dentistry 1878); a dentist in Cheyenne, Wyo; Brevet Captain with 116th Ohio Volunteer Infantry during Civil War; son of David Llewellyn Williams (Cardiff College, Wales) and Sarah (Rees) Williams, of Aberdare, South Wales. Mother, Florence (Kingsley) Williams, daughter of William and Anna (Stevens) Kingsley, of Standing Stone.

Cheyenne High School and Cutler Academy, Colorado Springs, Colo. Junior and Senior oration appointments; one-year honors in English. Principal of public schools of Wheatland, Wyo, 1900-01; attended University of Nebraska Law School 1901-03 (LL.B. 1903); in a law office in Independence, Kans., 1903-04; admitted to the Kansas Bar June 23, 1904, had been connected with the General Land Office of the Department of the Interior since 1904; adjudication clerk 1905-1919, associate law examiner and law examiner 1919-1928, principal administrative clerk since 1928, LL.M. George Washington University 1906, member Federal Bar Association, American Judicature Society, and Universalist Church.

Unmarried.

Death due to acute myocarditis. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Washington. Survived by a sister, Mrs. Marian W. Clarke (B.A. Colorado College 1902), a member of the House of Representatives from the 34th District of New York.

Frederick William Arlt, B.A. 1901.

Born August 1, 1876, in New York City
Died March 8, 1934, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Gustave Arlt, real estate dealer and painter, whose parents lived in Germany. Mother, Caroline (Prelle) Arlt, daughter of Jacob Prelle, who lived in Germany.

Rockville (Conn.) High School and Williston Academy. Second dispute appointments Junior and Senior years. Studied in Yale School of Medicine 1901-03; M.D. New York University 1906 (member Delta Epsilon Iota), had practiced medicine in New Haven since 1906, member First English Lutheran Church, New Haven.

Married August 2, 1905, in Rockville, Conn., Agnes Katherine, daughter of Jacob and Margaret (Naedle) Nill and sister of Martin W. Nill, '09 S. No children.

Henry Chisholm, B.A. 1901.

Born October 1, 1878, in Cleveland, Ohio.
Died January 29, 1934, in Cleveland, Ohio.

University School, Cleveland. Member Kappa Psi and Psi Upsilon.

President Chisholm-Phillips Automobilium Company 1902-06; secretary and treasurer Champion Rivet Company 1907-1922; retired from business 1922; inventor of an automobile oiling system and president and general manager Standard Latex Products Corporation since 1932; member of Cleveland City Council 1903-04; representative in Ohio Legislature 1904-05; member Church of the Covenant (Baptist), Cleveland.

Married November 20, 1906, in Cleveland, Anna, daughter of Michael and Ellen (Foley) Laughray. One son, Henry, Jr., '32 S.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Lake View Cemetery. Survived by wife, son, three sisters, Helen Chisholm Hord, wife of John H. Hord, '01, Mrs. Frank C. Newcomer, and Josephine C. Burke, the wife of Edmund S. Burke, Jr. (B.A. Princeton 1900), and a brother, Bruce Chisholm, all of Cleveland.

Clifford Gordon Pearce, B.A. 1901.

Born September 20, 1876, in Glendale, Ohio.
Died July 19, 1933, at Forest Hills, N. Y.

Father, Christopher Gardiner Pearce, a banker, and president of United States Mail Steamship Line; son of John Russell and Eunice Bright (Gardiner) Pearce, of North Kingston, R. I. Mother, Virginia (Gordon) Pearce; daughter of Charles and Julia (Crawford) Gordon, of Washington, D. C.

Duval High School, Jacksonville, Fla. Entered Yale as a Sophomore in 1898; dissertation appointment Junior year; oration appointment Senior year; honors in English and history, member Phi Gamma Delta.

LL.B. New York Law School 1903; admitted to New York Bar in 1903; connected with law firm of Quackenbush & Wise 1903-04; mem-
Tale Obituary Record

Mr. of firm of Quackenbush & Pearce 1904-08; deputy auditor of accounts and legal adviser in Bureau of Law and Adjustment of New York City comptroller's office 1908-1930; chairman of committee on taxes and assessments of Tax Payers' Association of Forest Hills in 1916; member St. John's Episcopal Church, Jacksonville, and the Church of St. Mary the Virgin, in New York City.

Married June 29, 1906, in New York City, Blanche, daughter of Thomas Henry and Elizabeth (Hudgins) Bayliss. One daughter, Elizabeth Bedlow (Mrs. Charles C. Ritz).

Death due to coronary thrombosis. Buried in Kensico (N.Y.) Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughter, a sister, Mrs. Carroll T. Hickey, of Forest Hills, and a half-sister, Miss Mary Pearce, of Evanston, Ill.

Theodore Salisbury Woolsey, B.A. 1901.

Born October 2, 1879, in New Haven, Conn.
Died July 10, 1933, in New Haven, Conn.

Fay, St Mark's, and Pomfret schools. An editor of Yale Daily News; member Alpha Delta Phi and Elihu (elected in 1923).

M.F. Yale 1903; in United States Forest Service 1903-1915, as forest assistant 1903-06, assistant inspector 1906-07, inspector 1907-08, and assistant district forester at Albuquerque, N. Mex., 1908-1915; spent year 1904-05 studying government forestry in Switzerland, France, Germany, and British India, in 1912 and 1913 studied French forests in France, Corsica, Tunisia, and Algeria, and in 1926 made study of French forests in Morocco; lecturer at Yale on organization and management of national forests 1911-12 and on forest management 1916-17, then appointed assistant professor of forestry at Yale, but given leave of absence to serve in the Army; commissioned Major of 20th
Engineers (Forestry) August 7, 1917; overseas August 22, 1917, served as American delegate on executive committee of Inter-Allied War Wood Commission in Paris until May 31, 1919; promoted Lieutenant Colonel April 7, 1919; received citation from General Pershing April 19, 1919; made a Chevalier of Legion of Honor (France) April 28, 1919; returned to this country June 17, 1919, and received his discharge July 15; received Distinguished Service Order of Great Britain July 27 and made a Chevalier of Order of Leopold of Belgium in October; appointed to Officers’ Reserve Corps (Engineers) in 1924; since July, 1919, had been engaged as a consulting forester; consulting forester and fellow of Middlebury College since 1922; consulting forester to Alfred Atmore Pape Foundation, Inc. (now the Pape-Brooks Foundation, Inc.); special lecturer at New York State College of Forestry 1923–25 and lecturer on forestry at Syracuse University 1923; secretary of Connecticut Forest and Park Association 1921–24, treasurer 1924–25, treasurer and vice-president 1925–28, and president since 1928; in charge of third New England Forestry Congress at Hartford 1928; director of Sleeping Giant Park Association, Mount Carmel, Conn., 1926–28, of New Haven Bank since 1929 and of New Haven Colony Historical Society 1929–1931 (member publication committee 1930–31); a governor of the Graduates Club, New Haven, 1927–1930; member St. Thomas’ Episcopal Church, New Haven (vestryman since 1932), member advisory board Yale School of Forestry; vice-president of Yale Alumni Association of New Mexico 1915–17; president of Albuquerque Country Club 1910–12; associate editor of Forest Quarterly 1915–1927; author: Western Yellow Pine in Arizona and New Mexico (1911), Norway Pine in the Lake States (1914), French Forests and Forestry (1917), Studies in French Forestry (1920), American Forest Regulation (1922), and Riding the Chuck Line (1930); contributed to Journal of Forestry, Forestry and Irrigation, Indian Forester, American Forests and Forest Life, Wood Turning, and Yale Forest School News; member Society of American Foresters (on executive committee) and Société de Franche-Comté et Belfort, of Besançon, France.

Married March 15, 1908, in Albuquerque, Ruby Hilsman Pickett (Wesleyan College, Georgia, 1901–03), daughter of Thomas Hamilton Pickett (graduate Bowdoin College, Georgia) and Elizabeth (Davenport) Pickett, of Dawson, Ga. Children: Elizabeth Davenport (B.A. Vassar 1930); Anne Salisbury (B.A. Vassar 1932; Class of 1936 at Yale School of Music); Edith, 2d; Sara Pickett, Vassar 1935; and Patricia. Took his own life. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, five daughters, and a brother, Heathcote M. Woolsey, ’07.
William Stickney Creevey, B.A. 1902.

Born August 29, 1880, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died August 31, 1933, in New Rochelle, N. Y.

Father, John Kennedy Creevey (B.A. 1866; LL.B. New York University 1873) Mother, Caroline Alathea (Stickney) Creevey (graduate Wheaton Seminary, now College, 1866). Yale relatives include: Alexander Wolcott (B.A. 1731) (great-great-great-great-grandfather); Rev. Joseph Strong (B.A. 1749) (great-great-great-great-uncle); Rev. Enoch Hale and Nathan Hale (both B.A. 1773) and Rev. Samuel Austin (B.A. 1783) (great-great-great-uncles); Rev. David Hale (B.A. 1785) (great-great-grandfather); and Dr. George M. Creevey, '93 (first cousin).

Adelphi Academy and Brooklyn High School. Chamberlain Greek prize at entrance, third Freshman scholar, oration appointment Junior year, dissertation appointment Senior year; member Swimming Team, Freshman and Apollo Glee clubs, Yale Corinthian Yacht Club, and Yale Orchestra.

LL.B. Columbia 1905, practiced in New York City 1905–1919, except for time spent in service, clerk with Bergen & Prendergast 1905–06 and in office of Julius H. Cohen 1906–07, member of firm of Cohen, Creevey & Richter 1907–1915, in partnership with his father under firm name of Creevey & Creevey 1915–19; enlisted as Private in the Medical Corps in June, 1917; overseas July 2, 1917; stationed at Base Hospital 15 (Roosevelt Hospital Unit) at Chaumont as assistant interpreter and later in charge of canteen; returned to United States in January, 1918, and received his discharge January 31; engaged in growing citrus fruits at Fort Myers, Fla., 1919–1926; member of real estate firm of Creevey & MacDonald at Fort Myers 1926–27, practiced law independently at Fort Myers 1927–28 and since then at White Plains, N. Y.; member American Legion, National Tennis Umpires Association, Florida Public Courts Tennis Association, and Grace Church (Anglican-Catholic), White Plains (choirmaster since 1928).

Unmarried.

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in West Cemetery, Meriden, Conn. Survived by a sister, Mrs. Arthur Ellis Hamm (B.A. Smith 1905), of New York City.

Alton Farrel, B.A. 1902.

Born August 22, 1879, in Ansonia, Conn.
Died March 28, 1934, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Alton Farrel; secretary of Farrel Foundry & Machine Company, of Ansonia, son of Almon and Ruth Emma (Warner) Farrel, of Waterbury, Conn. Mother, Julia Elizabeth (Clark) Farrel; daughter of Wilson Hart Clark (LL.B. 1845) and Julia Elizabeth (Cable) Clark, of Ansonia. Yale relatives include: Alton Austin Cheney, '29, and Charles B. Cheney, '34 (nephews); and Franklin Farrel, Jr., '03, and Thomas Wallace, 3d, ex-'14 (cousins).

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. On Freshman Glee Club; heeled the News; member Dramatic Association, Gun Club, Yale Corinthian Yacht Club, and Psi Upsilon; honorary member Elihu.

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Pine Grove Cemetery, Ansonia. Survived by wife, daughter, sons, and a sister, Lillian F. Cheney, wife of Dr. B. Austin Cheney, '88.
Lyttleton Fox, B.A. 1902.

Born February 22, 1881, in New York City.
Died April 23, 1934, in New York City.

Father, Edward Campbell Fox; partner in firm of Edward C. Fox & Company, members New York Stock Exchange; son of Charles James Fox (William and Mary 1844) and Henrietta (Tazewell) Fox, of Richmond, Va. Mother, Mary (Eddy) Fox; daughter of John and Sarah M. (Clark) Eddy, of Milford, N. Y. Yale relatives include a nephew, Stuart Duncan Preston, Jr., '37

Lawrenceville School. First colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years; chairman of board of Yale Literary Magazine; an editor of Yale Courant, on Second Football Team; a Class Historian, member Wigwam Debating Club, Alpha Delta Phi, and Chi Delta Theta.

Married September 19, 1905, at Good Ground, N. Y., Genevieve, daughter of Morgan Joseph O'Brien (B.A. St. John's 1872; M.A. St. Francis Xavier 1873; LL.B Columbia 1875; LL.D. St. John's 1888 and Columbia 1904; Ph.D. Villa Nova 1902) and Rose Mary (Crimmins) O'Brien, and sister of Morgan J. O'Brien, '11, Esmond P. O'Brien, '12, and Kenneth O'Brien, '17 Children: Genevieve, wife of Quincy S. Cabot, Harvard ex-'23; Constance, wife of William Barclay Harding, ex-'30; Cathleen Phyllis; and Lyttleton, Jr., '31

Death due to a heart attack Buried in Cemetery of First Methodist Episcopal Church, Milford, N. Y. Survived by wife, daughters, son, three grandchildren, and mother.

Charles Duncan Miller, B.A. 1902.

Born June 10, 1881, in New York City.
Died May 7, 1934, in New York City.

Father, Charles Addison Miller, '59. Mother, Mary Elizabeth (Ely) Miller; daughter of David Jay and Caroline Wheeler (Duncan) Ely, of Chicago, Ill. Yale relatives include Rev. Elias P. Ely (honorary B.A. 1831) (great-uncle); James E. Miller, '04 (brother); James R. Ely, '82 (uncle); David J. Ely, '13 (cousin); Edward P. Isham, '25, and Percy Whitman Knapp, '31 (nephews); and Wallace P. Knapp, '86 (brother-in-law).

Berkeley School, New York City. High oration appointment Junior year; oration appointment Senior year, Scott prize in French Junior year; member Corinthian Yacht Club and Phi Beta Kappa.

Attended Columbia Law School 1902-05 (LL.B. 1905; member Phi Delta Phi; an editor Columbia Law Review); associated with Lord, Day & Lord 1905-09; partner in law firms of Low, Miller & Low (Benjamin R. C. Low and Ethelbert I. Low, both '02), in New York City, 1909-1923; Hoes, Low & Miller (Benjamin R. C. Low) 1923-28, Hoes & Miller 1928-1930; Platt, Taylor & Walker (William D. Hart, '04, also a member) 1930-January 1, 1934; and of Platt & Walker since January, 1934; attended Officers' Training Camp, Plattsburg, May-August, 1917; and commissioned Second Lieutenant of Infantry August 15; assigned to 305th Infantry; promoted First Lieutenant January 3, 1918; overseas March 14, 1918-April 24, 1919; served at Pas de Calais and Vesle-Aisne; gassed August 16, 1918; discharged May 10, 1919; town supervisor of Smithtown, N. Y., 1920-24 and a village trustee 1928-1930; member Grace Episcopal Church, New York City, and of St. James Episcopal Church, St. James, N. Y.

Married August 16, 1917, in New York City, Evelyn Spencer, daughter of Frank Spencer Witherbee, '74, and Mary Rhinelander (Stewart) Witherbee, and sister of Lispenard S. Witherbee, '07.

Children: Charles Duncan, Jr., and Evelyn Stewart.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in St. James Episcopal Church Cemetery. Survived by wife, son, daughter, and a sister, Mrs. Laura D. Isham, of New York City, widow of Edward S. Isham, '91.
Samuel Russell Bogue, B.A. 1903.

Born July 18, 1879, in Truxillo, Peru, S. A.
Died May 23, 1934, in Detroit, Mich.

North Division High School, Chicago; Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute In Yale Freshman Navy; on University Crew three years, member Class Day committee, Yale Dramatic Association, and Alpha Delta Phi

Married (1) October 7, 1908, in San Francisco, Maude Lingard, daughter of William and Elizabeth (Matthews) Payne Mr and Mrs Bogue were divorced in 1918 Married (2) June 2, 1919, in Jersey City, N. J., Ione, daughter of Charles August and Clara Louise (Moore) Millner. No children by either marriage.

Death due to acute cardiac dilatation. Buried in Woodmere Cemetery, Detroit. Survived by wife.

Morton Cross Fitch, B.A. 1903.

Born June 18, 1881, in New York City.
Died September 30, 1933, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Father, Ashbel Parmelee Fitch, Columbia ex-'70 L.; president of Trust Company of America; comptroller of New York City; representative in Congress; son of Edward and Fannie (Parmelee) Fitch, of Malone, N. Y. Mother, Elizabeth Adelia (Cross) Fitch; daughter of George and Julia Ann (Lewis) Cross. Yale relatives include three nephews: Ashbel P. Fitch, Jr., ex-'26, Frederic B. Fitch, '31, and Parmelee H. Fitch, '37.

Phillips-Andover. Second colloquy appointment Junior year; first colloquy appointment Senior year; secretary of University Baseball Association, manager of College Baseball Team Junior year; member Psi Upsilon and Elihu (graduate president since 1932).

LL B. New York Law School 1905; had since practiced in New York City; in 1904 clerk with firm of Ashbel P. Fitch, Mott & Grant, of which his brother, Ashbel P. Fitch, '98, was head and Frederick E. Grant, '92, a member; associate in firm of Fitch & Grant 1904–1926 and partner 1926–1932; had since been partner in its successor, Fitch, Grant & Clark; during the war served as associate member of Legal Advisory Board of District 23, New York City, vice-president 1903 Yale College Fund in 1933.

Married January 22, 1907, in Brooklyn, Florence Emily, daughter of James and Emily (Hart) Foster, and sister of Hervey L. Foster, '08 S.

Children: Marjorie (B.A. Smith 1930), wife of Richard W. Lawrence, Jr (B S. Princeton 1931); and Morton Cross, Jr., '33.

John Randolph Robinson, B.A. 1903.

Born November 12, 1879, in Baltimore, Md.
Died October 6, 1933, in Westbury, N. Y.

Father, John Moncure Robinson (B.S. Harvard 1856); president of Seaboard Air Line Railroad; Colonel of Engineers and military superintendent of railways of the Confederacy; son of Moncure Robinson (College of William and Mary 1785) and Mary (Biddle) Robinson, of Philadelphia. Mother, Maria Champe (Conway) Robinson; daughter of Dr James Conway and Ellen (Bradfute) Conway, of Richmond, Va.

St. Paul’s School, Concord, N. H. An editor of Pot-Pourri; a governor of the University Club; Cup Man; member Sophomore German, Junior Promenade, and Triennial committees, Eta Phi, Alpha Delta Phi, and Scroll and Key.

Took special course in chemistry and metallurgy at Johns Hopkins 1903-04, had since been connected with Harbison-Walker Refractories Company of Pittsburgh, salesman until 1908, general eastern manager 1908-09, and district sales manager in New York City since 1909; member Church of the Advent (Episcopal), Westbury.

Married December 5, 1906, in Erie, Pa., Mary Fletcher, daughter of Joseph Prescott and Celia Wright (Fletcher) Metcalf. Three daughters, Celia Randolph, Ruth, and Barbara.

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Friends Cemetery, Westbury.
Survived by wife, three daughters, and three sisters, Mrs. George T. Mordecai, of Baltimore, Mrs. Richard Morton, of Annapolis, Md., and Mrs. Edward Crozer, of New York City.

Maude Edwin Dunaway, B.A. 1904.

Died February 7, 1934, at Little Rock, Ark.

Father, John Dunaway, a farmer in Conway, Ark.; Private in Confederate Army during Civil War, son of Isaiah Dunaway, of Lonoke County, Ark. Mother, Emily (Blackwood) Dunaway, daughter of John and Hettie (Locey) Blackwood, of Austin, Ark.

Conway public schools. B.A. Hendrix College 1903. Entered Yale as a Senior.

LL.B. University of Arkansas 1906; had since been engaged in the practice of law; partner in firm of Riffel, Dunaway & Cox 1909-1911, and of Riffel & Dunaway, at Little Rock, 1911-17; member of firm of Murphy, McHaney & Dunaway 1919-1927, had practiced alone since 1927, deputy prosecuting attorney of Little Rock 1910; district attorney for Little Rock District 1913-19; had been engaged in farming in Lonoke and Pulaski counties since 1907; member of House of Representatives, Arkansas Assembly, 1909–1911; acting head of English Department of Little Rock schools 1906–08; resident vice-president of American Surety Company of New York; author: Philosophy of an Arkansas Farmer and Other Poems (three volumes, 1921, 1922, 1926), and Songs of the Southwest (1928); former president of Arkansas Writer Publishing Company; member Authors’ and Composers’ Society and Second Baptist Church, Little Rock.

Married June 26, 1907, at Little Rock, Bessie, daughter of William Henry and Ada (Monroe) Eagle. Children: Elizabeth (B.A. Randolph Macon 1928); Edwin Eagle (Columbia 1936); and James Monroe (Columbia 1937).

Death due to cardio-renal nephritis. Buried in Oak Grove Cemetery, Conway. Survived by wife, daughter, two sons, mother, five brothers, John, Oscar, Louis S., and Julian Dunaway, all of Conway, and William C. Dunaway (M.D. Kentucky School of Medicine 1890), of Little Rock, and two sisters, Mrs. Wayne P. Sewell, of Atlanta, Ga., and Mrs. Fannie D. Goodman, of Los Angeles, Calif.

Harold Irving Gardner, B.A. 1904.

Born January 24, 1882, in Burnside, Calif.
Died September 11, 1933, in Whittier, Calif.

Father, Samuel Austin Gardner; general agent for Connecticut Humane Society at New Haven; son of Rev. Austin Gardner, Wesleyan ex-’56, and Emily Jane (Baker) Gardner, of Willington, Conn.
Mother, Mary Eliza (Fiske) Gardner; daughter of David Cooley and Mary Jane (Clark) Fiske, of Springfield, Mass.

Mount Hermon. Second Berkeley Premium in Latin composition Freshman year; oration appointment Junior and Senior years.

Graduated from Hartford Theological Seminary 1907; ordained to Congregational ministry August 6, 1907; pastor of Congregational Church, Melville, N. Dak., 1907–08 and Harvey, N. Dak., 1908–09; missionary in Turkey under American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions from 1909 to 1913, when resigned commission on account of ill health; stationed at Adana 1909–1910, Hadjin, where president of Boys’ Academy, 1910–12; on board of managers of St. Paul’s Collegiate Institute at Tarsus 1910–1913; spent years 1913–18 in regaining his health; lived in New Haven 1913–14, Lombard, Ill., 1914–17, and Chicago 1917–18; engaged in volunteer work with Y.M.C.A. at Great Lakes Naval Training Station 1917–18; engaged in citrus fruit industry at Whittier 1919–1922; had since been a representative there of Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States; member Whittier Chamber of Commerce and of Plymouth Congregational Church, Whittier (deacon 1921–24); charter member
Yale Obituary Record

Whittier Kiwanis Club, second vice-president of Yale Club of Southern California 1932–33.

Married August 3, 1910, in Goezneh, Turkey, Emily Frederika Richter, Wheaton ex-o, daughter of Edward August and Julia Caroline (Groskopf) Richter. One son, Paul Harold, Whittier College 1937.

Death due to Henoch's purpura and lobar pneumonia. Buried in Rose Hills Cemetery, Whittier. Survived by wife, son, mother, and a sister, Mrs. Frank L. Benjamin, of Hartford.

Alexander Holley Olmsted, B.A. 1904.

Born November 7, 1883, in Brooklyn, N.Y.
Died December 12, 1933, in New York City.

Father, Francis Howard Olmsted (B.A. 1874; LL.B. Columbia 1879) Mother, Gertrude Meredith (Holley) Olmsted; daughter of Alexander Lyman Holley (Ph.B. Brown 1853, LL.D. 1878) and Mary (Slade) Holley, of Brooklyn. Yale relatives include: Joshua Porter (B.A. 1754) (great-great-great-grandfather); Peter B. Porter (B.A. 1791) (great-great-great-uncle); Denison Olmsted (B.A. 1813) (great-grandfather); Francis A. Olmsted (B.A. 1839), Alexander F. and Denison Olmsted (both B.A. 1844), John H. Olmsted (B.A. 1845), and John C. Holley (B.A. 1859) (great-uncles); and Winthrop H. Brooks, '15 (cousin).

The Hotchkiss School. On Sophomore Class Crew and University Crew Squad, head coach of Freshman Crew for Class of 1907; an editor of Pot Pourri; member Psi Upsilon and Scroll and Key.

Took special course in electrical engineering at University of Berlin 1904–06 and in Lausanne 1906–07; electrical engineer for Société Anonyme Westinghouse in northern Italy January–July, 1908, and at Havre 1908–1911, assistant to superintendent of British Westinghouse in Manchester 1911–15; subsequently in practice intermittently as an electrical engineer and represented various United States firms in London and Paris until 1929; made his home in Chatenay-Seine; master in French at The Hotchkiss School since 1929.

Death due to Bright's disease. Buried in Salisbury (Conn.) Cemetery. Survived by wife, two sons, mother, Mrs. Frank E. Randall, a brother, Frank H. Olmsted, '09, a half brother, Paul King Randall (B.A. Harvard 1914), of Irvington-on-Hudson, N.Y., and a sister, the wife of Edmund J. Drummond.

Born February 6, 1883, in Stamford, Conn.
Died July 8, 1933, at Inishbofin, off the Donegal coast, Ireland.

Father, Rev. Timothy Hopkins Porter (B.A. 1848, Yale Divinity School 1852-53; graduate Union Theological Seminary 1855). Mother, Maria Louisa (Hoyt) Porter (B.A. Vassar 1868); daughter of Joseph Blatchley and Catharine (Krom) Hoyt, of Stamford. Yale relatives include: David G. Porter, ’57, and Frederick M. Hoyt, ’95 S. (uncles), Louis H. Porter, Jr., ’27 (nephew); and Thomas W. Porter, ’87, Nathan T. Porter, Jr., ’90, and Walter S. Hoyt, ’96 (cousins).

Browning School, New York City. Winston Trowbridge Townsend prize Freshman year; philosophical oration appointment Junior and Senior years; member Phi Beta Kappa.

Studied architecture at Columbia 1904-06; engaged in literary work in New York City 1906-08 and again 1911-15; spent intervening period in travel in Europe, chiefly in France and Italy, and engaged in archeological work on mediaeval cathedrals in France, especially in Lombardy, and in research work in the Milan and Paris libraries, lecturer on history of architecture at Yale 1915-17 and assistant professor 1917-19; B.F.A. Yale 1917; during leave of absence in 1918-19 in service of Ministry of Public Instruction of Department of Fine Arts of the French Government as Adjutant de Liaison in Commission des Monumens Historiques, assigned to Service de Protection des Monuments et des Oeuvres d’Art dans le Zone des Armées; professor of fine arts at Harvard 1920-25 and William Dorr Boardman professor of fine arts there since 1925; exchange professor at the Sorbonne, Paris, in 1923 and in Spain and to the French provincial universities in 1924, engaged in photography and study in France and Spain of sculpture in situ and of documents in the libraries during the period 1919-1923 and in similar work in Spain during the period 1923-28; Litt.D. Marburg 1927; L.H D. Williams 1932; author: Medieval Architecture (two volumes 1909), The Construction of Lombard and Gothic Vaults (1911), Lombard Architecture (four volumes 1915-17; awarded grande médaille de vermeil by Société Française d’Archéologie in 1919), Beyond Architecture (1918; 1928), The Seven Who Slept (1919), Sculpture of the West (pamphlet 1921), Romanesque Sculpture of the Pilgrimage Roads (ten volumes 1923), Spanish Romanesque Sculpture (two volumes 1928; translated into German and Spanish), The Virgin and the Clerk (1929), and The Crosses and Culture of Ireland (1931); contributed to Art and Archaeology, Architecture, Architectural Record, American Magazine of Art, American Journal of Archaeology, American Architect, Art in America, Art Studies (co-editor 1923-1931), Journal of the Royal Institute of Britisb Architects, Journal of the Royal Society of...
Edward Collins Stone, B.A. 1904.

Born November 12, 1878, in Hartford, Conn.
Died August 24, 1933, in Hartford, Conn

Hartford Public High School. Entered Yale with Class of 1900, but left at end of Sophomore year; attended Trinity College 1898-1900; returned to Yale as a Senior with Class of 1901; spent year 1901-02 at home on account of ill health; special student at Hartford Theological Seminary 1902-03; then returned to Yale as member of Class of 1904; second colloquy appointment Senior year.

Took graduate work at Trinity 1904-05 (M.A. 1905); subsequently member of the Trinity faculty, as assistant in chemistry 1905-06, instructor 1906-1911, assistant professor of chemistry 1911-1920, and associate professor 1920–22, when retired from active work on account of ill health; studied at Columbia 1911–13 (Ph.D. 1913; member Sigma Xi and Phi Lambda Upsilon); contributed to Journal of American Chemical Society; secretary of Connecticut Valley section of American Chemical Society (of which a member) 1917–18 and councilor in 1917; member Columbia University Biochemical Association, and Center Church (Congregational), Hartford.

Unmarried.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage and cerebral arteriosclerosis. Buried in Old North Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by two sisters, Miss Jane W. Stone and Mrs. Robert E. Todd, both of Hartford.

Charles Ferdinand Kerrigan, B.A. 1905.

Born June 18, 1882, in Brooklyn, N.Y.
Died May 21, 1934, in Brooklyn, N.Y.

Father, Michael Ferdinand Kerrigan, a United States internal revenue gauger; son of John and Isabella (McLaughlin) Kerrigan, of Brooklyn. Mother, Ann Cecilia (Benzie) Kerrigan, whose father came to Brooklyn from Buckie, Scotland, in 1825.

Erasmus Hall High School. First McLaughlin Prize Freshman year; honors in English composition Sophomore year; first colloquy appointment Junior year; second dispute appointment Senior year; vice-president of Freshman Union; on executive committee Yale Union Sophomore year; assistant manager of Debating Association Junior year and president and manager Senior year, secretary of Yale Dining Club Junior year and president Senior year, member Yale Dramatic Association and Linonia.

Attended University of Michigan Law School 1905–06 (member Phi Delta Phi); on staff of Brooklyn Daily Eagle 1906–1913, in news, circulation and business departments, and from 1910 legislative correspondent and political reporter, secretary New York State Department of Efficiency and Economy 1913–15; supervising examiner in the office of the State Comptroller 1915; with New York Bureau of Municipal Research 1915–18, secretary to Department of Finance, New York City, 1918–1924; deputy comptroller of the City of New York 1924–26; assistant to the Mayor 1926–1932; tenement house Commissioner 1932–33; assistant director New York State Military Census 1917, member Holy Cross Roman Catholic Church.

Death due to a heart attack. Buried in Holy Cross Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife and daughter.

Howell Bostwick Townsend, B.A. 1905.

Born November 7, 1880, in Walton, N. Y.
Died May 4, 1934, in Walton, N. Y.

Father, John H. Townsend, member of firm of Townsend & More, dealers in farm supplies in Walton; son of Colonel John Townsend and Sarah (Howell) Townsend, of Walton. Mother, Florence (Bostwick) Townsend, daughter of Jabez Bostwick, Jr., and Sarah Jane (Chace) Bostwick, of Hamden, N. Y. Yale relatives include: Dr. Platt Townsend (1750) (great-great-grandfather), and William Townsend, '71 (uncle).

Walton High School, Second colloquy appointment Senior year; sang in College Choir Junior and Senior years; member of Apollo Glee Club Junior year and of University Glee Club Squad Senior year.

Taught at Powder Point School, Duxbury, Mass, 1905-06; instructor in English at Poughkeepsie (N. Y.) High School 1906-09; manager of W. R. Kirkpatrick Company, dealers in coal and grain, 1909-1911; vice-principal of Walton High School and teacher of Latin 1911-1923, and supervising principal since 1923; held the agency in Walton for Buick automobiles for a time, trustee of William B. Ogden Free Library; member of Episcopal Church.

Unmarried.

William Everett Fay, B.A. 1907.

Born October 2, 1885, in Orange, Mass.
Died February 23, 1934, in New Britain, Conn.

Father, Frank Irving Fay, a watchmaker in Willimantic, Conn.; son of Gardner and Mathilda Caroline (Santry) Fay, of Williamstown, Vt. Mother, Lizzie Isabel (Morrill) Fay; daughter of William and Annie Louise (Eddes) Morrill, of Boston, Mass.

Windham High School, Willimantic, and Brigham Academy, Bakersville, Vt. Oration appointments Junior and Senior years.

Taught mathematics at the Windham High School, Willimantic, 1907-1911 and at the Newton (Mass.) High School 1911-12; head of mathematics department at New Britain High School 1912-18; sales statistician for Stanley Works in New Britain 1918-1927, and manager of sales service department since 1925; secretary and chief examiner of Municipal Civil Service Commission of New Britain since 1930; statistical adviser to New Britain Community Chest Corporation 1925-26; had contributed to Norwich Bulletin and Hartford Times; member Republican Town Committee of New Britain 1920-24; secretary of Commonwealth Club of New Britain 1916-1926 and president of Kenilworth Club 1916-18; member South Congregational Church, New Britain (superintendent of Sunday School 1918-1926).

Married August 30, 1919, in New Britain, Gerda Elaine, daughter of Swan August Carlson (Onestad Agriculture, Skone, Sweden) and Hildegard Augusta (Suneson) Carlson. No children.

Death due to an embolism. Buried in Fairview Cemetery, New Britain. Survived by wife, brother, Harold Gardner Fay, of Greenwood, Mass., and two sisters, Mrs. Edith F. Hilliker (Smith College ex-'10), of Xenia, Ohio, and Mrs. Mildred F. Hall, wife of Prof. Wesley B. Hall, '16 S., of New Haven, Conn.

Born May 11, 1885, in Denver, Colo.
Died June 9, 1934, near Deckers, Colo.

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. Member Duck Hunters Club and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

In charge of the family estate in Denver 1907-12; treasurer Cambridge Investment Corporation, real estate, 1912-16; secretary Nevada-California Electric Corporation, hydro-electric power, in Denver, since 1916; director Southern Sierras Power Company since 1916; director Nevada-California Electric Corporation 1923-25 and since 1931; treasurer and director Denver Country Club 1912-14.

Married (1) June 15, 1910, in Denver, Elizabeth Imogen, daughter of Thomas Franklin and Nellie (Campion) Daly. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher were divorced in 1923. Married (2) January 30, 1925, in Denver, Myrtle, daughter of John Wesley and Mary Wymer, of Kansas City, Mo. No children by either marriage.

Death due to an accident. Buried in Fairmount Cemetery, Denver. Survived by wife and a sister, Mrs. Barbara F. Walker, of Denver.
Raymond Bartlett Morris, B.A. 1907.

Born March 19, 1885, in Eldred, Pa.
Died September 16, 1933, in Olean, N. Y.

Father, Jacob Eugenio Kincaid Morris (M.D. University of Buffalo 1879); physician in Eldred and Olean; Lieutenant in Medical Reserve Corps, U.S.A, son of Rev. Samuel Dexter Morris and Elizabeth Cornelia (Knapp) Morris, of Eldred Mother, Sarah Frye (Gillingham) Morns, daughter of Charles and Caroline (Ault) Gillingham, of Birmingham, England, and Olean Nephew: Richard M Morris, '32.

Olean High School First colloquy appointment Senior year; active in track and bowling, member Freshman Glee Club; during 1906-07 also student in Yale School of Medicine

M.D. Johns Hopkins 1910, house surgeon at Union Protestant Infirmary in Baltimore 1910-11; had since practiced in Olean, associated with his father in surgical and roentgenological work under firm name of Drs. Morris & Morris, member of surgical staff of Higgins Memorial Hospital, Olean, since 1911; commissioned First Lieutenant, Army Medical Corps, November 12, 1917; assigned to Harvard Medical School for course in orthopedic surgery January 1–March 1, 1918; trained also at Camp Greenleaf, Ga, March–April; surgeon at Camp Forrest, Ga, April 1–July 15 and then overseas; assigned to 338th Infantry, 85th Division, on duty at Sancerre July 21–August 24, at Base Hospital No. 9 August 24–September 19, at Evacuation Hospital No. 8 (Verdun) September 24–November 18, and at Base Hospital No 8 (Savenay) November 28, 1918–February 1, 1919; then returned to the United States and patient at General Hospital, Fort McHenry, Md., until given his discharge March 24; president of Cattaraugus County Medical Society in 1916 and secretary-treasurer since 1926; president of Western New York branch of New York State Medical Society since 1931, member American College of Surgeons, American Medical Association, American Roentgen Ray Society, American Radiological Society, Radiological Society of North America, X-ray Society of Central New York, X-ray Society of Central Pennsylvania, American Legion, Military Order of World War, and First Methodist Church, Olean, contributed to American Journal of Roentgenology, and New York State Journal of Medicine.

Married May 14, 1913, in Baltimore, Mary Louise Parrish (B.A. Goucher 1904), daughter of William Tippet and Mary Boswell (Chaney) Parrish. One daughter, Mary Louise, College of Fine Arts, Syracuse University, '37

Death due to undulant fever and myocarditis. Buried in Chestnut Hill Cemetery, Portville, N. Y. Survived by wife, daughter, father, a brother, Charles D Morris, '06, and two sisters, Caroline Elizabeth.
Morris Holmes (B.A. Syracuse 1916), wife of Gerald Hugh Holmes (Cambridge University), and Margaret Morris Jarvis (B.A. Syracuse 1919), wife of Clarence B. Jarvis (B A. Syracuse 1921).

Douglas Miller, B.A. 1908.

Born December 31, 1886, in New London, Conn.
Died November 16, 1933, in Boston, Mass.

Father, Rev. Alanson Douglas Miller, '64. Mother, Maria Russell (Bleecker) Miller. Yale relatives include: Rev. Sutherland Douglas (B.A. 1822) and George H. Douglas (B.A. 1828) (great-uncles); and George D. Miller, '70 (uncle)

Taft School. First colloquy appointments Junior and Senior years; on Second Crew two years, member Psi Upsilon Married October 20, 1913, in Boston, Adele Fitzpatrick (B.A. Radcliffe 1903), daughter of Frank Aubrey and Margaret (King) Fitzpatrick. Children: Alanson Douglas, 2d; Katrina Bleecker; and Elizabeth Russell.

Death due to an aortic embolism. Buried in Sleepy Hollow Cemetery, Concord. Survived by wife, son, two daughters, mother, and a sister, Mary Miller Noland (B.A. Vassar 1912), wife of William C. Noland, of Richmond, Va.
Robert Otis Hayward, B.A. 1909.

Born May 3, 1886, in Evanston, Ill.
Died April 17, 1934, in Bronxville, N. Y.

Father, Rev. Richard Hayward (B.A. Racine College 1869; B.D. Nashota Seminary 1872); Episcopal minister Bronxville, N. Y.; associate minister Holy Trinity Church, Paris; chaplain U. S. Navy; son of Robert and Virginia (Holland) Hayward, of Tallahassee, Fla. Mother, Lydia Ann (Otis) Hayward, daughter of Lucius Bolles and Lydia Ann (Arnold) Otis, of Chicago, Ill.

Chateau de Lancy, Geneva, Switzerland, Holderness School, and St Paul's School, Garden City, N. Y. Second dispute appointments Junior and Senior years; took part of Le Cid in Corneille's Le Cid 1907 and Le Maitre de Musique in Molière's Le Bourgeois Gentilhomme; contributed to Yale Literary Magazine; member Freshman and Apollo Glee clubs and University Glee Club Squad; on Cross Country Squad; member French Union, Berkeley Association, Pundits, French, City Government, and Yale Yacht clubs, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Scroll and Key.

LL B New York Law School 1911; also in law offices of Arthur C. Train and George H. Olney, admitted to the bar in March, 1912; practiced in New York 1911-13 as assistant to Mr. Train and alone 1913-14, during last period served as assistant attorney, secretary, and member of executive committee of Authors League of America and as editor of its Bulletin; student at Balliol College, Oxford, 1914-16; had since been connected with firm of Dillon, Read & Company, investment bankers in New York City, in foreign department until 1926 and then manager of foreign department, member of the firm since 1927, served as representative of War Trade Board and special assistant to Department of State in Holland on matters relating to U.S. embargo on Dutch ships five months during 1917-18; director of Havens Relief Association, Working Women's Protective Association (1912-14), Eastchester Mortgage & Realty Company (1912-14), and Community Welfare Fund of Bronxville (1918); member Ecuador committee of International High Commission; trustee of Winthrop Trust Association of New Haven; fellow of American Geographical Society and Pan American Society; member Academy of Political Science, Society of Mayflower Descendants, and Christ Episcopal Church, Bronxville (vestryman 1916-1921)

Married June 22, 1911, in Hartford, Conn., Carolan, daughter of Charles DeLancey Alton (M D New York University and Bellevue Medical College 1875) and Marguerite (Clarke) Alton, and sister of Charles DeL Alton, ex-'05. Two daughters, Carolan and Barbara.

Death due to coronary thrombosis. Buried in Kensico Cemetery,
White Plains, N. Y. Survived by wife, daughters, and three sisters, the Misses Lydia, Dorothy R., and Janet A. Hayward, all of Bronxville.

John Campbell Townsend, B.A. 1910.

Born January 30, 1888, in Pelham Manor, N. Y.
Died March 13, 1934, in New York City.

Father, James Mulford Townsend (B.A. 1874; LL.B. Columbia 1876). Mother, Harriet Bailey (Campbell) Townsend; daughter of John Lyle Campbell (B.A. Washington and Lee 1843) and Harriet Peters (Bailey) Campbell, of Lexington, Va. Yale relatives include William K. Townsend, '71 (uncle); and George H. Townsend, '08 (cousin)

Taft School. Member Psi Upsilon
LLB. New York Law School 1912, had since practiced in New York City, except for period of war service; in office of O'Brien, Boardman & Platt for a time and since 1915 in the office of William H. Button; justice of the peace at Pelham, N. Y., 1930-33 and town counsel since January 1, 1934; member Squadron A, New York National Guard, 1911-14; enlisted July 26, 1917, as a flying cadet (Private 1st Class); attended the Ground School at Cornell September 14-November 1, 1917; then went overseas with 14th Foreign Detachment and stationed first at Tours; transferred to Beaumont Detachment at St. Maixent in January, 1918; commissioned as Second Lieutenant in July, 1918; assigned to 2d Aviation Instruction Center at Tours; in September transferred to 3d Aviation Center at Issoudun; returned to United States in February, 1919, and given his discharge February 7; member Ex-Members, Squadron A, Inc., and Christ Episcopal Church, Pelham Manor.

Married August 29, 1914, in Westport, N. Y., Violet, daughter of Captain David Dick Johnson, U.S.A. (graduate United States Military Academy 1868), and Anne Victoria (Chouteau) Johnson. Children: Chouteau and Campbell.

Fisher Goodhue, B.A. 1911.

Born July 9, 1889, in New York City.
Died August 25, 1933, in Massapequa, N.Y.

Father, Charles Edward Goodhue; paying teller with Oriental Bank, New York City; son of Charles Farley and Emma Prentice (Maguire) Goodhue, of New York City. Mother, Maria Amanda (Fisher) Goodhue; daughter of George Cooper and Harriet Keeler (Lott) Fisher, of New York City.

Lawrenceville School. On University Swimming and Tennis teams, member Class Baseball and Basketball teams; vice-president of Yale Minor Athletic Association; manager of University Soccer Team; vice-president of Intercollegiate Soccer League; member Zeta Psi.

LL B Columbia 1914; clerk in law office of Davies, Auerbach & Cornell, New York City, 1914–16 and with Konta & Kirchwey 1916–17; served on Mexican border with Squadron A, New York National Guard, in 1916; attended Officers' Training Camp, Plattsburg; commissioned First Lieutenant, Field Artillery, November 27, 1917; assigned to 307th Field Artillery, Camp Dix; attended School of Fire, Fort Sill, March–April, 1918; overseas May, 1918–May, 1919; in action in Toul sector, at St.-Mihiel, and in the Meuse-Argonne; promoted to Captain February 24, 1919; received discharge June 19, 1919; senior clerk with Konta, Kirchwey, France & Michael, lawyers, New York City, June, 1919–March, 1920; assistant to the secretary and treasurer of Finance & Trading Corporation 1920–21; special representative of Atlas Portland Cement Company 1921–23, district sales manager 1923–27, and sales representative 1927–1930; sales representative of Universal Atlas Cement Corporation 1930–32; member Grace Episcopal Church, Massapequa (warden since 1930).

Unmarried

Death due to cirrhosis of the liver. Buried in Grace Churchyard, Massapequa. Survived by mother, a brother, C. Prentice Goodhue, ex-16 (B.A. Columbia 1918), and two sisters, Denise G. Cleveland, wife of Reginald M. Cleveland, ’08, and Phyllis G. Konta, wife of Geoffrey Konta, ’08.

Albert Emmet Kent, B.A. 1913.

Born December 6, 1890, in Chicago, Ill.
Died September 2, 1933, in Ross, Calif.

Father, William Kent (B.A. 1887). Mother, Elizabeth (Thacher) Kent Yale relatives include: Roger Sherman (honorary M.A. 1768) (great-great-grandfather); Roger Sherman (B.A. 1787) (great-grandfather); Thomas A Thacher (B.A. 1835) (grandfather), Oliver Thacher School On Water Polo Team; president of Yale Thacher Club; member Zeta Psi and Kappa Beta Phi.

Had been engaged in livestock and land business since 1913; with Golconda (Nev.) Cattle Company 1913-18 (president 1917-18); president of A. E. Kent & Company, Inc., of Golconda since 1918; vice-president of Kent & Burke Company of Genoa, Nebr., since 1926; had made his home at Kentfield, Calif., since 1929; member of Kentfield Chamber of Commerce since 1930; president of Ross Valley Players since 1932.

Unmarried

Francis Augustus Stock, B.A. 1913.
Born May 30, 1887, at Preston Hollow, N. Y.
Died June 25, 1934, in Newark, N. J.

Colgate Academy. B.A. Colgate 1910; instructor in English at Phillips School, Paterson, N. J., 1910-11, and in Latin at Ridgefield (Conn.) School 1911-12; entered Yale as a Senior.

Instructor in English at Paterson (N. J.) High School 1913-18; graduate student in education New York University 1916-17; instructor in English Peekskill (N. Y.) Military Academy 1918-1922, in English and Latin at Carteret Academy, Orange, N. J., 1922-24, and in English at South Side High School, Newark, since 1924.

Married July 23, 1913, in Hamilton, N. Y., Ella Pauline, daughter of John Griffin and Ella (Tracy) Patterson. Children Frances Minerva, and a son.
Death due to arteriosclerosis and coronary thrombosis. Survived by wife, son, and daughter.

Vintson Augustus Ackley, B.A. 1914.
Born June 7, 1887, in Ledyard, Conn.
Died February 9, 1934, in Ledyard, Conn.

Father, Augustus Octavius Ackley, a farmer; son of John and Vesta (Abbott) Ackley, of Rumford, Maine. Mother, Martha Josephine (Whipple) Ackley, daughter of Samuel Gates and Elizabeth (Watrous) Whipple, of Ledyard.

District manager in New Haven for International Text Book Company of Scranton, Pa., 1914–15; in scheduling department of Winchester Repeating Arms Company in New Haven 1915–16; instructor in history at Elgin (Ill.) Junior College and Academy 1916–17; attended University of Chicago summer of 1917; master at St. Albans School, Knoxville, Ill., 1917–18 and at the Pomfret School 1918–19; instructor in history and Latin at Brown School of Tutoring, New York City, 1919–1920 and at Salisbury (Conn.) School 1920–21; taught history at Albany Academy 1920–23, and at the Stonington (Conn.) High School 1926–29, member Ledyard Congregational Church.

Unmarried.

Death due to tuberculosis. Buried in Elm Grove Cemetery, Mystic, Conn. Survived by mother, three sisters, Mrs. John M. Colver (Connecticut College 1915–17), of Poquonock Bridge, Conn., Mrs. Sarah A. Baumann, of Westfield, N. J., and Mrs. George J. Schwarer, of Mystic, Conn., and one brother, John Abbott Ackley, of Poquonock Bridge.

Norman Schaff, B.A. 1914.
Born August 10, 1893, in Jacksonville, Ill.
Died July 18, 1933, in New York City.

Father, Rev. David Schley Schaff (B.A. 1873; D.D. Illinois College 1891 and University of Geneva 1909); son of Rev. Philip Schaff (Tubingen, Halle, and Berlin universities 1837–1840; D.D. Berlin University 1854, St. Andrew’s University 1887, and New York University 1892, LL.D. Amherst 1876) and Mary Elizabeth (Schley) Schaff, of Mercersburg, Pa., and New York City. Mother, Luella Mar (Haynes) Schaff; daughter of Dr. Moses Harriman Haynes and Sarah (Hunter) Haynes, of Richmond, Ind.

Allegheny (Pa.) High School and Dr. Schellenberg’s School, Mar
Tale College

burg, Germany. Dissertation appointment Junior year; first dispute appointment Senior year; member Freshman Track Team, University Track Squad, and Psi Upsilon.

LL.B. Harvard 1917; attended Plattsburg Camp July–August, 1916; with Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Washington, May–September, 1917; with Bureau of War Trade Intelligence of War Trade Board, Washington, October 4, 1917–April 30, 1919, at first as assistant to the exports administrative board, later in charge of trade censorship (cable and postal) and of liaison work between the bureau and other Government war intelligence agencies, and assistant director of the bureau from January 17, 1919, assistant manager of import sales department of G. Amsmuck & Company of New York 1919–1920; in charge of import department of Charles Hardy & Ruperti, Inc., of New York 1920–23; assistant to the secretary of Allied Chemical & Dye Corporation 1924–27; had since been assistant secretary of its subsidiary, The Barrett Company, manufacturers of coal tar products; trustee of Village of Roslyn Estates, N. Y., since 1932; member North Presbyterian Church, Petersburg, Pa.

Married November 1, 1919, in Baltimore, Priscilla Ridgely, daughter of Harry and Bertha (James) White. Children: Priscilla Ridgely and Norman, Jr.

Born December 26, 1893, in Elm Grove, W. Va.
Died March 11, 1934, in Las Cruces, N. Mex.

Father, Charles Howard Simpson, a broker in Wheeling, W. Va.; son of William and Mary (Johnson) Simpson, of Wheeling. Mother, Mai Bailey (Forbes) Simpson, daughter of Hannibal and Emma (Bailey) Forbes, of Wheeling. Yale relatives include a brother, H. Forbes Simpson, ex-’15 S.

Lawrenceville School. On Freshman Mandolin Club and Apollo and University Banjo and Mandolin clubs; member Zeta Psi.

Attended Harvard Law School 1915–17; enrolled in first Officers Training Camp, Plattsburg; commissioned Second Lieutenant, Field Artillery, August 15, 1917; served with 302d Field Artillery at Camp Devens, Mass., and then overseas; attended University of Bordeaux
March-June, 1919; received discharge August 18, 1919; worked in camps of W. A. Wilson & Sons Lumber Company in Virginia and West Virginia 1919; salesman for same firm in Philadelphia 1920; studied law at University of West Virginia 1920–22 (LL.B. 1922); member of firm of Bradshaw & Simpson in Wheeling 1922–28; practiced alone in Wheeling 1928–1930; retired because of ill health in 1930 and had since lived in Las Cruces; member American and West Virginia Bar associations.

Married June 17, 1924, in Wheeling, Lee Anna, daughter of Arthur Greer Hubbard. No children. Mr. and Mrs. Simpson were subsequently divorced.

Death due to a heart attack. Buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Wheeling. Survived by mother.

Clarke Oler Kimberly, B.A. 1917.
Born February 6, 1894, in Hampton, Va.
Died February 12, 1934, in Boundbrook, N. J.

Hampton High School; attended Virginia Military Institute 1911–14. Entered Yale in 1914 as a Sophomore; member Zeta Psi.

Commissioned as a Second Lieutenant of Field Artillery in the Officers’ Reserve Corps August 15, 1917, after attending Officers’ Training Camp at Fort Myer; transferred to the Regular Army the following November; served overseas January 5, 1918–July 6, 1919; active service with 12th Field Artillery, 2d Division; promoted to First Lieutenant June 9, 1918; received Croix de Guerre with two citations October 9, 1918, later with Army of Occupation; received discharge August 5, 1919, salesman for C Kenyon Company, Inc., manufacturers of automobile tires, in Brooklyn 1920–27; sales manager of rubber shoe division of Vulcan Proofing Company of Brooklyn 1927–29; had since been salesman for Fidelity Investment Company of New York, member St. John’s Episcopal Church, Hampton.

Death due to injuries received in an automobile accident the day before Buried in Hampton. Survived by wife, daughters, a brother, Harry H Kimberly, '23, and a sister, Lenora Virginia Kimberly Ferson, the wife of Captain Oliver S. Ferson, of Fort Crockett, Texas.
Charles Morton Stewart, 3d, B.A. 1917.

Born September 24, 1895, in Baltimore, Md.
Died December 20, 1933, in Montreal, Canada.

Father, Gustav Lürman Stewart (B.A. Johns Hopkins 1892); president of Gustav L. Stewart Company, coffee merchants, in Baltimore; partner in firm of R. Lawrence Smith Export & Import Company in New York City; son of Charles Morton and Josephine (Lürman) Stewart, of Baltimore. Mother, Anna (Gilmor) Stewart; daughter of Robert and Anna (Newman) Gilmor, of Baltimore. Yale relatives include four cousins: John McHenry, Jr., '17, James McHenry, '20, John Stewart, '21, and C. Morton Stewart, Jr., '24.

Marston's University School. On University Track Team (won numerals); an editor of Yale Literary Magazine and Yale Banner and Pot Pourri; Private in Yale Battery, 10th Field Artillery, Connecticut National Guard; member Sword and Gun Club, Psi Upsilon, Chi Delta Theta, Elizabethan Club, and Wolf's Head.

Member of Battery C, Tobyhanna, in 1916; went to Florida with Davison Group to study aviation; returned to his home in June, 1917; enlisted as Private in Field Artillery, Maryland National Guard, September, 1917; soon made Acting Corporal and then Corporal; commissioned Second Lieutenant, Field Artillery, in October, 1917; overseas June 28, 1918, with 110th Field Artillery, 29th Division; after the armistice stationed near Metz; promoted First Lieutenant April 28, 1919; returned to the United States May 21, and received discharge June 3; proprietor of Stewart Coffee Company at Saranac Lake, N.Y., since 1923; treasurer and director of Orange County (N.Y.) Independent Corporation, publishers of Middletown Daily Herald, 1925, engaged in property development and sales 1925–1931, with Bermuda Development Company, Ltd., 1925–26 and then independently developing land in Connecticut called Fox Hills for the Pequot Real Estate Company; since 1931 had been engaged in brokerage business in New York City; with Locke, Andrews & Pierce 1931–32, then customers' man with Abbott, Hoppin & Company; had been secretary and treasurer of Orange County Driving Park Association and secretary of Society for the Prevention and Control of Tuberculosis, at Saranac Lake, 1923–26; contributed to the Cosmopolitan and to Yale Book of Student Verse; member Episcopal Church.

Married September 2, 1922, at Paul Smiths, N.Y., Hilda Mary, daughter of George Herbert and Kate (Kerr) Hipkin, of Yarmouth, England. One son, David Michael.

Frank Bates Armstrong, B.A. 1918.

Born July 13, 1896, in Coffeeville, Miss.
Died December 15, 1933, in Coffeeville, Miss.

Father, George Wells Armstrong; president of Armstrong & Bailey Brothers, general merchants; son of Alex and Nancy Ann (Wells) Armstrong, of Pittsboro, Miss Mother, Aileene Bates; daughter of Joseph Wise and Augusta Jane (Harman) Bates, of Sallis, Miss.

Webb School, Bellbuckle, Tenn, and Phillips-Andover. First colloquy appointment Junior year; on Class Crew spring of 1917 and University Crew squad fall of 1917; member Delta Kappa Epsilon and Elihu; received B.A. honoris causa 1926, with enrollment in Class of 1918.

Unmarried

Death due to a gun shot wound. Buried in Coffeeville Cemetery. Survived by parents, a brother, George W Armstrong, Jr. (University of Mississippi ex-'26), of Coffeeville, a half-brother, Walter P. Armstrong, '06, two sisters, Mrs. Clarence Taylor, of Como, Miss., and Miss Margaret Armstrong (B.A. University of Mississippi 1927), of Coffeeville, and a half-sister, Mrs. Earl C. Howry (Mississippi State College for Women, ex-'03), of Memphis, Tenn.

William Bennett McCord, B.A. 1918.

Born June 18, 1897, in Bellingham, Wash.
Died December 17, 1933, in Seattle, Wash.

Broadway High School, Seattle, and Thacher School, Nordhoff, Calif Honors of the first grade Freshman year and second Berkeley Premium in Latin composition, first Lucius F. Robinson Latin prize and Dettra Prize Sophomore year; Benjamin F. Barge and Anthony
D. Stanley prizes in mathematics; scholar of the first rank Junior year and philosophical oration appointment; member Alpha Delta Phi, Phi Beta Kappa, and Sigma Xi; received B. A. honoris causa in 1921, with enrollment in Class of 1918.

Death due to pneumonia. Survived by wife, two sons, and a brother, Evan S. McCord, '21.

Carl Richard Wagner, B.A. 1918.

*Born August 16, 1897, in Chicago, Ill.
Died June 8, 1934, in Pasadena, Calif.*

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the OBITUARY RECORD.

Robert Bradley Whittlesey, B.A. 1918.

*Born October 11, 1895, in New Haven, Conn.
Died September 27, 1933, in New Haven, Conn.*

New Haven High School and Phillips-Andover. First colloquy appointment Junior year; member Freshman Mandolin Club and Beta Theta Pi; in R.O.T.C.
Enlisted in U. S. Naval Reserve Force as Seaman May 20, 1917; trained at Section Base 2, New Haven; attended Officers’ Material School, Pelham Bay, March 10–July 6, 1918; commissioned Ensign July 6, 1918; assigned U.S.S. “Narada” August 20, 1917, U.S.S.C. 87 February 17, 1918, and U.S.S. “Zoyara” July 14, 1918; released from active duty December 28, 1918; Ensign, U.S.N.R.F. (Class 4, G.S.), 1918–1922; returned to Yale in January, 1919, and received degree of B.A. in June, with enrollment in Class of 1918; entered business with his father in Charles W. Whittlesey Company, wholesale druggists and chemists, in New Haven September 1, 1919; became assistant treasurer of the company 1920 and a director 1923; upon its merger with McKesson-Robbins Company in 1929 became president and treasurer of the new company, McKesson-Whittlesey Company, and held those offices until death, director New Haven Chamber of Commerce since 1932; member of board of managers of New Haven Boys’ Club 1918–1932 and treasurer 1919–1922; secretary of New Haven Kiwanis Club in 1923; member of committee on members of New Haven Graduates Club 1927–29; director of Yale Alumni Association of New Haven since 1926 and secretary since 1927; member Yale Alumni Board’s standing committee on reunions 1927–29; member National Wholesale Druggists’ Association and Center Church (Congregational).

Married June 20, 1925, in Chicago, Dorothy Jane, daughter of Frank Ogden and Florence (Quick) Magie. One daughter, Jane.

Death due to renal arteriosclerosis and uremia. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, daughter, father, stepmother, a sister, Ethel W. Curtis, wife of William W. Curtis, Jr. (B.A. Bowdoin 1920), of Pawtucket, R. I., and a half-sister, Miss Margaret Whittlesey (B.A. Wellesley 1932), of New Haven.

John Joseph Wall, B.A. 1921.

Born August 10, 1898, in Derby, Conn.
Died June 6, 1934, in Ansonia, Conn.

Father, John Francis Wall; a machinist for Potter & Premier Printing Press Company, Shelton, Conn.; son of Thomas and Mary (Dermody) Wall, of Derby. Mother, Annie Elizabeth (McMullen) Wall, daughter of James and Elizabeth (Farrell) McMullen, of Ansonia.

Derby High School. Scholar of the second rank Junior year and George DeForest Lord Scholarship; oration appointment Senior year; Field Artillery Unit, S.A.T.C.

Attended Yale School of Law 1921–23 (LL.B. 1923); admitted to Connecticut Bar July 10, 1923; in office of Judge Frederick M. McCarthy ('05 L.) in Ansonia September–December, 1923; had since practiced independently in Shelton, Conn.; assistant prosecuting attorney in Shelton 1927-1930 and prosecuting attorney 1930-32; city corporation counsel January, 1933, until retirement because of ill health March, 1934; adjutant Charles F. Sutter Post of American Legion, then State Department adjutant and since 1933 judge advocate of the State Department; member Kiwanis Club and St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church, Shelton.

Married June 27, 1932, in Ansonia, Helen Ann, daughter of Thomas and Margaret (Buckley) Shay.

Took his own life, following several months of illness. Buried in St. Mary's Cemetery, Ansonia. Survived by wife, parents, a brother, Francis Wall, of Derby, and two sisters, Miss Anna Wall, of Derby, and Sister Marie Louise, of St. Mary's Convent, East Hartford, Conn.

William Thomas Mann, B.A. 1923.

Born April 20, 1900, in Bramwell, W. Va.
Died October 29, 1933, in Washington, D. C.

Father, Isaac Thomas Mann; president Pocahontas Fuel Company, New York City; son of Matthew and Elizabeth (Curry) Mann, of Fort Spring, W. Va. Mother, Vernie (Meyers) Mann; daughter of Israel Rouse and Alice Tiffany (Wright) Meyers, of Bramwell.

Taft School and Roxbury Tutoring School, New Haven. Scholar of the third rank Sophomore year; member Zeta Psi.

Took trip around world 1923-24; assistant cashier at Bank of Bramwell 1924-26; with Itmann Corporation, real estate, in Washington 1926-1930; with Harriman & Company, brokers, and with Child, Clark & Keech in Washington since 1930; director of Yale Club of Washington 1933; member Presbyterian Church.

Married June 14, 1929, in Washington, Nancy, daughter of William Lewis and Edna (Sims) Beale, and niece of Paul Sims, '16 S. One daughter, Nancy Beale.

Died suddenly. Buried in Rock Creek Cemetery, Washington. Survived by wife, daughter, mother, and a sister, Alice M. Owen, the wife of J. Churchill Owen, '23.

Robert Farquhar, Ph.B. 1926.

Born June 20, 1905, in York, Pa.
Died October 13, 1933, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Francis Farquhar, '88 S.; son of Arthur Briggs Farquhar (L.L.D. Kenyon 1902) and Elizabeth Newbold (Jessop) Farquhar, of York. Mother, Charlotte Packard (Gibson) Farquhar; daughter of John and Helen (Packard) Gibson, of York. Yale relatives include:
Percival Farquhar, ’84 S., and Rev. Robert F. Gibson, ’87 S. (uncles); and George R. P. Farquhar, ex’31 (cousin).

York Collegiate Institute. New York Yale Club prize in French and scholar of the first rank Freshman year; Benjamin F. Barge prize in mathematics Sophomore year; scholar of the second rank Junior year, Anthony D. Stanley prize in mathematics, and philosophical oration appointment; first DeForest mathematical prize and oration appointment Senior year; on Tennis and Squash squads four years; heeled Banner and Pot Pourri; president of Undergraduate Mathematics Club Junior year; member Phi Beta Kappa and Sigma Xi.

Student at Trinity College, Cambridge, 1926–28 (B.A. 1928); head of statistical department of A. B. Farquhar Company, machinery manufacturers, in York 1928–29; took graduate work at Wharton School of Finance and Commerce, University of Pennsylvania, 1929–1930; special student Sheffield Scientific School February–June, 1932; since September, 1932, had been a student in Yale School of Medicine; member St. John’s Episcopal Church, York.

Married February 18, 1933, in New Haven, Lucille Lyman Reed (B.A. Tulane 1924, M.A. 1926, Ph.D. Yale 1930), daughter of Lyman Coleman Reed, Tulane ex’95, and Lillian (Espy) Reed (B.A. Newcomb Memorial College, Tulane, 1898), of New Orleans, La.

Took his own life; had been ill for some time. Buried in Prospect Hill Cemetery, York. Survived by wife, father, and a sister, Charlotte F. Wing, wife of Donald G. Wing, ’26.

Henry Laurence Lamberti, B.A. 1926.

Born November 21, 1904, in New York City.

Died January 27, 1934, in New York City.

Father, Pasquale Joseph Lamberti, president of Petit Building Company, and a real estate operator; son of Alphonse and Angela (Lamberti) Lamberti, of Nocera Inferior, Province of Salerno, Italy. Mother, Anna Margaret (Albano) Lamberti, daughter of Joseph and Lucy (Navach) Albano, of Nocera Inferior.

Evander Childs High School, New York City. Member Soccer, Lacrosse, and Fencing squads and of University Soccer Team for three years.

Unmarried.
Death due to injuries received in an automobile accident. Buried in St. Raymond's Cemetery. Survived by three sisters, Mrs. Edward Esher, Mrs. Tilson Hernandez, and Miss Linda Lamberti (B.A. Beaver College 1934), and two brothers, Victor A. Lamberti (B.A. Haverford 1926), and Humbert Lamberti (Fordham 1928-29), all of New York City.

John Verrill, B.A. 1927.

Born September 13, 1904, in Portland, Maine.
Died October 11, 1933, in Medellin, Colombia.

Father, Harry Mighels Verrill, '89 S.; son of Byron DeCrery and Harriet Augusta (Robinson) Verrill, of Wiscasset, Maine. Mother, Louise Shurtleff (Brown) Verrill; daughter of Lewis Turner and Mary Alice (Abbott) Brown, of Portland. Yale relatives include: Addison E. Verrill (honorary M.A. 1867) and Edgar F. Verrill, special student, Sheffield Scientific School, 1869-1870 (great-uncles), and Harold H. Brown, ex-'05 S. (uncle).

Salisbury (Conn) School and Phillips-Exeter. On Freshman Baseball Squad and Basketball and Tennis teams, University Basketball and Tennis squads three years, and Class Football Team Senior year; Alpha Delta Phi.

Attended Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration for several months in 1927-28; in employ of United Fruit Company as assistant overseer on banana plantations and in research work in Honduras and Guatemala, 1928-1930; during 1931-32 with the Latin-American Expedition to study natives in Matto Grosso country, Brazil, as special assistant to Matthew W. Stirling, chief of Bureau of Ethnology, Smithsonian Institution; since 1932 had been president and general manager of the Atrato Company, of New York City, engaged in producing fibre in the Republic of Colombia.

Unmarried.

Death due to myelitis. Buried in Medellin. Survived by parents, a sister, Louise V. Webster, wife of Rev. Stephen Webster (B.D. Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge, Mass, 1931), of Weston, Mass., and two brothers, Richard Verrill, of Bellingham, Wash., and Robinson Verrill, '18

Sheldon Jackson Foster, B.A. 1931.

Born December 24, 1908, in Bridgeport, Conn.
Died September 12, 1933, in Bridgeport, Conn.

Father, Carl Foster (B.A. Dickinson College 1893, J.Sc.D. New York University 1919); deputy judge and judge of City Court of Bridgeport and judge of Superior Court of Connecticut; lecturer in New York University School of Law; president of Bridgeport Common Council; son of Isaac McKendree and Julia Electa (Mosher) Foster, of Waterford, Va. Mother, Delia Jackson (Norcross) Foster, daughter of Rev. George Norcross (B.A. Monmouth College 1861; Princeton Theological Seminary ex-’65; D.D. Princeton 1879) and Louise (Jackson) Norcross, of Carlisle, Pa.

Lawrenceville School. On Freshman Crew Squad, University Crew Squad Sophomore and Senior years, and Junior University Crew; member Beta Theta Pi.

Student in Yale School of Law 1931–October, 1932, when obliged to leave on account of ill health; member First Presbyterian Church, Bridgeport.

Unmarried.

Death due to lymphosarcoma. Buried in Mountain Grove Cemetery, Bridgeport. Survived by parents, brother, George N. Foster, ’25, and five sisters, Miss Ruth S. Foster, Radcliffe ex-y, and Miss Delia S. Foster, both of Bridgeport, Miss Elizabeth N. Foster, Yale School of Fine Arts ex-’27, of New York City, Mary-Louise Foster Heath, Vassar ex-’20, wife of Milton M. Heath (B.A. University of Oklahoma 1916), of St. Angelo, Texas, and Julia F. Hawkes, wife of Marshall Hawkes (B.A. Union 1921), of St. Paul, Minn.

William Johnson Harpham, B.A. 1933.

Born December 11, 1910, in Akron, Ohio.

Died July 1, 1933, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, Frederick Murcott Harpham; vice-president of Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company and of the Goodyear Zeppelin Company; son of William and Annie (Banks) Harpham, of Akron. Mother, Cecil Amy (Johnson) Harpham (B.A. Oberlin 1902); daughter of Artemas Bell Johnson (B.A. Oberlin 1864) and Louise Marie (Crane) Johnson, of Kenton, Ohio.

Western Reserve Academy and Evans School, Tucson, Ariz. Scholar of the second rank and Andrew D. White prize in history Freshman and Sophomore years, member Freshman Fencing and Crew squads; co-editor of Harkness Hoot Senior year; a governor of Elizabethan Club Junior year and secretary Senior year; treasurer of Liberal Club Senior year; member Undergraduate Library Associates, Round Table, and Alpha Delta Phi.

Member Church of Our Saviour (Episcopal), Akron.

Arthur Woods Rice, Ph.B. 1870.

Born March 9, 1849, in Meriden, Conn.
Died July 17, 1933, in New Britain, Conn.

Father, Oliver Rice, a farmer; son of Ezekiel and Bethia (Merriam) Rice, of Meriden. Mother, Mary Abby (Caldwell) Rice; daughter of John and Eunice (Stanwood) Caldwell, of Ipswich, Mass. Yale relatives include: Dr. David P. Smith, '10 (nephew); and Edward R. Smith, '36 (grandnephew).

The Gunnery and Williston Academy. Civil engineering course
Assistant to city surveyor of New Haven 1870–72; city surveyor of New Britain 1872–1894; during that period planned and supervised building of Shuttle Meadow Dam; president of Union Manufacturing Company of New Britain 1894–1905 (director 1894–1906); secretary and treasurer of Connecticut Loan & Realty Company in Hartford from 1904 for a number of years; member New Britain Water Commission 1874–1888; clerk of Street Commission 1890–1905 and of Board of Compensation and Assessment 1906–1922.

Married May 12, 1879, in New Britain, Mary Spencer, daughter of Edward Dennison Babcock (M.D. Hobart College 1841) and Julia (Spencer) Babcock. One son, Arthur Spencer (died in 1897). Mrs. Rice died January 14, 1912.

Death due to arteriosclerosis and chronic myocarditis. Buried in Fairview Cemetery, New Britain. Survived by a sister, Helen Rice Smith, widow of Dr. Edward W. Smith, '78, of Meriden. Was last surviving graduate member of his Class.

Charles Henry Greene, Ph.B. 1871.

Born January 5, 1849, in Cincinnati, Ohio.
Died August 6, 1933, in Tuckahoe, N. Y.

Father, Jared B. Greene; engaged in business in Cincinnati, Dayton, and Portsmouth, Ohio, with Gaylord Rolling Mill; son of Winter and Lucreta (Saunders) Greene, of Berlin, N. Y. Mother, Esther Ann (Clark) Greene; daughter of Henry and Rhoda (Williams) Clark, of Penn Yan, N. Y. Yale relatives include: William S. Greene, '72 S. (brother), and Clarence D. Greene, ex-'98 S. (nephew).

Cincinnati High School. Member Scientific Baseball Club Freshman year, Undine Boat Club, and St. Anthony and Delta Psi.

With Gaylord Rolling Mill 1871–1887; president Norton Iron Works in Ashland, Ky., 1889–1896, and of the Monarch Light Supply Company in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, Pa., 1896–1907; manager of Adams Mercantile Agency, in Jacksonville, Fla., 1907-1915; in office of Franklin (Pa.) Foundry Company 1915 until retirement 1927; had since lived in Tuckahoe; member St. John’s Episcopal Church, Franklin.

Married October 30, 1872, in Brooklyn, N. Y., Sara Frances Mahan Allen (Vassar 1868-1871), daughter of William Henry and Amelia Allen. Children William Allen (died 1901); Gertrude (died 1915), Charles Henry, Jr.; Amelia (Mrs. William T. DeVan); Eleanor Minnie (Mrs. Charles D. Speer); and Mary Bertha.

Death due to pulmonary edema and chronic nephritis. Buried in Hillside Cemetery, Roslyn, Pa. Survived by wife (died March 17, 1934), one son, three daughters, thirteen grandchildren, and seven great-grandchildren.

Halsey Warren Allen, Ph.B. 1876.

Born October 12, 1857, in Bergen, N. J.
Died March 30, 1934, in Redlands, Calif.

Father, Uriah Allen, a furniture dealer and art collector in New York City. Mother, Susannah (Thompson) Allen.

Hasbrouck Institute, Jersey City, N. J. Civil engineering course; member Alpha Chi.

Master at St. Paul’s School, Long Island City, for several years after graduation, then studied law in Jersey City and admitted to New Jersey Bar November 3, 1881; practiced in Jersey City until 1887; in office of Brinckerhoff & Fielder 1885-87; had lived in Redlands since 1887, superintendent Redlands, Lugonia & Crafton Water Company 1888-1900, and subsequently treasurer and director Crafton Water Company, had practiced law in Redlands since 1906; state inheritance tax appraiser since 1920; member of executive committee of Republican County Central Committee; a founder of Redlands Country Club in 1898 and since legal adviser; charter member of Redlands Kiwanis Club in 1922, vestryman Trinity Episcopal Church, Redlands, 1895-1928

Married October 6, 1890, in New York City, Stella, daughter of Charles Henry and Sylvia (Willard) Lindsley. Children: Sylvia, the wife of Ernest R Tilton, and Barbara (University of Redlands ex-'25), the wife of Sumner Buckham.

Death due to chronic anæmia and bronchopneumonia. Survived by wife, two daughters, and a grandchild.
Albert Sutton Macgregor, Ph.B. 1876.

Born August 17, 1854, in New York City.
Died June 6, 1934, in New York City.

Father, James Morris Macgregor, an architect in New York City; superintendent of the Department of Buildings; son of John and Ann (Stevens) Macgregor, of Oceanic, N. J. Mother, Anna Elizabeth (Andros) Macgregor; daughter of William and Rachel Cutler (Sutton) Andros, of New York City.

Dr. Berthet's School, New York City. Select course; member Delta Psi.

In real estate business and studied in a law office in New York City 1876-78; studied architecture in his father's office 1878-1881, and then became a member of his father's firm; architect and engineer for Hudson & Manhattan Railroad Company 1906-1911; site agent for post office buildings for U. S. Treasury Department 1913-15; with U. S. Architectural Bureau supervising the construction of the Bureau of Mines Building in Pittsburgh, Pa., 1915; building expert with the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company in New York City 1923 until retirement 1929.

Unmarried.

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York City. Survived by three sisters, the Misses Rachel, Mary, and Martha Macgregor, all of New York City.

William Tyler Browne, Ph.B. 1878.

Born December 26, 1856, in Lisbon, Conn.
Died April 1, 1934, in Norwich, Conn.

Father, Daniel Morgan Browne, a land owner and farmer, son of Tyler and Rhoda (Morgan) Browne, of Lisbon. Mother, Phoebe (Burnham) Browne; daughter of Jedediah and Sophia (Bidwell) Burnham, of Kinsman, Ohio. Uncle, George M. Browne (B.A. 1836).

Studied at Harvard Medical School 1878-1881 (M.D. 1882); intern at Boston City Hospital, House of the Good Samaritan, and Children's Hospital 1881-82; practiced in Lisbon 1882-1890 and since then in Norwich, specializing in diseases of the eye, ear, nose, and throat and in X-ray treatment and physiotherapy; visiting physician W. W. Backus Hospital 1896-1916, roentgenologist 1907-1926, and consulting roentgenologist since 1926; medical examiner for New England Mutual Life Insurance Company since 1906; member American Medical Association, American Roentgen Ray Society, Connecticut Medical Society, New London County Medical Society, Norwich Medical Association, New York City Electro-Therapeutic Society, Norwich Chamber of Commerce, and Park Congregational Church, Norwich (deacon since 1915).
Tale Obituary Record

Married December 25, 1889, in Monson, Mass., Gertrude, daughter of George Edward and Jane Maria (Bailey) Bell. No children.

Death due to myocarditis and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Ames Cemetery, Lisbon. Survived by wife.

Charles Samuel Churchill, Ph.B. 1878.

Born September 22, 1856, in New Britain, Conn.
Died January 25, 1934, in Roanoke, Va.

Father, Samuel William Churchill, of New Britain. Mother, Ellen D. (Hubbard) Churchill; daughter of James Church and Clarissa (Street) Hubbard, of New Britain.

New Haven High School Civil engineering course; honorable mention for entrance prize; prize in physics Freshman year; member Graduation Committee.

Taught in district school at Woodbridge, Conn., 1878–79; engaged in surveys for projected railroads in Connecticut 1879; assistant engineer of construction for Meadville & Linesville Railroad 1880; division engineer of location and construction for Pittsburgh, McKeesport & Youghiggheny Railroad (now part of Bessemer & Lake Erie Railroad) 1881–84, principal assistant engineer of construction for Schuylkill Valley Division of The Pennsylvania Railroad 1884–87; engineer, maintenance of way, for Shenandoah Valley Railroad 1887–88; with Norfolk & Western Railroad from 1888 until retirement because of age limit in 1926; engineer in charge of Ohio extension 1888; engineer, maintenance of way, 1888–1903, chief engineer 1903–1913; chairman of valuation committee for Interstate Commerce Commission 1913–14; assistant to the president 1914–18; chief of valuation under Federal control 1918; and vice-president 1918–1926 (vice-president in charge of purchases, real estate, and valuation 1920–26); chairman of engineering and land committee on valuation, Southern Group of Railroads on Federal valuation 1913–1926, since 1926 had been a consulting engineer in Roanoke; an authority on tunnel ventilation and had ventilated many tunnels in the United States and Canada, among them the Connaught Tunnel on the Canadian Pacific Railroad, and the Hudson and East River tunnels of The Pennsylvania Railroad; from 1913 to 1920 director of Winston-Salem Southbound Railroad Company, Williamson & Pond Creek Railroad Company, and Tug River & Kentucky Railroad Company; chairman of special citizens’ building committee of Roanoke 1915–16 and of construction committee of
Sheffield Scientific School

Roanoke Hospital Association board of trustees 1923–25; member civilian committee on construction of Municipal Building of City of Roanoke 1913–15; author: Ventilation of Tunnels (1904, 2d edition 1906), Ventilation of Tunnels and Subways in America (1914), and Construction of Tunnels (1915); contributed technical articles to various publications; president of Association of Engineers of Virginia 1893–94; member American Society of Civil Engineers (vice-president 1908–1912, director 1912–13, representative on committee on valuation of public utilities 1914–17 and on Engineering Council of the United States 1918–1921); charter member (1900) of American Railway Engineering Association (director 1907–1914, chairman of rail committee 1909–1913, and president 1913–14); since 1914 member of joint committee on stresses in railroad track representing American Society of Civil Engineers and American Railway Engineering Association; member American and International Societies for Testing Materials, and Institution of Civil Engineers of England; deacon First Baptist Church 1895–1930; secretary of Class of 1878 S. since graduation.

Married November 11, 1885, in Pottsville, Pa., Anna, daughter of Robert Carr and Mary (Shelley) Green. Children: Mary Shelley (Wellesley ex-i<x)y the wife of Paul V. Littlejohn (University of Virginia ex-*o^); Ethelind; Robert Carr, ’12 S., and Helen, the wife of Cecil Erskine Bertie (B.S. in Econ. University of Pennsylvania 1912).

Death due to cerebral thrombosis and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Evergreen Park, Roanoke. Survived by wife, three daughters, son, and five grandchildren.

Herbert Eugene Smith, Ph.B. 1879.

Born October 21, 1857, in Hartford, Conn.
Died October 9, 1933, in Los Gatos, Calif.

Father, Henry Hart Smith, contracting mechanic; son of Ebenezer and Beda (Bassett) Smith, of North Haven, Conn. Mother, Mary Buckley (Morgan) Smith; daughter of Amasa and Mary (Wetherill) Morgan, of New Britain, Conn.

Hartford Public High School. Biology course; divided prize in physics Freshman year; president of Class of 1879 S. Senior year; member Alpha Chi and Berzelius.

M.D. University of Pennsylvania 1882, had since been a member of the Yale faculty; instructor in chemistry in School of Medicine 1882–85; during that time took graduate work in Sheffield Scientific School one year (1884–85); professor of chemistry and dean of the Medical School from 1885 until retirement in 1910 and since then professor emeritus; studied at University of Heidelberg in 1883; chemist of the Connecticut State Board of Health 1893–1901; had made his home in California since 1911; served as school trustee of Austin District, Santa Clara County, 1919–1927, and during the war as member of Santa Clara War Funds Council and as chairman of Los Gatos chapter of American Red Cross, cooperative observer of United States Weather Bureau since 1930, had contributed to Yale Medical Journal, Journal of New England Water Works Association, New York State Journal of Medicine, Medical Record, British Medical Journal, Chemical News (London), Medical Legal Journal, Sanitation, Outlines of Rural Hygiene, Journal of Physical Science, Transactions of Connecticut Academy of Arts and Sciences, and Reports of State Board of Health, member American Physiological Society, American Chemical Society, American Public Health Association, Connecticut State Medical Society, and New Haven County and City Medical associations.

Married June 30, 1885, in Philadelphia, Emily Scull, daughter of David Darragh and Maria (Donnelly) Dinnin. Three daughters Emily Dinnin (B.A. Vassar 1910); Mary Morgan (B.A. Vassar 1910; M.A Stanford 1915); and Elizabeth Bernard.

Death due to coronary occlusion and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Los Gatos Cemetery. Survived by wife and three daughters.

James Lyman, Ph.B. 1883.

Born September 1, 1862, in Middlefield, Conn.

Died March 28, 1934, in Del Monte, Calif.

Morgan School, Clinton, Conn Dynamic engineering course; member The Colony and Berzelius.

Superintendent of construction in various towns in Pennsylvania for Edison Construction Company 1883–85, superintendent of construction for Marr Construction Company 1885–87; electrical superintendent with Metropolitan Manufacturing Company 1887–89; studied at Cornell 1893–95 (M.E. 1894, M.M.E. 1895, member Sigma Xi), connected with General Electric Company 1895–1911, engaged in engineering research in Schenectady 1895–1902 and from 1902 engineer in charge of the western district at Chicago; from 1911 until retirement in 1930 partner in firm of Sargent & Lundy, Inc., mechanical and electrical engineers, in Chicago, and vice-president from 1920; vice-president of Yale Engineering Association 1925–26 (member of executive committee 1927–1930) and of Edison Pioneers 1927; elected to honorary membership in Aurelian Honor Society 1922; fellow American Institute of Electrical Engineers, Illuminating Engineering Society, American Electrochemical Society, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Franklin Institute, Western Society of Engineers, British Institute of Electrical Engineers, and American Association for the Advancement of Science; member First Congregational Church of Evanston, Ill.
Sheffield Scientific School

Married June 6, 1891, in Middlefield, Anna Julia, daughter of Elisha Burt and Caroline Hart (Andrews) Bridgman. One son, Oliver Bridgman, ex-'15 S. Mrs. Lyman died January 29, 1930.

Death due to heart failure. Buried in Rosehill Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by son and a sister, Miss Mary E. Lyman, of Middlefield.

Thomas Crossley Johnson, Ph.B. 1884.

Born May 12, 1862, in Bridgeport, Conn.
Died June 4, 1934, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Samuel Chamberlain Johnson, president of Yale Safe & Iron Company, of West Haven, Conn.; son of Joshua Johnson, Jr., and Wealthy Ann (Lee) Johnson, of Middletown, Conn. Mother, Catherine Mary (Crossley) Johnson; daughter of Thomas N. and Eliza Foster (Bidwell) Crossley, of Middletown. Cousin: Thomas C. Brett, '96 S.

Gile Grammar School. Dynamic engineering course.

With Yale Safe & Iron Company 1884–85; became connected with Winchester Repeating Arms Company in 1885 as draftsman, subsequently gun designer and in charge of patent department; production engineer and legal adviser 1917–1930, vice-president 1930–31; company sold to Western Cartridge Company 1931, and he had since been general legal adviser; member Calvary Baptist Church, New Haven.

Married July 5, 1892, in New Haven, Katie Eliza, daughter of Charles Edward and Julia Mary (Holladay) Fowler. Children. Leila Marguerite, the wife of Arthur A. Rowley; Ruth Muriel, the wife of Gladden Bishop Houck; and Marjorie Fowler, the wife of J. Edwin Beehler. B.S. Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute 1929.

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Beaverdale Memorial Park. Survived by wife, daughters, seven grandchildren, and a sister, Adeline J. Sweet, the wife of Frederick J. Sweet, '93 M.
Calvert Townley, Ph.B. 1886.

Born October 18, 1864, in Cincinnati, Ohio.
Died November 27, 1933, in New York City.

Father, John Ackerman Townley; president of Commercial Insurance Company of Cincinnati; son of Edward and Jane (Ackerman) Townley, of New York City. Mother, Carrie Amelia (Calvert) Townley, daughter of George H. and Deborah Ann (Walker) Calvert, of Cincinnati.

Chickering Institute, Cincinnati. Mechanical engineering course; prize in English Freshman year; Senior appointment; on Freshman and University Lacrosse teams and Engineers Baseball Team; held middleweight wrestling championship; member University Orchestra and The Colony and Berzelius; honorary member Aurelian Honor Society (1929).

Student in Yale Graduate School 1886-88 (M.E. 1888); with Brush Electric Light Company of Cincinnati in 1887; with Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Company from 1887 until 1904 and from 1911 until retirement in 1931; on office staff of the general superintendent in Pittsburgh ten months; with sales department in Cincinnati 1888-89, assistant to the vice-president in Pittsburgh 1889-1895 and in New York City 1897-98; district office manager in charge of New England sales at Boston 1895-97 and 1898-1900; general agent of the company, with headquarters in New York City, and assistant to first vice-president 1900-04; acting fourth vice-president of New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company in charge of electrification of lines out of New York, with headquarters in New Haven, 1904-06 and also assistant to president of Consolidated Railway Company, a subsidiary; first vice-president of Consolidated Railway Company (subsequently The Connecticut Company) and vice-president of numerous subsidiary trolley, light, gas, and water companies and consulting electrical engineer to the New Haven Road 1906-1911; an organizer of the Kolynos Company, New Haven, in 1908, president until April, 1928, and then chairman of the board until July, 1928, assistant to the president Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Company 1911-1931; vice-president and director of Westinghouse Electric Export Company (later Westinghouse Electric International Company) 1916-1931, Westinghouse Electric Company of Japan, Compagnie Electrica Westinghouse de Chile, Westinghouse Electric de Cuba, and Westinghouse Electric do Brazil; had charge of company's foreign investments in Europe in 1913 and in South America in 1914 and 1915; during the war built the Essington factories of the company near Philadelphia and the new town of South Philadelphia, represented the company as president and director of Lacka-

Death due to a heart attack. Buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by sons and five grandchildren.

Raymond Thompson French, Ph.B. 1887.

Born February 23, 1864, in Seymour, Conn.

Died February 5, 1934, in Seymour, Conn.

General Russell's Collegiate and Commercial Institute. Biology course, member The Cloister and Book and Snake.

Connected with Arethusa Spring Water Company, of Seymour, 1887-1894, and owner from 1894 until about 1922; Captain in Home Guard 1917-18, State senator 1918 and 1919, member Yale Engineering Association, Sons of the American Revolution, and Trinity Episcopal Church, Seymour.

Married October 1, 1891, in London, Alice Reamey, daughter of William Buck and Mathilda (Langdon) Hayden, of Catskill, N. Y. Children Carlos Hayden (Hamilton ex-'17); Raymond Langdon (Dartmouth ex-'21); and William Gordon (Amherst ex-'22) (died 1923) Mrs. French died in August, 1923.

Death due to coronary occlusion and myocarditis. Buried in Union Cemetery, Seymour. Survived by two sons and five grandchildren.

Harry Leon Hamlin, Ph.B. 1887.

Born May 18, 1861, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Died February 23, 1934, in New York City.

Father, John Austin Hamlin, owner and president of Hamlin’s Wizard Oil Company, Chicago, proprietor of Chicago Grand Opera
Sheffield Scientific School

House; son of Rev. William Starr Hamlin, a circuit riding minister on the Ohio Reserve, and Eliza (Welsh) Hamlin, of Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio. Mother, Mary Ellen (Donovan) Hamlin, daughter of Timothy and Helen (Shaw) Donovan, of County Clare, Ireland. Yale relatives include: Laurence B. Hamlin, ’97 S., and Harold S. Hamlin, ’04 S. (cousins); and Mancel T. Clark, Jr., ’34 (nephew).

North Division High School, Chicago Select course; on Football Team and Freshmen Crew; heavyweight boxing champion; member Yale Courant Board and St. Anthony and Delta Psi.

Manager of Chicago Grand Opera House for many years; in 1914 bought four hundred acres of land at Amagansett, Long Island, where he engaged in farming and the practice of soil chemistry until 1924; had since resided in New York City in winter and East Hampton, N. Y., in summer.

Married (1) in 1888, in Hammondsport, N. Y., Katherine, daughter of John Dimon. One daughter, Dorothy (died in France, 1919). Mrs. Hamlin died December 29, 1892. Married (2) September 6, 1902, in New York City, Mary Elkin, daughter of Rev. John Randolph Paxton (B.A. Jefferson College 1866; graduate Western Theological Seminary 1869; D.D. Washington College, Pa.) and Mary Elkin (Lindsay) Paxton. Children: An infant daughter (died in 1906); and Judith.

Death due to a heart attack. Buried in South End Cemetery, East Hampton, N. Y. Survived by wife, one daughter, a brother, Herbert W. Hamlin, ’92 S., and a sister, Elizabeth H. Clark, widow of Mancel T. Clark, ’97 S. Two other brothers, Frederick R. Hamlin, ’88 S., and Robert A. Hamlin, ’95 S., died in 1904 and 1901, respectively.

Howard Beecher Tuttle, Ph.B. 1887.

Born October 25, 1863, in Naugatuck, Conn. Died September 29, 1933, in Middlebury, Conn.

Father, Bronson Beecher Tuttle, partner and treasurer of firm of Tuttle & Whittmore Malleable Iron Company, of Naugatuck, president of Pratt Manufacturing Company of New York; connected with Naugatuck Bank and Naugatuck Savings Bank; son of Eben Clark and Temperance (Beecher) Tuttle, of Prospect, Conn. Mother, Mary Ann (Wilcox) Tuttle; daughter of Rodney Beckley and Rachel Montgomery (Green) Wilcox, of Madison, Conn. Yale relatives include two cousins: Carlisle B. Tuttle, ’00, and Henry C. Tuttle, ’08.

Williston Academy. Spent a year abroad and studied in Munich before entering Yale. Mechanical engineering course.

Spent the year 1888–89 abroad; actively connected with Tuttle & Whittmore Malleable Iron Company (now Naugatuck Malleable Iron Plant of Eastern Malleable Iron Company) 1889–1902, director.
Yale Obituary Record

since 1914, and chairman of the board since 1928; member of firm of Ham & Tuttle (George C Ham, ’87 S.), civil engineers, 1893–95; vice-president of Naugatuck National Bank 1915–1930, director since 1895, and chairman of the board since 1930, member of board of incorporators of Naugatuck Savings Bank since 1909; vice-president of Naugatuck Hospital Association 1921–28 and president since 1928; charter member of Connecticut Society for Mental Hygiene in 1908, vice-president 1921–24, president 1924–27, and vice-president again since 1930 (director since 1908; member executive committee since 1921 and of finance committee 1922–24); director of Waterbury branch of the society 1926–29 and member of executive committee; member National Committee for Mental Hygiene several years and on board of directors; member of committee on organization for first International Congress on Mental Hygiene 1930; president and trustee of Grove Cemetery Association of Naugatuck since 1903; director of Naugatuck Water Company since 1911, of Gaylord Farm Association 1928–1930, of Colonial Trust Company of Waterbury since 1928, and of Naugatuck Y.M.C.A since 1918 (trustee since 1917); vice-president of Naugatuck council, Boy Scouts of America, since 1924; warden of Borough of Naugatuck 1914–18 and again 1919–1920, state senator 1917–18, local chairman of Connecticut State Council of Defense 1918–19; since 1899 had had a model farm in Middlebury, where breeder of Guernsey cattle; member of executive committee of American Guernsey Cattle Club 1901–1916; trustee of Sheffield Scientific School since 1922; since 1915 member of Alumni Board as representative of Yale Alumni Association of the Naugatuck Valley (member of executive committee 1922–23), member Yale Engineering Association. In 1914 gave $100,000, to be known as the Class of 1887 Fund, for a course in business administration in the Sheffield Scientific School.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Grove Cemetery, Naugatuck. Survived by wife, son, daughters, and eight grandchildren.

Jesse Chase Dann, Ph.B. 1888.

Born May 12, 1867, in Buffalo, N. Y.
Died November 5, 1933, in Los Angeles, Calif.

Father, Edward Sprague Dann, secretary and treasurer of National Savings Bank of Buffalo; son of Jesse Chase and Jane (Alexander) Dann, of Little Falls, N. Y. Mother, Jane Radcliffe (Webster) Dann; daughter of George and Hannah (Joy) Webster, of Buffalo. Yale relatives include: Radcliffe Dann, '19, and Thomas W. Archbald, '24 (nephews); and Henry A. Dann, '87 (cousin).

Heathcote School, Buffalo. Select course; on Freshman Baseball Team; on Yale Baseball Team three years (captain in 1887); member The Cloister and Book and Snake.

Employed in lumber yards of Lee, Holland & Company, Buffalo, 1888–89; during next two years engaged in no occupation on account of ill health; clerk with Buffalo Clearing House 1892–93 and manager 1893–1907; since 1894 had been engaged in investment securities business as senior member of firm of J. C. Dann & Company (members of New York Stock Exchange), Buffalo; vice-president and director of Citizens' Commercial Trust Company of Buffalo 1919–1923; secretary of Bankers' Association of Buffalo; member board of managers Buffalo Public Library since 1924; trustee of Charity Organization 1907–1928; member of executive committee of Buffalo Joint Charities and Community Fund since 1917; chairman advisory committee, Children's Hospital 1913–1926; during the war served as associate director of sales in department of certificates of indebtedness of Federal Reserve Bank in charge of western New York district; member Yale Alumni Board 1917–1924 (member nominating committee 1918); member Buffalo Chamber of Commerce, Yale Engineering Association, and Trinity Episcopal Church, Buffalo.

Death due to coronary thrombosis. Buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Buffalo. Survived by wife, two sons, five grandchildren, and a sister, Jennie D. Archbald, of Scranton, Pa., the widow of Rev. Thomas F. Archbald, '96.

John Eufemio Dockendorff, Ph.B. 1888.

Born March 20, 1866, in Lima, Peru.
Died April 2, 1934, in New York City.

Father, John Dockendorff; head of mercantile firm of Dockendorff & Company, Peru and New York City; also South American railway contractor. Mother, Caroline (Fanning) Dockendorff.

Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. Biology course; member Freshman Boat Club, Apollo Glee Club, and The Colony and Berzelius.

In charge of his father's mercantile business in Lima 1888–1892; general representative in the western states of Benjamin & Caspary of New York; head of firm of J. E. Dockendorff & Company, bankers, many years; also an independent aluminum importer; since 1918 had since 1914, and chairman of the board since 1928; member of firm of Ham & Tuttle (George C. Ham, '87 S.), civil engineers, 1893-95; vice-president of Naugatuck National Bank 1915-1930, director since 1895, and chairman of the board since 1930; member of board of incorporators of Naugatuck Savings Bank since 1909; vice-president of Naugatuck Hospital Association 1921-28 and president since 1928; charter member of Connecticut Society for Mental Hygiene in 1908, vice-president 1921-24, president 1924-27, and vice-president again since 1930 (director since 1908; member executive committee since 1921 and of finance committee 1922-24); director of Waterbury branch of the society 1926-29 and member of executive committee; member National Committee for Mental Hygiene several years and on board of directors; member of committee on organization for first International Congress on Mental Hygiene 1930; president and trustee of Grove Cemetery Association of Naugatuck since 1903; director of Naugatuck Water Company since 1911, of Gaylord Farm Association 1928-1930, of Colonial Trust Company of Waterbury since 1928, and of Naugatuck Y.M.C.A. since 1918 (trustee since 1917); vice-president of Naugatuck council, Boy Scouts of America, since 1924; warden of Borough of Naugatuck 1914-18 and again 1919-1920, state senator 1917-18, local chairman of Connecticut State Council of Defense 1918-19, since 1899 had had a model farm in Middlebury, where breeder of Guernsey cattle; member of executive committee of American Guernsey Cattle Club 1901-1916; trustee of Sheffield Scientific School since 1922, since 1915 member of Alumni Board as representative of Yale Alumni Association of the Naugatuck Valley (member of executive committee 1922-23); member Yale Engineering Association. In 1914 gave $100,000, to be known as the Class of 1887 Fund, for a course in business administration in the Sheffield Scientific School.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Grove Cemetery, Naugatuck. Survived by wife, son, daughters, and eight grandchildren.

Jesse Chase Dann, Ph.B. 1888.

Born May 12, 1867, in Buffalo, N. Y.
Died November 5, 1933, in Los Angeles, Calif.

Father, Edward Sprague Dann, secretary and treasurer of National Savings Bank of Buffalo; son of Jesse Chase and Jane (Alexander) Dann, of Little Falls, N. Y. Mother, Jane Radcliffe (Webster) Dann; daughter of George and Hannah (Joy) Webster, of Buffalo. Yale relatives include: Radcliffe Dann, '19, and Thomas W. Archbald, '24 (nephews); and Henry A. Dann, '87 (cousin).

Heathcote School, Buffalo. Select course; on Freshman Baseball Team; on Yale Baseball Team three years (captain in 1887); member The Cloister and Book and Snake.

Employed in lumber yards of Lee, Holland & Company, Buffalo, 1888-89; during next two years engaged in no occupation on account of ill health; clerk with Buffalo Clearing House 1892-93 and manager 1893-1907; since 1894 had been engaged in investment securities business as senior member of firm of J. C. Dann & Company (members of New York Stock Exchange), Buffalo, vice-president and director of Citizens' Commercial Trust Company of Buffalo 1919-1923; secretary of Bankers' Association of Buffalo; member board of managers Buffalo Public Library since 1924; trustee of Charity Organization 1907-1928; member of executive committee of Buffalo Joint Charities and Community Fund since 1917; chairman advisory committee, Children's Hospital 1913-1926; during the war served as associate director of sales in department of certificates of indebtedness of Federal Reserve Bank in charge of western New York district; member Yale Alumni Board 1917-1924 (member nominating committee 1918); member Buffalo Chamber of Commerce, Yale Engineering Association, and Trinity Episcopal Church, Buffalo.

Death due to coronary thrombosis. Buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Buffalo. Survived by wife, two sons, five grandchildren, and a sister, Jennie D. Archbald, of Scranton, Pa., the widow of Rev. Thomas F. Archbald, '96.

John Eufemio Dockendorff, Ph.B. 1888.

Born March 20, 1866, in Lima, Peru.
Died April 2, 1934, in New York City.

Father, John Dockendorff; head of mercantile firm of Dockendorff & Company, Peru and New York City; also South American railway contractor. Mother, Caroline (Fanning) Dockendorff.

Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. Biology course; member Freshman Boat Club, Apollo Glee Club, and The Colony and Berzelius.

In charge of his father's mercantile business in Lima 1888-1892; general representative in the western states of Benjamin & Caspary of New York; head of firm of J. E. Dockendorff & Company, bankers, many years; also an independent aluminum importer; since 1918 had been engaged in shipping business; president of American Diamond Lines, Inc., Black Diamond Steamship Corporation, and Great Northwestern Shipping Corporation; director of American Shipping
Agency of Belgium, American Shipping Agency of Holland, New York Knife Company, and Wykagyl Reservation, Inc.; member Presbyterian church.

Married (1) May 11, 1889, Lizzie A. Goodyear. One son, Thomas
Goodyear. Married (2) February 1, 1900, in Macon, Ga., Florence
Cornell. Two sons, John Eufemo, Jr., ex-’26, and Noyes Cornell, ’29.

Death due to bronchopneumonia. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery,
New York City. Survived by wife and sons.

Frederick Howard Ellsworth, Ph.B. 1889.

Born February 26, 1868, in New Britain, Conn.
Died November 12, 1933, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, Frederick Ellsworth, engaged in fertilizer business under his own name, also a tobacco grower in East Windsor, Conn.; son of Abner
M. and Lucy W. (Stoughton) Ellsworth, of East Windsor. Mother, Ellen (Tuller) Ellsworth; daughter of John Cowles and Evelyn (Lat-timer) Tuller, of New Britain and Hartford.

Hartford Public High School. Civil engineering course; prize for excellence in chemistry and divided prize for mechanical drawing Freshman year and received honorable mention in physics; divided prize in mathematics Junior year, Senior appointment.

Assistant engineer Boston & Maine Railroad 1889–1891, connected with New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company from 1891 until retirement March 1, 1933; assistant engineer and division engineer in New Haven 1891–1919; division engineer in Hartford since 1919.

Married June 21, 1894, in New Haven, Sarah Baldwin, daughter of Remus and Sarah (Baldwin) Loveridge. One daughter, Sarah Louise
(B. A. Smith 1918). Mrs. Ellsworth died December 22, 1902.

Death due to chronic thrombosis and myocarditis. Buried in Simsbury (Conn.) Cemetery. Survived by daughter.

William Crosby Marshall, Ph.B. 1890.

Born September 21, 1870, in Avon, Conn.
Died February 1, 1934, in Wallingford, Conn.

Father, Rev. Henry Grimes Marshall, ’60. Mother, Marietta
(Crosby) Marshall Yale relatives include two nephews: Henry C.

New Haven High School. Mechanical engineering course.

Death due to acute miliary tuberculosis. Buried in Milford (Conn.) Cemetery. Survived by wife, son, stepmother, and a half brother, Dr. Samuel A. Marshall, ‘98.

Francis Allen Clark, Ph.B. 1891.

Born September 22, 1870, in Plantsville, Conn.
Died January 8, 1934, at harbor of Corinto, Nicaragua.

Father, Lucas Carter Clark, an independent broker; son of Salmon Francis and Theda (Carter) Clark, of Plantsville. Mother, Phebe Atkins (Twichell) Clark, daughter of Dwight and Jane (Carter) Twichell, of Plantsville. Yale relatives include four nephews, Leverett C. Clark, '17 S., and Franklin G. Brown, Frederick W. Dickerman, and Willard J. Gould, Jr., all '32.

Phillips-Andover. Civil engineering course; Track Team; member The Colony and Berzelius.

In export department of Edward Miller Company, Meriden, 1891–96 and in charge of South American department 1896–1905; manager, treasurer, and member of firm of W. J. Kingsland, Inc., manufacturers' export agents, New York City, 1905 until retirement 1931; member Central Presbyterian Church, Summit, N. J.

Married June 9, 1897, in New York City, Ada Estelle, daughter of Frederick Chauncey and Lucy (Baldwin) Borst. One daughter, Helen Baldwin (B.A Vassar 1923; M.A Columbia 1927).

Death due to pneumonia. Burial in family plot in Southington, Conn. Survived by wife, daughter, four sisters, Mrs. Willard J. Gould, of Southington, Lillian C. Hubbard (B.A. Mount Holyoke 1904), the wife of George M. Hubbard (B.S. Dartmouth 1902), of Summit, N. J., Mrs Harold Wyman, of Hamden, Conn., and Mrs. Raymond P. Dickerman, of Plantsville, and a brother, James T. Clark, of New Haven.

Clark Greenwood Voorhees, Ph.B. 1891.

Born May 29, 1871, in New York City.
Died July 18, 1933, in Old Lyme, Conn.

Father, Charles Henry Voorhees; member New York Stock Exchange, son of Abraham and Eliza Ann (Weld) Voorhees, of Flatlands, N. Y. Mother, Mary (Greenwood) Voorhees; daughter of Clark and Margaret (Mackay) Greenwood, of New York City.

Chapin's Collegiate School, New York City. Chemical course.

Chemist at Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station, New Haven, 1891–92; studied at Columbia 1892–93 (M.A. 1893; member Psi Upsilon); began study of art with Irving Wiles in 1894; studied at Academy Julian, Paris, 1896–1900; had since been engaged as a landscape artist, with studios in Lenox, Mass., and Old Lyme; had exhibited at National Academy of Design, New York, Carnegie Institute, Pittsburgh, Chicago Academy of Fine Arts, and Art Institute of Chicago, charter member of Old Lyme Art Association 1912 and secretary 1914–1923, founder also of Stockbridge Exhibition in the Berkshires (on exhibition committee twenty-five years) and of Grand Central Art Galleries (exhibitor), awarded Hallgarten Prize by National Academy of Design in 1905 and Eaton Purchase Prize of Old Lyme Art Association in 1929 and a bronze medal at Louisiana Purchase Exposition, St...
Louis, in 1904; member 7th Regiment, New York National Guard, 1895–1906; during World War Captain, Company F, 3d Regiment, Connecticut Home Guard; member Trinity Episcopal Church, Lenox.

Married August 20, 1904, in Lenox, Maud Christine, daughter of George Winthrop Folsom, Columbia ex-67 and ex-68 L., and Frances Elizabeth Hastings (Fuller) Folsom. Children: Helen Stuyvesant, wife of Lincoln B. Hockaday, ex-28; Stuyvesant (died in infancy); Clark Greenwood, Jr., Trinity College 1935; and Florence Whistler.

Death due to chronic cardiovalvular disease. Buried in Duck River Cemetery, Old Lyme. Survived by wife, son, two daughters, and a brother, Charles Henry Voorhees, of New York City.

Harry Taylor Stoddart, Ph.B. 1892.

Born July 17, 1870, in Wilkes Barre, Pa.

Father, William Stoddart; president of William Stoddart Company, wholesale grocers; son of Henry and Mary (Dietrich) Stoddart, of Ashley, Pa. Mother, Elizabeth Cadwallader (Taylor) Stoddart; daughter of John and Rebecca (Cadwallader) Taylor, of Dolington and White Haven, Pa.

Harry Hillman Academy, Wilkes Barre. Select course; member Theta Delta Chi.

LL.B. University of Pennsylvania 1895; practiced law in Philadelphia in association with Carroll R. Williams (B.A. Swarthmore 1877; LL.B. University of Pennsylvania 1880) from 1895 to 1929 and independently since; member Philadelphia Board of Education since 1919 and vice-president since September, 1933; member Law Association of Philadelphia and Historical Society of Pennsylvania; on board of trustees, Second Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, since 1928.

Death due to myocardial failure. Buried in West Laurel Hill Cemetery, Philadelphia. Survived by wife.

James Edward Campbell, Ph.B. 1893.

Born May 4, 1872, in New York City.
Died October 15, 1933, in Watertown, N. Y.

Father, Charles Edward Campbell (M.D. New York Homeopathic Medical College and Hospital 1864); a physician in New York City; son of John Archibald and Mary (Woolverton) Campbell, of Edinburgh, N. Y. Mother, Eugenia Wautaga (Gillespie) Campbell; daughof Charles Keith and Evelina Elizabeth Carter (Taylor) Gillespie, of Tennessee. Brother: Dr. Clarence W. Campbell, ex-'94 S.
Tale Obituary Record

Collegiate School, New York City. Biology course.

M.D. Columbia 1896; intern Bellevue Hospital, New York City, 1896–97; practiced in his father’s office 1897–1901; had since been connected with Dexter (N. Y.) Sulphite Pulp & Paper Company, secretary 1901–1914 and had since been president and treasurer; president and treasurer Howland Bag & Paper Company since 1910; president Westfield River Paper Company, Russell, Mass., since 1932; treasurer Glenfield & Western Railroad Company 1901–1927 and of Frontenac Paper Company, Dexter, since 1905; director of Northern New York Trust Company of Watertown since 1910; member Presbyterian church.

Married November 12, 1907, in New York City, Florence Elizabeth, daughter of John Albert and Maria Louise (Hunold) Oxley. Children: Consuelo (died 1919); and Charles (died in infancy).

Death due to acute pulmonary edema and myocarditis. Buried in Brookside Cemetery, Watertown. Survived by wife and mother.

Leroy Church Dupee, Ph.B. 1893.

Born August 5, 1871, in Chicago, Ill.
Died November 16, 1933, in Joliet, Ill.

Father, Horace Moore Dupee; member of firm of H. M. Dupee & Company, merchants, Chicago. Mother, Cornelia (Church) Dupee.

Chicago Manual Training School and Hyde Park (Ill.) High School Chemistry course; received Senior appointment; member York Hall and Chi Phi.

Western agent with headquarters in Chicago for Walpole (Mass.) Dye & Chemical Company 1893–95; in the employ of People’s Gas Light & Coke Company, Chicago; subsequently credit man and manager with Upmann & Wilcox (later J. Frederick Wilcox & Company), manufacturers and jobbers of cigars, Chicago, for about twenty years; manager of the Rockford (Ill.) yards of National Feeding Company; with General Organization Company of Chicago (promoting community projects); since about 1924 advertising manager of Tuttle & Bailey Manufacturing Company in New York City.

Married February 14, 1899, in Joliet, Fannie Belle, daughter of John Frederick and Mary Clarinda (Woodruff) Wilcox. Children: Mary Cornelia (B A. Smith 1924); and Frederick Wilcox, ’27.

Death due to bronchopneumonia. Buried in Joliet. Survived by wife, daughter, and son.
Henry Hotchkiss Murray, Ph.B. 1893.

Born March 16, 1871, in Viola, Del.
Died February 28, 1934, at Mount Holly, N. J.

Father, George Henry Murray, a fruit grower at Viola; son of Henry Augustus and Clarissa Elizabeth (Hotchkiss) Murray, of New Haven, Conn., and Dover, Del. Mother, Olive Isadore (Purinton) Murray; daughter of Rev. Daniel Boardman Purinton and Jane (Murphy) Purinton, of New York.

Hillhouse High School. Mechanical engineering course; Senior appointment.

Took graduate work in Sheffield Scientific School 1893-94; draftsman for McIntosh, Seymour & Company, engine builders in Auburn, N. Y., 1894-95 and assistant chief draftsman 1896-1906; substitute professor of mechanical and electrical engineering at Delaware College in 1896; connected with Victor Talking Machine Company 1906-1929, as designer 1906-1911 and then as mechanical engineer; mechanical engineer and manager of Mechanical Improvement Company of Camden, N. J., since 1930; member of Riverton (N. J.) Borough Council 1915-1923 and of Riverton Board of Education 1932-33; chairman of Memorial Park Committee of Riverton 1916-1923; director Cinnaminson Building & Loan Association (since 1917) and Cinnaminson Bank & Trust Company (1926-1932) of Riverton; during the war took active part in manufacture of airplanes by Victor Talking Machine Company; member American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Yale Engineering Association, Society of Colonial Wars, Philadelphia Sons of Delaware, Franklin Institute, and First Baptist Church of Auburn.

Married September 14, 1898, in Auburn, Georgiana, daughter of Cornelius Abraham Groot (B.A. Union 1862; M.D. Albany Medical College 1864); and Anna Maria (Stevens) Groot. One daughter, Cornelia Groot (Mount Holyoke ex-34).

Death due to carcinoma of the pancreas. Buried in Fort Hill Cemetery, Auburn. Survived by wife, daughter, two brothers, George H. Murray, '00 S., and Thomas Murray, of Viola, and two sisters, Eleanora M. Peck, the wife of Robert Peck (Ph.B. Lafayette 1893), of Forty Fort, Pa., and Mrs. Tighman Smith, of Port Deposit, Md.

Paul Worthington Carhart, Ph.B. 1894.

Born November 10, 1871, in Jackson, Mich.
Died October 27, 1933, in Springfield, Mass.

Father, George W. Carhart (M.D. Cleveland Medical College 1845), a physician in Jackson. Mother, Ellen (Gregory) Carhart.
Jackson High School and Yates School, Saratoga, N. Y. Civil engineering course.

Assistant principal New York School for the Deaf and Dumb, New York City, 1894–98; had since been associated with G. & C. Merriam Company, publishers in Springfield; an assistant editor of Webster's Dictionary 1898–1926 and since managing editor; director of the company since 1928; in 1902 and 1903 engaged in research and advanced study in pronunciation and phonetics at Oxford and in Berlin; in charge of department of pronunciation for Webster’s New International Dictionary for 1909 and of all the dictionaries published by the firm since then; contributed to Nelson’s Encyclopedia and to second edition of New International Encyclopedia; member American Association for the Advancement of Science, American Dialect Society, National Linguistic Society, National Education Association, and Modern Language Association of America.

Took his own life. Buried in Oak Grove Cemetery, Springfield. Survived by wife, daughter, and son Paul David Hamilton, Ph.B. 1894.

Born September 1, 1873, in Waterbury, Conn.
Died November 14, 1933, in Waterbury, Conn.

Father, David Boughton Hamilton; president of Rogers & Brother, silver manufacturers, and of Manufacturers National Bank, Waterbury, state senator, son of David and Deborah Knapp (Boughton) Hamilton, of Danbury, Conn. Mother, Isabel Lavinia (Ely) Hamilton; daughter of John Gnswold and Sally Pratt (Williams) Ely, of Lyme, Conn.

Waterbury High School. Chemical course; member York Hall and Chi Phi.

Private secretary to president of Rogers & Brother (now International Silver Company) 1894–96; connected with hardware firm of E. C. Church Company 1896–1902, as secretary of the company in Providence, R. I., until 1901 and manager of its branch in Waterbury 1901–02; had since been president and treasurer of Hamilton Hardware Company of Waterbury; director of Bridgeport Brass Company since 1925; member Civil Service Reform Club, Sons of the American Revolution, and Sons of the Loyal Legion.
Sheffield Scientific School

Death due to compound fracture of left leg and ankle, osteomyelitis, and septic arthritis. Buried in Riverside Cemetery, Waterbury. Survived by wife, daughter, two sons, five grandchildren, a half brother, Lewis B. Hamilton, '86, and a half sister, Miss Katherine D. Hamilton, of Tryon, N. C.

Burton James Lee, Ph.B. 1894.

Born February 4, 1874, in New Haven, Conn.
Died November 12, 1933, in New York City.

Hillhouse High School. Biology course
M.D. Columbia 1898; interne at Presbyterian Hospital, New York City, 1898–1901; had since practiced in New York City with exception of time spent in military service; since 1903 had been a member of the faculty of Cornell University Medical College, as assistant demonstrator in anatomy 1903–04, demonstrator in anatomy 1904–09, instructor in clinical surgery 1909–1913 and in surgical pathology 1913–16, assistant clinical professor of surgery 1916–18, and clinical professor of surgery since 1918; assistant surgeon Trinity Hospital 1900–1912; surgical chief of clinic at Harlem Hospital 1900–04 and at Presbyterian Dispensary 1905–1910; assistant attending surgeon Cornell-New York Hospital 1910–13 and associate attending surgeon 1913–1925; assistant surgeon Bellevue Hospital 1913–17; cancer specialist, attending surgeon, and a director Memorial Hospital for Cancer since 1919; consulting surgeon Sharon Hospital since 1919, Elizabeth Horton Memorial Hospital (Middletown, N. Y.) since 1928, St. Francis Hospital since 1932, and New York Infirmary for Women and Children since March, 1933; attended Plattsburg Training Camp August and September, 1916; commissioned Captain in the Medical Corps June 1, 1917, overseas August 7, 1917–January 25, 1919; assigned Base Hospital No 9; on detached service at l'Hôpital d'Odéan, La Panne, on surgical service, October 15, 1917–January 7, 1918; chairman of Transfusion Committee, A.E.F., January 8–March 13, 1918; consulting surgeon, 2d Division, March–November, in charge of surgery in hospital for...
James Ashman Veech, Ph.B. 1894.

Born November 21, 1872, in Pittsburgh, Pa.
Died December 25, 1933, in Connellsville, Pa.

Father, David Henry Veech, Jefferson College ex-'54, a lawyer; member of firm of James and David H. Veech & D. T. Watson, of Pittsburgh, First Lieutenant, 5th Artillery, U.S.A., in Civil War; son of James Veech (B.A. Jefferson College 1828, LL.D. 1864) and Maria (Ewing) Veech, of Pittsburgh. Mother, Louisa Cass (Ashman) Veech; daughter of George James and Sarah Ann (Dawson) Ashman, of Connellsville.

Hillhouse High School, New Haven. Select course.

LL.B. 1897; subsequently practiced in New Haven and New York City; specialized in title research and patent law; in later years made his home in Connellsville and engaged in title research and real estate business; Private, Second Infantry, Connecticut National Guard November 1, 1894, to May 30, 1896, and subsequently a member of New Haven Grays Veterans' Association until death; member Fayette-Westmoreland branch of Western Pennsylvania Historical Society since its organization, Fort Necessity chapter Sons of the American Revolution (Uniontown, Pa.), and Protestant Episcopal Church.

Unmarried.

Death due to a general breakdown. Buried in Hill Grove Cemetery, Connellsville. Survived by a sister, Miss Louise Veech, of Connellsville.

Willis Morris Wright, Ph.B. 1894.

Born January 27, 1873, in New Haven, Conn.

Died June 12, 1934, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, William Alexander Wright, a sea captain; son of David and Hannah Shipman (Ackley) Wright, of New Haven. Mother, Sarah Maria (Hubbard) Wright; daughter of William Morris and Harriet Jane (Foote) Hubbard, of New Haven.

Hillhouse High School. Civil engineering course.

Member of a party on Government Coast Survey off Cos Cob, Conn., fall of 1894; on government ice cutter 1894–95; had been connected with National Pipe Bending Company, in New Haven, since 1895; assistant foreman 1895, foreman 1895–99, superintendent 1899–1920, mechanical engineer since 1920 and vice-president since 1929; burgess of Borough of Fair Haven (chairman finance, police, and fire departments) 1916–17; member League of American Wheelmen and Foremen's Club of New Haven; attended Pilgrim Congregational Church, New Haven.

Married November 12, 1895, in New Haven, Mary Elmer, daughter of Hobart Albert and Delia Gertrude Hotchkiss. Children: Herbert Willis (B.S. Connecticut State College 1920; M.S. Iowa State College 1924), and Frederick Elmer.

Death due to acute cardiac dilatation and angina pectoris. Buried in Greenlawn Cemetery, East Haven, Conn. Survived by wife, sons, two grandchildren, and a sister, Miss Sarah E. Wright, of New Haven.
Sidney Cecil Borg, Ph.B. 1895.

Born June 21, 1874, in New York City.
Died January 9, 1934, in New York City.

Father, Simon Borg; founder of Simon Borg & Company, investment securities, president of New York, Susquehanna & Western Railroad; born in Haupersweiler, Germany, and came to United States in 1856; son of Model and Babetta (Steinfeld) Borg Mother, Cecilia (Lichtenstadter) Borg; daughter of Sigmund and Hannah Ernestine (Minzesheimer) Lichtenstadter, of New York City. Yale relatives include two brothers, Myron I. Borg, '96 S., and Walter E. Borg, ex-'97 S.

Private tutor and Sachs’ Collegiate Institute. Select course; honors Senior year; a Class Historian; member Sigma Xi.

With Simon Borg & Company since graduation, member of firm since 1897, and senior member since 1904; aided in reorganization of Chicago & Great Western Railroad Company, Detroit Southern Railroad Company, Cincinnati, Findlay & Fort Wayne Railroad Company, Houston Oil Company, and the Kirby Lumber Company; member of the prior lien committee of Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis Railroad Company (since 1914) and of the Lehigh & New York Railroad Company; trustee of the United Hebrew Charities 1901–1918 and of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children 1914–1922; a founder of the Jewish Board of Guardians in 1906, and since treasurer; member of advisory board of Madison Avenue Woman’s Exchange and of National Department of Health; member American Academy of Political and Social Science, American Association for the Advancement of Science, American Economic Association, National Economic League, Academy of Political Science, Chamber of Commerce of the United States, Westchester County Chamber of Commerce, Merchants Association of New York, Tarrytown Hospital Association, Westchester County Conservation Association, Westchester County Historical Society, and Temple Emanu-El.

Married November 24, 1898, in New York City, Madeleine, daughter of Julius and Sophia (Walter) Beer Children: Margery (B A Wellesley 1920), the wife of Richard O. Loengard (B S. Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1917); and Dorothy (B A Wellesley 1923), the wife of George A. Spiegelberg (B A. Cornell 1918; LL B. Harvard 1921)

Death due to arteriosclerosis Buried in Salem Fields Cemetery; Long Island Survived by wife, daughters, and three sisters, Mrs. Beatrice B Stein, Mrs Edith B Hirsch, and Mrs. Elsie B. Goldsmith, all of New York City.
Harvey Denison Cowee, Ph.B. 1895.

Born May 22, 1874, in Troy, N. Y.
Died June 11, 1934, in Troy, N. Y.

Father, James Farwell Cowee (Williams ex-'65); president John L. Thompson Sons & Company, wholesale drug and chemical merchants, in Troy; son of David and Mary Elizabeth (Young) Cowee, of Troy. Mother, Nancy Louise (Denison) Cowee; daughter of Pardee Niles and Aurora Fatima (Streeter) Denison, of Berlin, N. Y.

Albany (N. Y.) Military Academy. Chemistry course; left college in December, 1894; degree conferred June, 1916, with enrollment in the Class of 1895 S.; member Theta Delta Chi.

Clerk with John L. Thompson Sons & Company, 1896, until the company's incorporation in 1903 and had since been vice-president; retired from active business in 1910; president Instructive District Nursing Association, Troy, since 1913 and of Troy Public Library since 1932; trustee Emma Willard School since 1923 and of the Samaritan Hospital 1934; vice-chairman of the board of trustees of Russell Sage College since 1928; member Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars, Society of Mayflower Descendants, Society of Founders and Patriots, and First Presbyterian Church, Troy.

Married November 26, 1902, in Troy, Louise Bontecou, daughter of John William Alfred and Elizabeth (Bontecou) Cluett. No children.

Death due to pneumonia with heart complications following an operation. Buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Troy. Survived by wife.

Horatio Nelson Emmons, Ph.B. 1895.

Born June 14, 1873, in St. Louis, Mo.
Died August 24, 1933, in Marion, Mass.

Father, George Beale Emmons, a cotton broker; son of Nathaniel Henry and Elizabeth Ware (Wales) Emmons, of Boston, Mass. Mother, Martha Jane (Davis) Emmons; daughter of Horatio Nelson Davis, of St. Louis.

Smith Academy, St. Louis, and St. Louis Manual Training School. Electrical engineering course.

With General Electric Company at Schenectady, N. Y., 1895-96 and with Fore River Engine Company (now Fore River Shipbuilding Company) of Quincy, Mass., 1896-98; during Spanish-American War commissioned an Assistant Engineer May 14, 1898, and assigned to U. S. monitor "Monterey"; present at battle of Manila; later assigned to the "Raleigh"; private secretary to general manager of New York Shipbuilding Company of Camden, N. J., 1899-1903; subsequently New England agent for Rossiter, McGovern & Company, dealers in electric machinery in Boston, and real estate and insurance and sales agent in New England for Merritt & Company of Camden; since 1913 had been engaged in Buzzards Bay and Cape Cod real estate and insurance business under name of H. Nelson Emmons & Company, with offices in Boston; vice-commodore of Beverly Yacht Club of Marion and president of Southern Massachusetts Yacht Racing Association at time of death; member Benjamin D. Cushing Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, treasurer of St. Gabriel's Episcopal Church, Marion, 1931–33; member Second Presbyterian Church, St. Louis.

Unmarried.

Death due to coronary thrombosis. Cremation took place and ashes were scattered on the waters of Buzzards Bay. Survived by two sisters, Margaret E. Bullitt, wife of Rev. James F. Bullitt (B.A. University of Pennsylvania 1885; Divinity School of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Philadelphia), of Philadelphia, and Sister Frances Elizabeth of All Saints (B.A. Bryn Mawr 1901), of Baltimore, a brother, Arthur B. Emmons (B.A. Harvard 1898, M.D. 1902), of Dover, Mass., a half brother, George B. Emmons (B.A. Harvard 1917), of East Greenwich, R.I., and a half sister, Marie E. Slattery, wife of Capt. John W. Slattery, U.S.A. (B.S. Norwich University 1912), of Rock Island, Ill.

Theodore Wright Griggs, Ph.B. 1895.

Born September 3, 1872, in St. Paul, Minn.
Died February 13, 1934, in St. Paul, Minn.

(For family history see biography of brother, Herbert Stanton Griggs, '82, p. 41.)

Dwight School, New York City. Mechanical engineering course; member Freshman Glee Club, University Glee Club Senior year, Class Baseball Team, and The Cloister and Book and Snake.

Married November 25, 1915, in St. Paul, Mary Steele, daughter of Crawford and Mary Steele (Potts) Livingston. One daughter, Mary Livingston.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Oakhill Cemetery, St. Paul. Survived by wife, daughter, two sisters, and brother.

William Orville Hickok, 3d, Ph.B. 1895.

Born August 23, 1874, in Harrisburg, Pa.
Died September 4, 1933, in Duboistown, Pa.

St. Paul’s School, Concord, N. H. Mechanical engineering course; on Football Team three years and University Track Team three years (captain Senior year); captain of Yale Track Team in meet with Oxford in England in 1894 and in meet with Cambridge at New York City in 1895 and of International Athletic Team; chairman of Class Cup Committee; member The Cloister and Book and Snake.

Connected with W. O. Hickok Manufacturing Company since 1895; machine apprentice 1895-96, clerk in the offices 1896-97, secretary 1897-1906, and president since 1906 (director since 1897); director of Commonwealth Trust Company of Harrisburg since 1899 and of Harrisburg Bridge Company since 1919; charter member of Motor Club of Harrisburg in 1907 and on board of governors to 1915 (president 1910-11); a governor of Harrisburg Country Club 1910-18; member Market Square Presbyterian Church (trustee 1901-1932).

George Henry Southard, Jr., Ph.B. 1895.

Born September 29, 1871, in Newburgh, N.Y.
Died August 13, 1933, at Westport Point, Mass.

Father, George Henry Southard, partner in firm of Southard & Company (timber and lumber), New York City; president of Franklin Trust Company of Brooklyn, an incorporator of Fifth Avenue Bank of Brooklyn, son of Zibeon and Helen Maria (Trescott) Southard, of Boston, Mass; Mother, Alida Hoffman (Royce) Southard; daughter of Charles Benjamin and Ellen (Brett) Royce, of Newburgh.

The Hill School. Select course; member St. Elmo and Delta Phi.

With Franklin Trust Company of Brooklyn 1895-1910; clerical positions until 1904, assistant secretary 1904-06, vice-president in charge of New York office 1906-1910, director 1906-09; had lived in Pittsfield, Mass, since 1910; president of Pittsfield Board of Trade 1912-13; treasurer of J & B Manufacturing Company (electrical and ignition specialties) 1917-1922, president of its successor, Berkshire Products Corporation 1922-23, of which receiver 1923-1930; trustee of City Savings Bank of Pittsfield since 1913; president Berkshire Employers Association 1921; executive secretary of Pittsfield Community Fund Association 1927-28; director Berkshire Loan & Trust Company; vice-president and member of executive committee of Yale Alumni Association of Berkshire County 1920-21 and president 1921-23; member First Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn.

Married (1) December 7, 1898, in Brooklyn, Mary Claflin, daughter of Edward Everett and Nancy Billings (Royce) Eames. Children: George Henry, 3d (B S. Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1923; LL B Harvard 1926); and Elizabeth (B A. Vassar 1925), the wife of George N Ernst. Mrs Southard died July 10, 1927 Married (2) March 2, 1930, in Pittsfield, Mary Catherine Galbraith (B A. Boston University 1905; B S. Simmons College 1917), daughter of John Galbraith (B A Wesleyan 1879, D D. 1906; Ph D. Boston University 1886) and Mary Clark (Weed) Galbraith.

Death due to cardiac asthma. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Newburgh. Survived by wife, son, daughter, two grandchildren, and a sister, Miss Edith B Southard, of Brooklyn.

Walter Grant Penfield, Ph.B. 1896.

Born November 11, 1872, in East Berlin, Conn.
Died January 3, 1934, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, Walter Edwin Penfield, a machinist; served in Company I, 22d Connecticut Infantry, during Civil War; son of Titus and Julia.
(North) Penfield, of East Berlin. Mother, Joanna (Weed) Penfield; daughter of Jarvis and Susan (Jennings) Weed, of Darien, Conn.

Williston Academy; attended Cornell 1890 (member Phi Gamma Delta). Left Yale in Senior year to take position as draftsman, bridge department, New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad at New Haven. Received degree of Ph.B. in 1905, with enrollment in Class of 1896 S.

Enlisted in Battery C, 1st Connecticut Heavy Artillery, U. S. Volunteers, May 4, 1898; stationed at Niantic, Conn.; promoted First Sergeant May 19 and Second Lieutenant October 21; mustered out October 29, 1898; again draftsman in bridge department of New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad at New Haven October 30, 1898-Apil 10, 1899; commissioned Second Lieutenant of Infantry, April 10, 1899, and assigned to 1st Infantry; stationed for short periods at Columbus Barracks, Ohio, and Governor's Island, N. Y.; at Pinar del Rio, Cuba, May 27, 1899-August 8, 1900; served with his regiment at Manila, P. I., 1900-02 and also as engineer officer with 6th Separate Brigade; promoted First Lieutenant February 2, 1901, and Adjutant, 3d Battalion, January 3, 1902; detailed to Ordnance Department June 20, 1902, and at Sandy Hook Proving Ground to August 29, 1903; at Rock Island (III) Arsenal 1903-04 and at Watertown (Mass.) Arsenal 1904-06; in command of Company C, 14th U. S. Infantry, at Vancouver (Wash.) Barracks 1906-07; on duty at U. S. Military Prison, Alcatraz Island, San Francisco Bay, April-July, 1907; detailed Captain, Ordnance Department, 1907 and at Springfield (Mass.) Armory to 1914; promoted Captain, Infantry, March 24, 1908; detailed Major, Ordnance Department, October 13, 1910; in 1914 appointed president of a board of officers to select new type of machine gun for the United States Army and stationed at Frankford (Pa.) Arsenal in charge of manufacture of artillery ammunition until March, 1915; resigned from the Army March 1, 1915; general works manager of Remington Arms Union Metallic Cartridge Company at Bridgeport, Conn., 1915-16; vice-president and general manager of Artillery Fuse Company, Wilmington, Del., 1916-17; during the war Lieutenant Colonel, 2d Regiment, Connecticut Home Guard; works manager of Wilmington plant of Manufacturers' Contracting Company 1920-21; vice-president of Trexler Company of America in Philadelphia 1922-24; works manager of Davis-Warner Arms Corporation, New York City, 1925-26; assistant to the president of Steiger Realty Corporation, Hartford, 1927-1931 and also store manager of Albert Steiger, Inc., 1929-1930; construction engineer with U. S. Treasury Department since 1932; in charge of construction of post office at Exeter, N. H., in 1932, at Cincinnati in 1933, and at Detroit since November, 1933; director of Sturdi-Truck Manufacturing Company of Greene, N. Y., 1926-1933; member American Society of Mechanical Engineers and Yale Engineering Association.
Yale Obituary Record

Married August 20, 1896, in New Haven, Adeline, daughter of Israel Dewey and Mary Adeline (Chester) Burnham. One son, Jesse Rogers, ’19 S.

Death due to myelogenous leukemia. Buried in Wilcox Cemetery, East Berlin. Survived by wife, son, one grandchild, and a sister, Susan P. Hodgson, the wife of Thomas C. Hodgson (M.B. University of Toronto 1894), of Berlin, Conn.

Burr Clark Chamberlin, Ph.B. 1897.

Born August 21, 1877, in Dalton, Mass.

Died November 10, 1933, in Bronxville, N. Y.

Father, Ansel Evans Chamberlin; farmer; superintendent of a horse breeding farm in Pittsfield, contractor and road builder; selectman, member of Massachusetts Legislature; son of Burr Clark and Sally Cecelia (Evans) Chamberlin, of Dalton. Mother, Carrie Florence (Barker) Chamberlin; daughter of Charles Trueworth and Mehitabel (Negus) Barker, of Pittsfield.

Phillips-Andover Civil engineering course; on Freshman Baseball Team and University Football Team; vice-president of his Class Senior year; member Graduation Committee, and The Cloister and Book and Snake.

Took course in civil engineering in Yale Graduate School 1897-99, during that time played on University Football Team (captain in 1898), coached Stanford University Football Team in 1899 and one of the coaches at Yale in 1900, coached University of Virginia Football Team in 1901 and 1902 and subsequently the team at United States Military Academy one year and at United States Naval Academy three years; member of Football Committee at Yale 1910-13 and member of coaching staff 1923-27; connected with New York Telephone Company as manager of John Street Exchange 1900-04; salesman for Manning, Maxwell & Moore, manufacturers of machinery, New York City, 1904-08; associated with chemical house of H. J. Baker & Company of New York 1911-17, as member of chemical sales department 1911-16 and then in charge of nitrate of soda in connection with Government nitrate pool; spent year 1914-15 abroad on business for the company; treasurer of Caribbean Trading Corporation, importers, of Brooklyn 1916; during the war served on nitrate committee of War Industries Board; vice-president of Gaston, Williams & Wigmore, Inc., international merchants, in New York 1920-21; secretary of Trade Mark Title Company, Inc., of Fort Wayne, Ind., 1924-25, president of Larvex Corporation of Brooklyn 1925-27; assistant to the manager of branch office of brokerage firm of Goodbody & Company, New York, since 1931.

Death due to uremia and arterial hypertension. Buried in Main Street Cemetery, Dalton. Survived by daughters and a brother, Charles H. Chamberlin, of Dalton.

Benjamin Bronson Lum, Ph.B. 1897.

Born November 10, 1876, in New Haven, Conn. Died October 30, 1933, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Benjamin Canfield Lum; clerk in New Haven Savings Bank; son of William DeForest and Mary (Tibbals) Lum, of Oxford, Conn. Mother, Lucy Stanley (Bronson) Lum; daughter of Stillman and Charlotte (Lindsley) Bronson, of Wolcott, Conn.

Hillhouse High School. Electrical engineering course.

Clerk with Winchester Repeating Arms Company 1897-1907; had since been with New Haven Savings Bank, as clerk 1907-1927, chief clerk 1927-1930, and comptroller since 1930; enlisted in Connecticut Naval Militia April 10, 1898; mustered into U. S. Navy June 15, 1898, and served on patrol of mine fields in New Haven harbor, at camp in Niantic, Conn., and with receiving ship "Minnesota" at Charlestown Navy Yard until given his discharge August 25, 1898; treasurer of St. Thomas' Episcopal Church, New Haven, 1916-1921 and vestryman 1921-24 and since 1932.

Married February 24, 1925, in New Haven, Marie, daughter of Samuel Hubbard and Susan Adolphine (Armstrong) Kirby, and niece of Thomas B. Kirby, '62. No children.

Took his own life; had been ill some months. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, a brother, William J. Lum, of Wallingford, Conn., and two sisters, Charlotte L. Tyler, wife of Rev. Corydon Curtiss Tyler, ex-'93, and Harriett L. Sperry, wife of Frederick N. Sperry, '94 M.

Henry Homes Porter, Ph.B. 1898.

Father, Henry Homes Porter; railroad president; a founder of U. S. Steel Company; head of Transfer & Clearing House Company, son of Rufus King Porter (B.A. Bowdoin 1813) and Lucy Lee (Hedge) Porter, of Machias, Maine. Mother, Eliza (French) Porter; daughter of George H and Eliza (Thayer) French, of Chicago. Yale relatives include: George F. Porter, '03 (brother); George S. Isham, '81 (brother-in-law), and Henry P. Isham, '17, and Ralph N. Isham, '24 S. (nephews).

Westminster School and private tutor in Chicago. Mechanical engineering course; member Cap and Gown and Class Book committees.

Director of Chicago Transfer & Clearing Company since 1901, president 1910-1922, and chairman of the board since 1922; director of American Shipbuilding Company since 1899, First National Bank of Chicago since 1903, and Chicago & Eastern Illinois Railroad since 1904; director of Illinois Children’s Home and Aid Society since 1918, second vice-president 1924-26, first vice-president 1926-28, and chairman of finance committee 1928-1932.

Married February 19, 1901, in Chicago, Mary Isham, daughter of Major Sartell Prentice, U.S.A., and Mary Adeline (Isham) Prentice. Children: Mary; Henry Homes, Jr., '26 S.; John Pierrepont; and Sartell Prentice, '31. Mr and Mrs Porter were divorced in 1927.

Took his own life. Buried in Graceland Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by daughter and three sons.

Morrison Brown Yung, Ph.B. 1898.

Born June 10, 1876, in Avon, Conn.
Died September 11, 1933, in Peiping, China.

Father, Wing Yung (B.A. 1854, LL.D. 1876) Mother, Mary Louisa (Kellogg) Yung. Yale relatives include: Rev. John Bartlett (B.A. 1807) (great-grandfather); Dr Francis Bartlett Kellogg, '83 (uncle); and Herbert H Kellogg, '94, Charles A. Kellogg, '00, and Sanford B. Kellogg, '17 (cousins).

Hartford (Conn) Public High School. Mining engineering course; on Freshman Glee Club and University Glee Club three years; chairman of Class Supper Committee, member The Colony and Berzelius.

E M Columbia 1901; with Ricketts & Banks, assayers and surveyors in North Carolina April-September, 1901; assayer and chemist with Santa Fé Gold & Copper Mining Company 1901-02, engaged in special investigation with Waverly Gold Mining Company in Nova Scotia 1902-03; engineer with El Cobre mines, Santiago, Cuba, 1903-04, mine superintendent 1904-08, and general manager 1906-08; also consulting engineer for Phoenix mines 1907-08; held commission from Chinese Government as general manager to open coal mines in Kuangsi Province 1909-1912, chief engineer for reconstruction of City of Hankow (under Republic of China) 1912-14; engaged in mine prospecting 1914-
1920; head of the Coal Bureau in Canton under Dr. Sun Yat Sen 1920-22; general manager of a tin mine in Lin Ma Hong (British Con- cession near Hong Kong) 1923, and of Asia Coal & Briquetting Com- pany, Ltd., of Hong Kong since 1923; manager of Asia Commercial & Development Company, Ltd., of Hong Kong 1923-26; director of mines for the Chinese Government in 1927 and 1928; had also been an independent consulting mining engineer and had developed a private coal mine near Hong Kong and a silver lead property near Kowloon; member Asylum Hill Congregational Church, Hartford.

Death due to tuberculosis. Buried in a private cemetery in Hong Kong. Survived by wife, son, a stepdaughter, Liang Tze Yung, a step- son, Wing To Yung, and a brother, Bartlett G. Yung, '02.

Herbert Wesley Bates, Ph.B. 1899.

Born June 16, 1876, in Lynn, Mass.
Died July 25, 1933, in Providence, R. I.

Father, Wallace Bates, a shoe manufacturer; chairman of Essex County (Mass.) Board of Commissioners; son of Thomas S. and Eliza- beth (Brown) Bates, of Lynn. Mother, Mary Abigail (Alley) Bates; daughter of James and Abigail (Witt) Alley, of Lynn.

Phillips-Andover. Chemistry course; member Cap and Gown Com- mittee.

With General Electric Company in Lynn 1899-1900; junior member of firm of James A. Bates & Company, in the electrical construction business, in Providence, 1900-1918; engaged in farming at Coventry, R. I., from 1918 until retirement 1923; secretary New England Beagle Club.

Unmarried.

Death due to chronic nephritis and renal asthma. Buried in Pine Grove Cemetery, Lynn. Survived by brother, James A. Bates, of Providence.

Herbert Thacker Herr, Ph.B. 1899.

Born March 19, 1876, in Denver, Colo.

Father, Theodore Witmer Herr, lawyer and realtor; son of Benjamin Groff and Mary Emma (Witmer) Herr, of Strasburg, Pa. Mother,
Rufus King Porter (B.A. Bowdoin 1813) and Lucy Lee (Hedge) Porter, of Machias, Maine. Mother, Eliza (French) Porter; daughter of George H. and Eliza (Thayer) French, of Chicago. Yale relatives include: George F. Porter, '03 (brother); George S. Isham, '81 (brother-in-law); and Henry P. Isham, '17, and Ralph N. Isham, '24 S. (nephews)

Westminster School and private tutor in Chicago. Mechanical engineering course; member Cap and Gown and Class Book committees.

Married February 19, 1901, in Chicago, Mary Isham, daughter of Major Sartell Prentice, USA, and Mary Adeline (Isham) Prentice. Children: Mary, Henry Homes, Jr., '26 S.; John Pierrepont; and Sartell Prentice, '31. Mr and Mrs Porter were divorced in 1927.

Took his own life. Buried in Graceland Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by daughter and three sons.

Morrison Brown Yung, Ph.B. 1898.

Born June 10, 1876, in Avon, Conn.
Died September 11, 1933, in Peiping, China.

Father, Wing Yung (B.A. 1854, LL.D. 1876). Mother, Mary Louisa (Kellogg) Yung. Yale relatives include. Rev. John Bartlett (B.A. 1807) (great-grandfather), Dr. Francis Bartlett Kellogg, '83 (uncle); and Herbert H. Kellogg, '94, Charles A. Kellogg, '00, and Sanford B. Kellogg, '17 (cousins)

Hartford (Conn.) Public High School mining engineering course; on Freshman Glee Club and University Glee Club three years; chairman of Class Supper Committee, member The Colony and Berzelius

E.M. Columbia 1901; with Ricketts & Banks, assayers and surveyors in North Carolina April–September, 1901; assayer and chemist with Santa Fé Gold & Copper Mining Company 1901–02; engaged in special investigation with Waverly Gold Mining Company in Nova Scotia 1902–03, engineer with El Cobre mines, Santiago, Cuba, 1903–04, mine superintendent 1904–08, and general manager 1906–08; also consulting engineer for Phoenix mines 1907–08; held commission from Chinese Government as general manager to open coal mines in Kwangsi Province 1909–1912; chief engineer for reconstruction of City of Hankow (under Republic of China) 1912–14; engaged in mine prospecting 1914–
1920; head of the Coal Bureau in Canton under Dr Sun Yat Sen 1920–22; general manager of a tin mine in Lin Ma Hong (British Concession near Hong Kong) 1923, and of Asia Coal & Briquetting Company, Ltd., of Hong Kong since 1923; manager of Asia Commercial & Development Company, Ltd., of Hong Kong 1923–26; director of mines for the Chinese Government in 1927 and 1928; had also been an independent consulting mining engineer and had developed a private coal mine near Hong Kong and a silver lead property near Kowloon; member Asylum Hill Congregational Church, Hartford.

Death due to tuberculosis. Buried in a private cemetery in Hong Kong. Survived by wife, son, a stepdaughter, Liang Tze Yung, a stepson, Wing To Yung, and a brother, Bartlett G. Yung, ’02.

Herbert Wesley Bates, Ph.B. 1899.

Born June 16, 1876, in Lynn, Mass.
Died July 25, 1933, in Providence, R. I.

Father, Wallace Bates, a shoe manufacturer; chairman of Essex County (Mass.) Board of Commissioners; son of Thomas S and Elizabeth (Brown) Bates, of Lynn. Mother, Mary Abigail (Alley) Bates; daughter of James and Abigail (Witt) Alley, of Lynn.

Phillips-Andover. Chemistry course; member Cap and Gown Committee.

Unmarried.

Death due to chronic nephritis and renal asthma. Buried in Pine Grove Cemetery, Lynn. Survived by brother, James A. Bates, of Providence.

Herbert Thacker Herr, Ph.B. 1899.

Born March 19, 1876, in Denver, Colo.

Father, Theodore Witmer Herr, lawyer and realtor, son of Benjamin Groff and Mary Emma (Witmer) Herr, of Strasburg, Pa. Mother, Emma (Musser) Herr; daughter of Dr. Martin Musser and Anna (Hostetter) Musser, of Lancaster County, Pa. Yale relatives include two nephews, Charles F. Clise, '11 S., and James W. Clise, Jr., '22 S.

Media and Denver High schools. Mechanical engineering course, prizes in mathematics and mechanical engineering; Senior appointment; member Freshman Cane Committee, and St. Elmo and Sigma Xi.

In railroad business 1899-1906; machinist and draftsman with Denver & Rio Grande Railway at Denver 1899-1902; master mechanic with Chicago Great Western Railroad at Des Moines, Iowa, in 1902 and at St. Paul, Minn., 1902-03; master mechanic with Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fé Railroad (Chicago Division) at Fort Madison, Iowa, 1903-04; general master mechanic with Norfolk & Western Railroad at Roanoke, Va., 1904-05; assistant to vice-president of Denver & Rio Grande at Denver 1905-06 and general superintendent of that railroad at Denver in 1906; vice-president and general manager of Duquesne Mining & Reduction Company in Arizona 1906-08; general manager of Westinghouse Machine Company in Pittsburgh 1908-1910, second vice-president and general manager 1910-13, and first vice-president and director 1913-15; had since been vice-president of Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Company; head of South Philadelphia Works of the company 1918-1930; general manager of Stoker Works of the company in Attica, N. Y., 1908-1930; vice-president and director of Rodman Chemical Company 1908-1917, Westinghouse Interworks Railway Company 1909-1915, Westinghouse, Church, Kerr & Company 1909-1914, Nernst Lamp Company 1909-1913, Pittsburgh Meter Company 1909-1915, Westinghouse Gear & Dynamometer Company since 1910, Westinghouse Air Spring Company 1910-16, and Interborough Improvement Company 1917-1928; inventor of locomotive air brake equipment; awarded Longstreth Medal in recognition of his inventions by the Franklin Institute in 1914 and John Scott Medal by board of directors of City Trusts in 1931 for his improvements in mechanical apparatus, appointed by President Harding member of board of visitors of United States Naval Academy for year 1923, director of Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce 1926-29, chairman of its public utilities committee 1927 and member of committee 1928-1931, and member of its industrial relations committee 1924-29 and its water committee 1928-1933, contributor to Yale Scientific Magazine; president of Yale Engineering Association 1924-25 and member of its executive committee 1930-32; member American Society of Mechanical Engineers, American Institute of Mining Engineers, Society of Automotive Engineers, Railway Master Mechanics Association, American Railway Guild, American Railway Association (on statistical inquiry committee), Society of Naval Engineers, Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers, American Association for the Advancement of Science; Army Ordnance Association, Pennsylvania Society, and Episcopal church.

Death due to sarcoma of the lung. Buried in Homewood Cemetery, Pittsburgh. Survived by wife, son, daughter, a half sister, Mrs. James W. Clise, of Altadena, Calif., and a half brother, Arthur T. Herr, of Denver. Two other half brothers, Edwin M. Herr, ’84 S., and Willis B. Herr, ’86 S., died in 1932 and 1929, respectively.

Wyllys Edmund Dowd, Jr., Ph.B. 1900.

Born October 13, 1878, in New York City.
Died August 14, 1933, in Greenwich, Conn.

Father, Wyllys Edmund Dowd; secretary and general manager of Whiting Manufacturing Company (silversmiths), New York City; son of Rev. Charles Ferdinand Dowd (B.A. 1853) and Harriet Miriam (North) Dowd (Mount Holyoke 1851), of Saratoga Springs, N. Y. Mother, Frances Isabelle (Chesebrough) Dowd; daughter of Robert John Chesebrough (B.A. 1817) and Anne (Birmingham) Chesebrough, of New York City. Cousin: Wheeler H. Peckham, ’03.

St. John’s School, Manlius, N. Y. Mechanical engineering course; member The Cloister and Book and Snake.

Draftsman in office of chief engineer of Manhattan Railway Company, New York City, 1900–02; superintendent of construction for East Jersey Pipe Company at Paterson 1902–03; foreman at shops of Crane Company in Chicago 1903–04 and assistant to the general superintendent of that company in Bridgeport, Conn., 1904–05; with Power Specialty Company of New York 1905–27, as a salesman in New York 1905–06, Philadelphia sales manager 1906–1912, secretary of company in New York 1912–1927 and director 1920–27; sales engineer for Destructor Company, New York City, 1912–16; vice-president and director of Foster-Wheeler Corporation, New York City, since 1927; director Foster Marine Boiler Corporation 1920–1930 and Langdon Company (machinery manufacturers) 1920–28; enlisted April 7, 1917, and attended Plattsburg Camp; commissioned Captain, Engineer Corps, July 23, 1917; served with 304th Engineers at Camp Meade; received discharge October 1, 1917; served in civilian engineering capacity with Emergency Fleet Corporation October 1, 1917–November 11, 1918; president of Yale Engineering Association since 1931 (on executive committee 1921–25); president of Round Hill Club Married November 27, 1920, Anna Elizabeth Clement Knowles; daughter of Percival Wood Clement, Trinity ex-’68, and Maria Hinman (Goodwin) Clement, and sister of Robert Clement, ’10. Children: Clement and Nancy Chesebrough.

Richard Hays Hawkins, Ph.B. 1900.
Born February 15, 1879, at Hawkins Station, Pa.
Died October 14, 1933, in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Father, William George Hawkins, Jr. (B.A. Jefferson 1861; LL.D. Washington and Jefferson 1902); president judge of Orphans’ Court of Allegheny County, Pa; son of William George and Margaretta (Dilinger) Hawkins, of Hawkins Station. Mother, Jennie (Hays) Hawkins, daughter of Richard and Margaret (Irwin) Hays, of Pittsburgh

Shady Side Academy, Pittsburgh. Select course; business manager of Scientific Monthly; chairman of Class Book Committee, member The Colony and Berzelius.

LL.B. University of Pittsburgh 1903, LL.M. 1918, practiced law in Pittsburgh 1903-1918; clerk with firm of Dalzell, Scott & Gordon 1903-06; member of firm of Dalzell, Fisher, Young & Hawkins 1906-08 and of its successor, Dalzell, Fisher & Hawkins, 1908-1918; connected with University of Pittsburgh Law School since 1903, as an instructor until 1921 and since then as professor of law, with leave of absence during the war; commissioned Captain in Ordnance Department January 29, 1918, assigned to office of Chief of Ordnance, Washington; promoted Major July 25, 1918, and Lieutenant Colonel June 18, 1919; Major in Regular Army from July 1, 1920, until resignation October 1, 1921, Lieutenant Colonel, Officers’ Reserve Corps, since November 9, 1921; member American, Pennsylvania State, and Allegheny County Bar associations, American Law Institute, and Calvary Protestant Episcopal Church, Pittsburgh

Married (1) April 25, 1911, in Ardmore, Pa., Ada Montgomery, daughter of James McCrea, University of Pennsylvania ex-’65, and Ada (Montgomery) McCrea, sister of James A. McCrea, ’95 S., and Archibald M. McCrea, ex-’97 S., and granddaughter of James A.
McCrea (M.D. University of Pennsylvania 1833; student at Yale 1828–1830). One son, Richard Hays, Jr., '34 Mrs. Hawkins died April 20, 1913. Married (2) January 11, 1921, in Washington, D. C., Lotta Klemm Boyd, daughter of Richard Klemm (C.E. University of Tubingen) and Caroline (Daenzer) Klemm. No children by second marriage.

Louis Henry Strouse, Ph.B. 1900.

Born August 15, 1877, in New Haven, Conn.
Died April 2, 1934, in New York City.

Father, David Strouse, '76 L. Mother, Louise (Fisher) Strouse.

HiIlhouse High School. Select course; secretary-treasurer of Yale Six-Shooter Club; on Meander Class Crew Freshman year, Apollo Glee Club two years, and Bicycle Team two years (won Y).

LL.B. 1903 (captain Law School Hockey Team); had practiced law in New York City since 1903; with Fleischman & Fox 1903; managing clerk with Williams, Folsom & Strouse 1903-05 and member of firm 1905-1919; member of firms of Campbell, Flaherty, Turner & Strouse 1919-1922; Flaherty, Turner & Strouse 1922-25; and Strouse & Goldstone 1925-1930; had since practiced independently; director Peninsular National Bank of Cedarhurst, N. Y., since 1924, Albert Frank-Guenter Law, Inc., since 1926, Madison Mortgage Corporation since 1926, and Woodmere (N. Y.) Country Club since 1924 (secretary since 1931); vice-commander of Knickerbocker Yacht Club since 1931, member New York State Bar Association and American Bar Association.

Married (1) April 25, 1906, in New York City, Marion, daughter of Ezekiel and Kate Plonsky. Children. Shirley May (Mrs Harry Lustig); and Kathryn Louise (Mrs. Maurice R. Bernheim). Mrs. Strouse died January 12, 1932. Married (2) June 15, 1933, at Port Washington, N. Y., Gladys, daughter of Frederick and Martha (Relling) Berg.

Death due to cancer. Buried in Machpelah Cemetery, New York City. Survived by wife, two daughters, and a brother, Edward C. Strouse, of Hartford, Conn.
Richard Varick VanVredenburgh, Ph.B. 1900.

Born June 7, 1878, in Memphis, Tenn.
Died November 16, 1933, in New York City.

Father, Richard Varick VanVredenburgh, vice-president of Memphis Street Railway Company. Mother, Letitia Hart (Vance) VanVredenburgh.

Attended University of the South 1895–98. Entered Yale 1898; electrical engineering course; on Class Relay Team; president of Southern Club; member The Colony and Berzelius.

Employed by Manhattan Tobacco Company of Louisville, Ky., in 1901, with Central Paint Company of Louisville 1901–02, becoming city salesman, took a trip around the world in 1903; manager of hame department of Todd Manufacturing Company of New Albany, Inc. (manufacturers of hames, chains, and rings), in 1904; then manager of building material department of Davis, Kelly & Company, commission merchants, in Louisville; in 1906 bought an interest in the Smith & Nixon Company, retail piano dealers, in Louisville and served as treasurer of the company until January, 1910; proprietor of VanVredenburgh & Company, pipe fitting tools, in New Albany, 1911; subsequently engaged in real estate business in Louisville until about 1918, during the war acted as an expert in heat treatment of steel with various companies and later consulting metallurgist in Cleveland for a time, subsequently assistant sales manager for a wood working concern in Louisville and engaged in the fruit and vegetable brokerage business in that city, more recently had been in the insurance business in New York City.

Unmarried

Death due to arteriosclerosis. Survived by no immediate relatives.

Henry Pearce, Jr., Ph.B. 1901.

Born December 27, 1879, in Providence, R. I.
Died March 7, 1934, in Providence, R. I.

Father, Henry Pearce; a banker and broker in Providence; son of Edward and Harriet Pearce. Mother, Elizabeth (Bourne) Pearce
St. Marks' and Pomfret schools. Select course; Cup man; on governing board of Yale Corinthian Yacht Club two years; member Renaissance Club and St. Anthony and Delta Psi.

Engaged in the stock and bond business in Providence from 1901 until retirement January 1, 1915, connected with L. H. Tappan & Company, Charles Head & Company, and E. & C. Randolph, subsequently spent much time in London and Paris; from February 9, 1918, to April 1, 1919, served with American Red Cross, with rank of William Henry Hall, Ph.B. 1902.

Born January 25, 1881, in Providence, R. I.
Died August 14, 1933, in West Hartford, Conn.

Father, Henry Adelbert Hall; in grocery business in New Britain, Conn.; son of Roscoe and Nancy (Doane) Hall, of Providence.
Mother, Lucy Jane (Matteson) Hall; daughter of Henry and Lucy Ann (Griffin) Matteson, of Providence.

New Britain High School. Civil engineering course; honors in German Junior year.

Civil engineer with New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company in New Haven 1902-05; partner in firm of Hall & Bacon, civil engineers, in New Britain 1910-14; city engineer of New Britain 1914-1920; had since been president and treasurer of W. H. Hall Construction Company of Hartford; and of the Massachusetts Amiesite Company of Boston; partner in the Old Colony Crushed Stone Company of Quincy, Mass., since 1926; vice-president board of trustees, Monson Academy; member American Society of Civil Engineers, Connecticut Society of Civil Engineers, and Yale Engineering Association.

Married April 22, 1911, in New Haven, Belle Parkhurst (Yale School of Music 1903-04), daughter of Edward Horton and Kate Evelyn (Johnson) Parkhurst, and sister of E. Leroy Parkhurst, '12 S. Children: William Henry, Jr., Dartmouth 1936; Katherine Parkhurst, Yale School of the Fine Arts, Department of Painting, second year, and Constance.

Death due to coronary thrombosis. Buried in Fairview Cemetery, New Britain. Survived by wife, son, daughters, mother, two brothers, Curtis A. and Alan V. Hall, both of West Hartford, and two sisters, Mrs. Ernest W. Christ, of New Britain, and Mary H. Lewis, wife of Edwin N. Lewis (B Litt. Columbia 1919), of Washington, D. C.
Neil Macneale, Ph.B. 1902.

Born March 9, 1880, in Cincinnati, Ohio.
Died September 5, 1933, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Father, James Donald Macneale (L.L.B. University of Cincinnati 1874), lawyer; secretary Macneale & Urban Company, manufacturers of safes and locks; son of Neil and Sarah Ann (Loughery) Macneale, of Cincinnati. Mother, Mary (Sargent) Macneale; daughter of Edward Bartow and Mary (Smith) Sargent, of Cincinnati. Yale relatives include Edward S. Macneale, ex-'05 (brother); Edward B. Sargent, '83 (uncle); and Rev. George Paull T. Sargent, '05 (cousin).

University School, Cleveland, Ohio. Mechanical engineering course; member Harlequin Crew and The Colony and Berzelius.

Draftsman for Bullock Electric Manufacturing Company of Cincinnati 1902-03 and chief draftsman 1903-05; general manager of Xylotite Product Company, Cincinnati, 1905-07; president of Toledo Electric Welding Company, Cincinnati, 1908-1917 and of Corcoran-Victor Company, manufacturers of automobile lamps, 1918-1925; connected with sales department of Bauer Auto Sales Company, Cincinnati, since 1925, although not actively engaged since June, 1931, during the war member of American Protective League; amateur golf champion of Cincinnati for several years; member Seventh Presbyterian Church, Walnut Hills, Cincinnati.

Married December 29, 1903, in Avondale, Cincinnati, Mary Eleanor, daughter of Adam and Mary Ann (Tree) Gray, and sister of Joseph L Gray, ex-'04, and Robert A. Gray, ex-'05. Children: Mary, wife of James E. Herron, ex-'19; Eleanor, wife of Dale P. Osborn (M.D. Northwestern University 1922); and Neil, Jr., '35 E.

Death due to mediastinal tumor and chronic nephritis. Buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati. Survived by wife, two daughters, son, and a grandchild.

Henry Glover Stevens, Ph.B. 1902.

Born January 18, 1879, in Detroit, Mich.
Died February 11, 1934, in Detroit, Mich.

Thacher School, Nordhoff, Calif. Forestry course; on Track Team Junior and Senior years and Cross Country Team Senior year; member Debating Team Senior year; treasurer of Sheffield Scientific School Y.M.C.A.

M.F. 1903, studied forestry in Europe and India 1903-05; had never followed the profession of forestry, but served as secretary of Michigan
Forestry Association 1906–1911; with H. W. Noble & Company, Inc., bankers, in Detroit 1905–06; secretary of Bumpus-Stevens Company (investment securities) for several years and later secretary of Stevens Land Company, Ltd., of Detroit; former assistant treasurer of Iron Silver Mining Company; a director of Detroit Associated Charities and of the Babies' Milk Fund; an organizer of Detroit Community Fund in 1918, and chairman of its budget committee until 1929; president Urban League for Negroes since 1916; on Arts Commission of Detroit Institute of Arts; trustee of Museum of Art Founders Society since 1914; served with American Red Cross at Camp Custer during the war; member Detroit Board of Commerce and Arts and Crafts Society.

Unmarried.

Death due to myocardial failure. Buried in Woodmere Cemetery, Detroit. Survived by a brother, William P. Stevens, '93 S., and two sisters, Mrs. Fremont Woodruff, of Detroit, and Mrs. Ellen Stevens Whitall, of Pelham, N. Y.

Ernest Mead Baker, Ph.B. 1903.

Born November 25, 1880, in Detroit, Mich.
Died March 22, 1934, in New York City.

Detroit High School and The Hotchkiss School. Select course; member Bicentennial Committee and St. Elmo.

Draftsman with Canadian Bridge Company 1904–06; president of Baker-Churchill Company, manufacturers of oil pumps, in Detroit 1906–07; apprentice with Detroit Steel Products Company 1908–09; secretary and treasurer of Trojan Laundry Company, Detroit, until 1920; general manager of Commerce Motor Car Company 1920–22; partner in firm of Regan Baker Company, highway engineers and contractors, of Rexton, Mich., 1922–27; owner and manager of Minwool Insulating Company of Detroit 1927–28; secretary and treasurer Detroit Floor Service Company 1929; salesman for Walgreen Company, drugs, New York City, 1933; enlisted as a Private, 50th Michigan Infantry, June 6, 1917, made Sergeant September 10, 1917, and subsequently Second Lieutenant and Captain; member Christ Episcopal Church, Detroit.

Married (1) June 12, 1909, at Grosse Pointe Farms, Mich., Lorraine
Elizabeth, daughter of Bernhard and Elizabeth (Saltsmann) Stroh. Children: Ernest Mead, Jr. (University of Michigan 1931-33); Elizabeth Latimer; and Peter. Mr. and Mrs. Baker were divorced in 1920. Married (2) February 15, 1934, in New York City, Julie Hedwig, daughter of Julius Albert and Hedwig (Hofbauer) Stursberg, and sister of Herbert J. Stursberg, '12 S., and of the late Albert H. Stursberg, '03 S.

Death due to cancer. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York City. Survived by wife, two sons, daughter, and a brother, Harold D. Baker, '06 S.

Nathan Mears MacKay, Ph.B. 1903.

Born July 16, 1888, in Chicago, Ill.
Died January 10, 1934, at Magnolia Springs, Ala.

Father, James Robert MacKay, partner in firm of Munger Wheeler Elevator Company; son of James and Elizabeth (Boyd) MacKay of Waukegan, Ill. Mother, Elizabeth (Mears) MacKay; daughter of Nathan and Sarah Elizabeth (Gilbert) Mears, of Norwalk, Conn. Cousin, Arthur B. Slade, ex-'97 S.

St. Paul's School and Phillips-Andover. Select course, on governing board of University Club; member The Cloister and Book and Snake.

With Republic Iron & Steel Company at Thomas, Ala., 1903-04; order clerk with Chapman, DeGolyer & Company, bankers, in Chicago; later with Scully Iron & Steel Company in Chicago until 1911; engaged in farming at Robertsdale, Ala., raising tobacco, fruit, and pecans, 1911-1930; at one time partner in firm of MacKay Brothers; since 1930 had been engaged in pecan growing at Magnolia Springs; member St. James Episcopal Church, Chicago.

Unmarried.

Arthur Josiah Mills, Ph.B. 1903.

Born May 18, 1881, in Pittsfield, Mass.
Died November 5, 1933, in Noroton, Conn.

Father, Arthur Alton Mills, a merchant; son of Josiah Alvan Mills (B A. Williams 1839) and Sylvia (Eldridge) Mills, of Williamstown, Mass, and Buffalo, N Y. Mother, Mary (Ingraham) Mills; daughter of William Tully and Eunice Tryphosa (Loomer) Ingraham, of Springfield, Mass. Great-great-grandfather: Rev Gideon Mills (B A. 1737).
Phillips-Andover. Mechanical engineering course; a Class Book historian; member York Hall and Chi Phi.

Took students’ course with New York Central Railroad Company at Albany 1903-04; engineer with Hudson River Telephone Company (later the Empire State Telephone & Telegraph Company) at Albany 1904-1910; manager of Pittsfield Auto Garage Company 1910–18, cost engineer with Stone & Webster, Inc., shipbuilders, in Philadelphia 1918–1920 and at Kokomo, Ind., 1920–22; had since been engaged in real estate business; salesman for R. Franklin Hull of White Plains, N.Y., 1922–27; treasurer of firm of Morrow & Mills and its successor, Morrow, Mills & Stark, Inc., at White Plains 1927–29; had since been in business for himself under name of Arthur J. Mills, Inc., at Noroton Heights; member First Congregational Church, Pittsfield.

Married May 14, 1912, in Alexandria, Va., Laura Johnson, daughter of Rufus Berkeley and Mary Florence (Hill) Townsend, of Washington, D.C.

Death due to accidental gas poisoning from an automobile exhaust. Buried in Lake View Cemetery, Bridgeport, Conn. Survived by wife and a sister, Miss Mabel I. Mills (Wellesley 1895–99), of Pittsfield.

Albert Herman Stursberg, Ph.B. 1903.

Born August 23, 1883, in St. George, Staten Island, N.Y.
Died July 14, 1933, in New York City.

Father, Julius Albert Stursberg, a sugar refiner of Bernardsville, N. J.; treasurer of Hermann Stursberg Realty Company and vice-president of Livingston Worsted Company and of South Puerto Rico Sugar Company; son of Hermann and Babette (Mauer) Stursberg, of Mannheim, Germany, who came to the United States in 1850 Mother, Hedwig (Hofbauer) Stursberg; daughter of Franz and Clara (Wolf) Hofbauer, who came from Germany to America in 1855.

Cutler School, New York City. Electrical engineering course; a Class deacon and statistician; member St. Elmo.

Went abroad in July, 1903, and studied in the woolen mills at Brunn, Austria, for a year and at Reichenberg about six months; attended Lowell (Mass.) Textile School in 1905; with Germania Mills, Holyoke, Mass., 1905–06; had since been connected with firm of W. Stursberg, Schell & Company, commercial bankers and commission merchants; became a partner October 1, 1913, and had been head of the firm since October, 1932; secretary of Livingston Worsted Company 1918–1933 and president since May, 1933 (director since 1908); director Hermann Stursberg Realty Company since 1906, Germania Mills since 1908, and of Great American Insurance Company; member St. Bartholomew’s Episcopal Church, New York.
Married November 14, 1906, in Harrison, N. Y., Edith Fisher, daughter of John Robert and Mary Louise (Fisher) Downey, and sister of John I. Downey, '97 S., Edward A. Downey, '03 S., and Harold L. Downey, ex-'04 S. Children: Julius Herman, '31; Laird; Edward Alexander, '37; Babette Louise; and Barbara May.

Death due to pneumonia Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York City. Survived by wife, three sons, two daughters, a grandchild, a brother, Herbert J. Stursberg, '12 S., and three sisters, Wilhelmina J. Mason, wife of Eugene W. Mason (Ph.B. Brown 1899); Julie S. Baker, widow of Ernest M. Baker, '03 S., and Miss Alice Stursberg, all of New York City.

Arthur Dorland Miles, Ph.B. 1904.

Born July 28, 1874, in Allenwood, Pa.
Died October 17, 1933, near Whitemouth, Manitoba, Canada.

Father, Joseph Green Miles, a station agent, New York Central Railroad, son of Rev Joseph Green Miles and Isabella Patterson (Hunter) Miles, of Allenwood. Mother, Martha (Dorland) Miles, daughter of John Sedam and Rebecca (Oakes) Dorland, of Allenwood.

Graduated New York Pharmacy School 1898; enlisted in Navy as apothecary and chemist and served during Spanish-American War; Dwight School, New York City; then entered Sheffield Scientific School Chemistry course; two-year general honors, a Class Book historian, member Book and Bond Laboratory assistant in mineralogy at Yale 1904-05, had since been engaged as a mining engineer, assayer for J I Brown at Cripple Creek, Colo, 1905 and for Daly Reduction Company, Hedley, British Columbia, 1905-06, mill superintendent for Barnes-King Development Company at its cyanide plant at Kendal, Mont., 1906-07, with Canadian Copper Company at Copper Cliff, Ontario, 1907-1918, becoming field engineer in 1910, assistant to the president in 1912, and president in 1913; subsequently president of International Nickel Company of Canada, Ltd., and a member of the board until 1922; Canadian representative and director Anglo-Canadian Explorers, Inc., and also Canadian representative John Taylor & Sons, consulting engineers and mine managers, both English companies, since 1922; president Central Manitoba Mines, Ltd., 1927-1930 and 1933; had been president of Upper Spanish River Improvement Company and of Ontario Mining Association and vice-president of The Huronian Company, Ltd (operators of hydroelectric plant and railroad); member Yale Engineering Association.

Married August 20, 1919, in Toronto, Elsie Armour Duncan, daugh-
Sheffield Scientific School

William James Mitchell, Ph.B. 1904.
Born March 25, 1881, in New Haven, Conn.
Died June 28, 1934, in New York City.

Boadman Manual Training High School Civil engineering course. Treasurer and manager Connecticut Pie Company until 1923; secretary McCusker & Schroeder Coal Company for several years following 1923; with Schrafft’s in New York City; store manager for Loft & Company, New York City, 1930–31; member Roman Catholic Church.

Survived by son, daughter, and a sister, Mrs. Gustav Keller, of New Haven.

Elton Brigham Hill, Ph.B. 1907.
Born October 13, 1885, in Hartford, Conn.
Died October 13, 1933, in Hartford, Conn.

Father, Marshall Lawrence Hill; manager of Hartford branch of National Biscuit Company, son of Benjamin Elton and Lydia Olcott (Wiley) Hill, of Hartford. Mother, Tillie (Payne) Hill; adopted daughter of Brigham and Emily (Grant) Payne, of Rockville, Conn.

Hartford Public High School. Civil engineering course; honorable mention in Spanish Freshman year; member Book and Bond.

Had been with actuarial department of Aetna Life Insurance Company, Hartford, since graduation, at first as a clerk and since 1928 as assistant actuary; officer candidate at Field Artillery Central Officers’ Training School, Camp Taylor, September 10–November 27, 1918; secretary and treasurer of Actuaries Club of Hartford since 1928; fellow of Actuarial Society of America; member American Mathematical Society and Windsor Avenue Congregational Church, Hartford
Unmarried.

Death due to arteriosclerotic heart disease and coronary occlusion.
Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford. Survived by father, a sister, Lucile H Batchelder (Simmons College 1912–14), wife of Louis W. Batchelder (B.S. University of Vermont 1914), of Hartford, and a brother, Leslie M. Hill, ’17 S

Cleveland May Thorne, Ph.B. 1907.

Born March 28, 1884, in Yonkers, N.Y.
Died August 28, 1933, at Bear Mountain Park, N.Y.

Father, William Hicks Thorne; partner in mercantile firm of Thorne, Carrol & Company; son of Samuel C. and Maria (Hoogland) Thorne, of Locust Valley, N.Y. Mother, Ida (Cleveland) Thorne; daughter of Cyrus and Emily Parkhurst (McKay) Cleveland, of Rhode Island.

Lawrenceville School and Phillips-Andover. Select course; on Scrub Football Team and Select Baseball Team.

During first four years after graduation connected successively with Baldwin Locomotive Works, Philadelphia, McArthur Brothers (construction work), Pennsylvania Steel Company at Steelton, the Lackawanna Steel Company’s blast furnaces, and J. S. White & Company, engineers, New York; studied law at Columbia 1911–13 (LL.B. 1913); admitted to New York Bar March 4, 1914; practiced in New York with Dexter, Osborn & Fleming, with Joline, Larkin, Rathbone & Perry, and, since 1929, with Shearman & Sterling.

Unmarried

Death due to injuries received in an automobile accident. Buried in Oakland Cemetery, Yonkers. Survived by a sister, Miss Emily C. Thorne, of New York City, and a half brother, Howard E. Thorne, Swarthmore ex-’80, of Pleasantville, N.Y.

Born May 24, 1887, in New Haven, Conn.
Died August 26, 1933, at Long Beach, N.Y.

Father, Thomas Francis Moakley; master mechanic with Reynolds Company, New Haven; son of Thomas Francis and Mary (Donnelly) Moakley, of Florence, Mass. Mother, Ellen (McLaughlin) Moakley; daughter of Thomas and Margaret (Moran) McLaughlin, of New Haven.

New Haven High School. Electrical engineering course.

Student engineer with General Electric Company, Lynn, Mass., 1908–09, assistant examiner in U.S. Patent Office, Washington, 1909–1913, studied law at George Washington University 1909–1911 and admitted to bar in District of Columbia October, 1912; practiced patent law independently in New York City since 1913; admitted to Ray Hamilton Skelton, Ph.B. 1909.

Born October 18, 1888, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died October 29, 1933, in Washington, D. C.

Father, Christopher Payson Skelton, a contractor and builder; son of Christopher Page and Sophia Ruggles (Bucknam) Skelton, of Lowell, Mass. Mother, Frances Alice (Kirby) Skelton; daughter of Samuel Wheeler and Mary Ann (Mills) Kirby, of Greenburg, N. Y.

Boys' High School, Brooklyn. Civil engineering course; prizes in mechanical drawing and chemistry Freshman year; Tucker prize in sanitary engineering Senior year.

Timekeeper and cost analysis clerk with Ferro-Concrete Contracting Company of New York City in 1909; assistant superintendent of Worcester Salt Company at Silver Springs, N. Y., 1909-11; graduate student in Sheffield Scientific School 1911-12 (C.E. 1912) and also served as assistant instructor; draftsman with Westinghouse, Church, Kerr & Company of New York 1912-13; computer in bridge department of J. C. White Engineering Corporation, New York City, in 1913; instructor in sanitary engineering at Yale 1913-14, in drawing and descriptive geometry 1914-15, and in drawing and civil engineering 1915-17; professor of railway engineering at Pei Yang University, Tientsin, China, 1917-1920; then returned to Yale as instructor in engineering mechanics for a year; assistant professor of mathematics and surveying at Allegheny College 1921-25; also had private practice in surveying and bridge maintenance for Venango County, Pa.; as- sistant professor of civil engineering at University of Maryland 1925-1930 and associate professor since 1930; instructor in surveying at the Camp of the Yale School of Forestry at Milford, Pa., 1914-1915, and 1922-25; spent summer of 1921 in the Bureau of Public Roads, Education Division, author: Legal Elements of Boundaries and Adjacent Properties (1930), at the time of his death was engaged in the preparation of a series of lectures on the general subject of the legal elements of boundary surveying, one lecture of which had been given at the Yale Engineering Camp at East Lyme, Conn., in September, 1933, trustee of University Park (Md.) School since 1927; secretary of University Park Civic Association in 1927; member American Society of Civil Engineers, American Association of Engineers, Washington Society of Engineers, Association of Chinese and American Engineers, Society for the Promotion of Engineering Education, Yale Engineering Association, Yale chapter of Tau Beta Pi, University of Maryland chapter of Sigma Xi (elected in 1930), Old Planters' Society, and Christ Episcopal Church, Bay Ridge, N. Y.

Death due to paralytic ileus and sub-acute appendicitis. Buried in Green-Wood Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, daughter, two sons, a brother, Eugene W. Skelton (B.A. 1894, M.D. Long Island College Hospital 1901), and two sisters, Iza B Skelton Atwood (B.A. Wellesley 1895), wife of A Wilson Atwood (M.D. University of Michigan 1903), of Worcester, Mass., and Miss Christine Skelton, of New York City.

Karl Conrad Stadtmiller, Ph.B. 1909.

Born September 21, 1888, in Meriden, Conn.
Died January 2, 1934, in Meriden, Conn.

Father, Louis Weld Stadtmiller (special student Sheffield Scientific School 1879-1880), purchasing agent for Edward Miller & Company, manufacturers of lamps, in Meriden; son of Louis and Philipena (Roemer) Stadtmiller, of West Hartford and New Haven, Conn. Mother, Emily Gertrude (Siebke) Stadtmiller; daughter of Rev. Charles Henry Siebke and Henriette von Radicke Siebke, of New Haven. Yale relatives include: Henry B. Stadtmiller (special student Sheffield Scientific School 1879-1880) (uncle); and Louis R. Stadtmiller, '10 S (cousin).

Meriden High School Mining engineering course.

Connected with Morenci (Ariz.) mines of Phelps-Dodge Corporation 1909-1910, took graduate work at Yale 1910-12 (E.M. 1912); assistant and camp superintendent for Braden Copper Company, Rancagua, Chile, 1912-14; general superintendent of Kennecott.
Howard Hancock Logan, Ph.B. 1910.

Born June 9, 1888, in Chicago, Ill.
Died April 2, 1934, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, Frank Granger Logan (L.L.D. Beloit 1922); founder of Logan & Bryan, general commission and brokerage merchants; also a founder of a chair of anthropology at Beloit College, and of a research fund in medicine at University of Chicago; trustee of Beloit College; son of Simeon Ford and Phoebe Ann (Hazen) Logan, of Ments, N. Y.

Mother, Josephine (Hancock) Logan; daughter of Colonel John Lane Hancock and Emeline Philbrick (Goding) Hancock, of Chicago.

Harvard and University schools, Chicago. Select course; general two-year honors and honorable mention in history Senior year; president of Yale Motorcycle Club; vice-president of Yale Automobile Club; member of executive committee of Byers Hall and of Cap and Gown Committee and St. Elmo.

Partner in firm of Logan & Bryan 1910–16, independent broker and member of New York Stock Exchange 1916–1933; in 1917 served with Red Cross Serbian Expedition for two months; in January, 1918, became a Lieutenant in the Signal Corps of the U. S. Army, enlisted in the Navy June 13, 1918, and served at Pelham Bay Park until released from active duty in December, 1918; had served as Class treasurer for some years until 1930; member Illinois Society, Sons of the Revolution.

Married January 19, 1918, in Chicago, Helen Hart, daughter of Silas and Capitola (Baldwin) Brosius. One daughter, Josephine Hancock. Mr. and Mrs. Logan were divorced in 1928.

Death due to bronchial pneumonia. Buried in Oakwoods Cemetery,
Chicago Survived by daughter, parents, and three brothers, Stuart Logan, '08 S, Spencer H Logan, ex-'18 S, and Waldo Logan, of Los Angeles, Calif.

Clifford Frederick Messinger, Ph.B. 1911.
Born September 9, 1889, in New Haven, Conn.
Died December 12, 1933, in Milwaukee, Wis.

Father, Charles Frederick Messinger, a druggist in New Haven. Mother, Helen Martha (Beecher) Messinger; daughter of George Edwin and Martha Elizabeth (Baldwin) Beecher, of Woodbridge, Conn. Yale relatives include: Hezekiah H. Baldwin (B.A. 1810) (great-great-uncle) and John B Messinger, ex-'36 (nephew).

New Haven High and Boardman Manual Training schools, Select course; on Freshman Football Team and College Football Team in 1909, Freshman Glee Club, Class Baseball Team, executive committee of Y M C A, and Junior Promenade Committee; chairman of Student Council, Freshman Reception Committee Senior year, and Class Book Committee; secretary and treasurer of Class of 1911 S. Senior year and secretary until 1917; member York Hall and Chi Phi.

Had been connected with Chain Belt Company of Milwaukee since graduation, apprentice 1911-12, in advertising department 1912-13, advertising manager 1913-August, 1918, and also manager of concrete mixer department from 1916, sales manager 1916-20, assistant to the vice-president 1918-20, general sales manager 1920-22, second vice-president 1922-23, first vice-president 1923-31, and president since January 1, 1931; vice-president of Stearns Conveyor Company of Cleveland, a subsidiary of Chain Belt Company, 1927-28 and president and director since 1928; secretary-treasurer and director Associated Machinery Corporation 1921-24; trustee of Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company of Milwaukee 1933; director Interstate Drop Forge Company of Milwaukee since 1920, Federal Malleable Company since 1924, Nugent Steel Casting Company, of Chicago, 1926-1930, Second Wisconsin National Bank, of Milwaukee, 1928-30, Sivyer Steel Castings Company of Milwaukee since 1929, and National Bank of Commerce since 1930; president Concrete Mixer Association of the United States 1921 and of the Mixer Manufacturers' Bureau 1929 and 1932, chairman Malleable Chain Manufacturers' Institute 1929-1931; vice-president Highway Industries Exhibitors' Association 1924-26; member of finance committee of Milwaukee Community Fund 1933; secretary and treasurer of Yale Alumni Association of Wisconsin 1914-17, vice-president 1921-22, and president 1922-25 and again 1927-29; enlisted August 15, 1918; attended Officers' Training Camp at Camp Steever, commissioned First Lieutenant, Chemical Warfare Service; stationed at Camp Kendrick, Lakehurst, N. J., in Gas and Flame Division; received discharge in December, 1918; member Sons of the American Revolution, Yale Engineering Association, and Dwight Place Congregational Church, New Haven.

Married July 21, 1917, in Milwaukee, Gertrude, daughter of Ida (Brumder) Merker, and sister of John Merker, '21 S.

Children: Mary Baldwin, Joanne Beecher, Clifford Frederick, Jr., and Margaret Brumder.

Death due to a heart attack Buried in Forest Home Cemetery, Milwaukee. Survived by wife, three daughters, son, parents, and a brother, C. Raymond Messinger, '06 S.

Louis Snyder Hall, Ph.B. 1912.

Born July 4, 1889, in Topeka, Kans.

Died June 3, 1934, in Topeka, Kans.

Father, Horace Lyman Hall, vice-president and treasurer Hall Lithographing Company, Topeka, and vice-president New England Building Company; son of Samuel Alonson and Miranda Phoebe (Nash) Hall of Logansport, Ind. Mother, Jessie (Snyder) Hall; daughter of Zina Whittlesey and Laura (Osborn) Snyder, of Minneapolis, Minn. Cousin: Richard N. Hall, '10 S.

Phillips-Andover. Mechanical engineering course; a Class Book historian.

Took course at Wharton School of Commerce, University of Pennsylvania, 1912-13; assistant engineer Lubin Manufacturing Company, Philadelphia, 1913-16; commissioned Captain, Ordnance Department, U. S. A., July 18, 1917; stationed at Frankford Arsenal, Philadelphia; received discharge August 31, 1919; president and treasurer Topeka Food Products Company 1919-1923; vice-president and treasurer New England Building Company, operating office building in Topeka since 1923; street commissioner of Topeka one year; director Merchants National Bank since 1923, Columbian Title & Trust Company since 1923, and Topeka Provident Association.

Death due to hypertension and uremia Buried in Mount Hope Cemetery, Topeka. Survived by wife, sons, and stepmother.
John Reuben Piranin, Ph.B. 1912.
Born October 5, 1887, in Gurun, Armenia.
Died September 28, 1933, in Malden, Mass.
Father, Jacob J. Piranin. Mother, Margaret (Soul) Piranin.
Manchester (N. H.) High School. Civil engineering course.
Since graduation from Yale had lived at various times in Buffalo,
N.Y., Canada, and Bridgewater, Middleboro, and Malden, Mass; draftsman for Boston & Maine Railroad 1927–1932
Married. Three sons.
Took his own life. Survived by wife, sons, and two stepsons.

Boyd Palmer Chapman, Ph.B. 1913.
Born November 15, 1891, in Franklin, Mass.
Died February 9, 1934, in Boston, Mass.
Father, Fred Palmer Chapman (A.M B. Tufts 1886); president of Franklin Yarn Company; trustee of Dean Academy, member of Massachusetts House of Representatives; son of Elisha Palmer and Elizabeth Joan (Stewart) Chapman, of Franklin Mother, Clara
Maria (Craig) Chapman; daughter of Charles Bates and Clarissa
Malvina (Jenks) Craig, of Franklin.
Dean Academy Civil engineering course; member Student Council and Class Day Committee.
Connected with Franklin Yarn Company since graduation; manager since 1917 and vice-president since 1919; member of Franklin School Committee 1924–27, a governor of the Franklin Club 1932–33; treasurer of Grace Universalist Church 1926–28.
Married (1) April 24, 1916, in Wilmington, N. C., Julie Gore Owen
(B.A Hollins 1912), daughter of Capt. Frederick E. Owen and Victoria (Gore) Owen. Children (twins): Boyd Palmer, Jr., and Nancy Hitchfield Mrs. Chapman died December 31, 1928. Married (2)
February 13, 1932, in Baltimore, Md, Josephine Margaret Schmid
(B.S. University of Texas 1927), daughter of William Schmid (graduate Leipzig Conservatory of Music 1882) and Jennie Louise (Deghueé) Schmid.
Death due to sub-acute bacterial endocarditis. Buried in Union Cemetery, Franklin. Survived by wife, son, daughter, parents, a sister, Miss Gertrude C. Chapman, and a brother, Donald B. Chapman, all of Franklin.
John Russell Green, Ph.B. 1913.

Born June 10, 1890, in Chicago, Ill.
Died November 20, 1933, in Paris, France.

Father, Adolphus Williamson Green (B.A. Harvard 1863); lawyer; member of firms of Green, Willets & Robbins and of Green, Peters & Babst; president of National Biscuit Company; son of John H. and Jane G. Green, of Boston. Mother, Esther (Walsh) Green, daughter of William Walsh.

Groff School, New York City. Select course; member The Cloister and Book and Snake.

With American Radiator Company of New York City at one time; later president of Associated Motors Corporation of New York; had been living in Paris since 1924; member Roman Catholic church.

Married. Mr. and Mrs. Green later separated.

Death due to heart trouble. Buried in Paris. Survived by five sisters, Mrs. Jane G. Carrott, the wife of Orville Browning Carrott (B.A. Princeton 1902), Mrs. Norman P. Ream, Mrs. Bushrod B. Howard, the wife of Bushrod B. Howard (United States Naval Academy 1911), all of Greenwich, and Josephine G. Ordway, the wife of Lucius P. Ordway, Jr., '14 S., and Elizabeth G. Talbott, the wife of Nelson S. Talbott, '15 S.

William Frederick Potter, Ph.B. 1914.

Born December 27, 1891, in Saginaw, Mich.
Died about March 13, 1934, near Fort Worth, Texas.

Columbia Institute and The Hill School. Select course; on Freshman Track Team, University Track Team three years, and '14 S. Class Track Team two years; member Class Book Committee and Cloister and Book and Snake.

Salesman in London, England, for Palmolive Soap Company 1915-16; treasurer of Durkee-Atwood Company, manufacturers of lubricants and chemical products, in Minneapolis, Minn., 1916-19; commissioned Ensign, U. S. Naval Reserve Flying Corps, June 12, 1918; overseas July 8 and stationed at Pauillac, France, until August 17 and then at U. S. N. Air Station at Eastleigh, England; returned to United States December 24, 1918; received discharge January 26, 1919; traveled in Scandinavian countries and England for Roscoe Trading Company of New York 1919-1920 and in Far East 1921, later engaged in export business in Chicago, with Nichols Beasley Aircraft Company, Marshall, Mo, 1928-1930 and United Aircraft Exports, Inc, in New York City 1930, had since been with Kendall Oil Company in Virginia.

Married August 21, 1915, in London, Irene deMunn, daughter of Frederick John and Helen Watkins (Jones) Hopkins, of Minneapolis. Mr and Mrs Potter were separated in 1926.

Took his own life. Buried in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Utica. Survived by mother, a sister, Sarah Potter Brady, the wife of Richard M Brady (Williams ex-'08), of Rapidan, Va, and a brother, Horace S. Potter, of Meeker, Colo.

Julian Burr Gibson, Ph.B. 1915.

Born December 2, 1892, in San Antonio, Texas.

Died January 14, 1934, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Lieut. Col. Robert Jackson Gibson, U.S.A., ret., '76 S.; son of Robert and Jemima (Carey) Gibson, of New Haven. Mother, Ella Julia (Banks) Gibson (B.A. Vassar 1880); daughter of Isaac Turney and Julia Maria (Jennings) Banks, of Southport, Conn. Yale relatives include Col. William Wesley Gibson, U.S.A, ret., '76 S., and George W. Gibson, ex-'80 S. (uncles); Mary Ona Banks (Certificate in Fine Arts 1887) (aunt), and R. Banks Thomas, B.F.A. 1921 (cousin).

Rogers High School, Newport, R. I, New Haven High School, and Phillips-Andover. Mechanical engineering course; member Phi Kappa Epsilon and Book and Bond.

Married December 1, 1917, Nevada, daughter of James and Margaret (MacArthur) Reid. No children.

Gibson, U.S.A. (U. S. Military Academy 1915), of Coral Gables, Fla., and Banks C. Gibson (B.S. Lafayette 1922), of Pelham, N. Y.

King Lawrence Parker, Ph.B. 1916.

Born January 18, 1893, in St. Louis, Mo.
Died October 19, 1933, in St. Louis, Mo.

Father, Herbert Lawrence Parker; president of Emerson Electric Manufacturing Company; son of John Loring and Marinda Corcoran (Blake) Parker, of Worcester, Mass. Mother, Emily Lizzett (King) Parker; daughter of Martius Henry and Amanda Talcott (Stoughton) King, of Springfield, Mass.

Smith Academy, St. Louis, and The Lawrenceville School. Electrical engineering course. Entered Yale with Class of 1915 S.; joined Class of 1916 S. in 1914; on Senior Council; member Mandolin Club Freshman year and York Hall and Chi Phi.

Had been connected with Emerson Electric Manufacturing Company since graduation; apprentice in the factory 1916–17, salesman 1919–1923, and vice-president of the company and assistant to the president since 1923; enlisted as Private, Motor Supply Train, June 26, 1917; served with 110th Supply Train, 35th Division, at Camp Doniphan, Okla., until January, 1918, promoted to Sergeant; later attended third Officers' Training Camp at Camp Doniphan; commissioned as Second Lieutenant, Field Artillery, March 1, 1918; served overseas from May, 1918, to February, 1919, at first with 110th Trench Mortar Battery, 60th Brigade, 35th Division, and later with 106th Trench Mortar Battalion, 56th Brigade, 31st Division; also served for a few months as secretary of Field Artillery School of Instruction at LaCourneau; received his discharge February 4, 1919; member Yale Engineering Association and First Congregational Church, St. Louis.

Married June 28, 1924, in New York City, Marie Josephine d'Assern (B.A. Barnard 1924), daughter of Baron Joseph Marie d'Assern and Cecile (de Wasilvaska) d'Assern, and sister of Joseph M. d'Assern, '27. Children; King Lawrence, Jr., and Cecile.

William Walter Negley, Ph.B. 1917.

Born July 23, 1895, in Huntington, N. Y.
Died July 13, 1933, in San Antonio, Texas

Father, William Negley, Cornell ex-'75; in wholesale lumber business with Vaughn Lumber Company, San Antonio; rancher near Eagle

Phillips-Exeter. Select course; member Yale Battery at Tobyhanna in 1916 and St. Anthony and Delta Psi.

Enlisted May 12, 1917, and attended first Officers’ Training Camp at Camp Stanley, Texas; commissioned Captain, Field Artillery, August 15; assigned to 345th Field Artillery at Camp Travis, Texas; attended School of Fire, Fort Sill, Okla., January–March, 1918; overseas June 12, 1918–July 12, 1919; in active service at St.-Mihiel and in Meuse-Argonne offensive, with Army of Occupation at Berncastle, Germany, with University Detachment at Merton College, Oxford, April–June, 1919, received his discharge August 5, 1919; clerk with J. E. Jarratt & Company, dealers in stocks and bonds, San Antonio, 1920–21; worked on a farm near Duncan, Vancouver Island, B. C., summer of 1921; then returned to Texas and since 1924 had been engaged in cattle ranching business near Fort Davis; member St. Mark’s Episcopal Church, San Antonio.

Married January 30, 1924, in San Antonio, Roxana, daughter of Alfred Stevens and Ida Julia (Swan) Gage. Children—Alfred Walter, Julie, and Joan.

Frank Firth Hord, B.S. 1928.

Father, Rev. Arnold Harris Hord (B.A. George Washington 1888); registrar of Diocese of Pennsylvania; rector of St. George’s Episcopal Church, Philadelphia, son of William Taliaferro Hord (M.D. University of Pennsylvania 1853) and Eleanor Yaulx (Harris) Hord, of Washington, D. C. Mother, Annie Robb (Firth) Hord, daughter of Franklin Jones and Annie (Lloyd) Firth, of Philadelphia.

Germantown Academy, Philadelphia, and Episcopal Academy, Overbrook, Pa. Civil engineering course; Freshman Track Squad; University Lacrosse Squad and Class Tennis Team; on business board of Freshman Year Book; commissioned Second Lieutenant, Engineer Officers’ Reserve Corps, in June, 1928.

Had been civil engineer in construction department of Pennsylvania Railroad Company since graduation; member American Society of Civil Engineers, Society of American Military Engineers, Yale Engineering Association, Society of Colonial Wars, and St. George's Episcopal Church.

Unmarried.

Theodore Brand, B.S. 1931.

Born June 20, 1908, in Taylor, N. Dak.
Died November 12, 1933, in Denver, Colo.

Father, Samuel Brand, a rancher; son of Samuel and Mary (Myer) Brand, who came from Berne, Switzerland, to Taylor in 1883. Mother, Catherine (Johnson) Brand (B.S. Valparaiso University 1898; M.D. University of Michigan 1906); daughter of Peter Operbom and Brita (Paul) Johnson, of Sweden.

Peddie School, Hightstown, N. J. Entered Yale with Class of 1930 S. but left at end of Junior year; joined Class of 1931 S. in Senior year; civil engineering course; member 1930 Freshman Boxing Team and Freshman Track Squad and 150-pound Crew Squad; on University Boxing Team, University Track and Polo squads Sophomore year, University Boxing Squad Junior year, and Class Football Team Senior year; member student branch of American Society of Civil Engineers, and York Hall and Chi Phi; during 1929–1930 was assistant city engineer in Dickinson, N. Dak.

Junior engineer with U. S. Bureau of Reclamation in Denver since 1931; commissioned Second Lieutenant, Engineer Officers' Reserve Corps, June, 1931; transferred to Coast Artillery Officers' Reserve Corps February, 1933; junior member American Society of Civil Engineers; member Federation of Federal Employees.

Unmarried.

Death due to erysipelas and septic pneumonia. Buried in Dickinson Cemetery, Taylor. Survived by parents.

John Merwin, B.S. 1931.

Died May 24, 1934, in New York City.

second term of Freshman year; Freshman Golf Team; University Golf Squad Sophomore year, University Golf Team Junior and Senior years; member Tau Beta Pi, York Hall, and Chi Phi.

With U. S. Industrial Alcohol Company in New York City since graduation

Unmarried

Survived by parents and a brother, Samuel Kimball Merwin, B.A. Princeton 1931

John Stuart Bachman, B.S. post obitum 1934.

Born September 21, 1910, in Cleveland, Ohio.

Died January 24, 1934, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Frank Puterbaugh Bachman (B.A University of Chicago 1896; Ph.D. Columbia 1902); member General Education Board of Rockefeller Foundation, director of surveys and field studies at George Peabody College for Teachers; son of Aaron Goode and Elissa (Newcomb) Bachman, of Mackinaw, Ill Mother, Jessie Gertrude (Harris) Bachman (Ph.B. University of Michigan 1894); daughter of John Stuart Harris (Haverford ex-'60; M.D. University of Michigan 1864) and Mary Price (Jones) Harris, of Waynesville, Ohio

Montclair (N. J.) Academy and Phillips-Andover. Entered Yale with Class of 1933 S ; enrolled with Class of 1934 S. in 1933, industrial administration and engineering course; won Yale Industrial Research Prize in 1933 for a paper on the Ford Motor Company; on Freshman Football and Tennis squads and Class Hockey Team; had numerals for placing third in hockey competition Sophomore year; on University 150-pound Football Team two years, had numerals and 150-pound award, on University Squash Squad one year; served on University Budget Committee 1929–1932; on Byers Hall Cabinet Sophomore and Junior years, and on Dwight Hall Cabinet 1932–33; deacon of Church of Christ in Yale University 1932–33, secretary-treasurer of Undergraduate Board of Deacons 1933–34, member of Undergraduate Chapel Committee two years, and of Vernon Hall and Phi Gamma Delta

Member First Congregational Church, Montclair

Died suddenly Buried in Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Nashville, Tenn

Survived by parents and a sister, Elizabeth Bachman Hardcastle (B.S. Sweet Briar 1927), the wife of Kendrick Crossman Hardcastle (Cornell ex-'26), of Nashville
GRADUATE SCHOOL

MASTERS OF ARTS

Stanley Leman Galpin, M.A. 1902.

Born January 6, 1878, in Cleveland, Ohio.
Died April 1, 1934, at sea near Manila, P. I.

South High School, Cleveland; B.A Western Reserve 1901 (member Delta Upsilon and Phi Beta Kappa); student in Yale Graduate School 1901-04 (University Fellow 1902-04, Ph.D. 1904); instructor in Latin and Romance languages at Amherst College 1904-08; associate professor of Romance languages Trinity College 1908-1913 and professor since 1913, secretary of the faculty since 1931; editor of an edition of Balzac's Le Cure de Village (1914); contributed to Romantic Review and Modern Language Notes; member Modern Language Association of America, New England Modern Language Association, and Second Congregational Church, Berlin, Conn.

Married December 18, 1901, in Cleveland, Winifred Worswick Stowe (Yale Graduate School 1902-03), daughter of Henry M. and Angeline (Worswick) Stowe. One daughter, Marjorie (Wellesley '27), the wife of Robinson Cook, '14

Death due to coronary thrombosis Buried in Maple Cemetery, Berlin. Survived by wife, daughter, and a sister, Mrs Charles Lamy (B.A. Oberlin 1903), of Buffalo, N. Y.

Joseph Roy Ellis, M.A. 1908.

Born December 4, 1883, at Fergus Falls, Minn.
Died April 1, 1934, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Edgar Clarence Ellis (B.A. Carleton 1881); member of law firm of Ellis, Dietrich & Taylor, in Kansas City; representative from Missouri in the 59th, 60th, 67th, 69th, and 71st Congresses; son of Elmer Eugene and Jane Maria (Halstead) Ellis, of Vermontville, Mich. Mother, Emily Hatch (Roy) Ellis (B.A. Olivet 1879); daughter of Rev. Joseph Edwin Roy (B.A. Knox 1848, D.D. 1870) and Emily Stearns (Hatch) Roy, of Rochester, N. Y. Nephew: Ralph E. Ellis, '36 S.

Central High School, Kansas City; B.A. Oberlin 1905; taught English in Oberlin Academy 1905-06 and in Oberlin College 1906-07; student in Yale Graduate School 1907-08; taught English at the Westport
Yale Obituary Record

High School, Kansas City, 1908-09, spent year 1909-1910 in Paris (attended Sorbonne) and London; on staff of Kansas City Star 1910-11 and also co-headmaster of University Preparatory School, Kansas City, during that year; in insurance business and spent time on his father's stock farm 1911-15; instructor in English Kalamazoo College 1915-17; attended Officers' Training Camp, Fort Sheridan, Ill., May 15 to August 15, 1917, and commissioned First Lieutenant of Infantry August 27; stationed at Officers' Training Camp, Fort Sheridan, August 27 to November 27; attached to 326th Machine Gun Battalion, 84th Division, Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky., December 16, 1917-April 1, 1918, Training Detachment, Wentworth Institute, Boston, Mass., April 18-August 1, 1918, Committee on Education, Washington, D. C., August 1-October 1, 1918; Yale University S.A.T.C October 1, 1918, until discharge December 22, 1918; instructor in English at Yale 1919-1920; had since been registrar of Freshmen (with assistant professorial rank since 1923); faculty adviser and treasurer of Yale University Band since 1919; elected permanent treasurer of Yale Outing Club in 1928, member New England Council of College Registrars (president 1923-25) and American Association of College Registrars, chairman of membership committee of Faculty Club 1926-27; member of committee on admissions of Graduates Club 1926-28 and on board of governors since 1931; contributed to Yale Alumni Weekly; elected to graduate membership in St Elmo 1920; honorary member Torch Honor Society, member Westminster Congregational Church, Kansas City

Death due to a ruptured appendix. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, children, and father.

Frederick Azel Sumner, M.A. 1908.

Born March 26, 1864, in Eastford, Conn.
Died December 26, 1933, in Hoboken, N. J.

Father, Azel Cunningham Sumner, a farmer; son of Azel and Nancy (Cunningham) Sumner, of Ashford, Conn Mother, Sarah Jane (Hanks) Sumner, daughter of Edmund and Achesah Loomis (Turner) Hanks, of Mansfield, Conn Nephew: Stanley J. Sumner, '24.

Oberlin Preparatory Department; B.A Oberlin 1891; B.D. Hartford Theological Seminary 1894; ordained to Congregational ministry June 27, 1894, pastor Union Church, Glenwood, Minn., 1894-97; Little Falls, Minn., 1897-1902; Pilgrim Church, Minneapolis, 1902-07; and First Church of Christ (Congregational), Milford, Conn., 1907–1916; student in Yale Graduate and Divinity schools 1907–1910; president of Talladega College from 1916 until retirement in June, 1933; D.D. Oberlin 1931.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Old Milford Cemetery. Survived by wife, son, daughter, two grandchildren, and a brother, Edwin O. Sumner, of Willimantic, Conn.

DOCTORS OF PHILOSOPHY

Frederick Lincoln Chase, Ph.D. 1891.

Born June 28, 1865, in Boulder, Colo.
Died November 8, 1933, near Boulder, Colo.

Father, George Franklin Chase. Mother, Augusta Ann (Staples) Chase; daughter of Isaac and Susan (Dayton) Staples, of Newfield, Maine.

B.A. University of Colorado 1886; studied in Yale Graduate School 1888–1891; assistant in Yale Observatory 1890–91, assistant astronomer 1891–1911, and astronomer 1911–14; acting director of the Yale Observatory 1910–13; since 1914 had been engaged in farming in Boulder; contributed to Annals of the Cape Observatory, Transactions of the Yale Observatory, and to Astronomical Journal; editor of Connecticut Almanac for 1894; president of Yale chapter of Sigma Xi 1899–1900; fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science; member Astronomical and Astrophysical Society; divided Lalande Prize of French Academy of Sciences in 1908.

Married May 4, 1904, in Shelbyville, Ill., Alice Margaret, daughter of Anderson Patton and Margaret (Catherwood) Hoxsey. Mr. and Mrs. Chase were subsequently separated.

Death due to coronary sclerosis and thrombosis. Buried in Columbia Cemetery, Boulder. Survived by no immediate relatives.

Oliver Cummings Farrington, Ph.D. 1891.

Born October 9, 1864, in Brewer, Maine.
Died November 2, 1933, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, Joseph Rider Farrington, a farmer; teacher of agriculture at Maine State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts (now University of Maine), superintendent of State School for Boys; son of Oliver and Hannah (Rider) Farrington, of Brewer. Mother, Ellen Elizabeth (Holyoke) Farrington; daughter of Edward and Melinda (Snow) Holyoke, of Brewer. First cousin: Herbert F. Perkins, '87.

Orono (Maine) High School; B.S. University of Maine 1881, M.S 1888, taught science at Bridgton Academy and other academies in Maine 1882-87; studied in Yale Graduate School 1888-1891 and assistant in biology 1889-1891; on staff of U.S National Museum 1893-94, had since been curator of geology at Field Museum of Natural History in Chicago; had led a number of expeditions for the museum, most notable of which was Marshall Field geological expedition of 1922-23, when he spent seven months in interior of Brazil; lecturer on mineralogy at University of Chicago 1894-1900; collaborator in mines and metallurgy exhibits at Paris Exposition 1900 and member of international jury of awards at St Louis Exposition 1921; author: Gems and Gem Minerals (1903) and Meteorites (1915), contributor to American Journal of Science, Science, Scientific American, Journal of Geology, American Geologist, American Naturalist, Bulletin of Geological Society of America, Transactions of Connecticut Academy, and Proceedings of U.S. National Museum; president of American Association of Museums 1915-16; honorary president of Society for Research in Meteorites 1933, chairman of section of petrology and mineralogy at International Congress of Arts and Sciences at St. Louis in 1904, fellow of Geological Society of America and American Association for the Advancement of Science; member Astronomical Society of France, American Alpine Club, and United Church (Congregational and Presbyterian), Hyde Park, Chicago, charter member University of Chicago chapter of Sigma Xi 1903; elected member University of Maine chapter of Phi Beta Kappa 1925.

Married August 3, 1896, in Gloversville, N. Y., Clara Adeline, daughter of Frederick and Clarissa Jane (Clapp) Bradley. No children.

Death due to general arteriosclerosis and myocarditis. Buried in Oak Hill Cemetery, Brewer. Survived by wife and two brothers, Edward H. Farrington (graduate student Sheffield Scientific School 1882-83; B.S. University of Maine 1881, M.S 1886) (died in March, 1934) and Horace P. Farrington (B.M.E. University of Maine 1890).

Charlotte Cynthia Barnum, Ph.D. 1895.

Born May 17, 1860, in Phillipston, Mass.
Died March 27, 1934, in Middletown, Conn.

Father, Rev Samuel Weed Barnum (B.A. 1841). Mother, Charlotte (Betts) Barnum; daughter of David Coley and Rhoda (Adams) Betts, of Stamford, Conn. Yale relatives include: Rev. Samuel Weed (B.A.
1813) (great uncle); William C. Betts (M.D. 1843) and John A. Betts (M.D. 1848) (uncles); Thomas G. Ritch, '54, and William J. Betts, '70 (cousins); and Charles G. Barnum, '11 M. (nephew)
Hillhouse High School, New Haven, B.A. Vassar 1881; taught at Betts Academy, Stamford, Conn., 1881-82, and at Hillhouse High School 1883 and 1885-86; did computing for Yale Observatory 1883-85; editorial assistant on Webster's International Dictionary 1886-1890 and 1897; taught astronomy at Smith College 1889-1890; graduate student at Johns Hopkins 1890-92 and at Yale 1892-95; taught mathematics at Carleton College 1895-96; engaged in actuarial work for Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company, Springfield, 1898, and for Fidelity Mutual Life Insurance Company, Philadelphia, 1900; computer U.S. Naval Observatory 1901, and for U.S. Coast and Geodetic Survey 1901-08; editorial assistant with Biological Survey of Department of Agriculture at Washington 1908-1913; editorial work for Yale Peruvian Expedition 1914-15, Yale University Secretary's Office 1915-16 and Yale University Press 1915 and 1918-19; editing, indexing, and proof reading in New York City 1919-1921; taught mathematics at Scoville and Columbia Preparatory schools in New York City 1922, and at Walnut Hill School, Natick, Mass., 1923; made alumna member Vassar chapter Phi Beta Kappa 1899; fellow American Association for the Advancement of Science, member American Mathematical Society and Broadway Tabernacle (Congregational), New York City.

Harold Lawton Bruce, Ph.D. 1915.

Born August 24, 1887, in Belchertown, Mass.
Died April 6, 1934, in Berkeley, Calif.

Father, George Herbert Bruce, a lumber yard and mill owner, son of Dexter Barnes and Emily Amelia (Russell) Bruce, of Belchertown. Mother, Leah Maria (Dodge) Bruce; daughter of Henry Lawton and Lucy Maria (Ainsworth) Dodge, of Belchertown. Uncle: Rev. Charles R. Bruce, '85 D

North Adams (Mass.) High School; attended Williams College 1904-05; B L. University of California 1908 (member Phi Beta Kappa) and LL M 1911; studied in Yale Graduate School 1913-15; instructor in English at Yale 1915-16; had since been member of the faculty of the University of California; assistant professor of English 1916-19, associate professor 1919–1925, and professor since 1925; dean of the Summer Sessions of the University at Los Angeles 1923–25 and at Berkeley since then; author: Voltaire on the English Stage (1918), The New World (1920), William Blake in this World (1925), The New World: Second Series (1927), and co-author: Writing Well (1932); had contributed to Modern Language Notes, Modern Philology, Journal of English and Germanic Philology, The Nation, Saturday Review of Literature, The Arts, and Sewanee Review; member Modern Language Association (vice-president Pacific Coast Branch) and American Association of University Professors Married August 20, 1918, in Berkeley, Dorothy Hart (B.A. University of California 1910, M.A. 1911), daughter of William Robards and Eleanor (Durand) Hart. Children: Alan and Jean Alison.

Death due to arteriosclerosis and coronary disease of the heart
Buried in Sunset View Cemetery, Berkeley Survived by wife, children, mother, and a sister, Amy B. Bumstead (B.S. University of California 1911), the wife of Frank M. Bumstead (B.A. University of Illinois 1906)

Raymond Philip Dougherty, Ph.D. 1918.

Born August 5, 1877, in Lebanon, Pa.
Died July 13, 1933, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Rev. Joseph Brandt Dougherty, minister of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ at Lebanon, Columbia, and Allentown, Pa., and conference superintendent, son of Daniel and Elizabeth (Brandt) Dougherty, of Lancaster and Lycoming counties, Pa.
Mother, Mary Elizabeth (Shaeffer) Dougherty; daughter of Philip and Elizabeth (Bressler) Shaeffer, of Lebanon Uncle Rev. Grant L.
Shaeffer, '97 D.

Lebanon High School, B.A. Lebanon Valley College 1897, M.A.
1903, taught chemistry and Greek at Avalon College, Trenton, Mo.,
1897–99, principal of Normal Department of Leander Clark College
1900–02, took graduate work at Lebanon Valley College 1902–03; studied at Bonebrake Theological Seminary 1903–04; ordained to ministry of United Brethren Church May 19, 1904, at Altoona, Pa., engaged in foreign missionary work as the first and foundation principal of Albert Academy, Sierra Leone, West Africa, 1904–1914; American vice-consul there 1905–06 and 1912–13; B.D. Bonebrake Theological Seminary 1910; studied in Yale Divinity School 1914–16 and in the Graduate School 1916–18; professor of Biblical literature at Goucher College 1918–1926, fellow by courtesy at Johns Hopkins 1918–1924 (took graduate work in Semitic languages) and instructor in Old Testament literature 1920–23; professor at American Schools of Oriental Graduate School

Married October 4, 1910, in Dayton, Lulu Effie, daughter of Rev. Josiah Pennabecker Landis (B.A. Otterbein 1869, D.D. 1882; Lane Theological Seminary 1871; Ph.D. Wooster 1889) and Addie Belle (Kumler) Landis. No children.

Died suddenly. Buried in Woodland Cemetery, Dayton. Survived by wife, two brothers, Harry B. Dougherty and Manford Dougherty (Lebanon Valley College 1894–96), both of Lebanon, and two sisters, Almita D. Peiffer, wife of William H. Peiffer (Lebanon Valley College 1905–08), of Lickdale, Pa., and Mrs. John F. Musselman, of Freetown, Sierra Leone.
SCHOOL OF THE FINE ARTS

John Ireland Howe Downes, B.F.A. 1898.

Born September 18, 1860, in Derby, Conn.
Died October 16, 1933, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, William Elijah Downes (B.A. 1845, Yale School of Law 1846-47); Mother, Jane Maria (Howe) Downes. Yale relatives include: William E. Whiting, '04, and John D. Whiting, '15 Art (nephews), Susan W. Johnston (School of the Fine Arts 1900-01), wife of John H. Johnston, '99 S., and Phoebe W. Evans (School of the Fine Arts 1906-07), wife of Professor Alexander W. Evans, '90 S. (nieces); and John Baur, '32 (grandnephew).

Hopkins Grammar School, traveled in Europe and studied music and languages in Paris 1878-79, studied in Yale School of the Fine Arts 1888-1892, at Art Students' League in New York City in 1892 and 1893, and in studio of Luc Olivier Merson in Paris 1894-95; had since been a landscape painter in New Haven, with a summer studio at Mount Carmel, Conn.; for some years exhibited his work in New York each winter, president of New Haven Paint and Clay Club 1910-1926; librarian of Yale School of the Fine Arts 1900-1923; secretary and treasurer of New Haven branch of Alliance Française in 1906 and in connection with its work made an Officier de l'Instruction Publique of the French Government; director of Sleeping Giant Park Association of Mount Carmel (1927-1932), Housatonic Water Power Company of Derby, Shelton Water Company, and Howe Manufacturing Company, Derby, member Bibliophile Society of Boston, Grolier Club of New York, Connecticut Academy of Fine Arts, Archaeological Institute of America, Naval History Society, Circolo Italiano, Society of Colonial Wars, and New Haven Colony Historical Society; elected member of Elizabethan Club in 1917.

Unmarried

Death due to progressive asthenia and myocarditis Buried in Oak Cliff Cemetery, Derby. Survived by a sister, Catharine J. D. Whiting, widow of William W. Whiting, ex-'90, of New Haven, and a brother, William H. Downes, of Boston. Bequeathed to the School of Fine Arts a fund the income of which is to be used to purchase books for the library.

Born September 1, 1879, in Cambridge, Mass.
Died November 29, 1933, in New York City.

Father, Richard Henry Dana (B.A. Harvard 1874, LL.B 1877); lawyer, president of New England Conservatory of Music, National

Brown and Nichols School, Cambridge; B.A. Harvard 1901; B.S. Columbia 1904; studied at École des Beaux Arts, Paris, 1904-06; instructor in architecture at Yale 1908-1916; since 1906 had been engaged in practice of his profession as an architect in New York City; with firm of Delano & Aldrich 1906-07, and with William W. Bosworth 1907-08; member of firm of Murphy & Dana (Henry Killam Murphy '99) 1909-1921; member American Institute of Architects, Society of Beaux Arts Architects, Architectural League of New York, and Municipal Art Society.

Married April 29, 1911, in New York City, Ethel Nathalie, daughter of Rev. Cornelius Bishop Smith (B.A. Trinity 1854) and Mary (Wheeler) Smith. Children: Richard Henry, 3d, Harvard '34; and Mary Pepperrell.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Mount Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge. Survived by wife, son, daughter, three brothers, Henry W. L. Dana (B.A. Harvard 1903, M.A. 1904, Ph.D. 1910), of Cambridge, Allston Dana (B.A. Harvard 1906; B.S. Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1908) and Edmund T. Dana (B.A. Harvard 1909, Ph.D. 1912), both of New York City, and a sister, Miss Delia F. Dana, of Holderness, N. H.
SCHOOL OF MUSIC

Frederick Burrage Grannis, Mus.B. 1908.

Born December 28, 1865, in Waterbury, Conn.
Died April 29, 1934, in Bridgeport, Conn.

Father, Lewis Stillman Grannis, department foreman Holmes, Booth & Hayden Company, brass manufacturers in Waterbury; son of Enos and Lucretia Amy (Moss) Grannis, of Middletown, Conn. Mother, Emma Josephine (Deming) Grannis, daughter of Linas and Sophia (Goodrich) Deming, of Rocky Hill, Conn.

Waterbury High School; graduate Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipzig, 1894; organist Watertown Methodist Church 1882, First Methodist Church, Waterbury, 1886–1891 and 1901–1906, American Church in Leipzig 1891–94, Center Congregational Church, New Britain, 1895–96, First Methodist Church, Meriden, 1896–1901, First Baptist Church, Bridgeport, 1906–1912, South Norwalk Congregational Church 1912–18, and First Universalist Church, Bridgeport since 1924, had been engaged in teaching piano, organ, and theory in Bridgeport since 1894; an organizer Bridgeport Oratorio Society 1911 and since director; an organizer Bridgeport Symphony Society 1931 and since director; member First Methodist Church, Waterbury.

Married June 27, 1898, in Waterbury, Mary Katherine, daughter of Frederick and Katherine Julia (Kenney) Morse. No children.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Buried in Lawncroft Cemetery, Fairfield. Survived by wife, and a sister, Mrs. John R. Walker, and a brother, Weldon Irving Grannis, both of Waterbury.
SCHOOL OF FORESTRY

Richard Thornton Fisher, M.F. 1902.

Born November 9, 1876, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died June 9, 1934, in Canton, Mass.

Father, Edward Thornton Fisher (B.A. Harvard 1856, M.A. 1868); instructor at Adelphi Academy, Brooklyn, and subsequently conducted a private school in his home; son of George Fisher (B.A. Brown 1813, M.A. 1814) and Elizabeth Phelps (Huntington) Fisher, of Franklin, Mass. Mother, Ellen Bowditch (Thayer) Fisher, daughter of William Henry Thayer (B.A. Harvard 1841, M.D. 1844) and Ellen (Handerson) Thayer, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Death due to coronary thrombosis Buried in East Street Cemetery, Petersham. Survived by wife, sons, daughters, and two sisters, Mrs. William W. Fenn, of Cambridge, and Eleanor F. Grose (B.A. Smith 1911), the wife of Laurence R. Grose, of Weston, Mass.

Francis Garner Miller, M.F. 1903.

Born June 2, 1866, in Lanark, Ill.
Died March 8, 1934, in Moscow, Iowa.

Father, Isaiah Miller, a farmer; son of Isaac and Frances (Hoffer) Miller, of Hagerstown, Md. Mother, Isabelle Jane (Moffett) Miller; daughter of Abram Gobble and Sarah Ann (Davis) Moffett.

Public schools in Elliott, Iowa; graduated from Iowa State Teachers College 1893; superintendent of schools in Parkersburg, Iowa, 1893–95. and in Dunlap, Iowa, 1895–99, Ph.B University of Iowa 1900; B S.A Iowa State College 1901, in U. S. Forest Service 1901–02; professor of forestry University of Nebraska 1903–07; professor of forestry and dean of College of Forestry at University of Washington 1907–1912; manager of Wenatchee (Washington) Columbia Fruit Company 1912–1915, professor of forestry at State College of Washington 1915–17; professor of forestry and dean of School of Forestry at University of Idaho since 1917; field assistant U S. Geological Survey in Utah June–September, 1919; during leave of absence in 1932 traveled abroad and studied at the Dresden Technological University February to May, had served on Idaho State Cooperative Board of Forestry since its organization in 1925, chairman of board of trustees of Northwest Scientific Association since 1933; fellow of American Association for the Advancement of Science, member Sigma Xi (president of Idaho chapter 1924–25); Xi Sigma Pi (honorary forestry), Alpha Zeta (agriculture), Delta Chi, American Forestry Association, Society of American Foresters, American Association of University Professors, and First Christian Church of Seattle; co-author: The Idaho Forest and Timber Hand Book (1928); contributed to American Forests and Forest Life, Journal of Forestry, Idaho Forester, and Scenic America.

Married September 15, 1906, in Kansas City, Mo., Evelyn DePew Miller (B A University of Washington 1908), daughter of George Washington and Catherine DePew (Scruggs) Miller. One daughter, Frances DePew (died in 1921)

Death due to a heart attack following influenza. Buried in Washelli Cemetery, Seattle, Wash. Survived by wife, a brother, Charles W. Miller, of Red Oak, Iowa; and six sisters, Sarah Ann M Carson, wife of Andros Carson (M D Rush Medical College 1890), Miss Carrie Miller, Grace M Potter, the wife of Fred H Potter (LL.B. Drake University 1906), Inez M. Kennedy, the wife of Claude H. Kennedy (D D S Northwestern 1908), Emma M. VanKirk, the wife of John M. VanKirk (LL B Drake University 1899), all of Des Moines, Iowa, and Mrs Nellie M Beedle, of Denver, Colo.

James Fred Baker, M.F. 1905.

Father, Joseph Stannard Baker, a lumber and land operator in northern Wisconsin, Major in District of Columbia Cavalry during Civil War, son of Luther Alexander and Mercy (Stannard) Baker, of Morganville, N Y. Mother, Alice (Potter) Baker; daughter of James Addison and Mary Miller (Deno) Potter, of New Haven, Conn. Yale relatives include Rev. Isaac Stiles (B A. 1722) (great-great-great-great-grandfather); Rev. Ezra Stiles (B.A. 1746) (great-great-great-grandfather); Isaac Stiles (B.A. 1783) (great-great-grandfather).

Macalester Academy, St. Paul, Minn.; B.S. Michigan State College 1902; member of biological survey making study of tropical forests of Nicaragua 1902-03; entered Yale School of Forestry 1903; forest assistant United States Forestry Service summers of 1902, 1903, and 1904; on collecting expedition to Guatemala and Honduras 1904-05; instructor Pennsylvania Forest Academy, Mont Alto, Pa., 1905-06; assistant professor of forestry and manager College Reserve Lands, Colorado College 1906-07; professor of forestry Michigan State College 1907-1914 (received M.F. degree there 1911); studied at University of Munich 1913-14; director of forest investigators, New York State College of Forestry, Syracuse University, 1914-19; had since been operating several farms at Bradley, Mich.; member Society of American Foresters, Michigan State Forestry Association, and Park Presbyterian Church, Syracuse

Robert Young Stuart, M.F. 1906.

Born February 13, 1883, in South Middleton Township, Pa.
Died October 23, 1933, in Washington, D.C.

Father, William Chalmers Stuart, a shoe merchant; son of Hugh and Jane Mary (Means) Stuart, of South Middleton Township. Mother, Janet Morris (Stuart) Stuart (Irving College 1875-76; daughter of William Patterson and Elizabeth Graham (Young) Stuart, of Cumberland County, Pa.

Carlisle and Harrisburg (Pa.) public schools; B.A. Dickinson College 1903 (member Phi Delta Theta); traveling salesman for Aluminum Cooking Utensil Company of New Kensington, Pa, 1903–04; then entered Yale School of Forestry (member Robin Hood); assistant in U. S. Forest Service in Montana, Idaho, and Wyoming 1906–08, assistant chief of operations 1908–1910 and assistant district forester 1910–12 in Missoula (Mont.) district; assistant district forester at Washington, D C, 1911–12 and inspector in charge of forest management there 1912–17; commissioned Captain of Engineers August 30, 1917, served overseas September 26, 1917–June 23, 1919; assigned to Headquarters of Forestry Section, Engineer Purchase Office, in Paris and Tours until October 16, with duties in connection with acquisition of timber products from French sources for 10th and 20th (Forest) Engineers; promoted Major October 1, 1918; transferred to General Headquarters at Chaumont October 16 and served as district inspector of fuelwood projects until February 5, 1919; district commander of Gien Forestry District and commanding officer of 5th Battalion, 20th Engineers, February 5–June 23, 1919; received citation from General Pershing April 19, 1919, given discharge July 16, 1919; then in Forest Service from January to May, 1920, as chief of western branch of forest management; deputy commissioner of forestry for Pennsylvania 1920–22 and commissioner 1922–23; secretary of Pennsylvania Department of Forests and Waters 1923–27, during which time served as member and chairman of Geographic Board, State Forest Commission, Water and Power Resources Board, and Pennsylvania Sesquicentennial Commission and member of Tri-State Delaware River Treaty Commission, Fort Washington Park Commission, Giant Power Board, Lake Erie and Ohio River Canal Board, Sanitary Water Board, State Park and Harbor Commission of Erie, Valley Forge Park Commission, and Washington Crossing Park Commission; in 1927 returned to U. S Forest Service as chief of branch of public relations; since 1928 had been chief of the U. S Forest Service; director of permanent American Forest Week Committee/1926; vice-chairman of executive committee of National Committee on Wood Utilization of Department of Commerce May, 1928–June, 1933; member advisory committee of Timber Conservation Board 1931; member National Land Use Planning Committee 1933; member National Capitol Park and Planning Committee since May, 1928; trustee of Dickinson College since 1931; contributed to American Forests and Forest Life, American Journal of Forestry, Extension Service Review of Washington, Oregon Motorist, Upstater, Nature Magazine, Bird Lore, Literary Digest, and Reader's Digest; president Society of American Foresters 1926–27 (member of executive council) and elected to rank of fellow in 1930; president of Association of State Foresters 1922–23 and of Yale Forest School Alumni Association 1923–25 (member of executive council); member All Saints' Episcopal Church, Chevy Chase, Md.
School of Forestry

Married December 9, 1907, in Harrisburg, Janet Mary Agnes, daughter of David and Frances Howard (Crichton) Wilson. Children Janet Crichton and Helen Roberta.

Instantly killed in an accidental fall from an office window. Buried in Harrisburg Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughters, mother, and a sister, Helen B. Stuart Stephens (Mus B. Wilson College 1909) (Mrs. Walter Stephens), of Carlisle, Pa.

John Bentley, Jr., M.F. 1907.

Born June 8, 1880, in Brooklyn, N. Y.
Died July 26, 1933, in Ithaca, N. Y.

Father, John Bentley; a type founder; son of John and Mary (Wray) Bentley, of Savannah, Ga., and New York City. Mother, Lizzie (Annin) Bentley; daughter of Cornelius Miller and Ellen (Roberts) Annin, of New York City.

Adelphi Academy and Brooklyn High School, B.S. magna cum laude Wesleyan 1904 (member Psi Upsilon and Phi Beta Kappa); student in Yale School of Forestry 1904–06 and spring term 1907 (member Sigma Xi); surveyor with Ritter Lumber Company, Mortimer, N. C., 1907–08; in U. S. Forest Service in Montana, South Dakota, Colorado, and Wyoming 1908–January, 1912; had since been a member of the faculty of Cornell University; assistant professor of forestry 1912–16 and professor of forest engineering since 1918; lecturer at Yale School of Forestry in 1917, 1918, and 1919; co-author with A. Bernard Recknagel, '04 and '06 F., of Forest Management (1919) and with Cedric H. Guise, B.S. Cornell 1914, of Forest Management (1926); contributed to Forest Quarterly and Cornell bulletins, secretary-treasurer of New York section of Society of American Foresters 1926–27; member New York Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, Brooklyn.

Married (1) October 5, 1910, in Denver, Colo., Sue, daughter of Hazen and Martha (McMurray) Hayward, of Ottawa, Ill. One daughter, Sue, Cornell University 1935. Mrs. Bentley died April 2, 1922. Married (2) March 8, 1924, in Glen Ridge, N. J., Maria Segun (B.S. Cornell 1923), daughter of Isidor Louis and Maria (Kaufmann) Segun. No children by second marriage.

Death due to bronchopneumonia and carcinoma of the lung. Cremation took place, part of his ashes were buried in Summit View Cemetery, Ottawa, Ill., and part were scattered in Yosemite National Park, California. Survived by wife, daughter, three sisters, Miss Nellie R. Bentley, Miss Meta E. Bentley (B.A. Smith 1900), and Mrs. Horace H. Gamble, all of Maplewood, N. J., and two brothers, Ellis W. Bentley and Wray A. Bentley (B.S. Columbia 1898), both of Windham, N. Y.
John Manvers Briscoe, M.F. 1909.

Born July 22, 1878, in Pottsville, Pa.
Died August 3, 1933, in Orono, Maine.

Father, Sidney Bernard Briscoe; owner and manager of S. B. Briscoe General Store, New Philadelphia, Pa.; receiver for Pottsville Steel Company, son of George and Matilda Briscoe, of County Waterford, Ireland. Mother, Sarah (Loeser) Briscoe; daughter of Christopher and Louisa Augusta (Bartle) Loeser, of Pottsville, Pa.

Pottsville High School, studied architecture at University of Pennsylvania 1898, connected with engineering corps of Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Company in Ashland, Pa., 1899; manager S. B. Briscoe Store 1899-1907; attended Forestry School 1907-09 and took a special course in Sheffield Scientific School 1907-08; forest assistant, U S. Forest Service 1909-1910, had since been professor of forestry at University of Maine; assistant in civil engineering with S.A.T.C. of University of Maine October-December, 1918, state agent, White Pine Blister Rust Control summers of 1914 and 1915; Maine representative at Boston conference of Fuel Wood Committee 1918; public instructor in forestry for State of Maine; contributed to American Journal of Forestry, Lewiston (Me.) Journal, and Bangor (Me.) Commercial, president of Yale Forest School Alumni Association since 1931, member University of Maine chapter Xi Sigma Pi and St. John's Episcopal Church, Bangor.

Married June 28, 1911, in Bryn Mawr, Pa., Ethel Lydia Griscom (Bryn Mawr ex-'12), daughter of William Morris and Anna Lydia (Miller) Griscom. Children: Sidney Griscom (University of Maine ex-'34), and Eleanor Louise (University of Maine '37).

Accidentally drowned in Stillwater River, at Orono. Buried in Pottsville. Survived by wife, son, daughter, mother (died February, 1934), and two sisters, the Misses Avalon and Louise Briscoe, of Middletown, Conn.
SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

William Witter, M.D. 1865.

Born May 20, 1841, in Canterbury, Conn.
Died May 27, 1934, in Norwich, Conn.

Father, John Witter, a farmer; son of Ebenezer and Eunice (Bass) Witter, of Canterbury. Mother, Mary Maria (Dewing) Witter, daughter of Abijah and Dorothea (Morse) Dewing, of Woodstock and Canterbury, Conn. Yale relatives include: William C. Witter, '65 (cousin), and Dr. John Colton Moore, '98 (nephew).

Select schools at Woodstock and Jewett City, Conn. Taught at various Connecticut academies before entering Yale; attended Yale School of Medicine 1863-65; practiced in Norwich for about six months; agent in Ohio for Continental Insurance Company for a year; took postgraduate course at Bellevue Medical College 1869; practiced medicine in Norwich 1870 until retirement 1911, on staff of Backus Hospital until 1903; president New London County Medical Society and Norwich Medical Society, member American Medical Association, Connecticut Medical Association, and Woodbury (Conn) Congregational Church; lived in Woodbury, 1911-1920, Derby, Conn., 1920-1930, Fishers Island, N. Y., 1930-31, and then in Norwich.

Married May 10, 1871, in Griswold, Conn, Ellen Antoinette, daughter of James Monroe and Mary (Terry) Campbell, of Voluntown, Conn. Children: William Edward (died 1874); and Mary Campbell, the wife of James F. Torrance, '94 L. Mrs. Witter died August 17, 1930.

Death due to coronary occlusion and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Yantic Cemetery, Norwich. Survived by daughter, a brother, David Witter, of Danielson, Conn, and a sister, Miss Ruth Witter, of Norwich.

Charles Wellington Fitch, M.D. 1874.

Born February 17, 1852, in New Haven, Conn
Died March 26, 1934, in Southington, Conn.

Father, William Alonzo Fitch. Mother, Mary Lucindý (Clark) Fitch. Lovell's Preparatory School, New Haven, and Hart Academy, Farmington, Conn.; entered Yale School of Medicine in 1872; traveled in China, Japan, Mexico, and Central America 1874-75, aiding in establishment of hospitals and studying diseases of those countries; served as surgeon general of Guatemala 1875-79; upon return to this country in 1879 entered Medical Corps of U. S. Army and served as surgeon general of 2d Artillery Regiment of California National Guard; practiced medicine in New York City 1889–1929 and then in Southington until retirement in 1933; former professor of materia medica and therapeutics at the Eclectic Medical College of the City of New York; had served as president of the Connecticut Eclectic Medical Association and president of New York Neurophysiological Society; vice-chairman of National Eclectic Medical Association; medical examiner for New York and Equitable Life Insurance companies; member Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, and California State medical societies, New York City and County medical societies, and First Congregational Church, Southington.

Death due to cardiovascular renal disease. Buried in Oak Hill Cemetery, Southington. Survived by wife.

Ernest LeRoy Thomson, M.D. 1874.
Born October 23, 1849, in New Haven, Conn.
Died June 20, 1934, in New Haven, Conn.

Hopkins Grammar School; entered Yale School of Medicine 1872; practiced in New Haven until retirement in 1908; vestryman of Christ Episcopal Church, New Haven, since 1920.

Charles Edwin Park, M.D. 1881.
Born October 24, 1857, in New Haven, Conn.
Died March 19, 1934, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Edwin Avery Park (M.D. 1846). Mother, Hester Anne (Allen) Park; daughter of Charles Jarvis and Maria (Bliss) Allen, of New Haven. Yale relatives include. Catherine B. Park (Certificate in Fine Arts 1885) (sister); and Edwin Avery Park, B.F.A. 1928 (nephew).

General Russell's Collegiate and Commercial Institute, New Haven, entered Yale School of Medicine in 1879; had practiced in New Haven since 1881; assistant in clinical surgery at Yale 1887-1893; member Connecticut State, New Haven County, and New Haven medical societies; enrolled as member of Volunteer Medical Service Corps in 1918; member Church of the Redeemer (Congregational), New Haven.

Married (1) August 9, 1889, in Whitehall, Mich., Grace Pearl, daughter of Hamlin and Elizabeth Winifred (Osborn) Carpenter. One daughter, Theo Marguerite (died in 1917). Dr. and Mrs. Park were divorced in 1916. Married (2) December 3, 1921, in New Haven, Helen Bothwell Morgan, daughter of James and Mary A. (Littlejohn) Bothwell. Mrs. Park died April 23, 1923. Married (3) October 15, 1924, in New Haven, Helen Hinman, daughter of Marshall and Helen Augusta (Manville) Bryan.

Death due to rectal carcinoma and edema of the lungs. Buried in Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife and a sister, Mrs. Hester Parker, of New Haven.

Samuel Wellington Irving, M.D. 1891.

Born September 29, 1860, at Mt. Vernon, N. Y.
Died May 8, 1934, in New Britain, Conn.

Father, John Irving, born in Dumfries, Scotland, and came to Milford, Conn., in 1851; engaged in railroad work; son of John and Mary Irving, of Dumfries. Mother, Irvenia (McLean) Irving, who was born in Dumfries; daughter of David and Irvenia (Weld) McLean, of Dumfries.

Engaged in building business 1880-85; Milford (Conn) High School; entered Yale School of Medicine 1888; took special course in children's diseases at Harvard Medical School 1891-92; intern at New Haven Hospital 1892-94; had since practiced in New Britain; president New Britain Medical Association 1904-06, Hartford County Medical Association 1906-08 (member of Board of Censors 1902-04), and Connecticut State Medical Society 1908-1910; member of American Medical Association and South Congregational Church, New Britain.

Married (1) June 11, 1900, in Shelton, Conn., Bertha, daughter of Albert William and Susan (Smith) Dary. Children: Gladys, the wife of Raleigh Bennett; Elizabeth (Connecticut College ex-'24), the wife of Gebhard C. Bohm, Jr. (University of Michigan ex-'28), and Jean Winslow (Connecticut State College ex-'30), the wife of Clement Reynolds. Mrs. Irving died January 9, 1921. Married (2) April 26, Death due to an intestinal obstruction. Buried in Fairview Cemetery, New Britain. Survived by wife, daughters, and a brother, Walter M. Irving, of Milford.

Charles Werden Holbrook, M.D. 1896.

Born October 25, 1856, in Rockland, Mass.
Died December 18, 1933, in East Haven, Conn.

Father, Richard Holbrook, a mechanic; son of Richard and Ann (Reed) Holbrook, of Rockland. Mother, Ruth Reed (Ford) Holbrook; daughter of Peter and Mary (Reed) Ford, of Cummington, Mass.

Rockland High School; attended Boston University 1875–76 and 1877–78, taught in the grammar school at Sandwich, Mass.; B.A. Amherst 1880, graduated from Andover Theological Seminary in 1883, ordained to Congregational ministry August 28, 1883; missionary to the Zulus under the American Board at Mapumulo, Africa, 1883–1892; studied in Yale School of Medicine 1893–96 (secretary of the Class since Senior year), practiced medicine in East Haven from 1897 until retirement 1930, health officer of East Haven 1898–1905; director East Haven Visiting Nurse Association 1925–28; honorary M.A Amherst 1893, member American Medical Association, Connecticut State Medical Society, New Haven County and City medical societies, and Old Stone Church (Congregational), East Haven.

Married August 23, 1883, in Easthampton, Mass., Sarah Elizabeth Lyman, Mount Holyoke ex-’79, daughter of Lauren Dwight and Charlotte Root (Stearns) Lyman. Children: Harold Lyman (B.S University of Pittsburgh 1924); Ruth Charlotte, the wife of Leopold L. Wilder (B.A. Williams 1907); Annie Mary, the wife of John M. Stickle; Agnes Fidelia, the wife of Harold L. Hazeltine, ’13 S.; Richard Ford (B.S University of Pittsburgh 1923); and Carl Tyler (D.O. Philadelphia School of Osteopathy 1932).

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in East Lawn Cemetery, East Haven Survived by wife (died May 2, 1934), six children, fourteen grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.

William Fletcher Penn, M.D. 1897.

Born 1871.
Died May 31, 1934, in New York City.

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the Obituary Record.
James Locke Perkins, M.D. 1898.

Born November 26, 1875, in Concord, N. H.
Died August 15, 1933, in Elizabeth, N. J.

Father, Charles Colby Perkins; member of firm of Perkins & Dudley, meats and provisions in Concord; son of David and Sarah D. (Swett) Perkins, of Pittsfield, N. H. Mother, Martha Francis (Locke) Perkins; daughter of Enoch and Martha Brown (Lane) Locke, of Barnstead, N. H.

Concord High School; entered Yale School of Medicine in 1895 (member Skull and Sceptre); interne Elizabeth General Hospital 1898–99; had since practiced in Cranford, N. J.; attending surgeon St. Elizabeth’s Hospital, Elizabeth, since 1899 and at Rahway (N. J.) General Hospital since 1930; fellow of American College of Surgeons; member New Jersey State and Union County Medical associations, New Jersey Society of Surgeons, and Trinity Episcopal Church, Cranford.

Married November 26, 1900, in Cranford, Harriet, daughter of Manuel and Eliza Ann (Clay) Muñoz. One daughter, Christine Elizabeth (B.A. Goucher 1926).

Death due to lymphoblastoma of the stomach. Buried in Fairview Cemetery, Westfield, N. J. Survived by wife, daughter, and a brother, Ernest W. Perkins, of Boston.

Edgar Francis Hamlin, M.D. 1901.

Born February 3, 1875, in Southington, Conn.
Died April 23, 1934, in Slatersville, R. I.

Father, Charles Francis Hamlin; son of Daniel Doolittle and Diadamia (Thorpe) Hamlin, of Southington. Mother, Eliza Anna (Jones) Hamlin; daughter of George Smith and Lydia Anna (Watrous) Jones, of Southington

Connecticut Literary Institute, Suffield, and Wesleyan Academy, Wilbraham, Mass; entered Yale School of Medicine in 1896 (on University Baseball Team in 1897 and 1898; member Phi Sigma Kappa; secretary of Class of 1901 M.); enlisted in Connecticut Naval Militia June 3, 1898; served at Camp Haven, Niantic, Conn, and on receiving ship “Minnesota” in the Hospital Department, being promoted to Acting Assistant Surgeon, with rank of Ensign; received discharge August 25, 1898; had practiced medicine in Slatersville since 1901; health officer for the district of Smithfield 1904, medical examiner since 1907, superintendent of schools 1912–18, and coroner since 1926, on staff of Woonsocket (R. I) Hospital since 1918; member of Rhode Island Legislature 1921–24 and state senator since 1924; president Woonsocket (R. I.) Medical Society 1923 (secretary 1919); chairman State Board of Chiropractic Examiners, Rhode Island Narcotic Drug Board, and Republican Town Committee; member United States Pension Examining Board, American Medical Association, Rhode Island Medical Society, and Slatersville Congregational Church.

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage and arteriosclerosis. Buried in Oak Hill Cemetery, Southington. Survived by wife, daughter, son, and a sister, Gertrude H. Shepardson, wife of William Martin Shepardson (B.S. Boston University 1888).

Harry Louis Abramson, M.D. 1911.

Born February 14, 1886, in Kynshin, Russia.
Died April 17, 1934, in New York City.

Father, Jacob Israel Abramson, a furniture dealer in St. Louis, Mo.; son of Abraham and Goldie Abramson, of Sokolka, Poland. Mother, Freida Sarah (Rosenthal) Abramson; daughter of Mordecai and Minnie Rosenthal, of Grodno, Poland.

St. Joseph (Mo.) High School; superintendent of street sales for St. Joseph News-Press 1904-07; entered Yale School of Medicine in 1907 (won Ferris Anatomical prize in 1909, Campbell gold medal Senior year, divided Keese prize, M.D. cum laude; member Nu Sigma Nu and Sigma Xi); intern at Rhode Island Hospital, Providence, 1911-12, at Providence City Hospital October, 1912-January 1, 1913, and at New Haven Hospital January-September, 1913; practiced in New York City 1913-18, connected with Research Laboratory of New York Department of Health 1913-18, instructor in bacteriology at New York University 1917-18, pathologist to Willard Parker Hospital, New York City, 1913-18 and Hospital for Joint Deformities 1915-18, since 1918 had been director of laboratories of New Brunswick Department of Health at St. John; pathologist to Province of New Brunswick, General Public, and Provincial hospitals, St. John, since 1918 and to St John Infirmary since 1922; examiner in pathology and bacteriology for Dominion of Canada and New Brunswick medical councils since 1924, president of Family Welfare Bureau of St. John 1929-1934 and honorary president 1934; contributed to Archives of Internal Medicine, Journal of the American Medical Association, and Proceedings of Society of Experimental Biology and Medicine; vice-president St. John Kiwanis Club 1933 (director 1930-32); member American Medical Association, American Public Health Association, and Society of American Immunologists.
Married August 24, 1913, in New York City, Deborah, daughter of Joel and Anna (Davis) Rubinsky. No children.

Death due to high malignant hypertension. Buried in Mount Carmel Cemetery, Brooklyn. Survived by wife, mother, four sisters, Mrs. David Rosen and Mrs. Samuel Robinson, of Omaha, Nebr., Mrs. Adolph Saperstein, of Ogden, Utah, and Miss Ann Abramson, of St Joseph, and three brothers, Sam Abramson (LL.B. Drake 1914), of Des Moines, Iowa, William Abramson (Drake 1923–25), of St. Joseph, and Max Abramson, of Dallas, Texas.

Jean Jacques DuMortier, M.D. 1931.

Born May 4, 1904, in South Norwalk, Conn.
Died January 19, 1934, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Jean DuMortier (M.D. University of Ghent 1890), a surgeon in South Norwalk; son of Francois and Rosalie (Libbrecht) DuMortier, of Avelghem, Belgium. Mother, Mabel Hoyt (Beers) DuMortier; daughter of David and Sarah Jane (Smith) Beers, of South Norwalk.

Norwalk High School and Harstrom’s Preparatory School, Norwalk; attended Williams College 1922–24 (member Delta Kappa Epsilon); B.A. Columbia 1927; studied in Yale School of Medicine 1927–1931 (M.D. cum laude; member Nu Sigma Nu and Alpha Omicron Alpha); surgical interne Peter Bent Brigham Hospital, Boston, 1931–33; assistant in surgical pathology Yale School of Medicine and assistant resident surgical pathologist New Haven Hospital and New Haven Dispensary since 1933; editor Yale Journal of Biology and Medicine 1930–31; member Trinity (Episcopal) Church, South Norwalk.

Married June 11, 1931, in Brewster, N. Y., Marguerite Robb, an instructor in Yale School of Nursing, daughter of Peter Batchen and Bessie (Deane) Robb.

Death due to septicemia Bacillus welchi. Buried in Riverside Cemetery, Norwalk. Survived by wife, and a sister, Julienne D. Peck (B.A. Smith 1923), of Stamford, Conn., the wife of Milton Gregory Peck.
SCHOOL OF LAW
BACHELORS OF LAWS

Augustus Binswanger, LL.B. 1867.
Born January 19, 1844, in Catonsville, Md.
Died March 12, 1934, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, Emanuel Binswanger, owner of a vinegar factory in Baltimore, Md.; son of Moses and Blümle (Götz) Binswanger, of Osterberg, Bavaria.
Mother, Elsie (Seligmann) Binswanger.

Left school at age of thirteen and worked in his father's factory three years, clerk in stores in Darlington Court House, S. C., Harrisonburg, Va., and in Washington, D. C.; subsequently in business for himself in Washington until he entered the Yale School of Law in 1865; practiced law independently in St. Louis 1868–1888; then moved to Chicago and had charge of legal business of Nelson Morris & Company 1888–89, had since practiced law independently and had specialized in commercial and corporation law; for a number of years served as secretary of the Class of 1867 L., of which he was the last surviving member, member Chicago Sinai Congregation.

Married November 20, 1872, in St. Louis, Carrie, daughter of Abraham and Esther (Schroeder) Vogel. Children: Ida, Alvin, and Edwin (died in infancy)

Death due to acute coronary occlusion and carcinoma of the sigmoid. Buried in Rosehill Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by daughter, one son, and two grandchildren.

Charles Pomeroy Ives, LL.B. 1872.
Born May 6, 1847, in Meriden, Conn.
Died November 5, 1933, in Branford, Conn.

Father, Eli Ives, partner in firm of Ives & Rutty, manufacturers of tinware in Meriden; chairman of Board of Aldermen, son of Othniel and Sarah (Yale) Ives, of Meriden. Mother, Gelina Ann (Pomeroy) Ives, daughter of Noah and Nancy (Merriman) Pomeroy, of East Meriden.

In father's tinware factory several years; attended Connecticut Literary Institute, Suffield; entered Yale School of Law January, 1871; practiced law in Meriden 1872–1891, founder of Meriden Herald 1876 and editor until 1880, engaged in farming in Berlin, Conn., 1880–1891, an organizer of Patrons' Mutual Fire Insurance Company, Meriden, 1887, and secretary until 1893; operated Excelsior Half Dime Restaurant, New Haven, 1891–93, had since been engaged in farming in Branford; president Meriden Poultry Association 1876–77 and secretary 1878–79; secretary Central Pomona Grange 1886–89; superintendent Berlin County (Conn.) Fair poultry show 1915 and 1916; member First Baptist Church, Meriden.

Married (1) December 30, 1874, in Glastonbury, Conn., Phoebe Harriet, daughter of Charles Michael and Mary (Lord) Taintor, and niece of Rev. Joseph S. Lord (B.A. 1831). Children: Phoebe Taintor (Mrs. William C. Higley) (died 1901); Paul Pomeroy; Eli Butler, '03 M. (died 1925); Hope Northam (Mrs. Frank R. Collins); Mary Lord (Mrs. John C. Barnes); and Isadore Eugenia (Mrs. Joseph E. Stannard). Mr. and Mrs. Ives were divorced in 1891. Married (2) July 23, 1891, in Willimantic, Conn., Grace Atkins Taintor, a sister of his first wife.

Death due to exposure and organic heart disease. Buried in Damascuc Cemetery, Branford. Survived by wife, three daughters, one son, sixteen grandchildren, one of whom is Charles P. Ives, 2d (B.A. Brown 1925; Yale Graduate School 1925–26), and eight great-grandchildren.

Hobart LeGrand Hotchkiss, LL.B. 1873.

Born July 5, 1849, in Naugatuck, Conn.
Died March 27, 1934, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Gideon Oscar Hotchkiss; farmer; justice of the peace; representative in General Assembly; high sheriff of New Haven County; son of Orrin and Polly (Hickox) Hotchkiss, of Naugatuck. Mother, Nancy (Smith) Hotchkiss; daughter of Anson and Sarah (Bouton) Smith, of Naugatuck.

Westville (Conn.) Grammar School, entered Yale School of Law 1871; practiced law in New Haven from 1873 until retirement about 1914; partner with A. Heaton Robertson, '72, and William A. Wright, '72 L., in firm of Wright, Robinson & Hotchkiss 1880–1887 and member of firm of Wright, Hotchkiss & Asher (in which Harry W. Asher, '79 S., also partner) 1892–99; judge of Court of Common Pleas for New Haven County 1893–97; clerk of bills in Connecticut General Assembly 1883–84; member of Connecticut House of Representatives in 1891, 1893, and 1911 (member judiciary committee); superintendent of old Westville School District; registrar of Connecticut Society of the Sons of the American Revolution 1895–1903 and as such compiled its Year Book (1895–96, 1897–99, and 1900–03); member New Haven Grays 1868–1871, David Humphreys Branch of Sons of the American Revolution, and St. James' Episcopal Church, Westville.

Married June 10, 1893, in New Haven, Helen A. Hunter Vaughan, daughter of George and Georgiana (Gilbert) Hunter. Mrs. Hotchkiss died several years ago.
Death due to prostatic hypertrophy and diabetes mellitus. Buried in Hillside Cemetery, Naugatuck. Survived by no immediate relatives.

Charles Storrs Hamilton, LL.B. 1874.

Born January 3, 1843, in Lower Horton, Nova Scotia, Canada.
Died March 19, 1934, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, James Edward Hamilton; merchant and shipowner in West Indies trade, son of James and Nancy (Harris) Hamilton, of Lower Horton. Mother, Anna Mana (Gesner) Hamilton; daughter of Henry and Sarah (Pineo) Gesner, of Nova Scotia.

Prepared for college at private schools in Lower Horton; B.A. King’s College, Nova Scotia, 1871; principal of a school in Dedham, Mass, 1871-72; studied in Yale School of Law 1872-74 (Jewell prize and civil law prize) and also took special course in Yale School of Medicine, had practiced in New Haven since 1874; member New Haven Common Council 1888-89, alderman 1889-1890; first selectman; chairman of Board of Registration 1900 to 1905; chairman of Municipal Commission to revise the City Charter 1903-05, contributed to Bench and Bar Review, member St. Thomas’ Episcopal Church.

Death due to bronchopneumonia. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by daughter, son, two grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Anna Mana Patterson, of Aylesford, Nova Scotia.

William DeWitt Kellogg, LL.B. 1880.

Born April 4, 1858, in Lee, Mass.
Died August 25, 1933, in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Prepared at Suffield, Conn., and Fort Edward, N. Y. Attended Yale Law School in 1878-1881 (LL.M. 1881); practiced law in Beloit, Wis., 1881-89, justice of the police court 1884-88, engaged in insurance business 1889 until retirement in 1908; special agent for a Pittsburgh company 1889-1894; general agent for the eastern field of a German company 1894-1904, and manager closing up the company’s affairs in the United States 1904-06, special representative in San Francisco to look after their losses in the fire of Franklin Insurance Company 1906-08, had lived in St Petersburg since 1920; vice-president and acting president Yale Alumni Association of Berkshire County (Mass.) 1916–17.
School of Law

227

Death due to chronic interstitial nephritis. Buried in Beloit. Survived by wife (died June 30, 1934).

Frank Hyde Waters, LL.B. 1884.

Born January 4, 1856, in Farmington, Ohio.

Died November 28, 1933, in Akron, Ohio.

Father, Benjamin Frank Waters, a farmer; an officer in the Union Army in Civil War; son of Gideon and Phoebe (Rhodes) Waters, of Fowler Township, Ohio. Mother, Mary Ann (Hyde) Waters; daughter of Ira and Mary Ann (Parker) Hyde, of Farmington.

Attended a business college in Keokuk, Iowa, 1876 and 1877; B.S. Eminence College, Kentucky, 1881; during his course taught in commercial department of Eminence College; student in Yale Graduate School and graduate student in Sheffield Scientific School 1881–82, then entered the Yale School of Law; had practiced in Akron since 1884; member of firms of Tinker & Waters to 1902; Allen, Waters & Andress 1902–05; Allen, Waters, Young & Andress 1905–1919; Waters, Andress, Mathers, Wise & Maxon 1919–1920; Waters, Andress, Southworth, Wise & Maxon 1920–27; Waters, Andress, Hagelbarger, Wise & Maxon 1927–1932; and Waters, Andress, Wise, Rotzel & Maxon since 1932; member Ohio State and Akron Bar associations.

Married June 2, 1892, in Woodcock, Pa, Cora Anna, daughter of John Wikoff and Mary Ann (Schlesser) Swift. One daughter, Mary Hyde (B.A. Smith 1915) (Mrs. J. Stuart Sneddon), who died in 1923. Mrs. Waters died January 2, 1929.

Death due to pleuritis with effusion and acute myocarditis. Interred in Waters' Mausoleum, Glendale Cemetery, Akron. Survived by a brother, Alva C. Waters, of Riverside, Calif.

Frederic Whittlesey Hillard, LL.B. 1887.

Born December 19, 1857, in Hadlyme, Conn.

Died August 5, 1933, at Richmond Valley, N. Y.

Father, Rev. Elias Brewster Hillard (B.A. 1848; Yale Divinity School 1850–51 and Andover Theological Seminary 1854). Mother, Julia (Whittlesey) Hillard; daughter of Frederick Whittlesey (B.A. 1822) and Eliza (Burrell) Whittlesey, of Sheffield, Ohio. Yale relatives include: Rev. John Smalley (B.A. 1756) (great-great-grandfather), Roger Whittlesey (B.A. 1787) (great-grandfather); John Hillard, '01 L. (brother), and Archibald MacLeish, '15, and Kenneth MacLeish, '18 (nephews).

Williston Academy, attended Worcester Polytechnic Institute January–July, 1879, as member of Class of 1882; machinist in shops of Pratt & Whitney Company, Hartford, Conn., and followed trade of machinist for a time; entered Yale School of Law in 1886; also special student in Sheffield Scientific School; practiced law in Thomaston, Conn., 1888–89; employed by Pratt & Whitney Company, Edison Laboratories, and Remington Typewriter Company during period 1889–1894, also worked on inventions for the improvement of typewriters; superintendent and designer for Elliott & Hatch Book Typewriting Company 1896–1903; in 1898 organized Hillard Typewriter Company of New York and served as its president until 1928; president of Hillard Typewriter Company of Delaware and of Typewriters Hillardized of Delaware 1920–28; member St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Tottenville, N. Y.

Married September 9, 1897, at Richmond Valley, Mary Collins, daughter of Cornelius Dissosway and Harriet Kennedy (Robinson) Cole. Children: Frederic Whittlesey, Jr. (died in 1912); Helen (died in infancy); Marion, wife of Ralph E. H. Blomely (Louisiana State University 1913–16); Elias Brewster; John (Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute 1927–28) (died in 1930); and Thomas Kerr (Stevens Institute of Technology 1930–32).

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Plymouth (Conn.) Cemetery. Survived by wife, one daughter, two sons, and three sisters, Mrs. Andrew MacLeish (B.A. Vassar 1878), of Glencoe, Ill., Mrs. J. Lincoln Fenn (B.A. Rockford College 1888), of Hartford, and Mrs. George L. Morris (B.A Radcliffe 1899), of Villa Nova, Pa.

Frederic Meeker Williams, LL.B. 1887.

Born November 27, 1862, in New Preston, Conn.
Died February 28, 1934, in Waterbury, Conn.

Father, Stanley Williams, a farmer; son of Albion and Minerva (Favreau) Williams, of Washington, Conn. Mother, Esther Clarissa (Meeker) Williams, daughter of David and Mary (Tracy) Meeker, of Washington.

Upson Seminary, Washington, taught school in New Milford, Conn; studied law in the office of Judge Simeon E. Baldwin, '61, for one year; entered Yale School of Law in 1884 (president of Kent Club one term), practiced law in Litchfield, Conn., 1887–88 and then in New Milford, Conn., until 1913; Workmen's Compensation commissioner of 5th District of Connecticut from 1913 until resignation on February 13,
School of Law

Andrew Miller Freas, LL.B. 1890.

Born October 31, 1862, in Berwick, Pa.
Died March 8, 1934, in Wilkes Barre, Pa.

Father, Harry L. Freas (M.D. Jefferson Medical College 1855), physician in Berwick; son of Andrew and Lydia (Hesse) Freas, of Briar Creek Township, near Berwick. Mother, Amelia Gearhart (Messinger) Freas, daughter of Peter and Amelia (Gearhart) Messinger, of Danville, Pa.

Berwick High School and private tutor; attended Bucknell University 1882-84 (member Sigma Chi); vice-principal Berwick Public Schools 1885-87 and principal 1887-89; studied law in Berwick 1889 and admitted to Pennsylvania Bar September 23; entered Yale School of Law 1889; practiced in Washington, D.C., for a few months after graduation and in Wilkes Barre 1890-1902; president judge Orphans Court of Luzerne County 1902 until retirement 1922; chairman of Democratic Committee, Luzerne County 1896-98; member Law Library Association and Methodist church.

Unmarried.

Death due to a coronary embolism and chronic myocarditis. Buried in Pine Grove Cemetery, Berwick. Survived by a sister, Mrs. Clarence J. Capwell, of Wilkes Barre, and three brothers, Frank and Robert Freas, of Jermyn, Pa., and Harry L. Freas (Bucknell ex-'98), of Factoryville, Pa.

James Madison Self, LL.B. 1891.

Born October 25, 1865, in Nebraska City, Nebr.
Died April 25, 1934, Hamilton, Mont.

Father, James Madison Self, a farmer in Nebraska City; son of Philip Jenkins and Mary Self, of Ashland, Mo. Mother, Malinda
Tale Obituary Record

(Batterton) Self, daughter of James Lemuel and Mary (Lynch) Batterton, who lived near Columbia, Mo.

B A College of Montana 1889; attended Yale School of Law 1889–1891, practiced law in Butte, Mont., 1891–95, in Anaconda, Mont., 1895–1900 (prosecuting attorney for the county 1897–1900), and in Plains, Mont., 1900–1921; judge of the Fourth Judicial District of Montana and head of the Ravalli County Court at Hamilton from 1921 until retirement 1933; deputy county attorney for Deer Lodge County 1897–98, member of Eighth Legislative Assembly of Montana and chairman of the Committee on Judiciary 1903–04; connected with Boy Scouts of America; member of First Presbyterian Church, Hamilton.

Married in 1898 in Plains to Rowena Pierce (B.A. College of Montana 1889), daughter of Milon H. and Unity (Sapp) Pierce. No children.

Death due to carcinoma of the left lung. Buried at Plains. Survived by wife.

Thomas Francis Ryan, LL.B. 1897.

Born March 6, 1872, in Limerick, Ireland.
Died August 22, 1933, in Litchfield, Conn.

Father, Thomas Ryan, a farmer in Limerick. Mother, Margaret (Dwyer) Ryan; daughter of Nancy (Goff) Dwyer, of Limerick.

Came to America in 1875; preparatory training received at St. Bernard’s School, Cohoes, N. Y., and at St Mary’s Academy, Troy, N. Y., actor and singer 1889–1892, bookkeeper and manager of lumber business conducted by C. D. Jansen in Torrington, Conn., 1892–95; entered Yale School of Law in 1895; practiced in Torrington 1897–99 and in Tucson, Ariz., 1900–02; during latter period studied mining at University of Arizona in 1900 and prospected in New Mexico, lower California, Montana, and British Columbia; manager of Arizona Oil & Pipe Line Company 1901; played in a stock company in San Francisco and on tour 1902–04; in law office of Samuel A. Herman in Winsted 1904–05, had since practiced in Litchfield, judge of Litchfield-Morris Probate Court 1913–15, postmaster at Litchfield 1915–1923, clerk of Borough of Litchfield 1908–1915; manager and attorney for Litchfield County Company (electric railway) 1906–08; member Litchfield School Board 1909–1917 (chairman 1911–15); drew new charter and by-laws for Borough of Litchfield 1915; during the war served as member of local branch of Connecticut Council of Defense and as chairman of War Stamp Committee, member American Bar Association, Litchfield County Bar Association, American Academy of Political and Social Science, Connecticut Historical Society, Litchfield Historical Association, Litchfield Scientific Society (on executive committee), and St. Anthony’s Roman Catholic Church, Litchfield.
Married February 19, 1895, in Torrington, Mary, daughter of Edward and Catherine (Donovan) Kelley. Children: Mary Gertrude, Catherine Edna, Margaret Agatha, and Frances Mary.

Death due to diabetes mellitus. Buried in Old St. Francis Cemetery, Torrington. Survived by wife, four daughters, and a sister, Sister St. Peter, of the Order of the Sisters of St. Joseph, of Tucson.

René Petro Frederick vonMinden, LL.B. 1897.

Born October 9, 1871, in Melrose, N. Y.
Died April 10, 1934, in New Market, N. J.

Father, Reinhold vonMinden; a music publisher in New York City; born in Italy, but of Danish descent, came to United States in 1866, son of Peter, Baron vonMinden, and Charlotte (Motteler) vonMinden, of Naples, Italy. Mother, Elizabeth Jane (Ziegle) vonMinden; daughter of Frederick Ziegle, of Stuttgart, Germany Attended St. John's College of Fordham University 1886-88; studied law in an office in Plainfield, N. J., for a time; engaged in farming 1892-93; assisted in management of a hotel in which his father had an interest 1893-95; entered Yale School of Law in 1895; admitted to Connecticut Bar 1897, Massachusetts Bar 1899, and New Jersey Bar 1900; had practiced in Plainfield, N. J., since 1897; assistant prosecuting attorney 1897-98; corporation counsel 1906-08; member of New Jersey Assembly in 1908; member New Jersey State Board of Agriculture 1905-1914; justice of the peace since 1902; president New Market Exempt Firemen's Association since 1916; vice-president New Jersey State Firemen's Association 1930-1932; member New Market Volunteer Fire Department, New Jersey, Middlesex, and Plainfield Bar associations, and First Baptist Church, New Market.

Married September 18, 1892, in Somerville, N. J., Harriet, daughter of Joseph Toppen and Annie Helen (Mann) Rikeman. Two sons, Frederic Rikeman and Joseph René.

Death due to coronary occlusion and angina pectoris. Buried in Middlesex Hillside Cemetery, South Plainfield. Survived by wife and sons.

Edward Patrick O’Meara, LL.B. 1899.

Born January 6, 1875, in New Haven, Conn.
Died February 3, 1934, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Edward O’Meara; silk buyer for the Gamble-Desmond Company of New Haven; son of Patrick and Sarah (Clarey) O’Meara, of County Tipperary, Ireland. Mother, Mary Camillus (Healey) O’Meara; daughter of Dennis and Honora (Reynolds) Healey, of New Haven.
Cousins: William J. O'Meara, '04 S., Walter E. Joyce, '07 S., and James McK. Foley, '15 S.

New Haven High School; entered Yale School of Law 1896 (member Kent and Wayland clubs); in law office of Charles S. Hamilton, '74 L., in New Haven 1899-1902; had since practiced independently in New Haven; assistant corporation counsel of New Haven 1907-09; judge of City Court 1913-15; secretary of Sheehan Realty Company since 1918 and of S. H. Moore Company; member New Haven Common Council 1899-1900; member Board of Finance 1899-1900, 1905-08, and 1930-32, director of Free Public Library 1899-1901, of St. Francis Orphan Asylum, and of St. Lawrence and St. Bernard Cemetery associations since 1904; member New Haven Chamber of Commerce, chairman of Democratic Town Committee 1916-1920; member of Democratic State Central Committee 1917-1920, secretary of Draft Board No. 1 of New Haven fourteen months; secretary of board of trustees of Church of the Sacred Heart 1905-06; helped establish Catholic Social Service Bureau of New Haven 1919; president of Catholic Laymen's Retreat Association of Connecticut since its founding in 1929; member St. Brendan's Catholic Church, New Haven.

Charles James Fox, LL.B. 1901.

Born November 10, 1880, in New Haven, Conn. Died August 23, 1933, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Timothy John Fox, '69 L. Mother, Beza Theresa (Healy) Fox, daughter of Michael and Beza (McLaughlin) Healy, of New Haven.

Hillhouse High School, New Haven; entered Yale School of Law in 1898; had never practiced law; chief clerk with New Haven Department of Public Works 1901-04 and with Town Clerk's Department 1904-1912; had since been an investigator for Department of Charities and Correction; member St. Ædan's Roman Catholic Church, Westville, Conn.

Married November 11, 1913, in New Haven, Caroline Marie, daughter of Lenohard and Anna Josephine (Grehser) Hartman. No children.

Death due to carcinoma of the pancreas. Buried in St. Bernard's Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife, two brothers, Edward Harvey Fox, of Richmond, Va., and Timothy J. Fox, of Boston, Mass., and three sisters, Miss Gertrude A. Fox (Yale School of Music 1897–98), Mrs. John E. Lynch, of Atlantic City, N. J., and Eleanor Fox DeCaro, wife of Capt. Frederick DeCaro, U.S.A., ret., of Washington, D. C.

William Chilton Abercrombie, LL.B. 1902.

Born January 2, 1872, in Huntsville, Texas.
Died March 5, 1934, in New York City.

Father, Leonard Anderson Abercrombie, a lawyer; son of Milo Bolling and Sarah Lee (Haden) Abercrombie, of Cross Keys Plantation, Alabama. Mother, Lavmia (Chilton) Abercrombie; daughter of William Parish Chilton, Chief Justice of Alabama, and Mary Catherine (Morgan) Chilton, of Montgomery, Ala. Yale relatives include two nephews, Robert A. Lovett, '18, and Gentry C. Waldo, '27.

Fishburne Military Academy, Waynesboro, Va. Attended University of Texas 1892–95 and Harvard 1896–98; studied in Yale School of Law 1899–1902 (member Wayland and Kent clubs and Book and Gavel); had practiced law independently in New York since 1902; member American Bar Association and Huntsville Baptist Church.

Married September 16, 1909, in New York City, Anne, daughter of James A. and Elizabeth (Minetree) Smith, of Petersburg, Va. No children.

Death due to heart failure. Buried in Oak Grove Cemetery, Huntsville. Survived by wife, three sisters, Mrs. Henry Finch (B.A. Mary Sharp College 1879), of Pasadena, Calif., Mrs. Haden A. Lewis, of El Paso, Texas, and Mrs. Corinne A. Waldo (B.A. Wellesley 1900), of Omaha, Nebr., widow of Gentry Waldo, ex-'97 S., and a brother, Leonard A. Abercrombie (University of Texas ex-'98 Law), of Salina, Kans.

Jacob Caplan, LL.B. 1903.

Born January 21, 1882, in Elizabethgrad, Russia.
Died February 3, 1934, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Max Caplan; in hay and grain business in New Haven; son of Jacob and Anna (Levine) Caplan, of Elizabethgrad, Russia. Mother, Lena (Levine) Caplan; daughter of Louis and Mollie Levine, of Elizabethgrad.

New Haven High School; entered Yale School of Law in 1900.
(member Kent and Wayland clubs); admitted to the bar in 1903 and had since practiced law in New Haven; associated with his classmate, Edward J. Stanford, until 1923, clerk of New Haven Paving Commission 1907–1914, judge of City Court 1917–1923; state senator since 1931 (member of Legislative expenses, cities and boroughs, manufactures, and judiciary committees, committee on rules, and joint committee on constitution and amendments); director Masonic Publication Corporation 1923–28, Congress Bank & Trust Company 1924–26, and Jewish Conciliation Court of New Haven since 1932; president Jewish Home for Children 1920–1933, and Jewish Welfare Society 1921–1933; one of Connecticut’s representatives at International Bar Association meeting, London, 1924; on council of Neighborhood House of New Haven 1923–1933, and Jewish Community Council 1930–31; member New Haven Colony Historical Society, Society of Friends of the Hebrew University in Palestine, and Congregation B’nai Jacob.

Death due to carcinoma of the sigmoid. Buried in B’nai Jacob Cemetery, Westville, Conn. Survived by wife, sons, a brother, Frank Caplan, of New Haven, and two sisters, Mrs. Celia C. Rosenberg, the wife of Sidney C. Rosenberg, Jr., of New Haven, and Mrs. Charles Kopelman, of Boston.

Thomas Francis Turley, LL.B. 1903.

Born October 31, 1880, in New York City.

Died May 22, 1934, in Tuckahoe, N. Y.

Hopkins Grammar School. Entered Yale School of Law in 1900; had been engaged in the practice of law in New York City from 1903 until retirement 1932, for several years partner in firm of Turley & Altschuler, member New York State Assembly 1911; transfer tax appraiser for Bronx County 1914; member Immaculate Conception Roman Catholic Church, Tuckahoe.

Married July 9, 1902, in New Haven, Conn, Lillian, daughter of Thomas Edward and Sarah L. (Farrell) Pender. One son, Thomas Francis, Jr.

Death due to a pulmonary embolism and diabetes mellitus. Buried in Calvary Cemetery, Long Island. Survived by wife and son.
Edward Hall Washburn, LL.B. 1906.

Born February 7, 1883, in New Haven, Conn.
Died March 18, 1934, in New Haven, Conn.

Hillhouse High School and Booth's Preparatory School, New Haven; attended Sheffield Scientific School 1902-03, as member of Class of 1905 S., and then entered the Law School; had never practiced law, but since graduation had been connected with the firm of E. L. Washburn & Company, Inc. (dental and medical supplies), in New Haven; president of the company since 1914.

Unmarried.

Death due to injuries received in a fall. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by a sister, Lillian M. McDonnell, wife of Ralph A. McDonnell, '90 and '92 M.

James Augustin Cummings, LL.B. 1907.

Born October 16, 1874, in Fairfield, Conn.
Died April 10, 1934, in Fairfield, Conn.

Father, Patrick Cummings, a farmer; son of William and Ellen (Dennis) Cummings, of Fairfield. Mother, Mary (Gallagher) Cummings, daughter of John and Catherine (Wallace) Gallagher, of Fairfield.

Park Avenue Institute, Bridgeport, Conn; worked on his father's farm; entered Yale School of Law in 1904; practiced law in Fairfield from 1907 until his death; partner in firm of Cummings & Hopwood in Bridgeport 1907-1911, Fairfield town auditor 1899-1903; prosecutor Fairfield Justice Court 1907-1917; member Fairfield County Bar Association and St. Thomas' Catholic Church.

Married April 10, 1918, in Fairfield, Mary, daughter of Terrence and Ann (Heffennan) Gearety. No children.

Death due to carcinoma of the sigmoid. Buried in St. Thomas' Cemetery, Fairfield. Survived by wife and a sister, Miss Mary C. Cummings, of Fairfield.

Born October 28, 1884, in Boston, Mass.
Died May 16, 1934, in Orford, N. H.

Father, Rev. Frank Woods Baker (B.A. Harvard 1881; B.D. Episcopal Theological Seminary, Cambridge, Mass, 1883; D.D.

Entered Sheffield Scientific School as a member of the Freshman Class 1904, attended Yale School of Law 1905-08; subsequently a real estate broker in Boston for a time; engaged in farming in South Lincoln, Mass., 1913-1923, and in Orange County, Fla., 1925; trustee Trinity Episcopal Church, Castine, Maine.

Unmarried.

Vahan Cardashian, LL.B. 1908.

Born December 1, 1882, in Cesarea, Armenia.

Died June 11, 1934, in New York City.

Father, Nazar Cardashian. Mother, Marie (Calayjian) Cardashian. L’Ecole Jesuite, France, engaged as a journalist, contributing to French and Armenian newspapers; came to America 1902; merchant in New York City; entered Yale School of Law 1907; became American citizen 1909 and admitted to New York Bar; had since practiced law in New York City; counsel to Turkish Embassy, Washington, D. C., and to Turkish Consulate, New York City 1910-14; attorney for Delegation of the Armenian Republic since 1920; director Armenian National Union of America.

Death due to heart disease. Survived by mother, a sister, Mrs. Hranoush Frankian, of Constantinople, Turkey, and a brother, Charles Cardashian.

[formerly Harry Burnstine]

Born September 8, 1888, in Bremen, Germany.

Died August 3, 1933, at Rockaway Beach, N. Y.

Father, Jacob Burnstine, who came to America in 1894; in real estate business in Bridgeport, Conn.; son of Morris and Rose (Kohn) Burnstine, of Bremen. Mother, Pauline (Rosenblatt) Burnstine; daughter of Sol and Rebecca (Kurland) Rosenblatt, of Bremen.

Bridgeport High School; entered Yale School of Law in 1907 (LL.B cum laude); had practiced law in New York City since 1910; admitted

Alexander Miller, LL.B. 1916.

Father, Joseph Miller, retired head of the firm of Joseph Miller & Company, New York City, producers of bituminous coal in Kingswood, W. Va.; son of Judas Miller, of Pittsburgh. Mother, Rebecca Leah (Frank) Miller, daughter of Eli and Mary (Simon) Frank, of Veisejan, Lithuania.

Morgantown (W. Va.) Preparatory School; B.A. University of West Virginia 1913; then entered Yale School of Law (LL.B. cum laude); admitted to New York Bar October, 1916; real estate and tax agent for Pittsburgh, Shawmut & Northern Railroad, and legal assistant to the receiver 1916–17; associated with his father in Joseph Miller & Company 1917–18; engaged in the independent practice of law in New York City 1918–1930; partner in firm of Rasquin & Miller at Huntington, N. Y., 1930–31, and had since practiced independently in Huntington; during 1925 and 1926 contributed legal articles on the coal industry to Saward's Journal; counsel for Huntington Taxpayers Association since 1932; member American and Suffolk County Bar associations and Chi Tau Kappa (elected 1917).

Married (1) June 8, 1918, in New York City, Flora, daughter of Death due to myocardial insufficiency and nephrolithiasis. Buried in Montefiore Cemetery, New York City. Survived by wife, daughter, four sons, and parents.

Josephine Hewson Powers, LL.B. 1923.

Born October 3, 1886, in New Haven, Conn.
Died January 23, 1934, in New Haven, Conn.

Father, Thomas Powers, with John Clancy Bottling Works, New Haven, son of Thomas and Margaret (Gleason) Powers, of New York City. Mother, Mary Jane (Hewson) Powers; daughter of William and Mary (O'Shea) Hewson, of New Haven.

Death due to tuberculosis. Buried in St. Lawrence Cemetery, West Haven. Survived by mother, two sisters, the Misses Geraldine and Loretto Powers, of New Haven, and three brothers, William Powers, of Washington, D. C., John C. Powers (B.A. 1921, M.D. 1925), and David Powers, of New Haven.

Andrew Jackson Russell, LL.B. 1928.

Born February 12, 1899, in Haddix, Ky.
Died September 17, 1933, in Louisville, Ky.

Father, William Russell, a farmer; served in Confederate Army, son of John and Sallie (Dean) Russell, of Troublesome Creek, Ky. Mother, Orlena (Richie) Russell; daughter of Andrew and Haney (Cockrill) Richie, of Gauge, Ky.

Berea (Ky) Normal School, B.A. Berea 1926 (member Tau Kappa Alpha), taught in Breathitt County, Ky., and at Berea College foundation school; entered Yale School of Law in 1926 (member Delta Theta Phi), had been a member of the faculty of University of Louisville Law School since 1928, as lecturer in commercial law and associate professor of law, at time of death was engaged in research work connected with the Kentucky Constitution and in annotating Kentucky decisions for American Law Institute, head of debating squads of University of Louisville three years, contributed to Kentucky Law Journal, member American Bar Association, Kentucky Bar Associa-Married June 21, 1929, in Newark, Ohio, Bertella May Lee (B.A. Berea 1926), daughter of John Albert and Eva May (Stockberger) Lee. No children.

DOCTOR OF LAW

Daniel Franklin Bobbitt, J.D. 1924.

Born November 22, 1892, in Hillsboro, Texas
Died July 5, 1933, in Austin, Texas.

Father, Joseph Alderson Bobbitt; a ranchman. Mother, Laura (Duff) Bobbitt.

Culbertson Select School, Hillsboro; LL.B. University of Texas 1918, B.A. 1921 (member Sigma Chi and Phi Delta Phi); commissioned Second Lieutenant, Aviation Service, December, 1917, at Kelley Field; received discharge November 15, 1918, at Mineola, N. Y.; instructor in University of Texas Law School 1919-1923; graduate student in Yale School of Law 1923-24 (J.D. cum laude); professor of law in University of Texas Law School since 1924; contributed to Texas Law Review.

Unmarried.

Death due to meningitis. Buried in Ridgepark Cemetery, Hillsboro. Survived by father, eight brothers, Tilfer O. Bobbitt, of Denton, Texas, Joseph A. Bobbitt, Jr., of Hillsboro, Robert Lee Bobbitt (LL.B. University of Texas 1915), of Laredo, Texas, Hearne S. Bobbitt, of San Antonio, Texas, James F. Bobbitt (B.A. Rice Institute 1926; LL.B. University of Texas 1930), of Houston, Texas; Edward H. Bobbitt (B.S. Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas 1934), of College Station, Texas, Louis V. Bobbitt (University of Texas 1935), of Austin, Texas, and Bryan W. Bobbitt (Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas 1937), of College Station, and four sisters, Mrs. Mattie B. McGregor (B.A. College of Industrial Arts, Texas, 1918), of Houston, Mrs. Grace B. Evans (B.A. College of Industrial Arts 1921), of Seminole, Okla., Miss Willie Hester Bobbitt (B.A. College of Industrial Arts 1920, B.A. University of Texas 1923), of Austin, and Mrs. Mildred B. Noble, of Hillsboro.
DIVINITY SCHOOL

Frank Theodosius Lee, B.D. 1877.
Born March 23, 1847, in Kenosha, Wis.
Died June 11, 1934, in Claremont, Calif.

Father, Leonard Lee, a farmer and later a manufacturer in Kenosha; son of Orren and Ruth (Johnson) Lee, of Manlius, N. Y. Mother, Sophia Alathea (Cook) Lee; daughter of Lucius and Sophia (Jerome) Cook, of Pompey, N. Y. Brothers: Rev. Lucius O. Lee, ’75 D., and Charles R. Lee, ex ’78 S.

B.A. Oberlin 1874; attended Yale Divinity School 1874–77; ordained Milwaukee (Wis.) Congregational Church December 18, 1877; associate editor Congregationalist 1878–79; pastor First Congregational Church, Sparta, Wis., 1878–1882; at Salt Lake City, Utah, 1882–84; First Congregational Church, Whitewater, Wis., 1884–88; took postgraduate course Union Theological Seminary 1888–89; supply at Lincoln Park Church, Chicago, Ill., 1890–91; pastor First Congregational Church, Muscatine, Iowa, 1891–95; Douglas Park Congregational Church, Chicago, 1895–99; First Congregational Church 1904–08, dean and professor of Biblical literature and Christian Theology, School of Bible and Christian Training, Washburn College, 1908–1913, professor of Bible extension and instructor in Biblical literature, Atlanta (Ga.) Theological Seminary, 1913–19; an organizer and trustee of Congregational Summer Assembly at Frankfort, Mich., where he had made his summer home since 1904, had lived in Claremont in winter since 1924, author Popular Misconceptions as to Christian Faith and Life (1900), Bible Study Popularized (1904), Side Lights on the Bible (1908), The New Testament Period and Its Leaders (1913), and Old Testament Heroes of the Faith (1920); D.D. Wheaton College 1908, member Claremont Community Church.

Married September 20, 1881, in Evanston, Ill., Nellie Jane, daughter of William Joseph and Frances Caroline (Caul) Canfield. One son, Harold Canfield (B.A. Amherst 1912).

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Oak Park Cemetery, Claremont. Survived by wife and son.

Born September 20, 1857, in Fairfield, Iowa.
Died May 27, 1934, in Haverford, Pa.

Father, William Henry Jordan, a general merchant in Fairfield; son of Clement and Eliza (Dyer) Jordan, of Cape Elizabeth, Maine. Mother, Anna Maria Smonton (Webster) Jordan; daughter of Captain Eben Webstar and Mary Jones (Jordan) Webster, of Cape Elizabeth Marietta Academy; B.A. Marietta 1879 (Phi Beta Kappa); attended Yale Divinity School 1879–1883; minister, Congregational Church, Falls Church, Va., 1883–85; ordained October 4, 1884; pastor, First Congregational Church, Bound Brook, N. J., 1885–1893 and Clinton (Mass.) Congregational Church 1893–1921; professor of English Bible, Ursinus College, 1921–1930, and emeritus since 1930; M.A. Marietta 1891, D.D. 1899; corporate member American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions; author Nantucket and Other Verse (1930); had contributed to Congregationalist; member Bryn Mawr (Pa.) Presbyterian Church.

Death due to heart disease. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Clinton. Survived by wife and one son.

Francis Hubbard Viets, B.D. 1882.

Born September 16, 1854, in Granby, Conn.
Died June 8, 1934, in Waltham, Mass.

Father, Benjamin Erskine Viets, a farmer; son of Dan and Beulah (Phelps) Viets, of East Granby. Mother, Anna (Hubbard) Viets; daughter of Benoni and Abigail (Francis) Hubbard, of Bloomfield, Conn. Great-great uncle: Rev. Roger Viets (B.A. 1758).

Connecticut Literary Institute, Suffield; B.A. Brown 1879, studied in Yale Divinity School 1879–1882; pastor Riverton (Conn.) Congregational Church 1882–87 where ordained October 18, 1882; pastor East and North Woodstock (Conn.) Congregational churches 1887–1899; Buckingham Congregational Church, Glastonbury, Conn., 1899–1903, and Boxboro (Mass.) Congregational Church 1903–1915; had lived in Waltham, Mass., since retirement in 1915; published a Genealogy of the Viets Family (1902); member First Congregational Church, Waltham.

Married May 23, 1883, in Providence, R. I., Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Amos Daniel and Maria (Waterman) Smith. Children: Paul Winthrop; Marion Amelia; and Ruby Elizabeth (B.A. Radcliffe 1925).

Death due to intestinal carcinoma. Buried in Pocasset Cemetery, Providence. Survived by wife, son, daughters, two grandchildren, and a brother, Scott B. Viets, of West Hartford, Conn.
Charles Lyman Goodrich, B.D. 1884.

Born February 24, 1856, in Sedgwick, Maine.
Died March 18, 1934, in Newton, Mass.

Father, Rev. Lewis Goodrich (B.A. Bowdoin 1845; graduate Bangor Theological Seminary 1848), a Congregational minister in Maine and New Hampshire; son of John and Susan (Bosworth) Goodrich, of Bingham, Maine. Mother, Lucy Ann (Baker) Goodrich; daughter of Allen and Lucy (Russel) Baker, of Bingham. Brother: Rev. Lincoln B. Goodrich, '93 D.

Prepared for college at the Auburn (Maine) High School; B.A. Amherst 1879 (member Delta Kappa Epsilon); principal Amherst High School 1879-1881, studied in Yale Divinity School 1881-84; ordained to Congregational ministry June 12, 1884, at Plainfield, N. J., where pastor of the Congregational Church until retirement in 1915; had made his home in Wellesley, Mass., since 1917 and had held temporary pastorates in various places; acting pastor of First Congregational Church at North Adams, Mass., 1918-19; acting pastor Pilgrim Church, Provincetown, Mass., summers of 1922 and 1923, and at John Eliot Church, South Natick, Mass., April-December, 1924; trustee Congregational Church Building Society 1903-1914; corresponding secretary New Jersey Conference of Congregational Churches 1904-1915, member Wellesley (Mass.) Congregational Church.

Married November 14, 1893, in Montclair, N. J., Jeannette Margaret Carter (Smith 1881-83), daughter of Benjamin and Margaret Ann (Walker) Carter. One son, Carter (B.A. Amherst 1918; Ph.D. University of Chicago 1921). Mrs Goodrich died February 25, 1928.

Death due to cancer of the prostate. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Wellesley. Survived by son, three grandchildren, a brother, John A. Goodrich, of Dorchester, Mass., and a sister, Miss Isabelle Welthie Goodrich, of Manchester, N. H.

Arthur Pinckney Hall, B.D. 1884.

Born December 25, 1858, at Black Jack, De Soto Parish, La.
Died September 13, 1933, in Claremont, Calif.

Father, Thomas Pinckney Hall (University of North Carolina 1827), a planter and land surveyor, son of William Davidson and Elizabeth (Gregg) Hall, of Iredell County, N. C. Mother, Martha (Littlefield) Hall (graduate Mount Holyoke 1853); daughter of Jotham Littlefield, of Kennebunkport, Maine.

Drury Academy; B.A. Drury College 1878, M.A. 1884; taught in public school in Springfield, Mo., 1878-1881; studied in Yale Divinity School 1881-86 (B.D. 1884, Ph.D. 1886); professor of the Latin language and literature at Drury from 1886 until retirement in 1925; also dean of the college 1910-1925; studied at Universities of Göttingen and Leipzig 1892–93; professor of pedagogy and psychology at Springfield (Mo.) Normal Summer School in 1906 and of literature in 1907 and 1908; LL.D. Drury 1923; had lived in Claremont since retirement; president of Springfield Musical Club 1897–99 and of the Afternoon Club of Claremont 1925–1930; member Classical Association of the Middle West and South and Claremont Community Church.

Married October 18, 1887, in Springfield, Mo., Ada Alfreda Durham (B.A. Drury 1880), daughter of Harris Kinley and Mary Louisa (Harwood) Durham. Four daughters. Martha Louise (died in infancy); Evelyn (died in infancy); Lois (B.A. Drury 1914); and Mary (Mus.B. Drury 1919).

Death due to a cerebral hemorrhage and bronchopneumonia. Buried in Bellevue Cemetery, Ontario, Calif. Survived by wife and two daughters.

Charles Wilson Loomis, B.D. 1888.

Born November 24, 1853, in Charlestown, Ohio.
Died September 26, 1933, in Leominster, Mass.

Father, Frederick Loomis, a farmer; son of Ralsamon and Nancy (Colt) Loomis, of Charlestown. Mother, Harriet (Wilson) Loomis, daughter of James and Nancy (Welty) Wilson, of Warren, Ohio.

Oberlin Preparatory Department; attended Oberlin College 1876–79, B.A. Amherst 1882; taught Latin at Cheltenham Academy, Ogontz, Pa., 1882–85, at Amherst Summer School in 1884 and at Chautauqua in 1885; studied in Yale Divinity School 1885–88 and again 1894–95, ordained to Congregational ministry at Fair Haven, Conn., May 23, 1888; home missionary at Eagle River, Wis., 1888–89; pastor First Congregational Church, Stillman Valley, Ill., 1890–94 and First Congregational Church, West Brookfield, Mass., 1895–99, agent for State Mutual Life Assurance Company of Worcester, Mass., in Boston 1900–02; preached at Pike, N. H., 1902–04; pastor Ashby (Mass.) Congregational Church 1904–1913 (also town auditor 1906–08), subsequently lived in Leominster and supplied pulpits in Hubbardston, Groton, and Lunenburg, Mass.; taught English at Syrian Protestant College, Beirut, 1919–1921; from 1921 until retirement in 1930 served as educational director of Calvinistic Congregational Church, Fitchburg, Mass., of which a member.

Married September 8, 1891, in Winsted, Conn., Julia Maria, daughter of George Kellogg and Margarett Esth (Griswold) Colt. Children: Frederick Colt (M.E. Cornell 1914); George Colt; Frank Warren (died in childhood); and Charles Wilson, Jr. (B.A. Amherst 1921).
Death due to arteriosclerosis. Buried in Forest View Cemetery, Winsted. Survived by wife, three sons, four grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. George W. Fowler, of North Tonawanda, N. Y.

Edward Payson Holton, B.D. 1890.
Born February 24, 1864, in Hillsgrove, Ill.
Died June 25, 1934, in Newburyport, Mass.

Father, Isaac Farwell Holton (B.A. Amherst 1836, graduate Union Theological Seminary 1839), professor of botany at New York College of Pharmacy and at Middlebury College; son of William and Olive (Rockwood) Holton, of Westminster, Vt. Mother, Mary Susanne (Warner) Holton; daughter of Dan and Nancy (Gates) Warner, of Cornwall, Vt.

B.A. Amherst 1887, attended Yale Divinity School 1887–1890; postgraduate course Andover Theological Seminary 1890–91; pastor Second Congregational Church, Hanover, Mass., 1890–91; ordained at Everett (Mass.) Congregational Church May 15, 1891; missionary of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions at Madura Mission stations, South India, 1892–1928; instructor in chemistry Madura College 1908–09; president Madura panchayat 1902–1910, member Madura District Board 1904–1913; manager Agricultural Colony for reclaiming habitual thieves, at Gudalur, 1916–17; had lived in Newburyport since retirement; member First Church in Newbury

Married August 7, 1894, in Amherst, Gertrude Minnie, daughter of Henry and Olive Maria (Esty) Sears. Children: Sylvia Gates (B.A. Mount Holyoke 1925, M.D. University of Chicago 1929), the wife of Robert Daniel Bensley, Ruth Gladys (B.A. Mount Holyoke 1924, Ph.D. University of Chicago 1929), the wife of Carl Sandstrom; and Henry Stanley (Gordon College of Theology and Missions 1929).

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Oldtown Cemetery, Newbury Survived by wife, two daughters, son, and a brother, Rev. Charles Sumner Holton, ex-'91.

James Alexander Solandt, B.D. 1894.
Born October 3, 1863, in Inverness, Quebec, Canada.
Died April 11, 1934, in Elyria, Ohio.

Father, Andre Solandt, Huguenot missionary and colporteur to French Protestants in Canada. Mother, Jane (McKillop) Solandt. Oberlin Preparatory Department; B.A Oberlin 1891, studied at Hartford Theological Seminary 1891–93 and at Yale Divinity School 1893–94, ordained July 4, 1894, in West Stafford (Conn.) Congrega-
John Hans Hjetland, B.D. 1895.

Born December 27, 1862, in Hoyanger, Norway.
Died March 25, 1934, at St. Peter, Minn.

As it has been impossible to secure the desired information for publication in this volume, a biographical statement will appear in a subsequent issue of the OBITUARY RECORD.

Sen Joseph Katayama, B.D. 1895.

Born January 8, 1860, in Okayama Prefecture, Hadegi, Japan.
Died November 5, 1933, in Moscow, Russia.

Father, Jakusen Mizuo Katayama, a farmer. Mother, Yabuki Katayama.

Employed in a Tokyo printing shop 1880-84; came to America in 1884; studied at Maryville College, Tennessee, 1887–88; B.A. Grinnell College 1892; student in Andover Theological Seminary 1892–94 and in Yale Divinity School 1894–95; returned to Japan in 1897 and in 1898 organized Japanese Metal Workers’ Union, of which he was general secretary until 1900; published a workers’ paper, The World of Labor; a founder of the Social-Democratic Party of Japan; in 1903 organized anti-militarist meetings and demonstrations in Tokyo; vice-president of the Amsterdam Socialist Congress in 1904; in 1905 edited a socialist paper and came again to America; in 1912 imprisoned as an organizer of the Tokyo Tramway workers’ strike and obliged to leave Japan the next year; worked as a laborer in San Francisco and edited a socialist magazine; organized a Socialist group in New York in 1916 and a Japanese Communist group in 1919; editor of the Radical Journal at Sheepshead, N. Y.; appointed delegate to Stockholm Socialist Conference by the Japanese Society in 1917; went to Moscow in 1921 and in 1922 elected president of the Congress of Oppressed Far Eastern Peoples; member of the presidium of the executive committee of the Communist International of the Soviet Government from 1922 until death, elected member of the presidium of the first International Congress of the Anti-Imperialist League in 1927; vice-president of the executive committee of the International Labor Defense; author: The Labor Movement in Japan (1918); contributed to Asia.

Married (1) Fude Yokotuka, who died in 1903. Married (2) Tama Hara.

Death due to blood poisoning. Buried at The Kremlin Wall, Moscow. Survived by two daughters, Yasu Katayama and Chiyo Hara.

Died November 17, 1933, in New Brunswick, N. J.

Father, John Phillips, Major in the British Army. Mother, Emma (Eastman) Phillips.

Attended Queen’s College, Cork, Ireland; ordained deacon at St. Peter’s Church, Cheshire, Conn., September 16, 1892, and priest at St. James Church, Westville, Conn., October 31, 1893; studied in Yale Divinity School 1894-95 and again 1896-97, rector St. James Church, Westville, 1892-96 and again 1901-05, assistant minister at St. Paul’s Church, New Haven, 1896-1901, rector Grace Church, Chicopee, Mass., 1905-06; All Saints Church, Littleton, N. H., 1906-08, St James’ Church, Winsted, Conn., 1908-1915; and St. George’s Church, Helmetta, N. J., 1915-1926, assistant rector Christ Church, New Brunswick, N. J., 1926-1933, since 1926 had been a probation officer for Middlesex County, N. J.; private, Second Regiment, Connecticut National Guard, and regimental chaplain 1899-1904; chaplain of Connecticut State Senate 1903-04, M.A. Rutherford College 1899 and D D 1900, member Christ Episcopal Church, New Brunswick.

Married August 20, 1888, in Winsted, Isabel, daughter of Andrew Thomas and Nancy Strickland (Beers) Warren. Children: Alberta Louise (Mrs Carl Schenetsky), Lillian (Mrs William Cushing); George Warren (B A. Princeton 1920); Ruth (Mrs. Jeremiah Rule); Esther (B A Bates 1917; M A Columbia 1926); Allan Merwin Osborn, and John Henry (died 1927) Mrs Phillips died November 20, 1921.

John Wesley Rice, B.D. 1895.

Born June 21, 1868, in Rockland, Mass.
Died September 6, 1933, in Rockland, Mass.

Father, John Alphonso Rice, president J. A Rice Company, merchants, in Rockland, son of Alphonso and Mary (Cardell) Rice, of Northfield, Vt. Mother, Sarah Rowe (Soule) Rice; daughter of Josiah and Sophonia (Jenkins) Soule, of Pembroke, Mass. Cousin: David P. Rice, ex-’98 D

Rockland High School and Boston Latin School, B.A. Harvard 1891 (member Delta Upsilon); traveled abroad 1891-92; studied in Yale Divinity School 1892-95 and in Harvard Divinity School 1895-98 (M A. 1896, B D 1897, Ph D. 1898); instructor in the English Bible at Vanderbilt University 1898–1900; student in Harvard Graduate School 1900–01; instructor in Latin at the Mackenzie School, Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., 1901–02; acting professor of the Greek language and literature and Biblical literature at Ohio Wesleyan University 1902–03 and professor 1903–06; looked after his father’s business affairs in Rockland 1906–1918; instructor in Latin at St. Paul’s School, Concord, N. H., 1918–19; cataloguer in the Yale University Library 1919–1920, attended Albany Library School 1920–21; chief classifier and assistant reference librarian at Princeton University 1921–27; had since made his home in Rockland; treasurer and trustee First Congregational Church, Rockland; trustee Rockland Public Library; member Rockland Chamber of Commerce.

Unmarried.

Lynn Paddock Armstrong, B.D. 1896.

Born March 10, 1865, in Bennington, Vt.
Died May 12, 1934, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Father, Martin VanBuren Armstrong, a farmer; Sergeant, Company A, 14th Vermont Infantry, during Civil War, son of Reuben and Sallinda (Brown) Armstrong, of Bennington, Vt. Mother, Adelaide Patience (Paddock) Armstrong, daughter of Daniel and Fanny (Fillmore) Paddock, of Bennington.

Troy Conference Academy, Poultney, Vt.; B.A. Williams College 1893 (Theta Delta Chi); studied in Yale Divinity School 1893–96; minister Oxford (Conn.) Congregational Church 1894–96, where ordained October 22, 1896; minister Cuyler Presbyterian Chapel in Brooklyn 1896–1906, and organizer of the Cuyler Presbyterian Church 1906, and pastor until 1911; pastor First Presbyterian Church, Richmond Hill, Brooklyn, 1912–18; Borough Park Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, 1918–1920; and Beverly Road Presbyterian Church since 1920; chaplain Stella Chapter, Daughters of the Eastern Star; trustee Troy Conference Academy since 1930; on board of governors Vermont Society of New York.

Married April 20, 1909, in Brooklyn, Margaret Eleanor, daughter of James and Mary Jane (Bell) Gowdey. Children: Ray Livingstone (B.A. Williams 1930; B.A. Oxford 1932); and James Gowdey (Williams 1935).

Death due to angina pectoris. Buried in Old First Congregational Church Cemetery, Bennington. Survived by wife, sons, a brother, Lee F. Armstrong, ex-’98 M., and a sister, Mrs. Douglas Mackintosh, of Bennington.
Arthur Granville Beach, B.D. 1896.

Born November 29, 1870, in Marietta, Ohio.
Died January 27, 1934, in Marietta, Ohio.

Father, Rev. David Edwards Beach (B.A. Marietta 1859; Lane Theological Seminary 1863; D.D. Wabash 1884); Presbyterian minister in Beloit, Wis., and Granville, Ohio; professor of moral philosophy and rhetoric at Marietta College; son of Edwards Abbott Beach (B.A. Amherst 1824, M.A. 1832; Auburn Theological Seminary ex-1827) and Rhoda (Churchill) Beach, of Stephenstown, N. Y., and Homer, Ohio. Mother, Alice (Allen) Beach; daughter of Diarce Howe Allen (B.A. Dartmouth 1829; Andover Theological Seminary ex-1834) and Sarah (Howe) Allen, of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Marietta Academy; B.A. Marietta 1891 (member Delta Upsilon and Phi Beta Kappa), assistant principal Putnam Military Academy, Zanesville, Ohio, 1891-92; tutor in Greek at Marietta Academy 1892-93, studied in Yale Divinity School 1893-96 (received Dwight Fellowship); studied at Universities of Göttingen and Berlin 1896-97; ordained to Congregational ministry October 19, 1897, at Ashland, Wis., where pastor 1897-1901; pastor Ashland Congregational Church, Ypsilanti, Mich., 1901-1912; during part of the year 1912 preached at Congregational Church, Ann Arbor, Mich.; Ph.D. University of Michigan 1913; professor of English literature at Marietta College since 1913, D.D. Marietta 1911; author, Endeavors after the Spirit of Religion (1912), president Marietta chapter Phi Beta Kappa 1927-29; member First Congregational Church, Marietta.

Married June 8, 1896, in Marietta, Mary Frances Dawes (Ph.B. Marietta 1895), daughter of General Rufus Robinson Dawes (B.A. Marietta 1860), member of Congress, and Mary Beman (Gates) Dawes. Children Alice Mary (B.A. Smith 1920) (Mrs. Marshall W. Murray); David Edwards (Marietta ex-24); Rufus Dawes (B.A. Marietta 1923; LL.B. Harvard 1926); and Betsey Mills (B.A. Wells 1931).

Death due to coronary thrombosis. Buried in Oak Grove Cemetery, Marietta. Survived by wife, two sons, two daughters, three grandchildren, and a brother, Walter Greenwood Beach (B.A. Marietta 1888, B.A. Harvard 1891 and M.A. 1892), of Stanford University, Calif.

James Davies, B.D. 1896.

Born November 21, 1867, in Llanarth, Wales.
Died October 18, 1933, in Wellfield Aberaryon, Wales.

Father, Daniel Davies, a farmer, son of John and Mary Davies, of Llanarth. Mother, Hannah Davies.
Divinity School

New Quay Grammar School, Cardiganshire, Wales; Carmathen College, Wales, 1889–1893 (completed course with honors); then entered Yale Divinity School, ordained deacon in the Church of England June 5, 1898, and priest May 28, 1899; studied at Oxford 1904–06; curate of St. Michael's Church, Festiniog, Wales, 1898–1907; and of Valley Church, Anglesey, 1907–1914; rector of Mallwyd, Montgomeryshire, 1914–1925; vicar of Coedana, Anglesey, from 1925 until retirement in September, 1933.

Edward Russell Evans, B.D. 1899.

Father, Edward VanRussell Evans (L.L.B. Albany Law School 1860); lawyer and later tea merchant; son of Robert and Mary D. (Tucker) Evans, of Piermont, N. H. Mother, Emma (Baldwin) Evans; daughter of George Peters and Lydia (Strickland) Baldwin, of Bradford, Vt.

Boston Latin School; B.A. Amherst 1894 (member Alpha Delta Phi and Phi Beta Kappa), M.A. 1901; principal of Amherst (Mass.) High School 1894–95; took graduate work in psychology at Amherst College 1895–96; then entered Yale Divinity School; ordained to Congregational ministry May 13, 1899, at Redding, Conn., where pastor four years; pastor Plymouth Congregational Church, Rochester, N. Y., 1903–04; Gloversville (N. Y.) Congregational Church 1904–1913; First Congregational Church, Pawtucket, R. I., 1913–1926; and North Congregational Church, Winchendon, Mass., since 1926; Four-Minute Man during the war; moderator of Congregational Churches of Rhode Island in 1923; representative for Rhode Island of Boston Seamen’s Friends’ Society and on state board of its directors; vice-president of Rhode Island Anti-Saloon League; contributed to Homiletic Review, National Republic, and Journal of the American Society for Psychical Research.

Death due to an acute heart attack. Buried in Bradford (Vt.) Cemetery Survived by wife and son.

John Adolph Sherley, B.D. 1906.
[formerly John Adolph Scheuerle]

Born May 30, 1875, in Fontanelle, Iowa.
Died November 2, 1933, in Springfield, Mass.

Father, Rev Gottlieb Frederick Scheuerle (studied theology at School of St. Crischona, Basel, Switzerland); came to this country in 1865, pastor of German churches in Illinois, Nebraska, South Dakota, Washington, Iowa, and Massachusetts; son of Ludwig Frederick and Katharine Barbara (Frech) Scheuerle, of Waugen bei Stuttgart, Germany; Mother, Mary (Sutter) Scheuerle; daughter of Martin and Ursula (Burgin) Sutter, of Baselland, Switzerland.

Academies at Wilton, Iowa, and Mitchell, S. Dak.; B.A. Oberlin 1901, student in Yale Divinity School 1902-06; ordained to Congregational ministry in 1906 at Hartford, Vt., where pastor until 1912; secretary of Bennington County (Vt.) Improvement League 1912-13; organized Hampden County (Mass.) Improvement League in 1913 and its secretary until 1917, organizer also of Eastern States Agricultural and Industrial League in 1917 (later Eastern States League, Inc.), out of which grew Eastern States Farmers' Exchange, Junior Achievement, Inc., and American Home Makers, Inc., and served as secretary and manager 1918-1921; secretary and manager of Service League Foundation since 1921; organizer Royalton Manufacturing Company, Inc., of South Royalton, Vt., in 1922 and treasurer until death; chairman of town and country committee of Massachusetts Federation of Churches 1925-1933; president of New England Town and Country Church Commission 1929-1933; member Faith Congregational Church, Springfield (deacon 1920-23, superintendent of Sunday School 1923-24, and president of Men's Club 1915-17).

Death due to carcinoma of the rectum. Buried in Hillcrest Cemetery, Springfield Survived by wife, sons, and daughter.

Born July 4, 1879, in New Haven, Conn.
Died November 2, 1933, in West Haven, Conn.

Father, Thomas McClelland, gardener; born in Ireland; came to this country about 1873; son of Rev. Charles McClelland, a priest in the Anglican Church in Scotland. Mother, Martha (Stevenson) McClelland; daughter of John and Jean (King) Stevenson, of Glasgow, Scotland, and later of New Haven.

During the period 1895-1900 occupied as a clerk in a drygoods store and in the office of the general superintendent of New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company at New Haven and engaged in the insurance business in New Haven; prepared for college at Phillips-Andover; B.A. Amherst 1907 (member Phi Gamma Delta); studied at Union Theological Seminary 1907-09 and in Yale Divinity School 1909-1910; ordained to Congregational ministry June 23, 1910, at West Haven; pastor Congregational Church, Cummington, Mass., 1910-12; assistant pastor Trinitarian Church, New Bedford, Mass., and director of religious education 1912-14, of United Church (Congregational), New Haven, 1914-15, and of North Avenue Presbyterian Church, New Rochelle, N.Y., July, 1915-January, 1916, pastor First Presbyterian Church, Port Chester, N.Y., 1916-1920, Gilead Presbyterian Church, Carmel, N.Y., 1920-23; First Presbyterian Church, Knowlesville, N.Y., 1923-27; and Center Church (Presbyterian), Windham, N.Y., from 1927 until retirement in December, 1932; moderator of Columbia Presbytery 1928-29.

Married September 27, 1910, in West Haven, Charlotte Sophia Procknow (B.S. Teachers College, Columbia, 1910), daughter of Edward and Joanna (Goessel) Procknow. No children.

Death due to carcinoma of the colon. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven. Survived by wife and two brothers, Charles McClelland, of West Haven, and James S. McClelland, of Orange, Conn.

Henry Pridgen Fleming, B.D. 1929.

Born August 4, 1903, in Grifton, N.C.
Died April 27, 1934, in Lumberton, N.C.

Father, Joseph David Fleming, a farmer; son of Joseph and Martha E (Speir) Fleming, of Greenville, N.C. Mother, Martha (Holton) Fleming; daughter of Cephus and Martha (Pridgen) Holton, of Kingston, N.C.

Greenville (N.C.) High School; B.A. Transylvania 1927; attended College of the Bible at Transylvania 1927-28; then entered the Yale Divinity School; student in Yale Graduate School in economics, sociology, and government 1929–1934; pastor of Christian Church, Lumberton, since March, 1934; member Eighth Street Church of Christ, Greenville.

Married September 9, 1926, in Wilson, N. C., Sally Ann, daughter of James Henry and Charlotte (Moore) Lamm. One son, Henry Pridgen, Jr.

Took his own life. Buried in Lamm Cemetery, Lucama, N. C. Survived by wife, son, and three sisters, the Misses Davey and Agnes Fleming, of Greenville, and Mrs. Tye James Cobb, of Farmville, N. C.
SUPPLEMENT
NOTICES OF DEATHS PRIOR TO JULY 1, 1933
NOT PREVIOUSLY REPORTED

Charles Walker Clark, B.A. 1893.
Born November 3, 1871, at Deer Lodge, Mont.
Died April 8, 1933, in New York City.

Father, William Andrews Clark (student of law at Mount Pleasant University, Iowa; and of mining engineering at Columbia 1872-73); president of United Verde Copper Company, Mayflower, Moulton, and Ophir Hill Consolidated Mining companies, Clark-Montana Realty Company, Montana Land Company, and W. A. Clark & Brother, bankers, at Butte, Mont; president of Montana Constitutional Convention; son of John and Mary (Andrews) Clark, of Connellsville, Pa. Mother, Katharine Louise (Stauffer) Clark; daughter of Martin and Lottie (Hough) Stauffer, of Connellsville.

Became associated with his father in the United Verde Copper Company in 1893 and located for a time at its properties in Jerome, Ariz.; general manager of the company 1904-1922, managing director 1922-25, and president from 1925 until death; president of Clark Holding Company and St. John & Ophir Railroad Company; director of Ophir Hill Consolidated Mining Company, Upper Verde Public Utilities Company, Morris Plan Bank of San Francisco, and Hibernia Savings & Loan Association; also connected with Clark & Montana Realty Company, Montana Land Company, and Los Alamitos Sugar Company; interested in horse racing and maintained a private race track on his estate at San Mateo, Calif.; former president of Golden Gate Thoroughbred Breeders Association of San Francisco; member American Institute of Mechanical and Metallurgical Engineers.

Married (1) June 30, 1896, in Butte, Katherine Quinn, daughter of George Weston and Margaret Louise (Davidson) Roberts. No children. Mrs. Clark died January 26, 1904. Married (2) August 4, 1904, in San Francisco, Cecilia, daughter of Richard and Mary (Regan) Tobin. Children: Mary Cecilia (Baroness de Baeyens); Virginia Elizabeth; Agnes; and Paul Francis. Mr. and Mrs. Clark were divorced in 1925. Married (3) August 22, 1925, in New York City, Elizabeth Wymond Judge, daughter of Gilbert Hodge and Susan Norns (Brasher) Wymond. No children.

Death due to pneumonia. Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York. Survived by wife, three daughters, son, a brother, William A. Clark, Jr. (LL.B. University of Virginia 1899), of Los Angeles, Calif., and two sisters, Mrs. Marius de Brabant and Katharine L. S. C. Morris, wife of Lewis R. Morris (M.D. New York University 1884), both of New York City.

Joseph Essex FitzSimons, Ph.B. 1886.

Born January 12, 1867, in Waterbury, Conn.
Died June 17, 1933, in San Antonio, Texas.

Father, Thomas Laird FitzSimons; president Novelty Manufacturing Company, Waterbury, son of Thomas and Susan (Laird) FitzSimons, of New York City and Waterbury. Mother, Sarah Amaryllis (Essex) FitzSimons, daughter of Joseph and Mary (Leffingwell) Essex, of Killingly, Conn.

Waterbury High School. Dynamic engineering course.

Connected with Novelty Manufacturing Company 1886–1893, as superintendent of finishing department and assistant in office of cost department, studied medicine at Dunham Medical College, Chicago, 1893–96 (M.D. 1896); practiced in Greenville, R.I., 1896–99 and then in Waterbury until summer of 1904, when obliged to give up practice on account of ill health, had since lived in San Antonio; held clerical position with Alamo Iron Works for a time, clerk in Quartermaster’s Department at Fort Sam Houston since 1916; member Trinity Episcopal Church, Waterbury.

Married February 27, 1887, in Middletown, Conn., Annie Maria, daughter of Charles Washburn Church (B.A. Wesleyan 1864) and Frances Antoinette (Newton) Church. Children: Ruth Leffingwell, Wheaton ’22; and Alonzo Morgan.

Death due to myocarditis. Buried in San Jose Cemetery, San Antonio. Survived by wife, daughter, son, three grandchildren, a brother, Oscar S. FitzSimons, of Woodbury, Conn., and a sister, Mary F. Gilson, wife of Emery G. Gilson (M.E. Cornell 1894), of Schenectady, N. Y.

George Clinton Clarke, Ph.B. 1895.

Born September 13, 1872, in Chicago, Ill.
Died February 16, 1933, in Chicago, Ill.

Father, George Clinton Clarke (B.A. Amherst 1858, M.A. 1863), professor of Latin at University of Chicago; in fire and marine insurance business with George C. Clarke & Company; member Chicago Common Council and Chicago and Illinois State Boards of Education; son of Clinton and Eunice B. (Whitney) Clarke, of Boston. Mother, Hette Houghton (Eldredge) Clarke; daughter of John N. Eldredge, of Chicago.

Harvard School, Chicago. Select course; Senior appointment; member Graduation Committee.

Married April 27, 1901, in Milwaukee, Wis., Mary Elsie, daughter of James Frederick and Mary Augusta (Hadley) Wardner. One daughter, Mary Hadley Carol (Mrs. Frederick A. Foord) Mrs. Clarke died February 19, 1924.

Death due to chronic myocarditis. Buried in Graceland Cemetery, Chicago. Survived by daughter, two grandchildren, and a brother, Eldredge Clarke, '06 S.

William Usher Parsons, Ph.B. 1895.

Born October 24, 1873, in Kennebunk, Maine.
Died May 30, 1933, in Birmingham, Ala.

Father, George Parsons; owner and operator of Savannah, Ga., and Sheffield, Ala., street railways; son of William and Mary (Parsons) Parsons, of Alfred, Maine. Mother, Sarah Elizabeth (Eddy) Parsons, daughter of Lucius Junius and Maria Louisa (Pratt) Eddy, of Fall River, Mass. Yale relatives include: Charles Parsons, '78, Edwin Parsons, '88, and Robert W. Parsons, '01 (cousins), and George P. Milmine, '23, and Theodore W. Dwight, '24 (nephews).

Halsey School, New York City, Pennsylvania Military Academy, Chester, and Phillips-Andover. Select course; member Second Banjo Club two years and leader one year, and of Class Book and Dance committees.

Studied law at Columbia 1895–97; clerk in law office of Hornblower, Byrne, Taylor & Miller in New York City 1897–1900; assistant United States attorney in New York City 1900–02; had since practiced law independently there; secretary and treasurer of the Sheffield Company, a street railway company in Sheffield, Ala., 1903–1925, and of Sheffield Cast Iron Pipe & Foundry Company 1905–1920; director of Rome, Watertown & Ogdensburg; Utica & Black River; and Oswego & Rome railroads; attended first Plattsburg Officers' Training Camp May–August, 1917; commissioned Second Lieutenant,
Quartermaster Corps, August 15, 1917; at Camp Upton to December; at Remount Station, Camp Sherman, December, 1917, and Remount Station, Camp Sheridan, January, 1918–July, 1918; overseas July 3, 1918, and on duty at Is-sur-Tille until June 5, 1919; received discharge July 10; served as Secretary of his Class 1910–18 and was a member of the Reunion Committee for several anniversaries; member Yale Engineering Association and Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church

Married September 7, 1897, at Governor’s Island, N. Y., Katharine, daughter of General Henry Clarke Corbin, U.S.A., and Frances (Strickle) Corbin. Children: Katharine Corbin (B.A. Vassar 1924), the wife of T. Hugo Wistrand (LL.B. University of Upsala 1918; LL.D. University of Paris 1922); Edythe Abigail (Bryn Mawr 1927–28), the wife of Vincent L. Rich (B.A. Harvard 1919); and George (B.S. Cornell 1932).

Death due to appendicitis. Buried in Hope Cemetery, Kennebunk. Survived by wife, daughters, son, four grandchildren, two brothers, Henry Parsons (C.E. Columbia University School of Mines 1888), of Kennebunk, and Joseph Parsons, of Lakeville, Conn., and four sisters, Mrs. May P. Dwight, of Kennebunk, Mrs. Charlotte P. Millmine, of Lakeville, Mary P. Coolidge, the wife of John Templeton Coolidge (B.A. Harvard 1879), of Boston, Mass, and Louise P. Ewing, the wife of Charles Ewing (Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1894–97), of Milton, Mass.

Ronald Butts Kelsey, Ph.B. 1912.

Born October 27, 1891, in Orange, N. J.
Died June 9, 1933, in Douglaston, N. Y.

Father, Frederick Wallace Kelsey; president F. W. Kelsey Nursery Company, New York City; son of Henry and Olive Cornelia (Trowbridge) Kelsey, of Ogden, N. Y. Mother, Ella Abigail (Butts) Kelsey; daughter of Henry S. and Adelia (Kiss) Butts, of Waverly, N. Y.

Carteret Academy and Pawling School. Select course; on Class Hockey Team Junior year, member University Debating Association.

Connected with F. W. Kelsey Nursery Company since graduation, as a salesman 1912–15, secretary 1915–17, and vice-president since 1917, also connected with Halsey, Stuart & Company, investment bankers, New York, 1919–1930, as a salesman until 1923 and then as sales supervisor; enlisted May 1, 1917; helped organize an ambulance section and with U. S. Army Ambulance Service at Allentown, Pa., six months; commissioned Second Lieutenant of Ordnance February 1, 1918, went overseas April 22; attached to Aviation Section and stationed at Paris and Orly Field; invalided home September 7, 1918; received discharge June 16, 1919; member Reformed Church of North Hempstead, Manhasset, N. Y.

Married June 1, 1922, in Montclair, N. J., Helen Louisa, daughter of Daniel and Jessie (McGregor) Demarest, and sister of L. McGregor Demarest, '11 S., and D. Douglas Demarest, ex-'15 S. No children.

Death due to physical and nervous complications, from which he had been ill for four years. Buried in Rosedale Cemetery, Orange. Survived by wife, father, and a brother, Frederick T. Kelsey, '07.

Leroy Marion Wolfe, B.S. 1925.

Born November 18, 1895, in Richmond, Ohio.

Died October 28, 1932, in Manila, P. I.

Father, William Martin Wolfe, a farmer; son of John Christian and Ava Catherine (Ebinger) Wolfe, of Willard, Ohio. Mother, Adelia Everett (Vogel) Wolfe; daughter of Frederick Emory and Elizabeth (Mogel) Vogel, of Willard.

Attica (Ohio) High School.

Taught in district schools near his home 1913-15; studied at Ohio State University 1915-18; enlisted as a Cadet in the Air Service September 22, 1917; Private (1st class), Aviation Section, Signal Enlisted Reserve Corps, February 2–October 18, 1918; stationed at first at University of Illinois Ground School and subsequently at Gerstner Field, Ala., and Ellington Field, Texas, and received ratings as air pilot and air observer; commissioned Second Lieutenant, Air Service, October 19, 1918; appointed to Regular Army June 4, 1920; promoted First Lieutenant July 1, 1920; stationed at Bolling Field, D. C., 1920–22; Chanute Field, Ill., January–June, 1923 (took radio course at the Communications School); Bolling Field again 1923–24; special student in electrical engineering in Yale Graduate School 1924–25; in charge of radio development at McCook Field, Ohio, 1925–27; in charge of radio laboratory and development at Wright Field, Ohio, 1927–July, 1931; had since been post radio and signal officer at Nichols Field, Manila.

Married September 20, 1921, in Bridgeport, Conn., Edith, daughter of Thomas Edward and Ellen Marie (Shea) Ryan, of Boston. Two daughters, Ruth Marie and Jean.

Death due to injuries received in an airplane accident. Buried in Arlington National Cemetery. Survived by wife, daughters, mother, a brother, Russell L. Wolfe (B.A. Heidelberg University 1919), and a sister, Ava Wolfe Hamilton, wife of Forest Hamilton (Ohio State University 1912–13).
Seiichi Yamaguchi, M.A. 1900.
Born March 12, 1876, in Kyoto, Japan.
Died January 3, 1931, in Tokyo, Japan.
Graduated at the Doshisha University in 1896, student in Yale Graduate School 1897–1900; after return to Japan engaged in business with Mitsui & Company of Tokyo for some years, later served as managing director of Mogi & Company of Tokyo.
Married. One son, Ryuichi.
Death due to a hemorrhage of the brain. Survived by son.

Robert Barlow Harkness, LL.B. 1899.
Born July 16, 1874, in Elkhorn, Wis.
Died June 15, 1933, in Holladay, Utah.
Father, Robert Harkness; lawyer and judge, Captain in 10th Wisconsin Regiment in Civil War; son of Robert Harkness, of Elkhorn. Mother, Betty Frances (Mallory) Harkness; daughter of Samuel and Jane Frances Mallory, of Elkhorn.
Riverview Military Academy and Phillips-Andover. Entered Yale School of Law in 1897; member Corbey Court; practiced law in Salt Lake City; junior member of firm of Bradley, Pischel & Harkness from January 1, 1907, until retirement; secretary and director Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone Company 1909-1910; treasurer Utah Railway Company 1912-14, secretary 1912-15, and a director 1912-17; president of Welles Horne Drug Store, Salt Lake City, and of Smart Water Company; also engaged in ranching; member local draft board 1916-17, of State Council of Defense 1917-18, and of Chemical Division, Materials Department, Airplane Division, April–June, 1918; attended Small Arms School, Camp Perry, September–October, 1918.
Death due to coronary occlusion. Buried in Denver, Colo. Survived by wife, daughter, sons, and two sisters, Mrs. William G. Sharp, of Dedham, Mass , and Mrs. Ora Harkness Davis, of New York City.

Boyd Freeze Maize, LL.B. 1901.
Born December 29, 1879, in Bloomsburg, Pa.
Died August 29, 1931, in Danville, Pa.
Father, Jacob Henry Maize, a lawyer. Mother, Blanch (Campbell) Maize.
Bloomsburg High School and Bloomsburg State Normal School; attended Yale School of Law 1900-01; admitted to Columbia County (Pa.) Bar 1901; did not practice law but was engaged in insurance business until his retirement 1930; member Bloomsburg Episcopal Church.

Married October 29, 1907, in Pittsburgh, Pa., Edith Behrhorst (Ph. B. University of Chicago 1903), daughter of Henry Frank and Amelia (Gerwig) Behrhorst. Children: Mary Campbell (Ph.B. University of Chicago 1931); and Eleanor Behrhorst (Ph.B. University of Chicago 1933).

Death due to anaemia after an illness of two years. Buried in Old Rosemont Cemetery, Bloomsburg. Survived by wife, daughters, and two sisters, Mrs. Frank Hain, of Altoona, Pa., and Miss Edith Maize, of Bloomsburg.

Hidei Fukuoka, LL.M. 1892.

Born September 21, 1871, in Kochi, Japan.

Died November 27, 1932, in Tokyo, Japan.

Father, Viscount Takachika Fukuoka, former leader of the Tosa barony, Privy Councillor, Minister of Education; son of Yuji Fukuoka. Mother, Toshiko (Shimomura) Fukuoka; daughter of Shozaimon Shimomura.

Peers’ School, Tokyo; came to America in 1887; studied at Roanoke College 1887-89; studied law at Washington and Lee University 1890 and at Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn. (LL B. 1891); graduate student in Yale School of Law 1891-92; returned to Japan in 1892; entered University of Brussels in 1893 and studied international law, politics, and economics (D.Sc P. et A. 1894); then went to Paris for further study; returned to Japan 1895; subsequently a lecturer on international law at the Semmon Gakko Law School (later Waseda University) and professor in University 1898-1903; professor of international law at Tokyo School for Foreign Languages 1900-1919 and at the Gendarmerie Training College 1907-1931; professor of English and law at the Peers’ College 1902-1919; vice-president of Tokyo Y.M.C.A. and of Japan Peace Society; adviser to the Nohi Orphanage, Gifu, 1895-1932; honorary treasurer Association of International Law, Japan, 1902-1932; named Viscount 1919 and in Imperial Household Department service until June, 1923; secretary of Yale Alumni Association of Japan 1904-05 and vice-president 1913; director of the Peers’ Club 1910-1931; trustee School of Japanese Language and Culture 1923-1932; director White Cross Society.

Married June 29, 1897, in Tokyo, Teiko, daughter of Viscount Yoritsugu Sagara, the former feudal Lord of the Hitoyoshi barony, and Nakako Tokudaiji. Two sons and four daughters.

Death due to a liver disease. Buried in Somei Cemetery, Tokyo. Survived by wife, sons, daughters and seven grandchildren.
Taral Terjeson Frickstad, B.D. 1877.

Born January 29, 1847, in Christiansand, Norway.
Died March 4, 1933, in Oakland, Calif.

Father, Torje Anderson Frigstad, a farmer, son of Anders Omland, who lived near Christiansand. Mother, Asjer (Knudsdatter) Frigstad; daughter of Knud Frigstad, of Evje Parish, Norway.

Apprenticed to a cabinet maker in Arendal, Norway, then a ship's carpenter; came to San Francisco 1868 where cabinet maker and stair builder until 1873; attended Golden Gate Academy, Oakland, 1873-74, then entered Yale Divinity School; ordained to Congregational ministry November 8, 1877, at Sargent's Bluff, Iowa, where pastor 1877-78, pastor First Congregational Church, Black Creek, N. Y., 1879-1881, Frewsburg, N. Y., 1881-82, and San Juan, Calif., 1882-83, preached at Scandinavian Mission, Oakland, and worked as a cabinet maker 1884-86; organized and built First Congregational Church, Raymond, Calif., of which pastor 1887-1891, in general carpentry and building contracting business in Oakland 1891 until retirement 1920 except during 1907-09 when he manufactured ladders in Berkeley; president Carpenters Union, Oakland, 1904; member First Congregational Church, Berkeley, Calif.

Married October 3, 1878, in New Haven, Conn., Alice, daughter of George and Charlotte Lucy (Phillips) Nettleton. Children. Walter Nettleton (B.S. University of California 1901); Flora Ornis (B.A. University of California 1905), the wife of Bryant Stillman Drake (B.S. University of California 1902), Ivan Charles; Eugene Theodore (B.S University of California 1915), and Helen Irene, the wife of Guy Fuller Hecox. Mrs. Frickstad died May 7, 1916.

Death due to a fractured hip. Buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Oakland. Survived by three sons, two daughters, and twelve grandchildren.

Harry Denman Smith, B.D. 1921.

Born January 22, 1866, in Hamilton, Mo.
Died January 26, 1933, in Enid, Okla.

Father, Philander Smith, a wholesale and retail merchant of coal and wood, Captain, Company B, 8th Indiana Volunteer Infantry during Civil War; son of Samuel and Parthena (Rowland) Smith, of Hancock County, Ind. Mother, Sarah (Allee) Smith; daughter of Dr. Isaac Reed Allee and Mary Ann (Parkhurst) Allee, of Henry County, Ind.

Kansas City (Mo.) High School; B.A. University of Kansas 1887 (member Phi Gamma Delta); M.A. Transylvania 1903; ordained minister of Church of the Disciples in March, 1887; pastor Olathe (Kans.) Christian Church 1886–1890; Second Christian Church, Kansas City, 1890–91; Eureka Springs (Ark.) Christian Church 1891–93; Marshall (Mo.) Christian Church 1893–95; First Christian Church, Hopkinsville, Ky, 1896–1914; and Central Christian Church, Dallas, Texas, 1914–17; professor of practical theology at Phillips University since 1917; studied at University of Chicago 1919–1920 and in Yale Divinity School 1920–21 (B.D. cum laude); D.D. Eugene College 1920.

Married October 29, 1890, in Olathe, Lucy Marie, daughter of Samuel Andrew and Margaret (Crawford) Christy. One son, Christy Allee (Transylvania 1914–16; Phillips University 1916–17).

Death due to paralysis. Buried in Enid Cemetery. Survived by wife, son, and mother.

James William Boultinghouse, B.D. 1925.

Born March 9, 1895, in Utopia, Texas.
Died February 27, 1932, at Wichita Falls, Texas.

Father, John Franklin Boultinghouse, a farmer; son of James and Julia (Barker) Boultinghouse, of Smithwick and Utopia, Texas. Mother, Martha (Smart) Boultinghouse; daughter of Dock Williams and Mahaa Ester (Proffet) Smart, of Florence, Texas.

Utopia High School and Transylvania Preparatory School; attended Texas Christian University 1916–1923 (B.A. 1921, B.D. 1923); ordained as minister of Church of the Disciples at Utopia in 1916, pastor of Boulevard Christian Church, Fort Worth, Texas, 1917–1921; and North Dallas (Texas) Christian Church 1921–24; studied in Yale Divinity School 1924–25; pastor First Christian Church, Coleman, Texas, 1926–27; Dallas 1927–28; evangelist at Fort Worth and Borger, Texas, in 1928; pastor First Christian Church, Hereford, Texas, 1929–1930, and Duncan, Okla., 1931–32.

Married March 30, 1928, in Borger, Madge, daughter of Isaac Jordan Sparks (M.D. Baylor University Medical College 1904) and Annie Oran (Dennington) Sparks. Children: James Earl and Billy Rene.

Death due to a nervous breakdown. Buried in Hereford Cemetery. Survived by wife, son, daughter, parents, three brothers, Austin, Hubbard, and R. H. Boultinghouse, all of Utopia, and seven sisters, Mrs. Frank Tant, Mrs Townsend Griffay, and Mrs. William Bybee, all of Magdalena, N. Mex., Mrs. Lowia Smith, of Sabinal, Texas, and Misses Ruth, Mattie Lee, and Audra Boultinghouse, all of Utopia.
SUMMARY

YALE COLLEGE

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Class</th>
<th>Name and Age at Death</th>
<th>Place of Birth and Death</th>
<th>Date of Death</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1865</td>
<td>Payson Merrill, 90</td>
<td>Stratham, N. H; New Canaan, Conn.</td>
<td>October 15, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1866</td>
<td>Abner Post, 89</td>
<td>Westfield, Mass., Cambridge, Mass.</td>
<td>April 20, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1867</td>
<td>J. H. Chapman, 89</td>
<td>Nashua, N. H; Sioux Falls, S. Dak.</td>
<td>February 21, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1867</td>
<td>J. H. Tallman, 87</td>
<td>Scotland, Conn.; Hartford, Conn.</td>
<td>June 14, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1868</td>
<td>G. A. Newell, 87</td>
<td>Medina, N. Y., Altadena, Calif.</td>
<td>August 19, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1868</td>
<td>E. K. Rawson, 87</td>
<td>Albany, N. Y.; Brookline, Mass.</td>
<td>February 1, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1868</td>
<td>J. H. Webster, 87</td>
<td>Portsmouth, N. H.; Cleveland, Ohio.</td>
<td>November 25, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>J. S. Chandler, 85</td>
<td>Madura, South India; Kodaikanal, South India.</td>
<td>June 19, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>L. W. Hicks, 88</td>
<td>Charlton, Mass.; Wellesley, Mass</td>
<td>December 23, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>Roderick Terry, 84</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N. Y.; Newport, R. I.</td>
<td>December 28, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>W. H. Welch, 84</td>
<td>Norfolk, Conn.; Baltimore, Md.</td>
<td>April 30, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1871</td>
<td>J. B. Uhle, 82</td>
<td>Philadelphia, Pa.; New York City.</td>
<td>July 9, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>P. P. Beals, 83</td>
<td>Buffalo, N. Y.</td>
<td>April 4, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>F. S. Dennis, 83</td>
<td>Newark, N. J.; New York City.</td>
<td>March 8, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>E. H. Williams, Jr., 84</td>
<td>Proctorsville, Vt.; Woodstock, Vt.</td>
<td>November 2, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873</td>
<td>A. B. Boardman, 80</td>
<td>New York City; Southampton, N. Y.</td>
<td>September 15, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873</td>
<td>W. S. Jones, 83</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; Glendale, Ohio.</td>
<td>January 8, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873</td>
<td>F. J. Shepard, 83</td>
<td>Essex, Conn.; Buffalo, N. Y.</td>
<td>September 5, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>H. W. Farnam, 79</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>June 16, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>H. P. Hatch, 81</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N. Y.</td>
<td>June 15, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>J. S. Wood, 80</td>
<td>Utica, N. Y.; New York City.</td>
<td>July 29, 1933</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| 1875  | H. M. Wright, 81       | New Orleans, La.; Rutherford, N. J. | }
1876  Michael Furst, 77
1876  Thomas Hunt, 78
1877  T. A. Hine, 78
1878  E. W. Blodgett, 76
1878  H. E. Coe, 76
1878  E. C. Johnson, 82
1878  G. S. Palmer, 78
1878  E. E. Reed, 80
1878  C. S. Shepard, 77
1879  Louis Howland, 76
1880  J. S. Harding, 73
1880  C. N. Ransom, 75
1880  D. W. Richards, 74
1880  A. P. Sawyer, 73
1880  F. H. Wheeler, 77
1882  H. S. Griggs, 72
1882  Charles Stillman, 76
1882  E. O. Weed, 73
1883  C. H. Burr, 74
1883  F. W. Havens, 74
1883  L. B. Hillard, 73
1883  G. H. A. Lyford, 73
1883  I. B. Newton, 72
1883  F. D. Shaffer, 74
1883  Everett Smith, 71
1884  C. E. Botsford, 72
1884  G. W. Flowers, 73
1884  H. C. McDowell, 72
1884  H. McM. Painter, 70

Brooklyn, N. Y.
New Orleans, La.; New York City.
New Albany, Ind.; Point Pleasant Beach, N. J.
Fawtucket, R. I.
New York City; Southampton, N. Y.
Washington, D. C.; New Haven, Conn.
Montville, Conn.; Mountain Lake, Fla.
Columbia, S. C.; Baltimore, Md.
Buffalo, N. Y.; New York City.
Indianapolis, Ind.
Wilkes Barre, Pa.; Danville, Pa.
Colchester, Conn.; Auburndale, Mass.
Boston, Mass.; New York City.
Millbury, Mass.; Seattle, Wash.
Montville, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.
St. Paul, Minn.; Olympia, Wash.
Port Richmond, N. Y.; New York City.
Stamford, Conn.; Gardena, Calif
Bloomington, Ill.
Hartford, Conn.; West Springfield, Mass.
Wilkes Barre, Pa.
Cincinnati, Ohio.
Norwich, N. Y.; Los Angeles, Calif.
Cincinnati, Ohio; Lawton, Okla.
Birmingham, Conn.; Seattle, Wash.
St. Charles, Ill.; Elgin, Ill.
Pittsburgh, Pa.; Irwin, Pa.
Louisville, Ky.; Lexington, Ky.
West Haven, Conn.; New York City.

June 27, 1934
October 19, 1933
August 16, 1933
September 27, 1933
July 27, 1933
July 12, 1933
January 23, 1934
July 29, 1933
April 26, 1934
March 26, 1934
July 1, 1933
September 10, 1933
September 28, 1933
July 23, 1933
October 10, 1933
August 21, 1933
November 15, 1933
March 10, 1934
February 19, 1934
February 16, 1934
January 30, 1934
April 17, 1934
June 22, 1934
December 30, 1933
November 20, 1933
May 7, 1934
May 3, 1934
October 8, 1933
March 11, 1934
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>NAME AND AGE AT DEATH</th>
<th>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</th>
<th>DATE OF DEATH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>H. G. Chase, 70</td>
<td>Lakeview, Ill., Chicago, Ill</td>
<td>January 11, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>A. H. Ely, 73</td>
<td>Elyria, Ohio; Huntington, N. Y.</td>
<td>April 26, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>C. E. Harns, 70</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N. Y.</td>
<td>October 12, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1885</td>
<td>G. W. Mallon, 69</td>
<td>Cincinnati, Ohio</td>
<td>December 23, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>F. R. Cooley, 69</td>
<td>New York City, Hartford, Conn.</td>
<td>November 15, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>W. R. Crawford, 68</td>
<td>New Albany, Ind; Lexington, Ky.</td>
<td>September 6, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>C. T. Mathews, 70</td>
<td>Paris, France; New York City.</td>
<td>January 11, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>C. W. Pierson, 70</td>
<td>Florida, N. Y.; New York City.</td>
<td>May 4, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>E. C. Stiles, 69</td>
<td>Hartford, Conn; New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>August 29, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>H. S. Washington, 66</td>
<td>Newark, N. J.; Washington, D. C</td>
<td>January 7, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>L. S. Bigelow, 70</td>
<td>New Hartford, N. Y.; New York City.</td>
<td>August 17, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>R. D. Morse, 69</td>
<td>Newton, Mass; Maplewood, N. J.</td>
<td>August 21, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>Thomas Penney, 74</td>
<td>London, England; Buffalo, N. Y.</td>
<td>November 11, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>H. C. Tracy, 67</td>
<td>Westboro, Mass; New York City.</td>
<td>April 19, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888</td>
<td>E. W. Harter, 69</td>
<td>Utica, N. Y.; Brooklyn, N. Y.</td>
<td>May 30, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889</td>
<td>G. W. Woodruff, 70</td>
<td>Dimock, Pa; Harmsburg, Pa</td>
<td>March 23, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>G. H. Capen, 65</td>
<td>St. Louis, Mo.</td>
<td>January 9, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>R. L. Glisan, 65</td>
<td>Portland, Ore.</td>
<td>May 6, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>Yale Kneeland, 64</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N. Y.; New York City.</td>
<td>December 26, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>H. M. Sage, 65</td>
<td>Menands, N. Y.</td>
<td>September 25, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>E. L. Selden, 68</td>
<td>Hadlyme, Conn.</td>
<td>June 20, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>H. L. Sherman, 62</td>
<td>New York City; Lake Placid, N. Y.</td>
<td>July 11, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>T. G. Adams, 63</td>
<td>Newark, N. J.; Los Angeles, Calif.</td>
<td>July 11, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>J. W. Doane, 64</td>
<td>Thompson, Conn; New York City.</td>
<td>September 25, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>P. E. Fisher, 65</td>
<td>Hopkinton, R. I.; Providence, R. I.</td>
<td>September 16, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>W. R. Moody, 64</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill.; E. Northfield, Mass.</td>
<td>October 12, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>H. L. Pangborn, 64</td>
<td>Jersey City, N. J., West Caldwell, N. J.</td>
<td>May 8, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>H. C. White, 65</td>
<td>Danbury, Conn.; Plainfield, N. J.</td>
<td>June 22, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Year</td>
<td>Name</td>
<td>Age</td>
<td>Location</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>------</td>
<td>-------------------</td>
<td>-----</td>
<td>--------------------------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Woodbridge Riley 64</td>
<td></td>
<td>New York City; Cape May, N. J.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>H. S Bowns, 61</td>
<td></td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y.; Great Neck, N Y</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>W. T. Capps, 62</td>
<td></td>
<td>Jacksonville, Ill</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>W. R. Marvin, 62</td>
<td></td>
<td>Allegheny, Pa.; Wilmington, N. C.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>W. A. Osborn, 64</td>
<td></td>
<td>Cleveland, Ohio.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>E. H. Tracy, 65</td>
<td></td>
<td>Springfield, Mass.; Cleveland Heights, Ohio</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>H. H. Kellogg, 61</td>
<td></td>
<td>Warsaw, N Y.; Brooklyn, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>J. E. Lane, 61</td>
<td></td>
<td>Whately, Mass., New Haven, Conn.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>R. R Lounsbury, 61</td>
<td></td>
<td>Meriden, Conn.; Blue Ridge, N. C.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>W. J. Price, 63</td>
<td></td>
<td>Cleveland, Ohio; Philadelphia, Pa</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>Lindsay Denison 61</td>
<td></td>
<td>Salem, Mass.; Thomaston, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>John MacGregor, Jr 60</td>
<td></td>
<td>Akron, Ohio; Cleveland, Ohio.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>A. S. Peabody 60</td>
<td></td>
<td>Chicago, Ill.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>H. W. Pease, 64</td>
<td></td>
<td>Colebrook, Conn.; Torrington, Conn</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>R C Haldeman, 59</td>
<td></td>
<td>Harrisburg, Pa.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>L. P Hoole, 60</td>
<td></td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y.; East Monches, N. Y.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>C V. Hopkins, 60</td>
<td></td>
<td>Catskill-on-Hudson, N Y.; Coburg, Ont, Canada</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>W. C. Kellogg, 59</td>
<td></td>
<td>Greenwich, Conn.; Augusta, Ga.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>C W. Wells, 61</td>
<td></td>
<td>Baltimore, Md.; Berkeley, Calif.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>T. L. Clarke, 58</td>
<td></td>
<td>New Orleans, La.; Syosset, N Y</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>J. I Lineaweaver 58</td>
<td></td>
<td>Pottsville, Pa.; Martha’s Vineyard, Mass</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>R. L. Evans, 57</td>
<td></td>
<td>Cincinnati, Ohio, Chicago, Ill.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>W. R. Flint, 58</td>
<td></td>
<td>McIndoe Falls, Vt.; Pasadena, Calif</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>L. D. Kellogg, 56</td>
<td></td>
<td>Chicago, Ill.; Pasadena, Calif.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>J D. Carson, 62</td>
<td></td>
<td>Portland, Ore.; Los Angeles, Calif</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>F W. Allen, 56</td>
<td></td>
<td>Walpole, Mass., New York City</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Class</td>
<td>Name and Age at Death</td>
<td>Place of Birth and Death</td>
<td>Date of Death</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-------</td>
<td>------------------------</td>
<td>--------------------------</td>
<td>---------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>C S Brooks, 56</td>
<td>Cleveland, Ohio</td>
<td>June 29, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>W S Coffin, 54</td>
<td>New York City</td>
<td>December 16, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>J S Ferguson, 56</td>
<td>Baltimore, Md, New York City</td>
<td>March 14, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>J H Heaton, 54</td>
<td>Princeton, N J, Wingdale, N Y</td>
<td>September 21, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>G M Shepherd, 54</td>
<td>Minneapolis, Minn, New York City</td>
<td>March 15, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>C B Spears, 56</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill, New York City</td>
<td>May 4, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>W K Williams, 57</td>
<td>Standing Stone, Pa, Washington, D C</td>
<td>April 25, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td>F W Ault, 57</td>
<td>New York City, New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>March 8, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td>Henry Chisholm, 55</td>
<td>Cleveland, Ohio</td>
<td>January 29, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td>C G Pearce, 56</td>
<td>Glendale, Ohio, Forest Hills, N Y</td>
<td>July 19, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td>T S Woolsey, 53</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>July 10, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>W S Creevey, 53</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y, New Rochelle, N Y</td>
<td>August 31, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>Alton Farrell, 54</td>
<td>Ansonia, Conn, New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>March 28, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>Lyttleton Fox, 53</td>
<td>New York City, New York City</td>
<td>April 23, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>C D Miller, 52</td>
<td>Truxillo, Peru, S A, Detroit, Mich</td>
<td>May 7, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>S R Bogue, 54</td>
<td>New York City; Brooklyn, N Y</td>
<td>May 23, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>M C Fitch, 52</td>
<td>Baltimore, Md, Westbury, N Y</td>
<td>September 30, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>J R Robinson, 53</td>
<td>Vilonia, Ark; Little Rock, Ark.</td>
<td>October 6, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>M E Dunaway, 52</td>
<td>Burnside, Calif; Whittier, Calif.</td>
<td>February 7, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>H I Gardner, 51</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y, New York City</td>
<td>September 11, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>A H Olmsted, 50</td>
<td>Stamford, Conn.; Inishbofin, off the Donegal coast, Ireland</td>
<td>December 12, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>A K Porter, 50</td>
<td>Hartford, Conn.</td>
<td>July 8, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>E C Stone, 54</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N Y.</td>
<td>August 24, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905</td>
<td>C F Kerrigan, 51</td>
<td>Walton, N. Y.</td>
<td>May 21, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905</td>
<td>H B Townsend, 53</td>
<td>Orange, Mass; New Britain, Conn.</td>
<td>May 4, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>W E Fay, 48</td>
<td>Denver, Colo, near Deckers, Colo</td>
<td>February 23, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>W S Fisher, 49</td>
<td>Eldred, Pa; Olean, N. Y.</td>
<td>June 9, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>R B Morris, 48</td>
<td></td>
<td>September 16, 1934</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
1908  Douglas Miller, 46
1909  R. O. Hayward, 47
1910  J. C. Townsend, 46
1911  Fisher Goodhue, 44
1913  A. E. Kent, 42
1913  F. A. Stock, 47
1914  V. A. Ackley, 46
1914  Norman Schaff, 39
1915  W. F. Simpson, 40
1917  C. O. Kimberly, 40
1917  C. M. Stewart, 3d, 38
1918  F. B. Armstrong, 37
1918  W. B. McCord, 36
1918  C. R. Wagner, 36
1918  R. B. Whittlesey, 37
1921  J. J. Wall, 35
1923  W. T. Mann, 33
1926  Robert Farquhar, 28
1926  H. L. Lamberti, 29
1927  John Verrill, 29
1931  S. J. Foster, 24
1933  W. J. Harpham, 22
1909  Evanston, Ill.; Bronxville, N. Y
1910  Pelham Manor, N. Y.; New York City
1911  New York City, Massapequa, N. Y.
1913  Chicago, Ill.; Ross, Calif
1913  Preston Hollow, N. Y.; Newark, N. J
1914  Ledyard, Conn.
1914  Jacksonville, Ill.; New York City.
1915  Elm Grove, W. Va.; Las Cruces, N. Mex
1917  Hampton, Va.; Boundbrook, N. J
1917  Baltimore, Md.; Montreal, Que., Canada
1918  Coffeeville, Miss
1918  Bellingham, Wash.; Seattle, Wash
1918  Chicago, Ill.; Pasadena, Calif
1921  Derby, Conn.; Ansonia, Conn.
1923  Bramwell, W. Va.; Washington, D. C.
1926  York, Pa.; New Haven, Conn
1926  New York City
1927  Portland, Maine, Medellin, Colombia.
1931  Bridgeport, Conn
1933  Akron, Ohio, Hartford, Conn
1870  Meriden, Conn.; New Britain, Conn.
1871  Cincinnati, Ohio; Tuckahoe, N. Y.
1876  Bergen, N. J.; Redlands, Calif.
1876  New York City
1878  Lisbon, Conn.; Norwich, Conn.

SHEFFIELD SCIENTIFIC SCHOOL

1870  A. W. Rice, 84
1871  C. H. Greene, 84
1876  H. W. Allen, 76
1876  A. S. Macgregor, 79
1878  W. T. Browne, 77

November 16, 1933
April 17, 1934
March 13, 1934
August 25, 1933
September 2, 1933
June 25, 1934
February 9, 1934
July 18, 1933
March 11, 1934
February 12, 1934
December 20, 1933
December 15, 1933
December 17, 1933
June 8, 1934
September 27, 1933
June 6, 1934
October 29, 1933
October 13, 1933
January 27, 1934
October 11, 1933
September 12, 1933
July 1, 1933
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>NAME AND AGE AT DEATH</th>
<th>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</th>
<th>DATE OF DEATH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td>C S Churchill, 77</td>
<td>New Britain, Conn.; Roanoke, Va</td>
<td>January 25, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879</td>
<td>H E Smith, 75</td>
<td>Hartford, Conn.; Los Gatos, Calif</td>
<td>October 9, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>James Lyman, 71</td>
<td>Middlefield, Conn.; Del Monte, Calif</td>
<td>March 28, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>T C. Johnson, 72</td>
<td>Bridgeport, Conn.; New Haven, Conn</td>
<td>June 4, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>Calvert Townley, 69</td>
<td>Cincinnati, Ohio, New York City</td>
<td>November 27, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>R T French, 69</td>
<td>Seymour, Conn</td>
<td>February 5, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>H L Hamlin, 72</td>
<td>Cincinnati, Ohio; New York City</td>
<td>February 23, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>H B Tuttle, 69</td>
<td>Naugatuck, Conn.; Middlebury, Conn</td>
<td>September 29, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888</td>
<td>J. C. Dann, 66</td>
<td>Buffalo, N. Y.; Los Angeles, Calif</td>
<td>November 5, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1888</td>
<td>J E. Dockendorff, 68</td>
<td>New Britain, Conn.; Hartford, Conn.</td>
<td>April 2, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1889</td>
<td>F. H. Ellsworth, 65</td>
<td>Avon, Conn.; Wallingford, Conn.</td>
<td>November 12, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>W. C. Marshall, 63</td>
<td>Plantsville, Conn.; at harbor of Corinto, Nicaragua.</td>
<td>February 1, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>F. A. Clark, 63</td>
<td>New York City, Old Lyme, Conn.</td>
<td>January 8, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>C G. Voorhees, 62</td>
<td>Wilkes Barre, Pa.; Philadelphia, Pa</td>
<td>July 18, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>H T Stoddart, 63</td>
<td>New York City; Watertown, N. Y.</td>
<td>November 24, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>J E. Campbell, 61</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill.; Joliet, Ill.</td>
<td>October 15, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>L C. Dupee, 62</td>
<td>Viola, Del.; Mount Holly, N. J.</td>
<td>November 16, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>P. W. Carhart, 61</td>
<td>Waterbury, Conn.</td>
<td>October 27, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>P. D. Hamilton, 60</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.; New York City</td>
<td>November 14, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>B. J. Lee, 59</td>
<td>Pittsburgh, Pa.; Connellsville, Pa.</td>
<td>November 12, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>J A. Veech, 61</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>December 25, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>W M. Wright, 61</td>
<td>New York City.</td>
<td>June 12, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>S C. Borg, 59</td>
<td>Troy, N. Y.</td>
<td>January 9, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>H D. Cowee, 60</td>
<td>St. Louis, Mo.; Marion, Mass.</td>
<td>June 11, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>H N Emmons, 60</td>
<td>St. Paul, Minn.</td>
<td>August 24, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>T W. Griggs, 61</td>
<td>Harrisburg, Pa.; Duboistown, Pa</td>
<td>February 13, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>W O Hickok, 3d, 59</td>
<td></td>
<td>September 4, 1933</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
1895  G. H. Southard, Jr., 61
1896  W. G. Penfield, 61
1897  B. C. Chamberlin, 56
1897  B. B. Lum, 56
1898  H. H. Porter, 57
1898  M. B. Yung, 57
1899  H. W. Bates, 57
1899  H. T. Herr, 57
1900  W. E. Dowd, Jr., 54
1900  R. H. Hawkins, 54
1900  L. H. Strouse, 56
1900  R. V. Van Vredenburgh, 55
1901  Henry Pearce, Jr., 54
1902  W. H. Hall, 52
1902  Neil Macneale, 53
1902  H. G. Stevens, 55
1903  E. M. Baker, 53
1903  N. M. MacKay, 51
1903  A. J. Mills, 52
1903  A. H. Stursberg, 49
1904  A. D. Miles, 59
1904  W. J. Mitchell, 53
1907  E. B. Hill, 48
1907  C. M. Thorne, 49
1908  Henry Moakley, 46
1909  R. H. Skelton, 45
1909  K. C. Stadtmaurer, 45
1910  H. H. Logan, 45
1911  C. F. Messinger, 44

Newburgh, N. Y.; Westport Point, Mass.

New Haven, Conn.; Hartford, Conn.

Dalton, Mass.; Bronxville, N. Y.

Chicago, Ill.; Lake Geneva, Wis.

Avon, Conn.; Peiping, China.

Lynn, Mass.; Providence, R. I.

New York City; Greenwich, Conn.

Hawkins Station, Pa.; Pittsburgh, Pa.

New Haven, Conn.; New York City.

Memphis, Tenn.; New York City.

Providence, R. I.; West Hartford, Conn.

Cincinnati, Ohio.

Detroit, Mich.

Chicago, Ill.; Magnolia Springs, Ala.

Pittsfield, Mass.; Noroton, Conn.

St. George, Staten Island, N. Y.; New York City.

Allenwood, Pa.; near Whitemouth, Man., Canada

New Haven, Conn.; near Whitemouth, Man., Canada

New Haven, Conn.; Washington, D. C.

Chicago, Ill.

New Haven, Conn.; Milwaukee, Wis.

August 13, 1933
January 3, 1934
November 10, 1933
October 30, 1933
August 19, 1933
September 11, 1933
July 25, 1933
December 19, 1933
August 14, 1933
October 14, 1933
April 2, 1934
November 16, 1933
March 7, 1934
August 14, 1933
September 5, 1933
February 11, 1934
March 22, 1934
January 10, 1934
November 5, 1933
July 14, 1933
October 17, 1933
June 28, 1934
October 13, 1933
August 28, 1933
August 26, 1933
October 29, 1933
January 2, 1934
April 2, 1934
December 12, 1933

Summary
CLASS NAME AND AGE AT DEATH

1912 L S Hall, 44
1912 J R Piranin, 45
1913 B P Chapman, 42
1913 J R Green, 43
1914 W F Potter, 42
1915 J B Gibson, 41
1916 K L Parker, 40
1917 W W Negley, 37
1928 F. F. Hord, 29
1931 Theodore Brand, 25
1934 J S. Bachman, 23

PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH

Topeka, Kans
Gurun, Armenia, Malden, Mass
Franklin, Mass ; Boston, Mass
Chicago, Ill ; Paris, France
Saginaw, Mich , near Fort Worth, Texas
San Antonio, Texas, New Haven, Conn
St Louis, Mo
Huntington, N Y ; San Antonio, Texas.
Taylor, N Dak , Denver, Colo
Cleveland, Ohio; New Haven, Conn

GRADUATE SCHOOL

Masters of Arts

Cleveland, Ohio; at sea near Manila, P I
Fergus Falls, Minn ; New Haven, Conn
Eastford, Conn ; Hoboken, N. J.

DOCTORS OF PHILOSOPHY

Boulder, Colo.
Brewer, Maine; Chicago, Ill.
Phillipston, Mass.; Middletown, Conn
Belchertown, Mass.; Berkeley, Calif.
Lebanon, Pa ; New Haven, Conn.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Name</th>
<th>City, State</th>
<th>Date</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1865</td>
<td>William Witter, 93</td>
<td>Derby, Conn.</td>
<td>October 16, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>C W. Fitch, 82</td>
<td>New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td>November 29, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>E L. Thomson, 84</td>
<td>Cambridge, Mass.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>C E. Park, 76</td>
<td>New York City.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>S. W. Irving, 73</td>
<td>Lanark, Ill.; Moscow, Iowa.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>C W. Holbrook, 73</td>
<td>St. Croix Falls, Wis.; Bradley, Mich.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896</td>
<td>W F. Penn, 63</td>
<td>South Middleton Township, Pa; Washington, D C</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>J. L. Perkins, 57</td>
<td>Brooklyn, N. Y.; Canton, Mass</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td>E. F. Hamlin, 59</td>
<td>Pottsville, Pa.; Orono, Maine.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>F G Miller, 67</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905</td>
<td>J. F. Baker, 54</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>R. Y. Stuart, 50</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>John Bentley, Jr., 53</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>J. M. Briscoe, 55</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910</td>
<td>R. H. Dana, Jr., 54</td>
<td>Cambridge, Mass.; New York City.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908</td>
<td>F B Grannis, 68</td>
<td>Waterbury, Conn.; Bridgeport, Conn.</td>
<td>April 29, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>R. T. Fisher, 57</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>J. I. H. Downes, 73</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>F G Miller, 67</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905</td>
<td>J. F. Baker, 54</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>R. Y. Stuart, 50</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>John Bentley, Jr., 53</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>J. M. Briscoe, 55</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>J. I. H. Downes, 73</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910</td>
<td>R. H. Dana, Jr., 54</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908</td>
<td>F B Grannis, 68</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
<td>R. T. Fisher, 57</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
<td>F G Miller, 67</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905</td>
<td>J. F. Baker, 54</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
<td>R. Y. Stuart, 50</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
<td>John Bentley, Jr., 53</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909</td>
<td>J. M. Briscoe, 55</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

SCHOOL OF THE FINE ARTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Name</th>
<th>City, State</th>
<th>Date</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>J. I. H. Downes, 73</td>
<td>Derby, Conn.; New Haven, Conn.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910</td>
<td>R. H. Dana, Jr., 54</td>
<td>Cambridge, Mass.; New York City.</td>
<td>November 29, 1933</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

SCHOOL OF MUSIC

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Name</th>
<th>City, State</th>
<th>Date</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1908</td>
<td>F B Grannis, 68</td>
<td>Waterbury, Conn.; Bridgeport, Conn.</td>
<td>April 29, 1934</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

SCHOOL OF FORESTRY

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Name</th>
<th>City, State</th>
<th>Date</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1865</td>
<td>William Witter, 93</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>C W. Fitch, 82</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>E L. Thomson, 84</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>C E. Park, 76</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>S. W. Irving, 73</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>C W. Holbrook, 73</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>W F. Penn, 63</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>J. L. Perkins, 57</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td>E. F. Hamlin, 59</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1911</td>
<td>H. L. Abramson, 48</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1931</td>
<td>J. J. DuMortier, 29</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Name</th>
<th>City, State</th>
<th>Date</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1865</td>
<td>William Witter, 93</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>C W. Fitch, 82</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
<td>E L. Thomson, 84</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>C E. Park, 76</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1881</td>
<td>S. W. Irving, 73</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>C W. Holbrook, 73</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
<td>W F. Penn, 63</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898</td>
<td>J. L. Perkins, 57</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td>E. F. Hamlin, 59</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1911</td>
<td>H. L. Abramson, 48</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1931</td>
<td>J. J. DuMortier, 29</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Summary

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>October 16, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>November 29, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>April 29, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>June 9, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>March 8, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>June 18, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>October 23, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>July 26, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>August 3, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>May 27, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>March 26, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>June 20, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>May 19, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>May 8, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>December 18, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>May 31, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>August 15, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>April 23, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>April 17, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>January 19, 1934</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CLASS</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1867</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1880</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1897</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1916</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1923</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

SCHOOL OF LAW

BACHELORS OF LAWS

PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH

- Catonsville, Md., Chicago, Ill
- Meriden, Conn., Branford, Conn
- Naugatuck, Conn., New Haven, Conn
- Lower Horton, N S., Canada, New Haven, Conn
- Lee, Mass., St. Petersburg, Fla
- Farmington, Ohio, Akron, Ohio
- Hadlyme, Conn.; Richmond Valley, N Y
- New Preston, Conn., Waterbury, Conn.
- Berwick, Pa., Wilkes Barre, Pa
- Nebraska City, Nebr., Hamilton, Mont
- Limerick, Ireland; Litchfield, Conn
- Melrose, N Y.; New Market, N J
- New Haven, Conn
- New Haven, Conn.
- Huntsville, Texas; New York City
- Elizabethgrad, Russia; New Haven, Conn.
- New York City; Tuckahoe, N Y.
- New Haven, Conn
- Fairfield, Conn.
- Boston, Mass., Orford, N. H
- Cesarea, Armenia; New York City
- Bremen, Germany; Rockaway Beach, N. Y.
- Pittsburgh, Pa.; Natural Bridge, W Va
- New Haven, Conn

DATE OF DEATH

- March 12, 1934
- November 5, 1933
- March 27, 1933
- March 19, 1934
- August 25, 1933
- November 28, 1933
- August 5, 1933
- February 28, 1934
- March 8, 1934
- April 25, 1934
- August 22, 1933
- April 10, 1934
- February 3, 1934
- August 23, 1933
- March 5, 1934
- February 3, 1934
- May 22, 1934
- March 18, 1934
- April 10, 1934
- May 16, 1934
- June 11, 1934
- August 3, 1933
- March 24, 1934
- January 23, 1934
1928 A J. Russell, 34
Haddix, Ky., Louisville, Ky. September 17, 1933

1924 D. F. Bobbitt, 40
DOCTOR OF LAW Hillsboro, Texas, Austin, Texas. July 5, 1933

DIVINITY SCHOOL

1877 F. T. Lee, 87
Kenosha, Wis.; Claremont, Calif. June 11, 1934
1882 W. W. Jordan, 76
Fairfield, Iowa; Haverford, Pa. May 27, 1934
1882 F. H. Viets, 79
Granby, Conn.; Waltham, Mass June 8, 1934
1884 C. L. Goodrich, 78
Sedgwick, Maine; Newton, Mass March 18, 1934
1884 A. P. Hall, 74
Black Jack, De Soto Parish, La.; Claremont, Calif. September 13, 1933
1888 C. W. Loomis, 79
Charlestown, Ohio; Leominster, Mass September 26, 1933
1890 E. P. Holton, 70
Hillsgrove, Ill.; Newburyport, Mass. June 25, 1934
1894 J. A. Solandt, 70
Inverness, Que., Canada; Elyria, Ohio April 11, 1934
1895 J. H. Hjetland, 71
Hoyanger, Norway; St. Peter, Minn March 25, 1934
1895 S. J. Katayama, 73
Okayama Prefecture, Hadegi, Japan; Moscow, Russia. November 5, 1933
1895 G. W. Phillips, 66
Chatham, Englewood; New Brunswick, N. J. November 17, 1933
1895 J. W. Rice, 65
Rockland, Mass. September 6, 1933
1896 L. P. Armstrong, 69 Bennington, Vt.; Brooklyn, N. Y. May 12, 1934
1896 A. G. Beach, 63
Marietta, Ohio. January 27, 1934
1896 James Davies, 65
Ilanarth, Wales; Wellfield Aberaryon, Wales October 18, 1933
1899 E. R. Evans, 62
Chelsea, Mass.; Vineyard Haven, Mass. September 7, 1933
1906 J. A. Sherley, 58
Fontanelle, Iowa; Springfield, Mass November 2, 1933
1910 J. J McClelland, 54
New Haven, Conn, West Haven, Conn. November 2, 1933
1929 H. P Fleming, 30
Grifton, N. C.; Lumberton, N. C. April 27, 1934
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>NAME AND AGE AT DEATH</th>
<th>PLACE OF BIRTH AND DEATH</th>
<th>DATE OF DEATH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>C W Clark, 61</td>
<td>Deer Lodge, Mont., New York City</td>
<td>April 8, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886</td>
<td>J E FitzSimons, 66</td>
<td>Waterbury, Conn; San Antonio, Texas</td>
<td>June 17, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>G C Clarke, 60</td>
<td>Chicago, Ill</td>
<td>February 16, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895</td>
<td>W U Parsons, 59</td>
<td>Kennebunk, Maine; Birmingham, Ala</td>
<td>May 30, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1912</td>
<td>R B Kelsey, 41</td>
<td>Orange, N. J.; Douglaston, N. Y.</td>
<td>June 9, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1925</td>
<td>L M. Wolfe, 36</td>
<td>Richmond, Ohio; Manila, P. I</td>
<td>October 28, 1932</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>Seichi Yamaguchi, 54</td>
<td>Kyoto, Japan; Tokyo, Japan.</td>
<td>January 3, 1931</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899</td>
<td>R. B Harkness, 58</td>
<td>Elkhorn, Wis.; Holladay, Utah</td>
<td>June 15, 1933</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td>B. F Maize, 51</td>
<td>Bloomsburg, Pa.; Danville, Pa.</td>
<td>August 29, 1931</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
The total number of deaths reported for the year 1933-34 is 306. The age of the 159 graduates of Yale College averages 63.3, and the age of the 74 graduates of the Sheffield Scientific School averages 56.3. There are also recorded 13 deaths which occurred before July 1, 1933.

The oldest living graduate of the College is

Augustus Field Beard (B.A. 1857), of Norwalk, Conn., born May 11, 1833.

The oldest living graduate of the Sheffield Scientific School is Arthur VanHarlingen (Ph.B. 1864), of Bryn Mawr, Pa., born October 25, 1845.

INDEX

Graduates of the different Schools of the University are distinguished from graduates of Yale College by italic letters as follows: School of the Fine Arts, art, Divinity School, d, School of Forestry, f; Graduate School, ma or dp, School of Law, l or dj, School of Medicine, m, Sheffield Scientific School, s.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>PAGE</th>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>PAGE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1902 l</td>
<td>Abercrombie, William C</td>
<td>233</td>
<td>1903 l</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1911 m</td>
<td>Abramson, Harry L</td>
<td>222</td>
<td>1893</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1914</td>
<td>Ackley, Vincent A</td>
<td>132</td>
<td>1908 l</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1891</td>
<td>Adams, Thomas G</td>
<td>71</td>
<td>1894 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>Allen, Frederick W</td>
<td>101</td>
<td>1899</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876 s</td>
<td>Allen, Halsey W</td>
<td>144</td>
<td>1897 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1901</td>
<td>Arlt, Frederic W</td>
<td>108</td>
<td>1876</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1898 d</td>
<td>Armstrong, Frank B</td>
<td>136</td>
<td>1913 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896 d</td>
<td>Armstrong, Lynn P</td>
<td>247</td>
<td>1867</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1934 s</td>
<td>Bachman, John S</td>
<td>200</td>
<td>1885</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903 s</td>
<td>Baker, Ernest M</td>
<td>183</td>
<td>1901</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1905 f</td>
<td>Baker, J Fred</td>
<td>212</td>
<td>1878 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895 dp</td>
<td>Barnum, Charlotte C</td>
<td>204</td>
<td>1891 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1899 s</td>
<td>Bates, Herbert W.</td>
<td>175</td>
<td>1895 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1896 d</td>
<td>Beach, Arthur G</td>
<td>248</td>
<td>1897</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1872</td>
<td>Beals, Pascal P</td>
<td>17</td>
<td>1878</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907 f</td>
<td>Bentley, John, Jr</td>
<td>215</td>
<td>1900</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>Bigelow, Lewis Sherrill</td>
<td>61</td>
<td>1886</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1867 l</td>
<td>Binswanger, Augustus</td>
<td>224</td>
<td>1895 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878</td>
<td>Blodgett, Edward W</td>
<td>31</td>
<td>1886</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1873</td>
<td>Boardman, Albert B</td>
<td>20</td>
<td>1902</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1924 dj</td>
<td>Bobbitt, Daniel F</td>
<td>239</td>
<td>1907 l</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Bogue, Samuel R</td>
<td>116</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895 s</td>
<td>Borg, Sidney C</td>
<td>166</td>
<td>1910 art</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1884</td>
<td>Botsford, Carl E.</td>
<td>49</td>
<td>1888 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1925 d</td>
<td>Boultongrace, James W</td>
<td>261</td>
<td>1896 d</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Bows, Howard S</td>
<td>79</td>
<td>1895</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1931 s</td>
<td>Brand, Theodore</td>
<td>190</td>
<td>1872</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909 f</td>
<td>Briscoe, John M</td>
<td>216</td>
<td>1891</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>Brooks, Charles S</td>
<td>103</td>
<td>1888 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1878 s</td>
<td>Browne, W Tyler</td>
<td>145</td>
<td>1918 dp</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1915 dp</td>
<td>Bruce, Harold L</td>
<td>205</td>
<td>1900 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910 l</td>
<td>Burney, H Robert</td>
<td>236</td>
<td>1898 art</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>Burr, Charles H.</td>
<td>44</td>
<td>1931 m</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>Cadwalader, John</td>
<td>83</td>
<td>1904</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893 s</td>
<td>Campbell, James E.</td>
<td>159</td>
<td>1903</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>Capen, George H</td>
<td>66</td>
<td>1908 ma</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>PAGE</td>
<td>CLASS</td>
<td>PAGE</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-------</td>
<td>------</td>
<td>-------</td>
<td>------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td>140</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Osborn, William A. 81</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td>163</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Painter, Henry McM. 51</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1876</td>
<td>240</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Palmer, George S. 35</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>97</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Pangborn, Harry L. 75</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>191</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Park, Charles E. 218</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>243</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Parker, King L 197</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>86</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Parsons, W Usher 255</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1877</td>
<td>173</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Peabody, Augustus S. 91</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>45</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Pearson, Clifford G. 105</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>148</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Pearson, Henry, Jr. 186</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>77</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Pease, Howard W. 92</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>251</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Penn, William F. 222</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>136</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Penney, Thomas 62</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>50</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Perkins, George H. 5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>145</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Perkins, James L. 221</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>90</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Phillips, George W. 246</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>184</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Pierson, Charles W. 58</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>182</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Piranin, J. Reuben 194</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>258</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Porter, A Kingsley 121</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>54</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Porter, Henry H. 173</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>139</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Post, Abner 4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>156</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Potter, William F. 195</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>80</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Powers, Josephine H. 238</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>57</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Price, Warwick James 88</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Ransome, Charles Newton 37</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>199</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Rawson, Edward K. 8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>192</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Reed, Edward E. 35</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>186</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Rice, Arthur W. 143</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>237</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Rice, John W. 246</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>115</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Richards, Dickinson W. 38</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>127</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Riley, Woodbridge 77</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>211</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Robinson, J. Randolph 118</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>81</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Russell, Andrew J. 238</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>188</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Ryan, Thomas F. 230</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>74</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Sage, Henry M. 68</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>126</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Sawyer, Alfonzo P. 39</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>61</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>(name formerly Alphonso)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>161</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Schaff, Norman 132</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>197</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Selden, Ernest L. 70</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>7</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Self, James M 229</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>46</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Shaffer, Frederick D. 47</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>161</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Shepard, C Sidney 35</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>120</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Shepard, Frederick J. 23</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>231</td>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Shepherd, George M. 106</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Index

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>PAGE</th>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>PAGE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1906 d</td>
<td>Sherley, John A.</td>
<td>250</td>
<td>1871</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1890</td>
<td>Sherman, Henry L.</td>
<td>171</td>
<td>1900</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1915</td>
<td>Simpson, William F.</td>
<td>133</td>
<td>1894 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1909 s</td>
<td>Skelton, Ray H.</td>
<td>189</td>
<td>1897 l</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1883</td>
<td>Smith, Everett</td>
<td>48</td>
<td>1927</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1921 d</td>
<td>Smith, Harry D.</td>
<td>260</td>
<td>1882 d</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1879 s</td>
<td>Smith, Herbert E</td>
<td>147</td>
<td>1891 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894 d</td>
<td>Solandt, James A</td>
<td>244</td>
<td>1870</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1895 s</td>
<td>Spears, Chauncey B.</td>
<td>107</td>
<td>1918</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>Stadtmiller, Karl C.</td>
<td>190</td>
<td>1921</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1902 s</td>
<td>Stevens, Henry Glover</td>
<td>182</td>
<td>1906 d</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1917</td>
<td>Stewart, Charles M., 3d</td>
<td>135</td>
<td>1886</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886 d</td>
<td>Stiles, Edgar C.</td>
<td>59</td>
<td>1884 d</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1882</td>
<td>Stillman, Charles</td>
<td>42</td>
<td>1878</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1894</td>
<td>Stillman, Leland S.</td>
<td>89</td>
<td>1882</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1913 d</td>
<td>Stock, Francis A.</td>
<td>131</td>
<td>1870</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1892 s</td>
<td>Stoddart, Harry T.</td>
<td>159</td>
<td>1896</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1904</td>
<td>Stone, Edward C.</td>
<td>122</td>
<td>1880</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900 s</td>
<td>Strouse, Louis H.</td>
<td>179</td>
<td>1891</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1906 f</td>
<td>Stuart, Robert Y.</td>
<td>213</td>
<td>1898</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903 s</td>
<td>Stursberg, Albert H.</td>
<td>185</td>
<td>1872</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1908 ma</td>
<td>Sumner, Frederick A.</td>
<td>202</td>
<td>1887 d</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1867</td>
<td>Tallman, James H</td>
<td>6</td>
<td>1900</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1870</td>
<td>Terry, Roderick</td>
<td>12</td>
<td>1865 m</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1874 m</td>
<td>Thomson, E. LeRoy</td>
<td>218</td>
<td>1925 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1907 s</td>
<td>Thorne, Cleveland M.</td>
<td>188</td>
<td>1874</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1886 s</td>
<td>Townley, Calvert</td>
<td>150</td>
<td>1889</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1915</td>
<td>Townsend, Howell B</td>
<td>124</td>
<td>1890</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1910</td>
<td>Townsend, John C.</td>
<td>129</td>
<td>1875</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1893</td>
<td>Tracy, Edward H.</td>
<td>82</td>
<td>1894 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887</td>
<td>Tracy, Howard C</td>
<td>63</td>
<td>1900 ma</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1903 l</td>
<td>Tuttle, Thomas F.</td>
<td>234</td>
<td>1898 s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1887 s</td>
<td>Tuttle, Howard B</td>
<td>153</td>
<td>1900</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
FORMS OF BEQUEST

BECAUSE of the constantly increasing tendency on the part of alumni and other friends to provide for the growing needs of the University by bequests and the many inquiries received each year as to the proper wording thereof, there are given below forms for the convenience of those who plan to remember Yale in their wills.

(GENERAL)

I give and bequeath to Yale University, a corporation existing under the laws of the State of Connecticut, and located in the City of New Haven, in said State, dollars, to be used at the discretion of the Corporation of said University.

(SPECIFIC)

I give and bequeath to Yale University, a corporation existing under the laws of the State of Connecticut, and located in the City of New Haven, in said State, dollars, and direct that the income therefrom shall be used for the purposes following, that is to say

(Here specify in detail the purposes.)

As in some States a bequest for charitable purposes is void unless the will is executed at least a certain length of time (varying in different States) before the death of the testator, and is attested by two or more credible, and at the same time disinterested witnesses, it is advisable to ascertain the requirements of the law in the State in which the testator resides, and to be careful that such requirements are complied with.